3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Outside the presence of the venire panel at 8:56 a.m.:)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day One, in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

12 MR. MHYRE: Good morning, Your Honor.

13 Steve Mhyre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf
14 of the United States.

15 THE COURT: Good morning, Ms. Ahmed, Ms. Creegan,
16 Mr. Myhre.

17 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor.

18 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present. Also 19 with us at counsel table is Tori Bakken, Nona Dodson --

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. TANASI: -- and Brian Glinn.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

25 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

1 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Marchese.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

3 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

4 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Leventhal.

5 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

6 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: And good morning, Mr. Perez.

8 All right. Well, before we bring in the jury, I just 9 want to make some preliminary remarks so that everyone has 10 expectations about how court will be conducted today. Please
11 remember that this is a courtroom, it is not a sporting event
12 so it is never appropriate for anyone to make any expression of 13 their opinions, either verbally or through conduct or body
14 language, no matter how much you might disagree or agree with 15 something that's being said. So the marshals and the Court
16 Security Officers have been authorized to remove anyone from 17 the courtroom who does not comport with these expectations.

18 Also, the attorneys all have microphones. They may 19 use those at the desk if they are more comfortable or they may 20 come up to the podium which has been redirected to point
21 towards the jurors. So you're welcome to use either one.

22 The same holds true for the defendants, as does for 23 the public. Please do not make any statements or inappropriate
24 body language. Do not try to speak out of turn. Your 25 attorneys are here for you to speak for you, and please also

1 make sure, if you're in the public and you have an electronic
2 device, you need to take it outside. There's no electronic
3 devices that are permitted in the courtroom. Even if they're
4 turned off or in vibrate mode, they're never permitted. There
5 is no recording, no audio or video recording that is permitted
6 in federal court.

7 All right. So we're going to go ahead and bring in
8 the jury. The attorneys --

9 MR. TANASI: Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry. I didn't mean to interrupt
12 you.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MR. TANASI: Given the fact that there were a few
15 orders that were filed this morning and were -- at least I saw
16 them this morning, we're all kind of processing them and I
17 think they, at least at some level, kind of even impact how our 18 jury selection will go this morning. And so, given that, I
19 think the parties, at least on the defense side, would request
20 at least another half hour or so just to kind of process the 21 orders and still talk amongst ourselves and then make sure
22 we're kind of all on the same page before we get started with 23 jury selection.

24 THE COURT: All right. Aaron, I thought I saw the 25 jury through the window, through the door there. Are they

1 already in the hallway, or not yet?

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I don't think they've been 3 brought up.

4 THE COURT: Oh, good. Okay. Then yes. Let's go
5 ahead and take a half hour. It's 9:00 now, so we'll start at 6 9:30, which means we may not take a bathroom break before noon,
7 but we'll play it by ear and see how that goes. Obviously if a
8 juror needs to use the rest room, then we definitely will.
9 Otherwise, use the bathroom before we come back at 9:30.

10 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you.

11 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, before the jury comes 12 in, the Government would also like to discuss whether there are 13 some jurors that we can eliminate for cause based on their 14 questionnaires so that we can conserve time questioning jurors.

15 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you go ahead and 16 make a list and confer with defense counsel and if they agree,
17 I'll be happy to excuse anyone that everyone agrees need to be 18 excused anyway. There are quite a few that say they know
19 people and have already decided and they're not going to change
20 their mind no matter what, so obviously those are clear, but 21 there's quite a few that are not clear. There's one person who 22 said he's not over the age of 18, but yet he's got a
23 46-year-old wife and has been working for 20 years as a phone
24 operator, but he says he doesn't speak English. So there's -- 25 there's a few questions we just are going to have to spend some

1 time exploring, unless all of you just decide that you don't
2 even want to bother with exploring and you think if a person
3 can't follow directions on a questionnaire, maybe this isn't 4 the right trial for them. If you agree that person should be
5 excused, I'm willing to consider that as well.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

7 MR. TANASI: So, Your Honor, given that, maybe then
8 an hour? Would that make more sense, I think?

9 THE COURT: Is that all right with the Government?

10 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. So it's 9:00 now, we'll come
13 back at 10:00.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Judge.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

16 (Recess was taken at 9:01 a.m.)

17 (Outside presence of the venire panel at 10:13 a.m.:)

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

20 Did you want to call the case, Aaron, or can we just 21 get started?

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I think we can just get
23 started. We can call it later, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So we're back on the record
25 and the parties did request a little extra time. Everyone have

1 sufficient time? Are we ready to begin? Anyone have a reason
2 why we should not begin?

3 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor. I
4 apologize.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 (Counsel conferring.)

7 MR. TANASI: I think we're ready, Your Honor.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, just for Mr. Parker at 9 least, I wanted to make a record in reference to obviously the 10 Court's ruled and I'm not here to sway anyone's opinions or 11 beliefs on the Court's rulings, however, I just wanted to make 12 one point in reference to the state of mind stuff. Obviously,
13 Mr. Parker testified at the last trial. He's been disallowed
14 from testifying as to certain topics at this trial,
15 specifically references to Ammon Bundy getting Tased,
16 references to First Amendment zones, references to 17 Margaret Houston getting thrown on the ground, reference to a
18 statement that he saw from Governor Sandoval, amongst other
19 things. So that was successfully argued by the Government that 20 we are unable to bring that up, but I just wanted to point out
21 that we are now in a very tenuous situation given the fact that 22 we are unable to argue state of mind in reference to key
23 elements of the charges, specifically the conspiracy,
24 specifically the obstruction, specifically traveling in
25 interstate commerce, and specifically I'm looking at the jury

1 instructions which says that the defendants must travel with
2 the intent to commit a crime of violence in furtherance of an
3 unlawful activity, mainly extortion. So, it's our position
4 that we have been cut off from arguing that specific element
5 and we cannot mount a defense because we are unable to say why
6 our clients traveled in interstate commerce and we're stuck
7 with basically the negative inference that they want there for 8 extortion. We wasn't -- they went there to get the cattle.
9 So, based upon that, I wanted to build a record about that.

10 In addition, in looking at some of the Court's other
11 orders, there was a reference to Trial 1 in reference to our
12 inability to get self-defense instructions. It is our position
13 that we should still be allowed to present that evidence. We 14 will bring more witnesses. We will bring more evidence at this 15 particular trial and we should have the ability to mount that 16 evidence before the Court. Now, if, at the end, if we have not 17 met our burden, then we will not get that instruction. But, we 18 should not be precluded from being able to argue it because we 19 will now bring more evidence and more witnesses forward.

20 So, based upon that, I just wanted to bring up those 21 two particular issues, and that's pretty much it. I don't know
22 if anyone else wanted to elaborate as well.

23 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: The Government wish to respond?

25 I mean, clearly, the parties can't argue or present

1 evidence that is not relevant. If the defense or the charge is
2 not legally recognizable, then the evidence that's only
3 relevant to that defense is not relevant. If it's relevant to 4 something else, then you make a proffer of why it is relevant
5 and therefore it probably is admissible. But I -- the way that 6 the motion was styled was whether or not the evidence could be
7 admitted when the jury instruction was not legally cognizable.
8 Therefore, if that's the only reason why that evidence is 9 offered, then it couldn't be relevant --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

11 THE COURT: -- if that jury instruction is not
12 readily available.

13 MR. MARCHESE: No. I understand. I'm not here to 14 relitigate what happened in the last trial.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. MARCHESE: That's ancient history, so to speak.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I just wanted to make sure that 18 you understood it since it was . . .

19 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. Okay. No. I understand.

20 THE COURT: Anything else you wanted to add?

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, our position is on the record
22 that with respect to the motion we made and the Court has 23 articulated the basis. The defendants, as the Court has ruled,
24 may proffer whatever evidence they deem -- they believe is 25 relevant and we can address it at that point, but within the

1 strictures of the Court's order, we believe that it's properly
2 precluded at this point.

3 THE COURT: All right. All right. So let's go ahead
4 and we're going to bring the jury in. We do always stand when
5 the jury comes into the courtroom or exits the courtroom
6 because they will potentially be the judge of the facts.

7 So, are we ready to bring them in, Aaron?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor. It will
9 take a minute to get them up.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we did have a few, not too
12 many, but we did we have a few that we could agree to remove.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Those are Jurors 38 and 213.

15 THE COURT: 38 and 213.

16 MS. CREEGAN: And the Government would like to move
17 to remove some additional jurors based on their questionnaires
18 as well that were not agreed.

19 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we would move to remove 21 Jurors 17, 41, 120.

22 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Wait. This pen's not
23 working.

24 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

25 Okay. Start again. Number?

1 MS. CREEGAN: 17.

2 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

3 MS. CREEGAN: 41, 120, 124, 227, 301, 336, and 398.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Up to 301.

5 MS. CREEGAN: 336, and 398.

6 THE COURT: I don't have a 336.

7 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry, 366. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: 366. Okay. So after 301 was 366, and 9 then?

10 MS. CREEGAN: 398.

11 THE COURT: And 398.

12 All right. Does the defense have any additional that 13 you want me to consider excusing?

14 MR. TANASI: Nothing additional at this time,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, Number 17 says
17 that they are familiar with the Bundys personally and are not 18 sure they can be unbiased and are not willing to serve.

19 Is there any other reason I didn't mention?

20 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor. Those are the grounds.

21 THE COURT: And then Number 41 says that they cannot 22 or should not serve because there was no deaths, so leave it
23 alone.

24 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: Number 120 says they'll vote

1 automatically for not guilty so matter what.

2 Number 124 thinks they're already guilty and hard
3 time paying attention, among some other things.

4 Did you say 121?

5 MS. CREEGAN: 301. I have 17, 41, 120, 124, 227,
6 301, 366, 398.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So 227 has strong opinions and 8 says that the federal government should govern federal land.

9 301, not willing to serve because it's a waste of 10 taxpayer money.

11 366 thinks Bundys are entitled Americans . . . defied
12 authority.

13 Oh, yes, and 398 is a . . . paralegal from the 14 Federal Public Defender's Office who says it would be difficult
15 to be fair and impartial. They actually have worked with the 16 attorneys handling this case. So, that's fair enough.

17 Any objection to dismissing Juror No. 398, the 18 Federal Public Defender paralegal that worked on this case?

19 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

20 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think with respect to 22 Number 398, my understanding is the individuals that they 23 reference that they're aware of or that they know are not 24 defense lawyers that are necessarily at this counsel table and 25 my recollection of my discussion with the Government up to this

1 point was that that was one of the concerns as well and, I
2 mean, again, it's not as though one of those individuals is
3 seated here at counsel table. So, I don't think that without 4 further questioning we'd have a basis to let them go at this
5 point.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 398 has indicated that they work
7 with all of the lawyers on the Bundy case as colleagues, that
8 they know a great deal about the case from that work.

9 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, if we're going to 10 exclude people who know a great deal about the case, we're 11 probably going to end up with a lot of excusals.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Respectfully, that's not true. Many,
13 many jurors answered that they did not know very much about the 14 case or didn't remember what the news was about the case.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, this person admits that 16 they are a paralegal with the Federal Public Defender's Office.
17 The Federal Public Defender's Office does represent a defendant
18 in this case and they also state that it would be difficult for 19 them to be fair and impartial. So I'm going to excuse
20 Juror No. 398.

21 Likewise, the two jurors that the parties agreed to 22 excuse, Number 38 and Number 213 will also be excused.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, was that 215 or 24 213?

25 THE COURT: What was the question?

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Was that Juror 215 or 213
2 that was excused?

3 THE COURT: 213. We don't have a 215.

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. So apparently, there's a
6 couple of jurors that did not appear today and that was -- we 7 sort of knew that was likely to happen because we changed the 8 date on their summons. They were originally going to be here
9 in June and then it got changed. So Jurors No. 147, 53, 181,
10 201, 347, 381, and 387 are not here.

11 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

12 THE COURT: I didn't get chance to look through all 13 of them, but, for example, like, 201 was the one that said they 14 were living in Tonopah, but they also said they were willing to 15 serve, but . . . apparently they couldn't make it. So, if --
16 if it turns out that they come in, maybe we can see them
17 tomorrow if they are available and just weren't --
18 misunderstood what date they were supposed to be here. If 19 there's some other reason, then we'll deal with that later,
20 but, just so you know, if you've got them in order, those folks
21 did, though, show up today.

22 At the end we will need 44 jurors.

23 So, Mike, do you have them ready?

24 JURY COMMISSIONER: We have them ready, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and bring them

1 in. We'll all stand.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Wait. Your Honor --

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, have you reserved judgment
4 on the remaining jurors?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we just, real quick, read those 7 numbers off, 17 -- I got the number -- people that are not
8 here. I just need to -- we went quick for --

9 THE COURT: 38 was excused, 213 was excused, and 398
10 was excused.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: 38, 213, 398?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Those three.

14 Thank you.

15 (Venire panel entered courtroom at 10:28 a.m.)

16 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: The jury can go ahead and be seated. Go
18 ahead and sit down.

19 All right. Everyone go ahead and be seated.

20 Thank you, ladies and gentlemen of the prospective
21 jury for being here this morning. I know that it's been 22 continued a few times and you weren't sure exactly when you
23 were supposed to be here. So, I appreciate your patience and 24 flexibility with us. It's not the first time that we've asked
25 you to be flexible and patient and unfortunately, it won't be

1 the last.

2 This is a criminal Jury Trial and I'm going to go
3 ahead and get started and explain a few things to you here.

4 First of all, you've been summoned to Court as a
5 panel of prospective jurors to serve in the criminal case. And 6 so I know most of you have family and jobs to care for and tend
7 to and taking time out of your busy day is never convenient.
8 However, this is recognized as the highest duty of citizenship,
9 a duty that you can provide outside of military service. In 10 addition to being important, it's also, I assure you, going to 11 be an interesting experience.

12 Most folks who tell me that they've received a jury
13 summons weren't sure whether they were trying to get out of it.
14 That's a common, I think, reaction when people receive a jury
15 summons, but after they serve as a juror, they always say how 16 interesting they found it, how important that they felt that 17 the responsibility was, and very few people have a lot of 18 complaints about serving on the jury that would cause them not
19 to want to do it again. Some people complain about how long it
20 takes, and that's a reasonable complaint, but otherwise, it
21 usually is an interesting one. You don't find anyone who says
22 it doesn't -- it wasn't interesting.

23 Our system of justice does depend upon good citizens
24 such as yourselves to serve as jurors in our federal courtrooms
25 throughout the nation every day. And I know that if any of you

1 were a party to case, in this or any other court, you would
2 want the case decided by a jury comprised of citizens much like
3 yourselves.

4 So I'm going to have Aaron administer the oath to 5 you. If you'll please stand.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All those jurors, please
7 rise and raise your right hand.

8 "You, and each of you, do solemnly swear or affirm
9 that true answers you will make to such questions as are 10 propounded to you touching upon your qualifications to act as 11 jurors in the cause now pending before this Court, so help you
12 God?"

13 Please say "I do."

14 VENIRE PANEL: I do.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. You may be
16 seated.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, before I tell you a
18 little bit about the case, I just want to make sure you
19 understand why a jury is being called and why it's important.
20 It's not a Bench Trial, which means that even though I am the 21 judge, I'm not going to be the person who is deliberating the 22 verdict in the case. Parties have a right to a Jury Trial,
23 which means to have a jury decide the case and this goes back
24 traditionally to the Constitution where we acknowledge that a
25 party has a right to a jury of community peers. So not

1 professionals, not folks who have nothing better to do, not
2 people from a certain part of town and not from a different
3 part of town, not people who are of a particular age and not of 4 a different age, but a cross-section of the community, so, a
5 diverse set of folks who can equally be fair and unbiased and 6 determine the outcome of a case.

7 So, this case, which will be tried, will require me
8 to ask you certain questions and the purpose of these questions
9 is to examine your qualifications to serve as jurors in this 10 case. Just like you would for any other job that you might 11 apply for, there are qualifications that need to be met for you
12 to be able to serve on the case as a juror.

13 When I say jurors who can accord a fair and impartial
14 trial, I mean jurors who can judge this case solely on the 15 basis of the factual evidence which will be presented in court
16 during the course of trial and who can follow the instructions
17 of law which must govern your conduct in deliberations as I
18 give them to you.

19 So the questions that you will be asked today are not 20 designed to embarrass any of you and I will now ask -- just 21 introduce to you a little bit about the case. It's not a
22 substitute for evidence that will be presented later or for the 23 detailed instructions which I will provide to you as well later
24 at the close of the case. This is just to give you a flavor of 25 the case so that you can answer these questions more

1 intelligently.

2 So, this is a criminal case. It was filed by the
3 United States. I may sometimes refer to them as the 4 prosecution or as the Government.

5 The United States has filed this criminal case
6 against four individuals that are here today, Eric Parker,
7 O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.
8 Sometimes you will hear me refer to them by name and other
9 times you will hear me refer to them as the defendants.

10 The defendants are charged in a document called an 11 Indictment as follows:

12 The defendants are charged with multiple violations
13 of federal law arising from events occurring at or near the 14 town of Bunkerville in Clark County, Nevada, between March of 15 2014 and April of 2014. Federal law enforcement officers were 16 enforcing court orders to impound cattle belonging to 17 Cliven Bundy which were grazing unlawfully on federal public
18 lands. The Indictment charges the defendants conspired with 19 and/or aided and abetted Bundy and others to threaten and use
20 force and violence to interfere with the officers while they 21 executed their duties to enforce the court orders.

22 Now, you should clearly understand that this is just
23 a summary of the Indictment; it is not in any sense evidence.
24 The defendants have entered pleas of not guilty to these 25 charges and they are presumed by law to be innocent of the

1 charges. The defendants, even though they are accused, they
2 start the trial with a clean slate. There is no evidence that
3 has been presented or offered to you against them and the law
4 permits nothing but legal evidence to be presented in this
5 court to be considered by the jury against the accused.

6 So, I must remind you that the law permits you to 7 consider only the factual evidence presented and legally
8 admitted in court before you arrive at a verdict in the case
9 and that means that you are never to conduct any independent
10 investigation on your own at any time.

11 Now, a criminal charge consists of factual elements.
12 The Government has the burden of proving each of the elements
13 of the charges beyond a reasonable doubt. Remember, a 14 defendant in a criminal case does not have to introduce any 15 evidence or -- and they also do not have to prove their 16 innocence.

17 The defendants are presumed to be innocent, now and
18 throughout the trial, unless and until the jury is persuaded
19 that the Government has introduced evidence to establish that 20 the defendants are guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

21 The purpose of this trial is for you to determine
22 whether the Government can meet that burden. A defendant must 23 be acquitted if the Government fails to prove the guilt beyond
24 a reasonable doubt.

25 Now, in a case, the judge and the jury have divided

1 responsibilities. It is my duty to preside over the trial and
2 decide questions of law during trial, and to instruct the jury
3 as to the law applicable to the case.

4 On the other hand, the most important duty in a
5 criminal trial is reserved for the jury. And it will be your
6 duty to judge the facts and to pass judgment upon the
7 defendants.

8 So that's something that's a little different than 9 everyone sort of forgets, I think, is that sometimes we have a
10 Bench Trial where I'm the judge of everything, but when we have 11 a Jury Trial then we split up the duties. I'm always the judge
12 of the law, but the jury now becomes the judge of the facts and 13 they are the individuals collectively who pass judgment.

14 Now, each of you is going to be asked a question, a 15 series of questions really and if the answer to any of 16 questions is yes, please go ahead and raise your hand and then
17 we'll have the microphone brought over to you so that you can
18 answer the question.

19 I am asking these questions to enable myself, the 20 Court, to determine a couple of things:

21 First, whether anyone should be excused for cause.
22 As I mentioned earlier, there are qualifications that are
23 required by statute before a person may be able to serve on a 24 jury. Justice Kennedy, on the Supreme Court, likes to refer to 25 this as the job requirements for serving on a government board.

1 There are certain requirements; you have to be over the age of
2 18 and things like that. So we'll go through those one by one
3 to make sure that everyone here is qualified.

4 Then there are other questions that are going to be
5 asked which are going to enable the attorneys for both parties
6 to determine how best to exercise their individual judgment
7 with respect to their peremptory challenges. Peremptory
8 challenges are different than the for cause challenges.
9 Peremptory just means that they can excuse a jury without
10 stating a particular reason for why they want to excuse
11 someone.

12 The parties do have a small number of peremptory
13 challenges so they may choose to ask you follow-up questions
14 when I'm done. So they won't be asking you new questions, but 15 they'll be asking you follow-up questions if there's some gray
16 areas or some things that need to be clarified.

17 So I'll ask court reporter that unless one or more of 18 the jurors raises his or her hand, the record will reflect a
19 negative response to the question.

20 So, let's go ahead and make sure that everybody is 21 seated in the right place first of all.

22 Will Juror No. 17 please raise your hand.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 Juror No. 84.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

2 THE COURT: And 103?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

4 THE COURT: Perfect so far.

5 Juror No. 139.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Juror No. 121.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Juror No. 120.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

13 THE COURT: Okay. And now over here. Let's see,
14 Juror No. 148.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 Juror No. 186.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

19 THE COURT: Juror No. 207.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Juror No. 291.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

24 THE COURT: Okay. And Juror No. 227.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Juror No. 296.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Number 351.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 Juror No. 480.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 And Juror No. 366.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Indicating).

13 THE COURT: Okay. Great. So everyone seems to be 14 seated in the right place.

15 All right. So, first of all, if you want to -- you
16 can either just listen to me if you're -- if you're better as a
17 listener, but if you want to see, there is the screen here
18 (indicating) that also is available for you.

19 So, there are a number of different qualifications,
20 as I explained earlier, in order to be qualified to serve on a
21 jury.

22 The first one is you must be a citizen of the United
23 States.

24 Second. You must be at least 18 years of age.

25 Third. You must be able to read, write, and speak

1 and understand the English language, all of them. Read them --
2 read the English language, write, speak, and understand.

3 And Number 4. You must have resided in the state of 4 Nevada for at least one year.

5 So please raise your hand if you think that you do
6 not meet all of these four qualifications.

7 (No hands raised.)

8 All right. So that's a negative.

9 Now, there are three more qualifications.

10 Number 5 is you must not have any federal criminal
11 charges pending against you.

12 Number 6 is you must not have any prior felony
13 convictions or your rights -- your civil rights have not been 14 restored. So if you do have a prior felony conviction but your 15 civil right was stored, you're enabled to serve, but if they
16 were not restored, then you are not qualified to serve.

17 And in case you're wondering what is a felony, a
18 felony is a criminal charge punishable by more than one year in 19 prison. So, a traffic ticket generally is not. A traffic
20 ticket is generally a misdemeanor. Some kinds of traffic
21 tickets can be a felony, like your third offense at a DUI.

22 Now Number 7, the last qualification, is that you must 23 not have any mental or physical infirmities which could prevent 24 you from rendering satisfactory jury service.

25 So, it's okay if you have a bad knee or if your

1 shoulder hurts once in awhile. That's not going to prevent you
2 from rendering service. But, if you have any kind of condition
3 where maybe you have to take pain medication all the time and
4 you're going to be sleeping on and off, then you're not
5 qualified to serve.

6 So, does anyone have any questions about whether or
7 not they qualify regarding these last three qualifications?
8 Please raise your hands if you think that you do not qualify
9 based on these three.

10 All right. No one in the box, but we do have, I think 11 it's number -- Juror No. 229. Is that your number?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

13 THE COURT: All right. So we'll bring a microphone
14 over to you.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I suffer from chronic migraines.
18 I would love to serve, but I don't know when they come up and 19 at that time -- at those times I do have to take time off even
20 from work and take my medication, get shots, and I take -- I --
21 the lighting disturbs me and noise. So, I don't know if that's 22 going to be the case because I don't know when my migraines
23 come.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think -- I think she had a

1 question as well.

2 THE COURT: So, light and --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The lighting and noise.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And that affects your migraines
5 and when you --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, when I get them.

7 THE COURT: And when you do get them, you have to 8 leave even if you're at work?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I even -- yeah. I even leave
10 work and they can --

11 THE COURT: One person at a time. She can't -- she 12 can't write down both of us talking --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

14 THE COURT: -- at the same time.

15 Anything else?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And was there someone else who had 18 their hand up?

19 All right. Let's go ahead and pass the microphone
20 over. And what is your jury number?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 305.

22 THE COURT: 305. Thank you. Okay.

23 So which one of these qualifications do you think you
24 don't meet?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In regards to medical, I have a

1 history of shingles. I can't deal with stress, and I have all
2 my records from UMC. So I don't know if that would disqualify
3 because I get stressful easy when it come to, like, criminal
4 involvement.

5 THE COURT: All right. So, so I'm assuming -- you're 6 saying that you're -- do the shingles flare up when you are in 7 a stressful situation --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: -- is that what you're saying?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And when was the last time that 12 you had a flare?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, well, I haven't been under 14 stress. I try to avoid stress, so, it's been about two years.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 Anyone else?

17 What is your jury number?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 480.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do have irritable bowel as well
21 as migraines. I already have had shingles and the stress
22 activates all of those. I am on medication for all three.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Anyone else?

25 (No hands raised.)

1 All right. Let's move on.

2 Now, there are -- besides the qualifications, there
3 are other things which are referred to as excusals and these 4 are reasons why you may be excused and choose to exercise your 5 right to be excused and are not required to serve, but you're
6 still permitted to serve. So they're not like
7 qualifications -- you are permitted to serve -- but you do have 8 the option to not serve.

9 So, for example, Number 1, if you are more than 70
10 years of age, you're welcome to serve, but you're not required
11 to serve.

12 Number 2. If you have active care and custody of a
13 child or children under the age of 10 whose health or safety
14 would be jeopardized by your absence.

15 Number 3. If you provide essential care and custody
16 for an aged or infirmed person.

17 Or Number 4. If your service is so essential to the 18 operation of a business, a commercial or agricultural 19 enterprise that that enterprise would close if you were 20 required to perform jury duty.

21 So please raise your hand if you think any of these
22 excusals apply to you, and you would like to exercise them.

23 So, for example, if you are 70 years of age, but you
24 do want to serve on the jury, you don't have to raise your 25 hand. It's only if you -- if you do not want to serve on the

1 jury for one of these four reasons.

2 All right. So no one up here.

3 Your jury number please.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 175.

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have two children and it's
7 summer break right now and my husband works full time.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And how old are the children?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 13 and 8.

10 THE COURT: And who is home with them now?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My husband. It's his day off
12 today.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. And so -- 14 and you are -- you would rather be at home with the kids than
15 to --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, yeah. Yeah.

17 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. Thank you.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Anyone else?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm 0158.

21 I have chronic muscle spasms. It's really bad. I've 22 been having them since I was 8. My leg go numb and they goes
23 all over my bodies. It comes and it go. So I don't know if 24 that will stop me from doing jury duty, but it is a very bad
25 medical problem that I do have and I've been on muscle spasm

1 pills for maybe over six years, but it's so bad that it don't
2 help me.

3 THE COURT: Does it -- do you have a diagnosis?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do. They call it chronic
5 muscle spasms. It goes all over and my leg go numb and it's
6 really bad. It comes and it goes.

7 THE COURT: And you said you're currently taking
8 medication for this chronic muscle spasm?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am, but I kind of like stopped
10 because it don't help me. It wakes me out my sleep. Actually,
11 I don't really sleep at all.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

13 All right. And if you'd pass the microphone behind
14 you.

15 Oh, is there someone else -- I'm sorry. I saw her
16 hand first.

17 What's your number, please?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 240.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a six-year-old and a
21 one-year-old and I don't have, like, a daycare or set
22 babysitter. Right now they're with my friend.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So, would you say that the health
24 and safety of those children would be jeopardized if you needed
25 to serve?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They don't have a health
2 condition, but it's really hard to find somebody to watch them.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Was there someone else in the front row? No?

5 Okay. So moving on to the next page. There are four 6 more excusals.

7 Number 5. If you are a physician, a dentist, a
8 registered nurse, a registered pharmacist, an attorney-at-law,
9 a member of the clergy, a member of a religious order, school
10 administrator, a school teacher, or a volunteer safety
11 personnel, then you're not required to serve. You may choose
12 to serve, but you're not required.

13 Number 6. If you live more than 80 miles away one
14 way from the courthouse.

15 Number 7. If you previously served as a juror in 16 this federal court in the last two years.

17 And Number 8. If serving on this jury will cause you
18 an undue hardship or extreme inconvenience.

19 So please raise your hand if you would like to be 20 excused for any of these four reasons.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 199.

22 THE COURT: 199. Thank you. Yes.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the head of my household.

24 THE COURT: Say again.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the head of household, so I

1 make all of the money in household.

2 THE COURT: And how many people are in your
3 household?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's myself and my husband.

5 THE COURT: And so he's not working?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's working, but not as much I
7 am. So, part time.

8 THE COURT: You're the primary earner for the family?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

10 THE COURT: So would it be a financial hardship that 11 would -- and you would like to be excused?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

13 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else?

14 Yes.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 186.

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would be a financial hardship.
18 I'm the -- my wife works, too, but I'm the main -- the 19 breadwinner and the amount that the court pays is nowhere close
20 to what I make and I just got a new house and so . . .

21 THE COURT: Okay. So you would like to be excused as 22 well?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

24 THE COURT: Anyone else?

25 Teresa, up here in the front.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 121.

2 THE COURT: 121. Yes, sir.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I meet -- I meet Number 8.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Undue hardship or extreme
5 inconvenience?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And what is that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So, basically what it is, I, too,
9 am the main breadwinner in the house and basically me, I don't
10 mind serving on a jury except the fact that me serving on that 11 jury would bring hardship, financial hardship into the house as 12 far as paying the bills and stuff like that. I wouldn't be 13 making enough money to pay the bills as I would on my job.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And how many people are in your
15 household?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Two. One works part time. I
17 mean, it's one adult other than myself and two children, the 18 other one being, you know, 15 and 3 years old.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So, there's four people in your 20 household and one works part time and then you are the primary
21 earner?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Anyone else?

1 In the back. You're going to get your exercise
2 today.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning. I'm Juror 366.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I don't know if this
6 qualifies under -- under 8, hardship.

7 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a paid vacation
9 non-refundable and I leave on Saturday -- well, I'm supposed to 10 leave on Saturday.

11 THE COURT: For how long?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: From the 15th to the 24th.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So one week?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And is this vacation non-refundable,
16 prepaid, would be --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Non-refundable. Completely paid.
18 Um-hmm.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Anyone else?

22 (No hands raised.)

23 Okay. Let's move on.

24 There are also exemptions. We talked about the 25 qualifications. We talked about the excusals. Now we're going

1 to talk about the exemptions. You are barred from jury duty --
2 which means even if you want to serve you're not allowed to 3 serve -- if you are an active member of the armed forces of the 4 United States, Number 1.

5 Number 2. If you're a member of the fire or police
6 department of any state, district, territory, possession or 7 subdivision thereof.

8 Number 3. If you are a public official of the 9 United States or of any state or local government who is 10 elected to public office, or

11 Number 4. If you are a public official of the 12 United States or a state or local government who is directly
13 appointed by a person elected to office.

14 So, please raise your hand if you believe that any of 15 those -- these four exemptions applies to you.

16 (No hands raised.)

17 All right. So that's a negative.

18 Now I'm going to introduce to you the individuals
19 that are seated at counsel table and if you'll please stand up
20 when I call your name and remember to turn around so that the 21 jurors behind you can see you as well.

22 So, first of all, the acting U.S. Attorney for Nevada
23 is Steven Myhre. In this case the Government is represented by 24 the A -- two AUSAs, which is short for Assistant U.S. Attorney.
25 Sometimes you'll just hear me call them AUSAs. Erin Creegan

1 and Nadia Ahmed.

2 Do any of the prospective jurors know the acting
3 U.S. Attorney, Mr. Myhre, or any of the other attorneys,
4 Ms. Creegan or Ms. Ahmed? Please raise your hand if you know
5 them.

6 (No hands raised.)

7 All right. How about Mr. Myhre or Ms. Creegan, if 8 you'll introduce the other folks that will be part of your 9 team.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 We have seated here FBI Special Agent Sharon Gavin
12 (indicating). Next to her is Special Agent, FBI, Joel Willis
13 (indicating), and next to him is Bureau of Land Management 14 Special Agent Chris Allen (indicating).

15 And next to him is a legal assistant with our office,
16 Mamie Ott (indicating), and at the end is Special Agent, FBI,
17 Michael Abercrombie.

18 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

19 So, does -- do any of the members of the prospective
20 jury believe that they might recognize or know any of those
21 individuals?

22 (No hands raised.)

23 All right. So the next question is, even if they're 24 not here in court for this particular case, do any of you
25 believe you might know a different employee that works for the

1 same agency for the U.S. Attorney's Office?

2 Yes. We've got one over here in the front row.

3 Number, is it 139?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My husband works as a federal --
5 as a federal security guard in this building. I don't know if
6 that means anything, but I just wanted to let you know.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Is he a CSO?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's a security guard, yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Or is he with FPS.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Excuse me?

11 THE COURT: Do you know, is he with FPS or is he a
12 CSO?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's with Northwest Security.

14 THE COURT: Say that again. I'm sorry.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Northwest Security.

16 THE COURT: Northwest Security. FPS. Okay.

17 And does he work at this particular building or --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, right now he's kind of 19 going to different buildings, but he has worked in this 20 building for the last two years.

22 Okay. Anyone else?

23 One hand in the back.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0329.

25 My friend works in this building. Summer Rivera.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So who works in this building?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Summer Rivera.

3 THE COURT: Oh, yes. Okay. So she's related to you?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's been my friend for over 18
5 years.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 Anyone else?

8 (No hands raised.)

9 Okay. And just to clarify. So, the FPS, that's the 10 Federal Protective Service, they work for the executive branch
11 of government, but they don't work for the U.S. Attorney's
12 Office. They're in charge of protecting -- providing security
13 for the -- all federal buildings, so, to make sure no one, you
14 know, breaks a window or graffiti or anything like that, but 15 they don't have anything do with the prosecution of cases.

16 And as far as Summer Rivera, she's the jury
17 administrator for the Court. So again, she doesn't work for 18 the U.S. Attorney's Office. Her job is to contact you all and 19 let you know when it's your turn, send you the summons and then 20 find out if you're available and reschedule you as needed and 21 answer your questions and so forth and -- to assist you to make 22 sure that we have enough people here when we need them for 23 jury. So they -- so she doesn't work for the U.S. Attorney's
24 Office either.

25 All right. So, anyone else?

1 (No hands raised.)

2 Now, the defendants in this case, I said were four.
3 We'll have you stand up as I say your name. The first
4 defendant over here in the front row is Mr. Eric Parker and his 5 attorney is Jess Marchese.

6 If you'll please stand.

7 And then we also have -- actually I'm going to skip
8 over to Mr. Steve Stewart who is Number 4 on the list, and his 9 attorney, Richard Tanasi.

10 So please raise your hand if you think you are 11 familiar with either one of those two individuals.

12 (No hands raised.)

13 THE COURT: All right. You may go ahead and be 14 seated. Thank you very much.

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Then in the second row we 18 have Mr. -- let's see, O. Scott Drexler and his attorney, 19 Mr. Todd Leventhal, and then we also have Ms. Nona Dodson and,
20 I'm sorry, I forgot your name.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Tori Bakken.

22 THE COURT: Say that again.

23 MS. BAKKEN: Tori Bakken.

24 THE COURT: Tori Bakken.

25 So please raise your hand if you think that you are

1 familiar with any of these four individuals.

2 (No hands raised.)

3 That's a uniform no. Thank you.

4 And then in the last row we have Mr. Ricky Lovelien
5 and his attorney Shawn Perez.

6 So please let me know if you think that either one of 7 these two individuals is familiar to you. Someone you see at 8 the gym. Someone you see at the grocery store. Lives next
9 door. Picks up kids at the same school as yours, anything like 10 that. Any familiarity at all?

11 (No hands raised.)

12 No? Okay. Uniform no. Thank you very much.

13 So, all right. Now let's talk about the calendar in
14 this case.

15 Now, as I indicated, jury service is never 16 convenient. No one has a couple of weeks with nothing to do,
17 right? Everybody has something that they had scheduled or 18 planned to do today, tomorrow, the next day and so forth. So
19 my question is notwithstanding that fact, what I need to know
20 is whether this time frame would significantly interfere with 21 your ability.

22 The parties have estimated that this trial will take
23 approximately 8 to 12 weeks to complete. I'm going to outline
24 for you what that time frame looks like.

25 This week we will spend probably the next three days

1 or so selecting a jury. And then we will have a one-hour lunch
2 each day which will begin as soon as trial is -- the jury is
3 selected. So next week, for example, we would start at 4 9:00 a.m. with a one-hour lunch at noon and then we would 5 resume testimony until 5:00 p.m.

6 We also always take a morning bathroom break and an
7 afternoon bathroom break and that's usually -- the morning
8 break is usually around 10:00 a.m. and the afternoon break is 9 usually around 2:45, 3 o'clock, but any time that a juror needs
10 to take a break, all they have do is raise their hand and we go
11 take a break. So you're not forced to stay here if you don't 12 want to, but you do have the option to stand up and exercise
13 and get a drink or use the bathroom at least three times a day.

14 Fridays we are dark. I have over 600 other cases.
15 It's not my only case, so I have a very busy trial and we don't 16 have trial on Friday. So you will always be off on Fridays.

17 Sometimes you'll also be off on some of the other 18 days. As things come up sometimes, we have to cancel trial for 19 the morning or the afternoon or for the entire day. So I'll 20 never ask you to serve more time than what is on this calendar,
21 but sometimes you may serve less time than what's on this 22 calendar. So this calendar includes all the time that you'll 23 be required to be available, not necessarily all the time you
24 actually have to be here.

25 All right. So, here we go. First of all, hopefully

1 you can see this. I'll see if I can make it as big as I can
2 there.

3 So this is July. As you can see, today is the 10th.
4 We plan to be done today by 4:00. Likewise, tomorrow we plan
5 to be done by 4:00, and then the last day we probably will do a
6 full day till 5:00.

7 This week there will be no court on Thursday and 8 Friday.

9 Next week we'll have court Monday, Tuesday, Thursday
10 and Friday [sic] from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. with those three
11 breaks that I told you about, morning break at 10:00, lunch
12 break at noon, afternoon break around 2:45, 3:00.

13 The following week we do start late on Wednesday and 14 Thursday, which is July 26th and 27th. We won't be starting
15 until 10:30 on those days. And again, always off on Friday.

16 And then the last day of July will be a regular 9:00
17 to 5:00 Monday.

18 Then in August, we have 9:00 to 5:00 every day except 19 Fridays. The only day that's different here is on Tuesday, 20 August 15th, we'll be starting later at 10:00 a.m., but 21 otherwise, all the rest of the days are the same.

22 All right. So I'll go back and forth on this so you
23 can take a good look at it.

24 Please raise your hand if serving on this jury is not
25 possible for you because there is something that significantly

1 would interfere with your ability to be available all those 2 dates.

3 And let's start off with the box first. Anyone in 4 the box who thinks that this timeline, these expectations of 5 the Court for your availability are something that you cannot 6 meet that is just . . .

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jury 121.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So, at work, my -- my schedule is 10 from 12:30 to 9 o'clock. So, I'm not sure if that means
11 anything, if that means that it would make -- you know, as far
12 as the scheduling of the trial goes, but that's basically what
13 my work schedule is and because I pretty much had just started
14 this job not long ago, yeah, I have to be there.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So when you say 9 --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. 12:30 to 9:00.

17 THE COURT: 12:00 to 9:00, is that midnight to 18 9:00 a.m. or noon to 9:00 p.m.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 12:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. So,
20 afternoon to evening.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 124.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I also am the main source of 25 income for me and my girlfriend. We both just got our own

1 apartment, but she's basically part time.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 Anyone else in that front row?

4 All right. Let's go to the back row.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 84.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Will we receive this via e-mail
8 or receive a printout of the schedule?

9 THE COURT: Yes. You will receive a printout.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That was my question.

11 THE COURT: Yes. So you'll receive a printout that 12 you can provide to your --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am leaving Friday, August 11th, 14 to escort my nephews back home to South Dakota. They're 15 minors, so --

16 THE COURT: What is your jury number?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sorry. 103.

18 THE COURT: 103. Okay.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They are minors, so I'm escorting
20 them back to South Dakota. I'm supposed to be back that 21 Monday, which I think is the 14th. Yeah, the 14th, but I don't 22 have a time yet.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And when are you leaving?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: August 11th, Friday.

25 THE COURT: And you said you're taking them

1 back . . .

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Home to South Dakota.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And then you think you'll be back
4 on the 14th but you're not sure?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm supposed to be back on the 6 14th; I just don't have the time yet.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
8 Anyone in that front row?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 230.

10 THE COURT: 230. Yes, sir.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I currently work night shift for 12 Thursday, Friday, Saturday and I also just got hired at another
13 job and I start orientation on the 17th for a day shift and the 14 orientation lasts a week, and I work a 7:00 at night to 7:00 in 15 the morning shift for the first one.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And the second one is a day
18 shift.

19 THE COURT: And the day shift, what days would that 20 be?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My manager has not told me what 22 days those are yet.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
24 Anyone else in that row?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 240.

1 THE COURT: 240. Yes, ma'am.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just have a thing, I don't have
3 any issue with the schedule, but I am due on September 22nd.
4 I'm 29 and a half weeks pregnant. So if it lasts more than 10
5 weeks, the trial . . .

6 (Laughter).

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know what's going to 8 happen.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know about you guys,
11 but . . .

12 THE COURT: And this is not -- this won't be your 13 first baby?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's my third baby.

15 THE COURT: Third baby.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's supposed to be a programmed
17 C-section, so probably by the beginning of September I have a
18 date set of when I'm going to have the C-section, but, yeah.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're welcome.

21 THE COURT: Anyone else? Yes, sir.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 254.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I balance school. I go Monday,
25 Wednesday, and Thursday. I also work overnight starting from

1 10:00 p.m. till 7:00 in the morning, sometimes till 9:00 in the 2 morning and the --

3 THE COURT: I'm sorry. You work from 10:00 p.m. to 4 7:00 a.m., which days?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's always selectively random --
6 or it's randomly selected. So it's always -- it's always . . .
7 I got say Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday. Sometimes Monday.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And where do you go to school?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I go to CSN.

10 THE COURT: And are you in the summer program?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Are you supposed to be in class today at 13 what time?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm supposed to be there . . . at 15 least at 6:00 p.m. today.

16 THE COURT: So your class is at night. Any -- are 17 all your classes at night or just today's class?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just today's.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Anyone else in that row?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 284.

24 Point of clarification, Your Honor.

25 Fridays are guaranteed to be dark?

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And you made a comment about
3 Thursday of this week.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I wasn't able to hear exactly
6 what you said.

7 THE COURT: Oh, Thursday of this week, which is 8 July 13th, we will be dark. There will be no court on 9 Thursday, July 13th.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You're welcome.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 318.

13 THE COURT: 318. Yes.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have travel plans starting 15 September 29th for 10 days. I don't know if that would 16 interfere or not.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I certainly hope to be done
18 by then. We'll keep you in mind just in case. Thank you.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 325.

20 THE COURT: 225.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 325.

22 THE COURT: Oh, 325. Yes.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 Mondays and Tuesdays are usually my days off. So, I
25 don't know yet if I'll be chosen, do I still have to work

1 Saturdays and Sundays for my employer. I don't know if . . .

2 THE COURT: So, are you saying you do want to work
3 Saturday and Sunday or you don't want to work Saturday and 4 Sundays?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My regular workdays are from 6 Wednesday through Sunday. My regular days off are Mondays and 7 Tuesdays. So, I'd be working, like, seven days a week if -- in
8 case.

9 THE COURT: And have you talked to your employer
10 about that, about if you were chosen for this trial, would he 11 or she still require you to come in?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's still trying to communicate
13 with HR.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She hasn't done that yet.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 351.

18 I have the same situation. I work graveyard, 4:00
19 to noon, but I'm off Monday, Tuesday. But Saturday Sunday,
20 those -- I work for tokes, so I don't know how it's going to 21 affect my tokes, or maybe if I have to work on the weekends and 22 then come for a trial, so I don't know the situation how it's 23 going to go.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And same thing. Have you spoken
25 with your employer about what would happen if you are chosen to

1 serve on the jury?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I -- all I heard is they
3 only pay me for -- to come for the jury duty, but not on -- not
4 if I'm not coming for the jury, yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So they will pay you if you're 6 selected to be on the jury?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But other than that, I have to 10 work according to the weekends, but I can always ask what my 11 option is on how they go about my tokes, but I don't think they 12 will pay me because on the weekends and then I'm off Monday,
13 Tuesday, I have no problem coming to court.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 405.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a concern with the start
20 of school is August 14th and I have a son with autism. I'm his 21 primary caregiver/advocate/supporter and that's usually a
22 pretty busy time for us where I need the flexibility to attend
23 meetings.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So school starts August 14th for 25 your son?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And you accompany him to school? And are
3 you there with him at school?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, but I -- for IEP meetings,
5 start of school, orientations, the flexibility to be able to
6 go.

7 THE COURT: Are those generally before school starts
8 or like a week after school starts? Do you know yet?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Last year it was during the day,
10 during the week, and it's usually the week and the following
11 week.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right. And they'll give you a
13 set time for when to be there?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I don't usually know until 15 school starts.

16 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 445.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My real only issue is with 20 tomorrow. I have two interviews tomorrow, one of them's for my 21 state licensure in the afternoon and then another one just for 22 a job that I've been kind of waiting a long time for.

23 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. I think we'd -- I
24 think you were originally scheduled to be here tomorrow.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, originally today, then

1 tomorrow --

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- and then I asked to come back
4 today.

5 THE COURT: Right. We rescheduled you back --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

7 THE COURT: -- to today because of those interviews
8 tomorrow.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So you won't -- generally,
11 everyone's who's here today will not need to come back
12 tomorrow, but you might need to come back on Wednesday.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

14 THE COURT: So we have a different group coming in 15 tomorrow.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else?

18 Okay. And just so you know. With a trial this long,
19 it's not unusual to have jurors that need to take an hour or 20 two off here and there for special reasons, appointments that 21 need to be kept and so, we pretty much always have at least at 22 some point, you know, Wednesday where we leave early or a
23 Tuesday where we start late so that someone can make it to 24 their doctor's appointment or their appointment with the 25 teacher or so forth. So it's not unusual to have to take off

1 an hour or two here or there to accommodate a juror and we're
2 lucky to have you, so we do try to make it convenient for you.

3 All right. So let's go on now to the case-specific
4 questions.

5 Now, you all have received the general description
6 that I read to you and you are aware that the nature of the 7 offense is it's a criminal offense and what the defendants are 8 charged with, but that's just to identify the parties and the 9 type of case that it is. Now I'm going to ask you a few other
10 additional questions.

11 These are questions that you already have answered in 12 your questionnaire, but we have additional names, so that's why
13 you'll see some of these are highlighted. So most of these 14 names you already looked at in the written jury questionnaire,
15 but there were names that were added afterwards and that's why
16 they're in yellow, but I'm going to still read all of them into 17 the record and then ask you to raise your hand if you are 18 familiar with any of these people.

19 So, Number 1 is Christine Abbott. Number 2,
20 Glen Allen; Number 3, Gary Allen; Number 4, Scott Allen;
21 Number 5, Arthur Alphin, A-l-p-h-i-n; Number 6, Patrick Apley;
22 Number 7, Michelle Arnett; Number 8, S.R. Babbitt; Number 9,
23 Andrew Badortha; Number 10, Leann Baidy; Number 11, Rick
24 Barclay; Number 12, Michael Boxx; Number 13, Eric Boik;
25 Number 14, Logan Briscoe; 15, Mike Bronson; Number 16,

1 Mark Brunk; Number 17, James Buchanen; 18, Ammon Bundy; 19,
2 Briana Bundy; 20, Cliven Bundy; 21, David Bundy; 22 Marylynn
3 Bundy; 23, Melvin Bundy; 24, Ryan Bunda; 25, Alexandra Burke;
4 26, Darrin Bushman; 27 Shannon Bushman; 28, J.S. Butler; 29,
5 Michael Caputo; Number 30, Dusty Carpenter; 31,
6 Michael Carpenter; 32, Brian Cavalier; 33 Todd Chambers; 34,
7 John Clark; Number 35, Dick Clayson; and Number 36, Tom
8 Collins.

9 Please raise your hands if you think that you know
10 any of these individuals.

11 (No hands raised.)

12 All right that's a unanimous negative.

13 Next group here on the next page.

14 Number 37, Blaine Cooper; 38, Clancy Cox; 39,
15 Sean Cox; 40, Shawna or Shaunna Cox, spelled two different ways;
16 41, Joel Crandall; 42, April Crooks; 43, Michael Dalton; 44,
17 Francesca Defazio; 45, Gerald Delemus; 46, Timothy Deppner; 47,
18 Sarah Draper; 48, Chase Duke; 49, D. Dunbar; 50, James Edge; 51,
19 Alex Ellis; 52, Brent or Brett Empey; 53, Cody Faught; 54,
20 Michele Fiore; 55, Michael Flynn; 56, Bill Freer; 57,
21 Garic Frehner; 58, Anthony Jess Garcia; 59, Jessie Garcia; 60,
22 Gill Gilbertson; 61, Clayton Gleave; 62, Dwyatt Gleave; 63,
23 Gary Gleave; 64, Stanton Gleave; 65, Waylon Gleave; 66,
24 Hugh Gourgeon; 67, Timothy Willis Guiney; 68, Israel Guzman; 69,
25 David Hahn; 70, David Hale; 71, Kris Ann Hall; 72,

1 Morgan Hamilton; 73, Susan Hardy; 74, Shane Harger; 75,
2 Ellis Hawks; 76, Douglas Heaton; 77, Klynt Heaton; 78,
3 Corey Houston; 79, Margaret Houston; 80, Tiffany Houston; 81,
4 Neil Hughes; 82, Ramona Hughes; 83, Kerbie Jackson; 84,
5 Thomas Jackson; 85, Thomas Jenkins; and 86, Bruce Jenkins --
6 Jensen. I'm sorry. Bruce Jensen.

7 Please raise your hand if you think that you know any
8 of these individuals.

9 All right. We got one in the back row. What's your
10 number?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 207.

12 THE COURT: 207.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I don't know how detailed
14 know is know, but Michele Fiore.

15 THE COURT: So, do you know who she is or do you --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: During the election she was at 17 our house several times.

18 THE COURT: All right. And have you had any 19 conversations with her not related to the election?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Nothing -- nothing related
21 that would interfere or have any reflection on this case.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Anyone else?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 314.

25 I may know Thomas Jenkins, if he's a member of Metro.

1 THE COURT: If he's a member of what?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If he is a member of the Metro
3 police.

4 THE COURT: Is he?

5 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm told yes, he is. So how do
7 you know -- how do you know Mr. Jenkins.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's a frequent customer at my 9 business.

10 THE COURT: And how frequent is frequent? Like, once
11 a year he comes to get his teeth cleaned or is it --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I own a restaurant and actually 13 he and his team come by maybe once a month or two to have a 14 meal.

15 THE COURT: And do you have conversation with him as 16 well, that's how you know his name or how do you know his name?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I --

18 THE COURT: Is he wearing his --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know him from his TV show and 20 actually he's been a frequent customer, so I've known him for a
21 number of years and . . . but we've had no conversation about 22 this case or anything like that.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Anyone else?

25 (No hands raised.)

1 Okay. Then we'll move on to the next page here.
2 Number 87 is Ken Jensen; 88, Wes Jensen; 89,
3 Charles Johnson; Number 90 is Charles also known as
4 Dick Johnson; 91, David Johnson; 92, Gayle Johnson; 93,
5 Gregory Johnson; 94, Michael Johnson; 95, Ray Johnson; 96,
6 Shanan Kelly; 97, Tyler Kelly; 98, David Keltner; 99,

19 Kenneth Rhoades; and 136, Stewart Rhodes.

20 So please raise your hand if you think you are 21 familiar or know any of these individuals.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know, but I'm familiar
23 with Stewart Rhodes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Are you Number 175?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yeah. Sorry. 175.

1 THE COURT: So, Stewart Rhodes, you think you might
2 know?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know him, but I just know
4 of him because --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. He founded the Oath
7 Keepers.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 Anyone else?

10 (No hands raised.)

11 All right. 137 is Joseph Rice; 138, Eric Richardson;
12 139, John Richter; 140, Thomas Roberts; 141, Tom Robertson;
13 142, Shelle Rubel; 143, David Russell; 144, Clawson Ruth; 145,

17 154, Frank Serena; 155, Scott Sessions; 156, Mark Seyler; 157,
18 Mary Elizabeth Siemers; 158, Chad Simpkins; 159, J.S. Skinner;
19 160, Dale Smith; 161, Erich Smith; 162, M.J. Smith; 163,
20 Brad Sones; 164, B.J. Sooper; 165, Mark Sorenson; 166,
21 Daryl Spencer; 167, Lily Spencer; 168, Rulon Spencer; 169,
22 Wendy Spencer; 170, Travis Stone; 171, Brad Stones; 172,
23 Rand Stover; 173, William Sudweeks; 174, Adam Sully; 175,
24 Toni Suminski; 176, Scott Swanson; 177, Cheryl Teerlink; 178,
25 Travis Thiede; 179, Krissy Woods Thorton; 180, Toby Tobiasson;

1 181, Kenneth Tu; 182, Danny Vanvershelden; 183, T.L. Wagner;
2 184, Ella Mae Walther; 185, Gus Warr; and 186, Scott Werber.

3 Please raise your hand if you think you're familiar
4 with any of those individuals.

5 (No hands raised.)

6 And last, we've got 187, Edwin Whitteaker; 188,
7 Louie Whitworth; 189, Joel Willis; 190, Jerry Winget; 191,
8 Yonna Winget; 192, Jason Woods; 193, Joseph Woolstenhulme; 194,
9 Luca Zanna; and 195, Orpha Zerkle.

10 Please raise your hand if you're familiar with any of 11 these individuals.

12 (No hands raised.)

13 All right. And just so you know, so these are all
14 potential witnesses. We don't intend to call -- they don't 15 all -- they're probably not all going to be called, not even,
16 you know, half of them probably, but any of one of them could be 17 called or their name could be on some document that is shown for 18 a different purpose or someone might refer to that person as 19 being with them or in the photograph or something like that. So
20 that's why we include all these names in here, but I see some of 21 you getting a little worried, so they don't -- the parties do
22 not intend to call every single one of these.

23 All right. So next I want to determine whether any of 24 you has any prior knowledge about the facts of this case or 25 believe that you have read, listened to, or viewed any news

1 discussions of this case or heard anyone else discussing the
2 case. So, if your answer is yes, I'm going to ask you to raise
3 your hand and then ask you how do you have this personal
4 knowledge. So, for example, was it from the news? Was it from 5 a friend? When did you receive this knowledge? Was it two days
6 ago? A year ago? And as a result of your knowledge, have you
7 formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of these 8 defendants? And then the next question is, do you have any 9 doubt as to the accuracy of the knowledge that you have 10 received? So that the -- the -- the individual that told you is 11 someone that you trust or if it's something -- a source that 12 maybe is not -- you're not sure about, and then lastly, could 13 you set aside your opinion and determine the guilt or innocence
14 of the defendant based only on the evidence.

15 So notice, I didn't ask you what you know; I'm just 16 asking you how do you know, when did you know, have you formed
17 an opinion, how accurate do you think the information was that 18 you received, and could you set aside your opinion and decide
19 the case based only on the evidence.

20 Okay. So I'm not asking you what you heard, just 21 those questions.

22 So please raise your hand if you think that you have 23 heard anything about the case.

24 Let's start with the top row here.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I remember seeing this on

1 the news a few years ago and no, I didn't form an opinion and
2 it was on the news and, yeah, I could -- I don't know much
3 about it; I just knew that all they said they were -- the cows
4 went on federal property.

5 THE COURT: I don't need to know what you know, I
6 just need to know whether you formed an opinion. So that's 7 fine.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. I just heard it on the 9 news.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 41.

12 I heard it on the news, too, when it first came out.
13 I didn't take that much interest, too much at the time, you
14 know. I was working then, now I'm not, but I have not formed
15 an opinion.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 80.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Saw it on the news, a blurp. I
20 haven't -- I haven't formed any opinion.

21 THE COURT: How long ago did you --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably when it first, like --
23 in 2014, '15. I don't even remember. It was just a blurp on 24 the news. Didn't pay any attention to it.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 Anyone else in that top row?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 95.

3 I recall in 2014 I -- from the news. I have not
4 formed any opinion.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6 Anyone in the bottom row?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 120.

8 I followed it on the news as it happened and yes, I
9 have an opinion on it and yes, it would bias my deliberation.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for your honesty.

11 Anyone else?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 121.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did see it on the news. Didn't 15 pay it too much attention when I seen it. That was back in 16 2015, a little blurp. Didn't pay no attention to it until I
17 saw it again on Facebook and -- go figure. And since then,
18 I -- I -- at first I did not form an opinion about it, like,
19 whatever, but then after I thought about it on Facebook and 20 I've seen it, then I'm like, okay, this must be something
21 serious, so . . .

22 THE COURT: And when did you see it on Facebook?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I actually saw it on Facebook
24 about six months ago.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And --

2 THE COURT: And have you --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And then I formed an opinion
4 about it.

5 THE COURT: Formed an opinion. Okay. And is that an
6 opinion that you can set aside and base -- base your decision
7 only on the evidence?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um . . . honestly? Yeah, I could 9 set it aside.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

12 THE COURT: Anyone else in that front row?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 157.

14 I saw it on the news as well and I remember it very 15 well and yes, I did form an opinion and I still feel that same
16 way. I don't know if you want me to elaborate on that.

17 THE COURT: No.

18 Okay. So you have an opinion. Is it an opinion --
19 the knowledge that you received, do you have any doubts as to 20 the accuracy of that source?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, because I saw the video, you
22 know. I just can't unsee it.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And could you set aside your 24 opinion and determine the guilt or innocence based only -- no?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think I can. I doubt it.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw it on the news.

3 THE COURT: All right. Are you 148?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. Yes 148.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw it on the news in 2014 and
7 then I saw it again in 2015 and I don't watch the news a lot.
8 I said, "Is that still going on?" I did not form an opinion,
9 however.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 175.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My husband actually drove us out
14 to Bunkerville to see what was happening firsthand, but I'm 15 still unclear honestly what was happening.

16 THE COURT: When you say that your husband drove you
17 there, on the day or later?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't even know. I still don't 19 even know what day. It was during that time.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I thought it was like an ongoing
22 thing. I don't know. He's clear on what happened.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 So do you have an opinion, have you and your husband
25 discussed this?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't really have an opinion.
2 I don't even really understand what happened.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 186.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw it on the news. I followed
6 it on the news. I do have an opinion because my family has
7 ranches and livestock in both Utah and Nevada.

8 THE COURT: And can you set aside your opinion to 9 decide this case only on the facts presented during trial?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um . . . no. I'm pretty -- just 11 because of the background.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 Anyone else in that front row?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 207.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw it in both national and 17 local news. Don't always believe what I see and hear on the 18 news, so I have no opinion at this point.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 How about in that second row?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 262, and I saw it on the 22 news. My husband loves to watch the news from beginning to 23 end, 24/7, but I -- he explained to me a lot of the things that
24 was going on, but I didn't understood much about it and I
25 really don't have -- I gave him my opinion, but I don't know

1 much about it.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So you do have an opinion, but
3 it's -- can you set aside your opinion and determine this case
4 based solely on the information provided to you during trial or
5 is your opinion pretty set with your husband?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not sure. Like I say, I
7 didn't understand much at the time. He keep following the news
8 and he keep explaining to me, but I don't know. I just . . . I
9 don't know. I just gave him -- you know, I told him what I
10 thought, you know, but I don't know if I'm right or wrong.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So then is it fair to say that you
12 could set aside your opinion and determine the case based only
13 on the facts that we present to you at trial? Because you
14 don't know if your opinion is right or wrong, so you'll wait to 15 see what the evidence is at trial?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Possible, but I can't tell for 17 sure.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Anyone else in that row?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 227.

21 I have seen it on the news. I have followed the 22 case. I have worked with public lands in two different states
23 and I definitely have an opinion.

24 THE COURT: And is this an opinion you can set aside
25 and decide --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it might be difficult.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 230.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I actually did an assignment on 6 this in college. Our teacher did show us a bit of the video.

7 THE COURT: What class was that for?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: This was actually psychology.

9 THE COURT: Oh. All right. And then did you form an
10 opinion?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Don't tell us what the opinion is, but
13 did you form one? Did you form an opinion?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Did you form an opinion on just 16 the psychological aspect or did you form an opinion as to 17 whether or not these defendants are guilty?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Both.

19 THE COURT: Both. Okay. And can you set aside that 20 opinion and just decide this case based on the evidence that 21 you'll see during trial?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 291.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have seen the video on several
2 of the news stations, local news stations, I have formed an
3 opinion and I would like to say I could set aside that, but 4 don't know for sure.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 318.

7 I saw it on the news, just like once or twice. I
8 don't even know what it's about. Just totally being honest.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jury [sic] Number 398.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did follow it on the news and I
12 suppose I have an opinion, but I could set aside that opinion,
13 depending on the evidence.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 397.

15 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't get your number.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 397.

17 THE COURT: 397. Thank you.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I watch the news pretty regularly
19 and I saw the video as it was played. I don't know that I have 20 an opinion.

21 THE COURT: You do or do not have an opinion?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think I do.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 388.

25 I have a vague remembrance of when this happened.

1 Don't really recall the names involved or what the issues were
2 back then. I do, however -- I mean, you have refreshed my
3 memory because of what was presented to us as prospective
4 jurors, but other than that, I have no opinion hardly. I know
5 none of the facts in the case. So, just being honest here.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 376.

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 376?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 Okay. My stepdad briefly explained it to me. I have 11 no opinion on it. I just needed some -- I was confused. So,
12 he explained it to me a little bit, but yeah.

13 THE COURT: Anyone else?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 480.

15 I followed the case from the beginning. Discussed it
16 with people and I have formed a very strong opinion and no, I
17 could not set that aside.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.

19 Anyone else?

20 (No hands raised.)

21 All right. So, it's 11:51, but I'm told that there's 22 a couple of folks already who are asking for a break. So we're
23 going to go ahead and take an early lunch break. It's 11:50, 24 so we'll plan to be back here at 12:50, around that --
25 actually, why don't we just give them 1 o'clock because . . .

1 yeah, there's a lot of people. So we'll go ahead and take a
2 break until 1 o'clock.

3 I do remind you during this break, please do not talk
4 to anyone about the case, not even the fellow jurors that are
5 here who have already said that they saw something on the news.
6 If you're one of those folks who didn't see it on the news,
7 don't ask one of the other people, "So, what did you see on the 8 news?" So don't talk about this case at all to each other and 9 please do not talk about the attorneys or the process or 10 anything related to this case. So you can talk about other 11 things, the weather, the fires, did -- you know, so what 12 classes are you taking at CSN, you know, anything else like 13 that, but don't talk about this case at all, please, during the 14 break.

15 We'll have you back here at 1 o'clock. We're going
16 to stand for you because you are the judge of the . . . okay.

17 Aaron's telling me 1:15 because there's so many of 18 you and the coffee shop downstairs is small and you might need
19 to go somewhere else. So we'll plan to be back here at 1:15 so
20 everyone has a chance to get some lunch, if you didn't bring 21 your own lunch, and use the restroom.

22 When you come back in, take a good look at where 23 you're sitting and who's to the left and who's to the right of 24 you because that's where you'll be sitting when you come back.
25 And I'll also ask you, when you come back, to raise your hand

1 and tell me if the person next to you is missing, the person
2 who was there before. So also take a good look at them so you
3 can tell me later if we're missing someone.

4 All right. So, thank you again for your time. We'll
5 have you come back here at 1:15.

6 Mike will help you out.

7 (Venire panel excused from courtroom at 11:53 a.m.)

8 THE COURT: All right. You may be seated.

9 We're still on the record. The jury has left. I
10 just want to remind you the only three people that we've 11 excused so far are Number 38, Number 213, and Number 398. So
12 during the lunch break, if you want to get together and see if 13 there's anyone else that you agree should be excused, that
14 means we don't need to spend anymore time on them, I'll excuse
15 them when we come back from lunch and that way the attorney
16 questions can focus on the people who actually are potentially 17 going to be jurors in the case.

18 Okay? We'll see you back here at 1:15.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

20 Off record.

21 (Recess was taken at 11:55 a.m.)

22 (Outside the presence of the venire panel at 1:27 p.m.):

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

25 All right. So we're back from lunch. Everyone's

1 back.

2 When we left, I reminded you that we'd only excused
3 three people so far so you'd have a chance to compare your
4 notes. Now that we've heard from everyone, I'm going to turn
5 it over to the attorneys next. So, is there anyone else that 6 the parties have agreed should be excused?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, all parties have agreed to
8 excuse nine jurors and there's agreement between the Government
9 and counsel for Lovelien to excuse another 16.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, let's just start from the 11 top.

12 MS. CREEGAN: And all parties agree to eliminate 121,
13 157, 227, 230, 262, 291, 351, 366, and 480.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And what was the second half of --

15 MS. CREEGAN: We have 16 that the Government and 16 defendant Lovelien have agreed to eliminate.

17 THE COURT: I'm sorry. So, why are there two 18 different sets of numbers? I'm not following you.

19 MS. CREEGAN: There's one set that's agreed between 20 all parties, counsel for all four defendants and one that's 21 only agreed between the Government and defendant Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: Oh, I see. Okay. So just by -- between 23 one. All right. So the other three defendants do not agree.

24 Okay. So what's the first one?

25 MS. CREEGAN: 17.

1 THE COURT: All right. And what is the objection by
2 the other defendants to Number 17?

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, with respect to 17, is that
4 who we're -- I apologize.

5 I think there -- again, I guess I would just want to
6 know the Government's position in trying to strike the juror
7 first, but from my understanding in reading the questionnaires,
8 you know, I think they reference they know the Bundys, but I
9 don't know if there's anything more than that so I think we 10 need more questioning.

11 THE COURT: Well, the response to the questionnaire
12 was the person requests to be excused. Knows the Bundys
13 personally. Not sure she could be unbiased, and is not willing 14 to serve.

15 MS. CREEGAN: And I'll also add, Your Honor, that 16 person didn't admit in the courtroom that they knew Cliven and 17 the Hughes and they also then mingled with supporters of the 18 defendants out in the hallway.

19 THE COURT: They did what in the hallway?

20 MS. CREEGAN: They mingled with supporters for the 21 defendants out in the hallway.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm not necessarily calling
23 Ms. Creegan a liar, but I don't know that we can just take her
24 word for who she's seen mingling or maybe just waiting in line
25 to get into a busy courtroom.

1 MS. CREEGAN: This was on the way out that they
2 stopped to talk to them.

3 THE COURT: All right. And so which one is the next
4 juror that the Government and Mr. Lovelien agree?

5 MS. CREEGAN: 41.

6 THE COURT: All right. That's the one that said, in 7 response to the question of whether there's any reason that 8 they can think of that they cannot or should not serve, the 9 response given in the questionnaire was that there was no
10 deaths; leave it alone.

11 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: All right. And what's the objection to
13 Number 41?

14 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, their response is, 15 you know, there's no deaths, leave it alone, but ultimately can 16 they be fair and impartial in this case. I think we just would 17 need more questions to get to that answer.

18 THE COURT: All right. Next one.

19 MS. CREEGAN: 120. This is the juror that indicated
20 that they could not be fair and said in their questionnaire
21 that they would vote not guilty no matter what.

22 THE COURT: All right. And here in court said that
23 they did follow and they've formed an opinion and couldn't set
24 it aside and was definitely biased.

25 What is your objection to 120?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, just -- 120 never was
2 asked by the Court whether or not this person could set their
3 opinion aside. I think the second person was asked that, but 4 not -- not 120.

5 MS. CREEGAN: I show that 120 did answer that
6 question and said they could not set it aside.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. I wrote it down.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we'd -- we also had the same
9 note, that that second part of the question wasn't asked of 10 that juror.

11 THE COURT: All right. And what's the next one?

12 MS. CREEGAN: 124.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, 124 is the one who thinks
14 they're already guilty based on the summary, a hard time paying
15 attention, is moving into a new building -- I'm sorry, new -- I
16 can't read my own handwriting.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we'd agree to strike that,
18 Number 124. I think there was a financial hardship as well.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. He said -- is it he or she?
20 Primary -- primary earner, girlfriend does work but only part
21 time, and they have a new apartment. That's what it is,
22 apartment. I was thinking home but I couldn't figure out how 23 that . . . a-p-t, apartment.

24 So you agree to strike Number 124?

25 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And Mr. Marchese, any objection to 124?

3 MR. MARCHESE: No. I'd join, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. So 124 will also be excused.
5 What's the next one?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I see that I skipped
7 over -- Lovelien and the Government also agreed to 103.

8 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

9 All right. So she was the one who said she was 10 taking two minors back home to South Dakota on the 11th and 11 plans to be back on the 14th but wasn't sure what time.

12 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

13 THE COURT: Well, the 11th is a Friday, so we're dark
14 that day anyway, and the 14th is a Monday. So depending on 15 when she comes back, if she is ultimately on the jury, the most 16 we would be missing is one day with maybe half a day. Is there
17 any other reason?

18 MS. CREEGAN: I also have that she appears to say
19 that she has a personal friendship with Mace Yampolsky who 20 represents another defendant in this case.

21 THE COURT: Just that she recognizes Mace -- oh, is
22 this the one who said that Mace did some work?

23 MS. CREEGAN: He represented her son and she says
24 he's a friend.

25 THE COURT: Right. Okay.

1 Any objection?

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, yes. I think there's -- you
3 know, again, just -- Mr. Yampolsky is not in the courtroom.
4 His client's not in the courtroom. Just having a personal
5 friendship with another lawyer who's in the case but not in
6 this courtroom, I think, would at least warrant some more
7 questioning.

8 She's -- I think she studied criminal justice as 9 well, you know, so I think she probably understands the 10 importance of being a juror and the importance of setting aside
11 her beliefs and being fair and impartial and following the law.
12 So I think maybe at least further questioning could reveal
13 that.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I would agree -- I'm sorry.

15 MR. TANASI: No.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would agree. He may have done
17 really bad work for her. We don't know. And so, I mean it may 18 go -- it may cut both ways. I don't know if she has an opinion
19 or whether she can set that aside. So, maybe just some 20 follow-up questions with her before we just remove her.

21 THE COURT: Well, she said he was a personal friend.
22 So I don't think that they would have any -- she would have any 23 animosity, but we could follow-up on that.

24 Next one?

25 MS. CREEGAN: 175.

1 THE COURT: All right. What's the objection to 175
2 being excused?

3 She has two kids, one's under the age of 10. So that
4 qualifies for an exemption.

5 Is there an objection to 175?

6 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

7 Again, I'm not sure what the Government's position in
8 seeking her removal is, but I -- we would object. I mean,
9 she's -- I'm guessing because there was reference to 10 Stewart Rhodes, but I think she was -- at least the note I have 11 is that she doesn't have an opinion, she doesn't really
12 understand. So, just because, you know, she may know
13 Stewart Rhodes, who's not a defendant in this case, I don't
14 think that that would warrant a cause for -- strike for cause.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, she said she's got a 16 child who's under 10, which is the 8-year-old and then she also 17 has a second child, the 13-year-old. So I'll excuse
18 Number 175. This is a long trial over summer vacation for 19 someone to not be at home with a child under 10.

20 Next one?

21 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 186.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to excusing
23 186?

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we'll submit it.

25 THE COURT: All right. So, I'll excuse Number 186.

1 Next one?

2 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 229.

3 THE COURT: That's the one with the migraines. Any 4 objection to excusing 229?

5 MR. MARCHESE: What were the grounds?

6 THE COURT: She has the migraines. She asked to be
7 excused.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I -- no, you know,
9 disrespect to her medical condition, but whether she can be
10 fair and impartial, I think, is still a question yet to be 11 determined and also, whether she can sit through the trial or 12 not in some capacity given those migraines may be something to 13 still delve into.

14 THE COURT: Well, she's stated she had the migraines
15 when she gets stressed out and she asked to be excused. So
16 that goes to qualification. If she has a physical infirmity,
17 that's when I asked the question and that's when she offered
18 that answer. So, I'll go ahead and excuse 229.

19 Next one?

20 MS. CREEGAN: 240.

21 THE COURT: Another one who has -- this one actually
22 has both a one-year-old and a six-year-old at home with no
23 daycare, and her due date is September 22nd.

24 Any objection to excusing Number 240?

25 MR. TANASI: No objection, Your Honor.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

2 THE COURT: So 240 is excused.

3 Next?

4 MS. CREEGAN: 254.

5 THE COURT: 254 is the one who has school on Monday,
6 Wednesday, and Thursday at CSN at night and then works,
7 10:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m., Tuesday through Thursday.

8 Any objection to excusing 254?

9 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence.

10 (Counsel conferring.)

11 MR. TANASI: No objection from Mr. Stewart,
12 Your Honor.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, any objection?

15 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: He's also the one that said on his 17 questionnaire that he applied with the Las Vegas Metropolitan 18 Police Department and that if accepted, the trial would 19 interfere with his training.

20 All right. So 254 will be excused.

21 Next?

22 MS. CREEGAN: 301.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 301?

24 MR. TANASI: Just would like to know the grounds,
25 Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Questionnaire response was that she has
2 physical impairment regarding qualifications to serve, two neck
3 surgeries, neck stiffens if sitting for too long. Not willing
4 to serve as a juror because waste of taxpayer money.

5 Any objection to 301?

6 MR. TANASI: I think we -- I think we just need more
7 questioning.

8 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to excuse 301.

9 Next one?

10 MS. CREEGAN: 305.

11 THE COURT: 305 has the shingles. Do you want to 12 excuse her?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to 305?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

16 MR. TANASI: No objection, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker submits.

18 THE COURT: Next one?

19 MS. CREEGAN: 325.

20 THE COURT: All right. So, 325 said he had a
21 hardship because he works Saturday and Sunday and so if he is
22 chosen to sit on the trial, he would have to be here Monday
23 through Thursday and then work Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
24 He's not the one who said he would get paid, though. That's a
25 different person.

1 I'm sort of on the fence on that one. Does the --
2 what's your position for 325? Do you want to ask more
3 questions or just let him go?

4 MR. TANASI: Again, I don't -- did he indicate that 5 it would -- there's an interference with his work? That was 6 the issue?

7 THE COURT: Yes. Because he would be -- well, the 8 interference wasn't with his work, the interference is with his
9 sleep and ability to get some rest because the days we're not 10 in court he said he would have to be working because those are 11 regular workdays for him. So, I think his inconvenience was 12 that the days he would get -- we would be here were his regular 13 days off.

14 MR. TANASI: Right.

15 THE COURT: So he would be working, he says, all
16 seven days, counting the jury service as a workday.

17 MR. TANASI: I would -- I guess I would say that we 18 would just want to ask some more questions into whether he can 19 somehow juggle all that. If he can't, then I guess revisit at 20 that point but . . .

21 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. So we'll hold off on 325.

22 MS. CREEGAN: 339.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to 339 being excused?

24 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, I just ask for the 25 grounds.

1 THE COURT: The questionnaire responses?

2 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor. On the
3 questionnaire the person indicates that they believe that local 4 law should supersede federal law, that -- and they referred to 5 Ruby Ridge and Waco guiding some of their decision-making about
6 how to view the government.

7 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, I think further
8 questioning could delve into whether or not if he's told by 9 Your Honor that he needs in this case to follow federal law,
10 can he do so.

11 THE COURT: What's the next one?

12 MS. CREEGAN: I think the final one is 318.

13 THE COURT: 318?

14 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

15 THE COURT: All right. That was the woman who had a
16 trip planned for 10 days starting in September, September 29th
17 I think I wrote down.

18 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

19 THE COURT: My handwriting gets worse as the -- when 20 they talk fast.

21 Okay. What's the defense position on Number 318?

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she's indicated she believes
23 in -- and I might have it paraphrased but -- enforcing laws,
24 immigration laws, she does touch on immigration laws. She's 25 seen the case on the news, but she doesn't know what it's

1 about. So, I think at the very least, more questioning into
2 whether she can be fair and impartial is warranted.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, I'm -- so when they come back,
4 they'll sit down, we'll make sure everybody's here and then I
5 will excuse Number 38, 121, 124, 157, 175, 186, 213, 227, 229,
6 230, 240, 254, 262, 291, 301, 305, 351, 366, and 398, and 480.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can we be heard just on one
8 defense Motion to Strike?

9 THE COURT: Yes. Which one is that?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Actually two.

11 MR. TANASI: Or, I'm sorry, two. I'll handle the 12 first one. It's . . .

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: 158.

14 MR. TANASI: I don't have that one. I've got the --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: 158, Your Honor.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay.

17 THE COURT: 158, yes.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: She indicated that she has muscle
19 spasm quite a bit. Her legs give out, comes and goes. She's 20 on quite a bit of medicine.

21 THE COURT: Well, she said she was prescribed
22 medicine, but she doesn't take it anymore because it doesn't
23 help and it just keeps her up at night.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

25 THE COURT: I mean, medication. She did say she had

1 chronic -- she said she had muscle spasm and I asked her what
2 the diagnosis was and she said chronic muscle spasm.

3 What's the Government's position on 158?

4 MS. CREEGAN: I think we'd like to question her about
5 whether that would distract from her focus or requires breaks.
6 I'm not sure if -- I apologize. She did answer that, but I did
7 not catch whether she said it would distract her or cause her
8 to take frequent breaks.

9 THE COURT: Okay. We can follow-up with her.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Also, Your Honor, 214.

11 MR. TANASI: 314.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: He indicated that he owns a
13 restaurant and that he knows personally Jenkins -- or 314. I
14 apologize.

15 THE COURT: 314.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: 314.

17 He knows Jenkins. As a matter of fact, he spoke --
18 I'm sorry. He spoke to Jenkins during the first trial about 19 this. They would come in -- Sergeant Jenkins would come to his 20 restaurant, I believe he said once a week or once a month,
21 twice a week, but he has spoken to him about it and I don't
22 believe he indicated that that would -- he could set side
23 anything he has -- Jenkins does go to his restaurant. So with 24 that, I would ask that he be stricken for cause.

25 THE COURT: It wasn't twice per week; I wrote down

1 once per month approximately, but for years. And that he was a
2 customer -- that Mr. Jenkins was a customer of the juror who
3 owns a restaurant or works at a restaurant, has some
4 relationship to a restaurant where Mr. Jenkins dines.

5 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, the Government can
6 represent that we don't intend to call Sergeant Jenkins so we
7 don't think that that will be a conflict.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So we can follow-up with
9 Number 314.

10 MS. CREEGAN: And may I ask, did Your Honor rule on
11 17, 41, and 120?

12 THE COURT: Number 17 in the questionnaire did ask to 13 be excused and said -- is it a he or a she?

14 MS. CREEGAN: It's a she.

15 THE COURT: She was not willing to serve and knew the 16 Bundys personally and was not sure if she could be unbiased.
17 I'll go ahead and excuse Number 17.

18 What was the other one you asked me about?

19 MS. CREEGAN: 41 and 120.

20 THE COURT: All right. So 41 said she heard about 21 this years ago, but did not form an opinion or have any 22 interest in it. And then the questionnaire said -- as to -- in 23 response to the question about whether there's any reason that 24 she cannot or should not serve as a juror in this case, the 25 response was, "There was no deaths; leave it alone."

1 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: So, I'm going allow follow-up on that
3 because I'm not really sure what she means by that, if she just 4 is so uninterested in the past and now that she's not going to 5 pay attention to the trial then that would be a problem, but,
6 that's not clear. So that was Number . . .

7 MS. CREEGAN: 120.

8 THE COURT: 41?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: 41.

10 THE COURT: So what's the next one? 120?

11 MS. CREEGAN: 120, yes. I'm sorry.

12 THE COURT: So that was the one that said he did have 13 an opinion that -- and he was biased and the defense argument
14 is that they want to ask him whether or not he can set aside
15 that opinion.

16 MS. CREEGAN: And he said in his questionnaire he 17 would vote not guilty no matter what.

18 THE COURT: Right, and the questionnaire says
19 extremely biased or will not -- will vote automatically for not 20 guilty no matter what.

21 All right. So I'll excuse Number 120.

22 All right. Let's go ahead and stand for the jury and 23 bring them back in. I think we're losing about half of them.

24 (Venire panel returned to courtroom at 1:53 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated.

1 We're joined by the jury now and I'll ask everyone to
2 please look to the left, look to the right and please raise your
3 hand if there's someone missing now that was sitting there
4 before we broke for lunch.

5 (No hands raised.)

6 Okay. So it looks like no -- no hands are raised.
7 Everybody came back and I'm looking around the room and I think
8 I see everyone has returned as well.

9 All right. So, before I hand it over to the 10 attorneys to ask their follow-up questions, I'm going to excuse
11 quite a few people. So when I say your number, I do thank and 12 excuse you for your time. I thank you for your time and I
13 excuse you from service. This does satisfy your jury service.
14 You shouldn't be called again for two years, but if you are,
15 you need to let them know that you already -- you know, if you
16 don't want to serve again, you'll need to let them know that 17 you were already excused once and that you were in court and 18 that you were excused so that they know that you don't need to 19 come back if you don't want to.

20 All right. So the -- and please look around and make 21 sure you've got your water bottles and sweaters and bags or 22 anything else that you brought in with you.

23 So we're thanking and excusing Juror No. 17;
24 Juror No. 38; Juror No. 120; Juror 121; and 124. Thank you all
25 very much.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

2 (Prospective jurors excused.)

3 THE COURT: Next I'm going to excuse Juror No. 157;
4 175; 186; 213; 227; 229; Number 230; 240; 254; and 262. Thank
5 you all very much as well.

6 (Prospective jurors excused.)

7 All right. And then I'm also excusing Juror No. 291;
8 301; 305; 351; 366; 398; and Juror No. 480. Thank you all very 9 much as well.

10 (Prospective jurors excused.)

11 All right. Now we're going to begin with the 12 Government and some follow-up questions for the panel.

13 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, I'd like to ask if I
14 can reserve all but 10 minutes of my time.

15 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

17 Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you very 18 much for coming in for jury duty, coming in and answering these 19 questions.

20 Since every two years I am where you are --

21 THE COURT: Can you speak up? I'm not sure -- can 22 everyone hear her?

23 VENIRE PANEL: No.

24 MS. CREEGAN: I always feel like I'm yelling so I'm 25 sorry if I'm yelling at you or if I'm not loud enough, but

1 thank you very much, thank you very much for coming in for jury
2 duty.

3 I have some follow-up questions for you and because 4 there's so many of you, what I will ask you to do is the same
5 as with the judge's questions, to please raise your hand if you
6 have a response. I know that that's not easy and some of us
7 are a little less eager to talk in public than others, but I'd
8 really appreciate it and I thank you very much.

9 The first questions that I want to ask you relate to 10 some of the instructions that you may be getting in this case
11 and I want to ask you if you think you can follow them and if 12 you think you understand them. If you don't, please raise your 13 hand and we'll talk about it.

14 So the first question I want to ask you is actually
15 similar to a question that you saw on your questionnaire, and I
16 think I may have worded that question a little confusingly so I
17 wasn't able to tell what your response meant. So one of the 18 questions that you may remember was if you find a defendant
19 guilty of one of the crimes of violence, you'll be asked to 20 find if they're also guilty of using a firearm in the 21 commission of that crime.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Calls for a legal
23 conclusion.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MS. CREEGAN: These are from the stipulated jury
3 instructions.

4 THE COURT: All right. You want -- so if you want to 5 just stick to the question that you asked in the questionnaire
6 and rephrase it, then that's fine.

7 MS. CREEGAN: So, if you are ultimately instructed
8 that you are to find there's a separate crime, do you have any 9 objection to finding a defendant -- if the evidence supports
10 it -- guilty of a separate crime?

11 THE COURT: Wait. Okay. Let's go back.

12 So, the question in the jury questionnaire that 13 you're referring to . . . do you remember what number that was?
14 It's towards the end, right?

15 Okay. It's Question No. 31 in the questionnaire.
16 "Do you believe that the federal government should not have the 17 authority to prohibit a person from using and carrying a
18 firearm in relation to a crime of violence?" So I think the 19 problem was it sort of has a double negative or something in 20 there where it's not quite clear what the question is. So if 21 you want to rephrase that question and ask it again, then that 22 would be appropriate. Otherwise, we're not going to get into 23 didactic questions. We're just doing probative questions,
24 so . . . you can go ahead and fix that to make it clear for the 25 jurors that may not have understood that the first time.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. And I think that's exactly it.
2 There is a double negative in there that might make it a little
3 bit confusing. So, does anybody have any objection, if they're
4 instructed to do so, with finding a defendant guilty of a
5 separate crime if the evidence proves that they used a firearm
6 in the commission of a crime? And you can also raise your hand
7 if you don't understand my question.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We can't hear you.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Is that better?

10 VENIRE PANEL: Yes.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you very much.

12 So, my question was, and this is a question you've 13 seen in your jury questionnaire but it might have been a double
14 negative in it, is, do you have any objection with finding a
15 defendant, if the evidence supports it, guilty of a separate 16 crime of using a firearm in the commission of an offense, in 17 addition to the actual offense? Does anybody think that they 18 would object to that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I'm going to object, but 20 I'm still confused.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I think the question was about the 22 regulatory authority. Does anyone believe the federal 23 government should not have the ability to prohibit firearms
24 when they're used in the commission of a crime?

25 (No hands raised.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: Is that -- nobody does have an issue
2 with that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not sure what the judge just
4 said.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's very difficult to hear back
7 here.

8 MS. CREEGAN: So, what the judge was just saying --
9 and can you hear me, sir?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's much better.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you.

12 Is do you object to the Government being able to make 13 that a crime and have that be a separate offense that you would 14 find the defendant guilty of?

15 Can everyone hear me okay?

16 If you do have a comment, could you please raise your
17 hand and we'll bring you the microphone.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just sure I'm
19 misunderstanding. Is it okay if the federal government
20 prohibits the use of a firearm?

21 MS. CREEGAN: I think that's exactly it, ma'am.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If it was used, not of the crime
23 that they were in trouble for? Or for what purpose?

24 MS. CREEGAN: If -- there's going to be two counts;
25 one is going to be the crime itself --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

2 MS. CREEGAN: -- and one's going to be using the
3 firearm in the commission of a crime. And would you have any 4 objection to making that separate decision about whether to 5 convict on that separate crime, that that shouldn't be a crime
6 in and of itself?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would have a problem with 8 separating that.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. I'm sorry. What's your juror
10 number, ma'am?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I'm sorry. 148.

12 MS. CREEGAN: 148. Thank you, ma'am.

13 Can everyone hear me better? Okay. Thank you.

14 And in a similar vein, does anybody have an objection
15 to making it a crime to brandish a firearm in the commission of 16 an offense, which is to show it?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Calling for legal
18 conclusion.

19 THE COURT: Sustained.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Would anyone here judge a crime
21 differently if they knew that the victim of the crime was a
22 police officer? Would that change your standard for how you
23 evaluate whether the crime occurred?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 405.

25 Um . . . I have a long line of family that have been

1 policemen, corrections officers. I think I have certain bias
2 in that regard.

3 MS. CREEGAN: And, I'm sorry, ma'am. Now I feel
4 badly because I can't hear you too well. Is your bias for or 5 against law enforcement officers?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you very much.

8 I do want to ask you one general question. Since
9 every two years I am exactly where you are, one of the 10 questions that the lawyer asks is, do you feel you can be
11 impartial. That's a question that the judge has asked you
12 today and I know that you've all answered that honestly and I
13 think that that's wonderful how honest people have been. But I
14 want to ask you a slightly different question from that, which 15 is not whether you can be impartial or not, because we've 16 already talked about that. I want to talk about whether you
17 think there is anything in your experience, in your life
18 experience, in your beliefs that you think could affect your 19 service as a juror. I want to ask that question, I think it's 20 a very difficult question to answer because we all view the 21 world in a certain way and we can't really separate the things
22 that we see from the way that we view the world, but I ask you
23 all to sort of try to make that assessment, not that it would 24 make you impartial, but just that it's maybe something that the 25 parties should know about you, that there's a little bit of

1 life experience, a little chalk on the blackboard for you that
2 affects how you would potentially view this case, or maybe even
3 any criminal case.

4 I know it's -- again, it's not great to have to 5 answer some of these questions in front of a lot of people.
6 Not everyone likes to speak publicly, but could I ask you to --
7 if you do have something, and it may not be an issue, but just 8 to err on the side of letting us know. Is there anybody that 9 has anything they can think of?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 324.

11 15 years ago I was both an executive secretary to a
12 chief of police and a court clerk in Oro Valley, Arizona, but I
13 do not feel it would affect me one way or the other.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am, and thank you for 15 being first.

16 And just say as an example for myself. I would say
17 that I could be impartial, but I would definitely talk by my
18 experience --

19 MR. MARCHESE: Objection.

20 MS. CREEGAN: -- working criminal justice.

21 MR. MARCHESE: -- Your Honor. Counsel is giving her
22 opinion.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I'm giving myself an example.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 What was the number of that last juror?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 324.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 MS. CREEGAN: I think I see a hand over here.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was the victim of a violent
5 crime in 1992, but I have no problem being impartial.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am, and could you please
7 tell us your juror number?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry?

9 MS. CREEGAN: What's your juror number?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 103.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I didn't hear her.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Is there anybody else?

14 (No hands raised.)

15 Okay. Well, thank you very much. I'd also like to 16 ask, is there ever -- anybody that feels that they can't 17 promise that they will evaluate the case 100 percent on the 18 evidence under the law as the judge gives it to you, for any 19 reason? And I don't ask that question to make you feel badly;
20 the only thing that really matters is whether you share it with 21 us. Is there any reason you think you can't decide the case
22 solely based on the evidence under the law as the judge gives 23 it to you?

24 (No hands raised.)

25 And can everybody then promise that that is what they

1 will do in this case? Is there anyone that feels that they
2 cannot promise that?

3 (No hands raised.)

4 Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen, I'll be
5 back up after the defendants ask some questions. Thank you
6 very much for your attention.

7 THE COURT: All right. Who would like to go first?

8 MR. TANASI: I will, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. TANASI: Good afternoon, folks.

11 More questions from a lawyer. I'm guessing that's 12 not anything anybody's looking forward to so I'll try to make 13 it as painless as possible, but it's an important functioning
14 that you all have and myself, Rich Tanasi, I represent
15 Steven Stewart and Steven and I, we both, we appreciate all
16 your time and we appreciate your effort here.

17 So I have a question just to kind of focus on the 18 first group here in front of me in the box. By a show of 19 hands, can you kind of raise your hand if you would never,
20 ever, consider protesting.

21 (No hands raised.)

22 All right. Thank you.

23 Now I'm going to look to the folks over here
24 (indicating) and just kind of focus on the first three rows.
25 Okay? By a show of hands, let know if would you never, ever,

1 under any circumstance consider protesting.

2 (No hands raised.)

3 Okay. Thank you.

4 Come back to the first group here. Building on that
5 same question just a little bit further. By a show of hands, is 6 there any of you all who would never, ever, under any
7 circumstance consider protesting the United States government?

8 (No hands raised.)

9 Okay. Thank you.

10 Okay, folks, kind of the first three rows again. Same
11 question. Is there anybody here who just would never, ever
12 under any circumstance consider protesting the United States
13 government?

14 (No hands raised.)

15 Okay. Thank you.

16 Does anybody in this first group here (indicating) -- 17 kind of by a show of hands -- does anybody here know somebody or 18 know of somebody who's protested before?

19 Okay. Thank you.

20 If we could keep those hands up for a second and, if
21 we could just first identify the numbers for who has their hand
22 up, if that's okay, and then I'll go to the first person with 23 their hand up, if you don't mind.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 95.

25 MR. TANASI: 95. Okay. All right. And then you had

1 your hand up?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 80.

3 THE COURT: 80. Okay. And then, ma'am, you had your 4 hand up. 138.

5 MR. TANASI: Would you mind passing the microphone to 6 them just so they can identify their numbers and then we'll
7 come back to the first person.

8 THE COURT: We have Number 95, Number 80, Number 31.
9 Anyone else?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 138.

11 MR. TANASI: If you could speak into the mic. Thank
12 you.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 138.

14 MR. TANASI: All right. Since you have the mic,
15 we'll just -- we'll stick with you. Put you on the spot. I'm
16 sorry.

17 So, you answered that you know somebody that was, you
18 know, in some way affected or harmed by protesting; right?

19 So --

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I misunderstood the question. I
21 didn't hear the word "harm."

22 MR. TANASI: Why don't -- why don't we keep it
23 simple. Go ahead and elaborate. You raised your hand. If you
24 could just tell me a little about your experience.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, just my sister had protested

1 on the Women's March against Trump. That's all.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Your sister did?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

4 MR. TANASI: Okay. Did you talk to her about that?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A little bit.

6 MR. TANASI: A little bit? What did you guys talk
7 about?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She was just talking about the 9 turnout and she was glad she did it.

10 MR. TANASI: Sure. How come you didn't go?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, she lives in Arizona.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Got you. All right. Thank you.
13 If we could just pass the mic.

14 All right. So, sir, you raised your hand. If you
15 could just kind of elaborate a little bit.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On what the protest was about or 17 when or what?

18 MR. TANASI: Right. What the protest was about.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Back in 1995 I was living with a
20 -- with my girlfriend and her and her co-workers protested
21 something that was unfair at their place of work.

22 MR. TANASI: Okay. What was your position on that?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Simply her significant other and 24 just showed up and just hung out, I guess, but I didn't
25 actually hold a sign up. I just hung out and, I guess,

1 provided refreshments.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Did anything happen to any of the 3 protesters?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You mean anything, like, arrests
5 or anything like that or . . .

6 MR. TANASI: Yeah.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 MR. TANASI: Nothing like that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. It was in downtown
10 Los Angeles.

11 MR. TANASI: Okay. How long was the protest?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe it lasted about three 13 days.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir. Just pass the mic.
15 Who -- over here. Number 80, I think it was.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 MR. TANASI: Thank you. I'm sorry to just call you
18 by numbers, but that's what I'm working with.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's okay.

20 It was back in the '80s when I was in college. There
21 was some campus issues that were protested. I don't recall a
22 lot of the details.

23 MR. TANASI: Sure. What was your role, if any, in 24 those protests?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just supporting fellow students

1 against whatever they were protesting. I was just support
2 basically.

3 MR. TANASI: Sure. And did any of the campus police
4 or any -- anybody, you know, arrest any of those protestors?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Not that I recall.

6 MR. TANASI: Did any harm in any way come to any of 7 those protesters?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 MR. TANASI: Okay. All right. Thank you. Pass the 10 mic back.

11 So, the same -- similar question to the folks here
12 kind in the third three rows back.

13 You know, have you ever been to a protest, and let's
14 just start there. Raise your hand if you've ever been to a
15 protest.

16 All right. We've got a gal in the back. Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 405.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was actually a union strike,
20 if you consider that along the lines of a protest, around 2000,
21 for telecommunications.

22 MR. TANASI: Okay. And what was your -- or what did
23 you do at the protest?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was an operator so I was on 25 strike picketed.

1 MR. TANASI: Okay. Similar question to the one I've
2 asked in that, did any harm in any way come to any of the 3 protestors that you were -- that you were with?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 MR. TANASI: No? Was anybody arrested?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 MR. TANASI: No? Okay.

8 And then I'm not sure if there was any other hands.
9 Again, just kind of opening it up to the group over here
10 (indicating). Has anybody been to a protest?

11 (No hands raised.)

12 Okay. Thank you.

13 All right. If we could come back here to the folks
14 here in front of me.

15 By a show of hands, who here is kind of the mindset
16 that if somebody goes to a protest and they get arrested,
17 that's on them? It's their fault? Shouldn't have gone in the 18 first place?

19 Okay. Thank you, sir.

20 If we could just kind of talk to you a little bit
21 more, please.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Your question was if I believe
23 that if someone attends a protest, whether it's on them?

24 MR. TANASI: If they end up getting arrested or if 25 some harm comes to them. Is that kind of, like, their fault on

1 them because they're there in the first place?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know if I'd just the word
3 "fault," but I would say that whoever chooses to participate in 4 demonstrating something that can lead to an arrest will and
5 should understand what he or she is getting themselves into.
6 So, I believe I would concur with that, yeah.

7 MR. TANASI: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In other words, if they're going
9 do it they should understand that that they're -- you know, it
10 could have a negative impact.

11 THE COURT: The risk.

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you for sharing.

13 I'm sorry, Your Honor?

14 Okay. And we'll turn the same question kind of to 15 the folks here. Just kind of stay focused on the first three 16 rows. Same question. You know, if -- is anybody, by show of 17 hands, kind of of the opinion that it's kind of your fault,
18 it's on you if you're going to protest and you ultimately get 19 arrested? Shouldn't have been there. Shouldn't have been at 20 that protest in the first place. Is there anybody, in kind of 21 the first three rows, that's of that opinion?

22 Thank you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 288.

24 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I feel if you made the choice to

1 participate, then you've made the choice to suffer any
2 consequences if they come across.

3 MR. TANASI: Sure.

4 By a show of hands kind of in this group, is there
5 anyone else who feels that same way?

6 Got two more hands, three more hands. So if we --
7 maybe start in the front.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know if I would use the 9 word "fault" or not; I just think we're all responsible for our
10 own actions. So if you're -- you feel that strongly about 11 something, you care to show that, then you, as an adult or as a
12 person, know what may or may not happen.

13 MR. TANASI: Thank you for sharing.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 199.

15 Similar -- similar stance.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay. Is there anything else you'd like
17 to share? I know it's not comfortable to hold the microphone
18 and do that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's not a whole lot more to 20 add than what's already been discussed.

21 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you.

22 If you could pass it down to the end. Thank you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 148.

24 I'm hoping I'm understanding the questions. I don't 25 think there's anything wrong with protesting, but if you get

1 arrested at a protest, from what I have seen on TV because I've
2 never been involved, some protestors start getting angry and if
3 you don't have the same opinion they do, you should back off
4 and you won't get arrested.

