10 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. That's my report and those are 12 the words that I did write.

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you. I'll pass the 14 witness.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SEAN COX

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

19 A. Good afternoon.

20 Q. Turning your attention to April 12, 2014.

21 Now, you established on direct examination at some 22 point you went down to the wash by the gate area was your
23 testimony; correct?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. And at some point in time you -- when you get down there,

1 I think you said you saw some people, approximately, give or
2 take, 200 yards away in some sort of a circle, semicircle area;
3 correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. And as time is progressing, there are more people
6 gathering; is that correct? In that area.

7 A. Yes, that's correct.

8 Q. Okay. And at some point in time the crowd begins to move
9 forward towards you. Isn't that right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that crowd comprised of horses; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. People on foot; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Men; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Women; correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Might have even been some children and some dogs in the 20 crowd; correct?

21 A. That is all correct.

22 Q. All right. So, at that point you're still in the -- in 23 the wash, I believe, to the left of that middle truck that you
24 pointed out on Exhibit 157; is that right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And you're scanning the crowd with binoculars.
2 That's your duty, is to just look and perceive and let your
3 fellow officers know what's going on; is that right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. At what point in time did you see these three 6 individuals on the northbound bridge? And I don't need an 7 exact time. I'm sure you weren't looking at your watch, but 8 where was the crowd in the wash?

9 A. The crowd at that point was further -- a little further
10 back, but, again, encroaching. I can't come up with a -- an 11 exact description of where the crowd was in that wash. They 12 were, again, encroaching on us, but over time, they came closer
13 and closer. As I'm looking at these individuals, the crowd
14 isn't pressed up against the fence like they were later in the 15 day, but they were in the washout area under the bridges.

16 Q. Okay. Now, these three individuals, when you first see
17 them, you testified on direct examination that you remembered
18 them having long black guns and vests; correct?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. Okay. And how long did you perceive them before the 21 individual in the T-shirt broke away?

22 A. Again, they were -- based on the equipment that they were 23 carrying, their firearms, their vests, they were people of 24 interest.

25 Q. Sure.

1 A. If you're asking about perceived threat, they -- it's all
2 about what's high alert to me. People that had their firearms
3 holstered on their side, these gentlemen were more of a
4 perceived threat to me due, again, to their -- their accuracy
5 of their -- the potential accuracy of their weapons with the 6 length of the barrel, their superior location in regards to 7 where we were standing.

8 Q. Okay. The question I had asked actually, sir, was, in 9 reference to how long did you perceive them before the 10 individual with the dark T-shirt broke away from the group of 11 three?

12 A. Oh. Possibly 30 seconds.

13 Q. Okay. So you're just looking at them because based on all
14 the things you just said on the prior question, being raised,
15 having long arms, having dark colored vests, you're fixed --
16 fixated upon them for about 30 seconds and then the individual
17 breaks away; correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Okay. And then you follow the individual with the 20 T-shirt.

21 Is that accurate?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Okay. And how long did you follow him for, approximately?

24 A. Again, just the length of his walk across the bridge,
25 which might have been 10 to 15 seconds.

1 Q. Okay. And then you follow him for 10 to 15 seconds and
2 then you scan back to the other two men, that would be the two
3 men with the facial hair?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. And at that point in time you didn't see those two 6 individuals any longer.

7 Is that an accurate statement of your testimony?

8 A. That's correct. I couldn't locate them.

9 Q. Okay. Now, prior to you seeing these three individuals
10 together -- or actually at the time when you see the three
11 individuals together, you never saw them pointing their weapons
12 in your direction; is that correct?

13 A. No. When these individuals have their weapons, they have 14 them slung. Both hands are on their weapons; one is down
15 around the trigger guard, the other is by the barrel, kind of 16 at a low ready, but they never aim their weapon in my
17 direction.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions. Thank you, sir.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

22 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SEAN COX

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. Good afternoon.

25 A. Good afternoon.

1 Q. So you indicated that you wanted to -- or one of the
2 reasons, on the 12th -- or the 11th -- was to de-escalate
3 tensions.

4 Is that what you indicated?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay. And in order do that, I believe on direct, you said
7 that you had -- someone had decided to stop the gathering of
8 cattle; correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. But the -- you were involved in the logistics of 11 moving the cattle?

12 A. My job wasn't to do any type of planning or plan out any 13 type of logistics. There was a potential that I would have to 14 participate in the logistics of moving cattle and government
15 equipment.

16 Q. Okay. So, you don't know what kind of a press release was 17 sent out or anything, if there was one at all; right?
18 Communicating that; right?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You wouldn't have any idea about that. Okay.

21 Now, on the 12th, you indicated that there were two
22 areas that were vulnerable; the I-15 and the underpass;
23 correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay. And that was the two areas that were vulnerable to

1 the ICP and the property -- the federal property that was
2 behind you; correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Including the cows; correct?

5 A. I'm not sure I understand your question, sir.

6 Q. The cows were in the ICP behind you?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay. So, that was part of the protection; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. All right. And now you were part of a SET Team;
11 correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And that's a saturated -- explain what that -- what's that 14 acronym stand for again?

15 A. Special Event Team.

16 Q. Special Event Team.

17 Okay. And that's for crowd control?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. And you were asked some questions on what you carry
20 with you.

21 Do you remember those questions?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And you indicated plastic shields and helmets.
24 What else do you carry with you?

25 A. I could go through my whole uniform.

1 We wear a style of green pants and shirts. We wear a
2 vest on the exterior as well. We'll have helmets with either
3 visors or goggles for eye protection. We can utilize plastic
4 vests. We also have long guns, rifles. We have less than 5 lethal force, which would be pepper ball guns and things like
6 that.

7 Q. Tasers as well?

8 A. That's correct.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm just going through the list.

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Yes? I'm sorry?

13 MS. CREEGAN: I'm still objecting on relevance.

14 THE COURT: He's talking about his equipment. It's 15 relevant to the response. That's fine.

16 He can answer the question.

17 BY MS. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Tasers as well?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Okay. And you indicated pepper balls?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Now, that uniform that you just described is very 23 different than a typical BLM agent; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Now, when you got down there to Post 2

1 underneath -- sort of underneath the southbound, you indicated
2 you were with approximately six other BLM agents?

3 A. No. I'm with six other SET Team members.

4 Q. I see. Okay.

5 A. There's three other BLM agents that are down there at the
6 time.

7 Q. Okay. And you were able to observe the crowd; correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. And you indicated that they were -- at first there
10 was sort of an oval-shaped crowd 2 to 3 hundred yards away --
11 or 2 to 3 hundred people, 2 to 3 hundred yards away?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. They were underneath the northbound bridge, but even 14 beyond that; correct?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And then at some point they move forward; correct?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And this is prior to the horses coming; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And then they stopped before the horses came 21 underneath the southbound bridge; correct?

22 A. My recollection of the crowd's movements with -- in 23 conjunction with the horses is not very clear. I know that at 24 one point the crowd and the horses were moving towards me
25 together. I don't know the unison of how they were moving.

1 Q. Okay. Now, you had a gate up in front of you; correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. At no time did anybody ever, on the other side,
4 breach that gate? They never came over, did they?

5 A. There was a -- there was a time where two individuals in 6 this crowd came up to the gate and attempted to manipulate the
7 gate.

8 Q. Okay. Was that after -- do you know who Dan Love is?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Was that after he arrived at the gate?

11 A. No. That was prior to.

12 Q. It was prior to.

13 Okay. Did they ever breach the gate? Did they ever
14 get through the gate?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we bring up, Brian, 157,
18 please.

19 (Exhibit 157 published.)

20 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

21 Q. Now, you were just asked about this picture on direct
22 examination.

23 Do you remember this picture, just a minute ago?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. So, you indicated that this is the northbound

1 bridge (indicating); correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. And the southbound bridge, these are the pillars of 4 the southbound bridge (indicating); correct?

5 A. That is correct.

6 Q. Okay. These individuals here (indicating), in the middle,
7 they seem to be open without any cover; is that correct?

8 A. That is correct.

9 Q. Okay.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can expand that. Can you
11 expand that, Brian?

12 Keep going just a little bit more.

13 Okay. All right.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. So, the northbound bridge is still there. You've got 16 these one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight different
17 people here in the middle of the wash; correct?

18 A. Are you -- are you talking about the people there in the 19 foreground?

20 Q. These people (indicating) --

21 A. Okay. Thank you.

22 Q. These people right here?

23 A. Okay.

24 Q. These are BLM agents, if you know?

25 A. I'm not sure what their -- all their job titles are.

1 Q. Okay. This person here (indicating), is that -- would
2 that be a SET person? Is that sort of a dress -- person SET --
3 as a dress person, SET?

4 A. That would be a SET Team member.

5 Q. That would be a SET Team member. Okay.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: So, if we could blow that up.

7 So -- thank you.

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. So, I've indicated -- or you've indicated, he's got --
10 this person right here (indicating), he's got the helmet and 11 he's got exactly what you talked about as a SET Team member;
12 correct?

13 A. Yeah. That's correct.

14 Q. Okay. And I would assume that this person is a SET Team
15 member (indicating), this helmet right there; correct?

16 A. Yes. That's correct.

17 Q. This person right there (indicating), SET Team member;
18 correct? Gentleman right there with that thing --

19 A. Possibly. I mean, the only thing that I can identify is 20 the helmet. I'm not sure what other type of protective 21 equipment they have on --

22 Q. Okay?

23 A. -- or any other type of patch or insignia.

24 Q. Okay.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can move it over a little bit

1 to the left -- the other -- the other left.

2 There you go. Stop right there.

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. This person right here (indicating), right up against the 5 gate, he looks like law enforcement?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And he's right up against the gate and the crowd on 8 the other side is right there; correct?

9 A. That's what the picture depicts, yes.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you.

11 Now, you identified three individuals. Did all three 12 of those individuals -- we just looked at one -- had a T-shirt
13 on; correct?

14 A. Yes. Two of them had T-shirts on.

15 Q. Two of them had T-shirts on. Okay.

16 So, when you indicated this superior positioning that 17 they had, as well as the weapons that they had, as well as the 18 equipment, including the vest, two of them did not have any 19 kind of bullet proof vest; correct? That you saw?

20 A. Two of them did have bullet proof vests. Two of them were 21 just wearing T-shirts underneath them.

22 My apologies about the accuracy of that. Two of them
23 were wearing vests. We do not know if they were ballistic.

24 Q. You do not know? You did not know at the time?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And you indicated that you lost sight of two of them;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Nothing further. Thank you, sir.

6 THE COURT: All right. We're going to go ahead and
7 take our overnight break and at this time I do remind the jury
8 that tomorrow we will not be beginning at 9:00 a.m. like we 9 usually do; we'll be beginning at 10:30.

10 So during this overnight break, please do not discuss
11 this case with anyone nor allow anyone to discuss it with you.
12 If anyone should attempt to discuss it with you, you need to 13 let the Court know right away. As always, you can speak to 14 your fellow jurors about other things, but not about this case.
15 And if you inadvertently overhear anything about the case,
16 again, you need to bring it to the Court's attention.

17 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that
18 touches upon this case in any way and do not attempt to perform
19 any independent research or investigation about anything
20 related to this case.

21 And please do not form any opinion until after you
22 have heard all of the testimony, reviewed all the evidence. I
23 will provide to you the legal instructions that will help guide
24 you in how to apply the facts as you determine them to be to 25 the elements of the offenses and then you will hear closing

1 arguments from counsel. After that, I will excuse you to begin
2 the deliberation process.

3 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury and welcome
4 them back at 10:30 tomorrow morning.

5 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: And then, Officer Cox, after the jury
7 exits, then you may also take your evening break and we'll need
8 you back here at 10:30 as well.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

11 (Proceedings adjourned at 5:00 p.m.)

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for jury
6 trial, day 10, in Case No. 2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL, United States of 7 America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelein,
8 and Steven Stewart.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, before we begin, just 10 some preliminary remarks so that everybody is aware of the 11 expectations regarding behavior in the courtroom. Please
12 remember this is not a sporting event. It is a courtroom, which 13 means that any expressions of opinions are not appropriate to be 14 made either verbally nor through body language no matter how 15 much you agree or disagree with what is being said. Likewise,
16 the defendants are not to make any expressions of their opinions
17 nor try to write any notes or communicate with each other or 18 with the jury.

19 We do have the speaker system set up in the holding 20 room on the other side of that door. So if any of the 21 defendants need to be removed, they can continue to hear the 22 proceeding. The proceeding will continue for the rest of the 23 day, but the defendant will be in the holding cell if they 24 cannot comply with these simple and very reasonable
25 requirements. The marshals as well as the court security

1 officers are authorized to remove anyone who cannot comply.

2 So we also have a rule regarding the cell phones,
3 iPads, laptops, any kind of electronic devices. They're not
4 permitted in the courtroom. The attorneys are permitted to have
5 the electronic devices so that they may follow along, prepare
6 for evidence, and present evidence. The court security officers
7 and the marshals are permitted to have their phones for -- to
8 aid them in communications; but, otherwise, none of us -- none
9 of the rest of us are permitted to have any electronic devices.
10 Even if they are turned off or in vibrate mode or in private 11 mode, they're not permitted. There is no recording permitted in 12 Federal Courts, no audio recording nor any video recording.

13 All right. So our microphones are at the table, and we
14 do have the podium angled towards the witness stand. And we do
15 have our witness back today. Is it -- it is not Officer McEwen.
16 I'm thinking of --

17 MS. CREEGAN: Cox, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Cox. That's right. Sean Cox. All right.
19 So we have Officer Sean Cox back with us today. Can we go ahead
20 and bring the jury in? All right. So let's go ahead and do
21 that, Aaron.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

25 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 11:08 a.m.)

1 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
2 seated. Everyone else may be seated as well.

3 All right. We're back on the record. If the parties
4 will please make their appearances on the record.

5 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning. Good
6 morning, ladies and gentlemen. Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and
7 Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

8 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
9 appearing for Steven Stewart. Also with us at counsel table is 10 Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
12 ladies and gentlemen. Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd Leventhal
14 on behalf of Scott Drexler.

15 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, everyone. Shawn Perez on 16 behalf of Ricky Lovelein.

17 THE COURT: Well, good morning, everyone. We're going
18 to now continue with cross-examination of National Park Service
19 Law Enforcement Officer Sean Cox. He's back on the witness
20 stand. Good morning to you as well, sir.

21 And I believe that Mr. Leventhal on behalf of Defendant
22 Drexler, you were just about to begin cross-examination?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, I finished, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You finished. All right. So that 25 means Mr. Perez?

1 MR. PEREZ: There's nothing from Lovelein, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So no cross from -- and the 3 other two had already finished, right?

4 MR. TANASI: We did, Your Honor. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So redirect.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

7 Can we please bring up Government's Exhibit 157. Thank
8 you.

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Officer Cox, yesterday on cross you were asked some 12 questions about the officers standing in the open here in the 13 wash. Do you remember that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. When you were in the wash, were you in the position to get
16 into good cover and concealment?

17 A. No, the only cover that I found that would have been 18 possibly adequate was behind the engine blocks of some of those 19 BLM vehicles. Again, without knowing the exact caliber of 20 weapon that was being used, any type of bullet could travel
21 through the aluminum or steel of those vehicles.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Any recross?

24 MR. TANASI: No recross, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. So if any members of the jury

1 have a question for Officer Cox, please go ahead and write them
2 down in the form provided. Take your time. Write neatly. Try
3 not to use pronouns. Be clear. And we don't need to know your
4 name or your jury number; just your question.

5 All right. Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

6 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

7 THE COURT: So jury note No. 64: At any time you were 8 on scene, were you able to hear the crowd show anything and --
9 shout I think is what it says, shout anything? And if so, what 10 was it that you heard?

11 Any objection?

12 MS. CREEGAN: None from the Government.

13 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

14 THE COURT: All right. Jury note 65 has two questions.
15 The first one is: What does it mean to be commissioned? And 16 the word "commissioned" is in quotation marks.

17 Any objection?

18 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

19 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

20 THE COURT: And the second question is: What is the 21 difference between a commissioned, in quotation marks, agent or
22 officer and a noncommissioned or regular employee?

23 Any objection?

24 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

25 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

1 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

3 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

4 THE COURT: So jury note number -- I'm going to read
5 these jury notes. I'll read the questions, but these are jury
6 questions. So when you respond, Officer Cox, go ahead and turn
7 and face the jury because these are really jury questions; not
8 mine.

9 So jury note No. 64 asks: At any time that you were on 10 the scene were you able to hear the crowd shout anything? And 11 if so, what was it that you heard?

12 THE WITNESS: So in stressful situations like this as a
13 police officer and just as human beings in general you go
14 through something that's called auditory exclusion where 15 eventually only certain things that are really material are 16 what's heard. In this case initially when we first got down
17 there, I heard the protestors and just some of the women that 18 were on the overpass yelling that there were women and children
19 in the crowd. And that's when I really started to scan this 20 crowd, and that's where I wanted to relay to the rest of my 21 teammates that not only were there women and children in the 22 crowd, but there were also armed men with guns kind of walking
23 in and out of that crowd. So that's what I relayed after --
24 that's the only thing I really heard in the beginning.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And jury note No. 65 asks: What

1 does it mean to be commissioned? And then the second question
2 is: What is the difference between commissioned agent or
3 officer and a noncommissioned or regular employee?

4 THE WITNESS: When I say "commissioned," I just mean
5 that I have all of the certifications to be recognized as a
6 full-time police officer. I've gone through the training hours
7 that the Federal Law Enforcement Training Academy and the United 8 States Park Police, which is controlled by the Department of 9 Interior National Park Service, find fitting that I have the 10 correct and enough hours of training that I'm able to make the 11 correct and right decisions when it comes to anything police
12 related, law enforcement related for the most part.

13 THE COURT: All right. And those are the two questions
14 we have. Any follow-up?

15 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Nothing based on that from Parker, Your
18 Honor.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: On behalf of Lovelein, any follow-up?

21 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much, Officer
23 Cox. You are excused. Thank you for coming in again this 24 morning, and please be careful on the way down with the steps.

25 Government may call its next witness.

1 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
2 calls Special Agent Scott Swanson.

3 THE COURT: Good morning, Special Agent Swanson.

4 THE WITNESS: Good morning, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Careful there with the steps, and please
6 remain standing when you reach the seat.

7 SCOTT SWANSON, having duly been sworn, was examined and
8 testified as follows:

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
10 seated. Please state your full name and spell your last name
11 for the record.

12 THE WITNESS: Scott Swanson, S-W-A-N-S-O-N.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. Good morning, Agent Swanson.

16 A. Good morning.

17 Q. Are you currently employed with the BLM?

18 A. Yes, I am.

19 Q. What's your position with the BLM?

20 A. I'm a special agent.

21 Q. Can you explain to the jury just generally what a special
22 agent does with the BLM?

23 A. Sure. Basically a special agent covers long-term
24 investigations. We're kind of the detectives for the BLM. If 25 you equate it to, say, like a sheriff's department, our rangers

1 would be the equivalent of a deputy, patrol deputy, and special
2 agents are the equivalent of what a detective would be for a
3 sheriff's department. That's how I kind of like to explain it.

4 Some of my duties, just a huge variety of long-term
5 investigations, anywhere from Indian artifacts to wild horse and 6 burrow, obviously trespass issues, and a lot of illicit marijuana
7 grows and that type of stuff on public lands.

8 Q. How long have you been a special agent with the BLM?

9 A. Approximately six years.

10 Q. Prior to this position, did you have any other law
11 enforcement experience with the BLM?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And what was that?

14 A. I started as a patrol ranger in the sand dunes down in 15 California, a high recreation use area. And then I became a
16 field training officer as a patrol ranger, and then my last 17 position in uniform with the BLM was as the chief ranger for the 18 State of Utah.

19 Q. How many years were you a ranger with the BLM?

20 A. I was a ranger approximately four years, five years.

21 Q. Prior to all of your service with the BLM, did you have any 22 law enforcement experience prior to that?

23 A. Yes. Yeah. I started my federal career in law enforcement
24 as a United States Border Patrol agent in Yuma, Arizona. So I
25 did that for about four years, and I worked in various

1 capacities for the Border Patrol, mostly just working the
2 border, patrolling the border, but I also did investigations
3 with the Border Patrol as well.

4 Q. And prior to being with the Border Patrol, did you have any
5 other law enforcement or military experience?

6 A. Yes. I served in the United States Army. I started right
7 out of high school in the Reserves and then transferred to the 8 National Guard. And then eventually I received a commission
9 through the ROTC program at the University of South Dakota and 10 went on active duty. So total time in the military was probably 11 approximately seven years.

12 Q. Now, just generally, what training have you received in 13 relation to your various law enforcement positions that you went 14 through?

15 A. So I've been through three academies. So I'm kind of a 16 veteran at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center down in 17 Glynco, Georgia, and also Federal Law Enforcement Training
18 Center in Charleston, South Carolina, where I attended the 19 United States Border Patrol Academy. After that I attended the 20 Land Management Police Training Program at the FLETC, which is 21 short for Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, in Glynco,
22 Georgia. And then most recently I attended the Criminal
23 Investigator Training Program or CITP, which is what most 24 special agents no matter what agency go through, and that was 25 also at Glynco, Georgia. So I've spent about a year of my life

1 in training in Georgia or South Carolina.

2 Q. Are you now and have you been -- as a special agent with the 3 BLM, are you authorized to investigate and enforce federal law?

4 A. Yes, I am.

5 Q. Now, in the course of your position with the BLM, were you
6 involved in an impoundment operation taking place in Nevada
7 April of 2014?

8 A. Yes, I was.

9 Q. And what -- generally, were you providing security for that
10 operation?

11 A. Yes, we ended up acting as a security team for the
12 operation.

13 Q. Were you on duty on the morning of April 12th, 2014?

14 A. Yes, I was.

15 Q. And where did you begin your duties on that morning?

16 A. I began my duties actually the night prior or the day prior 17 on the 11th and just continued through the night and into the 18 next day. And I was at an area that we termed as Post 6, and 19 that was basically -- there was an ICP or an incident command
20 post with several trailers in that. And then kind of behind
21 that further north was where they had the impounded cattle
22 penned up. And so we were kind of behind that because there's a
23 large wash behind that. And so we were covering basically
24 behind where the cattle were penned up.

25 Q. Why were you stationed near the cattle?

1 A. We had received some intelligence reports that there was
2 possibly going to be an attempted incursion that night, and that
3 they were going to try to set the cattle free.

4 Q. And based on your duties, was it your understanding that the 5 cattle were in the custody and possession of the United States?

6 A. Yes. Yes, they were.

7 Q. And was that pursuant to Court order?

8 A. Yes, it was.

9 Q. At some point in the morning of April 12th, 2014, did you
10 move from your position near the cattle pens?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. Where did you go?

13 A. I went down to an area known as -- which was termed Post 2
14 or down in what is commonly known as the wash where the bridges
15 are.

16 Q. And when you say "the bridges," are you referring to the 17 bridges of the I15?

18 A. Correct. Yes.

19 Q. And when you got down to Post 2, what did you do?

20 A. Well, the first thing I did, I went down there with my 21 partner, Special Agent Eric Richardson. Him and I drove down
22 from Post 6 to Post 2 together. Immediately there was radio
23 traffic that we had been listening to all morning that there
24 were -- there was a large crowd gathering under the bridges.
25 There was already officers down there, and those officers were

1 calling for assistance because they were witnessing people that
2 had long guns --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay, foundation.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's I think simply providing
5 an explanation of what he did. So the Government's not offering
6 what he's saying for the truth of the matter so much as for the 7 effect it had on him, why he does what he does next.

8 THE COURT: All right. In that case it's admissible.
9 Overruled.

10 THE WITNESS: So we -- with that in mind, once I got 11 down to the wash, I turned my vehicle around and faced it back
12 toward the ICP area and just parked my vehicle there. There was 13 already quite a few vehicles down there so I didn't take it all 14 the way down. I parked it along the access road, but I turned 15 it around and faced back the other way.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And what was your purpose in facing it back the other way?

18 A. Well, with the radio traffic that we had heard and the intel
19 reports that we were getting through the radio, I -- basically I
20 wanted a quick getaway. I wanted to face my vehicle that way so
21 if we did end up getting overrun by a large crowd, then I could 22 just make it back to my vehicle and get out of there without 23 having to do the 20-point turn to do it.

24 Q. Now, once you parked your vehicle, did you get out?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And where did you go then?

2 A. We -- I walked down toward the first bridge where our
3 officers were stationed down there. And so I walked in that 4 direction, just kind of not really knowing what was going on at
5 that time. So we just walked down in that general direction
6 where everybody was at.

7 Q. And at the point that you were walking down, who were you
8 with?

9 A. I was with Special Agent Richardson at that time.

10 Q. And when you said "the first bridge," are you referring to 11 the southbound lanes of the Interstate 15?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And did you get all the way up to where the frontline of 14 officers were?

15 A. No, we didn't make it that far.

16 Q. Where did you then go?

17 A. There was -- a little further back there was a truck that 18 was more centered in the wash, and that truck had a bunch of 19 officers around it already kind of behind it. And down in 20 the -- in the wash close to where they had erected a temporary
21 fence down underneath the wash under the southbound bridge there
22 was several marked units down there, and it looked like there
23 was a bunch of officers down there as well.

24 So as we were walking up, there was a -- there was a
25 truck. There was a blue Chevy 2,500 pickup truck, extra cab.

1 And it was parked parallel to the bridge this way. If this is
2 the bridge, it was parked parallel to it. And no one was behind
3 it at that time. So we just walked right up to that and kind of 4 took a position of cover and concealment behind that truck.

5 Q. Approximately how far from the southbound bridge was the 6 position that you took up?

7 A. I would estimate probably about 50 yards from where the 8 other vehicles were, the frontline vehicles were.

9 Q. When you got to that location, what, if anything, did you do
10 at that point?

11 A. I took a position behind the front of the vehicle behind the 12 engine block with the vehicle -- the majority of the vehicle was 13 in front of me. And just kind of took a minute to look around 14 to assess the situation and just kind of see what was going on.

15 Q. And what did you see?

16 A. Well, there was a lot going on. So it was kind of 17 overwhelming at first so we just -- I just kind of started
18 looking around. The first thing that I noticed and even walking
19 up I noticed that there were people gathered on the southbound
20 bridge and they were looking down at our officers. And that 21 they were yelling very loudly, obviously very agitated, yelling,
22 you know, cussing and yelling at us, telling us to leave,
23 telling us to get the F out of there, that we were traitors.
24 And so these -- these people had already had the high position
25 above us right there.

1 And the next thing I noticed were people on the
2 northbound bridge -- there was people down in the wash as well
3 and up on the sides, but there was people on the northbound
4 bridge starting to gather as well. And it looked like cars were
5 just kind of parked at various locations. So this -- you know,
6 taking this whole picture in, but definitely this -- the loud,
7 agitated yells and chants is the first thing that I noticed.

8 Q. You mentioned that they had, what you said, the high ground.
9 Can you explain to the jury the significance of their -- the
10 high ground?

11 A. Sure. And in my -- mostly in my military training working
12 around tanks, I mean, the high ground is always the preferred
13 position. So you look, and they had the high ground on the 14 northbound bridge. They had the high ground on the southbound
15 bridge. And basically we were down in a -- in a position --
16 what we call a position of disadvantage, and they were in a
17 position of what I would term a position of advantage.

18 Q. Now, when you were making these observations that you've 19 just described, were you looking just with your eyes or were you
20 using any other tools to help you see?

21 A. Initially there was the -- we were kind of in verbal contact
22 with the vehicle to -- it would be -- if I'm facing the bridge, 23 it would be to my left more centered in the wash. And also the 24 radio traffic that was starting to come over, people were 25 calling out descriptions of individuals that were threats,

1 meaning that they had long arms, that they had body armor. They
2 were calling off that there was people in full what we -- what
3 we term as like battle rattle in the Army or full combat gear
4 with vest carriers, extra ammo, extra magazines.

5 So the -- initially we're trying to -- I was trying to 6 pick up those threats with my naked eye, and then after I picked
7 them up, I would try to use my scope on my rifle to spot where
8 they were.

9 Q. Now, can you explain to the jury what kind of scope you had 10 on your rifle?

11 A. Yes, that day as far as I know down in the wash I was the 12 only one that had an ACOG scope which is -- it's slightly
13 magnified. I think it's three or three and a half times
14 magnified, which your normal eye would see it's magnified three 15 times. So it's not like a scope you would see on a hunting
16 rifle or anything like that, but it is a magnified scope which 17 helped bring things closer in when I looked through it.

18 Q. Were you able to observe the identified threats once you
19 started looking through your scope?

20 A. Yes. There was -- they were calling off threats underneath
21 the bridges, around the pillars of the bridges, and at -- in the 22 wash. And so I would try to pick that up and then bring my 23 scope up. And I would see that threat, you know, generally what 24 they were calling out, people with long guns, people with 25 sidearms, both in civilian clothes as well as, you know, full

1 type BDU, military-type dress.

2 Q. Did you -- at some point did you make any observations about
3 threats that you perceived on any of the bridges?

4 A. Yeah, they -- this became very overwhelming to try to pick
5 up all of these threats that were being called out. And it was,
6 Over to the right, over to the left. And just became too many.
7 I couldn't -- I couldn't keep up with what was going on. And at 8 some point Kelly Cole who was the acting State Chief Ranger at 9 that time came up, and he said, Swanson, you are the --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay.

11 MS. AHMED: Again, Your Honor, it's being offered for 12 the effect it had on him and what he did next; not for the truth
13 of the statement.

14 THE COURT: For that purpose, it is admissible.

15 THE WITNESS: He --

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Can I just stop you there for one moment, Agent Swanson?

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. So on scene who was -- Ranger Cole, what was his role in the 20 wash?

21 A. Ranger Cole was part of the leadership for the entire
22 operation. And I think Special Agent Stover and Special Agent
23 Opper were down there at different times as well, but no one
24 like -- they would just kind of walk by, make sure we were doing
25 okay, and that was just one of those times I think Ranger --

1 Chief Ranger Cole was walking by our location.

2 Q. And what, if anything, did he say to you at that point?

3 A. He said, Scott, you're the counter sniper. You have an ACOG
4 scope. And so you're in charge of being a counter sniper.

5 Q. What does that mean, "counter sniper"?

6 A. So to me it meant that I would look for these long-range
7 threats that -- with people with long guns out at a long
8 distance that were hiding and possibly going to shoot our
9 officers from a long distance. And my job was to try to counter
10 that, basically shoot back if we were shot at.

11 Q. Once you had been given that task, what did you do?

12 A. I told Special Agent Richardson, I said, Man, I'm having a
13 hard time picking up all of these targets. I said, Can you help
14 me find, you know, what you think is the most imminent threat to 15 us? And he had a pair of binoculars as well as his rifle, but 16 he didn't have a magnified scope on his. He just had a reflex,
17 which is just a peep -- it's kind of a scope, but it has a red
18 dot in it. And that's what you use to aim, but it's not 19 magnified.

20 So he used his binoculars. And he said, Man, I just 21 saw these two guys run. They were actually -- I think he used
22 bound -- bound and cover or he used the military term for 23 movement.

24 And they were bounding and covering from what would be
25 the right side of the bridge as we were looking at it to closer

1 to the middle of the bridge.

2 Q. When you --

3 A. On the north side, the farthest bridge away.

4 Q. On the northbound bridge?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Now, once you heard this information, did you follow-up on
7 it?

8 A. Yes, I started scanning that area and I -- as he was 9 explaining where they were or what they looked like, he said,
10 Their heads are just barely sticking up above the Jersey
11 barrier, which is the -- basically the barrier on the bridge,
12 the cement barrier or fence. And he said, They're kind of out
13 by themselves. And I spotted them with my naked eye first, and 14 then I put my scope up. And I said, Okay. I see who you're 15 talking about.

16 Q. And when you observed these two individuals, what did you
17 see them doing at that time?

18 A. I saw them just kind of what I would term peeking over the 19 Jersey barrier. I could just see kind of their heads, maybe
20 neck level or bust level. And then as I kept an eye on them,
21 they both stood up, and I got a pretty good look at both of them
22 at that time. I noticed right away that both of them had long
23 arms, rifles, that appeared to be assault rifle -- an 24 assault-type rifle rather than, say, like a hunting rifle or 25 something like that.

1 And I noticed that the way they were dressed and then
2 the movement that Special Agent Richardson had explained to me
3 just all culminated into me basically watching them as an
4 imminent threat.

5 Q. Now, just going back over what you just said. So you were 6 able to observe what they appeared to have on. Is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And can you describe one by one what you observed these 9 individuals to be wearing?

10 A. Sure. The two individuals -- one of the individuals had a
11 black hat on. It appeared to have like a large square in it. I
12 couldn't see, like, exactly what it said or anything, but it was 13 a black trucker-style hat, kind of like a high -- high-brimmed
14 hat with mesh in the back, that type, like a snap back.

15 He had -- most notably had a long arm, and it was --
16 appeared to be slung in the front like this. We term that like
17 the low ready position. Being slung like this is an automatic
18 threat to me as a law enforcement officer because it's different
19 than having it slung on your back or like a hunter walking
20 through the woods. It's slung out in front, and they're able to 21 bring that weapon up and go to work with it almost immediately.

22 So I noticed that, was hanging it in front of him. It
23 looked to me that he had a black or dark-colored vest carrier.
24 And what I mean by "vest carrier" would be like a vest that's 25 used to hold body armor or ballistic plates, and it's generally

1 worn over a -- over your clothes as opposed to like soft-body
2 armor that police officers generally wear underneath their
3 uniform and you can't really see them. You can kind of see the 4 bulge, but these are, like, worn over the top.

5 I noticed he had a dark-colored beard, sunglasses on,
6 but they appeared to be like shooting-type glasses, like -- like
7 a pilot-type glass rather than like an Oakley or something like
8 that.

9 And then I noticed that he had, like, a plaid shirt or
10 a flannel-type shirt on. And then I couldn't really tell
11 because of the Jersey barrier, but it appeared that he may have,
12 like, jeans on or something. I could just see the top of them,
13 but I couldn't really tell what his pants were.

14 The second individual --

15 Q. Now --

16 A. Oh. I'm sorry.

17 Q. Go ahead. I was going to say the second individual.

18 A. Okay. The second individual had a tan hat on, but it was a
19 totally different style of hat. Like, I call it like a slouch
20 hat where you pull it down, maybe like an old-time baseball hat,
21 something like that. You know, you see them a lot of times
22 tactical hat with like the American flag or something. I don't
23 know if his had anything on the front, but it was a tan hat.

24 He appeared to have facial hair, dark-colored clothing,
25 and what appeared to be a tan vest carrier on top, and then over

1 the top of that he also had a long gun that was slung in the low
2 ready position as well.

3 Q. And when you say "facial hair," do you mean a mustache or 4 beard or both?

5 A. Yeah, I believe -- I believe he had a beard, but it just 6 appeared -- you know, just thinking back, it appeared like he 7 had some facial hair.

8 Q. Now, you indicated that you also observed them moving in a
9 manner that caught your attention. Is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And can you explain based on your military and law
12 enforcement experience the way in which they were moving?

13 A. Yeah, so they didn't stay standing for very long. They took 14 cover behind the Jersey barrier, and I would term it like they
15 were popping up and down. Sometimes they would be like bust
16 high. Sometimes they would go all the way down. And they also 17 split up. So it was like they were covering a bigger distance.
18 The tan-hatted person moved I think more towards the middle of 19 the bridge, and the black hat person stayed kind of in place
20 where I saw him initially.

21 And then they would pop down below the barrier, and
22 they kind of looked like they were covering each other at times.
23 One would be up and one would be down, which is a textbook-type
24 military maneuver. And I watched them do that for a while.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been

1 previously admitted as Exhibit 157?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Agent Swanson, do you see the photograph that's displayed on 5 the screen to your right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And do you see in that photograph the area in which you
8 initially observed these two individuals?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Touching the screen, can you circle where it is that you saw
11 them.

12 And, again, is that the northbound or the southbound
13 bridge?

14 A. That's the northbound bridge.

15 Q. And what was your approximate distance from where they were 16 located when you observed them?

17 A. That day I think we -- I approximated it to be about 200
18 yards.

19 Q. Based on your training and experience, is that a distance
20 from which someone with a long gun could make a shot from them
21 to you?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, improper opinion.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it was offered based on his

1 training and experience.

2 THE COURT: Based on his training and experience,
3 permitted.

4 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has drawn a
5 circle on Exhibit 157 over the pillar on the northbound bridge
6 that is depicted in the photograph.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. And, Agent Swanson, in terms of the whole bridge, where were 9 they when you first saw them in relation to the whole bridge on 10 the -- initially when you saw them? On the right side? Left
11 side? Center?

12 A. Uhm.

13 Q. From your view?

14 A. More toward the right side. It would be above the right
15 pillar of the bridge. I guess it would be from my view like 16 right of center.

17 Q. And directionally would that be the western side of the 18 bridge?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, once you observed these two individuals, what did you
21 do -- well, you had indicated earlier, you described them as an
22 imminent threat. And can you explain to the jury what -- why
23 they were an imminent threat as compared to the threats that you
24 had perceived earlier?

25 A. Well, just looking out and spotting that many people coming

1 to our location as opposed to us going to them or their location
2 or their camp. They came to where we were. And without much
3 fire power it was a constant threat. There was a constant
4 threat out there of what I termed to be a threat of harm to us.
5 You know, there was obviously regular people there. There were
6 people holding up signs. There were people that were probably 7 there to demonstrate our presence there, but there was 8 definitely a constant threat there of people that were armed and 9 that people who had obviously come to do us harm.

10 Now, an imminent threat would be someone that I
11 perceived through my training and experience to be just like -- 12 for lack of a better term, just a heartbeat away from getting in 13 a fight, getting in a fire fight.

14 Q. Once you observed these two individuals, I think you
15 indicated earlier that the individual with the black hat stayed
16 in the area that you originally circled. Is that right?

17 A. Yes, he stayed in that area.

18 Q. Now -- but that the other individual, the tan-hatted
19 individual moved?

20 A. They moved at some point or went down below and just didn't
21 come -- I mean, went down below the Jersey barrier and didn't 22 come up, but eventually I kind of just started concentrating on 23 Black Hat.

24 Q. Now, how were -- when you were in the wash area, were you
25 referring to these two individuals in a certain way?

1 A. Yes, almost immediately for ease of communication between
2 the officers we called the guy with the black hat Black Hat and
3 the guy with the tan hat Tan Hat.

4 Q. And just going back to the description of the black hat.
5 You indicated earlier that it was a black trucker-style hat and
6 that there was something on it. Do you recall anything about
7 what color or shape that that -- what was on the hat?

8 A. It just appeared to be a white square, like a -- I couldn't 9 tell what was on it, but it was a white square in the middle of 10 the hat.

11 Q. So you began to refer to these individuals as what?

12 A. Black Hat and Tan Hat.

13 Q. And you I think just stated at some point you began to focus
14 on one of the two?

15 A. Yes, I began to focus on the black hat.

16 Q. And based on what you had seen of their -- based on your 17 training and experience, did their movements cause you concern
18 for your safety?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Why was that?

21 A. Because of the way they moved, it appeared to me that they 22 had some kind of training and they were probably in 23 communication with each other. So they appeared to be -- kind
24 of know what they were doing.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to objection as to

1 speculation.

2 MS. AHMED: I couldn't hear the objection, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: To speculation when he said that they
4 appeared to know what they are doing.

5 MS. AHMED: I believe that, Your Honor, the question
6 was asked based on his training and experience again.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Now, Agent Swanson, once you focussed on Black Hat, what, if 10 anything, just generally did you see him doing?

11 A. Well, he was -- like I said, he was -- sometimes he was up.
12 Sometimes he was down. Mostly there was -- there was several 13 instances where he -- to me, he became an imminent threat on his 14 own and -- but I observed him kind of moving up. Sometimes you 15 could see his head. Sometimes you couldn't. And he would 16 disappear down below the Jersey barrier.

17 Q. Do you recall -- when you say there was several instances
18 when he became an imminent threat on his own, do you recall what 19 was -- what he was doing during those times?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So can you describe one of the occasions when you believe
22 that he was an imminent threat just on his own?

23 A. Yes. And these aren't in chronological order because 24 time -- time down there just kind of stood still. So when I
25 wrote my report, I did it as I remembered it, but I didn't put

1 any times or anything like that because I -- frankly, I was --
2 it was pretty much just focussed 100 percent up there and I
3 didn't keep track of time. I didn't keep any log or anything
4 like that. I just was focussed on there.

5 So as I wrote the record, I wrote it --

6 Q. Well, not talking about your report specifically, but just 7 your recollection generally as you are on the stand today.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. Can you explain to the jury what you observed --

10 A. Sure.

11 Q. -- on one of those instances?

12 A. So one of the instances I remember the black hat came up to 13 the Jersey barrier. He rested his gun on the Jersey barrier, 14 and it appeared like either the stock or the magazine was 15 resting on the Jersey barrier. And he was using that as a stand
16 for his gun. And he was pointing it -- I felt he was pointing
17 it at me. And so -- and my reaction to that was for me --

18 Q. Can I stop you before you go onto your reaction?

19 A. Sure.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I ask the witness to 21 demonstrate to the jury what he observed that black hat to do?

22 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

23 THE WITNESS: So if -- this is a little shaky up here,
24 but if this is the Jersey barrier, he would have been either
25 kneeling or on one or both knees. He had his gun up here, and

1 he was resting either the magazine or the stock on the Jersey
2 barrier itself. And I could see the barrel of the gun being
3 pointed in my direction.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Now, once you observed --

6 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, can I have the counsel
7 describe for the record what is being seen.

8 MS. AHMED: Oh, yes.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

10 MS. AHMED: Yes. Your Honor, for the record, the 11 witness kneeled down behind the witness stand and placed both 12 hands on the witness stand in what appeared to be holding a
13 rifle and aimed it forward.

14 MR. MARCHESE: And my recollection was that his left
15 hand was placed forward in a cupped position and his right hand
16 was behind his left hand approximately two feet.

17 THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. And, Agent Swanson, I know that was not as articulate as you
20 have explained it, but does that sound accurate?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, when you saw Black Hat do that, what -- again, based on 23 your training and experience, what did you understand his 24 intention was at that time?

25 A. I thought he was going to shoot.

1 Q. Now, when you saw him doing that, then what did you do?

2 A. I pointed my gun or I pointed my rifle, put the -- my scope
3 reticle on him or the best I could on -- basically the only
4 thing I could see was his head. So I put my scope reticle in
5 that area. I took my rifle off of safe, and I took a small bit
6 of slack out of the trigger.

7 Q. Now, in the normal course of your duties if you encountered
8 an individual taking that kind of action, what Black Hat was 9 doing toward you, what is your training and experience -- in 10 your training and experience what are you to do in response to
11 that?

12 A. I would have shot him.

13 Q. Now, on this occasion, on April 12th, did you do that?

14 A. No.

15 Q. And was there something that prevented you from doing that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And what was that?

18 A. Well, at the time the traffic on the interstate was going 19 slowly by. So although I was concentrating on him and my 20 target, I could also see the vehicles passing by behind him.
21 And as law enforcement officers, we're responsible for every 22 round that we fire and we can't just fire arbitrarily. We have 23 to make sure that no one else -- that innocent people aren't in 24 harm's way when we shoot. So I didn't feel that I could take a
25 shot based off of that background and the fact that there was

1 innocent civilians just driving down the highway.

2 Q. When -- so seeing what he was doing, the feeling that you
3 couldn't take any action, did you have any fear for your safety
4 or the safety of the officers around you?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what -- what did you think was going to happen?

7 A. Well, like I explained before, he had the high ground. He 8 was in communication with another person. So I thought that at 9 that time if he shot and started opening up, I was hoping that 10 there would be a chance for me to return fire and that traffic
11 would clear or there was enough break in the traffic for that,
12 but I thought that people were about to lose their life on our 13 side.

14 Q. Now, did you observe -- well, what then did Black Hat do
15 when this was happening? The movement that you just described 16 him doing, what did he do after that?

17 A. He took the rifle off the Jersey barrier and slung it back
18 down into like a front slung position. And then he just kind of 19 ducked down behind the Jersey barrier.

20 Q. And over how much time did this all take place, what you
21 were just describing?

22 A. It was pretty quick. I mean, he brought it up. He had it
23 up there for a few seconds. And, you know, prior to that he had 24 been -- when I saw the weapon, it was like slung up front. So
25 I -- when he brought it up and pointed it, that was totally a

1 game changer. So when he brought it back down, you know, the
2 threat lessened, although I believed that there was still an
3 imminent threat.

4 Q. Did you observe him on another occasion to take action that
5 made you think again that he was an imminent threat?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And at that time what did you see him doing?

8 A. On one occasion he was down again crouched behind the Jersey
9 barrier in what we call furtive, which just is a fancy word for 10 fast basically, a very fast motion. He stood up and he pointed 11 his rifle. Again, I felt he was pointing at me and in my 12 general direction and brought the rifle up to his cheek and 13 pointed it. And that just -- like, very quickly just stood up
14 and pointed the rifle.

15 Q. And, again, based on your training and experience, what did
16 you believe his intention was at that time?

17 A. Again, I thought he was -- he was going to shoot.

18 Q. And what was the impact on you? Did you have an assessment
19 as to your safety at that time?

20 A. Yeah, immediately again, I mean, I felt like my life was in 21 danger or other people's lives were in danger. So immediately
22 again I took the weapon off of safe and again took some slack
23 out of the trigger and got ready for him to shoot.

24 Q. And based on your training and experience, in another
25 setting what action, if any, would you have taken in response to

1 him standing up like that?

2 A. I would have shot.

3 Q. And, again, did you do that here?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Why not?

6 A. Again, there was -- the traffic on the bridge was slow.
7 There was a few breaks here and there, but to take the shot I
8 would have had to time the break in the traffic in between cars
9 and also aiming at him and, you know, pull the trigger.

10 Q. At some point did you assess what your -- did you make an 11 assessment as to your ability to survive this event based on 12 what you were seeing Black Hat do?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what did you think?

15 A. That I was going to die.

16 Q. Did you do anything to come to terms with that assessment?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What did you do?

19 A. I said a prayer and asked God to take care of my wife, my 20 kids, and then I said an Our Father. And then just got back on 21 it, just got back to work.

22 Q. Now, Agent Swanson, we can see that you are emotional as you
23 recount this moment. When you were in the field on April 12th,
24 were you emotional at that time or what was your demeanor?

25 A. It was -- I was emotional. Mostly I was mad that this was

1 happening. I was -- I felt like, you know, there was several
2 things going on. That I was trying to get the highway shut
3 down. I was -- there was -- you know, and because of the 4 backdrop and because this person was pointing the gun at me and
5 I couldn't return fire or take a shot at all, I felt, because 6 there was innocent civilians behind him. And so it was a very 7 frustrating, scary time.

8 Q. Did you -- in spite of that, did you continue to do your 9 job?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now, did you have any other occasion to observe Black Hat
12 take action that you thought made him an imminent threat?

13 A. Yes.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, do you want me to continue
15 or --

16 THE COURT: That's fine.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Go ahead, Agent Swanson.

19 THE COURT: You can go ahead.

20 MS. AHMED: Okay.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Go ahead, Agent Swanson.

23 A. On another occasion I observed Black Hat was again at the 24 barrier, and this -- and at various times there were people
25 around coming up and it appeared they were taking pictures. I

1 remember specifically this time the -- Black Hat went down below
2 the barrier and, you know, I -- just thinking like, What is he
3 doing back there?

4 But this time two female subjects came up to where he
5 was, and I saw them holding up a cell phone or what appeared to 6 be a cell phone like in the classic taking-a-cell-phone-picture
7 pose. And they were taking a picture of right where I saw him
8 go down.

9 And then there was another --

10 Q. So what -- I'm sorry to interrupt you. So then what -- what 11 did you conclude from what you could see that was going on on 12 the bridge about his position, if anything?

13 A. At that point I didn't really have an immediate reaction. I
14 just -- every time he went down, I'm like, I wonder what he's 15 doing back there. And so -- but this time those women start --
16 came up and were taking pictures, which I think people had been 17 doing, but they walked straight up and I noticed they took --
18 were, like, pointing their picture -- their camera or cell phone
19 right where he had gone down that time.

20 Q. Now -- so when other people were -- were other people on the 21 bridge then around Black Hat?

22 A. Yes. The larger parts of the crowd were more towards the 23 ends of the bridge, the east and west -- east and west side of 24 the bridge, but -- so it kind of -- the crowd kind of thinned
25 out as it got down towards the middle where he was at, but there

1 were people milling around pretty much the whole time.

2 Q. And could you clearly see if those individuals you already
3 described had cell phones in their hands?

4 A. It appeared they had cell phones or a camera, but the way
5 they were holding it, it wasn't like where you would hold a
6 camera up to your face. It could have been a camera with a
7 screen that they could see, but they were holding it out in 8 front of them like a self -- not a selfie, but a picture, be 9 like you're taking a picture.

10 Q. Now, when you saw them doing that, what, if anything, 11 happened after that?

12 A. We -- I observed also a male subject to what would have been 13 my right on the west side, and he also walked over. And he
14 appeared to be like a media person or maybe a reporter or a
15 professional photographer. He kind of had like a large camera
16 that had a big strap around his neck. And he brought the camera
17 up also, and the same thing, and started taking pictures as
18 well.

19 Q. Now, did you see Black Hat at that point?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Then what happened?

22 A. And then I thought to myself, Well, he's probably -- maybe
23 he's loading up or something like that. So I put my rifle
24 sights right above the Jersey barrier where I saw him go down
25 last. And then I could see the women just turn around and walk

1 away very quickly. And then almost immediately after that the
2 guy that was taking pictures that appeared to be like a
3 professional photographer, he dropped the camera down and put
4 his fingers up to his ears.

5 Q. And what, if anything, did you think at that point?

6 A. I thought that he was going to pop up and start shooting
7 because usually when someone puts their fingers in their ears --
8 and he could see what he was doing. I couldn't. So I figured
9 he was going to pop up and start shooting from where he was.

10 Q. When that happened, what, if anything, did you do at that
11 point?

12 A. Again, I kept my reticle on the top of the Jersey barrier,
13 just the last place that I saw him go down, and I figured that,
14 you know, he may come up in the same place. So I took my weapon
15 again off of safe. Again, I took a little slack out of the 16 trigger and just got ready for him to come up. And, hopefully,
17 if he was -- if he was to shot, then hopefully I'd have a chance
18 to return fire.

19 Q. Did you feel on that occasion that if he had come up you
20 were in a position to be able to return fire at that point?

21 A. No.

22 Q. And what was the reason at that time?

23 A. Again, the traffic behind him, the fact that he's, you know,
24 right above the Jersey barrier. I'm 200 yards away. And 25 there's traffic still going by, you know, at a fairly slow pace

1 to where I don't -- I didn't feel like -- that I could take a
2 shot and still protect the lives or the safety of the people
3 driving on the highway.

4 Q. Now, during this time, were you able to observe anything
5 that Tan Hat was doing?

6 THE COURT: All right. If we're going to turn over to 7 Tan Hat, then we'll take our lunch break now. The jury is 8 reminded during this lunch break, please do not discuss this
9 case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it with you. You
10 are ordered to report to the Court if anyone does attempt to 11 speak to you about the case.

12 Please do not listen to, review, or read anything in 13 connection with this case. Do not attempt any research or any
14 independent investigation. And please do not form any opinion
15 regarding this case until after you have heard all of the 16 testimony, received all of the evidence, reviewed the jury
17 instructions that I will provide to you. Then you will hear
18 closing arguments, and after that you may begin your
19 deliberation process.

20 So it's 12:04. We'll take a lunch break until 1:04,
21 and then we'll welcome the jury back. So please stand for the
22 jury.

23 And after they exit, Special Agent Swanson, then you
24 may also take your lunch break.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: And we'll need you back here at 1:04 --
2 1:05.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

4 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 12:05 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

6 (Recess taken at 12:05 p.m.)

7 (Resumed at 1:30 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Go ahead
9 and bring in the jury.

10 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 1:34 p.m.)

11 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. Welcome
12 back. Everyone else may be seated as well.

13 All right. We're back on the record after the lunch
14 break. And we have BLM Special Agent Swanson back on the 15 witness stand. Good afternoon, sir.

16 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And we'll go ahead and continue now with 18 direct examination by the Government.

19 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Swanson.

22 A. Good afternoon.

23 Q. Before we broke for lunch, I was asking you about your focus 24 on the northbound bridge. Do you recall that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you had described to the jury what you had observed
2 Black Hat doing?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And at some point when you -- from the time that you first
5 observed them until you stopped watching them, did you see Tan
6 Hat moving his location at all?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And so when you first observed Tan Hat in relation to Black
9 Hat, from your view looking at the bridge, what side was Tan Hat
10 on of Black Hat?

11 A. On his -- on my right-hand side.

12 Q. And then at some point did he move from that side?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And to where did he go?

15 A. He went to my left-hand side and closer to the center of the 16 bridge.

17 Q. And were you able to observe anything else about Tan Hat's
18 movements?

19 A. No, that just eventually he kind of disappeared at some 20 point. And I saw him move one more time away from the area, but 21 I -- no, I don't remember anything.

22 Q. So, again, the majority of your focus was on Black Hat then.
23 Is that right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now, going back to --

1 MS. AHMED: Just to make sure it's clear to the jury,
2 Your Honor, may we publish what's been previously admitted as
3 Exhibit 17, Clip 1?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MS. AHMED: And can we go to 19:25:44, please.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent Swanson, do you see what's on the screen to your
8 right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And do you recognize that as being the area of the wash that 11 you were in on April 12th, 2014?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, can you just show the jury where you were located in
14 the wash.

15 You can touch the screen and draw a circle. And the 16 witness has drawn a circle around the vehicle towards the bottom
17 of the screen.

18 And, again, can you explain to the jury what the 19 approximate distance was between your position and the 20 southbound bridge?

21 A. I approximated it to be about 50 yards.

22 Q. And can you write S on where the southbound bridge is.

23 A. I'm sorry. Can you --

24 Q. Can you write S on the southbound bridge in this picture.

25 So between the circle and the S you approximated that

1 to be about 50 yards. Is that right?

2 A. Yes, about 50 yards.

3 Q. And then can you write an N where you see the northbound
4 bridge.

5 And from the circle, your position, to the N,
6 northbound bridge, what was the approximate distance?

7 A. It was -- I approximated it to be about 200 yards.

8 Q. Now, when you were looking at Black Hat -- during the 9 morning when you were describing to the jury all of the things
10 you saw Black Hat doing, were you always looking through your 11 scope or were you at times looking with your naked eye?

12 A. No, at times I was looking with my naked eye.

13 Q. And what could you see of him with your naked eye in terms
14 of what he looked like and what he had with him?

15 A. I could generally make out his general appearance, his 16 clothing, without the details. And I could make out that he had 17 a long arm slung in front of him.

18 Q. And could you clearly see that it was a rifle?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Could you make out the difference between a rifle and what 21 other people in the bridge had in their hands, if they had
22 anything?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now, at some point when you were looking at Black Hat, did
25 you see him do anything with what he had on him?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What did you see him do?

3 A. At one point --

4 MR. MARCHESE: I'm going to object as to vague.

5 THE COURT: You want to clarify?

6 MS. AHMED: Sure, Your Honor.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. At some point -- at any point did you observe Black Hat do
9 anything to change his appearance in any way?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What did he do?

12 A. He turned his hat backwards.

13 Q. And what, if anything, did that -- did you take from that 14 based on your training and experience?

15 A. That based on my training and experience and spending some 16 time behind a gun, generally if you're wearing a hat, the bill
17 of the hat can interfere with your sight picture on your scope
18 or even an open sight. So when you're shooting, a lot of times
19 just flip your hat backwards so the bill doesn't interfere with 20 the gun.

21 Q. So based on your training and experience, did you believe
22 that he was improving his firing ability?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
25 previously admitted as Exhibit 14?

1 THE COURT: I think you may. I couldn't hear the
2 number.

3 MS. AHMED: 14.

4 THE COURT: 14. Yes, you may.

5 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MS. AHMED: Could you pause it. Pause it about seven
8 seconds -- three seconds. Excuse me.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Agent Swanson, based on your description earlier to the 11 jury, do you recognize the individual, that's been consistent
12 with what you observed on April 12, 2014?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. In the foreground of the picture, which person is that that 15 you have been describing to them?

16 A. Black Hat.

17 Q. I want to -- you described earlier seeing him with some sort
18 of vest on. Is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And it had pouches. Is that right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And I'm circling an item that you can see on the individual
23 in the foreground in Exhibit 14. Do you see that circle?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Can you explain to the jury what's depicted in that circle?

1 A. Those are magazine pouches with what appears to be spare
2 magazines inside them.

3 Q. And just for anyone who might not know about firearms, what
4 are magazines in relation to firearms?

5 A. Simply they just hold the bullets. So you insert them into 6 the gun and they have the bullets in them. Sometimes there's --
7 magazines are bigger than others, but it's what ejects the 8 bullet into the gun after you fire it.

9 Q. So, these appear to be extra bullets. Is that right?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. AHMED: And can we advance forward in Exhibit 14
12 toward the end? Maybe 120 -- yeah, right there.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Agent Swanson, based on your observations on April 12, 2014,
15 is the person that's in -- fully depicted in this picture at 128
16 consistent with anyone that you've been describing to the jury?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And who is that?

19 A. That's Tan Hat.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
21 indulgence?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 (Government conferring.)

24 MS. AHMED: Can we go back to seven seconds in Exhibit
25 14. And play it for a second.

1 (Video playing.)

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now, Agent Swanson, stopped at eight seconds in Exhibit 14.
4 You identified him earlier as Black Hat, this individual that's
5 in the center of the screen. Is this hat consistent with what 6 you observed on April 12, 2014, to be the hat that Black Hat was 7 wearing?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I have nothing further at this
10 time. I'll pass the witness.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Agent Swanson.

13 THE WITNESS: You're welcome.

14 THE COURT: Cross?

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Swanson.

19 A. Good afternoon.

20 Q. My name is Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I got 21 a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay. I want to go back -- if we can take 24 a look please, Brian, at Exhibit 157.

25 BY MR. TANASI:

1 Q. Okay. Sir, do you see Exhibit 157?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. All right. In looking at this exhibit, does this 4 demonstrate at least in part your view when you were in the
5 wash?

6 A. Yes. It's not my exact view, but in part, yes.

7 Q. In part your view. In other words, you're behind the folks
8 that we see depicted here, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And all of these folks here, right, these are all law
11 enforcement folks, fair?

12 A. Yeah. They appear to be, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Now, they're out in the open, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. They're behind you or in front of you, rather, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. The threats that you've described, you said they came 18 from -- from up here, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And from up there they're pointing, the threats that 21 you described, at these folks who are out in the open, correct?

22 A. I don't -- I don't know.

23 Q. You don't know? Okay.

24 MR. TANASI: All right. If we can also look, Brian,
25 please at Exhibit 17 and go back to that 19:25:44 mark.

1 (Video playing.)

2 MR. TANASI: All right. If you could stop it there.

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Okay, sir. If you could just one more time circle where you
5 were located in this picture.

6 Okay. So that picture that you've just circled, that's 7 where you were located on the 12th, right?

8 A. That's the vehicle I was behind, yes.

9 Q. Okay. And that's where I was going. You were behind that 10 vehicle, right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. You were taking cover, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. You used that vehicle I think as you had it -- I have 15 it termed as cover and concealment?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay. But, again, the folks that we just looked at earlier,
18 they were somewhere in this area, correct?

19 A. I'm not sure exactly where they were from that angle.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. They look to be behind the vehicles, but I don't know.

22 Q. Okay. Well, why don't we bring up -- just so we're clear on 23 it, why don't we bring up 157 one more time, please.

24 A. They're behind the vehicles. The vehicles are actually in 25 front of them. So they're back behind from where you pointed

1 out in the open.

2 Q. Okay. So the individual I just circled on Exhibit 157, he's
3 out in the open, correct?

4 A. Somewhat, yeah, but it appears that he has a vehicle in
5 front of him. It's hard to tell with that angle obviously 6 exactly where he is in relation to the vehicles.

7 Q. Okay. Where he is --

8 A. To me.

9 Q. -- in relation to the folks that you identified as threats
10 up here, right, where is he in relation to those folks?

11 A. He looks to be in a bad position.

12 Q. Okay. Fair to say, though, he appears to be in a direct
13 line of sight?

14 A. It's hard -- again, it's hard to tell from that angle; but,
15 yeah, it does.

16 Q. Thank you, sir.

17 Okay. So when you were positioned behind your vehicle
18 in the wash, I want to take you back there, are you with me?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. You're not alone, right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. There's other agents who are with you, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Without telling me their names, how many were there?

25 A. Off and on there's various numbers. Sometimes there was

1 just me and another agent, and sometimes there was four or five.

2 Q. Okay. And some of those agents, in fact, they had body cam,
3 correct?

4 A. I believe so, yeah. I didn't -- I did not.

5 Q. Okay. You didn't, but some of the folks that were close to 6 you while you were down there behind your vehicle had body cam,
7 correct?

8 A. I'm not sure.

9 Q. You're not sure?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. What I want to do is show you a copy of --

12 MS. AHMED: Objection -- go ahead. Are you planning to 13 show body cam?

14 MR. TANASI: Well, I'm going to show him a portion of 15 the body cam, yes.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd ask for a sidebar. I'd 17 object to that and ask for a sidebar.

18 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to sidebar.

19 MR. TANASI: Okay.

20 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

21 THE COURT: Go ahead.

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I objected because from my 23 recollection from the previous trial the body cams that are 24 around Agent Swanson primarily depict the officers -- primarily 25 focus on the officers as opposed to anything that's on the

1 bridges or in the center of the wash and, therefore, it's not
2 relevant. You know, it's not -- this is not a case about the 3 BLM or their positions or what they're wearing.

4 Defendants haven't made any proffer of any kind of 5 defense that would suggest that anything that they're doing is 6 an issue. So it's merely a distraction and it's irrelevant.

7 And so that's -- unless there's some new body cam that
8 I don't know about, all other body cams were either the officers
9 discussions amongst themselves or just what they're wearing and 10 what they're doing.

11 MR. TANASI: So, Your Honor, the body cams that I'm 12 seeking to admit were on the Government's exhibit list in 13 association on that list with this particular witness. So
14 that's where I'm coming from, as far as where I got them.

15 MS. AHMED: But to be clear, Your Honor, I haven't put 16 any body cam evidence in.

17 MR. TANASI: I understand. I just first wanted to 18 start off with the origin of where the body cam come from and 19 then get to how they are relevant. So it was Exhibit 36 and 20 36A. And so just for the record, these would be Defense
21 Proposed Exhibits 5333-A and 5033-B.

22 And these body cams depict this particular agent and 23 his position, pointing weapons up at the bridge. To his right
24 are Special Agent Love, I can't remember which Bundy, one of the 25 Bundy sons, Dennis Michael Lynch walking up and down that area

1 that he to the left is taking cover on. And these other folks
2 are wide out in the open.

3 And the reason that's relevant is because it's a
4 circumstance to the reasonableness, the objective
5 reasonableness, of the officer's fear. And so you have officers
6 who are walking up and down the wash. You have other officers
7 who are taking concealed positions. And so that dichotomy, that 8 conflict, is evidence of what we argue is unreasonable fear in
9 this case.

10 There is -- there are statements on these cameras as 11 well. I would suggest that the statements on these cameras
12 essentially are the same as the Flynn and Ellis issues where we 13 had video that came in of what Mr. Ellis had seen, what he 14 depicted the day, what he was observing. And then those 15 statements were still part of that video, and so we have that 16 situation in this case as well.

17 We have -- we do have reference to, you know, the 18 impromptu church time, which again would be a present sense kind
19 of impression of what's going on. They're laughing. They're 20 joking. Again, that's all relevant to whether or not this
21 particular officer's fear in this case is reasonable when you
22 have some officers who are testifying that they're very scared
23 and they're saying prayers, and you have others who are in the 24 wash and who are laughing and making jokes about Metro walking
25 up and down and getting their shoes dirty.

1 So it's relevant for the purposes of the objective
2 reasonableness of the fear.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I don't think that those
4 qualify as excited utterances. I think that that's merely
5 offered to prejudice the jury against the BLM. I think that
6 basically the officer probably has no idea of those comments
7 because from what he testified to at both trials he was focussed
8 on Black Hat, and right now he wasn't even aware that other
9 people had body cams. I don't know that he even knew who was 10 around him. He does know that at times different numbers of 11 people were around him. He was not a part of the conversations
12 that Mr. Tanasi has referenced.

13 So, essentially, he wants to put things in front of the 14 jury that have no relevance to anything that's at issue in this 15 trial that goes to either a defense or an element of one of the 16 defenses which defendants are charged with.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, he's saying that it's 18 relevant to show the objective reasonableness of the subjective
19 fear that these witnesses are testifying about. So what's your 20 response to that?

21 MS. AHMED: Well, Your Honor, I would say that, first
22 of all, I think we have had testimony in this case and in the 23 previous trial, but in any event, in this trial that there was 24 really no good area to have cover. So for him to proffer that 25 people walking out behind cover is a reflection of those

1 people's lacking fear, I think that that's probably not
2 something that's really -- there's really no good faith basis to 3 say that because we had -- the only evidence we really have 4 about cover is that there was really no great -- you couldn't
5 stay under cover -- in cover.

6 And he doesn't know whether or not those specific
7 people that are depicted in the video have fear or not just
8 because they're not in cover; because he can certainly elicit
9 and he already has through 157 and then just through questions,
10 Were there not other officers who were moving around out of 11 cover, without showing these videos.

12 THE COURT: So are you saying that his proffer is a
13 pretext; that there's already been other evidence that's no
14 different than this?

15 MS. AHMED: Yes, or evidence that would -- evidence as 16 to cover that has come in just through asking witnesses
17 questions, which he could still do and which he did already with 18 other exhibits. So, yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: All right. You said these statements are 21 present sense impressions or excited utterances?

22 MR. TANASI: My position was not they were excited
23 utterances. They were present sense impressions. It was how 24 they were feeling when they were in the wash. And they 25 demonstrated how they were feeling because at times they're

1 laughing. So it's not just the cover issue. It's also the 2 laughter.

3 MS. AHMED: And none of them are Swanson, Agent
4 Swanson. He's not depicted laughing in any of these body cam
5 videos.

6 MR. TANASI: That is correct. The agents that are next
7 to him are and --

8 THE COURT: So it's not this particular witness's
9 present sense impression?

10 MR. TANASI: It's the other witness that are -- the 11 other declarants. It's their present sense impressions.

12 THE COURT: They're not describing what they're seeing,
13 are they?

14 MS. AHMED: Correct.

15 MR. TANASI: Well, they're laughing. Agent Briscoe, he 16 pulls out his camera and talks about, Maybe this isn't the best
17 tactical time for me to do this, and then he takes a picture.
18 They -- as Metro was walking up the -- walking up the wash area,
19 they make a joke about how maybe they, you know, are going to 20 get their shoes dirty. And then at the very end they make a
21 joke about the crowd and say that we should do an impromptu
22 church time. And that's when Ranger Apley, you might remember
23 from the last trial, covers it up at the last minute with his 24 hand.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just in response to that -- I'm

1 sorry.

2 MR. TANASI: No, but --

3 MS. AHMED: In response to those I would say, A, with 4 respect to Ranger Briscoe, Agent Swanson isn't even anywhere
5 near him. So that portion of the video is when the person who
6 is wearing the body cam is further back away from Agent Swanson.
7 So it's nothing he even saw. But, secondly, they weren't
8 talking about what Agent Swanson was seeing. It has nothing to 9 do with what he was observing. And I don't even know that it's 10 clear that they're making a joke about the church thing.

11 THE COURT: All right. So can you play the video
12 without the sound?

13 MR. TANASI: If that's the Court's ruling, I can do it
14 that way.

15 THE COURT: All right. And so -- because I'm not 16 seeing any exception to the hearsay rule. It's not a present
17 sense impression just because there are voices on there talking
18 about things. Present sense impressions require more than that.

19 As to the relevance question, so what is the portion of 20 that if it were to be played without the sound?

21 MR. TANASI: Sure, and I can -- understanding the 22 Court's ruling, that would essentially do away with 36, which is 23 actually now Defense Exhibit 5033-A. I wouldn't -- if I
24 understand the Court's ruling, I wouldn't be able to get into 25 that one because that was more for the conversations.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. TANASI: Doesn't have the cover issue necessarily
3 in that one. The other, 5033-B, that one is a three-minute
4 video. We could play it. I would ask to play it in its
5 entirety and play it muted. And that's the one where again you
6 have Special Agent Love walking up to the gate, and he has
7 Michael Lynch with him, another two individuals with him. Their 8 backs are to the folks that are up on the bridge pointing
9 weapons. And so that would be the one that I guess I would 10 offer to play in its entirety for three minutes to demonstrate 11 that, and on mute.

12 THE COURT: How is that admissible with this witness,
13 though? Is this witness there?

14 MR. TANASI: He is right next to them. This is the 15 one, Your Honor, where he is -- there are two. And this is the 16 one that I'm offering where it's depicted in the video. You see
17 Agent Swanson. He's right there, and then to the right of him
18 is the bed end of the truck. To the right of that is where 19 Special Agent In Charge Love is coming up and down the wash.
20 These are all things that he would see.

21 MS. AHMED: Your honor, actually --

22 MR. TANASI: Because in his position he's looking this 23 way, and these folks come walking around the side of him and 24 come up in front of him, turn around, and then come back. These 25 are all things he would have seen because he's right in the

1 picture on the left-hand side.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I don't -- my recollection from
3 Agent Swanson from his testimony was he didn't go into seeing
4 Special Agent Love or anybody walking with him in this trial.
5 And in the last trial I don't believe he saw him approach. I
6 know that he knew at some point he was at the gate and at some 7 point he was gone.

8 THE COURT: He's testified numerous times that his eyes
9 are trained on his scope sight looking at the folks that are up
10 on the bridge because on and off at least three times he sees
11 them pointing at him.

12 MS. AHMED: I believe he knew that Love had come to the 13 gate at some point, but he didn't see it -- the entry or exit.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Actually, the testimony from the last 15 trial was that he did, in fact, see him. I believe there was 16 some kind of a nod or something like that was his testimony.

17 MS. AHMED: Oh, that was on the approach; not on the 18 leaving.

19 MR. MARCHESE: I'm saying that he saw him.

20 MS. AHMED: But he did not see him leave.

21 THE COURT: All right. So you want to show the --

22 MR. TANASI: Three minute --

23 THE COURT: -- the video.

24 MR. TANASI: On mute.

25 THE COURT: On mute.

1 MR. TANASI: If I'm understanding the Court's --

2 THE COURT: To ask him if that's a fair depiction of
3 the area of where he's in or something to that effect?

4 MR. TANASI: Correct.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And so then what would the line of 6 questioning -- would that be just only as to whether those folks
7 are in clear view or not in hiding?

8 MR. TANASI: That's it.

9 THE COURT: Or not taking cover?

10 MR. TANASI: My understanding of the Court's ruling,
11 that's all I would get into is just, Do you see them? They're 12 walking. They're walking back. And then I'd move on.

13 THE COURT: All right. So I'll permit you to do that.
14 And you said that's 5033-B?

15 MR. TANASI: 5033-B, yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

17 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

19 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

20 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was sustained 21 in part and overruled in part. And, Mr. Tanasi, on behalf of 22 Mr. Stewart you may continue consistent with the Court's ruling.

23 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you, Your Honor.

24 Brian, if we could please pull up just for the witness
25 only Defense Proposed Exhibit 5033-B.

1 (Video playing.)

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. If you can stop it there, Brian.

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Okay. Agent Swanson, is this a picture of you that I'm 5 circling, kind of the portion here off to the left?

6 A. Yes, it is.

7 Q. Okay. And then to the right we have other agents, without 8 giving me their name, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And then to the right there, do you see -- what do
11 you see?

12 A. The wash.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'd move to admit Defense
15 Exhibit 5033-B and publish it.

16 THE COURT: You can ask him if it's a fair and accurate
17 depiction.

18 MR. TANASI: I apologize.

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Is this a fair and accurate depiction of what you saw and 21 where you were on April 12, 2014?

22 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. This is not -- this 23 is one scene in a three-minute video. I would ask that the 24 witness be allowed to see the whole thing.

25 THE COURT: Well, he doesn't have to watch the whole

1 thing if we are not going to see the whole thing. How much of
2 it are you going to play?

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I didn't intend to play the 4 whole thing from start to finish.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Well, whichever part you intend to 6 play, go ahead and show it to him to make sure that all of that 7 is something that's in his purview and not behind him or 8 somewhere else.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you, Your Honor.
10 Brian, if you could go ahead and play that, please.

11 (Video playing.)

12 MR. TANASI: All right. If you could stop there,
13 Brian.

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. What we've watched so far, is that a fair and accurate
16 depiction of what you saw on April 12th, 2014?

17 A. That's not -- that's not my view, if that's what you mean.
18 I mean, that's where I was standing. That's -- that is where I
19 was standing and that's the vehicle that I was behind, but 20 obviously that's not my view. I was looking over the hood.

21 Q. Circling this bridge here, was that part of your view, sir?

22 A. It was, yes.

23 Q. Okay. Circling this bridge over here, sir, this part of the 24 bridge, was that part of your view, sir?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Circling over here kind of in front of those agents,
2 would that be part of your view, sir?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Circling this wash area here -- and why don't we do
5 this. I'll do it even cleaner. Circling from here over, that 6 wash area to the right, is that part of your view, sir?

7 A. Yeah. I mean, assuming that the wash is beyond there, yes.

8 Q. Would there be something else that was beyond there?

9 A. Well, you're circling the agents so --

10 Q. I understand. Behind the agents?

11 A. Yes, the wash is there.

12 Q. Understood.

13 And in that wash area, these folks that I'm circling
14 here, they came from that wash area, fair?

15 A. Yeah. Yes.

16 Q. So is this a fair and accurate depiction of what you saw on 17 April 12, 2014, sir?

18 A. I didn't see them right there; but, yeah, it's -- where --
19 all of those places you circled, I could see, yes.

20 Q. Okay. All right.

21 MR. TANASI: If we could continue to play it, please.

22 (Video playing.)

23 MR. TANASI: Stop it there, please.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Sir, again, is this you depicted still?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Right here?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. And we have agents who are kind of walking around
5 behind you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with those agents being there on
8 April 12th, 2014?

9 A. Just peripherally, yes.

10 Q. Peripherally, but --

11 A. Yeah, I don't know who -- actually, I never saw the --
12 whoever the body cam's coming from, I didn't see that person.

13 Q. Okay. But what the body cam is depicting, is it fair and 14 accurate?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Fair and accurate depiction of what you were looking at and 17 what you were seeing on the 12th?

18 A. No.

19 Q. This portion is not?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MR. TANASI: Brian, play it.

23 (Video playing.)

24 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could speed it up just a
25 little. Okay.

1 All right. If we could, Brian, just go back to the
2 very beginning and play it, please, about 50 -- play it about 25
3 seconds in, please. Just move it along 45 seconds in.

4 (Video playing.)

5 MR. TANASI: Okay. Stop there.

6 All right. Your Honor, Defense would move to admit
7 Defense Proposed Exhibit 5033-B from the zero to 20 second mark.

8 THE COURT: Any objection to the admission of Exhibit
9 5033-B from zero to the 22 second mark?

10 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 5033-B will be 12 admitted from zero to the 22 second mark.

13 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. If we could 14 publish that, please.

15 THE COURT: Yes you may.

16 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

17 (Defense Exhibit 5033-B from the zero to 22 second mark 18 is admitted.)

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Okay, sir. Circling this individual over here, that's you,
21 correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. All right. These are other law enforcement agents, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. This is the southbound bridge that I'm circling right here,

1 correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Okay. And back here, this little portion I'm circling, that 4 would be the northbound bridge, at least a portion of it, fair?

5 A. Yeah. Pretty much, yeah.

6 Q. This area here, this is the wash, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. This area is the area that would be used to walk to 9 the southbound bridge, correct?

10 A. Yeah. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And also to keep going, right, to the northbound
12 bridge, correct?

13 A. Yeah, the -- yeah, the wash runs under both bridges.

14 Q. Got it.

15 MR. TANASI: Go ahead, Brian, if you could play it,
16 please.

17 (Video playing.)

18 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry. Could you stop, please. Could 19 you mute it. Go ahead.

20 (Video playing.)

21 MR. TANASI: All right. Could you stop there, Brian.

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. Okay. Do you see this group of individuals that I'm 24 circling here?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. This person, is that -- do you know who that
2 individual is?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Is that Special Agent In Charge Dan Love?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Do you see these other three folks here?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Do you know who they are?

9 A. I do not.

10 Q. Okay. These folks all have their back to the northbound
11 bridge, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. While you were in the wash, you testified that 14 you had noticed a guy with a black hat, Black Hat, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And isn't it true that you pleaded for the northbound
17 lanes to be closed with SWAT? You pleaded with SWAT to close
18 the northbound lanes. Isn't that true?

19 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it again goes to the 21 reasonableness in this case, what different law enforcement
22 agencies are doing.

23 THE COURT: Did you say pleaded?

24 MR. TANASI: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I didn't hear him say pleaded

1 before, but he did testify as to the fact that he was trying to
2 get them to close down the highway so he could take a shot. So
3 that's fine. Objection overruled.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. Isn't it true you pleaded for the northbound lanes to be
7 closed? You pleaded with SWAT to have that happen, correct?

8 A. No.

9 Q. You didn't?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. In this case did you offer -- did you author a
12 report?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And do you remember doing so on April 14th, 2014?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And that was two days after the events in Bunkerville?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Two days would it be fresh in your mind, right, the events
19 in Bunkerville?

20 A. Fairly fresh, yes.

21 Q. Fairly fresh, right. And you said you went through how many 22 academies?

23 A. Three academies.

24 Q. Did you go over report writing in those academies?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. The importance of report writing, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Went over how it's important to put all of the important
4 information into reports, fair?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. All right. I'm going to draw your attention, sir --
7 well, here, let's look at the first page if we could just for
8 the witness.

9 Okay. Sir, I'm going to show you the first page dated
10 4/14/2014. Do you see that there?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is this the first page of your report? Fair?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. I'm going to show you page 5 of 7 of that 15 report. Do you see down here?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And draw your attention to where you indicated:
18 Black Hat took the weapon down and again pleaded for the 19 northbound lanes to be closed and asked SWAT team or SWAT assets
20 to take the subjects on the bridge down?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you see that there?

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object to counsel
24 reading from reports without --

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it's impeachment.

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 MS. AHMED: And it's not even proper impeachment
3 because ...

4 THE COURT: It's not.

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. Fair to say you pleaded with SWAT?

7 A. I -- I was talking to my dispatch, so I had no direct
8 contact with SWAT. I was asking my dispatch to see if there was 9 SWAT assets available to help clear the bridge.

10 Q. Okay. Do you recall indicating in your report that you
11 pleaded with SWAT?

12 A. Yes, but I indicated in my report that I was speaking to 13 dispatch on the radio.

14 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

15 Those requests, though, those were ignored, right?

16 A. As far as I know, because SWAT never showed up.

17 Q. Okay. Prior to today's testimony, have you had an 18 opportunity to meet with the U.S. Attorneys Office?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. How many times?

21 A. Approximately five -- five to six times, one time on the 22 phone.

23 Q. And was that in preparation for today's testimony?

24 A. Other hearings as well, yes.

25 Q. Okay. How many times have you met with the FBI?

1 A. Well, they were present -- the case agent is FBI, and they
2 were present when I met with the U.S. Attorney and also one
3 other time prior directly after the 14th.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir. Pass the witness.

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

8 A. Good afternoon.

9 Q. So turning your attention to April 12th, 2014. I believe
10 you testified on direct examination that you began your duties
11 the night prior at Post 6. Is that correct?

12 A. That's correct, yes.

13 Q. And if we're talking about the body cam that we just saw,
14 Post 6 would be directly behind you on that body cam. Is that
15 correct?

16 A. Yeah. At a much greater distance, yes.

17 Q. Okay. And you started the night prior. You said something
18 to the effect of there was an attempted -- you were looking for 19 an attempted incursion to set the cattle free. Is that somewhat
20 accurate?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Long night, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I believe you guys were working in shifts, correct?

25 A. That's correct, yes.

1 Q. You weren't able to get too much sleep that evening,
2 correct?

3 A. We just slept in shifts, like you said.

4 Q. Okay. Fortunately that never came. It was for the most
5 part an uneventful evening, correct?

6 A. As far as I know, yes.

7 Q. Next morning at some point in time you and Agent Richardson
8 were told to go down to Post 2. Is that right?

9 A. That's correct, yes.

10 Q. So you drive down to Post 2 I believe you said in your
11 vehicle, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You back it in for an easy exit out of the area, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you start walking down and you just picked that pickup
16 truck because there was nobody on it, correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And by the pickup truck, I believe you said it was a 19 Chevy -- a blue Chevy 2,500 with no markings, the one we saw in 20 the body cam?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Was there any plan when you got down there or did you
23 just go and -- you were just told to go and you went to the 24 first area you saw and thought it was a good place to be?

25 A. Correct. Yeah, there was no plan.

1 Q. All right. And you said -- on direct examination you said
2 "we." So I assume when you said "we," you were referring to you
3 and Agent Richardson, correct?

4 A. That's correct, yes.

5 Q. And I believe you said he was your partner on that day,
6 right?

7 A. He was.

8 Q. Okay. So you got on that truck and you were towards the 9 windshield towards the engine block, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you had your rifle with you, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that had some sort of a scope. I believe you called it
14 an ACOG scope?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And that's somewhere in the vicinity of a three-time
17 magnification, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. I think you said your testimony is you may be about 20 200 yards or so from the northbound bridge, correct?

21 A. Yes, sir. Yes.

22 Q. And what you and Agent Richardson were doing is you were 23 looking for threats in the crowd, correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. When you got down to that blue Chevy pickup, was anyone in

1 the wash?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Were they in that line or were they already at the
4 gate?

5 A. They were -- they were back further from the gate.

6 Q. Okay. So would they be midway through the wash? Under the 7 northbound bridge? What was your recollection?

8 A. To my recollection, they -- there were more -- the crowd was 9 more gathered toward the northbound bridge and, like, on the 10 sides down in the wash, but not close up to the gate.

11 Q. Okay. Midway, generally speaking?

12 A. I would think. I mean, it's -- the pictures kind of distort
13 the view and the actual distances; but, yeah, closer to the 14 south -- closer to the northbound bridge or the farther-away
15 bridge than the southbound bridge.

16 Q. We can agree they weren't at the gate. Fair enough?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. So you get down there and you're calling out threats, 19 both of you, correct?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. I believe you said Agent Richardson -- he would have been to 22 your right, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He had binoculars, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you're on the windshield of the truck and you were using
2 your scope and your naked eye I believe was your testimony,
3 right?

4 A. Correct.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just ask that if counsel is 6 going to make motions like that, that he put that on the record.

7 THE COURT: You want to describe the motion you just 8 made.

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Well, is what will be depicted on the body cam, would that 11 be the general -- the body positioning that you were in on --

12 THE COURT: Can you please describe the conduct -- the 13 motion that you made when you were --

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. And what's depicted in the body cam is what -- the general
16 position you were in, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And that would be your right elbow would be on the 19 windshield of the pickup, correct?

20 THE COURT: No. The question was for you to depict -- 21 for you to describe your action that you just made when you were 22 asking that question --

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

24 THE COURT: -- when you said, "Like this, right."

25 MR. MARCHESE: All right.

1 THE COURT: And he said right. So he's adopting some 2 movement that you made that's not in the record.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Would you agree with me that your right elbow was on what I
6 just --

7 THE COURT: The record will reflect that Mr. Marchese
8 was moving from side to side. I don't know what else he did.
9 You moved your arms about somehow.

10 BY MR. MARCHESE:

11 Q. You had your right elbow up in the air and was resting on 12 the windshield of the vehicle, the pickup truck, correct?

13 A. Most of the time. I moved around.

14 Q. Okay. And your left arm was cupped under your rifle. Is
15 that correct?

16 A. Most of the time.

17 Q. You were looking through your scope with your right eye. Is 18 that fair to say?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And then sometimes you would move your head to the 21 left and look out of the scope sights with both of your eyes
22 being naked eyes. Fair to say?

23 A. Correct. Yes.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Is that good enough?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Court's indulgence.

1 MS. AHMED: I believe Your Honor did it.

2 (Defense conferring.)

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. At some point in time you concentrated on two particular
5 individuals, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And those individuals, you've testified that they were --
8 you believed that they were imminent threats, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. I believe that you said that they were someone that was 11 there to possibly do you harm, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And those two individuals were on the northbound bridge,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Approximately 200 yards away, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Let's focus on this individual that you've described as 19 Black Hat. You obviously remember him, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. A lot of testimony on direct examination about this 22 individual, right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You said that he had a black trucker hat with some sort of a
25 patch on it, right?

- 1 A. Correct.
- 2 Q. He had a long arm, correct?
- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. And when you mean "long arm," you mean rifle?
- 5 A. Correct.
- 6 Q. And that was slung, correct?
- 7 A. Yes.
- 8 Q. Okay. And when you say "slung," is that because there was
- 9 some sort of a strap on it or something along those lines?
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q. Okay. Black vest, correct?
- 12 A. Yes.
- 13 Q. A beard, correct?
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 Q. He also had some sort of sunglasses on, correct?
- 16 A. Yes.
- 17 Q. I believe you testified today that they were some sort of
- 18 shooting-type glasses, correct?
- 19 A. Wire -- yes.
- 20 Q. I'm sorry?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. Wire-rim glasses?
- 23 A. Correct. Yes.
- 24 Q. And he had a plaid shirt on, right?
- 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Now, let's talk about this other individual, Tan Hat. You
2 said that he had dark-colored clothing on, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And he had a tan vest carrier, correct?

5 A. That's what it appeared to be, yes.

6 Q. And you said you believe he had a beard, right?

7 A. Facial hair, yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 Now, at some point in time Black Hat pointed his weapon
10 at you, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, on direct examination you said that -- something to the 13 effect of it's not in chronological order. Do you remember
14 that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What did you mean by that?

17 A. So the events as they happened, I don't -- I don't know if 18 they're in my report exactly how they happened because when I
19 wrote my report, I didn't put down times. I didn't keep track
20 of time while I was down there. So when I wrote my report, I
21 did it off of memory as those events came to me. This
22 happened -- that's why I put, In this instance, in another
23 instance. I didn't put like, At 11:59 this happened, because I
24 didn't know.

25 Q. Sure. Well, you're -- I think it's fair to say you were

1 stressed out on that day, correct?

2 A. Yes, I was.

3 Q. Showing a little bit of emotion, even here today in court
4 three and a half years later, correct?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. So based on everything that's going on you're not saying,
7 Okay, everybody, hold on, I'm going to check my watch, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You're more worried about doing your job on that particular
10 day?

11 A. That's right.

12 Q. Okay. So you can't give me any specific times for those 13 reasons I just put forward, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, chronologically, though, can you tell me what happened
16 when? Is -- are you able to do that?

17 A. No.

18 Q. There were two instances which you've testified about in 19 which it was your belief that Black Hat pointed his weapon at 20 you, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Which one happened first?

23 MS. AHMED: Objection. The witness just said he can't 24 do that.

25 BY MR. MARCHESE:

1 Q. Well, if you know, which one happened first?

2 A. I do not know.

3 Q. Okay. Let's first focus on the one where the individual was
4 kneeling, was your belief, pointing his weapon at you. Do you
5 know which one I'm referring to then?

6 A. Yeah, where he used the Jersey barrier as a -- to rest.

7 Q. Correct. Your testimony was that you rested -- he rested
8 his gun on the Jersey barrier, correct?

9 A. Correct. Yes.

10 Q. And he was using it as a stand, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And he was pointing it -- his weapon at you, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Now, one of the other -- the things that you were 15 talking about on direct examination was your duties as an 16 officer in a situation like that, and what I mean by that is if 17 and when you're going to shoot. Do you remember that testimony?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, I believe you've previously said that you don't get 20 free shots as an officer, correct?

21 A. That's right.

22 Q. And what you mean by that is there was obviously a lot of 23 people in the area on April 14th, 2014. Is that fair to say?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. So if you're going to take a shot at approximately 200 yards

1 away, you want to make sure you're going to hit your target,
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Because the last thing you want to do is miss your target
5 and hit someone that is not your intended target, correct?

6 A. Exactly, yes.

7 Q. An innocent bystander, for lack of a better term?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. So in this particular time is the -- the traffic was 10 moving slow, correct?

11 A. I'm sorry. I didn't hear you.

12 Q. The traffic was moving somewhat slowly, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So that was one of the issues with you taking a shot,
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Because what you're going to have to do is you're going to 18 have to wait for the traffic to go past before you take the 19 shot. Is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And were there other individuals around Black Hat when he 22 was kneeling and had the rifle rested on the Jersey barrier?

23 A. I don't recall any -- anyone specifically, no.

24 Q. Okay. But one of the biggest issues was that there was a
25 van, correct?

1 A. Well, there's a lot of vehicles passing by.

2 Q. Okay. In that particular time, though, there was a van. I
3 believe you've previously talked about a white passenger van.
4 Do you remember that testimony?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And that white passenger van had I believe you said
7 some -- maybe like a young child in the back of it, correct?

8 A. I saw a van with young children in it, yes, during that
9 time.

10 Q. Okay. Pressed up against the glass, seeing what was going
11 on, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And I think there was even some talk about a soccer
14 ball with shoe polish in the window, correct?

15 A. That's in my report, yep.

16 Q. And that is one of the reasons that you didn't fire because 17 you didn't want to possibly hit that van, correct?

18 A. Obviously, yeah.

19 Q. Sure. Because they have absolutely, to your knowledge,
20 nothing to do with Black Hat?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. Another particular incident in which you testified
23 that Black Hat pointed his weapon at you would have been I
24 believe at one point he was kneeling behind the Jersey barrier,
25 correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And then he stood up at one point, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And there was some sort of -- I think this was your
5 testimony. If it's not, disagree with me and correct me. There
6 was some sort of a furtive movement and he pointed his weapon at 7 you, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. This was a quicker, for lack of a better term, action than 10 the first incident we were just discussing where the rifle was 11 on the Jersey barrier. Is that an accurate statement?

12 A. That's correct, yes.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Now, if I could bring up for only Court
14 and counsel Defense Proposed Exhibit 5031-A through C.

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. Sir, you have some screen shots on your -- I think you do.
17 I think I can see it from here. Do you see those, sir?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And have you had an opportunity to look at 5031-A?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you could go to the 23 second one.

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. Now, we're looking at B. Have you had an opportunity to 1 look at that one?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And lastly C.

4 Now, you've seen these before, sir, haven't you?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And have they fairly and accurately depict what you
7 have seen before?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, at this time Defense moves
11 for publication -- or admission and then publication of Defense
12 Exhibit 5031-A through C.

13 THE COURT: The question is not whether it fairly and 14 accurately depicts what he's seen before when he's reviewed
15 these pictures before. The question is whether it fairly and 16 accurately depicts what he saw on the day in question.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Does this fairly and accurately depict what you saw on April 19 14, 2014 [sic]?

20 A. Well, yeah, it's obviously not -- I wasn't right there, but 21 from my position it's similar to what I saw. I don't know if 22 it's the exact same thing that I saw, but it's similar to the 23 actions that I saw Black Hat take.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Same thing, Your Honor. We now move for 25 5031-A through C.

1 THE COURT: Any objection?

2 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. 5031-A through C will be admitted.
4 You may go ahead and publish it.

5 (Defense Exhibits 5031-A through C are admitted.)

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Okay, sir. Turning your attention to the first slide which 8 would be A, as in apple.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So I'm going to put a circle over an individual. Would that 11 be Black Hat at that time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And just to be clear so we can acclimate the jury a
14 little bit, and you touched upon this a little bit earlier, this 15 is not necessarily your vantage point, correct?

16 A. That's true, yes.

17 Q. This is a screen shot of a video that you didn't take,
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. Now, in this particular screen shot we see --
21 would you agree with me that Black Hat is kneeling down or some 22 sort of crouched position?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. You can't see the lower part of his body, maybe from 25 his chest up. Is that accurate?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. But you can generally tell it's him just from some of 3 the things you've said earlier. He's obviously got a hat on and
4 there appears to be maybe some sort of patch on the front of it,
5 right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Do you see Tan Hat in this particular screen shot?

8 A. I think so.

9 Q. Okay. And where would Tan Hat be, to your knowledge or your 10 belief?

11 A. Crouched down to his left. Right where that -- that guy's
12 standing, like right below him.

13 Q. If you want to just put an X, it will probably make it
14 easier.

15 A. Okay. So, I don't know, 10 feet-ish to Black Hat's
16 right?

17 A. Your guess is as good as mine.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. I can't tell from that angle.

20 Q. All right.

21 A. Okay. We're going to go to Slide B now, please. Okay.
22 Now, in this particular slide, sir, show me where Black Hat is.

23 A. Just circle him?

24 Q. Yes, please.

25 A. My circle's not working.

1 Q. Okay. How about I do it for you and you agree with me if
2 it's ...

3 All right. Let's try that again.

4 A. Do it again.

5 Q. I think we got it. There we go.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. And that's where Black Hat is. Where is Tan Hat, if you
8 know?

9 A. I believe he's right here.

10 Q. Now, in this particular screen shot is Black Hat pointing at 11 you at this time?

12 A. Appears to be. I don't know if he's pointing at me, but he 13 appears to be pointing his weapon.

14 Q. Okay. And what makes you say that?

15 A. Because it's pointed.

16 Q. Okay. Can you see the barrel of the weapon?

17 A. Not from this vantage point.

18 Q. Okay. How about his left arm? Can you see his left arm?
19 Where is that in this screen shot?

20 A. I can't clearly see it, no.

21 Q. Okay. And do you see any vans with soccer balls?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay. And then just to back up a little bit, and I can put 24 it back up for you if you need. Did you see any vans with 25 soccer balls in 5031-A, as in apple?

1 A. No.

2 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to C, as in 3 Charlie.

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Okay, sir. 5031-C. Circle Mr. Black Hat, if you can,
6 please.

7 All right. Is he pointing his weapon at you in this
8 particular screen?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. Tan Hat, can you please point out where your 11 recollection is Tan Hat is at this juncture?

12 A. Well --

13 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. The witness never 14 said it was his recollection. He said it appeared to him to be.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Well, if he doesn't --

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. You don't know, then you don't know. Do you know or based 18 on your memory of April 14th, 2014 -- or April 12th, 2014, do
19 you recollect based on this screen shot where Tan Hat is?

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, objection. I just want to be 21 clear, the witness had I believe testified earlier that he 22 wasn't sure that this is what he saw.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Then he can say that.

24 MS. AHMED: It looks similar.

25 THE COURT: So is there an objection?

1 MS. AHMED: It just mischaracterized his previous
2 testimony.

3 MR. MARCHESE: I just asked him if he knew where it
4 was. I don't think I said you testified --

5 THE COURT: Yes, overruled.

6 MR. MARCHESE: -- where he was.

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. Do you know where Tan Hat is in this screen shot?

9 A. I believe I do, but it's not what I saw. But I can -- from 10 this picture, I can probably -- I think I know where it is, but 11 not 100 percent.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. Because I can just see the very top of the head. So I
14 assume it's in the same spot.

15 Q. Okay. So somewhere to the right of Black Hat. Is that your 16 recollection?

18 Q. Correct.

19 Somewhere near this individual with looks like some 20 kind of blue shirt and a maybe light-colored hat?

21 A. Right. It looks like he's looking down at that spot.

22 Q. Okay. Once again, no white van with a soccer ball on it?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, if you can publish to just Court

1 and counsel 5032-A through E. Blow it up a little bit more,
2 please.

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. And, sir, can you see -- yeah. You can see it on your
5 screen?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. You see 5032-A, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And that particular screen shot, does it fairly and 10 accurately depict what you saw on April 14th or 12th -- excuse
11 me -- 2014?

12 A. Again, same answer. I mean, it's obviously not the angle.

13 Q. Yeah.

14 A. I was much -- at a greater distance, and I wasn't at bridge
15 height. So it's hard to tell if it is exactly what I saw at 16 that time.

17 Q. Okay. Do you have any reason to disbelieve it?

18 A. Disbelieve?

19 Q. Disbelieve what's in there is not a fair and accurate
20 depiction.

21 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, vague. Confusing.

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Well, you've seen these before, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you've said that they're fair and accurate depictions

1 before at a prior hearing, correct?

2 A. Well, it's not the angle that I -- that I was at during that
3 day.

4 Q. Okay. So they're not fair and accurate today is what you're
5 saying?

6 A. They are the same fair and accurate as they were before.
7 I'm just pointing out that I wasn't at that angle.

8 Q. Sure.

9 A. So it's not fair and accurate to say, yeah, I was at the 10 bridge level. I don't want to give the misconception that I was 11 standing right there and could see that exact picture.

12 Q. Correct. I'm not trying to put words in your mouth.

13 You were in the wash, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. At a lower angle, trajectory, whatever you want to call it,
16 from this particular shot, correct?

17 A. Absolutely.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you can go to 5032-B.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Another screen shot in succession. You've seen this one
22 before, correct?

23 A. Yes. Excuse me.

24 Q. Absent the angle, it does fairly and accurately depict what
25 you saw on April 12, 2014?

1 A. Generally, yes.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. MARCHESE: And go to C, please.

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Another screen shot. Once again, you've seen this before,
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And it fairly and accurately depicts your recollection of 9 what you saw on April 12th, 2014?

10 A. Same answer, yes.

11 Q. And I'll say it for you.

12 A. Thank you.

13 Q. You were at a slightly different angle, correct?

14 A. Yes. Thanks.

15 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Go to D, as in David.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Same question, sir. Does this fairly and accurately depict
19 with a slightly different angle what you saw on April 12th,
20 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And lastly, E, as in Edward. And does this fairly
23 and accurately depict what you saw from your angle on April
24 12th, 2014?

25 A. Same thing, yes, minus the angle and where it was taken

1 from, yep.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, at this time Defense would
3 move for admission of 5032-A through E.

4 THE COURT: Any objection?

5 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. We will admit -- 5032-A through
7 E will be admitted. You can go ahead and publish it.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor. Can we go to A,
9 please?

10 (Defense Exhibits 5032-A through E are admitted.)

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. Can you see that over there, sir?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You can see it. Okay.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, can you slide that over just a
16 little bit to the left, if possible. No, that's fine.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Do you see Black Hat depicted in this particular screen
19 shot?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And hopefully it's working. Can you circle him.

22 Okay. And what is your recollection of what he's doing
23 in that particular screen shot?

24 A. He looks like he's just, like, bust high or chest high and 25 looking over the Jersey barrier, and he has his weapon slung in

1 front of him.

2 Q. Okay. He's not pointing his weapon in this particular
3 screen shot?

4 A. No.

5 Q. And do you see Tan Hat in this particular screen shot?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay. To your recollection, and I'm not asking you to 8 guess, just your recollection, where is Tan Hat at this time?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, can you go to B, please.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. Okay. And if you could find me Black Hat once again.

14 All right. And you see Tan Hat?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. Black Hat, what is your recollection of what he's 17 doing in that particular screen shot?

18 A. Standing up.

19 Q. Okay. Not pointing his weapon at you at this time?

20 A. It doesn't appear to be, no.

21 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to --

22 THE COURT: Wait. Is this your recollection or you're 23 just describing what you're seeing on the photograph?

24 THE WITNESS: I'm describing what I'm seeing on the 25 photograph, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. What was your recollection?

3 A. I don't -- I don't know if I have a recollection of this
4 exact moment. You know, when I pictured him as I described
5 standing up, then he was standing up and blading off towards me.

6 Q. Okay. And that was the, I think you said, furtive movement,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And here we are in C. I'm just going to get right to 10 it. That's Black Hat, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Where's Tan Hat, if you know?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. Is he pointing his -- Black Hat, is he pointing his 15 weapon at you in this particular screen shot?

16 A. No, from my recollection this is where the gun was coming
17 up.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. So it's coming. It's like halfway up right there.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, can you make that a little bit
22 larger, if possible.

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. All right. And just to get back to it, there's Black Hat
25 again, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And it's your testimony that it's your belief that he's
3 bringing his gun up at that point on Slide Show C?

4 A. That's what I perceived, yes.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And if we can go to D, next one,
6 please. And if we -- no, that's probably good.

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. All right. There's Black Hat?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And we can shrink it for you, if you want, D. Is Tan Hat in 11 this particular slide?

12 A. No, I don't see him.

13 Q. Okay. Was it your recollection that he was around at this 14 point or ...

15 A. No, I don't -- I don't have any recollection of him being --

16 Q. Fair enough.

17 MR. MARCHESE: All right. And if you could make it
18 larger again, Brian. I apologize.

19 BY MR. MARCHESE:

20 Q. Okay. And I'm circling Black Hat for you. What is 21 depicted, to your recollection, in this particular screen shot?

22 A. I didn't -- I don't have a recollection of that. I mean,
23 are you asking me what's depicted in the picture?

24 Q. What was your -- let's get our mind off the picture for a
25 moment. What was your recollection at the time?

1 A. Again, he -- it was a very fast, furtive movement. He stood
2 up and brought the gun up, and that's what it appears to me that
3 he's doing, as I described, bringing the gun up.

4 Q. Okay. Now, let's focus on D and the circle. Does he have 5 his gun up at this point?

6 A. It doesn't appear to be up aimed in, but it looks like -- to 7 me in the picture it looks like he's coming up with it.

8 Q. Okay. Would you agree with me that this line I'm going to 9 drawn is along his weapon?

10 A. I would say yes. I mean, it's kind of fuzzy, but ...

11 Q. Okay. Now, you can see his left arm. I'm going to kind of 12 give you a little ...

13 You'd agree with me that that's his left arm, correct?

14 A. I would assume, yeah.

15 Q. And it appears that his left arm is across his chest
16 somewhere in the region of his right collarbone/shoulder area.
17 Is that accurate?

18 A. I don't -- I can't really tell from there. It looks like 19 it's where your line is kind of midway through his body like
20 that.

21 Q. Okay. And the reason you say that is because you can see
22 the forearm slightly under what appears to be the head area.
23 Would you agree with me with that?

24 A. I think so, yeah.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And lastly, Brian, if we can go

1 to the last one which I believe is E, as in Edward. And just
2 leave it right there.

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. Once again, Tan Hat, do you see him in this particular
5 screen shot?

6 A. No, I don't.

7 Q. Okay. And we do see Black Hat, however, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And he's right down there, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. A clearer depiction of his gun, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Not pointing in your area, correct, or direction?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Pointing more towards the ground, correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And the left arm is raised and towards maybe the ear of the 18 individual, of Black Hat?

19 A. It kind of looks like that.

20 Q. Yeah, somewhere by the face --

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object to this line of 22 questioning. It's unclear if he's asking the witness to recount
23 his observations on April 12, 2014, or just to comment on slides
24 that he's being shown.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I'm giving him every

1 opportunity to disagree with me. If he wants to disagree, then
2 he's welcome to.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, so the objection is
4 argumentative.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Yes or no, would you agree with me that his arm -- his left
8 arm is somewhere up in the vicinity of the left side of his 9 face?

10 A. Yes.

11 THE COURT: Again, you're asking him in the photograph
12 what is he seeing; not what he remembers from his own
13 recollection of what he saw.

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. In this particular screen shot, would you agree with me, yes
16 or no, say whatever you want, I'm not putting words in your 17 mouth, that his left arm is by his left side of his face,
18 correct?

19 MS. AHMED: Objection, argumentative.

20 THE COURT: You're telling him, "Yes or no," but then
21 you're also telling him, "Say whatever you want." So please
22 rephrase the question.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I'm just trying to give him
24 the opportunity.

25 BY MR. MARCHESE:

1 Q. I'm not forcing you, sir. Okay? Here, let's just do it
2 this way --

3 THE COURT: Let's just take a break. We're going to go
4 ahead and take an early bathroom break today. So during this
5 break, the jury is not to discuss this case with anyone nor 6 permit anyone to discuss it with you. Please do not attempt to 7 perform any kind of research or investigation independently on 8 your own, and please do not read or listen to or review anything
9 that touches upon this case in any way. And please do not form
10 any opinion until after you've heard all of the evidence,
11 received all of the testimony, the jury instructions, heard
12 closing arguments. Then I will excuse you to begin
13 deliberation.

14 So we'll take about a 15-minute bathroom break. It's 15 2:45. We'll be back here at 3 p.m.

16 Special Agent Swanson, after the jury leaves -- the 17 jury is excused. After the jury leaves, then you can step down
18 and take a restroom break and stretch.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: And then we just need you back here by
21 3 p.m.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

23 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 2:45 p.m.)

24 THE COURT: Off record.

25 (Recess taken at 2:46 p.m.)

1 (Resumed at 3:14 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: All right. You may be seated. You can go
3 ahead and bring in the jury.

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

5 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 3:19 p.m.)

6 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. Everyone
7 else may be seated as well.

8 Let's go ahead and continue with cross-examination of 9 BLM Special Agent Scott Swanson by Mr. Marchese on behalf of
10 Mr. Parker.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Almost done, sir.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. At some point in time it came to your attention that Black
14 Hat had went down behind the barriers. Is that accurate?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. As a matter of fact, there was some pictures that he was 17 pointing weapon -- his rifle in your direction?

18 MS. AHMED: Objection, vague.

19 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry. What was the objection?

20 THE COURT: Vague?

21 MS. AHMED: There was some pictures? Maybe I didn't 22 hear the question.

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Have you ever seen pictures of Black Hat pointing his weapon
25 in -- through the Jersey barrier?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And when did you first see those?

3 A. I can't recall exactly when I saw them. Later -- later on.
4 I can't recall.

5 Q. Okay. Would it have been like a day after the event? Two 6 days?

7 A. No, it was after that.

8 Q. Okay. How did you find out that he was doing so, pointing
9 his weapon at you?

10 A. Through those pictures.

11 Q. Okay. You authored a Memorandum of Activity on April 15th,
12 2014. Do you remember that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And that was all about this particular event,
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. I believe there might have been some dates prior to that,
18 but it went over the events on April 12th of 2014, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And when you authored that, it was fresh in your mind,
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you do those accurately to the best of your abilities,
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And isn't it true that in that report you wrote that you
2 later learned that black-hatted sniper was using a small gap in
3 the concrete barriers?

4 MS. AHMED: Objection, hearsay.

5 THE COURT: The objection was what? Hearsay?

6 MS. AHMED: Hearsay. And it's also improper
7 impeachment. And he's reading from his report, Your Honor.
8 That's why I say hearsay.

9 THE COURT: Please don't read from the report. Go
10 ahead and ask him the question.

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. Let's do it this way. If I showed you a copy of your 13 report, would it refresh your recollection as to what you wrote
14 in that report?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would object to this line of 18 refreshing because the witness said he recalled -- recalled
19 seeing pictures.

20 THE COURT: You can impeach, if you can impeach
21 correctly.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Well, he's -- well, may I show him a
23 copy of the report to refresh his recollection, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Only if he says he can't remember.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Do you remember writing in your report that you later
3 learned that black-hatted sniper was pointing his weapon through 4 concrete barriers?

5 MS. AHMED: Objection. Hearsay, Your Honor. He
6 continues to read from the report.

7 THE COURT: Sustained.

8 BY MR. MARCHESE:

9 Q. Did you learn before writing your report that he was 10 pointing his weapon at you?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And how did you learn that, sir?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. Okay. You just -- I know it was three and a half years ago,
15 but just from your recollection you learned it, you're just not 16 sure how?

17 A. Correct.

18 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions.

19 THE COURT: Anyone else?

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. Good afternoon.

23 A. Good afternoon.

24 Q. Special Agent Swanson, my name is Todd Leventhal. How are 25 you today?

- 1 A. Good, sir. Thank you.
- 2 Q. You're an investigator with the BLM. Is that correct?
- 3 A. Yes, sir.
- 4 Q. Okay. And you indicated you had military training for seven 5 years?
- 6 A. No, I was in the military for seven years.
- 7 Q. Seven years. Okay.
- 8 A. Most of those were training actually, yeah, because it's 9 pretty much what you do in the military.
- 10 Q. Now, on April 12th, 2014, you testified that you were behind
11 Post 6, correct?
- 12 A. On April -- in the morning, yes.
- 13 Q. Okay. And that would be behind the ICP?
- 14 A. Yes.
- 15 Q. And that's where the cattle were stored, correct?
- 16 A. Correct.
- 17 Q. Okay. And you indicated that you were there because there 18 was a possible incursion, correct?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Okay. And so you had already heard about that or something 21 to that effect, correct?
- 22 A. Not sure of the question.
- 23 Q. Okay. Approximately --
- 24 A. Go ahead.
- 25 Q. Go ahead.

1 MS. AHMED: Objection, vague.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll clear it up.

3 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll clear it up.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. What time in the morning -- did you hear that in the morning
7 or in the evening prior to on the 11th?

8 A. Yeah, the evening of the 11th.

9 Q. Okay. And so you were -- on the 12th in the morning you
10 were at Post 6 at approximately what time?

11 A. At Post 6 until about 11 o'clock.

12 Q. Until 11?

13 A. 11, 11:15.

14 Q. Do you remember when you got to Post 6?

15 A. The day before you mean?

16 Q. Were you there the day before?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And then -- sorry.

19 A. On the 11th.

20 Q. And the day before was when you heard there was this 21 possible incursion, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, there was no protestors in either the wash or on I15
24 northbound or southbound bridge on the 11th, correct?

25 A. I couldn't tell you. I wasn't there. I wasn't on the

1 bridge or anywhere where I could see the bridge.

2 Q. Okay. So you couldn't see anything from Post 6 where the 3 cows were?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. What is the distance from Post 6 to where the 6 northbound bridge is?

7 A. I would say maybe -- I mean, I can guesstimate. Maybe three 8 quarters of a mile or more.

9 Q. Okay. And is it sort of straight or is there a turn? Do
10 you remember?

11 A. Well, there was a large sand hill --

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. -- where I was, and I was faced up the wash away -- like
14 facing away from the bridges. So my vehicle's faced up the wash
15 because we were protecting the cattle from any threats that 16 might come from the north. So we were faced away from the 17 bridges. There's also a big sand hill. There's a lot of things
18 in between, the ICP, etc.

19 Q. Okay. So you're indicating that would be somehow difficult
20 to see the bridge from where you were stationed at the -- where 21 the cows where?

22 A. I don't recall exactly what my view of the bridge was, but I
23 would think it would be hard to see protestors if there were 24 any.

25 Q. Okay. Were you aware of a press release that was released

1 regarding the releasing or the ceasing of operations?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. So you at some point around I guess 11, 11:15 you
4 left Post 6 to go to Post 2, correct?

5 A. Yeah, 11:15 in the morning. Correct.

6 Q. And I believe you indicated it was you and Richardsons?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. That would be your partner?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And the two of you walked down to Post 2 from Post 6,
11 right?

12 A. No, sir. We drove.

13 Q. I mean Post 6 to Post 2.

14 A. No, sir.

15 Q. Okay. How did you get to Post 2?

16 A. We drove in my vehicle. I drove.

17 Q. Oh, you drove?

18 A. He was in the passenger seat.

19 Q. I see. Okay.

20 Now, when you drove, where did you park your vehicle
21 when you got to Post 2?

22 A. On the access road leading down to Post 2, probably -- from 23 that truck that we stopped at was probably maybe 100 yards from 24 there, of the wash.

25 Q. So the truck that we saw you in in the video was not your

1 truck, correct?

2 A. Correct, sir.

3 Q. And that truck was parked east to west, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you were primarily on the hood of that truck, correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay. And you didn't move from the hood of that truck, did
8 you?

9 A. At one point I think I went to the -- like to look through 10 -- on the driver's side window to look through the 11 passenger-side window, but the windows were down, like through 12 the doors.

13 Q. Okay. But for the most part of you spent -- during that 14 morning you spent at the -- on the hood of that vehicle,
15 correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay.

18 All right. Now, you indicated that the protestors had
19 high ground?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay. But did the BLM -- they were there first, correct?

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. You had been there for at least the day before, correct?

24 A. In that spot?

25 Q. Well, you had been -- do you know when they put the gates up

1 in front?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay. And, no, not in that spot. You had been -- the ICP
4 had there, correct, for a few days at least?

5 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

6 THE COURT: Relevance?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's tending to show who took the high
8 ground. He just indicated they got the high ground as if, you
9 know, they took it in some military style. The relevance is 10 whether or not they did or didn't do that, whether it was just 11 there or there was some plan. It's coming out like there's some 12 plan that they took the high ground, Your Honor. If we want to 13 go to the sidebar, I can explain it. That's the relevance of 14 it. I can move on.

15 THE COURT: The relevance of him being there three days
16 before? I'm not seeing it. Go ahead.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Well, the real question is who was there first. Was the BLM
19 there? Was the ICP, the unit, there before the protestors were
20 there?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection. Same objection. Relevance.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Would be the same answer.

23 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer the question.

24 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

25 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

1 Q. That's okay. Let me back up.

2 A. State it again.

3 Q. Let me back up. The BLM -- or you or BLM, they were
4 stationed in that area, the ICP, that area, prior to protestors
5 even arriving, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. You had established that location, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. Thank you.

10 Okay. Now, you indicated that you were having a hard
11 time picking out targets, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. When you first got to Post 2.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I think you indicated because there was a lot of confusion?

16 A. No, there was a lot of targets.

17 Q. A lot of movements?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Lot of targets, a lot of people out there?

20 A. Lot of threats, yes.

21 Q. Okay.

22 Lot of people with cameras out there?

23 A. Yes, there was a lot of cameras. Lot of -- well, a lot of 24 cell phones for sure.

25 Q. A lot of cell phones. Any long cameras, long lens cameras?

1 A. I don't recall any when I first got there.

2 Q. Okay. Now, you had a magnification and a CODE? A cod, I
3 believe you called it?

4 A. Yes. It's an ACOG.

5 Q. ACOG?

6 A. The brand, yes, or the model, I guess.

7 Q. And you indicated that you were one of the only ones that
8 had this type of magnification, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And that's why somebody asked you to take a look to 11 see what was going on, right?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. Now, you gave some very specific details of Black
14 Hat, correct? You were able to identify Black Hat with some 15 specific details?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. That he had a large hat, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And some kind of an emblem?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You even indicated he had some mesh on the back of his hat,
22 correct?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. You indicated that?

25 A. I indicated that was the type of hat that -- a trucker hat

1 generally has mesh and a snap back.

2 Q. Oh. So it was a general description; not a specific one?

3 A. Well, when I was describing what type of hat it was, I
4 described exactly what it looked like and then described what a
5 trucker hat is in my opinion.

6 Q. All right. And you indicated that he had a gun that was 7 slung?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And he had a vest carrier, correct?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. He had a beard of some sort, correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Sunglasses, pilot type?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Plaid shirt?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Now, Tan Hat, you weren't so descriptive, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Is that true?

20 A. True.

21 Q. Okay. And you only talked about Tan Hat having a baseball
22 cap of some sort, correct?

23 A. Well, I gave more of a description of him; but, yeah,
24 based -- tan hat, yes.

25 Q. Some facial hair?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And he also had some kind of a long gun, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could pull up Government's
5 151, please.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Now, you were asked some questions on cross. You didn't
8 actually see this while you were out there on the ...

9 A. No, I didn't.

10 Q. No. Okay. But you saw this picture or this gentleman here
11 at some later time, correct?

12 A. I don't know if it was this exact picture, but -- depicting,
13 yes. From a different angle, yes.

14 Q. All right. Were you able to see who this person was here?

15 A. Did I see them?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. I believe so, yes.

18 Q. Okay. Would that be the cameraman that you indicated put 19 his fingers in his ear?

20 A. No.

21 Q. No?

22 Now, this gentleman here has a black cap, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And this female here, she's got a tan cap, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And this gentleman here has a dark-colored cap, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And another tan hat here, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And he looks like he's holding what looks to be 6 something long, correct?

7 A. A camera, yes.

8 Q. Camera. From this angle you can see that as a camera,
9 right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. With a longer lens, correct?

12 A. It looks like it, yeah.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 159, please.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. All right. So just to orientate you, this would be a
16 picture from the northbound bridge. Would that be correct
17 from -- coming the opposite angle of you, where you were at?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And what we see here -- if you could draw an S on the 20 southbound bridge for me.

21 Okay.

22 A. It's kind of an S.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, could you increase that, please.

24 A little -- little bit more. There you go.

25 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

1 Q. Sir, can you tell me, is this your vehicle here behind this
2 tree?

3 A. Out on that angle, yeah, it is behind that tree.

4 THE COURT: By "your vehicle," you're referring to his
5 actual vehicle or the vehicle he was using?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh. I'm sorry. I'll rephrase. I
7 appreciate that, Your Honor.

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. This vehicle is where you indicated you were on the hood,
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And this would be the hood because the vehicle would 13 be facing west or east?

14 A. Well, it would be facing east.

15 Q. Okay. So this would be the hood where you would have been 16 sitting, correct?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. Right behind that tree, right?

19 A. Well, it's a different angle; but yeah. The truck on that 20 picture at that angle is behind the tree.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can we go back a little bit. And go
22 back to 152, please. Okay.

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. So at 152 we're looking back at the northbound bridge,
25 correct, if you know?

1 A. This is the northbound bridge.

2 Q. This is, yes.

3 A. As far as I know, yeah.

4 Q. All right.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: You can take that off. Thank you,

6 Brian.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Now, on direct you indicated that Tan Hat moved to your 9 left, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And he disappeared at some point, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Actually, you indicated that he went towards the 14 center of the bridge, I believe, correct?

15 A. More towards the center, yes.

16 Q. Okay. And when you say your left, that's as you're looking 17 at the bridge, correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Do you remember giving testimony, prior testimony, in this 20 matter?

21 A. No, I don't.

22 Q. No? You don't remember giving prior testimony in this
23 matter under oath?

24 A. Oh. Yes.

25 Q. You did?

1 A. At a prior hearing you mean?

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Do you remember telling -- saying that he was moving
5 to the right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So which is it? Was he moving to the left, sir, or moving
8 to the right?

9 A. He moved --

10 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, argumentative. The 11 witness on direct said both.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Did he move to the right?

14 MS. AHMED: I'd also object, Your Honor, as to vague in 15 terms of viewer's left or viewer's right.

16 THE COURT: I didn't understand the question myself,
17 but go ahead, please.

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. Okay. When you were with Mr. -- is it Sergeant Richardsons?

20 A. Special Agent Richardson.

21 Q. Special Agent Richardson. Do you remember a time when you
22 lost track of Tan Hat?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you ask Special Agent Richardson to pick up Tan Hat for
25 you?

1 A. I recall him asking -- I recall asking him to help me find
2 the threats, but specifically I may have. I don't remember -- I
3 don't recall that.

4 Q. Okay. You don't remember telling Special Agent Richardsons
5 that Tan Hat ran to the right?

6 A. Oh, yes.

7 Q. You did?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. So at one point he did run to the right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. I have nothing further.

13 THE COURT: All right. So I believe we've had counsel
14 for Stewart, Parker, Drexler --

15 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelein.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect?

17 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

18 (Prosecution conferring.)

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Agent Swanson, you were asked some questions by Mr. Marchese
22 about what you observed the black hat individual to be doing on
23 April 12, 2014, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And he showed you some slides, right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, when you were explaining to the jury what you saw on
3 April 12th, 2014, do you -- were those examples of what you saw
4 or is that the only movement you saw that you described to them,
5 those two instances?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, vague and compound.

7 THE COURT: It's compound.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. When you were describing to the jury Black Hat's movements,
10 when Mr. Marchese showed you those slides, are those the exact
11 things that you observed yourself?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Can you explain to the jury what -- what you observed versus 14 what you were shown? What's the difference?

15 A. Well, the -- that was a -- kind of a depiction of what I
16 described seeing, but I can't say for sure that those were the 17 exact moments depicted in what I was describing that Black Hat
18 did at that time in my report. I can't say that those are the 19 exact times. It was similar to the actions that I saw, but I
20 can't say that that was exactly it.

21 Q. Do you know whether or not Black Hat moved up and down more
22 than twice?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did he move up and down more than twice?

25 A. Yes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

2 THE COURT: Overruled.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Now, you indicated that you had previously seen the slides
5 that Mr. Marchese showed you. Do you recall saying that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And are those from -- do you know what the source of those
8 slides are in terms of photographs? A video? Something else?

9 A. I don't recall, no.

10 Q. Do you recall -- do you know whether or not he showed you
11 every segment of those motions that he was -- every slide that 12 goes in that sequence?

13 A. It didn't appear so, no.

14 Q. Now, Mr. Marchese also asked you about -- something about a 15 white van with a soccer ball painted on it. Do you recall those 16 questions?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Now, on -- in terms -- and that was in terms of having a bad
19 backdrop. Is that right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Can you explain to the jury what the term "backdrop" means
22 in relation to this event?

23 A. Kind of just what I said before. The backdrop is what's 24 beyond your target, what -- beyond your target. So you have to 25 take into account any kind of backdrop, whether it's a

1 structure, a house, anything like that. If you're in a
2 neighborhood, you know, obviously there's a lot of backdrops.
3 This particular backdrop for my threat was traffic which was
4 moving slowly.

5 And one instance that I described was seeing a white
6 van that appeared to be like a junior soccer team.

7 Q. Can you explain to the jury what, if any, significance the 8 white van with the soccer ball had to you in relation to what
9 you observed about Black Hat?

10 A. I think we're always aware as professional law enforcement
11 officers of our backdrop, and I was that day, but that 12 particular van just happened to catch my eye because it was --
13 it just stood out in my mind because it was a van full of kids.

14 So when you're looking at your backdrop, I mean, you're 15 seeing vehicles go by, big rigs and cars, but you don't --
16 they're not personal. They're not -- like, you can't generally
17 identify, you know, Okay. That's the Smiths or whatever because 18 you're not concentrated on that. But that particular van just 19 really brought ... brought things home to me for -- because it
20 was a van full of just young soccer players.

21 Q. And in terms of the two instances that you described to the 22 jury earlier of Mr. -- of Black Hat crouching and then the other
23 instance where you saw him standing, do you know whether or not 24 the soccer van passed during either of those instances?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Now, Mr. Marchese also asked you questions about seeing a
2 photo of Black Hat laying down on the freeway with his rifle in
3 the gap of the cement barriers after April 12, 2014. Do you
4 recall those questions?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Do you have a recollection of Black Hat that's independent
7 of that photo or the photos that you observed after April 12th,
8 2014?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what you've testified and explained to the jury today,
11 is that from your independent recollection?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. When you saw Black Hat turn his hat around, he was on the 14 bridge. Is that right?

15 A. That's correct.

16 MR. TANASI: Objection, leading.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Where was he when you saw him -- his hat turn around
19 backwards?

20 A. He was on that bridge in the location that I indicated
21 earlier.

22 Q. Did you advise anyone around you of his hat being backwards?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. To your knowledge, was you -- is there -- was it recorded
25 you telling others around you that the hat was backwards?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, relevance.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's a prior consistent
3 statement.

4 (Government conferring.)

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's a prior consistent
6 statement. They've suggested that he didn't see what he saw and 7 that, in fact, not only didn't he see it, but he said it at the 8 time to other people.

9 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.
10 Consistency has been put in issue, so it can be used.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Do you know whether or not you telling the officers around 13 you that the hat had been turned backwards, if that was 14 recorded?

15 A. I believe it was, yes.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I show the witness and
17 counsel what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 143?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I apologize for the confusion.
20 Can I actually have Exhibit 36, what's been marked for 21 identification as 36, for counsel -- for the witness and 22 counsel.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MS. AHMED: Thank you. Now, can we advance to 12:30 on 25 the clock that's embedded in the video.

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Swanson, do you recognize what's depicted in -- you
3 can pause it here. Do you recognize what's depicted in Exhibit
4 36 at 12:30?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Have you previously viewed this portion of Exhibit 36?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And does it fairly and accurately depict the events,
9 including comments that you made on April 12th, 2014?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, Government would move to admit
12 only Exhibit 12 -- 36, just the statement that the witness made
13 regarding the hat.

14 THE COURT: Any objection?

15 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can we have a sidebar?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

19 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, I'm going to object on the grounds
21 that this is just -- one, it's bolstering. Two, it's 22 cumulative. And on the grounds that this witness has already 23 testified that he said something to somebody. He's already 24 indicated that he has and over our objection as to hearsay. And 25 now I guess we're bringing in another statement. I mean, how

1 many statements are we going to be bringing in?

2 If that's what this statement is. I assume that it's a
3 statement that he says, I see Black Hat or something in his
4 sights.

5 THE COURT: Is this his description of what he saw
6 contemporaneously from when he saw it?

7 MS. AHMED: That is correct, Your Honor. This is
8 where --

9 THE COURT: Present sense impression exception to the 10 hearsay rule?

11 MS. AHMED: That's correct. And if you'll recall from 12 the previous hearing and trial, this is where he said, The black
13 hat -- he's turned his hat around. That's the statement.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, none of us asked --

15 MR. MARCHESE: None of us asked about this.

16 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, they did imply that he was 17 fabricating what he saw generally by suggesting that he'd 18 seen --

19 THE COURT: That the only reason that he was testifying
20 this way is because he had already seen a previous picture so
21 that his description was provided after; not before. So you're 22 requesting to provide a contemporaneous description to rebut --

23 MS. AHMED: His suggestion of fabrication.

24 THE COURT: -- his suggestion of untruthfulness.

25 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is this a description or just the mere
2 fact that he's turning his hat? That's not a description of all
3 of the things that he suggested. If it's a description, it's a
4 description. If it's just turning of the hat, that's not a
5 description.

6 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, there's also a photograph
7 that we have that we intend to put into evidence with another
8 witness that we would show this witness where that same black
9 hat, the hat is turned around.

10 THE COURT: So that --

11 MS. AHMED: It's consistent with other evidence --

12 THE COURT: So the recording that you're going to play
13 is of this witness saying what?

14 MS. AHMED: That he's turned his hat around or 15 something -- I don't know if he says -- yeah, he's turned his 16 hat around.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, we didn't cross him on that. We 18 never asked him about that.

19 THE COURT: It's a permissible consistent statement
20 present sense impression. Objection overruled.

21 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

22 THE COURT: All right. The objection is overruled. So
23 you may go ahead, Ms. Ahmed. Exhibit 1236 is admitted.

24 MS. AHMED: It's 36, Your Honor. I'm sorry. It's 36
25 at approximately the 12:30 mark.

1 THE COURT: At the 12:30 mark.

2 MS. AHMED: 36-A.

3 THE COURT: So Exhibit 36-A at the 12:30 mark is
4 admitted. You may go ahead and publish.

5 MS. AHMED: And it's just that statement, Your Honor.

6 (Government's Exhibit 36 at the 12:30 mark is
7 admitted.)

8 MS. AHMED: Can we play it at 12:30.

9 (Video playing.)

10 MS. AHMED: Can you move it back actually a little bit
11 to right at the beginning of 12:30.

12 (Video playing.)

13 MS. AHMED: Can you stop it there.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. Agent Swanson, did you hear someone say something in that 16 recording?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Who was that that was talking?

19 A. That was me.

20 Q. And what did you say?

21 A. He's got his hat on backwards now.

22 Q. And who were you talking about?

23 A. Black Hat.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I show to the witness and
25 counsel what's been marked for identification as Exhibit 143?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Agent Swanson, do you recognize what is -- the individual
4 that I've circled that's depicted in Exhibit 143?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And who do you recognize that to be?

7 A. Black Hat.

8 Q. And do you recognize what I've circled at the top of the 9 screen in this image?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. This hasn't been admitted.
11 He's testifying to it.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'm laying foundation for this 13 witness to identify the distinctive characteristics of this
14 exhibit so that we may move for admission.

15 THE COURT: All right. Overruled.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Swanson, I've circled an area at the top of Exhibit
18 143. Do you see where I've circled?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And do you recognize what is depicted in Exhibit 143?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what is that?

23 A. Those are law enforcement vehicles down in the wash.

24 Q. And do you recognize what date this is based on that area
25 that I've circled?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What date?

3 A. That's the 12th of April 2014.

4 Q. Were the law enforcement vehicles that are in that circle in 5 that formation at any other time during the impoundment
6 operation?

7 A. No, not that I know of.

8 Q. Now, in addition to the individual that you have identified
9 in those vehicles, do you recognize what I'm circling in the 10 center of the picture?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what is that?

13 A. That's the Jersey barrier -- the other side of the Jersey
14 barrier that I was looking at the front side of.

15 Q. And I'm circling another area on the far left top corner of 16 the screen. Do you see that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what is that?

19 A. That's the west side of the southbound -- south side --
20 southbound bridge.

21 Q. The west side of the southbound bridge?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And are the things that you're seeing that we've discussed,
24 are they consistent with what you observed on April 12th, 2014?

25 A. Yeah. Obviously from a different angle; but, yeah, they

1 are.

2 Q. And do they fairly and accurately depict features of things
3 that you observed on April 12th, 2014?

4 A. Yes.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the witness has recognized
6 distinctive characteristics that were only present on April 12,
7 2014, in this area, so the Government would move to admit
8 Exhibit 143.

9 THE COURT: Any objection to the admission of 143?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects, authentication.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart would also object with respect to 12 the vantage point from where it's coming from. This picture
13 appears to be what would be looking at him; not what he would be 14 looking at.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins in that.

16 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed?

18 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, the -- we don't intend to 19 elicit any testimony from the witness that he observed from this 20 vantage point, but do simply want to discuss the area that I've 21 circled in the picture. That's something -- to simply the 22 position of the hat, which is something he did observe on April 23 12, 2014.

24 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 143 is admitted. You
25 may go ahead and publish it.

1 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 (Government's Exhibit 143 is admitted.)

3 THE COURT: And that's with the caveat that the 4 foundation is that he's recognizing the elements that are shown
5 in the photograph and admits that his point of view was from the 6 opposite side.

7 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Agent Swanson, looking at 143, you never saw Black Hat in 10 this position, correct?

11 A. That's right. Correct.

12 Q. And I've drawn a circle around the individual that you've 13 identified as Black Hat, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, looking specifically at Black Hat's -- at the hat
16 itself, can you explain to the jury the position of the hat on 17 Black Hat's head at this time?

18 A. It's on backwards.

19 Q. And on April 12th, 2014, when you were observing Black Hat
20 in the wash, did you see the hat appear in this position?

21 A. Yeah. Obviously he was above the pillar when I saw it; but,
22 yes, it was in that position. I saw it from my location.

23 Q. Now, you were also asked --

24 MS. AHMED: You can take that picture down. Thank you.

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. You were also asked by Mr. Leventhal on cross-examination to
2 look at Exhibit 151. Do you recall that?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: May we publish 151, Your Honor?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent Swanson, do you recall seeing this exhibit and being
8 asked questions by Mr. Leventhal?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Now, on April 12, 2014, did you -- could you see that people
11 were carrying different things on the northbound freeway?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Is there ...

14 Could you see that people had cameras?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Could you see that people had rifles?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you see this camera in particular?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. That I've circled?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. From what you can see, does that black camera appear to have 23 any kind of white insignia on?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object. Leading.

25 THE COURT: Sustained.

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Is there any chance that you confused the rifle that Black
3 Hat had with any other object?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Now, Agent Swanson, you were asked by Mr. Tanasi how many
6 times you met with the U.S. Attorneys Office. Do you recall
7 that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And how many times you met with the FBI?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you remember that question?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. On any of the occasions that you've ever met with the FBI or 14 the U.S. Attorneys Office, have you ever been asked to do
15 anything other than tell the truth based on what you observed on 16 April 12, 2014?

17 A. No, never.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
19 indulgence?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Prosecution conferring.)

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. Thank you, Agent
23 Swanson. I'll pass the witness.

24 THE COURT: Any recross?

25 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, if you could get up 5031-B.

2 THE COURT: Which exhibit is this?

3 MR. MARCHESE: 5031-B, as in boy, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. And just to back up a little bit to my cross-examination, we
8 had -- I believe you had identified Black Hat as pointing his 9 weapon in this particular screen shot earlier. You would agree
10 with that?

11 A. Yes, I did. It appears to be from that angle, yes.

12 Q. And I believe on direct examination --

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object to this as 14 argumentative. The witness is commenting on photos that he's 15 seeing now. He's testified that he doesn't know if this is what
16 he observed himself on April 12th. I just -- counsel's
17 essentially doing closing argument through this witness. It's 18 an inappropriate argument.

19 THE COURT: You want to rephrase the question?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. You've previously seen this exhibit before, sir,
23 haven't you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And at a previous hearing isn't it true that you also

1 said at that hearing that Black Hat was pointing the weapon at 2 you on this particular screen shot, correct?

3 A. It appeared to be, yes. It appears that he's pointing his 4 weapon, yes.

5 Q. Okay. So taking your mind off of this screen shot, you had
6 testified on direct examination that you saw the individual
7 placing the weapon on the Jersey barrier, correct, and you saw
8 it?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And then I believe you had your -- were you looking at him
11 through your scope at that time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. If you remember. Okay.

14 And I believe you said you took the slack off of the 15 trigger?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And is "slack" for lack of a better term -- describe
18 that to the jury. What did you mean by that?

19 A. On a trigger there's play, I guess. It's kind of hard to 20 describe, but there's a play. And then the trigger just stops.
21 And then that's when the actual trigger pull starts, but it
22 doesn't fire right then if you -- you can take the slack out and 23 then start to pull the trigger, and it still doesn't fire.
24 You'd have to put a certain amount of pounds of pressure on that 25 trigger for it to pull even after you take the slack out.

1 Q. Okay. And so basically what happens is you apply pressure,
2 it gets to a certain point, and then you have to apply more
3 pressure to fire the weapon. Is that fair to say?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. And in this particular case you took the slack out of 6 the trigger, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And then at that point that was when you saw the passenger
9 van. Is that right?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. You testified at a previous hearing, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you testified honestly and truthfully, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you were under oath at that time, correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you also testified at that hearing about taking the 18 slack out of the trigger, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. And that after you took the slack out of the trigger
21 that the traffic was flowing behind Black Hat, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And you observed that a white passenger van was 24 passing directly behind Black Hat's location. Is that correct?

25 A. I don't know if it's this exact moment. That's why I can't

1 say like this is the exact moment that I saw the passenger van
2 'cause there -- this may or may not have been the time that I
3 had the slack out of the trigger and my safety off.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. I can't -- I didn't film it.

6 Q. Sure. Right. And you didn't have a body cam, correct?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You didn't have your -- well, I don't know if you have an 9 iPhone or back then did you have an iPhone?

10 A. Probably.

11 Q. Yeah. Regardless, you didn't have it out?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Your hands were on your weapon?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Your binoculars, whatever?

16 A. Correct.

17 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Anyone else?

19 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Any re-redirect?

21 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: All right. At this time if any members of 23 the jury have a question for our witness, please go ahead and 24 write them down. Take your time. Write neatly. Don't give us
25 your name or your jury number. Make sure your question is

1 clear.

2 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

3 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

4 THE COURT: Jury note No. 66: Officer, Black Hat had
5 malascenes [sic] on his vest -- maybe it's magazines --
6 magazines on his vest. Were they for small arms or for his long
7 gun?

8 Any objection?

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

11 THE COURT: If he knows.

12 Jury note No. 67, two questions, it looks like. The
13 first one is: The moment you saw an individual pointing a
14 weapon at you, what was your reaction?

15 Any objection?

16 MR. TANASI: No objection.

17 THE COURT: And then the second part of that first 18 question is: How do you control your emotion -- it says your 19 emotional; but how do you control your emotional?

20 Any objection?

21 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

22 MS. AHMED: No objection.

23 THE COURT: The second or third part of jury note
24 No. 67 depending on how you count that: When people yield at 25 you and said you are a traitor, what you felt like as a human

1 because you just do your job?

2 MS. AHMED: No objection.

3 THE COURT: I think it is: When people yell at you and
4 say that you are a traitor, what did you feel like as a human
5 because you're just doing your job?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'd object to the relevance of that
7 question.

8 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, Lovelein objects.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MS. AHMED: I don't think this is the first irrelevant
11 question that the jury has asked, but I don't think it's 12 irrelevant. He discussed his emotions that day. It goes to his 13 testimony and potentially --

14 THE COURT: Well, I think what they're trying to find 15 out is what could have affected his judgment which is what 16 Defense was arguing about before as far as being up all night or 17 the night before, being told that people are coming. But if you
18 both agree not to ask it, I don't have to ask it.

19 MS. AHMED: Yeah, Government thinks the question should 20 be posed. No objection to the question being asked.

21 MR. MARCHESE: I think the Defense collectively
22 objects.

23 THE COURT: And so what is the objection from the 24 Defense?

25 MR. MARCHESE: Relevance.

1 MR. PEREZ: Relevance.

2 THE COURT: Well, the question above is about his
3 emotions and how to control his emotions and what is his
4 reaction when he sees a person with a weapon. So I'm going to 5 go ahead and ask it. I think it is relevant.

6 Jury note No. 68 has multiple parts. The first one is:
7 Did you see individuals in camo with long arms on the bridge as
8 well as Black Hat and Tan Hat?

9 MS. AHMED: No objection.

10 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

11 THE COURT: Any objection? Anyone else any objection?

12 MR. MARCHESE: No.

13 THE COURT: Jury note 68: Were you aware that there
14 were officers directing traffic next to armed individuals on the 15 bridge?

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

18 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government.

19 MR. MARCHESE: No objection Parker.

20 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

21 THE COURT: And, Mr. Leventhal, I don't think Patty
22 hears you. I see you, but I don't think Patty can see you.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. I'm nodding my head no.

24 THE COURT: Next part is: Did you perceive the 25 individuals in the wash as a threat or just the individuals on

1 the bridge?

2 Any objection?

3 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

4 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

5 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government.

6 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

7 THE COURT: All right. Jury note 68: Did you hear any
8 verbal threats from the individuals with long arms or were you
9 just threatened by their presence?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

11 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government.

12 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

13 MR. TANASI: None Stewart.

14 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Still on jury note No. 68: To your 16 knowledge, was anyone physically harmed during this protest, law
17 enforcement or others?

18 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

19 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

21 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

22 THE COURT: The next one is: In your opinion, would
23 you consider this a violent protest?

24 MS. AHMED: No objection.

25 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

1 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

2 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

3 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

5 THE COURT: And the last question, jury note 68 -- I
6 wanted to make sure there wasn't any more on the back -- If you
7 could have shut down the traffic on the bridge, would you have
8 taken a shot at the individual with long arms on the bridge?

9 Any objection?

10 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government.

11 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

13 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

14 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

15 THE COURT: All right. Jury No. 69 has two questions.
16 Number one, did any of the BLM officials use a bullhorn to give 17 any instructions or verbal messages to the public gathering on 18 the other side of the fence? If so, what was said by the law
19 enforcement officers to the crowd?

20 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government.

21 THE COURT: Any objection?

22 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

23 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

24 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Only to the extent of what they heard.

1 What was said and what was heard, two different things. That's
2 all.

3 THE COURT: So you want me to direct him not to tell me
4 word for word, but rather a description of ...

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Or just say not what they heard, but 6 what you heard them say; but not what the listener heard because 7 he wouldn't know that.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can we go backwards? Was that 9 question with respect to what they said to the people just on 10 their side of the fence, including the folks that are on the 11 bridge or is it just left at other side of the fence?

12 THE COURT: It says: If so, what was said by the law
13 enforcement officers to the crowd?

14 MR. TANASI: Okay.

15 THE COURT: And then the second question for jury note
16 69 is for the Judge: Why is it that some of the exhibits are 17 only for the witness and not offered for we, the jury, to 18 observe?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: You can answer that one. No objection.

20 MR. TANASI: No objection.

21 THE COURT: Yeah, unless the parties want to stipulate
22 to admit, then the witness has to lay a foundation and it has to 23 be offered into evidence before it can be shown to the jury, but 24 I don't think that there's anything that we've shown the 25 witness. Maybe -- have we not admitted anything?

1 MR. TANASI: Well, I think my video. There was part of 2 it that --

3 THE COURT: Okay. So there was two videos. We 4 admitted one; not the other.

5 MR. TANASI: Right.

6 THE COURT: Well, you withdrew the one because you
7 couldn't play it with the sound.

8 MR. TANASI: Right, there was portions of it.

9 THE COURT: So, okay.

10 MS. AHMED: It was only with this witness, though.

11 THE COURT: All right. Jury note No. 70 has three 12 questions. First one: With your scope could you make out
13 facial features of the people on the bridge?

14 Any objection?

15 MS. AHMED: No objection Government.

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

17 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

18 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

19 THE COURT: Number two, if you focussed on Black Hat,
20 was there anyone watching Tan Hat?

21 MS. AHMED: No objection.

22 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

23 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

24 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

25 THE COURT: And, number three, in Exhibit No. 14 was

1 the two women in that picture the ones Black Hat was taking
2 pictures with?

3 MS. AHMED: No objection.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is that the video?

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

7 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

8 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

9 THE COURT: I think -- was it Mr. Marchese? One of you
10 was talking about taking a selfie with the photo. I think
11 that's what she or he thinks that you were describing a woman
12 taking a selfie with Black Hat.

13 MR. TANASI: I think back here we had argued about the 14 selfie with Mr. Briscoe, but I don't think that actually got in.
15 Is there a different selfie?

16 MS. AHMED: He testified there was two women taking a
17 picture with their iPhones, and they quickly left.

18 THE COURT: Oh. Maybe it was the witness. Right. It
19 wasn't clear on whether they meant he was taking a picture of 20 something or with --

21 MS. AHMED: Of him or with him.

22 THE COURT: Yeah. So for that I'll clarify it.

23 Jury note No. 71, Special Agent Swanson stated that he 24 was told to keep an eye on specific threats such as Black Hat
25 and Tan Hat because they were pointing their long guns towards

1 Agent Swanson's direction, but then Agent Swanson later stated
2 that he didn't know Black Hat was pointing a gun towards him
3 until he saw the pictures days later. Could he please clarify
4 this?

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

7 MS. AHMED: No objection.

8 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

9 THE COURT: 72: Have you had prior similar
10 experiences, i.e., armed aggressors that colored your reaction
11 at this time?

12 MS. AHMED: No objection.

13 THE COURT: Any objection?

14 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

15 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

16 THE COURT: Do you have any prior training and 17 experience in the role of a sniper; not just a -- not just 18 marksmanship?

19 Any objection?

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

21 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

22 MS. AHMED: No objection.

23 THE COURT: You testified that there was radio traffic
24 and that they -- and the word "they" is in quotations -- were 25 spotting potential threats. Who were they and what was their

1 guidance as to who or what was a threat?

2 Any objection?

3 MS. AHMED: No objection.

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

5 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

6 THE COURT: And then on jury note No. 72: When you
7 were target ranging, did you have a spotter?

8 Any objection?

9 MS. AHMED: No objection.

10 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

11 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

12 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

13 THE COURT: And last question on No. 72, when and how 14 were your weapon and scope calibrated or dialled in?

15 MS. AHMED: No objection.

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

18 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

19 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Jury note No. 73: When you were 21 observing Black Hat from behind the truck, was there significant
22 glare or haze that could impact visual acuity?

23 MS. AHMED: No objection.

24 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

25 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

1 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

2 THE COURT: And do you believe that you're
3 instructed -- do you believe that you were -- okay. The arrow's
4 up here. Do you believe that you were instructed to remove a
5 threat if possible?

6 Any objection?

7 MS. AHMED: No objection.

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

9 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

10 THE COURT: And the last question on jury note No. 73
11 is: The end of a rifle barrel is about half an inch and black.
12 How were you certain the weapon was aimed at you?

13 MS. AHMED: No objection.

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

16 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

17 THE COURT: Jury note No. 74 has three questions. As 18 an officer of the law don't you realize that pointing your 19 weapon, long gun, at the police -- I'm sorry -- at the public
20 that you will get a reaction back?

21 MR. PEREZ: No objection Lovelein.

22 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

23 MR. MARCHESE: None Parker.

24 THE COURT: Number two, as an officer with military
25 experience in a heightened moment react -- let me say that

1 again. As an officer with military experience in a heightened
2 moment react? Or did your imagination take over as to what was
3 happening?

4 Any objection?

5 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

7 THE COURT: And then the last question is: Did the 8 lack of sleeping and resting play a part to all the tension that 9 was taking place?

10 Any objection?

11 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

13 MS. AHMED: No objection.

14 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

16 THE COURT: That's it. Thank you.

17 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So, Special Agent Swanson, I
19 have a few questions here from the jury. I'm going to go ahead
20 and read them into the record, but when you respond, you may go
21 ahead and turn and look at the jury and respond to them because 22 these are the jury's questions; not mine. All right?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: So jury note No. 66 asks: Officer, Black
25 Hat had magazines on his vest. Were they for small arms or for

1 his long gun?

2 THE WITNESS: The magazines on his vest appeared to be
3 for a handgun, which he had on a drop holster on his leg.

4 THE COURT: All right. Jury note 67 is two parts.
5 First one is: The moment you saw an individual pointing a
6 weapon at you, what was your reaction?

7 THE WITNESS: Can you read that one more time, Your
8 Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes. The moment you saw an individual
10 pointing a weapon at you, what was your reaction?

11 THE WITNESS: Well, my reaction was just basically my 12 training kicked in. When you go through training and you go
13 through so many scenarios and these shoot scenarios where, you
14 know, you go through these things where someone points a gun at 15 you, and your first reaction is to shoot. You pull a gun, and 16 if you don't already have one out, and you shoot because as a
17 police officer that's an imminent threat of serious bodily
18 injury or death to you or another. And that's when deadly force
19 is authorized.

20 So when someone points a gun at you, that's when you
21 shoot. And that was my first -- that was my first thought that 22 crossed my mind when I saw that gun pointed at me was to shoot.
23 I had kind of pre-assessed the situation and knew that to take a
24 shot would probably be really hard. And, you know, just in that 25 split second I had to make that choice and it was a very tough

1 choice, very tough.

2 THE COURT: All right. And the second part of the 3 first question is: How do you control your emotions?

4 THE WITNESS: That's kind of a tough question, but 5 probably in that situation you control your emotions just by 6 work -- going to work. I mean, you're doing a job. It's kind
7 of hard to believe if you don't have law enforcement experience,
8 but it is work, you know, just like you -- everyone has a job.
9 It's kind of the same thing. You're going through it and you're
10 doing your job. All of your training and experiences is guiding
11 you and helping you. You're taking in hundreds of different
12 things at a time, and you have to make these really, really
13 split-second decisions.

14 So emotions don't generally get in the way. There was 15 some emotions that day just because it was such a prolonged
16 event and things weren't going our way, I didn't feel. So --
17 but you talk to your other officers. You get what you're 18 thinking off your chest. You know, a lot of times when I was 19 behind that scope or even using my naked eye, I wasn't looking 20 at them, but I was -- I was communicating with my officers. We 21 were talking.

22 There was some levity involved, believe it or not, and 23 that's pretty common. You know, you have to kind of laugh and 24 get that nervous energy out. Drank a lot of water. One of our 25 officers was going around and just sticking water and whatever

1 we had in my cargo pocket. I'd feel that go into my cargo
2 pocket and not take my eyes off that. So I would reach down and
3 drink -- just like drink the whole bottle at once. And at one
4 point I looked down, I'm like, Man, I drank a lot of water.

5 I think one of the big things that I do to control my
6 emotions and my tempo is breathing, and I do what's called a
7 combat breathe. You breathe in really deeply. You hold your 8 breathe for a couple of seconds and then breathe out of your 9 mouth. So that's a side training that I got one time, and it's
10 proved to be invaluable. And it just kind of helps oxygenate
11 your blood and keep your mind right.

12 THE COURT: And then the last question on jury note
13 No. 67 is: For example, when people are yelling at you and
14 saying that you're a traitor, what did you feel like as a human
15 because you're just doing your job?

16 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Sorry. That brings up some 17 emotion because I served my country. I volunteered to serve my 18 country at a very young age, and I continue to serve my country.
19 I take a lot of pride in what I do and how I serve my fellow
20 Americans. So for someone to call me a traitor, you don't -- 21 you try not to take anything personally, but, you know, you're 22 listening to these people. And it's different than, you know,
23 being in Iraq or Afghanistan where, you know, those people
24 are --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to nonresponsive

1 at this point.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

3 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

4 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

5 THE COURT: Overruled. It's responsive.

6 THE WITNESS: The -- these were Americans. These were 7 people that I've dedicated my life, my adult life, to 8 protecting. And it was shocking and appalling to see that, that 9 the rule of law that day was trampled on.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. It's a legal conclusion.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

14 THE COURT: Overruled.

15 Jury note No. 68 asks: Did you see individuals in camo
16 with long arms on the bridge as well as Black Hat and Tan Hat?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Were you aware that there were officers
19 directing traffic next to armed individuals on the bridge?

20 THE WITNESS: No, I was not. I wasn't aware of that.

21 THE COURT: Did you perceive the individuals in the 22 wash as a threat or just the individuals on the bridge?

23 THE WITNESS: The individual in the wash -- from my 24 vantage point I could only see certain parts of the wash, but
25 when I first got there and I was assessing, and then people

1 starting calling out threats. There was threats up on -- you
2 saw like the cement embankment that came from the bridge down to 3 the wash, and there were armed people up there. And they were 4 visible. So to answer your question, yes, I perceived people in 5 the wash to be threats as well.

6 THE COURT: When you refer to the embankment, are you
7 talking like the cement skirt that ...

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. The skirt that comes 9 down from the bottom of the bridge, underneath the bridge, the 10 cement portion that comes down to the wash.

11 THE COURT: And so the question was: Did you perceive
12 individuals in the wash as a threat or just individuals on the 13 bridge? So are you considering the people on those skirts as 14 being a threat in the wash?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Next question is: Did you hear any
17 verbal threats from the individuals with long arms or were you
18 just threatened by their presence?

19 THE WITNESS: I didn't hear any threats from 20 individuals with long arms that -- I didn't see them armed, but 21 they -- the people that were -- I heard most of the yelling
22 from -- it was coming from all over the place, but the most of 23 the yelling that you could hear and understand and really was 24 coming from the closest bridge here. So you couldn't see --
25 because of the angle, you couldn't see their whole body. So I

1 don't know if people were armed up there or not. You couldn't
2 really tell.

3 THE COURT: All right. To your knowledge, was anyone
4 physically harmed during this protest, law enforcement or
5 others?

6 THE WITNESS: Not to my knowledge, no.

7 THE COURT: In your opinion, would you consider this a
8 violent protest?

9 THE WITNESS: Absolutely. It was a violent protest.
10 No doubt about it. There's no -- the rules are that you bring a
11 gun to a gun fight. You bring a knife to a knife fight. You
12 bring fists to a fist fight. They brought guns at us. We were 13 there. The defense attorney was correct. We were in place. We 14 didn't -- we didn't -- we weren't serving a warrant at their 15 house. We weren't going to their encampment. We were doing our 16 jobs. We were in place. They brought guns to us. They brought 17 the fight to us.

18 THE COURT: And the last question on jury note 68 is:
19 If you could have shut down the traffic on the bridge, would you
20 have taken a shot at the individual with long arms on the
21 bridge?

22 THE WITNESS: That's -- that's kind of hard to say
23 because, I mean, given the same situation and I had a safe
24 backdrop, I would -- I would have to answer unfortunately yes.
25 That's not something that you ever want to do in your career is

1 take the life of another human being, but the threat was great
2 enough to where if I had a safe backdrop at those -- at those
3 times, I believe in hindsight -- of course we have to make those
4 split-second decisions at the time, but I believe that I
5 probably would have, yes.

6 THE COURT: All right. Jury note No. 69, question 1:
7 Did any of the BLM officers use a bullhorn to give any 8 instructions or verbal messages to the public gathering on the 9 other side of the fence? If so, what was said by the law
10 enforcement officers to the crowd?

11 THE WITNESS: I can't tell you exactly what was said,
12 but there was -- the videos -- or the picture showed the 13 vehicles down closest to the fence that they had erected. And 14 there was an officer on a PA system, which was very loud, and 15 they were constantly announcing. It wasn't intermittent. It
16 was constantly that I remember they were telling them to 17 disperse; that their -- they're to get back to, to disperse;
18 that this -- they were telling the -- they were telling them
19 that this was a lawful impoundment and it was a lawful court
20 order issued by a federal judge. The federal judge told us
21 we -- not if you want to. You have to go get those cattle off
22 of public land.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

25 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

2 THE COURT: Untimely objection, but I'll ask the jury
3 to disregard those statements as -- to not consider them as 4 statements of what was actually said, but merely what the 5 witness remembers being said.

6 Second question for jury note 69 is: Why is it that
7 some of the exhibits are only for the witness and not offered
8 for we, the jury, to observe?

9 So that's a great question. Whenever the parties don't 10 stipulate or agree to whether an exhibit is admissible, then the 11 party that's offering the exhibit to be used with a particular 12 witness has to lay a foundation in the legal sense for why that 13 exhibit should be admitted. In order to do that, they have to 14 ask questions of the witness regarding the picture and only the 15 witness can see it because it might be that it was not going to 16 be admitted. So once the pictures are shown or the video,
17 whatever it is, to the witness and the witness can lay the 18 proper foundation, then I make the ruling that it's admissible.

19 Sometimes it's not admissible. If it's not admissible,
20 you don't get to see it for good reason because legally it's not 21 admissible. But if it is admissible, then you get to see it and 22 it's the same thing that was shown to the witness before. And 23 usually actually you get to talk about it and hear more about 24 it, but just for the foundation.

25 Jury note No. 70 has three questions. The first one

1 is: With your scope, could you make out facial -- facial
2 features of the people on the bridge?

3 THE WITNESS: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And then number two, if you focussed on
5 Black Hat, was there anyone watching Tan Hat?

6 THE WITNESS: No, at some point Tan Hat just kind of 7 disappeared. We looked for him. I scanned left and right and
8 tried to pick him back up, but we -- to answer your question,
9 yeah, we were looking for him, but we couldn't find him.

10 THE COURT: All right. And question No. 3 of jury note
11 70: In Exhibit No. 14 was that the two women in the picture,
12 the ones that Black Hat was taking pictures with?

13 THE WITNESS: Yes. To my recollection that was, yes.

14 THE COURT: And jury note No. 71: Special Agent
15 Swanson stated that he was told to keep an eye on specific 16 threats such as Black Hat and Tan Hat because they were pointing
17 their long guns towards Agent Swanson's direction, but then 18 Agent Swanson later stated that he didn't know Black Hat was 19 pointing a gun towards him until he saw the picture days later.
20 Could he please clarify this?

21 THE WITNESS: Oh, yeah. I didn't know that he was 22 pointing a gun through the Jersey barrier because from my
23 position, my vantage point, the break in the Jersey barrier
24 appeared small. So I didn't know he was using it as a firing
25 position, basically. It looked to me -- I couldn't see through

1 it. I couldn't see beyond it. It looked like they weren't
2 connected, but it didn't look to me like you could actually use
3 it as a firing position. I only found out later that he was 4 using that as a firing position through viewing that picture.
5 However, there were other instances where I witnessed him
6 pointing his gun at me over the Jersey barrier.

7 THE COURT: All right. Jury note No. 72: Have you had
8 prior similar experiences, i.e., armed aggressors that colored
9 your reaction at this time?

10 THE WITNESS: No. I've never had -- I mean, I've been 11 around peaceful protests, regular protests where people have 12 signs, even some of them not being so nice to you, but never had 13 someone or multiple people aggress on me with a gun, no.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And do you have prior training and 15 experience in the role of a sniper; not just marksmanship?

16 THE WITNESS: No, I don't. I'm not a trained sniper.
17 I never went through a sniper course or anything like that. So,
18 you know, I used the term counter sniper, but that doesn't
19 necessarily -- I was the guy with the slightly magnified scope.
20 So they're like, Hey, you're the counter sniper, but as far as 21 like actual sniper training, I didn't have it. Actually, my 22 partner has -- was a sniper in the Air Force, but I -- but he 23 didn't have the scope, so ...

24 THE COURT: All right. And you testified that there
25 was radio traffic and that they, and the word they is in

1 quotation marks, were spotting potential threats. Who were they
2 and what was their guidance as to who or what was a threat?

3 THE WITNESS: I don't think there was any guidance. I
4 mean, we were just -- I mean, we're trained to know that someone
5 with a long gun with body armor with full battle rattle or full
6 BDU or even if they're in civilian clothes and they have guns,
7 they're a threat to us. So the radio traffic for the most part
8 I think was coming from those vehicles that were up front doing
9 the announcing. And there was quite a few officers around that,
10 and they were calling out threats down in the wash and up on the 11 embankments.

12 Other radio traffic was coming from, I believe, the 13 other vehicle that was to our left. And we -- and as well as we 14 were putting out some radio traffic, too. I'm sorry, Your 15 Honor. I don't know if that answered it completely or not.

16 THE COURT: Yes, they wanted to know which -- who was 17 the "they" that you were referring to.

18 When you were target ranging, did you have a spotter?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, the other people on the truck, we 20 had different people on binoculars at different times, but where 21 you saw me is where I was most of the time. Where I was -- I
22 stayed pretty much behind my scope the whole time or, you know,
23 it would be looking with my naked eye as well, but the -- we had 24 other people spotting with binoculars next to me.

25 THE COURT: All right. When and how were your weapon

1 and scope calibrated or dialled in?

2 THE WITNESS: Well, we have to qualify with our weapon
3 quarterly. So every quarter, you know, every four months or so,
4 we have to qualify with our long guns or we do -- we also do
5 tactical shoots. So I guess to answer your question every 6 quarter it's tested, and if it's not sighted in, you're going to 7 know because your target is going to be bad. So you're going to 8 have to recalibrate it in, but generally they're pretty -- I
9 don't think I've ever had that ACOG get knocked off to where it
10 wasn't on still, but that -- that's what we do about every 11 quarter.

12 THE COURT: All right. And jury note No. 73: When you
13 were observing Black Hat from behind the truck, was there
14 significant glare or haze that could impact visual acuity?

15 THE WITNESS: No, it was a very clear, sunny day. It
16 was actually very hot. That's the reason why we drank so much
17 water, but I was -- it was a clear day. I don't remember any 18 kind of haze or anything like that or any kind of visual 19 obstruction at all.

20 THE COURT: Do you believe that you were instructed to 21 remove a threat if possible?

22 THE WITNESS: No, to ... If ... No, I don't believe I
23 was instructed to remove a threat. I think that I was 24 instructed to determine whether or not a threat was imminent and 25 that was going to cause serious death or bodily injury to me or

1 someone else, one of the other officers. And that would have
2 been my job to take care of that threat.

3 THE COURT: And the end of a rifle barrel is about half
4 an inch and black. So how were you so certain that the weapon
5 was aimed at you?

6 THE WITNESS: Well, it's I guess the way that it was 7 pointed and the way I'm looking at it, I'm -- I'm detecting it's 8 aimed in at me. It was pointed in my direction. I can't say
9 for certainty that, yes, that weapon was pointed directly at me,
10 but I know that it was pointed in the direction of me or one of 11 my fellow officers because of the orientation of the gun and the 12 direction in which it was pointed. And I was perceiving that 13 that threat was pointed at me.

14 THE COURT: All right. Jury note 74 has three 15 questions. The first one is: As an officer of the law, don't 16 you realize that pointing your weapon, long gun, at the public
17 that you will get a reaction back?

18 THE WITNESS: Well, I would think that the public
19 pointing their weapon at me is -- it's commonly known that if 20 you're going to point your gun at a cop, that you're going to 21 get a gun pointed back at you. And that's what was happening
22 that day. We were having guns pointed at us. So I reacted
23 within my training and within our use of force to counteract
24 that threat. They pointed their guns at us and brought -- like
25 I said before, they brought guns to us. We didn't -- we didn't

1 go to where they were. They came and they brought guns and
2 pointed them at us. And that is our job is to protect our life.
3 In no instance are we ever expected to lay down our life.

4 THE COURT: As an officer with military experience in
5 heightened moment -- as an officer with military experience in a
6 heightened moment react? Or did your imagination take over as 7 to what was happening?

8 THE WITNESS: No, my imagination did not take over. My 9 training and experience took over. And I reacted to exactly
10 what was in front of me. There was no -- there was no
11 imagination involved, believe me. It was very, very real.

12 THE COURT: And did the lack of sleeping and resting
13 play a part to all the tension that was taking place?

14 THE WITNESS: I -- physiologically, when you're in that 15 kind of stress, it doesn't matter how much sleep you have or 16 don't have. Your body reacts the same way. So my physiological
17 reaction to that -- to that encounter was the same no matter
18 what kind of sleep I got. Increased heart rate. I probably had 19 some tunnel vision. I did some exercises to counteract that,
20 move my head around.

21 You -- basically we were running on pure adrenaline. I
22 mean, I didn't feel -- I felt a certain body fatigue because I
23 was in the same position a lot, and I did have a lot of 24 adrenaline running through my body so there was parts of me that 25 was just shaking. And I couldn't -- you know, I couldn't

1 control that. And that's the physiological reaction to stress.
2 When someone's pointing a gun at you or you're in that kind of
3 stressful situation, scientifically just certain things happen.

4 And so to answer your question, no, I don't think it
5 played any kind of negative role because it was -- it was just
6 pure adrenaline and pure concentration. There wasn't a time
7 where I felt, Wow, I wish I could go to sleep right now ever.

8 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up questions from
9 the Government?

10 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Swanson, I just wanted to follow-up on a couple of 14 things that you had said in explaining or answering the jury's
15 questions. I think you said in terms of the -- you pointing a 16 weapon that you were acting within your training and within your 17 use of force. Did you mean use of force policies for agency or 18 can you just explain what you meant by that phrase, "use of 19 force"?

20 A. Yes. There's a use of force policy within our agency, and 21 it just goes basically along with Supreme Court decisions. And 22 I think I stated it before, but deadly force is authorized when 23 you feel that there is a threat of imminent serious bodily injury
24 or death to you or another.

25 Q. And is that consistent with your other law enforcement

1 experience as well?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, there was a question about the Black Hat going. You
4 didn't know that he was pointing his weapon between the gap in 5 the concrete barriers. Do you recall that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. When -- you testified also on direct that he disappeared at 8 some point and he didn't come back up as far as you observed --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'm just doing foundational 11 questions to get to the ...

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Do you recall testifying that he went down and you didn't 14 see him come back up?

15 A. Black hat?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And when he disappeared behind that concrete barrier, the 19 Jersey barriers as you were calling it, what assessment did you
20 make about whether or not he was still a threat?

21 A. Well ...

22 Q. When you could no longer see him, was he still a threat?

23 A. No, he wasn't -- I mean, by the reaction of the camera
24 people about -- after that when he was still -- when he was --
25 when they walked away and he was still out of sight, he was not

1 a threat to me. I didn't perceive him as a threat because I
2 didn't know that he was aiming his gun through that Jersey
3 barrier.

4 Q. And was his presence on the northbound bridge with his rifle
5 and the movements he was making, did that make him a threat to
6 you?

7 A. Yes.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
9 indulgence?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 (Government conferring.)

12 MS. AHMED: Nothing further. Thank you. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Follow-up by Defense on behalf of 14 Mr. Stewart?

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, thank you. Thank you, Your
16 Honor.

17 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. Agent Swanson, I just want to make sure I'm clear on 20 something. Were you aware that NHP was on the northbound
21 bridge?

22 A. Yes, I saw -- well, I saw an NHP cruiser at one point.

23 Q. So you were aware that NHP was on the bridge, the northbound
24 bridge, fair?

25 A. I'm aware that there was a NHP cruiser on the bridge at one

1 point driving across it, yes.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you. No further questions.

3 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: On behalf of Drexler, go ahead.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

6 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Sir, so let me get this. You lost Tan Hat, you lost
9 visually where he went, right? Correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. So how long were you able to spot him? No more than 12 a couple of seconds?

13 A. Not sure what you're asking, sir.

14 Q. Well, if you ran -- if he ran away and you could no longer
15 see him because you were focussed on Black Hat, how long in 16 total do you think you saw Tan Hat?

17 A. Oh, no. It was minutes. I mean, he was there with Black
18 Hat for quite a long time.

19 Q. Okay. And you indicated that you could not see through the 20 Jersey barrier, correct?

21 A. Correct. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And you had, as you called it, the code which is the 23 highest level of magnification out there, correct?

24 MS. AHMED: Objection.

25 THE WITNESS: No.

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. No? The code, this -- your lens?

3 A. It's an ACOG.

4 Q. ACOG?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Was what high magnification?

7 A. No.

8 Q. It was not. What was so special about it that they asked
9 you to do that?

10 A. It was the only magnified scope that we had out there that 11 day.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. But when you say highest magnification, there's sniper
14 scopes that are that long. It wasn't that.

15 Q. And did you have those out there?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. So when I say was it the highest magnification scope
18 out there, "out there" being with the BLM at that time?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. That's what I mean.

21 A. Oh, yeah. You didn't ask that.

22 Q. I apologize. So is that a correct statement then?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And even with that you couldn't see through the Jersey
25 barrier, correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that there were no other visual
3 obstructions, but, yet, we saw a tree visually obstructing you,
4 correct?

5 A. From the angle that you put that picture up, yeah.

6 Q. We saw a tree obstructing you, correct?

7 A. From that side, yes.

8 Q. I understand. That did obstruct you from that angle,
9 correct?

10 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, argumentative. The 11 witness has answered the question three times.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. How many --

14 MS. AHMED: He thinks that from the other view from 15 that angle he was obstructed; not his view.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. How many people were out there that day?

18 A. I don't know.

19 Q. In terms of protestors on the other side?

20 A. I don't know.

21 Q. Approximately? 200?

22 A. I don't know.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'm just going to object. This 24 appears to be going beyond the jury question follow-up.

25 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

1 Q. Was there a lot of dust?

2 MS. AHMED: Same objection, Your Honor.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: It goes to visual obstruction, Your
4 Honor, which was one of the questions.

5 THE WITNESS: I did not see any visual obstruction when
6 I was looking at the north bridge.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Okay. The horses came in. You saw that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Were they in a wash that was concrete?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Was it dust? Was it dirt?

13 A. I'm sure they raised some dust, yeah. But I didn't see any 14 visual obstruction.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Nothing further.

16 THE COURT: Anyone else?

17 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Any redirect follow-up?

19 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

20 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Agent Swanson, just with respect to the questions that
23 Mr. Leventhal asked you about the tree that -- so there was a
24 picture that he showed you. Do you recall that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And in that picture there was a tree that obstructed your
2 vehicle. Is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now, can you explain to the jury, did that -- did that tree
5 play any role in your line of sight on April 12, 2014?

6 A. No.

7 Q. What could you see of the northbound bridge?

8 A. I could see the whole bridge, from the crowd to the right
9 all the way to the left.

10 Q. Did the tree obstruct -- based on your experience in that 11 position and in that area, were you obstructed from the 12 northbound bridge by that tree?

13 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, asked and answered.

14 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the questions.

15 Clearly --

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 THE COURT: -- there's confusion. So we need to 18 clarify it now before we let him go.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. And so can you explain -- what was your answer that were --
21 about the tree?

22 A. That tree did not obstruct anything, any part of the 23 northbound bridge for me.

24 Q. But were you obstructed or hidden by the tree?

25 A. I don't know. I wasn't -- I couldn't see from the

1 northbound bridge. It appeared from the picture that he showed,
2 whatever angle that was and wherever it was taken, it looked
3 like I was obstructed, but it did not obstruct my view at all.
4 The only thing that tree obstructed was just a small part,
5 mostly of where our own officers were down in the bridge --
6 under the bridge and the temporary gate that was erected down
7 there.

8 Q. Were officers visible from the bridge in the wash in your
9 area?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. AHMED: Nothing further. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Anything else from the Defense?

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Just can I bring up 149 again,
14 please?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. Go ahead and zoom it in 17 please, Brian. Thank you.

18 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Okay, sir. This picture, do we agree, was taken from the 21 northbound bridge?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And you are behind this tree, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. These officers are in front of this tree. Is that

1 what you were referring to?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So it would not obstruct their view, but it would
4 obstruct your view from that angle, correct?

5 A. Of them, yes.

6 MS. AHMED: I'm really -- objection, Your Honor. I
7 think the question's confusing as to view of this witness? The 8 witness's view and of what and of ...

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because counsel is confused -- the 10 witness has just answered my question, so apparently he wasn't
11 confused.

12 THE COURT: Well, was your question about the photo or 13 about his view on the day of?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, his view he indicated was behind
15 here and he was not obstructed.

16 MS. AHMED: Meaning he could see.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: These officers in front of him had a
18 clear view who were in front of this gate.

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Correct? Is that your testimony?

21 A. I'm really confused. I'm sorry, so ...

22 THE COURT: What, if anything, did that tree obstruct?
23 What view, if any, did that tree obstruct from your position
24 behind the blue truck on the day in question disregarding this 25 photo? Just what could you see from your truck on April 12th of 1 2014?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. The only thing that that
3 tree obstructed was part of my view of those officers that were
4 down by the gate right there.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. I see. So you could not see these individual officers here?

7 A. Not all of them.

8 Q. That's your testimony?

9 A. Not all of them, no.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Nothing further.

11 THE COURT: Anyone else?

12 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to go ahead and 14 take our evening break, and we will excuse Special Agent
15 Swanson. And during this overnight break, the jury is reminded 16 that you are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit
17 anyone to discuss it with you. You are not to read or listen to 18 or view anything that touches upon this case in any way nor to 19 conduct any research or any independent investigation about this 20 case. You are ordered to advise the Court right away if anyone
21 does attempt to talk to you about the case, or if you know of 22 anyone else on the jury who's doing any kind of independent
23 investigation or anything like that, you need to bring it to our 24 attention.

25 Also, please do not form any opinion regarding the

1 issues in this case. We will be providing you still more
2 testimony, more exhibits. Once you've seen all of those, then
3 I'll provide to you the written jury instructions of law so you
4 can apply those to the facts as you find them. Then you will 5 hear closing arguments, which is the attorneys' opportunity to 6 explain to you what they believe the testimony has been so far
7 and how that should be applied to the jury instructions of law.
8 Then I will excuse you to begin the deliberation process. Then 9 you can start talking to each other about the case and your 10 opinions and things like that, but not until then.

11 So we will go ahead and take our overnight break. We 12 were going to break until 10:30 tomorrow morning. Then we 13 thought we could get you in at 9, but it looks like -- no,
14 there's some folks that had already made arrangements. So we 15 can't bring you back in at 9 tomorrow. So we'll be starting at 16 10:30 a.m. tomorrow until 5 p.m., and then we're dark on Friday.
17 So then we would start back up again at Monday from 9 to 5.

18 So we'll go ahead and excuse the jury and welcome them
19 back tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. And then, Special Agent Shannon,
20 after the jury exits, you may also exit the courtroom, and 21 you're excused. You don't need to come back tomorrow morning.

22 THE WITNESS: Thanks, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Everyone else needs to be here tomorrow at 24 10:30.

25 (Whereupon the jury leaves the courtroom at 4:56 p.m.)

1 THE COURT: Off record.

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can I address real quickly
3 with respect to scheduling?

4 THE COURT: All right. Back on record.

5 MR. TANASI: I apologize. On August 9th I was hoping
6 to be able to drop off my son for his first day of kindergarten.
7 And so what I was asking for is a late start on the 9th.

8 THE COURT: Okay. What time do you want to start?

9 MR. TANASI: I'd say I could be here by 10 no problem.

10 THE COURT: I don't have a problem with that. Anyone
11 else have any problem with that?

12 MR. MYHRE: No.

13 THE COURT: I don't have a problem with starting at 14 10 a.m. on Wednesday, August 9th.

15 MR. MYHRE: Not from the Government, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. So go ahead and mark your 17 calendars, and we'll let the jury know tomorrow. If you don't 18 mind, Mr. Tanasi, if -- just remind me tomorrow again to make 19 sure to remind the jury just so they know, too.

20 MR. TANASI: Absolutely. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 (Jury out.)

5 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
7 Jury Trial, Day 11, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
8 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
9 Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, before we bring in the 11 jury and permit the attorneys to place their presence on the 12 record, I just want to remind everyone about the conduct that 13 is expected in the courtroom.

14 It is a courtroom. It is not a sporting event, so
15 please remember, no expressions of opinions are permitted,
16 whether they be verbal expressions or through your conduct,
17 facial expressions and so forth. No matter how much you agree
18 or disagree with something that you hear that is being said,
19 please do not make any expressions.

20 The defendants have been warned about this as well.
21 We do have a holding cell with a speaker system. If any of the 22 defendant do make expressions that are inappropriate, the US
23 Marshals have the authority to remove them and place them in 24 the holding cell to listen to the rest of the trial, but they 25 will not be permitted to be physically present.

1 Likewise, there are no cell phones or electronic
2 devices that are permitted in the courtroom. That means no
3 audio recording, no video recording. The marshals and the 4 court security officers are also authorized to remove any
5 persons who do have an electronic device. Whether it's on 6 private mode or vibrate mode or even turned off, it's not
7 permitted in the courtroom. So please double-check and be
8 careful about that and leave it outside.

9 The attorneys have electronic devices. They need to 10 be able to follow along with the presentation of evidence and 11 to present their own evidence on the equipment. I think the 12 rest doesn't apply.

13 Okay. Can we go ahead and bring in the jury? I saw 14 Mr. Marchese stand up, so I wasn't sure. Do you need to 15 address something?

16 MR. MARCHESE: Just briefly, Your Honor. I spoke --

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. MARCHESE: I spoke with the government in 19 reference to bringing some evidence possibly before the court
20 today. It's in reference to the dash cams. There's two 21 particular dash cams the defense is seeking to admit.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor saw them both at the last 24 time. Probably don't remember whose was whose. One was Sones
25 and one was Ranger Johnson.

1 I believe the government -- and I don't want to put
2 words in their mouth. They don't have any issue in reference
3 to authenticity. However, I believe they might have a
4 relevance objection in reference to them.

5 THE COURT: Oh, so it's not your objection. It's the 6 government's objection?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Well, we're going to be seeking it.
8 We have spoke with them. I don't believe, in their case in 9 chief, that they are going to be seeking to admit these pieces
10 of evidence.

11 I have spoken to them. We've obviously had issues
12 with the audio. I would like the whole thing in; but, at least
13 at this point, I am seeking to admit those two particular dash
14 cams with just the video, not the audio and all the 15 extracurricular, you know, comments that are made on those dash
16 cams.

17 THE COURT: All right. And so which are the two 18 exhibits? The exhibit numbers?

19 MR. MARCHESE: I haven't marked them yet. I will get 20 them marked. I think the next one up is, Brian, 5033?

21 MR. GLYNN: 5034.

22 MR. MARCHESE: 5034 and 5035 will be those two
23 exhibits.

24 THE COURT: All right. So, what is the government's
25 position on Exhibit 5034 and 5035?

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I expressed to Mr. Marchese
2 if he can designate what portions he seeks to admit, we can
3 look at them right now. Our objection would be relevance. But
4 I don't think -- my understanding of our conversation was, were 5 we going to be objecting as to authenticity of those -- of 6 those video -- or, excuse me -- those dash cams, because he
7 would seek to authenticate them through BLM agents who are
8 here.

9 The government doesn't anticipate objecting on 10 authenticity grounds, but we have an objection on relevance
11 until I can get from the defense what it is they seek to 12 introduce.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So, you want -- can we do that at 14 the lunch hour? Because we have --

15 MR. MARCHESE: I can let them know. I'm just saying
16 it just -- I just want it for when people are in the wash.
17 Because, obviously, that is when the -- the main allegations
18 occur, is when people are gathering in the wash, on the bridge.
19 And I want to be able to show the jury and argue to the jury
20 the facts as to what is depicted on those particular dash cams.
21 So --

22 THE COURT: All right. But whether or not they're 23 relevant is something you need to address with the government,
24 and whether or not they're going to object to that. If they 25 are, then I'll make a ruling. But if you can get together with

1 them and see if there's a portion that --

2 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I --

3 THE COURT: -- you can identify for them, so they can
4 be satisfied they don't need to make the objection, then that 5 will --

6 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

7 THE COURT: -- make things move quicker.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. I'll speak with them, but I --
9 I've already told them. I want them when people are in the 10 wash and on the bridges.

11 What it is -- those would be the relevant time
12 frames. I'll get to them. It's not a problem. I'll fast
13 forward and find the exact moment on. I don't think it's 14 relevant or necessary to have the jury sit through, you know,
15 tumbleweeds.

16 So, but I'll get with them, and I guess we can
17 address it later, as long as they are okay with authentication.
18 Because I don't want to miss my opportunity because I think I
19 might have difficulty authenticating those particular videos
20 with, say, Mr. Parker or another witness who might have been on 21 the bridge.

22 THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

23 MR. MARCHESE: Not from Parker.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. TANASI: Well --

1 THE COURT: Let's go ahead then and bring in the
2 jury.

3 MR. TANASI: Yeah, Your Honor. I apologize. There
4 is one more thing. We did -- Mr. Myhre and I had a
5 conversation, and I think we do have an agreement on a piece of 6 evidence through -- to be admitted through Mr. Whitteaker, who
7 I understand is to testify next.

8 Brian, what was our next number? 5036. Okay. Your 9 Honor, so this would be Defense Exhibit 5036. And it's 10 particularly 35 seconds to the 1 minute and 6 second mark of 11 that Apley body cam.

12 And it was formerly marked on the Government's or 13 listed on the Government's Exhibit list, at least the entire 14 three minutes, as Government Exhibit 36A.

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry. So, is it -- are you telling 16 me that you are stipulating or are you asking me to do
17 something?

18 MR. TANASI: We are stipulating. That's, at least,
19 my understanding.

20 THE COURT: Is that right?

21 MR. MYHRE: Excuse me just one minute, Your Honor.

22 MR. TANASI: And in addition, the stipulation, Your
23 Honor, would be muted.

24 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we -- we stipulate to that 25 providing no audio is being played.

1 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 5036 is going to
3 be stipulated and but with the condition of what?

4 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. We stipulate to 5 approximately 35 seconds to 1 minute and 6 seconds.

6 MR. TANASI: That's correct.

7 MR. MYHRE: And no audio.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Mr. Myhre, what were those 9 times?

10 MR. MYHRE: 35 seconds to 1 minute and 6 seconds.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Anything?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor, not on behalf of 15 Mr. Drexler. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: You had a look on your face like maybe
17 you were going to say something. All right. So, let's go
18 ahead and bring in the jury, Aaron.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Exhibit 5036 is admitted,
20 Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you.

23 (Exhibit 5036 admitted.)

24 (Jury in.)

25 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.

1 Everyone else may be seated as well.

2 All right. So, before we begin, I just want to read
3 a jury note that I received today. We're marking it Jury Note
4 No. 75. And this is a very helpful reminder.

5 "Can the Court please ask all parties to speak up?
6 There are times it is very difficult for us to hear the 7 questions and responses."

8 Okay. So, thank you very much for that reminder.

9 All right. So, we finished up last night with BLM
10 Special Agent Scott Shannon, so the government may call its 11 next witness.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, did you want the parties to 13 identify ourselves for the record?

14 THE COURT: Oh, yes, please. Loudly. Speak up.

15 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
16 ladies and gentlemen. Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia
17 Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning,
20 folks. Rich Tanasi for Steve Stewart. Also with us at counsel
21 table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
24 morning, ladies and gentlemen. Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric
25 Parker.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd
3 Leventhal of behalf of Scott Drexler.

4 THE COURT: Good morning.

5 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, everyone. Shawn Perez on
6 behalf of the Ricky Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: Good morning. All right. So, now let's
8 go ahead and call the next witness, please.

9 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
10 calls Ranger Edwin Whitteaker.

11 THE COURT: Good morning, Agent -- Ranger Whitteaker.

12 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

13 THE COURT: Come on up, please. Be careful with 14 those steps.

15 EDWIN WHITTEAKER,
16 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please state your full name
18 for the record and spell your last name.

19 THE WITNESS: My full name is Edwin Whitteaker.
20 Whitteaker, W-H-I-T-T-E-A-K-E-R.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Good morning, Ranger Whitteaker.

24 A. Good morning, ma'am.

25 Q. Are you currently working for the BLM?

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. That is correct, ma'am.

2 Q. And what is your position with the BLM?

3 A. I'm a field staff ranger, law enforcement ranger with the 4 BLM, ma'am.

5 Q. How long have you held that position with the BLM?

6 A. Seven years, ma'am.

7 Q. Prior to the position that you currently hold with the 8 BLM, do you have any other law enforcement experience?

9 A. Yes, ma'am. I was a US border patrol. I was also in the 10 INS. I was an ATF, local police officer, and I worked for the 11 Veterans Affairs.

12 Q. And can I ask you to pull the microphone a little get bit
13 closer to you? And just try to speak into the mike.

14 A. Okay. Ma'am.

15 Q. Thank you.

16 A. Is that better?

17 Q. That's good for me. Thank you.

18 Now, how many years total combined law enforcement
19 experience do you have?

20 A. Currently I have 20 years, ma'am.

21 Q. Now, and you indicated that you're a law enforcement
22 ranger with the BLM; is that right?

23 A. That is correct, ma'am.

24 Q. Are you then a commissioned law enforcement officer?

25 A. Yes, I am, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. Are you authorized to enforce federal laws?

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. And what training, generally, have you received in support
4 of your position as a BLM ranger?

5 A. I went to Glencoe, for both the Border Patrol Academy, the 6 ATF Academy, and also new professional training. I continue to 7 go to training. I was a defensive tactics coordinator. I was 8 a taser armor instructor, and I am currently a K9 handler.

9 Q. Now, in April of 2014, were you involved in an -- in an 10 impoundment operation that the BLM was conducting in Nevada?

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. Were you specifically providing security for that
13 operation?

14 A. Yes, I was, ma'am.

15 Q. And were you -- did you join the operation around
16 April 10th of 2014?

17 A. That is correct, ma'am.

18 Q. Were you on duty in the morning of April 12th of 2014?

19 A. Yes, I was, ma'am.

20 Q. When you began your morning on April 12th, where were you?

21 A. I was at what we called Post 1 which is the front gate,
22 ma'am.

23 Q. And that's the front gate that would lead down eventually
24 to the ICP?

25 A. Yes, it would.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. And while you were at Post 1, what, if anything, did you
2 observe that seemed to you out of the ordinary?

3 A. When I was at Post 1, on the northbound lanes of the 4 highway, I saw individuals parking on the side of the highway,
5 which is abnormal. A large amount of them. They started
6 coming out of the vehicles. Some of the individuals, the 7 rangers I was with had binoculars and were calling out that
8 they were coming out with firearms.

9 Q. Now, in the course of your duties as a BLM ranger, do you
10 come into contact with people that have firearms regularly?

11 A. On a daily basis, I come across individuals with firearms.
12 My duties, we do a lot of shooting compliance checks. And in 13 the state I work in, everybody's armed. So, most anybody I
14 contact in my state is going to be armed with a firearm.

15 Q. Did the firearms that were being called out on April 12th,
16 then, seem like the normal course of duties for you or were 17 they different in any way?

18 A. I have been at protests before. We have a lot of burro
19 and burro protests that I have attended. And we usually don't 20 see armed subjects there. These subjected seemed animated,
21 angry, were coming out. They had firearms. So, it was unusual
22 for me to see them at a protest.

23 Q. Now, at some point, did you move from your position at 24 Post 1, or did you stay there all day?

25 A. I didn't stay there the whole time. I went down to Post 2

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 which was in the wash.

2 Q. And why did you go to Post 2?

3 A. There was calls for assistance. They said there was armed
4 individuals. I heard over the radio several times. I asked
5 for permission to go down there, I was granted permission, and
6 I went down there.

7 Q. And when you went down to Post 2, what did you do when you
8 first got there?

9 A. When I first got to Post 2, I talked to Kelly Cole. He
10 was one of the leads down there. He told me to take position
11 and look for subjects with weapons.

12 Q. And did you do that?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. And when you were looking for subjects, where generally
15 were you looking?

16 A. I was looking on the northbound bridge, the top of the 17 bridge. That was our most vulnerable point. We were in a
18 wash, a fatal funnel. They had the high ground. They had the 19 cover of the concrete barriers.

20 We were basically all out in the open. You know, we 21 had concealment with our vehicles, but any of their long guns
22 could have easily gone through those vehicles.

23 Q. Now, you used the phrase "fatal funnel." Can you explain
24 to the jury what you mean by that phrase?

25 A. A fatal funnel is from my training. I used to -- I used

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 to be the guy who goes -- when I was with the ATF, the first
2 guy through the door with the shield.

3 Now, the fatal funnel is that danger point. You are
4 going into, basically, a funnel, where they can shoot you. You
5 are either the first guy in or you are trapped in that wash.
6 You are trapped in that doorway. We were trapped in that wash.
7 There was -- you know, the only way we would have had to go is
8 retreat back out of that wash.

9 Q. Now, what -- in terms of your duties on April 12th, why
10 did you stay in the wash?

11 A. Oh, because I was there with my brothers and sisters. I
12 mean, we were outnumbered, outgunned, and in a horrible
13 position with basically no cover at all. But, I mean, that was 14 my job that day.

15 Q. And what was your job that day?

16 A. My job that day was to protect the IC. It was a very
17 confusing day. I mean, we originally went there on a cattle
18 impound, and then it became that we had a -- a mob of American
19 crowd looking down at us pointing weapons at us.

20 Q. Now, when you began to look for threats that you --
21 threats and the subjects that could be threats to you on the 22 northbound bridge, did you see anything?

23 A. Yes, I saw an individual with a long gun.

24 Q. And were you looking with your naked eyes or were you
25 looking with --

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. Naked eyes --

2 Q. -- binoculars?

3 A. -- ma'am.

4 Q. And can you describe what you observed about the 5 individual with the long gun?

6 A. He had a darker shirt, a longer gun. At that point, I
7 couldn't tell what type of a long gun it was.

8 Q. And what particularly caught your attention about this
9 person?

10 A. He was putting -- he was actually walking. Can I stand
11 up, ma'am?

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may the witness demonstrate 13 to the jury what he observed?

14 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

15 THE WITNESS: He was walking on the bridge, and he
16 was going with the firearm like that. And he was just -- while 17 he was walking, he was going like that, and that. And we were 18 down where he was pointing that.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. And, for the record, the witness was walking back and 21 forth in the witness box, moving his hands at his hips, as if 22 you were swinging a firearm?

23 A. A firearm. That would have -- the swing of my arms, he 24 had a firearm in his hands.

25 Q. And when you said he was pointing down at the officers; is

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 that right?

2 A. Yes, down into the wash.

3 Q. Now, when you observed this individual with the dark shirt
4 doing that, what assessment, if any, did you make for the 5 safety of yourself and the other officers?

6 A. I considered the individual a threat, and I had my sights
7 of my AR-15 on him.

8 Q. And in a -- in your training and experience, what would 9 you normally do if you encountered someone like that?

10 A. If I encountered that person on a traffic stop, I would
11 have considered that individual pointing a firearm at me, and I
12 would engage --

13 MR. MARCHESE: Objection.

14 THE WITNESS: -- that individual to stop it.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Speculation.

16 THE COURT: Well, it's not speculation. It's what he 17 would do.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's speaking based on his
19 training and experience.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may the witness repeat
22 his answer, since it was --

23 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. What would you normally do?

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. If I was on a traffic stop or if I was on a stop and an
2 individual pointed a firearm at me, yes, I would engage that
3 subject to stop him.

4 Q. Now, here, what did you do?

5 A. Due to the -- it was a powder keg out there that day.
6 One -- there were women and children within that crowd. There
7 were kids 12, 9 years old. Little kids, women, and children
8 were intermixed with these individuals pointing firearms.

9 So, I have to account for every round. So did every 10 one of those rangers. We had to account for all our rounds.
11 And we're not going to fire into a crowd of women and children
12 unless it's in self-defense, and then we wouldn't fire at the 13 women or children.

14 I don't know if a lot of us would have been able to 15 fire, you know. I know I wouldn't have been able to fire, you
16 know. Because, you know, I would have been able to fire, but 17 not at some of the targets that had women and children around
18 them. Because that's not what I signed up to do. I signed up
19 to enforce federal laws and enforce the constitution.

20 Q. Did you -- did you raise your weapon toward that person --

21 A. Yes, I --

22 Q. -- that you saw?

23 A. -- did raise my weapon towards that person.

24 Q. And did you --

25 A. At the time, I had the -- my sights on that -- that

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 person, he did not have women and children around him.

2 Q. And did you continue to observe him?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. At some point, did you stop observing him?

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And why did you stop?

7 A. I have a K9. I'm a K9 handler, and my emergency alarm
8 went off in my K9 vehicle. When it gets too hot in my K9
9 vehicle, the alarm will go off. I went back to see the safety
10 of my dog. There was just an issue with the air-conditioning.
11 I fixed that, and then I got water --

12 Q. So --

13 A. -- for everybody.

14 Q. Did you leave because you were concerned about your --
15 your dog's welfare?

16 A. Yes. I was very concerned about my dog's welfare. It was 17 getting hot out there.

18 Q. At any point, did your dog ever come out of the vehicle on
19 April 12th, 2014?

20 A. No. This was not a situation where I would ever deploy my 21 dog. We had individuals that were up on the bridge in a better
22 position than we were. Had cover and concealment. This was 23 not a K9 deployment. This was my K9 was staying in the 24 vehicle. My K9 doesn't have a vest, and it would not be able 25 to be utilized.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. Now, you also indicated that you got water from your
2 vehicle; is that right?

3 A. Yes, ma'am.

4 Q. And what was the purpose of doing that?

5 A. We were all getting hot. One of the things that I've 6 learned, through my 20 years of law enforcement, when you're in
7 a pressure situation, you know, you lose your hearing. You
8 forget to do simple things like drink water.

9 I got the water, and I was going to make sure
10 everybody was hydrated. Because all it took was one of our 11 guys to pass out, press his trigger by accident, or go down to 12 the ground. Somebody thinking he was shot, and then it would 13 have been a real bad day for everybody.

14 Q. So was your purpose in getting the water to ensure 15 everybody's welfare?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All officers?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what did you do once you got the water?

20 A. When I got the water, I went throughout, from vehicle to 21 vehicle, all the way up to the front giving officers water. I
22 also had on the Gatorade and stuff like that. I think it was 23 Powerade. Sorry.

24 And I was giving it to all the officers to make sure
25 they stay hydrated. Some were, like, "What are you doing?" I

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 was, like -- like Swanson. I was, like, I put it in their
2 pocket. I was, like, "There's a water. You need to drink."
3 So, I went throughout giving guys water, you know, making sure
4 they are okay.

5 Q. Now, when you were walking around the wash giving the 6 other officers water, were you sometimes out in the open?

7 A. Most of the time I was out in the open. But in the -- in 8 the funnel that -- that we were at, no matter where you're at,
9 you're going to be in the open.

10 If I was doing to do my -- the only way that I
11 couldn't have been in the open is if I went down in the fetal
12 position and hid behind an engine block, and I wasn't going to 13 do that.

14 Yes, I -- I did go out in the open for a long time
15 and give guys water, but I thought that was the most important
16 thing to do at the time.

17 Q. Were you concerned about your physical safety, your 18 personal safety when you were out passing out water without 19 cover?

20 A. I was, but I didn't think about it. You know, I had to 21 make sure everybody was okay. It wasn't thinking about, "Hey, 22 I'm not coming home," because if I'm going to think like that,
23 then you always got to think you are going to get through a
24 situation.

25 Yes, I was in the open. If my wife were to see it,

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 she probably wouldn't be too happy about what she saw me
2 walking in the wash.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, Your Honor. Nonresponsive.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he was responding, but I'll 5 move on.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Now, you -- after you handed out water to the different
9 officers in the wash, did you end up then taking up another
10 position or did you continue to move around?

11 A. Yes, I took a position around one of the vehicles, and 12 there were binoculars. So, no one was using the binoculars, so
13 I took the binoculars and started looking through crowd, ma'am.

14 Q. When you -- so, you went up to a vehicle that was 15 stationed in the wash; is that right?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. And this was a law enforcement vehicle?

18 A. I -- yes, it what either a special agent -- I believe it
19 was a BLM truck or a BLM special agent. It was one of the law
20 enforcement vehicles, ma'am.

21 Q. And when you got there, you found binoculars; is that
22 right?

23 A. That is correct, ma'am.

24 Q. And then you started to look through the binoculars?

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. And where, if anywhere, did you focus when you started to 2 look?

3 A. The people that had the best view of us was on the 4 northbound bridge, because they had the high ground on us, and
5 they had the best cover. They had the concrete blocks that 6 support the bridge.

7 So, I looked on top of the northbound bridge. And
8 that's originally where I saw the -- that individual that I
9 placed my sights on with the rifle.

10 Q. So, you went back to looking at the northbound bridge, and 11 that -- is that right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that's where you had originally seen the individual
14 pointing a rifle?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. Now, when you started to look with the binoculars at the 17 northbound bridge, did you observe anything that caused you
18 concern?

19 A. Yes, there were individuals up there with firearms.

20 Q. And did you see any individuals in particular that you
21 considered a threat?

22 A. There is one individual I called the -- the Crack Guy.
23 It's in my report. He was a white male with a beard and a long
24 gun.

25 Q. And did he -- and why did you call him Crack Guy?

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. Because when I originally saw him, there was a crack in
2 the bridge. I looked in my binos, and there was a crack in the 3 bridge, so that was the only reason.

4 Q. So, when you saw him, you saw that he was near a crack in
5 the foundation of the bridge?

6 A. Yes, in the foundation of the bridge, ma'am.

7 Q. And --

8 A. It's a slight -- it's just an odd thing to see, and it
9 just stood out.

10 Q. So, you referred to this individual as Crack Guy?

11 A. That is correct, ma'am.

12 Q. And were you able to observe anyone else around Crack Guy?

13 A. There was the individual that I originally saw, and I
14 believe what he was carrying -- looked through the 15 binoculars -- was a shotgun due to not having a magazine
16 attachment to it, and it was longer than rifles.

17 Q. So, the person that you'd originally seen when you very 18 first looked, that was the one that you saw again?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And now you were able to determine what about him?

21 A. I believed it was a shotgun that he was carrying.

22 Q. So, you had originally seen him and thought it was a
23 rifle, but now it appeared to be a shotgun?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. But it was the same person?

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what, if anything, did you see him doing?

3 A. He was pointing the shotgun back and forth, going in and
4 out of cover.

5 Q. And where was he in relation to Crack Guy?

6 A. He was in the middle between him and the individual I
7 called Pillar Guy.

8 Q. So, there was a person?

9 THE COURT: What was that last part? Between?

10 THE WITNESS: Pillar Guy, man.

11 THE COURT: Pillar. Okay. P-I-L-L-A-R?

12 THE WITNESS: Yes, the pillar of the bridge. So, I
13 saw him originally under the pillar of the bridge.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. So, did you see then a third person in this group of 16 individuals?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And where was this third person?

19 A. He was under -- he was under the pillar of the bridge,
20 ma'am.

21 Q. So was he on the bridge?

22 A. He was --

23 Q. On the northbound bridge or --

24 A. He was on top of the bridge under the pillar.

25 Q. So --

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. Underneath the pillar.

2 THE REPORTER: You need to wait for her finish her
3 question before you answer.

4 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry, ma'am.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. So he was on top of the bridge where the pillar is
7 underneath him?

8 A. Yes. He was on top of the bridge with the pillar
9 underneath him.

10 Q. And what did you -- and you started to call this person
11 Pillar Guy?

12 A. That is correct, ma'am.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
14 previously admitted as Exhibit 157?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Ranger Whitteaker, do you see Exhibit 157 on the screen to 18 your right?

19 A. Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. Can you mark on the picture where you saw these 21 individuals and use a "C" for Crack Guy and "P" for Pillar Guy.
22 And what did you call the third person?

23 A. I -- I called the third person basically Shotgun Guy.

24 Q. So, can you write an "S" where you saw Shotgun Guy?

25 A. The Pillar Guy would have been here. So, the Shotgun Guy

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 would have been in here. I can't -- from these photos, the
2 Shotgun Guy would have been here, and the Crack Guy would have
3 been in there.

4 Q. Now, so, can you circle the general area then where you
5 saw all three of them?

6 A. They were moving -- the Pillar Guy -- not the Pillar. The 7 Shotgun Guy and the Crack Guy were moving.

8 Q. And the witness has drawn a "P" over the pillar of the 9 northbound bridge, an "S" in the middle of the section between 10 the right pillar -- the west pillar and where the bridge meets
11 the embankment, and a "C" close to that embankment and drawn a
12 circle around all three.

13 Now, Ranger -- Your Honor, may we publish to both the 14 witness and to counsel what's been marked for identification as 15 13B?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Ranger Whitteaker, can you look at the picture that's on 19 the screen in front of you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you recognize what is depicted in that picture?

22 A. That is in northbound bridge, ma'am.

23 Q. And does it look like a fair and accurate representation
24 of what you observed on April 12, 2014?

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
2 Exhibit 13B.

3 THE COURT: Any objection to 13B?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I am going to object as to the
5 distance. This witness has testified that he was not as close
6 as what this picture shows.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

10 THE COURT: Do you want to clarify whether this is a
11 close-up of what he could see?

12 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. I will do that. I
13 would also just note, for the record, that this is screenshot
14 from what's already been admitted as 13A. It's a still from 15 the video that was admitted as 13A.

16 Q. Ranger Whitteaker, looking this exhibit, were you -- was 17 your view at this level, at this angle and this distance as 18 what is depicted in the picture?

19 A. Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. Were you further away than what is -- were you as close as 21 this or were you further away?

22 A. I was further away from this picture.

23 Q. Does this nonetheless look like a fair and accurate
24 representation of what you could see with your binoculars?

25 A. Yes, with my binoculars, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: The government moves to admit
2 Exhibit 13B, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Any other objection to 13B?

4 MR. TANASI: I'd say the same objection, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 13B will be admitted.

6 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish it to the
7 jury?

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 (Exhibit 13B admitted.)

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Now, Ranger Whitteaker, you had indicated earlier that 12 this was the northbound bridge as you saw it on April 12, 2014;
13 right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Can you explain to the jury, to the extent that you can
16 see it, where that crack was that you were -- where you
17 originally saw Crack Guy?

18 So, and the witnesses has drawn a circle around a -- 19 a line that appears on the northbound bridge or where he 20 believes the crack was. And which is to the west of the 21 western pillar on the northbound bridge.

22 Ranger Whitteaker, so when you were saying "crack,"
23 were you distinguishing between the gaps like what we see that
24 are --

25 A. Yeah, it wasn't a gap in one of the pillars that I

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 originally saw him. He was constantly moving. The -- it
2 wasn't one of the -- can I write on it again, Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Can you draw an X where you say the gaps that you're
6 referencing? So it was -- was it -- it was not a gap --

7 A. It was not a gap.

8 Q. -- that you saw. You saw a crack in the foundation; is
9 that right?

10 A. That's where I originally saw him.

11 Q. And looking at Exhibit 13B, do you see the individual that 12 you described as Crack Guy?

13 A. That would be him, ma'am.

14 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, for the record, the 15 witness has drawn a circle around an individual that appears --
16 a head and a hat of an individual on the northbound bridge.

17 THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, Ranger Whitteaker, I think you said that both Crack
20 Guy and Shotgun Guy were moving around?

21 A. Yeah, so he wasn't always on the crack. He was moving.
22 So was the individual with the shotgun.

23 Q. And you can take that down. Thank you.

24 Now, let's go back to these individuals one by one.
25 Can you describe for the jury what you observed -- what, if

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 anything, you observed of the physical appearance of Crack Guy?

2 A. He had a gray baseball cap, a white male, and a beard.

3 Q. And what, if anything, were you able to discern about his
4 firearm?

5 A. Yeah, I believed that it was a rifle of some sort.

6 Q. And then turning to Shotgun Guy, can you describe to the 7 jury what you observed about the appearance of Shotgun Guy?

8 A. He had a darker shirt on and was carrying a shotgun.

9 Q. And with respect to the person that you -- you called 10 Pillar Guy, can you describe his physical appearance to the
11 jury?

12 A. He had a black hat. He was wearing what I believed to be 13 body armor, and he had a rifle.

14 Q. Now, again going back one by one, can you describe to the 15 jury what you observed -- well, what you observed Crack Guy
16 doing when you were looking through your binoculars?

17 A. Crack Guy was going in and out of cover. He was moving
18 around. He was pointing his rifle down into the wash.

19 Q. And when you say he was going in and out of cover, what do
20 you mean?

21 A. The cover of the -- when you saw over the pillar the 22 cement block, the cover of that. They were going up and under.
23 Moving. Sometimes they weren't in cover. The Crack Guy and 24 the Shotgun Guy were moving.

25 Q. And when you -- and you observed Crack Guy pointing a

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 rifle?

2 A. Yes, I did, ma'am.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may the witness demonstrate
4 to the jury how he -- what he observed Crack Guy doing?

5 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

6 THE WITNESS: Crack Guy, unlike Shotgun Guy, was more
7 deliberate when he pointed his rifle. He would come up over
8 like that, where whenever I saw the Shotgun Guy, he was more
9 just like up and down pointing it down there.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. So, for the record, you were describing Crack Guy's
12 movements as his hands were up at his eye level?

13 A. They were more -- I mean, you might not understand it, but 14 they were more tactical. They were more deliberate. He would 15 actually get up under and go like that and then go down from 16 undercover. But he was taking deliberate -- it seemed to me
17 that he was taking deliberate aim.

18 Q. Now, was that based on your training and experience?

19 A. Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. And how did Shotgun Guy's movements compare to that?

21 A. His were more just going up and quick putting the gun over
22 there quick. Just going like that. Not taking as deliberate
23 movements.

24 Q. And for the record, for Shotgun Guy, the witness raised
25 his hands quickly to his head and put them down quickly as if

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 he was holding a firearm.

2 A. That is correct, ma'am.

3 Q. Now, what, if anything, did you observe in terms of 4 Shotgun Guy's movements on the bridge?

5 A. He was -- he was -- he was more mobile. He was moving
6 back and forth. He -- he -- so --

7 Q. Would he stand and walk at times?

8 A. Yes, he would stand and walk at times, ma'am.

9 Q. Would he also kneel at times?

10 A. Yes, he would, ma'am.

11 Q. Now, what, if anything, did you observe about Pillar Guy's
12 actions when you were looking at him on the bridge?

13 A. I really -- he came up and down a few times. I never saw
14 Pillar Guy point a weapon at any of us. He was mostly in cover
15 whenever I brought the binos. I didn't have constant view of 16 all those guys, because I was constantly panning the crowd, not 17 only on the north bridge, but in the wash, to the right of 18 them, to the left of them.

19 Q. Now, when you were unable to see Pillar Guy, did he then
20 stop being a threat in your assessment?

21 A. I still considered him a threat. He had a firearm. I
22 considered any individual with a firearm, because they could
23 have readily lifted that firearm. Got under some cover.
24 Anybody carrying a firearm is a threat, because it just takes a
25 second to raise that firearm.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. Did you observe anything about the three individuals,
2 Crack Guy, Pillar Guy, and Shotgun Guy, in terms of their
3 interaction together?

4 A. It seemed like the two that were up, Crack Guy and Shotgun
5 Guy, they -- they were going back and forth with conversations.
6 I don't know what they were about, but they did make
7 communications with each other it appeared to me.

8 Q. You could see that they were speaking to each other?

9 A. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. Did you see any interaction between them and Pillar Guy?

11 A. He was on the ground. I mean, they could have possibly 12 been talking to me --

13 Q. Only --

14 A. Talking to them.

15 Q. -- what you observed.

16 A. But it wouldn't have been anything that I observed.

17 Q. Now, at some point, did you -- I think you already 18 indicated this. But did you continuously watch them or did you
19 look around?

20 A. I was continuously looking around. I mean, we had 21 multiple armed subjects within the crowd, so I couldn't just 22 focus on those three. There were so many other individuals to 23 focus on.

24 Q. What, if anything, did you do, when you saw them, in terms
25 of the information they were --

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 A. I was --

2 Q. -- pointing weapons?

3 A. I was calling out individuals with weapons. Trying to 4 give -- I got a guy with a gun here. We'll call him Crack Guy.
5 We'd -- we'd point him out. Explain to other rangers.

6 Q. Were you -- when you say you with were calling it out,
7 were you telling the people around you or were you --

8 A. Yes. I was telling the rangers around me, because not
9 everybody had binoculars. I mean, you'd be able to see them
10 without binoculars, but you had a better view using binoculars.

11 Q. Based on your training and experience, were the rangers
12 who were in the wash, were they within the line of fire from 13 these three individuals?

14 A. Any individual I could see could see me. So, we were -- 15 we were all in danger from any of those three individuals if 16 they decided to shoot.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
18 previously admitted as Exhibit 14?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. And can we go ahead and play it?

22 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

23 Q. Can you continue to play?

24 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

25 Q. Can you stop it when the person in the foreground is

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 facing the camera?

2 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

3 Q. And paused at 8 seconds.

4 Ranger Whitteaker, based on what you observed on
5 April 12, 2014, does the person in the foreground of this video
6 look consistent with any of the people you were just
7 describing?

8 A. That would be Pillar Guy, ma'am.

9 Q. Can we continue to play?

10 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

11 Can we pause it? Pause it when the person --

12 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

13 Paused at 17 seconds.

14 Ranger Whitteaker, do you see the individual on the 15 far left of the screen?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. Based on your observations on April 12th, 2014, is this 18 person consistent with any of the three individuals you were 19 just describing?

20 A. That's Shotgun Guy, ma'am.

21 Q. And do you see the item that is -- that Shotgun Guy is 22 holding?

23 A. Yes, ma'am.

24 Q. And what is that?

25 A. I believe it to be a shotgun. I'm not a firearms expert

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 though, ma'am.

2 Q. Was that the weapon that you observed --

3 A. That's the --

4 Q. -- on April 12th?

5 A. Yes, ma'am.

6 Q. That you described as a shotgun?

7 A. Yes, ma'am.

8 Q. And can we advance to the end of Exhibit 14, please? And 9 play from it there.

10 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

11 Stop. Yeah. That's fine. Stopped at 1:27.

12 Ranger Whitteaker, do you see the individual that's 13 in -- fully in the screen or relatively in the center of the 14 screen on Exhibit 14?

15 A. Yes, ma'am.

16 Q. And again, based on what you observed on April 12th, is 17 this person consistent with any of the three that you were just 18 describing?

19 A. That's the individual I called -- that I originally saw
20 under the crack, ma'am. Crack Guy.

21 Q. You can take that down. Thank you.

22 Now, in addition to Pillar Guy, Shotgun Guy, and 23 Crack Guy, did you observe anyone else on or near the 24 northbound bridge that you discerned as a threat?

25 A. There was -- there was lots of threats out there, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 There was lots of individuals with firearms.

2 Q. Did you see anyone else that pointed a rifle toward law
3 enforcement officers?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. On or near the bridge?

6 A. Yes, there was an individual with sunglasses and wearing
7 what I believed to be a beige tac vest that pointed a rifle
8 right down at the rangers.

9 Q. And was he -- where was he in relation to the northbound
10 bridge?

11 A. He was -- he was on the right side of these individuals.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been 13 previously admitted as Exhibit 13B?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 MS. AHMED: Oh, I'm sorry. Your Honor, may we 16 publish Exhibit 157?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, Ranger Whitteaker, is the area where you observed
20 this fourth person that saw pointing a rifle, is it depicted in
21 Exhibit 157?

22 A. It's barely, ma'am.

23 Q. Can you put -- draw a circle around the general area that 24 you saw him?

25 A. It's more over towards there, where there was a bush,

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 ma'am. I believe from that photo, there's the -- you can see
2 the -- I believe it's Palo Verde tree. I'm not a tree expert,
3 but the bush thing is over there.

4 Q. And the witness has drawn a circle on the top right side
5 of the embankment that's depicted in Exhibit 157.

6 And can you describe to the jury what you observed of 7 the person -- I know you've already said some of it, but what
8 you observed of the person's physical appearance?

9 A. He was white male. He gave me the finger. He also had an 10 individual around him that had binoculars. At one point, he 11 got those binoculars from that guy, and we were just both 12 looking at each other in the binoculars.

13 Q. And what, if anything, did you observe him doing with his
14 firearm?

15 A. He pointed it at us several times.

16 Q. Now, did you -- and how did you describe his physical
17 appearance? What did he have on him?

18 A. He had --

19 Q. Or what did you see of his physical appearance?

20 A. He had a tac vest, sunglasses.

21 Q. And did you see -- I think you indicated that someone was 22 with him?

23 A. Yes, there was an individual that I considered a spotter
24 with him. He had binoculars. I didn't know if it was 25 binoculars or range finder or anything like that.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. And was there anyone else that you observed with the 2 person that you saw?

3 A. At some points, there was an individual walking around
4 behind those individuals. He had a firearm. It was always
5 slung. I never saw it pointed or aimed at anyone. It was 6 always slung. He was in full camouflage.

7 Q. And did that person cause you any concern for your safety
8 or the safety of the officers around you?

9 A. Any individual with a long gun that day I considered a
10 threat, because the ease of bringing a firearm from here to 11 here. Even if you have it slung, it's readily easy to get that 12 firearm up and on target. And where we have to choose our 13 targets, they could just spray us down.

14 Q. Did you see anything about what the person in the full 15 camouflage, what -- did you -- based on your training and 16 experience, did you assess anything about his movements or his 17 demeanor --

18 A. He was --

19 Q. -- on the bridge?

20 A. He was walking -- he was walking behind the people, kind
21 of like -- I like history. Kind of like an officer behind the 22 guys in a Civil War. You know, walking back and forth. Never 23 saw him -- I did never see him put a firearm on anybody though.

24 Q. And when you say like an officer, did you --

25 A. Like -- like, he was just walking back and forth like he

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 was in command.

2 Q. And I neglected to ask you in the beginning, but do you
3 also have military experience?

4 A. Yes. I was in the United States Marine Corps.

5 Q. Now, did the -- did you -- again, based on your training
6 and experience, did camouflage -- the person that was fully in 7 camouflage and the man that you saw pointing a rifle, were they
8 in the same general area or were they in different areas?

9 A. At times, they were in the same general area but not 10 always.

11 Q. And did it appear -- did you see anything that made you
12 think that they were working together?

13 A. I saw him -- I can't say that -- what they were saying,
14 but they -- I saw them conversate, but I'm not sure if they
15 were working together. I mean --

16 Q. You saw them speaking to each other?

17 A. Yes.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
19 previously admitted as Exhibit 66?

20 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. And can we focus on that photograph?

23 Ranger Whitteaker, do you see what's on your screen
24 as Exhibit 66?

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. And looking at the person that's in the foreground of the 2 picture, is that person consistent with anybody that you've
3 described to the jury today?

4 A. Sorry, ma'am. I don't know what foreground --

5 Q. The person in the front.

6 A. Okay. Sorry, ma'am. Yes. That was the individual that
7 gave me the middle finger.

8 Q. And did you also see him pointing a rifle at you?

9 A. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. And looking at the individual that's behind him, that I've 11 drawn a circle around, is he consistent with anyone that you've
12 described to the jury today?

13 A. Yes, he was the individual walking back and forth, ma'am.

14 Q. The one that seemed to be in command?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, when you were looking at the bridge with the 17 binoculars, did you observe any law enforcement vehicles on the 18 bridge in the area where these people were?

19 A. Not really, ma'am. They -- it was a different perspective
20 when I saw them together. It's not in that photo. When I saw
21 them together, they were closer to a bush.

22 Q. You can take that down.

23 Now, when -- eventually, you left the area in the 24 wash; correct? Eventually, you left Post 2; is that right?

25 A. That is correct, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 Q. And, in fact, you left the ICP?

2 A. That is correct, ma'am.

3 Q. Now, based on your 20 years of experience in law
4 enforcement, how do you rate the fear for your safety and the 5 safety that you had -- the other officers -- the other
6 officers' safety, the fear that you had for that safety on
7 April 12, 2014?

8 A. This was the most I was afraid in my law enforcement
9 career. We were in a position of disadvantage. They had all
10 the advantages. They had the cover. They didn't have to use
11 fire discipline.

12 They were in a mix with women and children, so we 13 wouldn't be able to engage any individual mixed in with 14 innocent women and children in fear of hurting them. Because,
15 yeah, I can put a round on somebody, but that round hits the 16 concrete barrier and takes a ricochet, I'm accountable for 17 where that round ricochets and where that round goes. I'm 18 accountable for every single one of my rounds.

19 So, I was in fear for myself, but I was in most fear,
20 if it really went bad, what would happen to the innocent people
21 that were just there to protest. That were there, their Second 22 Amendment right, to say, "Hey, we don't believe what the 23 government was." They were in jeopardy. They were who I most 24 feared for, because if it went bad, they were caught in the 25 middle of a gun fight that I don't think some of those

Edwin Whitteaker - Direct

1 protesters came to be at.

2 Q. Based on your training and experience, both in military
3 and in law enforcement, were the -- did it appear to you that
4 the people on the bridge were utilizing the presence of the 5 other people to their advantage?

6 A. Yeah. I truly believed they did, and it was very 7 disheartening. These are the same tactics that they use over
8 in the Middle East.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Nonresponsive.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's responding based on his
11 training and experience.

12 THE COURT: Overruled. It was responsive.

13 THE WITNESS: I mean, these are the tactics they use
14 in the Middle East. If we look at Black Hawk Down, that's the 15 same exact tactics that they use.

16 MR. TANASI: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor.

18 MR. TANASI: Was he at Black Hawk Down?

19 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, this is completely beyond the 20 scope of the question.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Did you --

23 THE COURT: It's responsive to the question.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'll move on.

25 Q. Now, Ranger Whitteaker --

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. Yes, ma'am.

2 Q. -- you've already indicated that this is the most afraid
3 for your safety and the other officers' safeties. Is there
4 anything in your experience that's comparable to what you guys
5 experienced on April 12, 2014?

6 A. I've -- with the ATF, I was on our -- our team that took
7 down doors for the gun squad. I pointed guns at many people.
8 Had them drop their guns.

9 But this was the worst experience I ever had. I was
10 never at such a disadvantage. Any of those other times, I
11 mean, I -- I do drug interdiction and armed smugglers, and 12 I've -- you know, and had high-speed chases with them, armed 13 smugglers, again, hundreds of pounds of dope knowing that 14 they're armed. But I was never as scared in any of those 15 situations as I was this day.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
17 indulgence?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 (Pause in the proceedings.)

20 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Ranger Whitteaker.

21 Your Honor, I will pass the witness.

22 THE COURT: Cross.

23 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. TANASI:

3 Q. Good morning, Ranger Whitteaker.

4 A. Good morning, sir.

5 Q. I'm Richard Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a
6 few questions for you on cross. Okay?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. All right. You indicated that you were you in the Gold
9 Butte area as early as April 10th, 2014; correct?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. All right. So, it's fair to say that you were aware that 12 as of April 11, 2014, the operation was over? The impound
13 operation was over; correct?

14 A. No, I wasn't, ma'am -- sir.

15 Q. You weren't aware of that?

16 A. Not at that time, sir.

17 Q. Okay. That's your testimony, that you weren't aware as of 18 April 11th that the operation was over; correct?

19 A. I had no idea the operation was over, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Who was your commander that day, sir?

21 A. The -- the commander of the whole operation or --

22 Q. Yes, sir.

23 A. I believe it was SAC Love.

24 Q. Okay. Would that have been information that you would 25 have wanted to know? The operation was over?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. Yes, it would have been.

2 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance. Facts not in
3 evidence. Assumes facts not in evidence. Excuse me, Your
4 Honor.

5 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, he's indicated he didn't.

6 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's assuming facts not in
7 evidence, which is that any of the operation that this officer
8 was participating in was over.

9 THE COURT: Let's go over to sidebar.

10 (Sidebar.)

11 THE COURT: All right. We are at sidebar.

12 So, is your objection that it was the seizure that 13 was over, not the entire operation? That the impound operation
14 was not over --

15 MS. AHMED: Right.

16 THE COURT: -- just the seizure portion of it?

17 MS. AHMED: When he's saying would you have wanted to 18 know that the operation was over, right.

19 THE COURT: That the operation actually was over,
20 which it wasn't over, just the seizure portion.

21 MS. AHMED: Correct.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, that's a point --

23 THE COURT: Do you want to clarify that?

24 MR. TANASI: It's a point of contention. I think
25 that the argument is there that the entire operation was over.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 What's come from the witness's testimony, which is different
2 from what's in a lot their reports, is that the operation was 3 over. The operation was ending. The cease -- operation was 4 ceasing.

5 What the government has done through soliciting
6 different testimony from different witnesses along the way is 7 broaden what that operation was. To say that the operation was 8 still in effect. The cattle impound, the cattle gather, all of 9 that was still in effect on the 12th.

10 And there are reports and there's different testimony
11 that says the entire operation was over. And so --

12 THE COURT: I am not aware of any testimony that says
13 that the entire operation was over.

14 MR. TANASI: Words as sweeping as "the operation was 15 over." And what the government has done, through the last 16 trial and through this one, is now broaden that operation to 17 the 12th and into what they were doing on the 12th. Providing 18 security for an operation that was already over.

19 So, the way that it's categorized as the operation, I
20 think is a point of contention, and it's an issue for the jury
21 to ultimately decide.

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, I am unaware of any 23 information that's provided that clarifies that the cattle that 24 had already been seized were not going to be still in the 25 custody of the federal government, and that there was not still

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 an operation in place to determine how to dispose of those
2 cattle, and whether to transport them or not, or how and so
3 forth.

4 So, I don't think that it's fair to say the operation
5 was over in the sense that that includes going back, you know,
6 to step one, status quo, whatever it was, you know, a week ago
7 or two weeks ago, whatever it was when this all started. I
8 don't -- I don't think that we've had that testimony. I
9 realize that that's your argument, but I don't think we've had 10 that testimony.

11 MR. TANASI: And I would add that the Court order is 12 impound --

13 THE COURT: That's fine. That's your objection.
14 Facts not in evidence. And I disagree. There were no facts in 15 evidence that support your position that the operation was over 16 in its entirety, including the cattle not being federal 17 property any longer.

18 MR. TANASI: And just for the record --

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

20 MR. TANASI: -- Your Honor, I would just add the 21 Court order was impound, gather, and sale from Mr. Petrie. So,
22 that's why I would argue that that's what encapsulates the 23 order, and that's what encapsulates the operation. But I
24 understand the Court's ruling.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just add for the

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 record that we would also object on relevance, hearing
2 Mr. Tanasi's explanation. When the cattle impoundment
3 operation was over is relevant. These federal officers were
4 holding opposed on -- there's no allegation. There's nothing
5 that's relevant to the charges or to a defense that they were
6 doing anything other than their duties.

7 There's, again, been no proffer that they've been
8 doing anything other than their appropriate duties. But I
9 would also note, Your Honor, that the order itself that 10 Mr. Tanasi is referencing said "seize and impound to remove.
11 To remove."

12 And I think ever -- all the evidence and the reports
13 have been consistent with it, is that the -- they were no
14 longer gathering cattle. There was no issue that they were 15 going to now stay in place and remove. They had to figure out
16 how they were going to remove their assets, including the 17 cattle.

18 And it's just, you know, a figment of his imagination
19 to think that they announced they were going to finish this 20 operation on the night of April 11th, and they were expected to 21 be gone the morning of April 12th, an operation of that size.
22 It doesn't made sense.

23 MR. TANASI: Can I, Your Honor, just respond to the 24 relevance briefly?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MR. TANASI: You can't, at least so goes the defense
2 theory and the defense argument, extort that which is over.
3 And so that's why it's relevant to defending against the 4 extortion, the threats, and the interference or the -- the 5 obstruction of justice counts.

6 And it also goes to our clients' state of mind,
7 because as the time line reveals, our clients weren't there
8 until the late evening, early morning hours of the 12th, after 9 the operation had already been determined to be over. So,
10 that's why it's relevant to our defense.

11 THE COURT: Well, the objection is sustained. The 12 testimony has been clear that regardless of how you interpret
13 the words, "the operation is over," there's still been many 14 other witnesses who have testified that the cattle were still
15 there.

16 That as early as April 11th, the day before the 17 event, the individuals were told to stay there overnight to 18 guard the cattle. And that the -- even if they were to be 19 pulling out, that there was still plans that need to be made
20 regarding how to effect that.

21 And that the Sheriff, starting with the first
22 witness, Sheriff Lombardo, everyone that's spoken so far said
23 that the cattle were still in the possession of the US
24 Government, and that they were still, as far as they are 25 concerned, supposed to be guarding and protecting it, and not

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 allowing it to be released. So, the objection is sustained.

2 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you.

3 (End of sidebar.)

4 THE COURT: All right. The objection is sustained.

5 MR. TANASI: Thank you. May I proceed?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. All right. Sir, let's turn back to the morning of the 9 12th when you arrived in the wash. Are you with me?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. You formed a line to prevent protesters from 12 entering the area of control; correct?

13 A. Yeah. Are you talking about at Post 1 or Post 2, sir?

14 Q. Sir, I'm talking about Post 2.

15 A. That is correct, sir.

16 Q. Formed a line to prevent protesters from entering;
17 correct?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. All right. You were with other rangers; right?

20 A. That is correct, sir.

21 Q. Okay. And they utilized binoculars to spot and call out
22 protesters with long guns; correct?

23 A. At that time, anybody pointing a long gun at me was not 24 considered a protester by me. Protesters wouldn't be pointing
25 firearms at me.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. So, it's your testimony now that a person pointing
2 a firearm is not a protester; is that fair? Is that what your
3 testimony is?

4 A. Sir, that -- at the time he pointed the firearm, then he
5 becomes a threat to me.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. I mean, I don't consider that protesting anymore.

8 Q. Okay. But again, the folks with firearms; right?
9 Protesters? Is that your testimony?

10 A. There were protesters who most likely had firearms, but 11 those protesters didn't point them at me, sir.

12 Q. Understood. Protesters had firearms though; fair?

13 A. That is fair --

14 Q. All right.

15 A. -- to say, sir.

16 Q. All right. And as you were in the wash, you noticed
17 different protesters arrive on the northbound bridge; correct?

18 A. That is correct, sir.

19 Q. And also on the southbound bridge; fair?

20 A. That is fair to say, sir.

21 Q. Okay. You indicated that you called out or at least
22 identified three targets at some point? A Crack Guy; correct?

23 A. That is correct, sir.

24 Q. Okay. A white male with dark clothing; correct?

25 A. That is correct, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Pillar Guy, too; correct?

2 A. That is correct, sir.

3 Q. Okay. And you did this all from what you called the fatal
4 funnel; correct?

5 A. That is correct, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Brian, if could you please bring up 157.

7 Okay. Sir, I am going to circle these folks right
8 here. Those are law enforcement folks working with you on
9 April 12; correct?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. All right. Are these folks in the fatal funnel?

12 A. Yes, they are, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And they don't appear to be under cover of any of 14 the vehicles; correct?

15 A. There was no real cover to have. Those vehicles wouldn't 16 have given us enough cover against long fire -- long gun fire,
17 sir.

18 Q. There were folks who did take cover behind vehicles
19 though; right?

20 A. I'm not sure of everybody's movement, but I can testify to 21 that photo that those individuals at that time were not under 22 cover, sir.

23 Q. All right. So, some chose to take cover and others
24 didn't; fair?

25 A. That is correct, sir. At times, I chose not to take cover

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 also.

2 Q. Understood. And these folks right here, they're wide open
3 in the fatal funnel; right?

4 MS. AHMED: Objection. Asked and answered.

5 THE WITNESS: That is --

6 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer.

7 THE WITNESS: That is correct, sir.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Thank you. All right. And then these folks up here, you
10 see them gathered?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. They all appear to be next to each other; correct?

13 A. That is correct, sir.

14 Q. All right. You testified earlier that at least two of the 15 targets that you called, you spotted, they were talking to each
16 other; right?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. These folks, did you happen to set your binoculars
19 on them to see if they were talking to each other as well?

20 A. Yeah, they were also talking to each other, sir.

21 Q. Fair to say everybody on the bridge was talking to each
22 other?

23 A. That is fair to say, sir.

24 Q. Thank you.

25 All right. Brian, if could you please bring up

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Exhibit 14, 17 seconds in.

2 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

3 Okay. Go ahead. Stop. Back to 17, if you could,
4 please. All right. Stop.

5 Okay. This individual, you identified him as one of 6 your targets; correct?

7 A. That is correct, sir.

8 MS. AHMED: Objection as to the use of the word
9 target. The witness testified to subjects or threats.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Is this one of the --

12 THE COURT: Sustained.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. -- subjects you identified?

15 A. That is correct, sir.

16 Q. All right. Now, again, this individual, you said he was 17 carrying this firearm; right? That's what you observed?

18 A. That is correct, sir.

19 Q. Right. But as you sit here today, you can't tell whether 20 that's a shotgun or a rifle; right?

21 A. I believe it's a shotgun even from that photo, but I can't 22 see the entire weapon, sir.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. I'm not a weapons expert, sir.

25 Q. Understood. But at one point, you -- you thought it was a

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 rifle, and then at another point, you believed it was a
2 shotgun; right?

3 A. That is correct, sir.

4 Q. Because you weren't sure of the difference between the 5 gun; correct?

6 MS. AHMED: Objection. Misstates is witness's
7 testimony. The second time he had binoculars.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Is it your testimony that he used two different guns?

10 A. No, it isn't. I believe that was the -- the same gun the 11 entire time. The reason I thought it was a shotgun, there was 12 no magazine coming out of it, sir. And when I had my 13 binoculars, I was able to see that better, sir.

14 Q. Okay. But fair to say, you still -- as you sit here
15 today, you don't know whether it was a shotgun or a rifle;
16 right?

17 A. I believe that it's a shotgun looking at it, and I
18 believed in the binoculars it was a shotgun, sir.

19 Q. And you also believed it was a rifle; right?

20 MS. AHMED: Objection. Argumentative and misstates
21 the witness's testimony.

22 THE COURT: Sustained.

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, he testified that he 24 believed, at one point, it was a rifle. That's exactly what 25 his testimony is.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 THE COURT: You can ask him that.

2 BY MR. TANASI:

3 Q. At one point, did you believe that was a rifle?

4 A. That is correct, sir.

5 Q. And at one point you believed it was a shotgun; right?

6 A. That is correct, sir.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

8 All right. Again, going back to the -- the fatal
9 funnel, I want to take you there. Okay? Are you with me?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. Brian, if you could bring up Defense
12 Exhibit 5036 at the 35 second mark, and play it without audio,
13 please.

14 (Exhibit 5036 being played.)

15 Q. Actually, Brian, why don't we stop for a second, please.

16 All right, sir. I'm going to circle this -- thank
17 you.

18 All right. This individual that I'm circling here;
19 is that you, sir?

20 A. That is correct, sir.

21 Q. All right. And it appears as though you are not behind
22 either of these two vehicles; right?

23 A. No, I am not, sir.

24 Q. And this individual here, he is; right?

25 A. Yes, he is, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. All right. Now, this area right here, is that the
2 area kind of, if we looked at it behind the truck, that would
3 be part of the fatal funnel?

4 A. The entire wash was the fatal funnel, sir.

5 Q. Understood. All right. Go ahead Brian, if you could
6 continue to play that, please, to the 1 minute and 6 second
7 mark.

8 (Exhibit 5036 being played.)

9 Q. All right. Brian, if you could stop it, please.

10 Again, sir, this is you; correct?

11 A. That is correct, sir.

12 Q. Brian, go ahead and take that down.

13 At one point, sir, SWAT arrived; right?

14 A. Yes, SWAT arrived, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And they lined up behind you?

16 A. When I was originally at Post 1, they lined up behind me.
17 I'm not sure where they went in there, sir. I do not know
18 their movements, sir.

19 Q. Okay. But SWAT was there; fair?

20 MS. AHMED: Objection. Asked and answered.

21 THE WITNESS: It's fair to say SWAT was there.

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. Okay. Metro also arrived; right?

24 A. Yes, Metro police arrived.

25 Q. Uniformed officers?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. That is correct, sir.

2 Q. Okay. And those folks, at least maybe one or two of them,
3 were in the wash with you as well?

4 A. I saw two walk through, but I -- I'm not sure. I don't --
5 I don't really recall, sir.

6 Q. So you saw them walk --

7 A. I saw two walk through, but I know they were going to talk
8 at the front gate.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. So, I saw two -- two Metro officers walk through. I
11 didn't know if there were any other officers behind us or 12 anything like that, sir.

13 Q. Fair to say, but you saw those two officers walk through 14 the fatal funnel right up to the gate and chat with the 15 protesters at the gate; right?

16 A. That is correct, sir.

17 Q. All right. You also saw several NHP vehicles up on the 18 I-15, the northbound bridge; correct?

19 A. Yes, I saw the -- the tops of the vehicles, sir.

20 Q. Okay. And SWAT made no arrests that day; right?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance.

22 THE WITNESS: No.

23 MR. TANASI: Goes to the circumstance and the 24 reasonableness of this officer's fear, Your Honor.

25 MS. AHMED: It does not, Your Honor. Everybody knows

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 that these arrests were impossible to make.

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think that was counsel
3 testifying.

4 THE COURT: I will allow it. He can answer the
5 question.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: Sir, I'm not sure if any arrests -- or 8 what SWAT did. I'm not part of their organization. I'm not 9 part of Las Vegas Metro. I don't know what they did.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. That day you didn't observe any --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- arrests; right?

14 A. -- I did not. I can't say I observed any arrests, sir.

15 Q. Didn't observe --

16 A. That's right.

17 Q. Didn't observe the Nevada Highway Patrol make any arrests
18 of the folks that were up on the bridge; right?

19 A. None that I observed, sir.

20 Q. Okay. At some point, you went back to your vehicle to 21 obtain cloth cuffs; right?

22 A. That is correct, sir.

23 Q. Okay. And you never used those cuffs to make any arrests
24 that day; correct?

25 A. That is correct, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. And you are an authorized -- or you were a federal
2 officer who is authorized to enforce federal laws; right?

3 A. That is correct, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Okay. So, do you recall preparing a report in this
5 case on April 14th, 2014?

6 A. Yes, I do, sir.

7 Q. Okay. And in that report, you laid out all the events as 8 you best recall them on the 12th; fair to say?

9 A. That is correct, sir.

10 Q. Okay. And they were fresh in your mind a couple days
11 after the 12th; right?

12 A. Yes, they were, sir.

13 Q. Okay. You wanted to put everything that was important in 14 that report; right?

15 A. I wanted to, but I don't think everything made it to that
16 report, sir.

17 Q. It's fair to say you didn't indicate that there was a
18 fatal funnel; right?

19 A. No, I didn't use that word, sir.

20 Q. Didn't use that word fatal funnel; right?

21 A. No, I did not use that and you won't find that in my
22 report, sir.

23 Q. Okay. You called it earlier a powder keg, too. Didn't
24 use that word in your report either; did you?

25 A. No, I didn't use that in my report, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. You also described an individual, like, swinging a
2 gun. You stood up, and you had the gun out in front of you,
3 and you kind of swung it a little. Do you remember doing that
4 here?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. You didn't describe that in your report; did you?

7 A. No, I didn't describe that in my report, sir.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I said he pointed a firearm.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir. Prior to today's testimony, have 11 you had an opportunity to meet with the US Attorney's Office?

12 A. Yes, I have.

13 Q. How many times?

14 A. It would be twice, sir.

15 Q. Twice. And have you had an opportunity to meet with the 16 FBI?

17 A. Yes, on both occasions sir.

18 Q. Both occasions, and did you discuss your testimony here
19 today?

20 A. They went over my testimony, sir.

21 Q. Okay. And did you discuss cross-examination and different
22 questions that the defense lawyers might be asking you?

23 A. Not really.

24 Q. Not really? Well, yes or no?

25 A. I mean, no.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MR. TANASI: Okay. I will pass the witness. Thank
2 you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, on behalf of Mr. Parker,
4 did you have any cross?

5 MR. MARCHESE: I'll wait until after. I'll reserve
6 until after one of the other counsel go.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Leventhal on behalf of
8 Mr. Drexler?

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Good morning.

12 A. Good morning, sir.

13 Q. My name is Shawn Perez, and I represent Ricky Lovelien.

14 Now, you said that you saw an individual in a tac
15 vest and sunglasses; correct? On the -- on the -- it would 16 have been the right side of the bridge; correct?

17 A. Yes, it would have been on the right side, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And when you saw him initially, which direction did
19 he come from? Do you recall? Did you see him arrive?

20 A. I did not see him arrive, sir.

21 Q. Okay. So, do you recall approximately what time of day
22 you saw him there?

23 A. I have no concept of time during that day.

24 Q. Now, the other individual, the individual that you said
25 was walking around behind him, did you see him arrive?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. I did not see him arrive, sir.

2 Q. Okay. So, when -- when you did finally see these two
3 individuals, they were already together?

4 A. They -- I saw them at the same point on the bridge. I did
5 not see them arrive together, if that's the question you are 6 asking, sir.

7 Q. Okay. And, well, let me ask you. Where exactly were you
8 in the wash when you first saw them?

9 A. When I first saw them, I was behind one of the vehicles
10 with the binoculars, sir.

11 Q. Would that be the vehicle where you were -- where we see
12 you in the video walking behind with the water?

13 A. I believe so, sir.

14 Q. So, it was that -- it was that vehicle and not the vehicle
15 forward more towards the bridge; correct?

16 A. It wasn't the vehicle all the way at the front, if you are 17 asking the one that had the --

18 Q. Right.

19 A. -- Park Service individuals, no. It was in the cluster of 20 the vehicles that was in the middle of the wash, sir.

21 Q. Okay. And when you saw these two individuals on the right
22 side of the bridge, did you see NHP troopers on the highway?

23 A. I saw -- I saw the top their lights. I didn't see any NHP
24 troopers. I saw the tops of their vehicles, sir.

25 Q. You didn't see any individuals with fluorescent vests?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. Not that I recall, sir.

2 Q. Okay. When you saw the -- the individual that was walking
3 around in the background, you said you saw him speaking to the 4 other individual. Was there any other individuals in that
5 immediate vicinity?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay. Could you tell if any of them were NHP troopers?

8 A. I could not tell if any were NHP troopers, sir.

9 Q. Okay. Now, I'm assuming that their viewpoint -- I think
10 you said this -- that their viewpoint from that part of the 11 bridge was probably superior to yours on the ground; correct?

12 A. That is correct, sir.

13 Q. Okay. But you had a pretty clear view of that part of the
14 bridge?

15 A. I -- I don't know what you are talking --

16 Q. Well -- and we'll do this from memory. I don't want to do
17 this from a photograph. But when you were at that vehicle and 18 you were handing out that water, there's a view. And I'm sure
19 you probably remember it. You were there. You lived this.

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. There is the northbound bridge, and there is the 22 southbound bridge. Now, which bridge was closest to you?

23 A. The southbound bridge, sir.

24 Q. Okay. Now, this southbound bridge, the bridge itself goes
25 over the wash; correct?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. Yes. Correct, sir.

2 Q. And on both sides of the bridge, there's -- let's call it
3 an abutment; right?

4 A. That is correct, sir.

5 Q. It's an embankment.

6 A. That is correct, sir.

7 Q. Okay. Now, there was -- obviously, there's the embankment
8 from the southbound bridge that obstructed your view; correct?

9 A. There was some -- we would see the northbound side from 10 where we are, sir.

11 Q. Brian, can you bring up Exhibit 17 at -- I believe it's 12 19:29:30. Actually, try 19:11:23. That's good. Stop it right
13 there.

14 Now, if -- if you can mark on your screen, if you
15 could mark on the -- the screen where you were approximately 16 when you saw the individuals.

17 A. I was somewhere in here, sir.

18 MS. AHMED: Objection as to vague as to individuals.

19 BY MR. PEREZ:

20 Q. Well, the two individuals that we're talking about. The 21 gentleman in the tac vest with the sunglasses and the gentleman
22 that was walking behind him.

23 A. Yes, but that photo doesn't relate to where I actually saw
24 them when that photo was taken.

25 Q. I understand that.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. I want to know where you were in this picture, because
3 this picture -- is this picture a picture of both bridges, the 4 northbound and southbound bridge?

5 A. That is correct, sir.

6 Q. Okay. And down here in the foreground, isn't that the BLM
7 vehicles?

8 A. Where I marked the red line, sir.

9 Q. Okay. So, that's where you were?

10 A. I was somewhere in there, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And that's below the elevation of those two 12 bridges; correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. And so where on this -- from where you were on that 15 northbound bridge, can you draw a little red X where you saw
16 those individuals?

17 A. Do you have a closer picture that shows the tree area?

18 Q. Well, not with --

19 A. It's hard with that picture, sir.

20 Q. Well, I mean -- okay. Well, let's do it this way.
21 There's the area of the wash; correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Approximately how many yards or feet from the wash were
24 those individuals?

25 A. Could have been a football field, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. So a hundred yards --

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. -- from the wash?

4 MS. AHMED: Objection as to the portion of the wash
5 we are talking about.

6 BY MR. PEREZ:

7 Q. Well, okay. From the edge of where the abutment under the 8 highway -- like, right here. Let's call that the start of the 9 bridge. That's -- it's probably back a little bit further,
10 but --

11 A. I -- I don't know the distance. It could have been 12 50 yards. I'm not sure, sir. Especially from these photos. I
13 mean, everything seemed so much closer when I was there that 14 day. I'm not a professional person at telling distances, sir.

15 Q. Okay. Well, so, would you -- well, let's just -- we're
16 not -- let's forget about the distances. Let's just talk
17 about, "Hey, you know, I saw him, like, over here," for 18 example. I mean, did you see them there?

19 A. If I had a better photo, a closer up photo, I'd be able to 20 tell you, sir. Is there a closer up photo, sir? If you bring 21 up the --

22 Q. Brian, can you back it up a couple of seconds? How is 23 that? Is that close enough?

24 A. That is close enough, sir.

25 Q. Okay. So now, where in relationship to the -- let's call

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 it the bridge starting right here. There is the area of the
2 wash; correct?

3 A. That is correct, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Now, where were those individuals, those two
5 individuals?

6 A. I believe there's a tree somewhere in here, sir.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. But without being able to see the tree, then I'm not sure,
9 sir. And I can't really see it on that photo. But that's just 10 my best guesstimate, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And you were back behind these vehicles; correct?
12 So, back somewhere over here?

13 A. That would be correct, sir.

14 Q. Brian, so go up a couple of seconds. Let it play a bit.
15 So, stop.

16 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

17 So, right about there?

18 A. Possibly, sir.

19 Q. So, you would be over in this area somewhere; correct?

20 A. That is correct, sir.

21 Q. So, if I'm not mistaken, you're -- where you marked was 22 somewhere over here by this tree.

23 Now, you say you did not see any NHP troopers at the 24 time; correct? No vehicles?

25 A. I saw the tops of some of the vehicles. I heard over the

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 radio that they were there.

2 Q. Okay. So, can you guesstimate how far the individuals
3 were from the -- from the front of that trooper's vehicle?

4 A. I can't, sir.

5 Q. Okay. Brian, bring up 66.

6 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. The witness has 7 testified that he did not observe the troopers near these 8 people when he was looking at the bridge. Lack of foundation,
9 I guess.

10 MR. PEREZ: Well, we've used this exhibit, Your
11 Honor. I mean, this is how he identified them.

12 Q. So, you could see the top of that -- that truck?

13 A. That's not where I originally saw the individual. I've 14 testified to that, sir.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. So I don't know if that was the exact truck that I saw the 17 top of it. I don't know exactly where all the NHP vehicles
18 were. I have testified that that's not the location I saw them
19 by. It was by a tree, sir.

20 Q. It was by a tree?

21 A. That is correct, sir.

22 Q. Like that tree behind him maybe?

23 A. No, it was a bigger tree, sir. It's definitely not in 24 that area, sir, that I saw them.

25 Q. Okay. And you don't recall what time of day that was?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. I lost all track of time, sir, during that whole incident.

2 Q. And now you said you saw this -- they were near that tree
3 when you saw them communicating?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay. Did you ever see this individual in the back sit on
6 the Jersey barrier?

7 A. No, sir. I wasn't constantly looking at him. I was 8 constantly looking --

9 Q. But you did say you never pointed a weapon?

10 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, you need to let the witness
11 finish his answer.

12 THE WITNESS: Sorry, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Not you. He started asking you a next
14 question before you were done with the first question.

15 MR. PEREZ: My bad habit.

16 THE COURT: So let the witness answer the first
17 question. Did you ever see him sitting on the bridge?

18 THE WITNESS: I never saw him sitting on the barrier,
19 sir.

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. And you can't -- you couldn't hear any of this 22 conversation from where you were; could you?

23 A. No, I was way too far away, sir.

24 Q. Right. How many yards away do you think you were?

25 A. Possibly a football field. Maybe a little over a football

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 field. I'm not -- I'm not sure. I'm sorry, sir.

2 MR. PEREZ: All right. I have nothing further.

3 Thank you.

4 THE WITNESS: You are welcome, sir.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take our 6 lunch break. It's 12:10, so we'll plan to be back here at 7 1:10.

8 I do remind you, during this break, please do not
9 discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it
10 with you. And remember if anyone should attempt to speak to 11 you about this case, or if you inadvertently hear something
12 about the case, you need to bring it to the Court's attention.

13 Also, please do not read, or listen to, or review
14 anything that touches upon this case in any way, and do not
15 attempt to perform any independent research or investigation
16 about anything related to the case. Feel free to use your 17 forms to write down all the questions that you have.

18 And finally, don't form any opinion about this case
19 until after you have heard all the testimony, received or had 20 an opportunity to view the exhibits. I will provide you the 21 legal instructions of law that you will apply to the facts as 22 you determine them to be, and then we will hear closing
23 arguments. And then after that, I will excuse you to begin
24 your deliberation process. Then you can begin to form your 25 opinion and discuss it with each other.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. And then,
2 Ranger Whitteaker, after the jury exits, you may also take your
3 lunch break. And we need you back here at 1:10.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 (Jury out.)

7 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

8 (Recess 12:12 p.m. Resumed 1:31 p.m. Jury out.)

9 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Can we go
10 ahead and call in the jury?

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

12 (Jury in.)

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

14 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.

15 Welcome, back ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

16 Everyone else may be seated as well.

17 We are going to continue now with cross-examination
18 of BLM Ranger Whitteaker. I believe, Mr. Perez, you were done;
19 right?

20 Mr. Marchese on behalf of Mr. Parker. Go ahead, sir.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

24 A. Good afternoon, sir.

25 Q. And for the record, we were going to start with

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Exhibit 17. Do you have that ready, Brian?

2 We are going to go to 19:23:20. There we go. Well,
3 actually, it's 19.

4 Sir, do you have that on your screen?

5 A. I do, sir.

6 Q. Okay. So, you've had some questions, on
7 cross-examination, about locations and whatnot, and I figured
8 this might be a good place to start. So, you recognize this as 9 the wash as depicted on April 12th, 2014?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And would you agree with me that this would be the 12 northbound lane? I am putting an "N" on it, and the southbound
13 lane would be an "S." Is that -- you'd agree with that?

14 A. Yes, I do agree with that, sir.

15 Q. Okay. So, let's take you back to the beginning. So, you
16 get down to -- I believe it's towards these three trucks in the 17 front where you initially go down on the 12th; is that correct?

18 A. What three trucks are you talking about? Those three 19 trucks? Do you want me to circle it, sir?

20 Q. If you can, yeah.

21 A. It was not these three trucks if you considered the first
22 three trucks.

23 Q. Okay. So where --

24 A. It was these back trucks, sir.

25 Q. Okay. Did you ever get up to those three trucks?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

- 1 A. Yes, I did, sir.
- 2 Q. Okay. And that's later though in time; correct?
- 3 A. That is later. That's when I was delivering water. I
4 gave water to those individuals, sir.
- 5 Q. Gotcha. All right. So, initially, you're back at this 6 slash at those trucks; correct?
- 7 A. Yes, sir.
- 8 Q. Okay. And at that point, you're scanning for threats?
- 9 A. Yes, I was, sir.
- 10 Q. All right. And at some point in time, I believe you
11 testified that on the northbound bridge, you saw the individual
12 with the darker shirt and the long gun; correct?
- 13 A. The --
- 14 Q. The darker shirt and the long gun?
- 15 A. That is correct, sir.
- 16 Q. Okay. And I'm not going to get into the debate about 17 whether it was shotgun or a rifle, but we'll agree it was some 18 kind of gun?
- 19 A. Okay, sir. That's fine.
- 20 Q. Is that fair?
- 21 A. Yes, sir.
- 22 Q. And then at that point, you didn't see this individual 23 pointing at you; correct?
- 24 A. I saw him point it not at me directly but pointing into
25 the wash.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. And so based upon that, I believe you got him in
2 your AR sights?

3 A. That is correct, sir.

4 Q. Do you have a scope on your rifle or was it just open
5 sights?

6 A. No, I use open sights, sir.

7 Q. Okay. So, you are continuing to scan for threats;
8 correct?

9 A. No. At that time, I was -- because I saw him as a threat,
10 since he had pointed a weapon at people.

11 Q. Sure.

12 A. So I had my sights on him at that time.

13 Q. Okay. How long did you keep --

14 A. In that time.

15 Q. How long approximately?

16 A. I'm not sure, sir. In all honesty, time -- time, I can't 17 recall any of the times.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. I don't recall when I got down there, when we left, or any 20 of the times what happened.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I apologize, sir.

23 Q. No, that's fine. So, was it -- would you say it was quick
24 or would you say it was a long time?

25 A. It wasn't a long time.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Maybe a couple seconds give or take?

2 A. No. Over a couple of seconds, sir, maybe --

3 Q. Okay. What -- what made you stop having your sights on
4 him?

5 A. When my K9 alarm went off, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Yeah, and there was some testimony. You said there
7 was an alarm. What -- the horn started beeping?

8 A. I have a K9 vehicle. And within our K9 vehicles, per our
9 GOs and just for the safety of the K9, what happens is lights
10 and sirens and horns start beeping. A ranger came up and was 11 like, "Hey, Whitteaker, your K9 vehicle, everything is going 12 off." So, I ran back to make sure Tessa was okay and to get 13 the vehicle back into shape.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. So, get the air-conditioning on. Because what it does, it
16 closes the windows. And after a while, if it's still going on,
17 it will actually deploy the K9 door so the K9 can get out for 18 their safety.

19 Q. So, where is your K9 vehicle?

20 A. It's back here, sir.

21 Q. Did you mark the screen?

22 A. I believe it was somewhere back here, sir.

23 Q. All right. So, it's behind your location?

24 A. Yes, it's behind my location, sir.

25 Q. So, you go back to that location, and then is that when

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 you started -- you grabbed the water, and you started to hand
2 it out?

3 A. Yes. As you saw in the other exhibits, I was carrying a
4 case of water, sir.

5 Q. Okay. And you're going all around to your other officers
6 and just, you know, looking out for their safety, because I
7 think you said -- I think you said something to the effect it
8 was warm out that day; correct?

9 A. It was warm and plus the stress. You are not going to 10 take in as much liquids as you think you should, sir.

11 Q. Right. So, you're giving water, and you want to make sure
12 everybody is hydrated; correct?

13 A. That is correct, sir.

14 Q. So then after you handed out the water, where did you go?

15 A. I went back to where the slash mark is, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And is that when you grabbed the binoculars?

17 A. That is correct, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And I can bring it up for you again, but 19 Mr. Tanasi, the gentleman with the burgundy tie, on 20 cross-examination, he brought up the body cam.

21 Do you remember that? Where you actually -- you see
22 you going up to one of the agents and giving him water?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. Okay. Was that the truck that you were at or were you
25 behind that?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. I believe it was that truck or the truck behind it. I
2 think I might have moved between the two. I'm not sure, sir.
3 I think it could have, because I know there was a truck behind
4 it and in front of it. I don't believe I was at the truck in 5 front of it, sir.

6 Q. Okay. So, it was either Agent Swanson's truck or the 7 truck behind it?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And I believe you said, on direct examination --
10 and if I'm wrong correct me -- it had markings? BLM markings?

11 A. I know one of the trucks at one time that I was behind had 12 BLM markings, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And if I was to tell you that Agent Swanson's truck
14 did not have markings, would that help your recollection or 15 would it not?

16 A. It would not help, sir.

17 Q. Okay. So, when you got to that truck, you started to 18 looking for threats once again with your binoculars; correct?

19 A. That is correct, sir.

20 Q. And I believe you had testified that you saw those three 21 individuals once again. And when I am talking about the three
22 individuals, I am talking about -- I think it's Crack Guy,
23 Pillar Guy, and what's the other one?

24 A. Shotgun Guy, sir.

25 Q. And Shotgun Guy. Okay. You saw those three individuals

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 again. Is that fair to say?

2 A. Well, I originally only saw Shotgun Guy, sir.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. So, when I got the binoculars, that's when I saw the other
5 two subjects.

6 Q. All right. And that's the first time you see them?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay. When you handed out water, did you go to the first
9 three trucks to give them water as well?

10 A. Yes, I did, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And then you doubled back?

12 A. Yes, I did, sir.

13 Q. All right. So, you're somewhere over by Swanson's truck.
14 Is that when you saw these two individuals? I believe you said
15 one of them was giving you the finger or something along those 16 lines?

17 A. Well, that wasn't -- that was -- that was the individual
18 to the right, sir.

19 Q. Right.

20 A. That was the individual to the right. It wasn't the --
21 the Pillar Guy, it wasn't the Crack Guy, or it wasn't Shotgun
22 Guy. That was the individual to the right of them, sir.

23 Q. All right. And when you say right, you're referring to 24 your right?

25 A. My right. Sure. Sorry about that, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. No, I understand. I just want to make sure. And then
2 there was another individual that you felt that he was somehow
3 acting in concert with?

4 A. There was the guy with the binoculars -- I believe the 5 binoculars, a range finder.

6 Q. Okay. And what about the other individual that was just
7 standing around in camouflage, I believe, that you didn't see
8 him point his weapon at you?

9 A. He had a weapon and he was walking around behind
10 everybody.

11 Q. Okay. And that's really all you personally perceived from 12 that individual?

13 A. That is correct, sir.

14 Q. And when you saw that, just him walking around, was -- 15 were you -- was this after you handing out water and getting 16 back with the binoculars?

17 A. That is correct, sir.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. No, further questions. Thank 19 you, sir.

20 THE WITNESS: You are welcome, sir.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, cross on behalf of
22 Mr. Drexler?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, thank you, Judge.

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Good afternoon.

4 A. Good afternoon, sir.

5 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. How are you?

6 A. I'm well. How are you doing?

7 Q. Very good. I'm going to go through a couple things. I
8 know you've already been through it, but I just -- it helps to 9 orientate sort of where we're at. You started in Post 1;
10 correct?

11 A. Could you speak a little closer to the mike, sir?

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. My hearing is not --

14 Q. You started in --

15 A. -- the greatest. I apologize, sir.

16 Q. Sorry. You started in Post 1; correct?

17 A. Yes, I did, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And how did you get to Post 2?

19 A. I heard calls over the radio that they needed assistance,
20 so I asked for permission to go down there, sir.

21 Q. I'm sorry. How did you? Did you walk down? Did you run
22 down? Did you drive down?

23 A. I took my vehicle down there, sir, so I had my K9 close to 24 me, sir.

25 Q. Okay. So, your vehicle was at Post 1 with you and then

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 you drove down to Post 2?

2 A. That is correct, sir.

3 Q. And it's sort of a long path going back towards the ICP?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. I think it's 190 -- just 193? That's okay.

6 There's a map.

7 Now, you talked about a fatal funnel. I didn't bring
8 anything up.

9 A. I thought you were bringing up an exhibit.

10 Q. I apologize. Yeah.

11 A. I apologize, sir.

12 Q. That's okay. You brought -- you talked about a fatal
13 funnel on direct. Do you remember that?

14 A. Yes, I do, sir.

15 Q. What's a fatal funnel?

16 A. A fatal funnel, like I explained before. It's like you're 17 in a doorway. You're trapped in that doorway. We were trapped
18 in that wash by both sides of the wash, sir.

19 Q. Okay. So, you indicate that you're trapped. So, you
20 can't move forward, side to side, or back; correct?

21 A. We can move forward, to side to side, but the 22 individual -- it is very sandy in there.

23 Q. Uh-huh.

24 A. Vehicles getting stuck. We started taking fire, we're not 25 going to be able to run up the embankments of the wash to get

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 out of there. Our vehicles -- we're literally trapped, with
2 all the different vehicles in there, the soft sand, them having
3 high ground over us. So, that's why I considered that a fatal
4 funnel, sir.

5 It wasn't like a doorway where I'm stuck in the 6 doorway. Yeah, I could have moved left or right, but could I
7 have got out of that wash within seconds, like I could get out
8 of a doorway, which is a fatal funnel I never want to go
9 through?

10 Yeah, it's easier to go through that, but that --
11 that wash was the hardest fatal funnel I've ever been in. We 12 had multiple armed subjects on top of a bridge, on embankments,
13 pointing weapons at us, with women and children around. So,
14 that was a fatal funnel, sir, and I consider that a fatal
15 funnel.

16 Q. Okay. Very good. Could we pull up Exhibit 17, Brian?
17 And go to 28:13. It will be up there.

18 A. Okay. I'm not getting anything on my screen, sir.

19 Q. You will.

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. There we go. Go to 28:13, Brian. You can stop it right
22 there. Stop.

23 Okay. Let me just orientate you. This would be the 24 northbound bridge; is that correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

- 1 Q. Okay. That would be the southbound bridge; is that
2 correct?
- 3 A. That is correct, sir.
- 4 Q. Okay. This would be the Post 1 area; correct?
- 5 A. Negative, sir.
- 6 Q. No? Okay. Why don't you go ahead and circle where Post 1
7 would be.
- 8 A. I believe Post 1 is to the right of that. I -- I can't 9 really see with this video.
- 10 Q. Okay. Is this the wash area here?
- 11 A. Yes, that's the wash area. Okay. Now -- now I can --
- 12 Q. Is this the parking lot that you described earlier across 13 from a Post 1?
- 14 A. Yes. And that -- that is Post 1. Yes, you are correct.
- 15 Q. This would be, in fact, Post 1?
- 16 A. Now I have an orientation, yes.
- 17 Q. That's why I do this. Okay.
- 18 A. I apologize, sir.
- 19 Q. You are okay now.
- 20 A. That is Post 1.
- 21 Q. All right. Very good. Okay. So then I -- I assume that 22 this is the road that you took, sort of that leading down and 23 then coming back this way; correct?
- 24 A. That is correct, sir.
- 25 Q. Okay. Very good. All right. And if we could go to

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 20:13 real quick. Just play it forward. Okay. Stop right
2 there.

3 Now, you talked about the fatal funnel; correct?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. So, this area underneath this wash would be the fatal
6 funnel; correct?

7 A. All that entire wash will be the fatal funnel, sir.

8 Q. Okay. The -- when you say the entire wash, are you
9 talking about the entire middle of --

10 A. No, the entire -- for us, the entire fatal funnel was the 11 individuals that were originally the park service guys that 12 were there and back through there.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Because we -- we had the low ground. They had the high
15 ground, sir.

16 Q. I understand. There's -- but there's these two sort of 17 embankments, I guess; right?

18 A. Yes, they were embankments.

19 Q. Okay. That's the funnel part of the fatal funnel; right?

20 A. No. We're talking about -- we're talking about our fatal
21 funnel, sir. I'm not talking about any other fatal funnels.

22 Q. No, I understand.

23 A. The fatal funnels would be -- for us would have been in 24 here. They can control the high ground here. They control the 25 high ground here. They control the high ground here. They

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 control the high ground here, and they control the ground
2 there.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. So they controlled all the ground, which placed us in the 5 fatal funnel, sir.

6 Q. Okay. If we could play that forward real quick, Brian.

7 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

8 Okay. And stop right there. Okay. Over here we've 9 got these are BLM agents; correct?

10 A. BLM agents and rangers, sir.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. Park service personnel, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Go ahead, Brian. Okay. Stop.

14 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

15 Okay. So, we've got the middle of the bridge here;
16 correct?

17 A. Yeah. That would be the middle area between the bridges,
18 sir.

19 Q. Okay. Go ahead, Brian.

20 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

21 Stop right there. Okay.

22 Now, were you aware that there were protesters -- did
23 you hear or were you aware that protesters were congregating
24 underneath the northbound bridge?

25 A. Originally, the call came out that individuals on horses

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 were coming down towards Post 2, sir.

2 Q. Okay. You haven't seen, so far, just the little clip that
3 you saw any horses; correct? In the clip that I've showed you
4 so far, you haven't see any horses; correct?

5 A. I -- I don't know if there's horses in there. I can't
6 really tell from the -- if you could zoom in, sir, please.

7 Q. Okay. Go ahead and play it just another second.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I just object on foundation
9 as to whether or not the witness was where he was at the time
10 of these events or --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: I asked him if he was aware. If it
12 was over the radio.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, to the extent that counsel is 14 going to be showing this witness video of a certain time
15 period, I ask that he clarify what the witness -- witness's
16 position or knowledge of these events.

17 THE COURT: Sustained. You can be a little more
18 clear as to what this witness actually personally saw versus
19 what he was aware of or what he's just looking at on the video.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Or heard over the radio, because 21 there's something that led him to go from Post 1 to Post 2;
22 correct?

23 THE COURT: So long as we are clear as to what the 24 question is you are asking or what the question is he's 25 responding to.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. So, did you hear over the radio that there were people
3 congregating under the northbound bridge that led you to go
4 from Post 1 to Post 2?

5 A. I heard people on the -- I heard that people were coming
6 towards. When I went to Post -- from 1 -- Post 1 to 2, they 7 were calling for assistance, because they had individuals with
8 firearms.

9 Q. Okay. If we could go to 9A, please.

10 (Exhibit 9A being played.)

11 Okay. Stop. Okay. So, if we came down to -- we 12 came down to a bird's eye view sort of or -- well, from a
13 bird's eye view down to the ground, correct? Now, we're -- we 14 could see the BLM agents here; correct? And park service --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- or law enforcement officers; correct?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. Nobody's in the wash; correct?

19 A. Yeah. When I arrived there, there was plenty of people in 20 the wash and on the bridge.

21 Q. Okay. But -- and you were at Post 1 at this point?

22 A. I was at Post 1 at this point.

23 Q. If we could play to 17 seconds.

24 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

25 Tell me if you recognize when you got there.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. I don't -- in
2 this 30 second clip, I don't believe that the wash is going to
3 fill with people. So, basically, lack of foundation as to this 4 exhibit with this witness.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Well, let me clarify. When you got down to Post 2, were 7 there people in the wash at that point?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. So, they were in the middle there?

10 A. I believe they were in the middle, sir. There were 11 people -- there were people on the bridge. I was looking at 12 the bridge. I didn't -- I believe there was people in there.
13 I mean, I -- I was not there. I don't believe I was there at 14 this time.

15 Q. Okay. Fair enough. Well, we saw two people in the wash.
16 Do you know if there were more than two people in the wash?

17 A. When I got there?

18 Q. Correct.

19 A. I believe there was more than two people, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Was there a hundred people in the wash?

21 A. I didn't count them, sir. I'm not sure, sir.

22 Q. I understand. But, I'm trying to figure out when you got 23 there, because that's what we're trying to figure out what --
24 what you can look at to see if you recognize it.

25 So, was there more than two but less than a hundred?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Somewhere around there?

2 A. Somewhere between there, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that this was, I guess, one of 4 the worst days of your life; correct?

5 A. That is correct, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Now, I understand that during this time, you went 7 from Post 1 to Post 2. And I also understand that you went and 8 you took care of the air-conditioning for your dog; correct?

9 A. That is correct, sir.

10 Q. Okay. And I understand that you picked up some water;
11 correct?

12 A. That is correct, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And how long after you arrived at Post 2 did you do
14 all this?

15 A. I'm not sure. In all honesty, time was going -- I -- I
16 don't even recall the time, sir. I -- just things were
17 happening.

18 Q. Understood. So, when you get to Post 2, you get out of 19 your vehicle; correct?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. You lock your vehicle, and then you walk towards Post 2;
22 correct?

23 A. That is correct, sir.

24 Q. Do you make it to another vehicle before you have to go
25 back, or do you go back before -- at what point do you go back

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 to your vehicle, I guess?

2 A. I go back to my vehicle when my K9 alarm goes off, sir.

3 Q. And you don't know how much time had elapsed from the time
4 you got out of your vehicle to that time?

5 A. In all honesty, I have no idea.

6 Q. Fair enough. Okay. Now, ultimately, you got back, and 7 you picked up binoculars; correct?

8 A. I picked up binoculars that were on the vehicle. I didn't
9 get them out of my vehicle, if you are asking if I got them out
10 of my vehicle.

11 Q. No, just that you picked them up --

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. -- at some point. Okay. And at that point, do you
14 remember approximately -- I don't want you to tell me --
15 approximately how many people were in the wash?

16 A. I'm not sure, sir. There were people in the wash.
17 Everything was going on, sir. There was people --

18 Q. And were there horses in the wash?

19 A. I believe there was horses, because I -- I heard -- we 20 were talking. I know when I was there that there was horses in 21 the wash, because he was talked about if the horses came 22 through, what we would do. And my plan was to jump into the 23 back of a pickup truck, because I'm from the East Coast and not 24 used to horses, sir.

25 Q. So, you didn't actually see horses. You heard of horses

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 being there?

2 A. The -- I mean, I saw that there was horses from my point
3 of view.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. But, you know, if they broke through, that's what we were
6 afraid. Because they got very close to the gate that was up.

7 Q. Sure. You were conjecturing. You were trying to figure
8 out --

9 A. Figure out what we were going to do in case the horses
10 broke through.

11 Q. Or what they were going to do, if they were going to do
12 anything?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Right? Okay. Now, you identified today a gentleman, as 15 you called him, Crack -- the Crack Guy?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay. And you picked him out on a picture that the 18 government showed you; correct?

19 A. That is correct, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Now, when you were out there and you did your 21 report, how specific, if you remember, was your report in 22 identifying Crack Guy?

23 A. I -- I -- my original report and how I remembered it, he 24 was a white male with a beard and a gray cap.

25 Q. Okay. And you were able to identify him with what the

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 government showed you was a picture, and you circled a head;
2 correct?

3 A. That is correct. I identified him on the -- the photo --
4 not the head, the photo that they show me when he was next to
5 Pillar Guy.

6 Q. On the northbound bridge?

7 A. Yeah. You showed -- the prosecution showed me a picture.
8 It was the Pillar Guy, and then -- no. No, it was a different
9 picture. No, that was Pillar Guy and Shotgun Guy. The picture
10 after that was the picture of the Crack Guy. Sorry about that,
11 sir.

12 Q. No, that's okay. Okay. That would be 13B, if we can pull
13 that up.

14 Now, the government showed you this picture; correct?

15 A. Yes, they did, sir.

16 Q. Had you seen this picture before today?

17 A. Yeah, the government showed me that picture, sir.

18 Q. They showed you this picture?

19 A. That is correct, sir.

20 Q. When did they show you this picture?

21 A. I believe they showed it to me the -- the first time I
22 came in.

23 Q. When was that?

24 A. I'm not sure, sir.

25 Q. Was that yesterday or today?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. It was, I think, a few weeks ago.

2 Q. Okay. So, they showed you this picture a few weeks ago?

3 A. I know they showed me pictures, and I know I saw that
4 picture yesterday, I can say.

5 Q. Okay. And that was the first time you saw that picture?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay. And you were able to spot this gentleman right here
8 that you said was Crack Guy?

9 A. Yes, I believe that is Crack Guy, sir.

10 Q. Okay. Now, this happened in 2014; correct?

11 A. That is correct, sir.

12 Q. Three and half years ago; correct?

13 A. With -- is it not two? Oh, yeah. I -- if you -- I'm not
14 the greatest on time. So if you believe it's three and a half
15 years, then it's three and half years, sir.

16 Q. It's not a belief, but okay. If we could just go to 13A,
17 please.

18 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

19 And just stop it real quick. Stop it.

20 Now, the picture -- did you see this video or did you
21 see -- did you see the -- this is a picture from the video.

22 Did you see this video?

23 A. I'm not sure, sir.

24 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that you were concerned for the 25 women and children?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. That is correct, sir.

2 Q. Okay. If we can go ahead and just play that real quick.

3 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

4 Now, this would have been a view you would have seen;
5 correct? Horses -- now we see some horses in there.

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay. Go ahead and play this, Brian.

8 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

9 Stop. Now, actually, back it up to the first -- to 10 the first part, Brian. All the way. Keep going. Keep going.

11 A. I believe that was me, sir.

12 Q. Keep going, Brian. All the way. Thank you.

13 Are you over here?

14 A. I believe that is me, sir.

15 Q. That's you there?

16 A. I believe that -- I -- it looks like someone holding a
17 case of water, and --

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. -- that would be me, sir.

20 Q. Okay. And you see a number of individuals here; correct?

21 A. Yes, I do, sir.

22 Q. Okay. And you saw that that day; right?

23 A. Yes, I saw that.

24 Q. And there were some people right here at the gate. Did
25 you see that?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. There was so many people around, I'm not sure if I saw
2 those individual people right there.

3 Q. Okay. Did there ever come a time where you saw different
4 BLM agents approach that gate?

5 A. Yes, sir. I did, sir.

6 Q. And who was that?

7 A. It was Dan Love.

8 Q. Okay. You saw him approach that gate?

9 A. Yes, I saw him approach that gate, sir.

10 Q. And did you hear, since you were so close, what he was 11 asking? Was he asking for anything?

12 A. I didn't hear anything, sir.

13 Q. You didn't hear anything?

14 A. No, I did not, sir.

15 Q. All right. The -- this line or these people didn't 16 approach until Mr. Love actually -- Dan Love came to the gate;
17 is that correct?

18 MS. AHMED: Objection. Assumes facts not in
19 evidence.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, he can answer the question. I
21 am asking.

22 Q. You saw Dan Love approach the gate; correct?

23 A. Yes, I saw Dan Love approach the gate.

24 Q. Was this -- was this group of people here, or were they
25 back here when Dan Love approached the gate?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 A. I'm not sure, sir. I saw Dan Love approach the gate. I
2 don't know where these certain people were at the time. There
3 was so much going on, sir.

4 Q. Okay. There was a lot going on; right?

5 A. Yeah, there was a lot going on, sir.

6 Q. If we could just go ahead and play that.

7 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

8 Now, these people are facing, for the most part,
9 towards the BLM; correct?

10 A. That is -- and the park service, sir.

11 Q. Correct. But they are facing towards park service and 12 BLM; correct?

13 A. That is correct, sir.

14 Q. Okay. Play.

15 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

16 Now, stop. It looks like they are backing up. Do
17 you see that?

18 A. Yes, I do, sir.

19 Q. Do you know why they were backing up?

20 A. I have no idea, sir.

21 Q. Okay. But you -- again, you are in this group here that I
22 have just circled; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So, you are not far from the gate; right?

25 A. Not at all, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Okay. And so you saw them actually back up from the gate;
2 correct?

3 A. I don't remember them backing up. I mean, on this video,
4 I see them backing up off the gate, but I don't remember, in
5 person --

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. -- remember them backing off the gate, sir.

8 Q. All right. Go ahead and keep playing it, Brian.

9 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

10 And stop at 35 seconds. Stop.

11 Okay. Now, this is the northbound bridge; is that
12 correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Part of it. Okay. And you indicated that there's some 15 people on the northbound bridge that had guns; correct?

16 A. That is correct, sir.

17 Q. And you -- I think you indicated that you saw some lights
18 of an NHP vehicle? I don't know if that --

19 A. They weren't by the bush. They were farther to the right,
20 sir. By the bush is where I actually saw the individual who 21 gave me the middle finger, but the lights were farther out,
22 sir.

23 Q. Okay. Did you see -- and you saw NHP personnel in bright
24 green fluorescent?

25 A. I have already testified that I did not see any personnel

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 on the bridge.

2 Q. Okay. These people are just sort of sitting around; is
3 that correct?

4 A. That is correct, sir.

5 Q. Do you know what this gentleman is holding here?

6 A. I do not, sir. Can you blow up the picture, and I might
7 be able to tell, sir.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, that's okay. Thank you very 9 much. I have nothing further.

10 THE COURT: Redirect?

11 MS. AHMED: May I have the Court's indulgence?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. I have no
15 redirect at this time.

16 THE COURT: All right. At this time, if any members
17 of the jury have a question for Ranger Whitteaker, please go
18 ahead and write it down on the form provided. Take your time,
19 write neatly, be clear not to use the pronouns, and please
20 don't tell us your name or your jury number.

21 Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

22 (Sidebar.)

23 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 76 asks, "When 24 you seen the subject, Shotgun Guy, pacing back and forth, did
25 he appear excited, or mad, or another emotion?"

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Any objection?

2 MR. TANASI: No, objection Stewart.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note 77 has three questions.

4 The first question is: "Officer, from the distance of your
5 post, how were you able to see through the southbound Jersey
6 barriers, that are cement, to the northbound Jersey barriers,
7 that are cement, and see persons and what they are doing?"

8 Any objection?

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

10 THE COURT: Question No. 2, "Officer, if you had a
11 clear shot, would you have taken it knowing you have fellow
12 officer, NHP, on the overpass?"

13 Any objection?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

15 THE COURT: And No. 3, "Can we, the jury, ever see
16 what the officer is testifying to in distance, not up close,
17 standing over them, or from 2,000 feet in the air?"

18 Do you want me to reread it? I will reread it.

19 "Can we, the jury, ever see what the officer is 20 testifying to in distance, not up close, standing over them, or 21 from 2,000 feet in the air?"

22 MS. AHMED: The evidence is what it is. I mean --

23 THE COURT: So, it looks like this juror wants to see
24 the exact view as opposed to --

25 MR. PEREZ: We don't have one.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 THE COURT: -- yeah, the photos and videos that are
2 being shown.

3 MS. AHMED: If there's more evidence --

4 THE COURT: The witness isn't going to know the 5 answer to that question. I'll let them know that, in many 6 cases, we don't have photos or video. And here we have some.
7 They are not exactly from every single person's point of view,
8 but --

9 MR. TANASI: An eye glass camera.

10 THE COURT: -- to help you to understand the scene.

11 All right. So, Jury Note No. 78 asks: "You
12 indicated April 12th, 2014, protest was the most fear you
13 experienced in your career. Can you please explain?" Any 14 objection?

15 MS. AHMED: No.

16 MR. MARCHESE: It's asked and answered.

17 THE REPORTER: Speak up.

18 MR. MARCHESE: It's been asked and answered,
19 Marchese.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Relevance.