5 MR. TANASI: Sure. So, it's kind of the actions of 6 the protestors that's what's important to you?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. And if you're going, no,
8 they're going way too far with this, then I would back off
9 because I don't want to get arrested, I don't want to get hit.

10 MR. TANASI: So let's talk about that for a second.
11 What would be "going way too far"?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Getting violent, number one. Out
13 of control, just . . . becoming a mob. A mob mentality. You
14 know what I'm saying? Somebody says something that may not be
15 true to upset the others or exaggerated maybe, I don't know
16 what causes that, but I know it can definitely get out of hand.
17 Why it does, I don't know. But if you don't want to -- if you
18 don't understand what's causing that, I don't understand what's 19 causing that, I'm going to go, hey, I don't know what's going 20 on here --

21 MR. TANASI: Sure.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- and I'll back off.

23 MR. TANASI: Thank you for sharing.

24 I know -- I think there were a few other hands that 25 were up. Thank you.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 324.

2 I believe you have the right to protest, but in the 3 same token you have to be accountable for the consequences.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

5 I think that's everyone.

6 Folks here in front of me in the box, who would agree
7 with this statement: If I'm at a protest and there's a dispute
8 between law enforcement officer and the protestors over what's 9 lawful, I'm going to side with law enforcement because that's 10 just the right thing to do? Who would be in that group?

11 Thank you.

12 If we could -- we've got lots of hand on that one.
13 All right. If we could start maybe right here with this
14 gentleman (indicating). Thank you.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 111.

16 I think there's a careful balance in the Bill of 17 Rights. We have the right for peaceful assembly, but we don't 18 have the right to, for example, destroy property, be aggressive
19 or harm other individuals or their property. So, just as a
20 general matter, I don't think that your average police officer
21 goes to a protest saying, "I want to arrest somebody." I think 22 they go in their -- in their normal course of duty as just
23 keeping -- keeping the peace, enforcing the law. Therefore, I
24 am prejudiced to believe that if someone is arrested, that that 25 person, at least in the minds of the police officer, has

1 violated in some way the law.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. So, a couple things there I just
3 want to kind of unpack. The -- the comment you made, if
4 they're doing something that's wrong or dangerous, if I have it
5 right, what would you mean by that? What's --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Destruction of property.

7 MR. TANASI: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Creating harm against other
9 people, injuring or threatening injury to other people. And it
10 could be trespassing, I would imagine might also be a crime for 11 which a person might be arrested.

12 MR. TANASI: And so if the officer makes the judgment
13 call to arrest that person, you believe that they've committed
14 a crime? Is that right, or no?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it's probably more likely 16 than not that they have.

17 MR. TANASI: Okay. So let's build on that --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm slightly prejudiced towards
19 the police officer, that's what I'm saying.

20 MR. TANASI: I appreciate your honesty.

21 So, fair to say, you know, if someone's arrested,
22 it's kind of almost like it's the defense's burden to prove to
23 you that the person is innocent?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not under the law, no.

25 MR. TANASI: Not under the law, I understand, but

1 kind of in your mind?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A tad. A tad.

3 MR. TANASI: I appreciate your honesty.

4 We had a couple other hand-raisers here.

5 Thank you, sir.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 126.

7 Kind of along the same lines. I believe that you
8 have the right to protest, but then if you do something, I
9 believe the officers are there to ensure everybody --
10 everybody's safety and the safety of others and they have a job
11 to do. So, it's best to just listen to what they say and not 12 get rowdy.

13 MR. TANASI: Sure.

14 And kind of building on what this gentleman was 15 talking about in terms of making the arrest or not making the 16 arrest, do you tend to just believe law enforcement when 17 they've made the arrest, that there's a crime that's been 18 committed?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe that they have the -- 20 usually you do something in order to get arrested. They're not 21 just going to arrest you for standing there.

22 MR. TANASI: Sure.

23 So, again, you kind of believe it's the defense's
24 burden to prove that if someone's been arrested, that they --

25 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor --

1 MR. TANASI: -- didn't commit a crime?

2 MS. CREEGAN: -- just object to legal questions. The
3 jury is going to be instructed on the law.

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 MR. TANASI: If someone's arrested --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

7 MR. TANASI: -- is it fair to say you believe they've 8 committed a crime?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: More than likely.

10 MR. TANASI: More likely than not?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you for sharing.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

14 MR. TANASI: If you could pass it down. I think,
15 yes.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 138.

17 If someone is arrested or -- I'm sorry -- if someone
18 is protesting -- can you repeat the question?

19 MR. TANASI: Yeah. It's been awhile and I've done a
20 bunch of different variations of it as well.

21 So, the idea is if some folks are protesting and law
22 enforcement, you know, makes an arrest of some of those folks
23 protesting, are you going to -- do you tend to believe that law
24 enforcement made an appropriate arrest in that situation just 25 because it's law enforcement who made that arrest?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That it's always correct just
2 because they're law enforcement? No.

3 MR. TANASI: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it has to probably go to 5 court to determine whether or not they broke the law.

6 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you for sharing.

7 I think behind you. Yes.

8 Thank you, sir.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 85.

10 I was taught to believe in respect, that if a law
11 enforcement officer has more training and education than me, I
12 have to respect his decision and what he believe is right.

13 MR. TANASI: Fair enough.

14 Can I stick with you for a second? Thanks.

15 So, same idea. If somebody -- kind of where there's 16 smoke there's fire is where I'm going with this. If somebody's
17 been arrested, do you believe that they, in fact, have kind of 18 committed a crime, otherwise they just wouldn't have been 19 arrested?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If they've been arrested and the 21 evidence has proven to their guilt, yes, they should be
22 arrested.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay. And would you require that second
24 step, that evidence to be proven to the guilt, to you?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

1 MR. TANASI: All right. Okay. Thank you.

2 We had another -- thank you, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Tanasi, you have one minute.

4 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mine was along the same lines as 6 138. If -- if somebody's arrested, more likely than not they
7 were doing something they weren't supposed to be. That's what
8 the court process is for, to weed out whether they were guilty
9 or not.

10 MR. TANASI: Okay. So you would draw that 11 distinction?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

13 MR. TANASI: Okay.

14 All right. If we can kind of just focus on the first 15 two, I know I have maybe one more minute, so maybe just the 16 first group. Was there anybody in here in that last question,
17 the variations of that last question, is there anybody who
18 would like to say anything on it or anybody who would agrees
19 with some of what they've heard so far?

20 Okay. We have a gentleman in the back and,
21 Your Honor, I'll end there, if that's okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 314.

23 I think originally you had said -- you had asked
24 whether, in a situation where there was dispute over the 25 lawfulness of actions, either the protestors' actions or the

1 officers' actions, does law enforcement have a -- could you
2 clarify what -- what you're seeking --

3 MR. TANASI: Sure.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- in a situation where there is
5 two sides of a dispute --

6 MR. TANASI: Sure.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- over lawfulness?

8 MR. TANASI: Absolutely.

9 If you have a situation where there's protestors
10 protesting something they believe in but you have law
11 enforcement there as well and law enforcement makes the 12 decision to, you know, arrest them for it or to stop the 13 protest because the law enforcement believes that that's the 14 right thing to do, would you just give the law enforcement
15 officer the benefit of the doubt for making that decision?

16 MS. CREEGAN: Well, Your Honor, I think that's kind
17 of a compound confusing question. I'm not sure I can tell what 18 the answer would mean.

19 THE COURT: I didn't follow -- yeah. I didn't it
20 either. You want to restate it?

21 MR. TANASI: Well, I mean -- I understand,
22 Your Honor, but I think he was ready to give an answer and 23 Ms. Creegan was the one who I don't think understood it, but I
24 could be wrong.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I think in a situation

1 where there is a vigorous dispute over lawfulness at the moment
2 of reality that -- that two parties, there needs to be a
3 process to de-escalate and I believe that that's the role of a
4 peace officer as an agency. However, I also believe that there
5 can be unlawful arrests and inappropriate behavior on an
6 individual or group basis that is an individual's right, as a
7 protestor to question, but not at the moment of a dispute. So,
8 I kind of default to the agency mission of enforcing the peace,
9 but equally I believe in the rights of an individual to 10 protest, to believe they were unlawfully arrested, and that 11 unlawful actions were taken in that activity, but I support law
12 enforcement officer to de-escalate the situation.

13 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you, sir.

14 I think that's my time, so, thank you, folks.

15 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Tanasi.

16 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Perez.

18 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. My name is 20 Shawn Perez and I represent Ricky Lovelien, the gentleman in 21 the back there (indicating). And I want to ask you some 22 questions about how you get your information, like news, social 23 media, and things of that nature.

24 So, let me just pose this to the entire venire panel
25 here.

1 How many of you get your news primarily from local
2 news?

3 I mean -- Number 148.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can you clarify that question?
5 Do you mean Channel 13 or do you mean ABC or CBS?

6 MR. PEREZ: Well, no. I mean, like, local news,
7 Channel 8, Channel 3, Channel 13, Fox News?

8 Okay. 148, what news channel do you watch?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Inaudible. No microphone used.)

10 MR. PEREZ: 13?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Inaudible. No microphone used.)

12 COURT REPORTER: Mr. Perez, none of this is getting 13 on the record.

14 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Well, I'm trying to --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 296.

16 13, 5, 3, the local channels.

17 MR. PEREZ: So, do you -- let me stick with you for a
18 second. Do you watch national news as well?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes, but not -- I watch
20 more local news than I do national news.

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And who else had their hand up?
22 Behind you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 376.

24 I watch mostly 5 and 8, but I honestly don't watch a
25 lot of news, period, because it's depressing.

1 MR. PEREZ: Right.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And then a lot of my other news
3 comes from, like, social media, like, Facebook and stuff when I
4 see posts from family members, but I don't really read into it
5 a lot.

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Let me just ask you a couple
7 questions about Facebook.

8 Now, you said you get news from Facebook?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 MR. PEREZ: So, and is that from a -- a network
11 Facebook page or is that from a friend?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's usually from my stepmom
13 reposting the network Facebook page posts.

14 MR. PEREZ: And when this person posts to their 15 Facebook page, do you pass that news along?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really. I look at it briefly
17 if it's something that catches my interest and most of the time
18 it's stuff to do with the school district, so . . .

19 MR. PEREZ: Do you like, you know, click the thumbs
20 up or the thumbs down?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 MR. PEREZ: So just generally, no comment?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Who else back on that side? On 25 the end.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 445.

2 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I don't know if you were
4 going to ask this as a follow-up, but I don't watch the news, I
5 don't have cable, but I follow, I think, Channel 5 and 6 Channel 13 on my social media, so, if I'm interested in an
7 article, I might click on it and read it.

8 MR. PEREZ: So, would that be, like, Facebook or 9 would that be, like, an app?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's their app on Facebook.
11 Their page, I guess.

12 MR. PEREZ: Right. Okay. Do you ever comment on the 13 news that you read?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 MR. PEREZ: No? Okay. How about back over here
16 (indicating).

17 Social media. How many of you have Facebook pages?

18 How about over here (indicating)?

19 That looks like most of the room.

20 Can we get that microphone over here (indicating)?

21 Let's start on the end in the back.

22 You have a Facebook page?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 103.

24 Yes, I do.

25 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And you've used your Facebook page

1 to communicate with friends?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 MR. PEREZ: Do you get your news from Facebook at 4 all?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 MR. PEREZ: And do you pass things along that are of
7 interest?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very rarely. If it has something
9 do with somebody I know or something in my profession or just 10 anything that I might like, but very rarely.

11 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you ever get postings on 12 Facebook that you don't agree with; they just show up on your 13 wall or your Facebook page?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes.

15 MR. PEREZ: You do? Does that happen fairly
16 regularly?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Once in awhile.

18 MR. PEREZ: Okay. The gentleman to your left.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 95.

20 As to the answer to Facebook, yes, I have a Facebook
21 page.

22 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And how do you use Facebook?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To look at family photos.

24 MR. PEREZ: Family photos.

25 Do you get other news on Facebook as well?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It might come out on a page
2 because someone posts it, but I -- I -- that's not my source of
3 news. I don't watch the news.

4 MR. PEREZ: Okay. How about the gentleman to your --
5 next to you?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 85.

7 I do have a Facebook page.

8 MR. PEREZ: And do you post to your Facebook page?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If it's something worthwhile.

10 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And if it's something worthwhile,
11 are you originating the post or are you reposting?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Reposting.

13 MR. PEREZ: Reposting. And when you repost
14 something, do you -- do you read the entire article that you're 15 reposting before you repost it or you just repost it because it
16 looks like it's interesting and you send it on?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just repost it.

18 MR. PEREZ: Okay. So you don't really get into the 19 content so much.

20 Okay. Next to you.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 84.

22 I have a Facebook page, but I've only created it to 23 be normal amongst my peers. I'm generally not into social 24 media at all.

25 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Well, let me ask you then. As far

1 as news, do you favor local news or national news?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will catch it on if it's in the
3 background, but generally, I -- MSN home page, if it flashes
4 up, then I might click on an article and read it. Otherwise, I
5 prefer books.

6 MR. PEREZ: There you go. All right. But if you had
7 a choice between MSN and Fox News, MSN?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I really just don't care
9 either way. I choose MSN --

10 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Fair to say.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- because at least they scroll
12 for you.

13 MR. PEREZ: Fair enough.

14 Next.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 80, and yes, I have a Facebook
16 page. I use it to keep in contact with friends and family, but 17 not for any source of news.

18 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you repost things that family
19 members sent you or friends send you?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, just usually pictures of 21 family to let other family see it --

22 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- or my friends that are out
24 here.

25 MR. PEREZ: And how about news? CNN, MSNBC, or Fox

1 News?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I usually only catch the news as
3 I'm flipping past the channel.

4 MR. PEREZ: Right.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't --

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you have a preference?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Not really.

8 MR. PEREZ: No. Okay.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm 41, Juror 41.

10 I have a Facebook -- I am on Facebook, but just with 11 the line dancers. I belong to a line dancing group and we 12 communicate that way.

13 And as far as news go, I -- I have listened to CNN,
14 NBC, Fox News, all local news, you know, and -- and that's --
15 I'm not into getting really in-depth with it; I just like to 16 hear what's up-to-date at the time.

17 MR. PEREZ: Right. Do you have a favorite
18 newscaster?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, on Fox 5 that -- that -- 20 oh, what's his name? He's really a -- he's really cute to 21 watch. Oh, Jason Feinberg.

22 MR. PEREZ: Okay. All right. Thank you.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But that's it.

24 MR. PEREZ: Pass that to the gentleman on the end.

25 How about you, sir?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm 111.

2 I get my news not from the lame stream news networks.

3 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I get it from Fox and various
5 conservative news outlets. So when I say Fox, I don't mean
6 Channel 5, I mean Fox News.

7 MR. PEREZ: Right, on -- okay. Cable Fox News.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

9 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do have a Facebook and I do
11 opine from time to time. I also subscribe to various 12 conservative news outlets, some of which I will post and I will
13 also read other people's posts and if appropriate, I'll repost
14 them.

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay. What are those other conservative
16 networks?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Things like -- well, they're 18 really . . . like The Blaze.

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Conservative Tribune.

21 MR. PEREZ: Sure.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Things like that.

23 MR. PEREZ: Okay. All right. How about -- how about 24 newscasters? When you watch the news, do you have a favorite
25 on Fox News?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have -- I like them -- I like
2 most of them, actually.

3 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Watters. Watter's World. He's
5 good. Tucker Carlson, he's great. The rest of the lineup,
6 Neil Cavuto, et cetera, they're really good.

7 MR. PEREZ: Right.

8 Do you have a Twitter account by any chance?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 MR. PEREZ: No? So you're strictly Facebook and news
11 and --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

13 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Thank you.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 126.

15 I do have a Facebook page. I rarely post anything.
16 My main source of where I get my news from is on my news feed
17 from my iPhone.

18 MR. PEREZ: From -- from where?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: From your iPhone. They have a 20 news feed.

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. On that news feed, do you get,
22 like, it would be like a blast from CNN or Fox?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's usually either CNN or Fox.

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Now, as far as Facebook, do you
25 have a tendency to like an article or down -- you know, thumb

1 up, thumbs down?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really, no.

3 MR. PEREZ: No?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hum-um.

5 MR. PEREZ: Do you repost at all?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 MR. PEREZ: No? Why not?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I see something that's 9 interesting, I usually just read it and then move on.

10 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Well, let me ask you, things that 11 show up on your Facebook page or on the wall --

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

13 MR. PEREZ: -- I don't have Facebook, but I know sort
14 of how it works, if something were to show up on the wall or 15 your Facebook page that you didn't like, I mean, is there
16 anything you can do to get rid of it or is it just there?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um . . . I think you can block it 18 if you want to.

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've never done it.

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. But you'd receive it before you
22 block it?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would move past it if it --

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I didn't agree with it, I

1 would just move on.

2 MR. PEREZ: Right. Okay. Thank you.

3 Next. Ma'am --

4 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, one minute. Actually, you're
5 at -- I've let you go over 10 minutes, but I'll give you one
6 minute since you didn't realize.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 138.

9 Yes, I have a Facebook page. I very rarely post on 10 it, mostly to keep up with friends and family.

11 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Real quickly then. Next line --
12 next lady.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a Facebook page, but 14 basically I just take -- get pictures of my grandchildren --

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- and caption them and that's 17 about it. I don't read articles or anything like that on it.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jury 142.

19 I do use Facebook just to share a picture with family
20 and friend. I don't read any article.

21 MR. PEREZ: And do you ever repost anything?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't repost anything.

23 MR. PEREZ: Do you ever like anything?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't -- I don't play too much
25 on Facebook.

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not a -- really -- I don't
3 have time to do Facebook much.

4 MR. PEREZ: Right.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just look at the family picture
6 and friend and chitchat, like that.

7 MR. PEREZ: Great.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't do anything else.

9 MR. PEREZ: All right. Thank you.
10 Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 Mr. Marchese.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 Everybody hear me okay?

15 All right. Good.

16 My first question is just a general question. If we 17 can just get a show of hands and I'm going to give it to the 18 people in the jury box currently.

19 Let's say you're at your residence and your neighbors
20 are being loud and they're arguing. How many people, under no
21 circumstances, would get involved; they'd just leave it alone?

22 (No hands raised.)

23 How about if you believed it was maybe going to get 24 violent, would anyone still not get involved under any 25 circumstances?

1 (No hands raised.)

2 Okay. I'm going to give the same question. First
3 scenario, you're at your home. You hear your neighbors.
4 They're being very loud. How many people, under no
5 circumstances, would just leave it alone; they're just not 6 going to intervene, they're not going to say anything, they're
7 not going to do anything?

8 Okay. Give it to this gal in the front row there.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 199.

10 Do you mean, like, for example --

11 MR. MARCHESE: And, I'm sorry. What's your juror --
12 your badge number?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 199.

14 MR. MARCHESE: 199. Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So, like, for example if my 16 neighbors are arguing at, like, 2:00 in the morning, you're 17 saying that I wouldn't get involved or I would?

18 MR. MARCHESE: You would not get involved under any 19 circumstances. You're just going to leave it alone, you're 20 going to mind your business so to speak.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. I guess it really depends on 22 what time of the day it is. If it's 2:00 in the morning, then
23 yes, I would ask them to please be quiet because people are 24 sleeping, but otherwise, no.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about 2:00 in the

1 afternoon?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. You would just leave it alone?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

5 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Pass it to the gentleman
6 in the tie next to you.

7 And what's your badge number, sir?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 188.

9 MR. MARCHESE: 188.

10 And do you have any feelings on that question at all?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If it seemed like it was going to 12 get violent, I'd probably call somebody.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about if it's just yelling?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Not something you want to get 16 involved with?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Just not in your personality so
19 to speak?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Pretty much.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And if you could -- the 22 gentleman in the -- three rows back raised his hand.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 339.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Are you under the assumption that

1 you know these people?

2 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say, yeah, if I knew
4 them, I would go see if I could help or, you know, if they're 5 having trouble with somebody in particular or if it's amongst 6 them, maybe help try and resolve it.

7 MR. MARCHESE: What if you didn't know them? What if
8 they were just total strangers?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it would be depend. If 10 it appeared that it was going to get violent, I might try and 11 step in, but if it -- if it's arguing or, like, a family
12 dispute or somebody's yelling at the neighbor or something, I
13 probably would not get involved.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Can you pass it to the lady
15 right directly to your left.

16 And your badge number, please.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 329.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Do you have any opinion on
19 that?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wouldn't get involved if it has
21 nothing to do with me. If it's going to get violent or if you
22 see that it's getting violent, then just call somebody to come
23 and take care of it.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But . . . I wouldn't go.

1 MR. MARCHESE: So when you say "call somebody," who
2 would you call?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would call the police. You can
4 always call them just to keep the peace --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- and then let them deal with it
7 and see what's going on.

8 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Would you take any steps
9 after that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 MR. MARCHESE: No?

12 Okay. Was there anyone else in this area
13 (indicating) that had raised their hands?

14 Can you pass it, I think, three down.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If it had anything to do with 16 children, then I would.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about nothing to do with 18 children?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know. If it was, like, a
20 lady, like, a girl or something that was going to get hurt or,
21 you know, just getting vulgar or, you know, I could see that
22 she was getting, you know.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about if it was just two 24 guys arguing?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Sometimes they just got to

1 be guys.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Boys will be boys?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

4 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Fair enough.

5 Anyone else in the back?

6 All right. If you could just pass the microphone
7 down and we'll bring it back to the jury box.

8 Thank you.

9 How many people, as we sit here today, don't like the 10 direction our country is going in?

11 (No hands raised.)

12 And let the record reflect there's a negative
13 response to the box.

14 And I'm going to give that same question to the 15 people not in the box, in the gallery. Same question. How 16 many people here do not like the direction that our country is 17 going in today?

18 And your badge number, please.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 148.

20 MR. MARCHESE: And what is it that you don't like,
21 ma'am? When is it that you don't like?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: New laws. I -- I don't really
23 want to get Christian on you but I'm Christian, so there's a
24 lot of new things going on that I don't really agree with, but 25 I thought I'd go with the flow because it's the government and

1 you go with what the government says so I won't fight over it.
2 You know what I'm saying?

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So you believe that laws should 4 be followed?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Legalized marijuana in Nevada for 6 recreational use, I'm upset about that.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know, that type of thing.
9 So, no, I don't really like it. I don't care it's normal. I
10 don't think it's right.

11 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Do you feel strongly
12 enough to protest about it?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not the protesting type.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did vote against it though.

16 MR. MARCHESE: What steps, if any, would you take 17 against that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I voted against it.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. You would just exercise your 20 electoral rights and that's it?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Fair enough.

23 Who else raised their hands? I thought I saw some.
24 Get the -- I think it's three rows back, midway in.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 324.

1 For the most part, it's just political. I do not
2 agree with the current administration that we have and the 3 direction that the government is going right at the moment.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

5 Now, I also had an indication that you were from --
6 had some ties to Arizona?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 MR. MARCHESE: AND whereabouts is that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was involved with a community
10 law enforcement in Oro Valley, Arizona which is a bedroom
11 community of Tucson.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And how long were you --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was a small department when I
14 started there. That's why I was hired as secretary to the 15 chief of police/court clerk --

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- which I thought was kind of a
18 . . . conflict of interest, but . . . it was a small 19 department.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

21 How small.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I started, there was a chief
23 of police, five officers, and myself.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. And how long did you work
25 there?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About eight years.

2 MR. MARCHESE: And after your eight --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But the apartment -- the 4 department did grow.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And how big did it get after 6 your eight years?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Finally, they separated the 8 judicial from the law enforcement and I chose to stay with the 9 police department.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And what brought you to Las 11 Vegas?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My granddaughter, when she was 13 born. I said I couldn't be eight hours away from her.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And how old is your 15 granddaughter?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So we've been here almost 23
17 years.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Oh, okay. So your granddaughter is an 19 adult now?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Both my grandchildren are 21 adults now.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Both your grandchildren here or where 23 are they?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. They're both here.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I knew the only grandchildren I
2 would have would be here, so I was going to be where they were.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I'm very proud that I was.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Good for you.

6 Anybody else raise their hands?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I'm very frustrated with 8 the direction of this country over the last maybe 20 years, the 9 decline of the educational system, the lack of civility between 10 people and I guess maybe because of those two things the -- the 11 clear polarization and disintegration of what I think is the 12 fabric of our society. So, yeah, I think --

13 MR. MARCHESE: What do you think's --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- I'm not happy with the 15 direction of the country.

16 MR. MARCHESE: What do you think the solution to the 17 polarization is?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I think civil discourse is 19 a good way to address the issues, maybe not resolve them, but 20 with understanding comes tolerance and a recognition that we 21 can agree to disagree, but let's do it in a civil manner and 22 respect individual rights.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I believe you said "civil 24 discourse." That was the term you used.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 MR. MARCHESE: And what would your definition of 2 "civil discourse" be?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it could be protest. It
4 could be debate. It could be finding common ground through --
5 through intermediaries or social organizations, that kind of 6 thing. But I think withdrawing from society and withdrawing
7 from the other side, if you will, is not -- is not the answer.

8 MR. MARCHESE: You mentioned social organizations.
9 What do you -- what did you mean by that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just think when people
11 affiliate, even with common interests, you develop more
12 tolerance and understanding of people that might be a little
13 bit more different than you but common enough that you expand
14 your perspective and that allows the development of social
15 skills to be able to build bridges to people who you disagree --
16 disagree with on a fundamental basis and rather than resorting
17 to uncivil means, you have more tools socially to be able to,
18 you know, progress your thoughts or change somebody else's
19 opinion.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Thank you.
21 Anyone else?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 455.

23 Well, I think that's a really loaded question, but as 24 far as my stance, I work in the social service field and I
25 think currently where things are heading it's taking a lot away

1 from people that are not in positions to fully take care of 2 themselves. A lot of resources and benefits and things that
3 people that I directly work with are being affected and, I
4 think things like equality are a really big issue. When you're
5 exposed to indigent populations and just people that need more
6 help than the average citizen, you tend to be more aware of the 7 . . . inequality that is out there and I feel like the current
8 administration, that is reducing funds in certain areas that 9 are meant for this population, it's -- I don't like where it's 10 heading.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

12 Now, you mentioned demographic. What demographic do
13 you specifically work with?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work with the chronically
15 homeless.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How long have you been doing
17 that for?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Six years.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And that's -- I believe you
20 said you had to get some sort of licensure or something
21 tomorrow?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Well, I go for my 23 interview.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well, good luck.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

1 MR. MARCHESE: All right. And where are you from?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Born and raised in Las Vegas.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. You're a dying breed.

4 I guess we'll -- is there anyone else in the back?

5 Okay. I guess we'll go -- take it back to the jury
6 box.

7 And I'm going to ask you to pass it to Number 41, up
8 at the top.

9 Okay. I liked what the gentleman in the back was
10 saying so I'm going to take one of his answers and ask you a 11 question about it. He had mentioned "civil discourse." What 12 does that mean to you?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Civil discourse?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Yes.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh . . .

16 MR. MARCHESE: If anything.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, disconnection within the 18 civil rights I do believe. I'm not really understanding quite 19 totally, but that's what I'm thinking. It's a disconnection of 20 a civil course.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well, generally speaking, him
22 and I were discussing when you don't agree with something and 23 he mentioned civil discourse. If you didn't agree with 24 something, what actions would you take or steps, if any?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I didn't agree with something,

1 of course I want to hear -- you know, there's always two sides
2 to see what their opinions are on and I base it on that. I
3 just go with what I feel is right on either side. It's -- not
4 necessarily has to be the -- just because you're an officer,
5 doesn't necessarily have to be that. Doesn't necessarily have
6 to be a protestor. It's what I feel that was right at the time
7 when it was -- whatever thing was happening.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. You mentioned what you feel is 9 right. If you feel that something is right, do you feel that 10 you can be -- your opinion can easily be swayed?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My opinion? Well, it will be 12 mentioned, yes, it will be mentioned. I mean, I will stand
13 ground on it, yeah.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm going to ask you to 15 pass the microphone to the front row to the lady at the end. I
16 believe it's -- I think you're 142 in the front?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um-hmm.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. First question. Did you hear
19 the question that I asked the lady in the back?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Can you repeat it again?

21 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

22 Gentleman in the back and I were talking about when 23 you don't agree with something and he mentioned the term "civil 24 discourse." Do you remember that line of questioning?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What does that mean to you?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, if you don't agree with
3 something, you have to speak out and talk to somebody or tell
4 somebody --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- it's just not right.

7 MR. MARCHESE: All right. And what steps would you
8 take, if any, if you didn't agree with something?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know how to explain
10 because I'm not in that position --

11 MR. MARCHESE: Sure.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- you know. It's hard to give
13 some kind of expression that I'm not in -- in their shoes.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well, let's just -- let's take
15 a hypothetical. Let's say you didn't agree with something.
16 Would you express your opinion to a friend?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. I will. I will express
18 my opinion and say, hey, that's not right.

19 MR. MARCHESE: How about to a stranger?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To a stranger, it's -- it's the 21 same, too. It's they -- if you try to harm somebody -- I mean,
22 we all have -- we just human, okay. Every human have the same
23 human right. So, we don't want to harm anybody.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Would you put a --

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's just, like --

1 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry. Would you put a bumper
2 sticker on your vehicle?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I probably would not.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about a sign in front of 5 your home or residence?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Last question, Mr. Marchese.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to 10 cut you off.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's hard to answer this kind of 12 question because I -- I never had that experiencing [sic] and I
13 don't know how to express it.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well, there's no right or wrong
15 answer. It's your opinion.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. Okay.

18 And am I done, Your Honor? I'm sorry?

19 THE COURT: You can have one more.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

21 And since you're right there, ma'am, can you just 22 pass it to your left, my right.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 139.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Same line of questioning. I'll 25 be quick. If you felt strongly about something and you had an

1 opinion one way or another, would you tell a friend?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Would you argue with a friend?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would stand up for my right
5 to -- to think the way that I -- for the stand that I've taken.

6 MR. MARCHESE: How about a bumper sticker? Would you
7 put a bumper stick own your vehicle?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Kind of depends on what it would
9 be worth. I mean, if it's something that I felt that somebody
10 else could benefit from, yes, but if it's something that's a
11 personal thing, then I probably wouldn't.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Would you get in your car and
13 travel to a protest?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Excuse me?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Would you get in your vehicle and 16 travel to a protest?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Marchese.

20 Mr. Leventhal?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Judge.

22 Thank you, Judge.

23 Good afternoon. My name is Todd Leventhal. I
24 represent Mr. Drexler. Just a few questions. I let my 25 colleagues go first so they took a lot of the questions, but

1 who here knows what the acronym CCW means? Raise your hands.

2 And of the hands that are raised, how many have their
3 actual CCW?

4 Just the three of you? Okay. Thank you.

5 All right. Number 296, can you raise your hand.

6 Where's 296 -- 376? Back there.

7 Can you get the microphone back there. Thank you.

8 Hi. We haven't really heard from you very much. I
9 wanted to ask you, what kind of TV -- what do you watch when 10 you watch TV?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Criminal Minds and Law and Order
12 SVU.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. What is it about those shows
14 that you like?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, as far as Criminal Minds
16 go, Matthew Gray Gubler and Shemar Moore and then just 17 basically the actors and -- that they kind of, sort of portray
18 things, but I know most of it's exaggerated so . . .

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So are you -- you're sort
20 of -- those -- you just talked about two sort of criminal
21 shows, right? Or is that something that you're interested?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Okay. All right. And other
24 than the actors, what interests you? Just --

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Some of the stuff that they do,

1 like -- like, in Criminal Minds, like, Penelope Garcia, she
2 hacks a lot and it's kind of an interesting thing to see how,
3 like -- and she got into the FBI for hacking. So, it's just a
4 lot of the stuff that they do, so, like, and how they save
5 people and stuff, so . . .

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So you like the investigation
7 of it?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very cool.

10 All right. Thank you.

11 If we could go to 188. 188? Where's 188? Right
12 here (indicating).

13 How do you feel about -- how do you feel about being 14 on a jury? How would you feel about it? Your feelings?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I feel good about it.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Is it something you've always 17 wanted to do?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been on juries before.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I feel like I'd be a good juror.
21 If I was on trial, I'd like people like me to be a juror.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Great answer. All right.

23 Do you have any opinions about firearms?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. What are those opinions?

1 About firearms?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have some.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's all I need to know.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. You hunt with them?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pardon me?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you hunt with them?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Okay. All right.

10 If we can go to 111. I think 111's over
11 here (indicating) -- thank you, sir.

12 Hi. Good afternoon.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: You indicated on a previous question
15 that you think you need, like, I think you indicated careful
16 balance and a peaceful assembly. Do you remember those 17 questions? Those answers?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Let me ask you some -- a
20 different question.

21 How are you -- do you work in groups?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm retired.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: You're retired. When you worked, did
24 you work in groups?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sometimes. Okay. And when you
2 worked in these groups, did you find you were a leader in the 3 group or were you able to follow others?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Some of each.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Some of each. Okay. Were you -- did
6 you sort of manager people or . . .

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had -- some of the time I was a
8 manager. Some of the time I was a follower.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: A follower. Okay. And it just 10 depended on what it was that you were doing in your task?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Different points in my career.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Different what?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Different point in my career.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I see. Okay. You -- you talked a
15 little bit about Fox News. That's where you get your news
16 from?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And is there anybody in 19 particular in Fox News as an anchor that you like specifically?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think most of them I like.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Most of them, but nobody comes to 22 mind?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'll mention three or four.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

25 THE COURT: Watters, Tucker, Cavuto.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

2 THE COURT: He mentioned Watters, Tucker, Cavuto.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good memory.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: She's -- yeah. And how do you feel
5 about sitting on a jury?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh . . . it's kind of an honor
7 and a burden.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Interesting.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But it's a solemn thing. It's 10 nothing to be taken lightly.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. Thank you.

12 If we could go to -- I appreciate your answers.

13 If we could go to 158. 158? Am I just way off?

14 Can we -- 158. Thank you.

15 Hi, ma'am. How are you?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm fine.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Okay. You indicated
18 earlier that -- and I don't want to put you on the spot -- you
19 have chronic pain?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am. I thought she was excusing
21 me, but she was a number away from me.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I thought the judge was excusing
24 me, but she excused the number under me.

25 I'm in -- I'm suffering very bad.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So that's why I haven't spoke on
3 anything because I'm in tears, I'm in pain.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I understand. Have you been
5 following along the discussion?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I'm listening.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And are you on medication now?
8 I think we asked you that. It wasn't --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, but it don't work and I'm 10 the type, if it's not working for me, then I don't want to keep 11 taking it and my doctor won't give me nothing stronger, so. . .

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. I understand. Thank you
13 very much.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You welcome.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 314 really quick,
16 back here (indicating).

17 314. There you are. How are you?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. Good.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Couple questions ago you were asked
20 regarding protests. You think there should be a fair balance,
21 everyone should be able to debate. Is that what you indicated?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not sure I said that. What 23 I -- what I meant to say was I believe strongly in the right to 24 protest.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And do you own a restaurant?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Supper club.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, supper club. Okay. And you
3 indicated you knew Detective Jenkins?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I know him as TJ. That's 5 why I wasn't sure if that was the individual on the -- on the 6 list.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. He comes to your club?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: How often does he come to your club?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, you know, we've been open
11 for 14 years, so, probably more than 10 years.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Does he come with his squad?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And by himself also.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: With his squad, in uniform,
18 sometimes.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And sometimes it's --
21 just regular customer.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I don't remember if you were 23 asked. Were you asked whether or not you've spoken about this 24 case with him?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I've not spoken to him

1 about this.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had pro-offered [sic] in the 4 earlier question that I've not had any conversations with him
5 about this.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. All right. Thank you very
7 much.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Who hasn't spoken? Raise your hand.
10 Okay. Go ahead. What number are you? Sir, in the 11 green.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 275.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: 275. We'll get back to you in a
14 minute.

15 How do you feel about sitting on a jury?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's my right as a American
17 citizen.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. I think someone said it would 19 be an honor. Is it an honor as well?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It is an honor.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. And did you ---
22 were you one that had your hand up with a CCW?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: You don't have a CCW?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have one.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you could pass it to your
2 right, please.

3 And go ahead. Same question. How do you feel about
4 sitting on the jury?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's part of my responsibility as 6 a citizen.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And did you have your hand up
8 when you -- when you were asked about a CCW?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: And you do have it?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not. I know what it is, but 12 I do not own one -- have one.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. All right.

14 Who else hasn't spoken?

15 Thank you. Back there (indicating).

16 Go ahead and give us your name -- or your number.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 392.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: 392?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. How do you feel about -- how 21 would you feel about sitting on this jury?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's very intimidating and I feel
23 like I can see myself doing this in the future, but --

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: What's this? Being a juror?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. What do you mean you could see
2 yourself?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I just feel like I'm just
4 too young. I still don't know anything about the system, laws,
5 and all that stuff and being up there kind of does scare me a
6 little bit.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So it would be more an of 8 education for you?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So you'd go in with open
11 feelings and openness to the whole process?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. Thank you very 14 much.

15 138. I think you're down here (indicating), real
16 quick. One more question.

17 How am I doing on time?

18 Hi.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: You were asked about a -- I think it
21 was your -- was it your sister that went to the Women's March?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And you indicated that she went on 24 that. Were you aware of the -- what Madonna said about blowing
25 up The White House.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't watch the news.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: You don't watch the news? Okay.

5 During the Women's March was anybody aware of 6 Madonna's statement that she wanted to blow up The White House
7 or something to that effect?

8 Could we give the microphone back to her.

9 How did you feel about that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Terrible. I -- she should be 11 prosecuted for that.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What she said, and this is our 14 president. You don't say things like that. You have to 15 respect him, you know, and the way she put it, and she has all
16 these followers, it really -- you know, it's starting to be a
17 Hollywood thing where they follow each other and I -- you know, 18 it's -- I don't like that at all. Too many followers there.
19 Not any good leaders.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. Thank you.

21 Did you have your hand up?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I just was agreeing with her
23 thoughts.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: You're agreeing with her thoughts?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I heard Madonna saying

1 that. There was a clip.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I think she should have been
4 arrested. I wonder why the Secret Service didn't visit her
5 immediately.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Interesting.

7 Anybody else heard the statement?

8 Back here (indicating)?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 207.

10 I heard what she said and I agree with the others,
11 that she should have been arrested. Whether you like him or 12 you don't like him, there's an amount of respect, he is the 13 president and if you don't like it, go away. But again,
14 it's -- they seem to be -- seems to be something that's 15 flowing, is that we have that right. Yes, we have rights, but 16 it gets down to respect and there just isn't any.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So rights to respect.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We have rights to speak our 19 minds, yes. But disrespectfully, no, and he is the president.
20 Sorry. That's who he is.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. What if she said it about 22 anything other than The White House?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Huh?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is it because he's the president?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She said it about The White

1 House.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. But what if it was about,
3 something else, a different house, any -- a blue house.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I -- I -- when it comes to 5 bodily harm, someone is going to be damaged because of what
6 they believe, I don't buy that. I mean, we all have a right,
7 yes, but I don't think we have a right to hurt each other
8 because we don't agree.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Interesting.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Speak your mind, but that's about
11 it.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Thank you.

13 Is there anybody else who hasn't spoken? No?

14 Thank you very much for your time. I appreciate it.

15 Oh. Someone? Oh, there you are. I didn't see you
16 because of the . . .

17 What's your juror number?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 205.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: 205.

20 I have a question for you. Do you believe that 21 people who are arrested at a protest are probably guilty of a
22 crime?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No? You believe that just because an 25 arrest is made, that there's still another process after that?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And that would be the court
3 process?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. How do you feel about sitting
6 on the jury?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Um, I think it's a duty and I
8 think it's a privilege.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Excellent. Okay.

10 Is there anybody else? No?

11 Thank you very much.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Leventhal.

13 We're going to go ahead and take our restroom break.
14 20 minutes, Mike, you think is enough? There's not that --
15 there's only about half of them left. So we'll -- it's 3:15.
16 Aaron, 3:45?

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Let's plan to be back here at 19 3:45. We're going to go ahead and --

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, 3:25.

21 THE COURT: 3:25? Okay. 3:30. That's awesome.

22 All right. So 3:30. Let's go ahead and stand for 23 the jury and remember when you come back, please sit in the 24 same seat.

25 (Venire panel excused from courtroom at 3:18 p.m.)

1 (Outside the presence of the venire panel at 3:39 p.m.):

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

3 THE COURT: We're back on the record, outside the
4 presence of the -- all of the jurors except for Number 339.

5 You can go ahead and take a seat if you feel more
6 comfortable. Either way.

7 Juror 339 had indicated to the marshal -- oh, 199.
8 I'm sorry. 199.

9 Is she 199?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am 199.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Great.

12 -- that she wanted to speak to us outside the 13 presence of the other jurors.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I just wanted to discuss,
15 like, the financials of being that part of a jury.

16 If this was a two-week trial, I would be totally on 17 board for it because my employer would pay for up to 10 days,
18 but after that, I would be sustaining a $1200 a paycheck loss
19 by being on the jury.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So you're saying your employer
21 pays up to 10 days of jury duty --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

23 THE COURT: -- but not more than that.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

25 THE COURT: And so, you've crunched the numbers and

1 you would be losing $1200 --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A paycheck.

3 THE COURT: -- each paycheck and you're paid every?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Every two weeks.

5 THE COURT: Two weeks. Okay. So for every two weeks
6 after the first 10, you would be losing 1200, and is that
7 taking into consideration the jury services?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

9 THE COURT: I know it's not very much pay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. That's already taking into 11 consideration what I would be paid as a juror.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So, what is the result of that?
13 Because you did tell us that you were head of household and 14 that your husband does work but only part time and so that 15 would be a hardship. And so are you telling me that it's even 16 more of a hardship than you originally thought before you --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct. I wanted to also 18 further, I guess, explain my case with that because knowing,
19 like, I'm a younger person with just one other person to take 20 care of, like, I still have to pay for rent and car note and 21 things like that. That mostly depends upon the combination of 22 our pay and not just one person's pay, if that makes sense.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right.

25 THE COURT: Appreciate that.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

2 (Prospective Juror 199 excused from courtroom.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. And can we next have number . . .
4 41 come in.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, we have
6 Juror 41.

7 THE COURT: Hi. I just had a question for you that I
8 need some clarification on. So in the -- in the jury
9 questionnaire there was a question that said, "Do you know of 10 any other reason why you cannot or should not serve?" and then 11 earlier today when I had the little slide show, this didn't 12 come up. So, you didn't raise your hand in response to any of 13 the other questions so I just wanted to clarify. The response
14 that you gave in the jury questionnaire is, "There was no
15 deaths; leave it alone." So how -- what does that mean in 16 response to why you cannot or should not serve on the jury?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, that was just a easy way
18 out, but, you know, I didn't really mean it. I just figured,
19 well, if they -- just -- there wasn't any deaths, which I
20 didn't really get into the whole story. Goes to show you I
21 never did get really into it. I heard about it, but didn't 22 really get into all the details. So, that's why I left it the 23 way it is, you know. I didn't know if anybody got shot or hurt
24 or any of that. So, that's why I said it that way.

25 THE COURT: All right. And so how is that a reason

1 why you cannot or should not serve?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I -- I could serve, yes. I
3 have no problem. Is that what you're -- I didn't quite -- I
4 can't hear you.

5 THE COURT: All right. So the question was, "Is 6 there any reason why you cannot or should not serve?" and then
7 you provided a response.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. No. I could serve. I --
9 I -- there's no issue. I'm sorry.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry about that.

12 (Prospective Juror 41 excused from courtroom.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. If we can bring everybody in and 14 then the Government has reserved 10 minutes I think it was?

15 MS. CREEGAN: I think I reserved all but 10. I went 16 pretty brief in my first few questions.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 (Venire panel returned to courtroom at 3:46 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: All right. Everybody is back, I believe.

20 Go ahead and sit down. Anybody think that there's 21 someone missing next to them that was there before we broke for 22 lunch? I know I've already excused quite a few of you, but 23 raise your hand if you think there's someone who is still in 24 the restroom or maybe went down to get a drink at the coffee
25 shop.

1 (No hands raised.)

2 All right. It looks like we're all here.

3 All right. One of the questions I usually ask that I
4 haven't asked yet is about whether any of the jurors here
5 recognizes someone else in the group. We've actually had 6 fathers and sons before. We had two people who worked with 7 each other; one was the supervisor of another. And so now that 8 you've had chance to see and hear everybody, raise your hand if 9 you think you recognize someone else who's a potential juror.

10 (No hands raised.)

11 Nope? Okay.

12 Go ahead. Government may go ahead and finish up your
13 questions.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

15 All right. I'd like to ask a couple specific
16 questions to some folks, just questions that I had, maybe I
17 misunderstood something in your questionnaire, and then I'm 18 going to have a few more general questions.

19 So if you could please pass that Juror 80, please.
20 Right there (indicating).

21 Good afternoon, ma'am.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

23 MS. CREEGAN: So, ma'am, I do not need to pry, but I
24 do see that your spouse was a Park Service employee and we will
25 have some witnesses that work for the Park Service. Do you

1 have any strong feelings about the Park Service from that
2 experience that could impact you?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you. I appreciate that.
5 And Juror 103, please.

6 And, ma'am, I see that you know Mace Yampolsky.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 MS. CREEGAN: And is he a personal friend or an 9 acquaintance?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: An acquaintance. He actually
11 represented my son in a criminal case.

12 MS. CREEGAN: And have you ever spoken about this
13 case with him?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Never.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. And would your friendship with 16 him in any way impact your service as a juror in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you.

19 And as a more general question, I know that some of 20 you folks talked a little bit about respect that you might have 21 for law enforcement officers. Is there anyone that feels that 22 they could not, because of that respect, follow the 23 instructions about the reasonable doubt standard as the Court
24 gives them to you?

25 (No hands raised.)

1 Okay. Seeing no response . . .

2 I'm going to ask the opposite question. Is there
3 anyone that has kind of a bad feeling about law enforcement
4 officers and -- that have negative views of them?

5 (No hands raised.)

6 Seeing none . . . Even broader. Anybody have sort of 7 negative views about the federal government that could impact
8 them?

9 (No hands raised.)

10 Okay. Here's another general question. Has anybody
11 tried to speak with you, here at the courthouse? Maybe somebody
12 you don't know tried to contact you, tried to speak with you
13 about this particular case, or hand you information or anything
14 of that kind?

15 (No hands raised.)

16 Okay. And I have one question that I'd like to ask
17 everybody because I'd like to get a chance to talk a little bit
18 with everyone. I know all my questions are not ones that really
19 give you much of a chance to speak, so I'd like to ask everybody
20 if we could please pass the mic just to say in a sentence or so
21 what you think you bring to working in a team, because being in 22 a jury you will have to work with 11 other folks.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 142.

24 I'm so grateful to be here because I've been to a
25 jury before, but I never get to pick and sit in the panel like

1 this. I'm excited.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 139.

3 This is my very first time of being a juror and a
4 personally, I think that it's an honor to be here and to be
5 able to serve my country.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And my county. So . . .

8 MS. CREEGAN: And what do you feel, like, when you
9 work in a bigger group, like 12 or so people, what do you feel
10 you can maybe bring kind of maybe to a team.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What do I feel? I feel like,
12 hopefully, I can bring objectivity to it. Be able to reason.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number 138.

15 I work well in a group as helping organize other
16 people.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would say I work well with 18 others. Be able to discuss and bring up, like, each other's 19 opinions and kind of go from there.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. I have no problem working 21 with others.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Do you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have no.

24 MS. CREEGAN: No problem. Oh, good. I didn't hear
25 the "no."

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I realize I do have
2 something to say and I do want to, you know, make it out there
3 that I respect the law and I am honored to be on a cast of 4 whoever I'm with to discuss this. It is -- it is a privilege.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. And when you work in a group --
6 maybe you do it at work or maybe you do it in your personal 7 life -- what type of role do you normally take when you work in 8 a group?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been a supervisor.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 80.

12 I enjoy working and daily work in teams in my place
13 of employment. I've taken both roles as a leader and as a
14 follower in different groups. I feel I bring objectivity and 15 respect to the evidence brought forward.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. I'm Juror 84.

17 I feel like I would contribute an open mind and 18 pretty much clean slate because I'm not really -- I don't 19 follow news as heavily as others would, so I don't have any 20 pre-opinions.

21 MS. CREEGAN: How do you feel about being a juror on
22 this case?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm excited and a little bit
24 nervous. Never been in this situation and this one seems kind
25 of like a big deal.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 85.

3 I think it's an honor and a privilege to be here
4 today and to serve as my -- as an American citizen and I can
5 work with large people [sic] because I work with a group --
6 large group of people at work.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 95.

8 I think what I can bring to the jury is the ability
9 to listen to all aspects of any kind of situation or issue and 10 put my personal feelings aside and participate by elaborating,
11 collaborating, and brainstorming other topics, but for the most 12 part, I believe what I can bring to the jury is my support as 13 far as rendering sound mind judgment and I feel that it is my 14 civil duty to serve in a jury and, that's about all I have to 15 say.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 103.

18 I, too, am honored and privileged to be here today.
19 I'm super excited about it. I feel like I can bring leadership
20 to the table. I can bring a sense of reasoning and objectivity
21 and just some equality in the room.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. I'm Juror No. 207.

23 This is the first time I've ever been solicited to be
24 on a jury, which I find very exciting, lack of a better word.
25 I am an open-minded person. I'm very analytical. I deal with

1 facts and facts only. Until moving here, I have always been in
2 a large organization so I've worked solo, I've worked with
3 teams and have to get consensus.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jury 205.

5 Um, I, too, have worked for a big corporation and
6 I've been a leader and a follower. I believe that I am a
7 peacemaker and I believe that I can bring people back on point.

8 MS. CREEGAN: How do you feel about being a juror in
9 this case?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm very pleased to have been 11 chosen.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 199.

13 I'm a little nervous being here. It's my first time
14 being a juror.

15 I -- I've worked in big groups, small groups, so
16 familiar with the idea. Usually I play a devil's advocate, so
17 play with the ideas as they come out, that sort of thing.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 188.

19 I'm looking forward to hearing both sides of the 20 story and then trying to figure out who -- who has the best
21 story.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a privilege and an honor to
23 be chosen to serve on any jury and I prefer working in teams
24 because I really don't know a whole lot about nothing.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 275.

1 It's an honor and a privilege to serve and it is also
2 our right as American citizens.

3 Thank you.

4 MS. CREEGAN: And may I ask you, sir, do you have 5 opportunities to work in a team and what role you might
6 normally play when you work on a team?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a lone store major so I led
8 the team as well, I listened and followed as well.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 284.

11 I think this is a fascinating opportunity to explore
12 the events that have been occurring. I'm a scientist by 13 training and trade, so I tend to be very analytical and as a
14 scientist, we work collaboratively to come to a common
15 conclusion.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 288.

18 Typically in a team setting, I lean towards the 19 leader via structure and organization.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 339.

22 I work for a small corporation, so, we all have to 23 work as both leaders and followers depending on what we're
24 working on. I'm a logical person and very objective. So, I
25 feel like I could bring a sense of objection [sic] to the -- to

1 this -- to this trial.

2 MS. CREEGAN: And how do you feel about being a juror
3 in this particular case?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I -- I think it's an honor and
5 part of our -- part of our duty as citizens, so . . .

6 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 329.

9 I think it's an honor to be chosen up to this point
10 and I have no problems working in a large group with people.

11 MS. CREEGAN: What -- what type of role would you say
12 you would normally play when you work in a group?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I like to follow, but at the same
14 time, depending on where it takes you, if you need to lead, you
15 always have to take an initiative.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 325.

18 It's a both privilege and a little bit -- because 19 this is the second jury duty that I have. The first one was 20 with the city court and I did work with a group before,
21 so . . .

22 MS. CREEGAN: And could I ask you, sir, when you are 23 working on a team, what type of role do you normally play?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, at the same time, both a
25 leader and a follower.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 324.

2 With my previous career, one of my myriad careers of
3 being in law enforcement and the court system, I also feel that
4 I can be objective and follow the letter of the law if that is
5 what is required of us. I've also been a leader and a
6 follower. So, I've been a business owner where I've had to 7 take a lot of responsibility and I've worked in organizations
8 where I just am part of the team and make it work.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I feel like I'm more -- an aspect
11 of my husband and I, we lead a biblical foundation group so on 12 a moral standpoint, more in that direction I think I could lead
13 in that direction. Otherwise, certainly open for all, you
14 know, what -- what they have to say.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 314.

16 I think I'm a very good listener, an active listener
17 and I have an eye for detail and I believe that's actually very 18 important in -- in any process. I'm not really a natural 19 leader. However, I will be -- I -- unhesitating to step up if 20 there's a gap in what I see as a process issue or team
21 dynamics. But generally, I like to kind of stay in the -- in 22 the back here.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 296.

1 Work-wise, I've worked with groups, large groups,
2 small groupings, similarly. I've acted as a lead and I've also
3 acted as a drone, so I can feel comfortable doing both.

4 MS. CREEGAN: May I ask you, sir, how do you feel
5 about being a juror in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, it's an honor and a privilege
7 to be here.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 376.

10 I've never been on a jury before so I'm excited to 11 kind of get the new experience since I've only ever seen the 12 other half of this kind of -- of -- words -- of the justice
13 system, you know, from the TV shows and stuff that I watch.
14 And as far as working in groups, I usually try to kind of stay
15 in the background like him, but I will -- I do bring forward my 16 own ideas if I have them, so . . .

17 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 388.

19 I -- I also bring an open mind. I have no
20 conclusions about this case. Generally, throughout my life,
21 I've been known as someone to facilitate smooth transitions and 22 get to the bottom line of things. And as far as this case is 23 concerned, I'm really intrigued.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 397.

25 This is my first time in federal court and I think

1 the jury process is really important and it's a privilege as an
2 American. My small group experience tends to be as a problem
3 solver, detail oriented.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 405.

5 I'm . . . proud to be American and this is our duty
6 and I believe in our justice system. I'm fair and patient and 7 a good listener. I don't like speaking in public, so I tend to 8 be more of a follower.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you for speaking in public just 10 now. I'm sorry. I know it's not enjoyable for everyone to 11 talk to a whole room full of people.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 445.

13 In a group setting, I typically like to kind of 14 assess the people I'm with first. So, depending on the 15 dynamics of the group, I may take the leader role, but I like 16 to take the supporting role more. Very solution focused and 17 critical thinker, so I kind of like to take in my surroundings
18 before I give my opinion or feedback on what's going on.

19 MS. CREEGAN: And you'll all remember that earlier
20 today I asked if there was anything that you can think of that 21 we should know. Maybe in hearing some more questions or having 22 some more time to think of it, you may have thought that there
23 is actually something that you'd like to say. Is there anybody
24 that feels like they have something that they would like to 25 make sure that we know?

1 (No hands raised.)

2 Okay. Thank you very much.

3 THE COURT: All right. At this time the Court is 4 going to thank and excuse Juror No. 199 for a financial
5 hardship.

6 (Prospective juror excused.)

7 All right. The rest of you we're going to invite to 8 return on Wednesday at 12 o'clock. We'll probably start court
9 at about 1 o'clock with you. We still have another group that 10 we're going to be questioning as well and then we'll put the 11 two groups together, but you do need to be at the jury room at 12 12 o'clock so that the folks down there, the staff can take 13 attendance and validate parking and do the paperwork that they 14 have to do for you.

15 So, at this time we'll go ahead and thank you for 16 coming in today. I know it's been a long day for you. I was 17 hoping to get you out of here by 4:30 so I'm really glad that 18 we did so I know you had to be here early today. So, please be 19 back here by 12 o'clock on Wednesday. Today's the 10th. So
20 Wednesday will be the 12th. Be here by 12 o'clock. Okay?

21 Thank you very much and we'll finish up, hopefully,
22 jury selection Wednesday afternoon.

23 Have a good day.

24 (Venire panel excused from courtroom at 4:06 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: All right. We're outside the presence of

1 the jury. We're still on the record. You may sit down.

2 We've got a few more minutes before we need to break.
3 So, are there any other for cause challenges or issues that you
4 want me to consider or that the parties have agreed upon that 5 we want to put on the record so that it will be easier on 6 Wednesday?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

8 THE COURT: If you've already had some time to 9 discuss it today.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

11 I would like to renew 158. She's the individual that 12 had the chronic back or chronic pain. She seemed like she 13 wasn't really awake when I asked her a question over there.
14 She kind of, oh, I'm 158. She wasn't really paying attention.
15 I would renew my -- my motion to have her for cause.

16 MS. CREEGAN: We'll agree to that, Your Honor. We 17 see that she is in some pain. She is struggling.

18 THE COURT: All right. So we'll excuse Juror No.
19 158.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'd also -- 142.

21 Now, in speaking to her, it really wasn't clear, but 22 she indicated, one, that she did not want to serve on the jury,
23 and two, on her questionnaire, that she has a language barrier.
24 So, I think based upon those two things -- now, you know, I
25 don't know how much we needed to get into with it to her, but

1 if she's indicating she has a language barrier and we're just
2 talking to her simply, how far she can go with -- you know,
3 with a long trial, I would ask that she be removed for cause as
4 well.

5 THE COURT: All right. I never heard her say she
6 didn't want to be here. In fact, she said she would be willing
7 to serve and in response to Ms. Creegan's answers, she was
8 excited to be here. Did you hear something different? Am I
9 mixing up a different juror with this one?

10 MS. CREEGAN: No. I think she -- in her --

11 THE COURT: It's the person at the bottom at the end,
12 right?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Correct.

14 She said something in her questionnaire that she was 15 concerned about there being a language barrier, but in speaking
16 to her, she seems to very clearly understand and speak to me.
17 I can see that she has an accent, maybe she's self-conscious,
18 but I don't see that she's struggling to understand.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, on answer Number 9 she says,
20 "No. I would like the judge to please excuse me from jury 21 service," and then she goes on to say that she should not be on 22 the jury because of language barrier.

23 Now, maybe if we ask her some more questions when she 24 comes back, that's fine, but if she's indicated that she thinks
25 she has a problem, I would ask that she be removed for cause.

1 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: All right. I'm looking at her
3 questionnaire. She has a degree in accounting, employed full
4 time as an accountant.

5 All right. So, Question No. 42, "Is there any reason
6 not yet covered why you think you cannot or should not serve on 7 the jury?" And she responded "yes." And the next question is,
8 "If yes, please explain," and then she writes, "language
9 barrier." And then the next question, Number 43 says, "Are you
10 willing to serve as a juror in the trial of this case?" and her
11 response is "yes." And then as to question Number 4 -- 44,
12 which is, "Did anyone help you complete this jury
13 questionnaire?" she responded "no."

14 So we can follow up with her on Wednesday, but it --
15 I -- I understood here fine, but . . . she didn't seem to not 16 want to be on the jury. I don't know if she misunderstood the 17 question or just wanted to mention that she did have an accent
18 or a possible language barrier, but we can explore that on 19 Wednesday if we need to.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And one last one. 405,
21 Your Honor. She indicated that she comes from a long line of 22 law enforcement and she has a problem with cops being victim or 23 victimized. I think that goes to a strong bias. So I'd ask
24 that she be removed for cause as well, or he. Yeah, she . . .

25 THE COURT: This is the one that said she was a

1 follower.

2 Ms. Creegan, do you have an objection to 405?

3 MS. CREEGAN: I do, Your Honor. I think a lot of 4 people respect law enforcement, but the question is whether
5 they can follow the Court's instructions on reasonable doubt
6 and nobody indicated that they couldn't follow those.

7 If we removed everybody that respected law
8 enforcement, we would have a very, very biased jury.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think she just went one step
10 further. I understand the respect for law enforcement, but 11 when you say that she has a problem, i.e., a bias, that when a
12 cop is a victim, obviously that's sort of -- you know, not the 13 heart of any defense or anything, but, you know, if somebody's
14 telling the Court that, that goes to bias when we're bringing 15 in law enforcement officers talking about, you know, on a scale
16 of 1 to 10 how -- how -- how did you feel threatened, what was 17 the threat level, things of that, the assessment. When 18 somebody first comes out with that, that goes to bias and I
19 think that's a strong motive to remove her at this point.
20 We've got plenty of jurors that have actually stayed and we've 21 got more coming in.

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart would join, Your Honor.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

24 THE COURT: This is one that was scheduled to come in 25 tomorrow and then couldn't be here, so she came in today

1 instead.

2 Let me make sure we're talking about the right one.

3 So, 405.

4 She's the one that indicated she had a felony
5 conviction.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, are you referring to 7 Juror 445 or 405?

8 THE COURT: I don't know. Which one is it,
9 Mr. Leventhal?

10 MS. CREEGAN: Because I think 445 would have been 11 scheduled to come in tomorrow. She's not in the first 60, but 12 I think 405 would have been the very last person in the first 13 60.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have it as 405. It would be the 15 third to last female on the back row.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: She did also indicate that she was 18 part of a union protest, if that helps.

19 THE COURT: So she's the one that said she had a
20 prior felony conviction and her rights restored, right?

21 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor. For, I
22 think it was, dealing marijuana before it was legal and now
23 that would make her an entrepreneur.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, I didn't hear her say
25 that she was biased. I did hear her say that she had a long

1 history of law enforcement in the family.

2 I'm going to deny that motion without prejudice. We
3 can look into it more on Wednesday if we need to. I don't see
4 the -- I don't see the bias.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government would ask to 6 excuse Juror 392. She was the young lady that said she was 7 very intimidated by this experience. After she gave that 8 answer, she did begin to cry. I think she may struggle to 9 handle the experience of being a juror.

10 THE COURT: Any objection from the defense to the 11 excusal of 392?

12 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry, Your Honor. What was the 13 number again?

14 THE COURT: She said she was -- 392.

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: In her questionnaire she said she was not
17 willing to serve but then she didn't really give an explanation
18 for that, but I think today she did explain that it was 19 intimidating.

20 Was she the one who said she could picture herself
21 doing this years from now but not right now because she felt 22 too young and inexperienced to be able to --

23 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: -- know what to do?

25 MR. MARCHESE: Parker has no objection.

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart also has no objection,
2 Your Honor.

3 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien, no objection.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

5 THE COURT: All right. So we'll excuse 392.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we'd also like to ask to 7 excuse Juror No. 148. She's the woman who indicated that she 8 did have a problem with the separate 924(c) count.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. She was also the one who said, in 10 the questionnaire, that she was not a citizen.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: And she's not 18.

12 THE COURT: She's not 18 years old. That she 13 wouldn't be able to understand English, and she spoke English
14 fine today. She also said she had prior jury service and was 15 willing to serve.

16 MS. CREEGAN: I suspect she may have gone through the 17 form just checking "no" for everything.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. That's really -- yeah. She said
19 her -- one of her kids is aged 46 years old, so obviously she's 20 over 18 years old. Yeah. That was kind of odd, but we never 21 really went into it.

22 What's the defense position?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No -- no objection on behalf of 24 Mr. Drexler.

25 MR. TANASI: None from Parker.

1 MR. MARCHESE: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

2 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

3 THE COURT: All right. So 148 will be excused.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we finally would like to 5 renew our objection to Juror 41. Her explanation for why she 6 gave that answer is she was sort of deliberately trying to get
7 out of jury service by being flip about saying no one was hurt
8 so leave it alone. I think that's -- doesn't indicate a great
9 deal of respect for being a juror, regardless of what she says
10 now.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. I still didn't really understand
12 her answer and she was . . . I think bizarre is probably an 13 understatement for the way that she acted and the responses she 14 gave.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, she indicated that, you
16 know, she always would see two sides and at the end she said
17 she's honored. She'd be honored if she could serve. I
18 mean . . .

19 MS. CREEGAN: I think she was very embarrassed to be 20 called on it, but originally her response was to try to get out
21 of jury duty by giving a flip and dismissive response and, of 22 course, this is very serious and even though she says today she 23 can take it seriously, she said something else in the past.

24 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, we've all seen this during 25 voir dire.

1 THE COURT: Well, I think she's going to be a
2 questionable juror and I don't know if you would want to keep
3 her at the end when it comes down to comparing her to others,
4 but I don't think that it rises to a level of a for cause
5 challenge. It probably wouldn't be the best person to choose
6 to be on the jury, but that's what the peremptories are for. I
7 don't see that she's disqualified from serving, but . . . she's
8 certainly an odd duck is the nicest thing I think I could say
9 about that, but it's not -- that is not enough to disqualify
10 her.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Any others?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the Government.

14 THE COURT: All right. So we start again at 8:30
15 tomorrow morning. Same thing, different group.

16 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry. Court's indulgence. We had 17 just one other that we were talking about. I just want to see
18 where we are kind of on that one.

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 (Counsel conferring.)

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, there's no further motions
22 from the defense. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right. So we'll see you back here
24 tomorrow morning.

25 Thank you, counsel.

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for jury
6 trial, day 2, in Case No. 2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL, United States of
7 America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Steven Stewart,
8 and Ricky Lovelein.

9 Counsel, please note your appearance for the record.

10 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Steve Myhre,
11 Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

12 THE COURT: Good morning.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Jess Marchese
14 on behalf of Mr. Parker.

15 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi for 16 Steven Stewart.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Todd
18 Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler. And we've got Nona Dodson
19 as well as Tori Bakken.

20 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on 21 behalf of Ricky Lovelein.

22 THE COURT: Good morning. Well, I don't know who 23 complained yesterday about it being too warm, but be careful
24 what you complain about. I brought in my sweater to use today
25 because I was told that it was a freezer in here. It probably

1 will get warmer as more people start to come in, but we'll have
2 to start off cold a little bit.

3 Do you have something to put on the record,
4 Mr. Marchese?

5 MR. MARCHESE: I do, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead.

7 MR. MARCHESE: In getting the list of potential jurors
8 for today, Juror No. 539, Ms. Poleski, I just wanted to make a
9 record. I used to work for her husband. I've been to her home.
10 I don't believe she would probably remember me. I've also had 11 her son help me move. I -- like I said, I don't believe that 12 she would remember me. Her husband definitely knows me and her
13 son as well.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 539 does mention that she knows
15 Mr. Marchese on her questionnaire.

16 THE COURT: Yes, she says her husband knows through 17 work Mr. Marchese.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 Was there anyone else that the parties had looked at 21 and wanted to go ahead and agree to excuse now so we don't waste
22 time or ...

23 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we did observe that Juror 479
24 is a courtroom administrator for Judge Koppe and used to work at
25 the U.S. Attorneys Office.

1 THE COURT: Yes, I'm -- who is that? 479. Right. And
2 so 479 also says: Previously worked at the U.S. Attorneys
3 Office. Knows most of -- all of the attorneys, especially the
4 AUSAs, friends with Ahmed and Dickinson, and knows a great deal
5 about this case having worked for Judge Koppe, who is not the 6 magistrate judge assigned to this case, but I think did a couple
7 of the initial appearances. On her duty days they came in. So
8 she already has information about the case that may or may not
9 be admissible.

10 So I think that it would make sense to excuse her,
11 unless you want to ask her more questions. Any objection to 12 excusing No. 479?

13 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

14 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: 479 will be excused.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, 436 has already pretty much
18 made up his or her mind. I believe the Bundys family broke the 19 law and deserve to be punished, is what she wrote. So I don't 20 believe there's any doubt on that.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan, any objection to excusing 436?
22 I didn't look at that one to see if she said she was willing to
23 serve.

24 MS. CREEGAN: We don't have an objection to 436. But 25 we do have some other jurors that have indicated bias that, if

1 you would like to do that now as opposing to questioning people
2 more, the government would also like to move to exclude.

3 THE COURT: All right. So 436 will be excused.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 442 has indicated that they would
5 nullify if they do not agree with the law.

6 THE COURT: Yeah, very clearly say: I refuse to follow
7 the Court's instruction of the law.

8 All right. Any objection to excusing No. 442?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. So 442 will be excused.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 666 says: I don't agree with 13 either side in this case and don't think I can be impartial.

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 666?

15 MS. CREEGAN: 666.

16 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think she's indicated she 17 doesn't I think think -- she doesn't agree with how things went 18 down on both sides of the stand-off. That's kind of the 19 definition of impartial.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well ...

21 (Defense counsel conferring.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: It indicates that the juror's made up
23 their mind about the case. It just doesn't appear to be for or 24 against one particular party.

25 THE COURT: She says she doesn't believe in the system.

1 Doesn't like what's on TV. Doesn't understand it.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: We have no objection to 666.

3 THE COURT: All right. So 666 can be excused.

4 MS. CREEGAN: And Juror 590 has indicated that they
5 would find serving on the jury a waste of time. I also note
6 they fall asleep when sitting too long.

7 I'm sorry. I see that 590 has actually not shown up
8 today, which I guess would make sense.

9 THE COURT: So, Aaron, 590 is not here today?

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

11 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Go through the list. Do you have the list
13 of who has not appeared today so we can --

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I do not, and Summer is 15 currently delivering a jury to Judge McKibben.

16 THE COURT: Oh. Okay. So Judge McKibben is getting
17 his jury right now. So we don't ...

18 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry if I missed it, Your Honor.
19 Was Juror 539 excused? The juror that knows Mr. Marchese.

20 THE COURT: No, I don't think that he moved for 21 excusal. He was just ...

22 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, I did not. I was just letting the 23 Court know that I have had prior contact with her. I doubt
24 she'd remember me. Maybe if she saw me, she would remember me,
25 but I don't think that the, quote, unquote, relationship is such

1 that there's a bias.

2 THE COURT: So, Ms. Creegan, are you moving to excuse
3 539 or do you want to question her further?

4 MS. CREEGAN: I would move to excuse her at this time,
5 but we can certainly question her further as well. She does
6 indicate that she knows both Mr. Marchese and Mr. Leventhal in 7 her questionnaire.

8 THE COURT: What's the Defense position? You want to 9 ask her questions or do you --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, we would, Your Honor. I believe
11 that -- I don't think she personally knows Mr. Leventhal. I
12 believe her husband, Mr. Poleski, knows Mr. Leventhal.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: He's a City attorney. I know him. I
14 don't know -- I don't know her. I don't have any relationship.
15 As a matter of fact, she wrote North Las Vegas down on her
16 questionnaire, and he's actually a City attorney over at County
17 here -- or the City.

18 MR. MARCHESE: And I should also probably put my 19 earlier comments into a timeline. We're talking 15 years
20 ago-ish was when I was in her home.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Let's see.

22 So in her questionnaire she says her husband is an
23 Assistant City Attorney for the City of Las Vegas Criminal
24 Division. And you're saying it's North Las Vegas,
25 Mr. Leventhal?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. I must have read that
2 wrong. I see it. I just didn't know who it was. I wasn't
3 putting together who it was last night. That's all.

4 THE COURT: Oh. Okay. Says the husband used to work
5 with Jess Marchese. Husband knows through work Leventhal and 6 Marchese, as well as other defense attorneys in this case.
7 They're mentioned as ...

8 Husband knows Captain Tom Jackson through work. Is 9 that a police officer?

10 MS. CREEGAN: He testified in the first trial.

11 THE COURT: Mentions her father-in-law is a retired FBI
12 agent, who taught her how to shoot.

13 This was interesting. When asked about if she was 14 familiar with Bunkerville, she said she saw a few news casts of 15 the origami event? Is that origami like paper-folding or was 16 that just ... I didn't know if that was a typo.

17 Okay. She says she's willing to serve. And in 18 response to the question: Any reason yet covered why you cannot 19 or should not serve, she says no.

20 Okay. So we'll leave her on for now and see if it
21 becomes more clear whether or not she should be excused.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Any other jurors you want me to consider
24 excusing?

25 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So, so far we've got 436, 442, 479.
2 I better keep track of this other one, too, because ...

3 Is it just those three, Aaron?

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I show 666 as well, Your
5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: That's right.

7 All right. So let's go ahead and see -- do you think
8 they're ready now?

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: She's not back yet. Should
10 just be another couple minutes. I can call down there and see
11 if someone else is available.

12 (Court conferring with courtroom administrator.)

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if we could maybe address 470?

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MR. TANASI: She's indicated she feels that the Bundys
16 were wrong allowing their cattle to graze on federal land and 17 that they were wrong in threatening violence against federal 18 officers. She's also indicated she doesn't want to serve.
19 She's a paralegal at a civil firm in town, Olson, Cannon,
20 Gormley, Angulo & Stoberski, I think.

21 THE COURT: Moving to excuse?

22 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am.

23 MS. CREEGAN: No objection, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. How about any other defendants
25 object to excusing 470?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So 470 will be excused.

3 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. So I'm going to excuse them
5 after they come in and sit down. Otherwise, I think that the 6 seating chart will be wrong, and everyone will be confused. So
7 go ahead and mark on your seating chart so that after they
8 leave -- it will be easy with the box because there will be 9 empty chairs, but with the rows -- No. 666 is almost right in 10 the middle of that third row. So as you're counting -- if 11 you're counting heads, remember to skip one.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

13 Your Honor, I apologize. I'm looking at this again.
14 480, if we could strike.

15 MR. MARCHESE: I don't think 480 is here.

16 MR. TANASI: Disregard.

17 THE COURT: What was that number?

18 MR. TANASI: 480, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: 480?

20 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am, but I was mistaken.

21 THE COURT: Yeah. It looks like they didn't show up.

22 Mr. Tanasi, I think 480 was here yesterday.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

24 MR. TANASI: Yes. That was withdrawn, ma'am.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 (Whereupon jury panel enters courtroom at 9:21 a.m.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated.

3 We're still on the record. We're joined by the jury.

4 Good morning and welcome, ladies and gentlemen. We lost a
5 little bit of time this morning because we had a couple of 6 different juries for different courtrooms and trying to make
7 sure we keep everyone straight here, but we do have all of the 8 jurors for this trial that filled out a questionnaire.

9 So please raise your hand if you did not fill out a
10 written questionnaire.

11 (No response.)

12 THE COURT: Okay. So I think we've got all of you.
13 I'm going to go ahead and call a couple of juror numbers, and I
14 want you to just raise your hand so that I can make sure you're 15 sitting where we think you're supposed to be sitting because we 16 have a seating chart. All right.

17 So, first of all, Juror No. 426? Thank you. Juror
18 No. 465? Thank you. Juror No. 485? Thank you, sir. 517? All
19 right. And Juror No. 523? Thank you, ma'am. Juror No. 571?
20 Thank you, sir. 648? Okay.

21 And let's see. 609? Thank you. 587? 653? Thank
22 you, sir. 666? Thank you. 700? Thank you. 767? Thank you.
23 And 725? And 704? All right. Great. So you all are seated
24 where you're supposed to be seated so we can go ahead and get
25 started.

1 All right. Well, you have been summoned to court in
2 this case as a panel of prospective jurors to serve in a
3 criminal case. And most of you I know have families to care for 4 or jobs that require your attention, and you have busy
5 schedules. It's never convenient to serve on a jury. However,
6 it is the highest duty of citizenship. We had jurors just like
7 yourselves yesterday. Quite a few of them mentioned what an 8 honor it was to have the opportunity to serve the community on a
9 jury. And I think that you'll find that that's true as well.

10 Even the individuals who try to get out of serving on a
11 jury, when they do end up on a jury, often tell us that they
12 found it to be very interesting, and it is an interesting
13 experience.

14 So our system of justice does depend upon good citizens
15 such as you to serve on juries in our Federal Court throughout 16 the nation every day. And if you were a party in a case in 17 court, I know that you would want to have that case decided by a
18 jury composed of individuals just as yourselves.

19 First, we're going to go ahead and have Aaron
20 administer the oath, and then I'll ask you some questions.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Will the prospective jury
22 please stand and raise your right hand?

23 (Whereupon the jury panel was duly sworn.)

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. You may be
25 seated.

1 THE COURT: All right. Now, I'm going to be asking you
2 questions, and the questions that I'm asking you are in order to
3 determine your qualifications, just like when you're going to a
4 job interview and there are certain qualifications that need to 5 be met. Justice Kennedy on the Supreme Court likes to say that
6 serving on a jury is like serving on a government board. You
7 have to have certain qualifications. And so we're going to be
8 asking you questions about those qualifications.

9 One of those qualifications is to be fair and
10 impartial. So when I say can you be fair and impartial, I mean 11 can you judge this case solely on the facts of -- presented to 12 you in court, the testimony, the documents, things that are 13 presented to you in court, and can you follow the instructions
14 of law, which I will give you at the end of the case, and those 15 must govern your deliberations. That's what I'm asking when I
16 say can you be fair and impartial. Can you put aside any 17 opinion that you may have already reached because of something
18 you read or something you heard or something someone told you.

19 So the questions I'm going to ask you are not designed
20 to embarrass any of you. First of all, I am going to introduce 21 to you a summary of what the case is about. It's not evidence,
22 so don't consider it as evidence. It's simply to assist you to 23 understand what this case is about.

24 So this is a criminal case, as I said. The United 25 States is the prosecuting agency. I may refer to them sometimes

1 as the prosecution or just simply as the Government. They have
2 filed a criminal case against four individuals: Eric Parker, O.
3 Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelein, and Steven Stewart. And
4 sometimes you'll hear me call them by name, and sometimes you'll
5 hear me collectively refer to them as the defendants.

6 Now, the defendants are charged in a document called an
7 indictment, and they were charged as follows. The defendants
8 are charged with multiple violations of federal law arising from 9 events occurring at or near the Town of Bunkerville in Clark
10 County, Nevada, between approximately March 2014 and April 2014.

11 Federal law enforcement officers were enforcing court
12 orders to impound cattle belonging to Cliven Bundy which were 13 grazing unlawfully -- I'm sorry -- belonging to Cliven Bundy
14 which were grazing unlawfully on federal public lands. The 15 indictment charges that the defendants conspired with, and/or 16 aided and abetted Bundy, and others, to threaten and use force
17 and violence to interfere with the officers while they executed
18 their duties to enforce the court orders.

19 Now, again, this is just a summary. It is not 20 evidence. All of the defendants have entered pleas of not 21 guilty to these charges; therefore, they are presumed to be 22 innocent. The law does require you to presume that they are 23 innocent of these charges, and although they've been accused,
24 they start this trial with a clean slate. There's no evidence
25 that has been presented in trial against them or offered against

1 them. The law permits nothing, but legal evidence to be
2 presented in this court to be considered by the jury against the 3 accused.

4 Now, the law permits you to consider only the factual
5 evidence presented and legally admitted in court before you
6 arrive at a verdict in this case. And that means that you are 7 never to conduct an independent investigation yourself at any
8 time.

9 A criminal charge consists of factual elements. The 10 government has the burden of proving each of those elements
11 beyond a reasonable doubt. Remember that a defendant in a 12 criminal case does not have to introduce any evidence to prove 13 his innocence.

14 The defendants are presumed to be innocent now and
15 throughout the trial, unless and until the jury is persuaded
16 that the government has introduced evidence establishing the 17 defendants' guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The purpose of 18 this trial is for you to determine whether the Government can 19 meet its burden. A defendant must be acquitted if the 20 Government fails to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

21 In a criminal case the judge and the jury have divided
22 responsibilities, and it is my duty to preside over the trial to 23 decide the questions of law during trial and to instruct the 24 jury as to the law that is applicable to this case.

25 On the other hand, the most important duty in a

1 criminal trial is reserved for the jury. And it will be your
2 duty to judge the facts and to pass judgment upon the
3 defendants.

4 When I ask you questions, if the answer is yes, please
5 raise your hand. We're going to be using these questions to 6 determine, first of all, whether someone should be excused for 7 cause, which is another way of saying lack of qualifications.
8 And the second reason is so that the parties can best determine
9 how best to exercise their peremptory challenges, which are 10 challenges they may use to excuse a juror without giving any 11 particular reason. So the parties do have a small number of 12 these challenges. And so, therefore, they may choose to ask you
13 follow-up questions after I ask you the general questions.

14 And I'll ask our court reporter -- recorder that unless 15 one or more of the jurors raises his hand or her hand, the 16 record should show that there was a negative response to my
17 question.

18 So, first of all, we have jury qualifications. To be 19 qualified for jury service, the law requires that the individual
20 be a citizen of the United States. That's number one. Number
21 two is that you must be at least 17 years of age. Number three
22 is that you must be able to read, write, speak, and understand
23 the English language, so all four of those. And, number four,
24 you must have resided in the State of Nevada for at least one
25 year.

1 So, please, raise your hand if you think that you are
2 not qualified because you do not meet one of these four
3 qualifications.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not a good speller.

5 THE COURT: Just a minute. All right. We've got a
6 microphone coming your way.

7 What is your jury number?

8 What is your jury number?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 5 or 451.

10 THE COURT: 451. Okay. So go ahead.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just not a good speller.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Not a good speller, but you can
13 read, write, and speak, and understand the English language?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 Okay. Well, luckily, there will be no spelling
17 involved. At the end there is a verdict form, but most of it I
18 think is just checking boxes. I don't recall if there's 19 anything in particular to write in. You'll all be together.

20 Anyone else?

21 All right. We've got ...

22 Your jury number, please?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My number is 523.

24 THE COURT: 523. Yes, ma'am.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't write perfect English. I

1 understand it. I read 90 percent.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So you don't -- say that again. You
3 don't write the English language well?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-hmm.

5 THE COURT: All right. But can you read it?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I can read it.

7 THE COURT: And can you -- do you feel that you
8 understand it?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I understand.

10 THE COURT: So it's just the writing part that's a 11 problem?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 Anyone else? What's your juror number, please?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 550.

16 THE COURT: 550. Thank you.

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can speak, and writing and 18 reading, a little bit, not really good.

19 THE COURT: So you can read and write -- you can read
20 it and you can write it, but your speaking --

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everything is a little; not very 22 well.

23 THE COURT: Okay. A little and not very well. So what 24 language do you speak best?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Spanish.

1 THE COURT: And how long have you been in this country?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 10 -- no. 12.

3 THE COURT: 12 years?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-hmm.

5 THE COURT: All right. And what do you do for a
6 living?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sorry?

8 THE COURT: What do you do for a living?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work.

10 THE COURT: Yeah. Where do you work?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Palace Station.

12 THE COURT: And what do you do there?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Food runner.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So what does a food runner do? Do
15 you have to talk to customers and take orders like a waitress?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, it's the basic -- you know,
17 I running up with the food, but not no -- like, my speak is not 18 like fluency, you know. Like, I understand and I speak, but not 19 like ...

20 THE COURT: Okay. So not fluently?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-hmm.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Anyone else in that front row?

24 (No response.)

25 THE COURT: All right. How about the second row?

1 (No response.)

2 THE COURT: Is that the third row?

3 What's your juror number, sir?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 666.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a problem. I don't
7 understand 90 percent. When jury person was talking, sometimes
8 I can't understand so I have to try to read it. I can read and
9 I can speak a little bit better, but not reading or no --
10 sometimes I miss the -- what you are talking about.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

12 Anyone else there? Anyone else in the benches? Okay.
13 We'll go back to the box then.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello. My name is --

15 THE COURT: What number are you, sir?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 464.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And you wrote on the questionnaire
18 that your English is about 60 to 70 percent, and your wife
19 helped you fill out the questionnaire. You're full-time --

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

21 THE COURT: -- at a casino.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Anyone else you want to add to that?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. That's fine. That's the 25 one.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 So jury number, sir?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 476.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can read maybe like 80 percent.

6 I can write maybe like 70 percent.

7 THE COURT: So you read 80 percent and what --

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 80 percent, and write like 70
9 percent.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And write 70 percent.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: When you read, do you feel that you are 13 understanding what you are reading?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly, yeah.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And you're also a cook?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 What's your number, sir?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 485.

20 THE COURT: 485. Yes, sir.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a correction officer before
22 when I was in the Navy, United States Navy. And I was told what 23 -- and heard it might be -- have a conflict of interest.

24 THE COURT: Okay. We're not at that question yet. I'm 25 just asking questions right now about reading, writing, and

1 understanding, and speaking the English language, but we'll get
2 to that question. Thank you, sir.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're welcome.

4 THE COURT: Anyone else have anything that you wanted
5 to let us know about whether you are qualified?

6 (No response.)

7 THE COURT: All right. So there's actually three more
8 qualifications. Number five is that you must not have any 9 federal criminal charges pending against you. Number six is you
10 must not have any prior felony convictions where your -- unless 11 your civil rights have been restored. If your civil rights have 12 been restored, then you're qualified, but if you have a prior
13 felony conviction and your civil rights have not been restored,
14 then we need to know about that.

15 A felony is a crime that is punishable by more than one
16 year in prison. So traffic tickets and things like that 17 generally are not felonies. They're usually misdemeanors.

18 And then number seven is you must not have any mental 19 or physical infirmity which would prevent you from rendering
20 satisfactory jury service.

21 So please raise your hands if you think that you may 22 not be qualified because of any of these three reasons.

23 All right. What's your jury number?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My jury number is 574.

25 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And this would be pertaining to
2 the felony --

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- convictions. I am an
5 ex-felon, many, many years, but I do believe my rights have been
6 restored because I voted for over the last 10 years.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 Anyone else in that row?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My number is 659, and I have a
10 recently diagnosed medical condition with a doctor's note.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And is that for a mental or physical 12 infirmity?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe I'm covered under HIPPA
14 for that.

15 THE COURT: All right. So did you bring the note?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

17 THE COURT: Did you want me to take a look at the note?
18 All right. You can go ahead and pass it to my staff person
19 there, and she can bring it up so you don't have to get up since 20 you're in the middle of the row.

21 And that note was from yesterday, right? The date on 22 there is 7/10?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just learned I was reporting
24 last night.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 Anyone else have a concern about whether you meet these
2 qualifications? Please go ahead and raise your hand if you do.

3 That's a uniform negative.

4 Now, besides qualifications, there are other things
5 called excusals and you may choose to excuse -- exercise your 6 right to serve on a jury, but you also may not be required to 7 serve on a jury if you meet any of these four qualifications.
8 So, for example, number one is if you are more than 70 years of 9 age. So that means if you are more than 70 years of age, you
10 are not required to serve on a jury, but if you want to, you
11 still are qualified to serve on a jury. But we would not 12 require you to serve on a jury if you are over the age of 70.

13 The second excusal listed is if you have active care
14 and custody of a child or children under the age of 10 whose 15 health and/or safety would be jeopardized by your absence for 16 jury service. Number three is if you provide essential care and 17 custody for an aged or infirm person. And, number four, if your 18 services are so essential to the operation of a business,
19 commercial, or agricultural enterprise that such enterprise must 20 close if you were required to perform jury duty.

21 So please raise your hand if you think any of these
22 excusals apply to you and you wish to be excused. So if the 23 excusal applies to you, but you're willing to serve, you don't 24 have to raise your hand. You only need to raise your hand if 25 you wish to be excused for any of these four reasons.

1 Your jury number, sir?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 486.

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I believe I would be under 5 question 4. I work at True Light Glass and Aluminum. I'm an
6 optimizer, and I'm currently plant manager. And the guy that
7 covers me is currently out of -- out of the state. So as long
8 as I'm not there, the company can't run, and there's over 60
9 employees that are waiting basically for me to optimize and get
10 production on the floor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So what are they doing today?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Today?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, 12 o'clock roughly I
15 release the first batch, and after that I got a department of 16 six guys that comes in. If I haven't done my part, they can't 17 do nothing. After this, these six guys come in. They produce
18 the material that goes onto the next department, which is 19 another group of five guys. And it just rolls on. 50 guys
20 total, different departments.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 Anyone else? Jury number, please.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 653.

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 Okay.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I work at Heritage Springs.
2 It's a retirement home. I'm the building service assistant, and
3 our director just quit. So they just have me in charge for the 4 time being, and we haven't found anybody to work -- to take over
5 that position.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So who's in charge today?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They have the bus driver right
8 now. He helps out usually a bit, but he has to do other stuff,
9 too.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Anyone else in the benches?

12 (No response.)

13 THE COURT: Anyone else in the box?

14 (No response.)

15 THE COURT: All right. So moving on, there are four 16 other exceptions -- oh, was there one more?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Juror No. 501.

18 THE COURT: 501. Thank you.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I was looking at number
20 three. My mother basically had a stroke and was hospitalized
21 for two months. And my sisters and I have been taking turns
22 every day going to her. She's been released from the hospital
23 and the rehab, but she's living currently with one of my 24 sisters. And two of us are taking turns every day going to help
25 her transition, just walking, eating, all kinds of things like

1 that. We've been doing that for about a month.

2 And I also work for the School District, and I am an
3 assistant resource -- assistant in the resource room which I
4 feel is, you know, is another thing that I would like to be
5 there the day of -- we get training about a month from now. And 6 we have -- work with special needs kids.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if we could just have her
8 juror number again, please.

9 THE COURT: The jury number?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. Jury number is 501.

11 THE COURT: I think it's 771, isn't it? We don't have
12 a 501.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. I'm sorry. I don't have my 14 glasses. I apologize. 0771. I apologize.

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else?

17 (No response.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So there are four more
19 excusals. Number five, if you are a physician, a dentist, a
20 registered nurse, a registered pharmacist, an attorney-at-law, a
21 member of the clergy, a member of religious orders, a school
22 administrator, a schoolteacher, or a volunteer safety personnel.
23 Number six, if you live more than 80 miles away one way from the 24 courthouse. Number seven, if you previously served as a juror
25 in this Federal Court in the last two years. And, number eight,

1 if serving on this jury would cause you an undue hardship or
2 extreme inconvenience.

3 If any of these four apply to you and you wish to be
4 excused, please raise your hand.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have an emergency --

6 THE COURT: What is your jury number, please?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0426.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That I can't -- I have to go back
10 and forth to California, and the witnesses I guess that you
11 listed, it would be a conflict of interest.

12 THE COURT: Which witnesses?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would probably be Senator Dean
14 Heller. It has something to do with desecration and a theft of 15 my burial plot. He's from that area, from California. And so
16 I'm having a hard time here in Nevada.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And I see you brought your luggage
18 with you today.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: Are you supposed to be leaving today for 21 California?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I'm in a slum lord
23 situation. They want to steal the evidence that I have against 24 them. The burial plot is grand larceny first degree is what 25 they'll be charged with.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's all in there. It's just a
3 laptop, copies of police statements, letters, and stuff.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And the evidence that's in your 5 luggage, that's information that you're going to be using to 6 prosecute?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, now they're looking for my
8 brother and his wife and sister-in-law, father. They're dead.
9 I realized that when I went to the burial plot. They're dead.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Their identity has been stolen.
12 It's just a big coverup.

13 THE COURT: All right. So this coverup with the 14 identities that have been stolen of your relatives that are 15 deceased --

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But they were murdered, and 17 everybody's -- you know, it's just a big coverup. I mean, I
18 have evidence against that so -- you know.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And that evidence is what you have 20 in the luggage there today?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I didn't really realize it
22 until --

23 THE COURT: If you could --

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I really didn't realize it until,
25 you know, I been on Twitter trying to get it through because

1 I've never really been on social media trying to do that. And
2 it's not going to work, so ... After I read the list of the 3 witnesses, it's not going to work. It will be a conflict of 4 interest.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So the social media is not helping?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. No. Because where Dean
7 Heller is from and where the property is in Contra Costa County
8 there would be a big conflict of interest.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And this property in California
10 that's the conflict of interest, is this your property?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it would be my inheritance.

12 THE COURT: But you feel that one of the witnesses,
13 Heller, is trying to --

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, it's just that he's from the 15 same area. He was born in Contra Costa County, California. And 16 the property is in Contra Costa County.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So how would it be a conflict of 18 interest?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I live in Nevada, so it's not 20 going to work.

21 THE COURT: Why would it be a conflict if he's just 22 from there, but he doesn't have anything to do with the --

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because the property is in 24 Blackhawk, California, and the murder -- my murdered sibling is 25 an original Blackhawk, California, which helped -- we helped

1 fund it. He helped build it. He helped build the golf course.
2 So me living in Nevada and what happened to the cemetery plot
3 and them being murdered, it would just be a big conflict of 4 interest. I don't want -- I don't want to be involved in 5 anything political, and the witnesses are -- they're very
6 political.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And an area like that is real
9 political.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Anyone else? Jury number, please.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 486.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I'd be under number eight.

16 I'm the main income provider at home. And, you know, if I
17 participate any longer than probably one day, I probably 18 wouldn't be able to cover the bills, monthly bills, or any bills
19 that are coming up on -- soon.

20 THE COURT: And how many people in your household?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, four: mom, dad, older
22 brother, and myself. But my brother just went under surgery so
23 currently he's not working.

24 THE COURT: So are you the only one of those four
25 people who are working? Your mom, your dad, and your older

1 brother don't work?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Actually, we're all working, but
3 I just have the biggest income out of all of us. And my parents
4 work minimum-paying jobs. And we got in debt a few years back
5 and we're still working on, you know, paying all that off.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Anyone else in that row? Your jury number, please.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am. I am a member of 9 clergy --

10 THE COURT: What's your jury number, please?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. 512.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not sure I'm a good candidate
14 for this type of thing. I find --

15 THE COURT: You said you're a member of the clergy?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: How is that?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Excuse me?

19 THE COURT: How are you a member of the clergy?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am a minister with the 21 Christian Church. I'm also a practitioner with the Church of 22 Religious Science.

23 THE COURT: I can barely hear you. I'm sorry. Can you
24 hold the microphone a little closer?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. Closer?

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am a member -- I am a member of
3 the Church of Christ. I'm also a minister with the Church of
4 Religious Science.

5 THE COURT: So you can ordain at weddings?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can. I haven't been active for 7 the last two years because of health issues.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And you said you wish to be excused?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And I think you were going to add something
11 else, and I might have cut you off because I couldn't hear you.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, that's all right. I've found
13 in the past, a few years back when I did some jury selection
14 duties, that I seemed to be in conflict with some of the things
15 that were going on with the death penalty issues and that sort
16 of thing.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Well, this isn't that kind of
18 case.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's good.

20 THE COURT: So you won't have to worry about that. If 21 it were, we'd have a lot of questions about it for you, as you
22 probably already know from the last time, but this is not that
23 kind of case and we won't have that issue.

24 But you are -- so you said you're not an active
25 minister, but you are an ordained minister?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am.

2 THE COURT: And that's for the Church of Religious
3 Science?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Your jury number, please.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 517.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would go under number eight,
10 extreme inconvenience. My husband and I are business owners.
11 We own a fast-food restaurant. Unfortunately we have 12 circumstances that have required my husband to work a lot of 13 shifts. There's another employee that has volunteered to work
14 my shift because I work Monday, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays. So
15 he's been working double shifts as well.

16 And with me being here and if it takes longer, my 17 husband and that other employee are going to be working a lot of 18 shifts in order for me to be here.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So for a day or two they can cover a
20 double shift, but more than that --

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. But if it's going to take 22 longer, my husband is going to probably get really sick trying
23 to cover because one of the other employees is ill as well.

24 THE COURT: Well, we don't want that ill employee
25 coming into a fast-food restaurant, right?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 I think I saw another hand up, too. Yes.

4 Your jury number, please.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm jury 484.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for Southwest Gas. I'm in 8 my last 10 years with the company, and the way our pension works
9 is they take the best out of your five -- five in a row out of 10 your last 10. And overtime is included. If this is a three- to 11 four-month trial, I've been averaging 15 to 25 hours a week of 12 overtime and I have a three-year run going right now. If this 13 turns out to be a three- or four-month trial, it's definitely
14 going to affect that. And I might have to start this -- I might 15 have to start this five-year run all over again to get my final
16 average pay where I want it for my pension.

17 THE COURT: All right. So you're asking to be excused?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. 551. I work for Station
21 Properties. I brought a copy of their policy that states that 22 they only cover two weeks of pay for jury summons. And if this
23 trial goes three to four months, I would fall under hardship
24 financially.

25 THE COURT: All right. And how many people in your

1 household?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have me, my wife. My
3 15-year-old son is week to week. He's one with week with his
4 mother and one week with me. And then my niece moved in last
5 July pending my mother's funeral. So four total.

6 THE COURT: And how old is your niece?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 20.

8 THE COURT: And does she or your wife work?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They both work.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 574.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Number eight, hardship. Me and 14 my significant other are cab drivers here in the City of Las 15 Vegas. And basically three to four months, me, her, and my 16 daughter would be sleeping out front of the Federal Courthouse.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Your number, please?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 708.

20 THE COURT: 708?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I am the head of household,
24 the sole provider for my household, and --

25 THE COURT: Can you speak into the microphone a little

1 bit more?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am the sole provider for my
3 household. I'm the head of household, and it's just me and my 4 daughter.

5 THE COURT: How old is your daughter?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She'll be 18.

7 THE COURT: And so you'd like to be excused?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And have you checked with your employer to 10 see what they would pay you if you were chosen for the jury?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did, but I did not get what 12 they would pay.

13 THE COURT: You would not get what they would pay? Is 14 that what you said?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, they said that they would 16 pay, but I don't know what that would be.

17 THE COURT: Who's your employer?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: MGM Resorts.

19 THE COURT: And are you employed in a position where 20 tips are earned?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: No?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: I think they cover jury service, but not
25 tips, but you'll have to find out more about that. So why do

1 you think that you would not receive the pay that they offer?

2 Are you not full-time or is there --

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I am full-time. I just don't
4 know how the process works. I don't know what it is. When I
5 received the information, it just said what to do when I come
6 and submit it, but it doesn't give any additional information on 7 what you receive or how it works. So, I don't know.

8 THE COURT: All right. So some employers will pay you
9 your full pay, but not tips. Some employers will pay for a
10 certain amount of time. Some employers will pay you, but only 11 if you give them the check that you receive from us for your 12 jury service, although, you know, they will deduct that. But,
13 you know, it just all depends. And some employers don't pay at 14 all. So I can't tell you --

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

16 THE COURT: -- for sure, but we have had other jurors
17 from MGM before and I think they're one of the few that do help
18 employees when they are called for jury service. But maybe at 19 one of the breaks you can check into that and get a little more
20 detail to be sure.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. And I also had one other
22 thing. We may not be there yet.

23 THE COURT: I can't hear you.

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I also had one other thing. We 25 may not be there yet, but I had a -- I have a trip planned.

1 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So -- and because this was
3 supposed to start in May and we kept getting rescheduled, we
4 didn't cancel. And it's actually supposed to start on the 14th
5 of this month.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And so it starts July 14th for how 7 long?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And it goes until next Tuesday.

9 THE COURT: The 18th?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. We'll talk about the 12 calendar later on. Thank you.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. And then there's also one
14 other date on August the 21st. And my daughter has a court
15 appearance on that day.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

17 Anyone else have -- want to be excused for any of the 18 four reasons that are listed on the screen? Yes, sir. What's 19 your number?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Juror No. 725.

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My employer pays for only 10 days
23 of jury service, and if I were to miss the full length of the 24 trial, I wouldn't receive -- receive pay for any of it except 25 for the first 10 days.

1 THE COURT: Was that 10 days?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: All right. And how would that be of 4 hardship for you?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live alone. There's no one
6 else in my household who works. And I don't believe I can 7 afford to miss out on two months' pay.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 I think I see another hand up there.

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 653.

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My job doesn't pay for jury duty.
13 I would have to use my own PTO hours. And that seems extremely 14 inconvenient because I have my own bills to pay. I have my car
15 payment, insurance, cell phones, all that, and to use the PTO
16 that I worked hard for ...

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 Anyone else?

19 (No response.)

20 THE COURT: All right. So next we've got some 21 exemptions. You are barred from jury service if you are an 22 active duty member of the Armed Forces of the United States.
23 That's number one. Number two, if you are a member of the fire
24 or police department or -- of any state, district, any 25 territory, any possession, or subdivision. Number three, if you

1 are a public official of the United States or of the State of
2 Nevada or local government who is elected to public office.
3 And, number four, if you are a public official of the United
4 States or of the state or local government and you are directly
5 appointed by a person elected to office.

6 So please raise your hand if you think any of these
7 four exemptions applies to you.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 650.

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work part-time at the 11 Metropolitan Police Department as an interpreter. So I am not 12 full-time, but I do work for the police department.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0707. It's not a problem for me,
15 but I -- my ex-husband was a Metro police officer. My youngest
16 son is a police officer, and my daughter's a supervisor at Metro
17 in records. So I don't know if that will bother anybody else.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But you're not exempt; you're not 19 claiming an exemption?

20 (Court reporter interruption.)

21 THE COURT: She's not claiming an exemption. Thank
22 you.

23 Anyone else claiming an exemption?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 607.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm actually an appointed IT
2 executive for the City of Las Vegas.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And so who appointed you?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was appointed by the CIO.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Is the CIO elected?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, he's not.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Anyone else?

9 (No response.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Moving on. Now I'm going to 11 introduce the individuals that are seated at the tables. When I
12 call your name, please go ahead and stand.

13 First of all, we have the acting U.S. Attorney for 14 Nevada, which is Steven Myhre. In this case the Government is 15 represented by Mr. Myhre as well as two Assistant U.S.
16 Attorneys, Ms. Erin Creegan and Ms. Nadia Ahmed. So please
17 raise your hand if you think that you recognize them.

18 All right. I know why you recognize them so that's 19 fine because I read your questionnaire.

20 Anyone else?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Erin looks familiar. Maybe from 22 a past DUI case.

23 THE COURT: What's your jury number, please?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. 571.

25 THE COURT: 571. All right. So is your pending charge

1 here in Federal Court?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, this was a past -- the 3 case was closed. It was over 10 years ago, but I think she 4 worked in District Court at that -- or the State Court at that
5 time.

6 THE COURT: Did you work at State Court? No, I didn't
7 think so. Oh, I'm sorry. It was Ms. Creegan. Is that who you
8 said looked familiar? Not Ms. Ahmed.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, she looks familiar. I don't
10 know if it was her or not. I don't remember her name.

11 MS. CREEGAN: I was not prosecuting DUIs in State Court
12 10 years ago. I was prosecuting DUIs, but not in State Court.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. No. So she hasn't worked in State
14 Court.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Or whatever court it was. I -- I
16 don't know -- I don't know if it's her or not, but she looks
17 familiar.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Could I ask what district it was?

19 THE COURT: Yes. Was it Nevada or somewhere else?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was Nevada.

21 MS. CREEGAN: I was not in Nevada at that time.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My attorney was Charles Rogers,
23 no?

24 THE COURT: No, she wasn't in Nevada.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, okay. She looks really

1 familiar to me.

2 THE COURT: Anyone else?

3 (No response.)

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

5 All right. Now we're going to introduce the defendants
6 in this case which are -- oh, I'm sorry. Mr. Myhre, I didn't
7 give you an opportunity to introduce the rest of the individuals
8 who might be here from time to time. Go ahead.

9 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. Working with us
10 during the course of the trial will be FBI Special Agent Sharon
11 Gavin, FBI Special Agent Joel Willis, Bureau of Land Management
12 Special Agent Chris Allen, our legal assistant, Mamie Ott, and 13 FBI Special Agent Mike Abercrombie.

14 THE COURT: So please raise your hand if you think you
15 might recognize any of those five individuals.

16 (No response.)

17 THE COURT: No. Okay. Thank you.

18 All right. So now moving onto the defendants. We 19 have, first of all, Mr. Eric Parker and his attorney, Jess
20 Marchese. Defendant O. Scott Drexler and his attorney, Todd
21 Leventhal. And, Mr. Leventhal, if you can also introduce --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. To my left is Nona
23 Dodson and Tori Bakken is our legal assistant.

24 THE COURT: Any members of the jury think you might 25 recognize any of those folks?

1 I know why you recognize them. All right.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 539.

3 THE COURT: 539, yes.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe my husband may have
5 worked and know Jess Marchese.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Do you recognize him yourself?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He looks a little familiar. I
8 may have met him at some point just in passing.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 Anyone else?

11 (No response.)

12 THE COURT: No? All right.

13 Now we also have Mr. Ricky Lovelein and his attorney,
14 Shawn Perez. If you could please stand. Anyone think you might 15 recognize either of these two individuals?

16 (No response.)

17 THE COURT: No? All right. Thank you. You can be
18 seated.

19 And then we have Mr. Steven Stewart and his attorney,
20 Mr. Richard Tanasi.

21 MR. TANASI: Good morning.

22 THE COURT: Anyone think you might recognize these two
23 individuals, please raise your hand.

24 (No response.)

25 THE COURT: No. Okay. Thank you, gentlemen.

1 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right. Now let's talk about the
3 calendar. I'm going to ask you if this particular calendar
4 would significantly interfere with your ability to serve as a
5 juror. So I know all of you have jobs, all of you have 6 families, all of you have better things to do or other things to 7 do, things you could be doing. No one has a blank calendar for 8 the next two months. Everyone has something planned. But what 9 I'm asking you is whether this particular time frame would 10 significantly interfere with your ability to serve as a juror.

11 So, first of all, the parties estimate that this trial
12 will take about eight to 12 weeks. So I know your jury summons
13 said three to four months, but that was actually for a different 14 trial. This trial is shorter, possibly half as long, but it's 15 still at least eight weeks -- eight to 12 weeks. The time frame
16 would be like today -- actually, not like today because today
17 you had to come in very early. So the time frame would be 18 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, four days a week in 19 court. Friday you'll always be off. And while we're here in 20 court Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, we would begin
21 at 9, take a bathroom break mid-morning, take a one-hour lunch
22 break from 12 to 1, and then take a midday bathroom break around
23 3. And usually you would be done by 5 o'clock.

24 So here's what the calendar looks like. I'll try and 25 make it a little bit bigger so it's easier to see. So you need

1 to be here today and then potentially return tomorrow, but we'll
2 be dark this week Thursday and Friday.

3 Oh, Aaron, it looks like we've got a screen that's not
4 working. Is it on now? Great.

5 So this week we're actually dark Thursday and Friday,
6 but all of the other weeks we're here Monday, Tuesday,
7 Wednesday, and Thursday and we'll be dark on Friday. You'll
8 note that some days we start a little later. So, for example,
9 Wednesday, July 26th, and Thursday, July 27th, we'll be starting
10 later, at 10:30 instead of 9.

11 And some days you'll be scheduled to be here, but we'll
12 call you off or we'll have a shorter day. So I'll never ask you
13 to be here for longer than what is on the calendar, and it's 14 likely that you will be here less than what is on the calendar.
15 Sometimes there's just scheduling issues, and we don't have
16 trial. We do something else instead.

17 So here's the calendar for August, same thing. We're 18 in court Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. You'll 19 always be off on Friday. I do have over 600 other cases so I
20 have to work them in somewhere. So you'll be off on Friday. I
21 won't be, but you'll be off on Friday. And then you'll be here
22 9 to 5 except certain days. For example, on August 15th,
23 Tuesday, you'll see that we start at 10 a.m. instead of 9 a.m.

24 And, like I said, from time to time I'll have things I
25 have to take care of and I just can't fit them in on a Friday.

1 So I might do them early in the morning. I usually will be
2 doing things 8 o'clock every morning. Sometimes they will take
3 longer. So I might tell you not to come in until 10 or 11 that
4 day because the 8 o'clock calendar is too long and I know I'm 5 not going to get done by 9. And I don't want you to waste your 6 time here. Other times I'll be able to do it at the end of the 7 day and just send you home early.

8 So, like I said, you won't be required to be here on a
9 day that's not on this calendar. And some of these days that 10 are on the calendar you might end up being able to go home.

11 All right. So taking a look at this calendar, please
12 raise your hand if you think that this particular schedule would 13 significantly interfere with your ability to serve on the jury.

14 And if I've already heard about it, you don't need to 15 raise your hand again. So something we haven't heard already.

16 Go ahead and raise it high so she can bring you the 17 microphone.

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 464.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: By the time they gonna start
21 school sometimes I have to go pick him up -- my son at school at 22 2 o'clock, 2:20.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So are you starting school or your 24 kids are starting school?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, by the time my kid's starting

1 school.

2 THE COURT: So your kids are starting school. And so
3 how would that be a hardship?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I can't get off at 2.

5 THE COURT: And how old are they?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 11 years old.

7 THE COURT: All right. And is there anyone that's --
8 so are you usually at home with them when they -- is it one
9 child or more than one?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Two of them. It's -- my daughter
11 is 16 years old. Plus, sometimes when my wife -- she can't pick
12 them up, I'll go pick them up.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And does your wife work?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And so are you saying you're the person who 16 usually picks them up after school?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Or is home with them? Do they walk or do
19 you pick them up?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We pick them up.

21 THE COURT: So you pick them up or she picks them up?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes she goes. Sometimes I
23 go, yeah.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And if you're not there to pick them
25 up, can she pick them up?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nobody else can pick them up.
2 Just me and my wife.

3 THE COURT: Right. You and your wife can pick them up,
4 but on the days that you cannot pick them up -- so if you're in 5 this trial and you're not available until 5 o'clock, you can't
6 pick up your kids at 2, can your wife pick them up every day?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Depends what is the schedule she 8 got.

9 THE COURT: All right. So does she have a set schedule
10 or a flexible --

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, they have like sometimes
12 she get off at 4 or sometimes at 8 at night, sometimes at 3.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And does your 16-year-old drive?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, she took the bus.

15 THE COURT: And does the 11-year-old take the bus?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ah, no.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 Jury number, please?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 476.

20 THE COURT: Yes. Thank you.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I working 6 to 2 every day, 6 in 22 the morning to 2 p.m. So I wonder if can show my boss the 23 schedule we're supposed to have here because I got mail last 24 Friday from here, and I show -- I mean, last Tuesday. I show my 25 boss that e-mail from you guys. And said, Why you don't -- why

1 you don't tell me that like two weeks ago? I can find somebody
2 to replace you.

3 Now, I see the schedule tomorrow, Wednesday, I can go
4 to my boss and say, I have to be there in the court tomorrow.
5 So what I have to do? Because they need to find somebody to 6 replace me, not right away, see.

7 THE COURT: Yes. Right. And so we can give you copies
8 of these schedules.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I can go there and tell them
10 I have to be there tomorrow. I mean, maybe then -- because it
11 can be hard for me, too, this kind of stuff.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Yes, we'll have these schedules for 13 you if you need to provide them to your employer.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So when I get off from here, I go
15 to my job and tell them I have to be here tomorrow because they 16 need to -- to -- somebody to replace me to working for me for
17 tomorrow.

18 THE COURT: Tomorrow, if we need you back, it would be 19 at 12 o'clock noon.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 12 o'clock. But still because I
21 working 6 to 2 and I only in charge of one station, so ...

22 THE COURT: Right. So you would still have time to let 23 your employer know. You could work from 6 to 12 tomorrow and 24 give them the calendar and be here at noon if you need to.
25 We'll let you know by the end of the day if you need to be here

1 tomorrow at 12 or not.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Because I need to tell at 3 least one day in advance. Because that last time -- what
4 happened last Tuesday he -- she -- he got mad because I told I
5 get mail from the court yesterday.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You can call at the break if you
7 want. We'll be taking a lunch break.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. But I need to show the 9 schedule.

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My number is 523. It's going to 13 be hard for me because I don't work, but my daughter does. She 14 doesn't know how to drive. I take her back and forth from work.
15 And also I been baby-sitting my grandbaby since she four -- 16 since she born. Excuse me. And, uhm, my son and his 17 girlfriend, they work banquets. They don't have like a set
18 schedule.

19 THE COURT: And do you drive them?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, no, no. I drive my daughter.

21 THE COURT: All right. So you drive your daughter, and 22 who do you baby-sit for?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For my son.

24 THE COURT: For your son. Okay. And your son and his 25 wife have a variable schedule?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, they don't have set
2 schedules.

3 THE COURT: Do you mean they don't have the same
4 schedule as each other or they don't have the same schedule --

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They don't have set schedule.
6 Like, they work, like, breakfast, lunches, dinners, or sometimes
7 all day. Sometimes the baby stays at my house, like, the whole
8 week.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So that would be a hardship, and 10 you're requesting to be excused because of scheduling?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, because ...

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. 521?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I didn't realize it was going
16 to be that long. I am an insurance agent, but I only work by 17 commissions. And I do have a baby, a 10-month-old baby. So I
18 usually am with her in the mornings. And my husband works and I
19 work at night. The schedule changes and varies every day, but 20 he works most of the time in the mornings. So I wouldn't have 21 someone baby-sitting her all the time.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And that was a
23 10-month-old?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 550. For this month I have 25 vacation the end of the month. Like, it start the 24th. And I

1 had two year planning to take my kid to Disney Land, so before I
2 start this court, so ...

3 THE COURT: So do you already have the trip to Disney
4 Land planned or you said just before school starts?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have already that -- I have 6 plan it already.

7 THE COURT: And when do you plan to go?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I plan to -- the 22.

9 THE COURT: Of July?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And when do you return?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I return like the 24.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 666.

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The jury number. I work in the 17 Bellagio. I'm cook. They don't got to pay me any single day
18 because I was on a schedule, that was they told me when I show
19 the paper for the jury duty.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My number is 767.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a part-time employee at the 24 College of Southern Nevada, and I work 9 to 3. And I'm also 25 taking a summer class at UNLV that's going until mid-August, and

1 it meets Monday through Thursday starting at 5 p.m. So if I
2 were to be selected, I'd be missing both school and work.

3 THE COURT: And where did you say you worked?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The College of Southern Nevada.

5 THE COURT: And when is your summer class? I know you
6 said it was Monday through Thursday at 5.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It meets at 5 p.m. and goes until
8 6:55 p.m.

9 THE COURT: Are you currently in class?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And when will the class end?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: August 15th, I believe.

13 THE COURT: What is the name of the class?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Asian literature.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My juror number is 0771. And 17 when I looked at that calendar, my son is in a lacrosse
18 tournament tomorrow for the next three days in Salt Lake City.
19 I brought that up to the girl a few -- several days ago when I
20 found out that this was a confirmed date for the -- and she said
21 bring it up before you, that he's a goalie for a lacrosse
22 tournament, and I would like to be there to support him in Salt
23 Lake City for the next three days.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Anyone else?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm No. 735. I didn't know it
2 was going to be till August, but I had already vacation planned
3 from August 6th through the 10th.

4 And, also, I work as on call also on my job. So any
5 time that I would miss, like, I would not get paid for.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Where did you say you work?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work at Sunrise Hospital.

8 THE COURT: And is your vacation on August 6th through
9 10th, is that a prepaid vacation?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's -- we were, like, driving
11 there, so yeah. So it's already -- like, everything's already 12 been planned.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So you're driving, you don't have 14 any airline flights?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm not the one that 16 personally booked, but we made these plans, like, months ago.
17 But I didn't think -- I thought it would be done by now. I
18 mean, not by now, but before that time period.

19 THE COURT: So have you paid any money for this 20 vacation yet?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I paid my friend. I gave her a
22 down payment for a hotel room.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 704.

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My husband and I have a family
2 trip planned to pick his nieces up in San Antonio and take them
3 to see their grandmother in New Jersey. They lost their father
4 several years ago. So the grandmother is older and unable to 5 travel. So we're picking them up, and we have it planned from 6 July 24th to July 31st.

7 THE COURT: All right. So you're asking to be excused?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. And I have another trip
9 August 15th to the 21st.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Anyone else?

13 (No response.)

14 THE COURT: All right. Now, I did give you a general
15 description of the case and the nature of the criminal offense
16 charged, but based on what I've told you and the identities of 17 the parties, I'm going to ask you a few additional questions.

18 First of all, I'm going to read off the names of the 19 witnesses. You've already seen these in your written
20 questionnaire, but there were some names that were added later.
21 Not everyone on this list is going to testify, but some of these 22 names you might hear during trial. They might be identified as 23 someone in a photo or they just might be on a document. So take 24 a good look and tell me if you recognize any of these names.

25 No. 1, Christine Abbott; No. 2, Glen Allen; 3, Gary

1 Allen; 4, Scott Allen; 5, Arthur Alphin; 6, Patrick Apley; 7,
2 Michelle Arnett; 8, S.R. Babbitt; 9, Andrew Badortha; 10, Leann
3 Baidy; 11, Rick Barclay; 12, Michael Boxx; 13, Erik Boik; 14,
4 Logan Briscoe; 15, Mike Bronson; 16, Mark Brunk; 17, James
5 Buchanen; 18, Ammon Bundy; 19, Briana Bundy; 20, Cliven Bundy;
6 21, David Bundy; 22, Marylynn Bundy; 23, Melvin Bundy; 24, Ryan
7 Bundy; 25, Alexandra Burke; 26, Darrin Bushman; 27, Shannon
8 Bushman; 28, J.S. Butler; 29, Michael Caputo; 30, Dusty
9 Carpenter; 31, Michael Carpenter; 32, Brian Cavalier; 33, Todd
10 Chambers; 34, John Clark; 35, Dick Clayson; and No. 36, Tom
11 Collins.

12 So the names highlighted in yellow were the ones that
13 were added to the list after we mailed you the written
14 questionnaire or after you received the question questionnaire
15 online. So please raise your hand if you think you recognize 16 any of these names.

17 (No response.)

18 THE COURT: All right. Next we have: 37, Blaine
19 Cooper; 38, Clancy Cox; 39, Sean Cox; 40, Shawna Cox, or spelled
20 a different way, Shaunna Cox; 41, Joel Crandall; 42, April
21 Crooks; 43, Michael Dalton; 44, Francesca Defazio; 45, Gerald
22 Delemus; 46, Timothy Deppner; 47, Sarah Draper; 48, Chase Duke;
23 49, D. Dunbar; 50, James Edge; 51, Alex Ellis; 52, Brent or 24 Brett Empey; 53, Cody Faught; 54, Michelle Fiore; 55, Michael 25 Flynn; 56, Bill Freer; 57, Garic Frehner; 58, Anthony Jess

1 Garcia; 59, Jesse Garcia; 60, Gill Gilbertson; 61, Clayton
2 Gleave; 62, Dwyatt Gleave; 63, Garrett Gleave; 64, Stanton
3 Gleave; 65, Waylon Gleave; 66, Hugh Gourgeon; 67, Timothy Willis
4 Guiney; 68, Israel Guzman; 69, David Hahn; 70, David Hale; 71,
5 Kris Ann Hall; 72, Morgan Hamilton; 73, Susan Hardy; 74, Shane
6 Harger; 75, Ellis Hawks; 76, Douglas Heaton; 77, Klynt Heaton;
7 78, Corey Houston; 79, Margaret Houston; 80, Tiffany Houston;
8 81, Neil Hughes; 82, Ramona Hughes; 83, Kerbie Jackson; 84,
9 Thomas Jackson; 85, Thomas "Jackson;" or 86, Bruce Jensen.

10 So please raise your hand if you think you recognize or 11 know any of these individuals.

12 Start in the back. You're 666.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What do you mean when you say
14 "recognize"? Because everyone know, like, Bundy from the news,
15 no? And what happened.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So, right, of course --

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I recognize -- I recognize that.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Other than that, though, is there
19 anyone here -- any of those witnesses that you know?

20 I hear that you recognize the name, Cliven Bundy, but 21 other than that name, do you know him or have you talked to him?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else on the witness list that
24 you know or recognize? Someone you work with or a neighbor?
25 Related to somebody? No? Okay.

1 I think there was a hand up front here, maybe. Okay.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry, but going back to

3 No. 36, Tom Collins, if that's the --

4 THE COURT: Are you 498?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What was that? On the

6 previous --

7 THE COURT: Are you Juror No. 498?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Juror No. 498. Correct. I'm
9 sorry.

10 If it's the former Assemblyman, former County
11 Commissioner, I had some interactions with him when I worked at 12 the Public Utilities Commission. Not -- just casual. Not a
13 lot. But he was a lineman for Nevada Power and occasionally
14 would call me on issues that he was -- of interest. And I
15 think -- I think maybe a couple times when he was County
16 Commissioner, but other than that, not much. But more casual
17 business dealings or interactions.

18 THE COURT: All right. So work related?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What was that again?

20 THE COURT: Work related? So your conversations
21 with --

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They were work related. They 23 were about Nevada Power requesting an increase, and usually he 24 was opposed to what they were requesting. And so more -- more
25 of Nevada Power rate cases that would be before the Public

1 Utilities Commission.

2 THE COURT: So they were in the course of your
3 employment for Nevada Power?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: With the -- at the time I was 5 with the Public Utilities Commission.

6 THE COURT: Or the Public Utilities Commission.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

8 THE COURT: Did you ever speak to him outside of your 9 work position, go out to dinner or --

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did not.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 Anyone else?

13 (No response.)

14 THE COURT: All right. So we also have: 87, Ken
15 Jensen; 88, Wes Jensen; 89, Charles Johnson; 90, Charles "Dick"
16 Johnson; 91, David Johnson; 92, Gayle Johnson; 93, Gregory
17 Johnson; 94, Michael Johnson; 95, Ray Johnson; 96, Shanan Kelly;
18 97, Tyler Kelly; 98, David Keltner; 99, Patricia Kent; 100,
19 Robyn Kirkham; 101, Neil Kornz; 102, Robert Lawson; 103, Charlie
20 Lee; 104, Dawn Lee; 105, Patricia Lewis; 106, Dennis Michael 21 Lynch; 107, Bailey Logue; 108, Joseph Lombardo; 109, Daniel
22 Love; 110, Phil Lyman; 111, James Clayton Madsen; 112, Maurice
23 Martinez; 113, Steve Mayers; 114, Tara McBride; 115, Earl
24 McEwen; 116, Mark McEwen; 117, Chris McIntyre; 118, Micah
25 McGuire; 119, Cameron Mickelson; 120, David Miller; 121, McKay

1 Morgan; 122, Adam Nixon; 123, Brandon Novotny; 124, Jacob Olson;
2 125, Alex O'Neil; 126, Joseph O'Shaughnessy; 127, Josh Oudman;
3 128, Bridgett Pappas; 129, Bryce Paulson; 130, Ryan Payne; 131,
4 Terrie Petrie; 132, Mark Preusch; 133, Brandon Rappala; 134,
5 Albert Reeder; 135, Kenneth Rhoades; and 136, Stewart Rhodes.

6 Please raise your hand if you think you are familiar
7 with any of these individuals.

8 (No response.)

9 THE COURT: All right. So 137, Joseph Rice; 138, Eric
10 Richardson; 139, John Richter; 140, Thomas Roberts; 141, Tom
11 Robertson; 142, Shelle Rubel; 143, David Russell; 144, Clawson
12 Ruth; 145, Greg Ruth; 146, Peter Santilli, Jr.; 147, Joe 13 Santurem; 148, Taylor Schields; 149, Robert Shilakis; 150, Frank
14 Trey Schillie; 151, Yolanda Scronce; 152, Ruben Senatore; 153,
15 Shannon Serena; 154, Frank Serena; 155, Scott Sessions; 156,
16 Mark Seyler; 157, Mary Elizabeth Siemers; 158, Chad Simkins;
17 159, J.S. Skinner; 160, Dale Smith; 161, Erich Smith; 162, M.J.
18 Smith; 163, Brad Sones; 164, BJ Sooper; 165, Mark Sorenson; 166,
19 Daryl Spencer; 167, Lily Spencer; 168, Rulon Spencer; 169, Wendy
20 Spencer; 170, Travis Stone; 171, Brad Stones; 172, Rand Stover;
21 173, William Sudweeks; 174, Adam Sully; 175, Toni Suminski; 176,
22 Scott Swanson; 177, Cheryl Teerlink; 178, Travis Thiede; 179,
23 Krissy Woods Thorton; 180, Toby Tobiasson; 181, Kenneth Tu; 182,
24 Danny Vanvershelden; 183, T.L. Wagner; 184, Ella Mae Walther;
25 185, Gus Warr; and 186, Scott Werber.

1 Please raise your hand if you think you are familiar
2 with any of these folks.

3 (No response.)

4 THE COURT: All right. And last we have: 187, Edwin
5 Whitteaker; 188, Louie Whitworth; 189, Joel Willis; 190, Jerry
6 Winget; 191, Yonna Winget; 192, Jason Woods; 193, Joseph
7 Woolstenhulme; 194, Luca Zanna; and 195, Orpha Zerkle.

8 Please raise your hand if you think you are familiar
9 with any of those individuals.

10 (No response.)

11 THE COURT: All right. What time do we have? We're 12 good on time.

13 All right. So next I'm going to ask you whether you
14 have any prior knowledge about the facts in this case, whether 15 you've read about the case before or listened to or viewed any 16 news accounts about this case, heard anyone discussing this
17 case. I'm going to ask you to raise your hand and then tell me
18 how you have personal knowledge, so not what you know, but just 19 how. Was it because your sister talked about it or because you
20 saw it on TV news or newspaper news? So how do you have 21 personal knowledge?

22 When did you receive this knowledge? Is this something
23 you just read yesterday or something you think you heard about 24 four years ago? And, then, have you formed an opinion? So
25 don't tell me what your opinion is, but have you formed an

1 opinion? Do you have any doubts as to the accuracy of your
2 opinion? And can you set aside that opinion and determine the 3 guilt or innocence of the defendants in this case based only on 4 the evidence presented in trial?

5 So raise your hand if you have prior knowledge about 6 the case and then tell me how, when, whether you formed an
7 opinion, how accurate you think the information is you received,
8 and can you set aside that opinion.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Juror 442. And I may have 10 heard about it several years ago in passing, something to do
11 with cattle and federal, but that might have been disconnected.
12 I'm not totally sure. So that's about it.

13 THE COURT: So you did hear something about it years
14 ago, but you're not sure about the accuracy of what you heard?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Or if I connected them as 16 unrelated events or just a later memory.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 451. I heard about it on 19 the news, but I didn't pay any attention. Mostly recognized the 20 name, Bundy. But nobody else.

21 THE COURT: All right. Have you formed an opinion?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't pay attention to what it
23 was all about, so no.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 Anyone else in that top row?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 465.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just whatever blurb they put on 4 the news while I was fixing dinner.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Didn't really listen much to it.
7 Just the story, however brief it was.

8 THE COURT: All right. And was this recently or a
9 while ago?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, this was a while ago. I
11 think when it first -- when things were first happening. I
12 don't even remember how long ago that was.

13 THE COURT: And did you form an opinion?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 470. I have prior
17 knowledge from local and national news.

18 THE COURT: And is that recent or a while back?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, this is when it all happened.

20 THE COURT: Did you form an opinion?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And can you set aside that opinion?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Okay. So I'm told that we need to take a bathroom

1 break. So we're going to go ahead and take -- how long have we
2 allot them? 20?

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I think 15 minutes we can 4 take.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm going to split you up on two 6 different floors so that there's more bathrooms available for 7 you. It's 10:55 now. So we will be back here at 11:10?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That sounds good.

9 THE COURT: So we'll try and get back here at 11:10.
10 We'll go ahead and stand for the jury. Please do not talk about 11 this case with each other or with anyone else during the break.

12 Remember where you're sitting because we're going to 13 ask you to take the same seat when you come back.

14 (Whereupon jury panel leaves the room and recess taken
15 at 10:56 a.m.)

16 (Resumed at 11:29 a.m.)

17 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

18 All right. We're back on the record outside the 19 presence of the jury. I'm told the parties asked for a little 20 bit more time so that they could possibly stipulate to a few
21 folks being excused for hardships and other reasons. And so I
22 took the time to go through and look at the list as well.

23 So starting with No. 426, any objection to excusing
24 426?

25 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

1 THE COURT: Defense have any objection?

2 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: The lady with the luggage?

4 MR. TANASI: 26, Your Honor, or 436?

5 THE COURT: 426, the lady on the top row with the 6 luggage.

7 MR. TANASI: Yeah, the Defense does have an objection
8 to excusing her. I don't think that -- from a lot of the 9 information, we did get a lot from her, that we heard that she 10 said she couldn't be fair and impartial in the case; at least I
11 didn't have that noted.

12 THE COURT: She said she had a conflict with the 13 witness, and that she needed to go back and forth to California,
14 and she had evidence in her luggage to prosecute individuals.
15 In her questionnaire she talked about recently discovering that 16 her only sibling, his wife, and his sister-in-law and his
17 father-in-law were murdered and their complete identities stolen
18 by a worldwide criminal gang. This gang is bikers, casino, and 19 so forth. So I'm going to excuse her. I don't think that she's 20 mentally qualified to serve on a jury.

21 Next one I highlighted was No. 484, is the gentleman
22 that says -- well, he's the one with the pension issue. He 23 didn't say that he wouldn't be able to pay his bills, but that 24 he would have to start over again on his pension. Was that on 25 your stipulation list?

1 MS. CREEGAN: Not on the stipulation list, but the
2 Government supports that.

3 THE COURT: All right. So 486 is the person who works
4 at True Life in management. There's no replacement for him. He
5 has about 16 employees. The company can't run without him
6 there. He's also the main earner, can't pay his bills. He 7 lives with his mom and his dad and his older brother, but he 8 makes more money than they do.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: We stipulated to 486, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Any objection to 486?

11 MS. CREEGAN: No.

12 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

13 MS. CREEGAN: All parties agreed.

14 THE COURT: 512 is the woman who said she's not an 15 active minister, but that she is a minister of the Church of 16 Religious Science. Any objection to excusing her?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

18 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the Defense objects in that 19 she's not currently an active minister in the church. She has 20 religious beliefs, and she talked specifically about those
21 beliefs in conjunction with the death penalty, but as Your Honor
22 pointed out, that's not this case. So I think we would need
23 more questions on that.

24 MS. CREEGAN: I think she's indicated she has 25 difficulty passing judgment and really doesn't want to

1 participate.

2 THE COURT: Well, she said she was a minister so she
3 qualifies for that group of individuals that are not required to 4 serve if they don't want to, and she did not want to serve.

5 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, is she a current minister? Is 6 that what the Court had noted?

7 THE COURT: Right, she said that she did have the 8 authority to perform a marriage ceremony. So 5 -- I'm excusing
9 512.

10 517 says she owns a fast-food restaurant with her
11 husband, and that to cover for her two different people would 12 have to work overtime shifts for a long period of time, which 13 would be a hardship.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Government agrees, but there was no
15 stipulation.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to excusing 517?

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the Defense objects, but we'll 18 submit it.

19 THE COURT: And she did say in the questionnaire that 20 it would interfere with her business and her employees'
21 schedules. She wanted to be excused. So I'll excuse 517 for 22 hardship.

23 No. 523 drives daughter to work and baby-sits her
24 four-year-old son -- I'm sorry. Baby-sits a four-year-old son
25 for her son. Any objection to excusing 523?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Parties stipulated to 523.

3 THE COURT: 531 is the insurance agent that has a
4 10-month-old baby, and the husband works mornings so would not
5 be able to care for the baby. Any objection to excusing 531?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Is that 531 or 551? I'm sorry. I wasn't
7 sure what the number was for that first one.

8 MR. MARCHESE: I have it as 521.

9 MS. CREEGAN: 521?

10 MR. TANASI: 521 is the insurance agent? Yeah. I have 11 that as well.

12 MS. CREEGAN: And the parties have stipulated to remove 13 521.

14 THE COURT: So was she 521 or 531?

15 MR. MARCHESE: I have 531 as a male.

16 MS. CREEGAN: I believe it's 521, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So it's 521.

18 All right. So Juror No. 521 is the one who's the 19 insurance agent.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Parties have stipulated to 521.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I wrote it down wrong. So it is 521
22 that we're excusing; not 531.

23 Okay. So we've excused 512, 517, 521, 523.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Did Your Honor also excuse 426, 484, and 25 486?

1 THE COURT: 426, 436, 442, 470, 479, 486. Juror 550
2 says speaks a little -- only a little English or understands
3 only a little English, is a food runner, and has a trip to 4 Disney land.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Parties stipulate.

6 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So 550 will be excused.

8 What about 551?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Parties stipulated.

10 THE COURT: So 551 will be excused.

11 574 said he would be homeless if he can't drive his cab
12 for three months.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Parties stipulate.

14 THE COURT: And then 653 said he works in the 15 retirement home, and he is now the person in charge because the 16 other person who was in charge left. And they're still looking
17 for someone. So in the meantime if he's not there, then the bus
18 driver is in charge of the retirement home. Also, he won't be 19 paid if he has to serve and would have to use his paid time off
20 instead.

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the Defense is going to move
22 for his exclusion. I don't know if there's a stipulation on 23 that, though. That was 653, correct?

24 THE COURT: Yes, 653.

25 Any objection?

1 MS. CREEGAN: He seems comparable to 484 in terms of
2 trying to build up retirement time. It seems like they should 3 both be excused.

4 THE COURT: All right. But we are talking about 653
5 right here.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Correct.

7 THE COURT: So do you have any objection to excusing
8 653?

9 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And you wanted to go back to which one?
11 The pension man?

12 MS. CREEGAN: 484, correct.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So he's the one who works for 14 Southwest Gas. He's getting ready to finish up his hours for 15 his pension. He said he works 15 to 20 hours overtime, and 16 he'll lose that added to his pension if he -- I think he said he 17 would have to start all over again?

18 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, he would have to start his five-year
19 period over again.

20 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to excusing 484?

21 MR. TANASI: No objection, Your Honor, from the 22 Defense.

23 THE COURT: So 484 will be excused.

24 THE COURT: Oh. So here's one. Juror No. 659 was the 25 woman who said that she wanted to be excused for a medical

1 reason and wouldn't say if it was a physical or mental illness
2 or diagnosis. And she provided me a piece of paper which was
3 from UMC. It had the stamp on it from Dr. Nick Karajohn,
4 K-A-R-A-J-O-H-N. It was dated 7/10/17, which was yesterday, at
5 5:06 p.m., and all it said on there was: Patient cannot attend
6 jury duty secondary to medical reason. So it did not reveal any 7 information for me to determine whether, in fact, it was truly a
8 medical illness or diagnosis that would disqualify her from jury
9 duty.

10 704 is the person who has a trip from San Antonio to 11 New Jersey on July 24th through 31st to pick up some family
12 members. I think she said their parents passed away.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Correct. And the parties have stipulated
14 to that.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. TANASI: That's correct, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So 704.

18 The next one is 708, head of household. Wants to be 19 excused. Doesn't know how much MGM would pay. Has a trip July
20 14th through the 18th, which I think is a weekend, and then
21 August 21st the daughter has a court appearance.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Parties did not stipulate, but the 23 Government would like to recommend --

24 THE COURT: Did or did not?

25 MS. CREEGAN: Did not.

1 THE COURT: 725 says only paid for the first 10 days
2 and lives alone so doesn't have any other way to pay for 3 essentials.

4 MS. CREEGAN: 725 or 735?

5 THE COURT: I could be wrong. I thought it was 725.
6 It was in the back row. Is that the same person who has a
7 vacation driving?

8 MR. MARCHESE: 725 is the gentleman in the back. He 9 lives alone, financial hardship.

10 MS. CREEGAN: 735 is the person that has an economic 11 reason and also a trip.

12 MR. TANASI: 725, correct?

13 THE COURT: Yes, 725 is the one who lives alone and 14 only gets paid for the first 10 days.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

16 MR. TANASI: Defense would move to excuse him.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Government stipulates.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So 725 will be excused.

19 And then 735 is the one who has a vacation driving.
20 She paid her friend some money for the hotel, and she works at 21 Sunrise Hospital and is not paid to be gone -- will not be paid
22 for jury duty. Any objection to excusing 735?

23 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

25 (Defense conferring.)

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think the Defense just needs
2 some more with respect to her. And I know that she's got the
3 vacation and the work issues, but I don't know if we know how 4 bad the interference is.

5 MS. CREEGAN: I think it's very likely the trial could
6 continue into her vacation.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, her vacation is August 6th through
8 10, and she said she's not paid at work. We'll excuse 735.

9 767 said she works part-time at CSN from 9 a.m. to 3
10 p.m., but she has taken a summer class at night beginning at 5
11 p.m. Monday through Thursday until August 15th, Asian literature
12 class. And if she was in trial, she wouldn't be able to attend
13 that class.

14 Any objection to excusing 767?

15 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

16 MR. MARCHESE: No objection from the Defense, Your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. So 767 is excused.

19 And then 771 is the woman who says her mom just had a
20 stroke so she and her sibling are taking turns helping her mom.
21 She also has her son in a lacrosse tournament in Salt Lake City
22 today and for the next three days, and she'd like to be there.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Parties stipulate.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sorry, I didn't mean to cut you off. I

1 just ...

2 THE COURT: That's fine. Yeah, the resource room
3 person.

4 All right. So let's bring them in. I'll excuse those
5 members. It's 11:46 --

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we have two more that the 7 parties have stipulated.

8 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

9 MS. CREEGAN: And that's 464 and 476 that also 10 indicated they had both financial issues as well as language
11 issues.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So 464 is the person, oh, who needs
13 to pick up the kids at school, the 11-year-old-and the 14 16-year-old who doesn't drive and takes the bus. All right. So
15 464 will be excused as well.

16 Who was the other person?

17 MS. CREEGAN: 476.

18 THE COURT: 476 reads only 80 percent and works 6 to 2
19 and needs to tell his employer. All right. So 476 will be 20 excused.

21 485 was the gentleman that responded to a question that 22 wasn't -- gave a response to a question that was different than 23 the question that was asked; but I think he wanted to let us
24 know for some reason that he wasn't available, but we never 25 actually got that information from him yet. So that will have

1 to be a follow-up.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government also had Juror
3 630 had a financial hardship.

4 THE COURT: 630? I wrote down unemployed, laid off,
5 but I didn't have ...

6 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we did talk about this one
7 outside of the presence before Your Honor took the bench. And I
8 think collectively the Defense didn't have anything noted with 9 respect to the hardship that the Government's raising. Not to 10 say we didn't miss it, but ...

11 THE COURT: I'm sorry. So you do or you don't agree to 12 excuse?

13 MR. TANASI: We do not agree.

14 THE COURT: Do not. Okay. Yes, I didn't think there's 15 a sufficient reason yet that's been proffered.

16 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, could I ask -- I hope
17 this is not repetitive, but could I ask for a full list of 18 everyone who has been excluded? Just to make sure --

19 THE COURT: Yes. So I'm excusing 426, 436, 442, 464,
20 470, 476, 479, 484, 486, 512, 517, 521, 523, 550, 551, 574, 590,
21 653, 666, 704, 725, 735, 767, and 771.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And, Your Honor, to be clear,
23 Juror 590 did not show this morning.

24 THE COURT: Oh. So Juror 590 did not show this
25 morning?

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: That was one that we had yesterday?

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. MARCHESE: And the juror with the doctor's note,
6 that's 659, correct?

7 THE COURT: Say again.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Is 659 still on the panel currently?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 (Whereupon jury panel enters courtroom at 11:50 a.m.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated. We're 12 back on the record in the presence of the jury. I'll ask the 13 members of the prospective jury to please look to your left and 14 right. Raise your hand if you're missing a neighbor. If 15 there's someone who was sitting next to you before the break
16 that has not returned yet that might still be in the restroom or 17 the elevator? Raise your hand if anyone is missing.

18 (No response.)

19 THE COURT: All right. So it looks like everyone's
20 back.

21 We're sorry to keep you a little longer than planned,
22 but we did make good use of the time and were able to agree on a
23 number of individuals who can be excused. So when I say your 24 name, you are excused. So that means that you don't need to go
25 back to the jury room. You can go back to home or back to work,

1 whatever you need to do. Please make sure to look around you
2 and take with you any sweaters, magazines, books, water bottles,
3 whatever you brought with you.

4 We do thank you very much for your service, and it is a
5 service. It does count as a service. So you should not be 6 called again for two years. If you are, make sure that you let 7 them know that you've already done your one day of service.

8 And will it be mailed? Well, okay. And so we'd like
9 to thank and excuse -- we didn't get through everyone. So don't 10 worry if your name didn't get called because you still might be 11 considered for cause later, but we did go through some. So we 12 thank and excuse No. 426, 436, 442, 464, and 470. Thank you
13 very much for your service.

14 Also excused is 476, 479, 484, 486, 512, and 517.
15 Thank you all very much as well.

16 We're also excusing No. 521, 523, 550, 551, 574. 590
17 was the no-show, right?

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: 653, thank you very much. You are excused.
20 666, 704, 725, thank you very much. 735, 767, and 771.

21 All right. So now we'll go back. Oh, I'm sorry.
22 No. 771 is excused as well. I don't think she knows she's 771.
23 Do I have the wrong number? The woman whose son is in the 24 lacrosse tournament. Yes, you're 771.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: You scared me. I thought maybe I called
2 out the wrong number.

3 All right. So now we're just going to take a few more
4 minutes to answer some more of these questions, and then we'll
5 take our lunch break. So the question was: Raise your hand if
6 you do have any prior knowledge about the case. Tell me how you
7 have prior knowledge, when did you receive this knowledge, have 8 you formed an opinion. So don't tell me your opinion, just have 9 you formed one. How accurate do you think the knowledge is that 10 you received and can you set aside the opinion and determine
11 this case based only on the evidence presented at trial.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 498.

13 THE COURT: 498. Thank you.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just what was on the national and 15 local news. Maybe watch about an hour of news a night. And I
16 did not form an opinion.

17 THE COURT: Did or did not?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did not.

19 THE COURT: Did not.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I actually channel surfed
21 to a different channel when the news came on.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Next? Raise your hand in the front row if you have ...

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 531. Just what I seen on news
25 and TV.

1 THE COURT: All right. And is that local news or
2 national --

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Local and national, both.

4 THE COURT: Local and national. And TV and other
5 sources or just TV news?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just TV mainly.

7 THE COURT: So not computers or newspaper news?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: And did you form an opinion?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

11 THE COURT: And how accurate do you feel that the 12 knowledge you received could be?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it's news, so ...

14 THE COURT: All right. Should I take that to mean that 15 you take it with a grain of salt?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, grain of salt.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

18 Anyone else?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw one or two --

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. First of all --

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. Juror 539.

22 THE COURT: 539. It's going to be harder for me to 23 keep track of who you are because we have people missing.

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sorry, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So 539.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I saw one or two local news
2 reports when this first occurred several years ago. Didn't
3 follow the story. Didn't form an opinion.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 548. I saw the news article --
6 news -- local news when it first came out, and I have not formed
7 an opinion.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 571. I had discussion with 10 various family members as the events were unfolding, and I also 11 seen some social media, local, and national news. And, yes, I
12 had an opinion at the time, but I -- although I have an opinion,
13 I do think I could remain impartial to it and go based on the 14 facts of the case.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And was this old news or recent news
16 or a combination?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Combination, definitely.

18 THE COURT: And you said -- how accurate do you think
19 the information is that you received?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I really don't know.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And you did -- did you say that you
22 formed an opinion back when this first happened and you've 23 discussed it with your family?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, back when it first
25 happened, the first trial.

1 THE COURT: Do you still hold that opinion?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Without telling me why, is there
4 something that you read or someone that you've talked to that
5 caused you to not have an opinion anymore?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I guess it was more back
7 then I was more influenced by some of my family members of what 8 they -- what their opinions were.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Thank you.

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 606.

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been following this thing
13 from the beginning and just -- including the last trial here.

14 THE COURT: And how did you receive the information?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just from the newspaper, the 16 news, the media, Internet.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So TV, newspaper, and Internet?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

19 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with anyone?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, my friends and family and 21 work, coworkers.

22 THE COURT: And have you formed an opinion?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I have.

24 THE COURT: And could you set aside that opinion and 25 determine the innocence or guilt of the defendants based only on

1 the information provided in trial or would that be asking too
2 much?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think I could do that.

4 THE COURT: You could or could not?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Could not.

6 THE COURT: Could not. Thank you.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 607. Local, national, and cable
8 news networks are the sources.

9 THE COURT: And how long ago was that? Recently or a
10 while back?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A while back, during the time.

12 THE COURT: And did you form an opinion?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

14 THE COURT: And is that an opinion that you can set
15 aside and determine the case based only on the evidence provided
16 in court?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I cannot.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 612.

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I heard a news sound
22 bite, long time ago. I didn't form an opinion because it was of 23 no interest to me.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 615. I heard about the

1 story when it happened, and I also read it on the Internet. I
2 didn't form an opinion because most of the time the news stories
3 aren't accurate.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 630. Did hear and read
6 about this incident, especially through various Internet
7 websites. You know, I like to surf the web a lot. I do watch
8 various talk shows, cable, Fox, Infowars, etc.

9 THE COURT: And was that recently or a while back?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Over the last year or so, yes,
11 off and on.

12 THE COURT: And did you form an opinion?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pretty much, yes.

14 THE COURT: And is that an opinion you can set aside
15 and consider only the evidence and testimony presented in court
16 here?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably not, no.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 648.

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I heard it online, local/national 23 news. When it happened. What other question. I have formed an 24 opinion. Unsure if I can set it aside.

25 THE COURT: You can or cannot?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Truthfully, I'm unsure.

2 THE COURT: Unsure. Did you share your opinion with 3 anyone?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My family.

5 THE COURT: So you've discussed it with your family.
6 And without telling me the opinion, do they agree or disagree
7 with your opinion?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Agree.

9 THE COURT: So they didn't try to dissuade you?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. If they did try and dissuade you and 12 you weren't dissuaded, then I would have a better idea of 13 whether or not you think you could set aside your opinion, but 14 it sounds like it hasn't been tested yet. But you're not sure
15 if you can actually set it aside. Okay. Thank you.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 650.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I did hear about it back when
19 it was happening, social media, news. I had discussions with it
20 with my siblings, and I did form an opinion. I don't think I
21 would -- I can set aside my opinion.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 659. I saw the story when it
24 first came out. I've seen more recent news on it as well. I
25 have formed an opinion, and I cannot make -- put aside my

1 opinion to make a decision.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0707. I heard about it. I don't
4 think I've heard anything in the last year. Have no opinion.
5 Don't know anything really about it except I did hear the names
6 on the news.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 708. And I did hear about it
9 when it first occurred a few years ago. I had not formed an
10 opinion, and I have not discussed it with anyone.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 757. Saw media accounts at the 12 time it happened, but I haven't formed an opinion.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 Anyone else?

15 (No response.)

16 THE COURT: I think we got everyone. All right. So
17 it's 12:09 -- 12:10, really. Let's go ahead and take our 18 one-hour lunch break. We'll be back here at 1:10. And then the 19 attorneys will probably have some follow-up questions for you.
20 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. And Mike can show
21 them where to go.

22 (Whereupon jury panel leaves courtroom at 12:09 p.m.)

23 THE COURT: Off record.

24 (Recess taken at 12:10 p.m.)

25 (Resumed at 1:24 p.m.)

1 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

2 All right. So I was told the parties were going to
3 look at some more of the jurors' responses and possibly 4 stipulate?

5 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we do have some stipulations.
6 And I think the Government and the Defense each have one other
7 that they'd like to bring up.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. CREEGAN: So our stipulated jurors are Jurors 606.

10 THE COURT: Okay. 606.

11 MS. CREEGAN: 607.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. CREEGAN: 630.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MS. CREEGAN: 648, 650.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. CREEGAN: And 659.

18 MS. CREEGAN: And the Government would also like to 19 make a motion to remove Juror 571. This is the juror who seems
20 to adamantly believe that I've prosecuted him despite contrary
21 evidence. I don't know if it's a good thing or a bad thing that 22 he feels really strongly that he knows me or that I prosecuted
23 him in the past, but I think that could impact his view of the 24 case that he feels he has some personal connection with me and 25 seems to be a negative one which is that I've prosecuted him.

1 THE COURT: In the questionnaire he said he had a
2 pending DUI charge that could conflict with his court
3 attendance.

4 MS. CREEGAN: He did.

5 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: Said he had an opinion that he had received
7 old information and new information about the case on social
8 media, both local and national news, discussed it with family,
9 but could set aside the opinion.

10 MR. TANASI: I think, Your Honor, the Defense would 11 object to that request. And I think, as Ms. Creegan pointed 12 out, she doesn't necessarily even know if that helps or hurts
13 his position. So I think at this point we would at least need
14 more questions to try to figure out whether he has a bias in any 15 way towards the prosecution in the case. I don't think that's 16 clear at this point just by indicating that he might recognize 17 the prosecutor.

18 THE COURT: Well, he was -- even when I tried to 19 explain to him that it wasn't -- you know, that state and 20 federal was different and that he had to admit that it wasn't 21 her because she was saying she didn't work in the state, he 22 still said, Well, then it was from somewhere else. But he was 23 not sure how he knew her, but he really thought that he had seen
24 her around.

25 And he's not familiar to you at all, Ms. Creegan?

1 MS. CREEGAN: He's not.

2 THE COURT: I mean, do you go to the same gym or go
3 shopping at the same store, grocery store, or something?

4 MS. CREEGAN: I'm very well hidden from public view.
5 So I don't know how he would see me.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. CREEGAN: But the way that he seemed so adamant
8 that I must have prosecuted him for something, I don't know if 9 that's a bias that would carry over.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'm going to deny the 11 motion without prejudice. We can ask some follow-up questions
12 and see if we can make it more clear what his position is with 13 his recollection or his belief that he knows you, if that's 14 going to distract him or cause him some kind of discomfort.

15 And then you said the Defense also had someone else you
16 wanted me to consider?

17 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. There was just one,
18 Juror No. 654. He's indicated on his questionnaire, question
19 No. 43, he indicates he doesn't want to serve. Are you willing 20 to serve as a juror in the trial in this case? His answer is 21 no. Then he goes onto say: I do not want to do it.

22 THE COURT: No. 654?

23 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: The former Marine/security supervisor for 25 Trump Hotel? We're looking at the same one?

1 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am. Same one.

2 THE COURT: Oh, okay. And when did he say that he
3 didn't want to serve? In his questionnaire?

4 MR. TANASI: In his questionnaire. It's page 26,
5 question 43. Are you willing to serve as a juror in the trial
6 in this case? No. If no, please explain. I do not want to do
7 it.

8 THE COURT: What page was that? I'm sorry.

9 MR. TANASI: On my PDF as 26 of 27. And on the 10 document it's the same, 26 of 27. The bottom right-hand corner.

11 THE COURT: All right. It says: Is there any reason
12 not yet covered why you think you cannot or should not serve on 13 the jury? He says: No. But then it says: Are you willing to 14 serve as a juror on the trial of this case? And he says: I do
15 not want to do it.

16 So it's ... I don't think he's claimed to have a
17 hardship. Not clear to me why he doesn't want to do it. So
18 let's follow-up with him and find out if it's a financial 19 conflict or a calendar conflict or some other reason, because I
20 have very little information on this one.

21 Okay. All right. So, Aaron, we'll excuse 606, 607,
22 630, 648, 650, and 659.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Are we ready to bring them
24 in, Your Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes, let's go ahead and bring them in.

1 (Whereupon jury panel enters courtroom at 1:33 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Everyone's here. So let's go
3 ahead and be seated.

4 We're back on the record. The jury has joined us.
5 And, again, if everyone would please look to your left and your 6 right and make sure that the person who is sitting nearest to 7 you before we took the lunch break has returned. Please raise
8 your hand if you think we're missing someone that might still be 9 out at lunch.

10 (No response.)

11 THE COURT: Okay. So that's negative.

12 We did have a little bit of time to review some more of 13 the qualifications for the jurors. And so at this time I'm 14 going to thank and excuse I think six more jurors. So please
15 look around and make sure that you take everything with you,
16 books, water bottles, bags, things like that. Juror No. 606,
17 607, 630, 648, 650, and 659. You are all excused. Thank you
18 very much for coming in today.

19 All right. So I think that we finished with this last 20 question which was about having any prior knowledge about this 21 case before coming in today. Is there anyone else who has -- 22 who believes they might have heard about this case that we 23 didn't already hear from?

24 All right. We've got one more back there. Your juror
25 number, please?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My brother-in-law works for
2 Homeland Security --

3 THE COURT: What is your juror number, please?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh. Juror No. 594.

5 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My brother works for Homeland
7 Security. He's voiced his opinion many times about this case,
8 but he didn't give me any details. So that's as much as I got 9 on that.

10 THE COURT: Was he your brother or brother-in-law?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Brother-in-law.

12 THE COURT: And is he here in Nevada or somewhere --

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Las Vegas.

14 THE COURT: All right. So he's reached an opinion that 15 he's shared with you, but do you have an opinion?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just kind of what he said, but I
17 don't really know the details. So it's hard to make an opinion
18 on that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And so then -- so you heard what he 20 said, but did you form your own opinion?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Again, it's hard to say. I mean,
22 I'm still kind of open.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Anyone else?

25 (No response.)

1 THE COURT: All right. So now that everybody has had
2 an opportunity to hear from each other and take a look at each
3 other as you're walking back and forth, is there anyone here who
4 thinks that they may recognize a fellow juror? Anyone that you
5 think you recognize that you know? We've had people before that
6 worked together and family members.

7 Yes, sir. We've got one back there. We'll bring that
8 microphone over to you -- oh. We've got one first here, too.
9 Okay. What's your jury number?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 457.

11 THE COURT: 457. Yes, sir.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And Dave, we worked at the Palms
13 together.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Currently or in the past?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the past.

16 THE COURT: And did you work together on the same level
17 as or was one the supervisor of the other?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's a table game supervisor, one
19 of them. I think he was a supervisor. I was security.

20 THE COURT: So two totally different things. So you
21 were security and he was a table game supervisor?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yep.

23 THE COURT: Which sort of also does security, too,
24 right. You're not supervising the money, but in a different
25 way. All right. And that was which juror?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 700.

2 THE COURT: 700. And so you recognize him as well.
3 No. 700 recognizes you. Is there any concern that you have if
4 by chance you both end up serving on the jury together? Is
5 there anything we should know? I mean, did you -- did you ever
6 have lunch together? Did you have any encounters? Any negative
7 encounters with each other?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, other than lunch occasionally
9 together in the same dining room area. That's all. Just ...

10 THE COURT: And let's go ahead and have some input from 11 No. 700 as well.

12 And so, Juror No. 700, you recall working with Juror
13 No. 457 before?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I left the Palms in 2002. We 17 opened in 2001. Mike was in security. I was a table game shift
18 manager. And so I would encounter him when they would do fills
19 or credits or just typical casino shift business.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And do you have any concerns if both
21 of you end up serving on the same jury? Is there any prior 22 negative experience that you've had?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And is there -- did you all -- I know you
25 ate in the same lunch hall area, but is that like one big giant

1 ballroom?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It is a communal dining room and
3 employee dining room where everybody eats from all departments.
4 I don't recall any specific sitting together and having a
5 specific meal. I just recall he was on property while I was on
6 property.

7 THE COURT: Okay. So you didn't hang out together and
8 talk about different things together --

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I recall, ma'am, no.

10 THE COURT: -- outside of work? Okay. Well, thank
11 you.

12 Anyone else think they might recognize someone else
13 here? No?

14 (No response.)

15 THE COURT: All right. So now we're going to move onto 16 the attorney follow-up questions. We'll have the Government go
17 first. These are not necessarily brand new questions, but 18 rather follow-up questions to further clarify any information
19 that you've already provided either in the questionnaire or 20 today.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I'd like to use about five,
22 10 minutes and then reserve the rest of my time.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.
25 Can you all hear me okay back there? Great. Thank you.

1 Thank you very much for coming in for jury duty. It's
2 very, very much appreciated. Just as the Judge was asking you
3 some questions where she asked you to raise your hand, I'm going
4 to ask some questions like that. I know that for a lot of 5 people it is not an enjoyable experience to speak in public or
6 to raise your hand, but the system really relies on that. I
7 know you'll all be honest and truthful; but I ask you to go that
8 extra step, even if you're not sure that your answer is needed
9 or it seems like maybe this isn't important enough for me to 10 raise my hand, to please just go ahead and err on the side of 11 doing that even if you're not somebody that likes to speak
12 publicly.

13 So the first question that I'd like to ask you guys is 14 a question that I think I even phrased it on your questionnaire,
15 but I phrased it with a double negative so I didn't understand
16 your answers. So you took the time to answer it, and I
17 apologize that I'm asking you the question again. And what's 18 even worse is it's a confusing question almost any way that I
19 word it. So I'm going to do my best to phrase it, and if you
20 don't understand it, please just go ahead and raise your hand
21 and I'll give it another try. So this is the question.

22 In this case the Government has separately charged
23 certain counts which are crimes of violence: assault,
24 extortion, and threats. And then we've separately charged using 25 a firearm in the commission of those offenses. Does anybody

1 here have an objection to finding a person guilty if the
2 evidence supports it of both the crime of violence and a
3 separate firearms offense?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, calling for legal conclusion.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Join.

6 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

7 MR. PEREZ: Lovelein joins.

8 THE COURT: It's a clarification of a question that was
9 on the questionnaire, so I'll allow it.

10 MS. CREEGAN: And could you please raise your hand if 11 you do have an objection?

12 (No response.)

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you very much. The second question
14 I'd like to ask you is, this case does involve some law
15 enforcement witnesses. Does anyone feel that they would have a 16 higher or lower standard or something that they think that they 17 should share about a crime which could involve a police officer
18 as a witness or as a victim?

19 I know it's very hard to raise your hand. Does anybody
20 have anything that they would want to say about that?

21 (No response.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. I'm going to ask an even 23 broader question than that, which is, you've been asked some 24 questions about whether you can be impartial and I want to ask
25 you at a higher level. I know that you can make that

1 commitment, but we're here getting to know you very, very
2 briefly and we don't know if you have some relevant life
3 experiences or beliefs or thoughts that could pertain to this 4 case; not necessarily things that would make you impartial or --
5 partial or impartial, but just things that are a part of the 6 lens of how you view the world because all of us view the world
7 through our own experiences.

8 And I know that it's not enjoyable to raise your hand
9 and talk about that, but is there anything that somebody can 10 think of about beliefs or life experiences that they've had that 11 they think could affect how they would view this case, even in a
12 very, very roundabout way?

13 (No response.)

14 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. I'm going to ask you that question
15 again later when I come back up. So if you do think of 16 something or something in the Defense attorneys' questions jogs
17 your mind, I'll ask it again and give you another chance if you
18 have something you would like to say.

19 And having had nobody say that they think that there is 20 an issue that could impact their thinking, can you all promise
21 that you would decide this case solely based on the evidence
22 under the law as the judge instructs it to you? Is there
23 anybody that thinks they cannot promise that? Could you raise
24 your hand?

25 (No response.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Thank you very much. I'll be back
2 up later.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Tanasi.

4 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

5 Good afternoon, folks. My name's Rich Tanasi. I
6 represent Steven Stewart. Steven and I both thank you for your 7 time and your patience and all of your effort here today so far.

8 What I want to start with is kind of an unconventional
9 way of going about this, but if for anything more than just 10 stretching, can everyone raise their hand?

11 Okay. All right. Thank you. My first question is 12 just to the folks here in front of me. Could you raise your 13 hand, please, if you fall into this category. Are you the type
14 of person that would just never ever under any circumstance
15 consider protesting?

16 Okay. It's no hands raised -- oop. We might have a
17 hand.

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Repeat the question.

19 MR. TANASI: Sure. Are you the type of person, sir,
20 who would under no circumstance ever consider protesting 21 anything?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 MR. TANASI: If we could pass the mic over. Thank you.

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I would not protest.

25 THE COURT: You would not protest?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And if you could just give us your
3 number. I think we ...

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 457.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. And it kind of goes for 6 everyone, if you do raise your hand, if we could just have your
7 number so we can just keep track. Thank you.

8 So if I have it down correctly, you would just not
9 consider protesting. You wouldn't -- something you wouldn't do,
10 correct?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is correct.

12 THE COURT: Why is that?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wasn't raised that way. In 20
14 years in military service you don't do that. It's in the 15 background. You don't do that.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you, sir. Thank you for 17 sharing.

18 Kind of turning to the group over here. We'll go
19 maybe, just to start, the first two rows. Anybody that has kind
20 of similar feeling as this gentleman -- thank you for sharing -- 21 that they just wouldn't protest? There's nothing that would 22 compel them to protest for any reason?

23 Gentleman in the back. Thank you.

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 594. I don't know if protesting 25 does any good. Seems like it gets out of hand, the stuff I've

1 seen on TV, anyway. So I don't think -- I wouldn't join a
2 protest, no.

3 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you for your honesty.

4 Is there anyone else kind of -- we'll just kind of open
5 it up to the two rows in the back. Same question. Is there
6 anybody who just thinks protesting, like this gentleman had
7 indicated, just doesn't do any good, just wouldn't do it?

8 (No response.)

9 MR. TANASI: Going back to the folks in front of me.
10 Is there anybody here who just would never consider protesting
11 the United States Government?

12 Sure. I think 457. Thank you.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 457. The best government we have 14 on this planet right now, and it definitely beats Russia and 15 China.

16 MR. TANASI: Understood. Understood. Thank you, sir,
17 for sharing.

18 Same idea for the first kind of two rows over here.
19 You know, is there anybody who just wouldn't dare protest the 20 United States Government?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 594. I would never protest the 22 U.S. Government. I don't know -- I just love the law of the 23 land, like everybody else, like most people do.

24 MR. TANASI: Thank you for sharing.

25 Anybody else share that same opinion, they would just

1 not protest the United States Government?

2 Okay.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 729. I wouldn't protest
4 the United States Government because I'm trying to join the 5 military.

6 MR. TANASI: Fair enough. Thank you.

7 All right. So for the folks here seated in the box in 8 front of me, the next question. If you could just raise your 9 hand if you would consider yourself kind of one of these -- one
10 of these folks. Let's assume that a person is arrested while 11 they're protesting. Are you kind of of the opinion that, Well,
12 that's on them, that's their fault, they shouldn't have been 13 protesting in the first place?

14 I think we've got two hands. Thank you.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I agree with what you said. I
16 agree. That's on them. It's something they should have thought
17 about before they did it.

18 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you, sir. Pass the 19 mic. Thank you.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Were they -- oh, I'm sorry. 451.

21 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Were they doing something that 23 they shouldn't have while they were protesting? They didn't --
24 did they get arrested for just protesting?

25 MR. TANASI: Fair to say these are questions that you

1 would want answers to before you would --

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I mean, I can't imagine
3 somebody getting arrested for just protesting. There has to be 4 more to the issue.

5 MR. TANASI: Okay.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Does that make sense?

7 MR. TANASI: It does. Thank you. Thank you.

8 And so same kind of question for the first two -- first
9 two rows here. Again, let's assume someone is arrested.
10 They're at a protest. Is it just kind of on them, their fault,
11 shouldn't have been there in the first place?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 539. And I agree with the 13 previous juror in her statement that she said it depends on 14 exactly what happened, whether or not they're just protesting or 15 if it escalated to something else.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay. What would be an escalation in your
17 opinion?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Any form of violence.

19 MR. TANASI: And what would be violent?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Striking out. An attack on a
21 person.

22 MR. TANASI: Okay.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know, you stay within your 24 own space.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

1 Is there anyone else in this first two rows that have a
2 similar opinion or would like to say something along those
3 lines? Thank you.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, this is the United States.
5 We're allowed to protest. There's no -- it's not illegal to 6 protest, but there is limits to it. You can't be violent. You
7 can't destroy other people's property, anything like that.
8 That's just not right.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you.

10 All right. And so maybe just for the row right behind
11 you, same question. You know, let's assume someone's at a 12 protest and they get arrested. Is that kind of on them because 13 they were at that protest, shouldn't have been there in the 14 first place? Is there anybody who has that opinion?

15 (No response.)

16 MR. TANASI: Thank you, folks.

17 All right. Is there anybody in this group here in 18 front of me that is kind of the opinion that, you know,
19 protesters protesting, they're just kind of whiny? You know,
20 it's not something they should be doing, they're just kind of 21 whining, complaining?

22 Other than 457 because I think I might know your answer
23 to that one, but anyone else in the group?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't disagree with whining.
25 The whining part is fine.

1 MR. TANASI: Sure. Thank you.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The whining part is fine. Don't
3 misunderstand me. I would not go out and protest, and I don't
4 advocate for people to do that because I don't agree with it. I
5 wasn't brought up that way. However, like a lot of other people
6 said, there's no law and you do have the freedom of speech. How 7 far you take that freedom of speech is the limit as to what
8 you're going to incur because of your actions. Your actions
9 dictate the reaction that will happen to you.

10 MR. TANASI: Fair enough.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Whining? Everyone whines.
12 Nothing wrong with standing out there and a little bit of 13 whining. Nothing wrong with that.

14 MR. TANASI: Fair enough. Thank you.

15 Let's talk about firearms, and again we'll keep it just 16 the folks here in front of me. Show of hands, anyone who is 17 just plain afraid of guns?

18 Okay. If we could pass the mic, thank you.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 451. Yeah, I'm afraid of guns.

20 MR. TANASI: Okay. Are you afraid of any types of guns
21 in particular or are they all --

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I -- and I don't want -- I
23 don't want them in my house. I have lots of friends that do
24 have them and have them -- licensed to carry concealed, blah,
25 blah, blah. And that's fine, but they also treat them with

1 respect. When I get afraid is when people aren't treating them
2 with respect, and that's when people get hurt.

3 MR. TANASI: Fair enough. Thank you.

4 Anyone else in the box that has a fear of guns or we
5 can open it up even more to say maybe guns just make you uneasy,
6 uncomfortable?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You want me to hang onto this for 8 your next question?

9 MR. TANASI: Well, if you've got something to say on 10 this one, that's okay, too. No? All right.

11 All right. So if we could turn maybe to the first two 12 over here, first two rows. Same idea, show of hands, anybody
13 who is just plain afraid of guns?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror No. 587. I just know
15 nothing about guns and so they scare me because I don't know how 16 to handle them or -- my husband has guns because he's been 17 through classes and knows how to handle them. And I personally
18 just don't know anything about, I guess, how to handle them.

19 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

20 Anyone else in the first two rows that's either, A, you
21 know, afraid of guns or, B, they just kind of make -- guns just 22 kind of make them uneasy? All right. Thank you.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I prefer a society without 24 guns myself. However, my husband and his whole family were 25 raised with guns. We have plenty of friends and family that own

1 guns. I have friends that are hunters, but I personally do not
2 care for guns at all.

3 MR. TANASI: Thank you. Thanks for sharing.

4 Anyone else in that first two --

5 THE COURT: What number was that juror? Was that 539?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 539. Sorry.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 I think there was one more hand. Thank you. Pass the 10 mic.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 609. I would say that it's 12 not the physical aspect of the gun that makes me uneasy, but 13 more the idea of mismanagement or misuse with the person who has 14 the gun.

15 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: What was your number?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 609.

18 MR. TANASI: All right. Turning kind of to the folks
19 here in the box in front of me. A show of hands, who's kind of 20 of the opinion that, you know, where there's smoke there's fire?
21 So, in other words, Mr. Stewart, Steven, he wouldn't be sitting
22 here if he didn't do something wrong. Anybody sitting in this
23 box who kind of has that opinion right now as they sit here?

24 (No response.)

25 MR. TANASI: No. Thank you.

1 All right. Same question for the -- we'll say the
2 first two. Is there anybody who just kind of has that idea,
3 where there's smoke there's fire? You know, Steven, he wouldn't
4 be sitting here right now if he didn't -- he didn't do
5 something. Anybody who feels that way?

6 (No response.)

7 MR. TANASI: Anybody just kind of -- show of hands
8 here. Anyone who just plain doesn't like lawyers, doesn't like
9 defense lawyers either? And you can be honest. I have family
10 members who don't like lawyers, which means they probably don't 11 like me, but ...

12 Is there anybody?

13 (No response.)

14 MR. TANASI: No. Okay. Same idea, we'll open it up to 15 everybody. Anybody, now's your chance, who doesn't like 16 lawyers?

17 (No response.)

18 MR. TANASI: No one. Okay. Appreciate your honesty.

19 Group in front of me, raise your hand if you agree ever
20 so slightly in any way with the following statement: In a
21 situation in which law enforcement is in conflict with citizens
22 over whether the citizen's conduct is lawful or unlawful, I
23 would tend to side with law enforcement's position simply
24 because that's the right thing to do. Anyone agree with that
25 statement?

1 (No response.)

2 MR. TANASI: Thank you. Turn it over here to the first
3 two. Anyone agree with the statement that I just read?

4 Thank you. One hand.

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 609. Just to -- can you
6 repeat the statement again.

7 MR. TANASI: Sure. In a situation in which law
8 enforcement is in conflict with citizens over whether a
9 citizen's conduct is lawful or unlawful, I would tend to side
10 with law enforcement's position simply because that's the right
11 thing to do.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I disagree with that statement.

13 MR. TANASI: You disagree with that?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I believe that public
15 discourse or commentary are more efficient to persuade a person
16 into believing what has actually happened.

17 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: What was your number?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 609.

20 THE COURT: 609. Thank you.

21 MR. TANASI: And then kind of going back to the two 22 rows behind you, same question. You know, again, raise your 23 hand if you agree with that statement I just read. In a
24 situation in which law enforcement is in conflict with citizens
25 over whether the citizen's conduct is lawful or unlawful, I

1 would tend to side with law enforcement's position simply
2 because that's the right thing to do. I would just side with
3 law enforcement. Is there anyone who believes that?

4 (No response.)

5 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

6 In the first group kind of in front of me, do we have
7 any retired or current law enforcement or military? Sir.
8 First, thank you for your service.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're welcome.

10 MR. TANASI: Have you ever been -- if we could pass the 11 mic, I've got just one question for you.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Only one?

13 MR. TANASI: Just one, maybe two, maybe three.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Four or five.

15 MR. TANASI: Right. What branch military?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Air Force.

17 MR. TANASI: Air Force. Have you ever been in a
18 situation or an experience where a bystander came to kind of try
19 to help you out during your service?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 MR. TANASI: You have?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay. Can you describe that? What 24 happened?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They died. It was in Vietnam.

1 They died.

2 MR. TANASI: Wow. Thank you for sharing.

3 THE COURT: Last question, Mr. Tanasi. You're over
4 your time.

5 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Can I follow-up or 6 that was my last one?

7 THE COURT: No, no. You can ask one more.

8 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

9 If you're comfortable enough to share anything related
10 to that situation, how did you feel about the bystander helping 11 you out?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was the bystander. He would 13 come out. However, we were in a foxhole. We weren't even 14 supposed to be there in the first place. So you won't find a
15 record of us being there, typical government, whatever.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay.

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We landed there, and we were only
18 supposed to be there for three days because they were pulling
19 out. And after we got there, we got one heck of a mortar
20 attack.

21 MR. TANASI: Wow.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He come over to help me, and I
23 don't even know who he was and where he came from. He was a
24 civilian. Well, he helped me and I helped him. Then I turned 25 around and he's running. Unfortunately, he ran the wrong

1 direction and stepped on an antitank mine.

2 MR. TANASI: Wow. Well, thank you for sharing. As you
3 heard, my time's up. So I apologize for cutting you off, but 4 thank you for sharing.

5 Thank you, folks.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Mr. Marchese, are you up next or Mr. Perez? Okay.

8 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor. Good afternoon,
9 ladies and gentlemen. My name is Shawn Perez, and I represent 10 Ricky Lovelein. And I want to focus on how you get your 11 information, whether it be social media, the news, and what
12 networks. And we'll start with our most vocal juror, No. 457.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm sorry I'm focal. You
14 asked.

15 MR. PEREZ: Right. Well, that's good. That's what we 16 want. We want some dialogue. We need to know about you.

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mostly CNN -- or not. I'm sorry.
18 Fox News Channel. Mostly everything is local on the news, 13,
19 5, 3.

20 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you have a Facebook page, by any 21 chance?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 MR. PEREZ: No. You don't follow social media?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No texts. No Facebook. No
25 nothing.

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Anyone else in this box here have
2 Facebook?

3 Can you pass that? Your number, please.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I'm sorry. I don't know. I
5 have to look. 465.

6 MR. PEREZ: And you have a Facebook page?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

8 MR. PEREZ: And do you use Facebook primarily for just 9 keeping in touch with friends?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's exactly it.

11 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you follow any groups?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe by accident, like, there
13 might be something that comes on my Facebook and I may say
14 something back. Like following them as part of the group, no.

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay. So something just shows up and you
16 might pay attention to it. Do you -- there's a button on there
17 that says like or, you know, it's thumbs up or thumbs down. Do
18 you ever comment back in that respect?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Woof. I don't even remember. I
20 haven't been on Facebook in probably six months. I check it
21 occasionally to see if anybody says anything, one of my friends
22 or family that don't live near me that want to contact me that 23 way, but other than that, I rarely get on anymore.

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Thank you.

25 How about back here? Anyone in the first two rows have

1 Facebook? Okay. We'll just go down the row.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I have Facebook.

3 MR. PEREZ: Oh. Your juror number, please.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 531.

5 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And do you use Facebook just for a
6 communication tool or do you use it for information?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mainly communication. My
8 daughter and all of my grandkids are back in New York, and it's 9 an easy way to communicate with them.

10 MR. PEREZ: Sure. Do things just show up on your 11 Facebook that you don't necessarily subscribe to?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. Sometimes, yeah.

13 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And what do you do? Do you --

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I usually just pass on by that,
15 if it's not somebody I know or something.

16 MR. PEREZ: Okay. How about the woman next to you?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 539. And I just use
18 Facebook for friends and family. That's it.

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And let me ask you. What news
20 channel do you follow?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Local and CNN.

22 MR. PEREZ: As far as local news, any particular
23 channel?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably Channel 8.

25 MR. PEREZ: Channel 8. Okay. And the woman next to

1 you?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 540. Yes, I have Facebook.

3 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And --

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I use it a lot for recipes,
5 family. Mostly family; not friends. I do click on things
6 sometimes that I like.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Would that -- like a link that shows
8 up on there or a story, is that what you're talking about, like
9 click on that?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes cat videos, things like
11 that.

12 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Right.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If you look at my Facebook, this 14 is what you're going to see, and food. There are times when 15 things do show up, yeah. There -- because the way of the 16 Facebook works, they will send you things that they think you
17 might be interested in.

18 MR. PEREZ: Okay. So you don't necessarily subscribe
19 to everything that shows up on your Facebook page?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And the gentleman next to you?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 548. I do not have 23 Facebook page. I primarily watch Fox News. Very, very rarely
24 do I watch the local news. Mainly just for the weather.

25 MR. PEREZ: Okay. So it's mostly the Fox national, the

1 cable channel?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

3 MR. PEREZ: Okay. The gentleman ...

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 571. I just use Facebook
5 to keep in touch with family. That's pretty much it.

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. How about news? What news network
7 do you watch?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fox usually. Channel 13.

9 MR. PEREZ: Any particular newscaster that you follow?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really, no.

11 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Now this question would be for 12 everyone in here. How many of you right now, knowing what you
13 know about this case, thinks that any of the defendants are in 14 fact guilty at this time?

15 (No response.)

16 MR. PEREZ: Okay. No one. So as they sit here today,
17 they're all not guilty, correct?

18 (No response.)

19 MR. PEREZ: Any reservations about that? No?

20 (No response.)

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Now -- over here. And your number?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 498.

23 MR. PEREZ: 498. Now, let me ask you about news. What 24 news network do you watch?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I usually watch CNN, some of the

1 local news in the morning, usually not in the afternoon, but
2 like 5, 6 in the morning.

3 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you ever watch shows like Rachel
4 Maddow, let's say?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've watched on MSNBC Rachel
6 Maddow, Brian Williams. I think are two I've watched.

7 MR. PEREZ: How about, do you watch Fox News at all?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

9 MR. PEREZ: You don't. Okay. Thank you.
10 How about you, sir?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just listening, so ...

12 MR. PEREZ: That's all right. What news -- what news
13 channel do you watch?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: TMC.

15 MR. PEREZ: Oh. TMZ?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, The Movie Channel.

17 MR. PEREZ: Okay. I don't know. I didn't get that.
18 That's all right.

19 Who's familiar with Alex Jones? Do you have something
20 you wanted to say?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wanted to say TMC, what he just
22 said.

23 MR. PEREZ: Who's familiar with Alex Jones? No one?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know him, but never watch him.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 540. I wouldn't say I was

1 familiar with him, but I'm surprised other people don't know the 2 name.

3 MR. PEREZ: And why is that?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, he's very controversial.
5 His Infowars I think is one of the things that he's known for.
6 Just his personality.

7 MR. PEREZ: Right. Okay. Question for the panel
8 again. How about Hannity? The gentleman next to you.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 548. I start watching on 10 Fox News when it was Hannity and Colmes. Didn't much care for 11 them. I can't even remember the last time I've watched them.

12 MR. PEREZ: Okay. And then behind you.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 615, juror number. Yeah, I've 14 been listening to John Hannity since 2001. And I do catch his 15 show on TV sometimes, but Fox News is the channel I listen to.

16 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you ever watch MSNBC or CNN, any 17 of the other news outlets?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 MR. PEREZ: And now I believe it was the gentleman at 20 the end of the first row. I'm not picking on you, I promise,
21 but you said something that piqued my curiosity early on. And 22 you were talking about, Well, you know, basically it's coming
23 from the news, so what can you believe. So we all have heard
24 the term fake news. And I suppose you're familiar with fake
25 news. And, I mean, your reaction earlier, why was that?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because -- because you can't 2 believe everything you see on the news because they're just
3 trying to make news. They're trying to make a story out of 4 something. A lot of times they'll blow things out of proportion
5 that doesn't -- that's not really the truth of the matter. It
6 just makes a good news story so people will watch it.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Do you think that any particular
8 news network might be more likely to produce fake news than 9 another?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not really. They all -- they 11 all relish on certain things just to make news to get people to 12 watch them.

13 MR. PEREZ: Okay. I don't recall. Do you have -- you
14 have Facebook?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 MR. PEREZ: Do you follow the links on Facebook when --
17 not at all?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 MR. PEREZ: Okay. I have nothing further, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese?

23 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 All right. Everybody hear me okay? All right. Thank
25 you.

1 We'll start with the -- in the box here and go to
2 specifically to Juror 485. Should be in the front, I believe.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 485?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Yes. I have something in my notes
5 indicating that you had said that you might have a conflict
6 earlier?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What I was told before from a
8 friend, I used to work as a correction officer when I was in the 9 Navy. And they said, what I heard, you're not -- something
10 about conflict of interest. That's what they said. So I don't
11 know.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Do you mean to serve on a jury?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To be on jury.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Is there anything now that makes
15 you believe that you would be unable to serve on this jury?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So far right now I got -- see,
17 right now I work at the Nellis Food Court. And so far we got 18 only three cooks and one only work three days in a week and one
19 five days in a week. And now I work five days in a week, too.

20 MR. MARCHESE: So now when you're working at the base,
21 is that in a private capacity or are you still enlisted?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. Say again, sir.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Are you working there in a private 24 capacity?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's like a regular part-time,

1 sir.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. All right. What do you think
3 about protests, sir?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it depends. If the guys
5 are protesting something, it's their right to try to voice his 6 side. That's about it. Sir.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Do you think you'd ever protest
8 something?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Why not?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Say again, please.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Why not?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Am I protesting something you
14 said?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Would you protest something?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, no.

17 MR. MARCHESE: And why would that be?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's nothing wrong. It
19 depends upon the situation I'm saying.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Let's say that there's something 21 that you feel passionate about that you feel is incorrect, would 22 you protest?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I might.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Have you ever protested?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 MR. MARCHESE: What if there was a situation where
2 maybe your neighbors were being loud and you thought that things
3 were getting a little bit loud and it was bothering you, would
4 you do something? Would you intervene in any way?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I have to talk to him and
6 convince him turn it down a little bit.

7 MR. MARCHESE: What if they were complete strangers,
8 you didn't know their names, would you do something at that
9 point?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: See, the best thing I talk to my 11 neighbor and then he cannot -- he abuse it, then at the time I
12 call the police. And it's the job of the police to calm him
13 down.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And thank you, sir. I'm going to 15 ask you to pass the microphone to No. 498.

16 Same question to you about intervening with your
17 neighbors. Would you intervene?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The neighbor right now, I would 19 go over and ask the neighbor to quiet down. If it's a situation
20 of where I don't know the person, I think I'd take the safer
21 route and call I think -- I believe it's 311, the nonemergency
22 number.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about protesting? Would you
24 ever protest if you felt passionate?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it depends on the

1 situation. I mean, our country was founded on protest,
2 protested the British monarchy. And so if the founding fathers
3 hadn't protested, we might have a bunch of different court
4 system today.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What about, would you travel to a
6 protest?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would depend on the situation,
8 how strongly I felt about something, so ... and how far the 9 travel.

10 MR. MARCHESE: 300 miles.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I felt strongly about 12 something, yes.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What about if someone was to 14 protest with a gun? Let's say just a gun on his or her hip.
15 What do you think about that?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Depends on the law. Are they -- 17 are they complying with the -- with the law of the land, whether 18 it be federal or state, local, and in their protest?

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So if they were carrying a gun
20 and it was lawful, you wouldn't necessarily have a problem with
21 it?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would not have a problem. You
23 know, it depends on the -- like I said, it depends on the -- 24 what the law is as to -- I believe here in Nevada we have the 25 right to carry a concealed weapon. And so as long as they're

1 abiding by the law, they're somebody that has a concealed
2 weapons permit or whatever the circumstances are, if they're
3 following the law in their protest, I don't have a problem.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about a rifle? What if they
5 were protest with a rifle?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As long as they're protesting
7 within the law, I don't have a problem.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Thank you. I'm going to ask you
9 to pass it right behind you.

10 And your juror number, please.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 465.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Same question about protest.
13 Would you protest?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I have picketed. I don't 15 know if that's the same.

16 MR. MARCHESE: What was the purpose of the picket?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it was job related.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So you just were picketing for 19 better wages or hours or something along those lines?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Along those lines.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about something political?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Would you if you felt strongly?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe. It would depend.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Really, I honestly couldn't say,
2 yes, I wouldn't or wouldn't.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Case-to-case basis, right?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Have you ever in your 6 lifetime had a bumper sticker about an issue that you've felt
7 strongly about?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't put bumper stickers
9 on my car.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about maybe a sign in front
11 of your house or something like that?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't. I haven't had any 13 signs in front of my house.

14 MR. MARCHESE: All right. What if you were to see 15 something maybe on the news or Internet or something like that 16 and you saw a protest and you saw people carrying guns at that 17 protest, what would you think?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I wouldn't have problems --
19 I don't have a problem with the guns, per se, unless someone is 20 using a gun in a -- in an inappropriate, threatening way. You
21 know, I mean, people do have a right to protect themselves, but 22 they also don't have the right to threaten others.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Do you think you'd ever be in that
24 situation?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. All right. Thank you. I'm going
2 to ask you to pass it to my right and your left.

3 Sir, we've picked on you enough.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm fine. I'll answer whatever
5 question you had. I'll answer.

6 MR. MARCHESE: No, it's fine. We'll go to the next
7 lady.

8 And your juror number, please.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 451.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Same line of question about the 11 protests. Have you ever protest before?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Do you think you would?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably not.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Probably not. Why?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're entitled to your opinion.
17 I'm entitled to mine. I may discuss it with you, but I'm going
18 to keep my opinion. And no offense. You're entitled to yours,
19 and that's it. I don't -- I wouldn't do it.

20 MR. MARCHESE: You don't try to impress your beliefs
21 upon other people?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Do you think that once you have 24 an opinion do you think you're easily swayed?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have been swayed, but you

1 have -- if I really think I'm correct, you have to show me that
2 I'm wrong. And then I'll change my mind and say, I'm sorry.
3 You're right. But you have to show me. You're not going to 4 just talk me into changing my mind.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What about my question about
6 protesters? So you're watching the news on the Internet,
7 whatever, and you see a protest. And some of these protesters
8 have guns. What do you think about that?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe they're entitled to do
10 that, but they need to follow the laws in a nonthreatening
11 manner. If they pull a gun and point it at somebody, they're 12 threatening them and then you're going against the law. You're 13 threatening to hurt somebody. You need to follow the letter of 14 the law.

15 MR. MARCHESE: But you -- I believe one of your answers
16 earlier was that you're afraid of guns, correct, just not for
17 you?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They're not for me, no.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So let's say these protesters --
20 let's say they have these guns. And, like you said, they're 21 following the letter of the law, but how does that make you feel
22 seeing them holding those guns? Does it bother you?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They're entitled to that.

1 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Thank you. And I'm going to
2 have you grab the microphone and take it to Juror 539, please.

3 Hello.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

5 MR. MARCHESE: I have in my notes that you said that
6 you prefer a society without guns, and that's a very vague
7 statement. So I wanted an opportunity to maybe follow-up with 8 you on that. What did you mean by that statement?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, for the most part I think
10 guns are more of a problem than a solution, and that's just my 11 own beliefs. I understand it's the law and the rights. And 12 sometimes they're warranted. So it depends on the situation,
13 but ideally I'd rather have no guns. That's just me.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about protests? Have you
15 ever personally witnessed a protest? Maybe been to one or seen
16 something on television, right?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I actually have been in a
18 protest.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was sort of by accident. We 21 were -- we were on vacation on the California coastline, and it
22 was after the Valdez Oil Spill. And there was a human oil boom
23 protest that we joined in.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So was it just people who were 25 marching or standing or what was going on?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. All holding hands across
2 the whole shoreline creating a human oil boom.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What about my question earlier --
4 well, did anyone have a gun at that protest?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not at the beach.

6 MR. MARCHESE: What if someone did?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would be uncomfortable with
8 that.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Would you look at them as being 10 wrong?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Again, it would depend on who had 12 the gun and what the purpose of the gun was for. I wouldn't 13 just automatically assume it was either good or bad. I would 14 have to look at and weigh who's carrying it, what's the purpose,
15 is it for safety, is it for a threatening purpose.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What if it was a rifle? Any 17 difference?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Same thing.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Just kind of a totality of the 20 circumstances, I guess, if you will.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Yes. Is it to be used
22 for threatening purposes, for violence, or if it's used for 23 protection and security. There's two different ways to look at 24 it as there is on just about anything.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. All right. Thank you. And I'm

1 going to ask for the microphone to go to Juror 594.

2 You had mentioned -- one of the notes I had for you was
3 talking about protesting getting out of hand. Do you remember
4 that?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 MR. MARCHESE: What do you mean by getting out of hand?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, the ones I've seen on TV,
8 they're just like a lot of violence. I mean, I don't see too
9 many, but it just doesn't seem like it's worthwhile.

10 MR. MARCHESE: All right. So you mean throwing rocks,
11 that's out of hand?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's out of hand, yeah.

13 MR. MARCHESE: What else?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To me, a protest is just a waste
15 of my time. I would never -- that's why I would never do it,
16 but if it does get out of hand, it just doesn't solve any
17 problems. It just makes more.

18 MR. MARCHESE: So we've established it's not for you.
19 What about for other people? Do you have a problem with that 20 for other people?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. That's their choice.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Their time?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Their time, yeah.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What if they had a firearm on 25 their person, what would you think then?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They have the right to bear
2 firearms.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Would it make you uneasy?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Would you think that in any way they're
6 wrong in what they're doing?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If they're legally carrying the 8 firearm, no. It's -- you know, it's not my decision.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I wanted to go to No. 609,
10 please. Thank you. It would be to your right, sir, my left.
11 Hello.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

13 MR. MARCHESE: You had mentioned something about public
14 discourse --

15 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm getting lost. Which number
16 is that?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 609.

18 THE COURT: 609. Thank you.

19 MR. MARCHESE: You mentioned something about public
20 discourse. Do you remember that?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

22 MR. MARCHESE: What did you mean by that?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think the best way I can
24 clarify that would be going back to the Facebook question about 25 how we receive our news. I use Facebook quite frequently, and

1 I've just -- having grown up with that, I think that I've
2 learned to appreciate more discussions with people versus just
3 having something said at me. And also reading articles that are
4 not necessarily mainstream news, but maybe going out on my own
5 and researching things and discussing those with people that I
6 may or may not come across at work or, you know, situations that 7 you would find, like, people not necessarily just listening to 8 the news and just gathering what they say.

9 MR. MARCHESE: So you like to get out of your comfort
10 zone, I guess?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do. I do like to -- when I
12 hear something, I do -- if I'm really interested, I will go out
13 of my way to find other media outlets that are talking about the 14 same thing or online news or whatever, pod casts, you know,
15 different ways.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Do you ever get opinionated on Facebook?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do I ever get opinionated?

18 MR. MARCHESE: Yes.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I personally don't like to 20 reply to things on Facebook. I have unfriended people when I
21 don't like what they post, whether -- it's mostly news related,
22 to be honest with you, but I don't personally like to involve
23 myself in public discourse in that manner.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. You're going to use other forums
25 for that?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I like person-to-person
2 conversation more than just posting.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Why?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think a lot of times people
5 just like to hear themselves talk and, like, when you go on
6 outlets like Facebook, it's a rant. It's not in my opinion --
7 well, and I'm not talking about all of the time, but the ones
8 that I see that get me riled up that would make me want to form
9 an opinion, I know that most of the time it's a closed-book
10 situation where they're not probably looking for someone to have 11 a conversation, but they just want people to hear what they have 12 to say.

13 MR. MARCHESE: So it's one sided?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 MR. MARCHESE: And you don't prefer that?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't, no.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Do you like to have discussions?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do, yes.

19 MR. MARCHESE: But not one-sided ones?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't like to read
21 something and make -- make them know my opinion. Like, if 22 they're looking for someone to discuss it with, that's a
23 different base than just posting something and waiting for 24 someone to come at you with a response.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Have you ever protested?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have, yes.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How long ago was that?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably two, three years ago.

4 MR. MARCHESE: And what was that, if you don't mind me
5 asking?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, it was for lower tuition
7 rates at my college.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Where is that?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: University of Oregon.

10 MR. MARCHESE: So I assume you're not there anymore.

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not, no.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Did you graduate?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 MR. MARCHESE: What's your degree in?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: International business.

16 MR. MARCHESE: What brought you to Las Vegas?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm from here. I just wanted to 18 go out of state.

19 MR. MARCHESE: And what do you do now?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What do I do?

21 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a legal secretary.

23 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Thank you. And just one
24 person over, No. 612 I believe, correct?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 MR. MARCHESE: I don't have a lot on you. What do you
2 think about protests?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think people have a right to
4 protest.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How about you, have you ever
6 protest?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mentally, yes.

8 MR. MARCHESE: But not physically?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I haven't had the leisure of 10 going out physically protesting, but I think if I believe in 11 something strong enough and it were convenient for me, I would
12 protest. But I don't physically go.

13 MR. MARCHESE: So I have down that you lived in Hawaii.
14 Is that correct, at one point?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have lived in Hawaii. I've 16 lived in Europe, yes. I've lived quite a few places, yes.

17 MR. MARCHESE: So what brought you here? What brought 18 you to Las Vegas?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I retired in Hawaii, I was 20 bored. And I woke up one day and I asked my husband, Why are we 21 still here? And we traveled a couple of places and finally 22 settled in Las Vegas because the weather was good the day we
23 arrived.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. So I see that you have a little 25 bit of a background with firearms. What about protesters and

1 firearms? Do you have a problem with that?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have a problem on the
3 surface. It just -- I think for me it would be what would be
4 their intent. If it's lawful for them to carry it, it's fine.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Do you think that if they are 6 carrying guns to a protest that the intent is wrong
7 automatically?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Would you look at just the circumstances
10 I guess of the whole situation?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I -- in my mind it would be -- I
12 don't have in mind what they're thinking.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Sure. Do you find -- do you think
14 you're an opinionated person?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Do you think that your opinion can be 17 swayed easily?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not easily. I for many decades
19 carried a security clearance, so I'm more prone to want to know
20 the intent or what is the intent. I don't believe what I hear
21 on the surface. I'm more or less, Okay. What is the intent?

22 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. All right. Thank you. I'm going
23 to ask you to go behind you to No. 654, which I believe is over 24 your right shoulder, just like that.

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 654.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Oh. Sorry. How are you doing, sir?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: How you doing?

3 MR. MARCHESE: I'm doing well. I have a note on here
4 that you didn't want -- you don't want to serve on the jury?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know where that came
6 from.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I might have wrote it down
8 incorrectly on the questionnaire. You have no problem serving
9 on the jury?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: None whatsoever.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. No work conflict or anything like
12 that?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I noticed -- let me ask you this.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Go ahead.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Same question about protests. Have you
17 ever protest before?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I never protest before.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Would you if you felt strongly
20 about something?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As it stands right now about
22 protesting, I was under martial law in my mother's house so I
23 didn't have the right to do that. Then I joined the Marine
24 Corps for 30 years so I didn't have a chance to do any protests.
25 So I never thought about protests, but there's an amendment that

1 peaceful assembly you can do. So I don't have a problem with
2 that.

3 Also, I work for President Trump, and they protest at 4 his hotel all the time. So I'm on both sides of the fence for 5 the protesting. I don't have a problem with that because it's 6 their right. And also I've seen people arrested while they was 7 at the protest for not following the instructions from the 8 police.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Would you have a -- it's not for 10 you, right?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Is that fair to say or am I putting 13 words in your mouth?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I didn't say that. I said I
15 don't have a problem with that because there's a right for 16 people to protest. There's an amendment for peaceful assembly.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Sure. What if those individuals might 18 be carrying a firearm, what would you think about that?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's a second amendment for a
20 firearm. They can carry a firearm.

21 MR. MARCHESE: What about traveling to a protest? Do
22 you think you would do that if you felt strongly about
23 something?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't had the opportunity to 25 think about that even though because I've been too busy.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. What keeps you busy?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The President of the United
3 States. I don't listen to social -- I don't listen to social
4 media since he became president because it's always negative.
5 And since he became president, because I work for Trump Towers,
6 every minute of my day, besides God, I'm worrying about the 7 president.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. How much you work a week? How 9 many hours?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do 40 hours a week.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Other than your 40 hours, what do
12 you like to do?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Stay home, watch movies,
14 cartoons, and sports, and drink hard liquor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese?

16 MR. MARCHESE: On that, I'm done.

17 THE COURT: You're 10 minutes over.

18 MR. MARCHESE: I can't top that.

19 THE COURT: That's what I thought.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, can you top that?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Thank you, Judge.

23 Good afternoon. My name is Todd Leventhal. I
24 represent Mr. Drexler, seated over here. I've just got a couple 25 of questions for you just sort of along the same lines. If we

1 can go to 599.

2 I found this fascinating. You're a history
3 intelligence analyzer, or prior.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: And what is that? What do you do for a
6 living? What was that? What did you analyze?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was an intelligence analyst in
8 the Navy, and I specialized in counterterrorism,
9 counter-proliferation, counter-narcotics.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: What part of that experience -- first 11 of all, how long did you do that?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Roughly 20 years.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: And you're retired now, sir?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And what did your experience -- how 16 would you bring that to a jury? How would you -- what part of 17 your experience do you think would be -- would fit with a jury
18 type of atmosphere?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, both my past fits together,
20 being a history major, being a historian intelligence analyst.
21 We're professionally trained and taught to only draw conclusions
22 based on the evidence.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Do you work -- would you work
24 well in groups? Did you typically work in groups?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Both singly and with groups.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Did you lead groups or were you more of
2 a follower in groups?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Almost always led.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Led. Okay. And you've indicated that
5 your previous spouse had some ranching?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: And where was that?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In Northern California.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And what type of ranching was 10 that? Do you know?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Cattle. Cattle ranching. I
12 think they owned some orchards as well.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Have you ever been to a
14 protest? I don't know if anyone's asked you that.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've never been to a protest.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Would you be opposed to going to a
17 protest?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wouldn't be opposed, but I
19 personally just have better things to do. I do a lot of mental 20 protesting, though.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mental protesting?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess we all do, but it would
23 take a lot for me to actually physically travel to a protest.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. Thank you very much.
25 If we could go to No. 612, please. 612. Hi.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: You were asked some questions. You
3 were actually in the military?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I worked for Joint Services
5 for 36 years.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Ah. Okay. And you've indicated you
7 have traveled quite a bit and lived in multiple places?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: What about your history and your 10 profession, how would that lend to a juror -- as a juror? What 11 would you bring to the table?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think my ability to -- I prefer
13 to deal in facts. Facts -- I dealt a lot with -- having a
14 security clearance, you try to deal only in what is true. You
15 try not to interject your opinion or your thought or your point
16 of reference into whatever's presented to you.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: So you can remain open at least until 18 you hear all of the facts and then you can make that 19 determination on whether or not someone did something that the 20 Government alleges or not. Is that what you're saying?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And if we could go to 615.