22 MS. AHMED: It's clearly relevant. And, obviously,
23 they didn't get the answer, so I would -- no objection from the 24 government. I think it's an appropriate question.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: My problem is we're going to have a

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 long narrative with this again that we've had with other
2 witnesses that are bringing in, you know, hearsay, bringing in
3 nonrelevant evidence. And I -- I can see this question being 4 posed as, again, having that narrative where he can go on and
5 on about, you know, Middle Eastern or --

6 MR. TANASI: Or Black Hawk Down.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, whatever Black Hawk Down is. I
8 didn't even know what that was. So I don't think it's 9 relevant. He's already answered the question.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's clearly relevant to some 11 of the elements of some of the charges. So, if they are asking
12 they do not either hear or understand the answer, it's an 13 appropriate question to be asked. If there's objections as to 14 the form of the answer, they can always be made at the time.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: The elements are not to compare and 16 contrast whether this is the most --

17 THE COURT: All right. The element is fear.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

19 THE COURT: And they are saying that there's a
20 defense theory that the fear subjectively testified to is not 21 objectively reasonable. So, it is a fact not only that's 22 relevant to an element, but also that's been put in issue in 23 the case.

24 So, I'm going to go ahead and ask the question, but 25 I'm going to try to limit him to not providing a narrative, but

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 just more precisely explaining why he said that this was the
2 most fear he had experienced in his career.

3 The next question on Jury Note 78 is, "In your
4 opinion, any individual that carried a weapon is considered
5 that person a threat. Why?"

6 MS. AHMED: I think they might have misunderstood the 7 testimony, but no objection from the government.

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

9 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

10 THE COURT: All right. I think what they are asking
11 is do you consider any person who carries a weapon a threat,
12 and, if so, why?

13 So, okay. Jury Note 79, "If any shooting would have 14 started, and you and your fellow officers felt that you were in 15 real danger, would you return fire?"

16 Any objection to the question?

17 MS. AHMED: No.

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just on the speculation of other
20 officers. I mean, I think he can answer to what he would do,
21 but to speculate as to what other officers would do would be, I
22 think, outside the realm of anything relative or speculation.

23 THE COURT: All right. That's fair. I will limit
24 it.

25 Jury Note No. 80 has, looks like, about four

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 different parts to it. The first one is, "Do you feel that the
2 defendants' intent was to kill officers, agents on the day in
3 question?"

4 Any objection?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. Can you repeat that real
6 quick?

7 THE COURT: "Do you feel that the defendants' intent
8 was to kill officers and agents on the day in question?"

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's speculation.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's not relevant.

12 MR. MARCHESE: I don't believe he's -- he can get 13 into their minds.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: All he did was see them in the 15 binoculars for a couple seconds.

16 MS. AHMED: Maybe he can speak to his -- based on his
17 training and experience.

18 THE COURT: The fear is one of the elements that's in 19 question, so it's his fear.

20 MS. AHMED: And his perception of the events there
21 and their actions.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, no, it's going beyond the 23 perceptions and the event. It's going into the mindset of our 24 clients their intent, and that would be highly speculative.

25 THE COURT: No, it specifically asks him "Do you feel

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 that the defendants' intent was," not what was the defendants'
2 intent. So, again, I'll qualify it to make sure it's clear.
3 We are just asking him what he believes.

4 All right. Question Number 2 on Jury Note 80 is,
5 "Did agents or law enforcement have guns pointed at the 6 individuals that were armed on the bridge in a standoff
7 fashion?"

8 Any objection?

9 MS. AHMED: None from government.

10 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. Third question is, "Did the 12 presence of women and children and countless witnesses lessen
13 the feelings of fear of losing your life at all?"

14 Any objection?

15 MS. AHMED: No.

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

17 THE COURT: And the last one is, "Did you wear a body
18 cam that day? If so, would it have captured and displayed the 19 officers' sense of fear in a visible, perceivable way?"

20 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

21 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

22 MS. AHMED: No objection.

23 THE COURT: Jury Note 81, "Have you, prior to your 24 interview with the prosecution and/or the FBI, had any 25 conversation or other discussion with your professional

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 colleagues in regards to the events of April 11th through the
2 13th and discussed your opinions and feelings?"

3 MR. TANASI: No objection Stewart.

4 MS. AHMED: No objection.

5 THE COURT: "And as a former marine and having served
6 in the border patrol and ATF, are you familiar with the concept
7 of the incident command system and structure? Was this
8 management system in place during the event? And if the 9 structure was not in place, would having it activate change
10 your experience?"

11 MS. AHMED: No objection.

12 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

14 MR. MYHRE: What number is that, Your Honor? I'm 15 sorry.

16 THE COURT: 81.

17 MR. MYHRE: 81. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: And then Jury Note 82: "During your 19 meetings with the prosecution" -- did I already ask this one?
20 No. Okay. I didn't get done numbering then.

21 This is 82. "During the meetings with the 22 prosecution and the FBI, were you ever coached as to keyword,
23 terminology, or behaviors to use as a witness in this 24 proceeding?"

25 Any objection?

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MS. AHMED: No.

2 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

3 THE COURT: And second part of 82 is: "During your
4 period of observation, was there haze, glare, or dust that 5 affected your ability to clearly view the people on the
6 northbound bridge?"

7 Any objection?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

9 MS. AHMED: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Jury Note 83: "Will the jury have access
11 to the exhibits during deliberation?"

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: There's always one.

13 THE COURT: The answer is "Yes."

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: There's always one for the Judge.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And then Jury Note 84: "What is 16 the difference between a rifle and a shotgun, and does it make 17 a difference when determining the degree of the threat level
18 that you experienced?"

19 MS. AHMED: No objection.

20 MR. TANASI: No objection.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, can we go back -- I'm sorry.
22 Can we go back to 80 for a minute?

23 THE COURT: 80 was four parts.

24 MR. MYHRE: The last part, is it --

25 THE COURT: "Did you wear a body cam that day, and,

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 if so, would the footage have captured and displaced the
2 officers' fear in a visible, perceived" -- oh, I'm sorry.
3 Misread that.

4 "Did you wear a body cam that day? If so, would the 5 footage have captured and displayed the officers' sense of fear
6 in a visible, perceivable way?"

7 MR. MYHRE: Okay. While we anticipate the answer is 8 going to be no as to that, so we would object probably to the 9 speculation in the last part in terms of if he had one.

10 MR. MARCHESE: I think I asked him that; didn't I?
11 They are all the same.

12 MR. MYHRE: I'm assuming they want to know if he has 13 one.

14 THE COURT: If he has a body cam. Okay.

15 MR. TANASI: I think question is fine as is. I mean,
16 they are asking whether -- if he had a body cam, would that 17 have essentially helped them decide or determine or outline
18 what was happening in front of them. I think that would be
19 speculation.

20 THE COURT: "Would that have captured and displayed
21 the officers' sense of fear in a visible, perceivable way?"

22 THE REPORTER: Is "officers" plural or possessive?

23 THE COURT: It's not grammatically correct that they 24 are referring to officers plural, possessive. Well, I agree.
25 It's too speculative.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MR. MYHRE: Okay.

2 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

3 (End of sidebar.)

4 THE COURT: All right. So, I am going to read to you
5 some jury questions. I will read them into the record. But
6 when you respond, you may go ahead and turn to the jury,
7 because these are not my questions. These are really the 8 jurors' questions. Okay?

9 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Jury Note No. 76, "When you seen the subject, Shotgun
12 Guy, pacing back and forth, did he appear excited, or mad, or 13 another emotion?"

14 THE WITNESS: I think everybody on that -- everybody
15 in the entire situation was excited, mad. I mean, he seemed 16 like he was amped up would be my -- how he looked. He was 17 amped up like he was at something important.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 77, has three 19 questions. The first one is: "Officer, from the distance of 20 your post, how were you able to see through the southbound
21 Jersey barriers, that are cement, to the northbound Jersey
22 barriers, that are cement, and see persons and what they are 23 doing?"

24 THE WITNESS: Those -- the topographical views don't 25 show it. Those are the individuals I saw. I don't know how

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 the layout of the land goes, but I was able to see those
2 subjects on the northbound bridge, and they were able to see
3 us.

4 I can't explain how I could -- because, when I even 5 see the pictures, the topographical and how they show it, it's
6 not the perspective that I had at that wash. I can guarantee
7 you that I saw those subjects on that northbound bridge.

8 THE COURT: And so are you seeing through the cement
9 barriers, I think is the question. There may or may not be a
10 clarification here that needs to be made.

11 THE WITNESS: I believe how it was -- the bridge and 12 the layout of the land is, the northbound bridge is higher than 13 the other bridge, and that's how I believe we were able to see.

14 I was not a physics major or anything like that, so I
15 apologize that I can't articulate it better.

16 THE COURT: So, there's an angle is what you are 17 saying. There's angle.

18 THE WITNESS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: And that not everything is the same.

20 THE WITNESS: I believe that's how we were able to 21 see them. At the time, I was just viewing people. I don't 22 know how we were able to see them, but I could see them. I
23 guarantee you that.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Question No. 2 is: "If you had a
25 clear shot, would you have taken it knowing that you had fellow

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 officer, NHP, on that overpass?"

2 THE WITNESS: If you say a clear shot, we were not
3 taking fire at that time. I would not have initiated fire into
4 that crowd due to the amount of protesters. If I was taking
5 fire, I didn't see any NHP around those three subjects in the 6 center of the bridge. And I -- if I knew there was a clear
7 shot, and there was a danger that other officers were being
8 shot at, and I felt I could account for my round, I would have 9 shot to stop.

10 THE COURT: All right. No. 3 is: "Can you --
11 can" -- I'm sorry -- "Can we the jury ever see what the officer
12 is testifying to in distance, not up close, standing over them,
13 or from 2,000 feet in the air?"

14 So, I'm going to answer that question for you. In 15 many of our cases, we don't have photos, and we don't have 16 video. And the testimony is based on sometimes just documents
17 and testimony.

18 In this case, we do have photos, and we do have 19 videos, but it is unusual to have photos and videos of 20 everything. And in this case, the attorneys are doing the best
21 they can to go through all the photos and videos that were 22 taken that day by various and sundry people to show you the --
23 the views that will be helpful to you.

24 But it would be unreasonable to believe that they can 25 provide a view of every single thing that happened from every

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 single witness's point of view. That's not a reasonable
2 expectation so, please don't expect that.

3 Jury Note No. 78 is two parts. The first part is:
4 "You indicated April 12th, 2014, the protest was the more --
5 most fear that you experienced in your career. Can you please
6 explain?"

7 And so we don't -- we don't need a narrative, not a
8 very long answer, but rather, as succinctly as you can, why did
9 you say that this was the most fear that you experienced in 10 your long career?

11 THE WITNESS: In law enforcement, I have never been 12 in a fatal funnel like that with American citizens pointing 13 guns at me. I was -- there was the possibility that I would 14 have to engage another American citizen with -- within a
15 protest, and I feared that.

16 I mean, my interactions have been with -- with people
17 that are drug smugglers, you know, people that are felons. I
18 had American citizens pointing guns at me, pointing guns at my 19 brothers and sisters. That was the fear.

20 I mean, they were -- again, they -- we as federal 21 officers represent the government. Even if they don't believe
22 that, they have the right to protest us. But when you point
23 guns during a protest, at federal officers, that no longer
24 becomes a protest. That becomes direct assault on the flag.
25 This country --

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 MR. TANASI: Objection.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Nonresponsive.

3 THE COURT: All right. So, I think that you've made
4 your point.

5 The next part of the question is: "In your opinion,
6 any individual -- is any individual that carries a weapon
7 considered a threat. And, if so, why?"

8 THE WITNESS: Not at all. I contact people
9 constantly with firearms. I carry a firearm. My wife carries
10 a firearm. Almost everybody I know carries a firearm.
11 Carrying a firearm doesn't mean you are a bad person. This is 12 America. We have the right to have a firearm.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Nonresponsive.

14 THE COURT: All right. So, the question was: "So is 15 it -- do you consider everyone who carries a weapon a threat?"

16 THE WITNESS: Not at all. When they point it at me,
17 then they become a threat.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And then Jury Note No. 79 asks:
19 "If any shooting would have started, would you and your fellow
20 officers felt that you were in real -- you and your fellow
21 officers felt that you were in real danger, would you return
22 fire?"

23 So, obviously, you can't testify as to what your 24 fellow officers would or would not have felt. But from your 25 point of view, if any shooting would have started and you felt

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 that you were in real danger, would you have returned fire?

2 THE WITNESS: If I had the ability -- if we were
3 taking fire and I had the ability safely to stop one of those
4 subjects with my firearm, yes, I would have. I would have 5 returned fire, as long it was in a safe manner that I could
6 account for that round.

7 If they were in the open with nobody around, and they
8 were firing on my brothers or sisters and myself, I would shoot
9 to stop.

10 THE COURT: All right. And Jury Note No. 80, I
11 think, has four questions. The first one is: "Do you feel 12 that the defendants' intent was to kill officers and agents on 13 the day in question?"

14 So, just your belief. Your fear, was it based on a 15 fear that the intent was to kill officers and agents on the day
16 in question?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, it was. They pointed guns at us.

18 THE COURT: Okay. "Did agents or law enforcement
19 have guns pointed at the individuals that were armed on the 20 bridge in a standoff fashion?"

21 THE WITNESS: I can't testify to what the other the 22 agents and rangers have. But with the -- the individual
23 Shotgun Guy, yes, I did have my sights on him. He had pointed 24 his weapon at the wash towards the rangers and agents. And,
25 yes. I can't testify who the other rangers were pointing their

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 guns at, but I was pointing my gun at him.

2 THE COURT: "Did the presence of women, children, and
3 countless witnesses lessen" -- like to make less -- the fear
4 of -- "the feeling of fear of losing your life at all?"

5 THE WITNESS: Actually, it increased the fear of my
6 loss. Because the whole thing is, is we started taking fire,
7 just like I've said before, I had to account for each one of my
8 rounds. I'm not about to shoot a woman and child. And where 9 they could have sprayed down on us as many rounds, they don't
10 have to account for their rounds.

11 I, in the end, have to account for -- if I have a
12 30-round magazine, everywhere one of those rounds go, I have to 13 account for. So, having those women and children there, I was 14 scared.

15 I'm starting to take fire, and a guy has women and 16 children around, am I going to take that shot? No. What
17 happens if I hit -- what happens if I miss? Hit a barricade --
18 hit the concrete barricade, and that ricochets and hits that 19 woman? What happens if it hits that child?

20 I mean, I was afraid. They were innocent people that 21 were doing what the Second Amendment allows us to do is 22 protest, but we had individuals within them pointing firearms
23 at us, taking their Second Amendment right away, because they 24 made it no longer a protest.

25 THE COURT: All right. The last question on Jury

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Note No. 80 is: "Did you wear a body cam that day?"

2 THE WITNESS: No, I did not have a body cam that day.
3 But after that, now I wear my body cam every day.

4 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 81: "Have you, prior to 5 your interviews with the prosecution and/or FBI, had any
6 conversation or other discussion with your professional
7 colleagues in regards to the events of April 11th through 13
8 and discussed your opinions and feelings?"

9 THE WITNESS: I discussed my opinions. I was upset
10 about it. I -- I've told my colleagues that it really put me
11 down. I was pretty depressed about it. And I have talked to 12 them about it, that American citizens pointed their guns at me.

13 These weren't drug smugglers. These weren't felons.
14 These weren't guys -- these were American citizens that decided 15 to go against us, us federal officers. So, I've discussed my 16 feelings, you know, and I think it's helped me work -- work
17 through some of the feelings I had.

18 I felt betrayed. Seriously, I felt betrayed by 19 Americans pointing guns at me like that. I'm used to being
20 down in the border and dealing with drug smugglers. Or when I
21 was with the ATF, felons. So, I needed to talk some of my 22 emotions out.

23 THE COURT: And the second part of Jury Note 81 asks:
24 "As a former marine and having served in the border patrol and 25 ATF, are you familiar with the concept of the incident command

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 system and structure? Was this management system in place
2 during this event? And if the structure was not in place,
3 would having it activate -- would having it activate change
4 your experience?"

5 THE WITNESS: We had an incident command center. We
6 had an incident command. I came in later. I was called in off
7 of a leave, and I came down. But there was an incident command
8 structure set up.

9 THE COURT: All right. And then Jury Note No. 82
10 asks: "During your meetings with the prosecution, the FBI,
11 were you ever coached as to any keywords, terminology, or 12 behaviors to use as a witness in this proceeding?"

13 THE WITNESS: No, I wasn't coached at all. They went 14 over my testimony.

15 THE COURT: "During your period of observation, was 16 there haze, glare, or dust that affected your ability to 17 clearly view the people on the northbound bridge?"

18 THE WITNESS: There was dust caused by the -- there
19 was dust, people moving around, but I was clearly able to 20 identify them at certain points, most of the points.

21 I mean, I'm not going to say there wasn't dust.
22 There wasn't stress. There wasn't sweat in my eyes, but I am
23 able to clearly identify all the people that I identified in my 24 report.

25 THE COURT: And Jury Question No. 83 asks: "Will the

Edwin Whitteaker - Redirect

1 jury have access to the exhibits during deliberation?"

2 And the answer is yes, that any exhibit that has been
3 admitted will be provided to you during the deliberation
4 process, and you'll have access to them and time to see them
5 for a longer period of time than you have now. You are going
6 to have them for the entire time that you are deliberating.

7 Jury Note 84 asks: "What is the difference between a
8 rifle and a shotgun, and does it make a difference when 9 determining a degree of threat level that you experienced?"

10 THE WITNESS: They both have the same threat level.
11 I am not a gun expert. A rifle shoots a small round. A
12 shotgun doesn't have as much distance. The -- it depends on 13 who the shooter is. I am definitely not a -- a gun
14 connoisseur, but those rounds would kill me, either round.

15 THE COURT: And Jury Note No. -- oh, that is the last
16 one. All right.

17 Any follow-up by the government?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have a moment?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I do have some redirect.

22 THE COURT: Go ahead. Thank you.

23 REDIRECT-EXAMINATION

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Ranger Whitteaker, you were asked some questions about

Edwin Whitteaker - Redirect

1 what you could see of the bridges from the position that you
2 were in. Do you recall that?

3 A. Yes, I do, ma'am.

4 Q. Now, just to clarify, was your position on the same level
5 as the concrete barriers of the bridges or higher or lower?

6 A. I believe we were lower. I don't really -- I saw those
7 individuals. I saw everything on the bridge. We were lower
8 down in the wash looking that way.

9 Q. And you were gesturing upward with your hands. Were you
10 looking up?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I publish what's been
13 previously admitted as Exhibit 157?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. Now, Ranger, is this -- the vehicles at the bottom of the 17 picture, do you see them?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And at one point were you by those vehicles?

20 A. Yes, I was.

21 Q. And at some points you were further back?

22 A. Yes, I was.

23 Q. But when you were further back, were you on the same level
24 or a different level?

25 A. I'm not sure, ma'am.

Edwin Whitteaker - Redirect

1 Q. I mean relatively same level or were you --

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. Now, at any point, were you at the same level as the 4 bridges themselves?

5 A. No, ma'am.

6 Q. So, when you were looking at bridges, both the south and 7 the north, again, you would -- what direction would you be
8 looking?

9 A. I would be looking up, ma'am.

10 Q. And so did the southbound bridge interfere with your view
11 of the northbound in any way?

12 A. No, it did not, ma'am.

13 Q. You can take that down. Thank you.

14 You were also asked some questions about the fear
15 that you had that day. Do you recall those questions?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. Now, the -- just so that the jury understands clearly, did
18 you have any fear for your physical safety and that of your 19 fellow officers?

20 A. Oh, definitely. I mean, we were in a horrible position.
21 I mean, they could have rained down heck on us.

22 Q. So, was that fear specific to the people that were on the 23 northbound bridge that you identified?

24 A. Yes, they had the best position. They had cover with the 25 cement, they had a higher elevation than us, and then we were

Edwin Whitteaker - Redirect

1 stuck in a wash. So, they had a far superior position than we
2 did.

3 Q. Now, you were also asked about the difference between a
4 rifle and a shotgun. Do you recall that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. On direct examination, do you recall testifying as to the 7 person -- the first person on the bridge that posed a threat?
8 Do you recall that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you were looking at that person with your naked eye
11 initially?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you thought they had a -- some kind of long gun; is 14 that right?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. And so you initially thought it might have been a rifle;
17 is that correct?

18 A. Yes. And when I got my binoculars, I believed that it was 19 a shotgun.

20 Q. So, you weren't confused about what they had. But when 21 you got your binoculars, you could simply see it better; is
22 that correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. And when you saw that it -- it appeared to a shotgun, that 25 was frame of reference --

Edwin Whitteaker - Redirect

1 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

2 MR. TANASI: Leading.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. And when you saw that it was a shotgun --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. When you saw that it was -- Your Honor, may I --

8 THE COURT: She's withdrawing the question and 9 clarifying it in --

10 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: -- a non-leading way. Go ahead.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. When you saw it was a shotgun, what, if anything, did that 14 help you do in terms of that person on the bridge?

15 A. I referenced him as Shotgun Guy.

16 Q. Now, you were also asked about whether or not you were 17 coached in any way by the prosecution. Do you recall that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. At any time, whether it was the FBI or one of the 20 prosecutors, have you ever been asked to do anything other than 21 tell the truth to the jury?

22 A. No, that's all I've been asked to do is tell the truth.

23 Q. And were words ever put in your mouth?

24 A. Words were never put in my mouth.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, can I have the Court's

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 indulgence?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 MS. AHMED: Nothing further. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Any redirect?

6 MR. TANASI: Briefly, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Tanasi, on behalf of 8 Defendant Stewart.

9 RECCROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Okay, sir. You just were asked about the folks on the 12 northbound bridge and their intent. Do you remember those
13 questions?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And you testified that you believed that their 16 intent was to kill; right?

17 A. They were pointing firearms at me, sir.

18 Q. Understood. And you took that one step further and said
19 that that means that, according to you, that's their intent to 20 kill; right?

21 A. That -- I believe it could -- was their intent in the end
22 was to kill us.

23 Q. That's what you believe, but you don't know for sure;
24 right?

25 A. I do not know for sure, but that's what I believe, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 Q. That's what you believe. You are essentially guessing;
2 correct?

3 MS. AHMED: Objection. Argumentative.

4 THE COURT: Sustained. It went to his fear, not to 5 whether or not the defendants did or did not actually intend.
6 The question was whether the fear was based on a belief that
7 the pointing of the gun was meant to kill.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. No shots were fired that day; correct, sir?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. All right. You testified that part of your fear was that 12 the folks on the northbound bridge, they had the high ground;
13 right?

14 A. That is correct, sir.

15 Q. Okay. Were you aware that the FBI was flying a plane
16 above you?

17 MS. AHMED: Objection. Argumentative and relevance.

18 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to his fear.

19 THE COURT: What was the question? Whether he was 20 aware there was a plane?

21 MR. TANASI: A plane flown by the FBI in the sky
22 above him.

23 THE COURT: He can answer that question. I don't --
24 I don't recall him saying that he knew who was flying the 25 plane, but that doesn't matter. He can -- he can answer that

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 question.

2 THE WITNESS: I had no idea that an FBI plane was
3 flying overhead, sir.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. That wasn't communicated to you?

6 A. It could have been communicated, but there was a lot of 7 radio chatter and a lot of stuff going on. I knew of no FBI
8 plane flying over, sir.

9 Q. You had indicated that you spoke with some others, some 10 other rangers and potentially BLM agents prior to today about 11 your events and what took place on the 12th; fair?

12 A. That is fair to say, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Did you talk to Agent or Ranger Swanson?

14 A. I have talked to Ranger Swanson before.

15 Q. Okay. Did you talk to him about the events on the 12th
16 after?

17 A. Not really. He wasn't at my field office. I talked to 18 the people at the field office that I worked with. I've talked 19 to Scott, you know, maybe I asked him how he was doing.

20 Q. Did you talk to him about what happened on the 12th, sir?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. I believe the 22 witness said he talked about his feelings.

23 MR. TANASI: He also said "Not really," Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: So what is the objection? He's already 25 responded to the question?

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm trying to drill down on
2 the "not really," whether it's yes or no. Whether he spoke
3 with Agent Swanson or not about the events on the 12th.

4 THE COURT: He can answer that question.

5 THE WITNESS: I most likely talked to him about my
6 feelings. I mean, I know he wasn't one of the primary guys I
7 talked to. The primary people I talked to were at my field
8 office, but they were about my feelings about what went on.

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. Understood. And did you talk about your feelings about 11 what went on also with Mr. Whitworth?

12 A. I don't believe so.

13 Q. Did you speak at all with Agent Cox, Ranger Cox?

14 A. I believe he's dead, sir.

15 Q. You believe Ranger Cox is dead?

16 A. Yeah. What's his name? What's his full name?

17 Q. Sean Cox?

18 A. Yeah, I think he's dead, sir. I really wasn't too
19 friendly with him.

20 Q. Did you speak with Ranger Burke?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Okay. Did you speak at all with Guss Warr?

23 A. I don't know who Guss Warr is, sir.

24 Q. Did you speak at all with Ranger/Agent Sully?

25 A. I don't know who that is, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - Cross

1 Q. Ranger or Agent Martinez? Did you speak with him?

2 A. No, I'm not close to Marty.

3 Q. You are not close to Martin?

4 A. Marty.

5 Q. Marty?

6 A. I believe it's Marty Martinez.

7 Q. Did you speak with Marty Martinez about the events that 8 took place on the 12th?

9 A. Nope.

10 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you, sir. Pass the
11 witness.

12 THE COURT: Cross, Mr. Marchese, on behalf of
13 Mr. Parker?

14 CROSS-EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. You were asked a question by the jury in reference to 17 Shotgun Guy and his intentions or something along those lines.
18 Do you remember those lines of -- that question?

19 A. Yes, I think I answered that, sir --

20 Q. Yes.

21 A. -- previously with the other attorney.

22 Q. Okay. And you had mentioned you weren't sure. And we've 23 had some questions about that and answers whether it was a
24 shotgun or a rifle. Do you remember that?

25 A. Yes, I remember that, sir.

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 Q. Okay. And you just answered something to the effect of
2 that didn't necessarily change your feeling or your fears
3 whether it was a shotgun or a rifle?

4 A. No, because a shotgun and rifle can do the same damage.
5 That shotgun would have been able to reach out to the 6 individuals, the park service guys that were in the front.

7 Q. What was your distance to the northbound bridge when you
8 were viewing with your binoculars?

9 A. I think we have gone over this before, sir. I am not sure
10 of the distance, sir.

11 Q. Okay. Well, you don't know.

12 A. I'm not sure of the distance, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Would you have been able to make that shot with 14 your AR?

15 A. Yes, I would have, sir.

16 Q. Okay. Would someone with a shotgun be able to make that 17 shot?

18 A. I don't believe the individual with the shotgun could have 19 reached me. But as I just said, he could reach the individuals
20 that were the park service employees.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. No, further questions.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal or Mr. Perez? All right.

23 On behalf of Mr. Drexler.

24 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could you bring up 17, Brian?

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 Q. You were asked some questions regarding the high ground.
2 Do you remember?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Go to 29:05. Play it to 29:10 please. Just go to 5 10. Just play it.

6 (Exhibit 17 being played.)

7 Okay. Stop. This is the northbound bridge; correct?

8 A. That is correct, sir.

9 Q. Southbound bridge; correct?

10 A. That is correct, sir.

11 Q. Anybody on that bridge?

12 A. Not at that point, sir.

13 Q. You see people down there; correct?

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would object as to 15 misleading as to the evidence. He has not established a time
16 with this witness, and the witness was not in the wash at this
17 time.

18 There's a time stamp on here as 11:39, and 19 Mr. Leventhal knows this witness was not in the wash at this
20 time.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. Just showing that they 22 didn't always have the high ground.

23 THE COURT: Excuse me, Mr. Leventhal?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I said I'm just showing the relevance
25 that's showing that they didn't always have the high ground.

Edwin Whitteaker - RX

1 They didn't always the have the high ground. This witness has
2 testified that they had the high ground.

3 THE COURT: All right, then say that. The relevance
4 is --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize. The relevance is, is 6 that they didn't always have the high ground. That's all.
7 Thank you.

8 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Perez.

9 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Just one or two questions. When you were looking through 12 your binoculars up at the northbound bridge, where were you
13 exactly?

14 A. I was in the wash, sir.

15 Q. Well, I mean, there's two sets of vehicles. There's the 16 closer BLM vehicles.

17 A. I have gone over this within testimony. I was in the 18 second group of vehicles, not the group of vehicles with the 19 park service, sir.

20 Q. Okay. And I just want to make sure that the individual
21 that you saw walking behind the gentleman with the tactical
22 vest and the sunglasses was approximately 100 yards. That 23 would be to the south of the bridge; correct?

24 A. I'm confused by your question. I said --

25 Q. Well --

Edwin Whitteaker - Further Direct

1 A. -- when I saw him, he was by the tree, which was to the
2 right of the pillar, Shotgun and Crack Guy. It wasn't
3 originally where you showed me the photo -- I was shown the 4 photo by the prosecution and you. It was by that tree.

5 MR. PEREZ: By that tree. Okay. Thank you. I have
6 nothing further.

7 THE COURT: Any redirect?

8 MS. AHMED: Just one question, Your Honor.

9 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Ranger Whitteaker, when you were asked about the other
12 rangers that you had spoken to, you were asked about a Ranger
13 Cox. So, do you recall that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And Ranger Cox, the one you are referring to that's now
16 passed away, that was a BLM ranger; right?

17 A. A BLM K9 handler that passed away.

18 Q. Are you familiar with anyone at the National Park Service
19 that was involved in the impoundment that also has the name of 20 Cox?

21 A. No, I wasn't familiar with any of the park service
22 individuals.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, nothing further. Thank you.
24 Thank you, Ranger Whitteaker.

25 THE COURT: Anything else from the defense?

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

2 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor. Sorry.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

4 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you. BLM Ranger
6 Whitteaker, you are excused. Please be careful on the way down
7 with the steps.

8 Does the government want to call its next witness?

9 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor. The United States
10 calls Ranger Maurice Martinez.

11 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Ranger Martinez. Please
12 go ahead and remain standing.

13 MAURICE MARTINEZ,
14 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: State your full name and
16 spell it for the record.

17 THE WITNESS: Maurice Martinez, M-A-R-T-I-N-E-Z.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. Thank you. And Ranger Martinez, could you pull that 21 microphone as close as you can?

22 A. Uh-huh.

23 Q. Thank you, sir. Now, Ranger Martinez, what is your 24 current employment, job?

25 A. I'm a law enforcement ranger in Anchorage, Alaska.

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 Q. And with what agency?

2 A. BLM.

3 Q. How long have you been a ranger with the Bureau of Land
4 Management?

5 A. 14 years.

6 Q. Are you a sworn federal law enforcement officer?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is there any training that you have to complete in order
9 to become a law enforcement ranger with the Bureau of Land
10 Management?

11 A. Yes. We go to the Federal Law Enforcement Academy, and 12 there we get trained in firearms, driving, defensive tactics,
13 medical training, report writing, legal.

14 Q. Did you have any law enforcement experience before
15 becoming a Bureau of Land Management ranger?

16 A. Yes. I started my career with DOD as security police in 17 Tooele, Utah, working for -- there's a base there that has 18 chemical weapons. Then I moved on to Department of Commerce,
19 in Colorado, and I was there for four years approximately.

20 After 9/11, I was relocated to Atlanta to work for 21 the FAA and Department of Homeland Security as an air marshal,
22 and I did that for two years.

23 Q. All together, how much law enforcement experience do you 24 have?

25 A. It is 23 years.

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 Q. Do you have any military experience as well?

2 A. Yes, four years Navy.

3 Q. And I won't ask you to go through it all, but fair to say
4 that you've also had some training in those other law
5 enforcement positions as well?

6 A. Yes. I have been through the Federal Academy twice and 7 also went through the Air Marshal Academy.

8 Q. Are you familiar with an impoundment operation that
9 occurred in Bunkerville on April 2014?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Were you assigned to that operation in your official 12 capacity as a law enforcement ranger?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And were you present at the incident command post or 15 impound site on April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What were your duties at that time?

18 A. I was doing security for the ICP and assigned to Post 1.
19 That's the front gate.

20 Q. And Post 1, when you say it's the front gate, is that 21 where it joins the southbound lane of I-15?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did there come a time that you moved to Post 2?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And what was the reason for that?

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 A. It was my understanding that there were protesters that
2 were coming down the wash, which is the location for Post 2.
3 It's right over by the overpasses. And so I knew that they
4 were going to need more support.

5 Q. Was there anything in particular that there was concern
6 about with regard to needing to be securing Post 2?

7 A. Well, we -- we didn't know how many people there were
8 going to be. But if there's a large crowd, then you want more
9 than just two rangers down there, so --

10 Q. Did there come a time that you actually did arrive at Post
11 2?

12 A. I'm sorry?

13 Q. Did there come a time that you did arrive at Post 2?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And when you got there, about how close were you to 16 that gate that's under the southbound lane of I-15?

17 A. Roughly 100 yards.

18 Q. And is that behind or to the north of that gate?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So, you weren't one of the front few vehicles that was 21 right behind the gate?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. And from your position about 100 yards back from 24 that gate, were you able to make observations from there about 25 people that actually did arrive in the wash?

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And did you do that with the aid of any device or any
3 instrument?

4 A. Yes. I had some binoculars, and I used the binoculars to 5 observe the crowd in the wash, and I was mostly looking for
6 weapons.

7 Q. What was the magnification level on your binoculars if you
8 can remember?

9 A. 8X.

10 Q. I'm sorry?

11 A. 8.

12 Q. Is that 8 times -- just to understand, what does that 13 mean?

14 A. It's 8 times, yes.

15 Q. Okay. And did you observe people with firearms?

16 A. Not in the wash. I continued glassing and --

17 Q. And just for the jury to understand, what does glassing
18 mean?

19 A. Just looking through the binoculars, observing. So, as I
20 was glassing, I -- I looked at the overpass and specifically
21 the northbound lane. And I saw someone in a brown shirt and 22 black vest. I wasn't sure if that was just a vest or some sort
23 of body armor. I assumed it was body armor. He also had a
24 dark baseball cap and a white patch on the front.

25 Q. And what drew your attention to this individual?

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 A. He was carrying a AR/AK-type long gun, rifle. And it was
2 in front. And he was just kind of pacing back and forth and
3 sort of fidgeting with the rifle.

4 Q. When you say that he was fidgeting with the rifle, what
5 does that mean?

6 A. He was moving it away from his body and -- and I did
7 observe him one time pull it up like this, and -- as if he were 8 checking the sights or checking the optic. I couldn't tell if 9 there was an optic on the rifle. But as he did that, and that 10 was -- that put the muzzle in the -- basically pointing
11 downrange toward law enforcement. So --

12 Q. And, so, when you say "like this," I'm just going to make 13 a verbal record. You mean sighting with the weapon in a sort
14 of downward trajectory down lower than himself?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. About how long did you observe this individual?

17 A. I's not sure exactly the time.

18 Q. Would it have been seconds, minutes, hours?

19 A. Oh, definitely minutes, but at least 30 minutes. But we
20 were watching the entire -- that whole overpass area. It
21 wasn't just limited to one individual, so --

22 Q. You mentioned that you saw this individual pacing and at 23 one point looking downrange. Is there anything else that this
24 person did that caught your attention?

25 A. Yes. At one point, he -- I looked up, and I didn't see

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 him. And so I kept looking. And then I saw him pop up from
2 behind one of the Jersey barriers. So I thought, "Well, he
3 must have gotten tired, and he was sitting down taking a
4 break."

5 And he went back down, and I happened to see --
6 something caught my eye, and I saw a shadow from between the 7 gap of the two Jersey barriers that had a -- I'm not sure
8 exactly how far apart they were, but a couple inches maybe.

9 And I saw a shadow in there, and I could see that he
10 was putting his barrel between that gap. And so I figured out 11 that he was -- must have been lying prone and aiming in on the 12 officers that were downrange from his gun. So --

13 Q. So, I'm going to ask you about both of these things. So,
14 when you first saw him doing the downrange motion, did you have 15 concern for your safety or the safety of other officers at that 16 point?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Why was that?

19 A. Well, because he was pointing a gun at law enforcement.
20 And that's -- that's a big threat.

21 Q. When you saw this shadow in the gap between the Jersey
22 barriers, did you have concern at that point?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And why was that?

25 A. For the same reason. It shows intent that -- to -- to

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 commit a violent act.

2 Q. That's how you interpreted it?

3 A. That's how I interpreted it, yes.

4 Q. Can we bring up for the witness, please, what's been
5 already admitted as Government's Exhibit 157?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. And Ranger Martinez, you mentioned you had some 9 binoculars. So, you are a little further back from this, but 10 were you able to see what's depicted in Exhibit 157?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you see, in this picture, where you observed this 13 person with the dark hat with the white patch?

14 A. Well, it's a little difficult to see in this picture.
15 It's also at a different angle from where we were. We were 16 more toward the right. But where the gap is, is pretty much
17 above the pillar.

18 If you look at the far pillars, on the far overpass
19 there, the gap is -- is right around there. It's -- I cannot 20 see it from here on this picture here. So --

21 Q. Can you circle the area where you saw it?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you can touch the screen and circle on that screen
24 right there.

25 A. Okay.

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 Q. And just to orient ourselves, what are these -- on the
2 right side of the screen, we see that there are these three
3 pillars. What are those?

4 A. Those pillars are for the southbound overpass.

5 Q. And which overpass is the one that you just placed a
6 circle on?

7 A. The northbound.

8 Q. Okay. And can we please zoom in on the area where Ranger
9 Martinez has indicated?

10 Okay. And Ranger Martinez, with this a little bit
11 more zoomed in, are you able to see the crack that you were 12 talking about or the gap that you were talking about?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And can you circle that, please? And the witness has 15 circled the center of this screen right over the pillar at a
16 small gap area. Thank you. We can take that down.

17 Can we bring up, for the witness only, Exhibit 158,
18 please.

19 And Ranger Martinez, is this another picture of that 20 area on April 12, 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Does this fairly and accurately depict what you yourself
23 saw on April 2014?

24 A. Yes.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government moves to

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 admit Exhibit 158.

2 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 158?

3 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

4 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

6 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: Exhibit 158 will be admitted. You may go
8 ahead and publish to the jury.

9 (Exhibit 158 admitted.)

10 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 Q. And Ranger Martinez, I know this is a little bit different
12 of a perspective, but do you see that same area where you
13 observed the individual with the black hat with the white
14 bill -- white face in the picture as well?

15 A. I see the gap, if that's what you're asking. I'm not sure
16 if I see the individual we're talking about.

17 Q. Thank you for clarifying. Do you see the area where you
18 saw the individual?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Could you circle that, please?

21 And the witness has circled an area in the top left
22 corner of the picture.

23 Could you please zoom in on that?

24 And Ranger Martinez, in this zoom up, can you also 25 see that area where you saw the individual?

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Could you circle that, please? Thank you. You can take
3 that down.

4 And Ranger Martinez, is the person with the black hat
5 with the white face the only person that you saw with a firearm
6 on the northbound bridge?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you see another individual that had a blue T-shirt?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

10 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

11 THE COURT: Sustained.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. You saw a few individuals, but is there anybody who stood
14 out in your opinion?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who stood out to you?

17 A. Well, the second person that I noticed was wearing a gray
18 T-shirt and a AR/AK-type long gun. And the third person I saw
19 was wearing a blue T-shirt and appeared to be carrying a
20 shotgun.

21 Q. And the person with the blue T-shirt and the shotgun,
22 what, if anything, did you observe them to do?

23 A. I'm sorry. I didn't hear that.

24 Q. Thank you. Please let me know if you can't hear me.

25 What did you observe that individual with the blue

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 T-shirt and the shotgun to do?

2 A. He was just standing, you know, walking around, not doing
3 much really.

4 Q. What -- how did he appear to have his firearm when you
5 observed him?

6 A. It was pointed down.

7 Q. Was it in front or slung in back?

8 A. In front.

9 MR. TANASI: Objection. Asked and answered, Your
10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. He can clarify.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Sorry. Just in case they didn't hear that, where did you
14 observe the gun to be on his person?

15 A. It was in front.

16 Q. Thank you. Can we bring up Exhibit 14? And stopping it
17 there.

18 (Exhibit 14 being played.)

19 And stopping Exhibit 14 at 7 seconds, bringing your 20 attention to this individual who's in the front of the video,
21 is this individual consistent with one of the persons that you
22 just described?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Which person?

25 A. The first person that I observed who had the AR/AK-type

Maurice Martinez - Direct

1 rifle and a brown shirt and black vest.

2 Q. And taking your attention to the individual on the left
3 side of this frame in Exhibit 14 at 7 seconds, is this person
4 consistent with one of the individuals that you saw?

5 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, it is.

7 THE COURT: It's not leading. Overruled. He may
8 answer the question. The form was proper.

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. So, sorry. Was this person on the left consistent with 11 one of the persons that you saw?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Which person was that?

14 A. The individual that you last asked me about, that I said
15 was just standing with his shotgun pointed down.

16 Q. Where did you see this -- when you saw -- when you saw the 17 person with the blue T-shirt on the day, where did you see them
18 in relation to the person with the black hat?

19 A. They were to -- they were to the right, from our 20 perspective, to our right.

21 Q. Is that looker's right?

22 A. Yes, looker's right.

23 Q. And that would be to the right of that area you indicated
24 before?

25 A. Correct.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Q. And Ranger Martinez, did this person give you concern?

2 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes. Not as much, but --

4 THE COURT: I didn't hear the objection.

5 MR. TANASI: It was leading, Your Honor, again.

6 THE COURT: Overruled. And he's already answered the
7 question.

8 BY MS. CREEGAN:

9 Q. So, Ranger Martinez, after you observed this individual
10 with the blue T-shirt and the shotgun, did you have a concern
11 to your safety?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Why was that?

14 A. Well, typically, in protests, you don't bring long guns.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Court's indulgence.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Nothing
18 further.

19 THE COURT: Cross.

20 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. Okay, sir. Good afternoon.

24 A. Good afternoon.

25 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 few questions for you on cross. All right?

2 A. Sure.

3 Q. Okay. At some point, you start your day on the 12th off
4 at Post 1?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And then you eventually make your way down to Post
7 2; right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Going back to Post 1, approximately 11:20, is that when 10 you roughly arrived?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. And when you arrive at Post 1, you run into two Las 13 Vegas Metropolitan Police Department officers; correct, at Post
14 1?

15 A. At Post 1, yes.

16 Q. Okay. And those officers, they tell you to put your long
17 guns --

18 MS. CREEGAN: Objection.

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. -- away; correct?

21 MS. CREEGAN: Relevance. Hearsay.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to, A, effect on the 23 listener. That's why it's not hearsay. It's not being offered
24 for the truth, and --

25 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 (Sidebar.)

2 THE COURT: Go ahead and make your objection.

3 MS. CREEGAN: So, Your Honor, the objection is 4 relevance and hearsay. He's at Post 1. Metro takes over the 5 Post, and they tell him that -- to sling their long guns, which 6 they don't, because they perceived the threat to be too great.

7 And I assume that the purpose of this question is
8 solely say, I don't know, because I didn't follow Metro's
9 instructions, that's somehow bad.

10 MR. TANASI: That's the wrong assumption, but go
11 ahead.

12 THE COURT: So, what is the relevance?

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. The relevance, Your Honor, again
14 it's the circumstance of fear. You have Metro saying "Put your 15 guns away. There is no need for them." That's, at least, the 16 arguments. "Put your guns away," and they don't follow that
17 order.

18 Again, it goes back to a circumstance of fear. You
19 have different law enforcement agencies acting differently on 20 the day in question. You have Metro who is clearly not as 21 afraid as these agents are when they come in and talk about how 22 afraid they are, because Metro is instructing them to put their 23 guns away.

24 I am not offering it for the purpose of saying they
25 are not listening to Metro or they are somehow becoming more

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 aggressive than Metro. It's for the sole purpose of putting
2 all the pieces together of fear, circumstantial pieces of fear,
3 to try to figure out objectively whether this individual's fear
4 is reasonable.

5 THE COURT: It's a misleading question, because the 6 Sheriff himself has testified that the reason they were trying
7 not to put out guns was to deescalate the situation, not
8 because they were not in fear. He testified very clearly that 9 there was fear.

10 So, it's not relevant if you are trying to show that 11 the reason that -- that he was fearful is opposite to reality,
12 because other people are being instructed to put away their
13 guns because there is no fear in the area.

14 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, again, I understand the 15 Court's ruling, but I would just, for the record, point out
16 that that's a credibility determination ultimately for the 17 jury, whether or not these individuals are truly as afraid as 18 they are getting up and testifying they are.

19 And I think that in not permitting us to offer up
20 different circumstances of law enforcement's fear, through
21 different law enforcement perceptions, is taking up --

22 THE COURT: There's been no evidence of different law
23 enforcement perception. There's been no evidence of law
24 enforcement not having fear.

25 MR. TANASI: Again, I would --

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 THE COURT: So, that's not in evidence as well. But
2 for the relevance portion, you are trying to draw a conclusion
3 that is not supported in good faith yet.

4 MR. TANASI: I wasn't --

5 THE COURT: You have got a law enforcement officer
6 you are going to be calling in and you want to make that
7 proffer who is going to say "I was there, and I wasn't afraid,"
8 maybe we would have a different situation.

9 MR. TANASI: I wasn't asking -- Your Honor, I wasn't
10 going to go to whether or not he believed Metro was fearful or 11 not or whether he truly was fearful or not. Again, I'm going
12 to the circumstantial argument of it.

13 And I would also point out that the evidence of the 14 individuals who were walking up and down what's been called the 15 fatal funnel, strutting, walking up and down the fatal funnel,
16 that's evidence, circumstantial evidence of unreasonable fear.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Well --

18 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan.

19 MS. CREEGAN: First of all, the elements are an 20 objective reasonableness of fear. So even if there were one
21 officer who was particularly steely and not afraid, that would 22 not in any what disprove an element of the crime.

23 So, even if this one officer were to say that at the 24 Metro Post, it wouldn't support or defeat a defense or an 25 element of the crime. But it is misleading to jury, because

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 it's not based on some good faith knowledge that there's a law
2 enforcement officer that didn't think that it was an
3 intimidating situation.

4 Also, this occurs at the very beginning of the 5 incident, and there would have to be no objective reason for 6 fear for the entirety of the incident. So it seems it's also 7 just got very, very, very little relevance.

8 THE COURT: I agree. There's very little probative
9 value and the prejudicial effect is very high, because it's 10 very misleading and confusing to the jury. The objection is 11 sustained.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

13 (End of sidebar.)

14 MR. TANASI: Brian, if could you please pull up 13A.

15 THE COURT: Just a second. I want to make sure. Are 16 we ready for the Court?

17 THE REPORTER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. So, the objection
19 is sustained, and you may ask a different question.

20 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 Actually, Brian, could we pull up Exhibit 158,
22 please.

23 Q. Okay, sir. Do you see Exhibit 158 there before you?

24 A. It says 150 on the screen.

25 Q. And I apologize. It must be 150. I had it down as 158.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government will
2 stipulate this is Exhibit 158. It looks like the sticker is
3 just a little blurry in the picture.

4 THE COURT: It does look like 150, but everybody is
5 in agreement that it actually is 158; right?

6 MR. TANASI: I believe so.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right, sir. This picture you testified on direct exam
10 about; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And this, at some level, was your vantage point; fair?

13 A. My vantage point was more to the right and back somewhat,
14 but, yeah.

15 Q. Okay. These folks here at the gate, do you see them?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. Did you see those folks at the gate when you
18 were in the wash?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You never saw those individuals in the gate when you were 21 at the wash?

22 A. No, I can't say I have. Maybe I did, but --

23 Q. So you don't know for sure?

24 A. Those specific people, no.

25 Q. Okay. Are you aware of Metropolitan -- uniformed

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Metropolitan Police officers -- Las Vegas Metropolitan Police
2 officers uniformed, walking up to that gate. Are you aware of 3 that, sir? Do you recall seeing that on the 12th?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you recall seeing Special Agent in Charge Dan Love
6 walking up to that gate on the 12th?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Do you remember seeing any other individuals walking up to 9 the gate on the 12th?

10 A. There may have been some others, but I -- I don't -- I
11 can't say who.

12 Q. Okay. What was your position on the 12th in the wash?
13 Were you under any kind of concealment?

14 A. I was behind a vehicle.

15 Q. You were behind a vehicle; right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And these folks who are at the gate, they are not 18 behind a vehicle; right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. And then these folks right here, I'm circling here
21 on the outside, not behind a gate or not behind a vehicle;
22 correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. All right. All right, sir. If we could take a look at 25 13A. Brian, if you could play that.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

2 Q. Okay, sir. Are you familiar with this vantage point?

3 A. I have never been there myself, but I -- I think I can see
4 where -- where it's -- where the shot was taken from.

5 Q. Okay. And, so, this is the wash area here; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. All right. And, Brian, if you could play it just until 8 the northbound bridge comes into focus.

9 (Exhibit 13A being played.)

10 Stop it there.

11 Okay, sir. Do you see this there?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. And this is the northbound bridge?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Would this be a good visual of what your vantage
16 point was, at least in terms of distance from your position in
17 the wash?

18 A. I was further away.

19 Q. Okay. So, in looking at these individuals with the naked
20 eye right here, you would say you were even further away than 21 how this is depicted; fair?

22 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Leading. The witness has 23 testified he had binoculars.

24 MR. TANASI: I didn't ask him with binoculars, Your 25 Honor. I asked him with his naked eye.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

2 THE WITNESS: Yes. Can you repeat the question,
3 please?

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. Sure. Does this picture that we're looking at here, does
6 this reflect that you would be looking at, with your naked eye,
7 from the vantage point when you were in the wash on the 12th?

8 A. I was further away than that.

9 Q. So, it would be even further back than this here; fair?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. Brian, if could you pull up Exhibit 14, please.

12 All right, sir. So, you identified this 13 individual's -- individual as one of the individuals you saw on 14 the 12th; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And one of the things you used to identify him was 17 that you believe he was holding a shotgun; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. This is not a shotgun; correct?

20 A. I don't know.

21 Q. You don't know if that's a shotgun or not?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay. Now, you've testified that that individual that I
24 just had circled, he was -- he had his gun pointed down the 25 whole time. Do you remember that?

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And I wrote it down, and so correct me if I'm wrong. But
3 your observation of what he was doing was "not really doing
4 much." Those were your words a few moments ago; is that fair?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Nothing further.

7 THE COURT: Anyone else?

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

11 A. Afternoon.

12 Q. And Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 17 at 18:37:20, please.
13 Perfect.

14 Now, sir, on direct examination, you were asked some 15 questions about your location on the date in question. Do you
16 remember those -- that line of questioning?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And I believe you said something to the effect of you were 19 approximately 100 yards behind Post 2; is that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. You would have been in this mass of trucks that is 22 depicted on the screen right now?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And can you please show which truck you were 25 stationed at?

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 A. I can't be a hundred percent sure, but I believe the
2 majority of the time I was behind this truck here, and I moved
3 to two different vehicles several times. So, but I believe it
4 that was truck was the -- was the primary vehicle I was behind.

5 Q. Okay. And can you put maybe a one on that truck on the 6 screen? The one that you circled.

7 Okay. And you said -- you just said you went to two
8 other trucks.

9 A. One other truck.

10 Q. One other truck. Okay. And put a two to the other truck
11 that you went to.

12 And that appears to be some sort of an SUV or 13 something along those lines?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. Now, you stated that you were -- you had 16 binoculars; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And you were scanning the northbound bridge, which is not
19 depicted on this particular screenshot; is that right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. So, that would be -- if the screen continued on, it would 22 be to the right of the screen; is that accurate?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And there is maybe three-quarters of the southbound
25 bridge which is depicted to the far right of this screenshot;

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 fair to say?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So, you're scanning for threats with your 4 binoculars, and you're looking at the northbound bridge.

5 At this point -- I think at some point in time, you
6 said you saw an individual pacing up on the northbound bridge,
7 and I believe you said he had a brown shirt and a dark vest on;
8 correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And that would be -- he also had a dark baseball cap, I
11 believe, was your testimony?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. Which truck were you at when you see that?

14 A. I'm not sure.

15 Q. You are not sure?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. You did testify, however, you are started at the 18 darker truck; correct?

19 A. I don't believe I testified verbally, like, in 20 questioning. I just circled it, yes. But that was the primary
21 truck I was at. I think that's what I said.

22 Q. Okay. When you first got down to the wash, which truck
23 were you at?

24 A. I'm not a hundred percent sure, but I know that I spent 25 more time behind a darker truck.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Well, you say a darker truck. Are you sure that
2 that's the truck?

3 A. I am relatively sure. I'm not a hundred percent sure that
4 that is truck, but it was in that position, and that's the only
5 truck that's in that position, so --

6 Q. Okay. And when you moved from the first truck to the 7 second truck, why did you do that, if you remember?

8 A. I had to go back to my own truck several times during the 9 incident to pick up items, and there were other officers behind
10 the vehicles, so, you -- you just had to get in where you could 11 fit.

12 Q. Now, in reference to the two trucks, the number one and 13 the number two that we have on the screen, are either of those 14 trucks your truck?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. And is your truck depicted in this particular
17 screenshot?

18 A. I don't believe it is. No.

19 Q. Okay. Where would it be in reference to these trucks?

20 A. It's on this road here, but it's off the screen.

21 Q. Okay. And I'm going to put an arrow. Would that be 22 accurate to say that your truck is somewhere to the left of 23 this screenshot?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And you testified that you had to go back to your

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 truck a few times in order to get items?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. How many times?

4 A. I don't know.

5 Q. More than once?

6 A. More than once, yes.

7 Q. Okay. So, at some point in time, you state that you see
8 this individual with the brown shirt, the dark vest, the dark
9 baseball cap pacing back and forth; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. How far of a distance do you see them moving on the
12 bridge?

13 A. I can't say for sure.

14 Q. Well, how far did they go? Was it less than 5 feet?

15 A. More than 5 feet. I -- I can't say for sure though.

16 Q. Okay. Did they go all the way to the south --

17 A. I didn't measure.

18 Q. I'm sorry?

19 A. I didn't measure it.

20 Q. All right. Let's look at the -- actually, let's do this.
21 Let's get Exhibit 158 up.

22 Okay. Do you have that exhibit on your screen, sir?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Now, this individual that you saw pacing back and 25 forth, how far did you see them go to the left on this

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 particular exhibit? And that's 158 for the record.

2 A. I can't say.

3 Q. How far did you see them go to the right, if you can say?

4 A. I can't say.

5 Q. Now, this particular screenshot, this is closer than your 6 vantage point; is that correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And are you directly behind this; are you to the left, to 9 the right? Where are you?

10 A. I would have been behind this to the right.

11 Q. And if we can get up 157, please.

12 Now, you'd agree with me that is a similar photo,
13 probably a little bit further back?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Now, does this help you in reference to where you
16 saw this individual with the brown shirt and the dark vest
17 pacing back and forth?

18 A. It's -- I'm not sure what you are asking.

19 Q. Okay. You said you saw him pacing back and forth;
20 correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And by showing you this exhibit, it's a little bit further
23 back, is my point. Are you able to tell us how far you saw him
24 pacing back and forth?

25 A. No.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Q. Now, on direct examination, you indicated that at some
2 point, you saw -- you did not see this individual any longer
3 with the black hat; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. All right. And I believe you testified that you saw he
6 was in the vicinity of a crack; correct?

7 A. A gap between the Jersey barriers.

8 Q. Correct. And that's over the pillar that is right here
9 actually. I will just show it to you on Exhibit 157.

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. How big is that gap?

12 A. I'm not exactly sure. Enough for daylight to show
13 through.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. That's all I could see really.

16 Q. Would you agree with me it was small?

17 A. Less than 6 inches.

18 Q. Okay. Now, when you saw that, it was your belief that 19 this individual was pointing a weapon through the gap in the 20 Jersey barrier?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Is it your testimony that you were able to see the 23 rifle protruding from the crack?

24 A. That is in my report, although after thinking about it, it
25 must have the shadow that I was seeing, which would look very

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 similar to a barrel. And I was seeing the shadow reflected on
2 the side wall of the Jersey barrier, which the shadow is in my
3 report as well.

4 Q. Okay. So, what you are saying is that your report is
5 inaccurate?

6 A. In that regard, yes.

7 Q. Okay. So, when did you author your report?

8 A. The day after the incident.

9 Q. Okay. And you would agree with me that your recollection
10 of the events is usually fresher closer to the incident than 11 after the incident; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And how long have you been in law enforcement?

14 A. 26 years.

15 Q. And in your 26 years, I'm sure you've had some sort of 16 training; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Been to an academy; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Had some training after the academy; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And in all your training and experience, you are taught
23 that you need to put all the important points accurately into 24 your reports; correct?

25 A. Yes.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Q. Because at some point in time, you might have to come and
2 reply on those reports in court; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And, Brian, if you can bring up -- I will circle it for 5 you, and then I will erase it. If you can get closer on that
6 area.

7 Okay. Now, do you see the individual with the black
8 hat in this particular photo?

9 A. I'm not sure.

10 Q. Okay. And is this the crack that you were referring to 11 where it was your belief that there was a rifle, whether 12 protruding, or in it, or somewhere in that vicinity?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Are you able to see a rifle protruding out in this 15 particular screenshot?

16 A. No.

17 Q. And Brian, if we can go to 158.

18 And I believe we might have went over this already,
19 but your frame of reference is maybe behind this, maybe a
20 little bit to the right.

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And Brian, if you can get closer up on the bridge itself.

23 Okay. And this would be the crack that you are 24 referring to, sir?

25 A. Yes.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Q. Okay. And in this particular screenshot, you can't see a
2 rifle protruding out of that crack?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And are you able to see the individual with the dark brown
5 shirt and the vest in this particular screenshot?

6 A. No.

7 Q. And Brian, if we can bring up Exhibit 13B as in boy, so
8 this should be a still shot.

9 And, sir, are you able to see the individual with the 10 brown shirt and the dark vest in this particular screenshot?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And to be clear, you are -- this is a little bit of a
13 higher vantage point than where you would have been on the date
14 in question; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And you would have been further off and back to the left;
17 is that accurate?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And would this be the -- the gap in question that you have 20 been asked questions about?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And isn't it true, you cannot see a rifle barrel
23 protruding out of that crack in the particular screenshot?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And Brian, if you can go to Exhibit 151.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 Now, sir, this was obviously not your vantage point
2 on the date in question; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Would it be an accurate statement that this is the 5 northbound bridge?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And the individual prone in the middle with the 8 plaid shirt and the black vest, is that the individual that 9 you've -- we've been discussing that you've authored in your 10 report and on direct examination you referenced?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And in looking at this, do you see the crack right here in 13 the middle; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And you see the top of the barrier right there;
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And would you agree with me that the concrete gets larger
19 as it goes down towards the asphalt on the street?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you. No further questions.

22 THE COURT: Anyone else?

23 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 MS. CREEGAN: Court's indulgence.

2 THE COURT: Yes. Why don't we go ahead and take our
3 restroom break now.

4 During this time, I remind the jury, please do not
5 discuss this case with anyone, do not permit anyone to discuss
6 it with you, do not perform any research or any independent
7 investigation, do not read or listen to or view anything that 8 touches upon this case in any way, and please do not form any 9 opinion.

10 It's 3:33. Let's try to be back here by 3:45, 3:50,
11 before 4:00, so we can see if we can get something done.

12 We'll go ahead and stand for the jury, and they are 13 excused. After they are done exiting the courtroom, then,
14 Ranger Martinez, you may also take your break, restroom break,
15 stretch break, whatever you like. We just need you back here
16 by 3:45, 3:50.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 (Jury out.)

19 THE COURT: Off record.

20 (Recess, 3:34 p.m. Resumed 4:07 p.m. Jury out.)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your honor.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. MYHRE: Can we just address some really quick
25 scheduling things before the jury comes in?

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 THE COURT: I think Aaron already went to go pick
2 them up.

3 MR. MYHRE: I was just going to say, depending on how
4 far we get with the witness, with the questions, with jury
5 questions -- excuse me -- we were going to call Agent Willis,
6 but we were going to call him out of order from our normal
7 witness charts. Because we are at the end of the day, I don't
8 have a witness in the shoe. I just wanted to alert the Court
9 to today.

10 So, I don't intend to get through all his testimony.
11 I will go as far as I can with what we've got left today. But 12 I want -- I'd like to do this -- in essence, I will be 13 presenting him in two parts. Part one will be bringing in 14 exhibits, and part two will be his time line.

15 But I want to do the time line at the end toward the 16 end of the case as opposed to this point in time if that makes
17 sense.

18 THE COURT: I understand what you are saying. Let's
19 see how -- how much longer we have with this witness, because I
20 have now two other meetings, so I wouldn't mind --

21 MR. MYHRE: Well, no. Obviously --

22 THE COURT: -- having a little time to work those 23 into my schedule.

24 MR. MYHRE: It was all contingent on the Court's 25 time, obviously. I was just -- if you were intending to go to

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 5:00, I was going to use up the time.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I'd just as soon call it a day. I
3 mean, for purposes of this, so I can move on to other things
4 that need my attention.

5 MR. MYHRE: I think Mr. Marchese wanted to go to 6 6:30.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, I did drink that Monster, I'm 8 afraid.

9 (Jury in.)

10 THE COURT: All right. The jury may go ahead and be
11 seated. Everyone else may be seated as well.

12 We have Ranger Martinez back in the witness chair.
13 Thank you very much, sir, for being here on time.

14 All right. So, I think we were going to have some 15 redirect.

16 MS. CREEGAN: No, redirect, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: No, redirect. All right. So, at this 18 time then, we'll ask the members of the jury if they have any 19 questions for our witness to please go ahead and take this 20 opportunity to write them down, neatly, carefully. Take your 21 time. Try to avoid using pronouns. Let us know who you are 22 referring to, and don't give us your name or your initials.
23 You don't need to sign it, and we don't need your jury number.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 (Sidebar.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 85, two
3 questions. The first one is, "How were you, Ranger Martinez,
4 communicating with the different branches of law enforcement on
5 the scene?" Any objection?

6 MS. CREEGAN: No.

7 MR. TANASI: No objection.

8 THE COURT: And the second question is "Who was your 9 supervisor?"

10 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

11 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

12 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

13 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 86, "What was the term the 14 witness is nonresponsive?"

15 MR. MYHRE: Is that from the -- sorry.

16 MS. CREEGAN: I think they probably -- we can 17 probably just alert them there's an instruction that they are 18 not to consider the objections of counsel. They are not
19 evidence.

20 THE COURT: The next question is: "We have hear the 21 witness is hostile. What does that mean?"

22 MS. CREEGAN: I referred to the fact that
23 nonresponsive is an objection that's only proper for a hostile
24 witness in my response to a nonresponsive objection, so I
25 assume that that's the basis for the question.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 THE COURT: All right. So, the next question is
2 still on Jury Note No. 86. "The bottom at the Jersey barrier
3 is about 12 to 14 inches thick. If one assumes the length of 4 the barrel for a long gun to be about 24 inches from the 5 receiver to the tip, that would mean only 6 inches or less of 6 the barrel would be exposed. How could you clearly have seen
7 this?"

8 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

9 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Well, I think first you might have to 11 ask if he saw it, what he saw and how he saw it. Because I'm 12 not sure that that matches his testimony. And they also 13 haven't received evidence about --

14 THE COURT: "If one assumes the length of the barrel
15 of a long gun to be about 24 inches," so you are assuming facts
16 not in evidence, so that is not a proper question anyway. But 17 how can that be fixed.

18 We did have testimony that the Jersey barrier bottom
19 is about 12 to 14 inches thick, did we? No, it wasn't the 20 thickness. It was the height or the --

21 MS. CREEGAN: They said it was not more than 6 inches
22 apart.

23 MS. AHMED: He said the gap is not more than 6 inches
24 apart and the top was smaller than the bottom.

25 THE COURT: So, have we had testimony that the bottom

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 of the Jersey barrier is about 12 to 14 inches thick?

2 MS. CREEGAN: No.

3 THE COURT: So, neither of those assumptions are in
4 evidence. I'll just say the question assumes a particular
5 thickness of the barrier and a particular length of the gun.
6 Since there's no testimony about that, it would be improper to 7 assume those facts since they are not in evidence.

8 However, the question truly is, whether or not you
9 use this mathematical equation or another one, this person
10 wants to know how could you clearly have seen the barrel being 11 exposed if there wasn't the entire gun that's being exposed or 12 something to that effect.

13 I will think of something that would be -- thinking
14 of an opportunity to try to respond to this, if -- that would 15 mean 6 inches or less of the barrel would be exposed.

16 The math doesn't even work. He's saying the long gun
17 is 24 inches, and that the thickness of the barrier is 12 to 18 14, and then he or she says that equals 16 inches or less of 19 barrel. Well, that's not. It would be --

20 MS. CREEGAN: 18.

21 THE COURT: Yeah, 12.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Protruding.

23 THE COURT: Yeah, it would be 10 to 12 would actually
24 be exposed, not six. Even the math doesn't work even if this 25 was the number. So, I will try to be respectful and think of a

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 way to explain that.

2 All right. Jury Note No. 87 is: "Did Ranger
3 Martinez ever aim a gun back to any of the threats he saw or 4 only watched through binoculars?" Any objection?

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 MS. CREEGAN: No.

7 THE COURT: 88 is three parts. First one is: "Would 8 you describe this as a violent protest or nonviolent?"

9 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

10 MR. TANASI: No objection.

11 THE COURT: Second part is: "Is this the most
12 fearful situation you experienced in your law enforcement
13 career? Why or why not?"

14 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

15 THE COURT: Any objection?

16 MR. TANASI: I would say that since he didn't raise 17 fear or discuss fear on direct, at least that's my 18 recollection, then it wouldn't be relevant.

19 MS. CREEGAN: I did ask him if he was concerned for 20 safety, so that might be interpreted by this person as being 21 the same spectrum as fear.

22 THE COURT: So, is there an objection? I'm not sure.

23 MR. TANASI: Yeah, I was objecting in terms of it
24 being, I guess, relevant or outside the scope of what he was 25 asked. Because I don't -- I don't think he was asked about

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 fear and gave no opinions on fear, so --

2 THE COURT: Okay. So, is it --

3 MS. CREEGAN: Could it be rephrased a concern for 4 safety to use the same terms that I have used? Is this the 5 most concern for your safety that you have been in your law
6 enforcement career?

7 MR. TANASI: I still think that goes further than 8 what he's testified to already.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. I'll just -- why don't I say the 10 question asks whether this is -- how can I say it without --
11 it's outside the scope. It's beyond -- but we asked other
12 people, so they are not going to know. They are going to say
13 why did you ask other people and not this person?

14 How can I rephrase it to not ask the question and to 15 explain why I'm not asking the question when we asked other
16 people that same question.

17 MS. CREEGAN: I think rephrase it concerning for 18 safety. I think it's within the scope, because I did ask him
19 about concern for safety.

20 THE COURT: All right. Then I'll change it to is 21 this the most concern for your safety that you have experienced
22 in your law enforcement career.

23 The last question on Jury Note 88 is: "Did you think 24 that the individual in the blue shirt was a high threat in 25 comparison to other armed individuals present that day?"

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

3 THE COURT: That's it.

4 (End of sidebar.)

5 THE COURT: All right. So, Ranger Martinez, I have a
6 couple of questions for you here. I'm going to be reading them
7 into the record, but these are jury questions. So, when you
8 respond, please feel free to turn and face the jury, because 9 these are not my questions.

10 So, Jury Note No. 85 asks: "How were you, Ranger
11 Martinez, communicating with the different branches of law
12 enforcement on the scene?"

13 THE WITNESS: Earlier on, before we moved down to 14 Post 2, we didn't communicate very much with Metro. Metro
15 showed up and basically started issuing orders, and then they 16 talked to some of our leadership, and they came to a decision.
17 And we were supposed to go down to Post 2.

18 So, prior to that day, there was -- there was almost
19 zero communication with -- with Las Vegas Metro, and no
20 communication with NHP either.

21 THE COURT: So, you say almost no communication with 22 Metro and NHP, but the communication you did have, what were 23 the means? How -- was it mouth-to-mouth, radio, hand signals?
24 What method?

25 THE WITNESS: Well, the only communication that I had

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 personally was when one of the Metro officers looked at me and
2 told me to put away --

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I just going --

4 THE WITNESS: -- my long gun.

5 MS. CREEGAN: -- to object. That's a hearsay answer.

6 THE COURT: That's not what I'm asking. The method.
7 Did you have radio communications? Not what someone said,
8 because that would be hearsay, just the method.

9 THE WITNESS: Just verbal.

10 THE COURT: So hand signals, eye contact, verbal,
11 radio, megaphone. I am trying to think of all the different
12 ways.

13 THE WITNESS: Verbal.

14 THE COURT: Just go ahead and in the microphone.

15 THE WITNESS: It was just verbal.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 THE WITNESS: That one -- that one interaction.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. And the next
19 question was: "Who was your supervisor?"

20 THE WITNESS: On that detail, it was Logan Briscoe.

21 THE COURT: And Jury Note 86 asks, and this is really
22 for me: "What does the term nonresponsive mean and hostile
23 witness mean?"

24 So, those are legal terms that are used in legal 25 rules of evidence of what questions the attorneys may or may

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 not ask and when something is or is not appropriate. So,
2 that's what I'm here for. You don't have to worry about that.

3 I'll make those rulings, and you don't have to worry
4 about it. I did instruct you, at the beginning -- I know it's 5 been a while -- but I did instruct you, at the beginning, when
6 you were sworn in, that there are two duties that we share.

7 The duty that I have is to make the decisions based
8 on the law, with my legal education and experience, and then
9 your duties are the ones -- is to determine the facts; who to 10 believe; how much of it to believe. You can believe all of it,
11 none of it, some of it. It's up to you to determine what the 12 facts are. In light of many facts that you hear, it's for you
13 to determine what happened and then later to apply those facts
14 to the law as I give them to you.

15 So, don't worry about what the objections are. The 16 other instruction I gave you was not to guess what the answer
17 would have been. Also, the questions are that asked by the 18 attorneys are not evidence, so don't consider those either.

19 You are only to consider the statements, you know,
20 provided by the witnesses or statements that the parties agree
21 to. From time to time, there will be something written that 22 everybody agrees you can accept as a fact, and we don't have to 23 bother bringing somebody in.

24 As far as these particular objections, I've made the 25 rulings, so you don't have to worry about them anymore.

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 The next question is: "The bottom at the Jersey
2 barrier is" -- and then it assumes a particular measurement.
3 And then it says: "And if one assumes the length of the barrel
4 of a gun is" -- and then it assumes a particular measurement.
5 And then it calculates how much of the barrel would have been
6 exposed through the crack in the Jersey barrier.

7 The math actually doesn't work, so I'm not really
8 sure if they really meant for those numbers to be used or not.

9 But, in general, the question is: How could you
10 clearly have seen the amount of the barrel that would have been 11 sticking through, taking into consideration the thickness of 12 the barrier, the Jersey barrier, the cement barrier, and the 13 length of the barrel and the gun, however much would have been 14 pointing out. So, how could you clearly have seen this?
15 That's the question.

16 Also, that those measurements are not facts in 17 evidence, which is another reason why I can't ask it the way
18 it's written. So the -- the question at the end is a good
19 question.

20 If there's a barrier. It's cement. The gun can only
21 be so long. There's only so much of it that could actually 22 point -- you know, stick out. So how -- how could you have 23 seen this?

24 THE WITNESS: Well, there are other variables, too.
25 We don't know exactly where on the height of the barrier the

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 gun was positioned. And I'm writing -- I was writing that day
2 on what I perceived. What visual information I had. I wasn't,
3 you know, analyzing the thickness of the Jersey barrier or not.

4 And our reactions as law enforcement are based off of 5 our perceptions. They are not based off of necessarily what is 6 the final truth. If somebody points a squirt gun at you,
7 and -- but it looks like a real gun, you have to react off of 8 what you know, which is it looks like a real gun.

9 So, that's -- that's what I did. And it looked as if
10 the barrel was extending from -- from the Jersey barrier,
11 and -- but, you know, it's possible that it could have been a
12 shadow. That's -- that's how I would answer that.

13 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 87 asks: "Did
14 Ranger Martinez ever aim a gun back to any of the threats that 15 he saw or did he only watch through binoculars?"

16 THE WITNESS: I did not aim a gun.

17 THE COURT: And then Jury Question No. 88 is a
18 three-part question. The first one is: "Would you describe
19 this as a violent protest or nonviolent?"

20 THE WITNESS: Well, I guess you could -- depends how 21 you define violence, I suppose.

22 THE COURT: Well, they are asking how would you
23 describe this.

24 THE WITNESS: I would say nonviolent in the end, but 25 with the possibility -- at the time, there was possibility of

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 extreme violence, which is what we were basing our decision
2 making on.

3 THE COURT: The second part of Jury Note 88 asks:
4 "Is this" -- and the question actually again assumes
5 information that hasn't been provided yet, so we've agreed that
6 it can be restated in a way so that it's proper, so that we can
7 still ask the question, which is: "Is this the most concern
8 for your safety that you have experienced in your law
9 enforcement career? Why or why not?"

10 THE WITNESS: I would say yes, that it was a 11 completely different situation than any other situation I've 12 been in before or since.

13 I mean, it would have -- if something -- if somebody
14 would have accidentally fired, if there would have been a
15 backfire on a vehicle, then it could have been a tragedy. And,
16 you know, it was -- it was a tense situation, and I was very 17 concerned.

18 I wasn't afraid at the time, but I was concerned just 19 because I could see that it was a serious situation that could 20 turn very ugly very quickly.

21 THE COURT: All right. And the third question on 22 Jury Note 88 says: "Did you think that the individual in the 23 blue shirt was a high threat in comparison to other armed 24 individuals present that day?"

25 THE WITNESS: In comparison, I would say he was

Maurice Martinez - Cross

1 equal, but I only -- I only saw three, so I was only talking
2 about three in my report. And, you know, out of the three, the
3 most threat was the individual that was laying prone.

4 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up from the
5 government?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

7 THE COURT: Any follow-up by the defense?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

9 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much, Ranger
13 Martinez, for coming in this afternoon. You are excused.

14 Please be very careful on the way down with those 15 steps. I think one of those or both of those water bottles are 16 yours. Go ahead and take those with you.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: And it is 4:33, so it's the jury's
19 Friday. Not our Friday, but it is a Friday for the jury in the 20 sense that it is our last day today. You wouldn't be back here
21 for trial tomorrow.

22 You are excused. You can go ahead and go.

23 So, that means I need to remind you what the plan is 24 for Monday, which will be the 31st. We will start again at 25 9:00 a.m. and plan to be here until 5:00 p.m.

1 I do want to let you know that there has been a
2 change in the August schedule. So, if you want to write this
3 down, Wednesday, August 9th -- so not next week, but the week
4 after -- instead of starting at 9:00 a.m., we're going to be
5 starting at 10:00 a.m. That's Wednesday, August 9th, we'll 6 start at 10:00 instead of 9:00. Otherwise, we are still 7 starting at 9:00.

8 All right. So, I'm told that I do have a hearing at 9 8:00 a.m. on August 1st, which is a Tuesday, that we now
10 believe is going to take more than an hour and might even take 11 more than an hour and a half. Sometimes people call more
12 witnesses than others.

13 And so it just would be safer if we had you come in 14 at 10:00 on Tuesday, August 1st, instead of at 9:00. So, we'll 15 make those two changes to the August calendar.

16 August 1st, Tuesday, we'll start at 10:00 a.m., and 17 then August 9th, Wednesday, start at 10:00 a.m. But Monday
18 we'll be starting at 9:00. And I will remind you every day
19 what the schedule is, and I think -- are you going to update
20 the schedule then --

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: -- so they have a printed updated
23 schedule?

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: All right. So, Aaron will update that

1 for you.

2 Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for your patience
3 this week and for your attention and your questions. We are 4 going to excuse you and then welcome you back on Monday at
5 9:00 a.m.

6 Go ahead and stand for the jury, please.

7 (Jury out.)

8 THE COURT: All right. Anything else that we need to 9 address before Monday morning? Are we set to go for Monday
10 morning?

11 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

12 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right. Have a great weekend. We 15 will see you Monday morning at 9:00 a.m.

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Off record.

7

THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

8

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time for jury
10 trial, day 12, Case No. 2:16-cv-046-GMN-PAL, United States of 11 America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Rick Lovelein, and 12 Steven Stewart.

12

13 THE COURT: All right. Before we bring in the jury and 14 have counsel place their appearances on the record, I just want
15 to say a few words to remind everyone about proper conduct in a
16 courtroom and what is expected during the hearing. It is a
17 courtroom; not a sporting event. So it is important for 18 everyone to realize that you are not permitted to make any 19 expression of your opinion, whether it be verbally or through 20 body language or anything else that is distracting, no matter
21 how much you approve or disapprove with what is being said and 22 you are hearing.

22

23 In addition, please also double-check and remember you
24 are not permitted to have any electronic devices with you, so no
25 phones, laptops, pads, any of those things. Even if they're in the private mode or vibrate mode or turned off, they're still

1 not permitted in the courtroom. There is no audio recording or
2 video recording that is permitted in the courtroom. The
3 attorneys do have electronic devices so that they may review
4 discovery and their preparatory information and also to provide
5 that information into the court system so that we can display it
6 for the jury. Likewise, the marshals and court security
7 officers have communication devices that are electronic so that
8 they may provide security.

9 We do have the podium towards the witness. Did we
10 finish up with the witness last time? We did. Then we stopped
11 a little early, and so we could begin fresh with a new one. I
12 think that's helpful for the jury as well to keep track.

13 Any other issues that you want me to address before we 14 bring them in?

15 The defendants, as I've told them every day for quite 16 some time now, we do have the same rules that apply to the 17 defendants. And so if the defendants do exhibit any kind of 18 inappropriate conduct, distracting conduct, trying to 19 communicate with family or the jury or each other during the 20 sidebars or make any expressions of opinions, they will be 21 removed. We do have the holding cell next door with the speaker
22 system so they can continue to hear the proceedings, but they 23 will not be physically present in the proceedings if they cannot 24 behave accordingly.

25 So should we bring them in?

1 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. I just wanted to raise
2 one housekeeping matter very quickly.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. MYHRE: The Government intends to lead this morning
5 with Agent Shilaikis, and following him we will present Special
6 Agent Joel Willis from the FBI. And as I alluded to last week,
7 we intend to present Agent Willis's testimony in two parts, just 8 bringing in documentary evidence in the first part and then
9 later in the trial he will be presenting his summary timeline
10 and so forth. So I just wanted to alert the Court that that was 11 our intention. I don't know if the Defense wants to reserve
12 cross or cross after his first part, but I just wanted to let 13 the Court know that's what our intention was.

14 THE COURT: All right. So I think the question is,
15 does the Defense want to cross twice? So cross the first time
16 as to the portion of the direct the first time and cross the 17 second time as to the portion provided in the second direct, or 18 do you want to reserve and just cross the one time?

19 MR. TANASI: I think we'll reserve, Your Honor.

20 MR. MARCHESE: I concur, Parker.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'd reserve my reservation. Can I do
22 that? I don't know how it's going to come out. So if I see the 23 need to cross him on his first testimony, then I'll inform the 24 Court. If not, then I'll reserve, but ...

25 THE COURT: All right. So I'll just ask any cross now

1 and then you can reserve.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: If that's what you want, or if not, you can
4 just come up and cross. Mr. Perez?

5 MR. PEREZ: I concur with Mr. Leventhal.

6 THE COURT: All right. Let's go and ahead bring in the 7 jury, Aaron.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And then I'll ask the counsel to make their 10 appearances on the record so the jury can remember who everyone
11 is.

12 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 9:22 a.m.)

13 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. Everyone
14 else may be seated as well.

15 And we welcome back the jury after a weekend break.
16 Will counsel please make their appearances on the record.

17 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
18 ladies and gentlemen. Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on 19 behalf of the United States.

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.
22 Good morning, folks. Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also with 23 us at counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
25 ladies and gentlemen. Jess Marchese appearing on behalf of Eric

1 Parker.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd Leventhal
4 on behalf of Scott Drexler.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
7 everyone. Shawn Perez on behalf of Rick Lovelein.

8 THE COURT: Good morning.

9 All right. We're going to begin now with a new witness
10 this morning. Government may call its next witness.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
12 calls Special Agent Robert Shilaikis.

13 THE COURT: Good morning, Agent Shilaikis. Come on up.
14 You're going to stay over here. Please stay standing when you
15 get to that chair.

16 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please raise your right hand.

18 ROBERT HOWARD SHILAIKIS, having duly been sworn, was
19 examined and testified as follows:

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
21 seated. Please state your full name and spell your last name.

22 THE WITNESS: My name is Robert Howard Shilaikis,
23 S-H-I-L-A-I-K-I-S.

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION

25 BY MS. CREEGAN:

1 Q. Good morning, Agent Shilaikis.

2 A. Good morning.

3 Q. Agent Shilaikis, what is your current job or position?

4 A. My current job is I'm a special agent with the Bureau of 5 Land Management Office of Law Enforcement and Security.

6 Q. How long have you held that position?

7 A. I've had it since 20 -- 2011.

8 Q. How long have you been a law enforcement officer?

9 A. This year makes about 29 years. I started my law
10 enforcement career in 1988.

11 Q. And just very briefly can you explain to the jury your law
12 enforcement experience?

13 A. Yes. I was with the Air Force Office of Special
14 Investigation was my first academy, and it was the Bolling Air
15 Force Base back in 1988. I was a special agent active duty
16 along with -- as a civilian agent with OSI until 2007. And I
17 held various jobs, done various types of investigations from 18 person-on-person crimes to property crimes to the 19 counter-intelligence/antiterrorism, those types of operations.

20 Q. When you were with the Air Force, did you have occasion to 21 deploy abroad?

22 A. Yes. So I was deployed in four different war zones starting
23 with Desert Storm; from there to Bosnia, Afghanistan, and Iraq.

24 Q. And just generally, I know you've had an extensive career,
25 but do you receive training as a law enforcement officer?

1 A. Yes. Throughout my career I receive training, and currently 2 we do quarterly training and inservice training annually within
3 BLM.

4 Q. Are you a sworn federal law enforcement officer?

5 A. Yes, I am.

6 Q. Are you familiar with an impoundment operation that was
7 occurring in Bunkerville, Nevada, in April of 2014?

8 A. Yes, ma'am.

9 Q. Were you assigned to that operation?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. What was your assignment?

12 A. I was part of the investigative team. There was 13 approximately 10 of us that were assigned to that.

14 Q. Were you present at the Incident Command Post on April 12, 15 2014?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. Were you working in your official capacity at that time?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what were your duties at that time?

20 A. On the 12th it changed that we were to secure the -- what we 21 call the ICP, the Incident Command Post. And that was a
22 location where the command was set up, with our dispatch, with 23 our personnel, both law enforcement and civilian, to take care
24 of the over -- the umbrella of gathering all of the cattle that 25 we were there under two federal injunctions.

1 Q. And what was the status of the operation on April 12, 2014,
2 in the morning?

3 A. On the 12th the operation had ceased to gather cattle. So
4 we were basically there to protect the Government property, the 5 personnel that there were there, and the cows that were in our
6 custody and control.

7 Q. And when you started your morning on April 12, 2014, where 8 were you located?

9 A. I was there at the ICP and then was told that we needed to 10 move up to Post 1, which was the access road into where ICP was 11 off the interstate of I15.

12 Q. Did you have an understanding of why you were needed at Post
13 1?

14 A. Yes, from what I was told through Special Agent Mike
15 Johnson --

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. Just generally, did you have an understanding of what your 20 duties would be at Post 1?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection. It would be
23 foundational, Judge.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Just asking for his understanding of what
25 his duties were at Post 1.

1 THE COURT: Overruled. He can testify as to what his
2 understanding was of his duty and purpose.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Then I would ask for a foundation as to 4 where he got that understanding from, which would be hearsay.

5 THE COURT: It wouldn't be hearsay because it wouldn't 6 be an out-of-court statement. It's his understanding. It's 7 not -- we can get the foundation as to who told him. I think he 8 already said it was Officer Johnson.

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. Did you receive an assignment from your supervisor?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What was your understanding of that assignment?

13 A. My understanding was to secure Post 1. We anticipated --
14 Cliven Bundy had called for the protestors and militia to come
15 and take back the cattle. And we were to secure that location
16 to keep that from happening.

17 Q. And while you were at Post 1, were there any investigative 18 steps that you took while you there?

19 A. Yes. Based on what was developing in front of me, I took 20 upon it myself to go ahead and start videoing that day, the 21 events that occurred that day.

22 Q. Have you previously had an opportunity to review
23 Government's Exhibits 26 and 27?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 Q. And are those videos that you took on April 12, 2014?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And were they taken at Post 1?

3 A. They're a combination between Post 1 and then when I --
4 myself and Forest Service Law Enforcement Officer Jarvis moved
5 between Post 1 and what we called Post 2, which was the wash
6 area. We moved to an advantage point so that we could cover
7 that because the main protest and militia were headed down into
8 the wash.

9 Q. Before I ask you about videos taken at your second location,
10 were there some videos that you took at Post 1?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Would that include Exhibits 26 and 27?

13 A. Yes, ma'am.

14 Q. Do those fairly and accurately represent what you yourself
15 saw on April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
18 Exhibits 26 and 27.

19 THE COURT: Any objection?

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

23 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Exhibits 26 and 27 will be
25 admitted. You may go ahead and publish.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

2 (Government's Exhibits 26 and 27 are admitted.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. May we bring up 26, please.

4 (Video playing.)

5 MS. CREEGAN: Can you stop that, please. So stopping
6 at 21 seconds in Exhibit 26.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. And circling an individual in the center of the screen by an
9 American flag. Did you observe this individual, Agent
10 Shilaikis?

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. What did you observe about this individual?

13 A. That he appeared to be militia based on his dress and attire
14 with its -- what appeared to be a tactical vest or bullet-proof
15 vest and what I thought to be a long arm and just in camouflage
16 attire.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Can we keep playing, please.

18 (Video playing.)

19 MS. CREEGAN: Can we back up till about 10 seconds and 20 play again, please.

21 (Video playing.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: And stop there, please. And just back
23 up, I'm sorry, just a couple seconds. Sorry. Can you play that 24 again, please.

25 (Video playing.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: Stop there. Thank you.

2 BY MS. CREEGAN:

3 Q. And circling an individual on the right side of the screen
4 in front of a white truck, did you observe this individual at 15
5 seconds on Exhibit 26?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. What did you observe about this individual?

8 A. Just the same, just kind of dressed with camouflage.

9 MS. CREEGAN: And can you play for just about a second 10 or two.

11 (Video playing.)

12 MS. CREEGAN: And just, sorry, one more second.

13 (Video playing.)

14 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry. Can you go back to 17, please. I
15 apologize.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. So just circling an individual that appears on the right
18 side of the screen before a white sedan, did you observe this 19 individual on the day?

20 A. Yes, ma'am.

21 Q. What did you observe about this individual?

22 A. The same thing, being tacked out, looked like he had a
23 bullet-proof vest, and he definitely had a long arm rifle.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that exhibit
25 down. Can you bring up Exhibit 27, please. And play from 1

1 minute and 38 seconds on.

2 Sorry, 1 minute and 38 seconds.

3 (Video playing.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping a few seconds back, about
5 1:39 -- 1:38, actually. Can you play.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MS. CREEGAN: Stopping. Thank you.

8 BY MS. CREEGAN:

9 Q. At 1:39, did you observe this individual who appears in the 10 center right of the screen right before a white pickup truck?

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. What did you observe about this individual?

13 A. The same thing, that configuration of camouflage and just 14 what we call kidded up or tacked out, appeared to be militia.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. And, Agent Shilaikis, you've already mentioned it, but did
18 there come a time when you changed positions?

19 A. Yes, ma'am. Based on what we were seeing developing, the 20 amount of people were coming into Post 1, the access road, that 21 they were continuing down on the backside of I15 down into the 22 wash area. So that's where -- from what I -- appeared to me as 23 protestors and appeared to be militia were diving down in the 24 bottom, people on horseback. So we moved to a different area so
25 that I could capture that and video it to memorialize it.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Can I bring up Exhibit 17, Clip 1, at 2 19:13:03.

3 (Video playing.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can stop there. This is 5 19:13:06.

6 BY MS. CREEGAN:

7 Q. Special Agent Shilaikis, do you recognize what is depicted
8 in Exhibit 17 at 19:13:06?

9 A. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. What's this general area that's depicted here?

11 A. If you look down towards the bottom left-hand corner, that's 12 going towards the ICP. That's the north and southbound lanes of 13 I15, but in this section of interstate that actually runs east
14 and west. So the ICP was actually to the north of the 15 interstate.

16 Q. Can you put an N on the northbound lane and an S on the 17 southbound lane.

18 A. Yes. Let me think about this for a second, yeah. Does it
19 work?

20 Q. Are you able to draw on the screen with your finger?

21 A. No, ma'am.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Are you able to?

23 THE WITNESS: I could tell you.

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Are you able to describe it to me? And I'll mark it for

1 you. Can you describe to me which one of these bridges is the
2 northbound bridge?

3 A. Yes, ma'am. My understanding, the one that's up towards the 4 top of the screen is going to be your northbound. The one
5 towards the bottom of your screen is going to be your southbound
6 lanes.

7 Q. Is that accurate as I've marked it here?

8 A. Yes, ma'am.

9 Q. And, again, which direction is the ICP?

10 A. It's going to be back towards the bottom left of that
11 photograph.

12 Q. So I'm drawing an arrow. Is this accurate to your
13 description?

14 A. That direction. That's the wash. So it will be to -- as 15 I'm looking at it, to the right of that wash. It's up out of 16 the wash, but just out of the sight of that photograph.

17 Q. And do you see the area that you were located depicted here?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. And can you just generally describe it so that I can mark it
20 for the jury?

21 A. Yes. So you see the two vehicles that are by themselves
22 towards the wash, the two closest to the wash. That area right
23 there.

24 Q. So this is in the bottom left-hand corner of the screen?

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

1 Q. And did you take video from this location as well?

2 A. I did.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Have you previously reviewed Government's Exhibits 28, 29A
6 and B, and 30?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. Are those videos that you took at that location between Post
9 1 and Post 2?

10 A. Yes, ma'am.

11 Q. Do they fairly and accurately represent what you yourself
12 saw on April 12th, 2014?

13 A. They do.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
15 Exhibits 28, 29A and B, and 30.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 28, 29A and B, and
17 Exhibit 30?

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker, Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

21 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

22 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 28, Exhibit 29A and B,
23 and Exhibit 30 are admitted. You may go ahead and publish.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Government's Exhibits 28, 29A and B, and 30 are

1 admitted.)

2 MS. CREEGAN: Can you bring up Exhibit 28, please.

3 (Video playing.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: Can you stop that there, please. Can you
5 advance --

6 BY MS. CREEGAN:

7 Q. Agent Shilaikis, about how long is this video?

8 A. I don't recall. There's 15 segments I videoed. So each one
9 are a little bit different.

10 Q. So I'm going to take your attention to some specific areas.
11 Okay?

12 MS. CREEGAN: So can we advance this to 1 minute and 50
13 seconds.

14 (Video playing.)

15 MS. CREEGAN: And stop there, please.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. And drawing your attention to an individual who's behind a
18 white SUV on the left side of the screen at 1 minute and 53
19 seconds. Did you observe this individual on the day?

20 A. Yes, ma'am.

21 Q. What did you observe about that individual?

22 A. The same thing as the others is that he was tacked out, you
23 know, in a bullet-proof or tactical vest, camouflage, definitely
24 had a long -- long gun or a rifle.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Can you advance to 3 minutes and 50
2 seconds.

3 (Video playing.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: And stop there, please.

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And at 3 minutes and 54 seconds, drawing your attention to
7 an area on the center right-hand side of the screen. Did you
8 observe this on the day?

9 A. I did.

10 Q. What did you observe in the area that I've indicated?

11 A. The same thing. That these guys were tacked out in that 12 same kind of configuration as militia, but they were squatted
13 down behind that barrier as if taking cover and concealment from 14 me.

15 Q. So as a law enforcement officer, does this movement have 16 some significance to you?

17 A. Yes, it does.

18 Q. What significance is that?

19 A. If you look right next to him, this couple in civilian
20 clothes, they're just standing up looking where they're taking
21 cover and concealment. To me, that's a tactical movement,
22 whether it's in my military career or in law enforcement.

23 Q. Did that give you concern for your safety?

24 A. Absolutely.

25 Q. Why is that?

1 A. Because I didn't know what their intentions were at the time
2 other than that they were giving these types of movements that
3 caused me some great concern.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

5 (Video playing.)

6 MS. CREEGAN: Stop there, please.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. And stopped at 4:16. Drawing your attention back to the 9 same individuals in front of a white SUV. Did you observe a
10 change in their movements?

11 A. No, the same two individuals were, you know, tucked down
12 behind that concrete barrier. The other individual has 13 definitely got a long arm. He's got it slung in front of him.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

15 (Video playing.)

16 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping there at 4:30.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. And drawing your attention to an individual in the top left
19 corner of the screen. Did you observe this individual on the 20 day?

21 A. Yes, ma'am.

22 Q. What did you observe about this individual?

23 A. The same thing. That he was in that type of configuration
24 with camouflage-type uniform, and that he was -- to me, he
25 didn't appear like a regular protestor. He was in the back

1 using his concealment as that edge of that barrier coming off
2 the interstate.

3 Q. Did that give you any concern for your safety or for the
4 safety of other officers?

5 MR. TANASI: Objection, leading.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes. Absolutely. My training --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

8 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry. I'll ask again.

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Did that give you any concern for your safety or for the 12 safety of other officers?

13 A. Yes. Absolutely. Again, based on my training and 14 experience, both military and law enforcement, that he was, lack 15 of a better term, lurking in the shadows, moving. He didn't 16 appear to be like a regular protestor.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Can we advance to 8 minutes, please.

18 (Video playing.)

19 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping there, please.

20 BY MS. CREEGAN:

21 Q. Stopping at 8:07. Bringing your attention to an individual
22 in the center of the screen before the red cab of a truck. Did
23 you observe this individual on April 12th?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 Q. What did you observe him to be doing?

1 A. The same thing, kidded up. You know, he appeared to be a
2 militia type. He had his weapon in what we call the low ready.

3 Q. What's low ready?

4 A. Basically, you know, with law enforcement and also my
5 military experience we're trained to keep our weapon at that low
6 ready, and then we could bring it up at a moment's notice, a
7 nanosecond, to engage targets.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

9 (Video playing.)

10 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping there at 8:19.

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. Drawing your attention to some individuals on the right side
13 of the screen. Did you observe those individuals?

14 A. I did.

15 Q. What did you observe about them?

16 A. The same is that they were using that concrete Jersey
17 barriers as cover and concealment.

18 Q. Can you tell what this individual on the right-hand side
19 has, if anything?

20 A. I'm not sure in this particular frame, but I'd seen him in 21 the past.

22 Q. What had you seen him with in the past?

23 A. In the video when I was reviewing it that he definitely had 24 a long arm.

25 MS. CREEGAN: And can you advance to 11 minutes and 20

1 seconds, please.

2 (Video playing.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at -- can you go back to
4 about 11:25.

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And circling an individual who appears to be right before a
7 camper at 11:25. What did you observe this individual to do?

8 A. Could you repeat the question?

9 Q. What did you observe this individual to do?

10 A. It looked like he appeared to -- he pops up from that 11 position with his long arm. I think it's later in this video
12 right here.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

14 (Video playing.)

15 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 11:34.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. Over the course of the video since I last asked you, what 18 did you observe the individual to do?

19 A. When he stood up, it appeared that he brought that weapon
20 around in front of him.

21 MS. CREEGAN: And can you advance to 12 minutes and 50
22 seconds, please.

23 (Video playing.)

24 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 13:02.

25 BY MS. CREEGAN:

1 Q. Taking your individual -- your attention to two individuals
2 in the bottom right side of the screen. Did you observe these
3 two individuals on the day?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. What did you observe about them?

6 A. Again, these two appeared that they definitely knew each
7 other, talking to each other. The one in the peach-colored
8 pants had a long arm. You know, it's over his right shoulder.
9 The other one is, you know, same configuration with camouflaged
10 clothing with tack gear and a long arm and a booney hat.

11 Q. What could you observe about the position that they were in?

12 A. It's the same thing that they were not to me from what I was 13 seeing part of the regular protestors. He was -- they were back
14 in the back using, you know, that area as cover and concealment,
15 walking back and forth. So to me it was cause for concern. I
16 didn't know what their intentions were.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play for a little bit, please.

18 (Video playing.)

19 MS. CREEGAN: And can you advance to 16 minutes,
20 please.

21 (Video playing.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: And stop it there, please.

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Bringing your attention to an individual who is right behind
25 the two people that you were just discussing at 16:08. Did you

1 observe that individual?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. What did you observe them to do?

4 A. Again, it appeared to be part of the, you know, what I
5 believed to be a militia, but he was running down the side of 6 the hill to join these areas.

7 Q. What did you think was significant about his position, if
8 anything?

9 A. Again, he was back behind cover and concealment. He was out
10 of my view from where my -- my vantage point was. He was just 11 staying out in the shadows.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Can you continue to play, please.

13 (Video playing.)

14 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping it right there at 16:21.

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. There is an individual who has just moved to the right of 17 those individuals. Did you observe where that individual came 18 from?

19 A. Yeah, it was back from -- based on what I'm looking at on 20 the screen, from left to right, so moving south.

21 Q. Did it give you concern to see that individual?

22 A. Anybody in that configuration caused me concern that day,
23 ma'am.

24 Q. Why was that?

25 A. I honestly thought they were coming to -- to start a fire

1 fight with the Federal Government.

2 Q. What was the reason that you thought that from your
3 observations?

4 A. Based on their tactics. You know, my training and
5 experience told me that. The way they were moving, the way they 6 were communicating, the way they were using cover and 7 concealment, the configuration and gear that they had, all of 8 that came into play.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Can we bring up Exhibit 30, please.

10 (Video playing.)

11 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 8 seconds.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. So, Agent Shilaikis, have you just given a time?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And what's that time in local Nevada time?

16 A. It was local.

17 Q. Is that military --

18 A. To Nevada.

19 Q. I apologize. Is that military time that you've just given?

20 A. Yes, ma'am.

21 Q. Could you give it in civilian time?

22 A. You have to repeat it again. I will.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Can we go back to the beginning and play.

24 (Video playing.)

25 THE WITNESS: So the time would be 1:13.

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. Would that be a.m. or p.m.?

3 A. P.m.

4 Q. Do you know what was happening in the wash at that time?

5 A. Excuse me?

6 Q. What was happening in the wash at that time?

7 A. Again, I think everyone -- at this time I believe everybody
8 was backing off. We were told to stand down.

9 Q. When you say "everybody," are you referring to the BLM or
10 someone else?

11 A. Referring to the BLM and those parts of the ICP that we were 12 standing down and we were going to be demobilizing and leaving
13 the area.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

15 (Video playing.)

16 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 15 seconds.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. And circling an individual who appears to be before a dark
19 pickup truck on the right center of the screen. Did you observe
20 that individual?

21 A. I did.

22 Q. What did you observe about that individual?

23 A. The same deal. It was how he was configured with tactical
24 gear and all that, and then he was standing up behind the Jersey
25 barrier.

1 Q. Where did he appear to be in relation to the farther-away
2 Jersey barrier on the northbound lane?

3 A. Oh, he was right up against it in the northbound lanes. So
4 he was closest to me from -- if you were standing on the 5 interstate, that portion of the interstate.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play to the end, please.

7 (Video playing.)

8 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. Agent Shilaikis, was there an incident command structure at 11 the Incident Command Post?

12 A. Yes, there was.

13 Q. What was the incident -- or the objective of the incident
14 command structure?

15 A. Right, this incident command, the IC, was -- we do it for 16 everything. We do it for fire. We do it for big, you know,
17 operations. This was specifically for the gathering of the 18 cattle, the cattle impoundment.

19 Q. Was what occurred on April 12th, 2014, anticipated by the 20 incident command structure?

21 MR. TANASI: Objection, leading.

22 THE COURT: I don't -- well, overruled.

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Was the incident that the incident command structure was 25 designed to handle, was it what happened on April 12, 2014, or

1 was it something else?

2 A. No, the only design for the IC was to gather cattle. No one
3 anticipated the 12th.

4 Q. Were Metro or NHP a part of the incident command structure,
5 to your knowledge?

6 A. I don't -- I'm not aware of that.

7 Q. You took -- you mentioned you took some of these videos on 8 April 12th, 2014. What was the reason for your doing that?

9 A. Because in my experience, especially in law enforcement, the 10 best evidence is going to be a video or a photograph. You know,
11 memories fade. So I absolutely anticipated that there was going
12 to be gunfire that day. That this militia groups -- that 13 somebody was going to shoot a round, and then there would have 14 been a lot of carnage; to document it.

15 Q. Were you concerned for your safety on April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes, ma'am.

17 Q. Why was that?

18 A. It's hard to describe. I've been in four different war
19 zones. I had clear missions down range. We had clear
20 objectives, but what unrolled there, to see that transpire was 21 unnerving, especially to see people that had stopped on the 22 interstate, had no understanding of what was going on and the 23 magnitude of it. That if there was rounds fired, there was 24 definitely going to be other people that were going to be killed
25 that day. So it's unnerving.

1 MS. CREEGAN: One moment.

2 (Government conferring.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Agent Shilaikis. Nothing
4 further.

5 THE COURT: Cross?

6 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Good morning, Agent Shilaikis.

10 A. Good morning.

11 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a few
12 questions for you on cross. Okay, sir?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. All right. You indicated on direct exam that the operation
15 had -- had ceased, correct, as of -- on the 12th, as of the 16 morning of the 12th, correct?

17 A. The gathering of the cattle had ceased, yes.

18 Q. The gathering of cattle had ceased, right?

19 And isn't it true that at least part of the reason that 20 the gathering of the cattle had ceased was because there was a
21 funeral for a helicopter pilot?

22 A. Yes, that was part of it.

23 Q. That was part of the reason, fair?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. All right.

1 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up Exhibit 6 and
2 go to 29 seconds.

3 Okay. Actually, we'll start right there for ...

4 Back up just a little, Brian, I apologize, 59 seconds.
5 Go ahead. Play it. I think the quality might be a little
6 better on the media player.

7 (Video playing.)

8 MR. TANASI: Okay. I apologize, Brian. If you could 9 please back it up to the 1 minute mark. Stop.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. The individual that we saw prior while I was kind of dancing
12 around with the time, who was that?

13 A. Which one? There was a couple, sir.

14 Q. The very first individual we saw standing there.

15 A. Could you back that up, please.

16 Q. Sure.

17 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could back it up.

18 (Video playing.)

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Those folks there, what role in the command structure did
21 they play?

22 A. These ones here?

23 Q. Yes, sir.

24 A. I have no idea.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. TANASI: All right. Keep playing it, Brian.

2 (Video playing.)

3 MR. TANASI: Go ahead. Stop. Stop it where that one
4 individual kind of walks across the screen, Brian, if you could.
5 And go backwards.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MR. TANASI: All right. Stop it there, please.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. These folks here, who are they?

10 A. Local law enforcement. So it's going to either be a Nevada
11 Highway Patrol or Las Vegas Metro.

12 Q. Okay. What role, if any, did they play in the command
13 structure?

14 A. They were at Post 1. Their role, I don't know. I didn't 15 have information on that.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could fast-forward it two 18 minutes.

19 Actually, since we're here, let's go back. There's one
20 individual who crosses the screen roughly at the 1 minute mark.
21 That's what I'm trying to capture.

22 (Video playing.)

23 MR. TANASI: Right there. There you go.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. This individual here, sir, can't really see his head, but we

1 can see his body. Who's he?

2 A. Yeah, at the time that was Special Agent In Charge Dan Love.

3 He was the SAC out of Salt Lake City, Utah, for BLM Region 3.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could go to 2 minutes and 52
6 seconds, please.

7 (Video playing.)

8 MR. TANASI: Okay. Stop.

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. All right. Who are these two folks?

11 A. The one on the right is Special Agent Dan Love. The one on 12 the left is -- I don't know who he is.

13 Q. Okay. Did you overhear this conversation?

14 A. Not from where I was standing, sir, no.

15 Q. Okay.

16 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if you could go to 17 Exhibit 28, please, 7 minutes and 43 seconds in.

18 (Video playing.)

19 MR. TANASI: Stop it there, Brian. Maybe stop it on a
20 clearer picture. There we go. Thank you.

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. All right. So, sir, drawing on the screen, this is the 23 southbound bridge, correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. All right. And now behind it is the northbound bridge,

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Would this demonstrate your view of the northbound
4 bridge from where you were standing on the 12th?

5 A. Say this one more time.

6 Q. Would this fairly and accurately depict your view of the 7 northbound bridge when you're standing there on the 12th?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So from this vantage point, is this with the naked eye?
10 This is what you would see, fair?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right.

13 MR. TANASI: All right, Brian. If you could bring up
14 Exhibit 30, please. And go to 43 seconds in.

15 Court's indulgence.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. TANASI: I had 30 admitted, Your Honor. I just 18 wanted to make sure before I play it. Aaron, do you show that?
19 Do you show 30 as being admitted?

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 30 is admitted.

21 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you.

22 All right. 43 seconds in please, Brian.

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. All right. So looking at this picture, sir, is this -- is 25 this a view of the southbound and northbound bridge?

1 A. It is.

2 Q. It is. Okay. Do you know whose truck that is?

3 A. I do not.

4 Q. Okay, sir.

5 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up 28 and go to

6 8:18 in.

7 (Video playing.)

8 MR. TANASI: If we could maybe stop it where it's

9 clear.

10 (Video playing.)

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. All right. So you've -- on direct exam you pointed out that 13 there were individuals on the northbound bridge, fair?

14 A. The what now?

15 Q. On the northbound bridge you've pointed out different
16 individuals on direct exam, correct?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. Okay. Now, do you see these two folks here that I'm 19 circling?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay. And do you see that there's one standing up?
22 Correct?

23 A. Yep.

24 Q. And then the one to the left, do you see a head there? Do
25 you see that?

1 A. I do.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. TANASI: Brian, if we could go to 11:20, please.

4 (Video playing.)

5 MR. TANASI: Okay. Go ahead and play it.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MR. TANASI: All right. Stop.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right. Again, circling those two individuals we just 10 talked about at the 18 mark, correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. Okay. Both of them are standing up, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. And isn't it true that the person here was the 15 person who was ducked down, correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And that person has a camera in their hand, fair?

18 A. I can't tell right here.

19 Q. Why don't we play it.

20 MR. TANASI: Go ahead, Brian.

21 (Video playing.)

22 MR. TANASI: Go ahead and stop.

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. Does that appear to be a camera?

25 A. It does.

1 MR. TANASI: All right. Go ahead, Brian. Play it.

2 (Video playing.)

3 MR. TANASI: All right. Stop. Thank you.

4 Brian, if we could bring up 26 one more time, please.
5 And if you go to 15 seconds in and stop it at a clear point.

6 BY MR. TANASI:

7 Q. All right. On direct exam you identified this individual,
8 correct?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Okay. And the note I had is that that's an individual who 11 had camo, camouflage?

12 A. If I said that, I was mistaken on that. I was -- I actually 13 didn't pay attention on that one.

14 Q. Didn't pay attention. Okay.

15 A. Well, I don't -- this one is not wearing camouflage right
16 now where you stopped that at this particular slide.

17 Q. But on direct examination you said he had camouflage on,
18 fair?

19 A. I did and I was mistaken.

20 Q. All right. Thank you.

21 All right. Sir, you testified that you had some --
22 well, you testified that as to the events on the 12th you were 23 concerned that there would be a fire fight with the Federal
24 Government, correct?

25 A. I did.

1 Q. Okay. And isn't it true on April 15th, 2014, you authored a
2 report relative to the events that had occurred on the 12th?

3 Correct?

4 A. I did.

5 Q. And isn't it true you did not say in that report that you
6 were concerned that there would be a fire fight with the Federal
7 Government? Isn't that true?

8 A. Exactly. That would have been my opinion.

9 Q. You didn't put that in your report, fair?

10 A. That's fair.

11 Q. Okay. You also testified that you had concern for your 12 safety here on direct exam this morning, correct?

13 A. I did.

14 Q. Okay. Didn't put that in your report either, right?

15 A. I did not, no.

16 Q. Okay. And you also testified this morning that it was 17 unnerving on the 12th. It was unnerving. Your words, right?

18 A. Absolutely.

19 Q. Didn't put those words into the report that you authored on 20 the 15th, three days after the event itself, correct?

21 A. I did not.

22 Q. Okay. And you'd agree with me that report writing, it's an 23 important function of police work, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You want to put everything that you're feeling, everything

1 that you're thinking, everything that you're observing that's
2 important to your case in that report, fair?

3 A. No.

4 Q. You don't want to put everything in the report?

5 A. Not what I'm feeling or anything because at the time I was 6 still a law enforcement officer. So I looked through it through
7 that scope to write what was factually that happened that day.
8 I didn't negate to put my feelings in my report.

9 Q. You didn't think it was important to put that you thought
10 there would be a fire fight with the United States Government,
11 didn't want to put that in your report, fair?

12 A. I put the facts that happened that day.

13 Q. Okay. Prior to today's testimony, did you have an 14 opportunity to meet with the U.S. Attorneys Office?

15 A. I did.

16 Q. How many times?

17 A. Counting yesterday?

18 Q. Yes, please.

19 A. For three years, I'm going to estimate four times.

20 Q. Four times. And how many times had you met with the FBI?

21 A. The FBI?

22 Q. Yes, sir.

23 A. Outside of the U.S. Attorneys Office, none.

24 Q. How about with the U.S. Attorneys Office?

25 A. Every time.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir. Nothing further.

3 THE WITNESS: You're welcome, sir.

4 THE COURT: Any from Parker?

5 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 Okay. We're going to start with Exhibit 28. Aaron,
7 it's actually -- I just hooked it up to myself to make it easier
8 for Brian.

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. MARCHESE:

11 Q. And, sir, do you have Exhibit 28 on your screen?

12 A. I have an exhibit. I don't see where it's numbered.

13 Q. Okay. I'm just going to play it for a moment just to 14 acclimate you to the exhibit and then I'll stop.

15 (Video playing.)

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. Okay. And, sir, do you remember this particular video?

18 A. Yes, that's the one I recorded.

19 Q. Okay. And just to be clear, this was the one that starts at 20 approximately 12:04 p.m.?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay. And in this particular video, you went over it on 23 direct examination, this was a video which you took of the 24 events on April 12, 2014, correct?

25 A. It is.

1 Q. And you had identified an individual on direct examination.
2 I'm going to go for the record to 1 minute and 30 seconds into
3 this.

4 Okay. And I'm going to circle an individual on the 5 screen. You recognize that individual, sir?

6 A. Yeah, I don't know him.

7 Q. Sure.

8 A. But if you're asking me if I recognize this particular point
9 in the video, yes.

10 Q. Okay. And you've seen him throughout these videos, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. Now, for the purposes of these -- the 13 cross-examination, we'll call him Black Hat. Is that fair
14 enough?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. Because he's wearing a black hat, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And it has a white insignia, correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And he appears to be somewhere on the northbound bridge,
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, to his left, our right, of the screen I'm going
24 to put an X on a motor vehicle there. Do you see that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And that is some sort of a pickup with a camper
2 shell. Is that right?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 Q. Okay. And in this particular screen shot, Black Hat just 5 appears to be kneeling, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And looking to his left. Is that right?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I'm going to fast-forward for the 10 record to 2 minutes and 12 seconds.

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. Okay, sir. Once again, we have this pickup that I've placed
13 an X on with the camper shell, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Is it fair to say that that vehicle was parked, didn't move
16 throughout the video?

17 A. This portion of it, yeah, looked like he was stopped right
18 there.

19 Q. Okay. And we have Black Hat once again. I'm going to 20 circle him again for you. You'd agree with me that that is him,
21 correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Hasn't moved from the same general location as the last clip
24 that we stopped it at at 1:30, correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And it appears that he might be looking maybe to his right,
2 our left, of the screen?

3 A. Yes.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm going to move forward to 5 approximately 24 seconds to 2:36.

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Okay, sir. Once again, we have this parked truck there on 8 the screen. I put an X on it, correct?

9 A. Yep.

10 Q. I'm going to circle Black Hat once again. You see him
11 there, correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. He appears to be kneeling, correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Stayed in the same general vicinity as the last shot,
16 correct?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Move forward approximately 23 seconds to 19 2 minutes and 59 seconds.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Okay, sir. We have the pickup truck once again, correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. I'm going to circle the individual. Probably a little bit
24 fuzzy on the screen, but it does appear that there might be 25 someone kneeling behind the barricade, possibly?

1 A. Yeah, that's a real bad stop on that video.

2 Q. Yeah. But if you look and you focus on the middle, it does
3 appear that there is an individual there. Would you agree with 4 me with that?

5 A. If you could move it one frame up or one frame back. I
6 can't really definitely see it right there. I'm sorry, sir.

7 Q. Nope. It's tough.

8 A. That's worse.

9 Q. Yeah. I'm trying. Now we're off.

10 Okay. May or may not be somebody there, fair enough?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And we're going to move forward
13 to 3:54. Actually, it's 3:53.

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. This is a little bit better than the last one. You'd agree
16 with me on that, right?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. Got Black Hat here at the edge of this camper truck,
19 correct?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Still hasn't moved, correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Still appears to be in some sort of kneeling position,
24 squatting?

25 A. Yeah. This --

1 Q. Correct?

2 A. -- particular stop does that show.

3 Q. You can't see behind the barricade, but obviously he's --
4 he's taller than three feet or whatever that is, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm just going to play it
7 actually for about three seconds here.

8 (Video playing.)

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Back it up to 3:56 for the 10 record. Okay.

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. And he's still in that general vicinity, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And it appears might have his left arm just kind of on top
15 of the Jersey barrier railing right there, right?

16 A. He does.

17 Q. Doesn't look like there's anything in his hand, though,
18 correct?

19 A. Not in his left hand, sir, no.

20 MR. MARCHESE: And we'll go to 4:15 for the record.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. Same camper truck in the -- little bit to the left of 23 the middle of the screen, correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And then we've got Black Hat here. Now, he appears to be

1 standing behind the Jersey barrier on the northbound bridge,
2 correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm going to play it until
5 about 4:19.

6 (Video playing.)

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. Okay. And here we are at 4:16. He appears once again to be 9 standing and maybe has his arms crossed or something along those 10 lines. Would you agree with that?

11 A. Yeah, it appears he had that -- his long gun slung on his 12 right shoulder.

13 Q. And then at 4:16, does it appear he might have something in 14 his hand? He might be checking a phone, possibly?

15 A. He's looking down at his hands. I don't know what he's got 16 in his hands.

17 Q. Sure. It does appear, though, that there's something
18 brighter maybe in his hands than the rest of the backdrop?

19 A. Yeah, it's a bright spot. I don't know if that's the video 20 or what.

21 Q. Sure.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Move to 4:44 for the record. Okay.
23 Once again, we have the camper in the middle. I've placed an X
24 on it. And I'm going to circle the two individuals there.

25 BY MR. MARCHESE:

1 Q. First off, these two individuals, they're still in the same
2 general vicinity at the end of that camper truck, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And it appears that -- would you agree with me that Black
5 Hat would be on the left of the screen to the individual closer
6 to the back of the pickup truck?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay. And it appears he might be looking down into his 9 hands or something like that?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Move to 5:09 for the record. Okay. And 12 this is 5:09 at the end.

13 BY MR. MARCHESE:

14 Q. Black Hat is all the way to the edge of the screen, same
15 general area as the camper shell, correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay. He appears to have his hands cupped together. Would 18 you agree with that?

19 A. It appears that way.

20 Q. I'm going to move it up just one second. I think we lose
21 him after that. Okay.

22 And same depiction, would you agree with me, just more
23 fuzzy?

24 A. It's definitely a lot fuzzier.

25 Q. Yeah. Sorry, sir.

1 You'd agree he's standing, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Same area, right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And this is 5:10. This one clears up a little bit. First
6 one's probably the best, but he's still standing at the end of 7 the truck, correct?

8 A. He is, sir.

9 Q. Hands appear to be cupped together?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MARCHESE: And for the record, I'm going to go to 12 5:48.

13 These half frames are killing me. All right. We're 14 going to move ahead four seconds to 5:52. There we go, or 5:51.
15 Sorry.

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. Once again, we see Black Hat depicted at the end or the back
18 of the pickup truck with the camper shell, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And I've circled him there in the middle, correct?

21 A. Yes, sir. You did.

22 Q. He appears to be standing, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He might even have his back to the wash area. Is that fair
25 to say?

1 A. Again, this one that you stopped it on is blurry, but it
2 appears that way. So I can't say definitely.

3 Q. Okay. We'll move it up just a frame.

4 A. No, that one's worse.

5 Q. There we go.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Now we've got Black Hat all the way to the right of the 8 screen. I just circled him. He's probably a little bit clearer
9 on this one, right?

10 A. Yeah, that's a lot clearer. You see his long gun slung in 11 front of him.

12 Q. Right. But he appears to have his back actually to the wash
13 area, correct?

14 A. This actually looks straight down the interstate, so to his 15 north. Well, north lane looking south.

16 Q. Okay. So would it be your testimony he's facing this way?

17 A. Yes. Thank you.

18 Q. Okay. And the wash from the -- it's tough to see obviously 19 because of the hill, but the wash would be in this trajectory?

20 A. Yes, sir. Exactly.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Move up to 6:11. 6:11. Okay.

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Now, obviously this is a little bit farther back in the 24 distance, correct?

25 A. It is.

1 Q. Okay. And I'm going to circle an individual and the camper
2 shell truck, correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And that's all the way to the left of the screen, correct?

5 A. It is, sir.

6 Q. Now, to be fair, I mean, you can't really see what this
7 individual in the distance at the foot of the back of the truck
8 is doing, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right. But he does appear to be standing, correct?

11 A. He does.

12 Q. And the area he's standing in is consistent with where Black
13 Hat has been throughout the last few screen shots we've shown?

14 A. Say that one more time, please.

15 Q. The area in which this individual in this -- at the 6:11
16 mark is standing tends to be consistent with where Black Hat has 17 been throughout these screen shots I've been showing you?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Thank you.

20 MR. MARCHESE: I'm going to go forward about one minute
21 to 7:11.

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Okay. And at 7:11 you see Black Hat here. He appears to be 24 maybe sitting down or -- he's not kneeling. He's not standing.
25 He's kind of in between. Would you agree with that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And same general area, at the foot of that pickup
3 truck, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Appears to be looking same area he was before that you had 6 mentioned. That would be in this general area that I've placed
7 an arrow to the right of the screen?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. MARCHESE: I'm going to play it for about four
10 seconds.

11 (Video playing.)

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm going to back it up to 13 7:14.

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Okay. So for those couple of seconds we just played, now
16 Black Hat has actually stood up and he continues to look down
17 the northbound interstate, correct?

18 A. Yes, he does.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I'm going to fast-forward to 20 7:32. This is one of those distant shots.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. And in the center of the screen here we have that 23 truck again with the camper shell, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Someone is standing. You can't tell, it's too far away, if

1 it's Black Hat or not, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. But the individual that is standing is in the same general
4 location that Black Hat has been throughout these past screen
5 shots, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Move it up 12 seconds to 7:44.

8 BY MR. MARCHESE:

9 Q. Okay. And all the way to the right of the screen we have 10 that camper shell, correct, the pickup with the camper?

11 A. Can you circle it, sir?

12 Q. Let me move it up just a little bit.

13 A. Okay. That's better.

14 Q. Is that better?

15 A. Uh-hmm.

16 Q. Do you see the circle?

17 A. I do now.

18 Q. Okay. Once again, too far to tell who that is, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Appears to be someone standing at the -- near the bumper of 21 the camper shell, correct?

22 A. It does.

23 Q. Except this individual's on the northbound bridge and the 24 camper is on the southbound bridge, right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay.

2 (Video playing.)

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. Okay, sir. And I've stopped it at 7:56.

5 Somewhat in the distance once again so it's difficult
6 to tell what the individual's doing, other than maybe standing
7 in the same general area, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Move up to 8:16.

10 BY MR. MARCHESE:

11 Q. Okay. And on this screen shot, this is a better view.

12 Appears to be Black Hat again at the foot of this truck,
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Appears to be kneeling or squatting behind this barrier at 16 this point, right?

17 A. He is.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Play it for two, three seconds.

19 (Video playing.)

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Okay. And same general area, kneeling at the foot of the 22 truck, correct?

23 A. Right. Didn't you just show me this earlier?

24 Q. Maybe it was one of the other counsel. I've just been going
25 chronologically.

1 A. Apologize.

2 Q. No, that's fine.

3 MR. MARCHESE: And go to 9:01 for the record.

4 Actually, it's 9:02.

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Somewhat difficult to tell. There is a head at the edge of 7 the truck, correct, to the back of it?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Just popping over the barrier. Maybe he has a hat on.
10 Would you agree with that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Same general area as we've seen Black Hat depicted this 13 entire video, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Move up to 9:15.

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. Okay. And then we have Black Hat once again at the edge of 18 this truck, correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Appears to be kneeling or squatting, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You can see the top of the Jersey barrier right there,
23 correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Play it just for a couple seconds.

1 (Video playing.)

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And we are at 9:17 right now for
3 the record.

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Black Hat doesn't appear to have moved, correct?

6 A. You mean stood up moved or just moved around?

7 Q. Same general area. I'm sorry.

8 A. Oh. Yeah, he's in the same general area.

9 Q. Still kneeling or squatting, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Still see the top of the Jersey barrier right there,
12 correct?

13 I'm sorry if I put a line where I told you -- asked you
14 to see.

15 You can still see the top of the Jersey barrier right
16 there, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Sorry. And I only got three more, sir. So just bear
19 with me.

20 MR. MARCHESE: And we're going to move up to 10:32 for 21 the record. Okay. Actually, move up just a tad more.

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Are you able to see the camper on the right of the screen,
24 sir?

25 A. Is it at the very right?

1 Q. Yeah, it's where all of the -- the eraser and the pencil --

2 A. I got a ...

3 Q. No problem. I can move it.

4 A. The access to this computer screen is right there on the 5 right-hand side.

6 Q. There we go.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. OKAY. Now I moved it into the screen, so now you can
9 actually see it.

10 All right. So I'm making a circle at the end of the 11 camper truck and some sort of individual at the end of it.
12 You'd agree with, right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Tough to see. Not quite as far as the other ones, but not 15 as close as some of the others as well, right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Appears to be the individual's probably kneeling or 18 squatting at this point?

19 A. It appears that way, sir.

20 MR. MARCHESE: I'm just going to play it for about 21 seven seconds.

22 (Video playing.)

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay. And tough to see what he's doing, but the individual
25 hasn't moved from that same general location, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Move up to 11:23.

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. In this particular screen shot you see Black Hat once again.
5 He's at the foot or the back of the camper shell squatting,
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now, on direct examination you were asked some questions
9 about this particular time frame. This was the one where I
10 believe you stated that Black Hat popped up, I believe was your
11 testimony?

12 A. Yeah. If this is the same segment, then yes.

13 Q. Yes. He popped up and then -- isn't it true that in this
14 segment he actually adjusts his shoulder strap on his rifle?

15 A. Run through it, sir, and I'll be able to tell you that.

16 (Video playing.)

17 THE WITNESS: It's quick. So from what I see is that 18 he's definitely, you know, bringing his gun around in front of 19 him.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. So whether, you know, on the shoulder strap, frame by frame
23 that will dictate that.

24 Q. Okay.

25 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, can you get up 5032-A

1 through E, please.

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Okay, sir. In this particular -- these are just screen
4 shots of what I have just shown you. They've previously been
5 marked and admitted into evidence.

6 You see Black Hat there, correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You agree he's kneeling down, squatting, something along
9 those lines, correct?

10 A. Say again.

11 Q. He's kneeling or squatting at that point, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. You can refer to him as Mr. Parker if you'd like, sir,
15 instead of saying Black Hat. It's kind of demoralizing.

16 Q. Well, we've been doing Black Hat. So let's just keep it
17 consistent for the record.

18 A. Okay, sir.

19 MR. MARCHESE: All right. And we can go to B, please.

20 Okay, Brian. And if you can -- yeah, there we go. Thank you.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. And I'm going to circle him for you just to make it easier
23 for you. That's Black Hat right there, correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. He appears to be just standing up at this point, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You can see his left forearm next to his left hip area,
3 correct?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Okay.

6 MR. MARCHESE: We can go to C, as in Charlie. All
7 right. And if you could make that a little bigger, Brian, if 8 possible.

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Okay, sir. And I'm going to circle Black Hat once again,
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Little bit difficult to see the rifle in this picture due to 14 the coloring from the RV. Is that fair to say?

15 A. It is.

16 Q. Appears that Black Hat's left arm is going up a little bit
17 towards his chest/neck area, correct?

18 A. It appears that way, sir.

19 MR. MARCHESE: D, as in David, Brian.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. And in this particular screen shot again we have Mr. Black
22 Hat right there. Appears that you can see the skin from his 23 forearm in the middle there, correct?

24 A. I do.

25 Q. Okay. Appears a little difficult to see, but that might be

1 the trajectory of the rifle. Is that accurate? Would you agree
2 with that?

3 I'll move it off, sorry.

4 A. Whether it had it on there or not, it doesn't matter. It's 5 blurry, but it appears to be that way, yes. He's adjusted his 6 rifle slung, correct.

7 Q. Okay. And E, as in Edward.

8 Okay. And this you can actually see something. All
9 right. I'm going to circle Black Hat. You see his rifle a
10 little bit clearer now with the backdrop. It appears to be
11 pointed not straight down, but, I don't know, maybe 15, 20
12 degrees. Somewhat accurate, right?

13 A. It appears that way, yes.

14 Q. Okay. And his left forearm and hand appear to be somewhere
15 near his left chin/ear area?

16 A. It possibly can. That's blurry.

17 Q. Okay. If you don't agree, you don't agree. That's fine.

18 MR. MARCHESE: And, Aaron, I'm going to go back to 19 Exhibit 28. And for the record, this is Exhibit 28 at 14:46.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. And lastly, sir, I've circled Black Hat. You'd agree with 22 me that's him?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He appears to be looking to his left which would be
25 northbound, correct?

1 A. He is.

2 Q. And he's in the same general area at the end of the foot of 3 that camper or shell truck, correct?

4 A. He is.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, sir. I've got no further
6 questions.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take our
8 morning restroom break. During this time I do remind the jury
9 that you are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit
10 anyone to discuss it with you. You may speak to your fellow
11 jurors about other things, but not about this trial. Please do
12 not read or listen to or review anything that touches about this 13 case in any way nor attempt to perform any research or any
14 independent investigation. And please do not form any opinion
15 regarding the issues in this case until after you have received
16 the jury instructions, heard the testimony, seen the evidence.
17 After that I will excuse you to begin your deliberation process,
18 but not until then.

19 So it's 10:37. Let's go ahead and stand for the jury
20 and be back here 11?

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: All right. We'll be back here at 11. So
23 go ahead and excuse the jury.

24 And, Special Agent Shilaikis, after the jury exits,
25 then you may also take your stretch break, and we'll just need

1 you back here by 11 so we can resume.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 10:37 a.m.)

5 THE COURT: Off record.

6 (Recess taken at 10:37 a.m.)

7 (Resumed at 11:08 a.m.)

8 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Go ahead
9 and bring in the jury.

10 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 11:11 a.m.)

11 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated, and then
12 everyone else be may be seated as well.

13 Back on the record. And we have Special Agent
14 Shilaikis back on the witness stand as well. Thank you, sir.
15 So we can now continue with cross-examination. I think,
16 Mr. Leventhal, were you next or Mr. Perez?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mr. Perez, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead on behalf of 19 Mr. Lovelein.

20 MR. PEREZ: Thank you.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And, Your Honor, the 22 witness's touch screen is now working.

23 THE COURT: Oh, good. All right. So your touch screen
24 is working now.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. Good morning, Special Agent. My name is Shawn Perez. I
3 represent Mr. Lovelein. I only have a couple of questions
4 concerning time.

5 In Exhibit 26, the video, you say it's 11:53 and, you
6 know, where you are, correct?

7 A. Yes, there's 15 segments of it. So each one has been ...

8 Q. And you do that for each -- for each video, for each
9 exhibit?

10 A. I attempted to, yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. And so, like, for example, on Exhibit 28, if it were 12 eight minutes into the video and the video started at 12:04,
13 give or take, we're looking at, you know, 12:12 in the 14 afternoon, correct? Would that be right?

15 A. You're confusing me. I'm trying to follow you.

16 Q. Well, the time on the exhibits -- I'm sorry for talking over
17 you.

18 The time indicator on the video, I mean, I'm assuming
19 that that's like a minute and something seconds, right?

20 A. Oh, I gather. I'm following you now. So, yes, I was using 21 my watch to time it every time that I would try to start a
22 segment and end a segment.

23 Q. Okay. So -- well, within a couple of minutes. If you say
24 you're starting at 12:04, we can assume that's pretty correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay. And then so eight minutes into the video would be
2 12:12?

3 A. I believe so. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Now, one other thing, I just want to clarify where 5 someone was.

6 MR. PEREZ: Brian, can you bring up Exhibit 30, please,
7 at 14 seconds.

8 BY MR. PEREZ:

9 Q. I'm not sure if I heard this correct. I just want to 10 clarify. This individual in the center of the screen, now, did 11 you say they were on the -- closer to you or farther back, on 12 that side of the highway?

13 A. Meaning what, sir?

14 Q. Well, I mean, you said they were on the Jersey barrier. On 15 the Jersey barrier closer to you on the northbound lane?

16 A. No, I did not. He's on -- I am following you now. What I'm 17 saying on that particular lane of traffic, on that particular
18 highway, he's to the closest side of that Jersey barrier.
19 There's one behind him. Make sense?

20 Q. Okay. But he's not on the -- I guess that would be the 21 eastern side of the --

22 A. It's confusing in there, yes, sir, you know.

23 Q. So you're saying he's on the eastern side of the northbound
24 lane? So there wouldn't be any traffic passing in front of him,
25 correct?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. PEREZ: Brian, can you just, like, back that up
4 slowly. That truck, that's good right there.

5 BY MR. PEREZ:

6 Q. So does that change your --

7 A. It does, sir. Thank you for that.

8 MR. PEREZ: All right. Thank you. I have nothing
9 further.

10 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Drexler, any cross?

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Thank you.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. Good morning, sir.

15 A. Good morning, sir.

16 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. How are you today?

17 A. Fine, sir.

18 Q. Good.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, if we could get 17, Government's 20 Exhibit 17, at 40:56.

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. What I'd like to do is just show you a map real quick and 23 where you were at. I know you went through it on direct.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's 40:56.

25 Okay. Back it up just a bit, just like a half a

1 second. Stop. Perfect.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. All right. Now, since you're a -- your video there or your
4 screen there works, if you could touch, just so we orient
5 ourselves, where the northbound bridge is. Can you see it from
6 there?

7 A. Do you want me to put an X there or an N?

8 Q. An N, please, just so we -- perfect. Okay. And the
9 southbound bridge?

10 Okay. Now, Agent Shilaikis, at some point you moved 11 positions, correct?

12 A. I did, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And so where were you when you first started
14 videotaping?

15 A. Approximately in this general location right there.

16 Q. Okay. That would be considered Post 1?

17 A. This is considered Post 1, right there.

18 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

19 And you were in your vehicle?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Whose vehicle were you in?

22 A. I wasn't in a vehicle.

23 Q. So when you were filming, you were not in a vehicle at all?

24 A. I was next to a light-all, so a big tower that could come up
25 and light Post 1 during the night. I was next to that.

1 Q. Okay. Now -- and we saw some videos from where you just put
2 that X, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. And those started at 11:53:15 seconds, correct?

5 A. I started the video at 11:23, sir.

6 Q. 11:23?

7 A. I believe so. I'd have to go back and see the very first
8 segment of my video, the very first one.

9 Q. Okay. But you remember that your first video started at 10 11:23?

11 A. I'd have to review it and make sure that date and time stamp
12 and what I did on my watch; because I started the video when I
13 filmed my watch and I said the time and the date. And so I'd 14 have to see that.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Best of my knowledge, I think it was around -- it was after 17 11.

18 Q. Okay. So 11:23 is when you would have started is your
19 testimony, correct?

20 A. I'm saying if you show it to me again, I'll tell you
21 exactly.

22 Q. Very good. Okay. And you said that your watch would have 23 been in that video?

24 A. It is.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could go to 26, Brian.

1 And just start it and play it. If you can back it up.

2 (Video playing.)

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do we have sound, Brian? Brian, you
4 can stop it. Is there sound on there?

5 Okay. Back it up to the beginning, please, Brian.

6 Thank you. And if you want to hit that sound button on the far
7 right, that might work. There you go. Go ahead and play it.

8 (Video playing.)

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop there, Brian. Thank you.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Agent Shilaikis, did you see your hand with the watch in 12 that video?

13 A. Not in this one, sir.

14 Q. Okay. So there's another one. This one started at 11:15.
15 You indicated that there another's another video that you
16 started at 11:23?

17 A. If you watch all 15 segments and the totality, you'll see me
18 periodically look at my watch. But I'm reading off my watch
19 because I didn't know how that camera was set up at the time,
20 but I knew my watch was correct on the date and the time.

21 Q. I understand that. So your watch would have said 11:23 when 22 you filmed it, correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. And that's not in this video, right?

25 A. It is not, sir.

1 Q. Okay. So this video is not the first video that you filmed,
2 correct?

3 A. I viewed -- recorded 15 segments because I was worried about
4 the battery strength also because I just pulled this camera out.
5 I was worried about it dying.

6 Q. I understand that, but my question was, this was not the 7 first video that you videotaped. You videotaped at 11:23,
8 correct?

9 A. Yes. The segments -- if it was video segment 1, that would 10 be video segment 1.

11 Q. Correct. Okay. So, again, there's a different segment
12 prior to 11:53, correct?

13 A. Oh. Gotcha. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. So this is the video that we're seeing for the first
15 time that says 11:53, correct?

16 A. I'm following now, sir. Thank you.

17 Q. You are. Okay. And there's no watch?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. And you indicated at 11:23 you videotaped your watch?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. All right. If we can go to --
22 just back it up a little bit at 14 seconds. And play to 34
23 seconds.

24 (Video playing.)

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop it there. Now just back it

1 up a bit.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. You were asked on direct examination if you were able --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Back it up just another second.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. If you were able to see this person that I am circling here
7 in the middle. Do you remember that question?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. Okay. And you indicated that you remember seeing him,
10 correct?

11 A. I did.

12 Q. Okay. And you remember seeing him on April 12th, 2014,
13 correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And you saw him while you were videotaping this,
16 right?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So if we can just keep going,
19 Brian.

20 (Video playing.)

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Okay. Now, you kind of swung the camera past that 24 individual that you indicated that you saw that day, correct?

25 A. I did.

1 Q. Okay. And you stopped at a person that you indicated was a
2 Ryan Bundy, right?

3 A. That's who I believe he was, yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. And you even sort of verbally acknowledged that while
5 you were filming, correct?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go back just to 17 seconds,
9 please.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Now, this person here, on direct exam you said he was
12 militia, correct?

13 A. You don't have anything circled, sir.

14 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. That person right there.

15 A. Okay. Yeah, I believed he was militia. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And you indicated that it was his dress that gave you
17 the -- the indication that he was some kind of militia, correct?

18 A. At that point with the totality of the circumstances that he 19 appeared to be, yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay. So let's talk about totality of the circumstances.
21 That's just a lot of facts that you're taking in as you're 22 observing, correct?

23 A. From the start of this, absolutely, and the information I
24 had at hand prior to.

25 Q. Okay. You indicated that part of the totality of the 1 circumstances would have been his dress, right?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. How he was dressed, right? Okay. He's wearing a blue
4 t-shirt, correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. Also, you indicated that militia look in camouflage.
7 They come in camouflage of some sort, correct?

8 A. All variations of dress, yes, sir.

9 Q. All variations of dress?

10 I'm sorry?

11 A. Do you want me to follow through with that, sir?

12 Q. Yes.

13 A. This gentleman has a blue shirt on and a tack vest and a
14 long gun.

15 Q. Okay. And that to you is an indication of an ideology or a
16 militia?

17 A. An ideology, sir?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. No.

20 Q. Can you spot militia people just like that?

21 A. With this individual with a long gun and the way he was 22 dressed with a tactical vest, yes, sir. He would be a cause of 23 concern.

24 Q. Okay. He has a baseball cap on?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. It doesn't look to -- seem like he's got any kind of
2 helmets, does he?

3 A. A helmet?

4 Q. Yes.

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. No ballistic helmet, correct?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Okay. Ballistic tack plates or anything of that sort?

9 A. I don't know what he's wearing under that vest, sir.

10 Q. Okay. Were you able to discern whether he had multiple 11 weapons on him?

12 A. Not at -- no, I did not.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 58 seconds.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Now, these gentlemen here, they have ballistic helmets on,
17 correct?

18 A. They do.

19 Q. They're in some sort of a --

20 MS. CREEGAN: Objection, relevance.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Was going to compare and contrast on 22 why he's calling people militia and what it is about their --
23 what they're wearing that causes him to label somebody in a 24 militia group. He's testified on direct examination he has 25 spotted multiple people that he said was militia, and I'm just

1 trying to figure out what is militia to him.

2 THE COURT: And so how does the photograph of these
3 individuals have anything to do with the people that he called
4 militia?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, if he's calling people militia
6 and he's indicating that they are -- he's indicating on direct
7 that they're wearing a certain type of uniform, if you will, and 8 the person that was not wearing it was not wearing it; yet,
9 these other people are wearing it. I'm just trying to figure
10 out how he knows what a militia person is. He's the one who 11 spotted them. He's the one telling us.

12 If it's spotting someone who is a democrat versus a
13 republican because of the way they dress, that to me is the same
14 thing, but that's how he is discerning militia and a threat.

15 THE COURT: Well, if you're trying to figure out how he 16 defines someone who is in the militia, you can ask him that
17 question.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I did, Your Honor. He said it was 19 camouflage and plates and --

20 THE COURT: That doesn't have anything to do with this
21 photograph. So the objection is sustained.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

23 If we can go to 26, please. And at 2:57. We're at 26.
24 2:57. Okay. Stop right there.

25 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

1 Q. Now, you were asked on direct examination who these people
2 are, and you indicated this is Agent Dan Love, correct?

3 A. Yes, Special Agent In Charge, at the time, Dan Love out of 4 Utah.

5 Q. So he was in charge of the entire, sort of, cattle gather?

6 A. No, he was not.

7 Q. No, he was not. Okay.

8 I notice that he's wearing a baseball cap, black, with 9 an insignia on it, correct?

10 MS. CREEGAN: Same objection.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, they made a big deal about 12 pulling a cap backwards, a black cap, and whether or not 13 somebody wears it and what does that represent.

14 MS. CREEGAN: That has no relevance to this picture.

15 THE COURT: Sustained.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right.

17 You can go to 28, please. And go just two seconds in.

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. Okay. Now, at this point you've switched positions,
20 correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay. And are you in a vehicle now or are you still behind
23 that white light, if you will?

24 A. No. When we moved up forward, there was a Forest Service
25 Law Enforcement vehicle there. I asked that officer to stay

1 there so we'd have some type of cover and concealment. So we
2 were on the side of the vehicle, the driver's side of the 3 vehicle.

4 Q. Okay. You were in concealment, but you never actually got 5 into the vehicle?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Okay. So you were outside of the vehicle. Doors open?

8 A. I did not -- I wasn't in the vehicle. The doors were shut.
9 The law enforcement that belonged to that vehicle was inside of
10 it.

11 Q. I see. Were you leaning on the hood or were you leaning on 12 the trunk?

13 A. The hood of it, sir.

14 Q. The hood of it. Okay. All right. And these individuals
15 here, these are, as you know it, BLM agents, correct?

16 A. Yes, between BLM law enforcement officers and I knew Park
17 Police law enforcement officers were down in the wash.

18 Q. Okay. So that would be a mixture of -- these people here on 19 the left, that would be a mixture of law enforcement officers,
20 correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 14 seconds, please.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. Okay. This area right here, what would you consider this

1 area? Would you consider this -- would you consider it the
2 fatal funnel?

3 A. I would, sir.

4 Q. Okay. And that extends all the way through the whole wash,
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 4:15, 4 minutes and 9 15 seconds. Play it to 4:30.

10 (Video playing.)

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just stop it right there.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Were you able to discern who in this picture is a militia
14 member?

15 A. I believe when I refer to my testimony, I said what appears
16 to be militia. Did I actually say that they are militia? I
17 have no idea.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead to 9:06, please.

20 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

21 Q. Now, while you were down there and you were noticing all of 22 these people up there, did you also notice other law enforcement
23 officers on the bridge?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. Okay. So here you see -- does that seem to be like a law

1 enforcement officer on the bridge?

2 A. It is.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 9:06 just one second
5 later. And 9:30, if you will.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Okay. Does that seem -- I'm sorry. Right in the middle of 8 the screen there, that's a vehicle driving on the bridge,
9 correct?

10 A. It is.

11 Q. And that looks to be like some kind of a Ranger or National 12 Park Service vehicle, correct?

13 A. Yes. It's green, so it's either Parks or Forest Service.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, could we just get some 16 foundation? Which bridge these are on.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Do you know which bridge that is on?

19 A. It's the one closest to me. So it would be the northbound.

20 Q. That would be north?

21 A. Southbound.

22 Q. That would be the southbound bridge?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. So these people here, they're above and looking 25 almost straight down at BLM and Park Service law enforcement,

1 correct?

2 A. They are.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could go to 9:59 -- 9:55 and
5 play to 10, please.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just keep going for a second.

8 (Video playing.)

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Did you hear what came over the radio there, sir?

12 A. No, I didn't hear it.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Back it up for just a second, please.

15 (Video playing.)

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Did you hear that?

18 A. I did.

19 Q. Okay. Was he saying: All units with long guns sling your 20 long guns?

21 A. He did.

22 Q. Okay. And he repeated it twice, correct?

23 A. He did.

24 Q. Okay. Very good.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can we go to 10 minutes and 12 seconds,

1 which would have been after what we just heard.

2 (Video playing.)

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, what's the -- I'm going to 5 object on the relevance of this.

6 THE COURT: You want to go to sidebar?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sure.

8 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

9 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, a number of these questions
10 appear to be intended to ask about the dress of law enforcement
11 officers, I assume to attempt to portray them as aggressive.
12 There has just been an exhibit where it said: Sling your long
13 guns, and I assume it's to show Swanson with his long gun in an 14 effort to say, I don't know, that they didn't follow that 15 instruction and that has some meaning.

16 But whether law enforcement officers followed that 17 instruction or not has nothing to do with any of the elements of 18 any of these charges or with any applicable defense. So it
19 seems to be just an effort to try to divert the jury's attention
20 to things that are irrelevant or to blame the officers for being 21 assaulted.

22 THE COURT: You want to respond?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sure, I'll respond exactly the way I
24 did before. They've elicited testimony on direct examination,
25 the Government has, to indicate that this witness, while he was

1 filming, can point out militia members, non-militia members, and
2 what his threat level was. At no time can you I think even
3 discern what a militia member is, and so I tried to get into
4 that. That's irrelevant.

5 But now I'm talking about the difference between he's 6 indicated that a militia member is somebody who wears
7 camouflage, some kind of bullet-proof vest, some kind of -- kind
8 of a vest, a ballistic vest. And I'm just comparing and 9 contrasting who's wearing the bullet-proof vest and who's 10 wearing that stuff. Otherwise, it's left with the jury to think
11 that these guys -- this gentleman can figure out who's militia.
12 And it's an ideology. It's not a look. It's nothing else other
13 than a look. It's an ideology. It doesn't go to show that 14 anybody in particular is a militia considering that the guys
15 that he's picking out are not wearing the stuff that he's saying
16 that militia members wear. And so I --

17 THE COURT: If you can lower your voice, please.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. I apologize.

19 Going into that, it's ripe on cross-examination to test
20 this witness's credibility because he's already indicated in -- 21 and I'll get to it -- in one of his MOAs that he didn't see any 22 of these people with guns. He puts it right in his MOA, Judge.
23 He says, I didn't see it because I was too busy filming.

24 THE COURT: That's a total different issue.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, and I understand.

1 THE COURT: The issue is why it would be relevant to
2 show him photos and ask him --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Credibility.

4 THE COURT: -- about how the federal officers were 5 dressed.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Goes to credibility.

7 THE COURT: You haven't asked him why he thinks someone
8 is militia. He explained to you he didn't know that they were 9 militia, that that was what they appeared to be to him, and you
10 don't ask him anything about -- you say you want to know why he 11 thinks that they're militia, but you don't. What you're really
12 asking him is how did they look in contrast to the Government
13 officers so that you can show the jury that the Government
14 officers are armed or look in some way militaristic, which is 15 getting into the self-defense instruction. That is not legally
16 cognizable. So --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I'm not using --

18 THE COURT: -- I agree with the Government that it's 19 not relevant. The objection is sustained.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: May I make --

21 THE COURT: And twice I saw Mr. Marchese's client
22 talking to Mr. Drexler from here, just so you're aware of that.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

1 THE COURT: All right. We're back on the record. The
2 objection is sustained. So, Mr. Leventhal, go ahead and move
3 on.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go to 10:27, please, and play to 10:36.
5 (Video playing.)

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Okay. Sir, now, while you were filming this, this is a
9 direct view of the -- under obviously the southbound bridge,
10 correct?

11 A. It is.

12 Q. Okay. And at this time that you were filming there is 13 nobody sort of on the skirt, correct?

14 A. No, not in that area. No, sir.

15 Q. Okay. And there's nobody in between -- no protestors in 16 between or underneath the southbound bridge, correct?

17 A. From my view, I couldn't see anybody. You're right, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And we can barely make it out, but this would be the 19 gate, correct?

20 A. If you're talking the cattle panels that are across the wash
21 area?

22 Q. Yes, sir.

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Okay. That would be there, right? We don't see any 25 individuals there, correct?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. And this light that you were talking about, would that be an
3 example -- that I'm circling right now. Would that be an 4 example of the light that you were behind, something like that?

5 A. At Post 1, yes. That is what I call a light-all.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 11:35, please. Play it
8 until 11:40.

9 (Video playing.)

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Again, nobody's down approaching yet, correct?

13 A. From my vantage point, I couldn't see anybody, sir.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we can go to 12 minutes,
15 please. Oh, no. 11:35, actually. Go ahead -- oh, we just did
16 that.

17 All right. Go to 12 minutes, please, 12:06. Okay.

18 Now stop.

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Now, these people right here we didn't see just now. People
21 are now approaching, protestors are now approaching the fence,
22 correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Underneath the southbound bridge, which would be these 25 pillars, yes?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. These individuals here, they seem to have their hands
3 up, correct?

4 A. They do.

5 Q. This individual has his hands away from himself, correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you go to 12:20, please, Brian.

9 Just go ahead and play it.

10 (Video playing.)

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Okay. This tree right here, what -- let me ask you about 14 the conditions that day. Was it windy?

15 A. It was breezy.

16 Q. Breezy. Okay. It was hot?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Dusty?

19 A. I wouldn't say dusty.

20 Q. Okay. This tree that seems to be blocking some of your 21 view, was that moving about?

22 If we can move back, can you watch that tree real quick
23 to see if it obstructed any of your view while you were
24 videotaping?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go forward. Stop. Go ahead and play

1 it.

2 (Video playing.)

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Would you agree -- stop please -- that tree did block some
5 of your view?

6 A. I'd say it's waving in the video, yes, sir.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 13:04. Stop right
9 there.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Okay. You were asked on direct examination about this 12 individual right here. Do you remember that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. This individual has red pants, correct?

15 A. I called them peach colored, sir.

16 Q. Peach? Okay. Now, you've had extensive training in the 17 military, correct?

18 A. I have.

19 Q. Served four tours, correct?

20 A. I served 20 years, sir.

21 Q. 20 years? You ever wear red pants to go to any type of 22 combat or --

23 A. Overseas, no, sir.

24 Q. No? How about here?

25 A. To combat here? Are you talking this day?

1 Q. Yeah, I'm not sure why you prefaced it by saying "overseas."

2 A. Overseas in combat. I haven't been in combat in the United
3 States, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Overseas you've never worn peach-colored pants?

5 A. No, I have not. No, sir.

6 Q. Okay.

7 You indicated that you were in fear that day, correct,
8 Agent Shilaikis?

9 A. I did, sir.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could bring up 17 again.
11 Go to 40:56. Stop right there. No. Actually, go forward.
12 Backwards. 40:56, please.

13 (Video playing.)

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. All right. And you indicated -- and I'm going to put an X.
17 If I'm correct, that's where you started out, correct?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. And then at some point you moved to, I believe you indicated
20 where I'm putting an O, correct?

21 A. Do you mind if I make a circle?

22 Q. Yeah. Go ahead. You tell me where you were.

23 A. I believe I was in this general area right here.

24 Q. Over this area?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And you indicated there was a vehicle that you were
2 behind in that area, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir. So somewhere in that vicinity. I was a little
4 bit pressured that day. So somewhere in this vicinity I was at.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. Next to a vehicle.

7 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

8 And you saw all of the law enforcement vehicles at Post
9 1 gathering, correct, Metro?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. You saw SWAT come in, correct?

12 A. A SWAT vehicle?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. You saw them all come in, right?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. You recognized NHP that was on the northbound bridge,
18 correct?

19 A. I did.

20 Q. They were in those green fluorescents?

21 A. I believe so.

22 Q. And you stayed up here in this area or in this area pretty
23 much for about how long? An hour?

24 A. Approximately, yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. You never moved down towards the bridge or towards

1 any of these people, correct?

2 A. I did not.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. I have nothing further.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, did you cross?

5 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Briefly, Your Honor.

8 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. Agent Shilaikis, do you remember Mr. Marchese asking you
11 some questions about an individual he called Black Hat?

12 A. Yes. Referring to Mr. Parker?

13 Q. Well, with Mr. Marchese's questions was he asking you about 14 an individual that he termed as Black Hat?

15 A. Vaguely, ma'am, I'm sorry, with all of the testimony that's 16 gone on today.

17 Q. Do you remember Mr. Marchese showing you a frame of the same
18 individual by the camper over and over?

19 A. Yes, sir. And the over and over about calling him Black 20 Hat.

21 Q. Do you remember that?

22 A. I do.

23 Q. Those questions?

24 Were you focusing on Black Hat with your video camera?

25 Were you intending to follow him for the entire time?

1 A. I did not.

2 Q. About how many seconds or minutes of footage was that that
3 you reviewed with Mr. Marchese?

4 A. It varied. There wasn't very much. It was frame by frame,
5 if that's what you're asking. If it's how much video was on 6 Mr. Parker, who I know now, there wasn't much. It was trying to 7 encompass everything that was going on.

8 Q. I think you've just explained it, but what were you trying 9 to do with your video camera?

10 A. Memorialize the entire event and then focus in; because in 11 my heart of hearts I thought there was going to be somebody
12 shooting from that side; that I could zero in on that to 13 memorialize it for any type of further investigation after the 14 fact.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Any recross?

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. So at this time if any members
22 of the jury have questions for our witness, Special Agent
23 Shilaikis, go ahead and please write them down on the forms
24 provided. Take your time. Write neatly. Try and be clear and 25 not use too many pronouns. We don't need your name or your

1 signature or jury number. Just your questions.

2 Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

3 (Whereupon, the following sidebar conference was held.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Jury note No. 89, did anyone
5 point a weapon at you?

6 Any objection?

7 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

9 THE COURT: Jury note 90: When we heard the comment to 10 sling arms, did that apply only to BML -- they mean BLM, but 11 they wrote BML -- or to all armed federal law enforcement?

12 Any objection?

13 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

14 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And then: Who gave that command?

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

18 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

19 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

20 THE COURT: And the second part of jury note 90 is:
21 Have you ever participated in or heard an after action report of 22 a fire fight with the Federal Government?

23 MR. MARCHESE: Can you read that again? I'm sorry.

24 THE COURT: Have you ever participated in or heard an
25 after action report of a fire fight with the Federal Government?

1 MR. PEREZ: After action?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would object on relevancy grounds. I
3 think it's completely irrelevant if he's ever heard of one. I
4 don't know if there even is one or not. It's just it's not
5 relevant to whether or not my client was involved in it or not
6 involved with it; it's not them; it's not a protest.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Just as an initial matter, I'm not sure I
11 even understand what the question's trying to ask.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker, it's unintelligible.

13 THE COURT: Well, it's not unintelligible. It's just a 14 matter of this witness knows about an after action report and we 15 haven't heard of anything like that. I don't know if there's --

16 MS. CREEGAN: I think one way to understand the 17 question, and this may not be correct, is they're asking if
18 people normally refer to -- Agent Shilaikis was cross-examined
19 on whether he said he was afraid that there would be a fire
20 fight. And this person might be attempting to find out if that 21 would be a normal part of a report or not, but I can't tell if 22 that's exactly what they're trying to ask.

23 MR. TANASI: Is the question about this case or any 24 after action reports in general? It seems very vague.

25 THE COURT: All right. So it sounds like the parties

1 don't want me to ask that question. So I'll have to ...

2 I don't know what an after action report is.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Just let them know we're not clear on it,
4 and maybe phrase it a little more clearly in the future if they
5 can.

6 THE COURT: All right. Jury note No. 91: Were you
7 still concerned for your life when you noticed the presence of 8 other law enforcement, NHP, Metro, and etc., next to the 9 individuals with long guns?

10 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

11 MR. MARCHESE: No objection Parker.

12 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

13 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

14 THE COURT: And that's it.

15 (Sidebar conference was concluded.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Special Agent Shilaikis, I've 17 got a couple of jury questions here. I'm going to go ahead and 18 read them into the record, but these are not my questions.
19 These are jury questions. So when you respond, you may go ahead
20 and turn look at the jury. All right?

21 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: So jury note No. 89 asks: Did anyone point
23 a weapon at you?

24 THE WITNESS: Not that I could see. I was
25 concentrating on the video camera to basically, like I told you,

1 to memorialize the events of that day. So if they did, I didn't
2 see it.

3 THE COURT: Right. Jury question No. 90: When we
4 heard the comment to sling arms, did that apply only to BML --
5 BLM -- or to all armed federal law enforcement?

6 THE WITNESS: To explain that, each individual officer
7 in law enforcement has to make the determination of what threat
8 that they are observing at that time. The voice that you heard
9 was Acting State Chief Ranger Kelly Cole, and he made that 10 comment. So he made the comment, but each individual officer as 11 they see something that was pointed at them can make that 12 determination based on what they purview the -- perceive the 13 threat to be.

14 THE COURT: And then the next part of -- or the second
15 part of the question is: Who gave that command?

16 THE WITNESS: That was Acting State Chief Ranger Kelly
17 Cole. He's the one that came over the radio. Who told him, I
18 have no idea.

19 THE COURT: All right. And then the next question on 20 jury note No. 90 is about participating in or hearing an after 21 action report. And the parties agree and I agree also that,
22 because we're not really sure what it's referring to, we're not
23 going to ask that question because it's just not clear to us
24 what the question is asking.

25 Jury note No. 91 asks: Were you still concerned for

1 your life when you noticed the presence of other law
2 enforcement, NHP, Metro, etc., next to the individuals with the
3 long guns?

4 THE WITNESS: Yes. So to further expand on that, I
5 wasn't only just worried about myself. I was worried about all
6 life that day. Our mission was to go gather cows, to take them
7 off our public lands that were in trespass. We were not
8 prepared that day. So I was worried about any loss of life.
9 Probably what affects me the most is the people that got stopped
10 there for no reason, they had no idea what was evolving in front
11 of them, and the potential that somebody just had to be in the 12 wrong spot at the wrong time. That affects me to this day.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Any follow-up by the Government?

14 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Any follow-up by the Defense?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor. Thank you.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Just one question, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. You were asked about the command about slinging long guns.
22 Do you remember that?

23 A. I do.

24 Q. And I believe your testimony was that it was Kelly Cole that 25 made that?

1 A. I believe it was based on his voice. That's who I recognize
2 it to make that comment coming over the radio.

3 Q. Okay. And to your personal knowledge, was Mr. Cole in the 4 wash at the time on April 12th, 2014?

5 A. I do not know where Chief Ranger Cole was at.

6 Q. Okay. Was -- he wasn't next to you, though, correct?

7 A. He was not.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. No further questions.

9 THE COURT: Anyone else?

10 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. So, Agent Shilaikis, as I understand, Sling your long guns, 13 sling your long guns, what you've indicated is that's the 14 discretion of the people that were holding the long guns and 15 pointing the long guns on the BLM or the law enforcement side?

16 A. I would say yes. If there's an officer that is pointing his 17 gun at some thing, he sees that threat. The totality of the 18 circumstances belongs to that officer and he made that choice.

19 Q. So the order, Sling your long guns, sling your long guns, is 20 in fact not just that; it's at your discretion or if you want to 21 or if you don't feel safe, something along those lines, right?

22 A. I cannot tell you what the determination of what that meant.
23 I know for myself that if I were seeing a threat where I had to 24 point my weapon at somebody and I heard that, I would not take 25 it off that person.

1 Q. Did you sling your long gun that day?

2 A. I had the video camera. My long gun was slung in front of 3 me, yes, sir.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Anyone else? Any redirect?

6 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Well, thank you, Special Agent
8 Shilaikis, for coming in this morning. You are excused.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Please be careful on the way down with
11 those steps.

12 And then the rest of us are going to go ahead and take 13 our one-hour lunch break today. I do remind the jury during the 14 lunch break, please do not discuss this case with anyone, not 15 even your fellow jurors. You may speak to them about other
16 things, but not about this case. Also, please do not read or 17 listen to or review anything that touches upon this case in any 18 way nor attempt to perform any research or any independent
19 investigation.

20 If you do have a question, please write it down. And 21 do not form any opinion until after you have heard all of the 22 testimony, reviewed the evidence. I will provide you with the 23 written instructions of law to apply to the facts as you
24 determine the facts to be. And then you will hear closing
25 arguments. After that, I will excuse you to begin

1 deliberations. That's when you will begin to discuss the case
2 with each other, express your opinions, and so forth, but not
3 until then should you begin your deliberation process.

4 So we'll go ahead and stand up for the jury and excuse
5 them for their lunch break. We'll welcome them back at 1
6 o'clock.

7 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 12:01 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: All right. Before we go off record, I want
9 to address the -- you can go ahead and have a seat -- the 10 conduct of Defendant Parker during sidebar. Twice I saw him
11 turn around and talking to Mr. Drexler. I didn't see if 12 Mr. Drexler responded, but when Mr. Parker saw me, then he 13 turned his chair around so that his back was facing me. And he 14 picked up a book and either put it on his lap or had it
15 somewhere where his elbows were bent.

16 So, Mr. Marchese, did you want to make any statement
17 for the record?

18 MR. MARCHESE: I've addressed this with Mr. Parker. He 19 indicated to me he was looking at the back screen. Regardless,
20 I have instructed --

21 THE COURT: He was not looking up at the back screen,
22 which is way above even the heads of the marshals that were 23 standing up. He was looking straight at Mr. Drexler who was 24 sitting downward.

25 MR. MARCHESE: I have no -- I don't have any personal

1 knowledge, Your Honor. The position I was standing in, I would
2 have to -- you know, the partition is right there. But,
3 regardless, I have instructed him at any further sidebars to 4 either look down. Do not move his chair in any way, shape, or 5 form. Just look forward. Do not turn in any way, shape, or 6 form towards Mr. Drexler or Mr. Stewart or Mr. Lovelein.

7 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm not going to allow 8 Mr. Parker to return after the lunch break. He can come back in 9 after the afternoon bathroom break, but I'm not going to allow 10 him to be in the courtroom after lunch as a result of his 11 disobeying the Court's admonishment every day, day after day,
12 and he's well aware.

13 And the defendants have been getting closer and closer,
14 pushing that line. Multiple times I've had to tell them to quit
15 it and cut it out with the writing things on the notebook and 16 turning it towards the juror and so forth. And so I can't let 17 it go on because my fear actually is that if I don't do
18 something about it, they're going to do something even worse.

19 So I'm not going to let him return after the lunch
20 break. He can come back after the bathroom stretch break in the 21 middle of the afternoon.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: No, you've got an attorney. You speak
24 through him. You don't want to speak to me directly, trust me.
25 Let's go ahead and take our lunch break.

1 (Recess taken at 12:04 p.m.)

2 (Resumed at 1:19 p.m.)

3 THE COURT: All right. You may be seated. Thank you.
4 Go ahead and call in the jury.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

6 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 1:22 p.m.)

7 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. Everyone
8 else may be seated as well.

9 The Government may call its next witness.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. The Government
11 calls Special Agent Joel Willis.

12 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Agent Willis.

13 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon.

14 THE COURT: Come on up. Please be careful with the 15 steps.

16 JOEL WILLIS, having duly been sworn, was examined and
17 testified as follows:

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. You may be 19 seated. Please state your full name for the record and spell
20 your last name.

21 THE WITNESS: Joel Willis, W-I-L-L-I-S.

22 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Willis.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. You are currently a special agent with the Federal Bureau of 3 Investigation. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Where are you currently officed?

6 A. At the FBI office here in Las Vegas.

7 Q. How long have you been employed by the FBI?

8 A. 13 and a half years.

9 Q. And all of that time as a special agent?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Was the Las Vegas office your first office?

12 A. No, I was assigned to the Newark, New Jersey/Philadelphia
13 office for five years before here.

14 Q. Now, in the course of your duties at the Las Vegas field 15 office, were you assigned an investigation into the events of
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What was your assignment?

19 A. To oversee all evidence collection, interviews, and 20 documentation of the investigation into the events of April
21 12th, 2014.

22 Q. And was that essentially as a case agent?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Had you -- before being assigned as a case agent in this 25 investigation, had you been involved in other criminal

1 investigations as well?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Just ballpark how many.

4 A. Between 50 and 100.

5 Q. Aside from your entry into the FBI and going through the FBI
6 Academy, have you had other specialized training as well?

7 A. Yes, I have.

8 Q. In connection with this investigation in particular, have 9 you had training and experience with respect to reviewing social
10 media?

11 A. Yes, we call it social media exploitation. And it's 12 basically identifying information, digital information,
13 collecting that evidence, and documenting it into a case file.

14 Q. And when I use the term "social media," what generally does
15 that mean for you?

16 A. Information sharing through the Internet.

17 Q. And we've talked about during the course of this trial
18 Facebook. That qualifies as social media?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. How about YouTube?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And I'm not sure we've talked much about YouTube, but what 23 generally is YouTube?

24 A. YouTube is an Internet video-sharing platform or website.

25 Q. Now, in the course of your investigation of the events of

1 April 12, have you reviewed social media looking for images from
2 that date?

3 A. Yes, I have.

4 Q. And just generally, we'll drill down a little bit to more
5 specifics, but generally explain what type of investigative
6 technique, for example, you used when reviewing social media?

7 A. Well, it's very simple. I would typically go -- go onto the 8 Internet. Do search terms. If it was something to do with 9 Bundy or April 12, 2014, basically start there where anybody
10 else would start and then drill down into different social media
11 websites like Facebook and YouTube. And I would then collect or 12 capture screen shots, capture and download photographs and 13 videos, and then I would document those things into our case
14 file.

15 Q. Are you familiar with the term "public source"?

16 A. Yes, very.

17 Q. What generally does that mean?

18 A. Public source or open source is something that is generally
19 available to the public. You would not need a user name or a
20 password or any type of special permission to access this
21 information on the Internet.

22 Q. So any member of the public could go onto one of those sites
23 and look for something?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. That's what you refer to as open source?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. So as part of your investigation, did you review reopen
3 source?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. Now, during the course of this trial thus far, we've heard
6 from an individual named Alex Ellis. Are you familiar with 7 Mr. Ellis?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And he referred to a film that was obtained or captured,
10 excuse me, a video captured by an individual by the name of 11 Michael Flynn?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Are you familiar with that?

14 A. Yes, I am.

15 Q. In the course of your investigation, have you reviewed the 16 video that was captured by Mr. Flynn from April 12?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you, in fact, obtain that video from him?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. Now, we've also heard from an individual by the name of Trey
21 Schillie. Do you recall that testimony?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Had you interviewed Mr. Schillie?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. And did you obtain images and data from Mr. Schillie as

1 well?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. In the course of your investigation, have you reviewed all
4 of that?

5 A. Yes, I have.

6 Q. We also heard from a Special Agent McEwen concerning aerial
7 surveillance video. Do you recall that testimony?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. During the course of your investigation, have you reviewed
10 that aerial?

11 A. Yes, I have.

12 Q. And just generally speaking, when you say you reviewed it,
13 what are you referring to?

14 A. I'm referring to reviewing the video by playing it on a
15 media player on a computer. So I'm reviewing the digital
16 information that was collected from that aerial photography.
17 And oftentimes or actually throughout the entire video,
18 reviewing it numerous times frame by frame, slowing it down,
19 speeding it up, things like that.

20 Q. Now, aside from that surveillance film, were there any other
21 surveillance films from the northbound 15 that day on April 12,
22 2014?

23 A. As far as official surveillance?

24 Q. Correct.

25 A. No.

1 Q. So there were no, like, pole cameras out there or anything
2 by the Nevada State Highway Department out there that would
3 capture images?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Now, during the course of your investigation, however, or 6 during the events of April 12th, 2014, on the northbound bridge,
7 were there other -- were there other people there capturing
8 images as well?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. We already talked about Schillie and we've talked about 11 Flynn, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. But there were other individuals as well?

14 A. Yes, there were.

15 Q. As part of your investigation, was -- were you tasked with 16 trying to obtain the identity of some of the people who may be 17 capturing images out there?

18 A. Yes, I was.

19 Q. Now, have you also reviewed the video that Special Agent
20 Shilaikis captured that day?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how about with respect to Sergeant Serena?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You reviewed that video as well?

25 A. Yes, I did.

1 Q. And did you review the video that was captured by Trooper
2 Madsen's dash cam?

3 A. Yes, I have.

4 Q. Now, I also want to talk a little bit about the area out
5 there near Bunkerville at the northbound 15. Did you -- have 6 you physically visited the site where the -- what we've referred
7 to as the ICP, where that was located?

8 A. Yes, I have.

9 Q. Approximately how many times have you visited that site?

10 A. Approximately six times. I'm pretty confident six times, 11 actually.

12 Q. And as part of your investigation, have you walked that 13 ground where the ICP is?

14 A. Yes, I have.

15 Q. How about the area which people have identified, witnesses
16 have identified, as Post 1?

17 A. Yes, I have.

18 Q. How about the area that people have identified as Post 2?

19 A. Yes, I have.

20 Q. Have you been up on the northbound bridge?

21 A. Yes, I have.

22 Q. And have you been down in the wash?

23 A. Yes, I have.

24 Q. Now, how about the area that's south of Post 1 across the 25 freeway which we've identified and referred to as sort of the

1 parking area, makeshift parking area, or the assembly area?

2 A. Yes, I have been there.

3 Q. Also, in the course of your investigation, have you been to 4 the area that -- where the stage was located on April the 12th,
5 2014?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Have you walked through that area?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Are you familiar with the terrain in that area?

10 A. Yes, I am.

11 Q. Now, in the course of your investigation, does the name
12 Dennis Michael Lynch -- is that familiar to you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And who is Dennis Michael Lynch?

15 A. Dennis Michael Lynch was a photographer that was in the 16 Bunkerville area on April 12, 2014, representing Fox News.

17 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we draw up what's been 18 previously admitted as Exhibit 6A and just play the first 19 portion of that?

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Did you say 6A?

21 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Exhibit 6A. Correct. It should be --
22 it should be 6A.

23 Has 6A not been admitted? Okay. If you could just 24 draw up just for the witness -- Your Honor, permission just to 25 draw up for the witness only Exhibit 6A.

1 THE COURT: All right. Just for the witness.

2 MR. MYHRE: And that's fine. Right there, 9 seconds
3 into 6A.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. Agent Willis, is this image here from images captured on
6 April the 12th, 2014?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, calls for speculation.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

11 THE COURT: The objection was speculation. Do you want
12 to lay a foundation for how he would know that this is --

13 MR. MYHRE: Sure, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: -- the video?

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Well, first of all, is this part of Exhibit 6 that has 17 already been admitted?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And do you recognize an individual in this who's 20 wearing a blue shirt?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. In Exhibit 6A?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And is that individual -- who is that individual?

25 A. Dennis Michael Lynch.

1 Q. And, again, this is a portion of the video that's already
2 been admitted into evidence, correct?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 MR. MYHRE: We offer Exhibit 6A, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Any other objection?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: As to foundation as to how he knows
7 Mr. Lynch and he knows that's Mr. Lynch.

8 MR. MYHRE: I'll be glad to lay that, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. So did you meet with Mr. Lynch?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did he identify himself to you?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. Did you verify his identity?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 MR. MYHRE: And, again, we offer 6A, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Any other objection?

19 MR. MARCHESI: None from Parker.

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

22 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 6A is admitted. You
24 may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 (Government's Exhibit 6A is admitted.)

2 MR. MYHRE: And I'm just going to play the first eight
3 seconds.

4 (Video playing.)

5 MR. MYHRE: And you can stop there.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And, Agent Willis, if you could just -- you see the 8 individual there holding a camera?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Who is that?

11 A. That's Dennis Michael Lynch.

12 Q. Now, you've indicated that you met with him. Is that
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you interviewed him?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And as part of your investigation, did you issue a subpoena
18 to Mr. Lynch?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And just for record purposes, we're all sort of familiar
21 with it, but what is a subpoena?

22 A. A subpoena is a -- for this video segment collection that 23 Dennis Michael Lynch provided to us. It is a document that is 24 from the grand jury of a district court, Federal District Court,
25 that requests and compels a person to provide the information

1 requested within the -- one of the attachments for the subpoena.
2 So, again, for this case it would have been the 3 video/photographic evidence that he would have possessed from 4 April 12, 2014, requesting that.

5 Q. And as a special agent of the FBI, are you authorized to 6 serve subpoenas?

7 A. Yes, I am.

8 Q. And did you serve one to Mr. Lynch?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Did you receive a response from that subpoena?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. What did you receive back?

13 A. Approximately 120 video segments that had been captured by 14 Mr. Lynch on April 12th, 2014.

15 Q. And how were you able to verify that they were captured on
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. By reviewing them, number one, but, more importantly, this 18 is what he provided to us and explained to us during the 19 interview --

20 Q. I don't want to talk about the explanation.

21 A. Oh.

22 Q. That's what he provided in response to the subpoena?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And did the subpoena ask for video images from April 12,
25 2014?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, when you reviewed the various videos, were you -- how 3 were you able to verify from looking at the video whether it was
4 from April the 12th, 2014?

5 A. The video itself was -- did not include accurate metadata
6 that would tell me when that video was created, the correct date
7 and time. So I used just my knowledge of other admitted
8 evidence and evidence -- video, photo, audio evidence that has
9 been collected to verify that the events depicted in Dennis
10 Michael Lynch's videos are consistent with other video, photo,
11 and audio that was captured on that day.

12 Q. So all the things that we've talked about previously that 13 you reviewed, you used that base of knowledge to compare them to 14 what Mr. Lynch gave you?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. When you say that there was no metadata there, to what are 17 you referring?

18 A. Metadata is typically information within the properties of a
19 data file. So if it's again an audio, video, photograph on a
20 computer, if you right click and go down to Properties, click
21 Properties, you can get information, including GPS information, 22 the type of camera that was used, and of course the date and 23 time that that image was created and/or modified.

24 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, so may we call up for the 25 witness only what's been marked as Exhibit 19, please?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. And, Agent Willis, do you recognize what's been marked as
4 Exhibit 19?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And you've seen this before, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what is Exhibit 19?

9 A. This image right now is depicting the rally site or staging
10 area in Bunkerville, Nevada, on Riverside Road, which is also
11 State Route 170, on April 12, 2014.

12 Q. And how do you know that it's, first of all, the stage area
13 at Riverside Road?

14 A. Well, there is a stage, but also near that stage there are 15 two flagpoles with a banner strung in between them. And I'm -- 16 there's other things in the background of that image, the 17 terrain, the road, things like that that I'm familiar with based 18 on my review of other evidence.

19 Q. And you walked that area as well?

20 A. Yes, I have.

21 Q. The images that are depicted there appear -- there appear to 22 be people gathered at that site. Is that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Is that consistent with other images you viewed in terms of 25 the gathering on April 12th, 2014?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what other types of images that -- for example, is it
3 consistent with the images you reviewed from the Michael Flynn
4 video?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And how is it consistent with the Flynn video?

7 A. Well, the Flynn video would have been from a different
8 vantage point of this, but it's the same people in the crowd
9 that you can see in the Dennis -- I'm sorry -- in the Michael 10 Flynn videos.

11 Q. But this video is taken from a different vantage point. Is
12 that correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's Exhibit
15 19 for identification.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 19?

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on foundation, Your Honor.
18 I think he's testified it's based on inaccurate metadata that 19 he's piecing together.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins. He's not the individual
21 that took these videos nor was he there on the date and time.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins on those grounds.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins as well.

24 THE COURT: He's not seeking to admit the metadata,
25 right?

1 MR. MYHRE: That's correct, Your Honor. We're offering
2 these images under 901(b)(4), the specific characteristics that
3 the agent will be able to identify from his investigation and 4 from other known sources of media that he has reviewed such as 5 the Michael Flynn video.

6 THE COURT: All right. Well, 901(b)(4), Distinctive
7 Characteristics and the Like. The appearance, contents,
8 substance, internal patterns, or other distinctive 9 characteristics of the item, taken together with all the 10 circumstances.

11 On that basis the objections are overruled and Exhibit
12 19 is admitted.

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. May we publish?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Government's Exhibit 19 is admitted.)

16 (Video playing.)

17 MR. MYHRE: And if we could stop there at 32 seconds,
18 please. And, Nicole, if you could back up to about 27 seconds,
19 please.

20 So the record should reflect that we stopped the video
21 at 32 and backed up to 27 seconds.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Agent Willis, do you see a truck in the foreground of this
24 image?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Have you been able, during the course of your investigation,
2 to determine the registration for that truck?

3 A. Yes, I have.

4 Q. And have you done that by viewing images that are
5 consistent --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, this is purely foundational, as 8 counsel knows.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, it's not foundational in 10 terms of this picture shows no license plate. So counsel's
11 leading him through. Just ask him how does he know that.
12 That's one --

13 MR. MYHRE: I'm not -- I can get there a different way,
14 Your Honor, if that's ...

15 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead and do it the long
16 way.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Did you -- in the course of identifying the registration for 19 this vehicle, did you review other images?

20 A. Yes, I have.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we call up for the witness
22 Exhibit 40, please?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 (Video playing.)

25 MR. MYHRE: And we can stop there. And if you could

1 just back it up a little bit, please. Thank you.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Now, Agent Willis, looking at Exhibit 40, do you recognize
4 this image?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. Where did you -- did you obtain this image?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. How did you obtain it?

9 A. This was on YouTube.com. Doing a search similar to what I
10 was mentioning earlier with a Google search for Bundy Ranch
11 produced a number of results. This was one of them. And once I
12 discovered this video, I downloaded it off of YouTube and 13 documented it in our case file.

14 Q. And does this image depict a vehicle in it?

15 A. Yes, it does.

16 Q. Is that consistent with the image that we viewed in Exhibit
17 19?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. Can you tell where this image was captured?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And where was that?

22 A. This would be to the -- on the south portion of the staging
23 area or rally site in Bunkerville, Nevada.

24 Q. And how do you recognize that?

25 A. Again, the flagpoles with the banner between. There's a

1 camper to the right, the road, the terrain on either side of the 2 road.

3 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 40.

4 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 40?

5 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, same objection as before with 6 respect to the metadata and the issue that was raised prior.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

10 THE COURT: All right. I didn't hear anything about 11 the metadata on this one.

12 MR. MYHRE: It's not being offered for metadata, Your 13 Honor, just for the images that have been captured.

14 THE COURT: And this is -- he testified he downloaded
15 it from YouTube.

16 MR. MYHRE: That's correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And publicly available. All right.
18 Exhibit 40 -- objection's overruled. Exhibit 40 is admitted.
19 You may go ahead and publish it.

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 (Government's Exhibit 40 is admitted.)

22 MR. MYHRE: If we could just start from the beginning.

23 (Video playing.)

24 MR. MYHRE: No audio. Thank you. And you can stop
25 there. And the record should reflect we stopped at 12 seconds.

1 Now, if we could just back up back to the beginning, please.

2 And the record should reflect that we're back at the
3 very beginning of this segment.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. In that brief segment we saw there, Agent Willis, again,
6 just describe for us what we're seeing in the image that is now
7 before the jury.

8 A. Well, in the foreground is the back of a white-colored Ford
9 Ranger truck, pickup truck. In the background is the two poles
10 with the banner in between. It looks like there might be a
11 media truck in front of the Ranger pickup truck. There's a
12 camper to the right of that. There's a road, which is Riverside
13 Road, S.R. 71, a hill to the left, and terrain on the right that 14 I recognize.

15 Q. Now, on this -- on the vehicle we see a license plate. Is
16 that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. And were you able to obtain registration information
19 pertaining to that license number?

20 A. Yes, I was.

21 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer -- excuse me.
22 May we call up for the witness Exhibit 177, please?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Do you see 177, Agent Willis?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. And what is that?

3 A. This is a report from a registration inquiry of the Montana
4 DMV.

5 Q. Did you obtain this in the course of your investigation?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. And does it bear indicia that it's an official document?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what indicia is that?

10 A. It's notarized, and it's also -- it's -- I believe it's 11 notarized, and it's also signed by a -- I guess a Montana County
12 official, somebody from the -- representative from the DMV.

13 Q. And in your training and experience, is this consistent with 14 other registration documents you've seen?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government Exhibit
17 177.

18 THE COURT: Any objection?

19 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

22 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

23 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 177 is admitted.

24 MR. MYHRE: And thank you, Your Honor. And may we 25 publish as well?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

2 (Government's Exhibit 177 is admitted.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Does the information in Exhibit 177 correspond to the 5 license plate number that we saw in the previous image of
6 Exhibit 40?

7 A. Yes, it does.

8 Q. And can you point out, just generally circle, where that is.

9 And would you read into the record what the 10 registration -- excuse me -- the license number is?

11 A. 565491B, as in Bravo.

12 Q. Does this document indicate the individual to whom that 13 vehicle is registered?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And who is that individual?

16 A. Ricky Ray Lovelein.

17 MR. MYHRE: And you can take that down. Thank you.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Are you familiar with an individual by the name of Hugh 20 Gourgeon?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And who is Hugh Gourgeon?

23 A. Hugh Gourgeon was an individual that was in the area of 24 Bunkerville, Nevada, and on the northbound I15 bridge on April
25 12, 2014.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, foundation.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Were you able to meet Mr. Gourgeon?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you identify him?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And did you identify his photograph or images in or around
8 the northbound 15?

9 A. Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Objection overruled.

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Now, during the course of your investigation, you talked
13 about reviewing open source Facebook pages, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show for the 16 witness what has been marked as Exhibit 147?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. You see Exhibit 147 before you?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. And what is 147?

22 A. 147 is a screen capture from the Facebook page of Hugh
23 Gourgeon.

24 Q. Who captured that image?

25 A. There was an agent assigned to this project that I oversaw,

1 but it was another FBI agent in my field office.

2 Q. And was this entered into evidence?

3 A. Yes, it was.

4 Q. Now, what is depicted in the exhibit?

5 A. What's depicted is a -- from the vantage point of the 6 northbound I15 bridge, including part of a Jersey barrier --

7 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I'm going to object. This
8 hasn't been entered into evidence.

9 MR. MYHRE: Just ...

10 THE COURT: Want just generally?

11 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Just generally, what's depicted in this image?

14 A. The northbound and southbound I15 bridge in Bunkerville,
15 Nevada.

16 Q. Was this image captured on or about April 12th or on April
17 12th, 2014?

18 A. Yes, it was.

19 Q. And are there distinctive characteristics in this image that 20 help you identify it as coming from April the 12th?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And can you identify for us some of those just generally
23 speaking?

24 A. The individuals that are depicted in the photograph, the 25 vehicles, and the general activity that is taking place when

1 this photograph was captured.

2 Q. There appear to be vehicles on that southbound lane,
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Are the images of those vehicles visible in other media that
6 you reviewed?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what type of media?

9 A. The aerial FBI plane footage.

10 Q. So from the aerial FBI plane footage you were able to verify
11 that those vehicles were on that southbound bridge at that time?

12 A. Yes, I am.

13 Q. On April 12, 2014?

14 A. Yes, I am.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 147.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 147?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects. It's our position that 18 we don't even know if this individual, this Mr. Gurgeon, is the 19 one who took this photo. Another agent apparently is the one
20 who took it off of a Facebook at some point around April 12th.
21 So it's our position, with all due respect to Agent Willis, he 22 cannot authenticate this particular document.

23 THE COURT: Any other objection?

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

2 MR. MYHRE: Same position, Your Honor. The agent
3 made -- excuse me -- can authenticate through the specific
4 characteristics available and other known media and specifically
5 in this case the aerial photographs. And whether the Hugh
6 Gourgeon portion of it is -- that's what is part of that image.

7 THE COURT: All right. So the objection's overruled
8 pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 901(b)(4). This exhibit,
9 No. 147, is admitted.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. And may we publish?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Government's Exhibit 147 is admitted.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. 147 is now available to the jury as well. And, Agent
15 Willis, would you please just on your screen there just circle
16 the portion of this image that identifies Mr. Gourgeon.

17 A. Sorry. The screen doesn't seem to be liking me.

18 Q. I've circled for you. Do you see where I've circled?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And in those two places it identifies Mr. Gourgeon, correct?

21 A. Yes, it does.

22 Q. And this was -- again, it appears to be from Facebook. Is
23 that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. The image that is below this, you had -- you spoke about

1 vehicles that you were able to verify, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And just are you able to circle those that you --

4 A. Yeah, I'll try it again.

5 No, it's not letting me circle.

6 Q. Okay. I'll do it. Tell me if, you know, we're --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. I just circled an image or a portion of the image on the 9 screen for you. Do you see that?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Okay. So you were able to verify those through the aerial 12 images you reviewed?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, the individual in the lower portion of this -- of this 15 image, have you been able to identify that person?

16 A. Yes, I have.

17 Q. And who is that?

18 A. That's Scott Drexler.

19 Q. And how do you know that?

20 A. By his hat, his hair, the vest that I could see, a portion 21 of his shirt that I can see, his rifle, the blanket that he is
22 leaning on, and when I've compared it to other admitted
23 photographic and video evidence.

24 MR. MYHRE: And specifically, Your Honor, may we draw
25 up Exhibit 14, please?

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: If we could advance to 1:27.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. This is from what video?

5 A. This is an Alex Ellis or Michael Flynn video taking -- taken
6 after the stand-off and before the cattle have been released on
7 April 12, 2014.

8 MR. MYHRE: And, again, the record should reflect that
9 we've drawn up Exhibit 14 at 1:27.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And who is the individual depicted in this image at that
12 time?

13 A. Scott Drexler.

14 Q. As we see Mr. Drexler in this image, is that -- the clothing
15 he's wearing is on what date?

16 A. On April 12, 2014.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, foundation.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. The date this image was taken was what?

20 A. April 12th, 2014.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay.

22 MR. MYHRE: This is an admitted exhibit.

23 THE COURT: Well, the objection was foundation. So how 24 does he know it's that date and not a different date?

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. This exhibit has already been entered into evidence. Is
2 that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And it was entered in by Mr. Ellis?

5 A. Yes, it was.

6 Q. And he testified he was out there on April 12th, 2014?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And verified the images as occurring on that date?

9 A. Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Objection overruled.

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Now, in terms of the clothing and how he's attired and so
13 forth, did you use this image as part of your ability to 14 identify images captured in other medium?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Including what we just looked at in Exhibit 147. Is that
17 correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Now, we talked about subpoenas earlier. You met with 20 Mr. Gourgeon, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And did you issue him a subpoena as well?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Just generally speaking, what was -- what did you seek in 25 the subpoena?

1 A. I -- the same thing as Mr. Lynch was any photographic, video
2 evidence, audio evidence that he might have collected on April
3 12, 2014, in the Bunkerville area.

4 Q. Did he respond to the subpoena?

5 A. Yes, he did.

6 Q. Did he provide anything to you?

7 A. A thumb drive.

8 Q. And what was contained on the thumb drive?

9 A. Approximately 46 photographs and seven video segments,
10 digital files.

11 Q. Did you review all of those?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Were they consistent or not consistent with images from
14 April 12th?

15 A. They were consistent.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we draw up what's been
17 previously marked as Exhibit 13?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to approximately 33
20 seconds in. I'm sorry. It would be 13A.

21 (Video playing.)

22 MR. MYHRE: Back just a tad. Okay. Thank you. We're 23 at 32 seconds on Exhibit 13A.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Now, do you see any images you recognize in this particular

1 segment of the video?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And who do you recognize?

4 A. I recognize a couple people in this image. Let me see if my
5 screen's working. That is Hugh Gourgeon in the yellow shirt.

6 And that is Trey Schillie.

7 Q. Is that the same Mr. Schillie who testified in this
8 courtroom?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Excuse me.

11 And this image was again taken on April the 12th, 2014?

12 A. Yes, it was.

13 Q. By Mr. Flynn?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. You may take that down.

16 Now, Your Honor, may we bring up for the witness what's
17 been marked as Exhibit 137?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Do you see 137 before you, Mr. -- or excuse me -- Agent
21 Willis?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. What is this generally an image of?

24 A. In general, it's people standing near the rally site/staging
25 area in Bunkerville, Nevada. There's a hill in the background

1 with several people on horseback on the hills.

2 Q. Where did you obtain this image from?

3 A. Hugh Gourgeon.

4 Q. Was that part of the image that he -- those images he
5 provided you?

6 A. Yeah, with -- from the subpoena response.

7 Q. And you talked about -- you mentioned about the hill.
8 What's on top of the hill?

9 A. On top of the hill is several people on horseback, a number
10 of them are holding flags, it appears.

11 Q. And does this image contain the specific characteristics of 12 other known images that you've obtained from April the 12th,
13 2014?

14 A. Yes, it does.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 137.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to 137?

17 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

20 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

21 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 137 will be admitted.

22 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

23 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 (Government's Exhibit 137 is admitted.)

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And do you recognize any individuals in this particular
2 image?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. And who do you recognize?

5 A. I recognize Mr. Ricky Ray Lovelein. He's standing there
6 with I guess like an olive-colored shirt, brown shirt, a
7 wristwatch. He has like a band around his waist, a handgun.

8 Q. Are you able to circle his image? Is your screen working
9 well enough?

10 A. Yeah. Let's see if ...

11 Q. Thank you.

12 A. It works this time.

13 Q. How were you able to identify this individual as Ricky Ray
14 Lovelein?

15 A. A couple things. Based on other photographic and video
16 evidence from that day, but also based on his facial features
17 and his tattoo that's on his left forearm.

18 Q. And if we could, could you just circle where the tattoo is
19 there.

20 Thank you. And if we could draw a close-up on that.

21 You see the enlarged image in front of you,

22 Agent Willis?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. If you would just circle the tattoo again, please.

25 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, if we may draw up Exhibit

1 130 -- what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 132, page 4.

2 And are we able to put those side-by-side?

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. And 132-4, page 4, is what, Agent Willis, the image to your
5 left?

6 A. That is one of the booking photos after Mr. Lovelein was 7 arrested on --

8 Q. But it's for -- it pertains to Mr. Lovelein?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And is that consistent or not consistent with the image to 11 the right?

12 A. It's consistent.

13 Q. Is that a point of identification that you've used to 14 identify Mr. Lovelein?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: You can take those down. Thank you.

17 Your Honor, may I show the witness what has been 18 previously marked as Exhibit 20, please?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 (Video playing.)

21 MR. MYHRE: And thank you.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Do you recognize the images captured in Exhibit 20?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. And what are those images of, generally speaking?

1 A. Individuals standing near or in the staging area/rally site
2 in Bunkerville, Nevada, on April 12, 2014.

3 Q. And is this from images received from Mr. Dennis Michael 4 Lynch?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You said it was the staging area. Do you recognize specific 7 individuals in this image?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And who are they?

10 A. Ricky Ray Lovelein and Eric Parker.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 20 for
12 identification.

13 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 20?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection, Parker. This individual
16 is not the individual that took these particular videos. It's 17 our position that Mr. -- the individual that took the video was 18 the only one that could authenticate it.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would object on the grounds of 20 foundation. This witness has not testified as to what time this 21 was taken in.

22 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins the previous objection.

23 THE COURT: Government's response? Is this offered
24 under 90 --

25 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Again, we're offering

1 this under 901(b)(4). So the specific person taking it does not
2 have to testify. The agent's identified specific individuals in
3 this image. I can ask a further foundational question.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. Agent, looking at these images of the individuals that you
6 recognize, is their clothing consistent with other known images
7 from April the 12th, 2014?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And specifically with respect to Mr. Lovelein?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: And we believe we've laid sufficient
12 foundation, Your Honor, for authenticity.

13 THE COURT: Exhibit 20 will be admitted. You may go
14 ahead and publish it to the jury.

15 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 (Government's Exhibit 20 is admitted.)

17 (Video playing.)

18 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect the segment
19 lasted approximately 16 seconds. If we could back up to about 8
20 seconds, please.

21 I'm sorry. A little bit further. Maybe 5 seconds.
22 Thank you.

23 And the record should reflect the video stopped at 7
24 seconds.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Now, Agent, you said you recognize Mr. Lovelein. Could you
2 just circle where Mr. Lovelein is.

3 And is -- looking at this image to the person to the 4 right of Mr. Lovelein, do you know who that is?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And who is that?

7 A. That's Eric Parker.

8 Q. And how are you able to identify Mr. Parker?

9 A. His facial features from the side, including his beard,
10 tactical vest, the shirt that he is wearing that he is seen in 11 in other photographic and video evidence and has been admitted,
12 things like that. And his hat, black hat.

13 Q. And with respect to Mr. Lovelein, does he appear to have 14 any -- well, what is he wearing aside from what you've 15 identified in the previous photo?

16 A. He has a camouflage-pattern hat on, the 17 brownish-olive-colored shirt, dark band, and camouflage pants.

18 Q. Does he appear to have anything in his ear?

19 A. Yes. It's a little bit hard to see from this image, but he 20 has a -- kind of an opaque or clear earpiece in that's coming
21 down his left side from his left ear.

22 Q. If you could just circle that, please. Whoops.

23 MR. MYHRE: And just advance just one --

24 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry.

25 MR. MYHRE: If we could advance one second and see if

1 we can capture it. No. Go back. I'm sorry. Thank you. Right
2 there. Thank you.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Again, the image is stopped at 6 seconds. If you could just 5 circle it -- circle what you believe to be a device in his ear.

6 MR. MYHRE: And if we could zoom in on that a little
7 bit. Now it's somewhat blurry in this image.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Is this consistent with other images that you've seen?

10 A. Yes, it is.

11 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. You can take that down, please.

12 Your Honor, may we show the witness Exhibit 139?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Do you have Exhibit 139 before you?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. Do you recognize this image?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. Where was this image obtained?

20 A. Hugh Gourgeon.

21 Q. Was this part of the images that you reviewed from what you
22 obtained from him?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And do you recognize this as -- from April the 12th, 2014?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. And just generally speaking, what are the characteristics
2 that lead you to believe this is from April 12, 2014?

3 A. The people standing on the roadway and the individual who is
4 laying down on the roadway.

5 Q. And who's the individual laying down on the roadway?

6 A. Eric Parker.

7 Q. And you're able to from this image identify his clothing?

8 A. Yes, I am.

9 Q. Is it consistent with what he was wearing on April 12, 2014,
10 as seen in other images?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 139.

13 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 39?

14 MR. MYHRE: 139.

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry, 139.

16 MR. MARCHESI: Same objection Parker.

17 MR. TANASI: Same from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same, Your Honor. And I didn't hear if 19 this was an image or captured from a video. So I would say
20 foundationally from that.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre, you want to clarify whether this 22 is a photograph or a video?

23 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Do you know whether this was a photograph or a video that

1 was obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

2 A. A photograph.

3 THE COURT: Any other objection?

4 All right. Government's response the same to the --

5 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: -- continuing objection?

7 MR. MYHRE: 901(b)(4).

8 THE COURT: All right. The objection is overruled.

9 Exhibit 139 is admitted. You may go ahead and publish it.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 (Government's Exhibit 139 is admitted.)

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Agent Willis, we talked about again -- for each of these 14 we're going to go over certain characteristics so that you are 15 able to explain to the jury how it's from April the 12th, 2014.

16 Could you identify for the jury what -- the 17 characteristics from this image that you find consistent with 18 known images that you viewed from April 12, 2014?

19 A. Yes. So Mr. Parker laying in the prone position with his 20 black hat, his black vest, his pattern plaid-type shirt, his 21 pants. He has a large knife on his right side, as well as other
22 individuals on that bridge, including a couple photographers or 23 a few photographers, and other people that I have observed in 24 other video and photographic evidence.

25 Q. Well, while we're talking about photographers, have you

1 identified individuals as photographers in this image?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And who are those individuals?

4 A. This individual is Jim Urquhart, Urquhart.

5 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the
6 witness has circled the individual -- the image of an individual
7 to the left-hand side of the screen.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Who is he again?

10 A. Jim Urquhart.

11 Q. And who does -- does Mr. Urquhart work for someone?

12 A. He's a photographer for primarily Reuters.

13 Q. And how about the individual to the right of where you've 14 circled Mr. Parker?

15 A. I do not know the identity of this person, but this
16 person -- their photographs were located by me on a Facebook
17 page titled Citizens Action Network.

18 Q. The individual you've just circled now to the right of 19 Mr. Parker, is that -- does that person appear in other images
20 that we will see?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Now, just to go back just so the record is 23 clear with respect to Mr. Parker. Your Honor, may we draw up
24 Exhibit 14 at 18 seconds?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 MR. MYHRE: That's good. And the record should reflect
2 we're at Exhibit 14, 18 seconds.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. And we've seen this image before, but is this one of the 5 images that you've used to verify the clothing Mr. Parker was 6 wearing that today?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And this Exhibit 14 again is from whom?

9 A. Michael Flynn and Alex Ellis.

10 Q. Just for record purposes, if you could just describe --
11 first of all, point out Mr. Parker in this image.

12 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the agent has 13 circled the individual wearing the black hat with the white
14 insignia.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. And just for record purposes, describe generally again the 17 clothing from this known image.

18 A. His black hat with the white emblem on the front, facial
19 hair, his shirt, and his black tactical vest he's wearing.

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. You can bring that down.

21 Your Honor, may we draw up Exhibit 141, please?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 MR. MYHRE: For the witness only.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And do you recognize Exhibit 141?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. Generally speaking, what is depicted in that exhibit?

3 A. Eric Parker laying in the prone position on a roadway.

4 Q. And was this -- where was this image obtained from?

5 A. Hugh Gourgeon.

6 Q. Is it consistent with the clothing that Mr. Parker was 7 wearing on April 12, 2014?

8 A. Yes, it is.

9 Q. And where was this image taken?

10 A. This was taken face --

11 Q. Just location. Was it --

12 A. Oh. Northbound.

13 Q. Northbound 15?

14 A. Northbound I15 bridge near Bunkerville, Nevada.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 141.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 141?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Continuing objection Parker.

18 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

21 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 141 will
23 be admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Government's Exhibit 141 is admitted.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. Now, Agent Willis, you talked about metadata. When you
3 received the images from Mr. Gourgeon, was there metadata
4 contained in there?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you already described generally what that is, but from 7 that metadata were you able to derive also dates that these 8 images were taken?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that would have been April the 12th?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Were you also able to derive specific times?

13 A. Yes, on his images, his photographs, I was.

14 Q. And is that visible in this image we see here?

15 A. No. You would need to review the original image that was 16 provided to us, to the FBI, by Mr. Gourgeon. And again go
17 through that same process of right clicking, going to the 18 Properties, and reviewing the metadata information within that
19 image.

20 Q. Now, in the course of your investigation, have you been 21 asked to construct a timeline?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And in that timeline did you use the metadata to derive 24 specific times that these images were taken?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And have you compiled the results of your investigation and
2 analysis into an exhibit -- into an exhibit?

3 A. Yes, I have.

4 Q. And we're not going to talk about that now, but I just
5 wanted to raise that with you now.

6 While this image does not contain the time, you were 7 able to derive the time at -- through the process you just 8 described, correct?

9 A. Yes, I was.

10 Q. And in the process of pulling together this other exhibit,
11 you've indicated the times. Is that right?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we draw up Exhibit 142
14 for the witness only?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 MR. MYHRE: 142. Thank you.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Agent Willis, I'm going to go through the same series of 19 questions with you for all of these that are going to be 20 following.

21 Do you recognize Exhibit 142?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. And was this obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

24 A. Yes, it was.

25 Q. Do you recognize the individual in this image?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. Does the date and time appear on this image?

3 A. No, it does not.

4 Q. But it does appear in the metadata?

5 A. Yes, it does.

6 Q. And is the individual in this image -- who is that?

7 A. That is Scott Drexler.

8 Q. And you were able to identify him how?

9 A. By his attire, his clothing, his tactical vest, boots, and 10 his rifle.

11 Q. Based on your understanding of that area and your 12 investigation, where was this image captured?

13 A. This is captured on the northbound I15 bridge near 14 Bunkerville, Nevada.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 142.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to 142?

17 MR. TANASI: Same continuing objection Stewart, Your
18 Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Join.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

22 MR. MYHRE: And the same response, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 142 will be admitted.
24 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 (Government's Exhibit 142 is admitted.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. And, Agent Willis, do you use this image later in your
4 timeline?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we call up for the witness
7 Exhibit 143?

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. And what's been previously admitted as Exhibit 143, thank 11 you, is ...

12 M. MYHRE: If I could have just one moment, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yes, you can.

14 (Government conferring.)

15 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, looking at 143, you recognize Mr. Parker in this image,
18 correct?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And just indicate where he is.

21 The individual to his right, do you recognize that
22 individual?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. And have you been able to identify that person?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And who have you identified him as?

2 A. Steven Stewart.

3 Q. What -- and how is it that you're able to identify that
4 image as the image of Mr. Stewart?

5 A. Right there he has a blue shirt with a design on the back,
6 his jeans, he has a large knife on his left side, and also the
7 butt of the rifle that is leaning up against the Jersey barrier
8 in front of Mr. Stewart.

9 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we draw up what's been
10 previously admitted as Exhibit 14 at 47 seconds?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Video playing.)

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. And the record should reflect 14 that Exhibit 14 is up at 47 seconds.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Do you see Mr. Stewart depicted in this image?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And circle him, please.

19 And you've viewed Mr. Stewart in other images we're 20 going to see in the future, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. If you could just point out some of the features -- and this 23 is -- again, Exhibit 14 is from Ellis Flynn [sic]. Is that
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And this is the interview on the bridge, right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. If you could just please point out some of the features or
4 the distinctive characteristics of Mr. Stewart that you've used
5 to identify not only the image that we saw, but future images as
6 well?

7 A. His hair, his facial features, the blue shirt, and from this
8 vantage point it's from the front, but I believe it's some type
9 of like Orange County Choppers or something like that shirt with 10 a similar emblem on the front. His blue jeans, his tatoos, and 11 again the butt of the rifle that's in his right hand. In this 12 picture he has a backpack on. In the last picture he did not.

13 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we draw up Exhibit 5A
14 at 2 seconds as well?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. At about 2 seconds.
17 If you could play it forward from there, please.

18 (Video playing.)

19 MR. MYHRE: And just go back one last time to 2. Thank
20 you.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. And do you see Mr. Stewart in this image here at about 1
23 second?

24 MR. TANASI: Objection, leading.

25 THE COURT: Well, it's not leading. There's 30 people

1 in that picture, and he's asking if he can see Mr. Stewart.

2 It's overruled. He can answer the question.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, I can. Circle him right here.

4 MR. MYHRE: And he's circling.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And do you see anything that Mr. Stewart is wearing that's 7 distinctive to you?

8 A. Yes, my red line is kind of over it, but his shirt, blue
9 shirt, with the design on the back, his blue jeans. In this
10 image he's wearing a dark-colored hat, but he has the large
11 knife in a sheath, looks like a brown or leather sheath, with a
12 fluorescent pink label on it on his left side of his left thigh.

13 Q. And could we just focus on that area where --

14 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect, first of all,
15 that the witness has circled an individual at about the 2 second 16 interval of Exhibit 5A. If we could just enlarge that portion,
17 please.

18 And the record should reflect that image has been 19 enlarged.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. If you would, Agent Willis, identify what you previously
22 identified as the knife by circling it.

23 And is this consistent with the last image we saw at
24 Exhibit 143?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. "This" being the knife?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And are the blue jeans consistent with the jeans in 143?

4 A. Yes, they are.

5 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. You can bring that down.

6 Your Honor, may we call up for the witness Exhibit 144?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Do you have 144 before you, Agent?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. Generally speaking, what is this?

13 A. This is an image of Mr. Scott Drexler laying in the prone
14 position on a roadway.

15 Q. And was this obtained from Mr. Gurgeon?

16 A. Yes, it was.

17 Q. The clothing of Mr. -- the individual we identified as 18 Mr. Drexler, is that consistent with the clothing we've seen in 19 other images?

20 A. Yes, it is.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer --

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Other images from April the 12th, 2014? From April the
24 12th, 2014?

25 A. Yes, yes. I'm sorry.

1 Q. No, my bad. My apologies.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the Government offers Exhibit
3 144.

4 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 144?

5 MR. MARCHESE: Continuing objection Parker.

6 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

8 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

9 MR. MYHRE: And same response, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 144 will be admitted.
11 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

12 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Government's Exhibit 144 is admitted.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And, Agent Willis, this image at 144, this is taken from 16 where?

17 A. The northbound I15 bridge near Bunkerville, Nevada.

18 Q. And this image had embedded within it metadata?

19 A. Yes, it did.

20 Q. And it showed from April the 12th, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And a particular time?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you use this image later in the timeline you've 25 constructed?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we call up for the witness
3 Exhibit 145?

4 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And do you have 145 before you?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. What is depicted in this image?

9 A. This is a number of individuals walking on or standing to 10 the side of northbound I15 on the bridge near Bunkerville,
11 Nevada.

12 Q. This was obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

13 A. Yes, it was.

14 Q. And metadata was embedded in this image as well?

15 A. The -- this is a screen shot or still shot of a video that 16 was provided by Mr. Gourgeon. His videos did not have metadata
17 that were consistent or accurate with the date and time that 18 this was taken on April 12th.

19 Q. Do you recognize the clothing -- well, first of all, do you
20 recognize Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker in that image?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. Is it consistent with the clothing that they were wearing
23 April 12th, 2014?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you see vehicles in the background?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. And were you able to identify vehicles that are in the 3 background of this photo and verify them with aerial shots?

4 A. Yes. This -- yes, I was. I'll explain later.

5 Q. Did you use other -- did you use the aerial shots to verify
6 this -- by "aerial shots," I mean the aerial surveillance film.
7 Were you able to use that to verify other aspects of this image?

8 A. Yes, I was.

9 Q. And what were those?

10 A. Again, the vehicles traveling on the northbound I15 bridge
11 that were visible in the aerial photography or footage.

12 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 145.

13 THE COURT: Objections to 145?

14 MR. TANASI: Same continuing objection Stewart, Your
15 Honor.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

18 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

19 THE COURT: Same response from the Government?

20 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling, 901(b)(4). The 22 Exhibit No. 145 will be admitted. You may go ahead and publish
23 it to the jury.

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Government's Exhibit 145 is admitted.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. The image now that we see at 145?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Does this image appear later in your timeline as well?

5 A. Yes, it does.

6 Q. Just -- and, again, if you would circle where Mr. Drexler is
7 located.

8 MR. MYHRE: And the witness is circling the individual
9 in approximately the middle of the screen.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And Mr. Parker as well?

12 MR. MYHRE: And the witness has circled an individual
13 to the right of the individual he's identified as Mr. Drexler.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And, again, this is on the northbound, correct?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we offer or, excuse me,
18 show the witness what's been marked as Exhibit 146?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Do you see 146?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. Was this obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

24 A. Yes, it was.

25 Q. Is this also a screen shot from his video?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What's depicted in this screen shot?

3 A. Three individuals standing on a roadway as well as Mr. Scott
4 Drexler in a prone position with his rifle pointed in between a
5 gap in the -- in Jersey barriers on the bridge.

6 Q. And with respect to Mr. Drexler, is his clothing consistent
7 with other known images from April the 12th, 2014?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Aside from his clothing, what other aspects of this 10 photograph were you able to identify as specific to April the
11 12th, 2014?

12 A. There was individuals on the embankment of the southbound
13 I15 bridge that I've identified in other video and photographic
14 evidence.

15 Q. And is that evidence from April the 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's Exhibit
18 146.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object on new grounds as 20 to cumulative. This is the same picture just being shown over
21 and over, Your Honor, from a different angle. It's cumulative.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre?

1 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Is this image captured at a different time from the previous
4 images that we have previously seen?

5 A. It is captured at a different time, but this image depicts
6 other characteristics of the bridge, of the area, of the people
7 around that is unique to this image compared to the other image.

8 Q. And, specifically, with respect to the three individuals you
9 previously testified about, is that unique to this particular
10 image?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Just -- we're just up now just for the Court. If you would 13 just circle for the Court the image of the three individuals to 14 which you refer.

15 And those individuals you've identified from other
16 media?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And that's from April the 12th, 2014?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And, specifically, what media or images are you referring
21 to?

22 A. To the Michael Flynn videos, to the Dennis Michael Lynch
23 videos, through other Hugh Gourgeon photographs.

24 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 146.
25 It's unique.

1 THE COURT: All right. The objection's overruled.
2 Exhibit 146 is admitted.

3 (Government's Exhibit 146 is admitted.)

4 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Again, Agent, if you'd circle Mr. Drexler, please.

8 Now, the individuals about whom you just testified that 9 were on the south -- or the embankment on the southbound, would 10 you circle those individuals.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And describe for the record what you've just circled there.

13 A. I've circled three individuals who are crouching on the 14 non-road side of the southbound I15 bridge. So that would just 15 be the beginning of the embankment before the concrete or cement
16 skirt would begin and leads down into the wash.

17 I note from reviewing this image that they're all
18 wearing some type of camouflage clothing and hats.

19 MR. MYHRE: And if we could enlarge on that particular
20 portion. Just draw it up a little bit, more perspective on it.
21 Draw a larger area. There we go. Thank you.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. So now in this larger image if you could just draw little 24 lines to those individuals.

25 A. I'll put a line under each person.

1 Q. And in this image, this is taken from, again, what bridge?

2 A. This is taken from the northbound bridge.

3 Q. And it's looking in which direction?

4 A. North, towards the southbound bridge.

5 MR. MYHRE: If you could take that down, please.

6 And, Your Honor, may we draw up what's been previously
7 marked as Exhibit 21 at approximately 6:21?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 (Video playing.)

10 MR. MYHRE: And if I could get a time. There we go.
11 Thank you. If you would go back just two seconds. Thank you.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Now, we've heard this image is in front of the stage. Is
14 that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And we've heard testimony about this, but generally when was 17 this taken?

18 A. This would have been taken around 9:40 a.m. in the morning
19 on April 12, 2014.

20 Q. And during what event?

21 A. This would have been the -- when -- the time when Sheriff
22 Douglas Gillespie was on stage with Cliven Bundy and they both 23 spoke.

24 Q. Now, do you see -- you see some uniformed individuals in the 25 foreground here. Is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And were you able to -- from these uniforms, based on your
3 investigation and your training and experience, are you able to
4 identify any particular organizations these individuals belonged
5 to?

6 A. Yes, I was.

7 Q. And what organization is that?

8 A. The Arizona State Militia.

9 Q. And I believe that Mr. Ellis testified earlier that he
10 thought these people were Oath Keepers --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection as to commenting on someone 12 else's testimony.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Do you recall that testimony?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: That's not a legal objection. You can ...

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: You can comment on other people's
19 testimony?

20 THE COURT: You're not questioning the credibility of 21 the testimony, are you?

22 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor. I was just asking whether 23 he had recalled that testimony. He was present during the 24 testimony.

25 THE COURT: That's overruled. He can't ask him to say

1 whether or not another witness was lying or telling the truth.
2 Those kind of comments on testimony are not permitted, but just
3 to --

4 MR. MYHRE: I'm just -- all I'm doing --

5 THE COURT: Elicit it, yeah, as foundational for a
6 different question, that's permitted. Overruled.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: If I may be heard just briefly. I
8 think he is going because he asked about Arizona State Militia,
9 and I think Mr. Ellis testified this was a different group. So
10 it would go towards that.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I was just going to say
12 basically what was previously identified as Oath Keepers and ask
13 him to describe how he understands these to be Arizona State
14 Militia.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: That goes to credibility.

16 THE COURT: All right. Well, if it does -- if you
17 are -- if you are impeaching Mr. Ellis, then it is -- then the 18 objection is sustained to that extent.

19 MR. MYHRE: Well --

20 THE COURT: If you're asking a different question
21 without respect to the testimony of Mr. Ellis, then that would 22 be appropriate.

23 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. And I'll just -- we 24 can strike that answer, and I will move to strike it. We'll 25 just move on from there.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. With respect to the individuals that were in front of that
3 stage, okay, you indicated that you've identified them as
4 belonging to the Arizona State Militia?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What type of indicia did you look for in order to make that
7 identification?

8 A. A patch or something on their chest that would indicate an
9 affiliation with a militia, specifically the Arizona State
10 Militia.

11 Q. Now, based on your review of Exhibit 146, was that 12 consistent -- the image is that of the three individuals up on 13 the embankment on southbound?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Is that consistent or inconsistent with your identification
16 of Arizona State Militia?

17 A. Well, I couldn't see their patches from that image obviously 18 because it's so far away, but I know that all of those
19 individuals are also lined up --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, nonresponsive.

21 THE WITNESS: -- in front of this stage.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, nonresponsive.

23 MR. MYHRE: The nonresponsive objection, Your Honor,
24 belongs to the questioner, but irrespective of that, the -- he
25 was responding to the question of how he knows the individuals

1 on the southbound were Arizona State Militia.

2 THE COURT: All right. He may answer that question.

3 THE WITNESS: Again, all of those individuals are lined
4 up in front of the stage in close proximity to these other
5 people. And I can see just from this image that one of the 6 people who I have -- we have identified is actually wearing an
7 Arizona State Militia patch on his chest.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. On this image?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And if you could just circle that.

12 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 13 image is at 6:21, circling a patch on the individual who's 14 wearing camouflage and is about the left center of this screen.

15 And if we could just play forward of this a little bit.

16 (Video playing.)

17 MR. MYHRE: And back up -- just stop there and just 18 back up just a little bit. Play forward, please. Thank you.

19 (Video playing.)

20 MR. MYHRE: And stop there.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. This individual in the foreground here with the hat, were 23 you able to identify that individual?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. And how were you able to identify him?

1 A. By his activities on April 12th, 2014, including his vehicle
2 that is seen transporting other individuals which he would later
3 end up with on the embankment on the southbound I15 bridge in
4 Bunkerville.

5 MR. MYHRE: If we could take that down for the time
6 being.

7 And if we could, Your Honor, may I show the witness
8 what's been previously marked as Exhibit 24?

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 (Video playing.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. And do you recognize Exhibit 24?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. Was that obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what is it?

17 A. This is a video segment from which we had collected the 18 earlier screen shot. It includes Eric Parker in the prone
19 position with his rifle between the gap in the Jersey barrier
20 and Scott Drexler kneeling with his rifle in the low ready
21 position looking over the Jersey barrier north into the wash.

22 Q. And was -- this video you indicated was used to obtain the 23 screen shots we looked at, Exhibit 146?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And, again, it's consistent with April the 12th, 2014, the

1 other images you've seen, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. It was with all of the items that Mr. Gourgeon provided to
4 you, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. There are other images in the Gourgeon materials that are 7 time stamped with April 12, 2014, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And we see a number of vehicles in the video. Is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Are those -- were you able to also identify those vehicles
13 from the aerial surveillance film?

14 A. Yes, I was.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 24.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 24?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection as to cumulative, Your 18 Honor. It's the same picture that we've seen before.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins, also authentication.

20 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

22 MR. MYHRE: With respect to cumulative, Your Honor.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Agent Willis, was this used to time stamp other images in 25 your timeline?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 THE COURT: And the Court also doesn't find it to be
3 cumulative because the lady with a diamond shirt is in a
4 different location in each of these pictures.

5 All right. Exhibit 24 will be admitted. You may go
6 ahead and publish it.

7 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 (Government's Exhibit 24 is admitted.)

9 (Video playing.)

10 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 11 video stopped at 12 seconds.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Is that generally how you received it?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The images that we saw there, again, are from where?

16 A. These are from the northbound I15 bridge --

17 Q. From the perspective -- oh, I'm sorry.

18 The perspective of? Which direction are we looking?

19 A. Specifically, we would be looking northwest.

20 Q. And, again, in these images do we see Mr. Drexler and
21 Mr. Parker?

22 A. Yes, we do.

23 Q. Now, the vehicles we saw -- you saw vehicles go through in 24 this video, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did you use those vehicles to assist you in putting together
2 the timeline to time stamp some of these images that we've just
3 reviewed?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness
6 Exhibit 25?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. And did you see that, Agent Willis?

10 A. No, I'm sorry. Can you play it again?

11 (Video playing.)

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. And that image lasts about one second?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And was that the video you obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 Q. And is that identical to the image that we've looked at in
18 Exhibit 146?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And this image contains, again, the individuals on that 21 embankment on the southbound?

22 A. Yes, it does.

23 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 20.

24 THE COURT: It is 20 or 25? 25.

25 MR. MYHRE: 25, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yes, Exhibit 25. Any objection?

2 MR. TANASI: Same continuing objection, Your Honor.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection as to cumulative. It's 5 the same picture that we've seen already three times -- four 6 times now.

7 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

8 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, it's a video. It's not
9 the same -- same photograph.

10 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 25 will be admitted.
11 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

12 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Government's Exhibit 25 is admitted.)

14 (Video playing.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. And again, Agent Willis, did this video assist you in 17 constructing your timeline?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, did you also have an opportunity to review images that 20 were captured from a Dropbox?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And did you -- you were present for Agent Seyler's
23 testimony. Is that correct?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. And he discussed the Dropbox belonging to someone named

1 Shannon Bushman?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And did you review that Dropbox in the course of your
4 investigation for images that would assist you in putting
5 together this timeline?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness
8 what's been marked as Exhibit 159?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Do you see 159?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. And what is generally depicted in 159?

14 A. A number of individuals standing at the staging area/rally
15 site in Bunkerville, Nevada, on April 12, 2014.

16 Q. And do you recognize individuals depicted in this image?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And do you see -- do you see any of the defendants in this
19 image?

20 A. Yes, Ricky Ray Lovelein and Eric Parker.

21 Q. And what date does this appear to be taken?

22 A. April 12th, 2014.

23 Q. Now, in the Shannon Bushman photographs that were in --
24 obtained from the Dropbox, was metadata contained within those?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And did the metadata reflect images that these images were
2 taken on April the 12th, 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And is the clothing worn by the Defendants Parker and
5 Lovelein consistent with the clothing we've seen in other known
6 videos that have already been introduced into evidence?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offered Exhibit 159.

9 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 159?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection as to authentication.

11 This witness has no personal knowledge of what transpired on the 12 dates in question. He was not present.

13 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

15 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

16 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Same response. Same ruling. It's 18 admissible pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 901(b)(4).

19 Exhibit 159 is admitted. You may publish it to the jury.

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

21 (Government's Exhibit 159 is admitted.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, if you could, Agent Willis, you said the defendants are 24 indicated or, excuse me, depicted in this image. If you would 25 just for record purposes identify who they are.

1 A. Eric Parker and Ricky Ray Lovelein.

2 Q. Now, in this image with --

3 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the
4 witness has -- has put circles around two individuals in the
5 right portion of the screen. One wearing a black hat. Another
6 one wearing a camouflage hat.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Now, focussing on the individual identified as Mr. Lovelein,
9 from this image are you able to see whether there's any
10 communication device in Mr. Lovelein's ear?

11 A. Yes. He has an earpiece in his ear, and there's also a
12 hand-held radio on his left hip.

13 MR. MYHRE: And if we're able to focus in on that,
14 please. And the record should reflect we've enlarged the image.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. And, again, if you would point those out, please.

17 A. Earpiece in his left ear and hand-held radio on his left
18 hip.

19 Q. Now, based on your training and experience, what type of 20 device is it that you've just circled? Not necessarily the make 21 and model. What are those devices typically used for?

22 A. It's a communications device, just person to person or a
23 number of people can use them as long as everybody's on the same
24 radio frequency.

25 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go back to the broader

1 image, please.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Now, we talked about individuals with the Arizona State
4 Militia, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Do you see individuals in this image affiliated with Arizona
7 State Militia?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And are you able to point them out?

10 A. Yes, there's an individual there, an individual there.

11 Q. And is this -- and how are you able to discern that they
12 belong to the Arizona State Militia?

13 A. Based on other video and photo evidence, including the Flynn
14 and Lynch videos.

15 Q. Now, did you in the course of your investigation also review
16 conventional media like newspapers and network television shows
17 and so forth?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And your purpose in doing so was again to find images that 20 were relevant to your investigation of April 12th, 2014?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness
23 171?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And do you see Exhibit 171?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And where was this image obtained?

4 A. This was obtained from a Las Vegas Review Journal article
5 that was on the Internet. I believe it was published in March
6 of 2016, I believe.

7 Q. And what -- are any of the defendants depicted in this
8 image?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And specifically which one?

11 A. Ricky Ray Lovelein and Eric Parker.

12 Q. And is this consistent with the images -- other images we 13 viewed from April 12th, 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And is it consistent by the clothing being worn?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And is this simply a different angle from other images that 18 we've seen before?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And was this useful to you in constructing your timeline?

21 A. Yes, it was.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 171.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 171?

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on authenticity, Your
25 Honor, and chain of custody, and that the origin is unknown,

1 passes through to a media outlet, and then ultimately to the
2 FBI.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

6 THE COURT: Government's response?

7 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor. The unique
8 characteristics of this image more than qualifies it as 9 authentic from April 12, 2014.

10 THE COURT: Admissible pursuant to 901(b)(4). Exhibit
11 No. 171 is admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the
12 jury.

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 (Government's Exhibit 171 is admitted.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Again, Agent, if you would, just identify Mr. Lovelein for
17 us.

18 A. That's Ricky Ray Lovelein.

19 Q. And in this --

20 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
21 has circled an image to the far left of the screen.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. And in the image do you see any firearms that Mr. Lovelein
24 is carrying at all?

25 A. Yes, he has a handgun on his right hip.

1 Q. And if you would circle that, please.

2 And, again, with respect to his ear, do you see
3 anything there?

4 A. Yes, he has the earpiece that would be used for a
5 communications device such as this hand-held radio that's on his 6 left hip.

7 MR. MYHRE: So the record should reflect that within
8 the circle drawn around Mr. Lovelein the witness has drawn a
9 circle around the right hip area of Mr. Lovelein which appears
10 to be a firearm, as well as the left ear with the device affixed
11 to the left ear, as well as the left hip which appears to be 12 another device.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Taking that down, if you would circle the person you
15 identified as Mr. Parker.

16 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect that the witness
17 has circled an individual to the right of Mr. Lovelein.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And in this image do you see whether Mr. Parker is carrying 20 a firearm or not?

21 A. Yes, he has a handgun I just circled on his right thigh.

22 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
23 has, indeed, circled what appears to be a firearm on the right
24 thigh of the individual.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And what is that next to the left of the firearm?

2 A. He has a large knife in a sheath.

3 Q. Where is this -- based on your investigation and based on
4 your knowledge of that area, again, where is this image
5 captured?

6 A. This is at the staging area or rally site in Bunkerville,
7 Nevada.

8 Q. Would that have been on April the 12th?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Would it have been morning or afternoon?

11 A. This is morning.

12 Q. And how are you able to tell that?

13 A. Based on the review of other video and photo evidence that 14 is time stamped, I could tell by the positioning of not only the 15 defendants that are in the picture, but other individuals where 16 they're standing.

17 MR. MYHRE: And we can take that down.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Are you familiar with a website or a Facebook page called 20 Citizens Action Network?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What is that, just generally?

23 A. It's a Facebook page that seems to post things that -- any 24 type of -- I don't know -- an array of different things, but it
25 included an album for the Bundy Ranch and it included all of

1 photographs -- that album had photographs of April 12th, 2014,
2 and those events.

3 Q. How were you able to find this particular site?

4 A. It's as simple again as like a Google search, but instead of
5 on Google doing a Facebook search for terms, including Bundy
6 Ranch. And this is a result that came up based on that search.

7 Q. And what you viewed was available to the general public?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. This is what you referred to previously as open source?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: May we show Exhibit 161 to the witness,
12 Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And what is Exhibit 161?

16 A. This is an image of Scott Drexler kneeling with his -- with 17 a rifle low slung, but leaning on his left leg and he appears to 18 be on northbound I15 bridge looking north.

19 Q. Was this an image you obtained from the -- your review of 20 the Citizens Action Network Facebook?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Is the clothing that Mr. Drexler's wearing consistent with
23 April 12th, 2014?

24 A. Yes, it is.

25 Q. Are there other images in this image that we've captured

1 here that are consistent with known images you viewed from April
2 12th, 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what are those?

5 A. The -- well, the people in their position to Mr. Drexler's
6 left, but also the dark gray Dodge Ram pickup truck that is in 7 front of a gold-colored semi-truck with a white trailer that's
8 in the background of the image on I15.

9 Q. Okay. And where were you able to see those images?

10 A. Through the aerial footage.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's Exhibit
12 161.

13 THE COURT: Same objection to 161?

14 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Same response?

18 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 161 is admitted
20 under the same ruling. You may publish it to the jury.

21 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 (Government's Exhibit 161 is admitted.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Looking at 161 now, Agent Willis. Now this is before the 25 jury. Was this image time stamped within the Facebook page?

1 A. No, it was not.

2 Q. Were you able, however, to time stamp it?

3 A. Yes, I was.

4 Q. And as part of the time stamping, did you use this image and
5 incorporate it into the timeline which we will later present?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And in this image does Mr. Drexler appear also to be
8 carrying a handgun?

9 A. Yes, on his right hip.

10 MR. MYHRE: We can take that down for the time being.

11 May I show the witness Exhibit 172?

12 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Do you recognize 172, Agent?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. Was this an image captured from Citizens Action Network?

17 A. Yes, it was.

18 Q. And, generally, where was this -- were you able to use
19 special characteristics observed in this image to identify it as 20 an image from April 12th, 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what characteristics did you review in making that 23 determination?

24 A. The position of Mr. Eric Parker, the position of the people
25 in the wash, of the BLM Law Enforcement vehicles in the wash,

1 and of the National Park Service and BLM employees that are on
2 the other side of the cattle gate.

3 Q. So you've identified the individual in this photo as
4 Mr. Parker?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And that's based upon his clothing?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. With respect to the other characteristics you mentioned, the 9 people, for example, in the wash, was that verified from the 10 aerial surveillance?

11 A. Yes, it was.

12 Q. How about with respect to the BLM vehicles?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 172.

15 THE COURT: Continuing objection?

16 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. And I'd also add to it
17 hearsay.

18 MR. MARCHESE: The writing in the upper right-hand
19 corner, it's irrelevant. It's hearsay.

20 THE COURT: Can we cover that up, Mr. Myhre?

21 MR. MYHRE: I believe we could. If we can just have a
22 moment in Court, Your Honor, we could --

23 THE COURT: Well, yes. How about if we go ahead and 24 take a bathroom break, and that way you can cover it up before
25 we continue. All right?

1 MR. MYHRE: Sure.

2 THE COURT: So during this break, I am reminding the
3 jury, please, do not discuss this case with anyone, not even
4 your fellow jurors. You may speak to them about other things,
5 but not about this case. Please do not attempt to read or 6 listen to or view anything that touches upon this case in any 7 way, and do not perform any independent research or any
8 investigation about the case. Please go ahead and keep writing
9 down your questions for us.

10 We are going to go ahead and take a 15-minute break.
11 It's 3:01. We'll plan to be back here about 3:16. So let's
12 stand for the jury, and they can be excused.

13 And, Special Agent Willis, we'll just need you to be 14 back here at 3:15 as well, sir.

15 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 3:02 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So this is jury note -- oh,
19 boy -- 91? 92?

20 All right. Jury note No. 92 makes a good point. There
21 is a one- to two-second delay between when it is published. Can
22 the attorney please be sure the jury can see the full exhibit
23 for more than two seconds?

24 MR. MYHRE: Okay.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So even though we can see it the

1 first time around while the witness is laying the foundation,
2 the jury doesn't see it right when we say, yes, it may be
3 published. It takes a little while for the monitor to bring it
4 up, and then when you say you can take it down, apparently
5 they're not always having enough time to see it.

6 MR. MYHRE: Will do, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So let's keep that in mind.

8 All right. Let's everyone take your bathroom break.

9 And, marshals, you can bring in Mr. Parker for the second half
10 of the afternoon.

11 (Recess taken at 3:03 p.m.)

12 (Resumed at 3:31 p.m.)

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

14 So everybody's back. We're on the record. Before we 15 call the jury back in, we did receive another jury note. This 16 one would be 93, Aaron? Is that right?

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. No. 93, it asks: Is it possible to 19 instruct the jurors to not use military or law enforcement terms
20 in their questions? There are times some of us don't know what 21 those terms mean.

22 So I'll go ahead and read that to them when we get 23 around to jury questions again, or should I read it now, when
24 they come back. I don't know that we're going to get to jury
25 questions with Agent Willis, are we?

1 MR. MYHRE: I'll do my best, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. Yes. Let's go ahead and call
3 them back in.

4 (Court conferring with courtroom administrator.)

5 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to bring in a
6 juror. She received apparently an unsolicited text -- I mean,
7 from someone she knows, but she wasn't -- it doesn't look like
8 they were discussing -- I don't know. I guess she'll tell us
9 what it is. She's very upset. And she's very scared that she's 10 going to get disciplined, I guess, or kicked off the jury.

11 And so she received a text from someone who said: You
12 have two hours more to finish -- to finished, past tense. You
13 have two hours more to finished. Pass death sentence on these 14 prisoner.

15 So I think that we need to question her about that.
16 And you guys can think about it if you want me to do something
17 about it at the end. But I don't think there's anything else we 18 can do, but just ask her -- I mean, I can assume a lot. I'm 19 sure all of us can start thinking about all different
20 possibilities, but the best way probably to address this is have 21 her come in and tell us as much of the circumstances as she can.

22 This is juror No. 1, by the way.

23 MR. TANASI: Which number, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: No. 1.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

1 (Whereupon juror No. 1 enters the courtroom.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Everybody else may be seated.

3 So, first of all, juror No. 1, thank you very much for 4 bringing it to our attention. I do always try to remind the 5 jurors that if they do hear something inadvertently that they
6 should bring it to the Court's attention right away. So thank 7 you, first of all, for doing that.

8 So, secondly, it looks like the text was sent to you by 9 someone that you know. Is that right?

10 A JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So it's not unusual for people to 12 know that you're in trial or what trial you're in because it's 13 such a long trial and people have to know so they know not to 14 talk to you about it.

15 So do you have -- have you discussed with this other
16 person -- well, how much about this case have you discussed with 17 this other person?

18 A JUROR: Nothing at all. He just knows that I'm on 19 jury duty.

20 THE COURT: All right. So is it a coworker? Friend?
21 Neighbor? Family?

22 A JUROR: A friend.

23 THE COURT: A friend. Okay. And so how often do you
24 speak to this friend?

25 A JUROR: Before yesterday, it was probably once a

1 week. He just got my number so started texting me yesterday.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So yesterday was the first text that
3 you received from him?

4 A JUROR: Yes. Correct.

5 THE COURT: Ever or in a while?

6 A JUROR: Ever.

7 THE COURT: Ever. Oh. Okay. So is this a new friend?

8 A JUROR: Well, we know each other through a mutual
9 friend. He dated a mutual friend of mine that ... so ...

10 THE COURT: Okay. And all right. So obviously he 11 knows that you are on -- you're a juror and that you are on this 12 trial. Is there anything else about this case that you've 13 discussed with him?

14 A JUROR: No, not at all. I don't even think he knows
15 what trial because I have not told him; just that I'm a
16 federal -- a juror on a federal trial. That's it. He doesn't 17 know anything at all about the case, at least not from me, or he 18 hasn't ever expressed that he's heard anything in the news or 19 said anything that he knows what case I'm on or anything at all.
20 He just knows I'm a juror.

21 THE COURT: But from the language used in the text it
22 seems that he knows that it's a criminal case; not a civil case.

23 A JUROR: I don't know how he would.

24 THE COURT: What about the friend that you have in 25 common? Could that person have told him?

1 A JUROR: No, she's not speaking to me anymore. So she
2 doesn't even know I'm a juror.

3 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Does he know other folks that 4 know you, like coworkers or someone else, that would know that
5 you are here for a lengthy period of time? Family?

6 A JUROR: Not that I know of. I mean, they may go to 7 the casino. I don't really know that they know him, no.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 Do the parties have any other questions you could think
10 of that I should ask as sort of ... Probably just as surprised
11 as everyone else. So go ahead and take some time.

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Defense counsel conferring.)

14 A JUROR: Your Honor, can I say something?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 A JUROR: I was just shocked and completely taken aback
17 to have received that text, like, so completely out of the blue
18 that my first thought was, I need to talk to Aaron.

19 THE COURT: No, I appreciate that. That was the right
20 decision to make, definitely.

21 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, the Government would just 22 ask if the Court could inquire as to whether there's anything
23 about that text that --

24 THE COURT: Right, and that's my last question, but 25 before I asked the last question, I wanted to know if there was

1 anything -- any discovery-type questions that we needed to ask
2 to get more information. But ultimately, yes, I'll ask her.

3 MR. TANASI: I don't think -- Your Honor, there's no
4 additional questions from the Defense.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: So, juror No. 1, just to make sure I got
8 this clear. So it's a new friend -- or a preexisting friend,
9 but a new texting friend, a new person who has just started
10 texting recently within the week?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

12 THE COURT: And you have not discussed with him this
13 case?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I have not.

15 THE COURT: And you don't even know how he knew that 16 you were in this particular case?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I do not.

18 THE COURT: And the only friend that you have in common
19 is one that you're not even speaking to anymore?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so can you put out of your 22 mind the recommendation or suggestion that your friend is making
23 to you? Whether he's serious or joking around and thinks he's 24 funny, can you put that out of your mind?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Absolutely.

1 THE COURT: And do you think that you can continue to
2 be fair and impartial in this trial?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

4 THE COURT: Now, is this friend someone that, you know,
5 aside from this unfortunate incident, that you would like to 6 have a long-term relationship with? Is this something where 7 you're going to feel some sympathy or some mixed feelings about
8 whether he would like for you to do something, you know, vote a
9 particular way? Is it that kind of a friend?

10 I'm trying not to pry into your personal life, but I
11 apologize that I have to.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, that's fine. No, he's not.
13 And, no, it will not affect me in any way. His -- that text
14 will not affect me in any way, or my ability to be impartial and 15 remain impartial.

16 THE COURT: All right. Okay. So I think that's all
17 the information that we can think of getting at this point. If 18 we think of something else, we'll let you know. Okay. Thank 19 you again for bringing that to our attention.

20 And, Aaron, you can go ahead and bring everybody else
21 in, too.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

23 (Whereupon juror No. 1 leaves the courtroom.)

24 THE COURT: So we can at least get going. We'll go
25 ahead and proceed with Special Agent Willis, and then at the end

1 of the day if anyone wants to make any record or make any other
2 comments, we'll have some time to do that.

3 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 (Whereupon jury enters the courtroom at 3:48 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: Jury can go ahead and be seated. Everyone
6 else can be seated as well.

7 We're back on the record. We have Special Agent Willis
8 back on the witness stand. Thank you, sir.

9 And, Mr. Myhre, you may continue with your direct
10 examination.

11 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. I believe we were 12 showing the witness Exhibit 172.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Now, Agent Willis, you have 172 before you, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And we talked about, again, this individual depicted in this 17 is Mr. Parker, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And we talked about people in the wash as well. Now, at the 20 top right portion of that, is this -- does this indicate where 21 this is derived from?

22 A. Yes, the Citizens Action Network Facebook page.

23 Q. That's the Facebook page where you received this?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. This was not time stamped at the time you received it?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Or downloaded, I should say.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You actually physically downloaded it from the Internet,
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Were you able, however, through extrinsic evidence able to 8 authenticate this -- excuse me -- to time stamp this at some 9 later portion?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. And is this image documented and incorporated in your 12 timeline that you constructed?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 172.

15 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 172? The 16 redaction's been made.

17 MR. MARCHESE: No objection Parker.

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Foundationally he indicated that he 20 could time stamp it, but he didn't indicate how he time stamped
21 it. He's been able to time stamp other pictures through I guess
22 vehicles and things of that nature. Just foundationally I
23 didn't hear how he did it.

24 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's my objection is to the

1 foundational ...

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the --

3 THE COURT: Well, the foundation was that he found it
4 from the Citizens Action Network. So Exhibit 172 is admissible,
5 and it is admitted. You may publish it, but it would be helpful
6 to know whether or not this can be time stamped, and if so, how 7 was that determined.

8 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Not necessarily for admissibility, but it
10 is a good question just for the weight of the evidence.

11 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

13 (Government's Exhibit 172 is admitted.)

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: The projector turned off.
15 It's on its way back up.

16 THE COURT: Please raise your hand if the jury can't 17 see the image.

18 All right. So there's -- their screens are working.
19 It's just the big projector sometimes takes a little while to 20 warm up. There it goes.

21 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. So, Agent Willis, looking at 172 that's been published,
24 would you just circle the portion on this image that shows the 25 individuals in the wash.

1 And Agent --

2 MR. MYHRE: Excuse me. The record should reflect that
3 the witness has circled individuals at the top of this image.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. And if you would also circle the individual identified as
6 Mr. Parker.

7 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect that the witness
8 has circled an individual and that image identifies Mr. Parker.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. And if you would just sort of point out for us where the BLM
11 vehicles are located.

12 A. They're on the other side of the cattle gate, so ...

13 Q. Now, you -- we talked about -- oh, I'm sorry. You --

14 MR. MYHRE: The witness has marked with vertical lines
15 the images of trucks and vehicles on the other -- north of the 16 cattle gate.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. That is in the northbound direction. Is that correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You indicated that you were able to time stamp this,
21 correct?

22 A. Yes, I was.

23 Q. And you used the time-stamped version of this image in your 24 timeline?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. What other -- what type of evidence did you use in order to 2 derive a time?

3 A. Well, as I said earlier, the BLM vehicles on the other side
4 of the cattle gate and the people, they are depicted in the 5 aerial footage, but also through the Trey Schillie photographs
6 as well as the Hugh Gourgeon photographs. Knowing what the 7 photographer for the Citizens Action Network looks like and was 8 wearing on that day on the bridge as well as also seeing her in 9 the Shilaikis footage from Post 1, I could track her movements
10 and estimate the time when she stops and takes this picture with 11 her camera from all of those things combined.

12 MR. MYHRE: So, Your Honor, may we bring up Exhibit
13 151?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Do you see -- this has been previously admitted -- Agent
17 Willis, 151?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, is this a different angle of that same image that we
20 just viewed in Exhibit 172?

21 A. Yes, taken at approximately the same time.

22 Q. Approximately the same time. Now, you indicated that you
23 could identify the photographer for Citizens Action Network?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Could you please using this image draw a circle around that

1 individual.

2 A. It's the woman with the short black hair with the black top
3 on, and she has a neck strap for her Cannon camera around her
4 neck, and you can see Cannon.

5 Q. And for record purposes, in this imagine where is she
6 located relative to where Mr. Parker is located?

7 A. She would just be just to his right side or east of him on 8 the northbound I15 bridge.

9 Q. And which way is she faced?

10 A. She's facing west.

11 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we bring up image --
12 excuse me -- Exhibit 139, please?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And this has been previously admitted as Exhibit 139?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you recognize the person who's the photographer in this
18 image?

19 A. Yes. So here's the woman with the black top on and the dark
20 pants. I believe at this moment she's actually taking the 21 photograph. And then Jim Urquhart, he later -- who is on the 22 left side will later move around to Mr. Parker's left. And then 23 that's where we saw the previous photo Mr. Schillie took.

24 Q. Now, just focusing for a moment on the individual that
25 you've drawn a circle around.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Which way is that person now faced relative to Mr. Parker's
3 position?

4 A. She would be facing Mr. Parker, but facing northwest. So
5 north looking over the Jersey barrier, but capturing Mr. Parker
6 and the Jersey barrier.

7 MR. MYHRE: Now if we could go back to 172.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Would this have been from the direction she was faced, this
10 image?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, knowing those images of the individual in black who
13 took the photograph, does that person appear in other images
14 that you were able then to time stamp?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And which images were those?

17 A. The Shilaikis video, the Trey Schillie photographs.

18 Q. And the Hugh Gourgeon?

19 A. And Hugh Gourgeon.

20 Q. Okay. So Exhibit 139 was from Gourgeon. Is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Those were time stamped?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Metadata?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And Exhibit 151 was from Trey Schillie, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And that was time stamped as well?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And that's how you were ultimately able to derive the time
8 stamp for this exhibit?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that will be incorporated in your timeline which we will 11 visit later?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, if I could go back, I
14 neglected one exhibit. If I could go back to show the witness
15 Exhibit 140, please.

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And do you see 140 there, Agent Willis?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. Was this also from Mr. Gourgeon?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Was this image -- when you received it, did it have metadata
23 time stamping it?

24 A. Yes, it did.

25 Q. And was it time stamped for April 12th?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And do you recognize the individual in this image?

3 A. Yes, I do, Eric Parker.

4 Q. And how do you recognize him?

5 A. By his hat, his rifle, his shirt, his tactical vest, the 6 knife, his pants.

7 Q. And does his -- does he have a firearm?

8 A. Yes, he has a rifle that he is pointing through the gap in
9 the Jersey barrier.

10 Q. Was that -- is the position of that rifle consistent or not
11 consistent with the image we just viewed in 172?

12 A. It is consistent.

13 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 140.

14 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 140?

15 MR. TANASI: Same objection Stewart, Your Honor, and 16 also to add cumulative.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

19 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

20 MR. MYHRE: I didn't catch the last part of 21 Mr. Tanasi's objection.

22 MR. TANASI: Cumulative, Your Honor.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, this is a different time,
24 different angle, of Mr. Parker on the northbound bridge, and is 25 consistent or -- excuse me -- is integral to the timeline that

1 will be later introduced.

2 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 140 is admitted over
3 objection. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

4 (Government's Exhibit 140 is admitted.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And, Special Agent Willis, in the course of your 7 investigation, were you able to determine -- we see here in this
8 image the gap in the Jersey barrier, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. In that concrete barrier. And you've walked that bridge.
11 Is that correct?

12 A. Yes, I have.

13 Q. In the course of your investigation, based on the 14 photographic images that we've seen, were you able to locate
15 where that gap is in that bridge?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And will that be discussed within your timeline?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, if I could go back for a
21 moment to Exhibit 171.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. With 171, Agent Willis, we described Mr. Lovelein and his 25 earpiece. Is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And if you would circle that again for us.

3 MR. MYHRE: Now, Your Honor, may we call up Exhibit 21
4 at approximately 2 seconds?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Video playing.)

7 MR. MYHRE: Right there.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Now, do you see an individual in the foreground of this
10 image at Exhibit 21 at approximately 2 seconds?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And what is depicted in that image?

13 A. Well, the individual in the foreground is wearing a digital
14 camo-type pattern hat, and he has an earpiece for a
15 communications device in his left ear.

16 Q. If you could just circle that, please.

17 Is that consistent or not consistent with the earpiece
18 we just looked at in Exhibit 171?

19 A. Consistent.

20 Q. Now, this individual depicted in this image at the 2 second
21 mark, where is he located -- well, first of all, the individual 22 in the center of the screen is who?

23 A. The individual on the stage is Ammon Bundy.

24 Q. Where is the individual for record purposes located relative
25 to Mr. Bundy in this image?

1 A. Directly in front of Mr. Bundy.

2 Q. Does he appear to be wearing a uniform of some sort?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what type of uniform?

5 A. It's a camouflage uniform, but he is also bearing insignia
6 that would indicate that he's part of the Arizona State Militia.

7 Q. And this image is taken approximately when during the day?

8 A. This would be in the morning prior to Sheriff Gillespie and 9 Cliven Bundy speaking on stage.

10 MR. MYHRE: Okay. We can bring that down, please.

11 And, Your Honor, may I show the witness Exhibit 162?

12 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Now, you talked, Agent Willis, about reviewing other public
15 media. Did you also review images posted by Reuters and the 16 Washington Post?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what is Reuters?

19 A. Reuters is just a news publication, news outlet, and they do
20 articles and stories on stuff.

21 Q. And are those -- are those published or posted publicly?

22 A. Yes, on the Reuters.com or .org website, I believe. It's 23 just open to the public. Anybody can access them.

24 Q. And how about with respect to the Washington Post?

25 A. It's the same thing. They have an Internet website that you

1 can go on and read articles published by the Washington Post.

2 Q. Now, the exhibit at 162 do you -- first of all, do you
3 recognize this image?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And what is it generally?

6 A. This is an image of Scott Drexler, Steven Stewart, and Eric
7 Parker on the northbound I15 bridge in Bunkerville.

8 Q. Does this have a date stamp with it?

9 A. No, it does not.

10 Q. Were you able to derive the date?

11 A. Yes, I was.

12 Q. And how were you able -- what -- did you look at specific 13 characteristics in this image to get the date?

14 A. Yes, I did. I looked at the position of the vehicles in the 15 background on the I15 northbound bridge and compared that to the 16 aerial footage.

17 Q. And when you compared it, did it -- were you able to make 18 consistent identifications?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. Identifications of these distinctive characteristics?

21 A. Yes, I was.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 162.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 162?

24 MR. TANASI: Continuing objection, authenticity, Your
25 Honor.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

3 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

4 THE COURT: Same response?

5 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Same ruling. 162 will be admitted. You
7 may go ahead and publish it.

8 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 (Government's Exhibit 162 is admitted.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, this image was downloaded from Reuters?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And do you recognize Steven Stewart in this image?

14 A. Yes, I do. He's standing in the image. He's holding a
15 rifle above the Jersey barrier pointed -- pointed upward.

16 Q. If you could just circle his image, please.

17 And you've identified a firearm as well, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. If you could just identify that just for record purposes.

20 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that he's 21 circled an individual he's identified as Steven Stewart and also 22 identified an object that appears to be a firearm.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Is he also carrying any other firearms?

25 A. He has a handgun on his right hip.

1 Q. If you would circle that, please.

2 Now, the clothing that this individual's wearing, is
3 that consistent with other images of Mr. Stewart?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. Is that consistent with those images for April 12th, 2014?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. In which direction does Mr. Stewart appear to be facing in
8 this image?

9 A. He looks to be facing north or northwest and looking down
10 into the wash area.

11 Q. Which bridge is this located on from your investigation?

12 A. Northbound I15 bridge.

13 Q. Now, in the foreground, you recognize that individual?

14 A. Yes, that's Scott Drexler. He's kneeling. Appears to be 15 drinking out of a jug of water.

16 Q. And --

17 A. Go ahead.

18 Q. And in this image where is he in relation to Mr. Stewart?

19 A. He's to Mr. Stewart's right.

20 Q. Now, you mentioned that this did not come with a time stamp
21 on it. However, were you able to time stamp this?

22 A. Yes, I was.

23 Q. And how did you do that?

24 A. This small silver SUV with the person, the hand out,
25 appearing to be either holding a camera or cell phone out. And

1 behind that in the second furthest lane, but behind is a white
2 truck and then it's passing a dark vehicle. From the aerial
3 footage I can find -- I found that -- that specific point in
4 time with that SUV, with the white truck, and it's consistent
5 also with the location of the people that are on the bridge, but 6 from the aerial footage perspective.

7 Q. Was this image then incorporated into your timeline?

8 A. Yes, it was.

9 MR. MYHRE: Take that down.

10 Your Honor, may we show the witness 163?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Agent, do you see 163?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. What is this?

16 A. This is a Reuters.com photograph, also captured by Jim
17 Urquhart, as was the last one. Eric Parker is in this image.
18 He's kneeling against the Jersey barrier and holding a rifle
19 pointed down.

20 Q. Was this time stamped when you obtained this image?

21 A. It did not include metadata, but I was able to determine the
22 time.

23 Q. And, again, how did you do that?

24 A. Again, to the aerial footage. The people on the concrete
25 skirting, I know the identity of one of those people, and I've

1 tracked their movements throughout the day on April 12th, 2014,
2 especially in the wash. And then also the tractor-trailer being
3 followed by that white car, I can see that in the aerial
4 footage.

5 Q. And that's the aerial footage from April 12th, 2014?

6 A. Yes.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 163.

8 THE COURT: Continuing objection?

9 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Same response?

11 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 163 will be admitted.

13 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

14 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 (Government's Exhibit 163 is admitted.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Agent, you -- in your testimony you indicated that you were 18 able to time stamp this by following movements of individuals in 19 the wash. Is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Would you -- are you able to identify in this image the 22 individuals you were able to track in the wash?

23 A. Yes. Specifically -- I'll try to draw an arrow. Not a very 24 good arrow, but that individual right there with the backpack on 25 and the light-colored shirt.

1 Q. So you were able to view other known video from April 12th
2 where that individual appears. Is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now, you also identified some vehicles in this image that
5 helped you time stamp from the aerial. Is that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. If you would just identify those.

8 A. This tractor-trailer truck followed by this white vehicle
9 behind it.

10 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 11 witness has drawn an arrow to an individual image that appears
12 below the barrier into the wash and then has drawn two circles
13 in the upper left portion of the exhibit, one of a truck
14 trailer -- truck trailer, excuse me, and another vehicle behind
15 that.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, you indicated Mr. Parker is in this image, correct?

18 A. Yes, he is.

19 Q. If you could circle him as well.

20 And you know him by his -- by what?

21 A. By his clothing, his hat, his rifle, and his facial
22 features.

23 Q. Do you see -- have you been able to identify any other
24 defendants in this image?

25 A. Behind -- well, I'm sorry. In the background of this image

1 and to Mr. Parker's left Mr. Stewart is crouched down. And you
2 can see his blue shirt with the design on the back next to the 3 guy in the white shirt.

4 MR. MYHRE: And the witness -- the record should
5 reflect that the witness has drawn an arrow or line, excuse me,
6 above an image of an individual with a blue shirt.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. You've identified that individual as Defendant Stewart?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you were able to, as you described, time stamp this.

11 Did you then incorporate this image into your timeline?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. Your Honor, may we then move to
14 Exhibit 164?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. And do you see Agent -- excuse me. Agent Willis, do you see
18 164 before you?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. Where was this image obtained from?

21 A. This was obtained from Washington -- the Washington Post.com
22 website.

23 Q. And who obtained this image?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. And how did you do that?

1 A. Accessed their website and downloaded the image.

2 Q. And based on the distinctive characteristics in this image,
3 were you able to determine that it was taken on April 12th,
4 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. If you could just recite for us a few of those
7 characteristics that you used.

8 A. Well, knowing that this photo, because of the caption within 9 the Washington Post website, was also taken by Jim Urquhart, and 10 I can track his movements. I could compare it to the Hugh
11 Gourgeon photography -- photographs with Hugh Gourgeon's
12 movements on the bridge. But on the top of the image there is a
13 tractor-trailer truck carrying a dark -- what looks like a dark,
14 I guess, load on its trailer. And I can track that as well as 15 other vehicles on the bridge as they pass by on the southbound
16 I15 bridge heading west.

17 Q. Again, using the aerial surveillance from April 12th?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And those were consistent with those images?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And this image appears to be Mr. Parker as well, correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And how are you able to identify him?

24 A. Again, his hat, his tactical vest, shirt, pants, knife,
25 firearm.

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 164.

2 THE COURT: Any objection to 164?

3 MR. TANASI: Same objection.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

7 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Same ruling. 164 will be admitted. You
9 may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Can I just have the witness clarify?
12 Because he keeps calling it a tractor-trailer, and I think that 13 may be a term that's used, but not one that I've used. So maybe
14 just to clarify what you're talking about.

15 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE WITNESS: Sorry. That's just what I grew up
17 calling it. So it's like a semi-truck, a 16 wheeler.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. If you would draw a circle around the image that you
20 referred to as a tractor-trailer.

21 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
22 has drawn a circle around an image of what appears to be a truck
23 on the top center portion of the image.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. That's what you're referring to as a tractor-trailer?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. It's also known, perhaps, as a semi?

3 A. Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And that was -- assisted you in time stamping this
7 particular image?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Now, just generally speaking, you indicated that Mr. -- you
10 believe Mr. Urquhart appears somewhere in this image or in 11 another image?

12 A. His shadow is in this image on the bottom. And based on the 13 Hugh Gourgeon photograph of the Citizens Action Network
14 photographer in the black taking the photo with Hugh Gourgeon
15 right next to her, I can approximate, again comparing that to 16 the aerial, of the exact time when this photograph was taken.

17 Q. So I may have misspoken. So the shadow that you've circled
18 there in the bottom portion of the image, that's of Citizens
19 Action Network?

20 A. No, that's of Hugh -- Hugh Gourgeon and his camera. So you
21 can see somebody holding a camera, and the sun creating --
22 casting a shadow in the picture.

23 Q. And you're able to verify that through -- well, let's take a
24 look at Exhibit 139.

25 Does that assist you at all?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And this is -- oh, excuse me.

3 And this is the image taken by Mr. Gourgeon, correct?

4 A. Yes. And this would be Mr. Urquhart and his shadow.

5 Q. So the shadow that you drew before was of Mr. Urquhart?

6 A. That's what I believe, yes.

7 Q. And that image now in 139 was captured by Mr. Gourgeon?

8 A. 139 is?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So going back -- if we go back to 164, now looking over to 12 your left, is that -- which image do you believe is the shadow
13 of Urquhart?

14 And from this you were able to time stamp this
15 particular image?

16 A. Along with the aerial photography with the semi-truck
17 passing on the southbound bridge.

18 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 195 to
19 the witness?

20 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. And do you see 195, Agent?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. Where was this obtained?

25 A. This was obtained from Reuters.com.

1 Q. And what is depicted in this image generally?

2 A. Eric Parker in the prone position with his rifle between the
3 gap in the Jersey barriers.

4 Q. And you recognize him by his clothing?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And you recognize this image as taken on April the 12th,
7 2014?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And do you see any other individuals in this image that you
10 recognize?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And who is that?

13 A. Trey Schillie and Hugh Gourgeon.

14 Q. And you knew them to be on the bridge on April 12, 2015?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 195.

17 THE COURT: Continuing objection?

18 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 195 is
24 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

25 (Government's Exhibit 195 is admitted.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. So this image, 195, in which direction are we looking now
3 from the photographer's standpoint?

4 A. We're looking east on the northbound I15 bridge.

5 Q. And east at this point would actually be going northbound,
6 correct?

7 A. Yes, that would be correct.

8 Q. It would be going with traffic?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You indicated you recognize Mr. Schillie in this photo?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And if you would circle the image of that individual.

13 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 14 witness has drawn a circle around an individual appears to be in 15 a blue shirt about the center of the screen.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Is this the same individual you know to be Trey Schillie who 18 testified in court?

19 A. Yes, it is.

20 Q. Clearing that.

21 Now, you also said you recognized Mr. Gourgeon?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And if you would circle his image.

24 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
25 has circled an image about the center of the screen.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. The individual appears to be in a yellow shirt?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And from those images -- excuse me.

5 When you downloaded this image, did it have a time
6 stamp?

7 A. No, it was just from a public website.

8 Q. Were you able to time stamp it?

9 A. Yes, I was.

10 Q. And how did you derive a time?

11 A. Based on the Hugh Gourgeon photography and the known
12 time-stamping information on those photos.

13 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show 196 to the
14 witness?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Agent Willis, do you see 196?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. What is this an image of generally?

20 A. This is an image of several people standing at the entrance
21 to the assembly area/parking area off of northbound I15.

22 Q. Where was this image obtained from?

23 A. This is also a Reuters/Jim Urquhart photo -- photograph.

24 Q. So this came from the Reuters.com?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Who downloaded this image?

2 A. I did.

3 Q. So you actually saw it on the website?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. Is this taken from April 12th, 2014?

6 A. Yes, it was.

7 Q. And how were you able to derive that?

8 A. By the activities happening, the Metro officers moving
9 across the I15 roadway/highway, and as well as the other
10 individuals that are in that area compared to other video and 11 photo evidence.

12 Q. And who appears in this image?

13 A. Eric Parker.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 196.

15 MR. MARCHESI: No objection Parker.

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection, Your Honor.

18 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelein.

19 THE COURT: Exhibit 196 will be admitted. You may go
20 ahead and publish it.

21 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 (Government's Exhibit 196 is admitted.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Now, the image that's before the jury, Agent Willis, for 25 record purposes, please draw a circle around Mr. Parker.

1 And where is this image taken with respect to location
2 on the ground?

3 A. This image was taken from the median on the north side of 4 the northbound I15 highway or interstate looking south, facing
5 south.

6 Q. Now, I've cleared the circle you've drawn. There are law
7 enforcement officers in this image as well, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And who are those -- not by name, but who are those officers
10 affiliated with?

11 A. Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department.

12 Q. If you could just draw a circle around them.

13 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect the witness has 14 drawn a circle around several officers in the right-hand portion
15 of the screen.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. And do you see anyone -- do you recognize anyone in this 18 image to be Sheriff Lombardo?

19 A. Sheriff Lombardo, you can't see his face, but his head is 20 right there. He's -- at this time he's preparing to walk across 21 the highway, and he's facing back to the individuals on the side
22 of I15.

23 Q. Now, for record purposes, where is he in relation to 24 Mr. Parker in this image?

25 A. He would be almost directly to his north or in front of

1 Mr. Parker.

2 MR. MYHRE: Now, Your Honor, may we refer back to
3 Exhibit 160, please?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And this was earlier introduced through Sheriff Lombardo?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you see Sheriff Lombardo in this image as well?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Is this as well in the approximate area where the -- that we
11 just viewed in Exhibit 196?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, does -- are there any other defendants that appear in
14 this image?

15 A. Yes. Scott Drexler in the background behind that 16 dark-colored pickup truck.

17 Q. Would you circle that image, please.

18 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
19 circling an image of an individual in the top right portion of 20 the Exhibit 160.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. How are you able to identify this as Mr. Drexler?

23 A. By his hat, his tactical vest, and his shirt, and his hair
24 also.

25 Q. Now, this Exhibit 160 was from the Bushman Dropbox. Is that

1 correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. So you were able to time stamp that image. Is that right?

4 A. Yes, I was.

5 MR. MYHRE: Go back to 196, please.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And what other -- did you use 160 to help you time stamp
8 this particular image?

9 A. Yes, the approximate time. So this would be taking place --
10 I would approximate it at one minute after that Bush -- that 11 Shannon Bushman photograph was taken after Sheriff Lombardo had 12 completed or finished his conversation with Dave Bundy, turned 13 around, and began walking across I15.

14 Q. Is this image at 196 incorporated in your timeline?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. So we will revisit this image later.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you also review local network broadcasts as well?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. And, specifically, did you look at Fox News?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how about with respect to Channel 8?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. In the course of your review of that media, did you also 25 find relevant images captured from conventional reporters?

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness Exhibit
3 168?

4 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

5 (Video playing.)

6 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. That's fine right there.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And do you recognize 168?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. And what is that?

11 A. This is a Fox News live broadcast. I believe this was aired
12 on April 13th, 2014.

13 Q. And if -- and from that news broadcast were you able to find
14 relevant photos of defendant?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: And may I show the witness 168B, Your
17 Honor?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Do you see 168B?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. What is that an image of?

23 A. It's an image of Eric Parker laying in the prone position on 24 I15 bridge. Several people are in the wash in the background.

25 Q. And this image was taken from that news broadcast?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 Q. And there's a banner below it that indicates -- so
3 indicates. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. In this image what is -- have you identified specific
6 characteristics in this image that identified April 12th, 2014?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And specifically what types of characteristics?

9 A. The individuals in the wash, the northbound and southbound
10 I15 bridges, and Eric Parker and his positioning on the bridge.

11 Q. And his clothing as well?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer 168B.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects --

15 THE COURT: Any objection?

16 MR. MARCHESE: -- to the commentary writing at the 17 bottom.

18 THE COURT: The white or the yellow letters?

19 MR. MARCHESE: I guess both, but mainly the white as to 20 hearsay and relevance.

21 MR. MYHRE: I believe we can redact these, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Well, I was going to say, it's a picture
23 and not a video. So we should be able to redact it, right?

24 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Any other objections?

1 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Anything else?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

5 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 168B will be
6 admitted with that redaction eliminating the yellow and white
7 letters.

8 (Government's Exhibit 168B is admitted.)

9 MR. MYHRE: If I could just for the witness only 168B,
10 please.

11 And, Your Honor, we have the redacted version there.
12 I'm not sure if there are any further objections based on the 13 redactions.

14 MR. TANASI: Nothing further from Stewart, Your Honor.
15 Thank you.

16 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

17 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 168B, as in bravo,
18 is admitted. You may go ahead and publish it now.

19 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Well, 168B now is in front of the jury. And if you would 22 describe for us Mr. Parker's position relative to the wash.

23 A. He is in the prone position, laying down on the northbound
24 I15 bridge. He would be -- he's facing north over the wash
25 towards the southbound I15 bridge and the BLM vehicles.

1 Q. For record purposes, can you see which way his head is
2 turned in this image?

3 A. Oh. He is -- he is facing east down the highway.

4 Q. So he would be facing --

5 A. To his right.

6 Q. His head would be facing sort of with traffic on the
7 northbound?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Does there appear to be an object under his elbow?

10 A. Yes. It is a backpack, it appears to be.

11 Q. When you downloaded this image, did it have a time stamp
12 with it?

13 A. No, it did not.

14 Q. And were you able to later time stamp this?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. If you would describe the methodology you generally went 17 through for that.

18 A. In a photograph that we reviewed earlier from Reuters.com
19 with Scott Drexler drinking out of the jug of water, I described
20 a silver SUV driving by and how I determined the time stamping
21 from the aerial footage for that SUV. This photograph, because 22 of -- due to the way he is facing, his position on the bridge,
23 and I can match that up to the Reuters photograph of Mr. Drexler
24 taking the chug of water and Mr. Stewart holding his rifle.

25 I believe that the silver SUV with the person holding

1 the camera or the phone out had taken this photo as they were
2 driving by a moment before the photograph was taken with the 3 water and the gun, which again I time stamped through the aerial
4 photography footage.

5 Q. So the image we saw earlier with the vehicle driving by?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Was that individual, based on your review, affiliated then
8 with Fox?

9 A. Yes, that vehicle had been in the median between the north
10 and southbound I15 bridges earlier. They had been on the 11 northbound I15 bridge earlier in that day. It appeared to be 12 some type of news outlet representative or representatives. So
13 I can track that vehicle and reach the conclusion that those 14 individuals as they were passing by and appearing to be leaving
15 the area were taking this photo -- this photo.

16 MR. MYHRE: So if we could go back to 162 briefly.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Do you see the vehicle to which you refer?

19 A. Yes. So here's the vehicle. Here's the camera or phone
20 that I had described. And I believe that that picture was taken
21 moments before as that vehicle --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to speculation.

23 THE WITNESS: -- passed by.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, speculation.

25 MR. MYHRE: Well --

1 THE COURT: Overruled. That's what he's explaining is
2 how he determined the time.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, I would just say that
4 he indicated that it's his belief. He's not -- it's a belief.

5 MR. MYHRE: I can drill down further on that, Your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. So you've drawn -- the record should reflect you've drawn a
10 line directly above what appears to be someone's hand outside a
11 window of a vehicle, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what does that individual appear to be doing based on 14 what you observed in this image?

15 A. Taking a photograph or video.

16 Q. Do you see Mr. Parker in this image?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And would you circle him?

19 A. He's right here looking to his right in the prone position
20 with his rifle pointed through the Jersey barrier.

21 Q. Do you see his arm braced on anything?

22 A. Yes, same as the last image where his arm is resting on a
23 backpack.

24 Q. And if you'd just draw a little line toward the arm toward
25 that backpack.

1 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect that the witness
2 has drawn a circle around an image he believes to be -- he's
3 identified as Mr. Parker as well as a line underneath an object
4 he has identified as a backpack.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. Now, you say that based on your review of this that the 7 individual in this car took the image of Mr. Parker. Is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And from what angle would that image have been taken?

11 A. The previous image?

12 Q. Based on the travel of this car, yes.

13 A. It would have been taken from right behind and slightly to 14 Mr. Parker's right as the vehicle was passing by.

15 Q. And so based on your review of this image, what has caused 16 you to observe that this vehicle would have taken that image of
17 Mr. Parker?

18 A. Again, the person with the hand out, the camera, and the 19 position of Mr. Parker in the exact -- almost exact same
20 position as the previous Fox News photograph looking to his 21 right on the backpack with his rifle pointed between the Jersey
22 barriers.

23 Q. Thank you.

24 And so from all of that, you were able to ultimately
25 derive a time stamp, correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And that's incorporated in your timeline?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 166A?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Do you see 166A, Agent Willis?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. What is depicted in that image?

10 A. This is Steven Stewart kneeling on the northbound I15 bridge
11 holding a rifle in front of him pointed upward.

12 Q. Where was this image obtained?

13 A. This was obtained from the 8 News NOW I-Team broadcast. I
14 believe this was broadcast on May -- well, it says it actually.
15 May 8th, 2014.

16 Q. And with respect to this broadcast, did you review that
17 broadcast?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And did you obtain this image from that broadcast?

20 A. Yes, I did.

21 Q. You identified it as Mr. Stewart, but the image itself has 22 embedded within it a date. Is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What is that date?

25 A. May 8th, 2014.

1 Q. Off to the right of Mr. Stewart, do you see a date there?

2 A. Yes, it says April 12th.

3 Q. Now, the clothing Mr. Stewart's wearing, is that consistent
4 or not consistent with what he's wearing in known images of
5 April 12th?

6 A. It's consistent.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer 166A.

8 THE COURT: 166A. Any objection?

9 MR. TANASI: Continuing objection from Stewart, Your
10 Honor.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

14 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. 166A will be
16 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

17 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

18 (Government's Exhibit 166A is admitted.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Agent Willis, the jury now has before it 166A. Would you
21 for record purposes just please circle the individual you
22 identified as Mr. Stewart.

23 And do you see objects that are consistent -- objects
24 and clothing that's consistent with previous images, known
25 images, of Mr. Stewart?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And just please identify those as well.

3 A. As we saw Mr. Stewart at the rally site/staging area, his
4 hat, his blue shirt with the design on the back, his large knife
5 on his left thigh with the leather or brown sheath and the 6 fluorescent pink label on it.

7 Q. Does he appear to be holding anything?

8 A. Yes, he's holding a rifle.

9 Q. And where approximately is he located in this image?

10 A. He is on the northbound I15 bridge facing north.

11 Q. What's in front of him?

12 A. A Jersey barrier and the wash.

13 Q. And where is the firearm in relationship to the Jersey
14 barrier?

15 A. It is maybe the tip of the barrel. The first part of the 16 barrel is slightly above the Jersey barrier pointed up. And the 17 rest of the rifle is below the Jersey barrier in front of him.

18 MR. TANASI: Objection, Your Honor. I move to strike.
19 That's speculation, and the best evidence rule, the picture
20 speaks for itself as to where the barrel of the rifle is.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, he's entitled to testify as to 22 what he observed in the image based on his investigation.

23 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And would you also -- Agent Willis, do you see Mr. Stewart

1 carrying any other objects on his left hip?

2 A. He has the knife on his left hip.

3 Q. And if you could circle that.

4 MR. MYHRE: Witness indicating an object on
5 Mr. Stewart's left hip he's identified as a knife.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And you've seen that in previous images. Is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Were you able to time stamp this image?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. Did you use other images to assist you in doing that?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 167A?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Do you see 167A?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is depicted in this image?

19 A. This is a pulled-back view, slightly pulled-back view, of 20 the image that we just saw. This is -- this includes part of 21 the Toquop Wash and also northbound I15 bridge facing east.

22 Q. East or northbound, correct?

23 A. Or northbound, correct.

24 Q. Where was this image obtained?

25 A. This was obtained from 8 News NOW.

1 Q. From the -- was this broadcast in April of 2014?

2 A. Yeah, April 13th, 2014 -- April 30th, 2014. Excuse me.

3 Q. And does it appear to be from the same footage as the 4 earlier image we saw?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You downloaded or you captured this image from that
7 broadcast?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. And you observed the broadcast?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. Now, is Mr. -- in this image is Mr. Stewart in the same or 12 in a different position?

13 A. He's in a slightly different position. He's moved his gun
14 down behind the Jersey barrier, and now he's fully kneeled. It
15 appears that he's kneeling on the ground with both knees looking 16 over the Jersey barrier into the wash.

17 Q. And what he's wearing there is consistent with the previous
18 image?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is it consistent with everything on April 12?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 167A.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 167A?

24 MR. TANASI: Same objection Stewart, Your Honor.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Join, Drexler.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

3 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 167A will
5 be admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

6 (Government's Exhibit 167A is admitted.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Looking now at 167A, Agent Willis, you described that
9 Mr. Stewart changed positions, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And would you please circle his image.

12 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect the witness is 13 circling an image identified in the center of the screen that 14 he's identified as Mr. Stewart.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Did you use this image to assist you in time stamping the
17 previous image?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And you could time stamp this as well. Is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you described the location, but if you could just again
22 describe where were you -- where were you looking up and --
23 excuse me -- where we are looking, which direction, and where on 24 the bridge we're looking.

25 A. We're looking east on northbound I15.

1 Q. And is this on the bridge itself?

2 A. Yeah. I'm sorry. On the bridge.

3 Q. Clearing that.

4 Now, with respect to time stamping, are there images
5 depicted in this particular exhibit that assisted you in time
6 stamping?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What are those?

9 A. So from the aerial footage, not only the position of the 10 people in the wash, but more importantly in the background there
11 is a -- like a Can-Am Spyder trike motorcycle that's driving by 12 on the first lane. At the same time there's a dark-colored
13 vehicle driving by this white vehicle over here. And behind
14 that vehicle is this white pickup truck that has a steel or 15 metal toolbox in the bed of the truck. I could see all of those 16 vehicles proceeding northbound on northbound I15 bridge over the 17 bridge at this time in the aerial footage.

18 Q. And is this image incorporated in your timeline?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And it will depict in your timeline the time that you were 21 able to derive while looking at the aerial surveillance?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness Exhibit
24 169A?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. Now, Agent Willis, were you able also to -- you talked about
3 reviewing public media. Did you also review any documentaries
4 that had been published about the Bunkerville events?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And was one of those called -- published by PBS?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what was that documentary?

9 A. American Patriot.

10 Q. And was that by a particular show affiliated with PBS?

11 A. Frontline.

12 Q. And approximately when did that show air?

13 A. On May 16th, 2017.

14 Q. Did you review the entire documentary?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And based on your review, did you capture images that 17 pertain and are relevant to the events of April 12th, 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Looking at 169A. What is this an image of?

20 A. This is an image of Scott Drexler.

21 Q. And how are you able to determine that?

22 A. The image include -- it does not include his face, but I
23 have determined that this is Scott Drexler from his tattoo on 24 his arm, his firearm, his camouflage pants, his handgun, his 25 shirt, and his tactical vest.

1 Q. And those are consistent with known images of April 12th,
2 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you know where in terms of the events of April 12th,
5 2014, this image was captured?

6 A. Yes, this would be -- would have been taken at the entrance
7 to the assembly area/parking area off of northbound I15 across
8 from the BLM Post 1 entrance to the ICP.

9 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 169A.

10 THE COURT: Same objection?

11 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. Drexler joins.

13 THE COURT: Same response?

14 MR. MYHRE: Same response.

15 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 169A is admitted.

16 You may go ahead and publish it for the jury.

17 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 (Government's Exhibit 169A is admitted.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Okay. I believe that's up before the jury now, Agent
21 Willis. 169A, if you would just circle the individual
22 identified as Mr. Drexler.

23 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
24 is circling the image of an individual directly in the center of 25 the exhibit.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And if you would just point out for the jury what
3 characteristics of this image you used to identify it as
4 Mr. Drexler?

5 A. His shirt, his tactical vest, his rifle, his handgun, and 6 his camouflage pants.

7 Q. You indicated that this was taken near the assembly area.
8 Is that right?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And how can you -- can you tell from this image that it was 11 taken near the assembly area?

12 A. Yes, I'm familiar with the location of the cars that had 13 parked in that area and the times when they were -- they had 14 arrived as well as the other individuals in the area, including 15 the individual behind Mr. Drexler with the handgun and the 16 individual in front of him with the long gun and the peach or 17 salmon-colored pants.

18 Q. So there's an individual also with a blue shirt, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And could you circle that image, please.

21 And is there another individual with a blue shirt
22 there, too, as well?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And so those two images that you've circled --

25 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness

1 has circled two images of individuals in blue shirts about the
2 right portion of Exhibit 169A.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Did you use those images in assisting you to time stamp this
5 particular ...

6 A. I did, along with other admitted evidence.

7 Q. Now, I neglected to ask that predicate question, but was 8 this image time stamped when you derived it?

9 A. No, it was not.

10 Q. But you were able to do so. Is that correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness Exhibit
13 160?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. This was previously identified as the exhibit from the 17 Bushman Dropbox, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. We've looked at it before?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you use this image in assisting you to time stamp?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. And how did this assist you in that process?

24 A. The image we just -- we previously saw, just saw, would have 25 been taken at approximately the same time based on the position

1 of Mr. Drexler as well as the person standing next to him with
2 his arms crossed in the blue shirt.

3 Q. If you would circle that individual, please.

4 Circling an individual in the blue shirt?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you used that image to assist you in time stamping what
7 we just looked at as 169A?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, the Bushman photo that we're looking at here at 160,
10 again, this was time stamped, correct?

11 A. Yes, it was.

12 Q. Now, obviously with this image, but with 169A, that image
13 you incorporated in your timeline?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. Which will be shown later. Is that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness 169C?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 MR. MYHRE: 169C.

20 May I have just a moment, Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 (Prosecution conferring.)

23 MR. MYHRE: I'm sorry. I think I -- Your Honor, may we 24 go back to 160?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. MYHRE: I think I may have brought it down before
2 the jury was able to see it. I apologize for that.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Okay. 160 now appears before the jury. If you could again,
5 Agent Willis, identify the individuals that assisted this -- how
6 this image assisted you in time stamping 169A?

7 A. So in the previous image where we just see Mr. Drexler from 8 pretty much the collarbone down where he's standing slightly
9 turned to his left, that's where he would be here. And he's 10 standing next to a person with their arms crossed in a
11 short-sleeved blue shirt, and that's this individual here.

12 MR. MYHRE: Again, the record should reflect that the 13 witness has drawn two circles. One -- both individuals -- both 14 circles to the right side, right half of Exhibit 160. The 15 individual to the left identified as Mr. Drexler. The 16 individual to the right identified as an individual with the 17 blue shirt, arms crossed.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And is that individual that -- or that image that assisted 20 you in time stamping 169A?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And that's -- and both of these are incorporated in your 23 timeline, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. Now, if we could bring up 169C,

1 Your Honor, just for witness and counsel only.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Do you see 169C?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. Where was this exhibit derived from?

7 A. The American Patriot Frontline documentary.

8 Q. Same program as 169A that we just looked at?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Where is -- what is generally depicted in 169C?

11 A. It is Scott Drexler in the foreground appearing to be 12 kneeling. To his right and with his rifle pointed between the 13 Jersey barriers on northbound I15 is Mr. Eric Parker.

14 Q. Do both individuals -- are they wearing clothing consistent
15 with known images that you reviewed for April 12, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And approximately where is this image taken with respect to 18 the events of April 12th?

19 A. This would be taken facing east or northbound on the 20 northbound I15 bridge in Bunkerville.

21 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 169C.

22 THE COURT: Continuing objection to 169C?

23 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Same response, Mr. Myhre?

2 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 169C will
4 be admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

5 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 (Government's Exhibit 169C is admitted.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And, Agent Willis, 169C now appears to be in front of the 9 jury. Again, would you circle Mr. -- for record --

10 MR. MYHRE: Oh. It is not apparently in front of the 11 jury.

12 A JUROR: Some.

13 THE COURT: Do we have it now?

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Now 169C appears to be in front of the jury. Would you
16 please for record purposes identify Mr. Drexler.

17 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling an image he identifies as 18 Mr. Drexler, bottom half toward just right center of the
19 exhibit.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. And would you please also circle Mr. Parker.

22 MR. MYHRE: Witness has circled an individual
23 approximately center screen of Exhibit 169C he's identified as
24 Mr. Parker.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Now, when you obtained this image, was this time stamped?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Were you able to do so?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And using other exhibits?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And do you see within this exhibit itself other images that
8 assisted you in time stamping this particular image?

9 A. Yeah. So the positioning of the people in general on the 10 bridge, but also what we had done previously with the Hugh 11 Gourgeon photo where you could see Jim Urquhart, who is here,
12 and then the Citizens Action Network lady, who is right next to 13 him, I was able to approximate the time that this was taken.

14 Q. And is that from the Gourgeon photo?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Just for purposes of refreshing
17 recollection, can we go back to 139, please.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object. His recollection
19 has not been impaired in any way at this point.

20 MR. MYHRE: Just for point of reference, Your Honor,
21 may we see Exhibit 139?

22 THE COURT: So not to refresh recollection, but just 23 for point of reference visually. Is that what you're saying?

24 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead. Objection overruled.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And do you see the individuals again you mentioned in this
3 image?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did this image from 139 assist you then in time stamping
6 169C?

7 A. Yes, as well as the Gourgeon video that we had discussed
8 earlier with the similar positioning of both Mr. Parker and 9 Drexler as the vehicles are passing by, short segment video.

10 Q. And from that video, those vehicles were -- you were able to 11 derive -- or excuse me -- compare to aerial surveillance?

12 A. Yes, sir. Yes.

13 Q. And the aerial surveillance is time stamped and you used
14 that?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: So if we could go back to 169C.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. So this image will be incorporated in your summary timeline?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And will have the time stamp on there that you've derived?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness 169D?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And, Agent Willis, showing you 169D. What does that appear

1 to be?

2 A. This appears to be an image of Scott Drexler kneeling down
3 with his rifle slung in front of him on the northbound I15
4 bridge.

5 Q. And you know it to be Mr. Drexler how?

6 A. Based on his clothing, his facial features, and his rifle.

7 Q. And where was this image derived from?

8 A. This is, again, the American Patriot Frontline documentary.

9 Q. And from this image were you able to identify specific
10 characteristics that allowed you to correlate it to April 12,
11 2014?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what were those?

14 A. Well, the positioning of the people on the northbound I15
15 bridge, but also when comparing it in the same methodology as I
16 had mentioned in the previous photograph through the Gourgeon --
17 Hugh Gourgeon photographs, I was able to determine an 18 approximate time stamping for this photograph.

19 Q. And it's April 12, 2014, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 169D.

22 THE COURT: Continuing objection?

23 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

1 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

2 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. 169D will be
4 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it.

5 (Government's Exhibit 169D is admitted.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And 169D appears to be before the jury. And for record
8 purposes, would you please circle the individual who appears to 9 be Mr. Drexler.

10 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
11 circling an individual in the right center of the image.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. And does Mr. Drexler appear to be holding anything?

14 A. Yes, he's holding a rifle in front of him.

15 Q. Now, we just saw 169C. Is there a correlation between 169C
16 and 169D?

17 A. Yes, it would have been taken around the same time. Jim
18 Urquhart is actually kneeling at this point to Mr. Drexler's
19 right. He's in the blue shirt holding the camera down to his 20 left.

21 Q. If you would circle Mr. Urquhart, please.

22 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect witness is
23 circling an individual to the far right portion of Exhibit 169D
24 wearing a blue shirt, appears to be holding a camera.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And did that image assist you in time stamping this
2 particular image?

3 A. Yes, along with the Gourgeon video and photographs.

4 Q. So the same images and media that you reviewed for 169C
5 assisted you with 169D in terms of time stamping?

6 A. That is correct.

7 Q. And both of those images, including this one, will be
8 incorporated in your summary timeline?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that will reflect the time that you derived?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 50 to the 13 witness?

14 THE COURT: 50 or 150?

15 MR. MYHRE: 50, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: 50. Thank you. You may.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Do you see Exhibit 50?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. Where was Exhibit 50 -- well, first of all, what is depicted
21 in Exhibit 50?

22 A. It is a screen capture from a Facebook page for David Lee
23 Williams.

24 Q. Was this a public posting or private posting?

25 A. Public.

1 Q. How -- who derived this image or who obtained this image?

2 A. This was done by one of my fellow agents, this screen
3 capture in particular. But this image, the actual photograph,
4 is available today. I viewed it a day ago on Mr. Williams'
5 Facebook page.

6 Q. So this image is available publicly. Is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And, generally speaking, what's depicted in that image?

9 A. Again, it's a screen shot of a Facebook page, but the image
10 within that is a photograph of the northbound I15 bridge facing
11 the southbound I15 bridge. And Eric Parker is in the prone
12 position with his rifle pointed between the Jersey barriers.
13 And Steven Stewart is crouched down, and he's -- he has his 14 rifle leaned up against the Jersey barriers.

15 Q. Was there a time stamp associated with this image?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Were you able to time stamp it?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And how did you do that?

20 A. By the vehicles on the southbound I15 bridge, I was able to 21 time this as those vehicles are passing by.

22 Q. Using the aerial surveillance?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So this correlates to April 12, 2014?

25 A. Yes, it does.

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's Exhibit
2 50.

3 THE COURT: Same objection?

4 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

6 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

8 MR. MYHRE: Same response.

9 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 50 will be admitted.
10 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

11 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 (Government's Exhibit 50 is admitted.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And Exhibit 50 is before the jury now, Agent Willis. And if
15 you would, please, identify again for record purposes Mr. Parker
16 in this exhibit.

17 MR. MYHRE: Witness is circling an individual in the 18 lower-left portion of the exhibit.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. And Mr. Stewart.

21 And you know them based upon the clothing -- known
22 clothing they wore that day, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And just circle the images that you used to help you to time
25 stamp this.

1 MR. MYHRE: And, again, witness indicating on the
2 exhibit vehicles that appear in about the center portion of the
3 exhibit, but above the images that he's described as Mr. Parker
4 and Mr. Stewart.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And is this image used in your timeline as well?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And is -- does that reflect the time that you derived
9 correlating it to the aerial images?

10 A. Yes, it does.

11 MR. MYHRE: And lastly, Your Honor, may we show the
12 witness Exhibit 51?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Do you see Exhibit 51?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And what is depicted there?

18 A. This is a -- another screen shot from a Facebook page. This 19 time from the page of Eric Dahlen, the Third. In the image on 20 the screen capture is Scott Drexler with his rifle pointed 21 between the gap in the Jersey barriers in a prone position on
22 northbound I15.

23 Q. Was this image on Mr. Dahlen's Facebook page, was this 24 available publicly?

25 A. Yes, and it still is after -- I mean, as of a day or two

1 ago.

2 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to speak over you.

3 A. I'm sorry.

4 Q. But this was an image then that you were able to physically
5 observe on the public posting?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And you recognize Mr. Drexler from clothing?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you recognize the position of his body?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And is it consistent with other known photos you've derived
12 of Mr. Parker on April 12, 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 51.

15 THE COURT: Same objection continuing?

16 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Same response?

21 MR. MYHRE: Same response.

22 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 51 is
23 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Government's Exhibit 51 is admitted.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. It appears now that the image is before the jury. Looking
3 at Exhibit 51, again, for record purposes draw a circle around
4 Mr. Drexler.

5 Did this image --

6 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the
7 witness has drawn a circle around the image about the center
8 portion of the exhibit he's identified as Mr. Drexler.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Did this image come with a time stamp?

11 A. No, it did not.

12 Q. And were you able to derive a time?

13 A. Yes, I was.

14 Q. And how did you do that?

15 A. From the Hugh Gourgeon photographs and video.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I draw up 146?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And do you see 146?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. Is this -- did this assist you in deriving a time stamp for
22 Exhibit 51?

23 A. Yes, along with the -- this is a screen shot from Hugh 24 Gourgeon's video, but the photograph from Hugh Gourgeon that is 25 time stamped with this similar imagery in. So those two things,

1 the screen shot from the video and the photograph, helped me
2 approximate a time for the Eric Dahlen, the Third, Facebook
3 photo.

4 Q. And was -- for the Eric Dahlen, which was Exhibit 51?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Is that incorporated in your timeline?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And did you indicate the time that you derived following
9 this methodology?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: May I have just one moment, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 (Prosecution conferring.)

14 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, I did say lastly before,
15 but this time, lastly, may I show Exhibit 170?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: This will be the last one for today. I
18 know we're coming up to the ...

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Do you see Exhibit 170 before you?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. Where was this derived?

24 A. This was -- so the American Patriot Frontline video
25 documentary, that was linked to a PBS.com article that included

1 this photograph. So this is just a still photograph that was
2 embedded within a PBS article.

3 Q. And if you would just -- and do you recognize the images
4 captured in that article?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And what are they? What is it, I should say?

7 A. Eric Parker in a prone position with his rifle between the 8 Jersey barrier gap.

9 Q. And is this at a different time than the previous photos
10 we've seen of this?

11 A. No, this would be a similar time as the other Frontline
12 screen captures from the video.

13 Q. And is this consistent with the other Frontline screen
14 captures?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 170.

17 THE COURT: Any objection to 170?

18 MR. TANASI: Same objection Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would also object to the cumulative
21 nature of this one picture that we've seen over and over.

22 MR. MARCHESE: It appears to be the same photo as 169C.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre?

24 MR. MYHRE: With respect to --

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Well, Agent, looking at this photograph, is this the same or
2 a different image that appeared in 169C?

3 A. This would be different. This is a still shot, slightly
4 zoomed in than 169C.

5 Q. So this is a more close-up view of Mr. Parker than from
6 169C?

7 A. Yes.

8 THE COURT: All right. The objection's overruled as to 9 cumulativeness, and the same ruling on the other objection,
10 901(b)(4). Exhibit 170 is admitted. You may go ahead and 11 publish it, and then we'll take our overnight break. So go
12 ahead.

13 (Government's Exhibit 170 is admitted.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And again, Agent Willis, it's now before the jury and just 16 for record purposes circle Mr. Parker.

17 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect witness circling
18 170 approximately the middle of the image an individual
19 identified as Mr. Parker.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. And in terms of time stamping this, did you use other
22 extrinsic evidence to time stamp this image?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. This image did not come with the time stamp embedded in it?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. But you've used this image in constructing your timeline?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Thank you.

4 MR. MYHRE: I believe those are all of the questions
5 that the Government has at this time, Your Honor. We will be 6 recalling Agent Willis later in the trial to work on the 7 timeline.

8 THE COURT: All right. So go ahead and take our 9 overnight break. During this time, I do remind everyone, all of 10 the jurors, that you are not to discuss this case with anyone,
11 not even your fellow jurors. And please remember also do not 12 listen to or view or read -- view, listen, read anything that
13 has to do with this case. Please do not perform any independent
14 research or any investigation.

15 And please do not form any opinion until after you have 16 heard all of the testimony, been provided with all of the 17 exhibits. Then I will provide you with the jury instructions
18 that are the legal instructions that you will apply to the facts
19 as you determine them to be. Then you will hear the closing
20 arguments by all of the parties explaining to you what they 21 believe you have just seen and what that means. Then you will 22 begin your deliberation process, which is when you finally have 23 an opportunity to speak to each other about your opinions,
24 beliefs, findings. And then that will be the deliberation
25 portion when you finally discuss the case. In fact, you have a

1 duty to discuss the case with each other.

2 So we'll go ahead and take our break. I think tomorrow
3 it's different ...

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 10 a.m.

5 THE COURT: 10 a.m. All right. So we'll see you back
6 here at 10 a.m. tomorrow morning. And let's go ahead and stand
7 for the jury. We'll go ahead and excuse them and welcome them
8 back at 10 a.m. tomorrow morning.

9 And, Special Agent Willis, we'll have you come back at 10 10 a.m. tomorrow morning, too, and see if there's any
11 cross-examination.

12 (Whereupon jury leaves the courtroom at 5:10 p.m.)

13 THE COURT: All right. You may be excused, Special
14 Agent Willis. But before we go off record, do we want to 15 discuss juror No. 1 or do you want to do that tomorrow morning?

16 I'm conflicted myself about her. If you want to take a
17 seat. I find it hard to believe that this gentleman, whoever he 18 is, new friend, didn't know that she was on -- a juror in this
19 trial, but sent her that text.

20 And I double-checked her jury questionnaire. She's 21 separated from her ex-husband who is a U.S. Park Service Ranger.

22 MR. MYHRE: We show that her former spouse was not law
23 enforcement, Your Honor, was with Park Service, but not 24 necessarily -- Park Service? Park Service, but not a ranger
25 with the Park Service.

1 (Defense conferring.)

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think --

3 THE COURT: Does the Defense wish to make a motion or 4 sleep on it?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could have the night to think
6 about it, if that would be okay. I think we need to 7 get-together based upon what, you know, she's indicated here and 8 now that -- I mean, I understand that she has family who's been 9 in the Park Service. I think that changes things. If we could 10 just have the night to think about it and come in tomorrow?

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: That would be great. Thank you.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Can we get the exact wording of that text
15 for tomorrow? I mean, I read it into the record. So will we 16 have that, Patty? Can we get that?

17 (Court reporter responding affirmatively.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So that we can -- in case we 19 need to discuss it some more in the morning. All right. Then
20 let's go ahead and talk about it tomorrow morning at 10 a.m.
21 we'll be back here. Off record.

22 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 (Whereupon the proceedings concluded at 5:12 p.m.)

P R O C E E D I N G S

(Jury out.)

COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for Jury Trial, Day 13, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

THE COURT: All right. Well, I understand you all want to speak about the juror. I think that's a good idea that we discuss it before we bring everybody back in.

But before we even get to that, let me just remind everyone about the conduct that is expected in the courtroom today. Whether or not the jurors are here, whether or not we are at sidebar or taking a break or otherwise, this is a courtroom. It's not a sporting event, so it's never appropriate to show any expression of your opinion no matter how much you may agree or disagree with what is being said in court.

Likewise, the defendants have been warned every day, every morning that we do have the holding cell with recording equipment providing speaker communications so they can hear

1 what is happening in the courtroom, if they waive and forfeit
2 their right to be in the courtroom by displaying any kind of
3 inappropriate language, distraction, speaking to each other
4 during sidebar or to the jury or trying to communicate in any
5 way by writing things down and showing them to somebody.

6 So, the other thing that we need to remind everyone
7 of is that there are no electronic devices permitted in the 8 courtroom, so that means that if you have a phone, laptop,
9 iPad, any kind of device like that, it needs to be outside.
10 Even if it's turned off, even if it's in vibrate mode or 11 privacy mode, they are not permitted in the courtroom.

12 There is no audio recording or video recording
13 permitted in the courtroom in federal courts. And the 14 attorneys and the defendants are permitted to have 15 communication devices, and laptops, and computers and things.
16 They need to be able to follow along with the evidence or 17 present evidence or review their notes.

18 The marshals and the court security officers are 19 permitted to have communication devices so that they can
20 operate and fulfill their duty to keep everything safe.

21 So, we do have the podium in the right direction.
22 All the attorneys have a speaker. I'm sorry. I mean a
23 microphone with on and off buttons. I know it's difficult to 24 remember sometimes, but when we go do sidebar, if you could 25 please try to remember to turn off your microphone when you get

1 up to leave to go to sidebar, so that if there is anything
2 that's being said, it won't accidentally get picked up. But --

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can I just address that
4 point?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MR. TANASI: I don't know how to do that. I can
7 press to kind of mute when I talk, but I don't know how to turn
8 it off.

9 THE COURT: Oh, it doesn't stay off when you push it?

10 MR. TANASI: No.

11 THE COURT: Oh, yours don't --

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: They do not, Your Honor.

13 When we go to sidebar, I mute every other microphone.

14 THE COURT: All right. So, you are doing that. You
15 mute it from your panel?

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So, we'll take care of that,
18 apparently. You don't have to worry about that.

19 MR. TANASI: Okay.

20 THE COURT: All right. So, I think that's all. So,
21 let's go ahead then and address the issue with the juror.

22 I did ask the court reporter yesterday to provide me
23 with the exact language again to make sure that I didn't 24 misremember it today or paraphrase it. So, here's what it is.
25 The text that she received said -- and I am quoting -- "You

1 have two hours more to finish -- to finished," past tense.

2 "You have two hours more to finished, pass death sentence on 3 these prisoner."

4 All right. So, who wants to be heard first?

5 Mr. Tanasi? You are looking at me.

6 MR. TANASI: Yeah.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think after giving it some 9 thought overnight, the defense doesn't have a motion at this 10 point to -- to excuse the juror. I think when she came in, she 11 was very -- it seemed hard for her. She seemed honest about
12 it.

13 She seemed like it was something that offended her
14 that she got it. And again, I'm kind of reading the tea leaves
15 with it, but I don't -- I don't think -- and then when pressed, 16 she ultimately said that, you know, she still could be fair and 17 impartial despite that text, receiving that text.

18 So, I don't think that there's sufficient grounds to 19 move to excuse her at this point.

20 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else wish to be heard?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would just add that, you know,
22 while the message to her was somewhat concerning to us, there's 23 two additional.

24 First of all, she indicated that -- well, first of 25 all, she came to you. So, you know, that shows honesty that

1 she's listening to what the Court has to say, and that's what
2 we're here to get is a juror that is honest. And immediately
3 when she got it, she gave it over to the Court, so it shows
4 honesty.

5 And then secondly, she indicated in her note that she
6 wants to sit on the jury. So, I think that, you know, added
7 with the fact that she indicated that she could still remain
8 fair and impartial, we -- we, at this time at least, would not
9 move to have her dismissed.

10 THE COURT: What do you mean by she added in her
11 note?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I believe she indicated that she 13 wanted to serve on the jury at some point? Oh, it was in 14 response to your questions, I guess.

15 THE COURT: Oh, I was thinking I don't remember the 16 note.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize. I don't know I heard
18 it. I don't know from -- when you're sitting up there, I don't
19 know if you are reading. But she indicated, in response to one
20 of your questions, that she wants to remain on the jury.

21 So, given all that and the totality, we discussed it;
22 and, at this time, we would not ask that she be removed.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Myhre, what's the 24 government's position? Or Ms. Creegan, whoever wants to speak.

25 MR. MYHRE: Yeah, the government's position is the

1 same, Your Honor. We have no motion to strike the juror at 2 this time. We believe her responses to the Court's inquiry
3 were sincere.

4 And as Mr. Leventhal points out, the fact that she
5 came to you shows that she takes her duties as a juror very 6 seriously. And her demeanor in response to your questions we 7 felt corroborated that as well.

8 THE COURT: All right. All right. Well, thank you.
9 I'm glad that you're in agreement, so that makes it easier.

10 And this morning, when she came in, in the hallway,
11 she told Aaron that she blocked that person, so that she won't
12 be receiving any texts. That doesn't stop that person from 13 sending more texts, but her understanding is that it blocks her
14 from receiving the text.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: The only question I would have, if 16 the Court were to inquire more, just one more question is 17 whether or not she shared that with any of the other jurors or 18 if she just shared that with the Court immediately.

19 Because then we would have to ask other jurors,
20 because it is a pretty concerning statement. So, that's the 21 only question I don't think the Court inquired --

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- yesterday on, and that's something
24 I would like to know is whether or not she just shared that 25 with anybody or anybody saw it.

1 THE COURT: That's a fair question. We can certainly
2 ask her that.

3 Aaron, do you want to bring her in? Anything else
4 that you want me to ask her before we bring her in so I can be
5 thorough?

6 MR. MYHRE: Nothing from the government, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 (Pause in the proceedings.)

9 (Juror No. 1 entered the courtroom.)

10 THE COURT: Good morning. Go ahead and have a seat,
11 Juror No. 1. Everyone may be seated.

12 All right. So we just had a follow-up question that 13 I wish I had remembered to ask you yesterday, but I didn't, and 14 so I just need to clarify with you.

15 When did you receive that text?

16 JUROR NO. 1: Like five minutes before I showed Aaron
17 my phone.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So, that was -- was that lunchtime
19 or was that the afternoon break? I'm trying to remember.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That was the afternoon
21 break.

22 THE COURT: Afternoon break? All right. And when 23 you received the text, did you show anyone else the text?

24 JUROR NO. 1: No.

25 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with any of the other

1 jurors?

2 JUROR NO. 1: No.

3 THE COURT: All right. And after you were called in
4 to the courtroom, by yourself -- I'm sure some of the jurors
5 must have noticed that -- and then came back, did you discuss
6 with them anything about what happened in court?

7 JUROR NO. 1: I just said that I had received a text,
8 and that I came in and talked to you.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 JUROR NO. 1: But not about what the text was about 11 or anything. No, I have not shared that text with anyone. You
12 and Aaron have seen it.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 JUROR NO. 1: And, in fact, I have deleted it off my
15 phone.

16 THE COURT: All right. And Aaron told me that you
17 said that you have now blocked that particular person, so that 18 even if they do try to --

19 JUROR NO. 1: Yes.

20 THE COURT: -- text you again, you won't receive it,
21 at least not a text. If they call you --

22 JUROR NO. 1: They are blocked. The whole contact
23 information is blocked, so they can't contact me.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So even a phone call --

25 JUROR NO. 1: Right.

1 THE COURT: -- would be blocked.

2 JUROR NO. 1: They can't call me.

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right. I think that's 4 everything that we have.

5 All right. Well, thank you very much. And I
6 appreciate you letting us know right away. And if you do
7 receive any other communications, please continue to let us
8 know right away.

9 JUROR NO. 1: Okay. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 (Juror No. 1 left the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: All right. So, the juror has left the 13 courtroom. It's just us. No jurors are in the courtroom.

14 Any other motion or any other request, or can we go
15 ahead and bring all of the jurors back in?

16 MR. MYHRE: Nothing in light of that from the 17 government, Your Honor.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Nothing on behalf of the defense.

19 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor. We are 20 ready to go.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, let's go ahead and bring 22 the rest of the jury in, Aaron.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 (Jury in.)

25 THE COURT: All right. The jury may go ahead and be

1 seated. Everyone else may be seated as well.

2 All right. We are back on the record. Everyone is
3 present. We have our witness, FBI Special Agent Joel Willis on
4 the witness stand.

5 Let's go ahead and have counsel make their
6 appearances on the record, and then we'll proceed.

7 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning
8 ladies and gentlemen. Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed
9 on behalf of the United States.

10 THE COURT: Good morning.

11 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning,
12 folks. Richard Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present.

13 THE COURT: Good morning.

14 MR. TANASI: Also with us at counsel table is Tori
15 Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
17 morning ladies and gentlemen. Jess Marchese appearing on 18 behalf of Eric Parker.

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd
21 Leventhal here on behalf of the Mr. Scott Drexler.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on
24 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

25 THE COURT: Good morning. So, we ended yesterday

1 with the direct examination by the government.

2 Does the defense have any cross-examination
3 questions?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker will reserve at this time.

5 MR. TANASI: Stewart's also going to reserve at this
6 time, Your Honor.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mr. Drexler is going to reserve at 8 this time.

9 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, one question. If I was to 10 examine Agent Willis now, would that limit me from examining 11 him again? Because, I mean, I have a few questions that I can 12 ask, but I don't -- I mean, I did reserve my cross.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, you can cross-examine him
14 on the information that he has provided during direct
15 examination, and then if and when he testifies again, you could 16 cross-examine him on the new information but not the old
17 information.

18 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

19 THE COURT: So, just as if he was two different
20 witnesses.

21 MR. PEREZ: Right.

22 THE COURT: If you treat it that way, I think it will
23 be more clear.

24 JOEL WILLIS,
25 having been previously sworn, was examined and testified as

Joel Willis - Cross

1 follows:

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. PEREZ:

4 Q. Good morning, Agent Willis.

5 A. Good morning.

6 Q. I just have a few questions.

7 Brian, can you bring up 171, please?

8 THE COURT: And this is Mr. Perez on behalf of 9 Mr. Lovelien. Go ahead.

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Now, Agent, this is Mr. Lovelien here on the far left;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And you were commenting about the earpiece that he had in 15 his left ear?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, in this picture, you can see -- I believe this is 18 Mr. Parker; correct? To his right?

19 A. Yes, it is.

20 Q. And it doesn't appear that he has an earpiece in his -- at 21 least in this picture, in his right ear; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. Did you ever pick up any radio traffic or do you
24 know if any radio traffic was intercepted?

25 A. No, I do not.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 Q. Okay. So, you do not know or there wasn't any picked up?

2 A. Are you speaking of law enforcement or just anyone --

3 Q. No.

4 A. -- that was there that day?

5 Q. Well, the suggestion is this radio that Mr. Lovelien was 6 utilizing, was there any radio traffic on it?

7 A. I -- I have no knowledge of anyone intercepting any radio
8 traffic coming from or to Mr. Lovelien.

9 Q. Did you ever find any evidence of whether or not the radio
10 was actually working?

11 A. No, and I have no evidence of it not working either.

12 Q. Okay. Brian, can you bring up 5A?

13 That did come in, right, Aaron?

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

16 Q. And Brian, can you -- okay. Just stop right there.

17 Now, over on the far right of the screen, I believe
18 that's Mr. Parker?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that would be his left ear. Does he have an earpiece
21 in his left ear?

22 A. I did not see any earpiece in his left ear.

23 Q. Okay. And Brian, can you go to 9:32 a.m. perchance on 24 that video? No, that's the time on the -- go back to the rally
25 site, so go all the way back.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 Aaron, did 5A -- the screenshot of 5A come in
2 perchance at 9:32?

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I don't see a separate
4 exhibit for it. It may have.

5 MR. PEREZ: It looks like -- go back to -- let it
6 play for a second there.

7 (Exhibit 5A being played.)

8 Q. Stop. Back it up a little bit. A little more. All
9 right. Stop right there.

10 Now, this gentleman on the far right, that would be
11 Mr. Stewart?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And does he have an earpiece in his left ear?

14 A. I do not see an earpiece in his left ear in this
15 photograph.

16 Q. Brian, back it up just a little bit more to bring in this
17 individual on the far right.

18 Now, you see the individual on the far right?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And that would be Mr. Drexler?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And do you see an earpiece in his ear, in his left ear?

23 A. I do not.

24 Q. Okay. Now, you looked at, I'm assuming, hundreds of 25 photos if not thousands of photos; correct?

Joel Willis - Cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Can you give me a ballpark as to how many photos you've
3 reviewed?

4 A. About --

5 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: How many?

7 BY MR. PEREZ:

8 Q. Yeah, just -- you know, obviously, we've seen a number of 9 photographs, and you've selected a few.

10 I mean, do you recall approximately how many photos
11 you've reviewed?

12 MR. MYHRE: Same objection, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

14 (Sidebar.)

15 THE COURT: All right. So, this is Mr. Myhre and 16 Mr. Perez. So, I'm assuming the objection is not to how many 17 but to the questions that follows how many.

18 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

19 MR. PEREZ: What's the question?

20 MR. MYHRE: Well, my objection -- excuse me. The 21 government's objection is, is that this gets into beyond the 22 scope of the direct, because we are into the investigation
23 itself.

24 We did not adduce, during direct examination,
25 everything this witness looked at or reviewed in connection

Joel Willis - Cross

1 with the investigation. I'm assuming that the -- the only
2 pertinent aspect of this would be out of the thousands or 3 hundreds of thousands, how many photos did you have of my 4 client?

5 MR. PEREZ: No, I'm not going there, because this was
6 the time line; right? I mean, you established the time line
7 yesterday. That is what it was. They used the photos from 8 this. I used Facebook. I used Flynn video. I used Madsen
9 dash cam. I'm just trying to get a sense of the volume.

10 THE COURT: Was the question how many --

11 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, just --

12 THE COURT: -- images did he review overall --

13 MR. PEREZ: Right. Yeah, how many --

14 THE COURT: -- or just establishing a time line?

15 MR. PEREZ: No, overall in establishing his time
16 line, the photos, the Facebook posts. I'll tell you what my 17 next question is. How many videos? How many Facebook pages?
18 Basically, that's it.

19 MR. MYHRE: Same objection. I don't see the 20 relevance of it.

21 MR. PEREZ: Well, I mean, they brought all this in 22 yesterday. I mean, yeah, I looked at this. I mean, that's 23 where we started. We started with I believe he said --

24 THE COURT: Why --

25 MR. PEREZ: -- Schillie and --

Joel Willis - Cross

1 THE COURT: Why is the answer to this question
2 relevant?

3 MR. PEREZ: Well, it is to me. I mean, I can't
4 divulge why. I mean, I already have my closing and my theory.
5 I mean, it's no big secret. But I'm not going to ask him is 6 this all you have on him. I'm not going do that now.

7 I just want to know how many. I think the jury
8 deserves to know, or do you want me to do it next time?

9 THE COURT: All right. So, you don't have a response
10 for why it's relevant.

11 MR. PEREZ: Well, I mean, other than in the 12 investigation, I want to know, you know, how did he -- I mean,
13 did he limit the things that he used for creating the time
14 line?

15 There's -- there's a couple of photos that, you know,
16 I am wondering why they didn't come in on the time line that we
17 used in the last trial. I want to know why they are not there.
18 I'm not going to get there now, but at least foundationally, I
19 mean, I will be able to ask him. That's why I wanted to 20 reserve my cross-examination for later to go beyond that.

21 THE COURT: All right. I am trying to parse your 22 response to see if --

23 MR. PEREZ: Good luck.

24 THE COURT: -- see if there's anything. All right.
25 So, you understand the objection is relevance and --

Joel Willis - Cross

1 MR. PEREZ: I don't think there's a relevance
2 objection, because it's certainly relevant.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. PEREZ: The question is whether --

5 THE COURT: How is it relevant?

6 MR. PEREZ: I mean, it's probative of what he looked 7 at in establishing the time line. I don't know that it's any 8 more prejudicial than the fact that we saw the same photo,
9 like, from here, here, here, back and forth yesterday all day
10 long. I mean, that's -- I mean, you know, I can't imagine
11 that --

12 THE COURT: So how is the number of images that he 13 reviewed relevant?

14 MR. PEREZ: Well, I mean --

15 THE COURT: If it's two, if it's 2 million, what is 16 the relevance?

17 MR. PEREZ: Well, I mean, the scope of the 18 investigation, I guess. I mean, what did you look at? How did 19 you find these? But I'm not -- I just want to know the 20 numbers. I mean if --

21 MR. MYHRE: I understand. I'm sorry. Steve Myhre.

22 THE COURT: You understand better than I do.

23 MR. MYHRE: No, I don't, Your Honor. But I
24 understand you want to know the numbers, but the issue is 25 numbers aren't relevant to anything.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay. I will withdraw the question so we
2 can move on, because I don't want to spend the whole day back
3 here.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 (End of sidebar.)

6 THE COURT: All right. All right. We are back on 7 the record. The question is withdrawn. So, let's move on.

8 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

9 Q. So, Agent Willis, in order to put together your time line,
10 yesterday you suggested that you looked at photos, and videos,
11 and Facebook, and things of that nature; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Anything else that you utilized to establish time line?

14 A. Well, like I mentioned yesterday, the actual metadata
15 within the photographs and audio, to include audio.

16 Q. Okay. And as far as the metadata, I mean, we saw quite a
17 few photos yesterday. I mean, were you -- and I understand
18 that some of the photos you weren't able to get metadata off
19 of; correct?

20 A. Well, all the photos have metadata, but whether or not
21 it's accurate to the day and time when that photo was taken,
22 that would be the factor that would make the photograph not
23 time stampable without other characteristics that I can 24 identify within the photo.

25 Q. Right. I believe that you said yesterday something about

Joel Willis - Cross

1 Mr. Gourgeon's photos, that the metadata might have been off.
2 Would that be a function of inputting the time and date into a
3 video camera, for example?

4 A. Well, if it's a video camera, yes. You could set a
5 certain date and time. Your smart phones typically will do it
6 for you or whatever your time zone is on your smart phone.

7 But just to clarify, yesterday I had mentioned that
8 Mr. Gourgeon's photographs were correctly time stamped. The 9 metadata included the time stamping. But for some reason, the 10 videos that he provided, through the subpoena response, were 11 not correctly time stamped.

12 Q. So, he was using two different -- two different cameras
13 then I take it?

14 A. I don't think so. I think he was using the same camera
15 that -- or smart -- smart phone that you could shoot video or 16 take photos with.

17 Q. Okay. But you are not sure?

18 A. I -- I don't recall specifically what camera or device he 19 was using to capture those images that day.

21 further.

22 THE COURT: Anyone else? Any redirect?

23 MR. MYHRE: Not from the government, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So, at this time, do the 25 jurors have any questions for Special Agent Willis?

Joel Willis - Cross

1 Please go ahead and write them on the forms provided.
2 Take your time. Be careful. Try not to use pronouns. When
3 you can, give us the names of the people or a description.

4 And also, this might be a good time to remind
5 everyone, if you do have a specialized knowledge in a
6 particular field, whether it be photography, or military, or 7 any other kind of things, please don't use jargon that might
8 not be familiar to everyone else.

9 So -- or if you want to use the jargon, go ahead and 10 in parentheses or somewhere explain what that word means. You
11 probably know what that word means if you have a
12 specialization, but the rest of the jurors might not. So, it
13 might actually make it more unclear instead of clarifying
14 things.

15 Same thing if you have legal knowledge or have legal 16 terminology -- any kind of terminology, just be careful and put 17 it in parenthesis if you think it's another word the other 18 jurors might not be familiar with.

19 (Pause in the proceedings.)

20 THE COURT: All right. If counsel could please join
21 me at sidebar.

22 (Sidebar.)

23 THE COURT: All right. Jury question or Jury Note, 24 rather, No. 94. The question is: "Did the gap related to the 25 aerial flyover, having to go refuel, have an effect on your

Joel Willis - Cross

1 analysis?"

2 Let me read that again, because there's a couple of
3 things that are crossed out. So, "Did the gap related to the
4 aerial flyover, having to go refuel, have an effect on your
5 analysis?"

6 MR. PEREZ: That refers to time line?

7 THE COURT: Any objection?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

9 MR. PEREZ: No.

10 MR. MYHRE: No.

11 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 95. "You were 12 concerned for safety at the site. You don't know what their 13 intention. Did anything happen that day? Did the individual
14 point a weapon at you?"

15 MR. MYHRE: No, that's irrelevant.

16 MS. CREEGAN: That's for another witness.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is that for him?

18 THE REPORTER: Please speak up.

19 MR. PEREZ: I don't think he was on scene, so --

20 MR. MYHRE: The government agrees, Your Honor. He 21 was not there during the event of April 12th.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So, I think it bears clarifying.
23 I will go ahead and ask the question and add to that "Were you
24 at the site on the day 4/12/2014?"

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 THE COURT: I think it was left over, and they forgot
2 to ask another witness.

3 All right. So, Jury Note No. 96. "At the later date
4 when you visited the site, did you happen to crouch down and
5 look through the gaps in the Jersey barriers? If so, what 6 could you see? Did you take any pictures?" Any objection?

7 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

8 MR. MYHRE: No objection. However, we -- just so the 9 Court understands, we were going to address that in the second
10 half of his testimony.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. MYHRE: But I have no objection to him asking the 13 question now.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So do you want me not to go into 15 "What did you see?" Or just say, "I understand that we are 16 going to have testimony about that later."

17 MR. MYHRE: I think that would be the better.

18 THE COURT: So, we don't go into it now.

19 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And then Jury Note No. 97 has two 21 questions. The first one is: "How would you describe the 22 nature of the content posted on the Citizens Action Network?
23 Your last description was vague."

24 MR. PEREZ: What is that, Your Honor? I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: "How would you describe the nature of the

Joel Willis - Cross

1 content posted on the Citizens Action Network? Your last
2 description was vague."

3 MR. MYHRE: No, objection from the government, Your
4 Honor.

5 MR. PEREZ: No, objection.

6 THE COURT: All right. And the second question on 7 Jury Note 97 asks: "Besides the Bundy incident, can you offer
8 any other examples of content displayed on the Citizens Action
9 page website?"

10 MR. PEREZ: That's irrelevant.

11 MR. MYHRE: I think it calls for a yes or no
12 response. I'm not sure it's particularly relevant, but I don't 13 think it's horribly prejudicial either.

14 THE COURT: Well, I don't know the answer, so I
15 can't -- I don't -- what do you think the answer is? I can't 16 tell.

17 MR. MYHRE: I know what the answer is to the first 18 one. I don't know about the second one in terms of what he 19 viewed in the overall content on Citizens Action Network.

20 If it's just, like, were there -- I don't know --
21 advertisements on there, or, you know, notifications of going
22 to a party or something like that, I don't think it's 23 particularly relevant, but I don't think it's particularly 24 prejudicial. Maybe the answer to the first will address the 25 second.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm trying to imagine what the
2 juror's purpose is in asking this question, and I'm wondering
3 if they are getting confused with -- it's not character
4 evidence, because it's not really --

5 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, but the nature of the site --

6 THE COURT: -- evidence of these individuals.

7 MR. PEREZ: It's the nature of the site.

8 THE COURT: Yeah, they are looking outside of the 9 evidence being presented --

10 MR. PEREZ: Right.

11 THE COURT: -- for some clues. So --

12 MR. TANASI: Maybe if the question is asked with some 13 qualification as Citizens is not a defendant in this case. You
14 know, they are not a coconspirator. I don't believe the 15 government is alleging that Citizens is an unindicted
16 coconspirator, so just some qualification that --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Maybe they are looking --

18 MR. TANASI: -- outside of -- go ahead.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Maybe they are looking to see whether 20 or not there a skew. You know, is this a website that is for 21 patriots or against patriots?

22 MR. PEREZ: That's exactly --

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't know what weight to give the 24 pictures. Maybe that's where -- that's how I read it, is what 25 weight to give it. If it's a website that is for the patriot,

Joel Willis - Cross

1 against the patriot, maybe somebody is having a hard time
2 weighing that.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects. I don't know what the 4 answer is going to be, and I don't want to take that chance.

5 THE COURT: All right. So, I think we all agree with 6 Mr. Myhre that the answer is just a yes or no answer, and we 7 don't want to go into --

8 MR. MARCHESE: That's fine. I don't have any 9 problems with that.

10 THE COURT: -- actual descriptions of the other
11 contents or other examples of content displayed on the Citizen
12 website.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have never seen the website. I
14 don't know what it is myself.

15 MR. PEREZ: I saw it yesterday.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: So a yes or no would probably be
17 sufficient.

18 THE COURT: What's your description --

19 MR. MYHRE: We will call you.

20 THE COURT: -- of the other content posted?

21 MR. PEREZ: That's why I'm sitting here going I don't
22 know.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: If it's limited to a yes or no,
24 that's fine.

25 THE COURT: So, I guess maybe the question -- okay.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 "Did you look at other information on that website?" And he's
2 going to say yes or no. Probably yes from what Mr. Myhre is
3 saying. So, maybe a clarifying question by you all, if you
4 wish to afterwards or not, ask whether in having -- having
5 looked at the other information, did that change your decision
6 to use this photo or did this -- were you concerned about
7 the -- I don't know.

8 Are they trying to see -- are they trying to think
9 maybe it was Photoshopped or something because it's on a site
10 that they have never heard of? I mean, they have some kind of 11 suspicion and curiosity. So, I don't know if there is a way to 12 answer their question without getting into the content of the 13 Citizens Action page, other than clarifying whether or not he 14 had any concerns about the legitimacy of it or the usefulness
15 of it. That seems to be what they are worried about.

16 MR. MYHRE: The government thinks that's an
17 appropriate follow-up question, depending on the answer, if it 18 caused him concern when deciding to download the images he 19 downloaded.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I am not sure what concerns. What do
21 you mean? Did it cause you any concern to download?

22 MR. MYHRE: Affect your decision to download or not 23 download.

24 THE COURT: Like the usefulness of it.

25 MR. PEREZ: Not concern. I don't like that word.

Joel Willis - Cross

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well then, it would open it up to how
2 he picked and choosed [sic] which he's going to bring in, so
3 then that will all become relevant, which I believe wasn't
4 before, which --

5 MR. PEREZ: Which goes back to my question.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- is fine. I don't have a problem
7 with opening that up, but there's follow-up on that. What made
8 him decide to take this picture and not that picture? So, as 9 long as they follow-up on that.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, do you want me to ask a
11 follow-up question or not?

12 MR. MYHRE: Well, we don't -- our position is it
13 wouldn't open up the door that we just talked about in the last
14 sidebar.

15 And again, I can see where the Court is going with 16 the second question with respect to whether the jurors are 17 wondering would the nature of the website cause any bias in 18 what they put on the website or how they displayed it on 19 website.

20 I think that the Court has identified what the motive
21 behind that question is. So, we start going down that -- that 22 slope.

23 MR. PEREZ: Or even how they selected the photos,
24 which goes to how many photos did they look at? How did they
25 make that determination?

Joel Willis - Cross

1 MR. MYHRE: On that website?

2 MR. PEREZ: I mean on all. I mean, that's why I was
3 asking the question, you know, before at the last sidebar.

4 MR. MYHRE: I think we're straying way outside this
5 question right now.

6 THE COURT: Yes. This question is just "Looking at 7 the other content on this website," because it's probably not a
8 website that they are familiar with, as opposed to if they were
9 on a website that they are familiar with so they already have a
10 basic understanding of whether things on that website are 11 worthy of their -- of them giving any weight to it or not.

12 So, all right. So, I will just ask the question and 13 then direct the witness to answer yes or no to the second part
14 of it, and then if you all want to follow up you can or not.

15 MR. TANASI: All right. If we do choose to follow
16 up, I know that I have reserved my questioning for when he
17 testifies a second time. If I did follow up with any questions
18 that came from here, would I still be able to keep that 19 reservation, I guess, in place?

20 Because my understanding is that when he testifies a
21 second time, I still can question him on anything from 22 testimony one and direct two.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. TANASI: So, any follow-ups, I just didn't want
25 to shoot myself in the foot --

Joel Willis - Cross

1 MR. PEREZ: Exactly.

2 MR. TANASI: -- and lose the ability to still cross
3 him on yesterday's testimony.

4 THE COURT: My guess is I would be pretty lenient on
5 that.

6 MR. TANASI: Okay.

7 THE COURT: And not hold you to a -- because there's 8 going to be some crossover in the information that he's 9 provided today and the information he's going to provide at 10 some other date.

11 MR. TANASI: Okay.

12 THE COURT: So, it's going to be hard to distinguish
13 the difference, but --

14 MR. TANASI: Okay.

15 THE COURT: -- clearly here the question is not about 16 why didn't you include other information. The question is why
17 this -- this particular website. They want to know more about 18 it, so that they can gauge its usefulness.

19 MR. TANASI: Okay.

20 THE COURT: Is it a cartoon network site, you know,
21 or something like that where maybe things are portrayed in a
22 particular way that isn't honest.

23 All right. So, I'll just ask the question, and it's 24 up to you if you want to get into anything else.

25 Jury Note No. 98 has two questions. First one is:

Joel Willis - Cross

1 "Were you investigating anyone involved with the incident that
2 happened on 4/12/14 prior to that day?"

3 MR. MYHRE: Anyone involved?

4 THE COURT: Anyone.

5 MR. MYHRE: I think that's --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is the question whether Agent Willis
7 was -- I'm trying to get clarity -- prior to the 12th or prior
8 to when he started his investigation?

9 THE COURT: So, the question is: "Were you
10 investigating anyone involved with the incident that happened
11 on 4/12/14 prior to that day?"

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Prior to 4/12.

13 THE COURT: And they were. They had the undercover
14 guys at the rally. There is that.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

16 THE COURT: I think the answer is going to be "Yes";
17 right?

18 MR. MYHRE: I think the answer is probably going -- 19 well, the problem is, is that --

20 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, that opens it up. Because, I mean,
21 obviously, if they were, we're going to have to ask -- we are 22 not going to leave the jury thinking, "Oh, well. They were 23 investigating these guys before." We are going to say, who,
24 what, why, where, when?

25 MR. MYHRE: We would concur that it's irrelevant and

Joel Willis - Cross

1 prejudicial as well.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, the second question on
3 Jury Note 98 is: "If you -- if your investigation started
4 after the events of 4/12/14, was it a focused investigation or 5 broad?"

6 MR. MYHRE: Vague.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Very vague.

8 MR. MYHRE: If -- I don't think the FBI, at least in 9 my experience, has investigations labeled broad or --

10 THE COURT: Focused.

11 MR. MYHRE: -- focused. So, I'm not sure those words
12 have any meaning in Agent Willis's world.

13 MR. PEREZ: Or maybe they want to know if it was just 14 focused on the Bundy Ranch situation or something more beyond
15 that.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Seems like we should probably give the 17 jury some sort of instruction; right? That they should just 18 consider the evidence going to the particular charges. Seems 19 like they are trying to reach around.

20 THE COURT: Have we not already had testimony that 21 there were -- that there was information the day before in the 22 rally the day before? Or just have we only had testimony about 23 the rally the day of.

24 MR. TANASI: We've had testimony as --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sully came in and said he went

Joel Willis - Cross

1 undercover in two -- two different rallies before, the rally on
2 the 12th and the rally before.

3 MR. MYHRE: There was evidence from Sully as to an
4 undercover he performed before April 12, but that was not part
5 of the FBI investigation. In other words, the FBI was not
6 conducting an undercover out there.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, do you want me to just 8 instruct the jury that any investigations involving someone
9 other than the defendants should not be considered? I don't
10 know.

11 MR. TANASI: If I could chime in.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. TANASI: I know with respect to my client, I know
14 there's no investigation prior to the 12th. And so I think
15 that if the question is not asked, then that's going to plant
16 the seed in the jury's mind that there was an investigation
17 potentially into him. And, so, I guess I would not object to 18 the question.

19 MR. MYHRE: Well, that would then be implying that 20 there's some good character that is involved here, and that's 21 not relevant either. So --

22 MR. TANASI: I think it negates the conspiracy. It
23 has nothing to do with character.

24 MR. MYHRE: No, it doesn't. I mean, that would not 25 be admissible evidence for showing what his intent was on

Joel Willis - Cross

1 April 12th.

2 THE COURT: Yeah, whether or not there's an
3 investigation doesn't mean that there isn't a conspiracy.

4 "Were you investigating anyone prior to the incident
5 that happened on 4/12 prior to that day? If your investigation
6 started after the investigation on 4/12/14, was it a focused
7 investigation or broad?"

8 MR. TANASI: So, I guess, Your Honor, I would ask if 9 you are not going to read it, to not read it at all.

10 In other words, if it's one that you wouldn't read
11 it, wouldn't be one that you would ask the question and then
12 say, you know, "We're not going to ask you to answer that." I
13 guess not call attention to the question at all if Your Honor's
14 not inclined to ask it.

15 MR. MYHRE: We object, too, Your Honor. It's just 16 not -- it opens up too many Pandora's boxes, because we get 17 into whether they were -- anyone suspected of criminal
18 activity. If they say there was an investigation, that would 19 be prejudicial. If they say, "No, it's not. There was no 20 investigation," again, it would imply that somehow character or 21 prior conduct is somehow at issue in this case.

22 So, we would suggest that either the Court say that
23 these are not relevant to this or that the Court instructs
24 saying that your deliberations are confined to the evidence
25 that's presented here, not -- and not other investigations or

Joel Willis - Cross

1 something along that line.

2 I know it's not very helpful, but --

3 THE COURT: In my mind, I'm trying to see if there's 4 some way to satisfy this juror's curiosity, but I don't think
5 that they are going to be able to go off and research this
6 anywhere. So, maybe it doesn't need to be satisfied to prevent
7 them from going off on their own.

8 All right. So, I just won't ask the question. But 9 you do want me to say -- give some kind of limiting instruction
10 about focusing on the --

11 MR. TANASI: I think --

12 MR. MARCHESE: What would Your Honor say?

13 THE COURT: I don't know. That's what I'm trying to 14 figure out.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Steve, what did you say?

16 MR. MYHRE: Words to the effect that you will be 17 instructed at the end of the case about what -- what you may 18 consider and may not consider during your deliberations.

19 MR. MARCHESE: I don't have a problem with that.

20 MR. TANASI: And not actually ask the question.

21 MR. MYHRE: Not ask the question.

22 MR. TANASI: Yeah, I think that's fine.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 99: "When a photo

Joel Willis - Cross

1 is downloaded from an exterior source, can that distort the
2 metadata in any way? Is it possible to still rely on the
3 accuracy of the metadata once it has been uploaded and then
4 downloaded?"

5 MR. TANASI: No, objection, Stewart.

6 MR. MYHRE: No, objection, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: That's the last one. Thank you.

8 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

9 MR. MYHRE: Did we break the record?

10 THE COURT: I think we are right there. I will have 11 to ask Aaron if it was 98.

12 (End of sidebar.)

13 THE COURT: So, Special Agent Willis, I do have a
14 couple of questions for you here. They are from the jury. I
15 am going to read them into the record. However, when you
16 respond, you may go ahead and turn and face the jury, because 17 these are jury questions. They are not my questions. All
18 right?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: So Jury Note No. 94 asks: "Did the gap
21 related to the aerial flyover, having to go refuel, have an 22 effect on your analysis?"

23 THE WITNESS: As far as the time period when the 24 standoff occurred to the time when the BLM left, it would have 25 affected it, because I was not able to see from the aerial

Joel Willis - Cross

1 photography the leaving or demobilization of the BLM and
2 National Park Service vehicles out of the ICP.

3 That would have been the only thing that I would have
4 missed, but I can time that by other means, including photos
5 and videos that were taken that day.

6 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 95 asks: "Were 7 you concerned for your safety at the site when you don't know
8 what their intention is? Did anything happen that day? Did
9 the individual point a weapon at you?"

10 So, I think the first question really is were you at 11 the site on April 12th of 2014?

12 THE WITNESS: No, I was not.

13 THE COURT: All right. And then Jury Note No. 96
14 asks: "At the later date when you visited the site, did you
15 happen to crouch down and look through the gaps in the Jersey
16 barriers?"

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.

18 THE COURT: And then the next question is: "If so,
19 what could you see?"

20 And my understanding from the attorneys is that we'll 21 have more -- a lot more information about that, so we are not
22 going ask the question now, because there will be more
23 information for the jury about that later.

24 And then the next question is: "Did you take any 25 pictures?"

Joel Willis - Cross

1 THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.

2 THE COURT: All right. Then Jury Note No. 97 asks:
3 "How would you describe the nature of the content posted on the 4 Citizens Action Network? Your last description was vague."

5 So, first, do you recall what your last description
6 was?

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, and I remember it being vague.
8 There's a number of photo albums. That's how they organize
9 their photos on there. It appears that the person that 10 populates the images in Citizens Action Network also 11 participates in protests. And I believe that they were out
12 there to document what they believed was possibly going to be a
13 protest on April 12th.

14 And so they have other things. I believe they were 15 involved maybe in, like, the Occupy movement, things like that.
16 And they just happened to be out there during the standoff.
17 And you saw the pictures. That's a sample of the pictures that 18 I collected from that Facebook page. I believe there was,
19 like, 33, approximately, total that they had actually put on 20 that Facebook page. Hopefully that helps.

21 THE COURT: All right. And I think that answers --
22 the next question was also about other examples of contents on 23 the page. So, you've explained that.

24 Jury Note No. 98, the attorneys and I have discussed
25 this question, and we agree that the best instruction, perhaps,

Joel Willis - Cross

1 to give regarding this question is that after you have heard
2 all the testimony and been -- and seen the evidence that's been
3 admitted, I will provide to you jury instructions that will 4 guide you as to what evidence you may consider in reaching your 5 decision in this case.

6 And so this question is asking about information that
7 likely would not be relevant or helpful to information that you
8 can consider. So, rather than introducing that information,
9 I'm just not going to ask that question.

10 Jury Note No. 99 asks: "When a photo is downloaded 11 from an exterior source, can that distort the metadata in any 12 way?"

13 A. When -- when I capture something off of Facebook, it is 14 very likely that Facebook has included some type of EXIF or 15 metadata within that photograph to make it theirs. I'm sure
16 you could track any photograph downloaded from Facebook back to 17 its origin, again, based on the data within the photograph.

18 But on the other side, if you're talking about the 19 Internet and thinking that the Internet just automatically
20 alters things. So, if you have a Dropbox account and you put 21 in photographs of your -- of a family event or something like
22 that, that photograph should be in its native form.

23 Dropbox is just basically a cloud storage service.
24 So, for instance, the Shannon Bushman photographs that Mark
25 Seyler had testified about, and so did I, that was downloaded

Joel Willis - Cross

1 off of a public Dropbox account, just somebody's public cloud
2 storage.

3 So, in that case I would not anticipate any type of
4 EXIF data or metadata change in that -- in that photograph. I
5 did not see a difference in quality, if that's what the 6 question is about, from how I'm viewing it on the computer to 7 what I end up with when I download that and put it on a media
8 device for turning over as evidence to the Court.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, I don't think the 10 question is about whether it distorted the photo itself, like,
11 is it more blurry or whatnot.

12 The question was about the metadata -- that photo's
13 metadata, can that be distorted? I'll just reread it.

14 "When a photo is downloaded from an exterior source,
15 can that" -- the process of downloading from an exterior
16 source -- "can that distort the metadata in any way?"

17 THE WITNESS: Yes. So, when you move a photo from 18 file to file and you store it somewhere on your computer,
19 within the metadata, you can see where -- track which folder
20 that's in.

21 So, it would be like the -- the destination folder or 22 the folder where you were storing that. So that also gets 23 recorded as you move the image from file to file. But certain
24 things, depending on the photograph, don't change.

25 So, during the course of my investigation, I noticed

Joel Willis - Cross

1 that the majority of the photographs, when we've downloaded
2 them -- because with the case with Hugh Gourgeon, with the case
3 of Dennis Michael Lynch, Michael Flynn, all of those things
4 were given to us off of either their computer, which they had
5 used to import the image, or an external media device like a
6 thumb drive. So, it was -- it was not downloaded directly from 7 their -- their camera or their -- their phone.

8 However, in going over that information with them,
9 sitting down and reviewing those photos, we determined that the 10 modified date and time for that -- that image, within the 11 general section of the properties of that photo, so, the 12 metadata, was always consistent. That never changed as we 13 moved it from file to file.

14 Now, if I went in and renamed that file -- that file
15 name to a different file name from what we originally got it
16 from, that would change everything. But we never did that. We 17 downloaded it, sometimes burned it onto a disc, submitted to 18 evidence, and that's what we used to generate our time line --
19 my time line in doing our analysis as far as when that photo or 20 video was taken.

21 THE COURT: So, what if you are downloading it from 22 an exterior source that's not the owner of the camera? For 23 example, off a website? Would the metadata then be possibly 24 corrupted in anyway or distorted, or would it stay continuously
25 the same no matter what?

Joel Willis - Cross

1 THE WITNESS: Yes. Again, if -- if you are
2 downloading a video from YouTube, that video essentially
3 belongs to YouTube, and they have embedded their own
4 information in it.

5 You know, you film a video, you edit a video, you
6 upload it to YouTube, you create that page that -- and the 7 caption for that video, and then you publish the video on 8 YouTube. All of those things, all of those steps can possibly 9 change what you are -- what you would observe in metadata.

10 So, if I downloaded something off of YouTube using 11 the option, if there is, in YouTube to download it, that would 12 include any information that YouTube would allow me to have as 13 well as the information generated by me creating that file on 14 my computer.

15 Like I was saying with Dropbox, that should just be a
16 cloud storage device. And with Shannon Bushman, that was just 17 a public link to his cloud storage. Therefore, the metadata
18 was consistent with what settings he had on his camera that day
19 which embedded that information in those photographs.

20 THE COURT: All right. And the next part of Jury
21 Note No. 99 asks: "Is it possible to still rely on the 22 accuracy of metadata once it has been uploaded and then
23 downloaded?"

24 THE WITNESS: Again, depending on the ways that it
25 was downloaded, like I had mentioned. However, with every

Joel Willis - Redirect

1 photograph and every screenshot that you will see in my time
2 line, I have corroborated that time and that metadata 2 to 10
3 ways. So, there was -- like we've seen -- we've seen dash
4 camera. We've seen aerial photography. We've seen multiple
5 sources of photographs and videos.

6 Through all of that and through my ability to look at 7 everything frame by frame, I was able to synchronize all the 8 videos and synchronize photographs along with those videos to 9 basically have multiple references, not only through the 10 metadata, but also visually and through audio of how I'm time
11 stamping it with every photo.

12 Not just saying this photo matches up, so all of them
13 must match up. Every photo was corroborated through a number
14 of references based on other admitted evidence.

15 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up by the
16 government?

17 MR. MYHRE: Just a couple questions, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.

19
20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Agent Willis, just in response to Question 94, you were 22 asked about the gap, the gap being the time from when the 23 aerial surveillance plane left the Bunkerville area, refueled,
24 and came back.

25 A. Yes.

Joel Willis - Redirect

1 Q. And you responded to that question. I just wanted to
2 follow-up a little bit more.

3 In terms of your analysis, for the time period during 4 which the defendants were on the bridge, from the time that the 5 people in the wash lined up in the middle to the time they
6 pushed forward, was that -- did your analysis -- was that 7 affected at all by the aerial plane -- or, excuse me -- the 8 airplane leaving the site?

9 A. Not at all.

10 Q. In other words, the airplane was on-site during that 11 period of time?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And was the aircraft always -- was it also on-site up
14 until the point that the BLM initially pulled back from the 15 gate?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So, that time period, from the time period of when the 18 horses first arrived at the wash to the time period at which 19 the BLM vehicles are seen pulling back from the gate, that 20 aircraft was on-site during the entire time?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So, it would not have affected your time line analysis?

23 A. No.

24 Q. And just following up to Question 99, you mentioned
25 YouTube, but I wanted to drill down more on Facebook. And we

Joel Willis - Redirect

1 talked about this a little bit on direct.

2 But when you download an image from a Facebook
3 account, is there metadata embedded in that photograph as to 4 when that was initially taken?

5 A. No.

6 Q. So, in order to derive when that photograph was taken, you
7 used other source data; is that correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. And, so, with respect to your time line analysis, you will 10 be able to explain what outside sources you relied upon in 11 order to verify the time?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And one last follow-up. You indicated about when 14 downloading from an outside or external source, that the 15 metadata would change on certain files where you received them;
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you recall that testimony?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So, when -- with respect to that, if you receive, for 21 example, the metadata or the images from Mr. Ellis and 22 Mr. Flynn, that would contain metadata; correct?

23 A. It does.

24 Q. In terms of whether they had copied that from the original
25 device that took the photograph, does that metadata still

Joel Willis - Cross

1 contain data as to when that photograph or image was initially
2 captured?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So that would not change?

5 A. That's correct.

6 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Any follow up from the defense?

8 MR. TANASI: Not at this time, Your Honor. Thank
9 you.

10 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

11 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Drexler?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just a few questions. Thank you.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Good morning.

18 A. Good morning.

19 Q. Regarding the aerial, even though the question was, did
20 the fact that the aerial camera refuel affect your analysis?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay. And that's because it was sort of later in time,
23 around 2:00-ish, 1:00-ish?

24 A. So when you say my analysis, are you speaking of my time
25 line of significant events of that day?

Joel Willis - Cross

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. It did not affect it.

3 Q. Right. Okay. And you indicated that the aerial was 4 flying around when the people were in the wash, and they were
5 sort of -- the horses were in the wash; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. But it wasn't focused on the wash the whole time;
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Bunkerville is how many acres? Do you know how large
11 Bunkerville is?

12 A. No, I do not.

13 Q. Okay. And that aerial was sort of all over the place;
14 right?

15 A. No, I wouldn't say that.

16 Q. Okay. It had views of other areas; the ICP, for example?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. So, it wasn't focused on that particular site
19 underneath the wash on or the bridge; correct? The whole time?

20 A. At all times, that's correct.

21 Q. That's correct. Okay. Thank you. And I know Mr. Myhre
22 tried to clear up metadata. And I just want to -- because I
23 didn't get your answer, and I am not really -- it's -- I don't
24 know what time it is. But right now, what time is it?

25 A. It's 11:23.

Joel Willis - Redirect

1 Q. Okay. So, if I were to videotape you right now at 2 11:20 and I put it on YouTube, would you, pulling that video
3 off of YouTube at 11:20, would that change the metadata?
4 That's my question. That's it. Not whether what Ellis did or
5 anybody else. That's the hypothetical.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Would it then change the time, the metadata after you
8 pulled it off?

9 A. It would create metadata as I would be creating a native
10 new video.

11 Q. Right.

12 A. Because I --

13 Q. I'm sorry. So would it change the time?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. That's all. Thank you
16 very much.

17 THE COURT: Anyone else?

18 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. MYHRE: Just one question, Your Honor.

21 FURTHER REDIRECT-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. In response to Mr. Leventhal's question, you said it would 24 change the time with respect to a YouTube --

25 A. That's correct.

Joel Willis - Redirect

1 Q. -- video? You are not saying with respect to every medium
2 you reviewed?

3 A. That's correct.

4 MR. MYHRE: Nothing further, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Wait. I'm sorry. Mr. Leventhal, was
6 your hypothetical based on YouTube or Facebook?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: It was based on YouTube, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I can follow up on Facebook.

10 THE COURT: No, that's fine. For some reason, I
11 was -- we talked about a lot of things at sidebar. I was 12 making sure as to what it was.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: The question was to YouTube, but the 14 overall question was the web, because that's what was asked.

15 THE COURT: Anyone else?

16 All right. So, Special Agent Willis, you are excused 17 for the time being.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So, thank you very much. Please be 20 careful with those steps on your way down.

21 And the government may call its next witness.

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
23 calls Special Agent Sarah Draper.

24 THE COURT: Good morning, Special Agent. Come on up.
25 You are going to be seated right here to my right.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Be careful with the steps on the way.

3 SARAH GIBSON DRAPER,

4 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: State your full name and
6 spell it for the record.

7 THE WITNESS: My name is Sarah Gibson Draper. Last
8 name is spelled D-R-A-P-E-R.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Good morning, Agent Draper.

12 A. Good morning.

13 Q. Are you currently employed by the Federal Bureau of
14 Investigation?

15 A. Yes, I am.

16 Q. That's the FBI?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. How long have you -- and what is your position with the 19 FBI?

20 A. I'm currently a supervisory special agent in Boise, Idaho.

21 Q. How long have you been a special agent generally with the
22 FBI?

23 A. Almost 14 years.

24 Q. And prior to your service with FBI, do you have any other
25 law enforcement experience?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. I do. I was an officer in the US Army's Military Police
2 Corp for eight years.

3 Q. So, approximately a total of 21 years of law enforcement
4 experience?

5 A. Almost 22. Correct.

6 Q. In the course of your experience as a law enforcement
7 officer, have you had training that you've received?

8 A. Yes, I have.

9 Q. Does that include having attended the Federal Training
10 Academy to become an investigator with the FBI?

11 A. Correct. It's called the FBI Academy, yes.

12 Q. Now, in the course of your position as a federal -- as a 13 special agent with the FBI, were you involved in an
14 investigation of events that took place in the Bunkerville,
15 Nevada, area in April of 2014?

16 A. Yes, I was.

17 Q. And specifically, events taking place on April 12th of 18 2014?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Now, generally, what was your role in this investigation?

21 A. Once -- after the events occurred on April 12th, 2014, and 22 it became apparent, through media posts, that individuals from 23 Idaho had been involved, I began looking in to those 24 individuals from Idaho who had been involved.

25 Q. And specifically, which individuals -- well, were you

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 considered a case agent as a part of the investigation?

2 A. Yes, on three of those individuals. Eric James Parker,
3 Orville Scott Drexler, and Steven Arthur Stewart.

4 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish what's
5 been previously admitted as Exhibit 5B?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to the 1 minute mark?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MS. AHMED: And can you play from there?

10 (Exhibit 5B being played.)

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Stop there. Stop. Can you go back about one second?

13 Agent Draper, looking at Exhibit 5B on the screen
14 before you, do you see the individuals that you have just named
15 that you were investigating?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. No foundation. Lack of 17 personal knowledge.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. May I lay a foundation?

20 Did you review -- you indicated, I believe, that you
21 reviewed media in identifying individuals from Idaho; is that
22 right?

23 A. Yes, that's correct.

24 Q. And it included the three individuals that you named?

25 A. Correct.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And that included photo and video media?

2 A. Yes, that's correct.

3 Q. And do you see any of them, the individuals that you've
4 named, in this video that was just playing?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. No foundation. Lack of
6 knowledge.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, she's indicated that she was 8 a case agent investigating three individuals.

9 THE COURT: So how does she know who they are?
10 That's the question.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Did you -- having viewed individuals -- images of 13 individuals that were displayed, having participated in 14 April 12th, 2014, events in Nevada, did you take steps to learn
15 their identities?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Their names?

18 A. Yes. Yes. Do you want me to go through some of the 19 steps?

20 Q. Can you explain what you did to identify them?

21 A. It included -- well, one of the individuals was identified
22 by name in the media, and so confirmation through Department of 23 Military Vehicles [sic] photos. And then associates that -- 24 the identity of the associates was developed from there based 25 upon other media analysis or social media analysis.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And is that what you did to derive the names of
2 individuals that you --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- believed had participated from Idaho?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Having confirmed names, did you match -- did you also
7 review, then, their DMV photographs?

8 A. Yes. Yes.

9 Q. And they matched -- the names of those individuals matched
10 with -- the photographs in the DMV records, did those also 11 match photographs you had seen from the April 12th, 2014,
12 events?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, looking at Exhibit 5B on the screen to your right, do
15 you see the individuals that you were investigating from Idaho?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And can you identify them, going from the viewer's left to 18 viewer's right, looking that screenshot?

19 A. So --

20 Q. Stopped at 1:04 on 5B.

21 A. Thank you. So, on the left-hand side is Mr. Stewart, in 22 the center in the plaid shirt is Mr. Parker, and on the right
23 side of the three left-most individuals in the blue shirt is
24 Mr. Drexler.

25 Q. And so just to be clear, where I'm writing an "S," is that

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 who you indicated was Stewart?

2 A. Yes.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Asked and answered,
4 Judge. And leading.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'm just --

6 THE COURT: Overruled. Do you want to have her mark
7 on there who's who?

8 MS. AHMED: That's fine, Your Honor.

9 Q. Would you then mark on the screen where you see the other
10 two individuals with the first letter of their last name?

11 And for the record, the agent has confirmed that the 12 individual with an "S" on it, wearing a blue T-shirt, that's 13 Mr. Stewart; correct?

14 A. Yes, that's correct.

15 Q. And the individual with the -- that you wrote a "P" on in 16 the plaid shirt, that's Mr. Parker?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And the individual where you wrote a "D," that's
19 Mr. Drexler?

20 A. Yes. Correct.

21 Q. You can take that down. Thank you.

22 Now, in the course of your investigation, did you
23 take steps to obtain any documents related to the
24 investigation?

25 A. I -- I assisted in the drafting of a search warrant

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 affidavit to obtain search warrants on the three or four
2 mentioned individuals' Facebook pages, after confirming they --
3 those Facebook pages belonged to them through subpoenas for 4 subscriber information.

5 Q. And, so, you determined that the three individuals you've
6 just described had Facebook accounts; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And did you actually, you yourself, go to those Facebook
9 accounts and see what was openly displayed on them?

10 A. Correct. I reviewed public posts.

11 Q. And in doing so, did you -- were you able to confirm that 12 these were the individuals that you were looking -- that you
13 were investigating?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And what items did you observe that allowed you to do
16 that?

17 A. Well --

18 Q. Just generally.

19 A. Oh, generally, just photos -- I mean, photos were -- were
20 sufficient.

21 Q. And then having identified the individual accounts, you
22 indicated that you assisted in drafting search warrants; is
23 that correct?

24 A. Yes, affidavits for search warrants for the three
25 different accounts.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And then did you submit those to the Court?

2 A. Submit -- someone else submitted those to the Court.

3 Q. And then were search warrants obtained?

4 A. Yes, they were.

5 Q. And were documents ultimately provided from Facebook in 6 response to those search warrants?

7 A. Yes, they were.

8 Q. Did you review the documents that Facebook provided in 9 response to the search warrants?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And what then, if anything, did you do with those 12 documents?

13 A. With the -- with the returns? What I --

14 Q. After you had reviewed them, yes.

15 A. I documented what I found to be relevant to the parameters
16 set forth in the -- in the search warrant. So, there's an 17 attachment that establishes what can be kept.

18 Q. And when Facebook provided the records to you, in what 19 format were they?

20 A. It comes in a PDF format, and it's -- it's called a
21 business record. It doesn't look like a Facebook page. If you
22 were a user and looking at it on the computer, it's got a
23 different format, but it's a PDF document.

24 Q. And along with the search warrant, after obtaining these
25 business records from Facebook, in response to the search

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 warrant, were you -- did you also obtain any certification from
2 Facebook that these were authentic business records?

3 A. Yes, I -- I reviewed that -- the certifications that
4 Facebook sent. I myself didn't receive them directly from 5 Facebook but reviewed them.

6 Q. And Facebook provided them in relation to the search
7 warrant?

8 A. Yes. Correct.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the witness
10 and counsel what's been marked as Exhibit 49, page 1.

11 THE COURT: Exhibit 49, page 1?

12 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. Agent Draper, do you see the document that's on the screen
16 in front of you?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And just generally, what is it?

19 A. This is called a Certificate of Authenticity of Domestic
20 Records of Regularly Conducted Activity. So, it's Facebook's
21 certificate of authenticity that the records they provided are 22 true and accurate as described under these four provisions.

23 Q. And looking at page 1 of Exhibit 49, what account is this 24 page referencing?

25 A. This -- this particular account is referencing Eric

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Parker's account.

2 Q. Eric Parker's Facebook account?

3 A. Yes. Yes, his Facebook account.

4 Q. And this is relating, again, to the search warrant that
5 was submitted --

6 A. Right. Correct.

7 Q. -- for his Facebook account?

8 A. This is one of a couple accounts, but this is the only one
9 I did the search warrant on.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves admit
11 Exhibit 49, page 1.

12 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 49?

13 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

16 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

17 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just to clarify, that 18 was page 1 of 49?

19 THE COURT: All right. Page 1 of Exhibit 49 is 20 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

21 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

22 (Exhibit 49, page 1 admitted.)

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. And again, Agent Draper, just -- now that the jury can see 25 it, can you explain to them just generally what it is?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Oh, they can't see it.

2 Q. When the jury can see it, I should say.

3 A. Very good. This is the -- so, this is the Certificate of 4 Authenticity of Domestic Records of Regularly Conducted
5 Activity. And it's signed by the records custodian and
6 notarized and explains that the individual received the search
7 warrant and provided the records.

8 Q. And then again, this was for the -- looking at the second
9 paragraph, there's an identification number.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you see that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that identification number is associated with whose
14 account?

15 A. That was the account for Eric "EJ" Parker.

16 Q. You can take that down. And I believe you indicated
17 earlier that you then reviewed the documents Facebook provided
18 and identified posts in those documents that related to the 19 search warrant?

20 A. Yes, that's correct.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
22 previously marked as Exhibit 88? Just, excuse me. May we show
23 counsel and the witness what's been marked as 88?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, do you see what's on the screen in front of
3 you as 88?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And do you recognize this document?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. What generally is it?

8 A. This is a page. It's a part of Mr. Parker's Facebook
9 return.

10 Q. Your Honor --

11 A. This is a portion of a page.

12 Q. And was this provided by Facebook --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- in response to the search warrant?

15 A. Yes, this was.

16 MS. AHMED: The government moves to admit Exhibit 88,
17 Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 88?

19 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

22 MR. PEREZ: No objection Lovelien.

23 THE COURT: All right. Exception -- exception.

24 Exhibit 88 will be admitted. You may go ahead and 25 publish it to the jury.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

2 (Exhibit 88 admitted.)

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Now, Agent Draper, once it's visible to the jury, which I
5 believe they can all see it now, can you explain what's 6 depicted on the screen generally and then we'll talk about the 7 actual post?

8 A. Certainly. So, the top banner is titled Facebook Business
9 Record, that top blue banner. And it's page 349 of the PDF I
10 was talking about earlier. So, that's what their returns come
11 back as. Again, doesn't look similar to -- if you were 12 actually on a page -- on a computer looking at a Facebook page.

13 And then this is a text -- being highlighted here is 14 a text message written by the user, and then with a title and a
15 URL, which is a link to some other document.

16 Q. So, going -- going line by line looking at this --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- this is a single post that appeared on Mr. Parker's
19 Facebook page; is that correct?

20 A. Yes, that's correct.

21 Q. And Facebook generally, can you explain to the jury what 22 are the different kind of posts that can be made?

23 A. Well, there are -- there are wall posts, there are private
24 messages, and then there's sometimes responses back and forth.

25 Q. So, there might be --

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Right.

2 Q. -- something that's publicly available on their Facebook
3 page --

4 A. Right.

5 Q. -- and underneath that there could be comments?

6 A. There could be comments, correct.

7 Q. Now, looking at this, is this a wall post that was
8 generally -- that would have been on the Facebook page itself?

9 A. Yes. Yes.

10 Q. And can you -- looking at the first line, where it says
11 "date created," what is that?

12 A. So, that is the UTC date, which is the Universal Time
13 Coordinated, the former Greenwich Mean Time or Zulu Time. Kind
14 of the international clock.

15 That says 0:22 UTC. In Idaho, Idaho is Mountain Time
16 Zone, so it's six hours prior to that. So that would have been 17 actually posted approximately 8:22 p.m. the day prior. So, on 18 April 9th. So just subtract six hours from that.

19 Q. So, it says April 9th, but you said it was actually --

20 A. Excuse me.

21 Q. -- the night prior?

22 A. April 8th, yes.

23 Q. So, this post was created and posted on the night of 24 April 8th; is that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And then where it says "text" two lines below, do you see
2 that?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. And is that something that -- well, can you explain to the 5 jury what text means? What is it?

6 A. It would have been something the user would have written.

7 Q. So, presumably the account holder would enter that --

8 A. The account --

9 Q. -- information?

10 A. -- holder. Correct.

11 Q. And then where it says "title" below that, do you see
12 that?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And what is that information?

15 A. That is describing whatever attachment might -- or 16 hyperlink, if you will, the URL that's attached below, the 17 title describing that.

18 Q. And then below that, you see there's a URL. Do you see
19 that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And again, can you explain to the jury just generally what 22 is that?

23 A. It's just a link -- link, kind of a unique address to link
24 to something that's been attached to that message.

25 Q. So, if you are reviewing this post on Facebook, could you,

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 as the person looking at it, could you do anything with that
2 URL?

3 A. Presumably, since that's another Facebook account,
4 depending upon their security settings. But, in general, yes,
5 you can. If you get the business return, those are all active
6 hyperlinks. Someone reviewing it can click on that, and it
7 will pull up whatever is attached.

8 Again, this is another Facebook account, so they 9 might have security settings that would prohibit someone else
10 from looking at that. But in general, that's a -- it's 11 hyperlinked, so it's kind of embedded in there. If you click
12 on it, you can go to that.

13 Q. And in this case, what is the URL that was being shared?

14 A. It was another Facebook posting from the Elko County
15 Lightfoot Militia.

16 Q. And what is the title of the post --

17 A. That is --

18 Q. -- that was being shared?

19 A. -- Northern Nevada Lightfoot Patriot.

20 Q. And generally, can you explain to the jury what are 21 Lightfoot Patriots?

22 A. Oh, Lightfoot would be a militia organization. They do
23 military-style tactical training, and there's -- there's 24 militias throughout the US organized in different fashions.

25 Q. And this one was about the Northern Nevada one; is that

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 correct?

2 A. Correct. Uh-huh.

3 Q. And what then was the text that was put in in association
4 with this URL that was put by the account?

5 A. It says "Got a neighbor in some trouble down in Nevada.
6 What are you going to do when the shooting starts?"

7 Q. And then again, this is -- which account holder is this?

8 A. This is Mr. Parker.

9 MS. AHMED: You can take that down.

10 THE COURT: Hold on a second. I have a question. If 11 we put that back up.

12 So, is it your understanding that he's posting two 13 different links or one link?

14 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, my understanding is he's 15 posting the one link.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I can follow up on that.

17 THE COURT: All right. Because --

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. So, the way that it's --

20 THE COURT: -- the way that it's described on the 21 page, I think, might be misleading to what --

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Understood, so --

24 THE COURT: Or confusing to me.

25

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. -- you described date created. Do you see that where it
3 says date created?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And the next line says "link." Do you see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And in the link, where it says "link," what information is 8 being provided on that line?

9 A. So, that is the -- the www.facebook.com would just be 10 Facebook's general URL address. The slash ericej.parker would 11 be his accounts, and that would be under his posts section.
12 And then that would be a -- an identifier for this particular
13 post.

14 Q. So, is this essentially internal information that Facebook
15 attaches to a post an individual makes?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And then if you were to follow that link, depending on the 18 user's privacy settings, you could go to that post; is that
19 right?

20 A. That's my understanding.

21 Q. Now, that was not the content of what was put on the 22 Facebook page on April 8th; right? That -- that top link line,
23 that's not a part of the content that was displayed?

24 A. Right. That's my understanding, right. Uh-huh.

25 Q. So, what's actually displayed by the user on Facebook is

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 the text and the title and the URL; correct?

2 A. Correct. Yes.

3 THE COURT: The link is not the link. Is that what
4 you you're saying? Right? So, when it says "link," that's not
5 really the link that is on the Facebook page.

6 THE WITNESS: Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: That's a link to the page.

8 THE WITNESS: -- that is my understanding. Correct.

9 THE COURT: The link is actually going to come up
10 under URL; correct?

11 MS. AHMED: Correct. Well, I'm not testifying.

12 Q. Is that correct?

13 A. That's my understanding, yes.

14 MS. AHMED: Okay. Thank you. Your Honor, may we 15 publish then what's already been admitted as 89? Or, it was 16 Government's 89. I don't know if it was admitted as a defense
17 exhibit.

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 89 is admitted.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been 20 admitted as 89?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

23 Q. Agent Draper, looking at 89, can you tell the jury what 24 this is?

25 A. So, this is another post with another URL hyperlinked to

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 something else that Mr. Parker has posted onto his page. It
2 has a -- so, starting at the bottom, it has a unique title, and
3 he did not attach any text to this.

4 Q. So then going back up to the top, where it says "date
5 created; on what date was this post made?

6 A. This would be April 10th of 2014.

7 Q. And the morning of April 10th?

8 A. Yes, approximately 9:32 in the morning in Mountain Time.

9 Q. And again, where it says "link," that's not a part of the 10 content of the post; correct?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. But then going to a line below it, it says "summary." Do
13 you see that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And based on your investigation, what is the summary line?
16 What's contained in that?

17 A. Information about whatever is attached. So, if -- someone
18 else might have written that. If the user wrote something, it
19 would show up under "text."

20 Q. So where it says "summary," that's a summary that's 21 associated with whatever has been shared?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, here can you read what the summary says?

24 A. "Things are getting heated near the rural Nevada ranch of 25 Cliven Bundy. Mr. Bundy has called out for help, and now it

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 appears more and more unorganized militia are going to Bundy's
2 ranch. What is un-" -- and then it drops off from there.

3 Q. So, only a certain amount of the text associated with the 4 attachment shows up in the summary section; is that correct?

5 A. Right. Correct.

6 Q. Now, here what title -- what was the title of the item
7 that was being attached to the post?

8 A. "Militias Mobilizing to Support Embattled Clark County
9 Rancher and Clash with Federal Rangers."

10 Q. And then below that where it has URL, can you read that
11 information?

12 A. Yes. That is a link to a video on -- called Prepperchimp,
13 from April 9th, 2014, titled "Militias Mobilizing to Support
14 Embattled Clark County Rancher in Clash with Federal Rangers."

15 Q. And so this is a post that was being shared on 16 Mr. Parker's Facebook account's --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- wall?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. On April 10th, 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you indicated that there was a video associated with 23 this link; is that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And have you previously reviewed that video?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Previously. It's been a few months.

2 Q. And was that actually a video embedded in a news article
3 that would come up when you pulled up this link?

4 A. Yes.

5 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we go Exhibit 37,
6 which has been previously admitted?

7 THE COURT: Before we leave Exhibit 89, could the 8 witness please clarify if this is posted by the host of the 9 website, by Parker, or by someone else on his website? I
10 apologize if she already said that, but I missed it.

11 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, my belief is that he had 12 posted this onto his web -- onto his Facebook page.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. And just to follow up on that, Agent Draper, looking at a
15 Facebook account, can -- if someone -- if someone has a
16 Facebook account, can another Facebook holder put information
17 on their wall?

18 A. I'm sorry?

19 Q. Can another Facebook holder post information to their 20 publicly available wall?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, when looking at the Facebook business records, are 23 you able to differentiate, looking at them, if the post was 24 from another user versus that -- the actual account holder?

25 A. I believe so. But right now, honestly, I couldn't explain

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 right without seeing it, the difference. So --

2 Q. When you're looking at the Facebook account openly, can
3 you see the difference between --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- a user posting and another user?

6 A. You can tell when you are looking at it openly.

7 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may I move to the next
8 exhibit?

9 THE COURT: So this is just a summary? This isn't
10 the actual information. Is the next exhibit --

11 MS. AHMED: So --

12 THE COURT: -- explaining this better.

13 MS. AHMED: So, the next exhibit would be the video
14 that she referenced was associated with the article.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MS. AHMED: So, then may we publish, Your Honor,
17 Exhibit 37?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. And Agent Draper, so when you went to the -- when you
21 followed that link, it would go to a news article; is that
22 correct?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. And then embedded in that was a video?

25 A. Correct.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And have you previously reviewed Exhibit 37?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And is it that video that would be embedded in that
4 article?

5 A. You know -- yes, this is the video. I don't know it by 6 exhibit number, but this is the video.

7 MR. MARCHESE: I'm going to object as for to 8 foundation, where and when she reviewed this.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. And how long ago did you review that link?

11 A. Probably in this spring. It would have been around April,
12 I believe, time frame.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we play the video?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 37 being played.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And --

18 A. That might have been March when I last reviewed it. I
19 don't recall the exact month.

20 Q. Now, just to clarify, at this point, when was the search
21 warrant submitted to Facebook, generally in --

22 A. In July of 2014.

23 Q. And when were the documents provided back from Facebook,
24 generally?

25 A. Probably in August, September of 2014.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And --

2 A. Within the latter.

3 Q. When you initially did your review of the documents
4 provided, was it close in time to when the documents were
5 returned from Facebook?

6 A. Yes. Yes. It took a while to go through everything. A
7 few months.

8 Q. So, is it -- would it be correct then that sometime
9 between when you received the documents and the present is when 10 you followed that link that was exhibited in --

11 A. That's --

12 Q. -- the provided link?

13 A. That's correct. Yes.

14 MS. AHMED: Now, Your Honor, may we then show the 15 witness what's been previously marked as Exhibit 90?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Agent Draper, do you recognize what's contained in
19 Exhibit 90?

20 A. This would be a -- a status update posted by Mr. Parker.

21 Q. And is this a business record that was provided from
22 Facebook --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- in response to the search warrant?

25 A. Yes.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, government moves to admit
2 Exhibit 90.

3 MR. TANASI: No objection, Parker.

4 MR. MARCHESE: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

6 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 90 will be admitted.

8 MS. AHMED: And may we publish?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Now, Agent Draper, looking at Exhibit 90, can you just 12 explain to the jury what it means by updated his status or the 13 status update? Where -- where would it have been displayed on
14 Facebook?

15 A. It's displayed somewhere on his page.

16 Q. It would be something that was openly displayed depending 17 on his privacy settings?

18 A. Depending upon his privacy settings, right.

19 Q. Now, meaning this is not a private message between him and 20 another user; is that correct?

21 A. Right. Correct.

22 Q. And what time was this particular post made? What date
23 and time? Excuse me.

24 A. This would be April 10th of 2014 at approximately 25 2:53 p.m., Mountain Time, Idaho.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. So, in the afternoon of April 10th; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what -- where it says "story," do you see that?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And is that -- what -- just generally, what information is 6 provided in that line?

7 A. Just tells what he did. It says, "Eric "EJ" Parker
8 updated his status."

9 Q. And then "message," do you see that line?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And what information is contained there?

12 A. Something he would have posted written. And it says "Does 13 anybody know anybody in the Nevada militia?"

14 Q. And, so, looking at his Facebook account, just going into 15 your computer and looking at it, would you see that last 16 message line? Is that what you would see?

17 A. Yes. Yes, if you had the right accesses.

18 Q. So, on April -- the afternoon of April 10, 2014, Eric
19 Parker's account, there was a message posted on it that says,
20 "Does anyone know anybody in the Nevada militia?"

21 A. That's correct.

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I move on to Exhibit 91?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MS. AHMED: And may we just publish that to the 25 witness and counsel.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 91?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And is this another page that you were provided by
4 Facebook in response to the search warrant?

5 A. Yes, this is part of their business records.

6 Q. And are these posts that were made on Eric Parker's
7 Facebook account?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
10 Exhibit 91.

11 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: And just for point of clarification,
13 that has two posts on it, Exhibit 91?

14 MS. AHMED: Can we move out of the --

15 MR. MARCHESE: That's fine. I was just making sure I
16 had the same exhibit. No objection, Parker.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

18 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

19 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 91 will be
20 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

21 (Exhibit 91 admitted.)

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. And can we just start at the bottom, or can we move out of 24 the zoom in, please? Thank you.

25 Again, Agent Draper, there's more than one post that

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 appears on this page; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, that's correct.

3 Q. Now, looking at the page, in what order, chronologically,
4 are these posts provided?

5 A. Reverse. So, the older one is at the bottom. The newer
6 one at the top.

7 Q. So, can we then look at the bottom post, please?

8 Now, turning your attention to this bottom post,
9 which has been zoomed out, on what date and approximate time
10 was this posted?

11 A. April 11th, so subtracting six hours would have been 12 approximately 7:30 -- 6:30 p.m. on April 11th, and --
13 April 11th of 2014.

14 Q. So, it was posted on the evening of April 11th --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. And again, this comes from Eric Parker's Facebook account?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what -- what was the content of the post, just 21 generally? Is it a status update or is he sharing content?

22 A. He's sharing other's content.

23 Q. And, so, what is it that he's sharing?

24 A. A link to an article titled "Armed Militias Head to Nevada
25 Ranch as Populous Showdown with Federal Government Teeters on

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Brink of Violence, Bloodshed."

2 Q. So, looking at the field of "title," is that where you see
3 what you were just reading?

4 A. That's -- yes. That's the summary. I read the full title
5 from the URL. It's hyphenated at the bottom.

6 Q. Now, was the summary also provided with this post?

7 A. Yes, there was a summary that was provided.

8 Q. And what does the summary say?

9 A. It says, "Nevada rancher Cliven Bundy, Bundy's
10 decades-long battle against the federal government over grazing
11 rights has heated to the point where militia groups have 12 joined," and it cuts off.

13 Q. And you indicated that you were reading the rest of the 14 title had been cut off from the URL section; is that correct?

15 A. Yes, that's correct.

16 Q. And then again, in the URL, is there a hyperlink that was 17 provided?

18 A. It is to a website "America's Freedom Fighters."

19 Q. So, the name of the website is 20 "Americasfreedomfighters.com?"

21 A. Yes. Correct.

22 Q. And did you yourself follow this link?

23 A. I -- I don't recall.

24 Q. But that's the link that is provided --

25 A. Right.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. -- with the returns?

2 A. That is the link that is provided there.

3 Q. And again, it's to a news article; is that --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we move to Exhibit 92?

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 MS. AHMED: And just for counsel and the witness,
10 please.

11 Q. So, Agent Draper, looking at Exhibit 92, is this also a
12 document provided from Facebook in response to the search
13 warrant?

14 A. Yes, this is.

15 Q. As a part of their business records?

16 A. Yes, as part of the business record. Correct.

17 Q. And this -- is this a post related to Eric Parker's
18 Facebook account?

19 A. Correct.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
21 Exhibit 92.

22 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

23 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection, Your Honor.

25 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 92 will be admitted.
2 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what generally
5 is this post that's displayed on Exhibit 92?

6 A. This would be a message authored by the account holder,
7 Eric "EJ" Parker, sent to the recipient page of Support Cliven
8 Bundy.

9 Q. So, Eric Parker -- the Facebook account of Eric Parker,
10 there was a message from that Facebook account to another
11 Facebook account?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Asked and answered.
14 Leading.

15 THE COURT: I think it bears clarifying, so
16 overruled.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. So, that was a message posted from Eric Parker's --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- Facebook account to another Facebook account called 21 Support Cliven Bundy?

22 A. Yes. Correct.

23 Q. And what date was that message posted?

24 A. So this would be, in Nevada time now, Pacific Time,
25 approximately seven hours prior to the UTC time, which would be

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 approximately 8:34 p.m.

2 Q. So, in Nevada time, it would have been 8:30 p.m. and --
3 or, in other words, the night of April 11th?

4 A. Yes, I'm sorry. April 11th. 8:30 p.m. on April 11th,
5 2014.

6 Q. And what was the message that was posted?

7 A. The message says, "We are going to be showing up late
8 tonight. Is that okay at around 11:30?"

9 Q. And you were reading that from where it says "body;" is
10 that correct?

11 A. I'm sorry. Yes, it's from the part that says "body."

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we move to Exhibit 93?

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry. No, I have another question.
14 So, how do you know that it's Nevada time and not --

15 THE WITNESS: Oh, well, I -- based upon my 16 investigation, he was in Nevada by that time. So -- or 17 somewhere -- you know, thank you, Your Honor. He was in 18 transit between Idaho and Nevada. So it could still be 19 actually Mountain Time.

20 So, it would be six or seven hours prior to that UTC
21 time, so either approximately 9:34 p.m., if still in Mountain
22 Time, or 8:34 p.m. if over into Pacific Time.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. In any event, it's posted the night of April 11th though;
25 is that correct?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes, that's correct.

2 THE COURT: And where it says "deleted, false," what
3 does that mean?

4 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, that means when the return
5 was provided from Facebook, this post was still active. It had 6 not been deleted by the user.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 THE WITNESS: Previously.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. And based on your investigation, did Eric Parker travel to 13 Nevada on the night of April 11th?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did he travel alone or with others?

16 A. With others.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

18 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Did he travel alone or with others?

24 A. He traveled with two others.

25 Q. And who did he travel with?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

2 THE COURT: Do you want to rephrase it? Do you know
3 who he traveled with? How do you know who he traveled with?

4 MS. AHMED: I can, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Not who did he travel with?

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Do you know if he traveled with others?

8 A. I do know that he traveled with others. And based upon my 9 investigation, review of media and social media, I know those 10 other individuals to be Mr. Drexler and Mr. Stewart.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we move to Exhibit 93?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. And just for the witness and counsel.

15 Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 93?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. Is that another page that was provided by Facebook in --

18 A. Yes, this is another Facebook Business Record return with 19 what we would call mobile updates. So, posts made from 20 presumably a mobile device.

21 Q. And were these -- and this is a page provided in response
22 to the Eric Parker search warrant?

23 A. Yes, this is -- this was in Mr. Parker's search warrant.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
25 Exhibit 93.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: Any objection to 93?

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

5 MR. PEREZ: No, objection Lovelien.

6 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 93 is admitted. You
7 may go ahead and publish it for the jury.

8 (Exhibit 93 admitted.)

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Now, Agent Draper, I'm drawing your attention to 11 Exhibit 93. Looking at Exhibit 93, how many posts are visible
12 on this exhibit?

13 A. There are two posts visible.

14 Q. And you were stating earlier something about a mobile
15 upload; is that correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Can you explain to the jury generally what you mean by 18 that -- that mobile upload?

19 A. Generally -- generally, that's if someone makes an update
20 on a mobile device.

21 Q. And what are mobile devices?

22 A. Oh, sorry. Like a cell phone, mobile phone.

23 Q. And how do you know that these posts are made -- were made
24 by a mobile device?

25 A. So, on the left-hand side, there's four headers there.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 And one -- on each post, and one of the headers says "mobile"
2 and the Facebook record -- business records says "true."

3 Q. And so based on your investigation, is that indicative
4 that this post was made with a mobile phone?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now, you indicated that there were also other headers. Do
7 you see those?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And can you just -- looking at the bottom post
10 specifically, if we can zoom in just on the bottom one.

11 Where it says "posted," what information is provided
12 in that header?

13 A. Under "posted" would be the date and time that was posted.
14 So in this circumstance, this would be April 12th, 2014. And 15 now approximately seven hours, because I know Mr. Parker was in 16 Nevada on that day. So, approximately 11:24 a.m. Pacific Time.

17 Q. So, this mobile post was made at about 11:24 a.m. on
18 April 12th, 2014?

19 A. Yes, that's correct.

20 Q. And you indicated that you know that Mr. Parker was in 21 Nevada at that time. How do you know that?

22 A. Through my investigation, I know he traveled down the day
23 before and was still there until later that evening in Nevada.

24 Q. Did you see photos and videos of him in Nevada --

25 A. Yes.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. -- on April 12th?

2 A. Yes, I've seen -- I've seen both.

3 Q. That placed him in Nevada at this time?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Based on your investigation, at approximately 11:30, what
6 area was he in in the morning on April 11th -- excuse me -- on
7 April 12th?

8 A. The area of Bundy Ranch.

9 Q. And where it says "status," do you see that header on the 10 left side?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what information is provided in that section?

13 A. This would be something he posted. Shall I read it?

14 Q. On -- so, the account holder --

15 A. The account holder --

16 Q. -- posted this on --

17 A. The account holder would have posted this.

18 Q. On Facebook?

19 A. Right. On Facebook.

20 Q. And so this is posted on the publicly visible section of 21 the Facebook page; is that correct?

22 A. Again, depending upon their security settings, but it
23 wouldn't be -- it wouldn't be like a private message, no.

24 Q. And what -- and can you -- yes, can you read that to the
25 jury?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes. This says, "Bundy gave the sheriff one hour to 2 disarm the BLM." Dot, dot, dot. "He did not reply. We are
3 now going to free the cattle by any means. The sheriff claimed
4 that the BLM is standing down but offered no proof. This is
5 when Mr. Bundy gave him the 'do it or else.' We will not be 6 lied to."

7 Q. And in the course of the investigation, have you reviewed
8 videos of events taking place on April 12th, 2014, in that 9 Bundy Ranch area?

10 A. Yes, I have.

11 Q. Including speeches that were made that day?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And speeches -- a speech made by the sheriff of Clark
14 County?

15 A. I'm aware of the speech, yes.

16 Q. And based on your investigation, was this post made after 17 that speech?

18 A. That is my understanding. I don't know exactly what time
19 that speech was made, but that is my understanding.

20 Q. Now, there's another post on this page as well; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and take a break, because 23 it's already 12:10. I was waiting for -- I don't think we're 24 going to get any closer to a better time to just take our
25 break.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 So, it's 12:11. We'll plan to take our lunch break
2 until 1:15. During that time, I do remind the jury.

3 Please do not discuss this case with anyone nor
4 permit anyone to discuss it with you. You may speak to your
5 fellow jurors about other things, but not about this case.

6 Please do not read, or listen to, or view anything
7 that touches upon this case in any way, and please do not
8 perform any investigation or independent research about
9 anything that touches upon this case in any way.

10 Please write down your questions. And do not form
11 any opinion until after you have been provided all of the 12 testimony, evidence, I will provide you the jury instructions,
13 with the legal instructions, the law to be applied to the facts
14 as you find them. Then you will hear closing arguments, and 15 then you will begin your deliberative process, which is the 16 sharing of your opinions, and views, and voting, and so forth.
17 So, not until then should you form any opinion.

18 So, let's go ahead and stand for the jury so they may 19 be excused. We will welcome them back at 1:15. And after they 20 exit, then Special Agent Draper, you may also take your lunch
21 break. And we'll ask you to be back here by 1:15 as well.

22 (Jury out.)

23 THE COURT: Off record.

24 (Recess, 12:12 p.m. Resumed 1:19 p.m. Jury out.)

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

1 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

2 Can we go ahead and bring in the jury?

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I just wanted to raise one
4 issue before we did so --

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MS. AHMED: -- in the hope that we could resolve this
7 outside the presence of jury. But there's two exhibits that
8 the government would seek to put into evidence with Agent
9 Draper, Exhibit 95 and 102.

10 And in those two exhibits, we have redacted some 11 content consistent with the in limine regarding trying to put 12 in a self-defense theory when there's been no proffer.

13 So, in Exhibit 95, this is a post made to Eric
14 Parker's Facebook account, and -- can we bring it up? Your 15 Honor, if you want, we can publish it on the screen --

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 MS. AHMED: -- so you can see it, with the redaction
18 to explain what's under the redaction.

19 So, Exhibit 59 is on the screen, Your Honor. And 20 it's just three comments. And the last one is Eric Parker's
21 comment. And what's been redacted is where he goes on to say
22 "Now, Steve, he's got balls. Head up -- he's got balls. Head
23 up above that concrete telling me exactly what they were doing
24 after the snipers had been green lighted."

25 So, we took out that whole sentence, just so there

1 would be no confusion about, you know, not just taking out the
2 snipers being green lighted, we took out the whole sentence so
3 the previous part would be complete, and there wouldn't be any
4 additional verbiage that would be improper.

5 THE COURT: Any objection from the defense?

6 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, we object, Your Honor. It's the 7 rule of completeness. The last sentence beginning with "now"
8 and going to -- ending in "green lighted" is basically an 9 explanation as to why my buddy, Steven Stewart, had to relate
10 to me what was going on through binoculars.

11 I believe it's misleading to the jury to leave out
12 that last sentence, because by leaving that last sentence out,
13 it doesn't give the full explanation as to what Mr. Stewart was 14 doing what he was doing.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I think that the post, with 16 that redaction, is still complete. It's not misleading in any 17 way, which is all that the rule requires, is that it be -- not 18 cause confusion at all. It doesn't require additional.

19 And, clearly, that information about the sniper being
20 green lighted would be information that's irrelevant. It
21 doesn't go to any recognizable defense at this point, and so it
22 would be both prejudicial and irrelevant.

23 And I don't think -- I think -- or the government
24 would submit to the Court that the way it's been redacted, it
25 is still a whole statement on its own. It's not misleading.

1 THE COURT: All right. And then let's see, 102, what
2 is the redaction there?

3 MS. AHMED: Can we go to 102? It's on the screen,
4 Your Honor. It's a somewhat lengthy post, so I don't know if
5 the Court wants a moment to read it, and then I will explain
6 what's been redacted.

7 THE COURT: So, what is the line that's redacted?

8 MS. AHMED: So, at the -- the midway down the screen,
9 Your Honor, the line that was redacted reads, "Once they 10 threatened to kill everybody if the crowd did not disburse."

11 THE COURT: And this post is dated June 12th of 2015?

12 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: That's a year later.

14 MS. AHMED: That's correct. And Your Honor, there is 15 an additional redaction towards the bottom. That word was "And 16 he would be Millers away," referring, apparently, to Jared and 17 Amanda Miller who assassinated those two police officers
18 shortly after the Bundy Ranch incident. So, we redacted the 19 word "Millers."

20 THE COURT: All right. And is there an objection to 21 those two redactions on Exhibit 102?

22 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to the whole exhibit,
23 first of all. First, I don't know, beginning with Eric "EJ"
24 Parker, starting with "McVeigh," and then going down to 25 "decade," I think that's completely irrelevant and has nothing

1 to do with the facts of this case.

2 Obviously, Mr. McVeigh is a very polarizing name
3 slash force, so I don't see any reason why that should be
4 brought into this trial as it has nothing to do with the facts
5 at hand.

6 I'd also point out that the date of this post is 7 June 12th, 2015, over a year after this incident. Do have the 8 incidents in reference to the Bundy Ranch, but I don't see the 9 relevance there, given the fact that -- I mean, it's not in 10 dispute that Mr. Parker was there. So, based upon that, I
11 would say it's more prejudicial than probative.

12 And then, of course, we get into the 3%, Sugar Pine
13 Mine, after-the-fact post bad acts, which we argue are way more
14 prejudicial than probative and have nothing to do with the 15 facts at hand here.

16 THE COURT: All right. And, so, what's the 17 government's response to the relevance of 102, and why is it
18 more probative than prejudicial?

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's consistent with the --
20 obviously, the government noticed that we would be putting in 21 404(b) that the defendants continued to do what they did at 22 Bundy Ranch. That was the springboard, and then they continued
23 to participate in additional operations, specifically Parker.

24 And that they also were involved in the 3% for the 25 purpose of continuing this movement that they perceived them

1 themselves to be in that was opposed to public lands agencies.
2 And so it's all, as we argued in the motion, which -- and the 3 Court, I think, ordered that the 404(b) was permissible. That 4 this would all -- inextricably intertwined with the events of 5 the Bundy Ranch conspiracy, which was ongoing, but it's also
6 subsequent acts that are consistent with what they did at Bundy
7 Ranch.

8 And, so, we would -- it's relevant both for what he's 9 talking about in reference to the events of April 12, 2014, and 10 also in reference to the subsequent additional acts that they 11 participated in.

12 Your Honor, we'd also say that it's not -- it --
13 basically, he's discussing what he has accomplished in relation 14 to this movement that he's a part of, and he's comparing
15 himself to McVeigh. So, it's -- they are both in the same
16 movement. However, he feels that McVeigh didn't -- didn't do
17 what he's done, and he's explaining what it is that he has 18 done.

19 And so it would be consistent with our 404(b) notice
20 again, and it's all inextricably intertwined, because he's a
21 part -- he's in this conspiracy to do what he did on 22 April 12th and continued to do, and this is his explanation of 23 what that is.

24 THE COURT: All right. So, you're saying they are 25 relevant admissions. And under 404(b), what is -- what is it

1 probative for? Which of the exceptions does it fit?

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would -- we would -- as we
3 have argued, we would say that it goes -- it shows both his
4 motive, both with respect to Bundy Ranch, and then the 5 conspiracy -- the ongoing conspiracy. His motive, absence of 6 mistakes in terms of what happened on April 12th. He continues
7 to do it thereafter.

8 And -- and it goes, obviously, to his intent then on 9 April 12th and to the -- so, specifically, in relation to the 10 charges that are -- he's facing now, it would go to obviously
11 the greater conspiracy charge, the 372 conspiracy to interfere
12 and impede with federal officers, and his intent in relation to 13 all of the charges that there's no mistake in what he was doing
14 on April 12th, 2014.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I would argue that in 16 reference to all three of those 404(b) exceptions, they are not 17 relevant; because, first of all, you can't show someone's
18 intent back in April of 2014 by a post in which they made in --
19 this is June of 2015. Same thing as to his motive.

20 And then as to absence of mistake, if we were to use
21 that exception, it would be the absence of mistake at the Sugar
22 Pine Mine, not at the Bundy Ranch. Because once again, you
23 can't go back in time to show that Mr. Parker didn't make a
24 mistake on that day.

25 If they wanted to use it for Sugar Pine Mine, they

1 could, I would argue. But, at the same time, this is just bad
2 character evidence. They are just trying to show some post bad
3 act to conformity with the events of the Bundy Ranch in April
4 of 2012 or '14. Excuse me.

5 THE COURT: Why are you saying that you can't use a
6 post from 2015 to show his intent in 2014?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Because you can't go back in time to 8 know what someone's intent was.

9 THE COURT: But he's telling us. This is purported
10 to be an admission. It's a post that he made himself; right?
11 Did I miss that? Did I misunderstand that?

12 MS. AHMED: That is what it is, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Well, an admission, yes. I agree. If 14 someone says "I shot whoever, you know, a year ago," sure.
15 That -- I would agree with the Court on that.

16 But in reference to all this Sugar Pine Mine stuff,
17 what the -- I believe the government is arguing is they are 18 saying that that incident, whatever you want to call it,
19 protest that occurred, that is probative of my client's intent
20 at the Bundy Ranch.

21 And that -- that's where I argue I don't believe that
22 I agree with their logic, because like I said, you can't go
23 back in time to show someone's motive or intent.

24 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just to clarify, I mean,
25 although, of course, I know you've read the post, Your Honor.

1 But for the record, he's saying -- he's explaining that half a
2 year before Bundy Ranch, he and his friends began to train for
3 failure of government.

4 They then saw the opportunity at Bundy Ranch. They
5 were successful there. Then they continued on to Sugar Pine
6 Mine and then to Oregon. So --

7 THE COURT: Well, the Court does find that it's
8 relevant. It is an admission. There's no other reason
9 provided why the admission wouldn't be relevant.

10 The information that's covered does relate to this 11 particular conspiracy time. The amount of time that was 12 charged in the superseding indictment for the counts in the 13 conspiracy, that overarching time does encompass this period.
14 And it is admissible 404(b) evidence to show motive, intent,
15 and absence of mistake.

16 However, I'm willing to give a limiting instruction
17 now and then again at the time of the jury instructions if the 18 defense would like me to do that.

19 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to the three exceptions
20 that the government proffered; the intent, motive or absence of 21 mistake?

22 THE COURT: Yes. That they are not to consider this 23 as evidence of character, but it is of limited use. And it's 24 only to be considered for purposes of determining the motive,
25 absence of mistake, and intent of the Defendant Parker.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Obviously, I would assume next
2 week, week after, we will get together on jury instructions.
3 So, I'll try to fashion something, somewhat of a standard stock
4 instruction for 404(b) stuff. So, I'll prepare something and
5 get to it the government. Hopefully we can agree on it.

6 THE COURT: And do you want me to give something
7 during as well or just at the end?

8 It's a strategic decision on your part. It either
9 calls the attention to --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it's coming in.

11 THE COURT: -- to the exhibit if I give the 12 instruction contemporaneously, or it might help to mitigate the 13 effect if I give the instruction contemporaneously. It's 14 really up to you.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I would actually ask that 16 you just ask that it be brought in for those three purposes.
17 And then at the time of jury instructions, I will probably
18 draft something that can also be submitted.

19 THE COURT: All right. So, you don't want a 20 contemporaneous limiting instruction to the jury when that
21 exhibit is admitted?

22 MR. MARCHESE: Actually, I would, if possible. And 23 then memorialize it in a jury instruction, or can I just get 24 one or the other?

25 THE COURT: No, we can do both.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

2 THE COURT: You can have both.

3 MR. MARCHESE: And then in reference to the first
4 four sentences, talking about Mr. McVeigh, Your Honor --

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MR. MARCHESE: -- would the Court consider redacting
7 that?

8 THE COURT: What's the government's position on that?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would object to that
10 redaction, because the context of this post is that McVeigh --
11 he's comparing his accomplishments to McVeigh's accomplishments
12 or his perceived lack of accomplishments.

13 But they were both in this moment together that he 14 attached -- McVeigh's actions attached a stigma to the 15 movement, whereas Parker pushed the movement forward is the 16 context. And so it needs that context, and we would object to 17 that redaction.

18 THE COURT: So, is it the defense's position that 19 it's overly prejudicial for the limited probative effect?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I disagree with the government's 21 interpretation. But even if I did, I would still say that it's 22 overly prejudicial.

23 You still can get in the facts that the government is 24 seeking to elicit by redacting those four sentences. I mean,
25 we're talking about an individual who is considered, in many

1 lights, as, you know, just an absolutely horrible human being.
2 He was given the death penalty.

3 And now the government is basically saying that my
4 client is comparing himself and putting himself in the same ilk
5 as this individual who, by all accounts -- I mean, everyone,
6 even I'm sure the government and the defense would agree that
7 he's a horrible individual.

8 So, I just think that to even use this individual's
9 name is overly prejudicial. Just like I think the government
10 even agrees to my point, because they redacted out the Millers.
11 And it's no right -- no less right or wrong that he killed two 12 police officers, but McVeigh killed way more than two.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, what is the distinction
14 that the government makes between the Millers and the McVeigh
15 at the top of the line?

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's really the context of 17 the post. He's discussing McVeigh; A, being set up by the FBI
18 first, but also that he was a part of the same movement that 19 Parker was in. But that he attached a stigma to the movement
20 by, I guess, getting it wrong, whereas Parker has done it
21 right.

22 If that's -- when you read the post, you need the 23 context of the McVeigh top four lines. Whereas the Millers,
24 you don't need that. That's at the very, very end. It's the 25 last couple words, and it doesn't give context to the whole

1 post.

2 And, Your Honor, additionally, if you read the
3 content of the post, you will see that he's essentially
4 adopting the actions of McVeigh in that he's a part of -- and
5 rejecting the actions of the Millers.

6 THE COURT: Well, that's true. He's bragging about 7 the vetting. Keeping away any would-be Millers, but at the 8 top, he -- his mention to McVeigh is that he attached a stigma
9 to the movement for a decade.

10 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, also we had redacted the 11 Millers, because we had voluntarily represented to the Court
12 prior to the previously trial or in the course of the 13 litigation that we would not be eliciting any information about
14 the fact that the Millers were also present at the Bundy Ranch
15 and then went on to do what they did.

16 So, we had already -- we had conceded we would not go
17 into that. Or offered.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, I think that does 19 clarify the probative value of keeping it in.

20 I agree with the defense that there is a prejudicial
21 effect, but it does not seem to be outweighed by the probative
22 effect.

23 So, the Court doesn't find that 403 requires
24 exclusion of Exhibits 95 or 102.

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I may be heard on 95.

1 THE COURT: Well, actually, that was going to be my
2 next question for the government is, so, are you moving to
3 admit these only as to Defendant Parker or as to all
4 defendants?

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would be moving to admit
6 them as to all defendants. It's -- again, these are statements
7 both that are made during the ongoing conspiracy and in 8 furtherance of the ongoing conspiracy in that he's both -- in 9 publicizing what he's done, and in bragging about what he's 10 done, and in talking about how he's done it with the 3%, this 11 is, again, informing other people about what they've 12 accomplished and also recruiting people to that.

13 And it's -- also sends a message to these lands
14 agencies, which is really the goal of the conspiracy, which is 15 that they should not be doing what they are doing. And so by 16 making these public statements, they are furthering that 17 conspiracy by publicly informing these agencies of their 18 actions that they have done, and that they will continue to do
19 them.

20 We would ask that they both be admitted as to all the 21 defendants under 801(d)(2)(E).

22 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I think I might have 23 misheard. But in reference to the government saying that the 24 goal of the conspiracy was to what?

25 MS. AHMED: Keep -- keep the BLM from doing their

1 jobs on public lands and other public lands agencies.

2 MR. MARCHESE: I would argue that the indictment says
3 otherwise. It's all about cattle. It's about extorting
4 cattle. It's about stopping the BLM specifically from 5 enforcing the Court orders.

6 MS. AHMED: I would refer counsel to the charge
7 alleging the violation of 18, USC, 372.

8 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, the object of that 9 conspiracy, which I think Ms. Ahmed is alluding to, was the 10 events that occurred on the 12th.

11 And what further demonstrates that is the 12 government's notice, under 404(b), to bring in events outside
13 of the 12th, and not to bring them in just as events that 14 occurred as would be under the umbrella of the indictment.

15 THE COURT: Well, the 404(b) evidence, I've already 16 ruled on that. The question is whether or not they meet the 17 801(d)(2)(E) test.

18 There is a preponderance of the evidence that's been 19 demonstrated that the conspiracy existed, and that the 20 declarant and the other defendants were members of the same
21 conspiracy. It was made during the conspiracy, but was it made
22 in furtherance of the conspiracy.

23 It is sufficient to keep, if a statement is made to 24 keep coconspirators abreast of ongoing conspiracy activity.
25 That is sufficient for the in furtherance of requirement.

1 And this is posted on his Facebook? Is that where
2 this comes from?

3 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. Both 95 and
4 102 come from his Facebook page.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, that does meet the 6 801(d)(2)(E) requirements.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm sorry.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MR. TANASI: And I just wanted to make the record
10 that I joined in Mr. Marchese's objections to both Exhibits 95
11 and 102.

12 And I guess I would also add, in terms of the door
13 that is or is not still open with respect to self-defense --
14 and again, I'm going from the Court's order, Document 2138 --
15 to the extent the Court found the defendant failed to establish 16 the essential elements necessary for a defense instruction be 17 given. Any other evidence relating only to the defense is 18 irrelevant at retrial unless the defense can provide an offer
19 of proof outside the presence of the jury for that defense.

20 And I would go back, I guess, at least in part, to 21 95. The identification of the snipers would just be one of 22 those pieces of evidence that the defense is proffering is what 23 supports the self-defense instruction in this case.

24 And so now, with that redaction, that piece of 25 evidence is removed.

1 THE COURT: This is Parker's own statement, so that
2 doesn't add anything to what was missing.

3 MR. TANASI: His statement, Your Honor, it's not a
4 third-party statement. It's his statement related to snipers.
5 And then that lends itself is to the excessive force of the 6 BLM, which potentially is one of the elements under one of the 7 two theories of self-defense.

8 Which, again, I understand the Court's order, but at 9 the same time, it appears as though the door is still open
10 to proffer the self- --

11 THE COURT: I don't know if you do understand the 12 Court's order. The subjective intent was not what remained at 13 issue. It was the objective reasonableness that was not met.
14 So, Mr. Parker's statement still doesn't fill that void.

15 All right. So, I've got the -- so, Exhibit 102 and 16 Exhibit -- what was it? 95?

17 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: -- 95 are admitted.

19 (Exhibits 95 and 102 admitted.)

20 THE COURT: I am looking at the Jury Model
21 Instructions for the Ninth Circuit, No. 2.11. And this is in 22 the June 2017 edition, which right in the front of it tells you
23 that they have renumbered things. So, if you look at a
24 different version, it will be a different instruction. I'm 25 looking at the 2017 version.

1 It says, "You are about to hear evidence that" blank.
2 That's where you describe the evidence to be received for a
3 limited purpose. And then you say "I instruct you" -- or the 4 Court says, "I instruct you that this evidence is admitted only
5 for the limited purpose of" blank; "and, therefore, you must
6 consider it only for that limited purpose and not for any other
7 purpose."

8 So, Mr. Marchese, is that -- is that the one you want
9 me to use?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, that's correct. Just to be
11 clear, we do object to it coming in. But in the alternative,
12 we would ask for that instruction to be given, please, Your
13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. I will go ahead and do that.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And just for the record, Drexler
16 joins.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins as well, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So noted. Anything else?

20 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, let's go ahead and call
22 in the jury.

23 (Jury in.)

24 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and take a seat.
25 Everyone else may be seated as well.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 We have our witness, FBI Special Agent Sarah Draper
2 back on the witness stand. Thank you.

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And Ms. Ahmed, on behalf of the
5 government, you may continue with your direct examination. I
6 think I cut you off in the middle of exhibit -- was it 93?

7 MS. AHMED: 93, Your Honor. Yes. Thank you. May we
8 publish, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Agent Draper, before we took the lunch break, we were 12 looking at the business records you'd received back from 13 Facebook in response to the search warrant for Eric Parker's
14 Facebook account; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And we were looking specifically as Exhibit 93; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Now, just to clarify -- just to step back for a moment and 19 talk -- and clarify how Facebook works generally, can you
20 explain to the jury just what a Facebook account looks like
21 when you go onto it from your computer, just generally?

22 A. Absolutely. Facebook is a social media site. And when a
23 user has an account, they have a user name, and they log in 24 through that account.

25 If you were to go to your Facebook page, it would

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 be -- essentially, they are called a wall. It's just your
2 screen. It's your initial screen when you see it. There's a
3 spot -- the very top banner, which is a cover photo that user
4 chooses. There is a profile photo to the upper left, some type
5 of image that they -- the user chooses that will then represent
6 them at any posts they make. And that will be kind of attached
7 to any content they put onto Facebook.

8 Continuing down, there's a place for the user to post
9 things. And then there's a section which might show all sorts 10 of various things. One of the common ones we'll talk about is 11 friends. Friends are other Facebook users with whom the -- the 12 owner of the account, the original owner of the account has 13 chosen to establish a connection with.

14 They have a lot of other places to show likes of 15 various -- various items. But basically, there's a page where 16 people can engage in communications with each other in sharing
17 and reviewing different content.

18 And then there's a separate feature that's of note
19 that is a private message feature. So, an individual who has a
20 Facebook account could exchange messages privately with chosen
21 individual or individuals. That wouldn't show up then on 22 their -- their wall or their main page.

23 Q. So, status updates, are those things that would show up on 24 the wall?

25 A. Yes, those would show up on the wall.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And posts where sharing -- content is being shared, as we
2 saw earlier, is that being posted on the wall?

3 A. Yes, that's being posted on the wall.

4 Q. And then turning specifically to Exhibit 93, as an
5 example, when you look at those headers, what you called
6 headers that are off to the side where it says "posted, status,
7 mobile, comments." Do you see that?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Now, are those headers, did those -- when you look at the 10 Facebook page, just on your computer, not through the returns,
11 would you see those headers?

12 A. No, it would not appear like this.

13 Q. Would you -- but when you look at the Facebook account,
14 when you look at a specific post, looking on the computer,
15 would you be able to see a date -- a date and time associated 16 with the -- or at least a date associated with the post?

17 A. You would see a date. Correct.

18 Q. Now, turning back to the top post of Exhibit 93, can you
19 explain to the jury when this post was posted on Mr. Parker's
20 Facebook account?

21 A. This would have been on April 12th, 2014. And this would 22 have been seven hours prior to approximately 22:00 hours. So,
23 approximately 3:00 p.m. in Pacific Time, Nevada.

24 Q. So, at 3:00 p.m. on April 12th, 2014, what -- what was 25 posted to Mr. Parker's Facebook account? What message, if any?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. The message was, "We have cows, happy cows, free cows,
2 American cows raised in an open range, not a cage."

3 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we move on to
4 Exhibit 94?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 MS. AHMED: Just for counsel and the witness, please.

7 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 94 on your screen?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Is this another exhibit -- page that was provided by
10 Facebook in response to the search warrant?

11 A. Yes, this is another Facebook business record.

12 Q. Relating to Mr. Parker's account?

13 A. Yes, that's correct.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
15 Exhibit 94.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to 94?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I do object on hearsay grounds.

18 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

19 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

21 THE COURT: Is it the top one?

22 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just respond that the

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 bottom post, which is by the account holder, makes clear that
2 they are essentially adopting what was said in the top post in
3 saying the circumstances under which that was achieved.

4 So, their response essentially adopts, as part of 5 their -- their response would not make sense without that top.
6 So, even if that person's statement wasn't being offered, you
7 know, for the truth of the matter, essentially by the response,
8 he is adopting what that person said. So, I would want to 9 be --

10 THE COURT: I'm not seeing anything under 801 or 803.
11 Can you point me to something in particular? Otherwise, it
12 needs to be redacted.

13 MS. AHMED: Are you asking me, Your Honor, to point
14 you to a rule that would not require --

15 THE COURT: Yeah. Is it not hearsay under 801, or is 16 it an exception to hearsay under 803?

17 MS. AHMED: Well, I guess, Your Honor, I would 18 offer -- I would offer that the top post -- the government's 19 not offering that into evidence under the theory that that 20 person is stating the truth, but that that part is needed to 21 give context to the bottom statement. So, it's --

22 THE COURT: I think you're offering it -- well, I
23 think --

24 MS. AHMED: Well --

25 THE COURT: It does seem to be offered for the truth

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 of the matter asserted, so I think it would be hearsay unless
2 there's an exception or unless it's not hearsay because of 3 some -- something under 801 that's not obvious to me as I look
4 through these.

5 MS. AHMED: May I have a moment, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead, please.

7 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 (Pause in the proceedings.)

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, what I would add is just 10 looking at that, if you look at your screen, you'll see that 11 there's -- so, there's that statement at the top, and there's a
12 thumbs up image, which we would argue, along with statement
13 below it together, they are adoptive admissions of the top
14 post.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: All right. So, you're saying it's 17 801(d)(2)(B)?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Court's indulgence one
19 moment.

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I would like to just say,
23 while she's looking that up, if she's indicating -- if counsel
24 is indicating that it's that's blue square is what's being
25 adopted, we don't know. Because there's an attachment here

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 that says sticker.png.

2 So, we don't know what it relates to. I don't know
3 that the thumbs up is adopting a statement and I don't think
4 that falls under any exception to the hearsay rule. Because
5 it's not even clear from here what that thumbs up is for. Like
6 I said, there's an attachment, and it may just be "Here. Look
7 at this."

8 MS. AHMED: In response to your question, Your Honor,
9 yes, we would say that it is -- it would fit under that
10 exception as a statement in furtherance of the conspiracy.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, I think it is 12 801(d)(2)(B) if you can establish that that -- that the thumbs
13 up sticker is referring to the post.

14 So, do you want to lay that foundation with her?
15 What is a sticker, a thumbs up, and how do you know what it
16 relates to?

17 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

18 Q. Agent Draper, when you're looking at this screen, it
19 appears to be a conversation that's going back and forth;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes. Correct.

22 Q. And in the returns, how would Facebook provide something
23 that was a comment back and forth? Would they put those 24 together, or would they put them separately or --

25 A. They do put those contemporaneously, so in order.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And in looking at this screen, what is the apparent order
2 of the conversation?

3 A. The first individual made a statement to -- this hasn't
4 been published; right? So, the first individual made a
5 statement, then there was an indication of approval of that 6 statement, and then a comment in response.

7 Q. Now, when you say an indication of approval, in your
8 experience with Facebook, are individuals able to indicate
9 approval by -- in certain ways that are evidenced 10 iconographically?

11 A. Yes. And one of the most traditional of those -- there's 12 new ways to do it now, but at this time was just a simple image
13 of a thumb up.

14 Q. So, you could give a thumbs up to the -- another person's
15 comment?

16 A. Yes, that's correct.

17 Q. And visually, a thumbs up image would show up; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And based on your experience -- in your experience and 21 based on your review of these documents, is this thumbs up in 22 reference to the comment above?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

24 MR. TANASI: Steward joins.

25 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

2 MS. AHMED: It's being asked only in relation to her
3 experience with respect to her review.

4 THE COURT: Based on her experience and review, I
5 will allow it. Overruled.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, based upon my experience, that is
7 in response to the previous statement.

8 THE COURT: And so I think the objection was that the 9 URL that's represented there, where the sticker is, is a 10 different attachment. Do you know what that URL refers to?

11 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, my -- if I may correct,
12 Your Honor. My understanding is that is for that icon of the 13 thumbs up. That's my understanding.

14 THE COURT: So, it's not a link to an article or to 15 something else? That's not -- it's not a link to something
16 outside of that page?

17 THE WITNESS: Not that I'm aware of, Your Honor.

18 MS. AHMED: And Your Honor, may I continue to lay
19 some foundation?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Where it says "attachments" in that middle post, do you
23 see that where it says sticker.png?

24 A. Yes, I see that.

25 Q. And what is that sticker.png, would that be an image?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Again, based on my understanding and experience, that is
2 that image, yes.

3 THE COURT: All right. So, based on that foundation,
4 the Court finds that by a preponderance of the evidence, it
5 does appear to be, for purposes of 801(d)(2)(B), an adopted
6 admission.

7 So, Exhibit 94 is admitted. You may go ahead and 8 publish to it the jury.

9 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 (Exhibit 94 admitted.)

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury then what is 13 depicted in Exhibit 94 now that they can see it? What kind of 14 communication is this?

15 A. So, this is again a part of the Facebook business record.
16 This is -- the top post is sent from an individual to the 17 account holder Eric "EJ" Parker, and then the following two are 18 responses to that post.

19 Q. In looking at the top post then, where it says "body," is 20 that the actual message that was conveyed?

21 A. Yes, that would be what was written by the author.

22 Q. And what is the message?

23 A. The words are "Feds get scared when you got there and 24 backed off? LOL."

25 Q. And based on your experience with Facebook, what does

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 "LOL" mean?

2 A. That's an abbreviation for laugh out loud.

3 Q. And what time was that -- on what date and time was that
4 message sent?

5 A. That was sent on April 12th, 2014, at approximately
6 11:03 a.m.

7 Q. Nevada time?

8 A. Excuse me. Nevada time.

9 Q. And then is there -- is there a message beneath that one?
10 There's two messages beneath that one; is that correct?

11 A. Yes, there are.

12 Q. Can you explain what that middle one is? The one
13 immediately below that top one.

14 A. Now, the author on this one -- it's a response to the 15 message above it. The author on this one is Eric "EJ" Parker
16 responding to the initial author, who is now listed as the 17 recipient. And it's a thumbs up icon as a like or approval of 18 that. And that was sent on April 12th, 2014, at approximately
19 6:07 p.m. Pacific Time.

20 Q. Now, there's a third post on that page; correct?

21 A. Yes, that's correct.

22 Q. And what -- who is the author of this bottom post?

23 A. The author for this third is again Eric "EJ" Parker.

24 Q. And what date did he make this post, bottom post?

25 A. That is April 12th of 2014. And again, approximately

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 6:07, 6:08 p.m. Pacific Time.

2 Q. And, so, the time on the -- on these two posts is 23:07;
3 correct? The bottom two posts?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. UTC?

6 A. Yes. Correct. They are about 20 seconds apart.

7 Q. And to calculate local time, you would subtract seven from
8 that?

9 A. Yes. I'm sorry. You subtract seven. Correct.

10 Q. So then it would be 16:07?

11 A. Yes. Excuse me. Yes, 16:07. Yes. Correct.

12 Q. So you would translate --

13 A. 4:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m.

14 Q. So, those bottom two posts that were authored by Eric "EJ"
15 Parker, those are posted at 4:00 p.m.; is that correct?

16 A. Correct. Correct. My apologies.

17 Q. 4:00 p.m. on April 12th, 2014?

18 A. Correct.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we go back to Exhibit 91
20 which was previously admitted?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Now, Agent Draper, when you first looked at that with the 24 jury earlier, we noted that there was two posts; correct, that 25 are visible on this page?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the bottom one was earlier in time, and then the top
3 one was later; is that right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. So, can we zoom -- can we zoom in on the top post then,
6 please?

7 And on what date was the top post that we can now see
8 zoomed in? What date was that posted?

9 A. April 13th, 2014.

10 Q. And in the early morning; is that correct, or --

11 A. Yes, that would be -- now understanding Mr. Parker to be 12 back in Idaho, so I'm subtracting six hours from UTC. That 13 would be approximately 5:47 --

14 Q. And if he was --

15 A. -- a.m.

16 Q. And if he was in -- well, and then can you again just 17 explain to the jury, what kind of post is this?

18 A. This would be -- this would be just an update, like a --
19 he would post on his page with -- with a link to an article.

20 Q. So, it says "date created." That's where you saw the 21 data; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then the link below that is what again?

24 A. That's a unique identifier for this particular post.

25 Q. And that's just something that Facebook provides in the

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 returns?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Would that be visible on his Facebook page?

4 A. No.

5 Q. And then going to the summary, what is that?

6 A. "Are US" -- I'm sorry. Explain it or to read it.

7 Q. Can you read what the summary is?

8 A. "Are USG thugs being forced to back down in Nevada?"

9 Q. And then what, if any, message did this account holder,
10 Eric Parker, post -- Eric "EJ" Parker, the account, post in 11 relation to this article?

12 A. He posted the text, "I'm home. That was one for the 13 books."

14 Q. And that's his own message; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And then below that where it says "title," what is the 17 title of the article that's being shared?

18 A. The title says, "The beginning of the 2nd American 19 Revolution?"

20 Q. And then below that, where it says URL, what is shared
21 there?

22 A. That's a link to an article with that title.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish just to the 24 witness and counsel what's been previously --

25 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. What's the

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 difference between the summary and the title? Are you saying
2 the title is the title of the article that's linked? Then
3 what's the summary?

4 THE WITNESS: Yes.

5 THE COURT: I'm lost. I'm sorry.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. The title would be
7 the title of the article. So, as you can see under the title
8 section, "The Beginning of the 2nd American Revolution?" Under 9 the URL follows a link to the article. After that last back
10 splash it has -- back slash. Excuse me -- it has the same
11 title there.

12 The summary would be a different summary that someone
13 else might have posted about that particular link.

14 THE COURT: So, like the summary of the thread or 15 something? Like if you're -- who would add that? That's --

16 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't know who would add
17 that. The defendant would not. That would -- his would be the 18 text.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. When an article is shared on Facebook, in -- in the 21 back -- in the returns that are provided by Facebook --

22 A. Right.

23 Q. -- they provide the summary section; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And on the actual post, you would see the user's message?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Here --

3 A. You would see the user's message, yes.

4 Q. Here where it says "text," you'd see that?

5 A. That's what it would look like.

6 Q. And you would also see the title of the article?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you are not sure if the summary part would be visible
9 or not?

10 A. I -- I don't know.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, did you want me to follow up
12 on that more?

13 THE COURT: I just don't know what the summary is.
14 But if she's saying she doesn't know where that comes from 15 either, that's fine. I just didn't know if there was a
16 clarification.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. So, to your knowledge, that's not something that the 19 account holder is authoring; correct?

20 A. Correct. To the best of my knowledge, right.

21 THE COURT: So the text is what the author wrote.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we go to Exhibit 95?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Just for the witness -- actually, Your
2 Honor, I believe this was admitted.

3 THE COURT: It was admitted.

4 MS. AHMED: And me way publish?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Can we zoom in on just the posts?

8 Now, Agent Draper, looking at 95, it looks different
9 from what we have been reviewing previously; correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Can you explain to the jury then what -- what are they
12 looking at in Exhibit 95?

13 A. So, this would not have come from a Facebook business
14 records return. So this would not have come back with a search
15 warrant return. This would have been something that had been 16 captured -- I guess screen captured, collected directly off the 17 Facebook page. Essentially, saved a snapshot of it as it would 18 appear on the page.

19 Q. And have you seen this post -- these posts on Eric
20 Parker's --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- Facebook account?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And, so, where on his account did they appear? Were these 25 public posts?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes, this was a public post.

2 Q. And, so, you indicated earlier that the Facebook returns
3 were provided in 2014; is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. As part of your investigation, did you go back to look at 6 this Facebook account after those returns were provided back to
7 you?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. And in doing so, is that when you observed this post on
10 his Facebook page?

11 A. Yes, and in a follow-on review.

12 Q. Can you then, looking at the very top where it says Steven 13 Hill, who was posting that?

14 A. That would be posted by an individual whose user name is 15 Steven Hill.

16 Q. And what was the message posted?

17 A. "I want a bridge guy T-shirt."

18 Q. And what date was that post provided?

19 A. September 16th, 2014.

20 Q. And then below that, where it says David Hoffman, do you
21 see that?

22 A. I do.

23 Q. And who is making that post?

24 A. That would be an individual whose user name is David
25 Hoffman.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

- 1 Q. And then what is the message that's been posted?
- 2 A. That individual posts "And an NVG scope."
- 3 Q. What is an NVG scope based on your training and 4 experience?
- 5 A. So, NVG is an acronym for night vision goggles. So, that 6 would be presumably a rifle scope that could be used to see in 7 low-light situations.
- 8 Q. And when was that comment posted?
- 9 A. September 16th of 2014.
- 10 Q. And then going to the next post where it says Eric "EJ"
11 Parker, do you see that?
- 12 A. Yes.
- 13 Q. And who is making that post?
- 14 A. The account holder for the Eric "EJ" Parker account.
- 15 Q. And this is -- this was -- you observed this Eric --
- 16 A. Yes.
- 17 Q. -- Eric "EJ" Parker's wall?
- 18 A. Right. And this is the -- this is the user name of the 19 account that we just reviewed the business records from.
- 20 Q. So, this is the same account where you observed
21 photographs of the defendant?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. And what -- of an individual named Eric Parker?
- 24 A. I am sorry?
- 25 Q. Of Eric Parker?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what is the content of the post that is made by Eric
3 "EJ" Parker at the bottom of this exhibit?

4 A. "That's what I kept saying when people were calling me the 5 Bundy sniper. My buddy Steven Stewart had to relay to me what
6 was going on through binoculars. Not much good at that
7 distance with open sights."

8 Q. Now, where it says "My buddy Steven Stewart," do you see
9 that?

10 A. I do.

11 Q. And the words "Steven Stewart" appear in blue on your 12 screen. Do you see that?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Can you explain to the jury why those two words are in 15 blue?

16 A. That would be a hyperlink or a connection to a Facebook --
17 another Facebook user whose user name is Steven Stewart. So
18 that would be directly connected to that other Facebook
19 account.

20 Q. And did you click on that hyperlink in your review?

21 A. I did not click on this hyperlink, no.

22 Q. Are you familiar with the account that Steven Stewart --
23 whose account that is?

24 A. Yes, I am familiar with that.

25 Q. Whose account is that?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. And that is Mr. Stewart's, one of our defendants.

2 Q. And on what date was this post made?

3 A. September 16th of 2014.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the witness
5 and counsel Exhibit 96?

6 THE COURT: Yes. Did we get an explanation of what
7 "the bridge guy T-shirt" is?

8 MS. AHMED: I did not, Your Honor, elicit that from 9 her, but I can ask her if you'd like.

10 THE COURT: If she knows.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Going back to Exhibit 95, to the extent that you know what 13 that top comment is talking about, where it says "Steven Hill, 14 I want a bridge guy T-shirt," can you explain to the jury what 15 that means?

16 A. So, the image depicted, that's the profile photo for 17 Mr. Hill at that time. So, that image that's within that 18 profile photo is the word "resist" with an individual with a
19 rifle in a prone position in front of that.

20 That is -- that image is taken from a photo taken of 21 Mr. Parker at Bundy Ranch up on the bridge. So, that's a
22 sketch of -- of him in front of that word or an image of a
23 silhouette appearing to be the same image that was captured in 24 a photograph in front of the word "resist."

25

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. And when the comment -- what then is your understanding,
3 based on your investigation, of the statement "I want a bridge
4 guy T-shirt"?

5 A. I'm aware that following -- following the Bundy Ranch
6 incident, there were T-shirts made, and Mr. Parker was in some
7 circles referred to as the "bridge guy."

8 Q. And what appeared on the T-shirt. You said T-shirts were 9 made. What were the T-shirts depicting?

10 A. Oh, with that image on it. I'm sorry.

11 Q. And --

12 A. Or a similar image.

13 Q. And in looking at your screen, can you circle, touching
14 the screen, the image that you were referencing when you were 15 describing it?

16 A. I will. And I will say I don't know what these words on 17 this are, so I will just circle what I am familiar with.

18 Q. And the witness has drawn a circle over an image in a box
19 on the top left-hand side of the post of the screen.

20 And what you've circled is what you -- what were on 21 T-shirts that you've described already? That what you have 22 circled is what is on the T-shirt?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. AHMED: Thank you. Your Honor, may way go to
25 Exhibit 96?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 THE WITNESS: May I make a statement just to further
3 clarify. I don't know if --

4 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, nonresponsive.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. Did you want to clarify your previous response with
7 respect to Exhibit 95?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Could you please do so?

10 A. I don't know if T-shirts had been produced yet in 11 September of 2014, but I've -- since know that T-shirts have 12 been produced.

13 Q. So, in September 2014, you did not know?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. But subsequent to September of 2014, you have learned that 16 there are T-shirts?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you don't know when the T-shirts were made?

19 A. Right. Right.

20 MS. AHMED: Okay. May we publish to the witness and 21 counsel Exhibit 96, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 96?

25 A. Yes, I do.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And just generally, what do you recognize this to be?

2 A. This is a photo that was posted on Mr. Parker's Facebook
3 page.

4 Q. And who posted the photo? Is it the account holder
5 uploading the photo, or is it somebody else putting the photo
6 on that person's Facebook page?

7 A. That would have been the account holder putting that on 8 there as his cover photo.

9 Q. And is this something that you've personally observed on 10 the -- Eric Parker's Facebook account?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And does it fairly and accurately depict what you observed
13 on his Facebook account?

14 A. Yes, it does.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
16 Exhibit 96.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, relevance.

18 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

21 THE COURT: Relevance?

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, again, it goes to the ongoing
23 conspiracy. The -- as indicated in Exhibit 95, statements
24 about training prior to April 12th, 2014. And there's both a
25 picture from prior to April 2014 and subsequent to April 2014

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 discussing what appears to be training exercises, a photograph
2 depicting training.

3 So, it would be offered for -- as evidence in 4 furtherance of the -- of basically statements in evidence of 5 the conspiracy, ongoing conspiracy.

6 THE COURT: So, the continuation of the conspiracy?

7 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 96 is admitted. You
9 may go ahead and publish it.

10 (Exhibit 96 admitted.)

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. And Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what is -- 13 just going from the top, the top portion, can you explain to 14 the jury what, again, this is?

15 A. So, the top line says Eric "EJ" Parker updated his cover
16 photo January 19th of 2014. That --

17 Q. And so would you -- and the cover photo, I believe, you 18 indicated earlier is something that would be visible on the
19 Facebook page?

20 A. Correct. It's essentially a banner at the top of the
21 page.

22 Q. And then what is the content of the cover photo that was
23 posted?

24 A. It's a photo of two individuals engaged in -- appears to 25 be firearms training with targets.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And then below the photograph, there appear to be
2 comments. Do you see that?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. Turning to the top comment, can you explain to the jury
5 what that is?

6 A. The top comment, written by user Steven Stewart,
7 January 19th, 2015, responded -- so, the year after that.
8 Responded. Said "Sun's barely hitting the top of the hill.
9 Early starts."

10 Q. So, is this a comment that's being made in response to the 11 photograph?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And so would it be visible on the Facebook page under the 14 photograph?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And to the extent that you know, whose account is that 17 Steven Stewart account?

18 A. Mr. -- Mr. Stewart's.

19 Q. And you indicated it was being posted -- the comment was 20 posted a year after. That's because the date underneath says
21 January 19, 2015; is that correct?

22 A. Yes, that's correct.

23 Q. And then there's a comment below that one. Can you tell
24 the jury who posted it as what it says?

25 A. Eric "EJ" Parker user name posted, "This is exactly one

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 year ago today. We are doing good." And that was 11 minutes
2 after Mr. Stewart made his post.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I publish to the witness
4 and counsel Exhibit 97?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 97?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Is this -- and what is it generally?

10 A. This is an image Mr. Parker shared from another Facebook
11 page and he made a comment.

12 Q. And was it shared on his Facebook account?

13 A. Yes. Yes, it was.

14 Q. And did you view this post on Mr. Parker's Facebook
15 account?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And does what is depicted in Exhibit 97 fairly and 18 accurately depict what you observed on Mr. Parker's Facebook
19 account with respect to this post?

20 A. Yes, it does.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
22 Exhibit 97.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 97?

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Relevance. More
25 prejudicial than probative.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: As well as hearsay.

3 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would -- it's being
5 offered, essentially, as you can see there's -- it's being 6 shared from -- the source that it's being shared from and the 7 content of it both go, again, to the 404(b). It shows absence
8 of mistake with respect to the events of April 12, 2014, and 9 it's part of the ongoing conspiracy. Offer it as evidence of 10 the ongoing conspiracy.

11 THE COURT: So, this is something that Mr. Parker
12 posted?

13 MS. AHMED: He posted this to his Facebook page.
14 It's a post made by another that he shared to his Facebook
15 page. But additionally -- and I can have the witness lay this 16 foundation, but that is his own comment.

17 MR. MARCHESE: We would disagree that it shows
18 absence of mistake. It's after the fact.

19 MS. AHMED: I would say, Your Honor, absence of 20 mistake, intent, and motive. And the timing doesn't have any 21 relevance. It doesn't matter when, whether it's before or 22 after. We would show say it shows absence of mistake, intent,
23 and motive.

24 MR. MARCHESE: I would respectfully disagree that the 25 timing is very relevant in reference to intent or motive.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, I would add that
2 this is almost three years later.

3 THE COURT: What did you say? Three years later?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it's 2014, October. So, two
5 and a half, almost three years? '12, '13, '14.

6 MS. AHMED: Well, with respect to that, it's the same
7 year. It was posted the same year as the event which happened
8 in April. It's just a few months afterwards within the time of 9 the alleged conspiracy.

10 THE COURT: Yeah, it's a few months later.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: It's adoptive admission. Exhibit 97 is 13 admitted. You may publish it to the jury.

14 (Exhibit 97 admitted.)

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury again, so who --
17 who is posting this and where did you see it posted?

18 A. So, user name Eric "EJ" Parker shared this post from a
19 Facebook page titled -- or they call it a photo. Shared this 20 photo from a Facebook page titled III% Patriot Countries --
21 Country. Excuse me. And I found this on Mr. Parker's Facebook
22 page.

23 Q. And can you just explain briefly what, based on your 24 experience, a 3% is?

25 A. Sure. 3% is a -- a movement in the United States that

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 bases itself upon an idea that only 3% of Americas stood up
2 against -- drew their arms against the British during the
3 Revolutionary War. So, III Patriot is kind of a movement.
4 There's different loosely connected chapters throughout the
5 United States.

6 So, there's -- now there's a modern-day incarnation
7 of that concept, that assertion about 3% being willing to fight
8 against the British.

9 Q. Now, you indicated that Mr. Parker -- this post is being 10 shared by him.

11 Can you draw on the screen and indicate what part is 12 being shared?

13 And the witness has drawn a box around the photograph
14 and the comments below it.

15 And can you read -- and can you describe for the 16 record what's in the photograph and what -- what's depicted in 17 the photograph?

18 A. It's apparently a wolf with the words "never tread on 19 someone who wants to die in battle."

20 Q. And underneath the photograph, what are the words that are 21 stated there?

22 A. It gives credit to the III% Patriot Country,
23 September 30th, 2014. "I don't mind. I even signed up for it
24 once. Where are our wolves in the midst of sheep?" And that 25 would be all part of the original post, and then dot, dot, dot

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 "malice."

2 Q. And then clearing the marks that you just drew, Mr. Parker
3 also includes a comment that he made himself on this post?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And where do you see that? Can you circle it?

6 And the witness has circled words that appear above
7 the photograph in Exhibit 97.

8 And can you read those to the jury?

9 A. "Lo, there do I see my family all the way back to the 10 beginning. They call to me to take my place amongst them."

11 Q. In the course of your investigation, did you learn what 12 these words appeared to be referencing?

13 A. They appear to be a summary of a -- of an old Viking or 14 Norse poem harkening folks to Valhalla, which is a place Viking
15 warriors --

16 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay and relevance.

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

19 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the witness is just 21 explaining the post, the context of the statements made by 22 Mr. Parker, so the jury can understand their significance in 23 relation to the photographs based on her investigation.

24 THE COURT: Do you want to lay a foundation for that?

25

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Did you take any steps to understand what the statements
3 that were being posted by Mr. Parker himself, what they were?

4 A. I looked at an old Norse poem, and the content is similar.
5 It's a lot lengthier but similar, so this appears to be a
6 summary of that.

7 Q. It's a summary. Is the language used the same language
8 that's used in that poem?

9 A. It's very similar.

10 Q. And did you understand this to be actually words that were 11 referencing that poem?

12 A. That's my understanding.

13 MR. TANASI: Same objection, Your Honor.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

15 MR. TANASI: Speculation and hearsay as to the poem
16 that she reviewed.

17 THE COURT: Well, you can cross-examine her. She 18 said she reviewed a poem that had similar language. There was 19 a Valhalla reference in the Norse poem. So, it's admissible.
20 You can cross-examine her on it.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. So then can you explain to the jury, basically, this poem
23 that you reviewed that this language appears to be summarizing,
24 according -- what -- what is it? What was that poem?

25 A. It's a Norse or a Viking poem, maybe a prayer, that's used

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 often to talk about this concept of Valhalla. That Viking
2 warriors, half of them would -- if they died in battle, half
3 would be called to Valhalla, which is a -- it's a great place
4 that these warriors would go to upon death in battle.

5 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish to the 6 witness and counsel what's been marked for identification as
7 Exhibit 98?

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Agent Draper, do you recognized what's depicted based in
11 Exhibit 98?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. What is it just generally?

14 A. It's a post seen by Mr. Parker of a -- of a YouTube video
15 and a comment by Mr. Parker.

16 Q. And generally, what does the video appear to be about?

17 A. About the Bundy Ranch.

18 Q. And did you yourself observe this post on Mr. Parker's
19 Facebook page?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Does Exhibit 98 fairly and accurately depict what you
22 observed on the page?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
25 Exhibit 98.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: Any objection to 98?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would object to hearsay.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Hearsay as well.

4 MR. TANASI: Steward joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 THE COURT: All right. So, the first post seems to 7 be made by Mr. Parker.

8 MS. AHMED: Can we take the zoom out?

9 THE COURT: And the second post is not. The third
10 one is. The fourth one is. There's a list of them, let's say.
11 Not all of them are statements of Mr. Parker.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I apologize for speaking over
13 you. I was trying to zoom out.

14 You're correct that underneath the main post, there
15 are a series of statements are being offered. If you read
16 the -- it's a back and forth -- appears to be a back-and-forth
17 conversation.

18 Again, the context of the statements made by 19 Mr. Parker and then later there are also comments by Mr. -- by 20 a Steven Stewart, Mr. Stewart. So we would offer those,
21 obviously, as admissions. And the rest of it is context for 22 that conversation, that you don't really understand what he's 23 talking about without the rest of it.

24 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

25 (Sidebar.)

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just, I mean --

2 THE COURT: So, he's not adopting these statements.
3 It's a conversation back and forth. He is responding to it,
4 and it may be necessary to explain his response.

5 But I need to be careful about why is it not hearsay,
6 when it's a statement being made by someone else. So, rather
7 than discussing it in front of the jury, it'd be easier to do
8 it here.

9 So, I'm looking at 801(d)(2), which is opposing
10 party's statements -- okay. It's not being made in a 11 representative capacity, so it's not (a). (b) is the one we 12 used before where it's something that they are adopting or 13 believing to be true. (c) is made by a person whom the party
14 authorized to make a statement on the subject. That's not it.

15 (d) was made by the party's agent or employee on a
16 matter within the scope in that relationship, et cetera. Not 17 that one. Made by the party's coconspirator during and in 18 furtherance -- those other individuals, to my knowledge, are 19 not -- at least they are not indicted coconspirators.

20 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Except for, obviously, Steven Stewart at
23 the bottom.

24 Your Honor, I can -- for the record, Your Honor, I
25 would say that I would at least want the top comment to give

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 context to Mr. Parker's subsequent statements.

2 But then, I mean, there's definitely portions that
3 can be redacted. I would ask for at least "Need a little work
4 on your leg positioning, Eric." And then --

5 THE REPORTER: Speak up, please.

6 MS. AHMED: Sorry. "Need a little positioning --
7 need a little work on your leg positioning, Eric." Then I
8 would want the next two comments, because they are basically --
9 I mean, it's --

10 THE COURT: Because of his leg position. I
11 understand that.

12 MS. AHMED: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Otherwise, it doesn't make since.

14 MS. AHMED: I would -- also, I have no problem
15 redacting those three -- next three, and then keeping the 16 comment that Parker -- the next two comments Parker makes.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MS. AHMED: And then redacting the subsequent 19 comments by Blackburn. So, really, the only comment we want by 20 Blackburn would be that top one, and then the rest we would 21 just want --

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MS. AHMED: -- from both defendants.

24 MR. MARCHESE: So, to be clear, because we might 25 actually be in agreement on something once. You want the last

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 two Stewart comments and then above that redact up to --

2 MS. AHMED: The only comment we would keep from -- we
3 would propose the only comment we would keep would be the top
4 Blackburn.

5 MR. MARCHESE: And then Eric.

6 MS. AHMED: And then keep all defendants' statements
7 and redact the rest of Blackburn.

8 MR. MARCHESE: All right. I don't have a problem
9 with that.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Look at that. Wow. Impressive.

11 MS. AHMED: You have had these exhibits for a long
12 time, you know.

13 MR. TANASI: It seems like thousands of exhibits for 14 a long time.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So, the first one that we're
16 leaving in, the Blackburn statement --

17 MS. AHMED: I guess they would be withdrawing --

18 THE COURT: -- is an 801(d)(2)(B) --

19 MS. AHMED: (B). That's --

20 THE COURT: -- because he's adopting the reference to 21 his leg --

22 MS. AHMED: Correct.

23 THE COURT: -- positioning.

24 MS. AHMED: And then the rest --

25 THE COURT: The other Blackburn statements you're

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 going to redact, so that the only ones that are left are Steven
2 Stewart's statements and Parker's statements.

3 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. I agree with that.

5 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 (End of sidebar.)

8 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 98 is admitted
9 with the redactions noted by the Court.

10 Are you going to need a moment to make those
11 redactions?

12 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

14 (Pause in the proceedings.)

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. May we pull up, just for counsel and the witness,
17 Exhibit 98?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

20 THE COURT: So, Exhibit 98 is admitted with those 21 redactions. Thank you.

22 (Exhibit 98 admitted.)

23 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. May we publish?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, is this a Facebook post made on Eric
3 Parker's Facebook page?

4 A. Yes, this is.

5 Q. And did he share a video along with his own comment about
6 the video?

7 A. Yes, he did.

8 Q. So, can you show the jury where his comment is on this
9 post?

10 And the witness has circled lines near the top of the
11 page.

12 Now, can you tell the jury first what date was the 13 post made?

14 A. January 8th, 2015.

15 Q. And can you read to the jury what it is that Eric Parker
16 stated with respect to the video?

17 A. "I love watching this stuff. Scott Drexler, Steven 18 Stewart, 2.5 min in, remember that guy? He just seemed so
19 nonchalant, I liked him. Give me liberty or give me death."

20 Q. And then below that, is that where the video is that he 21 shared?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And can you read to the jury what -- the description that
24 appears to be attached to the video?

25 A. "Political Cause Growing at Bundy Ranch."

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And then the words below that?

2 A. "Las Vegas. Tensions remain high at the Bundy cattle
3 ranch in Bunkerville as self-described militia patrol the 4 grounds. They say they're sticking around," and then it cuts
5 off.

6 Q. And then immediately below the post, were there comments
7 made by Mr. Parker and other Facebook users?

8 A. Yes, there were.

9 Q. And in the zoom-out portion, can you see the top repost
10 there at the bottom of the zoomed-out part?

11 A. Yes, I can.

12 Q. Can you -- beginning where it says "Matt Blackburn," can 13 you read that first comment?

14 A. The first comment by that user says, "Need a little 15 leg" -- whoops. Correction. "Need a little work on your leg
16 positions, Eric."

17 Q. And then below that, was that comment made on January 8th, 18 2015?

19 A. Yes, it was.

20 Q. And then below that, does it -- Eric "EJ" Parker respond?

21 A. He responds, "I've learned a lot since that day." And 22 then continues, "It was a tricky angle."

23 Q. And were both of those posts made on January 8th, 2015, as
24 well?

25 A. Yes, they were.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. And were there additional posts made by Eric Parker -- by
2 Eric Parker and Steven Stewart?

3 A. Yes, there are.

4 Q. Beginning at the top of the zoomed out portion, can you
5 read that first post?

6 A. From Eric "EJ" Parker. "Steven kept yelling at me about
7 getting my feet out of the road."

8 Q. And "Steven" appears in blue; is that correct?

9 A. These correct.

10 Q. And what does that mean?

11 A. I assume that's Steven Stewart.

12 Q. To your -- based on your experience with Facebook, is that 13 a hyperlink to his -- Steven Stewart's Facebook page?

14 A. I make that assumption. But normally, would it show up
15 "Steven Stewart," but he does respond at the bottom, so that 16 leads me to believe it's connected to him. But it doesn't
17 normally show just the first name.

18 Q. So, in your experience, it would have been both "Steven"
19 and "Stewart" in blue; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And then going to the post immediately below that top one
22 where it says Eric "EJ" Parker, what does it state?

23 A. Yes. "I told him not to worry. That Nevada sent the 24 highway patrol to shut down the lane for me."

25 Q. And was that also made -- comment made on January 8, 2015?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes, they both were.

2 Q. And then going to the bottom two posts made by Steven
3 Stewart, do you see those?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And can you -- beginning with the top one, where it says
6 "Steven Stewart," based on your experience and your 7 investigation, whose page is that?

8 A. It's Mr. Stewart's and also based upon the profile photo.

9 Q. And what does that first comment say?

10 A. "When the F-U-C-K was that asshole recording the guy next 11 to me. I would have hid better. Like when you were" -- 12 correction -- "like when they were interviewing your ass.
13 LOL."

14 Q. And you indicated that you recognized the profile picture.
15 Is that the photograph that appears next to the words "Steven 16 Stewart"?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And based on your investigation, what is that a picture
19 of?

20 A. That's Mr. Stewart's profile photo.

21 Q. And then was that comment posted on January 9, 2015?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then does Mr. Stewart make another comment?

24 A. He does, also on January 9th, 2015.

25 Q. And can you read that one -- statement?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 A. Yes. "Okay. I'll admit. It's cool to see vid of me on
2 freeway, but anyways."

3 Q. And then zooming back out.

4 Your Honor, may we publish what's been marked for
5 identification as Exhibit 45A?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. And without playing it, Agent Draper, did you review
9 Exhibit 45A prior to being in the courtroom today? Exhibit 45A
10 which is a video?

11 A. Can you refresh me on which video? I'm sorry.

12 Q. And so without sound, can we play the first few seconds?

13 (Exhibit 45A being played.)

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And what is this a video of just generally?

16 A. This is a video about an Idaho organization called the "3%
17 of Idaho."

18 Q. And is this a video that was posted to the Idaho 3%
19 YouTube page?

20 A. They had it on their YouTube channel.

21 Q. And did you view it on the YouTube channel?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what is in Exhibit 45A, does that fairly and 24 accurately depict what you observed on the YouTube channel?

25 A. Yes.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government moves to admit
2 Exhibit 45A.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Relevance to the time
4 when she viewed it.

5 MR. TANASI: Okay. Stewart also --

6 THE COURT: What was the objection?

7 MR. MARCHESI: It's a foundational objection.

8 THE COURT: Foundational as to time?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's foundational. That's all. I
10 don't know when she viewed it.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart adds relevance as to Steven 12 Stewart, Your Honor.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'll ask a couple follow-up.
14 Thank you.

15 Q. Agent Draper, when did you view this video? Approximately 16 when did you view this individual on the Idaho 3% YouTube
17 Channel?

18 A. Well, probably first maybe around December. January 2016,
19 December 2015, approximately.

20 Q. That was the first time you viewed it there?

21 A. I believe so.

22 Q. And in this video, which is depicted in 45A, are there
23 images -- does it contain any images of the defendants -- of 24 any of the defendants?

25 A. Yes, it does.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Q. Does that include Mr. Parker?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Which of the four defendants does it include images of?

5 A. Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, Mr. Stewart.

6 Q. And is this in relation -- and what do the images depict,
7 just generally, them doing?

8 A. Training or operations with this organization.

9 Q. And that's Idaho, the 3%?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And just generally, can you explain what the Idaho 3% is?

12 A. It's Idaho --

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Asked and answered. Objection.

14 MS. AHMED: This is specific to the Idaho 3%. I
15 believe that you -- Agent Draper previously testified as to the 16 3% movement generally. Now I'm asking her specifically about
17 the Idaho 3%?

18 THE COURT: All right. She can answer the question.

19 THE WITNESS: All right. It's -- as previously
20 discussed, the 3% movement is -- there's organizations
21 throughout the country, and Idaho has a -- has a chapter as
22 well.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. What kind of organization is it?

25 A. They do -- they do trainings, like, type of military-style

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 training, firearms or tactical. They do some operations. They
2 do some community service.

3 Q. And when you say operations, what -- just generally, what
4 do you mean?

5 A. They've been -- individuals associated with the 6 organization have been involved in other interactions with the 7 federal -- federal regulation, federal regulatory acts.

8 Q. Have they -- in this video, are there images of the 9 defendants that you named participating in those operations?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And there are also -- are there images in this video of 12 their participation in the events of April 12th, 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And are there images depicting them conducting the 15 training that you just described?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Participating in training?

18 A. Yes. Yes.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the government would move to 20 admit 45A.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects as to relevance. More
22 prejudicial than probative.

23 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

24 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: All right. Indulge me, please, in
2 sidebar, so I can ask a couple questions follow-up.

3 (Sidebar.)

4 THE COURT: All right. So, my question is, since I
5 haven't seen the video and the objection is more prejudicial
6 and probative, I am not sure how I can make that finding as to 7 whether it's relevant.

8 If it does portray images of the defendants during 9 the incident, then, obviously, that portion of it is relevant.
10 If there's other portions that are not relevant and maybe are 11 more prejudicial, then I need to know more about what this 12 video displays. Is it like a training video or recruiting
13 video for them?

14 MR. TANASI: It's essentially a montage of just that 15 almost.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Essentially, yes. I was about to 17 join. It got me.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Three minutes long. Some of images
19 are of Bundy. I think all of them have already been admitted
20 into evidence. If not, then very similar ones have been.

21 There are just some general pictures. Guys just 22 hanging out. There are also some pictures with guys, you know,
23 with guns and whatnot. There are also some pictures of the two 24 mining incidents, which assuming the government is laying the 25 foundation for getting into. What else?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No community service. I didn't see
2 community services --

3 THE COURT: She mentioned that.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I mean, I heard it, I just didn't see
5 it on the training.

6 MR. MARCHESE: I missed --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I was looking for it.

8 MR. MARCHESE: The 3% bake sale was not in there. I
9 want that put in there.

10 MS. AHMED: The 3% what?

11 MR. MARCHESE: Bake sale.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, the bake sale.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, this --

14 THE COURT: You will in your next case. We will be 15 back here, and I will remind you of that.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. Don't tell me that.

17 MS. AHMED: This is a video posted to the Idaho 3%
18 YouTube page, and I believe the title of it is "3% of Idaho, an 19 Overview."

20 And, obviously, I can play it for Your Honor, so you
21 can see it. But it's montage of photographs that include both.
22 That are the Bundy Ranch photographs, that event, interspersed
23 with the photographs from the Sugar Pine Mine event and the 24 White Hope Mine event, both of which we noticed as 404(b)
25 evidence.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 So, if Your Honor would want to take a restroom break
2 right now, I would propose that we do that, and I can show it
3 to you. We don't need the audio. It's just a song, but we
4 were going to put in the images.

5 And I was thinking, Your Honor, that in order --

6 THE COURT: So, there's no words? There's no --

7 MS. AHMED: There's no audio. It's just images.

8 Correct. It's just images.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And then is there some reference
10 to this video at some point by somebody's Facebook page, or 11 text, or something?

12 MS. AHMED: Another witness that we had listed on our 13 witness list shared this video at some point. We are not
14 saying that any of these three shared it, but they are featured
15 in it, and they participated -- they were affiliated with the 16 organization is what she had testified to. That they trained
17 with this organization, and they -- and so -- I mean, I can do
18 it that way. I can have her describe more of what she knows
19 about their involvement in the organization.

20 THE COURT: This witness or a different witness?

21 MS. AHMED: This witness.

22 THE COURT: This witness.

23 MS. AHMED: Yeah. No, I was saying another witness
24 had shared it at some point but not these three Idaho
25 defendants.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: All right. Because in weighing its
2 prohibitiveness, it doesn't sound like it's any more probative
3 than the images we already have. So, I'm trying to see, is 4 there something --

5 MS. AHMED: So, these --

6 THE COURT: -- else that this adds to the equation.

7 MS. AHMED: These are images of the other two 8 operations that we noticed as 404(b) that defendants Parker and
9 Drexler participated in, and there's also a photograph -- a
10 still of Mr. Stewart training with Mr. Parker and another
11 individual. And they are wearing Idaho 3% T-shirts and so
12 it's --

13 THE COURT: And, so, this group lifted, from 14 somewhere else, some of the videos and images we have already 15 seen and threw them into --

16 MS. AHMED: No, these are all --

17 THE COURT: -- the recruitment video.

18 MS. AHMED: I would say that the Bundy Ranch ones
19 are probably -- they are lifted from somewhere else. These are 20 old images that, at least, we all have seen.

21 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

22 MS. AHMED: But the other images are from the other
23 two events, White Hope Mine and Sugar Pine Mine.

24 THE COURT: And the images of other two events, do
25 those include any of the defendants?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Oh.

3 MS. AHMED: They do. The other two events, there's 4 images of both Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler from the White Hope
5 Mine event, and then with respect to the Sugar Pine Mine event,
6 there's images with Mr. Parker, both with others who were --
7 who also went to Sugar Pine Mine.

8 THE COURT: So, it's sounding more and more like it
9 would be admissible, but then we need to go back to the 10 limiting instruction and provide that first.

11 MS. AHMED: That's fine. It would --

12 THE COURT: The 404(b) is what you're telling me now.

13 MS. AHMED: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. TANASI: And Your Honor, we're going to be --

16 THE COURT: I didn't get that from the beginning of 17 the conversation when you were --

18 MR. PEREZ: And then with respect to Mr. Lovelien --

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. PEREZ: -- I mean, he's not even anywhere in any
21 of this stuff. I mean --

22 THE COURT: How does this relate to Mr. Lovelien? Is 23 this admitted only as to these three defendants' intent,
24 absence of mistake, and motive?

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would --

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: It doesn't seem to implicate Mr. Lovelien
2 or does it in the video?

3 MS. AHMED: The video -- Mr. Lovelien does not
4 feature in the video. We do know that after -- there was 5 evidence that after the April 12th events, he did want to 6 become more involved in OMA, so thereby staying involved in 7 this movement generally.

8 THE COURT: But this movement. He's not a 3%er.

9 MS. AHMED: Idaho 3%.

10 MR. PEREZ: He's not a 3%er. There's been no
11 evidence of that.

12 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, yeah. We --

13 THE COURT: So, that's my inclination. I will look
14 at the video, but my inclination, at this point, with what's 15 been shared, is that it is relevant. It is 404(b), but I do
16 need to give a limiting instruction first.

17 And I don't see how it's related to Mr. Lovelien's
18 intent, motive, or absence of mistake, so I would instruct the 19 jury that it's also only admitted as to the other three and not 20 to Mr. Lovelien.

21 MR. TANASI: I guess I would just kind of add or join
22 with Mr. Perez as to Mr. Stewart. He is depicted in one split
23 second of the frame, so I don't know that that would 24 automatically prove his membership in 3%, which my client
25 disputes to this day. Simply being there or being a member are

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 two different things.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor will see when we get there,
3 that he's actually depicted in the photograph that's included
4 in the video montage training with Mr. Parker and another
5 individual. And they are all wearing Idaho 3% T-shirts.

6 So, we would -- we would say that it's both relevant
7 for the reasons we've already stated, and that it would also be
8 applicable to him with the limiting instruction as well.

9 THE COURT: Let's give them a stretch break, and then
10 I'll watch the video, and you guys with take a quick stretch
11 break.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I propose one other
13 thing?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MS. AHMED: In order not to just torture everybody
16 else into the ground. Since it appears that there's -- there's 17 still quite a bit of Facebook to put in, so I would be 18 proposing that we would just put in the firearms with Agent
19 Draper, and then take her off --

20 THE COURT: Put in the what?

21 MR. MYHRE: The firearms.

22 MS. AHMED: The firearms that she was going to be 23 putting in.

24 THE COURT: You said firehouse.

25 MS. AHMED: Oh, firearms. The two firearms that we

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 were intending to put in with her, we would ask that we be
2 allowed to put those into evidence with her, and then take her
3 off the stand, and put the firearms expert on to testify with 4 respect to those firearms.

5 And then in the meantime, we could, outside the 6 presence of the jury --

7 THE COURT: Go through all --

8 MS. AHMED: -- go through the rest of the --

9 THE COURT: -- the evidence and see what changes or 10 what --

11 MS. AHMED: Facebook posts depending --

12 THE COURT: -- things you all can agree to before you
13 bring it back to me, so we don't waste the jury's time.

14 MS. AHMED: That would be our proposal. So --

15 THE COURT: Okay. And then any objection to these to 16 weapons that are coming in?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think they are Parker's; right?

18 MS. AHMED: One Parker, one Stewart.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. I have no objection.

20 MR. TANASI: No objection.

21 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do that.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And just on the video, you are 24 playing the sound, too?

25 MS. AHMED: No, we were not going to include the

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 sound. It's just a song.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, I know. I know.

3 MS. AHMED: So --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: But I think it goes with the whole
5 thing. We would ask that it go in.

6 MR. TANASI: You Know, Your Honor -- I'm sorry. I
7 don't mean to backtrack.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, really.

9 MR. TANASI: But with respect to the firearms, I
10 guess I would actually object on prejudicial grounds. I think
11 they are more prejudicial than probative.

12 We've seen picture, on picture, on picture of 13 firearms. I don't think we actually need to see the gun
14 itself. I think that would be have more of a prejudicial
15 impact than in probative value, having seen them --

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is it the gun from that day?

17 MR. TANASI: I don't think there's any dispute, but-

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Probably from the search warrant.

19 MR. TANASI: Correct.

20 MS. AHMED: So, with respect to the firearm, Your 21 Honor, we would -- obviously, the firearm expert is going to 22 testify about his observations regarding the weapon, and it
23 would facilitate his testimony. And it's obviously relevant to 24 this case. So, we would just disagree with that objection and 25 think it should be admitted.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 And then with respect to Mr. Leventhal's request for
2 the music, we thought it was just a distraction from the
3 images. We are only offering it for the images, not to for the 4 music. But when Your Honor reviews it, I'll obviously play the 5 sound, so you can --

6 THE COURT: Okay. Play the sound.

7 (End of sidebar.)

8 THE COURT: All right. So, we are back on the 9 record, back from sidebar.

10 The Court's going to research its ruling and review
11 the video during break. We are going to allow the jury to go
12 ahead and have a break. And then after that, we're likely 13 going to have a different witness; right? We are just going to 14 switch lanes and have a different witness come in.

15 MS. AHMED: Just put in two more pieces s of
16 evidence.

17 THE COURT: Quickly to put in two more pieces of 18 evidence, so they don't have to come back again tomorrow;
19 because obviously we are not going to be done with Special
20 Agent Draper at this point.

21 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, that's the plan. We will 23 go ahead and take about -- I don't know. How long is the 24 video? I should ask that first.

25 MS. AHMED: Two and half to three minutes, Your

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, we can take a break until
3 3:30. It's 3:11 now.

4 I remind the jury during this break, please do not
5 discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it
6 with you. Do not read, review, or listen to anything that
7 touches upon this case in any way.

8 Please do tell the Court right away if you do
9 inadvertently hear anything about the case, and please do not
10 perform any research or any independent investigation
11 concerning this case.

12 We don't expect you to be familiar with every term or 13 everything that's being discussed. If you do have a question,
14 please feel free to write it down. It's an anonymous question.
15 And do not form any opinion until after you have received all
16 the information and been released to begin your deliberation
17 process.

18 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. We'll
19 welcome them back at 3:30.

20 And Special Agent Draper, you may take your stretch
21 break as well, and please be back here by 3:30 so we can --
22 well, we are not going to have her back here at 3:30; is that
23 right?

24 MS. AHMED: We do need to have her back, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. We are going to have you back

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 just for a minute at 3:30, then we'll switch gears.

2 (Jury out.)

3 THE COURT: All right. The jury has left the
4 courtroom.

5 Agent Draper, you are welcome to stay or go, but this
6 is -- yes, I am ready.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I don't mean to complicate
8 this, but would there be any way to take a bathroom break and 9 do this before the jury comes in? I know my client has to use
10 the bathroom.

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 MR. TANASI: If we come back earlier maybe.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, because it's 3:13 now. What did I
14 say? Did I say be back at 3:30? Right?

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct.

16 THE COURT: Yes. So, take a 10 -- quick 10 minutes
17 and come right back.

18 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

19 (Recess, 3:13 p.m. Resumed 3:33 p.m. Jury out.)

20 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

21 All right. We are still outside the presence of the 22 jury. Can you go ahead and cue up the video so I can see it?

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

24 THE COURT: Or did you come to an agreement?

25 MS. AHMED: No, we did not. Sorry. But the

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 government would actually withdraw the request for admission of
2 the video, and we'll actually submit screenshots from the
3 video --

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. AHMED: -- when we bring this witness back for 6 part two.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MS. AHMED: Which I guess we are hoping tomorrow,
9 obviously. And then hopefully in the meantime we can hash out
10 specific screen shots and the Facebook posts that -- so we 11 would just --

12 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 45A is withdrawn.

13 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And I can call the jury back in.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we just -- may I just 16 approach the witness?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. AHMED: I think that the exhibits that we were 19 going to put into evidence are up there, and I want to --

20 THE COURT: Mark them.

21 MS. AHMED: Yes.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Is this in reference to firearms,
23 Nadia?

24 MS. AHMED: These are the firearms.

25 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to him, we can just

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 stipulate.

2 MS. AHMED: Stip to admission of the firearm?

3 MR. MARCHESE: Since we've already admitted in a live
4 trial, I think it's fine.

5 MS. AHMED: And then --

6 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

7 (Pause in the proceedings.)

8 MR. TANASI: Well, Your Honor, I think we would stip
9 ultimately to admitting the firearm as well for Mr. Stewart.
10 But I guess I still would reserve my right to cross-examine the 11 witness on questions related to the firearm.

12 THE COURT: Oh, of course. Okay.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: Were they both Mr. Stewart's firearms or 15 no?

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there's two firearms that are 17 being admitted. We wanted to admit both the box that each
18 firearm came in and the firearm itself. But both counsel have 19 now said that they would stip to the admission of the firearms,
20 in which case we would not have any further questions at this
21 time for Agent Draper. But we would --

22 THE COURT: So, the questions for her were going to 23 be as to the boxes?

24 MS. AHMED: No, just to get the firearms into 25 evidence period. So, if they are admitted, then we would just

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 put the expert -- the firearms witness -- our next witness up
2 with them.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MS. AHMED: So, we -- but, Your Honor, for -- for the 5 record, and I'd ask again to approach the mark them.

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MS. AHMED: Exhibit 190A would be the firearm -- the 8 box in which Defendant Parker's firearm is currently encased
9 in.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MS. AHMED: And then Exhibit 190B is the firearm
12 itself. Exhibit 197A is the box for Mr. Stewart's firearm.

13 THE COURT: 190A was the box for Parker's firearm.
14 190B --

15 MS. AHMED: Is the firearm.

16 THE COURT: Is the firearm.

17 MS. AHMED: For Mr. Parker. And 197A is the box for 18 Mr. Stewart's firearm, and 197B is the box -- is the actual
19 firearm.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, on behalf of Mr. Drexler,
22 to the extent -- we don't -- we don't stipulate to them coming
23 in. So, if the Court -- if they are only coming in to those 24 two defendants, then I would ask to have a limiting instruction
25 be given to the jury that Mr. Parker's gun is coming in as to

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 Mr. Parker, and Mr. Stewart's gun is coming in for Mr. Stewart.

2 THE COURT: Is the government offering this evidence
3 only as to those two defendants, or is it part of the
4 conspiracy?

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it would be the latter. We 6 would not -- they were not -- we would not agree to -- or we 7 would oppose a limiting instruction just because they are 8 evidence of the conspiracy in which all four of these
9 defendants participated in.

10 THE COURT: So, this is inextricably intertwined?

11 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: That's the Court's ruling, so the 13 objection is overruled.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I approach?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, with respect to the remainder
17 of the Facebook posts and things that we intended to offer
18 through Agent Draper, I don't believe that we'll be able to 19 agree upon the remaining Facebook exhibits.

20 And so I would ask the Court, if the Court is 21 willing, that we have the jury come in possibly later tomorrow
22 morning, so that we could, without the jury present, go through 23 those with Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: We were going to come in at 25 9:00 tomorrow. What time were you proposing?

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there are -- I would think if
2 the jury was here by 10:00, that would give us sufficient time
3 to go through.

4 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to that?

5 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, we'll do that. We'll
8 have them come in at 10:00 instead of 9:00 tomorrow.

9 MS. AHMED: It can obviously move much faster if 10 counsel would look through the exhibits and let me know which 11 ones they have objections to.

12 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, generally speaking, I think
13 for appellate purposes, I need to be consistent and continue to 14 object to any of the after-the-fact stuff.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, for 16 clarification, the jury would come in at 10:00 and the rest
17 would be here at 9:00 for trial; is that correct? Is that your 18 intention?

19 THE COURT: No, I think that the parties are going to 20 be meeting between -- right? 9:00 and 10:00?

21 MS. AHMED: We were hoping, actually, Your Honor --
22 Your Honor, I anticipate that we will not be in agreement about 23 the majority of these exhibits --

24 THE COURT: Oh.

25 MS. AHMED: -- so I was anticipating that we would

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 need Your Honor to be here to rule upon them. So --

2 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

3 MS. AHMED: In which case, we would all start at 4 9:00 and have the jury come at 10:00.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. The firearms are 8 now marked according to what I stated on the record earlier
9 with exhibit stickers and the boxes.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, we can bring the jury
11 back in?

12 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And those four exhibits,
14 Your Honor, the firearms, those have not been yet admitted;
15 correct?

16 THE COURT: Correct.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, my understanding was that 18 counsel was stipulating to the admission, so could we now move
19 to admit them then at this time?

20 THE COURT: All right. No objection; right?

21 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor. No
22 objection.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler objects.

24 THE COURT: Is that a correct representation?

25 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: Exhibit 190A as in apple, 190B as boy,
2 197A as in apple and 197B as in boy is admitted.

3 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 (Exhibits 190A, 190B, 197A and 197B admitted.)

5 (Jury in.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Welcome back to the jury who
7 may be seated. Go ahead and take your seats. Everyone else
8 may take a seat as well.

9 All right. So, Ms. Ahmed, you withdraw the Exhibit
10 No. 45A?

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, at this time, we would 12 request that we be allowed to withdraw, which was offered for 13 admission, Exhibit 45A and resubmit some portion of it when we 14 return Agent Draper to the stand.

15 We would also ask, Your Honor, to be allowed to break
16 with Agent Draper for the day, so that counsel can go through 17 the exhibits without subjecting the jury to this process
18 unnecessarily, and return with her back on the stand tomorrow.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just for the record, our 21 understanding also was, at the break, the parties all
22 stipulated to the admission of Exhibit 190B, which is Eric
23 Parker's firearm obtained from Eric Parker, and 197B, which is 24 Steven Stewart's firearm, obtained from Mr. Stewart.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And Your Honor --

Sarah Gibson Draper - Direct

1 THE COURT: That's correct.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I apologize. Your Honor,
3 that's not correct. Mr. Drexler objected to those being
4 admitted at this time.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And the Court ruled on the 6 objection. So, over the objection of Mr. Drexler, yes, the 7 Court did admit Exhibit 190A, which is the box for Mr. Parker's
8 firearm, 190B, which is the firearm attributed to Mr. Parker,
9 and then 197A is the box for the firearm and 197B is the 10 firearm attributed to Mr. Stewart. Those were admitted.

11 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. So, at this time,
12 Your Honor, we would just recess with Agent Draper at this
13 point.

14 THE COURT: And she's going coming back when?

15 MS. AHMED: Tomorrow, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Tomorrow morning?

17 MS. AHMED: Yes.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

19 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: So, thank you, Special Agent Draper. We 21 are going to have you come back in -- do we think, what?
22 10:00? 10:00, 10:30, Miss Ahmed?

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I believe 10:00 would be a
24 sufficient amount of time.

25 THE COURT: All right. So, we'll have you come back

Erich Smith - Direct

1 at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Please be careful on the way down with
5 those steps.

6 The government may call its next witness.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the government calls Erich
8 Smith.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Smith. Come on in.
10 You are going to be seated over here to my right. Please be 11 careful on what your way up those steps, and remain standing.

12 ERICH SMITH,
13 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: State your full name and
15 spell it for the record.

16 THE WITNESS: My first name is Erich, and it's
17 spelled E-R-I-C-H. Last name is Smith, S-M-I-T-H.

18 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Smith.

22 A. Good afternoon.

23 Q. What is your current occupation?

24 A. I'm a physical scientist forensic examiner.

25 Q. And what is a physical science forensic examiner?

Erich Smith - Direct

1 A. Well, I'm a physical scientist forensic examiner at the
2 FBI laboratory. And my primary duties are with firearms and
3 tool mark identification.

4 So, I receive evidence that pertains to firearms and
5 tool marks. I conduct the necessary examinations involving
6 those. I issue reports to my findings and, in some cases, I
7 testify.

8 Q. How long have you been employed by the FBI?

9 A. I started working for the FBI in 1998.

10 Q. And what type of -- could you describe for us briefly your 11 educational background?

12 A. Sure. So, I have a Bachelor's of Science in Biology from 13 Virginia Commonwealth University. That's in Richmond,
14 Virginia. And then I also have Master's in Forensic Science
15 from Virginia Commonwealth University as well.

16 Q. And have you -- upon receiving your master's then, did you
17 pursue any specialized training as a forensic examiner?

18 A. Yes. Actually, when I was doing my master's program, I
19 got an internship with the Virginia Division of Forensic 20 Science working in their firearms and tool marks crew. And 21 basically, I was assisting other examiners on their case work.

22 From that stage, I actually moved from Virginia
23 Division of Forensic Science to the FBI laboratory. I started
24 there in 2000 -- or, excuse me -- in 1998, and I was a
25 technician at that point.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. And how long did you serve as a technician?

2 A. I served as a technician from 1998 to 2000.

3 Q. Now, once -- after serving your time as a technician, then
4 did you then receive further certification?

5 A. Yes, I did. I got qualified. I went through the 6 qualifying process to become a forensic examiner with the FBI
7 laboratory.

8 Q. Now, we all understand generally the term forensic
9 examiner, but in terms of your specialty, tool mark and 10 firearms identification, can you drill down a little bit on 11 that and tell us specifically what your field of discipline
12 pertains to?

13 A. Sure. What you have to understand, with my discipline,
14 it's more of an apprenticeship. So, when I started into the 15 training program, I was assigned to a qualified forensic
16 examiner in firearms and tool mark identification. So, all my 17 learning and experience came through that individual.

18 But I also received a manual that outlined all the 19 elements that I needed to learn to be competent in the 20 discipline of firearms, tool mark identification, gunshot
21 residue, and serial number restoration.

22 At the end of that, which takes approximately two
23 years, we go through a series of tests, and at which I went 24 through six of them. The first three are oral boards. And 25 basically, all the examiners get to come together, and they ask

Erich Smith - Direct

1 you questions and test your knowledge base to see if you're
2 competent in the areas of firearms, tool marks, and gunshot
3 residue.

4 After that, you have to take three more additional
5 tests which are moot courts. You are given a mock case, you
6 are in a courtroom setting, and you present your evidence. If 7 you successfully complete all these tests, you are qualified by 8 the FBI laboratory.

9 Q. And have you been so qualified?

10 A. I have.

11 Q. Now, you've -- where is the laboratory located?

12 A. It's in Quantico, Virginia.

13 Q. Now, have you testified in trials before this one as an 14 expert in firearms identification?

15 A. Yes, I have.

16 Q. And approximately how many times?

17 A. Approximately 43 times.

18 Q. Was that in any one particular jurisdiction or all over?

19 A. Both in state, federal, and local trials.

20 Q. Now, in connection with -- oh, one aspect I want to ask
21 about. With respect to your laboratory, do you have a
22 collection of firearms at the laboratory?

23 A. Yes, we do.

24 Q. And what -- can you describe generally what that 25 collection consists of?

Erich Smith - Direct

1 A. We have a reference firearms collection. It has
2 approximately 8,000 firearms. And they represent multiple
3 calibers as well as different platforms. Be it a pistol,
4 shotgun, rifle, machine gun, submachine guns, we have the whole
5 variety of different firearms in our collection.

6 Q. Now, in connection with the events to which you are going
7 to be testifying today, were you asked to perform any sort of 8 identification of firearms?

9 A. Well, let me explain that term. When I hear
10 identification, that's where I would be identifying a bullet or 11 a cartridge case as having been fired from a particular
12 firearm. That's not the examination that I conducted in this 13 case.

14 Q. And did you conduct an examination using photographic
15 evidence?

16 A. I did.

17 Q. And can you describe the method by -- or, excuse me -- can 18 you describe what you were asked to perform in connection with 19 reviewing the photographic evidence?

20 A. I received a series of PowerPoints which had multiple 21 images in them. And I was asked to review the images and try
22 to determine if the objects depicted in there were any 23 particular firearm.

24 Q. And I'm going to go through a number of images with you in 25 a moment, but can you just explain the methodology used in

Erich Smith - Direct

1 reviewing photographs to identify particular firearms?

2 A. You have to think of it as like the first level in our
3 examination. The very first thing that we would do, looking at 4 an image, it doesn't matter what the object is, is you are
5 going to look for class characteristics.

6 Let's assume it's a car that's pictured, and you are
7 asked to determine what kind of vehicle is in that picture.
8 You look at it. It meets certain specifications. You narrow
9 it down. It's not a pickup truck. It's now a sedan. It's a
10 sedan. It's a certain color. It's a certain make and model.
11 That's the same type of examination that I did here.

12 So, I'm looking at the class characteristics of an
13 object in an image and trying to determine from a large group
14 of firearms could I narrow it down to a smaller group of 15 firearms.

16 Q. And is the methodology you employed in doing that, is that 17 a method that is generally used and accepted within the 18 community of firearms identification and tool marks
19 identification?

20 A. All right. So when we're speaking about firearms
21 identification, my job is looking at a bullet or cartridge
22 case. The very first thing that I would do, is I would examine 23 the class characteristics. What is the caliber of the bullet.
24 So, I'd actually measure it. What's it's diameter? Just 25 physical features about that bullet.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 So, it falls in that same category. If I'm looking
2 at an image and I'm trying to figure out what object's depicted
3 in the image, I'm looking at class characteristics to try to 4 narrow the pool of candidates.

5 THE COURT: The question was whether or not this was
6 a method used.

7 Do you want to repeat the question?

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Yes. Was this -- the method that you used in using 10 photographs to identify whether something was a firearm, was 11 that -- is that the method that is generally used and relied 12 upon by experts within your field?

13 A. Yes, it was.

14 MR. MYHRE: Okay. Your Honor, may we show the 15 witness Exhibit 196?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. 196, please. I'm sorry.

19 Mr. Smith, I am just going to run through a series of 20 photographs with you that have already been admitted into 21 evidence here and ask whether these are images that you
22 reviewed in connection with your analysis?

23 A. Yes, this appears to be one of the images that I looked 24 at.

25 MR. MYHRE: And if I may show the witness

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Exhibit 141, Your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 THE WITNESS: That is also an image that I looked at 4 in my examination.

5 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may I show the witness
6 152?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 THE WITNESS: That also is another image that I
9 looked at as well.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, with respect to those three images, were the 12 objects -- well, first of all, do you see a firearm depicted in 13 this image at 152?

14 A. All right. The way the examination would go, if this was 15 just in the laboratory when I was looking at this image, the 16 very first thing is I would look at it, and I see a black
17 object that's being held. It's actually being shouldered.
18 It's actually placed up into the shoulder, and that's 19 consistent with being a rifle.

20 So, that's, like, the first thing when I look at the 21 image. Now, I'm going to look at several elements about the 22 actual object to try to figure out if I can discern what type
23 of firearm it might be.

24 Q. Now, did you subsequently receive a physical object that 25 was consistent with this image that's depicted in 152, the

Erich Smith - Direct

1 object being held here?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we'll stipulate that it
4 was Eric Parker's Saiga .223 rifle that this witness examined.

5 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we understand we're
6 getting -- we're getting there right now.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Now, Mr. Smith, near your witness stand there, there
10 should be a box marked Exhibit 190A.

11 A. There is.

12 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, with the Court's
13 permission, may I ask the witness to retrieve 190A and 190B
14 that he may use during --

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: -- for his testimony?

17 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. So, by stipulation, this object, Mr. Smith, is the object
20 depicted in the -- in Exhibit 152 as belonging to Eric Parker.

21 So, if you would just describe what -- 190A is -- is 22 the box. That's what you would have received at the lab; is
23 that correct?

24 A. Right. So, it actually has Exhibit 190A on it, and it has 25 my FBI laboratory number on it as well. And then this is the

Erich Smith - Direct

1 evidence tape that we use -- the yellow evidence tape that we
2 use to seal the box up for return.

3 Q. You can open that box, and with the Court's permission,
4 may the witness remove the contents of the box?

5 THE COURT: Yes, he may.

6 THE WITNESS: Do you want me to take it out of the 7 box?

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Yes. And the record should reflect that the witness now
10 has removed the object from the box at 190A.

11 And is that marked 190B, Mr. Smith?

12 A. It is.

13 Q. Yes. And can you describe -- have you identified what you
14 are now holding in your hand as 190B?

15 A. I did check to make sure that it was rendered safe.

16 Q. So, just for the record, by rendered safe, what do you
17 mean?

18 A. I mean that the firearm is not loaded at this time.

19 Q. And there are -- there appear to be some tags on there.
20 Can you explain what those are? Some ties?

21 A. Right. So, the green tie is actually put on at the 22 laboratory. It signifies that it's been checked to be clear
23 and safe, and we put it through the action just to make sure
24 that it can't be loaded easily.

25 Q. Okay. Now, I neglected to ask this of you earlier, but is

Erich Smith - Direct

1 there a definition for what a firearm is?

2 A. Sure. A firearm is a device that pushes a bullet or
3 projectile by means of explosion, in simple terms.

4 Q. And based on your analysis of what you're now holding as 5 190B, have you determined whether or not that is a firearm?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. And can you explain how you arrived at that determination?

8 A. One of the examinations that we do with firearms is to 9 determine if it functions properly. So, at my laboratory, we 10 have a water tank, a very large tank of water. It's about 11 10 feet long. It stands about 4 feet tall. It's about 4 feet
12 wide.

13 And I took this to our collection -- or I took it to 14 our water tank. I actually loaded cartridges into the chamber,
15 physically loaded them in, and I test fired it into the water
16 tank.

17 And the reason that we do that is that we can collect
18 the specimens. The water actually slows the bullet down and 19 preserves the bullet and the microscopic features on it so I
20 can collect them for future analysis. And it also lets me
21 determine if the firearm functioned properly.

22 Q. Were you able to determine the make and model of that
23 firearm?

24 A. Yes. So, this is actually a Russian-made Izhmash rifle.
25 And it's the Saiga model.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 THE COURT: Can you spell that? I'm sorry.

2 THE WITNESS: All right. Excuse me.

3 THE COURT: If you can't spell it, that's all right,
4 too.

5 THE WITNESS: It's I-Z -- I'll check my notes, if
6 that's okay, just to make sure it's correct.

7 THE COURT: Sure. Yeah.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. For the record, your notes that you are checking is the 10 report that you prepared in connection with your examination?

11 A. That's correct. I-Z-H-M-A-S-H.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And can you spell Saiga also for the record, please?

15 A. Sure. That's S-A-I-G-A.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. That's not the way I spelled
17 it, so thank you.

18 THE WITNESS: So, Izhmash is the factory in Russia
19 that actually produced the rifle, and then the model is the 20 Saiga. It shoots the .223 caliber cartridge, also known as the 21 .556 in metric designation.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, you explained that you test fired it. It functioned;
24 is that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. Can you explain, in just basic terms, using the exhibit,
2 what -- how does that rifle function? What is the
3 functionality of it? And by that I mean how does it actually
4 fire the projectile mechanically using that weapon?

5 A. Your Honor, can I stand up to show the jury?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 THE WITNESS: Can I cut the zip tie off to actually
8 use the action?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may. You might need to move the 10 microphone up to the bench? Mike, if you want to help him,
11 just -- so otherwise, I don't know if we'll still hear you.

12 THE WITNESS: This is the rifle. It's designed to be 13 shouldered.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. You might have to stand back just a little bit or move the 16 microphone.

17 THE COURT: The microphone moves, so feel free to 18 move it and adjust it.

19 THE WITNESS: The way it functions, there's a
20 component missing, and that's the magazine. This portion right
21 here, this opening -- actually, let me back up.

22 This portion here is called the receiver. This is 23 the rear stock. This is a pistol grip. This is the fore-end.
24 If we had a magazine, the magazine holds cartridges. We'd
25 insert the magazine into this magazine opening. It's not ready

Erich Smith - Direct

1 to fire at this moment. It's just holding cartridges in the
2 magazine.

3 We have to actually manually manipulate the firearm
4 to put a cartridge into the chamber. By doing so, this little
5 handle here grabs the bullet. The bullets inside, and it
6 allows you to pull it back, exposing the cartridge on the top
7 of the magazine. When you let this go, it strips off the 8 cartridge from the top of the magazine and puts it into the 9 chamber.

10 At this point -- one thing I should show you, too, is 11 this lever right here. This is called the selector switch. In 12 order to fire -- or, actually, to load it, I need to move it
13 down in this direction here. That allows the bolt to go back
14 far enough to strip that cartridge off and put it into the 15 chamber.

16 If I put it back in this position, it's safe. It
17 won't fire. Okay. But in order to fire, at this point, I'd 18 have to put the selector switch down. Okay.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. If I could stop you there for just for one moment.

21 In terms of loading, you explained that there was a
22 component missing with the magazine. In order to load that 23 weapon, does the magazine need to be inserted into the weapon?

24 A. It doesn't. I could actually physically pull the 25 chamber -- or pull the bolt back and insert a cartridge into

Erich Smith - Direct

1 the chamber, and then when I let the bolt go forward, it would
2 fire when I pulled the trigger.

3 Q. But in terms of the normal course of the functioning, if
4 the magazine is inserted, you can load a weapon -- or, excuse
5 me -- load a bullet into the chamber with the magazine
6 inserted?

7 A. That's correct. The cartridge.

8 Q. Cartridge. Excuse me.

9 A. At this point, if there's a cartridge in the chamber, the 10 firearm has been essentially cocked. There's a hammer inside.
11 It's in a cocked position. If I pull the trigger now, the 12 hammer will fall.

13 That strikes the firing pin. The firing pin hits the 14 primer on the cartridge, which causes a small little explosion.
15 Gets the gun powder burning. That gun powder expands as a gas
16 rapidly, and it pushes the bullet out the muzzle end.

17 This particular rifle is a gas-operated system. At 18 this point right here, some of the gas is bled off. It
19 actually pushes on a piston inside here. Opens the chamber.
20 The cartridge case is expelled. The bullet moves back. If 21 there's another cartridge in the magazine, it puts it in the 22 chamber, but it wouldn't fire again, because it's a
23 semi-automatic rifle. In order to fire it, I have to release
24 the trigger, it resets the hammer, and then I can fire it. So,
25 this is semi-automatic rifle.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. So, with each -- each round then to be fired requires the
2 user of that weapon to pull the trigger?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. But once the trigger is pulled, another round is
5 automatically chambered; is that correct?

6 A. As long as there's a cartridge in the magazine, another
7 one will be put in the chamber.

8 Q. And then, but again, to fire that next round would require
9 pulling the trigger?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Would you explain for us, with respect especially to the 12 selector switch, you mentioned that it had to be in the fire
13 position to load, and it has to be in the fire position as well
14 to pull the trigger; is that correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. When it's in safe, can you explain how that prevents the 17 firing of the weapon?

18 A. All right. So, it's set up right now to fire. If I pull
19 it back up -- actually, if you see this opening right here.
20 This dark spot? That allows this handle right here to pass
21 through. That moves the bolt back far enough to allow the 22 cartridge to be exposed.

23 Okay. In this position, I can't pull the bolt back
24 far enough to deliver a cartridge into the chamber, so it
25 blocks the bolt to include, our trigger's blocked. So, in this

Erich Smith - Direct

1 position, you wouldn't be able to fire.

2 Q. Now, you mentioned the 2.223 [sic] round. What is that --
3 in common parlance, is that equivalent to what type of --
4 what -- explain that caliber, if you would, for the jury?

5 A. .223 is a caliber family, caliber families. When I use
6 that term, there are a lot of different bullets that are a
7 quarter inch in diameter, because .223 is almost a quarter
8 inch. Okay. So, there are a lot of different bullets that are 9 that same diameter. But this particular rifle shoots a .223
10 Remington or a .556x45 millimeter.

11 Q. Now, is it within -- with respect to the range of this
12 weapon, do you have any information with respect to the range
13 of this particular weapon?

14 A. That is an examination that I do not conduct. I didn't 15 conduct on this one as far as the accuracy or the precision of 16 this particular firearm.

17 Q. You just examined it for functionality; correct?

18 A. Exactly.

19 Q. Now, does this weapon have sights on it?

20 A. It does.

21 Q. And we can see from here it's a -- can you just explain
22 the sights and how they operate?

23 A. Sure. So, this is the front sight. And this portion back
24 here, this the rear sight. And it will move up and down.

25 Q. And what -- and as it moves up and down, does it require

Erich Smith - Direct

1 some physical force be applied to it?

2 A. Not really. This little tab or cylinder piece that you
3 see here, you pinch it in. It will allow you to move it back
4 and forth. It's going to be hard for you to see, but as you
5 move it back and forth, the height of the rear sight moves up
6 and down. And that's allowing the shooter to adjust for 7 different distances in shooting. I guess what I --

8 Q. Oh, I am sorry. So, the rear sight on this particular
9 weapon is used to adjust for distances?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And as the sight goes up, does that mean -- how does that 12 affect the distance sight? Or, excuse me. How does that 13 affect the ability to shoot at particular distances?

14 A. You have to understand what happens to the bullet when it
15 leaves the muzzle. People think that the bullet leaves, and 16 it's just going in a straight line. And it is.

17 But the problem is gravity is acting on the bullet,
18 so the bullet wants to fall as gravity's pulling on the bullet.
19 You don't see that. You just see the bullet leaving straight.

20 So, if you are shooting at a great -- a farther
21 distance, not close, the bullet will start to drop. It will 22 eventually hit the ground if it goes far enough. So, this 23 particular firearm and most firearms will have some way to 24 adjust for that out to a certain distance.

25 And you can see here, it has markings one, two, and

Erich Smith - Direct

1 three. Those are going to be designated probably for meter
2 distances, because it's a Russian-made rifle. So, you can
3 correct for how far out your target is based on these settings
4 here.

5 Q. And does the one, two, and three pertain to 100, 200, and 6 300?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. There was a question earlier from the jury about the 9 difference between a shotgun and a rifle. Can you generally
10 explain the differences between the two?

11 A. A shotgun is a smooth bore gun that you shoulder. As 12 opposed to this particular firearm, which you do shoulder, it
13 has a rifled barrel. So, inside this barrel, if we could look
14 down inside of it, you would see these grooves cut all the way
15 through from the breach end all the way to the muzzle end. And 16 they do that purposefully.

17 And the best analogy I can give you is, if you notice
18 a quarterback throwing a football, it's a real tight spiral.
19 If the quarterback just threw the football ought there, it
20 would just flutter along and fall to the ground. But because 21 there's rifling inside the barrel, the bullet starts to spin
22 and rotate quickly. And what that does, is it stabilizes the 23 bullet to fly straight and further.

24 Q. Thank you. You may resume the -- your seat at the stand,
25 the witness stand, Mr. Smith. I have a few more questions.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Now, you talked about the selector switch. In
2 looking at Exhibit 152 before you, were you able -- upon
3 examination of this image, were you able to determine where the 4 position of the selector switch is on this particular image
5 152?

6 A. I was, but not in this configuration.

7 Q. And did you use color contrasts and so forth to enhance 8 the image at all?

9 A. Yes, I used the tools in Microsoft PowerPoint to enlarge
10 the image and change the contrast.

11 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, for the witness only,
12 may we show the witness Exhibit 152A?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And Mr. Smith, you have before you, the jury does not,
16 152A. Do you recognize this image?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And what is that image?

19 A. That is the same image of a Saiga rifle I examined.

20 Q. And has the -- is this the slide that you assisted in 21 preparing with respect to the contrast?

22 A. It is.

23 Q. And will this assist you in determining the position of 24 the selector switch on 152?

25 A. It should. It might be -- need to be a little bit larger

Erich Smith - Direct

1 to see the actual selector switch in this position.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 152A at this
3 time.

4 THE COURT: Any objection to 152A?

5 MR. MARCHESI: No objection, Parker.

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

8 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

9 THE COURT: Exhibit 152A will be admitted. You may
10 go ahead --

11 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish?

12 THE COURT: -- and publish. Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 (Exhibit 152A admitted.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. And I believe the jury now has 152A in front of it.

17 And if could you, Mr. Smith, please just circle --
18 you can write on your monitor there. If you would just circle
19 the area where the selector switch is located.

20 Is that not working?

21 A. I have a red dot on my screen.

22 Q. Oh, there you go. Okay. Thank you. And if we could 23 enlarge that portion. And do you see the selector switch in 24 this image?

25 A. Yes, I do.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. And would you draw a line or -- okay. You have placed a
2 dot there.

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. Okay. Now, the record should reflect that the witness has
5 placed a dot at the area he's identified as the selector
6 switch.

7 Could you please describe for the jury what you see
8 in this image and what the position is of that selector switch?

9 A. Can I use the rifle to --

10 Q. Yes, you may.

11 A. -- demonstrate?

12 When I did the examination, what came apparent, if 13 you look at this dark section right here, very dark area. And 14 in this position, when it's on safe, it's not present. When 15 you put it in the fire mode, it exposes that dark area.

16 That's the cutout right here for the bolt to 17 reciprocate back to load. To include, right where the dot is,
18 is the thumb portion of the selector switch to actuate it down.

19 Q. And what is the -- just again, what is the position in the
20 image?

21 A. It's in the fire position.

22 Q. Now, in order to get to the fire position, can that --
23 that switch, that lever just fall down by gravity? By force of 24 gravity?

25 A. Well, I can't speak to this firearm, but in reference to

Erich Smith - Direct

1 this firearm, there is tension. There are actually notches in
2 the receiver portion that they actually fit into. So, when you
3 move it down, you can feel it click into place.

4 Q. And when you say this firearm, you are referring to 190B
5 that you just held up in front of the jury?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. So, it requires human intervention and force to move that?

8 A. It manually has to be operated.

9 Q. Now, in the image 152A, does this image have -- show a
10 magazine in the weapon?

11 A. It does.

12 Q. And do you -- can you identify what type of magazine that
13 is?

14 A. It's a -- actually, in the image, you can see the element
15 that's missing from this rifle here, and that's the magazine.
16 That's this portion here.

17 Q. And the record should reflect the witness has drawn a line
18 on an object protruding from the bottom of the -- what he's 19 previously identified as a firearm.

20 A. Now, this is the Saiga Izhmash rifle. It comes in 21 different calibers. We're talking about .223 or .566. It also 22 comes in a larger caliber, a .30 caliber, which is .762x39.
23 The magazine for the .30 caliber is a different shape. This is 24 consistent with a .223 caliber magazine.

25 Q. Are you able to tell from the size of the -- in the image

Erich Smith - Direct

1 displayed here, how many rounds can be carried in that
2 magazine?

3 A. I don't know how many are specifically carried in that
4 one, but it's typically 30 rounds.

5 Q. We can take down 152.

6 And Mr. Smith, you can put that firearm down for a
7 moment.

8 Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 144?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, Mr. Smith, were you asked to look at image 144 in 12 connection with your analysis of the firearms?

13 A. Yes, I was.

14 MR. MYHRE: May we show Exhibit 162, Your Honor, as
15 well?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And focusing your attention on the individual in this
19 exhibit who is drinking from the jug of water, were you asked
20 to look at this photograph, or this image, rather, to determine
21 whether the object depicted there is a firearm?

22 A. I was.

23 MR. MYHRE: And lastly, Your Honor, may we show the
24 witness Exhibit 161?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. In looking at Exhibit 161, Mr. Smith, were you asked to 3 look at this image in connection with your analysis to 4 determine whether the object being held there is a firearm?

5 A. I was.

6 Q. Now, with respect to the three images I have shown you,
7 were you able to reach a conclusion as to whether or not the 8 object depicted in 140 -- excuse me -- 161, that's being held
9 by the individual there, whether that is a firearm?

10 A. The object depicted there looks like a rifle.

11 Q. Okay. And would you circle the object that you're 12 referring to?

13 Now, unlike the images that -- that you reviewed in 14 196, 141, 152, and you did not have a physical object to verify
15 this; is that correct?

16 A. I did not.

17 Q. Nevertheless, based on this -- on these images that you've 18 seen and using this image, are you able to determine what type
19 of firearm this -- or, first of all, whether it is a firearm
20 and then what type of firearm it is?

21 A. I can't. One thing you have to understand about the 22 limitation of this exam, remember I gave the analogy of a
23 vehicle, looking at a vehicle, a picture.

24 Although this looks like a rifle, I don't know if it
25 works or functions. That's the limitation of it. I don't know

Erich Smith - Direct

1 if the car in the picture runs. But in this picture, the
2 person holding this object appears to be a rifle, and it
3 appears to be an AR-15-type rifle.

4 Q. Did you have physical objects of AR-15 variance to which
5 to compare this in your laboratory?

6 A. I do. I have numerous AR-15s. Typically, how the 7 examination goes, it's a lineup. I pull out guns from the 8 collection, and I compare them based on the image to try to 9 eliminate possible candidates.

10 Q. Can you walk us through some of the characteristics that 11 you found in the image that led you to the conclusion that this 12 is consistent with a firearm?

13 A. Well, it's consistent with an AR-15. And what stands out
14 prominently is this item right here.

15 Q. The witness has indicated with a dot just above the right
16 hand of the individual holding the object.

17 A. For the AR-15, that feature is a bolt assist. On this 18 particular rifle, it has a history of the bolt not locking,
19 getting stuck, and it's trying to put the cartridge into the 20 chamber.

21 That feature that I pointed there allows the shooter
22 to hit it, and it will force the bolt home and lock it for
23 them.

24 Q. And why would an individual need to -- to hit that?

25 A. If the cartridge wasn't -- or the bolt wasn't closing

Erich Smith - Direct

1 properly in the firearm, that gives them more -- it allows them
2 to apply more energy to the bolt by hitting it and actually
3 forcing it forward and locking the chamber.

4 Q. So, it would be -- it would not have to be done each time
5 that a round would be chambered. It would be only in the event
6 that there would be some slight malfunction of the bolt?

7 A. Right. If there's debris inside the chamber that's 8 preventing it from closing, this allows you to actually push it
9 forward for closing.

10 Q. Now, with this -- the image depicted in 161, you've
11 described the functionality of the Saiga. Is there -- and I
12 don't want to go into great detail, but is this essentially a
13 semi-automatic rifle as well?

14 A. That I can't answer, because I don't know if it's full
15 auto or semi-automatic. That's a question I can't answer.

16 Q. Are you able to determine from the image, however, whether 17 it's a rifle or not?

18 A. It is a rifle. I also could determine that it's a
19 .223 caliber as well.

20 Q. And how are you able to determine it's a .223?

21 A. Based on the magazine.

22 Q. And that was my next question. Is there a magazine in 23 this weapon as well?

24 A. There is. It's right here.

25 Q. And the record should reflect the witness has drawn a line

Erich Smith - Direct

1 on the image just below the right hand of the individual
2 holding the object.

3 And can you tell from this image how many rounds this
4 particular magazine will hold?

5 A. That I cannot. I'm not certain on the number of rounds
6 for this magazine.

7 Q. Now, also drawing your attention to -- I've circled an 8 area on the right hip of the individual in 161. And what have 9 I circled there?

10 A. That's actually a handgun, and it is a pistol.

11 Q. And are you able to, from this image, determine any 12 specific characteristics of this pistol as to whether it's a
13 firearm?

14 A. It appears to be a 1911 Colt variant. What you need to 15 understand is the Colt 1911 -- the actual year that it was 16 introduced, US Military adopted it. There are many firearms --
17 many firearm manufacturers that make very similar models to 18 this.

19 So, although I may call it a Colt 1911,
20 Smith & Wesson makes a version of it. Para-Ordnance makes a
21 version of it. There are other companies that make versions
22 very similar to this.

23 Q. And are you able to determine anything with respect to --
24 well, first of all, does a Colt have a hammer mechanism?

25 A. It does.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. And how does the hammer mechanism work?

2 A. So, for this particular firearm, it's semi-auto -- excuse
3 me. It's single action. So, in this particular firearm,
4 there's a slide. You actually grab this portion right here and
5 pull it backwards. And when it goes forward, it puts a
6 cartridge into the chamber.

7 At the same time, the hammer's cocked. Now, all I
8 have to do is pull the trigger, and it fires. So, single 9 action basically means with a single pull of the trigger, it
10 will fire. The hammer is cocked, and it will fire.

11 Q. Now, with respect -- just to update the record, you've 12 drawn a line on the image at 161, on the object you've 13 identified as a Colt just near the top of the object.

14 Now, with respect to the hammer position in the 15 object in 161 or the firearm in 161, what is the position
16 there? Were you able to determine a position, first of all?

17 A. So, just like with the other image, I enlarged it and 18 enhanced the contrast. And I could see that the hammer was in 19 the cocked position.

20 Q. So, in a cocked position, would that then have required,
21 as you mentioned before, pulling the slide back at some point?

22 A. No. Because if the hammer -- well, I could cock the 23 firearm, and there would be no cartridge in the chamber. It
24 would just be -- the hammer would just be cocked. But if I --
25 if I pull the slide back and deliver a cartridge into the

Erich Smith - Direct

1 chamber, the hammer will be cocked as well.

2 Q. So, it can be done by -- what? Using a thumb to pull it
3 back?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Or through the slide mechanism on the weapon itself?

6 A. That's right. But in order to load it, you need to 7 articulate the slide back and forth.

8 Q. And are you -- you mentioned, does this -- does this
9 firearm also require a magazine in order to have rounds in it?

10 A. That's correct. Actually, right in this portion right
11 here at the base, the butt of the grip is where the magazine is 12 actually inserted into the firearm.

13 Q. And the witness has drawn a line toward the base or the 14 butt of the stock of that particular -- or the pistol grip,
15 rather, of that firearm.

16 Can you tell from this image as onto whether or not
17 there's a magazine in that weapon?

18 A. I cannot.

19 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I go back to Exhibit 162?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Mr. Smith, now this is Exhibit 162, which you have seen
23 previously. But now focusing on the individual behind the 24 individual who is drinking the water, and I'm circling that 25 individual for you, were you asked to look at this image to

Erich Smith - Direct

1 determine whether the individual I've just circled is -- is
2 holding a firearm?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may I also show the 5 witness Exhibit 14 at 5 seconds?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Exhibit 14 at five seconds.

9 And do you see that image before you, Mr. Smith?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Were you also asked to examine this image as well?

12 A. One similar to this, yes.

13 Q. And circling for you an individual on the left-hand side
14 of the screen, were you -- in particular, were you asked to 15 look at this image in connection with the object being held by 16 that individual?

17 A. I was.

18 Q. And lastly, may we go to the same exhibit but to one
19 minute, 27 seconds.

20 And lastly, Mr. Smith, if you'd look at your monitor
21 at 1:27, Exhibit 14, and circling again the individual on the 22 left-hand side, were you asked to look at this imagine in 23 connection with your examination as to whether that object is a
24 firearm?

25 A. Yes, I did.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. Now, after examining those images, you also received the
2 physical object; is that correct?

3 A. I received an object similar to that.

4 MR. MYHRE: And Your Honor, may we show the witness
5 what's been previously stipulated to as 197A and B, which is 6 the firearm belonging to Mr. Stewart?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. And Mr. Smith, you now have 197A in front of you; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And as before, this is the box that you would have 13 received the object?

14 A. That's correct. It has my laboratory number on it as well
15 as the evidence tape.

16 Q. So, from the -- those markings, that's consistent with 17 what you received; is that correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 MR. MYHRE: And Your Honor, may we ask the witness to 20 remove the contents of the box?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. And the record should reflect that the witness has removed 24 the contents. So, is this rendered safe?

25 A. It has been rendered safe.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. And again, it has tags on it; is that right? Not tags but
2 ties if you will?

3 A. Right. So, there's a green zip tie through the action.

4 Q. Now, is this the object that you examined as well?

5 A. Yes. What you won't be able to see is this silver mark
6 here, which was on the other firearm as well. I actually put 7 this on here. It has the laboratory number and my initials on
8 it.

9 Q. And what was your purpose in doing that?

10 A. That is so that I have a record that I physically touched
11 this item; that I can actually share that I did touch this 12 item.

13 Q. Now, is that item that you're holding, is that consistent
14 with the objects that we viewed in Exhibits 162 and Exhibit 14?

15 A. It is.

16 Q. And have you made a conclusion as to whether or not what
17 you now hold as 197B is a firearm?

18 A. This one is. I actually test fired it in the laboratory
19 just like I did with the other firearm, and it functioned
20 properly.

21 Q. Now, what -- have you been able to determine the make and 22 model of 197B?

23 A. Yes, this is a Hi-Point. It's made in Mansfield, Ohio,
24 and it's a carbine. That term basically means that it's a
25 shortened rifle, and it's model 995.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Q. Now, in the other images we looked at in 144 and 161, for
2 example, and as well as the previous firearm that you -- that
3 you looked at at 190B, those have magazines. Does this -- does
4 this firearm have a magazine?

5 A. It does. The magazine's missing, but this is the magazine
6 well here in the grip. If we had a magazine, it would insert
7 in here.

8 Q. So, how does that differ from the other firearms you have 9 just looked at?

10 A. This one actually shoots a pistol cartridge. We were 11 taking about a rifle with the previous firearm. This one 12 actually shoots the 9-millimeter Luger. That's referred to as 13 a 9x19. It's a pistol round. To operate it, if we had the 14 magazine -- Your Honor, may I cut the zip tie?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 THE WITNESS: This portion right here is called the 17 bolt. If we insert the magazine with the cartridges on it,
18 this is the bolt handle, very similar to what we had on the 19 rifle. You pull it backwards. When you let it go, it pulls 20 the cartridge off the magazine and inserts it into the chamber.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Then if you --

23 A. This particular --

24 Q. Oh, I am sorry. Go ahead?

25 A. This particular firearm has a selector switch -- not a

Erich Smith - Direct

1 selector switch, but a switch for the safety. You can see the
2 red dot right here. That means it can fire. If I push it in
3 this position, it will not fire.

4 Q. And is this a semi-automatic or an automatic-type of
5 weapon?

6 A. It's a semi-automatic.

7 Q. So then the action would be as you described previously?
8 It would require a trigger pull each time?

9 A. Right. There would be a single pull of the trigger to 10 fire one cartridge.

11 Q. Thank you. You may place that down.

12 And Your Honor, may I show the witness what's been
13 previously marked as Exhibit 67?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Now, Mr. Smith, on your monitor, you see Exhibit 67, which
17 has been introduced into evidence. Did you review this image
18 in connection with your analysis?

19 A. I did.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It has been previously
21 admitted. Do you want this to be published to the jury as
22 well?

23 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry. Yes. Yes.

24 Q. I believe 67 is now before the jury as well. My 25 apologies.

Erich Smith - Direct

1 Did you examine -- review this image in connection
2 with your analysis?

3 A. I did.

4 Q. And if I may, at page 2 of 67, did you also review this
5 image?

6 A. I did.

7 Q. And lastly, page 3. Did you review that image, sir?

8 A. I did.

9 Q. In reviewing these images, were you able to, based on your
10 expertise and your training, determine whether the images
11 depicted at Exhibit 167 is a firearm or reflects a firearm?

12 A. It's consistent with being a firearm.

13 Q. It's consistent with being a firearm. And have you been 14 able to determine what type of firearm it is consistent with,
15 make and model?

16 A. Can I go -- can you go back to image -- I believe it's 67?

17 Q. Is it the first page you would like?

18 A. The first one.

19 Q. Yes.

20 A. Exhibit 67.

21 Q. Now we have page 1 of Exhibit 67.

22 A. This was the first image that I looked at. And 23 immediately, it stood out as being a particular firearm. It
24 looked like a Bullpup Steyr. AUG Bullpup, which isn't -- I
25 don't see that very often. But if we go to the next image,

Erich Smith - Direct

1 number two --

2 Q. Page 2?

3 A. There is a feature that stood out that made me suspicious
4 that it was not a Bullpup. This right here, that appears to be
5 the takedown for a SKS rifle. And I did some research, and I
6 found out that there was a company that sold an aftermarket
7 configuration that looks like a Bullpup, but it lets you take 8 an SKS rifle and make it look like that.

9 Q. Now, the record should reflect the witness has drawn a
10 tiny mark at the upper left-hand portion of the exhibit.

11 In terms of your determination as to whether the 12 images depicted here are or are not consistent with a firearm,
13 does it make a difference as to whether it's an SKS or a
14 Bullpup from your standpoint?

15 A. It doesn't.

16 Q. But just for general information purposes, what's the 17 difference between an SKS and a Bullpup?

18 A. Well, just historically, an SKS is an older rifle. It
19 predates World War II. The Bullpup Steyr's a more -- it's a
20 later version rifle.

21 They are two different generations. And I don't know
22 how -- I mean, I can readily see that there's a difference
23 between them, and their actions are totally different between
24 them.

25 And in looking at this image, what I did is I

Erich Smith - Direct

1 actually took apart an SKS rifle from our collection to
2 actually see the internal components to be able to compare them
3 to this image to indicate that that's what this is.

4 Q. Now, turning to page 3 of the exhibit, if you could, just
5 describe for the jury whether this is consistent or not
6 consistent with a semi-automatic rifle?

7 A. All right. I don't know if this -- what's depicted is 8 semi-automatic or automatic.

9 Q. Do you see features consistent with that?

10 A. I mean, I don't know if this firearm fires
11 semi-automatically or automatically. I can't answer that
12 question.

13 Q. You might --

14 A. What I should point out to you though is I mentioned the 15 concept of Bullpup. As far as history of firearms, if we look
16 at this portion right here, that's the bolt for the firearm.
17 You can see the little handle there with the dot.

18 The design for a Bullpup takes that bolt and puts it
19 back further towards the person's face. It actually -- in a 20 real Bullpup, the firearm is shortened. Okay. And the -- and 21 the bolt is actually behind the trigger, which you see here.
22 Here's the trigger. But this aftermarket configuration
23 compensates for that.

24 If we took this apart, and we took this plastic cover
25 off, and we looked inside, the actual trigger mechanism for the

Erich Smith - Direct

1 SKS rifle would be in the area here.

2 Q. Now, does this -- does this weapon have a magazine with it
3 as well?

4 A. It does.

5 Q. And for the record purposes, the witness has previously
6 put a dot near the object he identified as a bolt on about the 7 left center portion of Exhibit 67, page 3, and has also drawn a
8 line toward the bottom of the weapon indicating where you
9 believe the trigger housing or the trigger mechanism to be 10 operating for this particular weapon; is that correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Now, clearing those markings, if you would.

13 Could you identify -- by circling, identify where the 14 magazine is located on this weapon?

15 A. Right here.

16 Q. And the witness has drawn a line to the object protruding
17 from the bottom of the image depicted at 67-3.

18 Can you tell from this image, in this magazine, what 19 the caliber of this particular weapon is?

20 A. If you remember the previous pictures where the magazine
21 was .223, the magazine was almost straight. Came out in a
22 straight configuration. This one's curved. This one's 23 designed for the .762x39. That's what it's consistent with.

24 Q. And is the .762 larger or smaller than the .223?

25 A. It's larger. It's around .30 caliber.

Erich Smith - Cross

1 Q. And when you say larger, does that mean longer or larger
2 around?

3 A. The diameter of the bullet is larger for this particular
4 firearm in this configuration.

5 Q. Now, there appear to be some markings on this image at 6 167-3. Almost appears to be like a decal. Is that something
7 that was significant for your analysis?

8 A. Are you referring to all the skulls?

9 Q. The skulls, yes.

10 A. No, they weren't.

11 Q. Have you seen skulls like this in other firearms?

12 A. There are -- people tend to decorate their firearms in 13 certain fashions. Most often, it's camouflage.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I have just one moment?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 MR. MYHRE: You can take 167 down.

18 Thank you, Mr. Smith.

19 Your Honor, those are all the questions I have at 20 this time.

21 THE COURT: Cross?

22 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Okay. Good afternoon, Mr. Smith.

Erich Smith - Cross

1 A. How you doing?

2 Q. Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a few
3 questions for you on cross. Okay?

4 A. (Nods head.)

5 Q. All right. If we could still just have you retrieve 197B
6 again.

7 Okay, sir. If you don't mind just standing up for
8 me?

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. Thank you. All right. That weapon that you're holding 11 right there, that's not a shotgun; correct?

12 A. That is correct. This is not a shotgun.

13 Q. All right. And isn't it true that that weapon has a
14 broken front sight?

15 A. The front sight is broken on this.

16 Q. And you testified earlier that it carries a 9-millimeter
17 pistol round; correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Okay. That firearm, as you're holding it, and as its 20 currently put together, and given all of its characteristics,
21 isn't it true that that firearm is not an illegal firearm in 22 any way?

23 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Call for a legal 24 conclusion that's not even relevant to anything in this case.

25 THE COURT: The defendants are not charged with

Erich Smith - Cross

1 possession of illegal firearms. It's not relevant.

2 MR. TANASI: I will move on, Your Honor.

3 Q. Now, sir, as you are standing there now, would you say
4 you're roughly 5 to 10 feet away from the jury box?

5 A. I'd say probably 10 feet or greater.

6 Q. Okay. How much greater? 15 at the most?

7 A. I think it would be best to have a tape to measure that.

8 Q. Sure. But would you agree with me it's probably less than 9 15 feet?

10 A. Sure.

11 Q. All right. Brian, if we could please pull up 162.

12 Sir, you can sit down and put the gun down, too.

13 Thank you.

14 Okay, sir. I draw your attention to this gentleman
15 here. See I have him circled?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. All right. Now, that firearm, wouldn't you agree with me
18 he is not pointing that in any direction?

19 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. First of all, he 20 wasn't -- this witness is determining -- is here to testify
21 about a firearm, not whether it's being pointed or any legal 22 aspect of how this weapon's being carried.

23 THE COURT: Beyond the scope, and there's no
24 foundation for him to give an opinion.

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, he's gone through --

Erich Smith - Cross

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. I will move on.

3 Q. Sir, you'd agree with me that the individual right now in 4 this picture doesn't have his hands on the trigger; fair?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay. In fact, he doesn't even have his finger on the 7 pistol grip of the gun; correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. All right. It's actually even almost as far back as you
10 can go on the weapon; fair?

11 A. The dot is the pistol grip. So, his hand is beyond the 12 pistol grip. Behind it.

13 Q. Thank you, sir. Sir, you've been employed by the FBI
14 roughly since 1998; is that fair?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Okay. And prior to that, in 1996 or 1996 to 1998, you
17 were employed by the Virginia Division of Forensic Science;
18 fair?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Okay. Both the FBI and the Virginia Division of Forensic
21 Science, those are law enforcement agencies; correct?

22 A. Yes, they were. The Virginia Division of Forensic Science
23 moved their element outside of the state police, so they work
24 independently now.

25 Q. But at the time, it was a law enforcement agency?

Erich Smith - Cross

1 A. It was.

2 Q. Okay. So, you've been in law enforcement and you've
3 worked in law enforcement since 1996; correct?

4 A. Roughly, yes. That's correct.

5 Q. All right. You said you testified 43 times?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. In trial? Okay. And in all those times, did you testify
8 in your law enforcement capacity?

9 A. No.

10 Q. How many times did you testify outside of the law
11 enforcement capacity, sir?

12 A. I think more accurately, I testified as an expert witness
13 not related to firearms and tool mark identification. As a
14 private citizen testifying as an expert in another element.

15 Q. And how many times?

16 A. Just once.

17 Q. So, one out of the 43 times you've testified in a private
18 capacity. The other 42 times you testified as a law
19 enforcement expert?

20 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Mischaracterizes.
21 He said as a forensic examiner, I believe, as opposed to a law
22 enforcement officer.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor -- let's break this apart
25 then again.

Erich Smith - Cross

1 Q. 19 -- 43 times that you have testified; right?

2 A. (Nods head.)

3 Q. Okay. And was that over the span of your career since
4 1996?

5 A. No, you have to start back in 2002. That's when I was 6 qualified and I could start to testify.

7 Q. Okay. And what year was that again?

8 A. 2002.

9 Q. 2002. How many times between 2002 and today have you
10 testified in a non-law enforcement capacity?

11 MR. MYHRE: Same objection. I don't know what he 12 means by "law enforcement capacity."

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to bias. And I'm 14 asking how many times he's testified for either the United
15 States government as a FBI agent or in some other law
16 enforcement capacity for some other member of law enforcement.

17 THE COURT: So, why don't you ask it that way? It
18 might be easier. So, you're saying who called him to testify.

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Sure. In those 43 times you testified, who called you?

21 A. Most often the prosecution calls me. The state.

22 Q. All right. Now, when you say most often, how many times
23 of those 43 times?

24 A. I want to say almost -- probably all of them.

25 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you. Nothing further.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. MARCHESE:

Q. Good afternoon, sir.

A. How you doing, sir?

Q. Brief -- let's get up Exhibit 152A, please.

Okay. So, you obviously recognize this picture. You had some questions on direct examination about your examining this particular firearm; correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. And I believe you said it was a Saiga .223 rifle; correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And this particular rifle, you said you had tested it at some point in time to see if it was functional; correct?

A. I tested this rifle back here.

Q. Correct.

A. That I received.

Q. All right. Assuming that's the same rifle, you tested that rifle behind you at some point in time; correct?

A. That's correct.

Q. All right. And that particular rifle, you just tested it for functionality; right?

A. That's correct.

Q. I believe you shot it into some sort of water tube or something along those lines?

A. Right. I shot it into a water tank to collect the

Erich Smith - Cross

1 bullets.

2 Q. And --

3 A. There's one other analysis that I did do with it.

4 Q. Okay. What was the date of the water test?

5 A. Can I refer to my notes?

6 Q. Sure.

7 A. January 18th, 2017.

8 Q. Now, this particular rifle here on the screen -- I will 9 circle it for you. Does it have any advanced optics or 10 anything like that?

11 A. I guess when you ask me the question about advanced 12 optics, you're talking about a scope?

13 Q. Scope. Yes.

14 A. There is no scope on this.

15 Q. Okay. So that would be just iron sights?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. And the rifle that you -- you have in court behind
18 you today -- I believe it's Exhibit 190 -- does that one have a 19 scope?

20 A. It does not.

21 Q. Okay. And that one also has iron sights?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Okay. Now, this particular rifle you were asked -- the 24 one in 152A, you were asked some questions about a safety. Do
25 you remember that?

Erich Smith - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And this particular rifle does have a safety;
3 correct?

4 A. It does.

5 Q. And I believe it was your testimony that it was your 6 belief that the safety was off or disengaged in this particular
7 photo; correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. And this particular individual doesn't appear to 10 have his index finger on the trigger; is that right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And from this particular photo, you cannot tell whether or 13 not there is round or a bullet in the chamber; is that correct?

14 A. That is correct.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No, further questions.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Cross.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

20 A. How you doing?

21 Q. If we could bring up 162, Brian.

22 Okay. Sir, I'm going to draw your attention to the 23 gentleman who is sitting down drinking the water. You
24 testified to this; correct?

25 A. To that rifle, yes.

Erich Smith - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Well, you indicated that it looks like a rifle, but
2 you aren't sure; correct?

3 A. It's consistent with being a rifle.

4 Q. Okay. It could be an airsoft though? Do you know what an 5 airsoft is?

6 A. Yes. I do know what an airsoft is.

7 Q. And it could be an airsoft; correct?

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. You don't know -- okay.

10 And an airsoft, just -- you could put plastic pellets
11 in there; correct?

12 A. It shoots pellets.

13 Q. Okay. And those would be plastic?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. And you indicated you don't know if that works;
16 correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. And you indicated that you have no way of knowing if there
19 was even a cartridge in the chamber on that; correct?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. Now, you were asked some questions on direct exam
22 regarding gravity and what it does to the cartridge. Do you
23 remember that?

24 A. To the bullet.

25 Q. To the bullet.

Erich Smith - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And you indicated that the bullet wants to keep
3 being pulled down; correct?

4 A. It can't overcome gravity.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. It wants to drop.

7 Q. Okay. What other -- what other -- what else would affect
8 it? Would wind also affect the bullet?

9 A. Right. So, anything that's in the environment, be it
10 wind, rain, can affect the flight of the bullet.

11 Q. Okay. The flight meaning the range; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. What about the rifle being put into a -- sort of a
14 1-inch slit. Would that affect the velocity of the bullet?

15 A. I'm not clear on what you're asking.

16 Q. Okay. We saw some pictures of these -- well, maybe
17 rifles -- put between this slit here in the Jersey barrier.

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. Would that affect the velocity of the bullet as well?

20 A. It wouldn't affect the velocity. It would give a stable
21 platform to hold the rifle.

22 Q. Would it affect the range?

23 A. No, it wouldn't have any bearing on the range.

24 Q. Okay. So, when I say range, I'm -- I guess I'm describing 25 right to left instead of up and down.

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 A. Okay. So when I hear range, I think about distance.

2 Q. Apologize.

3 A. So you're talking about the lateral movement?

4 Q. Correct.

5 A. Well, I don't know -- yes, theoretically, if there's a
6 pinch point, you can only turn it so far left and right.

7 Q. So, you're limited to your range in terms of where that --
8 your -- the rifle is going; correct, or towards; right?

9 A. Your side.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Thank you very much, sir.

11 Have a good day.

12 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Redirect?

14 MR. MYHRE: Just one moment, Your Honor.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 MR. MYHRE: May I, Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

19 REDIRECT-EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Mr. Smith, Mr. Marchese asked you a question with respect
22 to firing the weapon into a water barrel. Do you recall that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You were going to add that you did another -- you
25 performed another analysis in connection with that?

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And what were you going to go add with respect to that
3 aspect?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Going beyond the scope of
5 cross.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Was the -- were you going to add this in response to the 8 question asked of you in cross-examination?

9 A. Yes, I was.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I asked him about the 11 water test. He was the one that added that. Not me.

12 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And would you -- what other analysis did you perform?

15 A. So, I had the bullet and the cartridge case from the test
16 firing. We have a national database of unsolved shooting.
17 It's kind the National Integrated Ballistic --

18 Q. Oh, in connection -- without going into detail, you
19 performed analysis in terms of whether the weapon would be 20 involved in other shootings?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. And your results were it was not; correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. You were asked by Mr. Tanasi with respect to 197B.

25 And when I say other shootings, I mean with respect

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 to other criminal investigations involving --

2 A. Unsolved shooting.

3 Q. -- unsolved shootings.

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And just to clarify, it was not?

6 A. It was not.

7 Q. Okay. Now, with respect to Mr. Tanasi's questions about
8 the weapon at 197B, was that -- you were asked whether or not
9 that's a shotgun; correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Are you able to, just from an appearance of a weapon,
12 necessarily tell whether a weapon is a shotgun or not a
13 shotgun?

14 A. Yes, I can.

15 Q. You can. But in terms of -- let me ask it this way.

16 Is 197B just -- from its appearance, is it consistent
17 or not consistent with being a shotgun?

18 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading, Your Honor.

19 MR. MYHRE: I am just asking him whether it would be 20 consistent or not consistent, Your Honor. He has a choice.
21 It's not a -- I am not suggesting the answer.

22 MR. TANASI: And I'd also add asked and answered,
23 Your Honor. He's indicated he could not tell the difference.

24 THE COURT: He could not or that he could? He
25 said --

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 MR. TANASI: My understanding is that he could not,
2 or that --

3 MR. MYHRE: He said -- as I recall, he said he could
4 tell.

5 THE COURT: I have he said he could.

6 Yeah, let's get that clarified. I thought he said he
7 could tell the difference.

8 MR. MYHRE: Maybe I can rephrase, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. You've said you can tell the difference?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And that's because of your training and expertise?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. To a lay person or someone not in your training and 16 expertise, is there anything about the appearance of that 17 weapon that makes it universally understood to be a rifle?

18 A. I mean, I understand it to be a rifle, a carbine. But I
19 can see how someone might think that it was a shotgun.

20 Q. And what is it about the characteristics where someone
21 might view it as shotgun?

22 A. Can I retrieve the firearm, Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 THE WITNESS: A typical shotgun gauge -- that's the 25 terminology we use for a shotgun is 12 gauge. And that's

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 typically three-quarters of an inch barrel diameter. So, it's
2 a large diameter.

3 So, looking at the shroud here that's over the 4 barrel, this is just a cover. It's a pretty large diameter, so
5 you could misconstrue this as being the actual barrel, but it's 6 not. This inner portion, this inner diameter here is the 7 barrel and not this outer portion here that's housed within the 8 foregrip.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Thank you. You may put that down.

11 You testified --

12 THE COURT: What was the purpose of that outer
13 barrel? It's not part of -- it's not functional? Is it --

14 THE WITNESS: Well, for this particular firearm, it's 15 cosmetic.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 THE WITNESS: But in actuality, on certain firearms,
18 this allows you to not come in contact with a barrel that might 19 be hot, because it blocks your touching it, a hot barrel. But 20 for this one, it's cosmetic.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, you also testified to Mr. Tanasi's question about the 24 front sight that it was broken; is that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

Erich Smith - Redirect

1 Q. Did you receive it in that condition?

2 A. I did. I received it broken.

3 Q. And did you receive, along with it, any other parts?

4 A. Yes, I received broken parts.

5 Q. And what were the broken parts?

6 A. Can I pull them out of the box?

7 Q. Sure.

8 A. These were the broken parts that we received, and they 9 appear to be the metal portion of the sight.

10 Q. Thank you. And you -- just for the record purposes, you
11 are holding up a plastic baggie; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct. And there are three metal objects inside
13 of it.

14 Q. And that was recovered from 197A?

15 A. 197A, that's correct.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Thank you. You may put that back.

18 Now, Mr. Leventhal asked you, based on the images you
19 reviewed -- if I may have just one moment, Your Honor.

20 The image you reviewed at 162 with the individual
21 drinking water, do you recall that image?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. He asked you whether that weapon could be an airsoft; is
24 that correct?

25 A. That's correct.

Erich Smith - RX

1 Q. And then just for the explanation purposes, an airsoft
2 fires plastic rounds?

3 A. That's correct. Plastic, little pellets.

4 Q. And based on your analysis of 152, you are not able to 5 tell one way or the other; is that your testimony?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. But in terms of the other characteristics --
8 characteristics you testified to, you found those 9 characteristics consistent with a firearm; is that correct?

10 A. Consistent with an AR-15.

11 Q. Or a variant thereof?

12 A. A variant. That's correct.

13 MR. MYHRE: If I may have just one moment, Your
14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 MR. MYHRE: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Any other cross?

19 MR. TANASI: Very briefly, Your Honor.

20 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. Okay, sir. One more time with 197B, please.

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. All right. If you could --

25 A. Do you want me to pull it out?

Erich Smith - RX

1 Q. -- just pull it out, and just hold it, please.

2 All right. So, for record, that is not a shotgun;
3 correct?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. Okay. And you know the difference between a rifle and a
6 shotgun; correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. Because there is a difference between a rifle and a
9 shotgun; correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. And you know that because of your law enforcement
12 training; correct?

13 A. Well, I work for law enforcement, but I am not a sworn
14 officer.

15 Q. I understand. But in working for law enforcement, you
16 understand the difference between a shotgun and a rifle; fair?

17 A. Sure.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir. Nothing further.

19 MR. MYHRE: Nothing in light of that, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Anyone else? Mr. Leventhal?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Thank you.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Nothing from Parker.

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Smith, you gave us
24 a definition of firearm, and then you told us that the firearm
25 that you see in Mr. Drexler's possession in the photograph

Erich Smith - RX

1 could be an airsoft. So, I have to ask you, is an airsoft a
2 firearm?

3 THE WITNESS: It is not.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. Now, does anyone have any
5 other questions before we go to the jury?

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, members of the jury, go
8 ahead and write down your questions on the form provided. I
9 know it's 5:06, but we want to know your questions, so please
10 write them down immediately, but take your time. Don't rush.

11 (Pause in the proceedings.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, please join me at 13 sidebar. Shall we finish tomorrow?

14 All right. So, it's a 5:11. Please raise your hand
15 if you have an appointment and you need to leave, because I
16 don't need to torture you and keep you here any longer. We can 17 finish it. All right.

18 So, I can still meet with the attorneys. We can 19 excuse the jury. And they will be back here tomorrow we said
20 at 10:00 a.m.? Right?

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, we are going to go ahead
23 and excuse the jury.

24 On this overnight break, I do remind you that, as 25 always, please do not discuss this case with anyone nor permit

1 anyone to discuss it with you. Do not read, or listen to, or
2 view anything that touches upon this case in any way, and
3 please do not attempt to perform any independent research or
4 investigation.

5 And do not form an opinion until after you've heard
6 all the testimony, received the evidence, heard the jury
7 instructions. I will provide those to you. Then you will 8 listen to closing arguments. After that, I will excuse you to 9 begin your deliberation process, and that's when you can start
10 forming opinions and discussing with each other everything, but 11 not until then.

12 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. They are 13 excused, and welcome them back at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

14 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Your Honor, I'm sorry.
15 There is some confusion.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Their schedule says 9:00
18 tomorrow, not 10:00.

19 THE COURT: Right, but we have some other things that 20 we are going to be doing, so you don't have to be here until 21 10:00.

22 So, you're right. The schedule does say 9:00, and 23 just today that changed. So, we won't need you back here until 24 10:00.

25 You are welcome at 9:00, but you are just going to

1 sit for an hour. We won't be able to have court until 10:00.
2 Thank you.

3 (Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: All right. We are outside the presence
5 of the jury.

6 MR. TANASI: Can we sit at counsel table, Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: Right. We can just sit here. Can we
8 excuse Mr. Smith?

9 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: He doesn't need to stay, does he?
11 So, we welcome him back at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow
12 morning. We also have Miss Draper coming back. But if you
13 could, Mr. Smith, please come back at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow. We 14 will finish with him and then go to Miss Draper?

15 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So, we will have you back here at 17 10:00 a.m., please.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 All right. So, Jury Note No. 100 asks: "In your
21 expert opinion, could a trained law enforcement officer
22 misidentify Exhibit 197B as a shotgun from 100 yards away with 23 the naked eye and binoculars?"

24 Any objection to that question?

25 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor.

1 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

2 MR. MYHRE: None, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 101: "The type
4 of bullets used in both weapons, can they go through body
5 armor?"

6 Any objection?

7 MR. MYHRE: No objection.

8 MR. TANASI: I don't know that the bullets and all
9 the different types of bullets were necessarily thoroughly
10 covered to trigger that, but I guess no objection from Stewart,
11 Your Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

14 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

15 MR. MYHRE: None from the government, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Question No. 102 has three 17 parts. The first -- I'm sorry. Note No. 102 has three 18 questions. The first one is: "Of any of the pictured weapons,
19 could you determine if they had a round in the chamber?"

20 MR. MYHRE: No objection, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

22 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

24 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

25 THE COURT: The second question in Jury Note 102

1 asks: "Of any of the weapons pictured, could you determine if
2 they had been modified to fire automatic?"

3 Any objection?

4 MR. MYHRE: None from the government, Your Honor.

5 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

6 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

7 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

9 THE COURT: And the third question in Jury Note No.
10 102 asks: "What is the difference between a rifle and a long
11 gun?"

12 Any objection.

13 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

14 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

15 MR. PEREZ: None from Mr. Lovelien.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

17 MR. MYHRE: None, Your Honor. I'm sorry.

18 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 103 asks: "If 19 a person threatened another person with an airsoft object, that 20 looked like a rifle or shotgun, would their threatening still
21 be considered meeting its intent?"

22 So, obviously, that's a legal question, not a factual
23 question that the witness can answer. But I'll just let them
24 know you have a copy of this question, and we'll provide them
25 with the legal instructions after they've heard all the

1 testimony.

2 Jury Note No. 104 has a lot of scratches on it. I'll
3 see if I can -- "Did the sights on 197A break in the 4 transportation of the gun?"

5 Any objection?

6 MR. TANASI: I don't know if he knows the answer to 7 that, Your Honor.

8 MR. MYHRE: Same response, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Is he capable of saying, "I don't know?"

10 MR. MYHRE: I have no objection. I don't -- I don't 11 know if he knows the answer.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So, I'll try to remember to remind 13 him that he can say "I don't know," if he doesn't know. We 14 don't want him to speculate. Any other objection?

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

17 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

18 THE COURT: The second part of Jury Note No. 104
19 asks: "Can you determine if the sights were broken on the day
20 in question on Exhibit 197A?"

21 MR. TANASI: Same objection.

22 THE COURT: I don't know what day in question is,
23 since he just -- since the question asked about transportation
24 beforehand, but I think it's the same thing, just if he knows.

25 MR. TANASI: Sure.

1 THE COURT: I mean, it could happen in the lab;
2 right? Then he might know, but if it happened elsewhere.

3 MR. TANASI: Right.

4 THE COURT: I'll try to remember to tell him that if
5 you don't know, you don't know is okay. No need to speculate.

6 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Any other objection or suggestions?

8 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

9 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 105 asks two 10 questions. The first one is: "The rifle that uses the 11 9-millimeter round, is it capable of that rifle to shoot as far
12 and accurate as a rifle that uses the .223 round?"

13 Any objection to that question?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

17 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

18 MR. MYHRE: None from the government, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: And then it says: "Or the .762 round?"

20 So, same question asking about the capability of the 21 rifle to shoot as far and as accurate, the 9-millimeter round
22 compared to the .762 round. Any objection?

23 MR. MYHRE: None from the government, Your Honor.

24 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

25 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

2 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. And then the second question
4 on Jury Note No. 105 asks: "Can you explain the difference
5 between the 9-millimeter versus the .223 versus the .762 in 6 terms of size and velocity?"

7 Any objection?

8 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

11 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

12 MR. MYHRE: None, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And the last question is, Jury Note No.
14 106: "Can you tell by looking at the butt of a rifle if it is 15 a shotgun or not?"

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

21 MR. MYHRE: None from the government.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, those will be our 23 questions for tomorrow. We'll make sure you get copies of 24 them, and then I'll -- after I ask the question and the witness
25 provides the answer, I'll ask you if you have follow-up

1 questions. And then once we're done with this witness, then we
2 can move back on to Miss Draper; right?

3 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: So, we were discussing coming back, the 6 attorney -- just the attorneys at 9:00 tomorrow. I'm going to 7 change it to 9:30. So, we'll come back at 9:30, and then we'll
8 expect to be able to be done by 10:00 and have the jury resume
9 at 10:00.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

11 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

12 MR. MYHRE: We'll try to work some of these issues
13 out well in advance of that time.

14 THE COURT: You're welcome to come in at 9:00 so that 15 you can have the courtroom area to discuss, compare, and 16 contrast, and come up with possible solutions, if there are 17 redactions needed and so forth.

18 MR. MYHRE: That will be helpful, Your Honor. Thank
19 you.

20 THE COURT: All right. We will see you tomorrow.
21 Off record.

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 2017; 9:50 A.M.

2 --oOo--

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:50 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You maybe seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day Fourteen in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you go ahead and
12 make your appearances on the record since we're going to be
13 discussing exhibits and objections.

14 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor.

15 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
16 the United States.

17 THE COURT: Good morning.

18 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor.

19 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present.

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

22 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

23 THE COURT: Good morning.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

25 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

3 Shawn Perez on behalf of Rick Lovelien.

4 THE COURT: Good morning.

5 All right. So, the parties met between yesterday,
6 when we ended at 5:10, and today, to review exhibits and
7 determine if there were objections or redactions or any
8 accommodations that could be made to minimize interruptions
9 during trial. So before we call back in the jury and the 10 witness for the jury questions that we still need to ask, are 11 there any objections that you want to place on the record for
12 my ruling?

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we actually were, I think,
14 almost finishing up that meeting when Your Honor took the
15 bench.

16 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought you were done.

17 MR. TANASI: So if we could maybe have a couple more
18 minutes to do that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

20 MR. MARCHESE: It's actually been productive.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, I'm politely being asked
22 to leave. So I'll leave, and I'm come back when you tell me
23 you're ready.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

2 (Recess was taken at 9:52 a.m.)

3 (Outside the presence of the jury at 10:12 a.m.):

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

6 All right. So, do the parties have any objections or
7 decisions that you want me to make before we resume with the
8 jury and witness?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we were able to go through
10 all of the Facebook exhibits for Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and
11 Mr. Stewart and there was a few in which there were no
12 objections and then there was some more where there were some
13 objections that needed to be resolved.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

15 MS. AHMED: So, my understanding was that -- does
16 Your Honor want to see the ones where there were no objections?

17 THE COURT: No. If there's no objection, then that
18 will come in. You can tell me when -- that this is something
19 that's been stipulated that is admissible and we'll just admit
20 it.

21 MS. AHMED: And then -- so then -- can we pull up
22 Exhibit 113?

23 May we pull up Exhibit 113?

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I apologize.

25 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

1 (Exhibit 113 published.)

2 MS. AHMED: So, it's my understanding that there was
3 an objection by the defendants to this and we would submit that
4 this is relevant because it, obviously -- in that it's a
5 picture from the April 12th standoff and it's a post shared by
6 Mr. Parker on his Facebook page with comments made by him
7 referencing their -- that they showed up that day.

8 THE COURT: And so what is the objection?

9 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to relevance. It's
10 mainly -- I don't have a problem with the picture, with his own
11 verbiage; it's just the Valhalla quote which I find is more
12 prejudicial than probative than it is relevant as it is after
13 the fact.

14 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor, and I'd add
15 that this is an exhibit, in addition to some of the other
16 Valhalla related exhibits, that I'd also move for a severance
17 under Rule 14 for prejudicial spillover given the effect and if
18 Your Honor is not inclined to grant the severance motion, then
19 some limiting instruction because there's not any and there
20 won't be any Facebook post related to Valhalla and
21 Steve Stewart.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: And Drexler, we also -- I would say
23 that Mr. Drexler's picture's on here and the words below it
24 seem to suggest that he's saying that, I guess, and that's not
25 what he's saying. So it's misleading the jury thinking that

1 he's saying it because we're not going to have a witness who is
2 going to be able to testify to who said it, who wrote it, who
3 did that, but it's not just a natural picture that we have; we
4 now have words coming in on a picture that are not my client's
5 words. They're not on his Facebook, but yet his -- his picture
6 is there. And so, I would object to it being unduly
7 prejudicial to my client.

8 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien would join as well.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, Ms. Ahmed, the relevance
10 of this statement, is this -- are you offering this as an
11 adopted statement by Mr. Parker when he posts it on the -- on 12 his Facebook page as a weekly tribute in furtherance of the 13 conspiracy because it's glorifying and encouraging others to
14 continue? This was stated -- this was posted November 20th of
15 2015, according to the date on the exhibit. And then, I guess,
16 the other question is, whether or not it would be admissible
17 against the other defendants. So, is your argument that it's a
18 co-conspirator statement?

19 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. We would --
20 we would submit that it is -- it is adopted when Mr. Parker
21 posts the entire picture with the words, what we would call a
22 meme. He's adopting that meme and also placing his own
23 comments on it and that it's admissible, as to everybody, under
24 an 801(d)(2)(E).

25 THE COURT: All right. And so, the 801(d)(2)(E)

1 includes any response to the objection of spillover from
2 Mr. Stewart?

3 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. So the Court does find that
5 it appears to be an adopted statement by Mr. Parker posting it
6 on his website and that it is a co-conspirator statement made
7 in furtherance of the conspiracy during the conspiracy. It
8 states, "Our ongoing weekly tribute to the men and women who
9 showed up that day that were not me."

10 And then the other language that's on the photo says,
11 "Lo, do they call to me. They bid me to take my place among
12 them in the hollowed halls of Valhalla where the brave shall 13 live forever." So, again, appears to be glorifying and
14 encouraging others to act likewise, either by joining or on 15 their own as part of their shared belief and it is made during
16 the alleged conspiracy, November 20th, 2015. So the Court does
17 find that Exhibit 113 is admissible.

18 (Exhibit 113 received.)

19 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, and as we -- as it's kind of
20 presented to the jury, I just wanted to have an understanding
21 of that. Would our objections be noted for the record as well?

22 THE COURT: Oh, yes.

23 MR. TANASI: In other words, these have been admitted
24 over defense counsel's objection?

25 THE COURT: Correct.

1 MR. TANASI: Okay.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 Is there another one?

4 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. The next one would be
5 Exhibit 101.

6 (Exhibit 101 published.)

7 MS. AHMED: I understand, Your Honor, that there was
8 an objection by counsel to this one.

9 MR. MARCHESE: I don't have a problem with the
10 picture. It's obviously come in in a myriad of locations
11 throughout the trial. My biggest issue is the verbiage,
12 specifically the III% portion. That's irrelevant.

13 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

14 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins as well.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

16 MR. MARCHESE: And the issue here is, is that it's
17 misleading to the jury given the fact that at the time this
18 picture was taken, there was no III%.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, again, this is something that
20 we actually put in our response to their Motion in Limine to 21 keep out our 404(b). This is a picture of Mr. Parker from
22 April 12th, 2014, with these words and the III% superimposed on
23 top. He's sharing all of it on June 11th of 2015. And so,
24 although he might not have been in the III% at the time of the
25 April 12th standoff, that doesn't make this picture less

1 relevant in any way. It's inextricably intertwined with the
2 events, both because it's showing a picture, but also because
3 it's -- of the timing, as the Court has ruled in its order on
4 the 404(b) motion.

5 And his membership in the III% was also inextricably
6 intertwined in that he uses this as a platform, his membership
7 as a platform to continue to do similar operations.

8 THE COURT: All right. So this posting is dated 14
9 months later; right? This is June 11th, 2015.

10 Is he a member of the III% by then?

11 MS. AHMED: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. So that's what it represents
13 on Exhibit 101, is that Mr. Parker posted this on June 11th,
14 2015. It's a photograph of him in the prone position on the 15 bridge from June -- I'm sorry -- from April 12th of 2014, and
16 the language on the photograph says, "You give peace a chance
17 . . I'll cover you." That's on the top of the photo and then
18 on the bottom of the photo it says Roman Numeral III and then
19 the percent sign.

20 All right. So, again, it does appear to be an
21 adopted statement under 801(d)(2)(B) --

22 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, with respect to Mr. Lovelien
23 and that 3%ers, there's no evidence that Mr. Lovelien is in the 24 3%ers, at all. So, I mean, I would request at least a limiting 25 instruction in terms of 3%ers. I don't know how we can do

1 that.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed, do you have any objection to
3 that?

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would oppose a limiting
5 instruction as to Mr. Lovelien for this post. It's a post made
6 by Mr. Parker, Mr. Lovelien's co-conspirator, regarding the
7 events of April 12th, 2014, which Mr. Lovelien participated in
8 and it -- the statements that Mr. Parker's adopting show his
9 intent -- intent -- excuse me -- on April 12th, 2014, and so it
10 goes directly to the elements that Mr. Lovelien's facing.

11 MR. PEREZ: But, Your Honor --

12 MS. AHMED: And, additionally, obviously, Your Honor,
13 as the Court was stating earlier, it would fit under
14 801(d) (2) (E).

15 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, a lot of this 3%er evidence
16 that's coming in is clearly not relevant to Mr. Lovelien and a
17 limiting instruction would be appropriate. I mean, all this is 18 doing is misleading the jury with respect to Mr. Lovelien. He
19 doesn't have any affiliation with the 3%ers.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I would join with similar
21 arguments with respect to Mr. Stewart. We will see here,
22 momentarily, a picture of Mr. Stewart depicted with members of
23 the 3%ers, but that's it. Training, one picture. Doesn't
24 necessarily amount or necessarily prove that he's a member of
25 the 3%ers just by simply being with them in a picture.

1 THE COURT: Wasn't he wearing a 3%er T-shirt?

2 MR. TANASI: He's wearing a T-shirt that -- I don't
3 believe it displays a 3%er mark on it; I think it just shows
4 the American flag on his shoulder.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Ahmed, did you want to
6 respond?

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would, again, offer it
8 with respect to both Mr. Stewart and Mr. Lovelien that neither
9 of -- they both were members of this conspiracy; that as
10 alleged in the Indictment, neither of them have ever withdrawn
11 from the conspiracy. These statements on this image are going
12 to the events of April 12th, 2014.

13 And with respect to Mr. Stewart -- I would just leave
14 it at that, Your Honor. Basically, they're all a part of this
15 conspiracy, no one has withdrawn from conspiracy and this is
16 talking about the conspiracy and events taking place during the
17 time alleged in the Indictment.

18 MR. PEREZ: But it's not alleged that Mr. Lovelien
19 was part of the 3%ers is -- as part and parcel of this
20 conspiracy, whether before or after.

21 THE COURT: Right. And there's no allegation nor any
22 element of the offense that the individuals need to be part of
23 a organization or members of the same organization in order to
24 be found guilty of a conspiracy; there just needs to be the 25 agreement. Doesn't necessarily mean that they need to be part

1 of the same organization. But I understand the argument that
2 you're making as it's misleading to the jury, so misleading or
3 confusing to the jury. So I'll -- I'm -- I'm willing to give a
4 limiting instruction. I'm not sure that it's the Court's --
5 there's no -- all right. So there is a number of limiting
6 instructions that are common, that are generally provided in
7 certain situations. This is not necessarily one of them
8 because it doesn't go to the admissibility of the evidence; it
9 really goes to the weight. So clearly, you could examine --
10 cross-examine on that point. The Government could elicit it.
11 I could state it, but I think then that would be providing
12 testimony or providing evidence. So I think that the -- the 13 better way to handle this is for you all to either raise it on
14 direct or cross, or both so that it's not misleading to the 15 jury. If you don't, then maybe I need to make a limiting
16 instruction so that the jury is not misled. But otherwise, I
17 think that you all need to have the ability to comment on it
18 first.

19 But the Court does agree that it's -- would otherwise
20 be misleading if it's not clarified that Mr. Lovelien and --
21 well, as to Mr. Lovelien, I haven't seen any evidence yet that
22 would tend to demonstrate that he's a member. As to
23 Mr. Tanasi's client, Mr. Stewart, I'm not sure yet because the 24 representation was that he was training with the 3%ers and that
25 it was represented in the 3%ers recruitment video and that he

1 was wearing the same shirt that the other 3%ers were wearing.
2 So I can't say one way or the other for sure whether he is or
3 is not a member and I don't know how -- how much other evidence
4 there is or is not on that point, but I think it's definitely
5 an area that the parties can address in direct and
6 cross-examination. But it doesn't go to admissibility, so
7 Exhibit 101 is admitted.

8 (Exhibit 101 received.)

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next exhibit would be 10 103.

11 (Exhibit 103 published.)

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to relevance. It's
13 after the fact. Just some guys standing around the desert.
14 Appear to be target practice or recreational shooting.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins and makes the same
16 objections from the previous exhibit, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: What's the relevance of the photo,
18 Ms. Ahmed?

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, this is a photo that depicts
20 Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart along with a third person and you
21 can see that they're wearing -- at least Mr. Parker and
22 Mr. Stewart are wearing tactical vests and there's a target
23 sign in the background. We would submit that this is a
24 depiction of them training, consistent with other posts that
25 have been admitted where Mr. Parker discussed training and that

1 they're wearing III% -- that the T-shirt that Mr. Stewart is
2 wearing from the other side -- from the front you would be
3 able -- you would be able to see or it's III%, but it's
4 consistent with Mr. Parker's T-shirt and the other individual's
5 T-shirt where you can see in other pictures that there's a flag
6 like that on the side. And additionally, Mr. Parker and the
7 other individual, clearly you can see that they have III% logos
8 on their clothing. So, we would submit that this is, again,
9 part and parcel of their continued efforts to train and recruit
10 and to glorify their movement, as they call it, to interfere
11 with federal officers.

12 MR. PEREZ: And, Your Honor, again, with respect to
13 Mr. Lovelien, I mean, it has nothing to do with Mr. Lovelien.
14 Mr. Lovelien, there's no evidence that he ever went to Idaho.
15 He's not a member of the 3%ers. There's no pictures of him
16 wearing any 3%er T-shirts or anything of the kind. I mean, for
17 them to say that this is just a continuation of the same
18 conspiracy is . . . I think, again, it's misleading at best,
19 and certainly not relevant to Lovelien.

20 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, with respect to
21 Mr. Stewart, again, the Government is, I think, connecting dots
22 and assuming facts that aren't in evidence yet that would lay
23 the foundation to make this piece of evidence admissible and
24 then make it relevant. They're -- they're just jumping over
25 all of that and saying that this conclusion is clearly

1 Steven Stewart training with 3%ers and then the way they
2 connect the dots is circumstantially and I think assuming facts
3 that aren't in evidence yet. So the picture would lack
4 foundation as well.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, the three individuals
6 in the picture, Mr. Parker on the left, Mr. Stewart on the
7 right, and the unknown individual in the right appear to be
8 wearing the same shirt. All of the shirt is not visible on all
9 three of the individuals. The individual in the middle, his
10 shirt does have what appears to be a III% on the back of the 11 shirt with stars and sort of like a -- I guess it looks almost
12 like a stamp design in white on the Navy blue shirt.

13 So, the Government's position is, this is
14 inextricably intertwined with the conspiracy allegation and
15 that it's ongoing conduct and evidence of the ongoing
16 conspiracy.

17 MS. AHMED: Which, again, Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: How does it relate then to Mr. Lovelien?

19 MS. AHMED: Sorry, Your Honor, to speak over you.

20 I was going to say, which, again, none of the 21 defendants have ever withdrawn from. So, Mr. Lovelien is still
22 a part of this ongoing conspiracy at this time.

23 And, as of course the Court knows, under the law, as
24 a result, he's responsible for all of their actions in
25 furtherance of the conspiracy, criminal actions.

1 And as Your Honor pointed out, you know, I think
2 counsel's stretching the realm of limiting instruction pretty
3 far. This is something that would be appropriate for
4 cross-examination and not for a limiting instruction.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, inasmuch as the exhibit
6 does purport to present the individuals in the tactical gear
7 with -- in the desert with some targets in the background and
8 it does appear that the tactical vest has some kind of 9 ammunition or something that's bulky in the pockets and we can
10 see a handgun on the hol- -- on the -- on a holster on the
11 right hip of Mr. Parker there in the picture, it -- I think
12 that Mr. Parker's hat might have an Idaho 3%er logo on it,
13 similar to the logo on the shirt worn by the person in the
14 middle, but nevertheless, it does appear to be part of the 15 ongoing conspiracy inextricably intertwined. The date on the 16 photograph is June 27th, 2015.

17 As to its relation to Mr. Drexler and Mr. Lovelien,
18 as the Government noted, there's no evidence of any abandonment
19 of the conspiracy and that it is ongoing and therefore, it
20 would be evidence that is admissible against all of the 21 defendants. And the parties are not prevented from asking
22 questions of the witness related to any clarification that they
23 believe needs to be made as to whether or not the other
24 individuals are members, or included in the photograph, or
25 anything else that would go to the weight of the evidence as

1 opposed to the admissibility.

2 Next one?

3 (Exhibit 103 received.)

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there's three more that are
5 in the similar fashion; they combine elements of Bundy Ranch
6 with the 3% or about the 3% posted by Mr. Parker and that's --
7 the first one is 107.

8 I'll just show you all three, Your Honor, and then
9 come back to 107.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 (Exhibit 107 published.)

12 MS. AHMED: But this is the first one. It's
13 Mr. Parker sharing a 3%er -- 3% of Idaho, their Facebook page
14 and commenting on the top, "For updates on our Resistance," and
15 then the next one is 110.

16 (Exhibit 110 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: This was a post on Mr. Parker's Facebook
18 page where an individual asks him about -- somebody agrees with
19 the 3% but works for BLM and USFS -- meaning the Forest
20 Service -- and Mr. Parker provided a response to that.

21 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

22 MS. AHMED: And he's referencing Bundy Ranch in his
23 response, or the events on April 12th.

24 THE COURT: In Nevada. All right.

25 (Exhibit 116 published.)

1 MS. AHMED: And then the last one is Exhibit 116,
2 which is, again, a silhouette of Mr. Parker prone, taken from
3 him prone on the bridge on April 12th, 2014, and it's behind
4 that silhouette or the word -- is the word "resist" and
5 underneath is "Three Percent" and the objection, to my
6 understanding, was just to the words "Three Percent."

7 And so, we would submit that this is similar to ones
8 that the Court has already ruled upon. All three of these are
9 similar in that they're inextricably intertwined with their
10 conduct in April of 2014. It's part of the ongoing conspiracy,
11 and they continue to tie the events of April 2014 to their
12 ongoing movement and to their participation in III% -- to
13 Mr. Parker's participation in III%.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MS. AHMED: And it would go to all of them under
16 801(d)(2)(E).

17 THE COURT: So the Government Exhibit 116, that's the
18 T-shirt or the close-up photo of the design on the T-shirt,
19 where Mr. Parker is prone and the long gun is shooting through
20 the letter "E" of the word "resist," which is in giant letters
21 and then it has "Three Percent" underneath it in cursive,
22 that's dated February 17th of 2016 and that's -- appears to be
23 posted by him on his Facebook page; is that right?

24 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: And so the objection to the "Three

1 Percent" on that is because why?

2 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, Your Honor. Generally
3 speaking, I mean, it's the same objection and I might as well
4 go with all three just in the interests of judicial economy.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to 3%, it's our position
7 it's after the fact, it's irrelevant, it's not inextricably
8 intertwined. The Government can easily convey their case to
9 the jury without bringing in all this extraneous after-the-fact
10 post-bad act information. In addition, it's our position that
11 the conspiracy as alleged in the Indictment mentions nothing
12 about 3%. It mentions nothing about mines. So, it's our
13 position that it's not part of the ongoing conspiracy. The 14 ongoing conspiracy is specifically -- if there even is one --
15 related to Bundy Ranch.

16 So, based on those things, we would say it's
17 irrelevant, it's not inextricably intertwined, and it's nothing
18 but bad character evidence.

19 MR. TANASI: Start joins, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler.

22 THE COURT: All right. What's the Government's
23 response to the statement that the conspiracy is limited to the 24 events at the Bundy Ranch?

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we -- the date of the

1 conspiracy continues through the timing of the Indictment,
2 which was March of 2016. Additionally, it was alleged that
3 they -- under 372, that they continued to -- that they are
4 continuing to impede, interfere with the -- with the ability to
5 patrol -- excuse me -- with the ability by public lands law
6 enforcement to patrol the area in and around that Bundy Ranch
7 area and we would submit that this is part of that because when
8 they do this, they're celebrating what happened on April 12th.
9 They're sending a message, via glorification, to others, to
10 stand up with them. By putting "Three Percent," he's giving
11 the vehicle for them to join him in his movement. And so, it's 12 all part and parcel of that process of celebrating what they
13 did, recruiting others to do it with them, to continue it with 14 them, and also sending a message to law enforcement that it is
15 not safe to go back, that they're still there, they're still a
16 part this have movement and they're still continuing in their
17 resistance. So we would submit that that's -- it's all related
18 and that's -- in that sense.

19 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, I think that's pushing the
20 limit on what this one particular exhibit is saying. I mean,
21 "resist" and "Three Percent." I mean, I don't see the
22 relevance to Bundy. I mean, certainly --

23 THE COURT: Well, it's a image of Mr. Parker taken
24 from the incident on April 12th of 2014 that's then
25 incorporated into this T-shirt and as the Government explains,

1 it does appear to be glorifying, recruiting, encouraging others
2 during this conspiracy to continue with their conduct, not to
3 abandon it, and to even have other folks join in. It does
4 appear to be inextricably intertwined. The Superseding
5 Indictment does allege that the conduct continued through March
6 of 2016. The posting is he made a month before that, in
7 February of 2016, and it would be a co-conspirator statement.

8 So, 116 is admitted.

9 Let's go back and look at 110, though.

10 (Exhibit 116 received.)

11 (Exhibit 110 published.)

12 THE COURT: I'm not sure. What is the relevance of 13 this post?

14 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would submit that
15 Mr. Parker was asked about people who agree with the 3%ers but
16 work for these agencies and in his response he indicates that 17 he reaches out to these people, but he shakes their hands and
18 looks them in the eye and hopes that he doesn't have to kill
19 them or lets -- lets them know that he doesn't want to kill
20 them and they don't -- and hopefully they won't kill him and it
21 will never get to the point it did in Nevada ever again. And
22 so, Your Honor, we could submit that it goes to -- it is
23 evidence of his intent in April of 2014, on April 12th, 2014.
24 It's also, again, inextricably intertwined with the conspiracy
25 and his efforts to get the officers to not do their jobs,

1 to desist.

2 The bottom response, he indicates, his short answer
3 is, he wishes they would just find another job. And so, we
4 would submit that this is, again, he's reaching out to other
5 people who are asking him what he thinks about this issue and
6 he's telling them that -- what he thinks about it, which is
7 that hopefully, it will never get to what it did in Nevada,
8 meaning, obviously, the April 12th incident and that what he
9 means is that he hopes he doesn't have to kill any federal
10 officer and that they should just find another job. And so, we
11 would submit that it shows his intent and his evidence of the 12 ongoing conspiracy as we've previously stated.

13 THE COURT: And so what's the defense objection?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Once again, we're just objecting to
15 the 3%, Your Honor. You mean, the -- I think the Court's been
16 pretty clear on its ruling in reference to the 3%. So, I guess
17 you just admit it in over defense's objection in reference to
18 the 3% and go to the next one.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I wouldn't have a problem
20 redacting that comment underneath it by Ryan Gargano. I mean,
21 that -- we could easily redact that.

22 MR. MARCHESE: No -- no objection from the defense.

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, it sounds like the 24 defense only is requesting the redaction of the 3%ers on the 25 top line?

1 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, and Mr. --

2 THE COURT: The Government's willing to do that,
3 so --

4 MR. MARCHESE: Mr. Gargano's statement.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would -- we would ask that
6 we only redact -- be required to redact the Ryan Gargano
7 comments that's in between Mr. Parker's responses. We would
8 ask that Court allow us to keep the 3%ers for the reasons that
9 we've previously articulated, which is that his -- it's all
10 part and parcel. His membership in 3% is part of his
11 participation in the movement which began with Bundy Ranch.

12 THE COURT: All right. So I thought you were -- I
13 thought the Government was saying they agreed to the redaction
14 of 3%ers. You're saying you agree -- the Government agrees to 15 the redaction of Ryan Gargano's statement, "Look 'em dead in 16 the eye"?

17 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: But Mr. Marchese, that -- was that your
19 request, or was it the 3%ers, or both?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Well, yeah. Obviously, I don't object
21 to the Gargano statement and then just a blanket objection to
22 anything 3%.

23 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is just to 24 the term 3% percent as mentioned in the question posed to 25 Mr. Parker that Mr. Parker is responding to.

1 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: So, again, it appears that he is adopting
3 the position of representing the point of view of the 3%ers
4 there, or at least his point of view as a member of the 3%ers,
5 or being in agreement with the 3%ers, but providing an opinion
6 as to what to do if one agrees with the 3%ers but works for BLM
7 or the U.S. Forest Service, that's the question, and then
8 Mr. Parker provides the answer.

9 Again, it does appear to be inextricably intertwined
10 with the conspiracy alleged and is relevant to the intent of 11 the defendant.

12 As far as it being a co-conspirator statement, it's 13 providing counsel or information about the ideology and their
14 purpose or intent in this particular conduct. And as the
15 Government stated, there's no evidence that any of the other
16 defendants had abandoned the conspiracy at this point, so it
17 does seem that Exhibit 110 is admissible. Again, the
18 parties -- doesn't prevent the parties from questioning the
19 witness about the participation of the defendants in the 3%ers.

20 (Exhibit 110 received.)

21 THE COURT: How about Exhibit 107?

22 (Exhibit 107 published.)

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit the same
24 arguments that -- I understand that the objection is to 3% and
25 our response is what it has been with other exhibits, that

1 it's his membership in it and part of the movement that he
2 participates in that began at Bundy -- with the events in
3 April 2014 -- excuse me -- and that he also states, "For
4 updates on a resistance," and shares their Facebook page.

5 THE COURT: Same objection as to the 3%ers? Anything
6 else --

7 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

8 THE COURT: -- you want to add?

9 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I won't make you say it over and over
11 again, but --

12 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: -- just in case there's anything special
14 about this one.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Well, in this one actually it seems like
17 it's a little more clear that he is promoting the 3%ers and
18 participation in the organization, joining the organization.
19 He says, "For updates on our resistance, please like, follow,
20 and share our page," and then it has the 3%er logo on top of
21 the flag and looks to have a little map indicating where they
22 are and he's posting this on August 9th of 2015, which is
23 during the alleged conspiracy.

24 So, Exhibit 107 is admitted.

25 (Exhibit 107 received.)

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next five that are at
2 issue -- well, really the next six, are all discussing the
3 Sugar Pine Mine and White Hope Mine events which we had briefed
4 previously with the Court in the -- which we had noticed before
5 as 404(b) and then, of course, we relitigated it in the
6 defendants' Motion in Limine. So, the first one is Exhibit 99.

7 (Exhibit 99 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And this is Mr. Parker sharing a link
9 about the Sugar Pine Mine event in April of 2015 and then
10 there's comments beneath that where he's sharing information
11 about the Sugar Pine Mine event and responding to questions
12 regarding it

13 THE COURT: All right. So is the objection the same
14 as the -- as I addressed in the Motion in Limine?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor. Just in reference to 16 anything Sugar Pine or White Hope Mine, the general objection
17 would be to relevance. It's our position that it's -- it's not
18 404(b) evidence; it is -- it's nothing but bad character
19 evidence. It's after the fact. It's too remote in time. It's 20 not inextricably intertwined. The Government can convey their
21 case to the jury in an intelligible fashion without this
22 information, and it's also outside the scope of the conspiracy.

23 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, Stewart would join and
24 then also add that there's no evidence of Mr. Stewart's
25 involvement in either of those two protests, standoffs,

1 whatever we would call them.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien would join with Mr. Stewart's
3 objections as well.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, they are statements
6 made during the alleged conspiracy. These are posted by
7 Mr. Parker in April of 2015, looks like April 11th. I can't
8 tell if all three are -- at least two of them I see the dates
9 clearly are April 11th, 2015.

10 Yes. Okay. So all of them are April 11th, 2015, and
11 they do mention the Bundy Ranch-type standoff and then talks
12 about the other event and is -- states -- it's an alert and
13 "This is a standby order for all 3%ers and militia. You are
14 not protestors. We need to get a head count and start setting
15 up supply routes." So it is a recruitment -- more than a
16 recruitment, I suppose, because at this point it's for an
17 actual -- it's not for just membership or training, but to
18 actually conduct a similar type of conduct.

19 I did rule in the Motion in Limine orders that it is
20 inextricably intertwined for that reason.

21 And did the Government want to respond to the comment
22 that Mr. Stewart did not participate in the subsequent event
23 during the conspiracy?

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit the same
25 arguments that we've made with respect to the previous post,

1 which is that all of these defendants were in the conspiracy
2 alleged in the Indictment together. No one has withdrawn.
3 They're responsible for each other's conduct.

4 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, but this is expanding the
5 conspiracy beyond, I mean -- you know, we can have events all
6 over the country and all of a sudden it's going to be the same
7 conspiracy? I mean, there's a number of groups throughout the
8 country that challenged the position of the federal government
9 and now, all of a sudden, you know, we've got -- we've got one
10 conspiracy here in -- at the Bundy Ranch and -- that the
11 alleged conspiracy is to interfere with the gathering of the 12 cattle at the Bundy Ranch and to return it to the Bundys. I
13 don't think that anybody, beyond maybe individuals that were
14 involved in the Sugar Pine thing, you know, ever agreed to 15 anything beyond that. I don't think that that was -- if
16 there's a conspiracy -- that that's the scope of the
17 conspiracy.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd also just add that
19 there's -- this is also evidence of their intent and their
20 actions. With respect to the April 2014 event, they're
21 clarifying that this is a Bundy -- excuse me -- a Bundy
22 Ranch-type standoff brewing. They also reference the fact that
23 this is -- they're looking for militia and that you are not
24 protestors. And so, we would submit that is also intent of the
25 co-conspirators -- I mean, evidence of a co-conspirator's

1 intent and it would be admissible under 801(d) (2) (E).

2 THE COURT: Well, the Court agrees, as it did in its
3 Motion in Limine, and that's Number 2137. It's not
4 inadmissible. It is inextricably intertwined. It is a
5 co-conspirator statement and the other co-conspirators that are
6 alleged to have participated in the conspiracy as alleged in
7 the Superseding Indictment continues through March 2016. No
8 abandonment.

9 So, Exhibit 99 is admitted.

10 (Exhibit 99 received.)