23 Sir, hi. How are you? Have you spoken yet?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Okay. I didn't think so. I

1 heard -- and I don't want to put you on the spot. How's your
2 hearing? Can you hear me okay?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes I don't get it all, but
4 so far so good.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And so when you say you don't
6 get it all, is there like certain times of the day? What do you
7 mean by that?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes I get deaf tone.
9 Certain tones, I catch part of it, but not all of it.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Is there anything about that 11 that would prevent you from sitting and listening for the number
12 of hours that we would be requiring of you?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, as long as you don't mind
14 repeating it.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Repeating it?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If you repeat the question.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Repeating it. Okay. Gotcha.

18 Have you ever been to a protest, sir?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I have.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: And how long ago was that?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 2012.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: 2012. Okay. So did you travel for 23 that protest?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 30 miles. Searchlight, Nevada.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Who haven't I spoken -- I think there

1 was some people right behind you that haven't spoken.

2 What number are you back there? Go ahead.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. 675.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: 6 what?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 75.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: 675. Very good. What makes you a
7 candidate for -- to be on the jury? Why do you want to be on
8 the jury?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just very open minded about
10 things whether it's bad, good, or neutral. I see things. I
11 observe things.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. I read in your questionnaire
13 that you care for a child under 10 years old. Is that true?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, that's true.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And you indicated that you did not want
16 to be part of this jury. Is that true?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, that's not true.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So your answer hasn't changed.
19 Maybe you just -- I got wrong information.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, it was mostly for their 21 care. I can fill in a baby-sitter and something like that.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. So everything's good
23 now?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Excellent. Do you have a CC --

1 do you know what the acronym CCW is?

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: You do know what it is?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: And you do have one?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: You do not have one?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you make the difference between a
10 pistol and a rifle?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: You do. And how so?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What was the question again?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you make the difference between a
15 pistol versus what's called a long gun or a rifle?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I can tell the difference.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: You can tell the difference. Is there
18 any difference to you in your mind in terms of a threat or 19 anything like that?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I --

21 MS. CREEGAN: I'm going to object to this question. I
22 think it's kind of a legal question about what constitutes a
23 threat or not.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you make the difference between the

1 two?

2 THE COURT: Does he make the difference?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I'm just asking if whether or not
4 there's a difference in his opinion whether a gun is a gun, but 5 it's not a legal question. It's really is a gun a gun. He
6 doesn't have a CCW. Okay. I'll move on. It's okay.

7 If you could pass it right to your right. Thank you.

8 Hi, sir. What number are you?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 690.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: And no one's spoken to you yet,
11 correct?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why do you want to be on the jury?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just to do what's right.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To do what's right.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: To do what's right?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Have you ever been to a protest?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you consider yourself someone who 22 helps other people?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: You do. Okay. Even if somebody who 25 you don't know, you would help them?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. How far would you go to help
3 somebody you didn't know? Would you give your life for somebody
4 you didn't know?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Would I give my life?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: You wouldn't?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you could just pass to your
11 right. Thank you.

12 No one's spoken to you yet?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Other than you knowing this gentlemen,
15 correct?

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Have you ever been to a protest, sir?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I have.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: You have. How long ago was that?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: This would have been in the 21 mid-'80s?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And do you have -- do you know
23 what a CCW is?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you have one?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. How do you feel about
3 sticking -- how do you feel about people sticking their nose in 4 your -- in your business or getting involved in something you're
5 involved with? Do you take that very personal or do you mind?
6 Do you understand the question?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'll repeat it to you and tell me
8 if I have the question correctly.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So are you saying that someone 11 involves themselves in something that has to do with me or mine?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would depend on the intrusion.
14 If they're acting out of care or they're trying to bring 15 something to my attention, I would be open to hearing it. If 16 they're being busy body or trying to impose their will on me,
17 I'd be opposed to it.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And you've been to a protest,
19 and there was some questions earlier about protesting against 20 the government. How do you feel about that? Is that something
21 different?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The protest I went to was 23 basically against the government.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Government?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was, and I'll be specific.

1 There was underground testing at the time, and there was an
2 accident with Mighty Oak which exposed nuclear radiation to the 3 Valley. And they were talking about bringing Yucca Mountain in 4 and that there was a question with the safety of the casks. And 5 so we wanted to delay that until we could verify the safety of 6 the casks, and that was the nature of the protest.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I see. And do you remember how that
8 was organized?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There was the Nevada Desert
10 Experience and the Nevada Lenting Experience and the Nevada
11 Peace Test. And the Nevada Lenting Experience was through what 12 they call Liberation Theology, and I was very active in the 13 church at the time. And that's how I got involved.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good.

15 I have a general question for everybody. Who heard,
16 with a show of hands, about the Women's March during Trump's 17 inauguration? Raise them up.

18 And of the hands that are raised, how many heard
19 Madonna say something to the fact that the White House should be 20 burned down?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Blown up, she said.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Blown up.

23 Who hasn't spoken yet? What's your number?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 657.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: 657?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: How did you feel about that?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was upset.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: At the comment?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you elaborate on that? What do you
7 mean?

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I felt it was disrespected.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you think that type of behavior is 10 never -- should never be allowed?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just felt that it was out of 12 character because she's a public eye.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sorry. Go ahead.

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. Because she's a role
15 model to people, and she shouldn't have said that because 16 she's -- she's a public eye speaker and little girls look up to 17 her.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Did it matter that it was towards the 19 White House or could it have been --

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Absolutely, absolutely.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. Thank you.

22 Is there anybody else in the back that has any opinion?
23 Back there? Who raised their hand back there?

24 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: What's your juror number?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0707.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know, people, can say what
4 they want. Basically we have freedom of speech, but I think
5 sometimes against the White House it's getting a bit much.
6 That's -- but, you know, they still have a right to say it. I
7 mean, this is America. They can say it, so -- but I think it's 8 wrong when they take the format that they did; not if they 9 protest. That's fine.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Have you ever been to a protest,
11 ma'am?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: How long ago?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You'll know how old I am.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, okay. Then I won't ask.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was very long ago. But, yes,
17 a few.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. And 655?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 54.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: 55.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sorry.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hi. You haven't spoken yet.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 655.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hi. Good afternoon. Have you ever
25 been to a protest, ma'am?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Say that again.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Have you ever been to a protest?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you oppose the protest or the right?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't, but I never
8 participated.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Why do you want to be on the 10 jury?

11 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would like to have the 12 experience, and it's my duty to serve. And I think I'm a very 13 fair person.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. What do you do for a living?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm retired.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: What did you do for a living?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Property management.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: And what part of your prior employment
19 or your work experience -- what would you bring to the jury with 20 that?

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to be very fair. My -- in 22 my work I had to be fair to the homeowner and the tenants. And 23 I am a very fair person because I was treated very unfairly
24 growing up. So I have the sense of -- just a sense of fairness.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Where did you grow up?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Macau in Hong Kong.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hong Kong. Okay. Great. And so have
3 you ever been in a process like this? Have you ever -- you've
4 never served on a jury, right?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Have you at least gotten this far?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Gotten this far?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, where you're a prospective juror.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. It's fascinating. Well,
11 welcome.

12 Is there anybody else who hasn't spoken?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 736.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: 736. Good afternoon, sir.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: What do you do for a living?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Crap dealer.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Crap dealer. And how long have you
19 been a crap dealer? How long?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Off and on, 22 years.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: And why do you want to be on this jury?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've never been a jurist before.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: What's your favorite TV show? What do
24 you like to watch?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I watch a lot of Law and Order.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So is there something about that
2 that you want to be here?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Is there something what?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: About Law and Order, the show, that
5 makes you kind of intrigued by this process?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I -- well, the process as a
7 whole, yeah.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The whole process. I've been 10 called half a dozen times, and it's always been cancelled the 11 night before. So this is my first time.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. All right. Do you have a CCW?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Have you ever been to a protest?

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Are you opposed to protest?

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Okay.

19 THE COURT: What was your jury number?

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 736.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Are you -- sir, are you the type of 22 person that would see yourself to help other people?

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah? Even people you don't know?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I -- I think in some instances,

1 sure.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. In some instances. It depends
3 on what it is?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, sure. That's a very broad
5 question, yeah.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: It is and it's -- okay. It's trying to 7 get to an answer.

8 But even if you don't know somebody, how far -- and,
9 again, a broad question. How far would you go? Can you put
10 that into some kind of sentence, I would go this far, but I
11 think the gentleman before you said he'd probably not risk his 12 life. That's too far. How far would you go?

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For a complete stranger?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

15 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can you give me something more?
16 Can you --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Bus goes off a bridge. Are you going 18 to jump in?

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Am I going to jump off the 20 bridge?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm probably going to go
23 down the bank and see if I can help.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: And how high the bridge is, right.
25 Very logical.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, you're over your time. I'll
2 let you ask one more question.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. 575 -- 757. You haven't spoken
4 yet. Hello. Why do you want to be on the jury, real quick?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The whole process.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: The whole process?

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The whole legal process.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: And one more question. What of your
9 experience, your past experience, would you bring to the jury?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a very broad background in 11 dealing with conflict and dealing with situations in law.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. I'm out of time.
13 Thank you very much.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Ms. Creegan?

16 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I do have a fair bit of time
17 left. It is 3 o'clock. Would you like me to proceed or take a
18 break at this time?

19 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and get done.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Good afternoon again, ladies and 21 gentlemen. I have a couple of questions for -- I'm just going
22 to ask for a show of hands, and the first question that I have 23 is, does anybody here think that because they've just asked a
24 lot of questions about protests this case must have something to 25 do with a protest? Raise your hand if you think that.

1 Is there anybody who has their hand up now -- keep your
2 hand up if you degree with this that can't -- can you keep an
3 open mind that this case might not involve an protest?

4 Okay. Now, can you put your hands down. Thank you.
5 Now, raise your hands if you disagree with this statement. Do
6 people sometimes get-together with guns not to protest? Raise
7 your hand if you disagree. I know it's a double negative again.
8 But do people sometimes get-together with guns for purposes
9 other than protesting? Raise your hand if you agree with that.
10 Agree. I'm sorry. I'm just going to make it a single negative.

11 People sometimes get-together with guns and they don't
12 have a protest in mind.

13 Okay. Now can you put those down. Does anybody take 14 the opposite side, you disagree? Okay. Thank you.

15 Is there anybody who agrees with this statement?
16 Please put your hands up if you agree. I'll try to be less back
17 and forth. If you agree. That violence that does occur at a
18 protest shouldn't be punished? So if people break in windows,
19 do something at protests, if it's violent, it shouldn't be 20 punished. Raise your hand if you agree with that.

21 (No response.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Now, I'm going to ask you to raise
23 your hand if you agree that this describes you. Does anybody
24 think that they do a bad job telling whether someone's telling 25 the truth or not? They just noticed in their life that they're

1 not very good at judging whether people are telling the truth.
2 Can you raise your hand if you say, I'm just not good at that?

3 (No response.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: I think in our life experience we get a
5 lot of experience with whether people are telling the truth or 6 not. So I'm not surprised that nobody raised their hand.

7 Does everybody here then think they do a good job
8 telling if people are telling the truth or not?

9 Raise your hand if you agree that you think you are 10 good at telling whether people are telling the truth or not.

11 Okay. Thank you.

12 Now, I've got a couple -- I've got a couple more hands
13 question. One is, does anybody here feel like they have some 14 negative feelings about police officers? Any types of negative
15 feelings about police officers?

16 (No response.)

17 MS. CREEGAN: Even broader question than that. Does
18 anybody feel like they have some negative feelings, bad
19 feelings, about the Federal Government?

20 That's 609.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 609. To clarify, I guess I
22 wouldn't say I'm 100 percent complacent with everything that the 23 Federal Government or the police do. And that's both on an 24 individual basis and like a -- as a collaborative.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you very much for raising your hand

1 and asking for that clarification. Do you feel like you have
2 any general bad feelings that you would take with you into this
3 case?

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Here's another question I'm going to ask
6 you to raise your hands to. Did anybody try to hand you any 7 material, show you any signs, or talk to you about this case
8 either today or before you came in for jury service? I'm not 9 talking about your spouse or your best friend, but maybe
10 somebody you didn't know tried to contact you to talk about this 11 case. Can anybody raise their hand if that happened with them?

12 (No response.)

13 MS. CREEGAN: So I'm going to ask a general question to 14 everybody. Something I'd like to use my time to do. So I'm 15 going to ask the mic to start over here and get passed to 16 everyone. And we only have so much time to get to know you and 17 we have learned a lot about you, but I guess I'm going to ask
18 you in your own words about yourself, which is if you had to 19 explain yourself very quickly, if you were in an elevator and 20 you were introducing yourself, if you had to give someone a
21 personal motto, if you had to have a bumper sticker that 22 described your philosophy just in a sentence or so, what's the 23 best thing that we can know about you to kind of get to know
24 you? Even though we don't have a lot of time, what's a good way
25 to encapsulate what we should know about you?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I served in the Navy for 20
2 years, and right now my work is a cook in food court.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. And could you just say your 4 juror number for the --

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 498.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

7 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I worked in public utility
8 regulation for 20 years. First 15 and a half years with Public
9 Utilities Commission. Last -- last eight years with the 10 Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Protection. And so I
11 appear in administrative proceedings and as an expert witness on 12 utility regulation. And the most frustrating thing I ever
13 encounter is when you provide testimony and you think the weight
14 of evidence is on your side and the Commission rules the other
15 way.

16 So I think the one attorney was asking the question why
17 do you want to be here. I don't really want to be here and I
18 know my wife doesn't want me to be here, but I think -- I
19 believe in the process and I believe that you, the U.S.
20 Attorneys Office, the defense attorneys, the Honorable Judge,
21 deserve people who are willing to serve who believe in a
22 fundamental fairness. And so that's why I'm here; not because I
23 want to be.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Are you willing to serve as a juror in
25 the case?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am willing to serve as a juror,
2 although I will get in trouble with my wife.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 465.

4 MS. CREEGAN: And I hope that if -- folks, if you want
5 to describe your job, please do if they feel like that's 6 essential to understanding you, but if you want to talk about
7 something else -- keep in mind that we have a little bit of that 8 info from your questionnaires. So what's something that we 9 maybe wouldn't know from your questionnaire?

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, the first half of my career
11 life I was a legal secretary and office manager at a law firm.
12 Stayed at home after that to raise children, and during that 13 process volunteered a lot at the schools. So ultimately became 14 an employee of the school district. I'm pretty bluntly honest
15 and fair. And according to some people that know me real well,
16 I can either be your best friend or your worst enemy. That's 17 about it.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Or both to different people.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

20 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, that's quite a question.
21 Actually, I'm retired military of course. 457. And I was like 22 about 35 years already total and I got tired of it. I was 23 military police in the military, casino security, whatnot. But 24 as far as your question, somebody in an elevator? Just try to 25 be friendly, open minded. You know, little humor goes a long

1 way sometimes, which I think the world is lacking a lot of.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir.

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jury 451. I worked at Bally's
4 for 32 years. Worked half of it in finance and half of it in
5 human resources. So you learn to be very open minded. You
6 learn to care about people, which I helped save somebody's life
7 once.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Wow.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In H.R. You just have to be open
10 minded, and you have to care about people to get along in the 11 world, period.

12 MS. CREEGAN: How do you feel about being a juror in
13 this case?

14 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I enjoy being juried. I've done
15 it several times. And I think it's -- it's fascinating. It's 16 interesting.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am.

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 531. Been working in the 19 same job for 39 years. Getting ready to retire. That's about
20 it.

21 MS. CREEGAN: That's your elevator introduction?

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's it.

23 MS. CREEGAN: How about a personal motto? What would 24 your motto be?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just get through it.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 539. And I think fairness.

3 MS. CREEGAN: How do you feel about being a juror in
4 this case?

5 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it's my responsibility.
6 I think I have an open mind. I am very logical and can listen
7 to the facts and weigh it out and discuss to reach a conclusion.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 540. My strongest
10 personality quality is curiosity, and I need a lot of coffee in 11 the morning.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Good to know. Thank you, ma'am.

13 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 548. 22 years Air Force.
14 Retired. Last 11 and a half years have been IT work, computers.
15 And my motto would probably be professional.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir. How do you feel about 17 being on the jury in this case?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It conflicts with my desire to do
19 my job, but I do understand it's something I have to do, so ...

20 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm prepared.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 571. Open minded, easy
23 going. I believe in the maximization of freedom.

24 MS. CREEGAN: And how do you feel about mistaking you
25 for somebody that once prosecuted you?

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You look a lot like her. That's
2 all I have to say.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Do you think you can set that side or are 4 you going to be thinking of me like this person throughout the
5 case?

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Now that I know it's not you,
7 we're cool. That's fine.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. 615. 25 years retired from 10 national homebuilder here in town. And I always strive to be 11 honest. And I've dealt a lot with the public. And there's 12 always two sides to the story and somewhere in the middle is the 13 truth. And you can't jump to conclusions. You have to weigh 14 the evidence on both sides, and you then you come out with the 15 right story.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir.

17 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 1 -- 612. I like to think
18 that I'm open minded and fair. I'm very pragmatic. And I like 19 to hear facts and try to draw conclusions from them, what I'm 20 hearing, the intent.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 4 -- sorry. 609. I would
23 like to think that I'm a critical thinker thanks to my privilege
24 of being able to attend university and the current job I have 25 now. So I think that's an important quality to have when

1 listening to facts that you have. I personally have absolutely
2 no previous knowledge about this case so I would like to think
3 that my clean slate of implicit or explicit biases can only
4 assist here.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 599. Is this a regular elevator
7 ride or are we stuck in the elevator?

8 MS. CREEGAN: It's like a 28 story -- the elevator will 9 open, but only after some time.

10 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I normally don't tell people or 11 discuss what I have done in the past as far as my career goes,
12 but I do generally tell people and my children, you know, just 13 don't listen to hearsay very often. Won't get you very far.

14 MS. CREEGAN: And how do you feel about being a juror
15 in this case? Sorry.

16 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sensing we're stuck in the 17 elevator.

18 MS. CREEGAN: 28 floors.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have no feelings about it
20 whatsoever either way. If it's the case where I'm selected,
21 then I'll do what I'm told to do and listen to both sides.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi. I'm 594. And I have five
24 kids and 14 grandkids, and I'm thinking about retiring next
25 year, but I'm really worried now because I run a depot -- three

1 depots. And I run 50 to 60 miles a week, and I'm just wondering
2 if I'm going to be able to stay awake in the jury box because
3 it's a change in my life-style here. I'm struggling right now.
4 So, anyway, usually I go home at 3 o'clock and take a nap every
5 day. That's just what I do. But, anyway, that's my concern
6 right now.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Would you like to serve as a juror or you
8 think that that would be a problem?

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'd love to serve, but I
10 wish you guys would go, like, from 5 in the morning to 2 in the 11 afternoon. I get up at 4. I was over at work this morning. So 12 that's about my concerns right now. I got to pinch myself to 13 stay awake a little bit.

14 MS. CREEGAN: And if you do get selected for the jury,
15 what do you think your role would be working in a team with 11
16 other people? Kind of -- you're all going to have to deliberate
17 at the end. What do you think you could bring to that?

18 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work alone a lot. So that 19 would be a change for me, too.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. 587. I'm a people person. I
22 love to listen to people's life stories and what got them to 23 where they are today. It fascinates me to hear people's stories
24 and ...

25 MS. CREEGAN: Are you interested in being a juror on

1 this case? Is there any particular reason that you think you
2 could bring something to the jury?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just at a good point in my
4 life right now to sit in on a jury. I don't have anything that
5 would take me away from it as far as kids or job or anything.
6 I've got the time. And so it just is a good time for me.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 654. If selected, I will serve
9 to the best of my ability, so help me God.

10 MS. CREEGAN: I think I know enough about you from our 11 previous elevator ride.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 655. I'm a young-at-heart
13 retiree. I believe I will live until 100, but I might get hit
14 by a car when I get out of here. So I welcome the chance to 15 learn new things and I welcome the chance to be a juror. I'm 16 fair. I'm very fair and I am open minded. And I think it's 17 necessary to be fair all the time, open minded.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am.

19 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 657. I'm a yogi at heart,
20 so I'm very peaceful. I'm open minded. I've lived here for 29
21 years, and I know nothing about this case. So I'm open to 22 serve.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 675. I'm a cancer survivor for 24 six years now. And I just want to do things that I haven't done
25 before, and this is one of them.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Congratulations.

2 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 690. Just a nice going person.
3 Listen to everybody's stories. You know, but do the right thing
4 when I've been told to do something. So that's about it.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. 700. I would say that I'm a
7 person who values experiences more than possessions, and in 8 business places a higher value on outcome over income. I like
9 balance in life. I don't own a television. I read voraciously.
10 And I love to travel extensively.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juror 757. For the elevator
13 conversation, how's your day going and be genuinely concerned.
14 The current role I'm in, I'm a customer service representative
15 for an insurance company. Biggest part of my day is listening
16 objectively to information that's being given to me. And I'm 17 still shocked that people don't realize it's a recorded line.
18 I'm taking accident information and you're telling me you were 19 drunk at the time. I still have to note everything I'm putting 20 into the claim, so ...

21 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

22 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 736. I take my daughter to 23 school every morning, and I tell her these three things: Be 24 good, be fair, and use your powers for good.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

1 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 729. I am a retail manager, a
2 huge nerd, a bit antisocial. And I really hate public speaking.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you for doing it, ma'am.

4 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 708. I'm pretty open -- open
5 minded. I will use any excuse to get outside. I love the 6 outdoors. And I, honestly, I just have no patience for adult
7 crap.

8 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0707. I'm 42 years in Las Vegas.
9 I'm a very fair person. Raised four great kids by myself. And 10 I want to say, you guys are much more respectful in this court
11 than in Justice Court, and this has been a humbling experience.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, ma'am.

13 And I did tell everyone the last time that we spoke
14 that I'd give you another chance if there was anything that 15 we've discussed over the time that you've been hearing from all
16 of the different attorneys or just even having the time to think
17 about it, if there's anything else that you just think, You
18 should know this about me, not that it would make me partial,
19 but just that you should know this about me. Is there anybody
20 that can think of anything they just want to make sure that we 21 know about them?

22 Okay. I see someone back there.

23 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 757. I have protested. I spent
24 20 years with the Culinary Union and went through every strike
25 picketing. I have had a concealed weapons permit in California.

1 I no longer have it here in Nevada. And basically that's two
2 things that might hinge on an opinion of me.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, sir. And at the very end here
4 comes the not-very-graceful check of my notes to see if there's
5 anything else that I should ask you.

6 Okay. Thank you very much for giving me that time.
7 Thank you for your service, ladies and gentlemen.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I have one question for Juror
9 No. 729, and I realize that you don't like public speaking, but 10 I need to ask you. How do you feel about speaking in a room
11 with 11 other people?

12 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think a number that small I can 13 manage.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Because one of your duties if you
15 are on the jury is that you will have the duty to deliberate.
16 So you can't sit and just vote. You have to discuss and explain
17 and try to understand what the other person's explanation is and 18 try to clarify if there's any misremembering or -- you need to 19 talk. You need to be able to be talkative and be comfortable
20 speaking to other people even if they disagree with you.

21 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand.

22 THE COURT: Do you think that would be too stressful
23 for you or do you think that you would be able to comply with 24 that jury duty?

25 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It might be a little stressful,

1 but I think I can comply.

2 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take about a
3 15-minute bathroom break. And then when you come back, we'll
4 let you know who is excused and who will be returning tomorrow
5 at 12 o'clock. So go ahead and stand for the jury.

6 (Whereupon jury panel leaves courtroom at 3:20 p.m.)

7 (Recess taken at 3:20 p.m.)

8 (Resumed at 3:42 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

10 So before we bring the jury back in and tell them to 11 come back at 12 noon, is there anyone else that you want me to 12 consider excusing for cause or that stipulated to excuse?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the United States would like
14 to move again for Juror 571 to be removed. His answers to the 15 question about bias, didn't think they were convincing. I think 16 there's still some issue with having some sort of feeling of 17 personal connection or something toward me, the person who 18 thinks I look like I prosecuted him or that he surely knows me
19 from somewhere.

20 THE COURT: I thought he said he -- since you said that 21 you weren't the person that he thought he remembered that he 22 would deal with it or is over it, something like that?

23 MS. CREEGAN: I think he said he's cool with it.

24 THE COURT: Cool with it, yeah, something like that.

25 MR. TANASI: I think he said, We're cool.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't think there was ever a problem.

2 THE COURT: I thought someone was going to ask him
3 about his pending DUI charge and whether that's a felony or not;
4 if he's got a prior from 10 years ago, maybe. But I don't see
5 any reason to excuse him for cause.

6 Any others?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Not from the United States.

8 THE COURT: All right. Defense?

9 MR. TANASI: We do. We have one, Your Honor, 485.

10 First just from a language barrier, I don't know if he 11 has necessarily said that he has one or if that's something he 12 stated, but I know that sitting over here it's been very 13 difficult for us collectively to understand much of what he's 14 had to say. I know that Mr. Marchese kind of had an exchange
15 with him with respect to his conflict. And I still -- maybe the 16 Court has it down better than I do. I still don't know what
17 that conflict was. So I think just from a language barrier
18 perspective I think that would be the first ground to request
19 his excusal.

20 MS. CREEGAN: And the United States would oppose that.
21 He was in the military for a long period of time. He was a
22 correctional officer in the military. He does have an accent,
23 but he understood the question. I think his response was, I was 24 a corrections officer and I don't know if that's going to be a
25 conflict.

1 THE COURT: Well, I understood him to say that he --
2 when he was a corrections officer, he was told that that would
3 be a conflict, that he could not serve on a jury, but that now
4 he's a cook at the Nellis Air Force Base. So I think he's
5 qualified.

6 He did say that there was only three cooks. He didn't
7 say anything more about that. So there doesn't seem to be that
8 much of a concern for him to be excused. So I don't see any 9 lack of qualification or reason to excuse 485 for cause. Not 10 sufficient.

11 Any others?

12 MR. TANASI: That's all from Defense, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: So let's go ahead and invite them back.
16 We'll let them know -- they will be instructed to come back at 17 noon, but we are not really starting until 1. It's because they 18 have to be processed and get their parking taken care of.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, before we bring 20 them in, let me find out where we should cut them off so we know
21 who to excuse.

22 THE COURT: Oh. Do we have too many?

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: We do.

24 All right, Your Honor. I think we can keep every juror
25 up to No. 657 and excuse everyone after Juror 657. That will

1 give us four extras just in case of no-shows tomorrow.

2 THE COURT: So keep or don't keep 657?

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Keep 657, Your Honor. She 4 would be the last.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And that would give us three extras
6 just in case there's a no-show.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Four extras.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and bring them in.

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

10 (Whereupon jury panel enters courtroom at 3:47 p.m.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Everyone can be seated.

12 All right. So we've got more jurors than we need. So
13 I'm going to go ahead and excuse a few of you. And I thank you
14 very much for your patience with us here today. So we thank and 15 excuse Juror No. 675, 690, 700, 707, 708, 729, 736, 757, and 16 771. Thank you very much for coming in.

17 And just to make sure that my list is complete, I'm 18 going to call out your number and raise your hand so that I'm 19 sure that I've marked this up correctly. So Juror 451? Thank 20 you. 457? Thank you, sir. 465? All right. Thank you. 485?
21 Yes, sir. And 498? Thank you. 531? Thank you. 539? Thank 22 you. 540? Thank you. 548? Thank you. And 571? Thank you.
23 All right. 587? Thank you. 594? Thank you. 599? Thank you.
24 609? Thank you. 612? Thank you. 615? Thank you. 654?
25 Thank you. 655? Thank you. 657? Thank you. 675? No? Oh, I

1 excused 675. So is there someone's number who I didn't call?
2 What was your number?

3 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 0707.

4 THE COURT: Right, 707. You're excused. Thank you.
5 Does that match with your list?

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It does, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. I think we got it right. Well,
8 thank you very much everyone. We're going to ask you to come
9 back at 12 noon tomorrow so that you can be processed, and then
10 after that we'll be having the attorneys exercise their 11 peremptory challenges, which I explained to you before it's sort
12 of a two-part qualification test. The first one is the 13 for-cause excuses, which I have exercised today as well as 14 yesterday with a different group. Tomorrow we're going to have 15 the group that was here yesterday and you, all of you, join us
16 in the afternoon, and that's when the attorneys exercise their 17 peremptory challenge where they will remove jurors for whatever
18 reason they want to. They don't even have to say anything on 19 the record. They just make a little checkmark on a piece of 20 paper.

21 All right. And then the folks who are left will be the 22 jurors. So thank you very much for coming in today. We'll 23 welcome you back tomorrow at 12 noon. I can't say how cold or 24 how hot it's going to be. It was really hot in here yesterday,
25 and we complained. And then it was really cold in here this

1 morning. So go ahead and layer if you need to.

2 Yes, sir.

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Just a moment, sir.

4 THE COURT: Hold on. We'll get you the microphone
5 there. So No. 457. Yes, sir.

6 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I could have yelled louder.

7 THE COURT: But she can't hear you. We have to record
8 everything for the record.

9 A PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good answer. 457. Well, basic 10 question. Come in tomorrow at 12 o'clock. Where do we go? We 11 just go back to the same beginning area where we first came in 12 initially?

13 THE COURT: Yes. Exactly. Just the same as today, and 14 then they'll process you and give you your parking validation
15 and whatever else they need to give you. Okay. Thank you.

16 All right. Well, have a good evening. We'll see you
17 back here tomorrow.

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: The jury is excused. You can 19 all leave.

20 (Whereupon jury panel is excused at 3:52 p.m.)

21 THE COURT: Thank you. We're off record.

22 (Whereupon the proceedings concluded at 3:53 p.m.)

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for Jury
7 Trial, Day 3, in Case No. 2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL, United States of
8 America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelien,
9 and Steven Stewart.

10 Counsel, please note your appearances for the record.

11 MR. MYHRE: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Steve Myhre,
12 Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

13 THE COURT: Good morning [sic], Mr. Myhre, Ms. Ahmed,
14 Ms. Creegan.

15 MR. TANASI: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
16 for Steven Stewart. Also with us at counsel table is Nona
17 Dodson and Brian Glynn. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Tanasi and --

19 MR. MARCHESE: Good --

20 THE COURT: -- Ms. Dodson, Mr. Glynn.

21 Go ahead.

22 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Afternoon. Jess Marchese on behalf of 25 Eric Parker.

1 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Marchese, Mr. Parker.
2 I didn't say hello to Mr. Stewart.
3 Go ahead.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Todd
5 Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

6 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Leventhal and
7 Mr. Drexler.

8 MR. PEREZ: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on
9 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

10 THE COURT: And good afternoon, Mr. Perez and
11 Mr. Lovelien.

12 All right. And, just so that everyone remembers,
13 before we bring in the jury, we do have some expectations about
14 how Court will be conducted today. So remember: This is a 15 courtroom; it's not a sporting event. And so it's never 16 appropriate to make any expression of your opinion, whether 17 verbally or through body language, no matter how much you agree
18 or disagree with something that is being said or done.

19 People should not speak out of turn. Everyone has a
20 microphone. We also have an attorney here for everyone. And I
21 do remind the defendants that the Marshals do have speaker
22 systems set up in the holding cells so that if anyone does
23 exhibit any kind of verbal or body-language conduct that is not
24 appropriate they are authorized to remove that person and place
25 them in the holding cell where they can still hear the rest of

1 the trial but they will not be present.

2 Likewise, if everyone in the public will please double
3 check and make sure you do not have an electronic device with 4 you. They are not permitted in the courtroom. Even if they
5 are turned off or in vibrate mood, you're not allowed to have
6 any kind of electronic devices. The attorneys have electronic 7 devices so that they can conduct and do the things they need to 8 do for a trial. But the public is not permitted to have any 9 electronic devices. There's no recording devices, audio or 10 video, that are allowed in federal court. And, likewise, the 11 Marshals are authorized to remove anyone who is not acting in 12 accordance with these expectations.

13 We did experiment a little bit yesterday after you all
14 left to see if we could improve the audio. So hopefully 15 everyone can hear me now. We -- and everyone else. The 16 problem is when we turn up the speakers too high we get
17 feedback because of the crowd and then if we don't have it loud
18 enough then we can't all hear each other. So just bear with us
19 and feel free on the breaks to give me feedback and to give 20 Aaron some feedback as to whether you can or cannot hear us
21 better or not. So I have two microphones. And I'm told the 22 problem is I can't put them too close together because then
23 you'll get one of those ear-piercing, loud kinda things goin'
24 on.

25 So the problem with this microphone is that when I turn

1 my head then this microphone doesn't pick me up. So hopefully
2 the other one will.

3 And then so, likewise for your podium, you now have two
4 microphones at the podium. So hopefully, regardless of which
5 way you're looking, one of the two microphones will pick you
6 up.

7 So remember we're recording. So, even though in the 8 courtroom we can all hear each other, if it's not recorded, it
9 doesn't get transcribed and it's not part of the record. So
10 the important thing is that the recorder can hear you. So
11 don't get angry if she tells you that she can't hear you.
12 She's doing you a favor by telling you that.

13 All right. We're gonna go ahead and bring in the jury.
14 Then you all can exercise your peremptory challenges. And 15 then, when we're done, I'm going to have Aaron swear them in 16 and then I'm just only gonna give them the recess admonish.
17 I'm not gonna give them the long instruction. I'll do that on 18 Monday morning whenever we start at 9:00 and then we can have 19 opening statements and I'm assuming we'll have time for maybe
20 one witness. I don't think for two. But, I mean, if you want
21 to have a second witness ready just in case. But I think we'll 22 probably only get to one witness. We may not even finish the 23 witness depending on how quick or short that witness is.

24 Mr. Tanasi.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 If you'd allow, the defense does have one additional
2 motion for cause.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. TANASI: Juror --

5 THE COURT: From --

6 MR. TANASI: -- No --

7 THE COURT: -- Day 1 or Day 2? Because I have them
8 separated here.

9 MR. TANASI: Juror No. 111 who --

10 THE COURT: Day 1.

11 MR. TANASI: -- I think based on the numbering would be
12 Day 1.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. TANASI: This particular juror, Your Honor, I think
15 can't be fair and impartial in this case. Based on the notes
16 that I've got, she's indicated that the average police officer
17 doesn't go to -- an average police officer wouldn't go to a
18 protest and say I want to arrest somebody. Therefore, I'm 19 prejudiced to believe that if --

20 THE COURT: Wait.

21 MR. TANASI: -- someone --

22 THE COURT: 111, I think, is a man, not a woman.

23 MR. TANASI: He, yes.

24 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

25 MR. TANASI: I apologize.

1 THE COURT: I thought maybe I was looking at the wrong
2 one. All right. So he. Go ahead.

3 MR. TANASI: That's correct. I apologize.

4 Therefore, I'm prejudice to believe that if someone's
5 arrested at a protest then they have violated the law. And 6 then I'm slightly prejudiced towards the police officer in 7 their benefit, a tad skewed, that a person should have to 8 kinda -- to show their innocence.

9 So I think that there's kind of a burden-shifting issue
10 there based on, you know, my notation of her [sic] responses.

11 THE COURT: His.

12 MR. TANASI: His. I don't know why I'm hung up on 13 that, Your Honor. His.

14 And so, given that, I would say I don't think he can be 15 fair and impartial in this case.

16 MS. CREEGAN: The Government will stipulate.

17 THE COURT: All right. So we will excuse Juror
18 No. 111.

19 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, should we treat Juror 540 as 20 moved up or maintain them in the alternate pool?

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: I think we would have move them up due to 23 the --

24 THE COURT: Aaron --

25 MS. CREEGAN: -- peremptories.

1 THE COURT: -- should we just leave them in -- because
2 we already have printed out the seating chart for everyone.

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: We can leave them in order
4 for the seating chart, Your Honor. Um . . .

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 Should we --

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And --

8 THE COURT: -- and do you want to leave an empty chair
9 or just leave him here and just between all of us we know that 10 he's excused?

11 MR. TANASI: I'm fine with that, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: He doesn't really need to know.

13 MS. CREEGAN: That's fine with the Government as well.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 So, for example, on mine, I put a big red "X" on it.
16 So, if you do the same, then we shouldn't have a problem. So
17 you still can count heads if you're trying to figure out who's 18 who.

19 MS. CREEGAN: So should the parties then assume that
20 Juror No. 540 is now part of the main pool and that Juror 615
21 is now moved into the alternate pool?

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I will provide a new 23 peremptory sheet for the parties to review. Everyone's going
24 to move up one. So one of the four parties that's not on that 25 list I have a separate list for you. One of the four extras we

1 brought will be bumped up into the alternate pool and the first
2 alternate will be bumped into the main juror pool.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 So can you tell us before we start? Because they are 5 gonna want to know who their alternates are before they
6 exercise their relevant peremptories.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Definitely. Yes. Juror 540
8 will be Juror No. 36 and Juror No. 615 will be in alternate
9 spot 44.

10 (Counsel conferring.)

11 THE COURT: Okay. So then the alternate grouping is 12 548 through 615, those eight? One, two, three --

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct --

14 THE COURT: -- four five --

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: --

16 THE COURT: -- six, seven, eight.

17 So those eight are the individuals in the alternate
18 group. We'll keep four and you each have two peremptories.
19 So, if you exercise them all, we'll end up with the four 20 alternates. If you don't exercise them, we just take the first 21 four. Does that make sense?

22 MS. CREEGAN: Yes.

23 (Counsel conferring.)

24 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, I think I also spoke 25 with defense. We were going to ask for it to be noted when

1 something was a joint challenge or a challenge by a particular
2 party, and I believe that they indicated they are all joint.
3 But I'll let them make their presentation.

4 THE COURT: Well, I did give them four extra for them
5 to exercise individually in case someone wanted to veto someone
6 else's vote for anything, however it is that you're deciding
7 for the joint ones. If there's something that the others want
8 to keep but you really don't want on the jury, I wanted
9 everyone to be able to have one that you could use to take
10 anyone off that you personally did not want to have on there
11 even if you were overruled.

12 MR. TANASI: Sure.

13 And I think, Your Honor, in getting together prior to 14 court, I think we all kind of have come to a very similar
15 feeling on who we would be collectively exercising our strikes
16 on. So I don't know if we need to necessarily mark that each
17 time. Is that what Your Honor would like? Or just make the 18 record now that we are kind of all in agreement on who we'll be 19 striking throughout the process?

20 THE COURT: If you want to just have the presumption be 21 that all of the challenges are joint unless noted otherwise,
22 then it'll be incumbent on the person who wants to override the 23 rule -- you know, the decision of the majority --

24 MR. TANASI: Sure.

25 THE COURT: -- and exercise their own vote to go ahead

1 and indicate that it's one of their four individual votes.

2 MR. TANASI: I think that's the way to go, Your Honor.
3 I think we'll . . .

4 THE COURT: Otherwise I don't know how else we would
5 know if -- you know, if Mr. Leventhal tries to use two instead
6 of one.

7 MR. TANASI: Right.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why you pickin' on me?

9 MR. TANASI: You got to watch him. That's true.

10 THE COURT: So that way --

11 MR. PEREZ: I think he --

12 THE COURT: -- that way it --

13 MR. PEREZ: -- has six.

14 THE COURT: -- we hopefully would be able to avoid any 15 problems that way too.

16 I think that last time it was Mr. Jackson, Mr. Perez
17 who at sidebar said that they didn't always agree with 18 everything that the rest of the defense were doing as far as 19 the striking. So that's why I wanted to make sure that there
20 was an opportunity, if someone wanted to exercise it, that they
21 would have that option. You don't have to obviously, but I
22 just wanted to make sure everyone had the option.

23 MR. TANASI: I think the defense is collectively okay
24 with that presumption.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Perez?

1 MR. PEREZ: Oh, we're fine.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Are you ready, Aaron?

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Just about, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 (Pause. Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Nicole's on her way up,
10 Judge.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Here's a corrected.

14 MR. TANASI: Okay.

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I'll keep the original. So
16 that's just for your reference.

17 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thanks.

18 (Pause. Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

19 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor, just a point of 20 clarification. As to the alternate, we understand we have the 21 ten collective peremps and one individual one. Does that go
22 towards the alternate?

23 THE COURT: No.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And then --

25 THE COURT: Then we have two for the alternates.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Two for the alternates.

2 THE COURT: Um-hum.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: So it's ten plus four plus two.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Got it.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And, Counsel, just so you
7 know how that breaks down, it's going to be two for the 8 Government for five turns; three for defense for four turns;
9 two for you for the last turn.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Got it.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I'll let you know as we go --

12 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: -- back and forth.

14 MR. TANASI: Okay.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

17 (Prospective jurors enter the courtroom, 1:28 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

19 We are on the record and we have been joined by the 20 jury -- or the prospective jury. So good afternoon and welcome
21 back, everybody. We have combined the groups from Monday and 22 Tuesday. And now we are going to have the attorneys practice
23 what we call the peremptory challenges. So yesterday and the 24 day before I exercised the for-cause excuses and so all we have 25 left now are the individuals who are qualified to sit on the

1 jury and then the parties are going to be taking turns looking
2 at the list, looking at their notes from the last two days, and
3 deciding if there are any further strikes that they want to 4 utilize.

5 So, while we do that, there's really nothing for you
6 all to do except just, you know, sit and look pretty as every
7 once in a while they'll be taking a look at you or counting
8 heads as they try to make sure that they have who they think
9 they have. Every once in a while they'll -- you know, there'll
10 be a number that someone is thinking about -- as you have, you
11 have jury numbers; like maybe, you know, Juror No. 1 -- and 12 then, you know, they'll look at their notes and say, oh, but 13 that was a man and I'm looking at a women so . . . So they'll 14 be looking at you a lot, but don't feel self-conscious too
15 much. They are just trying to make sure that they are counting
16 correctly as people get removed and they have to recount.

17 I don't know, Aaron. Did you plan to have some music
18 on during this or . . .

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: We do, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, Aaron's got some music to 21 entertain you so that you're not too bored during this time.
22 If you really need to stand up and stretch, you're welcome to.
23 But, like I said, the parties are going to want to be looking
24 at your faces and counting. And we did give them a seating
25 chart. But, just the same, it'd be easier if you don't stand

1 up for too long. So you can get up and stretch if you need to.
2 But please go ahead and sit back down so we can see behind ya.
3 All right.

4 (Peremptory challenges, 1:35 p.m. Resumed, 2:40 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Looks like the parties have 6 finished exercising their peremptory challenges. And I just 7 reviewed the results.

8 Did the parties also have an opportunity to review the 9 final document to make sure that it's accurate and consistent
10 with what you thought you were doing? We've had a couple times
11 when people miscounted. So I just wanted to make sure before I
12 announce it out loud that you've had a chance to review it.

13 MS. CREEGAN: We have had an opportunity to review it,
14 Your Honor. And we do have a legal issue that we'd like to 15 bring to sidebar.

16 THE COURT: All right. So let's go ahead and meet at
17 sidebar.

18 (Begin sidebar conference.)

19 (Discussion between the Court and the court reporter.)

20 THE COURT: Okay. So let's do this one at a time. So
21 this is the Judge speaking. And we have everyone at sidebar, I
22 think. Okay. I believe that I can see everyone.

23 All right. So everyone's here. Please say your name
24 before you speak so that she can make sure that she remembers
25 who everyone is. We do have a different person each day. All

1 right.

2 So, Ms. Creegan, you had an objection or some issue you
3 wanted to raise?

4 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor. Erin Creegan for the 5 United States.

6 Your Honor, we'd like to make two Batson challenges,
7 one on the grounds of gender, 8 out of 14 of the men in this
8 panel of 36 were eliminated by the defendants; and also on the 9 grounds of discriminating against nonwhite jurors, 6 out of the 10 11 of the nonwhite jurors were eliminated in this panel.

11 THE COURT: Do you have names so that the . . .

12 MS. CREEGAN: I do have numbers.

13 So the males they are -- in order of strike -- 296;
14 314; 498; 95; 294; 85; 457; and, by not striking, leaving only
15 485 excluded.

16 THE COURT: 485. You said by not striking 485?

17 MS. CREEGAN: By not exercising a final peremptory, 485
18 was excluded. However, there was a mark from having originally 19 reviewed him in some manner.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So the . . .

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 THE COURT: They waived -- so the defense waived their 23 last peremptory challenge.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor. However, there are 25 cases where refusing to exercise a peremptory in order to

1 ensure that a person is not selected has been held to be a
2 conscious action to discriminate. In this case, we believe it
3 was done on purpose to exclude a nonwhite male.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: So 485 is a male or female?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Male.

7 THE COURT: Male.

8 And he -- so you're claiming that he was not excu- --
9 or he was not stricken by the defense because if he had been --

10 MS. CREEGAN: It would have made it more conspicuous
11 that it was a racial- and gender-based challenge. He's the 12 only juror that -- he's the extra 13th juror that would not be 13 seated. However, even without that juror, that would still be 14 7 out of 14 males, half of the defendants' peremptories even 15 though males constitute only one third of the entire panel.
16 The result is that the final jury would be nine women.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well . . .

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE COURT: You'll have to help me because some of 20 these I don't remember for sure if they are male or female. I
21 hadn't written it down. So it look like -- I'm gonna go in 22 order on the list instead of in the order that they were 23 challenged.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Certainly.

25 85, 95 -- and I hope that my order is correct as

1 well -- 294, 296, 457, then 485.

2 THE COURT: Wait, wait, wait. 457.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Um-hum.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Then 485, then 498.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 (Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

9 THE COURT: Oh, yeah. I think they can take a
10 10-minute bathroom break. Thank you.

11 (Prospective jury panel leaving the courtroom.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Well, these are joint. The 13 defendants did indicate on the form that they were joint.
14 There's none of them that were individual. So let's hear the 15 gender-neutral reason for --

16 MR. MARCHESE: And, Your Honor --

17 THE COURT: -- Juror No. --

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I'm sorry. I can't quite 19 hear.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. Let's wait for them to leave.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I was going to say can we just go
22 out to the tables and not have a sidebar then?

23 THE COURT: Sure.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Makes it easier; right?

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. While we're waiting for them to file
2 out, who are the racial peremptories?

3 MS. CREEGAN: They are -- and I'll try to do this also
4 in numerical order and there's some overlap -- there's -- 80
5 percent of all nonwhite males were struck -- 95, 296, 329, 445.

6 THE COURT: Wait, wait. 296.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Keep going.

9 MS. CREEGAN: 445 -- 329 and 445 -- I'm sorry. I'm not 10 sure where you stopped -- and 485 and 498.

11 THE COURT: 445. After that?

12 MS. CREEGAN: 485 and 498.

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: The jurors have exited, Your
14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. CREEGAN: That leaves a panel of nine women, even 17 of which are white, for a total of nine white jurors.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 Aaron, did you say they are gone?

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead. It'll make it
22 easier for everyone so we're not squished in this corner.

23 (End sidebar conference.)

24 THE COURT: All right. So it looks like the defendants
25 also needed to use the restroom. So does counsel waive their

1 presence so they can use the bathroom? Or do you want to wait
2 for them to come back?

3 (Pause in the proceedings.)

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker, we would waive his presence.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: You do?

6 (Counsel conferring.)

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I think, given the 8 circumstances, we can waive Stewart's presence as well.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Given that we were at sidebar,
10 we'd be at sidebar anyway. Drexler waives.

11 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien waives as well, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 THE COURT: All right. I wanted to double check to 15 make sure that a -- that racial challenge didn't have different
16 factors to consider with a gender/Equal Protection Clause
17 challenge. I'm not finding that there's much of a discrepancy.
18 It seems to be the same factors --

19 MS. CREEGAN: That is --

20 THE COURT: -- either way.

21 MS. CREEGAN: -- our understanding as well, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: All right. So who wants to address the 25 apparent striking issue here? And the Court does find that the

1 Government has at least made a prima facie case, not unexpected
2 as to the racial challenge. But I have looked at the
3 individuals who were struck on alleged gender bias and I did
4 confirm that they are males and quite a few of them, half of 5 them, which results in many more white female on the jury than 6 you would think just on a purely statistical basis. So I think
7 they've raised enough of a question to ask the defense to 8 explain and give a neutral reason for their strikes for -- on 9 Equal Protection grounds. It looks like the factors are the 10 same. So you could probably just address them all at the same
11 time rather than dividing them up, but . . . So the issues are 12 striking males and striking nonwhites.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, I can -- Todd Leventhal -- I can 14 address the cross-off first of all 'cuz there was a marking.

15 There's some indication from the Government that we 16 crossed it off thereby concealing or trying to conceal. I just 17 screwed up on the numbering actually. And, when I brought it
18 back to Aaron, he indicated that I had screwed up on the 19 numbering so I had to cross one off and I initialed it. So
20 there was no concealing and there was no deception. There was 21 just a problem with the number.

22 And the reason we didn't need to do the last one was 23 because he was last on the list and he was number 13 anyway.
24 So there wasn't any type of concealment. We waived the last 25 one for no other reason other than that.

1 Your Honor, I have lists and lists of reasons for
2 everybody. They are completely gender neutral. We spoke at 3 length to individual people during voir dire and we gathered
4 that information and we took things that they said, not
5 necessarily who they were gender or race. And I've got them
6 all listed here per person on why it is that we chose -- excuse
7 me -- why it is we chose that juror over another juror. And 8 there was never a question, at least with us here as a group,
9 on we're gonna choose this person over this person because it's
10 a female versus a male. It just came out that way.

11 Some of the males that we wanted they had crossed out
12 already. I mean, that's what we were left with. But this is 13 in no way a gender-based decision on how we picked this jury.
14 And, if the Court wants me to go through each individual one on 15 why, I've got notes here and I can do that.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Who would you like me to start with?

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I only see the Government struck two 19 men.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: How many women did they strike?

21 THE COURT: So let's see. The first one is Juror
22 No. 85 on the first day.

23 (Defense counsel conferring.)

24 MR. MARCHESE: Well, Your Honor, as to number 85, our 25 issue with him was some of his answers is in respect to law

1 enforcement, that you should always respect law enforcement.
2 That was one of our main issues with him. Had nothing to do
3 with his gender; it was more his answers to the voir dire from 4 yesterday.

5 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, one of the things for 6 the Court to consider when that's offered as a explanation is 7 to compare them to similarly situated jurors from other groups.

8 Juror 205 indicated a great deal of respect for law
9 enforcement, that she would always take the advice of a law
10 enforcement officer. Yet, as a white woman, she was seated on
11 the jury.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: She also indicated that people arrested
13 at a protest doesn't mean they're guilty; they got to go
14 through the process, the court process which is different than 15 other people that we heard say, well, if they were at a protest
16 and they were arrested, then they must have done something
17 wrong. And I think we've kicked those people off. So,
18 actually, 205 did say that. She said sitting on a jury's a 19 privilege; she's been a leader and a follower and she considers 20 herself to be a peacemaker. So we --

21 MS. CREEGAN: Juror --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- chose her.

23 MS. CREEGAN: -- 95's responses were very similar. Did
24 not indicate that they would not go through a legal process. I
25 don't believe they were even asked that by defense counsel.

1 MR. MARCHESE: My notes do --

2 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 85 --

3 MR. MARCHESE: -- not indicate --

4 MS. CREEGAN: Excuse --

5 MR. MARCHESE: -- that.

6 MS. CREEGAN: -- me.

7 (Defense counsel conferring.)

8 THE COURT: What did you say, Mr. Marchese? That 9 your --

10 MR. MARCHESE: My notes --

11 THE COURT: -- notes indicate that --

12 MR. MARCHESE: -- my notes indicate something different
13 on those two particular jurors. Maybe I wrote them down wrong.
14 But what I have and what the Government has are two different
15 things apparently.

16 THE COURT: Right. So what do you have?

17 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I gave the -- my initial answer
18 and then, um -- I'm sorry. It was 205. Let me --

19 THE COURT: 85 and.

20 MR. MARCHESE: -- find her.

21 THE COURT: -- 205, yes.

22 MR. MARCHESE: That she believes -- similar to what
23 Mr. Leventhal had said -- that she believes in the court
24 process and that sitting on a jury is a duty and a privilege.
25 I have that she would listen to the facts.

1 MS. CREEGAN: I have Juror 205 saying that, if you're
2 arrested, you're probably guilty. And Juror 85 saying I was
3 taught to respect law enforcement officers and I would require
4 evidence to prove guilt. I also have Juror 85 saying that it
5 was an honor to be on a jury.

6 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, Juror 85 indicates he --
7 again, law enforcement officers have more training than me and 8 respects their decisions.

9 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, if I might chime in.

10 I believe Juror 85 was my decision this morning at 11 around 9:00 o'clock to kick. And primarily it was his Facebook
12 posts. He bleeds red, white, and blue. I mean, you know. And 13 that to me wasn't gonna work. All his photos were the American
14 eagle and, you know, everything was red, white, and blue.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the --

16 MR. PEREZ: It had -- I didn't even know it was a male.
17 And yet one of the things that gets me is Mr. Tanasi. We 18 started off today he kept saying "she" or "he." He didn't even 19 know. Because when we were going through these jurors this 20 morning, we were lookin' at the numbers and the notes that we 21 had for every juror. I mean, the notes are extensive. You
22 know, it wasn't a matter of male/female. I mean, there's two
23 African-American jurors I'd love to have but we can't get them
24 up there. They are too far in the back. Nobody said anything
25 about striking them. It's just -- I mean, this is what we had

1 to deal with.

2 THE COURT: Well, the issue before us is Juror No. 85.
3 And, regarding his Facebook posts, what I had written down is 4 he said that he posts to Facebook before reading the entire
5 article. I'm not sure I understand your explanation that his
6 Facebook page being red, white, and blue --

7 MR. PEREZ: It's --

8 THE COURT: -- was a reason for striking that is race
9 neutral -- or that is neutral to his gender.

10 MR. PEREZ: It had nothing to do with his gender. I
11 mean, everything was -- you know, I looked at it. It was like
12 American eagle this and American eagle that and then combine
13 that with the law enforcement. It was like -- wasn't because 14 he was a man.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the law requires that the 16 reason be convincing. Of course, counsel can articulate a
17 reason and there always will be something to say especially 18 when we've spoken to jurors so much. But the Court has to do
19 an independent evaluation of whether that reasoning is 20 sufficiently convincing to have actually eliminated a juror on 21 that basis. And, since one of the things that the defendants
22 intend to do in their case is appeal to patriotism, I don't see 23 how it makes sense to eliminate the juror because their 24 Facebook is red, white, and blue.

25 THE COURT: That's why I'm confused too --

1 MR. PEREZ: Be --

2 THE COURT: -- why the red, white, and blue --

3 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor --

4 THE COURT: Would be --

5 MR. PEREZ: -- this case --

6 THE COURT: -- negative --

7 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry.

8 THE COURT: One at a time, please.

9 So why would the -- and I'm sorry if I'm being dense.
10 But I just don't understand why the red, white, and blue would 11 be --

12 MR. PEREZ: Your --

13 THE COURT: -- negative --

14 MR. PEREZ: -- Honor --

15 THE COURT: -- for the --

16 MR. PEREZ: -- this --

17 THE COURT: -- defense.

18 MR. PEREZ: -- case against Mr. Lovelien is all
19 Facebook. Completely, a hundred percent Facebook. That's why
20 my questions to the jury were about media, were about Facebook.
21 There are no photos of Mr. Lovelien doing much of anything. If 22 anything, it's Facebook posts.

23 So the way a person uses their Facebook and what they
24 post and how they, you know, present their beliefs is important
25 to me as far as for Mr. Lovelien. Now, I'm sure that, you

1 know, other defense counsel here has other reasons; but that
2 was my primary reason. And that was the juror that I wanted to
3 kick this morning.

4 THE COURT: All right. So the way that he uses his
5 Facebook is important to you. But why is the way that he's 6 using his Facebook a reason to strike him? That's what I'm 7 not --

8 MR. PEREZ: I didn't --

9 THE COURT: -- understanding --

10 MR. PEREZ: -- think --

11 THE COURT: -- because he specifically says he posts
12 stuff to Facebook --

13 MR. PEREZ: Right.

14 THE COURT: -- he hasn't even read. It seemed like it
15 was actually consistent with the defense theory, not --

16 MR. PEREZ: I didn't think he could be fair to --

17 THE COURT: -- contrary.

18 MR. PEREZ: -- Mr. Lovelien.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Why do you think he cannot be fair
20 to Mr. Lovelien?

21 MR. PEREZ: I mean, call it gut feeling. I mean, I've 22 been through this. We just did this trial once before. I
23 spoke to the jurors after the -- after trial was over. I kinda
24 have an idea of what they were thinking and how they were 25 thinking.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, res- --

2 MR. PEREZ: I just don't --

3 THE COURT: But the gut feeling is not articulable. So
4 you need to articulate why it is the red, white, and blue theme
5 on his Facebook page or the eagles -- why would that be a
6 reason to strike him?

7 MR. PEREZ: Well, I don't think it's a matter of why I
8 strike him. It's did I strike --

9 THE COURT: Well --

10 MR. PEREZ: -- him --

11 THE COURT: -- it is.

12 MR. PEREZ: -- because --

13 THE COURT: That's --

14 MR. PEREZ: He was a male.

15 THE COURT: -- that's the problem. The test is that if
16 there is a enough of a prima facie case, which the Government
17 has made, to show that there is a pattern of a particular race,
18 or in this case a gender, being excluded then the burden shifts
19 to the party excluding them to state a neutral reason for the 20 striking as opposed to one that is motivated by gender or race.
21 So that's why you need to give me something and then the 22 Government has to make an argument as to why that would be a
23 pretextual excuse which they can use by comparing it to other
24 folks that said the same or similar things. But I don't think
25 that I have a articulated reason yet that is neutral.

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I may just be heard. And
2 then --

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. TANASI: -- I know you've made the determination
5 that there's the prima facie showing in this case. But we did
6 exclude, I think it was, six females. So it's not as though,
7 you know, we didn't exclude any females in this case. So kind
8 of going back to it, I would, I guess, respectfully contest the 9 fact that the prima facie showing even exists. But I
10 understand that Your Honor's made that decision.

11 So, again, coming back to 85, the law enforcement
12 impartiality/the law enforcement siding with that was, you
13 know, my biggest concern with number 85.

14 MS. CREEGAN: And, Your Honor, I'd just like to put two 15 things on the record. One is the defendants eliminated
16 80 percent of all nonwhite males. They eliminated 25 percent
17 of all white females. To say that we struck some is not 18 sufficient to show that there is not a pattern.

19 And in response to Mr. Perez's argument that --

20 THE COURT: What Mr. Tanasi was saying was that they 21 struck six females. But you're saying that of those six
22 females . . .

23 MS. CREEGAN: Of those six females, four are white
24 females; two are nonwhite females. By far the lowest
25 proportion of people that were struck is 25 percent white

1 females; the highest, 80 percent nonwhite males.

2 And, in response to Mr. Perez's argument that he talked
3 to the previous jury, one thing that I noticed that is
4 extremely striking is that the demographics of this new jury,
5 if they are seated as is, are exactly the same as the previous
6 jury as originally seated. Seven white women, one Asian woman,
7 one African-American women, two white males, and one Asian 8 male -- that is demographically the identical makeup of our 9 previous jury.

10 MR. MARCHESE: She's giving us way too much credit.

11 MR. TANASI: Right.

12 Not only that, Your Honor, there's an African-American 13 female on the jury. If that was the motive and the plan, she 14 would have been stricken too.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Sparing one is not sufficient to not 16 demonstrate a pattern. And, although it may be the case that 17 they did not set out with that goal, to say things like "gut
18 feeling" and "talking to the last jury," that's not sufficient
19 to show that it is not racially or gender motivated.

20 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry, Your Honor. My job and my goal
21 here is to prevail in this case. I'm not going to spare
22 somebody and undercut that job at the same time just to survive
23 a Batson challenge. There's a white -- there's a
24 African-American female on the jury.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, you --

1 THE COURT: It's --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sorry.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So let's --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: There --

5 THE COURT: -- move on from 85 then. The next
6 gentleman after 85 is number 95.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I can speak to number 95.

8 My issue is that his response to one of my questions
9 was if someone attends a protest and gets arrested or harm
10 comes to them it's their own fault; it's on them. It's no
11 mystery that our defense theory in the case is that our clients
12 were attending a protest. If he's of the mind-set that just by 13 being there and he ultimately -- or my client subsequently gets 14 arrested -- he shouldn'ta kinda been there in the first place
15 or it's just kind of on him for being there -- he's clearly
16 somebody that doesn't seem to -- that wouldn't be consistent,
17 essentially, with the defense theory in the case which wouldn't 18 be fair.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, he -- number 95 is 20 Hispanic and he also said that he attended a protest when his 21 girlfriend protested at work for three days and he brought her
22 stuff. I don't remember if it was food or drink. Sodas or 23 something I think he said. But he . . .

24 Any other reason?

25 MR. TANASI: Court's indulgence.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, the protest responses
4 was the fundamental reason.

5 (Pause in the proceedings.)

6 MS. CREEGAN: I think Jurors 207 and 205 gave similar
7 responses. Juror 207 was eliminated by the Government in a
8 final elimination. Juror 205 is seated on the jury. They are 9 both white women.

10 MR. TANASI: Actually, Your Honor, 205, the response I
11 have noted is people who are arrested in a protest doesn't mean
12 they are guilty of a crime; they need to see the court process.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 MS. CREEGAN: I have for Juror 205 saying they are 15 probably guilty if they are arrested.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is what?

17 MS. CREEGAN: And Juror 207 saying we're all
18 responsible for our own --

19 MR. TANASI: I have --

20 MS. CREEGAN: -- actions.

21 MR. TANASI: -- the exact opposite.

22 THE COURT: Number 205 said that arrested people are 23 not guilty until --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, that's our --

25 THE COURT: -- until they --

1 MR. MARCHESE: -- indication --

2 THE COURT: -- go to court.

3 MR. MARCHESE: -- as well.

4 MS. CREEGAN: We have her saying she's prob- -- they
5 say it has to go through the court process. But they probably 6 are guilty; they wouldn't have been arrested if they had not
7 done something wrong.

8 MR. TANASI: And, again, I have the exact opposite,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Well, it's not the exact opposite. They -- 11 she said both things, that they are probably guilty but just 12 because they are arrested doesn't mean that they are guilty.
13 She was distinguishing between --

14 MR. TANASI: Fair enough.

15 THE COURT: -- that they --

16 MR. TANASI: And I guess --

17 THE COURT: -- probably --

18 MR. TANASI: -- maybe in --

19 THE COURT: -- guilty but --

20 MR. TANASI: -- my mind --

21 THE COURT: -- that they --

22 MR. TANASI: -- it's the --

23 THE COURT: -- wouldn't --

24 MR. TANASI: -- exact opposite.

25 THE COURT: -- actually be guilty until they went to

1 court -- until they were found guilty by court. To me it just
2 indicates --

3 MR. TANASI: I guess --

4 THE COURT: -- she understood the -- and had knowledge
5 of the procedural process and the system.

6 MR. TANASI: The process was, I guess, the impartiality
7 and respecting that process anyways.

8 MS. CREEGAN: I asked all the jurors if they could 9 follow the proper process and respect the reasonable doubt
10 standard and they all said yes. And I don't show a follow-up
11 question to Juror 95 by the defense to try to determine whether 12 95 was somehow unfair or not partial -- not impartial.

13 MR. TANASI: I guess I would submit that actually 14 verbalizing it and not raising your hand are two different
15 things.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: All right. The next male is number 284.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 MR. MARCHESE: Being that this case is so much about 20 emotion, we found him to be very analytical. Either his 21 questionnaire or his responses indicated that he's a scientist.
22 So that was my issue with him. And it also -- I don't want to
23 skip ahead -- but the next individual as well works in the I.T.
24 department. And I didn't have a lot on either of them. So
25 rather than put someone on a jury that I don't know very much

1 about -- just for whatever reason, didn't answer "yes" or raise
2 their hand -- I felt it was my duty to Mr. Parker to maybe get
3 somebody that I knew a little bit more about and get them onto
4 the jury.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, there is some case law that 6 discusses that, for example, removing female jurors because 7 they might get attracted to a male defendant is a pretext for 8 removing a female juror. Mr. Marchese's saying we want people
9 who are more emotional. I think that's just a stereotype about 10 women. There are women on your jury who are accounting and 11 financial professionals; they were not eliminated for being 12 analytical.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 THE COURT: All right. I think the next one is 296.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, that one -- with respect to 16 296, I can tell you I just have very little notes on him; so
17 kind of also an indication as to what Mr. Marchese was 18 discussing, you know, not knowing enough so not taking a risk
19 (A). And (B) what we do show is he, you know, seems to at 20 least get some of his news from two channels; looks like 13 and 21 5. And, again, you know, only having kind of that limited
22 information and not really knowing enough and just -- maybe
23 just looking at news and trying to try to speculate and guess,
24 in our opinion, it was best to not take that guess.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Which, I believe, Juror 376 is a

1 comparable white female juror who watches television; watches
2 local channels. I think the only question she answered is that 3 she watches Criminal Minds and SVU yet she is seated on the
4 jury.

5 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, we have some more information
6 with respect to her. She indicates that -- you know, true she
7 watches different channels, but she doesn't watch a lot of news
8 because it's generally depressing. She gets her news from 9 Facebook, likes investigations, someone that potentially has an 10 open mind.

11 MS. CREEGAN: I would submit that no -- there is no
12 distinguishable difference between them in terms of 13 open-mindedness. In fact, I think that Juror 296 even 14 described himself as being open-minded.

15 THE COURT: I didn't hear that last part. That 16 296 . . .

17 MS. CREEGAN: Even stated that he was open-minded.
18 These are both two younger people who we spoke to very, very 19 little; both single; both live with parents; both watch local 20 news. 296 is off the jury; 376 is on.

21 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, we have more
22 information with respect to 376 than we did --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. TANASI: -- with respect to 296, at least what I
25 have noted.

1 THE COURT: Go ahead.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 MR. TANASI: I also have noted 376 went to CSN and
4 works at K-Mart and she plays crime scene games online, again,
5 lending itself to the investigations and having an open mind.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Those are facts, but I don't know how 7 they demonstrate a distinguishable difference between them or 8 how 376 has more of an open minds. In talking to these jurors,
9 we're gonna have some facts. But the meaningful difference
10 between them is not apparent.

11 THE COURT: 376 was the one who said that her
12 stepfather knew about the case and had indicated an opinion.
13 We don't know what that opinion is; it wasn't inquired into 14 which is also a risky choice.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: All right. I think the next one is
17 number -- is it 314?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, 314?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: That was clear. It was -- he indicated
21 that he owns a restaurant and he knows Sergeant Jenkins who
22 was -- as the Court knows, was a witness here. He indicated
23 that Jenkins comes into his restaurant at least, I believe he 24 said, once a month. And, to be quite honest -- and I -- you
25 know, whatever they are saying about gut feeling -- and I'm

1 trying to articulate this -- that is one of the facts. But my
2 gut feeling that he went on to say -- that he watches FOX and
3 he believes in protests -- I just didn't believe it; I just 4 didn't buy it. I thought he was trying too hard to get onto
5 the jury and I honestly just -- he was one of my first ones
6 that I just felt like that he was trying to snow me when I was
7 asking questions of him. I think that the Jenkins thing's -- I
8 think he wasn't completely honest and forthcoming with his
9 relationship with Jenkins. And he called him TJ and he watches
10 his show and yet he still tried to appease us by saying -- and 11 this was my feeling -- that he likes -- he likes to -- he 12 thinks that it's okay for people to go protest. He's 13 frustrated with the country. I just didn't -- I just didn't
14 believe him. That's why.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I don't believe that Juror
16 314, there's any evidence for dishonesty. But I'll stipulate
17 that close familiarity with a Metro officer is a sufficiently 18 gender-neutral reason.

19 THE COURT: All right. The next one is 457.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: 457 indicated that he would never 22 consider protesting anything; he was not raised that way. As a
23 matter of fact, he indicated when asked about would he attend a 24 protest against the government that that was unheard of; it was 25 a sin almost. He had very, very, very strong feelings about

1 going to a protest or protesting or standing up to any kind of
2 authority in that way and he indicated that that's the way he
3 was raised.

4 There was other things I had to look at when we
5 analyzed him on whether -- you know, he was in the military;
6 he's a casino security officer; but he was very vocal and very
7 dug in about the fact that he would not attend a rally or a
8 protest or anything of that nature.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 MS. CREEGAN: I believe that some portion of 451's
11 answer was based on the fact that as a military member he was 12 not able to protest; that was not something that he could do in 13 that capacity.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: 451 or 457?

15 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry. 457. Thank you.

16 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I don't think it's a
17 disability. I remember I had quite a bit of questioning with 18 him. I kinda kept coming back to him, I think even not on 19 purpose. And I do remember -- I don't believe it was a 20 disability. I think it was he said he was in the military and 21 that's just how he was raised, not to protest. I didn't hear
22 anything that said he couldn't.

23 THE COURT: I agree that number 314 and 457 are 24 individuals who gave sufficient information to provide a reason
25 for the defense to want to strike them. So I don't really

1 question those two --

2 498.

3 MR. MARCHESE: This goes to -- once again, very highly
4 educated man; he had a very technical background. I don't even
5 necessarily understand quite what he did. He's an --
6 apparently he's an expert witness on utilities. Once again, I
7 just found that he'd probably be a very technical; very matter-
8 of-fact-type individual. Just as 325 has a background in 9 accounting, 296 in I.T., and 284 who is a scientist.

10 MS. CREEGAN: And Juror 138 has a CPA and was seated
11 and she's a white female. I'm not sure . . .

12 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, he's -- I think he works at 13 the Nevada Attorney General's Office or was an expert for them.
14 He also was -- you know, I think he did mention something to 15 the effect of this country was founded on protests; and so I
16 think he was trying to maybe clean it up a little bit. But he 17 also said he would, you know, intervene if his -- with his 18 neighbors if he knew them. But, if he didn't know them, he 19 would only call 3-1-1. And, again, you know, our defense
20 theory is no mystery at this point. You know, our guys don't 21 know the people that they came in protest for; it was the 22 cause.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 495 works or the Public Utilities
24 Commission; Juror 138 works for the Department of Treasury of 25 the United States Government. They are more than similarly

1 situated, yet the white female is on the jury and 498 is kicked
2 off. And to say when he gives neutral answers -- such as
3 respect for protests or respect for the law -- he must not be
4 telling the truth, I would submit is not a convincing reason.

5 MR. TANASI: And, again, Your Honor, I'm not --

6 THE COURT: I was --

7 MR. TANASI: -- I'm not --

8 THE COURT: -- surprised that you struck number 498
9 'cuz I thought that he would actually be someone that you would 10 like. Maybe you don't.

11 MR. TANASI: And, again --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't --

13 MR. TANASI: -- not --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- didn't.

15 MR. TANASI: -- not to be here and call him a liar.
16 It's the feeling, the sense.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's that gut feeling that I felt he
18 was trying too hard. But he would say things and then back up
19 and try to get . . . And that's how I felt about him.

20 But when you look at -- if we're gonna compare 138, 138
21 indicates officers are not always correct in an arrest. Okay.
22 That's pretty important to us. He didn't say that. He said
23 that the country was founded on -- you know, on protests. But 24 I'm not sure I believe that. He -- you know, he was asked
25 about CNN. And I just didn't -- I didn't get that feeling.

1 The same way that, you know, Ms. Creegan didn't get the feeling
2 on number 571, which was the first juror she dismissed on the 3 alternate, because obviously he was googling [sic] at her and 4 he had -- she had just indicated that we're just getting rid of 5 women when she got rid of a guy because of a gut feeling. So,
6 I mean, none of this stuff was done based on gender. But we
7 can keep going through it. I'm . . .

8 MS. CREEGAN: For Mr. Leventhal to, I guess, misdirect
9 to the Government when there's currently no Batson challenge on 10 the Government, I'm not sure what the purpose of that is. But
11 Juror 571 indicated that he believed that I prosecuted him
12 although he tried to say that he'd be neutral. He also watches
13 InfoWars; looks at Alex Jones; says that he believes in 14 maximizing freedom; and, I believe, he also said his family had 15 very strong feelings about this but did not share what they 16 were. So there are more than substantial grounds to eliminate 17 571.

18 THE COURT: His brother was a District Court judge from
19 1994 to 1998.

20 MR. MARCHESE: That was a little -- what got me with 21 that was he went out of his way to say it in his questionnaire.
22 I didn't see why that was overly relevant. I've never
23 practiced in front of him. I've seen him in the courthouse. I
24 don't personally know him. There's no bias there. I just -- I
25 thought it was odd in his questionnaire that he would bring

1 that up because it's completely irrelevant.

2 MS. CREEGAN: I don't think that somebody erring on the
3 side of overdisclosure would be --

4 THE COURT: Well, he said he brought that up because he
5 believed that his brother would know the attorneys in the case
6 and . . .

7 MR. TANASI: And I guess, Your Honor, also kinda going
8 back to the news channel analysis --

9 THE COURT: If I remember correctly, his brother was 10 the first Hispanic District Court judge in the state and he 11 also left the bench to run for the Senate on behalf of the 12 Republican party if you'll remember. It's been a long time,
13 but . . .

14 My understanding of his explanation was that he had 15 worked at the Public Utility Commission and then, when he left,
16 he became a expert because of his prior experience and had
17 testified and been called to testify by the Attorney General,
18 not that he worked for the Attorney General. But that was my 19 recollection. I don't . . .

20 MS. CREEGAN: Correct. That is consistent with the 21 notes that the Government has.

22 MR. TANASI: He had said that he knows Tom Collins, had 23 dealt with Tom Collins. And I thought that it was in that 24 capacity with the Attorney General with his employment or 25 contract employment or whatever the case may be. And then also

1 just --

2 THE COURT: No. He worked at the Public Utility
3 Commission that Tom Collins was the County Commissioner who was 4 assigned to that particular agency so the questions that he had
5 were directed . . .

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I'm looking at his Facebook
7 page and it says "Intro: Works at Nevada Attorney General's 8 Office" right here. He lives in Las Vegas; from Fair Oaks,
9 California.

10 MS. CREEGAN: But, be that as it may, he works for the 11 State of Nevada which is not prosecuting [sic] him; Juror 138
12 works for the United States Government which is prosecuting
13 [sic] him. It doesn't make sense to say that that is a
14 discrim- -- a factor that meaningfully affects who was chosen
15 for the jury and who was not.

16 MR. TANASI: And I don't --

17 THE COURT: Yeah. On the one hand, the person's got 18 red, white, and blue and eagles and has too much, you know,
19 federal, I guess, American, um, uh --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, that I don't --

21 THE COURT: -- things on --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- know about.

23 THE COURT: -- their Facebook; on the other hand,
24 somebody who has too much state relationship on the Facebook.
25 So I'm . . .

1 MR. TANASI: It's the prosecution I think that -- and I
2 can only speak to the latter -- again, he's working for the
3 Attorney General's Office; he's working for a prosecuting
4 entity.

5 MS. CREEGAN: The Attorney General's Office does more
6 than prosecute.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. It's for the Consumer Affairs
8 Division. It's a reg- --

9 MR. TANASI: I just --

10 THE COURT: -- -ulatory agency.

11 MR. TANASI: -- I know that if -- I had a few cases in 12 state court against the Attorney General's Office. I . . .

13 And I do understand the difference between the AG's
14 Office and the DA's Office. And I don't know. It's, again,
15 just -- seemed risky for us based on that, Your Honor.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government submits that I
17 think there's only one or two of these eight that they've shown
18 a gender-neutral reason for. We would ask that they be 19 reinstated and the peremptories lost.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 THE COURT: So 284, are you saying because he has a
22 science background and said that he's analytical you find that 23 opposite to emotional?

24 MR. MARCHESE: I mean --

25 THE COURT: And you feel --

1 MR. MARCHESE: -- I . . .

2 THE COURT: -- this is a more emotional case.

3 MR. MARCHESE: As Your Honor can see and there was --
4 you know, I think I had four people down with a technical
5 background -- that was just one of my issues. Because this
6 case is so much about emotion, I just think that people
7 generally who go into the science background -- like there was
8 one -- I don't have her number and I don't want to say her
9 name -- but one of the ladies who's on there -- I believe she 10 works for the School District -- I think those are people who 11 tend to be, generally speaking -- obviously not everyone's the 12 same -- but I think people who choose that particular
13 profession tend to be a little bit more emotional and think
14 touchy-feely, kind of emotional people as opposed to, you know,
15 just black or white which is -- tend to be people who go into
16 the math or sciences.

17 MS. CREEGAN: And, again, we would submit that that's a 18 pretext using the word "emotional" as a stereotypical word for 19 women.

20 MR. MARCHESE: But it's -- maybe it's pretext, but it's 21 not -- it's race neutral or --

22 MS. CREEGAN: A pretext --

23 MR. MARCHESE: -- gender --

24 MS. CREEGAN: -- has.

25 MR. MARCHESE: -- neutral --

1 Excuse me. I'm speaking.

2 MS. CREEGAN: I apologize, Jess.

3 THE COURT: Just a minute.

4 You stated the reason why. And so now the Government
5 has an opportunity to argue why it's pretextual.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, as I was discussing earlier,
7 there's case law that says when you have a pretext which
8 clearly will link something to being a women -- for example,
9 saying, well, because she's a women, she could be attracted to 10 a male defendant and, therefore, I will remove her -- that 11 that's really just a proxy for eliminating women.

12 And, in this case, there are many female finance
13 professionals that made the cut but not male scientists. To 14 say it's a problem with choosing emotional or analytical people
15 is a pretext because the analytical women were not eliminated.
16 And even just to say we want emotional people seems like a
17 stereotypical response to say we just want to pack the jury
18 with women.

19 THE COURT: And so who are the analytical women that 20 were not eliminated?

21 MS. CREEGAN: So we have -- 138 is a CPA.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry.

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can we address those in kind?
25 Or did you want to hear the numbers as they come out?

1 THE COURT: I want to hear the numbers first and then
2 I'll have you address them.

3 MR. TANASI: All right.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: And I realize 138 said her sister protested
6 at the Women's March and that she also said that -- 138 said
7 that she believes that it's not enough to be arrested.

8 MS. CREEGAN: And 142 is a finance professional. She
9 is --

10 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. "She is" . . .

11 MS. CREEGAN: An Asian female.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 MS. CREEGAN: 593 which -- 5 -- excuse me -- 539, which 14 the Government eliminated, was also a finance professional.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 MS. CREEGAN: And, in terms of looking for people who
17 are emotional, I think the defendants eliminated a black
18 female, 445, who has a masters in mental health counseling and 19 works with an indigent population.

20 (Pause in the proceedings.)

21 THE COURT: 435?

22 MS. CREEGAN: 445.

23 THE COURT: Oh, 445.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 MS. CREEGAN: Then I also show that 339 is an engineer,

1 that is one of the ones that Mr. Leventhal is referring to,
2 males the Government struck that they would have wanted. He is
3 a white male.

4 THE COURT: Which one is that?

5 MS. CREEGAN: 339.

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 MS. CREEGAN: And 397 was also cut in the last round;
8 he had a master's degree.

9 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry?

10 THE COURT: What number is that?

11 MS. CREEGAN: 397.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. And let's go back to 95. So your 14 recollection on 95 is that he had said if a person is arrested
15 at a protest . . .

16 MR. TANASI: If someone attends a protest and gets 17 arrested and harm comes to them -- or harm comes to them, it's 18 their own fault; it's on them.

19 THE COURT: That they've assumed the risk of attending
20 a protest that they might get arrested.

21 MR. TANASI: Correct. And . . .

22 (Defense counsel conferring.)

23 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 95, unlike many others, actually
24 had a intimate relationship with someone who actually attended
25 a protest, his girlfriend who attended a work protest. And the

1 recollection of his answer was in the context if you do
2 something illegal, you get arrested, that's your fault. Not
3 that you could simply be arrested for protesting.

4 MR. TANASI: Which number was that? Are we still on 5 95?

6 THE COURT: Yeah, 95.

7 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 95 also said there are sometimes
9 things on my Facebook that I don't agree with.

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 MS. CREEGAN: That it would be an honor to be on the 12 jury, that he would listen to all aspects that would be helpful
13 in brainstorming.

14 (Pause in the proceedings.)

15 THE COURT: So what is the Government's argument as to 16 number 85, why the reason given by the defense is pretextual?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the argument that was given
18 that his Facebook is red, white, and blue. My understanding
19 of -- this is 85 Your Honor is inquiring about --

20 THE COURT: Yes, 85.

21 MS. CREEGAN: -- or 95?

22 -- is that that is a pretextual response that given the 23 jurors' [sic] intended defense of saying that they are patriots
24 it doesn't seem to make sense to say that someone who expresses 25 patriotic feelings would be eliminated although he indicated he

1 respects law enforcement. So did 205; so did 207. Many of the 2 jurors respected law enforcement and they were not eliminated
3 by the defendants.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: 207?

5 MS. CREEGAN: 207 was eliminated by the Government in 6 our --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

8 MS. CREEGAN: -- final round -- in our final rounds.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I eliminated someone that they say
10 respects law enforcement. I think 85 went further. 85 went --
11 he respects -- you know, they have more training and I respect
12 their decisions. It goes just beyond I respect law
13 enforcement. If their decisions are to arrest because of their 14 training, then it must be valid.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 205 said I do assume you're guilty
16 if you're arrested.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Juror 205? Juror 205 says people who 18 get arrested in a protest doesn't mean they are guilty. That's 19 the complete opposite.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Well, we were just discussing this 21 earlier, Your Honor, that she said you have to go through the 22 court process, but I --

23 THE COURT: Yeah --

24 MS. CREEGAN: -- assume --

25 THE COURT: -- arrested people are not guilty until

1 they go to court.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

3 Whereas what 85 indicated was they have more training.
4 So, if they say it's so, I'm gonna respect their -- what they
5 did.

6 THE COURT: 85 said that he was taught to trust and 7 respect law enforcement.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Clearly, when we're gonna have, you
9 know, 15 law enforcement officers up here going -- you know,
10 giving numbers on their level of fear, that's gonna go to him
11 much differently than to somebody who says I've got to go to 12 court to see what happens; I've got to give him a fair shot.
13 That's all we're asking for.

14 MS. CREEGAN: I respectfully say that there is no
15 difference between 205 and 85 in the tenor of their answers in 16 support for law enforcement, only in their gender.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I see that their answers are completely
18 opposite, on the opposite spectrum actually. One says I'd give 19 'em a chance and the other one said whatever their decision is 20 they have more training and I'll go with it.

21 (Government counsel conferring.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 85 said the evidence must prove 23 their guilt. Juror 205 said they have to go through the 24 process. Both said they would defer in the initial arrest to 25 law enforcement.

1 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: All right. So 139 is a female that was not
3 struck by the defendants. She said that she would not protest
4 and her husband works as a federal security guard for the
5 Federal Protective Service at a federal courthouse.

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 MS. CREEGAN: By contrast, Juror 95 does have a close
8 relation who did protest.

9 THE COURT: Say that again?

10 MS. CREEGAN: By contrast, Juror 95 has a close
11 relative, his girlfriend, who did protest and he -- I believe
12 he even stated that he went with her.

13 (Defense counsel conferring.)

14 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, 139 was a firearm owner based 15 on the questionnaires. The note I have on it anyways.

16 MS. CREEGAN: I believe Juror 95 is also a firearm
17 owner.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 MS. CREEGAN: On his --

20 MR. TANASI: Again --

21 MS. CREEGAN: -- questionnaire --

22 MR. TANASI: -- Juror No. 95 goes further with 23 attacking, at least in our opinion, the actual attendance at a
24 protest. If you go there and something happens or you get 25 arrested, that's on you; that's your own fault. I don't have

1 Juror 139 going that far. And it's -- I would -- what I have
2 is, you know, that she wouldn't travel to a protest.

3 MS. CREEGAN: And Juror 95 --

4 MR. TANASI: Not --

5 MS. CREEGAN: -- did --

6 MR. TANASI: -- necessarily that she would never or not
7 attend it. So when you couple that with the firearm
8 ownership . . .

9 MS. CREEGAN: And then Juror 95 also indicated he owns
10 a firearm for home defense in his questionnaire.

11 MR. TANASI: Juror 95.

12 (Defense counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

13 MS. CREEGAN: In fact, I think he also said that he has 14 a CCW.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well . . .

16 (Defense counsel conferring.)

17 THE COURT: You say "he" referring to number 95?

18 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

19 In response to a question by Mr. Leventhal, I have 20 Juror 95 identifying himself by raising his hand as having a
21 CCW.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: I want to make sure that I'm clear here on 24 the defense reason for striking number 95.

25 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the fundamental reason on

1 number 95 is his answer -- or his statement, rather, if
2 someone -- or his question to the question, if someone attends
3 a protest and gets arrested or harm comes to them, it's on 4 them; it's their own fault.

5 (Government counsel conferring.)

6 MR. TANASI: My concern is that he's going to sit here
7 and hear about a protest from the defense theory and any harm
8 that comes to him by just being in this courtroom and being on 9 trial is on him because he shouldn't have gone there; he 10 shouldn't have been there in the first place; it's not
11 something he should have done. If any harm comes to him, don't 12 put yourself in that situation. That kind of person. And I
13 think that was different than just saying I'm not somebody who 14 would protest. That was the reason I asked -- maybe not the 15 most artful question -- but why I asked it that way.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: All right. And 126 is a female who said
18 that if a person is arrested she believed that the law
19 enforcement must have had a reason for arresting them, that 20 their behavior -- the person must have exhibited behavior to 21 give law enforcement a reason. And that person was struck by 22 the defense consistently with the reason given for number 95.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Jurors 205 and 207, which are white
24 women, were left by the defense -- Juror 207 being struck by 25 the Government in its final strike -- that gave very, very

1 similar responses to 95.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: How is --

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- how is the --

5 MR. TANASI: -- can --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry.

7 MR. TANASI: -- can I -- I'm sorry -- can I speak to 8 that one on 205?

9 205 is completely different, people who are arrested in
10 a protest doesn't mean they are guilty of a crime; still need
11 the court process. That's completely different than the point
12 I was trying to just make which is if you go to a protest and 13 get arrested that's on you. In my mind, those are two 14 completely different things.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I don't know how the Government
16 keeps using 207 as something that we did. They struck 207. I
17 don't know why she keeps bringing up 207 as something we did by 18 leaving 207 in. They struck 207; we didn't.

19 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct. The Government struck
20 207, not the defense. Juror 95 was in their first few strikes.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: But they are using -- she's using that 22 to indicate that we wouldn't have? I mean, I -- they did it.
23 I don't know. But she's indicating that they had some similar
24 responses. We might have; we might not have. They did it. So
25 the -- that question never came to us.

1 (Defense counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court finds that
3 Jurors No. 498, 457, and 314, as to those three jurors, the 4 defendant has provided a clear and reasonably specific neutral
5 explanation for their strike. Um . . .

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 THE COURT: Let's look at the . . .

8 (Pause in the proceedings.)

9 THE COURT: All right. So what are the Government's
10 reasons -- I'm sorry -- the defendants' reasons for striking --
11 well, all right. So Juror No. 95 I suppose is on both lists;
12 he's on the racial list as well. I've already heard those 13 reasons.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I'm sorry. We're having a
15 little trouble hearing you.

16 THE COURT: Oh.

17 So Juror No. 95 is -- oh, did I go off? That's why.
18 There you go -- Juror 95 would also be on the list for the 19 race-neutral question. As far as that's concerned, I think
20 we've heard all the information there.

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, yeah, again, it's the person
22 goin' to a protest; it being on them, it being their own fault.
23 That's the bottom line.

24 THE COURT: Well, he didn't say if a person goes to a
25 protest they are automatically guilty. He said they assume the

1 risk if they go to a protest. If they get arrested, that's --

2 MR. TANASI: Right.

3 THE COURT: -- you got to expect that if you go there.

4 That's --

5 MR. TANASI: Right.

6 THE COURT: -- can't whine about it.

7 All right. Let's see. Oh.

8 (Pause in the proceedings.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. So the next . . . Let's see who 10 that person is.

11 (Pause in the proceedings.)

12 THE COURT: Well, number 126. Is she included in your 13 race challenge?

14 MS. CREEGAN: 126 is not.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 284, he's not. Is he?

17 MS. CREEGAN: And may I ask, Your Honor: Are you
18 asking for gender challenge or racial challenge?

19 THE COURT: Racial. Moving on to racial.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. So we've already done 95. I think 21 the next is 296. I believe 284 is a white male.

22 THE COURT: What about 288?

23 MR. MYHRE: 288 is a white female.

24 THE COURT: All right. So 296. Didn't we 25 already . . .

1 MS. CREEGAN: He is a male so we have discussed him.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 And the reason for that was because the parties didn't
4 know enough about him, that it was seen as a risky move to let
5 him stay on the jury. All they know is that he watches local 6 news, Channels 5 and 13; young and single.

7 (Pause in the proceedings.)

8 THE COURT: You know, I have to be honest. It's 9 difficult to accept the fact -- it's difficult to accept the 10 reason being given as we don't know enough about that juror
11 when we had questionnaires, we had my questions with the 12 slideshow, and all of the attorneys had an opportunity to 13 question everyone. So, if you don't take that opportunity to 14 ask questions and get information, I don't think you can use
15 that as an excuse. That being said, that's not the only reason
16 that was given. The other reason was because he only watches
17 local news.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, can we bring our clients
19 out since this is --

20 THE COURT: Sure.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- taking a little bit longer?

22 THE COURT: Yeah. Come on -- yeah.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

24 (Pause. Defendants return to the courtroom, 3:55 p.m.
25 Attorney-client discussions.)

1 THE COURT: All right. So, as to 295, is there any
2 other . . .

3 MS. CREEGAN: It's 296, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry. You're right. 296. I even
5 wrote down 296.

6 296, any other clear and reasonably specific reason
7 that the defense wants to proffer?

8 MR. MARCHESE: Other than what I brought up in 9 reference to his employment.

10 Also, if the Court noticed, I changed my strategy a 11 little bit from --

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry. What about his employment?

13 MR. MARCHESE: He has a technical background; he's in 14 I.T. So he fell into the category of the other three
15 individuals.

16 But I changed my strategy in reference to, you know, I
17 didn't get very much off of his questionnaire. And, if you
18 noticed from day one to day two, I specifically started
19 targeting people who I had very little on. And I understand
20 that, you know, a lot of other departments wouldn't even give 21 us the opportunity to do individual voir dire. But, if he was 22 in yesterday's jury pool, I most likely would have picked him
23 and specifically asked him some questions just to get him
24 talking so I could have something other than, you know, he's in
25 I.T.

1 MS. CREEGAN: I don't have Juror 296 being asked more
2 questions than 376. And I have to say, from my own
3 observation, I did not see a difference in the amount of 4 speaking to individuals between the two days.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Well, must have been in a different
6 courtroom then.

7 MR. TANASI: And, again, Your Honor, I've laid out for
8 the record before, the difference with respect to 376. Again,
9 crime scene games online; doesn't watch the news 'cuz it's 10 depressing; watches Criminal Minds and Law and Order; likes
11 investigations; somebody that sounded more like a person who 12 would be willing to hear the whole process out.

13 MS. CREEGAN: And the Government has illustrated that's 14 a -- it's a reason but it's not really one that should be 15 accepted as something other than pretextual, that both were 16 asked very few questions, they both indicated they watched the 17 news, they are both single, live with their family, they are 18 both young. Um . . . One likes science; one likes crime
19 shows. But I'm not sure that that's sufficient to say that 20 there's a difference as opposed to a distinction.

21 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, I just would point out
22 that when it's all said and done and we're going through and 23 looking at our lists after we've gone through two days of it,
24 whether we didn't ask him enough questions or we did or we 25 should have or whatever the question may be, we're left with

1 the list that we have. And so we have to make a strategic
2 decision. And that's what we did.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: I also --

4 THE COURT: I don't -- I'm looking at this and I'm -- I
5 think you're assuming that I'm thinking what you're thinking
6 instead of telling me.

7 MR. TANASI: Oh.

8 THE COURT: So I need you to actually say --

9 MR. TANASI: Okay.

10 THE COURT: -- and not just . . .

11 So I know that 376 said that she watches crime TV shows
12 and plays crime video games, but . . . So what is the 13 connection there? So do you --

14 MR. TANASI: To --

15 THE COURT: -- do you believe that makes her more
16 likely to sympathize with not law enforcement as opposed to 17 with law enforcement because she likes crime TV shows and plays
18 video games that are based on --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

20 THE COURT: -- criminal law?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: I --

22 THE COURT: I guess that's the part that I'm missing.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: And so --

24 THE COURT: Because I agree with you that that was her
25 representation. I just don't understand why that makes her

1 more sympathetic or favorable to the defense than --

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: It might be odd to you. But, whenever
3 I'm picking a jury, I like people that watches CSI because I
4 think that those shows, within one hour, make people believe
5 that the -- law enforcement can do things that they just can't 6 do. And so I like people like that. Not that they hold 'em to 7 a higher standard, but they like to get intrigued by it.
8 Whether or not this is the case for that --

9 THE COURT: So we have --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- I just --

11 THE COURT: -- an unrealistic --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- generally --

13 THE COURT: -- expectation of what the Government is 14 able to prove?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Absolutely. They think that they
16 should take eye analysis of everybody in the wash or something
17 and they've got drones. I -- I don't know. But I always like 18 those types of people who watch crime shows because they put 19 more on the Government or the state to prove their case. A
20 little, generally. That's my thing. I do that all the time
21 with all the jurors that I've ever picked. And it might be 22 something stupid; but I've always been somewhat successful with 23 people who like crime shows when I'm a defense -- on the 24 defense side.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's how I can articulate it, as dumb
2 as it sounds.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Juror --

4 THE COURT: Okay. That --

5 MS. CREEGAN: -- three seventy . . .

6 THE COURT: -- is a clear and reasonably specific
7 reason for keeping number 376. Now, let's do the reverse.
8 Give me a clear and reasonably specific reason for not keeping
9 296.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't have one. It was something --
11 again, all I have is that he gets his local news -- exactly
12 what the Court went through.

13 But, Your Honor, it wasn't like we were going through 14 this going, well, we've got this one or that one which is the 15 process that we're going through now. We weren't -- like, this 16 is not how we went through it.

17 We all sat around. We got a general feeling.
18 Everything was written down. And not one word . . . And I
19 can't give you why other than what's in here and our 20 perceptions and exactly, specifically why that person was 21 kicked out. But it was not -- I guess Mr. Marchese indicated
22 that he's a very technical person. And I probably just went
23 with it. I didn't have a view one way. As a matter of fact, I
24 have on my thing it's a -- it's a zero which to me meant not an 25 "X" and not a highlight, which was a "yes." So it -- it could

1 have gone either way on that person. It just --

2 THE COURT: Yeah. But 296 was the very first
3 peremptory challenge that the defense exercised.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: 296 was a mistake, Your Honor. It was
5 not; I'm telling you. The one above that -- I wrote that
6 wrong. And, when I told the guys, they said, well, don't worry
7 because if we get down to the end, 296 is gonna be gone. But
8 really our first peremptory challenge was supposed to be one --
9 the person above 296, which was --

10 MR. PEREZ: 288.

11 MR. TANASI: 288.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- 288. That was our first. But I
13 messed it up and I wrote it at the wrong box. And they said
14 don't worry; we'll get to that and -- you know, we'll get back
15 to that. That's what happened.

16 But I -- he would have eventually, maybe -- I don't 17 know how it came down -- towards the end been stricken. But it
18 was a mistake on mine that I wrote it. And we all sat around
19 and I said I could cross it off and they said, no, we'll get 20 her, 288, on the next go-round. 288 was actually our first
21 pick; a female was our first pick to get rid of. And 288 --

22 THE COURT: Well, if 288 was supposed to be the first
23 one, you didn't get to her until number 7.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: May I? Your Honor --

25 THE COURT: Um-hum.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- can I show you my paper where I
2 wrote "1"?

3 THE COURT: No. I'm just looking at what you actually
4 did.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I --

6 THE COURT: The --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- under- --

8 THE COURT: -- first --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- -stand.

10 THE COURT: -- peremptory challenge was against 296 and 11 the second -- I'm not going to go into all the other ones. But 12 the seventh one was 288.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. I have written down Carl -- Kari
14 Suzanne, number 1. I wrote down -- wrote it down on our --
15 sort of our list of people that we were gonna get rid of. And 16 I made that mistake. So . . .

17 MR. TANASI: I have the --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. TANASI: -- same thing.

20 THE COURT: Maybe someone who wrote down somewhere that 21 they wanted to strike 296 then can give me what they wrote down
22 why 296 was stricken.

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, it's the absence of 24 information. It's the absence of information. It's not
25 knowing enough and so not taking the risk. And, again, knowing

1 only, at least that I've got noted -- and I know there's more
2 on the questionnaires -- but, you know, where he gets his news
3 from -- more local news than national news -- it just --
4 there's just not enough -- there was not enough for us.

5 MS. CREEGAN: In a case where there's a 27-page
6 questionnaire and an hour and a half of combined defense time
7 to question a juror, I don't think that that is a sufficient
8 reason that is not a pretext.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. 296 did say that he worked in I.T.
11 in his written questionnaire.

12 (Defense counsel conferring.)

13 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, I mean, further with 14 respect to Mr. Leventhal's representation, I also have number 15 one circled right next to 288 as who our first strike was 16 supposed to be. And I'm happy to provide that to the Court if 17 it's at all relevant to your decision.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll provide my copy as well and -- to 19 let you know that 288 indicated that if you participate in a
20 protest, then you made the chance -- choice to get the 21 consequences. So that was a pretty harsh statement, like some 22 of the other males that said the same thing, and it was based 23 upon that idea that you suffer the consequences whereas other
24 people were a little bit I want to wait and see what happens; I
25 want to -- you know, I -- cops or not all police officers, law

1 enforcement is not always correct in their arrests and that's
2 why we've got this process. So she was number one on my list,
3 a female.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 296 did not make any similar
5 statement.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 296 did not make any similar
8 statement.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: 296?

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: He was explaining why 288 was his number 1
12 choice, but 288 was not stricken by the defense until their 13 seventh strike. So not their second, third, fourth, fifth, or 14 sixth.