11 MS. AHMED: The next one, Your Honor, is 100 and it's
12 very similar. It's also about Sugar Pine Mine.

13 And Your -- this is a multiple page, Your Honor. So,
14 I think on the next page there are some comments.

15 THE COURT: And this is May 20th of 2015?

16 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor, and it's a
17 post by Mr. Parker on his Facebook page. They're celebrating
18 with their perceived victory at Sugar Pine and he's stating,
19 "That's two for two fascists," referring both to this and to
20 the Bundy Ranch standoff.

21 And if we go to Page 2, there are -- there's a
22 comment by him, and there's Page 3 as well and he's explaining
23 in his comment that -- another individual said it best when he
24 said, "Don't worry about the guns, folks. We've got the guns.
25 What we need is support. 10 people for every man in the

1 field."

2 And as the Court, of course, knows, from the last
3 trial, that there essentially was approximately 400 people
4 present April 12th and about 40 of them were armed. So, it's
5 the same ratio, but clearly calling for stating that they have
6 guns and they need additional people.

7 And then the last post on this page is -- the last
8 two comments are -- one is by Mr. Engel, who was obviously a
9 co-conspirator celebrating this victory, or the two victories
10 and then Eric Parker discussing this -- this operation further.

11 We would just submit all the same arguments as to why
12 it's admissible.

13 THE COURT: What is this referencing? "Security
14 stays in place until he gets a court date"?

15 MS. AHMED: That's about the Sugar Pine Mine event,
16 Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Oh.

18 MS. AHMED: Which, it began in April and it continued
19 into May of 2015.

20 THE COURT: So the reference to security is
21 individuals providing security, armed security?

22 MS. AHMED: To the miners, that's correct,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 Well, again, this is May 20th, 2015.

1 MR. MARCHESE: It's the same objection, Your Honor.
2 I can keep us here all morning.

3 The other thing I would add is there's obviously an
4 issue with the Southern Poverty Law Center and I'm assuming
5 that's Reuters, the publisher. I don't see how that's
6 relevant.

7 THE COURT: Anyone else?

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, these are all Parker's
12 posts. He does appear to be adopting the statements that he is 13 posting as well as the photographs that -- he's included in the 14 photograph with the other individuals. So, it . . . is
15 801(d) (2) (B) statements.

16 As far as whether or not they're co-conspirator
17 statements that come in against the co-defendants, he is
18 celebrating, or does appear to be celebrating, certainly the
19 success of the Sugar Pine Mine and it is posted prior to the 20 end date of the Indictment, which is March of 2016. This is
21 dated May of 2015. So, a clear year beforehand.

22 So same reasoning as before. It's inextricably
23 intertwined co-conspirator statement made by Mr. Parker as 24 adopted by him in his post.

25 So Exhibit 100 is admitted.

1 (Exhibit 100 received.)

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next -- again, the next
3 four are also along the same lines. The White Hope Mine ones
4 are 108, 109, and then a video that was uploaded to his
5 Facebook account which is a part of 109.

6 (Exhibit 108 published.)

7 MS. AHMED: So 108 is Mr. Parker now posting about
8 the White Hope Mine incident, which happened in August of 2015.
9 There's photographs that show both Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler
10 and Mr. Parker where it says, "Montana Defenders of the 11 Republic" and he's holding a firearm and underneath it says,
12 "Share! Operation Big Sky! More information here," and it
13 shares a link to a press release by the Pacific Patriot Network
14 which is all Operation Big Sky as we've noticed in the 404(b)
15 was the name given to the operation relating to White Hope Mine
16 which was a mine on Forest Service land in Montana. And Mr.
17 Parker and Mr. Drexler are both, again, as I stated earlier,
18 appear in this post.

19 And then at the bottom there's also a comment by
20 Mr. Parker saying, "Shifts . . . and we still need volunteers."
21 And so, we would submit the same arguments that we've
22 previously submitted.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection as Parker.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 THE COURT: All right. So the same ruling.

3 The statement is adopted by Mr. Parker as posted.
4 Also includes one of the other defendants that are listed in
5 the conspiracy. It's dated August 20th of 2015, which is
6 within the conspiracy requesting volunteers for a similar
7 operation during the conspiracy. So it is an 801(d)(2)(E)
8 co-conspirator statement that is admissible against all
9 parties.

10 So, Exhibit 108 will be admitted -- is admitted.

11 (Exhibit 108 received.)

12 (Exhibit 109 published.)

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, 109 is very similar. It's a
14 post shared by Mr. Parker of a video from White Hope Mine
15 depicting -- you can see from this post that there's a video
16 where Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler both appear in. They're
17 armed and it's referring to that same event of the White Hope
18 Mine Operation Big Sky and we would submit the same arguments
19 for its admissibility.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection Parker.

21 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

24 THE COURT: So is this the video that Mr. Parker was
25 watching just now with the headphones on? Did he get a chance

1 to see all of it? It's 11 minutes it looks like.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we --

3 MR. MARCHESE: He's seen it, Your Honor.

4 MS. AHMED: And for the record, Your Honor, we -- the
5 video is 11 minutes. Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler only appear in
6 the first few seconds of it, possibly the first minute, so we
7 were -- as a separate exhibit, 48a, we were going to seek to
8 admit the video clipped just to the part that they're in.

9 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So not the whole 11 minutes?

10 MS. AHMED: Just the 20 to -- I think it's about 20
11 to 30 seconds.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. AHMED: And that's -- so this post is 109 and the 14 video is 48a.

15 THE COURT: All right. So, in Exhibit 109, are you
16 alleging that -- of the three people pictured there, that the
17 person on the far right is Mr. Parker and the far left is
18 Mr. Drexler?

19 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Do you know who the person in the middle
21 is? Is that Mr. Blaine Cooper?

22 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor, a co-conspirator and
23 who, obviously as the Court knows, already pled guilty in this
24 case.

25 THE COURT: All right. And the posting is made in

1 August 20th of 2015 and . . . Mr. Parker is sharing
2 Mr. Cooper's video on Mr. Parker's Facebook page on that date.

3 So, where it says, "Breaking, share, get viral!
4 Operation Big Sky armed patriots and Oath Keepers from across
5 the U.S. show up to defend the Constitution! What's it all
6 about? Watch our report and the dispute between the U.S.
7 Forest Service and miners in a small Montana town!" is it your
8 argument that this is posted by Mr. Parker as well?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, yes. We would submit that
10 it's an adoptive admission, essentially, as to the intent for 11 that operation and for his movement generally, as evidence of
12 the movement generally and the conspiracy generally.

13 THE COURT: All right. So he's adopted the statement
14 and he's furthering the recruitment effort, and it's made
15 during the conspiracy, inextricably intertwined and admissible
16 against all parties.

17 All right. So same ruling as before. The Exhibit
18 109 is admitted.

19 (Exhibit 109 received.)

20 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, would that also be the
21 case for the video that's -- we would then -- the video is 48a
22 and it's just -- it's this video, the first 28 seconds in which
23 they're featured.

24 THE COURT: Does defense have any different objection
25 to video 48a -- what did you say, about the first minute?

1 MS. AHMED: It's less than a minute, Your Honor.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we would object, but if
3 it -- if the Court does rule that it comes in, we would ask
4 that the entire video come in under the rule of completeness.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit if you --
6 that the entire video -- essentially the first 20 to 30 seconds
7 or whatever is in our -- the clip that we're submitting, is
8 where you see these three individuals standing at the White
9 Hope Mine and then it cuts away to a lengthy interview with, I
10 believe, one of the miners and so we would submit that that
11 portion is not needed under the rule of completeness. It's a
12 completely different scene, different interview.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, there's no explanation
14 of how the rule of completeness would require that the 11
15 minutes of the video needs to be shown in Exhibit 48a. The
16 first minute is alleged to be the portion that includes the
17 defendants in this case. So the Court admits video 48a, but 18 only up to the 1-minute part -- part or -- within the 1-minute
19 part.

20 (Exhibit 48a received.)

21 (Exhibit 114 published.)

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 And then, Your Honor, the last post at issue from
24 Mr. Parker's Facebook pages is Exhibit 114, and this is similar
25 to the others. It's a post he shared on his Facebook page,

1 which was obtained in December of 2015. The agent would
2 testify to the date that it was obtained, which was the date
3 was documented in a 302. It's not reflected in that post which
4 is why I say when it was obtained, but it was obtained in
5 December 2015, which is also the same that this individual that
6 he's discussing, Schuyler Barbeau, was arrested. Mr. Barbeau
7 did participate in the events of April 12th, 2014, and is a
8 co-conspirator. Additionally, Mr. Parker states in the post,
9 "He helped stand down the BLM at the Bundy Ranch, the BLM at
10 the mine in Oregon, and the USFS at the mine in Montana."

11 We would submit all the same arguments with respect
12 to its being inextricably intertwined and evidence of their
13 intent.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we would give the same
15 objections, but I would focus a little bit more on the fact
16 that Mr. Parker isn't necessarily talking about what he did,
17 he's talking about what someone else did. So I would say that
18 the relevance and the prejudicial value goes up significantly
19 in reference to the prejudice and the relevance goes down
20 significantly because Mr. Barbeau -- Eric is talking about what 21 Mr. Barbeau did. So, I'm failing to see the relevance of all
22 this.

23 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

24 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's saying he -- he --
2 Mr. Parker's post states "he," referring to Barbeau, helped
3 stand down the BLM at these incidents which there's evidence
4 that Mr. Parker participated in. And so, it would go to
5 Mr. Parker's conduct and his intent, that their purpose was to
6 stand down these law enforcement -- these federal -- these
7 public land agencies.

8 THE COURT: And you said that -- how do you know the
9 date of this post?

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it was -- the date was 11 documented in a report by an FBI -- by the FBI agent who
12 captured it to be December of 2015.

13 And, Your Honor, also, Mr. Barbeau was arrested in
14 2015 -- December of 2015.

15 THE COURT: All right. So same ruling as before.
16 Exhibit 114 is admitted. Does reference the April 2014
17 incident as a standdown and draws the similarity between it and
18 the similar incidents at the Oregon and Montana mines.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: So Exhibit 114 is admitted.

21 (Exhibit 114 received.)

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, those were the only exhibits
23 that we had -- those were the remaining exhibits from 24 Mr. Parker's Facebook page. We were able to resolve all the
25 issues with respect to the exhibits from Mr. Drexler's Facebook

1 page and so, I don't think there's any outstanding -- or there
2 were no objections; there was just one exhibit that
3 Mr. Leventhal wanted to make sure was redacted and we made that
4 redaction.

5 So, those are Exhibits 123 through 128. There's no
6 issue on those.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibits 123 through 128,
8 with the requested redactions, has the defense had an
9 opportunity to see those redactions to make sure --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have not.

11 THE COURT: -- we're good to go?

12 MS. AHMED: It's Exhibit 125 if we can -- excuse
13 me -- it's either 125 or 126. Can we pull up 125?

14 (Exhibit 125 published.)

15 MS. AHMED: It's actually 126.

16 (Exhibit 126 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: Uh, maybe 127.

18 I'm sorry, Your Honor.

19 (Exhibit 127 published.)

20 MS. AHMED: This was the post that Mr. Leventhal
21 wanted to make sure it was redacted. So we have made that
22 redaction.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And this is referencing a post that
24 came in yesterday at sidebar --

25 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- that we agreed to take out. It's
2 the same reason. For some reason it got onto Mr. Drexler's
3 page. So it's just -- we've already redacted it from a
4 prior --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Prior --

7 THE COURT: All right. So there's no other objection
8 to Exhibits 123 to 128; is that right?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's -- that's correct, Your Honor.

10 MR. MARCHESE: For Mr. Drexler, but in reference to
11 Mr. Parker, once again, same continuing objections to the 12 post-bad act issues, 3%ers, mine references, things of that 13 nature.

14 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, do you object or not object?

16 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor. I'll join in the
17 objection.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, same ruling. Exhibit 123
19 through 128 then is admitted with those redactions.

20 (Exhibits 123 through 128 received.)

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just request that we
22 do have some -- there are some Facebook posts for Mr. Stewart
23 where there were issues. There were objections that we were
24 unable to resolve just between ourselves that we would submit
25 to the Court for ruling, however, we would ask that the court

1 allow Mr. Smith to finish up because he does have a flight to
2 catch, so --

3 THE COURT: Okay. So we'll just address those later.

4 MS. AHMED: Yes.

5 THE COURT: They're not coming in this morning?

6 MS. AHMED: They would not come in this morning,
7 Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So let's go ahead then and bring
9 in the jury and . . . Mr. Smith. We can go ahead and have him
10 take the stand while Aaron, you go get the jury?

11 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: May I confirm the exhibit
13 numbers that were admitted, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I have 113; 101; 103; 107;
16 110; 116; 99; 100; 108; 109; 48a, 1 minute of the video; 114;
17 123 through 128.

18 THE COURT: That's what I have written down.

19 MS. AHMED: That's correct.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

23 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: All right. While we're waiting for the
25 jury to come in, I just want to remind everyone about the

1 expectations regarding the courtroom and how people should
2 conduct themselves and what is expected of them. It is a
3 courtroom, not a sporting event. So no expressions, whether
4 verbally or through body language, are permitted.

5 They are -- the defense attorneys have their computer
6 devices, but no one else is permitted to have computer devices.
7 The security officers here do have communication devices.
8 There's no audio or video recording that is permitted. So even
9 if your devices are in the "off" position or the "vibrate" or
10 "private" position, that's not good enough. We just simply
11 cannot have any of the devices in the courtroom.

12 The defendants are aware that the holding cell does
13 have a speaker system so that they may be able to still hear
14 the proceedings if they are -- if we need to remove them
15 because they cannot comply with the court conduct rules.

16 And the marshals and the Court Security Officers have
17 the authority to remove anyone from the public that cannot
18 comply with these expectations for the conduct in court.

19 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 (Jury returned to courtroom at 11:13 a.m.)

22 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

23 Everyone else may be seated as well.

24 Let's go ahead and have counsel make their
25 appearances on the record and then we'll proceed.

1 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor, ladies and
2 gentlemen.

3 Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
4 the United States.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.
7 Good morning, folks.

8 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also with us at
9 counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

10 Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Good morning.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
13 morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

14 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

15 THE COURT: Good morning.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone.

17 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
20 ladies and gentlemen.

21 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 (Erich Smith returned to stand.)

24 THE COURT: All right. So, we're going to now
25 continue with our witness, Mr. Erich Smith, Erich Smith,

1 rather, and I do have some jury questions for you, sir. I'm
2 going to read them into the record, but when you respond, you
3 may go ahead and turn to the jury to face them because these
4 are jury questions; not my questions. All right?

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 THE COURT: So, Jury Note No. 100 asks, "In your
7 expert opinion, could a trained law enforcement officer
8 misidentify Exhibit No. 197b as a shotgun from a hundred yards
9 away with the naked eye and binoculars?"

10 THE WITNESS: Yes. I believe that's possible.

11 THE COURT: All right. Question No. 101, "The type
12 of bullets used in both weapons, can't they go through body
13 armor?"

14 THE WITNESS: It depends on the top of body armor
15 that's being used. Body armor comes in different ratings based
16 on the type of projectile that it's -- or designed to stop.

17 That really is outside my expertise to answer that
18 question --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 THE WITNESS: -- if it would effectively defeat body
21 armor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Question 102 has three parts;
23 the first part is, "If any of the pictured weapons" -- "Of any
24 of the pictured weapons, could you determine if they had a
25 round in the chamber?"

1 THE WITNESS: That, I could not.

2 THE COURT: And the second question in Jury Note No.
3 102 asks, "Of any of the weapons pictured, could you determine
4 if they had been modified to fire automatic?"

5 THE WITNESS: I can't determine that either.

6 THE COURT: And the last question in Jury Note No.
7 102 asks, "What is the difference between a rifle and a long
8 gun?"

9 THE WITNESS: Those are synonymous, a long gun and a
10 rifle.

11 THE COURT: So, no difference?

12 THE WITNESS: No. In my terminology, there would be
13 no difference between those.

14 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 103 asks, "If a
15 person threatens another person with an airsoft object that
16 looked like a rifle or shotgun, would their threatening still
17 be considered meeting its intent?"

18 So again, that's a legal question and we will provide
19 you -- I will provide you with the legal instructions that will
20 assist you in answering that question. So it's not a factual
21 question for this witness to answer, but I appreciate your
22 concern.

23 All right. And then Jury Note No. 104 asks, "Did the 24 sights on Exhibit 197a break in the transportation of the gun?"

25 THE WITNESS: I don't have any knowledge of when

1 those sights or that sight was broken. It was not -- it was
2 already broken when I received the firearm.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And the second part of the
4 question asks, "Can you determine if the sights were broken on
5 the day in question on Exhibit 197a?"

6 THE WITNESS: That, I cannot determine as well.

7 THE COURT: And then Jury Note 105 asks two
8 questions: The first one is, "The rifle that used the 9mm
9 round, is it capable of that rifle to shoot as far and accurate
10 as a rifle that uses the .223 round or the 6 -- or the 7.62
11 round?"

12 THE WITNESS: I can't -- I don't know the accuracy of
13 the two firearms, but you really need to think about the 14 cartridges. So the rifle that shot the 9mm Luger, that bullet
15 is larger in diameter. It measures .355. You remember the 16 rifle that shot the .223, that's closer to a quarter of an
17 inch. So the object itself is larger; it's not going to fly
18 the air as far. So its ballistic co-efficient is not as good
19 as the .223 rifle. So, basically in a short answer, it would
20 not fire as far as the .223.

21 THE COURT: All right. And the second question in
22 Jury Note No. 105 asks, "Can you explain the difference between 23 the 9mm versus the .223 versus the 7.62 in terms of size and 24 velocity."

25 THE WITNESS: Sure.

1 We'll start with the smaller and we'll work our way
2 up.

3 So, the 223, .223, that's close to a quarter inch in
4 diameter. So if he took the bullet and cut it in half, it
5 measures about a quarter inch across. A .223 is a full metal
6 jacket and when I say that, if we actually looked at the 7 bullet, there's a metal jacket around a led core. Those
8 typically fly at a velocity of around 3100 feet per second. So
9 they're very fast bullets.

10 The next one up would be your .30 caliber, 7.62 by 11 39. Again, this is a full metal jacket bullet. It's typically
12 wrapped around a led core and it also is a high velocity
13 around. That particular velocity, I'm not certain on how fast
14 that one actually travels. But then the 9mm Luger, that
15 measures .355 in diameter if we cut it in half. That one
16 typically runs around 1150 feet per second. So, it's slower
17 than the other two cartridges.

18 THE COURT: So the largest is the 9mm?

19 THE WITNESS: That's .355 and then the .30 caliber
20 measures .308. So it's a little bit -- little bit smaller
21 diameter.

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 106 asks, "Can
23 you tell by looking at the butt of a rifle if it is a shotgun
24 or not?"

25 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I'd be able to do that

1 or not, because the stock -- when we talk about the butt,
2 that's the portion that actually fits into your shoulder.
3 They're very similar between rifles and shotguns, so I may not
4 be able to distinguish one being another, unless there was
5 something really specific about the butt.

6 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up questions by
7 the Government?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Just a couple.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF ERICH SMITH

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Good morning, Mr. Smith.

14 A. Good morning.

15 Q. Just in follow-up to question 102 where you were asked
16 about whether you could determine from the photos whether there
17 was a round in the chamber, I would ask the converse. Could 18 you tell from the photos that a round was not in the chamber?

19 A. I could not.

20 Q. And you fired this weapon; correct? This weapon, being
21 the weapon at 190b, the Saiga?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. When you fired that weapon, what was -- did you have a
24 magazine in it?

25 A. Actually, I had no magazine in it when I test-fired it. I

1 actually physically loaded the cartridge into the chamber and
2 fired it.

3 Q. When you fired that weapon, was the bolt opened or closed?

4 A. It was closed.

5 Q. And when the bolt is closed, where is the firing pin?
6 What is the position of the firing pin?

7 A. The firing pin is sitting in the bolt. It's prepared,
8 it's ready so that when I pull the trigger, the hammer falls
9 forward and it slams into the firing pin and now the firing pin
10 is allowed to hit the primer.

11 Q. So for -- for that weapon to fire, does the bolt have to 12 be closed?

13 A. Yes, it does.

14 MR. MYHRE: And if I may show, Your Honor, the
15 witness what was previously admitted as 152a?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 152a published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And I believe the jury has that image in front of it as 20 well. And in this image can you tell where that bolt is 21 forward or not?

22 A. Yes. This is the same image we looked at yesterday and
23 the bolt is forward.

24 Q. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: When you say "forward," do you mean

1 closed or not closed?

2 THE WITNESS: Closed.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. In response to Question 104 you were asked about the front
6 sight of 197b. When you looked at -- you looked at 197b
7 yesterday and it's available for you to look at today, is the
8 post of the sight intact on that weapon?

9 A. Can I take it out so I'm sure?

10 MR. MYHRE: With the Court's permission.

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 THE WITNESS: This is the front sight, this portion
13 right here (indicating). This portion right here (indicating)
14 is a shroud that would go over this little post here
15 (indicating). This post is actually what you sight in on to 16 shoot. The portion that's broken off would wrap around and
17 creates a -- basically a cover to block any kind of glare off
18 the front sight. So, the front sight is still there; it's
19 still intact.

20 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 21 witness held 197b in front of the jury and was pointing to the
22 front sight of the weapon.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. So, in other words, with the sight in the condition it is
25 now, that weapon could still be aimed and be functional?

1 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: You asked the question, is it still
4 functional then with that front sight?

5 MR. MYHRE: Is the weapon still functional in the
6 condition it's in?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Beyond the scope of the
8 question as well.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I think that's what the
11 question implies, as to whether the weapon can be used or not.

12 THE COURT: This is the one with the broken --

13 MR. MYHRE: This is Juror Question No. 104, whether
14 the gun -- the sight broke in transportation. I'm inferring
15 from that whether or not if this sight had been broken on the 16 day in question, would it have been functional or usable.

17 THE COURT: All right. Objection's overruled.

18 The witness may answer the question.

19 THE WITNESS: Would you like to rephrase the question
20 or --

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Sure.

23 With the sight -- you've described the sight in its
24 present condition; correct? The front sight?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. With the condition it's in as it sits here today, would
2 someone be able to use that weapon and use the sight?

3 A. Sure. The sight is still -- the front sight is still
4 available to shoot with. It's still present.

5 MR. MYHRE: All right. Thank you, Mr. Smith.

6 No further questions, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Follow-up by the defense?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

9 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you, Mr. Smith,
13 for coming in today. You are excused.

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

15 (Witness excused.)

16 THE COURT: Are we going to recall Special Agent
17 Sarah Draper?

18 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and do that, then.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the United States recalls
21 Agent Draper.

22

23

SARAH DRAPER,

24 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been

25 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

1 THE COURT: Good morning, Special Agent Draper.
2 Thank you for coming back. We're going to have you sit up here
3 just in a minute, as soon as we can clear -- just have you wait
4 there while he clears up the evidence.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I move the podium?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 Aaron, move it.

8 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Draper, I do remind you
10 that you are still under oath.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead and continue, Ms. Ahmed, with
13 direct.

14 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

15

16 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SARAH DRAPER

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Good morning again, Agent Draper.

19 A. Good morning.

20 Q. When we left off, we were looking at Facebook posts -- we
21 had been looking at Facebook posts yesterday that you reviewed
22 and obtained from Mr. Parker's Facebook account.

23 Do you recall that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And after his participation in the events of April 12th,

1 2014, did he continue to post on his Facebook account regarding
2 those events?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
5 stipulated to admission -- for admission as Exhibit 105?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 105 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And Your Honor, may we -- may we admit it
9 as well, for the record?

10 THE COURT: Yes. 105 is admitted.

11 (Exhibit 105 received.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, do you see what's on the screen in front of 14 you as 105?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. Ask you just explain to the jury what is depicted in
17 Exhibit 105?

18 A. This is a screen capture of a picture from Mr. Parker's
19 Facebook page.

20 Q. And is that picture from April 12th of 2014?

21 A. Yes, this is.

22 Q. And is this actually taken at the BLM's ICP impoundment
23 site?

24 A. This is at the -- at Bundy Ranch.

25 Q. The bridge?

1 A. Yes. At the bridge.

2 Q. And looking at the individual that's depicted on the
3 viewer's right, do you recognize that person?

4 A. Yes. That's Mr. Parker.

5 Q. And the individual that's depicted on the viewer's far
6 left, do you recognize that person?

7 A. Yes. That's Mr. Drexler.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we admit and publish
9 what's been stipulated for admission as Exhibit 111?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 (Exhibit 111 received and published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what is depicted
14 in Exhibit 111?

15 A. This is a posting of a picture from Mr. Parker on his 16 Facebook page updating his profile photo on October 11th of 17 2015.

18 Q. And what photo did Mr. Parker update his profile picture
19 with?

20 A. This is a picture of him -- taken of him at the Bundy
21 Ranch on the bridge on April 12th, 2014.

22 Q. And he posted this on October 11th of 2015?

23 A. Yes, that's correct.

24 Q. And looking below the picture, do you see that there are
25 also -- that individuals have "liked" and commented on that

1 picture?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you see the name Blaine Cooper?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Are you familiar with that name?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And who is Blaine Cooper?

8 A. Mr. Cooper was also involved in the events at Bundy Ranch
9 on April 12th, 2014.

10 Q. And below that, do you see that there are comments?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Can you read those comments?

13 A. Yes. An individual asks, "What rifle is that? A VZ?"

14 Q. And does Mr. Parker post a response?

15 A. Yes, he does.

16 Q. Can you read the response?

17 A. It says, "Saiga .223."

18 Q. And for the record, in the photograph that Mr. Parker made
19 his profile picture, is he -- what is he holding in his hands?

20 A. A Saiga .223.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish --

22 THE COURT: Can I just go back a little bit?

23 You were asking the witness about Mr. Blaine Cooper
24 and she said he was present at the events at Bundy Ranch. Was
25 he present at the events at the wash and the bridge --

1 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't know if --

2 THE COURT: -- or the rally beforehand?

3 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Was it just the rally
5 beforehand at the ranch or also later on at the wash?

6 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't know exactly if he
7 was on the bridge or on the wash.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 THE WITNESS: I recall through investigation he was
10 on the wash, but I don't know exactly.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Okay. You can move on.

13 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 May we publish what's been admitted as Exhibit 113?

15 (Exhibit 113 published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what is
18 displayed in Exhibit 113?

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, for the record, this
20 was over defense objection.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: That's correct.

23 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what's depicted

1 in Exhibit 113?

2 A. This is another capture from Eric Parker's Facebook page
3 dated November 20th of 2015. It shows a picture of Mr. Drexler
4 on April 12th, 2014, on the bridge and there have been words
5 written on it and Mr. Parker made a comment.

6 Q. And what is Mr. Drexler doing in the picture?

7 A. He's standing --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to
9 speculation. What's he doing?

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. What does it appear that he's doing from the photograph?

12 A. It appears as though he's standing on the bridge carrying
13 a rifle.

14 Q. And what are the words that are superimposed over that
15 picture?

16 A. Says, "Lo, do they call to me. They bid me to take my
17 place among them in the hollowed halls of Valhalla where the 18 brave shall live forever."

19 Q. And are these words words that you've become familiar with 20 through your investigation of this case?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what -- what are they from, if you know?

23 A. Just --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

3 THE COURT: Well, it's not offered for the truth --
4 well, you -- Ms. Ahmed, what's your response?

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit that this is
6 an adopted admission by Mr. Parker.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, but it's our position that
8 she's going to testify to what she found out, so she's
9 basically testifying as to hearsay. It's not from her personal
10 knowledge.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Just were these words --

13 THE COURT: It's her personal knowledge. What she
14 found out, right? She's not --

15 MS. AHMED: She --

16 THE COURT: -- getting this information from someone
17 else?

18 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. She
19 investigated the origin of these words.

20 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it over the
21 objection.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Can you explain to the jury where these words come from?

24 A. Again, as yesterday, this is a summary of a -- of a Norse
25 or Viking prayer or poem about warriors seeking a place in

1 Valhalla.

2 Q. And how do they get that place in Valhalla?

3 A. If they died in battle.

4 Q. Now, above the picture with these words, you mentioned
5 that there -- there are also words above the picture; correct?

6 A. Yes, correct.

7 Q. And is that a comment that Mr. Parker posted separately
8 from the picture?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. But in relation to the picture?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Can you read that to the jury?

13 A. It says, "Our ongoing weekly tribute to the men and women
14 who showed up that day that were not me."

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been 16 stipulated to for admission -- may we admit and publish Exhibit
17 115?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 115 received and published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Agent Draper, is this a post that Mr. Parker posted to his
22 Facebook page?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what date did he make this post?

25 A. February 5th, 2016.

1 Q. And does -- in the post, is he sharing a photograph with
2 words on it?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what is depicted in the actual photograph?

5 A. This is a photograph of BLM at Bundy Ranch.

6 Q. These are the officers that were present on April 12th,
7 2014?

8 A. Yes, some.

9 Q. And what words are -- there appear to be words and circles
10 over the picture.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Written in blue?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Can you read what those say?

16 A. The word "dicks" three times.

17 Q. And is there -- do there -- do those words appear to be in 18 relation to the circles and the arrows that are also drawn on 19 the picture?

20 A. They appear to be.

21 Q. So, and it appears that they were referring to the 22 officers; is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And above and below the photograph there are also words.

25 Do you see that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Can you read those to the jury?

3 A. "The reason Nevada went so well, the dicks were there when
4 we got there."

5 Q. Now, below this photograph, are there also comments?

6 A. Yes, there are.

7 Q. Beginning where it says "Don Knight," can you read the
8 first comment?

9 A. It says -- "Don Knight: Yes. Always let your opponents
10 take the field first. That's one of the arts of war."

11 Q. And does Mr. Parker respond to that comment?

12 A. Yes, he does. He says, "Same idea. I just wrote it down
13 a little different."

14 Q. And where it says "Jeff Alldredge," can you read that
15 comment?

16 A. It says, "I always thought one would want to pick the 17 ground they fight from."

18 Q. And does Mr. Parker respond to that?

19 A. He does. And it says, "That's the hard part. Pick the 20 battlefield, but let them take it first."

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
22 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 101?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 101 published.)

25 ///

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 101?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. Now, you testified yesterday about a group known as the
5 3%.

6 Do you recall that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And also about the Idaho 3% which I believe you said was a
9 part of that greater 3%?

10 A. It's a part of a greater affiliation. It's not
11 necessarily a national connection, but a movement.

12 Q. And you described to the jury some of the things that the 13 Idaho 3% does; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What kind of group is the Idaho 3%?

16 A. Well, the FBI considers it a militia group.

17 Q. And --

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to hearsay.

19 Move to strike.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Is that based on your investigation and your familiarity
22 with the Idaho 3%?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And also in your training and experience as an FBI agent?

25 A. Yes.

1 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now, based on your investigation in this case, in June of
4 2015, was Mr. Parker affiliated with the Idaho 3%?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Looking at this exhibit, Exhibit 101, do you see where
7 I've circled on the screen a symbol?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I've circled toward the bottom of the picture.

10 Do you see that?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And can you explain to the jury, what is that symbol?

13 A. That is three Roman Numeral -- three Roman Numeral I's,
14 III%.

15 Q. And is that a symbol that's used by the Idaho 3%?

16 A. It's -- it's used by different 3% organizations, correct.

17 Q. Including the Idaho 3%?

18 A. Including, correct.

19 Q. And what is the photo -- photograph that is depicted in
20 Exhibit 101?

21 A. This is a photograph of Mr. Parker proned on the bridge at
22 Bundy Ranch on April 12th, 2014.

23 Q. And what do the words -- and where is his rifle in this
24 photograph?

25 A. The rifle is through a crack in the Jersey barrier -- the

1 highway barricade.

2 Q. The concrete barriers?

3 A. The concrete barriers, yes.

4 Q. And that's also known as the Jersey barriers?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And it appears to be pointing through that gap?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what are the words written above that photograph?

9 A. "You give peace a chance . . . I'll cover you."

10 Q. And is this a post that Mr. Parker shared on his Facebook
11 page?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. In June of 2015?

14 A. Correct.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
16 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 103?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 103 published.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 103?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. And can you describe to the jury what is depicted in
23 Exhibit 103?

24 A. This is a picture that Mr. Parker put on his Facebook page
25 in June of 2015 that at the time was made as a cover photo.

1 Q. And can you just remind the jury what a cover photo is in
2 Facebook?

3 A. That would be a -- kind of a -- a banner that would remain
4 until the individual user changes. It's a banner that would
5 remain consistent each time their page comes up. The content
6 may change, but that banner at the top of the page stays
7 consistent.

8 Q. So, if you make a photo your cover photo, that photo will
9 appear as the banner on your Facebook page?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And so when people go to your Facebook page, that's the 12 first thing they would see?

13 A. Yes, and your profile would also be consistent.

14 Q. Now, looking at the photo itself, do you recognize any of 15 the people in that photo?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And going from viewer's left to right, can you indicate,
18 mark and identify who you recognize?

19 A. (Indicating) that's Mr. Parker.

20 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle over
21 the person that's on the far left.

22 THE WITNESS: (Indicating).

23 MS. AHMED: And then the witness has drawn a circle
24 over an individual in the far right.

25 ///

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Who is that individual?

3 A. Mr. Stewart.

4 Q. And what do they appear to be doing in this picture?

5 A. Based upon the settings and -- they appear to be doing
6 some type of tactical training based upon their gear. It looks
7 like there's a target behind them. So, from my training, I
8 would assess they're doing some type of tactical and/or
9 firearms training.

10 Q. And the individual in the foreground that I've circled, do
11 you see what he is -- the shirt that he's wearing?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Can you explain to the jury, based on your investigation,
14 what you know about that shirt? What is that shirt?

15 A. That is a shirt that members of the Idaho 3% wore. It has
16 a symbol of the organization on it.

17 Q. So, that image on the back of the shirt is the Idaho 3%
18 image?

19 A. Part of it, yes. Part of it on the back of that shirt is,
20 yes.

21 Q. And have you seen other pictures depicting Idaho 3%
22 shirts?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in those pictures, have you observed that they have --
25 what they have, if anything, on the sleeves of those shirts?

1 A. A flag sometimes, yes.

2 Q. And would the flag be consistent with the flag that
3 appears on Mr. Stewart's shirt in this picture (indicating)?

4 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 Do you want to rephrase the question?

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Looking at the picture, the circle that I've drawn around
9 Mr. Stewart's shirt, is that shirt consistent or not consistent
10 with the other Idaho 3% shirts that you've seen?

11 A. That sleeve would be consistent.

12 Q. And do you observe what Mr. Stewart has on top of his 13 shirt?

14 A. You mean the vest? Like a tactical vest.

15 Q. Can you explain to the jury what it is?

16 A. Oh, okay.

17 It's a -- it looks like some type of tactical vest to
18 carry gear, perhaps magazines. I can't tell if there's any
19 type of armoring in that or not, from here.

20 Q. And in this picture can you tell whether Mr. Parker has
21 something similar on?

22 A. He has something on. I -- I can't tell what it is.

23 Q. Now -- and this is a picture that Mr. Parker made his
24 cover photo in June of 2015 --

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. -- is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
4 admitted over defense exhibit -- excuse me -- over defense
5 objection as Exhibit 107?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 107 published.)

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Now, looking at this exhibit, Agent Draper, is this a post
10 that Mr. Parker made on his Facebook in August of 2015?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And does he appear to be sharing some information in this
13 post?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What is he sharing in this post?

16 A. He's sharing a link to a Facebook page for the 3% of
17 Idaho, the organization.

18 Q. And looking at the 3%er image, where it says "Three 19 Percenter," do you see that, in the near of the screen?

20 A. Oh, yes, I do. Sorry.

21 Q. Drawing a square around the circle in that, do you see
22 that --

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. -- square?

25 A. Yes, I see that.

1 Q. Can you read the words that are written in that -- around
2 the -- in the circle form around that?

3 A. "When tyranny becomes law, rebellion becomes duty."

4 Q. And then looking above that, do you see that Mr. Parker
5 also made comments on this post?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And can you read the comments from the top to the bottom
8 that Mr. Parker posted?

9 A. "For updates on our resistance, please like and follow" --
10 correction -- "please like, follow, and share our page."

11 Q. And those were the words that Mr. Parker's account posted?
12 He posted this on his account?

13 A. This was, yes, posted on his account, correct.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
15 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 110?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 110 published.)

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, Agent Draper, is this a -- what appears to be a post
20 that another user made on Mr. Parker's page?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And that post was made in September of 2015; correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Can you read what that person wrote on Mr. Parker's page?

25 A. The individual who posted this wrote, "Question . . . What

1 if one is/agrees with 3%ers but works for BLM/USFS?" Which
2 would be the United States Forest Service. "Serious question,
3 just occurred to me today."

4 Q. Now, did Mr. Parker post a response to that question?

5 A. Yes, he did.

6 Q. And what did he write?

7 A. "Got a lot of area to cover in that question and folks who
8 work for the BLM/US Forest Service just do the job they were
9 meant to at the founding of these organizations. You have
10 firefighters on both sides . . . I reach out to as many of the 11 LE branches that I can, especially in my local area, shake
12 their hand, look them in the eye, let him know I don't want to 13 kill him and I don't want him to kill me. Hopefully, it will
14 never have to get to the point it did in Nevada ever again."

15 Q. And what does "LE" stand for?

16 A. Law enforcement.

17 Q. And did Mr. Parker make another comment to this question?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. What did he write?

20 A. "Short answer is, I wish they would just find another
21 job."

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
23 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 116?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 (Exhibit 116 published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, is this another post made on Mr. Parker's
3 Facebook account?

4 A. Yes. This is another updated cover photo.

5 Q. And again, this would be then the banner that would appear
6 at the top of his page?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And when was this post made?

9 A. February 17th, 2016.

10 Q. And what is the post that he made -- he made his cover
11 photo?

12 A. It's the word "resist" and it shows a sketch of the image
13 of him on the bridge in Bundy Ranch on April 12th, 2014, where
14 he's proned behind a rifle at the Jersey barriers, the concrete
15 barriers, and it has the word "Three Percent" below it.

16 Q. And yesterday you were describing a T-shirt that you had
17 seen to the jury. Is this what, the T-shirt that you were
18 describing, is on that T-shirt?

19 A. That's -- my investigation leads me to believe this is the
20 shirt, yes.

21 Q. That this is actually a photograph of the shirt?

22 A. That's what my investigation leads, yes.

23 Q. Now, you indicated yesterday that the Idaho 3% conducts
24 operations.

25 Do you recall that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And during the course of your investigation in this case,
3 did you become aware of an operation that the Idaho 3%
4 participated in taking place in Oregon in April of 2015?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And generally, what was the nature of the operation?

7 A. There was -- there was a dispute where perceived laws
8 regarding, like, regulations of mines on public lands, between
9 a miner outside of Grants Pass, Oregon and the Bureau of Land
10 Management.

11 Q. So, there was a mine that was located on land administered
12 by the BLM --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- is that correct?

15 A. Um-hmm.

16 Q. And the miner disputed the BLM's regulations?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I was just trying to clarify
19 her answer.

20 THE COURT: Rephrase.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. So, you indicated there was some kind of dispute. What
23 was the dispute?

24 A. It was -- had to do with the surface rights of the -- of
25 the mine on the -- on the BLM land and there was a process that

1 was being taken to resolve that dispute.

2 Q. And when you say "a process," do you mean that there was
3 administrative --

4 A. There was an administrative process ongoing, um-hmm.

5 Q. So, was the miner appealing the BLM's decisions regarding
6 the mine?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. What -- when you say "administrative process," what --
11 what -- can you just explain to the jury what you mean?

12 A. So, there was -- the miners had filed an appeal based upon
13 something they had received from the BLM.

14 Q. And did the miners -- while that appeal was going on,
15 what, if any, other steps did the miners take?

16 A. While that process was going on, they reached out and
17 asked for militia assistance.

18 Q. And did militias respond to that request?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Including the Idaho 3%?

21 A. Individuals from, correct.

22 Q. Individuals from the Idaho 3%?

23 A. Yes. Individuals from the Idaho 3%.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, she's already explained that

1 this is based on her investigation.

2 THE COURT: Sustained.

3 MS. AHMED: Should I rephrase?

4 THE COURT: If you want to lay a foundation.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. So, did you observe social media postings regarding
7 individuals from the Idaho 3% related to this event?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. And what, if anything, did those postings lead you
10 understand?

11 A. That individuals from that organization responded to this
12 location in Oregon based upon this request.

13 Q. And what did they do when they responded?

14 A. As a whole, all the -- as a whole, the individuals who
15 responded conducted -- and again, this is from big picture --
16 conducted things such as armed patrols of the area and acted
17 somewhat --

18 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Did you -- in the course of this investigation, did you
21 follow the events that were taking place at this mine?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And just stepping back. You indicated -- again, was 24 this -- was this an operation such as what you were referring
25 to yesterday?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what was the name of this operation?

3 A. It was named Operation Gold Rush.

4 Q. Now, in following the events that were taking place during
5 this operation, did you learn what, if anything, these militia
6 groups were doing in relation to that request for help from the
7 miners? Did you learn over the course of your investigation?

8 A. Yes. Conducting activities such as armed patrol.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Did you observe social media postings, including photos
12 and videos?

13 A. I observed social media with images of individuals armed
14 at the site.

15 Q. And based on your investigation, what was their purpose in
16 being there with arms?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Speculation.

18 MR. TANASI: Objection. Relevance to Steven Stewart,
19 Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Foundation.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Lack of personal knowledge.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we're asking her based on her
24 investigation. So I can ask -- I can rephrase to say to the
25 extent you know if -- but -- so I can step back, Your Honor.

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. To the extent that you know and based on your
3 investigation, what was your understanding of their purpose in
4 being present with arms?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Foundation, Your Honor. All she said
6 was she looked at a picture on Facebook -- on social media.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would respond that this is
9 an FBI agent who has testified that she was a case agent
10 following the Idaho defendants who participated in the events
11 of April 2014 and in the course of her investigation she
12 followed this event that was taking place in Oregon, as she's
13 indicated, in Grants Pass, Oregon, and that she followed it and 14 monitored it. She subsequently reviewed social media to
15 include photos.

16 THE COURT: All right. So it wasn't clear to me that
17 her investigation was prior to her following or reviewing. So,
18 she's participate -- why don't you clarify it --

19 MS. AHMED: Sure, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: -- when she's investigating this. Is it
21 contemporaneously with the events or is it after the events
22 occurred?

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Now, you began your investigation into the events of
25 April 12th, 2014, when?

1 A. In April of 2014.

2 Q. And did you continue to investigate that up and through
3 the present?

4 A. Yes. Well, yes. Yeah.

5 Q. In the course of that investigation, you became aware of
6 these events that were taking place in Oregon in April of 2015;
7 is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Did you subsequently investigate what had happened in
10 Oregon?

11 A. To the extent of being aware of the involvement of 12 individuals that I was conducting investigations on from
13 April 12th, yes.

14 Q. So, your investigation in this case involved you following
15 specific subjects; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And those were the subjects that you stated yesterday?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Leading, Judge.

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, this is foundational. She
24 said it yesterday.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. She's already testified to who the

1 individuals are and the foundation is permissible.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. So, and that was Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes. Correct.

6 Q. So, in the course of following these three individuals, is
7 that how you became aware of the events in Oregon in April of 8 2015?

9 A. Correct, as well as in communication with other FBI
10 employees.

11 Q. Now, through your investigation into this case but with
12 the focus on the events in Oregon in April of 2015, this
13 Operation Gold Rush, did you learn if any of the defendants
14 that -- excuse me -- if any of the subjects that you were
15 following participated in that operation?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So, the people who had participated in the April 12th,
18 2014, event, you learned that some of them had participated in
19 this new operation; is that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And who, based on your investigation, participated in this
22 new operation, Operation Gold Rush?

23 A. Mr. Parker. There's photos of that, that I've observed,
24 and Mr. Drexler. I have not observed photos of him there, but
25 other indicators that he was there, Facebook posts.

1 Q. And did you observe photos of other individuals who also
2 participated in this operation?

3 A. Just other individuals?

4 Q. Correct.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And in -- have you observed -- through those photos, did
7 you observe what their activities were at this operation,
8 generally?

9 A. Generally, yes.

10 Q. And what did it appear to you, based on your training and
11 experience?

12 A. Generally, some of the activities involved conducting
13 armed patrols, security-type operations.

14 Q. And what were they patrolling for? What was purpose the
15 controlling the patrols, based on your investigation?

16 A. Based upon the investigation, as well as communication
17 with other FBI employees --

18 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Was your investigation informed by information that was
21 shared amongst FBI employees?

22 A. Yes. Yes. This wasn't --

23 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

24 MS. AHMED: That question, Your Honor, did not elicit
25 any hearsay. I'm just asking if she shared information with

1 other FBI employees.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, she's trying to elicit
3 testimony as to what other FBI employees told her which is
4 being offered for the truth of the matter asserted. We have no
5 way to question the veracity of the statement.

6 THE COURT: All right. So the objection as to what
7 someone else told her, an out-of-court statement, that
8 objection is sustained. The next question was, did you discuss
9 with others or did others discuss with you, something to that
10 effect?

11 MS. AHMED: I don't know if I can repeat the exact
12 question, Your Honor, but the investigation -- was the
13 investigation -- did she share information with other FBI
14 employees in the course of investigating.

15 THE COURT: All right. And the objection is
16 overruled as to that question. That -- the form of that
17 question is appropriate.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, just based on your training and your experience and 20 your investigation that you've done in this case, from the 21 photos that you reviewed in relation to that event, what did it
22 appear that those individuals were doing in -- during Operation
23 Gold Rush in April of 2015?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Vague as to which individuals.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MS. AHMED: Well, Your Honor, I'd actually withdraw
2 that question. I believe the witness has already answered that
3 they were conducting armed patrols.

4 So, let me -- let me ask you a different question.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to counsel's
6 restatement. That's -- I'd move to strike what she just said.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 Go ahead.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, so the question is, from your own knowledge,
14 what you've observed and during your investigation, what was
15 your understanding of what the armed patrols were meant to do?

16 A. My understanding was that they were meant to act as a
17 deterrent to the Bureau of Land Management to have engagement
18 with the miners.

19 Q. Now, in relation to this operation, did you observe
20 Facebook posts made by Eric Parker regarding this event?

21 A. Yes.

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
23 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 99?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 (Exhibit 99 published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, this a post that Mr. Parker shared about
3 that event that we were just discussing?

4 A. Yes. This is a shared link from April -- excuse me -- a
5 shared link from April 11th, 2015.

6 Q. And is there a -- does the link appear to be some sort of
7 article -- does there appear to be a headline associated with
8 the link in this "share," in this post?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Can you read what that is?

11 A. It says, "'Bundy Ranch' type standoff brewing in 12 Southern Oregon between miners and BLM."

13 Q. And what is the date that this post was shared on
14 Mr. Parker's Facebook page?

15 A. April 11th, 2015.

16 Q. And can you read the words that are under that headline,
17 that appear in that top portion but are under that headline
18 that you just read?

19 A. "Grants Pass, Oregon, April" -- O-R being Oregon -- "April
20 11th, 2015."

21 "For the past several years, the miners from the
22 Galice Mining District, about 30 minutes west of Grants Pass,
23 Oregon have been . . ."

24 Q. Now, what we were just talking about this Operation Gold
25 Rush, is -- and I think you indicated where it took place. Can

1 you tell the jury again, what was this operation taking place?

2 A. It was near Grants Pass, Oregon.

3 Q. And there appear to be additional comments posted by
4 Mr. Parker on his account regarding this initial post; is that
5 right?

6 A. Yes, that's correct.

7 Q. And do you see that one that's been zoomed out?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Can you read that to the jury?

10 A. Yes.

11 It says, "Alert. Alert. Alert. Alert.

12 "This is a standby order for all 3%ers and militias.
13 You are not protestors. We need to get head counts and start
14 setting up supply routes. We will have more info by Monday.

15 "Josephine County, Oregon.

16 "We have word from Galice Mining District that BLM
17 has given them a cease and desist order. They are working a
18 mining claim that is believed to be one of the oldest
19 continuing claims in the United States and have the records to 20 prove their rights to the claim. They are protected under the 21 General Mining Act of 1872.

22 "Sheriff Gil" -- correction -- "Sheriff Gilbertson
23 stood between the miners and BLM, protecting their rights under 24 the 1872 law. BLM is testing the new sheriff, Dave Daniel, and
25 where he stands on this issue. He allowed one of the

1 Josephine County's deputies to accompany a BLM ranger to serve
2 the papers on the miners. This is setting up to become a Bundy
3 Ranch type standoff.

4 "They have been given until April 25th to remove all
5 of their mining equipment off the claim, to include a cabin
6 they expect BLM to burn to the ground. Oregon III% is going to
7 support them in whatever capacity we are able to, to include a
8 response team for the protection of their claim. Understanding
9 the dynamics of this group of independent miners, this has the
10 potential to ramp up very quickly. They will be challenging
11 this in the court system, but their first hearing is after
12 April 25th.

13 "Josephine County Sheriff's Office.

14 "601 Northwest 5th Street.

15 "Grants Pass, Oregon, 97526.

16 "Phone Number (541) 474-5123."

17 Q. And did that post -- did that -- did Eric Parker post an 18 additional comment in relation to his post that you've just
19 read?

20 A. Correct. He says, "Posted to Idaho from Oregon," which,
21 to me, from my investigation, indicates he just shared this.
22 He did not write that post I just read.

23 Q. And based on your investigation, when he says, "Posted to 24 Idaho from Oregon," does he mean the Idaho -- posted from the
25 Oregon 3% to the Idaho 3%?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. There are additional comments below that.

3 Do you see those?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And where it says, "Eric Ej Parker," can you read what
6 that says?

7 A. It says, "Call me for details."

8 Q. And then below that where it says "Jason Patrick," what
9 does that say?

10 A. "Coordinates?"

11 Q. And was it a question that was being asked?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And then does Mr. Parker respond to that person's
14 question?

15 A. He writes, "Send me a PM" -- which is a private message --
16 "so I remember and I'll get it to you in the morning, Jason."

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what has been
18 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 100?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 Actually, why don't we go ahead and take our lunch
21 break now.

22 It's 12:06, so I do remind the jury during this break
23 that you are not to discuss this case with anyone, not even
24 your fellow jurors. You may discuss other things with your
25 fellow jurors, but not this case.

1 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that
2 touches upon this case in any way.

3 Do not perform any independent research or
4 investigation nor attempt to do so, and please do not form any
5 opinion until after you have heard all the testimony, seen the
6 evidence. I will provide you with the jury instructions of
7 law. Then you will hear closing arguments and after that I
8 will excuse you to begin your deliberation process, your duty
9 to deliberate and discuss with each other your opinions in
10 effort to attempt to reach a unanimous decision.

11 So, we'll go ahead and take our break now. It's
12 12:07. Plan to be back here at 1:10.

13 (Off-record discussion.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. So plan to be back here at 1:10.

15 Let's stand for the jury so they can be excused and
16 then FBI Special Agent Draper, after they exit -- after the
17 jury exits, then you may also take your brunch break and then
18 we'll need you back here at 1:10, please.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

22 (Recess was taken at 12:08 p.m.)

23 (Outside the presence of the jury at 1:41 p.m.:)

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. You maybe seated.

1 I understand the parties want me to address some
2 other objections before we bring in the jury; is that right?

3 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. We just
4 wanted to go through the Stewart. There are six exhibits for
5 Mr. Stewart's Facebook, so it's his Facebook account that we
6 had -- didn't -- were unable to agree on them and then there
7 was also the question of the booking photos that we have -- we
8 are intending to put in with this witness. I think that there
9 was an objection on those as well.

10 THE COURT: All right. So let's see the first one.

11 MS. AHMED: It's -- I'm sorry, Your Honor. It's
12 Exhibit 117.

13 (Exhibit 117 published.)

14 THE COURT: What's the objection to 117?

15 MR. TANASI: Okay, Your Honor. With respect to 117,
16 I was arguing 106 completeness under what's been redacted and
17 in that the way that it's presented, it's misleading as
18 presented, 117.

19 And so, what I proffered with Ms. Ahmed was 5037a,
20 Defense Exhibit 5037a, which hopefully Brian can bring that up
21 for you so you could look at --

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. TANASI: -- how I was hoping to complete it.
24 5037a.

25 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just -- while it's being

1 pulled up, my understanding is that 5037a is what it would look
2 like if you went to the actual Facebook page on the Internet,
3 but it's numerous posts that are here, not just the two posts
4 that we have included in 117.

5 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor. This is --
6 this is how the actual Facebook post would appear and -- and --
7 but the comment on the bottom, "First they said they were going
8 to release everything and leave. Then they held the gates to
9 Gold Butte and threatened us with chemicals and they pushed
10 forward and had to back off. They are releasing the cows now.
11 BLM is leaving," so that -- that's the one portion that the
12 Government intends to offer and I'm seeking to complete the 13 entire document to avoid misleading the jury to show what my
14 client's state of mind was, which was, "United we stand. We,
15 the people, will be heard in Nevada. No more government
16 bullying."

17 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, those -- those are
18 clearly separate posts. Everything above the bottom post,
19 those are distinctive posts, distinct, separate, and also
20 irrelevant.

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, they're -- again, they're on
22 the same day and looking at the raw data, it's at 3 :47 UTC
23 time that Mr. Stewart posts, "United we stand. We, the people,
24 will be heard in Nevada. No more government bullying," and
25 it's 2:52 that the post related to releasing everything and

1 leaving was made. So, they're close in time and, again, the
2 Government is offering this to demonstrate my client's . . .
3 illegal state of mind, for lack of a better way of putting it
4 on the bridge, and for why he was in Nevada in the first place
5 and entering just this misleading, kind of, excerpt from his
6 Facebook to prove that and the remainder of his Facebook that
7 I'm seeking to admit demonstrates why he went to Nevada.

8 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would just follow-up
9 that this is essentially self-serving hearsay. It's
10 distinctive -- it's distinct from the other post and the other
11 post is not misleading; it's complete. And so, there's no
12 confusion as to what the message in that post that we are
13 seeking to admit as an admission -- there's nothing that's
14 incomplete in that post and the rest of it is self-serving
15 hearsay.

16 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Tanasi, I don't
17 understand why you think that Government's 117 is misleading
18 and requires the extra information on Defense 5037a.

19 MR. TANASI: Because the way that it's presented is
20 the implication that he was on the bridge attempting to extort
21 BLM officers and that's why he was there in the first place and
22 that's what his object was. The language of "pushing forward,"
23 all of that is -- is to imply that he was up there threatening
24 and extorting federal officers. The remainder of the post
25 demonstrates that . . . that's not what he was doing. He was

1 up there standing with other protestors against what he
2 believed was a government bully, or at least protesting against
3 what he believed was a government bully.

4 THE COURT: So, in Exhibit 117, where it says, "Then
5 we pushed forward and they had to back off, they are releasing
6 the cows now and BLM is leaving," you're saying that's
7 misleading and that in 537a, where it says "united we stand,"
8 that's the -- the clarification is that they were standing, not
9 pushing forward so that the government had to back off?

10 MR. TANASI: That's -- that's it, Your Honor. Yes.

11 And I agree there is probably some other portions of 12 that post above it that probably could be redacted and the
13 reason I didn't kind of catch those sooner, I think, was just
14 in an effort of putting this together and putting --
15 screenshotting it and, you know, as I look at it, and yes,
16 we're okay that that probably doesn't go to the same argument
17 that I'm making, so I'm fine with actually, you know, redacting
18 that portion, but the "united we stand" part, I think, is
19 what's critical.

20 THE COURT: All right. And so the Government's
21 position is that it's not in need of clarification because it's
22 an entire statement; it's within its own block for lack of a
23 better word. It's a white block on the page, not -- not within 24 the other white blocks. They're separated by gray lines, so to
25 speak. So, it's threads, I suppose, maybe is the way to refer

1 to them. So the -- they're two separate threads with different
2 commentaries, not part of the same thread.

3 MS. AHMED: And it would also be just self-serving
4 hearsay.

5 THE COURT: So the Government's position is that the
6 united-we-stand-we-the-people-will-be-heard statement posted by
7 Steven Stewart is a self-serving statement by the defendant
8 that would -- is not admissible?

9 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: And again, Your Honor, defines the push.
11 The Government's position is the push is an armed push and an
12 armed standoff and an intimidating standoff. The post on the 13 top shows something different and explains further what that
14 push was.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, he's not available for
16 cross-examination.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I was basing this on 106.

18 THE COURT: Well, it's not part of the same . . .
19 it's not the same -- it's not part of the other statements.
20 It's not part of a recorded statement or writing.

21 It's not admissible under 106. It is not subject to
22 cross-examination at this point yet, so it doesn't look like
23 it's admissible.

24 All right. So Exhibit 117 is admitted. Defense
25 Exhibit 5073a at this time is not admitted, but without

1 prejudice it can be offered later if there's a basis for it to
2 be admitted.

3 (Exhibit 117 received.)

4 MR. TANASI: And just -- so the record is clear, is
5 that in the event my client were to testify it could be offered
6 later? Is that how I'm to understand the ruling?

7 THE COURT: Well, that's part of it. It needs to --
8 it needs to be admissible according to the Rules of Evidence.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 (Exhibit 118 published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next exhibit is 118 and I
12 think we had redacted a comment at the bottom just to be
13 consistent with the concerns the defense had raised yesterday
14 about hearsay because there was a comment at the bottom by a
15 Mr. -- by Steve Hill that said "come back safe" or something to
16 that effect and so, we redacted that and I think Mr. Tanasi
17 wanted that part to be un -- to not be redacted. So, I mean
18 . . . we just left it as -- as-is, but I don't think there was
19 an objection to the rest of the post.

20 THE COURT: Is that right? You objected to the
21 removal of the comment by another individual, "come back safe"?

22 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Isn't that hearsay?

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think, again, it's --
25 it's -- I think it's -- again, falls under the 106 purview and

1 that it's the entire statement or writing to be presented in
2 its entirety so as to not mislead the jury and for fairness.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, it doesn't appear to
4 me -- the writing isn't even really a writing, it's a posting
5 of a photograph image with a title that says "Going to Get the
6 Cattle Back" and then a link to a photo, which is that photo.
7 So, the comment does -- the comment would be extraneous.

8 So, Exhibit 118 with the redaction is admitted.

9 (Exhibit 118 received.)

10 (Exhibit 119a published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, 119a is the next one, and
12 that one, actually, I believe, 119a, counsel had no objection
13 to. It was from the Facebook returns and it's a video that was
14 uploaded -- a link to a video that was uploaded with a comment,
15 "Somebody said they had 104 vehicles." So, 119a, I believe,
16 there was no objection.

17 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. It says -- does that say 118. It
19 looks like 119 on my screen.

20 MS. AHMED: Oh, it's 119a. I apologize.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: 119a. And then --

23 THE COURT: So Exhibit 119a is admitted.

24 (Exhibit 119a received.)

25 MS. AHMED: And then 119b, Your Honor, is the video

1 itself that if you follow that link, it goes to the video and
2 if Your Honor recalls, this was the video that -- where
3 Mr. Stewart was filming the BLM's departure from the ICP and if
4 you -- if Your Honor would like, I can play it now, but
5 Mr. Tanasi did object to the admission of that one.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And what's the objection to 119b?

7 MR. TANASI: Two grounds, Your Honor: One, relevance
8 in that I don't know that it's probative to anything that was
9 occurring on the bridge because at that point they were -- the
10 BLM agents were driving away and so the standoff had concluded.
11 So -- so relevance, and then the other is the prejudicial
12 nature of it outweighs any probative value because there is
13 reference to the word "martyr" that my client uses. That word,
14 I think, inherently has prejudice that would kind of mislead
15 the jury and ultimately prejudice the jury into a conclusion in 16 this case.

17 THE COURT: All right. So as to the objection to --
18 regarding the relevance, the objection is that this video
19 captures events after the bridge event, but the conspiracy
20 spans beyond just the bridge event; right?

21 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor. And -- and it's
22 showing -- it is a part -- this is actually contemporaneous to
23 the event. It's showing the BLM's final departure from the ICP
24 after they had been essentially forced to leave and
25 Mr. Tanasi's commenting -- excuse me -- Mr. Stewart is

1 commenting on the video and -- about the BLM being forced to
2 leave and focusing on law enforcement that's on the bridge with
3 him at the time. And Your Honor is correct, the conspiracy is
4 charged to be ongoing.

5 And just as to the other objection, Your Honor, as to
6 prejudice, obviously is the rule is that it has to be unfairly
7 prejudice. This is his comments at the time showing his intent
8 at the time.

9 THE COURT: So is it just the word "martyr" or is it
10 used in a sentence?

11 MR. TANASI: He uses the word "martyr" and it is part
12 of a sentence. He says something to the effect of that . . .
13 they couldn't kill us or they couldn't stop us, something along
14 those lines, we were going to be martyrs if they did. So
15 again, the use of that word "martyr," I think, has inherent
16 prejudice, especially in this day and age. When I hear that 17 word, Your Honor, my mind goes to Afghanistan or the
18 Middle East or -- not Bunkerville.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, I don't see that it's
20 unfairly prejudiced. If it wasn't prejudicial, the Government
21 wouldn't be seeking to use it. So, the 403 rule is whether or
22 not it's unfairly prejudicial, not just merely whether it's
23 prejudicial and it does appear to be relevant as it captures
24 events occurring during the alleged conspiracy.

25 Is the Government offering it for evidence of intent

1 or just all kinds of different things? I haven't seen the
2 video, so I don't know.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's being offered for -- you
4 know, evidence as to what was occurring at the time, but also
5 for his intent, yes.

6 And sharing it on Facebook, obviously, he would be
7 also -- it would go back to the arguments from earlier, that
8 he's sharing it and alerting other people to what they've
9 achieved, what they're doing.

10 THE COURT: He's adopting, encouraging, recruiting,
11 glorifying, so forth?

12 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, I -- that's certainly
14 seems that it is admissible. Exhibit 119b will be admitted.

15 (Exhibit 119b received.)

16 (Exhibit 120 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: 119 -- excuse me -- 120, Your Honor, is
18 the next exhibit and I believe Mr. Tanasi wanted, again, to
19 include open source Facebook posts in addition to this one that
20 would also have appeared on the actual page, other posts that
21 would have appeared around this one.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, there is no additional pages
23 I -- at this point I'm looking to offer. That was something we
24 discussed and I neglected to tell Ms. Ahmed that, that at this
25 point I'm not trying to add anything else to this particular

1 post.

2 I do -- I did object to it, though, in its entirety
3 on relevance grounds. Again, going back to the date, it's the
4 15th. Again, it's two days or three days after the events in
5 Bunkerville and I -- not to sound like a broken record, that's
6 why I would say it lacks any probative value to the case
7 because it's commenting on an order two days or three days
8 after the events in Bunkerville and the events in Bunkerville
9 were precipitated --

10 THE COURT: Wait. I think we're looking at two
11 different things.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Maybe I'm --

14 MR. TANASI: Apologize.

15 MS. AHMED: Exhibit 120 --

16 THE COURT: The one I'm looking at, Exhibit 120, says
17 is from 4-18.

18 MS. AHMED: I -- the last two are --

19 THE COURT: So, six days later, and it says, "Guys, I
20 only went for the weekend. We helped Cliven Bundy get his 21 cattle back. Straight there; straight back. Two hours of 22 sleep in between."

23 MR. TANASI: That's my mistake, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

25 MR. TANASI: I was looking at the wrong exhibit.

1 So, with that exhibit, I don't think we have an
2 objection and I wasn't seeking to add anything in addition to
3 it as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 120 is admitted.
5 (Exhibit 120 received.)

6 MR. TANASI: Okay.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Parker would object as to hearsay in
8 reference to him. It's not done in furtherance of the
9 conspiracy.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit that it's
11 admissible as to everybody under 801(d)(2)(E).

12 THE COURT: Well, how is it in furtherance of the
13 conspiracy?

14 MS. AHMED: He's basically advising his Facebook
15 friends and followers of what they achieved, which was helping
16 Cliven get his cattle back. Again, Your Honor, it would go
17 back to that glorification which also serves for recruitment
18 and also serves to -- as a deterrent to law enforcement.

19 THE COURT: Well, it's not made to keep others
20 abreast of an ongoing conspiracy activity. I think that was
21 the -- the reason the other one . . .

22 All right. It's 4-18-2014. So, it is during the
23 time period of the conspirators alleged and it is alleged
24 they're all members of the same conspiracy and there's
25 preponderance of the evidence sufficient for the Court to find

1 that element met and it's during the conspiracy. The question
2 is, how is this made in furtherance of the conspiracy for it to
3 qualify as under 801(d)(2)(E).

4 I mean, I agree it's admissible against Mr. Stewart,
5 but I'm not seeing that it's admissible against the other
6 three.

7 (Counsel conferring.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor . . .

9 (Counsel conferring.)

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, maybe I wasn't so artful the
11 first time I said it, but, I guess, my point is that this is a
12 public post he's posting on Facebook explaining what they have
13 just achieved and part of the ongoing conspiracy was that they
14 got the cattle back and that they were going to help him keep 15 the cattle. So, getting the cattle back was the first step in 16 that conspiracy as it's alleged, which was to continue to
17 prevent the law enforcement from taking the action that they
18 were ordered to do by the court in conducting the impoundment.
19 So, the first step of that is getting the cattle back and so in 20 apprising the public of that goal, it's alerting them to the
21 first step of the conspiracy and keeping people apprised of
22 what they've done and so we would say it's in furtherance of 23 the conspiracy because he's telling everybody, "Hey, we've got 24 the cattle back now."

25 THE COURT: All right. So you're saying that it is

1 keeping them abreast of the ongoing conspiracy by publicly
2 stating which of the objectives have been met?

3 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Well . . . all right.

5 So, pursuant to 801(d)(2)(E), Exhibit 120 is
6 admissible as to the other alleged co-conspirators. So, the
7 objection's overruled.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the final exhibit from
9 Mr. Stewart's Facebook would be Exhibit 121.

10 (Exhibit 121 published.)

11 MR. TANASI: So now that we're on the right exhibit,
12 Your Honor, I'll take a stab at it again.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. Thank you.

14 MR. TANASI: Exhibit 121, I object to it on relevance
15 grounds. It's created on 4-15-2014, which is three days after
16 the event in Bunkerville. The events in Bunkerville were
17 premised on court orders and my client's knowledge of violating
18 court orders and the duties that stem from those court orders.
19 This post has no relevance to further the Government's theory
20 in this case in that it's simply a post about Lloyd D. -- the
21 Honorable Lloyd D. George and then his comment that, you know,
22 "These people think that they own us." Again, I -- I think
23 when looking at it in a vacuum, just as it's posted, it has no
24 relevance to the Government's case.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

1 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed?

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd respond that his
3 knowledge of the court orders which, as we all know from the
4 exhibits that have already been admitted, Judge George was the
5 judge on one of the orders that was issued in 2013. His
6 knowledge of the court orders at any time during the conspiracy
7 is relevant to his intent on April 12th, 2014. It's evidence
8 that we would argue is relevant to his intent and, again, he's
9 never withdrawn from the conspiracy so he's still a member of
10 the conspiracy at this time. And the conspiracy itself is also
11 alleged to be ongoing in that they're -- under 372, the charge
12 relating to 372, part of the conspiracy is to prevent the 13 officers from returning and continuing -- attempting to do the 14 impoundment again.

15 THE COURT: Well, it does seem to be relevant to his
16 intent and his absence of mistake in . . .

17 So, Exhibit 121 is admitted.

18 (Exhibit 121 received.)

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: On behalf of Mr. Drexler I would
20 object that it comes in for him for purposes of -- it's not in 21 furtherance of a conspiracy. If it has to do with intent,
22 that's not in furtherance.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

24 THE COURT: And, Ms. Ahmed, what is your response?

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor -- Your Honor, we would submit

1 that again it would come in -- come in as to all of the
2 defendants under 801(d)(2)(E). He's sharing it. He's alerting
3 them to information about this judge and -- who is the author
4 of one of the court orders that they had just impeded and he's
5 furthering their knowledge about the ongoing conspiracy.
6 Riling them up. "These people think they own us."

7 THE COURT: So the riling them up, you're referring
8 to . . .

9 MS. AHMED: And sharing the post and sharing
10 information about the judge that authored the court order that
11 they obviously interfered with on April 12th or that they
12 interfered with on April 12th and then he's commenting on that
13 judge in his own text in the -- sharing this information with
14 all of his Facebook followers, including his co-conspirators.

15 THE COURT: So, that makes it in furtherance of the
16 conspiracy?

17 MS. AHMED: That's what we -- what we would argue,
18 Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. By a preponderance of the 20 evidence that is sufficient. So, Exhibit 121 is admitted as to 21 Mr. Stewart as well as to the other co-conspirators pursuant to
22 801(d)(2)(E).

23 That was the last one?

24 MS. AHMED: That was the last Facebook post,
25 Your Honor. There are also the booking photos as to Mr. Parker

1 and Mr. Stewart and Mr. Drexler. I had the impression that
2 those were -- that counsel was objecting to those, the
3 admission of those as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. Let's look at those.

5 MS. AHMED: Exhibit 129 is Mr. Parker's booking
6 photos.

7 (Exhibit 129 published.)

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects.

9 MS. AHMED: And there's -- it's a multiple page
10 exhibit, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Is that three pages? No, it looks like 12 5.

13 Let's go back to 1.

14 All right. Any objection to Page 1?

15 MR. MARCHESE: I object to all of them. There's 16 no -- in my opinion, there's no reason for any of this to come
17 in. Multiple witnesses have identified Mr. Parker. We have a
18 video of Mr. Parker saying he's Eric from Idaho. There's no
19 reason to bring this in.

20 We have admissions that were read into the record by
21 Agent Seyler of Mr. Parker admitting that he was at the
22 Bundy Ranch. So, the need to identify him with a booking photo
23 at this juncture is overly prejudicial and irrelevant.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed?

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just to be clear. For
3 Exhibit 129, we would primarily seek to admit -- we don't need
4 the first page; we really are only seeking to admit Page 4.

7 Sorry. Page 5. Page 5.

8 THE COURT: So 3, 4, 5, or just 5?

9 MS. AHMED: Just -- just -- I'm sorry, Your Honor.
10 Page 5, which is -- and we're seeking to admit it for the 11 tattoo that appears on his right forearm which you can see in
12 the picture which is a tattoo of the Idaho 3% logo, and that's 13 already come into evidence that that's what that is and we
14 would say that it goes to his -- again, his ties to this
15 movement to the conspiracy. It's evidence that, you know, he's 16 willing to tattoo this on his body, how committed he is to this
17 conspiracy.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Well, Your Honor, I mean, the Court is
19 well aware of my continuing objection in reference to the 3%.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd also just note that there
21 have been times when the jury has been in the courtroom where
22 Mr. Parker's sleeves have been rolled up where the -- that same
23 tattoo has been on display, so . . .

24 MR. MARCHESE: So that's -- then we don't need it.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, I addressed some of

1 this in the -- a Motion in Limine Order 2176, but the photos
2 were not attached to that Motion in Limine so all I could say
3 was that the photos could be of assistance for purposes of
4 identifying. So, I -- I agree that the other -- well, the
5 first page -- well, let's leave it at it's not being sought to
6 be admitted. So the only page that you are seeking to admit of
7 Exhibit 129 is Page 5, which is the picture of
8 Mr. Parker's . . . I guess it would be like belly button up.
9 It looks like it's sort of waist -- well, it's higher than the
10 waist. So mid-section up where you can see his left bicep and
11 right bicep and forearm and then his chest and his face, and
12 the right arm, on the forearm, has stars encircling the outline
13 of the state of Idaho, so the state of Idaho is inside the
14 stars that are circling it and then Roman Numeral III
15 apostrophe "S" is in the middle of the state of Idaho.

16 Since we have seen other shirt, hat, I think there
17 was also something on the Facebook posting with this same or
18 similar consistent marking, it is relevant.

19 So, Exhibit 129, Page 5 is admitted.

20 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 received.)

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, and I would just renew my
22 motion for severance in terms of prejudicial spillover effect.
23 I think, with all due respect to Mr. Parker, that picture is
24 pretty menacing and I think that the image that it portrays has
25 an unfair prejudice to my client. I would offer, maybe as

1 potential alternative relief, possibly just having this
2 redacted so that only the 3%er is demonstrated and shown and
3 the parties stipulate that that's Eric Parker, some -- some way
4 to tone it do down, Your Honor, I guess is what I'm asking for.

5 MR. MARCHESE: We -- generally, we object, but if the
6 Court is going to allow it that's what we would ask, that the
7 right forearm only be shown. The other two tattoos are
8 completely irrelevant.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government has no problem
10 with redacting those other two tattoos.

11 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead then and
12 redact the other two tattoos so you can just see his face and
13 his tattoo and where it is on his arm. That will be fine.

14 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would redact
15 everything above -- oh, just --

16 THE COURT: Just put a box on the other two tattoos
17 that aren't relevant to this particular case.

18 MS. AHMED: Understood.

19 THE COURT: I think that's the objection; right? Is 20 the prejudice to the other -- what the other two tattoos might
21 be symbolic of if they have some other -- or if the jury can be
22 mistaken about what they are or start asking questions about
23 what they mean or what they are.

24 I agree; it's a good idea to just hide the other two
25 tattoos.

1 And then as to how this would be admissible against
2 the co-defendants, I don't see that it would be. Is it being
3 offered against anyone other than Mr. Parker?

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would just ask that it be
5 offered as to Mr. Parker.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 (Exhibit 130 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And then, Your Honor, Exhibit 130 is the
9 next. These are obviously Mr. Stewart's booking photos.
10 We're -- we only need -- we are only seeking to introduce --
11 well, sorry, Your Honor.

12 Going back to Mr. Parker's photo. This is what it
13 would look like. It's on the screen with a redaction.

14 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published.)

15 THE COURT: That's fine.

16 (Exhibit 130 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: And then Exhibit 130. Also a multiple
18 page exhibit. We would only seek to introduce Page 5, this
19 page, and that is, Your Honor, the tattoo, the vine tattoo that
20 appears on the left forearm is also visible in that photograph
21 that we already put into evidence where that's training with
22 Mr. Parker and had helps with identification of Mr. Stewart in
23 that photograph.

24 THE COURT: Any objection to Page 5 of Exhibit 130?

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'd object on one ground --

1 well, relevance and also unfair prejudice to my client.

2 The -- the same as Mr. Marchese had outlined. I
3 don't think identity is at all an issue in the case. Mr.
4 Stewart has been identified on the bridge. He's been
5 identified in a picture with other 3%ers. Putting up pictures
6 to further identify him with tattoos and then also his orange
7 jumpsuit in the back, which everybody -- I think it's pretty
8 common knowledge that that's an arrest jumpsuit, it's an
9 in-custody jumpsuit. I think on those two grounds it's, (a),
10 not relevant to identification in the case, and (b), it's
11 unfairly prejudicial to my client.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just -- that picture
13 where that's training with Mr. Parker wearing 3% -- where they
14 appear to all be wearing 3% T-shirts is a side view of him.
15 You can clearly see the tattoo, you cannot clearly see his
16 face. And so, if Mr. Tanasi is willing to stipulate that that
17 is Mr. Stewart in that picture and then we can do that in front
18 of the jury when they return, then we would not seek to put 19 this exhibit in.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I -- we'd make that
21 stipulation, that he's in that picture, absolutely, but not
22 stipulate that he is a member of the 3%ers just because he's in
23 that picture.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MS. AHMED: That's -- that's not what we're asking,

1 Your Honor. Yes, just that he was in -- that's him that's in
2 that picture.

3 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 130, Page 5 is
4 withdrawn?

5 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. And we would just ask
6 that it be put on the record when the jury returns.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 (Exhibit 131 published.)

9 MS. AHMED: And then, Your Honor, the last exhibit
10 for the booking photos is 131, and this is Mr. Drexler's
11 booking photos and we are only seeking to introduce Page 4 and
12 that -- it's the same -- as you can see on his right arm, on
13 his right arm -- I believe that's his right arm -- that's 14 there's a tattoo of the same symbol that Mr. Parker had which
15 is the Idaho 3% emblem and the word "Bundy" and then some other
16 words underneath that.

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objections as prior counsel
19 noted, that it's unduly prejudicial to my client and it has no
20 relevancy to this. Also, there's the orange jumpsuit, which we
21 try very hard to keep our clients dressed in normal civilian
22 clothes. The marshals are in clothes. They don't see the
23 chains that they're wearing right now, but I would also note
24 that at the bottom he's got some -- on his left wrist he's got
25 some kind of identification it looks to be like, again, it's

1 some kind of booking or bar code of some sort, and obviously,
2 the -- with the right tattoo would have no relevancy at all to
3 this.

4 MS. AHMED: Just responding to the right tattoo,
5 Your Honor, that's clearly visible in the photos from
6 April 12th, 2014. But, in any event, Your Honor, we would --
7 with the stipulation that this is Mr. Drexler's arm, we could
8 simply zoom in on that tattoo that is currently zoomed in on.
9 It would be a little bit blurry, but with the stipulation that
10 that is Mr. Drexler's arm, that this is a tattoo that's on his
11 arm, we could just admit that.

12 THE COURT: All right. So let's redact the photo so
13 that not so much of the orange is showing, but it doesn't have
14 to be -- you don't have to eliminate all of the orange to the 15 point where we can't actually see the tattoo, but I think it
16 would be sufficient to just eliminate some of the orange. It
17 does go to identity. I don't see that it's admissible against
18 co-defendants.

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, I hate to back up,
20 but in reference to Mr. Parker, I understand the Court's
21 ruling. What I would ask for as an alternative, rather than
22 bringing out that photo, and I appreciate the Government trying
23 to redact it, but, to me, it's almost like the darned if you do
24 darned if you don't with asking for a limiting instruction.
25 You almost wind up giving more attention to what you're trying

1 to hide. So by putting the blocking out his chest and his
2 shoulder, to me, it almost makes me think that the jury is
3 going to start wondering what is under there, if this is some
4 sort of swastika or some sort of, you know, horrible tattoo and
5 let their minds wander. What I would be willing to do, and
6 I've already spoken with Mr. Parker, if Agent Draper or
7 Agent Willis or some other witness would just like to have
8 Mr. Parker, he can stand up and just show the tattoo to the
9 jury rather than showing the picture.

10 THE COURT: Do you want to just use the close-up of
11 the tattoo on the -- on Mr. Parker's picture so that --

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would, obviously, prefer
13 to have something that can go back to the jury delirious
14 deliberations. So we can try to do a close-up of that one and 15 see.

16 THE COURT: Because that's what you're doing for
17 Drexler.

18 MS. AHMED: So, for Drexler -- for Drexler I thought
19 we were just going to -- we can do a close-up for both of them,
20 Your Honor. So we'll attempt do that right now.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: So a close-up of the tattoo with as
23 little orange as necessary, but where you can still actually
24 see the tattoo.

25 MS. AHMED: Understood.

1 THE COURT: And then the parties are going to
2 stipulate that that's --

3 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, yeah.

4 THE COURT: -- their tattoo.

5 MR. MARCHESE: And Mr. Parker, he doesn't have the
6 orange problem, or whatever you want to call it.

7 THE COURT: Right. Right. Yeah.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: He just has the other tattoo problem.
10 But regardless, just a close-up of that tattoo with the
11 stipulation who it belongs to, then that way we can still have 12 that available for identification but without any other issues
13 coming up.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there's also -- Exhibit 45a
15 was offered yesterday. That was the video. We withdrew that
16 but we laid the foundation to admit it and then there were
17 objections as to relevance and we had argued the relevance of
18 it. We've created -- we captured screenshots from that video
19 that we would seek to put into evidence, which would be 45b and
20 so Your Honor had reserved ruling on 45a; "b" is just a subset
21 of the photo montage that's depicted in "a" so I wanted to put
22 that before Your Honor now.

23 THE COURT: All right. So how many screenshots?

24 MS. AHMED: It's -- so, 45b is -- it's 19
25 screenshots, but it's all one exhibit. So, and it's -- all of

1 the images depict one of these defendants, or -- or, like, a
2 sign that indicates White Hope Mine or something like that.

3 THE COURT: What's the objection? Is it the same
4 objection, in general, to the other incident after April of 5 2014?

6 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor. We feel that all
7 the after-the-fact incidents are irrelevant, they're not
8 inextricably intertwined, they're outside the course and scope
9 of the conspiracy, and they're too remote in time.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would add that a number of these
11 images have already been brought in, so they would be
12 cumulative. There's -- I mean, they've been brought in
13 numerous time, the same exact picture. So if they want to play
14 the video, we don't have an objection to playing the whole
15 video, but these screenshots are the same exact pictures that
16 they've already introduced into this in terms of what went on
17 at Bundy. There's also other stuff that's --

18 THE COURT: Probably be less cumulative to play the
19 video instead of using the screenshots.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: It -- it puts it more into
21 perspective because when you just have a screenshot of that one
22 photo that's already come in, it puts everything in
23 perspective. It's a -- it's a video and it moves, I guess,
24 rather quickly or differently than when you're just looking at
25 the same picture that you've seen over and over and over and

1 over again. So it would be -- it would be different.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I think there's only two --
3 maybe two to three images that were from Bundy Ranch. The
4 point is that this is a video taken from the Idaho 3% YouTube
5 page. It's titled "Idaho 3% an Overview" and so, the agent was
6 viewing this video that they -- this organization had
7 disseminated and these are the images that are in this video
8 that they are considering an overview for the Idaho 3%. So the
9 three images, the three or four that are from Bundy Ranch are,
10 at most, three or four, but they are including that in an 11 overview of their organization. And then additionally, they
12 have images of these defendants participating in the other two
13 operations. And then Mr. Stewart training -- or the photo of 14 him training with Mr. Parker.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, Stewart would join
16 Mr. Drexler's objections and add, you know, forced to pick
17 between video or a cut up screenshotted version of it, the
18 video would be the better way to play it.

19 THE COURT: All right. So when you say that there
20 are two or three images from Bundy Ranch, do you mean --

21 MS. AHMED: The April 12th --

22 THE COURT: -- the rally outside of the ranch or do
23 you mean the wash?

24 MS. AHMED: I apologize, Your Honor.

25 It's pictures of the defendants on the bridge at the

1 ICP on April 12th, 2014.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And that's not Bundy Ranch --

3 MS. AHMED: No.

4 THE COURT: -- that's the public land.

5 MS. AHMED: Yes. I apologize for that.

6 Your Honor, we -- if the defense is willing to
7 stipulate to the admission of the video, that -- we had offered
8 that yesterday. So, video or stills, it's -- either way is
9 fine. We just -- we don't intend to play the video's audio,
10 because there's no speech or anything associated with the video
11 montage, it's just a song, so we're not seeking to admit the
12 audio, but for the video to play, the montage, there's no
13 objection from the Government, if that's what defense will
14 stipulate to.

15 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 45, the video, no
16 audio, 1 minute in, or Exhibit 45b, the 19 screenshots?

17 MS. AHMED: It's more than one minute, Your Honor.
18 It's probably like three minutes. This is a different one from
19 the one we did before.

20 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

21 MS. AHMED: So this is about a three-minute video
22 montage of photographs compiled into this video, but we
23 would -- yes, that would be 45a and, as Your Honor said, no
24 audio.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And again --

1 THE COURT: All right. It sounds like that's what --
2 that's defendants' preference of those two choices, is the
3 video with no audio, 3 minutes long?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Over my objection, my preference would
5 be the video, the whole video to come in.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: With the audio.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Put it in context on what it is.
9 Otherwise, you're just left with a video and nobody knows what
10 it is. There's music behind it which shows something. It will
11 show something completely different than the still picture or 12 just the -- the -- the video itself. So, if it's going to come
13 in, I'd ask that the --

14 THE COURT: How does the music add to what it is?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because it's -- it's --

16 THE COURT: I mean, I haven't heard it, so I'm not --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's more like an advisement. It's
18 more like, you know, an advisement, than it is anything and
19 that's how it should come in.

20 THE COURT: Like, there's a jingle?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, if you consider heavy metal a
22 jingle, sure. I mean . . .

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: We were going to play it for
25 Your Honor yesterday, so -- and Your Honor was going to watch

1 it and listen to it with the audio and I think the -- you can
2 make that determination.

3 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, and for the record, Lovelien
4 would object to any of it. It's not relevant to him,
5 especially if it's an advisement for the 3%ers with a heavy
6 metal jingle.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, if you -- if this would
8 clarify it, we could play the video for you to see. I mean,
9 it's -- the song does not, to the Government's view, appear to
10 add to the montage of photographs, so . . . it's not a song
11 commenting on the photographs; it's a separate song.

12 THE COURT: Is it a song I've heard of or is it an
13 original?

14 MS. AHMED: I don't know the answer to that,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Are there words to the song --

17 MS. AHMED: Yes.

18 THE COURT: -- or is it just instrumental?

19 Okay. So are there words to the song that I need to
20 be aware of?

21 MS. AHMED: I can't recall the words to the song,
22 Your Honor. I -- to me --

23 THE COURT: Okay. If you want to play it, just play
24 it then.

25 MS. AHMED: Could we ask the defense to play it.

1 We -- our litigation specialist is not here. It's 45a.

2 MR. TANASI: 45a?

3 (Exhibit 45a published.)

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, if it resolves the matter and
5 it -- there's no -- the Government has no objection to the
6 sound coming in then, if that would be the defense stipulation,
7 that the video is admissible with the sound.

8 THE COURT: Is that the defense position, they want
9 the song to be played?

10 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, for the record, you
11 know, Stewart objects to it in its entirety, but if we're
12 trying to fashion some reasonable middle ground, then yes, if 13 it's to be played, then it would be played in its entirety with 14 the audio.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler would join in that.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 For the record, the name of the song is "Soldiers" by 20 the band "Otherwise." The lyrics refer to a perfect day to
21 die. No surrender. We'll never be broken. Fight to the
22 death. We are soldiers and stand shoulder to shoulder. I
23 think a local band.

24 All right. So, Exhibit 45a is admitted, and 45b is
25 withdrawn?

1 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 (Exhibit 45a received.)

4 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, did you want to just --
5 can we just show everybody that -- what we did with the tattoos
6 so that --

7 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

8 MS. AHMED: Can we start with 129, Page 5.

9 Oh, excuse me. This is Mr. Drexler's. 131, Page 5.
10 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published.)

11 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, is that good?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's the best it could be.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I still object to it, but it's better
15 than it was before.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: So my objection will still remain on
18 the record, but . . .

19 THE COURT: I appreciate that. Thanks.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the -- we're still working on
21 129, which is Mr. Parker's, but I can publish it before -- I
22 mean, ask the Court to publish it just to counsel and the
23 witness so that they can see it before it's displayed to
24 everybody.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MS. AHMED: And those were all the objections that I
2 was aware of that -- to raise at this time with respect to the
3 exhibits for this witness.

4 THE COURT: All right. Then let's go ahead and go,
5 Aaron, please, invite the jury to come back. Maybe if you can,
6 let them know there's probably not going to be bathroom break,
7 but we'll take, like, 10 minutes so at least counsel and
8 anybody else that needs to take bathroom break can. So we'll
9 bring the jury back in about 10 minutes and everybody use the
10 bathroom so that we don't need to before the --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, before we --

12 THE COURT: -- break, if possible.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Should I make one more objection
14 after we come back of do you want me to --

15 THE COURT: Well, go ahead and make your objection
16 now.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. You know, the other issue here
18 is authentication. I -- if this is coming in through this
19 witness, I don't know if there's a foundation that this witness
20 was at the arrest or saw these pictures or can verify these
21 pictures. I don't know that. So I would object on those
22 grounds as well. I don't know if we ever got there.

23 THE COURT: Oh, for the booking photos, you mean?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: The foundation for the booking photos?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: The booking photos. I -- I -- we
2 never got there, whether this witness can even, you know,
3 testify to these, whether she saw them, they're accurate,
4 they're true, I don't know that. So . . . and it's just
5 another ground that I would object to on those grounds.

6 THE COURT: All right. So noted.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: May I confirm the exhibits
8 that were admitted, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes. Let's do that.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Let me know when you're
11 ready.

12 I believe it started with 117.

13 THE COURT: Oh, yeah. I'm on the wrong page.

14 117 was admitted. Then 118.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 119a.

16 THE COURT: 119a. 119b.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 119b; 120; 121, Page -- or
18 129, Page 5 redacted, as to Parker only.

19 THE COURT: Page 5 only. Yes. Right.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 131, Page 5 redacted.
21 Was that to Mr. Drexler only?

22 THE COURT: Stewart is -- Exhibit 30, Page 5 is
23 Stewart.

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I believe that one was
25 withdrawn, Your Honor.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it was withdrawn based on the
2 stipulation --

3 THE COURT: That's right. I see. I see the "W" now.
4 You're right.

5 So 131, Page 4 is the Drexler tattoo with the
6 redaction only admitted as to Drexler.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay.

8 And 45b was withdrawn and 45a was admitted.

9 THE COURT: Correct.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay. Thank you, Your
11 Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Off record.

14 (Recess was taken at 2:35 p.m.)

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

17 You want to go ahead and call in the jury?

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

19 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 (Jury returned to courtroom at 3:06 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
23 seated.

24 Welcome back. We're going to resume with
25 direct-examination of FBI Special Agent Sarah Draper by

1 Ms. Ahmed.

2 Go ahead.

3 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Your Honor, may we publish what's been previously
5 admitted as Exhibit 103?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 103 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, for both the jury and for the
9 record, I wanted to note that the parties stipulated that the
10 individual that's on the viewer's right is, in fact, the 11 defendant Mr. Steven Stewart.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Tanasi, you agree?

13 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. The record will so note.

15 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 And may we move to Exhibit 100, which is also
17 previously admitted?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 100 published.)

20

21 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SARAH DRAPER

14 of we the people mounting an effective resistance to your

16 Q. And where it says "two for two," based on your
17 investigation, what is that referring to?

18 A. Based upon my investigation, that would be referring to
19 the Bundyville -- the Bundy Ranch standoff as well as this
20 operation.

21 MS. AHMED: And can we go to Page 2 of Exhibit 100.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Did Mr. Parker also make a post in the comment section in 24 relation to that post?

25 A. Yes, he did.

3 miners and citizens of Josephine County in the BLM parking lot,
4 'Don't worry about the guns, folks, we've got the guns. What
5 we need is support. 10 people for every man in the field.'

8 Q. And was this post -- this comment made on May 20th of 9 2015?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And is he referring to the Operation Gold Rush which you

21 A. The Galice Mining District. I don't remember the exact
22 mine.

23 Q. The mine was in the Galice Mining District?

24 A. Yes. Sorry.

25 MS. AHMED: And may we go -- can we go to the next

1 page?

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Were there additional comments made on this post?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And do you see, at the top of the third page of Exhibit
6 100, two comments?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the first one being made by a Facebook user called
9 Todd Engel; correct?

10 A. Correct.

12 Engel?

13 A. He was another person from Idaho who had participated in
14 Bundy Ranch as well as this Oregon operation.

15 Q. And when you say "Bundy Ranch," do you mean the
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. Yes. Correction. The April 12th, 2014, events.

18 Q. And can you read the comment that user posted?

19 A. "Get you some!"

20 Q. And did Mr. Parker made an additional comment with respect
21 to this post?

22 A. He did.

23 Q. What did he say?

24 A. "security stays in place until he gets a court
25 date . . ."

1 Q. And again, is this in reference to the Operation Gold
2 Rush?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: And can we go back to the first page of
5 Exhibit 100, please.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. And there is also a picture that was posted in relation to
8 this Facebook post that Mr. Parker made?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And can you describe the -- bless you -- bless you,
11 Your Honor -- can you describe the content of the photo that
12 was included in this post, just generally?

13 A. Three individuals displaying their middle fingers with the
14 3% of Idaho flag behind them.

15 Q. And do you recognize any of the subjects as being the 16 subjects that you were following -- any of the individuals in
17 this picture being one of the subjects that you were following
18 in this investigation?

19 A. Yes. Mr. Parker's in the middle.

20 Q. Now, in the course of your investigation -- well, I'm
21 sorry. I just wanted to back up.

22 When I asked you that, "that's two or two fascists,"
23 you indicated that was both -- you said Bundy -- the Bundy
24 Ranch incident, meaning April 12th, 2014; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And what was the other one?

2 A. This Oregon operation at the mine.

3 Q. Now, in the course of this investigation, did you continue
4 to follow the subjects that you've previously indicated in
5 August of 2015?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And in doing so, did you learn of some of their
8 participation -- some of them participated in an additional
9 operation?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what was that operation?

12 A. That was another -- another operation with miners, this
13 one involving the U.S. Forest Service in Montana, in western
14 Montana, in August of 2015.

15 Q. And did Mr. Parker -- in your investigation, did you see
16 that Mr. Parker made posts on his Facebook regarding this
17 operation?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
20 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 108?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 (Exhibit 108 published.)

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Agent Draper, what is -- what is exhibit -- what does
25 Exhibit 108 contain?

1 A. This is from Mr. Parker's Facebook page and it contains
2 two photos that Mr. Parker has shared from another Facebook
3 user's posts.

4 Q. And on what date did he share this post?

5 A. August 20th of 2015.

6 Q. And what is depicted in the left photo -- the viewer's
7 left, excuse me.

8 A. Based upon what is at the bottom, "Share! Operation Big 9 Sky! More information here," I conclude this is a photo of 10 individuals who were --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Can you just describe the contents of the photo generally.

14 A. Yes. It's a group of individuals.

15 Q. And what, if anything, is depicted behind them?

16 A. 3% -- a flag with a 3% logo on it, the blue field.

17 Q. And do any of the individuals include the subjects that
18 you were following in this investigation?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Can you circle who you see and identify them?

21 A. (Indicating) Mr. Drexler.

22 MS. AHMED: And for the record the witness has
23 circled an individual standing on the far left side of this
24 picture.

25 THE WITNESS: And then this one (indicating) is

1 Mr. Parker.

2 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has
3 circled an individual that's second to the far left on the
4 bottom front.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. And can you tell from that picture what, if anything, is
7 on the T-shirts that both Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker are
8 wearing?

9 A. It appears to be the 3% of Idaho logo.

10 Q. And then turning to the picture that's on the right, what
11 is depicted in that picture?

12 A. It's Mr. Parker.

13 Q. And what, if anything, does he have in his arms?

14 A. Carrying a rifle.

15 Q. And are -- and what, if anything, does he appear to be
16 wearing that's of note?

17 A. It appears to be a tactical vest and he has a hat that
18 appears to be of the 3% of Idaho logo on it.

19 Q. And there appear to be words on that picture as well.

20 Do you see those?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. And can you read them to the jury?

23 A. "Montana Defenders of the Republic."

24 Q. And this operation that you indicated that took place in
25 August of 2015, was it in Montana?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 Q. And based on your investigation, what was the name of the
3 operation?

4 A. Operation Big Sky.

5 Q. And what, if any, groups that the defendants are -- that
6 your subjects are affiliated with participated in this
7 operation?

8 A. Members of the 3% of Idaho participated.

9 Q. Now, turning to the bottom of this post --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- do you see where it says, "Blaine Cooper added two 12 photographs"?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And then it says, "with Schuyler Barbeau and 16 others."

15 Do you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And based on your investigation, who is Schuyler Barbeau?

18 A. Schuyler Barbeau is an individual from Washington state
19 who had also participated in this operation as well as Bundy --
20 events on -- of Bundy Ranch events.

21 Q. In April of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, at the bottom of the post, of this portion of the 24 post, can you read what it says down there (indicating),
25 starting with "share"?

1 A. "Operation Big Sky! More information here," and then
2 there's a website address for a press release from the Pacific
3 Patriots Network.

4 MS. AHMED: And can we come out of the zoom on this
5 exhibit.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Did Mr. Parker make additional comments to this post?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what did he say?

10 A. On August 20th, 2015, he said, "Shifts . . . still need
11 volunteers."

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
13 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 109?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 109 published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a post that Mr. Parker shared
18 on his Facebook on August 20th, 2015?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what -- what is it that he shared?

21 A. It's a video from Blaine Cooper's Facebook page.

22 Q. And looking at the screen, there appears to -- that you
23 can see a still from that video; correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And looking at that still, can you identify any of the

1 subjects that you were investigating in relation to this case?

2 A. May I write on the screen?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 THE WITNESS: Oh, thank you, Your Honor.

5 This is Mr. Drexler (indicating).

6 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has drawn
7 a circle around the individual on the far left and identified
8 that person as Mr. Drexler.

9 THE WITNESS: And Mr. Parker (indicating).

10 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle on the 11 individual on the right and identified him as Mr. Parker.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And do you know who the person in the middle of the 14 picture is?

15 A. That's Blaine Cooper.

16 Q. And based on your investigation, Mr. Cooper was also a
17 participant in the events of April 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, is this -- so, did Mr. Parker, was he sharing the 20 video -- a video in this post?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And were there also -- was he also sharing words that
23 appear at the bottom of the post?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Can -- starting with "breaking," can you please read that

1 to the jury?

2 A. Yes.

3 "Breaking. Share. Get viral. Operation Big Sky
4 armed patriots and Oath Keepers from across the U.S. show up to
5 defend Constitution. What's it all about? Watch our report
6 and the dispute between the U.S. Forest Service and miners in a
7 small Montana town."

8 Q. Have you viewed the video that was uploaded on this
9 Facebook post?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
12 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 48a?

13 THE COURT: What number was that?

14 MS. AHMED: 48a, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: 48a. Yes, you may.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And, Agent Draper, you've previously reviewed Exhibit 48a;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And is that the video that was posted in the last exhibit
21 that we just saw?

22 A. Yes.

23 (Exhibit 48a published.)

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. And again, Agent Draper, looking at this video, who is the

1 individual on the far left?

2 A. I -- on my far left --

3 Q. On the viewer's far left.

4 A. -- or from -- on the video side?

5 It's Mr. Drexler.

6 Q. And who is the individual on the far right?

7 A. Mr. Parker.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
9 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 114?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Ms. Ahmed, if you open up
12 the tool bar on the touch screen, click the button that has the
13 "T" in the lines, I believe, change that line thickness a
14 little thicker so it's more viewable.

15 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

16 (Exhibit 114 published.)

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 114?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And what is this?

21 A. This is a post from Mr. Parker's Facebook page.

22 Q. And it looks like it says "13 hours."

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And normally that's where the date and time would appear?

1 A. Correct. Depending upon when it was captured. If it was
2 captured after that date, the date would appear there.

3 Q. So if the post was captured the same date that the date
4 was -- that the post was created, what would it show?

5 A. Just amount of hours since.

6 Q. And just generally, in what time frame was this post
7 captured or -- excuse me -- created?

8 A. December of 2015.

9 Q. And can you read -- this is a post that Mr. Parker made to 10 his Facebook page?

11 A. Yes, that's correct.

12 Q. And can you read it -- read the post to the jury?

13 A. "Alert. Patriot kidnapped by FBI and U.S. marshals.

14 "My friend Schuyler Barbeau has been kidnapped by the 15 FBI and the U.S. marshals. They have him on trumped up weapons
16 charges. They found no weapon (short barreled rifle) or
17 explosive or detonators that they were looking for. Didn't
18 find them because they don't exist. He helped stand down the
19 BLM at the Bundy Ranch, the BLM at the mine in Oregon, the USFS
20 at the mine in Montana, and county of . . ." and then it -- the 21 post cuts off.

22 Q. And below that, there appears to be some information.

23 Do you see what that is?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And just generally, what is the information that was being

1 shared with this post?

2 A. That would be the booking information for Mr. Barbeau.

3 Q. And is there a date that indicates when he was booked?

4 A. December 6th, 2015.

5 Q. And then going back up to the -- and for the record, the
6 witness circled the date.

7 Going back up to the top part of the post, which was
8 Mr. Parker's words, where it says "he helped stand down the BLM
9 at the Bundy Ranch," what is -- is that referring to the events
10 of April 12th, 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And the BLM at the mine in Oregon, what event that is
13 relating to?

14 A. That would be the Operation Gold Rush in -- in the Galice
15 Mining District.

16 Q. And with respect to "the USFS at the mine in Montana,"
17 what operation is that?

18 A. That would be Operation Big Sky from August time frame of 19 2015.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what the Court
21 admitted yesterday as Exhibit 102?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 I think this is . . . one of those times when I told
24 the jury that sometimes I will give you a limiting instruction
25 letting you know that if a particular piece of evidence is

1 being introduced for a limited purpose, that means you can only
2 consider it for that limited purpose and for no other purpose.
3 So, in this case, Exhibit 102 is being admitted only for the
4 limited purpose of demonstrating intent, absence of mistake,
5 and motive. And so, therefore, you may only consider it for
6 that limited purpose and not for any other reason.

7 All right. You may go ahead and publish Exhibit 102.

8 (Exhibit 102 published.)

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Agent Draper, is this -- can you explain to the jury what
11 is contained -- just generally, what is this Exhibit 102?

12 A. Yes. This is a -- this is a comment Mr. Parker made on
13 his Facebook page in a series of comments in regards to a
14 picture that was posted.

15 Q. And so, there was a picture posted on Mr. Parker's
16 Facebook page?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And then comments were made --

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. -- under that photo?

21 A. Correct, yes.

22 Q. And this is one of the comments that Mr. Parker posted?

23 A. Yes. Mr. Parker posted this.

24 Q. And when was it posted?

25 A. June 12th of 2015.

1 Q. And can you read the first four lines of this post?

2 A. "McVeigh didn't accomplish shit. I'll even pretend for a
3 minute like he wasn't an idiot that got set up by the FBI. The
4 only thing he accomplished was getting himself executed and
5 attaching a stigma to the movement for a decade."

6 Q. And in the context of this -- the full post which you
7 reviewed and based on your investigation, who is he referring
8 to when he says "McVeigh"?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

10 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

11 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the question is limited on
14 her review of the entire -- the entire post and the comments
15 above this post.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Still speculating.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I can ask additional
18 foundational questions.

19 THE COURT: Lay a foundation, yes.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Did you review the comments above this post?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. And did those comments also make reference to a person
24 named McVeigh?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And from those comments, did you understand -- have an
2 understanding of who that person was?

3 A. Yes.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to hearsay
5 then.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. And is this response being given in response to those
8 comments directly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And based both on the comments above this post and the 11 context of the statement itself, do you have an understanding
12 of who McVeigh is?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I continue?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Can you explain to the jury who McVeigh is that this post
18 is referring to?

19 A. I said it would be in reference to Timothy McVeigh who is
20 responsible for the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Building
21 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

22 Q. And can you continue to read from "now what did I
23 accomplish"?

24 A. Yes, I will.

25 "Now what did I accomplish in the past two and a half

1 years. About half a year before the Bundy Ranch a small group
2 of friends and I got together and agreed that we had all had
3 enough and we had to get proactive. We promised each other
4 that we would meet once a week to work on prepping and
5 training. Prior to that, I had never even held an AR-15, maybe
6 once or twice. We acquired weapons and became familiar with
7 them. We watched current events closely and we prepped for
8 failure of government. The right time presented itself and we 9 decided to stand."

10 Continuing?

11 Q. Please continue.

12 A. Okay.

13 "Decisions were made. Lines were drawn. Something
14 very similar happened in 1770, except nobody died at the ranch.
15 1770 was the Boston Massacre. The invading fascist force left
16 the field. Spent the next couple of months waiting for them to 17 come bag my head, but they didn't. Do you know why they
18 didn't? Because we did it right. You stay within the confines
19 of the law, the Bill of Rights and do it publicly in the light.
20 We joined the Idaho 3%. We network, recruit, and train. Lo
21 and behold, spring came around and we had another opportunity.
22 The situation was right. Rick, at the Sugar Pine Mine was in
23 the right. Through our networking, we were asked as a group to
24 come do security and vetting. The public call for security
25 teams to come help was made and a lot of the same people that

1 showed up in Nevada showed up in Oregon. The reason being the
2 lines in the sand that were drawn and the oath taken on
3 individual's souls will never go away. Bonds were made. Those
4 individuals will never stop and the idea that the men and women
5 who are standing next to them in Nevada may be standing
6 somewhere else will light that fire and they will be there.
7 That is a paradigm shift.

8 "We were 10 times better and more efficient at Sugar
9 Pine Mine. We won without a standoff and the professionalism
10 of the vetting kept any would-be" -- blank -- "away.

11 "From where I'm standing, you're the only one that
12 hasn't done anything. Get active or shut the f-u-c-k up."

13 Q. Based on your investigation, what is the Sugar Pine Mine?

14 A. That was the mine in Oregon.

15 Q. That was the name of the mine?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. In Oregon?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. In relation to Operation Gold Rush?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been, I
22 believe, stipulated for admission as Exhibit 49, Page 3.

23 THE COURT: 49, Page 3. Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 49, Page 3 published.)

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. Now, Agent Draper, you indicated yesterday that you
2 obtained search warrants for not just Mr. Parker's account, but
3 also for other -- the other two subjects as well; correct?

4 A. Yes, that's correct.

5 Q. Looking at Exhibit 49-3, can you explain to the jury, just
6 generally, what is this?

7 A. This is a Facebook Certificate of Authenticity for the
8 account belonging to Mr. Drexler.

9 Q. And, so, a search warrant was submitted for Mr. Drexler's
10 account?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And Facebook returned documents?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And they provided also this certificate?

15 A. Correct.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
17 admitted -- stipulated for admission as Exhibit 123?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 123 published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Looking at Exhibit 123, Agent Draper, is this a page from
22 the Facebook Business Records that you received in response to
23 the search warrant?

24 A. Yes. This is.

25 Q. And what is depicted in Exhibit 123?

1 A. This is a photograph posted on -- a profile picture posted
2 by Mr. Drexler of him.

3 Q. And based on your investigation, is that photograph from
4 April 12th, 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And is that the bridge from April 12th, 2014?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And what does Mr. Drexler appear to be holding?

9 A. He appears to be holding a rifle.

10 Q. Now, is this -- can you explain to the jury, in terms of a
11 Facebook post, what kind of post was this? What did -- how did
12 it come on to Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

13 A. Well, this would be under a profile photo.

14 Q. And, again -- sorry. What is a profile picture, on
15 Facebook?

16 A. That would be the image an individual uses which is
17 connected with their -- their vanity name, so the name that you
18 see on the screen with them when they make posts.

19 Q. And so, Mr. Drexler made this his profile picture on his
20 Facebook account?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. On what date?

23 A. April 15th, 2014.

24 Q. And so, would that be three days after the April 12th
25 standoff?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And looking at the bottom of that page, were there
3 comments on that profile picture?

4 A. Yes. One user made a comment and then Mr. Drexler
5 replied.

6 Q. And what did that user say?

7 A. "Careful. Bridges are choke points."

8 Q. And what response did Mr. Drexler post?

9 A. He posted, "That's why we use them to shut down the 10 freeway."

11 Q. And when did he make that response?

12 A. April 17th.

13 Q. Of 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that's five days after the April 12th standoff?

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
18 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 124?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 (Exhibit 124 published.)

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Agent Draper, is this another -- is Exhibit 124 also a
23 business record received from Facebook in response to the 24 search warrant?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And what's -- zoomed out, are these two posts that were
2 made on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And in what -- chronologically, are they going from the
5 bottom up or the top down?

6 A. Bottom up.

7 Q. So turning to the bottom post, can you just explain to the
8 jury what was actually posted to Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

9 A. This is -- this is an article with a picture attached
10 titled "The Bundy Crisis in Nevada." There's text there
11 written by the Facebook user. Says, "Nice pic, Eric," and
12 there's a summary and I can explain what summary is.

13 Q. Did you -- after testifying yesterday, did you
14 investigate --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- how that summary field is populated on Facebook?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what is your understanding, based on your
19 investigation?

20 A. Based upon my investigation, it's some content from the
21 original article that is being attached or posted, generally a
22 couple of sentences from the first paragraph.

23 Q. Now, so, here, you indicated that there was an article
24 that was being shared on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page. What is
25 the title of that article?

- 1 A. "The Bundy Crisis in Nevada."
- 2 Q. And did you actually go to that link and see the article?
- 3 A. Yes.
- 4 Q. And what, if any, picture shows when you load the article?
- 5 A. It's a picture of Mr. Parker kneeling on the bridge on
- 6 April 12th, 2014, holding a rifle.
- 7 Q. And so, where it stays "text," is that a comment that was
- 8 posted by Mr. Drexler?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. And what did he say?
- 11 A. "Nice pic, Eric."
- 12 Q. And what date did he make this post?
- 13 A. April 15th, 2014.
- 14 Q. And in the summary section, so you've indicated that's
- 15 content that was pulled out of the article itself; correct?
- 16 A. Correct.
- 17 Q. Can you read what that says?
- 18 A. "If you don't know the story of Cliven Bundy in Nevada,
- 19 it's time to get up to speed."
- 20 Q. Now, did Mr. Drexler -- the top post, was that also made
- 21 on April 15th, 2014?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. And what was the top post? What kind of post is that?
- 24 A. This is a Reuters article.
- 25 Q. So was Mr. Drexler sharing another news article?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And so, where it says "Url," is that the link to the
3 article?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And then going up from that, to the title, what was the
6 title of the article?

7 A. "Nevada Ranching Family Claims Victory as Government
8 Releases Cattle."

9 Q. And just going -- skipping text, we'll come back to
10 that -- but where it says summary, can you read what is
11 indicated in the summary section?

12 A. "Bunkerville, Nevada, (Reuters) - U.S. officials ended a
13 standoff with hundreds of armed protestors in the Nevada desert
14 on Saturday, calling off the government's roundup of cattle it
15 said were illegally" -- and then the summary cuts off.

16 Q. And in the "text" section, again, is that content that was
17 posted by Mr. Drexler?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what does it say?

20 A. "But it looks like we may have to go back."

21 Q. And, again, this post was made on what date?

22 A. April 15th, 2014.

23 Q. And that's three days after the April 12th standoff?

24 A. Correct.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was

1 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 125?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 (Exhibit 125 published.)

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Agent Draper, in addition to the documents that you
6 received back from Facebook in response to the search warrant,
7 were other -- did you continue to monitor Mr. Drexler's
8 Facebook page?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And were other posts captured as evidence, from his page?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And looking at Exhibit 125, is that one such posting made
13 on his Facebook page?

14 A. Correct. This is part of a capture that shows a cover
15 photo and a profile picture.

16 Q. And on what date was this captured from the Facebook page?

17 A. May of 2015. May 4th.

18 Q. So, in May of 2015, was this the profile picture and the
19 cover photo that appeared when you went to Mr. Drexler's
20 Facebook page?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And can you just -- starting with the profile picture, can
23 you indicate where it is and describe -- can you indicate where
24 it is by touching the screen.

25 A. Um . . . the profile picture (indicating).

1 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle around
2 an area that's in a small box on the left side, the viewer's
3 left.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Can you describe what is the content of the profile
6 picture?

7 A. It has the words "I am the" Roman Numeral III. "I am the
8 III Percent" and there should be 13 stars around it. 13 stars
9 around it.

10 Q. And then can you indicate where the cover photo appears?

11 A. (Indicating).

12 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circular
13 shape around the -- of the larger rectangle in the picture.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. And can you describe what is contained in the pro- -- in
16 the cover photo, excuse me?

17 A. It shows the back of an unidentified individual wearing a
18 T-shirt holding some type of firearm.

19 Q. And what are the words on that T-shirt?

20 A. "When all else fails . . . vote from the rooftops."

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
22 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 126?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 126 published.)

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a Facebook post made by
2 Mr. Drexler on his Facebook account?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what is the date of this post?

5 A. Well, it says April 20th. I know it to be April 20th of
6 2015, because this was part of that same capture from May of
7 2015. So it would have the year on it if it was a different
8 year other than the one during which it was viewed.

9 Q. So, this is a post made in April of 2015?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And is that the time of when the Operation Gold Rush was 12 taking place?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what post -- what did Mr. Drexler -- what is this post
15 here?

16 A. "And this is how we take our country back. Glad I got to 17 spend a few days in Oregon."

18 Q. And does the post continue on the next page?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So along with that comment, did he also share a video?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what is the title of the video as it appears here?

23 A. "Idaho III Percent - Call to Action for Sugar Pine Mine."

24 Q. And what is the description of the video that's provided
25 here?

1 A. "III Percent groups are called on to support the
2 constitutional defense operation at Sugar Pine Mine in southern
3 Oregon."

4 Q. And does it appear that there's also a video embedded with
5 this post?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And so, the comment that we saw on the previous page --
8 going back to Page 1 of this exhibit -- on Facebook, this --
9 that -- both that video and this comment, they were all made
10 together as one post?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. But the portion that's displayed now, these are
13 Mr. Drexler's words; correct?

14 A. Yes, these are.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's
16 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 127?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 127 published.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Now, Agent Draper, looking at Exhibit 127, is this a post
21 that appeared on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And did this appear on his page in May of 2015?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Now, the post -- who -- who made this post?

1 A. Mr. Parker.

2 Q. And based on your investigation and experience with 20 Q. And do you know that from the field that says "uploaded"?

21 A. Yes, that's correct.

22 Q. And above that, where it says "album name," what is the
23 album name?

24 A. "Mobile Uploads."

25 Q. And what does that mean, "Album Name," "Mobile Uploads"?

1 A. That would be an image that was uploaded from a mobile
2 device.

3 Q. And was there any information -- statement or title or
4 caption included with the photograph?

5 A. On the second line down, at "title," is -- are the words
6 "going to get the cattle back."

7 Q. And is that something that would have to have been entered
8 by the Facebook user?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So it was essentially the title given to this photograph?

11 A. That's correct.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
13 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 119a?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 119a published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, is this another Facebook Business Record

20 A. Yes, this is.

21 Q. And looking at the post that has been zoomed in on in
22 Exhibit 119a, what is this?

23 A. This is an upload of a video.

24 Q. And so, was this a video that was uploaded by the account
25 holder --

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- to Mr. Stewart's account?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And did Mr. Stewart also describe the video when he

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Agent Draper, based on your investigation, whose voice is

10 A. Mr. Stewart's.

11 Q. And from your investigation, again, looking at the content

13 A. It's when BLM was leaving the ICP on April 12th.

14 Q. 2014?

15 A. 2014.

16 Q. And just going back, briefly, to Exhibit 119a, and going
17 on to the second page, on -- zooming in on that top part. Is 18 this a continuation of that post where the video was shared?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What -- on what date was the video shared?

21 A. Because this is UTC time, again, subtracting seven hours
22 from what shows as 1:01, it would be approximately 6:01 p.m. on
23 April 12th, 2014.

24 Q. And is that the same day as the standoff?

25 A. Yes.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
2 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 121?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Exhibit 121 published.)

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 Q. So, going from the bottom of this post upward, where it
18 says "Url," what is shared there?

19 A. A biography from U.S. -- the Nevada district court.

20 Q. And is there a link to that biography?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And so, where it says "Url," is that the actual link that
23 he shared?

24 A. Correct. That is the actual link.

25 Q. Going one line up where it says "title," what is the title

1 of the information or the link that was shared?

2 A. "U.S. District Court - District of Nevada - Home."

3 Q. And then going up two lines to where it says "summary,"
4 what does it say in the summary description for that link that
5 was shared?

6 A. Judge Lloyd D. George was appointed United States District
7 Judge for the District of Nevada by President Ronald Reagan in
8 May 1984. He served as Chief United States District Judge from
9 1992 to 1997, and assumed senior status in December 1997."

10 Q. And did Mr. Stewart make a comment on this post as well?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what is that comment?

13 A. "These people think they own us."

14 Q. And is that found in the "text" field?

15 A. It is.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what has been
17 previously admitted as Exhibit 3?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 3 published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Agent Draper, in your investigation -- based on your

23 A. This appears to be an order, court order.

24 Q. And is it in the case of United States vs. Cliven Bundy?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And turning to Page 5, do you see where -- there appears
2 to be a signature.

3 Do you see that?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And what is the name of the judge that authored this Court
6 order?

7 A. Lloyd D. George, United States District Judge.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
9 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 120?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 (Exhibit 120 published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a Facebook page that Facebook
14 provided in response to the search warrant for Steven Stewart's
15 account?

16 A. Yes, this is.

17 Q. And looking at it, is this a post that was made by
18 Steven Stewart on his Facebook account?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And on what date was this post made?

21 A. April 18th, 2014.

22 Q. And so, is that six days after the April 12th standoff?

24 Q. And what is the post that he actually made? What was the
25 content of that post?

1 A. "Guys, I only went for the weekend. We helped
2 Cliven Bundy get his cattle back. Straight there; straight
3 back. 2 hours of sleep in between."

4 MS. AHMED: Now, Your Honor, may we publish what was
5 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 129, Page 5?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MS. AHMED: And can we first show that just to
8 counsel and the witness?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published to witness.)

11 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish it to the
13 jury?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 This one doesn't have a number on it. Doesn't have
16 a --

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we'll add that exhibit
18 sticker to reflect that this is Page 5 of Exhibit 129.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published.)

21 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, for the record, it was
22 stipulated by the parties that this exhibit depicts the arm of 23 the defendant, Mr. Eric Parker.

24 THE COURT: Is that right?

25 MR. MARCHESE: It's a correct statement, Your Honor.

1 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Agent Draper, can you describe what is displayed on the
5 screen as Exhibit 129, Page 5?

6 A. That's Mr. Parker's arm as stipulated, and that's a tattoo
7 on it of the 3% of the Idaho logo.

8 Q. Based on your investigation, did he have that tattoo in
9 April of 2014?

10 A. No.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
12 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 131, Page 5?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 MS. AHMED: And, again, just for counsel and the
15 parties -- excuse me -- the witness and the parties.

16 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published to witness.)

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: 131?

18 MS. AHMED: 131, Page 5.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the jury
21 Exhibit 131, Page 5?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published.)

24 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, the parties have also
25 stipulated with respect to Exhibit 131, Page 5, that this is

1 the arm of the defendant O. Scott Drexler.

2 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Leventhal?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct, Your Honor. Thank
4 you.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury, what is
8 depicted in Exhibit 131, Page 5?

9 A. This is a tattoo on the arm of Mr. Drexler as stipulated.
10 The center portion is the 3% of Idaho logo. The top is the
11 word "Bundy" and what appears to be in kind of a tab in a
12 military style, and underneath are two blocks containing
13 additional letters which, from my investigation, I believe to
14 be "OGR" and "OBS."

15 Q. And what does "OGR" stand for?

16 A. Operation Gold Rush and Operation Big Sky.

17 Q. So the "OGR" stands for Operation Gold Rush and the "OBS"
18 stand for what?

19 A. Operation Big Sky.

20 Q. And were these the two operations that you described that
21 took place after April of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

24 did Mr. Drexler have any of these tattoos in April of 2014?

25 A. No.

1 (Counsel conferring.)

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I apologize. For the record,
3 it's actually Exhibit 131, Page 4 that was entered by
4 stipulation and which we have just displayed and gone over.

5 THE COURT: All right. So please make sure you mark
6 these --

7 MS. AHMED: I will, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- so that we're clear.

9 So this is Exhibit 131, Page 4, not Page 5.

10 MS. AHMED: I apologize, and that's correct,
11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Now, Agent Draper, you were describing yesterday -- you
15 can take that down. Thank you.

16 You were describing yesterday that you observed a
17 video on the Idaho 3% YouTube page.

18 Do you recall that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And can you explain to the jury the title of the video
21 that you observed on the Idaho 3% Facebook page -- excuse me --
22 YouTube page?

23 A. It's an overview of the 3% of the Idaho.

24 Q. So the title said "overview"?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. "Idaho 3% Overview"?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And have you reviewed that video?

4 A. Yes, I have.

5 Q. And have you seen Exhibit 45a as that video that you
6 reviewed?

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
8 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 45a?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 (Exhibit 45a published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Can we pause here.

12 Paused at 44 seconds.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Agent Draper, do you recognize any of the subjects that
15 you were investigating in this case in this scene?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. Can you circle and identify them.

18 A. (Indicating). That's Mr. Drexler.

19 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle from 20 the third from the right -- the viewer's right -- indicating 21 that's Mr. Drexler, and then a second circle, second from the
22 right.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Who is that?

25 A. Mr. Parker.

1 MS. AHMED: And these are the individuals that are

4 MS. AHMED: Continue to play.

5 (Exhibit 45a published.)

6 Pause it here.

7 Paused at 1:23.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Is this -- what is depicted at 1:23?

10 A. The sign in the back says, "The Galice Mining District."

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Good afternoon, Special Agent Draper.

10 A. Good afternoon.

11 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).

12 A. Thank you.

13 Q. I have a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

14 A. Very good.

15 Q. All right. You testified on direct exam regarding a
16 video -- it was Exhibit 119 -- taken by Steven Stewart.

17 Do you recall that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And do you recall that in that video Mr. Stewart
20 was on the northbound bridge. Fair?

21 A. He was on the bridge. I don't know what direction the
22 traffic was.

23 Q. Okay. He was on a bridge?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. In a bridge in Bunkerville; correct?

1 A. Correct, yes.

2 Q. All right. And traffic at that point was actually driving
3 past him; right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And some of that traffic was BLM --

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. -- folks; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And so that was the point in the day where the BLM was
10 driving away; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right. And in that video, my client was making
13 different comments; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Mr. Stewart was saying things to the effect of they
16 threatened us with chemicals to back down; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. But we pushed forward; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. They couldn't gas us?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Correct?

23 We were going to be martyrs if they wanted to 24 continue this; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. All right. Now, you are a trained law enforcement agent;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. How many years of training do you have?

5 A. Training -- years of training or years of experience?

6 Q. Years of training to start.

7 A. Probably -- years of training total in my career? I'm
8 sorry. I don't know how to answer that question.

9 Q. Sure.

10 How many hours of training would you --

11 A. Oh . . . straight training, initially four to five months
12 and then many hours a year thereafter.

13 Q. Okay. And as part of that training, isn't it true you're 14 trained, at least in part, to identify threats?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. You're also trained to identify violence?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. Now, wouldn't you agree with me that in that
19 statement that we heard from Mr. Stewart, he didn't appear like
20 he was threatening anybody at that time; correct?

21 A. At that time, no.

22 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she's laid out her
24 ability --

25 MS. AHMED: Also calls for a legal conclusion. I

1 apologize for speaking over counsel. Also calls for a legal
2 conclusion.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she's laid out her ability
4 as a law enforcement agent to identify threats and to identify
5 violence.

6 THE COURT: The second objection is that it's calling
7 for a legal conclusion which is ultimately up to the jury to
8 decide.

9 MR. TANASI: Again, threatening behavior, Your Honor.
10 I'm not asking her to conclude whether a threat occurred in the 11 case or not.

12 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

13 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

14 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was by the
15 Government. The question was whether this line of questioning
16 is calling for legal conclusion from the witness.

17 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am. And I was saying --

18 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Tanasi. I called the 19 sidebar because I didn't want to limit your ability to 20 respond --

21 MR. TANASI: I understand.

22 THE COURT: -- to the objection because we were in
23 front of the jury.

24 MR. TANASI: Understood.

25 THE COURT: So now you're free to go ahead.

1 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

2 I would say that it doesn't call for a legal
3 conclusion because I'm not asking her to go to that -- that end
4 to say in this case, did Mr. Stewart threaten anybody. I'm not
5 asking her to go that far. I'm saying in this instance, as
6 he's videotaping the BLM drive by, on the videotape, is he
7 threatening in any way? His behavior, is it threatening in any
8 way as a characteristic of his behavior. And my next question
9 was whether it sounded violent in any way and violence -- which
10 I didn't get to yet, but that's where I was getting next --
11 also doesn't call for a legal conclusion. It's his behavior
12 and her trained law enforcement experience. Did it sound like
13 or appear to her that it was threatening or violent in that
14 time frame, not overall in the case.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would re- -- reiterate our
16 objection that it calls -- it is calling for a legal
17 conclusion. You're asking if someone's making a threat.
18 That's a question that is for the jury. Also, it's asking her
19 for her opinion about these things and she's not indicated that
20 she's in any way qualified to make expert opinions about a
21 video that she observed. She's not a percipient witness. She
22 wasn't there that day. She didn't observe his behavior and his
23 context in full. Her -- I don't know how much her objection --
24 her -- excuse me -- her investigation into that day would allow
25 her to weigh in on this question and again, she's not a

1 percipient witness. She wasn't a victim. She wasn't present
2 that day, and it is ultimately calling her -- asking her to
3 make an opinion about things that she's not qualified to do.

4 MR. TANASI: On the qualifications, Your Honor, if I
5 can just be heard.

6 On the qualifications argument, she testified to the
7 two questions that I asked her prior as a trained law
8 enforcement expert or trained law enforcement individual -- not
9 expert, but trained law enforcement individual -- she's been
10 trained to identify threats and violence.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I just add one more
12 thing? It's also -- I would say that in terms of the 13 threatening and the violence, it's not relevant because at this
14 point it's clear that the BLM has already backed down and 15 they're leaving. He's, if anything, celebratory, so it's an
16 irrelevant question.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: So, the charge relating to the threat,
19 the assault, is not the leaving of the BLM or the portion of
20 the -- I think she called it -- somebody called it a convoy --
21 the portion that we're looking at in the video where the BLM is
22 leaving. So you're saying that that is not the assault, so
23 it's confusing to the jury --

24 MS. AHMED: It is confusing to the jury.

25 THE COURT: -- what is the threat or the assaulting

1 behavior that the Government is alleging?

2 MS. AHMED: Correct.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, I agree that it's a
4 legal conclusion and as far as her ability or her expertise,
5 she said she is, but I don't know that there's a foundation
6 actually for me to find that she is. Perhaps it's not
7 necessary for me to even make that kind of a call. I mean,
8 certainly there's not enough information for me to say that she
9 is.

10 I -- I thought that it was very misleading for the 11 jury, so -- and confusing to them as well. So, I'm going to 12 sustain the objection.

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. And does that also go for the 14 questions that I had coming up, I guess, essentially with
15 respect to whether he sounded violent in that statement in that
16 moment? Where, in the last trial, she indicated, no, he did
17 not.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would make the same
19 objection to that line of questioning for the same reasons that
20 we just argued and in that -- and just so the record is clear,
21 in the last trial Mr. Tanasi gave her two options and said, is
22 it this or is this and she said if I have to choose between
23 those two options, I would say it's not. The question here
24 today is slightly different. It's just, generally, is this a
25 threat? Is this violent?

1 MR. TANASI: I can ask it the exact way as I did in
2 the last trial, Your Honor.

3 MS. AHMED: Again, Your Honor, ultimately we'd make
4 the same objections, that it's confusing, it's irrelevant, it's
5 after the BLM's already left and been backed down and, so, it's
6 therefore, irrelevant and also asking for an opinion.

7 THE COURT: Well, I agree it seems irrelevant.
8 Violence is not an element that's charged to have taken place
9 during the exit of the BLM, at least not in this video, not on
10 the bridge. I'm not sure -- I'm trying to remember if there
11 was -- I think in the other trial if they said something or not
12 about the -- the property that was still there, if it was --
13 something happened to it or not, but in any case, it's not part
14 of the charge, even if there was some kind of vandalism or
15 something that happened to any of the assets. So I don't see
16 that it's relevant. It's confusing for the jury. It's still
17 . . . not clear to me that she's really qualified in the sense
18 that the Court would need to qualify her to be able to make
19 that opinion.

20 MR. TANASI: If I could just add one more thing for
21 the record.

22 My understanding of the Government's theory is, and
23 this is in response to when we make the argument that the
24 operation was over, what they -- the Government has proffered
25 is that the operation wasn't over because part of the operation

1 was the BLM securing the cattle or realizing they couldn't
2 secure the cattle and ultimately leaving. The whole BLM
3 operation, as we've tried to argue, is not over and the
4 Government extends that to keep us from getting into the
5 argument that the operation was over. And so, in this instance
6 I'm saying that the operation, under the Government's theory --

7 THE COURT: I think you misrepresent what the
8 Government's position is, first of all. My understanding of
9 the Government's position is that the -- the roundup, the
10 trapping of the cattle, that portion of the operation was over,
11 but that the cattle that had already been trapped and tagged
12 and penned were still property of the U.S. government and that
13 they did not ever cease that portion of the operation; they
14 still intended on transporting them to the auction and selling
15 them.

16 MR. TANASI: Well, what I'm -- what I'm offering
17 though, Your Honor, is as the BLM is driving away, they're
18 still acting in their official duties, in their official
19 capacities driving away and the Government has extended that
20 umbrella to include what is happening right now in the video,
21 which is the government driving away. The BLM's operation has
22 been extended till today, essentially. And so, I'm saying that 23 that driving away is just a part of that operation that the 24 Government's alleging my client obstructed or threatened or
25 otherwise assaulted them.

1 THE COURT: That the Government's operation is
2 extended until today?

3 MR. TANASI: Under the conspiracy theory.

4 THE COURT: No. I think it's till March of 2016 was
5 the conspiracy charge.

6 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 MR. TANASI: To the date of the -- that's correct.

8 MS. AHMED: But in any event, the -- the way in which
9 they left and when they left, it was not -- we're not saying
10 that that's a part of the operation because clearly, they left
11 under duress and not as they had planned with the cattle. So,
12 I -- I don't know if I'm just not following the argument, but
13 that -- we're not saying that their departure at that time
14 that's depicted in the video was a part of the operation,
15 ongoing operation; they left in spite of the operation under
16 duress.

17 THE COURT: So, did you have a motion? I think I
18 lost track of where this started.

19 MR. TANASI: Yeah. No. Where I was going is that
20 what -- that's why it's relevant. I might have lost track for
21 a second, too, but that's why I believe the line of questioning
22 is relevant, because the Government has extended the operation
23 through just being in the wash until the end of the conspiracy,
24 essentially, and especially with that portion of them driving
25 away. They're acting in their official duties, in their

1 official capacity, which they allege is -- our clients have
2 obstructed them while they've been acting in their official
3 duties.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So I think you're confusing and
5 conflating operation with conspiracy. The acts of the
6 conspiracy versus the operation itself.

7 So I -- I understand, and for the record, I think
8 you've clarified it as much as we can --

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 THE COURT: -- outside the presence of the jury so
11 that you could speak more freely.

12 The ruling stands.

13 MR. TANASI: Understood. I'll move on. Thank you.

14 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

15 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was
16 sustained.

17 Go ahead and move on, Mr. Tanasi.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 Brian, if you could please publish for the jury
20 Exhibit 95.

21 (Exhibit 95 published.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. All right. Okay. Ma'am, do you see Exhibit 95?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. All right. With respect to Exhibit 95, this isn't

1 something you testified about today; correct?

2 A. Not today.

3 Q. This particular exhibit, this was earlier this week;
4 correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. All right. So I just want to take you back there.

7 This particular post, it indicates that
8 "Steven Stewart had relayed to me what was going on through 9 binoculars"; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. So this post indicates that Steven Stewart had
12 binoculars; correct?

13 A. That's what it says, yes.

14 Q. Okay. And this was posted on September 19 -- or
15 September 16th, 2014; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. And the events in Bunkerville, this took place in
18 April of 2014; correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. All right. So this is some months after. Fair? Five?

21 A. Yes, five. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. All right. All right. So, in this particular
23 post, you can't tell from this post where Mr. Parker or 24 Mr. Stewart were located when they were describing this post;
25 right?

1 A. Not that specific sentence, but the context indicates to
2 me.

3 Q. I understand.

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. And it indicates to you, from what I understand of your
6 testimony, is that it's sometime or someplace in Bunkerville on
7 the 12th; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. But drilling down further, from this particular
10 post, fair to say you don't know where exactly that took place;
11 right? You don't know whether it's Post 1. Fair?

12 A. I'm sorry. I don't know whether it's what?

13 Q. You don't know whether it's Post 1 in Bunkerville; right?

14 A. Can you familiarize me, please, with Post 1?

15 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the wash in Bunkerville?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the northbound and the 18 southbound bridge in Bunkerville?

19 A. Okay. Correct. Yes.

20 Q. All right. And you're familiar with the BLM erecting a
21 Post 1; correct?

22 A. Yes. Okay.

23 Q. And Post 2?

24 A. Right. Okay.

25 Q. And then across from the Post 1, you're familiar in your

1 investigation with the parking lot; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So, you, from this post, fair to say, can't
4 determine, through your investigation, where they were standing
5 when they're talking about this particular set of binoculars;
6 correct?

7 A. From -- from that sentence, that's correct.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if you could please
10 bring up Number 96.

11 (Exhibit 96 published.)

12 Actually, strike that, Brian. I apologize.

13 Number 97.

14 (Exhibit 97 published.)

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Okay. Talked about this post today; correct?

17 A. Yesterday.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. Yes, yesterday.

20 Q. Fair to say this is not Steven Stewart; right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. All right.

23 MR. TANASI: And now if we can go to 105, please,
24 Brian.

25 (Exhibit 105 published.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. All right. In this particular picture, do you see what
3 I'm circling here (indicating)?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. What does that appear to be?

6 A. Appears to be the barrel of some type of rifle.

7 Q. All right. And that rifle's sitting there without anyone
8 holding it; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. All right.

11 MR. TANASI: If you could, please, Brian, bring up
12 118.

13 (Exhibit 118 published.)

14 MR. TANASI: All right. Actually, if we can just
15 take a look at the picture, please, Brian.

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. So in this particular picture, this is a
18 picture of the wash; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In between the northbound and the southbound bridge;
21 correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. And over here (indicating), this is the gate
24 that was underneath the wash; right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. And back here (indicating), who does that
2 appear to be?

3 A. Appear to be BLM vehicles.

4 Q. Okay. In this particular post -- Brian, if you could
5 scroll down, please, so we can take a look at what time -- what
6 time was this particular post made?

7 A. So this would have been uploaded -- I don't know what time
8 it was taken -- but it would have been uploaded April 12th,
9 2014, at approximately 1:33 p.m. Pacific time.

10 Q. Okay. Now -- go ahead, Brian. You can take that down --
11 today we've heard testimony concerning Sugar Pine operation;
12 right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that took place at some point after April 12th, 2014;
15 right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right. And we also, or interchangeably, that Sugar
18 Pine also was referred to as the Gold Rush.

19 Is that fair?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. So that's one and the same --

22 A. Correct, yes.

23 Q. -- when we talk about the operations?

24 All right. Okay. Through the course of your
25 investigation you didn't determine or learn anything that lent

1 itself to believe that Mr. Stewart was at all involved with
2 Sugar Pine or Gold Rush; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. All right. And then we also talked about an Operation Big
5 Sky.

6 Do you remember that?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. All right. And same question. Through the course of your
9 investigation, you didn't learn anything that would lend itself
10 to Mr. Stewart's involvement in the Operation Big Sky; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right.

13 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up 189,
14 please.

15 (Exhibit 189 published.)

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. So, going through this again, ma'am, on the
18 first page that we're looking at, there is nothing on the 19 right, when we go through that time line, that involves
20 Steven Stewart; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if we can go to the
23 next page.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Same question. On April 8th, 2014, there's no

1 communication on the right that involves Steven Stewart;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. All right.

5 MR. TANASI: If we can take it with the next page,
6 please, Brian.

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. Again, nothing on the lines in that time line that
9 involves Steven Stewart; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 MR. TANASI: All right. If we can go to the next
12 page, please, Brian.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. April 10th, 2014. Nothing on this particular page with
15 this time line that involves Steven Stewart; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right.

18 MR. TANASI: And if we can go to the next page,
19 please, Brian.

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. All right. The time line entry on the bottom right-hand
22 corner, the 8:34, 9:34.

23 Do you see that there?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. All right. That says, "We are going to be showing up late

1 tonight"; correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And it says, "Is that okay, at around 11:30"; correct?

4 A. Yes, that's correct.

5 Q. All right. So, fair to say that's Eric Parker indicating
6 he's going to be showing up somewhere around 11:30 that
7 evening?

8 A. Yes. That's fair to say.

9 Q. And there's a "we" there; right?

10 A. A "we."

11 Q. But it says 11:30; right?

12 A. Yes. Yes.

13 Q. All right. All right.

14 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up 120,
15 please.

16 (Exhibit 120 published.)

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. Okay. This particular post, this is from Steven Stewart;
19 correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Okay. He indicated he went -- helped Cliven Bundy get his
22 cattle back; right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. He says, "Straight there, straight back, two
25 hours"; right?

1 A. He says, "two hours of sleep in between," correct.

2 Q. "Two hours of sleep in between"; correct?

3 A. Yes. Um-hmm. That's what he says.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: Brian, take that down.

6 121, please, Brian.

7 (Exhibit 121 published.)

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right. This particular post regarding the 10 Honorable Judge Lloyd D. George, do you see that there?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. The date on that post is April 15th, 2014;
13 correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. All right. And that's three days after the events in 16 Bunkerville; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Thank you.

19 MR. TANASI: Brian, could we just go back to 189 for
20 a moment.

21 Go to the last page, please.

22 (Exhibit 189 published.)

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. All right. You see the 12:58 entry?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Okay. And -- and that is a post from Steven Stewart where
2 he says, "It's been a long day. What's up why I have a little
3 earlier with a really high powered scope. Show me F**
4 awesome"; right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. All right. So, he's indicating in that post that somebody
7 showed him a high powered scope. Fair?

8 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

9 THE COURT: She can answer the question, if -- if she
10 knows. If she has personal knowledge.

11 THE WITNESS: I -- I don't interpret that statement
12 that way.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. You don't?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. But he used the word "show"; right? "Show me the 17 scope." Fair?

18 MS. AHMED: Objection. Misstates the -- it doesn't
19 say "show me the scope."

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. Again, "What's up" --

22 THE COURT: You want to just rephrase the question?

23 MR. TANASI: I can -- I can do that. I apologize.

24 I'll just read it just like it is to make sure we're on the
25 same page. "What's up why I have a little earlier with a

1 really high powered scope. Show me F awesome"; right.

2 THE WITNESS: Those are the words, but that's not my
3 interpretation.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. That's not your interpretation?

6 A. No.

7 Q. How do you interpret it?

8 A. I read this, I believe that there's a mistake in the
9 initial word and some missing -- one of the initial words and
10 some missing punctuation.

11 Q. Where is that?

12 A. The word -- excuse me. Sorry. The word "have." This
13 would make sense if it said, "I was a little earlier with a
14 really high powered scope" -- then some type of comma or some 15 type of punctuation -- "show me F awesome."

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. That's how I would interpret that, but that's not what the 18 words say.

19 Q. Understood.

20 Prior to today's testimony, have you had an
21 opportunity to meet with the U.S. Attorney's Office?

22 A. Yes, I have.

23 Q. How many times?

24 A. Total, probably nine or 10.

25 Q. Nine or 10 times?

1 A. Um-hmm.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

3 Pass the witness.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's go ahead and take
6 our overnight break.

7 Aaron, are we back at 9:00 tomorrow?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 10 o'clock, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: 10:00 again?

10 All right. So tomorrow we'll be starting again at 11 10 o'clock.

12 I do remind the jury during this overnight break that
13 you are not to speak about this case with anyone. Not to your
14 spouse, employer, neighbors, friends, family. You can tell
15 them, yes, we're still in trial. Yes, I'm still a juror. It's 16 not over yet, but please do not talk to them about the case at
17 all.

18 Also, please do not read or listen to or view
19 anything that touches upon this case in any way nor attempt to
20 perform any research or independent investigation. If you do
21 have a question, please write them down on the forms provided.

22 And do not form any opinion until after you have
23 heard all the testimony, reviewed the evidence. We will
24 provide you -- I will provide you with the jury instructions
25 that are the legal instructions that will guide you. You will

1 apply to them the facts as you find them, and then you will
2 hear closing arguments. After closing arguments, then I'll
3 excuse you to begin your deliberation process. You recall when
4 you took your oath that's a duty, your duty to deliberate. So
5 that's the duty to discuss your opinions with each other and
6 attempt to reach a verdict.

7 So, at this time we'll go ahead and excuse our jury
8 and welcome them back at 10:00 a.m.

9 And so we also want Ms. Draper to return at 10 10:00 a.m.; is that right?

11 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes?

13 All right. So --

14 THE WITNESS: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 So the jury is free to leave and then Special Agent
17 Draper, if you'll please return again tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. so
18 we can begin where we left off with cross.

19 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

20 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Off the record.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, before we go off record,
23 can I just make a record real quick while we're here? I didn't
24 want to do it at sidebar because it was sort of out of context.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: The Government --

2 THE COURT: You may be excused --

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: -- Agent Draper. That's fine.

5 (Witness excused.)

6 THE COURT: We can all sit down, or if you're tired
7 of sitting and you want to stand, that's okay too, but . . .

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: The Government elicited testimony
9 today regarding Timothy McVeigh and it was more in the line --
10 the line of what had -- was written on Mr. Parker's Facebook
11 that had zero to do with my client, but it went even further
12 than that, it went deeper in terms of they elicited from
13 Sarah Draper who was Timothy McVeigh and not only that, but
14 what he did. All it said was McVeigh and based on that,
15 McVeigh, they elicited from that witness that it was
16 Timothy McVeigh, that he was a bomber, that he bombed a
17 building, that he -- they went through a litany of different
18 things that Timothy McVeigh did, somehow comparing
19 Timothy McVeigh to these individuals here.

20 I would also couple that with testimony that they
21 elicited from a BLM agent that indicated that what they were
22 doing was like what terrorists in Afghanistan, I believe is
23 what he said, did when he saw them up on the bridge. We
24 objected to that and we objected to this.

25 That is highly prejudicial, way more prejudicial than

1 just reading -- which is what I thought was going to happen
2 when the Court allowed it to come in -- reading McVeigh and
3 then on. But to go into deeper details than that, I think
4 that's so prejudicial, I don't think we can erase that from the
5 minds of the jury so at this point, I would be asking for
6 either a mistrial, one, a limiting instruction, two, that it
7 doesn't come in on Mr. Drexler, because he had nothing to do
8 with that post, he was not tagged on it. He -- there's no
9 inference that he read it or knew about it or anything of that
10 nature, but to elicit that kind of testimony, I think it calls
11 for a mistrial or at the least, at the very minimum, a limiting 12 instruction saying that it does not come in under -- for -- for
13 Mr. Drexler. That's -- that would be my motion.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, I did give a limiting
15 instruction as to what purpose the information could be
16 considered, for intent, motive, and absence of mistake.

17 What's the Government's response?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just to clear the record.
19 There was not a lengthy line of questioning on this point. The
20 con- -- the post indicated that -- was speaking about McVeigh
21 and it referenced that he was set up by the federal -- by the
22 FBI and that he got himself caught and set the movement back.
23 And so, to give context to that post, I asked the witness who
24 Mr. McVeigh was and she explained who he was and said his name
25 and that he was the Oklahoma City bomber. And so, Your Honor,

1 that's -- that doesn't -- certainly is not so overly
2 prejudicial.

3 As the Court indicated earlier, these posts are
4 prejudicial, which is why we're putting them in; they're not
5 unfairly prejudicial. And since the post was invoking his
6 actions and referencing his actions and comparing his actions,
7 it was relevant information and it was, again, not overly
8 prejudicial and certainly doesn't rise to the level of a
9 mistrial. And as the Court indicated, therefore already a
10 limiting instruction given in this case on that particular
11 post.

12 So -- and in terms of Mr. Leventhal's further points,
13 those are all clearly things that he could cross-examine the 14 witness on to establish that that's not Mr. Drexler's post, he
15 didn't write those words, et cetera.

16 So, again, Your Honor, consistent with the Court's
17 earlier rulings, Mr. Leventhal can elicit that same information
18 through cross-examination. It certainly isn't something that
19 he can't clear up and it doesn't call for a mistrial.

20 (Counsel conferring.)

21 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, and just for the
22 record, Parker would join Mr. Drexler's motion. Obviously, we
23 had a long colloquy yesterday in reference to this post coming
24 in and our -- my feelings in reference to Timothy McVeigh and
25 that he's an overly prejudicial individual so just the post

1 itself, I felt, was overly prejudicial and then to somehow
2 qualify it by who is Timothy McVeigh and somehow add fuel to
3 the fire and getting more information about Mr. McVeigh out at
4 this trial, I think Mr. Drexler is right in bringing this
5 motion and we join.

6 THE COURT: All right. Well, in regards to the --

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 THE COURT: -- words, they were invoked by Mr. Parker
9 in the post. He's the one who has the name McVeigh in the 10 post. He's using that name and its connotation to explain and
11 express his disappointment with the failure of McVeigh and the
12 distinction between his actions and -- by his I mean -- so, the 13 difference between McVeigh's actions or failures and the 14 successes that he, Mr. Parker, completed. So, I think that the
15 . . . it's clearly relevant and admissible against Mr. Parker.
16 I think the bigger question, and the point that Mr. Leventhal
17 is trying to make, is whether or not the spillover effect, as
18 Mr. Tanasi usually brings up -- to give you credit for bringing 19 that up -- but, is the spillover effect, if any, even though it
20 is a co-conspirator statement, is it, you know, so prejudicial
21 that it cannot simply be cured on cross-examination with the
22 other individuals. The Court has found that the statement was
23 provided during the conspiracy, in furtherance of the
24 conspiracy, as part of the conspiracy, recruitment,
25 glorification, encouraging others and so forth.

1 So, if you'll respond to that portion, I think,
2 Ms. Ahmed, I think that's the . . . the only thing that I think
3 you didn't mention.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, that's exactly it. The post
5 ends with that's -- you know, essentially that's what I've done
6 so either get active or shut up. And so, again, it's -- these
7 are the things that we did. He claims that they were
8 successful and describes how they were successful and it's all
9 in the context of furthering this movement in a positive way.
10 And so, again, it -- he is specifically referencing the
11 April 12th, 2014, event in Nevada as well as the other two
12 operations. And so, it's that same continuing conspiracy in
13 which they are glorifying and recruiting others as the Court
14 referenced. And so, it would be admissible as to all of these
15 defendants under 801(d)(2)(E).

16 MR. PEREZ: And, Your Honor, just for the record, on
17 behalf of Mr. Lovelien, I would join in Mr. Leventhal's motion
18 and his objection. I mean, I've said numerous times, I mean,
19 none of this has anything to do with Mr. Lovelien. He's not a
20 3%er. And so, just for the record, I'm making that objection.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: And going back to whether or not I
22 can clean up on cross-examination --

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm -- I'm going to
24 deny your Motion for a Mistrial and deny your motion for a more
25 limiting or clarifying instruction until after

1 cross-examination. So, it's denied without prejudice. You can
2 re-raise it and furthermore, if you have some case law that you
3 want me to look at, I'll look at that as well.

4 I think we're kind of stuck with the problem of it
5 being a co-conspirator statement, but I understand your concern
6 and I think that it's a reasonable objection to make. So, with
7 that, I'll -- I -- it's denied, but without prejudice. You may
8 re-raise it after we've had an opportunity to cross and you can
9 see if you can find some other cases that -- or any other
10 information that might be more -- that might guide this -- this
11 discussion more so than just talking about the facts. I think
12 we're all familiar with the facts; the problem is, how does the
13 law treat this type of situation. And it looks like there is a
14 disadvantage to being a co-conspirator during a conspiracy when
15 some conspirators are saying certain things and the
16 admissibility of those things with other defendants. So, it's 17 not the spillover that we see in the other situations where
18 after arrest, a person makes a statement that inculcates maybe
19 himself or one of the co-defendants. Then you have more of an
20 issue of whether or not that information should be cleaned up
21 or clarified or sanitized in some way so that there isn't a
22 spillover. That's not what's happening here. This isn't after
23 the conspiracy, it's during the conspiracy. So it falls into 24 that 801(d)(2)(E) realm. It's a different legal analysis.

25 So, let's --

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: -- sleep on it and see if it's clear in
3 the morning or after cross-examination and do some research.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just briefly.

5 I'm not sure how I'm going to cross-examine a witness
6 that just testified and I usually would not touch that on
7 cross-examination.

8 THE COURT: Well, you don't have to. I'm not -- I'm
9 not saying that you have to, but I -- I think maybe if we . . .
10 if you look into it, maybe it will be more clear. I think
11 you're -- I can't tell you what to do, but --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I appreciate that.

13 THE COURT: -- you can see that I'm struggling with
14 that.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I don't need guidance from the
16 Court to tell me what to do. I understand what I need to do
17 and that's why I'm making this motion. And -- and as it sat,
18 if it was just reading, as this witness did on almost all of
19 the other e-mails, then I -- I don't think I would even be
20 making this motion. It was the eliciting of the further
21 information, "and who was that?" "and how do you know that?"
22 That is the issue that I'm having. Not just McVeigh, because
23 McVeigh is innocuous. It's the going into Timothy McVeigh, the
24 Oklahoma City bomber, without anything further from that
25 document that would suggest that that was even that person.

1 That's what I'm talking about. It's that further step that the
2 Government took and that's my issue. I would have had no
3 problem had she just read McVeigh and then moved on because
4 they got rid of the Millers, and nobody probably even knows who
5 that is, but all they had do -- they had no problem getting rid
6 of the Millers, the term "Millers." They redacted that, but
7 when it came to McVeigh, the guy who killed a hundred people in
8 a building, that's okay, that's fair game, I'm going to go into
9 that. So that's my issue.

10 I will deal with it in -- I guess, tomorrow on cross
11 if I figure out a way to do that, but generally, I don't put a
12 big spotlight on something that I'm asking for a mistrial for.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, the distinction between
14 the Millers and McVeigh was that in the posting, Mr. Parker was
15 disavowing himself of the Millers and in -- in the same posting
16 he's not disavowing himself of McVeigh, but rather the failure
17 of McVeigh to move the -- the progress of the movement and so
18 forth. So, it was -- that was the distinction that was being
19 made there and to why one is included and why is not.

20 All right. So, we'll see you tomorrow at 10:00.

21 Off record.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

4 (Jury not present.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

7 Good morning.

8 MR. TANASI: Good morning.

9 THE COURT: All right. Before we bring in the jurors,
10 let me just go ahead and make my preliminary remarks to remind
11 everyone that this is a courtroom and not a sporting event. So
12 no displays or expressions of opinion, whether verbally or 13 through body language, are permitted.

14 Please remember, to the defendants, that we do have the 15 holding cell with a speaker system so that you may continue to 16 hear the trial if you forfeit your right to be in trial by 17 making any kind of inappropriate expressions.

18 Let's see. There are other court rules. For example,
19 that no electronic devices are permitted in the courtroom. The 20 reason for this being that no audio or video recordings are 21 permitted in federal court. So if you have an iPad, iPhone,
22 any kind of phone, laptop, electronic device, please make sure
23 that you leave it outside. Even if it is turned off or in 24 vibrate mode or private mode, that is not sufficient; it needs
25 to be completely outside the courtroom.

1 The attorneys are permitted to have electronic devices.
2 They need them to be able to review evidence, discovery, their
3 notes, and to present evidence during trial. Likewise, the 4 Marshals and the Court Security Officers do have electronics
5 for communication to provide security for the safety of 6 everyone.

7 We do need to turn the podium. We had hearings earlier
8 this morning which is why we always have to -- not always, but 9 a lot of times we have to readjust the podium. So we will move
10 the podium so it is facing the witness so we can continue.

11 All right. Anything that we need to address before we
12 bring in the jury?

13 MS. AHMED: Good morning, Your Honor. Yes.

14 I just wanted to, Your Honor, take a moment to just 15 respond more fulsomely to Mr. Leventhal's motion that he made
16 at the end of the very long day yesterday. And so I would 17 like, Your Honor, to be permitted to just make clear on the 18 record the Government's position regarding that motion.

19 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

20 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 So, Your Honor, of course Mr. Leventhal moved for a
22 mistrial yesterday and the Government responded. We believe,
23 and we still believe, that there's absolutely no showing of 24 manifest necessity requiring a mistrial in this case. But 25 there's also no showing that any lesser relief is required as

1 well.

2 The defendant -- Your Honor, the Government clearly
3 intended to put evidence into this case regarding the mindset
4 behind the defendants and their -- what they did on April 12th,
5 2014. We made that clear in our opening; we put evidence in to 6 that effect.

7 The defendants were on a bridge. They are documented
8 with rifles pointed towards law enforcement officers. And,
9 although Mr. Leventhal would now try to -- like to distance
10 their actions from Mr. McVeigh's actions, the truth is, is that 11 there's not really that much of a difference between what 12 Timothy McVeigh did and what these defendants wanted to do and 13 what they did do on April 12th, 2014.

14 Your Honor, additionally, we put in evidence that Ammon
15 Bundy said on screen that if the BLM comes back they were gonna
16 do it again and they would make sure that the BLM didn't 17 return. There's evidence that the defendants continued their 18 movement, continued the conspiracy in an effort to make clear
19 not only that they were gonna stand up to law enforcement and 20 these public land agencies around the country but that they
21 were gonna make sure no one went back to Gold Butte to get
22 those cattle.

23 And so, Your Honor, this is all part of the 24 glorification and the recruitment that we've continued to argue
25 is relevant and admissible evidence in this case and it's

1 relevant and admissible as to all of these defendants because
2 they joined this conspiracy together, they never disavowed the
3 conspiracy. And, if anything, Mr. Drexler has continued, along
4 with Mr. Parker, to do the exact same things. They went to 5 Sugar Pine; they went to White Hope. And Mr. Drexler has it
6 all tattooed on his arm together: Bundy, III%, Operation Gold
7 Rush, Operation Big Sky.

8 And so, Your Honor, to suggest that they need any 9 relief from the clarification of who Mr. McVeigh was in that 10 post is simply a distraction from actually relevant, admissible
11 evidence.

12 And my understanding, Your Honor, is that 13 Mr. Leventhal's objection was to clarifying who McVeigh was 14 rather than to the admission of the exhibit itself which -- 15 obviously explaining the context of an admitted exhibit is 16 clearly permissible. It didn't go beyond saying who McVeigh
17 was; explained who he was. And the -- it gave context to the 18 post. And, again, Your Honor, as we said yesterday, in the 19 post it's clear that this is a post in which the defendant,
20 Mr. Parker, is comparing himself to Mr. McVeigh; that they are 21 in a movement -- they were in the same movement; and that,
22 while McVeigh failed, Mr. Parker achieved. And what did he 23 achieve? He achieved the ousting of the BLM in Nevada and then 24 the other two operations. And, at the end, he says, "Get 25 active or shut up."

1 It's clearly recruiting, clearly glorification, part of
2 the same conspiracy, relevant to all of these defendants.
3 There is nothing in it that was manifest -- that would manifest
4 any kind of mistrial or require any other lesser relief.

5 Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Your --

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. MARCHESE: -- Honor, if --

9 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese --

10 MR. MARCHESE: -- I may briefly respond.

11 I don't want to go backwards. Obviously we argued this 12 yesterday. But I would just like to point out that what
13 Mr. Parker said 18 months after the incident in question I fail
14 to see how that is probative of his intent on what happened 18
15 months prior.

16 But, what is happening here --

17 THE COURT: It's not 18 months prior because the 18 conspiracy is alleged to have continued until March of 2016 --

19 MR. MARCHESE: Well . . .

20 THE COURT: -- and this post was made in 2015.

21 MR. MARCHESE: And that's what I would like to address,
22 that the Government -- you know, an indictment is supposed to 23 be a clear, concise recitation of what the actual charges are 24 in order to put defendants on notice of what they are charged
25 with and how to defend themselves against it.

1 The issue is none of this is pled in the Indictment.
2 If you look at the actual language of the Indictment, if you
3 look at it in the best light in reference to the Government,
4 there is maybe some very vague terminology in which they
5 reference security operations in stopping the government from 6 doing their job. However, when you look at it contextually,
7 all of it is about one thing and it's about Cliven Bundy and
8 his cattle. There is absolutely no reference to these post-bad
9 acts in the Government's Indictment.

10 But, even if we want to look at it and give the 11 Government the benefit of the doubt on that, how do we get an 12 indictment? Let's look at that. Let's look at the Grand Jury
13 testimony. There is nothing in the Grand Jury testimony about 14 these particular acts. So, therefore, it's not part of the 15 conspiracy. Because if it was, they would have testified to it
16 and they would be on trial for it; but they are not.

17 So the fact that the Government has now made the 18 conspiracy some amorphous, vague goalpost changing document,
19 it's making it impossible for these men to get a fair trial
20 because they are saying any piece of evidence that they want to 21 get in is now part of this conspiracy, and it's just not.
22 There is no record of it. It's not in the Indictment; it's not 23 in the Grand Jury testimony. And it's our position that for 24 them to keep saying it it's just not true. The record does not 25 support it.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 So, as you know, the Government has discretion to
3 choose which acts to prosecute or not to prosecute and the 4 Government does not have the burden -- or the duty to allege
5 every single offense that they possibly could that transpired
6 during a conspiracy.

7 So the Court's not persuaded that the fact that conduct
8 related to either the Oregon mine or the Montana mine are not
9 crimes that are outlined in the Superseding Indictment, that
10 that is sufficient to state that those actions are not taken
11 during the conspiracy, in furtherance of the conspiracy, part 12 of the conspiracy, and inextricably intertwined with the 13 conspiracy. So the Court's order speaks for itself.

14 Anything else that we need to discuss?

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

16 THE COURT: Mr.

17 MR. TANASI: -- if I --

18 THE COURT: -- Tanasi.

19 MR. TANASI: -- if I may, just for the record, just 20 join in yesterday's motion that Mr. Leventhal raised and then
21 also the arguments of the counsel from Mr. Marchese today.

22 And then I would also just add that on a 403 balancing
23 test I don't think we can lose sight of that. I understand the 24 attempt to kind of stretch the conspiracy and I understand, you
25 know, these acts potentially coming in under the 404(b)

1 analysis. But not losing sight of 403 I think is what's
2 important in that the --

3 THE COURT: These are --

4 MR. TANASI: -- prejudice --

5 THE COURT: -- not --

6 MR. TANASI: -- to my client.

7 THE COURT: -- 404(b). That was my order, that they 8 are not 404(b) because they are not other acts that are not
9 part of the conspiracy. They're inextricably intertwined --
10 intertwined with the conspiracy so they are not 404(b). In the 11 alternative, if they are 404(b), we can get into that. But 12 that was not the Court's order. And the balancing test is the 13 prejudicial effect -- whether it's unfairly prejudicial -- you
14 balance that with probative value. So an admission by a
15 defendant to the offense has incredibly high probative value.

16 MR. TANASI: Understood, Your Honor. But what I'm 17 getting at is the unfair prejudice that outweighs the probative
18 value, especially with respect to my client, Steven Stewart,
19 who is not making that post and even with respect to Mr. Parker
20 in that the Government has expanded what Timothy McVeigh means;
21 what Timothy McVeigh did; and somehow is drawing a comparison
22 and likening of Timothy McVeigh to our clients which I think is 23 just way out of bounds. You know, in the Bunkerville case, not
24 one person died. Not one person died. In Timothy McVeigh's
25 scenario, many people died. They are completely different

1 things.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, did you find any case law
4 that you wanted to show me regarding how a balancing test would
5 apply to a coconspirator statement.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: To be honest, I didn't have time, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I had other things going on --

10 THE COURT: Oh.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- last night.

12 THE COURT: You're right actually.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize.

14 THE COURT: I do know about that. I apologize.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: I will. No, don't worry. I'll -- I
16 can look today.

17 But I would just note that, while I made that motion
18 yesterday, I don't want to get off track on what the Court has 19 already considered 404(b). That's not, I think, my motion. My 20 motion was that it was the bringing in of that but then going
21 into it and, as we've already termed it, the spillover effect.
22 I think the Court still needs to now analyze that under whether 23 or not it's relevant as a coconspirator statement because this
24 is on every statement somebody makes is obviously a
25 coconspirator statement.

1 I would also a say that Timothy McVeigh killed, I
2 think, 126 people. That's nowhere close to what happened here.
3 My client, in addition, there's been no showing that he was
4 part of any militia movement or patriot movement. Prior to the 5 12th of April 2014, he was not in a movement. His tattoo that
6 the Government's alluding to didn't come until after that event
7 happened.

8 So the prejudicial or the spillover effect from that 9 statement and then -- not only just that statement but then the 10 Government's eliciting testimony to that statement and who it
11 is and what he did -- and I think that was somewhere -- 20-some 12 years ago, I believe. I don't even know when he did it -- has 13 no -- should have no effect on my client. And so even though
14 the Court has denied a mistrial -- and I understand that --
15 something a little bit less would be a limiting instruction
16 that could clear it up that just says this does not come in for 17 Mr. Drexler because that prejudicial effect on Mr. Drexler,
18 having nothing to do with that statement, there's no probative
19 value to it and so it's just highly prejudicial.

20 If it was just McVeigh, then I'd understand; we already 21 discussed that. But to elicit the information -- more
22 information about the Oklahoma City bombing, you know, that 23 brings back something completely contextually different that 24 leaves in the jury's mind something different. And, if the 25 Government wants to talk about mind-set, obviously we have an

1 ulterior view of mind-set that we have not been able to elicit
2 any evidence on mind-set on why my client was there -- or went
3 there because the Court has deemed that to be irrelevant. So
4 we can't even get into mind-set.

5 So I would renew just at least a limiting instruction
6 motion based on what I said yesterday and today. And, if I
7 have time this afternoon, I'll bring some case law to the 8 Court.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 So 801(d)(2)(E) -- and I thought I did make this
11 finding, but I'll state it on the record again to be more
12 clear -- the conspiracy did -- was existing during the time
13 period when the statement was made -- statement being made as 14 posted on December 2015th [sic] -- and the conspiracy not
15 ending until much later, in March of 2016.

16 I did find that it was made in furtherance of the 17 conspiracy to keep the coconspirators abreast of ongoing
18 conspiracy activity, to recruit, glorify, I think riling up was 19 one of the words I used also, encourage others who either
20 already were part of the organization or recruiting others to 21 join the organization, explaining their success -- the reason
22 for their success in contrast to prior earlier members.

23 The other factor to consider is whether the declarant
24 and the trial defendants were members of the same conspiracy.
25 Here these four individuals are charged in the same conspiracy.

1 I think that's all -- that's all the --

2 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: -- factors.

4 MR. PEREZ: -- for --

5 THE COURT: And I made that ruling earlier. So it does
6 come in as a 801(d)(2)(E) coconspirator statement; therefore,
7 there's no limiting instruction. The limiting instruction
8 would be -- that's requested is the opposite of that. It comes 9 in, but it's not to be considered against. That doesn't make
10 sense.

11 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

12 And, for the record, on behalf of Mr. Lovelien, we 13 would join in prior counsel's arguments set forth this morning.
14 I believe we joined all the arguments yesterday.

15 THE COURT: I think you did. But the record is now
16 more clear, if not, that you are joining as well.

17 And, again, for the record, I did give a limiting
18 instruction before this Exhibit 102 was provided instructing
19 the jury that it was being admitted for a limited purpose only 20 to be considered as evidence of intent, motive, and absence of 21 mistake, and for no other reason.

22 All right. So let's go ahead then. Unless there's 23 anything else? No.

24 MR. MYHRE: No.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 Let's go ahead and call in the jury, Aaron, then,
2 please.

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 (Sarah Draper resumes the witness stand. Pause.)

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

7 (Jury in, 10:29 a.m.)

8 THE COURT: You can go ahead and be seated. We'll wait
9 for, is it Juror No. -- one, two, three, four, five -- Juror
10 No. 6 just want back to the jury room, I think, to retrieve her
11 notebook.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 THE COURT: All right. So Juror No. 6 has returned.
14 You got your notebook. I didn't see it. You found it? Oh,
15 good. All right. So it looks like we're ready to begin.

16 So let's go ahead and start by thanking our witness,
17 Special Agent Draper, for coming back. And we do have the 18 parties all present.

19 So let's go ahead and have them make their presence on 20 the record and then we'll continue with cross-examination.

21 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

22 And good morning, Your Honor.

23 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

24 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
25 the United States.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 Good morning. Morning folks.

4 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also with us at
5 counsel table is Brian Glynn and Tori Bakken. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Good morning.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

8 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

9 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

10 THE COURT: Good morning.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

12 Good morning everyone.

13 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

14 THE COURT: Good morning.

15 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, everyone.

16 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

17 THE COURT: All right. And good morning.

18 So let's go ahead and continue with cross-examination,
19 Mr. Marchese.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 SARAH DRAPER,

22 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
23 previously duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

24 ///

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Good morning, Agent Draper.

4 A. Good morning, sir.

5 Q. So, on direct examination, they gave you just some 6 preliminary questions about how you got involved with this
7 case. I believe you're a special agent out of Idaho, I
8 believe?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. And, at some point in time, you were tasked with 11 reviewing social media of individuals who were alleged to be a
12 part of the Bundy incident?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. And one of those individuals would be my client,
15 Mr. Eric Parker there with the blue shirt and the beard behind
16 me?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Okay. Approximately when did you get assigned that task?

19 A. Approximately April of 2014.

20 Q. Okay. So I think -- you obviously testified on direct
21 examination that you looked at some Open Source social media;
22 correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. You also -- either you drafted a search warrant or were you
25 a part of drafting a search warrant for Facebook; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Correct. I was part of the drafting of the affidavit.

2 Correct.

3 Q. Okay. So obviously you got some Facebook returns. We went
4 over those the last few days. Correct?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And, in reference to that, you were looking at Mr. Perez's
7 Facebook for a few years after the incident; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Was there -- one of the things that you testified to --

10 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you can bring up
11 Exhibit 89, please.

12 THE COURT: Bless you.

13 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Okay. And you talked about this particular Facebook post
16 which was made by Mr. Parker. Do you remember that?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. All right. And part of your testimony (drawing) was in 19 reference to this link right here; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And I think you had talked about hyperlinks when you get the 22 search warrant return back. Do you remember that testimony?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And you had stated on direct examination that there
25 was a Ryan Payne video linked with this particular article. Do

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 you remember this?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. You viewed that particular video?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Where did you view the video?

6 A. So it -- it's no longer -- that's not the video link to this 7 any longer. So originally through this link that was the
8 video.

9 Q. Okay. So you're saying that there's a different video now?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, do you know when that video was 12 changed?

13 A. I do not.

14 Q. So how did you view the Ryan Payne video if it was not
15 linked with this particular link? If you remember.

16 A. I -- well, I -- I viewed it before it was changed and then 17 there was a -- also a report written by another agent that 18 captured it --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- as well.

21 Q. So my question to you is did you view it online or did you
22 view it, I guess, back at your own personal computer or an FBI
23 computer or something like that?

24 A. I have viewed it online. I don't -- I don't recall the 25 timeline of that though. Is that -- and I've also reviewed it

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 based upon the collection in evidence.

2 Q. Okay. So, just to be fair, you can't remember exactly when
3 you viewed this Ryan Payne video.

4 A. As embedded with that article?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. Well, it seems to be -- well, no. As -- as -- going to the 7 article and finding that link right now, I can't recall when 8 that was. But I have.

9 Q. Sure.

10 A. Um-hum.

11 Q. And obviously, based on your testimony, this post (drawing)
12 was done April the 10th of 2014; correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And, actually, with UTC time -- okay. It would still the 15 10th, right, with UTC?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay. And that was before you had even got on the case.

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 90,
21 please.

22 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay. And this was another post that you had went over;
25 correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And it's from (drawing) April 10th, 2014; right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And this was a post where Mr. Parker is asking something in 5 reference to the Nevada militia; right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. There were no Likes on this particular post by Mr. Parker to
8 your knowledge?

9 A. To my knowledge, no.

10 Q. Okay. And there was no responses to this particular post by 11 Mr. Parker to your knowledge?

12 MS. AHMED: Objection, vague as to "responses." On 13 Facebook or other -- any other responses?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Well --

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Clarify that.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. In reference to this Facebook post which we are talking
19 about, which is circled currently on the screen, to your 20 knowledge, were there any responses to this post by Mr. Parker?

21 MS. AHMED: Same objection. I'm just asking for 22 clarification if he's speaking on Facebook specifically.

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Were there any responses on Facebook to this particular post
25 to your knowledge?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. To my -- to my recollection, without seeing any of the rest
2 of the return, I would have to say no, I don't recall any.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go back to
5 Exhibit 88, please.

6 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. And I apologize. I went a little bit out of turn. But this
9 was one of the first posts that you went over. (Drawing.)
10 This is -- it shows April 9, 2014, on here; correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And now, with UTC time, it's actually April 8th; correct?

13 A. Yes, yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. Very good.

16 Q. And, just for the jury because they might not remember,
17 what -- UTC time goes back how many hours?

18 A. In Pacific Time Zone, Nevada, it's 7 hours prior; in 19 Mountain, Idaho, it's 6.

20 Q. Okay. So, if you're doing it in Idaho, you're gonna go back
21 6; correct?

22 A. Yes, yes.

23 Q. And, if you're doing it here in the State of Nevada or 24 anywhere that's Pacific Time Zone, you're gonna go back 7.

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. And, to your knowledge, Mr. Parker was in Idaho when this
2 post was made?

3 A. To my knowledge, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And some sort of a link. This is just Mr. Parker, I
5 believe, sharing some sort of (drawing) link from this Northern
6 Nevada group?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay. And let me clear that. It's getting a little
9 convoluted.

10 And he's referring to that there's "some trouble down
11 in Nevada" (drawing); correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And (drawing) he's referencing something about there being 14 possibly some shooting or something along those lines; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 91.
18 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

19 BY MR. MARCHESE:

20 Q. Now, this is another post from Mr. Parker (drawing). This 21 is post-Bundy Ranch. It would be April 13, 2014; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, on this particular one, there's also another
24 link -- I think we saw that on a few of Mr. Parker's posts. Do
25 you see that (drawing) down there at the bottom?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. As part of your investigation, do you review these links or
3 do you just look at the Facebook posts?

4 A. I don't review every link, but I do review some links.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. Right.

7 Q. It just depends on -- based on the course and scope of your
8 investigation if you think it's something that has evidentiary
9 value?

10 A. Absolutely.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. MARCHESE: And if we can go to Exhibit 94.

13 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Now, in reference to Exhibit 94, we have this Sankaku Atama,
16 I believe the name is, and he's making this post to Mr. Parker
17 on April 12th, 2014; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, this is 18:03 UTC time; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. Now, is this 6 or 7 hours back, if you know?

22 A. I would consider that 7 because -- based upon my 23 investigation. I understand Mr. Parker was in Nevada at that 24 time so that would be 7 hours prior.

25 Q. Okay. So, in actuality, on a regular clock, I guess for

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 lack --

2 A. Um-hum.

3 Q. -- of a better term, this would -- actually had been made at
4 11:03 a.m. --

5 A. That's.

6 Q. -- correct?

7 A. -- that's correct.

8 Q. Okay. And, during the course and scope of your 9 investigation, are you aware of when the BLM left the ICP
10 compound on that date?

11 A. I could only say midday. I don't know the exact time.

12 Q. Okay. If you can testify to it, would it have been before
13 or after 11:03 a.m.?

14 A. I believe -- well -- I believe it was after, but . . .

15 Q. And Mr. Parker's response is approximately (drawing) 5 hours
16 or so after that particular post to him; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. MARCHESE: If we can go to Exhibit 95, please,
21 Brian.

22 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

23 MR. MARCHESE: And if we can make that just a little 24 bit bigger, if possible. Thank you very much.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. This was a post -- this is actually after the Bundy incident
3 (drawing). It's, oh, say, 5 months-ish after the fact. Now,
4 you had testified (drawing) on direct examination about this
5 particular picture. Do you remember that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And you've seen that picture before; correct?

8 A. Yes. Well --

9 Q. It's Eric Parker, correct, from your knowledge?

10 A. Right. Not -- not with those red words written under it,
11 that part of that image. But the word "resist" and then the 12 sketch of Mr. --

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. -- Parker.

15 Q. So someone had made these -- this picture or whatever it is 16 up at some point in time; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. And (drawing), during the course and scope of 19 your investigation, did you happen to hear that Mr. Parker was 20 at any time referred to as "the bridge guy"?

21 A. Yes. Or, yeah, other variations of that. Yes.

22 Q. All right. And they did in fact -- someone made up
23 (drawing) -- I think you even testified to this -- that there
24 were T-shirts at some point in time made up?

25 A. Right.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Now, in your reviewing of Mr. Parker's Open Source
2 Facebook or through your search warrant returns, was there an
3 increase in Mr. Parker's Facebook traffic from April of 2014
4 until this time period of September of 2014?

5 A. So, if I may, I -- the -- the time frame of the warrant, if
6 I recall correctly -- I'd have to see it exactly -- was March
7 of 2014; served in July of 2014. It was quite limited in 8 timeframe and scope. So I would have a hard time answering
9 that question about an increase because it would have only
10 encompassed a little over a month prior to April 12th.

11 Q. Okay. So it would be a smaller amount of information than,
12 say, you would be able to see in Open Source?

13 A. I'm sorry. Could you ask that again --

14 Q. What --

15 A. -- so I understand?

16 Q. -- what you got on the search warrant, is that a smaller
17 amount of information than you would be able to see on a open
18 source?

19 A. Oh, no, no. The search warrant is everything. I -- I must 20 have misunderstood your question. I thought you were asking if 21 there was an increase in his Facebook traffic pre-event and 22 post-event.

23 Q. Well, actually post-event. Would you be able to testify to
24 that?

25 A. My basis would only be upon probably 6 weeks of Facebook

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 activity prior to the event of April 12th. So I -- I can't
2 definitively answer that.

3 Q. Okay. Because you can't compare and contrast something you
4 don't know.

5 A. Right, right.

6 Q. Fair --

7 A. Yea.

8 Q. -- enough.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. You would, however, agree with me that there was an increase
11 in his Facebook friends over that time period?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And, obviously, there's some people that, I guess for 14 lack of a better term, maybe look up to Mr. Parker; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Now, in reference to this, I think you even testified as to 17 what NVG was. Do you remember that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. You've seen Mr. Parker's rifle; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. I believe you were even the one who impounded it; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. It didn't have an NVG scope when you took it into evidence;
24 correct?

25 A. I -- I'd have to recall when we took it into evidence. But

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 I don't believe on April 12th it did.

2 Q. That was their next question.

3 A. I know.

4 Q. April 12th --

5 A. Sorry.

6 Q. -- did it have an NVG scope?

7 A. Not that I recall.

8 Q. Okay. Thank you.

9 Now, we've also had some testimony yesterday about 10 these mining operations.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you remember that testimony?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. It seems, and correct me if I'm wrong, you mainly focused on 15 the Sugar Pine Mine? Is that fair to say? Or both?

16 A. It -- in my testimony or in awareness of activities?

17 Q. Just in the course and scope of your investigation.

18 A. Both.

19 Q. Both. Okay.

20 A. Um-hum.

21 Q. So you're aware of both --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- incidents?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. And you're aware of it through your Facebook

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Open Source; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, that --

4 A. Part of that --

5 Q. And --

6 A. -- yes.

7 Q. -- and those events wouldn't have anything to do with the 8 search warrant, correct, because they were after the fact?

9 Right?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Okay. Now, on those particular events, you -- I believe you 12 described them as there were "armed patrols as a deterrent to 13 the BLM"; correct?

14 A. The Sugar Pine Mine operation involved the BLM.

15 Q. I'm sorry. I was --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- I should have been a little bit more pointed on my
18 question.

19 Correct. The Sugar Pine Mine you described as "armed 20 patrols as a deterrent to the BLM"; correct?

21 A. That was part of what was going on there. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. And you've seen some pictures of Mr. Parker that were 23 brought into evidence in reference to that event; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you have any pictures that you're aware of through your

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 investigation where Mr. Parker was actually on the mine
2 property?

3 A. I wouldn't know if he was on the mining property so . . .

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. How would you not know?

7 A. I don't know where the boundaries were --

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. -- because I --

10 Q. Did --

11 A. I'm sorry.

12 Q. -- did you ever visit the --

13 A. No.

14 Q. -- mine area?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. So you didn't travel to the location; correct?

17 A. I do not.

18 Q. All right. So you're unaware of where all those pictures
19 were taken or not taken?

20 A. Specifically where on the ground or the general operation?

21 Q. Right.

22 Well, we know that they were in the general vicinity of 23 this Grants Pass, I believe. Is that --

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. -- is that --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Out --

2 Q. -- accurate?

3 A. -- outside of -- yes.

4 Q. Okay. But, in reference to the actual mine and anything
5 else, you can't tell me geographically where it was; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. Were you aware that there was a staging area
8 approximately 30 minutes away from the mine?

9 A. I -- personally, no.

10 Q. So personally, in reference to the mine, you basically can 11 only testify to what you saw on Facebook and what other agents
12 told you. Is it fair to say?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions. Thank you, Your
16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, on behalf of Mr. Drexler?
18 (Defense counsel conferring.)

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 THE WITNESS: Hi.

21 BY MR. PEREZ:

22 Q. Good morning, Agent. My name is Shawn Perez, and I
23 represent Ricky Lovelien.

24 A. Hello, sir.

25 Q. I have just a few questions.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 The scope of your warrant was March 2014?

2 A. I would -- that's my recollection. I would have to review
3 the exact warrant to confirm that.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. But . . .

6 Q. And the ending date? Approximate.

7 A. It was served in July of 2014. So that it was written
8 through present. Facebook returned the returns in August or 9 September of 2014.

10 Q. Okay. Now, in your investigation of the Facebook posts
11 and -- for Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Drexler -- you did all 12 three; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 -- did you go through the list of Facebook Friends?

16 A. I did.

17 Q. Okay. Do --

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. -- do you recall if Mr. Lovelien was a Facebook friend of
20 Mr. Parker?

21 A. I do not recall.

22 Q. Okay. And how about of Mr. Drexler?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Oh, I'm sorry. May I clarify that question?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Sure.

2 A. Was Mr. Drexler a friend of Mr. Lovelien's or was 3 Mr. Drexler a friend of Mr. Parker's? I'm sorry.

4 Q. No. Of Mr. Lovelien.

5 A. Oh, okay. No. I -- I --

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. -- retract that last answer. No, I do not recall that.

8 Q. And same question, Mr. Parker.

9 A. I do not recall that.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you investigated The Three Percenters. Was that 11 specifically the Idaho Three Percenters or was that Three 12 Percenters in general?

13 A. That was, as discussed -- it was the defendant's involvement
14 with that organization. I --

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. -- mean, they were -- that was part of -- part of their 17 involvement was with that organization --

18 Q. Okay. And in --

19 A. -- if that --

20 Q. -- your --

21 A. -- makes sense.

22 Q. -- investigation, did Mr. Lovelien's name come up in 23 connection with The Three Percenters?

24 A. I don't recall that it did.

25 Q. Okay. Now, with respect to Operation Gold Rush --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. -- that was a -- Operation Gold Rush, was that the name
3 given to it by The Three Percenters?

4 A. There were a few organizations that participated. But 5 that's my understanding, that the organizations named it that
6 based upon what we saw with the sign.

7 Q. Okay. And you investigated individuals that participated in 8 the -- in Operation Gold Rush?

9 A. The -- my -- my subjects and their involvements. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. And do you know if Mr. Lovelien was involved in 11 Operation Gold Rush?

12 A. I do not know that.

13 Q. Okay. How about with Operation Big Sky?

14 A. I do not know that.

15 Q. Okay. Did you ever see any posts by Mr. Lovelien on any of 16 the -- the -- with Mr. Drexler, Mr. Parker, or Mr. Stewart?

17 A. I do not recall --

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. -- so . . .

20 Q. And how about -- so, if you didn't see any posts, you
21 probably didn't see any Likes?

22 A. I don't recall seeing any.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. PEREZ: I have --

25 THE WITNESS: I would have --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. PEREZ: -- nothing --

2 THE WITNESS: -- to go --

3 MR. PEREZ: -- further.

4 THE WITNESS: -- back through. I apologize. I --
5 yeah, I --

6 MR. PEREZ: Great.

7 THE WITNESS: -- would have to go back.

8 MR. PEREZ: I have --

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

10 MR. PEREZ: I have nothing further.

11 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you, sir.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Drexler, go ahead with 14 cross.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Judge.

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Good morning.

19 A. Hello, sir.

20 Q. I know you've been asked questions and I may repeat myself.
21 So just --

22 A. That's fine.

23 Q. -- indulge me. Thank you very much.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. So, as I understand it, there was a couple ways that you

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 received information regarding Mr. Drexler. One would be
2 Facebook and the other one would be sort of a search warrant
3 that you sent out. Would that be fair to say?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And the search warrant, I know you were asked,
6 covered the period of time March 2nd, 2014? I believe you
7 indicated you wouldn't know until you saw your return.

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. But would that be around the time --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- the 2nd? Okay.

12 And it said "to present" when you sent it out on 13 July -- until July 4, 2014; correct?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. Okay. It was just those 2 months of Facebook returns that 16 you had to actually receive; correct?

17 A. That would be 4-plus months. But --

18 Q. Fair enough.

19 A. -- from the Facebook, right --

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. -- just . . .

22 Q. And the other way that you were able to get Facebook posts
23 were you actually looked yourself; correct?

24 A. Yes. Or other employees looked.

25 Q. Okay. And then you were able to capture, as we saw,

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 screenshots.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Correct?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. What program -- do you know what program you used to capture
6 these screenshots?

7 A. So it -- it varies. Snagit is one. Some people do Snips.
8 So just kind of a -- you -- a snip is a -- drawing a block;
9 it's a function of -- you know, software. You just draw a
10 block through something and save that. Another is -- you can
11 do -- through the toolbar at the top of a -- like, a Windows
12 screen, you can do File and Print As or Save As and that will 13 save as well.

14 Q. So. And I'm only referring to you 'cuz --

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. -- I don't want you to testify what other people were doing.

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. What did you do specifically? What did you use
19 specifically?

20 A. When I would have captured the time, Snips mostly.

21 Q. Okay. So does it sort of PDF it, if you will, and then save
22 it onto your computer? Is that how it works?

23 A. With the -- a snip is just a capture of the image. I don't
24 think it makes it into a -- I'd have to go back and see if it
25 makes it into a separate PDF document. I don't believe so

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 though.

2 Q. Okay. When you're looking at somebody's Facebook page and
3 you're looking at a picture, are you able to look at the 4 metadata on that picture?

5 A. No. If you just look -- that would only be becoming through 6 a search warrant. If you're just viewing it, I wouldn't have 7 access to that.

8 Q. Okay. So the pictures that -- some of the pictures that we 9 saw, you wouldn't know when that picture was taken other than 10 the characteristics of the picture; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. So there's no metadata on there that you would be 13 able to take off of that picture; right?

14 A. And, again, unless it was something that come in through the 15 search warrant -- through the search warrant, Facebook would 16 provide that but not for a general viewer.

17 Q. Right.

18 And now I'm only speaking -- I spoke about the search
19 warrant before --

20 A. Yep.

21 Q. -- the returns. Now I'm only speaking about what you
22 actually captured.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. All right. And did you also serve a search warrant
25 on any other social media, for example, YouTube?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. No. No other social media.

2 Q. No other. No Twitter?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. No Google?

5 A. No.

6 Q. No Yahoo!?

7 A. No.

8 Q. So what we have here that you brought forward, in terms of 9 evidence or what you were asked about, is sort of the world of 10 what you found on Mr. Drexler; correct?

11 A. Yes, yeah.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. And I believe I counted -- there was a total of seven pages
15 that you testified to yesterday when the Government asked you
16 regarding Mr. Drexler's Facebook. Does that sound about right?

17 A. I -- I would --

18 MS. AHMED: Objection --

19 THE WITNESS: -- have to --

20 MS. AHMED: -- I would ask for clarification as to 21 pages of what?

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Of Facebook or -- well, of Facebook. Does that sound about
24 right?

25 A. If I can think through for a moment.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. If you --

3 Q. That's okay.

4 A. -- don't mind. So I -- based upon my recollection . . .

5 (Pause.) That sounds about right.

6 Q. Okay. And your search warrant was obviously March so that
7 would have been a month before April 12th, the Bundy -- when 8 we -- sort of when Mr. Drexler was on the bridge. That would 9 have been a month before. Correct?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could pull up 124, please,
13 Brian.

14 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go to the top, please.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Okay. So, as I understood your testimony yesterday,
18 whenever there's a blue (drawing) heading with a "Facebook
19 Business Record" that would have come from a search warrant;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay. And we see "Page 87" here (drawing); correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And there's some big, obviously, block. You don't
25 get it that way; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. No. There's content there.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go down, Brian.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. All right. So this is what you testified to yesterday
6 (drawing) in terms of what you got returned back from Facebook
7 regarding Mr. Drexler; correct?

8 A. Yeah, I -- I testified to those. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. Now, there's no conversations going on with 10 Mr. Drexler or anybody here; right?

11 A. No, not with those.

12 Q. Right. All this is, is a reposting of an article, the first 13 one being from (drawing) "reuters"; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And Reuters is what? Is that a news organization?

16 A. It's a news service, yes.

17 Q. Okay. A respectable, I guess, news source?

18 A. It's -- it's mainstream, yes.

19 Q. Okay. And this one (drawing) is down here, "msnbc";
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And that is somebody called "rachel-maddow" --
23 "maddow" -- "maddow-show"?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Are you aware of who Rachel Maddow is?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. She's a journalist.

2 Q. Okay. Is this a journalist that would have written an
3 article or would that have been a video?

4 A. You know, honest -- there was -- I -- I would have to go
5 back. There was a picture associated with that. But I'd have 6 to see if there was a video too.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. So --

9 Q. And MS --

10 A. -- I believe --

11 Q. -- NBC --

12 A. -- that was --

13 Q. -- that's --

14 A. I'm sorry.

15 Q. -- a reputable, I guess source --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- correct?

18 A. Also mainstream.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. Um-hum.

21 Q. And I believe you testified that this summary is not
22 something (drawing) that the person who is posting this website
23 (drawing) is not something they would do; correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. This would be generated, this summary, "BUNKERVILLE, Nevada

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 (Reuters)" -- if I can just read it -- "U.S. officials ended a
2 stand-off," that would have been something that is a synopsis
3 of this article; correct?

4 A. It's a portion of the article. Right.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. Um-hum.

7 Q. But --

8 A. And in that one I believe it was just the beginning.

9 Q. Okay. But the person posting this has no control over this 10 summary (drawing); correct?

11 A. I don't believe they have any control over it, no.

12 Q. Okay. Now, you indicate -- or you didn't -- you testified
13 that this text (drawing) is what somebody could control.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And so your testimony is, is that Mr. Drexler
16 (drawing) wrote the text, "But it looks like we may have to go
17 back."

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Correct? Okay.

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And this was after (drawing) the 12th of April; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, in your investigation, did you ever know whether 24 Mr. Drexler actually went back to Bunkerville?

25 A. I'm not aware that he did.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay. So maybe I asked that wrong.

2 You don't know or your investigation did not reveal
3 anything that suggested he ever went back to Nevada or
4 Bunkerville?

5 A. Correct. The latter.

6 Q. The latter. Very good.

7 This text (drawing), again, says "nice pic Eric";
8 correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that's something that Mr. Drexler would have written?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Do you know what that's referring to? I don't have 13 any pictures here (pointing). I don't have any pictures here
14 (pointing). Do you know what that would be referring to?

15 A. That was a picture that was associated with that article
16 with Mr. Parker in a -- in a kneeling position with a rifle on 17 the bridge.

18 Q. Okay. And that came from this (drawing) MSNBC Rachel Maddow
19 Show?

20 A. Yes. That was associated with that.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. Um-hum.

23 Q. And, again, you don't know if that's a video or an article
24 written.

25 A. Unfortunately, I don't, no, or recall right now.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 126, please, Brian.

3 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go to the top, please. Okay.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Okay. So we don't have any blue (drawing) up here.

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. So this is something that would have captured?

9 A. I did not capture this one, no. I reviewed this.

10 Q. You did not capture it.

11 A. No. Another FBI employee did.

12 Q. Okay. Were you -- did you capture anything with

13 Mr. Drexler?

14 A. Did I capture -- did I capture anything with -- I reviewed
15 everything that was captured. Did I capture? I believe so. I
16 don't know if any of those items are in here.

17 Q. So you actually got onto -- personally -- and I just want to 18 know what you did -- you actually got on Mr. Drexler's web
19 page --

20 A. I'm sorry?

21 Q. -- or Facebook page? You personally?

22 A. As an -- as an investigator?

23 Q. Correct.

24 A. To view it, yes.

25 Q. Okay. But, looking at just this page right here, you can

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 tell that you did not look at that page. You just reviewed
2 that later.

3 A. Correct. Right.

4 Q. So another FBI agent actually took this screenshot.

5 A. Another FBI employee. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. You don't know how they took this screenshot, do you?

7 A. That was a -- that other option I was talking about, the
8 File and it's a Print Screen and it's a capture. So it's a
9 File, Print Screen, and it captures everything.

10 Q. Okay. But you testified that other agents used different
11 programs to capture these images; right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Okay. And so you wouldn't know what that -- another agent
14 used to capture this image, do you?

15 A. I talked with the individual.

16 Q. Okay. What program did they use to --

17 A. That --

18 Q. -- capture?

19 A. -- that was File, Print, Print Screen, or Save As/Print As, 20 and then it captures the entire document. And it -- it puts 21 those headers on there.

22 Q. Okay. Was the only source -- the Facebook that you brought 23 in, the only source from either you, Facebook, or other 24 investigators then that we have these?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. That would be it; right?

2 A. Facebook, other . . . I believe so, yes.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go down, please, Brian.

5 Stop.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. It says here -- now, you indicated that another agent
8 brought this off guard -- or downloaded this or got a snapshot
9 of this; correct?

10 A. Another employee. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. And, now, you indicated (drawing) this is something
12 that Scott Drexler would have written; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. But you don't know whether he actually wrote that, do
15 you?

16 A. No. Based upon how it shows there, I believe he wrote that
17 but . . .

18 Q. It's a belief --

19 A. Right.

20 Q. -- it's not a certainty; correct?

21 A. Right. I wasn't with him when it was written.

22 Q. Okay. And, even if you weren't with him when it was 23 written, just because there's text here that doesn't mean that
24 it didn't come from someone else; correct?

25 A. Certainly. Within Facebook, such as an email address, if

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 you give your username and password to someone else, they could
2 enter something for you.

3 Q. Okay. Now, it says here, "Glad . . . to spend a few days in
4 Oregon."

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Were you aware that he went to Oregon?

7 A. Prior to this -- viewing this, no, I hadn't seen anything --
8 any -- anything else with him in Oregon.

9 Q. Okay. Were -- were you made aware at any time that 10 Mr. Drexler was ever arrested in Oregon?

11 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: It goes to her investigation, Your 13 Honor. She's testified to Oregon; she's testified to Montana.
14 And it just goes into her investigation and how deep she went 15 and what she showed.

16 MS. AHMED: Obligation, relevance.

17 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

18 (Begin sidebar conference.)

19 THE COURT: All right. So we're at sidebar.

20 The objection was to relevance. Mr. Leventhal, do you
21 believe the answer's gonna be "yes" or "no"? Because I don't 22 know if Mr. Drexler was --

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, he --

24 THE COURT: -- arrested --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- was not.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: -- in Oregon.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I --

3 THE COURT: -- so I didn't want that to come in if it's 4 not --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, I wouldn't --

6 THE COURT: All right. Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- I would never raise that if I
8 thought that was --

9 THE COURT: Right. That's what my --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

11 THE COURT: -- concern was --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, no, no.

13 THE COURT: Where are --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: The -- no.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 COURT REPORTER: One at a time, please.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry.

18 And I don't think they would have objected to it if he 19 was.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: So I know the answer is no. But the 22 point is, is that obviously under 404(b) they've said it's 23 intwix -- I can't speak. I got a shot this morning --
24 inexplicably -- whatever it is -- intertwined. And, you know,
25 it's leaving the impression with the jury that this was some

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 unlawful event that they went to. And, if it wasn't an
2 unlawful event, then you're gonna leave it with the jury, like
3 we've left a lot of things just sort of hanging there, that it
4 was unlawful.

5 He was not arrested there. He was not indicted there.
6 And so I should be able to -- at least in terms of not leaving
7 some hanging fruit out there that, oh, my God. He went to 8 Montana, he went here, and he went to all these places. But 9 maybe he just went. Maybe he just went on vacation. Maybe he 10 just -- you know, they've brought in pictures of him being 11 there. But nothing more. But obviously leaving that with the 12 jury gives an impression that he went for some illegal or 13 nefarious reason when he never was arrested, he went there, he 14 spent a few days there, that's it, and came back. So that's 15 why it's relevant.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, whether or not Mr. Drexler was 17 arrested is relevant. We wouldn't -- we would object to it
18 regardless of the answer. It doesn't go to -- just as these 19 defendants are not presumed guilty because they've been 20 indicted nor arrested in this case, it doesn't mean that the 21 absence of an arrest means that what their activities were was 22 not unlawful. By asking that question, you're trying to imply
23 to the jury what he's doing was lawful. There are other ways
24 to ask that without getting into this irrelevant question and 25 then trying to leverage it to something that it is not. So --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I --

2 MS. AHMED: -- he can ask her if she knows whether he
3 went on vacation.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I --

5 MS. AHMED: That --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- pretty --

7 MS. AHMED: No. I'm just saying that that's an area
8 that I don't think that that was the point of your questioning
9 is that she doesn't know what he did when he got there other
10 than what she's seen in photographs. There are other ways, I
11 believe, Your Honor, that he could do that without getting into 12 whether or not he was arrested and then trying to imply through 13 that question that he was not doing anything criminal because 14 he wasn't arrested.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, then I can ask her questions
16 based upon whether or not she knows whether he pointed a gun at 17 anybody; whether he went there to assault anybody; and I can go
18 through all that if that's what she's saying. I don't have a 19 problem with that.

20 MS. AHMED: Obviously, I'd object to anything that 21 calls for legal conclusions but . . .

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, that's what --

23 THE COURT: Right, the factual questions. Do you -- do
24 you know if he pulled a gun at someone. Do you -- but not 25 actually saying did he assault someone.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well --

2 THE COURT: I think that's her objection. Right? You
3 don't want to use a legal terminology, just factually.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Fair enough.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: Does that clarify all the objections? All
7 right.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Thank you.

9 (End sidebar conference.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, the -- you know, I don't
11 know if really the objection is sustained or overruled. I
12 think it was withdrawn and the form of the question was 13 clarified.

14 And so you may continue, Mr. Leventhal.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. Thank you, Your Honor.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Agent Draper, you testified regarding this -- I guess, a
18 trip to Oregon yesterday. Do you remember --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- on direct?

21 A. Um-hum.

22 Q. Okay. Were you aware whether or not Mr. Drexler pointed a
23 gun at anybody in Oregon?

24 A. I'm not aware of that.

25 Q. Okay. Were you aware whether or not Mr. Drexler demanded

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 anything back from anybody in terms of property in Oregon?

2 A. Nope.

3 Q. Okay. Do you know how long Mr. Drexler stayed in Oregon?

4 A. I do not.

5 Q. Okay. Have you -- you live in Idaho, correct, I think you
6 said?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. You're the case agent on this because you're in Idaho and 12 Mr. Drexler lives in Idaho; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. And, during your investigation, you came to know that 15 Mr. Drexler lives in a town called "Challis"; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And have you ever been to Challis?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Had you ever had any dealings with The Three Percent
20 club prior to or after the 12th of April 2014?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection, vague --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

23 MS. AHMED: -- compound.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I can break it down.

25 THE COURT: Please.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Prior to 2012-2014, had you had any dealings with the club
3 called "The Three Percenters"?

4 A. No.

5 Q. After 2012-2014, did you have any personal dealings with
6 anybody in this club called "The Three Percenters"?

7 MS. AHMED: Objection both to personal dealings and 8 reference to this organize as "club." I don't think she 9 testified to that.

10 THE COURT: Do you want to explain what "personal
11 dealings" mean? I mean, 'cuz I have to agree. It sounds,
12 like, are you asking, like, outside of her profession? Or you
13 just mean her personally as opposed to her agency?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll ask both.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Personally have you had any dealings with anybody who is in 17 The Three Percenter club and . . .

18 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I can -- if we need another sidebar, I
20 can tell why, the Court, it's relevant.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go to sidebar.

22 (Begin sidebar conference.)

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 The relevance is this. One of the Facebook pages that
2 Agent Draper has given us has under the word "Friends" -- it
3 wasn't redacted for some reason -- it says "4 mutual Friends."
4 I want to -- these are a precursor so that when I ask her, how
5 do you have four mutual friends with Scott Drexler? I want to 6 know why she has four personal; if it's her or if it's another
7 FBI agent.

8 I've already asked her whether or not she took the 9 screenshot. She said no, that was another agent. Okay.

10 So my question is because there is some writing on 11 the -- there's some text. And, if she went undercover or if 12 she knows these people or she has assumed another name, it goes
13 to the weight of the evidence. And that's clearly allowed --
14 it's already been brought in for the jury to weigh whether or 15 not she was under cover at the time, whether she was using an 16 alias. Why would she have four mutual friends with Scott
17 Drexler? I have no idea.

18 Otherwise, I'm gonna ask her whether or not she used
19 her name when she went on because she needs to have a password
20 and she needs to have all that stuff too. There should be no
21 reason why she should have four mutual friends with Scott
22 Drexler. So this is all setting up a foundation because I
23 gotta make sure that that's what she's gonna say. And, when I
24 ask her the ultimate question -- that's where I'm going -- why
25 do you have four mutual friends? It's on there, I want to make

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 sure that she doesn't say, well, that was another agent or --
2 she -- she's already testifies that it was her, another agent,
3 or Facebook that gave her the stuff. So I don't want her to 4 now at the end of it say, oh, that wasn't me; that was from 5 something else.

6 So that's where I'm going with it. I just gave you
7 where I'm going with it. That's the relevance.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's building a foundation.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the question itself is still 11 irrelevant. There's no way to get -- I will say that the 12 agent's already said that she didn't capture that post. All of 13 those Open Source posts that are in evidence are all from the 14 same capture. So you're gonna -- she's not the one who 15 captured them. I'll just -- if that's where you're trying to 16 go, I can tell you right now that she's not the one who
17 captured them. But if you want -- if you were to put that post
18 in front of her and say "Did you capture this post?" and then
19 she said "yes" or "no," that's the way, I would think, that one 20 could --

21 THE COURT: Are the four mutual friends the
22 codefendants?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MS. AHMED: But I would just say that the way this

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017—

1 question is currently before this witness is irrelevant, Your
2 Honor.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well --

4 MS. AHMED: And if Drexler was -- excuse me --

5 Mr. Leventhal was to put that post in front of her and ask
6 specific questions about that post, we could clarify whether or
7 not she was the one who captured it and resolve that question
8 of these four mutual friends that way.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you for telling me.

10 This is how I'm building it up, one. I'll get to that 11 post. It's not this post; it's another post that -- where it
12 says "4 mutual Friends."

13 THE COURT: Yeah, because I didn't see that on --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, it's --

15 THE COURT: -- this post.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- not this one. It's --

17 MS. AHMED: No, no.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- a different one. But I'm just 19 building -- along the way building a foundation to get to that 20 question on why she has four mutual friends or somebody else.

21 And that's, again, the problem with what I'm having
22 is -- I'm having a confrontation problem because I'm now
23 talking to somebody who didn't even capture the post. It's now
24 through another agent who this was given to her. And that's 25 been a problem all along. So, even when I ask her the ultimate

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 question, she's gonna say I don't know what the other agent did
2 or didn't do. That's not -- that's not -- that's not what a
3 trial is for. This is the right to confront and cross-examine
4 those who are here. And now we've got this witness who is
5 gonna be -- probably gonna say I don't know; I didn't do it.
6 And so, again, I would object on confrontation --

7 THE COURT: So you're trying --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- grounds but --

9 THE COURT: -- impeach her ability to lay a foundation
10 for the admissibility of that exhibit?

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, not at all.

12 THE COURT: She doesn't have personal knowledge because 13 she's not the one who --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I haven't gotten to the --

15 THE COURT: -- was involved in the screenshot? I guess
16 I'm . . .

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I haven't asked her that
18 question.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: The po- -- well, I haven't gotten to 21 the post yet. So I haven't gotten to that one. She said she 22 did some; she didn't do other ones. So I don't know whether 23 she captured it. I'm just hearing this from Ms. Ahmed that 24 that's -- she'll say no, she doesn't know. But I haven't ask
25 her --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: No. I'm --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- that.

3 MS. AHMED: -- not saying she won't know. I'm saying
4 she didn't capture it. But --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: But she didn't say --

6 MS. AHMED: -- I'm --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- that.

8 MS. AHMED: -- I'm just saying that -- I just want it
9 to be clear on what I said just now.

10 I didn't say that she won't know the answer to your 11 question. But I'm just saying that, from my understanding, she 12 was not the one who captured any of the public posts that were 13 put into evidence that are already admitted.

14 But, Your Honor, asking her about her personal
15 relationships with other people in The Three Percent is 16 irrelevant to this. I mean, he's asking her about personal
17 contacts she has with The Three Percent.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: It says "four mutual Friends." So if 19 she says yes --

20 MS. AHMED: You could ask --

21 COURT REPORTER: One at a time.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sorry.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So I think the objection is not to 24 Mr. Leventhal's purpose or intent or the testimony that he
25 hopes to elicit. The objection is that it might go in a

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 different direction and it might get into her personal life and
2 the people she knows and their contacts with The Three
3 Percenters because of the -- so I think it's a form-of-the-
4 question objection as to whether or not you're asking her if 5 she has any friends or relatives who know someone who have --
6 you know, are in The Three -- it's a small town --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

8 THE COURT: -- I think --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

10 THE COURT: -- Challis.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's Challis. But --

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- it's a small little town.

14 THE COURT: We already --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's why --

16 THE COURT: -- know that.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- I'm building that up to find out why
18 she has mutual friends with Scott Drexler.

19 MS. AHMED: Which is why, Your Honor, I would ask --

20 THE COURT: So I don't think -- I don't have any
21 problem with Mr. Leventhal's intended line of questioning. I
22 think what I'm understanding the Government to say is that if 23 you hear that we're going into her brother's, sister's,
24 daughter's ex-boyfriend who used to be a member; like those --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: -- type of -- and we don't know if
2 that's --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

4 THE COURT: -- true, but it could be. Right?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

6 THE COURT: It could be somebody's ex-boyfriend
7 that's --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

9 THE COURT: -- related to her was a member in
10 something.

11 So I think that's the concern is -- if you focus --
12 maybe restate the question a little more focused to avoid 13 accidentally going somewhere we don't want to go.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I just don't want the ultimate answer
15 to be, oh, my brother who was a Three Percenter actually pulled 16 that off the page who happened to be friends with Scott.
17 That's all I'm trying to avoid is that when we get to that 18 ultimate question she says, oh, I didn't take that one; that 19 was a brother who had four mutual friends. That's what I'm --

20 THE COURT: Well, if that's --

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- trying to avoid.

22 THE COURT: -- what it was, then, I mean, you want to 23 know that.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, but yes.

25 THE COURT: We'd just . . .

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: So I would just ask that those questions be
2 to the actual exhibit -- relate to the actual exhibit that's in
3 question as opposed to just broad questions about her personal
4 life when she's here as a case agent and she's spoken only on
5 direct to her investigation as a case agent. So --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: I will --

7 MS. AHMED: -- I --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- keep it -- if it's okay, I will keep 9 it as a professional line of questioning as to what she did
10 professionally in her investigation, if she ever had any 11 communications or spoke to anybody from The Three Percenters or 12 Scott or she knew Scott personally or anything like that.

13 THE COURT: I think the foundation question is did you
14 personally download any of these screenshots from the
15 Facebook --

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: She --

17 THE COURT: -- account.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- well, I'm going through each one.
19 And she said -- the first one I had showed her she said, no,
20 she didn't do that one.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: So I was gonna go through each one.
23 And then ultimately why does this person have four mutual
24 friends with Scott Drexler if -- did he go undercover?

25 THE COURT: Okay. So I think you need to lay

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 foundation first that she actually has at some point been on
2 Facebook and been potentially the person who took the 3 screenshot of the post in question that you're saying has four
4 mutual friends listed on it.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

6 MS. AHMED: That's my point, Your Honor, is --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: And ultimately I --

8 MS. AHMED: -- it ultimately should be related to an
9 exhibit. If they are about an exhibit, they should be related
10 to the exhibit and not just broad, general questions about 11 relationships with people in The Three Percent. It's so broad.
12 I mean, it could go into -- it just seems like it's fishing for 13 information about possible other investigations or other -- you
14 know, it could go -- again, it's a huge question when it's --
15 all that it seems Mr. Leventhal's purpose is to establish 16 something about a specific exhibit.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, I just recall her saying
18 that she -- she's seen some of the videos and she's been on the 19 pages and such. But I don't remember her saying yet that she's 20 actually downloaded any of these in a screenshot or by other
21 applications. I know she talked about other applications that 22 are used.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Um-hum.

24 THE COURT: But I don't remember her saying that she 25 did it herself.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

2 THE COURT: But it was some other agent or some other
3 employee under her supervision but not that it was her account.
4 Maybe just lay a little bit of foundation and
5 then . . .

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Judge.

7 (End sidebar conference.)

8 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is sustained
9 as to the form of the question.

10 And, Mr. Leventhal, you may go ahead and continue down
11 the path and just be more --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: -- specific to the form of the question.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Agent Draper, let me back up for a minute.

17 Did you have in your capacity as a FBI agent any 18 personal -- not personal -- dealings with anybody from The 19 Three Percent? As an FBI agent.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. It's what we just 23 discussed. It's overbroad, vague.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: I'd ask to strike both the question and 2 answer.

3 THE COURT: The question and answer will be stricken.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Is there a hierarchy in Idaho with the FBI?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And the individuals that you indicated earlier that 8 may have taken off some of the screenshots, were they -- were 9 you the lead on this investigation or were you all working
10 together?

11 A. No. I was the lead on that investigation on -- on
12 Mr. Drexler.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. There were other people who helped but . . .

15 Q. So when we spoke earlier about the fact that I showed you a 16 post and you indicated you did not take that screenshot, it was 17 someone else.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. So these -- is this someone else that works for the 20 FBI?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Doesn't necessarily work for you. But you were the lead
23 agent on this?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. So I guess everything sort of would have gotten filtered up

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 to you.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 127, please, Brian.

5 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Okay. Again, this is a post that has no (drawing) blue so

8 that would not have been through a search warrant; correct?

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. This is something that either yourself or another agent

11 would have taken a screenshot of; correct?

12 A. Right. Another employee, right.

13 Q. Okay. How many employees did you have working taking

14 screenshots?

15 A. I -- there were a num- -- a number of people who assisted

16 with the investigation over time. I . . .

17 Q. Let me --

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. -- sort of --

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. -- clarify. I --

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. -- apologize. And I don't mean to speak over you.

24 In terms of these pages, just --

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. -- just focusing on Mr. Drexler pages --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- we don't have a number of them. We only have, I believe
4 we indicated, about seven; correct?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. Okay. And the world of sort of Facebook was not enormous
7 when it came to Mr. Drexler; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. I think we saw other people had 7-8 thousand pages.
10 That clearly wasn't with Mr. Drexler; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. So how many of your agents would look and take a
13 screenshot and filter it up to you? How many different agents,
14 if you know?

15 A. Over time?

16 Q. Well, let me go to this --

17 A. Yep.

18 Q. -- right here.

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. May 4th, 20 --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- 15.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How many agents would have been on Mr. Drexler's Facebook
25 May 4th, 2015?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Maybe five other employees at a given -- five or six. I --
2 just a guess.

3 Q. So five or six different people would have looked at 4 Mr. Drexler's Facebook and then filtered that up to you in some 5 way, shape, or form?

6 A. If there was something relevant, correct.

7 Q. Okay. And relevant is what you -- they determined to be
8 relevant?

9 A. Right. But then I would approve if it was something that 10 would be captured of it for evidentiary reasons into a case
11 file. Does --

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. -- that make sense?

14 Q. So they didn't pull everything off of Facebook in terms --
15 just for Mr. Drexler. They didn't pull everything; they just 16 kinda spot-checked what they thought was relevant and they 17 would pull that off. Correct?

18 A. I -- on that day or total? I'm . . . It was an ongoing
19 review. I'm sorry. I'm, um . . .

20 Q. Let me back up.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. Did you ever -- did you ever get on Scott Drexler's web
23 page -- or Facebook page?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. Personally?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, in my official capacity.

2 Q. Yes, of --

3 A. Right.

4 Q. -- course.

5 A. Right. Yes.

6 Q. As your official capacity, you got --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- on his web page; right? Okay.

9 On 5-4-2015, do you remember getting on Scott Drexler's
10 personal web page?

11 A. No, I did not remember.

12 Q. Okay. Now, in looking at this heading here (drawing), this 13 is Scott Drexler's Facebook page; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. We've seen this before, though. And I believe we saw it on 16 Eric Parker's web page; correct? (Drawing.)

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Okay. So, if somebody obviously puts something on their web
19 page, I think you indicated that because Scott's name is here
20 (drawing) it then goes to his page; correct?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection as to web page generally. I
22 don't know if we're talking about all web pages or Facebook.
23 Vague, I guess.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. If Eric Ej Parker posts something, Scott Drexler (drawing)
3 without knowing his name is in there, it goes on his web page;
4 is that correct?

5 A. I can't speak as an expert on Facebook at that time.
6 Generally -- well, I -- generally someone would have to approve
7 if they were tagged in something. But I don't -- I'm -- in May 8 of 2015, I don't know what the Facebook settings or rules would 9 have been. I'm sorry.

10 Q. Well, in 2015, you were investigating this case; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And so did you familiarize yourself with the -- how Facebook
13 sort of did what they did?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So then you should be able to answer how does Eric's
16 words and page get onto Scott Drexler's page.

17 A. My understanding is he would have to approve that, but 18 that's just my understanding.

19 Q. How would one approve something?

20 A. So if something was suggested to someone's timeline, my 21 understanding is that user would have to approve that that 22 actually be posted to their timeline.

23 Q. Okay. So verbatim (drawing) this shows up on Eric Parker's
24 web page and verbatim it shows up on Scott Drexler's web page;
25 is that correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: Objection as to a web page. Can we clarify
2 what web page we're --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Facebook. I apologize.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Facebook page.

6 A. Yes. I mean, I -- I -- it appears to be the same without 7 doing side-by-side analysis.

8 Q. Okay. So, again, Scott Drexler would not have written
9 (drawing) this text.

10 A. No.

11 Q. Scott Drexler would not have posted (drawing) this video.

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go down this, please. Brian,
15 go down. Okay. Stop.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Now, again, this is Scott (drawing) Drexler's Facebook page
18 and yet there's only one person there saying something;
19 correct?

20 A. That's not been redacted. Right.

21 Q. Okay. That's not been redacted (drawing); right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And that's the exact same word for word that was on 24 Eric Parker's Facebook page; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go down a little bit more,
2 please. I think it's all. All right. Go to 128, please,
3 Brian.

4 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we go down.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Now, again --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go back up. I apologize.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Again, this is -- there's no (drawing), I guess, blue up
11 there. So --

12 A. Right.

13 Q. -- again, this is something that either yourself or an agent
14 captured; correct?

15 A. Yes. Another employee, right.

16 Q. Okay. And, again, it's on 5/4/15, the same day that we saw 17 (drawing) previous; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we go down a little bit
20 please, Brian. Thank you. Okay. Stop.

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. Okay. So now we see that this is a -- (drawing) Scott
23 Drexler's name is there; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And it's dated December 11th 2014 (drawing); correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. And it says, "Challis, Idaho." Does he actually
3 input that or is that automatic?

4 A. I believe that's automatic. I don't think he inputs that.

5 Q. Okay. Is that Challis, Idaho, based upon (drawing) where he
6 was at the time? Or is that Challis -- go ahead and answer
7 that. I don't want a compound question so . . .

8 A. I believe it's based upon where their settings are. But 9 I -- I don't want to -- I can't answer that definitively.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. I . . .

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if we could go just down.

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. And now the post looks like a Washington Times post;
15 correct? (Drawing.)

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Again, he's posting from -- have you -- is that a
18 reputable news organization?

19 A. I believe so.

20 Q. Okay. So, again, so far we've got Reuters; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. MSNBC?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And wasingtontimes.com; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay. And this obviously --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just go up a little bit, Brian, please.

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. This "Utah to seize own land from government, challenge
5 federal dominance of Western states," did you actually read
6 that? Was that a -- or did you watch a video? Or was that a
7 news -- written?

8 A. I did not read it, no.

9 Q. Okay. Do you know whether it was written or whether it's a
10 video?

11 A. I believe that was -- well, I don't -- I don't watch it
12 so . . .

13 Q. Okay. Can you read what it says here (drawing) and then 14 just go ahead and . . .

15 A. Yes. I'm sorry. I'll move over here.

16 "In" -- "In three weeks, Utah intends to seize 17 control" -- or I'm sorry. Just those three words?

18 Q. Yes. No. Go ahead. The whole thing.

19 A. "In three weeks, Utah intends to seize control of 20 31.2 million acres of its own land now under the control of the 21 federal government. At least, that's the plan."

22 Q. Okay. Obviously this is not authored by Mr. Drexler; it's 23 authored by somebody named Valerie Richardson (drawing);
24 correct?

25 A. Yes, correct.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 125, please.

3 THE COURT: Before we get off that, can we go back to
4 Exhibit, I think it was, 127. Was that the Drexler Facebook
5 page?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

7 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

8 THE COURT: Special Agent Draper, is there a tag alert
9 on that post?

10 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't -- I don't know.

11 THE COURT: Is this Drexler's page or Parker's page?

12 THE WITNESS: This is Drexler's, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. That's fine.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: 125, please.

15 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. So, again, there's no blue (drawing); correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Okay. So this would not be a search warrant. This would be 21 something either you or one of --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- your agents --

24 A. One of -- one of the employees. Correct. Yep. Um-hum.

25 Q. And this is indicating that there's a person with a T-shirt

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 here; correct?

2 A. Yes, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And you don't know who that person is, do you?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. And it says something about the "I AM III PERCENT";
6 correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And it says something about Scott Drexler (drawing);
9 correct?

10 A. Yep.

11 Q. Okay. Tell me something. (Drawing.) It says there that 12 the person who pulled this off --

13 A. Um-hum.

14 Q. -- had four mutual friends --

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. -- with Scott Drexler.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Were you or any of your agents in an undercover capacity at 19 the time that you took these screenshots?

20 A. This particular --

21 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: It goes to weight of the evidence and 23 whether or not this jury can look at all of these and say
24 whether or not they are worthy of what they are bringing in or 25 if there's some doubt to 'em. The fact that an FBI agent

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 and --

2 THE COURT: Just a minute.

3 So the objection is to relevance?

4 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor, relevance and --

5 THE COURT: And the response is --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Goes to --

7 THE COURT: -- that it goes to the weight.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Absolutely, Judge.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I don't think there's any posts
10 that were offered other than things that appeared by 11 Mr. Parker's account or by Mr. Drexler's account that posted to 12 that page. So whether or not anyone else was posting would be 13 irrelevant.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: That what?

15 MS. AHMED: If anyone else is a friend and they are 16 putting content to that page, it's irrelevant; it wasn't put 17 into issue.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: We're gonna get to that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So what is your current question
20 then? Because I need to rule on the current objection --

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: My current --

22 THE COURT: -- not what --

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- question is --

24 THE COURT: -- we're gonna get to.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- is, is whether or not she or any of

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 her FBI agents went undercover in order to get onto
2 Mr. Drexler's web page. And that would go to the weight
3 because we have -- there is one -- there is one communication
4 with a gentleman named Chris Willard --

5 THE COURT: Why don't you clarify that as -- going
6 undercover has a whole other vague connotation there. Are you
7 just asking what name -- what Facebook page was used to look at 8 these things or to obtain access?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: That would be one question, yes, Your
10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. You can ask that
12 question.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. What name did -- did you use an alias or another name in 16 order to get onto other people's web -- Facebook page?

17 A. Did I?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. To view it passively, yes.

20 Q. What does that's mean, "passively"?

21 A. Not interact with someone.

22 Q. Okay. You said you indicated you had six -- five or six
23 agents that were also pulling off Facebook posts; correct?

24 A. Other -- other employees.

25 Q. Other employees. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 And you indicated already that they sort of worked for
2 you; correct? You were the case agent; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Did the other five or six case agents also use aliases to 5 get onto people's web -- Facebook pages?

6 A. Yes. We would not do it in our true name.

7 Q. Okay. So the fact that -- and you would agree with me that
8 this page right here is taken from the FBI; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. This snapshot; right?

11 A. Yes, yes.

12 Q. Either yourself or one of your six; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. And it's indicating that (drawing) whoever that FBI
15 agent is had four mutual friends with Scott Drexler; correct?

16 A. Yes, that employee.

17 Q. Okay. That employee.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Okay. And, once you become friends with somebody, as we saw 20 earlier --

21 A. Right.

22 Q. -- with Eric Parker, once you post something it then goes
23 to -- or tag somebody, it goes to their page; correct?

24 A. That's my understanding.

25 Q. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 123, please.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. You started investigating that case in April of 2014;
4 correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay.

7 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go down, please.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. (Drawing.) This conversation right here --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- Chris Willard --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- were you aware of the names that your agents used in 15 order to get on these web pages?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. But --

19 Q. No, no.

20 A. I'm sorry.

21 Q. You were --

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. -- not aware --

25 MS. AHMED: -- I'd ask that the witness be allowed to

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 answer the question --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: She --

3 MS. AHMED: -- fully.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- answered it. She said no.

5 THE COURT: No, she didn't. Let her finish her
6 response, please.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Go ahead. You said no, you don't.

9 A. Correct. You can ask your next question. I . . . That's 10 fine.

11 Q. Okay. So --

12 A. That's fine.

13 Q. -- just so we're clear, you were not aware of what your five
14 or six agents' names they used in order to get onto Scott
15 Drexler's web page; correct?

16 A. Correct. But -- except for but in an approved undercover
17 capacity, we would not be communicating. That's what the 18 passive viewing would be so . . .

19 Q. Well, I understand that you indicated you did passive --

20 A. Right.

21 Q. -- but were you sitting over your agents?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Agent Draper. I have
25 nothing further.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Any cross --

3 MR. PEREZ: I've already crossed, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Oh, you already -- oh, you did yesterday;
5 right? Okay. I'm losing track of time.

6 All right. So any redirect from the Government?

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I just have one moment?

8 THE COURT: Yes, of course.

9 (Government counsel conferring.)

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I do have just a brief
11 redirect.

12 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Good morning again, Agent Draper.

15 A. Good morning.

16 Q. Now, Mr. Leventhal was just asking you questions about 17 whether or not there was any undercover communications with 18 Mr. Drexler on Facebook. Do you recall that line of 19 questioning?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And so you were differentiating between how Facebook --
22 Mr. Drexler's Facebook account would have been reviewed and 23 captured. Do you recall that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you indicated something about an approved -- any

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 undercover communications would have to have been approved.

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. To your knowledge, were any undercover communications made
4 under the name Chris Willard with Drexler?

5 A. No, not to my knowledge. No.

6 Q. And were -- had Mr. Drexler's response underneath --

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish Exhibit 123?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Is that 23?

9 MS. AHMED: 123.

10 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. So I believe you were explaining to the jury yesterday this 13 was from the search warrant returns; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And so there was a picture that Mr. Drexler had made his 16 profile picture from the April 12th, 2014, incident; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And these were comments made in response to that picture.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's foundational.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's not.

22 THE COURT: Overruled for foundational purposes so we 23 can get to the point.

24 THE WITNESS: Yes.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. So, to your knowledge, this was not an approved undercover
3 FBI agent asking that question -- or making that statement;
4 correct?

5 A. To my knowledge, that was not an FBI employee making that 6 statement, no.

7 Q. And, in any event, what was the statement that that person
8 wrote?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, asked and answered. Beyond
10 the scope.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'm following up with what
12 Mr. Leventhal --

13 THE COURT: Overruled. She may answer the question.

14 THE WITNESS: "Careful, Bridges are choke points."

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. And below that where I've drawn that red line, this is the 17 response made on Mr. Drexler's account; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. By username "Scott Drexler"?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And what was that response?

22 A. "That's why we used them to shut down the freeway."

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, thank you. Nothing further.

24 THE COURT: Any recross?

25 MR. MARCHESE: It doesn't raise anything new from

1 Parker, Your Honor.

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm thinking.

5 THE COURT: You say you're thinking about it? Go
6 ahead.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

8 No recross. Thank you, Judge.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 So, if any members of the jury have a question for 11 Special Agent Draper, please go ahead and write them on the 12 form provided. Take your time. Try not to use pronouns. More
13 descriptive is better so that we can be sure we ask the right
14 question that you hope to receive the answer for. And then 15 please do not write your name or your jury number or your 16 signature or any other identifying information.

17 (Pause in the proceedings.)

18 THE COURT: Oh. And please remember if you use any 19 terminology -- legal, military, technical, IT, any kind of 20 terminology like that -- it would be helpful if you maybe
21 define it in parentheses or something so that we can be sure
22 that we understand the question and that fellow jurors
23 understand it as well.

24 (Pause. The Courtroom Administrator and the Court
25 conferring.)

1 THE COURT: Take your time writing your questions.
2 We're going -- the attorneys and I will meet about the
3 questions while you all go to have lunch and then we'll ask the 4 questions after lunch. So take your time and write your
5 questions. Don't feel rushed that we need to get this all done
6 before lunch -- before you can have your lunch.

7 (Pause. The Courtroom Administrator and the Court
8 conferring.)

9 THE COURT: All right. So we'll go ahead and excuse
10 the jury so they can begin their lunch while the attorneys and 11 I go through the questions.

12 I do remind the jury during this lunch break that you
13 are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to 14 discuss it with you. If someone should attempt to discuss the 15 case with you or if you inadvertently overhear anything about 16 the case, please bring it to the Court's attention right away.

17 You may speak to your fellow jurors about other things
18 but not about this case which includes the questions. So you
19 can't ask, "What question did you ask?" So we're -- don't even 20 go there. Please don't ask any questions about questions;
21 anything referring to this case.

22 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that
23 touches about this case in any way and do not attempt to 24 perform any research or any independent investigation. Just 25 let us know your questions. And, even if we can't get to the

1 answer right away through this particular witness or another
2 witness that might be coming in this afternoon, the attorneys
3 will have your questions and they'll find some way to provide
4 you the answer before the end of trial. So please do not
5 attempt any independent research or investigation if you don't
6 get the answer to your questions right away.

7 And please do not form any opinion until after you have
8 heard all the testimony, received all the evidence. I will 9 provide to you the jury instructions which are the legal
10 instructions. You will apply the facts as you find them. You
11 remember I told you early on it's up to you to decide what to 12 believe: all of it, none of it, some of it. So you decide
13 that and then you apply that to the legal jury instructions,
14 the instructions of law.

15 After that you will hear from the attorneys in their 16 closing arguments. And then, after you've heard the closing
17 arguments, I will excuse you to begin the deliberation process.
18 And that's when you start discussing the case with each other
19 in an effort to complete your jury duty service.

20 So we will excuse you and invite you back at 1:00
21 o'clock -- no? 1:10?

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 1:30.

23 THE COURT: Really? 1:30?

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So we're thinking 1:30 so take your

1 time eating. And we will have you ready to come back at 1:30.

2 So let's go ahead and stand for the jury. You may be
3 excused.

4 (Jury out, 11:53 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: And, Special Agent Draper, after they exit
6 you may also exit and take your lunch break, stretch break, get 7 some fresh air and we'll have you back here at 1:30, please.

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: All right. So do you all want to use the 11 restroom first and then we'll come back and discuss these 12 questions? There's quite a bit of 'em. And they're --

13 MR. MARCHESE: How many do we have, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Some are messy, which means I think you've 15 already answered some of them, and some are four-part
16 questions. You want to know how many? Is that what you said?
17 I didn't hear you.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Okay. One --

20 MR. MARCHESE: Mr. Tanasi says let's do the
21 questions --

22 THE COURT: Oh, was that not your question?

23 MR. TANASI: That was my --

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

25 MR. TANASI: -- suggestion to Mr. Marchese. I was --

1 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

2 MR. TANASI: -- brainstorming, Your Honor. I certainly
3 wasn't instructing the Court as to what to do.

4 THE COURT: One, two, three, four, five, six, seven,
5 eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen. So there's
6 thirteen notes. But, as I said, some are short, one question,
7 and some of 'em go on and on. This one has four and there as
8 another one that I saw that had four. This one looks like it
9 has three or five depending on if those sub -- so there's a
10 lot. So do you want to just go take your bathroom break first
11 and then come back? We're talking an hour and a half lunch so
12 I'm not trying to cut into the one-hour break.

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. Perfect. Yes. Thank you, Your
14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: So let's go ahead and take about a 10-,
16 15-minute break. Use the restroom. I'll ask Aaron to call me
17 back into the courtroom after everyone's had a chance to seek 18 relief and then come back here.

19 Off record.

20 (Recess, 11:55 a.m. Resumed, 12:15 p.m.)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

23 Since the jury is out having lunch, we don't need to go
24 to sidebar. We can just stay at our seats.

25 The first jury question is on Jury Note No. -- my voice

1 is going -- Jury Note 107 asks, "Is there other sources that
2 you capture the post relating to Bundy's ranch in your
3 investigation besides Facebook?"

4 Any objection?

5 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, no objection.

9 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Jury Note 108 looks like two questions. First one is,
12 "Was your team looking at the Facebook pages of Mr. Parker, 13 Mr. Stewart, or Mr. Drexler on or before April 17, 2014?"

14 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from --

16 MR. TANASI: None --

17 MR. MARCHESE: -- Parker.

18 MR. TANASI: -- from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: And the second question is, "What did you
20 and you team start looking at the Facebook pages" -- I'm 21 sorry -- "What date did you and your team start looking at the 22 Facebook pages of Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Drexler?"

23 Any objection?

24 MR. TANASI: None from --

25 MS. AHMED: No.

1 MR. TANASI: -- Stewart, Your Honor.

2 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

3 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 109, "Were the
4 Facebook posts" -- and then in parentheses -- "(screenshots)
5 only visible to friends of the users or were they visible to 6 anyone that went to that user's page?"

7 Any objection?

8 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

10 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Jury Note No. 110: "Agent Draper has testified that 15 outside of the search warrant the material collected from the 16 defendants' Facebook pages was publicly viewable content.
17 However, if one sets their account to private, you must become 18 the friend of that user to see the content that is being 19 posted. Does becoming friends with a user and having access to 20 their content automatically make the content publicly viewable
21 since their account is still technically private?"

22 Any objection to the question?

23 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

24 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

1 MR. MARCHESE: None --

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

3 MR. MARCHESE: -- from Parker.

4 MS. AHMED: -- I would just -- I'm a little confused
5 about the question sort of.

6 THE COURT: Do you want me to reread it?

7 It says: "Agent Draper testified that outside of the 8 search warrant the material collected from the defendants'
9 Facebook pages was publicly viewable an content" -- and I'll 10 say they put quotation marks around the three words "publicly
11 viewable content" -- "however, if one sets their account to 12 private, you must become the friend of the user to see the 13 content that is being posted. Does becoming friends with the 14 user and having access to their content automatically make the 15 content" -- and then again with a quotation marks -- 16 "'publically viewable' since their account is still technically 17 private?"

18 MS. AHMED: Are they asking if that's what she 19 considers -- when she uses the phrase "publicly viewable 20 content," she's also including stuff that would have had to 21 have been viewed through establishing a friendship on Facebook?
22 I guess asking her for what she includes in that term -- that
23 phrase. I don't know.

24 THE COURT: The question could be asking if the account
25 is private and you become the friend of that person with the

1 private account does that now make the post publicly viewable
2 because now you can see it. So maybe they are asking what the
3 witness meant by the word "publicly viewable." In any case, it
4 bears clarification for this particular juror.

5 MS. AHMED: That's fine, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You could follow up and reiterate the 7 question in a more clear format. But do you have an objection
8 to my asking the question?

9 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Jury Note 111, "Would pictures attached to 15 a Facebook post be visible in the Business Account view?"

16 Any objection?

17 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And the second question on Jury Note 11,
19 "In order to be a 'friend' on Facebook, does that action
20 require the agreement of both parties?"

21 Any objection?

22 MS. AHMED: No objection.

23 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

24 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

1 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 112 looks like it has
2 four parts. The first one is, "What training and experience do
3 you have to interpret and analyze Facebook account data?"

4 Any objection?

5 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

7 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

8 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And the next question is, "Does a subpoena
10 for a Facebook account permit excursions into the 'friends' and 11 the 'about'" -- okay. So let me say this with the quotation
12 marks so it's easier to follow.

13 "Does the subpoena for a Facebook account permit
14 excursions into the" -- and then in quotations -- "'friends'
15 and the" -- in quotation marks -- "'about' sections of the 16 subject as well as to the following" -- "as well as to follow
17 links? Is there a limit as to how far you can search?"

18 (Counsel conferring.)

19 THE COURT: So it sounds like this person thinks that 20 the subpoena for the Facebook account gave permission to look
21 into accounts as if you're a pretend friend. This person
22 didn't really follow the distinction between the search warrant
23 return and the glimpses into the Facebook using the alias.

24 So any objection to that question? Do you need me to
25 reread it?

1 MR. TANASI: I think it's -- Stewart has no objection.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker, none.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: None from Mr. Drexler.

5 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

6 THE COURT: Any objection from the Government?

7 (Government counsel conferring.)

8 MR. MYHRE: May I have just one moment, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 (Government counsel conferring.)

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would just object,
12 relevance.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 THE COURT: Well, I think it's relevant because this 15 juror seems to be misunderstanding what the subpoena for the 16 Facebook account permitted -- or provided versus how you get 17 into a Friend's section. So I understand your objection to be,
18 well -- I think there was no testimony that any of the FBI
19 agents using an alias became a friend of the defendants. So
20 the question is assuming in part --

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, could --

22 THE COURT: -- that perhaps --

23 MS. AHMED: -- we just --

24 THE COURT: -- there was friends. They're just asking
25 questions about when you become a friend. But I think the

1 question, "Is there a limit to how far you can search" -- so
2 I'll read it again. "How does" -- okay. "Does a subpoena for
3 a Facebook account permit excursions into the 'friends' and the 4 'about' section of the subject as well as to follow links?"

5 So I think we all expect the answer's gonna be no to 6 that unless there are other things that -- I didn't see the 7 subpoena, but I'm not aware that there was any subpoena that
8 would allow you to become a friend of a Facebook poster.

9 MS. AHMED: Yeah. Your Honor, it's confusing too
10 because obviously they are conflating subpoena and search
11 warrant. And she did testify on day one that she had 12 subpoenaed subscriber information. So there is a subpoena out
13 there. So I don't know if this witness will then get confused
14 as to what this person wants to know about the subpoena which 15 was more limited versus the search warrant which obviously had 16 broad and more -- but clearly defined protocols but . . .

17 THE COURT: So do you have a suggestion for how we can 18 still answer this juror's question but ask the question in the 19 way that the witness can be more helpful?

20 MS. AHMED: Could we just generally ask for the witness
21 to explain what information was subpoenaed, what information
22 was asked for in the search warrant?

23 THE COURT: Any objection to that from the defense?
24 (Defense counsel conferring.)

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I guess I would just stand by

1 asking the question as written. I think trying to narrow it
2 won't necessarily answer the question as written.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, it's triple compound. So I'll 5 break it down. And, if it's not clear, obviously the 6 Government has the opportunity to ask the follow-up question:
7 what was subpoenaed, which was pursuant to a search
8 warrant . . .

9 So I'm gonna ask it the way it is except not with the 10 triple compound. I'll just -- I'll break it up.

11 The third question on Jury Note No. 12 asks: "Do you
12 know a method to determine who physically created and posted a
13 post? Could a friend/spouse have made a post?"

14 Any objection?

15 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

16 MR. TANASI: None --

17 MS. AHMED: No --

18 MR. TANASI: -- from Stewart.

19 MS. AHMED: -- Your Honor.

20 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 Jury Note No. 12 still. The last questions asks, "How 24 did you decide which links to follow or did you follow them
25 all?"

1 Any objection?

2 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

3 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

6 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor, from Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 Jury Note 113 has four questions, it looks like; maybe
9 five. But let's start. "Did your investigation of the three
10 defendants include any background checks or looking into any
11 past criminal history or police records? Example: speeding
12 tickets or previous arrests or just Facebook posts?"

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection, Your Honor.

14 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

15 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

16 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence.

17 (Attorney-client discussion, Stewart. Counsel conferring.)

18 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government would object as 20 irrelevant. And we would just ask the Court to possibly 21 instruct the jury that they are only to consider these -- the 22 evidence in this case and the acts that are alleged to have 23 been committed in this case.

24 THE COURT: What was the last part?

25 MS. AHMED: The acts that are -- just the crimes that

1 they are alleged to have committed in this case.

2 (Defense counsel conferring.)

3 THE COURT: All right. What if we modified the 4 question to ask: "Did your investigation of the three
5 defendants include any background checks or looking into any
6 past history or records?" So taking out the words "criminal"
7 and "police."

8 (Government counsel conferring.)

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just may I have one moment?

10 THE COURT: Sure. I'm trying to see if we can answer
11 that juror's question without eliciting inadmissible evidence.

12 (Government counsel conferring.)

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, my concern is that these 14 defendants, as they know, some of them have criminal history
15 which will be put on the record in front of this jury. And 16 that's gonna be a problem if she answers that way and . . .

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I believe we all said no objection to 18 it, though.

19 MS. AHMED: Yeah. I mean -- yeah, inviting error is 20 not a reason to allow an inadmissible question.

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, this is a question that 22 would not -- if we don't ask the question, it's not gonna tempt
23 the juror to do independent research because there's no way
24 that the juror could go online and find out whether or not this 25 witness performed background checks. So okay.

1 MS. AHMED: The concern obviously, Your Honor, would be
2 that they would be considering something that's not relevant;
3 that . . .

4 THE COURT: No. I understand.

5 All right. So I won't ask that first question on Jury
6 Note 113.

7 The second question is, "If so, did any of the 8 previous" -- "did any of the defendants have any previous 9 violent or criminal charges or history?" So, of course, that 10 is not an admissible question.

11 The third question is, "Was Eric Parker the person who 12 asked, 'What are you going to do when the shooting starts?' on
13 Facebook or was he the individual being questioned?"

14 Any objection to that question?

15 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

16 MR. MARCHESI: None from Parker.

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. PEREZ: None --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: -- from Lovelien.

21 THE COURT: And --

22 MS. AHMED: And I believe that's Exhibit 88, Your 23 Honor. I'll double-check.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 THE COURT: Okay. While you're looking for that, I'll

1 tell ya the fourth question on Jury Note 113 is, "In any
2 posting on Facebook or social media that you have reviewed from
3 Eric Parker, did any post actually state specifically what he
4 intended or would shoot officers/agents of the law" --

5 MR. MARCHESE: No objection --

6 THE COURT: -- "or did he" --

7 MR. MARCHESE: -- Parker.

8 THE COURT: -- "just use descript statements like" --
9 oh, "did he just use nondescript statements, like 'by any means
10 necessary'?"

11 Any objection to that question? Do you need me to 12 reread it?

13 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. I don't need you to reread
14 it. Um . . .

15 (Government counsel conferring.)

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker doesn't object.

17 MR. TANASI: None from --

18 THE COURT: Does or --

19 MR. TANASI: -- Stewart.

20 THE COURT: -- does not? I'm sorry.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Does not.

22 THE COURT: Does not. Thank you.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just the way it's phrased, we 24 would object that it's argumentative; characterizing as 25 nondescript versus -- versus explicit.

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: So is your objection that you want to
3 modify the question or just not ask the question at all?

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I guess we would just . . .
5 I'm sorry, Your Honor. Just one moment.

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 (Government counsel conferring.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, our -- the Government's request
9 would be that it be modified just to simply ask, "Did you see
10 in your review any posts stating that he would shoot."
11 Whatever the phrase was in that part.

12 THE COURT: All right. And so just leave off the last
13 clause. All right. I'll make that . . .

14 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just -- that was 15 Exhibit 88 on the third question --

16 THE COURT: Oh.

17 MS. AHMED: -- in case the Court wants to pull it up --

18 THE COURT: Yeah.

19 MS. AHMED: -- when the question arises.

20 THE COURT: All right. So I added Exhibit 88 and I'll 21 make that modification to the last question on Note 113.

22 So moving on to Jury Note 114, "On Government
23 Exhibit 97, did Mr. Parker author the bottom text" -- in 24 quotation marks it says -- "'I don't mind even signed up for it
25 once. Where are our wolves in the midst of sheep?'"

1 Any objection?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could you read it one more time? I'm
3 sorry.

4 THE COURT: Yes. It's Exhibit 97 if you want to --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, okay.

6 THE COURT: -- pull it up so it's easier to see what
7 she's talking about or he's talking about.

8 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 MS. AHMED: No objection from the Government, Your
12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, Mr. Leventhal, any objection?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: The question is what about the wolves
15 in . . .

16 THE COURT: Oh. "Did Mr. Parker author the bottom
17 text" -- and then the quote is -- "'I don't mind even signed up
18 for it once. Where are our wolves in the midst of sheep?'"

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MR. PEREZ: No objection from Lovelien.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 And then the other question on Jury Note 14 [sic] calls
23 for a legal answer, "Is it against the law to be involved in a
24 militia group?"

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

1 MR. PEREZ: No --

2 MR. MARCHESE: No --

3 MR. PEREZ: -- objection.

4 MR. MARCHESE: -- objection, Parker.

5 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

6 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would object that it calls
7 for a legal conclusion.

8 THE COURT: I agree. I won't give that question.

9 Jury Note No. 115 asks, "Are the defendants being 10 prosecuted for their actions at Operation Gold Rush and 11 Operation Big Sky as well or just for their actions in Nevada
12 on April 12th?"

13 So this -- again, this witness wouldn't know the answer
14 to it. If you want to enter into some stipulation during lunch
15 so I could give that; but, if you don't want to, that's okay
16 too. I . . . If you think of a way to address that question.

17 (Counsel conferring.)

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would object obviously that 19 that's asking for irrelevant and legal conclusions. But we 20 would ask the Court to give an instruction -- or just advise 21 the jury that the Court will instruct them on the charges in
22 this case.

23 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, perhaps adding to that
24 would be an instruction, even going back to the last question,
25 is that being in a militia in and of itself is not a crime and

1 the defendants are not charged for those other two acts that
2 that question questions.

3 MS. AHMED: We would object to that. And that's 4 actually -- in some states, it is actually a crime so that
5 would -- including Montana.

6 MR. TANASI: Well, then I guess something to the effect
7 that the defendants are not being charged with a crime for 8 simply being in a militia.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government thinks it would
10 be sufficient for the Court to simply advise the jury that you
11 will be providing them the law on the charges that they are 12 facing -- instructions on the charges that they are to consider
13 in this case.

14 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, I don't believe we have an 15 instruction on militia unless we let, I guess, the Second 16 Amendment in.

17 (Pause in the proceedings.)

18 THE COURT: Well, the question is it against the law is 19 a legal question that calls for a legal conclusion so I'm not 20 asking that question. If there is a stipulation that the 21 parties want to enter into and have me or them read or if 22 there's an instruction that you want to be included that
23 addresses this situation, the correct legal instruction, I'm 24 open to consider that as well. But I'm not gonna ask the 25 witness the question.

1 So, moving on to Jury Note No. 111 about whether or not
2 the defendants are being prosecuted for their actions at 3 Operation Gold Rush and Operation Big Sky, you know, inasmuch
4 as the conspiracy charged actions through that time period all
5 the way until March, I mean, the answer could be yes; the 6 answer could be no. So I don't think this witness should be
7 answering this question. But it is information that probably 8 the jury's not gonna remember that -- and I don't remember if 9 at the beginning of the case we told them the span of the 10 conspiracy other than they were charged with conspiracy. I
11 don't remember if the start date and end date were included in 12 the statement. And, even if it did, we told them the statement 13 wasn't evidence; it was just for purposes of voir dire so they 14 would know what the case was about. Possibly during opening
15 statements that information was also provided. But we've also 16 told them that's not evidence.

17 MR. MYHRE: I went over conspiracy quite a bit in 18 opening, but I don't recall going over the inclusive dates of 19 the conspiracy.

20 But the problem is, is that we've -- our theory of the 21 case incorporates the acts of White -- of Operation Big Sky and 22 Sugar Pine Mine as part of the -- part and parcel of the 23 conspiracy in this case. So they are in fact being prosecuted
24 in that sense for the conspiracy. That's why we believe that 25 the instruction from the Court would be the appropriate way to

1 respond to that and just say we're gonna be instructing you at 2 the end of the case what the law is and what you need to 3 consider.

4 (Government counsel conferring.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Then the next question on Jury
6 Note 115 asks, "What criteria do you use for a post to be
7 considered relevant enough for review?"

8 Any objection to that question?

9 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

11 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

13 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

14 THE COURT: And then the last question, I think, last 15 question on Jury Note 115 asks, "Are the exhibits presented 16 thus far items with the highest relevance?"

17 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

18 MS. AHMED: I don't know that -- Your Honor, if that's 19 a question that would be appropriate to pose to the witness
20 since that's actually a determination made by the attorneys.

21 MR. TANASI: And maybe, Your Honor, that -- that's 22 another place for an instruction into their role as to 23 determining the weight of the evidence.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And Drexler would object because this

1 witness only brought in a percentage or a portion of the
2 evidence. We've had other witnesses bring in other evidence,
3 like Agent Willis. And so she wouldn't be able to comment on 4 how relevant or what relevancy with what Agent Willis brought
5 in.

6 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien would join in that objection.

7 (Defense counsel conferring.)

8 THE COURT: All right. So instead of asking the 9 question the way that it's asked, I'm gonna ask -- or I'm gonna
10 instruct them that they are only to consider the evidence
11 presented.

12 All right. Jury Note 116 asks, "Did your agents
13 attempt to provoke incriminating responses from the defendants
14 on Facebook by casual conversation or any other means?"

15 Any objection?

16 MR. MARCHESI: None from Parker.

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

19 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 17 [sic] asks,
21 "When a date is created to an average person, how do we know to 22 subtract 6 hours or 7 hours from the UTC time?"

23 Any objection to that question?

24 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

25 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 The second question is: "During previous testimony
3 another witness stated it was 8 hours for Pacific Time. Can 4 you please clarify."

5 Any objection?

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 MS. AHMED: I don't think that's actually true. But no
8 objection, Your Honor. Maybe that -- maybe they did, Your 9 Honor. In any event, we don't object.

10 THE COURT: Daylight savings? I don't know. I think 11 it's a good question to clarify if there's a juror who is not
12 sure how to calculate time.

13 Third question is, "If you were to post something right
14 now on Facebook, should it be current time or UTC time?"

15 Any objection?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

18 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

19 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And the last question on Jury Note 117, "If 21 the search warrant was issued in March of 2014, why take so
22 long to serve in July of 2014?"

23 MS. AHMED: No objection. I mean, that's -- the 24 witness can obviously explain what they were saying.

25 THE COURT: Any objection?

1 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

3 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Jury Note 118 asks, "A word you used frequently is 6 'metadata'" -- and she put -- he or she put -- the juror put 7 quotation marks around "metadata" -- "please define the word
8 and explain why metadata was essential to your investigation?"

9 Any objection?

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just say that I think
11 that question -- I mean, Agent Draper didn't really talk about 12 metadata. It was --

13 THE COURT: Yeah, it --

14 MS. AHMED: -- really more --

15 THE COURT: -- was the previous --

16 MS. AHMED: -- for the . . . Yeah. So I would just 17 ask the Court to at least advise the jury that we'll have 18 another witness who can better . . .

19 (Government counsel conferring.)

20 THE COURT: Can this witness define the word
21 "metadata"?

22 MS. AHMED: I'm sure the witness would be able to have 23 some explanation for what metadata is. I don't know -- that 24 the second part about why it was essential might be 25 argumentative. I don't know that she would be able to -- since

1 she was not involved in the metadata aspect of the 2 investigation, I don't know what, if anything, she would say to
3 that.

4 THE COURT: All right. Well, I think you can follow up
5 with her about whether she herself used metadata or someone
6 else and not -- I won't ask why it was essential. But I will
7 ask her to define the word. The question is "Explain why it
8 was essential to your investigation." I could ask her whether 9 it was essential to her investigation.

10 Does the defense object or agree or have an alternative
11 suggestion?

12 MR. TANASI: I think to the --

13 THE COURT: Because it --

14 MR. TANASI: -- extent --

15 THE COURT: -- is the --

16 MR. TANASI: -- she can --

17 THE COURT: -- wrong -- I think we all agree it's the 18 wrong witness. It was the previous witness who talked about 19 metadata but . . .

20 MR. TANASI: I don't necessarily have a problem with 21 her answering whatever she can. And, if she can't, I guess we 22 could wait for Mr. Willis. I think that's probably more in his 23 wheelhouse. Just so long as the question's asked, I guess we 24 don't have an objection to the --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: To the --

1 MR. TANASI: -- question.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sorry.

3 To the extent that she knows metadata and how she used
4 it. I mean, I asked her what -- if she used it. She said
5 she -- it wasn't there; it wasn't available so . . .

6 THE COURT: Yeah.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: But, to the extent that she used it, I
8 guess that's fine.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 Mr. Perez.

11 MR. PEREZ: And I concur with that.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 And the second question on Jury Note 118 asks, "What 14 were the guidelines for initiating 'redactions'" -- the word
15 "redactions" is in quotation marks -- "shown on the FB
16 screenshot exhibits" -- oh, Facebook -- so, "What were the 17 guidelines for initiating redactions shown on the Facebook
18 screenshot exhibits? Were the redactions either made by you or 19 approved by you, a lead investigator?"

20 I can just tell them I authorized redactions so that we 21 don't get into distractions. Is that okay with everyone?

22 MS. AHMED: That's fine with the Government, Your
23 Honor.

24 MR. TANASI: That's fair.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

1 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 119, "Regarding
2 'passive' Facebook interaction" -- and the word "passive" is in
3 quotation marks -- "does that include 'likes'" -- and the word
4 "likes" is in quotation marks -- "and sharing posts? Please
5 clarify."

6 So I'll read it again, "Regarding 'passive' Facebook
7 interaction, does that exclude 'likes' and sharing posts?
8 Please clarify."

9 MS. AHMED: No objection, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Any objection from the defense?

11 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

13 THE COURT: All right. We're done. Go have lunch.
14 We'll see you back here at 1:30.

15 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 Off record.

18 (Pause, 12:47 p.m. Resumed, 1:40 p.m.)

19 (Sarah Draper resumed the witness stand. Jury not present.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You maybe be
22 seated.

23 May we go ahead call the jury back in? Go ahead.
24 Thanks.

25 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

4 (Jury in, 1:49 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

6 Everyone else may go ahead and be seated as well.

7 All right. So we have FBI Special Agent Draper back on
8 the stand. So good afternoon.

9 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I'm going to ask you a series of questions.
11 I will read the questions into the record. But, when you
12 respond to the question, please feel free to turn and face the 13 jury because these are jury questions; they are not my
14 questions.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: So Jury Note 107 asks, "Is there other 17 sources that you capture the post relating to Bundy's ranch in 18 your investigation besides Facebook?"

19 THE WITNESS: And it -- "other sources" -- I understand
20 the question to be online -- would be news articles; um . . .

21 (Pause.) So no, that I can recall right now; no other social
22 media sites. But media, mainstream media, like news articles,
23 or there were some news broadcasts that were later captured
24 online. Some of those were captured.

25 And, Your Honor, could you clarify if the question is

1 looking for additional investigative techniques or just
2 capturing of --

3 THE COURT: I'll reread it for you.

4 THE WITNESS: -- media?

5 THE COURT: "Is there other sources that you capture
6 the post relating to Bundy's ranch in your investigation
7 besides Facebook?" So sources other than Facebook.

8 THE WITNESS: So -- thank you, Your Honor -- so in a --
9 so I guess I'll answer one of two ways. And to make sure I
10 cover -- if I -- make sure I interpret the question -- or 11 understand the question properly, if in addition to Facebook,
12 such as media, there were other media captures -- such as print
13 media or news media -- sometimes they would later post their 14 videos online. If the question is intended to determine if 15 those Facebook posts were also captured a separate way other
16 than through Facebook, that answer would be no; that would be 17 unique to that platform.

18 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 108 asks, "Was your 19 team looking at the Facebook pages of Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, 20 or Mr. Drexler on or before April 17th of 2014?" And that 21 could be April 12th of 2014. I'm not sure. But it looks like
22 it's April 17th of 2014.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 So the April 12th would have been no. I would have to 25 look back at my investigative notes to determine when exactly I

1 was part of this determination that individuals from Idaho and
2 then their identities, who they were, if that hit before
3 April 17th. I would have to look back at investigative notes.
4 But, if there was any checking, it would have just been purely
5 viewing social media to determine -- confirm identities at that 6 point. Again, I would have to go back and look at 7 investigative notes for that exact date.

8 THE COURT: Do you have those notes with you?

9 THE WITNESS: No, Your Honor. I --

10 THE COURT: That's fine. That was just a --

11 THE WITNESS: Okay.

12 THE COURT: -- question.

13 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry. Thank you --

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 THE WITNESS: -- Your Honor. Trying --

16 THE COURT: And so --

17 THE WITNESS: -- to think how accessible -- sorry.

18 THE COURT: The next question is also on Jury Note
19 No. 108, "What date did you and your team start looking at the 20 Facebook pages of Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Drexler?"

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 I -- again, I would have to look back -- I would have 23 to go back to the investigative file and determine that. But 24 probably sometime around there is my -- is my best recollection
25 based upon it took a little bit of time to determine the

1 identities and then work towards -- you know, confirm the
2 identities of the individuals.

3 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 109 asks, "Were the 4 Facebook posts (screenshots) only visible to friends of the 5 users or were they visible to anyone that went to the user's
6 page?"

7 THE WITNESS: So the majority of what was -- thank you,
8 Your Honor -- the majority of what was presented was -- well,
9 actually, a variety. So a lot of it was -- a great deal was 10 publicly available information and some was only available to 11 friends or friends of friends.

12 THE COURT: The question is specifically referring to 13 the Facebook post screenshots. So were the screenshots only 14 visible to friends or were they visible to anyone that went to 15 the user's page?

16 THE WITNESS: So at -- so -- thank you, Your Honor --
17 understanding that question to be absent the Facebook Business
18 Records, again, based upon the security settings of -- the 19 chosen security settings of the Facebook user, they could be 20 any of those. It could be publicly viewable -- some were -- or 21 friends -- some were. So that's kind of both. I'd have to 22 talk about a specific -- if there's a specific question -- or a
23 specific one to answer that further.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And Jury Note 110: "Agent Draper
25 has testified that outside of the search warrant the material

1 collected from the defendants' Facebook pages was 'publicly
2 viewable content'" -- and they put in the quotation marks the
3 words "publicly viewable content" -- "however, if one sets
4 their account to private, you must become the friend of the 5 user to see the content that is being posted. Does becoming 6 friends with the user and having access to their content
7 automatically make the content publicly viewable since their 8 account is still technically private?"

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 So, breaking that question down -- and I might need to 11 go back in the court record and look at that -- I recall my 12 question would have been what I viewed on the page outside of 13 the search warrant would have been publicly viewable, what I
14 myself would have been able to see through Facebook. But, if 15 another individual -- another FBI employee who was acting in an 16 undercover capacity with, like, an alias account had seen
17 something that was a friend post, that would not make that --
18 that would not turn that into a publicly available post.

19 So, if further, I am happy to go back through the 20 transcript and -- and confirm my initial answer. But my 21 recollection is that it was -- when I went to Facebook what I
22 had seen would have been publicly available outside the search
23 warrant.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 Then Jury Question No. 111 asks two questions. The

1 first one is, "Would pictures attached to a Facebook post be
2 visible in the Business Account view?"

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Not the -- not the way the record comes across. So
5 what was presented to you all is -- some pictures would be in a
6 separate section, the way the Business Record comes back. But 7 some pictures -- well, yes, some pictures would be attached.
8 But, if there was a hyperlink, say, to an attached news
9 article, that would not automatically populate the -- the 10 visual of that with the Facebook Business Records returned.
11 There would be that URL, that unique locator address, that 12 someone reviewing a Facebook account could click on that and 13 pull up that content.

14 But, again, in some circumstances, the photos would be
15 attached -- the returns are returned in multiple ways. So
16 sometimes the photos are attached kind of contemporaneously
17 with -- with the attached messages but also other photos are 18 returned in a different setting. So kind of two answers there.

19 And then, again, the first -- or the third being if 20 it's an attached article, or something like that, you'd have to 21 go into that URL and actually click. And that would go to the 22 web and pull that content out if it's still available at the 23 time of review.

24 THE COURT: All right. And the second question in Jury
25 Note 111 asks, "In order to be a 'friend'" -- that's in

1 quotation marks --

2 THE WITNESS: Yes.

3 THE COURT: -- "on Facebook, does that action require
4 the agreement of both parties?"

5 THE WITNESS: Yes. And, for our protocols, that would
6 only be done in a strict approved undercover capacity why
7 that -- that would even be allowed. But the -- the user has to 8 accept what they called a "Friend Request." So it's both
9 parties.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 Jury Note No. 112 has four parts. The first one is,
12 "What training and experience do you have to interpret and 13 analyze Facebook account data?"

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 So the -- from the business returns, just experience
16 manipulating the way the returns come across. So no -- no
17 specific class on how to interpret Facebook returns, but just 18 experience going through it and -- and working with the 19 returns.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 THE COURT: Okay. So, when you say "just experience," 22 I think that's part of the question is what training and 23 experience. So what experience do you have to interpret and 24 analyze Facebook --

25 THE WITNESS: Oh.

1 THE COURT: -- account data?

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 Experience on other cases. So other times I've used a
4 search warrant on Facebook to obtain information and done a
5 similar review process based upon what was returned by Facebook
6 to review.

7 THE COURT: Okay. The second part of Jury Note 112
8 asks about -- well, it's a multipart question. So it's written
9 as one big question. I'm gonna break it down because I think
10 it'll -- we think it'll be easier for you to answer it.

11 So did you receive information as a result of a
12 subpoena in this case for Facebook data?

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 Yes, I did, for all three individuals, to confirm what
15 we call "subscriber information"; that those accounts belonged
16 to our defendants prior to doing the search warrant. I'm sorry
17 to cut you off, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: No. That's good. That's fine.

19 And then the search warrant -- was there a search
20 warrant in this case for the Facebook account?

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 Yes, there were three separate search warrants, one for 23 each of those three accounts.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 And so does a subpoena for a Facebook account permit

1 you excursions into the 'friends' and the 'about' sections of
2 the subject?"

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 No. The subpoena would just return subscriber
5 information that would help to identify the actual user of that 6 account. Depending upon an individual's security settings on 7 their Facebook account, the -- the Friends as well as other
8 information about them could be available or it could not be 9 available publicly. The user has an opportunity to select the 10 security settings.

11 THE COURT: And, in response to the search warrant,
12 would you obtained from Facebook information about what is in 13 the Friends section?

14 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes -- thank you, Your Honor --
15 yes. The Facebook return lists -- as one of the sections, it
16 lists all the friends.

17 THE COURT: And would the information provided to you
18 as a result of the search warrant provide you Facebook account
19 information regarding the "About" section of . . .

20 THE WITNESS: Yes. Anything that is in that Facebook
21 account would come back with the search warrant.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 And I think that goes right into the next -- "Is there
24 a limit to how far you can search?"

25 THE WITNESS: So -- well, the search warrant is limited

1 to the parameters approved by the issuing Magistrate Judge. So
2 we would request -- request a set, say, time period; request,
3 um -- request what we want to review; and then we take that one
4 step further to what can be seized. So not everything that can
5 be searched can be seized. So it's a -- I would call it the 6 four corners of the warrant. It's kind of parameters set upon
7 whereas everything within, say, a time frame on a Facebook
8 account, once Facebook returns that to the investigator or the 9 affiant, as we call it, the person who has sworn out the search
10 warrant, the -- Facebook would return all the information. But 11 then we're further -- further limited with what -- what we can 12 actually keep from that account. It's got to match what the 13 issuing judge has approved for us that's -- that meets the 14 probable cause sets out in the affidavit.

15 THE COURT: And the third question in Jury Note 12
16 [sic] asks, "Do you have a method to determine who physically
17 created and posted a post? Could a friend/spouse have made a
18 post?"

19 THE WITNESS: Yes. If a user has -- such as with an 20 email address, if you have an email address and you give that 21 to a friend or spouse and they can write an email in your name,
22 the same can be done with a social media account such as
23 Facebook.

24 And to ask if I -- if I have a method for determining
25 that, who did it, it's the -- it's the individual's Facebook

1 account. So I don't have a way as an investigator looking at 2 those returns from determining if a spouse or a friend had got
3 in an account and -- and made a posting in someone else's name.

4 THE COURT: And the last question on Jury Note 112 is,
5 "How did you decide which links to follow or did you follow
6 them all?"

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 No, I did not follow them all. Based upon the content
9 that was with a link, the words or if there is a picture with 10 it -- again, the returns come back in a very different format
11 view than looking at a Facebook page -- it would indicate to me
12 that that might be something that needed to be looked at 13 further. But, if it's -- again, I wouldn't dive into anything
14 that didn't meet -- on surface would appear to be outside of 15 the parameters set in the initial search warrant.

16 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 113 asks
17 several questions. The first one asks about whether you looked 18 into other information. And so I'm just gonna instruct the 19 jury that they are to concentrate on the evidence that is 20 actually presented. And we're not gonna ask you the questions
21 about -- related to other information.

22 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: The second question on Jury Note 113
24 asks -- again, it's about other information; whether you came 25 across other information. And so, again, I'm gonna instruct

1 the jury that if the evidence is not admissible then you're not
2 gonna hear about it. If it is admissible, you probably will
3 hear about it if it's available. And I'll just leave it at 4 that. And then you can apply that to the legal instructions.
5 And my hope is it'll make more sense later when you see
6 everything. And I appreciate the curiosity of whoever wrote
7 this question.

8 So the next question for Jury Note 113 is, "Was Eric
9 Parker the person who asked" -- oh, and I think we identified
10 which exhibit they're referring to. Do we want to put that up?
11 Exhibit No. 88.

12 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

13 THE COURT: So the question is, "Was Eric Parker the 14 person who asked" -- and then it says in quotation marks on the 15 note here -- "'What are you going to do when the shooting
16 starts?'" So is Eric Parker the person who asked this on 17 Facebook or was he the individual being questioned.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: If you know.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, he would have asked that, his
21 account.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 And how do you know that or why do you think you know
24 that?

25 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, because that was posted on

1 his Facebook page and that was the text that was posted with
2 that attached link to the Northern Nevada Light Foot Patriots.
3 So, based upon my experience with Facebook returns, that text
4 would be entered by the user.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 And the last question for Jury Note 113 asks, "In any 7 of the postings, whether Facebook or social media" -- so we're
8 including both -- "In any posting on Facebook or social media
9 that you have reviewed from Eric Parker, did he state that he
10 would shoot officers or agents of the law?"

11 THE WITNESS: I do not recall seeing anything that said
12 he would shoot agents or officers of the law.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Jury Note No. 114 asks, "On Government's Exhibit 97" --
15 did you want to put that one up?

16 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

17 THE COURT: -- "did Mr. Parker author the bottom
18 text" -- and then in quotation marks -- "'I don't mind even 19 signed up for it once. Where are our wolves in the midst of 20 sheep?'"

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 No. That came with the original post which would have 23 been -- may I mark this screen?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may write on it.

25 THE WITNESS: (Drawing.)

1 So that would have come with the post and then
2 Mr. Parker would have commented -- whoops. Excuse me. There.
3 Sorry. (Drawing.) But, no, not that -- that I didn't even --
4 or "don't [even mind]" would not have been his words.

5 THE COURT: All right. And then the last question on 6 Jury Note No. 114 asks about the legality of a particular thing
7 that has come up. And so, again, I'm gonna instruct the jury
8 that you will be instructed on the legality. The legal 9 instructions will provide to you more information to guide you.
10 So we're not gonna ask this witness whether or not something is 11 or is not legal.

12 All right. Jury Note No. 115 is a question about the 13 scope of information, the different information related to Gold
14 Rush, Big Sky, Nevada, and so forth, and how to evaluate that.
15 So, again, that will be something that will be addressed in the 16 jury instructions that we'll provide you, the legal analysis
17 footprint diagram. It'll provide you what the elements are 18 that you need to consider in determining whether it is or is 19 not. So that's not something that this witness would be 20 answering for you.

21 So the next question on Jury Note 115 asks, "What 22 criteria do you use for a post to be considered relevant enough
23 for you to review?"

24 THE WITNESS: So if it had to do with the events of 25 April 12th, 2014; if it had to do with any intent behind those

1 events or any -- anything else that has to do with what has
2 been charged in this case, including the ongoing acts, that
3 would be -- that would be relevant.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 And the last question asked about all the exhibits
6 presented so far and asks for an opinion that is actually up to 7 the jury to decide how much weight to give to the evidence
8 that's provided. So I'm not gonna ask the witness for her
9 opinion on --

10 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: -- the weight of the evidence provided so
12 far.

13 Jury Note No. 116 asks, "Did your agents attempt to 14 provide incriminating responses from the defendants on Facebook
15 by casual conversation or any other means?"

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 117 asks, "When a date is 18 created, to an average person, how do we know to subtract 6
19 hours or 7 hours from UTC time?"

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 So the UTC only comes up in the Facebook returns, the 22 Business Record, that's how it's -- that's how they put the 23 time on there so it's standardized across different time zones.
24 For -- so, if you have a Business Record, it would be marked
25 "UTC" after the date and it would be the -- correction -- after

1 the time. The time would be in a 24-hour clock format and say
2 "UTC." If a user's just looking at a Facebook page, that's 3 going to be normal a.m./p.m. time per their local time zone.

4 THE COURT: For whose local time zone? The person to 5 whom the Facebook posts belongs or the person looking at it
6 somewhere else? I think that's what they are trying to figure
7 out.

8 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I --

9 THE COURT: If it's a screenshot that you took from 10 Nevada, is that screenshot gonna represent Nevada time or the 11 time in Idaho if the user is in Idaho?

12 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I apol- -- I am not qualified
13 to answer that question.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 The second question in Jury Note No. 117 is, "During 16 previous testimony another witness stated that it was 8 hours
17 for Pacific Time. Can you please clarify?"

18 So was the answer --

19 THE WITNESS: Oh.

20 THE COURT: -- yes, you can clarify or, no, you can't
21 clarify?

22 THE WITNESS: Seven is my -- my math. So I've been 23 going off of seven.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 And, just to be clear, there was a previous witness --

1 I know you weren't here -- there was a previous witness that
2 talked about the UTC time quite a bit. So I don't know if this
3 question was meant to be for that witness or if there was 4 something else that they wanted to clarify since we're looking
5 at a lot of different things that have time stamps on them.

6 And I think that the parties agreed there would be 7 another witness that will come in later that will also be able
8 to clarify how UTC time is calculated; is that right?

9 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, before we get to 118, could 12 we have a quick sidebar?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Jury Question No. 117 asks, "If you were to 16 post something right now on Facebook, should it be current time
17 or UTC time?"

18 THE WITNESS: So if -- for the user, it would be 19 current time. If later, a business record were produced on 20 that, it would be transferred to -- it would be calculated out
21 as UTC time, which would be the same time just -- that is 22 irrespective of time zones. So it's, again, a worldwide clock,
23 if you will, and all the time zones throughout the world.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 And then the last question on Jury Note No. 117 asks,

1 "If the search warrant was issued in March of 2014, why take so
2 long to serve in July of 2014?"

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor. Appreciate that
4 clarification.

5 The search warrant was served in July. The requested
6 records return date was in March of 2014. So we requested the 7 records back to March up through the present date of when the 8 search warrant was served.

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't understand that. Can 10 you say it again?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. I'm sorry, Your Honor.

12 So, in July, the search warrant was served requesting
13 to Facebook records dating back to March. It was finalized --
14 it was finalized in July, but the records went back to March.
15 So it wasn't -- it wasn't -- the search warrant requests, the 16 affidavit that goes with that, wasn't written in March and then
17 held on for 3 months to be served in July. It was a process.
18 Once it was completed in July, then it went back to include
19 records going back to that March of 2014.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 THE WITNESS: Does that --

22 THE COURT: So I think my confusion was 'cuz you used
23 the word "it." And I --

24 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: -- I think I assumed that you were

1 referring to something you actually weren't.

2 So, just to clarify, the search warrant was created and
3 serve -- approved and every -- it was served in July of 2014.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: And the request in that search warrant was 6 for information on the records going back all the way to 7 March 2014.

8 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I just finally got it. Thank you.
10 All right. All right. So now we're on to Jury Note
11 No. 118. Did you want a sidebar?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Thank you, Judge.

13 (Begin sidebar conference.)

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. I'm sorry for interrupting.
15 Actually, it's going to Question No. 2.

16 THE COURT: Oh.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I wasn't sure what -- I wasn't sure
18 what the Court indicated was gonna be the answer 'cuz the 19 question is, "What were the guidelines for initiating
20 'redactions' shown on the FB" account, Facebook account,
21 document --

22 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Document . . .

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry.

24 -- "exhibits? Were the redactions either made by you
25 or" --

1 THE COURT: "Approved by you."

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- "approved by you or lead
3 investigator?"

4 And I think the Court indicated that they were gonna --
5 you were gonna say --

6 THE COURT: I was gonna --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- it was you.

8 THE COURT: -- take the hit and say that I'm the one
9 who --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

11 THE COURT: -- approved --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I think --

13 THE COURT: -- what may or may not be redacted.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I think that's somewhat misleading
15 because you haven't gone through all of this stuff and you
16 haven't approved all this stuff. This is -- just been --

17 THE COURT: But I've ruled --

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- what's been --

19 THE COURT: -- on the objections where you thought
20 there was something that should not have been redacted or 21 should have been reacted.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Actually, I --

23 THE COURT: So anything the parties didn't agree to -- 24 if you want me to just say that -- anything the parties didn't
25 agree to I make the final call as to what should be redacted.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. I think more along those lines
2 because it just --

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- means that you're, like, you know, I
5 say "yes" or "no." And I didn't want them to think that --

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- this is, you know . . . But we
8 neither agreed or we haven't and you make the final ruling, I
9 guess.

10 THE COURT: I can do that.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: But there are objections to 'em.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. Perfect. Thank you very much.

14 (End sidebar conference.)

15 THE COURT: Okay. So Jury Note 118 asks two questions.
16 The first one is, "A word you used frequently is 'metadata.'
17 Please define the word and explain why metadata" -- well,
18 "Please" -- let's it one at a time -- "Please define the word
19 'metadata.'"

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 I am not an expert in metadata. But it is essentially
22 the information that is attached to, say, an image that might 23 reflect what type of camera the image was taken on; the -- the 24 location -- in a -- in a -- in kind of an IP address location
25 that that image would have been taken from; a date; a time.

1 Additional information that would help more uniquely identify
2 the origin of, say, a photograph.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 And the next part of that question is, was the 5 metadata -- or how was -- well, I guess it's either was the 6 metadata essential to your investigation or how did you use the 7 metadata in your investigation?

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you --

9 THE COURT: If you used it. I think that it's assuming 10 a lot of things, but . . .

11 So did you use the metadata in your investigation, if 12 so how?

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 Somewhat. With photo -- for example, photo posted by 15 Mr. Stewart on his account of going to get the cows back, that 16 date/time would have been part of that when that would have 17 been uploaded. But generally, no, I didn't spend much time
18 with metadata.

19 THE COURT: And, again, just to clarify, we had a
20 previous witness that I realize you're not aware of who spoke
21 to metadata more so in setting a timeline.

22 And are we gonna have another witness who talks about
23 metadata some more?

24 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So we'll have a chance to

1 clarify that even more.

2 And then the second question to Jury Note No. 18 [sic]
3 asks, "What were the guidelines for initiating redactions shown
4 on the [Facebook] screenshot exhibits? Were the redactions
5 either made by you or approved by you or a lead investigator?"

6 So I can answer that question for the jury. Any 7 redactions that the parties didn't agree to I'm the final
8 arbiter -- I'm the decisionmaker as to whether it is or is not
9 redacted depending on either legal or other concerns. And so
10 sometimes the redactions are made over the objection of one
11 party or the other or sometimes the redactions aren't made over 12 the objection of one party or the other. But ultimately it's 13 my call if the parties don't agree what should be redacted.

14 All right. Jury Note No. 119 asks, "Regarding" -- and 15 then the word "passive" is in quotation marks -- "Regarding 16 'passive' Facebook interaction, does that include (likes)" --
17 and the word likes is in parentheses -- "and sharing posts?
18 Please clarify." So, "Regarding 'passive' Facebook
19 interaction, does that include (likes) and sharing of posts?"

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 No, that would not include those. Just strictly 22 viewing.

23 THE COURT: I didn't hear the last part.

24 THE WITNESS: Oh, just --

25 THE COURT: "Just strictly" what?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE WITNESS: Just viewing, observing.

2 THE COURT: Observing, yes.

3 THE WITNESS: Viewing. Sorry.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Does the Government have follow-up questions?

6 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Defense, any follow-up questions?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 Well, thank you very much --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor --

12 THE COURT: Oh.

13 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I think they do.

14 Sorry.

15 MR. MARCHESE: You can go ahead.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. I'll go ahead. I got one.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Good afternoon, Agent.

21 A. Hello, sir.

22 Q. How are you?

23 There was a question regarding mutual agreement between 24 a person who has a Facebook account and wants to be friends
25 with somebody else.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Um-hum.

2 Q. You indicated there needs to be a mutual agreement; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. In order for somebody to accept that person, there was the 5 acceptance; there's the person that's saying I want to be your
6 friend.

7 A. Um-hum.

8 Q. Okay. In that case that would be --

9 A. Um-hum.

10 Q. -- the person that's asking and then requesting and then the 11 person saying I'm gonna allow you; correct?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Correct. Um-hum.

15 Q. And that's what you meant by "mutual agreement"; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Now, in order to even ask somebody to be a friend, by 18 definition you need to have your own Facebook account; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. So, when we saw there that you had or your agents had 21 four or five, I think you indicated, mutual friends with Scott
22 Drexler --

23 A. Right.

24 Q. -- those agents would have had to make their own page;
25 correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. I -- yes.

4 Q. Now --

5 A. Right.

6 Q. -- when your agents went out and they made their own pages,
7 they wouldn't put on there obviously that -- "FBI" or anything
8 of that nature; right?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object. This is 10 beyond the scope of the question posed by the jury.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's clearly not, Your Honor, because 12 it's a question regarding invoking conversations; there's 13 questions regarding accepting and mutual friendships and why
14 people would ask for or actually accept someone else as a
15 Facebook friend whether or not that Facebook person that's 16 asking or requesting is going to make it as relevant to the 17 person that's going to say "yes" or "no" or not. So it goes
18 directly to this investigation and it answers the question.

19 THE COURT: Well, the question was whether there was a
20 mutual agreement that was required for a person to become a
21 friend with another person.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: And there was also -- I apologize --
23 there was also another question regarding invoking
24 conversations, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: I didn't hear you. What was the second --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Invoking --

2 THE COURT: -- part?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- conversations. There's a question,
4 I believe --

5 THE COURT: Oh, the --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- towards the end --

7 THE COURT: -- question about whether or not any of the 8 undercover agents using an alias elicited an incriminatory
9 statement from any of the defendants?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: It seemed to be a little bit more
11 generic than that. It was --

12 THE COURT: "Did your agents" -- this Jury Note
13 No. 116 -- "Did your agents attempt to provoke incriminating
14 responses from the defendants on Facebook by casual
15 conversation or any other means?"

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

17 THE COURT: So that's your follow-up is to this
18 question.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

20 MS. AHMED: Her answer was no. So I don't know why
21 there would be -- how this further question is within the scope
22 of that.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, invoking conversations would
24 be -- if I'm going to make a web page that has to do with Bundy
25 that would invoke conversation and that is a --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: Now you're just arguing.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. And I apologize.

3 THE COURT: So what is the question and I'll rule on 4 whether or not --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: The question is gonna be whether or not
6 they tailor-made this fake Facebook account.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can --

9 THE COURT: -- ask that. Just ask that.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's it.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: That I can ask?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Agent, so when you and your people went out and falsified or 17 faked or --

18 MS. AHMED: Objection --

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. -- created --

21 MS. AHMED: -- argumentive.

22 THE COURT: Correct. So --

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. -- created --

25 THE COURT: -- form of the question.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize. Created.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. -- created these accounts on or about April 12th, 2014,
4 around there; correct?

5 A. Cor- -- beginning around there. There would . . . Right.

6 Q. Okay. Did you or your agents create these accounts with the 7 intent or the mind-set that you -- on your audience, on who you
8 were trying to befriend?

9 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance. It's just -- 10 relevance, beyond the scope.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's --

12 MS. AHMED: It's not the question the Court approved
13 obviously.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, it's not the question I said you
15 could ask.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Well, when you indicated that you didn't engage or invoke in 18 conversation, the Facebook page that you created or your people
19 created was intended to become friends with someone. Would 20 that be correct?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection. Beyond the scope and eliciting
22 irrelevant information. Also misstates the witness's
23 testimony.

24 THE COURT: No. I think she can answer that question.

25 Was the Facebook post created under an alias by the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 undercover agent created with the purpose of being accepted as 2 a friend?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 And so there's two categories here. So the earlier
6 passive browsing category is just the general. But to the --
7 one was created with -- yeah, with the intent of becoming a
8 friend --

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- right, so -- so what was not publicly available would be 12 viewable.

13 Q. Okay. So, when you say "intended," it went towards 14 Mr. Drexler's, if he was a friend, his likes and dislikes if 15 you will. Would that be fair?

16 MS. AHMED: Objection, vague and --

17 THE COURT: Oh --

18 MS. AHMED: -- relevance.

19 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just following up on the same question
21 that she's answering. I don't . . .

22 THE COURT: It would -- okay. So it was sort of vague
23 to me. I'm not sure what you were asking. But it was -- so
24 you're asking what you can and cannot see as a friend? Is that 25 what you're saying or what the --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I'm asking more about how they
2 determine what would be on a page in order to ask somebody to
3 be a friend 'cuz they are not gonna put up there, you know -- I
4 don't know -- tuxedos for sale. I mean, we're talking about
5 tailor-made to have someone say yes, you can be my friend. And 6 I would suggest that that would be invoking conversation by 7 doing so.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, again, that's -- the last part
9 is argument. So that's stricken. So I think you can ask your 10 question about how was the Facebook account created on the 11 accounts that were used for friendship --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

13 THE COURT: -- to see the private posts.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd also just say foundational
15 because Mr. Leventhal's not even established that the account
16 in question, that that person Friend Requested Mr. Drexler. We 17 don't know if it's that direction or if Mr. Drexler Friend
18 Requested that person. It's unclear. So it's just a -- just 19 lack of foundation if that's what he's getting at.

20 THE COURT: A lack of foundation as to whether there
21 was a Friend Request or . . .

22 MS. AHMED: So he's trying to establish that that
23 Facebook page was tailored towards Mr. Drexler's interests.
24 It's unclear who friended who so to speak; who sent out that
25 request and who accepted.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I think we . . .

2 THE COURT: Okay. So just ask a couple foundational
3 questions. I think we'll probably get there.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No problem.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. We saw a Facebook page wherein either yourself or one of 7 your agents had taken a screenshot. Do you remember that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And on there it said, I think, four mutual friends;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And so those mutual friends or that person, by 13 definition, would have been one of your agents; correct?

14 A. I don't know. I don't believe so. Those -- the mutual
15 friends, no.

16 Q. Did you become or one of your agents become friends with
17 Mr. Drexler?

18 A. One of our employees did, yes.

19 Q. Right. Okay.

20 And so one of your employees became friends. So we 21 don't know who the mutual friends are, whether or not --

22 A. Right.

23 Q. -- they were FBI agents; correct?

24 A. I -- I -- I don't know who they were, but I don't believe
25 they were.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay. So that agent could have also with that same made-up
2 Facebook account become friends with other people that
3 Mr. Drexler knows; right?

4 THE COURT: You're assuming that she said agents. She
5 didn't say "agent." She said one employee became a friend.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. One employee became a friend with Mr. Drexler?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And, by having four mutual friends, that means that 10 that employee --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- was also friends with other people who were friends with
13 Mr. Drexler.

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. All right. So we know that at least one undercover
16 FBI agent was a friend with Mr. Drexler?

17 A. An employee, yes.

18 Q. Okay. And we know by looking that when you ask to be a
19 friend you want to tailor-make that Facebook account to appease
20 to the person accepting; correct?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection, assumes facts not in evidence.

22 THE COURT: Now, you want to ask her if she was 23 involved in the making of the account used to friend
24 Mr. Drexler or that Mr. Drexler was friends with?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's not a problem, Your Honor. I

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 apologize.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Were you involved in the making of this fake web page?

4 MS. AHMED: Objection, argumentative.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Well, was it real?

7 MS. AHMED: It's a real Facebook account.

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Well, was it true?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, I'm being forced --

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- to go --

13 THE COURT: An alias --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- there. And I wasn't --

15 THE COURT: -- an alias --

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- expecting to go there.

17 THE COURT: All right. An alias was used by an 18 employee --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

20 THE COURT: -- to create an account.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. So how do you want me to label

22 it, this . . .

23 THE WITNESS: "Alias" is fine.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. I'm sorry?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. "Alias" is fine.

2 Q. Oh, wait. This alias account that was created to befriend
3 Mr. Drexler, on this page were you involved in tailor-making
4 that page to help become friends with Mr. Drexler?

5 A. No. I would have to -- well, I believe that it was already
6 an existing account anyhow. But I would have to go -- I don't
7 recall being a part of creating that page.

8 Q. Okay. So, when you sit here today and you say that you
9 don't -- that you were passive, you don't know how the page
10 was -- not how the page was created -- but you weren't there
11 when the page was created; correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And you weren't standing over your agents when they were 14 involved in looking on Mr. Drexler's page; correct?

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object that 16 Mr. Leventhal has no good-faith basis for these questions.
17 It's just --

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have a --

19 MS. AHMED: -- well beyond the scope also of the jury
20 question.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it's going back to the invoking.
22 And I'm suggesting there's other ways to invoke conversation.
23 So it goes directly towards the question and it's on point.
24 But . . .

25 THE COURT: But it sounds like you're getting further

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 away from it if she didn't have anything to do with the
2 creation of the account and the account already existed.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. Okay. So . . .

4 MS. AHMED: And who friended who has little to do with 5 provoking statements.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

7 MS. AHMED: You're talking about friendships, the 8 friendship not provoking statements.

9 THE COURT: Provoking friendship and provoking
10 statements -- I think is the objection -- is two different
11 things.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

13 THE COURT: But we're not gonna get into an argument in 14 front of --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Absolutely.

16 THE COURT: -- the jury --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have --

18 THE COURT: -- until closing --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- nothing further.

20 THE COURT: -- argument.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you very much.

22 THE COURT: Then you can argue all you want.

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Have a good day.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Afternoon again.

4 A. Good afternoon, sir.

5 Q. I just want to clarify a few things.

6 So you were asked a -- kind of a dual question in
7 reference to your course and scope of your duties in reference
8 to Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Dres- -- Drexler's --
9 excuse me -- Facebooks. Do you remember that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And one of the questions you were asked is when you
12 started looking. And I don't believe you were able to answer
13 that because you would have needed your notes; correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. But you can definitively say today here in court that 16 you were not looking at their Facebook pages on April 12th,
17 2014; correct?

18 A. Correct. I didn't know about them then.

19 Q. Okay. And then, in addition, you were asked another
20 question in reference to Mr. Parker's Facebook account and 21 social media -- or Facebook account -- we need be correct --
22 and that was in reference to if you saw any posts about him
23 intending to shoot officers or agents of the law. Do you
24 remember that?

25 A. I believe the word was "would," but --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Yes, if you --

2 A. -- yes.

3 Q. -- would. You're correct.

4 A. I remember that.

5 Q. And was your testimony something to the effect of you don't
6 recollect seeing anything along that nature; right?

7 A. I said he -- correct.

8 Q. Okay. And that would be something that you would obviously 9 note in your investigation if you saw --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- a post like that; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Thank you.

14 No further questions, Your Honor.

15 (Government counsel conferring.)

16 THE COURT: So the question was were you looking at 17 the Facebook account on April 12th and you said no you weren't 18 looking at it on April 12th. But earlier you said that the 19 search warrant that was served in July 2014 requested
20 information going back to March of 2014; right?

21 THE WITNESS: That's correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: And did you receive information going all
23 the way back to March 2014?

24 THE WITNESS: I believe so, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: That would have included information from

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 April 12th.

2 THE WITNESS: Correct. And I apologize if I -- I
3 misunderstood or answered that incorrectly.

4 THE COURT: No, no. I think you answered it correctly
5 the way --

6 THE WITNESS: Okay.

7 THE COURT: -- that it was asked.

8 So did you want to clarify, Mr. Marchese? Are you
9 asking about maybe something that was visible but then is no
10 longer visible later or isn't included in a . . .

11 MR. MARCHESE: I was just following up on a jury
12 question. But I can clean it up.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION (Continued)

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. So, on April 12th, 2014, you were not assigned to this case
17 at that time; correct?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. However, at some point in time -- you'd have to look at your 20 notes -- you were assigned to the case; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And, in the course and scope of your duties, as Her Honor
23 just alluded to, you got a search warrant; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And the search warrant went back approximately one month

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 prior to April 12th, 2014 --

2 A. That is --

3 Q. -- correct?

4 A. -- correct.

5 Q. So the posts that you saw were in relation to that search
6 warrant; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Well -- and, when I say "the posts," the pre -- when your 9 investigation started or you were assigned to it, anything that 10 you saw Facebook-wise would have been the result of a search
11 warrant; correct?

12 A. Well, not exclusive, no. But with the search warrant that 13 would have -- on April 12th, I was not looking at the Facebook
14 page.

15 Q. Right.

16 A. I didn't know about these individuals then. The search
17 warrant goes back to that. But -- and then I reviewed the 18 search warrant Business Record, as we've discussed, after that;
19 again, the investigation has continued. So I have since viewed 20 things that were publically -- is that what you're getting at?
21 I apologize if I've answered it --

22 Q. No. No.

23 A. -- if I --

24 Q. You're fine.

25 A. -- misunderstood before. Since the search warrant returns,

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 I have been able to view publicly available information prior
2 to that date.

3 Q. Okay. Yes.

4 A. Does that clarify --

5 Q. Right.

6 A. -- or . . . Okay.

7 Q. No. It does. I just wanted -- Her Honor brought up a good
8 point about the search warrant. I wanted to --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. -- clear that up.

11 A. Thank you.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. Okay. Kinda of --

14 Q. No. Thank you.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please raise your right hand.

20 You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall give

6 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please state your full name
8 for the record and spell your last name.

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Good afternoon again, Agent Willis. How are you today?

14 A. Good. How are you?

15 Q. I'm gonna ask you a few questions sort of beginning where we 16 left off the last time. I'm going to lead first with a
17 Facebook return that you reviewed and then I'm gonna go into a
18 video that you recovered and then I'm going to go into your 19 timeline. So that's sort of the order that I'm going to follow
20 with you --

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. -- in the first part of this afternoon.

23 So, turning first to this Facebook, did you have an 24 opportunity to review a Facebook search warrant return for Todd
25 Engel?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. And, first of all, who is Todd Engel?

3 A. Todd Engel is an individual that was involved in the 4 April 12th, 2014, standoff. He was on the bridge that day with
5 a rifle.

6 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we recall Exhibit 66,
7 please.

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And you see Exhibit 66?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. So would you -- do you see Todd Engel in this particular
14 view?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. If you would circle him, please.

17 A. (Complies.)

18 Q. Okay. And the record should reflect that the witness has 19 circled the individual in the foreground in Exhibit 66.

20 Now, in reviewing -- in order to obtain the account
21 information from Todd Engel's Facebook account, you first
22 discovered there was a Facebook account; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And did you supervise or prepare a search warrant
25 application for his Facebook account?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Did you receive a return in response to that?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. So your search warrant application was approved?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. After it's approved, what did you do with it?

7 A. We -- it comes in a page-by-page PDF form, several hundred
8 pages. And essentially we go page by page and we review
9 starting with the administrative information, you know, the 10 first page is his name, his email addresses, his phone numbers
11 associated with the account. And then we go in and section by 12 section we review the Facebook page and summarize it.

13 Q. Now --

14 A. And --

15 Q. -- when you receive -- so you received something back from 16 Facebook; correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. Was there a letter of authenticity in the information you
19 received back from them?

20 A. We did receive a letter of authenticity from Facebook.

21 Q. And that essentially says what?

22 A. It -- it just -- it's -- it's notarized, it's signed by a --
23 by someone authenticating that those are true, accurate
24 Business Records that include a summary of the Facebook records
25 requested within the subpoena within the time frame requested.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Do you mean "subpoena" or "search warrant"?

2 A. I'm sorry. Excuse me. Search warrant, not subpoena.

3 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness
4 what's been marked as, just witness and counsel only,
5 Exhibit 49, page 10?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 (Document displayed to the witness.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Do you have Exhibit 49, page 10, in front of you,
10 Agent Willis?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. And what does that's appear to be?

13 A. This is a Certificate of Authenticity of Domestic Records of 14 Regularly Conducted Activity. It's -- this is the 15 authentication document for the Todd Engel Business Records
16 from Facebook.

17 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 49,
18 page 10.

19 (Government's Exhibit No. 49, page 10, offered.)

20 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 49, page 10?

21 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

22 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: On relevance grounds. Other than
24 that . . .

25 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: 801(d)(2)(E)?

2 MR. MYHRE: The authenticity page, Your Honor? We're
3 establishing that it's just -- for weight of the evidence to 4 establish the authenticity of the records.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: And counsel --

6 MR. MYHRE: It's a Business Record itself.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize.

8 Counsel's correct. I don't have an objection to 9 just --

10 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 49, page 10, will be
11 admitted.

12 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Government's Exhibit No. 49, page 10, received.)

14 MR. MYHRE: And may we just publish briefly for the
15 jury.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 (Exhibit displayed in the courtroom.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. So this is what you received back from Facebook once you get 20 the return from them; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Now, once you received the return, you searched through the 23 records; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you search for the records as they relate to what is

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 specified in the search warrant itself.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Did you recover -- during your search of the return, did you
4 find documents that were responsive to that search warrant?

5 A. Yes, we did.

6 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may I show the witness
7 what's been marked as Exhibit 122?

8 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

9 (Exhibit displayed to the witness.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And do you see 122 in front of you there, Agent Willis?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. And how many pages are there to 122?

14 A. I think there's only two. Yes, page 198 and 199 of the 15 Business Records.

16 Q. And from this -- from these two-page documents, do they
17 contain entries from Mr. Engel's Facebook that are responsive
18 to the return?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Are they -- do they relate to entries that were made on or 21 about April the 12th, 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Can you tell from the sequence here whether it starts
24 sequentially, what is earlier in time versus what is later in
25 time?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, that's correct. It's reverse chronological. So
2 starting at the bottom of the second page working our way up to 3 get to the most recent post.

4 Q. Does that conform to usually how the Business Records are 5 returned to you?

6 A. Ye- -- yes, for -- for wall posts or timeline posts, based 7 on my knowledge and the review of these Facebook returns, that
8 that's the way the records are provided by Facebook.

9 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 122 for
10 identification. Ask it be admitted.

11 (Government's Exhibit No. 122, offered.)

12 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 122.

13 MR. TANASI: Just a continuing hearing and relevance
14 objection, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 MR. MYHRE: The same response, Your Honor,
19 801(d)(2)(E).

20 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is overruled.
21 Exhibit 122 will be admitted as 801(d)(2)(E).

22 (Government's Exhibit No. 122, received.)

23 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. And if we could begin with page 2 'cuz that's where the 4 earlier entries are; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Starting on the bottom entry, there were -- there have been
7 questions about UTC time. And I don't . . .

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. In terms of you -- you've done a lot of work during the 10 course of this information with converting times; is that
11 correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. Yeah.

14 And your understanding of "UTC time" is what?

15 A. Well, it's Universal Time Coordinated. Again, Zulu Time.
16 It's the time that all times are based off of.

17 For our investigation, when we say, "local time" or 18 when we convert the time from UTC to Nevada, Las Vegas, time,
19 we are subtracting 7 hours. And that's also based on the --
20 the event of April 12th, 2014; the fact that we were at that
21 point in -- I believe it's standard time. So we -- it's spring
22 forward, fall back. We had sprung forward. So, if we were in 23 between where it's daylight savings time, in between November
24 and I believe it's March [sic], it would actually be back 8
25 hours. So we've based our review and the review of the aerial

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 photography and other things on UTC-7 hours to give us local
2 time on April 12th, 2014.

3 Q. So, from here on in, when we're talking "Nevada local time,"
4 we're talking about minus 7 UTC?

5 A. That is correct.

6 Q. So, based on that premise looking at this first entry,
7 approximately what time was this entry made?

8 A. At approximately 9:52 a.m. on April 12th, 2014.

9 Q. And circling along the bottom there, it says, "Message,"
10 what does that mean in Facebook parlance?

11 A. This is just a -- essentially a record of somebody adding a
12 video to their Facebook wall and they included a description or 13 a message, as we see here, of that video or something they 14 wanted to relay or accompany that video that they posted to
15 Facebook.

16 Q. And, based on the Facebook records, who would have entered
17 that message?

18 A. Todd Engel.

19 Q. And why do you say that?

20 A. Because I have no reason to believe that it's anybody else.
21 It says it's "Todd Engel added a . . . video." I know that
22 Todd Engel was present on the day of April 12th, 2014 --

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, foundation. I don't think
24 this witness testified he was present on April 12th, 2014.

25 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Didn't he just identify
4 Mr. Engel in the photo in Exhibit 66?

5 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. So objection's overruled.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. So, based on your experience and training and your 9 investigation, you know that Engel was there on the 12th, and 10 this is his account; correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. And, just for the record purposes, read what the message is
13 there.

14 A. "Sheriffs" -- sorry. Excuse me -- "Sheriff has given one 15 hour to disarm blm."

16 Q. Now, proceeding up the page to the next entry --

17 MR. MYHRE: If we can get the shot just above that,
18 please. Thank you. Thank you.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Next entry in time sequence is at 18:05:11; correct?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. And that would be approximately what in local Nevada time?

23 A. So minus 7 hours, 11 -- approximately 11:05 a.m. on
24 April 12th, 2014.

25 Q. And is there another message there that's been placed by the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 account holder?

2 A. Yes, there is.

3 Q. And what is that?

4 A. "Headed out to block freeway and takes cows back."

5 Q. Now, the next entry above that is about what? 12 minutes
6 later?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What is that message?

9 A. "Leaving now to shut down freeway" -- excuse me. Start
10 over -- "Leaving now to shut the freeway down by force of 11 arms."

12 Q. Now, we've had some testimony about this. But, based on 13 your training and experience, how can -- how is it possible for 14 an account holder if they are out in the middle of Bunkerville
15 to be updating their Facebook page?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, calls for speculation.

17 MR. MYHRE: It's based on his training and his 18 experience, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: He may answer the question. He's asking
20 how may a person generally.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Generally, how may a person update a Facebook or put a
23 message on Facebook if they were in Bunker -- Bunkerville,
24 Nevada?

25 A. Using a smartphone with the Facebook app as long as you had

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 cell phone service or cellular tower service.

2 Q. Now, going up to the entry after the 18:17:40 entry, what is
3 that entry there?

4 A. This entry --

5 Q. This is 19:04 --

6 A. Right.

7 Q. -- 19. So if you could tell us what the local time was
8 there.

9 A. It would have been 12 -- approximately 12:04 p.m. on 10 April 12th, 2014. And the message reads, "Armed stand off."

11 Q. Now, the line that says "Story" it says, "Todd Engel added a 12 new video"; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you have the information that was added there?

15 A. No, I do not.

16 Q. And why is that?

17 A. It was not included in the Facebook Business Record. We did
18 not receive any videos from any of our search warrants on 19 Facebook accounts. So, when we received these records, we went 20 to his public Facebook page and attempted to find that post and 21 see if the video was still there and it was not there. It had 22 been removed or it wasn't publicly available.

23 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could move to page 1. And again
24 beginning at the bottom of page 1.

25 (Exhibit displayed in the courtroom.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And there's an entry there, again from the 12th of April,
3 2014, at 21:04:41 [sic]. If you could tell us what time
4 locally in Nevada in April that was?

5 A. Yes. That would have been at 2:01 p.m. on April 12th, 2014.

6 Q. And, in this entry, we see a line that says, "Story Todd
7 Engel updated his status." What does that mean?

8 A. Somebody posts on -- on their wall, you give a status
9 update. If you're using an app, you could just go in there and 10 it's -- it's, like, what's on your mind; what you're doing.
11 You -- you could link information like where you are, things
12 like that; if you're at a restaurant. Well, he was just 13 updating his status with a message in this post at this time.

14 Q. Okay. And do you see a message there?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And would you read that into the record, please.

17 A. "BLM lost and has backed down due to overwhelming force of 18 the people and our arms. WE WIN! Cattle being released as we 19 speak. If they don't trouble will start."

20 Q. And proceeding to the entry above that --

21 A. So this would be, "if they don't" --

22 Q. Sorry. I meant -- I'm sorry. I misspoke.

23 Proceeding to page 2, the entry then is completed on 24 page 2; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Thank you.

2 A. So then the previous sentence, "if they don't trouble will 3 start again" -- is the first word on this page -- and then the 4 next sentence is, "It was very very close to an exchange of gun
5 fire. We rushed their barricades with armed people and cowboys
6 on horseback. Crazy."

7 Q. So, just so the record's clear, the last words you spoke
8 were on page 2 of Exhibit 122.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Now, proceeding up on page 1 to the entry above the last one
11 we read --

12 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. -- this entry appears to have occurred again on the 12th of 15 April 2014; this time at 22:22:57. What time is that locally?

16 A. That would have been 3:22 p.m.

17 Q. And, again, the line besides "Story" reads, "Todd Engel
18 added a new video." So, again, this is a video being added?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And then there's a message; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what does that message read?

23 A. In all caps, "WE WIN!"

24 Q. Now, you mentioned this was a -- these are wall posts?

25 A. Yes, or timeline posts.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. I think we've had some testimony with respect to that. But
2 if you could just speak a little bit about what is a wall post?

3 A. Well, a wall post is just generally information that you
4 would like to share, depending on your settings, either
5 publicly to everyone or with your friends. Each post can
6 actually be tailored to who you want it to be viewable to. If
7 you go on somebody's Facebook page, your timeline or wall -- it
8 seems to change names back and forth -- but would just be
9 basically that, it's your information. As I had mentioned
10 earlier, if you went out to a restaurant and you wanted people
11 to know that you were here at this time and that the food was 12 great, you could put that there and somebody could actually go
13 on and see a -- like a Google Maps image of that restaurant or 14 something and along with your message. So it's just basically 15 information that you want to share with -- with people who 16 either have access to your Facebook page, again depending on 17 your settings, or just anybody in public -- in the public.

18 Q. From the Facebook search warrant return, the Business Record
19 returns, are you able to tell their privacy settings?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay. So it would just depend -- in terms of who could view
22 this, it would be a public post, public to the extent others
23 allow someone to view it.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. You could take down 122 for the
2 time being. Thank you.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Now, when we last spoke, Agent Willis, you discussed how you
5 did public or Open Source reviews --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- as well. And you did searches in the Internet for 8 whatever would be available to an Internet user; is that
9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And, in the course of doing that search, did you discover a 12 video involving the events of posts immediately in the 13 aftermath of the events on the bridge on 4-12?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And was that event -- did that event take place at what we 16 referred to as "the staging area" or "the rally point" along
17 Riverside Road in Bunkerville?

18 A. Yes, it did.

19 Q. Did it involve Cliven Bundy making a speech?

20 A. Yes, it did.

21 Q. Can you explain generally how you discovered this particular
22 video?

23 A. As I had mentioned in my previous testimony, it -- it's as 24 simple as going on and doing a term search: Bundy, Bundy
25 Ranch, Bundy standoff; anything that, as far as terms that I

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 could use to generate a different search result, like a Google
2 Search. This was a video or actually a group of videos that --
3 this is a video from a group of videos -- excuse me -- on
4 YouTube where I had essentially done that. Like, doing a
5 Google Search; but instead of Google, YouTube for Bundy Ranch.
6 And this was part of the -- my search result that showed up on
7 the side of the screen there.

8 Q. Do you recall the name of the YouTube account or the site
9 that you visited?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And what was that?

12 A. It was "sexy702latina," all one word and that was their 13 Facebook page name -- I'm sorry -- YouTube channel name.

14 Q. So YouTube channel?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And after -- and did this YouTube channel contain the video
17 we just discussed?

18 A. Yes, it did.

19 Q. And was the content relevant to your investigation?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. When you discovered it, what did you do with the information
22 that you saw?

23 A. I captured the video by downloading it from YouTube and 24 submitting it as a piece of evidence to our case file.

25 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 what's been marked as Exhibit 47a.

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 (Video played.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. And you've had a chance to look at 47a briefly in court.

6 You've seen it outside the courtroom; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is that the video that you downloaded on the 20 -- on --

9 excuse me -- from the sexylatina website --

10 A. Yes, it is.

11 Q. -- or excuse me -- YouTube channel?

12 A. Yes, YouTube channel.

13 Q. And does it contain a speech by Mr. Cliven Bundy of

14 April 12th, 2014?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 47a.

17 (Government's Exhibit No. 47a, offered.)

18 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

19 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on relevance, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler objects on relevance grounds.

22 MR. MYHRE: Did they say "object on relevance," your

23 Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. MYHRE: I had difficulty hearing. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, it's directly relevant. These
3 are statements made in furtherance of the conspiracy. It's 4 actually -- they are admissions being made during the course of 5 this video. But they relate directly to the events of
6 April 12th, 2014.

7 THE COURT: So these are 801(d)(2)(E) statements?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is overruled.
10 And Exhibit 49a -- 47 -- 47?

11 MR. MYHRE: 47a, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: -- 47a is admitted.

13 (Government's Exhibit No. 47a, received.)

14 MR. MYHRE: 47a.

15 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish it.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 (Video played.)

18 MR. MYHRE: Stop right there, please. Thank you.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. So we stopped at 5 seconds. If you can provide for us a
21 little setting, Agent Willis. First of all, where is this --
22 based on your knowledge from the investigation, where is this
23 event or this scene that we are currently viewing at 5 seconds
24 in? Where is this occurring?

25 A. This is occurring at the staging area or rally site in

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Bunkerville, Nevada; it's on State Route 170, approximately
2 2 miles from the Bundy Ranch.

3 Q. And the individual that appears in this image to be holding
4 a microphone, who is that?

5 A. That's Cliven Bundy.

6 Q. Are you able to tell from this image approximately what time
7 of day this would have occurred?

8 A. It would be at approximately 4:00 p.m. And I say
9 "approximately" because we -- other than this video and -- and 10 aerial footage, which is what I based my time on, we did not
11 have any time stamped photography or video of this. So, when I
12 say "the aerial footage," after the standoff people came back
13 to the staging rally site area. That is captured starting at 14 approximately 4:00 p.m. You see a large group of people
15 gathered at the stage -- staging area rally site in 16 Bunkerville. So, again, approximately 4:00 p.m. based on the 17 aerial footage.

18 Q. And, in this image, we -- I'm gonna circle an individual
19 here in the lower left-hand corner. Do you know the identity
20 of that person?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. And who is that person?

23 A. That's Schuyler Barbeau.

24 Q. Is that the same Schuyler Barbeau that was referenced in 25 earlier testimony?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 THE COURT: Can you spell that for me again?

3 THE WITNESS: His name is spelled S-c-h-u-y-l-e-r; last
4 name, B-a-r-b-e-a-u.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 And did you say that the stage is or is not on the 7 ranch -- on the Bundy Ranch?

8 THE WITNESS: So the -- the Bundy Ranch is actually
9 a -- a plot of land on the Virgin River approximately 2 miles
10 from this stage. This is a different piece of property that 11 does not belong to Cliven Bundy that is off the side of State
12 Route 170 near the bridge that goes over the Virgin River and 13 opposite to where Cliven Bundy's -- the road leading to Cliven
14 Bundy's house intersects with State Route 170. So it's -- 15 again, this is not on the Bundy Ranch, this stage. It's on the 16 side of a road.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And, just for further clarification, it is approximately how 20 many miles from the ICP?

21 A. 5 miles.

22 MR. MYHRE: Continue video, please.

23 (Video played.)

24 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the
25 video stops at approximately 2:13. Nicole, if we could back up

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 to about 50 seconds, please.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 MR. MYHRE: That's fine.

4 Record should reflect that the video has been rewound
5 to approximately 50 seconds, 49 seconds in.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Agent Willis, Mr. Bundy in this image appears to be holding
8 something in his hand; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What is that object?

11 A. That is a "Closure Area" sign that, according to Cliven
12 Bundy, had been taken off the fence that was underneath the 13 southbound I-15 bridge in the Toquop Wash.

14 Q. Now, based on your information, where do those signs come
15 from?

16 A. They came from the BLM.

17 Q. And how were they used?

18 A. They were used -- they were posted throughout --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, hearsay --

20 THE WITNESS: -- the --

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- foundation.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

23 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Lovelien joins.

25 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, just based on his investigation

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 just generally what he determined is how -- I'll ask it where
2 they were posted as opposed to how they were used.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. Based on your investigation, where were these signs posted?

6 A. They were posted throughout the impoundment area. So by the 7 BLM through several -- several areas notifying the public that
8 this was a closure area --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, nonresponsive, move to 10 strike.

11 MR. MYHRE: I'm --

12 THE COURT: Okay. So the question was where and he 13 answered where. And I think he was going -- he was continuing
14 to answer why. But that question wasn't posed yet.

15 MR. MYHRE: No. It just --

16 THE COURT: Is that the objection?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Judge. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So he was anticipating your next
19 question essentially.

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. So you indicated where they were posted. And what was the 23 bases for posting them?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, foundation, calls for
25 hearsay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. Were public records available in terms of posting of signs?

3 A. Yes. So this was another step --

4 Q. Before you -- were those records available --

5 A. Yes --

6 Q. Public --

7 A. -- publically.

8 Q. -- records?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. In the course of your investigation, did you review the 11 public records pertaining to the impoundment action?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And, from your review of those public records, were you able 14 to determine the purpose for posting the closed area signs?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what was that purpose?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, objection, hearsay. A
18 public record is still hearsay. It doesn't need to be a
19 statement. Hearsay could be a document; it could be any 20 out-of-court statement/document for the truth of the matter
21 asserted. So it's still -- it's still hearsay. And I would 22 object on hearsay and foundation grounds.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, it's information from a public
24 record. So it's an exception to the hearsay rule because it's 25 a public record.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 THE COURT: Objection's overruled. He may answer the
2 question.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. You can answer what was the purpose for posting the signs.

5 A. For safety purposes to the public notifying them that there
6 would be an impoundment operation in this area.

7 MR. MYHRE: And we can take that down for the time
8 being.

9 Your Honor, I'm getting ready to move into the time
10 line. I don't know if you wanted to take a break now or do it
11 later.

12 THE COURT: Sure, we can go ahead and take a break now.

13 I do remind the jury during this break:

14 Please do not discuss this case with anyone nor permit
15 anyone to discuss it with you. Do not read or view or listen
16 to anything that touches upon this case in any way. And,
17 please do not perform any independent investigation or any 18 research regarding anything that touches upon this case in any 19 way.

20 And please do not reach any opinion or form any opinion
21 regarding the issues in this case until after you've heard all
22 the testimony, received the evidence, I will provide you the 23 jury instructions of law, and then you will hear closing
24 arguments. After that I will excuse you and then you can begin
25 your deliberation process which includes speaking about the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 case with each other.

2 So we'll go ahead and take a break. It's 3:15. Be
3 back here at 3:30.

4 All right. So let's go ahead and stand for the jury.
5 The jury is excused.

6 And, Special Agent Willis, after the jury exits, then
7 you may also take your stretch break.

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: And we just need you back here by 3:30,
10 please.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Off record.

13 (Jury out. Recess, 3:15 p.m. Resumed, 3:46 p.m. Jury not 14 present.)

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

17 Aaron, do you want to call back in the jury.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

20 (Jury in, 3:49 p.m.)

21 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and take a seat.

22 All right. Welcome back. We still have Special Agent
23 Joel Willis on the stand. Thank you, sir.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: And, Mr. Myhre, you may continue with your

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 direct examination.

2 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Agent Willis, on the witness stand to your left, we have
5 what's been previously marked as Exhibit 182. Do you see that?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. What is Exhibit 182?

8 A. This is a timeline which provides a sequence of events that 9 occurred prior to Cliven Bundy getting on the stage with 10 Sheriff Douglas Gillespie the morning of April 12th, 2014,
11 through the release of the cattle and the speech that you just 12 previously saw with Cliven Bundy with the Closed Area sign in 13 that video pertaining to the activities of the four defendants
14 on April 12th, 2014.

15 Q. So let's talk a little bit about how you went about 16 constructing this timeline.

17 First of all, it consists of individual slides;
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And you put those slides into a PowerPoint presentation?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. And does that presentation consist of approximately 88
23 separate slides?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now, you mentioned that you used information that pertained

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 to the four defendants based on the events of April 12th, 2014;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And, in compiling this, you did so from evidence that has 5 already been admitted during the course of these proceedings;
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So there are approximately 195-plus exhibits thus far
9 admitted. So, in the course of putting this together, you
10 reviewed all of the those exhibits; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Some of those exhibits contain video evidence that we've 13 seen; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, if you found something that pertained to these 16 defendants within the video evidence, would you -- how would 17 you isolate that event?

18 A. I would essentially take a screenshot of how I'm viewing it
19 on the -- on the player. So, if I'm using Windows Media Player
20 I would take a screenshot of that media player including the 21 play time on the bottom and any and other information I would 22 see in that player window on my computer.

23 Q. And, in your timeline, you would indicate that's a
24 particular image, for example, that was derived from a
25 screenshot that you would put "screenshot" on it.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. You would also indicate on the slide the exhibit number that 3 it was derived from.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Now, you talked about sequence of events and we talked quite 6 a bit the last time in your testimony about time stamping these 7 images; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Some of these images you were able to time stamp based on 10 metadata contained in the image itself; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. In other images you were able to time stamp based on other
13 characteristics you've noticed in the image that you could
14 verify through other media; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now -- and each of your entries in your timeline you've 17 indicated the time that you derived on the exhibit itself;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you've indicated that the timeline runs essentially from 21 about 9:00 a.m. on April the 12th through sometime around 4:00
22 p.m., the last video that we viewed here.

23 A. Yes. And also at the end there's a -- there's a couple of 24 Facebook posts as well.

25 Q. Right.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 And -- but, just with respect to that video, that was
2 Exhibit 47a; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Now, you mentioned Facebook posts. So, in addition to 5 images that were compiled in connection with your timeline, you
6 also compiled various Facebook entries that would be pertinent
7 to the timeline itself; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And they would relate to images that appear in the timeline.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And this was done to assist the trier of fact, the jury, in 12 understanding the evidence that's been presented in court as 13 well as organizing the many exhibits that have been presented
14 thus far.

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's
17 Exhibit 182 which consists of 88 slides, 1 through 88.

18 (Government's Exhibit No. 182, offered.)

19 THE COURT: Any objection to 188 [sic]?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I'm gonna object. I don't 21 believe all of these slides have actually been introduced.

22 THE COURT: Do you -- all right. Do you have some 23 numbers? Are the --

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, right off --

25 THE COURT: Are the slides --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- the bat --

2 THE COURT: -- so there's 88 slides that are --

3 MR. MYHRE: Correct.

4 THE COURT: -- contained in Exhibit 182 --

5 MR. MYHRE: That's --

6 THE COURT: -- is that right?

7 MR. MYHRE: -- correct, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 Are there page numbers?

10 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Each slide --

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. MYHRE: -- is individually numbered 1 through 88.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't believe 19 was admitted. And I
15 could be wrong.

16 MR. MYHRE: Slide No. 19?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: It would be the first one. I believe I
18 had objected to it and I don't think -- did it come in?

19 MR. MYHRE: If I could seek clarification, Your Honor.
20 Are we talking about slide No. 19 or Exhibit No. 19?

21 THE COURT: Let's just go over -- do you have a copy?
22 Let's go over to sidebar and you can show us.

23 (Begin sidebar conference.)

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: So as I -- do you want to start? -- so
25 I opened it up I saw first as I opened up the exhibit the first

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 page would be 19, this one. I believe I --

2 THE COURT: It's on page 1.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Page 1. I'm sorry. It's Exhibit 19.
4 Exhibit 19.

5 THE COURT: Right. But page 1 of Exhibit 88 comes 6 from -- or is derived from . . .

7 MR. MYHRE: Exhibit 19, Your Honor.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's --

9 THE COURT: Exhibit 19.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- 182; right?

11 MR. MYHRE: But the exhibit that we're offering --

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. MYHRE: -- is Exhibit 182.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. The first one..

15 MR. MYHRE: The first slide is derived from Exhibit 19.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: So I remember that I had objected to it
17 and Mr. Myhre had indicated that there was going to be another
18 way he was going to admit that. And, again, I just looked at 19 that one slide. He moved on to other slides and, as he moved 20 on to other slides, I don't believe that we ever got back to 21 that slide and that was admitted at some point.

22 MR. MYHRE: I've got it admitted 7-13-17.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Exhibit 19 was admitted, Your
24 Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because if you remember, he said, I'll

-2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017-

1 do it the long way.

2 MS. AHMED: It's in. It was admitted.

3 THE COURT: Can I see that? What . . .

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I'll just -- it's in a supposed
5 exhibit that shows a truck with two people --

6 THE COURT: Right.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- in the back that has a label of 8 "Drexler" and so I objected to that. And Your Honor had 9 somewhat sustained it, but then told Mr. Myhre to get it in and 10 go the long way around and so he did that. But he never came 11 back to this. And I've never --

12 THE COURT: I think that was just the license plate.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Then he went to the license plate,
14 another truck with the license plate and said, okay, I'll do
15 this a different way. Then he went to the license plate, but 16 he never came back to this image.

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart would join --

18 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry?

19 MR. TANASI: -- would join with respect to the 20 identification of Stewart as well. I don't know that . . .
21 And the time additionally.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I know I objected to it because there's 23 no way to know that that's Drexler's, Stewart, and there's a
24 label there and you can't tell from that image. And that's 25 what I was objecting to. So I don't ever remember coming back

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 to that image.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the exhibit was admitted. I
3 recall it being admitted. And the agent's gonna testify
4 that -- as he already has -- that he isolated screenshots from
5 the images that pertain to these defendants. He will explain
6 how he identifies Stewart and Drexler within the exhibit
7 itself. We don't believe that makes it inadmissible because 8 the exhibit itself is already in evidence.

9 MR. TANASI: Is that what you said, leading --

10 THE COURT: Aaron, do you see that Exhibit 19 has been
11 admitted?

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Exhibit 19 was admitted, Your
13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: And when?

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: On July 31st.

16 THE COURT: With which witness?

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It was with Willis.

18 THE COURT: Willis. So Willis the first time.

19 MR. TANASI: Was it admitted with the actual arrows --

20 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry?

21 MR. TANASI: Was it admitted with the actual arrows
22 identifying Scott Drexler and Steven Stewart?

23 MR. MYHRE: No.

24 MR. TANASI: No. Then that's the issue.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. I believe -- because I remember

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 you showing me.

2 THE COURT: I have it highlighted on my notes too --
3 I'm looking at my notes here -- Exhibit 19 was admitted. I
4 highlight them in yellow when they're -- I put "obj" when
5 there's an objection; I highlight in yellow if it is admitted.
6 I got like a little color-coded thing goin' on. But I do show
7 that it's highlighted in yellow that it was admitted.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: But the screenshot then would have been 9 part of --

10 THE COURT: "White truck" --

11 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry?

12 THE COURT: "White truck at rally" is what I wrote next 13 to Exhibit 19. I wrote down, "FRE 901(d)(4), similar 14 characteristics." So I think that was the ruling over the
15 objection.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: From that exhibit, have you tried to 17 offer -- and maybe I'm wrong -- that still shot at another time
18 with Willis? With Drexler and --

19 MR. MYHRE: Not Exhibit 182, slide 1.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: So this would have been the first time
21 he sees this with the two names on it.

22 MR. MYHRE: The two names -- the witness will testify
23 as to the two names that he put that on the image. That's not 24 on the original image.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. So that would make it a

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 different image than what's in 19.

2 MR. MYHRE: Only to the extent that the witness has
3 added identifiers to the exhibit itself which -- and he'll 4 testify that he based on his investigation's been able to
5 identify the individuals at slide No. 1 as Drexler and Stewart
6 in the back of the truck and he's put arrows with yellow boxes
7 there depicting where they were, which is the same exhibit we
8 introduced at the last trial. Maybe that's what you're 9 thinking about.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you remember this between -- when 11 you said I'll go around the long way? Or no? I know it's been 12 a long week. Do you remember it?

13 MS. AHMED: It was the video --

14 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry?

15 MS. AHMED: I was just explaining to Mr. Leventhal that 16 the video was not -- there were no labels on the video.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

18 MS. AHMED: So the video went in.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. And I remember that you
20 showed -- or somebody showed -- Mr. Myhre showed Mr. Willis
21 this and I objected to it and you said, okay, I'll go the long
22 way around. Do you remember that?

23 MS. AHMED: And then it went in, yeah.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: It went in at what point because I
25 never -- I don't remember it coming back.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: I have no response to that because I know
2 it's admitted, but I don't know the exact time it was admitted
3 during the course of Mr. Willis's testimony.

4 (Government counsel conferring.)

5 THE COURT: After Exhibit 19 was Exhibit 40, the 6 license plate of the white truck from the YouTube video,
7 publicly available; and then Exhibit 177, the registration
8 inquiry regarding Lovelien's Ford from Montana.

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And, Your Honor, that would
10 have been admitted in the afternoon between lunch and the first 11 break. I can't narrow it down closer, but . . .

12 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I could maybe clarify.

13 I know that at least -- and I was gonna voice an 14 objection in addition to Mr. Leventhal's -- it's the 15 identification of the two individuals in the back of the truck
16 that has not previously been admitted nor has the time on the 17 bottom of the exhibit been previously admitted. So that's 18 foundation --

19 COURT REPORTER: "Foundation" what?

20 MR. TANASI: -- foundationally one of the issues as
21 well.

22 THE COURT: As well or instead? Because Exhibit 19 has 23 been admitted so . . . So the other issue is whether or not we 24 have heard testimony from somebody identifying?

25 MR. TANASI: Correct. That's Stewart's issue, Your

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Honor, is that the picture itself has Stewart and Drexler
2 labeled with yellow arrows and that hasn't been done by anybody
3 and now it's being offered in a summary.

4 MR. MYHRE: The agent will testify as to his
5 identification of the individuals in the image, how he placed
6 labels on the image --

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: (Gesturing.)

8 MR. MYHRE: -- placed labels on the image to identify 9 them, and that he then will explain how he affixed the time
10 stamp to it. But these are all admitted exhibits and all he's 11 doing now is putting them in sequence adding the time stamp and 12 his identification of the defendants which he will testify to 13 to each one. So it would not go to the admissibility of the 14 summary. They -- the defendants can certainly cross-examine 15 all day long as to why he put the labels where he put 'em or 16 the time stamp he put 'em. But that would go to the weight of 17 the evidence, not the admissibility. It's a summary. It's 18 offered to assist the trier of fact in understanding voluminous
19 evidence and we've laid the foundation of how the agent pulled 20 together this summary based on his review of the voluminous
21 number of exhibits and video that have been identified.

22 THE COURT: The why I understand the objection is what 23 did this witness use to determine the identity of the 24 individuals? Maybe -- is it based on testimony that we've 25 already heard or is it something --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: On the specific --

2 THE COURT: -- new?

3 MR. MYHRE: -- no, it's based on --

4 THE COURT: I don't --

5 MR. MYHRE: -- his --

6 THE COURT: -- want to paraphrase you.

7 MR. TANASI: No. That's essentially it. In other
8 words, he'll be asking question "where is Steven Stewart?" and 9 now for the first time he's gonna identify he's right there.
10 When he does that, though, there's a big yellow arrow that's
11 pointing towards Steven Stewart so it's not happening
12 foundationally; it's happening, you know, in a leading manner.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Independent.

14 THE COURT: There was --

15 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. What?

16 THE COURT: -- there was the NHP Trooper that 17 identified as he's pulling in.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: He sees people in camo.

19 THE COURT: He sees people in --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Camo.

21 THE COURT: I don't remember --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: He testified in camo --

23 MR. MYHRE: Right.

24 THE COURT: One of the trucks that he passed by and 25 saw.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: Right. And that's Sergeant Serena; we have
2 that in our summary as well. But, with respect to his identity
3 of these individuals, he's the investigating agent. He's 4 reviewed thousands of images. He will identify specific 5 identifying characteristics that -- based on his review of 6 this, to identify those individuals as being Stewart and
7 Drexler in the back of the vehicle.

8 THE COURT: So it is the 901(b)(4), the similar
9 characteristics.

10 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

12 MR. MYHRE: And we believe --

13 THE COURT: That objection -- I overrule that objection
14 based on that information.

15 Was there another page on there that you thought might 16 not be the correct --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, that was the only one at that time.
18 I'll alert the Court if I see something else. But everything
19 else probably came in. But, again, just to voice my objection
20 would be, again, the leading nature of this and it's not an 21 independent saying that I remember that; that's what I did.

22 Go ahead.

23 MR. MARCHESE: And Mr. Tanasi did also bring up --

24 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. "Bring up" what?

25 MR. MARCHESE: Brought up the reference to the time

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 stamps. I know the first time that this particular witness was
2 here. He started laying some of the foundation for -- as to
3 how he derived these time stamps for each of the 88 slides,
4 however, if we can get a little bit more foundation as to that.

5 THE COURT: More foundation. I don't know what you
6 mean by "more foundation" --

7 MR. MARCHESE: Well, how --

8 THE COURT: -- because --

9 MR. MARCHESE: -- he came --

10 THE COURT: -- he's already testified --

11 MR. MARCHESE: -- up with these times, with --

12 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. I can't quite --

13 MR. MARCHESE: -- we had a myriad of exhibits from 14 different sources. My recollection of his testimony last time
15 was that many of these sources he said were wrong. Some were 16 faster, some were slower. He used --

17 COURT REPORTER: He used what?

18 MR. MARCHESE: -- the Lynch videos was my recollection
19 as some sort of a baseline. So I don't know. There was no
20 testimony if that's what he did this time. You know, I just 21 want to know how he came about with the times.

22 MR. MYHRE: I believe he testified in his first
23 sequence that he used the aerial as the base time --

24 THE COURT: That's what I was thinking too.

25 MR. MYHRE: -- and that he then used other -- either

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 the metadata imbedded within the image or other characteristics
2 that he compared to the aerial to derive the time locally based
3 on the aerial as the baseline.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

5 MR. MYHRE: And I can --

6 THE COURT: And I believe it was on cross the 7 explanation given for that was just because that was the 8 longest time period of information that he had available
9 because there was a question as to whether or not the timing
10 was exactly correct or not. Oh, yes, because then one of the 11 questions was the flyover --

12 MR. MYHRE: There was a gap.

13 THE COURT: And there was a gap, right, when the gap --
14 it was being gassed did that affect your timeline. So he did
15 testify about the basis of his . . .

16 MR. MYHRE: His methodology, Your Honor, in deriving
17 the time. That's how I described it. And each slide has a 18 time stamp on it that he will explain during the course of his 19 testimony that's how he derived that time.

20 MR. TANASI: I think that addresses, I guess, at least 21 one of the concerns is if he is going to give testimony as to
22 each --

23 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. "Testimony as to 24 each" . . .

25 MR. TANASI: -- as to each slide as to how he derived

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 the time.

2 THE COURT: Well, he can give -- he doesn't have to
3 slide by slide by slide if he can group them; if they are all
4 based on the same thing or if some of them are based on one
5 calculation and others based on another.

6 MR. MYHRE: What we could do, Your Honor, is -- if
7 there's going to be questions on each individual slide, we'd
8 offer it subject to connection; that we could connect it to,
9 you know, prove up the time. And, if it's insufficient
10 foundation based on the Court, we can just unadmit it. But to 11 go through each one of these 88 slides laying separate
12 foundation for each one when there's really no, you know,
13 serious objection to it, I think is going to eat up a ton of 14 court time.

15 MR. TANASI: Again, my recollection though, Your Honor,
16 with this time stamping is that it comes from a few different
17 sources; not just all based on one source. And so that's the 18 concern is that -- which source did you utilize to base your 19 time from on this particular slide. I understand maybe slide
20 by slide is not the most efficient way to go at it. But, if 21 there is a grouping of some kind: These are all based on --
22 that's Michael Lynch time. This is all based on -- for 23 example, this is all based on the aerial surveillance time.
24 This is all based on Shilakis time.

25 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, I -- the defense have had

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 this exhibit for a long time. Now I'm hearing about now
2 there's a serious objection to the time stamping on it. And,
3 if we're gonna be doing groupings based on Michael Lynch versus
4 Michael Flynn versus Huge Gourgeon, I'll have to redo my entire 5 direct and regroup them.

6 We would offer them subject to connection, that we
7 connect up the time, that we prove it up. And, if the 8 defendants wish to object to the lack of foundation and the 9 Court rules that we haven't met it, then we just withdraw it.
10 But if -- you know, we can go whichever way the Court rules
11 obviously. But I just think for the basis of admitting the 12 exhibit the foundation's been laid to, you know, lay the 13 summary -- or enter it as one exhibit.

14 THE COURT: All right. So the way I'm understanding it
15 is the objection is not to the chronological; it's just as to 16 the exact timing that is given on these slides? And there's no
17 question that the slides are shown in chronological order.
18 It's just a matter of where do you get the time stamps for each
19 one of these, how is it derived, is it . . .

20 MR. TANASI: I think that's hard to say if the time is 21 somehow off whether or not chronologically they are accurate.

22 MR. MYHRE: And, again, the time -- as the witness just 23 testified, his object in putting this together was to show the 24 sequence of events. And whether an event occurred at 9:57 or 25 9:58 and a half is not as important as whether or not the event

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 in that slide is in chronological order in proper sequence.
2 We're not offering it to show that Steven Stewart was staying
3 on the bridge at precisely, you know, 12:17. We're there to 4 show that he was standing on the bridge at the time when horses
5 had pushed through the bridge, for example.

6 THE COURT: Right. There's no alibi defense here.

7 All right. I agree. Objection's overruled. We can
8 continue with the admission of Exhibit 182.

9 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 (End sidebar conference.)

12 THE COURT: All right. I think we're ready; right?

13 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, Mr. Myhre. You may 15 continue. Objection's overruled.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. And may we -- we've 17 offered 182, slides 1 through 88. That's admitted in its 18 entirety, Your Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes, Exhibit 182 is admitted.

20 (Government's Exhibit No. 182, received.)

21 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish it to the
22 jury.

23 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 And if we could call up the first slide.

25 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And, Agent Willis, before we begin on the first slide, just
3 to recap, you have a paper version of this on in front of you;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. You've also reviewed the electronic version; is that
7 correct?

8 A. Yes, I have.

9 Q. And that accurately reflects what you've compiled --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- correct?

12 All right. Turning, then, to 182, slide 1. This image
13 is derived from Exhibit 19; is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that -- what was Exhibit 19?

16 A. Exhibit 19 was a video by Dennis Michael Lynch.

17 Q. Now, you described how you would make a -- you would 18 indicate whether a slide was from a screenshot or not; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And this indicates a screenshot.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So I would just -- when you reviewed the Dennis Michael 23 Lynch video, you made this image from that; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Now, what are we seeing in this particular image?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. This image is taken from the vantage -- a vantage point on a
2 hill across the street from the staging area rally site in
3 Bunkerville. There's several people standing. There's 4 actually a -- a stage on the other side of those two flagpoles
5 with the American flags and the banner in between and we're
6 seeing a vehicle that is traveling, which that would be
7 northbound on State Route 170 past the staging area.

8 Q. Now, you previously identified this vehicle; is that
9 correct?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And to whom is that vehicle registered?

12 A. Ricky Ray Lovelien.

13 Q. Now, we see some boxes with some names in them with some 14 arrows. Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Were those boxes and those arrows and those names on the 17 Dennis Michael Lynch video?

18 A. No. I added them afterwards.

19 Q. And what was your purpose in adding them?

20 A. Just for demonstrative purposes. This image and -- which we 21 will see later on in the presentation, depicts two people in 22 the back of that truck. Based on their clothing, I can 23 identify them -- and, again, after reviewing numerous
24 photographs and video evidence -- that that is Steven Stewart
25 and Scott Drexler.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. If you would, please, for the individual where you've
2 labeled Steven Stewart, what were the characteristics that you
3 used to identify this individual, Steven Stewart?

4 A. The jeans he's wearing, the shirt -- blue shirt with the
5 lighter color, like Orange County Chopper sign or design on it;
6 his hat; and then for that -- so that's for Steven Stewart.

7 Q. How about with the individual you've identified as Scott
8 Drexler?

9 A. His pants, they are a lighter color but camouflage pants;
10 darker shirt and his boots; and kinda make out in this image --
11 and, of course, I've zoomed in on this; I've lightened it and 12 done all -- you know, other things to help me identify these 13 people -- but you could see his facial hair and also his light
14 color -- or like -- it's like a faded tan hat.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to testimony to 16 something that is not before the jury. And I would ask to move
17 to strike that last answer in terms of facial hair. The 18 picture is what it is, Your Honor. If he's referring back to 19 some other image that's not here, that's not how he got the 20 name Drexler or Stewart on there.

21 MR. MYHRE: All right. Your Honor, the witness --

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

23 MR. MYHRE: -- is fully legally competent to testify as 24 to what his examination was, what he observed during the course
25 of his examination. And the issues that Mr. Leventhal raises

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 he may cross-examine the witness on, but we do not need to
2 bring in every step he went through in order to make those
3 identifications.

4 THE COURT: The objection is overruled. Federal Rule
5 of Evidence 901(b)(4) does provide for the admissibility or the 6 identification of Mr. Drexler and Mr. Stewart on page 1 of 7 Exhibit 182 by this particular witness.

8 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Now, with respect to the image that we see here at slide 1,
11 was this vehicle parked in front of the -- these flagpoles?

12 A. No, it was not.

13 Q. Was it moving?

14 A. Yes. It -- it moves in and out of the frame, but definitely
15 moving northbound on State Route --

16 Q. If you --

17 A. -- 170.

18 Q. -- wouldn't mind using -- I'm sorry. If you wouldn't mind
19 using your monitor, just use an arrow the direction it's 20 moving.

21 A. (Drawing.)

22 Q. And the witness has reflect -- has drawn an arrow on there.
23 Approximately how long does this vehicle -- how long is 24 it in the frame?

25 A. A couple seconds.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Now, the time in the lower right-hand corner, I'm circling,
2 is 9:00 a.m.; is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Is that an approximation or the exact time?

5 A. That is an approximation.

6 Q. And how do you base the time stamp of 9:00 a.m.?

7 A. I base that on the Michael Flynn and Alex Ellis videos that
8 I also used to create this sequence of events, this timeline,
9 and also Shannon Bushman photographs which -- or a
10 photograph -- which we will see people standing in the general
11 area or approximately around this time. But obviously this is 12 occurring before the -- Steven Stewart and Scott Drexler arrive
13 at the rally site.

14 But, again, there is people standing around the staging
15 area and rally site in other time-stamped photos that are still 16 there when the defendants are in the area and are out of the 17 vehicle.

18 Q. You referred to the Flynn/Ellis video. You're talking about 19 Alex Ellis who testified; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And, with respect to that, that is -- that's found at
22 Exhibit 5; is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. But this image itself does not appear on Exhibit 5; is that
25 correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. But other images on Exhibit 5 correlate to images that are
3 viewable in Exhibit 19.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. But, from Exhibit 5, you were able to get the time stamping.

6 A. Correct.

7 MR. MYHRE: May I have 182-2, please.

8 (Slide displayed in open court.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Now, slide 2 occurs later in time; correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. And you have stamped this at 9:07; is that correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. From Exhibit 171?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what is the image that we see at slide 2?

17 A. This image is Ricky Ray Lovelien standing on the left, Eric
18 Parker standing to his right, and they are standing in -- or at 19 the rally site staging area in Bunkerville.

20 Q. And you discussed this image at your previous testimony;
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. That was Exhibit 171?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And the difference now in terms of additions to this image

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 is that you've time stamped it.

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. Based on the metadata within the Bushman -- or excuse me --
4 the -- how did you time stamp this?

5 A. So this photograph was not time stamped; this was collected
6 from the Las Vegas Review-Journal website. However, I used
7 Shannon Bushman, his time stamp through the metadata photograph
8 to get an approximate time for this photograph.

9 Q. The individuals you've placed their names with an arrow to 10 whom you identified; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you identified them in previous testimony.

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to slide 3, please.

15 (Slide displayed in open court.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. And, at slide 3, this image comes from Exhibit 159; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what are we seeing in this image?

21 A. So this is a similar image but from a slightly different
22 angle and with a few changes. So now Eric Parker is standing
23 to Ricky Ray Lovelien's left and they are both standing at the 24 rally site staging area in Bunkerville. And we see similar 25 people in the area as we did -- or the same people as we did in

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 the Las Vegas Review-Journal photograph that we just reviewed
2 as well as in the screenshot from the Dennis Michael Lynch
3 video.

4 Q. And this particular image comes from Bushman?

5 A. This comes from Shannon Bushman.

6 Q. So it had the metadata imbedded.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And did you use this photo then to help you time stamp the
9 previous image?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You've stamped this at 9:07; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Now, with all these times -- we've talked about, you know,
14 UTC time and all of that before --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- but, with all these times, this is going to be local 17 Nevada time in April.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Now, with respect to this particular time, does --
20 were you able to derive the time approximately that

21 Sheriff Gillespie came to the stage; got on the stage; and had 22 his -- or gave his speech to the crowd at the stage?

23 A. Yes. At approximately 9:40 and then following that, there
24 was a National -- the Anthem, and then afterwards he came onto
25 the stage.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. So you said following. So the National Anthem occurred
2 before he got to the stage?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And, once he was on the stage, then he made his speech;
5 Mr. Bundy made his and then left.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So this image occurs in time before Gillespie is there.

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. MYHRE: Next slide, please.

10 (Slide displayed in open court.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Slide 4 is derived from Exhibit 5a; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. That is from the -- one of the Flynn videos; correct?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. Now, is this before or after Gillespie takes the stage to 17 make his speech?

18 A. This is before.

19 Q. And what's depicted in this image?

20 A. As is marked, Eric Parker, Steven Stewart, and Scott Drexler
21 are standing in the rally site staging area and there are --
22 are people scattered throughout the area and gathered in that
23 area.

24 Q. Now, you've walked that area; correct?

25 A. Yes, I have.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017—

1 Q. We see a flagpole off to the left-hand side there; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is that one of the two flagpoles that is in that area?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. So approximately what's the distance that they are standing
6 from where the stage would have been back on April the 12th?

7 A. I would approximate that at about 40 or 50 feet.

8 Q. And behind them there appears to be a surface road; is that
9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is that State Route 170?

12 A. Yes, it is.

13 MR. MYHRE: Next slide, please.

14 (Slide displayed in open court.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. And slide 5 is from Exhibit 5b. You've time stamped this at
17 9:42; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And how does slide 5 differ from slide 4?

20 A. This is just slightly later in time, obviously. And we have
21 more of a close-up shot of Steven Stewart, Eric Parker, Scott
22 Drexler standing near the stage at the rally site.

23 Q. And you've indicated their names with arrows pointing to 24 those individuals.

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Again, the same question that but it would pertain to all
2 these. You identified them by their clothing; correct?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. And you've identified them previously in your previous
5 testimony.

6 A. Yes.

7 MR. MYHRE: If we may go to slide 6, please.

8 (Slide displayed in open court.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Now, slide 6 is Exhibit 622 [sic]; is that correct?

11 A. Yes, 122.

12 Q. Excuse me. 122. I apologize.

13 And what time is this?

14 A. So this would have been posted at 9:53 a.m. approximately.

15 Q. Would this have been before or after Sheriff Gillespie made
16 his speech to the crowd?

17 A. This would have been right after.

18 Q. You testified about this just an hour or so ago; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And this is Todd Engel's message.

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: And next slide, please.

23 (Slide displayed in open court.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. This is slide 7. We have an Exhibit -- this is from

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Exhibit 137; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what do we see in this image?

4 A. This is taken from the vantage point of inside the rally
5 site looking northwest. You could see the hill that is on the 6 other side of State Route 170 across from the stage area rally
7 site. There's people on horseback on the top of the hill and 8 then on a ridge area lower down on the hill. And we have -- we 9 could see Ricky Ray Lovelien; he's standing there with his arms
10 crossed in the rally site area.

11 Q. And you testified about this image previously, correct --

12 A. Yes. Yes, I did.

13 Q. -- in terms of your identification of Mr. Lovelien?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The time stamp is derived how?

16 A. Hugh Gourgeon, who is the capturer of this photo, he took 17 this picture, those images are time stamped.

18 Q. And are they time stamped precisely at 10:37 a.m.?

19 A. The only difference I could find is maybe a 4-second
20 difference with his photographs compared to all the other
21 aerial photography. So that would be subtracting 4 seconds
22 from his photography. So essentially, with determining to the 23 minute approximation time for the sequence of events, I assume 24 it's accurate with local time. It's -- his photographs, the 25 metadata is consistent with local time.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Now, you mentioned subtracting a minute. You -- or --

2 A. 4 seconds.

3 Q. Yes, certain amount of time.

4 What caused -- what was your methodology in terms of --
5 for example, with Gourgeon, subtracting 4 seconds. How would
6 you determine 4 seconds would be -- match with local Nevada
7 time?

8 A. So in reviewing all of his photos -- and as I had previously
9 testified to -- I wanted to corroborate my time that I derived
10 for each of these photographs through as many ways as possible.
11 From this photo, from knowing other events that are taking 12 place also through the Flynn video but also later on, on the 13 bridge with the aerial photography, I was able to determine if 14 there was any deviation from being true, accurate, local time.
15 And it was either it's right on with local time or there might 16 have been a 4-second difference just because the plane is 17 circling around and I don't catch -- I catch a lot but not 18 every second of where Mr. Gourgeon was taking a photo so to the 19 best of my ability.

20 Q. But your baseline data point, again, was the aerial.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And, using that data point and looking at other
23 characteristics and images, you were then able to synchronize
24 the times to correspond to the aerial time.

25 A. Yes, sir.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. Does this -- one last point on that. In terms of your
2 analysis for this, you've derived times to -- as best you can,
3 to how -- to what level of degree?

4 A. To the second.

5 Q. To the second.

6 But, in terms of your analysis and your compiling of 7 this summary, was it necessary to derive a time down to the 8 minute or the second?

9 A. Again, this is, to the best of my ability based on my 10 investigation, a sequence of events as they occurred on 11 April 12th. So, no, we -- or I focused onto the minute. So
12 the answer would be no as far as this exhibit.

13 Q. Now, for slide 7, is this after the Sheriff Gillespie
14 speech?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. When does -- were you able from your investigation derive a
17 time approximately that Mr. Bundy then took the stage a second
18 time?

19 A. At approximately 11:00 a.m.

20 Q. So this would have been before that event?

21 A. Yes. Right before it.

22 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order, please.

23 (Slide displayed in open court.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Now, slide 8 we -- is from Exhibit 22, a screenshot. And

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 what was Exhibit 22?

2 A. Exhibit 22 was the Dennis Michael Lynch video and this is a
3 screenshot from one of his videos in front of the stage at the 4 rally site.

5 Q. And how did you derive the time of 11:01?

6 A. Based on the Michael Lynch/Alex Ellis videos that are time
7 stamped that are capturing the same events happening at the 8 same time that this video's captured. And, actually, I believe
9 Alex Ellis testified to actually standing just to the right out
10 of -- out of this frame and we see him for a brief second 11 standing next to Michael Flynn while they are capturing their
12 video.

13 Q. And what is captured in the screenshot at Exhibit --
14 slide 8? Excuse me.

15 A. So we have Ryan Payne, who is the OMA militia leader, is 16 standing on the stage -- well, actually crouching down; he has 17 a rifle slung on his chest. He's communicating with other 18 militia members that we have identified and we know were 19 present on April 12th, 2014. And also Ryan Bundy is labeled 20 there. That's one of Cliven Bundy's sons that we had seen in 21 the Dennis Michael Lynch video of the conversation as the 22 standoff was trying to deescalate -- that they were trying to 23 deescalate at Post 1 later on in the day.

24 Q. So, just to walk through briefly, so we see Ryan Payne. His 25 name is there; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And how -- what is it about him that you're able
3 (drawing) -- and what he's wearing that you're able to identify
4 him?

5 A. His facial features, number one; his clothing; the tactical
6 vest he's wearing.

7 Q. And he appears in other videos that have been admitted into
8 evidence --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. -- correct?

11 And specifically he appears in the video from 12 approximately April the 9th, I believe --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Yes.

15 -- where he's indicating that he is here to call
16 militia; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what does he appear to be holding?

19 A. He's holding a rifle.

20 Q. Now, you indicated Mr. Ryan Bundy, which I'm also 21 circling -- and you talked about identifying him -- you were
22 able to view his images from the discussion he had with Dan
23 Love at Post 1 on April the 12th; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. As well as Sheriff Lombardo being present; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And does this clothing match what he's wearing that day?

3 A. Yes, it does.

4 Q. Now, in terms of sequence, does this -- is this occurring
5 before or after or during Mr. Bundy's speech?

6 A. This is during Mr. Bundy's speech.

7 Q. And, while it's not pictured in this frame, where is
8 Mr. Bundy in relation to the individuals we see at slide 8?

9 A. He would be off the frame to the left on the stage -- up on
10 the stage.

11 Q. So is he behind -- is Payne facing away or to the side of 12 him?

13 A. He -- he's facing away. Cliven Bundy would be standing
14 behind this individual on the left in the camouflage clothing.

15 Q. So somewhere over here --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- drawing an arrow. Okay.

18 MR. MYHRE: Next slide, please.

19 (Slide displayed in open court.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Now, in slide 9, you have it time stamped 11:01; is that
22 right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what are we seeing in this image?

25 A. So this would just be seconds later in the same video.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Again, Ryan Payne, which is labeled -- which I've identified,
2 who I've identified by his facial features; his clothing. He's 3 still talking to the same individual who is standing near the 4 stage. And we see in this screenshot Dave Bundy standing to 5 the side of the stage.

6 Q. And you have labeled Dave Bundy with an arrow to that
7 individual; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. How were you able to identify this individual as Dave Bundy?

10 A. Well, by his facial features, his clothing which we see him
11 wearing again later on in the video where he is speaking with 12 Dan Love and Sheriff Lombardo at Post 1 by the BLM ICP.

13 Q. Do we also have other images where Dave Bundy is speaking
14 with Sheriff Lombardo?

15 A. Yes, we do.

16 Q. And does that appear later in the timeline?

17 A. Yes, it does.

18 Q. Now, in terms of the individual that appears to be facing
19 Ryan Payne -- and I'm drawing an arrow to that individual -- 20 were you able to derive any -- based on what this individual is 21 wearing, is this individual affiliated with any militia units?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, calls for speculation.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker --

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MARCHESE: -- joins.

2 MR. TANASI: -- joins.

3 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

4 THE COURT: Do you want to lay a foundation?

5 MR. MYHRE: Sure, Your Honor. Thank you.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Are you familiar -- based on your training and experience,
8 are you familiar with militia units?

9 A. Yes, I am.

10 Q. And, in terms of identifying militia units, do people who
11 identify with militia units wear -- at times do they wear 12 insignia or uniforms or bear other indicia of what units they 13 belong to?

14 A. Yes, they do.

15 Q. Okay. And is that present in this photograph?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 Q. And, from your review of this image and the uniform and so
18 forth, are you able to identify whether this person wearing 19 this uniform identifies with a militia unit?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And what militia unit is that?

22 A. The Arizona State Militia.

23 Q. And how are you able to determine that?

24 A. By the patch that he has on his left shoulder.

25 Q. If you could -- do you see it in that image?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. (Drawing.)

2 Q. And the witness has indicated drawing a circle around a
3 patch on the -- appears to be the left shoulder of the person
4 depicted in the far right side of the image contained at 182,
5 slide 9.

6 MR. MYHRE: Next slide, please.

7 (Slide displayed in open court.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. This is a Facebook posting you just testified about;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. This is time stamped at 11:05.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. This is from Todd Engel?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, is this post made before or after Mr. Bundy's second
17 speech on the stage?

18 A. This would have occurred right after Cliven Bundy's speech.

19 Q. And, in Cliven Bundy's speech -- we've seen the video of it;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You've reviewed it; right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And, in essence, in that speech does Mr. Bundy give a
25 command about his cattle?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, calls for speculation.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Based on your review of the evidence.

5 A. Yes.

6 THE COURT: Overruled.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And what does Mr. Bundy command?

9 A. Well, essentially to go to the wash and get his cattle,
10 including other things, like, he's telling people to block the 11 freeway and things like that.

12 Q. So, based on your investigation, does this entry correlate
13 to what Mr. Bundy -- the contents of Mr. Bundy's speech?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. MYHRE: Next slide, please.

16 (Slide displayed in open court.)

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And this occurs a few minutes later in time; is that
19 correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And what -- and this is about a message that you just 22 testified about; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And this indicates that Todd Engel posted, "leaving now to 25 shut the freeway down by force of arms"; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Does this correlate generally to the content of Mr. Bundy's
3 speech?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. MYHRE: And next slide, please.

6 (Slide displayed in open court.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Slide 12 comes from Exhibit 17, which is the aerial
9 surveillance film; is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What do we see in the image at slide 12?

12 A. We see northbound and southbound I-15 including the median
13 between the two directions of the highway, Post 1 for the BLM
14 ICP, law enforcement vehicles lined up at Post 1. And this is 15 the first clear shot we have of the assembly area from the 16 aerial photography after the aerial photog- -- photography
17 transitions from the staging area to what's happening near the 18 wash after Cliven gives his demands. And we see that vehicles
19 have already began to form in -- or, I guess, to gather in the 20 assembly area parking lot across from the ICP.

21 Q. So, just to orient us, would you circle what you've referred 22 to as the assembly area?

23 A. (Complies.)

24 Q. And just put an "N" over the northbound.

25 A. (Complies.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. And an "S" over the southbound.

2 A. (Complies.)

3 Q. And if you would put a "1" where Post 1's located.

4 A. (Complies.)

5 Q. So the time stamp here is 11:20, which you derive from UTC
6 time which is stamped on the image itself; correct?

7 A. Yes. Rounding down to the nearest minute as far as the 8 seconds that you see there.

9 Q. If you would just circle the data that you used.

10 A. (Complies.)

11 Q. And witness circling top left-hand corner. The record
12 should also reflect the witness has placed a circle to the left
13 of what he's marked as the northbound with an "N" and has 14 placed a "1" to the right of what he's marked has a southbound
15 line with an "S."

16 You said this was the first shot you have transitioning
17 from the assembly area -- excuse me -- from the rally site to 18 the assembly area; is that correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So, in terms of sequence, does this shot come before or 21 after Mr. Bundy's second speech?

22 A. This would have been after.

23 Q. It would have been Mr. Engel's post.

24 A. Correct.

25 MR. MYHRE: And next slide, please.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. And this is from Exhibit 93; is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And what is this?

6 A. This is a Facebook status update, mobile update, by Eric Ej
7 Parker.

8 Q. You've time stamped it 11:25. Is that based on this UTC
9 time?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. If you could just read into the record what that says.

12 A. "Bundy gave the Sheriff 1 hour to disarm the BLM ...he did
13 not reply. We are now going to free the cattle by any means.
14 The sheriff claimed that the blm is standing down but offered
15 no proof this is when Mr. Bundy gave him the 'do it or else.'
16 We will not be lied to."

17 Q. 11:25 is after Mr. Bundy's second speech; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And it's after Sheriff Gillespie's first speech; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And, based on your investigation, does this message
22 generally correlate to the content of those two speeches?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Exhibit -- slide 14, please. Thank you.

25 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. This is from Exhibit 31a; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. It's a screenshot?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what was Exhibit 31a?

7 A. This is Trooper Serena's, Nevada Highway Patrol, his dash
8 cam as he is proceeding towards the assembly area on northbound
9 I-15.

10 Q. And Trooper, now Sergeant Serena?

11 A. Yes, Sergeant Serena. Excuse me.

12 Q. The same individual who's testified here?

13 A. Yes. Excuse me.

14 Q. You've time stamped this at 11:31. Where is that derived?

15 A. That's derived from -- if you look to the bottom left of 16 the --

17 Q. Just circle on --

18 A. -- video --

19 Q. -- why don't you circle on the --

20 A. There is --

21 Q. -- monitor.

22 A. -- media time (drawing) and underneath that is current time.
23 I did not find any deviation between that time and the UTC
24 time, minus 7 hours from the aerial, in my review of the
25 evidence.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And the record should reflect the witness has circled --
3 excuse me -- placed a circle around some data labeled "current
4 time" left center of Exhibit 182, slide 14.

5 On this image, you've -- well, explain for us what we
6 see in this image.

7 A. We see numerous vehicles. I -- I know from the -- reviewing 8 the video that they are stopped or moving very slowly. You can
9 see the brake lights on on the vehicles. But on the left --
10 I'm sorry. Excuse me -- on the right side of the scene, Ricky
11 Ray Lovelien's truck has pulled over onto -- or is pulling over 12 onto the shoulder of the road. The back bed is open as well as 13 the camper door or topper door on the back of the truck and 14 Steven Stewart is sitting on the tail -- tailgate of the truck.

15 Q. From this image, how are you to iden- -- how did you
16 identify the person depicted in this image as Steven Stewart?

17 A. By his clothing.

18 Q. The clothing that is visible to you in this image?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You've indicated with an arrow and then the name --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- where Steven Stewart is; is that correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. Would you draw an arrow, please, just to orient us where the 25 ICP is from this position?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. (Complies.)

2 Q. And approximately -- and the record should reflect that the 3 witness has drawn an arrow left center of Exhibit 182-14.

4 Would you also draw another arrow to the area where the 5 assembly area is approximately?

6 A. (Complies.)

7 Q. And the record should reflect the witness has identified
8 with another arrow where the assembly area is approximately.

9 This is 11:31. So this is after Cliven's second
10 speech; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Approximately where is this position located with respect to 13 the arrow you've drawn on the right-hand side where the 14 assembly area is?

15 A. To the entrance of the assembly area, I'd say this would be 16 2 -- 200 yards away.

17 Q. At this point, how is the traffic moving?

18 A. Very slow.

19 Q. And, in terms of the image that you've captured here, how 20 long does that image -- is it something that -- well, strike
21 that.

22 How long is this image on the media you reviewed, the 23 dash cam?

24 A. Only for a few seconds.

25 MR. MYHRE: All right. Next image, please.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. This comes from one of the Ellis films?

6 A. Yes, it does.

7 Q. Or video, I should say.

8 So the time stamp was part of the metadata imbedded;
9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Synchronized to the aerial surveillance plane?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Now, you've indicated this individual is Todd Engel;
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And how did you make that identification?

17 A. Based on his facial features, his clothing, his firearm.

18 Q. And what do we see in this image?

19 A. Vehicles moving very slowly on I-15. In the background, we 20 have Las Vegas Metro vehicles that are parked throughout the 21 median. There's Metro officers in the background closer to 22 southbound I-15. Todd Engel is preparing to put his hand down
23 on the top of the jersey barrier and hopping over to the other
24 side off the shoulder of northbound I-15.

25 Q. If you could circle where you see Metro vehicles.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

10 Q. -- assembly area in relation to Mr. Engel?

11 A. I would say 30 yards.

12 Q. Now, this point in time is later in time than the previous 13 slide; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Are you able to tell, though, from the sequence of events
16 whether Mr. Engel gets there before the truck Mr. Lovelien is 17 driving gets there?

18 A. He's there before.

19 Q. And how are you able to tell that?

20 A. From the Serena dash cam that we were looking at, those 21 screenshots. So where Mr. Engel is right now his truck is 22 probably 20 feet behind him. At this time in this shot
23 Sergeant Serena's vehicle is just about to pass Mr. Engel's
24 truck. And actually in this video we see Serena and Madsen --
25 we've also seen Madsen's -- Trooper Madsen's video come by this

2 Q. And by "this video," you're referring to Exhibit 8; correct?

3 A. Yes.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Now, we're at slide 16. This is derived from Exhibit 160;
8 is that correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You have a time stamp there of 11:42.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And how is that derived?

13 A. That's derived from Shannon Bushman's photograph's metadata

5 Q. And you identified him in your previous testimony; correct?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Now, this is at 11:42.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You've discussed this image in your previous testimony.

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. How did you derive the time of 11:42?

24 A. I used the previous Shannon Bushman photograph and 25 determined that this photograph was taken at approximately the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 same time where Mr. Drexler is facing slightly westbound on the

24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. And the time stamp was derived again how?

2 A. So this would have taken place very soon after the -- the
3 Bushman photo, which is capturing Sheriff Lombardo speaking
4 with Dave Bundy. Sheriff Lombardo is now walking across -- or 5 walking down I-15 and he'll eventually head back towards the 6 median.

7 Q. So this image is later in time from Mr. Bundy's meeting with 8 Sheriff Lombardo.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. But it's at or near the same location --

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. -- where that meeting occurred.

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 MR. MYHRE: Next image, please.

15 (Slide displayed in open court.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, this is from Exhibit 26; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And we're referring to slide 19 of Exhibit 182.

20 And Exhibit 26 was the film taken by Agent Shilakis;
21 correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Now, in reviewing that film, were you able to identify 24 individuals who are defendants in this case?

25 A. Yes, I did.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. And you've indicated them in this image?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. For record purposes, state who they are.

4 A. This is Scott Drexler and Eric Parker.

5 Q. This is a screenshot from that sur- -- from that film that
6 Shilakis took; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now, you've derived a time of what?

9 A. 11:53 a.m.

10 Q. And how did you come to that time?

11 A. Using the time that was stated by Robert Shilakis from his 12 watch where he is filming the video and states the local time.
13 When comparing that to the aerial footage to the dash camera
14 footage from Madsen and Serena, I did not find any significant 15 deviation from the time that he's providing audibly during the 16 video to any of those other times that were consistent with 17 local time.

18 Q. Now, the image we see here captured -- this is a
19 screenshot -- and you've indicated an individual. Eric Parker;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you identified him how?

23 A. Based on his clothing, his hat, and his firearm.

24 Q. And also an individual you've labeled Scott Drexler.

25 A. Yes. Based on the same identifiers: his hat, his tactical

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 vest, his shirt, and his firearm.

2 Q. Now, this is occurring later in time from the time that
3 Sheriff Lombardo met with Dave Bundy across from Post 1.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Approximately where is this shot -- where are these 6 individuals that you've labeled Parker and Drexler -- where are 7 they physically located on the ground?

8 A. So they are walking east on the side of northbound I-15
9 heading towards the bridge.

10 Q. So -- and what side of the northbound are they located?

11 A. From reviewing this photo -- photograph and comparing it to 12 the vehicles and other individuals around -- around there, they 13 are on the south side of northbound I-15.

14 Q. Now, the vehicles we see in the background, are they on the 15 northbound or are they someplace else?

16 A. They are in the assembly area, which is on the south -- on 17 the south side of northbound I-15.

18 Q. So does this show the background, the assembly area itself?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, it appears -- you walked this ground many times;
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And have you stood in the area where Agent Shilakis
24 indicated where he took his video from --

25 A. Yes, I have.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. -- from this perspective?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, we see this individual here. Just to get sort of a
4 sense of what we're looking at here, this individual appears --
5 and I'm drawing an arrow to a person in the left-hand side
6 wearing a blue shirt -- appears to be lower in elevation to the 7 individual labeled Scott Drexler; is that correct?

8 A. That is correct.

9 Q. Is he standing in a hole or is he doing something else?
10 What's going on?

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, calls for speculation.

12 MR. MYHRE: I was just asking what his -- where he's 13 located, Your Honor.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And it would be speculating as to what 15 he's standing in. Could be a midget.

16 THE COURT: Just change the form of the question, do
17 you know.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Do you know where this individual is standing in 20 relationship to Mr. Drexler?

21 A. Based on my observations after being there in that location
22 and watching that -- that ground, these individuals are 23 actually walking down and onto the side of northbound I-15. So
24 they are go -- going northbound. Before you come to the 25 bridge, the road actually comes down -- (gesturing) -- comes

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017—

1 down and then it goes back up to -- into Mesquite.

2 So where this is -- if -- if this is level ground
3 (gesturing), which -- which it is approximately -- it's rough
4 terrain out there. It's, you know, desert -- the road would
5 actually be coming down (gesturing) at an angle. So people
6 look like -- or would appear that they are standing in a hole.
7 But essentially they are walking down either on the road or 8 onto the road -- the roadway and out of the assembly area.

9 Q. Now, in terms of Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker's position, are 10 they on the road or they're just off?

11 A. They -- they appear to be off the road still walking in the 12 assembly area elevated -- slightly elevated and level ground.

13 Q. And in which -- based on your understanding of that area,
14 based on having walked it, in which direction are they walking?

15 A. They are walking east.

16 Q. And is that toward or away from the northbound bridge?

17 A. Toward the northbound bridge.

18 Q. Now, at this point, approximately how far are they from the
19 northbound bridge?

20 A. At this point, I would say 300 yards.

21 Q. And you base that upon what?

22 A. I have been out there with a laser range finder and have 23 done multiple measurements while -- while being out there. I'm 24 familiar with (gesturing) how the terrain begins and ends
25 starting from the entrance to the assembly area and then moving

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 down to where the bridge is. So it would be an estimate. But,
2 again, after being there that would be the approximate distance
3 that they are from the bridge.

4 MR. MYHRE: And next slide in order, please.

5 (Slide displayed in open court.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And this is just a little bit later in time; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And you've indicated an individual here named Steven 11 Stewart; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. 11:53?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. In which direction is the individual headed?

16 A. East towards the northbound I-15 bridge.

17 Q. And is he on the -- where is he in relationship to the 18 northbound highway, first of all?

19 A. So the northbound highway would be below him but closer --
20 if I was a person taking this photo, it would be closer to me,
21 the northbound I-15 road.

22 Q. And approximately how far is he from the northbound bridge?

23 A. I -- I would say approximately the -- the same distance,
24 2 -- 200 [sic] yards.

25 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order, please.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. We're now looking at slide 21 of 182. We see this is later
4 in time; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. It's now 11:54.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. This is still from the Shilakis video.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you've derived the time using the same methodology?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You've labeled another individual, Steven Stewart; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Identified him by clothing?

15 A. Clothing and his firearm which is visible in this image.

16 Q. And where do you see the firearm?

17 A. Slung in front of him (drawing) down to his left side.

18 Q. The witness has drawn a line where he's indicated to have 19 observed a firearm.

20 Where is Mr. Stewart in relationship now to the
21 northbound bridge?

22 A. He's a little bit closer. But, as you could see, he's come
23 down from that elevated area on the south side of I-15 and is 24 now walking either on the roadway or close to the roadway
25 towards the northbound I-15 bridge.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Q. And, again, the northbound is -- the bridge is the direction
2 I am pointing that arrow; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. To the left of the screen?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order.

7 (Slide displayed in open court.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Slide 22 is from Exhibit 9, which is one of the Flynn/Ellis
10 videos; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. What's depicted from this image?

13 A. This is a number of individuals including Eric Parker
14 standing or walking on the -- this is where the northbound
15 I-15, if you were heading eastbound, begins. So you could see 16 that there's people actually standing on the opposite side of 17 this jersey barrier and then the individual in the lower
18 right -- you can see his head -- that's actually Alex Ellis.
19 It drops down from there leading to a gravel embankment and 20 then the concrete skirt that leads down into the wash on the 21 west side of that north -- of the northbound I-15 bridge.

22 Q. And 11:56 is the time you derived; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And this is later in time from the time of the meeting
25 between Dave Bundy and Sheriff Lombardo; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Were you able to derive a time approximately when the horses
3 passed through underneath the northbound bridge?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And approximately what time was that?

6 A. At approximately 12:00 p.m.

7 Q. So this is just briefly before the horses arrive underneath
8 the bridge.

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order, please.

11 (Slide displayed in open court.)

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Now, we're on slide 23. And that is -- slide 23 is also 14 from Exhibit 27; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Which is what?

17 A. This is a Robert Shilakis video.

18 Q. And what do we see in this image?

19 A. So this is a screenshot of -- taken during the video of 20 Ricky Ray Lovelien. He -- he is standing on the south side of 21 the I-15 highway so in, essentially, the assembly area. He has 22 a tactical vest on. He's now wearing a long-sleeve camouflage
23 shirt; has a hat on; and he appears to be holding a firearm on 24 the right side.

25 Q. And that's the clothing and the objects you used to identify

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 him as Ricky Ray Lovelien?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you used the previous exhibits where he was at the 4 assembly area; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And also used the exhibits where he appears in the Facebook
7 page with Todd Engel.

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Now, this isn't -- where is the assembly area in 10 relationship to Mr. Lovelien?

11 A. So Mr. Lovelien is actually standing in the assembly area.
12 The vehicles are all parked in the assembly area and you see in 13 front of Mr. Lovelien, if -- from where he's standing is 14 actually tops of vehicles that are passing by. And this goes,
15 again, to my explanation of how the road comes down over --
16 over the wash and then up again into Mesquite from Las Vegas.
17 These would be vehicles actually passing by on the roadway
18 which, again, is lower --

19 Q. Just circle --

20 A. -- than Mr. --

21 Q. -- the vehicles --

22 A. -- Lovelien.

23 Q. -- that you're describing.

24 A. Yeah. (Complies.)

25 Q. The record should reflect witness indicating the vehicles.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 Now, you said Mr. Lovelien is facing in which direction
2 compared to the northbound bridge?

3 A. So he would be facing west, away from the northbound bridge.

4 Q. Now, this is 12:01. And when is this taken in relationship
5 to when the horses arrive on the northbound bridge?

6 A. They would --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. I don't believe there's 8 been a foundation as to when the horses arrived.

9 MR. MYHRE: I believe he just testified to that, Your
10 Honor. And with respect --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: I should have objected. There was no
12 foundation to that.

13 THE COURT: Is this -- you want to ask him where he saw
14 the horses?

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. When you saw -- when you derived the time that the horses
17 arrived --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- what did you review to arrive at that time?

20 A. The Michael Flynn/Alex Ellis videos.

21 Q. And those -- that video shows the horses arriving under the
22 northbound bridge?

23 A. Yes, it does.

24 Q. And, from that video, you were able to derive a time based 25 on the time stamp?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that time was approximately when?

3 A. 12:00 p.m.

4 Q. So this is occurring at or near the time the horses are
5 arriving?

6 A. Correct.

7 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order, please.

8 (Slide displayed in open court.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Now, slide 24 is a screenshot from the aerial surveillance
11 craft; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And this is taken at 12:01?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And, again, based on UTC up here (drawing); correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What do we see depicted in this image?

18 A. A line of horseman and other individuals has formed in the 19 center, approximately, of the Toquop Wash between the 20 northbound and southbound I-15 bridges.

21 Q. If you would just circle that in the image.

22 A. (Complies.)

23 Q. Witness drawing a circle around the horses and the 24 individuals in the Toquop Wash.

25 Do you see the BLM position located here?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. And circle that.

3 A. (Complies.) It's three vehicles here and there's other
4 vehicles there.

5 Q. So witness has circled vehicles at the lower portion of the 6 screen.

7 Do you have an approximation of where the gate is
8 located?

9 A. Yes. (Drawing.)

10 Q. Is that directly visible in this image?

11 A. Uh, it -- it's hard to see, but it is visible.

12 Q. Is it in the shadow?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. And this is, again, Post 2; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And the northbound is at the top (drawing); correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Southbound, (drawing) lower portion.

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. MYHRE: Next slide in order, please.

21 (Slide displayed in open court.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. This is image 25. This is taken -- you've time stamped this 24 at 12:02. What do we see in this image?

25 A. This is Steven Stewart. He's kneeling on the northbound

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 I-15 bridge. See his clothing, which I used to identify him;
2 his facial features; his hat; his knife sheath with the 3 fluorescent pink tag on it -- or label to it; and he's holding
4 a firearm pointed up.

5 Q. And this image is taken from what?

6 A. It's an 8 News NOW I-Team broadcast from May 8, 2014.

7 Q. And you've testified previously of how you obtained this
8 image; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. The 12:02 time stamp is derived in what fashion?

11 A. From the aerial photography or footage.

12 Q. This occurs later in time than the previous slide; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. If we can go back to the previous slide.

15 (Slide displayed in open court.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. This is the position of the horses at 12:01; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. This is the position of the horses and the people in the 20 wash at the time Mr. Stewart's on the bridge.

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. As depicted in the next image; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. MYHRE: If we can go to 25 again, please.

25 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: And to 26.

2 (Slide displayed in open court.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. This is taken at 12:02; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And this shows, again, the horses in the wash.

7 A. Yes, it does.

8 Q. This is from the aerial surveillance; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And, generally, this was taken, again, at the time when 11 Mr. Stewart's on the bridge?

12 A. Ye- -- yes. And this is what I used to derive the time in 13 the previous screenshot as well as in the following screenshot.

14 Q. And can you just point out the feature you used to derive
15 the time?

16 A. Yes. I -- I had -- as I stated previously, (drawing) there
17 is a Can-Am Spyder trike motorcycle that passes by from the 18 short segment from the 8 News I-Team video and it is being
19 followed by a dark vehicle and a lighter-colored truck with a
20 steel toolbox that's in the back of the truck as it's passing
21 that flatbed trailer on the -- the shoulder of northbound I-15.

22 Q. And the record should reflect the witness is indicating the 23 characteristics used to time stamp the image on the top
24 right-hand corner.

25 And can you tell from this image approximately the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 3, 2017

1 location of where Mr. Stewart's located?

2 A. It would be hard to tell. But he is (drawing) amongst these
3 individuals that are on the west side -- on the north -- north
4 side of -- west and on the north side of the northbound I-15
5 bridge.

6 Q. Okay. Just so we're clear in this image, the north side of
7 the northbound --

8 A. Northwest side.

9 Q. -- lane actually faces -- is closest to the wash where the 10 horses are.

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. And the northbound -- I'm drawing an arrow -- is actually 13 headed west at this portion.

14 A. That would be heading --

15 Q. I'm sorry. Heading --

16 A. -- east.

17 Q. -- east. East is the direction I'm drawing the arrow;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Which is northbound.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre, is this a good place to stop
24 because it's five --

25 MR. MYHRE: Yes --

1 THE COURT: -- 0 five?

2 MR. MYHRE: -- yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Obviously we're not gonna get through all
4 88 tonight so . . .

5 Let's go ahead and take our overnight break. We're

25 testimony. After you have heard all of the testimony, then I

1 will provide to you the written instructions of law and that

21 MR. MARCHESE: No.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Counsel.

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:50 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day Sixteen in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, before we get started,
12 let me just remind everyone about the expectations for court.
13 Remember, this is a courtroom and not a sporting event, so
14 please do not make any expression, whether audibly or through 15 body expression, through conduct, that is either in agreement
16 or disagreement with what someone is saying. We don't want any 17 distractions and it is a courtroom, so we need to have respect
18 for the proceeding and not act out in any way.

19 The marshals are authorized to remove anyone who does
20 so. Likewise, the defendants have been told that there is a
21 holding room right over here on the left (indicating) with a
22 speaker system set up so that if an individual forfeits his 23 right to be present in court because they cannot comply with 24 the . . . requirements for the conduct that is displayed in a
25 courtroom, then they will be removed and can listen to the rest

1 of the hearing through that cell but will not be permitted to
2 remain present in the courtroom.

3 Also, please remember there are no recording devices
4 that are permitted in court. So that means no electronic
5 devices of any kind. Whether it be a phone or a laptop or an
6 iPad, none of those devices are permitted. Please make sure
7 they're not in the courtroom. Even if they're turned off in 8 the private mode or vibrate mode, they're not permitted in the 9 courtroom, so please take them outside. Attorneys are 10 permitted to have them so they can present evidence and review
11 evidence and likewise, the marshals and the Court Security
12 Officers are permitted to have electronic devices for 13 communication purposes.

14 Is there anything that we need to address before we
15 bring in the jury?

16 MR. MYHRE: Not from the Government, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: No?

18 All right. And do we have our witness, Special Agent
19 Willis? If you want to come on up, sir, and take your place on
20 the witness stand.

21 So, is he the Government's last witness?

22 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. And so, if we're done by the 24 end of today, is the defense going to be ready to begin
25 tomorrow calling witnesses? Assuming there are witnesses you

1 want to call?

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I know that . . . we have
3 folks ready, it looks, for, as it stands now, as early as 4 Wednesday. To try to get them here tomorrow might be
5 problematic. Throughout the day, we can still try to be in
6 communication with our investigators who are in communication
7 with those folks and try to see, depending on how we finish up
8 today, whether they could be ready, in fact, to go tomorrow.
9 And then there's, I think, some issues or discussions that we
10 would probably have that would eat up potentially a large
11 portion of the day tomorrow. The defense, you know, does seek 12 to read in Dennis Michael Lynch's testimony through either one
13 of our investigators or perhaps Mr. Glynn. I'm anticipating
14 the Government probably will have objections to that, so that's 15 maybe something we need to sort out as well. But, in a perfect
16 world from the defense side, if we were able to read the whole
17 thing in, that would take up a large part of the day tomorrow,
18 which would then put us on pace with the remainder of the 19 witnesses that we have lined up for the rest of the week.

20 THE COURT: All right. And so why are we -- or why
21 are you requesting to read in his testimony? Did he pass away?
22 I'm thinking of, like, there's not --

23 MR. TANASI: No. I --

24 THE COURT: Is there something I don't know?

25 MR. TANASI: No. We have an -- he is unavailable. I

1 have a doctor's note from him. I -- I would, just on account
2 of HIPAA issues, I don't -- kind of strange waters to just turn
3 it over to everybody. I do have a note from him. He did have 4 a procedure scheduled for . . . it was last week and when we
5 were trying to secure his availability for trial, at some point
6 he made it very clear that he wouldn't be able to come out here
7 because of this procedure and the recovery related to this
8 procedure and anything else related to this procedure and he
9 was very adamant about that. We have e-mails to that effect
10 and I -- he may have even contacted Your Honor because in some 11 of his e-mails to us, he threatened, since not hearing back
12 from us, he was going to contact Your Honor. So I don't know
13 if he's done that or not, but based on his unavailability,
14 under 804(a) and 804(b), you know, we would seek to read in his
15 testimony.

16 THE COURT: So, can he appear by video? Or -- I
17 mean, is he --

18 MR. TANASI: He -- he --

19 THE COURT: -- he's medicated so he's out or is it
20 just that he can't travel?

21 MR. TANASI: He did offer Skype as an option and,
22 truthfully, I've not had that issue or had that done on my 23 watch in my career, so, I looked at it just from him being 24 unavailable. If Your Honor is inclined to allow him, at some 25 level, to testify via Skype, then certainly we can work with

1 him as quickly as possible to try to get that accomplished.

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, I have done that before
3 with an expert who ran long and had to be in a different
4 jurisdiction for another court hearing and we ended up having
5 cross-examination on Skype because the alternative was that I
6 was going to strike his direct exam if we weren't going to be 7 able to cross-examine.

8 MR. TANASI: Sure.

9 THE COURT: And so we were able to set it up through
10 the laptop, Aaron, of the attorney, right? And then it hooked
11 it into the podium so that it would project --

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct.

13 THE COURT: -- on all the screens. So, if you want
14 to just get together with Aaron on one of the breaks and see 15 if --

16 MR. TANASI: Okay.

17 THE COURT: -- that is an option or not and,
18 obviously, talk to the Government about whether or not that's 19 an option because one of the objections that they had in that 20 case also was, well, who's going to be in the room with the 21 witness, because it was an expert witness, but I -- you know,
22 like, you know, somebody feeding him information from across
23 the room that's not in the view and things like that. So, I'll 24 let you all get together and discuss those options before I
25 address it because I haven't seen the note either and I'm sure

1 the Government is going to want to see the note, if they
2 haven't already.

3 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

4 THE COURT: So --

5 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we have another issue in that
6 regard as well and that's having -- and Mr. Tanasi was kind
7 enough to send us a list this weekend of who they -- who the 8 defense anticipates calling. In our review of their witness
9 list, as well as the Dennis Michael Lynch testimony that they
10 seek to introduce, we fail to see the relevance of any of this 11 and the -- especially, we believe that it falls within the 12 purview of the Court's ruling on the Motion in Limine regarding 13 the inability of the -- well, with respect to addressing BLM
14 conduct in the wash or events of the 6th through the 9th, we 15 believe that this ruling would preclude much of what they 16 intend to introduce, at least from -- based on what they've 17 indicated to us through their witness list and through what
18 we've read of Mr. Lynch's testimony. And so, we would ask,
19 again, that the defendants, before they start calling witnesses
20 to the stand, that they make an offer of proof as to what the 21 witnesses are going to say so that we can address the predicate
22 issue of whether any of this is relevant and admissible in 23 light of the Court's ruling.

24 THE COURT: All right. And I would think you'd want
25 to do that before opening. I forgot who reserved opening but I

1 think --

2 MR. MARCHESE: I did, Your Honor. I mean --

3 THE COURT: -- was it Mr. -- yeah. Somebody reserved
4 opening.

5 MR. MARCHESE: -- I can work it either way, but it
6 would be my preference that we just resolve these issues ahead
7 of time so we don't have 900 sidebars and that kind of thing.

8 THE COURT: I agree.

9 All right. Well, other than those two issues then,
10 anything else?

11 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: No? All right. So, let's go ahead and 13 get the jury, Aaron, please, if you will.

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. And I apologize
16 for running late this morning.

17 THE COURT: That's fine.

18 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

20 (Jury returned to courtroom at 9:27 a.m.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, good morning. Jury may 22 be seated. Everyone else may be seated as well.

23 All right. We're back on the record and we've got 24 our witness, Special Agent Joel Willis, back on the stand.

25 Good morning to you, sir.

1 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

2 THE COURT: All right. So now we're going to
3 continue, to re- -- we're going to resume with 4 direct-examination by the Government of FBI Special Agent Joel
5 Willis.

6 My notes indicate we were on Exhibit 182, which was 7 an 88-page -- or slide document.

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And we got as far as Slide 26 is the last
10 note that I have, but, I defer to you if you --

11 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Did you wish us --

12 THE COURT: -- if I missed something.

13 MR. MYHRE: -- to make appearances, Your Honor, 14 or just --

15 THE COURT: That's a great idea. Yes. Thank you.
16 Please. Let's do that for the jury.

17 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

18 Good morning, Your Honor.

19 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

20 Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
21 the United States.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 Good morning, folks. Rich Tanasi for Steve Stewart.

25 Also with us at counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

1 Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
4 morning, ladies and gentlemen.

5 Jess Marchese appearing on behalf of Eric Parker.

6 THE COURT: Good morning.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone.

8 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

9 THE COURT: Good morning.

10 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

11 Good morning, everyone.

12 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

13 THE COURT: Good morning.

14 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 May we call up Exhibit 182 at Slide 26, Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Yes, please.

17 (Exhibit 186-2 published.)

18

19 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOEL WILLIS

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Agent Willis, you have both a copy version of this and the 22 electronic version in front of you; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. This is -- we discussed this slide at the last session;
25 correct? You used this slide to assist you with time stamping;

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And can you explain how you used this slide?

4 A. So, the slide before this and the slide after this are
5 related to a News 8 NOW I-Team segment that we captured
6 screenshots from. In that segment, if you recall, I circled a
7 Can-Am Spyder trike motorcycle as well as a dark vehicle and a
8 truck with a steel tool box in the bed of the truck. So,
9 those -- the previous photo, as well as the following slide for 10 this presentation, was time stamped using this aerial and . . .
11 may I circle?

12 Q. You wish to circle the vehicles used to time stamp?

13 A. Yes, please.

14 Q. Yes, please.

15 A. As I had mentioned, the trike motorcycle (indicating), the 16 dark vehicle (indicating), and the truck with the tool box on 17 the back -- in the back (indicating).

18 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
19 has indicated three circles, top right-hand corner of 26.

20 And may we go to 27, please.

21 (Exhibit 182-27 published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now you see an image in front of you for 182-27; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you indicate individuals present in this image; is

1 that right?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. And what -- what do we see in this image?

4 A. Well, we see Steven Stewart kneeling. He's holding a long
5 gun. To his right is Scott Drexler and Eric Parker. As I
6 pointed out in the previous aerial screenshot -- may I circle?

7 Q. You wish to circle the vehicles?

8 A. Yes, please.

9 Q. Yes, please.

10 A. Is the Can-Am trike motorcycle (indicating), the dark
11 vehicle (indicating) and then here is the -- it's either a
12 light silver or white truck (indicating) with the steel tool
13 box on the back and that's how I was able to time these two
14 screenshots from 8 News.

15 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
16 has drawn three circles around vehicles at the top right-hand
17 corner of the screen.

18 Clearing it.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. And this image comes from Exhibit 167A; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: May we go back to Slide 25, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-25 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And 25, you said, is from 8 News NOW as well; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. From 166A; is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness what
5 has been marked as 166B?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MR. MYHRE: Just for witness and counsel and Court
8 only.

9 (Exhibit 166B published to witness.)

10 THE COURT: When you say Slide 25 is from News 8
11 video as well, as well as what?

12 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: Because 26 is not, right? 26 is the FBI
14 aerial? That's what he used to time stamp 25?

15 MR. MYHRE: I'll clear that up, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I think I missed something. Okay.

17 MR. MYHRE: No. That's fine. I'll clear that up.
18 So if I could go back to Slide 25.

19 (Exhibit 182-25 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Slide 25 is from what -- is from Exhibit 166A; correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And this is from what news program?

24 A. This is 8 News NOW I-Team reporting.

25 Q. And that was from May 8th, 2014; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, you just viewed 166B; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. What was 166B?

5 A. That is from a similar vantage point. Same cameraman as
6 it appears, but just from a different broadcast from 8 News.

7 Q. Is this -- is 160 -- look at 166 -- excuse me -- look at 8 Slide 25.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is that -- it says 166A; correct? Now, when you look
11 at -- I showed you 166. Is that the same or of a different
12 news broadcast, Exhibit 25?

13 A. That is the same.

14 Q. All right. So just so we're clear. Slide 25 is from 8
15 News NOW, May 8th, 2014?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. 166 that you just viewed, 166B is also from May 8th, 2014,
18 8 News NOW?

19 A. Yes. The short video clip that I viewed on my monitor.

20 Q. And the image we see at 182, Slide 25 appears on 166B that 21 you just watched?

22 A. Correct.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer 166B and ask that it
24 be admitted and published.

25 THE COURT: Any objection to 166B?

1 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

2 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection as to foundation,
4 Your Honor. Apparently, this comes off of a 8 News NOW Team
5 video montage, I guess, that this witness has not testified
6 that he's seen it or he knows about it.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. You -- Agent Willis, you viewed the entire program; is
9 that correct?

10 A. Yes, I have.

11 Q. And the segment that you just reviewed at 166B you
12 reviewed as well?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You've identified it as related to the Exhibit --
15 actually, depicting the image at Exhibit 182-25?

16 A. Yes.

17 THE COURT: All right. Any other objection?

18 All right. Exhibit 166B is admitted.

19 You may go ahead and publish to the jury.

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 (Exhibit 166B received and published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Agent Willis, we saw the segment just now played for about 24 2 seconds; is that correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What -- for the record purposes, what did we view in that
2 image?

3 A. This is Steven Stewart kneeling on the north side of the 4 northbound I-15 bridge. He's looking north. He moves his 5 rifle, which is in his right hand and also holding it with his
6 left hand, to his right side and then he puts his elbow on top
7 of the Jersey barrier and appears to look over the Jersey
8 barrier.

9 Q. And during that segment was his rifle above or below the
10 barrier?

11 A. At one point maybe the barrel was above the Jersey
12 barrier.

13 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we now move to 14 182-27?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 (Exhibit 182-27 published.)

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And just to clear up the Court's question. 182-27 is from 19 Exhibit 167A; is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. That was from the 8 News NOW that aired on April 30, 2014,
22 at 11:00 p.m.?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And again, the -- you've already discussed the images that 25 appear in this slide; is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: May we go to Slide 28, please.

3 (Exhibit 182-28 published.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. And Slide 28, you've indicated this is from Exhibit 163;
6 is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you've time stamped this at 12:03?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What did we -- for record purposes, what do we see in the 11 image at 182-28?

12 A. In the foreground is Eric Parker. He's kneeling. He has 13 his stock of the rifle up by his shoulder. His gun pointed 14 down. His knee's against the Jersey barrier. In the 15 background, we -- I have labeled "Steven Stewart." You can see 16 the design on the back of his blue shirt, and then also in 17 between where Steven Stewart is and Eric Parker is, you see a
18 shadow on the ground and you can see the -- the end -- front
19 end of Scott Drexler's gun. So this would have been from the 20 opposite vantage point as the photographs or still shot that we 21 just reviewed from 8 News NOW.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Were you able to determine that based on your review of 25 Slides 25 and 27?

1 A. Yes.

2 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. If you would, please, Agent Willis, circle on this image
5 where you see the barrel of Mr. Drexler's weapon.

6 A. (Witness complies).

7 MR. MYHRE: Record should reflect the witness has
8 drawn a circle above the shoulder, left shoulder of the 9 individual he's labeled as Eric Parker about left center, upper 10 quadrant of Exhibit 182-28.

11 Clearing that image.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Now, at 12:03 we see -- in the right-hand corner, we see
14 some -- what appears to be some individuals in the wash;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. At 12:03, where were the individuals in the wash in 18 relationship to Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart and Mr. Drexler as 19 indicated in this image?

20 A. They would have been to their north in the middle of the 21 wash in a line in front of them.

22 Q. So they still would be in the middle in a line at this
23 point?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show the witness

1 what's been marked as Exhibit 166C?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 And this would be for witness, Court, and counsel
4 only.

5 (Exhibit 166C published to witness.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Have you viewed 166C; Agent Willis?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did you see that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what was depicted in 166C?

12 A. Scott Drexler and Eric Parker standing on the northbound
13 I-15 bridge looking north and they have their rifles slung on 14 their chest.

15 Q. Now, is -- in relationship to Mr. Parker, where is 16 Mr. Drexler located?

17 A. To his left.

18 Q. As we look at this image, in which direction are we 19 facing?

20 A. We are facing east.

21 Q. So, from Mr. Parker's position, would Drexler be west or 22 east of Mr. Parker?

23 A. West.

24 Q. And was this image from the 8 News NOW broadcast that 25 occurred on May the 8th, 2014, at 5:00 p.m.?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Does this -- does this image -- does the segment you just
3 viewed depict Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker as they appeared on
4 April 12th, 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Do -- do they -- are they dressed similarly to what they
12 were on April the 12th, 2014?

13 A. Yes, they are.

14 Q. Based on your review of other images, known images from
15 April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Where do they appear to be located?

18 A. On the north side of the northbound I-15 bridge over the 19 Toquop Wash.

20 Q. And you know that how?

21 A. Based on the terrain. There's other people that are in 22 this shot that are also visible in other photograph and video
23 evidence, specifically one person that walks behind them,
24 things like that. And also, as you mentioned, their clothes
25 that they're wearing.

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer 166C and ask that it
2 be moved into evidence and published.

3 (Exhibit 166C offered.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Well, based on the 5 similarities listed by the witness, the rules permit that as 6 sufficient foundation.

7 Is there any other objection?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Authenticity.

9 MR. TANASI: Start joins, Your Honor.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

11 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

12 MR. MYHRE: It would be 901(b)(4), Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Likewise, under 901(b)(4) Exhibit 166C is
14 admitted.

15 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 (Exhibit 166C received and published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Now, we've -- we've seen 166C that has now been published
20 before the jury; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And for record purposes, could you describe what we saw in 23 this segment?

24 A. This video short clip starts off with the facial features
25 from that viewpoint of Scott Drexler in the foreground and

1 Eric Parker in the background. Again, they're standing with
2 their rifles slung on their chest. We're looking north.
3 They're on the north side of the northbound I-15 bridge over
4 the wash.

5 MR. MYHRE: Now, the record should reflect that the 6 segment lasted about 4 seconds.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Turning back to second -- the first second of this image,
9 do you see Eric Parker in that image?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And can you describe what he's doing in this image?

12 A. He has his rifle slung in front of him, left hand down,
13 right hand up by the grip.

14 Q. And is this a particular position?

15 A. This would be the low ready slung.

16 Q. He's holding -- you said it's slung, but what do you mean
17 by "slung"?

18 A. Slung typically means that you have a sling or a strap
19 around the gun and you're -- you're resting the sling on your 20 neck, but holding it in the low ready close to your chest. So,
21 you would be able to move it up but also it gives you a little
22 help with holding the weight of the gun by slinging it.

23 Q. So in this image his hands are on the weapon; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And where is the weapon in relationship to the barrier?

1 A. It's above. Almost all the weapon, maybe with the
2 exception of the last inch of the end of barrel, is above the
3 Jersey barrier.

4 MR. MYHRE: May we now move to Slide 29, please?

5 (Exhibit 182-29 published.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And Slide 29, this is from Exhibit 163; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. What is depicted in Slide 29 at 12:03?

10 A. So, throughout the -- this presentation or sequence of 11 events and time line I included examples of how I determined
12 and was able to time stamp other photos.

13 So, this particular screenshot does two things: It
14 shows the position of the people on horseback and the other 15 individuals in the wash. It shows the traffic on the north and 16 southbound I-15 bridge, the people on the bridges, but also in 17 the previous slide, in Slide 28, where Eric Parker is kneeling
18 with his knee against the Jersey barrier, this -- this shows
19 how I time stamped that. There is a semitruck with a white
20 trailer followed by a white car and in this video, I can tell
21 that this is the same vehicles that are in that previous 22 photograph that we viewed of Eric Parker.

23 Q. So, 182-29 is an aerial image; is that correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. That's at Exhibit 17; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. So, where it says "163," that should be 17?

3 A. Oh, yes.

4 Q. So that needs to be corrected?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So, can you circle on this image the vehicles that you
7 used to time stamp the previous photo?

8 A. (Witness complies).

9 MR. MYHRE: And the witness is circling a semitrailer
10 right -- appears to be on the right-hand upper quadrant of 11 the -- of the slide at 28.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. And this is at 12:03; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So when you described, in the previous slide, about where 16 the skirmish line -- or where the people were lined up, rather,
17 in the wash, this is the image to which you referred?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. MYHRE: May we go to Slide 29, please.

20 (Exhibit 182-29 published.)

21 Excuse me, Slide 30. I apologize. That was 29.

22 (Exhibit 182-30 published.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. So we're at Slide 30. What is in this image,

25 Agent Willis?

1 A. This is a screenshot of the Business Record for the 2 Facebook account holder Todd Engel.

3 Q. This is from Exhibit 122; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you discussed this entry in your testimony previously;
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the message there, for the record purposes, reads
9 what?

10 A. "Armed standoff."

11 Q. And this would have occurred approximately 1 minute after 12 the previous slide where we saw the people lined up in the 13 wash?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. MYHRE: And may we move to Slide 31, please.

16 (Exhibit 182-31 published.)

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Slide 31 we're at 12:06 p.m.; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. This is from an aerial image?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Exhibit 17?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you time stamped it by the aerial image embedded UTC
25 time; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. What do we see depicted in this image?

3 A. Well, the people in the line in the wash sort of in the 4 background, but in the more foreground, the people standing on
5 the bridge, along with, to the right, Steven Stewart,
6 Scott Drexler, and Eric Parker all kneeling on the bridge.
7 Again, this would be to the east of the majority of the people
8 who are standing on the bridge.

9 Q. And when you say "the bridge," are you referring to the 10 northbound 15 bridge?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what are they kneeling behind?

13 A. They're kneeling behind a Jersey barrier.

14 Q. You have their names indicated on this image; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And this image shows their relative -- their position
17 relative to the people in the wash at 12:06 p.m.?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And for record purposes, where is defendant Drexler in 20 this image in relationship to defendant Parker?

21 A. To his left.

22 Q. To his left, as in looking northbound?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. With respect to the directions, east and west, is he west
25 or east of where Mr. Parker is depicted in this image?

1 A. West.

2 MR. MYHRE: And may we move to Slide 32, please.

3 (Exhibit 182-32 published.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. Slide 32 you've time stamped it 12:09 p.m.; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. About 3 minutes after the previous slide?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. This image is from Exhibit 148; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And this is . . . 148 was an exhibit introduced by 12 Mr. Schillie?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. So how did you derive the time as 12:09?

15 A. Mr. Schillie's photos were timed stamped. I could derive 16 the time based on the metadata.

17 Q. What is depicted in the image at 182-Slide 32?

18 A. Well, in the foreground there's vehicles, including 19 vehicles moving slowly. They're moving eastbound on the 20 northbound I-15 bridge. Eric Parker and Steven Stewart are now
21 standing amongst the other people standing, looking -- well,
22 Mr. Parker would be -- seems like he's maybe doing something
23 with his hands, but looking north, and Steven Stewart is 24 looking over his left shoulder south.

25 Q. South, as in true south or south as in south -- is

1 southbound?

2 A. Yeah. Just southbound or . . . yes.

3 Q. So would he be facing -- would his head be facing east or 4 west at this point?

5 A. It would be southwest.

6 Q. Or south -- if left is to the east, would it be east or 7 west -- or -- excuse me. West is to the left, so it would be
8 southwest; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Now, where is he in relationship to Mr. Parker?

11 A. To Mr. Parker's left.

12 Q. As Parker is looking north; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And how -- have these positions changed relative to the 15 slide that we saw at Exhibit 31?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And how have their positions changed?

18 A. They're now standing.

19 MR. MYHRE: May we move to Slide 33, please?

20 (Exhibit 182-33 published.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Slide 33 you have indicated is from Exhibit 28; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. That's a screenshot?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. That's from the Shilaikis video?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. How were you able to derive the time stamp 12:13?

4 A. Based on Robert Shilaikis' time that he gives at the 5 beginning of each of his video segments.

6 Q. And you used the time at the beginning of the segment and 7 the run time of where this screenshot was taken?

8 A. Yes, and also compared with the aerial footage at this
9 time based on the vehicles traveling on I-15.

10 Q. So this is at 12:14, about 4 minutes after the previous
11 slide; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what's depicted in this image?

14 A. Eric Parker is kneeling below the Jersey barrier with his 15 head and neck above the Jersey barrier. The stock of his rifle
16 is above the Jersey barrier.

17 Q. Which bridge is he on?

18 A. He's on the northbound I-15 bridge.

19 Q. Which direction is he facing?

20 A. North.

21 Q. Is that toward or away from the BLM position?

22 A. Toward.

23 Q. Is his position different from that that we saw in the 24 previous slide at Slide 32?

25 A. Yes. He's kneeling again.

1 MR. MYHRE: May we move to Slide 34?

2 (Exhibit 182-34 published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Slide 34 is an image, again, that you've indicated from
5 Exhibit 28; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This is from the Shilaikis video?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You've time stamped this at 12:16 p.m.; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And did -- what methodology did you use to get the time
12 stamp?

13 A. The Shilaikis time that he provides at the beginning of 14 each video segment and also compared with the aerial footage at 15 this time that I synchronized to this video.

16 Q. This appears to be about 3 minutes after the previous 17 video; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What do we see appear in this image?

20 A. Eric Parker has now stood up. His legs are behind the 21 Jersey barrier, so you could see his torso, his upper body.
22 He's -- he is moving his rifle and appears to be maybe
23 manipulating the sling or adjusting the sling that's around his 24 neck and his rifle is visible above the Jersey barrier at this
25 time.

1 Q. Which bridge is he standing on?

2 A. The northbound I-15 bridge.

3 Q. What direction is he facing?

4 A. North, towards the BLM.

5 MR. MYHRE: And may we have Slide 35, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-35 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Slide 35 is an image that you derived from Exhibit 150;
9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that is one of the photographs provided by 12 Mr. Schillie?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So how did you derive that time stamp?

15 A. Mr. Schillie's photos were time stamped, so I used the 16 metadata from the photographs.

17 Q. The time stamp on this photograph is 12:18?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. It's approximately 2 minutes after the slide we just 20 viewed?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What is depicted in this image?

23 A. This is Toquop Wash in between the southbound and 24 northbound I-15 bridge. The people in the wash, along with the 25 people on horseback, have now pushed forward towards the cattle

1 gate into where the BLM vehicles are located on the other side
2 of the gate.

3 Q. Which -- and from looking from the viewer's vantage point,
4 in which direction is the viewer looking?

5 A. North.

6 Q. Is that toward or away from the BLM?

7 A. Towards the BLM law enforcement vehicles.

8 Q. And do you see the BLM position depicted in this image?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. And if you would just circle that, please.

11 A. (Witness complies).

12 MR. MYHRE: Record should reflect the witness has 13 drawn a circle around some vehicles on Exhibit 182-35, in 14 approximately the center upper half of the screen.

15 Clearing that image.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, previously in Slide 31 we saw the people in the wash
18 sort of in the middle of the wash; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Now, in this image, that was at 12:06, this is about 12
21 minutes later -- those people have moved; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And would this be the image as seen from the northbound
24 bridge?

25 A. Yes.

1 MR. MYHRE: May we move to Slide 36, please?

2 (Exhibit 182-36 published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Slide 36 is derived from Exhibit 32A; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. That is the Madsen dash cam introduced by Sergeant Serena?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you've time stamped this at 12:19 p.m.; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. How did you derive the time?

11 A. Based on the current time on the player for the Madsen
12 dash cam.

13 Q. You've determined the Madsen dash cam player synchronizes
14 with the aerial photo?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. What do we see depicted in this image at 12:19 p.m.?

17 A. This is a screenshot as Steven Stewart, who, just previous 18 to this was walking down on I-15 westbound towards the assembly
19 area. At one point he makes a quick 90-degree turns and runs
20 across I-15 to the other side of the vehicles that are parked
21 on the shoulder on the south side of the I-15 bridge.

22 Q. So in this image, where is Mr. Stewart depicted in this
23 particular image that we have at 182-36?

24 A. Well, it's labeled "Steven Stewart" on there. Would you
25 like me to also circle him?

1 Q. No. Where is he in relationship to the bridge? Is he in 2 the middle, is he on the --

3 A. He would have just came off of the bridge at this point.
4 So, maybe at the start of the bridge where the I-15 bridge
5 starts, northbound.

6 Q. When you say "starts," that's where the skirt meets the
7 bridge?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. The skirt being that portion that's slanted that goes
10 down -- extends down into the wash; correct?

11 A. Yes. Yes.

12 Q. In which direction does it -- is it Mr. Stewart's headed
13 at this point?

14 A. He's moving quickly to the south.

15 Q. Would he be moving down the road, or across the road, in 16 the road? How would you describe his movement?

17 A. Across the road.

18 Q. Now, this occurs very quickly in 32A; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. How are you able to determine that's Mr. Stewart?

21 A. Based on -- it's -- it's a little grainy, I admit, in this
22 shot, but when he is walking down and then also when he crosses
23 the road and then walks west towards the assembly area, he 24 appears just for a moment between these two white trucks
25 (indicating) on the shoulder and I can make out his hat and his

1 shirt and the fact that he has his firearm.

2 Q. Now, in relationship to this image, where is the assembly
3 area located? In relationship to the viewer of this image?

4 A. Behind them.

5 Q. And that would be west?

6 A. Yes.

7 MR. MYHRE: May we move to Slide 37, please.

8 (Exhibit 182-37 published.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Slide 37 is derived from Exhibit 139; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And 139 is an image obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. So, the time stamp was derived how?

15 A. From his metadata.

16 Q. And you've timed this at 12:21 p.m.?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is depicted in this image at 182-37?

19 A. Eric Parker is laying in a prone position. You can't see
20 his gun in this shot, but he appears to be looking northbound
21 through the gap in the Jersey barrier to -- on the left upper
22 portion of this photograph is Jim Urquhart, who is the Reuters
23 photograph that I had mentioned earlier and the woman with the 24 blue pants on and the dark longer shirt, that is the Citizens
25 Action Network photographer, which I had also mentioned

1 earlier.

2 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could go back to Image 34,
3 please.

4 (Exhibit 182-34 published.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. Now, this image at 34 was the 12:16 p.m.; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. MYHRE: So now if we could go to Image 37.

9 (Exhibit 182-37 published.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. So this is approximately -- this is at 12:21 p.m. That's 12 about 5 minutes later; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Has -- based on these images, has Mr. Parker changed
15 positions from Exhibit 182-34 to 37?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How has he changed positions?

18 A. He's prone now.

19 Q. What direction is he facing?

20 A. North, towards the BLM vehicles.

21 Q. And I'm referring specifically to image at Exhibit 182-37
22 now; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And this is approximately 2 minutes after the image -- the 25 previous image where we saw Mr. Stewart walking across the

1 road?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Or moving across the road.

4 MR. MYHRE: May we move to Exhibit 38, please.

5 (Exhibit 182-38 published.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. This image was derived from Exhibit 172; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And 172 was -- again, where was that image derived from?

10 A. This is a Citizens Action Network Facebook page for the 11 Bundy Ranch Standoff album on their page.

12 Q. And you described that previously as something you found
13 during your public search in the Internet; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now the time stamp here is 12:21; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How did you derive that?

18 A. I derived interest from the previous photograph where you
19 can see the Citizens Action Network photographer. This would 20 be the approximate time that she would have been in the -- that 21 location as she was heading west down I-15 and I track her
22 movements through other video and photographic evidence, and 23 that's how I derived that time.

24 Q. What is depicted in 182-38?

25 A. This shows Eric Parker's line of sight as he is laying in

1 the prone position. He has his rifle pointed between the gap
2 in the Jersey barriers pointed at the law enforcement officers
3 on the other side of the cattle gate in the wash.

4 Q. In which direction is he then facing?

5 A. North.

6 Q. Can you see in this image people located in the wash?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Where are they located with respect to Mr. Parker's image?

9 A. To his north but now pushed all the way to the cattle
10 gate.

11 Q. Do you see the cattle gate depicted in this image?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. If you could just draw a line for us where you see the 14 cattle gate.

15 A. (Witness complies).

16 MR. MYHRE: Record should reflect image -- excuse
17 me -- witness has drawn a line top-half middle quadrant of the 18 image located at 182-38.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. And behind that line is what?

21 A. National Park Service and BLM law enforcement officers
22 behind their vehicles.

23 Q. And closest to the viewer, in front of that line, is what?

24 A. The -- the cattle -- the cattle gate and the people pushed
25 up against the cattle gate.

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm going to object to
2 speculation and move to strike. The continued use of the word
3 "push." Best evidence, the video, the picture, it speaks for 4 itself. Commentating on the nature of their movement is 5 improper.

6 MR. MYHRE: The --

7 THE COURT: The Court disagrees. Commenting on the 8 nature of the movement is the purpose of the different screens
9 and the time stamping, to see who's moving in what direction,
10 when, and where. As to the word "push," if you want to use a
11 different word, that's fine. If you want to -- I mean --

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Well, Agent --

14 THE COURT: The word "advance" was, I think, objected
15 to before. So "push," "advance" . . . they're moving. Do you
16 want to just say are they moving forward or backwards? Closer
17 or further away?

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Well, they have -- do they move beyond -- in this scene --
20 excuse me -- in this image, have they moved beyond that fence
21 that you've indicated with the line?

22 A. The people in the wash and the people on horseback, no.
23 They -- they have moved up to the cattle gate.

24 Q. So they moved up to the gate itself?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Now, you've reviewed numerous videos of that movement;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And do they move all the way to the gate?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. MYHRE: And may we move to Slide 39, please.

7 (Exhibit 182-39 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. 39 is an image derived from Exhibit 164; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. 164 was derived from what source?

12 A. This would have been a Washington Post -- online
13 WashingtonPost.com article, but the photograph, based on the 14 caption of the photo that -- when we captured it, was, again,
15 Jim Urquhart. So, this photo would have accompanied the second 16 photo and is also -- well, this is used to help time stamp what 17 was the photo before of Jim Urquhart and the woman in black
18 with the blue pants standing behind Eric Parker who is in 19 prone. So this would have been the approximate time and 20 photograph that Jim Urquhart, the photographer, would have 21 taken of Eric Parker prone on the northbound I-15 bridge.

22 Q. So the time stamp is 12:21; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you've described how you derived that?

25 A. Yes. I derived it two ways actually, through the

1 Hugh Gourgeon photo, again, with Jim Urquhart and the woman in
2 black standing, but also through the aerial photography and
3 we'll see that in the next slide.

4 Q. And this is virtually -- this is around the same time as 5 our previous exhibit; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This image shows what?

8 A. This shows Eric Parker, again, his line of sight, view as 9 his gun is appointed between the gap in the Jersey barrier.
10 He's prone, looking north. The -- the people, again, have 11 moved -- the majority of them have moved up to the cattle gate
12 and he is looking north towards the law enforcement officers
13 behind the BLM and vehicles on the other side of the gate.

14 Q. Is he in the same relative position as he was in the 15 previous slide?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 40, please.

18 (Exhibit 182-40 published.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Now, Slide 40 is, again, an aerial shot from the 21 surveillance aircraft; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. At -- you time stamped this at 12:21 p.m.; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And what is depicted in the image at 1:30 -- excuse me --

1 182-40?

2 A. So, this is, again, an aerial shot of the locations of the
3 National Park Service people and BLM -- I'm sorry -- people --
4 law enforcement officers and BLM law enforcement officers
5 behind their vehicles, of the people in the wash, along with 6 the people on horseback in the wash, and then also in the 7 middle of this screenshot is this white semitruck with the 8 black load on its trailer. This trailer can be seen in the 9 previous photograph of Eric Parker pointing his gun through the 10 gap in the Jersey barrier, and again, another example of how I
11 time stamped these photos through as many means -- ways as 12 possible as going through this and creating this time line.

13 Q. If you would, please, circle the vehicle you used to time
14 stamp.

15 A. (Witness complies).

16 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing a circle around a 17 large -- appears to be a white vehicle pulling something in the 18 middle, about dead center of the image.

19 Clearing that.

20 If we could go back to Slide 39.

21 (Exhibit 182-39 published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. And do you see that image of this vehicle depicted in the 24 image at 39?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And circle that, please.

2 A. (Witness complies).

3 MR. MYHRE: And witness circling a vehicle top center
4 of Exhibit 182-39.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And that's the vehicle you used to time stamp these images
7 that we've been talking about at 38 and 39?

8 A. Yes, that's correct.

9 MR. MYHRE: Go back to 40, please.

10 (Exhibit 182-40 published.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Now, you've described generally what we see in this image
13 just for record purposes. We see three vehicles to the left
14 side of this -- in this image; is that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you -- to the right side, we see images of individuals
17 in the wash on horseback and on foot, et cetera?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, that's -- is this the northbound or southbound bridge
20 that we see in this image?

21 A. Southbound.

22 Q. So, relative to the people in the wash, on foot, and on 23 horseback, which direction are they facing?

24 A. The law enforcement officers?

25 Q. No. The people on the left -- on the right side of the --

1 circling (indicating), right side of the bridge, in which
2 direction are they facing?

3 A. It seems like the majority of them are facing north and
4 towards the law enforcement officers and -- but several of them
5 appear to be moving back at this point and that's consistent
6 with my review of the video evidence. They move up, they move
7 back, and then they move up --

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. -- a number of times.

10 Q. So the vehicles to the left, relative to the people on the 11 right, in which direction are the vehicles relative to the 12 people?

13 A. They're north.

14 MR. MYHRE: And next slide, please.

15 (Exhibit 182-41 published.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, this image was derived from 169C; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And 169C was a video that you obtained from the Frontline,
20 PBS Frontline; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, you've time stamped this at 12:21 p.m.; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How did you derive the time?

25 A. Based on the Gourgeon photograph, again, going back to

1 that, where Eric Parker is in the prone position and you see
2 Jim Urquhart and the woman in black from Citizens Action
3 Network taking the photo.

4 May I circle?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. They're both standing right here (indicating). And also
7 in the Hugh Gourgeon photograph you can see this woman's feet
8 at this approximate location (indicating) in the bottom of that 9 photograph and so I used that to time stamp this, as well as 10 following photographs that we'll see from the vantage point a
11 little bit further east of where this was taken.

12 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could go back to Slide 39,
13 please.

14 (Exhibit 182-39 published.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Slide 39 was what you depicted as Mr. Parker at 17 12:21 p.m.; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go forward to 41.

20 (Exhibit 182-41 published.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. And 41 is also Mr. Parker at 12:21 p.m. --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Now, from this -- this vantage point, from the viewer's
2 vantage point, is taken from what perspective of Mr. Parker?

3 A. Looking east on the northbound I-15 bridge.

4 Q. Now in this image, Mr. -- is Mr. Drexler depicted?

5 A. Yes. He's in the foreground looking down.

6 Q. Now, from Mr. Parker's view, viewing north, is -- is 7 Drexler -- is Mr. Drexler right or left of Mr. Parker?

8 A. To Mr. Parker's left.

9 Q. And this -- from the viewer's perspective -- or from 10 Mr. Parker's perspective, would Mr. Drexler be east or west of 11 his position?

12 A. West.

13 Q. What is Mr. Parker -- or -- excuse me -- what does
14 Mr. Parker appear to be doing in this image?

15 A. He appears to be squatting or kneeling in this image.
16 He's looking down. You cannot see below his mid-torso. His 17 gun is not visible in this screenshot.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to speculation.
19 He could be standing. It could be just the image, the depth.
20 He doesn't know.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre?

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Based on your review of all the video and photographic
2 images, are you able to determine from this angle whether
3 Mr. Parker is sitting or kneeling or standing?

4 A. Yeah. Well, other than the field of view that we are
5 looking at here and the fact that Mr. Drexler is lower than the 6 woman to his right, in the following photographs see
7 Mr. Drexler kneeling in this position on a number of 8 screenshots and photographs in the time line.

9 THE COURT: All right. Objection overruled.

10 MR. MYHRE: And may we move to Exhibit -- excuse
11 me -- Slide 42, please.

12 (Exhibit 182-42 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Now, this is -- Exhibit 182-42 is derived from 15 Exhibit 140; is that correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And 140 was an image from -- obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

18 A. Yes, it was.

19 Q. So your time stamping from 12:21 was from the metadata?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. What is depicted, again, in Exhibit 182-42?

22 A. Mr. Parker prone on northbound I-15 looking north with his
23 rifle pointed in the gap of the Jersey barrier.

24 Q. And you used this image to assist you in time stamping the
25 previous image; correct?

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. And again, in this image, in which direction is
3 Mr. Parker's weapon facing?

4 A. North.

5 Q. Is that toward or away from the BLM position?

6 A. Toward the BLM.

7 Q. At 12:21, were you able to determine where the people in
8 the wash are relative to Mr. Parker's position?

9 A. Yes. They would have -- would have moved up close to the 10 cattle gate in the Toquop Wash.

11 MR. MYHRE: Next image, at 43, please.

12 (Exhibit 182-43 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. At 182-43, we -- this is derived from 32 -- Exhibit 32A;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Which is, again, the Madsen video?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. The time stamp, 12:21 p.m.; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you're able to derive that from the video itself, the 22 counter in the video?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What do we see depicted at image 182-43?

25 A. In the foreground Ricky Ray Lovelien is walking north

1 across the northbound I-15 bridge. As we had seen in a
2 previous screenshot from Shilaikis, he's now wearing a
3 camouflage long sleeve shirt or jacket. He has a tactical vest
4 on. He's got his hat on and he's holding a rifle on his right
5 side down by his right thigh.

6 Q. In which direction does he appear to be moving?

7 A. North.

8 Q. That's toward or away from the BLM position?

9 A. Toward the BLM.

10 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could go back to Exhibit 23,
11 please.

12 Slide 23.

13 (Exhibit 182-23 published.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Now, at Slide 23 we have a -- the image of Mr. Lovelien at 16 12:01 p.m.; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And this was, to refresh the jury's recollection, where is 19 this image, approximately, in relationship to the bridge?

20 A. This is the assembly area. He's standing in the gravel
21 desert area next to the vehicles in the assembly area. He 22 appears to be looking west on the northbound I-15 -- I-15, but 23 on the other side of the road, or the south side of the road.

24 Q. So the bridge, in relationship to him, is it to the left
25 or to his right as we're looking at this image?

1 A. It would be to his right.

2 Q. It would be to the viewer's -- which direction from the 3 viewer?

4 A. It would be to the left of the viewer.

5 Q. So drawing a line, it would be that direction
6 (indicating); correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect an arrow
9 drawn to the left side of the screen.

10 Now, going back again to Exhibit 43, please.

11 (Exhibit 182-43 published.)

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. So this is approximately 20 minutes later; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So, as opposed to Exhibit 23, has Mr. Lovelien changed his
16 position?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And he now is -- you explained generally and we talked 19 about where the skirt comes up to meet the bridge?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So, where is he relative to that position of where the 22 skirt meets the bridge on the northbound 15?

23 A. From this location, he would have been approximately 150
24 yards away from that location.

25 Q. Can you draw a line approximating where the bridge meets

1 the skirt?

2 A. I could give an approximate.

3 Q. On your screen, please.

4 A. Oh, yeah. Hold on. Hold on. I'm looking at the people.

5 (Witness complies).

6 MR. MYHRE: Witness should -- excuse me. The record
7 should reflect the witness has drawn a line about the midpoint
8 of the image that's depicted at 182-43.

9 Clearing that.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, you have there in this image, Mr. Engel; is that
12 correct?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. How are you able to identify him?

15 A. Based on his clothing, his hat, his tactical vest, and his
16 long gun.

17 Q. Now, the image of -- that you've depicted as Mr. Lovelien,
18 do you see that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is he dressed the same as was depicted in that previous 21 image that we saw at 182-23?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. MYHRE: If we can move to 182-44, please.

24 (Exhibit 182-44 published.)

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. 182-44, again, is from the Serena dash cam; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. It is time stamped at 12:21 p.m.?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. About the -- a little -- is this later in time or earlier
6 in time than the previous slide?

7 A. Just a few moments later.

8 Q. Is Mr. -- is -- what's depicted in this image?

9 A. Mr. Lovelien has walked across all the way north on the 10 northbound I-15 bridge. He's now on the north shoulder. He 11 turns and begins walking eastbound on northbound I-15 towards 12 Todd Engel.

13 Q. In this image, in which direction is he facing?

14 A. He would be facing northeast.

15 Q. And from this position, where is he relative to the wash
16 where the people are who we saw at the gate?

17 A. He would have been -- he would be just to the southwest
18 of -- and, of course, above on the bridge of those individuals.

19 Q. And does Mr. Engel have a firearm in this image?

20 A. Yes, he does. You could see the sling coming down from 21 his left shoulder and the firearm is -- appears to be holding
22 it with his hand, but it's slung down on his right side.

23 Q. If you could just draw a line where the firearm is 24 located.

25 A. (Witness complies).

1 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing line midportion of the
2 screen about the left side of the image depicted in the screen
3 at 182-44.

4 Clearing that.

5 If we could go to 45, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-45 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Now, Exhibit 182-45 is derived from Exhibit 13; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that is a video that Mr. Flynn took from the wash;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You've time stamped this at 12:22 p.m.; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that's about a 1-minute difference from the previous
16 slide?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is depicted in the image at 182-45?

19 A. These are several individuals standing on the northbound
20 I-15 bridge. We have Scott Drexler on the right side is 21 squatting down or kneeling behind the Jersey barrier on the 22 right side. In the middle of the frame is the gap which has 23 been identified as where Eric Parker would have been at this
24 time prone with his rifle pointed through the gap in the Jersey
25 barrier.

1 Q. Now taking this one step at a time. From the viewer's
2 position, which direction are we facing?

3 A. South.

4 Q. And we're seeing a bridge, and that's the northbound?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now, you've indicated an individual as Scott Drexler?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. How are you able to identify him?

9 A. His facial hair, facial features, and the hat that he's 10 wearing.

11 Q. You compared that to the other images we've seen?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. In which direction does Mr. Drexler, in this image, appear
14 to be facing?

15 A. North.

16 Q. Would that be toward the BLM position or away from it?

17 A. Toward.

18 Q. Now, where is he -- you've described generally, but why
19 don't you circle for us, the gap that you've identified as the 20 gap where Mr. Parker is prone.

21 A. Would have been right above this first pillar
22 (indicating).

23 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling on the image a gap that
24 appears in the approximately the dead center portion of Exhibit
25 182-45.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. Now, is Mr. Drexler, in this image, is he to the left or 3 right of Mr. Parker from Mr. Parker's vantage point?

4 A. To Mr. Parker's left.

5 Q. And would that be -- in this shot, would this be west or 6 east of Mr. Parker's position?

7 A. West.

8 Q. And do you see Mr. Schillie in this image as well?

9 A. Yes, do I.

10 Q. And if you could just draw an arrow toward him -- or 11 circle him?

12 A. (Witness complies).

13 MR. MYHRE: Witness circled --

14 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

15 MR. MYHRE: Witness is circling an image left center
16 of the image at 182-45.

17 Clearing that.

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Now, where Mr. Drexler is located, do you see any other
20 aspects of the bridge that help identify his position?

21 A. It's a little hard to see in this photograph, but there is
22 a crack -- I'm kind of drawing over it, but you can clear it --
23 in the Jersey barrier where Mr. Drexler -- or near 24 Mr. Drexler's location on the northbound I-15 bridge.

25 MR. MYHRE: And the witness is drawing with a zig-zag

1 line an area on the image approximately right center of the 2 image of the northbound bridge.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. You describe it as a crack. Is it a crack that goes all
5 the way through the barrier or partially through?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Based on your review of this image, are you able to 9 determine where -- whether this crack goes all the way through
10 the barrier or partially through the barrier?

11 A. I don't think it goes all the way through the barrier.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

13 THE WITNESS: It --

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Based on your review of the image, what's your --

16 A. It does not go all the way through the Jersey barrier.

17 THE COURT: I don't know what that means. "Through."
18 You mean all the way down or all the way across the width of
19 it?

20 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Looking at the area you've circled as the gap to the -- do
23 you see that, where I've circled it (indicating)?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Now, you've described the crack as -- from the

1 viewer's vantage point here, as to the right or to the west of
2 the gap; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You've described that generally right in this area
5 (indicating); correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Drawing.

8 Comparing -- does this gap go all the way through the
9 barrier?

10 A. Yes, it does.

11 Q. In other words, someone on the other side, on the south
12 side of that barrier can look through that gap and look north;
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Can someone sitting on the -- from your observation of 16 these videos and your photographs, can someone sitting on the 17 south side of that barrier view north going through that line
18 I've just drawn (indicating), see where the crack is?

19 A. No.

20 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, is there still an objection?
21 I'm not sure if there is.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection has been withdrawn --

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- based on the answer.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

1 If we could go to Slide 46, please.

2 (Exhibit 182-46 published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Now, this is -- again, this is derived from Exhibit 195;
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And where was 195 derived from?

8 A. This is another Jim Urquhart photograph. This was located
9 on Reuters.com on one of their articles.

10 Q. You derived the time stamp at 12:22 p.m.; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And how did you derive the time?

13 A. By the other activities that are taking place in the 14 background of this photograph, including Trey Schillie pointing
15 to Eric Parker. He would take a photograph soon after this was 16 captured.

17 Q. And in the previous slide we just saw, was the Flynn
18 video; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Which was time stamped?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And Mr. Schillie appears in that; correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. And just circle Mr. Schillie here for us, please.

25 A. (Witness complies).

1 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling on Exhibit 182-46 about
2 center top portion of the image identifying as Mr. Schillie.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. And what do we see depicted in the foreground of this
5 image at 182-46?

6 A. Eric Parker in the prone position on the northbound I-15
7 bridge with his rifle pointed between the gap in the Jersey
8 barrier facing north towards the BLM officers.

9 Q. And this was the gap that you identified in the previous 10 screen at 182-45?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. This is approximately the same time or is it later in time
13 than the previous one?

14 A. This would have been at approximately the same time.

15 Q. Also, just to clarify, does Mr. Gurgeon appear in this 16 image as well?

17 A. Yes. He's in the far background. He has his pale-colored 18 yellow shirt on (indicating).

19 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling another image behind
20 Mr. Schillie and to the right of Mr. Schillie. Right center
21 portion of the screen.

22 May we go to Slide 47, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-47 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. This also is at 12:22 p.m.; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And this is from Exhibit 153?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. This is the photo taken by Mr. Schillie?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Who we saw in the previous image?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what is depicted at the image at Exhibit 47, 182-47?

9 A. Eric Parker is in the foreground prone with his rifle
10 pointed between the gap in the Jersey barrier facing north
11 towards the BLM officers. Number of people down from him is 12 Scott Drexler, which is labeled. He's kneeling against the 13 Jersey barrier. The woman in black from Citizens Action
14 Network and Jim Urquhart are both in this photograph.
15 Jim Urquhart is with the blue shirt looking down kneeling and 16 the woman from Citizens Action Network with the dark hair or 17 the black shirt, she's leaning over the Jersey barrier
18 appearing to be taking a photograph.

19 Q. And if you would circle those individuals for us.

20 A. Citizens Action Network (indicating). Jim Urquhart
21 (indicating).

22 MR. MYHRE: Witness has drawn a circle around two
23 images approximately center of the screen; one wearing a blue
24 shirt, one wearing a black shirt -- or black clothing.

25 ///

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. Now, in this image, from the viewer's perspective, which 3 direction are we facing?

4 A. West.

5 Q. In the previous image we were facing which direction?

6 A. East.

7 Q. So we just have an opposite view; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, in this image, you've labeled someone as Mr. Drexler?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You've talked about him?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what is his position?

14 A. He's kneeling on the north side of the northbound I-15
15 bridge looking north towards the BLM officers.

16 Q. And his position relative to Mr. Parker is,
17 direction-wise?

18 A. To his -- to the west -- or to Mr. Parker's left.

19 Q. From Mr. Parker's point of view, his left?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: If we could go to Slide 48, please.

22 (Exhibit 182-48 published.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Slide 48 is from Exhibit 161; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And Exhibit 161 was the Citizens Action Network?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. That was from the person who was dressed in black from the 4 previous slide?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You've derived a time of 12:22 p.m.; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you derived that time how?

9 A. Based on the previous photograph from Trey Schillie with 10 the woman in black leaning over the Jersey barrier appearing to 11 take the photograph, but also as in the same -- excuse me --
12 the previous image, the same activity is happening in the 13 background where the silver or gray Dodge truck and there's a 14 gold semitruck with a white trailer, that is passing by, that 15 is also in the previous photograph in the background from the 16 Schillie photograph.

17 Q. So you're able to verify through Schillie and not only 18 from the Citizens Action Network photographer, but also from 19 the vehicles that are portrayed in the Schillie photo?

20 A. Yes, and we'll see also in the following slide where I
21 found that, as an example, in the aerial footage, that truck
22 and that gold semitruck passing by at that location on the
23 bridge.

24 Q. Now, this image, in terms of the time, is approximately 25 the same time as the previous image; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. But in this image we have a different view -- point of
3 view of Mr. Drexler; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Describe for the record what we see in Exhibit 182-48.

6 A. Mr. Drexler is kneeling on one knee. He -- he would just 7 be south of the Jersey barrier on the north side of the 8 northbound I-15 on the bridge. He's looking north over the 9 Jersey barrier, and he has his rifle in front of him in the low
10 ready or slung position.

11 Q. And when you say -- where are his hands relative to the 12 rifle?

13 A. They're both on his rifle.

14 Q. Where is his right hand?

15 A. On the pistol grip of the rifle.

16 Q. Where is his left hand?

17 A. It's on the -- the -- closer to the barrel, the front of 18 the -- the rifle. I can't see his whole hand.

19 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Myhre, it's 10:30. Can 20 we take a quick little break?

21 MR. MYHRE: Oh, yes, absolutely, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Morning break?

23 All right. So during this morning break, I do remind
24 the jury please do not discuss this case with each other. You
25 may discuss other things with your fellow jurors, but not this

1 case. And please do not attempt to perform any research or any
2 independent investigation nor read or view or listen to
3 anything that touches upon this case in this way. And please
4 do not form any opinion.

5 We're going to take a -- it's 10:30. We'll take a
6 break until 10:45.

7 Let's stand for the jury. Jury is excused.

8 And Special Agent Willis, after the jury exits the 9 courtroom, then you may also take your break.

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: And we'll just need everyone back here by 12 10:45.

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

14 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

16 (Recess was taken at 10:32 a.m.)

17 (Outside the presence of the jury at 11:03 a.m.:)

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be
20 seated.

21 Can we call in the jury?

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. TANASI: Can we handle one matter outside the 25 presence?

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. TANASI: It strikes me kind of odd. The jury, I
3 don't know if Your Honor noticed, there appear to be several of 4 them dressed in red today. And I don't know if that was just 5 complete coincidence or if it was some kind of planned event.
6 And so, I've got, you know, the numbers listed that are dressed
7 in red. I mean, there's two who are also, they have kind of 8 like black, but they have flower -- flowery print on them that 9 also has red. And so, my concern is this:

10 Your Honor has instructed them numerous times, every
11 time they leave, that they're not to deliberate or make up
12 their minds until the end of the case. When I see a group
13 largely comprised of red, you know, I kind of go the 14 pessimistic route and tend to think that they've already got 15 their mind made up. So, I think the right potential solution
16 is to ask each one of them why they're wearing red today. You
17 know, not to ask just one, because, again, they are all wearing
18 red and so, we can't just rely necessarily on one answer.

19 I know it's time consuming and I know, that's right,
20 we've seen other days, and I don't have the days, where they've 21 worn, I think, blue, and green, and I think Mr. Leventhal had 22 made that -- made a comment to that effect once before and 23 brought that to the Court's attention.

24 So, it's -- again, you know, to me, it -- it seems as 25 though, potentially, they've formed some kind of team. What

1 team they've formed, what decision they've made, I don't know,
2 but I think we need to find out.

3 THE COURT: So what's your -- is there an objection
4 or . . . I'm not sure I understand the legal basis.

5 MR. TANASI: Okay. Legal basis is, is Your Honor has 6 instructed them every day they're not to deliberate or make up
7 their mind until the end of the case. And so I don't know
8 that they've -- I think they may have already done that in that 9 they're already forming teams with one another and they're 10 wearing the same clothes to make some kind of statement for 11 some purpose, for some reason, I don't know, but, again, I
12 think it cuts against their job to be fair and impartial and 13 their job to make their decision at the end of the case after 14 the presentation of all the evidence. Coming in dressed up as 15 a team runs counter to that.

16 MR. MYHRE: We would object, Your Honor. The 17 Government -- whether they discussed what clothing they wore or 18 whether they didn't discuss what clothing they wore has nothing
19 do with their deliberations. They can talk to one another
20 without deliberating. So, we don't believe that the clothing
21 itself would be indicative of anything; it would just be
22 designed to embarrass the jury at some level and I don't think
23 we should be, you know, putting the jurors on the spot over
24 something as innocuous as what clothing they're wearing.

25 THE COURT: So, the instruction is that they are not

1 to discuss this case. They are permitted to discuss other
2 things, but not this case. So . . . I don't know what my
3 response would be to them if I ask them, "Why are you wearing
4 similar clothing?" and they say, "We got together and decided
5 we wanted to wear similar clothing sometimes," what am I
6 supposed to say to that? "You can't do that"? There's -- I
7 can't tell them they can't do that and I don't know what --

8 MR. TANASI: I think the question would be why.

9 THE COURT: Why not? I don't know. That's -- the 10 question is, what else would I say? Just because you want to 11 get inside the minds of the jurors to find out why they're 12 wearing something -- I mean, it seems to me that they're
13 wearing, I think there was either patterns or Hawaiian. I
14 mean, it's kind of, I think, just for fun and we're just kind 15 of watching them and guessing if they're going to dress up or 16 not from one day to the other and I don't see that there --
17 there's anything that -- like Mr. Myhre said, that we would 18 gain from asking them, except to embarrass them and discourage
19 them from dressing and I -- and it's not really anything
20 they're not allowed to do. So, I'm not sure what I would . . .
21 is it just the color red today. Is that the problem?

22 MR. TANASI: It is.

23 THE COURT: Because we saw blue before. We saw green
24 before. We saw either -- and I'm not sure because I was trying
25 to guess, is it flowers, or patterns, or I think at one point

1 there was either gray or flowers. You know, I -- I think -- I
2 don't mind asking them; I just don't know what the purpose of
3 that would be, other than to embarrass them and dissuade them
4 from doing that.

5 MR. TANASI: That's not the purpose. I have no
6 desire to embarrass them either. I'm trying to convince them
7 to go my way in the same way that Mr. Myhre is as well. It's 8 certainly not designed to embarrass them; it's just designed to 9 figure out if they've already reached a conclusion.

10 And I can just list for the record, Your Honor, the 11 numbers that I've noticed. Number 3, Number 4, Number 5, 12 Number 7, Number 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, and 15 all appear to have
13 red, and the red floral would be Juror No. 1, Juror No. 6.

14 THE COURT: All right. Juror No. 12 always wears
15 either a black dress shirt or a creamy off-white could be light
16 yellow dress shirt and I think I've seen him wear one more
17 other dress shirt. Could be someone who just wears uniforms at 18 work and so doesn't really have a lot of dressy clothes, but he 19 does wear -- he does at least wear a dress shirt with a
20 collar -- you know, long sleeve, and button down and all that.

21 Juror No. 2, I think is the one I'm thinking of,
22 always wears that big, long, gray sweater that goes all the way
23 down to your knees, sort of like a '60s style long-sleeved gray
24 sweater.

25 It's not indicative to me just because they're

1 wearing clothing of a particular color or style or some kind of
2 theme once in awhile -- I haven't seen it more than once a
3 week -- it's not indicative to me that they're talking about
4 the case or disobeying any of the Court's admonitions, so, I'm 5 not going to ask them any questions.

6 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: I just don't know what I would say.

8 Because they'll say, "Oh, are we not supposed to wear
9 it?" and I can't say, "No, you're not supposed to talk to each
10 other about clothes, you're not supposed to" -- they'll think,
11 "Well, why did she ask us what we were wearing?" you know, then
12 I just -- you know, I don't know what I would do with that.

13 All right. So, but if you want to make a record that
14 it's happening, I think that's clear and I don't think anybody
15 disagrees, although I haven't seen it more than once a week.

16 All right. So, for example, another case that we
17 have is a motorcycle gang case where they actually have a team
18 color. So I guess if the jury was wearing that color or 19 wearing a rival motorcycle gang color, then that would to see 20 be something more indicative of something that we would need to 21 talk about and maybe question, but . . .

22 MR. MYHRE: Right, Your Honor. There's been no
23 evidence in this case that colors are particularly relevant to 24 anything, to affiliations with any particular organization or 25 anything of that nature. So, again, our position is, is that

1 it indicates nothing other than perhaps they talk about what
2 they're going to wear the next day, which is not impermissible.

3 THE COURT: All right. So let's go ahead then and 4 move on and not waste any more time. It's already 11:12.

5 Aaron, can you please go get the jury?

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

7 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 (Jury returned to courtroom at 11:14 a.m.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Jury may be seated, and we 11 have Special Agent Willis back on the stand.

12 So, Mr. Myhre, you may continue with your
13 direct-examination.

14 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 If we could move to -- I think we finished with 16 Slide 48, Agent Willis. If we could move to Slide 49, please.

17 (Exhibit 182-49 published.)

18

19 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOEL WILLIS

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Slide 49 appears to be an image, again, from Exhibit 17;
22 is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. That's the aerial surveillance aircraft?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. You've time stamped this 12:23 based on the time in the 2 image itself; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. What do we see depicted at Slide 49?

5 A. As is pointed out, Eric Parker, you could see from the 6 aerial. Also, based on the backside of the bridge, you could 7 see the pillars so that he would be in the gap between the 8 Jersey barriers above the west pillars of the northbound I-15
9 bridge and just to show you his line of sight or the line of 10 sight to the law enforcement officers on the other side of the 11 cattle gate.

12 Q. For record purposes, you've depicted Mr. Parker's position
13 as you've identified it by his name on the image itself;
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You've put that there; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The position where you've indicated his location, is 19 that -- in what -- where is that located with respect to the 20 gap that we saw in the previous slides?

21 A. He is just to the south or behind that gap on the
22 northbound I-15.

23 Q. Has he moved position from the previous slide?

24 A. No, he has not.

25 Q. And off to the right, we see some vehicles. And what are

1 those vehicles there?

2 A. Those are BLM vehicles.

3 Q. And if you'd circle those for us, please.

4 A. (Witness complies).

5 Q. And that's where the law enforcement officers are located?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And 12:23, just describe generally the position of the 8 people opposite of the law enforcement officers' position.

9 A. Most of them are still moved up against the cattle gate.
10 You see a number of them in a group that have moved back and to 11 the east side of the wash.

12 Q. Are they -- with respect to the southbound bridge, where 13 are they located?

14 A. The majority of them are underneath the southbound bridge.

15 Q. And the southbound bridge is located in the middle of this
16 image?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. MYHRE: Clearing that.

19 If we could move to Slide 50, please.

20 (Exhibit 182-50 published.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Slide 50 is derived from Exhibit 158; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. This was an image that Agent Swanson addressed when he 25 testified; is that correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. You've derived a time of 12:25 p.m.?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. That's approximately 2 minutes later in time than the
5 previous slide?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. You have some names that you've inscribed on this image as 8 well; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. If you could just describe for us, generally, what we see
11 in this image?

12 A. There's a number of BLM and National Park Service officers
13 . . . it's actually in front of a BLM vehicle, which is facing 14 north. So they would be behind the vehicle if you were in the 15 wash. In the background is the northbound I-15 bridge and I
16 have pointed out there where Scott Drexler would be kneeling
17 down behind the Jersey barrier and the location and the gap in 18 the Jersey barrier where Eric Parker would be prone at this
19 time.

20 Q. So, from the viewer standpoint, which direction are we 21 looking?

22 A. This would be south.

23 Q. And we're looking at the northbound?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And this is from the point of view of the law enforcement

1 officers on the ground?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. This time stamp of 12:25, how was that derived?

4 A. This is from -- I -- BLM officer Salvatore Nieblas and his
5 photographs were time stamped.

6 Q. So it's from the metadata embedded in the photograph?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Now, where you've indicated the images of where Mr. Parker
9 and Mr. Drexler are located, with respect to Mr. Parker, has 10 his position changed from the previous photograph?

11 A. No.

12 Q. With respect to Mr. Drexler, has his position changed?

13 A. No.

14 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 51, please.

15 (Exhibit 182-51 published.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Slide 51 is derived from Exhibit 33A; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Again, that's the Madsen video?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So the time stamp of 12:26 p.m. was derived from the 22 Madsen screenshot here; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. This is approximately 1 minute later in time; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. What do we see depicted on image 182-51?

2 A. On the left side of the image is Ricky Ray Lovelien and he
3 is standing to the left of Todd Engel who is further east down
4 the I-15 -- northbound I-15. Todd Engel is kneeling. To 5 Lovelien -- Mr. Lovelien's left, there's a gentleman with a
6 white shirt and a hat on and a woman in a light blue or 7 white-almost shirt is passing walking behind that individual
8 and Ricky Lovelien.

9 Q. And what is the significance of the individual in the 10 white?

11 A. It is used to time stamp the next photograph that does not 12 have metadata.

13 Q. Is that individual in white, is that -- is that person
14 carrying anything, to your knowledge?

15 A. A camera, it appears.

16 Q. Now, with respect to Mr. Lovelien's position, in which 17 direction, if any, does he appear to be facing?

18 A. North.

19 Q. North?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And we're on the northbound bridge?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And would you describe, for the record, Mr. Engel's
24 position?

25 A. He's kneeling, also facing north, looking over the Jersey

1 barrier.

2 Q. From Mr. Lovelien's standpoint, point of view, is he to
3 the right or left of Mr. Lovelien?

4 A. To Mr. Lovelien's right.

5 MR. MYHRE: And if we could have the next slide in
6 order, 52.

7 (Exhibit 182-52 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Now, 52 is derived from Exhibit 66; is that correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what is Exhibit 66?

12 A. It is a photograph that was found on Ricky Ray Lovelien's
13 Facebook page that he posted or shared linked to his Facebook
14 page.

15 Q. From the viewer's point of view, in which direction are we 16 facing?

17 A. West.

18 Q. And what is depicted in the image at Exhibit 182-52?

19 A. So this would be the opposite view of the previous 20 photograph and actually, in the previous photograph, the -- the 21 woman in black that we had discussed earlier from Citizens
22 Action Network, you could see her stop and hold up a camera.
23 She's taking this photo facing west of Todd Engel in the 24 foreground kneeling with his rifle looking over the Jersey
25 barrier, Ricky Ray Lovelien to his left, further west down the

1 road. The individual with the white shirt and the hat, and if
2 you look over or just in front of Ricky Ray Lovelien's chest,
3 in front of his vest, you could see the left shoulder of the 4 woman with the light blue shirt passing by at this time.

5 Q. Now, the time stamp of 12:26 was derived from the previous
6 photo?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Again, Mr. Engel's position in this image?

9 A. Kneeling.

10 Q. And Mr. Lovelien's position?

11 A. Standing.

12 Q. And in his right hand, does he appear to be holding
13 something?

14 A. Yes. He's holding a rifle, and you can see the barrel
15 down below Todd Engel's forearm. You can see the tip of the 16 barrel.

17 Q. And are they in the same relative position as they were in 18 the previous slide?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Exhibit 182-53,
21 please.

22 (Exhibit 182-53 published.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Now, this is from Exhibit 169D; is that correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And 169D was the -- from -- derived from the PBS Frontline
2 video?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. You've time stamped this at 12:26 p.m.; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. How did you derive the time?

7 A. Based on the next slide, which is a screenshot from 8 Hugh Gourgeon's -- one of Hugh Gourgeon's videos, well,
9 Hugh Gourgeon's videos are not time stamped, but in that video
10 I could time stamp that video by the aerial. So, kind of 11 working backwards from the aerial what's going on, comparing 12 that to the Hugh Gourgeon photograph, and then compare it to 13 this one, the activity is relatively generally the same as 14 what's occurring in this photograph.

15 Q. With respect to what -- what do we see depicted in this
16 image?

17 A. Scott Drexler, which is labeled. He has a tactical vest
18 on. His dark-colored blue shirt. His faded tan or brown hat.
19 He's holding his rifle with his left hand on the -- the front
20 hand guard of the rifle.

21 Q. Now the last image we saw of direct-examination was at 48;
22 correct, in your time line?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that was at 12:22 p.m.; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. This is approximately 4 minutes later?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is Mr. Drexler in the same or a different position, if you
4 can tell, from Exhibit 182-48?

5 A. In general, the same position on the bridge, the
6 northbound bridge.

7 MR. MYHRE: Just for purposes of reference, if we
8 could go back to Slide 48 for just a moment.

9 (Exhibit 182-48 published.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And this was the image that we saw at 12:22; correct, at 12 Slide 48?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: And if you could move toward to 53.

15 (Exhibit 182-53 published.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. And this is his position at 12:26?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. MYHRE: And if we could have the next slide,
20 please.

21 (Exhibit 182-54 published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. At 12:26 p.m. -- excuse me. At 182-54, this slide you've 24 time stamped it the same time, 12:26 p.m.; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. You referenced this image at 182-54 as assisting you in
2 time stamping the previous image; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And if you would, tell us, first of all, Exhibit -- this
5 is from Exhibit 24; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What was Exhibit 24?

8 A. So as it says, after Exhibit 24, this is a screenshot. So
9 this is actually a still shot taken from a video. In the 10 video, which is only a few seconds long, you can see -- well,
11 there's an individual on the right side of the shot. He's 12 walking towards the cameraman, but on the left, you see
13 vehicles passing by, including a white colored it looks --- I
14 think it was a Ford Excursion, like SUV. Right behind that is 15 a dark sedan and then right behind that is a red semitruck that 16 you could see the front of. And I used that activity and those 17 vehicles moving slowly on I-15 to time stamp this based on the 18 aerial footage.

19 Q. And Exhibit 24 was the video from Mr. Gourgeon?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. In this image, we see two defendants; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And who have you identified there?

24 A. Eric Parker, who is in a prone position, with his rifle
25 pointed between the gap in the Jersey barrier facing north and

1 Scott Drexler kneeling, looking over the top of the Jersey
2 barrier to Mr. Parker's left.

3 Q. Is Mr. Drexler in the same relative position on the bridge
4 as he was in the previous image depicted at 53?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And it's about the same time; correct?

7 A. About -- about -- yeah. Approximately the same time.

8 Q. So at this time, at 12:26, this image shows us the 9 relative position of Mr. Parker compared to Mr. Drexler?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: And if we could move to Slide 55, please.

12 (Exhibit 182-55 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Slide 55 is from Exhibit 17 as you've indicated; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. That's the aerial surveillance aircraft?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The time stamp is 12:26 p.m.; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what is depicted in this image?

21 A. In the foreground we could see the law enforcement
22 vehicles, the BLM vehicles and where they're lined up,
23 including push -- or -- I'm sorry -- move -- their location
24 closer to the cattle gate. We see southbound I-15, the 25 individuals in the wash, but on northbound I-15, as I mentioned

1 earlier or in the previous slide -- and may I circle the
2 vehicles?

3 Q. These are vehicles you used to assist you in time
4 stamping?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. The white Ford Excursion (indicating) followed by the dark
8 sedan (indicating) followed by the red semitruck with the white
9 trailer (indicating).

10 Q. And those are later -- those are depicted in the Gourgeon
11 video?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. The video that we saw the screenshot on the previous 14 slide?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: And the witness -- the record should 17 reflect the witness has drawn a circle around vehicles he's 18 identified on the northbound bridge headed east about the right
19 upper quadrant of the image.

20 Clearing that.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Does this image then depict, generally, the position of 23 the people in the wash relative to Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler
24 at 12:26 p.m.?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. As well as the law enforcement vehicles?

2 A. Yes.

3 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 56, please.

4 (Exhibit 182-56 published.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. Slide 56 was derived from Exhibit 25; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And that was from Mr. Gourgeon?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is that a video or a still?

11 A. Yes. This is another video as it says. There's a -- this 12 is a screenshot of his video.

13 Q. This is time stamped at 12:29 p.m.; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. How did you derive that time?

16 A. In the following slide, that is a Gourgeon photograph
17 which is time stamped through the metadata. It's a very 18 similar image. However, in this image is a wider field of view
19 so we could see, as we -- as I had stated earlier, the 20 individuals from the Arizona State Militia in the camouflage
21 gear that are on the northbound I-15 embankment. Scott Drexler
22 is in the foreground on the -- on the lower right of the image
23 in the prone position with his rifle pointed between the gap in
24 the Jersey barrier.

25 Q. So this is approximately 3 minutes later in time than the

1 previous image; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, you mentioned Arizona State Militia individuals. If 4 you would circle them on this image, please.

5 A. (Witness complies).

6 MR. MYHRE: Record should reflect circling three 7 images top left quadrant of the image at 182-56.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. You described them as on the northbound. Are they in the 10 opt-out or southbound?

11 A. They're in the southbound skirt.

12 Q. They're in the southbound skirt. And with respect to the 13 law enforcement vehicles near the southbound, where are they 14 relative to that position?

15 A. They would just be to the southeast of where the law
16 enforcement vehicles would be, but above them, in the elevated
17 position.

18 Q. Now, you've identified Mr. Drexler in this image?

19 A. Yes, I have.

20 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect I've cleared
21 the circle.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. What -- describe Mr. Drexler's position in this image.

24 A. He's in a prone position and he has his rifle pointed
25 between the gap in the Jersey barriers and there's a water

1 bottle in the -- stuck in that gap above his rifle.

2 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could go back to Image 54,
3 please.

4 (Exhibit 182-54 published.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. Is Mr. Drexler's position in Slide 56 the same or 7 different than that in Slide 54?

8 A. It is different.

9 Q. Has he moved?

10 A. Yes. He's moved east down the I-15 -- the northbound I-15
11 bridge and he is now in the -- with his rifle in the next gap
12 in the bridge to the east of where Mr. Parker is, but now
13 Mr. Drexler is in -- he's in the middle of the bridge, where 14 Mr. Parker is more to the west side of the bridge.

15 Q. If you would, on Slide 54, would you draw an arrow,
16 please, in the direction Mr. Drexler moves.

17 A. (Witness complies).

18 MR. MYHRE: Witness is drawing an arrow pointing to 19 the right side of the screen which he's identified as to the 20 east.

21 Clearing that.

22 If we could move back to Slide 56, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-56 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. This is 3 minutes later in time; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And, again, for record purposes, Mr. Drexler, in this
3 image, is facing in which direction?

4 A. North.

5 Q. In which direction is his weapon pointed?

6 A. North.

7 Q. And relative to the three Arizona State Militia people in 8 the upper left-hand corner, which -- in which direction is
9 Mr. Drexler?

10 A. To their south.

11 MR. MYHRE: If we could have the next slide, at 57,
12 please.

13 (Exhibit 182-57 published.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. This appears to be a very similar image to the one we saw
16 in 56; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. That was derived from Exhibit 142?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. An image from Mr. Gourgeon?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Did you use this image to assist you in time stamping the
23 previous image?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. And this time stamp is at 12:29 p.m.; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 MR. MYHRE: And to Exhibit 58, please.

3 (Exhibit 182-58 published.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. Now Exhibit 58 is from Exhibit 51; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And 51 was derived from where -- from where?

8 A. Is a Bundy Ranch Standoff photo album on the Facebook page
9 of Eric Dahlen.

10 Q. This was on Mr. Dahlen's Facebook page?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is Mr. Drexler in the same basic position as he was in the 13 previous image?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And did this image -- how did you derive the time stamp?

16 A. Based on the two previous images, it's generally the same
17 activity taking place in this image and including Mr. Drexler's
18 location, but also my knowledge of where he is in that gap, the 19 characteristics of the Jersey barrier, and also the water
20 bottle that's stuck in between the gap in the Jersey barrier
21 there.

22 MR. MYHRE: If we could have Slide 59, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-59 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Now, Slide 59 is from Exhibit 143; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. 143 was an image you obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So the time stamp was derived how?

5 A. From his metadata.

6 Q. This is at 12:29 p.m.; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. This is where in relationship to Mr. -- well, first of 9 all, what is depicted in the image at 182-59?

10 A. Eric Parker is in a prone position on the northbound I-15
11 bridge facing north with his gun between the gap in the Jersey
12 barrier. Now his hat with the white emblem is turned 13 backwards. He's improved his shooting position by now he's 14 leaning on a backpack or laying on a backpack on the asphalt.
15 Steven Stewart is to his right. He's standing, appears to be 16 looking north over the Jersey barrier and his rifle is leaning
17 up against the Jersey barrier in front of him just in front of 18 his right leg. You could see the stock of his gun.

19 Q. And you've indicated in -- on the exhibit the individuals
20 you have identified as Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: If we could go back to Slide 54, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-54 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. 54 was 12:26 p.m.; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Mr. Parker's depicted in this image; right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. In which direction is his hat faced in this image?

5 A. It's forward.

6 Q. And with respect to his position on the northbound, does
7 he have anything that -- underneath his elbow in this image?

8 A. Just his hand at this point.

9 Q. And just for record purposes, his left hand appears to be 10 under his right elbow?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could move to 59, please.

13 (Exhibit 182-59 published.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. So this is approximately 3 minutes later; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you've described that now, under his right elbow,
18 appears to be what?

19 A. A backpack.

20 Q. And his hat appears to be in what direction?

21 A. Backwards.

22 Q. Mr. Drexler's not depicted in this image; correct?

23 A. No, he's not.

24 Q. And we saw him at 12:26 in the previous image. Is he in 25 that same position or is he moved?

1 A. Are you speaking of Mr. Drexler or Eric Parker?

2 Q. Mr. Drexler was depicted in Image 54; correct?

3 A. Yes. He -- at this point, he has moved. This is -- he
4 would be to Mr. Parker's right, further east down the bridge.

5 Q. Okay. So, from Mr. Parker's point of view, Mr. Drexler is 6 to his right or to his left?

7 A. To his right.

8 Q. And is he to Mr. Stewart's right or left from 9 Mr. Stewart's point of view in this image?

10 A. To his right.

11 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 60.

12 (Exhibit 182-60 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Slide 60 is derived from Exhibit 17; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Which is, again, the aerial --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- surveillance?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So the time of 12:31 stamped there is from the image, the 21 UTC time embedded in the image itself; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. What is depicted at 182-60?

24 A. In the foreground is the northbound I-15 bridge. You see
25 the people standing on the north side of northbound I-15

1 bridge. Traffic on both northbound and southbound I-15. The
2 people in the wash, along with the people on horseback, and as
3 is labeled, Scott Drexler in his gap that he is at at this
4 point, which is in the middle of the bridge, where Eric Parker
5 would be above the west side pillars on the bridge and then
6 also labeled is Ricky Ray Lovelien who, at this point, would be
7 a number of yards in front of the NHP vehicles, but he is 8 sitting on the Jersey barriers and at this point he would have 9 had his rifle on his lap or on his legs.

10 Q. So, let's walk through a couple of these things. First of 11 all, are the BLM law enforcement vehicles depicted in this
12 image?

13 A. Yes, they are. There's a few of them that are difficult
14 to see.

15 Can I point those out?

16 Q. If you would, the vehicles that are closest to the people
17 that are depicted in this image as being under the bridge.

18 A. These are the front of the -- two of the BLM vehicles
19 (indicating) and I also know that by the fact that they are on 20 an asphalt raised area in the wash that -- that -- it goes in 21 here (indicating) and then comes down this way (indicating),
22 but you could see the fronts of those vehicles. So, the 23 forward most to the cattle gate BLM vehicles are not hundred
24 percent viewable in this image.

25 MR. MYHRE: So, the witness has circled just below

1 the southbound bridge, about the left -- upper left quadrant of
2 the image at 182-60 what appears to be some images of vehicles
3 below -- just depicted below the image of the southbound.

4 Witness has also drawn a line depicting where he
5 observed the asphalt on the other side of that -- the area.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Where's -- and just for record purposes, can you -- do you
8 see where the fence is located in this image?

9 A. Yes (indicating).

10 MR. MYHRE: Witness is drawing a line through where 11 he's depicted the fence, which is, again, upper left toward the 12 center, left center of the image.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Now, you've indicated an individual as Ricky Ray Lovelien;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Would you explain to the jury how, from this viewpoint,
18 you're able to identify that image as Mr. Lovelien?

19 A. Based on the Madsen dash cam.

20 Q. And how did the Madsen dash cam assist you in identifying 21 this individual as Mr. Lovelien?

22 A. Because I could follow his movements throughout the dash
23 cam. The front of the NHP vehicle is actually right there
24 (indicating), so . . .

25 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling, to the left lower

1 quadrant, an image just off -- just off screen that appears to
2 be the front of a vehicle.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Is that the Madsen vehicle?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So that would be the position that the dash cam was taken
7 from?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Now, from Mr. Lovelien's position is -- well, let me ask
10 this question. Is Post 1 depicted in this image?

11 A. No, it is not.

12 Q. Where -- relative to the people that we see in the wash,
13 where is Post 1 relative to that position?

14 A. So, it would have been this way (indicating).

15 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing an arrow off the left
16 lower quadrant of the image pointed to the left of the screen,
17 which would be in what direction?

18 THE WITNESS: That would be northwest of where 19 Ricky Lovelien would be.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Now, you talked earlier about where the bridge joins the 22 wash; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Joins the . . . the little incline portion there; correct?
25 The skirt?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. If you would just circle that point.

3 A. (Witness complies).

4 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling about mid-center, lower
5 center of the screen.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. That is where the bridge meets the skirt; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What's the approximate distance -- you described it
10 earlier -- between that position and where Mr. Lovelien is?

11 A. I would say approximately 150 yards.

12 Q. Now, from Mr. Lovelien's position there, is there a line
13 of sight into the wash?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Have you been able to determine that line of sight?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How have you been able to determine that?

18 A. I've walked on I-15 all throughout that area. I've taken
19 photographs from all sides of the road, from the bridge, from 20 where Mr. Lovelien is, from behind him, and including in --
21 photographs into the wash and of the highway itself.

22 Q. Based on your walking that ground and based on this 23 photograph, what would be the approximate line of sight for 24 Mr. Lovelien from that position depicted at 182-60?

25 A. To the wash?

1 Q. To the wash.

2 A. (Indicating). And again, the BLM vehicles would be on the
3 other side of that -- where the road is covering them right
4 now.

5 MR. MYHRE: So witness has drawn a line with an
6 arrow -- excuse me -- from the position where Mr. Lovelien is 7 toward -- pointed at the vehicles that he earlier circled on 8 the image, which would be to the right and -- actually be to 9 the north and to the east of Mr. Lovelien's position.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. From that position, is -- would an individual be able to 12 see the area where those vehicles are located?

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Based on your being out there and standing in that
16 position?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Same objection. He 18 wasn't out there on the 12th.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. He's already explained that 20 he's been out there and taken pictures from various places to 21 see what the view was, the line of sight view.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. You may answer.

24 A. Yes. Again, with studying the terrain and the fea- -- and 25 the natural features there and knowing where those vehicles are

1 and the features of this asphalt area in the wash, yes. From
2 where he is sitting on the Jersey barrier, he would not only
3 have a vantage point where he would see the NHP and BLM
4 officers behind the vehicles, but he would also be able to see
5 Post 1 and the officers there.

6 Q. You said NHP. Did you mean NPS?

7 A. I'm sorry, NPS. Excuse me.

8 Q. So you -- and you've used the asphalt as your point of 9 reference when you went to the area sometime after this event?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now, the arrow to -- that you've drawn to the left, from 12 that vantage point where you've indicated Mr. Lovelien's
13 position, what can you see looking off to the west?

14 A. I can see Post 1.

15 Q. And Post 1 is just, for record purposes, was the --

16 A. Entrance to the BLM ICP, for the most part.

17 MR. MYHRE: And clearing Exhibit 60.

18 Can we move to 61, please.

19 THE COURT: Can I just clarify? When he says he's 20 using "the asphalt," maybe I don't know what asphalt is. Do --
21 do you mean the street asphalt or do you mean the cement on the 22 skirt?

23 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. I could probably do
24 that with the next slide, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

1 (Exhibit 182-61 published.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. So, turning to 61 -- first of all, again, 61 is
4 Exhibit 17; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Again, another aerial shot?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. This is at 12:32 p.m., about a minute later in time;
9 correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Now, do -- do you see the area in this image -- do you see
12 the asphalt that you were describing earlier when discussing
13 Exhibit 182-60?

14 A. Yes.

15 May I draw on the screen?

16 Q. You may.

17 A. Okay. So, it actually appears even -- you know, this is a
18 wash. So, but it appears that there, at one point, was a road
19 that went underneath these two bridges. So, this right here
20 (indicating) and into here (indicating) is actually -- it's not 21 cement, it's asphalt where all of -- in this area (indicating)
22 is all washed out, like, very fine powder sand. So, the -- the 23 vehicles that would be on the other side of the bridge right
24 there (indicating), the three BLM vehicles, are actually on 25 asphalt and as I had indicated, the asphalt goes down and kind

1 of cuts in and then goes down. I used that as a point of
2 reference where I was measuring distances and also taking
3 photographs of different vantage points of the defendants on 4 the bridge and on I-15.

5 MR. MYHRE: So the witness, for the record purposes,
6 has drawn two lines, about center upper quadrant -- excuse
7 me -- upper center, rather, of the image encasing or depicting 8 where the asphalt is. He's drawn another line from the 9 viewer's left of those two lines indicating where sand or 10 gravel is located.

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. With respect to the asphalt, is that asphalt, is it intact
13 or is it improved or unimproved? How would you describe it?

14 A. It is somewhat intact, but definitely unimproved at this 15 point. It looks very old. It looks like it -- the wash washed
16 out at some point, washing the asphalt out and that is the --
17 what was left of it underneath the bridge and in the wash.

18 Q. From your observation of it, did it appear that it was an 19 area that was used regularly?

20 A. No.

21 Q. By "used," I mean vehicles would traverse this area
22 regularly?

23 A. At some point, I don't know, but definitely not at this
24 point when these images were captured.

25 Q. On the 12th of April?

1 A. Right. Yes.

2 Q. Now, the area where you indicated where there's sand and
3 gravel there, is that -- in terms of elevation, is that lower
4 or higher than where the asphalt is?

5 A. It's lower by two or three feet.

6 MR. MYHRE: Clearing the image.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Now, in -- what else do we see depicted in Exhibit 182-61?

9 A. As is labeled, this would be Scott Drexler's position in 10 the middle of the I-15 northbound bridge in the prone position
11 where he would have his gun between the gap in the Jersey
12 barriers.

13 Q. Does this image then, from the aerial standpoint, show
14 Mr. Drexler's position relative to the people in the wash at 15 12:32 p.m.?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How are you able, from this vantage point, to determine
18 that the individual you've drawn the arrow and the box
19 indicating defendant Drexler, how are you able to determine
20 that that is defendant Drexler?

21 A. Based on the previous images, and also the characteristics
22 of the Jersey barrier which I'm familiar with, having about out
23 there myself. That's how I know that this is Scott Drexler.
24 And at no other time was anybody in a prone position on that
25 bridge that day other than Eric Parker and Scott Drexler,

1 especially in those locations, based on all of my review of the
2 evidence.

3 Q. Were you able to determine -- you said you walked out in 4 that area; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Did you go to this position where Mr. Drexler has been
7 indicated?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And could you determine a line of sight from this position
10 to the wash?

11 A. Yes. There would have been a direct line of sight,
12 again -- and if I could circle on the other side of the -- on 13 the other side of the bridge (indicating) where the three BLM
14 vehicles would have been parked.

15 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling just upper center of the 16 image at 182-61.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And if you would draw an arrow of the line of sight from 19 the position where you've indicated Mr. Drexler is located.

20 A. (Witness complies).

21 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing an arrow from the 22 position of Mr. Drexler to the circle depicting where the 23 vehicles are located.

24 Clearing that image.

25 Can we go to Slide 62, please.

1 (Exhibit 182-62 published.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Slide 62 is Exhibit 1 -- is from Exhibit 147; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And 147 is an image that you obtained from Mr. Gourgeon?

6 A. Yes. From his Facebook page.

7 Q. So this image was -- the time stamp on this image was from 8 the metadata; correct?

9 A. No. There was no metadata with this photograph, so I used
10 the aerial surveillance footage to time stamp this photograph.

11 Q. And there was no metadata because this was the video;
12 correct?

13 A. There's no metadata because this was captured from 14 Hugh Gourgeon's Facebook page and it was not provided -- after 15 we served a subpoena on Mr. Gourgeon, this photo was not 16 provided, but it was found on his publicly viewable Facebook
17 page.

18 Q. So, how were you able to time stamp this?

19 A. Based on the vehicles, well, specifically one vehicle that 20 is on the southbound I-15 bridge moving on the bridge at this
21 time when this photo was captured.

22 Q. If you would circle that image for us.

23 A. (Witness complies).

24 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling top right quadrant of 25 the image at 182-62.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. It appears to be some sort of truck with -- towing two --

3 A. Like a tandem trailer.

4 Q. Like a tandem trailer.

5 And that's heading southbound in the southbound lane;
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now, can -- this is -- going back to the previous image --
9 (Exhibit 182-61 published.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. The previous image was at 12:32. This one, according to 12 your time stamp, is about 6 minutes later; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Has Mr. -- if we could go to 62?

15 (Exhibit 182-62 published.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Has Mr. Drexler changed position between 61 and 62 based 18 on your review of these images?

19 A. No. His general position is still the same in the same
20 gap in the middle of the bridge, but he now is resting his arm
21 on a -- what appears to be a blanket, a red blanket.

22 Q. You've talked about his line of sight using the previous
23 image?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Is this -- does this image depict his line of sight?

1 A. Yes. He -- he would have had a line of sight to the BLM
2 vehicles in this area (indicating), including the officers
3 behind the vehicles.

4 MR. MYHRE: And witness is circling law enforcement
5 vehicles center -- upper center portion of the image.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And that's approximately 6 minutes later in time than the 8 previous image; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Exhibit 63.

11 (Exhibit 182-63 published.)

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Now, Exhibit 63, is, again, is a screenshot; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you used this exhibit to help you time stamp the 16 previous one; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Do you see the -- the time stamp on this is 12:38 p.m.;
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Based on the UTC time embedded in the image?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. If you could circle the vehicles that you used to assist
24 you in time stamping the previous image.

25 A. (Witness complies).

1 The red semitruck with the tandem trailers.

2 MR. MYHRE: The witness circling left center portion
3 of the -- of the image at 182-53 [sic].

4 And if we could go to Exhibit 64, please.

5 (Exhibit 182-64 published.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. 64 is in Exhibit 144; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And is this -- this is an image from Mr. Gourgeon?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So the time stamp was derived how?

12 A. From his metadata.

13 Q. And did this image assist you in time stamping the 14 previous image?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Excuse me. The two images ago, at 62?

17 A. Yes, it did assist.

18 MR. MYHRE: Okay. Let's go back to 62.

19 (Exhibit 182-62 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. That's the image to which I'm referring; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. That's the Facebook page?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. MYHRE: Now advancing to 64.

1 (Exhibit 182-64 published.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. So the Gourgeon metadata assisted you in time stamping 62;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes. So this would have been an example of how I used as 6 many sources possible as far as photographs and videos to 7 corroborate the time stamping of each photograph and
8 screenshot.

9 MR. MYHRE: Now if we could go to 65, please.

10 (Exhibit 182-65 published.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. 65 is derived from Exhibit 29; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Is that a Shilaikis video?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. How did you derive the time?

17 A. Based on the Shilaikis watch time that he is reading out
18 at the beginning of each video.

19 Q. And you've time stamped this at 12:39?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. This is approximately 1 minute later in time than the 22 previous image?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. What do we see depicted in the image at Exhibit 182-65?

25 A. This would have been one of the three vehicles that were

1 moved up close to the cattle gate, the BLM vehicles with the
2 people behind it and the people have moved out behind those
3 vehicles so that the vehicles can move out of either the 4 asphalt area or on the side of the asphalt area and they're 5 slowly backing up. You could see this vehicle (indicating) has
6 the lights on the back. It's got the reverse lights on and it
7 is backing up and these people are walking backwards away from 8 the southbound I-15 bridge in the wash.

9 Q. So, in which direction then are they walking or moving
10 relative to the southbound lane?

11 A. They're moving north, but walking backwards.

12 Q. Moving backwards.

13 Do you -- do you see the asphalt depicted in this
14 image?

15 A. Yes. So, this is an example of the asphalt that the truck
16 is actually driving on, the two to three foot drop into the 17 gravel and sand area that would be to the next -- to the right
18 of that asphalt if you were from the vantage point of the truck
19 driver.

20 Q. Just put a line where you see the asphalt.

21 A. (Witness complies).

22 MR. MYHRE: Witness indicating.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Now, with respect to the backup was -- how many 25 vehicles -- well, first of all, we saw the vehicles -- the

1 three vehicles toward the front nearest to the gate; is that
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. How many of those vehicles -- based on your review of the 5 images, how many of those vehicles backed up?

6 A. Well, one vehicle was facing towards the ICP, so that
7 vehicle moved first, that drove -- and it drove straight. This 8 vehicle would have been the vehicle -- the first vehicle, if 9 you were looking at the vehicles above with the wash being in 10 front, that has backed out of the desert and next to the 11 asphalt and has moved backwards. So, there's still one vehicle
12 at this point that is either still close to the gate or 13 beginning to move back far -- to a closer position to the BLM
14 ICP.

15 MR. MYHRE: So if we could go back to Image 63,
16 please.

17 (Exhibit 182-63 published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. This image is about 1 minute earlier in time.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So, these are three of the law enforcement vehicles;
22 correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. They're the ones closest to the makeshift gate?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So which of these -- are these the vehicles to which you
2 refer when you describe the backing motion?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. If you would just draw an arrow in the direction that they
5 move.

6 A. (Witness complies).

7 This vehicle would move (indicating). This vehicle
8 would move out backwards (indicating) and would move and that's 9 the vehicle that we saw in the previous slide.

10 MR. MYHRE: So the witness has drawn two arrows
11 paint -- pointed down to the lower right corner of the image.
12 The arrow to the left is the -- drawn to the vehicle the 13 witness described in Exhibit 65 as the vehicle depicted in 14 Image 65; is that correct?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: Okay. Now, if -- go back. If you could 17 just go back to 63 again. I'm sorry.

18 (Exhibit 182-63 published.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. So, were you able to determine how far -- did these 21 vehicles just keep going all the way back to the ICP or did
22 they stop at some point?

23 A. They stop at some point. It seems that they might have 24 ran out of room to be able to back up because there was several 25 other vehicles that also had to pull back from that area and

1 move back to the ICP.

2 Q. So there are -- there are vehicles located behind them;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And we'll see those vehicles depicted later; is that
6 right?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. MYHRE: Okay. Now if we could go back to --

9 THE COURT: Can I just ask, so are you saying the 10 vehicles in Slide 63 are the same as the vehicle in Slide 64?

11 MR. MYHRE: In 65, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. MYHRE: Right.

14 THE COURT: Sorry.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. If you could, in Slide 63, circle the vehicle you've 17 identified as being in Slide 64.

18 A. So you could actually see, it's got a white cooler in the 19 truck bed of this vehicle (indicating).

20 MR. MYHRE: And witness is circling the vehicle to 21 the -- to the left.

22 Now if we could just advance to 65.

23 (Exhibit 182-65 published.)

24 THE WITNESS: And that's that vehicle now that has --
25 it has backed up more on to the asphalt, all four tires are now

1 on the asphalt, and it is moving back and the BLM officers and
2 National Park Service officers are walking behind it backwards.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to 66, please.

5 (Exhibit 182-66 published.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. Exhibit 66 is from 168B; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. 168B was from a Fox report of April 13th, 2014; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. This is time stamped at 12:40 p.m.?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So is this later in time from the previous slide?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What is depicted in Image 66?

16 A. This is another line of sight example for Eric Parker.
17 He's in the prone position with his gun pointed between the gap
18 in the Jersey barrier. At this point he's looking to his 19 right. He's looking over his right shoulder, east down to the 20 north side of the northbound I-15 bridge. And the BLM vehicles
21 in the background, you could see, they've now moved back. All
22 of them have moved back slightly, including the last vehicle to 23 move has moved back several yards.

24 Q. Now if you could, first of all, explain how you derived
25 the 12:40 time stamp?

1 A. Based on the aerial surveillance footage.

2 Q. Images derived from the aerial?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You've -- you talked about the BLM pullback. Would you
5 indicate with a line the position the -- strike that.

6 Draw a line and then mark it with Number 1 of the 7 position of the vehicles before the pullback.

8 A. Here's that little cut in the -- in the asphalt where they 9 were (indicating) and the last vehicle has moved back 20 yards.

10 Q. Okay. If you would just put a "1" next to that line.

11 A. Next to that vehicle or --

12 Q. No. Next to the line you just drew. A "1."

13 A. (Witness complies).

14 Q. There we go.

15 MR. MYHRE: So we have -- the witness has drawn a
16 horizontal line with the Number 1 next to it about upper center
17 of the image?

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Now if you would draw a line to the position where the 20 vehicles have at this point in time pulled back to and just 21 draw a "2" there.

22 A. (Witness complies).

23 Q. And if you'd just --

24 A. 2 (indicating).

25 Q. There we go.

1 MR. MYHRE: And the witness has indicated a line --
2 another horizontal line above the previous line near -- or
3 under some vehicles that appear in this image with the Number 2
4 indicated therein.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. And Mr. -- you described Mr. Parker's head turned to the 7 right; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. In which direction would that be facing?

10 A. East.

11 Q. Into -- and are any of the defendants to his right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Who's -- who's to his right?

14 A. Both Steven Stewart and Scott Drexler.

15 MR. MYHRE: Clearing the image at 66.

16 And if we could go to 67.

17 (Exhibit 187-67 published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. 67 is from Exhibit 162?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. 162 was from Reuters; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. You've time stamped this at 12:40?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And how did you time stamp this particular image?

1 A. From the aerial surveillance footage.

2 Q. What -- did you use any vehicles that are depicted in this
3 image to help you do that?

4 A. Yes. This silver Ford SUV (indicating) and there's also
5 a -- it's either a light gray or white truck that's passing by 6 a dark vehicle that is on the shoulder, south shoulder of
7 northbound I-15.

8 MR. MYHRE: And witness has so indicated with two 9 circles drawn left center of the image in 182-67.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, you've indicated all three defendants in this image;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. If you would describe for us their -- their positions.

15 A. In the foreground is Scott Drexler. He's kneeling. You
16 can see the red blanket that he was using earlier for his 17 forearm. He's drinking out of a jug of water, but he has his 18 rifle resting on his lap.

19 Steven Stewart is to Drexler -- Mr. Drexler's left.
20 He has his rifle in his hands pointed slightly upwards. He
21 appears to be looking north or northwest, but towards the wash
22 area and the people in the wash.

23 And then in the background is Eric Parker, which we 24 had seen in the previous photograph basically -- essentially in 25 the same position. He's looking to his right, but he has his

1 gun pointed between the gap in the Jersey barrier leaning on
2 that backpack.

3 Q. Is there anyone depicted in this image as standing or 4 coming between Mr. Parker's position and Mr. Stewart and 5 Mr. Drexler's position?

6 A. No.

7 Q. With respect to Mr. Stewart, you indicated he's facing
8 northbound?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Northward?

11 That would be toward the BLM law enforcement
12 officers?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. With respect to his -- his rifle that you've described as 15 him holding, what is his position relative to the barrier in 16 front of him?

17 A. It's above the barrier, the whole rifle.

18 MR. MYHRE: If we could go to Exhibit 68, please.

19 THE COURT: Let's go ahead -- can we go ahead and 20 take our lunch break? It's 12:05.

21 MR. MYHRE: Okay, Your Honor. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So, let's go ahead and take our 23 lunch break until 1:05, or probably 1:10. During this lunch
24 break please remember you are not to discuss this case with 25 anyone, not even your fellow jurors, and please also do not

1 permit anyone to discuss the case with you. If you
2 inadvertently hear anything about the case or if someone
3 attempts to speak to you about the case, please remember that
4 it is your duty to advise the Court right away.

5 Also, please do not read or listen to or view
6 anything that touches upon this case in any way nor attempt to 7 perform any research or independent investigation. If you have 8 a question, please go ahead and write it down even if you're 9 not sure if this witness can answer it because we do share the 10 questions with the attorneys so they can still have an idea of 11 what you're wondering about and try to get that information for 12 you so that it can be presented here in court with all the 13 attorneys able to view it and address it with you.

14 And finally, do not form any opinion regarding the 15 issues in this case until after you have heard all the 16 testimony, seen all the evidence. Then I will provide to you
17 the jury instructions of law that will guide you in determining 18 how to apply the facts as you find the facts to be and then 19 you'll hear the closing arguments from counsel with their 20 interpretation of the facts and how they think you should see
21 it and then you will begin your deliberation process. So,
22 until I excuse you to begin that process, you are not to
23 discuss the case nor form any opinions.

24 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury so they may
25 be excused and start their lunch break.

1 And Sergeant -- Sergeant? Special Agent Willis,
2 after the jury exits, then you may also exit and take your
3 lunch break. We'll just need you back here by 1:10.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Off record till 1:10.

7 (Recess was taken at 12:08 p.m.)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be
10 seated.

11 So when we took our break, lunch wasn't here yet for 12 the jury so we had to wait a little bit and that's why we're 13 not starting on time. But now, my understanding is, they've 14 gotten their food and they have a chance to eat it and they 15 should be ready to come in?

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So, let's go ahead and have them
18 come in.

19 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 (Jury returned to courtroom at 1:31 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
23 seated and everyone else may be seated afterwards.

24 Welcome back. We're back on the record and we can 25 continue now with direct-examination by the Government of our

1 witness, FBI Special Agent Willis.

2 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

3

4 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOEL WILLIS

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Willis.

7 A. Good afternoon.

8 Q. I think we last were on Slide 68. We had just finished.

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: If we could go to Slide -- start with 68,
11 please.

12 (Exhibit 182-68 published.)

13 And if we could move to Slide 69.

14 (Exhibit 182-69 published.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Slide 69 is, again, an aerial shot derived from
17 Exhibit 17; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You've time stamped it at 12:41?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. This is about 1 minute later in time than the previous 22 slide; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. In this slide you have an arrow indicating to a position
25 labeled "Steven Stewart."

1 Do you see that?

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. What does that indicate?

4 A. That is the position of Steven Stewart at this time. This
5 particular photo I used to time stamp the next photograph at 6 which time you see Steven Stewart squatting down or kneeling
7 down next to Eric Parker who is in the prone position. At this
8 time Eric Parker would be to Steven Stewart's left and 9 Scott Drexler would be to Steven Stewart's right on the bridge.

10 Q. So for finding Mr. Stewart from this vantage point from 11 the aerial, you used the slide to follow as well?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you used the slide to follow -- you used this slide to 14 time stamp the following slide as well?

15 A. Yes. Based on the vehicles that are on the southbound
16 bridge in the middle of this screenshot.

17 Q. If you could just circle those vehicles that you see.

18 A. Specifically, these two vehicles (indicating). There's a
19 white vehicle and then a darker colored vehicle with a travel
20 topper on the roof that you will be able to see in the next
21 photograph.

22 MR. MYHRE: The witness has circled the image of two 23 vehicles approximately center of the image at 182-69.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And this image shows, again, Mr. Stewart's position

1 relative to the individuals in the wash, people in the wash,
2 and the law enforcement vehicles at 12:41; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 MR. MYHRE: Clearing that screen.

5 If we could move to Slide 70, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-70 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. This is the slide you described in the previous slide as 9 using the previous slide to time stamp; correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And this is at Exhibit 182-70. This is derived from
12 Exhibit 50?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Exhibit 50 is what again?

15 A. It's a David Lee Williamson Facebook page photograph that
17 page.

18 Q. So this -- since it was on Facebook, it didn't have a time
19 stamp with it?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. What is depicted in this image at 182-70?

22 A. This shows Eric Parker's line of sight with his rifle
23 through the gap in the Jersey barrier. He's, again, leaning or
24 resting his elbow on the backpack looking north towards the BLM
25 vehicles and officers which you can see have pulled back, some

1 of them quite far back, and one of them just slightly back from
2 their original advanced position closer to the cattle gate.

3 Steven Stewart is kind of crouching down or kneeling
4 on the Jersey barrier. You can see the barrel of his gun
5 resting on the Jersey barrier, and he's looking over the Jersey
6 barrier north towards the BLM.

7 MR. MYHRE: So if we could go back to Slide 67 for a
8 moment.

9 (Exhibit 182-67 published.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. In this position, in 67, at 12:40, Mr. Stewart is --
12 what's his position?

13 A. He's closer to Scott Drexler at this point.

14 Q. But is he standing? Kneeling? Sitting?

15 A. He's standing.

16 Q. Standing?

17 MR. MYHRE: And moving forward to 170 -- or -- excuse
18 me -- Slide 70. I apologize.

19 (Exhibit 182-70 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. And has Mr. Stewart's position changed from that in 67?

22 A. Yes. He's moved further to the west, closer to 23 Eric Parker and he's now kneeling down.

24 Q. This is approximately 1 minute later in time from the 25 slide we viewed at 67?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, what you -- can you indicate the vehicles you used in 3 the background to help you time stamp this image?

4 A. Yes. (Indicating).

5 MR. MYHRE: Witness has circled two vehicles that 6 appear in the left -- upper left quadrant of the image at 7 182-70.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. And those, in your observations, correspond to those 10 images we saw in the previous slide?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 71, please.

13 (Exhibit 182-71 published.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Slide 71 is derived from Exhibit 17, the aerial; is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So the time stamp corresponds to what's depicted
19 there?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. What is depicted in Image 182-71?

22 A. So this is an aerial shot of Eric Parker, Steven Stewart,
23 and Scott Drexler in their -- in the positions that they are at 24 on the northbound I-15 bridge. You can see that Eric Parker is 25 prone. Steven Stewart is now standing and his rifle is leaning

1 against the Jersey barrier. At this point, Scott Drexler is
2 either kneeling or crouching down behind the Jersey barrier.
3 The BLM vehicles have continued to move back further away from
4 the cattle gate and north towards the ICP.

5 Q. And this is about 3 minutes later in time from the 6 previous slide?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you described Mr. Stewart has changed his position?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And now he's --

11 A. Standing.

12 Q. Now he's standing?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. In terms of their position relative to each other, are 15 they essentially in the same position?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And this image depicts their position relative to the 18 people in the wash; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And just for reference purposes, where are the law
21 enforcement vehicles at this point?

22 A. They're moving out of this particular frame, but you could
23 see in the top left, upper left they're continuing to move
24 north and into the ICP preparing to de-mobilize.

25 Q. Where -- if you could just draw a circle around where you

1 see a law enforcement vehicle.

2 A. (Witness complies).

3 MR. MYHRE: Witness is indicating circling a vehicle
4 top left portion of the image at 182-71.

5 And clearing that.

6 If we could go to Exhibit 72.

7 (Exhibit 182-72 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Now, Exhibit 72 is at 12:59 p.m.; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Where did you derive that -- derive that time?

12 A. This is from the Facebook search warrant response, the 13 Business Records for account holder Steven Stewart.

14 Q. And this is found at Exhibit 117?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And this is a Facebook entry?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. This is approximately 15 minutes later in time from the 19 previous slide?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. There's a message that appears on -- in this image; is
22 that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What does -- could you read that message into the record,
25 please.

1 A. "It's been a long day. What's up why I have a little
2 earlier with a really high powered scope show me f**
3 awesome."

4 MR. MYHRE: And if we could proceed to Exhibit --
5 Slide 73, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-73 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And 73 is at 1:03 p.m.; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. This is another Facebook entry?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. This also is found at Exhibit 117?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. This entry now you've time stamped at 1:03 p.m.?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Approximately 4 minutes later?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And this entry is from whom?

19 A. This is Steven Stewart.

20 Q. Same as the previous entry?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And if -- can you read this message, please?

23 A. Yes.

24 "First they said they were going to release
25 everything and leave. Then they held the gates to Gold Butte

1 and threatened us with chemicals. Then we pushed forward and
2 they had to back off. They are releasing the cows now. BLM is
3 leaving."

4 Q. And with respect to this time at 1:03, where is BLM's
5 position relative to that makeshift fence that was under the
6 southbound 15?

7 A. They're continuing to move back into the ICP and preparing
8 to leave.

9 MR. MYHRE: And the next slide, please, at 74.

10 (Exhibit 182-74 published.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. 74 is derived from Exhibit 14; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that is the Flynn/Ellis video?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. So the time is derived from that video itself?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So it's approximately 1:10 p.m.; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, this image captured here depicts what?

21 A. This is Eric Parker. He's facing north at this -- this 22 time. And Steven Stewart, facing east. They're both on the 23 northbound I-15 bridge. Steven Stewart is there with the 24 backpack that Eric Parker had been leaning his elbow -- or 25 elbow or forearm against earlier while he was in the prone

1 position. Eric Parker is standing there. He has his gun --
2 his long gun, rifle in front of him. Steven Stewart, in his
3 right hand, he's holding the pistol grip of his rifle.

4 Q. And Steven Stewart, again, is facing which direction here?

5 A. He would be facing east, away from the -- Michael Flynn.

6 Q. Now, you described what Mr. Stewart's wearing in this
7 image; correct?

8 A. Yes. A blue shirt with a backpack, yes.

9 Q. And specifically the backpack?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: If we could go back to Image 59.

12 (Exhibit 182-59 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And 59, you've already discussed what's underneath
15 Mr. Parker's right elbow is depicted here?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What is that?

18 A. That's a backpack.

19 Q. So based on your review of this -- these images and your
20 investigation, comparing 59 to -- if we could go to 74 --

21 (Exhibit 182-74 published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. -- is this the same or different than the image depicted
24 in 59?

25 A. It appears to be the same backpack.

1 Q. And what leads you to that conclusion?

2 A. The color, the straps, characteristics of the bag appear
3 to be the same as the bag that Eric Parker was resting on while
4 he was in the prone position.

5 MR. MYHRE: And if we could proceed to Slide 75,
6 please.

7 (Exhibit 182-75 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. And this also is from Exhibit 14; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. This is the image derived from the Flynn/Ellis video?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So the time stamp is about 1 minute later in time;
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Than the previous slide?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And in this image does Mr. Stewart appear to be holding
19 something?

20 A. Yes. He's holding his rifle in his right hand.

21 Q. What is he -- and what is his position -- where is his 22 position? Where is this located?

23 A. He's leaning on the Jersey barriers but facing south. So
24 to his back would be north and where the BLM ICP would be.

25 Q. So his back is toward where the BLM position was?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. In terms of from viewer standpoint, where are we looking?

3 A. We're looking east.

4 Q. On which -- on what?

5 A. On northbound I-15.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. MYHRE: And if we could move to Slide 76, please.

8 (Exhibit 182-76 published.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. And this, again, appears to be derived from Exhibit 14;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Again, it's 1:11 p.m.; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. That's from the Flynn/Ellis video?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And what's depicted in this image?

18 A. This is Scott Drexler. He is also leaning up against the 19 Jersey barrier on the northbound I-15 bridge and he is holding 20 his rifle against his chest.

21 Q. Now, in -- behind Mr. Drexler's back is faced which
22 direction?

23 A. His back is faced north towards where the BLM ICP is.

24 Q. Now, in this image are there individuals in the wash?

25 A. There are.

1 Q. And are they the same -- in terms of the size -- number of
2 individuals, are they more or less than our previous slide
3 indicated?

4 A. Oh, less at this point.

5 Q. Now, at 1:11, are you able to tell where the BLM law
6 enforcement vehicles are from this image?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Can you draw where they used to be located?

9 A. (Witness complies).

10 MR. MYHRE: And the witness has drawn three lines --
11 four lines, horizontal lines up, upper left quadrant of the 12 image depicting BLM's position before departing the area.

13 And if I could have the next slide in order, please.

14 (Exhibit 182-77 published.)

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Now looking at Image 77, this image is derived from
17 Exhibit 30; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And Exhibit 30 was what?

20 A. It's a Robert Shilaikis video segment.

21 Q. So you derived the time stamp of 1:14 how?

22 A. Based on his watch time that he gives at the start of each
23 segment.

24 Q. And the run time of the video?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What is depicted in this image at 182-77?

2 A. A number of people that are on the north side of the 3 northbound I-15 bridge. Several of them are actually on the 4 other side of the Jersey barrier sitting on the Jersey barrier.
5 Towards the right is labeled "Ricky Ray Lovelien." So he would
6 be on the north side of the northbound I-15 bridge, possibly 7 leaning against that Jersey barrier, but he would be visible to 8 the officers that were still at Post 1 at this point.

9 Q. And in terms of -- this is 3 minute later in time than the 10 previous slide we saw; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. So in terms of BLM's position at Post 2, they are no
13 longer at Post 2?

14 A. That's correct.

15 MR. MYHRE: If we could go to Slide 78, please.

16 (Exhibit 182-78 published.)

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Now, Slide 78 is from Exhibit 156; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what is 156?

21 A. This is Ranger Alex Burke's photograph. As it is labeled,
22 this is Ricky Ray Lovelien, pretty much the same time for 23 timing that we saw in the Robert Shilaikis screenshot in the
24 previous slide.

25 Alex Burke's photographs were not time stamped. So I

1 used the Shilaikis video screenshot to time stamp this
2 photograph.

3 Q. And Mr. Lovelien is in about the same position as he was 4 in the previous slide?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. MYHRE: Now, if we could go to Slide 79, please.

7 (Exhibit 182-79 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Slide 79 is from Exhibit 118; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what is this?

12 A. This is another Business Record from the Facebook account
13 holder search warrant response from Facebook for 14 Steven Stewart.

15 Q. That is -- was introduced as Exhibit 118; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. You've time stamped this at 1:34 p.m.?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. How did you time stamp this?

20 A. It's -- it's based on the -- the -- I'm sorry -- the 21 uploaded time that is -- I'm sorry -- I'm having a hard time
22 finding it. Would you like me to underline it?

23 Q. Where it says -- yes. I see it there, but if you could 24 underline or circle it, whichever is easiest.

25 A. Underlined uploaded time from Facebook.

1 Q. So you've converted UTC to local time?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And is there a title that goes with this particular image?

4 A. Yes, there is. "Going to get the cattle back."

5 Q. And what is depicted in this image?

6 A. These are the horsemen that had been -- had moved under
7 the northbound I-15 in the wash that have now -- are now moving
8 back north towards the cattle gate and the southbound I-15
9 overpass and they would eventually make their way through the 10 cattle gate and into the ICP to release the cattle.

11 Q. So from viewer standpoint, we're looking north; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. From -- and we're looking at the southbound bridge?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So we would be looking toward the ICP?

16 A. Correct.

17 MR. MYHRE: If we could proceed to the next slide,
18 please.

19 (Exhibit 182-80 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Now, this slide was derived from Exhibit 16; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And Exhibit 16 is, again, what?

24 A. It's a Michael Flynn video.

25 Q. And this was time stamped at 1:35?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. So you derived the metadata from the Flynn video to get
3 that?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. What do we see depicted in this image at 182-80?

6 A. So this is taken from the vantage point of in the wash
7 looking up and this is the northbound I-15 bridge. So this
8 would be the north side of the northbound I-15 bridge. A
9 number of people have put a sign over the side of the Jersey
10 barrier that says "The West Has Now Been Won." To the right of 11 that in this frame, as is labeled, Steven Stewart, Eric Parker,
12 Ricky Ray Lovelien, and Scott Drexler standing together.

13 Q. And you identify them by their clothing?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And this is on the northbound bridge; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: If we could go back to the previous
18 slide.

19 (Exhibit 182-79 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Where would this -- where would those individuals be in 22 relationship to this view?

23 A. At approximately the same position.

24 Q. As what the viewer is looking at here?

25 A. Yes.

1 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to Slide 81, please.

2 (Exhibit 182-81 published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. 81 is time stamped at 2:02 p.m.; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. What is -- what is depicted in Exhibit 182-81?

7 A. This is a Business Record from Facebook for the account
8 holder Todd Engel.

9 Q. And this is found at Exhibit 122 introduced into evidence?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So the time stamp was derived from UTC time; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And is this -- did Todd Engel post a message?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. And is this -- does this message occur approximately 25
16 minutes or so after "The West Has Now Been Won" from the
17 previous slide?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And could you read that message, please.

20 A. "BLM lost and has backed down due to overwhelming force of 21 the people and our arms. WE WIN! Cattle being released as we 22 speak. If they don't trouble will start again. It was very 23 very close to an exchange of gunfire. We rushed their 24 barricades with armed people and cowboys on horseback. Crazy."

25 MR. MYHRE: And if we could have the next slide in

1 order, Slide 82.

2 (Exhibit 182-82 published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Agent Willis, at 182-82, you've time stamped this at
5 2:14 p.m.; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And this is from Exhibit 43?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what is 43?

10 A. That's Ranger Alex Burke's video as the BLM is exiting the 11 ICP crossing the median and continuing northbound on I-15.

12 Q. And how did you time stamp this image?

13 A. The video contains metadata that I used to time stamp the
14 image.

15 Q. And this occurs approximately 12 minutes later in time
16 from when Mr. Engel's message was uploaded to Facebook?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is depicted in this image?

19 A. On -- on the left labeled is "Steven Stewart." He appears
20 to be holding a smartphone or a camera and waving or doing a
21 gesturing in some way with his hand. Also to the right is 22 Eric Parker and Scott Drexler who are standing or leaning up
23 against the south side Jersey barrier for the northbound I-15.

24 Q. So this would be on the northbound?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Are we -- where, on the northbound, is this relative to
2 the bridge?

3 A. So the bridge would be a little bit further down from 4 this. So they've -- they've moved closer to the assembly area.

5 Q. When you say "the bridge is further down from this,"
6 are -- which -- from viewer standpoint, which direction are we 7 headed?

8 A. This would be heading west. So this would -- this would 9 be at approximately maybe on the left side of the frame where 10 the bridge would begin.

11 Q. All right. Is this vehicle headed toward Mesquite or away
12 from Mesquite?

13 A. This would be heading toward Mesquite.

14 Q. So which direction would that be from there?

15 A. That would be heading east.

16 Q. East.

17 A. On northbound I-15.

18 Q. All right. So the viewer is headed eastbound?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Eastbound in this frame?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So would the bridge be behind the viewer?

23 A. No. The bridge would be in front of the viewer.

24 Q. In front of the viewer.

25 MR. MYHRE: So to the next slide, please, 83?

1 (Exhibit 182-83 published.)

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. 83 is, again, approximately the same time as the previous
4 slide, 82; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. This is also from Burke, Exhibit 43?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What is depicted in this image?

9 A. As is labeled, "Ricky Ray Lovelien" is standing there.
10 Appears to have his arms, I guess, on his tactical vest. He's 11 looking east but standing on the south side of the northbound
12 I-15 bridge.

13 Q. Is this later in time than the previous slide?

14 A. Like a moment, a split second.

15 Q. So Mr. Lovelien, in this slide, is depicted more east than 16 the other?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The other defendants?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. MYHRE: If we could move to Slide 84.

21 (Exhibit 182-84 published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, 84 is from Exhibit 18 which is the -- also the 24 aerial; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You've time stamped this at 2:50?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Which was derived from the UTC time embedded in the image;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What do we see in this image depicted at 182-84?

7 A. So this is aerial surveillance after the plane was able to 8 get back to Bunkerville after refueling and we are seeing 9 the -- a portion of the BLM ICP after the cattle gates had been 10 opened and the cattle are being driven out of the ICP.

11 Q. It's -- it seems fairly clear, but if you could just draw
12 a circle around the cattle.

13 A. (Witness complies).

14 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling about the center of the 15 image a number of objects which appear to be animals, dark in 16 color.

17 And if we could proceed to Slide 85, please.

18 (Exhibit 182-85 published.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. 85 is another aerial image, this time at 2:53 p.m.;
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And that's about three minutes later in time than the 24 previous slide?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What is depicted at 182-85?

2 A. May I circle?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. So, (indicating), again, this is the cattle being driven.
5 Now they're on the south side of the ICP. They're heading
6 towards Post 2. So this road here (indicating) would lead up
7 to Post 1. So the cattle are heading towards the Toquop Wash
8 and the bridges over the wash.

9 Q. If you could draw an arrow toward the area of the Toquop
10 and Post 2.

11 A. It would be directly south (indicating).

12 MR. MYHRE: So the record should reflect the witness
13 has circled images in the center of the -- of the exhibit that 14 appear to be animals, dark in color. He's also drawn an arrow
15 toward Post 1 at the top of the image and then an arrow at the 16 left lower quadrant of the image toward Post 2.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. And the arrow that you've depicted there, is that the 19 general direction the cattle are headed based on your review?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: Clearing that.

22 If we could go to Slide 86, please.

23 (Exhibit 182-86 published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Now at 86 we have a time stamp of 2:59; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What is -- and this is an image derived from Exhibit 93;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And what is Exhibit 93?

6 A. So, this would be from the Business Records from the 7 Facebook account holder Eric Parker.

8 Q. And in this Facebook account, do we have a status update?

9 A. Yes, we do.

10 Q. And what is written there?

11 A. "We have cows. Happy cows ... free cows ... American cows
12 raised in an open range" -- and it -- "not a cage."

13 Q. And the word "not" is -- there we go.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. This is approximately 6 minutes later in time than the 16 previous image where we saw the cows running toward Post 2?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. MYHRE: If we could have Exhibit 87, please.

19 (Exhibit 182-87 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. At 182-87 we have an image that's derived from
22 Exhibit 122; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you've addressed this previously in your testimony?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Time stamp is at 3:23 p.m.; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you derive that from UTC time?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. So this is about 20 minutes or so later than the previous
6 slide?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what does the -- and who is this -- well, first of 9 all, what is exhibited in 182-87?

10 A. It's the Business Record for the Facebook account holder
11 Todd Engel and it is a message after he added a video.

12 Q. And what is the message?

13 A. "WE WIN!"

14 Q. And is there an exclamation point after that?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. MYHRE: And moving on to Slide 88.

17 (Exhibit 182-88 published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Here we have an image -- or Slide 88 contains an image
20 derived from Exhibit 47; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what is 47?

23 A. 47 is one of the videos from the Sexy 702 Latina YouTube
24 channel that we had captured.

25 Q. And you addressed this -- this video in your previous

1 testimony?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, in this image -- first of all, you time stamp it at 4 4 o'clock. How did you -- were you able to derive a time for
5 this image?

6 A. From the aerial surveillance, when it began -- when it
7 switched from the wash to -- back towards the staging area or 8 rally site, we could see numerous people forming, again, as 9 they had earlier that day in the morning at the staging area.
10 That was approximately 4:00 p.m. The plane stayed on station
11 in that area for another, I think, hour and 15 minutes, give or 12 take -- well, approximately, and, so, this is a estimate of the 13 time when this would have taken place, again, as I could 14 observe the people forming at the staging area. So it would 15 have occurred, based on my review of the video evidence from 16 the aerial surveillance, either 4:00 p.m. or after but some 17 time in the afternoon after the standoff and the cattle were 18 released.

19 Q. And this was Cliven's speech back at the stage; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now, at approximately 2:10 into that video that you've 22 just described you have here captured an image; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what is this an image of?

25 A. This is Ricky Ray Lovelien. He's standing in the crowd at

1 the staging area and he has an earpiece on his -- in his left
2 ear coming down the side of his neck on his left side. He has
3 his sunglasses on and his hat and he appears to have his long
4 sleeve camouflage jacket or shirt on.

5 Q. Where is the stage relative to Mr. Lovelien's position
6 here?

7 A. Maybe 10 feet in front of Mr. Lovelien.

8 Q. Would it be off the screen that we have here?

9 A. Yes. To the left of the frame that we're looking at.

10 Q. You described an earpiece. Would you circle that, please.

11 A. Yes. (Witness complies).

12 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
13 has circled an earpiece in the image he described as 14 Mr. Lovelien about center point of the Exhibit 88.

15 And clearing that.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Now, Agent Willis, were you present at a prior proceeding
18 where Mr. Eric Parker testified?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And was that on April the 6th of 2014 -- 2017?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now I want to show you an image from your time line. I
23 would like to go to 182-5, please.

24 (Exhibit 182-5 published.)

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Do you see 182-5 up at that -- on that screen?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. During -- first of all, when Mr. Parker testified, was he
4 under oath?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And was he shown this image that's at 182-5?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And was he asked some questions about this image?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we'd ask the witness to 11 review what's been previously marked as Exhibit 213. We're not 12 offering the exhibit, but we'd like to address the testimony.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And starting at Page 119, beginning at Line 12, do you
16 see -- and continuing through the end of that page, do you see
17 some questions and answers depicted there?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do the answers correspond to Mr. Parker?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So I'll read you the question and I would like you to 22 respond with the answer.

23 So, beginning at Line 12, was Mr. Parker asked:

24 [Reading] Okay. That's you (indicating). That's 25 Steven Stewart (indicating). That's Scott Drexler

1 (indicating); correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Where is your long gun?

4 A. It's in the truck.

5 Q. What truck?

6 A. The truck we rode over in.

7 Q. Rode over from where, the militia camp?

8 A. Yeah. The camp. Yes, sir.

9 Q. The militia camp; correct?

10 A. Yeah. The militia camp. Sure. [Reading concluded]

11 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to 182-1.

12 (Exhibit 182-1 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Was Mr. Parker shown the image currently depicted at 15 182-1?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And was he asked the following questions and did he
18 provide the following answer -- answers:

19 [Reading] Question: Is this the truck?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And that's Mr. Lovelien's truck; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And, sir, were you in the passenger's seat?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And Mr. Lovelien's was driving?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And Mr. Drexler and Stewart are in the back. And where is
3 your long gun?

4 A. It's in the truck, sir.

5 Q. In the back? In the front with you?

6 A. It's in the front with me, sir.

7 Q. And I noticed, in the picture before, Mr. Stewart and 8 Mr. Drexler, they didn't have their long guns. Were they also 9 in the truck?

10 A. I believe so, sir. Yes. [Reading concluded]

11 MR. MYHRE: Now I'd like to proceed to image 182-14.
12 (Exhibit 182-14 published.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And if you could turn to Page 125 -- actually, look to 15 Page 124. Was Mr. Parker shown the image that is now before
16 you as 182-14?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Turning to Page 125, beginning at Line 2, was he asked the 19 following questions and did he provide the following answers:

20 [Reading] Do you see that (indicating), Mr. Parker?
21 [Reading concluded]

22 A. I'm sorry. Can you say where you're starting from again?

23 Q. Sure. Page 125.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. Line 2.

1 A. Yes. Now I got it.

2 Q. [Reading] Do you see that (indicating), Mr. Parker?

3 A. Yes, sir. That's Ricky Lovelien's truck, sir.

4 Q. And you would have been in the passenger seat?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And Mr. Drexler and Mr. Stewart in the back seat; correct?

7 A. In the back of -- in the bed.

8 Q. I mean, in the back of the truck?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. And you're going toward the compound; correct?

11 A. Towards the parking lot, sir.

12 Q. Across from the compound?

13 A. Across from the entrance to the impoundment site. [Reading
14 concluded]

15 Q. And were you also present at a prior proceeding where 16 Mr. Parker testified on April the 10th, 2017?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. If I could draw your attention to Exhibit 214,
19 specifically to Page 25 -- strike that. Page 24, Line 23.

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to Image 182-19.

22 (Exhibit 182-19 published.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Was Mr. Parker shown this image which is before you at 25 182-19?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And was he asked the following questions and did he
3 provide the following answers:

4 [Reading] Question: This picture, this is you
5 (indicating); correct?

6 A. Yes, sir. [Reading concluded]

7 Q. Proceeding to Page 25.

8 [Reading] And this is before you got onto the
9 northbound bridge?

10 A. Yes, it is, sir.

11 Q. And you're holding your -- you're holding your firearm in 12 this picture?

13 A. I am.

14 Q. And you're wearing your vest with plates?

15 A. I am.

16 Q. And you're wearing your black hat with the white insignia?

17 A. Yes, sir. [Reading concluded]

18 MR. MYHRE: Now if we could go to Image 182-22.

19 (Exhibit 182-22 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. And was Mr. Parker shown the image at 182-22?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And was he asked the following question beginning at
24 Line 14:

25 [Reading] That's you (indicating)?

1 A. It is, sir.

2 Q. And you're walking onto the northbound bridge?

3 A. I am.

4 Q. And you're holding your weapon?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And you're wearing your vest with plates?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And you're wearing a black hat with white insignia?

9 A. I am, sir.

10 Q. And that's Mr. Engel (indicating)?

11 A. It appears to be, sir, yes.

12 Q. And he has his weapon?

13 A. Yes, sir. [Reading concluded]

14 Q. Ending at 26, Line 2.

15 Now, if you would proceed to Page 46, Line 23.

16 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to Image 182-39.

17 (Exhibit 182-39 published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Was Mr. Parker shown the image that's before you as 20 182-39?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And was he asked the following question:

23 [Reading] This is you (indicating); correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Proned out, laying in a proned position on the northbound

1 bridge; correct?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And your firearm is pointed through the gap; correct?

4 A. Yeah. It's placed in the gap, sir.

5 Q. Toward the law enforcement?

6 A. Yes, sir. [Reading concluded].

7 Q. And if we could -- if you would turn to Page 50, beginning
8 at Line 23, please.

9 MR. MYHRE: And if I could get Image 182-59.

10 (Exhibit 182-59 published.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Was Mr. Parker shown the image now before you at 182-59?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And beginning at Page 50, Line 23, was he asked the 15 following question:

16 [Reading] Now you're in a different position here;
17 correct?

18 A. No. Not --

19 Q. Well, you're still in a prone position on the bridge;
20 correct?

21 A. I'm still laying on the bridge, sir, yes.

22 Q. But now your left elbow -- your left hand is not under 23 your right elbow here; correct?

24 A. Yeah. No, it's not, sir.

25 Q. Your right elbow is resting on a backpack; correct?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Mr. Stewart's backpack; correct?

3 A. It's my backpack actually, sir.

4 Q. Mr. Stewart brought you the backpack; correct?

5 A. He -- I asked for it and he brought it over. He was -- he
6 went to go get water and my backpack.

7 Q. So when he went to go get water, you asked him to bring
8 your backpack?

9 A. Water was in the backpack, sir.

10 Q. But now you're using the backpack to rest your right
11 elbow; correct?

12 A. Yes. I asked him for my backpack, sir.

13 Q. And now your hat is backwards; correct?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. So you've moved from -- you've moved positions from
16 before; correct?

17 A. Yeah. Yes, sir. I -- [Reading concluded]

18 Q. You can set that exhibit aside.

19 Agent Willis, you described earlier in your testimony
20 that you -- you have been out in that area a number of times;
21 correct? That area being the northbound/southbound I-15
22 ICP.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in connection with your trips out there you've walked
25 the ground over many of these events we've covered and have

1 been depicted in these slides that we've just gone through;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. I want to focus a little bit on the wash and the BLM's
5 position in the wash.

6 First of all, if we could -- go to Exhibit 182-71.

7 (Exhibit 182-71 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Now we looked at this earlier and this shows the positions
10 of the three defendants relative to the people in the wash and 11 the BLM -- excuse me -- the -- where Post 2 is located;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: Now, if I could go -- and this is from 15 the point of the view of the aerial; right?

16 THE WITNESS: Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: Now if we could go to Exhibit 157,
18 please.

19 (Exhibit 157 published.)

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. Now 157 was admitted through Officer Shawn Cox; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And this depicts the image from a -- of the northbound
24 from the point of view of the officers in the wash; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And if you could just generally describe what we see in
2 this image.

3 A. Well, in the foreground are a number of BLM officers and
4 National Park Service officers who are walking backwards at
5 this time.

6 We had seen another photograph similar to this where 7 the truck that's --

8 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Non-responsive.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. So this is from -- without going into the next photograph,
11 this -- this image shows as they're backing up, you say?

12 A. Yes. The -- the BLM vehicle on the left side of this shot
13 is backing up. You can see the reverse lights are on on the 14 taillights and this vehicle will make its way back onto the 15 asphalt area where the officers that are on the asphalt will be 16 backing up towards the ICP behind the -- this vehicle.

17 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to 158, please.

18 (Exhibit 158 published.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. And back to -- in 158, we see what portion of the 21 northbound bridge?

22 A. We would see the west portion of the northbound bridge.

23 Q. And do you see -- in this image, do you see the gap where 24 Mr. Parker's position was located?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And if you would circle that, please.

2 A. (Witness complies).

3 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling on the left side of the
4 image.

5 Now, if we go back to -- and clearing that.

6 Go back to 157.

7 (Exhibit 157 published.)

8 Thank you.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Do you see the gap for the position of Mr. Drexler?

11 A. Yes. So this would be later in time when Mr. Drexler has 12 now moved to Mr. Parker's right and he is in the gap in the 13 middle of the bridge, right there (indicating).

14 MR. MYHRE: Witness circling on 157 approximately 15 left upper quadrant of the image.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. And you say at this point from -- from the viewer's
18 standpoint --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- is he left or right of Mr. Parker?

21 A. To the left.

22 Q. And if you would draw where Mr. Parker's position is.

23 A. (Witness complies).

24 MR. MYHRE: And witness indicating a gap in the 25 bridge to the right of the circle previously drawn about the

1 center point of the upper left quadrant of this image.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Now, did you stand down in the wash as well in the 4 approximate position of where the BLM was located?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And where, approximately, did you stand in one of your
7 trips to the wash?

8 A. Well, again, I had mentioned there's -- and if I could 9 draw a line -- there's a little bit of a cutout in the asphalt.
10 And, so, going out there, every time I went out there I would 11 actually take screenshots like what you've seen in this 12 sequence of events and the time line and I would try to 13 position myself to get into that same vantage point. So where 14 the first vehicle is, furthest away in this shot on the 15 asphalt, I essentially stood where that right passenger side
16 door was open and I took pictures, but I -- I mean, I -- I took 17 pictures all over the place but tried to get certain areas
18 where I -- I could base my position for that photograph off of 19 other known video and photo evidence.

20 Q. And with respect to -- if you could just draw a line or --
21 excuse me -- an arrow approximately where you stood.

22 A. So, it would have been there (indicating).

23 Q. Where the individual is standing or in front of that
24 individual?

25 A. In front of that individual.

1 So if -- if -- there's the side of the truck
2 (indicating) --

3 Q. So you're standing up where the truck is?

4 A. Yes. I would have stood up where the truck is.

5 MR. MYHRE: Witness indicating a line next to the 6 foremost vehicle in the -- depicted in the image at 157.

7 And clearing that.

8 If we could go to Exhibit 209, please.

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Mr. Myhre, 209, I don't 10 have that at as --

11 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry. For the wit- -- I'm 12 sorry. For witness and counsel only, may we show 209,
13 Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 MR. MYHRE: I apologize.

16 (Exhibit 209 published to witness.)

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. In looking, Agent Willis, at 209, what is that?

19 A. That would have been my vantage point while I captured one
20 of the photographs that I took while I was in the wash.

21 Q. And what is depicted in this image?

22 A. Above is the southbound I-15 bridge and in the background
23 is the northbound I-15 bridge.

24 Q. Now, this is taken much later in time from April 12th,
25 2014?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. But based on your review of the photographic evidence, in
3 terms of the structures that are present in this image, has
4 there been any substantial change to the structure --
5 structural depictions of these images that we see in 209?

6 A. No.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation. He wasn't
8 there on the 12th. He'd have nothing to compare it to.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. You -- this was based on your review of the images and 11 photographs that were captured from April 12th, 2014?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Based on your review of that evidence and your physical 14 inspection of this site, were there any major changes to any of 15 these structures that we view in this image?

16 A. Not that I could see, no.

17 Q. And are you offering -- and you're providing this to --
18 for demonstrative purposes to show what the point of view would 19 have been, in the wash, from that foremost truck where you
20 stood?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 209 for
23 demonstrative purposes.

24 (Exhibit 209 offered.)

25 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 209 for

1 demonstrative purposes?

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Other than the ones I've already
5 indicated.

6 (Counsel conferring.)

7 THE COURT: Any objection on behalf of Lovelien?

8 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 209 will be
10 admitted for demonstrative purposes.

11 (Exhibit 209 received.)

12 MR. MYHRE: May we publish, Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

15 (Exhibit 209 published.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. So, Agent Willis, now the jury has before it Exhibit 209.

18 Would you please indicate -- you talked about the asphalt.

19 Could you show where the asphalt is located in this image.

20 A. Yes.

21 So here's the asphalt (indicating) and as you can
22 see, it's slightly elevated above a very sandy area that's two 23 to three feet below it. And as you can see, it appears that 24 there was once a road that made its way all the way through 25 the -- at least under the southbound I-15 bridge but has been

1 washed out, as you can see, with the jagged edge of the 2 asphalt.

3 Q. And from the point of view depicted in this image, which 4 direction are we looking?

5 A. We would be looking south.

6 Q. And the farther -- the bridge farthest away from us is
7 what?

8 A. The northbound I-15 bridge.

9 Q. Now off to the right of that bridge, which direction
10 are -- would we be proceeding?

11 A. That would be going west.

12 Q. And then, obviously, to left would be east?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Now, from this vantage point are you able to tell, just by 15 naked eye, how far away that -- the northbound bridge is from 16 this standpoint?

17 A. By a -- by naked eye, I could say that it is not very far,
18 that that's -- I could not -- I had a laser range finder that I
19 would eventually use out there and I would use that to get all
20 the -- all the -- excuse me -- all these distances, but with 21 these photographs, it does not do it justice that the 22 northbound bridge is -- you see it does not appear to be very 23 far whatsoever from this point where I'm standing while I'm 24 taking this picture.

25 Q. From the naked eye are you able to make out, for example,

1 vehicles going across that bridge?

2 A. Absolutely. Yes.

3 Q. Now I'd like to talk a little bit about Mr. Lovelien's
4 point of view from his position.

5 MR. MYHRE: If I could bring up 182-52, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-52 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Now, we've talked about 182-52, and I'm clearing the 9 screen.

10 This is Mr. Lovelien's position; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. At 12:26 p.m.?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Based on this image, are you able -- were you able to 15 generally find the area on the northbound bridge where this 16 image was captured?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. MYHRE: And if he could go to . . . Your Honor
19 may we show the witness and for counsel what's been marked as
20 Exhibit 204?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 (Exhibit 204 published to witness.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Do you see Image 204 before you?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Exhibit 204, excuse me.

2 And what is Exhibit 204?

3 A. So this is on the south shoulder of the northbound I-15.
4 I'm standing on the bridge at this point, approximately halfway
5 across the bridge. I'm looking west and I'm taking a photo of 6 the bushes that you see on the side of I-15. There is a mile
7 marker on the left side of the shot. You can see the entrance
8 to the BLM ICP, where that was, and Post 1, and just the 9 general features of the roadway from this vantage point.

10 Q. And are you able to see where Mr. Lovelien's position
11 would have been on this bridge?

12 A. Yes. Generally speaking, yes.

13 Q. And this was taken much later in time?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. But in terms of the structures present in Exhibit 204, are 16 they generally the same condition that they were, based on your 17 review of the images, from April 12th, 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer, for demonstrative
20 purposes, Exhibit 204.

21 (Exhibit 204 offered.)

22 THE COURT: Any objection?

23 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

24 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor -- no objection.

1 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

2 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 204 will be admitted
3 for demonstrative purposes.

4 (Exhibit 204 received.)

5 MR. MYHRE: May we publish, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 204 published.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. So now the jury has before it Exhibit 204. And if you
10 could describe your -- you described your point of view as 11 looking west; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And in this image were you able to determine approximately 14 where Mr. Lovelien was standing?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And where is that?

17 A. (Indicating).

18 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing an arrow.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Do you -- the two bushes we see, did you use those as 21 reference points to help you determine Mr. Lovelien's location?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. And how did that assist you in determining his location?

24 A. I -- I used them in the images as -- in the images from 25 Exhibit 66 that we just saw as well as aerial footage and

1 footage from Michael Flynn to orient myself to where Mr. Engel
2 and Ricky Ray Lovelien would have been standing on the bridge
3 that day.

4 Q. Now, with respect to that arrow you've drawn on
5 Exhibit 204, do you -- can you see where the Post 1 for the ICP
6 is?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And if you could draw an arrow or circle that portion.

9 A. (Witness complies).

10 MR. MYHRE: Witness is circling, about the -- just 11 right of center top half of Exhibit 204, the area where he's 12 identified as the ICP.

13 Now, if we could go to -- show for the witness and 14 counsel only, Exhibit 202.

15 (Exhibit 202 published to witness.)

16 And clearing the screen.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. What is depicted in Exhibit 202, Agent Willis?

19 A. This would be from the vantage point looking west. So
20 towards the entrance to the assembly area from where Ricky Ray
21 Lovelien would have been standing in front of the NHP vehicles,
22 and I essentially used that photograph, Todd Engel kneeling,
23 Ricky Ray Lovelien standing, and I held it up and I tried to 24 get the same vantage point from where that -- that was taken
25 and where Mr. Lovelien was standing that day.

1 Q. And, again, this was taken later in time?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Later in time from April 12th, 2014?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. But the structure of the images we see depicted in 202
6 have not changed substantially over time?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Based on your observations and review of the exhibits for
9 April 12th, 2014?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And does this position -- does this exhibit have a closer
12 view of where -- of Mr. Lovelien's position?

13 A. Yes. So this is where Mr. Lovelien would have been
14 standing but -- and from this vantage point, looking west, back
15 towards where the assembly area was.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer, for demonstrative
17 purposes, Government Exhibit 202.

18 (Exhibit 202 offered.)

19 MR. MARCHESE: No objection Parker.

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

22 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

23 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 202 will be
24 admitted for demonstrative purposes.

25 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish, Your Honor?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

2 (Exhibit 202 received and published.)

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. So, Agent, in the previous image we saw, Image 204, we now
5 have moved -- moved up to the position that we saw at distance
6 in 204; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So at 202, where did you derive where Mr. Lovelien was 9 standing?

10 A. Based on the features of the road, the hills in the 11 background, the sign that's in the middle upper portion of 12 the -- this shot, and the bush that's on the right side of the 13 road on the other side of the Jersey barrier.

14 Q. If you'd just draw an arrow to where -- the position.

15 A. To . . . I'm sorry. To what position?

16 Q. To where Mr. Lovelien was standing.

17 A. Essentially he would have been standing right here
18 (indicating).

19 Q. Right where you are?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So this would have been his point of view looking west?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And just to be clear, we'll go back to 182-52, please.

24 (Exhibit 182-52 published.)

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And this is one of the images you used to help find that
2 spot?

3 A. Yes.

4 So that spot that I just marked with an arrow would
5 be where Mr. Lovelien is standing right now. Again, that photo
6 is more of an orienting photo to orient myself with his 7 location to get a view of the wash as it pertains to the 8 features of the land behind in the -- in the background of the 9 image and also the bush that -- or tree that's on the north
10 side of the road on the other side of the Jersey barrier.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show what's been 12 previously marked for witness, counsel, and the Court only,
13 Exhibit 203?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 203 published to witness.)

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Do you see Exhibit 203 before you, Mr. Willis?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Or Agent Willis?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. What is depicted in Exhibit 203?

22 A. So in this image, just to the left, would have been the 23 bush in the previous or tree in the previous photo on the other
24 side of I-15, but essentially what we're looking at is a view
25 that Mr. Lovelien would have had as he walked up to the Jersey

1 barrier when he came across the frame in front of
2 Trooper Madsen's vehicle and where he walks up to the Jersey
3 barrier, his vantage point into the wash underneath the
4 southbound I-15 bridge where he would be able to see the BLM
5 vehicles parked on the asphalt area in the wash.

6 Q. Again, this photo was taken later in time from April 12th,
7 2014?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. But the structures of the images depicted in this view at 10 203 have not changed substantially from April 12th, 2014?

11 A. No.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government's Exhibit
13 203 for demonstrative purposes.

14 (Exhibit 203 offered.)

15 THE COURT: Any objection to 203?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

19 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 203 will be admitted
21 for demonstrative purposes --

22 MR. MYHRE: May we publish.

23 THE COURT: -- and you may go ahead and publish.

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

25 (Exhibit 203 received and published.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. So we now see -- the jury now has Exhibit 203 in front of
3 it --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- Agent wills?

6 Now, if you would -- so describe the point of view
7 that we see here.

8 A. So this is looking --

9 THE COURT: Wait just a minute. I think --
10 Is it working or not working?

11 MR. MYHRE: Oh, good. Sorry.

12 THE COURT: Oh, okay. I thought for a minute there
13 it wasn't working. Thank you.

14 THE WITNESS: This would be looking northeast into 15 the wash and underneath the southbound I-15 bridge.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. From the point of view of whom?

18 A. This would be the point of view of Ricky Ray Lovelien as 19 he walked in front of Trooper Madsen's truck and we see -- we 20 have seen in the dash cam footage and this would have -- the -- 21 the tree or bush that we observed in the previous image would 22 have been right here (indicating) as I'm taking this photo.

23 Q. So it's off -- off screen to the left as you've drawn an 24 arc?

25 A. Correct.

1 And then Mr. Lovelien, after he walked here
2 (indicating), he would move further this way (indicating) along
3 the northbound I-15 bridge and his vantage point would change
4 and open up and he would be able to see more of what is going
5 on underneath the southbound I-15 and the BLM vehicles.

6 Q. Now you've drawn an arrow in the lower right quadrant of 7 this image found at 203. That direction is east?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, from this standpoint right here before the movement
10 you've described with the arrow, where was that vehicle, that 11 foremost vehicle that we discussed in our previous slide?

12 A. Yeah. So as I had mentioned before, the wash -- washed
13 out asphalt under -- deny -- or in the wash. There's a little
14 cutout right there -- and if I could clear that again -- but it
15 cuts in. The BLM vehicles, the first line started right there
16 (indicating). So the BLM officers and NPS officers would have 17 been standing right there (indicating) on the asphalt.

18 MR. MYHRE: So the witness has drawn a line about --
19 just left center of Exhibit 203 depicting where the asphalt
20 edge is. Then above that line, two arrows. The arrow to the 21 most furthest right was where the witness depicted where the 22 BLM vehicles is.

23 Correct? Located.

24 THE WITNESS: Correct.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And that's where you were standing when you took the photo
2 Exhibit 209?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Now the arrow to the left depicts what again?

5 A. That would have been where the NPS and BLM law enforcement
6 officers would have been standing those three vehicles.

7 Q. Now, as an individual moves to the right of this position,
8 in other words, headed east, does the view of going up the wash
9 to the north, does it increase or decrease as you move further
10 east?

11 A. It increases.

12 Q. Now I'd like to talk a little bit about Mr. Parker's
13 position on the bridge.

14 MR. MYHRE: If I could go to . . . Your Honor, may I
15 show the witness what has been previously marked -- this would 16 be for witness, Court, and counsel only -- Exhibit 207?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 207 published to witness.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Do you have -- Agent Willis, do you have Exhibit 207 in 21 front of you?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. What is depicted in 207?

24 A. This is a photograph of the gap in the Jersey barrier from 25 the opposite side of the northbound I-15 bridge. This is the

1 gap where Eric Parker would have been prone behind and pointing
2 his gun through that gap. And the background of the image is
3 the southbound I-15 and the wash.

4 Q. This image was taken later in time from April 12th, 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. But the structures, particularly the gap and the relative
7 position of the bridges, are substantially in the same
8 condition as they were on April 12th, 2014, based on your
9 review of all the photographs and video evidence in this case?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And this image will -- is depicted from the viewer's
12 standing and looking north across the northbound 15 bridge?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer, for demonstrative
15 purposes, Exhibit 207.

16 (Exhibit 207 offered.)

17 THE COURT: Any objection to 207?

18 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

19 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

21 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 207 will be admitted
23 for demonstrative purposes.

24 (Exhibit 207 received.)

25 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish, Your Honor?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

2 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

3 (Exhibit 207 published.)

4 It looks like 207's up.

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. So, Agent Willis, now that the jury has 207 before it,
7 could you explain, again, where you're standing and your point
8 of view is oriented.

9 A. Okay. I'm standing on the south side of the I-15 bridge
10 over the wash facing north towards the gap where Eric Parker
11 was prone and had his gun through the gap.

12 MR. MYHRE: And can we enhance sort of the center
13 portion of this image?

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Now we've enhanced sort of the center portion of that 16 image that we had at 207.

17 What do we see here?

18 A. Well, as you can see, there's a broom in the gap and we'll 19 have pictures without the broom but it -- essentially I brought 20 something with me that I would be able to show that you could 21 take a -- something straight -- the broom diameter is 22 approximately one inch. So the gap is between an inch and a
23 half to two inches depending on where you're measuring it, and 24 while on the other side of the northbound I-15, I was able to 25 take the broom and aim it and put it in the gap and point it

1 directly towards where the three BLM vehicles were parked on
2 the asphalt in the wash.

3 Q. That position being the position you indicated in the 4 previous slide where you were standing?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Were you able then to point this broom in the general area
7 of where you were standing?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. MYHRE: And may I show the witness what's been 10 marked as 205 as well, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Exhibit 205 published to witness.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Do you see 205?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. What's depicted in 205?

17 A. That is the gap on the northbound I-15 bridge that 18 Eric Parker used on April 12th, 2014.

19 Q. And this is without the broom in it?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And your purpose in taking this point of view was what?

22 A. Just another shot. This is without the broom and to just 23 give a -- to -- just to demonstrate the width of the gap and 24 how much is actually viewable between that gap from the bridge.

25 Q. And, again, the -- this was taken later in time?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. But the structural components or -- excuse me -- the
3 structures contained in this image are in substantially the 4 same condition as they were on April 12th, 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Based on your review of all the videos and photos?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. In evidence in this case?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 205 for
11 demonstrative purposes.

12 (Exhibit 205 offered.)

13 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 205?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

17 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 205 will be admitted
19 for demonstrative purposes.

20 You may go ahead and publish.

21 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 (Exhibit 205 received and published.)

23 MR. MYHRE: And I believe 205 is now up.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Again, Agent Willis, from this image we see the gap in the 1 foreground; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Now, were you able to actually lie down and peer through
4 that gap at all?

5 A. No. This was a -- a -- this particular day was a busy day
6 with traffic and I was not able to lay down.

7 Q. It would have been too dangerous?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Nevertheless, were you able to get up to that gap?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. And from that point of view from the gap, what were you
12 able to see below?

13 A. As I described earlier, very much of the right side of the 14 wash underneath the southbound I-15 bridge. Again, that 15 asphalt area almost lines up perfectly with what you can see
16 through that gap, very clearly.

17 Q. And in this point of view we're looking north; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And we are also looking at the southbound bridge?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you can see below the southbound bridge?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. The -- into the wash below the southbound bridge.

24 A. Yes, into the wash, underneath the southbound bridge.

25 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I show what's been marked

1 previously as Exhibit 208?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 (Exhibit 208 published to witness.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. You see 208; Agent Willis?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. What's depicted in this image?

8 A. This is from the gravel area that's -- that starts off
9 where the skirting for the -- underneath the northbound bridge
10 that leads down into the concrete embankment into the wash. So
11 I'm standing on a gravel area at the beginning of the bridge
12 just on the north side of the Jersey barriers.

13 Q. And what is depicted in this image from that point of 14 view?

15 A. This demonstrates how the Jersey barrier is indented. It
16 shows that the thickness of the Jersey barriers changes from 17 the top to the bottom and it gives you a vantage point of a
18 long -- on the same level as the northbound I-15 bridge but,
19 again, I'm on the other side, the north side, on the gravel.

20 Q. And is the gap -- is Mr. Parker's gap depicted in this
21 image?

22 A. You can't see the gap, but what I did in this image is 23 that I left that broom there and -- and I came down the bridge
24 and took this picture so the gap is actually marked with where 25 the broom had been sticking out of the gap on the bridge.

1 Q. This is, again, taken later in time from April 12, 2014?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. But the structures -- based on your review of all the 4 evidence, the structures are in substantially the same
5 condition when this photo was taken as they were on April 12th,
6 2014?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And this helps you to show where Mr. Parker's position was 9 on the bridge; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Government -- for 12 demonstrative purposes, Government Exhibit 208.

13 (Exhibit 208 offered.)

14 THE COURT: Any objection to 208?

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

18 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

19 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 208 will be admitted
20 for demonstrative purposes.

21 You may publish to the jury.

22 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 (Exhibit 208 received and published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Okay. Agent Willis, I believe 208 is now before the jury.

1 Again, you talked a little bit about -- when
2 describing this image, about the -- how the Jersey barrier is
3 configured.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Could you indicate what you were describing in terms of 6 the narrowing of the Jersey barrier.

7 A. As I had said, there's a variation in the Jersey barrier
8 and I'm just going to draw a line (indicating) to where the 9 thickness is -- it changes on this side from thick to thinner
10 to thick at the bottom on this side of the bridge.

11 MR. MYHRE: So you've indicated with a line in the 12 image. So the portion that we see depicted in this image,
13 about -- you've drawn the line about top center -- top half
14 center of this image.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. So the part that's in the middle, is that narrower or 17 wider at the top and the bottom?

18 A. It's narrower.

19 Q. Now, the other side of the barrier we saw, how is that 20 shaped relative to this viewpoint we're seeing in 208?

21 A. So that thickness changes as well. So if you were looking 22 at it from that side, it would be slanted down. So the 23 thickness on that side changes from thin up -- up top to thick
24 on the bottom as that goes down.

25 Q. Would you draw a line juxtapose to this line that you've

1 drawn in the center depicting how it would be viewed on the
2 other side.

3 A. (Witness complies).

4 MR. MYHRE: And witness has drawn another line
5 adjacent to this first line, again, going off to the right at 6 about right center portion of Exhibit 208.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And the lines you've drawn there is the general shape if
9 you were to cut that Jersey barrier in half?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Again, the viewpoint where you're standing here, is that 12 similar to any of the other videos we've seen in evidence?

13 A. Yes. This is almost the exact location, based on my 14 review of the evidence, of the Michael Flynn video as the 15 people on horseback are making their way down from the gravel 16 road into the wash and moving to the center of the wash and 17 forming a line.

18 Q. So that would be Exhibit -- what's been admitted as 19 Exhibit 10, showing the horses entering the wash?

20 A. I -- I think that's correct. I'd have to check my notes.

21 Q. Now I'd like to discuss with you Mr. Drexler's position.

22 A. Okay.

23 Q. Were you able to determine his position, again, based on 24 your physical examination of the site?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And did you take images of that?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness
4 what's been marked as 198, for witness, Court, and counsel
5 only?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 198 published to witness.)

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. Do you see 198?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And what is that?

12 A. This would have been the gap in the Jersey barrier that 13 Scott Drexler used to point his gun through on April 12th,
14 2014.

15 Q. And again, as before, this was taken later in time?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Structures substantially the same?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You -- you've taken this to demonstrate the point of view
20 for Mr. Drexler at that position; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 MS. MYHRE: Your Honor, for demonstrative purposes,
23 we offer Government's Exhibit 198.

24 (Exhibit 198 offered.)

25 THE COURT: Any objection to 198 for demonstrative

1 purposes?

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

5 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

6 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 198 will be admitted
7 for demonstrative purposes.

8 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

9 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 (Exhibit 198 received and published.)

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. So we see 198, I believe, is now before the jury.

13 Relative to Mr. Parker's position that we just viewed
14 in the previous slides, where is this position?

15 A. This would be further to the east. So to where Mr. -- to 16 the right of where Mr. Parker -- Mr. Parker's gap was located.

17 Q. As with Mr. Parker's position, did you also put a
18 broomstick through this position?

19 A. Yes, I did.

20 Q. And what was your purpose in doing that?

21 A. Again, something approximately an inch in diameter. I was 22 able to set the broom down, put it in, and turn it and it sat
23 pointed directly to where the three BLM vehicles were parked on 24 the asphalt in the wash.

25 Q. And you physically pointed that broomstick?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show Exhibit 199 to
3 the witness, Court, and counsel?

4 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

5 (Exhibit 199 published to witness.)

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And do you see 199?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. And what is depicted in that image?

10 A. As -- as I described earlier, this is the broomstick in 11 that gap pointed at the asphalt in the wash.

12 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, we offer Government's 13 Exhibit 199 for demonstrative purposes.

14 (Exhibit 199 offered.)

15 THE COURT: Any objection to 199?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

19 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 199 will be admitted.
21 Do you want to go ahead and publish?

22 MR. MYHRE: Yes -- yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 (Exhibit 199 received and published.)

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. And I believe the jury now has 199 before it,
2 Agent Willis, and this has -- is depicted here is the broom;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And would you draw a circle in this image where the 6 vehicles were located on April 12th, 2014?

7 A. (Witness complies).

8 MR. MYHRE: Witness drawing a circle center left top
9 portion of the exhibit, just left of the column in the middle 10 portion of the southbound bridge.

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. And is that approximately where you stood?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And from this vantage point here, you're able to get a
15 line of sight to that circle?

16 A. Yes, I was.

17 MR. MYHRE: And bringing that down. We can take 199
18 down.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Now I'd like to talk a little bit about the number of 21 people in the wash and the number of law enforcement officers
22 in the wash from the period of about noon until about 12:18,
23 12:20 on April 12th, 2014. Okay?

24 If I could have 182-24, please.

25 (Exhibit 182-24 published.)

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. We've previously discussed 182-24 as a screenshot from the
3 aerial; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Now, were you able to determine by -- by counting and by
6 viewing these images approximately how many law enforcement
7 officers were located here at Post 2 and extending behind Post
8 2 -- I'm circling this area (indicating) -- at around
9 approximately the 12 o'clock time period?

10 A. It started off at about -- with about 21 officers and then 11 as the line formed and people started to move forward to the 12 gate, we counted 29 officers in that area.

13 Q. So during this -- during the time period between 12:01 and 14 about 12:20 you would have had between 21 and 29 law
15 enforcement officers?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Now, drawing a circle around the middle portion between 18 the two bridges (indicating) where the image depicts a number
19 of people on horseback and on foot, were you able to determine 20 approximately how many people were in this position in the 21 wash, roughly, between, again, noon and 12:20?

22 A. Approximately 270 people.

23 Q. That would include both people on horseback and on foot?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now, circling the entire screen here (indicating), to

1 include the north and southbound bridge, there are people on
2 those bridges depicted in this image; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And during that time period, approximately noon to about
5 12:20, there were people on those bridges; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And counting the people on the bridges as well as in the 8 wash, approximately how many people were present?

9 A. Not counting the law enforcement, approximately 410
10 people.

11 Q. And did the officer count remain substantially the same
12 between 21 and 29?

13 A. Yes, in the wash, that's correct.

14 Q. Now, you mentioned that you'd also taken some distances
15 using a range finder; correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show the witness what
18 has previously been marked as Exhibit -- just for Court,
19 counsel, and the witness -- Exhibit 210 which consists of three 20 pages?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 (Exhibit 210 published to witness.)

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. Do you see Exhibit 210 there, Agent Willis?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What is depicted in 210?

2 A. This is an aerial surveillance screenshot from April 12th,
3 2014. Labeled on here are a number of distances that I
4 determined with the laser range finder after being in this area
5 a number of times.

6 Q. And this image shows the assembly area across from Post 1;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. It shows the wash area between the bridges, the 10 northbound, southbound 15?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And a number of -- where you've indicated yard, those are 13 yards you've determined or derived?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Using a range finder?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And the distances are located -- excuse me -- are measured
18 on this image by arrows drawn?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Would that be the one point of the arrow to the other
21 point of the arrow would depict the yardage?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. I'll show you what's been marked as Page 2 of 210.

24 What is depicted in Page 2?

25 A. So, again, this is aerial surveillance footage. This is a

1 screenshot and it's depicting just a different vantage point as
2 the plane circled around. So -- but also on here is, again,
3 labeled distances of areas between southbound and northbound
4 I-15.

5 Q. At the wash area?

6 A. Yes, at the wash area.

7 Q. And your yardage is indicated by arrows?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. The measurements being one point of the arrow to the other
10 point; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we show Page 3 of Exhibit
13 210?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. What's a -- what's depicted on Page 3?

17 A. Same thing. Aerial surveillance screenshot. More
18 distances and measurements. For these particular -- for this
19 particular vantage point and these measurements, not only did I
20 personally go out there with a laser range finder, but we 21 reached out to the Nevada Department of Transportation to ask
22 them if they had measurements of the bridges so the width of 23 the roadway as its -- the bridges go over the wash and also the 24 height of the bridges, both on northbound and southbound I-15,
25 over the wash.

1 Q. And the height is measured in feet?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And depicts an arrow?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And the measurements between the points of the arrow;
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So the height of the bridge is from the bottom of the wash
9 to the bridge?

10 A. Yes, to the bottom of the bridge.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer, for demonstrative
12 purposes, what's been marked as Exhibit 210, consisting of 13 three pages.

14 (Exhibit 210 offered.)

15 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 210?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Only to the extent that Agent Willis
17 indicated that he used Nevada Highway Patrol or NDOT or some 18 other form of identification for how he came to these numbers,
19 which would be hearsay.

20 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

22 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

23 MR. MYHRE: For our purposes, we don't need the NDOT
24 reference, Your Honor. We can proceed without that.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

1 THE COURT: All right. So he's just offering
2 Exhibit 210 and the numbers that are -- the measurements that
3 were found using his own laser range finder, not any NDOT
4 numbers; is that right?

5 MR. MYHRE: That's correct, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Any other objection?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. Did I hear that -- so
8 what we're seeing is just his own personal range finder;
9 correct?

10 THE WITNESS: Yeah. As I said, I corroborated the 11 information that we --

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Don't refer to NDOT. Just in terms of the image that we 14 see on Page 3, are those numbers that you derived your range
15 finder?

16 A. That reflects my personal measurements with the range
17 finder.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay, Your Honor. No objection then.

19 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 210 will be 20 admitted, all three pages.

21 You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

22 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 (Exhibit 210 received and published.)

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And turning to Page 1 of Exhibit 210, we discussed

1 previously this image shows the assembly area; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And shows the wash as well as the northbound/southbound
4 15?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So in the front part of the image we see 45- -- 458 yards.
7 Would you describe what you're -- what we see there depicted by 8 the arrows?

9 A. So this would have been the measurement from over that
10 first pillar on the west side underneath the northbound I- --
11 I-15 bridge to the entrance -- beginning of the entrance, if
12 you were heading northbound toward -- towards Mesquite on I-15
13 to the assembly area, and marked there is 458 yards. And -- go
14 ahead.

15 Q. So that would have been the distance if one were to walk
16 from this area depicted -- excuse me -- the area where the 17 assembly or the parking -- makeshift parking lot is, the 18 assembly area; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. If one were to walk along the northbound 15 to the point
21 where you've indicated by the pillar, that would have 458 yard?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, we see two measurements between the northbound and 24 southbound lanes; one 98 yards and one 170 yards. Could you
25 explain what the 98-yard measurement is?

1 A. So that would have been pillar to pillar. So standing
2 above the pillar on northbound I-15, that bridge, I could see
3 the pillar underneath. I aimed the laser range finder across
4 the wash to above that other pillar and got a yardage reading
5 of 98 yards.

6 Q. There's also a measurement indicating 170 yards. What
7 does that depict?

8 A. So that's standing in the middle of northbound I-15 and 9 measuring to the beginning or the -- just the ground right
10 before trees, the tree that was in front of or near some of the 11 BLM vehicles that were parked in the wash on the 12th.

12 Q. So looking at this image, approximately where would the 13 first line of vehicles be in this image?

14 A. In this image, they're covered up by the southbound I-15
15 bridge.

16 Q. If you'd draw a line just at the area where you believe
17 they're covered up.

18 A. (Witness complies).

19 MR. MYHRE: And witness has drawn a line right over 20 the north -- excuse me -- the southbound 15 as depicted in 21 Exhibit 210, right center, lower portion of the image.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. And is that -- that's the approximate location of where 24 the first row of law enforcement vehicles would have been?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Would that be greater than or less than the 170 yards
2 depicted here?

3 A. That would have been less than.

4 Q. Now, can you draw a line where the second line of vehicles
5 would have appeared for the law enforcement officers?

6 A. (Witness complies).

7 MR. MYHRE: Witness is drawing a line essentially
8 where the dark spot on the image loops about right center of 9 the image at Exhibit 210.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And is that line that you've drawn, is that less than or 12 greater than the 170 yards that you've indicated?

13 A. It's greater than but maybe by five yards, at the most.

14 Q. And how do you know it's five yards?

15 A. I actually used the laser range finder all over that area.
16 For the point of this demonstrative exhibit, I just used that 17 bush as a point of reference, but I stood on that bridge and 18 used the laser range finder through that all that area.

19 Q. So is it approximately plus or minus five or 10 yards?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: And if we could go to Page 2, please.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, on Page 2 we see, again, the north and southbound
24 lanes; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. From the aerial standpoint; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, we see the number 90 yards in one of the boxes at the 4 . . . sort of the mid -- just upper mid-section of the 5 Exhibit 210, Page 2?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What does that measure?

8 A. So the 122 would be from the middle of the northbound I-15
9 bridge to where the cattle gate was located underneath the 10 southbound I-15 bridge.

11 Q. And you derived that number how?

12 A. Standing on the bridge and using the laser range finder
13 down to where I knew, based on my review of the photo and video
14 evidence, of where that -- the gate was located.

15 Q. So now we see the 90 yards depicted there between the two 16 lanes; is that correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is that 90 yards with the lanes perpendicular to each
19 other?

20 A. Yes. So the -- in the previous slide, the 98 yards -- I'm 21 going to -- you can see that the wash is at an angle. It
22 doesn't intersect. The bridge is perpendicular. So the 23 measurement from -- 98 from pillar to pillar is longer. So I
24 just took a measurement directly across standing and looking
25 directly across leaning against the Jersey barrier and we came

1 up with a measurement, based on the laser range finder, of 98
2 yards.

3 Q. Now, the 122, that's longer than the 90 because of the 4 angle that the wash runs in relationship to north and
5 southbound?

6 A. Yeah. Well, two reasons: that, because of the angle, and 7 also because I'm looking down. I'm standing on the bridge from 8 the north side looking down, which also creates more distance
9 down into the wash.

10 Q. Now you also have indicated there the number 64 yards.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What does that measure?

13 A. That would be from the middle of the northbound I-15
14 bridge, standing on the north side, and pointing the laser 15 range finder in the middle of the wash where the line would 16 have formed of horsemen and people in the wash.

17 Q. That would have been the approximate distance then from 18 the bridge so where the -- from the northbound bridge to where 19 the line formed?

20 A. Down to where the line formed, yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: And if we could turn to Page 3, please.

22 And clearing the screen.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. You described this earlier, but in Page 3 we see distances
25 for the height of the bridges; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the further -- the nearest image is the southbound
3 bridge; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And that, you've indicated, a distance of 52 feet high;
6 correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And you used a laser finder for that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So that would be from the bottom of the wash to the bottom
11 of that bridge?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. The same true for the northbound?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You -- doing -- conducting that measurement you derived 45
16 feet?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And you determined that the lanes -- the width of the 19 northbound lanes is 44 feet?

20 A. Correct.

21 MR. MYHRE: And we can take that down.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, Agent Willis, we've covered a lot of ground, but
24 we've got a couple more exhibits I want to discuss with you.
25 One is, in your review of public source or your review of the

1 Internet of what's publicly available, did you discover an
2 interview -- excuse me -- a video posted by Todd Engel?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And drawing your attention to Exhibit 46 -- and may we
5 show Exhibit 46, Your Honor, to the witness and to counsel and
6 to the Court?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 (Exhibit 46 published to witness.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. And first -- this is in three segments and the first one
11 I'm going to show you, Agent Willis, with the Court's
12 permission, is 46A.

13 (Exhibit 46A published to witness.)

14 And you can stop there. And if we can show 46B.

15 (Exhibit 46B published to witness.)

16 And lastly, 46C.

17 (Exhibit 46C published to witness.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. Now having reviewed -- and you can stop there. That's 20 fine.

21 Having -- you've seen these videos before, but 22 looking at 46A, B, and C, what generally is depicted in those 23 images?

24 A. This is Todd Engel. He's driving in a pickup truck and he 25 is filming a video and speaking into what appears to be his

1 smartphone and this was captured on March 3rd, 2016.

2 Q. And this is the same Todd Engel that we saw depicted in
3 other images in your time line?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Specifically at -- at 182-52 which we just reviewed in 6 connection with Mr. Lovelien; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Now, in the video -- you mentioned this was captured on 9 March the 3rd of 2016?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What had occurred on March the 3rd, 2016, with respect to 12 Mr. Engel?

13 A. He was arrested.

14 Q. And in this video does he discuss his -- the arrest of any
15 other of his co-defendants?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And does he mention Mr. Parker?

18 A. Yes, he does.

19 Q. And does he mention -- during the course of this video,
20 does he talk about the so-called movement or the resistance?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer what's been marked
23 as Exhibit 46A, B, and C and request that they be admitted and 24 published.

25 (Exhibit 46A, B, and C offered.)

1 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 46A, B, and C?

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on relevance,
3 Your Honor.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins and adds hearsay.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins and confrontation.

6 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins. All the previous 7 objections.

8 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, these are offered as 9 801(d)(2)(E). There's no confrontation issues since these are 10 non-testimonial and this is directly relevant to -- to the 11 conspiracy counts charged in this case.

12 THE COURT: So that's what I'm looking at is 13 801(d)(2)(E) and it does meet all the conditions.

14 So Exhibits 46A, B, and C are admitted.

15 Did you want to go ahead and publish?

16 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Go ahead.

18 (Exhibit 46A, B, and C received and published.)

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Again, before we publish 46A, just to set the scene again,
21 where -- based on your review of this evidence, where is this
22 image taking place?

23 A. In northern Idaho as Todd Engel is driving his pickup
24 truck.

25 Q. So it's a view from within his vehicle?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Is -- does it appear as though someone's recording what
3 he's saying?

4 A. It appears that he's recording what he's saying.

5 Q. And does it -- can you -- from your observations of this
6 video, what -- what type of device is he using to record this
7 image?

8 A. It appears to be his smartphone he's . . .

9 MR. MYHRE: And if we could publish 46A, please.

10 (Exhibit 46A published.)

11 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that 46A
12 ran from 0 to approximately 28 seconds.

13 If we could publish 46B.

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 46B published.)

16 MR. MYHRE: Record should reflect that the 46B ran 17 from approximately -- for approximately 23 second, from 0 to 18 23.

19 And, Your Honor, may we publish 46C?

20 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

21 (Exhibit 46C published.)

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Now, Agent Willis, when he refers to -- he says "everybody 24 stay on their toes," to whom is he referring?

25 A. He's referring to the movement as he refers to it.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Strike.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 THE COURT: Sustained without foundation.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Well, you've reviewed this -- this video; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you've reviewed all the videos that have been 11 published in this case; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, you've talked about how you obtained this video
14 through open source; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Anybody viewing this video could watch this?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So when he's directing to everybody, is he directing to 19 people who are watching the video?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Based on your investigation and your experience?

24 A. Yes.

25 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it.

1 Overruled.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Now this was captured on the 3rd of March of 2016;
4 correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. That was almost two years after the events of April 12th,
7 2014; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So I want to go back in time, as we sort of close out your 10 testimony here, and I want to go back to the events of 11 April the 12th, 2014.

12 In the course of your investigation, did you obtain a
13 video interview of Ammon Bundy from April 12th, 2014?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And in that video was he interviewed by an individual by 16 the name of Stewart Rhodes?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Was the interview recorded?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And was it published and publicly on the Internet?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And specifically was it on YouTube?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in that interview with Mr. Bundy does Mr. Bundy talk
25 about the events of April 12th, 2014?

1 A. Yes, he does.

2 Q. And does he describe the events that occurred in the wash
3 on April 12th, 2014?

4 A. Yes, he does.

5 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may we show for witness,
6 Court, and counsel only Exhibit 44?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 (Exhibit 44 published to witness.)

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Have you had a chance to see Exhibit 44, Agent Willis?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Is that the video of the Stewart Rhodes interview of 13 Ammon Bundy?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 Q. And is that of April 12, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer what's been marked
18 as Exhibit 44 and as 801(d)(2)(E) and we also ask that it be 19 published.

20 (Exhibit 44 offered.)

21 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 44?

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay and relevance,
23 Your Honor.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins and especially in 25 reference to this individual Stewart Rhodes.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins on confrontation
3 grounds and terms of who else is in this video.

4 THE COURT: All right. The relevance and the 5 confrontation clause are not applicable to an 801(d)(2)(E).
6 I'm not sure I understood the objection as to Stewart Rhodes?
7 Is that the --

8 MR. MARCHESE: Well, there's another individual in 9 this particular video speaking and that's why we're objecting
10 as to hearsay as to his statements.

11 THE COURT: All right. So are those -- are there
12 statements by Mr. Rhodes that we're going to be hearing on this 13 video that are offered for the truth of the matter asserted?

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, only to the extent that 15 Mr. Bundy adopts them, so they would be adoptive statements of 16 Mr. Rhodes, adoptive admissions, if you will, by Mr. Bundy and 17 the only other words that are from Mr. Rhodes are questions
18 that he asked which are not offered for the truth of the matter
19 but merely to establish what Mr. Bundy is talking about when he 20 answers the questions.

21 THE COURT: All right. So with that clarification,
22 the -- that's appropriate. So Exhibit 44 will be admitted.

23 (Exhibit 44A received.)

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. And I
25 misidentified that. It should be 44A. I apologize.

1 THE COURT: 44A?

2 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

5 And may we publish, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 44A published.)

8 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the video
9 ended at approximately 6 minutes and 48 seconds.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Now, at 6:48 here, the individual who was just speaking
12 obviously was -- and I'm drawing an arrow to him -- who is
13 that?

14 A. It's Ammon Bundy.

15 Q. And do you -- based on what you can observe in the footage
16 we just observed, where approximately is this interview taking 17 place?

18 A. This is in the trailer -- Ammon's trailer that's parked at 19 the staging area rally site off the State Route 170 in 20 Bunkerville.

21 Q. And during the course of this interview he talked about a
22 plan; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What, in essence, did he say about the plan?

25 A. That they had a plan to go get the cattle and they had

1 armed people and militia available in case a gun battle ensued.

2 Q. And with respect to the militia, did he indicate the 3 militia was present?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And from his -- did he explain from his point of view,
6 that -- his being Ammon Bundy's point of view -- what he
7 speculated as to what the BLM was thinking with respect to 8 whether or not shots were fired?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Vague.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Do you -- I can rephrase the question.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. Did Mr. Bundy talk about whether BLM believed shots would 15 be fired or whether they knew whether shots would be fired or 16 not?

17 A. No, they did not.

18 Q. What did he -- what did he indicate with respect to that?

19 Why don't we go back -- if we can go back to 2:48,
20 approximately.

21 (Exhibit 44A published.)

22 MR. MYHRE: Stop there. If you could go back to 23 about 2:38. I'm sorry.

24 (Exhibit 44A published.)

25 Stop there, please.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. So from the segment about 2:38 to 2:45, did he indicate
3 what the BLM knew or didn't know about with respect to the 4 shooting?

5 A. They did not know what they were going to do.

6 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I have just a few
7 moments?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 (Counsel conferring.)

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. Just for record purposes, Agent Willis, we talked about 12 the measurements and, generally speaking, a football field is 13 approximately how long?

14 A. From the end zone to end zone is a hundred yards. If you
15 count the end zones, it's 120 yards.

16 Q. And have you been able to determine how many yards this 17 courtroom is wide?

18 A. I had a laser range finder in here and approximately 17
19 yards. I measured yardage, not feet, but 17 yards by 17 yards.

20 Q. Now, you pointed which -- are you pointing from back to 21 front or side to side?

22 A. Back to front and side to side.

23 Q. Is it square?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And 17 yards?

1 A. Yes.

2 (Counsel conferring.)

3 MR. MYHRE: Now, Your Honor, can we go back to 208
4 for a moment, please?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Exhibit 208 published.)

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. And I think I may have neglected to ask. In 208, do you
9 see the broomstick extending here?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And if you could just draw a circle over that.

12 A. So it's right here (indicating), again, above the west
13 side pillars that are underneath the northbound I-15 bridge.

14 Q. And this is for depicting Mr. Parker's position?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Thank you.

17 MR. MYHRE: And if I could get . . . Your Honor, may 18 I have 210-2, please?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 (Exhibit 210-2 published.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. So we're back on 210, Image 2, and you've indicated
23 approximately 122 yards there between the bridge to where the 24 BLM vehicles are located?

25 A. No. That would have been from the bridge to the cattle

1 gate.

2 Q. Or to the cattle gate. I apologize.

3 A. To where the BLM vehicles would have been located, it
4 would have been 130 yards.

5 Q. Now, in terms of a football field, what's the relative
6 measurement of this -- what you've indicated there with respect
7 to a football field?

8 A. Well, 90 yards. So football field would have been 9 approximately the other end instead of the inner measurement
10 from the -- inside the bridges, basically from the outer side
11 of each bridge.

12 Q. Right. I'm referring to the 122. A football field within
13 that 122; correct?

14 A. Oh, I -- excuse me.

15 So, again, counting the end zones, football field 120
16 yards, so that would have been 2 yards longer, but again, I'm 17 measuring slightly down.

18 Q. Okay. Now, from that end to end you've described where 19 you stood before.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Can you -- from where you were standing in the wash
22 looking up at that bridge, would you -- were you able to --
23 could you depict, clearly, people -- if people were on that 24 bridge, whether you could depict their image or not?

25 A. Oh, yes. Definitely.

1 MR. TANASI: Objection to speculation, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Based on your experience and your training?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Considering the length of a football field?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Could you -- can you see a human image and depict clearly
8 an image at 120 yards?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: No further questions, Your Honor. We
11 pass the witness.

12 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take our 13 afternoon break. I do remind the jury, please do not discuss 14 this case or read anything about this case or view anything or 15 listen to anything about this case.

16 Please do not perform any research or any independent
17 investigation and do not form an opinion.

18 We'll go ahead and take our break until 3:45.

19 Please stand for the jury. They are excused.

20 And Special Agent Willis, you may take your afternoon
21 break as well after the jury exits.

22 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Please be back here by 3:45.

24 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

1 (Recess was taken at 3:31 p.m.)

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

3 THE COURT: You may be seated.

4 So let's and bring back in the jury.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 (Jury returned to courtroom at 4:07 p.m.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Jury may be seated. Welcome
11 back. We've got our witness ready and we're going to begin now
12 with cross-examination.

13 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

14

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOEL WILLIS

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Willis.

18 A. Good afternoon.

19 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).

20 Few questions for you on cross. Okay?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. All right.

23 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could please publish 182,
24 Slide 1.

25 (Exhibit 182-1 published.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. Okay, sir. You see this slide here in front of you;
3 right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Now, in this particular slide you've identified
6 Steven Stewart in this white truck; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And this is Mr. Stewart arriving at this rally
9 or speech area. Fair?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Now, this -- after this speech, it's your testimony
12 that Mr. Stewart is in this truck and heads over to the parking
13 lot on the northbound bridge. Fair?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So the distances between this rally site and that 16 particular parking lot, what would you estimate?