15 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, what's --

16 THE COURT: So ultimately, even if at some point the 17 theory was to strike 288 number 1, that's not what actually 18 happened. At some point that changed and number 296 was the 19 first person struck and 288 fell all the way down to number 7.

20 Let's move on to -- we did 296 -- we did 95 and 296.
21 This is moving on to the racial challenge. Who is after 296?

22 MS. CREEGAN: The number in which they appear in the 23 panel, it is 329.

24 THE COURT: All right. So why was 329 struck?

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, 329, a female, would not --

2 THE COURT: Hispanic. I think that's the reason for
3 the challenge.

4 MR. TANASI: Under- --

5 MS. CREEGAN: That's --

6 MR. TANASI: -- -stood.

7 MS. CREEGAN: -- correct.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, Hispanic?

9 THE COURT: Yeah. We moved on from gender to --

10 MR. TANASI: Understood.

11 THE COURT: -- to race.

12 MR. TANASI: -- to race.

13 Would not get involved in a neighbor's dispute; mainly
14 only would call to help. Again --

15 (Defense counsel conferring.)

16 MR. TANASI: The defense theory being our clients are 17 people who help others; our clients are people who have --
18 protesting what they believe is wrong. This is somebody who 19 wouldn't get involved in a neighbor's dispute; maybe only would 20 call for help. She is not necessarily someone that we believe 21 would have anywhere near the mindset of our clients in this
22 case.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, Ms. Creegan, I do
25 remember there were quite a few other individuals who said that

1 they would not get involved if there was -- if they heard
2 hollerin' --

3 MS. CREEGAN: You're --

4 THE COURT: -- from a --

5 MS. CREEGAN: -- correct --

6 THE COURT: -- neighbor.

7 MS. CREEGAN: -- Your Honor. So many of them said it
8 that I actually didn't write them all down; it was such a
9 common response. I only wrote down that two or three people
10 said that they would get involved.

11 (Pause in the proceedings.)

12 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, I guess I'd also point
13 out the other two notes that we have with respect to 329 is 14 she's more of a follower in a group -- and defense tend to try
15 to find leaders -- and I have a note that she has a friend who 16 works in the courthouse. I don't have more information on 17 that. But not knowing who that is, the nature of the 18 relationship, where the bias may or may not lie --

19 MS. CREEGAN: Well, I believe she said --

20 MR. TANASI: -- why take --

21 MS. CREEGAN: -- she was --

22 MR. TANASI: -- the risk.

23 MS. CREEGAN: -- I apologize. Go ahead.

24 MR. TANASI: Go ahead.

25 MS. CREEGAN: I believe she said she was friends with

1 Summer Rivera, the Jury Coordinator? Is that the right person
2 that I'm thinking of?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 (Defense counsel conferring.)

5 MS. CREEGAN: Who is a neutral courthouse personnel.

6 MR. TANASI: Again, not knowing -- not disparaging
7 Sumner in any way and not disparaging what her mind-set may be
8 with respect to the case; not knowing what that is, it's a
9 safe, nonrisky bet to eliminate that risk.

10 MS. CREEGAN: If I remember, earlier the defendants
11 were arguing that we should keep the paralegal from the Public
12 Defender's Office who had extensive knowledge about the case.

13 MR. TANASI: Until we had a chance to further question
14 her or the Government had a chance to further question her. In 15 the very early stages, not where we're at now.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: All right. So, as to Juror No. 95, the 18 question being whether the defense reason given for striking
19 him, that his response was that if someone attends a protest
20 they are assuming the risk of being arrested and whether or not
21 that is pretextual, the Court does find that Juror No. 324 said
22 that it's the right of a person to protest but they are 23 accountable for their consequences and Juror No. 288, likewise,
24 said that a protester needs to accept the risk. Those are both
25 females -- to my recollection, Caucasian females -- and both of

1 them were struck by the defense as well.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: We didn't --

3 THE COURT: So I think that's consistent with their
4 explanation that -- of why they struck number 95. So the Court
5 is satisfied as to Juror No. 95 that there's a race-neutral and 6 gender-neutral reason given for the striking of number 95.

7 329's a lot harder. So 329, I realize you say that 329
8 indicated they would not get involved in a neighbor's dispute.
9 And I do recall that and that is a clear and reasonably
10 specific neutral reason. The Government is stating that it's 11 pretextual because there were a number of other people who 12 likewise didn't want to get involved and said that they would 13 not necessarily get involved. I think -- at best, I think some 14 of the answers were calling 3-1-1 or calling police or 15 something like that. But nobody -- I don't remember anyone
16 saying that they would actually get involved. I think there
17 was one person who said -- and it was a man -- if he knew the 18 neighbor he would go talk to 'em. If he didn't know the 19 neighbor, then he wouldn't get involved. I don't remember who 20 said that though. And I was looking through my notes to see if 21 I actually wrote it down, but I didn't see where I actually
22 wrote that down.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I believe that's Juror 339, Your Honor.
24 It was a white male.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: All right. So, after 329, who is the next?

2 MS. CREEGAN: Juror 445, African-American female.

3 THE COURT: 445?

4 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

5 (Counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

6 THE COURT: All right. So she was the African-American
7 woman who has no cable TV and watches local Channel 3 and 5;
8 looks at website news; was unhappy that the current 9 Administration is talking about reducing the money -- the 10 funding for social services; was concerned for the chronically
11 homeless. I don't have a whole lot else. I guess I could look
12 over here.

13 So what was the neutral reason for striking 445?

14 (Pause in the proceedings.)

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the first note that I've got 16 kinda off to the right was Trump. And my sense and kinda
17 thoughts on her was that she would be anti-Trump. And, you
18 know, trying to read the political tea leaves of everybody and 19 trying to figure out which tea leaves align potentially with 20 doing what's best for my client in the case, I think her
21 anti-Trump sentiment would be -- translate to an anti-defendant
22 sentiment in this case. So that's the first kind of note that 23 I had on it.

24 And then I also had the kinda analytical, critical
25 thinker component as well that Mr. Marchese had referenced

1 earlier.

2 MS. CREEGAN: What I have Juror 445 saying is the
3 current Administration is cutting back some of her funding. I
4 don't know why that would be imputed to the defendants as 5 opposed to the party, the federal government, which appears in 6 this courtroom on the opposing side of the case. Also, it
7 seems as a mental health counselor who works with extremely 8 disturbed people, she would have the emotional component that 9 the defendants indicated that they were looking for.

10 (Pause in the proceedings. Defense counsel conferring.)

11 THE COURT: I keep getting confused with her because 12 numerically she would have been in Day 2, but we have her come
13 in on Day 1. So she's on a different list every time I go look
14 for her there. Okay.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Who is next after 445? Is that 17 the last one?

18 MS. CREEGAN: The last one is 485 which is the person
19 who was left unstruck and, therefore, eliminated from the jury.
20 He is an Asian male.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: 485?

22 MS. CREEGAN: 485.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, we did a -- we asked the 24 Court to, if you remember, dismiss this juror for cause because 25 we didn't believe that he could even understand. He -- when he

1 was -- when I believe Mr. Marchese was talking to him, he
2 didn't understand what he was saying. And so there was some
3 indication, at least to us, that he wasn't gonna understand
4 what was going on so . . . And we did ask for the Court to 5 kick him out for cause. That did happen. So we didn't use
6 our -- again, if the Court wants me to go into it, we didn't
7 use our last peremptory challenge because it wasn't necessary
8 at that point. He was number 13.

9 MR. TANASI: And, just building on that, Your Honor,
10 again, on our side of the fence anyways, we weren't exactly
11 crystal clear what the conflict was that she -- he had 12 referenced. He had a conflict of some kind. And Mr. Marchese
13 had asked him questions back and forth. And that was -- again,
14 I'm basically rearguing the same motion for cause that we
15 argued with respect to 485.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Well, even the motion for cause can be
17 pretextual. Though he had a very strong accent, he understood
18 English; he worked in the military for a long period of time.
19 He did not indicate that he had a language barrier or could not 20 understand. And what he stated was his conflict is that he was 21 informed, as a former corrections officer, it was possible that 22 he had a conflict. He did not volunteer himself to be removed 23 from jury service.

24 MR. MARCHESE: My recollection was that he was told at 25 some point in his former career was that he was unable to serve

1 in a jury because of a conflict. Now he works in a food court;
2 he's obviously not in that same career. So I thought that that
3 there was an odd answer and not to mention, I mean, personally
4 I had a very difficult time understanding his accent. But,
5 even more importantly, I thought that it took a while to get to
6 where I needed to on the questions. I thought that there was a 7 comprehension issue which is why we raised the challenge for 8 cause yesterday.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: And just one further comment. When 10 Mr. Tanasi asked everyone just to raise their hand and to 11 stretch, he was the only one I think that didn't. I don't know
12 if he didn't want to or didn't understand to. There was 13 some -- we just -- there was a disconnect there. That's --

14 THE COURT: I do recall he didn't raise his hand. I do
15 recall he said he would not protest and that he would talk to 16 neighbor or call police if neighbor too loud. There was only 17 three cooks. He was the first person to speak up when we 18 started asking questions to let us know that he might have a
19 conflict, but it wasn't clear why he would have a conflict.
20 And it wasn't responsive to the question that was asked. And 21 later I think he explained that it was that he -- back when he
22 was on duty with the Navy as a correctional officer in the brig
23 that he had been told it would be a conflict to serve on a
24 jury. And I don't know if that was on a military tribunal as a
25 correctional officer. But that's right. He was also the one

1 that brought up TMZ. He did seem to have a bit of a language
2 barrier, and I agree wasn't always clear whether he was failing
3 to understand the question or refusing -- I do remember when he
4 didn't raise his hand and -- because I did make a note to 5 myself if he's on the jury I got to watch and make sure he
6 actually raises his hand when we swear them in. So I don't 7 have a belief that the exercise of a challenge as to 485 was 8 for an inappropriate reason.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, that concludes the 10 Government's challenges both for gender and for cause.

11 Let me ask the Court, if I have it correctly, that the 12 Court has not yet ruled on 85, 284, 296, 329, and 445; is that
13 correct?

14 THE COURT: Correct.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 MR. TANASI: Ms. Creegan, would you mind reading those 17 one more time?

18 MS. CREEGAN: 85, 284, 296, 329, 445.

19 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: 85, 2 what?

21 (Defense counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

22 THE COURT: 296 and 284 are in the same camp in that 23 they are both science fields.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 THE COURT: As I said before, I don't accept the excuse

1 that we didn't know enough about them as reasons for excusing
2 296. I'm not considering that. But 296 is young. He's
3 single; never served on a jury before; only watches local news,
4 not national news; appears from his written questionnaire
5 responses that he lives with his parents.

6 MS. CREEGAN: And, even being young and single and
7 living with his parents, he is comparable to Juror 376.

8 THE COURT: Oh, I'm not saying he isn't qualified, yes.
9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: He's technically qualified. I'm looking at 11 him in relation to 376, which was the woman who is in a similar 12 situation. I don't know that she lives with her parents. She 13 had a stepmom and a stepdad. So I'm not saying that it's 14 exactly the same situation. But she was quite young. Um . . .

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 THE COURT: What did 376 do for a living?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I had K-Mart.

18 THE COURT: Did it say what her position was? Was she
19 I.T.?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I don't -- I don't believe so.

21 THE COURT: Let's see.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Went to CSN; works at K-Mart. That's 23 what I have. But she's the one that I indicated why, the 24 investigations.

25 THE COURT: Oh, she was taking the Asian -- is it Asian

1 studies, Asian literature class?

2 MS. CREEGAN: I believe that's somebody else.

3 THE COURT: That's somebody else. Okay.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: Oh, 376 is a creative writing major.

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 THE COURT: All right. Well, it's 4:30. And I wanted
8 to let the jury know, obviously, before the end of the day. So
9 let me take about a 10-minute break and see if I can't look at 10 this more easily on my computer on my desk because I've got way
11 too many documents here.

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

13 Off record.

14 (Recess, 4:31 p.m. Resumed, 5:18 p.m.)

15 LAW CLERK: All rise.

16 THE COURT: All right. You may be seated.

17 (Pause in the proceedings.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So the Government's first
19 challenge was based on gender, violating the Equal Protection
20 Clause, claiming that the defense had struck -- one, two,
21 three, four, five, six -- seven of the fourteen males,
22 50 percent of the males, resulting in an unusually high number
23 of females on the jury, white males; but that goes into the 24 next argument about the gender.

25 So the Court did look at the seven individual jurors,

1 the reasons given by the defense after the Government raised
2 its prima facie statements that the Court accepted and then the
3 Government argued that the reasons given by the defense were 4 either not clear and reasonably specific or were pretextual.
5 And, honestly, we went back and forth quite a few times and I
6 gave everyone a lot of opportunity to tell me more and explain
7 more.

8 So I did find that Jurors No. 498, 457, 314 were all
9 excluded for nongender reasons and they were legitimate.

10 Also, looking at number 95 and the fact that he said
11 that a person assumes the risk of being arrested if they 12 protest was belied by the fact that 139 also said that she 13 would not protest and then 451 said that they can't imagine a
14 person being arrested only for protesting. 451 also -- also 15 said she was afraid of firearms, but she remained on the jury.
16 So 451 was not struck, 139 was not struck, nor was number 205
17 which was also a female that was similarly situated to Juror
18 No. 95.

19 Likewise, Juror No. 85, who was the individual that the 20 defense said they struck because there was red, white, and blue
21 all over his Facebook page and eagles, that reason is belied by 22 the fact that the defendants refer to themselves as patriots
23 and have been explaining that the state rule of law should 24 supersede the federal rule of law because -- that's because of 25 the Constitution and the historical background.

1 What it came down to is -- for number 85, the defense
2 said that a cause for concern for them and the reason why they
3 struck 85 was because of the fact he said that he was raised to 4 trust and respect law enforcement. And, as the Government
5 pointed out, a lot of the jurors said that they respected law
6 enforcement. And that really isn't a legitimate reason for 7 excluding someone. In this case, as the defense pointed out,
8 there are expected to be, again, a large number of law
9 enforcement professionals who will be testifying. And so the 10 credibility of those individuals will be key.

11 However, I said before, Juror No. 455 -- 51, four five 12 one, also stated that she couldn't imagine a person being 13 arrested only for protesting. And so it doesn't appear that 14 number 85 was struck for any other reason other than the fact
15 that he was -- is a male as opposed to a female.

16 Likewise with number 284, the reason given was that he 17 had a science background and therefore would not be emotional
18 and that this case is an emotional case so they were seeking
19 jurors who were emotional. Government argued that it's a 20 stereotypical thing to say that females are more emotional than 21 men and that case law provides for that as stereotypical
22 reasons are not clear and reasonably specific reasons that 23 would justify a strike.

24 Here it's not just an emotional assumption based on 25 nothing other than gender. There is information that's

1 tangible, which is that their background is in science. So I
2 don't think that it's necessarily a stereotypical assumption on
3 the part of the defense; I think it is on information provided
4 by the juror which is that the juror has a scientific
5 background.

6 However, Juror No. 138, who was not struck by the 7 defense, is a certified public accountant. Juror No. 142 is a
8 finance professional. Both of them are females; both of them
9 are analytically based, science-based professions with higher
10 degrees; not just a job that deals in numbers but is actually a
11 scientific degree, college degree. So I don't think that a 12 sufficient reason has been given by the defense for the 13 striking of Juror No. 284 that is other than because 284 was a 14 male.

15 Likewise, with Juror No. 296, the I.T. professional,
16 they also -- defense also stated that they didn't know enough
17 about this particular juror and therefore it was risky to put 18 this juror on the panel. Like I said before, the attorneys 19 have all been given more information than I think you probably 20 would in any other federal case. With the written
21 questionnaire, with the questions that I incorporated that were 22 proposed by counsel, and with each counsel having an 23 opportunity to further ask questions, the lack of information
24 is not a sufficient reason to strike someone in this particular
25 case with all the opportunities that were given.

1 The other information provided by the defense as to why
2 Juror No. 296 was stricken was because he only watched local
3 news, Channels 5 and 13; and young and single; things like
4 that. The Government raised that Juror No. 376 was not struck
5 and she was a woman with the same -- in the same situation:
6 had little information about her; she watches crime TV and
7 crime -- plays crime games, video games; and she's a --
8 creative writing I think was her -- either her major or her --
9 I think it was her major, her college major -- I don't think
10 she's done yet -- but she's a creative writing major. So that 11 does differentiate her from the I.T. professional for number
12 296.

13 However, again, I go back to 138 who is a female CPA
14 and 142 who is a finance officer as well as number 451 is 15 also -- I think she's retired -- but she worked in HR and 16 finance, both of which are analytical; "the rules are the rules
17 and you can't bend" 'em types as opposed to someone in creative 18 writing or social work and things like that.

19 So the Court finds that the reasons given to exclude
20 and strike 296 do not justify striking them for any reason
21 other than because they were males as opposed to the females.

22 Then, as to the gender-based pattern provided, the 23 Government raised the issue that -- one, two, three, four -- 24 five individuals that were on the jury venire were struck who 25 are not Caucasian. I accept the reason given for striking

1 Juror 485, with the language barrier and his apparent
2 confusion.

3 Number 329 not because she said she would not get
4 involved in a neighbor's dispute, because there were quite a
5 few people who said that. The reason that I'm accepting as 6 justifiable is because she was a friend of a court employee.
7 And in this case -- this is not the first trial for this case;
8 this case was tried before. And the person that she's friends
9 with is the jury coordinator who also was the coordinator for 10 the last trial as well as this trial. So she wasn't asked and 11 maybe should have been asked if she knew anything about this 12 case from her friend or things like that, but I think that 13 would be cause enough to strike her.

14 And then, as to Juror No. 95, as I said before, I don't 15 think there was a sufficient reason to strike him just because 16 he said that a person assumes the risk of being arrested if 17 they protest when Juror No. 455 said the same thing, that she 18 couldn't imagine a person being arrested only for protesting.
19 And other -- and another juror, number 139, who said that she
20 would not protest, but she was kept on and so did -- and Juror
21 No. 205 was also similarly situated.

22 So then we have Juror No. 445 and -- who was not
23 scientific and analytical but struck because she was emotional
24 and sympathetic -- or not sympathetic but certainly not 25 analytical. But the reason being that she had responded to the

1 question about was there anyone who was unhappy with the
2 direction that the country is moving and she said she was
3 unhappy with the decreased funding to social services and that
4 that was her field with helping the homeless. And the defense
5 explained that that was a cause of concern for them because if
6 someone is blaming Trump for something they were afraid that 7 that would have a bad connotation and would spill over on the 8 defendants and that the juror would find a reason to dislike
9 the defendants somehow because of a connection with Trump.
10 I -- to me that was not a clear and reasonably specific 11 explanation.

12 So Jurors No. 85, 95, 284, 296, and 445 I found were 13 not stricken for just cause.

14 Now, the effect of that, um . . .

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I apologize. Could you read
17 those numbers one more time?

18 THE COURT: Yes. 85 . . .

19 (Pause in the proceedings.)

20 THE COURT: Yeah. 85, 95, 284, 296, and 445.

21 I see, because one of them is on both lists. So 2 --
22 so 95 and 296 are actually on both lists, both on the gender
23 challenge and on the race challenge.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, the defense has a motion.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 12, 2017—

1 THE COURT: I understand. But let me --

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

3 THE COURT: -- let me finish this up.

4 MR. MARCHESE: All right. Sorry.

5 THE COURT: So the effect of this would be whether or 6 not the defense then would lose their peremptory challenges or 7 would have the opportunity to use them on different
8 individuals. The -- if they lose the right to use all of their 9 peremptory challenges that were misused, then the effect would 10 be -- and I wrote this down -- we would lose Juror No. 376, who 11 I had written down I thought she was mixed race; we would also 12 lose 388, who I had written down looked like she was African 13 American. So it's almost like a -- there's no gain, I guess;
14 there's -- you're just canceling out one for another. And then 15 451 would also be lost. 444 would be lost because she would be 16 too -- or 445 -- is that the one? 4 -- yeah, 445, it really
17 doesn't matter because she's too far down. She wouldn't -- I
18 don't think she would be on there anyway.

19 So I'm not sure if that affects the resolution that's
20 requested by the Government.

21 MS. CREEGAN: That's what we're requesting, Your Honor.
22 We're requesting for those peremptories to be lost.

23 THE COURT: I also had -- where's that white piece of 24 paper? -- I also actually -- since I had a little time while we 25 were waiting for Mr. Leventhal to come back, I went through the

1 other jurors that were not struck that are -- that would be on
2 the jury.

3 Juror No. 80 is the HR/Payroll Director, a financial
4 responsibility. Number 84 has a degree in business finance.
5 As I said, 138 CPA. 142, accounting. 325, accounting. So
6 this is what -- the reason why I just didn't think that the 7 science-based analytical background was reason sufficient when 8 all these other individuals who have a similar background were 9 not struck.

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: All right. So let's hear the defense
12 challenge.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

14 And some of the -- in one of the Government's pretrial
15 motions, they alluded to the fact that it was their belief that 16 our strategy for the trial would be to seat as many women in 17 the jury as possible. If you look at the Government's 18 challenges, there's an inordinate percentage of women that were 19 struck by them. As a matter of fact, it's a larger amount than 20 the approximate 50 to 55 percent that we struck on the two 21 particular Batson challenges that the Government made. So,
22 based upon that, we would make a Batson challenge to the 23 Government that they struck more jurors based upon the fact
24 that they were female rather than male.

25 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Creegan. We've got Juror

1 No. 3 -- was it -- no, no. No, the third one is -- Juror
2 No. 41.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor. We struck, I
4 believe it was, 8 out of 22, which is not 50 percent; it is
5 closer to a third of the female jurors. I'm happy to go
6 through each one, but I'm not sure if a prima facie case has 7 been made at this point.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I was speaking that they had 9 10 peremptories and they struck 8. I'm unsure where they're 10 getting 22 peremptories from.

11 MS. CREEGAN: 22 women were in the 36 panel. So we 12 struck one third of the women in the panel.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I was alluding to the fact that 14 they used 8 of their peremptories of the 10 that they had on 15 females. So, to me, that's 80 percent.

16 MS. CREEGAN: My point in response to Mr. Marchese is 17 that since only a third of the people in the panel were male,
18 we -- to be striking at a normal rate, only a third of the 19 people we strike would be female. We were one off that. By --

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 MS. CREEGAN: -- contrast --

22 THE COURT: But the defense struck seven females.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I understand, Your Honor. And let me try
24 to articulate this a little better.

25 Although there were 14 males in a panel of 36, which

1 makes them numerically a very small -- a minority, yet the
2 defendants struck seven of them. In the panel, there were 22
3 females, which is about two thirds of the panel. Therefore, if
4 we were making completely blind strikes statistically with a
5 computer, we would expect our peremptories to be at two thirds
6 women. That is very close to what they are. We have two that
7 were male and eight that were women. For it to be a third, it
8 would be three male, seven women.

9 THE COURT: All right. Well, how would that not apply
10 to your argument that the defense struck seven women?

11 MS. CREEGAN: Seven males?

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Seven males.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Because males were only a third of the 14 panel, they were going out of their way striking what is a 15 small group within the panel whereas our numbers reflect the 16 composition of the panel.

17 THE COURT: I see.

18 (Defense counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE COURT: So how many men were on the panel?

20 MS. CREEGAN: 14 out of 36.

21 (Counsel conferring. Pause in the proceedings.)

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, I agree with the defense
23 that it looks like striking 8 out of 22 -- or 8 females at 24 first blush looks like quite a bit out of 10 peremptory
25 challenges, so 8 out of 10 would be 80 percent of your

1 challenges are on females. But, as the Government points out,
2 there were overwhelming number of females so striking 8 out of
3 the group is not a suspect number.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: All right. So the Government is moving to 6 have the defense lose those five peremptories?

7 MS. CREEGAN: That is correct, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And what's the basis for that as opposed to 9 allowing them to use them more artfully?

10 MS. CREEGAN: I believe that's appropriate under the 11 circumstances. Five being reinstated shows a persuasive
12 pattern of gender and racial discrimination. I don't believe 13 that those -- under circumstances where the defense is that 14 egregious that they should be allowed to re-choose.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: That egregious?

16 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, you wish to be heard on
17 that?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I understand that the Court
19 has indicated that we've used our peremptories in the wrong
20 way, I guess. But we have given the Court, at least for each
21 one of these, reasons and they were valid reasons. And they 22 weren't egregious reasons. We didn't sit around and say we 23 want this versus that. We based it upon a finding of what 24 people said and what our notes are.

25 So, if the Court's gonna -- already -- and has already

1 ruled that these five were done, then I would at least ask that
2 we be allowed to have our peremptories. I believe that's 3 what -- we didn't do it egregiously; we didn't do it with an
4 intent. But I understand the Court has -- says at least for 5 one or two of them there's no other reason. But, if the 6 Court's looking at, like, you know, comparing one person's 7 scientific background versus another person's scientific
8 background, there's -- there's -- it's not just that. I'll 9 give an example.

10 The Court is comparing the accountant. And I looked.
11 And, even though there was a female accountant that we kept,
12 that female accountant -- and I'm -- it's gonna be one -- which 13 one was the female accountant? -- that female accountant
14 indicated that they would be fair; they would be impartial.
15 And, just because of the technical background, if you will,
16 that wasn't the only deciding factor in how we came to these
17 decisions. And also we didn't know what they were gonna do.

18 And so, you know, I just -- when you pick a jury, we
19 don't sit here and we say, well, we've got 50 women and 20
20 males and therefore we have to have so many. You can't pick a
21 jury that way. If we have so many peremptories -- and we had 22 14 -- and we used 50 percent of them to remove males and 23 females and the Government had 10 and used 8 of them, which is 24 80 percent, to remove females, their percentages are much
25 higher and -- if that's what they are basing it on.

1 We don't sit here and say, okay, we've got one Hispanic
2 guy. I -- that would be insane to put that burden on everybody
3 to put -- mark down exactly "male," "female," "Hispanic,"
4 "African American," "Vietnamese." We were even asking what
5 that gentleman was, Island Pacific? We didn't -- we weren't
6 sure what he was. But it gets to be an exercise in craziness.

7 And I understand what the Court's saying. But I would
8 appreciate -- or I would think that the Court should give us at 9 least those five peremptories. We did not do anything
10 egregious or with any intent or malice or -- this was not done
11 with any of that. So that I would ask that we get our 12 peremptories back and use 'em on a different -- I guess a 13 different way if that's what the Court is requiring or 14 requesting us to do.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan, do you want to respond to the 16 argument about the statistical percentage?

17 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry, Your Honor. Which argument is
18 that?

19 THE COURT: His argument that it was statistically
20 reasonable, the challenges made by the defense.

21 MS. CREEGAN: I think it is not statistically
22 reasonable. It reeks of a plan to reconstitute the jury from 23 the previous case. Usually when there's a Batson challenge,
24 there's a single juror or two removed. But this is a
25 persuasive plan to remove people who are not white or who are

1 male. It's totally impermissible. We have to preserve equal
2 access to the courts. I don't think it's appropriate to allow
3 them to reselect and then potentially have to relitigate this
4 motion again.

5 THE COURT: And I think earlier you made a comparison
6 to the composition of the jury in the first trial?

7 MS. CREEGAN: That's correct, Your Honor. The -- if 8 the jury had sat as the peremptories went forward, it would be 9 statistically and demographically exactly the same as the first 10 trial. When the first juror who -- before she was excused for 11 sleeping, sat, nine women; nine white people; an overlap of 12 seven white women. And that jury is reconstituted here exactly
13 including the single Asian female, the single African-American
14 female, two white males, and one Asian male.

15 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, Your Honor, for that to occur,
16 we would have to somehow break into the court's jury selection
17 process and somehow get these jurors -- I mean, it would be 18 like hitting five royal flushes a row. There is no -- they are 19 giving us way too much credit. There is no possible way that 20 we could have got the exact demographics. And, if they want to 21 search all our computers, I guarantee they won't see anything
22 of that breakdown. I didn't even know that that was the 23 breakdown statistically of male versus female and Asian versus 24 Hispanic versus African American.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I would add, Your Honor, we had two

1 extra peremptories at the last because we're missing two. They
2 only had six at the last one. The Court gave them four more
3 just based upon the fact that this was their reasoning or their
4 logic. So they've had ten. So to say that now we've come up
5 with or devised this scheme to have the same makeup would be 6 crazy. We have two less; they have four more. So how are we 7 able to mold a jury exactly or come to that -- some kind of,
8 you know . . . I -- I -- I'm gonna go play the lottery.
9 That's incredible. We did not do that either.

10 THE COURT: All right. Well, the reason why they were 11 given peremptory challenges -- and the parties agreed to 12 this -- was because there was a retrial and there was the 13 realistic threat that there would be more individuals who had 14 heard about the case since it was so recent and was accepted
15 that we would have more peremptory challenges. So they were 16 given -- everybody was given more peremptory challenges.

17 The law says that, to accept the stated nonracial
18 explanation given, the court need not agree with it and the 19 question is not whether the stated reason represents a sound
20 strategic judgment but whether the race-neutral explanation
21 given for the peremptory challenge should be believed. And the 22 nonmoving party must give a -- rather -- which would be the 23 defense in this case -- must give a clear and reasonably
24 specific explanation of a legitimate reason for exercising the 25 challenge. And then the comparison is made for other

1 individuals.

2 So, for example, circumstances that raise the inference
3 are the number of people in the racial group that are in the 4 venire; the nature of the crime; the race of the defendant and 5 the victim; the pattern of strikes against members of a racial 6 group; the prosecution's questions and statements during the 7 voir dire as well as the defense questions and statements.

8 So, as I said, we're gonna go ahead and, I guess, void
9 or invalidate the strikes as to Jurors No. 85, 95, 284, 296,
10 and 445. The result of that would be that Juror No. 451, 388,
11 376, 425, and 275 -- or maybe not because the last one, I
12 think, doesn't get on there either way. I think that was . . .

13 Is that right, Aaron? Does 275 stay on because 445 is 14 so far down that she wouldn't have got on there anyway?

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That's correct, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So 275 stays on.

17 So we lose 325, 376, 388, and 451. The Court does find
18 that there is a pattern, both from the last trial and with this
19 trial taken together; that it is more than one person. If I
20 had found that it was only one, maybe even only two people who 21 were struck without just cause, then it would be easier to say
22 that the defense could keep its challenge and reuse it
23 appropriately. But, when there's five different people who are 24 struck and the reasons given are not sufficient and not
25 believable in view of the other information that we have about

1 the other jurors, it's difficult to say that it was not
2 intentional or part of a plan to exclude the males and
3 nonwhites from the jury.

4 There were other males and nonwhites that were excused
5 from the jury for legitimate reasons, race-neutral reasons,
6 that could be believed. But the reasons provided for these
7 five just do not meet the standard for explanations that could
8 be believed. And I know some of the explanations given were 9 "gut feeling." I'm not saying I don't believe that you have a
10 gut feeling, but it has to be an articulated clear and 11 reasonably specific reason. So I don't find that that -- that 12 the gut feeling is sufficient.

13 All right. So, Aaron, are you -- are you -- is your 14 chart a mess? Are you able to print it out so everybody has a
15 copy?

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It's a mess, but it will be 17 not a mess in just a moment.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So let's bring everybody back in 19 while he finishes up the chart. And I'll double-check it to 20 make sure it's correct before I read it into the record.

21 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Your Honor, do they have to be
22 lined up? Or can it be random?

23 THE COURT: You know, I think you can just bring
24 them -- they don't need to be in order. That's gonna take too
25 much time and I'm gonna call them. No. I won't worry about

1 seating.

2 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Okay.

3 THE COURT: In fact, if you just want to bring 'em all
4 into the benches, I'll just fill up the box.

5 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Yes, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: That would probably be easier for them too.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

8 (Prospective jury panel enters the courtroom, 5:53 p.m.)

9 COURT REPORTER: Your Honor, do you want them taking 10 the jury box?

11 THE COURT: Oh, you don't need to sit in the jury box.
12 You can go back to the benches. Thank you.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Even though we're already here?

14 THE COURT: Yeah. You can go back to the benches.
15 I'll call you into the box and tell you who is gonna be in the 16 box. Sorry about that. A reasonable belief on your part
17 definitely.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE COURT: Okay. Everyone may be seated.

20 I'm sorry. I'm just trying to make sure that I have 21 the list in the proper order.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: All right. So, when I call your name, you
24 can come on up and sit in the chair in the jury box. The first
25 juror is Juror No. 80.

1 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Your Honor, (pointing)?

2 THE COURT: The second one is Juror No. 84 and Juror
3 No. 85, Juror No. 95.

4 (Pause in the proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: This doesn't match. What about this
6 person?

7 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

8 THE COURT: Number 138.

9 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

10 THE COURT: 139. 142. 188. 205. 275.

11 (Pause in the proceedings.)

12 THE COURT: 284. 325. No?

13 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 296. I missed it. Yes. So
15 after 284 is 296.

16 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. So not 325.

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Correct.

19 THE COURT: All right. Sorry. Not 325.

20 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: 325?

21 THE COURT: So we need 296.

22 (Pause in the proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: Okay. So next is 548. 609. 612. And 24 615.

25 You may be seated.

1 So the rest of the jurors who came -- and we really
2 appreciate your patience, your time, filling out the jury
3 questionnaire, receiving all those continuance notices when the
4 dates kept getting changed, and having you come in -- I know
5 it's never convenient to park downtown. I wish we had more
6 parking for you that was closer and we wish the weather was 7 better. There's so many things that we are grateful for and 8 one of them is for having individuals such as yourselves that 9 are honorable individuals who respected the process and 10 generally tried to provide the answers that were requested of 11 you as difficult as sometimes they were.

12 So we appreciate you very much. You are excused. This 13 means you should not be called again for 2 years. Please make 14 sure that you take water bottles, purses, bags, sweaters, any 15 reading material that you might have brought with you. We do
16 very much appreciate your time. And you may go ahead and hit
17 that traffic now. I'm sorry to let you go so late in the day.

18 (Prospective juror pool leaves the courtroom, 6:03 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: All right. So, as to the rest of you,
20 we're going to swear you in.

21 Aaron, if you'll please administer the oath.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

23 Will the jurors please stand and raise your right hand.

24 You and each of you do solemnly swear or affirm that 25 you will well and truly try the matter at issue in this cause

1 now pending before this court and a true verdict render
2 according to the law and the evidence, so help you God?

3 JURORS: (In unison) "I do."

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. You may be
5 seated.

6 THE COURT: All right. And, when we come back on 7 Monday, we'll come back at 9:00 a.m. and I'll give you some 8 more instructions. But it's late in the day today and I'm not 9 gonna keep you any longer.

10 I am going to give you a short admonition which is that 11 during this recess until Monday, and actually throughout the 12 trial, you are not to discuss this case with anyone or permit
13 anyone to discuss it with you. You can talk to your fellow
14 jurors about other things but not about this case. You can
15 tell your family and your employers and coworkers that, yes,
16 you were chosen to be on the jury; yes, you're going to be 17 hearing the case; and, yes, it's gonna take a while.

18 Aaron either has printed out or is going to print
19 out -- because he already -- he did it. He's really good -- he 20 already printed out the calendars for you all. And so, when 21 I'm done with my admonition, you'll follow our Security Officer
22 and he'll take you back to the room, which we call the jury
23 room, which is where you'll meet every day. And there you'll 24 see you have the schedules and some other information about 25 numbers to call if there's emergencies and things like that.

1 So please do not discuss the case itself with anyone.
2 You can tell them that it's a criminal case. You can tell them
3 the name of the case, which might be helpful so that they don't 4 talk about the case to you. Otherwise, if they do attempt to 5 talk to you about the case, let them know the judge said that
6 could be a crime; so don't talk to me about the case. Write it
7 down and show it to me later if it's that important, but don't
8 tell me about it now.

9 All right. So, until the case is completely submitted
10 to you -- which means after you hear all the testimony, receive
11 all the evidence, after you're given the jury instructions --
12 that's when you'll begin deliberation process; that's when you
13 could start talking about the case. But that's not gonna 14 happen for a while.

15 Also you are not to read or listen to or view anything
16 that touches upon this case in any way. Like I said, if anyone
17 should attempt to talk to you about the case or, if you
18 inadvertently hear something about the case, you need to bring 19 it to the Court's attention right away so that we could look at 20 into it and find out if it was deliberate; accidental; whether 21 it was harmful or not or harmless.

22 Also, you are not to research or make any independent
23 investigation concerning the case. As you'll find out more on 24 Monday, I do permit the jurors to ask questions. We have 25 forms -- you don't write down your name or your jury number;

1 you don't sign it or anything like that. It's a completely
2 anonymous form with just whatever questions you have. The
3 reason I do that -- it does take time, a little more time. But
4 it also gives you an outlet for when you have a question so
5 that you can resist the temptation to go and figure it out
6 yourself or ask somebody or get on the Internet and look it up
7 yourself. We want you to ask us the question so that the 8 parties equally have an opportunity to give you the 9 information.

10 There have been cases in the past where people look it
11 up on the Internet and they look up the Google Map and they
12 don't realize that -- and maybe some of you do if you've lived
13 in Las Vegas long enough -- the satellite maps change. 10
14 years can go by and you'll have an intersection that looks
15 completely different than it did even 5 years ago, let alone
16 10 years ago. And so you're looking at it to see whether this
17 car could have seen the other car coming or whether the sign
18 was in the way or not and you're looking at the wrong
19 information. And that's not fair to the parties. So, if you
20 have a question, we want to know so we can provide you that
21 information.

22 Sometimes people use terminology that's legal
23 terminology that you might not be sure. You think you know
24 what it means, but you want to be sure you know what it means.
25 Ask the question. Or someone might call something, you know,

1 "ABC" and you don't know what "ABC" stands for; you don't know
2 what they are talking about. Ask us and the parties will be
3 happy to let you know and give you information so that you
4 understand the case better.

5 So, finally, you are not to form an opinion regarding 6 the issues in this case until all the evidence has been
7 presented to you. There will be witnesses that are called.
8 It's gonna take some time. Don't make a decision just because
9 of the evidence that you heard on day one or day two, on day
10 three. You know, withhold that opinion and wait until you've 11 heard all the evidence so that you can have a more meaningful
12 discussion between yourselves during the deliberation process.

13 You will have buttons that are going to be given to you
14 that are in the jury room. Please wear those all the time.
15 Sometimes it's cold in here and you might have a sweater on.
16 So, if you're in and out anywhere in the building or even in 17 the parking lot or the grounds, make sure you have the button
18 on. So, if you put on the sweater, take the button off and put 19 it on the outside of the sweater so we can see it and vice
20 versa. If you have a sweater on and you take off the sweater
21 'cuz you're hot, make sure that you put the button back on.
22 This way it'll be easier for people in the elevator or the 23 smoking area or the coffee shop or wherever it is that you
24 might encounter someone to know that you're a juror and not to 25 accidentally talk to you about the case. Remember, we'll have

1 witnesses standing outside waiting to be called and things like
2 that. And so we don't want you inadvertently striking up a
3 conversation with them.

4 All the attorneys have been admonished they are not to 5 speak to you about anything at all. So they are not to talk to 6 you about the case, but I admonish them not to talk to you
7 about anything: the weather, your hair looks nice today or 8 anything, did you see that ball game last night? They are not 9 to talk to you about anything so as to not inadvertently get 10 into a conversation with you about anything. So don't be 11 offended if you see the attorneys and they see you and run the 12 other way. They just don't want to get in trouble with the 13 judge by accidentally talking to you about something. So they 14 don't mean to be rude; they are just trying to be respectful of 15 the process.

16 I think that covers all the major warnings that I want
17 to give you before Monday. And you'll have more information
18 that I'll provide you on Monday.

19 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. And just go
20 ahead and file out and follow Mike and he'll give you all the 21 information you need.

22 Feel free to bring water bottles Monday. We will have 23 some for you in the jury room as well though. And it's helpful
24 to bring sweaters and things. Sometimes it gets really hot and 25 then gets cold and then it gets hot.

1 (Jury out, 6:10 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: All right. We're outside the presence of
3 the jury.

4 So we'll go off record till Monday. We'll begin at 5 9:00.

6 Yes.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we have just one brief
8 housekeeping matter we could bring up. I know it's been a long
9 day, but --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MYHRE: -- in anticipation of Monday.

12 Actually two things. One is if we can get some idea of 13 whether defense will be opening as well on Monday because our 14 first witness we anticipate will be a Sheriff Lombardo and we 15 kinda want to give him a time to be here that would be 16 reasonable so he's not just hanging around.

17 So, if we anticipate openings would be over by 18 11:00 o'clock, we can have him here at 11:00 so we can go right
19 into witnesses. Or, if we think it's going to be all morning
20 for opening, then we could put him in the afternoon. So I --

21 THE COURT: I think --

22 MR. MYHRE: -- anticipate --

23 THE COURT: -- last time didn't we have at least one of 24 the defense attorneys --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Two.

1 THE COURT: -- reserve?
2 MR. MARCHESE: I --
3 THE COURT: Two --
4 MR. MARCHESE: -- reserved.
5 THE COURT: -- reserved --
6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Two, Your Honor.
7 THE COURT: -- until later?
8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.
9 MR. MARCHESE: I reserved mine and gave it at the 10 opening of our case in chief.
11 THE COURT: All right.
12 MR. LEVENTHAL: So did Mr. --
13 THE COURT: So do you --
14 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- Perez.
15 THE COURT: -- have a plan?
16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mr. Perez is --
17 THE COURT: So Mr. Perez is gonna give an opening --
18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I --
19 THE COURT: -- on Monday?
20 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- I said Mr. Perez --
21 MR. PEREZ: I --
22 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- waived --
23 MR. PEREZ: -- I haven't --
24 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- his opening.
25 MR. PEREZ: -- made up my mind yet, Your Honor. More

1 than likely, but I'm not sure.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: We haven't really decided that, if
3 we're gonna waive any. When we know, we'll inform the
4 Government.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 So, Mr. Perez, you waived your opening?

7 MR. PEREZ: No, no.

8 THE COURT: No, no. You didn't. You just reserve it.

9 MR. PEREZ: Right.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 So Mr. Marchese and Mr. Perez reserved last time.

12 MR. PEREZ: Correct.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

14 THE COURT: Is that right? All right.

15 And then Mr. Tanasi and Mr. Leventhal gave their
16 opening statements.

17 So do you -- I would anticipate that we probably will 18 have at least one motion, if not more, to discuss before we 19 begin. And then I have to give my -- the admonition of 20 preliminary instructions to the jury. So that'll take a good
21 15, 20 minutes. And then we can probably go into opening
22 statement unless we need a bathroom break and then have opening
23 and then have lunch. So it certainly wouldn't be before lunch.

24 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. That's very
25 helpful. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Don't you think?

2 And then -- so then, when we come back from lunch,
3 probably there will be one or more openings. So I don't --

4 MR. TANASI: I think it's --

5 THE COURT: -- I would --

6 MR. TANASI: -- fair to say --

7 THE COURT: -- estimate 2:00 o'clock would be maybe a
8 good -- what do you think, Mr. Tanasi?

9 MR. TANASI: I think it's fair to say that at least
10 some of the defense would give an opening so --

11 THE COURT: Someone's gonna given an opening; right?
12 So at least one.

13 MR. TANASI: Right. I'd say fair to say at least one.
14 I don't know how much that helps but . . .

15 MR. MYHRE: Okay.

16 THE COURT: So I think we can plan to have him start no
17 sooner than 2:00 p.m.

18 MR. MYHRE: That's very helpful. Thank you, Your
19 Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. MYHRE: And then the second one is we moved to 22 have -- we'd ask the Court if it'd be possible for the defense
23 counsel -- since we now have two fewer defendants -- that
24 defense counsel tables be turned and to face forward as opposed
25 to the defendants facing directly in front of the jury. And

1 one of our concerns is the -- for example, Mr. Parker and
2 others have worn their pocket Constitutions and so forth. I
3 think whatever their belief system with respect to that, you
4 know, if that's going to occur, we don't want them
5 communicating through what they are wearing; what they are 6 reading; what they are showing to the jury.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Wait.

8 MR. MYHRE: And so --

9 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, Mr. Myhre brought this to my 10 attention yesterday. I asked Mr. Parker to take his out while 11 the jury is present. He abided by that request. And, I mean,
12 quite frankly, it's pretty far. I don't necessarily think that
13 the jury would even be able to see it. But, regardless, it's a
14 moot point because he's just not gonna wear it.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And, Your Honor, generally we have --
16 if we had a table -- I have a tough enough time seeing. I
17 never saw Juror No. 1 before. I know -- I heard she's swiveled
18 quite a bit. I never even know -- because I'm over here, I
19 can't see. I can barely see the witnesses half the time.

20 And so, when we're generally here, we're either here so
21 we could see everything or the long table comes down this way
22 anyway; right?

23 THE COURT: Um-hum.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

25 So it becomes very difficult if I'm stacking up going

1 towards Your Honor, towards the bench, it becomes even harder
2 for me to is see the witness and the jury. It's gonna be even
3 more difficult than it is now being here so . . .

4 THE COURT: All right. Well, we'll --

5 MR. PEREZ: Not to mention --

6 THE COURT: -- have less people than last time, right,
7 because we -- I think we had -- Mr. Burleson also had an 8 assistant besides his attorney and so we won't have them --

9 MR. TANASI: And it's only one less --

10 THE COURT: -- Mr. Engel and his attorney so . . .

11 MR. TANASI: Sorry, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 And then Ms. Dodson won't be here.

14 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, if we turn the tables, the 15 jury's gonna see the shackles. I mean -- and if they are 16 required to wear them . . .

17 THE COURT: Well, if they don't -- the jury doesn't
18 come in through that back door anymore. Now that we've chosen
19 them and seated them, they'll be coming in through the door
20 that's close to the bench over here so we don't have the same
21 danger that we do during the voir dire where they are coming in 22 through the exit door where the public comes in. That's the 23 concern with having the old-fashioned seating where everyone's
24 facing the judge. But now that they are all coming and going 25 through the witness -- through the door that's nearest to the

1 witness, then we really don't have a problem with the shackles.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: But we agree --

3 MR. PEREZ: Well --

4 THE COURT: One, two, three, four.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hold on. Hold on.

6 We agree to abide by -- you know, and not having --
7 they all know. They wouldn't put anything in their pockets.
8 So, if that's the concern and the only concern, I think the 9 prejudice that's gonna be placed upon me and not seeing
10 witnesses and not seeing the reaction of the jurors is much
11 greater. They've already taken out and they've abided by that 12 and they'll continue on abiding by that. If Mr. Myhre or 13 anybody from the Government says anything otherwise, then just 14 bring it to our attention. But, until that happens, Judge, I
15 don't want to be stuck up here in the corner somewhere where I
16 can't see a witness. That's -- that wouldn't be good.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me think on that 18 because I think if there's eight people -- one, two, three,
19 four, five, six, seven eight -- then does that leave enough
20 room for -- what is his name, Brian? Is it --

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: He has his own table, Your 22 Honor. But it's my understanding that with the depth of the 23 tables the shackles would be visible from the jury box -- from 24 the end of the jury box.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So that's the concern.

1 MR. MYHRE: Well, we normally would put up some sort of
2 shroud around the other tables, correct, to cover the -- so
3 potential for seeing the shackles would be eliminated?

4 THE COURT: Well, that covers the front. That's why
5 the tables now have the wooden fronts. That's the, um --

6 MR. MYHRE: But it would go around --

7 THE COURT: -- I know what you're talkin' about, the 8 black tablecloth --

9 MR. MYHRE: Skirt --

10 THE COURT: -- skirt, yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: Right.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. We had to use those before because 13 it was open. Um . . .

14 MR. MYHRE: But these appear to be closed on the sides
15 as well so --

16 THE COURT: Right. These are closed.

17 MR. TANASI: But I would think that that would require
18 almost an entire row then to close off so that the shackles
19 aren't seen. Because even though the side's closed, if 20 they're -- if he moves backwards -- if Mr. Stewart moves
21 backwards or turns for any reason, his shackles would be 22 exposed outside of that little divider that Mr. Myhre just 23 referenced. I mean, there'd have to be, I think, more
24 elaborate curtaining system of some kind which may draw more
25 attention to it in and of itself.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 12, 2017

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, let me take that under 2 submission.

3 Anything else?

4 MR. MYHRE: That's all we had, Your Honor. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 Sorry I can't answer right away on that. I realize I
7 need to probably test it out myself and have input from other
8 individuals as well to see if it's even feasible before I make 9 that decision.

10 I don't think we need this anymore.

11 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

12 THE COURT: So those are the officials.

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Okay.

14 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Off record.

16 THE COURT: Off record.

17 (Proceedings adjourned at 6:19 p.m. Trial to resume on

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:20 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day Four in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

12 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor.

13 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf
14 of the United States.

15 THE COURT: Good morning.

16 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor.

17 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present. Also
18 with us at counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

19 Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Good morning.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

22 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

23 THE COURT: Good morning.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

25 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

3 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

4 THE COURT: Good morning.

5 All right. Before we bring in the jurors, let me
6 just remind everyone about how we expect to conduct trial.

7 This is a courtroom; it's not a sporting event. So,
8 it is never appropriate to make any expression of your opinion,
9 whether it's verbally or through conduct or body language, no
10 matter how much you may agree or disagree with what is being
11 said.

12 People may not speak out of turn. All the attorneys
13 have microphones at their desks, so they're welcome to use
14 those microphones if they want to. We also have the podium
15 that's been turned in the direction of the jurors so that 16 during opening statements they may use the podium instead.

17 We do have the speaker system connected to the 18 holding cell. So, if any of the defendants speak out of turn
19 or make any expression of their opinion through body language
20 or verbally, they will be removed to the holding cell to listen
21 to the rest of the trial this -- today.

22 Let's see. We do have a prohibition on electronic 23 devices. So, please make sure that you do not have any 24 electronic devices with you here in court. The attorneys are 25 permitted to use electronic devices so that they may conduct

1 trial, but otherwise, no one else is supposed to have an
2 electronic device. Even if it's turned off or in vibrate mode,
3 it's not allowed in the courtroom. There is no recording
4 permitted in federal court, no audio recording and no video
5 recording.

6 All right. So can we bring it to the jury, Aaron?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we just had a brief issue
8 on behalf of the defense.

9 I know we stayed here late Wednesday in reference to 10 the jury. I just wanted to make it clear for the record that 11 we object to the makeup of the jury, both on behalf of the 12 Government's Batson challenge and then our Batson challenge
13 against the Government. I know the Court has ruled on it. I
14 just want to make it clear in reference to that.

15 I know the Government is standing. If they want to 16 make something in reference . . .

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, you did -- well, the 18 motion was made and you did oppose it, so the record is clear
19 that you object to it.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Right. I just -- I've been on appeals
21 before and I've looked at my record and I've looked at it and 22 thought I made a good record and then, in hindsight, I didn't.
23 So, I just wanted to put that on record here this morning.

24 And in reference to the Government's opening
25 statement, Your Honor, collectively, on behalf of the

1 defendants, we've all huddled, so to speak, and this morning we
2 received, I don't know, 30 or 40 slides in reference to that.
3 It's our position that trial has not started. There has not
4 been any evidence introduced. So, we'd be objecting to the 5 uses of all these slides given the fact that no evidence has
6 been introduced and to me, this is, you know, putting the cart
7 before the horse. We're arguing a bunch of evidence that
8 hasn't been brought into evidence just yet.

9 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, there -- it's evidence
10 that we intend to offer during the course of trial and these 11 are exhibits these defendants are very well aware of, having 12 been through the first trial, but in opening statement it's 13 admissible to use exhibits that the Government in good faith
14 intends to offer during the course of the trial.

15 THE COURT: So, are there any specific exhibits that 16 defense objects to that thinks -- that you think will not be 17 admitted during trial?

18 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I -- in no way, shape, or form
19 am I saying --

20 THE COURT: Are you objecting to the use of exhibits,
21 because attorneys always use exhibits during opening statement,
22 or is there a specific one that you think will not be admitted
23 so it would be prejudicial to show it to the jury?

24 MR. MARCHESE: Well, my experience and, of course,
25 every trial in every court is different, but not necessarily.

1 I mean, typically we have some sort of an agreement and say,
2 hey, you're going to use this exhibit, you're going to use that
3 exhibit. Like last time, they objected to some of the uses of 4 our exhibits, but in this particular case it's our position --
5 and in no way, shape, or form am I saying that Mr. Myhre is 6 acting in bad faith -- but we just don't know what the evidence
7 will show. Maybe a witness becomes unavailable. Maybe they're
8 unable to lay the foundation. Whatever it is, we just don't 9 know. So, I can't predict what comes in or what doesn't come
10 in.

11 Mr. Myhre is a thousand percent correct. We are 12 aware of the majority these exhibits, if not all of them.
13 There is some with some sort of writing, but, I mean, that's 14 the charges. We're obviously aware of that, but we lodge an 15 objection because, like I said, we don't know what the evidence
16 will show. We don't know whether this will, in fact, come into 17 evidence.

18 THE COURT: All right. So you're not objecting to a
19 specific exhibit, just, in general, to the use of the exhibits?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, all -- I -- it looks like about 21 36, 37 slides. Correct. 36 slides.

22 THE COURT: All right. Well, if there's no objection
23 to any particular slide and your objection is just to the use
24 of slides during opening statement, then that motion is denied.

25 Anything else?

1 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

2 We do -- since Mr. Marchese has raised the issue of 3 slides during opening, Mr. Tanasi was kind enough to share his 4 slides with us this morning and the last one is a -- appears to 5 be a photograph or an image captured of various law enforcement
6 officers in the wash on the 12th in the stacked position. I'm 7 sure the Court is very familiar with that from the previous 8 trial.

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MR. MYHRE: And in light of the Court's ruling, in 11 limine, at least, we would ask for some sort of proffer because 12 we find this objectionable in that it's depicting the law
13 enforcement officers and how they are stacked in the wash. No
14 apparent relevance that we can see to anything coming in during 15 the course of trial.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Tanasi, I see you standing. Do you
17 want to respond?

18 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 First, I would just point out I think seven or eight
20 slides in to the Government's PowerPoint they have essentially
21 a similar slide. You have BLM agents that are in a formation
22 of some kind that are in the wash. My slide is simply another
23 picture of that. It's a slide that came in the last trial. I
24 am very aware of the Court's ruling with respect to the Motions
25 in Limine and I don't intend to violate them in any way.

1 Again, it's a picture. It's a picture of what was seen in the
2 wash. It's not a picture of what depicts all the circumstances
3 in the wash. So, again, if the Court's inclined to allow this
4 particular slide with the Government, I think it's only fair
5 play to be able to show kind of the complete story of what was
6 going on in the wash.

7 THE COURT: So what is the intent in using that
8 slide?

9 MR. TANASI: The intent in using that slide,
10 Your Honor, is to show exactly what my client saw when he came 11 to the bridge, the northbound bridge. What he perceived, what 12 he saw. Goes to his state of mind.

13 THE COURT: So your client's going to testify?

14 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, at this juncture, I don't 15 know that I'm in a position to say that. I have a good faith
16 belief that it's very possible, though. And again, if he does
17 not testify and I've shown that slide in my opening, I live
18 with the consequences of him not testifying. And, again, the 19 slide itself doesn't necessarily need my client to testify to.
20 In other words, you have a variety of pictures of what occurs
21 in the wash.

22 THE COURT: Right. So assuming your client testifies
23 and says that he saw that, what's the relevance to the charges?

24 MR. TANASI: The relevance to the charges is what he
25 perceived when he saw -- when -- what he saw on the northbound

1 bridge. In other words, we all know the defense theory is that
2 when they left the speech --

3 THE COURT: All right. But what is the relevance of 4 what he saw? He could have seen a bird, a cloud, a drone.
5 Like, what is the relevance to that particular photograph?

6 MR. TANASI: It furthers his protest. It furthers
7 what he was standing up for and what he was standing up
8 against.

9 Again, it's not a self-defense argument. I
10 understand the Court's ruling on that. It's an argument of 11 what he saw and it's also an argument of what paints the 12 complete picture of the case. You know, we're dealing with 13 these images that the Government wants to select and only show
14 portions of but not show the entire version or the entire 15 story. These are not pictures of individuals who were not in 16 the wash. These are pictures of individuals who were in the 17 wash, just like the Government's slide, Slide 7.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Myhre, your response for
19 the Government?

20 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

21 We're -- we're reaching the sort of slippery slope
22 where we're going into the evidence of BLM conduct, BLM officer
23 conduct on the 12th which is not relevant to this trial. It
24 doesn't go to any cognizable defense. Nor does it go to state
25 of mind. If the defendant wants to testify that he was

1 protesting BLM's presence there, that -- that's not a problem,
2 but that doesn't mean then everything comes in as to what BLM
3 was doing that informed that state of mind. That goes to the 4 jury nullification. We getting into a very prejudicial area,
5 more prejudicial than probative because they're raising the 6 issue of BLM conduct, which is not relevant to any cognizable
7 defense.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, and in reference to 9 Mr. Parker, he's going to testify and I think it is relevant to 10 him. Because as you're obviously aware, this is a new trial,
11 this is a new case. Last time the Court --

12 THE COURT: How is it relevant to the defense? How 13 it is a legally cognizable defense?

14 MR. MARCHESE: I'm getting to that. Because we -- as 15 Your Honor is aware, we put a self-defense instruction in. So,
16 my belief and -- is that we are going to proffer more evidence
17 this time in order for a self-defense instruction. Obviously,
18 we didn't prevail on that the last time, but we have a new
19 trial, just as if the law of the case is not going to be a hung
20 jury, it's -- you know, the Government is going to try to prove 21 their case beyond a reasonable doubt. We are going to try to 22 proffer more evidence towards a self-defense instruction and 23 if, at the end of the case, the Court finds that we didn't 24 proffer enough evidence to get the instruction, then that's -- 25 it is what it is. But, it's our position that we have the

1 ability to put that defense forward now because it's a new
2 case.

3 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, if I may, just,
4 again --

5 THE COURT: Again, the common law defense of 6 self-defense is not available against law enforcement unless
7 you didn't know that it was law enforcement or unless they used
8 excessive force. There's no evidence of any force being used
9 here, let alone excessive force and there's no objective basis
10 to believe that people were unaware that these were law
11 enforcement.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Well, but we haven't had a trial yet.

13 THE COURT: So that's why the -- the -- it's -- it's 14 just not available.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Well, Feola and Span, I would say, say
16 otherwise, Your Honor. There's -- I mean, we -- I don't want
17 to argue the jury instructions, but I believe that we have the 18 ability to argue it. We're going to put on more evidence this 19 time, different witnesses, additional witnesses, more towards 20 the -- you know, the standard of proof to get that instruction.
21 I mean, I would disagree that it doesn't apply. Now, maybe we 22 don't show enough evidence, as we didn't last time --

23 THE COURT: Right, and that was what the Court --

24 MR. MARCHESE: -- but we're going to have more
25 witnesses.

1 THE COURT: -- said, that if you have more evidence
2 than you had last time, then you're welcome to present that as
3 a proffer outside the presence of the jury, but not during
4 opening statements.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Well . . . so how -- are we going to 6 have witnesses come in and testify outside the presence to see
7 if -- I'm -- I'm --

8 THE COURT: That's what a proffer is. That's how 9 proffer works.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Well, and not to mention though, I
11 mean, I don't see how it's not relevant. I mean, that this is 12 what went on in the wash. Whether it's that's -- they were 13 there. I mean, we can't just pick and choose what works for 14 the Government. I mean, it's not as if we're making these up,
15 we're Photoshopping these pictures.

16 THE COURT: If it's not a legally cognizable defense,
17 then what you're arguing is jury nullification.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Well, Feola and Span say it's a
19 legally cognizable defense. I mean, so, I think that it is 20 relevant, and what my client saw. He'll testify that he saw
21 them. We all know that. He testified last time to that fact.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, may I go back, just -- I
23 don't want to muddy the water. I know we've kind of shifted 24 gears on the self-defense component, so if Your Honor wants to 25 make a decision on that before I make my next point, I'm fine

1 with that, but . . . If I may, Your Honor, with respect just
2 to my client's state of mind and what my client was doing when
3 he's up on the bridge, you know, the Government is using his 4 actions to demonstrate, in part, what his intent was, his
5 standing there as being a lookout. Him there in some of the 6 pictures, him not there in some of the pictures. Those folks
7 who are pointing weapons at him, that's part of his state of 8 mind. When he's walking around, running around, not knowing
9 what is going on, confused, because when he leaves the speech,
10 he thinks that the operation's over and he's coming to watch
11 the cows come home, right? He gets there and then he finds the 12 BLM pointing weapons at him. He's confused. His actions in 13 walking around, being on the bridge, not being on the bridge,
14 all of that is what's relevant to this case, what's relevant to 15 his state of mind, and that picture is what shows what some of 16 the confusion is. He leaves the speech thinking the operation
17 is over, cows are coming home. He gets there --

18 THE COURT: I know the facts of the case, counsel. I
19 was here for trial last time. The problem is it's not a
20 legally cognizable defense. I am protesting banks. They're 21 foreclosing on all my friends. I go into the bank with my gun
22 because I want to protest. The security guard points a gun at 23 me, so I point a gun back at him in self-defense. I lose.
24 There's no legally cognizable defense for that. That's the 25 problem. If you want to legally explain how we can provide

1 this, I'm more than happy and willing to, but we're not going
2 to argue the facts and argue the facts and argue the facts
3 because it doesn't change the status of the law and I can't --
4 I can't overrule that. That's -- that's a very clear,
5 acceptable interpretation of the law. So I can't give you a
6 defense that the law does not recognize.

7 So, we're done with this. You can't use that
8 photograph. We're going to bring in the jury.

9 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

12 (Jury returned to courtroom at 9:38 a.m.)

13 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. We're 14 standing for you.

15 Everyone else may be seated as well.

16 So, good morning and welcome back, everyone.

17 We're going to start with opening statements today
18 but before we do that, I do have some preliminary instructions
19 for you.

20 Now that you have been sworn as the jury to try this 21 case, I will briefly tell you something about your duties as 22 jurors and give you some preliminary instructions regarding 23 your conduct in this case. At the end of the trial, I will
24 give you more detailed written instructions which will govern
25 your deliberations.

1 So, as jurors, it will be your duty to decide, from
2 the evidence, what the facts are. So you, and you alone, are
3 the judges of the facts. The evidence presented to you during
4 the trial will primarily consist of the testimony of witnesses
5 and tangible items and papers or documents which are sometimes
6 referred to as exhibits, as well as any fact on which the 7 lawyers agree or which I may instruct you to accept. Sometimes
8 those are called stipulations, or if the Court takes judicial 9 notice of something.

10 Now, as you know already, this is a criminal case and 11 there are three basic rules about a criminal case that you must 12 keep in mind. The first is that the defendants are presumed 13 innocent until proven guilty. The Indictment brought by the 14 Government against a defendant is only an accusation; nothing
15 more. It is not proof of guilt or anything else. The 16 defendants therefore start out with a clean slate.

17 Second. The burden of proof is on the Government
18 until the very end of the case. The defendants have no burden
19 to prove their innocence nor to present any evidence nor to 20 testify. Since the defendants have the right to remain silent,
21 the law prohibits you from arriving at your verdict by 22 considering that the defendants may not have testified.

23 The third thing to remember is that the Government
24 must prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. I
25 will give you further instruction on that point later, but bear

1 in mind that in this respect a criminal case is different from
2 the standard of proof in a civil case.

3 After hearing all the evidence, you will apply the 4 facts as you find them to the law and I will give you detailed
5 written instructions of the law at the end of the trial. You
6 must follow the law whether you agree with it or not. In this
7 way, you will reach a fair verdict which is based upon evidence
8 in the case and a verdict which is consistent with the 9 instructions of law which you are obligated to follow.

10 You should not take anything I say or do during the 11 trial as indicating what I think of the evidence or what your 12 verdict should be. The verdict is entirely up to you as jurors
13 to decide.

14 The evidence which will be presented to you during 15 the trial will consist of testimony from witnesses, documents,
16 and other things received as an exhibit including any fact that 17 the lawyers agree is not in dispute. The evidence presented
18 may either be direct or circumstantial. Direct evidence is 19 direct proof of a fact, such as testimony by a witness about 20 what the witness personally saw or personally heard or 21 personally did. Circumstantial evidence is proof of one or 22 more facts from which you could find another fact exists.

23 The common example of this is if you see someone 24 walking in the courtroom and they're all wet and they're 25 wearing a rain coat and they have an umbrella and they close

1 the umbrella, you could deduce from that that that's
2 circumstantial evidence that it's raining outside. It may also
3 be that there's a sprinkler broken, but it could also be that
4 it's raining outside and more likely that it's raining outside
5 and so that's circumstantial evidence. You don't actually see
6 the rain, but you can deduce that fact from others.

7 You should consider both kinds of evidence. The law
8 makes no distinction between direct evidence and circumstantial
9 evidence or the weight to be given to them. It is up for 10 you -- up to you to decide how much weight to give to any
11 evidence.

12 Certain things are not evidence and you should never 13 consider them as evidence in deciding the facts of this case.
14 For example, statements -- opening statements -- arguments --
15 closing arguments -- or any arguments made during trial by the 16 attorneys are not evidence. Neither are the questions nor the 17 objections by the attorneys ever to be considered as evidence
18 in the case.

19 There are rules of evidence which control what can be 20 received into evidence and if an objection is sustained, that 21 means you must ignore the question and not guess what the 22 answer would have been. If the objection is overruled, you may 23 treat the answer like any other.

24 Some evidence may be admitted during the trial for a
25 limited purpose only. If I instruct you that an item of

1 evidence has been admitted only for a limited purpose, then you
2 must consider it only for that particular limited purpose and
3 for no other.

4 Sometimes I may order that evidence be stricken from 5 the record and that you disregard or ignore the evidence. That
6 means that when you are deciding the case, you must not
7 consider that evidence which I told you to disregard.
8 Testimony that the court has excluded or instructed you to 9 disregard is never evidence.

10 Additionally, anything that you see or hear outside
11 of the courtroom or when the court is not formally in session
12 is not evidence and must be disregarded. It must not be 13 considered by you in deciding what the facts are in this case.

14 In deciding the facts of this case you may have to 15 decide the credibility of what a witness says. You alone will 16 determine which testimony to believe and which testimony not to 17 believe. You may believe everything a witness says, or part of 18 it, or none of it. It's up to you.

19 In considering the testimony of any witness you may 20 take into account several factors.

21 Number 1. Opportunity and ability of the witness to 22 see, or hear, or know the things testified to;

23 Number 2. The witness' memory;

24 Number 3. The witness' manner while testifying;

25 Number 4. The witness' interest in the outcome of

1 the case, or any bias or prejudice;

2 Number 5. Whether other evidence contradicted the
3 witness' testimony;

4 Number 6. The reasonableness of the witness'
5 testimony in light of all the evidence;

6 And Number 7. Any other factors that bear on 7 believability.

8 The weight of the evidence as to a fact does not
9 necessarily depend on the number of witnesses who testify. You
10 should pay close attention to the testimony and all evidence as 11 it is presented because it will be necessary for you to rely 12 upon your collective memories concerning what the testimony was 13 when you retire to deliberate on a verdict.

14 Although you can see that there is a court recorder
15 here, she is taking down everything that is said during trial,
16 but typewritten transcripts cannot be prepared for your use
17 during deliberations and you should not expect to receive them.

18 On the other hand, all exhibits admitted into 19 evidence during the trial will be available for you and your 20 detailed study during deliberations. So if an exhibit is 21 received into evidence but is not fully read or fully shown to 22 you at the time, do not be concerned because you will get to 23 see the exhibit later during your jury deliberations.

24 If you wish, you may take notes to help you remember
25 what witnesses said or the number of an exhibit that you wish

1 to inspect or review later during deliberations. If you do
2 take notes, please keep them to yourself until you and your
3 fellow jurors go to the jury room to decide the case at the end
4 of the case. Do not let note-taking distract you so that you
5 do not actually hear the answers of the witnesses. When you
6 leave, your notes should be left in the courtroom on the seats
7 of your chair.

8 Whether or not you take notes you should rely on your 9 own memory of what was said. Notes are only to assist you and 10 your memory and you should not be overly influenced by your 11 notes or the notes of others.

12 Because of your obligations as jurors to keep an open
13 mind throughout the trial, coupled with your obligation to 14 decide this case based only on the evidence presented and in 15 accordance with the instructions of law as I give them to you,
16 I must instruct you that during the trial you are not to 17 discuss the case among yourselves or with anyone else. There's 18 no texting, no Tweeting, no blogging, or any other
19 communication of any kind about this case or your experience as 20 a juror. Those are not permitted. Nor should you permit
21 anyone else to discuss this case with you or in your presence.

22 I must also instruct you that you are to avoid 23 reading, listening to, or viewing any news accounts concerning
24 this case.

25 I also instruct you that you are not to conduct any

1 independent research or investigation regarding this case.

2 If, during the course of the trial, you find it
3 necessary to communicate with me regarding anything pertaining
4 to this case, I simply ask that you provide a signed note to my
5 courtroom staff who will provide it to me.

6 And finally, I must instruct you that you are to 7 reserve your judgment concerning a verdict in this case until 8 after you have heard all the evidence, the instructions of law,
9 and the arguments of the attorneys and have retired to the jury
10 room to deliberate on your verdict with your fellow jurors.

11 The trial will now begin and as I briefly summarized
12 for you the respective positions of the Government and of the 13 defendants, I remind you that what we talked about last week,
14 it was just a summary and none of it is evidence. The only
15 purpose of that summary was for jury selection and the only 16 evidence that you may consider now in arriving at a verdict in 17 this case is the evidence that will be admitted for your 18 consideration during trial.

19 The trial will begin now with opening statements of 20 the attorneys. First the Government will make opening
21 statements, which is simply a descriptive -- a descriptive 22 outline of what the parties expect the evidence at trial will
23 show and next the defendants may make an opening statement
24 then, if they choose. They can reserve their opening statement
25 until a later time in the trial, and an opening statement is

1 neither evidence nor argument and is never required.

2 As the Government has the burden of proof, they will
3 present their evidence first and counsel for the defendants may 4 cross-examine the Government's witnesses. Then following the
5 Government's case, the defendant may, if they choose, present
6 evidence [sic] as well whom the Government may cross-examine.
7 After all the evidence has been presented, I will provide you
8 with detailed jury instructions on the law that applies in this
9 case and then the attorneys will make their closing arguments
10 to you and then you will retire to deliberate on your verdict.

11 Now, one thing that you need to remember is that we
12 do have forms -- I don't know if you've received them yet --
13 but we do have jury question forms. So at any time if you have 14 a question, you may write it down on those question forms.
15 Don't sign it, don't give me your jury number, your initials,
16 anything like that. We don't need to know who it is that has 17 the question; we just need to know what your question is.
18 Whether it's about something said during statements or during 19 evidence if -- sometimes we just inadvertently will fall into 20 the ABC, you know, we just call things by their nicknames and 21 you may not know those nicknames and we forget to explain them
22 to you, or sometimes you have other deeper questions. Whatever
23 it is, please write it down on the form, fold the piece of 24 paper in half, and we'll make sure to ask counsel to clarify
25 anything that needs to be clarified.

1 So we'll go ahead and begin now with the Government.

2 Mr. Myhre.

3 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 May it please the Court, counsel, ladies and
7 gentlemen of the jury, good morning.

8 On April the 12th, 2014, these four defendants before
9 you, defendants Parker, Stewart, Drexler, and Lovelien, got on 10 a bridge, armed with semiautomatic rifles, and threatened to 11 shoot law enforcement officer standing below them in a wash.
12 The officers were there executing, enforcing federal court
13 orders. The defendants showed them that they were willing to 14 shoot them to get them to stop.

15 No shots were fired that day. The officers could not 16 defend against the threat without risk to innocent lives. The 17 officers backed away as a result. These defendants rejoiced.
18 They said this needs to happen again.

19 These defendants took the law into their own hands
20 that day. They became the law by using the working end of a 21 rifle. They bent the will of the officers to their own and 22 made them back down.

23 Ladies and gentlemen, it's against the law, it's a
24 crime to use a rifle or any firearm to threaten the life of a
25 law enforcement officer while performing -- while that officer

1 is performing his or her duties. That's to use a firearm in
2 any way, whether it's to show it (indicating), display it
3 (indicating), carry it (indicating), point it (indicating), aim
4 it (indicating) --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Objection.

6 MR. MYHRE: -- any way --

7 MR. MARCHESE: Making legal conclusions.

8 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I'm simply stating the 9 Government's theory of the case.

10 THE COURT: All right. You may continue.

11 Overruled.

12 MR. MYHRE: -- when the purpose behind the use of 13 that weapon is to intimidate, interfere, impede an officer
14 while they're -- while he or she is performing their duties.

15 We will prove to you during the course of this trial
16 and through the evidence that's presented, that on April the 17 12th, 2014, these defendants got on a bridge on Interstate 15,
18 about 90 miles northeast of here, south of -- just south of 19 Mesquite, near a little town called Bunkerville. The bridge on 20 Interstate 15, the bridge that crossed this large, big dried up
21 ditch that the locals called the Toquop Wash, which we will 22 refer to throughout this trial as "the wash," we will show you
23 that when those -- when these defendants got on that bridge,
24 they towered above the officers below them, the bridge
25 extending some 40 feet from the bottom of that wash, upwards.

1 We will prove to you that the defendants carried,
2 brandished, and pointed rifles from that bridge. They did so
3 for the purpose of communicating to those officers below that
4 they were ready, willing, and able to shoot them.

5 You've heard the cardinal rule, never point a weapon
6 at anything you don't intend to shoot. Well, that rule applies
7 here. You will hear from the officers in the wash that day,
8 that they saw defendants pointing weapons at them. You will --
9 they could see guns being brandished at them from the bridge.
10 They could see the guns and rifles being carried and used in a
11 menacing fashion from the bridge. You will hear testimony that 12 the officers thought that they were going to die that day. You
13 will see -- excuse me. You will hear testimony that the 14 officers saw these defendants on the bridge working together,
15 moving, getting into position. You will hear the officers
16 describe how they were on the low ground, exposed, no natural 17 cover and concealment. You will hear how they saw the 18 defendants bobbing up and down on the bridge behind a concrete
19 barrier that lined the bridge of the Interstate 15. You will 20 hear how these defendants made them fear that they would be 21 shot.

22 So in this case, you will see . . .

23 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

24 That won't be the first technical difficulty you see
25 throughout the course of this trial.

1 So, in this case we'll be showing you pointing
2 (indicating), we'll show you brandishing (indicating), and
3 we'll show you carrying (indicating).

4 But this case isn't about just the position of the 5 gun, ladies and gentlemen; it's the mindset behind the user of 6 that gun, and that is what we intend to show throughout the 7 trial. Not only, obviously, the position of the gun, but the 8 mindset behind it.

9 The charges in this case are as follows, what these
10 defendants are charged with with respect to April the 12th:

11 Assault on a Federal Officer with a Dangerous Weapon;
12 Threatening a Federal Law Enforcement Officer; Extortion; Use
13 and Carry of a Firearm in Relation to a Crime of Violence, the 14 crime of violence being the assault on the federal officer,
15 threatening a federal officer, and Extortion; Obstruction of 16 the Due Administration of Justice; Interstate Travel in Aid of 17 Extortion; conspiracy to commit all of those above offenses;
18 Conspiracy to Impede or Injure a Federal Officer; Aiding and 19 Abetting the substantive offenses.

20 We will prove to you that these defendants assaulted
21 federal officers by intending to create fear and apprehension
22 in the officers by threatening to shoot them.

23 We will show you that they threatened a federal law
24 enforcement officer by -- through their conduct, intending to 25 communicate a threat of force and violence toward them.

1 We will show that they extorted the federal officers
2 by intending to obtain property from them through the use of 3 force and violence.

4 We will show that they obstructed justice by using
5 force and violence to stop the officers that day from enforcing
6 federal court orders.

7 We will show that they used and carried a firearm in 8 relation to all -- all of those offenses. The prime means of 9 exerting force, the prime means of showing force and violence
10 was the use of the firearm.

11 We'll show that they traveled from Idaho and Montana
12 to come to Nevada in order to show force and violence against 13 those BLM officers. We will show that they also used the 14 Internet, or what's otherwise known as a facility in interstate
15 commerce in order to use -- to commit these offenses.

16 And we will show that they worked together that day.
17 And by showing how they worked together and what their purpose
18 was in coming here, we will demonstrate that they conspired to 19 commit all these offenses. They conspired with others, they 20 conspired with themselves to commit these offenses and they
21 conspired and worked together to communicate -- or to impede
22 the federal officers and stop them from doing their jobs
23 through exerting force and violence against them.

24 As the Court has told you, the prosecution in this 25 case bears the burden of proof. So it is my job and

1 Ms. Creegan and Ms. Ahmed's job to bring forth the evidence
2 before you that proves these charges beyond a reasonable doubt.
3 It is a burden that is fair. It is a burden that is just. It
4 is a burden that we welcome, and it is a burden that we will 5 meet.

6 My purpose in standing before you now, as the Court
7 has previously indicated, is to provide for you, or outline for 8 you, what we anticipate -- we, the Government -- anticipate
9 will be the evidence throughout the course of the trial that 10 you will see and hear and observe through that witness box
11 right over there (indicating) and what -- how that evidence
12 comes in and how we anticipate that evidence will go to prove 13 the charges that we just have gone over.

14 So I'd like do that in three parts for you. The 15 first part I'd like to cover, what we anticipate the evidence
16 will show in terms of sort of the chronology of events leading 17 up to April the 12th, 2014; where these defendants came from,
18 how they got here, why they got here, what was going on to 19 bring them to Nevada.

20 As with all things in life, in all of our common
21 everyday experience, everything has a backstory and so does
22 April the 12th, and so we will be presenting a lot of evidence
23 during the course of the trial about the -- about the 24 backstory, the events leading up to April the 12th. And it is 25 important and it is important in order to provide context and

1 put in perspective for you what the events of April 12th, how
2 it -- what they mean and how -- how these events evolved, but
3 please, make no mistake, that the Government's case in this --
4 in this trial, the central focus, the central thrust of this
5 trial is what those defendants (indicating), did on that
6 bridge, 90 miles from here, on April the 12th, during a period
7 of about -- as you'll see as we go through opening, about 40
8 minutes, from the time they got on that bridge till the time
9 the BLM walked away. That's really the central focus of these 10 charges, the central focus of our case. So, after I cover the 11 prologue, then I would like to actually go into walking through 12 April the 12th, what we anticipate the evidence will show in 13 terms of the chronology of how that event unfolded and what the 14 individuals -- what these defendants were doing on the bridge.
15 And then the last part of my presentation this morning I'd like 16 to kind of circle back to these charges and then describe for 17 you the evidence that we anticipate -- how the evidence fits
18 into these various charges and how it's relevant to these 19 various charges.

20 As in any trial, ladies and gentlemen, when the 21 evidence comes in, it doesn't come in chronologically. There's 22 just too long a span of events we have here and we have a
23 number of witnesses, so, things may come in piecemeal and it
24 will be a little bit like putting together a jigsaw puzzle for 25 you. So, we would like to give you the big picture of what

1 that puzzle should look like at the end and we will be back
2 here at the close of the evidence to walk through the evidence
3 again and explain how the evidence fits into these charges.

4 So, that said, let's start with the backstory.

5 You'll hear evidence about how the officers in the 6 wash that day were duly sworn law enforcement officers from the 7 Bureau of Land Management and the National Park Service. They 8 were in the Bunkerville, Nevada, area conducting a gather of 9 cattle, of trespassed cattle. It's a -- an operation the BLM
10 refers to as an "impoundment." They were there carrying out
11 the Court orders to impound the cattle.

12 You'll see evidence of how a local rancher by the 13 name of Cliven Bundy had trespassed his cattle on public lands
14 for years. He had a long-standing dispute, a dispute that 15 lasted for more than 20 years with -- with the BLM over the use
16 of public lands for grazing purposes.

17 This trial is not really about those court orders or 18 the focus on the dispute between Bundy and the BLM, but suffice
19 to say that the dispute got to the point, Bundy didn't -- had 20 not paid fee -- grazing fees, had not obtained permits to run
21 cattle on the public lands. He had a small enclave of private 22 property, about 160 acres near Bunkerville surrounded by 23 hundreds of thousands of the acres of public lands. Those 24 public lands were managed by the Bureau of Land Management.
25 So, when Bundy and -- the dispute got to the point that BLM

1 sued Bundy in federal court. Bundy had his day in court, over
2 the course of a number of years, long, protracted litigation,
3 and he lost, and in 1998, the district court ordered them to
4 remove his cattle from the land. He refused to do so. A
5 number of events led -- culminated ultimately into 2013 where
6 the BLM went back to court again and the district court,
7 federal district court here in Nevada, issued two court orders
8 telling Bundy, again, to remove his cattle and if he failed to 9 do so, the BLM was authorized to remove the cattle for him.
10 The court orders issued, Bundy refused, BLM then went to 11 execute those orders, went out to Bunkerville to gather the 12 cattle.

13 The plan -- the cattle -- the number of cattle is 14 approximately somewhere around 1,000 head of cattle, estimated.
15 The BLM's plan was to conduct this operation in April of 2014
16 anticipating it would last somewhere, you know, three weeks to 17 a month beyond. Because of the expansive amount of property
18 we're talking about, it would take awhile to gather the cattle.

19 So, the BLM set up a makeshift police station near 20 Bunkerville in the Toquop Wash and you see a diagram or a map
21 of the Toquop Wash before you. It was just a big dried up
22 ditch and it was -- it's principally characterized by the fact
23 that it's near the Interstate 15 and provided a natural egress
24 and ingress for BLM to collect the cattle.

25 So the plan was to collect the cattle on public

1 lands, put them in trucks, truck them to this area (indicating)
2 and corral them and store them. This -- this makeshift police
3 station that I mentioned was called the ICP or the Incident
4 Command Post. You'll hear that term a lot during the course of
5 the trial.

6 And here's an aerial shot of the ICP (indicating).
7 So the . . . So on this map, the ICP was here (indicating).
8 The entrance to the ICP was off this southbound lane
9 (indicating). So, the top lane here is southbound toward 10 Las Vegas (indicating); this lower lane here (indicating) is 11 the northbound to Salt Lake City. The lanes actually run east
12 and west at this point here. So, off the southbound, the 13 entrance to the ICP was there (indicating). This is a wash
14 area (indicating). This is a -- the big ditch runs underneath
15 these bridges like that (indicating) and runs all the way
16 through up -- up and beyond through there. So, this part here
17 (indicating), the ditch, was not a natural way to enter into 18 it. It's -- it's very sandy, very rocky there. This was -- 19 this area here (indicating), was the area where they could
20 enter with easy -- with ease, rather. So, and that's just a
21 picture of the ICP, where it was located.

22 So the BLM employed cowboys to gather the cattle.
23 They, again, gathered them from public lands, not from Bundy's
24 property. And once they got out to -- once BLM got out to this 25 area and they set up operations, Bundy became determined to

1 stop them.

2 The evidence will show that Bundy despised the BLM
3 and he wanted them gone. So when they came out there and began
4 the cattle gather operation, Bundy took to the Internet, he
5 took to social media, and he began asking help -- asking for 6 help, asking for people to come to Bunkerville to help him get
7 rid of the BLM.

8 So all of this is taking place in early April 2014.
9 And the evidence will show that as Bundy made his call for help
10 out through the social media, it drew the attention of an 11 individual by the name of Ryan Payne. And we will show that 12 Ryan Payne and Cliven Bundy entered into a conspiracy. A
13 conspiracy is just a fancy term for an agreement to do
14 something unlawful. And here, the agreement was that they 15 would use force and violence to back the BLM down in order to 16 get Bundy's cattle back.

17 Now, Payne, the evidence will show, is not a rancher
18 or a cowboy. There's no evidence to show that he had any 19 interest in cows or land whatsoever. What Payne was interested
20 in, the evidence will show, was a violent confrontation with 21 the government. He was on a mission to find an opportunity --
22 opportunity to use and threaten force and violence against 23 government officials. And the evidence will show that Bundy
24 gave him that opportunity.

25 Payne was the self-appointed head of an organization

1 that he named OMA, or Operation Mutual Aid. He pitched it as a
2 network of self-described militia units or like-minded
3 individuals who could mobilize at a moment's notice to confront
4 government officials who, according to Payne, were acting
5 unconstitutionally or tyrannically. Payne preached that OMA
6 members would and could use force and violence to resist the 7 enforcement of laws that were, according to him,
8 unconstitutional and excessive. During this trial you will
9 hear Payne's references to such terms as "tyrannical
10 government," "standing between tyrants and the oppressed,"
11 "tyrants trampling on the rights of people."

12 This case is not about Payne's ideology or his 13 beliefs. The same is true about the beliefs of these 14 defendants. You're free to believe anything you like in this 15 country and this case is not about beliefs; it is about 16 conduct. Having beliefs is one thing; acting on them is an 17 entirely different matter.

18 The evidence will show that Payne saw Bundy Ranch as 19 his opportunity to see OMA, what he conceived of as OMA, become 20 a reality, to use it to actually confront the federal 21 government and federal government officials.

22 Recall that I mentioned that Payne felt that --
23 excuse me -- that OMA would be used to mobilize militia units.
24 You will see evidence and hear evidence about Payne's
25 mobilization efforts, principally using the Internet, social

1 media, e-mails, and so forth. He claimed that he could
2 activate the militia units to form what he described as QRF, or
3 a quick reaction force, that would deploy and mobilize in a
4 moment's notice to reach some hot spot where officials were
5 acting unconstitutionally.

6 To Payne, militia units were groups of private
7 citizens who organized themselves and trained in military
8 tactics, military-style weapons, but were not affiliated with 9 any government sponsored or government sanctioned military
10 force or organization. These groups determined among 11 themselves what they would do, how they would train, if at all,
12 and what their mission would be.

13 So, around April the 7th Bundy talked with Payne, and 14 he agreed -- he, being Bundy -- agreed to invite OMA and its
15 militia units to Bundy Ranch to help him to use the threatened
16 force against the BLM in order to rid himself of the BLM and 17 get the cattle back. You will see evidence during the course
18 of this trial that Bundy designated Payne as his so-called 19 "militia coordinator" for the Bundy family. You will hear and 20 see evidence that after Bundy joined forces with Payne, Payne
21 put out a call to arms or what he described as a "militia
22 alert" mobilizing the militia units that affiliated with OMA
23 and asking them to come to Bundy Ranch.

24 You will hear evidence that defendant Ricky Lovelien
25 responded to that call. Lovelien was a member of a militia

1 unit calling itself the Montana State Defense Force. He
2 referred to himself as Captain Lovelien. You will see evidence
3 that shortly after Payne first contacted Bundy, he was in
4 contact with Lovelien. We will show you that from April 7th
5 on, Lovelien assisted Payne in sharing information about Bundy
6 Ranch, recruiting militia members to come to Bundy Ranch,
7 encouraging them to come to Bundy Ranch as part of OMA and
8 their efforts to mobilize.

9 By April the 10th, both Lovelien and Payne were on
10 the ground at Bunkerville, having both traveled from Montana --
11 both Payne and defendant Lovelien lived in Montana -- and they 12 came looking for the confrontation that they had dreamed about.

13 Shortly after arriving in Bunkerville, OMA, through 14 Payne, sent out an e-mail to members of OMA's -- OMA and the 15 OMA organization setting forth what the objectives were of why
16 they were there. And you'll see evidence of those objectives.
17 Among those objectives were to free the public lands for 18 Bundy's use and to return his property to him, that is, his 19 cattle to him. That meant getting the BLM out. Because by 20 this time, BLM had gathered a number of his cattle -- they had 21 gathered close to 400 head of his cattle -- and they were still 22 in the process of gathering cattle off the public lands.

23 After arriving Bunkerville -- in Bunkerville he sent 24 out an alert, not only setting out these objectives, but
25 calling for more forces, more militia units to come to Nevada.

1 The evidence will show that after Payne and Lovelien
2 arrived in Bunkerville, armed people calling themselves militia
3 began flooding to Bundy Ranch by the hundreds, answering the 4 call to arms that had been put out earlier by Lovelien and by
5 Payne.

6 Now, defendants Parker, Stewart, and Drexler lived in
7 Idaho. They were not, at the time, a member of a militia unit,
8 but they were interested in it and had trained with it -- had 9 trained for it, and they were like-minded, the evidence will
10 show, to Payne. The evidence will show that they, too,
11 answered the call to arms and they came to Bunkerville looking
12 for a fight.

13 The evidence will show that they drove some 12 or 14
14 hours overnight to get from Idaho to Bundy Ranch, a place they 15 had never been before, to support a person they never heard of 16 before. They brought with them their rifles, their ammunition,
17 and they brought body armor. Like Payne, there is no evidence
18 that any of them cared about cows or ranchers; they were 19 looking for a reason to fight and like Payne, Bundy Ranch gave 20 them that reason. They were looking for a confrontation with 21 the government and here was the opportunity.

22 The evidence will show that by April the 12th
23 hundreds upon hundreds of people had flocked to Bundy Ranch,
24 many of them with guns, many of them being militia and/or 25 militia like-minded people. Others were there as well to show

1 their support, people who didn't necessarily affiliate with any
2 militia, but were there to protest, to make their views known,
3 to hold signs, to yell, to scream, to shout. The media was
4 there also. By this time, by the -- April 11th, April 12th,
5 the media had heard of Bundy, had heard about his calls to rid
6 himself of the BLM and they, too, began flocking to Bundy
7 Ranch, media of all sorts, national media, local network,
8 alternative media, bloggers.

9 So, by April the 12th, Bundy had erected a rally site
10 near his ranch off of State Route 170 just south of the 11 Interstate 15, about five miles distance from the ICP. Now,
12 this rally site consisted of a makeshift stage and two large
13 flag poles and it was from here that Bundy and his supporters
14 gathered, and they rallied. And they would hear speeches, sing
15 songs, you know, talk about the events going on. And you will 16 hear this referred to -- this area referred to throughout the 17 trial as either the rally site or the staging area. You will 18 hear how Lovelien became in charge of the security for this
19 area.

20 By April the 12th Bundy had also established a 21 militia camp near that rally site. This was -- this was an 22 area designated for those who identified with militia, who had 23 guns. This is where those people stayed.

24 There was also another campsite for people who did
25 not affiliate with militia, people who were there to protest,

1 to show their support for Bundy.

2 So that's the backstory leading up to April the 12th.
3 Now what I would like to do is shift gears a little bit on you
4 and then cover the events of April the 12th up to and through
5 the confrontation in the wash.

6 So by the morning of April the 12th, there were so
7 many guns in the area of the Bundy Ranch area where this
8 impoundment was being conducted and the hatred and the rhetoric
9 against the BLM had grown so toxic that the BLM decided to call
10 off the impoundment. They announced that they would be 11 removing -- that they would cease their operations and would be 12 removing their assets from Bunkerville. The BLM's plan was to 13 stop their operation and then find an area -- find a place
14 where they could take the cattle that they've corralled -- as I
15 mentioned, about 400 head at this point in time -- and the plan
16 was to ship them to California, to sell them at an auction
17 house there.

18 The sheriff of Clark County, too, became concerned
19 about the potential for violence and the level of tensions that 20 were -- that were being -- that were growing each day out
21 there, so he decided that he would travel to Bundy Ranch as 22 well to meet privately with Cliven Bundy, to tell him that the 23 BLM was ceasing their operation in the hope that it would 24 ratchet down the tension. Remember, I described for you the 25 rallies that had been going on and with the -- with those

1 rallies came a great deal of emotion and emotion mixed with
2 guns, as you will hear, is never a good mixture.

3 So the sheriff went to Bundy Ranch to meet with 4 Mr. Bundy to, hopefully, dial back some of that emotion. By 5 now, however, Bundy had become essentially a rock star. He was
6 surrounded by media everywhere he went. He had militia as body
7 guards. He was chauffeured in a Humvee. He was the center of 8 attention. So when the sheriff showed up, Bundy refused to 9 meet with him privately, insisted instead that he meet on a
10 stage at the staging area on that makeshift stage that I
11 described for you. So it was in front of this -- it was on 12 this stage, in front of hundreds and hundreds of Bundy
13 supporters, that the sheriff met with Cliven Bundy and in the 14 audience that day were the defendants as well, defendants
15 Stewart, Parker, and Drexler, and Lovelien.

16 So the sheriff took the stage before this throng of 17 supporters and this is what they heard him say. He told the 18 crowd and Mr. Bundy that he was there to make a very emotional 19 issue safe. He told them the BLM would be leaving, that they 20 would be removing their assets from Clark County; that the 21 public lands were now going to be opened. And this was 22 received very cheerfully by the whole crowd. There was a great 23 deal of applause and cheering and yelling and screaming and 24 clapping and so forth. Someone from the crowd asked, "Well,
25 what about the cattle? What about the cows?" And the sheriff

1 said, "Well, the cows are where they've always been. You and
2 I" -- meaning Cliven -- "we need to sit down and talk about
3 that."

4 At that point Cliven Bundy took the microphone and he
5 began speaking, and Bundy was unmoved. He amped up the crowd
6 and began making impossible demands of the sheriff. The 7 evidence will show that he told the sheriff that he was not
8 there to negotiate, that he was there to put legs under him.
9 He told the sheriff, disarm the Park Service, meaning the BLM.
10 He also told him to knock down the toll booths that are at the 11 entrances to our national parks, to get county bulldozers and 12 knock those down. He told him that -- when he disarmed the 13 BLM, he wanted the arms brought back to the stage and stacked
14 at the stage for them. And he told the sheriff he wanted him
15 back here in one hour.

16 The crowd began cheering. And the sheriff, realizing
17 he could not mollify Mr. Bundy at that point, left the stage.
18 And as he was leaving the stage, almost as if on queue, 40-plus
19 horses, people on horses show up and line the hills above the 20 stage area carrying flags and yelling and screaming, and the 21 sheriff leaves. And as the sheriff was leaving, the crowd
22 began catcalling saying, "Sheriff, do your job. Do your job."
23 "Get rid of those illegal guns." "The BLM has no right to 24 carry guns." "Do your job or get the hell out of here," were 25 their words.

1 So the sheriff left the rally site and went to the
2 ICP to report what happened. He left the -- his assistant
3 sheriff, then assistant sheriff, now current sheriff,
4 Joseph Lombardo, in charge of security at the ICP in the event
5 it became necessary. Metro had earlier that morning staged a
6 number of officers just south -- well, actually, just west, but
7 south, on the southbound lane up from the ICP, staged a number
8 of officers to be able to respond quickly if something -- some
9 event occurred where they -- it became necessary to add
10 security.

11 So, after the -- Mr. Bundy's appointed hour came and 12 went and the sheriff did not return to the stage, Bundy took to 13 the stage again in front of his supporters. And this time he 14 acknowledged that the sheriff hadn't come back and he now told 15 the crowd, he said we're going to turn -- he was going to 16 return his cattle back out into the open range where they
17 belong. He told the crowd, we're going to get the cattle out
18 of the compound by the freeway and we're going to open up the 19 gate and we're going to let them out. Told the crowd, we're 20 going to go up the freeway and block the freeway. When you get 21 to the Toquop Wash, he told them, get out of your cars and then 22 we're going to open the cattle pens. The horses are going to
23 go up the Powerline Road and meet us underneath the Toquop
24 bridge. "Get her going, cowboys. Let's go git 'er done." At 25 this point, hundreds of Bundy supporters now became his

1 followers and they jumped in their vehicles and they took off
2 to the Toquop Wash.

3 The evidence will show that these defendants heard
4 that speech, they heard those instructions; that they left the 5 rally site where they were unarmed and they got their weapons,
6 they got their rifles, their clips of ammunition, and they got
7 in Rick Lovelien's truck and together they drove to the ICP,
8 some five miles distance. The evidence will show that they 9 went to where the BLM was.

10 So I'd like to just walk through for you now how 11 things unfolded on the bridge that day and how the events
12 culminated ultimately to the BLM backing down.

13 So, after Cliven Bundy gave the command to get the 14 cattle, the staging area is roughly down in this area here
15 (indicating). They left by car, hundreds of his followers,
16 went up State Route 270, got on the interstate, and then went
17 northbound on the interstate -- excuse me -- to the ICP.

18 The horses took off from the staging area and 19 followed a route somewhere -- something similar to this
20 (indicating) and then they also headed towards the ICP.

21 Now, we're talking hundreds of people here. So, as 22 around 11:20 -- remember, I told you, this was the entrance to 23 the ICP here (indicating). Around 11:20, the first of the 24 followers showed up in their vehicles and they began
25 congregating here (indicating), across from the entrance which

1 we will call, and which BLM called, Post 1. That's why I put a
2 little 1 there (indicating). This is actually south of this
3 northbound lane. There's a little area that -- a little
4 turnoff there, and everybody began congregating into this area
5 (indicating), turning off, but because of the traffic, the 6 amount of traffic and because people were slowing down so much
7 and jamming the roads, traffic was backed up for -- for a long
8 distance. So everybody started piling in this assembly area.

9 The evidence will show that Metro, hearing that 10 Cliven Bundy had given the command to get his cattle, also
11 responded, and remember, I told you they had a little staging
12 area along the southbound lane. They -- they responded. They 13 came up as well as people were beginning to flood into this.
14 So it was right around 11 o'clock that Cliven Bundy told his 15 crowd to go get the cattle, but it was about 11:20 when the 16 first of the cars started showing up and that's -- and it was 17 shortly thereafter that Metro shows up.

18 So Metro pulls into the ICP area here (indicating) at 19 Post 1 and they take over security from the BLM. The BLM had 20 been -- had their law enforcement officers in their various --
21 in position here at Post 1. So, as -- as Metro comes in, BLM
22 pulls back, they take over essentially the Post 1 area and over 23 time, they form what's called a "skirmish line" here in the 24 median of officers to block anyone coming from here
25 (indicating) to come through this entrance into the ICP.