17 A. Approximately five miles.

18 Q. Okay. Now, isn't it true that this vehicle isn't the only 19 vehicle that drives from the rally site over to that parking
20 lot. Fair?

21 A. That is true.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. TANASI: Brian, if we could please look at Number
24 2.

25 (Exhibit 182-2 published.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. All right. And this picture here, sir, you have 3 identified Mr. Lovelien and Mr. Parker; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And with respect to Mr. Lovelien -- you testified
6 to this on direct but I just want to make sure I understand
7 it -- that's an earpiece. Fair?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And the other gentlemen that I'm circling here
10 (indicating), they're wearing camo; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right.

13 MR. TANASI: All right, Brian. If we could look at 14 Number 4, please.

15 (Exhibit 182-4 published.)

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. In this picture you've identified Mr. Stewart;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right. And Mr. Stewart is here (indicating) in the 21 blue; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. He's not wearing camo; right?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. Okay. Doesn't have an earpiece; right?

1 A. That is true.

2 Q. Okay. Doesn't have a backpack on either; right?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: If we can going to Number 8, please.

6 (Exhibit 182-8 published.)

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. All right. Again, in this particular picture more folks
9 in camo that I'm circling; right (indicating)?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Another individual here (indicating) in camo; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And -- okay. If we could now go to Number 14, please.

14 (Exhibit 182-14 published.)

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. All right. In this picture you've identified Mr. Stewart
17 here in the back of this truck (indicating); correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. All right. Now this truck is in front of NHP; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Because this is NHP dash cam; right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. This truck is actually pulling off to the side
24 of the road; correct?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 Q. Complying with NHP; correct?

2 A. It's moving out of NHP's way, yes.

3 Q. Correct.

4 And, again, this would be roughly covering the five
5 mile or part of the five-mile distance in between that first
6 rally site we talked about and then ultimately the parking lot;
7 correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 MR. TANASI: All right. Number 15, please, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 182-15 published.)

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. This particular individual here (indicating), we've talked
13 about him. He's Todd Engel; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Now, this -- this individual here (indicating), he 16 has kind of beige pants on; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And then he's got kind of this tactical vest on;
19 right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. That you called it?

22 And he's kind of -- beige hat; right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And this is not quite at the northbound bridge over
25 the wash area yet; this is kind of right at the ICP; right?

1 A. Across from the ICP, yes.

2 Q. And this individual, he was not in the vehicle with
3 Steven Stewart; right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And you'd agree with me that Steven Stewart is dressed a
6 lot differently than this gentleman; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right.

9 MR. TANASI: Can we go to 16, please, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 182-16 published.)

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. All right. In this particular picture the head that I'm 13 circling here (indicating) is Sheriff Lombardo; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. Now, behind Sheriff Lombardo, is there another
16 law enforcement officer here that I'm circling (indicating), if 17 you know?

18 A. Yes. That appears to be another law enforcement officer.

19 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lombardo's speaking with, is it Ammon here
20 that I'm circling (indicating)?

21 A. That's Dave Bundy.

22 Q. I apologize. Dave Bundy; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right. And so this conversation is happening where,
25 roughly at the -- just outside of the parking lot area?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And they're not making any arrests right now;
3 right?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. All right.

6 MR. TANASI: Go to 18, please, Brian.

7 (Exhibit 182-18 published.)

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right. In this picture here, this individual I'm 10 circling (indicating), he's with Metro; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. And the person that he has his back to is 13 Eric Parker; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. And, however, looking at Eric Parker are -- is 16 this individual here (indicating); correct?

17 A. Um, he would -- he would be facing east -- I don't know if 18 he's exactly looking at Eric Parker but definitely turned 19 towards Eric Parker.

20 Q. Okay. He's in that direction?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Or at least looking toward that direction; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And he's not arresting anybody in this area;
25 correct?

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor, as to
2 arrests.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to -- it goes to 4 negate the charges in this case. The Government has alleged
5 conduct that warrants arrest. In this case, this conduct
6 that's occurring --

7 MR. MYHRE: Object to this --

8 MR. TANASI: -- is not triggering an arrest.

9 THE COURT: Objection is sustained.

10 MR. TANASI: Okay.

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. This officer that I'm circling here (indicating), does he 13 appear to be stopping traffic?

14 A. That's what it appears to be.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. TANASI: All right. If we can go to 20, please.

18 (Exhibit 182-20 published.)

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. All right. So, here, again, Steven Stewart (indicating);
21 right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Same blue jeans, blue shirt; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And no camo; right?

1 A. No.

2 Q. No earpiece; right?

3 A. Not that I can see.

4 Q. Okay. No binoculars in his hands; right?

8 MR. TANASI: 21, please, Brian.

9 (Exhibit 182-21 published.)

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Steven Stewart again (indicating)?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Steven Stewart has no binoculars that you can see;
14 correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. He has the same outfit, same blue; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Again, no camo; right?

19 A. Correct.

20 MR. TANASI: Go to 25, please.

21 (Exhibit 182-25 published.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. All right. In this particular picture here, again, we see
24 Steven Stewart that I've circled (indicating); right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Now, his -- he has no binoculars; right?

2 A. Not that I could see.

3 Q. No backpack; right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. He is holding his gun; correct?

6 A. Yes, he is.

7 Q. Okay. Now, the barrel of that gun, would you agree with 8 me is about right here (indicating), maybe even less than that,
9 over the Jersey barrier. Fair?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. In fact, you just barely see the shadow of it right
12 here (indicating); correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. All right. And, again, he's kind of down; right, on his 15 knees?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. This individual next to him (indicating), do
18 you see him there that I circled? The white shirt?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. This individual, he appears to be holding something
21 in his hand; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Appears to be maybe a camera?

24 A. It's possible, yes.

25 Q. Possibly a range finder?

1 A. Possibly.

2 Q. Okay. And he's also on his knees; right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And then this individual here (indicating), we just
5 see the top of his head. You also see that he appears to be 6 kind of on his knees as well; right?

7 A. It appears that he's crouching on his knees, yes.

8 MR. TANASI: Brian, if we could go to . . . and 9 again, with this picture, we don't see Mr. Stewart with an 10 earpiece; right?

11 THE WITNESS: Correct.

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. Okay. And, again, no backpack; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. All right.

16 MR. TANASI: Can we go to 27, please, Brian.

17 (Exhibit 182-27 published.)

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. All right. Again, another picture of Steven Stewart
20 (indicating) kind of crouched down; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Again, his gun is pointing down here (indicating);
23 correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Into the Jersey barrier; right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And below the Jersey barrier's top; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Again, no backpack; right?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. No binoculars; right?

7 A. Not that I could see.

8 Q. No earpiece; right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. All right.

11 MR. TANASI: 28, please, Brian.

12 (Exhibit 182-28 published.)

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. All right. So, this particular picture here,
15 Steven Stewart is kind of back here (indicating); right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. And he's also, again, next to the guy in the 18 white who is kind of crouched down as well; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right. And in this picture his gun appears to be at 21 least below the Jersey barrier; right?

22 A. Yes. I don't see it above the Jersey barrier.

23 Q. Okay. Which would mean it's below the Jersey barrier;
24 right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. No earpiece in this picture; right?

2 A. Not that I could see.

3 Q. No camo; right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. No backpack; right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. All right. And in this picture, no Scott Drexler either;
8 right?

9 A. I don't see him, but I could see the end of his gun in
10 this picture.

11 Q. But you haven't identified that?

12 A. Not in this, but I did point it out while we were going
13 over this exhibit.

14 Q. Okay. But you don't see him. Where do you -- where do
15 you see Scott Drexler in this picture, sir?

16 A. So may I draw on the picture?

17 Q. Sure.

18 A. So there's his shadow (indicating) and there is the end of 19 his gun (indicating), and then also in the previous photo,
20 where you had also pointed out the guy in the white, the guy in 21 the red shirt is actually the News 8 photographer with the 22 camera, so that would have been from that vantage point and 23 Mr. Drexler is in there and also with other photographs I could 24 tell that he's to Mr. Parker's left.

25 Q. Right. That's your testimony, but you didn't draw the

1 little yellow arrow that I identified Mr. Drexler with though;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lovelien, he's not in this picture either;
5 correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. All right.

8 MR. TANASI: Go to 32, please.

9 (Exhibit 182-32 published.)

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Okay. So, in 32, sir, you've identified Steven Stewart
12 here (indicating); correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. His gun, where is his gun, if you're able to 15 identify that?

16 A. I can't see it from this vantage point.

17 Q. Okay. Fair to say -- well, if you can't see it, fair to 18 say it's at least below the top of this car (indicating);
19 right?

20 A. Yes. That's fair to say.

21 Q. Fair to say that it's probably even below that and below
22 the Jersey barrier? Fair to say?

23 A. I don't -- I don't know that from looking at this picture.

24 Q. Okay. And kind of coming off of this red line that I drew
25 (indicating), he's turned away from the Jersey barrier; right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. You don't see an earpiece; correct?

3 A. Not in this picture, no.

4 Q. No backpack; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 MR. TANASI: All right. If we could go to -- if we
7 could just go back to 31, please, Brian.

8 (Exhibit 182-31 published.)

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. All right. So in this picture you've identified this 11 person (indicating) that I've circled as Steven Stewart;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. Steven Stewart, as we've established, he's 15 wearing blue; right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Would you agree with me that the person that I've circled
18 doesn't appear to have a shade of blue on?

19 A. I can't see from this vantage point -- or this image, but 20 tracking Steven Stewart, you know, he -- he is crouching down.
21 He's standing up throughout this video. So that's who I, based 22 on my investigation for this frame, believe is Steven Stewart
23 in this photograph.

24 Q. Right. But as we've identified prior to this, there's 25 other individuals who were crouching down; correct?

1 A. Yes, in the area.

2 Q. In the area; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And so that could be one of those other individuals.
5 Fair?

6 A. I -- I don't think that's likely.

7 Q. You don't think --

8 A. But there is other individuals in the area crouching down.

9 Q. Understood. And you'd agree with me that the person that
10 you've identified as Steven Stewart that I'm circling here
11 (indicating) doesn't appear to have blue on?

12 A. I can't tell from this picture.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. TANASI: Brian, 33, please.

15 (Exhibit 182-33 published.)

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. In this particular picture you've identified
18 Eric Parker; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. No Steven Stewart; right?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. All right.

23 MR. TANASI: If you could, Brian, please go to 36.

24 (Exhibit 182-36 published.)

25 BY MR. TANASI:

1 Q. All right. Here again you've identified Mr. Stewart
2 (indicating); right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. He appears to be crossing traffic; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Again, he appears to be walking away from the 7 northbound bridge over the -- over the wash area; correct?

8 A. He's either moving fast or running in this video.

9 Q. Right. Again, there's traffic on the road; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. TANASI: 37, please, Brian.

13 (Exhibit 182-37 published.)

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. All right. So in this particular picture, this lady that 16 I'm circling here, she's crouched down; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And in this particular picture, we don't see
19 Steven Stewart; right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right.

22 MR. TANASI: 39, please, Brian.

23 (Exhibit 182-39 published.)

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. She's crouched down; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. In this particular picture we don't see
6 Steven Stewart; right?

7 A. Correct.

8 MR. TANASI: All right. 41, please, Brian.

9 (Exhibit 182-41 published.)

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Again, another angle kind of what we've looked at a few
12 times, but crouched down, the lady in the pink and black
13 (indicating); correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. This person back here (indicating), he's kind of 16 crouched down too; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. TANASI: Go to 43, please, Brian.

20 (Exhibit 182-43 published.)

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. All right. Here (indicating) we have NHP; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right. And then I'm circling another individual
25 (indicating) also with NHP; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. And this is on the northbound bridge; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And we've seen pictures of Steven Stewart; right? On this
5 bridge; right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Somewhere down kind of in this area (indicating);
8 right?

9 A. At this time he wouldn't be on the bridge, but yes, he was 10 in that area in other photographs.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. TANASI: 45, please, Brian.

13 (Exhibit 182-45 published.)

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. Okay. Again, no Steven Stewart in this particular
16 picture. Fair?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. This individual here (indicating), blue shirt;
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Dark hat; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Crouching down or bending down; correct?

24 A. He seems to just be leaning down looking into his camera.

25 Q. Okay. And then again we see the gentleman with the white

1 shirt (indicating); correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And, again, he has -- appears to have something in his
4 hands. Fair?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. TANASI: 47, please, Brian.

8 (Exhibit 182-47 published.)

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. All right. Again, more folks crouching down. Lady in the

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. This lady here (indicating) with the blue shirt and the 14 white hat; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Again, the other individual with the blue shirt
17 (indicating), cameraman; right? Crouched down?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Dark hat; correct?

20 Okay. This person here (indicating) also kind of 21 hunched over a little. Fair?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. No Steven Stewart in this picture; right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 MR. TANASI: 50, please, Brian.

1 (Exhibit 182-50 published.)

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. TANASI: 53, please, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 182-53 published.)

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. Okay. Again, crouching down over here (indicating), you
13 agree with me, cameraman? Same cameraman, different angle?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Same gal in the blue that we circled earlier
16 (indicating)?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Kind of crouching down; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right.

21 MR. TANASI: 56, please, Brian.

22 (Exhibit 182-56 published.)

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. Right, but he's not wearing it; right?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay. No binoculars in Mr. Stewart's hand; right?

2 A. Not that I can see.

3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. And you have that at 12:39. Fair?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. And, again, this is not right up against the

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. Okay. In this picture you -- what time do you have this 6 mobile upload occurring? I think you have it at 1:34. Is
7 that --

8 A. Right.

9 Q. -- about right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that's from the UTC time off of the post?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And in this picture the cowboys are kind of -- they're 14 riding their horses up the wash; right?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. All right. Steven Stewart's not on any of those horses;
17 right?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. TANASI: Go to 81, please, Brian.

21 (Exhibit 182-81 published.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. All right. So in this particular picture, this is not --
24 this post here -- I apologize -- this is not Steven Stewart;
25 correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. This is Todd Engel; right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And we've seen no pictures of Steven Stewart and
5 Todd Engel together; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. All right.

8 MR. TANASI: 82, please, Brian.

9 (Exhibit 182-82 published.)

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. All right. In this picture we see Steven again about
12 2:14; right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. I've got him circled here (indicating); correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And he's kind of got his camera out (indicating);
17 right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. He's not pointing a weapon; right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Not holding a weapon; right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Don't see a gun in that picture; right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay. No earpiece; right?

1 A. Not that I could see.

2 MR. TANASI: All right. 84, please, Brian.

3 (Exhibit 182-84 published.)

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. All right. And this picture is when the cattle are being 6 released; right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Cattle driven out of the ICP; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right.

11 MR. TANASI: Now, Brian, if we could go back to 73 --
12 oh, hold on one second. I apologize.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. And this is at 2:50 p.m.; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MR. TANASI: All right. If we can go back to 73.

17 (Exhibit 182-73 published.)

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. All right. Steven Stewart's post; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. And this is at 1:03; right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And he says, "First they said they were going to release
24 everything and leave"; correct?

25 A. That's what that post says, yes.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. TANASI: And then if we can about go back to 84,
3 please.

4 (Exhibit 182-84 published.)

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. Now they're releasing the cattle at 2:50; correct?

7 A. When you say "they," who are you speaking of?

8 Q. BLM.

9 A. Are you asking me if the BLM are releasing the cattle?

10 Q. Let me ask you this way. The cattle are being released
11 now at 2:50?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Over an hour or so later, over an hour or so after 14 that post we just looked at from Steven Stewart?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right.

17 MR. TANASI: If we could go now, Brian, to 82,
18 please.

19 (Exhibit 182-82 published.)

20 I apologize. We did that one already. Let's go 88.

21 (Exhibit 182-88 published.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. Okay. In this particular picture we see Mr. Lovelien;
24 right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. He's got an earpiece; right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Again, we've seen no pictures of Steven Stewart
4 with an earpiece. Fair?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. All right. And this is at 4:00 p.m.; correct?

7 A. Approximately, yes.

8 Q. All right. And Steven Stewart's not in this picture;
9 correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. And you have -- through all of the evidence that you've 12 reviewed, you'd agree with me that there's no picture of 13 Steven Stewart in this area at 4:00 p.m. on that day. Fair?

14 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. It's beyond the 15 scope of direct and he was referring to the entire 16 investigation. There's no foundation.

17 MR. TANASI: I can keep it confined to this summary.

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. This is a -- this is a summary, this is your time line of 20 events in this case; correct? Fair?

21 A. A summary time line, yes.

22 Q. All right. And so it comprises what is important in this
23 case. Fair?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And in this 88-page slide show that we've looked

1 at, there's not one picture of Steven Stewart in this area at 2 4:00 p.m. Fair?

3 A. That is correct.

4 Q. All right. We listened to Todd Engel, Exhibit 46B,
5 indicating -- and it was a video from his car on or about
6 March of 2016; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. He referenced gun battles; right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. There were no gun battles; correct?

11 A. No.

12 Q. All right.

13 MR. TANASI: Thank you. Nothing further.

14

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOEL WILLIS

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Good afternoon, Agent Willis.

18 A. Good afternoon.

19 Q. My name is Shawn Perez. I represent Ricky Lovelien.

20 MR. PEREZ: Brian, can you bring up 182, please, and 21 go to Slide 30.

22 (Exhibit 182-30 published.)

23 Go up to -- go up . . .

24 BY MR. PEREZ:

25 Q. Now, this was posted by Mr. Engel -- excuse me -- at

1 approximately 12:04?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So now from the videos and the still photographs
4 and things that we've seen, Mr. Engel was in the vicinity of 5 the bridge at that time; correct?

6 A. Yes, he was.

7 Q. So how did he post that?

8 A. From his smartphone.

9 Q. From his smartphone. Okay.

10 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to Slide 43.

11 (Exhibit 182-43 published.)

12 BY MR. PEREZ:

13 Q. Okay. Now, Slide 43 is from the video at Exhibit 32A;
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And in this particular picture Mr. Lovelien has his 17 rifle slung over his shoulder; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to 44.

21 (Exhibit 182-44 published.)

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Now, in this picture, again, it's 12:21 p.m. that the 24 rifle is still slung over his right shoulder; correct?

25 A. I believe the strap is on his left shoulder, but yeah,

1 it's on his right side.

2 Q. On his right side?

3 A. Yeah. Slung to his right side, yes.

4 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, bring up 32A and go to 39
5 seconds, okay, and let it play for a minute.

6 (Exhibit 32A published.)

7 Stop right there.

8 BY MR. PEREZ:

9 Q. Now, the -- did you see the bush on the left-hand side of 10 the video screen?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, is that this -- the bush that we're talking about 13 that you depicted in that later photo?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I believe it was, what -- later exhibit that you had taken
16 when you had gone to the scene; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And that's the approximate placement that you had
19 Mr. Lovelien?

20 A. Yes. Just beyond that bush.

21 Q. Just beyond that. Okay.

22 MR. PEREZ: Brian, continue, please.

23 (Exhibit 32A published.)

24 Now stop right there.

25 BY MR. PEREZ:

1 Q. Now, there was a barren tree right there?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, that wasn't the bush, was it?

4 A. Yes, it was.

5 Q. That was the bush?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Or the prior tree -- the prior bush that we passed by?

8 A. No. That prior bush was in the wash. So at -- at -- in 9 April 2014 there was a barren bush there.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. In July of this year, that bush, as well as the one
12 further down --

13 Q. Right?

14 A. -- is green.

15 Q. So on April 12th it didn't have any foliage on it?

16 A. Not that I could see from this footage.

17 Q. Okay. Thank you.

18 MR. PEREZ: Brian, continue on a little bit.

19 (Exhibit 32A published.)

20 Okay. Now you can stop right there.

21 BY MR. PEREZ:

22 Q. Now, the individual on the left-hand side of the screen,
23 that's Mr. Engel; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. PEREZ: Now, Brian, play it a little bit.

1 (Exhibit 32A published.)

2 Okay. Stop right there.

3 BY MR. PEREZ:

4 Q. Okay. Now, Mr. Engel leaves that particular viewpoint;
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, he does.

7 Q. And that's at 12:18 and 10 seconds?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, play it again -- little
10 further.

11 (Exhibit 32A published.)

12 Okay. Stop right there.

13 BY MR. PEREZ:

14 Q. Now, the individual farthest over on the left-hand side of 15 the screen, that's also Mr. Engel?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And before -- prior to him entering the scene, we saw
18 looks like an NHP trooper in a fluorescent vest; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to . . . it would be 2 minutes
21 on the -- on the video.

22 (Exhibit 32A published.)

23 Okay. Just stop right there.

24 BY MR. PEREZ:

25 Q. Now, at -- in that last few seconds of the frame Mr. Engel

1 was engaged in some sort of a conversation with what appears to
2 be an NHP trooper; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, go to 4 minutes and 10
6 seconds. Okay. Go ahead and play.

7 (Exhibit 32A published.)

8 All right. Stop.

9 BY MR. PEREZ:

10 Q. Okay. Now, this is Mr. Lovelien entering the view of 11 Trooper Madsen's dash cam; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, play this through to 6:38.

14 (Exhibit 32A published.)

15 BY MR. PEREZ:

16 Q. Now, while this is playing, I'm going to talk for a
17 second.

18 Mr. Lovelien's gun is still on his right shoulder;
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. PEREZ: Now stop right there.

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Now, the individual on the far left, that's Mr. Lovelien;
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. With Mr. Engel?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And with Mr. Engel and Mr. Lovelien. Prior to this scene
4 we see right here, there was an NHP trooper with them; correct?

5 A. That is correct.

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, keep going.

7 (Exhibit 32A published.)

8 Stop right there.

9 BY MR. PEREZ:

10 Q. Okay. Now the individual on the far side of the screen --

11 MR. MYHRE: Can we get a foundation, Your Honor, as 12 to where we're stopped? I'm sorry.

13 BY MR. PEREZ:

14 Q. We've stopped the video at 12:22:38?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And that's still Mr. Lovelien off on the -- on the 17 far left?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And his gun is still on his right shoulder?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you can see his left hand is free --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- correct?

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, play it a little more.

25 (Exhibit 32A published.)

1 Okay. Stop right there.

2 BY MR. PEREZ:

3 Q. Now, at this point Mr. Lovelien is going back towards --
4 back towards Trooper Madsen's vehicle; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Foundation as to 7 where we stopped.

8 BY MR. PEREZ:

9 Q. Well, now you've been up on this highway?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you've looked --

12 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, the objection was, please, for 13 the record, state when the video was stopped so we can --

14 MR. PEREZ: Oh, it's stopped at 12:22:49. I'm sorry.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay.

17 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go ahead and play from there.

18 (Exhibit 32A published.)

19 Okay. Brian, just stop it right there.

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. And the time on that -- on the dash cam is what?

22 A. 12:23:11.

23 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lovelien is still standing in approximately 24 the same place he was a minute and a half ago?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And his gun is still on his right shoulder?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And his left hand, it looks like it's pointing up at his 4 head --

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- adjusting his hat.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, go to Slide 23 for a
8 moment, on -- yeah 182, Slide 23.

9 (Exhibit 182-23 published.)

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Now, I'm just trying to get a little bit of perspective
12 here because we've seen views from different sides of the 13 highway and things like that.

14 Now, there's this orange temporary-type fence or some 15 sort of fence that's there; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, which side of -- well, now behind that fence we have 18 a northbound and a southbound side of the I-15; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. So Mr. Lovelien is how many yards would you say
21 from that orange fence?

22 A. From the orange fence -- yards?

23 Q. Well, let me ask you another question.

24 He's on the other side of the northbound highway?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. So there's the southbound lanes in between the --
2 whoever took this photo?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then there's the gap in between?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Which is what, approximately? A hundred yards?

7 A. 90 yards.

8 Q. 90 yards?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What's the width of the highway?

11 A. 44 feet.

12 Q. Okay. So we have two of those. So that's 88 feet; right?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Another hundred yards. And then he's beyond that;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes. So if -- I'd say 140, 150 yards to the -- to the 17 fence from where Mr. Lovelien's standing.

18 Q. Okay. Now, according to I believe it was Exhibit 210 --
19 can you bring up 210 for a second, Brian.

20 (Exhibit 210 published.)

21 BY MR. PEREZ:

22 Q. Okay. Now, in -- in 210, Slide 1, we've got a measurement
23 of 458 yards it looks like from that rally point, the parking
24 lot -- parking area?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. To the -- to the bridge.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now that parking area at the end of the 458-yard mark,
4 that's approximately where Mr. Lovelien was at the time that
5 that picture was taken?

6 A. He would have been standing slightly east of the entrance
7 to the assembly area. So maybe instead of 458 yards, it would
8 have been 400 yards or something.

9 Q. 400?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. Still a considerable distance?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. 458 yards is what, just about a tenth of a mile over a
14 quarter of a mile, something like that?

15 A. Uh . . . it would be . . . I'm trying to do the math,
16 excuse me. Yeah. Quarter -- I'd say a quarter of a mile.

17 Q. Okay.

18 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to Slide -- 182, Slide 51.

19 (Exhibit 182-51 published.)

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. Okay. Now, this particular slide is a screenshot of 22 Trooper Madsen's dash cam; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. At 12:25?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And we see Mr. Engel is bent down at that
2 particular point in time; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And this is from video Exhibit 33A?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And you used this -- the gentleman, I believe, in 7 the -- well, I don't know if we can see him clearly, but the 8 gentleman in the white shirt and the white hat is what you used
9 to establish your time line; correct?

10 A. That, and the woman walking behind him.

11 Q. Right. Okay.

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to 33A, please, at 30 seconds.
14 (Exhibit 33A published.)

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And let it play.

16 Okay. Stop it right there.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Okay. So that's where Mr. Engel crouches down on the 19 highway; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, can we have a time stamp,
22 please? Objection, Your Honor.

23 BY MR. PEREZ:

24 Q. The time is 12:25 and 23 seconds; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lovelien still has his rifle on his right
2 shoulder; correct?

3 A. It's on his right side, yes.

4 Q. Right side?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, play it from there, please.

8 (Exhibit 33A published.)

9 Stop it right there for a second.

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. We're stopping at 12:25:43; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What is the approximate distance between Mr. Engel and 14 Mr. Lovelien at -- at this point, if you can tell?

15 A. Less than 10 feet.

16 Q. Less than 10 feet. And then how about from the -- the NHP
17 trooper that is directing traffic in the center of the screen?

18 A. Maybe 20 feet.

19 Q. Maybe 20 feet. Okay.

20 MR. PEREZ: Go ahead, Brian.

21 (Exhibit 33A published.)

22 Okay. Brian, stop right there.

23 BY MR. PEREZ:

24 Q. So, at this point there's another --

25 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Time stamp.

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. Time -- time signature 12:36 and 30 seconds?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And in this particular frame there's another unidentified
5 individual that comes over and is speaking to Mr. Lovelien;
6 correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lovelien's gun is still on his right side?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And his left hand is gesturing as he's conversing with 11 this person; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. PEREZ: Go ahead, Brian.

14 (Exhibit 33A published.)

15 Okay. Stop right there.

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Now, we've watched another -- it's 12:27:36; correct?

18 A. Yes. Yes.

19 Q. And we've watched another few -- maybe a minute or two of 20 video. Has Mr. Lovelien moved from that particular area?

21 A. No.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I'm going to object to this
23 line of questioning. I thought we were going to be roping back
24 into the time line, but the agent did not testify as to 33A.
25 We've already had testimony on this video. We've done this

1 cross-examination on this video. The agent -- Agent Willis
2 testified as to screenshots from the video to establish the
3 time line. Now we're talking about redoing the entire video
4 which this agent did not testify directly to.

5 MR. PEREZ: Actually, Your Honor, if I may respond?

6 THE COURT: Are you close to --

7 MR. PEREZ: Agent Willis testified that --

8 THE COURT: The question is, are you close to being 9 done or are you going to go through the entire video?

10 MR. PEREZ: No. I'm not going to go through the 11 entire video. I'm almost done with this. I mean, you know,
12 the whole point is he's testified --

13 THE COURT: I don't need to know what the whole point
14 is just --

15 MR. PEREZ: I'll get there.

16 THE COURT: I'll let you finish up but we need to 17 hurry up and get it done. Don't -- we're not going to spend a
18 whole --

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

20 THE COURT: -- all this time going through all of it
21 all over again when it's not part --

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Okay. Now --

24 THE COURT: It's beyond the scope.

25 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. At any point in the last few minutes of video have we seen
3 Mr. Lovelien focus on Post 1?

4 A. In the last -- what time frame?

5 Q. The last two minutes of video, three minutes of video.

6 A. When you say "focus," you mean --

7 Q. Well, let me start over.

8 Where would Post 1 be in this particular video, in 9 relationship to where Mr. Lovelien is on the left-hand side of 10 the screen?

11 A. May I draw?

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. So it would be back this way (indicating). So over his 14 left shoulder.

15 Q. Okay. And at this point, in this particular frame,
16 Mr. Lovelien is focused where?

17 A. Seems to be focused into the wash.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to 4:06.

20 (Exhibit 33A published.)

21 Okay. Back it up just -- just a little bit.

22 There you go. Thanks.

23 Okay. Stop right there.

24 BY MR. PEREZ:

25 Q. Okay. Agent Willis, now, it looks like Mr. Lovelien, his

1 gun is still on his right side; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And he's reaching down and looks like into his cargo pants
4 to grab something out of the pocket; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go ahead.

8 (Exhibit 33A published.)

9 Stop right there.

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Looks like he's drinking water?

12 MR. MYHRE: Time stamp, Your Honor? Objection. Time
13 stamp.

14 BY MR. PEREZ:

15 Q. At 12:29:04?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And it looks like he's drinking water from a bottle?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. That he took out of his cargo pants?

20 A. Yes.

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Same objection as before,
22 Your Honor. Mr. -- this agent did not go through this video to 23 describe every moment Mr. Lovelien made. We've already had 24 this exhibit. We've already done this cross-examination. It's 25 beyond the scope and it cumulative.

1 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, he testified that at a point
2 in time right in here that Mr. Lovelien sat on the Jersey
3 barrier and when he was referencing Exhibit -- Exhibit 66 I
4 believe it is, he said that he put the gun on his lap, across
5 his lap. He took it off his shoulder. Well, I mean, I'm
6 trying to break it up as best I can and keep it in the same
7 time frame, but the gun's never left his shoulder.

8 THE COURT: You say it was --

9 MR. PEREZ: Well, it was --

10 THE COURT: -- referenced in Slide 66?

11 MR. PEREZ: It was Slide 60, Exhibit 182.

12 Brian, bring it up.

13 (Exhibit 182-60 published.)

14 THE COURT: Yes, I have that. 12:31 p.m. from 15 Exhibit 17's aerial labeled with Lovelien and Drexler on the 16 bridge, prone. Lovelien sitting on barrier. Weapon lap.

17 MR. PEREZ: Right.

18 MR. MYHRE: And we're at 12:29:04.

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay. So, Brian, let's go back to 20 Exhibit 33 at . . . I guess it would be, what, 12:29?

21 (Exhibit 33A published.)

22 Looks like you can play from there, Brian.

23 (Exhibit 33A published.)

24 Okay. You can stop right there at 12:29:36.

25 BY MR. PEREZ:

1 Q. Now, Mr. Lovelien's sitting on the Jersey barrier;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And he was drinking a bottle of water it looks like?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. His gun is still on his shoulder?

7 A. I cannot see where the gun is in this frame.

8 Q. Well, did you see him take it off in the few seconds
9 before?

10 A. When you say "take it off," it's slung.

11 Q. Well, did he remove it from his shoulder?

12 A. No.

13 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go to Slide -- 182, Slide 52.

14 (Exhibit 182-52 published.)

15 BY MR. PEREZ:

16 Q. Okay. Before we talk about this particular slide, is 17 there a margin of error for your time line? Like one or two 18 minutes or . . .

19 A. I tried to get it to the second --

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. -- but it's rounded to the nearest minute. So to the best
22 of my ability to the nearest minute.

23 Q. Okay. So 12:26 might be 12:25 and 22 seconds or something 24 like that?

25 A. Yes. That is possible.

1 Q. Okay. Now, in this particular picture, this is at 12:26;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And we saw, in the video --

5 A. Um-hmm.

6 Q. -- the prior video, which would have been I believe it's
7 33A?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And we saw Engel sit down; correct?

10 And what would you estimate the distance to be?

11 A. From what to what?

12 Q. From -- from Mr. Engel -- I'm sorry -- from Mr. Engel to 13 Mr. Lovelien at that point?

14 A. Less than 10 feet.

15 Q. Less than -- okay.

16 Now, from this particular point, did you measure the 17 distance to the wash from where Mr. Lovelien was right here?
18 Do you recall?

19 A. No. I don't recall doing that.

20 Q. Well, okay.

21 MR. PEREZ: Let's look at Slide 55 for a second.

22 (Exhibit 182-55 published.)

23 BY MR. PEREZ:

24 Q. Now, Slide 55 is a screenshot from approximately 12:26;
25 correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And Mr. Lovelien would be on the northbound bridge
3 at this point in time; correct?

4 A. He's on northbound I-15. He's not on the bridge though.

5 Q. Well, okay.

6 A. Yes. So, to the west of the bridge.

7 Q. Okay. Can you -- can you sort of point him out?

8 A. He would be in this area (indicating).

9 Q. So, one of those two individuals?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. PEREZ: Now, go back to 66 for a second, Brian.

13 (Exhibit 66 published.)

14 No. Excuse me. Exhibit 66.

15 BY MR. PEREZ:

16 Q. Okay. So from -- and can we see the time on this, down at
17 the bottom?

18 Oh, there is no time.

19 Okay. Is -- from this picture -- go back up -- and 20 go -- now go back to Exhibit 55 on 182, Slide 55, 182.

21 (Exhibit 182-55 published.)

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. So looking at this picture after looking at the prior 24 photo, it would appear that the gentleman that you used to 25 establish your time line in the white T-shirt and the white hat

1 would be the individual closer to Trooper Madsen's vehicle;
2 correct?

3 A. Yeah. It's hard to see in this picture, but I believe
4 that there's two people there (indicating).

5 Q. And -- and it's safe to say that Mr. Lovelien would be --
6 that that individual would be in between the trooper's vehicle
7 and where Mr. Lovelien is; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Now, his viewpoint from -- I'm -- I'm -- let's
10 just -- it looks like it would be Mr. Lovelien leaning on that 11 Jersey barrier if it's the second spot; correct?

12 A. He would be in that vicinity, yes.

13 Q. Right. Okay. Now --

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, could we have -- objection --
15 some foundation as to where we're talking about.

16 MR. PEREZ: Well, I want to get his viewpoint.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. We're talking about these two individuals right here
19 (indicating); correct? They're on the right side of the 20 screen. There's two little dots in front of Trooper Madsen's
21 vehicle; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Mr. Lovelien would be -- inside that circle, would be the 24 farthest to the left?

25 A. Closer to the Jersey barrier, yes.

1 Q. Okay. Now, from that particular vantage point,
2 Mr. Lovelien cannot see these vehicles back here (indicating);
3 correct?

4 A. Which vehicles are you pointing to with the line?

5 Q. Well, the -- the -- these vehicles back here behind the 6 bridge (indicating)?

7 A. Yes, that is correct.

8 Q. Okay. So those are totally out of view?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And then, now, you testified that when you went up
11 on the bridge in that close proximity, that you were able to 12 see these vehicles here (indicating); correct?

13 A. I was able to see the area where those vehicles would have 14 been parked, yes.

15 Q. But not necessarily those vehicles? I mean, it would 16 be --

17 A. I was not there that day and the vehicles weren't there
18 the day I went out to take photos.

19 Q. Okay. So you can't say within a certain degree of 20 certainty that Mr. Lovelien actually had a view of those 21 vehicles from where he was?

22 A. Yes, I can.

23 Q. You can?

24 A. Yes, I can.

25 Q. Okay. And why is that?

1 A. Again, I walked that area. I compared the video and photo
2 evidence to where Mr. Lovelien was on I-15 and I compared it to
3 the concrete or the roadway area there in the wash and where
4 those vehicles would have been parked and I was able to see
5 from that vantage point those vehicles. I would have been able 6 to see those vehicles.

7 Q. Okay. Well, now, let's talk about this abutment.

8 THE COURT: Well, before we talk about the abutment,
9 it's 5:05. So I let it go a little bit --

10 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

11 THE COURT: -- so we could kind of wrap it up without 12 breaking it up. So now that we're changing over to a different
13 topic let's go ahead and take our overnight break. We will be 14 starting again tomorrow at 9:00 a.m. So I do remind the jury
15 over the over -- during this overnight break please do not 16 discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it
17 with you.

18 Please also do not read or listen to or view anything
19 that touches upon this case in any way nor attempt to perform
20 any research or any independent investigation about anything
21 that touches upon this case or any issues.

22 Do not form any opinion, and we will welcome you back
23 tomorrow at 9:00 a.m.

24 Let's all please stand for the jury.

25 The jury is excused, and Special Agent Willis, after

1 the jury exits, then you may be excused as well. We'll need
2 you back here at 9:00 a.m.

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: And then we'll resume with
5 cross-examination.

6 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

7 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

8 Thank you.

9 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may we have just a quick
10 moment on the record at the end here?

11 THE COURT: Can we do it tomorrow morning?

12 MR. MYHRE: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. That's fine. I
13 was just trying to --

14 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do it tomorrow morning.

15 I'm pretty sure they already turned off the air.

16 MR. MYHRE: I'm sorry?

17 THE COURT: The air conditioning. I'm pretty sure
18 they already turned off the air conditioning.

19 MR. MYHRE: Oh. No, it wasn't -- it was just about 20 what our agenda is going to be for tomorrow in terms of -- I'm
21 assuming we're going to finish cross-examination with respect
22 to this -- to Agent Willis.

23 THE COURT: Right. We have to finish cross,
24 redirect, jury questions. So if we're lucky, we'll be done
25 early tomorrow and then begin with defense on Wednesday.

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:50 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You maybe seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day Fourteen in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you go ahead and
12 make your appearances on the record since we're going to be
13 discussing exhibits and objections.

14 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor.

15 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
16 the United States.

17 THE COURT: Good morning.

18 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor.

19 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present.

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

22 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

23 THE COURT: Good morning.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

25 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

3 Shawn Perez on behalf of Rick Lovelien.

4 THE COURT: Good morning.

5 All right. So, the parties met between yesterday,
6 when we ended at 5:10, and today, to review exhibits and
7 determine if there were objections or redactions or any
8 accommodations that could be made to minimize interruptions
9 during trial. So before we call back in the jury and the
10 witness for the jury questions that we still need to ask, are 11 there any objections that you want to place on the record for
12 my ruling?

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we actually were, I think,
14 almost finishing up that meeting when Your Honor took the
15 bench.

16 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought you were done.

17 MR. TANASI: So if we could maybe have a couple more
18 minutes to do that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

20 MR. MARCHESE: It's actually been productive.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, I'm politely being asked
22 to leave. So I'll leave, and I'm come back when you tell me
23 you're ready.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

2 (Recess was taken at 9:52 a.m.)

3 (Outside the presence of the jury at 10:12 a.m.):

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

6 All right. So, do the parties have any objections or
7 decisions that you want me to make before we resume with the
8 jury and witness?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we were able to go through
10 all of the Facebook exhibits for Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and
11 Mr. Stewart and there was a few in which there were no
12 objections and then there was some more where there were some
13 objections that needed to be resolved.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

15 MS. AHMED: So, my understanding was that -- does
16 Your Honor want to see the ones where there were no objections?

17 THE COURT: No. If there's no objection, then that
18 will come in. You can tell me when -- that this is something
19 that's been stipulated that is admissible and we'll just admit
20 it.

21 MS. AHMED: And then -- so then -- can we pull up
22 Exhibit 113?

23 May we pull up Exhibit 113?

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I apologize.

25 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

1 (Exhibit 113 published.)

2 MS. AHMED: So, it's my understanding that there was
3 an objection by the defendants to this and we would submit that
4 this is relevant because it, obviously -- in that it's a
5 picture from the April 12th standoff and it's a post shared by
6 Mr. Parker on his Facebook page with comments made by him
7 referencing their -- that they showed up that day.

8 THE COURT: And so what is the objection?

9 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to relevance. It's
10 mainly -- I don't have a problem with the picture, with his own
11 verbiage; it's just the Valhalla quote which I find is more
12 prejudicial than probative than it is relevant as it is after
13 the fact.

14 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor, and I'd add
15 that this is an exhibit, in addition to some of the other
16 Valhalla related exhibits, that I'd also move for a severance
17 under Rule 14 for prejudicial spillover given the effect and if
18 Your Honor is not inclined to grant the severance motion, then
19 some limiting instruction because there's not any and there
20 won't be any Facebook post related to Valhalla and
21 Steve Stewart.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: And Drexler, we also -- I would say
23 that Mr. Drexler's picture's on here and the words below it
24 seem to suggest that he's saying that, I guess, and that's not
25 what he's saying. So it's misleading the jury thinking that

1 he's saying it because we're not going to have a witness who is
2 going to be able to testify to who said it, who wrote it, who
3 did that, but it's not just a natural picture that we have; we
4 now have words coming in on a picture that are not my client's
5 words. They're not on his Facebook, but yet his -- his picture
6 is there. And so, I would object to it being unduly
7 prejudicial to my client.

8 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien would join as well.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, Ms. Ahmed, the relevance
10 of this statement, is this -- are you offering this as an
11 adopted statement by Mr. Parker when he posts it on the -- on
12 his Facebook page as a weekly tribute in furtherance of the 13 conspiracy because it's glorifying and encouraging others to
14 continue? This was stated -- this was posted November 20th of
15 2015, according to the date on the exhibit. And then, I guess,
16 the other question is, whether or not it would be admissible
17 against the other defendants. So, is your argument that it's a
18 co-conspirator statement?

19 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. We would --
20 we would submit that it is -- it is adopted when Mr. Parker
21 posts the entire picture with the words, what we would call a
22 meme. He's adopting that meme and also placing his own
23 comments on it and that it's admissible, as to everybody, under
24 an 801(d)(2)(E).

25 THE COURT: All right. And so, the 801(d)(2)(E)

1 includes any response to the objection of spillover from
2 Mr. Stewart?

3 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. So the Court does find that
5 it appears to be an adopted statement by Mr. Parker posting it
6 on his website and that it is a co-conspirator statement made
7 in furtherance of the conspiracy during the conspiracy. It
8 states, "Our ongoing weekly tribute to the men and women who
9 showed up that day that were not me."

10 And then the other language that's on the photo says,
11 "Lo, do they call to me. They bid me to take my place among
12 them in the hollowed halls of Valhalla where the brave shall
13 live forever." So, again, appears to be glorifying and
14 encouraging others to act likewise, either by joining or on
15 their own as part of their shared belief and it is made during
16 the alleged conspiracy, November 20th, 2015. So the Court does
17 find that Exhibit 113 is admissible.

18 (Exhibit 113 received.)

19 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, and as we -- as it's kind of
20 presented to the jury, I just wanted to have an understanding
21 of that. Would our objections be noted for the record as well?

22 THE COURT: Oh, yes.

23 MR. TANASI: In other words, these have been admitted
24 over defense counsel's objection?

25 THE COURT: Correct.

1 MR. TANASI: Okay.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 Is there another one?

4 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. The next one would be
5 Exhibit 101.

6 (Exhibit 101 published.)

7 MS. AHMED: I understand, Your Honor, that there was
8 an objection by counsel to this one.

9 MR. MARCHESE: I don't have a problem with the
10 picture. It's obviously come in in a myriad of locations
11 throughout the trial. My biggest issue is the verbiage,
12 specifically the III% portion. That's irrelevant.

13 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

14 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins as well.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

16 MR. MARCHESE: And the issue here is, is that it's
17 misleading to the jury given the fact that at the time this
18 picture was taken, there was no III%.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, again, this is something that
20 we actually put in our response to their Motion in Limine to
21 keep out our 404(b). This is a picture of Mr. Parker from
22 April 12th, 2014, with these words and the III% superimposed on
23 top. He's sharing all of it on June 11th of 2015. And so,
24 although he might not have been in the III% at the time of the
25 April 12th standoff, that doesn't make this picture less

1 relevant in any way. It's inextricably intertwined with the
2 events, both because it's showing a picture, but also because
3 it's -- of the timing, as the Court has ruled in its order on
4 the 404(b) motion.

5 And his membership in the III% was also inextricably
6 intertwined in that he uses this as a platform, his membership
7 as a platform to continue to do similar operations.

8 THE COURT: All right. So this posting is dated 14
9 months later; right? This is June 11th, 2015.

10 Is he a member of the III% by then?

11 MS. AHMED: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. So that's what it represents
13 on Exhibit 101, is that Mr. Parker posted this on June 11th,
14 2015. It's a photograph of him in the prone position on the 15 bridge from June -- I'm sorry -- from April 12th of 2014, and
16 the language on the photograph says, "You give peace a chance
17 . . I'll cover you." That's on the top of the photo and then
18 on the bottom of the photo it says Roman Numeral III and then
19 the percent sign.

20 All right. So, again, it does appear to be an
21 adopted statement under 801(d)(2)(B) --

22 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, with respect to Mr. Lovelien
23 and that 3%ers, there's no evidence that Mr. Lovelien is in the 24 3%ers, at all. So, I mean, I would request at least a limiting
25 instruction in terms of 3%ers. I don't know how we can do

1 that.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed, do you have any objection to
3 that?

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would oppose a limiting
5 instruction as to Mr. Lovelien for this post. It's a post made
6 by Mr. Parker, Mr. Lovelien's co-conspirator, regarding the
7 events of April 12th, 2014, which Mr. Lovelien participated in
8 and it -- the statements that Mr. Parker's adopting show his
9 intent -- intent -- excuse me -- on April 12th, 2014, and so it
10 goes directly to the elements that Mr. Lovelien's facing.

11 MR. PEREZ: But, Your Honor --

12 MS. AHMED: And, additionally, obviously, Your Honor,
13 as the Court was stating earlier, it would fit under
14 801(d) (2) (E).

15 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, a lot of this 3%er evidence
16 that's coming in is clearly not relevant to Mr. Lovelien and a
17 limiting instruction would be appropriate. I mean, all this is 18 doing is misleading the jury with respect to Mr. Lovelien. He
19 doesn't have any affiliation with the 3%ers.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I would join with similar
21 arguments with respect to Mr. Stewart. We will see here,
22 momentarily, a picture of Mr. Stewart depicted with members of
23 the 3%ers, but that's it. Training, one picture. Doesn't
24 necessarily amount or necessarily prove that he's a member of
25 the 3%ers just by simply being with them in a picture.

1 THE COURT: Wasn't he wearing a 3%er T-shirt?

2 MR. TANASI: He's wearing a T-shirt that -- I don't
3 believe it displays a 3%er mark on it; I think it just shows
4 the American flag on his shoulder.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Ahmed, did you want to
6 respond?

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would, again, offer it
8 with respect to both Mr. Stewart and Mr. Lovelien that neither
9 of -- they both were members of this conspiracy; that as
10 alleged in the Indictment, neither of them have ever withdrawn
11 from the conspiracy. These statements on this image are going
12 to the events of April 12th, 2014.

13 And with respect to Mr. Stewart -- I would just leave
14 it at that, Your Honor. Basically, they're all a part of this
15 conspiracy, no one has withdrawn from conspiracy and this is
16 talking about the conspiracy and events taking place during the
17 time alleged in the Indictment.

18 MR. PEREZ: But it's not alleged that Mr. Lovelien
19 was part of the 3%ers is -- as part and parcel of this
20 conspiracy, whether before or after.

21 THE COURT: Right. And there's no allegation nor any
22 element of the offense that the individuals need to be part of
23 a organization or members of the same organization in order to
24 be found guilty of a conspiracy; there just needs to be the 25 agreement. Doesn't necessarily mean that they need to be part

1 of the same organization. But I understand the argument that
2 you're making as it's misleading to the jury, so misleading or
3 confusing to the jury. So I'll -- I'm -- I'm willing to give a
4 limiting instruction. I'm not sure that it's the Court's --
5 there's no -- all right. So there is a number of limiting
6 instructions that are common, that are generally provided in
7 certain situations. This is not necessarily one of them
8 because it doesn't go to the admissibility of the evidence; it
9 really goes to the weight. So clearly, you could examine --
10 cross-examine on that point. The Government could elicit it.
11 I could state it, but I think then that would be providing
12 testimony or providing evidence. So I think that the -- the
13 better way to handle this is for you all to either raise it on
14 direct or cross, or both so that it's not misleading to the 15 jury. If you don't, then maybe I need to make a limiting
16 instruction so that the jury is not misled. But otherwise, I
17 think that you all need to have the ability to comment on it
18 first.

19 But the Court does agree that it's -- would otherwise
20 be misleading if it's not clarified that Mr. Lovelien and --
21 well, as to Mr. Lovelien, I haven't seen any evidence yet that
22 would tend to demonstrate that he's a member. As to
23 Mr. Tanasi's client, Mr. Stewart, I'm not sure yet because the
24 representation was that he was training with the 3%ers and that
25 it was represented in the 3%ers recruitment video and that he

1 was wearing the same shirt that the other 3%ers were wearing.
2 So I can't say one way or the other for sure whether he is or
3 is not a member and I don't know how -- how much other evidence
4 there is or is not on that point, but I think it's definitely
5 an area that the parties can address in direct and
6 cross-examination. But it doesn't go to admissibility, so
7 Exhibit 101 is admitted.

8 (Exhibit 101 received.)

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next exhibit would be 10 103.

11 (Exhibit 103 published.)

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to relevance. It's
13 after the fact. Just some guys standing around the desert.
14 Appear to be target practice or recreational shooting.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins and makes the same
16 objections from the previous exhibit, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: What's the relevance of the photo,
18 Ms. Ahmed?

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, this is a photo that depicts
20 Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart along with a third person and you
21 can see that they're wearing -- at least Mr. Parker and
22 Mr. Stewart are wearing tactical vests and there's a target
23 sign in the background. We would submit that this is a
24 depiction of them training, consistent with other posts that
25 have been admitted where Mr. Parker discussed training and that

1 they're wearing III% -- that the T-shirt that Mr. Stewart is
2 wearing from the other side -- from the front you would be
3 able -- you would be able to see or it's III%, but it's
4 consistent with Mr. Parker's T-shirt and the other individual's
5 T-shirt where you can see in other pictures that there's a flag
6 like that on the side. And additionally, Mr. Parker and the
7 other individual, clearly you can see that they have III% logos
8 on their clothing. So, we would submit that this is, again,
9 part and parcel of their continued efforts to train and recruit
10 and to glorify their movement, as they call it, to interfere
11 with federal officers.

12 MR. PEREZ: And, Your Honor, again, with respect to
13 Mr. Lovelien, I mean, it has nothing to do with Mr. Lovelien.
14 Mr. Lovelien, there's no evidence that he ever went to Idaho.
15 He's not a member of the 3%ers. There's no pictures of him
16 wearing any 3%er T-shirts or anything of the kind. I mean, for
17 them to say that this is just a continuation of the same
18 conspiracy is . . . I think, again, it's misleading at best,
19 and certainly not relevant to Lovelien.

20 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, with respect to
21 Mr. Stewart, again, the Government is, I think, connecting dots
22 and assuming facts that aren't in evidence yet that would lay
23 the foundation to make this piece of evidence admissible and
24 then make it relevant. They're -- they're just jumping over
25 all of that and saying that this conclusion is clearly

1 Steven Stewart training with 3%ers and then the way they
2 connect the dots is circumstantially and I think assuming facts
3 that aren't in evidence yet. So the picture would lack
4 foundation as well.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, the three individuals
6 in the picture, Mr. Parker on the left, Mr. Stewart on the
7 right, and the unknown individual in the right appear to be
8 wearing the same shirt. All of the shirt is not visible on all
9 three of the individuals. The individual in the middle, his
10 shirt does have what appears to be a III% on the back of the 11 shirt with stars and sort of like a -- I guess it looks almost
12 like a stamp design in white on the Navy blue shirt.

13 So, the Government's position is, this is
14 inextricably intertwined with the conspiracy allegation and
15 that it's ongoing conduct and evidence of the ongoing
16 conspiracy.

17 MS. AHMED: Which, again, Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: How does it relate then to Mr. Lovelien?

19 MS. AHMED: Sorry, Your Honor, to speak over you.

20 I was going to say, which, again, none of the 21 defendants have ever withdrawn from. So, Mr. Lovelien is still
22 a part of this ongoing conspiracy at this time.

23 And, as of course the Court knows, under the law, as
24 a result, he's responsible for all of their actions in
25 furtherance of the conspiracy, criminal actions.

1 And as Your Honor pointed out, you know, I think
2 counsel's stretching the realm of limiting instruction pretty
3 far. This is something that would be appropriate for
4 cross-examination and not for a limiting instruction.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, inasmuch as the exhibit
6 does purport to present the individuals in the tactical gear
7 with -- in the desert with some targets in the background and
8 it does appear that the tactical vest has some kind of
9 ammunition or something that's bulky in the pockets and we can
10 see a handgun on the hol- -- on the -- on a holster on the
11 right hip of Mr. Parker there in the picture, it -- I think
12 that Mr. Parker's hat might have an Idaho 3%er logo on it,
13 similar to the logo on the shirt worn by the person in the
14 middle, but nevertheless, it does appear to be part of the 15 ongoing conspiracy inextricably intertwined. The date on the 16 photograph is June 27th, 2015.

17 As to its relation to Mr. Drexler and Mr. Lovelien,
18 as the Government noted, there's no evidence of any abandonment
19 of the conspiracy and that it is ongoing and therefore, it
20 would be evidence that is admissible against all of the 21 defendants. And the parties are not prevented from asking
22 questions of the witness related to any clarification that they
23 believe needs to be made as to whether or not the other
24 individuals are members, or included in the photograph, or
25 anything else that would go to the weight of the evidence as

1 opposed to the admissibility.

2 Next one?

3 (Exhibit 103 received.)

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there's three more that are
5 in the similar fashion; they combine elements of Bundy Ranch
6 with the 3% or about the 3% posted by Mr. Parker and that's --
7 the first one is 107.

8 I'll just show you all three, Your Honor, and then
9 come back to 107.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 (Exhibit 107 published.)

12 MS. AHMED: But this is the first one. It's
13 Mr. Parker sharing a 3%er -- 3% of Idaho, their Facebook page
14 and commenting on the top, "For updates on our Resistance," and
15 then the next one is 110.

16 (Exhibit 110 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: This was a post on Mr. Parker's Facebook
18 page where an individual asks him about -- somebody agrees with
19 the 3% but works for BLM and USFS -- meaning the Forest
20 Service -- and Mr. Parker provided a response to that.

21 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

22 MS. AHMED: And he's referencing Bundy Ranch in his
23 response, or the events on April 12th.

24 THE COURT: In Nevada. All right.

25 (Exhibit 116 published.)

1 MS. AHMED: And then the last one is Exhibit 116,
2 which is, again, a silhouette of Mr. Parker prone, taken from
3 him prone on the bridge on April 12th, 2014, and it's behind
4 that silhouette or the word -- is the word "resist" and
5 underneath is "Three Percent" and the objection, to my
6 understanding, was just to the words "Three Percent."

7 And so, we would submit that this is similar to ones
8 that the Court has already ruled upon. All three of these are
9 similar in that they're inextricably intertwined with their
10 conduct in April of 2014. It's part of the ongoing conspiracy,
11 and they continue to tie the events of April 2014 to their
12 ongoing movement and to their participation in III% -- to
13 Mr. Parker's participation in III%.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MS. AHMED: And it would go to all of them under
16 801(d)(2)(E).

17 THE COURT: So the Government Exhibit 116, that's the
18 T-shirt or the close-up photo of the design on the T-shirt,
19 where Mr. Parker is prone and the long gun is shooting through
20 the letter "E" of the word "resist," which is in giant letters
21 and then it has "Three Percent" underneath it in cursive,
22 that's dated February 17th of 2016 and that's -- appears to be
23 posted by him on his Facebook page; is that right?

24 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: And so the objection to the "Three

1 Percent" on that is because why?

2 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, Your Honor. Generally
3 speaking, I mean, it's the same objection and I might as well
4 go with all three just in the interests of judicial economy.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to 3%, it's our position
7 it's after the fact, it's irrelevant, it's not inextricably
8 intertwined. The Government can easily convey their case to
9 the jury without bringing in all this extraneous after-the-fact
10 post-bad act information. In addition, it's our position that
11 the conspiracy as alleged in the Indictment mentions nothing
12 about 3%. It mentions nothing about mines. So, it's our
13 position that it's not part of the ongoing conspiracy. The
14 ongoing conspiracy is specifically -- if there even is one --
15 related to Bundy Ranch.

16 So, based on those things, we would say it's
17 irrelevant, it's not inextricably intertwined, and it's nothing
18 but bad character evidence.

19 MR. TANASI: Start joins, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler.

22 THE COURT: All right. What's the Government's
23 response to the statement that the conspiracy is limited to the 24 events at the Bundy Ranch?

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we -- the date of the

1 conspiracy continues through the timing of the Indictment,
2 which was March of 2016. Additionally, it was alleged that
3 they -- under 372, that they continued to -- that they are
4 continuing to impede, interfere with the -- with the ability to
5 patrol -- excuse me -- with the ability by public lands law
6 enforcement to patrol the area in and around that Bundy Ranch
7 area and we would submit that this is part of that because when
8 they do this, they're celebrating what happened on April 12th.
9 They're sending a message, via glorification, to others, to
10 stand up with them. By putting "Three Percent," he's giving
11 the vehicle for them to join him in his movement. And so, it's 12 all part and parcel of that process of celebrating what they
13 did, recruiting others to do it with them, to continue it with
14 them, and also sending a message to law enforcement that it is
15 not safe to go back, that they're still there, they're still a
16 part this have movement and they're still continuing in their
17 resistance. So we would submit that that's -- it's all related
18 and that's -- in that sense.

19 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, I think that's pushing the
20 limit on what this one particular exhibit is saying. I mean,
21 "resist" and "Three Percent." I mean, I don't see the
22 relevance to Bundy. I mean, certainly --

23 THE COURT: Well, it's a image of Mr. Parker taken
24 from the incident on April 12th of 2014 that's then
25 incorporated into this T-shirt and as the Government explains,

1 it does appear to be glorifying, recruiting, encouraging others
2 during this conspiracy to continue with their conduct, not to
3 abandon it, and to even have other folks join in. It does
4 appear to be inextricably intertwined. The Superseding
5 Indictment does allege that the conduct continued through March
6 of 2016. The posting is he made a month before that, in
7 February of 2016, and it would be a co-conspirator statement.

8 So, 116 is admitted.

9 Let's go back and look at 110, though.

10 (Exhibit 116 received.)

11 (Exhibit 110 published.)

12 THE COURT: I'm not sure. What is the relevance of 13 this post?

14 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would submit that
15 Mr. Parker was asked about people who agree with the 3%ers but
16 work for these agencies and in his response he indicates that
17 he reaches out to these people, but he shakes their hands and
18 looks them in the eye and hopes that he doesn't have to kill
19 them or lets -- lets them know that he doesn't want to kill
20 them and they don't -- and hopefully they won't kill him and it
21 will never get to the point it did in Nevada ever again. And
22 so, Your Honor, we could submit that it goes to -- it is
23 evidence of his intent in April of 2014, on April 12th, 2014.
24 It's also, again, inextricably intertwined with the conspiracy
25 and his efforts to get the officers to not do their jobs,

1 to desist.

2 The bottom response, he indicates, his short answer
3 is, he wishes they would just find another job. And so, we
4 would submit that this is, again, he's reaching out to other
5 people who are asking him what he thinks about this issue and
6 he's telling them that -- what he thinks about it, which is
7 that hopefully, it will never get to what it did in Nevada,
8 meaning, obviously, the April 12th incident and that what he
9 means is that he hopes he doesn't have to kill any federal
10 officer and that they should just find another job. And so, we
11 would submit that it shows his intent and his evidence of the 12 ongoing conspiracy as we've previously stated.

13 THE COURT: And so what's the defense objection?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Once again, we're just objecting to
15 the 3%, Your Honor. You mean, the -- I think the Court's been
16 pretty clear on its ruling in reference to the 3%. So, I guess
17 you just admit it in over defense's objection in reference to
18 the 3% and go to the next one.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I wouldn't have a problem
20 redacting that comment underneath it by Ryan Gargano. I mean,
21 that -- we could easily redact that.

22 MR. MARCHESE: No -- no objection from the defense.

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, it sounds like the 24 defense only is requesting the redaction of the 3%ers on the 25 top line?

1 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, and Mr. --

2 THE COURT: The Government's willing to do that,
3 so --

4 MR. MARCHESE: Mr. Gargano's statement.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would -- we would ask that
6 we only redact -- be required to redact the Ryan Gargano
7 comments that's in between Mr. Parker's responses. We would
8 ask that Court allow us to keep the 3%ers for the reasons that
9 we've previously articulated, which is that his -- it's all
10 part and parcel. His membership in 3% is part of his
11 participation in the movement which began with Bundy Ranch.

12 THE COURT: All right. So I thought you were -- I
13 thought the Government was saying they agreed to the redaction
14 of 3%ers. You're saying you agree -- the Government agrees to 15 the redaction of Ryan Gargano's statement, "Look 'em dead in 16 the eye"?

17 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: But Mr. Marchese, that -- was that your
19 request, or was it the 3%ers, or both?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Well, yeah. Obviously, I don't object
21 to the Gargano statement and then just a blanket objection to
22 anything 3%.

23 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is just to
24 the term 3% percent as mentioned in the question posed to
25 Mr. Parker that Mr. Parker is responding to.

1 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: So, again, it appears that he is adopting
3 the position of representing the point of view of the 3%ers
4 there, or at least his point of view as a member of the 3%ers,
5 or being in agreement with the 3%ers, but providing an opinion
6 as to what to do if one agrees with the 3%ers but works for BLM
7 or the U.S. Forest Service, that's the question, and then
8 Mr. Parker provides the answer.

9 Again, it does appear to be inextricably intertwined
10 with the conspiracy alleged and is relevant to the intent of
11 the defendant.

12 As far as it being a co-conspirator statement, it's 13 providing counsel or information about the ideology and their
14 purpose or intent in this particular conduct. And as the
15 Government stated, there's no evidence that any of the other
16 defendants had abandoned the conspiracy at this point, so it
17 does seem that Exhibit 110 is admissible. Again, the
18 parties -- doesn't prevent the parties from questioning the
19 witness about the participation of the defendants in the 3%ers.

20 (Exhibit 110 received.)

21 THE COURT: How about Exhibit 107?

22 (Exhibit 107 published.)

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit the same
24 arguments that -- I understand that the objection is to 3% and
25 our response is what it has been with other exhibits, that

1 it's his membership in it and part of the movement that he
2 participates in that began at Bundy -- with the events in
3 April 2014 -- excuse me -- and that he also states, "For
4 updates on a resistance," and shares their Facebook page.

5 THE COURT: Same objection as to the 3%ers? Anything
6 else --

7 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

8 THE COURT: -- you want to add?

9 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: I won't make you say it over and over
11 again, but --

12 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: -- just in case there's anything special
14 about this one.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Well, in this one actually it seems like
17 it's a little more clear that he is promoting the 3%ers and
18 participation in the organization, joining the organization.
19 He says, "For updates on our resistance, please like, follow,
20 and share our page," and then it has the 3%er logo on top of
21 the flag and looks to have a little map indicating where they
22 are and he's posting this on August 9th of 2015, which is
23 during the alleged conspiracy.

24 So, Exhibit 107 is admitted.

25 (Exhibit 107 received.)

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next five that are at
2 issue -- well, really the next six, are all discussing the
3 Sugar Pine Mine and White Hope Mine events which we had briefed
4 previously with the Court in the -- which we had noticed before
5 as 404(b) and then, of course, we relitigated it in the
6 defendants' Motion in Limine. So, the first one is Exhibit 99.

7 (Exhibit 99 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And this is Mr. Parker sharing a link
9 about the Sugar Pine Mine event in April of 2015 and then
10 there's comments beneath that where he's sharing information
11 about the Sugar Pine Mine event and responding to questions
12 regarding it

13 THE COURT: All right. So is the objection the same
14 as the -- as I addressed in the Motion in Limine?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor. Just in reference to 16 anything Sugar Pine or White Hope Mine, the general objection
17 would be to relevance. It's our position that it's -- it's not
18 404(b) evidence; it is -- it's nothing but bad character
19 evidence. It's after the fact. It's too remote in time. It's 20 not inextricably intertwined. The Government can convey their
21 case to the jury in an intelligible fashion without this
22 information, and it's also outside the scope of the conspiracy.

23 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, Stewart would join and
24 then also add that there's no evidence of Mr. Stewart's
25 involvement in either of those two protests, standoffs,

1 whatever we would call them.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien would join with Mr. Stewart's
3 objections as well.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, they are statements
6 made during the alleged conspiracy. These are posted by
7 Mr. Parker in April of 2015, looks like April 11th. I can't
8 tell if all three are -- at least two of them I see the dates
9 clearly are April 11th, 2015.

10 Yes. Okay. So all of them are April 11th, 2015, and
11 they do mention the Bundy Ranch-type standoff and then talks
12 about the other event and is -- states -- it's an alert and
13 "This is a standby order for all 3%ers and militia. You are
14 not protestors. We need to get a head count and start setting
15 up supply routes." So it is a recruitment -- more than a
16 recruitment, I suppose, because at this point it's for an
17 actual -- it's not for just membership or training, but to
18 actually conduct a similar type of conduct.

19 I did rule in the Motion in Limine orders that it is
20 inextricably intertwined for that reason.

21 And did the Government want to respond to the comment
22 that Mr. Stewart did not participate in the subsequent event
23 during the conspiracy?

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit the same
25 arguments that we've made with respect to the previous post,

1 which is that all of these defendants were in the conspiracy
2 alleged in the Indictment together. No one has withdrawn.
3 They're responsible for each other's conduct.

4 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, but this is expanding the
5 conspiracy beyond, I mean -- you know, we can have events all
6 over the country and all of a sudden it's going to be the same
7 conspiracy? I mean, there's a number of groups throughout the
8 country that challenged the position of the federal government
9 and now, all of a sudden, you know, we've got -- we've got one
10 conspiracy here in -- at the Bundy Ranch and -- that the
11 alleged conspiracy is to interfere with the gathering of the
12 cattle at the Bundy Ranch and to return it to the Bundys. I
13 don't think that anybody, beyond maybe individuals that were
14 involved in the Sugar Pine thing, you know, ever agreed to
15 anything beyond that. I don't think that that was -- if
16 there's a conspiracy -- that that's the scope of the
17 conspiracy.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd also just add that
19 there's -- this is also evidence of their intent and their
20 actions. With respect to the April 2014 event, they're
21 clarifying that this is a Bundy -- excuse me -- a Bundy
22 Ranch-type standoff brewing. They also reference the fact that
23 this is -- they're looking for militia and that you are not
24 protestors. And so, we would submit that is also intent of the
25 co-conspirators -- I mean, evidence of a co-conspirator's

1 intent and it would be admissible under 801(d) (2) (E).

2 THE COURT: Well, the Court agrees, as it did in its
3 Motion in Limine, and that's Number 2137. It's not
4 inadmissible. It is inextricably intertwined. It is a
5 co-conspirator statement and the other co-conspirators that are
6 alleged to have participated in the conspiracy as alleged in
7 the Superseding Indictment continues through March 2016. No
8 abandonment.

9 So, Exhibit 99 is admitted.

10 (Exhibit 99 received.)

11 MS. AHMED: The next one, Your Honor, is 100 and it's
12 very similar. It's also about Sugar Pine Mine.

13 And Your -- this is a multiple page, Your Honor. So,
14 I think on the next page there are some comments.

15 THE COURT: And this is May 20th of 2015?

16 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor, and it's a
17 post by Mr. Parker on his Facebook page. They're celebrating
18 with their perceived victory at Sugar Pine and he's stating,
19 "That's two for two fascists," referring both to this and to
20 the Bundy Ranch standoff.

21 And if we go to Page 2, there are -- there's a
22 comment by him, and there's Page 3 as well and he's explaining
23 in his comment that -- another individual said it best when he
24 said, "Don't worry about the guns, folks. We've got the guns.
25 What we need is support. 10 people for every man in the

1 field."

2 And as the Court, of course, knows, from the last
3 trial, that there essentially was approximately 400 people
4 present April 12th and about 40 of them were armed. So, it's
5 the same ratio, but clearly calling for stating that they have
6 guns and they need additional people.

7 And then the last post on this page is -- the last
8 two comments are -- one is by Mr. Engel, who was obviously a
9 co-conspirator celebrating this victory, or the two victories
10 and then Eric Parker discussing this -- this operation further.

11 We would just submit all the same arguments as to why
12 it's admissible.

13 THE COURT: What is this referencing? "Security
14 stays in place until he gets a court date"?

15 MS. AHMED: That's about the Sugar Pine Mine event,
16 Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Oh.

18 MS. AHMED: Which, it began in April and it continued
19 into May of 2015.

20 THE COURT: So the reference to security is
21 individuals providing security, armed security?

22 MS. AHMED: To the miners, that's correct,
23 Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 Well, again, this is May 20th, 2015.

1 MR. MARCHESE: It's the same objection, Your Honor.
2 I can keep us here all morning.

3 The other thing I would add is there's obviously an
4 issue with the Southern Poverty Law Center and I'm assuming
5 that's Reuters, the publisher. I don't see how that's
6 relevant.

7 THE COURT: Anyone else?

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

9 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, these are all Parker's
12 posts. He does appear to be adopting the statements that he is
13 posting as well as the photographs that -- he's included in the 14 photograph with the other individuals. So, it . . . is
15 801(d) (2) (B) statements.

16 As far as whether or not they're co-conspirator
17 statements that come in against the co-defendants, he is
18 celebrating, or does appear to be celebrating, certainly the
19 success of the Sugar Pine Mine and it is posted prior to the
20 end date of the Indictment, which is March of 2016. This is
21 dated May of 2015. So, a clear year beforehand.

22 So same reasoning as before. It's inextricably
23 intertwined co-conspirator statement made by Mr. Parker as 24 adopted by him in his post.

25 So Exhibit 100 is admitted.

1 (Exhibit 100 received.)

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next -- again, the next
3 four are also along the same lines. The White Hope Mine ones
4 are 108, 109, and then a video that was uploaded to his
5 Facebook account which is a part of 109.

6 (Exhibit 108 published.)

7 MS. AHMED: So 108 is Mr. Parker now posting about
8 the White Hope Mine incident, which happened in August of 2015.
9 There's photographs that show both Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler
10 and Mr. Parker where it says, "Montana Defenders of the 11 Republic" and he's holding a firearm and underneath it says,
12 "Share! Operation Big Sky! More information here," and it
13 shares a link to a press release by the Pacific Patriot Network
14 which is all Operation Big Sky as we've noticed in the 404(b)
15 was the name given to the operation relating to White Hope Mine
16 which was a mine on Forest Service land in Montana. And Mr.
17 Parker and Mr. Drexler are both, again, as I stated earlier,
18 appear in this post.

19 And then at the bottom there's also a comment by
20 Mr. Parker saying, "Shifts . . . and we still need volunteers."
21 And so, we would submit the same arguments that we've
22 previously submitted.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection as Parker.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 THE COURT: All right. So the same ruling.

3 The statement is adopted by Mr. Parker as posted.
4 Also includes one of the other defendants that are listed in
5 the conspiracy. It's dated August 20th of 2015, which is
6 within the conspiracy requesting volunteers for a similar
7 operation during the conspiracy. So it is an 801(d)(2)(E)
8 co-conspirator statement that is admissible against all
9 parties.

10 So, Exhibit 108 will be admitted -- is admitted.

11 (Exhibit 108 received.)

12 (Exhibit 109 published.)

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, 109 is very similar. It's a
14 post shared by Mr. Parker of a video from White Hope Mine
15 depicting -- you can see from this post that there's a video
16 where Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler both appear in. They're
17 armed and it's referring to that same event of the White Hope
18 Mine Operation Big Sky and we would submit the same arguments
19 for its admissibility.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection Parker.

21 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

24 THE COURT: So is this the video that Mr. Parker was
25 watching just now with the headphones on? Did he get a chance

1 to see all of it? It's 11 minutes it looks like.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we --

3 MR. MARCHESE: He's seen it, Your Honor.

4 MS. AHMED: And for the record, Your Honor, we -- the
5 video is 11 minutes. Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler only appear in
6 the first few seconds of it, possibly the first minute, so we
7 were -- as a separate exhibit, 48a, we were going to seek to
8 admit the video clipped just to the part that they're in.

9 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So not the whole 11 minutes?

10 MS. AHMED: Just the 20 to -- I think it's about 20
11 to 30 seconds.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. AHMED: And that's -- so this post is 109 and the 14 video is 48a.

15 THE COURT: All right. So, in Exhibit 109, are you
16 alleging that -- of the three people pictured there, that the
17 person on the far right is Mr. Parker and the far left is
18 Mr. Drexler?

19 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Do you know who the person in the middle
21 is? Is that Mr. Blaine Cooper?

22 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor, a co-conspirator and
23 who, obviously as the Court knows, already pled guilty in this
24 case.

25 THE COURT: All right. And the posting is made in

1 August 20th of 2015 and . . . Mr. Parker is sharing
2 Mr. Cooper's video on Mr. Parker's Facebook page on that date.

3 So, where it says, "Breaking, share, get viral!
4 Operation Big Sky armed patriots and Oath Keepers from across
5 the U.S. show up to defend the Constitution! What's it all
6 about? Watch our report and the dispute between the U.S.
7 Forest Service and miners in a small Montana town!" is it your
8 argument that this is posted by Mr. Parker as well?

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, yes. We would submit that
10 it's an adoptive admission, essentially, as to the intent for
11 that operation and for his movement generally, as evidence of
12 the movement generally and the conspiracy generally.

13 THE COURT: All right. So he's adopted the statement
14 and he's furthering the recruitment effort, and it's made
15 during the conspiracy, inextricably intertwined and admissible
16 against all parties.

17 All right. So same ruling as before. The Exhibit
18 109 is admitted.

19 (Exhibit 109 received.)

20 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, would that also be the
21 case for the video that's -- we would then -- the video is 48a
22 and it's just -- it's this video, the first 28 seconds in which
23 they're featured.

24 THE COURT: Does defense have any different objection
25 to video 48a -- what did you say, about the first minute?

1 MS. AHMED: It's less than a minute, Your Honor.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we would object, but if
3 it -- if the Court does rule that it comes in, we would ask
4 that the entire video come in under the rule of completeness.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit if you --
6 that the entire video -- essentially the first 20 to 30 seconds
7 or whatever is in our -- the clip that we're submitting, is
8 where you see these three individuals standing at the White
9 Hope Mine and then it cuts away to a lengthy interview with, I
10 believe, one of the miners and so we would submit that that
11 portion is not needed under the rule of completeness. It's a
12 completely different scene, different interview.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, there's no explanation
14 of how the rule of completeness would require that the 11
15 minutes of the video needs to be shown in Exhibit 48a. The
16 first minute is alleged to be the portion that includes the
17 defendants in this case. So the Court admits video 48a, but 18 only up to the 1-minute part -- part or -- within the 1-minute
19 part.

20 (Exhibit 48a received.)

21 (Exhibit 114 published.)

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 And then, Your Honor, the last post at issue from
24 Mr. Parker's Facebook pages is Exhibit 114, and this is similar
25 to the others. It's a post he shared on his Facebook page,

1 which was obtained in December of 2015. The agent would
2 testify to the date that it was obtained, which was the date
3 was documented in a 302. It's not reflected in that post which
4 is why I say when it was obtained, but it was obtained in
5 December 2015, which is also the same that this individual that
6 he's discussing, Schuyler Barbeau, was arrested. Mr. Barbeau
7 did participate in the events of April 12th, 2014, and is a
8 co-conspirator. Additionally, Mr. Parker states in the post,
9 "He helped stand down the BLM at the Bundy Ranch, the BLM at
10 the mine in Oregon, and the USFS at the mine in Montana."

11 We would submit all the same arguments with respect
12 to its being inextricably intertwined and evidence of their
13 intent.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we would give the same
15 objections, but I would focus a little bit more on the fact
16 that Mr. Parker isn't necessarily talking about what he did,
17 he's talking about what someone else did. So I would say that
18 the relevance and the prejudicial value goes up significantly
19 in reference to the prejudice and the relevance goes down
20 significantly because Mr. Barbeau -- Eric is talking about what
21 Mr. Barbeau did. So, I'm failing to see the relevance of all
22 this.

23 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

24 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, he's saying he -- he --
2 Mr. Parker's post states "he," referring to Barbeau, helped
3 stand down the BLM at these incidents which there's evidence
4 that Mr. Parker participated in. And so, it would go to
5 Mr. Parker's conduct and his intent, that their purpose was to
6 stand down these law enforcement -- these federal -- these
7 public land agencies.

8 THE COURT: And you said that -- how do you know the
9 date of this post?

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it was -- the date was
11 documented in a report by an FBI -- by the FBI agent who
12 captured it to be December of 2015.

13 And, Your Honor, also, Mr. Barbeau was arrested in
14 2015 -- December of 2015.

15 THE COURT: All right. So same ruling as before.
16 Exhibit 114 is admitted. Does reference the April 2014
17 incident as a standdown and draws the similarity between it and
18 the similar incidents at the Oregon and Montana mines.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: So Exhibit 114 is admitted.

21 (Exhibit 114 received.)

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, those were the only exhibits
23 that we had -- those were the remaining exhibits from 24 Mr. Parker's Facebook page. We were able to resolve all the
25 issues with respect to the exhibits from Mr. Drexler's Facebook

1 page and so, I don't think there's any outstanding -- or there
2 were no objections; there was just one exhibit that
3 Mr. Leventhal wanted to make sure was redacted and we made that
4 redaction.

5 So, those are Exhibits 123 through 128. There's no
6 issue on those.

7 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibits 123 through 128,
8 with the requested redactions, has the defense had an
9 opportunity to see those redactions to make sure --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have not.

11 THE COURT: -- we're good to go?

12 MS. AHMED: It's Exhibit 125 if we can -- excuse
13 me -- it's either 125 or 126. Can we pull up 125?

14 (Exhibit 125 published.)

15 MS. AHMED: It's actually 126.

16 (Exhibit 126 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: Uh, maybe 127.

18 I'm sorry, Your Honor.

19 (Exhibit 127 published.)

20 MS. AHMED: This was the post that Mr. Leventhal
21 wanted to make sure it was redacted. So we have made that
22 redaction.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And this is referencing a post that
24 came in yesterday at sidebar --

25 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- that we agreed to take out. It's
2 the same reason. For some reason it got onto Mr. Drexler's
3 page. So it's just -- we've already redacted it from a
4 prior --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Prior --

7 THE COURT: All right. So there's no other objection
8 to Exhibits 123 to 128; is that right?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's -- that's correct, Your Honor.

10 MR. MARCHESE: For Mr. Drexler, but in reference to
11 Mr. Parker, once again, same continuing objections to the 12 post-bad act issues, 3%ers, mine references, things of that
13 nature.

14 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, do you object or not object?

16 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor. I'll join in the
17 objection.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, same ruling. Exhibit 123
19 through 128 then is admitted with those redactions.

20 (Exhibits 123 through 128 received.)

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just request that we
22 do have some -- there are some Facebook posts for Mr. Stewart
23 where there were issues. There were objections that we were
24 unable to resolve just between ourselves that we would submit
25 to the Court for ruling, however, we would ask that the court

1 allow Mr. Smith to finish up because he does have a flight to
2 catch, so --

3 THE COURT: Okay. So we'll just address those later.

4 MS. AHMED: Yes.

5 THE COURT: They're not coming in this morning?

6 MS. AHMED: They would not come in this morning,
7 Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So let's go ahead then and bring
9 in the jury and . . . Mr. Smith. We can go ahead and have him
10 take the stand while Aaron, you go get the jury?

11 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: May I confirm the exhibit
13 numbers that were admitted, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I have 113; 101; 103; 107;
16 110; 116; 99; 100; 108; 109; 48a, 1 minute of the video; 114;
17 123 through 128.

18 THE COURT: That's what I have written down.

19 MS. AHMED: That's correct.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

23 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: All right. While we're waiting for the
25 jury to come in, I just want to remind everyone about the

1 expectations regarding the courtroom and how people should
2 conduct themselves and what is expected of them. It is a
3 courtroom, not a sporting event. So no expressions, whether
4 verbally or through body language, are permitted.

5 They are -- the defense attorneys have their computer
6 devices, but no one else is permitted to have computer devices.
7 The security officers here do have communication devices.
8 There's no audio or video recording that is permitted. So even
9 if your devices are in the "off" position or the "vibrate" or
10 "private" position, that's not good enough. We just simply
11 cannot have any of the devices in the courtroom.

12 The defendants are aware that the holding cell does
13 have a speaker system so that they may be able to still hear
14 the proceedings if they are -- if we need to remove them
15 because they cannot comply with the court conduct rules.

16 And the marshals and the Court Security Officers have
17 the authority to remove anyone from the public that cannot
18 comply with these expectations for the conduct in court.

19 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 (Jury returned to courtroom at 11:13 a.m.)

22 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

23 Everyone else may be seated as well.

24 Let's go ahead and have counsel make their
25 appearances on the record and then we'll proceed.

1 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor, ladies and
2 gentlemen.

3 Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of
4 the United States.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.
7 Good morning, folks.

8 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also with us at
9 counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

10 Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Good morning.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
13 morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury.

14 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

15 THE COURT: Good morning.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone.

17 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning,
20 ladies and gentlemen.

21 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 (Erich Smith returned to stand.)

24 THE COURT: All right. So, we're going to now
25 continue with our witness, Mr. Erich Smith, Erich Smith,

1 rather, and I do have some jury questions for you, sir. I'm
2 going to read them into the record, but when you respond, you
3 may go ahead and turn to the jury to face them because these
4 are jury questions; not my questions. All right?

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 THE COURT: So, Jury Note No. 100 asks, "In your
7 expert opinion, could a trained law enforcement officer
8 misidentify Exhibit No. 197b as a shotgun from a hundred yards
9 away with the naked eye and binoculars?"

10 THE WITNESS: Yes. I believe that's possible.

11 THE COURT: All right. Question No. 101, "The type
12 of bullets used in both weapons, can't they go through body
13 armor?"

14 THE WITNESS: It depends on the top of body armor
15 that's being used. Body armor comes in different ratings based
16 on the type of projectile that it's -- or designed to stop.

17 That really is outside my expertise to answer that
18 question --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 THE WITNESS: -- if it would effectively defeat body
21 armor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Question 102 has three parts;
23 the first part is, "If any of the pictured weapons" -- "Of any
24 of the pictured weapons, could you determine if they had a
25 round in the chamber?"

1 THE WITNESS: That, I could not.

2 THE COURT: And the second question in Jury Note No.
3 102 asks, "Of any of the weapons pictured, could you determine
4 if they had been modified to fire automatic?"

5 THE WITNESS: I can't determine that either.

6 THE COURT: And the last question in Jury Note No.
7 102 asks, "What is the difference between a rifle and a long
8 gun?"

9 THE WITNESS: Those are synonymous, a long gun and a
10 rifle.

11 THE COURT: So, no difference?

12 THE WITNESS: No. In my terminology, there would be
13 no difference between those.

14 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 103 asks, "If a
15 person threatens another person with an airsoft object that
16 looked like a rifle or shotgun, would their threatening still
17 be considered meeting its intent?"

18 So again, that's a legal question and we will provide
19 you -- I will provide you with the legal instructions that will
20 assist you in answering that question. So it's not a factual
21 question for this witness to answer, but I appreciate your
22 concern.

23 All right. And then Jury Note No. 104 asks, "Did the 24 sights on Exhibit 197a break in the transportation of the gun?"

25 THE WITNESS: I don't have any knowledge of when

1 those sights or that sight was broken. It was not -- it was
2 already broken when I received the firearm.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And the second part of the
4 question asks, "Can you determine if the sights were broken on
5 the day in question on Exhibit 197a?"

6 THE WITNESS: That, I cannot determine as well.

7 THE COURT: And then Jury Note 105 asks two
8 questions: The first one is, "The rifle that used the 9mm
9 round, is it capable of that rifle to shoot as far and accurate
10 as a rifle that uses the .223 round or the 6 -- or the 7.62
11 round?"

12 THE WITNESS: I can't -- I don't know the accuracy of
13 the two firearms, but you really need to think about the 14 cartridges. So the rifle that shot the 9mm Luger, that bullet
15 is larger in diameter. It measures .355. You remember the
16 rifle that shot the .223, that's closer to a quarter of an
17 inch. So the object itself is larger; it's not going to fly
18 the air as far. So its ballistic co-efficient is not as good
19 as the .223 rifle. So, basically in a short answer, it would
20 not fire as far as the .223.

21 THE COURT: All right. And the second question in
22 Jury Note No. 105 asks, "Can you explain the difference between 23 the 9mm versus the .223 versus the 7.62 in terms of size and 24 velocity."

25 THE WITNESS: Sure.

1 We'll start with the smaller and we'll work our way
2 up.

3 So, the 223, .223, that's close to a quarter inch in
4 diameter. So if he took the bullet and cut it in half, it
5 measures about a quarter inch across. A .223 is a full metal
6 jacket and when I say that, if we actually looked at the
7 bullet, there's a metal jacket around a lead core. Those
8 typically fly at a velocity of around 3100 feet per second. So
9 they're very fast bullets.

10 The next one up would be your .30 caliber, 7.62 by 11 39. Again, this is a full metal jacket bullet. It's typically
12 wrapped around a lead core and it also is a high velocity
13 around. That particular velocity, I'm not certain on how fast
14 that one actually travels. But then the 9mm Luger, that
15 measures .355 in diameter if we cut it in half. That one
16 typically runs around 1150 feet per second. So, it's slower
17 than the other two cartridges.

18 THE COURT: So the largest is the 9mm?

19 THE WITNESS: That's .355 and then the .30 caliber
20 measures .308. So it's a little bit -- little bit smaller
21 diameter.

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 106 asks, "Can
23 you tell by looking at the butt of a rifle if it is a shotgun
24 or not?"

25 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I'd be able to do that

1 or not, because the stock -- when we talk about the butt,
2 that's the portion that actually fits into your shoulder.
3 They're very similar between rifles and shotguns, so I may not
4 be able to distinguish one being another, unless there was
5 something really specific about the butt.

6 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up questions by
7 the Government?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Just a couple.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF ERICH SMITH

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Good morning, Mr. Smith.

14 A. Good morning.

15 Q. Just in follow-up to question 102 where you were asked
16 about whether you could determine from the photos whether there
17 was a round in the chamber, I would ask the converse. Could 18 you tell from the photos that a round was not in the chamber?

19 A. I could not.

20 Q. And you fired this weapon; correct? This weapon, being
21 the weapon at 190b, the Saiga?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. When you fired that weapon, what was -- did you have a
24 magazine in it?

25 A. Actually, I had no magazine in it when I test-fired it. I

1 actually physically loaded the cartridge into the chamber and
2 fired it.

3 Q. When you fired that weapon, was the bolt opened or closed?

4 A. It was closed.

5 Q. And when the bolt is closed, where is the firing pin?
6 What is the position of the firing pin?

7 A. The firing pin is sitting in the bolt. It's prepared,
8 it's ready so that when I pull the trigger, the hammer falls
9 forward and it slams into the firing pin and now the firing pin
10 is allowed to hit the primer.

11 Q. So for -- for that weapon to fire, does the bolt have to 12 be closed?

13 A. Yes, it does.

14 MR. MYHRE: And if I may show, Your Honor, the
15 witness what was previously admitted as 152a?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 152a published.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And I believe the jury has that image in front of it as 20 well. And in this image can you tell where that bolt is 21 forward or not?

22 A. Yes. This is the same image we looked at yesterday and
23 the bolt is forward.

24 Q. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: When you say "forward," do you mean

1 closed or not closed?

2 THE WITNESS: Closed.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. In response to Question 104 you were asked about the front
6 sight of 197b. When you looked at -- you looked at 197b
7 yesterday and it's available for you to look at today, is the
8 post of the sight intact on that weapon?

9 A. Can I take it out so I'm sure?

10 MR. MYHRE: With the Court's permission.

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 THE WITNESS: This is the front sight, this portion
13 right here (indicating). This portion right here (indicating)
14 is a shroud that would go over this little post here
15 (indicating). This post is actually what you sight in on to 16 shoot. The portion that's broken off would wrap around and
17 creates a -- basically a cover to block any kind of glare off
18 the front sight. So, the front sight is still there; it's
19 still intact.

20 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 21 witness held 197b in front of the jury and was pointing to the
22 front sight of the weapon.

23 BY MR. MYHRE:

24 Q. So, in other words, with the sight in the condition it is
25 now, that weapon could still be aimed and be functional?

1 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

2 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: You asked the question, is it still
4 functional then with that front sight?

5 MR. MYHRE: Is the weapon still functional in the
6 condition it's in?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Beyond the scope of the
8 question as well.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I think that's what the
11 question implies, as to whether the weapon can be used or not.

12 THE COURT: This is the one with the broken --

13 MR. MYHRE: This is Juror Question No. 104, whether
14 the gun -- the sight broke in transportation. I'm inferring
15 from that whether or not if this sight had been broken on the 16 day in question, would it have been functional or usable.

17 THE COURT: All right. Objection's overruled.

18 The witness may answer the question.

19 THE WITNESS: Would you like to rephrase the question
20 or --

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Sure.

23 With the sight -- you've described the sight in its
24 present condition; correct? The front sight?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. With the condition it's in as it sits here today, would
2 someone be able to use that weapon and use the sight?

3 A. Sure. The sight is still -- the front sight is still
4 available to shoot with. It's still present.

5 MR. MYHRE: All right. Thank you, Mr. Smith.

6 No further questions, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Follow-up by the defense?

8 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

9 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you, Mr. Smith,
13 for coming in today. You are excused.

14 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

15 (Witness excused.)

16 THE COURT: Are we going to recall Special Agent
17 Sarah Draper?

18 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and do that, then.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the United States recalls
21 Agent Draper.

22

23

SARAH DRAPER,

24 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been

25 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

1 THE COURT: Good morning, Special Agent Draper.
2 Thank you for coming back. We're going to have you sit up here
3 just in a minute, as soon as we can clear -- just have you wait
4 there while he clears up the evidence.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I move the podium?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 Aaron, move it.

8 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Draper, I do remind you
10 that you are still under oath.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead and continue, Ms. Ahmed, with
13 direct.

14 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

15

16 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SARAH DRAPER

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Good morning again, Agent Draper.

19 A. Good morning.

20 Q. When we left off, we were looking at Facebook posts -- we
21 had been looking at Facebook posts yesterday that you reviewed
22 and obtained from Mr. Parker's Facebook account.

23 Do you recall that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And after his participation in the events of April 12th,

1 2014, did he continue to post on his Facebook account regarding
2 those events?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
5 stipulated to admission -- for admission as Exhibit 105?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 105 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And Your Honor, may we -- may we admit it
9 as well, for the record?

10 THE COURT: Yes. 105 is admitted.

11 (Exhibit 105 received.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, do you see what's on the screen in front of 14 you as 105?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. Ask you just explain to the jury what is depicted in
17 Exhibit 105?

18 A. This is a screen capture of a picture from Mr. Parker's
19 Facebook page.

20 Q. And is that picture from April 12th of 2014?

21 A. Yes, this is.

22 Q. And is this actually taken at the BLM's ICP impoundment
23 site?

24 A. This is at the -- at Bundy Ranch.

25 Q. The bridge?

1 A. Yes. At the bridge.

2 Q. And looking at the individual that's depicted on the
3 viewer's right, do you recognize that person?

4 A. Yes. That's Mr. Parker.

5 Q. And the individual that's depicted on the viewer's far
6 left, do you recognize that person?

7 A. Yes. That's Mr. Drexler.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we admit and publish
9 what's been stipulated for admission as Exhibit 111?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 (Exhibit 111 received and published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what is depicted
14 in Exhibit 111?

15 A. This is a posting of a picture from Mr. Parker on his
17 2015.

18 Q. And what photo did Mr. Parker update his profile picture
19 with?

20 A. This is a picture of him -- taken of him at the Bundy
21 Ranch on the bridge on April 12th, 2014.

22 Q. And he posted this on October 11th of 2015?

23 A. Yes, that's correct.

24 Q. And looking below the picture, do you see that there are
25 also -- that individuals have "liked" and commented on that

1 picture?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you see the name Blaine Cooper?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Are you familiar with that name?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And who is Blaine Cooper?

8 A. Mr. Cooper was also involved in the events at Bundy Ranch
9 on April 12th, 2014.

10 Q. And below that, do you see that there are comments?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Can you read those comments?

13 A. Yes. An individual asks, "What rifle is that? A VZ?"

14 Q. And does Mr. Parker post a response?

15 A. Yes, he does.

16 Q. Can you read the response?

17 A. It says, "Saiga .223."

18 Q. And for the record, in the photograph that Mr. Parker made
19 his profile picture, is he -- what is he holding in his hands?

20 A. A Saiga .223.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish --

22 THE COURT: Can I just go back a little bit?

23 You were asking the witness about Mr. Blaine Cooper
24 and she said he was present at the events at Bundy Ranch. Was
25 he present at the events at the wash and the bridge --

1 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't know if --

2 THE COURT: -- or the rally beforehand?

3 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Was it just the rally
5 beforehand at the ranch or also later on at the wash?

6 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't know exactly if he
7 was on the bridge or on the wash.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 THE WITNESS: I recall through investigation he was
10 on the wash, but I don't know exactly.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Okay. You can move on.

13 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 May we publish what's been admitted as Exhibit 113?

15 (Exhibit 113 published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what is
18 displayed in Exhibit 113?

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, for the record, this
20 was over defense objection.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: That's correct.

23 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury what's depicted

1 in Exhibit 113?

2 A. This is another capture from Eric Parker's Facebook page
3 dated November 20th of 2015. It shows a picture of Mr. Drexler
4 on April 12th, 2014, on the bridge and there have been words
5 written on it and Mr. Parker made a comment.

6 Q. And what is Mr. Drexler doing in the picture?

7 A. He's standing --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to
9 speculation. What's he doing?

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. What does it appear that he's doing from the photograph?

12 A. It appears as though he's standing on the bridge carrying
13 a rifle.

14 Q. And what are the words that are superimposed over that
15 picture?

16 A. Says, "Lo, do they call to me. They bid me to take my
17 place among them in the hollowed halls of Valhalla where the 18 brave shall live forever."

19 Q. And are these words words that you've become familiar with 20 through your investigation of this case?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what -- what are they from, if you know?

23 A. Just --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

3 THE COURT: Well, it's not offered for the truth --
4 well, you -- Ms. Ahmed, what's your response?

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit that this is
6 an adopted admission by Mr. Parker.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, but it's our position that
8 she's going to testify to what she found out, so she's
9 basically testifying as to hearsay. It's not from her personal
10 knowledge.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Just were these words --

13 THE COURT: It's her personal knowledge. What she
14 found out, right? She's not --

15 MS. AHMED: She --

16 THE COURT: -- getting this information from someone
17 else?

18 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. She
19 investigated the origin of these words.

20 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it over the
21 objection.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Can you explain to the jury where these words come from?

24 A. Again, as yesterday, this is a summary of a -- of a Norse
25 or Viking prayer or poem about warriors seeking a place in

1 Valhalla.

2 Q. And how do they get that place in Valhalla?

3 A. If they died in battle.

4 Q. Now, above the picture with these words, you mentioned
5 that there -- there are also words above the picture; correct?

6 A. Yes, correct.

7 Q. And is that a comment that Mr. Parker posted separately
8 from the picture?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. But in relation to the picture?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Can you read that to the jury?

13 A. It says, "Our ongoing weekly tribute to the men and women
14 who showed up that day that were not me."

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been 16 stipulated to for admission -- may we admit and publish Exhibit
17 115?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 115 received and published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Agent Draper, is this a post that Mr. Parker posted to his
22 Facebook page?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what date did he make this post?

25 A. February 5th, 2016.

1 Q. And does -- in the post, is he sharing a photograph with
2 words on it?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what is depicted in the actual photograph?

5 A. This is a photograph of BLM at Bundy Ranch.

6 Q. These are the officers that were present on April 12th,
7 2014?

8 A. Yes, some.

9 Q. And what words are -- there appear to be words and circles
10 over the picture.

11 Do you see that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Written in blue?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Can you read what those say?

16 A. The word "dicks" three times.

17 Q. And is there -- do there -- do those words appear to be in 18 relation to the circles and the arrows that are also drawn on 19 the picture?

20 A. They appear to be.

21 Q. So, and it appears that they were referring to the
22 officers; is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And above and below the photograph there are also words.

25 Do you see that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Can you read those to the jury?

3 A. "The reason Nevada went so well, the dicks were there when
4 we got there."

5 Q. Now, below this photograph, are there also comments?

6 A. Yes, there are.

7 Q. Beginning where it says "Don Knight," can you read the
8 first comment?

9 A. It says -- "Don Knight: Yes. Always let your opponents
10 take the field first. That's one of the arts of war."

11 Q. And does Mr. Parker respond to that comment?

12 A. Yes, he does. He says, "Same idea. I just wrote it down
13 a little different."

14 Q. And where it says "Jeff Alldredge," can you read that
15 comment?

16 A. It says, "I always thought one would want to pick the 17 ground they fight from."

18 Q. And does Mr. Parker respond to that?

19 A. He does. And it says, "That's the hard part. Pick the 20 battlefield, but let them take it first."

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
22 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 101?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 101 published.)

25 ///

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 101?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. Now, you testified yesterday about a group known as the
5 3%.

6 Do you recall that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And also about the Idaho 3% which I believe you said was a
9 part of that greater 3%?

10 A. It's a part of a greater affiliation. It's not
11 necessarily a national connection, but a movement.

12 Q. And you described to the jury some of the things that the 13 Idaho 3% does; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What kind of group is the Idaho 3%?

16 A. Well, the FBI considers it a militia group.

17 Q. And --

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to hearsay.

19 Move to strike.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Is that based on your investigation and your familiarity
22 with the Idaho 3%?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And also in your training and experience as an FBI agent?

25 A. Yes.

1 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now, based on your investigation in this case, in June of
4 2015, was Mr. Parker affiliated with the Idaho 3%?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Looking at this exhibit, Exhibit 101, do you see where
7 I've circled on the screen a symbol?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I've circled toward the bottom of the picture.

10 Do you see that?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And can you explain to the jury, what is that symbol?

13 A. That is three Roman Numeral -- three Roman Numeral I's,
14 III%.

15 Q. And is that a symbol that's used by the Idaho 3%?

16 A. It's -- it's used by different 3% organizations, correct.

17 Q. Including the Idaho 3%?

18 A. Including, correct.

19 Q. And what is the photo -- photograph that is depicted in
20 Exhibit 101?

21 A. This is a photograph of Mr. Parker proned on the bridge at
22 Bundy Ranch on April 12th, 2014.

23 Q. And what do the words -- and where is his rifle in this
24 photograph?

25 A. The rifle is through a crack in the Jersey barrier -- the

1 highway barricade.

2 Q. The concrete barriers?

3 A. The concrete barriers, yes.

4 Q. And that's also known as the Jersey barriers?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And it appears to be pointing through that gap?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And what are the words written above that photograph?

9 A. "You give peace a chance . . . I'll cover you."

11 page?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. In June of 2015?

14 A. Correct.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
16 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 103?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 103 published.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 103?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. And can you describe to the jury what is depicted in
23 Exhibit 103?

25 in June of 2015 that at the time was made as a cover photo.

1 Q. And can you just remind the jury what a cover photo is in
2 Facebook?

3 A. That would be a -- kind of a -- a banner that would remain
4 until the individual user changes. It's a banner that would
5 remain consistent each time their page comes up. The content
6 may change, but that banner at the top of the page stays
7 consistent.

8 Q. So, if you make a photo your cover photo, that photo will
9 appear as the banner on your Facebook page?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And so when people go to your Facebook page, that's the
12 first thing they would see?

13 A. Yes, and your profile would also be consistent.

14 Q. Now, looking at the photo itself, do you recognize any of 15 the people in that photo?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And going from viewer's left to right, can you indicate,
18 mark and identify who you recognize?

19 A. (Indicating) that's Mr. Parker.

20 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle over
21 the person that's on the far left.

22 THE WITNESS: (Indicating).

23 MS. AHMED: And then the witness has drawn a circle
24 over an individual in the far right.

25 ///

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Who is that individual?

3 A. Mr. Stewart.

4 Q. And what do they appear to be doing in this picture?

5 A. Based upon the settings and -- they appear to be doing
6 some type of tactical training based upon their gear. It looks
7 like there's a target behind them. So, from my training, I
8 would assess they're doing some type of tactical and/or
9 firearms training.

10 Q. And the individual in the foreground that I've circled, do
11 you see what he is -- the shirt that he's wearing?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. Can you explain to the jury, based on your investigation,
14 what you know about that shirt? What is that shirt?

15 A. That is a shirt that members of the Idaho 3% wore. It has
16 a symbol of the organization on it.

17 Q. So, that image on the back of the shirt is the Idaho 3%
18 image?

19 A. Part of it, yes. Part of it on the back of that shirt is,
20 yes.

21 Q. And have you seen other pictures depicting Idaho 3%
22 shirts?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in those pictures, have you observed that they have --
25 what they have, if anything, on the sleeves of those shirts?

1 A. A flag sometimes, yes.

2 Q. And would the flag be consistent with the flag that
3 appears on Mr. Stewart's shirt in this picture (indicating)?

4 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 Do you want to rephrase the question?

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Looking at the picture, the circle that I've drawn around
9 Mr. Stewart's shirt, is that shirt consistent or not consistent
10 with the other Idaho 3% shirts that you've seen?

11 A. That sleeve would be consistent.

12 Q. And do you observe what Mr. Stewart has on top of his 13 shirt?

14 A. You mean the vest? Like a tactical vest.

15 Q. Can you explain to the jury what it is?

16 A. Oh, okay.

17 It's a -- it looks like some type of tactical vest to
18 carry gear, perhaps magazines. I can't tell if there's any
19 type of armoring in that or not, from here.

20 Q. And in this picture can you tell whether Mr. Parker has
21 something similar on?

22 A. He has something on. I -- I can't tell what it is.

24 cover photo in June of 2015 --

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. -- is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
4 admitted over defense exhibit -- excuse me -- over defense
5 objection as Exhibit 107?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 107 published.)

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Now, looking at this exhibit, Agent Draper, is this a post
10 that Mr. Parker made on his Facebook in August of 2015?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And does he appear to be sharing some information in this
13 post?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What is he sharing in this post?

16 A. He's sharing a link to a Facebook page for the 3% of
17 Idaho, the organization.

18 Q. And looking at the 3%er image, where it says "Three 19 Percenter," do you see that, in the near of the screen?

20 A. Oh, yes, I do. Sorry.

21 Q. Drawing a square around the circle in that, do you see
22 that --

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. -- square?

25 A. Yes, I see that.

1 Q. Can you read the words that are written in that -- around
2 the -- in the circle form around that?

3 A. "When tyranny becomes law, rebellion becomes duty."

4 Q. And then looking above that, do you see that Mr. Parker
5 also made comments on this post?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And can you read the comments from the top to the bottom
8 that Mr. Parker posted?

9 A. "For updates on our resistance, please like and follow" --
10 correction -- "please like, follow, and share our page."

11 Q. And those were the words that Mr. Parker's account posted?
12 He posted this on his account?

13 A. This was, yes, posted on his account, correct.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
15 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 110?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 110 published.)

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, Agent Draper, is this a -- what appears to be a post
20 that another user made on Mr. Parker's page?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And that post was made in September of 2015; correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Can you read what that person wrote on Mr. Parker's page?

25 A. The individual who posted this wrote, "Question . . . What

1 if one is/agrees with 3%ers but works for BLM/USFS?" Which
2 would be the United States Forest Service. "Serious question,
3 just occurred to me today."

4 Q. Now, did Mr. Parker post a response to that question?

5 A. Yes, he did.

6 Q. And what did he write?

7 A. "Got a lot of area to cover in that question and folks who
8 work for the BLM/US Forest Service just do the job they were
9 meant to at the founding of these organizations. You have
10 firefighters on both sides . . . I reach out to as many of the
11 LE branches that I can, especially in my local area, shake
12 their hand, look them in the eye, let him know I don't want to
13 kill him and I don't want him to kill me. Hopefully, it will
14 never have to get to the point it did in Nevada ever again."

15 Q. And what does "LE" stand for?

16 A. Law enforcement.

17 Q. And did Mr. Parker make another comment to this question?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. What did he write?

20 A. "Short answer is, I wish they would just find another
21 job."

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
23 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 116?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 (Exhibit 116 published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, is this another post made on Mr. Parker's
3 Facebook account?

4 A. Yes. This is another updated cover photo.

5 Q. And again, this would be then the banner that would appear
6 at the top of his page?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And when was this post made?

9 A. February 17th, 2016.

10 Q. And what is the post that he made -- he made his cover
11 photo?

12 A. It's the word "resist" and it shows a sketch of the image
13 of him on the bridge in Bundy Ranch on April 12th, 2014, where
14 he's proned behind a rifle at the Jersey barriers, the concrete
15 barriers, and it has the word "Three Percent" below it.

16 Q. And yesterday you were describing a T-shirt that you had
17 seen to the jury. Is this what, the T-shirt that you were
18 describing, is on that T-shirt?

19 A. That's -- my investigation leads me to believe this is the
20 shirt, yes.

21 Q. That this is actually a photograph of the shirt?

22 A. That's what my investigation leads, yes.

23 Q. Now, you indicated yesterday that the Idaho 3% conducts
24 operations.

25 Do you recall that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And during the course of your investigation in this case,
3 did you become aware of an operation that the Idaho 3%
4 participated in taking place in Oregon in April of 2015?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And generally, what was the nature of the operation?

7 A. There was -- there was a dispute where perceived laws
8 regarding, like, regulations of mines on public lands, between
9 a miner outside of Grants Pass, Oregon and the Bureau of Land
10 Management.

11 Q. So, there was a mine that was located on land administered
12 by the BLM --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- is that correct?

15 A. Um-hmm.

16 Q. And the miner disputed the BLM's regulations?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I was just trying to clarify
19 her answer.

20 THE COURT: Rephrase.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. So, you indicated there was some kind of dispute. What
23 was the dispute?

24 A. It was -- had to do with the surface rights of the -- of
25 the mine on the -- on the BLM land and there was a process that

1 was being taken to resolve that dispute.

2 Q. And when you say "a process," do you mean that there was
3 administrative --

4 A. There was an administrative process ongoing, um-hmm.

5 Q. So, was the miner appealing the BLM's decisions regarding
6 the mine?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. What -- when you say "administrative process," what --
11 what -- can you just explain to the jury what you mean?

12 A. So, there was -- the miners had filed an appeal based upon
13 something they had received from the BLM.

14 Q. And did the miners -- while that appeal was going on,
15 what, if any, other steps did the miners take?

16 A. While that process was going on, they reached out and
17 asked for militia assistance.

18 Q. And did militias respond to that request?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Including the Idaho 3%?

21 A. Individuals from, correct.

22 Q. Individuals from the Idaho 3%?

23 A. Yes. Individuals from the Idaho 3%.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, she's already explained that

1 this is based on her investigation.

2 THE COURT: Sustained.

3 MS. AHMED: Should I rephrase?

4 THE COURT: If you want to lay a foundation.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. So, did you observe social media postings regarding
7 individuals from the Idaho 3% related to this event?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. And what, if anything, did those postings lead you
10 understand?

11 A. That individuals from that organization responded to this
12 location in Oregon based upon this request.

13 Q. And what did they do when they responded?

14 A. As a whole, all the -- as a whole, the individuals who
15 responded conducted -- and again, this is from big picture --
16 conducted things such as armed patrols of the area and acted
17 somewhat --

18 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Did you -- in the course of this investigation, did you
21 follow the events that were taking place at this mine?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And just stepping back. You indicated -- again, was 24 this -- was this an operation such as what you were referring
25 to yesterday?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what was the name of this operation?

3 A. It was named Operation Gold Rush.

4 Q. Now, in following the events that were taking place during
5 this operation, did you learn what, if anything, these militia
6 groups were doing in relation to that request for help from the
7 miners? Did you learn over the course of your investigation?

8 A. Yes. Conducting activities such as armed patrol.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Did you observe social media postings, including photos
12 and videos?

13 A. I observed social media with images of individuals armed
14 at the site.

15 Q. And based on your investigation, what was their purpose in
16 being there with arms?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Speculation.

18 MR. TANASI: Objection. Relevance to Steven Stewart,
19 Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Foundation.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Lack of personal knowledge.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we're asking her based on her
24 investigation. So I can ask -- I can rephrase to say to the
25 extent you know if -- but -- so I can step back, Your Honor.

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. To the extent that you know and based on your
3 investigation, what was your understanding of their purpose in
4 being present with arms?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Foundation, Your Honor. All she said
6 was she looked at a picture on Facebook -- on social media.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would respond that this is
9 an FBI agent who has testified that she was a case agent
10 following the Idaho defendants who participated in the events
11 of April 2014 and in the course of her investigation she
12 followed this event that was taking place in Oregon, as she's
13 indicated, in Grants Pass, Oregon, and that she followed it and 14 monitored it. She subsequently reviewed social media to
15 include photos.

16 THE COURT: All right. So it wasn't clear to me that
17 her investigation was prior to her following or reviewing. So,
18 she's participate -- why don't you clarify it --

19 MS. AHMED: Sure, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: -- when she's investigating this. Is it
21 contemporaneously with the events or is it after the events
22 occurred?

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Now, you began your investigation into the events of
25 April 12th, 2014, when?

1 A. In April of 2014.

2 Q. And did you continue to investigate that up and through
3 the present?

4 A. Yes. Well, yes. Yeah.

5 Q. In the course of that investigation, you became aware of
6 these events that were taking place in Oregon in April of 2015;
7 is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Did you subsequently investigate what had happened in
10 Oregon?

11 A. To the extent of being aware of the involvement of 12 individuals that I was conducting investigations on from
13 April 12th, yes.

14 Q. So, your investigation in this case involved you following
15 specific subjects; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And those were the subjects that you stated yesterday?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Leading, Judge.

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, this is foundational. She
24 said it yesterday.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. She's already testified to who the

1 individuals are and the foundation is permissible.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. So, and that was Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes. Correct.

6 Q. So, in the course of following these three individuals, is
7 that how you became aware of the events in Oregon in April of 8 2015?

9 A. Correct, as well as in communication with other FBI
10 employees.

11 Q. Now, through your investigation into this case but with
12 the focus on the events in Oregon in April of 2015, this
13 Operation Gold Rush, did you learn if any of the defendants
14 that -- excuse me -- if any of the subjects that you were
15 following participated in that operation?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So, the people who had participated in the April 12th,
18 2014, event, you learned that some of them had participated in
19 this new operation; is that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And who, based on your investigation, participated in this
22 new operation, Operation Gold Rush?

23 A. Mr. Parker. There's photos of that, that I've observed,
24 and Mr. Drexler. I have not observed photos of him there, but
25 other indicators that he was there, Facebook posts.

1 Q. And did you observe photos of other individuals who also
2 participated in this operation?

3 A. Just other individuals?

4 Q. Correct.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And in -- have you observed -- through those photos, did
7 you observe what their activities were at this operation,
8 generally?

9 A. Generally, yes.

10 Q. And what did it appear to you, based on your training and
11 experience?

12 A. Generally, some of the activities involved conducting
13 armed patrols, security-type operations.

14 Q. And what were they patrolling for? What was purpose the
15 controlling the patrols, based on your investigation?

16 A. Based upon the investigation, as well as communication
17 with other FBI employees --

18 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Was your investigation informed by information that was
21 shared amongst FBI employees?

22 A. Yes. Yes. This wasn't --

23 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

24 MS. AHMED: That question, Your Honor, did not elicit
25 any hearsay. I'm just asking if she shared information with

1 other FBI employees.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, she's trying to elicit
3 testimony as to what other FBI employees told her which is
4 being offered for the truth of the matter asserted. We have no
5 way to question the veracity of the statement.

6 THE COURT: All right. So the objection as to what
7 someone else told her, an out-of-court statement, that
8 objection is sustained. The next question was, did you discuss
9 with others or did others discuss with you, something to that
10 effect?

11 MS. AHMED: I don't know if I can repeat the exact
12 question, Your Honor, but the investigation -- was the
13 investigation -- did she share information with other FBI
14 employees in the course of investigating.

15 THE COURT: All right. And the objection is
16 overruled as to that question. That -- the form of that
17 question is appropriate.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, just based on your training and your experience and
20 your investigation that you've done in this case, from the 21 photos that you reviewed in relation to that event, what did it
22 appear that those individuals were doing in -- during Operation
23 Gold Rush in April of 2015?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Vague as to which individuals.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MS. AHMED: Well, Your Honor, I'd actually withdraw
2 that question. I believe the witness has already answered that
3 they were conducting armed patrols.

4 So, let me -- let me ask you a different question.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to counsel's
6 restatement. That's -- I'd move to strike what she just said.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

10 THE COURT: Overruled.

11 Go ahead.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, so the question is, from your own knowledge,
14 what you've observed and during your investigation, what was
15 your understanding of what the armed patrols were meant to do?

16 A. My understanding was that they were meant to act as a
17 deterrent to the Bureau of Land Management to have engagement
18 with the miners.

19 Q. Now, in relation to this operation, did you observe
20 Facebook posts made by Eric Parker regarding this event?

21 A. Yes.

22 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
23 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 99?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 (Exhibit 99 published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent Draper, this a post that Mr. Parker shared about
3 that event that we were just discussing?

4 A. Yes. This is a shared link from April -- excuse me -- a
5 shared link from April 11th, 2015.

6 Q. And is there a -- does the link appear to be some sort of
7 article -- does there appear to be a headline associated with
8 the link in this "share," in this post?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Can you read what that is?

11 A. It says, "'Bundy Ranch' type standoff brewing in 12 Southern Oregon between miners and BLM."

13 Q. And what is the date that this post was shared on
14 Mr. Parker's Facebook page?

15 A. April 11th, 2015.

16 Q. And can you read the words that are under that headline,
17 that appear in that top portion but are under that headline
18 that you just read?

19 A. "Grants Pass, Oregon, April" -- O-R being Oregon -- "April
20 11th, 2015."

21 "For the past several years, the miners from the
22 Galice Mining District, about 30 minutes west of Grants Pass,
23 Oregon have been . . ."

24 Q. Now, what we were just talking about this Operation Gold
25 Rush, is -- and I think you indicated where it took place. Can

1 you tell the jury again, what was this operation taking place?

2 A. It was near Grants Pass, Oregon.

3 Q. And there appear to be additional comments posted by
4 Mr. Parker on his account regarding this initial post; is that
5 right?

6 A. Yes, that's correct.

7 Q. And do you see that one that's been zoomed out?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Can you read that to the jury?

10 A. Yes.

11 It says, "Alert. Alert. Alert. Alert.

12 "This is a standby order for all 3%ers and militias.
13 You are not protestors. We need to get head counts and start
14 setting up supply routes. We will have more info by Monday.

15 "Josephine County, Oregon.

16 "We have word from Galice Mining District that BLM
17 has given them a cease and desist order. They are working a
18 mining claim that is believed to be one of the oldest
19 continuing claims in the United States and have the records to 20 prove their rights to the claim. They are protected under the
21 General Mining Act of 1872.

22 "Sheriff Gil" -- correction -- "Sheriff Gilbertson
23 stood between the miners and BLM, protecting their rights under 24 the 1872 law. BLM is testing the new sheriff, Dave Daniel, and
25 where he stands on this issue. He allowed one of the

1 Josephine County's deputies to accompany a BLM ranger to serve
2 the papers on the miners. This is setting up to become a Bundy
3 Ranch type standoff.

4 "They have been given until April 25th to remove all
5 of their mining equipment off the claim, to include a cabin
6 they expect BLM to burn to the ground. Oregon III% is going to
7 support them in whatever capacity we are able to, to include a
8 response team for the protection of their claim. Understanding
9 the dynamics of this group of independent miners, this has the
10 potential to ramp up very quickly. They will be challenging
11 this in the court system, but their first hearing is after
12 April 25th.

13 "Josephine County Sheriff's Office.

14 "601 Northwest 5th Street.

15 "Grants Pass, Oregon, 97526.

16 "Phone Number (541) 474-5123."

17 Q. And did that post -- did that -- did Eric Parker post an 18 additional comment in relation to his post that you've just
19 read?

20 A. Correct. He says, "Posted to Idaho from Oregon," which,
21 to me, from my investigation, indicates he just shared this.
22 He did not write that post I just read.

23 Q. And based on your investigation, when he says, "Posted to 24 Idaho from Oregon," does he mean the Idaho -- posted from the
25 Oregon 3% to the Idaho 3%?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. There are additional comments below that.

3 Do you see those?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And where it says, "Eric Ej Parker," can you read what
6 that says?

7 A. It says, "Call me for details."

8 Q. And then below that where it says "Jason Patrick," what
9 does that say?

10 A. "Coordinates?"

11 Q. And was it a question that was being asked?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And then does Mr. Parker respond to that person's
14 question?

15 A. He writes, "Send me a PM" -- which is a private message --
16 "so I remember and I'll get it to you in the morning, Jason."

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what has been
18 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 100?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 Actually, why don't we go ahead and take our lunch
21 break now.

22 It's 12:06, so I do remind the jury during this break
23 that you are not to discuss this case with anyone, not even
24 your fellow jurors. You may discuss other things with your
25 fellow jurors, but not this case.

1 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that
2 touches upon this case in any way.

3 Do not perform any independent research or
4 investigation nor attempt to do so, and please do not form any
5 opinion until after you have heard all the testimony, seen the
6 evidence. I will provide you with the jury instructions of
7 law. Then you will hear closing arguments and after that I
8 will excuse you to begin your deliberation process, your duty
9 to deliberate and discuss with each other your opinions in
10 effort to attempt to reach a unanimous decision.

11 So, we'll go ahead and take our break now. It's
12 12:07. Plan to be back here at 1:10.

13 (Off-record discussion.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. So plan to be back here at 1:10.

15 Let's stand for the jury so they can be excused and
16 then FBI Special Agent Draper, after they exit -- after the
17 jury exits, then you may also take your brunch break and then
18 we'll need you back here at 1:10, please.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

22 (Recess was taken at 12:08 p.m.)

23 (Outside the presence of the jury at 1:41 p.m.:)

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. You maybe seated.

1 I understand the parties want me to address some
2 other objections before we bring in the jury; is that right?

3 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor. We just
4 wanted to go through the Stewart. There are six exhibits for
5 Mr. Stewart's Facebook, so it's his Facebook account that we
6 had -- didn't -- were unable to agree on them and then there
7 was also the question of the booking photos that we have -- we
8 are intending to put in with this witness. I think that there
9 was an objection on those as well.

10 THE COURT: All right. So let's see the first one.

11 MS. AHMED: It's -- I'm sorry, Your Honor. It's
12 Exhibit 117.

13 (Exhibit 117 published.)

14 THE COURT: What's the objection to 117?

15 MR. TANASI: Okay, Your Honor. With respect to 117,
16 I was arguing 106 completeness under what's been redacted and
17 in that the way that it's presented, it's misleading as
18 presented, 117.

19 And so, what I proffered with Ms. Ahmed was 5037a,
20 Defense Exhibit 5037a, which hopefully Brian can bring that up
21 for you so you could look at --

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. TANASI: -- how I was hoping to complete it.
24 5037a.

25 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, just -- while it's being

1 pulled up, my understanding is that 5037a is what it would look
2 like if you went to the actual Facebook page on the Internet,
3 but it's numerous posts that are here, not just the two posts
4 that we have included in 117.

5 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor. This is --
6 this is how the actual Facebook post would appear and -- and --
7 but the comment on the bottom, "First they said they were going
8 to release everything and leave. Then they held the gates to
9 Gold Butte and threatened us with chemicals and they pushed
10 forward and had to back off. They are releasing the cows now.
11 BLM is leaving," so that -- that's the one portion that the
12 Government intends to offer and I'm seeking to complete the
13 entire document to avoid misleading the jury to show what my
14 client's state of mind was, which was, "United we stand. We,
15 the people, will be heard in Nevada. No more government
16 bullying."

17 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, those -- those are
18 clearly separate posts. Everything above the bottom post,
19 those are distinctive posts, distinct, separate, and also
20 irrelevant.

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, they're -- again, they're on
22 the same day and looking at the raw data, it's at 3 :47 UTC
23 time that Mr. Stewart posts, "United we stand. We, the people,
24 will be heard in Nevada. No more government bullying," and
25 it's 2:52 that the post related to releasing everything and

1 leaving was made. So, they're close in time and, again, the
2 Government is offering this to demonstrate my client's . . .
3 illegal state of mind, for lack of a better way of putting it
4 on the bridge, and for why he was in Nevada in the first place
5 and entering just this misleading, kind of, excerpt from his
6 Facebook to prove that and the remainder of his Facebook that
7 I'm seeking to admit demonstrates why he went to Nevada.

8 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would just follow-up
9 that this is essentially self-serving hearsay. It's
10 distinctive -- it's distinct from the other post and the other
11 post is not misleading; it's complete. And so, there's no
12 confusion as to what the message in that post that we are
13 seeking to admit as an admission -- there's nothing that's
14 incomplete in that post and the rest of it is self-serving
15 hearsay.

16 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Tanasi, I don't
17 understand why you think that Government's 117 is misleading
18 and requires the extra information on Defense 5037a.

19 MR. TANASI: Because the way that it's presented is
20 the implication that he was on the bridge attempting to extort
21 BLM officers and that's why he was there in the first place and
22 that's what his object was. The language of "pushing forward,"
23 all of that is -- is to imply that he was up there threatening
24 and extorting federal officers. The remainder of the post
25 demonstrates that . . . that's not what he was doing. He was

1 up there standing with other protestors against what he
2 believed was a government bully, or at least protesting against
3 what he believed was a government bully.

4 THE COURT: So, in Exhibit 117, where it says, "Then
5 we pushed forward and they had to back off, they are releasing
6 the cows now and BLM is leaving," you're saying that's
7 misleading and that in 537a, where it says "united we stand,"
8 that's the -- the clarification is that they were standing, not
9 pushing forward so that the government had to back off?

10 MR. TANASI: That's -- that's it, Your Honor. Yes.

11 And I agree there is probably some other portions of
12 that post above it that probably could be redacted and the
13 reason I didn't kind of catch those sooner, I think, was just
14 in an effort of putting this together and putting --
15 screenshotting it and, you know, as I look at it, and yes,
16 we're okay that that probably doesn't go to the same argument
17 that I'm making, so I'm fine with actually, you know, redacting
18 that portion, but the "united we stand" part, I think, is
19 what's critical.

20 THE COURT: All right. And so the Government's
21 position is that it's not in need of clarification because it's
22 an entire statement; it's within its own block for lack of a
23 better word. It's a white block on the page, not -- not within 24 the other white blocks. They're separated by gray lines, so to
25 speak. So, it's threads, I suppose, maybe is the way to refer

1 to them. So the -- they're two separate threads with different
2 commentaries, not part of the same thread.

3 MS. AHMED: And it would also be just self-serving
4 hearsay.

5 THE COURT: So the Government's position is that the
6 united-we-stand-we-the-people-will-be-heard statement posted by
7 Steven Stewart is a self-serving statement by the defendant
8 that would -- is not admissible?

9 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: And again, Your Honor, defines the push.
11 The Government's position is the push is an armed push and an
12 armed standoff and an intimidating standoff. The post on the 13 top shows something different and explains further what that
14 push was.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, he's not available for
16 cross-examination.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I was basing this on 106.

18 THE COURT: Well, it's not part of the same . . .
19 it's not the same -- it's not part of the other statements.
20 It's not part of a recorded statement or writing.

21 It's not admissible under 106. It is not subject to
22 cross-examination at this point yet, so it doesn't look like
23 it's admissible.

24 All right. So Exhibit 117 is admitted. Defense
25 Exhibit 5073a at this time is not admitted, but without

1 prejudice it can be offered later if there's a basis for it to
2 be admitted.

3 (Exhibit 117 received.)

4 MR. TANASI: And just -- so the record is clear, is
5 that in the event my client were to testify it could be offered
6 later? Is that how I'm to understand the ruling?

7 THE COURT: Well, that's part of it. It needs to --
8 it needs to be admissible according to the Rules of Evidence.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 (Exhibit 118 published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the next exhibit is 118 and I
12 think we had redacted a comment at the bottom just to be
13 consistent with the concerns the defense had raised yesterday
14 about hearsay because there was a comment at the bottom by a
15 Mr. -- by Steve Hill that said "come back safe" or something to
16 that effect and so, we redacted that and I think Mr. Tanasi
17 wanted that part to be un -- to not be redacted. So, I mean
18 . . . we just left it as -- as-is, but I don't think there was
19 an objection to the rest of the post.

20 THE COURT: Is that right? You objected to the
21 removal of the comment by another individual, "come back safe"?

22 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Isn't that hearsay?

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think, again, it's --
25 it's -- I think it's -- again, falls under the 106 purview and

1 that it's the entire statement or writing to be presented in
2 its entirety so as to not mislead the jury and for fairness.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, it doesn't appear to
4 me -- the writing isn't even really a writing, it's a posting
5 of a photograph image with a title that says "Going to Get the
6 Cattle Back" and then a link to a photo, which is that photo.
7 So, the comment does -- the comment would be extraneous.

8 So, Exhibit 118 with the redaction is admitted.

9 (Exhibit 118 received.)

10 (Exhibit 119a published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, 119a is the next one, and
12 that one, actually, I believe, 119a, counsel had no objection
13 to. It was from the Facebook returns and it's a video that was
14 uploaded -- a link to a video that was uploaded with a comment,
15 "Somebody said they had 104 vehicles." So, 119a, I believe,
16 there was no objection.

17 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. It says -- does that say 118. It
19 looks like 119 on my screen.

20 MS. AHMED: Oh, it's 119a. I apologize.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: 119a. And then --

23 THE COURT: So Exhibit 119a is admitted.

24 (Exhibit 119a received.)

25 MS. AHMED: And then 119b, Your Honor, is the video

1 itself that if you follow that link, it goes to the video and
2 if Your Honor recalls, this was the video that -- where
3 Mr. Stewart was filming the BLM's departure from the ICP and if
4 you -- if Your Honor would like, I can play it now, but
5 Mr. Tanasi did object to the admission of that one.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And what's the objection to 119b?

7 MR. TANASI: Two grounds, Your Honor: One, relevance
8 in that I don't know that it's probative to anything that was
9 occurring on the bridge because at that point they were -- the
10 BLM agents were driving away and so the standoff had concluded.
11 So -- so relevance, and then the other is the prejudicial
12 nature of it outweighs any probative value because there is
13 reference to the word "martyr" that my client uses. That word,
14 I think, inherently has prejudice that would kind of mislead
15 the jury and ultimately prejudice the jury into a conclusion in 16 this case.

17 THE COURT: All right. So as to the objection to --
18 regarding the relevance, the objection is that this video
19 captures events after the bridge event, but the conspiracy
20 spans beyond just the bridge event; right?

21 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor. And -- and it's
22 showing -- it is a part -- this is actually contemporaneous to
23 the event. It's showing the BLM's final departure from the ICP
24 after they had been essentially forced to leave and
25 Mr. Tanasi's commenting -- excuse me -- Mr. Stewart is

1 commenting on the video and -- about the BLM being forced to
2 leave and focusing on law enforcement that's on the bridge with
3 him at the time. And Your Honor is correct, the conspiracy is
4 charged to be ongoing.

5 And just as to the other objection, Your Honor, as to
6 prejudice, obviously is the rule is that it has to be unfairly
7 prejudice. This is his comments at the time showing his intent
8 at the time.

9 THE COURT: So is it just the word "martyr" or is it
10 used in a sentence?

11 MR. TANASI: He uses the word "martyr" and it is part
12 of a sentence. He says something to the effect of that . . .
13 they couldn't kill us or they couldn't stop us, something along
14 those lines, we were going to be martyrs if they did. So
15 again, the use of that word "martyr," I think, has inherent
16 prejudice, especially in this day and age. When I hear that 17 word, Your Honor, my mind goes to Afghanistan or the
18 Middle East or -- not Bunkerville.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, I don't see that it's
20 unfairly prejudiced. If it wasn't prejudicial, the Government
21 wouldn't be seeking to use it. So, the 403 rule is whether or
22 not it's unfairly prejudicial, not just merely whether it's
23 prejudicial and it does appear to be relevant as it captures
24 events occurring during the alleged conspiracy.

25 Is the Government offering it for evidence of intent

1 or just all kinds of different things? I haven't seen the
2 video, so I don't know.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's being offered for -- you
4 know, evidence as to what was occurring at the time, but also
5 for his intent, yes.

6 And sharing it on Facebook, obviously, he would be
7 also -- it would go back to the arguments from earlier, that
8 he's sharing it and alerting other people to what they've
9 achieved, what they're doing.

10 THE COURT: He's adopting, encouraging, recruiting,
11 glorifying, so forth?

12 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, I -- that's certainly
14 seems that it is admissible. Exhibit 119b will be admitted.

15 (Exhibit 119b received.)

16 (Exhibit 120 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: 119 -- excuse me -- 120, Your Honor, is
18 the next exhibit and I believe Mr. Tanasi wanted, again, to
19 include open source Facebook posts in addition to this one that
20 would also have appeared on the actual page, other posts that
21 would have appeared around this one.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, there is no additional pages
23 I -- at this point I'm looking to offer. That was something we
24 discussed and I neglected to tell Ms. Ahmed that, that at this
25 point I'm not trying to add anything else to this particular

1 post.

2 I do -- I did object to it, though, in its entirety
3 on relevance grounds. Again, going back to the date, it's the
4 15th. Again, it's two days or three days after the events in
5 Bunkerville and I -- not to sound like a broken record, that's
6 why I would say it lacks any probative value to the case
7 because it's commenting on an order two days or three days
8 after the events in Bunkerville and the events in Bunkerville
9 were precipitated --

10 THE COURT: Wait. I think we're looking at two
11 different things.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Maybe I'm --

14 MR. TANASI: Apologize.

15 MS. AHMED: Exhibit 120 --

16 THE COURT: The one I'm looking at, Exhibit 120, says
17 is from 4-18.

18 MS. AHMED: I -- the last two are --

19 THE COURT: So, six days later, and it says, "Guys, I
20 only went for the weekend. We helped Cliven Bundy get his 21 cattle back. Straight there; straight back. Two hours of 22 sleep in between."

23 MR. TANASI: That's my mistake, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

25 MR. TANASI: I was looking at the wrong exhibit.

1 So, with that exhibit, I don't think we have an
2 objection and I wasn't seeking to add anything in addition to
3 it as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 120 is admitted.
5 (Exhibit 120 received.)

6 MR. TANASI: Okay.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Parker would object as to hearsay in
8 reference to him. It's not done in furtherance of the
9 conspiracy.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would submit that it's
11 admissible as to everybody under 801(d)(2)(E).

12 THE COURT: Well, how is it in furtherance of the
13 conspiracy?

14 MS. AHMED: He's basically advising his Facebook
15 friends and followers of what they achieved, which was helping
16 Cliven get his cattle back. Again, Your Honor, it would go
17 back to that glorification which also serves for recruitment
18 and also serves to -- as a deterrent to law enforcement.

19 THE COURT: Well, it's not made to keep others
20 abreast of an ongoing conspiracy activity. I think that was
21 the -- the reason the other one . . .

22 All right. It's 4-18-2014. So, it is during the
23 time period of the conspirators alleged and it is alleged
24 they're all members of the same conspiracy and there's
25 preponderance of the evidence sufficient for the Court to find

1 that element met and it's during the conspiracy. The question
2 is, how is this made in furtherance of the conspiracy for it to
3 qualify as under 801(d)(2)(E).

4 I mean, I agree it's admissible against Mr. Stewart,
5 but I'm not seeing that it's admissible against the other
6 three.

7 (Counsel conferring.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor . . .

9 (Counsel conferring.)

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, maybe I wasn't so artful the
11 first time I said it, but, I guess, my point is that this is a
12 public post he's posting on Facebook explaining what they have
13 just achieved and part of the ongoing conspiracy was that they
14 got the cattle back and that they were going to help him keep
15 the cattle. So, getting the cattle back was the first step in 16 that conspiracy as it's alleged, which was to continue to
17 prevent the law enforcement from taking the action that they
18 were ordered to do by the court in conducting the impoundment.
19 So, the first step of that is getting the cattle back and so in 20 apprising the public of that goal, it's alerting them to the
21 first step of the conspiracy and keeping people apprised of
22 what they've done and so we would say it's in furtherance of 23 the conspiracy because he's telling everybody, "Hey, we've got 24 the cattle back now."

25 THE COURT: All right. So you're saying that it is

1 keeping them abreast of the ongoing conspiracy by publicly
2 stating which of the objectives have been met?

3 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Well . . . all right.

5 So, pursuant to 801(d)(2)(E), Exhibit 120 is
6 admissible as to the other alleged co-conspirators. So, the
7 objection's overruled.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the final exhibit from
9 Mr. Stewart's Facebook would be Exhibit 121.

10 (Exhibit 121 published.)

11 MR. TANASI: So now that we're on the right exhibit,
12 Your Honor, I'll take a stab at it again.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. Thank you.

14 MR. TANASI: Exhibit 121, I object to it on relevance
15 grounds. It's created on 4-15-2014, which is three days after
16 the event in Bunkerville. The events in Bunkerville were
17 premised on court orders and my client's knowledge of violating
18 court orders and the duties that stem from those court orders.
19 This post has no relevance to further the Government's theory
20 in this case in that it's simply a post about Lloyd D. -- the
21 Honorable Lloyd D. George and then his comment that, you know,
22 "These people think that they own us." Again, I -- I think
23 when looking at it in a vacuum, just as it's posted, it has no
24 relevance to the Government's case.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor --

1 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed?

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd respond that his
3 knowledge of the court orders which, as we all know from the
4 exhibits that have already been admitted, Judge George was the
5 judge on one of the orders that was issued in 2013. His
6 knowledge of the court orders at any time during the conspiracy
7 is relevant to his intent on April 12th, 2014. It's evidence
8 that we would argue is relevant to his intent and, again, he's
9 never withdrawn from the conspiracy so he's still a member of
10 the conspiracy at this time. And the conspiracy itself is also
11 alleged to be ongoing in that they're -- under 372, the charge
12 relating to 372, part of the conspiracy is to prevent the
13 officers from returning and continuing -- attempting to do the
14 impoundment again.

15 THE COURT: Well, it does seem to be relevant to his
16 intent and his absence of mistake in . . .

17 So, Exhibit 121 is admitted.

18 (Exhibit 121 received.)

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: On behalf of Mr. Drexler I would
20 object that it comes in for him for purposes of -- it's not in 21 furtherance of a conspiracy. If it has to do with intent,
22 that's not in furtherance.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

24 THE COURT: And, Ms. Ahmed, what is your response?

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor -- Your Honor, we would submit

1 that again it would come in -- come in as to all of the
2 defendants under 801(d)(2)(E). He's sharing it. He's alerting
3 them to information about this judge and -- who is the author
4 of one of the court orders that they had just impeded and he's
5 furthering their knowledge about the ongoing conspiracy.
6 Riling them up. "These people think they own us."

7 THE COURT: So the riling them up, you're referring
8 to . . .

9 MS. AHMED: And sharing the post and sharing
10 information about the judge that authored the court order that
11 they obviously interfered with on April 12th or that they
12 interfered with on April 12th and then he's commenting on that
13 judge in his own text in the -- sharing this information with
14 all of his Facebook followers, including his co-conspirators.

15 THE COURT: So, that makes it in furtherance of the
16 conspiracy?

17 MS. AHMED: That's what we -- what we would argue,
18 Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. By a preponderance of the 20 evidence that is sufficient. So, Exhibit 121 is admitted as to 21 Mr. Stewart as well as to the other co-conspirators pursuant to
22 801(d)(2)(E).

23 That was the last one?

24 MS. AHMED: That was the last Facebook post,
25 Your Honor. There are also the booking photos as to Mr. Parker

1 and Mr. Stewart and Mr. Drexler. I had the impression that
2 those were -- that counsel was objecting to those, the
3 admission of those as well.

4 THE COURT: All right. Let's look at those.

5 MS. AHMED: Exhibit 129 is Mr. Parker's booking
6 photos.

7 (Exhibit 129 published.)

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects.

9 MS. AHMED: And there's -- it's a multiple page
10 exhibit, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Is that three pages? No, it looks like 12 5.

13 Let's go back to 1.

14 All right. Any objection to Page 1?

15 MR. MARCHESE: I object to all of them. There's
16 no -- in my opinion, there's no reason for any of this to come
17 in. Multiple witnesses have identified Mr. Parker. We have a
18 video of Mr. Parker saying he's Eric from Idaho. There's no
19 reason to bring this in.

20 We have admissions that were read into the record by
21 Agent Seyler of Mr. Parker admitting that he was at the
22 Bundy Ranch. So, the need to identify him with a booking photo
23 at this juncture is overly prejudicial and irrelevant.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Ahmed?

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just to be clear. For
3 Exhibit 129, we would primarily seek to admit -- we don't need
4 the first page; we really are only seeking to admit Page 4.

7 Sorry. Page 5. Page 5.

8 THE COURT: So 3, 4, 5, or just 5?

9 MS. AHMED: Just -- just -- I'm sorry, Your Honor.
10 Page 5, which is -- and we're seeking to admit it for the 11 tattoo that appears on his right forearm which you can see in
12 the picture which is a tattoo of the Idaho 3% logo, and that's 13 already come into evidence that that's what that is and we
14 would say that it goes to his -- again, his ties to this
15 movement to the conspiracy. It's evidence that, you know, he's 16 willing to tattoo this on his body, how committed he is to this
17 conspiracy.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Well, Your Honor, I mean, the Court is
19 well aware of my continuing objection in reference to the 3%.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd also just note that there
21 have been times when the jury has been in the courtroom where
22 Mr. Parker's sleeves have been rolled up where the -- that same
23 tattoo has been on display, so . . .

24 MR. MARCHESE: So that's -- then we don't need it.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, I addressed some of

1 this in the -- a Motion in Limine Order 2176, but the photos
2 were not attached to that Motion in Limine so all I could say
3 was that the photos could be of assistance for purposes of
4 identifying. So, I -- I agree that the other -- well, the
5 first page -- well, let's leave it at it's not being sought to
6 be admitted. So the only page that you are seeking to admit of
7 Exhibit 129 is Page 5, which is the picture of
8 Mr. Parker's . . . I guess it would be like belly button up.
9 It looks like it's sort of waist -- well, it's higher than the
10 waist. So mid-section up where you can see his left bicep and
11 right bicep and forearm and then his chest and his face, and
12 the right arm, on the forearm, has stars encircling the outline
13 of the state of Idaho, so the state of Idaho is inside the
14 stars that are circling it and then Roman Numeral III
15 apostrophe "S" is in the middle of the state of Idaho.

16 Since we have seen other shirt, hat, I think there
17 was also something on the Facebook posting with this same or
18 similar consistent marking, it is relevant.

19 So, Exhibit 129, Page 5 is admitted.

20 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 received.)

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, and I would just renew my
22 motion for severance in terms of prejudicial spillover effect.
23 I think, with all due respect to Mr. Parker, that picture is
24 pretty menacing and I think that the image that it portrays has
25 an unfair prejudice to my client. I would offer, maybe as

1 potential alternative relief, possibly just having this
2 redacted so that only the 3%er is demonstrated and shown and
3 the parties stipulate that that's Eric Parker, some -- some way
4 to tone it do down, Your Honor, I guess is what I'm asking for.

5 MR. MARCHESE: We -- generally, we object, but if the
6 Court is going to allow it that's what we would ask, that the
7 right forearm only be shown. The other two tattoos are
8 completely irrelevant.

9 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government has no problem
10 with redacting those other two tattoos.

11 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead then and
12 redact the other two tattoos so you can just see his face and
13 his tattoo and where it is on his arm. That will be fine.

14 MS. AHMED: So, Your Honor, we would redact
15 everything above -- oh, just --

16 THE COURT: Just put a box on the other two tattoos
17 that aren't relevant to this particular case.

18 MS. AHMED: Understood.

19 THE COURT: I think that's the objection; right? Is
20 the prejudice to the other -- what the other two tattoos might
21 be symbolic of if they have some other -- or if the jury can be
22 mistaken about what they are or start asking questions about
23 what they mean or what they are.

24 I agree; it's a good idea to just hide the other two
25 tattoos.

1 And then as to how this would be admissible against
2 the co-defendants, I don't see that it would be. Is it being
3 offered against anyone other than Mr. Parker?

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would just ask that it be
5 offered as to Mr. Parker.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 (Exhibit 130 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: And then, Your Honor, Exhibit 130 is the
9 next. These are obviously Mr. Stewart's booking photos.
10 We're -- we only need -- we are only seeking to introduce --
11 well, sorry, Your Honor.

12 Going back to Mr. Parker's photo. This is what it
13 would look like. It's on the screen with a redaction.

14 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published.)

15 THE COURT: That's fine.

16 (Exhibit 130 published.)

17 MS. AHMED: And then Exhibit 130. Also a multiple
18 page exhibit. We would only seek to introduce Page 5, this
19 page, and that is, Your Honor, the tattoo, the vine tattoo that
20 appears on the left forearm is also visible in that photograph
21 that we already put into evidence where that's training with
22 Mr. Parker and had helps with identification of Mr. Stewart in
23 that photograph.

24 THE COURT: Any objection to Page 5 of Exhibit 130?

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'd object on one ground --

1 well, relevance and also unfair prejudice to my client.

2 The -- the same as Mr. Marchese had outlined. I
3 don't think identity is at all an issue in the case. Mr.
4 Stewart has been identified on the bridge. He's been
5 identified in a picture with other 3%ers. Putting up pictures
6 to further identify him with tattoos and then also his orange
7 jumpsuit in the back, which everybody -- I think it's pretty
8 common knowledge that that's an arrest jumpsuit, it's an
9 in-custody jumpsuit. I think on those two grounds it's, (a),
10 not relevant to identification in the case, and (b), it's
11 unfairly prejudicial to my client.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just -- that picture
13 where that's training with Mr. Parker wearing 3% -- where they
14 appear to all be wearing 3% T-shirts is a side view of him.
15 You can clearly see the tattoo, you cannot clearly see his
16 face. And so, if Mr. Tanasi is willing to stipulate that that
17 is Mr. Stewart in that picture and then we can do that in front
18 of the jury when they return, then we would not seek to put 19 this exhibit in.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I -- we'd make that
21 stipulation, that he's in that picture, absolutely, but not
22 stipulate that he is a member of the 3%ers just because he's in
23 that picture.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MS. AHMED: That's -- that's not what we're asking,

1 Your Honor. Yes, just that he was in -- that's him that's in
2 that picture.

3 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 130, Page 5 is
4 withdrawn?

5 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. And we would just ask
6 that it be put on the record when the jury returns.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 (Exhibit 131 published.)

9 MS. AHMED: And then, Your Honor, the last exhibit
10 for the booking photos is 131, and this is Mr. Drexler's
11 booking photos and we are only seeking to introduce Page 4 and
12 that -- it's the same -- as you can see on his right arm, on
13 his right arm -- I believe that's his right arm -- that's 14 there's a tattoo of the same symbol that Mr. Parker had which
15 is the Idaho 3% emblem and the word "Bundy" and then some other
16 words underneath that.

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objections as prior counsel
19 noted, that it's unduly prejudicial to my client and it has no
20 relevancy to this. Also, there's the orange jumpsuit, which we
21 try very hard to keep our clients dressed in normal civilian
22 clothes. The marshals are in clothes. They don't see the
23 chains that they're wearing right now, but I would also note
24 that at the bottom he's got some -- on his left wrist he's got
25 some kind of identification it looks to be like, again, it's

1 some kind of booking or bar code of some sort, and obviously,
2 the -- with the right tattoo would have no relevancy at all to
3 this.

4 MS. AHMED: Just responding to the right tattoo,
5 Your Honor, that's clearly visible in the photos from
6 April 12th, 2014. But, in any event, Your Honor, we would --
7 with the stipulation that this is Mr. Drexler's arm, we could
8 simply zoom in on that tattoo that is currently zoomed in on.
9 It would be a little bit blurry, but with the stipulation that
10 that is Mr. Drexler's arm, that this is a tattoo that's on his
11 arm, we could just admit that.

12 THE COURT: All right. So let's redact the photo so
13 that not so much of the orange is showing, but it doesn't have
14 to be -- you don't have to eliminate all of the orange to the
15 point where we can't actually see the tattoo, but I think it
16 would be sufficient to just eliminate some of the orange. It
17 does go to identity. I don't see that it's admissible against
18 co-defendants.

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, I hate to back up,
20 but in reference to Mr. Parker, I understand the Court's
21 ruling. What I would ask for as an alternative, rather than
22 bringing out that photo, and I appreciate the Government trying
23 to redact it, but, to me, it's almost like the darned if you do
24 darned if you don't with asking for a limiting instruction.
25 You almost wind up giving more attention to what you're trying

1 to hide. So by putting the blocking out his chest and his
2 shoulder, to me, it almost makes me think that the jury is
3 going to start wondering what is under there, if this is some
4 sort of swastika or some sort of, you know, horrible tattoo and
5 let their minds wander. What I would be willing to do, and
6 I've already spoken with Mr. Parker, if Agent Draper or
7 Agent Willis or some other witness would just like to have
8 Mr. Parker, he can stand up and just show the tattoo to the
9 jury rather than showing the picture.

10 THE COURT: Do you want to just use the close-up of
11 the tattoo on the -- on Mr. Parker's picture so that --

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would, obviously, prefer
13 to have something that can go back to the jury delirious
14 deliberations. So we can try to do a close-up of that one and 15 see.

16 THE COURT: Because that's what you're doing for
17 Drexler.

18 MS. AHMED: So, for Drexler -- for Drexler I thought
19 we were just going to -- we can do a close-up for both of them,
20 Your Honor. So we'll attempt do that right now.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: So a close-up of the tattoo with as
23 little orange as necessary, but where you can still actually
24 see the tattoo.

25 MS. AHMED: Understood.

1 THE COURT: And then the parties are going to
2 stipulate that that's --

3 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, yeah.

4 THE COURT: -- their tattoo.

5 MR. MARCHESE: And Mr. Parker, he doesn't have the
6 orange problem, or whatever you want to call it.

7 THE COURT: Right. Right. Yeah.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: He just has the other tattoo problem.
10 But regardless, just a close-up of that tattoo with the
11 stipulation who it belongs to, then that way we can still have 12 that available for identification but without any other issues
13 coming up.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, there's also -- Exhibit 45a
15 was offered yesterday. That was the video. We withdrew that
16 but we laid the foundation to admit it and then there were
17 objections as to relevance and we had argued the relevance of
18 it. We've created -- we captured screenshots from that video
19 that we would seek to put into evidence, which would be 45b and
20 so Your Honor had reserved ruling on 45a; "b" is just a subset
21 of the photo montage that's depicted in "a" so I wanted to put
22 that before Your Honor now.

23 THE COURT: All right. So how many screenshots?

24 MS. AHMED: It's -- so, 45b is -- it's 19
25 screenshots, but it's all one exhibit. So, and it's -- all of

1 the images depict one of these defendants, or -- or, like, a
2 sign that indicates White Hope Mine or something like that.

3 THE COURT: What's the objection? Is it the same
4 objection, in general, to the other incident after April of 5 2014?

6 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor. We feel that all
7 the after-the-fact incidents are irrelevant, they're not
8 inextricably intertwined, they're outside the course and scope
9 of the conspiracy, and they're too remote in time.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would add that a number of these
11 images have already been brought in, so they would be
12 cumulative. There's -- I mean, they've been brought in
13 numerous time, the same exact picture. So if they want to play
14 the video, we don't have an objection to playing the whole
15 video, but these screenshots are the same exact pictures that
16 they've already introduced into this in terms of what went on
17 at Bundy. There's also other stuff that's --

18 THE COURT: Probably be less cumulative to play the
19 video instead of using the screenshots.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: It -- it puts it more into
21 perspective because when you just have a screenshot of that one
22 photo that's already come in, it puts everything in
23 perspective. It's a -- it's a video and it moves, I guess,
24 rather quickly or differently than when you're just looking at
25 the same picture that you've seen over and over and over and

1 over again. So it would be -- it would be different.

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I think there's only two --
3 maybe two to three images that were from Bundy Ranch. The
4 point is that this is a video taken from the Idaho 3% YouTube
5 page. It's titled "Idaho 3% an Overview" and so, the agent was
6 viewing this video that they -- this organization had
7 disseminated and these are the images that are in this video
8 that they are considering an overview for the Idaho 3%. So the
9 three images, the three or four that are from Bundy Ranch are,
10 at most, three or four, but they are including that in an
11 overview of their organization. And then additionally, they
12 have images of these defendants participating in the other two
13 operations. And then Mr. Stewart training -- or the photo of 14 him training with Mr. Parker.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, Stewart would join
16 Mr. Drexler's objections and add, you know, forced to pick
17 between video or a cut up screenshotted version of it, the
18 video would be the better way to play it.

19 THE COURT: All right. So when you say that there
20 are two or three images from Bundy Ranch, do you mean --

21 MS. AHMED: The April 12th --

22 THE COURT: -- the rally outside of the ranch or do
23 you mean the wash?

24 MS. AHMED: I apologize, Your Honor.

25 It's pictures of the defendants on the bridge at the

1 ICP on April 12th, 2014.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And that's not Bundy Ranch --

3 MS. AHMED: No.

4 THE COURT: -- that's the public land.

5 MS. AHMED: Yes. I apologize for that.

6 Your Honor, we -- if the defense is willing to
7 stipulate to the admission of the video, that -- we had offered
8 that yesterday. So, video or stills, it's -- either way is
9 fine. We just -- we don't intend to play the video's audio,
10 because there's no speech or anything associated with the video
11 montage, it's just a song, so we're not seeking to admit the
12 audio, but for the video to play, the montage, there's no
13 objection from the Government, if that's what defense will
14 stipulate to.

15 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 45, the video, no
16 audio, 1 minute in, or Exhibit 45b, the 19 screenshots?

17 MS. AHMED: It's more than one minute, Your Honor.
18 It's probably like three minutes. This is a different one from
19 the one we did before.

20 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

21 MS. AHMED: So this is about a three-minute video
22 montage of photographs compiled into this video, but we
23 would -- yes, that would be 45a and, as Your Honor said, no
24 audio.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And again --

1 THE COURT: All right. It sounds like that's what --
2 that's defendants' preference of those two choices, is the
3 video with no audio, 3 minutes long?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Over my objection, my preference would
5 be the video, the whole video to come in.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: With the audio.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Put it in context on what it is.
9 Otherwise, you're just left with a video and nobody knows what
10 it is. There's music behind it which shows something. It will
11 show something completely different than the still picture or
12 just the -- the -- the video itself. So, if it's going to come
13 in, I'd ask that the --

14 THE COURT: How does the music add to what it is?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because it's -- it's --

16 THE COURT: I mean, I haven't heard it, so I'm not --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's more like an advisement. It's
18 more like, you know, an advisement, than it is anything and
19 that's how it should come in.

20 THE COURT: Like, there's a jingle?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, if you consider heavy metal a
22 jingle, sure. I mean . . .

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: We were going to play it for
25 Your Honor yesterday, so -- and Your Honor was going to watch

1 it and listen to it with the audio and I think the -- you can
2 make that determination.

3 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, and for the record, Lovelien
4 would object to any of it. It's not relevant to him,
5 especially if it's an advisement for the 3%ers with a heavy
6 metal jingle.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, if you -- if this would
8 clarify it, we could play the video for you to see. I mean,
9 it's -- the song does not, to the Government's view, appear to
10 add to the montage of photographs, so . . . it's not a song
11 commenting on the photographs; it's a separate song.

12 THE COURT: Is it a song I've heard of or is it an
13 original?

14 MS. AHMED: I don't know the answer to that,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Are there words to the song --

17 MS. AHMED: Yes.

18 THE COURT: -- or is it just instrumental?

19 Okay. So are there words to the song that I need to
20 be aware of?

21 MS. AHMED: I can't recall the words to the song,
22 Your Honor. I -- to me --

23 THE COURT: Okay. If you want to play it, just play
24 it then.

25 MS. AHMED: Could we ask the defense to play it.

1 We -- our litigation specialist is not here. It's 45a.

2 MR. TANASI: 45a?

3 (Exhibit 45a published.)

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, if it resolves the matter and
5 it -- there's no -- the Government has no objection to the
6 sound coming in then, if that would be the defense stipulation,
7 that the video is admissible with the sound.

8 THE COURT: Is that the defense position, they want
9 the song to be played?

10 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, for the record, you
11 know, Stewart objects to it in its entirety, but if we're
12 trying to fashion some reasonable middle ground, then yes, if 13 it's to be played, then it would be played in its entirety with 14 the audio.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler would join in that.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 For the record, the name of the song is "Soldiers" by 20 the band "Otherwise." The lyrics refer to a perfect day to
21 die. No surrender. We'll never be broken. Fight to the
22 death. We are soldiers and stand shoulder to shoulder. I
23 think a local band.

24 All right. So, Exhibit 45a is admitted, and 45b is
25 withdrawn?

1 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 (Exhibit 45a received.)

4 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, did you want to just --
5 can we just show everybody that -- what we did with the tattoos
6 so that --

7 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

8 MS. AHMED: Can we start with 129, Page 5.

9 Oh, excuse me. This is Mr. Drexler's. 131, Page 5.
10 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published.)

11 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, is that good?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's the best it could be.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I still object to it, but it's better
15 than it was before.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: So my objection will still remain on
18 the record, but . . .

19 THE COURT: I appreciate that. Thanks.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the -- we're still working on
21 129, which is Mr. Parker's, but I can publish it before -- I
22 mean, ask the Court to publish it just to counsel and the
23 witness so that they can see it before it's displayed to
24 everybody.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MS. AHMED: And those were all the objections that I
2 was aware of that -- to raise at this time with respect to the
3 exhibits for this witness.

4 THE COURT: All right. Then let's go ahead and go,
5 Aaron, please, invite the jury to come back. Maybe if you can,
6 let them know there's probably not going to be bathroom break,
7 but we'll take, like, 10 minutes so at least counsel and
8 anybody else that needs to take bathroom break can. So we'll
9 bring the jury back in about 10 minutes and everybody use the
10 bathroom so that we don't need to before the --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, before we --

12 THE COURT: -- break, if possible.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Should I make one more objection
14 after we come back of do you want me to --

15 THE COURT: Well, go ahead and make your objection
16 now.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. You know, the other issue here
18 is authentication. I -- if this is coming in through this
19 witness, I don't know if there's a foundation that this witness
20 was at the arrest or saw these pictures or can verify these
21 pictures. I don't know that. So I would object on those
22 grounds as well. I don't know if we ever got there.

23 THE COURT: Oh, for the booking photos, you mean?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: The foundation for the booking photos?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: The booking photos. I -- I -- we
2 never got there, whether this witness can even, you know,
3 testify to these, whether she saw them, they're accurate,
4 they're true, I don't know that. So . . . and it's just
5 another ground that I would object to on those grounds.

6 THE COURT: All right. So noted.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: May I confirm the exhibits
8 that were admitted, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes. Let's do that.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Let me know when you're
11 ready.

12 I believe it started with 117.

13 THE COURT: Oh, yeah. I'm on the wrong page.

14 117 was admitted. Then 118.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 119a.

16 THE COURT: 119a. 119b.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 119b; 120; 121, Page -- or
18 129, Page 5 redacted, as to Parker only.

19 THE COURT: Page 5 only. Yes. Right.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 131, Page 5 redacted.

21 Was that to Mr. Drexler only?

22 THE COURT: Stewart is -- Exhibit 30, Page 5 is
23 Stewart.

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I believe that one was
25 withdrawn, Your Honor.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it was withdrawn based on the
2 stipulation --

3 THE COURT: That's right. I see. I see the "W" now.
4 You're right.

5 So 131, Page 4 is the Drexler tattoo with the
6 redaction only admitted as to Drexler.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay.

8 And 45b was withdrawn and 45a was admitted.

9 THE COURT: Correct.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay. Thank you, Your
11 Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Off record.

14 (Recess was taken at 2:35 p.m.)

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

17 You want to go ahead and call in the jury?

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

19 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 (Jury returned to courtroom at 3:06 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
23 seated.

24 Welcome back. We're going to resume with
25 direct-examination of FBI Special Agent Sarah Draper by

1 Ms. Ahmed.

2 Go ahead.

3 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Your Honor, may we publish what's been previously
5 admitted as Exhibit 103?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 (Exhibit 103 published.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, for both the jury and for the
9 record, I wanted to note that the parties stipulated that the
10 individual that's on the viewer's right is, in fact, the
11 defendant Mr. Steven Stewart.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Tanasi, you agree?

13 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. The record will so note.

15 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 And may we move to Exhibit 100, which is also
17 previously admitted?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 100 published.)

20

21 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SARAH DRAPER

12 of appeal. States you have no jurisdiction or right to 13 terrorize that man!! You'll be getting our bill for the cost
14 of we the people mounting an effective resistance to your 15 threats. That's two for two fascists!! See you next time."

16 Q. And where it says "two for two," based on your
17 investigation, what is that referring to?

18 A. Based upon my investigation, that would be referring to
19 the Bundyville -- the Bundy Ranch standoff as well as this
20 operation.

21 MS. AHMED: And can we go to Page 2 of Exhibit 100.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Did Mr. Parker also make a post in the comment section in 24 relation to that post?

25 A. Yes, he did.

1 Q. And what did he say?

2 A. "Brandon Rapolla said it best while giving a speech to the
3 miners and citizens of Josephine County in the BLM parking lot,
4 'Don't worry about the guns, folks, we've got the guns. What
5 we need is support. 10 people for every man in the field.'

7 their time and money to the logistics."

8 Q. And was this post -- this comment made on May 20th of 9 2015?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And is he referring to the Operation Gold Rush which you

18 Q. And what was the name of the mine?

19 A. I've forgotten. Sorry.

20 Q. Now -- may we go, Your Honor --

21 A. The Galice Mining District. I don't remember the exact
22 mine.

23 Q. The mine was in the Galice Mining District?

24 A. Yes. Sorry.

25 MS. AHMED: And may we go -- can we go to the next

1 page?

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Were there additional comments made on this post?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And do you see, at the top of the third page of Exhibit
6 100, two comments?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the first one being made by a Facebook user called
9 Todd Engel; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And, again, based on your investigation, who is Todd
12 Engel?

13 A. He was another person from Idaho who had participated in
14 Bundy Ranch as well as this Oregon operation.

15 Q. And when you say "Bundy Ranch," do you mean the
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. Yes. Correction. The April 12th, 2014, events.

18 Q. And can you read the comment that user posted?

19 A. "Get you some!"

20 Q. And did Mr. Parker made an additional comment with respect
21 to this post?

22 A. He did.

23 Q. What did he say?

24 A. "security stays in place until he gets a court
25 date . . ."

1 Q. And again, is this in reference to the Operation Gold
2 Rush?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: And can we go back to the first page of
5 Exhibit 100, please.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. And there is also a picture that was posted in relation to
8 this Facebook post that Mr. Parker made?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And can you describe the -- bless you -- bless you,
11 Your Honor -- can you describe the content of the photo that
12 was included in this post, just generally?

13 A. Three individuals displaying their middle fingers with the
14 3% of Idaho flag behind them.

15 Q. And do you recognize any of the subjects as being the
16 subjects that you were following -- any of the individuals in
17 this picture being one of the subjects that you were following
18 in this investigation?

19 A. Yes. Mr. Parker's in the middle.

20 Q. Now, in the course of your investigation -- well, I'm
21 sorry. I just wanted to back up.

22 When I asked you that, "that's two or two fascists,"
23 you indicated that was both -- you said Bundy -- the Bundy
24 Ranch incident, meaning April 12th, 2014; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And what was the other one?

2 A. This Oregon operation at the mine.

3 Q. Now, in the course of this investigation, did you continue
4 to follow the subjects that you've previously indicated in
5 August of 2015?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And in doing so, did you learn of some of their
8 participation -- some of them participated in an additional
9 operation?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what was that operation?

12 A. That was another -- another operation with miners, this
13 one involving the U.S. Forest Service in Montana, in western
14 Montana, in August of 2015.

15 Q. And did Mr. Parker -- in your investigation, did you see
16 that Mr. Parker made posts on his Facebook regarding this
17 operation?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
20 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 108?

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 (Exhibit 108 published.)

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Agent Draper, what is -- what is exhibit -- what does
25 Exhibit 108 contain?

1 A. This is from Mr. Parker's Facebook page and it contains
2 two photos that Mr. Parker has shared from another Facebook
3 user's posts.

4 Q. And on what date did he share this post?

5 A. August 20th of 2015.

7 left, excuse me.

8 A. Based upon what is at the bottom, "Share! Operation Big 9 Sky! More information here," I conclude this is a photo of 10 individuals who were --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Can you just describe the contents of the photo generally.

14 A. Yes. It's a group of individuals.

15 Q. And what, if anything, is depicted behind them?

16 A. 3% -- a flag with a 3% logo on it, the blue field.

17 Q. And do any of the individuals include the subjects that
18 you were following in this investigation?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Can you circle who you see and identify them?

21 A. (Indicating) Mr. Drexler.

22 MS. AHMED: And for the record the witness has
23 circled an individual standing on the far left side of this
24 picture.

25 THE WITNESS: And then this one (indicating) is

1 Mr. Parker.

2 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has
3 circled an individual that's second to the far left on the
4 bottom front.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. And can you tell from that picture what, if anything, is
7 on the T-shirts that both Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker are
8 wearing?

9 A. It appears to be the 3% of Idaho logo.

10 Q. And then turning to the picture that's on the right, what
11 is depicted in that picture?

12 A. It's Mr. Parker.

13 Q. And what, if anything, does he have in his arms?

14 A. Carrying a rifle.

15 Q. And are -- and what, if anything, does he appear to be
16 wearing that's of note?

17 A. It appears to be a tactical vest and he has a hat that
18 appears to be of the 3% of Idaho logo on it.

19 Q. And there appear to be words on that picture as well.

20 Do you see those?

21 A. I do.

22 Q. And can you read them to the jury?

23 A. "Montana Defenders of the Republic."

24 Q. And this operation that you indicated that took place in
25 August of 2015, was it in Montana?

1 A. Yes, it was.

2 Q. And based on your investigation, what was the name of the
3 operation?

4 A. Operation Big Sky.

5 Q. And what, if any, groups that the defendants are -- that
6 your subjects are affiliated with participated in this
7 operation?

8 A. Members of the 3% of Idaho participated.

9 Q. Now, turning to the bottom of this post --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- do you see where it says, "Blaine Cooper added two 12 photographs"?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And then it says, "with Schuyler Barbeau and 16 others."

15 Do you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And based on your investigation, who is Schuyler Barbeau?

18 A. Schuyler Barbeau is an individual from Washington state
19 who had also participated in this operation as well as Bundy --
20 events on -- of Bundy Ranch events.

21 Q. In April of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, at the bottom of the post, of this portion of the 24 post, can you read what it says down there (indicating),
25 starting with "share"?

1 A. "Operation Big Sky! More information here," and then
2 there's a website address for a press release from the Pacific
3 Patriots Network.

4 MS. AHMED: And can we come out of the zoom on this
5 exhibit.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Did Mr. Parker make additional comments to this post?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what did he say?

10 A. On August 20th, 2015, he said, "Shifts . . . still need
11 volunteers."

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
13 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 109?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 109 published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a post that Mr. Parker shared
18 on his Facebook on August 20th, 2015?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what -- what is it that he shared?

21 A. It's a video from Blaine Cooper's Facebook page.

22 Q. And looking at the screen, there appears to -- that you
23 can see a still from that video; correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And looking at that still, can you identify any of the

1 subjects that you were investigating in relation to this case?

2 A. May I write on the screen?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 THE WITNESS: Oh, thank you, Your Honor.

5 This is Mr. Drexler (indicating).

6 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has drawn
7 a circle around the individual on the far left and identified
8 that person as Mr. Drexler.

9 THE WITNESS: And Mr. Parker (indicating).

10 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle on the 11 individual on the right and identified him as Mr. Parker.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And do you know who the person in the middle of the 14 picture is?

15 A. That's Blaine Cooper.

16 Q. And based on your investigation, Mr. Cooper was also a
17 participant in the events of April 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now, is this -- so, did Mr. Parker, was he sharing the 20 video -- a video in this post?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And were there also -- was he also sharing words that
23 appear at the bottom of the post?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Can -- starting with "breaking," can you please read that

1 to the jury?

2 A. Yes.

3 "Breaking. Share. Get viral. Operation Big Sky
4 armed patriots and Oath Keepers from across the U.S. show up to
5 defend Constitution. What's it all about? Watch our report
6 and the dispute between the U.S. Forest Service and miners in a
7 small Montana town."

8 Q. Have you viewed the video that was uploaded on this
9 Facebook post?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
12 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 48a?

13 THE COURT: What number was that?

14 MS. AHMED: 48a, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: 48a. Yes, you may.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And, Agent Draper, you've previously reviewed Exhibit 48a;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And is that the video that was posted in the last exhibit
21 that we just saw?

22 A. Yes.

23 (Exhibit 48a published.)

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. And again, Agent Draper, looking at this video, who is the

1 individual on the far left?

2 A. I -- on my far left --

3 Q. On the viewer's far left.

4 A. -- or from -- on the video side?

5 It's Mr. Drexler.

6 Q. And who is the individual on the far right?

7 A. Mr. Parker.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
9 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 114?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Ms. Ahmed, if you open up
12 the tool bar on the touch screen, click the button that has the
13 "T" in the lines, I believe, change that line thickness a
14 little thicker so it's more viewable.

15 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

16 (Exhibit 114 published.)

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Agent Draper, do you see Exhibit 114?

19 A. Yes, I do.

20 Q. And what is this?

21 A. This is a post from Mr. Parker's Facebook page.

22 Q. And it looks like it says "13 hours."

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And normally that's where the date and time would appear?

1 A. Correct. Depending upon when it was captured. If it was
2 captured after that date, the date would appear there.

3 Q. So if the post was captured the same date that the date
4 was -- that the post was created, what would it show?

5 A. Just amount of hours since.

6 Q. And just generally, in what time frame was this post
7 captured or -- excuse me -- created?

8 A. December of 2015.

9 Q. And can you read -- this is a post that Mr. Parker made to 10 his Facebook page?

11 A. Yes, that's correct.

12 Q. And can you read it -- read the post to the jury?

13 A. "Alert. Patriot kidnapped by FBI and U.S. marshals.

14 "My friend Schuyler Barbeau has been kidnapped by the
15 FBI and the U.S. marshals. They have him on trumped up weapons
16 charges. They found no weapon (short barreled rifle) or
17 explosive or detonators that they were looking for. Didn't
18 find them because they don't exist. He helped stand down the
19 BLM at the Bundy Ranch, the BLM at the mine in Oregon, the USFS
20 at the mine in Montana, and county of . . ." and then it -- the 21 post cuts off.

22 Q. And below that, there appears to be some information.

23 Do you see what that is?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And just generally, what is the information that was being

1 shared with this post?

2 A. That would be the booking information for Mr. Barbeau.

3 Q. And is there a date that indicates when he was booked?

4 A. December 6th, 2015.

5 Q. And then going back up to the -- and for the record, the
6 witness circled the date.

7 Going back up to the top part of the post, which was
8 Mr. Parker's words, where it says "he helped stand down the BLM
9 at the Bundy Ranch," what is -- is that referring to the events
10 of April 12th, 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And the BLM at the mine in Oregon, what event that is
13 relating to?

14 A. That would be the Operation Gold Rush in -- in the Galice
15 Mining District.

16 Q. And with respect to "the USFS at the mine in Montana,"
17 what operation is that?

18 A. That would be Operation Big Sky from August time frame of 19 2015.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what the Court
21 admitted yesterday as Exhibit 102?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 I think this is . . . one of those times when I told
24 the jury that sometimes I will give you a limiting instruction
25 letting you know that if a particular piece of evidence is

1 being introduced for a limited purpose, that means you can only
2 consider it for that limited purpose and for no other purpose.
3 So, in this case, Exhibit 102 is being admitted only for the
4 limited purpose of demonstrating intent, absence of mistake,
5 and motive. And so, therefore, you may only consider it for
6 that limited purpose and not for any other reason.

7 All right. You may go ahead and publish Exhibit 102.

8 (Exhibit 102 published.)

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Agent Draper, is this -- can you explain to the jury what
11 is contained -- just generally, what is this Exhibit 102?

12 A. Yes. This is a -- this is a comment Mr. Parker made on
13 his Facebook page in a series of comments in regards to a
14 picture that was posted.

15 Q. And so, there was a picture posted on Mr. Parker's
16 Facebook page?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And then comments were made --

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. -- under that photo?

21 A. Correct, yes.

22 Q. And this is one of the comments that Mr. Parker posted?

23 A. Yes. Mr. Parker posted this.

24 Q. And when was it posted?

25 A. June 12th of 2015.

1 Q. And can you read the first four lines of this post?

2 A. "McVeigh didn't accomplish shit. I'll even pretend for a
3 minute like he wasn't an idiot that got set up by the FBI. The
4 only thing he accomplished was getting himself executed and
5 attaching a stigma to the movement for a decade."

6 Q. And in the context of this -- the full post which you
7 reviewed and based on your investigation, who is he referring
8 to when he says "McVeigh"?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

10 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

11 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the question is limited on
14 her review of the entire -- the entire post and the comments
15 above this post.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Still speculating.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I can ask additional
18 foundational questions.

19 THE COURT: Lay a foundation, yes.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Did you review the comments above this post?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. And did those comments also make reference to a person
24 named McVeigh?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And from those comments, did you understand -- have an
2 understanding of who that person was?

3 A. Yes.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to hearsay
5 then.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. And is this response being given in response to those
8 comments directly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And based both on the comments above this post and the
11 context of the statement itself, do you have an understanding
12 of who McVeigh is?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I continue?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Can you explain to the jury who McVeigh is that this post
18 is referring to?

19 A. I said it would be in reference to Timothy McVeigh who is
20 responsible for the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Building
21 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

22 Q. And can you continue to read from "now what did I
23 accomplish"?

24 A. Yes, I will.

25 "Now what did I accomplish in the past two and a half

1 years. About half a year before the Bundy Ranch a small group
2 of friends and I got together and agreed that we had all had
3 enough and we had to get proactive. We promised each other
4 that we would meet once a week to work on prepping and
5 training. Prior to that, I had never even held an AR-15, maybe
6 once or twice. We acquired weapons and became familiar with
7 them. We watched current events closely and we prepped for
8 failure of government. The right time presented itself and we
9 decided to stand."

10 Continuing?

11 Q. Please continue.

12 A. Okay.

13 "Decisions were made. Lines were drawn. Something
14 very similar happened in 1770, except nobody died at the ranch.
15 1770 was the Boston Massacre. The invading fascist force left
16 the field. Spent the next couple of months waiting for them to
17 come bag my head, but they didn't. Do you know why they
18 didn't? Because we did it right. You stay within the confines
19 of the law, the Bill of Rights and do it publicly in the light.
20 We joined the Idaho 3%. We network, recruit, and train. Lo
21 and behold, spring came around and we had another opportunity.
22 The situation was right. Rick, at the Sugar Pine Mine was in
23 the right. Through our networking, we were asked as a group to
24 come do security and vetting. The public call for security
25 teams to come help was made and a lot of the same people that

1 showed up in Nevada showed up in Oregon. The reason being the
2 lines in the sand that were drawn and the oath taken on
3 individual's souls will never go away. Bonds were made. Those
4 individuals will never stop and the idea that the men and women
5 who are standing next to them in Nevada may be standing
6 somewhere else will light that fire and they will be there.
7 That is a paradigm shift.

8 "We were 10 times better and more efficient at Sugar
9 Pine Mine. We won without a standoff and the professionalism
10 of the vetting kept any would-be" -- blank -- "away.

11 "From where I'm standing, you're the only one that
12 hasn't done anything. Get active or shut the f-u-c-k up."

13 Q. Based on your investigation, what is the Sugar Pine Mine?

14 A. That was the mine in Oregon.

15 Q. That was the name of the mine?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. In Oregon?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. In relation to Operation Gold Rush?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been, I
22 believe, stipulated for admission as Exhibit 49, Page 3.

23 THE COURT: 49, Page 3. Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 49, Page 3 published.)

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. Now, Agent Draper, you indicated yesterday that you
2 obtained search warrants for not just Mr. Parker's account, but
3 also for other -- the other two subjects as well; correct?

4 A. Yes, that's correct.

5 Q. Looking at Exhibit 49-3, can you explain to the jury, just
6 generally, what is this?

7 A. This is a Facebook Certificate of Authenticity for the
8 account belonging to Mr. Drexler.

9 Q. And, so, a search warrant was submitted for Mr. Drexler's
10 account?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And Facebook returned documents?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And they provided also this certificate?

15 A. Correct.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
17 admitted -- stipulated for admission as Exhibit 123?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 123 published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Looking at Exhibit 123, Agent Draper, is this a page from
22 the Facebook Business Records that you received in response to
23 the search warrant?

24 A. Yes. This is.

25 Q. And what is depicted in Exhibit 123?

1 A. This is a photograph posted on -- a profile picture posted
2 by Mr. Drexler of him.

3 Q. And based on your investigation, is that photograph from
4 April 12th, 2014?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And is that the bridge from April 12th, 2014?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. And what does Mr. Drexler appear to be holding?

9 A. He appears to be holding a rifle.

10 Q. Now, is this -- can you explain to the jury, in terms of a
11 Facebook post, what kind of post was this? What did -- how did
12 it come on to Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

13 A. Well, this would be under a profile photo.

14 Q. And, again -- sorry. What is a profile picture, on
15 Facebook?

16 A. That would be the image an individual uses which is
17 connected with their -- their vanity name, so the name that you
18 see on the screen with them when they make posts.

19 Q. And so, Mr. Drexler made this his profile picture on his
20 Facebook account?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. On what date?

23 A. April 15th, 2014.

24 Q. And so, would that be three days after the April 12th
25 standoff?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And looking at the bottom of that page, were there
3 comments on that profile picture?

4 A. Yes. One user made a comment and then Mr. Drexler
5 replied.

6 Q. And what did that user say?

7 A. "Careful. Bridges are choke points."

8 Q. And what response did Mr. Drexler post?

9 A. He posted, "That's why we use them to shut down the 10 freeway."

11 Q. And when did he make that response?

12 A. April 17th.

13 Q. Of 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that's five days after the April 12th standoff?

16 A. Yes.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
18 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 124?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 (Exhibit 124 published.)

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Agent Draper, is this another -- is Exhibit 124 also a
23 business record received from Facebook in response to the 24 search warrant?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And what's -- zoomed out, are these two posts that were
2 made on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And in what -- chronologically, are they going from the
5 bottom up or the top down?

6 A. Bottom up.

7 Q. So turning to the bottom post, can you just explain to the
8 jury what was actually posted to Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

9 A. This is -- this is an article with a picture attached
10 titled "The Bundy Crisis in Nevada." There's text there
11 written by the Facebook user. Says, "Nice pic, Eric," and
12 there's a summary and I can explain what summary is.

13 Q. Did you -- after testifying yesterday, did you
14 investigate --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- how that summary field is populated on Facebook?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And what is your understanding, based on your
19 investigation?

20 A. Based upon my investigation, it's some content from the
21 original article that is being attached or posted, generally a
22 couple of sentences from the first paragraph.

23 Q. Now, so, here, you indicated that there was an article
24 that was being shared on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page. What is
25 the title of that article?

1 A. "The Bundy Crisis in Nevada."

2 Q. And did you actually go to that link and see the article?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what, if any, picture shows when you load the article?

5 A. It's a picture of Mr. Parker kneeling on the bridge on
6 April 12th, 2014, holding a rifle.

7 Q. And so, where it stays "text," is that a comment that was
8 posted by Mr. Drexler?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what did he say?

11 A. "Nice pic, Eric."

12 Q. And what date did he make this post?

13 A. April 15th, 2014.

14 Q. And in the summary section, so you've indicated that's 15 content that was pulled out of the article itself; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Can you read what that says?

18 A. "If you don't know the story of Cliven Bundy in Nevada,
19 it's time to get up to speed."

20 Q. Now, did Mr. Drexler -- the top post, was that also made
21 on April 15th, 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what was the top post? What kind of post is that?

24 A. This is a Reuters article.

25 Q. So was Mr. Drexler sharing another news article?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And so, where it says "Url," is that the link to the
3 article?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And then going up from that, to the title, what was the
6 title of the article?

7 A. "Nevada Ranching Family Claims Victory as Government
8 Releases Cattle."

9 Q. And just going -- skipping text, we'll come back to
10 that -- but where it says summary, can you read what is
11 indicated in the summary section?

12 A. "Bunkerville, Nevada, (Reuters) - U.S. officials ended a
13 standoff with hundreds of armed protestors in the Nevada desert
14 on Saturday, calling off the government's roundup of cattle it
15 said were illegally" -- and then the summary cuts off.

16 Q. And in the "text" section, again, is that content that was
17 posted by Mr. Drexler?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what does it say?

20 A. "But it looks like we may have to go back."

21 Q. And, again, this post was made on what date?

22 A. April 15th, 2014.

23 Q. And that's three days after the April 12th standoff?

24 A. Correct.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was

1 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 125?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 (Exhibit 125 published.)

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Agent Draper, in addition to the documents that you
6 received back from Facebook in response to the search warrant,
7 were other -- did you continue to monitor Mr. Drexler's
8 Facebook page?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And were other posts captured as evidence, from his page?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And looking at Exhibit 125, is that one such posting made
13 on his Facebook page?

14 A. Correct. This is part of a capture that shows a cover
15 photo and a profile picture.

16 Q. And on what date was this captured from the Facebook page?

17 A. May of 2015. May 4th.

18 Q. So, in May of 2015, was this the profile picture and the
19 cover photo that appeared when you went to Mr. Drexler's
20 Facebook page?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And can you just -- starting with the profile picture, can
23 you indicate where it is and describe -- can you indicate where
24 it is by touching the screen.

25 A. Um . . . the profile picture (indicating).

1 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle around
2 an area that's in a small box on the left side, the viewer's
3 left.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Can you describe what is the content of the profile
6 picture?

7 A. It has the words "I am the" Roman Numeral III. "I am the
8 III Percent" and there should be 13 stars around it. 13 stars
9 around it.

10 Q. And then can you indicate where the cover photo appears?

11 A. (Indicating).

12 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circular
13 shape around the -- of the larger rectangle in the picture.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. And can you describe what is contained in the pro- -- in
16 the cover photo, excuse me?

17 A. It shows the back of an unidentified individual wearing a
18 T-shirt holding some type of firearm.

19 Q. And what are the words on that T-shirt?

20 A. "When all else fails . . . vote from the rooftops."

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
22 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 126?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 126 published.)

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a Facebook post made by
2 Mr. Drexler on his Facebook account?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what is the date of this post?

5 A. Well, it says April 20th. I know it to be April 20th of
6 2015, because this was part of that same capture from May of
7 2015. So it would have the year on it if it was a different
8 year other than the one during which it was viewed.

9 Q. So, this is a post made in April of 2015?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And is that the time of when the Operation Gold Rush was 12 taking place?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what post -- what did Mr. Drexler -- what is this post
15 here?

16 A. "And this is how we take our country back. Glad I got to 17 spend a few days in Oregon."

18 Q. And does the post continue on the next page?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So along with that comment, did he also share a video?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what is the title of the video as it appears here?

23 A. "Idaho III Percent - Call to Action for Sugar Pine Mine."

24 Q. And what is the description of the video that's provided
25 here?

1 A. "III Percent groups are called on to support the
2 constitutional defense operation at Sugar Pine Mine in southern
3 Oregon."

4 Q. And does it appear that there's also a video embedded with
5 this post?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And so, the comment that we saw on the previous page --
8 going back to Page 1 of this exhibit -- on Facebook, this --
9 that -- both that video and this comment, they were all made
10 together as one post?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. But the portion that's displayed now, these are
13 Mr. Drexler's words; correct?

14 A. Yes, these are.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's
16 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 127?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 127 published.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Now, Agent Draper, looking at Exhibit 127, is this a post
21 that appeared on Mr. Drexler's Facebook page?

22 A. Yes.

21 A. Yes, that's correct.

22 Q. And above that, where it says "album name," what is the
23 album name?

24 A. "Mobile Uploads."

25 Q. And what does that mean, "Album Name," "Mobile Uploads"?

1 A. That would be an image that was uploaded from a mobile
2 device.

3 Q. And was there any information -- statement or title or
4 caption included with the photograph?

5 A. On the second line down, at "title," is -- are the words
6 "going to get the cattle back."

7 Q. And is that something that would have to have been entered
8 by the Facebook user?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So it was essentially the title given to this photograph?

11 A. That's correct.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
13 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 119a?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Exhibit 119a published.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent Draper, is this another Facebook Business Record

21 Q. And looking at the post that has been zoomed in on in
22 Exhibit 119a, what is this?

23 A. This is an upload of a video.

24 Q. And so, was this a video that was uploaded by the account
25 holder --

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- to Mr. Stewart's account?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And did Mr. Stewart also describe the video when he

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Agent Draper, based on your investigation, whose voice is

10 A. Mr. Stewart's.

11 Q. And from your investigation, again, looking at the content

13 A. It's when BLM was leaving the ICP on April 12th.

14 Q. 2014?

15 A. 2014.

16 Q. And just going back, briefly, to Exhibit 119a, and going
17 on to the second page, on -- zooming in on that top part. Is 18 this a continuation of that post where the video was shared?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What -- on what date was the video shared?

21 A. Because this is UTC time, again, subtracting seven hours
22 from what shows as 1:01, it would be approximately 6:01 p.m. on
23 April 12th, 2014.

24 Q. And is that the same day as the standoff?

25 A. Yes.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
2 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 121?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Exhibit 121 published.)

5 BY MS. AHMED:

14 A. April 15th, 2014.

15 Q. And is that three days after the April 12th standoff?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 Q. So, going from the bottom of this post upward, where it
18 says "Url," what is shared there?

19 A. A biography from U.S. -- the Nevada district court.

20 Q. And is there a link to that biography?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And so, where it says "Url," is that the actual link that
23 he shared?

24 A. Correct. That is the actual link.

25 Q. Going one line up where it says "title," what is the title

1 of the information or the link that was shared?

2 A. "U.S. District Court - District of Nevada - Home."

3 Q. And then going up two lines to where it says "summary,"
4 what does it say in the summary description for that link that
5 was shared?

6 A. Judge Lloyd D. George was appointed United States District
7 Judge for the District of Nevada by President Ronald Reagan in
8 May 1984. He served as Chief United States District Judge from
9 1992 to 1997, and assumed senior status in December 1997."

10 Q. And did Mr. Stewart make a comment on this post as well?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what is that comment?

13 A. "These people think they own us."

14 Q. And is that found in the "text" field?

15 A. It is.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what has been
17 previously admitted as Exhibit 3?

18 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

19 (Exhibit 3 published.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Agent Draper, in your investigation -- based on your
22 investigation, what do you recognize Exhibit 3 to be?

23 A. This appears to be an order, court order.

24 Q. And is it in the case of United States vs. Cliven Bundy?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And turning to Page 5, do you see where -- there appears
2 to be a signature.

3 Do you see that?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. And what is the name of the judge that authored this Court
6 order?

7 A. Lloyd D. George, United States District Judge.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
9 admitted over defense objection as Exhibit 120?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 (Exhibit 120 published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent Draper, is this also a Facebook page that Facebook
14 provided in response to the search warrant for Steven Stewart's
15 account?

16 A. Yes, this is.

17 Q. And looking at it, is this a post that was made by
18 Steven Stewart on his Facebook account?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And on what date was this post made?

21 A. April 18th, 2014.

22 Q. And so, is that six days after the April 12th standoff?

23 A. Yes, this is.

24 Q. And what is the post that he actually made? What was the
25 content of that post?

1 A. "Guys, I only went for the weekend. We helped
2 Cliven Bundy get his cattle back. Straight there; straight
3 back. 2 hours of sleep in between."

4 MS. AHMED: Now, Your Honor, may we publish what was
5 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 129, Page 5?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MS. AHMED: And can we first show that just to
8 counsel and the witness?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published to witness.)

11 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish it to the
13 jury?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 This one doesn't have a number on it. Doesn't have
16 a --

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we'll add that exhibit
18 sticker to reflect that this is Page 5 of Exhibit 129.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 (Exhibit 129, Page 5 published.)

21 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, for the record, it was
22 stipulated by the parties that this exhibit depicts the arm of 23 the defendant, Mr. Eric Parker.

24 THE COURT: Is that right?

25 MR. MARCHESE: It's a correct statement, Your Honor.

1 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Agent Draper, can you describe what is displayed on the
5 screen as Exhibit 129, Page 5?

6 A. That's Mr. Parker's arm as stipulated, and that's a tattoo
7 on it of the 3% of the Idaho logo.

8 Q. Based on your investigation, did he have that tattoo in
9 April of 2014?

10 A. No.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what was
12 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 131, Page 5?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 MS. AHMED: And, again, just for counsel and the
15 parties -- excuse me -- the witness and the parties.

16 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published to witness.)

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: 131?

18 MS. AHMED: 131, Page 5.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the jury
21 Exhibit 131, Page 5?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 (Exhibit 131, Page 5 published.)

24 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, the parties have also
25 stipulated with respect to Exhibit 131, Page 5, that this is

1 the arm of the defendant O. Scott Drexler.

2 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Leventhal?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct, Your Honor. Thank
4 you.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent Draper, can you explain to the jury, what is
8 depicted in Exhibit 131, Page 5?

9 A. This is a tattoo on the arm of Mr. Drexler as stipulated.
10 The center portion is the 3% of Idaho logo. The top is the
11 word "Bundy" and what appears to be in kind of a tab in a
12 military style, and underneath are two blocks containing
13 additional letters which, from my investigation, I believe to
14 be "OGR" and "OBS."

15 Q. And what does "OGR" stand for?

16 A. Operation Gold Rush and Operation Big Sky.

17 Q. So the "OGR" stands for Operation Gold Rush and the "OBS"
18 stand for what?

19 A. Operation Big Sky.

20 Q. And were these the two operations that you described that
21 took place after April of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Were any of these tattoos -- based on your investigation,
24 did Mr. Drexler have any of these tattoos in April of 2014?

25 A. No.

1 (Counsel conferring.)

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I apologize. For the record,
3 it's actually Exhibit 131, Page 4 that was entered by
4 stipulation and which we have just displayed and gone over.

5 THE COURT: All right. So please make sure you mark
6 these --

7 MS. AHMED: I will, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- so that we're clear.

9 So this is Exhibit 131, Page 4, not Page 5.

10 MS. AHMED: I apologize, and that's correct,
11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Now, Agent Draper, you were describing yesterday -- you
15 can take that down. Thank you.

16 You were describing yesterday that you observed a
17 video on the Idaho 3% YouTube page.

18 Do you recall that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And can you explain to the jury the title of the video
21 that you observed on the Idaho 3% Facebook page -- excuse me --
22 YouTube page?

23 A. It's an overview of the 3% of the Idaho.

24 Q. So the title said "overview"?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. "Idaho 3% Overview"?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And have you reviewed that video?

4 A. Yes, I have.

5 Q. And have you seen Exhibit 45a as that video that you
6 reviewed?

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
8 admitted by stipulation as Exhibit 45a?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 (Exhibit 45a published.)

11 MS. AHMED: Can we pause here.

12 Paused at 44 seconds.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Agent Draper, do you recognize any of the subjects that
15 you were investigating in this case in this scene?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. Can you circle and identify them.

18 A. (Indicating). That's Mr. Drexler.

19 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle from
20 the third from the right -- the viewer's right -- indicating 21 that's Mr. Drexler, and then a second circle, second from the
22 right.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Who is that?

25 A. Mr. Parker.

1 MS. AHMED: And these are the individuals that are
2 standing in the background.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. So, the two people you circled were Mr. Drexler and
5 Mr. Parker?

6 A. Correct.

7 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play?

9 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play?

10 (Exhibit 45a published.)

23 A. "Operation Gold Rush Open House."

24 Q. And does this appear to be some sort of flier or something
25 for the Operation Gold Rush?

1 A. Yes, and there's a date on it that's --

3 A. May 9th, 2015.

4 MS. AHMED: Continue to play.

5 (Exhibit 45a published.)

6 Pause it here.

7 Paused at 1:23.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Is this -- what is depicted at 1:23?

10 A. The sign in the back says, "The Galice Mining District."

11 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle around

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. And what is depicted in the foreground, generally?

15 A. Individuals.

16 Q. How are they dressed?

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Who is that?

7 MS. AHMED: Continue to play.

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SARAH DRAPER

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Good afternoon, Special Agent Draper.

10 A. Good afternoon.

11 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).

12 A. Thank you.

13 Q. I have a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

14 A. Very good.

15 Q. All right. You testified on direct exam regarding a
16 video -- it was Exhibit 119 -- taken by Steven Stewart.

17 Do you recall that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And do you recall that in that video Mr. Stewart
20 was on the northbound bridge. Fair?

21 A. He was on the bridge. I don't know what direction the
22 traffic was.

23 Q. Okay. He was on a bridge?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. In a bridge in Bunkerville; correct?

1 A. Correct, yes.

2 Q. All right. And traffic at that point was actually driving
3 past him; right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And some of that traffic was BLM --

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. -- folks; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And so that was the point in the day where the BLM was
10 driving away; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right. And in that video, my client was making
13 different comments; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Mr. Stewart was saying things to the effect of they
16 threatened us with chemicals to back down; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. But we pushed forward; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. They couldn't gas us?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Correct?

23 We were going to be martyrs if they wanted to
24 continue this; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. All right. Now, you are a trained law enforcement agent;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. How many years of training do you have?

5 A. Training -- years of training or years of experience?

6 Q. Years of training to start.

7 A. Probably -- years of training total in my career? I'm
8 sorry. I don't know how to answer that question.

9 Q. Sure.

10 How many hours of training would you --

11 A. Oh . . . straight training, initially four to five months
12 and then many hours a year thereafter.

13 Q. Okay. And as part of that training, isn't it true you're 14 trained, at least in part, to identify threats?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. You're also trained to identify violence?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. Now, wouldn't you agree with me that in that
19 statement that we heard from Mr. Stewart, he didn't appear like
20 he was threatening anybody at that time; correct?

21 A. At that time, no.

22 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she's laid out her
24 ability --

25 MS. AHMED: Also calls for a legal conclusion. I

1 apologize for speaking over counsel. Also calls for a legal
2 conclusion.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she's laid out her ability
4 as a law enforcement agent to identify threats and to identify
5 violence.

6 THE COURT: The second objection is that it's calling
7 for a legal conclusion which is ultimately up to the jury to
8 decide.

9 MR. TANASI: Again, threatening behavior, Your Honor.
10 I'm not asking her to conclude whether a threat occurred in the 11 case or not.

12 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

13 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

14 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was by the
15 Government. The question was whether this line of questioning
16 is calling for legal conclusion from the witness.

17 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am. And I was saying --

18 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Tanasi. I called the
19 sidebar because I didn't want to limit your ability to 20 respond --

21 MR. TANASI: I understand.

22 THE COURT: -- to the objection because we were in
23 front of the jury.

24 MR. TANASI: Understood.

25 THE COURT: So now you're free to go ahead.

1 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

2 I would say that it doesn't call for a legal
3 conclusion because I'm not asking her to go to that -- that end
4 to say in this case, did Mr. Stewart threaten anybody. I'm not
5 asking her to go that far. I'm saying in this instance, as
6 he's videotaping the BLM drive by, on the videotape, is he
7 threatening in any way? His behavior, is it threatening in any
8 way as a characteristic of his behavior. And my next question
9 was whether it sounded violent in any way and violence -- which
10 I didn't get to yet, but that's where I was getting next --
11 also doesn't call for a legal conclusion. It's his behavior
12 and her trained law enforcement experience. Did it sound like
13 or appear to her that it was threatening or violent in that
14 time frame, not overall in the case.

15 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would re- -- reiterate our
16 objection that it calls -- it is calling for a legal
17 conclusion. You're asking if someone's making a threat.
18 That's a question that is for the jury. Also, it's asking her
19 for her opinion about these things and she's not indicated that
20 she's in any way qualified to make expert opinions about a
21 video that she observed. She's not a percipient witness. She
22 wasn't there that day. She didn't observe his behavior and his
23 context in full. Her -- I don't know how much her objection --
24 her -- excuse me -- her investigation into that day would allow
25 her to weigh in on this question and again, she's not a

1 percipient witness. She wasn't a victim. She wasn't present
2 that day, and it is ultimately calling her -- asking her to
3 make an opinion about things that she's not qualified to do.

4 MR. TANASI: On the qualifications, Your Honor, if I
5 can just be heard.

6 On the qualifications argument, she testified to the
7 two questions that I asked her prior as a trained law
8 enforcement expert or trained law enforcement individual -- not
9 expert, but trained law enforcement individual -- she's been
10 trained to identify threats and violence.

11 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I just add one more
12 thing? It's also -- I would say that in terms of the 13 threatening and the violence, it's not relevant because at this
14 point it's clear that the BLM has already backed down and
15 they're leaving. He's, if anything, celebratory, so it's an
16 irrelevant question.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: So, the charge relating to the threat,
19 the assault, is not the leaving of the BLM or the portion of
20 the -- I think she called it -- somebody called it a convoy --
21 the portion that we're looking at in the video where the BLM is
22 leaving. So you're saying that that is not the assault, so
23 it's confusing to the jury --

24 MS. AHMED: It is confusing to the jury.

25 THE COURT: -- what is the threat or the assaulting

1 behavior that the Government is alleging?

2 MS. AHMED: Correct.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, I agree that it's a
4 legal conclusion and as far as her ability or her expertise,
5 she said she is, but I don't know that there's a foundation
6 actually for me to find that she is. Perhaps it's not
7 necessary for me to even make that kind of a call. I mean,
8 certainly there's not enough information for me to say that she
9 is.

10 I -- I thought that it was very misleading for the 11 jury, so -- and confusing to them as well. So, I'm going to 12 sustain the objection.

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. And does that also go for the 14 questions that I had coming up, I guess, essentially with
15 respect to whether he sounded violent in that statement in that
16 moment? Where, in the last trial, she indicated, no, he did
17 not.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, we would make the same
19 objection to that line of questioning for the same reasons that
20 we just argued and in that -- and just so the record is clear,
21 in the last trial Mr. Tanasi gave her two options and said, is
22 it this or is this and she said if I have to choose between
23 those two options, I would say it's not. The question here
24 today is slightly different. It's just, generally, is this a
25 threat? Is this violent?

1 MR. TANASI: I can ask it the exact way as I did in
2 the last trial, Your Honor.

3 MS. AHMED: Again, Your Honor, ultimately we'd make
4 the same objections, that it's confusing, it's irrelevant, it's
5 after the BLM's already left and been backed down and, so, it's
6 therefore, irrelevant and also asking for an opinion.

7 THE COURT: Well, I agree it seems irrelevant.
8 Violence is not an element that's charged to have taken place
9 during the exit of the BLM, at least not in this video, not on
10 the bridge. I'm not sure -- I'm trying to remember if there
11 was -- I think in the other trial if they said something or not
12 about the -- the property that was still there, if it was --
13 something happened to it or not, but in any case, it's not part
14 of the charge, even if there was some kind of vandalism or
15 something that happened to any of the assets. So I don't see
16 that it's relevant. It's confusing for the jury. It's still
17 . . . not clear to me that she's really qualified in the sense
18 that the Court would need to qualify her to be able to make
19 that opinion.

20 MR. TANASI: If I could just add one more thing for
21 the record.

22 My understanding of the Government's theory is, and
23 this is in response to when we make the argument that the
24 operation was over, what they -- the Government has proffered
25 is that the operation wasn't over because part of the operation

1 was the BLM securing the cattle or realizing they couldn't
2 secure the cattle and ultimately leaving. The whole BLM
3 operation, as we've tried to argue, is not over and the
4 Government extends that to keep us from getting into the
5 argument that the operation was over. And so, in this instance
6 I'm saying that the operation, under the Government's theory --

7 THE COURT: I think you misrepresent what the
8 Government's position is, first of all. My understanding of
9 the Government's position is that the -- the roundup, the
10 trapping of the cattle, that portion of the operation was over,
11 but that the cattle that had already been trapped and tagged
12 and penned were still property of the U.S. government and that
13 they did not ever cease that portion of the operation; they
14 still intended on transporting them to the auction and selling
15 them.

16 MR. TANASI: Well, what I'm -- what I'm offering
17 though, Your Honor, is as the BLM is driving away, they're
18 still acting in their official duties, in their official
19 capacities driving away and the Government has extended that
20 umbrella to include what is happening right now in the video,
21 which is the government driving away. The BLM's operation has
22 been extended till today, essentially. And so, I'm saying that 23 that driving away is just a part of that operation that the 24 Government's alleging my client obstructed or threatened or
25 otherwise assaulted them.

1 THE COURT: That the Government's operation is
2 extended until today?

3 MR. TANASI: Under the conspiracy theory.

4 THE COURT: No. I think it's till March of 2016 was
5 the conspiracy charge.

6 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 MR. TANASI: To the date of the -- that's correct.

8 MS. AHMED: But in any event, the -- the way in which
9 they left and when they left, it was not -- we're not saying
10 that that's a part of the operation because clearly, they left
11 under duress and not as they had planned with the cattle. So,
12 I -- I don't know if I'm just not following the argument, but
13 that -- we're not saying that their departure at that time
14 that's depicted in the video was a part of the operation,
15 ongoing operation; they left in spite of the operation under
16 duress.

17 THE COURT: So, did you have a motion? I think I
18 lost track of where this started.

19 MR. TANASI: Yeah. No. Where I was going is that
20 what -- that's why it's relevant. I might have lost track for
21 a second, too, but that's why I believe the line of questioning
22 is relevant, because the Government has extended the operation
23 through just being in the wash until the end of the conspiracy,
24 essentially, and especially with that portion of them driving
25 away. They're acting in their official duties, in their

1 official capacity, which they allege is -- our clients have
2 obstructed them while they've been acting in their official
3 duties.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So I think you're confusing and
5 conflating operation with conspiracy. The acts of the
6 conspiracy versus the operation itself.

7 So I -- I understand, and for the record, I think
8 you've clarified it as much as we can --

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 THE COURT: -- outside the presence of the jury so
11 that you could speak more freely.

12 The ruling stands.

13 MR. TANASI: Understood. I'll move on. Thank you.

14 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

15 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was
16 sustained.

17 Go ahead and move on, Mr. Tanasi.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 Brian, if you could please publish for the jury
20 Exhibit 95.

21 (Exhibit 95 published.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. All right. Okay. Ma'am, do you see Exhibit 95?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. All right. With respect to Exhibit 95, this isn't

1 something you testified about today; correct?

2 A. Not today.

3 Q. This particular exhibit, this was earlier this week;
4 correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. All right. So I just want to take you back there.

7 This particular post, it indicates that
8 "Steven Stewart had relayed to me what was going on through 9 binoculars"; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. So this post indicates that Steven Stewart had
12 binoculars; correct?

13 A. That's what it says, yes.

14 Q. Okay. And this was posted on September 19 -- or
15 September 16th, 2014; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. And the events in Bunkerville, this took place in
18 April of 2014; correct?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. All right. So this is some months after. Fair? Five?

21 A. Yes, five. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. All right. All right. So, in this particular
23 post, you can't tell from this post where Mr. Parker or 24 Mr. Stewart were located when they were describing this post;
25 right?

1 A. Not that specific sentence, but the context indicates to
2 me.

3 Q. I understand.

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. And it indicates to you, from what I understand of your
6 testimony, is that it's sometime or someplace in Bunkerville on
7 the 12th; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. But drilling down further, from this particular
10 post, fair to say you don't know where exactly that took place;
11 right? You don't know whether it's Post 1. Fair?

12 A. I'm sorry. I don't know whether it's what?

13 Q. You don't know whether it's Post 1 in Bunkerville; right?

14 A. Can you familiarize me, please, with Post 1?

15 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the wash in Bunkerville?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the northbound and the
18 southbound bridge in Bunkerville?

19 A. Okay. Correct. Yes.

20 Q. All right. And you're familiar with the BLM erecting a
21 Post 1; correct?

22 A. Yes. Okay.

23 Q. And Post 2?

24 A. Right. Okay.

25 Q. And then across from the Post 1, you're familiar in your

1 investigation with the parking lot; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So, you, from this post, fair to say, can't
4 determine, through your investigation, where they were standing
5 when they're talking about this particular set of binoculars;
6 correct?

7 A. From -- from that sentence, that's correct.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if you could please
10 bring up Number 96.

11 (Exhibit 96 published.)

12 Actually, strike that, Brian. I apologize.

13 Number 97.

14 (Exhibit 97 published.)

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Okay. Talked about this post today; correct?

17 A. Yesterday.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. Yes, yesterday.

20 Q. Fair to say this is not Steven Stewart; right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. All right.

23 MR. TANASI: And now if we can go to 105, please,
24 Brian.

25 (Exhibit 105 published.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. All right. In this particular picture, do you see what
3 I'm circling here (indicating)?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. What does that appear to be?

6 A. Appears to be the barrel of some type of rifle.

7 Q. All right. And that rifle's sitting there without anyone
8 holding it; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. All right.

11 MR. TANASI: If you could, please, Brian, bring up
12 118.

13 (Exhibit 118 published.)

14 MR. TANASI: All right. Actually, if we can just
15 take a look at the picture, please, Brian.

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. So in this particular picture, this is a
18 picture of the wash; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In between the northbound and the southbound bridge;
21 correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. And over here (indicating), this is the gate
24 that was underneath the wash; right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. And back here (indicating), who does that
2 appear to be?

3 A. Appear to be BLM vehicles.

4 Q. Okay. In this particular post -- Brian, if you could
5 scroll down, please, so we can take a look at what time -- what
6 time was this particular post made?

7 A. So this would have been uploaded -- I don't know what time
8 it was taken -- but it would have been uploaded April 12th,
9 2014, at approximately 1:33 p.m. Pacific time.

10 Q. Okay. Now -- go ahead, Brian. You can take that down --
11 today we've heard testimony concerning Sugar Pine operation;
12 right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that took place at some point after April 12th, 2014;
15 right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right. And we also, or interchangeably, that Sugar
18 Pine also was referred to as the Gold Rush.

19 Is that fair?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. So that's one and the same --

22 A. Correct, yes.

23 Q. -- when we talk about the operations?

24 All right. Okay. Through the course of your
25 investigation you didn't determine or learn anything that lent

1 itself to believe that Mr. Stewart was at all involved with
2 Sugar Pine or Gold Rush; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. All right. And then we also talked about an Operation Big
5 Sky.

6 Do you remember that?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. All right. And same question. Through the course of your
9 investigation, you didn't learn anything that would lend itself
10 to Mr. Stewart's involvement in the Operation Big Sky; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right.

13 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up 189,
14 please.

15 (Exhibit 189 published.)

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. All right. So, going through this again, ma'am, on the
18 first page that we're looking at, there is nothing on the
19 right, when we go through that time line, that involves
20 Steven Stewart; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if we can go to the
23 next page.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Same question. On April 8th, 2014, there's no

1 communication on the right that involves Steven Stewart;
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. All right.

5 MR. TANASI: If we can take it with the next page,
6 please, Brian.

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. Again, nothing on the lines in that time line that
9 involves Steven Stewart; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 MR. TANASI: All right. If we can go to the next
12 page, please, Brian.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. April 10th, 2014. Nothing on this particular page with
15 this time line that involves Steven Stewart; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right.

18 MR. TANASI: And if we can go to the next page,
19 please, Brian.

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. All right. The time line entry on the bottom right-hand
22 corner, the 8:34, 9:34.

23 Do you see that there?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. All right. That says, "We are going to be showing up late

1 tonight"; correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And it says, "Is that okay, at around 11:30"; correct?

4 A. Yes, that's correct.

5 Q. All right. So, fair to say that's Eric Parker indicating
6 he's going to be showing up somewhere around 11:30 that
7 evening?

8 A. Yes. That's fair to say.

9 Q. And there's a "we" there; right?

10 A. A "we."

11 Q. But it says 11:30; right?

12 A. Yes. Yes.

13 Q. All right. All right.

14 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up 120,
15 please.

16 (Exhibit 120 published.)

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. Okay. This particular post, this is from Steven Stewart;
19 correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Okay. He indicated he went -- helped Cliven Bundy get his
22 cattle back; right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. He says, "Straight there, straight back, two
25 hours"; right?

1 A. He says, "two hours of sleep in between," correct.

2 Q. "Two hours of sleep in between"; correct?

3 A. Yes. Um-hmm. That's what he says.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: Brian, take that down.

6 121, please, Brian.

7 (Exhibit 121 published.)

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right. This particular post regarding the 10 Honorable Judge Lloyd D. George, do you see that there?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. The date on that post is April 15th, 2014;
13 correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. All right. And that's three days after the events in 16 Bunkerville; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Thank you.

19 MR. TANASI: Brian, could we just go back to 189 for
20 a moment.

21 Go to the last page, please.

22 (Exhibit 189 published.)

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. All right. You see the 12:58 entry?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Okay. And -- and that is a post from Steven Stewart where
2 he says, "It's been a long day. What's up why I have a little
3 earlier with a really high powered scope. Show me F**
4 awesome"; right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. All right. So, he's indicating in that post that somebody
7 showed him a high powered scope. Fair?

8 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

9 THE COURT: She can answer the question, if -- if she
10 knows. If she has personal knowledge.

11 THE WITNESS: I -- I don't interpret that statement
12 that way.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. You don't?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. But he used the word "show"; right? "Show me the 17 scope." Fair?

18 MS. AHMED: Objection. Misstates the -- it doesn't
19 say "show me the scope."

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. Again, "What's up" --

22 THE COURT: You want to just rephrase the question?

23 MR. TANASI: I can -- I can do that. I apologize.

24 I'll just read it just like it is to make sure we're on the
25 same page. "What's up why I have a little earlier with a

1 really high powered scope. Show me F awesome"; right.

2 THE WITNESS: Those are the words, but that's not my
3 interpretation.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. That's not your interpretation?

6 A. No.

7 Q. How do you interpret it?

8 A. I read this, I believe that there's a mistake in the
9 initial word and some missing -- one of the initial words and
10 some missing punctuation.

11 Q. Where is that?

12 A. The word -- excuse me. Sorry. The word "have." This
13 would make sense if it said, "I was a little earlier with a
14 really high powered scope" -- then some type of comma or some
15 type of punctuation -- "show me F awesome."

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. That's how I would interpret that, but that's not what the 18 words say.

19 Q. Understood.

20 Prior to today's testimony, have you had an
21 opportunity to meet with the U.S. Attorney's Office?

22 A. Yes, I have.

23 Q. How many times?

24 A. Total, probably nine or 10.

25 Q. Nine or 10 times?

1 A. Um-hmm.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

3 Pass the witness.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's go ahead and take
6 our overnight break.

7 Aaron, are we back at 9:00 tomorrow?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 10 o'clock, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: 10:00 again?

10 All right. So tomorrow we'll be starting again at 11 10 o'clock.

12 I do remind the jury during this overnight break that
13 you are not to speak about this case with anyone. Not to your
14 spouse, employer, neighbors, friends, family. You can tell
15 them, yes, we're still in trial. Yes, I'm still a juror. It's 16 not over yet, but please do not talk to them about the case at
17 all.

18 Also, please do not read or listen to or view
19 anything that touches upon this case in any way nor attempt to
20 perform any research or independent investigation. If you do
21 have a question, please write them down on the forms provided.

22 And do not form any opinion until after you have
23 heard all the testimony, reviewed the evidence. We will
24 provide you -- I will provide you with the jury instructions
25 that are the legal instructions that will guide you. You will

1 apply to them the facts as you find them, and then you will
2 hear closing arguments. After closing arguments, then I'll
3 excuse you to begin your deliberation process. You recall when
4 you took your oath that's a duty, your duty to deliberate. So
5 that's the duty to discuss your opinions with each other and
6 attempt to reach a verdict.

7 So, at this time we'll go ahead and excuse our jury
8 and welcome them back at 10:00 a.m.

9 And so we also want Ms. Draper to return at
10 10:00 a.m.; is that right?

11 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes?

13 All right. So --

14 THE WITNESS: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 So the jury is free to leave and then Special Agent
17 Draper, if you'll please return again tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. so
18 we can begin where we left off with cross.

19 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

20 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Off the record.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, before we go off record,
23 can I just make a record real quick while we're here? I didn't
24 want to do it at sidebar because it was sort of out of context.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: The Government --

2 THE COURT: You may be excused --

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: -- Agent Draper. That's fine.

5 (Witness excused.)

6 THE COURT: We can all sit down, or if you're tired
7 of sitting and you want to stand, that's okay too, but . . .

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: The Government elicited testimony
9 today regarding Timothy McVeigh and it was more in the line --
10 the line of what had -- was written on Mr. Parker's Facebook
11 that had zero to do with my client, but it went even further
12 than that, it went deeper in terms of they elicited from
13 Sarah Draper who was Timothy McVeigh and not only that, but
14 what he did. All it said was McVeigh and based on that,
15 McVeigh, they elicited from that witness that it was
16 Timothy McVeigh, that he was a bomber, that he bombed a
17 building, that he -- they went through a litany of different
18 things that Timothy McVeigh did, somehow comparing
19 Timothy McVeigh to these individuals here.

20 I would also couple that with testimony that they
21 elicited from a BLM agent that indicated that what they were
22 doing was like what terrorists in Afghanistan, I believe is
23 what he said, did when he saw them up on the bridge. We
24 objected to that and we objected to this.

25 That is highly prejudicial, way more prejudicial than

1 just reading -- which is what I thought was going to happen
2 when the Court allowed it to come in -- reading McVeigh and
3 then on. But to go into deeper details than that, I think
4 that's so prejudicial, I don't think we can erase that from the
5 minds of the jury so at this point, I would be asking for
6 either a mistrial, one, a limiting instruction, two, that it
7 doesn't come in on Mr. Drexler, because he had nothing to do
8 with that post, he was not tagged on it. He -- there's no
9 inference that he read it or knew about it or anything of that
10 nature, but to elicit that kind of testimony, I think it calls
11 for a mistrial or at the least, at the very minimum, a limiting
12 instruction saying that it does not come in under -- for -- for
13 Mr. Drexler. That's -- that would be my motion.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, I did give a limiting
15 instruction as to what purpose the information could be
16 considered, for intent, motive, and absence of mistake.

17 What's the Government's response?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, just to clear the record.
19 There was not a lengthy line of questioning on this point. The
20 con- -- the post indicated that -- was speaking about McVeigh
21 and it referenced that he was set up by the federal -- by the
22 FBI and that he got himself caught and set the movement back.
23 And so, to give context to that post, I asked the witness who
24 Mr. McVeigh was and she explained who he was and said his name
25 and that he was the Oklahoma City bomber. And so, Your Honor,

1 that's -- that doesn't -- certainly is not so overly
2 prejudicial.

3 As the Court indicated earlier, these posts are
4 prejudicial, which is why we're putting them in; they're not
5 unfairly prejudicial. And since the post was invoking his
6 actions and referencing his actions and comparing his actions,
7 it was relevant information and it was, again, not overly
8 prejudicial and certainly doesn't rise to the level of a
9 mistrial. And as the Court indicated, therefore already a
10 limiting instruction given in this case on that particular
11 post.

12 So -- and in terms of Mr. Leventhal's further points,
13 those are all clearly things that he could cross-examine the
14 witness on to establish that that's not Mr. Drexler's post, he
15 didn't write those words, et cetera.

16 So, again, Your Honor, consistent with the Court's
17 earlier rulings, Mr. Leventhal can elicit that same information
18 through cross-examination. It certainly isn't something that
19 he can't clear up and it doesn't call for a mistrial.

20 (Counsel conferring.)

21 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, and just for the
22 record, Parker would join Mr. Drexler's motion. Obviously, we
23 had a long colloquy yesterday in reference to this post coming
24 in and our -- my feelings in reference to Timothy McVeigh and
25 that he's an overly prejudicial individual so just the post

1 itself, I felt, was overly prejudicial and then to somehow
2 qualify it by who is Timothy McVeigh and somehow add fuel to
3 the fire and getting more information about Mr. McVeigh out at
4 this trial, I think Mr. Drexler is right in bringing this
5 motion and we join.

6 THE COURT: All right. Well, in regards to the --

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

8 THE COURT: -- words, they were invoked by Mr. Parker
9 in the post. He's the one who has the name McVeigh in the 10 post. He's using that name and its connotation to explain and
11 express his disappointment with the failure of McVeigh and the
12 distinction between his actions and -- by his I mean -- so, the
13 difference between McVeigh's actions or failures and the 14 successes that he, Mr. Parker, completed. So, I think that the
15 . . . it's clearly relevant and admissible against Mr. Parker.
16 I think the bigger question, and the point that Mr. Leventhal
17 is trying to make, is whether or not the spillover effect, as
18 Mr. Tanasi usually brings up -- to give you credit for bringing 19 that up -- but, is the spillover effect, if any, even though it
20 is a co-conspirator statement, is it, you know, so prejudicial
21 that it cannot simply be cured on cross-examination with the
22 other individuals. The Court has found that the statement was
23 provided during the conspiracy, in furtherance of the
24 conspiracy, as part of the conspiracy, recruitment,
25 glorification, encouraging others and so forth.

1 So, if you'll respond to that portion, I think,
2 Ms. Ahmed, I think that's the . . . the only thing that I think
3 you didn't mention.

4 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, that's exactly it. The post
5 ends with that's -- you know, essentially that's what I've done
6 so either get active or shut up. And so, again, it's -- these
7 are the things that we did. He claims that they were
8 successful and describes how they were successful and it's all
9 in the context of furthering this movement in a positive way.
10 And so, again, it -- he is specifically referencing the
11 April 12th, 2014, event in Nevada as well as the other two
12 operations. And so, it's that same continuing conspiracy in
13 which they are glorifying and recruiting others as the Court
14 referenced. And so, it would be admissible as to all of these
15 defendants under 801(d)(2)(E).

16 MR. PEREZ: And, Your Honor, just for the record, on
17 behalf of Mr. Lovelien, I would join in Mr. Leventhal's motion
18 and his objection. I mean, I've said numerous times, I mean,
19 none of this has anything to do with Mr. Lovelien. He's not a
20 3%er. And so, just for the record, I'm making that objection.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: And going back to whether or not I
22 can clean up on cross-examination --

23 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm -- I'm going to
24 deny your Motion for a Mistrial and deny your motion for a more
25 limiting or clarifying instruction until after

1 cross-examination. So, it's denied without prejudice. You can
2 re-raise it and furthermore, if you have some case law that you
3 want me to look at, I'll look at that as well.

4 I think we're kind of stuck with the problem of it
5 being a co-conspirator statement, but I understand your concern
6 and I think that it's a reasonable objection to make. So, with
7 that, I'll -- I -- it's denied, but without prejudice. You may
8 re-raise it after we've had an opportunity to cross and you can
9 see if you can find some other cases that -- or any other
10 information that might be more -- that might guide this -- this
11 discussion more so than just talking about the facts. I think
12 we're all familiar with the facts; the problem is, how does the
13 law treat this type of situation. And it looks like there is a
14 disadvantage to being a co-conspirator during a conspiracy when
15 some conspirators are saying certain things and the
16 admissibility of those things with other defendants. So, it's 17 not the spillover that we see in the other situations where
18 after arrest, a person makes a statement that inculcates maybe
19 himself or one of the co-defendants. Then you have more of an
20 issue of whether or not that information should be cleaned up
21 or clarified or sanitized in some way so that there isn't a
22 spillover. That's not what's happening here. This isn't after
23 the conspiracy, it's during the conspiracy. So it falls into
24 that 801(d)(2)(E) realm. It's a different legal analysis.

25 So, let's --

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: -- sleep on it and see if it's clear in
3 the morning or after cross-examination and do some research.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just briefly.

5 I'm not sure how I'm going to cross-examine a witness
6 that just testified and I usually would not touch that on
7 cross-examination.

8 THE COURT: Well, you don't have to. I'm not -- I'm
9 not saying that you have to, but I -- I think maybe if we . . .
10 if you look into it, maybe it will be more clear. I think
11 you're -- I can't tell you what to do, but --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I appreciate that.

13 THE COURT: -- you can see that I'm struggling with
14 that.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I don't need guidance from the
16 Court to tell me what to do. I understand what I need to do
17 and that's why I'm making this motion. And -- and as it sat,
18 if it was just reading, as this witness did on almost all of
19 the other e-mails, then I -- I don't think I would even be
20 making this motion. It was the eliciting of the further
21 information, "and who was that?" "and how do you know that?"
22 That is the issue that I'm having. Not just McVeigh, because
23 McVeigh is innocuous. It's the going into Timothy McVeigh, the
24 Oklahoma City bomber, without anything further from that
25 document that would suggest that that was even that person.

1 That's what I'm talking about. It's that further step that the
2 Government took and that's my issue. I would have had no
3 problem had she just read McVeigh and then moved on because
4 they got rid of the Millers, and nobody probably even knows who
5 that is, but all they had do -- they had no problem getting rid
6 of the Millers, the term "Millers." They redacted that, but
7 when it came to McVeigh, the guy who killed a hundred people in
8 a building, that's okay, that's fair game, I'm going to go into
9 that. So that's my issue.

10 I will deal with it in -- I guess, tomorrow on cross
11 if I figure out a way to do that, but generally, I don't put a
12 big spotlight on something that I'm asking for a mistrial for.

13 THE COURT: All right. Well, the distinction between
14 the Millers and McVeigh was that in the posting, Mr. Parker was
15 disavowing himself of the Millers and in -- in the same posting
16 he's not disavowing himself of McVeigh, but rather the failure
17 of McVeigh to move the -- the progress of the movement and so
18 forth. So, it was -- that was the distinction that was being
19 made there and to why one is included and why is not.

20 All right. So, we'll see you tomorrow at 10:00.

21 Off record.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

23 (Proceedings adjourned at 5:12 p.m)

4 (Joel Willis resumes the witness stand.)

5 (Pause. Jury not present.)

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

7 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for Jury
9 Trial, Day 17, in the Case No. 2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL, United
10 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
11 Lovelein, and Steven Stewart.

12 THE COURT: All right. Well, before we begin, let me
13 just remind everyone that there is conduct that is expected in 14 a courtroom. This is a courtroom, not a sporting event. That 15 means that no expression, whether verbally or through body
16 language, is permissible regarding anything you might hear or 17 see even. If you very strongly agree or disagree with it, it
18 is not proper to make any kind of distracting or inappropriate
19 expressions.

20 Please remember that we do not allow any electronic 21 devices in federal court. There is no audio or video recording
22 permitted in federal court. So, if you do have an electronic 23 device, please go ahead and take it outside. Even if it is in 24 vibrate mode or private mode or turned off, they are just not 25 permitted in the courtroom. And the Marshals do have the

1 authority to remove individuals who have electronic devices.
2 So double check now and go ahead and put it outside so you
3 don't have any issues later.

4 The attorneys do have electronic devices so that they
5 may review their discovery and present discovery and any other
6 trial presentations. The communication devices are permitted
7 for the Marshals and the Court Security Officers.

8 And I think that covers everything.

9 Do we need to talk about anything before we bring in 10 the jury?

11 MR. MYHRE: Not from the Government, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: No? All right. So let's go ahead and 13 bring them in. Did -- let's see, Mr. Tanasi. You finished.

14 MR. TANASI: I did, Your Honor. It's Mr. Perez, I
15 think.

16 THE COURT: And I wasn't sure. Yeah, Mr. Perez, you
17 didn't finish, did you?

18 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So we'll continue with you. Thank
20 you.

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

23 (Jury in, 9:41 a.m.)

24 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
25 seated.

1 Everyone else may be and be seated as well.

2 Good morning. Welcome back.

3 Let's go ahead and have the attorneys make their
4 appearances on the record in front of the jury and then we'll 5 resume.

6 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. Good morning, Your Honor.

7 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

8 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the 9 United States.

10 THE COURT: Good morning.

11 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

12 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

13 Shawn Perez on behalf of Mr. Lovelien in the back
14 there.

15 THE COURT: Good morning.

16 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 Good morning, folks.

18 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also with us at 19 counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

22 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

23 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Good morning, everybody.

2 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

3 THE COURT: Good morning.

4 All right. So we're gonna continue now with 5 cross-examination by Mr. Perez on behalf of Mr. Lovelien.

6 And we have with us back on the witness stand our
7 special agent from the FBI, Agent Willis. So let's go ahead
8 and resume.

9 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 Brian, can you bring up 182, slide 44.

11 (Slide displayed in open court.)

12 JOEL WILLIS,

13 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
14 previously duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION (Continued)

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Agent Willis, yesterday you testified that the view would be 18 better -- or the view under the --

19 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: (Hand raised.)

20 MR. PEREZ: We have a problem, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: One of 'em, Aaron, isn't working.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Did you hit the power button.
23 Probably got . . .

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. Agent Willis, this particular picture is 12:21:16,

3 correct --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- on April 12th?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And you testified yesterday on direct that the view
8 would be better -- the view of the wash under the southbound
9 bridge would be better as you move away from where Mr. Lovelien
10 is pictured in this picture. More towards Todd Engel; correct?

11 A. Yes. As you move east, you would be able to see under more
12 of the southbound bridge and to the ICP.

13 Q. Okay. So, for example, the two NHP officers would have a
14 better viewpoint than Mr. Lovelien where he is right here.

15 A. A better viewpoint of what?

16 Q. Of under the bridge.

17 A. From where they are standing in this picture, they would be 18 able to see further north instead of northeast under the bridge
19 to the ICP --

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. -- yes.

22 Q. Now, in assembling your timeline, you pulled images from a
23 variety of sources; some were Facebook. I believe that we saw 24 the video -- or not the video -- but the photograph of 25 Mr. Lovelien with Mr. Engel crouching behind him and that came

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 from Mr. Lovelien's Facebook; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Well, did Mr. Lovelien make any posts on the 12th
4 that you recall?

5 A. I don't recall.

6 Q. Okay. And, when you were looking at the timeline -- I'm
7 assuming that you looked at Facebook for a lot of other
8 reasons: content, things of that nature; correct?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Okay. And did you pay any attention to Mr. Lovelien's
11 friends?

12 A. I recall looking through his friends' list on his Facebook
13 search warrant return, the Business Records, yes.

14 Q. Okay. And did you --

15 A. I did not memorize that list.

16 Q. Okay. Do you recall if Mr. Engel was a Facebook friend of 17 Mr. Lovelien?

18 A. Not on the 12th. I don't believe.

19 Q. Okay. All right. Now --

20 MR. PEREZ: Exhibit 210, Brian.

21 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Now, Exhibit 210 consists of three pages. And you did a
24 series of measurements using this infrared measuring device;
25 correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. A laser range finder, yes.

2 Q. Okay. And did you measure the distance from where

3 Mr. Lovelien was to the southbound bridge?

4 A. I think you asked me that yesterday. And I -- I don't

5 recall --

6 Q. Did you --

7 A. -- taking that measurement.

8 Q. Did you take a measurement from the rally point to Post 1?

9 A. From the rally point to --

10 Q. To where --

11 A. -- Post 1. So the rally point is a staging area. If you're

12 referring to the assembly area --

13 Q. Right.

14 A. -- to Post 1?

15 Q. Right.

16 A. So I had to use an object. I had to -- so I was able to

17 take a measurement from the beginning of the median across the 18 street using the road signs. And I think we discussed that

19 yesterday. It was -- it was 90 yards, the same as the distance

20 between the bridges. So -- and, with the road being 44 feet on

21 either side, about, you know, 110, 120 yards, I would say,

22 between the entrance of the assembly area to Post 1 --

23 Q. Okay. And how about a measurement from where Mr. Lovelien

24 was using on the Jersey barrier behind that bush to Post 1?

25 A. To -- no, I did not.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Can you approximate the distance using this particular
2 photograph with the designation of 458 yards between the
3 parking area and the wash?

4 A. I would say 300 to 350 yards --

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. -- approximately.

7 MR. PEREZ: All right, Brian. 182, slide 77.

8 (Slide displayed in open court.)

9 BY MR. PEREZ:

10 Q. Okay. Now, things are kind of distorted in these 11 photographs I believe you said yesterday. It's kind of hard to 12 tell if, you know, things are in front of one another or behind
13 one another.

14 What side of the highway is Mr. Lovelien on?

15 A. He would be on the south side. So the furthest side of
16 northbound I-15.

17 Q. So then the truck passing would be passing in front of 18 Mr. Lovelien, not behind him?

19 A. That's --

20 MR. MYHRE: Objection --

21 THE WITNESS: -- correct.

22 MR. MYHRE: -- Your Honor. Foundation as to what truck
23 we're talking about.

24 MR. PEREZ: Well, the big rig here (drawing).

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

2 And then Brian, slide 80.

3 (Slide displayed in open court.)

4 BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. Now, this particular shot -- who was the photographer of 6 this particular shot? Do you recall?

7 A. Michael Flynn.

8 Q. Michael Flynn.

9 And this is part of a video?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And this particular exhibit says "1:35pm"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, at 1:35 p.m., was the BLM already out of the wash at 14 that point in time?

15 A. No. They were in the process of moving back, but they were 16 not out of the wash.

17 Q. Do you recall if the -- I believe there was three vehicles
18 in the forefront -- they may have been Ranger vehicles -- under 19 the southbound bridge; right?

20 A. Well, ye- -- yes. They -- they had not left the ICP or the 21 wash area at this time.

22 Q. Okay. But, as far as, like, the bridge area itself, though,
23 they had already retreated from that area?

24 A. Yes, they were pull -- pulling back into the ICP. Yes, they 25 had retreated from that area.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. PEREZ: I have nothing further. Thank you.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Good morning, Agent Willis.

7 A. Good morning.

8 Q. So I wanted to talk a little bit about your slideshow in 9 reference to Mr. Parker. We're gonna go to Exhibit 182; that's 10 your slideshow, slide No. 22.

11 (Slide displayed in open court.)

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. Do you see that on the screen, sir?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. So on your particular slideshow, this is the first shot that 16 you have of Eric Parker in the general vicinity of the 17 northbound bridge? Is that fair to say?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. He's not really -- is he on the bridge yet or he's just 20 about to get on it?

21 A. He was -- is on the bridge at this point.

22 Q. Okay. Is that where, like, the beginning of the bridge --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- would start?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. And I believe on direct examination you mentioned
2 (drawing) this individual here. That individual is Mr. Engel;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And this particular screenshot, that's taken from a video.
6 I believe it is the one that we got in through Mr. Ellis?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And, in this particular video, Mr. Parker is just 9 seen walking; he doesn't stop at any point on this particular
10 video; correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. There's no dialogue with him and Mr. Engel to your 13 knowledge; correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. No communications, to your knowledge, whatsoever?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. And, for the record, we're gonna move to number 27.

18 THE COURT: Bless you.

19 (Slide displayed in open court.)

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Now, this is the first shot in your screen -- your 22 slideshow -- excuse me -- in which you've indicated that 23 Mr. Parker is -- looks like he's kneeling down or something or 24 another; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Kinda hard to tell where he's looking. I mean,
2 there's his head (drawing), but it looks somewhat blurry. Is
3 that fair to say?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. However, this is at approximately 12:02; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And I believe you testified that you did the best that you
8 could on these times; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Because you're bringing them in from a myriad of different
11 sources; correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Some have metadata; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Some don't?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. So you're just gonna take whatever tools and resources are 18 at your disposal to try to come up with the best time frame --

19 A. That's --

20 Q. -- right?

21 A. -- that's correct.

22 Q. Now, for the record, we're gonna go to 28 on the same
23 slideshow.

24 (Slide displayed in open court.)

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Okay. This is a better picture of Mr. Parker taken
3 approximately 1 minute after the last slide. Is that accurate?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Now, we've had some testimony in reference to 6 (drawing) a tattoo of The Three Percenter. Do you remember
7 that? Correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And this is April 12th, 2014, this shot; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that tattoo on Mr. Parker's right forearm is not present
12 at this time; correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And, in this particular screenshot, it appears Mr. Parker is 15 kneeling down with his rifle in his hands; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. His finger's not on the trigger; correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And he appears to be looking forward into the wash
20 (drawing). Would that be accurate?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And, for the record, we're gonna move to number 32.
23 (Slide displayed in open court.)

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. All right. This is another photo taken a little bit later.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 For the record, you have it down as 12:09 approximately;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. At this point, Mr. Parker appears to be standing;
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, he is.

7 Q. Okay. And just circling him in the middle of the screen as 8 if we don't already know who he is.

9 Appears to be looking down possibly. Is that fair to 10 say?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You can tell because the brim of his hat (drawing) appears
13 to be facing at a downward trajectory; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And I think on direct examination you said he appears to be 16 doing something with his hands maybe?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Not pointing his weapon though, however, at this
19 juncture; correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Okay. And we're gonna move to Exhibit 33 -- or slide 33, I
22 should say.

23 (Slide displayed in open court.)

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. Okay. This is another instance in which you picked

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Mr. Parker and used him in your slideshow. This is at 2 approximately 12:13; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And you have Mr. Parker arrowed in the middle of the screen
5 here?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And he is -- (drawing) appears to be kneeling; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. On direct examination, you had mentioned that the stock of 10 his -- or the back end of his rifle is pointing upward;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You can't see the rest of his rifle, but it appears to be 14 under the Jersey barrier; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. May be a little difficult to see. You do see the 17 front -- or at least the white insignia on his black hat;
18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. But he appears to be looking towards the wash once again.
21 Is that accurate?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And we're gonna move to number 34.

24 (Slide displayed in open court.)

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Okay. This is another shot of Mr. Parker taken a little bit
3 later, 12:16 for the record.

4 And this was the -- this is actually a screenshot of 5 the Shilakis video. Do you remember that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And this is the one I believe -- and if I'm wrong
8 correct me -- I believe it was your testimony that you said
9 something to the effect of he was manipulating his rifle sling
10 or something along that --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- those lines? Okay.

13 Once again, he appears to be looking forward into the 14 wash area; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. He obviously can't see the wash from this trajectory, but 17 you're well aware of the geography of that locale; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Gonna move to slide 35.

20 (Slide displayed in open court.)

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. Now, this was -- I think Mr. Schillie took this
23 photo?

24 A. Yes, that's correct.

25 Q. Okay. And this is about 12:18 p.m.; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. We had another photo from Mr. Schillie -- I don't know if
3 it's in this slideshow -- but where the crowd is further back
4 in the wash.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Fair to say?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And, from all your investigation (drawing), you were aware 9 that at some point in time there was some sort of a line that 10 formed generally around the area that I've depicted on the 11 screen; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So this is later in time. And, at this point in time, the 14 crowd has started to move forward toward the gate area; is that
15 right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. And this is at 12:18.

18 Now, Mr. Schillie, at this point, he would be to the 19 right of Mr. Parker generally; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And move to 37 for the record.

22 (Slide displayed in open court.)

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay. And this is a photo, obviously, of Mr. Parker down in 25 the prone position. That is approximately at 12:21 p.m.;

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So this is after, obviously, the last photo we showed 4 of the crowd moving forward or some of 'em are near the gate,
5 some of 'em a little further back; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And this is a Mr. Gourgeon photo?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. But Mr. Schillie, he's in the general vicinity of this
10 particular photo; correct?

11 A. Yes. He would have been to the right of the --

12 Q. Correct.

13 A. -- frame.

14 Q. He'd probably be -- he's not depicted on this screen -- but 15 he'd probably be somewhere in this photo the right of the 16 yellow line. Is that accurate?

17 A. Um, yes, to the right of the --

18 Q. Yeah.

19 A. -- frame, yes.

20 Q. But more directly to Mr. Parker's right --

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. -- to make it easier.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. Now, I'm gonna fast forward a little bit to slide 61.
25 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Okay. Now, this is one of the aerial shots. It's about
3 12:32, but . . .

4 You had some questions on direct examination in 5 reference to the number of people in the wash (drawing) and --
6 versus the number of people (drawing) -- or officers in this
7 general vicinity; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, in reference to the wash, did you count the number of 10 individuals on the bridges as well?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And what was that number?

13 A. Total was approximately 140 between the two bridges.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. The breakdown between the two bridges I don't recall at this
16 time.

17 Q. But both bridges are approximately 140?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And then the wash is what?

20 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat the question?

21 Q. The wash, the number of people --

22 A. Uh --

23 Q. -- in the wash. I apologize.

24 A. -- 270.

25 Q. 270.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And then you had testified about all these
3 individuals, the officers in this little bubble area; correct?

4 A. Ye- -- yes.

5 Q. And I think -- was it 29?

6 A. 29 at this time, yes.

7 Q. Okay. And is that the largest number of officers in that
8 area?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. 'Cuz at some point in time, there was a call made by 11 someone to go down to this general vicinity; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And more officers went there.

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. I'm gonna switch over to Exhibit 210 for the record.

16 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Okay. Now, this is your measurement photo. But it's a good
19 shot of the overview of the wash and the staging/parking area,
20 whatever you want to call it; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. So, now, when you were doing your estimations of the 23 number of people in the wash versus the number of people behind
24 the gate -- or officers behind the gate, did you take into 25 account any of the officers on the northbound bridge (drawing),

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 for example?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. Were there any officers (drawing), based on your
4 investigation, on the southbound bridge?

5 A. Standing or . . .

6 Q. Well, just on there. I mean, I know it's a fluid situation;
7 they are moving.

8 A. At what -- at what point in time? In this frame or . . .

9 Q. Well, given the -- what time did you do your estimations of 10 the wash individuals versus officer individuals at? What time
11 was that based upon?

12 A. So you had mentioned the Trey Schillie photographs.

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. So approximately 12:00 p.m. and then approximately 12:20
15 p.m. So, when the line formed and then when the line moved up,
16 we used his photos and zoomed in; we blew up the photos and 17 counted the people. So that's what we used for the people in 18 the wash. The people on the bridge, we -- we used similar 19 shots to this and the aerial photography for that.

20 Q. Okay. So, if I'm accurate, it would have been -- 12:20 was 21 the time that you used?

22 A. Again, that is one of the two times that we used. Again,
23 for -- approximately for his -- Trey Schillie's photographs for 24 when the people formed a line and then when the people moved
25 up.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. So you used 12:00 p.m. and 12:20 p.m.?

2 A. Correct. All we have to go on are photographs.

3 Q. Sure.

4 A. So, when people are standing in a -- in a line all bunched
5 together, it's harder to count some -- you know, certain people
6 than when they spread -- they spread out and began to move to 7 the gate. So we used different photographs to tally up that 8 total of people.

9 Q. So the numbers that you had given me were 140 on the 10 bridges; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Did those change between 12:00 and 12:20?

13 A. I'm sure that they did --

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. -- yes.

16 Q. So the 140 number you gave me, is that from 12:00 or 12:20?

17 A. I -- I -- I don't recall the exact time where we end --
18 where we determined that number. That was the highest number
19 of people based on the photo and video review that we did that 20 we could count on those bridges. And then same thing for the 21 wash --

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. -- with the clearest photographs and video that we could
24 review -- that I --

25 Q. Right --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. -- can review.

2 Q. 'Cuz you're not there; correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. You don't have the checklist on how many people are there.

5 A. That is correct.

6 Q. Okay. So you're just doin' the best that you can.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now -- so did you count any officers on the southbound
9 bridge at 12:00 or 12:20 for that matter?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. Did you count any of these (drawing) officers -- I
12 don't know. I guess you'd call it halfway on the bridge or the 13 road down to the wash -- did you count any of those 14 individuals?

15 A. No. Our people count was focused on where the standoff was 16 happening. So that would have been the wash and the bridges.

17 Q. Okay. So, based upon that, no one at Post 1; correct?

18 A. Do -- do I have an estimate of the people? Yes. Do I have 19 the exact number? No.

20 Q. But you didn't count it in your 29 people is what I'm
21 saying.

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Okay. And then at some point in time, probably around
24 12:20, there were (drawing) a number of Metro officers in this
25 particular area, the third circle that I've shown --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- correct? Okay.

3 Now, it's not depicted in this particular map -- but
4 I'll draw an arrow (drawing) -- the ICP would be somewhere back
5 here; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Do you know the distance by any chance?

8 A. To the ICP, I don't -- I don't recall, no.

9 Q. Okay. That wasn't something that you were overly interested
10 in; you were mainly looking at the bridges and the wash. That 11 was your focus; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. So fair to say you didn't count any of the 14 individuals at the ICP; correct?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. Okay. Didn't count any individuals -- you saw some aerial
17 footage; correct?

18 A. A count of what?

19 Q. In your --

20 A. In the ICP?

21 Q. -- in your count of the 29 people, that wasn't part of your 22 29 count; correct?

23 A. The people in the ICP?

24 Q. No. The aerial -- anyone flying a plane or --

25 A. Oh, no --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. -- along --

2 A. -- no.

3 Q. -- those lines.

4 A. Did I count the pilots?

5 Q. Correct.

6 A. No.

7 Q. Now, on direct examination, we were shown a video of 8 Mr. Todd Engel; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. He referenced possible gun battles or somethin' along those 11 lines; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Through the course and scope of your investigation, to your 14 knowledge, when Eric Parker was arrested, there was no gun
15 battle; correct?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. Okay. Now, I want to bring ya back to -- this is
18 Exhibit 210.

19 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Now, first off -- and I know ya answered this. I
22 apologize -- the 170 yards --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- that is taken from the front of the northbound bridge to
25 where?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. So I used the laser range finder and I pointed it at that
2 tree that is there in the middle of the wash. And I used the
3 laser range finder -- it -- it has a scan mode -- and I went 4 all the way around that and determined that to the best of the 5 laser range finder's accuracy that to the front of that tree is 6 170 yards.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. And -- and, again, it would have been the ground, not the 9 tree. The laser range finder does not work well off of a -- a
10 bush or a tree. It needs more of a reflective or solid
11 surface.

12 Q. Okay. So it needs a fixed object. Is it fair to say?

13 A. Well, a tree is a fixed object. It would just need
14 something more solid and not -- you know, a leafy- or 15 foliage-bearing object. It would -- you -- you would need a
16 solid object to use that laser range finder to get a good
17 reading.

18 Q. So would I be accurate in saying that -- let's say you were 19 using your laser range finder to measure the distance from you
20 to I. Would it be easier to use this podium as opposed to just 21 a spot on the floor? Is that accurate?

22 A. It depends on the distance. So, as the distance gets 23 further, a more reflective object or solid object will actually 24 give you a -- a more accurate reading so . . . But we are 25 solid. And depending on, again, the distance, it might be the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 same exact reading. But, if you were a thousand yards away and
2 I had a choice to use a laser range finder on you or a vehicle
3 that's reflective, I would use the vehicle if I had to choose;
4 if I had the choice.

5 Q. So, if I was just wearing a solid suite with a black shirt
6 and black tie --

7 A. That wouldn't --

8 Q. -- it would be --

9 A. -- affect it.

10 Q. -- difficult to pick me up.

11 A. That would not affect it.

12 Q. Or, if we took the example of Trooper Madsen and 13 Trooper Serena, it would be a easier to find them because they 14 have that reflective vest on; correct?

15 A. I -- I don't -- no, I don't think that that would make a
16 difference.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. The color of their vests I don't think would make a
19 difference.

20 Q. All right. Now, getting back to this.

21 So this was -- you said you focused on this bush
22 (drawing).

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So this would be -- I think we had some testimony that this 25 is generally -- it's kind of fuzzy there -- but this is

-2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017-

1 generally the area in which Special Agent Swanson was? Is
2 that --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- is that accurate?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And then obviously his pickup truck or the pickup truck that 7 he was at would be behind that particular bush; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Now, we also had your measurements in reference to --
10 okay. This 122 yards. Now, obviously -- well, not 11 obviously -- you'd agree with me (drawing) this is the 12 northbound lane; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. So you've measured 122 yards. Explain that further.

15 A. That would be from the middle of the bridge down and into 16 the middle of the wash at approximately where the cattle gate
17 had spanned the wash on April 12th, 2014.

18 Q. Okay. And, when you say "the middle of the bridge," you
19 mean the middle of the northbound bridge; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. So you're -- when you're --

22 A. And -- and I'm sorry. Standing on the north side but in the 23 middle of the span of the bridge that goes across the wash.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Just to clarify. I wasn't standing in the middle of the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 road.

2 Q. Okay. So --

3 A. I was standing --

4 Q. -- well, the --

5 A. -- against --

6 COURT REPORTER: One at a time.

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. So more the shoulder?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And --

11 A. I apologize.

12 Q. -- to use Mr. Parker as a reference, we've seen the pictures
13 of him proned out and his -- I don't know -- his knees or 14 something are on that yellow line; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So, if you were standing in that area, you'd be somewhere
17 around Mr. Parker's torso somewhere?

18 A. I would have been where Mr. Drexler was in the prone
19 position.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. I was -- so where Mr. Drexler was with his rifle pointed 22 between the gap and the Jersey barrier, that's where I took 23 that measurement from --

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. -- not Mr. Parker's pillar gap.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Right. Okay. So from Mr. Drexler's position.

2 But how far was Mr. Drexler from Mr. Parker when both
3 individuals were prone if you know?

4 A. I could -- I could approximate. 30 feet.

5 Q. Okay. You didn't -- I know you went up there and you took 6 measurements and we'll get to that. You didn't measure from 7 Jersey barrier to Jersey barrier; correct?

8 A. I measured from Jersey barrier to Jersey barrier across the 9 road, I did not measure gap to gap.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you had mentioned that this was at -- this 122
11 yards was at somewhat of a downward trajectory?

12 A. Correct. I'm standing on the bridge and pointing it down --

13 Q. Sure.

14 A. -- underneath the southbound bridge.

15 Q. All right. Now -- and you also said that you went to the --
16 you measured up to the gate; correct?

17 A. From that point --

18 Q. Yeah.

19 A. -- to the gate.

20 Q. Where the makeshift gate would have been; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. When did you do your measurements if you remember?

23 A. Twice. There was two times when either myself or -- I also 24 went out there with another agent at different times -- I've 25 been out there a number of times. But some of these

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 measurements were only a month ago -- a month or so ago and
2 then -- well, actually -- actually no. I apologize. It was
3 only a couple weeks ago, a couple of these measurements. But 4 we also went out there a year and a half ago and took some
5 measurements as well.

6 Q. Okay. Are the measurements that you have on these 7 particular exhibits are they from the one that you did a couple
8 weeks ago or the one you did further in time? I think a year
9 and a half or whatever it was.

10 A. Both. I took a lot of the same measurements just to -- I --
11 we had two laser range finders -- used one the first time, used
12 another one the second time -- just to make sure that we had 13 all the measurements correct with each time that we went out
14 there.

15 Q. Did you use the same range finder?

16 A. No. This was another range finder that we used here.

17 Q. Okay. Did you get the same measurements both times you went 18 out?

19 A. Yes.

20 (Slide displayed in open court.)

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Now, this was just when you measured across. And I believe
23 Mr. Perez and both Mr. Myhre went over this with you. It's 44
24 feet across the northbound bridge; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. And then 45 feet -- and I'm imagining that's from the bottom
2 of the northbound bridge to the dirt; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Where are you measuring from the bottom of the northbound
5 bridge? Is it from the very bottom? Is it from the top of the 6 Jersey barrier? Where?

7 A. From -- from the very bottom. So standing underneath the 8 bridge going from ground level to where the bridge starts
9 underneath.

10 Q. Okay. So obviously we've had a lot of testimony about these 11 Jersey barrier cracks; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You'd agree with me that the Jersey barrier crack would be 14 higher than 45 feet; correct?

15 A. Ye- -- yes. It would just be . . .

16 Q. Whatever that distance is.

17 A. Right. A foot or two possibly.

18 Q. Okay. And then the southbound bridge, that's 52 feet;
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So is that a higher elevation than the northbound bridge?

22 A. Yes, at that -- at that point, from the middle of the
23 wash --

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. -- to the bottom of the bridges.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 Q. The wash itself is it -- when you go from (drawing) the --
2 under the northbound bridge to under the southbound bridge,
3 which isn't necessarily (drawing) depicted in this screenshot,
4 is it pretty much level? Or is it higher at one point or . . .

5 A. That is -- that -- that terrain fluctuates greatly in its 6 elevation and it goes from rock to gravel to, like, quicksand,
7 you know, very fine sand. That would be very difficult to
8 tell.

9 Q. Okay. And, obviously, it's about 3 years' difference now;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And they call this the wash because it's washed out for lack 13 of a better term; right?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. So has the terrain changed in the last 3 years to your
16 knowledge?

17 A. It -- it did not -- if it did change, it did not appear to 18 be a drastic change. My review of the photo and video evidence
19 from April 12th, 2014, does not reveal to me when I go out
20 there -- and, like I said, I walked out there essentially with 21 these photographs and comparing the area -- there does not
22 appear to be a significant change.

23 Q. Okay. Well, I think -- were there any bushes that were 24 different or trees?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. And how about erosion, particularly on this what used
2 to be or I guess is still somewhat of a road leading through
3 (drawing)? Was there any erosion?

4 A. Nothing significant that I could see.

5 Q. Now, in reference to this 122-yard measurement, as you're
6 aware, there was this makeshift gate on April 12th, 2014;
7 correct?

8 A. There -- there was a gate, yes.

9 Q. Yeah.

10 And then behind that gate at, say -- I don't know --
11 12:40 -- we'll just pick a time -- at 12:40, there were three 12 BLM trucks; correct?

13 A. At -- at 12:40, they had moved back --

14 Q. Okay. Let's say --

15 A. -- or they were moving back.

16 Q. At 12:30, let's say.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. There were three BLM trucks.

19 What was the distance, to your knowledge, of those 20 trucks behind the gate?

21 A. 130 yards.

22 Q. And did you measure that?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. Okay. And how did you measure that? With a range finder
25 or --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes. As -- as I stated, I compared the images. I stood
2 where the trucks would have been parked and I used the laser
3 range finder to the northbound I-15 bridge.

4 Q. Okay. And one last question on measurements.

5 (Slide displayed in open court.)

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Okay. So we're back to slide 1.

8 Now, you've obviously measured across north- to 9 southbound bridges; correct (drawing)?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you obviously measured from -- I don't know -- parking
12 lot staging area (drawing) down to the foot of the wash, this 13 45 yards; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did you ever do any measurements of this particular area
16 which I'm circling with the -- little bit halfway or so down
17 the wash road?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. All right.

20 MR. MARCHESE: And if we can switch over to Brian. And 21 we can start with Exhibit 209, please.

22 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay. So this was a picture that you took; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. And what's the date you took this, if you know? Was this
2 about a few weeks ago?

3 A. No. This would have been months ago. Again, I've been out
4 there several times. This . . . Yeah, I -- I guess a couple
5 of months ago; a few months ago.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Okay. This was not weeks ago.

8 Q. All right. Say March-ish, give or take. I'm not gonna hold
9 you to it.

10 A. Yes. I don't recall off the top of my head.

11 Q. Okay. Looks like it's a nice day out; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Probably approximately noon given the shadows. Is that fair
14 to say?

15 A. Sometime mid-morning.

16 Q. Okay. Now, this was the makeshift road that we just talked
17 about. That's where I put the -- the squiggly line; correct?

18 A. Yeah, that's the --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- asphalt road.

21 Q. Right.

22 And it's your testimony that this has not significantly
23 eroded in the last 3 years; correct?

24 A. Again, not that I could tell.

25 Q. Okay. Now -- and this was the very fine sand (drawing)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 which you had referenced as well; right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And you took this photo, I believe, is because this 4 is the general vicinity in which the three trucks that we just
5 referenced were parked; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you can focus in on the 8 northbound bridge, please.

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Okay. Now -- thank you -- now, this is (drawing) the Jersey
11 barrier in which Mr. Parker was at on the date in question;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And that's one of the reasons that you took this 15 particular photo; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. You wanted to try to show the vantage point from behind the 18 gate; right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, is this (drawing) a Jersey barrier as well, a crack?

21 A. The crack would have been in the Jersey barrier. So just 22 above that.

23 Q. Okay. Right. And so that's an opening right there;
24 correct?

25 A. It's -- it's -- I'm sorry. I -- I didn't hear the question.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 Q. Is this an opening where I'm circling?

2 A. No, that is not an opening.

3 Q. Okay. Is this an opening (drawing)?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. Okay. And then --

6 A. I'm -- I'm sorry. I'm -- I'm trying to look at it there.

7 The -- your second circle, that is an opening.

8 Q. Let me --

9 A. All -- all the circles you circled are all openings.

10 Q. Okay. Let me do this so --

11 A. I need a --

12 Q. -- we're not confusing everyone.

13 A. Sure.

14 Q. That's why -- why don't you just circle the openings.

15 A. Sure okay.

16 Q. That you see; that you're aware of.

17 A. Okay. (Drawing.)

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. That are in that shot.

20 Q. Of course.

21 Okay. So, for the record, we have five openings and 22 the one which you have indicated Mr. Parker is at (drawing) is 23 this one right above the pillar there.

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we could move to 208,
2 please.

3 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Okay. Now, this is a photo which you took from the top of 6 the embankment; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So the area that I'm X'ing right here, you're on the 9 other -- you're basically on that embankment except on the 10 other side.

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. All right. And, in this particular photo, this is -- and 13 we'll get to it -- that is that broomstick (drawing) that you
14 took and you placed through the crack; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. How -- what's the size of that broomstick?

17 A. The diameter?

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. It's just under an inch.

20 Q. Okay. And you put that as a demonstrative exhibit to just 21 help aid the photo; correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. All right. And it appears that it's pointed in somewhat of 24 an upward trajectory in this particular photo?

25 A. Yes. I've laid it in the gap, yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Now, in reference -- you can't really see that gap 'cuz
2 obviously it's a little bit further down. But would you agree
3 with me that this gap, for example, (drawing) is very similar
4 to the one that I just X'd on, to the one that you placed the 5 broomstick through?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, in reference to this crack, I wrote down that
8 you had indicated that it's approximately 1.5 to 2 inches
9 depending on where. Is that accurate?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And, when we say "1.5 to 2 inches," I would imagine that is 12 the width of it?

13 A. Of the gap?

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Now, where is the 1.5?

17 A. Well, it -- again, it depends on where you are in the gap.
18 But as it comes down -- so where my broom is actually
19 resting -- at the bottom there it was more difficult to move
20 the broom side to side. So I -- from my pictures, I had to lay
21 it there. If I was able to hold the broom up a couple of 22 inches, it would have had a lot more play and I would have been 23 able to move it side to side more.

24 Q. Okay. So, based upon that, would I be accurate in stating
25 that the higher you are on the Jersey barrier -- so let's say

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 up here (drawing) -- it would be easier to maneuver; correct?

2 A. Again, just getting out of that -- that bottom inch to two
3 inches in that gap, it -- it would be pretty consistent going
4 up from there. So yes.

5 Q. So, when you say "the bottom 2 inches," so maybe from here
6 up (drawing). Is that accurate?

7 A. Well, it -- the Jersey barrier does get thicker at the top.
8 So you're -- the most man- -- maneuverability you would have --
9 well, and -- and this gap it would be here to there (drawing).

10 Q. Okay. So the bottom of the gap is the thinnest; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. That's approximately 1.5 inches --

13 A. Uh, yes.

14 Q. -- correct?

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. And then, from the two lines that you have drawn where the 17 bottom one is maybe an inch or two up and then extending to 18 where the Jersey barrier gets thicker --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- that's a little bit easier to maneuver; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. MARCHESE: And, Aaron, if I can go back to 24 Exhibit 182 on my computer. And, for the record, this would be
25 number 45.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. All right. This is 45 taken at 12:22 on your slideshow.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. So this is a picture of (drawing) the crack in 6 the Jersey barrier; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. It's our belief that Mr. Parker is in the prone position at 9 this juncture; correct?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And we know that because the general vicinity is that he's 12 over this pillar; right (drawing)?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that these individuals (drawing) -- I believe one of 15 them is Mr. Schillie, another one from the Citizens Action
16 Network, and then we got Mr. Urquhart -- they've taken his 17 photo at various points in time in this general vicinity,
18 correct --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- in the prone position?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. In this particular photo, it's -- where is this taken from?
23 This a video under the southbound bridge?

24 A. This would have been a -- so taken from the embankment on
25 the southbound bridge.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. So basically where you just took the last shots on
2 the northbound bridge --

3 A. Right.

4 Q. -- except on the other side.

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Now, you'd agree with me on this particular
7 screenshot of the video you can't see through that crack;
8 correct?

9 A. Through the gap?

10 Q. Yes.

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Okay. You don't see Mr. Parker's rifle protruding out or 13 anything like that; correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 MR. MARCHESE: We're gonna move up to number 50, five 16 zero.

17 (Slide displayed in open court.)

18 BY MR. MARCHESE:

19 Q. Now -- blow it up just a tad -- and this is -- for the 20 record, it was taken -- oop. I'm sorry -- this was taken at 21 approximately 12:25.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, here is the (drawing) -- the same crack. And 24 it's our belief that -- I blew it up -- but the arrow is 25 actually pointing to Mr. Parker; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes. That would be where Mr. Parker would have been at this
2 time.

3 Q. Okay. So would you agree with me you don't see his black
4 hat; correct?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. No white insignia; correct?

7 A. That is true.

8 Q. And you can't see any rifle; correct?

9 A. No, I cannot.

10 Q. All right. Now, on this particular photo, is this the one
11 that it was our belief that it was from Mr. Swanson or 12 Mr. Neyavos's (ph) position?

13 A. So I believe Mr. Swanson or Mr. Cox testified to this. But 14 this was -- this photo was taken by Salvatore Nieblas.

15 Q. Okay. And, just to be clear, Mr. Swanson's position in 16 reference to this particular photo, based on your 17 investigation, is that he is behind this photo; correct?

18 A. It would have been behind and to the right.

19 Q. Okay. And that would be -- I think at some point in time
20 you even stated that you used a range finder on that bush that 21 was in front of him --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- correct? Okay.

24 And that he was a little bit behind that.

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, if we can move to Exhibit 207,
2 please.

3 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. All right. Now, this is one of those photos of the 6 northbound bridge; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And this is the other side of that broomstick that we saw in
9 Exhibit 208; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now, obviously, you can't see through the road so you can't 12 see the pillar. But is this the crack that you believe that 13 Mr. Parker was at?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So this is a photo taken from across the street;
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. MARCHESE: And if we could move to Exhibit 206.

19 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. All right. Just a closer -- wait for it to get up -- and 22 this is a closer view of that particular crack; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you take any other photos of this crack? Is 205 of that 25 crack as well, Exhibit 205? I can get it up --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. I --

2 Q. -- for you.

3 A. -- I don't know off the top of my head. I believe so, yeah.

4 Q. All right. Did you take a photo without the broomstick in 5 the crack?

6 A. Ye- -- yes, yes. I just don't know the exhibit number.

7 Q. Right. And I'm sorry. I'll get it. Let's --

8 MR. MARCHESE: Can we go to Exhibit 205, Brian?

9 THE WITNESS: It's either . . .

10 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. Okay. And this would be that other photo? Is that 13 accurate?

14 A. Ye- -- yes.

15 Q. Okay. 'Cuz I get a little confused with Mr. Parker's and 16 Mr. Drexler's Jersey barriers. So this is also that same crack
17 without the broomstick; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And where are you when you take this photo?

20 A. I'm across the -- the road on the shoulder on the south side
21 of the I-15 --

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. -- bridge.

24 Q. So you would be somewhere in this line (drawing), obviously 25 on the other side of the street?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Because I believe you said there's a fair bit of
3 traffic that day and obviously you don't want to injure
4 yourself doing your job.

5 A. That's correct.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Now, if we can go back to number 206,
7 please.

8 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Now, you used this for demonstrative purposes, this 11 broomstick, because obviously there's -- trying to show the 12 broomstick versus the rifle; correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Okay. And you laid this broomstick down; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So this would be (drawing) at an upward trajectory; correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Did you ever -- you can't really see it from here. But 19 obviously the crack in the Jersey barrier starts right about 20 here (drawing); correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I mean, give or take. You can't see it because the 23 broomstick is in front of it. But it's somewhere in that 24 general vicinity; right?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Did you ever measure the distance from the start of the
2 crack of the Jersey barrier to the end of the crack of the
3 Jersey barrier?

4 A. Go- -- going through this (gesturing) this way --

5 Q. Correct.

6 A. -- straight? No, I did not.

7 Q. Okay. So this particular broom, it's actually -- would you
8 agree with me it's at somewhat of an angle in reference to the
9 Jersey barrier?

10 A. Can you repeat that question, please?

11 Q. Is this at somewhat of an angle in reference to the Jersey
12 barrier? It's not --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- put in at a 90-degree angle; right?

15 A. That -- that is correct. It's not straight through. I -- I
16 put it straight through and then turned it to where the BLM
17 vehicles would have been parked on April 12th.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 195,
20 please.

21 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Okay. Now, this is one of many pictures that we've seen of 24 Mr. Parker in this general position you'd agree with; right?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. When he went prone, for the most part, he was always in a
2 position similar to this; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. The only variable is he may be -- I think at one point he
5 had a backpack; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And at one point in time his hat's turned backwards; right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Now, I don't know. How far would you say Mr. Parker's
10 (drawing) eyes are from the asphalt?

11 A. A foot.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. 1 foot.

14 Q. So there's that.

15 And then approximately how far would you say
16 Mr. Parker's eyes are from the back or the front, depending on 17 how you look at it, of the Jersey barrier?

18 A. About a foot and a half.

19 Q. Okay. You'd agree that his rifle is pretty much straight?
20 If it is -- if it's off, it's very small amount. Correct?

21 A. When you say "straight," you mean --

22 Q. -- horizontal --

23 A. -- level?

24 Q. -- horizontal to the ground.

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Isn't it true you never took a photo from this
2 vantage point, approximately a foot and a half back and a foot
3 off the ground facing directly through the Jersey barrier?

4 A. Um, I -- I don't recall taking that photo specifically from 5 that distance.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. The --

8 Q. Well, there's no photo of it; correct?

9 A. Not -- not that I'm -- not that I have.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you.

11 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions. I appreciate your
12 time.

13 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 Q. Good morning.

19 A. Good morning.

20 Q. How are you today?

21 A. Good. How are you?

22 Q. Good.

23 My name is Todd Leventhal. You've been here the whole
24 time so you know who I am.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, could we pull up 182-8, please.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. Now, you testified on direct examination regarding 4 this screenshot regarding the 11:01; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. You have a -- now, were you the one that put, prior
7 to coming to court today, these yellow squares with the names?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And you did that based upon your investigation
10 throughout this?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And your investigation throughout this was very 13 thorough. You reviewed a lot of Facebook and a lot of 14 different telephone numbers and pictures and videos; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And so that's Ryan Payne; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And Ryan Payne, as you know at the time on -- and, again,
19 this is gonna be on the 12th of April 2014; right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And this is at the -- what they called the -- sort of 22 the rally area?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And I believe you indicated it was about 5 miles away
25 from the wash.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. And so at the rally area, Ryan Payne -- and you knew
3 Ryan Payne to be who? The -- he founded what -- he wrote OMA
4 or something like that?

5 A. Yeah. He's one of cofounders of Operation Mutual Aid.

6 Q. Okay. All right. And, now, he's speaking to somebody here
7 that you have indicated is a Ryan Bundy or Ryan Bundy's at 8 least in that picture; correct?

9 A. No. He was speaking to the gentleman with the rifle that is 10 standing off the stage. Ryan Bundy is just in the background.

11 Q. Okay. You put a little yellow square, or whatever that is,
12 above Ryan Bundy; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. You weren't able to -- or were you able to identify 15 this person (drawing) that he's speaking to?

16 A. Yes, I know who that person is.

17 Q. You do. Okay.

18 But you didn't put a little yellow -- you didn't
19 indicate who that was; correct?

20 A. Not for this timeline. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. And this person here, that you (drawing) decided not 22 to indicate who he was, he is wearing camouflage; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He's got a gun here (drawing) --

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. -- correct? Okay.

2 And another weapon here (drawing); correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And Ryan Payne, he's got a weapon here (drawing);
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, Ryan is on a stage. Is that true?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And he's leaning down on the stage that we saw earlier?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And there was a number of gentlemen in front of the 12 stage that (drawing) would look like -- or dress like this
13 individual; correct?

14 A. In front of the stage, yes.

15 Q. Okay. And they all sorta had that camouflage look; right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. They have patches on the hats?

18 A. Yes. (Drawing.)

19 Q. And patches on (drawing) their shoulder area?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And that would indicate what?

22 A. Well, not all the patches indicate an affiliation with a
23 militia if that's what you're asking. But some of the patches
24 that they are wearing do indicate an association with for 25 example, the Arizona State Militia.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Arizona State Militia. There were other militias, I
2 guess, that came in that were there --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- from other states?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. We heard some -- we heard -- and I know you were 7 here -- there was a number of license plates from out of town;
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. So there were a lot of people that came in from out
11 of town; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. For different reasons; right?

14 A. I -- I don't know their reasons.

15 Q. You don't know the reasons. Okay.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to number 9, please.

17 (Slide displayed in open court.)

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. And now, we've got, again, another picture. You've got --
20 now you've indicated this is Dave Bundy; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And, again, we've got Ryan Payne --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- in the middle there?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. And this gentleman that you did not identify;
2 correct?

3 A. I'm sorry. Which person --

4 Q. This gentleman (indicating) --

5 A. -- are you --

6 Q. -- here --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- you had --

9 A. Yeah, I --

10 Q. -- you had not identified. But you know who he is.

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. I don't mean to speak over you. I apologize.

13 Now, in terms of Scott Drexler -- this is the 12th --
14 had you had any indication during your course of your 15 investigation that Mr. Drexler was in communication with either
16 of they people here?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay. No Facebooks; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. No emails; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And no phone calls; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to number 10, please.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. Now, part of your timeline that you've assembled here
4 for this jury is you've put a number of -- I guess these are --
5 are these Facebooks -- and I apologize -- are these Facebook
6 posts?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. These are Facebook posts. And they were assumed to 9 be written on April 12th, 2014 --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- correct? Okay.

12 And the 18:05 UTC time -- well, I'm not gonna get into 13 all that -- but that's about what time?

14 A. That would be 11:05 --

15 Q. 11 --

16 A. -- a.m. --

17 Q. -- 05 --

18 A. Local time.

19 Q. -- Nevada time. Local time.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Local time. Okay.

22 And that's from a gentleman named Todd Engel.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, again, if we can go to number 11.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 (Slide displayed in open court.)

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Same: Todd Engel, Facebook?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Number 13.

6 (Slide displayed in open court.)

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Again, Todd Engel, Facebook?

9 A. This is Eric Parker.

10 Q. This is Eric Parker's Facebook?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: And number 15.

14 (Slide displayed in open court.)

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. And that is Todd Engel.

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Okay. And Todd Engel -- had you had -- during your course
19 of your investigation, did you know whether Mr. Drexler was in 20 communication with Todd Engel?

21 A. No.

22 Q. I'm sorry?

23 A. No. That is --

24 Q. Okay --

25 A. -- that is correct.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. No Facebook?

2 A. No.

3 Q. They were not friends on Facebook?

4 A. Not that I can recall.

5 Q. Okay. Emails? Anything like that?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to number 40, please.

9 (Slide displayed in open court.)

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Okay. This would be the southbound bridge; is that correct
12 (drawing)?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And it's just above the (drawing) BLM/officers, correct,
15 there?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. The law enforcement officers?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. The northbound bridge would be 120 -- I believe you
20 said 120 yards approximately to this (drawing) line right
21 there?

22 A. Aiming down with my laser range finder, 130 yards.

23 Q. 130 yards to that line (drawing) right there?

24 A. Yes, from the northbound bridge.

25 Q. Okay. What is the yards from that (drawing) line there to

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 the end of the southbound bridge?

2 A. Approximately 8 yards.

3 Q. 8 yards?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. So the southbound bridge is obviously much closer to 6 the officers than the northbound bridge?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. By quite a distance?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could go to -- you were 12 asked about video number 44a. Could we go to it and play it
13 for -- to 6 seconds, please, Brian.

14 (Video played.)

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. That's it.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. So, again, going back to my questions, this is (drawing) who 18 I'm circling. Who is that?

19 A. Ammon Bundy.

20 Q. Any connection with Mr. Drexler, communications with 21 Mr. Ammon Bundy?

22 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, compound. Are we 23 talking any communications or any contacts? I'm . . .

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize. I'll break it down.

2 Q. Did you -- during your course of your investigation, did you

4 Bundy?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Was he on Facebook with Mr. Ammon Bundy?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was he friends with Mr. Ammon Bundy on Facebook?

9 A. Not that I can recall.

10 Q. Did you go through Mr. Drexler's phone conversations or any 11 conversations that he would have had communicating with 12 Mr. Bundy in any way?

13 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, objection as to time
14 frame.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Time frame.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Prior to the 12th, 2014.

18 A. I -- I did not have access to any of their phone call

20 to show that Mr. Drexler was in communication with Ammon.

21 Q. With Mr. Bundy. Okay.

22 A. With Mr. Bundy.

23 Q. Okay. So no records indicated there was any connection

25 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Again, "any

2 sure what that means. But . . .

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, if the -- I appreciate that. But
4 if --

5 THE COURT: You mean -- do you mean even through
6 another person? Or do you mean directly?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Directly.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Did he have --

10 THE COURT: Then ask --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- any proof directly -- okay.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Did you have any proof directly that Mr. Bundy and

21 argumentative --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm asking --

23 MR. MYHRE: -- and vague.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I apologize.

25 I'm asking for his investigation. I don't think that's

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 argumentative. I'm not arguing with him. If he didn't have
2 any, he didn't have any communication.

3 THE COURT: Well, I think you said do you have any 4 indication.

5 MR. MYHRE: He -- basically it's the word "anything."
6 It's vague for -- can be specific as to any information that he
7 obtained about specific information.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll do it his way.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Sir, did you have any --

11 THE COURT: It's not that it's his way. That's the 12 proper --

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well --

14 THE COURT: -- form of the question.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- I thought I did that. But . . .

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Sir, did you have any -- did you have any -- during your

6 THE COURT: Just ask him if he saw in his review any

8 Mr. Drexler.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Did you see or -- did you see during your course of your

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay. During your course of investigation, were you able to

3 12th of April?

4 A. I -- I believe -- I believe so, yes.

5 Q. Did you review those?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you also during your course of your investigation review
8 and receive Mr. Bundy's telephone calls on his cellular?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. As you sit here today, was there any phone calls between 11 Mr. Bundy and Mr. Drexler?

12 A. Not that I can recall.

13 Q. How about his wife? She indicated her name's Lisa. Any

16 A. He does have a tattoo of The Three Percenters on his arm,
17 yes.

18 Q. This picture was taken April 12th, 2014; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And it's from a video?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. He doesn't have a tattoo on April 12th, 2014, to 23 indicate that he's part of any militia or movement; correct?

6 Q. Okay. And we saw some pictures of people dressed in camo.

7 Mr. Drexler is dressed in a blue T-shirt; correct (drawing)?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And he's holding a hat (drawing); correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Okay. And that is at 11:31 a.m.; correct?

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Now, on 16 at 11:42 a.m., your timeline indicates that
5 Mr. Drexler was -- that's Mr. Drexler (drawing); correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And you based that on a number of different aerial
8 and -- what exactly did you base that on this? Since we don't 9 see Mr. Drexler's head.

10 A. His -- his clothing, his tactical vest, his hat, his hair;
11 and then also compared to the frontline videos, screenshot of 12 his rifle and -- with him from the neck down also wearing the 13 same items of clothing.

14 Q. Okay. Now, I see that this is (drawing)

17 Q. And there's a number of officers that you've already

23 A. Dave Bundy.

24 Q. Yeah.

25 -- that would have happened, I believe, across from

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Post 1; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So we're at 11:42.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we pull up Government's 210,

6 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

13 Q. Okay. And this is across (drawing) from Post 1; correct?

20 A. Well, over -- yeah, yes.

21 Q. Over four football fields?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Keep going just a little bit.

8 (Video played.)

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Okay. So now, at 11:42, you had Mr. Drexler in this 12 (drawing) sort of area; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And this is from here -- we can't see it yet -- but 15 from here (drawing) traveling to get to the wash, that's that 16 458 yards.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Correct? Okay.

19 So this now is at what time?

20 A. This would be at 11:38 --

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. -- a.m.

23 Q. So this aerial is taken prior to or while Mr. Drexler is in 24 this (drawing) area.

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Correct? Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Okay. We see a number of vehicles over here (drawing).

9 Q. Okay. And, again, Mr. Drexler is still at the -- at 11:42
10 is still at that parking area; right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Which is over four football fields away; correct?

13 A. (No audible response.)

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Okay. Once Mr. Drexler got on the bridge --

7 Q. Okay. So that would have been almost 45 minutes after we

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And now he's sort of kneeling down on a bridge;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And he's got somebody next to him (drawing). Were 14 you able to identify this female here in the tan hat?

15 A. I believe at one point I was. She is the Reuters reporter
16 that was there with Jim Urquhart, who was the photographer to 17 her right.

18 Q. Okay. So --

19 A. I don't recall her name.

20 Q. So this is (drawing) Jim Urquhart you're indicating as I'm 21 circling this person here?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And he's holding what looks like a -- I guess, a
24 long-lensed camera; correct?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 54, which is the next
3 one over.

4 (Slide displayed in open court.)

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Now, 54. Again, this seems to be that same lady (drawing);
7 is that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. She's the reporter --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. -- with the tan hat here (drawing); correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And Jim Urquhart, I believe you indicated is here (drawing).
14 He's kneeling down now?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And looking at something. I don't know what. He's 17 being blocked; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. And it looks like -- is it -- does it look like she's 20 doing some kind of interview or talking or just writing notes
21 or leaning --

22 A. All --

23 Q. -- there?

24 A. -- all of the above --

25 Q. All --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. -- yes.

2 Q. -- of the above.

3 But basically she's out of sight from the BLM officers
4 that are underneath the bridge; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. They wouldn't be able to see what she's doing there; right?

7 A. I -- at this point, I don't think so.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. That's correct.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go back to 50, please.

11 (Slide displayed in open court.)

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Okay. Now, this is at 12:25, at approximately around that 14 time that we just saw where Mr. Drexler was kneeling; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And we also saw that that lady, that female who had 17 the tan hat, the reporter, she was leaning against the 18 bridge -- obviously the concrete on the other side; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now -- and I asked you already. These (drawing)
21 individuals would not have seen or been able to understand what 22 that lady was doing while she was leaning there; correct?

23 A. No. I wouldn't say that.

24 Q. Okay. These individuals here (drawing), they seem to be 25 looking somewhere. Do they look to -- are they looking up at

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 the northbound bridge or are they looking towards the right?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you just go ahead and bring that
3 up.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. These individuals here, they seem to be looking towards the
6 right?

7 A. Yes, and up.

8 Q. To the . . . Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 45, please.

10 (Slide displayed in open court.)

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Now, we talked a little bit about what this female was 13 doing; right? She was sort of (drawing) up and down and had 14 her notes; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. She was --

17 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. I don't believe
18 that was the testimony.

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Okay. She had a piece of paper in her hand?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Did you see her with a pen?

23 A. I -- it appeared that she was writing. So I assume she has 24 a pen or pencil.

25 Q. Did you see her get up and down?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, as to time. What
3 are we talking about in terms of the time frame, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Do you want to set the time frame?

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. While you were watching this between, let's say, 12:15 and
7 12:45, did you see her get up and down in a number of different
8 pictures and videos?

9 A. I believe so. But my review of the photo and video evidence
10 focused on the people on the bridge with the guns --

11 Q. I --

12 A. -- and not --

13 Q. -- understand.

14 A. -- not the reporter with the --

15 Q. I understand --

16 A. -- paper and the pencil.

17 Q. I understand.

18 But also, when you were focused on people with guns,
19 you were also focused on everybody because you wanted any
20 evidence you could gather; correct?

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, argumentative.

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Were you only focused on people with the guns?

24 A. My primary focus, yes.

25 Q. Right.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 But you were able to discern or at least identify
2 (drawing) this person here that I've circled?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. This person here (drawing)?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. How about this person here (drawing)? Were you able to 7 identify him?

8 MR. MYHRE: Objection to the relevance, Your Honor.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, he's indicated --

10 MR. MYHRE: This case --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- he's only --

12 MR. MYHRE: -- is not about the cameraman.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- he's only focused --

14 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, it's not relevant.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: What is not relevant?

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Were you able to identify other people, other than people
18 with the guns, on the bridge?

19 MR. MYHRE: Same objection, Your Honor, relevance.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. Would you agree that there's a number of people here that 23 have cameras that seem to be pointing in one direction?

24 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, relevance and
25 argumentative.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we can go to 64, please.

3 (Slide displayed in open court.)

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. So you indicated that -- down here -- that Mr. Drexler went 6 prone at 12:38?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 65, please.

10 (Slide displayed in open court.)

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Okay. This is your next slide at 12 --

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go up a little bit, please, Brian --

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. -- 12:39?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And this picture shows a big tree (drawing) in front
18 of, I guess, some (drawing) agents back there behind there;
19 correct?

20 A. It's a tree or a bush. But, yes, it's large. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And I think you indicated on direct that these people
22 were backing up.

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we go to 29a, please, Bryan.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Now, before he pulls that up, you actually got that still
3 from video 29a; correct? That would be the Shilakis video?

4 A. Which slide was that, just so I could verify?

5 Q. 65.

6 A. 29, yes. It might have been clipped at --

7 (Video started/stopped.)

8 THE WITNESS: -- 29a.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. What's that?

11 A. It was Exhibit 29.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we pull 29a.

14 (Video played.)

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there. Stop right there.

16 Okay.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. So Shilakis is indicating it's 12:39 I think you said?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And the BLM agents (drawing) over here, they are 21 backing up; correct?

22 A. I don't know if that vehicle in this shot is backing up yet.
23 But the vehicle behind that is in the process. It's -- it's in 24 reverse; it's backing up.

25 Q. Okay. This gentleman right here looks like he's with

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Metropolitan Police Department --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- correct? Okay.

4 He's actually going forward; correct (drawing)?

5 A. That's correct.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go ahead, Brian.

7 (Video played.)

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Okay. Now, this looks like the tree that you took the still 11 from?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And this vehicle is backing up; correct (drawing)?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Shilakis indicates, "We just need to give them some space in 16 hopes they disburse." Is that what we heard?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Keep going, Brian.

20 (Video started/stopped.)

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, objection. I don't believe the 22 Government admitted the audio to this video section into 23 evidence. Just the images.

24 THE COURT: Just play the images without the audio,
25 please.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's fine.

2 Can you turn it down, please, Brian.

3 (Video played.)

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Okay. Now, here's the gate that keeps the protestors on one
7 side and, I guess, the BLM on the other, correct, underneath
8 the southbound bridge?

9 A. That's not what that gate was there for, but it was used --
10 well, at this point, it was separating people underneath the 11 southbound bridge from where the BLM was.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead, Brian.

14 (Video played.)

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. This gentleman right here (drawing), he looks like he's 18 walking with his back towards the protestors; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead, Brian.

22 (Video played.)

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. Okay. Now, this vehicle backed up (drawing); correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. It had backed up, yes.

2 Q. And, now, it's sort of backing out and it's gonna go
3 forward, correct --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- as you keep watching? Okay.

6 And this BLM officer (drawing), he just sort of walked
7 back; correct?

8 A. It's a Park Service officer. And, yes, he walked back.

9 Q. Okay. Now, these individuals here (drawing) behind this
10 vehicle, they are still in their position; correct?

11 A. I -- there are people next to that vehicle, yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you take that down and bring up
14 182-58, please.

15 (Slide displayed in open court.)

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Okay. If we could clue in on -- just up in this area. If 18 you put that up here real quick (drawing).

19 There's a water bottle up there.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And it seemed like it's a crushed water bottle;
22 correct?

23 A. Somewhat, yes.

24 Q. Okay. Now, Mr. Drexler here, he's got his gun (drawing) and 25 it's sort of resting on the bottom; is that correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. The bottom of that slit, if you will. Right?

3 A. The gap, yes.

4 Q. Yeah.

5 Now, you indicated -- I believe you indicated that it's
6 easier to maneuver as you go upwards; correct (drawing) --

7 A. For a --

8 Q. -- with the broom?

9 A. -- for a portion of that Jersey barrier, yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we go to 199, please, Brian.

12 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if you could just zoom in on this 14 upper portion here.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. So that -- so this bridge -- you took this picture; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And I think you indicated you were not able to get down or 19 get a view as to what the person who was sitting there was 20 doing, correct, that view?

21 A. I was not able to lay down on the road.

22 Q. Right. Okay.

23 And so, if you look at some trajectory, this sort of 24 spins off. It's deceiving; correct? It's not straight. Is 25 that true?

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, as to the
2 characterization, "deceiving."

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Well, tell me something. Does that look like it's going
5 straight? If you were to put a line here, does that marking
6 look like it's going straight (drawing)?

7 A. I'm -- I apologize. I -- I don't understand. If -- if --
8 you're talking about the vantage point from this photograph is 9 that straight through the gap or is the gap slightly on the
10 right?

11 Q. Correct.

12 A. That would be true, yes.

13 Q. It would be true.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So it would be slightly, actually, to the right. So if you
16 would follow that that would be to the right.

17 A. Yeah. The upper portion that you had indicated, yes.

18 Q. Very good.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. I have nothing further.

20 THE COURT: Any redirect?

21 MR. MYHRE: May I have just one moment, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 (Government counsel conferring.)

24 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I apologize. May we have a
25 bathroom break?

1 THE COURT: Yes. Let's go ahead and take a break.

2 During this time, I remind the jury:

3 You are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit
4 anyone to discuss it with you. If you should inadvertently
5 hear anything about the case or anyone attempts to speak to you
6 about the case, remember that you have a duty to let the Court
7 know right away.

8 Also do not read or listen to or view anything that 9 touches upon this case and do not attempt to perform any 10 research or any independent investigation about anything or any 11 issues concerning this case.

12 And please do not form any opinion.

13 We'll go ahead and -- it's 11:08; let's call it 11:10.
14 Be back here by 11:20.

15 All right. Let's go ahead and stand for the jury.
16 They are excused.

17 And, Special Agent Willis, we just need you back here
18 at 11:20, please.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 (Jury out, 11:09 a.m.)

21 THE COURT: Off record.

22 (Recess, 11:09 a.m. Resumed, 11:31 a.m.)

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

25 All right. Can we call the jury back in.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

3 (Jury in, 11:34 a.m.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
5 seated.

6 And everyone else may be seated as well.

7 Mr. Myhre, redirect?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor, briefly.

9 If we could go to 210-2, please.

10 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. Agent Willis, you were asked a number of questions about 14 210-2, which should be up on your monitor now. In reference to 15 a question that Mr. Marchese asked during cross-examination, he 16 asked you the distance from the makeshift gate, which is under 17 the southbound lane -- drawing a line there -- to where the 18 first trucks were, the first -- the three trucks that were sort
19 of the first line. Do you recall that --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- question?

22 And I believe your answer was 130 yards. Was that -- 23 do you -- have you determined the distance between where the 24 cars were located and where the makeshift gate was?

25 A. Yeah. I believe I said 8 yards.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 MR. MYHRE: Just to be clear, so if we could go to
2 182-40.

3 (Slide displayed in open court.)

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. So here's -- in 182-40, there's an image of the three
6 vehicles just north of the southbound lane in the wash;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And the makeshift gate is not visible in this image, but 10 it's underneath the southbound bridge; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. So, just to be clear -- and I believe you discussed this 13 with Mr. Leventhal as well -- we're talking about the distance
14 from here and I'm drawing a line underneath the southbound
15 where the gate would be (drawing). And what is this distance
16 between those two marks?

17 A. Yeah. So, as I was standing there (drawing), I believe the 18 distance would have been approximately 8 yards; could have been 19 10 yards. It -- it's not that very far -- it's not that far.

20 Q. Thank you. Just wanted to --

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. -- clarify that.

23 MR. MYHRE: And you could bring that down. Thank you.
24 If you could bring up 199 again.

25 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. And, just to clarify, Agent Willis, Mr. Leventhal asked you
3 a number of questions about 199 specifically concerning the 4 direction of this broom as it's placed in here; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. From your visit to that site and your placement of this
7 broom, from this gap where is -- what direction is this broom 8 pointed?

9 A. It would have been pointed north.

10 Q. If you could just draw a line in the direction it's pointed.

11 A. (Complies.)

12 Q. And is that the area -- now, the witnesses has drawn a line
13 from the base of the broom handle to an area in the wash under
14 the southbound bridge.

15 And that area generally that you've drawn to, where 16 does that correspond to the placement of the vehicles on April 17 the 12th?

18 A. That is generally the place where the three vehicles would 19 have been parked closest to the cattle gate.

20 Q. Thank you.

21 MR. MYHRE: And clearing 199. You can bring that down.

22 And, Your Honor, just as a housekeeping matter of 23 clarification -- I may just have this wrong on my notes --
24 Mr. Marchese referenced 206, Government Exhibit 206, during 25 Mr. Willis's testimony. I don't believe that was admitted.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 But we'll offer it and I believe there's a stipulation for its
2 admission if it hasn't been.

3 (Government's Exhibit No. 206, offered.)

4 THE COURT: That's correct. 206 was not admitted
5 previously along -- we were sort of jumping around from 202, 6 208 to 204, back and forth. And 206 was not one that was
7 admitted.

8 But is that correct that the defense has no objection
9 to the admission of 206 for demonstrative purposes?

10 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, Your Honor. And I
11 apologize. I overlooked that.

12 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 206 will be admitted
13 for demonstrative purposes.

14 (Government's Exhibit No. 206, received.)

15 MR. MYHRE: No further redirect, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 Any recross?

18 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker, Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

21 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 So, at this time if any member of the jury have a
24 question for Special Agent Willis, please go ahead and write
25 them down on the form provided. Take your time, write neatly.

1 We don't need your name or your jury number or your initials.
2 Go ahead and write down as many questions as you have and be
3 careful not to include any words that we might not be familiar
4 with or go ahead and define them in parentheses if you need to 5 use a word. And try not to use pronouns. Let us know exactly
6 who you're referring to if you can.

7 (Pause in the proceedings.)

8 (Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

9 THE COURT: All right. So we're gonna go ahead and 10 excuse the jury so they can go ahead and get started on their 11 lunch, which I understand has already arrived stay, and then
12 the rest of us can stay and go through the jury questions.

13 So if you'll please stand up for the jury. It's 11:45.
14 We'll welcome them back at 1:00 o'clock.

15 (Jury out, 11:42 a.m.)

16 THE COURT: And, Special Agent Willis, after the jury
17 exits, you're free to also take your lunch break. We just need
18 you back here by 1:00 o'clock.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 (Pause. Jury not present.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Everyone else may be seated.

22 So the first jury question is number 120. It asks,
23 "You indicated that on the slide name were labeled only on the 24 individual that has gun. There are other individuals that have 25 gun also. Why is that not labeled?"

1 Any objection?

2 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

3 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

4 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 Jury Note No. 121 asks, "At the base of the gap, how 7 many degrees would you say the broom could from side to side?"
8 Let me reread that. "At the base of the gap, how many degrees
9 would you say the broom could from side to side?" Might be 10 missing the word --

11 MR. MYHRE: "Move."

12 THE COURT: -- "move." But that seems to be what they 13 are asking is the degrees within the gap that the broom could
14 move.

15 Any objection to that?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

17 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

18 Unless we want to reference a specific exhibit, but . . .

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker doesn't object.

20 THE COURT: So would we reference Exhibit 199?

21 MR. MYHRE: Well, with 199 --

22 THE COURT: Or a different one?

23 MR. MYHRE: -- and 208, I believe, address the gaps
24 for -- related to Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler. 199 was Drexler
25 and 208 was Mr. Parker.

1 MR. MARCHESE: 208? I think it's -- I have it at 206
2 and '7.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 MR. MYHRE: Correct, two 0 -- I'm sorry.

5 THE COURT: 208 is broom through the gap.

6 MR. MYHRE: 208 is the broom, but it's from the other
7 side. 20- --

8 MR. MARCHESE: 206 --

9 MR. MYHRE: -- '7 and 206 are --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, 206 is probably closer to 199 from 11 the vantage point -- or the distance, I should say.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 THE COURT: All right. I have written down 207 is the 14 view of the gap where Parker was prone, the broom was 1 inch
15 around the gap; and then 205 was the gap view of the BLM. So
16 that's a different view.

17 MR. MARCHESE: 207 was the one taken across the street.
18 206 was the one we just admitted; it's a little bit closer up.
19 And 205 is without the broomstick.

20 THE COURT: 208 is the outside.

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 THE COURT: So you want me to reference 208 and 199?

23 MR. MYHRE: 206, Your Honor, and 199.

24 THE COURT: 206 and 199.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Parker agrees.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Then Jury Question 122 is: "May we bring up the last
3 exhibit that Mr. Leventhal asked Agent Willis about the broom?
4 Exhibit 199 - not sure what frame. Mr. Willis testified the 5 upper part of the gap leaned or veered right at the top of the 6 gap. The gap seemed to be more open and not veering to the 7 right near the bottom of it. Is that correct? So one could 8 have a wider view at the bottom of the gap?? Could the 9 broomstick move more freely through the gap at or near the 10 bottom of the gap?"

11 I'm reading it like that because it's not separated out
12 into questions; it's just one run-on paragraph. So, if you
13 want, I could ask it as separate questions or just as one. Or 14 I could ask it the way it's written.

15 (Government counsel conferring.)

16 THE COURT: Any objections?

17 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker. We would ask,
20 though, if Your Honor could break it down.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Let me . . .

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: Okay. And then Jury Question 123, "Will 24 there be an exhibit list index provided to the jury?" I think
25 we can answer that yes. We don't need to ask the witness that.

1 Jury Note No. 124, "What was the reason to have the FBI
2 survey the area?"

3 (Government counsel conferring.)

4 MR. MYHRE: I'm not sure, Your Honor, what the juror
5 means by "survey the area."

6 THE COURT: Right. I think they are referring to the 7 aerial because the second question is, "If the BLM was in 8 charge of the cattle impoundment operation, at what point did
9 the FBI get involved?"

10 (Government counsel conferring.)

11 MR. MYHRE: We would object to the -- well, first of 12 all, it's still kind of vague in terms of "get involved." I'm 13 assuming get involved in the investigation. But it's really
14 not relevant to anything and -- that's at issue in the case.

15 THE COURT: Defense agree? Disagree?

16 MR. TANASI: I think I'd disagree, Your Honor. I think
17 that, you know, the investigation leading up and to the charges
18 I think is relevant to the case. And I think the FBI's the 19 investigating agency. And so, if this juror wants to know when 20 and why the FBI got involved, I think that that's relevant.

21 THE COURT: Why?

22 MR. TANASI: Because what was the purpose for the FBI
23 to first look into the case? What was the crime that they were 24 investigating? What were they first looking into and why were 25 they looking into it? I think the origin of all that is

1 relevant. A police officer's probable cause, a police
2 officer's investigation -- it's -- I think the investigation's
3 relevant.

4 THE COURT: You just keep saying it's relevant, but
5 you're not saying why. So I don't see that it's relevant. So
6 I'm not gonna ask Jury Question No. 124.

7 125 asks, "Government 205 how much lateral (side to 8 side) movement could be made with a barrel?" And then it has
9 "(field of fire.)" So the first question is as to lateral
10 movement and the second question is, "How much vertical 11 movement could be made with the rifle barrel? (Field of 12 fire.)" And then there's a picture. There's a drawing, I 13 should say; not a picture. A drawing that defines "field of 14 fire."

15 (Counsel conferring.)

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, is the juror asking the witness
17 to verify the drawing of the -- or is it just --

18 THE COURT: No. The drawings have numbers. It's just 19 defining "field of fire." So there seems to be two rectangles
20 that are separated by a gap and then from the top of that gap
21 there are dotted lines go out sort of in a "V." And then 22 there's a line that connects the "V" at the top that has the 23 words "field of fire." So it's as if there's a funnel field
24 from the gap that's protruding at an outward angle and that's 25 what they are referring to and they are asking about field of

1 fire.

2 MR. MYHRE: All right.

3 THE COURT: So the first question is, "How much lateral
4 (side to side) movement could be made with a gun barrel?
5 (Field of fire.)" And the second one is, "How much vertical 6 movement could be made with the rifle barrel? (Field of
7 fire.)"

8 Do you have any --

9 MR. MYHRE: No objection from --

10 THE COURT: -- objection --

11 MR. MYHRE: -- the Government.

12 THE COURT: -- to those two?

13 MR. MYHRE: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I didn't mean to 14 speak --

15 THE COURT: That's --

16 MR. MYHRE: -- over you.

17 THE COURT: -- okay.

18 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government.

19 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence.

20 (Defense counsel conferring.)

21 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

22 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

24 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

25 THE COURT: All right. The third question Juror Note

1 125 asks, "Why didn't you take help/support for the range
2 finding experiment - if not, why not?"

3 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

6 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, could you read the first part
8 again. I'm sorry. I didn't hear it all.

9 THE COURT: "Why didn't you take help/support for the 10 range finding experiment - if not, why not?"

11 (Government counsel conferring.)

12 MR. MYHRE: I'm not sure what they mean by 13 "help/support."

14 THE COURT: Neither do I. "Why didn't you take" . . .
15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: Are they asking why didn't he -- why did he 17 go alone? Why didn't he take more people? Is that how you're 18 reading it?

19 MR. TANASI: That's the way I read it.

20 THE COURT: That's one interpretation.

21 MR. TANASI: Right. That's how I read it -- or heard
22 it.

23 MR. MYHRE: I think that's probably interpretation. I
24 don't think we have any objection. But, again, I believe the 25 agent testified he went out there on multiple occasions. So

1 I'm not sure if the Court wants to focus it on any particular
2 occasion or just whether at any point in time he took another
3 individual with him to assist.

4 THE COURT: All right. And then Question 4 on Jury
5 Note 125 asks, "Did you calibrate the range finders - if not,
6 why not?"

7 MR. MYHRE: No objection from the Government.

8 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection..

11 THE COURT: All right. And then, "Did you use GPS
12 validated positions and height of bridge - if not, why not?"

13 Any objection?

14 MR. MYHRE: That question was objected to by 15 Mr. Leventhal during -- we -- during Agent Willis's testimony.
16 But we have no objection to that question.

17 (Defense counsel conferring.)

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: As to leading or . . .

19 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to Parker, we have no
20 objection.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't know what I objected to.

22 Relevance --

23 THE COURT: Hearsay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Leading, I don't know. But I --

25 THE COURT: You objected to hearsay.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hearsay? No. I don't have any
2 objection to that question.

3 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 And then the last question is, "Are the bridges exactly
6 parallel?"

7 Any objection?

8 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

9 MR. TANASI: None from are Stewart, Your Honor.

10 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 Jury Question 126, "Although Steven Stewart stated 'We 15 pushed forward' on his Facebook [page], would it be accurate to 16 say that none of the defendants ever 'pushed forward'" -- and 17 it's in quotation marks -- "toward the gate but remained mainly 18 stationary on the bridge?"

19 Any objection to that question?

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

23 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 And second part of Jury Note 126, "In your observations

1 through photographs and video from the day in question, did you
2 observe Ricky Lovelien point a weapon at law enforcement at any
3 time?"

4 Any objection?

5 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

6 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

9 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government as to either of 10 those portions of the question, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: And Jury -- the third question on Jury
12 Note 26 [sic], "Out of the 410 people" -- and then "protestors"
13 are in parentheses -- "present how many were women? How many 14 were children? How many were members of the media/news
15 reporters? How many were armed? How many were militia?
16 (Estimations are fine if exact numbers are unclear)."

17 Any objection?

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

20 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

22 MR. MYHRE: I don't think the witness knows that level
23 of detail based on his analysis, but I don't think we have an
24 objection to the question in general other than if the Court
25 could preface it "if you could determine that from your

1 analysis."

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 And then Jury Question 127, "Did Scott Drexler or 4 Steven Steward [sic] have any direct communication" -- and then
5 in parentheses -- "(Facebook messages, phone conversations,
6 private messages, etc. . . .)" -- close parentheses -- "with 7 individuals that rallied for or organized the Bundy protest" --
8 and then open parentheses -- "(outside of any of the defendants 9 present in the courtroom)" -- close parentheses -- "before the 10 date in question?"

11 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

12 (Government counsel conferring.)

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could you reread the question again,
14 please?

15 THE COURT: Sure.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: "Did Scott Drexler or Steven Steward" --
18 and I realize it's a misspelling, but I'm just reading it the 19 way that it's spelled. It's spelled "Steward" like a
20 stewardess, steward -- "Did Scott Drexler or Steven Steward
21 have any direct communication (Facebook messages, phone 22 conversations, private messages, etc. . . .) with individuals
23 that rallied for or organized the Bundy protest (outside of any 24 of the defendants present in the courtroom) before the date in
25 question?"

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

2 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

3 THE COURT: Was there any objection from the
4 Government?

5 MR. MYHRE: I'm --

6 THE COURT: I don't --

7 MR. MYHRE: -- I'm thinking --

8 THE COURT: -- recall --

9 MR. MYHRE: -- still, Your Honor. There's something
10 objectionable about that question, but I'm not sure as I think 11 about what it is other than if it could be caven (ph) to the 12 agent's review of those specific items, the Facebook that were 13 mentioned there. I have an objection to just any communication
14 because it could be a wink and a nod or whatever. And I -- if
15 we were specific -- I had the same objection to Mr. Leventhal's 16 questions -- if it could be directed specifically to those 17 items that the juror listed, I think we're fine with it.
18 Again, it's just sort of this broad brush, any communication
19 because that's vague and could encompass anything.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 And Jury Question 28 [sic] asks, "Regarding the Joel
22 Lewis demonstration photos what month were they taken and what
23 time of day?"

24 (Government conferring.)

25 MR. MYHRE: No objection, Your Honor.

1 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

4 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

5 THE COURT: And then the last question on 128 is, "Did
6 you or your team enhance or Photoshop any of the images?"

7 MR. MARCHESE: No objection --

8 THE COURT: Any --

9 MR. MARCHESE: -- Parker.

10 THE COURT: -- objection?

11 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

12 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 So we'll ask the questions when they come back from 15 lunch at 1:00 o'clock. It's 12:00 o'clock so you all have an 16 hour. We'll see you back here at 1:00 o'clock.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, could I --

18 THE COURT: Oh --

19 MR. MYHRE: -- I'm sorry --

20 THE COURT: -- yeah.

21 MR. MYHRE: -- to interrupt.

22 Could I just raise one thing? This is our last
23 witness. I'm assuming we're gonna be done within the next --
24 before the next mid-afternoon break.

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MR. MYHRE: We -- if we're not going to proceed any
2 further with evidence today, we would like to say it's our last
3 witness. But we'd like to formally rest till tomorrow morning
4 just so we can review our exhibit list one last time just to be
5 doubly sure. I don't know how the judge intends to address
6 that with the Court [sic]. But we would just represent that 7 it's our last witness.

8 THE COURT: All right. So it's your last witness for
9 today.

10 MR. MYHRE: For today, yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: And then we'll let the jury go.

12 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. That's fine.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

14 MR. TANASI: No objection. Thank you.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

16 (Pause, 12:02 p.m. Resumed, 1:17 p.m. Jury not present.)

17 (Joel Willis resumes the witness stand.)

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

20 All right. So we'll bring the jury in. I'll ask the 21 witness the jury's questions. Then I'll ask the parties if 22 they have follow-ups. And then, once we're finished, then I'll
23 excuse Agent Willis and ask the Government if you have another
24 witness to call today and the Government can say you don't have 25 another witness or this was our last witness for today and then

1 I will excuse the jury. And then we can discuss what comes
2 next.

3 MR. TANASI: Great.

4 THE COURT: Does that work?

5 MR. TANASI: Sounds good.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 So let's go ahead and do that, Aaron, please.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

11 (Jury in, 1:22 p.m.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
13 seated.

14 Everyone else may be seated as well.

15 Welcome back from the lunch break.

16 All right. So, Special Agent Willis, I do have some 17 jury questions here that I am going to read into the record,
18 but they are jury questions. So, when you respond, you may go
19 ahead and turn and face the jury instead. All right?

20 THE WITNESS: Yes.

21 THE COURT: So Jury Note No. 120 asks, "You indicated
22 that on the slide the names were labeled only on the individual
23 that has a gun. There are other individuals that also have a
24 gun. Why is that not labeled?"

25 THE WITNESS: For the purpose of this sequential

1 timeline that I created, I -- I labeled certain slides.
2 There -- there were slides that had three of the defendants
3 labeled; there were slides that had two of the defendants
4 labeled; one of the defendants labeled. But, focusing on this
5 case and the defendants that we have here on trial, that's who
6 I focused on labeling for the purpose of this timeline. There
7 were other individuals that were armed on the bridge. But my 8 investigation focused specifically on the defendants in this 9 trial who posed a threat to the law enforcement officers in the 10 wash. And that's who I focused --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm gonna --

12 THE WITNESS: -- on labeling.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- object as to a legal conclusion. I
14 move to strike that final answer.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

16 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien --

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart --

18 MR. PEREZ: -- joins.

19 MR. TANASI: -- joins.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 So the jury will disregard the use of the word
22 "threat." I think you get the general idea that he's focusing 23 on these folks for this trial.

24 All right. So Jury Note No. 121 asks, "At the base of 25 the gap, how many degrees would you say the broom could move

1 from side to side?"

2 THE WITNESS: Going back to my geometry days, I would
3 say --

4 THE COURT: I think we were gonna pull up a couple of 5 exhibits for this one.

6 THE WITNESS: Okay.

7 THE COURT: We decided Exhibit 199 and Exhibit 206
8 would be a helpful demonstrative for you to answer this
9 question.

10 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

11 THE COURT: So the first one that's pulled up is 199.

12 THE WITNESS: I would say a 20- to 25-degree
13 (gesturing) change in vantage point. If you were staring at 14 the gap and the broom was in the gap (gesturing), I'm just 15 imagining, you know, kinda of a slice of a pie, and that would 16 approximately be 20 degrees that I would be able to move that 17 broom backwards and forward.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 And then Exhibit No. 206 --

20 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

21 THE COURT: -- is now up on the screen. Same or 22 different?

23 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Again, I'm not moving the broom,
24 as you could see in this -- in this picture. I had set the 25 broom, like I said, straight down and was able to move it and

1 point it at the asphalt area in the wash. But the full
2 movement of the broom back and forth would have been
3 approximately 20 degrees, I would say, from that point in the 4 gap moving the broom back and forth.

5 THE COURT: And when you say that you were able to 6 yourself move the broom that was in the gap to point it at the 7 asphalt, is that true for both of the exhibits or just for one
8 of the two exhibits?

9 THE WITNESS: For both of the gaps. The gap that Eric
10 Parker used and the gap that Scott Drexler used that would be 11 the same; I would say the same ability to move that broom.

12 THE COURT: And, just to be sure that I'm being true to 13 the question here -- I'm not sure if you recall this -- but 14 specifically the question was as to the base of the gap. So we 15 have space in the bottom of the gap and space at the top of the 16 gap so just to make sure you're talking about space at the 17 bottom of the gap.

18 THE WITNESS: Uh, yes, that would be accurate.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 THE WITNESS: 20 degrees.

21 THE COURT: So Jury Note No. 122 has a couple different
22 parts. You sort of have to hear all the parts maybe to get a
23 better idea of where it's going, but I'm gonna try to break it
24 up so that you can answer it.

25 So the first part is, "May we bring up the last exhibit

1 that Mr. Leventhal asked Agent Willis with the broom. [And
2 that's] Exhibit 199. Not sure what frame. But Mr. Willis
3 testified the upper part of the gap" --

4 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

5 THE COURT: -- "leaned or veered right at the top of 6 the gap. The gap seemed to be more open and not veering to the 7 right near the bottom of it. Is that correct?"

8 THE WITNESS: No. It is slightly veering to the right.
9 But, as we had shown in the picture where I'm standing at the 10 beginning of the embankment (gesturing), that that Jersey
11 barrier is thinner in the middle of the Jersey barrier and 12 widens at the top so that that shift to the right, at least
13 from the vantage point of this photograph, is definitely more
14 drastic. There is a significance in the thickness of that 15 Jersey barrier on -- on the top compared to on the bottom.

16 So it -- it does go to the right. But, as you could 17 see, not as much. It -- it is significantly thinner than the 18 top from my vantage point while I was taking the picture. I
19 did not measure it. But I could see and you could see from 20 this picture the ability to see through the bottom of that
21 Jersey barrier as compared to the top of the Jersey barrier.

22 THE COURT: All right. I'm not sure that we're talking
23 about the same thing.

24 So you're talking about from the upper part of the 25 barrier to the lower part of the barrier; right?

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I think that this question is asking
3 something else. I'll read it again.

4 "The upper part of the gap leaned or veered right at 5 the gap. The gap seems to be more open and not veering to the 6 right near the bottom of it" -- oh, I guess you are answering
7 the correct question. Okay. Never mind. I was thinking it
8 was asking about the top.

9 All right. So the next part of the question is, "So
10 one would have a wider view at" -- "So would one have a wider
11 view at the bottom of the gap?"

12 THE WITNESS: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And then, Could the broomstick move more
14 freely through the gap or near the bottom of the gap?

15 THE WITNESS: Near the bottom of the gap. The -- the 16 broomstick or a rifle would be able to move (gesturing) more
17 freely in either direction.

18 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note 123 asks, "Will 19 there be an exhibit list or an index provided to the jury?"
20 And the answer is yes, there will be.

21 Jury Note No. 124 asks about other parts of the 22 investigation that are not relevant to the elements of the 23 offense in this case. So I'm not asking that question.

24 Jury Note No. 125 has a diagram. And the question is 25 about Government's Exhibit 205. So if you want to put that

1 back up, please.

2 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 "How much lateral (side to side) movement could be made
5 with a gun barrel? And it's asking for the field of fire and 6 has a diagram showing from the top of the barrier on each side
7 of the gaps, a line going out sort of in a "V," and then at the 8 top it has a connection of the two "V" lines and it says that's 9 the -- the field of fire that they are asking about.

10 THE WITNESS: So, similar to the earlier question where 11 I was explaining the bottom of the gap, the 20 degree, and,
12 again, that's specifically me using that broomstick which is 13 approximately an inch in diameter.

14 I -- I don't know the exact diameter of the rifles --
15 the rifle barrels that Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler had in the 16 gaps. But I would say that the field of view compared to that 17 20 degrees of the broomstick and field of movement would be 18 greater, especially at the bottom of the gap. The exact
19 degrees of -- of view with that gun or at least movement of 20 that gun, I -- I -- I don't know. But I would say it would be 21 either 20 degrees or just 25 degrees, somethin' like that; a
22 little bit larger.

23 THE COURT: And then also Jury Note No. 25 asks, "How 24 much vertical movement could be made with the rifle barrel?"
25 So field of fire vertical as opposed to lateral. So the first

1 question asks about lateral; this question asks about vertical.

2 THE WITNESS: Well, you would have been able to move
3 the gun all the way out of -- out of the gap. But, again, the
4 top portion of the Jersey barrier is thick (gesturing), it --
5 it goes thinner, and then it -- it stops (gesturing). So, in 6 the middle, it -- it -- it wouldn't have changed at -- at 7 least -- at least vertically. But it's the middle where the 8 horizontal would change. So that . . . There would be no
9 variation going vertically (gesturing), but it's the horizontal 10 movement that would change towards the bottom of the gap.

11 THE COURT: All right. So the next question is, "Why
12 didn't you take help/support for the range finding experiment -
13 [or] if not, why not?" And so the parties agree that we need
14 to probably add the words "how many times did you visit" and 15 then "did you take help and why or why not."

16 THE WITNESS: I think I've been out there approximately 17 six times. Every time but this time when I took the broom
18 photos I was out there with at least one to five other people.
19 For this experiment, it was just me. I -- I did not have help
20 that day. But, essentially for what I wanted to accomplish, I
21 knew I needed something to be able to put into that Jersey
22 barrier. I -- I knew the images that I wanted to capture. So
23 it was just me that day.

24 But, as far as the laser range finder, there were other
25 instances where we were out there at that -- at that time -- or

1 in that location with the laser range finder and we had other
2 people. One time we went out there we actually put a -- rocks,
3 like, in the middle of the Toquop Wash or a rock, a large rock,
4 where the cattle gate was to help us orient ourselves from the 5 bridge to these locations in that area.

6 THE COURT: All right. And the next question is, "Did
7 you calibrate the range finder -- if not, why not?"

8 THE WITNESS: I bought the range finder the day before
9 I went out there this second time. So I've mentioned using two 10 different range finders. I bought a brand new range finder the 11 last time I went out there to -- to get the last measurements.
12 I specifically asked about calibrating when I purchased it.
13 I'm not an expert at range finders. But I spoke to the person
14 at the store who -- I asked around and found that person -- and 15 they explained that there is -- you know, information on that 16 that says -- on the range finder that says, you know, when it
17 was manufactured and things like that. It was brand new out of 18 the package.

19 So, as far as calibrating and I guess sort of sending 20 it back to the company and making sure that they had calibrated
21 it, it was as good as I could get it as far as a brand new 22 laser range finder. Again, purchased it the day before the 23 last time I went out there to -- to double check all of the 24 distances.

25 THE COURT: And then, "Did you use GPS to validate the

1 positions and the height of the bridges - if not, why not?"

2 THE WITNESS: I -- I did not. I did not have any type
3 of device that I could use to measure height or distance as far
4 as using GPS while I was out there.

5 THE COURT: And then "why not" is the second part of
6 the question.

7 THE WITNESS: I -- I just did not have access to that
8 type of equipment.

9 THE COURT: And the last question is, "Are the bridges
10 exactly parallel?"

11 THE WITNESS: I would say yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Jury question -- I'm sorry -- Jury
13 Note No. 126 has a couple different questions. The first one
14 is, "Although Steven Steward stated" -- and there's quotations
15 around there -- "'We pushed forward'" -- close quotation -- "on 16 his Facebook update, would it be accurate to say that none of 17 the defendants ever pushed forward towards the gate but 18 remained mainly stationary on the bridge?"

19 THE WITNESS: The defendants, that is true, were not in 20 the wash moving forward with the crowd of people and people on 21 horseback. But their position on the bridge, as -- as we saw
22 in the timeline was definitely not stationary. They were up;
23 they were down. They were moving from location to location.
24 They were running away from the bridge, coming back to the 25 bridge with a backpack and water. But they, yes, did not

1 participate in the activity in the wash pushing forward to the
2 cattle gate.

3 THE COURT: "In your observations through photographs
4 and video from the day in question, did you observe Ricky
5 Lovelien point a weapon at law enforcement at any time?"

6 THE WITNESS: No, I did not.

7 THE COURT: And then, "If you know, out of the 410
8 people" -- and then parentheses -- "(protesters) present, how 9 many were women? How many were children? And how many were 10 members of the media or news reporters?"

11 THE WITNESS: I -- I know that there were women and 12 children and also reporters in the wash. I do not have a 13 specific count for those people. Again, and, as I had said on 14 cross, my investigation did not focus on the people in the wash
15 and the children and the women in the wash. I focused on the 16 people who were on the bridge and who were present on the 17 bridge with firearms.

18 THE COURT: And then, "How many were armed and how many 19 were militia?" Again, if you know.

20 THE WITNESS: As far as armed people, I believe we 21 counted 41 armed. I believe there -- of the armed people out 22 of the 410 -- so 41 armed -- 26 of them were in the wash; the 23 rest of them were on the bridges with the majority of them --
24 vast majority of them being on the northbound bridge.

25 As far as how many of them were militia, I can't give

1 you a specific number. But I know -- and -- and, as we have
2 gone over with the slide where we have Mr. Drexler in a prone
3 position and in the -- in the background there was three people
4 up on the skirt area on the southbound bridge, that would be an
5 example of militia because they are all representing their 6 militia based on the patches that they had that we observed on 7 their arms at the rally site. But I do not have a specific
8 number of people who were there on behalf or representing a
9 militia group.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 Jury Note No. 127, "Based upon your individual review,
12 did Scott Drexler or Steven Steward have any direct
13 communication" -- and then in parentheses it says --
14 "(Facebook, messages, phone conversations, private messages,
15 etc. . . .) with individuals that rallied for or organized the 16 Bundy protest" -- and then in parentheses -- "(outside of any 17 of the defendants present in the courtroom)" -- close
18 parentheses -- "before the date in question."

19 So I'll read it again so it's clear.

20 So, "Based upon your own individual review, did Scott
21 Drexler or Steven Steward have any direct communication
22 (Facebook messages, phone conversations, private messages,
23 etc. . . .) with individuals that rallied for or organized the 24 Bundy protest outside of the any of the defendants present in 25 the courtroom before the date in question?"

1 THE WITNESS: I'm trying to -- I'm tryin' to -- it
2 seems like there's three questions there. I'm just trying
3 to -- to sort through it.

4 Well, as far as electronic telephone communication, I
5 don't recall. But they all traveled together. Steven Stewart,
6 Scott Drexler, and Eric Parker traveled together to 7 Bunkerville. So it would be inferred by me --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection --

9 THE WITNESS: -- that they --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- calls for speculation. Move to 11 strike.

12 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And nonresponsive.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

16 MR. MYHRE: It's directly responsive, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

18 MR. MYHRE: It is directly responsive to the question,
19 any direct communication.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. And he's indicating 21 it would infer to me. What -- what -- it's a direct
22 communication. It's a clear question that he's now inferring.
23 Nothing direct about that.

24 MR. MYHRE: The question asked did they have --

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MR. MYHRE: -- any direct communication.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. Objection's overruled.

3 You may answer the question.

4 THE WITNESS: So, yes, I -- they would have had
5 communication together with each other to ultimately lead to 6 the three of them traveling to Bunkerville together and 7 arriving early in the morning on April 12th.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, same objection. I'd move to 9 strike 'cuz it's not responsive. It's not whether they had 10 communications with one another; it's communication with 11 individuals, other individuals that rallied for or organized
12 the Bundy protest.

13 THE COURT: So other than the communications among the 14 three that traveled together -- so Drexler, Stewart, and 15 Parker -- based on your review did you find any direct
16 communication between Drexler and Stewart with individuals that 17 rallied or organized for the Bundy protest?

18 THE WITNESS: No.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 And then Jury Note No. 128, "Regarding the Joel Lewis
21 [sic] demonstration photos, what month were they taken and what
22 time of day?"

23 THE WITNESS: My last name is Willis, W-i-l-l-i-s.
24 Just for the first part of that question.

25 And the photos that we see of the bridge, of the Jersey

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 barrier were taken approximately 2 weeks ago. The photos from
2 inside the wash were taken 3 months ago, 4 months ago
3 approximately.

4 THE COURT: And, "Did you or your team enhance or 5 Photoshop any of those images?"

6 THE WITNESS: No.

7 THE COURT: All right. So that's the last question.

8 Does the Government have any follow-up?

9 (Government counsel conferring.)

10 MR. MYHRE: One moment, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 (Government counsel conferring.)

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 MR. MYHRE: Just one, Your Honor.

15 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Agent Willis, you were asked about whether in your timeline
18 you -- or during your -- the period of the event whether you
19 saw images of Lovelien pointing weapons; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now, throughout the entirety of that event, was Lovelien
22 captured on film or in video throughout the entire time?

23 A. No.

24 Q. So there were times between the images that we see, for 25 example, in your timeline during the -- there were times when

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Lovelien would not have been captured on video.

2 A. That's correct.

3 MR. MYHRE: Just one moment, Your Honor.

4 (Government counsel conferring.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. In your timeline analysis, are there periods of time where
7 you cannot account for Defendant Lovelien at all?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what are those time periods generally?

10 A. That would be from 10:32 in the morning till just before
11 12:00 p.m. From 12:00 p.m. -- or just before 12:00 p.m. to 12 12:19 and then there is times later in the day that I cannot 13 account for his exact location. Uh . . .

14 MR. MYHRE: Nothing further, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Any follow-up?

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Do you want to go?

19 MR. PEREZ: (Shakes head.)

20 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Afternoon again.

23 A. Good afternoon.

24 Q. You were asked -- one of the first questions was in 25 reference to the site line in the Jersey barrier.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you remember that?

3 And talking about specifically degrees, what degree of 4 sight line is there. Do you remember that?

5 A. I -- I think I said 20 degrees with the broom.

6 Q. Correct. And that was my next question.

7 So you said 20 degrees. That's just a guesstimate;
8 correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. There was no -- I don't even know what type of test you
11 could do for that. But you didn't do any specific testing;
12 correct?

13 A. No.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Now, Brian, if we could bring up
15 Exhibit 208, please.

16 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. So there was some questions about, you know, width and from 19 the top to the bottom of the Jersey barrier. Do you remember
20 that line of questioning?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And I believe you and I went over it again on cross, 23 but let's just clear it up so the jury understands it fully.

24 So this here in the middle (drawing), this is where
25 Eric Parker's Jersey barrier crack would be is your testimony;

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. We can't see it from here. So let's just focus on this
4 crack closest to the furthest right of the screen (drawing)
5 over here. Do you see that one?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. So, as you've testified, you know, up here, as 8 (drawing) depicted, from here on up that's thicker, the 9 thickest part of the Jersey barrier. Is that accurate?

10 A. Other than maybe the very bottom that is outside the 11 range -- or the span of the gap, yes.

12 Q. All right. And, when you're referring to the "very bottom," 13 please point on the screen where you're referring to?

14 A. (Drawing.) So, if the Jersey barrier went all the way
15 through to the same level as the roadway, that's what I would 16 be referring to.

17 Q. Sure.

18 But, focusing on the crack, the open portion --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- you see that portion?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- so you'd agree with me (drawing) that would be the 23 bottom; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. And there are no pictures that I'm aware of that

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 have been brought into evidence that depict anything with
2 anyone with their rifle (drawing) anywhere from here up;
3 correct?

4 A. Are you --

5 Q. In the --

6 A. -- talking about --

7 Q. -- in the crack.

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Okay. The greater majority, if not all of the photos that 10 I'm aware of, are in this (drawing) vicinity here --

11 MR. MYHRE: Objection --

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. -- at the --

14 MR. MYHRE: -- Your --

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. -- bottom.

17 MR. MYHRE: -- Honor. As to counsel testifying as to 18 what he's aware of or not --

19 THE COURT: Sustained.

20 MR. MYHRE: -- aware of.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. The greater majority of the pictures that have been brought 23 into evidence all depict this particular area here on the 24 bottom; correct?

25 A. If we're using this gap as an example of the other two --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. -- gaps that would be correct.

3 Q. Right.

4 And, to be clear, we're not talking about this gap. We
5 don't have any picture in this gap.

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. But, for demonstrative purposes, it's easier -- 'cuz this is 8 the only picture we have of the outside; correct?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Or at least one where we focused on the outside; right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And I believe your testimony earlier -- and I'm gonna clear
13 it. It's gettin' a little muddled here -- I believe your 14 testimony earlier was that this portion (drawing), the bottom
15 here, is thinner and it goes up (drawing) and gets thicker -- 16 and when I say "thicker," wider -- as this crack goes up. Is 17 that an accurate statement?

18 A. No. It would be slightly thinner (drawing) as that goes up
19 and then thicken at the top portion, that you can see from this 20 picture how it gets thicker --

21 Q. Right.

22 A. -- at the very top.

23 Q. Okay. But, from the bottom to the top, it gets wider. Is 24 that accurate?

25 A. At the very -- at the very top, the top portion is wider.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 If you go from the bottom of that gap to the top of the gap
2 before it gets wider --

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. -- it would get slightly thinner. And I'd drawn a --
5 basically the other side of the Jersey barrier that would come
6 down (gesturing) like that.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 210,
9 number -- slide 3.

10 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. And you were asked some questions about the bridges. And I
13 believe your testimony was that they were parallel; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So, based upon your estimates, the northbound bridge
16 which I'm circling, that's 45 feet from the bottom of the 17 bridge to the ground; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And right over here (drawing) we have 52 feet from the 20 southbound bridge to the ground; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So, based upon that, would I be accurate in stating that 23 it's approximately 7 feet difference from the ground under each
24 of the bridges?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions. Thank you.

3 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Good afternoon again.

6 A. Good afternoon.

7 Q. Question 120 from the jury asked that you labeled people
8 with guns, why not other people. Do you remember that
9 question?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you indicated that you were only focusing on people in 12 this case, in this trial; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, can you bring up 182-8, please.
15 (Slide displayed in open court.)

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. I'm circling a gentleman there; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You labeled him?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. I'm circling a gentleman there. You labeled -- I labeled --
22 you labeled him?

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. MYHRE: Objection to the relevance of this, Your
25 Honor.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, are you misleading the jury?

2 I don't under --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not at all.

4 THE COURT: -- stand your point in --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not at all. He's --

6 THE COURT: -- the question.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Actually, if you'd like a sidebar,

8 I think it's the other way around actually.

9 THE COURT: You -- there . . .

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll move on.

11 MR. MYHRE: What's the . . . It's . . .

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. You were asked whether or not these defendants on the 14 northbound bridge pushed forward.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. The question was, was whether or not they pushed forward to 17 the gate. And your response was no; correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Okay. You were asked about the protestors: women,
20 children, media and news reporters. Do you remember that
21 question?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. MYHRE: Objection, vague. Which question?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: It wasn't my question.

25 ///

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017—

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. The question regarding the people, the protestors, you
3 indicated there are 410 people.

4 A. That -- that is the -- the count, yes.

5 Q. That's the count.

6 A. People, yes.

7 Q. Okay. But you weren't sure of the number of women,
8 children, media, and news reporters out there; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. You indicated that there were 26 people in the wash
11 that were armed?

12 A. Yeah, yes, that's what we counted.

13 Q. Okay. And you weren't sure about how many militia people
14 were there out there; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. And you didn't count Mr. Drexler as a militia person
17 out there; correct?

18 MR. MYHRE: Objection, relevance.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, he's asked about counting people
20 and whether they were militia, armed people. I just want to 21 know if he's one of those militia people.

22 MR. MYHRE: I believe he said he didn't have a count
23 for militia.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. Did you have a count for militia?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 A. I said no.

2 Q. I'm sorry?

3 A. No.

4 Q. No, you don't?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. I'm sorry. Oh, you were indicating that there was a
7 picture of Mr. Drexler prone and the people behind him on the 8 southbound bridge were militia people.

9 A. That -- that would have been an example of militia
10 representatives that were there that day.

11 Q. I see. Okay. All right.

12 And you were asked about whether or not specifically
13 Scott Drexler, Steven Stewart had any direct communication.
14 And I wrote down "Facebook, messages, phone, or private 15 messages." Do you remember that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. "With anyone directly communicating." Your answer was no;
18 correct?

19 MR. MYHRE: Objection, mischaracterizes the question
20 and the answer.

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: It is misleading.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

4 private messages, etc. . . .) with individuals that rallied for
5 or organized the Bundy protest outside of any of the defendants
6 present in the courtroom before the date in question?"

7 MR. MYHRE: Asked and answered.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I didn't get a response 'cuz it was 10 misleading.

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Okay. You were asked finally whether or not the FBI
13 enhanced or used Photoshop for any of these videos or pictures.
14 Do you remember that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you indicated no; right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. But the FBI didn't actually take all those videos and 19 pictures, did they?

20 A. That's correct.

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, beyond the scope and
22 irrelevant.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. These pictures came from other news organizations? For

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - August 8, 2017

1 example, FOX News?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So you don't know whether or not they were enhanced
4 or Photoshopped prior to your getting them; correct?

5 A. When -- when you say "Photoshopped," are you speaking of 6 enhanced? Or are you asking if what is depicted in the 7 photograph was changed?

8 Q. I'm just read -- going by the question that was asked,
9 whether or not the FBI ever enhanced or Photoshopped or you
10 personally ever enhanced or Photoshopped any of the pictures or 11 videos.

12 A. No.

13 Q. No. Correct.

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. But you don't know whether that was done prior to you
16 receiving them; correct?

17 MR. MYHRE: Objection, relevance and vague as to what 18 we're talking about in terms of photographs.

19 THE COURT: Sustained.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Nothing further.

21 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Good afternoon.

24 A. Good afternoon.

25 Q. You were asked by the jury whether or not -- in your

1 observations whether or not you saw any photographs or videos
2 of Mr. Lovelien pointing a weapon.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And your response was?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Any follow-up from the Government?

8 (Government counsel conferring.)

9 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. So thank you, Special
11 Agent Willis. You are excused.

12 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Does the Government have another witness to 14 call today?

15 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. So it looks like the jury gets 17 to go home a little bit early today.

18 JUROR: (Gesturing.)

19 THE COURT: And tomorrow is Wednesday the 9th. So
20 tomorrow is a late start day; right? Okay. So we'll welcome
21 you back at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

22 Let's all please stand for the jury. And the jury is 23 excused.

24 (Jury out, 2:00 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated. The

1 jury has left the courtroom now.

2 So does defense have a motion to make?

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I don't think defense has a
4 motion at this time. The Government hasn't formally rested. I
5 know the goal would be to get our Rule 29 filed this evening
6 and I guess we can perhaps argue that, you know, first thing
7 tomorrow. But I'm guessing also, you know, the --

8 THE COURT: Well, why can't we argue it now? 'Cuz I
9 just told the jury to come back at 10:00. That's when we're 10 starting is at 10:00. I have other things in the morning at 11 8:00. That's the only reason why they are coming in at 10:00.

12 MR. TANASI: Sure.

13 THE COURT: So I thought we would argue it now if you
14 had one.

15 MR. TANASI: I don't at this point, Your Honor. I
16 mean, from what I understand, they still haven't formally
17 rested. They are waiting until tomorrow to decide that 18 formally.

19 THE COURT: The Government said they were resting
20 except they wanted to not tell the jury that until they had a
21 chance to check their witness list with the Court's -- not
22 witness list -- the exhibit list with the Court's witness [sic]
23 list.

24 So what you're telling me either way is that you don't
25 have a 29(a) motion ready for today.

1 MR. TANASI: I don't right for this moment today.
2 Correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Will you be ready to call your first
4 witness then tomorrow morning?

5 MR. TANASI: We will, Your Honor.

6 And, again, I don't know if we want to go through the 7 proffer at this point, you know, with respect to the witnesses.
8 But we do have one of our first witnesses ready. And then
9 Dennis Michael Lynch is the second that we have ready via Skype
10 if we can work that out. He does have a Skype account. So,
11 again, if the Court's inclined to allow him to testify via 12 Skype.

13 THE COURT: So is your first witness one that can 14 testify in front of the jury or is it --

15 MR. TANASI: Yes.

16 THE COURT: -- a proffer witness?

17 MR. TANASI: Again, I believe it's someone who can 18 testify in front of the jury, Your Honor. And so it's -- but,
19 from what I understand, Your Honor would like us to proffer
20 essentially what our witnesses would be testifying to.

21 THE COURT: Aaron, see if you can catch up with the 22 jurors and have them come back tomorrow at 1:00.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 1:00 o'clock, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yes, please.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: Too late or you got them?

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: They were still there, Your
3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Oh, good. All right. So we'll have them
5 back at 1:00.

6 All right. So, at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow morning, I want
7 the parties to be prepared so that we can address the 29(a)
8 motion.

9 And then who is your first witness?

10 MR. TANASI: Patricia Kent, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Say again?

12 MR. TANASI: Patricia Kent.

13 THE COURT: Kent.

14 MR. TANASI: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 And why do you think that she can testify in front of 17 the jury?

18 MR. TANASI: Okay. So, Your Honor, with respect to 19 Patricia Kent, she is a witness who was both at the rally and 20 on the bridge. And what -- essentially, Your Honor -- and if I
21 can just back up for a moment. The Government in this case, I
22 think, has put the crowd at issue. I have specific citations
23 to the record where that's occurred. Mr. Myhre in his opening
24 indicated that Mr. Bundy told the crowd "We're going to go up 25 to the freeway and block to the freeway." When you get to the

1 Toquop Wash, he told them to get out of their cars and they
2 were going to open the cattle pens.

3 There's other specific references to the crowd in this
4 case. So, after Cliven Bundy gave the command to get the 5 cattle, the staging area is roughly down in this area here,
6 indicating left. They left by car. Hundreds of his followers
7 went to State Route 270 [sic]. Now we're talking hundreds of 8 people. And what I'm reading from, Your Honor, is Day 4, 9 page 46, of the opening statement: "[We'll] show you that as 10 the crowd in the wash pushed forward, Parker went into the 11 prone position."

12 There's more discussion of the crowd on page 59,
13 "[We'll] show [you] that they were present when the sheriff did
14 not return and they were present when they had heard Bundy tell
15 the crowd [to] go get his cattle."

16 Mr. -- or, on Sheriff Lombardo's direct, he was asked,
17 "Did you -- when the sheriff was on the stage, could you assess 18 the mood of the crowd that was in front of the stage?"

19 "When we" -- and the answer was: "When we originally 20 arrived, I could have described the crowd as calm. . . . some 21 of the individuals seemed to welcome us, but then the mood
22 started to change once Cliven ascended to the stage and then
23 the rhetoric" -- "rhetoric progressed, [and] the mood
24 definitely changed."

25 Goes on, on page 4 -- page 116, "And how would you

1 compare the mood of the crowd after the speeches compared to
2 your assessment of the crowd before the speeches?"

3 I objected over -- Your Honor overruled the objection.
4 He was allowed to give his assessment; he was personally there
5 was the ruling.

6 The witness went on to testify, "As I testified
7 earlier, the mood of the crowd was calm and welcoming when we
8 first arrived at the assembly area."

9 Goes on to describe the crowd as being embolden --
10 becoming emboldened; asked what he meant by that. And he gave 11 his answer that: "Well, they got louder. They felt 12 comfortable shouting derogatory remarks toward us and my 13 opinion, they . . . felt no fear of law enforcement."

14 So, Your Honor, we have -- starting with Ms. Kent, we 15 have a group of witnesses who are members of this crowd. And 16 the crowd, as I've indicated, Your Honor, has now become 17 relevant to the case and has now essentially shifted the burden
18 onto the defense to defend the actions of the crowd because our 19 clients were members of this crowd.

20 Under the res gestae analysis, Your Honor, basically
21 the Government has essentially, as I said, shifted the burden.
22 And, under res gestae, fact or circumstances which was 23 properly -- of the res gestae of the fact was admissible in 24 evidence. That's the May v. United States case, 157 F.1, a
25 1907 case. I have a longer LexisNexis citation as well. It's

1 a Ninth Circuit case.

2 I also have another case, Your Honor, United States v.
3 Lumiguid, 499 F. App'x 682, 692. The evidence in that case was 4 part of the res gestae, the events explaining the conduct
5 underlying the charged offenses.

6 And so starting with Patricia Kent, you know, her
7 testimony essentially, Your Honor, is not going to be that she
8 was a follower of Cliven Bundy and that she was motivated by 9 the speech. It's just the opposite. It's that she understood
10 the cows were coming home and she was going to the bridge to 11 watch that occur which is essentially the argument that we've 12 made from our clients' perspective as well.

13 And so, again -- and I've touched on it before -- it's 14 circumstantial evidence of our clients' state of mind and it's 15 also now, because the burden's been shifted onto us to explain
16 and describe the nature of this crowd, res gestae. And so
17 Patricia Kent is one of those witnesses, Your Honor. And we do
18 have others that fall into that same category.

19 THE COURT: So it sounds like you're trying to infer --
20 have the jury infer the state of mind of the defendant by use
21 of the state of mind of a witness?

22 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, it's this crowd that 23 has now become relevant because the Government has put the 24 crowd on trial by rendering -- or by referencing the crowd and 25 how they've become emboldened, what the crowd did and how the

1 crowd acted. My client was a person in that crowd, so was
2 Patricia Kent.

3 THE COURT: Well, I don't know which element you're
4 referring to because I'm looking at the Count Five, Assault.
5 It's the apprehension of the person -- of the victim, the 6 person who is being threatened. It's not the apprehension of 7 the crowd. So that's not an issue. I don't understand what
8 you're saying about -- that the Government has put it in issue.
9 It doesn't relate to any of the elements of the offense.

10 MR. TANASI: One of the offenses, Your Honor, is 11 conspiracy. And, again, the Government has kind of made it a 12 conspiracy to be in the crowd. And so this is another way for 13 the defense, now that the burden has shifted on us, to explain
14 the entire events of the day and the folks that were a part of 15 the events of the day.

16 THE COURT: What's the Government's position?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, our position is that we have 18 never alleged a conspiracy of all 410 people. What the crowd
19 does at different points or the fact that Coconspirator Cliven
20 Bundy addresses the crowd intending for his message to be 21 received by members of the crowd is certainly relevant. But to 22 say 390 people were not in the conspiracy has such low
23 probative value -- it has no probative value. I assume that
24 the purpose is just to try to do this improper imputation to a
25 person who the Government has never alleged is an unindicted

1 coconspirator and say: I'm not a member of the conspiracy.
2 I'm not aware of what these guys were doing. But I had no bad
3 intent so they must not either. That seems to have no
4 probative value at all and to run completely against the
5 Court's order about not inferring intent is from a
6 third-party's intent.

7 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Tanasi. Why don't you give 8 me those cites again.

9 MR. TANASI: Sure.

10 THE COURT: One of 'em you said was in the 100's of 11 F.2d?

12 MR. TANASI: Sure. Your Honor, the first case is 13 Alcala v. Woodford; it's 334 F.3d 862, Ninth Circuit case, 14 2003.

15 The second case, Your Honor, is May v. --

16 THE COURT: Let's do one at a time.

17 So what is --

18 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry.

19 THE COURT: -- the first ca . . . Well, I'm not sure
20 you got the right cite. Say it again 'cuz I got -- it's a
21 civil case.

22 MR. TANASI: Sure. It's --

23 THE COURT: Maybe it is a civil case --

24 MR. TANASI: -- Alcala --

25 THE COURT: -- you're citing.

1 MR. TANASI: -- v. Woodford, 334 F.3d 862 or 865. I
2 apologize, Your Honor.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 THE COURT: All right. So this is an ineffective
5 assistance of counsel claim?

6 MR. TANASI: Correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And what is your understanding of the 8 court's holding?

9 MR. TANASI: My understanding of the Court's ruling,
10 Your Honor, is that the right of the defense to present its 11 defense and to rebut the government's evidence. In this case,
12 the court goes on to explain how not calling a defense expert
13 to rebut the government's defense expert essentially was -- was 14 error.

15 And I understand the argument I'm making is not one of 16 experts in nature, but it's the burden shifting and it's the 17 right for the defense to present its case in its entirety.
18 This Alcala case also sets up and gets further into the 19 remainder of the cases that I cited which go to the res gestae.

20 MS. CREEGAN: As the Government understands res gestae,
21 that's that you have to awkwardly tell a story going around
22 something. In this case, this is just going outside the 23 parameters of the defendants and their conduct to talk about 24 something completely different which is another person who is 25 not charged.

1 MR. TANASI: In the --

2 THE COURT: I'm not seeing the similarity between this
3 case, Knotts Berry Farm case, ineffective assistance case. I'm
4 not -- I'm . . . How does that relate to the proffered
5 testimony of Ms. Kent?

6 MR. TANASI: Well, again, Your Honor, it's for the 7 over -- the prevailing notion of the right of the defense to 8 present evidence to rebut the Government's case. And the 9 Government has put the crowd now at issue and has put the crowd
10 at a conspiracy and so the evidence, again, is now -- it's 11 now -- the burden has now shifted onto us, the defense, to 12 refute that. And that's what the Alcala case essentially sets
13 up. But, again, the Lumiguid case describes what res gestae
14 is, the evidence was part of the res gestae, the events
15 explaining the conduct underlying the charged offense.

16 And so the conduct in this case, Your Honor --

17 THE COURT: All right. So give me the other cite 'cuz
18 the first one is not persuasive. What's the next cite?

19 MR. TANASI: United States v. Lumiguid, 499 F. App'x
20 689. That's the cite as I pulled it off of Lexis. It's a
21 Ninth Circuit case from 2012. Lumiguid is L-u-m-i-g-u-i-d.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: This is about the court not abusing its 24 discretion and refusing to take judicial notice of the nurse's
25 licensure because it was not relevant to the issues that the

1 jury had to decide in this case. It sounds like it's actually
2 the opposite of what you're arguing.

3 MR. TANASI: I was referring, Your Honor, to the 4 section where -- I think it's at 692 -- "The district court did
5 not abuse its discretion, . . ., in admitting evidence that
6 Lumiguid was married to, and lived with, his co-defendant
7 Narciso. This evidence was part of the res gestae, the events
8 explaining the conduct underlying the charge[s] . . . and was 9 also probative of Lumiguid's guilt."

10 So, again, it was a case that allowed in that case the 11 prosecution to put on more evidence to describe the conduct
12 underlying the charged offenses. And that's what the defense
13 is attempting to do in this case.

14 THE COURT: And the Court -- and the Appellate Court in 15 that case found that it was proper.

16 MR. TANASI: Correct.

17 (Pause in the proceedings.)

18 THE COURT: So I don't see how that case is favorable
19 to your position either. Let's see what we've got here.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 THE COURT: So, as we talked about before in the Order,
22 the right to present evidence in its defense is not an absolute
23 right and it doesn't mean that it's not -- the right is not 24 unlimited but rather the evidence must be relevant.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: So even under the res -- what's left of the 2 res gestae doctrine, it needs to be related to the charges, to
3 the elements, probative, relative -- relevant.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: All right. And then, in the Lumiguid
6 case -- I don't know if I'm saying that right.
7 L-u-m-i-g-u-i-d -- it's citing to an inextricably intertwined
8 case, U.S. v. Degeorge.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: All I'm finding: It has to be material,
11 relevant, probative, relate to the charges, and it's 12 evidence -- and so, in the Degeorge case, the evidence of the 13 prior loss is inextricably intertwined with the charge; need
14 not consider the 404(b); probative value.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: Was that all that she was gonna testify to 17 is that she's in the crowd and that she's not pushing forward
18 and that her mood is not -- had not changed or the mood was not
19 threatening or yelling or intimidating?

20 MR. TANASI: Essentially. And that she always 21 understood after hearing the -- after hearing the Sheriff's 22 speech that the Gold Butte was reopened and that she was going
23 to watch the cows come home. That's part A of what she would 24 testify to.

25 Part B gets into the self-defense argument, which I

1 know Your Honor has ruled on. But, as I understand the Order,
2 if there are additional proffered evidence, you would entertain
3 it -- Your Honor, would entertain it. And I would defer to my 4 cocounsel here on the self-defense component for Ms. Kent, the 5 remainder of my witnesses.

6 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, I'll just jump in, Your Honor.
7 I don't think that she's gonna testify anything differently
8 than what we've already heard at the last trial in reference to 9 self-defense. She would testify that she was on the bridge.
10 She would testify to what she saw behind the gate. What -- her
11 belief that the BLM had in fact left; she was not sure if they 12 were in fact federal officers. She would also testify that she 13 saw weapons being pointed in her general vicinity.

14 Off the top of my head, I can't remember if she said
15 that she would believe that the weapons were pointed directly
16 at her. But I do believe she would testify that she saw them
17 from behind the gate being testified [sic] in her general
18 direction. She would also testify to just the general
19 environment around -- whether it be seeing the aircraft,
20 whether it be seeing individuals up on the ridge -- and also 21 she would testify to the warnings that were being given by the 22 I believe it was -- didn't really come out so much at this
23 trial -- but it would be Ranger Johnson that were made over the 24 loudspeaker. She would testify to what her belief was being
25 said, which -- although it's my understanding from the evidence

1 and hearing the dash cam or the -- yeah, hearing the audio on
2 the dash cam, it's my understanding that they said something to
3 the effect of "less than lethal." However, her subjective
4 belief that it was -- that was -- from what she heard was that
5 it would be lethal force.

6 (Defense counsel conferring.)

7 THE COURT: All right. So, again, it all sounds like
8 it's a third-person state of mind being used to infer the state
9 of mind of the defendant.

10 Did you want to go ahead and put -- I'm not seeing that 11 it is appropriate -- did you want to go ahead and have her
12 proffer and be questioned so that you could make a record?
13 Because I'm not gonna permit her to testify in front of the 14 jury if that's -- if what you've just proffered is what she 15 was -- you were intending to elicit from her.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Correct. Um . . .

17 THE COURT: But if you wanted to do that in a -- rather 18 than just, you know, proffering it, if you actually wanted to 19 proffer it on the stand with her actual answers to your 20 questions, I'll let you have time to do that.

21 (Defense counsel conferring.)

22 MR. MARCHESE: That would be our preference if Your 23 Honor would allow it.

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

1 (Defense counsel conferring.)

2 THE COURT: All right. So Ms. Kent was the first.
3 Who is the second?

4 MR. TANASI: Dennis Michael Lynch was, Your Honor.
5 But -- if I could just have the Court's indulgence for one
6 moment?

7 THE COURT: Sure.

8 (Defense counsel conferring.)

9 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I can just read in for the 10 record the witnesses that I would say essentially all fall into 11 the same category that we've just articulated and Your Honor
12 has precluded us from bringing. Right?

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. TANASI: Okay.

15 So Dennis Michael Lynch, Shannon Bushman, Huge
16 Gourgeon, Patricia Kent, Kenneth Rhodes, Daryl Spencer, Wendy
17 Spencer, William Sudweeks, Morgan McKay.

18 What that leaves, Your Honor, is our investigator, Mark
19 Preusch, and then Tom Zuiderveld and Shaun Horn who are Three 20 Percenter witnesses, as I have them kind of categorized.
21 Preusch is not though. Preusch is a -- as I mentioned, he's 22 our investigator. He's taken pictures, similar to 23 Agent Willis, of the wash and so he would fall out of the 24 category of what we've discussed up until this point.

25 MR. MARCHESE: And I don't believe we need to make a

1 proffer on the Three Percenter witnesses. They would not, in
2 my opinion, fall into any of the jury nullification issues on 3 Your Honor's Order.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Well, the Government does have an inquiry
5 into that which is whether the same type of information would
6 try to be elicited about, for example, either Sugar Pine or 7 White Hope which is that the government agents in question in 8 some way deserved to be assaulted because they were going to do
9 something bad. Essentially the same kind of lead-up to 10 April 12th which is they did the tasing so we came to the 11 bridge; they were gonna take this miner's mine away so we had a
12 right to go and do this. So it seems like that could lend
13 itself to jury nullification depending on what it is the 14 defense intends to elicit.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I -- you know, at this point, I
16 don't think I need to proffer in front of the Government what 17 my witnesses are gonna say. I'm well aware of what the Court's 18 Order is. I'm not -- I have no intent to violate it. So
19 that's my proffer.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Then we just want to make a record that 21 the motion was specifically to the events of April 12th. And 22 so it's the same type of information, but it might not be
23 specifically articulated in the Court's Order and that's why
24 we're raising this concern.

25 THE COURT: Well, these two individuals that you intend

1 to call that are -- you identify as Three Percenters,
2 Zuiderveld and Horn, are they present during this conspiracy?
3 Are they eyewitness or witnesses for other purposes?

4 MR. MARCHESE: They were not present on April 12th,
5 2014.

6 THE COURT: So are they good character witnesses or
7 some other form of admissible evidence? Just a general . . .

8 MR. MARCHESE: Right.

9 THE COURT: Give me something so I can say okay, they
10 can testify. I'm not asking you to tell me everything.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Well --

12 THE COURT: But --

13 MR. MARCHESE: -- I mean --

14 THE COURT: -- just a general category of something
15 that would be appropriate and admissible.

16 MR. MARCHESE: My first general question to them would
17 be: If I was moved into your area, what would you tell me
18 about the Idaho 3%. That would be a general question that I
19 would ask them so they can explain. 'Cuz right now we've had 20 an agent testify who really doesn't know very much about the 21 Idaho 3% other than the fact that she's looked at some social
22 media and whatnot and then we played a snippet of a recruitment
23 video -- well, I shouldn't say "a snippet" -- about 75 percent
24 of a recruitment video that the agent or at least another agent
25 pulled offline -- or pulled off YouTube online.

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: And do these individuals -- were they
3 members for a long enough period of time to be able to speak as 4 to the organization at a particular time that would be
5 relevant --

6 MR. MARCHESE: They --

7 THE COURT: -- here?

8 MR. MARCHESE: -- know both Mr. Parker and Mr. Drexler.
9 And I believe that -- do their membership periods exactly
10 aligned? No. But they know those individuals and they know
11 the organization.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 So, between March 28th of 2014 and March 2nd, 2016,
14 because that's the conspiracy dates.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. MARCHESE: That is correct.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 And then, as to Mr. Lynch, did you say he was or was 20 not going to be testifying by Skype?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: He's available.

22 MR. TANASI: He's available, Your Honor. But, from 23 what I understood, again, 'cuz he falls into the two 24 categories, the res gestae category and the self-defense
25 category, so if Your Honor's not allowing that line of

1 testimony then that would rule him out as well. But he is
2 available via Skype.

3 THE COURT: Well, it's not up to me to allow it or not
4 to allow it. It's up to you to meet the burden of what the law
5 permits and doesn't permit and the law does not permit
6 self-defense as a defense to law enforcement unless there's 7 additional conditions and characteristics that are also
8 presented. And so that was what the Order was about and said
9 it's not a traditional self-defense as we would think of if
10 we're at home or, you know, in some area where someone comes up
11 and starts to do something and you defend yourself. It's --
12 the law requires more.

13 And then, as to the res gestae, the two cases that you
14 provided to me did not directly relate to the testimony that 15 you plan to elicit from Ms. Kent regarding her intent or mood
16 or conduct at the crowd -- in the crowd at the rally or on the
17 bridge.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, Mr. Lynch would fit
19 squarely within what the Court has just indicated would be a 20 self-defense wherein he's in the middle of the wash asking the 21 BLM or asking the people on the other side whether or not --
22 and this is on video -- whether or not they were gonna shoot
23 these people. Then he runs back. And we have video of him
24 saying -- somebody saying, "What did they say?" "They said
25 they were gonna shoot you" -- "They were gonna shoot us."

1 So he goes beyond just mere speculation or mere
2 feeling. He actually, on his videos that he videotaped the
3 entire day, goes squarely in terms of what the Court is 4 requesting from us in terms of proof; that it needs more. And 5 that's where more comes from is from the video and from 6 Mr. Lynch when he's in those videos telling other people that
7 he had actually spoken to the BLM and he got back -- right or 8 wrong, indifferent, whatever -- that they were gonna shoot
9 these people.

10 And so, again, it fits squarely within what the Court's 11 indicating that it needs more and it's not just a traditional
12 I'm at home and I'm defending myself or defense of others,
13 which would be the same elements of self-defense and defense of 14 others.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Well, it wouldn't be more. That all came
16 in in the first trial and the Court found that that evidence
17 was insufficient to warrant a self-defense instruction because,
18 amongst other things, it failed objective reasonableness. The 19 fact that Mr. Parker testified -- or that other defendants said
20 "I thought they would shoot or I thought I said shoot" is not
21 enough. They have to have actual excessive force by law
22 enforcement agents. Instead, as Mr. Parker and other defense
23 witnesses testified, they observed a large crowd of people
24 advance on the officers and covered them. And that is not 25 enough to make out either a span or a feel defense. And this

1 wouldn't be in addition because this all came in in the first
2 trial; this is just the same evidence that was introduced in
3 the first trial. So it makes no difference to the Court's 4 request for evidence of an objectively reasonable reason to 5 have self-defense against these officers.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: But, as the Court is aware, in the 7 first trial, that did come in; however, the Court precluded
8 us --

9 THE COURT: It came in because you said you were going
10 to be able to meet the prima facie case for those defenses and 11 I believed that you were going to be able to do it. But that's 12 not what it turned out to be. And whether it was intentional
13 or just a misunderstanding on your part of what was required
14 for those defense instructions, it's clear now. And it can't 15 just be someone saying that they thought something was going to 16 happen; it needs to be either an objective belief that they are 17 not law enforcement or it has to be some evidence of excessive
18 force. Not of force, of excessive force. Bless you.

19 So, if someone is legally protesting and they are 20 blocking something where they are not supposed to be -- they
21 don't have a permit to be there or whatever -- and the cop
22 comes over and arrests them, that's not excessive force. Here
23 they didn't even come over and try to arrest anybody. So I
24 don't see how you're going to be able to show excessive force,
25 but I wanted to give you that opportunity. Just because I

1 can't conceive of one, doesn't mean that I'm foreclosing you.
2 I'm giving you the opportunity to meet either one of those two
3 tests because that's just what the law requires. I can't
4 ignore it. It's -- the law is what it is. And, if you could
5 meet the burden, great; let's put the witnesses on. But, if
6 you can't, I can't articulate it otherwise.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I understand.

8 And, Your Honor, I want to make one thing clear. We 9 didn't proffer Dennis Michael Lynch. Actually, it was the 10 Government that brought him as their witness at the first trial
11 and brought in the videos, brought in everything. We didn't do
12 that. We didn't come to the Court and say we're gonna be able 13 to do this and then fail. This was something that the 14 Government brought forward. We didn't call Dennis Michael 15 Lynch; we merely cross-examined him and utilized the videos and 16 all of the discovery that was in there with him up there. So
17 that wasn't ours; that was the Government bringing him forward
18 first. But I'm just saying --

19 THE COURT: Government called Mr. Lynch to lay the 20 foundation for his videotape.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

22 THE COURT: They called Mr. Lynch to lay the foundation
23 for the videotape, the admission of the videotape that
24 Mr. Lynch took for FOX. Am I thinking of the wrong person?

25 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor. We called

1 him to lay foundation for exhibits and it was elicited on cross
2 all of the things which Mr. Leventhal is talking about.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: I didn't make any proffer indicating
4 anything. I just -- they were his videotapes.

5 (Pause in the proceedings.)

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, again, with Mr. Ellis,
7 Mr. Ellis -- we didn't elicit information from him that when he
8 was -- he heard that someone said -- and that's why everybody
9 ran from the parking lot to the wash when some -- I think he
10 just sort of blurted it out on direct that he heard a lady say
11 they were gonna shoot protestors. That wasn't elicited by us;
12 that was elicited by the Government when he was on direct
13 examination.

14 MS. CREEGAN: And I don't know how that would help to 15 support the argument that a witness blurted out something,
16 essentially unsolicited, that that would mean that that same
17 statement would have to be admitted in the subsequent trial.

18 THE COURT: And, again, it --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't --

20 THE COURT: -- goes back to you want the jury to infer 21 the state of mind of the defendant merely because one out of 22 400 people had a state of mind.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, many of our witnesses that
24 Mr. Tanasi just indicated to Your Honor would also have heard
25 those same things; also saw the same things. And so they would

1 be -- they would be witnesses to actually make that showing
2 that a defense -- or self-defense is a proper jury instruction
3 and is a proper defense in this case. Without even getting 4 there, the door is closed with us even being able to do that.

5 I understand what the Court's saying. I'm just -- in 6 order for us to get to that point, we have to be able to 7 proffer these witnesses and we've done so, at least Mr. Tanasi
8 did so in the first one, and we can do it in front of the court
9 on each one and see if we get to that level.

10 I think Mr. Marchese indicated at the beginning of this
11 trial that we're gonna have more witnesses because the Court
12 indicated that we did not meet our burden at the last trial.
13 So we brought in more witnesses that are going to say, from 14 different angles, on what they saw/what they heard to coincide
15 with the self-defense or defense of others defense -- or jury
16 instruction.

17 MS. CREEGAN: That would be an addition of quantity but 18 not quality. The problem wasn't that Mr. Parker's testimony
19 couldn't be believed by the jury if they chose. The problem
20 was even if believed it would not make out the legal defense.
21 And adding more people to say the same thing does not change
22 that.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well . . .

24 MR. MARCHESE: I would respectfully disagree with that.
25 At the last trial, basically the only evidence that we had was

1 the Government's case in chief and whatever we could put
2 together for a self-defense argument based upon that evidence.
3 We had Mr. Parker and then we had two lay witnesses. In all
4 candor, we would not call Ms. -- I think it's Arnett at this
5 trial. But it was our intention to call Mr. Bushman and then
6 other witnesses on top of that.

7 As Your Honor has pointed out, it's an objective
8 reasonableness standard. So I would respectfully disagree with 9 the Government given the fact that, you know, last time we only
10 had Mr. Parker and two witnesses. If this time we had 11 Mr. Parker and, say, you know, six witnesses or somethin' like
12 that, I would argue to the Court that that is more. I
13 understand and I respect the Court's ruling in the last trial.
14 It is what it is and we'll live with it.

15 But why I brought it up that we bring more evidence and 16 more witnesses, I think it does go to the weight of the 17 evidence and the reason that we should be able to get a jury
18 instruction if we can proffer the -- enough evidence that 19 satisfies the Court because to me more evidence goes to the 20 fact that it was objective reasonableness. I mean, if it's 21 just one person that heard that, I understand that. But I
22 think that the argument gets stronger, I think the argument
23 gets more convincing when we have more witnesses in different
24 areas of the wash and the bridge and whatnot all stating the 25 same thing.

1 THE COURT: All right. So we'll start at 10:00 a.m.
2 with the argument on the 29(a) motion. And then the defense --
3 well, the Government can close in front of the jury. But, if
4 we're gonna make good use of our time, after the 29(a) motion
5 is addressed, if there are any counts that are remaining then
6 we will let the defense have some time to put any kind of 7 individuals on the stand that you want to proffer actual
8 testimony from. I suppose you could also file it as maybe a
9 sworn affidavit. I'm not gonna tell you how to preserve your
10 issues for appeal, but I'll make those different avenues
11 available for you to proceed whichever way you choose to do
12 that so that you can preserve that testimony, whatever it would 13 be, in case you need it later and that person is not around.
14 So just --

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: -- to let you have that opportunity. Just 17 let me know if we need to make time for them to proffer in 18 court or if you just want to do it by affidavit or by some 19 other means.

20 MR. TANASI: Okay.

21 And, Your Honor, if I can just -- I want to just 22 correct something I said earlier about Ms. Kent. She actually
23 arrived at the time of the speech for Cliven; she didn't hear
24 the Sheriff's speech. I think she heard about it; didn't
25 actually hear it. But other witnesses, Shannon Bushman

1 included, heard the Sheriff's speech. So that's just one point
2 of clarity I wanted to make. I was mistaken on that so . . .

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 MS. CREEGAN: And the Government would object to 5 eliciting testimony from anyone about what they thought those 6 words mean since that would be irrelevant. The jury has what 7 the words actually are.

8 MR. TANASI: And, again, Your Honor, it negates
9 conspiracy. I mean, not to go round and round. She hears
10 Cliven speak and she goes to the bridge, not as a follower in 11 the crowd, not as somebody who is going to carry out one of 12 Cliven's directives; it's to go see what's going to happen at 13 the bridge because she understands the cows are going to be
14 released.

15 So it's -- I mean, again, not to go round and round,
16 that's -- I think the hearsay issue is not necessarily on point
17 with her. I think that the basic foundational reason why we 18 would call her doesn't change simply because she heard that, as 19 a member of the crowd, from somebody else. It's the crowd and 20 its idea and this crowd that's been put essentially on trial.
21 And the burden shifted on us now to defend what the crowd's
22 mind-set was.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 And we've got Investigator Preusch, Zuiderveld and --
25 is it "Form"? I wrote down "Form," but I also put a question

1 mark right next to it. So the two individuals that are Three
2 Percenters. And then anyone else? I mean, we're not gonna --
3 that will more than fill up the day tomorrow I would think.

4 MR. TANASI: Well, the two other individuals --

5 THE COURT: Was it Horn? I'm sorry. It was Horn
6 actually; right?

7 MR. TANASI: Horn, yes.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. I don't know why I wrote down
9 "Form." Maybe I can't read my own handwriting.

10 (Defense counsel conferring.)

11 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, those two other individuals,
12 the -- we'll call they go the Three Percenter -- Horn and 13 Zuiderveld, they are not available till Wednesday -- or 14 Thursday, rather. I'm sorry.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yes. We had to procure flights for them
16 because they're coming in from Idaho.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. MARCHESE: And it was just hard to figure out with 19 the schedule. You know, they both have jobs; they both have 20 families; they both have responsibilities. So we had to get
21 them in and out in one day and that's the way the flights
22 worked out.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 So can you put on then Investigator Preusch tomorrow?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't see why not. He wouldn't be

1 more than 20 minutes, Your Honor. All he's going to do is --
2 he took pictures on the bridge.

3 (Defense counsel conferring.)

4 THE COURT: All right. So is there anybody else that
5 you are able to call for tomorrow besides --

6 MR. TANASI: Patricia Kent.

7 THE COURT: -- the investigator?

8 MR. TANASI: Patricia Kent, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Well, it doesn't look like she's -- for a
10 proffer, not for in front of the jury.

11 MR. TANASI: Correct.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: And Dennis Michael Lynch on Skype. But 14 he is in New York, I believe, so he would be three hours ahead
15 so . . .

16 THE COURT: So you want to do him earlier so that it's 17 still . . .

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Judge.

19 THE COURT: So maybe have him before -- is Kent coming
20 in person?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So I'll leave it up to you. It
23 sounds like if Lynch is on East Coast time might make sense to 24 have him start at 1:00 o'clock our time, which is 3:00 [sic]
25 o'clock his time -- otherwise we're in his dinnertime -- and

1 then have -- well -- or maybe we got to do . . .

2 Okay. I guess what we could do is start with 29(a)
3 motion at 10:00. If we have any time, you can call the 4 investigator. If we don't have time, then the investigator
5 would start at 1:00. Then, if that's the only person that
6 you're gonna be able to put on tomorrow in front of the jury,
7 then we let the jury go home early. And then you have the rest
8 of the afternoon to put on anyone else that you have available
9 that you want to present as a proffer with the option that if 10 it works out they can come back on Thursday and testify in 11 front of the jury. And then we'll have the two individuals,
12 Zuiderveld and Horn coming in on Thursday. I think we're
13 planning to start at 9:00.

14 Will they be available at 9:00? Will they be here by 15 9:00 -- --

16 MR. MARCHESE: They land at --

17 THE COURT: -- on Thursday?

18 MR. MARCHESE: -- 11:30 a.m., both of them. They are 19 on the same flight.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. MARCHESE: And I do have my opening still to give 22 although I don't anticipate it being very long.

23 THE COURT: Okay. That's good. We could do that in 24 the morning as well if we have time.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: All right. So that will be the plan then
2 for tomorrow.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, this is just a suggestion.
4 But should we move the jury till Thursday so we can have a
5 solid day of their time and hopefully resolve any proffering
6 that needs to occur outside their presence and maybe all these 7 things tomorrow, not wedded to that, but just instead of having
8 them come for two half days?

9 THE COURT: Well, it doesn't sound like we're gonna get 10 much done tomorrow except for perhaps opening and the 11 investigator in front of the jury.

12 MR. TANASI: I would --

13 THE COURT: So I would say leave tomorrow open for any 14 other proffers that we can.

15 MR. TANASI: I think that's a good idea. I just -- 16 with respect to the folks flying in from Idaho, the Three
17 Percenters, they don't get here until 11:30 on Thursday.

18 THE COURT: Oh. I thought you said 8:30. I'm sorry.
19 11:30?

20 MR. TANASI: 11:30.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I misheard.

22 All right. All right. And it sounds like that's what 23 both parties agree to is not have the jury come in tomorrow and 24 have them instead come in on Thursday at 9:00?

25 (Counsel conferring.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: I think that's the best use of their time
2 and they can get the opening and the investigator and then the
3 Idaho witnesses when they come in.

4 (Defense counsel conferring.)

5 MR. TANASI: That's fine, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 All right. Then we'll do that.

8 Sorry, Mike.

9 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: No. It's your courtroom.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 All right. So we'll have the jury come back -- instead
12 of tomorrow we'll have them come back on Thursday at 9:00 a.m.
13 But we could still argue tomorrow the 29(a) before we go into 14 the proffers. So you all still plan to be here at 10:00
15 tomorrow.

16 MR. TANASI: Will do.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 Okay. Well, then that's the plan. We'll see you
20 tomorrow at 10:00. Court's in recess.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 (Proceedings adjourned at 2:52 p.m. Trial to resume on 23 Wednesday, August 9, 2017, at 10:00 a.m.)

14

THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

15

Counsel, please go ahead and make your appearances for 16 the record.

17

MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Steve Myhre,
18 Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

19

THE COURT: Good morning.

20

MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi for 21 Steven Stewart. Also with us is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

22

THE COURT: Good morning.

23

MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Jess Marchese
24 on behalf of Eric Parker.

25

THE COURT: Good morning.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Todd
2 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

3 THE COURT: Good morning.

4 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on
5 behalf of Mr. Lovelein who is -- who remains in the lockup right
6 now.

7 THE COURT: All right. And so is he going to be
8 joining us soon?

9 MR. PEREZ: No, actually we'd like to waive his 10 presence if we could. He had a death in the family, and he's 11 grieving and dealing with it as he can. He's listening, but if 12 we could waive his presence, that would be greatly appreciated
13 today.

14 THE COURT: All right. Any objection from the
15 Government?

16 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. So the Court will waive his 18 presence for this morning.

19 We did have a 29(a) motion that was filed by the 20 Defense. Is there anything else that the defendants want to add
21 to that 29(a) motion?

22 And I'm not clear if Mr. Lovelein joined in that motion
23 or not.

24 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, it was my intention to join
25 this morning on the record. There's a couple of other points

1 that I'd like to make --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. PEREZ: -- other than that. One of the points I
4 wanted to make is, the Government really hasn't rested at this
5 point. And so I think it's sort of premature to even file or 6 address a 29(a) at this point.

7 THE COURT: All right. Did the Government have a
8 chance to review its witness list and evidence list?

9 MR. MYHRE: We did, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So, does the Government rest then?

11 MR. MYHRE: The Government rests, Your Honor, as we 12 stated we intended to do yesterday in front of these defendants.

13 THE COURT: All right. And so did the Defense want to 14 add anything to the issues that are raised in the 29(a) motion?
15 And then we'll move onto any additional things that are not 16 included in that written 29(a) motion.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'll submit it on the brief
18 that was filed last night.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same for Mr. Drexler.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Same for Parker.

21 THE COURT: All right. And so on behalf of 22 Mr. Lovelein, you are joining in the 29(a) motion that was 23 filed?

24 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: But you also said there were additional

1 points that you wanted to make?

2 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor. And specifically with
3 respect to the fact that, you know, there really is no evidence
4 of Mr. Lovelein certainly pointing a weapon, which would go to 5 threatening a federal officer. Mr. Lovelein, by all of the 6 evidence we've seen, was not in the wash, clearly, as were none
7 of the defendants. He never made it onto the actual bridge, and 8 even in the location that he was at, he didn't engage in any 9 conduct that fits the -- I mean, any elements of the crime as 10 they're charged in the indictment.

11 I mean, specifically with respect to extortion, I mean,
12 if there's no evidence that Mr. Lovelein adopted anyone's
13 comments, he certainly didn't make any comments. There's no
14 postings by Mr. Lovelein concerning the return of Mr. Bundy's
15 cattle or traveling there with the intent to interfere with any 16 of the BLM operations. I mean, certainly he was present, but,
17 you know, under case law, I mean, that's not necessarily enough,
18 even as far as the conspiracy is concerned.

19 And upon that, you know, I'll submit.

20 THE COURT: All right. So let's hear the Government's 21 response.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 Specifically in response to Mr. Perez's arguments, the 24 representation that there is no evidence of Mr. Lovelein
25 pointing is false. Ranger Alex Burke testified that she did

1 observe him to point his firearm at law enforcement officers.
2 So there is sufficient evidence for the jury to find that he did
3 so.

4 Secondly, there's no law that's been charged that
5 requires pointing. There's assault, which can be accomplished a
6 number of ways. There's threats, which can be accomplished a
7 number of ways, and there's brandishing of a firearm. So
8 there's no legal requirement for him to have pointed, even 9 though there is evidence that he did so.

10 And, thirdly, even if there was such a legal
11 requirement, there was testimony that every other defendant
12 pointed their firearm, and he would be liable under aiding and 13 abetting in Pinkerton as the Government has charged.

14 In the terms of his specific argument that there was no
15 extortion, he was a part of Operation Mutual Aid and coordinated
16 with Ryan Payne and was party to the objectives which included
17 the return of the cattle. He was the head of security over at 18 the rally area. He ferried the other defendants over to the 19 area where the BLM was in order to extort the cattle after 20 hearing Mr. Cliven Bundy say, Go get my cattle. And then he 21 returned back to the second rally that was held later in the 22 day, in no way disavowing Mr. Bundy's directive to go -- assist
23 him and go get his cattle. And then he continued to recruit
24 funds for the militia to remain active at the Bundy Ranch so
25 that there would be no return of the BLM to the area.

1 So, in terms of those specific arguments of pointing
2 and extortion, we don't believe that that raises any issue for
3 the Court to address.

4 THE COURT: So, Mr. Perez, were you referring to Count
5 Sixteen, Interstate Travel in Aid of Extortion, or 6 Count Fourteen, Interference With Interstate Commerce? Because
7 that sounds like you -- I think maybe both.

8 MR. PEREZ: Well, actually, Your Honor -- yeah, I think
9 they kind of both overlap.

10 But with respect to the Government's comments about 11 Mr. Lovelein being the head of security, the only evidence that 12 suggests that he might have been the head of security was a post
13 by his sister. There's no evidence. I mean, we've seen
14 hundreds of hours of video and photographs. I mean, there's no
15 interaction between Mr. Payne and Mr. Lovelein but for, you
16 know, the conversation that happened on, I believe it was either
17 April 8th or April 9th.

18 And, certainly, if Mr. Lovelein was so involved in 19 security and things of that nature, at the time -- at the height
20 of the tension of April 12th, there's no reason for him to be 21 checking his voicemail for two minutes and then being on the 22 phone to his sister for four minutes and sitting on a bridge not 23 really paying attention to what's going on in the wash below.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Mr. Perez's arguments are 25 weight-of-the-evidence arguments, but not that the jury could

1 not find that he was a member of this conspiracy. The evidence
2 established that he's in contact with Operation Mutual Aid,
3 checks and likes their web page in which they adopt the idea
4 that they should use violence against government officials. He
5 and coconspirators receive objectives which include the return
6 of the cattle. He travels interstate, recruits other people,
7 continues to communicate with Ryan Payne, continues to
8 communicate with OMA.

9 His coconspirator and member of the OMA, his sister,
10 posts that he is running security at the site, tags him in it.
11 He never disavows that statement. He himself posts to the MTFD
12 page when he returns and says that operations are still active
13 and more people are still needed in Nevada.

14 His cofounder of MTFD, Randy Eaton, puts out an e-mail
15 in which he says, If you want to join MTFD today so you can help
16 with the issue in Nevada, call me, on April 11th. Then there's 17 a number of calls back and forth between Randy Eaton and Ricky
18 Lovelein. He continues to function as a recruiter up until the 19 very end, up until he takes these three defendants over to that 20 area, allowing them to store their firearms in his vehicle.
21 Takes them there with their firearms. They deploy down the 22 northbound bridge. He occupies the state trooper. He never 23 goes to the location where these three Idaho defendants went.

24 That is more than enough evidence for the jury to find
25 that he is intimately involved with this conspiracy, that he's

1 liable for everyone else's acts, that he intended to assault
2 these officers, that he intended to threaten them, that he
3 intended to extort them.

4 THE COURT: All right. So that was as to 5 Count Sixteen. And the Court agrees that the elements of 6 Count Sixteen are few and that the Government has presented
7 evidence to allow and permit a jury, a reasonable jury, to 8 reasonably find that those elements have been met. Doesn't mean
9 that the jury will find that, but that they could.

10 There is some evidence that's been proffered that meets
11 the standard for each of the elements. The elements being 12 travel, all four defendants traveled; or the use of Internet,
13 and we have Facebook coordination and other posts, communicative
14 posts, with the intent to commit a crime of violence. We have 15 the individuals traveling with their guns and other types of 16 gear in preparation of a violent event, and they committed or 17 attempted to commit the crime in furtherance of unlawful
18 activity, which is to force the BLM, the federal law enforcement
19 officers, to back down and/or to leave and/or to get the cows
20 back and/or to not come back and not bother with the Bundy
21 family anymore.

22 Do you want to -- does Government want to respond to 23 the other counts as well?

24 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, are there specific arguments
25 that you would find helpful to have addressed?

1 THE COURT: Yes. If ... If you could address on
2 Count Twelve, the obstruction of due administration of justice
3 under Section 1503 or under Section 2 of Aiding and Abetting.
4 So, due administration of justice requires a proof of a pending
5 judicial proceeding, which we know existed here. And Order
6 No. 1544 is amended as 1574 finds that enforcement of a
7 permanent injunction is sufficient to support the requirement of 8 a pending judicial proceeding.

9 But we also have the mens rea requirement of acting
10 corruptly or by threats or force, and so we do have a show of 11 force and a threatening show of force here, but with the intent
12 to obstruct justice. So the intent does -- the defendants'
13 intent to obstruct justice doesn't need to be the only intent or 14 the sole or even primary intention as long as it is one of the 15 defendant's intentions.

16 So remind me, did we -- because I -- I am not 17 remembering whether we had any testimony or audio. I know that 18 Officer Johnson didn't testify this time so we didn't hear the 19 audio speaker, car speaker, announcing the court order. We did
20 see the posting by Stewart of Judge George's information, and 21 then we had, I think it was Petrie, the attorney, testify about 22 how the orders in the Bundy lawsuit was filed -- was signed by 23 Judge George. So is there circumstantial evidence -- an 24 inference from that circumstantial evidence that Stewart posted
25 that afterwards because he knew beforehand or none of them

1 disavowed?

2 I'm not sure that I'm clear on what is the Government
3 evidence that supports the intent to obstruct justice under
4 1503, or are you merely relying on the Aiding and Abetting,
5 Section 2?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we're not relying solely on
7 Aiding and Abetting. We had testimony from Officer Scott
8 Swanson that the PA was constantly broadcasting that there are 9 court orders. We also introduced against all defendants Eric
10 Parker's previous testimony wherein he stated he heard the PA
11 saying court orders. We also introduced Michael Flynn's video
12 where you can hear from the northbound bridge the PA system in 13 which there are repeated court orders over and over again. We 14 also introduced Eric Parker's testimony that he was aware of the 15 court orders before traveling.

16 THE COURT: All right. So the Parker court order
17 admission, was that when he testified or when he was arrested
18 and interviewed?

19 MS. CREEGAN: That was his testimony in the previous 20 trial when he was subject to cross-examination.

21 THE COURT: Was it the court order or the impoundment
22 order that he testified about?

23 MS. CREEGAN: He testified that he knew there was a
24 court order, but that he did not read it.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So knew or should have known, is

1 that --

2 MS. CREEGAN: He has testified that he was aware that
3 there was a court order in his research before traveling. And 4 they certainly all should have been able to hear from both the 5 video taken from the northbound bridge, from Eric Parker being
6 able to hear it on the northbound bridge, those PA
7 announcements.

8 THE COURT: All right. So from the bridge being able 9 to hear the announcements, who testified about that, about the 10 ability to hear from the bridge?

11 MS. CREEGAN: It's captured in Michael Flynn's video,
12 which he takes from the northbound bridge.

13 THE COURT: Oh. So it would have been Ellis's
14 testimony?

15 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

16 THE COURT: And then what about Mr. Lovelein, who was 17 not in the same location?

18 MS. CREEGAN: Same location. Should have been able to 19 hear it from the northbound ...

20 THE COURT: All right. And then for Aiding and 21 Abetting, that count, that's an easier one, too, to meet because 22 it merely requires aiding, counseling, commanding, and inducing
23 or procuring for the principals; so in this case the Bundy
24 family or any of the other coconspirators are considered as the 25 principal. Clearly these individuals responded to a call to

1 arms to assist them. So with respect to an element of the 2 offense to -- in this case for the obstruction, to obstruct or
3 impede or to try to obstruct or impede, that's been met.

4 And the second element of Aiding and Abetting is acting
5 with intent to facilitate; so, again, to assist with the 6 obstruction of the court order. And the action has to be 7 committed before the crime is completed, and they did appear on 8 the scene before the BLM relented and moved out.

9 All right. Let me see if there was another one. Oh,
10 okay. And so then connected to Count Twelve is ...

11 Okay. So I think I understand on the interference --
12 Count Fourteen, the Interference With Interstate Commerce By 13 Extortion, that the second element, the not entitled to receive,
14 the intent to obtain -- not entitled to receive doesn't 15 necessarily mean that the defendants needed to know that the 16 cows had been tagged as government property or anything like
17 that. It's just sufficient that they knew that the Bundy family
18 was not entitled to receive the cows --

19 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: -- pursuant to the sheriff's statement on
21 the stage.

22 And then the interstate commerce being affected in 23 multiple ways with them traveling with the guns, but also with 24 the fact that they were -- that the cows were going to be 25 auctioned off at Euclid, E-U-C-L-I-D, not sure how to pronounce

1 that, in California, which is outside of Nevada. They also
2 stopped the interstate traffic on I15. And we did see semis and
3 other vehicles on there, and I think there was some testimony
4 about some out-of-state plates.

5 All right. So did you want me to go -- I can go
6 through all of it. So Count One, the conspiracy from March 28th
7 of 2014 through March 2nd of 2016, requires an agreement between 8 a defendant and one or more persons to commit at least one of 9 the crimes in the superseding indictment to become a member of 10 that conspiracy agreement, knowing of at least one of its 11 objects; doesn't have to know the entire plan, but does intend
12 to help accomplish at least one of its objects. And at least 13 one of those members, not necessarily a defendant, has to have 14 committed an overt act. The agreement does not need to be 15 explicit. And the defendants do need to believe that their own
16 contributions were required to -- or that the success of the 17 venture depended on their own -- their own benefits and their 18 own actions.

19 And here we do have Facebook posts and e-mails and 20 communications between the defendants, either with each other or 21 with the other indicted or unindicted coconspirators.
22 Mr. Lovelein's contacts with Mr. Payne as well.

23 Stewart, Parker, and Drexler driving up together with 24 weapons and other accessories like armor, vests, and tack vests,
25 and camo, gear to be used in a confrontation.

1 Overt acts of Stewart standing in a show of force with
2 a weapon above the barrier, the Jersey barrier, on the bridge.
3 And Parker and Drexler likewise standing up on the bridge.

4 Calling a show of force in order to intimidate or
5 induce or prevent law enforcement from carrying out its orders
6 to enforce the court order to complete the operation -- the 7 impoundment operation, the closure, trapping, and so forth of 8 the cows and auctioning them off.

9 Count Two, Conspiracy to Impede Or Injure a Federal
10 Officer, same time span for the conspiracy, March 28th of 2014
11 to March 2nd of 2016. Again, there needs to be an agreement
12 between two or more persons to either prevent or to induce. In 13 this case I think we have both, evidence of both, by the 14 prevention and the inducement. It must be by force,
15 intimidation, or threats. We have the show of force by the 16 defendants with their weapons and their gear, standing up,
17 arriving from out of state, leaving the rally stage where they 18 did not have their weapons, going to retrieve their weapons to 19 bring them to the wash where the federal law enforcement
20 officers are stationed. Stopping the federal law enforcement 21 operation in regards to execution of court orders to obtain the 22 cattle is unlawfully on the public lands.

23 Inducing the federal law enforcement officers, forcing 24 them to leave, forcing them to give up the federal property of 25 the cattle, and stopping them from further contact or conduct

1 related to the Bundy family. And the defendants became a member
2 knowing of at least one of its objects, driving there with the 3 long guns in response to the call for arms, and their tactical
4 clothes and so on to help.

5 So to be clear on Count Two, no overt act from the 6 defendant is required and, again, no formal agreement is 7 required.

8 So Count Five, the Assault on a Federal Officer, we 9 have the element of forcible assault, which is defined as 10 intentionally threatening another, coupled with the apparent
11 ability to inflict injury. So there's no need for pointing of 12 the gun. It is just an intentional threat with an apparent
13 ability to inflict injury. The apprehension is the victim's 14 apprehension based on a reasonable person aware of the 15 circumstances known to the victim.

16 And we did have testimony from several victims that 17 they did see individuals with firearms and that they were 18 concerned for their safety. And I think it was Ms. Burke who 19 said that she was afraid that she was going to die. We know
20 that the officers -- the victims were aware of individuals with 21 guns because they called out the positions of the guns.

22 And then the last element is the use of a deadly
23 weapon. We have pictures of each of the defendants with 24 weapons, Exhibit No. 66 for Mr. Lovelein. Exhibit 14 shows the 25 three others with weapons. As to Mr. Drexler, the testimony

1 from the individual about the firearms was that Mr. Drexler's
2 apparent firearm could, in fact, have been an air gun, and that
3 would seem to be sufficient reasonable doubt that Mr. Drexler
4 actually carried a long gun, as opposed to an air gun. So an
5 air gun being exploded by air as opposed to by incendiary
6 device, which was required under the definition of the firearm.

7 However, under Aiding and Abetting, the individual does
8 not have to actually have access to a firearm. Doesn't -- needs
9 only to take an affirmative act in furtherance of that offense
10 with the intent to facilitate the offense. And so here the act
11 of responding to the call to show force for the purposes of 12 stopping the operation of the auction and so forth is sufficient
13 even if the firearm's not in fact a firearm, but an air gun.

14 And to be clear for Count Five, the defendant does not 15 need to know that the victim was a federal officer, and the 16 defendant does not need to intend to cause bodily injury. It is 17 a general intent crime.

18 Count Six is the Use and Carry of a Firearm in Relation 19 to a Crime of Violence. And the first element is that the 20 defendant committed Count Five, and as the Court has said, it
21 finds that the Government has produced sufficient evidence for 22 the jury to find that Count Five was committed by all four of 23 the defendants. Second element of the Use and Carry of a
24 Firearm in Relation to a Crime of Violence is that the defendant
25 knowingly brandished or used and carried the firearm. Again,

1 we've got Lovelein with the firearm and the three others with
2 the firearm.

3 As to Mr. Drexler, if his apparent long gun was an air
4 gun and not a firearm, that still doesn't eliminate the second
5 element because, again, for Aiding and Abetting the Government
6 need not necessarily prove that the defendant took action with 7 respect to any firearm, so long as he facilitated another of the 8 elements and had advanced knowledge of the firearm. In this 9 case we know that Mr. Drexler did drive in the same truck with 10 Stewart and Parker and their firearms and was also standing
11 right there at the bridge with the other two holding the 12 firearms. And so he clearly had knowledge of the other two 13 having a firearm.

14 And for purposes of use and carry, it's not necessary
15 that the weapon be brandished, but in this case we also have 16 evidence of brandishing, which means making the presence of the 17 firearm known in order to intimidate, regardless of whether the 18 firearm is directly visible to that person. So the crime can be 19 committed both ways, with use and carry or with brandishing, and 20 it just changes the penalty, but not whether or not the crime
21 was committed.

22 Count Eight is the Threatening of a Law Enforcement
23 Officer. Does not need to be statements. Can be an act that 24 constitutes a threat to assault. The defendants need to intend
25 their act to be a threat and not joking around or idle careless

1 actions. In this case we know because of the communication on
2 Facebook and otherwise on e-mails that they were responding to a
3 specific call for folks to bring their weapons in order to stand
4 up to the federal government. So there was knowledge that the 5 acts were going to be viewed as a threat.

6 We have evidence that a reasonable person would foresee
7 the act would be interpreted as a serious threat. Very first
8 witness, Lombardo, and a number of witnesses afterwards
9 testified about that, and the common sense is clear that the 10 defendants would know that their actions would be interpreted as 11 a serious threat as opposed to a joke.

12 The Government need not prove exact words or exact
13 actions that constitute the threat. The defendant does not need
14 to communicate the threat directly to the intended target,
15 doesn't need to be pointing the firearm. And the victim,
16 however, does need to be a federal law enforcement officer,
17 which here we did have -- back to her name -- the woman who said
18 she was afraid for her life and the other individuals, or I
19 think he was concerned for his safety, Shilaikis. Ms. Burke was 20 the one who said she thought she was going to die.

21 And the threat must be made for the purposes of 22 impeding or interfering with federal law enforcement, or to
23 retaliate, which here might also be the case, but either way
24 there was evidence that the defendants specifically were 25 targeting the federal law enforcement officers to stop them and

1 intimidate them or interfere with their operation of executing
2 court orders.

3 And also for this Count Eight the defendant does not
4 need to know that the victim is a federal law enforcement
5 officer.

6 Count Nine is the use and carry. So Count Eight is --
7 needs to be evidence of Count Eight, which I already said there
8 is, and then also the use and carry or brandishing of a firearm.
9 So the same goes to Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart pictured with 10 their rifles, brandishing them, which is making the presence of 11 the firearm known. And then Mr. Drexler, if his weapon is not a 12 firearm, he still aided and abetted the other individuals by 13 taking action to facilitate the element of threatening a law
14 enforcement officer.

15 I think we already covered Count Twelve, which is the 16 due process of -- the due administration of justice. With 17 Swanson testifying about the PA system, and the court order
18 being spoken over the loudspeaker, can be heard on the Flynn
19 video that came in through Ellis's testimony. Parker admitting 20 in prior testimony that he was aware of the court orders, but 21 didn't read them. And all four individuals on the bridge could
22 hear the PA system announcing the court order.

23 I may be repeating myself now. Count Fourteen is the 24 Interference With Interstate Commerce By Extortion. Inducing
25 someone to part with property by actual or threatened force. So

1 it doesn't have to be actual force. It can be threatened force
2 of -- or fear. There was pointing of guns, but even those who
3 weren't pointing of guns, that would be sufficient to -- for 4 this element. And the cows do not need -- we know were
5 Government property, there was evidence that they were 6 Government property, but the defendants do not need to know they
7 were Government property. They just need to know that they were 8 not entitled to receive that property. And clearly, after the 9 sheriff was on the stage, it was clear that the family at 10 least -- at the very least, was not entitled to receive those 11 cows that had already been seized.

12 I think that in the 29(a) motion it refers to the 13 ceasing of the operations, and there's a mixup on the way that 14 it's stated. But I think that argument is that because they 15 were no longer seizing more cattle, but those aren't the cattle
16 that were sought to be released. The cattle that the defendants
17 sought to release were the ones that were in the pens that had 18 already been rounded up; not the ones that the BLM had stopped
19 attempting to round up. And, again, under interstate commerce
20 it's de minimus. It doesn't need to be an actual effect on 21 interstate commerce. It's sufficient that it be probable or 22 potential. And here they stopped interstate traffic and stopped
23 the auctioning of the cows and so forth.

24 Fifteen is the use and carry committing Count Fourteen.
25 Same evidence applies there.

1 And then Sixteen we already addressed, was the
2 traveling in interstate commerce with Facebook coordination,
3 e-mails, and response to the Internet postings for a call to arm
4 and e-mail requests with the intent to travel. They received
5 their objectives to respond with the guns and the other gear in 6 preparation of violence at the wash. They bring them over --
7 they bring them out of state. Come to the rally. No guns at 8 the rally. And then they go retrieve the guns to go to the wash
9 in furtherance of stopping the BLM, forcing them to stop,
10 forcing them to leave, forcing them to discontinue future
11 operations.

12 All right. So does the Defense have a witness to 13 proffer?

14 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead and call the first witness.

16 MR. TANASI: Kenneth Rhoades, Your Honor. He is, I
17 understand, available now on Skype and through teleconferencing.

18 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, just for the record, we 19 would -- the Government objects to this process. It was our 20 understanding from the Court's ruling yesterday that -- and it
21 was our understanding as well from the Defense representations
22 that they were going to call Dennis Michael Lynch by Skype for 23 the purposes of making some proffer. Now we understand it's 24 expanded to Mr. Rhoades and Mr. Spencer and others who they 25 intend to call.

1 It's difficult for us to cross-examine, to show
2 witnesses exhibits, to even explore what these witnesses are
3 going to say when they're not here. We don't understand how
4 this paradigm just shifted all of a sudden. Now we're dealing
5 with witnesses by Skype appearing, apparently, from their living
6 rooms. So we just -- we object for the record. I understand
7 the Court's ruling with respect to --

8 THE COURT: Mr. Lynch because the representation was 9 that he was unavailable and had a doctor's note because of some 10 surgery and was not able to travel.

11 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor, and --

12 THE COURT: So what's the representation for these
13 individuals?

14 MR. TANASI: And part of what I also understood from 15 Your Honor was you would entertain the affidavit -- potential
16 affidavit submissions. And so, I guess, essentially
17 understanding that it was a proffer and, I guess, maybe just 18 assuming that the Court was flexible in how we were going to 19 make that proffer, this particular witness lives out of state as 20 well. So rather than have him fly in next Monday, I figured try 21 and go this route through the proffer process only. And then if 22 Your Honor is inclined to allow his testimony, of course have 23 him present and ready to do so.

24 So this was just trying to kind of deal with what I
25 understood the Court's kind of understand -- or the Court's

1 order was as far as the proffer goes and the flexibility in
2 terms of the affidavit. So I did just kind of -- kind of put
3 this together thinking it would be no different than an
4 affidavit. And under this scenario the Government has a chance
5 to cross; where an affidavit they wouldn't even have that. So I
6 don't think this is unfair for the proffer purposes and ...

7 THE COURT: All right. So for the proffer purposes I
8 will allow these individuals to testify by Skype, but if at the 9 end of the proffer it appears that they could -- their testimony
10 would potentially be admissible, then we'll have to discuss
11 whether or not we'll need to bring them in in person.

12 So this is not for purposes of any evidence that's 13 going to be provided to the jury. I just want to make sure
14 you're clear. This is just a proffer for the record of what 15 they would say if they were permitted to testify in front of the 16 jury.

17 MR. TANASI: Understood.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, in terms of Mr. Lynch,
20 I'm sorry. Mr. Lynch needed 60 minutes, and I knew that we were 21 going to be arguing this morning. So he needed 60 minutes to 22 prepare because he just had surgery. So I didn't know how long
23 this was going to take, so I wasn't able to give him that time,
24 and plus he's three hours difference in New York. So we decided 25 rather than waste everybody's time, we were going to bring in

1 this proffer. But I can have him on Skype within 60 minutes of
2 the time that we know he's going to be on Skype.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So is that 60 minutes from now?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I can text my investigator right now
5 and let him know that he'll be -- if he can be available. Are 6 we planning on taking a lunch at 12 so that I have him ready at
7 1 or 1:30?

8 THE COURT: Yeah, if you could have him ready at 1 our
9 time, which is -- would it be his time at 4?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Thank you.

11 MR. TANASI: That sounds good, Your Honor. And 12 depending on how this goes, we might even be able to get another
13 witness or two in via Skype as well.

14 THE COURT: All right. So who is this gentleman?

15 MR. TANASI: Kenneth Rhoades, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Aaron, if you'll please swear
17 in Mr. Rhoades.

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

19 KENNETH RHOADES, having duly been sworn, was examined
20 and testified as follows:

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. Please state
22 your name for the record and spell your last name.

23 THE WITNESS: Kenneth Rhoades, R-H-O-A-D-E-S.

24 MR. TANASI: May I proceed?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 DIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Good morning, Mr. Rhoades.

5 A. Morning.

6 Q. Hi. I just want to make sure you can hear me okay, can you?

7 A. Yes. Yes, I can hear you.

8 Q. All right, sir. What do you do for a living?

9 A. I'm retired.

10 Q. Retired from what, sir?

11 A. From printing. I owned my own business. I had a printing
12 shop.

13 Q. Understood. And where are you currently living?

14 A. At 48310 Heydenreich Road, Macomb Township, Michigan.

15 Q. Okay. Sir, I want to turn your attention to Bunkerville
16 April 12th, 2014.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Were you in Bunkerville on April 12th, 2014?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. And why were you there, sir?

21 A. Well, I heard on the radio that -- from the Pete Santilli
22 Show that they were -- somebody was taking the guy's cattle. So
23 I got in my car and I drove down there.

24 Q. Okay. What was your -- what was your plan?

25 A. My plan was --

1 MS. CREEGAN: Objection, relevance, as to what his plan
2 was.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, my understanding of 4 this point of the proffer is to establish the relevant evidence.
5 I'm foundationally getting to the two kind of areas that I
6 discussed on the record yesterday as to why I believe these 7 witnesses are relevant. One being the res gestae evidence to 8 rebut the crowd's notion, that they're a crowd-based conspiracy,
9 to thwart the Government's efforts, A. And, B, it goes -- this 10 potential witness also goes to our self-defense evidence that 11 we're trying to proffer now to see if we have enough to 12 ultimately get there.

13 THE COURT: All right. Proceed.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Sir, did you -- what was your plan heading to Bunkerville?

17 A. Yeah, I was going to a protest because I really didn't -- I
18 didn't know anybody there, so ... I was just going to a
19 call-out protest.

20 Q. All right. In the morning of the 12th, did there come a
21 time where you attended a speech by the sheriff?

22 A. Yes, I did. I was at the trailer and Sheriff Gillespie -- I
23 think a couple of undersheriffs came with him. I even put my 24 hand out and helped him get up the trailer, and he told us that 25 the BLM was standing down. They were leaving.

1 And then -- then Cliven gave a speech, which I won't
2 get into that, but Cliven gave a speech. And we waited an hour.
3 Then we went to the wash.

4 Q. Okay. After hearing both Cliven's speech and the sheriff's
5 speech, what did you understand was to happen in the wash?

6 A. I thought we was going over just to watch the cattle being
7 released.

8 Q. Okay. Did you in fact go over to the wash?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. How did you get there?

11 A. I rode over with -- I rode with a man -- a father and his 12 son, because I had -- my car was there. And they said, Just hop
13 in the truck with us, because they was going out into the field.
14 So I got in the truck with them. And we parked on the top, and 15 as I was going down, I fell down a 30-foot embankment, so ...

16 Q. Sorry to hear that.

17 A. Go ahead.

18 Q. So after your fall, what did you do next?

19 A. I went to the front gate and I did -- I did hear them saying
20 something over the speaker, but down in the wash you couldn't
21 hear it because it was echoing off the walls. So I had no clue
22 what they were even saying.

23 But then when we got closer to the gate, there was guns
24 pointed at us and they were -- I didn't say they were very 25 aggressive, but they were pointing guns at us.

1 Q. When you say "they," who are you referring to?

2 A. I guess as it turned out it was the BLM. It looked to me
3 like -- I thought it was Army, but I guess it was the BLM and
4 Park rangers, but some of them had tan suits on, some of them
5 had green. But they were heavily -- like, all of the body armor
6 on them.

7 Q. How did it make you feel when the guns were pointed at you,
8 sir?

9 A. Well, I actually thought we might die in the wash that day,
10 to be honest with you, because I thought they might -- I thought
11 they might shoot us; because they -- they guns was up and they
12 wasn't sling. They were up and they were pointing them at us.

13 Q. Were you armed that day, sir?

14 A. No, I wasn't. I wasn't armed any day.

15 Q. And how close were you when you saw them with the guns?

16 A. Probably 100 feet, 200 feet.

17 But, actually, when I was going under the first bridge
18 on the south side there to the -- to the north side, then I seen
19 the guns pointing, so ...

20 MR. TANASI: Okay, sir. Thank you. That's all the 21 questions I have for you. The Government may have some 22 questions, and Her Honor may have some questions for you as
23 well.

24 THE WITNESS: Sure.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Creegan.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. We do have some questions for you from the Government, sir.
5 Can you answer my questions, please?

6 A. Sure. Go ahead.

7 Q. And please just let me know if you can't hear me.

8 A. I can hear you fine.

9 Q. Thank you.

10 Sir, is it correct that you arrived at Bunkerville on
11 April 9th of 2014?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And when you did that, you did that at the Patriot
14 checkpoint. Is that correct? You met Pete Santilli there?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. And that was a checkpoint to the militia camp?

17 A. I didn't know -- I didn't even know they had a militia camp
18 there. I went -- they called it a welcome center. They had 19 a -- two flagpoles up, and that's where I went to when I went 20 down there. That's where I met Pete Santilli.

21 Q. You saw there was a Patriot checkpoint?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And is it true that the night before April 12th, which would 24 be April 11th, Pete told you that you were going to take the 25 cattle back, that he was going to help take the cattle back?

1 A. He -- Pete didn't say he was going to take the cattle back.

2 He said they was going to take the cattle back.

3 Q. That they were going to take the cattle back?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And were you concerned that you didn't have enough people to 6 take the cattle back from the BLM?

7 A. Well, at that time there was probably 400 people. And the 8 morning of -- Saturday morning it was, like, 2,000 people.

9 Q. And so on Friday you were concerned you didn't have enough
10 people, but on Saturday you thought there were enough people to 11 take the cattle back?

12 A. That was my opinion.

13 Q. And you knew that it was the BLM impounding the cattle,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. And you knew that they were federal government officers?

17 A. Yes. Yes, I did.

18 Q. Okay. And you were present when Cliven Bundy demanded that 19 the BLM's guns be taken away?

20 A. Yes, I was.

21 Q. And you believe that Cliven then said, If the people want to 22 go take the cattle, then go get it?

23 A. That was after the sheriff told us that they were leaving --
24 that they were leaving. They were leaving that area. So I
25 assumed that we were going over then to watch the cowboys go and

1 take the cattle.

2 Q. Mr. Rhoades, do you remember being interviewed by Pete
3 Santilli for a video? I believe it's called A Targeted
4 Individual.

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And do you remember mentioning anything about thinking that 7 the BLM was gone in that interview?

8 A. I don't even think -- I don't even know that we talked about 9 it on that interview.

10 Q. But you do remember that you heard Cliven say, If the people
11 want to go take the cattle, then go get it?

12 A. Cliven said, You can go get the cattle, yes.

13 Q. And then you went with the people to go get the cattle?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And you saw that there were armed people present in the 16 crowd?

17 A. Where I was at, all I seen -- I didn't see any long rifles
18 where I was at. I was down in the wash after I fell. All I
19 seen was a few sidearms on people.

20 Q. Do you remember seeing somebody with a gun on the overpass?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. Do you remember a trooper telling the person to put the gun
23 away and the person didn't put the gun away?

24 A. I remember the trooper saying something to the guy about the 25 gun.

1 Q. Do you remember telling Pete Santilli that the trooper told
2 the guy to put the gun away and the guy did not put the gun
3 away?

4 A. I don't remember saying it. I may have. I don't remember
5 saying it.

6 Q. Okay. So it's possible that that could have happened and 7 you may just not remember now?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And you yourself went into the wash?

10 A. Yes, I went into the wash.

11 Q. And were you part of a large group of people?

12 A. Yes, there was quite a few down there. I don't know how 13 many, but there was quite a few.

14 Q. Do you remember walking up --

15 A. There was --

16 Q. I'm sorry. Go ahead, sir.

17 A. There were children, women, men, everybody down there.

18 Q. Did you see people in camouflage?

19 A. You know what, very few.

20 Q. Did you see people with firearms?

21 A. I seen them with sidearms. Some of them had sidearms. And 22 the cowboys had -- they had -- some of them had a rifle on the 23 side of the horse. That's the only thing I seen. I didn't see
24 any -- a big bunch of long arms -- long guns down there.

25 Q. But you did see that some people had sidearms and some

1 people had long guns?

2 A. I seen the long guns on the horses.

3 Q. Okay. And when you got to the wash, you could see that
4 there were people in uniform on the other side of the gate. Is
5 that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And you could see that those people were wearing uniforms?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you could see that there were patrol vehicles in that
10 area?

11 A. Down in the wash, all I seen was the trucks and the 12 Suburbans and stuff down there.

13 Q. So those trucks that you saw, could you see whether they had 14 light bars on the top, like a cop car would?

15 A. You know, I don't recall that. I remember after I looked at 16 them later some of them had BLM with white -- some kind of white
17 marker on the back -- on the side windows.

18 Q. So you do remember that some of them had official BLM
19 markings on them?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you understand those people on the other side of the 22 gate could be federal government employees?

23 A. Well, I assumed they were.

24 Q. Did you assume that some of them were law enforcement
25 officers?

1 A. I considered them BLM agents.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. I don't know if you consider a Park ranger and all of them a
4 law enforcement or not. I guess you could say they are.

5 Q. All right. So you knew these were BLM and Park Service
6 employees?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you knew that some of them were law enforcement
9 officers?

10 A. The law enforcement officers that I recall were up on the 11 top.

12 Q. But you knew there were law enforcement officers in the
13 area?

14 A. Yes, up on the top.

15 Q. And when you say from the top, is that the entranceway
16 leading down to where the cattle were?

17 A. No. No, it's up on the bridge. I seen law enforcement up
18 on the bridge.

19 Q. Okay. But you knew --

20 A. What I consider law enforcement.

21 Q. So is it correct, sir, that you only acknowledge state and 22 local law enforcement to be law enforcement?

23 A. Well, I don't consider the BLM -- I didn't think they had 24 law enforcement -- I didn't think they were allowed to have 25 guns. I was surprised to see it, yes.

1 Q. So you just didn't -- you did not accept that the BLM or the
2 National Park Service could have law enforcement authority?

3 A. No, I didn't think they did.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. That's my opinion.

6 Q. That's your opinion. Okay. Thank you.

7 And you walked forward to the gate that was in front of 8 those people with the uniforms, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you heard Ammon Bundy talking to the person behind the 11 gate who came from the BLM and Park Service side?

12 A. Yes, he was talking to Daniel P. Love.

13 Q. You know that person to be Daniel P. Love?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Was he the special agent in charge of the impoundment
16 operation?

17 A. Yes, he was.

18 Q. And did you hear Ammon Bundy tell him that he had to leave
19 right now?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. And did you hear Special Agent Love ask for an hour and 22 Ammon Bundy said no?

23 A. But I also heard Daniel P. Love tell the guy to put the guns
24 down because they still had the guns pointed at us. He had --

25 Q. I understand, sir, but I just want to ask you just for the

1 first part of that question, did you hear Dan P. Love, the
2 special agent in charge of the impoundment operation, ask for an
3 hour and Ammon Bundy told him no?

4 A. I know he -- I know I heard him tell him he had to leave.

5 Q. Do you remember telling Pete Santilli that Love asked for an
6 hour and that Ammon told him, no, he had to leave right now?

7 A. You know, I don't remember that. I remember him telling him
8 he had to leave. I didn't know if it was one hour. Maybe it
9 was one hour. I just don't remember. I don't recall.

10 Q. Is it correct that the -- you did not believe that the BLM
11 was going to fire?

12 A. They was going to fire on us? No. I did believe they might 13 fire on us.

14 Q. Do you remember telling Pete Santilli that you did not 15 believe that the BLM would fire on you?

16 A. No, I don't remember telling Pete Santilli that.

17 Q. So in your tape-recorded interview, which is available on 18 YouTube, you never said that you did not believe that the BLM
19 was going to fire because they knew we had too many people?

20 A. I didn't say I didn't -- I didn't say it. I don't remember
21 saying it.

22 Q. So you might have said it; you just don't remember?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Okay. BLM never fired on anybody, correct?

25 A. No, but nobody fired on them either.

1 Q. Well, I appreciate that, sir, but if you could just please
2 confine your response to my question.

3 Next question is: Did they arrest anybody?

4 A. Not that I'm aware of.

5 Q. Did they use any crowd dispersant, like pepper ball?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you see anyone from the BLM or National Park Service
8 physically touch anybody else?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did you see them throw something that hit someone else?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And you've mentioned that you know Daniel P. Love. Is it
13 correct that you and Peter Santilli called him and threatened to 14 kill his family in November of 2015?

15 A. No, I never threatened to kill Daniel P. Love's family.

16 Q. You never called his voicemail and said that his family was 17 going to disappear?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. You were not part of a voicemail that was left by Peter
20 Santilli?

21 A. The only thing I said, that I hoped he got fired. I didn't 22 -- I never hoped -- would ever say anything about doing harm to 23 anyone's family, period.

24 Q. Do you remember if Pete Santilli said anything about hurting
25 his family or never seeing his family again?

1 A. No, I didn't -- I'd never -- I don't recall hearing Pete say
2 it either.

3 Q. Is it correct that Pete Santilli is your friend?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you also know Ryan Payne and Ammon Bundy?

6 A. I know them now. I didn't -- when I went down there, I knew
7 no one, when I went to Nevada.

8 Q. Okay. Did you go with them to Burns, Oregon, in January of 9 2016?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. Were you present for the --

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. Thank you.

14 Were you present for the occupation of the Malheur
15 National Wildlife Refuge?

16 A. I was up there at that time. I wasn't part of it, but I was 17 up there. I went to a march -- I went for a march for two days
18 for Ammon. I had two pair of pants and two shirts, and we end
19 up being there 30 days.

20 Q. You ended up being there for 30 days?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did you stay at the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you enter the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge while it
25 was being occupied?

1 A. When the news went down there, I went down there with Pete.

2 Q. Did you travel with Ammon -- did you travel with Peter

3 Santilli and Ryan Payne to visit the FBI in Burns, Oregon?

4 A. I went with Pete Santilli to visit -- go and talk to the 5 FBI, yes.

6 Q. And Ryan Payne was armed at that time?

7 A. You know, I don't -- I don't recall if he was or if he 8 wasn't.

9 Q. Do you remember if they communicated to the FBI the things
10 that would need to be done in order for the situation to remain
11 peaceful?

12 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, relevance.

13 THE WITNESS: You know, I wasn't -- I wasn't part of 14 the conversation. I did -- I was there, but I wasn't part of 15 the conversation.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. How often do you speak to Mr. Santilli?

18 A. I haven't talked to Pete now in about probably six months.

19 Q. Have you ever visited him in prison?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Have you ever visited any of the defendants in prison?

22 A. Yes, I visited with -- I went to see Todd Engel.

23 Q. Is he a friend of yours?

24 A. I didn't -- I didn't know him. I just knew he was one of 25 the guys.

1 Q. Do you maintain any contact with the Bundy family?

2 A. Yes, I have.

3 Q. How often do you speak with the Bundys?

4 A. How often do I speak to them? Probably about every four or 5 five months.

6 Q. Have you ever given them any money or support?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you attend the one-year reunion of the Bundy Ranch
9 standoff?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. Have you ever signed a petition to have the judge over this 12 trial impeached?

13 A. I didn't even know they had a petition.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Nothing further.

15 THE COURT: Any redirect, Mr. Tanasi?

16 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. You want to take our lunch
18 break and then we'll call -- or are we calling Mr. Lynch or is 19 Mr. Lynch calling us?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll facilitate that with the Court.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right. So go ahead and take our lunch
24 break. It's 12 o'clock. We'll be back here at 1 o'clock.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

1 (Recess taken at 12:00 p.m.)

2 (Resumed at 1:15 p.m.)

3 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

4 All right. So everyone is back from lunch, except I
5 don't see Mr. Lovelein.

6 So, Mr. Perez, is Mr. Lovelein also going to ask to 7 have his presence waived in the afternoon session as well?

8 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And still no objection from the
10 Government?

11 MR. MYHRE: No objection, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. So Mr. Lovelein's presence is 13 waived for this afternoon.

14 Do we have Mr. Lynch ready to go?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Do you want to go ahead and 17 call him? We'll have him sworn in.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mr. Lynch, can you hear me?

19 THE WITNESS: I can hear you through the phone. I
20 can't hear you through the Skype.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Well, we can hear you.

22 THE WITNESS: Okay.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to ask you a couple of 24 questions, if that's okay. Are you okay today?

25 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Go ahead.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right.

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, would you like
3 Mr. Lynch sworn?

4 THE COURT: Yes, please.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Mr. Lynch, please raise your 6 right hand.

7 DENNIS MICHAEL LYNCH, having duly been sworn, was
8 examined and testified as follows:

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. Please state
10 your full name for the record and spell your last name.

11 THE WITNESS: My full name is Dennis Michael Lynch, and 12 the last name is L-Y-N-C-H.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Mr. Lynch, were you in Bunkerville, Nevada, on or around
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. Yes, I was.

18 Q. And when did you arrive in Bunkerville, Nevada?

19 A. The night before.

20 Q. Okay. That would be April 11th. Okay. So on April 12th,
21 did you attend a rally?

22 A. Yes, as the -- being the cameraman.

23 Q. Okay. And what do you do for a living?

24 A. I produce videos and news.

25 Q. Okay. Do you do that for yourself or for an organization?

1 A. I do it for myself. I'm the CEO of my own company.

2 Q. Okay. So when you went to the rally, approximately what
3 time did you get there at?

4 A. I believe I was there at the very start, which would be, I
5 think, either 8 a.m. or 9 a.m. in the morning.

6 Q. Okay. Was there -- tell us, was there a stage? What did
7 you see when you arrived there?

8 A. Upon arriving, when I got off the exit, maybe, I don't know,
9 a quarter mile down the road there was a stage, what looked like
10 a wooden stage you would see at a rally, if you will, where 11 speakers will go up. That was to my left. And to my right was 12 sort of a -- I guess you would say a hill. And in the road
13 there were a bunch of cars. People were starting to pile in.
14 And at that time in the morning it was sort of, you know, you
15 just saw that there was activity starting.

16 Q. Okay. When you say activities, what do you mean by that?

17 A. Well, participants coming together for what was obviously a
18 planned rally. And pretty much it -- without you asking more
19 details, I don't know what else it is you're looking for.

20 Q. Okay. Did there come a time when -- did you ever know any 21 of the Bundys: Cliven Bundy, Ammon Bundy, David, did you know
22 any of them prior to the 12th?

23 A. I did not know any of them. I had spoke to the daughter. I
24 believe her name is Bailey. I had spoke to her on the phone
25 briefly just to get some information about the event, because I

1 was actually going there on behalf of Fox News and Megyn Kelly,
2 who used to be called The Kelly File. So you just sort of call
3 in advance to make sure that the event is taking place,
4 whatever, because I was coming from New York. So I was looking
5 to basically just -- you know, a lot of times things like this,
6 in my business, they cancel at the last second, so that's why I
7 had made the phone call.

8 Q. Okay. So you talked about a stage. Did there ever come a
9 time when you saw Mr. Bundy, Cliven Bundy, on the stage?

10 A. Yeah. First Ammon Bundy was speaking for quite some time,
11 and then his father did come up on the stage.

12 Q. Okay. And was -- did anybody join them on the stage?

13 A. Yeah, there were a bunch of people up there. I mean, Ammon
14 being one of them. I believe Cliven's wife was there, and there
15 was some other participants. There were members of, I guess you 16 would call it, the militia, and there was also at one point the 17 local sheriff.

18 Q. Okay. Do you remember approximately what time the local 19 sheriff got up on the stage?

20 A. Unfortunately, I don't recall.

21 Q. Okay. Do you remember who took the stage first, who spoke
22 first? Was it -- did Cliven Bundy speak prior to the sheriff?

23 A. It was -- well, Ammon Bundy was the first person to take the 24 stage for the day. Then there were a couple of other people.
25 And then Cliven took the stage, and the sheriff took the stage.

1 And I think Cliven spoke first, and then the sheriff spoke
2 second.

3 Q. Okay. Do you remember what the sheriff said?

4 A. Well, I don't remember exactly what he said, but I -- he was 5 there in reference to the fact that he was announcing that the 6 BLM was withdrawing from the area. I don't remember what you'd 7 call the area, but they were withdrawing from the area.

8 Q. Okay. Now, from that point did you stay around the stage
9 after you heard that announcement?

10 A. Yes. There -- after the announcement was made, Cliven Bundy
11 had requested that within the hour that BLM were -- was to 12 withdraw from the area, and that they were also -- he wanted
13 them to hand over their guns. And he gave them an hour to come
14 back to confirm that was true. So I was there for that hour,
15 but the sheriff never returned.

16 Q. Okay. What did you do after the hour?

17 A. Well, when the sheriff didn't return, Cliven had made an 18 announcement that he -- well, I don't know if he necessarily 19 said himself, but he said that everybody was going to an area
20 that you in Nevada call the wash. And that's where I think the 21 cattle or the BLM was at least staged and the cattle was behind
22 that. You'll have to forgive me, I don't know the name of the 23 roads and I -- being from New York, we use different sort of 24 language.

25 But there was an indication that it was time to go, if

1 you will, to go get the cattle and to speak head-to-head, I
2 guess, with the BLM. And that at that point I got into the
3 truck with Ammon Bundy and his wife and two other gentlemen, who
4 I don't recall who they were, and we drove to the wash.

5 Q. And how far -- how long did it take you to get to the wash
6 from the rally? Do you remember?

7 A. I'm going to say 20 minutes, but you could -- you know, give
8 or take five minutes either way, I guess.

9 Q. When you got to the wash area, what did you guys do? Park
10 the car?

11 A. Yeah. I mean, the first thing was obviously park the truck,
12 and then we were -- we were -- we were the first people to get
13 there. Ammon was sort of the leader of the long parade of cars,
14 if you will. And so we got out, and as we got out, I basically 15 started filming the cars packing in.

16 Q. Okay. And from -- and so that was at a parking lot. You
17 wouldn't know what Post 1 is, would you?

18 A. No. And, you know, again, what I consider a parking lot,
19 what you consider a parking lot is different things. To me it
20 was just the side of the highway, sort of like a dirt patch.

21 Q. Okay. Then a lot -- sorry. Go ahead.

22 A. It wasn't paved. I mean, it wasn't like a parking lot like
23 you go and there's lines and things of that nature.

24 Q. Right.

25 A. But it was, you know, you pull your car over, I guess, there

1 if you wanted to take a rest or make a phone call or something
2 of that nature.

3 Q. Okay. So you were one of the first ones to arrive, you
4 said?

5 A. We were the first ones to arrive.

6 Q. What did you do at that point?

7 A. Well, as I said, I got out and I started to film because
8 more cars were coming in. And across the street it looked like
9 there was a mix of BLM and local authorities, and I was filming
10 a lot of that.

11 Q. Okay. Did you go anywhere from that point?

12 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that?

13 Q. Did you go anywhere? Did you stay in that --

14 A. Did I go anywhere?

15 Q. From that parking area.

16 A. No, I -- I crossed the street. I mean, at that part the 17 highway sort of splits into two. You've got traffic going in 18 one direction. Then there's, like, a -- I guess you would say a
19 parking lot in between the other side of where the highway's
20 going in the other direction. And that, for the most part, was 21 where some of the police were, the local police. So I would go
22 over there a little bit, and then I would come back over the 23 road. But I basically stayed in that vicinity for quite some 24 time until I went down into the wash.

25 Q. Okay. So you went down into the wash?

1 A. Eventually I did, yes.

2 Q. Okay. And do you know how you got there? Did you walk?

3 Which way --

4 A. Yeah, I walked. It's downhill. So, you know, I basically
5 just -- I walk -- well, actually I sort of ran, to be honest,
6 because at that point I was told that Ammon Bundy and some of 7 the other supporters, if you will, were going to face off with 8 the BLM. And I wanted to make sure I was there.

9 Q. Okay. So where did you meet up with these other supporters?

10 A. Again, you're probably familiar so I don't know if you need
11 me to describe what the wash looks like, but you've got the --
12 the highway at that point splits, and so now you've got what we 13 call an overpass. And so there's the overpass on our side and 14 there's an overpass on the other side. I would have to guess
15 about 100 yards separating the two.

16 And so when I went down the -- Ammon Bundy and some of 17 his supporters were there, and they were talking about what they 18 were going to do next in terms of moving forward towards the 19 BLM. And they got down to the prayer, and I was in the midst of 20 that recording most of it with my camera.

21 Q. All right. If I told you it was a northbound bridge, would 22 you agree with that or would you have no idea?

23 A. I wouldn't know if we were going north or south, no. I
24 wouldn't know.

25 Q. Do you remember where the prayer was? Was it directly under

1 the bridge or was it to the side of that bridge -- underpass?

2 A. I -- it was just to the side, and it was -- if that is the
3 northbound lane and the BLM was on the southbound lane, they
4 took a knee north of the northbound lane.

5 Q. Okay. Gotcha.

6 All right. At some point -- now, tell me, was it hot
7 that day?

8 A. Yes, it was very hot that day.

9 Q. All right. Were there people -- you know, you said there
10 were BLM agents. Were there people on the other side across 11 from the southbound bridge that you could see?

12 A. Yes. So if we were -- if we were north of the northbound
13 bridge, they were south of the southbound bridge, but right
14 there up against it.

15 Q. Okay. And can you describe what you saw.

16 A. Yeah. If you're from -- if you're on the north side looking 17 over at the south side, again you're going across 100 yards, but 18 from what I could see, there was almost, like, a fence. I guess
19 you would call it a cattle fencing, that sort -- it wasn't a 20 chain link or anything. It just, like, a cattle fencing. And 21 on the other side of that were trucks, I believe, were for the 22 BLM, sort of like SO -- SUVs, if you will. And members of the 23 BLM, they were there and holding guns and BDU dress and military 24 style.

25 Q. Okay. And what about -- did you hear anything at that

1 point? Any announcements?

2 A. At that point there wasn't any announcements. And the only
3 thing I could hear at that point, other than the prayers and
4 everybody's chatter, was there was a helicopter overhead. But I
5 didn't hear anything specific until the movement toward the BLM
6 started to take place.

7 Q. Okay. Let's talk about that. At some point you did move
8 ahead into the middle of the wash?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. Did anybody follow you, of the people that -- or did
11 they stay in the back?

12 A. Okay. No, what wound up taking place is that when the 13 prayer was finished, there was some debate as to who would go
14 forward to the BLM. And one person suggested that one person
15 would go and then somebody else said, No, we go together. It
16 just -- it was a situation where I thought that it would be best
17 for me to just go alone, so I went alone.

18 Q. Okay. Were you filming that at the time?

19 A. As -- yes. I mean, my camera was rolling. Yeah, I was 20 catching visuals and audio, but by far not my best work because,
21 first of all, I'm walking; and second of all is, I was a bit
22 nervous at the time.

23 Q. And why were you nervous?

24 A. Oh, because it was a situation that was getting heated,
25 and -- I'm hearing -- I'm hearing -- the reason why I'm pausing

1 is I'm hearing myself. For some reason I'm getting a reverb, so
2 I apologize.

3 But -- so I was nervous because there were guns in the 4 area. And, you know, the BLM was there and I thought that I had
5 heard that, you know, If you move forward, you will be shot.
6 And people behind me were saying that they heard the same thing.
7 And I was told prior to going down into the was from a gentleman
8 who was wearing a staff shirt -- I don't know what that exactly
9 meant, but he was on the north side. He was on the Bundy side,
10 if you will. And he said that they had heard over the radio
11 that if anybody approached the BLM and tried to get the cows,
12 that they had the approval to shoot.

13 So I didn't want anybody to get hurt, myself included.
14 And I thought that if I moved forward, being that I had nothing
15 to do with the situation at all. I was from New York. I was 16 there as a member of the media. A lot of the people that were 17 there knew who I was because at that time I was on Fox News all
18 the time. And so I just thought that it would be good if maybe
19 somebody who had no skin in the game, so to say, went and tried
20 to just make kind of a difficult situation peaceful.

21 Q. And did you do that?

22 A. I'd like to believe I did. Nobody got shot that day, and it
23 wound up becoming a situation where I think everybody got what
24 they wanted at the time.

25 Q. Okay. Well, let's go back. When you say you thought you

1 could handle the situation, what did you do in order to handle
2 that situation?

3 A. What I did was I walked forward and I was trying to call out
4 the BLM because the difficulty of that day was that it was so
5 windy that it was very hard to ascertain exactly what it was 6 being said over the loudspeaker by the BLM. And so I was trying
7 to move forward to tell them that the people behind me did not
8 want to get hurt, that they were just looking to come forward
9 and to speak, but that they were afraid that they were going to 10 be shot at.

11 And I was just trying to speak to somebody on the other
12 side of the BLM. And I walked over and I lifted up my shirt. I
13 showed them I had no gun. I said it a bunch of different times
14 that, you know, I was from New York and from the media. And,
15 you know, I just tried to go forward and tried to make peace
16 with -- with both sides.

17 Q. Did it work out? Were you -- when you say trying to speak
18 with the BLM, why are you saying "trying"? Why are you using 19 the word "trying"?

20 A. Well, because it's not like I'm talking to you now. You
21 know, I'm yelling across 100 yards and 50 yards and 30 yards and 22 I'm getting closer. And, unfortunately, I wasn't getting the 23 sort of response I was looking for, which was, Sure, come on 24 over and we'll speak to you. I kept on getting some sort of 25 message read off to me on the loudspeaker as if it was being

1 read from a piece of paper. And then additionally, once in a
2 while somebody would yell back from the BLM side, you know, Go
3 back.

4 And so, anyway, I was just trying to get a conversation
5 sparked with them. And I'd like to believe it served its 6 purpose because soon after they wound up sending in, I believe
7 his name is, Agent Love and he wound up having a conversation
8 with myself and the Bundys.

9 Q. All right. Before we get to Agent Love, did you ever return
10 back to the protestors that were underneath the northbound
11 bridge, the prayer group, as you called it?

12 A. Well, yeah, at that point the prayer had ended and so the 13 participants that were with the Bundys had now moved underneath
14 the bridge. So they were actually standing in the shade because 15 it was so hot that day. And I had turned back, actually, twice.
16 Once, I turned back just in general because somebody started to 17 come forward, and I turned back and yelled at him, Move back.
18 You're going to get me shot. And that person stopped moving
19 forward and they did go back.

20 And then I eventually did go back to the wash because I
21 felt at that point I wasn't getting anything accomplished like I
22 wanted to; although, ultimately it worked out. But at that 23 point I went back and spoke to the people who were under the
24 bridge.

25 Q. Okay. When you spoke to people, did you relay any of kind

1 of message to the people?

2 A. Yeah, I told them that from what I heard it appeared as if
3 they had said that, you know, If you moved forward, you would be
4 shot. That's basically the same thing that they had thought
5 they heard prior to me walking up; because when the prayer was 6 over, like I said, everybody moved underneath the bridge and
7 that's when I made my determination that I would move forward.
8 And I actually asked somebody behind me -- because I didn't know
9 who owned the wash. I didn't know if it was state property,
10 Bundy property. I didn't know whose it was. And I said, If I
11 move forward, am I allowed to go in that space? And they said,
12 Yeah. Well, if you do, you're going to get shot. And so that 13 was it, you know. So that's -- I don't know what else to say to 14 you about that.

15 Q. Okay. After you left the -- did there come a point where 16 you left that position underneath the northbound bridge, the 17 protestors, if you will?

18 A. Yeah. So just so this way to be accurate, I moved forward
19 toward the BLM. I think that lasted for approximately 20 10 minutes, give or take a couple of minutes. Then I walked 21 back to the underpass. And right after I got back to the 22 underpass, probably within seconds, if I recall correctly, the 23 horses -- men on horses, cowboys, they came underneath the 24 bridge. And what I did is, I ran ahead and ran off to the side
25 along -- call that maybe the apron, more southbound as the

1 horses and Bundy supporters all started to file into the wash
2 moving toward ...

3 Q. Okay. So you call it an apron, like, a skirt? The skirt
4 underneath the bridge, that concrete or cement area?

5 A. Yeah, that's on a -- it's on a steep -- a steep angle.

6 Q. Okay. And so you were up on that skirt. Is that the time
7 when the horses came into the wash?

8 A. Yes, the horses and Bundys only got about halfway through
9 the wash and that's when Agent Love came. And when I saw Agent
10 Love come into the situation, I ran down to the fence, to the 11 -- I guess you would call it the cattle fence.

12 Q. Okay. Did you come in contact with Agent Love?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what did -- did you have a conversation with him?

15 A. It was brief. He wanted to speak with the Bundys.

16 Q. Were you one of the first, sort of, people on that side of 17 the bridge, the northern side of the bridge, that approached the 18 gate?

19 A. Yes, both times. The first time I was the only person, the 20 one I explained to you when I moved forward with my camera by 21 myself. And then the second time when I ran down there, it was 22 myself and, I believe, one or two other gentlemen. And 23 eventually another camera person from a local Nevada station had 24 also.

25 Q. Okay. Do you remember, did Agent Love summon you over or

1 ask somebody to come on over to talk to him or ...

2 A. You know, I wouldn't -- I don't recall. I mean, I did see
3 him come over and it was very clear to me or at least, you know,
4 I got the impression that he was the guy in charge and that he
5 was coming to talk. And so that's why I wanted to run down
6 right away. And I wanted to be the person that he spoke to.

7 Q. Okay. And from there did you ever cross over the gate, that 8 gate area, and go onto where the BLM actually was?

9 A. Yes, I did. Eventually what wound up happening was that 10 Agent Love, like I said, asked to speak to the Bundy boys.
11 David and Ammon Bundy went to the gate. So did all of the 12 supporters, but then, you know, we asked the supporters to move
13 back, not to crowd the gate. The situation was obviously 14 escalating in terms of emotions on both sides.

15 And so eventually what it was that the agent --
16 Agent Love, had requested that the Bundy boys come over to his 17 side, promised he wouldn't arrest them, and that a conversation
18 was to be had about releasing the cattle and making it so this
19 way the situation would be peaceful. Ammon Bundy said he wasn't 20 going over. David was reluctant. Agent Love said -- I offered
21 to go over with David. Agent Love said, Hey, look, this guy's
22 here. He's capturing the whole thing. You know, he can capture
23 the whole thing. He's got me on camera so you won't be 24 arrested. And so at that point myself, David Bundy, and the 25 cameraman from the local -- I believe it was a CBS affiliate --

1 we jumped ...

2 Q. I didn't catch that last part. I'm sorry. You what? You
3 jumped over?

4 A. Myself -- yeah, we jumped over the cattle -- the cattle
5 fence. And myself, the other cameraman from I think it was a
6 local CBS affiliate there, and David Bundy went with Agent Love
7 to have a meeting.

8 Q. And where did you go to have that meeting?

9 A. It was back up on the road. So it was, you know, we walked
10 up the -- we walked up the apron or the skirt, as you call it,
11 and then there was more of a parking lot setting there. And it
12 was Agent Love, myself, David Bundy, the cameraman I talked to 13 you about, a few sheriffs and other law enforcement people, and 14 also Ryan Bundy.

15 Q. Your camera -- now, when you got back, did you review the 16 videos that you had taken?

17 A. When I got back, what, to New York?

19 Bunkerville?

20 A. Yes, I went back to New York. And we were -- we played some 21 of the footage on The Kelly File that night -- on Monday night.

22 Q. At some point did you meet with the FBI and give them your
23 videos?

24 A. Yes, the FBI contacted me, a gentleman named Joel, and he
25 asked me if I would send him every bit of video that I had.

1 Told me that I would be subpoenaed for it either way. And so I
2 voluntarily handed over everything. I got the subpoena -- he
3 sent me the subpoena, but I handed over everything I had.

4 Q. Okay. Did your video -- did you edit any of your videos
5 prior to handing them over to the FBI?

6 A. Did I -- well, yes and no. In terms of the edited, the 7 videos that were given to the FBI, no, I didn't touch any of 8 those. He got the raw footage. But in terms of editing what
9 was seen on The Kelly File, just cutting it down.

10 Q. Okay. Did you review the videos that you handed over to the 11 FBI prior to you handing them over?

12 A. Well, yeah, I mean, you have to look through all of -- you
13 know, as an editor, if somebody's going to be putting things on 14 television, I had to look through everything I had, and -- so
15 you get the best stuff, obviously.

16 Q. Okay. And they fairly and accurately represented what you
17 saw and heard that day on your -- on your videos?

18 A. Absolutely.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll ...

21 (Defense counsel conferring.)

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I pass the witness.

23 Thank you very much, Mr. Lynch.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Am I done?

25 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre, cross-examination?

1 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Lynch. This is Steve Myhre speaking.

5 A. Hi.

6 Q. And let me know if you can't hear any of my questions. I
7 know there's probably some bit of a delay between my voice
8 communication and what you ultimately hear.

9 A. Hold on one second. Can we test something? I'd like to try
10 to put the phone down for a second and see if I can just do it
11 with the headphones. Give me one second.

12 All right. Go ahead and speak.

13 MR. MYHRE: Can you hear me? Can you hear me speaking,
14 Mr. Lynch?

15 THE WITNESS: Okay. No, I'm going to do it with the 16 phone. Go ahead.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Okay. So going back to the stage when Mr. Bundy spoke after 19 the sheriff left and the sheriff didn't come back, Mr. Bundy
20 spoke again, correct?

21 A. Say that one more time.

22 Q. When you -- at the staging area, you saw the sheriff speak,
23 correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you saw the sheriff leave, right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the sheriff didn't come back, correct?

3 A. Sheriff never came back.

4 Q. And Mr. Bundy took the stage again, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And Mr. Bundy told the crowd to -- in essence, to go get the
7 cattle, correct?

8 A. In not -- not in those exact words, but yes.

9 Q. Did you understand him -- after you listened to him, did you
10 understand him to say, Go get the cattle?

11 A. Again, I don't remember the exact words he used, but it was 12 basically referencing to go to the wash and -- and to bring back
13 the cattle, I guess you could say that, yes.

14 Q. Well, I'm just asking for what your understanding was -- 15 based on your recollection now what your understanding was. And 16 I take it from your answer that you understood him to mean go to 17 the wash to go get the cattle?

18 A. I would say that -- I don't want to put any words in my
19 mouth; other than the words I'd like to say, which is that I
20 recall him saying that he was going to give one hour for the 21 sheriff to come back. And then if the sheriff did not come
22 back, and then, if I had to remember his exact words, there was 23 something to the line of, Go do what you have to do, or 24 something to that level. I don't remember if he ever said the 25 exact words, Go get the cattle.

1 Q. Right. I'm not asking you what you remember. I'm asking
2 you what you understood.

3 A. I understood that my job was to follow wherever the crowd
4 was going, and that's what I understood at the time.

5 Q. No, I didn't mean to ask you -- didn't mean to ask you what
6 you understood your job to be. I meant -- I asked you what you
7 understood his words to mean to you.

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. All right. So when -- after he said these words that now
10 you have no recollection of what you understood, then did you
11 see people with guns at that time after he spoke?

12 A. Where?

13 Q. In front of the stage.

14 A. Yes, there were people with guns.

15 Q. Did you see them passing in front of the stage?

16 A. Yes, they were on the stage, in front of the stage, walking
17 around the stage. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. After Mr. Bundy spoke, did those people leave that 19 area and get in cars to go to the wash?

20 A. I don't know what they did. I was the first -- we were in 21 the first car. So when it was over, the first thing I did was 22 ask Ammon Bundy if I could get a ride.

23 Q. So --

24 A. He said yes, so --

25 Q. So you didn't see what the people with the guns did?

1 A. I did not see what -- I did not see what they did exactly
2 right after they were done speaking, no.

3 Q. When you got to the wash, did you see supporters of 4 Mr. Bundy with guns?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And did you see them in the assembly area or the area where
7 you described as the little area where people pulled off, did
8 you see people there with guns?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Did you see people getting out of their vehicles with guns?

11 A. I saw people riding in the back of vehicles with guns.

12 Q. So you saw people arriving in the area with guns, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And, in fact, the person that you spoke with who you said
15 heard on the radio or overheard someone say that there was radio
16 traffic to the effect that they were -- that BLM was authorized 17 to shoot, that person had a gun, too, didn't he?

18 A. He did have a gun, yes.

19 Q. Now, when you rode up from the staging area to the -- excuse
20 me -- from the stage, that part where Mr. Bundy made his speech,
21 up to the wash area, you rode with Ammon Bundy, correct?

22 A. I got from the stage to the wash area by riding in the front
23 seat of Ammon Bundy's pickup truck.

24 Q. And when you were riding with him, you spoke to him?

25 A. I did.

1 Q. And you asked him what -- in essence, what he was going to
2 do when he got there, correct?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. And he told you they were there to get the cattle, right?

5 A. I don't remember his exact words at this point; but, yeah,
6 it was more or less that they were going to go get the cattle.

7 Q. And you asked him -- didn't he at one point say words to the 8 effect of, Well, if a thug moves to your neighborhood, you deal
9 with them. Is that right?

10 A. He had asked me.

11 Q. Yeah, he asked you that question -- oh, Mr. Lynch, are you
12 there?

13 A. I am here, yes.

14 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. We lost your image on the screen, but you
15 can hear me fine. Is that correct?

16 A. I can hear you loud and clear, yes.

17 Q. So, in essence, you asked Mr. Bundy -- or Mr. Bundy asked
18 you, If a thug moves into your neighborhood, do you deal with 19 them. And then you answered, Yes, correct?

20 A. Yeah, if I recall correctly, I asked him, What was the plan?
21 And I believe he responded to the nature of what you're saying,
22 If thugs came into your neighborhood, would -- would you deal
23 with them? And I said, Yes. And he responded, You would?
24 Surprising -- surprised that I said yes. And I said, Yeah, I'd 25 deal with them. He said, You'd deal with them? You'd let them

1 stay? And so then this is what I was talking about before about
2 the way that maybe you speak in Nevada and how we speak in New 3 York.

4 I was deeming it as, Would you deal with them, meaning
5 like, you know, would I go after them or would I deal with them
6 physically. And I -- that's why I said, Yes, if they came into
7 my -- I don't even know if he said your neighborhood. I think
8 he may have said in your house. But, you know, I was saying,
9 Yes, in the sense of, Yeah, I would deal with it. I wouldn't 10 just turn my back to it.

11 And he meant that -- what I understood is that he meant
12 it like you shouldn't have to deal with it.

13 Q. You -- in fact, when you said deal with them, you said, I
14 meant in a New York kind of way, or words to that effect,
15 correct?

16 A. Yeah. And we were -- we were laughing.

17 Q. And you were laughing. And your -- when you said that, it
18 was your communication to him that you would -- you meant by 19 that that you would deal with it in some sort of physical way or 20 confrontational way. Is that correct?

21 A. No.

22 Q. No, you did not? You did not intend to convey that meaning?
23 The New York kind of way would not be a confrontation or using
24 force?

25 A. No. Actually, in New York we don't have guns like you do.

1 In fact, it's very hard to get a gun here. When somebody's
2 asking me if somebody walked into my house would I deal with
3 them, the answer is, yes, I would deal with them. So that's 4 what I meant. I didn't mean I was going to turn my back on 5 them. So that's where my message was.

6 And, again, because we're from two different places --
7 and the same thing. You know, you refer to a dirt area as a
8 wash. We don't use that sort of terms here. I've said this to 9 -- people have asked me before when you say the word "wash" here
10 in New York, that means laundry to me. So I --

11 Q. I'm not talking about the wash, Mr. Lynch. I'm talking
12 about your conversation with Ammon Bundy in his vehicle on the 13 way to the impoundment site where the BLM was located. And when 14 you -- when you conveyed to him that you would -- when you said
15 the word "deal with them," you meant in a New York kind of way,
16 did you understand his response -- was it your understanding
17 that his intent was to create a confrontation with the BLM?

18 A. I never really meant to or designed to or wanted to sit
19 there and interpret his every single word like you're asking me
20 to. I was asking him simply what the plan was just so this way
21 I could know -- I would be in position. So -- and I mean
22 position, I mean with my camera. So --

23 Q. Well, what did you understand the plan -- what did you
24 understand the plan to be after you asked him that question?

25 A. I -- to be quite honest with you, sir, the reason why I

1 walked forward to the BLM is because I didn't see any good plans
2 on either side. To be perfectly frank and honest, I thought
3 this entire thing was a complete mess on both sides.

4 Q. I didn't ask what --

5 A. So --

6 Q. I didn't ask you whether it was a good plan or a bad plan --
7 Mr. Lynch, please, sir.

8 A. You asked me what the plan was.

9 Q. I'm asking -- I asked you what your impression of what the 10 plan was based on Mr. Bundy's response to you in the car or in 11 the truck, whatever vehicle you were riding in.

12 A. And I have answered you. I did not see or understand any 13 sort of clear plan whatsoever throughout the entire day.

14 Q. What was your impression, then, as to what his purpose was 15 in going there, based on your conversation with him in the 16 truck?

17 A. My impression the entire day was that this is a complete
18 mess and I have no idea what's going on here.

19 Q. So is it your testimony you had no idea what Mr. Bundy meant
20 when he said, Would you deal with a thug if he moved into your 21 neighborhood?

22 A. I -- in terms of how to deal with the BLM?

23 Q. I'm asking you what your impression was of what he meant
24 when he said that.

25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. Okay. So when you get to the impoundment site, we talked
2 about how you saw people getting out of vehicles or arriving in
3 vehicles with guns. Was it your impression that there were a
4 lot of guns in the area from -- you know, on the people who were 5 arriving in these cars and these trucks and these vehicles?

6 A. As a guy from New York, anything more than one gun seems
7 like a lot.

8 Q. So it was your impression that there were a number of guns
9 there. Is that correct?

10 A. I saw a lot of guns there.

11 Q. You also saw the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You saw them lined up across the road, the median area?

14 A. I saw them filing in, yes.

15 Q. Did you see them when they formed a line in the median?

16 A. Yes, they were in the median. And there was also -- I don't 17 know if it was the police or the BLM on the south side of the 18 road. There were also trucks and people there as well.

19 Q. So you -- did you understand these people in the median to 20 be law enforcement?

21 A. Based on their dress, yes.

22 Q. And did you understand that the BLM also was in this area?

23 A. I ... I guess they were from the sense that that's what 24 people were saying, but I could not tell the difference between 25 who is from the sheriff's department or from the Metro Police or

1 from the BLM. To me it was just, you know, law enforcement was
2 there.

3 Q. And so at least from your impression of what you saw, the 4 people where the -- on the other side of the median were law
5 enforcement people?

6 A. On the south side was the law enforcement people. On the 7 north side would be the Bundy people.

8 Q. Okay. And you were on -- and then after you were up in the 9 area by the -- where the cars had pulled over, then you moved
10 down into the, what we've called the wash area, which you
11 understand now to be the wash, right?

12 A. Yes, they eventually moved downward.

13 Q. When you got down to the wash, there were people gathered
14 under the -- sort of, just by the northbound bridge underneath
15 the bridge. Is that correct?

16 A. Yes, when I got down there, there was a crowd of people
17 there. Yes.

18 Q. And you said, I believe, in your testimony that they formed
19 some sort of prayer circle or said a prayer?

20 A. Yeah, they all took a knee and started saying, yeah, a
21 prayer of some kind.

22 Q. And when you got down there and you saw this, did you look
23 to the north and see the fence underneath the northbound bridge?

24 A. As I've already said, yes.

25 Q. Or the southbound bridge?

1 A. The fence was on the southbound -- if the BLM was on the
2 south side, if that's the south bridge, yes, I said that I saw
3 them there and there was a fence there, yes.

4 Q. So you saw -- and did you see any weapons pointed at you
5 when you got down there?

6 A. When I got down there when we were doing the prayer?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. I was filming the prayer. I didn't see any guns, no.

9 Q. You saw no guns raised at anybody from the BLM?

10 A. When -- during the prayer circle, my back was to the BLM,
11 but when everybody stood up and sort of was looking back and 12 forth, I could just tell that there was law enforcement there.
13 I didn't see anybody specific pointing a gun at me or anybody.

14 Q. And you recognized the people on the other side of that 15 fence to be law enforcement, right?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And you moved out then from the bridge after you
18 determined -- or at least you felt that the people that you were 19 with under that northbound bridge were going to move forward,
20 right?

21 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that question?

22 Q. Sure. You talked about how you went ahead of everybody. Is 23 that right? In moving toward --

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. Yeah, you went in front of or before everybody else. You

1 sort of walked out into the middle of the wash toward where the
2 BLM law enforcement officers were. Is that right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And you did that because you felt that the people under the 5 bridge were going to be moving forward, right?

6 A. No, I did that because I wanted to get involved as maybe a
7 mediator, if you will, because I just sensed that the situation
8 was getting escalated.

9 Q. Well, you sensed it was getting escalated because you knew
10 that they were determined to move -- the people under the 11 wash -- or excuse me -- under the bridge were determined to move
12 out into the wash. Isn't that right?

13 A. No, that's not right. I moved forward for the same reason
14 that I have said multiple times that I moved forward. I moved 15 forward because the situation was getting escalated because the 16 person up at the top had told me that the radio announcement was 17 that they were permitted to shoot -- and I don't know the exact
18 words, but I could go back to look at my videotapes and get the 19 exact words.

20 And that I did not feel comfortable that with them on 21 the other side making an announcement that sounded as if they 22 were saying, Don't move forward or you could be shot. People
23 behind me saying if I move forward I could be shot. A person at 24 the top saying that there's going to be shooting. Seeing guns
25 on both sides now at this point from all over the place, knowing

1 how many law enforcement was there, I felt as if that, maybe,
2 lives could be saved on both sides if somebody with some common
3 sense and no skin in the game at that particular moment was to 4 move forward and try to speak on a level mind, if you will. And
5 that's why I moved forward.

6 Q. All right. You said a number of things there. But with
7 respect to what BLM was saying, what the law enforcement
8 officers were saying, I thought you testified that you could not
9 hear what they were saying.

10 A. So the message was hard to decipher exactly word for word,
11 but everybody thought that the message was, If you moved
12 forward, you would be shot.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Because it was so windy ...

15 Q. Without focusing on what everybody thought, what did you
16 hear?

17 A. I heard what I thought was to be, You can be shot. I don't
18 know the exact words. I don't recall them.

19 Q. You don't recall the words, but now you're testifying that 20 you have some sort of an impression that that's what was being 21 said over the loudspeaker?

22 A. What I said to you was, I don't recall the exact words.

23 Q. Well, what do you recall them saying over the loudspeaker?

24 A. I recall them saying a message where they were explaining, I
25 can't remember the exact words at this point, that some sort of

1 law -- whatever it may be that they were saying. I can't
2 remember the exact, but it sounded as if at some point they were
3 saying, If you move forward, you could be in violation. You
4 could be shot. I asked somebody behind me if they knew.
5 Somebody said, If you go forward into that area, you could be
6 shot.

7 So I don't remember exactly what it was. That's why I
8 was moving closer. One of the reasons being that I was moving
9 closer was to try to get a better earshot of what was being
10 said.

11 Q. So as you're moving closer, did you see guns raised at you
12 from the law enforcement?

13 A. As I moved forward, I did see men holding guns and I saw
14 some of them behind -- behind, like, open doors -- I believe
15 it's open doors -- in what I would consider a military-style
16 position.

17 Q. And military-style position is what?

18 A. Holding a gun and they were dressed in military, so that's 19 why I got that impression.

20 Q. So your --

21 A. But I don't --

22 Q. So, in essence, what you're saying is that you saw people in 23 a uniform wearing -- holding a gun. Is that correct?

24 A. I saw men in what appeared to me as being military-style
25 clothing holding guns and walking around. There was a guy with

1 a bullhorn. There was a lot of different stuff. It was a long
2 time ago, so I don't exactly remember what every single member
3 there was doing.

4 Q. Okay. But you knew they were law enforcement, correct?

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And so as you moved forward then, I believe we've seen your
7 video where you move forward, and you're continually asking
8 them -- asking the law enforcement officers whether they are 9 going to shoot. Is that what your questions were, in essence,
10 to them?

11 A. I asked -- if I recall my words, I believe I said, Are you
12 really going to shoot these people? That's one of the questions
13 I asked.

14 Q. And did you hear what their -- and you couldn't hear their 15 response over the loudspeaker because of the wind. Is that
16 correct?

17 A. It was very hard to decipher what they were saying. And per 18 your reference to my videos that we've all watched, it's very 19 clear that I continued to ask them and say that I can't hear
20 you.

21 Q. And it's very clear from your video as well that they
22 continue to say, Move back, that you're in violation of court
23 order, move back. Isn't that right?

24 A. Very clear that they continued to say something.

25 Q. And those words are recorded on your video, correct?

1 A. Words are recorded on my video.

2 Q. But you couldn't -- it's your testimony you couldn't hear
3 those words because of the wind in your ears down in the wash.
4 Is that right?

5 A. No, sir. I could hear words being spoken, but I could not 6 decipher the exact words that were being spoken.

7 Q. Okay. So now you're standing there, and how far were you
8 from the gate at your furthest-most point when you moved forward
9 to the gate?

10 A. You mean my closest?

11 Q. Yes. How close? What's the closest?

12 A. How close -- how close did I get? 30 yards.

13 Q. Okay. You're 30 yards from the gate and you're standing
14 there and you're asking -- you're trying to talk to the officers
15 on the other side of the gate. Is that a fair statement?

16 A. I was trying to have them speak to me normally, not through 17 the loudspeaker system, yes.

18 Q. And they were clearly not engaging you in conversation,
19 correct?

20 A. One -- one person did actually say something to me that did
21 not come over the loudspeaker, and that I could clearly hear.

22 Q. What did he say?

23 A. Move back.

24 Q. So you heard him say, Move back. Did you move back?

25 A. Actually I did, yes.

1 Q. At some point when you were standing there -- and how far
2 back did you move after you moved back?

3 A. I eventually went back to the northbound bridge.

4 Q. Well, you eventually went back. Did you go back to the
5 northbound bridge after the person you heard say, Move back, did
6 you then go back to the bridge or did you stay there?

7 A. What I recall, shortly right after he said that I started to 8 go back.

9 Q. Okay. Immediately or was there still some time lapse before
10 you left?

11 A. I would have to watch my video to give you the exact time,
12 sir, but I did that shortly after. And I'm guessing it was 13 right afterwards, but without seeing the video I wouldn't know
14 the exact time, if you're asking me an exact time frame.

15 Q. So when you're within 30 yards -- you said 30 yards of the 16 gate at your furthest-most point?

17 A. On or about 30 yards.

18 Q. Anybody point any rifles or weapons at you that you saw?

19 A. I don't know if they were pointed exactly right at me.

20 Q. I'm sorry. You don't recall or you didn't see? I didn't
21 hear your response.

22 A. I don't recall if they were pointed right exactly at me.

23 Q. Well, that would be something you'd recall right? I mean,
24 if someone points a rifle at you, you'd recall that?

25 A. No, actually, what it is is that when there's a situation of

1 that kind where you think that there could be shots fired and
2 you're trying to videotape at the same time as trying to be a
3 mediator and save lives, you know, I wasn't sitting there in the 4 way that you're trying to depict the way I was just standing
5 there, as if I'm taking in every last sight and trying to see
6 every single last thing.

7 I was trying to get a message conveyed over at the same
8 time as, you know, my heart is -- is beating fast, and I know I
9 got one guy who already tried coming up behind me. So I was 10 trying to stay alive and trying to keep other people alive at 11 the same time. I can't remember exactly how many people were 12 standing across the other way from me. I'd have to look at my 13 video. I don't remember if they were pointing the gun at me,
14 pointing at somebody else. I don't recall.

15 Q. You don't recall. So your testimony is you're standing
16 there 30 feet from the officers, this is a situation --

17 A. No. 30 yards.

18 Q. Hmm? Say what?

19 A. There's a difference between 30 feet and 30 yards.

20 Q. Did I say 30 feet? I meant to say 30 yards.

21 Were you 30 yards or 30 feet from that fence?

22 A. I said in my testimony 30 yards.

23 Q. And that's what I recall as well. So if I said feet, I
24 misspoke.

25 So you're there within 30 feet -- or 30 yards, excuse

1 me, of the law enforcement officers and you don't remember
2 whether they pointed a weapon at you or not?

3 A. You're asking me whether or not they were pointing a weapon
4 directly at me?

5 Q. Yes, that's what I'm asking.

6 A. I don't know if the weapon was pointed directly at me.

7 Q. Well, did you see a weapon pointed when you were up at the 8 far-most point of where you were at 30 yards?

9 A. I saw men holding weapons.

10 Q. You saw men holding -- you saw law enforcement officers
11 holding weapons, correct?

12 A. I saw weapons, yes.

13 Q. Now, at some point you were saying to the officers that you
14 were from Fox News or from the media or words to that effect.
15 Is that right?

16 A. At one point I did say that, yes.

17 Q. And you were telling them that you were unarmed. Is that
18 right?

19 A. I did tell them that I was unarmed, yes.

20 Q. And at some point didn't you reach your hand down to pull
21 your shirt up?

22 A. At one point I did. I pulled up my shirt to indicate that 23 there was no gun being hidden.

24 Q. So, and when you reached down to pull your shirt up, you
25 reached towards your waist, right?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. So which hand did you use? Your right or left hand?

3 A. I don't recall.

4 Q. So it was either your right or left hand. So you took your 5 right or left hand and reached down towards where your belt was,
6 right?

7 A. I reached down to where my pants -- my shirt was by my
8 pants, yes.

9 Q. And to pull your shirt up, you moved your hand up, correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Away from your waist or belt area. Is that right?

12 A. Pulled my shirt up with my hand.

13 Q. Your hand -- your hand, sir, moved --

14 A. My hand went up.

15 Q. Your hand went up?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And none of the officers on the other side of that gate
18 pointed a weapon at you at that point, did they?

19 A. I don't know. When I -- when I pulled my shirt up, I was 20 more than 30 yards away.

21 Q. When you pulled your shirt up, did anybody shoot at you?

22 A. Nobody shot at me all day long.

23 Q. When you put your hand down to your waist, did anybody tell
24 you to get down on the ground or to put your hands up?

25 A. I do not recall any instructions of anybody telling me to

1 hit the ground.

2 Q. Did anybody arrest you?

3 A. I was not arrested.

4 Q. Did anybody attempt to arrest you?

5 A. I was never attempted to be arrested.

6 Q. You turned around and walked away from the BLM position. Is
7 that correct?

8 A. Can you repeat that?

9 Q. Yes. When you left that area at your farthest-most point,
10 the 30 yards away from the gate, did you turn around to walk
11 back to the bridge, the northbound bridge?

12 A. Yes, I turned around and I walked backwards -- walked with 13 my back to the BLM.

14 Q. And did you walk or did you run back to the bridge?

15 A. I walked back.

16 Q. When you walked back to the bridge, did you stay under the 17 bridge at that point?

18 A. Temporarily.

19 Q. And when you got back to the area under the bridge and you
20 saw the people there, and then you told them that you thought
21 the BLM was going to shoot?

22 A. I didn't tell them that I thought that the BLM was going to 23 shoot.

24 Q. What did you tell them?

25 A. I told them that I thought I heard them say a message, but I

1 did not tell them that I thought that they were going to shoot.

2 Q. And you told them that you thought you heard them say they
3 were going to shoot?

4 A. They asked me, if I recall correctly, What -- what are they
5 saying? And I believe I told them that, I think the message is 6 if you move forward, you will be shot.

7 Q. And you told them that after you yourself had been up there
8 within 30 yards or at 30 yards and no one shot you, correct?

9 A. Well, nobody shot me. Somebody asked me what I thought I
10 heard and I told them what I thought I heard.

11 Q. Did you also tell them that you didn't see any weapons
12 pointed at you?

13 A. I don't recall if I said anything about weapons being 14 pointed at me. I just don't recall.

15 Q. Did you tell them that they were law enforcement -- was 16 there any dispute as to whether there were law enforcement
17 officers when you were down there? Did you talk to them about
18 that?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. You never spoke --

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. -- to anybody above your area there on the bridge itself,
23 correct, when you came back from your position by the BLM gate?

24 A. Did I speak to anybody above the bridge?

25 Q. Yes, on the bridge.

1 A. No, the only time I ever communicated with some -- well, if
2 you're talking about when I'm still down in the wash?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. The only time that I communicated with somebody that was up
5 on the bridge when I was down in the wash was there was a
6 gentleman at the top of the bridge who was trying to scream a
7 message to the BLM. And every time he did that, it sort of went
8 at the same time that they were trying to say their message
9 across to us. "Them" being the BLM. And one time I just told
10 him, you know, to be quiet because we can't hear what they're 11 saying. But besides from that, I talked to nobody else.

12 Q. Okay. So then after -- and I believe you testified that 13 after you got back to under the bridge, that's when the horses
14 came through, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And that's when you moved up the wash again heading north
17 toward where the law enforcement officers were, correct?

18 A. Yes, up into that apron area.

19 Q. And when you went up into -- you went up into the apron area
20 underneath the southbound bridge, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And nobody pointed a weapon at you when you went up there,
23 correct, from the BLM?

24 A. I don't know if anybody had anything pointed at me.

25 Q. Did you see anybody pointing a weapon at you?

1 A. All I saw was BLM on their side and the Bundy supporters and
2 the Bundys halfway through on the wash. I was trying to go back
3 and forth.

4 Q. So you didn't see --

5 A. I don't know if anybody --

6 Q. So you didn't see anybody pointing a weapon at you when you
7 went up onto that skirt, correct?

8 A. Not that I recall, no.

9 Q. When you were up on that skirt under the southbound bridge,
10 could you hear what the BLM officers were saying on their 11 loudspeaker?

12 A. I don't recall. I think that -- I think the messages
13 actually started to slow down at that point.

14 Q. Do you recall any words to the effect that the BLM was 15 telling people to back away?

16 A. I'm sorry. I just -- I don't recall.

17 Q. Do you recall any words, them saying that -- over the 18 loudspeaker that they were in violation of court order?

19 A. At what point, sir? When I'm up on the apron?

20 Q. When you're on the apron, yes, sir.

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. When you went down the apron and were now by the gate
23 with -- where Mr. Love was, do you recall that?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. Could you hear the BLM officers on the loudspeaker at that

1 point?

2 A. I don't know. I don't even know if -- I don't know if they
3 were even saying anything more, sir. At that point I was
4 focussed in on my conversations with Agent Love and trying to do
5 my part in getting the Bundy boys to move forward and to keep 6 the rest of the supporters to stay back. I don't know what was 7 being said by the other people.

8 Q. And then when you were speaking with -- when Mr. Ammon Bundy
9 came forward to speak to Dan Love, do you remember that?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Do you remember Ammon Bundy telling Dan Love that the BLM
12 had to leave?

13 A. I recall him saying something to that level. I don't 14 remember the exact words.

15 Q. And do you recall Agent Love telling Mr. Bundy that he was 16 not going to be arrested?

17 A. I do recall that, yes.

18 Q. And do you recall that he said that he was not going to 19 arrest any of his brothers, correct?

20 A. I don't know if he said anything about the brothers.

21 Q. When Mr. Bundy came forward --

22 A. I don't -- I don't recall the exact words. I just -- I do
23 know my impression was that he was not going to arrest anybody
24 who jumped over the fence.

25 Q. And when the -- when Mr. Bundy moved to the gate to speak

1 with Mr. -- or with Agent Love, the other people behind
2 Mr. Bundy began to move forward to the gate as well, correct?
3 A. At some point they stopped, but they were moving closer to 4 the gate and we had told them to stop. And they listened to 5 that for a period of time.
6 Q. For a period of time, and then they moved forward to the 7 gate itself, right?
8 A. Some did, yes.
9 Q. Well, there were a number of -- there were hundreds of 10 people in that wash. Do you agree with that?
11 A. Hundreds of people in the wash?
12 Q. Yes.
13 A. No, I think your number's overestimated.
14 Q. How many people do you estimate were in the wash?
15 A. My estimate would be between 50 to 70, 75, maybe. It wasn't 16 hundreds.
17 Q. So of the estimated people that you saw in the wash, they 18 moved to the gate. Is that right?
19 A. Are you asking me how many people moved to the gate?
20 Q. No. The people that you saw there, you estimated they moved
21 to the gate, correct?
22 A. A portion of the people that were down in the wash had moved
23 closer to the gate, but not all of them were at the gate.
24 Q. And as they moved to the gate, they were told to move back.
25 Is that correct?

1 A. Agent Love had asked that the Bundy brothers come forward
2 and speak to him, but that everybody else stay back. And that
3 was pretty much it. There were already at that point some other
4 people at the gate; not just myself. Those people stayed there.

5 Q. Well, my point --

6 A. And --

7 Q. I guess my question is, is that: Did the people that -- as
8 you're there and you see Bundy move forward, the other people
9 move forward as well, correct? And you said they were told to 10 stop, and they stopped momentarily you said, but they kept
11 coming anyway, ultimately, correct?

12 A. Well, no, first of all, it was the Bundy brothers, both of 13 them, came forward. And then the other ones sort of stayed
14 back. Some of them stayed back 10 yards. Some of them stayed 15 back 20 yards. Some of them were within 15 feet. Sort of 16 scattered, if you will.

17 Q. And did you see them actually move up to the gate itself?

18 A. Who's "them"?

19 Q. The people who were supporting Ammon Bundy and his brothers.

20 A. As I've noted, sir, of the people that were down there, some 21 of them moved closer than others, but it wasn't as if there was 22 this mad rush to the gate.

23 Q. I didn't ask about a mad rush. I just asked simply did they 24 move up to the gate. Did they press up against the gate?

25 A. Actually, your question isn't simple because it's not being

1 asked in a simple manner. There -- I've explained in multiple
2 different ways. I don't know how else to say it for you.

3 There was a crowd of people. Some of them came up to 4 the gate. Some of them were 10 feet back. Some of them were 20
5 feet back. Some of them were more than that feet back. It was 6 sort of lined up, but their -- it was not -- the entire crowd
7 was not at the gate.

8 Q. Okay. Whoever was at the gate then, did you hear the BLM
9 officers tell them to back away, to back up?

10 A. Again, I was focussed completely on what Agent Love had 11 said, and Agent Love had requested that we tell these people to 12 move back and this way the BLM could open the gate.

13 Q. Do you recall anybody rapping something on the gate making a 14 noise with it?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. You don't recall that. Do you recall -- there were no
17 arrests of anybody at the gate, correct?

18 A. There were no arrests at the gate that I saw.

19 Q. Anybody attempted to make any arrests that you saw, from the 20 BLM?

21 A. I did not see anybody make any arrests or attempt to make
22 arrests.

23 Q. Nobody used any batons?

24 A. There was no violence at the gate.

25 Q. There was no use of force at the gate?

1 A. No violence, use of force at the gate.

2 Q. Now, you talked about going over the gate and speaking up
3 toward the ICP. I really don't want to go into that, but I
4 would like to know, you know, since this event, have you had any
5 conversations with Ammon Bundy?

6 A. Yes, I interviewed him from jail.

7 Q. And you interviewed him where? Was this in Oregon?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And have you had conversations -- aside from that interview
10 with Mr. Bundy in Oregon, have you had conversations with any of 11 the members of the Bundy family?

12 A. After that event? Yes.

13 Q. Yes.

14 And were those conversations in person or by telephone?

15 A. Some of the conversations were by telephone. None of them
16 were in person.

17 Q. And who did you speak with from the Bundy family?

18 A. I had Carol -- I had Carol Bundy on my television show. I
19 had Lisa Bundy on my television show. I had, I believe, Bailey
20 Bundy on my television show. And, I believe, Mel -- Mel Bundy's
21 wife spoke to me on the phone.

22 Q. And in any of your conversations with all those members of 23 the Bundy family, did you express support for them?

24 A. In what sense?

25 Q. Have you expressed support? Have you said that, for

1 example, that you support what they do or what they're standing
2 for?

3 A. Have I support what they do, what they -- what they stand
4 for. I don't know what they stand for, sir. I don't understand
5 the --

6 Q. What did you talk about -- when you invited them on the 7 show, what did you talk about?

8 A. Oh, man. I believe the one time was with regard to the 9 treatment of one of the Bundy brothers in jail. Another time
10 was about the shooting of a gentleman named -- I think I have 11 his name right -- LaVoy Finicum. That -- in terms of my show, I
12 think that's it. That's ...

13 Q. Did you ever -- did you ever express to them that you
14 believed the federal government is overreaching its authority?

15 A. Did I ever say I think the government is overreaching their 16 authority? I don't recall.

17 Q. Did you believe that the BLM, on April 12th, was 18 overreaching its authority?

19 A. With regard to what?

20 Q. With regard to their actions in the wash on April the 12th.

21 A. Unfortunately, I don't know enough about -- when you're
22 saying about overreaching their authority, I don't know enough
23 of the context of what you're trying to put that into. I will
24 say that I thought that that situation was handled poorly on all
25 ends that day. I've said that many -- many a times.

1 Q. Did you believe, though -- from what you observed, did you
2 believe the BLM was not acting appropriately within its 3 authority?

4 A. I think the BLM could have handled it better.

5 Q. I'm not asking whether you felt they could handle it better.
6 I'm asking you, did you observe them doing anything that was 7 outside of what their exercise -- or lawful exercise of their 8 duties to be?

9 A. Unfortunately, I don't have, you know, the complete
10 knowledge up and down of what their authority is and what their 11 authority is not.

12 Q. Did you know -- well, did you know that there were court
13 orders that day that the BLM was executing to gather cattle?

14 A. As I've explained to you directly many different times, I
15 was there as a camera person. I wasn't all too familiar with a
16 lot of different nuances that were taking place that day. And 17 so I was there with the objective of shooting video of what I
18 had learned about just days before. So I didn't have enough
19 time to do the sort of homework that, perhaps, would be able to 20 deliver you the sort of answer that would be what you're looking 21 for.

22 Q. I'm not looking for anything in particular. I'm asking you
23 what you knew. Did you know that on April the 12th that the BLM
24 was out there exercising court orders to gather cattle?

25 A. I didn't know anything about court orders. At that point

1 I -- from what I knew from, really, what would be described as a
2 novice's point of view, I knew that the cattle was being held by
3 the BLM and that it had something to do over grazing rights.
4 And that leading to that event was -- the only thing I knew
5 about it was the things I had seen on Hannity, which is on Fox
6 News, and that was clips that I had basically seen before I had 7 gone out.

8 Q. Now, have you also -- since, have you made a movie about the 9 Bundy -- about the Bundys?

10 A. I made a DVD, yes, with the same footage that I handed over
11 to the FBI.

12 Q. And what is the title of your DVD?

13 A. I believe it's A Day of Bundys.

14 Q. And do you narrate on that DVD?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. And do you sell that DVD for -- to make money?

17 A. Yes, we do sell DVDs to make money.

18 Q. And do you advertise on your website or something that 19 you've made this DVD?

20 A. Yes, we advertise it.

21 Q. And in your narration at all during that DVD do you talk
22 about the BLM being in any way heavy-handed?

23 A. I don't know. Embarrassingly enough, I don't watch -- I
24 don't watch my own movies. You know, I make them and then --
25 and then I move on.

1 Q. You don't remember what you said?

2 A. I don't recall what I said.

3 Q. You don't --

4 A. I don't recall. I don't recall, but I would be able to 5 watch it or if you played it in front of me, I would be able to
6 say, Yes, I said that or, No, I didn't. I don't recall what I
7 said exactly.

8 (Prosecution conferring.)

9 MR. MYHRE: No further questions, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

11 Did the Defense have any other witnesses?

12 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we do. I might need a moment
13 just to have them --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Before we go there, is Mr. Lynch
15 excused for now? I know he's --

16 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Lynch is excused.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you very much, Mr. Lynch.

18 THE WITNESS: Thank you very much.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

20 (Defense conferring.)

21 THE COURT: Does Defense have another witness to call?

22 MR. TANASI: We do, Your Honor. I'm trying to arrange
23 that right now so we can call him.

24 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

25 How many more do you have?

1 MR. TANASI: Two, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Two more?

3 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And neither of them is here?

5 MR. TANASI: Neither of them are here. Both of them
6 are attending via Skype.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't we go ahead, then, and
8 take our bathroom break. It's 2:30. We'll be back around 2:45.

9 MR. TANASI: Perfect. Thank you.

10 (Recess taken at 2:31 p.m.)

11 (Resumed at 3:11 p.m.)

12 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

13 All right. Defense may call its next witness.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Defense calls
15 Wendy Spencer.

16 THE COURT: Aaron, could you please have her sworn in.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

18 Ms. Spencer, please raise your right hand.

19 WENDY SPENCER, having duly been sworn, was examined and
20 testified as follows:

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, ma'am. Please
22 state your full name for the record and spell your last name.

23 THE WITNESS: Wendy Sue Spencer, S-P-E-N-C-E-R.

24 MR. TANASI: May I proceed?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 DIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Good afternoon, Wendy. It's Rich Tanasi. Can you hear me
5 okay?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Where are you currently living, what city and state?

8 A. I live in Phoenix, Arizona.

9 Q. Okay. And where were you living in April of 2014?

10 A. Same place, Phoenix, Arizona.

11 Q. All right. And what do you do for a living?

12 A. I'm a homemaker.

13 Q. Okay. And were you also a homemaker in April 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. Are you familiar with Bunkerville, Nevada?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. I'd like to turn your attention to April 12th, 2014, in 18 Bunkerville. Okay?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Did you go to Bunkerville in April of 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And why did you go there?

23 A. Well, mostly I wanted to, but I wanted to be there as a
24 support and also to defend my own rights.

25 Q. And what rights are those?

1 A. Well, the rights of -- at that point the BLM had -- they had 2 closed all roads off of the pavement so we couldn't go where
3 we'd gone our whole life with friends, family, school, anyway.
4 So I didn't like that; that we couldn't go on these or get in 5 trouble.

6 Q. Okay. Do you recall what time you arrived in Bunkerville?

7 A. I don't.

8 Q. Okay. But you were there -- or were you there in the 9 morning of April 12th, 2014?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Did you attend a speech where the sheriff spoke and 12 Cliven Bundy spoke?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. What did you hear the sheriff say?

15 A. What I remember is that he -- when he came in he said that 16 the BLM were going to back down and leave, and the cops, and 17 they were going to let the cattle go.

18 Q. Did you also hear Cliven Bundy's speech?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And what did you hear Mr. Bundy say?

21 A. He just -- he just said that was great, but he wanted
22 certain things from the sheriff, and gave him time anyway to go
23 do that. I don't recall everything he said.

24 Q. Right. After hearing the sheriff's speech and Cliven
25 Bundy's speech, what did you do next?

1 A. We actually just waited there. We were there about an hour
2 to see if the sheriff would come back, and he did not. We were
3 there -- we just hung out there for about an hour.

4 Q. What did you do next?

5 A. From there when he didn't come back, then the cowboys went 6 down to the wash and I went down also.

7 Q. Okay. How did you get to the wash?

8 A. I drove my car.

9 Q. Who did you drive with?

10 A. Myself.

11 Q. What did you do first when you got to the wash?

12 A. Well, once we parked and got out and got down in the wash,
13 we just -- just waiting for people to gather. And then more of 14 the first thing as people gathered, everybody knelt in the sand
15 and prayed.

16 Q. And why did you go from the speech to the wash?

17 A. Because I wanted to go. I wanted to see it through.

18 Q. What did you want to see through?

19 A. That they -- that they leave and let that -- let the cattle
20 go. And, anyway, turn the rights back to the people.

21 Q. All right. And so when you get to the wash, what was in 22 your mind? What did you expect that you were going to see
23 happen, after hearing the speeches?

24 A. I basically expected that -- that they were going to do what 25 they said and they were going to leave and let -- turn the

1 cattle loose.

2 Q. And then you said when you first got there you -- you were a
3 part of a prayer circle. Is that right?

4 A. Yes. Yes.

5 Q. And why did you guys -- why did you pray?

6 A. Why did we pray?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. Well, it ... hard for me. Prayer is a part of my life every 9 day. We pray for -- over everything. So we was praying for His 10 help in things going the way they were supposed to go.

11 Q. When you're in the wash, can you describe what you saw?

12 A. I just saw people on both sides, and we were just kind of 13 there waiting. And some of them went up to the fence. And then 14 they asked if people would please go back and give time, they 15 said about a half hour, that they would -- they would let it go,
16 but go back. And everybody did. Everybody went back
17 peacefully. Everything was peaceful and just waited out the
18 time.

19 Q. Okay. While you were in the wash, did you see anybody from 20 law enforcement?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Can you describe what you saw?

23 A. Well, saw -- well, I saw BLM agents, of course, and saw SWAT
24 and police.

25 Q. And what were they doing?

1 A. Some were actually pointing guns. Some were actually on a
2 blowhorn telling them to cease and desist or they would shoot.
3 They would just over -- yeah, that's basically it.

4 Q. Did you look at any other areas out from the wash?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Where?

7 A. I was up on a hill. Someone pointed out to me -- I can't
8 remember who, but pointed out seeing -- said, Look, there's a
9 sniper. And I did look up on that hill and there was a sniper
10 pointed at us.

11 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you. I'll pass the witness.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Good afternoon, ma'am.

15 A. Good afternoon.

16 Q. My name is Nadia Ahmed, and I'm going to be asking you some 10 land?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Were you present in Bunkerville prior to April 12th, 2014,
13 in that month? Did you get there before April 12th?

14 A. No -- sorry. Say that again.

15 Q. That was a confusing question.

16 Did you get there before April 12th, 2014?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What day did you get there?

19 A. That, I -- I do not recall the date.

1 A. Yes, yes.

2 Q. Were you aware that the BLM had an impoundment site set up
3 off of the I15 between Bunkerville and Mesquite?

4 A. Yes.

6 April 12th, 2014, that stage area, do you recall seeing a stage
7 over there?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Do you recall seeing individuals dressed in camouflage
10 clothing present during the speeches?

11 A. I think so, yes.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you recall that they had firearms on them?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. When the sheriff gave his speech, you were there, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And he said the BLM was going to leave, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. But he did not tell the crowd to go to the BLM impoundment
23 site, did he?

24 A. No.

25 Q. He did nothing to encourage anyone from that stage area to

1 go to the BLM impoundment site, correct?

2 A. No. Correct.

3 Q. Now, when Cliven Bundy spoke the second time, he actually
4 told everyone in the crowd to go to the Toquop Wash, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And when he told you to do that, that's what you did,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes. Correct.

9 Q. And he told the cowboys to go get 'er done, correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Meaning go get his cattle back from the BLM?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, when you got to the wash, you saw that the BLM was 14 still there, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And so you wanted to stay to see it through. Is that
17 correct?

18 A. Yes. Correct.

19 Q. Meaning to make sure the BLM left?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you stayed in that wash, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And there were other people in that wash. Isn't that right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. There were some people on foot?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. There were people on horseback?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. There were men?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Women?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Children?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. There were people with weapons?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And there were people who took up positions not just in the 13 wash, but on the sides of those ramps underneath the bridge,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And some of those people had weapons?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And there were people on the bridges above the wash,
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And did you know that those people had firearms?

22 A. No, I did not at that time.

23 Q. When you were in the wash, did you know -- did you ever
24 observe anything that was going on on the bridge that was the 25 northbound bridge, the one further away from the BLM?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Did you see anything that was going on up there?

3 A. Just the ones focused on the other side, just people
4 standing up there.

5 Q. Now, you could hear the BLM speaking over a loudspeaker,
6 correct -- or over a bullhorn?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. I think you said bullhorn. I'm sorry.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And they were giving orders to the crowd?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. To the effect of cease and desist?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. They were asking the people to leave, correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. But the people did not leave, correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. In fact, the people moved from the further-away bridge
19 closer to that gate that the BLM had set up. Isn't that right?

20 A. Yes, some did.

21 Q. Including some of the people on horseback, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And while this is happening, you did not know what was 24 happening on the northbound bridge. Isn't that right?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Now, the BLM were saying things to the effect of, Court
2 order. Do you recall that, something about a court order?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. I'm sorry. I spoke over you.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. So you did hear the court order?

7 A. I -- yeah, I'm pretty sure. I think so, yeah.

8 Q. And they were asking the crowd again -- they were asking the 9 crowd to disperse, right?

10 A. Correct. Correct.

11 Q. And the people in the crowd were shouting things back to the 12 BLM. Isn't that right?

13 A. Yes, there were a few. Yes.

14 Q. Weren't there some chants about the BLM, that they needed to 15 leave, people chanting that?

16 A. That, I don't remember.

17 Q. Now, the BLM officers never came into the wash from behind
18 that gate, did they?

19 A. No.

20 Q. They never attempted to arrest anybody?

21 A. No.

22 Q. In fact, they didn't lay hands on anyone in that wash, did
23 they?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And while you were in the wash, the BLM actually moved

1 backward from the front position that they had. Isn't that
2 right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And eventually they left the wash?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. AHMED: Nothing further, Your Honor. I'll pass the
7 witness.

8 THE COURT: All right. Any other witness?

9 MR. TANASI: Nothing further.

10 We have Derrel Spencer, Your Honor, same idea. He 11 might need a moment just to call him.

12 THE COURT: Is he in the same place -- same home?

13 MR. TANASI: No. Same last name, different location.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Sorry, I assumed.

15 MR. TANASI: I thought the same thing last night.

16 Ms. Spencer, can you hear me okay?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes.

18 MR. TANASI: I think we're all set, so thank you for 19 your time.

20 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

21 MR. TANASI: All right.

22 (Defense conferring.)

23 MR. TANASI: Derrel?

24 THE WITNESS: Can you hear me now?

25 MR. TANASI: Yes, sir. Can you hear us?

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Go ahead.

3 Aaron, do you want to go ahead and swear him in.

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

5 Good afternoon, sir. Please raise your right hand.

6 Mr. Spencer? Thank you, sir.

7 DERREL SPENCER, having duly been sworn, was examined

8 and testified as follows:

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. Please state your 10 full name for the record and spell your last name.

11 THE WITNESS: Derrel Lyman Spencer. Last name is 12 S-P-E-N-C-E-R.

13 MR. TANASI: May I proceed, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: I'm not sure. Are you able to pick that

15 up?

16 (Court reporter interruption.)

17 MR. TANASI: Derrel, if you could speak into the phone,

18 please, instead of Skype? There we go.

19 THE WITNESS: Is this better?

20 MR. TANASI: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 MR. TANASI: May I proceed, Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes, now you may. Thank you.

24 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. TANASI:

3 Q. Okay, Mr. Spencer. Where do you currently live?

4 A. I live 18 miles south of Bryce Canyon in Utah.

5 Q. Okay. Utah? What town in Utah?

6 A. Garfield.

7 Q. What do you do for a living?

8 A. I manage a ranch, cattle ranch.

9 Q. Were you managing a ranch and living in Utah in April of 10 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. I want to turn your attention to April 12th, 2014,
13 Bunkerville. Are you with me?

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. Okay. Do you recall going to Bunkerville in April of 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Why did you go?

18 A. I went because I felt there was a great injustice being
19 done, and I wanted to help.

20 Q. All right. And did you ultimately go to Bunkerville?

21 A. Say that again.

22 Q. Did you ultimately get to Bunkerville at some time on
23 April 12th, 2014?

24 A. I'm sorry. I can't quite understand that question.

25 Q. Sure. So you went to Bunkerville April 12th, 2014, fair?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. I want to take you to the wash in Bunkerville.

3 Are you with me?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. What time, roughly, did you get to the wash?

6 A. I don't know, but I would imagine it was 11 o'clock,
7 somewhere around there, noon.

8 Q. And when I say "the wash," just so we're clear, are we 9 talking about the area in between the north and the southbound
10 bridge?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Can you describe for me what you saw when you were in
13 the wash.

14 A. Yes. So when I dropped down into the wash, I could see a 15 fence under the far bridge, and trucks behind the fence with the 16 doors of the trucks open, and people standing behind them with 17 rifles trained right at us.

18 Q. How did that make you feel, sir?

19 A. Scared, nervous.

20 Q. All right. While you were in the wash, was there anybody
21 who spoke with you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Can you describe who you spoke with when you were in 24 the wash, please?

25 A. Okay. So three men came down in front of us. I don't know

1 them by name. One of them was fairly close to being in front of
2 me, and he was armed. He was not pointing a weapon, but he
3 says, If the shooting -- If they start shooting, they'll kill us
4 first because we are armed. That'll give you guys a chance to 5 run or hide or get away, whatever you want to do.

6 Q. And were you armed?

7 A. Pardon?

8 Q. Were you armed?

9 A. No.

10 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir. Nothing further. I'll
11 pass the witness.

12 THE COURT: Cross?

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. Mr. Spencer, my name is Erin Creegan and I represent the 16 United States in this case.

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. Will you answer some questions of mine as well?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And will you tell me if you can't hear me?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, sir, your last name is Spencer. Do you know a person
23 named Wendy Spencer?

24 A. I do.

25 Q. Is she a relative or friend of yours?

- 1 A. I do have an aunt named Wendy.
- 2 Q. Where does she live?
- 3 A. I believe she lives in Mesquite.
- 4 Q. Do you have a relative named Lily Spencer?
- 5 A. Yes.
- 6 Q. What relation is she to you?
- 7 A. She is married to my cousin.
- 8 Q. And is it correct that Lily Spencer is related to Cliven
9 Bundy?
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q. What's her relationship to Cliven Bundy?
- 12 A. Sister.
- 13 Q. Now, Mr. Spencer, I want to take you through some of the 14 events of that day. Were you at a rally that occurred in the 15 morning somewhere between 9 and 11 o'clock?
- 16 A. Yes.
- 17 Q. And did you hear the sheriff of Clark County speak at that 18 rally?
- 19 A. Yes, I heard some of it.
- 20 Q. Did you hear him say that the BLM was going to be leaving?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. Did you hear him say that he wanted to keep an emotional 23 issue safe?
- 24 A. No.
- 25 Q. Did you hear him say that the cattle are where they have

1 been?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you hear him say that he needed to talk to Mr. Bundy
4 about the cattle?

5 A. Well, I don't recall.

6 Q. Did you hear Mr. Bundy say that the sheriff needed to disarm
7 the BLM or the Park Service?

8 A. Can you repeat that one more time, please?

9 Q. Certainly. Did you hear Mr. Cliven Bundy say that the 10 sheriff needed to disarm either the BLM or the Park Service?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You did hear him say that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did the sheriff disarm the BLM or the Park Service?

15 A. I don't know. They -- they ceased and left. So, I don't 16 know what the definition of disarmed is.

17 Q. Did he ever bring weapons back to the stage area?

18 A. Not that I saw.

19 Q. Did Cliven Bundy tell the crowd to go get his cattle at some
20 point?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. Did Cliven Bundy tell people that they needed to block the 23 freeway?

24 A. I never heard that.

25 Q. Now, Mr. Spencer, you mentioned that you went to the wash

1 around 11 a.m. Are you sure of the exact time?

2 A. No.

3 Q. When you got down to the wash, were there other people
4 there?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. About how many people were already there when you got there?

7 A. Well, there was people on the freeway. People, you know,
8 were stopped and watching. I don't remember really anybody in 9 front of us down in the wash, but there was a lot of people up
10 on the freeway bridges.

11 Q. Okay. Did you see that there were people on the northbound
12 bridge?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that's the bridge that's farther away from the BLM?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did you see that there were armed people on the northbound
17 bridge?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You never saw anybody with a long gun on the northbound
20 bridge?

21 A. No.

22 Q. When you went down into the wash, did you go with -- alone
23 or with other people?

24 A. I'm sorry. Say that again. When I went down into the wash?

25 Q. Did you go by yourself or were you walking with other

1 people?

2 A. I was with other people.

3 Q. About how many other people were you with?

4 A. I would guess there was 40 of us on horses.

5 Q. Were you on a horse?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you have a weapon on you at any time?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did some of the people who were riding horses have sidearms?

10 A. I'm sorry. I didn't hear that.

11 Q. Were some of the people with horses carrying sidearms, which 12 is a pistol on their hip?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did you see whether any people riding horses had a long gun?

15 A. Not that I'm aware of.

16 Q. Now, when the horses came under the bridge -- did you ride
17 your horse under the northbound bridge toward the gate where the 18 BLM was?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you see that there were people on foot as well?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Did you see that some of those people had weapons?

23 A. No. All I was focused on was the weapons pointing at us.

24 Q. So you just don't know whether people around you had
25 weapons?

1 A. I saw no other weapons up there.

2 Q. So you said you talked to some individuals who were armed
3 who said, They're going to shoot at us first.

4 A. I didn't say that.

5 Q. Well, let me ask you then, who was it that said, They're 6 going to shoot at us first?

7 A. Nobody. I never said that.

8 Q. So you did not talk to anybody in the wash on April 12,
9 2014, that said, They're going to shoot at us first and you can 10 run?

11 A. No, they -- let me be clear. So the three armed men that 12 walked in front of us said, If the shooting starts, the BLM will 13 shoot us first because we are armed and that will give you guys
14 a chance to run, hide, get away, whatever you want to do.

15 Q. So there were three armed people walking in front of you?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did you observe whether there were people up on the cement
18 embankment over the BLM's position?

19 A. I don't recall any over the division, no.

20 Q. You don't recall seeing three people in camo with firearms
21 over on the right-hand side?

22 A. No, ma'am.

23 Q. Did you hear what the BLM was saying, if anything?

24 A. I could hear parts, but it was so loud and so distorted that 25 it was hard to make out what they were saying.

- 1 Q. Could you hear the words "court order"?
- 2 A. I did hear something about an order.
- 3 Q. Did you hear the word "disperse"?
- 4 A. I don't recall hearing that word.
- 5 Q. Did you hear anything about leaving or leave the area or go
6 away or back up?
- 7 A. I heard something to the effect that, Back up or stand down
8 or you will be shot.
- 9 Q. Did you back up or stand down?
- 10 A. I did not.
- 11 Q. So you didn't follow the instruction of the law enforcement
12 officer?
- 13 A. Well, I don't know. It was so hard to hear. I could just 14 hear parts of it.
- 15 Q. But you did hear them say, Back up or stand down?
- 16 A. I heard parts of that, yes.
- 17 Q. And you didn't do it?
- 18 A. No.
- 19 Q. In fact, you moved forward with your horse?
- 20 A. Yes.
- 21 Q. With other horsemen?
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. Some of them armed?
- 24 A. Yes.
- 25 Q. Were you shot?

- 1 A. Thankfully not because of the --
- 2 Q. Was anyone shot?
- 3 A. Pardon?
- 4 Q. Was anyone shot?
- 5 A. Not that I'm aware of.
- 6 Q. Was anyone physically touched by a law enforcement officer?
- 7 A. Not that I know of.
- 8 Q. Was anyone arrested?
- 9 A. Not that I know of.
- 10 Q. How many people altogether were there in the wash at its 11 highest point?
- 12 A. I -- I don't know. I would just be guessing.
- 13 Q. Was it in the hundreds?
- 14 A. Possibly.
- 15 Q. How many law enforcement officers were there on the other 16 side of the gate?
- 17 A. I -- I couldn't tell you for sure. I could see two trucks.
18 Doors open on both sides. Men standing behind the doors with 19 rifles trained on us. There was more back in there farther, but 20 I was just focused on those trucks with the guns pointed at us.
- 21 Q. Is that a dozen or more than a dozen?
- 22 A. I'm sorry. I didn't hear that.
- 23 Q. How many law enforcement officers do you think you saw?
- 24 A. I would guess six or eight that were right there pointing
25 guns at us. I could see more, but they were in the background.

1 Q. So a few hundred versus six or eight?

2 A. No.

3 Q. No?

4 A. I said possibly 100. And there was a lot more than six or 5 eight. Most of them were just in the background.

6 Q. So 100 versus a dozen? More than a dozen?

7 A. Well, when they left there, I counted 87 trucks with armed
8 men leaving there. So I don't know how many was in each truck,
9 but I would say a couple were in there.

10 Q. So you looked into every single one of the 87 trucks?

11 A. No, but I watched them drive by.

12 Q. And when you say "armed men," you're referring to law
13 enforcement officers?

14 A. Yes. Well, I assume they were law enforcement.

15 Q. You assume that because they were wearing uniforms and they
16 were beside patrol vehicles?

17 A. No, because they were on the other side of the fence. I
18 really don't know who they were.

19 Q. So you knew they were law enforcement officers?

20 A. No, I just assumed they might be.

21 Q. You just assumed they might be because why?

22 A. Because they were on the other side of the fence.

23 Q. Did you observe that they were wearing uniforms?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you observe that they were behind marked patrol

1 vehicles?

2 A. No.

3 Q. You did not observe that they were behind marked patrol
4 vehicles?

5 A. No.

6 Q. How close did you get to the fence?

7 A. Oh, 100 feet. I don't know. I'm just guessing, but I'd say
8 100 feet.

9 Q. You didn't go all the way up to the fence?

10 A. Not till later when the sheriff came to take the fence down
11 and let us in there, then I did.

12 Q. Did you observe that other people went all the way up to the 13 fence before the sheriff arrived?

14 A. Yes, other people went up to the fence.

15 Q. So you weren't in a good position to observe what was 16 happening on the other side of the fence?

17 A. The same thing, they were just standing there pointing guns
18 at us. I saw some of the guys right at the fence calling some 19 of the guys to come and try to settle this.

20 Q. Did you see people pointing guns at the BLM?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you ever --

23 A. Never.

24 Q. Did you ever look back at the northbound bridge to see what 25 was happening there?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Mr. Spencer, you mentioned that you work in some way in
3 ranching. Is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Would it be fair to say that you're sympathetic to the Bundy
6 family?

7 A. It would be fair to say that I understand that situation
8 more than most.

9 Q. You said you went there to fight injustice?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Were you aware --

12 A. Not to fight, but I went there to help with an injustice.

13 Q. Were you aware that the BLM had tried to litigate in court
14 for 20 years with Cliven Bundy the removal of his cattle from 15 trespass?

16 A. Yes, I was. And I was aware that he had also won in court, 17 and it didn't matter. They still tried to take it from him and 18 kick him off.

19 Q. Would it surprise you to learn that he actually lost in 20 court and it was ordered that his cattle had to be removed?

21 A. Say that again.

22 Q. Would it surprise you to learn that he actually lost in 23 court and it was ordered that his cattle had to be removed from 24 the public lands?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So if there was a valid court order, would you comply with
2 that and allow cattle to be removed from the public lands?

3 A. If it's valid.

4 Q. You would?

5 A. But I assume -- I guess it depends on the situation, but
6 yes.

7 Q. So there's some situations under which you would not follow
8 a court order?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. And in this situation you didn't follow the commands of law
11 enforcement officers?

12 A. Well, they weren't clear.

13 Q. They weren't clear, but you heard, Back up or stand down?

14 A. Yeah, but in between every word you'd hear, you'd hear about 15 five seconds of just muffled, loud, deafening sound.

16 Q. But you knew they were saying --

17 A. It was hard.

18 Q. -- Back up?

19 Mr. Spencer, you knew they were saying, Back up?

20 A. Something to that effect.

21 Q. You did not back up?

22 A. No.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. No further questions.

24 MR. TANASI: No redirect, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Is there one more or is he the

1 last one?

2 MR. TANASI: He's the last one for today, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

4 MR. TANASI: Sir, thank you for your time. You can go
5 ahead and hang up the phone and Skype.

6 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

7 MR. TANASI: So, Your Honor, finding out here as I'm 8 texting, that I could -- Mr. Bushman, Shannon Bushman, and 9 William Sudweeks could both be available tomorrow in court at 10 9 a.m.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, Government opposes recalling
12 Shannon Bushman simply just to get the same testimony that he 13 gave in trial. We think that's not an efficient use of the 14 Court's time. This day was set aside to handle this issue. If 15 the defendants can't produce their witnesses timely, we don't 16 think it's appropriate to waste more jury time by delaying trial
17 tomorrow.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I brought a copy of 19 Mr. Bushman's testimony at the first trial. And if the Court
20 does not want to hear from Mr. Bushman, then I'd like to make 21 that part of the record.

22 THE COURT: So what portion of Bushman's testimony
23 would you be seeking to proffer? I mean, obviously, all of it
24 you want to make part of the record, and that's fine. I don't
25 have any problem with that. But which part of it specifically

1 do you want me to consider?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Like the other witnesses, I believe
3 Mr. Bushman was also at the rally. So it would be along the 4 same lines as Lynch. Mr. Bushman went to the wash. He took
5 pictures. So it would be along the same lines. He was in fear
6 for his safety and he thought that he was going to be shot that
7 day as well. He testified to that at the first hearing.

8 There's a number of pages, but it would fall in line
9 with the other witnesses that we had proffer today in terms of 10 whether or not they were at the rally or at the wash. Shannon
11 Bushman would indicate that he was at both and he thought that 12 the cows were just being released and the BLM was standing down.

13 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, Your Honor. And just to 14 elaborate a little bit more, Mr. Leventhal said --
15 specifically I remember his testimony was something to the 16 effect of he was somewhere in the vicinity of the upper 17 embankment on the southbound bridge. He was not in the wash.
18 He was unarmed. He had his camera, obviously. We saw numerous
19 pictures in which he took on the date in question.

20 And I believe his testimony was that on three separate
21 occasions, in his subjective thought process, he thought that 22 the BLM was pointing weapons at him. I believe he also 23 testified something to the effect of that he came up with some 24 sort of an escape plan, so to speak, meaning there was some sort
25 of concrete embankment or barrier that he thought in his mind if

1 they started shooting he was going to jump over onto the other
2 side.

3 THE COURT: All right. Any other witness besides
4 Mr. Bushman?

5 MR. TANASI: Mr. Sudweeks, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Spell the name, please.

7 MR. TANASI: S-U-D-W-E-E-K-S. First name William.

8 THE COURT: All right. And what is your proffer as to 9 Mr. William Sudweeks?

10 MR. TANASI: Mr. Sudweeks is also in line, Your Honor,
11 with the witnesses from today in that he's attending the rally,
12 understands that the Gold Butte was reopened, went to the wash
13 to watch the cows come home, and he also indicates that weapons
14 were pointed at him. So he's also a self-defense witness as
15 well.

16 THE COURT: Anyone else other than those people? And I
17 think you said there was the investigator and then the two Three 18 Percenters?

19 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor. And I think
20 the Defense has decided, I think at this point, that we're not 21 going to be calling the Three Percenters. So it would just be 22 those witnesses.

23 THE COURT: All right. So what's the Government's 24 position? You can either take them one at a time or all
25 together. We have Mr. Ken Rhoades, Mr. Michael Lynch, Wendy

1 Spencer, Derrel Spencer, Shannon Bushman, and Willie Sudweeks.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I have to admit that I'm not
3 clear on what -- how these witnesses support a self-defense
4 theory. So maybe it would be helpful to have an articulation
5 from the Defense of how they see this making out a cognizable
6 defense theory; because the witnesses aren't consistent with one
7 another and it's not clear to me what they're arguing the facts
8 are.

9 THE COURT: Well, it's clear from cross that none of 10 them say that they believed the individuals were not law
11 enforcement, and none of them say that they thought there was 12 excessive force being used, other than pointing weapons at them
13 and being afraid of the law enforcement officers who were 14 standing their ground and not coming over.

15 So it sounds to me like -- is the Defense proffer,
16 then, for the purposes of preserving any issue as to whether the 17 law regarding self-defense can be challenged as being other than 18 what its current state is today? That's kind of what I'm 19 assuming at this point; because what we're -- I don't want to 20 say stuck with. That sounds like -- but what the current state
21 of the law is, is again for -- that there is no -- that the law
22 does not recognize self-defense as a defense that can be used
23 when the victim is a law enforcement officer.

24 So we've got defenses here of mere presence. Other
25 types of defenses would be like, oh, an alibi defense. There's

1 a number of different kinds of defenses that the law recognizes.
2 Self-defense can be used to rebut the elements of a charge when
3 it's a civilian, but when we have what we have here, law
4 enforcement officers as the named victims in the superseding
5 indictment, then the law only recognizes two forms of 6 self-defense which go above and beyond the regular self-defense
7 that we're all used to seeing with civilians. And, instead, it
8 requires either under the U.S. v. Feola case, which is a U.S.
9 Supreme Court case, ignorance of the official status of the 10 person assaulted, which comes up when someone is in plain
11 clothes, say in the middle of the night serving a search warrant
12 on the wrong house. Those kinds of things.

13 Or, number two, is under the Span case, if there is an 14 excessive force defense. So not a force defense, but an 15 excessive force defense.

16 And it's clear that a law enforcement officer is 17 permitted to be in uniform, to take a position during an 18 operation, and to have a weapon. The pointing of the weapon
19 when people are not cooperating and obeying legitimate orders
20 and directions to leave the area, to move back, and so forth,
21 that could not be excessive force. As was pointed out by the 22 cross numerous times with every one of these individuals, that 23 there was no arrests. There was no shooting. There was not 24 even any law enforcement officer putting hands on any of the 25 individuals, no attempts, no attempts to arrest, no batons used,

1 no violence, no -- so the Court can't find that it's
2 subjectively reasonable to define the force used as being
3 excessive or that there's any evidence that the jury could
4 reasonably find that there was excessive force.

5 Numerous witnesses said that they knew that it was BLM,
6 or at least that they assumed that it was law enforcement. Or 7 they might not have known which agency specifically, whether it
8 was BLM or the sheriff or Metro or Park Police, but that they 9 were aware that it was law enforcement, whether or not they were 10 dressed in uniform or military or such.

11 So that was my understanding, is that we're just 12 preserving the record in case Feola and Span are overturned.
13 Feola's from 1975 so it's an older case, which could go either
14 way. I suppose you could say it's a long-standing rule or 15 things have changed and maybe that's not the case anymore. But 16 I can't ignore them, but I'm certainly permitting you to put 17 your evidence on the record so that it can be available for you
18 on appeal.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Sure. Did you want us to respond,
20 Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Well, yeah. So the Government was asking
22 were you trying to lay a foundation for a Feola or a Span
23 situation?

24 MR. MARCHESE: Correct. It's an and/or. Obviously,
25 Your Honor has laid out the elements of both particular

1 defenses. Feola's, you know, if you don't know it's an officer.
2 Span is you do know it's an officer.

3 It's our belief -- it's our position that we would meet
4 both. Feola's obviously the standard one that you don't know if
5 it's law enforcement. I think there has -- I would agree that
6 the record is -- there is a little bit of both. Some are saying
7 they're not. And then, obviously, we also have Mr. Parker's
8 testimony, which the Court is well aware he was on the stand for 9 about a day and a half last time. There was some testimony in 10 reference to that.

11 But in reference to the Span that they know it's law
12 enforcement and it's their belief that there is excessive force
13 being used, and then they use only enough force that's necessary
14 under the circumstances. Now, obviously, the Government did
15 their cross, and they laid out that there was in fact no one
16 touched or anything along those lines. The only force that you
17 could argue was used would have been the pointing of the 18 weapons, but there's also the subjective belief of many 19 witnesses, including my client, which would be that they heard
20 that there was going to be shooting, that they were authorized
21 to use lethal force.

22 So based upon that, at that particular time, and the 23 totality of the circumstances, that is when Mr. Parker got down
24 in his prone position with his rifle. Didn't ever fire,
25 obviously. Never had his finger on the trigger, is the -- I

1 believe the evidence in this case.

2 So based upon that, I believe that we've shown a
3 threshold showing that all these unarmed people, some armed, but
4 many unarmed people in the wash inching forward, hear lethal
5 force. It's what Mr. Parker hears. Seeing these weapons.
6 Seeing snipers on the ridge. Seeing helicopters, aeriels, all
7 of these sorts of things, just the environment in general, based 8 upon that as the crowd is going forward, as he's hearing these 9 particular orders being given, and seeing what he sees, that's 10 when he gets down and applies, for lack of a better term, that 11 minimal force that was given.

12 So we believe that we've met that threshold, at least 13 just to get the self-defense instruction. Obviously, the 14 Government will have every opportunity to rebut that in 15 cross-examination, closing argument, whatever the case may be,
16 to say that, No, you haven't met that burden. And it's 17 obviously our burden. We need to -- we need to meet that burden
18 for the jury to find it.

19 So that's our position. And we've obviously got the 20 other witnesses, too. So I think, you know, it's not just one
21 witness. It's the aggregate. It's all of them together, just 22 building blocks up to get to that threshold. And we believe we 23 can meet it.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Well, the Government's position is that 25 uniformed officers with firearms standing in their position by

1 patrol vehicles aren't a part in any way of an excessive force
2 defense. They can't be cited as evidence of something that
3 allows somebody else to attack them. So they're saying the 4 situation, there were helicopters, none of those things is a use
5 of force. So none of those things count at all to that defense.

6 We have a crowd. All of the witnesses admitted it was
7 a large crowd. All admitted the crowd moved forward. As a
8 matter of law, self-defense is not available to an aggressor.
9 And when someone is acting in defense of others, they stand in 10 the shoes of the person that they're claiming to defend. You
11 cannot watch a crowd of hundreds advance on officers, ignoring
12 their orders, and say, I'm going to defend them as they aggress
13 on these officers.

14 Mr. Parker admitted in his testimony that he saw the 15 crowd move forward. Almost every witness has said -- I think
16 every witness has said there were armed people in the crowd.
17 They're asking a small group of law enforcement officers to be 18 overrun or be shot. Under these circumstances there -- even the 19 Span analysis, you don't even get there because you cannot have 20 self-defense for an aggressor. And every witness supported that 21 these people were the aggressors.

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court agrees that 23 there is not sufficient testimony and evidence that's been 24 provided in these proffers to meet the requirement, the 25 essential elements, in Feola or in Span.

1 So, as I said it in my order in this case, 2138, on
2 page 4, any evidence related to those incomplete defenses would
3 then only serve to provide evidence of a nullification argument.

4 There is still the mere presence defense, and I agree
5 that that's still available. Let's see. We've got ...

6 So, we've got the test of whether a jury could
7 rationally find, and that's -- I know it refers to the jury.
8 It's for the Court's determination. So it's the Court's
9 determination that there is not sufficient to meet the standard
10 for the current state of the law under either Feola or Span.
11 But if that should change, you've got your record on appeal.
12 That's an interesting issue.

13 All right. So if we start back up at 10 a.m. -- no.
14 9 a.m., Aaron?

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 9 a.m.

16 THE COURT: Okay. 9 a.m. tomorrow morning, then the 17 Government is going to rest in front of the jury. And then it
18 will be up to the Defense if you want to exercise your right to 19 make an opening statement since it was earlier waived, and then
20 call any witnesses.

21 So would your investigator be available to begin at 22 9 a.m.? I think you said there was some measurements.

23 MR. TANASI: Mr. Preusch will be available.

24 THE COURT: 9:30?

25 MR. TANASI: 9:30, yes.

1 Your Honor, and just for the record, I just want to
2 make sure the Court also ruled against using those witnesses for 3 the res gestae arguments that we made yesterday, in addition to 4 the self-defense arguments.

5 THE COURT: How would they apply to res gestae?

6 MR. TANASI: Again, to tell the complete story and 7 rebut the Government's burden shifting of putting the crowd at 8 issue in the case and advancing the theory, from the 9 Government's perspective, that the crowd was this large
10 conspiracy where everybody involved in the crowd had the same
11 plan, the same purpose.

12 The witnesses that testified today, again, support the 13 notion that they hear the speech, they go to the wash, and at 14 some level they believe that the cows are going to be released.
15 And that's what they're going to watch. And so, again, that's 16 the same argument that our clients have in this case and their 17 purpose for being there.

18 And under that res gestae theory that I had argued
19 yesterday, the complete story of the case now needs to be told 20 in that the crowd's at issue and the crowd's purpose. And by 21 our clients simply being members of that crowd, now they're part
22 of a conspiracy; when all of the crowd, in fact, didn't believe
23 or think the same thing.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government's 25 understanding of res gestae is that it involves a fact which is

1 inextricably intertwined with the facts of the case and can't be
2 artificially exercised from the case and, therefore, there has
3 to be reference to it or else the story is told in a strange
4 way. But the story of what these defendants did on April 12 can
5 be told without reference to what Wendy Spencer experienced.

6 So we don't believe that is actually res gestae. It
7 appears to simply be irrelevant arguments of other people's 8 motives and intents, which cannot stand in as a proxy for what 9 these defendants' motives and intents were.

10 THE COURT: The Court agrees. It doesn't see how this 11 is res gestae. It's not inextricably intertwined.

12 So tomorrow, Thursday, we'll start at 9.

13 Will you have all of your witnesses ready and 14 available?

15 MR. MARCHESE: We will definitely be ready, Your Honor.
16 I did have one question. You know, obviously, I'm very mindful
17 of the Court's orders and I'm doing -- I want to do everything
18 that I can not to violate them.

19 Obviously, there's -- there's some -- the Government
20 filed the nullification motion referencing the pre-April 12th
21 events. I'm just finding myself in a little bit of a quandary
22 here in representing Mr. Parker in reference to that because 23 it's my position that some of these events go directly to some 24 of the elements of the crime, meaning the Government is alleging
25 that Mr. Parker and his codefendants traveled in interstate

1 commerce in aid of extortion. Basically, they're saying they
2 came from Idaho to Bunkerville to get cattle back.

3 Now, if -- hypothetically speaking, if I put Mr. Parker
4 on the stand, I'll ask him that. Did you go to get cattle? The 5 answer's going to be, No. But at that point I can't expand on 6 that, and I just see that it's very problematic for the jury
7 because we're not giving them the full picture.

8 I understand the Court's ruling, but then, also, we've 9 had numerous Facebook posts and things along that nature from 10 Mr. Parker talking about, When is the shooting going to start,
11 and all of these other things. And I can't ask him, What did
12 you mean by that, because we had numerous newspaper articles
13 which he's referencing along with these texts that are admitted
14 against him. So now when I put him on the stand and say, Did
15 you see exhibit whatever, I can't ask him about it because he's 16 going to start referencing these pre-4/12 incidents.

17 So, I don't know if the Court can give me any guidance
18 on that, I mean, because I just -- I don't want to violate the 19 Court's order, but I just -- I don't see how I'm able to defend 20 Mr. Parker without being able to comment on the Government's 21 evidence that they've put into evidence against him.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So the events prior to 4/12 that 23 you're referring to were not put into evidence by the 24 Government.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Well, right, but it's -- when they're

1 using his Facebook posts and they have articles, and to put them
2 into context, you know, Where are you going to be when the
3 shooting starts, or whatever that exact post was, that's a
4 problem because I can't ask him, Well, what did you mean by 5 that. And then he's going to get into all of this stuff that 6 the Court said, No, you can't get into.

7 But even more importantly, I think when we look
8 directly at some of the elements of the offenses such as 9 conspiracy, such as traveling in interstate commerce in aid of 10 extortion, that's a direct element, what his intent was when he 11 came here.

12 So that's my problem. I mean, it's almost as if I have 13 to stipulate, or all of us have to stipulate to that -- to those 14 charges, or at least that element of the charge.

15 THE COURT: Well, I can't give you advice on how to ask
16 the question or how to get his state of mind regarding each of 17 his posts.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I'll do what I can to --

19 THE COURT: If there's something that you want to 20 address outside the presence of the jury if you think that it's 21 going to call too many objections and you want to get a more
22 clear ruling with, you know, more specificity of what questions
23 you're going to ask or what the answers are; but, otherwise, I
24 think it's just too vague. I can't give you a ruling other than 25 I think the limit you already know. So I'm not sure what else

1 more I could actually --

2 MR. MARCHESE: Right. And I understand where the
3 Court's going --

4 THE COURT: -- say that can be helpful.

5 MR. MARCHESE: I apologize for cutting you off.

6 I understand where the Court's going in reference to 7 the exhibits. I probably should have specific exhibits and we
8 could address it. But just in reference to the general charges
9 themselves, I mean, that is an element. An element is, why did
10 you come, what was your intent, was your intent to come here to 11 extort, was your intent to come here to enter a conspiracy, all
12 of these different things. And I would argue that these events
13 are specifically and directly relevant and related to the actual 14 elements of some of the charges. So I just don't see how I can 15 defend this man fully without telling the full story.

16 I mean, I just feel that I'm -- I have to literally
17 overlook elements of the offense because I cannot explain what 18 his intent was.

19 THE COURT: Fine. So your point is noted for the 20 record.

21 I understand what you're saying about the full story,
22 but I'm not sure that -- I have some cases, but I'm not going to 23 get into any details at this point. But there's a difference
24 between telling the full story and what the law permits as 25 relevant evidence. And it has to be probative to an element.

1 So, for example, the intent to extort means the intent to take
2 something of value, property, that doesn't -- that there's no
3 right to have. So telling the entire story, what I was wearing,
4 what I read, when I read it, what I saw, may or may not address
5 that.

6 So to the extent that it addresses it, it would be 7 permissible, but if it doesn't rebut that intent element -- and 8 there's a lot of different offenses here, right, so a lot of 9 different intents, but -- so the Supreme Court has made clear
10 that the right to present evidence is not the right to present
11 any evidence at any time about anything. It has to be probative
12 and relevant.

13 So I think that's where the quandary is, wanting to 14 tell the complete story, but if parts of that story are not
15 relevant and probative, that's why they're not admissible.

16 All right. So, it looks like we've made as much
17 progress as we can today. We'll be back here then at 9 a.m.
18 tomorrow morning.

19 Hopefully Mr. Lovelein will be available to join us,
20 Mr. Perez?

21 MR. PEREZ: He will be.

22 THE COURT: You'll have an opportunity to speak with 23 him, I hope, and --

24 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: -- see if there's anything that we can do

1 to help him out so that he may attend tomorrow.

2 All right. So we're off record. Thank you for your
3 patience.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

5 (Whereupon proceedings concluded at 4:20 p.m.)

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Jury out.)

5 THE COURT: You may be seated.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
7 Jury Trial, Day 19, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
8 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
9 Lovelien and Steven Stewart.

10 THE COURT: Now, before we get started and bring in 11 the jury, let me remind everyone about the expectations
12 regarding the conduct of everyone in the courtroom.

13 Please do remember that this is a courtroom. It is 14 not a sporting event. So, it is never appropriate to show any 15 display of your reactions or feelings regarding anything that 16 you see or hear, no matter how much you agree or disagree with 17 what is being said.

18 There should be no audible expressions, no body
19 expressions, or any disruptive conduct of any kind. The 20 marshals are authorized to remove anyone who does exhibit such 21 inappropriate conduct. Likewise, the defendants are aware that 22 we do have a room right next door, a holding room with a
23 speaker system set up, so that they may continue to listen to 24 the trial if they are not able to stay in the courtroom and 25 waive their right to be present in the courtroom through the

1 display of inappropriate conduct.

2 We also have a rule about electronic devices. There
3 are no electronic devices permitted in the courtroom, so please
4 take a moment to check and make sure that you do not have any
5 kind of electronic devices, whether they be phones, laptops,
6 even if they are on the -- turned off, or private mode, or
7 vibrate mode settings, they are not permitted in the courtroom.
8 There is no recording permitted in any of the federal courts,
9 no audio recording and no video recording.

10 The attorneys are permitted to have electronic
11 devices. They do use them to review their notes, discovery,
12 present evidence and so forth. So, they are permitted to have 13 those. Likewise, the security officers in the courtroom also 14 are permitted to have electronic devices for communication
15 purposes.

16 So, anything we need to address before we bring in
17 the jury?

18 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I do have one housekeeping
19 matter. I still have my opening statement, which I reserved.
20 And I plan on giving a very brief one.

21 After that, I plan on calling Mr. Parker. I don't 22 know how the Court wants to work it with his chains. If I give 23 a brief opening statement, and we just take a break, it might 24 be a little odd. But I just wanted to bring that to the Court
25 and the marshals.

1 THE COURT: All right. So, that will be your first
2 witness?

3 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Mr. Leventhal?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: And -- yes. And we are not going to 7 be calling our investigator or any of the other witnesses that 8 we indicated we would, which kind of throws a wrinkle in my
9 preparation with Mr. Drexler.

10 Last weekend, we all went to go see them at their 11 housing unit. And because of my foot, I had to leave early. I
12 didn't get a chance. So, I know that we are going to spend a
13 majority of the day with Mr. Parker today. I would have that I
14 be given the chance to discuss with Mr. Drexler his right to 15 testify, as well as Mr. Stewart, and go thoroughly through
16 that.

17 And, obviously, we talked about it, but now that the 18 case is where it's at, if there's anything that he wants to,
19 you know, fill in, not fill in, and so I haven't had that 20 conversation with him. So, I would be requesting that Monday
21 morning, that if he decides that he wants to testify, that 22 that's when he does that, just so I can have a few days in 23 preparation.

24 We went there last weekend to do it, but I had to 25 leave early because of my medical problem. But that's all that

1 we ask for. But we have no other witnesses, then based on
2 yesterday's testimony of the four witnesses that we have.
3 There's nobody else.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Tanasi?

5 MR. TANASI: Yes. Your Honor, at this time, my
6 client actually is not going to be testifying.

7 THE COURT: And Mr. Perez.

8 MR. PEREZ: Mr. Lovelien will not be testifying
9 either, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. TANASI: But I can also attest to Mr. Leventhal's
12 representations to the Court that we were all there last week,
13 and his foot was killing him, and he wasn't there for the 14 entirety of the meeting as well.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

16 And welcome back to Mr. Lovelien. I do sympathize
17 for your loss, and I'm glad that you are able to join us this
18 morning.

19 All right. So, I will have the marshals please
20 remove Mr. Parker's leg shackles, so that he may be able to be 21 called to testify this morning without needing to take another
22 break.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 So, Aaron, do you want to go ahead and go fetch the

1 jury?

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 (Jury in.)

5 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.

6 Good morning and welcome back.

7 All right. So, we are resuming today.

8 Does the government have another witness to call?

9 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor. The government rests.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, before we proceed, we 11 should have the attorneys make their presence on the record in 12 front of the jury. So, let's go ahead and do that.

13 Mr. Myhre.

14 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning
15 ladies and gentlemen of the jury. Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan,
16 Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

17 THE COURT: Good morning.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you. Good morning, folks.
19 Richard Tanasi, Steven Stewart. Also with us at counsel table
20 is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
23 morning, ladies and gentlemen. Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric
24 Parker.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd

1 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 MR. PEREZ: Good morning everyone. Shawn Perez on
4 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

5 THE COURT: All right. We had some openings made by
6 the defendants at the beginning of trial, but there was a
7 reservation of an opening made by Mr. Marchese on behalf of his 8 client, Mr. Parker.

9 So, would you like to invoke that right to present
10 your opening statement now?

11 MR. MARCHESE: I would, Your Honor. Thank you very 12 much.

13 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and do that. Do we need
14 to move the podium?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Nah, I got it here.

16 DEFENDANT PARKER'S OPENING STATEMENT

17 Good morning, everyone. If you just forgot between 18 the last minute, I'm Jess Marchese, and I represent this 19 gentleman in the blue plaid shirt right there. His name is 20 Eric Parker.

21 As Her Honor pointed out to you a short while ago, I
22 reserved my right to give an opening statement. And basically
23 what an opening statement is, what I believe the evidence will 24 show throughout the case.

25 Now, obviously, you've heard the government put on

Defendant Parker's Opening Statement

1 their case in chief for the past month or so, and now it's our
2 opportunity for us to put on a case and show you what we
3 believe the evidence will show.

4 But I'm not going to do that in my opening argument,
5 just for the simple fact that very, very shortly, as soon as 6 I'm done here, Eric Parker is going to get on the stand, and 7 he's just going to tell what you the evidence is. Because what
8 I tell you is not evidence. It's just my belief; what I think
9 the evidence is going to show.

10 But what Eric Parker tells you is actually evidence.
11 And what he's going to tell you is that in April of 2014, he 12 was living up in Idaho. And he starts looking on the Internet,
13 and he hears and sees all these things. They are occurring in 14 Bunkerville, Nevada. All -- many of the things that we've 15 heard about for the last month or so.

16 He doesn't know any of these individuals. He's never 17 heard of a Cliven Bundy. He's never heard of an Ammon Bundy.
18 None of those things. And he starts seeing all these things on 19 the Internet and all this chatter. And as a result, he decides
20 that he's going to come to Bunkerville, Nevada. Not for cows.

21 Ladies and gentlemen, you're going to hear that Eric
22 Parker -- he's an electrician. He's not a rancher. He has no
23 dog in the fight, so to speak, that Mr. Bundy was having with 24 the federal government and the BLM.

25 No, that's not the reason that he came. So, at that

Defendant Parker's Opening Statement

1 point, as the evidence will show, he talked to a couple of his
2 buddies; Steven Stewart, who he's known for a long time, since,
3 I believe, they went to elementary school together, and another
4 friend of his, Mr. Scott Drexler.

5 And they got into Eric's truck, and they went down to
6 Bunkerville. And when they went down to Bunkerville, he didn't
7 know anyone. He didn't know Ricky Lovelien. He didn't know
8 Ryan Payne or any of the Bundys, none of those people. The 9 only people that they knew were the three of them, the three
10 boys from Idaho, so to speak.

11 And they got there, and they stayed overnight. And 12 at some point in time, as you heard earlier in the case, they 13 heard a speech. A couple people gave speeches. Ammon Bundy,
14 Cliven Bundy's son, gave a short prologue to that speech. Then 15 the Sheriff, Sheriff Doug Gillespie spoke. And then lastly,
16 Cliven Bundy spoke.

17 And based upon that, you'll hear Eric testify that it
18 was his belief that the cows were going to be released, and 19 that the Gold Butte area or allotment was now reopened to the 20 public. He didn't really know too much about the Gold Butte
21 allotment. He had never been there. Never even been to 22 Bunkerville before in his life the evidence will show.

23 So, he stood around. He waited. And you heard the 24 speeches, and you will hear them again. And then at that 25 point, Cliven Bundy got up on the stage. And after he had

Defendant Parker's Opening Statement

1 previously made some demands to the sheriff, that you will hear
2 that Eric thought were, quite frankly, ridiculous, he gave a
3 second speech. And Eric will tell you what he thought, and 4 what was going through his mind, and why he went to the wash.

5 And correct -- the government is correct in that Eric
6 went in the truck of Mr. Ricky Lovelien, who he had just met
7 that morning. He had no contact, no communication, no ties
8 whatsoever with Mr. Lovelien except that morning.

9 And he went over to the wash. And he gets there, and 10 he gets out of the truck with his friends. And at that point,
11 he starts to hear some commotion, and he starts looking at his 12 environment.

13 And you are going to hear why he went from the 14 parking area to the bridge, the northbound bridge. And you are 15 going to hear what he saw, what he did, and why he did what he 16 did when he was on the bridge.

17 And, yes, he will admit -- he will get on the stand
18 and concede that all those pictures that we've seen for the 19 last month of him laying down on the bridge, yes, that's him.
20 But he's going to explain why he did what he did. He will 21 explain that it was not to assault federal officers. It was 22 not to threaten federal officers. He didn't do it to extort
23 cattle. There was nothing about that, ladies and gentlemen.

24 This case is not about cattle for Mr. Parker. It
25 might be for some other people, but our case in chief is going

Defendant Parker's Opening Statement

1 to show that for Mr. Parker, this case was, in fact, about many
2 other things. And that at some point in time, he obviously got 3 up, and he gave that interview that you saw on the bridge where 4 Mr. Stewart and Mr. Drexler were kind of in the background, and
5 Mr. Stewart was talking to the young ladies.

6 And he's going to explain that. Because that's
7 really -- I think the whole speech is approximately 90 seconds
8 or so. But he's going to explain exactly what he said. He's 9 going to exactly -- he is going to explain what it means. Why
10 he said "Get on a bridge and show force."

11 He's going to explain his Facebook posts about why he 12 said "Get the cattle back by any means," or something along
13 those lines. And then the evidence will show that after he was 14 on that bridge, he left Bunkerville very, very shortly
15 thereafter.

16 He didn't hang around for -- I believe there was some 17 sort of a speech the government showed in their -- in their 18 case in chief. He didn't hang around for that. Him, Steven,
19 and Scott got back into Eric's truck and went back to Idaho,
20 and they never returned again.

21 So, ladies and gentlemen, that's just a quick
22 snapshot, a quick summary of what we believe our case in chief
23 and our evidence is going to show. And with that, I will ask
24 you to keep everything in mind, keep an open mind, do not make 25 a decision yet until you hear all the evidence.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 But we are confident that once you hear all the
2 evidence, we believe that you are going to return not guilty
3 verdicts for Mr. Parker. Thank you for your time. And with 4 that, we will call our first witness, who, as I said, is
5 Mr. Parker.

6 THE COURT: You may go ahead and take the witness
7 stand.

8 ERIC PARKER,
9 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: State your full name and
11 spell it for the record.

12 THE WITNESS: Eric Parker, P-A-R-K-E-R.

13 THE COURT: You may go ahead.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. Eric, turning your attention to April of 2014, where were 18 you living?

19 A. Hailey, Idaho.

20 Q. How long have you lived there for?

21 A. A little under 10 years.

22 Q. Okay. What were you doing for a living at that time?

23 A. I'm an electrician.

24 Q. Do you have any background in ranching?

25 A. No.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. Who were you living in Idaho with at the time?

2 A. My wife and my two kids.

3 Q. Okay. Now, I want to focus your attention on the 4 gentleman in the white shirt and the black tie there, Steven
5 Stewart. Do you know him?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. How do you know him?

8 A. We've been friends for a long time, since -- since we were 9 kids.

10 Q. Okay. And you kept in contact with him the whole time?

11 A. Yeah. Yeah, more or less. We didn't always live in the 12 same town, but he ended up moving to Hailey as well from 13 Northern Nevada.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. Where we grew up.

16 Q. Now, in April of 2014, would you have considered him a
17 friend?

18 A. Yeah, absolutely.

19 Q. Okay. Now, I want to talk about the gentleman with the 20 white shirt, Mr. Scott Drexler. Did you know him back then?

21 A. Yeah. We knew each other less than Scott -- Steve and I.
22 We mostly talked on the Internet. He lived in the county north
23 of me in Idaho.

24 Q. Okay. What's the name of that county?

25 A. Custer County.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. And how long had you known Mr. Drexler?

2 A. Maybe about a year.

3 Q. Now, turning your attention to the same time period, April
4 of 2014, generally speaking, had you heard or seen or come to 5 know of anything in reference to what was going on with 6 Mr. Cliven Bundy?

7 A. I'm sorry. At what point?

8 Q. In April of 2014.

9 A. Yeah, it was, you know, probably around the 8th to the 10 10th that I first heard about it.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. Saw stuff about it.

13 Q. And just without getting exactly into what you heard and 14 saw yet, how did you find out?

15 A. Just across the Facebook feed, stories started popping up
16 about what was going on down there.

17 Q. Now, this Cliven Bundy individual, did you know Mr. Cliven
18 Bundy at the time?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. Did you know any of the Bundy family members at 21 that time?

22 A. No.

23 Q. And Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 88, please.

24 Okay. Eric, do you see this Facebook post here in 25 the middle?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. Yeah, the -- yes, I do.

2 Q. Okay. Is -- is that your Facebook?

3 A. As far as I'm -- I understand, it's the -- the warrant
4 return, so it doesn't like look Facebook, but, yeah.

5 Q. Okay. But you don't dispute that's you?

6 A. No, I do not.

7 Q. Okay. And this particular post, when is it made?

8 A. The 9th. 9th of April.

9 Q. All right. Now, we had a lot of testimony about Facebook.
10 Just right now I want to focus on the text. See that portion
11 right there?

12 A. I do.

13 Q. Okay. So, on April 9th, 2014, the text, is that something
14 that you wrote?

15 A. It is.

16 Q. Okay. Explain to the jury what you meant when you typed
17 that post?

18 A. So, I came to learn that, in this situation with the 19 Bundys, there was snipers above their ranch house.

20 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 BY MR. MARCHESE:

23 Q. Now, let me -- let me ask you about this. So, there is 24 this Elko Light Foot Militia; correct?

25 A. Yes.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. And that's part of your post; correct?

2 A. Yeah, technically. It's where I saw the -- the article,
3 interview.

4 Q. Okay. You said an article/interview?

5 A. I don't know for sure exactly -- I shared a lot of them.
6 And in this format, I don't really -- it doesn't help me
7 remember exactly which one it was I was sharing right there.

8 Q. When you say a lot of them, approximately how many 9 articles did you share?

10 A. Did I share?

11 Q. If you know.

12 A. Less than 10. I saw more than that though.

13 Q. Okay. And when you say articles that you shared, what 14 were those articles referring to?

15 A. The -- the situation in Southern Nevada, the things that 16 were going on down there. The -- the escalation that was 17 occurring down there.

18 Q. Okay. And Brian, if we can now bring up Exhibit 89.

19 Okay. So, this is another post that you admit that 20 you made; correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Okay. And this is April 10th, so this is one day after 23 the one that we've seen prior; correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. All right. Now, on this particular post, we have had some

Eric Parker - Direct

1 testimony about this particular article right here. Do you see
2 that? The militia's mobilizing article?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Is that an article that you personally viewed?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. There was some testimony previously about the video
7 regarding Ryan Payne. Do you remember that?

8 A. I remember the testimony, yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. On April 10th of 2014, did you know Mr. Payne?

10 A. No.

11 Q. This article from the Review Journal -- I mean, the --
12 excuse me -- the video from the Review Journal, did you view a 13 video from the Las Vegas Review Journal on April 10, 2014, that 14 was linked to a Ryan Payne video?

15 A. I -- I really don't think I did. I don't remember
16 watching any video with Ryan Payne in it. I remember from the 17 article -- the key things I remembered from the article were
18 the First Amendment zone --

19 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. We'll get into those items shortly, Eric.

23 And if we could switch to Exhibit 91, please, Brian.

24 Okay. If we can go to the bottom.

25 Eric, this is another post that you made, actually,

Eric Parker - Direct

1 April 11th. Do you see that up there?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And it says April 12th, but based on your recollection,
4 would that have been made the day before?

5 A. As I understand it, yeah.

6 Q. And why do you say as you understand it?

7 A. The UTC time and stuff like that.

8 Q. Now, this particular article, this was another article
9 that you shared; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is it an article that you personally viewed?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Now, based on this article, was this something
14 that -- well, let me ask you this.

15 At some point in time, you made the decision to go to 16 Bunkerville; correct?

17 A. I made the decision to --

18 Q. To go to Bunkerville; correct?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. All right. Was this article something that aided your 21 decision to do so?

22 A. This and the other ones, yes.

23 Q. That was my next question. So, you said you looked at or 24 shared approximately somewhere from 5 to 10? Is that fair to 25 say?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. Safe assumption, yeah.

2 Q. Okay. And those articles that you viewed -- personally
3 viewed and some of them which you shared on your Facebook
4 profile, those were articles that aided in your decision to go
5 to Bunkerville; correct?

6 A. Yeah. It wasn't just the articles though. It was the 7 videos I had seen, too.

8 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do we need a sidebar?

10 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

11 (Sidebar.)

12 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre, your objection.

13 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, he's about to go into videos
14 that he viewed, which would be the videos of the Bunkerville,
15 the tasing of the -- the David Bundy arrest, all of those 16 things that we have already addressed in the order.

17 He's already twice now has attempted to talk about 18 First Amendment zones; attempted to talk about snipers on the 19 ridge. It's clear he's going up there to violate the Court's
20 order.

21 Mr. Marchese's statement, I applaud him for not going
22 into those areas, but it's clear from his statement that the 23 testimony he's going to be adducing, his reasons for being on 24 that bridge, as we've already heard from his prior testimony in 25 the previous trial, go to all these issues, the 6th, the 9th,

Eric Parker - Direct

1 the tasing, the First Amendment zones, snipers, helicopters,
2 drones, snipers on the ridge, BLM shooting people in the wash,
3 all those things, Your Honor, that go to jury nullification
4 that the Court has already precluded in its order.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Well, a few things. I specifically
6 was very vague and general in my opening statement, because I
7 needed to lay the proper foundation before I even attempted to 8 get into that.

9 And when I would ask him questions, I would say
10 things like, generally, did this aid your decision to come and 11 things like that. So, I was very -- walking that tight line,
12 that tightrope in order to not violate the Court's order.

13 But it's my position, at this point, that we should 14 be allowed to get into it for many reasons. First of all,
15 these are exhibits that the government has entered into 16 evidence against Mr. Parker. I believe he has the right to 17 explain them.

18 I mean, basically, we're just left with what the 19 posts say. Some of the titles of these arguments -- or these 20 articles are somewhat inflammatory. I believe he needs to be 21 able to explain that.

22 Further, I believe the government has already opened
23 the door to a lot of them. We had some posts that were entered
24 in in reference to protesters getting arrested. Clearly, I
25 think that a good argument can be made that that references the

Eric Parker - Direct

1 David Bundy arrest.

2 Further, the government entered in a video. I think
3 it was through Agent Sully of when he went undercover at 4 that -- one of the earlier speeches. If you look on the
5 backdrop at that speech, there's a picture of David Bundy's
6 face. There's also pictures of the snipers on the ridge. So,
7 I think basically, by that, I think the government has opened
8 the door to that.

9 The article from the Las Vegas Review Journal, which 10 they've -- you know, they say is the Ryan Payne video, and it's 11 the Ammon Bundy tasing. It was taken down. I'm not saying it
12 was never the Ryan Payne video, but it was taken down. I have 13 it written down. It was on -- it was updated on April 9th,
14 2014, at 10:44 p.m. It's still up, if the Court wants to view
15 it. And it's the Ammon Bundy tasing.

16 So, I think Mr. Parker has the right to defend 17 himself and say, "No, that's not the video I saw," and show the 18 video that he actually saw. Because it's -- it goes clearly to 19 the things that I got into yesterday, that we have elements of 20 the crime, which are him traveling in interstate commerce,
21 to -- in aid of extortion. We have conspiracy. We have all
22 these other things.

23 And if he's there for the First Amendment zones, if 24 he's there because of David Bundy, if he's there because of 25 Ammon Bundy, if he's there because of Margaret, it's our

Eric Parker - Direct

1 contention that that nullifies -- maybe poor choice of words --
2 but that vitiates that element to the crime.

3 Otherwise, I'm just -- the only thing I can ask him
4 is "Did you go there to get the cattle?"

5 "No."

6 "Why did you go there?"

7 "Objection." I mean, I can't properly defend my 8 client based upon this. I do not intend upon getting into the 9 Sandoval statements. I read the Court's order. I tried to 10 figure out a way legally in which I could get it in, and I hate
11 to say I agree with Mr. Myhre on that.

12 But the other things, I think, are fair game at this
13 point, which is just simply; A, commenting on the evidence; B
14 rebutting the evidence, some of which the government has 15 already opened the door to; and, C, defending Mr. Parker in 16 reference to essential elements of the crime.

17 THE COURT: So, how would that evidence -- the 18 evidence that you're attempting to elicit, how would that rebut
19 the charges?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Well, the government's theory of the 21 case, or a lot of their theories of the case, is that there was 22 a call to arms. And the call to arms is brought out, and all
23 these different people, including Mr. Parker, came to 24 Bunkerville in order to aid Mr. Cliven Bundy in getting his 25 cattle back.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Based upon that, I think we have the right to say:
2 "No, that's not why he went to Bunkerville. He went to
3 Bunkerville for all these other reasons and not for cows." The 4 reason I asked him, "Do you have any -- do you know the Bundys?
5 Do you have anything to do with ranching?"

6 THE COURT: So, how do those other reasons, that you
7 call them -- how do they rebut the charges?

8 MR. MARCHESE: It shows he did not travel in 9 interstate commerce in aid of extortion.

10 THE COURT: How does it show that?

11 MR. MARCHESE: Because he had other reasons. There
12 has to be a reason that he went. I mean, it wasn't as if he
13 just decided, "Oh, I am going to Bunkerville on vacation."

14 I mean, he had never been there before. He had no
15 ties whatsoever. The reason that he went there was for the 16 reasons that I've previously proffered. It had nothing to do
17 with cattle. It had everything to do with these other issues.

18 THE COURT: But it's still in response to the call
19 for arms by the Bundy family.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I disagree with that, that 21 that's the reason he went. I mean, it's our assertion, and
22 it's always been our assertion, and it's always been Eric's
23 statement consistently he went because of First Amendment zone;
24 he went because people were getting hurt.

25 THE COURT: As represented by the Bundy family in

Eric Parker - Direct

1 their request for assistance, because that's -- the problem I
2 am having is I am not seeing how it would rebut, other than 3 give an alternative defense that the law does not recognize.

4 So, I'm not seeing how -- well, I will let the
5 government speak, but I think I still have questions.

6 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Well, as to the issue
7 of Mr. Parker presenting a defense, Mr. Parker has the right to 8 present a defense. He doesn't have a right to introduce
9 inadmissible evidence. Nor does the fact that admissible
10 evidence, such as the exhibits we've admitted and the Court has 11 admitted -- nor does that open the door to inadmissible
12 evidence.

13 The -- Mr. Marchese's mixing motive and intent. He's 14 trying to say his client or is trying to advance proof that his 15 client had a good motive to commit a crime. That he was doing
16 all these things for good reasons.

17 That's no different than the cases we've cited in our 18 brief, where you can't say, "Oh, my defense to burning down the 19 abortion clinic was because I oppose abortion, for all these 20 reasons. Look at all the horrible things."

21 THE COURT: And all the videos that I've seen on the 22 Internet about what they do at the clinics. Right.

23 MR. MYHRE: The horrible things that are -- the 24 photographs that we've seen and so forth. It's the same thing
25 here.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 And to introduce -- the case law is clear. The
2 reasons aren't admissible to show a good motive. It just
3 isn't. And when we go down this slope, the probative value is
4 zero, as the Court has already pointed out. It doesn't point
5 it out. It doesn't rebut any element of the offenses.

6 All it does is show an alternative motive. It has
7 zero probative value, and the prejudice is extremely high given
8 the -- you know, they are basically blaming the victim, and 9 these are the horrible things the victim has done. And that --
10 that is very prejudicial to the government's case.

11 THE COURT: So, I think what your -- what the defense
12 is trying to target is the intent during the travel before
13 arriving in Nevada. So, this is probably not a great example.

14 But, for example, say his grandmother lived here, and 15 she was sick, and he was on his way to Nevada because she's 16 sick. And after he gets to Nevada, he finds out about 17 something and decides to join. Then perhaps that would go to 18 his intent, right, while he's traveling if he doesn't form
19 intent until he's here. That sort of a situation.

20 But what we've got here still seems to be an
21 explanation that he's trying to provide that isn't actually a
22 legal rebutting. It doesn't rebut the intent element.

23 So, I am counting. We have got three objections so
24 far. The first one is when he tried to talk about snipers
25 being at the Bundy Ranch. The second one was when he tried to

Eric Parker - Direct

1 talk about the First Amendment. And then this third one is
2 talking about or attempting to talk about the video tasing.

3 And that's in less than 10 minutes he's already tried
4 to get three different things, three different areas that we've
5 specifically -- the Court has specifically admonished him, and
6 I believe Mr. Marchese probably has, too, because you are an
7 honorable officer of the Court. And I think that was --

8 MR. MARCHESE: And if I could be clear.

9 THE COURT: -- something I was just assuming. But do
10 we need to take a break for you to admonish him that if he
11 keeps trying to answer the questions by referring to evidence
12 that we've already ruled is not admissible, that he's going to 13 waive his right to testify or look really bad in front of the 14 jury, one or the other or maybe both? But --

15 MR. MARCHESE: We have all -- Mr. Tanasi, and 16 Mr. Leventhal, and myself, one of the reasons for our meeting
17 on Saturday was they were all furnished a copy of the Court
18 order, which they are already aware of, but we just gave them
19 one physically so they have it.

20 My instructions to Mr. Parker, as we were -- in 21 reference to him testifying, was until I ask you specific 22 questions, just be general, just be vague, and then if the 23 objections get lodged, we can sort it out as need be.

24 So, that was my -- those were my instructions to him.
25 I understand the Court's ruling in reference to the elements of

Eric Parker - Direct

1 the defense, but at the same time, is he allowed to comment on
2 the evidence?

3 I mean, we have these Facebook posts. I can't ask
4 him what they say, or what they do, or why did you post them?
5 That's the issue. The government, in my opinion, has opened
6 the door.

7 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, it goes -- the -- the 8 Facebook postings themselves do not explain all of these issues
9 that we've just talked about. And so now we're going behind
10 the Facebook posting to inadmissible evidence. And I -- I fail
11 to see the argument that somehow that is prejudicing the 12 defendant.

13 He can talk about the Facebook posts, that's there.
14 That he did it, or didn't do it, or somebody else did it. But 15 going into the reasons for it, again, is -- is going to this 16 improper showing of "I've got a good motive to commit this 17 offense."

18 So, I guess I'm just not seeing the connection here
19 between the Facebook postings and then going -- looking behind
20 the Facebook postings and saying, "Oh, here is my whole host of 21 reasons why I did that."

22 How that's any different than what we just talked
23 about in terms of why I burned down the abortion clinic, I just 24 don't --

25 MR. MARCHESE: I understand that, and I agree and

Eric Parker - Direct

1 respect the Court's ruling. And I have made my record, and it
2 is what it is. If we lose, then, you know, we made a record
3 for appeal.

4 But at the same time, I would just say, by the 5 government introducing those exhibits, we have every right to 6 comment on them.

7 THE COURT: Not every right. I mean, the law is 8 clear that the right to present evidence doesn't mean that you
9 can elicit anything. It still has to be relevant and 10 probative.

11 MR. MARCHESE: I agree with that.

12 THE COURT: So --

13 MR. MARCHESE: But when the government opens the door
14 by admitting these Facebook posts with links to articles, I
15 would argue that we have every right to now explain them. But 16 the Court's been clear.

17 MR. MYHRE: And our position remains the same. The 18 motive behind posting a Facebook posting is not relevant,
19 especially when the motive is what we've all talked about.

20 THE COURT: And the defense is not prevented from 21 going -- from addressing the posts. You just can't go into 22 collateral evidence. You can't go into collateral matters.
23 You can ask whether he posted it. What it was that day,
24 whether or not he read it, things of that nature, but -- you
25 know, to test the credibility of the government's witnesses who

Eric Parker - Direct

1 have discussed the Facebook post.

2 MR. MARCHESE: I disagree. I think it's -- the
3 government -- I mean, he can't explain why he posted it? I
4 can't ask that. All I can say is "Did you post it?" And 5 that's it.

6 THE COURT: Well, to be clear, the government did not
7 admit the actual articles.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

9 THE COURT: So, the subject matter of the articles
10 has not been introduced into evidence and is not before the
11 jury.

12 What is introduced is the business records that
13 provide a summary of the Facebook postings, and some include
14 links, and text, and titles of the links, not even in their 15 entirety. Sometimes it's just dot, dot, dot, in quotation
16 marks. So it doesn't even seem like it's the entire title of 17 the article, let alone the entire article is not included.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Correct. But some of them don't even 19 include the text from Mr. Parker. It's just the article.

20 THE COURT: And the -- and the evidence that the 21 government proffered was that he posted the article. So, I
22 mean, if he didn't post it, you can certainly elicit that. If 23 he posted it without reading it, you can certainly elicit that.

24 MR. MARCHESE: But they are talking about militias.
25 The articles talk about the standoff in Nevada. They talk

Eric Parker - Direct

1 about militia mobilizing, all these things. I can't ask him
2 anything about that.

3 And they got into it collaterally, too, with the Ryan
4 Payne video. That was not the video that was up when
5 Mr. Parker, at least, shared it.

6 MR. MYHRE: And he's already testified he didn't see
7 the Ryan Payne video, so he's addressed it.

8 THE COURT: The Court agrees. Do you need to take a
9 break to admonish him?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I am just going to -- I will 11 move on. I mean, I can't -- it's basically -- I will just 12 say -- I guess I will just skip --

13 THE COURT: I know you are in a difficult position.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I am listening, because I'm 15 trying to find out --

16 THE COURT: I think we all --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. I'm trying to figure out
18 what I'm going to do.

19 THE COURT: I think we all sympathize with the 20 situation. But, unfortunately, that's the parameters that the 21 law requires. And that's why I keep saying if we need a break
22 for you to admonish the client, because I don't want him to
23 forfeit his right to testify, but if he keeps trying to elicit
24 or trying to testify in violation of the Court order --

25 MR. MARCHESE: I think, at this point, maybe it would

Eric Parker - Direct

1 be best if Your Honor could do it.

2 THE COURT: He is tying my hands. I don't want to
3 tell him he can't testify anymore, but --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's tying our hands, too, because
5 I'm at a loss of what I'm going to consult with Mr. Drexler
6 this weekend on, and given thus far and then getting into -- I
7 mean, is he allowed to say "I saw BLM officers pointing weapons
8 at me" or --

9 MS. CREEGAN: No.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I mean, how far is this going? Is he 11 allowed to say "I thought I saw, you know, drones above me when 12 I was on the bridge." I mean, if that's what he saw and that's 13 what he heard --

14 THE COURT: If you want to ask a question, and you
15 are not sure whether or not you should ask that question, you
16 could either ask for a sidebar or you can ask the question.
17 And if there's an objection and you expect an objection, then
18 you should be prepared to provide a legal response for why you
19 think that that question is relevant and proper and not in 20 violation of the Court order. But I can't give you legal 21 advice. I can't give you a script.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, I understand.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Well --

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have done this. I have just never 25 done this. I'm sorry.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MYHRE: Do you have an offer of proof of what
2 he's going to say when you get to the bridge?

3 MR. MARCHESE: You know what he's going to say.

4 MR. MYHRE: Could you put it on the record?

5 MR. MARCHESE: At this point, based upon what the 6 government's position is, I can't ask him what he saw and what
7 he heard. I guess I can only ask him what he did.

8 I mean, I'm not allowed to say that they said -- he 9 thought they were going to use lethal force. You are going to 10 object to that; correct?

11 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

12 MR. MARCHESE: You are going to object that there
13 were snipers on the ridge; correct?

14 MR. MYHRE: That he's going to testify that there
15 were snipers on ridge, yes.

16 MR. MARCHESE: You will object to any gun pointing,
17 just generally speaking; correct?

18 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Even the stuff that you entered into
20 evidence?

21 MR. MYHRE: I'm sorry?

22 MR. MARCHESE: Even the stuff you entered into 23 evidence? Can he comment on that?

24 MR. MYHRE: Well, if it's entered into evidence, you
25 can -- that's -- I would think you can ask him about that, but

Eric Parker - Direct

1 you can't ask him about whether or not he --

2 MR. MARCHESE: Saw people pointing weapons at him.

3 MR. MYHRE: At him. Actually, hold on.

4 If your purpose in doing that is to raise a
5 self-defense, which is not cognizable, then, yes. I would
6 object. It goes to BLM conduct.

7 MR. MARCHESE: It goes to his intent. It goes --
8 there's a big difference if there's a kindergarten playground,
9 and he's pointing his gun at the kindergarteners as opposed to 10 there's BLM agents pointing guns at him.

11 MR. MYHRE: No, it's -- it doesn't rise to the level
12 of self-defense. So, it's basically BLM conduct. Again, it's 13 the --

14 MR. MARCHESE: So, I can't ask what he saw. Just 15 talk about what he did.

16 THE COURT: No, I think he can testify as to what he 17 saw. He just can't testify about whether that put fear.
18 Whether that -- whether that was the reason why he -- you know,
19 the intent. That is the problem, because it doesn't --

20 MR. MARCHESE: Every crime, there's two things.
21 There's an act, and there's an intent.

22 THE COURT: The self-defense, if it was available,
23 would be to negate the intent. Because it's not available,
24 then he can't solicit the intent of self-defense. But what he 25 saw is fair game.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: But if he meant to assault agents, if
2 he meant to threaten agents, if he meant to extort cattle and
3 all those things, his actions -- there has to be an intent in 4 every crime or almost every crime.

5 There has to be an intent to back up the action.
6 That's why he would testify to those specific things. The 7 government can say, just as they did in the last trial,
8 Mr. Parker has no self-defense right. There is no instruction
9 for that, so that is not to be considered.

10 MR. MYHRE: The issue there is that now it's before
11 the jury. And his -- if he's going to say "I was there because 12 I intended to protect people in the wash," or "I intended to 13 fight snipers," or "I intended to back" -- you know, "make sure
14 the BLM didn't shoot anybody," that's intent to commit the 15 crime.

16 He's basically testifying that I committed the crime.
17 I don't have a self-defense. I raised guns at an officer,
18 because I thought all these things in my alternative reality.
19 He doesn't get to explain his alternative view of reality, get 20 that before the jury, in order to talk about things that don't 21 go to his intent.

22 The things that you intend to offer go directly to 23 his intent to commit the crime as in he intended to commit the 24 crime. It's a crime to raise a gun at a federal officer when 25 there's no self-defense.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: I understand that, and you will argue
2 that.

3 THE COURT: What it comes down to is he's trying to 4 elicit a defense that the law doesn't recognize. And then by 5 eliciting that defense anyway, when the law does not recognize
6 it, that is a jury nullification argument which is not
7 permissible.

8 So, that's why the intent didn't come in. He can 9 testify about what he saw. He can't testify about what he 10 felt.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

12 THE COURT: But he can testify what he saw. He saw
13 the -- the BLM with the gun. He didn't see them with the gun.
14 He did see them pointing. He didn't see them pointing. They 15 were dressed like this. They were dressed like that. That's 16 permissible, but not that next step of that's why he did what
17 he did or that justifies what he did. That's not legally
18 recognized.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: And that goes for the other ones.
20 And I don't mean to keep beating a dead horse, but I'm going
21 back to the interstate travel.

22 If he saw something, and he didn't come down for 23 the -- if he saw a video, and he didn't come down for the, you
24 know, extortion, to get cattle, then we're not asking for a
25 self-defense -- a defense. We're asking to -- a defense of

Eric Parker - Direct

1 that's not why I came down.

2 It's their burden to prove that that's what his
3 intent to come down to extort, and he's -- should be allowed to 4 give some explanation other than what the government thinks he
5 came down, for which is "I saw these videos" or "I saw these
6 things."

7 I understand the Court's ruling. I'm just -- want to 8 put a record on that if he saw it, and that's what motivated --
9 that's what he came down to for, not -- not because he came to 10 extort. If he saw somebody who -- they said, "Hey, we've 11 got -- they've got cows. Come and help us get our cows." I
12 haven't seen anything of that, "Come help us get our cows."

13 THE COURT: He's pointing weapons at abortion clinic
14 staff, because he saw a video on the newspaper with, you know,
15 unborn fetuses being shredded in a shredding machine. That 16 would be grotesque, but it wouldn't be a legal defense. And so
17 that's the problem. So, I sympathize that that's --

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: And that would go to an assault or a
19 threat.

20 THE COURT: -- where you are, but that's a fact and 21 not a legal argument that you are making.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

23 THE COURT: So, we keep having this discussion, and 24 it never changes.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, no.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 THE COURT: Because you are just arguing the facts
2 that we're all familiar with, but not giving me a legal
3 justification for ruling in your favor.

4 So, that's why we're stuck, and we're just going to 5 keep talking about it --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: We don't have a self-defense --

7 THE COURT: -- and talking about it --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: We don't have a self-defense for 9 traveling interstate, and there's the charge of traveling
10 interstate for extortion. There is no self-defense for that.
11 So, there's other recognizable defenses, like, I didn't -- I'm 12 sorry. I didn't do that.

13 You are going to the assault, pointing a gun at the 14 assault and the threatening. I agree. I've got a self-defense
15 for that. But the traveling in interstate commerce for 16 purposes of extortion does not have or even amount to a
17 self-defense or defense of the others, and so there is defenses
18 for that.

19 And so the defenses would be, "No, I did not come
20 down to extort. I came down because I saw these things, and 21 that's why I came down," which negates the element that they 22 must prove. It negates that.

23 I'm going to that one specific count on why it's 24 relevant on seeing those videos. It's not a self-defense.
25 It's a negate of what the government is trying to proof beyond

Eric Parker - Direct

1 a reasonable doubt. And he's saying, "No, that's not why I did
2 it."

3 So, I've made my record, but I just think that we're
4 talking about two different counts that have two different
5 defenses. We can't just lump them all in one. I agree with 6 Your Honor. You can't point a gun because of abortion. But if 7 you travel in interstate commerce, not knowing what was going
8 on, that's a completely different defense.

9 MR. MYHRE: And that's -- we have already made our 10 record on this, but that is precisely what the order addresses.
11 Because you can't go to the motive of why someone came. You
12 can't -- to show -- motive doesn't prove intent. All you're 13 doing is introducing -- attempting to introduce the reasons why
14 someone came to Bunkerville.

15 The evidence -- okay -- of that, that you seek to 16 introduce, is all nullifying evidence. Because you're talking
17 about things that don't go to any defense. You're talking
18 about the victim deserved it. You're talking about the victim
19 did all these horrible things.

20 You're not -- you're going well beyond what was in 21 the individual's -- you know, what the decision was. You're 22 going for all the reasons for the decision, and we've already 23 talked about that.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, the travel in interstate
25 commerce, you can change it with the intent or with the motive

Eric Parker - Direct

1 to -- to extort --

2 THE COURT: No, it's not --

3 MR. MYHRE: Motive is not intent.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I understand that. But it's not --
5 motive intent, that's not why he came. And he should be able 6 to negate or explain why he came.

7 THE COURT: If he came to Las Vegas to gamble, and
8 while he was here, he found out about the Bundy event.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

10 THE COURT: Now you get rid of the interstate
11 commerce.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

13 THE COURT: But if you already know about the Bundy
14 event before you got here --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

16 THE COURT: -- and you're calling ahead and saying
17 that you're coming. Can you come and stay at their ranch, so
18 you don't actually have that factual defense either.

19 But, I think that there's no changing of the ruling
20 at this point. We will just go forward --

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor --

22 THE COURT: -- as best as we can with Mr. Parker.

23 MR. MYHRE: I'm sorry. Before -- and I know we've 24 been back here a long time, but I wanted to go back to one
25 aspect that the Court discussed with Mr. Marchese. And that is

Eric Parker - Direct

1 he can testify as to what he saw.

2 Well, he's going to say like "I saw snipers. I saw
3 BLM trying to shoot people." It's those conclusions that we
4 anticipate the testimony is going to go well beyond "I saw
5 people with guns. I saw people up on a hill."

6 He's going to project, in that testimony, his 7 conclusions as to what these people were doing, what their 8 intent was; and, therefore, to try to explain what he was 9 doing.

10 So, that's where, I think, the danger is going to lie
11 in terms of going down that road in terms of what he's going to 12 talk about what he saw.

13 THE COURT: I think he can talk about what he saw.
14 He just can't talk about --

15 MR. MARCHESE: Just don't bring up --

16 THE COURT: -- the next step up, how that made him
17 feel or what he thought about that.

18 MR. MARCHESE: So, do not try to elicit anything in 19 reference to his subjective thought process at this time.

20 THE COURT: (Nods head.)

21 MR. MARCHESE: Based upon that --

22 THE COURT: In relation to --

23 MR. MARCHESE: What he saw.

24 THE COURT: Right. What -- in relation to a
25 self-defense.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I can -- I can certainly move
2 on from First Amendment zones. That's easy enough. I will
3 just move on to the next line of questioning. But I believe I
4 am going to need a sidebar, or a break, or something in order
5 to admonish him in reference to when we get to the bridge.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, if he saw the cows, and it
7 made him feel happy, that's fine. So, those kind of feelings,
8 those are fine. If it goes to self-defense, the fear, that's 9 the part that --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: -- is going to be objectionable.

12 MR. MARCHESE: I need to admonish him in reference to 13 the 40 or so minutes he's on the bridge.

14 THE COURT: I think that's the best I can do, is just 15 let him tell about what he saw and not get into how it made him
16 feel or what his assumption was based on what he saw.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: We are trying. It's not easy.

19 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins in all the defense
20 positions and objections here today. Thank you.

21 (End of sidebar.)

22 THE COURT: So, we are going to go ahead and take a
23 little break, so that we can hopefully get things back on 24 track.

25 During this break, I do admonish the jury to remember

Eric Parker - Direct

1 that you are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit
2 anyone to discuss it with you. You may talk to your fellow
3 jurors about other things, but not about this case.

4 Please do not attempt to perform any research, or any
5 independent investigation, nor read, or view, or listen to
6 anything that touches upon this case in any way. Remember, if
7 you do have questions, please, we ask that you just write them
8 down, so that both parties have an opportunity to address and 9 respond to those questions.

10 Rather than going off and looking for something that 11 may or may not be correct that then counsel has no idea that 12 you've, you know, put something in your head that is not
13 appropriate that they don't have an opportunity to comment
14 upon.

15 And finally, please do not reach any opinions or form
16 any opinions yet. We do have more testimony, and you'll be 17 provided evidence, and then the jury instructions of law.
18 After that, you will hear closing arguments. And once closing
19 arguments are over, then you will be excused to begin the 20 deliberation process.

21 So, we will go ahead and stand for the jury. It's 22 10:30. We will take 15? Okay. We will take a 15-minute break
23 until 10:45, and then we will welcome them back.

24 So, the jury is excused. And Mr. Parker, after the 25 jury exits the courtroom, then you may also take your bathroom

Eric Parker - Direct

1 break.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And we will resume back here at 10:45.

4 (Recess 10:28 a.m. Resumed 10:44 a.m. Jury out.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Leventhal is back, so
6 let's go ahead and go back on the record.

7 We are on the record outside the presence of the 8 jury, because the Court needs to admonish the defendant,
9 Mr. Parker, who is on the witness stand, and to elicit some 10 information also from Mr. Parker.

11 So, Mr. Parker, I need to make sure that you
12 understand that it is your decision whether or not to testify.
13 Your attorney can counsel you and suggest to you and recommend 14 to you whether he thinks you should testify or whether he 15 thinks you should not testify. But ultimately, it is entirely
16 up to you to make that decision. Do you understand that?

17 THE WITNESS: I do.

18 THE COURT: And when you make that decision, it's 19 important to me that it is an informed decision, which means
20 that you understand the effects of the decision.

21 There is a Court order that explains and clarifies
22 the information that is -- has been shown to be relevant and 23 admissible under the law.