1 Now, remember, I told you this was the natural means
2 of egress and ingress. It was -- was an improved road. People
3 could get through easily. Down in the wash, not so much, it
4 was very bad terrain and so forth, but it was passable. So
5 what BLM had done, even before the events of April 12th, had
6 erected a makeshift fence underneath this southbound lane here
7 (indicating), and they it called this post here, this point
8 (indicating), Post 2. That's a horrible 2, but that's the best
9 I can do. So that's -- that was Post 2. And you'll be hearing
10 throughout the course of this trial references to Post 1 and
11 Post 2.

12 And the purpose for -- so, as people began showing up
13 here, BLM had a small group of officers that were standing
14 security down here at Post 2 and as people began flooding into 15 here (indicating) and as Metro pulled into Post 1, more BLM
16 officers came down, drove down the wash to hold Post 2.
17 Ultimately, somewhere during the course of these events,
18 between 25 to 30 law enforcement officers at Post 2.

19 Now, as the people gather, there's a group of people
20 led by Ammon Bundy that go down this area here (indicating) and 21 into the wash and begin to form underneath the bridge of the 22 northbound 15. And recall that Cliven Bundy had said we'll
23 meet at the Toquop Wash. Well, that is where the Toquop Wash
24 was. So people began to gather under the northbound bridge and 25 wait there.

1 Right around close to noon, the horses coming from
2 the Powerline Road I described, start coming up this way
3 (indicating) and they make their way down that road and they,
4 too, come through the wash -- come to the wash. And right
5 around noon, the horses have gathered with the people and as 6 they get here they push out, they push out from underneath that 7 bridge under the northbound into the middle of the area between 8 the two bridges and they form a line here (indicating),
9 opposite the post where -- at Post 2 where the law enforcement
10 officers from BLM are hold -- are conducting security.

11 The evidence will show that as these horses pushed
12 through on this -- underneath that bridge, the defendant --
13 defendants Parker, Stewart, and Drexler get on the bridge.
14 They are -- they are clearly visible from -- by the law
15 enforcement officers. They're up on this bridge. Other people
16 are gathering on the bridge. They are one of the few with guns
17 up on that bridge. And their weapons are visible. They're 18 standing. There's evidence that they're pointing. There will 19 be evidence that they were, you know, carrying their weapons in 20 a menacing fashion.

21 The people in this wash now that have gathered there,
22 they're about 270-plus in number and they're people of all
23 types. There are militia in that -- in the wash. There are 24 people with guns. There are protestors in the wash, people
25 with signs, people yelling and screaming, and there are about

1 40 horses in that wash as well. As I said, there are about 270
2 in the wash, probably around 400 total if you count the
3 bridges, both northbound, southbound, because people start
4 gathering on this southbound bridge (indicating) as well, and 5 the northbound (indicating), overlooking BLM's position and 6 then what ensues is just people demanding that -- the people in 7 the wash were demanding the BLM to release the cattle. Said,
8 "Give us the cattle." "Give us the cattle." The people on the 9 bridge were screaming at the law enforcement officers there,
10 saying all manner of things toward them.

11 And this went on from about -- till about 12:00 -- 12 from about 12:00 to about 12:14, 12:15, 12:16, somewhere in 13 there. And it was at that point that this line that formed in 14 the center (indicating) moved forward to where the BLM officers
15 were, just began pressing forward.

16 (Photo displayed.)

17 So here you see -- this is an aerial shot of the line
18 that had formed across the wash. The BLM position -- the 19 makeshift barrier is here (indicating) and the BLM officers are 20 behind that barrier here (indicating) and then they extend up
21 the wash further. You'll see other aerial shots where they 22 essentially have sort of an in-depth position.

23 By 12:18 that line had pushed up, up against that
24 gate and it was at that point that the officers were really
25 struggling because they were vastly outnumbered. They only

1 had, like I said, between 25, 30 officers. There were guns in
2 this crowd. There were horses in the crowd. There were all
3 manner of -- there were women and children in this crowd. The 4 BLM officers didn't know whether they were going to breach that
5 and if they did, how they would deal with the horses, but you
6 will hear testimony throughout -- in the course of the trial
7 that for the officers in the wash, the game changer for them
8 were the guns on the bridge. There was little they could do
9 about that and I'll go into that in a little bit.

10 So as this presses forward, the evidence will show
11 that by this time defendant Lovelien is on the west side
12 portion of that bridge area. Defendants Parker, Stewart, and 13 Drexler go down and take a prone position -- or Parker --
14 excuse me -- Drexler and Parker go down and take a prone
15 position behind the concrete barriers with their weapons aimed
16 at the BLM officers as that line is moving forward.

17 Now, while all this was going down in the wash,
18 Sheriff Lombardo, then Assistant Sheriff Lombardo, was up at 19 Post 1 and he was seeing events unfold at Post 1 and he made
20 the decision that the cattle should be released. You'll hear
21 evidence about how he found Dave Bundy and you will hear
22 references to Bundy's sons, Dave, Ammon, and Ryan, who were
23 also on the ground out here (indicating) at the Toquop Wash;
24 Cliven Bundy remained back at the rally site, and it was 25 Ammon Bundy leading this group down here in the wash

1 (indicating), Ryan Bundy and Dave Bundy up near Post 1 and the
2 sheriff found Dave Bundy and attempted to negotiate with him
3 and it became very clear to the sheriff that what everybody
4 wanted was the cattle and the sheriff assessed the situation,
5 saw the number of guns, saw the number of people, saw what
6 resources they had, saw that they were outmanned, saw that they
7 were outgunned and he decided that the cattle should be
8 released. So once the decision was made to release the cattle,
9 the BLM officers down in the wash backed away from the gate.

10 So, from about -- at around 12:40 the BLM begins to 11 push back. By 2 o'clock the BLM left the ICP altogether.
12 They -- all of their personnel packed up what they could grab,
13 loaded them in their vehicles, and left because of the demands
14 of the Bundy -- of the Bundys that they leave the area.

15 By 3 o'clock the pens were opened and the cattle were 16 released. And everybody rejoiced and said that the west had 17 now been won (indicating).

18 After -- after this event, after the BLM had backed
19 away from the gate, defendant Parker was interviewed by a
20 reporter. He said this needs to happen again. Get on a
21 bridge, show force.

22 So that, in a nutshell, is what we anticipate the 23 evidence will show in terms of sort of the chronology of events
24 that occurred on April the 12th, how these things unfolded.

25 Now, I would like, the third part of this, to shift

1 gears again on you and go back to the charges in this case and
2 then summarize for you the evidence that we anticipate
3 presenting in support of those charges.

4 Now, as I said, you know, a lot of the lead-up and
5 the build-up and all that is helpful to provide context, but 6 the focus of this case really is between 12:00 and 12:40,
7 approximately, while the BLM is in their position at Post 2 and
8 these defendants are on the bridge and the people in the wash
9 are making their move forward -- line up and then make their 10 move forward.

11 First, as the judge explained, the charges are 12 contained in something called an Indictment which is really 13 just a fancy word for the charging document in this case. And 14 as I've already listed them for you, but I want to talk a 15 little bit about each one of these and walk you through some of 16 the evidence that we anticipate that will be presented.

17 First of all, assault with a federal officer, we will
18 prove to you that the officers in the wash that day were duly 19 sworn law enforcement officers, serving with the BLM and the 20 National Park Service. We will show that they were there
21 executing federal court orders to remove the trespassed cattle
22 belonging to Cliven Bundy from the public lands.

23 We will show that these defendants, by their conduct
24 on that bridge, instilled fear of bodily injury or death on 25 these officers. The officers that were at Post 2, the officers

1 that were there performing their duties of guarding Post 2 to
2 protect against any intruders into that area. After all,
3 they're there protecting not only the cattle, which are -- you
4 know, can be dangerous if let loose in any event, but also
5 there's a lot of equipment and civilian personnel that are
6 there as well. So the cops are doing their jobs what they do;
7 they guard and protect people and property. That's what they
8 were doing at Post 2.

9 You'll hear testimony from the officers that as that
10 crowd in the wash formed, they observed people with long guns
11 on the bridges. They will describe what these defendants were 12 wearing, their positions on the bridge, how they moved, how 13 they appeared to be working together, and that they brandished
14 their weapons and pointed their weapons at them.

15 They could see the individuals who are now identified
16 as Lovelien, Parker, Drexler, and Steward with their weapons
17 visible, menacing and threatening.

18 You will hear the officers say that the weapons on 19 the bridge were the game changer for them. They did not know
20 how to deal with the hundreds of people advancing on them in 21 the wash when there were guns on the bridge as well as there're
22 guns in the wash as well.

23 You'll hear officers testify that they thought they 24 would die that day because of the -- their position. They were 25 on low ground, as you can see. They were exposed. They were

1 unable to defend themselves for fear that a shot would spark a
2 firefight and they'd -- ignite a fire fight I should say, and
3 that unarmed men, women, and children might be killed or 4 injured as a result.

5 We will show that these defendants intended to use
6 their weapons to instill fear into the officers and we will
7 present for you a detailed timeline showing images captured
8 from a number of different sources.

9 Now, in the modern era we live in we think of things
10 being caught on video. Almost every moment of our lives,
11 there's a surveillance camera somewhere capturing some images
12 or sounds involving our day-to-day activities, but there were 13 no surveillance cameras out there in the traditional sense.
14 But there was an FBI surveillance plane that had been 15 dispatched to the area once it was -- once the -- it was 16 determined that Mr. Bundy had sent these people off to gather
17 his cattle. And so you'll be seeing a great -- some 18 surveillance video, but those were from several thousand feet
19 in the air and the images are good, but they're not necessarily 20 all that detailed, although we will present images for you that 21 have an incredible amount of detail. So, we have the aerial 22 surveillance that provides us a basis for the timeline, but we 23 also have a great deal of photographs and video that were 24 captured by conventional media, alternative media, people that 25 were there as bystanders or were involved in the events that

1 were capturing images and sounds with their -- with their
2 smartphones or with other devices.

3 You'll also see a great deal of images captured and
4 downloaded from social media from various individual's Facebook
5 pages and so forth.

6 So, by marrying up the images we've been able to 7 capture, we'll be able to set forth for you a very detailed
8 timeline as to when the defendants were on the bridge, what 9 they were doing at certain times in relationship to what was
10 going on in the wash.

11 So one of the key aspects of an assault on a federal 12 officer is proving intent, so we anticipate that we will prove 13 the intent by the actions of these individuals on the -- on the 14 bridge. The timeline will show you their positions; they will
15 show -- they will show you that Lovelien and another individual
16 by the name of Todd Engel occupied the west portion of the -- 17 of that bridge, not on the bridge, but off the bridge; that he 18 occupied -- there was a state trooper there on that end of the 19 bridge who had arrived on the scene trying to sort things out
20 and figure out what was going on -- what was going on.

21 Lovelien and Engel occupied that officer's time, Lovelien,
22 carrying his rifle and patrolling that end of the bridge.

23 We will show you as the horses pushed through into 24 the wash that Parker, Stewart, and Drexler were on the bridge
25 and that they had a clear line of sight toward the officers

1 guarding the gate, that they made their presence known to the 2 officers and their weapons visible. We will show that as the
3 crowd in the wash pushed forward, Parker went into a prone
4 position; that he had a Saiga semiautomatic rifle; that that
5 rifle had the clip in it; that he was aiming at officers
6 through a gap in the barrier on the northbound 15, his finger
7 near the trigger, his eyes peering through the sights, his
8 magazine in, his bolt forward. He was in the firing position.

9 We'll show that as that line pushed forward to the --
10 to the gate, Drexler changed his position from crouched behind
11 the barrier, moving from behind the barrier to Parker's left to 12 a gap in the barrier to Parker's right (indicating), where he,
13 too, took a firing prone position with his rifle, his weapon
14 pointed at the officers, his hand on the pistol grip, head and 15 eyes in the position to sight the weapon showing that he, too,
16 was prepared to fire the weapon.

17 We will show defendant Stewart taking different
18 positions on the bridge, brandishing his weapon, making it
19 visible to the officers in the wash (indicating). We will show
20 that once on the bridge, the defendants stayed there the entire 21 time until well after the BLM officers withdrew from that --
22 from their position.

23 But we intend not only to present evidence of the 24 intent by the actions of the defendants on the bridge, but we
25 also will show you that at least six months before Bundy Ranch

1 that some of these defendants had already formulated in their
2 mind that they wanted to have a confrontation with the federal
3 government. So we'll say -- so we intend to show you not only
4 their intent by what they said and did on that bridge, but what
5 they said and did before they ever got to Bunkerville and 6 before they ever went on that bridge.

7 So we will show you that at least six months before
8 Bundy Ranch Parker claimed that he had had enough; that he 9 began training with weapons and preparing for "a failure of the 10 government"; that he saw his opportunity to put his training to 11 use and that Bundy Ranch represented the time to take a stand.

12 We will show you that he learned that militia were 13 being called to Bundy Ranch and that he answered that call. We 14 will show you a Facebook communication that show that Parker
15 anticipated there would be shooting before he even went to 16 Bundy Ranch.

17 The evidence will show that he gathered his friends,
18 Stewart and Drexler, and together they drove to Bundy Ranch
19 with their rifles and ammunitions and body armor.

20 The evidence will show that when we got to Bundy
21 Ranch -- Parker, Drexler, Stewart -- that they identified with 22 the militia, that they went to the militia camp and they began
23 standing security details. We will show that there they met
24 with defendant Rick Lovelien who was the head of security.

25 We will prove that all the defendants were present

1 and heard the sheriff and Cliven's speeches -- Cliven Bundy's
2 speeches. We will show that they were present when the sheriff
3 did not return and they were present when they heard Bundy tell
4 the crowd go get his cattle. We will show that after Bundy
5 spoke, defendant Parker posted almost contemporaneously on his 6 Facebook page that the sheriff did not come back and that they
7 were going to free the cattle by any means, that they would not
8 be lied to.

9 We'll show that they left that rally site and got
10 their rifles and their ammunition and they drove to that 11 bridge, and that they drove with Lovelien, they drove together,
12 and they drove there armed.

13 After the BLM backed away, we will show you that 14 these defendants rejoiced, they glorified in it. They said
15 that it needs to happen again.

16 Now let me talk a little bit about the charges of the 17 threats, obstruction of justice, extortion, use and carry of a
18 firearm. These are all very closely related to the charge of 19 assault with a federal officer.

20 Unlike an assault on a federal officer where the 21 Government must show that the officers actually apprehended
22 fear, or that a reasonable officer in those circumstances would 23 apprehend fear, here we must show that the defendant intended
24 to communicate a threat, and the threat -- a threat can be by 25 words or conduct. In this case, we will demonstrate the

1 conduct of those defendants on that bridge was intended to
2 communicate a threat.

3 We will show that any reasonable person looking at 4 the images that you will see and the -- hearing the testimony
5 that you will hear would interpret, or would foresee, that this
6 type of conduct would be interpreted by the BLM as a threat.

7 Extortion requires that force and violence be used in 8 an attempt to obtain property from another. We anticipate the 9 evidence will show that the cattle were in the possession of 10 the BLM; that these defendants were part of a show of force, a
11 show of force in the wash, a show of force up at Post 1, a show
12 of force from that bridge, they were all part of the -- all
13 part of this massive, massive assault, massive show of force;
14 that that show of force and violence was for the purpose of 15 releasing the cattle. And while the cattle may not have meant
16 too much to these defendants individually, it was symbolic of 17 what they came for in the first place, to back down the 18 government. So, the BLM, the cattle released because of the 19 amount of force and therefore, that fulfills the extortion
20 element of this case.

21 Interstate Travel in Aid of Extortion. This count
22 alleges that the defendants traveled in interstate commerce or 23 used to facilitate in interstate commerce in the aid of 24 extortion and we will show the travel of these defendants from 25 Montana in the case of defendant Lovelien and Idaho in the case

1 of Parker, Drexler, and Stewart.

2 The Obstruction of Justice, you will see the evidence
3 of the court orders. That is the basis, the gravamen of the 4 Obstruction of Justice charge. The evidence will show that
5 through the use of force and violence the BLM could not 6 execute, complete -- completely execute those orders. Those
7 orders, as you will see and you will have evidence of them,
8 said to remove the cattle from the public lands. The public --
9 the cattle were released, they were put back on the public
10 lands. The gather had been stopped. So they were -- the 11 execution of those orders had been impeded, thwarted, and 12 obstructed by the force and violence displayed by the 13 defendants.

14 Now, aiding and abetting, aiding and abetting is 15 simply to help, to incite, to encourage another to commit a
16 crime. We anticipate there will be evidence of aiding and 17 abetting in this case as well. We will show that Lovelien
18 aided and abetted Parker and Stewart and Drexler by driving
19 them to the I -- ICP from the rally site. We will prove that 20 Stewart helped Parker by acting as his spotter and getting him
21 a backpack to help brace his arm and improve his firing
22 position from behind that barrier.

23 Then we will present other evidence of how they
24 assisted and encouraged one another just by their presence.
25 They reinforced each other. Lovelien occupying the time of the

1 state trooper on the west end of the bridge. Parker and
2 Drexler moving together. All that works together to help to
3 encourage each other and -- and incite each other.

4 Conspiracy. As I said before, a conspiracy is simply
5 a fancy term for an agreement to do something unlawful. And we
6 anticipate that the Court, at the close of this evidence, will
7 instruct you don't necessarily need a written agreement to form
8 a conspiracy; it can be simply an understanding, a wink and a
9 nod.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, objection. Arguing the 11 law.

12 THE COURT: It's a correct statement of the law.
13 You may proceed. Overruled.

14 MR. MYHRE: But in this case, we actually have a
15 writing. We have the objectives that were put out by OMA that 16 you will see. And so the basic agreement here, the conspiracy
17 began with Payne and Cliven Bundy agreeing that they would 18 bring force and violence to Bundy Ranch; that they would bring 19 militia; and that their intent was to use the militia to 20 display force to get the BLM to back down. Now, once -- once a
21 conspiracy is formed, others can join the conspiracy
22 downstream. It's not necessary that every person in the 23 conspiracy be there for the very inception of it, the very 24 beginning of it, sitting in the back room with somebody and 25 talk about it. They can join by simply knowing what the

1 objectives of that conspiracy are and acting in a way to intend
2 to advance those objectives.

3 So we have the basic e-mail; we have the objectives.
4 And we will show that through the Facebook postings and through
5 other evidence that Lovelien became linked to Payne almost from 6 the very moment he met Cliven Bundy. And when he became linked
7 to Payne, he advanced -- he knew of the objectives because he 8 received the objectives from Payne, and he helped advance those 9 objectives by recruiting militia, by helping to coordinate
10 militia, by helping to recruit others to come to Bundy Ranch,
11 and by participating in the very events of April the 12th
12 themselves. That, we anticipate, will be the evidence to prove 13 how Lovelien not only joined the conspiracy, but advanced the 14 objectives of the conspiracy.

15 Similarly, we will show that Parker, Drexler, and 16 Stewart, likewise, answered the call to arms that were part of 17 the conspiracy; that is, to bring people to Bundy Ranch; that
18 before they left for Bundy Ranch, they knew that the militia
19 were called and that they knew there may be shooting. Now,
20 they may not have known --

21 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Misstates the evidence.

22 THE COURT: There's no evidence yet; it's what the 23 Government hopes to prove. Opening statement.

24 Overruled.

25 MR. MYHRE: So the evidence, we anticipate, will show

1 that while there will be no evidence to say that Parker,
2 Drexler, and Stewart knew precisely what they would be doing
3 when they got to Bundy Ranch, they knew broadly that there was
4 a confrontation brewing with the BLM between Bundy and the BLM,
5 and once they got to Bundy Ranch, once they heard the speech by 6 the sheriff, once they heard Cliven Bundy's response to the 7 sheriff, once they heard Cliven Bundy say go get the cattle,
8 then they knew, at that point, the evidence will show, what the 9 objective of the conspiracy was, to get the cattle, to back
10 down the BLM.

11 So we anticipate the evidence will show that Drexler,
12 Parker, and Stewart joined the conspiracy -- the conspiracy,
13 the broader conspiracy being Bundy, Payne, militia -- they join
14 as part of that when they get to Bundy Ranch. They join and 15 advance the objectives of that conspiracy when they decide -- 16 when they make the decision they're going from that stage up to 17 the ICP with their guns.

18 Now, all of that is -- you'll -- you'll be instructed 19 at the end -- close of evidence about conspirator liability and 20 the significance of the conspiracy is that each member of a
21 conspiracy is responsible for the -- those events or that 22 part -- excuse me -- for conduct that occurs as part of that 23 unlawful agreement that is reasonably foreseeable in the 24 natural probable consequence of the conspiracy. So the 25 evidence will show that, as a probable consequence of this

1 agreement, was the assault on the federal officer, was the
2 extortion of the cattle, was the obstruction of justice, was
3 the travel in interstate commerce, was the use of the Internet
4 to help achieve the extortion.

5 And we believe the evidence will show that once it --
6 those events were part of the conspiracy, that Lovelien, now as
7 a member of that conspiracy, was responsible for Parker's
8 actions; Parker's responsible for Lovelien; Stewart's
9 responsible for Drexler; Drexler's responsible for everyone.
10 Everybody in the conspiracy is responsible for everybody else's
11 actions, and that's the significance of a conspiracy, that's 12 the significance of conspiracy liability or co-conspirator
13 liability, if you will.

14 But there's another conspiracy alleged as well, and 15 that's the conspiracy to impede or injure a federal officer.
16 And here we will show -- we anticipate the evidence will show
17 that by their actions, these defendants formed an understanding
18 as to why they were on that bridge, that they were there to 19 impede, to thwart, and stop those federal officers from 20 engaging in that conduct -- excuse me -- in engaging in 21 enforcing the court orders. We will show that, as with the 22 evidence that we intend to introduce with respect to the other
23 conspiracy, that these thoughts were formed well before they
24 got to Bundy Ranch, that these thoughts were formed that there
25 was going to be a confrontation with BLM, that they were there

1 to back them down.

2 So the evidence for the conspiracy to impede or
3 interfere, which is we'll sometimes refer to as a 372
4 conspiracy under 18 -- Title 18, United States Code, 372, is 5 identical to the other conspiracy, which is a conspiracy to
6 commit a federal offense, which is incidentally, a 371
7 conspiracy, Title 18, United States Code, Section 371. Those
8 two conspiracies are very closely related. The difference
9 being, in the case here, is that the conspiracy to impede or 10 injure a federal officer is an agreement simply to prevent by 11 force, intimidation, or threats, any federal officer from 12 discharging their duties or by force, intimidation or threats,
13 induce them to leave the place of their duties. So it's --
14 it's a little separate, very closely related, but a little bit
15 different because in a 372 conspiracy, we're focused more on 16 intimidation, threats, and force to stop specifically an 17 officer from discharging their duties.

18 The evidence will show that after Bundy Ranch, after 19 the events on that bridge on April 12th -- we've already talked
20 about the evidence showing what Parker said, but it goes beyond
21 that. The evidence will show that the defendants continued to 22 threaten, even after Bunkerville. You'll see that they
23 glorified it. For Stewart, Parker, and Drexler, this event
24 became a blueprint or a model for future confrontations. The 25 evidence will show how Parker, Stewart, and Drexler joined a

1 militia group after Bundy Ranch and how defendant Lovelien
2 asked how he could become more involved in OMA. You'll hear
3 how Parker and Drexler used their status at Bundy Ranch to 4 participate in other confrontations and to threaten force.

5 Now, I've covered a lot of ground in a very short
6 time with you and I know it, at times, may seem like trying to 7 take a drink from a fire hydrant and that's just natural
8 because you haven't heard any of the evidence yet, but my 9 purpose in going through this with you now was so that as the 10 evidence comes in through that witness stand, hopefully you'll 11 have, at least, some broad outline of the Government's case
12 that you can begin to hang these pieces of evidence in the 13 various categories of where they go.

14 As I said at the outset, we'll be back up here at the 15 close of the evidence and we will cover each of the elements of 16 the offenses again with you and again, we will go over the 17 evidence that the Court will have admitted during the course of 18 the trial during these days and weeks ahead of us, but 19 ultimately, ladies and gentlemen, this is really very -- a very 20 simple case. There are a lot of different things going on,
21 there are a lot of different -- you'll hear, you know, a lot of 22 different witnesses, you'll see a lot of video, you'll see a
23 lot of Facebook postings, but, at base, this really is about 24 these defendants during about that 40-minute window that I
25 talked about.

1 The evidence will show that these men did not end up
2 on that bridge by accident; they were there for a purpose.
3 They were there to back down the BLM. They were there for no
4 other purpose. We ask that as you hear and see the evidence
5 come in during the trial, that you use your common sense and 6 everyday experience and ask yourself whether any of this
7 conduct is consistent with anything other than the threatened
8 use of force and violence to get one's way.

9 Ultimately, this case is about the rule of law. This
10 is a case about people taking the law into their own hands.
11 This is a case about people becoming the law, using the working 12 end of a rifle barrel. It is about what those men did on that
13 bridge on April the 12th, it is about whether the evidence
14 shows beyond a reasonable doubt and that whether the Government
15 has proven, under the law, as the Court gives you the law, that 16 these defendants assaulted, threatened, extorted, obstructed
17 justice, conspired and agreed do all of those things. It is 18 about the intent of these defendants on that bridge.

19 At the close of the evidence we will return and we 20 will ask that you return a verdict of guilty on all counts
21 against all the defendants.

22 Thank you.

23 Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Myhre.

25 It's 11:05, so let's take about a 15-minute break and

1 be back here at 11:20 so we can give the defense an opportunity
2 to set up and we'll all take a stretch/bathroom break.

3 First we stand for the jury so they can leave first.

4 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

5 THE COURT: All right. We're in recess.

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Off record.

7 (Recess was taken at 11:06 a.m.)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 THE COURT: You may be seated.

10 We'll bring in the jury.

11 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

13 (Jury returned to courtroom at 11:35 a.m.)

14 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

15 Everyone else may be seated as well.

16 We're back on the record.

17 Does the defense wish to make an openings statement?

18 Mr. Perez, go ahead wherever you're ready, sir.

19 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen,

20 Your Honor, counsel.

21 My name is Shawn Perez and I represent

22 Ricky Lovelien. He's the gentleman seated in the last row back
23 there (indicating) in the black shirt.

24 Now, what I say right now and what Mr. Myhre said
25 earlier and, as well as my colleagues behind me, none of this

1 is evidence. This is our way of giving you a road map of what
2 you're about to see. So, with that being said . . . we are
3 getting feedback.

4 The evidence will show that on April 12th, 2014, 400,
5 give or take, people showed up in Bunkerville, many of them had
6 guns, many of them did not. Now, the evidence will show that 7 not a shot was fired, not a rock was thrown, not a bottle was 8 thrown. No one was hurt. No one was arrested that day, and 9 everybody went home.

10 Now, the evidence will also show you that on 11 April 11th, the night before, that the BLM had already made a
12 decision to leave. So -- and I believe the evidence will show
13 you that it was early in the evening. So, it was not on the 14 12th when they made this decision, it was the night before.

15 Now, among the evidence that you will see and hear,
16 you will see Facebook posts. You'll see some that were posted
17 by Mr. Lovelien. You'll see some that were reposted. You'll 18 see some "likes" and some "dislikes" and some that he didn't
19 respond to at all.

20 Now, it's no secret Mr. Lovelien is a member of the 21 Montana State Defense Force. It's a militia group. Evidence
22 will show that he was a member back in 2013, 2014, and that the 23 Montana State Defense Force is essentially a citizen group.
24 They're a state guard. They perform all sorts of functions,
25 not necessarily combat functioning. They do search and rescue

1 and other civic duties like that. You'll see a post by Mr.
2 Lovelien giving the mission statement, if you will, of the
3 Montana State Defense Force and you'll see a post just before
4 the Bunkerville incident in which Mr. Lovelien says the
5 militia -- the purpose of the militia in going to Bunkerville
6 is not to create violence, but it's to prevent it.

7 So, I mean, there's -- now, Mr. Lovelien did not know
8 Mr. Parker, Mr. Stewart, or Mr. Drexler. They actually met
9 when the other three gentlemen jumped in the back of his truck
10 and they drove to the bridge area or the parking area. At that 11 time they didn't even know his name, you'll find that out.

12 Now, the bridge area where they arrived is southwest
13 of the wash and where everything took place, you'll see, it's 14 generally over the wash.

15 Now, one of the things that's really important is 16 that the evidence will show you that Mr. Lovelien never went 17 into the wash. He never was on the bridge; he was well to the 18 south. You'll see a video, and I believe there was a still in 19 Mr. Myhre's opening statement, of Mr. Lovelien sauntering over
20 to what's called a Jersey barrier, it's the concrete barriers
21 that abut the interstate. Now, this is approximately 12:30 in 22 the afternoon. Mr. Lovelien goes to the Jersey barrier, he 23 sits down, takes a bottle of water out of his pants, drinks the 24 water and makes a phone call.

25 The evidence will show that that phone call lasted

1 four minutes and that phone call was to his sister. That's
2 about as close as you're going to see him get to that Toquop
3 Wash. No closer.

4 Now, the evidence will show that Mr. Lovelien had a
5 gun, a long gun on his shoulder. It's a distinctive gun. It's
6 got a skull. It's readily identifiable. I don't think there
7 will be any question in your mind that he had that gun, but
8 you'll never see a picture of Mr. Lovelien with that gun
9 anywhere other than on his shoulder, barrel down. He never
10 takes that gun off his shoulder and moves it into a ready
11 position. It's . . . He doesn't aim it at anybody. There's 12 no video, no photos, nothing to suggest that he ever pointed a
13 weapon at anyone.

14 Now, and this -- you'll learn -- there's going to be
15 a half -- well, approximately a half a million documents,
16 photos and of that, there's perhaps eight photographs of 17 Mr. Lovelien and I believe you saw them all in Mr. Myhre's
18 opening statement.

19 Mr. Lovelien did travel from Montana. I don't think
20 that the evidence will show you that he traveled from Montana
21 to Nevada to engage with Mr. Bundy, or Mr. Ryan [sic], because 22 you're not going see any evidence of Mr. Lovelien ever meeting
23 Mr. Bundy. There's no conversations with Mr. Bundy. There's a
24 brief Facebook post with Payne. You know, where do I go. And 25 that's about all you're going to see.

1 Now, at the end -- we'll be able to come back at the
2 end of this case and we'll discuss the evidence and we'll be
3 able to argue those facts. Now, all I can do is tell you this
4 is what you'll see or what you won't see, but I think that
5 after you've viewed all the evidence in this case, you'll leave
6 with a firm conviction that you have to return a verdict of not
7 guilty as to Mr. Lovelien.

8 Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Perez.

10 Mr. Tanasi.

11 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 The Court's indulgence while I set up here for a
13 moment.

14 THE COURT: Of course.

15 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

16 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

17 MR. TANASI: May it please the Court, counsel for the 18 Government, fellow defense counsel, good morning, ladies and 19 gentlemen. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart
20 (indicating).

21 This case, folks, this case is about standing up for 22 what you believe in. Nothing more and nothing less.

23 The evidence in this case, folks, is going to show
24 that's exactly what happened in Bunkerville on April 12th, 25 2014. A group of individuals protesting. Protesting the

1 United States government.

2 Now, what you've heard so far from the Government,
3 good lawyers from the Government, is an opening statement. An
4 opening statement, as Mr. Perez mentioned, it isn't evidence.
5 Okay? Evidence, folks, is what comes in this courtroom through 6 witnesses who sit on that witness stand (indicating), the 7 documents, it's the videos, it's the pictures, it's what you
8 see throughout the course of the case. It's not what you've 9 seen so far.

10 So far what you've been seeing and what you've been
11 told are promises. Promises as to what the evidence will show.
12 Folks, your job is to determine that.

13 In this case, ladies and gentlemen, what you'll see
14 is that Steven Stewart, a hard-working family man from Idaho, a
15 meat cutter, he traveled 12 hours with his friends, Eric Parker
16 and Scott Drexler, to stand up for what they believed in.

17 Now, they didn't drive with Ricky Lovelien. It's 18 because they didn't know him. They didn't know him.

19 Now, we've heard a lot about conspiracies and plans,
20 and folks, yes, there was a plan in this case. To protest. To 21 stand up to the United States government. That, ladies and 22 gentlemen, is what the evidence will show occurred in this
23 case.

24 And, folks, they were armed. They had weapons. And 25 as you've heard the charges in this case, they're not charged

1 with simply having weapons. So what that means, ladies and
2 gentlemen, is that the evidence will show that they're not on
3 trial for simply having weapons. Having weapons were nothing
4 -- was not wrong in this case. That's what the evidence will
5 show.

6 Now, two key dates that have kind of already been
7 mentioned, April 11th and April 12th. The evidence is going to 8 flesh out why those are important and I'll tell you folks again
9 a little bit based on what you've heard already.

10 The key component or the key part about what the 11 evidence will show with respect to April 11th, 2014, is that 12 the BLM's operation was over. They were ceasing operations on 13 the 11th, before Steven Stewart, Eric Parker, Scott Drexler
14 even arrived in Bunkerville. That's what the evidence will 15 show.

16 On the 12th, after the operation was ceased, you'll 17 learn that Steven Stewart, Eric Parker, and Scott Drexler, they 18 attended a speech, a rally, a protest, and they heard from 19 Cliven Bundy and they heard from Sheriff Gillespie, and you're 20 going to hear it, too. What the evidence will show is that 21 Sheriff Gillespie, he said the BLM was ceasing operations,
22 again, at this rally site before these folks were even on that
23 bridge. That's what the evidence will show.

24 You're going to learn that Steven Stewart believed
25 that the operation was over and that he left this rally to go

1 watch the cows come home, to watch the cows run free through
2 that wash from the bridge. That's what the evidence is going
3 to show, folks.

4 Except when he got there, confusion set in. Here he
5 is, or gets to this bridge, you'll learn, and this is what he
6 sees (indicating). The BLM, law enforcement dressed up like
7 Army men.

8 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. TANASI: Confusion, ladies and gentlemen. That's 11 what he saw. That's what was going on when he got to the 12 bridge and that's what the evidence is going to show.

13 Ladies and gentlemen, Steven Stewart simply stood up
14 to a bully in this case. He protested. That's what the 15 evidence is going to show. This is not a new concept either;
16 it's how America was founded. Benjamin Franklin once said, "We 17 must all hang together or assuredly we'll hang separately."
18 And in this case Steven Stewart, the evidence will show, hung
19 together with his fellow Americans to protest the United States
20 government. And at the end of this case, I will ask all of 21 this to hang together unanimously and return the only verdict
22 in this case, which is not guilty on all counts.

23 Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Tanasi.

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 Mr. Marchese?

2 MR. MARCHESE: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 Mr. Parker will be reserving his opening statement
4 for the opening of the defense's case.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

6 Mr. Leventhal?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Mr. Drexler will also reserve
8 opening.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

10 All right. So, does the Government wish to call its 11 first witness or do you want to go ahead and take a lunch
12 break?

13 MR. MYHRE: A lunch break would be preferable,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. So we'll go ahead and take a 16 lunch break till 12 o'clock -- well, it is 12 o'clock -- until 17 1:00 p.m. -- or 1:30? When will your -- 1:30?

18 MR. MYHRE: Perhaps 1:30, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. So let's say 1:30. So we'll 20 plan to start back at 1:30 and then take a rest room break at
21 around 3:00, 3:30.

22 Please remember, you can raise your hands at any time
23 that you need a stretch break or a bathroom break and I'll take 24 one, but we'll try to plan it at around 3:00 or 3:30.

25 So during this lunch break the jury is admonished

1 that they are not to discuss this case with each other nor
2 permit anyone to discuss it with you. You can speak to your
3 fellow jurors during lunch about other things, just not about
4 this case.

5 You are not to read or listen to or view anything
6 touching about this case in any way nor attempt to perform any
7 research or any independent investigation.

8 Please feel free to bring those question forms back
9 with you into court when you come back at 1:30 so that you have 10 the forms with you and you can write down any questions that 11 you have.

12 And please do not form any opinion until after you
13 have heard all of the evidence.

14 So we'll go ahead and stand up for the jury and 15 welcome them back at 1:30.

16 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

17 THE COURT: Off record.

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Off record.

19 (Recess was taken at 11:51 a.m.)

20 (Outside the presence of the jury at 1:41 p.m.:)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

23 All right. I think everyone's back. Let's go ahead
24 and bring in the jury.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, before we bring in the

1 jury, I -- there was some confusion between us. I know that
2 last time we had kept two -- two -- we reserved two openings
3 and now that we have less I think one opening would suffice.
4 Would it be okay with the Court if I did a 15-minute opening
5 or -- or -- because I reserved it, does the Court want me to 6 wait until the end?

7 I'm asking to do an opening.

8 THE COURT: You want to both give an opening now and 9 reserve it for later?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You have to choose one or the other.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. No. I apologize.

13 Mr. Marchese is going to reserve his; I would like to 14 do mine now, though. I know I said I would, but I think it
15 would be -- we had -- we reserved two last time and sort of -- 16 I think it's overkill on this one. So I would like to do my 17 opening now, take about 15 minutes, if that's okay with the 18 Court.

19 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to that?

20 MR. MYHRE: No objection, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. We'll go ahead and bring in 22 the jury and we'll -- I'll explain to them you're going to go
23 ahead and exercise your right.

24 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

1 (Jury returned to courtroom at 1:45 p.m..)

2 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated and
3 everyone else may be seated.

4 All right. So we're back on the record and we're
5 going to call our first witness. However, Mr. Leventhal, who
6 represents Mr. Drexler, informed me that rather than waiving --
7 or not waiving, but reserving his opening statement until 8 later, they'd like to go ahead and give it now.

9 So you may go ahead and do so.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 Thank you, Judge.

12 May it please the Court, counsel, ladies and
13 gentlemen, my name is Todd Leventhal and I represent 14 Scott Drexler back here (indicating). And if you take a look
15 real quick at the four defendants, you're going to see
16 Mr. Parker (indicating), Mr. Stewart (indicating), Mr. Lovelien
17 (indicating) and Mr. Drexler (indicating). And what you don't 18 see in this case is a Bundy. There are no Bundys sitting
19 behind me. This is not a Bundy trial.

20 What I'd like you to do, the way I look at this case,
21 if you compartmentalize this into three groups; Bundys, the 22 so-called militia, and then you've got these gentlemen
23 (indicating).

24 Now, the Bundys, as you heard from the Government,
25 had some 20-year history with the federal government on grazing

1 rights. They didn't pay their fees, and you'll hear all that.
2 But realistically, not one of these gentlemen knew anything
3 about that. You will not hear any evidence that will show that
4 they knew anything about this long 20-year battle that Cliven
5 or his family had with the federal government.

6 The Bundys' goal in all this was to get their cows.
7 I think each one of these groups had a goal.

8 The second group I see is the militia. And as 9 Mr. Myhre indicated, Mr. Drexler was not in any group on 10 April 12th, 2014. He was not involved in any militia. You
11 will see nothing about that.

12 That's important because on April 12th, 2014, the 13 militia also went out there and you saw -- Mr. Myhre showed you
14 a -- an e-mail from an Operation Mutual Aid.

15 (Photo displayed.)

16 Mr. Myhre showed you this e-mail and told you that 17 this came from Operation Mutual Aid, which was the militia --
18 or the Bundys calling the militia, calling everybody in. And 19 what I want you to pay close attention to when you look at all
20 of these e-mails, you will never, not once, see that 21 Mr. Drexler received it. He didn't get the memo. He was not
22 involved. He didn't know about it. You will not see once. I
23 want you to take a look. You're going to see a lot of e-mails,
24 a lot of Facebooks. Take a look to see whether or not he was 25 ever on anybody's list. You won't find it.

1 Then you've got Mr. Drexler, a protestor. A
2 protestor who went down to protest. Protest certain things
3 that were happening. What he was viewing prior to the 12th --
4 Mr. Myhre talked about the backstory. There is a backstory.
5 There's another backstory. Mr. Drexler saw images and videos
6 that shocked his conscience that was his reason for coming from 7 Idaho all the way down to a little town called Bunkerville. He 8 had never been there, didn't know anybody else other than the 9 people he was traveling with, but he went. It was what he saw
10 that made him go down there. But there was no plan, there was 11 no organization, there was nothing to suggest that he was 12 acting in conformity with a conspiracy at all. And I can tell
13 you he didn't -- definitely didn't come down here for cows. He 14 didn't care about cows. It's not what he cared about. It was 15 something much deeper, much more, that brought many people into
16 a small town called Bunkerville

17 Fast-forward to April 12th, 2014. Scott Drexler got 18 here in Bunkerville that morning. He had not even been here
19 for a day. So he's -- he's here. He then hears a speech. And 20 you're going to hear the speech and Mr. Myhre already spoke to 21 you a little bit about the speech. In that speech the sheriff,
22 then acting Sheriff Gillespie, got on stage and made some 23 remarks. And what he said specifically was this: He said, BLM
24 is ceasing operations. He says, the Gold Butte, which is that 25 area out there, is now open. He also says that BLM is removing

1 their assets from Clark County

2 Well, the net effect of that is most people, many
3 people, I think pretty much everybody, Mr. Drexler included and
4 the evidence will show, thought that that's -- those words
5 meant exactly what they meant and said, that it's over. It's 6 done.

7 But, apparently it wasn't done, but that wasn't told
8 to everybody out there. So, when you listen to the speech, ask
9 yourself, is this clear? What would the -- what would my
10 intent, or if I hear -- what would I listen -- what would I
11 hear? When I hear this speech, what would I think is 12 happening? What was meant by it?

13 You're going to hear that after that, Cliven Bundy
14 got up and he also made a speech. It's crazy. It's a crazy
15 speech. We all agree with "it's crazy." But to put 16 Mr. Cliven's [sic] words into the mouth of my client without 17 more does not get him involved in any conspiracy. My client
18 believed and heard that this thing was over with on April 12th
19 at that meeting

20 Now, after that speech, everybody drove to the rally,
21 and you heard, to see the cows sort of be released. Because,
22 something to do, I guess, in Bunkerville. And Cliven said,
23 listen, we're got to close down the bridge, because we need
24 safety. You're going to hear him say it, we need safety. Why
25 does he say safety? Because you got a lot of cars going over

1 this freeway, you got a lot of cows coming through, and a lot
2 of people out there. So what they had planned on doing for 3 safety reasons, safety reasons only was to close down the 4 bridge so when the cows came through under that underpass that
5 you saw, it would be safe for everybody. The protestors,
6 however, got there first and you're going to see, it's a group
7 of protestors that actually end up underneath the north bridge.
8 They sort of walked and they crawled around and got there. We 9 call this sort of the prayer group because they knelt down and 10 they prayed, and I show you a picture of the prayer group that 11 you'll see in evidence.

12 (Photo displayed.)

13 The evidence will show that this group was actually 14 the first to arrive, these people right here (indicating)

15 You've got right above them is the northbound bridge.
16 Off to the side, way back here (indicating), that's where BLM
17 sits.

18 So, they're there. They're praying. And what I want
19 you to really look at when there's testimony is you'll notice
20 that there's nobody on top of this bridge (indicating), on the 21 sides of this bridge (indicating). There's nobody there.
22 Nobody. There's nobody with a gun up there. There's nobody
23 with signs up there. There's no plan. There's no
24 organization. Complete chaos. These people showed up to 25 get -- thinking that the cows were being returned and nobody's

1 around.

2 But, they see this back here (indicating). Those are
3 BLM agents. And you'll see that they were armed.

4 Now, you're going to hear from a witness named
5 David Michael Lynch. He's a reporter. And David Michael Lynch
6 went out and he had his camera. He might even be here. I
7 believe that's Mr. Lynch there in the blue shirt, filming
8 (indicating). He filmed quite a bit out there and a lot of 9 that filming you'll be able to see, but David Michael Lynch
10 went out there into the middle of what you have the protestors
11 and you've got the BLM and he stood right in the middle --

12 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. We're getting 13 into that area.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: This is opening. We plan on calling
15 David Michael Lynch, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: How is this what you believe the evidence
17 will show?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. We plan on calling David 19 Michael Lynch. He's on our subpoena list. He will be here and 20 we will play these videos.

21 THE COURT: And you expect that he will say?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Exactly that. That he went out there
23 and -- I don't know how much you want me to get into. I was 24 about to say what he's going to say. So, that he went out
25 there, he filmed this whole thing, and he went into the middle

1 of the wash and he did what he did and he filmed it and it
2 shows that there's no plan, no organization, no conspiracy.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Well, the first part that you're 4 going to call someone and you expect what they're going to
5 say --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

7 THE COURT: -- is proper opening statement, but the 8 interpretation of what you think that it means sounds more like
9 argument.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. I don't plan on -- 11 I don't plan on giving the jury what I think it means. I'm 12 going to just repeat what he says in the middle while he's in 13 the wash.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 So, objection's overruled.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 Mr. Lynch, this reporter, is going to come in here
18 and testify to you that he walked into the middle of the wash,
19 right here (indicating), and in between the BLM and in between 20 the protestors he asked the BLM agents, "Are you really going 21 to shoot these people?"

22 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor.

23 It's a third party interpretation of what was being 24 observed in the wash. It's covered by the -- we could discuss
25 at sidebar, Your Honor, if you'd like but --

1 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to sidebar then.

2 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

3 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. Steve Myhre
4 speaking.

5 Our objection is, is this falls within the purview of 6 the categories in the Motion in Limine because Mr. Leventhal's
7 getting into what a third party observed BLM's conduct to be in 8 the wash. That is, that he -- "Are you really going to shoot
9 me?" As you recall, Dennis Michael Lynch's testimony from the 10 earlier trial was that he had -- he went out there and said,
11 "Are you going to shoot me?" and he lifted up his shirt and all
12 that. He testified to what he saw in terms of the posture of 13 the BLM with the guns and so forth. So that, we believe,
14 again, it does not go to any cognizable defense. It's on -- it
15 goes to jury nullification because you're talking about BLM
16 conduct.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So how is that not jury
18 nullification?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: So, I read, when I read the -- your 20 order, it says "third party interpretation of how they felt."
21 This is just what he actually said in the middle of the wash,
22 "Are you really going to shoot these people?" It's not a third
23 party -- it doesn't go -- it goes to what he's going to say,
24 that he went out there and he was scared, just like -- just 25 like everybody else and then he also said, "Are you going to

1 shoot these people?" but then he got word back, if you
2 remember, to the protestors and then word got out that they
3 were going to --

4 THE COURT: I remember the facts, but how is it not
5 jury nullification?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it -- it -- Your Honor, at 7 our -- when we're putting on our case, Your Honor has left the 8 door open for us to at least put some weight or forward in 9 terms of defense or self-defense and obviously if they're not 10 going to call him, we are because we've got to get over that 11 hurdle of scintilla or slighter marginal evidence to raise in 12 order for Your Honor to give us the jury instruction. So,
13 while it will be in our -- ours, you've left the door open for 14 that. I'm not trying to nullify the jury.

15 THE COURT: To provide a proffer outside the presence
16 of the jury to determine whether or not the defense is actually 17 something that can be given because at this point it doesn't 18 look like it can be.

19 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I can just add to it a 20 little. This is, in terms of the chaos, right, that -- and 21 this is separate and aside from I think the self-defense
22 component, the state of mind for our clients. Again, they 23 leave the speech and when they arrive in the wash, there's 24 chaos. There's BLM. Dennis Michael Lynch is an example of 25 that chaos. He walks up thinking, are you going to shoot these

1 people? Is that what's going to happen? Understanding that
2 when he left the speech and the rally, that the cows were going
3 to be running through that wash, not BLM there -- being there.

4 And so, I think it also lends itself to that and -- and --

5 THE COURT: See, here's the problem. So say the 6 testimony is he thought that the BLM were wearing the blue
7 shirt; he didn't realize with the shading and the light that it
8 was actually purple and not blue.

9 MR. TANASI: Right.

10 THE COURT: It doesn't matter because it's not legal 11 to shoot someone just because they're wearing blue or if they 12 were wearing purple, it wouldn't, you know -- so, this is what 13 I'm talking about.

14 MR. TANASI: And I don't mean to interrupt you but --

15 THE COURT: I understand what the testimony was last
16 time, so how is it different now? That would be a proffer
17 you'd have to make outside the presence of the jury before I
18 can let you go down that road again.

19 MR. TANASI: I just -- and I think that there's two 20 issues there; there's the self-defense issue and whether or not 21 anybody recognized them as being BLM agents or not and then the 22 other issue is the actual chaos that was going on in the wash
23 and this chaos that was in our clients' mind, which is the 24 state of mind --

25 THE COURT: Chaos is not the element; it's excessive

1 force.

2 MR. TANASI: Understand. And I think that's --
3 that's the point. Excessive force is the issue for 4 self-defense and then that's not what I'm arguing when I say
5 chaos. When I say chaos, I mean my guy's mind is racing and 6 not understanding what's going on when he thinks the cows are
7 coming home and then the BLM is in the wash and they're dressed
8 out. And so, Dennis Michael Lynch is a witness who shares that 9 exact same state of mind and who outlines exactly what 10 happened. So that's -- I think there's two issues that are 11 kind of interwoven together and that's why I keep bringing it
12 up is I think that they're actually -- there's two issues
13 there; one, state of mind, the other, self-defense.

14 THE COURT: It almost sounded like you were going
15 into some kind of mistake of fact defense, but I think
16 that's -- I don't want to put words into your mouth. It
17 doesn't -- it's not a self-defense element and it's not 18 relevant to his state of mind if it's a third party's 19 perception.

20 MR. TANASI: So, again, a lot of it is also 21 objectiveness because you have the reasonable -- you get into 22 the assault on a federal officer, whether their fear was 23 reasonable and then you have the ability to open that up to 24 objectiveness and to what other people were feeling as well.
25 And so I think it's still -- it's more an objective standard.

1 So it's not just another --

2 THE COURT: The objectiveness is whether or not other
3 people believed they were not law enforcement.

4 MR. TANASI: In terms of the self-defense.

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 MR. TANASI: But not -- at least our position is not
7 on -- in terms of the state of mind of our clients when we're 8 defending one of the elements of each of the offenses, their 9 intent.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: You know, Your Honor, and also,
11 Mr. Myhre has already given the jury his sort of spin on why
12 they went up to the bridge. He said they went up there just 13 to, you know, get the cows back. We have to be able to defend
14 that. That alone shows that they went up for some alternative
15 or ulterior motive.

16 THE COURT: That's what he said. He said it had 17 nothing do with the cows.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. He -- he -- he -- he did. He 19 said that was sort of -- it wasn't -- it wasn't why they were 20 there, but ultimately that's what they got out of it. But,
21 there's another reason for them to go up on that bridge other
22 than what Mr. Myhre's suggestion in his opening, which was 23 either to get the cows or to --

24 THE COURT: He specifically expressed that it was the 25 opportunity to confront the government with force. That was --

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Either way, I have to be able to
2 explain that there's an alternative view on that and it -- it's
3 something other than just to confront because you've got them
4 at the -- at that parade or that stage thing, they're not
5 armed, they're not -- and then they go over and hear these
6 words and they go up there. There has to be -- the jury can't 7 just be left with that view. They -- I've got to be able to 8 suggest another view if it's plausible and reasonable. That's 9 what it is. It's not nullifying them.

10 THE COURT: You can't present a third party's --

11 MR. MYHRE: Right. That's the issue. It seems 12 you're presenting a -- the defense here is trying to present
13 what Dennis Michael Lynch's impressions were, what his 14 perceptions were and you cannot -- the Government's position is 15 you cannot use a third party to go to the state of mind of your 16 client and that would be irrelevant under any circumstances.

17 THE COURT: Any more than you now would want to have 18 the Government as a third party say what they thought your 19 client's state of mind is. It wouldn't be admissible.

20 MR. MARCHESE: I agree with Mr. Myhre to a certain 21 extent. I do believe, obviously, what I believe can't be
22 transposed into Mr. Myhre's mind, but, I do believe that it
23 goes to credibility. It was obviously some issues last time,
24 we heard him testify, as to what he thought, what he heard.
25 You know, obviously, we know and we've heard -- I believe it

1 was Ranger Johnson and his announcements -- was not that the
2 BLM was going to use lethal force, but there certainly were
3 several individuals who heard otherwise. So, that's why it's 4 relevant because it helps to buttress our clients' state of 5 mind to say, hey, there were other people that heard this, so
6 it's not that they're just the only ones and they're making up
7 this, you know, theory of the case.

8 MR. TANASI: The last thing I would add to it is I
9 think Dennis Michael Lynch is essentially circumstantial
10 evidence of the chaos that was going on in the wash. He's a 11 piece of that puzzle, that story, that defense theory that 12 we're trying to advance.

13 MR. MYHRE: It -- first of all, there's a 403
14 analysis here and that if you -- once we go down this -- this
15 path of what the BLM was doing, then it opens up a mini trial
16 as to their conduct. And so, that's number one. Number two,
17 though, is that this chaos defense does not go to any
18 cognizable defense. It doesn't really go to state of mind,
19 unless you're trying to raise some sort of mistake of fact
20 defense, which doesn't apply.

21 I don't -- the fact that the defendants saw or the 22 defendant believes there's chaos is not a justification for 23 raising a firearm or taking a firearm on a bridge, unless you
24 think -- unless he thinks that somehow he's going to be shot,
25 which goes to self-defense.

1 MR. TANASI: Again, I mean, with respect to
2 Mr. Stewart, there's no pictures of him pointing a firearm.
3 There's the allegation from the Government's side is that he's
4 all over the place while he's up there and that's demonstrable
5 in the fact that it's chaotic. He leaves believing that the 6 operation was over. He gets there and he sees another thing.
7 You know, again, that chaos, I think, is -- goes absolutely at 8 one of the elements of the offense, that he's -- his intent,
9 his state of mind. Does he leave that speech thinking I'm 10 going to go there and I'm going to strong arm the federal 11 government or does he leave that speech thinking this whole
12 thing's over, I'm going to watch it? And, you know, when he
13 gets there, he's got his firearm and he's running around like a
14 madman. That's the defense.

15 THE COURT: All right. But, Mr. Lynch can't provide 16 testimony as to that defense because he's not inside the 17 defendant's head and, so, no, the objection is sustained.

18 MR. TANASI: Can we be just heard on one other thing,
19 Your Honor, since we're here?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MR. TANASI: Waiving sidebar, waiving presence for 22 our clients at sidebar, they don't want us to do that. So, I
23 don't -- I'm just putting that objection, I guess, on the 24 record and I don't know if we want to address it now or how we 25 want to handle it, but they're not waiving their presence for

1 being here. So, we're going to go back and we're probably
2 going to get an earful from them about coming up here without
3 them, so . . .

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: I'm putting that on the record.

6 THE COURT: Well, if you want to find something for 7 me that says it's a critical stage, then I'll consider it, but
8 I think the critical stage is the jury voir dire, if there's 9 any questions asked, who a juror -- and responded to outside
10 the presence of the defendant, that waiver I think was the one
11 that is the only critical stage that I can think of off the top
12 of my head.

13 Last time the problem was, was too many of you and we
14 had a pro per, which meant we would have to also have more
15 marshals in here and that just -- there just isn't enough room
16 and the wall isn't high enough because on your side, as you can
17 see, the jury can see you. You know, on this side, the jury
18 can't see me, but on your side, if we had more people in here,
19 then you would end up going too far to the left.

20 MR. TANASI: Understood.

21 THE COURT: And so that's why we couldn't do it last
22 time.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay.

24 THE COURT: But I don't think it's a problem that 25 you -- but if you find some case law or some other

1 information otherwise --

2 MR. TANASI: We'll brief it.

3 THE COURT: -- then I definitely don't want to start
4 off with error right off the bat.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. So, and my question, I guess,
6 Mr. Tanasi made a statement in his opening and I'm just trying
7 to get clarity here, because he said that the BLM looked like
8 they were military and then there was an objection and it was 9 sustained. How does that fall into sort of the -- what you're
10 precluding -- I'm trying to stay as straight as possible, trust
11 me, with your orders, but I'm having some trouble following
12 along. I've read them, but I don't know how just by him
13 mentioning them -- that they looked like military, which 14 they're going see pictures of, how does that -- how does that 15 fall outside of your orders that --

16 THE COURT: Because it would only be relevant to 17 self-defense or mistake of -- you know, self-defense because 18 they were using excessive force or self-defense because there
19 was a mistake as to whether they were military versus 20 government, which isn't actually a defense either, but, I don't 21 see how it's relevant.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: So it's more of a relevancy -- well,
23 and it was his opening. I'm just trying to -- relevancy.
24 Okay.

25 MR. MARCHESE: And then lastly, so we don't keep

1 doing this. How did Your Honor want to proceed with the record
2 outside the presence of the jury in reference to self-defense,
3 because obviously --

4 THE COURT: You can make a proffer like any other
5 proffer.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

7 THE COURT: You can either proffer what you think
8 someone is going to say or here's what you plan to do with it
9 or actually call the person to see if they really are going to 10 say that.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Well, that's -- and, yeah, I just 12 wanted a little bit of guidance on it --

13 THE COURT: Yeah.

14 MR. MARCHESE: -- because it's not just one witness.
15 I mean, there was also things that we had planned on eliciting
16 through the Government's witnesses. So, I mean, did you want
17 us to subpoena witnesses? I mean, just -- how did we want
18 to -- I don't think it's going to come up with Sheriff Lombardo
19 and it's definitely not going to come up with the agents.

20 THE COURT: Well, why don't you get together and 21 figure out when you want to do this. If you want, we can -- I
22 told the jury they didn't have to be here every single day
23 that's on the calendar, that there would be days when we would 24 either send them home early or come in late or have them not 25 come at all. So we could take a trial day to explore that,

1 those defenses, if you want to do that and just have the jury
2 not come in that day, or that morning, or that afternoon,
3 depending on how long you think how long it's going to take and
4 when your witnesses can be here or how you want to proceed.

5 Obviously, if you're going to call a witness who is 6 going to say A, B, and C and the Government already knows that
7 because that person's been interviewed, then maybe they don't 8 have a problem with you just proffering that without actually 9 calling the person in. If it's someone that the Government has 10 never heard of that you say is going to say A, B, and C, then
11 they're probably going to want to actually see if the person
12 exists and is actually going to say that.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Well, they've already noticed --

14 THE COURT: And myself included.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. They've already noticed at this
16 point, but not all of them testified at the last trial. I
17 think we only had four witnesses.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Four.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I appreciate that.

20 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor --

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. MYHRE: Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to talk
23 over you. Just lastly, we would move to strike that last 24 comment by Mr. Leventhal as to --

25 THE COURT: All right. I'll grant it on the record.

1 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

2 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

3 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 The Government would move to strike the last comment
5 with respect to Dennis Mike Lynch.

6 THE COURT: Yes. The objection was sustained, so the 7 jury will disregard that last statement. Motion to Strike is 8 granted.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: So, ladies and gentlemen, getting 10 back, this big plan, this big organized conspiracy, it's 11 everything but, and you're going to sit here for the next month
12 or two and you're going to watch how this was mainly just a big
13 complete disorganizational mess. There was no plan, no
14 organization, no conspiracy.

15 You're going to hear from some BLM officers. You're 16 going to hear from some Metro officers and some highway patrol
17 and they're going to get up here on the stand and they're going
18 to tell you how scared they were. I want you to -- while 19 you're listening to them tell you how scared they are, I want
20 you to look at the pictures that you're being shown, look at 21 the videos that you're going to be watching, and ask yourself
22 if you would be that scared, because there aren't as many guns
23 as they say are going to be out there.

24 And I also challenge you to find one that's ever
25 actually pointed at them. With the thousands and thousands of 1 video, find one that's pointed at them.

2 I'd also ask, lastly, that you write down the witness
3 that identifies Mr. Drexler. Write that name down. I will 4 guarantee you that it's not anybody that was out there in the
5 wash on April 2nd -- April 12th, 2014. I will guarantee you
6 that.

7 The Government is going to try to put a protest on 8 trial today. That's what they're going to do, they're going to 9 put a protest on trial. They're going to go very long and very
10 deep and very wide, but I don't represent a crowd and I don't 11 represent a protest; I represent one man, and that's 12 Scott Drexler (indicating). That's it. That's who's here on 13 trial now. Not a crowd. Not a protest.

14 Mr. Drexler, he's 46 years old. He's got a beautiful
15 daughter and a grandson. His father was a sheriff in Idaho and 16 his sister also works at the sheriff's department. He has no
17 criminal history. He believes in the law and he believes no
18 man is above the law, badge or not.

19 So at the end of this, I'm going to be asking that 20 you find Mr. Drexler not guilty of these charges.

21 Thank you.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, now that you've heard
23 opening statement, which are just -- which are not evidence,
24 only what the attorneys think the testimony will be so that you
25 can better follow the presentation of the evidence, now we're

1 going to begin with the first witness and the Government may
2 call its first witness.

3 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 The Government calls Sheriff Lombardo.

5

6

JOSEPH LOMBARDO,

7 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
8 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

9

10 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Sheriff Lombardo. Come
11 on up. You're going to be seated over here to my right
12 (indicating). Please be careful with the steps and the 13 microphone wires.

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please stand and raise your 15 right hand.

16 You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall
17 give in the cause now before this Court shall be the truth, the
18 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes.

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
21 seated.

22 Please state your full name for the record and spell
23 your last name.

24 THE WITNESS: It's Joseph Lombardo, L-o-m-b-a-r-d-o.

25 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

2

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

3

BY MR. MYHRE:

4

Q. Good afternoon, Sheriff.

5

A. Good afternoon.

6

Q. You're currently the sheriff of Clark County; is that correct?

8

A. That's correct.

9

Q. And how long have you been serving in that capacity?

10

A. Two and a half years.

11

Q. And as the sheriff of Clark County, do you also -- are you also the head of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department?

13

A. That's correct.

14

Q. And how -- approximately, how large is the -- is Metro?

15

A. 5,500-plus employees. Area responsibility 7,500 square miles.

17

Q. It encompasses all of Clark County?

18

A. Correct.

19

Q. Does that include the area of Bunkerville, Nevada?

20

A. Yes, it does.

21

Q. How long have you been -- before becoming sheriff, were you employed by the Clark County Sheriff's Department?

23

A. Yes, I was. Yes, I am.

24

Q. And how long have you served total?

25

A. 29 years.

1 Q. If you could, can you just -- how did you begin your
2 career with -- with Metro?

3 A. Well, as any other police officer, I was hired in 1988.
4 You start as a police officer and you work in a black and white
5 as a patrol officer and then subsequently, I moved through --
6 my career through promotions.

7 Q. And through those 29 years, has that been entirely with
8 Metro?

9 A. Correct, it has been.

10 Q. In March of -- excuse me -- April of 2014, in what 11 capacity were you serving with Metro?

12 A. I was assistant sheriff.

13 Q. And were you over any particular functions or operations
14 as the assistant sheriff?

15 A. Well, if you bifurcate the department, there was two 16 assistant sheriffs, myself and Assistant Sheriff Kevin McMahill
17 and I was responsible for the law enforcement support group and 18 that would encompass all functions in support of the police
19 department as a whole, absent uniform services.

20 Q. Who was the sheriff at the time that you were the 21 assistant sheriff?

22 A. That was Doug Gillespie.

23 Q. And within the chain of command, where did you report with 24 respect to him?

25 A. Well, it's the sheriff, obviously, then it's the

1 undersheriff, which is Jim Dixon, and then assistant sheriff.

2 Q. Now, in April of 2014, did you have occasion to accompany
3 Sheriff Gillespie to Bunkerville, Nevada?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And were you going there to meet anybody?

6 A. No. In my understanding was just to provide protection
7 for Sheriff Gillespie at that point.

8 Q. Was Sheriff Gillespie there to meet anybody?

9 A. He had conveyed to me that he was intending to meet with
10 Cliven Bundy.

11 Q. Now, were you aware, generally, of an impoundment
12 operation being conducted in the Bunkerville area by the Bureau
13 of Land Management?

14 A. Yes, I was.

15 Q. And when you went to -- with Sheriff Gillespie on 16 April 12th to meet with Cliven Bundy, did it have anything to 17 do with the impoundment that was going on with BLM?

18 A. Yes, it did.

19 Q. What did you understand the purpose of the meeting would 20 be?

21 A. I wasn't privy to the conversation that Sheriff Gillespie
22 had with some other individuals, but he had conveyed to me that 23 he had --

24 Q. Well, without -- I don't want you to go into what he had 25 specifically discussed with others. Just, from your

1 understanding, was -- was there a topic that Sheriff Gillespie
2 was going to cover with Cliven Bundy at this meeting?

3 A. Yeah. That was the impoundment of the cattle.

4 He wanted to convey to Cliven Bundy that the
5 operations were going to stop, in other words, the impoundment
6 was to cease and desist.

7 Q. Now, did you eventually get to the Bunkerville area on
8 April the 12th?

9 A. Yes, we did.

10 Q. Where did you intend to meet with Mr. Bundy?

11 A. At his ranch. At his residence.

12 Q. And did that happen?

13 A. No, it did not.

14 Q. What -- what occurred that that did not happen?

15 A. Well, prior to completely attempting to go to the ranch we 16 had exited I-15 in order to make contact with Deputy Chief Tom 17 Roberts who was already there with several LVMPD officers and 18 we were going to provide him what our intent was and for him to 19 provide us security, if needed, or if requested. We had pulled 20 off the side of the road right at the exit -- the exit being 21 where you attempt to go to Cliven's ranch and then
22 subsequently, after briefing Deputy Chief Tom Roberts, myself,
23 Sheriff Gillespie, Undersheriff Jim Dixon, and Assistant
24 Sheriff Kevin McMahill drove -- attempted to drive to the 25 ranch.

1 Q. And did you -- you did not meet with Mr. Bundy, though, at 2 the ranch, is that is that correct?

3 A. No, we did not.

4 Q. Where did you meet with him?

5 A. We met with him an in assembly area. I would call it the 6 stage area, that was at the side of the roadway approximately
7 halfway to the Bundy Ranch from the exit.

8 Q. And is that along State Route 170?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And you mentioned a stage. Can you describe for us what 11 this area looked like, generally?

12 A. It was a general -- similar to, like, a rest stop you
13 would see off a highway. It was a general flat top area that 14 had an 18-wheeler flatbed trailer set up. Adjacent to it was 15 an RV, a recreational vehicle, and then several individuals
16 were located in and about that area.

17 Q. Now, when you arrived there, did you see if there were 18 people around the area or not?

19 A. Yes. I would describe between 2 and 3 hundred
20 individuals.

21 Q. What did these 2 to 3 hundred individuals appear to be 22 doing, in your -- upon your --

23 A. Uh, they were just -- they were gathered. Mr. Ammon Bundy
24 was stationed on top of the platform and he had a microphone
25 and he was addressing the crowd in a general conversation. I

1 can't testify to what he was talking about.

2 Q. So, when you get there with Sheriff Gillespie and the 3 other officers who are with you, does somebody meet you there?

4 A. Yeah. We were contacted by David Bundy prior to -- as
5 we -- we parked along the roadway. We walked to the assembly
6 stage area and we were eventually contacted by David Bundy.

7 Q. And did Dave Bundy then direct you to -- as to where to 8 go?

9 A. Yeah. He asked us to go to the RV that was located there
10 adjacent to the stage and Sheriff Gillespie and 11 Undersheriff Dixon entered the RV and my understanding is they 12 were going to attempt to contact Cliven.

13 Q. And was Cliven Bundy there at that time?

14 A. No, he was not.

15 Q. Did you observe him arrive?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And how long after the sheriff went into the little RV
18 vehicle did it take before Mr. Bundy arrived?

19 A. I would be comfortable with saying between 20 and 30
20 minutes.

21 Q. And you observed him arrive?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. And how did he -- how did he get there?

24 A. He was in a Humvee-type vehicle. There was a pickup truck
25 to the front of the Humvee and one to the rear. There were

1 several individuals in the beds of the pickup truck and then
2 several individuals inside the Humvee. He was in the front
3 passenger seat, I believe.

4 Q. And was he with other people?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Did you notice whether any of these individuals he was 7 with were armed?

8 A. Yes. I -- best of my recollection, every one of them.

9 Q. Now, do you see -- within the crowd where you were, do you
10 see other individuals armed as well?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. Now, as -- once Mr. Bundy arrives, what does he do?

13 A. He immediately exits the vehicle and he starts to walk
14 towards the stage.

15 Q. Does he meet with the sheriff at that point?

16 A. No, he did not.

17 Q. So where did he go?

18 A. Well, I can't recall, but I believe it was either Ammon or 19 David attempted to contact Cliven by yelling out to him and 20 said, hey, Cliven, the sheriff's here and he wants to talk to 21 you. I overhead Cliven say that the sheriff --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection.

23 THE WITNESS: -- can talk to me on the stage.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hearsay.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre?

4 MR. MYHRE: I'm -- I'm sorry, Your Honor. I couldn't
5 hear the last part of his answer, so I missed part of it.

6 THE COURT: I think it was -- what was the objection,
7 hearsay?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hearsay.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Did --

11 THE COURT: The witness was testifying about what 12 somebody else said?

13 MR. MYHRE: Right. No. I understand that,
14 Your Honor. I couldn't hear what the witness said. I was -- I
15 could not -- there was some gap in the speaker or whatever, so
16 I didn't hear what the witness had responded to the question
17 from. So I'll -- I will just re- -- I'll just strike that 18 question, Your Honor, and the answer and I'll just move on from
19 there.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. So, just to -- just to go back again, Sheriff.

23 So, you saw Cliven arrive. And where -- where did he 24 go from -- once he arrived there? Did he go to the stage area?

25 A. He walked directly to the stage and went on top of the 1 stage.

2 Q. Now, at some point did the sheriff join him on the stage?

3 A. Yes, he did.

4 Q. Now, did this fit or not fit with what you had believed
5 was the plan before going down there?

6 A. It did not fit.

7 Q. Did you -- when the sheriff was on the stage, could you
8 assess the mood of the crowd that was in front of the stage?

9 A. When we originally arrived, I would have described the 10 crowd as calm. Some -- some individuals even welcomed us, but
11 then the mood started to change once Cliven ascended the stage
12 and then as -- as the rhetoric progressed, the mood definitely 13 changed.

14 Q. So, did the sheriff speak then once he was on the stage?

15 A. Yes, he did.

16 Q. And you were -- where were you in relationship to where he 17 was located?

18 A. Well, if you were in the audience, per se, and you were 19 watching the people on the stage, I would be to the -- right to 20 the front of the stage to the left.

21 Q. Now, outside the presence of the jury you've had a chance
22 to look at Exhibit 21.

23 And, Your Honor, for the witness only and not for the 24 jury, may I play a portion of Exhibit 21 for the witness?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 (Exhibit 21 published to witness.)

2 MR. MYHRE: And you can stop it there.

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Now, Sheriff, this portion of the video you just
5 witnessed, is that a -- have you seen this video before?

6 A. Yes, I have.

7 Q. And does this video depict the sheriff's speech on the 8 stage on April 12th, 2014, with Cliven Bundy?

9 A. It depicts prior to the speech the sheriff made, but it --
10 that is the sheriff, Doug Gillespie, standing on the stage.

11 Q. All right. And this whole video covers the speech of the 12 sheriff as well as Mr. Bundy; is that correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And is this a fair and accurate depiction of those 15 events as you witnessed them on April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 21.

18 (Exhibit 21 offered.)

19 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 21?

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects as to foundation. I
22 believe the testimony was that he doesn't recollect what 23 Ammon Bundy said.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Well, whatever Ammon Bundy said was recorded onto this

1 video; is that correct?

2 A. I believe so.

3 THE COURT: All right. Any other objection?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No -- no, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. So, objection to Exhibit 21
6 is overruled and Exhibit 21 is received.

7 (Exhibit 21 received.)

8 MR. MYHRE: And may we publish, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 (Exhibit 21 published.)

11 MR. MYHRE: Stop there, please.

12 BY MR. MYHRE:

13 Q. So, the individual in this exhibit, Sheriff, who just 14 spoke, is who?

15 A. Ammon Bundy.

16 Q. And the individual with the microphone in his hand now is 17 who?

18 A. Sheriff Doug Gillespie.

19 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that we 20 stopped Exhibit 21 at 36 seconds in.

21 And please continue.

22 (Exhibit 21 published.)

23 MR. MYHRE: Stop there, please.

24 And the record should reflect at 3:11.

25 BY MR. MYHRE:

1 Q. Sheriff, in that last image we saw the sheriff hand the
2 microphone to someone. Did you recognize who he was handing
3 that to?

4 A. Yes. That would be Cliven Bundy.

5 MR. MYHRE: And Nicole, could we just go back to 2:17
6 and just stop at that point.

7 That's good.

8 BY MR. MYHRE:

9 Q. And, Sheriff, there's -- you can see in the foreground
10 here of this image, at 2:16, two individuals appear to be
11 wearing sunglasses. Did you notice -- first of all, did you
12 happen to notice what these individuals were wearing?

13 A. As far as weaponry or clothing?

14 Q. Just clothing.

15 A. Yeah. I would describe it as camouflage,
16 quasi-military-type clothing.

17 Q. Now, were they -- were individuals dressed like this, did
18 they accompany Mr. Bundy to the stage?

19 A. Yes. Those were the --

20 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. The individuals dressed like this, did you see them before
23 Mr. Bundy got to the stage?

24 A. No, I did not.

25 Q. Okay. When he got to the stage, did you see them?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Did you see where they came from?

3 A. They came from the vehicles that arrived with Mr. Bundy,
4 Cliven Bundy.

5 Q. And what position did they take up?

6 A. To the front of the stage.

7 Q. Did they appear to you to be doing anything in particular?

8 A. From their stance and demeanor, through my experience and 9 training, they were providing security for Mr. Bundy.

10 MR. MYHRE: Nicole, if you could go back forward to 11 3:11 and start there.

12 (Exhibit 21 published.)

13 MR. MYHRE: Could you just go back just to 6:23,
14 please.

15 BY MR. MYHRE:

16 Q. Now, Sheriff, we stopped that clip at 10:09. I've asked
17 to just go back to 6:23. That's fine, 6:21. And just -- and I
18 take it that's you in this image here; is that correct?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. And that accurately depicts your position relative to the 21 stage; correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Now, the individuals that are in the foreground here, are 24 these the individuals you mentioned as well that had come with 25 Cliven Bundy?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. You heard Mr. Bundy's speech and you heard the requests
3 that he made of the sheriff. As you were listening to that,
4 were those requests that, from your training and experience,
5 that Metro would be involved in carrying out or doing?

6 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Relevance.

7 MR. MYHRE: Just to -- Your Honor, it's relevant to 8 show what the sheriff's impression and law enforcement's
9 impression was of his speech and informs their actions
10 thereafter.

11 THE COURT: All right. Overruled.

12 You may answer the question.

13 THE WITNESS: No. That is not anything that we would 14 do as a matter of practice, nor would we, even we did have the 15 ability to do it, within an hour.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. So, with respect to the time frame, was that realistic or 18 unrealistic?

19 A. Unrealistic.

20 Q. And in terms of the demand itself, were they unrealistic
21 or realistic?

22 A. Unrealistic.

23 Q. Now, after Mr. Bundy finished his speech we saw the 24 sheriff in this video leave the stage; is that correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Did you go with the sheriff?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. And did you -- did you leave the area, generally, of the 4 staging area?

5 A. Yes, we did. Our car was parked on the side of the 6 roadway a short distance away.

7 Q. Did you observe, in this last video, some horses going up
8 onto the hill?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Did you see, were you able to observe at all -- well,
11 first of all, did you observe those horses at the time that you
12 were there?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. Did you happen to observe where they came from?

15 A. No. It was in a defoliate area out in the desert. I
16 guess it would have been to the south. The only time I could 17 see them was when they made it to the ridge area.

18 Q. And you heard the -- on the video, were you able to hear
19 the reaction of the crowd to both Mr. Bundy's speech and to the 20 horses being there?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. And after -- and was that accurate and fair as to what you
23 recall observing what you were there?

24 A. Yes, it is.

25 Q. And how would you compare the mood of the crowd after the

1 speeches compared to your assessment of the crowd before the
2 speeches?

3 MR. TANASI: Objection. Speculation and the video
4 itself is the best evidence and speaks for itself.

5 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, it's his assessment as a law
6 enforcement officer, training, his experience.

7 THE COURT: Overruled. He can give his assessment.
8 He was personally there. He can say what he saw, what he did,
9 what he heard.

10 Go ahead.

11 THE WITNESS: As I testified earlier, the mood of the 12 crowd was calm and welcoming when we first arrived at the 13 assembly area. Subsequent Sheriff Gillespie speaking and 14 Mr. Cliven Bundy and even during Mr. Cliven Bundy's speech, you
15 could sense the attitude of the crowd to change. The catcalls
16 that began, similar to "Sheriff, do your job," "You're a
17 constitutional sheriff," "What about the cattle?" you know, 18 "Remove the firearms of the federal government or BLM," and,
19 so, you could tell that the crowd was changing. They were 20 becoming emboldened and as we exited the area, people that were 21 welcoming when we first arrived were no longer welcoming.
22 They -- we continued to receive catcalls until we got to our
23 vehicles.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. When you say the crowd was "becoming emboldened," what do

1 you mean by that?

2 A. Well, they got louder. They felt comfortable shouting
3 derogatory remarks towards us and my opinion, they -- they felt
4 no fear of law enforcement.

5 Q. What was your -- did you form an assessment in terms of 6 officer safety for the sheriff and for your fellow officers and 7 yourself?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Relevance.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MR. MYHRE: Again, Your Honor, it shows the 11 progression of the emotion of the crowd and the sheriff's 12 assessment of his own safety and the safety of his officers
13 informs his conduct further on in the sequence of events.

14 THE COURT: Objection overruled. He may answer the
15 question.

16 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question, please?

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Sure.

19 Did -- at the time that you were leaving the staging
20 area, did you -- in your training and experience, did you form
21 an assessment as to officer safety, both for yourself and for 22 Sheriff Gillespie and your fellow officers?

23 A. Yes, I did. As I testified earlier, there was numerous 24 weapons present. When the cowboys -- I would describe them as 25 cowboys, the individuals on the horses -- when they arrived,

1 you can visibly see they were in possession of rifles and we
2 were completely outnumbered. As I testified earlier, there was
3 four of us and the crowd was 2 to 3 hundred, so we didn't have
4 the weapons or the ability to protect ourselves.

5 Q. Now, based on that, what was -- what were your next
6 actions following this encounter with Mr. Bundy?

7 A. As I testified, we went to our vehicle and then we -- we
8 left -- exited the area. We went up on the I-15. We went 9 north on I-15 in order to respond to the Incident Command Post
10 of BLM.

11 Q. Now, at the time you went to the Incident Command Post or 12 the ICP, had you formed an assessment as to whether the 13 individuals back at the staging area presented any threat to 14 the BLM at the ICP at that point?

15 A. No, I had not.

16 Q. You had not formed an assessment or you did not believe
17 there was a threat at that point?

18 A. Both. I -- my opinion was this was just rhetoric that
19 Cliven Bundy was spewing and that the individuals wouldn't act
20 on that request of Cliven Bundy and I had not made it to the 21 Incident Command Post yet to make an assessment of what the 22 situation was there nor did I know whether or not there was any 23 demonstrators up in that area.

24 Q. Now, had you -- you or any person of authority, Metro, had 25 they dispatched any Metro officers to be in close proximity to

1 the ICP to respond in the event there was any issues with
2 threats?

3 A. Yes. Under Deputy Chief Tom Roberts direction, we had 4 police officers staged in close vicinity to exit 170, or
5 Highway 170 as a contingency.

6 Q. And do you recall how many officers that was,
7 approximately?

8 A. I would -- the best of my recollection, I would say 15
9 SWAT officers and 35 police officers.

10 Q. 15 SWAT, you said?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And 35 police officers?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. They were staged -- were they staged east or west of the 15 ICP, do you recall? Were they staged --

16 A. They would be east of the ICP and also south of the ICP.

17 Q. Were they more toward Las Vegas or more --

18 A. More towards Las Vegas.

19 Q. Now, you get to the ICP. Do you meet with the principals
20 at the ICP?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. And does Sheriff Gillespie meet with them as well?

23 A. Yes. Myself, Sheriff Gillespie, Undersheriff Dixon, and 24 Assistant Sheriff McMahill, all four of us went to the ICP.

25 Q. And was there -- were people briefed as to what had just

1 occurred back at the staging area?

2 A. Yes, they were.

3 Q. Now, without going into the details of what was said at 4 the briefing, when you left the briefing, did you have an
5 understanding -- well, first of all, did the sheriff leave the 6 ICP after the -- after this briefing?

7 A. Yes, he did.

8 Q. And did he return to Las Vegas?

9 A. Yes, he did.

10 Q. Did you go with him?

11 A. No, I did not.

12 Q. And why was that?

13 A. The sheriff and the undersheriff, Jim Dixon, went back to 14 Las Vegas and myself and Assistant Sheriff McMahill remained 15 behind to continue making assessment of the situation that was 16 presented earlier at the stage area and also to provide safety
17 for BLM agents.

18 Q. When you say provide safety for BLM agents, what -- what 19 did -- what does that translate to in terms of what your duties
20 would have been?

21 A. My understanding of area responsibility was BLM was in the 22 throes or the midst of a cattle roundup and they were advised
23 to cease and desist so there was a decision to be made in 24 reference to cattle and provide ample protection for themselves
25 and then my understanding of my role was to provide protection

1 for the BLM officers.

2 Q. Now, did you meet with the officers that were staged
3 near -- or toward Las Vegas down from the ICP?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. And that was after your meeting at the ICP?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Now, once you got to -- to where the officers were staged,
8 did you then receive more information in terms of what was
9 going on back at the staging area?

10 A. Yes. We received information that Cliven Bundy had said
11 that his demands had not been met and he advised --

12 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

13 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins, Your Honor.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And foundation.

15 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

16 BY MR. MYHRE:

17 Q. Without going into precise -- I'm sorry, Your Honor, did
18 you -- without going precisely into what was told to you, what 19 were your next actions after being told -- first of all, did
20 you receive information from the staging area?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. Okay. And from whom did you receive that?

23 A. Shannon Kelly.

24 Q. And Shannon Kelly is who?

25 A. A police officer that operates out in the resident

1 Bunkerville area.

2 Q. So he was back at the staging area?

3 A. Yes, he was.

4 Q. And he reported back information to you; is that correct?

5 A. Not to me, to Assistant Sheriff McMahill.

6 Q. Now, as a result of receiving that information, did you
7 dispatch your police officers from that area?

8 A. Yeah. I advised all police officers that were in my
9 presence that we believed that the people from the stage area
10 were going to head to the ICP area and I had all the officers
11 in the assembly area proceed to the ICP area.

12 Q. So you've already -- you've already touched on it, but my 13 next question was, what was your understanding of what the 14 threat was that you were responding to?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. He's asking him to testify
16 as to hearsay.

17 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor. He's --

18 THE COURT: No. He's asking his own perception. He 19 can answer the question.

20 Overruled.

21 THE WITNESS: My perception was the people that were 22 at the stage area were advised to go to the ICP area to 23 retrieve the cattle.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And what did you -- did you just begin to formulate plans

1 in your own mind then as to how to respond to that threat?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. And what were those plans?

4 A. I directed the uniform officers to perform a skirmish line
5 in the median area of the highway of the I-15 and I directed
6 the SWAT officers to go onto the west side of the highway,
7 closer to the ICP, in the defoliate area, to provide further
8 perimeter security.

9 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, may, for the witness
10 only, may we draw up Exhibit 191?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Exhibit 191 published to witness.)

13 BY MR. MYHRE:

14 Q. And, Sheriff, if you would look at your monitor to your
15 right.

16 And you see Exhibit 191 there?

17 A. Is there a -- is everybody seeing what I'm seeing?

18 THE COURT: Just you.

19 BY MR. MYHRE:

20 Q. Just you.

21 A. Okay.

22 Yeah. I see it.

23 Q. And is that a fair and accurate depiction of the area of 24 the ICP as it existed on April 12th, 2014?

25 A. Yes, it is.

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 191.

2 (Exhibit 191 offered.)

3 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 191?

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: None from Drexler.

7 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 191 will be admitted.

9 (Exhibit 191 received.)

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 And may we publish?

12 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

13 (Exhibit 191 published.)

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. So, Sheriff, now that the jury now sees 191 as well and,
16 so, after you received this information and you dispatched your 17 officers, did you accompany them up to the -- up to this area?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. Now, you talked -- first of all, as we look at this 20 exhibit, we see what appears to be two interstate lanes there;
21 is that correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Is that the 15?

24 A. Yeah. Both north and south.

25 Q. Okay. Now, you talked about dispatching the officers to

1 form a skirmish line. And you can draw on this screen if you
2 just touch the top and hit the little pencil mark and you can
3 use your finger to draw on the page or -- excuse me -- on the 4 screen. Just --

5 There you go.

6 A. (Indicating).

7 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 8 witness has drawn a line across the median area between the 9 15's northbound and southbound.

10 BY MR. MYHRE:

11 Q. And is that the area where you dispatched your officers to 12 form a skirmish line?

13 A. The uniform officers, yes.

14 Q. Uniform officers.

15 And would -- was -- did SWAT also respond?

16 A. Yes, they did.

17 Q. And did you have -- did you dispatch SWAT at all?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And where did you dispatch them to?

20 A. (Indicating).

21 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect that the 22 witness has drawn a circle around the area just north of the 23 southbound lane of the 15.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. Now, you described -- well, first of all, where was the

1 entrance to the ICP?

2 A. I don't know if you can see that, by right here
3 (indicating).

4 Q. Okay. And do you recall what that was referred to as?

5 A. Post 1.

6 Q. Where was -- did you take up a position then once you
7 arrived?

8 A. Yes. Right there at the entrance of Post 1.

9 Q. At Post 1?

10 Now, were you familiar with an area called Post 2?

11 A. Yes, I was.

12 Q. And where was that?

13 A. (Indicating).

14 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
15 has drawn a circle in the wash area just north of the 16 southbound 15 for Post 2.

17 BY MR. MYHRE:

18 Q. Were any -- when you first dispatched your officers, were 19 any officers dispatched to Post 2?

20 A. No, there wasn't.

21 Q. Were there any officers that were -- first of all, could
22 you see Post 2 from where you were at Post 1?

23 A. Yes, I could.

24 Q. Could you see the entire area or parts of it or just . . .

25 A. I couldn't see under the bridge.

1 Q. Now, did you have an understanding of who, if anybody, was
2 responding to Post 2?

3 A. That would be BLM agents.

4 Q. Now, as you were at Post 1, did you observe the crowd --
5 crowd coming to the ICP area?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Okay. Now, was that -- how was that -- when did the crowd
8 begin to arrive in relationship to when you first arrived
9 there?

10 A. In close proximity. As a matter of fact, I was 11 intermingled amongst their vehicles.

12 Q. So you may have arrived at least with some of them as they 13 were coming as well?

14 A. Simultaneous.

15 Q. Did you notice, from where you were -- observe rather --
16 where the people who were supporting Bundy, where they were 17 going to?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. Okay. And where was that?

20 A. They exited the roadway here (indicating) and they
21 assembled in this area.

22 MR. MYHRE: And the record should reflect the witness
23 has drawn a circle south of the northbound lane.

24 BY MR. MYHRE:

25 Q. And could you observe, from where you were, at Post 1,

1 could you observe that area fairly well?

2 A. Yeah. Fairly easy, except for the passing traffic.

3 Q. Now, did this crowd -- excuse me -- did the people that
4 were coming there, did they appear to be -- you mentioned sort
5 of assembling there. Did this assembly appear to grow or did
6 it stay the same or how would you describe the flow of traffic
7 or people into this area?

8 A. From the point of my arrival to well into the incident it
9 continued to grow.

10 Q. Would you say -- how -- how would you describe the rate of 11 growth?

12 A. Similar to the size of the crowd that was at the stage
13 area.

14 Q. The crowd that we saw in that previous exhibit,
15 Exhibit 21?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Did you recognize anybody in this assembly that -- from 18 where you were?

19 A. No, I didn't, from where I was posted.

20 Q. As you were observing this, were you forming an assessment
21 in your mind in terms of the security of the ICP?

22 A. Yeah. I -- I believed we were understaffed with the 23 reference to the number of individuals that were responding to 24 this assembly area here and I didn't believe we could stop them
25 if they, en masse, attempted to come across the highway.

1 Q. And what informed your belief that you couldn't stop them?

2 A. It was just the numbers. We were far outnumbered as
3 compared to how many police officers I had present.

4 Q. Did you observe any firearms in this group that was 5 assembling?

6 A. Absolutely.

7 Q. And what types of firearms did you observe?

8 A. Well, if you can imagine it, I'm sure it was probably 9 there, but I -- I saw long rifles and I saw handguns. The 10 different calibers I couldn't testify to.

11 Q. Did the presence of those firearms cause you concern?

12 A. Absolutely.

13 Q. And why was that?

14 A. Well, my police officers, the ones in uniform in this area
15 (indicating) that formed the initial skirmish line, they did
16 not have the equipment or the numbers to protect themselves
17 from the type of weapons that I saw present.

18 Q. Were you able to form an assessment as to what the intent
19 and purpose of this group was?

20 A. Not at that point, no.

21 MR. TANASI: Objection. Speculation.

22 MR. MARCHESI: Objection.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, again, it's his assessment as 24 the -- essentially in charge of the security of the ICP as to 25 what he believed this crowd was doing and it would inform all

1 of his actions subsequent to that.

2 THE COURT: Overruled. He may answer the question.

3 THE WITNESS: I had no assessment of their intent at 4 that point other than what I had received earlier, that they
5 were going to retrieve the cattle.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

7 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor --

8 MR. TANASI: And non-responsive, Your Honor.

9 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, he had previously testified
10 that it was his assessment and understanding based on what he
11 heard back at the area where the Saturation Team was staged,
12 that they were coming to get the cattle.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. Now, Sheriff, at some point did you attempt to engage with 16 anybody in that group that was across the highway there?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. And what was your purpose in trying to engage with 19 anybody?

20 A. I was trying to locate who would assume command of that 21 crowd, who would be the informal leader in order to determine
22 what their intent was.

23 Q. And did you -- how is it -- and how did you go about doing
24 that?

25 A. I crossed the roadway and entered the crowd.

1 Q. And were you with anybody?

2 A. I was with, I believe it was four -- I was with the 3 undersheriff or -- he's undersheriff now, but then he was 4 assistant sheriff, McMahill, and four additional SAT Team
5 officers.

6 Q. And as you entered the crowd or began to approach the 7 crowd, did you see any reaction from them?

8 A. Yeah. The rhetoric continued or the posture continued or 9 the emotion continued similar to what I experienced at the 10 staging area.

11 Q. So did you -- when you crossed over then, the 15, did you
12 find someone to speak with?

13 A. Yes. I immediately made -- I visually saw David Bundy.

14 Q. And did you recognize Dave Bundy from a previous 15 encounter?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Did you then enter into a discussion with him?

18 A. Yes, I did.

19 Q. And what was that discussion about?

20 A. I asked him what his intent was.

21 Q. And how did he respond?

22 A. His intent was to get the cattle.

23 Q. Did he say how that was going to be accomplished or what
24 was going to happen?

25 A. No, he didn't inform me to -- how that would be

1 accomplished and I informed him that I was disappointed, that I
2 needed -- we had come a long way with the -- what
3 Sheriff Gillespie had presented and that if his intent was to
4 get the cattle, I needed time to continue to negotiate.

5 Q. When you indicated to him that you needed time to 6 negotiate, did he respond to that?

7 A. Yes, he did. He informed me that he didn't feel that he 8 could control the crowd.

9 Q. I'm sorry. That he could . . .

10 A. He could not control the crowd.

11 Q. Did you come away -- well, how long did this discussion
12 last?

13 A. Less than five minutes.

14 Q. And it occurred on the south portion of that . . .

15 A. Correct. South portion of the . . .

16 Q. South portion of the highway?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. How did -- how did the discussion end?

19 A. He informed me that I had an hour to release the cattle
20 and he didn't know what the crowd would do if I failed to meet
21 that timeline and I informed Mr. Bundy that I needed way more
22 than an hour; I needed approximately eight hours or even a
23 couple of days to determine how we were going to do that.

24 Q. So, what -- did you then leave Mr. Bundy?

25 A. Prior to leaving Mr. Bundy he said he would do as best he

1 could to keep the crowd calm, but he didn't have control of
2 them and he was in fear that he would lose control of them and
3 subsequently, I asked him to work with me and I believe we can
4 find a common solution.

5 Q. Where did you return to after that discussion then?

6 A. Post 1.

7 Q. Did you continue to form an assessment as to whether you
8 could -- given now the crowd and what your discussion with 9 Mr. Bundy, did you form an assessment as to whether you could 10 continue to provide security adequately for that area?

11 A. Yeah. My assessment was the situation is getting -- was 12 becoming more dire and that was because I could see several 13 individuals who were proceeding to this wash area here
14 (indicating) and subsequently crossing under the bridge area
15 there and proceeding to Post 2, to include the cowboys that I
16 saw earlier on the horses and I had a conversation with 17 Deputy Chief Tom Roberts, who was down at Post 2, and said that 18 there were several people posted there with weapons and there
19 was some barricades there and BLM officers.

20 Q. Now, you said you saw people muster or -- excuse me --
21 gather under this southbound bridge. You drew a line on this 22 diagram under the southbound bridge, and you said you saw
23 horses. Did you see where they came from?

24 A. No. I made the assumption they were the horses that we 25 saw in the stage area.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.
2 Move to trike.

3 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 THE COURT: Sustained.

7 BY MR. MYHRE:

8 Q. Now, did you see -- you said you saw the horses and did
9 you see them go down into that wash area?

10 A. I saw them come from this direction here (indicating) and 11 proceed that way into the wash area.

12 Q. So from -- as you're observing this now and you're at 13 Post 1, do you make a decision with respect to the cattle?

14 A. I was in continual conversation with Sheriff Gillespie and 15 I made a personal assessment that the situation was beginning
16 to get out of control and I did not want a single human blood
17 [sic] shed over cattle and at that point I started to make the 18 decision on how we could release the cattle and how fast we 19 could do it.

20 Q. What was your assessment in terms of how releasing the 21 cattle would affect the situation at all?

22 A. I believe if we released the cattle, it would achieve the 23 intent of the crowd and it would -- it would assist in the 24 safety of all the agents and officers present and the crowd
25 would eventually lose their momentum and would dissipate.

1 Q. Now, you mentioned that you -- part of your assessment was
2 you did not want a single drop of blood shed over some cattle.
3 What was your concern with respect to that?

4 A. Well, as I testified earlier, several individuals were
5 present with weapons. I don't know their training. I don't
6 know their ability to handle weapons nor did I have the ability
7 to protect my police officers with the size of the crowd and
8 the number of people that were in possession of weapons and a
9 simple accidental discharge could have caused carnage.

10 Q. How many officers -- did you ever form -- did you form an 11 assessment as to how many more officers you would need to 12 adequately secure that area?

13 A. You know, through my training and experience dealing with 14 mass crowds and dealing with civil unrest, I had made an
15 assessment out there that it would take approximately 500
16 police officers to feel comfortable.

17 Q. Did you have the capacity to get that number of officers
18 to that scene?

19 A. I had the capacity; I didn't have the ability. When I say
20 ability, to get them there in a timely manner.

21 Q. And what -- how is time a factor at this point?

22 A. Well, Bunkerville and that Post 1 was approximately, I
23 would safely say, an hour to an hour and a half from the 24 central Las Vegas area, plus it would require me to muster the 25 police officers to assemble them, equip them, then have them

1 respond and my testimony from earlier provided that the traffic
2 was continuing to ingress and egress along I-15, so it would be
3 cumbersome to circumvent that traffic to get there in a timely
4 manner.

5 Q. You didn't think you could get them there in time?

6 A. No, because of the -- the hour timeline given, the 7 discussion I had with David Bundy with the timeline he had
8 given, I believed that we would lose total control within that 9 timeline.

10 Q. So, at some point do you decide to -- that -- to order the 11 BLM to release the cattle?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And did you inform anybody of that decision?

14 A. Dan Love, Agent Dan Love.

15 Q. And he -- what was his role?

16 A. He was the --

17 Q. Did you understand what he -- his position was?

18 I'm sorry. I didn't mean to talk over you. I
19 apologize.

20 A. My understanding, he was the Special Agent in Charge of 21 the BLM operation.

22 Q. Now, once the decision -- once you informed SAC Love or 23 SAC Love of the decision to release the cattle, does -- do
24 events then take a turn in terms of the level of tension that
25 you're feeling there at Post 1?

1 A. I would say no. It even became more evident that the
2 crowd was pressing us for action and I continually was asking
3 time because of -- I believed there was a need to have all the 4 BLM agents removed from the area in order to safely conduct
5 the -- this operation and that would require some time.

6 Q. And your assessment for the BLM to be -- to leave the area
7 was based on what?

8 A. Well, I -- I personally did not believe, in the early
9 throes of this operation, that the threats were fully intended
10 against my police officers, it was against the BLM officers,
11 but as we progressed through this incident, the threat was 12 given to all public safety and I think the need for BLM to 13 retreat as a group was a need because I was not comfortable
14 with their training and experience in tactics and dealing with 15 crowds. That is not their normal course of operation, that I
16 wanted to ensure their safety before we did anything.

17 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I show for the witness
18 Exhibit 160, please?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 (Exhibit 160 published to witness.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. Sheriff, I meant to cover this a little earlier in your 23 testimony, but do you see Exhibit 160 in front of you?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. And is that -- does this depict an image of you speaking

1 with David Bundy?

2 A. Yeah, with a little less gray hair.

3 Q. And was this the discussion or the -- at the time, around
4 the time that you had the discussion with him alongside the 5 freeway on the south side of the Interstate 15?

6 A. Yes, it does.

7 Q. And does it fairly and accurately depict the events of 8 April 12, 2014, as you recall them?

9 A. Yes, it does.

10 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 160.

11 (Exhibit 160 offered.)

12 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

13 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

15 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

16 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 160 will be admitted.
17 You may go ahead and publish it.

18 (Exhibit 160 received.)

19 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 (Exhibit 160 published.)

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. And as I said, Sheriff, I wanted -- I neglected to cover
23 this with you when you were talking about Dave Bundy, but if 24 you could just point to his image and just make a mark of --
25 image of where he is in this photograph.