24 My understanding is that your attorney has provided
25 you a copy of that order and discussed it with you.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Unfortunately, in less than the first 10 minutes of your
2 testimony, on three separate occasions, you tried to testify as
3 to areas that you're specifically not permitted to do.

4 So, the first one was as to the snipers, the second
5 one was as to the First Amendment, and the third one was as to 6 videos regarding tasing and other collateral incidents.

7 So, that's why I recommended we take a break in case
8 you need to talk to Mr. Marchese some more, if you need to 9 clarify, because if you are intentionally violating the Court
10 orders, then I cannot permit you to testify. And I do not want
11 to have to make that finding that you are not permitted to 12 testify because you are in violation of Court order.

13 So, I'm admonishing you and explaining that to you
14 now, but I also want to give you the opportunity, if you want
15 to take a little more time to talk to Mr. Marchese about, so,
16 what can I say or what can I not say and so forth, if there is 17 that confusion still that's lingering in your mind.

18 So, I'm giving you the benefit of the doubt,
19 essentially, is what I'm saying. Even though I think it's 20 likely that you are intentionally violating the Court order,
21 I'm willing to give you the benefit of the doubt and give you
22 some time to speak to Mr. Marchese to help you to be able to
23 testify.

24 So, do you want to take a little bit longer break to 25 talk to Mr. Marchese?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 THE WITNESS: Sure.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead and do that. And then,
3 Mr. Marchese, when you let us know that you're ready, if you
4 want to --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor. Excuse me, Your Honor.
7 If -- before Mr. Marchese leaves, is it possible for to us
8 discuss that one matter that we wanted to make a further record
9 in the Court, and this is with respect to what he can testify
10 to as to what he observed on the bridge.

11 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

12 MR. MYHRE: The record should reflect that 13 Mr. Parker's returned with Mr. Marchese.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, they never left. They just got as 15 far as the door but didn't walk outside.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 Your Honor, it's the government's position that what 18 Mr. Parker may have seen in the wash or what he was -- intends
19 to testify to as what he saw, does not go to any cognizable
20 defense and is, in fact, jury nullification.

21 So, if he says "I saw BLM officers raise weapons,"
22 that's not relevant to anything, because there's no
23 self-defense that is cognizable in this case.

24 And all it is is saying "I was -- they are provoking
25 me to do something." Provocation is not a defense, and

Eric Parker - Direct

1 provocation is irrelevant.

2 And, so, therefore, if -- if his intent is to testify
3 as I saw BLM officers pointing guns; therefore, I raised my gun
4 or I put -- I got down prone, or whatever it is he intends to 5 testify, we believe that is similarly irrelevant and in 6 nullification territory, because it does not go to a defense.
7 It goes to his claim of provocation. "I was provoked to doing
8 it."

9 And it's -- to use -- to go back to sort of the -- 10 some of the analogies we've used, it's no different than if -- 11 if this were a case of arson in an abortion clinic, and the 12 arsonist wants to testify, "Well, I did it for all these 13 reasons." Now the arsonist says, "When I got to the clinic, lo
14 and behold, they were doing abortions there."

15 That would be the same type of nullification
16 information that it's not relevant to anything. It just -- all
17 it does, it puts seeds into the juror's mind that there's 18 something there about BLM conduct. There's something there
19 about the conduct of what's going on that justifies the actions
20 of the defendant.

21 And once we start down that slippery slope, it's --
22 it's really -- it's really hard to stop it. And we just 23 believe we are into nullifying or mistrial territory if we go
24 into what he observed in the wash.

25 The fact that the defendant may or may not have

Eric Parker - Direct

1 anything relevant to say is not -- not the government's, you
2 know, fault. It's whether there's a legal defense or a legal
3 claim that can be made, not whether the defendant can testify
4 about anything under the sun. So, that's -- that's our
5 position, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. And the Court disagrees. The 7 Court believes that the defendant can testify about what he saw
8 and what he heard.

9 He cannot -- it cannot be offered to show his intent
10 and whether or not he was afraid or acting in defense of others
11 or in defense of himself, merely because the law does not
12 recognize that defense.

13 But he can testify about what he saw, and what he 14 heard, and even what he felt, if it's unrelated to the 15 self-defense or a defense of others, so long as it's still 16 relevant. It could be offered for other reasons. If it's to 17 impeach the credibility of a different witness, who said that 18 they saw, you know, someone dressed in all red. And, you know,
19 Mr. Parker says, "There was no person dressed in all red. I
20 never saw the person dressed in all red" or so forth.

21 He can provide testimony about what he saw, so long
22 as it's not for the purpose of -- only relevant to a
23 self-defense or a defense of others, which is not available.
24 But he can testify about what he saw and what he heard.

25 He can also testify -- testify about what he felt, so

Eric Parker - Direct

1 long as it was not offered for a self-defense to show a
2 self-defense or defense of others. That's not available,
3 because that would be a jury nullification argument, and so the 4 Court cannot permit that.

5 However, he can testify about how he felt, for 6 example, as I said, when the cows are released. If he wants to 7 testify about how that made him happy, or how it didn't really
8 matter to him, or those kinds of feelings, that's -- if it's 9 relevant to something else, that's appropriate.

10 So, he just can't talk about whether or not he was 11 afraid, afraid of being shot himself, or afraid that other
12 people were going to be shot, because the relevance of that 13 would only be in regards to a defense that's not available;
14 and, therefore, would only be a nullification argument.

15 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor -- and thank you, Your Honor.
16 And I appreciate you allowing me to make a record on that.

17 I just -- so, for clarification purposes, Your Honor,
18 then, for example, we anticipate his testimony would be "I
19 heard, when I was at the assembly area, that people were going
20 to be shot in the wash."

21 That again would go to, you know, his -- his 22 self-defense claim, his imperfect self-defense claim that is 23 not cognizable. And so we believe that would be highly 24 prejudicial, because now the government's put in a position of,
25 you know, trying to demonstrate that no one was going to be

Eric Parker - Direct

1 shot in the wash. And it's not -- and that is irrelevant.

2 Similarly, we anticipate his testimony to be that "I
3 saw," quote, unquote "snipers on the mesa," or "I saw
4 militarized people in the wash." These are all his 5 characterizations, his conclusions, you know, which again go to 6 nullification, because now it plants in the juror's mind that 7 there are snipers or that there are military people in the
8 wash.

9 So, we would seek clarification that he not be 10 allowed to characterize, and especially with respect to what he 11 heard about people being shot in the wash, because it's just --
12 you know, it's -- again, that's very highly prejudicial.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, if I may.

14 THE COURT: It comes down to the same thing. It
15 needs to be legally probative. It can't be probative of a 16 defense that's not available. It needs to be relevant and 17 probative of something that is recognizable.

18 MR. MARCHESE: And the problem is what the government
19 is failing to elicit is the fact that they have brought a lot
20 of this testimony out already. They have brought in pictures
21 and testimony of Agent Swanson pointing his weapon.

22 They brought in the four-man stack through a Flynn
23 video. They brought in Todd Engel telling Sergeant Serena they 24 are pointing weapons at them down in the wash. So, much of 25 this evidence -- and also to the Shilaikis videos. If you

Eric Parker - Direct

1 focus in on certain areas, it shows pictures or video footage
2 of agents pointing weapons.

3 So, a lot of this evidence has already been elicited.
4 So, we just simply would be commenting on the evidence that the 5 government has already brought into evidence. They can't have
6 it both ways, Your Honor.

7 MR. MYHRE: I believe the Court has already ruled
8 that he --

9 THE COURT: The Court's made its ruling. If the 10 evidence is probative and relevant of something that is legally
11 cognizable, then, of course, it's permitted.

12 If it's only relevant or only provided for the 13 purpose of justifying a defense that's not available, then it
14 is essentially only being provided for nullification, which the 15 Court is not permitted to allow.

16 All right. Let's go ahead and take your break. I
17 don't want to limit your time, so that he's clear, and we don't 18 have any more objections.

19 (Recess 10:55 a.m. Resumed 11:03 a.m. Jury out.)

20 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, anything you want to put on 21 the record?

22 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor. I have spoken with 23 Mr. Parker. I think we're -- we will be fine.

24 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Parker, do you feel 25 you had sufficient time to discuss the issues with your

Eric Parker - Direct

1 attorney, Mr. Marchese?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And have you come to a decision as to 4 whether you want to continue to testifying or not?

5 THE WITNESS: I absolutely want to continue to
6 testify for the Court.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. So, we'll go ahead and 8 call back in the jury then.

9 (Jury in.)

10 THE COURT: All right. The jury may go ahead and be
11 seated. Everyone else may be seated as well afterwards.

12 All right. So, let's go ahead and continue with
13 direct examination.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 Q. Eric, when we left off, I believe we were speaking about 16 you were looking at some different items on the Internet;
17 correct?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay. So, at some point in time, you made the decision to 20 go to Bunkerville; is that right?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And approximately when was that?

23 A. You know, it was three years ago, but I would say on the 24 10th.

25 Q. Could we get up Exhibit 92, please, Brian?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Okay. Now, this is a post that you made sometime --
2 looks like on the 11th. Does that sound correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And that's based on that UTC time that we've had a
5 lot of testimony about; right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you make that post?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. All right. And who did you reach out to?

10 A. I'm not sure who runs the "Support Cliven Bundy" page, but 11 I assumed it was somebody that was -- was there at the -- at 12 the ranch area.

13 Q. Okay. Now, based on this post, you obviously made the 14 decision. You say "we" in this post. Who is we?

15 A. Scott Drexler, Steven Stewart, and myself.

16 Q. Now, when you made the decision to go, had you heard
17 anything about Cliven Bundy's issue with the cattle?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And generally speaking, what did you hear about the 20 cattle and his issue with the BLM?

21 A. I want to make sure I am staying within the parameter.
22 The -- I knew there was a Court order. I knew that they had
23 been arguing about the -- the grazing fees, they being the BLM
24 and Mr. Bundy. I knew that he had the water rights, and that 25 that made him feel like he --

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. That's a legal
2 conclusion.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 THE WITNESS: Okay.

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Yeah, don't talk about what Mr. Bundy felt. Just talk
7 about what you knew, if anything, about Mr. Bundy's issue with 8 the BLM.

9 A. I knew they were rounding up the cattle, and that was 10 causing protests.

11 Q. Okay. Now, did you -- were you aware of specifically a
12 Court order?

13 A. As far as aware, I had heard there was a Court order.
14 Yes. I never read the Court order or saw the Court order.

15 Q. Okay. Did you do any research in reference to the Court
16 order?

17 A. To the Court order specifically, no, sir.

18 Q. Okay. Now, when you made the decision to go, was the 19 decision based upon going to Bunkerville to get the cattle
20 back?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay. Now, when you went there, you drove in your truck;
23 correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You drove with Steven Stewart and Scott Drexler; correct?

Eric Parker - Direct

- 1 A. Yes.
- 2 Q. What did you bring with you?
- 3 A. Quite a bit of stuff. Camping gear for a couple days,
4 food, a tent, that kind of stuff. And then my -- my body armor
5 and my rifle.
- 6 Q. Why did you bring your rifle?
- 7 A. To protect myself.
- 8 Q. And why would you bring body armor?
- 9 A. Also to protect myself.
- 10 Q. Did you bring a knife?
- 11 A. Yeah, I always -- a knife is part of camping gear, I would 12 say, yeah.
- 13 Q. Can you speak up? I'm sorry.
- 14 A. The knife, yes. Yes, I did.
- 15 Q. Okay.
- 16 A. Part of the camping gear.
- 17 Q. When you left with Mr. Drexler and Mr. Stewart, when was 18 that approximately?
- 19 A. I want to say before noon on the 11th.
- 20 Q. What was your plan when you left?
- 21 A. To go protest.
- 22 Q. Now, in the government's case in chief, they mentioned the 23 Euclid Stockyard. Are you familiar with that?
- 24 A. Yes.
- 25 Q. Did you ever call the Euclid Stockyard?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. I did.

2 Q. Why?

3 A. The posts, I remember, if I am remembering correctly, said
4 that they were going to sell the cattle. And I didn't
5 understand that to be part of what was going on, so I was 6 curious.

7 I was going to call and ask if -- what that was 8 about, that they were buying the cattle? I thought that they 9 were just going to be rounding it up; getting it off of what 10 they called the public lands.

11 Q. Okay. And did you call?

12 A. I did. Nobody answered, so --

13 Q. Did you ever call back?

14 A. No. I lost the urge.

15 Q. Now, approximately -- I know you said this already.
16 Approximately when did you arrive at the -- in Bunkerville?

17 A. I think it was about 2:00, 2:00 a.m., 1:00 a.m.

18 Q. Okay. When you got there, what happened?

19 A. We pulled up and saw the stage area. And there was a
20 couple of people standing out there still welcoming people
21 showing up.

22 Q. Did you know those people?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. And after you met the people that you didn't know,
25 what happened then?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. They asked where we wanted to camp. There looked like
2 there was kind of a party going on at one of the campgrounds,
3 and they said that the militia was camping on the other side of 4 the river.

5 Q. Which camp had the "party," quote, unquote "going on"?

6 A. Just the one that was right there by the stage, sir.

7 Q. And which -- did you -- did you go to one of the camps?

8 A. Yeah, I did. I went -- I chose to go over to the other
9 side. I was curious, and I had a lot of questions, and I
10 figured that would be where I could get most of my answers.

11 Q. Okay. And when you went there, what happened next?

12 A. We -- we pulled up, and there was a man standing at the 13 entrance to where the -- the private property camping area was.

14 Q. Did you know that man?

15 A. No. He asked who we were and where we were from, and we 16 told him. And he showed us where we could camp. Where we 17 could set up our tent.

18 Q. All right. And where did you set up your tent, if you
19 remember?

20 A. Just back along the ditch right there. It was -- I don't 21 have a picture, so I can't show you guys. But, yeah. Just in 22 that camping area.

23 Q. All right. So, you went to sleep at some point; right?

24 A. Yeah. But not before I -- as we were setting up our --
25 our tent, a guy walked through the campground. He was visibly

Eric Parker - Direct

1 frustrated, and he said that --

2 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Hearsay.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. So, you are at the campground. Some individual you come
6 into contact with. Did you know that individual?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Okay. And after you came into contact with that 9 individual, without saying what he said, what did you do next?

10 A. We -- we watched -- we took the next watch on the entrance
11 gate to the camp.

12 Q. Okay. What do you mean by watch?

13 A. Basically, it was what that -- like I said, the guy that 14 was standing there when we pulled up, asked us who we were, and 15 showed us where we could camp, we did that for about two hours.

16 Q. Okay. So, you stood there and showed people where to 17 camp?

18 A. Yeah. Nobody came. It was like 2:00 to 4:00 in the 19 morning.

20 Q. Okay. So, after you told people where to camp, what did
21 you do then?

22 A. Went to bed.

23 Q. All right. And I assume, at some point, you woke up?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. When was that?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. I would say later than 6:00 and before 8:00.

2 Q. All right. Now, at some point in time, did you go to the 3 staging area?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And approximately what time was that?

6 A. You know, I don't recall the exact time. It was probably
7 around 9:00.

8 Q. And when you went to the staging area, what did you see?

9 A. A lot of people. Just a lot of people gathering, really,
10 at first.

11 Q. Other -- were Steve and Scott with you?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Other than Steve and Scott, did you know anyone at the 14 staging area?

15 A. No.

16 Q. When you went to the staging area, did you -- was there
17 any plan as to how the day was going to progress?

18 A. The only plan I had heard was that the sheriff was on his 19 way to update the crowd, to talk to the crowd, to talk to 20 Cliven, family. Other than that, there was no plan that I was 21 aware of.

22 Q. Okay. So, your plan was to listen to the sheriff and that 23 was pretty much it?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Brian, could we get Exhibit 21, please?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 And before we start playing, Eric, do you know this
2 individual?

3 A. I do now.

4 Q. Okay. And when was this video taken to your knowledge?

5 A. The morning of the 12th.

6 Q. Okay. And on April 12th, 2014, did you know this
7 individual?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Were you present for this speech?

10 A. Yeah, most of it.

11 Q. Okay. Now, where were you in relation to the stage?
12 Obviously, this is probably taken somewhat in the center.
13 Where were you located?

14 A. Back and to the right for most of the speech.

15 Q. Now, when you say back and to the right, if you're 16 Mr. Bundy, is that what you're saying? You're away from him to 17 his right?

18 A. No, it would be to the crowd's right.

19 Q. Okay. Now, when you say back, approximately how far back
20 were you?

21 A. Hard to say exactly. More than 10 feet. More than 22 15 feet.

23 Q. Further than from you to me right now?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And Brian, if we could press play, please.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 (Exhibit 21 being played.)

2 Q. Now, you were present for that you testified; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And you heard that portion of the speech; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. At this point, what is going through your mind in 7 reference to any plan, if there is one?

8 A. Just to hear what the sheriff had to say.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. There was a lot of talk in the crowd of --

11 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Hearsay.

12 THE COURT: Sustained.

13 BY MR. MARCHESE:

14 Q. Did you know Sheriff Gillespie at the time?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. Did you -- obviously, you don't know him
17 personally, but did you know of him?

18 A. I knew Clark County had a sheriff.

19 Q. Okay. But you didn't even know his name?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Okay. Brian, press play.

22 (Exhibit 21 being played.)

23 Q. The sheriff obviously just mentioned some sort of a press
24 release. At this juncture, when you are standing in the crowd
25 at this date and time and location, were you aware of any press

Eric Parker - Direct

1 release?

2 A. Just rumor of it.

3 Q. And when you say rumor, what was your knowledge of the 4 rumor?

5 A. That they were -- that the BLM were putting out a -- had 6 put out a press release saying that they were --

7 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Hearsay, Your Honor, as to 8 the rumor.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. MARCHESE: I think it goes to the effect on the 11 hearer, Your Honor.

12 MR. MYHRE: Same objection, Your Honor. There is no
13 relevance to the effect on the hearer of a rumor.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. Did you do any personal research in reference to the press
17 release?

18 A. Not until later.

19 Q. Okay. So, at this date and time, you had only heard
20 things, without getting into what they were. But you had only
21 heard things in reference to the press release; correct?

22 A. Correct. I -- I ended up looking -- looking for it later,
23 when -- when we were at the bridge.

24 Q. Okay. And we'll get into that.

25 Brian, please press play.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 (Exhibit 21 being played.)

2 Q. Okay. You heard a little bit in reference to what the
3 sheriff had to say. Not talking about rumors about press
4 releases, talking about what Sheriff Gillespie said in
5 reference to press releases. You were there. You were 6 present. You heard him say that; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Based upon what you heard the sheriff say about press
9 releases, what was your thought process at the time?

10 A. So, he said a couple different things there. I -- I
11 definitely thought that they were finishing their -- that they
12 were done with their impoundment.

13 The crowd asks, "What about the cows?" And then he
14 says, "We have to discuss how that's handled in a safe manner," 15 and how they would further discuss that.

16 Q. He mentioned the Gold Butte allotment. Did you know where 17 the Gold Butte allotment was at that time?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Did you know what the Gold Butte allotment was at that
20 time?

21 A. I -- I assumed it was the whole area that they lived in.

22 Q. He mentioned, the sheriff that is, that the Gold Butte
23 allotment would be open to the public. Were you aware, at this
24 time, this date, this location, that the Gold Butte allotment
25 was closed to the public?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Facts not in
2 evidence.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Do you want to rephrase the question?

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Based upon -- you heard the sheriff say that the Gold
7 Butte allotment was closed to the public; correct?

8 A. Yeah, I heard him say that it was open.

9 Q. It was open to the public. I'm sorry. What did that mean
10 to you?

11 A. That the area was --

12 MR. MYHRE: Objection. It's still eliciting facts
13 not in evidence.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, he's commenting on the 15 video that is in evidence, that they entered into evidence.

16 MR. MYHRE: We object to the pointing by counsel at 17 opposing counsel.

18 THE COURT: Please refrain. The objection is
19 sustained.

20 MR. MARCHESE: So, he cannot comment on what the 21 sheriff just said?

22 THE COURT: He can comment on what the sheriff just
23 said.

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. Okay. You heard what the sheriff just said.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 THE COURT: On his --

2 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: Consistent with the Court order of his
4 intentions. Need to be relevant and probative.

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Okay. In reference to what the sheriff just said in
7 reference to the Gold Butte allotment, do you remember that
8 portion of the video?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. Okay. When you were standing there on that date, that 11 time, that location, what did that mean to you?

12 A. I thought that it was all being opened. That it was all
13 open. They were done, leaving, and they needed to talk about 14 how the cows were going to be safely released.

15 Q. Did you know personally, at that time, whether it was open
16 or closed?

17 A. Only by the word of the sheriff.

18 Q. Okay. Now, at the end of the video, right before we 19 stopped it, you heard some people yelling out in the crowd
20 "What about the cattle?" Did you hear that?

21 A. Yeah. The second time they start yelling about the cows?

22 Q. Yes. "What about the cows?" Or "What about the cattle?"
23 Something along those lines. Do you remember that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you hear anyone saying that?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. I heard it two times. I hear -- I heard it in the
2 beginning, when the guy first says it in the crowd. I was -- I
3 remember being closer to the -- the guy in the crowd. He says
4 it the first time.

5 And then the sheriff says, "We need to talk about how 6 that's going to be safely handled," something along those
7 lines. I'm paraphrasing. And -- and then they -- they start
8 to continue to ask about the cows, where they are, and --

9 Q. Okay. Now, when -- you were present, and you heard that;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. When you heard that, not talking about what other
13 people were saying or doing. When you personally heard that,
14 what were you thinking?

15 A. I thought that the cows were going to be released.

16 Q. Why?

17 A. Because that -- that was my perception of what had just 18 occurred, is the crowd asked about the cows. He said, "We need
19 to talk about how that's going to be safely -- safely
20 accomplished."

21 I figured they needed to talk about the logistics,
22 whether the cowboys were going to go get them, or trucks, or I
23 didn't know where they were. I didn't know -- so, but I
24 thought they were being released, yes.

25 Q. Now, when you thought that they were going to be released,

Eric Parker - Direct

1 did you, in your mind, have any belief that you were going to
2 be a part of that?

3 A. No, not yet. Not at that point.

4 Q. Okay. And Brian, if you can play the rest of it.

5 (Exhibit 21 being played.)

6 Q. Stop it for a moment.

7 So, you hear the crowd. At this point, they are 8 cheering?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What are you doing?

11 A. Just listening. I -- he had just said that he was not 12 there to negotiate with the sheriff. I didn't really know what 13 that meant. The sheriff kind of just told him what they needed
14 to talk about.

15 I -- this is the first time I ever really saw Cliven
16 Bundy or heard him, so I was kind of taking in Cliven Bundy.
17 My perception was that he had an audience and was -- had some 18 pent-up stuff to -- to talk about.

19 Q. Now, you heard him talk about a plan in that little 20 segment there?

21 A. I did.

22 Q. Okay. Now, at this point, you previously testified that 23 you didn't really have a plan. But at this point of the 24 speech, did you have any sort of plan in place?

25 A. Me? No. No.

Eric Parker - Direct

- 1 Q. Okay. And Brian, if you can continue to play.
2 (Exhibit 21 being played.)
- 3 Q. Stop it there, please.
- 4 Now, you were present for this; correct?
- 5 A. Yes, sir.
- 6 Q. You heard what Mr. Bundy told the sheriff; correct?
- 7 A. I did.
- 8 Q. Okay. Were you in agreement with that?
- 9 A. Well, there was a lot there. I don't know.
- 10 Q. Well, let me take it piece by piece. He talked about 11 disarming the park service.
- 12 A. Uh-huh.
- 13 Q. You heard that part?
- 14 A. Yes, I did.
- 15 Q. Okay. Were you in agreement with that?
- 16 A. I'd like to say yes, but I'd like to explain myself. Yes.
- 17 Q. Okay. In reference to the --
- 18 A. Did I think it was going to happen? No. No.
- 19 Q. Okay. In reference to the bulldozing the fences or 20 something along those lines, you heard that portion?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 Q. Okay. Were you in agreement with that?
- 23 A. No.
- 24 Q. Okay. Brian, continue to play.
25 (Exhibit 21 being played.)

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. Brian, can you stop for a moment?

2 You saw some individuals in camouflage in front of
3 the stage?

4 A. Can I clarify something real quick?

5 Q. We'll get back to that. You saw the individuals in 6 camouflage in front of the stage?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Did you know any of those individuals?

9 A. No. I knew them to be the Arizona State Militia just from 10 their patches.

11 Q. Okay. When did you learn to know that?

12 A. A little earlier in the day.

13 Q. Okay. So, it was that day?

14 A. Yeah, that day, yes.

15 Q. You see some of them have some kind of radio
16 communications or something along those lines. Did you see
17 that or do we need to back it up?

18 A. No, I have seen it. I know they had radios, yeah.

19 Q. Okay. Did you have any sort of earpiece?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did -- to your knowledge, did Mr. Stewart or Mr. Drexler
22 have any sort of earpiece?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. Were you in any sort of radio communications at any 25 point in time on the 12th with anyone?

Eric Parker - Direct

- 1 A. No.
- 2 Q. Or even earpiece communication, if that's any different?
- 3 A. It's not, and no.
- 4 Q. Okay. All right. Now, you also heard Mr. Bundy speaking,
5 something in reference to taking all the weapons and bringing
6 them to We the People. Did you hear that portion?
- 7 A. Yeah.
- 8 Q. Okay. Did you -- did you agree with that?
- 9 A. No, no.
- 10 Q. To your knowledge, did Sheriff Gillespie even have the 11 power to do so?
- 12 A. To my knowledge, no.
- 13 Q. Okay. Continue to play, Brian.
14 (Exhibit 21 being played.)
- 15 Q. You heard Mr. Bundy saying to go watch the -- everything
16 be torn down or something along those lines. You heard that?
- 17 A. Yeah, to report back or whatever.
- 18 Q. Okay. And this is basically the entire speech; correct?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Okay. Did you -- where did you go, if anywhere, after 21 this speech concluded?
- 22 A. Hung out. Watched the crowd. I think went back and got 23 some water from the camp or the truck. I'm not sure.
- 24 Q. So, you heard him give the sheriff one hour; correct?
- 25 A. Yes.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. All right. Were you waiting for that hour to pass?

2 A. Yeah. Yeah.

3 Q. And at that time, while you were waiting, what was going
4 through your mind as to what was going to transpire, if
5 anything?

6 A. Well, I -- I thought that they were going to talk about
7 how the cows were going to be safely released. I wasn't
8 sure -- you know, after Cliven said the other stuff that he
9 said, I wasn't really sure what was going to happen. I -- I
10 did not think they were going to return with all the BLM's
11 weapons in a truck or whatever he said.

12 Q. So, at some point in time, Mr. Bundy got back on the 13 stage; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Were you present for that?

16 A. I was.

17 Q. Okay. And what did you hear, to your recollection, from 18 Mr. Bundy?

19 A. He said, you know, "It's been an hour." He asked if he 20 had heard from the media. And then he said, "Well" --
21 something about the sheriff hasn't gotten back -- come back.

22 And then he said, "If the cows are still there,
23 to" -- he was talking to the cowboys up on the hill and the 24 cowboys that were down -- there was some up on the mountain,
25 and then there was some down. He was talking to the cowboys to

Eric Parker - Direct

1 go get the cows, if they were still there.

2 Q. Now, you heard that speech; correct?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. At this point, you hear him tell the cowboys "Go get'er
5 done," or something along those lines; correct?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Where did you go or what did you do based upon that, if
8 anything?

9 A. The crowd was going to watch the cows come home. Be 10 released. Be picked up, however it was going to be. The fact 11 that the sheriff didn't come back, so there was -- this is the 12 start of some confusion for myself.

13 The fact that the sheriff didn't come back, we 14 weren't -- I wasn't sure if they were -- you know, what they 15 were doing. So, there was talk of more protesting, if the 16 sheriff was -- was over there. And there was a lot of what ifs
17 at that point.

18 And I just -- there was talk of more protesting,
19 waiting. Waiting. Maybe there needed to be more time before
20 the cows would release. So, it was -- this is the start of a
21 lot of confusion for me.

22 Q. At some point in time, you made a decision to go to the 23 wash; correct?

24 A. To go to the wash?

25 Q. Yes.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. Yeah. Later on, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Brian, can we get up Exhibit 93, please? And
3 Brian, if you can go down to the middle.

4 Okay. Let's focus on this particular post. Do you
5 remember this post, Eric?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. All right. You made this post?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. All right. So, this is made sometime after Mr. Bundy
10 gives his second speech; is that accurate?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. You made this post. Tell the jury what you meant
13 by this post?

14 A. I meant a couple different things. I was in a hurry on my 15 phone posting it. Probably should have clarified a little bit
16 more. I was trying to just give an explanation of what I had 17 seen so far and what I thought.

18 Bundy gave the sheriff one hour to disarm the BLM.
19 He didn't reply. That's -- you know, he didn't come back, and 20 they didn't talk about it. He didn't reply on the stage. "We 21 are now going to free the cattle by any means."

22 Q. What did you mean "by any means"?

23 A. By any means, like I said, like I alluded to earlier, it
24 was I wasn't really sure what was happening at that point. So,
25 if it took more protesting, if it took -- you know, I was

Eric Parker - Direct

1 prepared to stay with the protesters.

2 If they were going to protest on the side of the 3 highway for a week, then I was going to stay with the
4 protesters. If they needed to get trucks in there to safely --
5 like the sheriff had said -- safely, safe. If they needed to 6 get trucks in there, I was willing to help raise money to get 7 the trucks. If -- whatever needed to be done, I was going to 8 go help them.

9 Q. Okay. So, if anything, whatever needed to be done, does
10 that mean violence?

11 A. No. No. At this point, it didn't cross my mind at all.

12 Q. You also said "Do it or else, Mr. Bundy said." What did 13 you mean by that?

14 A. I was kind of trying to explain his -- his demeanor on the 15 stage, I guess. His -- you know -- just he was saying, you
16 know, that -- how do I explain it?

17 He was -- he was saying that they were going to 18 continue the protest, in my mind. That they weren't going to 19 be placated and stop just because they put out a press release
20 that said that they were stopping.

21 Q. You also said you would not be lied to. What did you mean
22 by that?

23 A. That was more of, you know, him not -- the sheriff not
24 coming back, the placated thing. We kind of -- I -- I guess I
25 kind of felt like it was just giving lip service to the crowd

Eric Parker - Direct

1 and then disappearing. So, we went over to see and continue
2 the protest.

3 Q. Now, just to back up slightly, you saw the sheriff speak
4 earlier, obviously. We had the exhibit of that.

5 A. Uh-huh.

6 Q. Did you ever see him again?

7 A. Gillespie?

8 Q. That day, yes.

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. And Brian, if we can go to Exhibit 182, slide two.

11 Okay. So, you see this exhibit that was entered into
12 evidence?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. Okay. You see the back of yourself there; correct?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. Okay. And you see this individual to your left; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. On April 12th, 2014, did you know this individual?
19 This Ricky Ray Lovelien prior to that day?

20 A. Prior to that day, no.

21 Q. Okay. Just briefly explain how you came into contact with
22 him?

23 A. He was camping next to us, and he asked us -- as we were 24 getting ready to go over to the stage, he said that the 25 parking -- he had obviously been there a day or so. And he

Eric Parker - Direct

1 said that the parking was going to be limited and asked if we
2 wanted a ride over to the stage.

3 Q. Okay. And then you obviously went over to the stage at 4 some point; right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Now, when you were at the stage, were you with him
7 at the staging area?

8 A. For a second. I don't necessarily -- this picture
9 actually kind of surprised me, because I don't -- I don't
10 really remember being with him like that. But we definitely
11 were talking a little bit, you know.

12 Q. Okay. And you mentioned that you made the decision to go
13 to the wash; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And when you made the decision to go to the wash, how did
16 you get there?

17 A. So, it's kind of hectic. Everybody was just jumping into 18 vehicles and stuff. And I asked Ricky -- I didn't know his 19 name at that time. I asked him if -- if he was going over 20 there as well. If he was going to follow the protesters as 21 well. And he said "Yes." And I said, "Can we get a ride?"

22 Q. And prior to hearing Cliven Bundy speak the second time,
23 was there any plan to go over to the wash?

24 A. No. No.

25 Q. Was there any plan to meet up with Ricky Ray Lovelien at

Eric Parker - Direct

1 that point at any time?

2 A. No. I assumed I would see him again. He was camped next
3 to us, but there was no plan to meet up with Ricky, no.

4 Q. To your knowledge, was Mr. Lovelien camping with anyone
5 else?

6 A. No, not that I saw.

7 Q. Now, when you went over to the wash, what, if anything,
8 did you take with you?

9 A. What I had on me, and my rifle was in Ricky's truck. I
10 didn't want to leave my rifle at the camp in my tent or 11 anything. So, my rifle was in the truck.

12 Q. Okay. So, if we can go to 182-14. You've seen this dash
13 cam video; correct?

14 A. I have.

15 Q. And just generally, what does it depict?

16 A. Interstate 15 Northbound. The whole video or just the
17 picture?

18 Q. Just the picture.

19 A. That's a picture of the back of Ricky's truck. I'm in the 20 front seat. We were -- it's kind of like a parade going over 21 there. There was a lot of vehicles. Guys with flags kind of 22 thing. And the -- we were driving over to -- to the parking
23 area, I guess, is what you would call it. It's not really a
24 parking lot.

25 Q. Were you driving?

Eric Parker - Direct

- 1 A. No.
- 2 Q. Had you ever been there before?
- 3 A. No.
- 4 Q. Who is with you?
- 5 A. Steve and Scott are in the back of the truck, and I'm in 6 the front seat, and Ricky is driving.
- 7 Q. Okay. Do you have your rifle with you?
- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. Okay. And where is that?
- 10 A. In its rifle case in the front seat.
- 11 Q. Now, did you arrive to the parking area?
- 12 A. Yes, we did.
- 13 Q. Okay. And Brian, if we can go to 182-1, please.
- 14 Okay. You've seen this particular video, and this is 15 a screenshot of the video; correct?
- 16 A. Correct.
- 17 Q. All right. And, obviously, there's some yellow bars
18 indicating you and Mr. Drexler on there; correct?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Okay. So, generally speaking, where is this video to your 21 knowledge?
- 22 A. The parking area on I-15 -- off of I-15.
- 23 Q. Okay. So, obviously, you are out of the vehicle at this
24 point; correct?
- 25 A. Yeah, a lot of time's actually passed.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. And it appears you -- both you and Mr. Drexler are walking
2 in a particular direction; is that right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And based upon what you see there, where are you going?

5 A. Going to the bridge area. I didn't know it was a bridge
6 at that time. I just heard that there was protesters in the 7 wash, and I was walking in that direction. I ended up on a
8 bridge.

9 Q. Okay. Now, to your knowledge, where is Steven Stewart at 10 this juncture?

11 A. Steven? I believe he was behind us.

12 Q. Okay. How about Ricky Lovelien?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. When was the last time you had seen Ricky Lovelien when 15 you were in his truck and you got out?

16 A. That was it, when I got out of the truck.

17 Q. Brian, can we go to Exhibit 196, please?

18 Okay. Eric, do you remember this particular photo?

19 A. I do.

20 Q. Okay. And generally speaking, where is -- is this?

21 A. That's where the crowd had gathered right at the parking
22 area off of I-15.

23 Q. Okay. And what's going on, at this point, to your
24 recollection?

25 A. As far as I recall, the Metro had been talking with

Eric Parker - Direct

1 somebody. I later found out it's David Bundy. But at the
2 time, I didn't know. They were talking with somebody, and then
3 getting ready to cross back over into the median where -- where
4 all their vehicles and the rest of Metro were. I -- I asked
5 Metro what was with the guys up on the hill.

6 Q. Now, on this picture, you have your rifle with you;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Why did you take your rifle with you?

10 A. I went and got it after I saw the guys up on the hill.

11 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

12 THE WITNESS: There was, like -- sorry.

13 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. If we can go to Exhibit 117, please.

17 Now, this is the Facebook post from Mr. Steven 18 Stewart. Do you see that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now, obviously, you are not Steven Stewart. You
21 didn't make this post; correct?

22 A. No, but I was -- I was there and standing with him when --
23 when he was talking about what he's talking about. What he's 24 trying to talk about there.

25 Q. Okay. Now, referencing -- he references a really

Eric Parker - Direct

1 high-powered scope. Do you see this right there?

2 A. I do.

3 Q. And you said that you're personally aware of what he was
4 referring to at that point?

5 A. I am.

6 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Hearsay, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Sustained.

8 MR. MARCHESE: I'm not asking for hearsay, Your 9 Honor. I am just asking his personal knowledge of what
10 Mr. Stewart is referring to with the scope.

11 MR. MYHRE: It's based on hearsay, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yeah, it's hearsay to what someone else
13 believes or thinks.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

15 THE COURT: You can ask him whether he saw a really
16 high-powered scope.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. At some point in time, you were with Mr. Stewart; correct?

19 A. I was.

20 Q. And was there any point in time when you and Mr. Stewart
21 came into contact with a really high-powered scope?

22 A. There was.

23 Q. When was that?

24 A. It was on the side of the road. There was a woman who had 25 a -- is it call telescoping? Like a pirate's telescope. And

Eric Parker - Direct

1 she gave it to Steve first. I was standing there. But then
2 she gave it to me afterwards. We were -- we were looking up on
3 the mountain at the people up on the mountain.

4 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. And Brian, can you publish to only Court and counsel
8 Exhibit 5017, please.

9 And Eric, do you recognize this?

10 A. I do.

11 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. We need a
12 sidebar.

13 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

14 (Sidebar.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Myhre, go ahead.

16 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. The government's 17 objection again is relevance. This doesn't go to -- to 18 undercut any testimony or rebut any testimony that was 19 presented in the government's case in chief. It goes, again,
20 to the nullification issue of, you know, what the BLM conduct
21 was.

22 THE COURT: So, why can't he testify that he saw 23 people on a hill, so long as he doesn't testify he thought they 24 were snipers? Why can't he say he was just using a telescope
25 to look at people on a hill, so long as he doesn't say that he

Eric Parker - Direct

1 thought they were snipers?

2 MR. MYHRE: Because the only reason he would say that
3 is because they're sniper. He would say that they're snipers.
4 That's the reason why he would elicit it. Otherwise, it's not
5 relevant to anything. The fact there were people on a hill
6 doesn't mean anything unless he makes a connection that they're
7 snipers, and he's going to make that connection.

8 THE COURT: Isn't it relevant to show why they are 9 discussing, in the Facebook post, a high-powered scope to rebut
10 the inference that the scope is being used against the BLM for 11 some relevant reason?

12 MR. MYHRE: He's already testified about the 13 high-powered scope. This -- this image that is drawn up now is 14 not from the high-powered scope. He's already testified he got 15 a high-powered scope. He was looking up. And this is -- image
16 is not from the high-powered scope.

17 THE COURT: I'm assuming the question is going to be 18 is this what you were looking at with the scope? Trying to 19 look at with the scope?

20 MR. MARCHESE: It also goes to the picture of Eric
21 like this, because that's what he was talking about. That's 22 why he did that. When he got shot in that particular position,
23 that's what he was referring to.

24 THE COURT: By "shot" you mean photographed.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Well, yeah. I'm just killing it with

Eric Parker - Direct

1 the horrible -- between nullification and shot, I mean, Mr. Bad
2 Pun over here. Bad Shakespeare play.

3 MR. MYHRE: Then again, Your Honor, that's not
4 relevant to anything, unless he makes the connection that
5 that's why I got my rifle. That's why I went to the wash, is 6 because these guys on the hill.

7 And that, again, goes to the inference that, "Oh,
8 there's snipers. They are doing something wrong. There's 9 something bad going on."

10 MR. MARCHESE: The problem is, is that it rebuts why
11 he -- you know, the government's theory of the case is that he 12 went over there to forcefully take the cattle back.

13 Now I am stuck. He's not able to answer this 14 question. Now I'm stuck with he just has a rifle in his hand.
15 We don't know why.

16 MR. MYHRE: Well, he's stuck, because he put
17 irrelevant evidence on to begin with. And so, if -- you know, 18 you can't make your own situation and then say you're stuck in 19 it, and say "Now I'm allowed to introduce inadmissible evidence
20 to get myself out."

21 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I mean, we can just go about it
22 this way. I can go to Exhibit 17 and just show the 23 government's aerial shots of the snipers.

24 MR. MYHRE: They are not snipers.

25 THE COURT: So, is the defense response to the

Eric Parker - Direct

1 objection that the intent for which this next portion of the
2 testimony is offered is to demonstrate why Mr. Parker had a
3 rifle? That it was related to people on a -- that he saw on a
4 hill?

5 MR. MARCHESE: And that's part of it, and then the 6 other part is that --

7 THE COURT: How does that rebut anything?

8 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it also explains the evidence
9 that's been brought in by the government against all these
10 defendants.

11 THE COURT: He doesn't have the rifle to aim them at 12 the BLM in the wash. He has it to aim at the BLM on the hill?

13 MR. MARCHESE: No, because he's concerned about 14 himself. All the things that he can't get into about reference
15 to people getting hurt.

16 THE COURT: He's concerned about himself, which is 17 self-defense, which is not permissible. So, the objection is 18 sustained.

19 MR. MARCHESE: But I can't comment -- okay.

20 (End of sidebar.)

21 THE COURT: All right. So, I do have a jury note. I
22 have Jury Note No. 129, which asks: "Can the witness please
23 speak into the microphone?"

24 So you can pull the microphone closer to you, if you
25 need to. There's actually two of them, so I don't know if you

Eric Parker - Direct

1 want to set them up the way I have mine. That seems to help
2 when you turn your head to look at the screen, and it's away
3 from the microphone, so by using the second microphone by the 4 screen, that could help.

5 And then the second part of Jury Note 129 asks:
6 "What does the word probative mean?" And so that's a legal
7 word. It just means more probable than not that it's relevant,
8 not collateral. So, it's something that's related to the case
9 as opposed to something that's not related and goes off on a
10 tangent.

11 So, it's a legal term, and it's a ruling that the 12 Court makes, and you don't need to make any finding about 13 whether or not something is probative for purposes of testimony
14 here; for whether or not it -- we can keep going in that 15 direction or a different direction. So, don't worry about 16 that, but I appreciate the question.

17 All right. So --

18 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Do you want me to 19 continue? I've got my little list here, and I'm about halfway
20 done, so --

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, the last objection was 22 sustained, so you just pick up right after that.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I just noticed it was noon. I
24 can keep going if Your Honor wants.

25 THE COURT: The objection was sustained.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Correct. I was just referring to the
2 break, Your Honor. If you wanted to take the break now,
3 because I said I am about halfway done.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, by keep going, you mean not
5 keep going with what I ruled on? You mean keep going as --

6 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I want to keep going but --

7 THE COURT: -- during the lunch hour.

8 MR. MARCHESE: -- I know where the Court is with
9 that.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, so you are telling me
11 it's going to be after the lunch hour?

12 MR. MARCHESE: I have a list, and I'm about halfway
13 done.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, let's go ahead then and take 15 our lunch break, assuming, Mike, we have lunch ready for them.
16 Because if it hadn't arrived, we would just keep go.

17 So, my understanding is the lunch has arrived, so we 18 will go ahead and excuse the jury so they can have their lunch.

19 It is 12:20 now. Let's plan to be back here by 1:00.

20 During the lunch break, again, remember you may speak
21 to your fellow jurors about other things, but not about this
22 case or anything that touches upon the case. You may not read,
23 or listen to, or view anything that touches upon the case nor
24 attempt to perform any independent research or investigation.

25 If you have a question, write it down and please do

Eric Parker - Direct

1 not form any opinion.

2 We'll go ahead and stand for the jury. And after
3 they exit, then, Mr. Parker, you can take your lunch break as 4 well, and then we'll all meet back up here at 1:00.

5 (Jury out.)

6 THE COURT: Off record.

7 (Recess, 12:03 p.m. Resumed 1:28 p.m. Jury out.)

8 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Go ahead
9 and bring in the jury.

10 (Jury in.)

11 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated, and
12 everyone else may be seated afterwards.

13 All right. So, we are back from the lunch break, and 14 everyone is here. We'll go ahead and resume with direct
15 examination of Mr. Parker.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 Q. Good afternoon, Eric. I believe where we left off, you
18 were somewhere in the staging area. Do you remember that?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay. At some point in time, did you move to the 21 northbound bridge?

22 A. I did, sir.

23 Q. Okay. And Brian, can we bring up Exhibit 182, slide 22,
24 please?

25 Okay. Now, this was an exhibit that was entered into

Eric Parker - Direct

1 evidence against you. This is actually a still photo of a
2 video. Are you familiar with that video?

3 A. I am, sir.

4 Q. Okay. So, on here it says it's approximately 11:56 a.m.
5 Do you remember that?

6 A. I didn't know the exact time. But, yes, I remember the 7 point in time when I walked on the bridge, sir.

8 Q. All right. Now, from the staging area to where you are 9 right now, approximately how far is that?

10 A. From the parking lot to that area right there?

11 Q. Correct.

12 A. I would say easily a couple hundred yards.

13 Q. Okay. Was there any particular reason that you went to 14 the northbound bridge? Yes or no?

15 A. Yes, there was. I --

16 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. It was 17 nonresponsive at this point. He just asked whether there was,
18 but we have an objection to the --

19 BY MR. MARCHESE:

20 Q. That's fine. Don't get into the reason. Okay. We will 21 just move on.

22 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. So, you see this individual here? It looks like maybe he 25 has a camera or some kind of a phone in his hand. Do you see

Eric Parker - Direct

1 that?

2 A. Yes, I see it in the picture.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. I don't remember him at that time.

5 Q. On April 12, 2014, did you know that individual?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. Okay. When you walked by him, at this juncture, did you
8 have any communication with that individual?

9 A. No, I did not.

10 Q. And at any point in time, on April 12th, 2014, to your 11 recollection, did you have any communication with that
12 individual?

13 A. I did not.

14 Q. So, now you got onto the bridge. You are in this 15 particular area. Where did you go from there?

16 A. I went out to about the center of the bridge.

17 Q. Okay. And are Steven and Scott with you at this time to
18 your knowledge?

19 A. I believe Scott was. Steven was not.

20 Q. Okay. And you got out to the middle of the bridge, you
21 just testified to. And did you go directly from this area that 22 you were in or did you stop?

23 A. Directly in the area in the picture?

24 Q. Yes.

25 A. Yes. Yes, sir, I did.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 Q. All right. And then when you got there, what did you do?

2 A. I took in the situation. I looked down into the wash. I
3 saw a small group of protesters underneath the bridge I was 4 standing on, the northbound bridge. They had flags and 5 whatnot.

6 And then I started to take in the greater situation,
7 the larger situation. I saw the fence, and I saw the men at 8 the trucks in the combat gear, and I saw the guys up on the 9 hill.

10 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Sustained.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. And Brian, if you can bring up Government's Exhibit 10,
14 please.

15 MR. MYHRE: And move to strike that last response,
16 Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: The jury will disregard that last answer.

18 BY MR. MARCHESE:

19 Q. And, Brian, if you can start it at approximately 2:20 and 20 play for about -- well, I will tell you when to stop. Okay.
21 Push play.

22 (Exhibit 10 being played.)

23 Q. And Brian, you can stop there.

24 And is that generally what you saw when you walked
25 out to the center of the northbound bridge?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 A. Yeah. I was handed a pair of binoculars, and I was
2 looking at this vehicle, and the back of this vehicle, and
3 these vehicles right here, and mostly those three areas right
4 there.

5 Q. Okay. Whose binoculars were those?

6 A. I'm not sure. There was a lot of people on the bridge.
7 They all were -- were doing different things. Some people had
8 cameras. Some people had binoculars, and there was one person
9 with a pair of binoculars looking that way. They said a few
10 things to me and handed me the binoculars, because I wanted to 11 see for myself.

12 Q. How long did you have those binoculars for approximately?

13 A. A minute and a half at the most.

14 Q. Then you gave them back, I assume?

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. Now, Brian, can we get up Government's Exhibit 210,
17 please?

18 All right. Now, you've seen this exhibit previously
19 through Agent Willis, I believe it was?

20 A. I have.

21 Q. Okay. So, if you could just maybe put a little X as to 22 your -- actually, can we make this just slightly bigger, Brian?
23 Perfect. Thank you.

24 If you can just put maybe a little X as to generally
25 where you were at the point in time when you had the

Eric Parker - Direct

1 binoculars?

2 A. About right there.

3 Q. And can you put another X as to the area in which you came 4 from initially?

5 A. About right there.

6 Q. Okay. So, other than the northbound bridge, was there any 7 other area on this map which you traveled to prior to going to 8 the center portion of the northbound bridge?

9 A. No. No, sir. I went directly in this direction along
10 here and then crossed over and then to about right here.

11 Q. You say crossed over. What do you mean by crossed over?

12 A. Crossed the street. Crossed the highway.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Interstate 15.

15 Q. Now, you just testified that you were -- and correct me if
16 I'm wrong. You were focusing on this general area?

17 A. Specifically this truck, the men there, and this vehicle
18 right here where there were men with --

19 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

20 THE WITNESS: -- plain clothes.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Going into this area of -- that we discussed earlier --

23 THE COURT: Do you want to redirect your witness,
24 please.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Can he say what he saw?

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: You know the parameters of the order,
3 Mr. Marchese.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

5 THE COURT: We are not going to waste any more time
6 at sidebar.

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. Without saying what you saw, was there ever a point in 9 time when you looked in this vicinity over here?

10 A. No. I -- I don't remember even being able to see over 11 there. There was a hill here, when I was over here, and -- and 12 when I got over here to the bridge, my -- my concern was other
13 things.

14 Q. Now, when you say other things, would it be accurate to 15 say that you were always looking forward?

16 A. Or up and to the right.

17 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Sidebar, please.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 (Sidebar.)

20 THE COURT: All right. You wanted sidebar, so it
21 sounds like Mr. Parker is done testifying. He doesn't want to 22 testifying anymore? Is that what it is?

23 He's been saying it over and over again, trying to 24 communicate to the jury that there's something else. That he's 25 looking at the people up on the hill regardless of the order.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: I was under the impression that he was
2 allowed to say what he saw, but he was not allowed to testify
3 of how it made him feel. That's number one.

4 Number two, my questions were pointed. I am trying
5 to just keep him focused in the wash and looking forward. I --
6 I mean, I was under the assumption -- and Mr. Tanasi and I
7 spoke at lunch -- that he could testify to what he saw, just 8 not that it made him feel fear or anything along those lines.

9 If I am wrong, then I apologize, but that was my 10 understanding on what the Court's order was.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre.

12 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. We would move
13 that Mr. Parker be sanctioned by taking him down and moving to 14 strike his direct.

15 This clearly is intentional. We already had an 16 objection as to the very same about the mesa, who's up there,
17 which was sustained.

18 We've hit it now at least two times since then, and 19 what's happening now is that we're getting these dribs and 20 drabs in front of the jury that there's something out there.
21 And it's virtually impossible to -- to erase it from their
22 minds now at this point.

23 We have gone -- Mr. Marchese, in his direct, hit it
24 at least three times just since the -- we got back from our
25 break.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: That's not true, you know.

2 MR. MYHRE: And he was -- he said, "Did you see this
3 up here on the right? Oh, you went back here. Well, when you
4 went down here, what did you see?"

5 "Well, I looked up on the right, and looked back at 6 this truck twice. Looked back at the truck twice. Looked up
7 at the mesa."

8 Especially in light of the Judge's -- the Court's 9 prior ruling with respect to this specific issue about the 10 mesa, we see no alternative at this point, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Marchese, is there any innocent
12 reason why he keeps wanting to tell the jury that he was 13 looking up at the mesa?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Absolutely. And the reason being, is 15 that I'm going to get to it, is we had a ranger come in who 16 testified that he pointed his weapon at her. And I'm just 17 trying to get out that he always looked forward, and he was 18 never looking to the left in her direction. That's what I'm 19 trying to elicit.

20 THE COURT: But that's not what the testimony is.
21 His testimony is that he's looking up is what he just stated.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Up to the left. This is on the
24 right.

25 MR. MARCHESE: I thought he said -- no, she -- she's

Eric Parker - Direct

1 in with Shilaikis. I'm trying to get him focused that he's
2 only looking in the wash.

3 THE COURT: But that's not what his answer was. His
4 answer was that he is looking up at the hill. So, is there any 5 reason why testimony about him looking up in the hill would
6 be --

7 MR. MARCHESE: I thought -- the hill that he was 8 referring to was the one that he marked by Post 1. Is that
9 what you were referring to?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: He said it was a hill.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Right. He said "I couldn't see over 12 there." I think that's what he testified to.

13 MR. MYHRE: He said "I looked up to the right."

14 MR. MARCHESE: Right. But I'm trying to focus him to 15 say he never looked to the left. But getting back to the 16 Court's original order, am I incorrect in saying that he's not 17 allowed to testify what he saw?

18 THE COURT: The problem is that your witness has been 19 admonished and told not to discuss, and he keeps on saying it.

20 The objection is made. The objection is sustained.
21 The jury is told to disregard the statement, and then he does
22 not answer your question without trying to sneak in information
23 that is in violation of the Court order.

24 MR. MARCHESE: But I understand we can't talk about
25 the pre-12th. I understand that. And I understand --

Eric Parker - Direct

1 THE COURT: In the last sidebar, you told me that the
2 reason that you wanted to elicit testimony about what he saw up
3 on the hill was in order to explain why he had gotten the 4 firearm, which is directly related to a defense that is not
5 appropriate.

6 MR. MARCHESE: But I was -- I am under the impression
7 that he could testify to what he saw, but just not the way he 8 made it -- it made him feel. Am I incorrect? If I am, I
9 apologize. But that was Mr. Tanasi's understanding, too.

10 MR. TANASI: That's -- that's my understanding, too,
11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: As long as there is a relevant purpose to 13 it. For example, we talked about, you know, when the cows were 14 released and so forth. He could talk about how that made him
15 feel, because it doesn't go into self-defense.

16 But if the only reason you are going to ask questions
17 about what he sees up on the hill is in order to set up a
18 self-defense, defense of others, jury nullification, then how 19 is -- then it's not relevant or probative.

20 MR. MARCHESE: But it's relative and probative not --
21 where he's looking, because he never looked to the left.
22 That's what I am trying to have him testify to.

23 THE COURT: And you asked him, "Did you look straight
24 ahead?" And he said, "And up on the hill." So, he keeps on 25 wanting to get into the people on the hill, even after numerous

Eric Parker - Direct

1 times it's been explained that that's not appropriate.

2 MR. MYHRE: And he also volunteered, I would point
3 out, about when he looked at the trucks, that they were in 4 combat gear.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I mean, the government's own
6 exhibit, I think, bears that out. It's very difficult --

7 THE COURT: But what is the purpose of pointing that
8 out? It doesn't go to impeach the credibility of someone else.
9 The only reason to bring it up --

10 MR. MARCHESE: I'm just trying to say what happened.
11 I mean, it's just --

12 THE COURT: No.

13 MR. MARCHESE: -- it's very difficult, because we are 14 stuck.

15 THE COURT: You can't just say what happened if it's 16 not relevant, probative, or legally recognizable.

17 MR. MARCHESE: It's the crime. That's what he did.
18 We have 40 pictures of Eric prone on the bridge, and I can't -- 19 I can't explain how he got there, or why he did what he did, or 20 what he saw.

21 THE COURT: The government's motion is granted.

22 (End of sidebar.)

23 THE COURT: All right. The government's motion is 24 granted.

25 So, Mr. Parker, you can go back and take your seat.

Eric Parker - Direct

1 And defense may call its next witness. Do you have another
2 witness that's ready?

3 MR. MARCHESE: Eric, come on down.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Not for today?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. We'll go ahead then and 8 excuse the jury a little bit earlier today, and welcome you
9 back on Monday morning at 9:00 a.m. Yes, 9:00 a.m. for Monday
10 morning.

11 During this overnight break, please remember that you
12 are not to speak about this case or discuss it with anyone.
13 You may, of course, let your employers know or your family and 14 friends know that, yes, you still do have jury duty, so that 15 they can make plans, and you can make those kind of plans.

16 But please do not discuss any of the issues about the 17 case or anything else related to the case except for the time
18 line. And also do not read, or listen to, or view anything
19 that touches upon this case in any way, and do not attempt to
20 perform any research or any independent investigation.

21 You will be provided with testimony, exhibits. I
22 will provide to you the jury instructions, so that you can
23 apply the facts as you find them to those jury instructions,
24 and then you will hear closing arguments. After that, you will
25 be excused, so you may begin your deliberation process. So,

Eric Parker - Direct

1 until then, please do not form any opinions.

2 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury so they may
3 be excused, and we will welcome you back at 9:00 a.m.

4 (Jury out.)

5 THE COURT: All right. So, Court's in recess until
6 9:00 a.m. Monday morning.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be
6 seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial, Day 21, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
9 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
10 Lovelien and Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Erin Creegan
13 on behalf of the United States.

14 THE COURT: Good morning, Miss Creegan.

15 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
16 for Steven Stewart. Also with us at counsel table is Brian
17 Glynn. No longer Tori Bakken. She's back at school.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Jess
20 Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Todd
23 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on

1 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 All right. Before we begin, just a few comments to 4 remind everyone about the conduct that is expected in the
5 courtroom. Please do remember that it is a courtroom and not a
6 sporting event; therefore, no indications of your opinions, no
7 matter how much you may agree or disagree with what is being
8 said, is permitted, meaning no verbal outbursts, no body
9 language, or distracting language, or other disrespectful
10 conduct is appropriate. The marshals do have the authority to 11 remove anyone that displays such conduct.

12 And as for the defendants, we do have a holding room
13 right next door in the hallway there that does have a speaker
14 system set up, so that if they cannot comply with the 15 requirements in the courtroom, then they can sit in the holding 16 room and still be able to hear what is going on in court even 17 if they cannot be physically present.

18 We also have a policy of no electronic devices, so,
19 this means iPads, iPhone, laptops cannot be in the courtroom.
20 Even if they are turned off or in the vibrate mode or privacy
21 mode, they still cannot be in the courtroom, so please take a
22 moment and double check and take them outside if you did
23 accidentally bring one in.

24 We do not have any audio recording or video recording
25 in any of the federal courts; and, therefore, the electronic

1 devices are not permitted. The attorneys are permitted to have
2 electronic devices so that they can review their notes, present
3 evidence and so forth. And the US Marshals and court security
4 officers are permitted to have electronic devices for the 5 purposes of communicating with each other to make sure we can
6 keep everything peaceful and orderly today.

7 All right. So, let's go ahead and get started with
8 some of the questions that I have for you regarding the jury
9 instructions and verdict form, and then you tell me your 10 thoughts as well.

11 Last time we had the superseding indictment redacted
12 and provided to the jury in the redacted form. So, I was 13 assuming, and I shouldn't assume anything, so I should probably 14 ask. Is it still the case that the parties prefer to have the 15 redacted superseding indictment provided or the entire
16 superseding indictment?

17 MR. TANASI: Redacted, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And --

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, you agree?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Perez?

23 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So, we can use the same one
25 that we used last time.

1 Then on Jury Instruction No. 24, Drexler's name was
2 added.

3 On Jury Instruction 30, the stipulation doesn't
4 specify, and I wasn't sure if you wanted to specify by exhibit
5 number or any other language which tattoos belong to whom or 6 which firearms belong to whom, because that was the nature of 7 the stipulation, but I don't have a written stipulation. It
8 was just spoken into the record. So, if you wanted me to add
9 that, I need to know.

10 MR. TANASI: Which one what was that, Your Honor? I
11 apologize.

12 THE COURT: Number 30 is the stipulation.

13 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor. It's 14 No. 30. And from the government's perspective, it's not 15 necessary to lay it out. We will point it out in our closing.
16 I think that the -- just alerting the jury how to consider a
17 stipulation is sufficient.

18 THE COURT: All right. Does defense agree or 19 disagree?

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think that's sufficient.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, no objection from Parker.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

23 MR. MARCHESE: I think the pictures speak for 24 themselves.

25 MR. PEREZ: And no objection.

1 THE COURT: And then Jury Instruction No. 33 isn't a
2 verbatim from the model jury instructions, but the commentary
3 to the instructions say that that particular instruction has 4 been provided and written in that format to avoid the term
5 "expert" in the body of the instruction.

6 Now, the model jury instruction is entitled "Opinion
7 Testimony, Expert Witness," but I didn't know then if you
8 wanted to keep the term expert witness or just title it
9 "Opinion Testimony," or are we overthinking it.

10 Or I just wanted to give you the opportunity to be 11 aware that that was the commentary for that particular 12 instruction. But the instruction -- the body of the 13 instruction is written to avoid using the word expert, but then
14 the title includes the word expert.

15 So, if you have an objection to using the word
16 expert, we could just title it opinion testimony, if you think 17 it would be more helpful for the jury to figure out who 18 would -- you know, and have the term expert witness at the top,
19 I'm fine with that, too, but I wanted to give you the options.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think the instruction as 21 written is fine. I think the language kind of flushes out the 22 difference that we were aiming for yesterday.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker concurs.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MS. CREEGAN: No objection from the government.

3 THE COURT: All right. And then I did find --
4 actually, I didn't. Staff member. I'll give them credit.
5 Found a typo on page 3 of the verdict form on line 8. It
6 says -- all right. So, page 3, line 8, where it says Count
7 One, it should say Count Two.

8 Were there any other typos that you all found?

9 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the government.

10 MR. TANASI: Not from the defense, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. And any other additions or 12 deletions that you want to bring to the Court's attention
13 before we finalize these?

14 MR. TANASI: None from the defense, Your Honor.

15 MS. CREEGAN: And not from the government.

16 THE COURT: All right. That sounds like we are ready
17 to go with just those changes, just the typo that's been fixed.
18 We're keeping the title. We can use the redacted superseding
19 indictment from before. And we added in the instructions that 20 were requested yesterday.

21 All right. So then we'll bring the jury in at 10:00.
22 We do have the breakfasts there, so as they come in and gather,
23 they can get a quick breakfast. And then we'll begin with the 24 government's closing.

25 Do you think that you'll be done before the noon

1 break?

2 MS. CREEGAN: I think it depends how long jury
3 instructions take.

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Our estimated time is a little under 6 two hours.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So then we'll take our 8 lunch break as soon as the government's done with its closing,
9 take an hour, and then the defense can begin with its closing.

10 Are you going in any particular order?

11 MR. TANASI: I think we're still sorting that out,
12 Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. TANASI: Depending kind of on how the 15 government's closing goes.

16 THE COURT: All right. And then the other question I
17 had was as to Friday and whether or not the jurors would be 18 deliberating on Friday.

19 And my common practice always is to leave it up to 20 the jury to decide whether or not they want to stay. Sometimes
21 if they think they're close, they just want to get it done.
22 But other times they've already made plans.

23 In our schedule that they've -- that we've provided
24 to them and in the promise that I've made to them in court that 25 you've heard is that they will not ever be required to be in

1 service -- in jury service for longer or for more days than
2 what is represented in the calendar that we provide to them,
3 with the caveat that sometimes they'll be here less than what's
4 in the calendar, but that way they could set up their schedule
5 with their family and work and so forth.

6 So, it's reasonable if they already have plans on 7 Friday and don't want to come in on Friday to deliberate, but 8 the room is available and I'm here, and there's no reason for 9 them not to if they decide that they want to.

10 So, remind me if I forget at some point to ask them
11 about that, so that they know if they need to be here or not,
12 so that you know if you need to wear a suit that day or not.
13 And so just make sure again that Aaron has all of your contact
14 information, so that if we do have jury questions or a verdict,
15 that we can contact you right away, and also so that we can
16 tell you when the jury arrives and when the jury leaves, so
17 that you know when you're on call and when you're not on call.

18 Anything else? Any other questions that you have for 19 me before we break and then come back at 10:00 for jury
20 instructions?

21 MR. TANASI: That covers it, Your Honor, I think.

22 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry. Nothing from the United
24 States.

25 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Then we'll take our

1 break and start back up at 1:00 a.m.

2 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

3 (Recess, 9:23 a.m. Resumed 10:07 a.m. Jury out.)

4 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. We are 5 back on the record. Can we bring the jury in?

6 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, actually, I apologize. We 9 had one issue that came up with respect to the jury
10 instructions that we were trying to kind of narrow down here,
11 and I apologize for it being so late in the game.

12 But with respect to Jury Instruction 13.1, I'm just 13 not -- collectively, we're just not seeing the model
14 instruction that that comes from. And we think it goes a 15 little bit further than the model instruction with respect to 16 assault on a federal officer. It's almost like a
17 anti-self-defense when self-defense has been ruled
18 impermissible.

19 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, that's correct. That's not
20 from the model instruction. This was a stipulated instruction
21 both from the first trial and stipulated before.

22 The paragraph incorporates case law. That 23 instruction comes directly from Span, and there's many, many 24 cases that an unloaded firearm is a dangerous weapon, including 25 a cell phone in a pocket pretending to be a firearm. So it is

1 a correct statement of law.

2 MR. TANASI: And again, Your Honor has ruled that
3 Span doesn't applied in this case Feola doesn't apply in this
4 case. There is no self-defense in this case. And this
5 instruction again would kind of rebut the self-defense that
6 Your Honor has ruled is impermissible.

7 So, it seems like it goes kind of further than is 8 necessary for the scope of the evidence.

9 THE COURT: I don't know what you mean by Span
10 doesn't apply in this case. That's what we are applying is 11 Span, and that Span requires the extra proffer that wasn't met.
12 That's exactly what we're using is Span.

13 MR. TANASI: And I understand that, Your Honor. But,
14 again, this seems to refute -- if there were a self-defense
15 argument that were in the jury instructions, this would seem to 16 be a refute to that or a rebut to that.

17 THE COURT: Span is a correct statement of the law.
18 The Court is bound to follow Span, and this jury instruction is 19 based on the information in Span and the law provided by the 20 circuit.

21 MR. TANASI: Understood, Your Honor. I just want to 22 object for the record.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 THE COURT: Anything else?

3 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

4 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and call in the
6 jury.

7 (Jury in.)

8 THE COURT: The jury may be seated.

9 All right. Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen of the 10 jury. We are going to go ahead first and have the counsel go
11 ahead and stand up and make appearances for the record, and 12 then I will read to you the jury instructions.

13 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good morning
14 ladies and gentlemen. Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed
15 on behalf of the United States.

16 THE COURT: Good morning.

17 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 Good morning, folks. Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart.
19 Also with us at counsel table is Brian Glynn. No long with us
20 is Tori Bakken. She's off to school.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
22 morning, ladies and gentlemen of the jury. Jess Marchese on
23 behalf of Eric Parker.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd
25 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

1 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, everyone. Shawn Perez on
2 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

3 THE COURT: Good morning.

4 All right. So, these are the jury instructions in 5 United States of America, Plaintiffs, versus O. Scott Drexler,
6 Ricky Lovelien, Eric J. Parker, Steven A. Stewart, Defendants,
7 in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL.

8 This is the index. I'm not going to go through and 9 read it, but you'll see here that each of the jury instructions
10 is titled and has a jury number which is listed, and the number
11 will be on the top right-hand corner of the jury instruction.

12 Jury Instruction No. 1.

13 Duties of Jury to Find Facts and Follow Law.

14 Members of the jury, now that you have heard all the 15 evidence, it is my duty to instruct you on the law that applies
16 to this case. A copy of these instructions will be available
17 in the jury room for you to consult.

18 It is your duty to weigh and evaluate all the 19 evidence received in the case and, in that process, to decide
20 the facts. It is also your duty to apply the law as I give it
21 to you to the facts as you find them, whether you agree with 22 the law or not. You must decide the case solely on the 23 evidence and the law and must not be influenced by any personal 24 likes or dislikes, opinions, prejudices, or sympathy. You will 25 recall that you took an oath promising to do so at the

1 beginning of the case.

2 You must follow all these instructions and not single
3 out some and ignore others. They are all important. Please do
4 not read into these instructions or into anything that I may
5 have said or done any suggestion as to what your verdict --
6 what verdict you should return. That is a matter entirely up
7 to you. You cannot substitute your sense of justice, whatever
8 that means, for your duty to follow the law, whether you agree
9 with it or not. It is not for you to determine whether the law
10 is just or whether the law is unjust. This cannot be your 11 task.

12 Instruction No. 2.

13 Charge Against Defendant Not Evidence. Presumption
14 of Innocence. Burden of Proof.

15 The superseding indictment is not evidence. The 16 defendants have pleaded not guilty to the charges. The 17 defendants are presumed to be innocent unless and until the 18 government proves the defendants guilty beyond a reasonable
19 doubt. In addition, the defendants do not have to testify or 20 present any evidence to prove innocence. The government has 21 the burden of proving every element of the charges beyond a
22 reasonable doubt.

23 Instruction No. 3.

24 Reasonable Doubt Defined.

25 Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves

1 you firmly convinced that the defendant is guilty. It is not
2 required that the government prove guilt beyond all possible
3 doubt.

4 A reasonable doubt is a doubt based on reason and
5 common sense and is not based purely on speculation. It may 6 arise from a careful and impartial consideration of all the 7 evidence or from lack of evidence.

8 If, after a careful and impartial consideration of 9 all the evidence, you are not convinced beyond a reasonable
10 doubt that the defendant is guilty, it is your duty to find the 11 defendant not guilty. On the other hand, if, after a careful
12 and impartial consideration of all the evidence, you are 13 convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is 14 guilty, it is your duty to find the defendant guilty.

15 Instruction No. 4.

16 Separate Consideration for Each Defendant.

17 Although the defendants are being tried together, you
18 must give separate consideration to each defendant. In doing
19 so, you must determine which evidence in the case applies to 20 each defendant, disregarding any evidence admitted solely 21 against some other defendants. The fact that you may have -- 22 the fact that you may find one of the defendants guilty or not 23 guilty should not control your verdict as to any other
24 defendants.

25 Instruction No. 5.

1 Separate Consideration of Multiple Counts and
2 Multiple Defendants.

3 A separate crime is charged against one or more of 4 the defendants in each count. The charges have been joined for
5 trial. You must decide the case of each defendant on each
6 crime charged against that defendant separately. Your verdict
7 on any count as to any defendant should not control your
8 verdict on any other count as to any other defendant.

9 Jury Instruction No. 6.

10 On or About Explained.

11 The superseding indictment charges that the offenses
12 alleged were committed on or about certain dates.

13 Although it is necessary for the government to prove 14 beyond a reasonable doubt that the offenses were committed on a
15 date reasonably near the dates alleged in the superseding
16 indictment, it is not necessary for the government to prove the 17 offenses were committed precisely on the dates charged.

18 Instruction No. 7.

19 Count One - Conspiracy to Commit an Offense -
20 Elements.

21 The defendants are charged in Count One of the 22 superseding indictment with conspiring to commit an offense
23 against the United States, in violation of Section 371 of Title
24 18 of the US Code. In order for a defendant to be found guilty
25 of that charge, the government must prove each of the following

1 elements beyond a reasonable doubt.

2 First, beginning on or about March 28 of 2014, and
3 ending on or about March 2nd of 2016, there was an agreement
4 between two or more persons to commit at least one of the 5 following crimes charged in the indictment.

6 Number 1 is assault on a federal officer in violation
7 of Title 18 of the United States Code Section 111(a)(1) and
8 Section (b);

9 Number 2 is threatening a federal law enforcement
10 officer in violation of United States Code, Section 115(a)(1)
11 and (b);

12 Number 3 is use and carry of a firearm in relation to 13 a crime of violence in violation of Title 18 of the United
14 States Code, Section 924(c);

15 Number 4 is obstruction of the due administration of 16 justice, in violation of Title 18 of the United States Code,
17 Section 1503;

18 Number 5 is interference with interstate commerce by 19 extortion, in violation of Title 18 of the United States Code,
20 Section 1951;

21 And Number 6 is interstate -- I should say; or

22 Number 6, interstate travel in aid of extortion, in 23 violation of Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 1952.

24 Instruction No. 7.1.

25 The Second Elements.

1 Second, the defendant became a member of the
2 conspiracy knowing of at least one of its objects and intending
3 to help accomplish it; and

4 Third, one of the members of the conspiracy performed
5 at least one overt act for the purpose of carrying out the
6 conspiracy.

7 A conspiracy is a kind of criminal partnership - an 8 agreement of two or more persons to commit one or more crimes.
9 The crime of conspiracy is the agreement to do something
10 unlawful; it does not matter whether the crime agreed upon was 11 committed.

12 For a conspiracy to have existed, it is not necessary
13 that the conspirators made a formal agreement or that they 14 agreed on every detail of the conspiracy. It is enough -- it
15 is not enough, however, that they simply met, discussed matters
16 of common interest, acted in similar ways, or perhaps helped 17 one another. You must find that there was a plan to commit at 18 least one of the crimes as I just listed as the object of the 19 conspiracy with all of you agreeing as to the particular crime
20 which the conspirators agreed to commit.

21 One becomes a member of a conspiracy by willfully
22 participating in an unlawful plan with the intent to advance or 23 further some object or purpose of the conspiracy, even though
24 the person does not have full knowledge of all the details of 25 the conspiracy. Furthermore, one who willfully joins an

1 existing conspiracy is as responsible for it as the
2 originators. On the other hand, one who has no knowledge of a
3 conspiracy, but happens to act in a way which further some 4 object or purpose of the conspiracy, does not there therefore
5 become a conspirator. Similarly, a person does not become a
6 conspirator merely by associating with one or more persons who
7 are conspirators nor merely by knowing that a conspiracy
8 exists.

9 An overt act does not itself have to be unlawful. A
10 lawful act may be an element of a conspiracy if it was done for 11 the purpose of carrying out the conspiracy. The government is 12 not required to prove that the defendant personally did one of 13 the overt acts.

14 Jury Instruction No. 8.

15 Count Two - Conspiracy to Impede or Injure a Federal
16 Officer - Elements.

17 The defendants are charged in Count Two of the 18 superseding indictment with conspiracy to prevent by force,
19 intimidation, or threats of violence federal law enforcement
20 officers from discharging the duties of their office under the 21 United States, and to induce by force, intimidation, and 22 threats federal law enforcement officers to leave the place
23 where their duties were required to be performed, in violation
24 of Section 372 of Title 18 of the United States Code. In order
25 for a defendant to be found guilty of that charge, the

1 government must prove each of the following elements beyond a
2 reasonable doubt.

3 First, beginning on or about March 28th of 2014, and
4 ending on or about March 2nd of 2016, there was an agreement
5 between two or more persons to do one of the following:

6 Number 1. To prevent by force, intimidation, or 7 threats, federal law enforcement officers from discharging the 8 duties of their office under the United States; or

9 Number 2. To induce by force, intimidation, or 10 threats any federal law enforcement officer of the United 11 States to leave the place where their duties were required to 12 be performed; and

13 Second, the defendant became a member of the 14 conspiracy knowing of at least one of its objects and intending
15 to help accomplish it.

16 Instruction No. 8.1.

17 Unlike Count One, the government does not have to 18 prove that one of the members of the conspiracy performed at 19 least one overt act for the purpose of carrying out the
20 conspiracy.

21 For a conspiracy to have existed, like in Count One,
22 it is not necessary that the conspirators made a formal
23 agreement or that they agreed on every detail of the 24 conspiracy. It is not enough, however, that they simply met,
25 discussed matters of common interest, acted in similar ways, or

1 perhaps helped one another. You must find that there was a
2 plan to commit at least one of the alleged acts of the 3 conspiracy, with all of you agreeing as to the particular
4 object which the conspirators agreed to commit.

5 One becomes a member of a conspiracy by willfully
6 participating in the unlawful plan with the intent to advance
7 or further some object or purpose of the conspiracy, even 8 though the person does not have full knowledge of all the 9 details of the conspiracy. Furthermore, one who willfully
10 joins an existing conspiracy is as responsible for it as the
11 originators. On the other hand, one who has no knowledge of a
12 conspiracy but happens to act in a way which furthers some 13 object or purpose of the conspiracy, does not thereby become a
14 conspirator. Similarly, a person does not become a conspirator
15 merely by associating with one or more persons who are 16 conspirators nor merely by knowing that a conspiracy exists.

17 Instruction No. 9.

18 Conspiracy - Knowledge of and Association with Other
19 Conspirators.

20 A conspiracy may continue for a long period of time
21 and may include the performance of many transactions. It is 22 not necessary that all members of the conspiracy join it at the 23 same time, and one may become a member of a conspiracy without 24 full knowledge of all the details of the unlawful scheme or the 25 names, identities, or locations of all of the other members.

1 Even though a defendant did not directly conspire
2 with other conspirators in the overall scheme, the defendant
3 has, in effect, agreed to participate in the conspiracy if the 4 government proves each of the following beyond a reasonable
5 doubt that:

6 Number 1. The defendant directly conspired with one
7 or more of the coconspirators to carry out at least one of the 8 objects of the conspiracy;

9 Number 2. That defendant knew or had reason to know
10 that other conspirators were involved with those with whom the 11 defendant directly conspired; and

12 Number 3. The defendant had reason to believe that 13 whatever benefits the defendant might get from the conspiracy
14 were probably dependent upon the success of the entire venture.

15 It is not a defense that a person's participation in 16 a conspiracy was minor or for a short period of time.

17 Instruction No. 10.

18 Knowingly - Defined.

19 An act is done knowingly if a defendant is aware of 20 the act and does not act through ignorance, mistake, or 21 accident. The government is not required to prove that any one
22 of the defendants knew that his acts or omissions were 23 unlawful. You may consider evidence of the defendant's words,
24 acts, or omissions, along with the other evidence, in deciding 25 whether each defendant acted knowingly.

1 Instruction No. 11.

2 Proof of Intent or Knowledge.

3 The intent of the person or the knowledge that a
4 person possesses at any given time, may not ordinarily be
5 proved directly, because there's no way of directly
6 scrutinizing the workings of the human mind. In determining
7 the issue of what a person knew or what a person intended at a
8 particular time, you may consider any statements made or acts
9 by that person and all other facts and circumstances received
10 in evidence which may aid in your determination of that 11 person's knowledge or intent.

12 You may infer, but you are certainly not required to 13 infer, that a person intends the natural and probable
14 consequences of acts knowingly done or knowingly omitted. It
15 is entirely up to you, however, to decide what facts to find
16 from the evidence received during this trial.

17 Instruction No. 12.

18 Mere Presence.

19 Mere presence at the scene of a crime or mere 20 knowledge that a crime is being committed is not sufficient to 21 establish that the defendant committed the crime of conspiracy.
22 The defendant must be a participant and not merely a knowing
23 spectator. The defendant's presence may be considered by the 24 jury along with other evidence in the case.

25 Instruction No. 13.

1 Count Five - Assault on Federal Officer or Employee
2 with a Deadly or Dangerous Weapon - Elements.

3 The defendants are charged in Count Five of the 4 superseding indictment with assault on a federal officer in
5 violation of Section 111(b) of Title 18 of the United States
6 Code. In order for the defendant to be found guilty of that
7 charge, the government must prove each of the following
8 elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

9 First, the defendant forcibly assaulted a federal
10 officer or employee;

11 Second, the defendant did so while the federal 12 officer or employee was engaged in or on account of his or her
13 official duties; and

14 Third, the defendant used a deadly or dangerous
15 weapon.

16 There is a forcible assault when one person
17 intentionally threatens another coupled with an apparent
18 ability to inflict injury on another which causes a reasonable
19 apprehension of immediate bodily harm.

20 A reasonable apprehension of immediate bodily harm is 21 determined with reference to a reasonable person aware of the 22 circumstances known to the victim. Circumstances unknown to 23 the victim are not included.

24 The government is not required to prove that the 25 defendant knew the victim was a federal officer. The

1 government is also not required to prove that the defendant
2 intended to cause bodily injury.

3 Instruction No. 13.1.

4 A firearm, loaded or unloaded, is a dangerous weapon.
5 Federal officers acting in the good faith performance of their
6 duties may not be forcibly resisted by another.

7 Instruction No. 14.

8 Count Eight - Threatening a Federal Law Enforcement
9 officer - Elements.

10 The defendants are charged in Count Eight of 11 superseding indictment with threatening to assault a federal 12 officer in violation of Section 115 of Title 18 of the United 13 States Code.

14 In order for the defendants to be found guilty of 15 that charge, the government must prove each of the following
16 elements beyond a reasonable doubt;

17 First, the defendants made a statement or did an act
18 that constituted a threat to assault a federal law enforcement
19 officer;

20 Second, the defendant intended the statement or act
21 to be a threat or made the statement or did the act knowing the 22 words or actions would be viewed as a threat;

23 Third, that a reasonable person making the statement
24 or doing the act would foresee that the statement or act would 25 be interpreted by those to whom the maker communicated the

1 statement or act as a serious threat; and

2 Fourth, that the threat was made with the intent to
3 impede, intimidate, or interfere with the federal law
4 enforcement officer or to retaliate for the performance of his
5 or her official duties.

6 A threat is a serious statement expressing an 7 intention to inflict bodily injury at once or the future, as 8 distinguished from idle or careless talk, exaggeration, or 9 something said in a joking manner.

10 Instruction No. 14.1.

11 To determine whether or not statements or acts
12 constitute a threat, you should consider the circumstances
13 under which the alleged threat was made, including its context
14 with respect to surrounding events, the reactions of those who 15 heard the statements or saw the acts, the physical and mental 16 condition of the defendant, and whether the statements or acts
17 were conditional.

18 It is not necessary that the government prove that 19 the defendant intended to carry out the threat or that he had 20 the present ability to carry out the threat. It is not 21 necessary that the government prove the exact words or actions
22 that constitute the threat.

23 The defendant need not communicate the threat
24 directly to the intended target.

25 The government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt

1 that the victim was a federal law enforcement officer at the
2 time the threat was made, but the government does not have to
3 prove the defendant knew that he or she was a federal law
4 enforcement officer.

5 A federal law enforcement officer is any officer,
6 agent, or other employee of the United States government who is 7 authorized by law or by a government agency to engage in or 8 supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or 9 prosecution of any violation of federal criminal law.

10 "Impede" means to stop the progress, obstruct, or 11 hinder. "Intimidate" means to make timid or fearful, to 12 inspire or affect with fear, to frighten or to deter. And 13 "interfere with" means to come in to collision with, to 14 intermeddle, to hinder, to interpose, or to intervene. To 15 "retaliate" means to return for like, to act in reprisal for 16 some past act.

17 Instruction No. 15.

18 Count Twelve - Obstruction of Justice - Elements.

19 The defendants are charged in Count Twelve of the 20 superseding indictment with obstruction of justice in violation
21 of Section 1503 of Title 18 of the United States Code. In 22 order for a defendant to be found guilty of that charge, the
23 government must prove each of the following elements beyond a
24 reasonable doubt:

25 First, the defendant influenced, obstructed, or

1 impeded, or tried to influence, obstruct, or impede the due
2 administration of justice; and

3 Second, the defendant acted corruptly, or by threats
4 or force, or by any threatening communication with the intent
5 to obstruct justice.

6 The government need not prove that the defendant's
7 sole or even primary intent was to obstruct justice, so long as 8 the government proves beyond a reasonable doubt that one of the 9 defendant's intentions was to obstruct justice. The 10 defendant's intention to obstruct justice must be substantial.

11 The word "corruptly" as used in this instruction
12 means that the act must be done with the purpose of obstructing
13 justice.

14 Instruction No. 16.

15 Count Fourteen - Hobbs Act Extortion - Elements.

16 The defendants are charged in Count Fourteen of the 17 superseding indictment with extortion by force, violence, or 18 fear in violation of Section 1951 of Title 18 of the United 19 States Code. In order for a defendant to be found guilty of
20 that charge, the government must prove each of the following
21 elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

22 First, the defendant induced someone to part with 23 property by the wrongful use of actual or threatened force,
24 violence, or fear;

25 Second, the defendant acted with the intent to obtain

1 property;

2 Third, commerce from one state to another was
3 affected in some way.

4 A defendant's claim of right to the property is not a
5 defense.

6 The word "fear" as used in this instruction means an
7 apprehension, concern, or anxiety about physical violence or 8 harm that is reasonable under the circumstances.

9 Conduct affects interstate commerce if it in any way
10 interferes with, changes, or alters the movement or 11 transportation or flow of goods, merchandise, money, or other
12 property in commerce between or among the states. The effect
13 can be minimal. It is not necessary to prove that the 14 defendant intended to obstruct, delay, or interfere with 15 interstate commerce or that the purpose of the alleged crime
16 was to affect interstate commerce. Further, you do not have to 17 decide whether the effect on interstate commerce was to be 18 harmful or beneficial to a particular business or to commerce
19 in general. You do not even have to find that there was an 20 actual effect on commerce.

21 Instruction No. 16.1.

22 All that is necessary to prove this element is that 23 the natural consequences of the offense potentially caused an 24 effect on interstate commerce to any degree, however minimal or 25 slight.

1 Instruction No. 17.

2 Count Sixteen - Interstate or Foreign Travel in Aid
3 of Extortion - Elements.

4 The defendants are charged in Count Sixteen of the 5 superseding indictment with violating Section 1952(a)(2) of 6 Title 18 of the United States Code. In order for the defendant
7 to be found guilty of that charge, the government must prove
8 each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

9 First, that the defendant traveled in interstate
10 commerce or used a facility in interstate commerce, namely the 11 Internet or World Wide Web, with the intent to commit a crime
12 of violence in furtherance of an unlawful activity, namely
13 extortion in violation of Nevada law;

14 Second, after doing so, the defendant committed or 15 attempted to commit the violent crime in furtherance of the 16 unlawful activity.

17 Nevada Revised Statute Section 205.320, concerning 18 extortion, provides in pertinent part, that a person who, with 19 the intent to extort or gain any money or other property . . .
20 or to do or abet or procure any illegal or wrongful act,
21 whether or not the purpose is accomplished, threatens, directly
22 or indirectly, to injure a person or property, has committed
23 the offense of extortion.

24 You are instructed that assault on a federal officer,
25 Count Five, and threatening a federal officer, Count Eight, are

1 crimes of violence. It is for you to determine whether the
2 defendant traveled in interstate commerce or used a facility in
3 interstate commerce with intent to commit a crime of violence
4 in furtherance of the unlawful activity.

5 Instruction No. 18.

6 Counts Six, Nine and Fifteen - Using, Carrying or 7 Brandishing a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of 8 Violence - Elements.

9 The defendants are charged in Counts Six, Nine, and 10 Fifteen of the superseding indictment with using, carrying, and 11 brandishing a firearm during and in relation to three different
12 crimes of violence in violation of Section 924(c) of Title 18
13 of the United States Code. The crimes of violence are:

14 Count Five, assault on a federal officer, which is 15 the underlying crime for Count Six.

16 Count Eight, threatening a federal officer, which is 17 the underlying crime for Count Nine, and

18 Count Fourteen, interference with interstate commerce
19 by extortion, which is the underlying crime for Count Fifteen.

20 In order for a defendant to be found guilty of any 21 one of these charges, the government must prove each of the 22 following elements beyond a reasonable doubt;

23 First, the defendant committed the underlying crime
24 as charged in Counts Five, Eight, or Fourteen of the 25 superseding indictment, all of which I instruct you are crimes

1 of violence; and

2 Second, that the defendant knowingly used or carried
3 a firearm during and in relation to that crime.

4 Instruction No. 18.1.

5 A defendant used a firearm if he actively employed
6 the firearm during and in relation to the crime of violence.

7 A defendant carried a firearm if he knowingly
8 possessed it and held, moved, conveyed, or transported it in 9 some manner on his person or in a vehicle.

10 A defendant used or carried a firearm during and in 11 relation to the crime of firearm -- let me start that again.

12 A defendant used or carried a firearm during and in
13 relation to the crime if the firearm facilitated or played a 14 role in the crime as charged in that particular count of the 15 superseding indictment.

16 If you find a defendant guilty of using or carrying a
17 firearm during and in relation to a crime of violence in 18 violation of Section 924(c) of Title 18 of the United States
19 Code, as charged in Counts Six, Nine, or Fifteen of the 20 superseding indictment, you will be asked to find if the 21 government proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
22 brandished the firearm during and in relation to the crime of 23 violence.

24 A defendant brandished a firearm if he displayed all
25 or part of the firearm, or otherwise made the presence of the

1 firearm known to another person, in order to intimidate that
2 person, regardless of whether the firearm was directly visible
3 to that person.

4 Instruction No. 19.

5 The term "firearm" means any weapon which will or is 6 designed to or may be readily converted to expel a projectile
7 by the action of an explosive, or the frame or receiver of any
8 such weapon. The government is not required to prove that a
9 firearm was loaded or operable.

10 Instruction No. 20.

11 Liability for Substantive Offense Committed by 12 Coconspirator.

13 Each member of the conspiracy is responsible for the 14 actions of the other conspirators performed during the course
15 and in furtherance of the conspiracy. If one member of a
16 conspiracy commits a crime in furtherance of the conspiracy,
17 the other members have also, under the law, committed that
18 crime.

19 Therefore, you may find the defendant guilty of the 20 crimes as charged in Counts Five, Six, Eight, Nine, Twelve,
21 Fourteen, Fifteen, or Sixteen of the superseding indictment if 22 the government has proved each of the following elements beyond
23 a reasonable doubt:

24 First, that a person committed the crimes as alleged
25 in Counts Five, Six, Eight, Nine, Twelve, Fourteen, Fifteen or

1 Sixteen of the superseding indictment;

2 Second, the person was a member of the conspiracy
3 charged in Counts One or Two or both; and

4 Third, the person committed the crime in furtherance
5 of the conspiracy charged in Counts One or Two or both.

6 Instruction No. 20.1.

7 The Fourth Element.

8 Fourth, the defendant was a member of the same
9 conspiracy at the time the offense charged in Counts Five, Six,
10 Eight, Nine, Twelve, Fourteen, Fifteen, or Sixteen were 11 committed; and

12 Fifth, the offense fell within the scope of the 13 unlawful agreement and could reasonably have been foreseen to 14 be a necessary or natural consequence of the unlawful 15 agreement.

16 Instruction No. 21.

17 Aiding and Abetting.

18 A defendant may be found guilty of the crimes charged
19 in Counts Five, Six, Eight, Nine, Twelve, Fourteen, Fifteen, or 20 Sixteen of the superseding indictment even if the defendant
21 personally did not commit the act or acts constituting the 22 crime but aided and abetted in its commission. To prove a
23 defendant guilty of a crime by aiding and abetting, the 24 government must prove each of the following beyond a reasonable
25 doubt:

1 First, the crime was committed by someone;

2 Second, the defendant aided, counseled, commanded,
3 induced, or procured that person with respect to at least one
4 element of the crime; and

5 Third, the defendant acted with the intent to
6 facilitate the crime; and

7 Fourth, the defendant acted before the crime was
8 completed.

9 It is not enough that the defendant merely associated 10 with the person committing the crime, or unknowingly or 11 intentionally did things that were helpful to the person, or 12 was present at the scene of the crime. The evidence must show
13 beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant acted with the 14 knowledge and intention of helping that person commit the 15 crime.

16 Instruction No. 21.1.

17 A defendant acts with the intent to facilitate the 18 crime when the defendant actively participates in a criminal 19 venture with advanced knowledge of the crime and having 20 acquired that knowledge when the defendant still had a
21 realistic opportunity to withdraw from the crime.

22 The government is not required to prove precisely
23 which defendant actually committed the crime and which 24 defendant aided and abetted.

25 Instruction No. 22.

1 Conduct of Law Enforcement Officers.

2 The conduct, in other words, actions of the law
3 enforcement officers in this case is not at issue. Under the 4 law, the conduct of the law enforcement officers in this case
5 cannot justify or excuse an assault, a threat, or an extortion
6 by force by another. In your deliberations, you are not to 7 discuss or consider whether you agree or disagree with any
8 Court orders authorizing the impoundment operations, any
9 impoundment operations conducted by the Bureau of Land
10 Management, BLM, and National Park Service, NPS, or any actions
11 or inactions taken by BLM or NPS officers on April 12th of 12 2014.

13 Instruction No. 23.

14 Defendant's Decision Not to Testify.

15 A defendant in a criminal case has a constitutional
16 right not to testify. You may not draw any inference of any 17 kind from the fact that the defendant did not testify.

18 Instruction No. 24.

19 Defendant's Decision to Testify.

20 One of the defendants, Mr. Drexler, has testified.
21 You should treat this testimony just as you would the testimony
22 of any other witness.

23 Instruction No. 25.

24 What is Evidence?

25 The evidence you are to consider in deciding what the

1 facts are consists of:

2 Number 1. The sworn testimony of any witness; and

3 Number 2. The exhibits received in evidence; and

4 Number 3. Any facts to which the parties have 5 agreed.

6 Instruction No. 26.

7 What is Not Evidence?

8 In reaching your verdict, you may consider only the 9 testimony and exhibits received in evidence. The following
10 things are not evidence and you may not consider them in 11 deciding what the facts are:

12 Number 1. Questions, statements, objections, and 13 arguments by the lawyers are not evidence. The lawyers are not 14 witnesses. Although you may consider a lawyer's questions to 15 understand the answer of a witness, the lawyer's questions are 16 not evidence. Similarly, what the lawyers have said in their 17 opening statement, or will say in their closing statements and 18 at other times, is intended to help you interpret the evidence,
19 but it is not evidence. If the fact as you remember them
20 differ from the way the lawyers state them, your memory of them
21 controls;

22 Number 2. Any testimony that I have excluded,
23 stricken, or instructed you to disregard is not evidence. In 24 addition, some evidence was received only for a limited
25 purpose; when I have instructed you to consider certain

1 evidence in a limited way, you must do so; and

2 Number 3. Anything you may have seen or heard when
3 the Court was not the session is not evidence. You are to 4 decide the case solely on the evidence received at the trial.

5 Instruction No. 27.

6 Direct and Circumstantial Evidence.

7 Evidence may be direct or circumstantial. Direct
8 evidence is direct proof of a fact, such as testimony by a
9 witness about what that witness personally saw or heard or did.
10 Circumstantial evidence is indirect evidence, that is, it is 11 proof of one or more facts from which you can find another
12 fact.

13 You are to consider both direct and circumstantial
14 evidence. Either can be used to prove any fact. The law makes 15 no distinction between the weight to be given to either direct
16 or circumstantial evidence. It is for you to decide how much
17 weight to give to any evidence.

18 Instruction No. 28.

19 Charts and Summaries in Evidence.

20 Certain charts and summaries have been admitted in 21 evidence. Charts and summaries are only as good as the 22 underlying supporting material. You should, therefore, give 23 them only such weight as you think the underlying material
24 deserves.

25 Instruction No. 29.

1 Evidence for a Limited Purpose.

2 During trial, you were advised that Exhibit 102, one
3 of the Facebook posts by Mr. Parker, was admitted only for the 4 limited purpose of intent, absence of mistake, or motive. Also
5 during trial you were advised that Exhibit 129, page 5,
6 Mr. Parker's forearm tattoo, was admitted only as to 7 Mr. Parker, and that Exhibit 131, page 4, Mr. Drexler's forearm
8 tattoo, was admitted only as to Mr. Drexler. So, you must 9 consider that -- this evidence only limited as to that purpose
10 and for that defendant.

11 Instruction No. 30.

12 Stipulations of Fact.

13 The parties have agreed to certain facts that have 14 been stated to you. You should therefore treat these facts as 15 having been proved.

16 Instruction No. 31.

17 Jury Consideration of Punishment.

18 The punishment provided by law for this crime is for 19 the Court to decide, and you may not consider punishment in 20 deciding whether the government has proved its case against the 21 defendant beyond a reasonable doubt.

22 Instruction No. 32.

23 Credibility Of witnesses.

24 In deciding the facts in this case, you may have to 25 decide which testimony to believe and which testimony not to

1 believe. You may believe everything a witness says, or part of 2 it, or none of it.

3 In considering the testimony of any witness, you may
4 take into account:

5 Number 1. The witness's opportunity and ability to 6 see, or hear, or know the things testified to;

7 Number 2. The witness's memory;

8 Number 3. The witness's manner while testifying;

9 Number 4. The witness's interest in the outcome of 10 the case, if any;

11 Number 5. The witness's bias or prejudice, if any;

12 Number 6. Whether other evidence contradicted the 13 witness's testimony;

14 Number 7. The reasonableness of the witness's
15 testimony in light of all the evidence; and

16 Number 8. Any other factors that bear on 17 believability.

18 The weight of the evidence as to a fact does not
19 necessarily depend on the number of witnesses who testify.
20 What is important is how believable the witnesses were and how 21 much weight you think their testimony deserves.

22 Instruction No. 33.

23 Opinion Testimony - Expert Witness.

24 You have heard testimony from Erich Smith who 25 testified to opinions and the reasons for his opinions. The

1 opinion testimony is allowed because of the education or
2 experience of this witness. Such opinion testimony should be
3 judged like any other testimony. You may accept it or reject
4 it and give it as much weight as you think it deserves,
5 considering the witness's education, and experience, the 6 reasons given for the opinion, and all the other evidence in
7 this case.

8 Instruction No. 34.

9 Statements by a Defendant.

10 You have heard testimony that a defendant made a
11 statement. It is for you to decide:

12 Number 1. Whether a defendant made the statement,
13 and

14 Number 2. If so, how much weight to give to it.

15 In making those decisions, you should consider all
16 the evidence about the statement, including the circumstances
17 under which a defendant may have said it.

18 Instruction No. 35.

19 Witness Pretrial Preparation.

20 It is proper for an attorney to interview any witness
21 in preparation for trial.

22 Of course, in the process of trial preparation, a
23 party may not suggest that the witness depart from the truth.

24 You have also heard testimony that a witness read or 25 reviewed certain materials pertaining to the case before the

1 witness testified at trial. The law permits a witness to do
2 so.

3 Instruction No. 36.

4 Government's Use of Undercover Agents.

5 You have heard testimony from an undercover agent who
6 was involved in the government's investigation in this case.
7 Law enforcement officials may engage in stealth and deception,
8 such as the use of undercover agents, in order to investigate
9 criminal activities. Undercover agents may use false names and 10 appearances.

11 Instruction No. 37.

12 When you begin your deliberations, elect one member
13 of the jury as your presiding juror who will preside over the 14 deliberations and speak for you here in court.

15 You will then decide -- discuss the case with your 16 fellow jurors to reach agreement if you can do so. Your 17 verdict, whether guilty or not guilty, must be unanimous.

18 Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but 19 you should do so only after you have considered all the 20 evidence, discussed it fully with the other jurors, and 21 listened to the views of your fellow jurors.

22 Do not be afraid to change your opinion if the 23 discussion persuades you that you should. But do not come to a
24 decision simply because others think it is right.

25 It is important that you attempt to reach a unanimous

1 verdict but, of course, only if each of you can do so after
2 having made your own conscientious decision. Do not change an
3 honest belief about the weight and effect of the evidence
4 simply to reach a verdict.

5 Instruction No. 38.

6 Consideration of Evidence - Conduct of the Jury.

7 Because you must base your verdict only on the
8 evidence received in the case and on these instructions, I
9 remind you that you must not be exposed to any other
10 information about the case or to the issues it involves.
11 Except for discussing the case with your fellow jurors during 12 your deliberations:

13 Do not communicate with anyone in any way and do not 14 let anyone else communicate with you in any way about the 15 merits of the case or anything to do with it. This includes 16 discussing the case in person, in writing, by phone, or
17 electronic means, via email, text messaging, or any Internet
18 chat room, blog, website, or other feature. This applies to 19 communicating with your family member, your employer, the media
20 or press, and the people involved in the trial. If you are 21 asked or approached in any way about your jury service or 22 anything about this case, you must respond that you have been 23 ordered not to discuss the matter and to report the contact to 24 the Court.

25 Do not read, watch, or listen to any news or media

1 accounts or commentary about the case or anything to do with
2 it. Do not do any research, such as consulting dictionaries,
3 searching the Internet, or using other reference materials, and
4 do not make any investigation or in any other way try to learn
5 about the case on your own.

6 Instruction No. 38.1.

7 The law requires these restrictions to ensure the 8 parties have a fair trial based on the same evidence and that 9 each party has an opportunity to address -- has had an 10 opportunity to address. A juror who violates these 11 restrictions jeopardizes the fairness of these proceedings, and 12 a mistrial could result that would require the entire 13 process -- trial process to start over. If any juror is 14 exposed any outside information, please notify the Court
15 immediately.

16 Instruction No. 39.

17 Use of Notes.

18 Some of you have taken notes during the trial.
19 Whether or not you took notes, you should rely on your own
20 memory of what was said. Notes are only to assist your memory.
21 You should not be overly influenced by your notes or those of 22 your fellow jurors.

23 Instruction No. 40.

24 Communication with Court.

25 If it becomes necessary during your deliberations to

1 communicate with me, you may send a note through the court
2 security officer, signed by any one or more of you. No member
3 of the jury should ever attempt to communicate with me except
4 by a signed writing, and I will respond to the jury concerning
5 the case only in writing or here in open court. If you send
6 out a question, I will consult with the lawyers before
7 answering the it, which may take some time. You may continue
8 your deliberations while waiting for the answer to any
9 question. Remember that you are not to tell anyone --
10 including me -- how the jury stands numerically or otherwise on 11 any question submitted to you, including the question of the 12 guilt of any defendant, until after you have reached a
13 unanimous verdict or have been discharged.

14 Instruction No. 41.

15 Verdict Form.

16 A verdict form has been prepared for you, and after 17 you have reached unanimous agreement on a verdict, your 18 presiding juror should complete the verdict form according to 19 your deliberations, sign it, and date it, and advise the court
20 security officer that you are ready to return to the courtroom.

21 This is the verdict form.

12 Fifteen of the superseding indictment, the jury must also 13 answer the follow question:

14 We, the jury, unanimously find that the firearm was
15 brandished. No, or yes.

16 Eric J. Parker, not guilty or guilty.

17 If the jury finds the defendant guilty of Count
18 Fifteen of the superseding indictment, the jury must also
19 answer the following question:

20 We, the jury, unanimously find the firearm was
21 brandished. No, or yes.

22 And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty or guilty.

23 If the jury finds the defendant guilty of Count
24 Fifteen of the superseding indictment, the jury must also
25 answer the following question:

1 We, the jury, unanimously find the firearm was
2 brandished. No or yes.

3 Count Sixteen.

4 As to Count Sixteen of the superseding indictment
5 charging that the defendants committed, or aided and abetted,
6 the commission of interstate travel in aid of extortion, we,
7 the jury, unanimously find the Defendant:

8 O. Scott Drexler, not guilty or guilty.

9 Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty or guilty.

10 Eric J. Parker, not guilty or guilty.

11 And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty or guilty.

12 So say we all. Dated this blank day of blank, 2017,
13 and signed by the jury person.

14 All right. So, those are the jury instructions and 15 the verdict form, and you will be provided a copy of those 16 along with the superseding indictment, all the evidence that's 17 been admitted, and an index of the evidence that's been
18 admitted.

19 So, we'll go ahead and start with the government's
20 closing argument.

21 Does anybody need a bathroom break or a stretch break
22 or anything yet? It's okay if you do.

23 All right. Then we'll go ahead and proceed.

24 GOVERNMENT'S CLOSING ARGUMENT

25 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning,

Government's Closing Argument

1 ladies and gentlemen.

2 Thank you on behalf of the United States, Mr. Myhre,
3 Miss Creegan, and myself. We want to say thank you first for 4 the time that you've spent over the past month and a half
5 listening to this case. It is not an easy thing to set aside
6 your own lives to consider the facts and evidence that we've
7 presented. But in addition to that, we've seen how attentive,
8 inquisitive, and open you've been to the evidence, and we want
9 to let you know that we really appreciate that.

10 Now, we also know that it's not an easy thing to be a
11 juror; to have the task of sitting in judgment of another human 12 being. But the truth is today, your task is not to judge
13 another person.

14 Your Honor, may we publish our PowerPoint?

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Aaron, can you turn that on, please?

18 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

19 Your task is not to sit in judgment of another human 20 being. Your task is to judge the evidence that's been 21 presented and apply the law to that evidence in determining the 22 defendants' guilt, whether they're guilty or not.

23 Now, as humans, of course, we have our own life
24 experiences that we bring with us anywhere we go. And so I
25 present this jury instruction that Her Honor just read to you

Government's Closing Argument

1 just to highlight one important part.

2 That in deciding this case, again, you look to the 3 evidence and the law, and you must not let yourself be
4 influenced by personal likes or dislikes, sympathies, world
5 views, political views, views of the attorneys, or anything
6 else.

7 You must look at what was presented and you must
8 apply it to the law. And in doing so, you must honor the duty
9 that you committed to doing when you accepted your position as 10 a juror in this case.

11 Now, Her Honor's just read many jury instructions to 12 you, so what I want to do this morning with you is talk about 13 what we've charged, the evidence that we've presented, and how
14 it clearly establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that Defendant
15 Parker, Defendant Drexler, Defendant Stewart, and Defendant
16 Lovelien are guilty of the crimes that they have been charged
17 with.

18 So, first, what are those crimes?

19 Count One charges conspiracy to commit an offense.

20 Count Two charges conspiracy to impede or injure a
21 federal officer.

22 Count Five, assault on a federal officer.

23 Count Eight, threatening federal law enforcement
24 officers.

25 Count Twelve, obstruction of the due administration

Government's Closing Argument

1 of justice.

2 Count Fourteen, extortion.

3 Count Sixteen, interstate travel in aid of extortion.

4 And Counts Six, Nine and Fifteen charge using,
5 carrying, brandishing firearms during and in relation to a
6 crime of violence.

7 And finally, all of the counts, except for the two
8 conspiracy counts, charge aiding and abetting.

9 And basically, what these counts mean, an easy way to 10 understand them, is that they break down into three different
11 ways in which you can find and will find that these defendants
12 are guilty.

13 First, they did it. They committed the assault.
14 They themselves committed the threatening. They committed the 15 obstruction of justice. They extorted. They traveled in 16 interstate in aid of extortion, and they used, carried or 17 brandished a firearm during or in relation to the assault,
18 threats, or the extortion.

19 The second way you can find them guilty is that they 20 helped each other do it. That's the aiding and abetting.

21 And finally, the third way is that they agreed with 22 each other to do it.

23 There was a conspiracy to commit the offense, as 24 outlined in Count One. There was a conspiracy to intimidate --
25 to impede or interfere or injure. And finally, under

Government's Closing Argument

1 conspiracy, if you find that they joined the conspiracy, they
2 are also liable because in joining that conspiracy, they are
3 responsible for their coconspirator's actions.

4 So, I want to take each of these three different
5 routes to guilt one by one and walk you through the evidence. But
6 before I do that, I want to just establish the base framework
7 of the story as we know it, beginning with four court orders.

8 Four court orders directing Cliven Bundy to remove 9 cattle from public lands. These are Exhibits 1, 2, and 3 and 10 4. Exhibits 1 and 2, issued in 1998 and 1999, permanently
11 enjoined Mr. Bundy from grazing his cattle on public lands.

12 July -- in July 2013, there was that third order
13 issued by Judge Lloyd George, in which he stated that the BLM,
14 if Cliven Bundy didn't do so, was authorized to remove, to 15 impound, the trespass cattle.

16 Now, on October 2013, there was the fourth order that 17 what -- that repeated the previous orders but went another step 18 further. And it was issued by Judge Hicks of this Court. And 19 Judge Hicks said, in furtherance of that order, that Cliven
20 Bundy shall not physically interfere with any seizure or 21 impoundment operation authorized by that order.

22 What we also know, of course, that in April of 2014,
23 the BLM did, in fact, begin to impound the trespass cattle that
24 had not been removed by Mr. Bundy.

25 Here you see Exhibit 134, and you heard witness Guss

Government's Closing Argument

1 Warr talk about the impoundment of these cattle, the processes
2 that they took with cattle, and how the cattle once impounded
3 became the possession of the United States Government.

4 You also learned that the Bundys took steps to stop
5 the impoundment. Specifically, they joined forces with a man
6 named Ryan Payne, co-founder of Operation Mutual Aid.

7 You saw then that Bundy and Payne began to recruit
8 not just protesters, but other people, specific people,
9 militia, 3 Percenters, individual freedom fighters. They were
10 recruiting them to their cause, which was to stop the BLM
11 impoundment.

12 You also know, of course, that on April 12, 2014,
13 Cliven Bundy and his family held a rally at their staging area
14 both with protesters and militia present. And at that rally,
15 the sheriff spoke, Cliven Bundy spoke, and then he spoke again.
16 And in that second speech, he told the people that were 17 present, the militia, the individual freedom fighters, and the 18 protesters to go to the BLM's impoundment site, to shut down
19 the freeway, to go specifically to Toquop Wash, and to get his 20 cattle.

21 We've also seen evidence that the defendants -- seen
22 and heard evidence that the defendants, traveling in Defendant
23 Lovelien's vehicle, did, in fact, make that 5-mile journey,
24 from the staging area near Bundy's ranch, to the BLM
25 impoundment site.

Government's Closing Argument

1 And you also, of course, know, having sat through
2 this trial for the past six weeks, that these defendants then
3 took positions on the Interstate 15 northbound lanes and on the 4 bridge where they were positioned with firearms.

5 You also know that the officers that were present,
6 holding their post, which was the BLM impoundment site, were
7 down in a wash or up at Post 1, and that they could see that
8 their positions were surrounded.

9 We know that in light of the situation and in fear of 10 violence, the BLM withdrew. And that after they withdrew, our 11 four defendants remained. And eventually, the cattle were 12 released that had been impounded and were the property of the 13 United States Government.

14 So, this is the general framework of the events.
15 This isn't a case where you have to figure out what happened in 16 terms of the central step-by-step process of the story. You
17 know what happened.

18 But the question is, are they guilty of the crimes
19 with which they have been charged? So, let's start with they 20 did it. So, I want to walk through these specific offenses and 21 how these individuals themselves committed them.

22 I want to start with the threatening federal law
23 enforcement officer which is Count Eight. Now, as Her Honor
24 read to you, there are four elements which you have to find to 25 find these defendants guilty.

Government's Closing Argument

1 First, the defendant made a statement or did an act
2 that constituted a threat to assault a federal law enforcement
3 officer;

4 Second, that the defendant intended that statement or
5 act to be a threat or made the statement or did the act knowing
6 the words or actions would be viewed as a threat.

7 Third, that a reasonable person making the statement
8 or doing the act would foresee that the statement would be 9 interpreted -- or act would be interpreted by those to whom the 10 maker communicated the statement as a threat.

11 And fourth, that the threat was made with the intent
12 to impede, intimidate, or interfere with federal law
13 enforcement officers, or in retaliation for the performance of 14 their duties.

15 Now, it is important to remember, in looking at the 16 evidence, that a threat, of course, is distinguished from idle
17 or careless talk, exaggeration, or something done in a joking
18 manner. It is expressing an intention to inflict bodily injury
19 at that time or at some point in the future.

20 So, here it's also important to know what you don't 21 have to find in determining that there was a threat. First,
22 there doesn't need to be any kind of verbal communication.
23 These defendants didn't have to tell the officers that they 24 intended to harm them. It can be an action. And the 25 government's not required to prove the exact action that is the

Government's Closing Argument

1 threat.

2 It is also important to know that it does not need to
3 be observed by the recipient of the threat. So, here, it isn't 4 necessary that you find that the BLM officers, who were down in 5 wash, or the park service officers that were there, that they
6 observed a threat to themselves. A third party, another
7 person, other witnesses could have seen the defendants' conduct
8 and understood their actions to be a threat to those officers.

9 Now, in turning to the individual elements, I submit,
10 of course, a small sample of the photographs and evidence that 11 you've seen. And I've tried to identify for you on the screen
12 the exhibits so that you know where to look during your 13 deliberations. Excuse me.

14 So here you see, of course, Defendant Parker as he's 15 prone with his rifle pointed between the gaps of the concrete
16 barrier. Looking at the image on the left, Exhibit 195, you
17 can see the individual that's pointing in the blue shirt, and 18 you know, from this case, that that is witness Trey Schillie,
19 who was driving through the area when he came upon the scene.

20 And you heard specifically from Mr. Schillie that 21 seeing this defendant's posture, seeing him with the rifle,
22 seeing where it was pointed, and seeing officers down in the 23 wash, he understood this to be a threat.

24 You also heard from the officers themselves who 25 observed this defendant, before he went down into this

Government's Closing Argument

1 position, and, of course, Officer Martinez, who could see
2 movement behind the gap during -- when he was in this
3 position -- when Parker was in this position, and those
4 officers also, based on their training and experience, looking
5 at the demeanor, the tactical clothing, the tactical movements,
6 and the presence of an assault rifle, and understood the 7 superior position that Mr. Parker had taken over them, to be
8 communication of a threat to inflict physical injury to them
9 and their co-officers.

10 You have also seen evidence of the same from 11 Mr. Drexler. Mr. Drexler was also observed by officers with 12 the tactical vest, with an assault rifle, and taking tactical
13 position, an overhead position on the northbound bridge above
14 the officers, and doing sneak and peek moves, coordinated 15 tactical movements with Mr. Parker. And based on those 16 officers' training and experience, they understood his actions
17 to be a threat.

18 You have also seen evidence of Mr. Stewart's actions
19 on the bridge on April 12, 2014. That he was sometimes 20 standing, sometimes kneeling, moving his firearm, pointing his 21 firearm at the officers, and that the way that he moved and the 22 way that he had a long gun with him sent a message to those 23 officers as well that he intended to harm them, a threat.

24 And you also heard, of course, about Mr. Lovelien,
25 who dressed from head to toe in camouflage clothing, on the

Government's Closing Argument

1 Interstate 15 freeway, stood in that tactically superior
2 position over those officers and over the other gunmen on the
3 bridge or near the bridge -- excuse me -- and appeared to be 4 commanding that area and patrolling that segment of the 5 northbound freeway.

6 And that they could see him from the wash, and that
7 they could see him from post -- that intermediate position
8 between Post 1 and Post 2. And specifically, you heard from 9 Ranger Burke who said that she saw him pointing his firearm
10 from the low ready position.

11 Now, the question then isn't if they committed an act
12 that could be perceived as a threat, because the evidence is 13 there. You've seen the pictures. And although we've, of 14 course, asked you to set aside your prejudices and your 15 potential political views or your sympathies, one thing you do
16 not have to set aside and you must not set aside, and the 17 reason we ask you to come and be jurors, is your common sense.

18 It's critical in looking at this evidence that you
19 rely on your reason and your sense of common sense. And in 20 doing so, in looking at those photographs, and the videos, and 21 the evidence, you'll see that that was a threatening action
22 that each one of those -- that they took several threatening
23 actions. That their presence on the bridge, their presence on 24 the northbound freeway, that those defendants were threatening
25 the officers. But the question, of course, then becomes what

Government's Closing Argument

1 was their intent?

2 Now, you're instructed in a couple of places in the 3 jury instructions about how you are to determine intent.

4 Instruction No. 11 provides that the intent of a
5 person or the knowledge that a person possesses at any given
6 time may not ordinarily be proved directly, because there is no
7 way of directly scrutinizing the workings of the human mind.

8 And in this case, we have not gone into the mind of 9 each of these four defendants and presented to you their exact
10 admissions of guilt, but we've presented many things to allow 11 you to infer their intent.

12 We know that they committed a threat on a federal 13 officer. And how do we know they did it? Because you do have 14 some of their words. They told you in their words. They 15 showed you with their actions, and then they celebrated or 16 glorified or participated in subsequent operations or sought an 17 opportunity to do it again.

18 Now, in determining their intention, it's important
19 to start with the information that they had on April 12, 2014,
20 and prior to that, in some occasions. But looking here at the 21 screen before you, we know for sure that all four of these
22 defendants attended a rally on the morning of April 12, 2014,
23 where they were informed that the BLM was leaving, was going to 24 leave, and that the impoundment operations had been ceased.

25 And that is Sheriff Gillespie's speech which is

Government's Closing Argument

1 Exhibit 21. Can we go ahead and play?

2 (Exhibit 21 played.)

3 MS. AHMED: Can we stop it there?

4 Now, you just heard the sheriff's speech, as these
5 defendants heard the sheriff's speech. He said he was there to 6 keep an emotional issue safe and that the BLM was going to stop
7 the impoundment. They were no longer going to gather cattle.
8 They were going to be removing their assets.

9 You have seen, through the course of this trial, that
10 those assets included, in addition to the cattle,
11 infrastructure, including trailers, and vehicles, and equipment
12 that had been brought in for this impoundment. And that they 13 needed to have time to remove all of that. But in any event,
14 the sheriff was there to tell these people that this
15 impoundment was done.

16 When he also referenced the assets, he said that they
17 needed to facilitate the removal of those assets in a safe way.
18 And then the sheriff was done, and the crowd, of course, as you
19 just saw, pressed him on the cows. And he said the cows were 20 where they have been the past few days, and that was what he
21 needed to talk to Cliven Bundy about, appearing to refer back
22 to the safe removal of the BLM assets.

23 So, you also, having heard the speech, that these
24 defendants speech [sic], you also, of course, know that Cliven
25 Bundy then responded to the sheriff. Can we continue to play?

Government's Closing Argument

1 (Exhibit 21 played.)

2 MS. AHMED: Now, having seen both of those speeches,
3 it's apparent that whatever the demands that Cliven Bundy was
4 making of the sheriff, two things are clear from that speech.

5 One is that he had no interest in what the sheriff
6 had to say about the cattle. He clearly had his own plan about
7 the cattle.

8 And two, we know that having heard that speech, heard
9 the demands that the sheriff made -- excuse me -- that Cliven
10 Bundy made of the sheriff, these four defendants stayed. They 11 stayed where they were. They stayed with the Bundys.

12 So, they stay. They wait that hour. In that time,
13 although they did not have their firearms with them, while 14 doing security at that rally, they retrieved those firearms at 15 some point, but they are there when Cliven Bundy gives his 16 second speech. The speech that's directed to them, Exhibit 22.

17 Can you play?

18 (Exhibit 22 played.)

19 MS. AHMED: Now, again, this is a speech that the 20 evidence shows these four defendants heard, were present for.
21 And during this speech, Cliven Bundy didn't say that the BLM
22 were releasing the cattle. In fact, no one had said that.

23 Instead -- instead, what he told these defendants to 24 do was to go to the compound. That all they needed to do was 25 open the gates. But they need safety. So, they are going to

Government's Closing Argument

1 block the freeway. He says, block the freeway, and then the
2 horses will meet in the Toquop Wash. And these defendants hear
3 the speech, and they get in Defendant Lovelien's vehicle, and
4 they go to the BLM's compound.

5 Now, again, you know from the evidence that they
6 drove the distance, approximately 5 miles, from the staging
7 area to the BLM ICP. You know from the testimony and from what 8 you've seen, that they do not go into the wash with, quote, the 9 protesters, to extent that there are protesters in that wash.
10 They stay on the northbound lane of the I-15, Defendant Parker,
11 Drexler, and Stewart, taking tactical positions on the bridge
12 over Post 2, and Defendant Lovelien taking a tactical position
13 on the 15 in between Post 1 and Post 2.

14 From the photos, you know that they don't have flags.
15 They don't have signs. They have firearms. And again, these 16 are firearms that they had not had with them, at that staging
17 area, during that speech, but they went to get before they went 18 to the BLM impoundment site.

19 And they used that position on the bridge and on the 20 freeway to do just what Cliven Bundy had told them to do; to 21 shut it down; to block the freeway. And then they proceed to 22 use the travelers, who are stuck there, and the people in the 23 wash, to prevent the officers from taking any law enforcement
24 action to eliminate them as a threat. They create the safety
25 to get the cattle back that Cliven Bundy had told them they

Government's Closing Argument

1 needed.

2 Now, again, you know their intent from their
3 statements and from their evidence that we put in, really, to
4 Facebook posts and the like. So, with Defendant Lovelien, you
5 know that through his Facebook activity, he becomes friends
6 with Ryan Payne on Facebook.

7 On Facebook, he also likes the OMA page, and that he
8 uses social media to recruit other militia to help the Bundys.
9 You also know, and we'll get to this a little bit later, the 10 exhibits for this, but you know that he had received from OMA,
11 from Payne, the objectives for this operation, which included
12 obtaining the cattle, getting the cattle back, and getting the 13 BLM off of the public lands.

14 So, knowing those things, here are two examples of 15 how Defendant Lovelien viewed what he was doing on April 12,
16 2014. And again, from the evidence, you know that he refers to 17 himself as Captain Rick Lovelien, Regional Codefendant --
18 Codirector of the Montana State Defense Force.

19 And here, sharing information with the Montana State
20 Defense Force Facebook group, he says, "Pass this along.
21 Alert. This is not a drill. All Oath Keepers and militia in 22 proximity need to move into Def Con 1 mode." That's 23 Exhibit 74. To him, this is a military exercise that he's 24 going into on April 12, 2014.

25 And then again, when it's over, Exhibit 80, on

Government's Closing Argument

1 April 14th, he says, "Just a heads up. I have just returned
2 home for the time being from the Bundy Ranch. I will update
3 what I can as I can. The operation is still ongoing in 4 Southeast Nevada. And although the federal agents have 5 surrendered their position and withdrew, the area is still 6 active and we still have boots on the ground. Security is our 7 top priority as always."

8 So you know from these kinds of statements that 9 Defendant Lovelien, what he's doing in Bunkerville, Nevada, on 10 April 12, 2014, had nothing to with the protesters and 11 everything to do with the military-style operation to help the 12 Bundys get their cattle. And how they are going to do that is 13 through a show of force.

14 You also know that on Facebook, in communicating with 15 somebody, another Facebook user after the event, at Exhibit 85,
16 someone asks him, "What you been doin'?" And Ricky Lovelien
17 says, "Chasing off federal agents in Nevada," and includes with 18 that message a photograph of federal agents -- excuse me -- a
19 federal agent standing next to a cattle trailer.

20 So again, you know from his statements that to him
21 what he's doing on the northbound freeway on April 12, 2014, is 22 about helping the Bundys get the cattle, and it's about chasing
23 off federal agents. And the way he's going to do that is 24 through communicating a threat to those officers.

25 You also know, from the steps he takes on April 12,

Government's Closing Argument

1 2014, his intent. Exhibit 137, a photograph of Ricky Lovelien
2 at the rally on the morning of April 12, 2014. Juxtaposed to
3 the right with Exhibit 66, a photograph of Ricky Lovelien
4 wearing full military-style camouflage clothing, a tactical
5 vest, and carrying his assault rifle, on the northbound bridge,
6 standing with another individual wearing tactical clothing,
7 taking a tactical position with a firearm.

8 And you know from the officers that they could see
9 this. And you can infer from the steps he's taken from the 10 morning rally to the time he gets to that location, that he is 11 intending to show force, and that's the threat.

12 Now, we also have the dash camera from the NHP
13 officers. You heard from -- excuse me -- NHP Sergeant Serena,
14 who spoke about his observations about Defendant Lovelien. And 15 you yourself can see, from the dash cam, his moments and how 16 his movements are consistent with what the officers, Serena,
17 Ranger Burke, and Ranger Whitteaker, their observation that he 18 appeared to be patrolling or in command of that area on the
19 Northbound 15.

20 And if we could play this video, but moving forward
21 to 12:21 approximately. Right there.

22 (Exhibit 32A played.)

23 MS. AHMED: You can stop it there.

24 Again, this is Exhibit 32A, and it continues --
25 Mr. Lovelien's movements continue in that area into Exhibit 33.

Government's Closing Argument

1 And for more than that 10-minute period and beyond that, he
2 continues to stand in that area, moving back and forth,
3 sitting, looking at the NHP officers, looking into the wash,
4 moving his position, but in command of that area.

5 And he goes straight up to the individual that you've
6 learned in this trial is coconspirator Todd Engel, where he's 7 talking to the NHP officers. And he steps, not just up to that 8 conversation dressed in full camouflage clothing with his 9 firearm hanging off his side, but he steps right into the 10 middle of it. And you heard from Sergeant Serena that it
11 appeared that that had a chilling effect on Todd Engel in terms
12 of his communication to the officer when Defendant Lovelien
13 came.

14 Now, you also know, again, the officers see him
15 pointing and carrying. And therefore, you can infer that he
16 was, in fact, pointing and carrying. You see him yourself
17 carrying his firearm. But you can infer and you can rely on 18 the credible testimony that Ranger Alexandra Burke gave when 19 she sat on the stand and spoke to you about this event.

20 And in that testimony, she said that she observed
21 Lovelien pointing his firearm in a low ready hold. And she saw
22 him moving with another individual, and she took a separate
23 picture of that individual, which is at Exhibit 155.

24 Here you see the picture she took of Defendant
25 Lovelien later, after she had had an opportunity to safely

Government's Closing Argument

1 approach to take the picture. This is Exhibit 156. And so she
2 took pictures of individuals, when it was safe to do so, that
3 she had observed pointing firearms either in the direction of 4 the officers in the wash or in her -- her area, at the officers
5 in her area.

6 Now, it's really important that you understand, in 7 your deliberations, the value of the evidence regarding these 8 defendants pointing their firearm. As you've heard from the 9 instructions, we are not obligated to prove and you are not 10 obligated to find that these defendants pointed a firearm at 11 federal officers in order to find them guilty of the offenses
12 that they have been charged with.

13 The pointing helps you understand their intent, but 14 it is not something that you must conclude that they did in 15 order to find them guilty.

16 Here, there's evidence that Defendant Lovelien
17 pointed his firearm. And you've heard that, from these 18 officers, that based on their training and experience, and just 19 through use of firearms generally, that you don't aim at what 20 you are not prepared to shoot at. And so they saw his actions, 21 and they understood that to be a threat. And you can do so as
22 well.

23 THE COURT: All right. We're going to go ahead and 24 take our noon lunch break here.

25 Please remember, jury, that you are still to not

Government's Closing Argument

1 discuss this case with anyone. We are close, but we are not
2 there yet. So, please do not talk about this at lunch with
3 your fellow jurors nor with anyone else, and please do not
4 read, or listen to, or view anything that touches upon this
5 case in any way, nor attempt to perform any research or 6 independent investigation. And please do not form an opinion
7 yet until after you have heard closing arguments in complete.

8 We will go ahead and stand for the jury so they may 9 be excused. We will welcome them back at 1:00.

10 (Jury out.)

11 THE COURT: All right. The jury has exited the room.

12 I'm sorry, Miss Ahmed, for interrupting you there,
13 but one of the jurors was giving me the time out, like sports
14 event time out sign with his hands. He really needed to have a
15 bathroom break.

16 So, we will go ahead and be back at 1:00, and then we 17 can resume.

18 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 (Recess, 11:55 a.m. Resumed 1:23 p.m.)

20 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Is 21 everyone back?

22 Let's go ahead and get the jury, please, Aaron.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 (Jury in.)

Government's Closing Argument

1 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and take a seat.
2 Everyone else may be seated as well.

3 And Miss Ahmed, you may continue your closing
4 argument on behalf of the government.

5 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. When we last
7 left off before the break, we were discussing how it is you
8 could tell that defendants' intent to commit a threat and the 9 other offenses, with which they are charged, on April 12, 2014.
10 And I submit to you that looking at their words and their
11 conduct, on April 12th and after, that intent is clear.

12 We discussed Defendant Lovelien, and now I'll turn to 13 Defendant Stewart. As you can see on the screen in front of 14 you, these are images you have seen before. Defendant Stewart
15 was on the northbound bridge on April 12th, 2014, overlooking 16 the officers in the wash.

17 You heard testimony from Agent Whitteaker about his 18 visibility and the fact that he was pointing his firearm toward 19 the officers, and you heard testimony from Ranger Martinez
20 about the way in which Defendant Stewart was moving his
21 firearm.

22 I submit to you that the descriptions that they 23 provided, that he was moving it up and down, that he was 24 fidgeting with his firearm is demonstrated in Exhibit 166B in 25 that very, very quick segment where you see him moving up and

Government's Closing Argument

1 down and is consistent with the officers' description of how
2 they saw him with his firearm on April 12th.

3 Can you play it again?

4 (Exhibit 166B played.)

5 MS. AHMED: It's up and it's down. And you'll see
6 other images, as you can see in the image to the right of that,
7 where he himself is up kneeling and leaning over the barrier.
8 You also see him standing up, holding his firearm in the ready
9 position, consistent with Agent Whitteaker's description.

10 Excuse me. Ranger Whitteaker.

11 He described Defendant Stewart as Shotgun Guy based 12 on the appearance of his firearm. You heard from our expert,
13 Erich Smith, that this firearm could be mistaken for a shotgun
14 given its appearance. And again, you heard from Ranger
15 Martinez as well about how he was moving his firearm.

16 And I would submit that his movements on April 12th,
17 on that bridge and in that tactical position, were meant to 18 convey to the officers his ability to imminently injure them
19 and conveyed that threat.

20 You also have his words on April 12th, while on the 21 bridge at the ICP. He was also updating his Facebook page.
22 And Eric -- Steven Stewart said, "First they said they were 23 going to release everything and leave. Then they held the 24 gates to Gold Butte and threatened us with chemicals. Then we 25 pushed forward, and they had to back off. They are releasing

Government's Closing Argument

1 the cows now. BLM is leaving."

2 It's clear from this post that Steven Stewart
3 understood himself to be a part of this effort to force the BLM
4 to leave. You also have the video that he posted to his
5 Facebook page in which he celebrates the departure of the BLM
6 and in which he comments on that NHP officer on the bridge.

7 (Exhibit 119B played.)

8 MS. AHMED: We also have Defendant Drexler on the 9 bridge on April 12th. And as with Defendant Lovelien, I would 10 juxtapose his attire and his equipment at the rally on the 11 morning of April 12th, as you can see on the left of your 12 screen, where he appears to only have his T-shirt and no rifle,
13 with how he's attired and positioned at the BLM ICP, in the 14 image on the right, wearing a tactical vest and with his 15 assault rifle in the low ready in his hands.

16 And as with the other -- as you'll see with Defendant
17 Parker and with the other defendants, here you can see that 18 Defendant Drexler's intent is also evident, not just because 19 we're showing you pictures of him with a rifle, but what the 20 sequence of those pictures shows on at the ICP on April 12th.

21 Like Eric Parker, he continued to improve his firing
22 position while he was on that bridge. And as you're 23 deliberating, I ask that you would turn to Exhibit 182, which 24 is a time line that we put into this case, and see the 25 development of their positions and see for yourselves how they

Government's Closing Argument

1 improve upon their firing position. And here's just a small
2 sampling of that.

3 On the left, Exhibit 169D, you see Defendant Drexler
4 crouched behind the Jersey barrier overlooking the wash. Then
5 12:29, like Eric Parker, he goes over to the gap to Eric
6 Parker's right. And then at a later point than that -- the 7 time is cut off here, but you can see in Exhibit 182, he 8 acquires a blanket that stabilizes his position. All which -- 9 all of which aid him in improving his firing position and in 10 being able to threaten those officers with force.

11 You also have Defendant Drexler's words about his 12 intent on April 12, 2014. He posts on Facebook, in response to 13 a comment by another user, "Careful. Bridges are choke
14 points," in reference to the picture that he put as his profile
15 picture of himself on the bridge holding a rifle. And 16 Defendant Drexler's explanation back was, "That's why we use
17 them to shut down the highway" -- excuse me -- "the freeway,"
18 which is precisely what Cliven Bundy told him to do.

19 And in Exhibit 124, on April 15th, days after the 20 standoff, Defendant Drexler posts an article discussing how the 21 government released the cattle and the family was claiming a
22 victory. And Defendant Drexler adds the comment, "But it looks 23 like we may have to go back."

24 This wasn't an accident that he ended up on the 25 bridge in the position that he ended up. He intentionally put

Government's Closing Argument

1 himself there, and he was prepared to go back and make sure
2 that what they did on April 12th remained a success.

3 You also have Defendant Drexler's own testimony,
4 which you heard yourself yesterday. He came for a show of
5 force. He came with his firearm to impact the officer's
6 conduct. In his words, "To make them more civil." He brought 7 250 rounds of ammunition with him, and he told you that he went 8 prone with his rifle in the gap on the bridge so that the 9 officers would not see him as threat.

10 And what's implicit in that, is that he understood
11 perfectly well, that when he was on that bridge, attired the 12 way he was, moving the way he was, with the firearm that he 13 had, that those officers would see him, and based on their 14 training and experience, would know him for the threat that he 15 was.

16 He also told you that while he was at that gap, he
17 had a position of firing power over the officers the whole
18 time. And he also admitted that he previously said that when 19 the cows were released, he did what he had come to do. He had 20 achieved what he had come to do. Again, in his own words and 21 actions, you can see that the intent to threaten the officers
22 is clear.

23 And then you have Defendant Parker. As with the 24 other defendants, he comes to the bridge openly with his rifle,
25 in his tactical vest, and he's up, and he's down, up and down

Government's Closing Argument

1 over the course of the time that he's on that bridge. And you
2 have heard from the officers that they observed him doing
3 exactly that.

4 And like Defendant Drexler, in the course of that
5 time period that he's at the ICP, he continues to make
6 decisions to put himself in a position to harm those officers,
7 and he continues to improve that position over the course of
8 time.

9 Again, this is just a sampling of that. You saw him
10 come to the bridge. First he was crouching or kneeling, and 11 then he goes prone behind that gap. And then while he's prone,
12 you can see that he's overlooking the officers. And then to 13 help himself, he turns his hat backward, which you heard from 14 Agent Swanson he observed that the hat was now backwards and 15 understood that to be done so that he could see better. And he
16 also acquired a backpack, which Steven Stewart brought for him,
17 so that he could stabilize his firing position.

18 And ladies and gentlemen, I also submit that he 19 improved his ability to threaten those officers by asking
20 Steven Stewart to serve as his spotter, which I will get to in 21 the aiding and abetting section.

22 You also heard from our expert, Mr. Smith, with what 23 he observed from photographs of Eric Parker's position on the 24 bridge on April 12th. And looking at these two photographs, he 25 was able to see to determine, based on his experience and

Government's Closing Argument

1 expertise, that Defendant Parker's rifle was in -- the selector
2 switch was moved forward indicating it was in the firing
3 position. In other words, when he's in this position on the 4 bridge, all it takes is the pull of a trigger to fire on those
5 officers.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Misstates the witness's
7 testimony.

8 THE COURT: The jury's memory of the facts are what
9 they should use to make their determination.

10 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I proceed?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

13 Now, you also have Defendant Parker's words in many 14 Facebook posts, which you've seen, which you'll also be able to 15 review in the jury room.

16 And here are two posts that I highlight for you that 17 go to help you understand his intent on April 12th. The first 18 is a conversation he had with another individual on that day on 19 Facebook. That person asked before the standoff, "Feds got 20 scared when you got there and backed off?" And Eric Parker
21 responds, after the standoff, with a thumbs up, and then says
22 "It took a standoff."

23 And then looking at Exhibit 110, over a year and a
24 half later, about a year and half later, in talking about BLM
25 and forest service officers, a question posed to him about

Government's Closing Argument

1 them, Eric Parker says, "I reach out to as many of the LE
2 branches that I can, especially in my local area, shake their
3 hand, look them in the eye, let him know I don't want to kill
4 him. And I don't want him to kill me, hopefully -- and I don't
5 want him to kill me. Hopefully it will never have to get to 6 the point it did in Nevada ever again."

7 Ladies and gentlemen, I submit to you that
8 Exhibit 110, as with the other Facebook posts that we've put 9 into evidence in this case, clearly go to the intent that 10 Mr. Parker had on April 12th, when he was on the bridge, as he 11 himself references in this post talking about Nevada.

12 But you also have his words -- excuse me. You also 13 have his words that we put into evidence through Agent Seyler
14 from a previous hearing. And those also help you understand
15 that he intended to threaten those officers. He admitted that 16 he traveled to Bunkerville with Defendant Stewart and Defendant
17 Drexler, and that he took extra magazines and body armor. And 18 he brought the rifle that he brought, because "a Kalashnikov is 19 better in the dirt." And he took two extra magazines.

20 He stated he brought a firearm to match force with 21 the officers. He also stated he knew about the Court orders
22 before he went. He testified under oath that the morning of 23 April 12th, he attended a meeting with other leaders in where 24 the Arizona State Militia were present.

25 After that meeting, did he crowd control at the rally

Government's Closing Argument

1 and specifically was told to find someone with an earpiece if
2 he saw an issue.

3 He testified that when the sheriff gave his speech
4 that the BLM was going home, that the impoundment was over, he
5 thought he had come a long way for nothing. He also testified
6 at that previous hearing that Lovelien was his -- Defendant
7 Lovelien was there, his neighbor at the militia camp where he 8 camped, and that the other defendant rode over with him to the 9 ICP.

10 He also testified at that hearing that he had 11 30-round magazines for his rifle with him on the bridge and 12 plates in his tactical vest. And he also testified that 13 Defendant Stewart went back to get Parker's backpack and water.

14 Now -- I apologize. He continued to post on Facebook
15 about the April 12th events for quite some time, and these 16 comments also, again, go to his intent on April 12th.

17 Going from left to right, Exhibit 115, in February of 18 2016, he posted an image of the officers in the wash at the 19 ICP, and he wrote with the words on the image "The reason
20 Nevada went so well, the dicks were there when we got there."
21 And if it isn't abundantly clear who the dicks are, well, all
22 the officers have been circled and the word "dick" has been
23 written over them.

24 And users commented on his post. "Yes, always let 25 your opponent take the field first. That's one of the arts of

Government's Closing Argument

1 war." And Eric Parker responded, "Same idea. I just wrote
2 down a little different." Another user said, "I always thought
3 one would want to pick the ground they fight from." And Eric
4 Parker responds, "That's the hard part. Pick the battlefield,
5 but let them take it first."

6 And, of course, I know that you know, having sat in 7 this trial, that the BLM officers were there first. They were
8 at their ICP, which was their makeshift police station,
9 guarding their -- the civilians that worked there as well and 10 guarding the cattle. And Defendant Parker, Defendant Stewart,
11 Defendant Drexler, and Defendant Lovelien came to them.

12 Now, going to Exhibit 116, the middle image, again,
13 to Eric Parker, what happened on April 12, 2014, was not an
14 accident. He celebrated it for a long time to come. I mean,
15 there's T-shirts of his image from April 12th with the word
16 "Resist" superimposed or imposed behind that silhouette of him
17 pointing his rifle through the gap.

18 Finally, looking at Exhibit 101, he also shared a
19 photo of himself on the bridge on April 12th with the words
20 "You give peace a chance, and I'll cover you." There's no
21 mistake, there's no innocent reason for the position that he 22 took on April 12, 2014. He took it for the express purpose of 23 threatening those officers.

24 And again, not just in Facebook, but in an interview
25 from April 12th, 2014, he explains to you what he thought was

Government's Closing Argument

1 achieved when he was on the bridge on April 12, 2014. And here
2 it is in his own words.

3 (Exhibit 14 played.)

4 MS. AHMED: He says "Get on a bridge. Show 'em
5 force," and he encourages other people to do the same. Again,
6 ladies and gentlemen, I would submit that his intent, when he's 7 in that position, the various positions that he's in on
8 April 12th on the bridge are for the express purpose of showing
9 those officers force, threatening them, in other words, with 10 force.

11 Now, in sum, for these defendants' intent, as I've 12 said with all of these defendants and these slides, the 13 purpose, the intent is to threaten. How? Through a show of 14 force. Why? Because they know the officers will have to 15 choose. Either they stand their ground, risk a firefight, risk
16 unarmed people getting hurt, or surrender their ground, back
17 down, and give up the cattle.

18 And again, how do you know? Because of their words,
19 their attire, their positions, and their decisions. And you
20 heard from Defendant Drexler himself yesterday on the stand.

21 Now, you also have a jury instruction, Instruction
22 No. 10, that also explains what knowledge means, knowledge of 23 the act done, which goes to intent. And an act is done
24 knowingly if the defendant is aware of the act and does not act
25 through ignorance, mistake, or accident.

Government's Closing Argument

1 But one of the ways in which you can understand that
2 there was no mistake or action in ignorance or that this was an
3 accident is the evidence of their efforts to continue this,
4 what happened on April 12, 2014, or their efforts to do it
5 again.

6 Here you saw evidence that Defendants Parker and
7 Drexler participated in through their -- first joined the Idaho
8 3% militia group in Idaho, and then participated through their
9 membership in the 3% of Idaho in two additional operations,
10 Operation Gold Rush at the Sugar Pine Mine, which is depicted 11 in Exhibit 45A. And you can see Defendant Parker with his 12 assault rifle aloft.

13 And Operation Big Sky, which took place in Montana in 14 August of 2015, which is depicted on the top image on the 15 right-hand side where you see Defendant Drexler and Defendant
16 Parker both with their assault rifles and tactical gear.

17 And then you also see the image at the bottom of 18 Defendant Parker and Defendant Stewart conducting tactical
19 training in a field wearing what appear to be Idaho 3%
20 T-shirts. And all of these, as you all know, came from the 21 "Idaho 3%, an Overview" training video. Or, excuse me,
22 recruiting video.

23 The point is, is that as Agent Draper explained, that
24 these operations were done to show force to public lands
25 agencies, to BLM officers, to forest service officers who are

Government's Closing Argument

1 trying to do their job and enforce those regulations. And they
2 show them force to make them stand down and stop what they are
3 doing just as they did on April 12, 2014.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I'm going to object. Once
5 again, it mischaracterizes the testimony.

6 THE COURT: The closing arguments are for arguments.
7 It's not evidence, and the jury and their memory is what they 8 should use and rely upon in determining what the facts were as 9 they find them.

10 MS. AHMED: And you also saw posts, Facebook posts
11 posted by these defendants where they continued to look for 12 other endeavors, similar endeavors. Defendant Drexler posted
13 to Facebook in December of 2014 about Utah, the state, planning
14 on taking land back from the federal government. And Defendant
15 Drexler wrote, "Looks like New Year's will be about time to go,
16 Eric," tagging Eric Parker.

17 Eric Parker and the Steven Stewart both respond. And 18 Mr. Stewart says, "Don't be trying to go without me." And 19 Mr. Parker responds, "Wouldn't dream of it."

20 And you also saw evidence of what exactly happened at 21 White Hope Mine when Defendant Drexler and Defendant Parker
22 went there in a brief video clip that depicted them on the 23 scene in Montana.

24 (Unidentified video exhibit played.)

25 MS. AHMED: And ladies and gentlemen, you know that

Government's Closing Argument

1 what they did on April 12th was intentional, because the
2 evidence is that it's a part of their movement. Defendant
3 Lovelien, in a message to the OMA co-founder Jerry Bruckhart,
4 said, days after the April 12th standoff, "Hi, Jerry. I would
5 like to talk to you about taking a more active role in the 6 OMA," and he shared his phone number.

7 And I commend to your attention the mission statement
8 of OMA, which we've put into evidence, as well as other posts
9 about what OMA was about. And, of course, you know what OMA
10 achieved in April 12th of 2014. And so far from backing off of 11 what had happened in April of 2014, Defendant Lovelien wanted a
12 bigger piece of it.

13 Similarly, Eric Parker posted, in December of 2015,
14 about one of the April 12th participants, one of his
15 coconspirators, Schuyler Barbeau. He said that the FBI and US
16 Marshals had kidnapped him. And describing Mr. Barbeau,
17 Defendant Parker said, "He helped stand down the BLM at the 18 Bundy Ranch, the BLM at the mine in Oregon, the USFS at the 19 mine in Montana," all of which are operations that Defendant
20 Parker participated in.

21 Now, in sum, looking at the instructions that you
22 have been given about the intent and knowledge, looking at the 23 evidence that we've submitted to you those points, I would 24 submit to you all that the intention of these four defendants
25 is clear; that they intended to convey a threat to the

Government's Closing Argument

1 officers, to -- a threat that they would physically harm them
2 imminently.

3 So, turning to Count Five, Assault with a Deadly or 4 Dangerous Weapon. Here the elements require that the defendant
5 was forcibly assaulted -- excuse me -- that defendant forcibly
6 assaulted a federal officer or employee.

7 Second, that the defendant did so while the federal
8 officer or employee as engaged in or on account of his or her
9 official duties.

10 Third, that the defendant used a deadly or dangerous
11 weapon.

12 And the jury instruction explains that there's a
13 forcible assault when one person intentionally threatens 14 another coupled with an apparent ability to inflict injury on 15 another, which causes a reasonable apprehension of immediate 16 bodily harm.

17 Well, again, ladies and gentlemen, I would submit
18 that the evidence is clear as to the threat. And so I would 19 also submit that the next instruction, continuing off of the 20 assault instruction, a firearm, loaded or unloaded, is a
21 dangerous weapon. Federal officers acting in the good faith
22 performance of their duties may not be forcibly resisted by 23 another.

24 Again, the law has been given to you, and your role
25 as jurors is to look at the evidence and understand if a crime

Government's Closing Argument

1 has been committed. So, in these parameters, within the
2 parameters of the law that I have just read and which Her Honor
3 had already read to you, and which you will have during your 4 deliberations, I would submit that the evidence is clear as to 5 the threat.

6 The evidence is also clear that the officers observed
7 the defendants, which is necessary for an assault. Unlike a
8 threat where the threat does not have to be conveyed directly
9 to the victim, here, with an assault, it does need to be
10 conveyed to the defendants -- excuse me -- to the victims.

11 So, again, Exhibit 156 was Ranger Burke's photograph
12 that she took of Defendant Lovelien. She described what she 13 saw him doing, which included pointing a weapon. You can also 14 see, from Exhibit 32A, which there's a screenshot on the right,
15 that he's clearly visible with his tactical gear, his 16 camouflage clothing, and his firearm from waist up above the
17 barrier.

18 You can also see, from these photographs, that
19 Defendant Stewart, and from the others that we have shown you
20 before, was also visible to the officers in the wash at times
21 as was Eric Parker, even when he was kneeling, as was Defendant
22 Drexler.

23 And again, looking at the other individuals in this 24 video, both in the wash and behind these defendants, and 25 matching them up with the photographs that have been put into

Government's Closing Argument

1 evidence, you can see that this -- at this point, what's
2 depicted in Exhibit 166C is happening while the officers are in 3 the wash. And this is what the officers could see, and this is 4 what they testified to in terms of how the defendants appeared
5 to them; how the defendants presented themselves to them.

6 Go ahead and play.

7 (Exhibit 166C played.)

8 MS. AHMED: Men, wearing tactical vests, holding 9 firearms slung in front in the low ready, in a tactically
10 superior position over the officers.

11 You heard from Ranger Burke, Officer Cox, Special
12 Agent Swanson, and Ranger Whitteaker. You heard from these 13 witnesses that Ranger Burke saw Defendant Lovelien pointing his 14 firearm, special Agent Swanson saw Defendant Parker pointing
15 his firearm, Ranger Whitteaker saw defendants Drexler and 16 Stewart pointing their firearms.

17 And again, the pointing goes to their intent. It's 18 evidence of the assault, but it's not something that you must 19 conclude that happened in order to find them guilty of the 20 assault.

21 Now, lastly, I put reasonable officer under those 22 circumstances, because you heard from these officers. They 23 were consistent. They were credible. They are corroborated by 24 what you see from the footage that you have on the screen,
25 but --

Government's Closing Argument

1 MR. MARCHESE: Object. Bolstering.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

4 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

5 THE COURT: Again, this is closing arguments, and 6 that's the purpose of the closing arguments is for the 7 attorneys to tell the jury how they believe that the testimony
8 that's been presented should be viewed and interpreted.

9 You may continue, Miss Ahmed.

10 MS. AHMED: But your duty is not necessarily to 11 decide that, yes, Ranger Burke was afraid for her life; or,
12 yes, Officer -- Special Agent Swanson was afraid for his life,
13 although they told you that they were based on what they saw
14 these defendants doing.

15 The question that you must decide, in your 16 deliberations, is whether a reasonable officer, under those 17 circumstances, would have been afraid, placed in immediate 18 apprehension for their physical safety, given the conduct of 19 these defendants. And I submit that the answer is yes.

20 Now, Count Twelve, Obstruction of the Due
21 Administration of Justice.

22 First, the defendant influenced, obstructed, or
23 impeded, or tried to influence, obstruct, or impede the due
24 administration of justice.

25 Second, the defendant acted corruptly or by threats

Government's Closing Argument

1 of force -- threats or force. Excuse me. Or by any
2 threatening communication with the intent to obstruct justice.

3 Now, I would submit that having established the 4 threat, that it is clear also, from the evidence in this case,
5 first, that here you have Court orders. The impoundment thus 6 is done pursuant to the Court orders, and the Court orders are
7 the due administration of justice. So, that's how the Court
8 orders play into Count Twelve.

9 Here you have the defendants using threat of force in 10 order to obstruct and prevent and stop the officers from 11 keeping the impounded cattle -- excuse me -- and thereby
12 enforcing the Court orders. And you also have evidence that 13 the defendants knew or reasonably should have known of those
14 Court orders.

15 In Exhibit 121, just a couple of days or a few days
16 after the April 12th event, Defendant Stewart shared a post on 17 his Facebook page about Judge George, the July 2013 -- the 18 author of the July 2013 order.

19 There's also evidence in the case that the BLM
20 announced that there were Court orders repeatedly as they asked
21 the crowd to disburse and move back, and that others on the 22 bridge could hear these announcements. And, again, you have 23 Eric Parker's testimony from a previous hearing that he could 24 hear the announcement saying there were Court orders, and he
25 knew of the Court order before he came to Nevada.

Government's Closing Argument

1 And here is one video, which is in evidence,
2 Exhibit 9A, where you can hear Court orders, and that you can
3 see that other individuals on the bridge could also hear Court
4 orders.

5 Sorry. What did I do? Did I do that?

6 Exhibit -- slide 64. Excuse me.

7 (Exhibit 9A played.)

8 MS. AHMED: And, of course, you can see that Eric
9 Parker was walking behind that individual on the bridge just as
10 he was screaming "Your Court orders don't apply."

11 Now, Count Fourteen charges the Hobbs Act, Extortion,
12 in which we must prove that, first, the defendant induced
13 someone to part with property, by the wrongful use of actual or 14 threatened force, which again here we have threatened force,
15 violence or fear.

16 Second, the defendant acted with the intent to obtain
17 property.

18 And third, commerce from one state to another was 19 affected in some way. And the defendant's claim of right to 20 the property is not a defense.

21 Well, these defendants, there's -- knew that this was 22 cattle that had been impounded by the federal government. And 23 you've heard testimony that it was thus property of the United 24 States Government.

25 And you also have seen evidence that they were there

Government's Closing Argument

1 to help the Bundys get the cattle back, to thus extort the
2 federal officers who were protecting those cattle, pursuant to
3 the Court order, to extort them into giving up that cattle.

4 Exhibit 85, on the top left, is a post from Ricky
5 Lovelien to another Facebook user where the user asks, "What ya
6 been doing?" And Defendant Lovelien responds, "Chasing off
7 federal agents in Nevada." And he shares a photograph of a
8 federal officer standing next to a cattle trailer.

9 Exhibit 93, Eric Parker's Facebook page, when the 10 cows are released on April 12, 2014. "We have cows, happy
11 cows, free cows, American cows raised in an open range not a 12 cage," celebrating the release of the cattle.

13 Exhibit 120, Steven Stewart's Facebook where he's 14 talking to other people on Facebook and says, "Guys, I only
15 went for the weekend. We helped Cliven Bundy get his cattle 16 back. Straight there. Straight back. Two hours of sleep in 17 between."

18 And then you have Exhibit 124, Defendant Drexler's
19 Facebook post, where again, he's sharing that article talking
20 about how the federal government released the cattle after a
21 standoff with hundreds of armed protesters. And he says, "But 22 it looks like we may have to go back."

23 So, these defendants knew that the cattle were in the 24 custody of the federal officers, and their goal was to show
25 threatened force so that the officers would be extorted into

Government's Closing Argument

1 giving up the cattle.

2 And you also heard, of course, testimony from
3 Mr. Warr, again, that these cattle were to be transported to 4 California for sale after their impoundment. And in extorting
5 these officers, they thus interfered in that interstate sale.

6 And then you have Count Sixteen, which is interstate
7 travel in aid of extortion. First, the defendant traveled in 8 interstate -- interstate commerce or used a facility in 9 interstate commerce -- here, namely, the Internet -- with the 10 intent to commit a crime of violence in furtherance of an 11 unlawful activity, namely, extortion, in violation of Nevada
12 law.

13 Second, after doing so, the defendant committed or 14 attempted to commit the violent crime in furtherance of the 15 unlawful activity.

16 Well, here there's evidence that all four of these 17 defendants traveled from other states to Nevada, that they
18 brought with them firearms, and that Defendant Lovelien,
19 Defendant Parker, Defendant Drexler brought with them tactical 20 vests. And that they did so in order to threaten force and 21 then with the express purpose of extorting the officers for the 22 cattle.

23 You also have evidence that Eric Parker and Ricky
24 Lovelien used the Internet, namely Facebook and social media
25 and email, to correspond and communicate with others to connect

Government's Closing Argument

1 with militia, to recruit people in order to further this
2 extortion.

3 Now, you also have Six, Nine and Fifteen, which all
4 charge using, carrying, and brandishing a firearm during and in
5 relation to a crime of violence. And, of course, Her Honor has 6 read the instruction to you which explains what these various 7 terms mean.

8 Here, again, I would just emphasize that if you find
9 them guilty of the preceding count, then when you come to this 10 question, it isn't necessary for you to find that they pointed 11 their firearm at federal officers; but that they pointed -- the 12 evidence that they pointed at the officers goes to proving up
13 that, yes, they used, they carried, and they brandished
14 firearms during and in relation to a crime of violence. And 15 almost every picture you've seen of the defendants at the ICP
16 on April 12, 2014, shows them doing exactly that.

17 Now, we talked about how the defendants did it. They 18 themselves did it. But they are also guilty, because they 19 helped each other do it. Under Instruction 21, which is aiding
20 and abetting.

21 First to prove aiding and abetting, the crime was 22 committed by someone.

23 Second, the defendant aided, counseled, commanded,
24 induced, procured that person with respect to at least one
25 element of the crime.

Government's Closing Argument

1 Third, the defendant acted with the intent to
2 facilitate the crime.

3 And fourth, the defendant acted before the crime was
4 completed.

5 Now, here there are various ways in which the 6 evidence shows that these defendants aided and abetted each
7 other. Defendant Lovelien acted as the equivalent of a getaway
8 driver, so to speak. Here he took them to the crime. No
9 different than the driver in a bank robbery. He takes them to 10 where they commit their crime.

11 There's also evidence that the Defendant Lovelien
12 acted as a lookout. Evidence suggests that he sat on those NHP
13 officers, that he maintained a presence near them, and that by 14 doing so, he distracted the officers from going further down
15 the bridge and seeing what Defendants Drexler and Parker and 16 Stewart were doing.

17 You can see from the left, Exhibit 32A, that at 18 12:21, he comes straight to those officers to the east of the 19 bridge -- excuse me -- to the west of the bridge. And that at 20 12:21, Defendant Parker is prone and Defendant Drexler is 21 crouched behind the Jersey barrier on the bridge.

22 You can see from this next slide, Exhibit 17, this
23 arrow -- aerial, that Defendant Lovelien kept the NHP officers
24 further away from the bridge at 12:31. He's there with them
25 away from the bridge. And at 12:30 -- excuse me -- at 12:29,

Government's Closing Argument

1 it's the same, and he's watching those officers, as you can see
2 from his body language. And while he's doing so, Defendant
3 Drexler and Defendant Parker are prone on the bridge.

4 You also have evidence of Steven Stewart's guilt by
5 aiding and abetting, and that Stewart acted as Defendant
6 Parker's spotter at some point on April 12.

7 Exhibit 50, you see Defendant Parker prone with his 8 rifle through the gap, and then you see Defendant Stewart to 9 his right. Well, you also have their statements where 10 Defendant Parker posted on Facebook "That's what I kept saying
11 when people are calling me the Bundy sniper. My buddy, Steven 12 Stewart, had to relate to me what was going on through 13 binoculars. Not much good at that distance with open sights.
14 Now, Steven, he's got balls, head up above the concrete,
15 telling me exactly what they were doing after the snipers had 16 been greenlighted."

17 Steven Stewart also said, "It's been a long day.
18 What's up? Why I have a little earlier with a really
19 high-powered scope. Show me. Awesome."

20 Exhibit 32A, you have Steven Stewart acting as 21 Defendant Parker and Drexler's runner. You see from 32A, the 22 video, Steven Stewart dash across the highway away from the NHP
23 officers.

24 Then you see in Exhibit 143, that he's now provided
25 Defendant Parker with a backpack. Again, to help secure his

Government's Closing Argument

1 position, to help him being more comfortable on that bridge,
2 the middle of the day on April 12th, to help him focus and aim
3 in on those officers. And in looking at Exhibit 32A, when you
4 watch that portion at 12:19 and you see the way Steven Stewart
5 avoids NHP officers, I would submit that's consciousness of 6 guilt that he avoids those officers.

7 Defendant Stewart, in procuring the backpack, also
8 provides Defendant Drexler with the red blanket. You can 9 adduce from the evidence and in doing so, again, helps
10 facilitate Defendant Drexler's firing position.

11 Now, you also have Defendant Parker and Drexler
12 coordinating cover, and improving each other's positions, and 13 the effect that they have on the bridge. You heard again from 14 the officers that they were going up and down. Defendant
15 Drexler's up when Defendant Parker's down. And then Defendant
16 Parker shows Defendant Drexler that, in fact, he should get his
17 own gap, and improve his cover, and also help improve Defendant
18 Parker's firing range, the effect that both of them have 19 together.

20 The gunmen on the bridge also aid and abet Bundy. By 21 being on the bridge in the position that they are in, they help
22 Bundy facilitate obtaining his cattle, because they distract
23 the officers from what's in front of them in the wash.

24 You also know that there's evidence that the gunmen
25 on the bridge helped Bundy, because they do exactly what he

Government's Closing Argument

1 said to do. Again, coconspirator Todd Engel posts on Facebook,
2 after Cliven Bundy gives his speech, that he's headed out to
3 block the freeway and take back the cows. He also says,
4 "Leaving out to shut the freeway down by force of arms."

5 That bottom post, by Defendant Parker, says, "Bundy
6 gave the sheriff one hour to disarm the BLM. He did not reply.
7 We are now going to free the cattle by any means. The sheriff
8 claimed that the BLM is standing down but offered no proof.
9 This is when Mr. Bundy gave him the do it or else. We will not 10 be lied to. We will not be lied to."

11 And then, of course, you have Defendant Drexler again
12 saying "That's why we used the freeway" -- excuse me -- "the 13 bridge to shut down the freeway." Again, they are doing what 14 Defendant Bundy -- excuse me -- what Cliven Bundy asked him to 15 do. And in doing so, they are aiding and abetting him in 16 getting his cattle.

17 Now, you also have, of course, the third way in which 18 you can find them guilty, which is that they agreed to do these 19 offenses with others.

20 So, Count One, conspiracy to commit an offense, and 21 you can see that there's all the enumerated offenses that have 22 been charged; the assault, the threat, the use and carry of a
23 firearm in relation to a crime of violence, obstruction of the 24 due administration of justice, interference with interstate 25 commerce by extortion, and interstate travel in aid of

Government's Closing Argument

1 extortion. So, the question is, did they agree to do this?

2 You also have Count Two, conspiracy to impede or
3 injure a federal officer. First, beginning on or about
4 March 28th and ending on or about March 22nd -- excuse me --
5 March 2nd, 2016, there's an agreement between two or more
6 persons to do one of the following: To prevent by force,
7 intimidation, or threats federal law enforcement officers from 8 discharging the duties of their office under the United States.

9 Or, 2, to induce by force, intimidation, or threats,
10 any federal law enforcement officer of the United States to 11 leave the place where their duties were required to be 12 performed.

13 And then second, the defendant became a member of the 14 conspiracy knowing of at least one of its objects and intending
15 to help accomplish it.

16 So, in Count One, you need to find that they joined 17 the conspiracy with at least one of the objects that's 18 identified. And we'll go over the verdict form where you have 19 to identify which object they agreed to.

20 In Count Two, you don't have to prove that one of the 21 members of the conspiracy performed an overt act, but you do
22 have to agree as to which of these two objects they agreed to.

23 Well here, we would submit that the evidence shows
24 that these defendants agreed to this conspiracy for both; to 25 prevent by force, intimidation, or threats the officers from

Government's Closing Argument

1 discharging their duties. That is protecting the impounded
2 cattle. And also by using that same threats and force,
3 intimidation to force the officers to leave the place where
4 their duties were required to be performed.

5 Now, here the evidence of the conspiracy is
6 substantial. Again, Ryan Payne offered and explained the 7 services of OMA to Cliven Bundy. He arrives, and he becomes
8 the militia coordinator for the Bundy family. That's
9 Exhibit 53.

10 On Facebook, the Bundys announce that they are -- the 11 Operation Mutual Aid coordinator is here with us now, and then
12 they ask help from militia groups, including OMA, 3%ers,
13 Freedom Fighters, and others.

14 And what is the agreement? Well, we don't have to 15 prove that -- we don't have to present in evidence, for you to 16 find that there was an agreement, any written document. But 17 here there is a written document demonstrating the agreement,
18 which are the objectives circulated by Operation Mutual Aid.

19 They sent an email, which you can see to left, goes
20 to Captain Rick Lovelien. And then that email -- those 21 objectives are then circulated by Defendant Lovelien's sister
22 to the Montana State Defense Force Group. And those objectives
23 are: Secure the Bundy family from government incursion, which 24 includes protection of all personnel -- personnel responding in 25 support of the Bundys, i.e., protesters, extended family, and

Government's Closing Argument

1 friends.

2 Two, return the confiscated Clark County Nevada
3 property currently blocked by federal personnel to its rightful
4 stewards, the people of Clark County Nevada.

5 Three, to secure and return to Mr. Bundy's ranch the 6 mounting number of cattle which have been confiscated by BLM
7 agents or private contractors. These objectives are in 8 cohesion with Cliven Bundy and the Bundy Ranch.

9 Now, how will they achieve these objectives? We know
10 from the evidence of Defendant Parker -- excuse me -- Ryan
11 Payne's messages, that have been put into evidence, that he 12 intends this to be achieved through violence.

13 Now, Exhibit 56, through an exchange with other
14 Facebook user -- another Facebook user, that user says, "How 15 much ammo will be needed?" And Ryan Payne says, "Can go with 16 two mags of 30 rounds. Bring what's needed to play.
17 Possibility of extended operations depending on aggression of 18 the other side."

19 And, of course, you know from the testimony that was 20 read into the record, that Defendant Parker did, in fact, bring 21 two mags of 30 rounds.

22 And in Exhibit 57, again, you see that they are 23 recruiting specific kinds of people; militia. They need
24 militia. They have protesters, but they need militia. And 25 Cliven Bundy says -- the person says, "What -- what the updated

Government's Closing Argument

1 with the ranch? What's the update?" And Ryan Payne says,
2 "Needed every man willing at the request of Cliven Bundy. I am
3 on the ground. Have the family secured. Campsite secured on 4 private property. There's a patriot checkpoint to receive
5 direction." All consistent with the evidence you've heard
6 about what these defendants do, Parker, Drexler, and Stewart,
7 when they come. They check in at the patriot checkpoint, and 8 then they camp at the militia camps.

9 And finally, in that conversation, Ryan Payne says,
10 on the April 9th, "No militia yet. Protesters and close
11 friends and family. Many are in the process of mobilizing."

12 The point here is that there's two groups. There's 13 protesters, and there's militia. And they recognize it, and 14 the evidence shows it that this conspiracy depends on the 15 presence of both of those groups on April 12, 2014, at the ICP,
16 because the officers are prevented from taking action as to the 17 militia were showing force because of the presence of the 18 protesters. And the militia, thus, can capitalize on those 19 protesters in taking those tactical positions unchecked.

20 Now, we previously put into evidence Exhibit 189,
21 which walks through all of the exhibits, Facebook, and phone,
22 and some other exhibits to show you how this conspiracy comes
23 together over the course of April 7th to April 12th.

24 So you see on April 7th, the Parker, Stewart, Drexler
25 in Idaho. Lovelien, Payne in Montana. Cliven Bundy in Nevada.

Government's Closing Argument

1 Now, the conspiracy begins, at least in terms of the
2 evidence that we have on this page. At 9:17 a.m., Ryan Payne
3 calls Cliven Bundy's home phone. And the phone records can be
4 found in Exhibit 185 for Payne and Bundy. 9:30, Ryan Payne
5 calls Cliven Bundy's cell phone. 12:11, Ryan Payne calls
6 Cliven Bundy's cell phone again. 12:15, Payne messages Rick
7 Lovelien to call him. 12:16, Defendant Lovelien calls Ryan
8 Payne.

9 12:30, on Facebook, Lovelien tells militia leaders
10 "Contact info to coordinate groups, Ryan Payne OMA." And he 11 provides Payne's phone number and then says, "They have made
12 live contact. Are setting up security ops."

13 8:50 p.m., Payne calls Cliven Bundy's cell phone.
14 9:57 p.m., on Facebook, Jerry Bruckhart co-founder of OMA
15 messages Carol Bundy that significant units will likely be 16 coming. And at 4:30 p.m., earlier that day, Lovelien had 17 communicated with Randy Eaton, Montana State Defense Force,
18 that he had been in contact with Ryan Payne re this --
19 regarding this operation.

20 Now, on April 8th, 2014, you see that Ryan Payne is 21 now moving toward Nevada. At 10:12 a.m., Facebook user James
22 Lardy messages Ricky Lovelien. He says he's going to Nevada
23 with Ryan Payne's West Mountain Rangers. He says, "Going to 24 fight with them and is off to war."

25 At 10:28 a.m., Rick Lovelien calls Ryan Payne. At

Government's Closing Argument

1 10:40 a.m., on Facebook, Lovelien messages Ryan Payne, "Do we
2 have an exact location?" At 10:43 a.m., Ryan Payne calls
3 Cliven Bundy's cell phone. At 10:53 a.m., on Facebook,
4 Lovelien messages James Lardy. "We are coordinating our
5 efforts to get all units together when they get there."

6 And although I'm not saying them, you can see each of 7 these is from a specific exhibit, and the exhibit is identified
8 on the screen.

9 At 11:22 a.m., on Facebook, Ryan Payne messages
10 Lovelien the coordinates for the Bundy Ranch. At 2:01 p.m., 11 Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone. At 2:26, Ryan
12 Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone again. At 8:37 p.m., OMA
13 emails mobilization alert to over 200 supporters providing 14 directions to the Bundy Ranch, and that email goes to Cheyenne 15 Miller, Ricky Lovelien's sister.

16 At 7:22 p.m., Eric Parker posts a link to the Nevada
17 militia page stating, "What are you going to do when the 18 shooting starts?" At 11:20 p.m., Payne tells another Facebook
19 user that he just got off the phone with Cliven. Cliven knows
20 we're coming. OMA is moving.

21 On April 9th, you see at 6:17 a.m., that Ryan Payne
22 calls Cliven Bundy's home phone. At 11:08 a.m., on Facebook,
23 Rick Lovelien searches for and liked Operation Mutual Aid's
24 Facebook page. And if you go to Exhibit 64 and Exhibit 65,
25 you'll see where he's liked that page. And then going to

Government's Closing Argument

1 Exhibit 65, you can see what it is he would have seen on
2 Facebook of the Operation Mutual Aid page, including their
3 mission statement.

4 At 11:59 a.m., on Facebook, Payne messages Lovelien
5 to, "Give me a ring ASAP." At 11:59 a.m., Ricky Lovelien calls
6 Ryan Payne. At 12:18 p.m., on Facebook, Lovelien posts to MTFD
7 group, "We are now in direct contact with personnel at the 8 Bundy Ranch. I will be heading out shortly. There was a
9 direct request made by Mr. Bundy."

10 At 12:33 p.m., on Facebook, Carol Bundy issues public
11 status update. "The Bundy family has requested help from 12 militia groups, including Operation Mutual Aid, 3%ers Club, and 13 Freedom Fighters." At 12:34 p.m., on Facebook, Carol Bundy
14 issues a public status update. "The Operation Mutual Aid
15 coordinator is here with us now."

16 At 12:36 p.m., on Facebook, Lovelien messages Nic
17 Whiting to coordinate his travel down to Nevada. Late in the 18 afternoon on April 9th, the Las Vegas Review Journal releases
19 an article and a video interview of Ryan Payne. "Militias
20 Mobilizing to Support Embattled Clark County Rancher in Clash
21 with Federal Rangers." And that video is Exhibit 37.

22 At 7:30 p.m., Lovelien calls Nic Whiting from a
23 Missoula cell tower. You can see that Defendant Lovelien is on 24 the move from Montana to Nevada.

25 Now, earlier that day, at 1:53 p.m., Eric Parker

Government's Closing Argument

1 posts on Facebook, "Does anyone know anybody in the Nevada
2 militia?"

3 Now, an April 10th, Ryan Payne and Rick Lovelien are
4 now both in Montana -- excuse me -- both in Nevada with Cliven
5 Bundy. Defendants Parker, Stewart, and Drexler are still in 6 Idaho. But at 1:55 a.m., OMA issues its objectives, which we 7 just saw. And he -- and the email reflects that those 8 objectives, again, are in cohesion with Cliven Bundy and that
9 they include the return to Mr. Bundy's ranch the mounting
10 number of cattle which have been confiscated by BLM agents.
11 Again, that's the agreement.

12 At 2:02 a.m., on Facebook, Rick Lovelien's sister,
13 Cheyenne Miller, posts the OMA objectives to the MTF group, and 14 we see that in Ryan Payne's email.

15 At 9:31 a.m., on Facebook, Eric Parker shares a
16 public link to the Las Vegas Review Journal article and the 17 video -- the link that takes you to that video of Ryan Payne
18 entitled "Militias Mobilizing to Support embattled Clark County
19 rancher in Clash with Federal Rangers."

20 At 9:48 a.m., now in Nevada, Ricky Lovelien calls
21 Ryan Payne. At 11:00 a.m., on Facebook, Cheyenne Miller posts
22 to MTF group Rick Lovelien as, "On-site at the Bundy Ranch."
23 At 12:24, on Facebook, Ryan Payne messages Texas militia
24 leader. "Montana has the most guys. Utah, Nevada unorganized.
25 Idaho. Many more en route. I'm designated liaison for militia

Government's Closing Argument

1 via Cliven Bundy. All information disseminated is vetted by
2 him."

3 At approximately 3:30 p.m., the Bundy Ranch Facebook
4 posts, "Attention all militia groups. The Bundy family has a
5 militia coordinator. His name is Ryan Payne."

6 And this is Exhibit 37, that video that was shared --
7 the video that was linked to that Las Vegas Review Journal
8 article, the link to which Defendant Parker posted on his
9 Facebook page.

10 (Exhibit 37 played.)

11 MS. AHMED: Now, April 11, 2014, 10:22 a.m., on 12 Facebook, Defendant Lovelien's sister, Cheyenne Miller, tells 13 the MTRDF group, "Ricky Lovelien is running the security detail
14 at the protest site on the Bundy Ranch."

15 At 6:38 p.m., Mountain Time, on Facebook, Defendant
16 Parker publicly shares the article, "Armed Militias Head to 17 Nevada Ranch as Populous Showdown with Federal Government
18 Tears -- Teeters on the Brink of Violent -- Violence,
19 Bloodshed."

20 At 7:30 p.m., approximately, on Facebook, We Support
21 Cliven Bundy page posts "Bundy's cattle will be taken to Euclid
22 Stockyards," and gives contact phone number for that stockyard.

23 At 7:36 p.m., Eric Parker makes a telephone call to 24 the Euclid Stockyards. And his telephone, from the phone
25 records, which can be found at Exhibit 184, page 13, are using

Government's Closing Argument

1 a Nevada cell tower. And as you can see, Eric Parker, Steven
2 Stewart, and Scott Drexler are now on their way from Idaho to
3 Nevada.

4 Now, that night, either 8:30 or 9:30 -- 8:30 that
5 night probably -- or, excuse me -- approximately, Eric Parker
6 sends message to the "Support Cliven Bundy Facebook page"
7 stating, "We are going to be showing up tonight. Is that okay?
8 At around 11:30 p.m." Excuse me. "At around 11:30." And, of 9 course, you know from the evidence that Eric Parker does travel
10 with Scott Drexler and Steven Stewart to Bunkerville, Nevada.

11 April 12th, Cliven Bundy is now joined in Nevada by 12 Ryan Payne, Ricky Lovelien, Eric Parker, Steven Stewart, and 13 Scott Drexler. At 7:32 a.m., on April 12th, Ryan Payne calls
14 Cliven Bundy's home telephone. At 9:40 a.m., approximately,
15 Cliven Bundy meets Sheriff Gillespie on the stage and tells him
16 to disarm federal agents at the compounds in one hour.

17 At approximately 11:00 a.m., Cliven Bundy speaks to 18 the crowd, including defendants -- including Ryan Payne, who
19 was on stage with him, and Defendants Lovelien, Parker, Stewart
20 and Drexler, about shutting down the freeway and going to get
21 the cattle.

22 At 11:24 a.m., on Facebook, Eric Parker posts the 23 status update. "Bundy gave the sheriff one hour to disarm the 24 BLM. He did not reply. We are now going to free the cattle by 25 any means. The sheriff claimed the BLM is standing down but

Government's Closing Argument

1 offered no proof. This is when Mr. Bundy gave him the 'do it
2 or else.' We will not be lied to."

3 At 12:58 p.m., on Facebook, Steven Stewart posts a
4 status update. "It's been a really long day. What's up? Why
5 I have a little earlier with a really high-powered scope. Show
6 me F... awesome."

7 At 1:02 p.m., on Facebook, Steven Stewart posts a
8 status update. "First they said they were going to release
9 everything and leave. Then they held the gates to Gold Butte
10 and threatened us with chemicals. Then we pushed forward, and 11 they had to back up. They are releasing the cows now. BLM is 12 leaving."

13 At 2:59 p.m., on Facebook, Eric Parker posts status
14 update. "We have cows, happy cows, free cows, American cows
15 raised in an open range not a cage." At 4:07 p.m., Eric Parker
16 sends the Facebook message, "It took a stat off -- standoff," 17 after being asked if the feds got scared when he got there and 18 backed off.

19 On April 17th, 2014, Scott Drexler's posts a message
20 on Facebook regarding a picture of him on the bridge on 21 April 12, 2014. And in a response to a comment that bridges
22 are choke points, he responds, "That's why we use them to shut
23 down the freeway."

24 You can see through the interaction of these Facebook
25 posts and phone calls and -- excuse me -- Facebook posts, and

Government's Closing Argument

1 phone records, and the events that happen on April 12
2 themselves, how these defendants are tied in to each other, and
3 how they are tied in to Cliven Bundy and Ryan Payne in this
4 conspiracy.

5 And then you know again from the evidence in this
6 case, that on 4/12 of '14 -- excuse me -- on April 12, 2014,
7 they go to the staging area rally. Parker attends and meets --
8 attends a meeting and meets members of Arizona State Militia,
9 who are then in front of the stage when Cliven Bundy is giving
10 his speech. We know also that Defendant Lovelien drives the 11 other three defendants to that rally from the militia camp.

12 We know at the rally, that Defendant Lovelien, who,
13 according to his sister's posts, is doing the -- heading the 14 security at the staging area. He appears to continue to do
15 security and is pictured with an earpiece in his ear.
16 Defendant Parker is also doing security or crowd control, per
17 his previous testimony.

18 You also know, from both Parker and Drexler -- or,
19 excuse me -- from Defendant Drexler's testimony, that the 20 defendants left their firearms in Defendant Lovelien's truck.

21 Again, from the videos here this is a screenshot from 22 Exhibit 6A. You can see that those same people, that were at 23 the meeting in the morning, the Arizona State Militia, that 24 Eric Parker met, are now lined up in front of the stage where 25 Cliven Bundy is speaking.

Government's Closing Argument

1 Again, you know what he says in his speech. And 2 after he gives that speech, Todd Engel posts this post that
3 you've already seen at Exhibit 122. "Headed out to block
4 freeway and take cows back." He also posts, in that same
5 exhibit, shortly thereafter, "Leaving now to shut the freeway
6 down by force of arms."

7 And again, consistent with Cliven Bundy's speech and 8 with these posts made by Todd Engel, Eric Parker -- this is his 9 post at Exhibit 93 -- says, "Bundy gave the sheriff one hour to 10 disarm the BLM. He did not reply. We are now going to free
11 the cattle by any means. The sheriff claimed that the BLM is 12 standing down but offered no proof. This is when Mr. Bundy
13 gave him the 'do it or else.' We will not be lied to."

14 You've seen, in Exhibit 182, as well as in 15 Exhibit 31A, the screenshot of Defendant Lovelien's truck in 16 which Steven Stewart is in the back heading to the BLM
17 impoundment. And you've seen, again in Exhibit 182, the 18 screenshot taken from Exhibit 8 of that same Todd Engel who 19 posted to those messages on Facebook "Arrives at the ICP," with 20 his tactical vest, his assault rifle as well.

21 Now, we also put into evidence Todd Engel's Facebook
22 messages from Exhibit 122, where he added a video. But more
23 importantly, he posted a message "Armed standoff."

24 And, of course, you know, from Exhibit 182 and the 25 images that have been put into -- and video that have been put

Government's Closing Argument

1 into evidence, the tactical positions that these four
2 defendants take on the northbound bridge.

3 THE COURT: I think that was 162? I think I heard it
4 say 182 but it was 162?

5 MS. AHMED: So, this image is from Exhibit 162. Your
6 Honor is correct, but Exhibit 182 is that time line. So,
7 either one, you'll see this image, but 182 will walk you
8 through the events on the bridge -- excuse me -- at the ICP.

9 Now, again, Steven Stewart's post afterward
10 celebrating the events that had unfolded consistent with what 11 you know happened. And Ammon Bundy also made statements about 12 what happened on April 12th in referencing the plan that 13 occurred that day.

14 (Unidentified video exhibit played.)

15 MS. AHMED: Keep playing.

16 (Unidentified video exhibit played.)

17 MS. AHMED: Now, Ammon Bundy gave that speech or that
18 interview, rather, while standing in the wash at the BLM
19 impoundment site. And we know that after the BLM withdrew from 20 that area in Post 2, that the defendants stayed up on the 21 bridge as the "West has now been won sign" was hung over the 22 freeway.

23 And at Exhibit 122, Todd Engle also posts, "BLM lost
24 and has backed down due to overwhelming force of the people and 25 our arms. We win. Cattle being released as we speak. If they

Government's Closing Argument

1 don't, trouble will start again. It was very, very close to an
2 exchange of gunfire. We rushed their barricades with armed
3 people and cowboys on horseback. Crazy."

4 And then the BLM, of course, withdrew, and Eric
5 Parker, Scott Drexler, and Steven Stewart were there to watch
6 them leave as was Defendant Lovelien. And then the cattle were
7 released. And all of these slides again come from Exhibit 182
8 which takes them from the source which is listed there.

9 Eric Parker posted on his Facebook post "Celebrating
10 the release of the cattle." And Defendant Lovelien returned to 11 the Bundy staging area to continue conducting security at that 12 site. And here you see him pictured at approximately 4:00 p.m.
13 on April 12th again with that earpiece in his ear.

14 Now, you also have Ammon Bundy, Cliven Bundy's son,
15 giving an interview that same day as well, commenting on --
16 here commenting on the plan.

17 (Unidentified video exhibit played.)

18 MS. AHMED: Now, ladies and gentlemen, of course you
19 have heard from Sheriff Lombardo who was the assistant sheriff
20 at the time, who testified on the stand that when he got to 21 ICP, it was clear that all they could do was work to order the 22 release of the cattle in order to prevent this from being a
23 violent event.

24 But what's significant, in this video, in Ammon
25 Bundy's comments, is his comment that they had militia and

Government's Closing Argument

1 weapons, and the officers didn't know if they were going to be
2 fired upon, because that was the point. That was how the plan
3 worked on April 12th at that standoff. Because it was the 4 threat of violence, the potential for violence, the fatal
5 funnel, as Ranger Whitteaker described it, that the officers
6 were placed in that basically forced their hand and forced them
7 to retreat. And Ammon Bundy says as much when he makes that 8 comment in his video.

9 Now, in addition to generally conspiracy, joining in 10 the conspiracy and that there's an agreement, which we submit
11 the evidence shows that these four defendants did join in that 12 conspiracy and did agree to commit all of the offenses that are 13 listed in Count One.

14 Under conspiracy liability, you can also find the 15 defendant who joined into the agreement guilty of the actual 16 substantive offenses, meaning Eric Parker joined in the 17 agreement, and Scott Drexler assaulted those officers on 18 April 12th. Well, by joining in this agreement, this 19 conspiracy together, they become liable for each other's 20 reasonably foreseeable criminal actions.

21 And so Defendant Lovelien, even if you concluded,
22 against the evidence in this case, that he didn't himself
23 assault the officers on April 12th, by joining in the 24 agreement, in the conspiracy with these other defendants, he is 25 liable, under coconspirator -- coconspirator liability, for

Government's Closing Argument

1 their conduct. He is thus liable. It's as if he did it
2 himself. When you join the agreement, you are all responsible
3 for each other's actions.

4 And, so, here again, once the defendant joins, he's
5 responsible for the other defendants' actions. That means
6 Lovelien is responsible for Parker, Drexler, and Stewart's
7 actions on the bridge. Stewart is responsible for Parker and 8 Drexler. They are responsible for each other. They are all
9 responsible for each other in joining in this conspiracy
10 together, because in joining the conspiracy to commit the 11 offenses that are listed in Count One, and to interfere with 12 and impede federal officers, it is reasonably foreseeable that 13 this conspiracy is going to be achieved through the use of 14 force, threats, assault, and violence.

15 And, so, because it's reasonably foreseeable that 16 that's going to happen, when they join this agreement together,
17 they are -- under the law, it is as if they committed the 18 offense themselves.

19 And, so, when you look at this verdict form, and if 20 you find these defendants guilty of Count One; and, in doing
21 so, identify what they agreed to commit, you should also find
22 them guilty of the substantive offense under that coconspirator
23 liability. Meaning if they are guilty of conspiring to commit
24 assault, then because it is reasonably foreseeable, in joining
25 that conspiracy, that the assault is going to happen, that it's

Government's Closing Argument

1 as if they all committed the assault themselves, even if --
2 here we have evidence that they all did it themselves. But
3 even if you didn't believe that the evidence was there for one
4 of them, under that coconspirator liability, finding guilty for 5 them as to Count One means you would, for example, under the 6 assault also find them guilty of committing Count Five.

7 So, guilty as to Count One means you would go to
8 Count Five and also find them guilty there.

9 Separately, as we've already stated, for all of these
10 offenses, the Count Five, Six, Eight, et cetera, if you find
11 that they aided and abetted, they are also guilty and equally
12 liable as if they did it themselves.

13 So, in looking at this verdict form, the question is,
14 as to Count One -- let me go back to Count One. Did they -- 15 did you -- Do you find that the evidence shows that they 16 conspired to commit? They agreed. There was an agreement to 17 assault federal officers. Which we submit that the evidence
18 shows that there was, then they're guilty, and you would check
19 number one.

20 You would again, under that coconspirator liability,
21 which I believe is actually Jury Instruction 21, you would then
22 go to Count Five, and you could find them guilty there.

23 So, in sum, ladies and gentlemen, the point is that 24 you can -- looking at this verdict form, thinking about the 25 evidence and the law that you have been given, these defendants

Government's Closing Argument

1 are guilty of all the crimes with which they've been charged,
2 because they did it themselves, they helped each other do it,
3 and they agreed to do it.

4 Now, I know that is a lot of information that I've 5 just gone over in a very short amount of time, or probably what 6 seems like a very long amount of time, but the point here is 7 that the evidence and the law lead you inexorably to the 8 conclusion that these defendants are guilty as they are 9 charged.

10 Now, after I'm done speaking, of course, the defense
11 attorneys will have an opportunity to present their arguments
12 to you. And in addition to the tool that you have of common
13 sense and reason, in looking at the evidence and in listening
14 to their closing arguments, think about the evidence in terms
15 of credibility, corroboration, and consistency.

16 And ask yourselves if the arguments that are 17 presented to you are consistent with the evidence or ask you to 18 explain away the evidence. Use your common sense and your 19 reason to look at the law and the evidence, and apply the law
20 as the Judge has given it to you. And I will ask that you
21 listen to their arguments, with that framework, knowing also 22 that Mr. Myhre will have an opportunity to come back up here at 23 the end and address what they've said you to here again before
24 we are done.

25 But I would ask that basically, you think about the

Government's Closing Argument

1 events of April 12, 2014. It's a date that we've heard said
2 hundreds of times over the past month and a half. And for us,
3 it's a moment in time. But for the officers who testified to 4 you about what they felt, you saw for yourselves the impact
5 that event had on them and the impact that these four
6 defendants had on them.

7 And it is clear from the evidence that they did it
8 with every intention of threatening, assaulting, extorting
9 those officers and getting that cattle. And they conspired to 10 do it, and they did do it, and they helped each other do it.

11 So, in light of that, ladies and gentlemen, we ask
12 that you ultimately, when you go back to your deliberations,
13 fill out that verdict form, that you find them all guilty on 14 all counts. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take our
16 afternoon bathroom break.

17 I do remind the jury again. Please do not discuss
18 this case with anyone, not even your fellow jurors, not yet.
19 Please do not permit anyone to discuss it with you. Do not
20 read, or listen to, or view anything that touches upon this
21 case, nor attempt to perform any research or any independent
22 investigation. And please do not yet form any opinions.

23 It's 3:00. We'll go ahead and take -- Aaron, 15?

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That should be plenty, Your
25 Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take a
2 15-minute break. So we will stand and excuse the jury and
3 welcome them back at 3:15.

4 (Jury out.)

5 THE COURT: All right. We are off record.

6 (Recess, 3:00 p.m. Resumed 3:29 p.m. Jury out.)

7 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. You may 8 go ahead and be seated, or go ahead and call in the jury.

9 (Jury in.)

10 THE COURT: All right. The jury may go ahead and be
11 seated. Everyone else may be seated as well.

12 All right. So now defense may make its closing
13 argument. Who would like to go first?

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. At this time,
15 Steven Stewart and I have no closing argument. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Marchese.

17 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you. At this 18 time, Eric Parker has no closing argument.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: On behalf of Mr. Drexler, we have no
21 closing argument.

22 THE COURT: And Mr. Perez.

23 MR. PEREZ: On behalf of Mr. Lovelien, we have no
24 closing argument.

25 THE COURT: Does the government wish to make a

1 rebuttal argument?

2 MR. MYHRE: May we have just a moment, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, in light of the fact
6 that they have made no closing, we have no rebuttal.

7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

8 So, at this time, we are going to go ahead and excuse
9 the jury, the 12 jurors to go begin their deliberations. The 10 alternate jurors are numbers 13, 14 and 15. So, we will be 11 separating you out.

12 The deliberating jurors will begin deliberations in a
13 different jury room than the one that you have been in. So,
14 we'll let you go and gather up your things and move into the 15 different jury room that is used for deliberations.

16 The alternate -- the three alternate jurors, you'll 17 be given instructions by Mike or Aaron as to -- because you are 18 going to be split up into two; so, actually, I didn't check to 19 see who gets which, but I think that Mike will have to get the 20 deliberation group, and Aaron will stay with the alternate
21 jurors, so that we can make sure we have everybody's contact
22 information and so forth.

23 So, at this time, I'll ask Aaron, please, if you are 24 sworn in. I know technically you were already sworn in before
25 at the beginning, but for deliberation purposes, we will go

1 ahead head and do that as well.

2 (Court Security Officer sworn.)

3 THE COURT: All right. So, we'll have Jurors No. 1
4 through 12, go ahead and stand up, and you can exit with Mike.
5 And then as soon as they have exited, then Aaron if you will
6 please take Jurors 13, 14 and 15.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And we will be in recess while they 9 deliberate.

10 (Jury out.)

11 THE COURT: All right. So, we are in recess. If you
12 didn't get a chance already to give Aaron your contact
13 information, please make sure that you do that, so that he can
14 give you a call and let you know what time the jury goes home
15 today. Because we've been having court till 5:00, that's what
16 I expect is that they will stay until 5:00.

17 And then we'll let you -- Aaron will also call you to 18 let you know if they are going to be starting right up again at 19 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning, which I do expect that they would 20 be at least putting in 9:00 to 5:00, and also whether or not if 21 it's necessary to come back on Friday, if they choose to come
22 back on Friday. Or if they already had plans for Friday, they 23 may not want to come back on Friday, and not be able to, and 24 they might come back on Monday.

25 So, in other words, step by step we will keep you

1 abreast of what's going on, so that you know whether you need
2 to be at the ready with a suit on or not.

3 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And also if we have a jury note, we'll
5 also call you right away to come back to court in your suits,
6 so that we can discuss that jury note as well.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, may we make a record before
8 we recess?

9 THE COURT: You know, probably better if you just 10 file it. Do it that way instead.

11 MR. TANASI: Okay.

12 THE COURT: All right. We'll be in recess.

13 (Recess, 3:37 p.m. Resumed, 4:02 p.m. Jury out.)

14 THE COURT: All right. We are back on the record,
15 and go ahead and be seated. We are outside the presence of the
16 jury.

17 I did write down a few things that I noticed and 18 continued to try to look at to see whether I can corroborate
19 what I thought that I saw.

20 Juror No. 12, when she walked in, gave -- not 12. 2,
21 the top one. The one that wears the gray sweater up top.

22 Juror No. 2, when she walked in, she winked -- first
23 she smiled and then winked over at the defense table when she 24 walked in. Then she proceeded to look over to the right, and 25 make eye contact with somebody, and then was looking back over

1 at defense table. And when she smiled, she then quickly looked
2 at me, and we locked eyes. And then she quickly looked down.

3 And now I've also been told that other individuals in 4 the courtroom witnessed her blowing a kiss to defense table as
5 she was exiting the courtroom. So, I'm going to have her
6 brought in and ask her questions. And I want to give both
7 parties an opportunity to tell me what questions you would like
8 me to ask in determining whether there is good cause to excuse
9 her.

10 Demonstrated bias, by communicating with the 11 defendant, his family, or his attorneys, can constitute good
12 cause to dismiss the juror under United States versus
13 Vartanian, V-A-R-T-A-N-I-A-N.

14 And, so, that is my concern at this point, but I want
15 to give you the opportunity to tell me what questions, if any,
16 you want me to ask her or if you just agree. I don't know if 17 you've also seen the same.

18 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we did notice that -- and I
19 didn't -- I couldn't see, from my vantage point. But when
20 Defendant Parker was leaving the witness stand --

21 THE REPORTER: Please speak into the microphone.

22 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry.

23 When Defendant Parker was leaving the witness stand,
24 it appeared, at least to some on our team, that he made eye
25 contact or made some sort of facial gesture and connected with

1 Juror No. 2.

2 I saw the turn, and I saw that he was making some
3 facial gesture. I didn't see -- and I saw her, but I didn't
4 see that their eyes necessarily locked. But I saw that she was 5 visibly emoting based on him leaving the witness stand on that
6 Thursday when that occurred last week.

7 THE COURT: And also, when she left today, after the 8 defense stated that they were not going to be making a closing,
9 she seemed visibly upset, and Juror No. 1 was comforting her.
10 But that didn't bother me as much as -- just to add to the 11 concern that had already been made.

12 So, was there anything else that you or your teams or 13 staff or other individuals saw, so we can make sure that we can 14 ask her about everything?

15 MR. MARCHESE: In reference to the things that may or 16 may not have been seen, personally, I haven't seen her make eye
17 contact with me or in our direction at any point in time.

18 I will say I did see what the Court saw when she was 19 leaving with the kiss. How I construed it was that it was to 20 the alternates, given the fact that they would now be split up.

21 I don't know who it was to, but it definitely was not
22 in our direction. It was more in the vicinity of alternates,
23 so that's how I viewed it. But I've never seen her -- locked
24 eyes with her or anything like that that I felt to be out of 25 the ordinary or odd.

1 I mean, it does periodically happen. You look up,
2 and you happen to be looking at a juror.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. Well, and no offense. I know that 4 it wasn't aimed at you, because you were always looking at your 5 laptop, because I was looking to see if I could figure out who
6 it was that she was locking eyes with. And I had narrowed it
7 down to Parker or Tanasi from my point of view.

8 But I had ruled it out, because you were never 9 looking back at her. You were looking down at your laptop, and 10 so I -- I believe you when you say you never saw her doing
11 anything else, because you weren't really looking in that
12 direction.

13 Anything else from the government?

14 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm not making eye contact
15 with her. I would like to put that on the record as well. I
16 have this screen, which is the screen I look at. And, I mean,
17 maybe she's behind the screen. But I make a very good point
18 not to sit and stare or make eye contact.

19 Obviously, from time to time, you look over there.
20 You are looking at reactions. But for this very reason, I am
21 not going to sit there and look into her eyes and gaze at her.

22 Again, I feel like I'm kind of in the position of 23 arguing a negative right now, because it didn't happen.

24 THE COURT: And maybe I should clarify that I'm not 25 accusing any of the defense counsel of doing anything like

1 that. And I think you notice that you and I kept looking at 2 each other. Maybe you were wondering why does the judge keep
3 looking at me, because I was trying to figure out who it was
4 that she was looking at, and whether it was you or Mr. Parker.

5 And I -- from my vantage point, again I'm in between 6 both of you. I didn't think that it was any of the other
7 counsel back there either.

8 You wanted to say something?

9 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, just I did have a report that 10 at one of our sidebars during Defendant Parker's testimony,
11 that No. 2 was smiling at Mr. Parker during -- while we were at 12 sidebar. So --

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the only, I guess, response
14 that I would offer is why does that come up now? We have had 15 no sidebars today.

16 MR. MYHRE: I believe it was during the sidebar
17 during Defendant Parker's testimony.

18 THE COURT: All right. And any questions that you
19 want me to ask?

20 MR. MYHRE: Nothing further, Your Honor, from --

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I guess what did you intend
22 to ask? Just essentially whether she did or didn't do it? I
23 don't have any specific questions. I guess we'll see how they 24 go.

25 THE COURT: Well, I don't feel I need to ask her

1 whether she did or didn't do it, because I saw her do it. So,
2 my concern is why she did it and whether there's an innocent
3 explanation for it that is convincing to me or not.

4 MR. TANASI: Okay.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: What are we referring to why she did
6 what? The kiss to somebody on that side? What -- is that
7 what --

8 THE COURT: The smile, the wink, and the kiss.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Smile, on the same occasion or 10 different occasions?

11 THE COURT: Today.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, but at different times?

13 THE COURT: The smile and the wink were at the same
14 time when she walked in.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, okay.

16 THE COURT: And the blowing the kiss with the hand
17 gesture was on the way out.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

19 MR. MARCHESE: So, it would have been when we were 20 making our appearances this morning with the smile, or wink, or 21 whatever?

22 THE COURT: It was actually coming in after lunch.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Does the Court know where she was 25 focused when she did the smile and the wink?

1 THE COURT: Yes, defense area.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, this area?

3 THE COURT: Oh, yes.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. But the Court indicated that
5 you found -- or the Court indicated that you thought the kiss
6 was towards this area as well?

7 THE COURT: The kiss was definitely towards this
8 area, but the -- what caused me concern was the constant eye
9 contact that continued, and her looking over to the right, and 10 then looking over to the defense.

11 So, I'm going to ask her some questions, but I want
12 to give you an opportunity to ask questions as well.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think, at this time, I don't have 14 any questions. Maybe there might be some follow-up questions,
15 if that's okay with the Court. I mean, at this point, I didn't
16 see it, so I don't know.

17 MR. MARCHESE: And one thing I would say, Your Honor,
18 and Mr. Parker brings up a good point to me today. Obviously,
19 the Court is configured a little bit differently due to the 20 closing arguments. And the way the podium is situated, she 21 can't see Mr. Parker from her vantage point.

22 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else in the courtroom
23 that saw anything?

24 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Just that it was 25 reported that one of the agents saw her actually lean to look

1 around the podium to see Mr. Parker at one point today.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's not possible with the podium
3 where it's at. It hasn't moved, and the seat No. 2, there's no
4 way she can lean around and see Mr. Parker, if the Court
5 would --

6 MR. MYHRE: It's possible someone could lean in their
7 chair.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: The way that I'm facing, which I'm
9 directly behind Mr. Parker right now, is that there is no way
10 that someone could lean around and see Mr. Parker from that 11 chair.

12 MR. MYHRE: I'm just reporting, Your Honor, that she 13 leaned and to look around the podium at Mr. Parker.

14 THE COURT: All right. And did the marshals also 15 receive reports from other individuals in the courtroom that 16 Juror No. 2 was exhibiting behavior that is not common?

17 MARSHAL: That is correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And what was the behavior that was 19 reported?

20 MARSHAL: The same behavior that you stated yourself.

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's go ahead then.
22 Thank you. We'll call her in.

23 (Juror No. 2 entered the courtroom.)

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

25 THE COURT: You can go ahead and have a seat. Juror

1 No. 2 is joining us now on the record outside the presence of
2 the rest of the jury.

3 I have a couple of questions for you. The first one
4 is to find out why it is that I have been seeing certain
5 behavior from you. First of all, when you came in, you were 6 smiling in the direction of the defense, and I saw you give 7 them a wink.

8 Can you explain what that was about?

9 JUROR NO. 2: For starters, I don't ever wink. If 10 anything, that was misread. I try to smile at whoever I make 11 eye contact with, and it is natural to look at the defense,
12 because they are directly across from me.

13 THE COURT: And then when you were leaving, you
14 seemed upset that the defense did not make a closing argument,
15 and Juror No. 1 was comforting you.

16 And then you turned over to the defense counsel table
17 again and blew them a kiss.

18 JUROR NO. 2: Oh, no. My fellow No. 14, 15 -- my 19 fellow juries is who I blew a kiss to. Verna has been the 20 sweetest lady, and it saddened me that I didn't think I'd get 21 to see her again.

22 THE COURT: During Government's closing, at various 23 points, it looked like you were making eye contact with defense
24 table specifically with Mr. Parker.

25 JUROR NO. 2: I do try to look at people in the face,

1 and, you know, it's a very interesting court case, like reading
2 facial expressions, looking at emotion. But I do the same
3 wherever I look. I'm sorry if it was misconstrued as some 4 signal, because it is not.

5 THE COURT: Have you been crying today?

6 JUROR NO. 2: No, but I do wear contacts, and I am
7 sleepy.

8 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up questions?

9 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

11 MR. MYHRE: No, thank you, Your Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

14 (Juror No. 2 left the courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: All right. So, does anybody wish to make 16 a motion?

17 MR. MYHRE: I'm conflicted, Your Honor, because I'm 18 not -- it sounds like you saw the wink, so I believe the Court
19 saw the wink, and then she denied the wink. So, I'm concerned
20 as to whether she's telling the truth or not. That's where I
21 am. And --

22 THE COURT: She did admit she blew the kiss.
23 Mr. Marchese saw her blow the kiss, and Juror No. 2 said that 24 she was blowing the kiss to one of the alternate jurors, which 25 was what Mr. Marchese believed he saw as well.

1 MR. MYHRE: So, I'm just conflicted, because she's
2 obviously sat through the whole -- the whole trial. Your
3 Honor, I didn't catch her last answer when you asked her
4 whether she was crying. Did she say she has problems with her
5 contacts?

6 THE COURT: She says she wears contacts, and she's
7 sleepy.

8 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, I think I'm going to 9 move to strike her, just because I'm concerned about her answer
10 in response to your question about the wink.

11 If she -- unless the eye -- that's my sole concern
12 here, is if she's not telling the truth about that. The Court
13 saw it. And I -- I didn't see it, but if -- if it's an eye
14 issue, if she had a problem with that, I -- you know, I am
15 willing to, you know, accept that. But if she's not telling
16 the truth about that, I have concerns.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything else from the 18 defense that you want to --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think she obviously told the truth.
20 It was corroborated by Mr. Marchese on the one answer. And if 21 she said she's sleepy, and she's got contacts, maybe she was 22 just blinking.

23 I didn't notice anything on this side. I'm right
24 behind Mr. Parker. You know, I look at the jurors once in a
25 while just like we all do. You indicated that it might have

1 been Mr. Tanasi, but he's not made any eye contact.

2 So, I think she's been very forthcoming with the
3 Court. She told you exactly who she blew the kiss to, and I
4 think that was the most -- probably the most flagrant thing.
5 If there's an eye issue, and she's sleepy, and she wears
6 contacts, there's a reasonable explanation. And I don't think
7 it's grounds to dismiss her, since she sat through this trial
8 for a month and a half now or almost.

9 I think we are all tired and sleepy. And I don't
10 wear contacts. If I do, then I might have some irritation
11 coming in in the morning. I don't think it's anything more
12 than that.

13 THE COURT: And Marshal, what was it that was 14 reported to you, so that I can see if it is consistent or not 15 with what I believe that I saw?

16 MARSHAL: The only things that were reported to me,
17 Your Honor, was the -- the blowing the kiss, staring to the 18 right all day today, and then -- and also the wink.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, just to clarify, he said
21 staring to the right. Would that be to the prosecution?

22 THE COURT: Well, and that's why I wanted to look at 23 the case law, because the Vartanian case includes communication
24 with the defendant, his attorney, or his family.

25 And so that was my concern with whether she was

1 looking at any individuals that were family. I did look at 2 Mr. Parker's wife, and she was not making eye contact with
3 Mr. Parker's wife. At least to my satisfaction, I didn't think
4 that that was going on. And there were some other people that
5 I was trying to figure out if she was making contact with.

6 So, like I said, I had narrowed it down to where it
7 seemed that where she was always looking as to either
8 Mr. Tanasi or to Mr. Parker, and not to the people that I think
9 I know are Mr. Parker's family.

10 Obviously, I don't know who all of Mr. Parker's
11 family are, but the individuals that I've seen here over and
12 over again that I believe I think I know are his family, I
13 didn't think that -- that that was the case.

14 So, I'm not going to excuse her based on the 15 information that we have and her responses. That doesn't mean
16 I'm not concerned. I am still concerned, and so if there is 17 something else that comes up, I think that's probably going to 18 be more than enough. But, wow.

19 If we hear of anything else, I -- I know what I saw,
20 but I don't want to be the only one. And I appreciate that
21 people are reporting it also to the marshals, which is why I
22 wanted to bring it to everybody else's attention.

23 Her responses are that she did not wink. That she 24 just smiles at everyone that she looks at, and that -- which 25 wasn't true, because she's very frowny-faced during the

1 information today as well, but I don't want to consider that,
2 except maybe in evaluating her credibility.

3 But I think it's too thin to excuse her based on the
4 record we have now. Maybe it will prove out to be a mistake
5 later, but --

6 MR. MYHRE: Does the Court want to inquire of her
7 what she was looking at to the right, or is the Court satisfied
8 she wasn't making eye contact with family members?

9 THE COURT: She said she looks around and smiles at 10 everybody. Which is not necessarily what I saw, because she 11 didn't smile at everyone and look around at everybody. But --
12 yeah, nobody -- it's sort of the nature of this case, I
13 suppose, that nobody else wants to be identified as seeing what 14 they saw.

15 But, you know, feel comfortable reporting to it the 16 marshals, which obviously gets to my attention at some point.
17 And I had already spoken to my staff and had told them to look,
18 and my staff saw a couple of the things that we verified. But 19 if it's -- if the motion by the government is only based on 20 what I saw, and she's saying that she smiles at everyone, and 21 that the blowing of the kiss was to the alternate jurors and 22 not to Mr. Parker, or Mr. Tanasi, or whoever else it might have 23 been, if I misunderstood, but I know it was someone in that
24 direction.

25 If there's nothing else that anybody else saw, then I

1 think that's probably better just to leave her on.

2 All right. So did -- Aaron, did they indicate to 3 you, when you talked to them, whether they were going to be 4 leaving at 5:00, or are they leaving and just not even
5 starting, because sometimes they don't even want to start.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: They are still here, Your
7 Honor. I do not believe we have a time that they are quitting.
8 I would imagine 5:00.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: We have not talked about
11 it.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, can we take a moment? I
14 know we all waived our closings, and I know Mr. Tanasi asked --
15 on a different note, Mr. Tanasi asked if we could just put 16 something on the record.

17 Could we have our clients, just on the record, say
18 that they waived -- they agreed to the waiving of the closing?
19 I believe that caselaw requires either written notice that we
20 do that or on the record. So --

21 THE COURT: That's why I think it's better that you
22 provide a written notice.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So, I'll provide a written 24 notice.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

4 (Jury out.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial, Day 23, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
9 States of America versus Eric Parker, Steven Stewart, O. Scott
10 Drexler, and Ricky Lovelien.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

12 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Steven Myhre,
13 Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

14 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

15 MR. TANASI: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
16 with Steven Stewart who is present.

17 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Jess
19 Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

20 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Todd
22 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

23 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

24 MR. PEREZ: Good afternoon. Shawn Perez on behalf of 25 Ricky Lovelien.

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

2 All right. Before we begin, just a quick reminder
3 that this is a courtroom and not a sporting event. So, we're 4 going to be conducting a hearing today, and we don't want any
5 distractions or any inappropriate language or body language
6 during the proceeding.

7 We do have security here authorized to remove anyone
8 who makes inappropriate remarks. The defendants are aware
9 there is a holding cell right outside the door there with a
10 speaker system set up, so that if any of the defendants cannot 11 comply with the behavior that is expected in a courtroom, then 12 they can still at least continue to hear the proceedings from 13 the cell if it is necessary to have them removed from the 14 courtroom.

15 Likewise, we are not permitted to have any electronic 16 devices in the courtroom. So, if you do have one, please take
17 a moment to step outside and drop it out there. No cell phones
18 are permitted, iPads, laptops, things of that nature. We do
19 not permit any audio or video recording in any of the federal 20 courts, and so that is why we can't have the devices.

21 We do have computer monitors and such, and the 22 attorneys and the security officers are permitted to have their 23 electronics so that they can review their notes and prepare 24 accordingly for today as well as communicate for security
25 reasons.

1 All right. So, I have received two jury notes that
2 were shared with counsel, and I'm prepared to hear argument or
3 suggestions as to what responses should be provided. I realize
4 I didn't number them for you, so I'll tell you now that the one
5 that starts off with the words "On Thursday," we'll refer to 6 that as Jury Note No. 143. So, if you want to write that on 7 the top of your copy.

8 And then the next one starts "We the jury," that one
9 will be numbered 144.

10 All right. So, does the government wish to suggest a
11 response to Note No. 143?

12 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. The -- first of all, we 13 note our general concern that the Court's instruction requires
14 that any notes not only be in writing but be signed by a juror.
15 We note that none of these are -- either 143 or 144 appear to 16 be signed, and so we note that as well.

17 With respect to 143 in particular, we would just
18 suggest that the Court refer them back to Instructions 1 and 37
19 in terms of their duties to deliberate, but anything with 20 respect to -- what appears in 143 is that this is a juror who's 21 opining as to another juror's potential bias.

22 And they reference, apparently, a statement that was 23 made outside the deliberation room, but then it appears to be 24 going into this juror's opinion formed as a result of 25 deliberations.

1 We believe any questioning of this juror or of even
2 the juror that -- that this juror's alluding to would violate
3 the secrecy of the deliberations. And therefore, we -- we see
4 no further need to inquire into this, because it all goes to 5 the sacrosanct aspect of the jury deliberations and secrecy of 6 those jury deliberations. So, that's with respect to 143.

7 THE COURT: All right. Well, just let me back up
8 there. So, you said you think the response should be to refer
9 them to Jury Instruction No. -- did you say 1 and 37?

10 MR. MYHRE: 1 and 37. Just as the -- just their 11 duties to deliberate, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. And no further inquiry.

13 MR. MYHRE: And no further inquiry, yes, Your Honor.
14 And I'm prepared to address 144 as well, unless you want to 15 just do one at a time.

16 THE COURT: Well, let's do one at a time, so we 17 don't -- don't get confused.

18 So, Mr. Tanasi, do you wish to be heard on Juror Note
19 143, or Mr. Marchese, you are going to speak first or for 20 everyone?

21 MR. MARCHESE: It's fine, Your Honor. We've all
22 spoken. And, of course, Mr. Leventhal and Mr. Tanasi I'm sure
23 can fill in the blanks on anything that I leave out.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. MARCHESE: The defense is very concerned about

1 No. 143, particularly based upon the questionnaires and the
2 voir dire process. This was not anything that was elicited
3 through the questionnaires or the voir dire process --

4 THE COURT: Yes, it was. She -- she told you. She
5 said that her husband was employed.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Oh, yes. That was. We are aware of
7 that.

8 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

9 MR. MARCHESE: That's not what we have the concern
10 with, however, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. So, what was not elicited
12 then?

13 MR. MARCHESE: The fact that this individual has had 14 a gun pointed at her in the past. This is very concerning to 15 us collectively, because that's basically the genesis of this
16 charge.

17 You know, we understand and we agree with the 18 prosecution that there should be secrecy in the deliberation
19 process, but we're very happy that this was brought to our 20 attention, because we need honest jurors as well.

21 And if this is not elicited and told to us, I mean,
22 we surely -- I know myself, I can't speak on behalf of the 23 everyone else, but we -- I surely would have moved to have this
24 juror stricken for cause based upon the fact that it's clear
25 that she cannot be fair and impartial based upon her past.

1 THE COURT: So, how would this information have been
2 elicited? Was there a question asked that would have elicited
3 this? Because I'm not --

4 MR. MARCHESE: The question was --

5 THE COURT: -- aware of one.

6 MR. MARCHESE: -- have you ever been the victim of a
7 crime? If you have a gun pointed at you, that's an assault.
8 So, based upon that --

9 THE COURT: I thought it wasn't. I thought that was 10 your argument is that it wasn't, but okay. So, you're saying
11 that she was a victim of a crime, and that that should have 12 been elicited in the questionnaire? Is that --

13 MR. MARCHESE: Well, she should have said, "Hey" -- I
14 don't know. You know, this is a very vague response. It's 15 something about having a gun pointed at her in the past, and 16 that this note indicates that this individual has gun issues,
17 and that she's personalizing the events. So, it's twofold.

18 I think it comes, number one, "Have you ever been the 19 victim of a crime?" but also, just the general question, which 20 is "Can you be fair and impartial?" So, based upon that, we 21 believe that she's been dishonest with the Court and to the 22 defense in particular in her responses.

23 So, that's -- it's just very troubling to us that
24 she's made it this far, and now she has corrupted the process.
25 We're three days into jury deliberations, and we don't know

1 what else has been said.

2 Obviously, there's some contention, at least with
3 this one juror and whoever wrote this note, and then the one
4 juror who we feel has not been forthcoming to the -- to the 5 Court. So, we -- we are very concerned that she's corrupted
6 the process. I mean, these men are -- have the right to a fair
7 and impartial jury, and we believe that this juror is anything
8 but.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, are you asking for a
10 mistrial then?

11 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, we --

12 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: We move for a mistrial, Your Honor,
14 based on this.

15 MR. TANASI: And just for the record, I would just 16 add with specificity that the question -- the questionnaire,
17 it's Question No. 30 on page 24 of 27. "Have you or anyone
18 closely associated with you been a victim of a crime involving 19 a firearm?"

20 "No" was the answer. And then I'd also add, just for 21 the record, in terms of authority, Your Honor, it's the Warger
22 versus Shauers case. I'm not sure if I'm pronouncing it
23 properly. The citation, Your Honor, is 135 -- it's a US
24 Supreme Court case, 135 Supreme Court case 521.

25 That case is -- the procedural posture is a little

1 bit different, but I think the notion carries through. If a
2 juror was dishonest during voir dire and an honest response
3 would have been provided -- would have provided a valid basis
4 to challenge that juror for cause, the verdict must be
5 invalidated. And that case goes on to cite another Supreme 6 Court case, McDonough, 464 US 556.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Leventhal, did you want
8 to add anything else?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: The only thing I would add is that on 10 Question No. 9 of the jury questionnaires asked if anybody was 11 afraid of firearms. And the answer was "No." And there was a
12 follow-up. "If yes, please explain." And on this particular 13 juror's questionnaire, "Are you afraid of firearms?" she put
14 "No."

15 And if she's saying that here, "Well, if you ever
16 knew what it was like to have a gun pointed at you, I've had a
17 gun pointed at me, and I don't know what I would do." So, it
18 went just beyond whether or not there was a crime, and it went 19 beyond whether or not someone in her family -- or it goes to 20 her personalization of having guns. And she answered in the 21 negative, which apparently she's talking outside of 22 deliberations, and that question should have been answered in 23 the affirmative.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Perez.

25 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor. We've all conferred,

1 and I concur with counsel here as well.

2 THE COURT: All right. And what's the government's
3 reply?

4 MR. MYHRE: The government's response is, Your Honor,
5 those answers are not inconsistent with what's been reported
6 here. What's been reported here is not that she was subject to 7 a crime, or was the victim of a crime, or that she's even
8 afraid of firearms or not afraid of firearms.

9 All that's reported here is a quote, which queries the 10 accuracy of the quote, but that until you've had a gun pointed 11 at you, you don't know what you're likely to do. None of those 12 are -- they are responsive.

13 In fact, it's a true -- it's true and accurately
14 recorded, which we don't know, is inconsistent or contradicts
15 or contravenes the answers given in the jury questionnaire.

16 So, there's no -- we -- we've skipped about five
17 steps of logic here to get to the point that this person said
18 this. Now we're at mistrial. They lied. There's a whole
19 bunch of intervening steps there.

20 Is, A, was it said, first of all. B, when it was 21 said, does it contradict the answers given in the 22 questionnaire? Based on this, it doesn't.

23 So, for those reasons, we don't think there's any 24 issue here that requires a mistrial. There is no evidence that 25 this juror was less than forthright during voir dire or during

1 answering the questioning -- answering the questionnaires that
2 were provided.

3 There would also have to be an issue based on cause,
4 which this -- that doesn't go to cause. It may be the basis
5 for a peremptory challenge, but it wouldn't be the basis for 6 requiring the juror to be excused for cause.

7 That is if that response -- if the response in the 8 questionnaire was "I had a gun pointed at me," that would not
9 be the basis for challenging the juror for cause. It may be 10 some other reason they want to exercise peremptory. But the 11 bottom line here is that there's no evidence that this juror
12 was less than forthright in his or her answers to the 13 questionnaire.

14 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, we can only go off of 15 what the information --

16 THE COURT: All right. Now, I understand. I'm going
17 to have jury -- Juror No. 6 come in so I can question her.

18 Let's talk about now Jury Note No. 144.

19 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, with respect to the 20 first part of that question of 144, we would suggest that the 21 Court respond that working within the court system or being
22 married to a court security officer does not create a conflict
23 of interest for a juror, to the extent that there's a response
24 required for number one.

25 For number two, again, we would refer the jurors

1 again to Nos. 1 and 37 of the jury instructions. To go beyond
2 that, as to which way a juror is voting or to explain the
3 position for voting, again, would reveal the deliberations and
4 would require the Court to -- to inquire into the juror
5 deliberations.

6 There's nothing wrong with a juror taking a position
7 during voting, and that is not to be revealed, especially 8 during the deliberation process. And also, the -- there's 9 nothing from question two that suggests that the juror has 10 either failed to deliberate or refuses to deliberate.

11 The question posed by number two here is whether or 12 not she needs to reveal the basis for her vote. Again, it's -- 13 that's not -- that's not exclusive of deliberations and would 14 require the Court to actually delve into the juror
15 deliberations to go beyond what's represented here on the 16 second part of question 144.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Leventhal, do you want to 18 go first?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Judge. I just would note that 20 sort of the semantics of this indicates the juror has stated
21 three times that she works within the court system. That's not
22 past tense. That's not she worked. It's she works.

23 And that becomes an issue based upon the 24 questionnaires. We asked all of the jurors if they've any 25 involvement, and I think we had Judge Koppe's clerk was here.

1 We asked everybody, "Have you" -- I know we had a city
2 attorney's wife here.

3 We asked everybody if they are working, and that
4 response would counter to what anyone else said. If she had
5 worked in the court system, that's a different answer. Or if
6 her husband did, I would agree with Mr. Myhre, but it says here
7 that she said three times that she works, meaning she's doing
8 it now.

9 And nowhere on any of our questionnaires did we get 10 that response. Because, obviously, that would go into if 11 you're working in the state court -- I mean, the three of us
12 appear in the state court routinely. I think that 13 Mr. Marchese, Mr. Tanasi, and myself, and Mr. Perez, we all
14 are -- we know the state court judges very well. And so that 15 would obviously be a question; if they work in the back; what 16 position they are in.

17 And, so, if there's -- that's my problem with it is 18 whether she works now currently or if this was in the past.
19 The rest of it, I agree with Mr. Myhre that I don't know one
20 way or another. This is -- it does not indicate which way or 21 doesn't have any indication on where she's at.

22 So, my only issue is if she's working within the 23 courts, what is her capacity, and why didn't she tell us what 24 her capacity within the court system is if she's currently 25 doing that. But to suggest that we're asking, you know, which

1 way she's leaning, that's not what we're asking for. The 2 second paragraph has no bearing on my analysis of -- for the 3 first paragraph.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else want to add?

5 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor. I would concur with 6 what Mr. Leventhal just said.

7 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, just --

8 MR. TANASI: I would join as well, Your Honor.

9 MR. PEREZ: -- one question with respect to "is not 10 open to any discussion." I'm wondering if that's just doesn't
11 want to deliberate, I mean, which would certainly be an issue.

12 THE COURT: All right. So, Jury Instruction No. 7
13 does state that each of you must decide the case yourself, but 14 you should do so only after you've considered all the evidence,
15 discussed it fully with the other jurors, and listened to the 16 views of your fellow jurors.

17 So, I agree that referencing that might be helpful to 18 just remind them. So, I agree that we should bring these two 19 jurors in to see if the person who sent us these jury notes --
20 as the government points out, whoever that may be, because we 21 don't know, because they are not signed, so we don't know if 22 someone's being truthful about what they have heard or whether 23 they are making trouble.

24 But, in any case, I think that it's necessary for the 25 record that we do question these two jurors to determine

1 whether or not these claims -- these allegations about them are
2 true or not.

3 So, Aaron, if you'll please ask Juror No. -- let's
4 see -- 6.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, before we bring them
6 back, I just -- I'd like the Court to be aware that we've asked
7 the jurors to bring to the Court's attention anything that, you
8 know, may have happened outside of deliberations.

9 And obviously, the first question happened outside.
10 So, we just -- the Court has asked the jurors to go ahead, and 11 if anything happens or if anything's said or anyone reaches
12 out, that we ask them to do this.

13 So, I just remind the Court that that's what we ask
14 of the jurors to do this, to bring that to the Court's
15 attention one way or another. And so if something's being done
16 outside of deliberations or making statements, then that's -- 17 that's what we ask of them. It's in the jury instructions to 18 do so.

19 MR. MYHRE: And we also ask them to identify who they 20 are by their signature. And just these random notes, I think,
21 are violative of those instructions.

22 But, Your Honor, with respect to the -- just so I --
23 I'm on -- I understand for 144 for Juror No. 9, I guess are we 24 just simply asking as to whether the person works in the court
25 system or not? Because I don't -- I don't recall that being

1 asked specifically during voir dire or even the jury
2 questionnaire, where someone, if they worked in the court
3 system or not. That's --

4 THE COURT: In the questionnaire, it did ask where 5 they were employed or how they were employed, where they were 6 employed. And then also, if they were retired, what was their 7 last employment. And likewise for the spouse, where was your 8 spouse -- where does your spouse work. And if your spouse is 9 retired, what was their last employment.

10 MR. MYHRE: So, I guess my question was, is that what
11 we're going to ask Juror No. 9?

12 THE COURT: Yeah, I was doing No. 6 first.

13 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry.

14 THE COURT: But, yes. That would be -- we'll get to
15 that.

16 MR. MYHRE: I apologize, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yes, that's what we want to know is 18 whether or not she works within the court system as represented
19 by the person who wrote this jury note.

20 So, it sounds like we might be putting the cart
21 before the horse. But sounds like what the government is 22 saying -- and you tell me if I'm understanding your position
23 correctly, because I think it's multifaceted here -- is that 24 first you want the juror who provided these notes to sign the 25 jury note; is that correct?

1 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And I'm referring to Jury Instruction
3 No. 40, which is titled "Communication with Court." And says,
4 "If it becomes necessary during your deliberations to
5 communicate with me, you may send a note through the court
6 security officer signed by any one or more of you. No member
7 of the jury should ever attempt to communicate with me except
8 by a signed writing," and so forth.

9 So, that was the instruction that they are supposed
10 to sign it, and this was not signed. So, I guess to be clear,
11 what I'll do is have Aaron take these two notes back folded.
12 By the way, they were folded. So, take the two notes back
13 folded to our security officer who is guarding the door of the 14 deliberation room, and just ask him to provide it to them and 15 say, "If you want the judge to consider these notes, you need
16 to sign them consistent with Jury Instruction No. 40."

17 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: And again, if it was just one, then
20 I -- then I would understand it. But if it was more than one,
21 that's sort of what the jury -- the -- what the --

22 THE COURT: Well, there are two notes, but they are 23 both typed, and they have written in ink -- I guess it's ink --
24 the numbers of the jurors that they are referring to with the 25 same color pen and such. So, I was --

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well --

2 THE COURT: -- because of the formatting and the font
3 and all that, I was assuming they were more likely than not
4 written by the same person, even though there's two notes.
5 But, you know, we're just not going to know until we ask.
6 So --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. And so -- and I would note
8 that 144 starts out "We the jury. We the jury." So, if Aaron
9 goes back and says "Who wrote this," the --

10 THE COURT: That's not what he's going to say. He's 11 going to say, "If you want the judge to consider this, then it
12 needs to be signed consistent with Jury Instruction No. 40."

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

14 THE COURT: Which, by the way, says "signed by any 15 one or more of you." And I'm not going to have him read it,
16 but they can read it themselves. And also, I don't want to put 17 him in the position of paraphrasing. You know, we want them to 18 actually read the instruction, so that they get word for word
19 what we agreed is the correct instruction.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: So, we will do that.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Do you want to go
24 ahead and show it to counsel? We'll make you a copy, but for 25 now so you can see.

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Thanks.

3 Now, Aaron, you're going to get your exercise. Can
4 you please ask Juror No. 6 to join us. And if I could also 5 have you tell them that the judge says they need to pause their
6 deliberations while Juror No. 6 is gone.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: They are currently on a
8 break, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Great. Okay.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

11 (Juror No. 6 entered the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated. We 13 are joined by Juror No. 6. Good afternoon.

14 I just have a couple of questions for you that have 15 come up. And I've discussed some things with the attorneys,
16 and we have some questions that we can't answer without asking
17 you.

18 So, we are not trying to embarrass you. We just need
19 to find out some information from you, so that we know what 20 action we can -- need to consider and whether or not to take
21 that.

22 So, my first question is, have you been a victim of a
23 crime?

24 JUROR NO. 6: Not directly. No.

25 THE COURT: All right. And are you afraid of

1 firearms?

2 JUROR NO. 6: No.

3 THE COURT: All right. So, when you say that you've 4 not been a victim of a crime, have you had a firearm pointed at
5 you?

6 JUROR NO. 6: As a child.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 JUROR NO. 6: But -- but right now, I mean, it's not
9 going to necessarily affect what my opinion would be at this 10 point. I think I just overstepped and misspoke when I should 11 have not said anything.

12 THE COURT: Okay. When you say that -- that when you
13 were a child, that there was a firearm pointed at you, was 14 anyone charged or any -- anything come of that?

15 JUROR NO. 6: No.

16 THE COURT: All right. I think that answers the 17 questions that we have. Thank you very much.

18 JUROR NO. 6: Okay. Like I said, I lost my temper,
19 and I didn't mean to, because it was a personal thing that 20 should not have ever have been.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

22 THE WITNESS: Uh-huh.

23 (Juror No. 6 left the courtroom.)

24 THE COURT: All right. Could we have you bring Juror
25 No. 9?

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

5 (Juror No. 9 entered the courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated.

7 Good afternoon to Juror No. 9. Back in your old seat
8 there. Okay. So, we've got a couple questions for you,
9 because some issues have come up, and I'm trying to decide what
10 to do. The attorneys and I have some questions.

11 So, we need to ask you regarding your current 12 employment. So, where do you currently work?

13 JUROR NO. 9: I'm retired.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And what was your last position?

15 JUROR NO. 9: I was a senior claims manager.

16 THE REPORTER: Hold the microphone like this.

17 JUROR NO. 9: I was a senior claims manager for a
18 large commercial insurance company.

19 THE COURT: All right. And have you ever worked in 20 the court system?

21 JUROR NO. 9: Yes, I was a worker's comp legal
22 secretary for a judge in California.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, would that be like an 24 administrative law judge or what kind of a judge?

25 JUROR NO. 9: Administrative law.

1 THE COURT: You said that was in California.

2 JUROR NO. 9: Yes.

3 THE COURT: California. How long ago was that?

4 JUROR NO. 9: Let's see. I left that job in the year
5 2000.

6 THE COURT: And how long did you hold that job?

7 JUROR NO. 9: 18 and half years.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I think that answers our question.
9 Thank you very much. You can go ahead and be excused, and the 10 jury may go ahead and continue its deliberation, Aaron.

11 (Juror No. 9 left the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: All right. So, as to Juror Note No. 143,
13 does anyone have anything else you wanted to add?

14 MR. MYHRE: Just, Your Honor, that her responses in 15 the -- to the Court's inquiry, again, shows nothing
16 inconsistent with what she revealed on her jury questionnaire.
17 She's consistent, forthright, and does not form a basis for 18 either a mistrial or to relieve the juror for -- for cause.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Defense wish to be heard?

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think it -- it just 21 provides additional grounds for the defense original motion.
22 I -- again, I know she said that maybe it wasn't pointed 23 directly at her, but the question was "Have you or has anyone
24 closely associated with you been a victim of a crime involving
25 a firearm?"

1 You know, having a firearm pointed as you, as
2 Mr. Marchese pointed out, is a crime. That's what this case is
3 almost entirely premised on. So, had we known that and had we
4 had the chance to dig in deeper, we probably would have struck
5 her for cause. Strike that. We would have struck her for 6 cause or at least moved.

7 And with respect -- can we move on to number 144 yet,
8 Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: No, let's do one at a time.

10 MR. TANASI: Okay.

11 MR. MARCHESE: And if I may, just briefly, just chime
12 in. In reference to our thoughts, you know, I agree with 13 everything Mr. Tanasi said. But, in addition, clearly she's 14 personalizing it. She said "As a child." I don't know, you
15 know, at what age this event transpired. But, you know, she's 16 obviously a little bit older.

17 So, obviously, this event, whatever happened, however
18 many years ago, she is still holding it with her. So just the 19 fact that whether she says things out of emotion or whatnot, I
20 think that there's clearly still something there. She still 21 remembers it, and I believe that it impairs her ability to be a
22 fair and impartial juror.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I would agree. I -- I don't know
24 if it would have gotten to the level of for cause, but 25 certainly we would have utilized one of our peremptory

1 challenges on her without a question.

2 MR. PEREZ: It concerns me, Your Honor, with respect
3 to her saying, you know, "I showed my anger." I mean, you
4 know, I'm sure that the debate can be pretty heated at times,
5 but to be angry for something for so -- you know, that she may
6 have been harboring for years is concerning to me.

7 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court is satisfied
8 that Juror No. 6 has provided truthful answers. She explained
9 that she was not a victim of a crime, that there was no crime
10 charged, and she was young. That she is not afraid of 11 firearms. And therefore, the answers that she's previously
12 provided do not appear to be untruthful.

13 So, as to the response to Jury Note No. 143, the 14 question is whether there is a concern because of her husband's 15 job. And I'll note for the record that the juror who signed
16 the note mischaracterizes the position of the juror as being 17 the same as the jury security officer, which is not what she 18 said during voir dire. But it's a common mistake for someone
19 who is not involved in the court system to sort of lump
20 everyone together and think that everybody works for the 21 courts, and, therefore, is in the same position.

22 So, I think the appropriate response here would be to 23 say "The employment of jurors and their spouses were disclosed
24 during voir dire, was known by the parties, and no concerns
25 were raised," and just leave it at that, so that kind of covers

1 everybody.

2 And for the second part of the question about whether
3 or not there's the ability to draw on life experiences, the
4 commentary to the Ninth Circuit Model Jury Instruction 3.8
5 regarding direct and circumstantial evidence specifically says
6 that the Court should consider giving this language, which we 7 didn't give, and maybe, you know, would have been helpful, but
8 is not a required part of the language, which is that jurors
9 are to consider all the evidence in light of reason,
10 experience, and common sense.

11 So, I think that is the second part that I will add
12 to that response, is that in reference to Jury Instruction
13 No. 27, in our case, which is direct and circumstantial
14 evidence defined, the response would be that evidence may be 15 direct or circumstantial. Jurors must consider all the 16 evidence in light of reason, experience, and common sense, and 17 then have them refer to that Jury Instruction No. 27.

18 Another applicable jury instruction would be No. 32,
19 which states, "In deciding the credibility of witnesses, you
20 may take into account," and it lists several factors. And the 21 eighth factor says, "any other factors that bear on 22 believability." So, I'm going to include that in the reference
23 to Jury Instruction 32 being factor number eight.

24 All right. So then for Jury Note No. 144, what's the 25 government's position there? I think we stated already before

1 that the position of an employer or employment, but here the
2 question is someone who works within the court system. And the
3 juror stated that she did not work currently. I think -- I
4 don't remember if it was Mr. Leventhal or Mr. Perez who pointed
5 out that the way that the Jury Note No. 44 [sic] was styled
6 said -- claimed that Juror No. 9 had stated three times that 7 she works within the court system, grammatically indicating 8 current time period as opposed to in the past.

9 But Juror No. 9 has come into court and stated that 10 she does not currently work in the court system, and that 11 before this, she worked as a claims manager in an insurance
12 company. Senior -- senior claims manager in an insurance
13 company. And that she did work in the court system from 14 2000 -- the year 2000 -- well, that doesn't make sense, does
15 it?

16 She said from the year 2000 and for 18 and half
17 years, so that would mean 2018 and a half. This is 2017. So,
18 she might have been very nervous. But regardless, she worked 19 in the court system as a legal secretary for an administrative 20 law judge handling Workmen's Compensation cases in California.

21 And that was not a question that, you know, she was 22 required to disclose in the voir dire. The voir dire asked
23 "Where do you work now, and if you have been retired, what was 24 your last job?"

25 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. And it's the

1 government's position that there's nothing, again, inconsistent
2 in her answers or contradicted by her answers in her
3 questionnaire. And with respect to, as the Court notes, this
4 juror questionnaire states that she -- that the juror stated
5 currently works in the court system. And as the juror
6 indicated, she's retired currently, and her last place of 7 employment had nothing to do with the court system. It was --
8 she had worked for an administrative law judge up to the year
9 2000, so it was 18 years ago, 17 and half years ago, whatever.

10 So, again, nothing false in her responses. Nothing
11 to indicate she's been less than completely forthright with the 12 Court.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: We would -- we would agree with that,
14 that her answers were clear that it was 18 years ago. So, the 15 only suggestion that I think the defense would make is that -- 16 I'm not sure which jury instruction it is, but it's duty to 17 deliberate would be addressing the second paragraph.

18 The first paragraph we are satisfied that she -- it
19 wouldn't have been a question. And I don't even think it would 20 have been something that had she even answered that, something
21 that would have fell on our radar to peremptory or -- so, we 22 have no problem with that given her answer.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, I agree that as to Jury
24 Note No. 144, my response will be to -- and it's numbered, you
25 know, number one and two -- two questions on Jury Note No. 144.

1 So, the first question on 144, I will respond with --
2 well, do you want me to point out the mistake in the assumption
3 by the juror that she doesn't currently work there, or do we
4 just -- do you want me to just say it's not a conflict of 5 interest merely because a juror currently works or may have
6 worked in the past in the court system?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm not sure even answering that
8 question is necessary other than just the duty to deliberate,
9 getting on to the second one, because clearly this person
10 either got it wrong or heard something or maybe she said it
11 and -- because it indicates -- it says it was said three times.

12 So, maybe she's saying it back there that -- that she 13 works, and it's done three times. So, I don't want to call
14 anybody out on it. So, maybe if we just -- I don't think it's 15 necessary to answer that question on whether or not she does or 16 she doesn't, because she said she doesn't. That's fine. And 17 just go on to the second question and just a duty to 18 deliberate. Because it's not just one time.

19 THE COURT: Well, the Court's concern is that if this
20 juror believes that Juror No. 9 has a conflict of interest,
21 they might use that as an excuse to not listen to her or, you
22 know, sort of dismiss her opinion instead of everybody, you
23 know, listening to everyone with an open mind, and either
24 agreeing or disagreeing based on whether it's a logical
25 argument or not, as opposed to just because they think that

1 someone has a conflict of interest when we all know they don't.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

3 THE COURT: So, that was my reason for thinking we
4 probably should address it, so that it goes away, so that it
5 doesn't interfere with their ability to deliberate and have
6 a -- otherwise, if I don't address it, I'm afraid there's a
7 lingering question there whether or not there's a conflict of 8 interest.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's --

10 THE COURT: Although maybe they would know that since
11 we didn't kick her off the jury, that there must not be a
12 conflict of interest? I guess it could go either way.

13 MR. MYHRE: And our inquiry is I -- I understood it
14 was different from what this juror's inquiry was. The inquiry
15 here is whether working in the court system creates a conflict
16 of interest, not whether the juror answered the question during 17 voir dire in an untruthful manner.

18 So, I -- I would go back to our original suggestion,
19 perhaps, Your Honor, saying either working within the court
20 system does not create a conflict of interest for a juror. And 21 that -- that answers the specific question there without 22 getting into the separate inquiry that the Court has made as to 23 whether there was something untoward during voir dire said.

24 THE COURT: All right. And so my thought was I could
25 have the same response as the other one. The employment of a

1 juror or a juror's spouse does not --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: By itself does not create the 3 conflict.

4 THE COURT: A conflict of interest does not arise
5 merely because a juror or their spouse works in the court
6 system, or something to that effect. So I think that's what
7 I'll do.

8 And then for the second part of the question, asking
9 about whether or not jurors need to explain their position, I
10 think it's appropriate just to have them refer to Jury
11 Instruction No. 37, which specifically says, "Each of you must 12 decide the case for yourself, but you should do so only after 13 you have considered all the evidence, discussed it fully with 14 the other jurors and listened to the views of your fellow
15 jurors."

16 So, that's referring back to Mr. Perez and his 17 concern that there might be a question as to what the duty to 18 deliberate really means, and the -- the requirement that they 19 need to discuss and listen.

20 So, those will be the -- those are the answers that 21 I'll provide, and then counsel will have a copy of those
22 answers as well. And then we'll have you stay on call -- you
23 don't have to stay here, but I mean Aaron will let you know
24 what time they leave if they decide -- it's what, 2:30 now?
25 So, I think 4:00 is what they've been doing.

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: 4:00?

4 THE COURT: If they leave before 4:00, Aaron will
5 call to let you know. Or if they decide to stay past 4:00,
6 we'll let you know, too. Okay?

7 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

4 (Jury out.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is time set for jury
8 trial in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United States of America
9 versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelien, and
10 Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances.

12 MR. MYHRE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Steven 13 Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United
14 States.

15 THE COURT: Good morning. I'm sorry. Good
16 afternoon.

17 MR. TANASI: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
18 for Steven Stewart who is present.

19 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Jess
21 Marchese on behalf of the Eric Parker.

22 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Todd
24 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

25 MR. PEREZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Shawn Perez

1 on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

2 THE COURT: Good afternoon. All right. Well, we
3 have received a jury note. I believe, Aaron, this is No. 145.
4 Is that right?

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. So, this is Jury Note No.
7 145. It's not a question. It's a statement. So, I did want
8 to get together with the parties to find out if you think that
9 there's any need to respond.

10 Generally, we respond to jury notes, but generally
11 they are questions. This is not a question, but obviously they 12 wanted us to know this.

13 So, what is the government's position?

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, our position is, is that it
15 would prompt further inquiry as to whether they are, in fact,
16 deadlocked, or whether they've reached partial verdicts as to 17 some defendants as to some counts.

18 THE COURT: And what's the defense position,
19 Mr. Tanasi or Mr. Marchese?

20 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Sure. Whoever wants to go first.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think, at this point, we 24 would ask for the Allen charge.

25 THE COURT: All right. So, you want me to ask -- you

1 want me to give an Allen charge before they say they are
2 deadlocked, or you want me to ask if they have deadlocked
3 and if they say "Yes," give them an Allen charge?

4 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 MR. TANASI: I jumped to the conclusion, and I
7 apologize. Yes.

8 THE COURT: I know what you are doing, and I think
9 that that's reasonable, in light of everything, of all of our
10 experiences, not just with this case but in many cases, that 11 the note seems to indicate that's the direction, but they don't 12 actually say that.

13 So, I'm trying to be careful in jumping too far ahead
14 without making sure why it is that they are sending us this 15 note. So, you know, they do have the right to know there's a
16 partial verdict. We don't usually include it in the -- in 17 the -- you know, the original set of instructions, because we 18 don't want to encourage them from trying to deliberate on all
19 counts.

20 But, Rule 31 is clear, and the law is clear that they
21 do have the right to be made aware of their options, and that a
22 partial verdict is an option. But they also need to be made
23 aware of what a partial verdict means, and that it's not just 24 something that they temporarily filled out, a placeholder,
25 tentatively, but rather that it is a real verdict, an

1 irrevocable verdict.

2 So, I think that would probably be the best way, you
3 know, baby steps. I think maybe if I called them in and just 4 make them aware of that option, and then let them know that
5 they should go back and continue discussions until they decide
6 that it's necessary to send another note. Because they are not
7 telling us that they do have a verdict. They are saying they 8 haven't been able -- they are not done yet.

9 Does that mean they want to go past 5:00? You know,
10 we could read a whole lot of things into this note. It's very,
11 very vague and scant.

12 So, is there anything else you want me to ask them
13 when they -- when we bring them in, so that they are aware that 14 we are not ignoring them, because that was also my concern is 15 if we don't respond -- don't want to be -- don't want to be 16 rude about it, but I don't want to put things into their head
17 either.

18 So, I think just -- that's what I'm inclined to do is 19 just let them know what their option is and leave it at that,
20 and let them figure it out. Or do you think that that's not 21 enough? That we need to -- they are not saying they are 22 deadlocked. They might be. They might not be. They are not 23 saying they are.

24 Do we want to give them that word or not?

25 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the government's position is

1 they wrote it for a reason.

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 MR. MYHRE: And, so, I think we don't know, based on 4 what this says here, what the precise and full meaning is about
5 what they wrote. So, I think the inquiry that the Court has 6 initially indicated, I think, would be appropriate at this
7 time.

8 I don't think -- if we are going to take it in 9 increments, that's fine. But I think we need to ask whether 10 this -- if they are telling us that they are deadlocked as to 11 all counts or if they -- if they intend to further deliberate.

12 THE COURT: All right. Well, the inference from this 13 jury note seems to be that they do have verdicts and have 14 reached unanimous decisions on something. I don't know if --
15 it doesn't say whether it's on just a particular count, or a
16 particular defendant, or a particular question that -- it
17 just -- so, other than just making the jury aware of their 18 option to return a partial verdict, is there anything else that 19 defense wants me to say or not say?

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, I -- I think it's 21 obviously a fine line here, and so I don't think anything more
22 than that. I would still go back to our original request which 23 would be just for the Allen charge at this point.

24 I understand the Court's ruling and wanting to go
25 that -- go the avenue of letting them know, essentially, that a

1 partial verdict is an option. But again, I think it's -- it
2 can be read a couple different ways, so that's the issue.

3 THE COURT: Well, and by -- by making the option
4 known to them, I'm certainly not saying that that rules out an
5 Allen charge. If -- if they do say that they want to return a
6 partial verdict, you know, in another note later, we can
7 certainly discuss what that -- you know, what we want to do
8 next.

9 So then we would ask them as to the other counts
10 where you didn't provide a verdict, are you helplessly
11 deadlocked? Is there anything we can do? Is there any 12 instruction we can clarify, and make sure that they are really 13 hopelessly deadlocked, and, you know, unanimously don't want to 14 continue the deliberation?

15 I guess the question is whether there's a reasonable
16 probability that the jury can reach a unanimous verdict if sent 17 back to the jury room for further deliberation.

18 So, if the foreman says there's nothing else, and 19 then I ask each of the jurors is there anything, and they all
20 say, "No, we are done," then I could go into the Allen charge.

21 So, we could discuss that after -- you know, while
22 they are continuing their discussion after I just make them
23 aware of the option, the Rule 31 option and sort of leave it at 24 that. Is that okay? Anything else?

25 MR. TANASI: Nothing from the defense, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. So, let's bring them in.
2 I'll make them aware, and then I'll let them retire back to the 3 room to continue discussions.

4 I think we all expect there will be another note, but
5 we are not going to tell them what we think they are thinking,
6 because we don't want to plant that seed. We want them to tell
7 us what they are thinking.

8 (Jury in.)

9 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated and
10 everyone else may be seated as well.

11 All right. We do have a jury note that we received.
12 This is Jury Note No. 145, and it is signed and dated. It is 13 not a question. It's a statement. So, I didn't provide a
14 response in writing, because, as I say, it's not a question.

15 So, I did meet with counsel. We discussed the jury
16 note. And I think it's an appropriate time to make the jury
17 aware of an option that you do have.

18 I want to make it clear that I am not encouraging you
19 nor discouraging you from using this option, but you can be 20 made aware that pursuant to Rule 31 of the Criminal Rules of 21 Civil -- of Criminal Procedure, the jury may return a partial 22 verdict.

23 If there are multiple defendants, the jury may return
24 a verdict at any time during its deliberations as to any 25 defendant about whom it has agreed; or, when there are multiple

1 counts, if the jury cannot agree as to all counts as to any
2 defendant, the jury may return a verdict on those counts in
3 which it has agreed or any combination thereof.

4 So, that is an option that you have. I'm going to 5 dismiss you and ask you to continue your deliberations and 6 discussions, and if you want to send out another note, you are 7 welcome to. But I think that's the extent of what we're going
8 to be addressing at this point.

9 All right? So, thank you for coming in. We'll go
10 ahead and excuse you.

11 (Jury out.)

12 THE COURT: All right. We are still on the record,
13 but the jury has left the courtroom. So, I noticed one of the 14 jurors did have the verdict envelope, the manila envelope that 15 says "verdict" on it, and then has a little -- it's like a
16 pocket, really. Well, it's like an envelope pocket.

17 One of the jurors carried that in, so maybe they 18 thought they were going to be rendering a verdict. But I think
19 it's safer this way for them to let us know if they have a
20 verdict. Because -- the Jury Note 145 doesn't say they have a
21 verdict. It certainly implies that, but they don't actually
22 say it.

23 So, in light of the fact that they did bring --
24 someone did bring out the envelope, I think it's appropriate
25 for us to consider whether or not we want to provide an Allen

1 charge, if they come back and say, "We're deadlocked." Either
2 all the way, they are deadlocked on everything, or deadlocked
3 on some things but have a partial verdict on another.

4 So, do you want to take some time to think about this
5 or do you want to discuss it now?

6 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Sure. The Deadlock Jury Instruction in 8 the Ninth Circuit Model Jury Instructions is number 7.7. If 9 you don't have it, I can read it. It's the same one that we 10 always use, and I don't modify it. I just give the model.

11 (Pause in the proceedings.)

12 THE COURT: All right. So, the CSO says that the 13 jury asked if they could have 15 minutes. They can have all 14 the time they want, you can tell them. I think we are all in 15 agreement with that. I think they weren't clear about how long 16 they are supposed to take, but they can have as much time as 17 they want.

18 (Recess 2:35 p.m. Resumed 3:05 p.m.)

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Another jury note.

20 THE COURT: 146.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 146, yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. We do have another note.
23 It's No. 146. I'm going to go ahead and give to it Aaron so
24 that he can share it with counsel.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I will run and make copies,

1 Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 THE COURT: All right. So, we are on record, and we
5 have received a jury note that I have numbered 146
6 sequentially. And I believe that both counsel now have
7 received copies and all the defense counsel have received
8 copies. Is that right?

9 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, the jury does wish to 11 render a partial verdict. Therefore, the next question that I
12 have for you is whether you agree or disagree or have another
13 suggestion as to how we should proceed.

14 I can ask them -- well, I can receive the -- the 15 special verdict, announce it, and then ask them, without 16 telling me how they stand numerically, whether there is 17 anything else that the Court can do to assist them in their
18 deliberation process.

19 Whether there's any clarification of an instruction
20 or a further instruction and so forth, and if -- these 21 questions are directed to the foreman and the foreperson, and
22 if the foreperson says that there's nothing else we can do, I
23 can ask, "Does that mean you are hopelessly deadlocked?" If 24 the foreperson says "Yes," I can ask, "Is there a reasonable
25 probability that the jury can reach a unanimous verdict if I

1 send you back to the jury room to deliberate?"

2 And if the foreman says, "No," then I can poll the
3 jurors individually to see if they feel that there is a
4 reasonable probability that the jury could reach a unanimous
5 verdict if they were given more time to deliberate.

6 And then if they say "No" -- obviously, if anyone
7 says "Yes, I think more time would be helpful," then we would
8 let them have more time. But if -- if nobody thinks more time
9 would be helpful, then I can either provide an Allen charge, or 10 I can balance the factors and determine whether a mistrial
11 should be ordered.

12 So, what are the parties' positions as to these 13 options or any other options you want to suggest?

14 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, the government would concur
15 with the Court's option to take the partial and then determine
16 whether the -- as to the remaining charges, they are 17 deadlocked, and then give an Allen charge if they indicate that 18 they are deadlocked.

19 THE COURT: All right. And what's the defense
20 position?

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I --

22 THE COURT: You each can have a different position.
23 You don't have to have the same position. I keep referring to 24 the defense and looking at Mr. Tanasi, because he's always
25 looking at me and ready to respond. But, obviously, you don't

1 have to respond with a unified voice. You can have different
2 ideas.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think that the use of the 4 word "believe" would lend itself to maybe Your Honor asking if
5 they need more time; right?

6 Because I don't think they have even come in and said
7 conclusively, "We have a partial verdict, and we are ready to 8 give it." There's still we believe that's what we can do. So,
9 I think giving them more time short of giving them more
10 instruction is the way to go at this point.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, agree, disagree, or another
12 option?

13 MR. MARCHESE: No, I'd agree with that statement,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And Mr. Leventhal?

16 MR. PEREZ: And I would as well, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Perez.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I would as well. And just the 19 Court indicated that it would ask each of the jurors where they 20 were or if that, in fact, they were deadlocked, or not --

21 THE COURT: No. No. Just the opposite.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not the word deadlocked.

23 THE COURT: That I would make sure that they not tell
24 me how they stand numerically on any count as to any -- no
25 numbers. Nothing like that. Just "Yes" or "No." Do you think

1 more time would be helpful, is essentially what I'm asking.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I misspoke. I apologize. But
3 then -- but then the Court indicated that after that, the Court
4 would then give them the Allen charge, which seems sort of 5 fruitless to me.

6 THE COURT: No, if they said more time would be 7 helpful, then I just let them go back and have as much time as 8 they want. If they say, "No, more time would not be 9 helpful" --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Then the Court would weigh --

11 THE COURT: -- meaning that they're deadlocked, then
12 I could either give an Allen charge, or I could determine
13 whether a mistrial should be ordered.

14 So, if nobody wants an Allen charge, I don't have to 15 give an Allen charge. If you want an Allen charge, I'm willing 16 to consider an Allen charge.

17 MR. TANASI: Mr. Stewart's not requesting an Allen
18 charge at this time, Your Honor.

19 MR. PEREZ: Mr. Lovelien neither.

20 THE COURT: Is or is not?

21 MR. PEREZ: Is not.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Mr. Parker is not asking for an Allen
24 charge.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would agree. We are not requesting

1 an Allen charge at this time.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And does the government still wish
3 to have an Allen charge in light of the fact that the defense
4 is no longer requesting an Allen charge?

5 I know Mr. Tanasi earlier said that he was, but they 6 are not asking for one now. So, does the government want an
7 Allen charge or not?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor, we would. If the 9 Court's taking the partial verdict, as to the remainder of the 10 charges, we would still wish for an Allen charge.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I see no point to take a partial 13 verdict if we are going to give an Allen charge. That's my 14 issue. If we are going to give them the Allen charge, then 15 give them the Allen charge, and tell them to go back there, and 16 read the language to them, which I believe is already 17 incorporated in the jury instructions at this point, but that's 18 either here nor there.

19 But if the Court's going to take a partial verdict
20 and then, after that, find out whether or not they are 21 hopelessly deadlocked on the -- on the rest, I don't see the 22 need to do an Allen charge at this point either.

23 So, I think there's two options there. I'm just not 24 sure which one the Court needs to follow or just becomes -- to 25 take a partial and then to give an Allen charge seems a waste

1 of time.

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, in reviewing all the
3 options that we think we have, the Court is not inclined to 4 give an Allen charge if the defense is not going to be 5 requesting it.

6 I'll let you know that I have written down -- I
7 doublechecked some facts here for you. If the verdicts that 8 they do have unanimously entered into the verdict form -- and,
9 of course, as always, I will first read the verdict form. Then
10 I will individually poll them -- if they are for an acquittal
11 as to one or any of the defendants on all charges, or if they 12 are for an acquittal on the defendants with no verdict on the 13 remaining charges -- in other words, no convictions -- then as 14 to the defendants, I am going to set a detention hearing,
15 assuming that the -- that the defense makes a motion pursuant
16 to Title 18 of the United States Code, Section 3142(f), for a
17 reopening of the detention hearing.

18 It does state -- I swore I had that -- in the very,
19 very last section -- very last sentence of paragraph (f) as in 20 Frank, "The hearing may be reopened" -- referring to the 21 detention hearing -- "before or after a determination by the 22 judicial officer at any time before trial if the judicial 23 officer finds that information exists that was not known to the 24 movant at the time of the hearing and that has a material
25 bearing on the issue whether there are conditions of release

1 that will reasonably assure the appearance of such person as
2 required and the safety of any other person and the community."

3 So, the determining factor there for me to even
4 entertain reopening the detention hearing would be the factor
5 in Section (g) of that same statute, 18, USC 3142. And one of 6 those factors is (g) (2), the weight of the evidence against the 7 person.

8 And obviously, I would hear argument about any of the 9 other factors as well, but that would be the reason why I would
10 go ahead and set the hearing. It could be as early as tomorrow
11 or at the defense convenience if you want to provide written
12 information.

13 So, if the jury does come back with a partial verdict
14 that does include convictions for any one or more of the 15 defendants, then we will set a sentencing date for any of the 16 convictions that are returned as guilty verdicts.

17 As for any verdicts that cannot be rendered, if they 18 are hopelessly deadlocked, which it appears is the case because 19 of the partial verdict that they wish to return -- if they 20 indicate that they could use more time in determining the 21 remaining counts, I will obviously let them do that.

22 If they say that they are deadlocked and they cannot
23 reach a verdict on the remaining counts, then the Court needs
24 to determine whether manifest necessity exists to terminate the 25 proceedings and order a mistrial, or do the ends of justice --

1 public justice, would they otherwise be defeated.

2 So, the considerations include the jurors' opinions
3 that they cannot agree. So, obviously, that's the first thing
4 is to ask them whether or not they think they need more time.

5 Also, the length of the deliberation. Up until now,
6 it has been a few hours on Tuesday, after closing, and then
7 three full days, with a weekend in the middle of there. So,
8 not counting that weekend, but three actual full days of 9 deliberation and then today half a day of deliberation, maybe a
10 little more considering it's already 3:00 p.m.

11 And I also have to consider the length of the trial,
12 which, in this case, has been 24 trial days. That does include
13 the two days of voir dire, so it's really more like 23. No one
14 was here for the full 24. They were all here for the 23,
15 because they either came in on day number one or day number two 16 but not both.

17 And the complexity of the issues presented to the 18 jury. With four defendants, 10 counts, there's a minimum of 40
19 different verdicts, minimum that they have to enter, because if 20 there's a guilty verdict on any of those, then there's other
21 questions that are asked.

22 And the Court is also considering the effects of 23 possible exhaustion or any coercive effect on the jurors to 24 continue the deliberation process. We have been in trial for 25 full days as opposed to half days, so it's been full days from

1 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., which is eight hours of trial time.
2 The jury is here also during lunch, which is brought in for
3 them, and, you know, those eight hours don't count traffic time
4 and travel time and such downtown.

5 So, that is a considerable amount of time to be in 6 trial all day long, more than 20 days, and to have almost four 7 full days of deliberation with a restful weekend in between.
8 It still is clear to the Court that there would exist manifest
9 necessity to terminate the trial and that the ends of justice
10 would be met by declaring a mistrial if the jury is deadlocked
11 on any remaining counts.

12 Now, if -- okay. So, those are the -- if we've got 13 some -- so, we'll set the 3142 hearing if there are some counts
14 for a defendant that are mistrialed, with either all of them
15 mistrialed or some mistrialed and some acquittal. If there's 16 any convictions, then we set a sentencing date.

17 If there are acquittals across the board, which means
18 that there's no remaining counts, so there would be no reason
19 to reset for a trial date, then I would vacate the detention
20 orders. And they are for Mr. Parker, the detention order from 21 Idaho is number 117 on the docket. I know there's over 2,000
22 documents on the docket.

23 So, for Mr. Parker, it's number 117. For 24 Mr. Drexler, it's number 585. For Mr. Lovelien, the detention
25 order from Oklahoma is number 100, and for Mr. Stewart, the

1 detention order is number 232.

2 So, obviously, you could make that motion if it's
3 appropriate, and I'll grant it, but I wanted to make sure
4 everybody was on the same page for what all the options appear
5 to be.

6 All right. Let's bring the jury in. I'll go ahead
7 and read their partial -- well, I will ask them -- I will ask
8 the foreperson when he wrote the word "believe" in that note,
9 does that mean that there is a verdict, a partial verdict that 10 they want me to accept, or did the word believe mean they want
11 more time.

12 MR. TANASI: That's my read of it, Your Honor, is 13 that they would need more time.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, let's go ahead and ask them
15 that. And, obviously, if they say, "No, we don't need more 16 time. We want you to read it," then I will go ahead and read
17 it.

18 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

19 (Jury in.)

20 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.
21 Everyone else may be seated as well.

22 All right. So, we're on the record in the presence
23 of the jury, and the jury has returned a note that we have 24 numbered numerically as No. 146. And it does state that they 25 have revisited the issues and believe that we wish to render a

1 partial verdict.

2 So, my question is to the foreman, which I think is
3 Juror No. 11? When you use the word "believe," that you
4 believe that we wish to render a partial verdict, remember.
5 You're talking to a bunch of lawyers; right?

6 FOREPERSON: Sorry.

7 THE COURT: So, we just want to make sure. Does that 8 mean you do want me to read and enter and accept a partial 9 verdict, or that you want to continue to consider the option of 10 a partial verdict?

11 FOREPERSON: We want you to read, render, and record
12 the verdict as we have it.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much, sir, for the 14 clarification.

15 FOREPERSON: Sorry.

16 THE COURT: That's all right. So, we'll go ahead
17 then and have you pass up the partial verdict. I will read it
18 into the record.

19 After I read the verdict, I'm going to ask the 20 foreman if this is a correct reading of the verdict, and then I
21 will poll each of you -- do you have a microphone? I will poll
22 each of you to tell me whether or not this is your verdict.
23 And I'll just ask you by number, "Juror No. 1, is this your 24 verdict?" And you say "Yes" or "No."

25 All right. So, the verdict form in the case of

1 16-cr-46, United States of America versus O. Scott Drexler,
2 Ricky R. Lovelien, Eric J. Parker, and Steven A. Stewart.

3 "Verdict.

4 "We, the jury, in the above-entitled case, upon our
5 oaths, do say:

10 "As to Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

11 "As to Eric J. Parker, not guilty.

12 "And as to Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

13 "As to Count Two of the superseding indictment

21 charging that the defendants committed or aided and abetted the 22 commission of assault on a federal officer, we, the jury,
23 unanimously find the Defendant:

24 "O. Scott Drexler," and then it's blank on both of 25 the -- there's a line for guilty and not guilty, and both of

1 those are blank.

2 "For Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

3 "For Eric J. Parker, no verdict.

4 "And for Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

5 "As to Count Six of the superseding indictment

13 "And as to Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

14 "As to Count Eight of the superseding indictment
15 charging that the defendants committed or aided and abetted the

17 we, the jury, unanimously find the defendant:

18 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

19 "Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

20 "Eric J. Parker, no verdict.

21 "And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

22 "Then as to Count Nine of the superseding indictment
23 charging that the defendants committed or aided and abetted the 24 commission of use and carry of a firearm during and in relation

1 enforcement officer, we, the jury, unanimously find as to:

2 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

3 "As to Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

4 "As to Eric J. Parker, no verdict.

5 "And as to Stewart A." -- I'm sorry. "Steven A.
6 Stewart, not guilty.

7 "Count Twelve. As to Count Twelve of the superseding
8 indictment charging that the defendants committed or aided and 9 abetted the commission of obstruction of the due administration
10 of justice, we, the jury, unanimously find the defendant:

11 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

12 "Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

13 "Eric J. Parker, not guilty.

14 "And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

15 "Count Fourteen of the superseding indictment
16 charging that the defendants committed or aided and abetted the 17 commission of interference with interstate commerce by 18 extortion, we, the jury, unanimously find the defendant:

19 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

20 "Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

21 "Eric J. Parker, not guilty.

22 "And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

23 "As to Count Fifteen of the superseding indictment
24 charging that the defendants committed or aided and abetted the 25 commission of use and carry of a firearm, during and in

1 relation to a crime of violence, Count Fourteen, interference
2 with interstate commerce by extortion, we, the jury,
3 unanimously find as to:

4 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

5 "As to Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

6 "As to Eric J. Parker, not guilty.

7 "And as to Steven A. Stewart, not guilty."

8 And last, "Count Sixteen. As to Count Sixteen of the 9 superseding indictment charging that the defendants committed
10 or aided and abetted the commission of interstate travel in aid
11 of extortion, we, the jury, unanimously find the defendants:

12 "O. Scott Drexler, not guilty.

13 "Ricky R. Lovelien, not guilty.

14 "Eric J. Parker, not guilty.

15 "And Steven A. Stewart, not guilty.

16 "So say we all. Dated this 22nd day of August 2017
17 and signed by the jury foreperson."

18 So, first of all, Mr. Foreperson, did I read that 19 correctly? Is this your verdict, sir?

20 FOREPERSON: You did, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. And now let's go ahead and 22 poll the jury starting with Juror No. 1.

23 All right. Juror No. 1, is this your verdict?

24 JUROR NO. 1: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. Juror No. 2, is this your

1 verdict?

2 JUROR NO. 2: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Juror No. 3, is this your verdict?

4 JUROR NO. 3: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. Juror No. 4, is this your

6 verdict?

7 JUROR NO. 4: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And Juror No. 5, is this your verdict?

9 JUROR NO. 5: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And Juror No. 6, is this your verdict?

11 JUROR NO. 6: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Juror No. 7, is this your verdict?

13 JUROR NO. 7: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Juror No. 8, is this your verdict?

15 JUROR NO. 8: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Bring it down to No. 9, please.

17 Juror No. 9, is this your verdict?

18 JUROR NO. 9: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Juror No. 10, is this your verdict?

20 JUROR NO. 10: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Juror No. 11, is this your verdict?

22 JUROR NO. 11: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: And Juror No. 12, is this your verdict?

24 JUROR NO. 12: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much. We are

1 going to ask you to hold on for a minute. I do need to enter
2 an order here, and then you are invited to stay if you'd like
3 to. You don't have to. This would terminate your jury
4 service, and you're excused if you want to.

5 But if you do wish to stay, you are invited to stay
6 and meet with myself and the attorneys in the case, in the back
7 room, or one of those back rooms back there somewhere, so that
8 quietly you can ask us any questions you have. The attorneys
9 can ask you any questions you have -- they have.

10 If there's anything you do not want to discuss, you
11 don't have to. If there's anything you want to ask, you are 12 free now finally to discuss the case, not only amongst 13 yourselves, but with everyone.

14 Likewise, I will provide to you in the mail an 15 evaluation form with a different page for each attorney and a
16 page for the staff and a page for the facility. There will be 17 an envelope that is self-addressed with the postage on it, with 18 stamps on it.

19 All you need to do is fill it out, put it in the 20 envelope, and mail it. You don't need to give me your name if 21 you don't want to, and it just helps us to know how we're doing
22 with the facility, the food, my staff. The attorneys like the 23 feedback as well, constructive criticism, good or bad. Believe
24 me, they -- they appreciate it very much to know anything that 25 you want to share confidentially.

1 I only provide the one page to each attorney that
2 refers to them. So, the one page that asks about Mr. Tanasi
3 will only go to Mr. Tanasi. The one page that asks about
4 Miss Ahmed, will only go to Miss Ahmed. So, they will only
5 receive information about themselves. So, be honest is what
6 I'm saying. Feel free to be honest about anything you want to 7 say.

8 All right. So, Aaron, help me here, because I think
9 that Mr. Lovelien was all unanimously not guilty, but --

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: -- I want to make sure I am right.

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor,
13 as well Mr. Stewart.

14 THE COURT: All right. So, the Court does vacate
15 then Mr. Lovelien's detention order. Number 100 is vacated.
16 And as to Mr. Stewart, number 232 is also vacated.

17 And as previously discussed with counsel, I did find
18 a setting for a hearing that we can discuss in moment. So, I
19 do need to ask you about the remaining counts that were blank
20 where there's no verdict.

21 So, for Juror No. 11 -- does he have the microphone?
22 I'm sorry.

23 FOREPERSON: I probably have a loud enough voice,
24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You probably do, but I don't think it

1 will be recorded, so let's just get you the microphone. There
2 you go.

3 FOREPERSON: Yes, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: All right. So, is there anything else
5 that the Court can do for you to assist the jury in 6 deliberations so that you may render a verdict on the remaining
7 counts?

8 FOREPERSON: I do not believe so, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And would an additional instruction
10 assist you in your deliberations?

11 FOREPERSON: I do not believe so, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: And would additional clarification of a
13 preexisting instruction assist you?

14 FOREPERSON: I do not believe so, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And in your opinion, is the jury then
16 hopelessly deadlocked as to the remaining counts?

17 FOREPERSON: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And is there a reasonable probability 19 that the jury can reach a unanimous verdict if sent back to the 20 jury room for further deliberation?

21 FOREPERSON: There is not, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Now, I do need to poll the 23 jurors individually again, and I'm not asking you for how you
24 stand numerically. Please do not tell me any other information
25 than "yes" or "no" in response to this.

1 All right. So, Juror No. 1, do you feel that there
2 is a reasonable probability that the jury can reach a unanimous
3 verdict if I sent you back to the jury room for further
4 deliberations?

5 JUROR NO. 1: No, I do not, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

7 Juror No. 2, do you feel there is a reasonable
8 probability that the jury can reach a unanimous verdict if I
9 permit you to continue deliberations?

10 JUROR NO. 2: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 Juror No. 3, do you feel that there is a reasonable
13 probability that the jury may continue?

14 JUROR NO. 3: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank you. Juror No. 4, same question.

16 JUROR NO. 4: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Juror No. 5, same question?

19 JUROR NO. 5: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And Juror No. 6?

21 JUROR NO. 6: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Juror No. 7?

23 JUROR NO. 7: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Juror No. 8?

25 JUROR NO. 8: No.

1 THE COURT: Bring the microphone back down to No. 9.
2 Juror No. 9?

3 JUROR NO. 9: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Juror No. 10?

6 JUROR NO. 10: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Juror No. 11?

8 JUROR NO. 11: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And Juror No. 12?

10 JUROR NO. 12: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. So, as to Mr. Drexler, the 12 remaining Counts No. Five and Six, the Court does enter a
13 mistrial as to those counts.

14 And as for Mr. Parker, the remaining counts are Five,
15 Six, Eight, and Nine, and the Court does enter a mistrial as to 16 those remaining counts.

17 Aaron, do you have a date for me -- well, I guess I
18 should first ask as to Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker, is there a
19 motion to be made?

20 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. As to Mr. Parker, we 21 would make a motion to reopen his detention hearing.

22 THE COURT: All right. And do you have a
23 suggested -- can we do it tomorrow morning or do you want to do
24 it today?

25 MR. MARCHESE: I would imagine, without asking him, I

1 think he would like it as soon as possible.

2 THE COURT: All right. And Mr. Leventhal?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. The same on behalf
4 of Mr. Drexler. We would like to reopen his detention hearing,
5 and today would be great.

6 THE COURT: Is the government ready to proceed today
7 or tomorrow morning? What is your preference?

8 MR. MYHRE: Our preference would be tomorrow morning,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to go ahead and 11 reopen the detention hearing with a temporary order that 12 Mr. Drexler and Mr. Parker are to be released to the halfway
13 house until tomorrow morning.

14 So then tomorrow morning, we can have the detention
15 hearing. I don't think that it's necessary for them to be 16 taken back to Pahrump tonight, although they probably need to 17 go back and get their things, but I will let the attorneys
18 figure out the details, but we will have the detention hearing
19 first thing tomorrow morning.

20 Aaron, do you have a --

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Time for tomorrow, Your
22 Honor?

23 THE COURT: Yes. I do need to get a pretrial release
24 updated report, but I don't expect there will be anything
25 different, because they'll be in custody. I could set this for

1 the magistrate judge, but I don't see any point in doing that,
2 because I was here and not the magistrate judge.

3 So, I'm sorry. What time did you say? 9:00 a.m.?

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Tomorrow, Your Honor, we
5 can do 9:30 a.m. for Mr. Parker and 10:30 a.m. tomorrow for
6 Mr. Drexler.

7 THE COURT: All right. So 9:30 and 10:30.
8 Mr. Parker at 9:30 and Mr. Drexler at 10:30. And does that
9 date and time work for you, Mr. Leventhal?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese.

12 MR. MARCHESE: I will make it work.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: I assume the Court doesn't need
14 anything in writing, since they have been in detention all this 15 time. Nothing is changed from the first detention; is that
16 correct?

17 THE COURT: I don't require anything in writing, but
18 I'm sure I'll need to hear some argument. But I am releasing
19 them to the halfway house until tomorrow morning, for them to 20 be brought into court, and then I'll consider, at that time,
21 what conditions or set of conditions could be fashioned for 22 them to be released to pretrial supervision.

23 As counsel is well aware, because these folks are 24 from out of town, they may not be eligible to leave first thing
25 tomorrow from the halfway house. There might need to be a home

1 visit conducted by the pretrial service in their home state and
2 so forth, and you know the way that that works.

3 But you can at least tonight start getting those
4 things in motion and contacting the pretrial office -- officer
5 who's assigned to this case, so that they can begin phone
6 calls, and checking on whatever they need to check on, and 7 contacting their counterpart in the other districts so that
8 that person can start checking on their background.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Is that clear enough? I mean, I
11 am not trying to be vague.

12 MR. MARCHESE: No, it's fine. I think it's something
13 we are probably just going to have to coordinate with the 14 marshals. We'll figure it out.

15 THE COURT: Well, I don't know how much you have to 16 coordinate with the marshals. I think you need to coordinate
17 with the pretrial office.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Well, that, too. I just meant getting 19 them to the halfway house.

20 THE COURT: The pretrial office is the one that has 21 the contract, though, for the beds, so that they would need to 22 make the arrangements and call and do that.

23 Right, Aaron? I mean, am I --

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Do you know offhand who is the pretrial

1 officer who is assigned?

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I don't. I'm trying to get
3 in touch with pretrial as we speak.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. All right. So that will be the
5 order. And obviously, it's a different situation for each
6 defendant, because it depends on where you are living and all
7 these other considerations. It's not always the same pretrial
8 officer either. So, we will try to get that information for 9 you as soon as possible.

10 All right. So, I think that that concludes our 11 hearing for today. Anything else that I forgot to mention?

12 I mean, obviously, a judgment of acquittal is entered
13 for Mr. Lovelien and for Mr. Stewart. Anything else?

14 Well, and a judgment of acquittal on the counts that 15 Mr. Drexler and Mr. Drexler were -- Parker and Drexler.
16 Anything else?

17 MR. MYHRE: Nothing from the government, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, we are going --

19 MR. TANASI: Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Yes.

21 MR. TANASI: Overabundance of caution.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. TANASI: You did vacate 232; correct?

24 THE COURT: I did. 232, yes.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So, we are going to go
2 ahead and recess. And I do invite the jury to stay if you want
3 to. Like I said, if you don't want to, you don't have to. But 4 we do appreciate it. You've provided us with a lot of time and
5 attention and patience, so don't feel obligated, but we would
6 really like it if you could stay.

7 And with that, we'll go ahead and recess. And 8 counsel, you do what you need to do, but if you can join us in 9 the back room, you are welcome to do that. It's just for 10 counsel.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, one last point.
12 The alternates are also excused; correct?

13 THE COURT: Oh, yes. So, Mike, I will order that the 14 alternates are excused and welcome to join us in the conference
15 room as well if they'd like to.

16 All right. Thank you everybody. And thank you to 17 the public. You showed a very respectful amount of patience,
18 and I appreciate it. I know it's an emotional case, but we 19 will -- I will leave it at that.

20 So, thank you to everyone, and we are off record.

21 (Recess, 3:46 p.m. Resumed 5:13 p.m. Sandra Bustos, 22 Pretrial Services, present.)

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for

1 the hearing in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United States of
2 America versus Eric Parker and O. Scott Drexler.

3 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

4 MR. MYHRE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Steven
5 Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United
6 States.

7 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Good evening, Your Honor. Jess
9 Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

10 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Todd
12 Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, I did order that the 14 defendant be released to the halfway house. I am told that the 15 halfway house bed is not yet available, but it will be 16 available. And when it is available, I need to say magic words
17 for it to be paid for by pretrial, so that it can be part of 18 the contract.

19 So, I am going to release both Mr. Parker and 20 Mr. Drexler on bond. They are to reside at the halfway house
21 on lockdown and be subject to pretrial supervision.

22 I'm not going to order any conditions at this time,
23 but we will still have the hearing on for tomorrow morning.

24 It was 9:30. Was it Parker first?

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: 9:30 for Parker. 10:30 for Mr. Drexler.
2 Obviously, if anybody has an alternative place to stay, that
3 would be something that you should consider bringing up
4 tomorrow. And please work with the pretrial office so that
5 they have an opportunity to have someone visit the location,
6 and make sure that it's adequate, and appropriate, and so
7 forth, and they can be a condition that would satisfy the 8 requirements.

9 All right. So, that is the order. Anything -- any 10 other magic words from the pretrial officer that I need to say
11 on the record?

12 PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, that will be the order.
14 We will see you back here tomorrow morning. Thank you for your
15 patience.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.