1 A. (Indicating).

2 Q. Okay. And you obviously are in the foreground; is that
3 correct?

4 A. (Indicating). That is correct.

5 Q. Thank you.

6 Now, did there come a time when you -- after you made
7 the decision or informed SAC Love to release the cattle, did
8 there come a time then when you met with SAC Love, Dave Bundy,
9 yourself, and Ryan Bundy at or near Post 1?

10 A. Yes, there was.

11 Q. And was the purpose of that meeting to discuss how to go
12 about releasing the cattle?

13 A. Yes, it was.

14 MR. MYHRE: And if I could, for the witness, please,
15 draw up Exhibit 23.

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 23 published to witness.)

18 BY MR. MYHRE:

19 Q. And was that meeting, to your knowledge, recorded?

20 A. Yes, it was.

21 Q. And outside the courtroom today have you had a chance to 22 review Exhibit 23?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. And is this Exhibit 23 a fair and accurate depiction of 25 that conversation that occurred at Post 1 after the decision

1 was made to release the cattle between yourself, SAC Love, and
2 Dave and Ryan Bundy?

3 A. I can't say yes because I don't see the other actors. I
4 don't -- is this a photograph or a video?

5 Q. No. If you could -- I'm sorry.

6 Nicole, if you could advance that, please, a little
7 bit.

8 (Exhibit 23 published to witness.)

9 THE WITNESS: Yes. It appears so.

10 MR. MYHRE: Thank you. And --

11 Thank you, Nicole.

12 Your Honor, we offer Exhibit 23.

13 (Exhibit 23 offered.)

14 THE COURT: Did you say this was a conversation with 15 David Bundy or Ryan Bundy? I think I missed which one.

16 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. With -- at this --
17 present, Sheriff, at this conversation was yourself, Dan --
18 SAC Love; correct? And was David Bundy present?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, he was.

20 BY MR. MYHRE:

21 Q. And was Ryan Bundy present?

22 A. Yes, he was.

23 Q. And were -- and was Ryan Bundy doing the speaking for most 24 of the time?

25 A. He was.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for that
2 clarification.

3 Any objection to Exhibit 23?

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

7 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 23 will be admitted.

9 You may go ahead and publish it.

10 (Exhibit 23 received.)

11 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 (Exhibit 23 published.)

13 MR. MYHRE: If you'd stop there, please.

14 BY MR. MYHRE:

15 Q. And, Sheriff, the individual with the vest that says
16 "police," who is that individual?

17 A. That is SAC Dan Love.

18 MR. MYHRE: And Nicole, if you could back it up, just 19 two seconds.

20 Two more.

21 BY MR. MYHRE:

22 Q. And it's backed up at 7 seconds and the individual to the 23 right with the hat, who is that individual?

24 A. That is Ryan Bundy.

25 Q. And Ryan Bundy is what relation to Cliven Bundy?

1 A. He's a son.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. MYHRE: Please continue on.

4 (Exhibit 23 published.)

5 BY MR. MYHRE:

6 Q. So, Sheriff, after observing this video, does that refresh
7 your memory in terms of what the gist of this conversation was 8 about?

9 A. Yes, it does.

10 Q. And what -- just generally, what was the purpose of this
11 conversation at Post 1?

12 A. To ensure that Ryan and David Bundy had an understanding
13 that it was against federal law to release the cattle and --
14 but that we had given the ability to do that without 15 repercussion at that time.

16 Q. When you say "at that time," what -- what does that 17 referring to?

18 A. In other words, they would be -- have the ability to 19 release the cattle and they weren't going to be placed under 20 arrest at that time.

21 Q. When you say "they weren't going to be placed under arrest
22 at that time," did that mean forever?

23 A. No. Absolutely not.

24 Q. So what was the purpose of saying not at that time?

25 A. In order to calm, de-escalate the crowd and the situation,

1 to prevent bloodshed --

2 Q. Do you feel -- with respect not just to the arrest of
3 either of the Bundys, but with respect to the arrest of anybody
4 in that area, do you feel that would have affected the level of 5 tensions?

6 A. Yes. I believe -- wholeheartedly believe it would have
7 escalated the situation.

8 Q. And would -- did you have the resources, the ability to 9 effectuate a number of arrests?

10 A. No. Absolutely not.

11 Q. Now, but for the crowd that you faced and the threat that 12 you faced and assessed while you were at Post 1, would you have 13 directed the BLM to release the cattle?

14 A. I'm sorry. Can you rephrase it --

15 Q. Sure.

16 A. -- or repeat the question?

17 Q. You were -- when you made the decision to release the --
18 to direct the BLM to release the cattle, was that based solely 19 on what you were facing in terms of the threat before you
20 that -- what you were assessing at the ICP?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, may I have just one moment,
23 please?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 (Counsel conferring.)

1 MR. MYHRE: And, Your Honor, could we bring up
2 Exhibit 23 again?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 MR. MYHRE: And Nicole, if you could go to about
5 2:49.

6 BY MR. MYHRE:

7 Q. And the individual that we see here, Sheriff, who is 8 that -- do you know who that individual is?

9 A. Which one?

10 Q. I'm sorry. The one -- the -- I'll circle the gentleman
11 here with the helmet (indicating).

12 A. Yeah. That's one of my SWAT officers.

13 Q. And this is -- would this have been a member of the SWAT
14 Team that had been dispatched to the ICP?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, the way this officer is equipped and uniformed, is 17 that how SWAT officers are equipped and uniformed?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. Is that standard for Metro or is that standard for most 20 police departments, do you know?

21 A. I can't testify to that, but it's standard for Metro.

22 Q. Standard for Metro.

23 MR. MYHRE: And then if we could just go to 1:23,
24 please, Nicole.

25 I'm sorry. Let's try at 1:05. I apologize.

1 Now, I think you had -- I'm sorry. Was that -- was
2 that 1:23 earlier?

3 Okay. There we go. Thank you very much.

4 BY MR. MYHRE:

5 Q. So, we've stopped the video at 1:23 and just, again, for 6 purposes, the individual in the foreground here to the left
7 (indicating), who is that individual?

8 A. This individual (indicating)?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. That is David Bundy.

11 Q. And he's a son of Cliven Bundy as well?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. You discussed Ammon Bundy earlier. Do you know him to be 14 a son of Cliven Bundy as well?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. Now, after you had this discussion, and this discussion
17 occurred at Post 1 or near Post 1; is that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. After this discussion, did BLM eventually leave that -- 20 the area?

21 A. Yes, they did.

22 Q. Okay. And did you observe them leaving?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. And were the cattle eventually released?

25 A. Yes, they were.

1 Q. Was that before or after BLM left the area?

2 A. After.

3 Q. And did you -- were you concerned for safety during the 4 release of the cattle as well?

5 A. Yeah. I was -- I was concerned for safety until the 6 complete -- until I actually left the area eventually, so . . .

7 Q. How long were you in the area, total?

8 A. I don't know, sir. I mean, it was well over five hours.

9 Q. So, you would have left after the cattle left as well; is
10 that correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I have no further questions.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 Cross?

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'd ask, if possible, if we 16 may take our break.

17 THE COURT: Sure.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Okay. We'll go ahead and take our 20 15-minute break. During this time I need to remind the jury
21 you are not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone
22 to discuss it with you. You can speak to your fellow jurors
23 about other things, but not about this case.

24 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that
25 touches upon this case in any way.

1 Do not attempt to perform any independent research or
2 investigation.

3 If you have a question, write it down on the form
4 provided, and please do not form any opinion.

5 Let's go ahead and take about a 15-minute break.

6 We'll stand for the jury and then everyone else may 7 recess afterwards.

8 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Sheriff, you may stretch or use the 10 restroom as well. We just need you back here in 15.

11 Off record.

12 (Recess was taken at 3:22 p.m.)

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

14 THE COURT: You may be seated. We're going to go
15 ahead and call in the jury.

16 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

18 (Jury returned to courtroom at 3:43 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: Thank you. Everyone may be seated.

20 Mr. Tanasi, you want to go first?

21 MR. TANASI: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

22

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Sheriff.

1 A. Afternoon.

2 Q. Rich Tanasi. I represent Steve Stewart (indicating). Got
3 a few questions for you on cross. Okay, sir?

4 All right. You are the current sheriff --

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. -- in Las Vegas; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And that is essentially the head of the Las Vegas
9 Metropolitan Police Department; right?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. And that is an elected office; correct?

12 A. Yes, it is.

13 Q. Makes you an elected official; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. Fair to say then you rely on votes in order to hold
16 that position? You need to be voted into that office; correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. All right. Have to have a good public perception in order
19 for people to vote for you; right?

20 A. I would hope so.

21 Q. Okay. And -- and you get your support from different
22 entities; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. I've got it down that you get different support
25 from different casinos in town; correct?

1 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance.

2 THE COURT: What's the relevance of this?

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to bias. I'm 4 setting up exactly how it gets there with my next line of 5 questioning. Essentially the support that he relies on in 6 order to hold the elected office.

7 THE COURT: The financial support?

8 MR. TANASI: Correct, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 Overruled.

11 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, with respect to that, there's 12 no developed relationship between financial support and the 13 events of April the 12th and to the extent he's inquiring into 14 this, it bears no relevance at all to what the sheriff was 15 doing out on April -- April the 12. I'm not seeing the 16 so-called bias here at all.

17 THE COURT: Well, it's an attempt to show bias. It
18 doesn't necessarily mean that he will or will not be 19 successful, but he has an opportunity to attempt to show bias.

20 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. Sheriff, so, essentially, again, you -- you rely on the 23 support, at least of others, politically, in order to hold the 24 job that you hold. Is that fair to say?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. And isn't it true that your office, it
2 receives 9 million dollars, roughly, a year in federal funding
3 in order to survive? Isn't that correct?

4 A. I wouldn't use the word "survive." We receive 9 million
5 dollars, approximately, in federal funding.

6 Q. Okay. Could you survive without that 9 million dollars?

7 A. Absolutely.

8 Q. You could?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. So the 9 million dollars is essentially what then?

11 A. It's -- helps. It supports, but we are not relied upon it
12 in order to function.

13 Q. Okay. Let's fast-forward to Bunkerville, sir.

14 On the 12th, you arrive roughly 10:00 a.m. Does that 15 sound about right?

16 A. I would say a little bit sooner probably. I'm not sure.
17 I'm not sure. I was there on the 12th.

18 Q. Understood. But what time roughly do you think you got
19 there?

20 A. It was in the morning hours.

21 Q. In the morning hours. Okay.

22 And when you got there, you ultimately reached the 23 assessment that I had written down that ultimately to kind of 24 control the situation, you'd need about 500 officers; right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. But when you arrived, how many officers did you
2 have with you?

3 A. There was approximately 50 officers present. When I went
4 to the stage area, there was four of us.

5 Q. Okay. So, again --

6 A. Actually, strike that. There was five of us.

7 Q. Okay. So for the ideal situation, in order to handle the 8 situation ideally, you'd have 500, kind of in hindsight, but 9 when you got there, right, you only had about 50? Is that
10 fair?

11 A. That's fair.

12 Q. Okay. And that was because that that's based on the 13 information you had; right? When you're heading down to 14 Bunkerville, you make that decision to come up with that 15 number; right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Okay. And you make that decision based, in part, on 18 learning kind of what's going on in Bunkerville; right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. And one of the things that you -- you learned was 21 that the BLM's operation was over; right? While you were 22 driving there on the 12th; correct?

23 A. I wouldn't describe it that way. It was -- we had been 24 advised that they were told to cease and desist. I had no idea
25 whether it was over or not.

1 Q. Okay. Advised to cease and desist; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Not advised to start up the operation; right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Not advised to continue the operation; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Advised to cease and desist; right?

8 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Asked and answered.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could please call up
11 Government's Exhibit 21.

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

13 If you could stop it right there, Brian.

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. Okay. Again, we're kind back now to Bunkerville and we're 16 at the speech on the 12th; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And this is at the rally site; right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. This isn't on the northbound or southbound bridge;
21 right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. How far is this rally site, roughly, from the 24 northbound bridge, you'd say?

25 A. I don't know. I don't know.

1 Q. Don't know?

2 A. No.

3 Q. How long did it take you? You went from one to the other.
4 How long did it take you?

5 A. Oh, it's more -- it's more than three miles, so . . .

6 Q. More than five?

7 A. I would guess that.

8 Q. Okay. All right.

9 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could fast-forward,
10 please, to 1 minute and 7 seconds.

11 And go ahead and stop.

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. And so, now, what we see here is Sheriff Gillespie;
14 correct?

15 A. That is correct.

16 Q. All right. He -- he was the sheriff at the time in 17 Bunkerville; right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Basically held the job you hold now; right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. So he gives this speech; right?

22 A. He gives what speech?

23 Q. The speech we're looking at here?

24 A. Just being rhetorical, but that doesn't look like a speech
25 to me.

1 Q. So, understood. We'll play it.

2 MR. TANASI: Go ahead, Brian.

3 (Exhibit 21 published.)

4 MR. TANASI: Brian, can you stop it, please.

5 Thank you, sir.

6 BY MR. TANASI:

7 Q. All right. So we just heard from Sheriff Gillespie;
8 right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And he's addressing the crowd and he's saying that the BLM
11 is going to cease this operation; right?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. All right. And again, this is at least five miles away
14 from where the wash and the cattle are located; correct?

15 A. Yeah, and I'm relying on you on the distance.

16 Q. Well, don't rely on me, sir. I asked you the question.

17 A. I don't know what the distance is.

18 Q. Okay. But, fair to say it's about five miles?

19 A. That's fair.

20 Q. Okay. All right. The sheriff goes on to say -- tells the 21 crowd that the Gold Butte allotment will be reopened to the 22 public; correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if you could play
25 that, just to be clear -- just to be clear. It's 1 minute and

1 35 seconds.

2 (Exhibit 21 published.)

3 MR. TANASI: Okay. Stop, Brian, please.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. All right. So, again, he's informing the crowd that that
6 Gold Butte allotment, that wash area, it's going to be reopened
7 to the public so they're free to go; right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay.

10 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could fast-forward to
11 6:24, please.

12 Okay. Go ahead and stop it.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. All right. So, in this picture we see you; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right. And then this gentleman here that I'm circling
17 (indicating), he's got a radio on him; correct?

18 A. That appears to be a radio.

19 Q. Okay. Now, fair to say that the makeup of the crowd was 20 different; right?

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Vague. Different
22 from what?

23 THE WITNESS: That's not fair to say.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. All right. Fair to say, not everybody in the crowd was

1 wearing a radio like that; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. All right. So some people had radios; right?

4 A. I assume so.

5 Q. Okay. And some people didn't; right?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. So the makeup of the crowd was different; correct?

8 A. In that aspect.

9 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could go to 7 -- I'm 10 sorry. Yeah, 7 minutes and 20 seconds, please.

11 All right. Actually, Brian, if you could back up
12 just a little bit more to 7:15. Go ahead and play.

13 (Exhibit 21 published.)

14 MR. TANASI: And stop it there.

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. All right. So, in the background, Sheriff, we've got 17 Sheriff Gillespie (indicating); correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. All right. And then next to him, who is this 20 (indicating), sir?

21 A. That's Undersheriff Dixon.

22 Q. Undersheriff Dixon. Okay. Who is he talking to there?

23 A. Ammon.

24 Q. Okay. Appears to have a smile on his face; right?

25 A. I'm sorry?

1 Q. Sheriff -- Undersheriff Dixon, he appears to have a smile
2 on his face there?

3 A. I can't tell.

4 Q. Can't tell. All right.

5 MR. TANASI: Brian, if we can go back to 4:05,
6 please.

7 (Exhibit 21 published.)

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. All right. This is kind of back -- I know we jumped 10 backwards, but this is when Cliven was addressing the crowd;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay. And in this speech he says something to the effect
14 of that when he went to bed on the 11th, he didn't know what he 15 was going do. Does that sound about right to you?

16 A. That's my recollection.

17 Q. Okay. So, goes to bed on the 11th, doesn't know what he's 18 going do. Standing here, though, in front of the crowd giving 19 his speech he seems to have more of an idea of what his plan
20 is; correct?

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Speculation, Your Honor, as 22 to what Mr. Bundy was thinking.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. All right. So just so we're clear though, you agree with

1 me, he does address the crowd and he says that on the 11th,
2 when he goes to bed, he doesn't know what he's going to do on
3 the 12th; correct?

4 MR. MYHRE: Well, objection, Your Honor, as to -- I
5 don't recall the precise words.

6 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if we could just go
7 ahead and replay it.

8 (Exhibit 21 published.)

9 I apologize. Brian, if you stop for a second. Let's
10 back up just a little bit further. Back up to 4:03, say.

11 (Exhibit 21 published.)

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Stop. Thank you.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Okay. Went to bed, didn't know what he was going do, how 15 he was going to handle this. Here, he's telling the crowd he's 16 got an idea of what he's going to do. Fair?

17 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Your Honor, assumes facts not 18 in evidence that he went to bed assuming not knowing what he 19 was going to do.

20 MR. TANASI: I'll let the video speak for itself and 21 move on, Your Honor. Thank you.

22 All right. If we could -- Brian, if you could call
23 up Government's Exhibit 23, please.

24 (Exhibit 23 published.)

25 BY MR. TANASI:

1 Q. Okay. That gentleman there, that's Special Agent in
2 Charge Dan Love; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. He's in charge of the entire operation. Is that
5 fair?

6 A. It's fair to say.

7 Q. In charge of the BLM. Fair?

8 A. Fair to say.

9 Q. Played a pretty important role on that day, on the 12th?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. And who is the gentleman -- who is this 12 gentleman, sir (indicating)?

13 A. I do not know.

14 Q. Okay. But you're here at this time?

15 A. Yes, I am.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. TANASI: Go ahead, Brian, play it, please.

18 (Exhibit 23 published.)

19 MR. TANASI: All right. Go ahead and stop.

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. All right. I know we've only watched a little bit of it,
22 but you've seen this entire video before testifying here today;
23 correct?

24 A. Yes, I have.

25 Q. All right. In reviewing that video, you never saw

1 Steven Stewart there; right?

2 A. I don't recall.

3 Q. Okay. Did -- didn't see Mr. Parker there; correct?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Okay. Didn't see Mr. Drexler there; correct?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Didn't see Mr. Lovelien there; correct?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. All right.

10 MR. TANASI: Go ahead and play a little more, Brian.

11 (Exhibit 23 published.)

12 MR. TANASI: All right. Stop.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. All right, sir. Who is this gentleman back here
15 (indicating)?

16 A. It looks like, back then, Assistant Sheriff McMahill.

17 Q. Okay. What was his role?

18 A. In support of me.

19 Q. Okay. Thank you.

20 And then this gentleman here (indicating)? I'm 21 guessing he's not with Metro?

22 A. No, he's not.

23 Q. Okay. Do you know who he is and what he's doing there?

24 A. No. I -- back -- to be frank with you, back then, I
25 thought he was a videographer for the BLM.

1 Q. Okay. And again, this gentleman in the glasses
2 (indicating), again, might have asked you about him already,
3 but do you know who that is?

4 A. No, but he's wearing a government insignia.

5 Q. Okay. Fair to say his role there then is with the
6 government?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. TANASI: All right. Go ahead and keep playing
9 it, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 23 published.)

11 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, you can stop. Thank
12 you.

13 Why don't we go ahead to 2:48.

14 Okay. Stop.

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Okay. This gentleman here (indicating), that I'm 17 circling, who is that?

18 A. It's one of my SWAT officers.

19 Q. Okay. What's he wearing?

20 A. His tactical gear.

21 Q. Okay. All right. You had an opportunity -- actually,
22 Brian, if you could call up Exhibit 160.

23 (Exhibit 160 published.)

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. All right, sir. So, again, this is -- this is you

1 depicted in the picture; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. All right. And this gentleman here (indicating), who's
4 that?

5 A. Looks like David Bundy.

6 Q. Okay. Now, you had a conversation with Dave Bundy; right?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. Talking to him right there; right?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Okay. And prior to this, you were kind of walking across
11 the highway in what you called maybe the skirmish line or had 12 the officers that were going to be part of that skirmish line
13 with you. Is that fair?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So again, just moments before this picture you're 16 kind of on one side of the road walking across the road with 17 your officers, come over to this picture that we're looking at 18 now and start to have a conversation with Dave Bundy; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. So I'm going to show you now what's been
21 premarked for identification purposes only as Defense Exhibit
22 5029. Also on the Government's list as Exhibit 41.

23 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. All right. I'm going to show you this video kind of

1 intermittently and ask you if you recognize it and if you know
2 who's in it and if, in fact, it's you. Fair?

3 A. I'm sorry.

4 Q. Okay. Why don't you watch this video a little bit, just
5 for a second. Go ahead.

6 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

7 MR. TANASI: All right. Stopping at the 10 second
8 mark, 14 second mark now.

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. Is that you, sir?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. All right. Who else is in the picture with you?

13 A. Undersheriff McMahill and three SAT Team officers.

14 Q. All right. And where are you?

15 A. I'm sorry?

16 Q. Where are you in the picture?

17 A. (Indicating).

18 Q. Appreciate that.

19 Where is the actual location that you're standing on?

20 A. Where is the actual location?

21 Q. Yes, sir.

22 A. That's the -- the median area with the transition between 23 the two freeways -- north and southbound I-15.

24 MR. TANASI: Okay. Go ahead and keep playing it,
25 Brian.

1 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

2 MR. TANASI: All right. If you can stop it there at 3 the 23 second mark.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. Okay. What's out in front of you?

6 A. Out here (indicating)?

7 Q. Anywhere out in front of you.

8 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, we're going to object to the 9 -- I'm sorry. We object to the continuing description of 10 what -- since it's not an admitted exhibit, I'm not sure why
11 we're walking through each frame of this exhibit describing 12 things in it when the jury -- it's not before the jury.

13 MR. TANASI: Fair enough, Your Honor. I can back up.

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. Do you recognize what you see here, sir?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. All right.

18 MR. TANASI: Can you go ahead and keep playing it,
19 Brian.

20 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

21 MR. TANASI: And stop it, Brian.

22 So we're at the 50 second mark.

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. Do you recognize what you've seen so far, sir?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 MR. TANASI: Okay. Go ahead and keep playing.

2 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

3 MR. TANASI: Now, Brian, we can stop it at the 1:25
4 mark.

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. Do you still recognize this video, sir?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. How do you recognize the video, sir?

9 A. That's me.

10 Q. You doing what, sir?

11 A. I'm talking to David Bundy.

12 MR. TANASI: Okay. Go ahead and keep playing it.

13 (Exhibit 5029 published to witness.)

14 MR. TANASI: All right. Brian, if you could 15 fast-forward to the end.

16 Okay. Go ahead and stop.

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. All right, sir. Having viewed that video, does it fairly 19 and accurately depict the events that you participated in on 20 the 12th?

21 A. Yes, it does.

22 MR. TANASI: Okay. Your Honor, I'd move to admit
23 Defense Exhibit 5029.

24 THE COURT: Any objection?

25 MR. MYHRE: We object, Your Honor.

1 The -- and this would go to a matter that was earlier
2 ruled upon by the Court.

3 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to sidebar.

4 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

5 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Mr. Myhre.

6 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 The Government objects to a portion of the video
8 5029, is that it?

9 MR. TANASI: 5029.

10 MR. MYHRE: 5029, where the sheriff, in his 11 discussion with Dave Bundy that's being recorded, talks about 12 the sheriff talking with the governor and meeting with the 13 governor and that they are working essentially with the 14 governor to get -- you know, work through the cattle issue. He 15 also talks about how the . . . Metro has made progress in 16 getting the BLM to cease and desist or to stop the impoundment.
17 All of that -- first of all, with respect to the governor, that 18 is all what the Court has already ruled upon. We open up the 19 door to, you know, whatever the governor said and what the 20 discussions of the governor were and so forth and secondly,
21 with respect to BLM being told by Metro to cease and desist,
22 those -- you know, that, again, is not factually true and I'm
23 not sure -- I think the witness would say he was just talking
24 in order to mollify the crowd. So, I am concerned that we're
25 getting into 403 area on that -- on that regard because of you

1 have to explain all the process of what led up to the BLM
2 deciding to cease and desist and that's not the focus of this
3 case.

4 MR. TANASI: Okay. So, first, Your Honor, it was
5 originally on the Government's exhibit list as Exhibit 41. At 6 some point they intended to offer it themselves. I understand
7 they've chosen not to, but the reason we would offer it is for
8 essentially the two comments that, you know, Sheriff Lombardo
9 would ultimately make; one being that yes, the governor was 10 involved. He doesn't say what the governor says. He doesn't
11 go as far as saying that the governor called the BLM improper.
12 I'm not trying to admit the governor's statement. I
13 understand, of course, what the Court's ruling is on this, but 14 he's --

15 THE COURT: It doesn't sound like you do. What's the 16 purpose of introducing the fact that the governor was or was 17 not involved?

18 MR. TANASI: Because we had testimony from 19 Agent Stover in the last trial that political pressure, in 20 part, led to the BLM deciding to cease their operations. I'm 21 not getting into the exact words that were used by the 22 governor, but the fact that there was political pressure at 23 some level that played into their decision to cease the 24 operations goes directory to the defense of the case, which is 25 that our guys didn't extort or stop the BLM, they were going to

1 do so anyways. They were doing it before Steven Stewart even
2 arrived in Bunkerville. So, political pressure at least, in 3 part, played a role in the extortion, in defending the 4 extortion element of the case.

5 Additionally, he goes on to say that --

6 THE COURT: Political pressure caused by something
7 separate than the Bundy --

8 MR. TANASI: Correct, which --

9 THE COURT: What would be that other political 10 pressure?

11 MR. TANASI: I -- I'm not going that far with it,
12 Your Honor. I'm just saying that's what he mentions.

13 THE COURT: Well, then it --

14 MR. TANASI: He said it was political pressure, but 15 the government is saying that Steven Stewart is who extorted
16 the BLM and what I'm saying or what we're defending is that at 17 least, in part, of the governor had a role in the political 18 pressure that led to the stop.

19 THE COURT: The fact that the governor had a role is 20 insufficient. That doesn't make any difference one way or the 21 other. It's not relevant. It's more prejudicial than 22 probative.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay.

24 THE COURT: You're not giving me anything probative
25 there --

1 MR. TANASI: Understood.

2 THE COURT: -- to balance.

3 MR. MARCHESE: But the thing of it is, though, and I
4 think we're making more of it than it really is, it's so
5 minimal what he says about the governor. It's a very minimal
6 amount. He just says that he was in contact with the governor.
7 It doesn't say anything about the governor's opinion, which was
8 what the Court's order went directly to. It's just --

9 THE COURT: And how would it be relevant if it
10 doesn't say anything?

11 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it's -- it's relevant to the 12 fact for them to hear it, but more importantly they opened the 13 door by eliciting this testimony. We are just simply 14 introducing what --

15 THE COURT: Eliciting what testimony?

16 MR. PEREZ: The cease and desist.

17 MR. MARCHESE: He talked about the meeting that he 18 had with Dave Bundy. That's what this is. We are just simply 19 showing what actually happened.

20 MR. TANASI: Timeline is key. As I established with 21 him in the beginning, is he was coming -- he was heading to 22 Bunkerville, thinking it was over. That's the point. And part 23 of the reason he thought it was over, it was because of the 24 conversations he's had with the governor. Again, not going 25 into exactly what the nature of those conversations were, but

1 the existence of those conversations. Point being, governor
2 has some role in the operation ceasing, not Steven Stewart.

3 THE COURT: I'm not seeing the probative value.

4 MR. TANASI: Okay. There's -- there's another --

5 MR. MARCHESE: Can we redact "governor"?

6 MR. TANASI: There's another portion of the video,
7 Your Honor, if I may, that -- where he says, "We've made huge
8 progress already. We got the BLM to stop operations."
9 Mr. Myhre's argument in opposing that coming in is that he
10 maybe just would have said that just for purposes of . . .
11 whatever. I don't know. Some other purpose other than it
12 being true. That goes right to credibility. I mean, is 13 that -- it's okay for --

14 THE COURT: I don't even understand what you just 15 said. His purpose of saying what?

16 MR. TANASI: He says, "We have made huge progress
17 already. We got the BLM to stop operations." That's one of 18 the statements that Mr. Lombardo -- Sheriff Lombardo tells 19 David Bundy.

20 THE COURT: Oh, okay. I thought you were talking
21 about the governor again.

22 MR. TANASI: No. Moved away from the governor.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. TANASI: Mr. Myhre, if I understood it correctly,
25 in his objection, says that he'll probably say that he said

1 that because he was trying to convey some other message. So,
2 again, conveying some other message other than the truth goes
3 directly to credibility. So . . .

4 MR. MYHRE: Our position is, is that none of this is
5 relevant.

6 I'm sorry. I've got to learn how to keep my voice
7 down.

8 Our position is none of this is relevant and whether 9 the sheriff thinks that they helped cease and desist or who
10 helped cease and desist is not relevant to anything and all
11 we're doing now is getting into that Metro had some role in 12 BLM, you know, stopping their operation. And that's -- (a),
13 it's not true, but (b), if we go down that path, Your Honor,
14 it's more prejudicial than probative. We're going to open up
15 another little mini trial as to how did this operation stop
16 when the stopping of the operation is not relevant. Our 17 extortion theory is they got the cattle. The cattle were held 18 by the government. They extorted the cattle. Nothing -- when 19 the operation stopped, started is really not relevant to 20 anything going on.

21 MR. MARCHESE: The problem is, is they've opened the 22 door by asking him about these questions. We -- we already had 23 testimony elicited by the Government as to when he made the 24 decision to cease the operation. That's -- I didn't make that.
25 That was testified to.

1 THE COURT: I don't see how that opens the door.

2 MR. MARCHESE: And -- and --

3 THE COURT: The objection is sustained. No. It's
4 not admissible.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, on the extortion . . .
6 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

7 THE COURT: All right. The objection is sustained.
8 Go ahead and move on, please, Mr. Tanasi.

9 MR. TANASI: Will do. Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So, Exhibit 5029 is not admitted.

11 MR. TANASI: Understood. Just -- the Court's
12 indulgence for just one moment.

13 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. Okay, sir. At some point on the 12th isn't it true that 16 you -- you made the decision to release the cattle?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Okay. And you made that decision -- or strike that.

19 Wouldn't you also agree that releasing cattle and 20 gathering cattle are two different things?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. And you communicated that decision to 23 Dan Love; correct?

24 A. Yes, I did.

25 Q. And again, you communicated that decision to Dan Love

1 prior to him going down into the wash and kind of setting up
2 there at the gate. Fair?

3 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. No foundation for
4 that.

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. When did you communicate that to Dan Love?

7 A. Up at Post 1.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I don't know the approximate time.

10 Q. Sure.

11 And was that maybe around the time in the video that 12 we had just watched with you and Special Agent Love?

13 A. Prior to that.

14 Q. Prior to that? Okay.

15 At some point after having that discussion with him,
16 though, Dan Love still goes down into the wash with the BLM
17 agents that are down there; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. All right. SWAT was there; right?

20 A. Yes, they were.

21 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Your Honor, as to foundation
22 as to where?

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. SWAT was in Bunkerville; correct?

25 A. Yes, they were.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. No, not Bunkerville, but in -- on the -- close proximity
3 to the highway.

4 Q. Okay. And again, maybe this is why -- Post 1?

5 A. Post 1.

6 Q. Okay. And at some point you make the decision to have
7 SWAT regress; correct?

8 A. Say that again.

9 Q. At some point you decide to have SWAT regress; correct?

10 A. Regress?

11 Q. Correct.

12 A. I don't understand the question.

13 Q. Okay. At some point did you change your decision on what 14 you wanted SWAT to do and how they were to conduct themselves?

15 A. No, I did not.

16 Q. What was the SWAT's original mission in the case?

17 A. The inner perimeter.

18 Q. Okay. And at some point did you have them enter that 19 perimeter?

20 A. Yes, when they first arrived.

21 Q. Okay. Did they hold that perimeter the entire time; sir?

22 A. Yes, they did.

23 Q. Okay. And again, you're -- the SWAT folks, they're 24 outfitted differently than regular Metro officers; correct?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. Okay. They have helmets; right?

2 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it's relevant to the 4 operational structure of the day.

5 MR. MYHRE: I'm not clear what the relevance of that
6 is.

7 THE COURT: Yeah.

8 MR. TANASI: Understanding his operational structure
9 of the day I think is exceedingly relevant to the case,
10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I don't understand the question. You
12 want to just restate it? Maybe if it's clear, it won't be 13 objectionable.

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. What was SWAT's function on the 12th, sir?

16 A. The inner perimeter.

17 Q. Okay. And in order to enter that perimeter, did you have 18 to outfit them or have them outfitted differently than any 19 other police officers or regular police officers?

20 MR. MYHRE: Again, objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

21 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor, it goes directly to 22 the operational structure of the day.

23 THE COURT: I think he already testified it was 24 standard uniform for -- so you asked him if he had them outfit?

25 MR. TANASI: If he had them outfitted and how. They

1 looked different than other officers. How so?

2 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll allow the
3 question, but I think it's still very confusing.

4 Witness may answer the question as best as he can.

5 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

6 BY MR. TANASI:

7 Q. All right. So, did SWAT have high-powered weapons?

8 MR. MYHRE: Well, objection, Your Honor. We didn't
9 get an answer to the question.

10 THE COURT: Yeah.

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. Was SWAT -- was SWAT outfitted differently than other
13 police officers, sir?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. How so?

16 A. They have different levels of tactic gear that is higher
17 than a regular police officer.

18 Q. Can you describe that in more detail, please.

19 A. Their vests can prevent the penetration of a higher
20 caliber weapon. Their helmets are higher rated in prevention
21 of penetration, and they possess a higher caliber weapons than 22 a regular police officer.

23 Q. And, again, you have your Metro folks that you're with 24 that are forming the skirmish line; correct? Is that a yes?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Thank you.

2 A. Sorry.

3 Q. And then -- no. No problem.

4 And then you have SWAT who is doing something
5 different; correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. All right. Originally, is it fair to say SWAT and all the 8 Metro folks that you're with are kind of in the same area in 9 the ICP? Fair?

10 A. Originally?

11 Q. When you -- when you leave the staging area and you arrive
12 at the ICP, at that point you kind of have all the Metro
13 officers in one area. Isn't that fair to say?

14 A. No. I wouldn't describe that -- I mean, when you say one
15 area, they were separated upon arrival.

16 Q. All right. So you advised -- upon arrival, you advised
17 the SAT Team; right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. You advised them to form a skirmish line; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. You advised them to be over out there, on the freeway;
22 correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. And then you advised SWAT Team to regress; correct?

25 A. I don't use the word "regress."

1 Q. Is it your testimony you don't use the word regress?

2 A. I don't recall regress. I thought I said defoliate
3 position.

4 Q. Would seeing a copy of your prior testimony refresh --

5 A. Sure.

6 Q. -- your recollection?

7 A. Sure.

8 Q. All right.

9 MR. MYHRE: Well . . .

10 (Photo displayed.)

11 BY MR. TANASI:

12 Q. Take a look, if you see it. Read it through and let me
13 know if it refreshes your recollection.

14 A. What am I looking at?

15 Q. You're looking at a transcript from prior testimony.

16 A. "I advised the SWAT Team to regress, form a perimeter in a 17 defoliate position."

18 Q. Thank you, sir.

19 Again, isn't it true that you advised the SWAT Team
20 to regress?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. That's the word you used, is "regress"; correct?

23 All right.

24 MR. MYHRE: Well, objection, Your Honor.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

1 MR. MYHRE: The witness did not answer and so we'd
2 ask for an answer if that's the term he remembers or if that's
3 the term that's written on that document that was shown to him.

4 MR. TANASI: I can show it to him again, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. MYHRE: I think -- I'm --

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. Would seeing a copy of transcribed testimony from prior
9 testimony refresh your recollection?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. MYHRE: I believe --

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. Would you go ahead and take a look at that and let me know
14 when you're refreshed -- when your recollection is refreshed.

15 A. Can you slide it up, please.

16 Q. (Counsel complies).

17 A. It's refreshed.

18 Q. Okay. Isn't it true you advised the SWAT Team to regress?

19 A. In prior testimony. Not today, I don't believe.

20 Q. All right. You don't disagree with testifying in the 21 past, though, that you advised the SWAT Team to regress. Fair?

22 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance on this
23 point.

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, now it goes right to bias
25 and credibility. He's changed his testimony.

1 MR. MYHRE: Well, that's not the testimony. He
2 hasn't said he's changed his testimony. He said he doesn't
3 recall using that term.

4 THE COURT: So, is there an objection?

5 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. We object to the 6 relevance and we're objecting to the foundation -- the lack of 7 foundation for this term "regress" because I'm not sure what
8 that term even means, or anybody understands what it means.

9 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you have the 10 witness clarify.

11 If you're going to try to impeach him by saying he 12 used a different term today than he used in the past, we need
13 to clarify what is the difference between the two terms.

14 MR. TANASI: Absolutely.

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Okay, sir. Showing you your prior testimony, let me know
17 when you see it.

18 A. I see it.

19 Q. And you see it's highlighted there, "I advised the SWAT
20 Team to regress"?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. All right. What did you mean by that?

23 A. I meant for them not to be in close proximity to the 24 skirmish line.

25 Q. All right. Thank you, sir.

1 And at this time Sheriff Gillespie, he was en route
2 back to Las Vegas; right?

3 A. That is correct.

4 Q. Okay. And Undersheriff Dixon, he was en route back to 5 Las Vegas; correct?

6 A. That is correct.

7 Q. All right. You testified on direct exam that you were
8 concerned with an accidental discharge; correct?

9 A. Today?

10 Q. Yes, sir. Today.

11 A. I don't recall that.

12 Q. All right. You testified today, and you testified in the 13 past, that you were concerned with an accidental discharge. Is 14 that fair?

15 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Hearsay.

16 THE COURT: Well, he can answer the question.

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. You testified in the past that you were concerned with an 19 accidental discharge?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. All right. Thank you, sir.

24 You would agree with me that accidental discharge is 25 different than an intentional discharge of a firearm. Fair?

1 A. That's fair.

2 Q. All right. Now, on the 12th, no arrests were made;
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. All right. Didn't arrest Steven Stewart; right?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. Okay. Didn't arrest Mr. Parker; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Didn't arrest Mr. Drexler; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Didn't arrest Mr. Lovelien; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. And you testified that those arrests were made
14 given the fear of the safety for other officers -- no arrests
15 were made, rather, because of the fear for safety of other
16 officers?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. All right. Again, no arrests were made despite seeing 19 individuals with firearms; right?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. Okay. No arrests were made despite seeing what you called 22 the cowboys; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. But, again, your words, you testified earlier that the 25 situation was out of control at the ICP skirmish line; correct?

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. And you made no arrests, despite it being out of control;
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Didn't have the SWAT Team make an arrest even though they 6 were outfitted to do so, had you ordered them; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. All right. I wrote this down and correct me if I'm wrong,
9 but people didn't fear law enforcement, I think you had 10 testified to that earlier with Mr. Myhre. Do you recall saying
11 that?

12 A. That was my belief.

13 Q. Okay. Are people supposed to fear law enforcement, sir?

14 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Argumentative.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, in his experience and 16 training as a police officer is it a good police method to fear
17 or install fear?

18 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, to the -- the 19 issue is whether it's relevant. It's argumentative.

20 THE COURT: You want to rephrase -- it is 21 argumentative, but do you want to rephrase it and ask what he 22 meant by fear.

23 MR. TANASI: I'll move on, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Prior to today's testimony, sir, who have you discussed

1 testifying with? That was a bad question.

2 A. Point of clarification.

3 Q. It was a bad question.

4 Prior to testifying today, did you discuss your
5 testimony with anybody else?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Okay. Who?

8 A. Mr. Myhre.

9 Q. Okay. How many times did you meet with Mr. Myhre prior to 10 today's testimony?

11 A. Since the last trial?

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. Once.

14 Q. And prior to the one meeting, how many times did you meet
15 with Mr. Myhre or any member of the United States Attorney's
16 Office?

17 A. I can't recall. Mr. Myhre is -- participates in different
18 committee meetings that I participate in and we did not discuss
19 the trial.

20 Q. Okay. So, how many times did you meet with anybody from 21 the United States Attorney's Office prior to today's testimony
22 to discuss your testimony in this trial?

23 A. Once.

24 Q. How many times did you meet with any member of the United
25 States Attorney's Office to discuss testifying at any time?

1 A. At any time, reference this trial?

2 Q. Or any other time, sir.

3 A. One time prior and in the previous trial and one time
4 prior to this trial.

5 Q. Okay. Two times in total to meet with the U.S. Attorney's
6 Office prior to your testimony here today?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Fair to say.

9 Did you meet with the FBI?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. How many times?

12 A. I believe once in close proximity of the -- post-event
13 when we were discussing prosecution.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. And then I met with them once to provide verbal testimony.

16 Q. All right. So, it's two times prior to today's testimony
17 that you met with the FBI; correct?

18 A. The FBI was present when I met with Mr. Myhre.

19 Q. All right. And then at least two times individually with 20 Mr. Myhre as well; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. That's correct.

24 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir.

25 Nothing further, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, on behalf of Mr. Parker.

2

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

4 BY MR. MARCHESE:

5 Q. Good afternoon, sir. I just got a few questions for you.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. My name is Jess Marchese. I represent Mr. Eric Parker.

8 He's the gentleman in the blue shirt there (indicating).

9 So, turning your attention to the day of April 12th,
10 back in 2014, I just want to focus on when you're in the ICP
11 Post 1 area.

12 Are you familiar with that area?

13 A. Yes, I am.

14 Q. Okay. So at some point in time on direct examination you
15 testified that you made the decision to walk across the street;
16 correct?

17 A. That is correct.

18 Q. All right. And the main reason for that is communication;
19 correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. You've been in law enforcement for a significant amount of 22 time. How long was it again?

23 A. 29 years.

24 Q. And in your 29 years, one thing that you've probably 25 learned is that communication is key to de-escalating

1 situations; correct?

2 A. Absolutely.

3 Q. All right. So in this situation, you wanted to 4 de-escalate the situation by going across the street and
5 possibly finding, I think the term you used on 6 direct-examination is, a leader. Does that sound correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. All right. And it -- when you went across the street or 9 were about to go across the street, did you know who you were 10 looking for?

11 A. I was attempting to locate one of the Bundys.

12 Q. Okay. And the Bundys, for lack of a better term, would be 13 one of the leaders. Is that fair to say?

14 A. That's fair to say.

15 Q. Okay. So, was that before or after you had set up that 16 skirmish line, I think, you had described it as?

17 A. After.

18 Q. Okay. So it was after.

19 So you set up the skirmish line with the Metro
20 officers; is that right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. All right. And you take, I think it was five officers or 23 so with you to go across the street; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. And at some point in time you came into

1 contact with David Bundy; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Had you had contact with Mr. Bundy before then?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And what was the nature of that contact? Was that
6 back at the stage?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Is that the first time you had met Mr. Bundy?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. And how many other times had you met Mr. Bundy,
11 Dave Bundy?

12 MR. MYHRE: Objection, relevance. Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: I'm just laying foundation for him
14 knowing him. That's all. I'm not going to get into any 15 conversations they had.

16 THE COURT: All right. So the question was, how many 17 times have you met him?

18 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. Just how many times, other than 19 the day at the stage, had you met Mr. David Bundy.

20 THE COURT: All right. Overruled. He may answer
21 that question, how many times.

22 THE WITNESS: Once prior to that day.

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay. So you met him twice, in total?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. So you recognized him; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And when you went up to him, did he recognize you?

4 A. I can't testify to that.

5 Q. All right. He didn't say, hey -- well, I'm sorry, what
6 was your title at the time?

7 A. Assistant sheriff.

8 Q. Okay. He didn't say, hey, Assistant Sheriff Lombardo --

9 A. No.

10 Q. -- he just said hello?

11 A. My initial contact -- or our initial contact was him, he 12 directly contacted Sheriff Gillespie.

13 Q. Okay. Now, on the date we're referring to, April 12th,
14 2014, you're dressed similar to the way you're dressed today;
15 correct?

16 A. That is correct.

17 Q. So you were in an official uniform; right? Is that a yes?

18 A. Yes. I'm sorry.

19 Q. Okay. So, when you got there, you had this conversation
20 about letting the cows go; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And on direct examination you basically said, hey, I need
23 more time; correct?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. This is not something I can get done in 10 minutes or

1 anything like that; right?

2 A. I believe I said eight -- either eight hours or two days.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. So . . .

5 Q. And then based on that conversation, was that when you
6 made the determination that you should give the order to 7 release the cattle?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. When was it that you made that decision, in 10 reference to that conversation; before or after?

11 A. After.

12 Q. Okay. How much after?

13 A. I believe it was probably hour, hour and a half --

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. -- after.

16 Q. When was that conversation that you had with Mr. Love that 17 we saw the video of? It was Mr. Love, there was yourself, and 18 then Ryan and David Bundy.

19 A. That was about an hour and a half after I had my initial 20 contact with Mr. David Bundy.

21 Q. Would it be fair to say that you made the decision in your 22 mind that the cattle should be released before that
23 conversation?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. So you made that decision --

1 A. Which conversation?

2 Q. The decision -- the conversation we're referring to that
3 there was the body cam, the last exhibit that we saw with 4 SAC Love, yourself, and the two Bundys --

5 A. Yeah. The decision --

6 Q. -- Ryan and Dave.

7 A. The decision was made prior to that.

8 Q. Okay. And how soon before that?

9 A. Maybe 15 minutes.

10 Q. So, shortly before?

11 A. Correct.

12 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Thank you.

15

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Good afternoon, Sheriff.

19 A. Good afternoon.

20 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent Mr. Drexler.

21 Now, Bunkerville is in Clark County; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. And it's still part of Metro's sort of area of -- 24 under its control; correct? In terms of --

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay. Now, you were asked on direct a number of threat
2 assessments and -- do you remember those questions?

3 A. No.

4 Q. At any point did you have a -- what was your threat
5 assessment or at this point you had increased threat
6 assessments.

7 You don't remember those questions?

8 A. No. I don't recall threat assessment being utilized.

9 Q. Okay. Now, you drove out to the stage area on the 12th in 10 the early morning; correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. And I think you went with Sheriff Gillespie?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. And when you got out to the stage area, you
15 indicated that Mr. Bundy was not there; correct?

16 A. That's correct -- which Bundy?

17 Q. Cliven.

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. He actually -- you indicated he came in on a Humvee;
20 right?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. Okay. And we saw some video.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could pull up 21, Government's
24 21, Brian.

25 (Exhibit 21 published.)

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. So, now that -- you were there during that speech;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes, I was.

6 Q. And that, I believe, was Ammon?

7 A. You have to let me answer, sir.

8 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. Go ahead.

9 A. Yes, I was.

10 Q. I thought -- I apologize. I thought you did.

11 And that was Ammon?

12 A. Yes, that was Ammon.

13 Q. Speaking right there?

14 A. Yes, it was.

15 Q. Okay. And Ammon indicated to the crowd that they need to 16 be respectful?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. And you indicated that when you -- after that, you
19 walked across the street, you were looking for one of the 20 Bundys. Not here, but when you were at Post 1.

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. Because one of the Bundys were sort of the leaders.
23 That's what you indicated; right? Right?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay. So that's a leader there telling everyone we need

1 to be respectful; correct?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. And respectful to the sheriff because he's an elected
4 official; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you can go on.

7 (Exhibit 21 published.)

8 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal, do you have a question or 9 are we going to hear it --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I will.

11 THE COURT: -- the video over again?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry.

13 THE COURT: How about you ask a question first. If 14 he doesn't remember, then you can refresh his recollection with 15 the video. We've already seen this video.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. I'm going to, but not through 17 me. I just usually just play it, but if that's a new way of 18 doing it, I'm not -- I -- he doesn't -- I'm not refreshing his 19 recollection; I'm going to ask him questions based upon the 20 video.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Ask him a question.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I need to get there. Can we -- I
23 play it a little bit more?

24 THE COURT: He's already seen the video. We've all
25 already seen the video.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Sheriff, in this video, the sheriff indicates that BLM --
4 BLM's -- it was ceasing operations; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. And he also said that the Gold Butte allotment was 7 reopened to the public; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. And he said that the BLM was removing their assets
10 in Clark County; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. So, that's what he told the crowd on that stage;
13 correct? Those three things. Right? And you had indicated
14 that the decision was made prior, on the 11th, were you aware 15 that that decision was made on the 11th that they were ceasing
16 operations?

17 A. No.

18 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. First, relevance
19 and hearsay.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. You went out there with Sheriff Gillespie to make that 23 statement; right?

24 A. I didn't know what statement Sheriff Gillespie was going
25 to make.

1 Q. Okay. So your understanding of why you went out there was
2 so that he could speak to Cliven Bundy?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. But you didn't know he was going to get up on the 5 stand?

6 A. Absolutely did not know.

7 Q. Okay. And you didn't -- you weren't -- you weren't aware
8 of any press release that he was speaking of there?

9 A. No. I was not aware of it.

10 Q. Now, you were asked a number of questions -- there's 11 people in the front there that have camouflage on. You were 12 asked those questions.

13 Do you remember that?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And they have ways of speaking to one of them, radio, sort
16 of radios on them as well?

17 A. I believe they were radios.

18 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that those people arrived with 19 Mr. Bundy; correct?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. Okay. So, is it fair to say that what you came upon 22 was -- was in the crowd, just the people in the crowd without
23 the people in the front and without the Bundys; right?

24 A. Without Cliven.

25 Q. Correct. As well as without the people -- the camouflage

1 people in the front that we saw?

2 A. Best of my recollection, that's correct.

3 Q. Okay. Because they showed up with him; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. So when you first arrived there, what we would see
6 in this video is what you saw, people in the crowd with phones
7 and cameras; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. Now, one of the things that Mr. -- or that sheriff
10 was there to do was I think you indicated was de-escalate the 11 situation; correct?

12 A. I don't believe I said what the sheriff was intending to 13 do.

14 Q. Okay. Was it -- at that point were you there, was one of 15 your motives was to de-escalate the situation?

16 A. Well, that -- I believe that's the intent of the sheriff,
17 yes.

18 Q. Okay. And what I'm talking about the stage area; right?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. So, when you were asked about the mood, you
21 indicated that it was calm.

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And then -- then the sheriff gave his speech and then you
24 said it became -- I believe you said that it became louder and 25 emboldened. Is that true?

1 A. When the sheriff gave his speech it became louder in
2 celebration of what he was saying. When Mr. Cliven Bundy gave
3 his speech, it became louder and derogatory.

4 Q. Okay. And that's when you left?

5 A. That's when we left.

6 Q. Okay. And that's when you went to the ICP command post;
7 correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And I believe you indicated that's when Sheriff Gillespie,
10 he left as well?

11 A. Subsequent a meeting we had with BLM.

12 Q. Okay. And did -- is that when he put you in command?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. So it was at that point at the ICP that you became 15 in charge of the operation?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. Were you in charge of the operation over -- is 18 it -- was it your understanding over what the BLM was doing?

19 A. No.

20 Q. No. So the BLM was in charge, or do you have separate --
21 who's in charge of the whole thing?

22 A. Special Agent Love.

23 Q. Love. Okay.

24 But at some point you indicated that you told Love
25 that he was going to return the cattle?

1 A. Correct. At that point I took over the operation.

2 Q. Okay. And so that was after you arrived at the ICP?

3 A. After, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And when you arrived -- and when you told Love,
5 what was his reaction?

6 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor. And
7 hearsay.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could pull up 191.

10 (Exhibit 191 published.)

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Is that on your screen, sir?

13 A. Yeah. I have that.

14 Q. Okay. So, again, just for -- just to get you -- you
15 understand, this is north and south I-15; right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And the wash is here (indicating) and the ICP is here
18 (indicating) and Post 1 is going to be right there
19 (indicating); correct?

20 A. Post 1's a little bit over.

21 Q. A little bit over. Okay. All right.

22 A. There you go.

23 Q. So, when you arrived at the ICP, how many people did you
24 see when you said they parked here (indicating)?

25 A. When I arrived, I was arriving simultaneous to the

1 demonstrators that I had seen at the stage. I assume they were
2 the same folks, because they were going up Highway 170. As I
3 progressed down I-15 and had a visual acquisition of the 4 individuals progressing up 170, I assumed it was the same
5 individuals that were at the stage area and we were arriving
6 simultaneously.

7 Q. Okay. Now, when you parked at -- right here in the medium
8 [sic] (indicating) --

9 A. Right.

10 Q. -- did you have a good view of the north and the 11 southbound lanes of I-15?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Could you tell us how many people, when you
14 arrived, were on the north and southbound lanes of I-15, just 15 above the wash?

16 A. When you say "people," who are you referring to?

17 Q. Anybody. A person rather than a vehicle driving.

18 Did you see anybody on that freeway over there?

19 A. No, not yet.

20 Q. Okay. Had you seen anybody congregate -- you indicated
21 that there were some people that went down underneath the 22 northbound wash. Had you seen them?

23 A. I couldn't -- if they were underneath, I wouldn't be able 24 to see them from where I was.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. But if they were -- you know, progressing towards that
2 direction, I could see them.

3 Q. Okay. I'm just going to clear this real quick.

4 And over here (indicating), just underneath the
5 southbound bridge, did you see any BLM car -- vehicles or BLM
6 agents over there?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. So, there were -- there were -- they were lined up
9 over here (indicating) and you didn't see at this point anybody
10 on the north and southbound. Do I have that correct?

11 A. At that point where I could observe the BLM vehicles down
12 there, I saw pedestrians walking up and down both directions.

13 Q. Okay. Is this when you first arrived to the ICP?

14 A. Not when we first arrived, no.

15 Q. Okay. I apologize. I'm asking when you first arrived to 16 the ICP.

17 A. No.

18 Q. When you left the -- the stage and you got to the ICP,
19 just -- right when Sheriff Lombardo left. My question is when 20 you got there, did you see anybody on the north and southbound
21 bridge?

22 A. I don't recall anybody.

23 Q. No. Okay.

24 And, again, I'm just making sure that we're within 25 the time frame now that when you first arrived, did you see

1 anybody parked -- I know you said you got there simultaneously
2 when what you thought were protestors got there and they parked
3 in here (indicating); correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that you walked across the 6 street to locate a person in charge, i.e., a Bundy; correct?
7 When you were going across from the medium [sic] over to the 8 area where they were parking?

9 A. That is correct.

10 Q. Okay. And you found Dave Bundy?

11 A. I found Dave Bundy.

12 Q. Okay. Who's Tom Roberts?

13 A. He was a deputy chief.

14 Q. Okay. And was he there?

15 A. Yes, he was.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. Not -- not over when I met with David Bundy; he was -- he
18 was both -- between Post 1 and Post 2.

19 Q. He was between Post 1 and Post 2. So that's . . . sort of 20 Post 1 is here (indicating) -- Post 1 is here (indicating);
21 Post 2 is here (indicating).

22 A. Correct. He was going --

23 Q. So he would be in between there?

24 A. No. He wasn't standing there; he was going back and forth
25 between those two locations.

1 Q. I see. So he was more on the sort of the BLM side, if you
2 will?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And so, when you went over to talk to Dave Bundy,
5 you indicated one of your reasons was to try to get him to 6 de-escalate or help you de-escalate the situation; correct?

7 A. That was part of it.

8 Q. Okay. Were you -- did you give orders to Roberts to 9 de-escalate the BLM?

10 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance.

11 THE COURT: Relevance?

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Was there anybody de-escalating the BLM?

14 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Assumes there's 15 something to escalate. Assumes facts not in evidence.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to just call him back.

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. You indicated that it was your decision to release the 20 cows; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And you were asked -- and you indicated that to Agent Dan
23 Love; right?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay. What was his reaction?

1 A. The --

2 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Same objection.
3 Hearsay and relevance.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm asking for a reaction; I'm not
5 asking for what he said. And again, it will go to his 6 threat -- his assessment of the threat. If -- if -- I guess if
7 Dan Love doesn't release the cows, then his assessment would go
8 up. So, you know, this all goes to his assessment as well, and 9 every time --

10 THE COURT: I don't know which "his" you're referring
11 to.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry?

13 THE COURT: I don't know which "his" you're referring
14 to. His, Loves's assessment --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: The sheriff's.

16 THE COURT: -- or the sheriff's assessment?

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: The sheriff's.

18 THE COURT: The sheriff's assessment --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- assessment of the threat. If 20 Dan Love doesn't do it, what he says, then we've got a no -- a
21 whole other situation; right?

22 THE COURT: I don't see the relevance.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. How -- how much involvement did Metro have prior to the

1 12th in that cattle roundup?

2 A. What do you mean involvement?

3 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Again, it goes to a threat
5 assessment, Your Honor. He's indicated -- you don't just have 6 a threat assessment in a vacuum. When you go out there, if 7 you've got 500 people out there, they've been out there for 8 three weeks and nothing --

9 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, to the speaking --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, then, we can have a sidebar.

11 MR. MYHRE: -- response.

12 THE COURT: Just rephrase your question.

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. Were you -- was Metro intricately or did Metro have any 15 involvement in the cattle roundup, that you know of?

16 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Objection, Your Honor.
17 Relevance and foundation.

18 THE COURT: What's the relevance?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Again, it goes to threat assessment.
20 If he had been out there for two weeks or three weeks or they 21 were involved in it, Metro, then I'm -- I'm testing whether or 22 not that threat assessment existed, because if you've got -- if 23 I'm allowed to speak or if we can go to sidebar.

24 THE COURT: I don't see the relevance --

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

1 THE COURT: -- of whether this existed in the past or
2 not, if we're talking about the day in question, April 12th,
3 2014.

4 So, sustained.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. You were -- you were asked a question by Mr. Myhre and you
7 indicated that you were not comfortable with the training and 8 experience of BLM's with groups of crowds. Why did you give 9 that answer?

10 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance and 11 mischaracterizes the testimony.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Those were his words, but . . .

13 THE COURT: He can answer that question.

14 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat it, sir?

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Yes, sir.

17 You were asked on direct exam by Mr. Myhre why you
18 had BLM exit in total and you indicated that you were not
19 comfortable with the training and experience of BLM with groups
20 and crowds.

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. Okay. Why did you say that, sir?

23 A. Because in my experience in law enforcement, that is not a
24 traditional role for BLM.

25 Q. Okay. What do you mean by that, "not a traditional role"?

1 A. BLM is -- is charged with enforcing regulations associated
2 with the environment and traditionally, they are not engaged in
3 crowd control or interaction with crowds.

4 Q. Did BLM ever request from Metropolitan Police Department
5 any type of help to do this, to crowd --

6 MR. MYHRE: Objection.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. -- control crowds?

9 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance.

10 THE COURT: Sustained.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. I have nothing further.

12 Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Perez?

14 On behalf of Mr. Lovelien.

15

16 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Good afternoon, Sheriff. My name is Shawn Perez. I
19 represent Ricky Lovelien. I have just one brief question.

20 Did you ever meet Mr. Lovelien at the rally site on 21 the 12th?

22 A. Who?

23 Q. Mr. Lovelien. Ricky Lovelien.

24 A. Ricky Lovely [sic]? I don't recall.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. PEREZ: Thank you. I have nothing further.

2 THE COURT: Redirect, Mr. Myhre?

3 MR. MYHRE: May I have just a moment, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 (Counsel conferring.)

6 MR. MYHRE: May I, Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

8 MR. MYHRE: Thank you.

9

10 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF JOSEPH LOMBARDO

11 BY MR. MYHRE:

12 Q. Sheriff, I believe you were asked by Mr. Tanasi on 13 cross-examination about whether you were concerned about
14 accidental discharge in connection with the firearms out there
15 that day. Is that -- do you recall that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Were you concerned about anything other than an accidental
18 discharge with respect to those firearms?

19 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

20 MR. MYHRE: I just asked if he was concerned about
21 anything else.

22 THE COURT: Yeah. That's not leading. He may answer
23 the question.

24 MR. TANASI: It's a yes or no answer, Your Honor.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

1 BY MR. MYHRE:

2 Q. What other factors were you concerned about?

3 A. Well, our -- my individual officers' safety, along with
4 the state patrol officers' safety and the BLM agents' safety
5 because we didn't have the proper tactical equipment to deal
6 with what was presented in case there was a firefight
7 associated with the event.

8 MR. MYHRE: May I have just one moment, Your Honor?

9 (Counsel conferring.)

10 MR. MYHRE: I have no further questions, Your Honor.
11 Thank you, Sheriff.

12 THE COURT: I think the question was, by Mr. Tanasi,
13 whether you were concerned with accidental discharge versus 14 intentional discharge. Were you ever concerned with an 15 intentional discharge?

16 THE WITNESS: Absolutely.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Tanasi, any redirect?

18 MR. TANASI: No, ma'am. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Marchese?

20 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Leventhal?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Perez?

24 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. So at this time if any

1 members of the jury have a question for Sheriff Lombardo,
2 please go ahead and write them down on the forms provided.
3 Remember, I don't need to know your name, don't give me your 4 jury number or your initials, just write down your question and
5 then fold the piece of paper in half and pass it in the 6 direction of Aaron or Mike and then we'll mix them up and ask
7 the questions.

8 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

9 THE COURT: Counsel, please meet me at sidebar.

10 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

11 THE COURT: Jury Question No. 1 is, "Reference was 12 made to a previous trial. What were the charges and how does 13 it relate to current trial?"

14 So . . .

15 MR. PEREZ: Oh, boy.

16 THE COURT: I'm assuming we have a uniform objection
17 to that one.

18 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: How do you want us to deal with 21 prior -- just say prior --

22 MR. TANASI: I was trying to tiptoe.

23 THE COURT: Prior testimony. Not prior trial, prior
24 testimony, but I think the witness was the one who said trial,
25 not you all if I remember correctly. Yeah.

1 All right. So Jury Question No. 2 is a four part
2 question. So the first part is, "What was meant by the
3 impoundment was to stop?" And then looks like they're giving
4 us two options: "BLM to stop collecting cattle?"

5 "BLM to release cattle already rounded up?"

6 MR. TANASI: I think it's fine.

7 MR. MYHRE: Well, we would object, Your Honor. This
8 witness does not have the basis for answering that question.

9 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, he made his -- all right.
10 Go ahead.

11 MR. MYHRE: No, he -- it's in reference to the 12 decision-making to cease the impoundment and he was not 13 involved in that decision nor was he involved in the 14 impoundment operation itself. So he would not know what the --
15 what that meant in terms of whether it's to stop gathering
16 cattle or stop --

17 THE COURT: All right. So the objection is that it
18 would be speculative on behalf of this witness to answer that
19 question.

20 MR. MYHRE: Correct.

21 THE COURT: But perhaps you have another witness that 22 might be able to provide that information for the jury.

23 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Question No. 2 is, "Before
25 the deputy sheriff decided to release the cattle, was there a

1 plan to release the cattle or ship the cattle out?"

2 MR. MYHRE: Again, same --

3 THE COURT: Same objection?

4 MR. MYHRE: Same objection.

5 THE COURT: All right. Question No. 3 is, "What does
6 cease and desist mean as to Sheriff Lombardo's understanding?"

7 Any objection to that?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I don't --

9 MR. MARCHESE: It's his understanding.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: They're his words.

11 MR. MYHRE: If -- is it phrased, Your Honor, as what 12 he meant by those words and as what -- that has some special
13 meaning?

14 THE COURT: Well, cease and desist is in quotation
15 marks, so who said that?

16 MR. TANASI: He did.

17 MR. MYHRE: The witness said I believe that to cease
18 and desist.

19 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So that's all the question is 20 asking is what is -- is to clarify that term, the terminology
21 that he used.

22 So no objection to Number 3, right?

23 MR. MYHRE: No.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

25 MR. MARCHESE: No.

1 MR. PEREZ: No.

2 MR. TANASI: No objection, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And then Number 4 is, "What area is the 4 Gold Butte area?"

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good question. Foundation.

6 MR. MYHRE: I'm not sure this witness knows,
7 Your Honor, but we'll have another witness that can speak to
8 that.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. TANASI: Your Honor --

11 THE COURT: Jury question -- Jury Note No. 3. "Is 12 there a command relationship on incident command structure
13 present on the day 4-12-14?"

14 Let me see if I can -- is there a command
15 relationship -- maybe it's on incident command -- let me know
16 if you think I'm misreading that. It's cursive.

17 (Counsel conferring.)

18 MR. TANASI: I think it's "on." On incident command.

19 MR. PEREZ: So maybe they're looking for the 20 relationship between the BLM and . . .

21 MR. MYHRE: Command relationship on.

22 MR. TANASI: On incident command structure present on 23 the time for 12-14.

24 I think it's fine.

25 MR. MYHRE: I don't know what it means.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Maybe it's asking who was in charge.

2 MR. PEREZ: Basically.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because it got muddled up.

4 MR. MYHRE: I don't think we have any problem with --
5 to the extent he knows.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah. He can explain what he
7 understood of the command relationships between the agencies.

8 All right. Jury Question Note No. 4, "Do you know if 9 their firearm was loaded?"

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Whose?

11 THE COURT: I guess any of them.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's vague. Sheriff? His people --
13 his -- Metro? BLM? I -- they haven't even --

14 MS. CREEGAN: Strikes me as unlikely that they're 15 asking about BLM.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, who?

17 He wouldn't know that.

18 THE COURT: I think he can answer the question, at 19 least.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, he wouldn't know it. How 21 would -- he would be speculating. He didn't even ID our guys.
22 How would he know if they had guns -- even if they had guns --
23 he said he couldn't identify anybody.

24 THE COURT: Well, I think we'll get better answers if 25 I ask the question and he says I don't know and then that will

1 be a little more specific with the question.

2 MR. MYHRE: Right. Whatever he observed.

3 THE COURT: So, I think it will be fine.

4 And then Jury Note No. 5. "What is the organization
5 authority or relationship between the BLM and LVMPD? Is/was 6 there a critical incident command structure or coordination of 7 field activity and if so, who was the command authority?"

8 MR. MYHRE: That sounds like a more expanded version
9 of the other question.

10 THE COURT: Yeah.

11 Frankly, that was the question I had the first trial,
12 too, was the relationship between all these different agencies.
13 So, I can't fault them for being curious.

14 (Counsel conferring.)

15 MR. MYHRE: I don't -- we don't have any objection,
16 Your Honor. I think that to the extent, again, that he knows,
17 I don't -- I just don't know if this witness . . .

18 THE COURT: All right. We'll find out.

19 All right. And you'll all get copies of these and 20 then you'll have the opportunity to ask follow-up questions if 21 you'd like to.

22 MR. TANASI: Which ones did we rule out? Was it just 23 one, the first trial?

24 THE COURT: So, they're all coming in except for a
25 number -- Jury Note No. 2 was a four-part question and we're

1 only asking Number 3. We're not asking the others.

2 MR. TANASI: What about the trial?

3 THE COURT: But I -- what I do is I'll read the 4 question out loud and then I tell them why I'm not asking the 5 question. It's my call on not asking the questions because --
6 so that also helps them to phrase their questions a little bit
7 better.

8 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you.

9 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

10 THE COURT: Sheriff, I've got a couple questions here
11 from the jury. I'm going to read the questions to you, but 12 when you respond, you can go ahead and turn and look at the 13 jury because these are their questions; I'm just reading it --
14 reading them for them for anonymity sake. Okay?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: So, Jury Note No. 1 is, "Reference was 17 made to a prior trial." And so, I'm just going to explain so
18 you don't have to, that there are different hearings that
19 happen in a process in a criminal case and so sometimes people
20 have to testify more than once and . . . we'll just leave it at 21 that, that there's just different hearings in a case and 22 sometimes witnesses have to testify many times.

23 All right. Let's see, Jury Question Note No. 2 is a
24 four part question: The first one is, "What was meant by the 25 impoundment was to stop? Was it BLM to stop collecting cattle?"

1 Or BLM to release cattle already rounded up?"

2 So, I'm -- my ruling is I'm not asking you this
3 question because this particular witness already testified that
4 he didn't know when he got there what Sheriff Gillespie was 5 going to say or what Sheriff Gillespie knew about what had
6 happened or hadn't happened yet. So in other words, this 7 witness doesn't have that information, but the Government tells
8 me there will be other witnesses later who do have that 9 information and so, we're grateful that -- to know what 10 questions you have so that we can ask the right people those
11 questions.

12 Number -- the Subquestion No. 2 of Jury Note 2 is,
13 "Before deputy sheriff decided to release the cattle, was there
14 a plan to release the cattle or ship the cattle out?"

15 So again, this witness doesn't have that information,
16 but there will be other witnesses who do have that information
17 so we're glad to know that that's a question that we need to 18 remember to ask the next couple of witnesses.

19 Number 3 is a question that this witness can answer.
20 The question he is, "What does cease and desist mean as to 21 Sheriff Lombardo's understanding?" That was a term that you
22 used and so the question is, clarify that term, please.

23 THE WITNESS: The meaning of that was to no longer
24 gather the cattle.

25 THE COURT: All right. And then Jury Question Note

1 No. 2 has a last question, Number 4 on that is, "What area is
2 the Gold Butte area?" And so, again, we will have another
3 witness that is going to testify better, more precisely about
4 what that Gold Butte area is. So I'm not asking this witness
5 that question.

6 Jury Note No. 3, "Is there a command relationship in
7 incident command structure . . . present at the time,
8 April 12th of 2014?" And I apologize if that's not the exact
9 words that you meant me to read, but it's a little bit
10 difficult for me. I think that's what it says because it's in 11 cursive. "Is there a command relationship in incident command
12 structure present at the time of April 12th, 2014?"

13 THE WITNESS: Well, I'm -- I'm not sure exactly the 14 intent of the question, but there was a command structure
15 associated with BLM separate of LVMPD. Subsequent me declaring
16 that I was in charge, there was a command structure also within 17 my organization.

18 THE COURT: All right. And then Jury Note No. 4, the 19 question is, "Do you know if their firearms were loaded?" And 20 I apologize, I don't know who "their" is referring to, but the 21 question is, "Do you know if their firearms were loaded."

22 THE WITNESS: Well, I would assume you were referring 23 to the demonstrators and the answer is no, I do not know.

24 THE COURT: All right. And Jury Note No. 5, "What is 25 the organizational authority or relationship between the BLM

1 and the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department? Is or was
2 there a critical incident command structure for coordination of
3 field activity and if so, who was the command authority?"

4 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the question, ma'am?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 "What is" -- maybe it was a two part question and I
7 read it all at once. "What is the organization authority or 8 relationship between the BLM and the Las Vegas Metropolitan
9 Police Department? Is/was there a critical incident command
10 structure for coordination of field activity and if so, who was 11 the command authority?" So it's actually a three-part question
12 now that I'm reading it more carefully. So the first part is,
13 what the organizational authority or relationship between the 14 BLM and Metro police?

15 THE WITNESS: The BLM had operational authority on 16 the day of April 12th. Prior to April 12th, they also had 17 operational authority. I -- they subsequently relinquished
18 authority once I declared that I was taking charge of the 19 incident.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And so the second part of that 21 question was, "Is or was there a critical incident command
22 structure for coordination of field activities?"

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, there was. BLM had their own
24 ICS -- incident command structure -- established prior to the 25 initiation of the roundup. I participated in a meeting to

1 discuss that prior to the day of April 12th and subsequently,
2 on the day of April 12th, I had an ICS process associated with
3 my personnel.

4 THE COURT: What's ICS?

5 THE WITNESS: Incident command structure.

6 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

7 And then the last part of that question is, "If so,
8 who was the command authority?"

9 THE WITNESS: In the original planning stage and 10 initial roundup stage, it was Director Sal Lauro who is 11 Agent Dan Love's boss, but the day of -- in question,
12 April 12th, Dan Love was the incident commander.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Myhre, any follow-up
14 questions?

15 MR. MYHRE: None, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Any follow-up questions from
17 the defense?

18 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much, Sheriff,
20 for coming in today.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Please be careful on the way down with 23 the steps and those microphone cords if they're still there.

24 (Witness excused.)

25 THE COURT: All right. So, ladies and gentlemen,

1 that concludes trial for today. We will have you back here
2 again tomorrow at 9:00 a.m.

3 Let me just double-check my schedule. I want to make
4 sure that's still right.

5 Yes, 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

6 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury.

7 Again, remember the -- not to speak about this case
8 with anyone. Don't form an opinion. Don't try to investigate
9 anything. Write down those questions, all the questions you
10 have. It's -- we'll get them asked and we'll get somebody to 11 answer them for you. So please, don't do any outside reading
12 or homework.

13 Thank you. Have a good night.

14 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

16 (Proceedings adjourned at 5:07 p.m.)

4 (Jury out.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial, Day 5, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
9 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
10 Lovelien and Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please make your appearances for the record.

12 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor. Steven Myhre,
13 Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf the United States.

14 THE COURT: Good morning.

15 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Rich Tanasi
16 for Steven Stewart who is present. Also with us at counsel
17 table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Jess
20 Marchese on behalf of the Eric Parker.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Todd
23 Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on

1 behalf of Mr. Ricky Lovelien.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 All right. Before we begin, we are going to bring in
4 a juror and talk to him about an email that the -- his wife
5 sent. And before we do that, let's just make sure that -- I
6 think it's the same faces, but sometimes there will be someone 7 new.

8 So, I just want to make sure everyone is aware of 9 what the expectations are for court and for this trial. This 10 is not a sporting event. It is a courtroom, so it is never 11 appropriate to display any body language or verbal agreement or 12 disagreement, no opinions, no expressions no matter how much
13 you might agree or disagree with something that is being said.

14 Likewise, people may not speak out of turn. The 15 defendants do all have attorneys. The attorneys all have 16 microphones there at the table. Likewise, we have the podium
17 set up in the direction of the witness. So, the parties are 18 welcome to stay at their tables where they are spread out or 19 they may use the podium as they like.

20 We are not allowing any cell phones in the courtroom,
21 so please make sure, double-check, that you don't have any 22 other kind of electronic device, iPad, laptop, anything like
23 that.

24 The attorneys are allowed to have them so they can
25 use them for court, but there is no recording allowed. So, no

1 audio recording and no video recording. And the marshals and
2 the court security officers are authorized to remove you if
3 they do see an electronic device, whether it's in use or not.
4 So, it doesn't matter if it's in private mode or vibrate mode,
5 you just simply can't have the device at all.

6 Let's go ahead and have the juror come in. The email
7 that we received from the wife was that her brother passed away
8 suddenly, unexpectedly in Kansas or something. So, not here in 9 Nevada. But it's her brother, and that she would like to have 10 her husband excused so that he can be home because she needs
11 him.

12 He is here this morning, and he did indicate that he 13 wants to serve. So, we'll bring him in to question him on the 14 record to make sure that we are clear whether he does or 15 doesn't want to serve.

16 We assumed he was going to say "I really don't want 17 to," but he actually wants to stay. So, we just need to put 18 all this on the record and actually have him say whatever it is 19 he's going to say.

20 MR. TANASI: Brave man.

21 THE COURT: It's Juror No. 16. So, bottom row,
22 nearest the benches.

23 (Juror No. 16 entered the courtroom.)

24 THE COURT: Come on in, sir. Go ahead and have a
25 seat anywhere. Everyone may be seated.

1 This is Juror No. 16, previously known as Juror
2 No. 615. You can go ahead and be seated, sir. So, he was No.
3 615 during the venire. Now he is Juror No. 16 on our panel.

4 I just wanted to inquire, and I don't want to 5 embarrass you or anything, but we did receive an email from 6 your wife about the loss of her brother. And I'm very sorry
7 about that.

8 We just wanted to inquire whether or not you wish to 9 stay on the jury, or did you wish to go ahead and be excused so
10 that you can spend time with her and with your family. My 11 understanding was she said it was unexpected.

12 JUROR NO. 16: Yes, Your Honor. It happened last
13 Sunday about 2:00. And I would like to be excused.

14 THE COURT: All right. And I don't -- I don't think
15 anyone has any objection to that. Do you?

16 MR. MYHRE: None from the government, Your Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: No, Your Honor.

18 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you very much for 20 your service. Again, we are very sorry for your loss and your 21 wife's loss.

22 JUROR NO. 16: Thank you very much.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 (Juror No. 16 left the courtroom.)

25 (Pause in the proceedings. Jury in.)

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

2 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.
3 Everyone else may be seated as well. We are back on the record
4 with the jury present.

5 We did finish with our first witness yesterday, so
6 the government may call its next witness.

7 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. The United
8 States calls Special Agent Mark Seyler.

9 THE COURT: Good morning, Special Agent Seyler. Come
10 on up. You are going to be seated over here to my right.
11 Please be careful with the steps and the microphone wires on 12 your way up.

13 MARK D. SEYLER,
14 having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: State your full name and 16 spell it for the record.

17 THE WITNESS: Mark D. Seyler, S-E-Y-L-E-R.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, it's Seyler like a sailor
19 on a ship, but it's spelled with Es. So, S-E-Y-L-E-R.

20 THE WITNESS: Correct.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Good morning, Special Agent Seyler.

25 A. Good morning.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Can you please describe for the jury your current
2 position?

3 A. I am a special agent with the Federal Bureau of
4 Investigation.

5 Q. How long have you been a special agent with the FBI?

6 A. For 21 years.

7 Q. And do you have a current place that you are posted?

8 A. Yes, I am part of the Salt Lake City Division of the FBI,
9 and I am assigned to the Helena, Montana, resident agency.

10 Q. What's a resident agency?

11 A. That's a smaller office in the FBI within a larger field
12 division.

13 Q. How long have you been in Helena, Montana?

14 A. 16 years.

15 Q. Are you from Montana originally?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. How long have you been an FBI agent? I am sorry if you
18 already told me.

19 A. For 21 years.

20 Q. And when you entered the FBI, was there any particular
21 training that you were required to complete?

22 A. Yes. FBI agents go through four or five months of 23 training in Quantico, Virginia, where they teach you basic law
24 enforcement skills, firearms, interviewing techniques, report
25 writing, things like that.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And from the time that you first entered the FBI to now,
2 have you had any other training requirements that you've had to
3 complete?

4 A. Yes, we have regular training that we have to complete
5 regarding legal matters, firearms, obviously, and other
6 techniques; things like the Internet and things that -- social
7 media that weren't necessarily around when I went through the 8 original FBI academy. You have to have training on that as 9 well.

10 Q. Are you familiar with an incident that occurred in 11 Bunkerville, Nevada, on April 12, 2014?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Are you one of the case agents in the FBI investigating
14 that event?

15 A. Yes, I am.

16 Q. Do you have particular responsibility for subjects
17 originating from Montana?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Does that include Ryan Payne?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Does that include Ricky Ray Lovelien?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And can you briefly describe for the jury who is Ryan
24 Payne?

25 A. Ryan Payne, in 2014, was approximately 30 years old. He

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 was an Army veteran. He lived in far southwestern Montana in a
2 small community called Anaconda. He was the leader of a group
3 called the Westmont Rangers, which was a small militia unit.

4 Q. And can you briefly describe who is Ricky Ray Lovelien?

5 A. Ricky Ray Lovelien at the time was approximately 50 years
6 old. Lived in far western Montana in a town called Libby. He
7 also was the leader of a militia group there called the Montana
8 State Defense Force.

9 Q. Do you see Mr. Lovelien in the Court today?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And could please describe him by where he is sitting and 12 the clothing he is wearing.

13 A. He's wearing a white shirt, has sunglasses on his head,
14 and is sitting in the back of the courtroom.

15 MS. CREEGAN: And let the record reflect that he has 16 identified Defendant Lovelien.

17 THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

18 Can you repeat? You said he was a member of the 19 Montana State Defense, and I didn't catch the last word.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, it's Montana State Defense Force.

21 THE COURT: Force. Thank you.

22 BY MS. CREEGAN:

23 Q. Agent Seyler, in your investigation of Ryan Payne, did you
24 learn of an organization call Operation Mutual Aid?

25 A. Yes, I did.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Does it have an affiliation with Ryan Payne?

2 A. Yes, Ryan Payne was the founder and co-leader of Operation
3 Mutual Aid.

4 Q. What is Operation Mutual Aid?

5 A. This was not a militia group. It was founded by Ryan
6 Payne and Jerry Bruckhart, a man from Pennsylvania, who had the 7 idea that there should be a coalition of militia members and
8 like-minded individuals across the United States to coordinate
9 off of the Internet.

10 They have a website, Facebook page, and they
11 correspond via email. The basic premise is all the members
12 agreed that the time for peaceful protest was over, and they 13 were going to collaborate together to have an operation, an 14 offensive operation. They even discussed a rescue of 15 government officials and politicians, and they were going to 16 seek out an opportunity --

17 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Foundation.

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. In the course of your investigation --

20 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

21 BY MS. CREEGAN:

22 Q. -- of Operation Mutual Aid, have you reviewed publicly
23 available materials that they have disseminated?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Does that include their official website?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Does that include their commentary on militia websites?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And as result of that, have you been able to determine
5 what their position is?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This is their currently stated position?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I think there's sufficient
10 foundation for him to testify.

11 Q. Agent Seyler, could you just continue? I'm sorry. I
12 don't know where you --

13 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Yes, you may 14 continue.

15 MS. CREEGAN: I apologize, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I am trying not to cough into the
17 microphone.

18 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I know I've 19 just made that a little difficult for you. I'll try not to 20 talk over.

21 Q. Agent Seyler, I apologize. I'm not exactly sure where you
22 left off. Could you just describe what Operation Mutual Aid
23 is?

24 I'm sorry if it repeats a little, but maybe just give 25 us the whole answer from the beginning.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes. The premise is that they could collaborate and
2 coordinate together across the United States to seek out and
3 respond to an incident of their choosing where they would
4 offensively, with firearms, address the government and/or law
5 enforcement who they believed were violating the Constitution.

6 Q. Did Operation Mutual Aid have on its website a list of 7 people who were receiving their updates or who were subscribed
8 to their mailing list?

9 A. Yes. They had a list of individuals that had signed up
10 for their -- their website, yes.

11 Q. And before April of 2014, was Cheyenne Miller a member of 12 that publicly viewable list?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Who is Cheyenne Miller?

15 A. Cheyenne Miller is the sister of Ricky Ray Lovelien.

16 Q. Now, you also mentioned Ryan Payne. Does Ryan Payne have 17 an email account?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what's that email account?

20 A. It's rypayne1@gmail.com.

21 Q. Does Operation Mutual Aid have an email account?

22 A. Yes, it does as well.

23 Q. And what's the Operation Mutual Aid email account?

24 A. Operationmutualaid1@gmail.com.

25 Q. Did you execute search warrants on each of these email

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 accounts?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. And could you briefly describe for the jury the process of 4 obtaining a search warrant on an email service provider?

5 A. So, first we have to go to a judge and explain why we
6 believe a crime has been committed and why we believe a
7 particular email account contains evidence of that crime.

8 If we are successful, the judge grants us a warrant.
9 We take that search warrant, and we serve it on the Internet
10 service provider, email provider. And then usually within a
11 matter of weeks, they provide us with a digital file.

12 Each company is a little different in what they give 13 us. It can be quite voluminous, and we have to go through all 14 that material and keep only what's relevant to our 15 investigation that's pertinent to our warrant.

16 Q. And did you receive relevant materials in the search
17 warrants that were executed on Ryan Payne and the Operation
18 Mutual Aid email accounts?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you also receive a certificate of authenticity from 21 the service provider that these were their business records?

22 A. Yes, we did.

23 Q. I'm going to ask to pull up for the witness only
24 Exhibit 173.

25 Agent Seyler, is this the certificate of authenticity

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 that you received from Google for the rypayne1 and
2 operationmutualaid1 email accounts?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
5 to admit Exhibit 173.

6 THE COURT: Any objection to 173?

7 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

8 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

10 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

11 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit No. 173 will be 12 admitted. Did you wish to publish it for the jury?

13 MS. CREEGAN: I think not, Your Honor. We'll put 14 these in the record, and they can review them if they would 15 like, but we will focus on content from the return.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 (Exhibit 173 admitted.)

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. Can we pull up, for the witness only, Exhibit 174.

20 And Agent Seyler, is this one of the items that was 21 returned in the search warrant, rypayne1 Gmail account?

22 A. Yes, it is.

23 Q. And I know you can't quite see it here, but what's the 24 date of this email?

25 A. April 7th of 2014.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
2 to admit Exhibit 174.

3 THE COURT: Any objection to 174?

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf Mr. Drexler.

7 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 174 will be
9 admitted.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Exhibit 174 admitted.)

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. And Agent Seyler, now that the jury can see it, I'm just 15 going to ask you again. Who is this an email from and to?

16 A. This is an email from Ryan Payne to Gary Hunt.

17 Q. And what date was it sent?

18 A. April 7th of 2014.

19 Q. And this would be, I know this is rhetorical, but this 20 would be five days before April 12th, 2014.

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And what's in the body of this email?

23 A. There are a list of phone numbers and who they belong to.

24 Q. And does it give a cell phone number for Cliven Bundy?

25 A. Yes, it does.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And does it have a home number for the Bundys?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And did you -- and I will ask you more questions about
4 this later, but did you subsequently request toll records for 5 these two numbers?

6 A. Yes, the FBI did.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you, Nicole. Can you take that down? And
8 for the witness only, can you bring up Exhibit 175?

9 And Agent Seyler, is this an email from the Operation
10 Mutual Aid Gmail account?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 Q. And is it dated April 8th, 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
15 to admit Exhibit 175. 175, yes. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 175?

17 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

20 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

21 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 175 will be admitted.
22 You may go ahead and publish.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

24 (Exhibit 175 admitted.)

25

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, who is this a message from and
3 to?

4 A. This is from Operation Mutual Aid, and it is to a number
5 of individuals that they knew were interested in receiving
6 their message.

7 Q. And drawing your attention to the bottom left corner,
8 what's the email that's listed there?

9 A. It's listed as Chy Miller, chyryna@gmail.com.

10 Q. Whose email address is that?

11 A. Cheyenne Miller's.

12 Q. And what relation is she, if any, to Ricky Lovelien?

13 A. That's Ricky Lovelien's sister.

14 Q. And you have previously testified that she was a member of 15 Operation Mutual Aid before April 12, 2014?

16 A. On their website, yes.

17 THE COURT: Where is this information on the exhibit?

18 MS. CREEGAN: It is in the bottom left corner of the 19 recipients.

20 Q. And Agent Seyler, what date was this email sent?

21 A. This was April the 8th.

22 Q. And can I just ask you to read the body of this email,
23 please?

24 A. "We had made the decision to mobilize to Nevada. Units
25 are underway as I type this. The feds arrested some protesters

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 today and the words 'we need you now' were uttered. I ask
2 everyone to keep my number very near. (717)682-8073. If you
3 are pulled over by law enforcement, call me before pulling
4 over, if at all possible, so we can keep track of such things
5 and do what I am able from here to correct the situation."

6 "At this time, we have approximately 150 responding,
7 but that number is owing [sic] by the hour. Here are
8 directions and coordinates for the ranch. I-15, Exit 112. Go
9 3 miles. As you cross [sic] the Virgin River, turn right. Go
10 2 miles. Turn right at Bundy Melons sign, 2 miles to ranch."

11 It gives coordinates, 36 degrees 42-59.43 north.
12 114 degrees 14-17.68 west.

13 "May God grant each and every one of you safety,
14 wisdom, and foresight and courage to accomplish the mission we 15 have strived toward for so long to bring to fruition. All men
16 are mortal. Most pass simply because it is their time. A few,
17 however, are blessed with the opportunity to choose their time
18 in performance to duty -- of duty. Sua sponte."

19 Q. And I see, in this third paragraph, there's a number
20 listed there. Are you familiar with that phone number?

21 A. Yes, I am.

22 Q. And whose phone number is that?

23 A. That belongs to Jerry Bruckhart.

24 Q. Is he one of the co-founders of Operation Mutual Aid?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And did you subsequently -- and I will ask you more
2 questions about it later. But did you subsequently request
3 toll records for this number?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And bringing your attention down to the coordinates that 6 are given, do you know what those coordinates correspond to?

7 A. Yes, the Bundy Ranch.

8 Q. And taking your attention to the phrase in Latin that 9 appears at the bottom, are you familiar with the meaning of 10 that phrase?

11 A. Yes. It's a motto for the US Army Rangers, and it means
12 of our own accord.

13 Q. Thank, Nicole. You can take that down.

14 Special Agent Seyler, as part of your investigation,
15 did you also obtain a search warrant on a Facebook account
16 associated with Ryan Payne?

17 A. Yes, we did.

18 Q. And when you view the publicly visible Facebook account of 19 Ryan Payne, what do you see there?

20 A. You can see that name is Ryan Payne, that he's from 21 Anaconda, Montana, and you can see photographs of Ryan Payne
22 and his family.

23 Q. And I know it will be pretty similar, but could you
24 briefly describe for the jury the process of obtaining a search
25 warrant on a social media site?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Very similar. Once we obtain a warrant from a judge, we
2 would serve it on a social media site like Facebook. And then
3 within a couple weeks, they would provide us records.

4 In the case of Facebook specifically, they provide us
5 pages -- PDF pages, which are basically the digital equivalent
6 of 8 1/2 by 11 sheets of paper, with information about activity
7 that's taken place in that account.

8 It doesn't look like what you would normally see on a
9 computer screen if you are looking at someone's Facebook
10 account. It can be tens of thousands, sometimes even hundreds
11 of thousands of pages that we then have to sift through to find
12 the material that's actually relevant to the investigation.

13 Q. And when you executed your search warrant, did you also 14 receive back from Facebook a certificate of authenticity that 15 these were their actual business records?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. I'm going to ask you to look at page 6 of Exhibit 49. It
18 should also be on the screen there.

19 A. Sorry. Thank you. Yes.

20 Q. And what generally is depicted in this -- on page 6 of
21 Exhibit 49?

22 A. This is a certificate of authenticity from Facebook.

23 Q. And does the account number that corresponds to Ryan
24 Payne's Facebook account appear within the certificate?

25 A. Yes, it does.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
2 to admit page 6 of Exhibit 49.

3 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 49?

4 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of the Mr. Drexler.

7 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: Exhibit 49 will be admitted.

9 (Exhibit 49, page 6 admitted.)

10 MS. CREEGAN: Can we bring up, for the witness only,
11 Exhibit 55.

12 Q. And Agent Seyler, is this one of the documents that you
13 received back from Facebook in response to search warrant?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 Q. This is on Ryan Payne's Facebook account?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And just generally, what's the date range of these 18 conversations?

19 A. This is April 8th of 2014.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
21 to admit Exhibit 55.

22 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 55?

23 MR. MARCHESE: None for Parker.

24 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, Stewart objects on hearsay
25 grounds.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins on hearsay grounds.

2 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins as well.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker will withdraw the stipulation
4 and join.

5 MS. CREEGAN: The government offers these statements
6 as coconspirator statements in furtherance of the conspiracy.
7 They are statements between the coleaders of OMA, and 8 government will be able to establish a connection between them
9 and Defendant Lovelien.

10 THE COURT: All right. The objection is overruled.
11 Exhibit 55 will be admitted.

12 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, will it only be admitted as
13 to Mr. Lovelien?

14 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, as these are coconspirators
15 statements --

16 THE COURT: No, it's as to everyone.

17 MR. TANASI: My understanding, though, the response
18 from the government was that she would be introducing them as 19 they would tie Mr. Lovelien to the conspiracy. I didn't hear
20 anything with respect to Mr. Stewart.

21 MS. CREEGAN: The government will connect these 22 people to Mr. Lovelien and will connect Mr. Lovelien to every 23 other defendant.

24 But even if that weren't the case, these would still 25 be able to show by conservative action and other evidence that

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 they were working together in the same conspiracy.

2 THE COURT: All right. That's sufficient.

3 Exhibit 55 is admitted.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Exhibit 55 admitted.)

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, this is how the Facebook business
9 record appears when it comes back from Facebook?

10 A. Yes, this is one of the pages, yes.

11 Q. And are you able to tell from how the page is laid out
12 what type of record this is?

13 A. Yes, this is a private message between two individuals.

14 Q. And is a private message publicly viewable?

15 A. No, it's not.

16 Q. And in this case, who is the private message occurring
17 between?

18 A. Between the founders of Operation Mutual Aid, Ryan Payne
19 and Jerry Bruckhart.

20 Q. And I know you can only see the first page, but what date
21 is this conversation occurring?

22 A. This actually starts on April 7th and goes through
23 April 8th.

24 Q. And now when you say that it's April 7th, I want to take 25 your attention to the very first conversation that occurs in

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 the page which has recipients, author, sent, deleted, body, and
2 just bring your attention specifically there.

3 Now, I want to go through these components with you
4 just so -- I know this is not how Facebook normally looks, so
5 that we can understand what this all means.

6 So, first there's an area that says recipients. What
7 is that?

8 A. That would include the individuals involved in the 9 conversation. You can have just two people or there can be 10 multiple individuals involved in a private chat.

11 Q. And I see that one person is listed in recipient who is 12 also the author. Why is that?

13 A. Facebook just lists it that way. They include all the 14 people involved even though only one of them is actually
15 sending the message at the time.

16 Q. And then the next section says sent. What's listed after 17 sent?

18 A. That would be the date and time that it's sent.

19 Q. And what is this abbreviation that appears at the end of 20 that, the UTC abbreviation?

21 A. That's universal time.

22 Q. Can you explain for the jury what universal time is?

23 A. So, it's basically Greenwich Mean Time. And so all of the 24 Facebook records are given a time based on Greenwich Mean Time,
25 universal time.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And this is the time that it is in Greenwich, England?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And how do we obtain what the time is in Nevada from
4 universal time code?

5 A. On that date, you would have to subtract seven hours from 6 the UTC time to get Pacific time, Nevada time.

7 Q. So, this first conversation that we see here on this page,
8 when is this message actually sent?

9 A. In Nevada time, that would actually be 10:47 p.m. on
10 April 7th.

11 Q. Can you come out of that close-up view, please?

12 And Agent Seyler, directing your attention to the 13 long paragraph that appears in the middle of this first page of 14 Exhibit 55, who is this a message from?

15 A. This is a message from Jerry Bruckhart.

16 Q. And who is it to?

17 A. To Ryan Payne.

18 Q. And about what time is this sent in local Nevada time?

19 A. Approximately 2:00 in the morning. 2:18 in the morning.

20 Q. Could you please read the body of the message?

21 A. "If there are any Oath Keepers in Nevada are willing to 22 help out, go to 3%ers Nevada page and join up. They will take
23 your name and abilities down and how you can help out. There
24 are several militia and patriot groups heading to Nevada right
25 now to help out -- to help Bundy Ranch family with the military

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 standoff going on now. Thank you. Unity 3%."

2 Q. Agent Seyler, I see there's a 3 after Jerry Bruckhart's
3 name. He refers to 3%. He says "Unity 3%." Are you familiar
4 with that reference?

5 A. Yes, I am.

6 Q. What does 3 or 3% mean?

7 A. Essentially a movement or an idea that the original
8 revolution was only supported by three percent of the 9 population. People that describe themselves and 3%ers or 10 members of the 3% believe that they are the modern incarnation
11 of the three percent that supported the original revolution.

12 Q. Thank you. Can you come out of that close-up view?

13 And taking your attention to the communication that 14 occurs at the very end of page 1 of Exhibit 55, who is that a 15 message from?

16 A. This is a message from Ryan Payne to Jerry Bruckhart.

17 Q. And about what time is this sent in local Nevada time?

18 A. Approximately 8:16 a.m.

19 Q. Could you please read us the body of the message?

20 A. "Sent him a message. Have you talked with the Bundys this 21 morning?"

22 Q. Thank you. Can you come out of that close-up view and go
23 to the second page.

24 And Agent Seyler, is there a response to that 25 question in the next message?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes. Bruckhart responds "Not yet. Tried, but busy."

2 Q. And does Bruckhart then receive a response from Ryan
3 Payne?

4 A. Yes. He says "K. Keep trying. Seems everyone is willing
5 to safeguard liberty at a distance. What do you say? Let me
6 know when you talk to Bundy. It's time to invite everyone to 7 the First Annual Patriot Picnic at the Bundy Ranch."

8 Q. Can you scroll down? And in this last message that
9 appears in the close-up, the one that's sent at 15:22:12 UTC
10 time, who is this a message from and to?

11 A. From Ryan Payne to Jerry Bruckhart.

12 Q. And what's in the body of that message?

13 A. "(801)368-0010, Cliven's cell."

14 Q. Is this also the same number that Ryan Payne emailed Gary 15 Hunt?

16 A. Yes, it is.

17 Q. Can you come out of this, please?

18 And taking your attention to the last full
19 communication on this page, who is this a message from?

20 A. This is from Jerry Bruckhart to Ryan Payne.

21 Q. And about what time is it sent in local Nevada time?

22 A. Approximately 8:47 a.m.

23 Q. And could you please read the body of the message?

24 A. "Just talked to him. They still want help."

25 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we bring up, for

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 the witness only, Exhibit 58.

2 And Agent Seyler, is this also a Facebook business
3 record?

4 A. Yes, it is.

5 Q. And what type of Facebook record is this?

6 A. This is a private message as well.

7 Q. And is one of the communicants in this Ryan Payne?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what date is this communication?

10 A. This is April 8th, approximately 11:00 or 11:20 a.m.
11 Nevada time.

12 MS. CREEGAN: The government would move to admit
13 Exhibit 58.

14 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 58?

15 MR. TANASI: Continuing objection. Hearsay, Your
16 Honor.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Also that it's under the rule of 19 completeness, it's not the full. Most of this is blocked out.

20 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins that as well, Your Honor.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

22 THE COURT: All right. It's just a close-up of 23 Exhibit 58 that's on the screen. So, you are asking all of 24 Exhibit 58 to be admitted, but you are just showing the portion
25 of it.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, there are other
2 communications that are blocked out, but I don't believe they
3 come in under the rule of completeness. The rule of 4 completeness doesn't require that every single part of a
5 conversation come in.

6 If there's something that causes it to be misleading,
7 there is nothing in Exhibit 58's redacted portion that causes
8 it to be misleading.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, Exhibit 58 is admitted,
10 coconspirators statement, and the redaction does not appear to 11 violate any other rule.

12 Did you want to publish Exhibit 58?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

14 (Exhibit 58 admitted.)

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. And Agent Seyler, who is this a communication from and to?

17 A. This is from Ryan Payne to an individual with the moniker
18 Texasmilitia Northtexas.

19 Q. And I know you've said; but, again, what's the time in 20 local Nevada time?

21 A. This would have been approximately 11:20 a.m.

22 Q. Could you please read the body?

23 A. "I just got off the phone with Cliven. He knows we are 24 coming and has opened up his lands -- has opened his land up to 25 everyone willing. OMA is moving. Not going public with it

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 until more are en route."

2 Q. Thank you. You can take that down.

3 And Agent Seyler, as a part of the investigation, was
4 a Facebook search warrant also obtained on the account of Carol
5 Bundy?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you look at the publicly visible account of Carol
8 Bundy?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. And who is Carol Bundy?

11 A. Carol Bundy is the wife of Cliven Bundy.

12 Q. What were you able to see on her publicly viewable
13 Facebook page?

14 A. There were pictures of Carol Bundy and her family. There
15 were people wishing her happy birthday on April 7th, which I
16 know to be Carol Bundy's birthday.

17 Q. When you received search warrant returns from Facebook,
18 did you also receive a certificate of authenticity that these 19 were Facebook business records?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And taking your attention to Exhibit 49 page 8, what's 22 depicted in Exhibit 49 page 8?

23 A. This is a certificate of authenticity from Facebook for 24 Carol Bundy's Facebook account.

25 MS. CREEGAN: The government would move to admit

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 page 8 of Exhibit 49.

2 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit -- what's the
3 number? 59?

4 MS. CREEGAN: 49, page 8.

5 THE COURT: 49. Page 8 to Exhibit 49.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects. Appears that the 7 notary stamp is from an individual in Texas in the lower right
8 corner. It appears that Facebook is a California corporation.

9 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

11 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

12 MS. CREEGAN: The government doesn't understand the 13 state of business and the state of signature to be a 14 requirement under the federal rules for a certificate of 15 authenticity.

16 MR. MARCHESE: A Texas notary can only notarize in 17 Texas.

18 MS. CREEGAN: That may the case, but the federal law
19 only requires a signature.

20 THE COURT: Agreed. The objection is overruled.
21 Exhibit 49 is admitted.

22 (Exhibit 49, page 8 admitted.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Can you take that down and bring up Exhibit 52 for the 25 witness only?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 And Agent Seyler, is this a Facebook record return
2 for Carol Bundy's Facebook account?

3 A. Yes, it is.

4 Q. And is she conversing with somebody in this record?

5 A. Yes, she's conversing with Jerry Bruckhart in a private 6 message.

7 Q. And what is the date of these communications?

8 A. This is actually April 7th. Nevada time approximately
9 10:01 p.m.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 52.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on hearsay and relevance
12 grounds, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins on the rule of 15 completeness as much of this is redacted.

16 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins as well.

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins on the completeness
18 grounds as well.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 THE COURT: Exhibit 52 is admitted. The hearsay
21 objection is overruled. It's a coconspirator statement. The 22 redaction objection is overruled.

23 (Exhibit 52 admitted.)

24 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish, Your Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. And Agent Seyler, what type of Facebook record is this?

3 A. This is a private message.

4 Q. And sorry to ask you to repeat yourself, but who is the 5 conversation between?

6 A. Between Jerry Bruckhart and Carol Bundy.

7 Q. And bringing your attention to this first communication,
8 about what time and date is this sent in local Nevada time?

9 A. Approximately 10:01 p.m. on April the 7th.

10 Q. Who is the author of this message?

11 A. Jerry Bruckhart.

12 Q. Could you please read the body?

13 A. "Just wanted to let you know we have significant units
14 committing at this time."

15 Q. And does he make another message in that same chain?

16 A. Yes. He says "Looks very much like we will be coming."

17 Q. Does Carol Bundy respond?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What's her -- I'm sorry. What's her response?

20 A. "I think my husband is on the phone with your Nevada
21 representative right now."

22 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up for 23 the witness only Exhibit 53? And could you just show him the 24 second page as well?

25 And Agent Seyler, is this a Facebook record on Carol

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Bundy's Facebook account?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What type of record is this?

4 A. This would be a status update.

5 Q. And what's the date range of these status updates? You
6 can flip back to the first page, too.

7 A. April 9th approximately 12:34 p.m. Nevada time.

8 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
9 Exhibit 53.

10 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

14 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 53 is admitted.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

16 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

17 (Exhibit 53 admitted.)

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. And just showing you briefly the first page of this 20 exhibit, you see down at the bottom there, there appears to be 21 a date and time. What date and time would that be in local
22 Nevada time?

23 A. April 9th about 12:34 p.m.

24 Q. And taking your attention to the second page, I know
25 you've already said, but what kind of Facebook record is this?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. This is a status update.

2 Q. What's a status update?

3 A. It's similar to a tweet on Twitter, if you are familiar
4 with Twitter. It's a short statement that you can put out
5 about what you're doing and what you're feeling right at that 6 time. It goes out to your friends on Facebook, and if you have 7 the settings set correctly also shows up on your actual
8 Facebook page.

9 Q. And private messages, I think you previously said, are 10 only seen by the two communicants. Are status updates seen by 11 only the person authoring them? Who can see these?

12 A. You can set your settings to decide who can see whether 13 everybody publicly can see them or just a few people. In this 14 case, I have checked and Carol Bundy's status updates were 15 shared with everyone publicly.

16 Q. Does this mean that anybody that looked at her Facebook
17 account could see that the status update was up there?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And does this go from -- well, these are both on 20 April 9th; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Approximately around noon?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Could you read the first entry?

25 A. "The Operation Mutual Aid coordinator is here with us

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 now."

2 Q. And could you please read the second entry?

3 A. "Attention all people, friends, and family and Facebook
4 world. The Bundy family has requested help from militia groups
5 including Operation Mutual Aid, 3%ers Club, Freedom Fighters,
6 and other like operations to come and stand with us and regain
7 our rights and freedoms."

8 "The Bundy family is grateful and overwhelmed with 9 the support of the millions of people from around the country.
10 Thank you. We would like to remind all of you that we want our 11 stand for liberty and freedom to remain peaceful. We requested
12 and asked for people to come and stand by us. Let America know
13 that we the people are standing up for their rights."

14 Q. Thank you. Can you take that down?

15 And Agent Seyler, are you familiar with the Bundy
16 Ranch Facebook page?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is this a Facebook page that posts updates from the Bundy
19 family in Bunkerville, Nevada?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And between April 9th and 10th, was there a posting on 22 that Facebook page regarding Ryan Payne?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What was the subject of that status update or time line
25 entry?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. It essentially said that Ryan Payne was the coordinator of
2 the militia operation for the Bundy Ranch.

3 Q. And has that posting subsequently been either deleted or 4 otherwise made not viewable to the public?

5 A. Right. I can't find it on the page anymore.

6 Q. But shortly after that appeared on Bundy Ranch, did it
7 appear on a large number of other Facebook pages?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I'm going to object to 9 hearsay. Move to strike since this is not a public page that 10 the witness can testify to.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins. It's also leading.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

14 THE COURT: What is the legal objection to it's not a
15 public page?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Hearsay.

17 THE COURT: The certificate of authenticity.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, he's testifying to a page that he 19 no longer can see.

20 MS. CREEGAN: He's testifying to what he saw that was 21 posted on the Bundy Ranch page which has now been deleted or --

22 THE COURT: He's testifying to his personal
23 knowledge.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Correct.

25 THE COURT: So it's not hearsay. Objection

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 overruled.

2 BY MS. CREEGAN:

3 Q. And Agent Seyler, I believe I was asking you, was this
4 posting that you observed on Bundy Ranch reposted to a large
5 number of other Facebook users?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you observe that?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. Can we bring up page -- excuse me -- Exhibit 54 for the 10 witness only.

11 Agent Seyler, is this an example of one of the 12 Facebook pages that reposted what was from the Bundy Ranch
13 site?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 Q. Was this publicly visible?

16 A. Publicly visible, yes.

17 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
18 Exhibit 54.

19 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection, Parker.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

22 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

23 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 54 will be
24 admitted.

25 Did you wish to publish?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

2 (Exhibit 54 admitted.)

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. And Agent Seyler, what Facebook account is this posted to?

5 A. This account was associated with Operation Patriot Rally
6 Point.

7 Q. Could you just -- could you read the entry here?

8 A. "April 11th, 2014. This info is from the official site.
9 Attention all militia groups. The Bundy family has a militia
10 coordinator. His name is Ryan Payne. He has been with us all
11 week. If you have any questions offer [sic] concerns, please
12 ask him."

13 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
14 Exhibit 56, please?

15 And Agent Seyler, we previously discussed that a
16 search warrant was done on Ryan Payne's Facebook account;
17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And we've previously discussed the certificate of 20 authenticity?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And this is just another entry from that Facebook record
23 that you received back in response to that search warrant?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And could you -- is Ryan Payne one of the communicants in

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 this message?

2 A. Yes, he is.

3 Q. And about what date does this communication take place?

4 A. This would have been on April the 8th, approximately
5 5:47 p.m. Nevada time.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 56.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on hearsay grounds
8 again, Your Honor, and especially with respect to Chief Kessler
9 and his involvement in this string.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

12 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government will be
14 showing that Ryan Payne was operating in a recruiting fashion,
15 coordinated with Lovelien. This is an example of another
16 person he coordinated with.

17 The important part in this communication is the 18 statement of Ryan Payne. The other statements are not offered
19 for the truth, but so that his statements can be understood.

20 THE COURT: All right. The objection is overruled.
21 It's a coconspirator statement.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may. Exhibit 56 an admitted.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Nicole, can you come out of that close
25 view, please?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 (Exhibit 56 admitted.)

2 BY MS. CREEGAN:

3 Q. And taking your attention to the fourth full communication
4 on the page through the sixth, who is this a communication
5 between?

6 A. Between Ryan Payne and Mark Kessler.

7 Q. Is this a private message as well?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Who would this be visible to?

10 A. Only the participants.

11 Q. And this first message here, which is at 1:22:35, about 12 what time in local Nevada time was that sent?

13 A. That would be approximately 6:22 p.m. on April 8th.

14 Q. And who is this a message from and to? I'm sorry if I
15 already asked you.

16 A. From Ryan Payne to Mark Kessler.

17 Q. Could you read the body, please?

18 A. "We are in communication with Cliven Bundy. He says help.
19 Could always use more, Chief."

20 Q. And does Mark Kessler respond?

21 A. Yes. He says "10 4. I'll chat with Supreme Commander
22 Hill of the CSF and BOG. He calls all the shots, and he's a
23 great leader. I am an adviser. I started the movement, and I
24 found a great leader to oversee all of CSF and BOG. I know
25 more are on the move as we speak."

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Could you go down? Can you go to the second page, please.

2 And taking your attention to the second full
3 communication on this page, who is this a message from and to?

4 A. This is from Ryan Payne to Mark Kessler.

5 Q. Sorry. I am taking your attention to the second one on 6 the page. The second full communication.

7 A. Yes, that one is from Mark Kessler to Ryan Payne.

8 Q. And what's -- what's Mark Kessler's communication to Ryan
9 Payne?

10 A. "How many you got going? How you get there? How many you
11 need? Armed?"

12 Q. And taking your attention to the communication that's at 13 7:27:12 in universal time code, who is that a message from and
14 to?

15 A. From Ryan Payne to Mark Kessler.

16 Q. About what time is that sent in local Nevada time?

17 A. Approximately 10:27 a.m.

18 Q. Could you please read the body of the message?

19 A. "Bring them all, Chief. Armed. Ready to play. I'm here
20 set up and ready to receive them. We have 300 coming as of 21 now. Numbers increasing."

22 Q. Now, in the communication after that, does Ryan Payne also 23 add his phone number?

24 A. Yes, he does.

25 Q. I'll ask you more questions about this later, but did you

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 receive toll records relating to this phone number?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Thank you. Can you come out of the close-up. Go to the 4 third page, please.

5 And taking your attention to the first two 6 communications on this page, this first communication, who is 7 this from and to?

8 A. This is from Mark Kessler to Ryan Payne.

9 Q. And what does Mark Kessler say?

10 A. "Can go with two mag of 30 rounds."

11 Q. What's Ryan Payne's response?

12 A. "Bring what's needed to play. Possibility of extended
13 operations depending on aggression of the other side."

14 Q. Thank you. Can you come out of that close-up, please?
15 And going to the fourth page.

16 Just bringing your attention to the first full 17 communication on the page, who is this a message from and to?

18 A. From Ryan Payne to Mark Kessler.

19 Q. And what does Ryan Payne say?

20 A. "Jerry is not ground operational. His use is not here."

21 Q. And is Jerry referring to Jerry Bruckhart?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

24 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Move to strike.

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. Earlier in this conversation, do they refer to a person
5 being located in Pennsylvania?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Is Jerry Bruckhart located in Pennsylvania?

8 A. Yes.

9 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up for
12 the witness only Exhibit 57.

13 And Agent Seyler, is this also a Facebook record from 14 Ryan Payne's Facebook account?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. And is this a private message conversation?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. About what date does this occur?

19 A. This would have been April 9th, 2014.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 57.

21 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on hearsay with respect
22 also to Michael Reighley's involvement and completeness.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Again, the government's proof will be 24 that Ryan Payne was a recruiter and coordinator. Michael 25 Reighley's statements are solely needed to understand the

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 statements of Ryan Payne.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, Parker joins. More
3 prejudicial than probative as to Mr. Reighley's statements.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 MS. CREEGAN: The rule is unfairly prejudicial. I
7 don't believe this is unfairly prejudicial in any way.

8 THE COURT: I agree. Objection is overruled.
9 Exhibit 57 will be admitted.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 (Exhibit 57 admitted.)

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. And Agent Seyler, bringing your attention to the first 15 message in this chain, who is this a message from and to?

16 A. From Michael Reighley to Ryan Payne.

17 Q. About what date and time does it occur?

18 A. April 9th, approximately 3:25 in the morning.

19 Q. Could you please read the body of that message?

20 A. "What the updated with the ranch?"

21 Q. And does Ryan Payne respond to that question?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. What's his response?

24 A. "Needed every man willing at the request of Cliven Bundy.

25 I am on the ground. Have --"

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Go to the next page, please.

2 A. "Have family secured. Campsites secured on private
3 property. I-15, Exit 112, go south 2 miles to patriots
4 checkpoint to receive direction."

5 Q. Now, at the bottom of this close-up at 18:37:24 universal
6 time code, Michael Reighley asks a question; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What's that question?

9 A. "How many on site?"

10 Q. And does Ryan Payne respond to that question?

11 A. Yes, he does.

12 Q. Can you please read that response?

13 A. "No million yet. Protesters and close friends of the 14 family. Many are in the process of mobilizing. Lots of false
15 info out there, so be careful. I am on the ground with 16 Mr. Bundy."

17 Q. Okay. Can you come out of that close-up, please?

18 And bringing your attention to the last three
19 communications on this second page of Exhibit 57, this first 20 message, which occurs at 18:58:28 in universal time code, who 21 is that a message from and to?

22 A. From Ryan Payne to Michael Reighley.

23 Q. And what time is that sent in local Nevada time?

24 A. Approximately 11:58 a.m.

25 Q. Can you read the body, please?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "He's good. Getting tired. Dismayed at the response so
2 far. I'm telling him more are on the way, but he isn't seeing
3 it yet."

4 Q. And does Michael Reighley respond with a question?

5 A. Yes. He asks "Can you ask him if he wants -- if he want
6 support from the militia?"

7 Q. What is Ryan Payne's response?

8 A. "I have put out numerous times that he has requested
9 support. I am militia. He knows OMA's mission statement and 10 agrees. Objectives will be released soon in cohesion with
11 Mr. Bundy."

12 Q. And what's Michael Reighley's response to that?

13 A. "Okay. Then the inform [sic] I heard from another post is 14 disinformation. They reported that Mr. Bundy does not want
15 militia to assist him."

16 Q. And what's Ryan Payne's response to Michael Reighley?

17 A. "Right. There is a lot of it going around. I am with him
18 physically. Help fend off the disinformation if you can. Come
19 if you are willing and bring help."

20 Q. Does Michael Reighley respond to that?

21 A. Yes. He says "I will try my best. Many of the militia
22 had been told to stand down and only monitor it."

23 Q. And what's Ryan Payne's response to that?

24 A. "I know. It's coming from infiltrators. Help spread the 25 truth, my friend."

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Thank you. You can take that down.

2 Agent Seyler, in this past communication we see that
3 Ryan Payne represented that he was present in Nevada?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And in the course of your investigation, did you become
6 aware of a video from this same date featuring Ryan Payne?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. How did you become aware of that video?

9 A. I found it online myself the afternoon of April 9th.

10 Q. And where did you find it?

11 A. It was on the website associated with the Las Vegas Review
12 Journal.

13 Q. Did you download that video?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Does it feature a person that you know to be Ryan Payne?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Taking your attention to Exhibit 37 in the Government's 18 Exhibit binder, should be a disc there. I won't have you do
19 too much looking, but have you previously reviewed the disc for 20 Exhibit 37 which is this video --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- that you downloaded?

23 A. I have previously reviewed it. There is not a disc in
24 here.

25 Q. I'm sure that's my fault in some way, so I'm sorry about

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 that. But you've previously reviewed Exhibit 37 which is a
2 disc of this video?

3 A. Yes, I have.

4 Q. And in it Ryan Payne appears?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And does he represent that he's in Nevada at that time?

7 A. Yes, he does.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
9 to admit Exhibit 37.

10 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on hearsay grounds, Your
11 Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joints.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

14 THE COURT: And this is Payne speaking in the video?

15 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: So, objection is overruled. This is a
17 coconspirator statement. You may play Exhibit 37.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 (Exhibit 37 admitted.)

20 THE COURT: Oh, restroom break? Sure. All right.
21 So, we'll play that video when we come back from the bathroom
22 break. Let's go ahead and let them take a break.

23 During this break, I do remind the jury you are not
24 to discuss the case with anyone or permit anyone to discuss it
25 with you. Please do not listen to or review anything that

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 touches on this case in any way, and do not attempt to perform
2 any research or independent investigation and please do not
3 form any opinion.

4 It's 10:23, so we'll take about a 15-minute break and
5 then be back here at 10:40.

6 (Jury out.)

7 THE COURT: Off record.

8 (Recess, 10:24 a.m. Resumed 10:42 a.m. Jury out.)

9 THE COURT: You may be seated. Let's go ahead and 10 bring them in.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

12 (Jury in.)

13 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.
14 Everyone else may be seated as well.

15 We are back on the record.

16 All right. Ms. Creegan, did you want to go ahead and 17 play Exhibit No. 37?

18 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Has it been admitted yet?

20 MS. CREEGAN: Exhibit 37.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we would move to admit
23 Exhibit 37.

24 THE COURT: Exhibit 37 was admitted.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It was, Your Honor.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you.

3 (Exhibit 37 being played.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. And we stopped at four seconds.

6 This person who has just identified himself as the 7 coordinator of Operation Mutual Aid, who is that person?

8 A. That's Ryan Payne.

9 Q. You've seen Ryan Payne before?

10 A. Yes, I have.

11 Q. And you are the case agent assigned to Ryan Payne?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Can you play it, please?

14 (Exhibit 37 being played.)

15 Q. And again, you said this was posted on April 9th?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And it discussed a mobilization?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And can you bring up for the witness Exhibit 59?

20 And Agent Seyler, is this another Facebook record in 21 response to the search warrant for Ryan Payne's Facebook
22 account?

23 A. Yes, it is.

24 Q. And does this communication occur around April 10th of 25 2014?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 59.

3 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection as to hearsay. We
5 don't know at this point who even Texasmilitia Northtexas is,
6 if it's a person or community.

7 THE COURT: This is a page received from the search
8 warrant sent to Facebook in request of documents related to 9 Ryan Payne.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Ryan Payne.

11 THE COURT: Any other objection?

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

13 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

14 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Exhibit 59 will be
15 admitted.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 59 admitted.)

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. Agent Seyler, I bring your attention to the top-most 21 communications page. Again, what type of record is this from
22 Facebook?

23 A. This is a private message.

24 Q. So this would not be publicly visible?

25 A. Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And who is this a communicate between?

2 A. Between Ryan Payne and Texasmilitia Northtexas.

3 Q. And in this first message that we see here, about what
4 time and date is that sent?

5 A. April the 10th, approximately 9:42 a.m. Nevada time.

6 Q. And could you please read the body of that email?

7 A. "I sent you a bunch of messages the other day with no
8 response. Call me (406)560-2504."

9 Q. And this is Ryan Payne giving his number?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And I believe I've already asked you, but did you
12 receive -- and I will ask you more about it later. But did you
13 receive toll records associated with this number?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And going down to the third communication here on the 16 page, who is this a communication from? The one that's at 17 17:14:46 universal time code.

18 A. Yes, that is also from Ryan Payne.

19 Q. And what does Ryan Payne say in that communication?

20 A. "I am with Cliven Bundy as we speak. I am acting liaison
21 for Cliven Bundy and militia responding."

22 Q. Could you go to that close view, please?

23 And bringing your attention to the last three
24 communications on the first page of Exhibit 59, do we have some 25 questions here from Texasmilitia Northtexas?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What's the question?

3 A. "Did Ammon or Cliven say no uniforms or long arms?"

4 Q. And does Ryan Payne respond to that?

5 A. Yes, he did.

6 Q. What's Ryan Payne's response?

7 A. "No. But we are maintaining a low-key posture until more
8 start arriving. Sidearms only and minimal camo. When we have 9 more support, we will suit up."

10 Q. And again that's on April 10th of 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And taking your attention to the next two communications
13 here on the second page of Exhibit 59, is there another
14 question from Texasmilitia Northtexas?

15 A. Yes. He asks "Can we get a head count?"

16 Q. And what's Ryan Payne's response?

17 A. "No LEOs yet. I've heard they're en route. Massive 18 response from militia en route. AH64 on the ground at BLM
19 command post."

20 Q. Agent Seyler, in your training and experience, does the 21 term LEO have a specific meaning?

22 A. Yes, it's a law enforcement officer.

23 Q. Can you come out of this close view, please?

24 And taking your attention to the last four 25 communications that appear here on this page, do we have

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 another question from Texas militia North Texas?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what's that question?

4 A. "Have more feds arrived? Any signs of military?"

5 Q. Does he have another question after that?

6 A. "Local militia units or out of state?"

7 Q. And the bottom communication here that occurs at 8 19:24:36 universal time code, does Ryan Payne respond?

9 A. Yes, he does.

10 Q. Can you please read that response?

11 A. "Local rep is here. They are late as" expletive.

12 "Montana has most guys. Utah, Nevada unorganized. Idaho.

13 Many more en route. I am designated liaison for militia via 14 Cliven Bundy. In constant communication and all information
15 disseminated is vetted by him."

16 Q. Thank you. You can do that down.

17 Agent Seyler, as a part of the investigation was 18 there also a Facebook search warrant conducted on the Facebook
19 account of Ricky Ray Lovelien?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And was that served in the same manner that you described
22 earlier in regard to Cliven Bundy and Carol Bundy's Facebook
23 accounts?

24 A. Yes, it was.

25 Q. Does Ricky Ray Lovelien have a publicly viewable Facebook

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 account?

2 A. Yes, portions of it are available to view publicly, yes.

3 Q. What were you able to observe on the public version of 4 that Facebook account?

5 A. Photographs of Ricky Ray Lovelien. The fact that he lived
6 in Libby, Montana.

7 Q. And when you served this search warrant on Facebook, did
8 you also receive a certificate of authenticity for the records
9 you received?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And did that identify the specific account number of Ricky
12 Ray Lovelien's Facebook account?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And bringing up for the witness what's been previously
15 admitted as page 6 of Exhibit 49.

16 Is this the certificate of authenticity not only for 17 Payne's Facebook page but also for Lovelien's Facebook page?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Bringing up for the 20 witness only Exhibit 60. 60.

21 Agent Seyler, is this one of the records that you
22 received from Facebook in response that search warrant?

23 A. Yes, it is.

24 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
25 Exhibit 60.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on hearsay grounds, Your
2 Honor.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 60 is admitted.
7 Coconspirator statement.

8 Did you want to publish that?

9 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

10 (Exhibit 60 admitted.)

11 THE COURT: Did you say the certificate of 12 authenticity for the Lovelien Facebook return is the same --

13 MS. CREEGAN: As the Payne.

14 THE COURT: As for Payne.

15 MS. CREEGAN: So that is page 6.

16 THE COURT: Of Exhibit 49?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Of Exhibit 49. Correct.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. And Agent Seyler, bringing your attention to Exhibit 60,
21 what type of Facebook record is this?

22 A. This would be basic subscriber information for the
23 account.

24 Q. And does it give, for example, a name?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. What's the name given here?

2 A. Rick Lovelien MTRDF III.

3 Q. And are you familiar, in the course of your investigation,
4 of what the acronym MTRDF stands for?

5 A. Yes, that's the acronym they use for Montana State Defense
6 Force.

7 Q. And you've already testified to it, but are you familiar
8 with the 3% or III acronym?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what does that refer to again?

11 A. Again, it's a reference to the American Revolution and the 12 alleged 3% that supported the revolution.

13 Q. Is there a second page to this? Sorry. I can't see it
14 here. Thank you.

15 And taking your attention to the very top of the 16 second page, does it list a current city?

17 A. Yes, Libby, Montana.

18 Q. Did you know that to be where Ricky Lovelien resided?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And there's also a number listed here next to phone
21 number; is that correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. What's that phone number?

24 A. 1(918)575-1041.

25 Q. Do you know that to be a number associated with Ricky Ray

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Lovelien?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And I will ask you more questions about it later, but did
4 you also obtain toll records for this number?

5 A. Yes, we did.

6 Q. Thank you. You can take that down and bring up for the
7 witness only Exhibit 61.

8 And Agent Seyler, is this also a record returned by 9 Facebook in response to your search warrant request for Ricky
10 Ray Lovelien?

11 A. Yes, it is.

12 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
13 Exhibit 61.

14 MR. TANASI: Hearsay objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 THE COURT: And Ms. Creegan, same response?

19 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Coconspirator statement?

21 All right. Exhibit 61 will be admitted. You may go
22 ahead and publish that.

23 (Exhibit 61 admitted.)

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. And Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record is this?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. This lists the groups on Facebook that Rick Lovelien is
2 associated with.

3 Q. And turning your attention to about halfway down, is the 4 Montana State Defense Force listed there?

5 A. Yes, MTFD.

6 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Bringing up
7 Exhibit 62 for the witness only.

8 Is this also a Facebook record for Ricky Ray
9 Lovelien's account that you received in response to your search
10 warrant?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
13 Exhibit 62.

14 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 26 will be
19 admitted.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish.

21 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

22 (Exhibit 62 admitted.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Agent Seyler, looking at the first page of Exhibit 62,
25 what type of Facebook record is this?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. This is a listing of the friends on Facebook that Lovelien
2 has.

3 Q. And taking your attention to the second page, toward the 4 top of the second page, is Jerry Bruckhart OMA3 listed there?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And this is the same account and account number that we've
7 seen conversing with Ryan Payne?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And going to the third page, is there an individual James
10 Lardy listed here?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Could you just -- sorry. Thank you. Who is James Lardy?

13 A. James Lardy was also a member of the Montana State Defense
14 Force and also the West Mountain Rangers. He lived in a town
15 called Philipsburg, which is near Anaconda where Ryan Payne
16 lived.

17 Q. And taking your attention to the fifth page, toward the 18 bottom, is Ryan Payne OMD listed as a friend?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And this is the same account number associated with Ryan
21 Payne?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Bring up for the 24 witness only Exhibit 63.

25 Is this also a Facebook record received in response

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 to the search warrant that you executed on Ricky Ray Lovelien's
2 Facebook account?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 63.

5 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

7 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

8 THE COURT: Excuse me. And this is -- we're still on 9 Mr. Lovelien's Facebook?

10 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Objection is overruled.
12 Exhibit 63 will be admitted.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

16 (Exhibit 63 admitted.)

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record is this?

19 A. This is the "about me" section on Facebook. You are 20 allowed to put a statement in about -- about yourself, if you
21 like, on Facebook for people to see, and that's what this is.

22 Q. And what has Ricky Ray Lovelien put in his "about me"
23 section?

24 A. "Regional director for the Montana State Defense Force."

25 Q. Thank you. Could we bring up, for the witness only,

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Exhibit 64.

2 Agent Seyler, is this also a record that you received
3 in response to your search warrants on Ricky Ray Lovelien's
4 Facebook account?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 64.

7 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Continuing objection, Parker.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Continuing objection.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien as well.

11 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 64 is admitted.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 (Exhibit 64 admitted.)

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook business record is
17 Exhibit 64?

18 A. It's a part of the activities section of a Facebook return
19 we get.

20 Q. And can I show the second page to the witness?

21 Does the activity section go from most recent to 22 least recent in the Facebook business records?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So, this second page actually occurs earlier in time?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And what appears on the second page? What time and date
2 was this posted in local Nevada time?

3 A. Yes. So this would have been approximately 4:25 p.m. on
4 April 7th.

5 Q. And what is the event that occurs that's recorded in the 6 Facebook record?

7 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFD III and Ryan Payne OMD are now
8 friends."

9 Q. And this is five days before the event that occurs in 10 Bunkerville?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Taking your attention to the first page of this record,
13 when does this occur in local Nevada time?

14 A. Approximately 11:08 a.m. on April 9th.

15 Q. And what occurs in this record?

16 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFD III likes Operation Mutual Aid."

17 Q. Did Operation Mutual Aid, in April of 2014, have a
18 Facebook page?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did you capture that Facebook page as it appeared?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Bring up for the witness only Exhibit 65.

23 Agent Seyler, is this how the Operation Mutual Aid
24 Facebook page appeared in April of 2014?

25 A. Yes.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 65.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 65 will be
7 admitted.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

9 THE COURT: And may be published, yes.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. All right. Agent Seyler, again, this is how the Operation
14 Mutual Aid Facebook page appeared in April of 2014?

15 A. Yes. Correct.

16 Q. And I'm just going to note that -- is it correct that it
17 says "Operation Mutual Aid" in the top left corner?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And does it show a picture of what appear to be 18th
20 Century persons firing muskets?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Can you go to the second page, please?

23 Is one of the most recent updates on Operation Mutual
24 Aid an update from April 5th, 2014?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Would this have been visible to anyone who looked at the
2 OMA page after April 5th, 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Could you please read that?

5 A. "OMA has a verbal request for assistance in arresting the 6 guilty parties responsible for the violations of the 7 Constitution of the state of Montana. Before OMA can act on 8 the request, we need to know if we have enough men willing and 9 able to assist."

10 "Please contact me personally with how you think OMA
11 should act on said request for assistance. I encourage sharing
12 of this post, but please copy and paste this header along with 13 the post so others will understand context."

14 Q. This was a planned operation in the state of Montana about 15 a week before what occurred in Bunkerville?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And taking your attention to the next page, page 3, is 18 this another post?

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Can we go back to the first
20 page of Exhibit 65?

21 MS. CREEGAN: Certainly.

22 THE COURT: All right. That's fine. I was just 23 trying to make sure -- I thought it said "nongovernmental
24 organization."

25

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. And Agent Seyler, can you explain that? What is the 3 nongovernmental organization appellation that occurs here on 4 this page mean?

5 A. You can indicate what type of organization you are, a
6 charitable organization or the like. In this case, they chose
7 to identify themselves as a nongovernmental organization.

8 Q. Do you have to choose one of the descriptors?

9 A. I don't think it's essential that you choose one. It
10 gives you an option to choose, and that's what they did.

11 Q. If I could take you to page 3. Is this an entry on the 12 Operation Mutual Aid Facebook page from June of 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Would this have been visible to anyone that looked at the 15 Operation Mutual Aid Facebook page in April of 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Could you please read this entry?

18 A. "Fellow patriots. Our time has arrived. I, for many 19 years, have been a militia of one, and I often wondered how 20 many others are the same? If I, as a militia of one, act on a
21 violation of the Constitution or Bill of Rights, I will be 22 labeled a domestic terrorist and the general public will 23 believe it."

24 "On the other hand, if a group acted in response to a
25 blatant violation of those documents, it would be more

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 difficult for the lame stream media to convince the general
2 population of the same."

3 "The public is waking up, a bit too slowly, in my 4 mind, and if the AO is selected wisely and proper groundwork is 5 laid prior, it is going to be very hard for the powers to 6 convince a large portion of society that we fall within their 7 broad definition of terrorist."

8 "I got to thinking that I would be more than willing
9 to travel to render aid if requested and if I was able to do
10 so. I wondered how many others might feel the same way. So, I
11 decided to write this up in hopes of finding fellow patriots in 12 a similar situation as myself."

13 "Please note. I have no military training, so please
14 try to see the intent rather than the letter of what's to 15 follow. This section -- this selection process is in no way
16 written in stone. All volunteers would come under the command
17 of the AO commander that we are providing assistance to."

18 "Note. We may be able to muster more volunteers, if 19 we can be given a specific assignment and be allowed to elect
20 our own leadership which would come under the ultimate control
21 of AO command. This would ultimately be up to any AO to decide
22 how they wanted to handle that. Hopefully we would be able to 23 supply some either way."

24 "In the event command is willing and able to enable 25 the election of team leaders, the selection process will be as

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 follows."

2 Q. Agent Seyler, I won't ask you to read from there on, but
3 just so we know, in your training and experience, are you
4 familiar with the acronym AO?

5 A. Yes, it should be area of operation.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Parker is going to add a relevance
7 argument. These statements are from 2013.

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

11 THE COURT: He's testified it was still visible on 12 April of 2014, even though it was posted earlier. It was still 13 visible on the Facebook page publicly for anyone to see. So,
14 on that basis, the objection is overruled.

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. Can you take that exhibit down, please? And for the 17 witness only, can you bring up Exhibit 68?

18 And Agent Seyler, is this also a document that you
19 received in response to your Facebook search warrant on Rick
20 Ray Lovelien's Facebook account?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And is it a conversation that occurs in April of 2014?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. CREEGAN: The government would move to admit
25 Exhibit 68.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Continuing objection, Mr. Marchese?

3 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Leventhal?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

6 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 68 will
8 be admitted.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 (Exhibit 68 admitted.)

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, this is from Ricky Ray Lovelien's
14 Facebook account; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What type of Facebook record is this?

17 A. This is a private message.

18 Q. Who is the private message between?

19 A. Between Ryan Payne and Rick Lovelien.

20 Q. And taking your attention to the first message that occurs
21 here, what's the time and date in local Nevada time?

22 A. This would have been approximately 12:15 p.m. on April the 23 7th.

24 Q. April 7th is five days before the confrontation that 25 occurs in Bunkerville?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what's the message that Ryan Payne sends Rick
3 Lovelien?

4 A. "Rick. Please call me as soon as possible. 560-2504."

5 Q. And what's Ricky Lovelien's response?

6 A. "Sent your number to my contacts."

7 Q. Does Ryan Payne respond to that?

8 A. Yes. "Thanks. Sua sponte."

9 Q. And again, what's the meaning of the term sua sponte?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Asked and answered.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer the question.

12 THE WITNESS: Of our own accord.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Can you scroll down, please?

14 THE COURT: Of our own accord?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. And the next entry in this communication is kind of cut
19 between two pages, but if we can just go back to the bottom of 20 page 1. Sorry.

21 Who is the speaker of the next communication?

22 A. Rick Lovelien.

23 Q. Rick Lovelien is sending a message to Ryan Payne?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. If we could go to page 2, please.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 What's the message that Rick Lovelien sends to Ryan
2 Payne?

3 A. "Please keep me updated."

4 Q. And does Rick Lovelien also ask Ryan Payne a question?

5 A. Yes. Later he asks "Do we have an exact location?"

6 Q. Does Ryan Payne respond to that request for information?

7 A. Yes, he provides him coordinates.

8 Q. And again, what are these the coordinates for?

9 A. The Bundy Ranch.

10 Q. Can you scroll down, please?

11 Just taking your attention to the last communication
12 here, what time and date is that sent?

13 A. This would have been April 9th at 11:59 a.m.

14 Q. And who's sending the message?

15 A. This would have been Ryan Payne sending a message to Rick
16 Lovelien.

17 Q. What's the message that Ryan Payne sends?

18 A. "Give me a ring ASAP."

19 Q. And I will have some questions for you later about phone
20 records.

21 THE COURT: So we are two days later?

22 BY MS. CREEGAN:

23 Q. Is that correct, Agent Seyler? In the course of this
24 communication, does this cover more than one date?

25 A. Correct. April 7th through April 9th.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Just wasn't sure if I
2 wrote down -- my 7 and my 9 look very similar.

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. And can we take this down, please, and bring up Exhibit 69
5 for the witness only?

6 Agent Seyler, is this also a communication to which
7 Rick Lovelien is a party?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And this is from the Facebook search warrant returns on 10 his Facebook account?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And this communication occurs on April 7th of 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 69.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

16 And with respect to this, there's a laundry list of names that 17 appear on the exhibit. I don't think there's any foundation as 18 to any of their involvement in this case.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I show on the top of this
23 page the person speaking is Rick Lovelien. The private 24 communication will always have the same recipients, so the 25 purpose of this page is to show all the recipients.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: Right. So this -- the list of people
2 that are on page -- on Exhibit 69, those are individuals that
3 received the email authored by the person that's indicated as 4 the author.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Correct.

6 THE COURT: Or at least that's who -- who the intent
7 is to, to send it to those --

8 MS. CREEGAN: And let me ask Agent Seyler.

9 Q. Agent Seyler, when there's a private communication, does
10 it list the total number of recipients in the communication?

11 A. In a private message, yes. It will list everyone that's 12 part of that conversation.

13 Q. And when Facebook collects records, they keep the entire 14 communication as a single record that has all those same
15 recipients?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And if a new conversation is started, that appears as a
18 separate record, which is blocked off by a lot of white space;
19 is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And this page we see here, these two communications
22 occurred directly after, with no large blocking of white space?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So, the communication that's authored by Ricky Lovelien at 25 the top has all the same recipients?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I'm going to object as to
2 leading.

3 MS. CREEGAN: This is foundational.

4 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

6 THE COURT: It's in response to your objection, so
7 she can continue.

8 BY MS. CREEGAN:

9 Q. So is it the case that all the recipients that are listed
10 in Rick Lovelien's communication are all the people that 11 received the message that he authored at the top of page 69?

12 A. Yes.

13 MS. CREEGAN: The government would move to admit
14 Exhibit 69.

15 THE COURT: Exhibit 69 will be admitted.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 69 admitted.)

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. And Agent Seyler, now that the jury can see it, again,
21 what type of Facebook record is this?

22 A. This is a private message.

23 Q. And at the very top, who is the author of the message that
24 appears at the top of the page?

25 A. Rick Lovelien.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And when is this message sent?

2 A. April 7th, approximately 12:30 p.m. Nevada time.

3 Q. Can you read the body of that message?

4 A. "Contact info to coordinate groups. Ryan Payne OMA
5 (406)560-2540. They have made live contact and are setting up
6 security ops."

7 Q. And this is the same number we've seen Ryan Payne
8 disseminate?

9 A. It's close. He's actually missed it by one number.

10 Q. And has it been the case that he's inverted two of the 11 numbers?

12 A. Yes, the last two.

13 Q. And can we come out of the close-up, please?

14 Agent Seyler, when Facebook keeps a record of a 15 private conversation, does it keep a record of all the 16 recipients of that conversation?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And as long as that conversation is going on, it's a
19 continuous record of every communication that those recipients
20 received?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And then when a new conversation starts in a Facebook
23 record, there's a large amount of white space that would block
24 it off from subsequent communication?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. So, looking at this Exhibit 69, is it the case that all
2 the persons here that are listed as recipients, were they
3 recipients of Rick Lovelien's message as well?

4 A. Yes, they would have been listed on the previous page,
5 yes.

6 Q. And is there anything that you notice in particular about
7 the recipients of this message?

8 A. These are all or most of them have individuals that are 9 associated with militias or militia groups.

10 Q. Some of them have the name militia in the title; correct?

11 A. A number of them do, yes.

12 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we bring up, for
13 the witness only, Exhibit 70.

14 Agent Seyler, is this another record you received in 15 response to your search warrant for Rick Lovelien's Facebook
16 account?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Is it a communication between Rick Lovelien and another
19 person?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And is this in April of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Government would move to admit
24 Exhibit 70.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor,

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 with respect to James Lardy and his involvement.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins. And this is not
4 putting anything into context. This looks to be only one
5 person talking.

6 MS. CREEGAN: I believe that you can see that Rick
7 Lovelien responds at the bottom of this excerpt.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, do you have any objection?

9 MR. PEREZ: Actually, no, Your Honor. I don't.

10 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 70 will be admitted.
11 You may publish.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (Exhibit 70 admitted.)

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. And Agent Seyler, drawing your attention to the first 16 communication, is this also a private message?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Who is this a private message between?

19 A. Between James Lardy and Rick Lovelien.

20 Q. And I believed you testified earlier, but who is James
21 Lardy?

22 A. James Lardy was another member of the Montana State
23 Defense Force who had also recently joined Ryan Payne's West
24 Mountain Rangers.

25 Q. And what date is this -- what date and time in local

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Nevada time does this communication take place?

2 A. This would have been Tuesday, April 8th, at approximately
3 10:12 a.m.

4 Q. Could you please read the body of James Lardy's message to 5 Rick Lovelien?

6 A. "Rick. I regretfully need to resign my position with 7 MTDF. I will be transferring to the West Mountain Rangers.
8 I've been training with them. They are out of Anaconda and a
9 well-established group. This is strictly a tactical decision,
10 these are my immediate neighbors. I train with them. I am
11 going to fight with them."

12 "We leave for Nevada tonight. I thank you for all 13 you have done. Please know that I have no problem at all with 14 the MTDF. I just feel this is the right decision based on 15 tactical considerations. Please relay this message to Randy as 16 I'm in a hurry to pack. Stay in contact. Have a good day.
17 I'm off to war."

18 Q. This person mentions the West Mountain Rangers, who I
19 believe you may have mentioned before, but who are the West
20 Mountain Rangers?

21 A. That's Ryan Payne's group out of the Anaconda/Philipsburg
22 area.

23 Q. That's a militia group as well?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And MTDF, who does that refer to?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. The Montana State Defense Force.

2 Q. Is Rick Lovelien a leader of MTDF?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Does he have a co-leader?

5 A. Yes, at that time, it would have been Randy Eaton.

6 Q. And is there a reference here to please relay the message
7 to Randy?

8 A. Yes, that would have been Randy Eaton.

9 Q. Can we go to the second page of this exhibit, please?

10 In looking at the first full communication on this 11 page, who is this from and to?

12 A. This is from Rick Lovelien to James Lardy.

13 Q. Is this also an April 8th of 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What's Rick Lovelien's statement?

16 A. "You guys heading out?"

17 Q. Does James Lardy respond to that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What's James Lardy's response?

20 A. "Going to the ranch. In contact with family. They 21 putting us up."

22 Q. Does Rick Lovelien respond to James Lardy?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What's his response?

25 A. "10 4. We are coordinating our efforts to get all units

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 together when they get there."

2 Q. Does James Lardy respond to Rick Lovelien?

3 A. Yes. He says, "Maybe see you there? Gotta go. Packing."

4 Q. What's Rick Lovelien's response to that?

5 A. "Ryan Payne. His number is (406)560-2504."

6 Q. Is that the number that Ryan Payne disseminated earlier?

7 A. That's Ryan Payne's number, yes.

8 Q. And this -- and here it's given correctly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Can you take that down, please, and bring up Exhibit 71
11 for the witness only.

12 Agent Seyler, is this another record that you
13 received from Facebook in response to your search warrant
14 request for Rick Lovelien's Facebook account?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is this a communication between Rick Lovelien and another
17 person also beginning on April 7th of 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
20 Exhibit 71.

21 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Continuing objection from everyone?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Correct, Your Honor.

25 MR. PEREZ: Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: All right. Same ruling. Exhibit 71 will
2 be admitted. You may publish.

3 (Exhibit 71 admitted.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record is this?

6 A. This is a private message.

7 Q. And again, are private messages publicly viewable?

8 A. Yes -- I'm sorry. No, they are not.

9 Q. Are they -- who are they viewable to?

10 A. Only to the recipients.

11 Q. And this message begins with one from Rick Lovelien to 12 Randy Eaton?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And again, who is Randy Eaton?

15 A. Randy Eaton is the co-leader of the Montana State Defense
16 Force.

17 Q. And what's the date of this first communication?

18 A. April the 7th.

19 Q. And what's the time about in local Nevada time?

20 A. Approximately 4:31 p.m.

21 Q. And what does Rick Lovelien say in this message?

22 A. "Not going to Idaho rally on the 19th."

23 Q. Does Randy Eaton respond to that statement?

24 A. He asks "Any reason in particular?"

25 Q. Does -- what's Rick Lovelien's reply?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "I may be heading south."

2 Q. Can you scroll down a little, please?

3 And what's Randy Eaton's reply to Rick Lovelien?

4 A. He asks "Permanent or the whole Nevada thing?"

5 Q. Does Rick Lovelien reply?

6 A. Yes. He says "Nevada."

7 Q. All right. Does he give the initials "NV"?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And going on to the next page, who is this a message from?

10 A. This is from Randy Eaton.

11 Q. What does Randy Eaton say?

12 A. "Well, I'll be headed back to Vegas for another job, but 13 not in time for that. If absolutely needed, then I'll do what 14 I have to do."

15 Q. What's Rick Lovelien's response?

16 A. "10 4."

17 Q. Does Rick Lovelien add something else?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What does he add?

20 A. "A plea for help went out yesterday. Other militia units
21 are mobilizing. I am in contact with one of the coordinators.
22 Waiting for more intel at this time."

23 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
24 Exhibit 72 for the witness only?

25 Agent Seyler, is this also a record that was received

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 in response to your search warrant for Rick Lovelien's Facebook
2 account?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And is Rick Lovelien a communicant in the message?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Is it a private message?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Does it occur on or around April 8th of 2014?

9 A. April 7th and 8th, yes.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. Government would move to
11 admit Exhibit 72.

12 THE COURT: Continuing objection?

13 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. And again, there's 14 additional names on the list as well like Whiting.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins. It's going for the 16 truth of the matter asserted.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

18 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

19 THE COURT: Exhibit 72 is admitted over the 20 objection. It is not hearsay. It is an exception to the 21 hearsay rule as a proffered coconspirator statement.

22 And the fact that there's other peoples' names on 23 here is not an objection as long as this -- the document is 24 admissible as a Facebook private message from Mr. Lovelien's
25 Facebook page received by this witness through a search warrant

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 return with a certified business record custodian letter.

2 You may go ahead and publish 72.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 (Exhibit 72 admitted.)

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. Agent Seyler, I bring your attention to the third
7 communication that occurs here. Again, what type of Facebook
8 record is this?

9 A. This is a private message.

10 Q. And who are the communicants in this private message
11 chain?

12 A. Rick Lovelien and Nic Whiting.

13 Q. And what date about does this -- this first communication
14 that we are looking at, when does that start?

15 A. April the 8th.

16 Q. And who is the author of this -- this message that we are 17 looking at a 23:02:16 UTC time?

18 A. Rick Lovelien.

19 Q. What does Rick Lovelien say?

20 A. "The Mountain Rangers are in your area. They are good
21 people with level heads, they are headed to NV right now.
22 Don't know when they will be back."

23 Q. Does Nic Whiting respond to that?

24 A. Yes, he does.

25 Q. What is his statement?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "Sounds like a group I would fit in with. I appreciate."

2 Q. Does Rick Lovelien reply to Nic Whiting?

3 A. Yes, he does.

4 Q. What's Rick Lovelien's reply?

5 A. "Contact Ryan Payne OMA from our page. He should be able 6 to help."

7 Q. Do you know what that refers to "from our page"?

8 A. Yes, from the Montana State Defense Force Facebook group.

9 Q. Was Ryan Payne a member of the Montana State Defense Force
10 Facebook group in April of 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Can you come out of that close-up, please? Can you go to 13 the -- I think there's a second page here. Yes. Thank you.

14 Taking your attention to that second full 15 communication that occurs at 19:30 -- 19:32:22 UTC time, is 16 that a question from Nic Whiting to Rick Lovelien?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And that's on April 9th of 2014?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What does -- what's Nic Whiting's question?

21 A. "Would you like some company?"

22 Q. And is he asking that because Rick Lovelien had stated he 23 was heading to Nevada before?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And what's Rick Lovelien's response to that question?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. He says "Sure. My cell number is (918)575-1041."

2 Q. This the same number that's given in his information
3 background of his Facebook page?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And can you come out of that close-up, please?

6 And taking your attention to the last two full 7 communications on the page, who is the author of the 8 communication on April 9th that begins at 20:49:05 UTC time?

9 A. That would be Rick Lovelien.

10 Q. And what's his statement?

11 A. "I will call when I get close to your locale for a
12 meet-up. Should be around 9:00 or 10:00."

13 Q. Does Nic Whiting respond to that?

14 A. Yes, he says "Sounds like a plan."

15 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
16 Exhibit 73 for the witness only, please.

17 Is this also a record that you received from Facebook
18 in response to the search warrant that you executed on Ricky
19 Ray Lovelien's Facebook account?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And does it include communications between Rick Lovelien
22 and another person?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. On about April 9th of 2014?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 73.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects, Your Honor. Hearsay.
3 Declarant in this string appears to be J.D. Parks and Marc A.
4 And we don't know whether, A, they are involved in the 5 conspiracy or if their statements are made in furtherance of 6 the alleged conspiracy. And if neither of those prongs are 7 made under the Bourjaly case, then the statements don't get in.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Rick Lovelien is a communicant on this 12 page. He's a communicant at 18:57 UTC time. Another one at 13 18:57 UTC time.

14 THE COURT: And on Exhibit 73, Defendant Lovelien is 15 the author and/or recipient of these conversations. I don't 16 see anywhere he's not included. So, objection is overruled.
17 Exhibit 73 will be admitted.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 (Exhibit 73 admitted.)

21 BY MS. CREEGAN:

22 Q. Taking your attention to the conversation between a person
23 known as Marc A. and Rick Lovelien, about what date do these 24 communications take place?

25 A. It would have been April 9th.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. That's three days -- excuse me -- three days before the
2 event that occurs in Bunkerville, Nevada?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what's the question that Marc A. asks to Rick
5 Lovelien?

6 A. "Some of us in WAST could rapidly deploy. What's the 7 mission?"

8 Q. Does Rick Lovelien respond that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What's his response?

11 A. "I am in contact with Operation Mutual Aid. They are 12 organizing this op. I can put others in contact so people will 13 know where to go."

14 Q. Does Marc A. respond to that?

15 A. Yes. He says, "Yeah, that will help."

16 Q. And what's Rick Lovelien's response to Marc A.?

17 A. "They can tell you more the specs."

18 Q. What's Marc A.'s response to that?

19 A. "Those of us who are able to rapidly deploy are all former 20 SF."

21 Q. We don't have it, but we can see that there's a response
22 from Rick Lovelien after that.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
25 Exhibit 74 for the witness only? Thank you.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Now, Agent Seyler, I think you mentioned earlier was
2 Ryan Payne a member of the MTDf Facebook group account?

3 A. Yes, he was.

4 Q. As a member of that account, would he be able to see all
5 of the contents of that group page?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. In your Facebook settings, are you able to set your
8 notifications in different ways so that you receive information
9 about what's been posted to group pages that you are a member
10 of?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And this could be a little confusing, so I want to really
13 understand it from you. But what were Ryan Payne's settings?
14 And can you explain how he would get information from the 15 Montana State Defense Force Group page?

16 A. At that time, Ryan Payne had his settings that he would
17 receive all of the messages to the Montana State Defense Force
18 Group, not only on Facebook, but they would be forwarded to his 19 email account as well.

20 Q. And this is the rypayne1@gmail email account that we were 21 discussing earlier?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. So, every time somebody posted something to the Montana
24 State Defense Force page, that statement of that person would 25 appear in an email in his email account?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And drawing your attention to Exhibit 74, is this a
3 posting to the Montana State Defense Force Facebook group page?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And it was received by Ryan Payne in his email?

6 A. Yes, the email information is there, yes.

7 Q. And this was a message that was authored by Rick Lovelien?

8 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Laying foundation.

10 THE COURT: The witness can answer the question.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. And it's a little bit over to the side, but about what 14 date was this posted?

15 A. April 9th.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 74.

17 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects. Hearsay, Your Honor.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

20 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

21 THE COURT: Exhibit 74 is admitted over objection.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

23 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

24 (Exhibit 74 admitted.)

25 THE COURT: Same ruling, coconspirator statements.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. And Agent Seyler, this is the first time we are seeing
3 this, so I just want to walk you through it a little bit. So,
4 at the top here it says "from." What does that tell us?

5 A. That that is an email on -- the top information is email
6 information to Ryan Payne's account.

7 Q. So, when Facebook sends you this notification that
8 someone's posted to the group, will it tell you who the author
9 is?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. In this case, who is the author?

12 A. Rick Lovelien, MTFD III.

13 Q. And there's also a "to" line here. What does that tell
14 us?

15 A. That this was posted to the MTFD Facebook group.

16 Q. And in the body of the email, does Facebook also indicate
17 who's writing and where they are posting?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Could you just read that for us?

20 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFD III posted in MTFD Montana State
21 Defense Force."

22 Q. And if you could scroll just a little bit over to the 23 right. Is there a date on this email? Sorry. Up a little bit
24 from there.

25 A. Yes, the email was received on April the 9th.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And this time, since Google is headquartered in
2 California, are their records typically in Pacific time?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Thank you. You can come out of there.

5 And bringing your attention back to the body of the 6 posting by Rick Lovelien, would you please read that for the
7 jury?

8 A. "Pass this along if you will. Alert. This is not a
9 drill. All Oath Keepers and militia in proximity need to move
10 into DEFCON 1 mode. Nevada militia has officially broadcasted
11 a mutual aid request for Oath Keepers and militia."

12 "Contact militiaCOL@gmail.com. This is not a drill.
13 Repeat. This is not a drill. There are rumors that Mr. Bundy
14 is not asking for help. That is a lie. He is asking for any 15 and all help with this situation immediately. Please share or 16 pass the word to 3%ers who are capable of rapid deployment to 17 Nevada outside Las Vegas."

18 Q. Thank you. Take that down. Can we bring up for the 19 witness only Exhibit 75?

20 Agent Seyler, is this another notification from the 21 MTFDF Facebook group to Ryan Payne's email?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Is the author of this also Rick Lovelien?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And this is a few days before April 12th?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes, on April the 9th.

2 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit 75.

3 THE COURT: Same objection?

4 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

7 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 75 will be
9 admitted.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

11 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

12 (Exhibit 75 admitted.)

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, who -- what does it mean when it
15 says "Rick Lovelien MTFD III" in the "from" line of this email?

16 A. It means he's the one that sent this post to the MTFD
17 Facebook group.

18 Q. And the first line of this email, what's that read?

19 A. Do you mean the text of the --

20 Q. Before the text.

21 A. Rick Lovelien MTFD III posted in the Montana State Defense
22 Force Facebook group.

23 Q. Could you read that posting, please?

24 A. "Attention all personnel. We are now in direct contact
25 with personnel at the Bundy Ranch. I will be heading out

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 shortly, too, myself to help with this situation. There is
2 plenty of camping room and provisions at the ranch."

3 "There was a direct request made by Mr. Bundy for 4 help. Anyone wishing to join me is welcome to do so. Please
5 contact me ASAP. That is all."

6 Q. And just scrolling over to the date that appears in this
7 email, what date and time is that in local Nevada time?

8 A. April 9th, 12:18 p.m.

9 Q. Can we bring up, for the witness only, Exhibit 176.

10 Agent Seyler, is this one of the records that you
11 received in response to the search warrant on the Operation
12 Mutual Aid Gmail account?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. Is there a recipient that's listed as Captain Rick
15 Lovelien MTDF, mtdf@mail.com?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. That's listed in the third line of the recipients?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And this is sent on April 10th, 2014?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
22 Exhibit 176.

23 THE COURT: Same objection?

24 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 176 will be

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 admitted.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Exhibit 176 admitted.)

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, this is an email from 7 operationmutualaid1@gmail.com; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And who is it to?

10 A. This is to a list of individuals, over 200 individuals
11 that were interested in receiving updates.

12 Q. And when was this email sent?

13 A. April the 10th.

14 Q. And drawing your attention to the second name in the third
15 line, could you read that, please?

16 A. "Captain Rick Lovelien MTFD."

17 Q. And could you please read the body of the email?

18 A. "Nevada alert. We are requesting help to distribute the 19 following to any and all media, blog, patriot groups, et 20 cetera."

21 "One, secure the Bundy family from government
22 incursion, which includes protection of all personnel
23 responding to support of the Bundys, i.e., protesters, extended
24 family and friends."

25 "Two, to return the confiscated Clark County Nevada

2 stewards -- to its rightful stewards, the people of Clark
3 County Nevada."

4 "Three, to secure and return to Mr. Bundy's ranch the
5 mounting number of cattle which have been confiscated by BLM
6 agents and private contractors."

7 "These objectives are in cohesion with Cliven Bundy
8 and the Bundy Ranch. Provisions can be secured in nearby
9 Mesquite. Minimal provisions, food, water, et cetera, are 10 available at the ranch with more en route. Multiple campsites
11 are secured and easily accessible. There is something for 12 everyone to do."

13 "Directions. Exit 112 off of I-15. Proceed 2 miles
14 to patriot checkpoint. Receive instructions there from OMA
15 personnel. We are the guardians of liberty. We are the great
16 barrier between tyrants and the oppressed. We do not forgive
17 acts of tranny against a disillusioned populace. We do not 18 forget the sacrifice of millions before us to secure freedom.
19 Our discerning eye is now a swift sword. Expect us."

20 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up, for
21 the witness only, Exhibit 76?

22 Agent Seyler, is this another record that you
23 received in response to your search warrant for the 24 rypayne1@gmail email address?

25 A. Yes, it is.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And is this another posting to the Montana State Defense
2 Force Group page?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Who is this posting by?

5 A. It's from Cheyenne Miller.

6 Q. And again, what relationship, if any, is Cheyenne Miller
7 to Mr. Lovelien?

8 A. It's Mr. Lovelien's sister.

9 Q. And what date about is this update posted to the Montana
10 State -- Montana State Defense Force Facebook group?

11 A. April 10th.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 76.

13 THE COURT: Same objection.

14 MR. TANASI: Objection. Hearsay, Your Honor. I
15 would just add the declarant is the issue. We don't know the 16 declarant's role in the alleged conspiracy.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

19 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we have established this 21 person is a coconspirator. They've joined OMA. They are 22 receiving the same update, and they are disseminating the 23 updates, which are the objectives of this conspirator the 24 Montana State Defense Group.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I am going to object.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 There has been no conspiracy. So, there has not -- that's not
2 up to Ms. Creegan to establish whether there's been an
3 established conspiracy yet.

4 MS. CREEGAN: That may be Mr. Leventhal's argument,
5 but the law allows us to put in the evidence and have the jury
6 decide if they find that a conspiracy is established.

7 MR. TANASI: There's still a standard though. It has 8 to be beyond the preponderance of the evidence standard, Your
9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: The Court's satisfied. Exhibit 76 will
11 be admitted.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may. It's proffered
14 coconspirator statement. There's sufficient evidence.

15 (Exhibit 76 admitted.)

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. And again, Agent Seyler, is this a posting to the Montana
18 State Defense Force Facebook group?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. By whom?

21 A. By Cheyenne Miller.

22 Q. And was this received by Ryan Payne in his email?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what is it that Cheyenne Miller posts in this posting
25 to the Montana State Defense Force Group?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "These are the same Bundy objectives which Operation
2 Mutual Aid had sent out a little bit earlier in their email."

3 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we bring up
4 Exhibit 77 for the witness only?

5 And is this also a posting to the Montana State
6 Defense Force Facebook group?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is this also a posting by Cheyenne Miller?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is it a posting on April 10th?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 77.

13 THE COURT: Same objection?

14 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 77 will be
18 admitted.

19 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

20 THE COURT: You may publish.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

22 (Exhibit 77 admitted.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. And Agent Seyler, this is a posting by Cheyenne Miller to 25 the Montana State Defense Force Group; correct?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Received in Ryan Payne's email?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what date is it sent?

5 A. April the 10th.

6 Q. And could you please read the body of that posting?

7 A. "Rick Lovelien, MTDf III, is on-site at the Bundy Ranch.
8 Arrived without incident."

9 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up, for
10 the witness only, Exhibit 78?

11 And is this another email that was received by Ryan
12 Payne as an update to the Montana State Defense Force Group?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Is this a posting by Randy Eaton?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And again, who is Randy Eaton?

17 A. Randy Eaton was the co-leader of the Montana State Defense
18 Force.

19 Q. And this was posted on April 11th?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 78.

22 THE COURT: Same objection?

23 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 78 will be admitted.

25 This is posted onto which website now? This is --

3 Q. Agent Seyler, which web -- where is this posted?

4 A. This was posted to the Montana State Defense Force
5 Facebook group and then forwarded to Ryan Payne's email
6 account.

7 Q. Is that because of his notification settings within
8 Facebook?

9 A. Yes.

10 THE COURT: I thought Ryan Payne's notifications were 11 from OMD's Facebook page. Was it also?

12 MS. CREEGAN: These are solely from Montana State
13 Defense Force.

14 THE COURT: All right. So, can we just clarify that 15 though? So, Ryan Payne has his own email address. He receives
16 email sent to that address, but he also receives emails that 17 are forwarded from which other Facebook pages?

18 THE WITNESS: The Montana State Defense Force
19 Facebook group.

20 THE COURT: All right. So not OMD?

21 THE WITNESS: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Exhibit 78 will be admitted.
23 You may publish.

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Thank you. And Agent Seyler, again, this is a posting by

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Randy Eaton to the Montana State Defense Force Facebook page?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And on what date does it occur?

4 A. April 11th.

5 Q. And that's one day before the confrontation which occurs
6 in Bunkerville?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Objection as to "confrontation."

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

11 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan.

12 MS. CREEGAN: I would argue that confrontation is a
13 very neutral word for what occurred.

14 THE COURT: Court agrees.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, I --

16 THE COURT: Objection overruled. You might have to 17 restate the question though.

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. Is April the 11th the day before the confrontation that 20 occurred in Bunkerville, Nevada?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And could you please read the body of that message posted
23 by Randy Eaton to the Montana State Defense Force Group?

24 A. "Due to rising tensions in Nevada, all MTFD Facebook
25 members wishing to become full members may contact me directly.

1 Today only, and only until 4:00 p.m., you may call my house.
2 This only applies to those within the state of Montana.
3 407-65-0389. This post will be removed tomorrow. May God
4 bless us all and the restoration of our beloved country."

5 Q. And Agent Seyler, this occurs on April 11th. Did you
6 also, in your investigation, find another video of Ryan Payne
7 speaking on April 11th?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Where did you find that video?

10 A. That was on the YouTube website on a page associated with 11 the Southern Nevada Watchdogs group.

12 Q. Did you see when it was posted?

13 A. April the 11th.

14 Q. And does Ryan Payne represent that he's in Nevada at that
15 time?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And bringing your attention to Exhibit 38, is that the 18 video that you're referring to that you downloaded from the 19 Southern Nevada Watchdog's YouTube group?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you can see that Ryan Payne is depicted in it?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
24 Exhibit 38.

25 THE COURT: 38?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: 38.

2 THE COURT: Same objection?

3 MR. TANASI: Same objections, Your Honor.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

6 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 38. It's admitted.

7 Same ruling. You may publish.

8 (Exhibit 38 admitted.)

9 (Exhibit 38 being played.)

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Agent Seyler, did you recognize the person in the black
12 shirt and green or tan hat in that video?

13 A. Yes, that was Ryan Payne.

14 Q. And in that video, he states "In order for everyone to go 15 home safely, the property needs to be returned"?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Was this available one day before -- publicly available
18 one day before April 12th, 2014?

19 A. Yes. Yes.

20 Q. Can I bring up, for the witness only, Exhibit 79?

21 Agent Seyler, is this another posting to the Montana
22 State Defense Force Facebook group that Ryan Payne receives
23 through his personal email?

1 A. Cheyenne Miller.

2 Q. And is this also on April 11th of 2014?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
5 Exhibit 79.

6 THE COURT: Same objection?

7 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

10 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 179 will be admitted.
12 Same ruling.

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Counsel, is this Exhibit 79
14 or 179?

15 MS. CREEGAN: 79.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Aaron. Exhibit 79 will be

18 (Exhibit 79 admitted.)

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, who is posting this message?

21 A. Cheyenne Miller.

22 Q. And where is it being posted?

23 A. In the MTFD Facebook group.

24 Q. And about what time of the day on April 11th?

25 A. Approximately 11:22 a.m.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And what's -- what is it that Cheyenne Miller posts?

2 A. "This just in. Rick Lovelien MTF III will be running the 3 security detail at the protest site on the Bundy Ranch in
4 Nevada. All support and prayers welcome."

5 Q. Agent Seyler, I notice that Rick Lovelien MTF III appears
6 to be blue. Do you know what that means?

7 A. Yes, that's a link in Facebook. You could actually click
8 on that and actually go to his Facebook site.

9 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up, for
10 the witness only, Exhibit 66.

11 Agent Seyler, is this another record that you
12 received from Rick Lovelien's Facebook account in response to 13 your search warrant?

16 A. This is a photograph that was in his account.

17 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
18 Exhibit 66.

19 THE COURT: Same objection?

20 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

23 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 66 will be
25 admitted.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

3 (Exhibit 66 admitted.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. And Agent Seyler, I believe you said this was a picture
6 posted to his account?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Can you see from the data that's listed below the picture
9 when it was posted?

10 A. Yes, this would have been on April 26 of 2014.

11 Q. And do you recognize Rick Lovelien as being within that 12 picture?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Could you please -- I think you'll have a little toolbar
15 to the side. Could you please circle where you see Rick
16 Lovelien?

17 And let the record reflect that the witness has 18 indicated the person in the camo in the background of the 19 picture.

20 And do you also recognize the individual in the 21 foreground of the picture?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. Who is that individual?

24 A. His name is Todd Engel.

25 Q. And again, this is a picture that was posted to Rick

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Lovelien's Facebook page?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. By himself?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Can you -- and could you -- I'm sorry. I will clear that
6 marking for you.

7 Drawing your attention, I am drawing a marking around
8 an object that appears to be in Rick Lovelien's hand. Do you
9 see that object?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what does that appear to be?

12 A. The butt of a rifle.

13 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we bring up
14 Exhibit 67 for the witness only?

15 Are these also records that you received in response
16 to your Facebook search warrant for the account of Ricky Ray
17 Lovelien?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And are these pictures that were posted to the user's
20 account?

21 A. Yes.

22 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
23 Exhibit 67.

24 THE COURT: Same objections?

25 MR. MARCHESE: Relevance, Your Honor.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

2 MR. MARCHESE: 2013. It's already been identified.

3 MS. CREEGAN: These are pictures that help identify 4 the object in Rick Lovelien's hand by other postings to his
5 account.

6 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Exhibit 67 will be
7 admitted. You may publish.

8 (Exhibit 67 admitted.)

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. Again, Agent Seyler, are these Facebook business records
11 that you received in response to your search warrant?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And these are pictures uploaded to Rick Lovelien's
14 account?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And just drawing your attention to this first picture,
17 what appears to be in person's hands there?

18 A. A rifle.

19 Q. And is there anything distinctive that you can tell about 20 that rifle from this picture?

21 A. It's more difficult from this picture. It appears to have 22 a slightly different color than a usual rifle would. Usually 23 they are black.

24 Q. Draw your attention to the second page of this exhibit, is 25 this another photograph from Rick Lovelien's Facebook account?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what's depicted here?

3 A. This would be the butt of a rifle that is covered with
4 something they usually call a skin which is kind of a custom
5 paint job.

6 Q. In your experience as an FBI agent, do you frequently
7 encounter firearms?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Do they frequently have skins?

10 A. No, that's somewhat unusual.

11 Q. And this skin is sort of a black and white pattern; is
12 that accurate?

13 A. Yes, with skulls on it, yes.

14 Q. And taking your attention to the third page of this 15 exhibit, does this appear to be another picture of the same
16 rifle?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. If I could just bring back up Exhibit 66 and close-up on 19 the object in Rick Lovelien's hand.

20 What can you tell about this object in Rick
21 Lovelien's hand from the pictures you have seen?

22 A. It appears to be the butt of a rifle also with an unusual
23 coloration, very similar to the ones in the other picture.

24 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Bring up Exhibit 80
25 for the witness only, please.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 And Agent Seyler, is this another posting to the 2 Montana State Defense Force Facebook group received by Ryan
3 Payne in his email?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And who's the author of this posting?

6 A. Rick Lovelien.

7 Q. When was this posting made?

8 A. April 14th.

9 Q. And this is two days after the confrontation at 10 Bunkerville, Nevada?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 80.

13 MR. TANASI: Same objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection Parker.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection.

16 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 80 will be admitted.
17 Same ruling.

18 (Exhibit 80 admitted.)

19 THE COURT: But before we publish it, we are going to 20 go ahead and take our lunch break, because the jury's lunch has 21 arrived. It's 12:02. So, we will be back here at, say, 1:10.

22 And during this break, I do remind the jury that you
23 are not to discuss this case with anyone, not even your fellow
24 jurors. You may speak to them about other things but not about
25 this case.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Please do not listen to, read, or view anything that
2 touches upon this case in any way. Do not attempt to perform
3 any research or independent investigation. If you have
4 questions, go ahead and write them down. And please do not
5 form an opinion until after you have heard all of the 6 testimony, received all of the evidence, I will give you the 7 written jury instructions of law, and then you will begin your
8 deliberation process, and that's when you can begin discussing
9 your opinions, but not until then.

10 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury and welcome
11 them back at 1:10.

12 Special Agent Seyler, you can take your lunch break,
13 too. We just need you back here by 1:10.

14 (Jury out.)

15 THE COURT: Off record.

16 (Recess, 12:03 p.m. Resumed 1:20 p.m. Jury out.)

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

18 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated. So,
19 are you ready to bring in the jury?

20 All right. Let's do that, Aaron.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 (Jury in.)

23 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.
24 Everyone else may be seated as well.

25 All right. We are back from our lunch break. We

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 have FBI Special Agent Seyler back on the witness chair.

2 Thank you very much, sir. I do remind you, you are
3 still under oath.

4 And Ms. Creegan, we did admit Exhibit 80, which was a
5 video, but I asked you if we could take a lunch break first
6 before we watched the video. So, now, would you like to play
7 the video?

8 MS. CREEGAN: So, Your Honor, 80 is actually a
9 document, but we'd like to publish it, please.

10 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit No. 80 may be 11 published.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. And Agent Seyler, again, what type of record are we 14 looking at here?

15 A. This is an email that Ryan Payne received that contained a 16 Facebook post to the Montana State Defense Force.

17 Q. Who was the post by?

18 A. Rick Lovelien.

19 Q. And on what date was this posted?

20 A. April 14th.

21 Q. Is that of 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Could you please read the body of that message?

24 A. "Just a heads up. I have just returned home for the time
25 being from the Bundy Ranch. I will update what I can as I can.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 The operation is still ongoing in Southeast Nevada. And
2 although the federal agents have surrendered their position and
3 withdrew, the area is still active, and we still have boots on 4 the ground. Security is our top priority as always."

5 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
6 Exhibit 81 for the witness only, please?

7 And Agent Seyler, is this another posting by Rick
8 Lovelien to the Montana State Defense Force Facebook group?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is it also on April 14th of 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. CREEGAN: The government would move to admit
13 Exhibit 81.

14 THE COURT: Any objection to 81? Same objection?

15 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Judge, yes. The same objection as 18 for hearsay. This is a declaration as opposed to anything
19 else. And the Court led me to the case of Williams before.
20 And the mere conversations and declarations are not sufficient
21 to invoke this exclusion, so I would object on those grounds.

22 THE COURT: Declarations and conversations are not
23 sufficient? Is that what you just said?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct under Williams, and 25 Williams is at 989 F.2d 1061.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan?

2 MS. CREEGAN: I am not sure that I understand the
3 objection. If it's a bootstrapping objection or an objection
4 related to the fact that these are all statements, there's been
5 other evidence of the conspiracy entered so far, including the 6 fact that 400 people showed up to a single location and worked
7 together in order to get cattle from the officers.

8 So, it's not a case where it solely relies on 9 documents in order to prove a conspiracy, if that's the
10 objection.

11 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm going to object as to 12 misstating the evidence. I don't think there's evidence that 13 400 people arrived in the fashion that Ms. Creegan just 14 described it.

15 THE COURT: I agree. I think the last email said
16 that 300 people, and that more were needed, but I don't think
17 we've heard yet how much -- how many more arrived. Let me take 18 a moment here.

19 It says, "Although mere conversations and narrative
20 declarations between coconspirators are not in themselves
21 sufficient, statements made to keep coconspirators abreast of 22 an ongoing conspiracy's activities do satisfy the 23 in-furtherance requirement."

24 So, the objection is overruled, and Exhibit 81 is 25 admitted. Do you wish to publish it?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You may do so.

3 (Exhibit 81 admitted.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. And Agent Seyler, is this a posting to the Montana State
6 Defense Force Facebook group?

7 A. Yes, it is.

8 Q. Is it received in Ryan Payne's email?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Who is it authored by?

11 A. Rick Lovelien.

12 Q. Could you read the body of that statement?

13 A. "Please note. Personnel are still needed at the Bundy
14 Ranch for ongoing security operations. Contact me or Ryan
15 Payne OMA for more info."

16 Q. And this is posted on April 14th, 2014?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And I notice that the Ryan Payne OMA name appears to be in 19 blue. What does that mean?

20 A. Again, a link that you can click on, and it would take you
21 to his Facebook page.

22 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
23 Exhibit 82 for the witness only, please?

24 Agent Seyler, is this a record that you received from 25 Facebook in response to your search warrant for the Facebook

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 account of Ricky Lovelien?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And does this have some activity in April of 2014 by the 4 user Ricky Lovelien?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
7 Exhibit 82.

8 MR. TANASI: Same hearsay objection, Your Honor.
9 Stewart.

10 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

12 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

13 THE COURT: Same ruling. Exhibit 82 is admitted.
14 You may publish.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

16 (Exhibit 82 admitted.)

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record are we looking 19 at now?

20 A. This appears to be a mini feed or activities page.

21 Q. And what's a mini feed page?

22 A. The return that we get back from Facebook has a mini feed
23 page which includes a lot of activity that the user is engaged
24 in.

25 Q. And for a mini feed, does it go from most recent to least

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 recent from the top to the bottom of the page?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So, can we go to the second page? So, these entries are 4 actually a little earlier in time than those on the first page?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So, beginning at the bottom of page 2 of Exhibit 82, is 7 there an update in the mini feed which was entered at 8 20:36:59 UTC time?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What's that entry?

11 A. "Rick Lovelien, MTF3, and Nic Whiting are now friends."

12 Q. And this was the person Rick Lovelien was discussing
13 coming to Nevada?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And the one up ahead of that, which is at 23:36:33 UTC
16 time, on April 14th?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What's posted there?

19 A. There would have been a link to a web page,
20 <http://mtdf.webs.com/donations/campaigns>.

21 Q. And what's the story that's one later than that?

22 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFDF III and Jerry Bruckhart OMA III are 23 now friends."

24 Q. And that's on April 15th?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And what's the story that's one more recent than that?

2 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFD III shared a group. Bundy Ranch
3 Resistance Transportation."

4 Q. And taking you to the first page of this exhibit, is there
5 an update to the mini feed on April 17th at 16:20:02 UTC time?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And what is that?

8 A. "Please note this money is going directly to the militia
9 at the ranch and not to the Bundy family."

10 Q. And what's this last mini feed update here on April 19th?

11 A. "Rick Lovelien MTFD III likes Bundy Ranch."

12 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can I bring up
13 Exhibit 83 for the witness only, please?

14 Agent Seyler, is this also a record that you received
15 in response to your search warrant for Rick Lovelien's Facebook
16 page?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And is this a private message?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And occurs in April of 2014?

21 A. Yes.

22 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
23 Exhibit 83.

24 THE COURT: Same objection, 83?

25 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, Your Honor.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

3 MR. PEREZ: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Exhibit 83 is admitted. Same ruling.

5 You may publish.

6 (Exhibit 83 admitted.)

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record is this?

9 A. This is a private message.

10 Q. And who is the message occurring between?

11 A. Between Ryan Payne and Rick Lovelien.

12 Q. And what's the date of the first message here?

13 A. April 14th, 2014.

14 Q. And this is the same general time frame of some of the 15 messages we've just seen in the mini feed?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Could you please read the body of that first message?

18 A. "Update. Have a donation campaign set up as we 19 discussed."

20 Q. Does Ryan Payne respond to that message?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What does Ryan Payne say?

23 A. "Thanks, buddy. You're a true patriot."

24 Q. Can we come out of that close-up, please? Is there a
25 second page? Thank you.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 And does Rick Lovelien respond to Ryan Payne's
2 statement?

3 A. Yes. He says "NP."

4 Q. What does "NP" mean?

5 A. No problem.

6 Q. Rick Lovelien add anything else?

7 A. Yes, "Not at this time on the other."

8 Q. Does Rick Lovelien make any other statements to Ryan
9 Payne?

10 A. Yes. It says "Give a call when you can for an update
11 there."

12 Q. And is there another statement here from Rick Lovelien at 13 3:44:49 UTC time on April 17th?

14 A. Yes. He says "Need you to call me."

15 Q. Thank you. You can come out of that. Can we bring up
16 Exhibit 84 for the witness only, please?

17 Agent Seyler, is this a record that you received in
18 response to your search warrant for Rick Lovelien's Facebook
19 account?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Is this a private message?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Does it occur in April of 2014?

24 A. Yes.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 84.

7 Q. Agent Seyler, what kind of Facebook record is this?

8 A. This is a private message.

9 Q. Who is the message occurring between?

10 A. Between Jerry Bruckhart and Rick Lovelien.

11 Q. And in this second full message here, is there a question
12 posed by Jerry Bruckhart to Rick Lovelien?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And what is his question?

15 A. "Did you get a chance to meet Ryan?"

16 Q. Does he ask a second question to Rick Lovelien?

17 A. Yes. "See him in action, so to speak?"

18 Q. What's Rick Lovelien's response?

19 A. "Yes. Was working with him there."

20 Q. And does Jerry Bruckhart ask Rick Lovelien a question at 21 13:18 UTC time on April 17th?

22 A. Yes, he asks "Okay. I need you to be honest."

23 Q. What's the question he asks after that?

24 A. "What was your impression of his performance?"

25 Q. And does Rick Lovelien respond?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes. He says "Trying to find the right answer."

2 Q. And taking your attention to 1:38:43 UTC time on
3 April 17th, what does Lovelien respond to Jerry Bruckhart?

4 A. "He's a great guy. He means well."

5 Q. Can you go to the second page, please?

6 And taking your attention to this second full
7 message, what is Rick Lovelien's response to Jerry Bruckhart?

8 A. "I think he should have taken a more in-charge position.
9 Would have made things smoother. I told him that when I was 10 there. Everything working out in the end. It just made it a 11 bit confusing at first."

12 Q. Can you come out of that close-up, please?

13 Just taking your attention -- sorry -- to the bottom
14 of the page to the statement by Rick Lovelien at 1:45:36 UTC
15 time.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What does Rick Lovelien state at that time?

18 A. "Yes, and he didn't want to seem like he was in command of 19 the other groups."

20 Q. And going to the third page, please.

21 And we have another comment from Rick Lovelien at 22 1:47:09. What's that comment?

23 A. "As I said, it worked out fine. Just a little unorganized 24 at first."

25 Q. What's Jerry Bruckhart's response?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "Okay. Thank you very much, brother. Please keep the
2 thoughts coming. I will read them later. I need to go do
3 something."

4 Q. Do you have another private message from Rick Lovelien?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what's his message?

7 A. "I think he did a great job at getting it done."

8 Q. And taking your attention to a message at 2:09:47 UTC
9 time. There's a message from Jerry Bruckhart to Rick Lovelien
10 at 2:09:47?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Could you read that message?

13 A. "I have a few accusing him of putting lives at risk
14 unnecessarily."

15 Q. And can you scroll down a little bit to Rick Lovelien's
16 response at 2:10:32 UTC time?

17 A. "Well, there are always a few bitchy people."

18 Q. Can you come out of that close-up, please? And going to 19 the fourth page?

20 And can I just take your attention to that last
21 message on page 4, please. Is there a message from Rick
22 Lovelien to Jerry Bruckhart?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Could you please read the message?

25 A. "Hi, Jerry. I would like to talk to you about taking a

1 more active role in the OMA. (918)575-1041."

2 Q. And this is a number that's listed as Rick Lovelien's
3 number on his Facebook account?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
6 Exhibit 85 for the witness only, please?

7 Agent Seyler, is this another record that you
8 received back from Facebook in response to your search warrant
9 for Rick Lovelien's account?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is this a private message?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Does it occur in April of 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
16 Exhibit 85.

17 MR. TANASI: Same objection, Your Honor, but I would 18 add the declarant issue with respect to James Craig and his 19 involvement in the alleged conspiracy. It hasn't been shown
20 yet.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

22 THE COURT: There doesn't need to be two
23 coconspirators speaking to each other so long as it's a
24 statement of a coconspirator.

25 MR. TANASI: The author --

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: In this case, Mr. Lovelien is involved in
2 the communication.

3 MR. TANASI: I guess, just for purposes of the 4 record, Your Honor, my point, I guess, is that the author is 5 James Craig. He's the declarant. That's the basis of the
6 objection.

7 MS. CREEGAN: This record shows a two-sided
8 conversation. You have to have James Craig's statements to 9 understands Rick Lovelien's.

10 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 85 is admitted.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

12 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

13 (Exhibit 85 admitted.)

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. Agent Seyler, taking your attention to the first message

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And who is the conversation between?

19 A. Between James Craig and Rick Lovelien.

20 Q. And is there a question posed by James Craig to Rick
21 Lovelien?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what's the question?

24 A. "Sup," as in "What's up?"

25 Q. Sorry. Just take your attention to the bottom of the

1 page.

2 A. Okay. "Nothing much. What you been doing?"

3 Q. And what's Rick Lovelien's response to that?

4 A. "Chasing off federal agents in Nevada."

5 Q. And this is posted on April 23rd of 2014?

6 A. Yes, Nevada time it would have actually been April 22nd.

7 Q. Thank you. Go to the second page, please.

8 And taking your attention -- sorry -- about halfway
9 down the page, does Rick Lovelien post a picture in this
10 conversation?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what's that a picture of?

13 A. A BLM ranger.

14 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we bring up
15 Exhibit 87 for the witness only, please?

16 Agent Seyler, is this a public Facebook post that you
17 witnessed on the We Support Cliven Bundy Facebook page?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. It was posted on April 11 of 2014?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 87.

22 THE COURT: Same objection?

23 MR. TANASI: Same objection, Your Honor. We Support
24 Cliven Bundy, is that a person? Is that an entity? And is 25 that person a declarant for purposes of the analysis of

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 furthering a statement of an alleged conspiracy?

2 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, this is a web page that
4 purports to be in support of Cliven Bundy that disseminates
5 information to coconspirators, and we will be able to connect
6 the information on this page on one of the defendants making a
7 call to the number which is depicted here.

8 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 87 is admitted, and
9 you may publish.

10 (Exhibit 87 admitted.)

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. Agent Seyler, is this a public -- capture of a Facebook
13 page that was publicly viewable?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And it's from the account that's titled We Support Cliven
16 Bundy?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And when is this posted?

19 A. April 11th of 2014.

20 Q. This is one day before the confrontation?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Can you please read the body of that message?

23 A. "Attention. I just got some information in. The cattle
24 are going to be transported to the Euclid Stockyard in 25 California. Scheduled for Monday. Could be sooner than that.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 They are going to be auctioned Wednesday."

2 "Folks, I ask that you spread this to the four
3 corners of the Internet. If you are in California, you will be 4 of great asset on this one. Euclid Stockyard information is as 5 follows. Euclid Stockyards, Inc., 14185 Euclid Avenue,
6 Ontario, California, 91762, (909)597-4818."

7 Q. Thank you. You can take that down.

8 Now, Agent Seyler, I've asked you a few questions
9 about whether in the course of your investigation you obtained
10 some toll records in some of the numbers that we have
11 discussed.

12 Did you obtain some toll records on some of those 13 numbers?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And did you issue the request to various cell phone
16 companies for toll records -- cell phone companies or phone
17 companies for records of the calls that had been made, and did
18 you receive a response to that request?

19 A. Yes, the FBI did, yes.

20 Q. And with the response to those requests, were there also 21 certificates of authenticity that these were the business
22 records of those phone companies?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Can I bring up Exhibit 183, page 23.

25 And Agent Seyler, is this a certificate of

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 authenticity for cell phone records for a number (208)481-0067
2 [sic]?

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: I am going to object as to leading.

4 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

5 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

6 MS. CREEGAN: I think it's foundational, but I'm
7 happy to rephrase.

8 THE COURT: Yes, please rephrase it.

9 BY MS. CREEGAN:

10 Q. Agent Seyler, were you present in April of this year when 11 defendant Eric Parker testified in a proceeding?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay.

14 THE COURT: Well, the question is not -- the question
15 is not hearsay, and the answer is not hearsay. So, objection
16 overruled.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. Were you present?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. And in that time, did Eric Parker testify to what his 21 phone number was?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: It's not hearsay if it's an admission.
25 Overruled.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. And is that phone number (208)481-0026?

3 A. 0076, I think.

4 Q. 0076. Thank you. Did you -- did the FBI obtain toll
5 records for that number?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And is Exhibit 183, page 23, the certificate of 8 authenticity for those toll records?

9 A. Yes.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
11 to admit Exhibit 183, 23.

12 MR. TANASI: Objection. There is no phone number
13 listed on here to relate to that, Judge.

14 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry. I didn't catch that
15 objection.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: I said there's nothing on this bill
17 or what I'm looking at to suggest that that's the number that 18 they -- they got from it.

19 MS. CREEGAN: Nicole, would you go to page 24?

20 Q. Agent Seyler, does page 24 include the attached records
21 that came with the certificate that's on page 23?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And that includes (208)481-0076 in the second value?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And toll records came in addition with this chart to that

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 certification on page 23?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government moves for 4 the admission of 183 page 23.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: I still object. That's not valid
6 authenticity.

7 THE COURT: Do you have the original packet? I'm not
8 seeing page -- what did you refer to, page 20 something? 23?
9 Page 23 is the certificate.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor. Page 23 is the 11 certificate.

12 THE COURT: All right. So the attachment to that
13 certificate.

14 MS. CREEGAN: Follows on to page 24, which lists the 15 accounts that were included in the certificate.

16 THE COURT: That's what was attached or that's
17 something that's created afterwards? That's what was attached.

18 MS. CREEGAN: This was attached along with the toll
19 records for all these accounts.

20 THE COURT: All right. So, it's a spreadsheet that's 21 attached. All right. That's sufficient. Exhibit 183 will be 22 admitted. You may go ahead and publish it to the jury.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I'm going to put the 24 certificates of authenticity into evidence, but I won't publish
25 them. They jury can review them if they would like to.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: And Parker had joined that objection.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 (Exhibit 183, page 23 admitted.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Can I bring for the witness Exhibit 184?

6 And Agent Seyler, are those some of the toll
7 records -- are those the toll records for March and April of 8 2014 that were received from the phone company for the number
9 (208)481-0076?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government moves to 12 admit Exhibit 184 into evidence.

13 THE COURT: Any objection to 184?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection.

15 MR. TANASI: Same objection, Stewart, Your Honor.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 THE COURT: I don't know what the objection was.
19 It's not -- this is not a Facebook page. This is the toll
20 records from the phone, the cell phone.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's an authentication objection,
22 based upon the fact that that -- the first page did not 23 indicate that that's -- these are the records that go with 24 whatever was requested by the -- by this agent.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, the pages all reference

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 the phone number. The objection is overruled. Exhibit 184 is
2 admitted. You may publish.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 (Exhibit 184 admitted.)

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And Agent Seyler, what are we looking at in Exhibit 184?

7 A. This is a spreadsheet that was returned to us from Verizon
8 in response to a subpoena. It contains the toll records as 9 they exist in Verizon's system for that phone.

10 Q. And can we go to page 13, please.

11 And Agent Seyler, in box 425 on page 13, is there a 12 call that's placed from number (208)481-0072 to another number?

13 A. Yes, there is.

14 Q. And what's the number that's called?

15 A. (909)597-4818.

16 Q. Is this the number for the Euclid Stockyard?

17 A. Yes, it is.

18 Q. And what's the time and date where that number -- that 19 number is called?

20 A. April 11th, 19:36, so approximately 7:36 p.m.

21 Q. Thank you. You can take that down.

22 Agent Seyler, in response to your request for phone
23 companies for toll records, did you also receive toll records
24 for numbers other than the number we were just discussing, the
25 208 number?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did that include the number that -- the numbers that Ryan
3 Payne listed as Cliven Bundy's home and cell phone numbers in 4 his email to Gary Hunt?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Taking his home number first and directing your attention
7 to Exhibit 183 at page 5.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Is this the certificate of authenticity for the toll
10 records received for the number that Ryan Payne represented to 11 be Cliven's home number?

12 A. Yes.

13 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
14 Exhibit 5 -- Exhibit 183, page 5.

15 THE COURT: Any objection to 183?

16 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

18 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

20 THE COURT: Exhibit 183 will be admitted.

21 (Exhibit 183, page 5 admitted.)

22 BY MS. CREEGAN:

23 Q. And turning to page 14 of the same Exhibit 183, in 24 Exhibit 175, did we receive a phone number for Jerry Bruckhart?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Was that (717) 682-8073?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is this a certificate of authenticity for the toll records
4 of Jerry Bruckhart?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Can you turn to page 21, please?

7 And Agent Seyler, are you familiar with the phone
8 number for an individual named James Lardy?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. How are you familiar with that phone number?

11 A. Reviewed toll records associated with that number. I also 12 have actually contacted Mr. Lardy on that number.

13 Q. And what's the phone number for Jim Lardy?

14 Would it help to see the next page of this?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Page 22.

17 A. If you could make it just a little larger, please. I
18 believe the number is on this page. I'm just not seeing it.
19 No, I'm still not seeing it on this page yet.

20 Q. Toward the top there. So, you also have a physical copy
21 if you'd like to look in the book.

22 A. What is the exhibit number again, please?

23 Q. 183.

24 A. What is the page number again, please?

25 Q. 22.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. This appears to be for the account, but it doesn't mention
2 the actual phone number that I'm seeing here. It would have
3 been the records were received, it just doesn't list the phone
4 number.

5 Q. Just an account number instead?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Well, let's come back to that one. Let me ask you about
8 page 23, which we've already looked at, which is a
9 certification for Eric Parker's phone number, but it also 10 attaches a number of other accounts; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And turning to page 24, does that also include a phone
13 number for Todd Engel?

14 A. Yes, it does.

15 Q. Does that also include a phone number for Ryan Payne?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And this is the phone number that we've seen Ryan Payne
18 distribute?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And does it include tolls for the (918)575-1041 number
21 that Rick Lovelien distributed?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. So, it contains the toll records for -- excuse me.

24 Does it also have to toll records for Cliven
25 Bundy's -- the cell number that Ryan Payne used?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. So, this certification --

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Judge, I'm going to object as to 4 leading.

5 MS. CREEGAN: This is foundational for a certificate
6 of authenticity.

7 THE COURT: Agreed.

8 BY MS. CREEGAN:

9 Q. So, page 33 is the certifying document for the toll
10 records for Eric Parker, Todd Engel, Ryan Payne, the number
11 used by Lovelien, and Cliven Bundy's cell; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Agent Seyler, is it fair to say the toll records that you
14 received back, similar to the ones that we just looked at for 15 Eric Parker, are fairly voluminous?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And they just include numbers going back and forth between
18 one another?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Laying the foundation for a summary
21 exhibit.

22 THE COURT: Sustained. You can rephrase the
23 question.

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Agent Seyler, how do you receive toll records back from

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 phone companies?

2 A. It depends. Some of them provide us an actual hard copy
3 of the records, and other companies provide us a digital
4 spreadsheet with the records.

5 Q. Do the toll records just give numbers, or do they give the 6 names of who it is that you are calling?

7 A. Just the numbers usually.

8 Q. And when you asked for the toll records for a few months,
9 about how many calls do you receive back?

10 A. It just depends on the caller. It can be a number.

11 Q. And when you subpoenaed the toll records for Cliven Bundy,
12 Ricky Lovelien, Ryan Payne, Todd Engel how voluminous were 13 these records?

14 A. Quite voluminous for this time period.

15 Q. Do you recall how many pages they were?

16 A. I don't. It would have been tens if not hundreds of 17 pages.

18 Q. Did you prepare a summary exhibit outlining the contacts
19 between Cliven Bundy, Ryan Payne, and Jerry Bruckhart?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And this is based completely on the tolls that were 22 received in response to the FBI's request, which are covered by 23 these certificates of authenticity that we were just reviewing?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And is that summary exhibit contained in the Government's

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 proposed Exhibit 185?

2 A. I believe so, yes.

3 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
4 Exhibit 185.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects on relevance grounds,
7 specifically with respect to Mr. Bruckhart.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we have established that 12 Jerry Bruckhart is the co-founder of Operation Mutual Aid, and 13 we've established a connection between Ricky Lovelien and 14 Operation Mutual Aid. This is coordination between two members
15 of Operation Mutual Aid and Cliven Bundy.

16 THE COURT: An unindicted coconspirator?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Correct. And Cliven Bundy and Ryan
18 Payne are coconspirators as well.

19 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Exhibit 185 will be
20 admitted.

21 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

22 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

23 (Exhibit 185 admitted.)

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. So, Agent Seyler, if you would walk us through this chart,

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 and the first question I'm going to ask is what's the date
2 range that you've selected here?

3 A. April the 7th of 2014 through April 12th of 2014.

4 Q. Is April 27th [sic] the first time you saw contact, or was 5 there contact earlier than that?

6 A. No, April 7th would have been the first time I saw contact
7 between these individuals.

8 Q. And where you have the to name, you have, for example,
9 Cliven Bundy home or Cliven Bundy cell. Where do you derive 10 those numbers from?

11 A. From the subscriber information that was provided to us by 12 the telephone companies.

13 Q. What was in the subscriber information for Cliven Bundy
14 home?

15 A. It was subscribed to Cliven Bundy and Carol Bundy for 16 (702)346-5564.

17 Q. And what was in Cliven Bundy's cell?

18 A. The user was listed as Cliven Bundy at (801)368-0010.

19 Q. So, I see that you have -- in the very first column, you
20 have a date and you have a time. What time zone are these 21 times in?

22 A. Nevada time.

23 Q. And what's the duration column? What does that signify?

24 A. That would be the length of the call.

25 Q. You also have a from number column. Is that the person

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 placing the call?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And the first -- the from number, what does that mean?

4 A. That's the person that's actually placing the call.

5 Q. And then the from name, is that just the name of the 6 person using that phone number?

7 A. Yes, that's the subscriber of that phone, the user.

8 Q. For April 7th, 2014, how many contacts were there between 9 Jerry Bruckhart or Ryan Payne and Cliven Bundy?

10 A. Six different contacts.

11 Q. For April 8th?

12 A. Four contacts.

13 Q. April 9th?

14 A. Two contacts.

15 Q. April 10th?

16 A. Four contacts.

17 Q. And April 11th and 12th?

18 A. One on the 11th and two on the 12th.

19 Q. Thank you. You can take that down, and can you bring up
20 for the witness Exhibit 186.

21 Agent Seyler, did you receive toll records for --
22 we've discussed it already, but toll records for Todd Engel and 23 Jerry Bruckhart?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And those were covered by the certificate of authenticity

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 on page 23 of Exhibit 183?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And are those records voluminous? Only a few pages?

4 A. They were quite voluminous.

5 Q. Did you prepare a chart to show communication between Todd
6 Engel and Jerry Bruckhart?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is that what's depicted in Exhibit 186?

9 A. Yes.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 186.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, objection.

12 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

13 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

14 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

15 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 186 will be admitted.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 186 admitted.)

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. Agent Seyler, can you remind us? Who is Todd Engel? How 21 have we seen him so far?

22 A. Todd Engel was the individual depicted in front of Rick
23 Lovelien in the photograph on his knee with the rifle.

24 Q. And who is Jerry Bruckhart?

25 A. He's the co-leader of Operation Mutual Aid in

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Pennsylvania.

2 Q. And what's the date range that this communication takes
3 place?

4 A. April 9th through April 12th, 2014.

5 Q. Is this all the communication that occurred between them
6 or only some of it?

7 A. I believe this is all the communication.

8 Q. And I see that there we have the date and the time again,
9 but we have a column called cell switch for Engel's phone.
10 What does that refer to?

11 A. Yes, that was provided to us by the telephone company when 12 they provided us the records. That indicates which cellular
13 telephone switch his phone is using at the time.

14 So, for instance, he's from Idaho. And at the 15 beginning, he was using a cell phone switch in Spokane,
16 Washington, which is near where he lived.

17 Q. And this depicts a total of six calls that occurred
18 between April 9th and April 12th between Todd Engel and Jerry 19 Bruckhart?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
22 Exhibit 187 for the witness only?

23 Agent Seyler, did you receive toll records for the 24 918 number that Rick Lovelien lists as his phone number on his
25 Facebook page?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And are those records voluminous? Only a few pages?

3 A. For this time frame, it was not as voluminous as others.

4 Q. But there were several pages of calls?

5 A. It would have been several pages though.

6 Q. And it doesn't list who was being called. It just lists a
7 phone number; correct, in the toll records?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Did you prepare a summary exhibit that would show the 10 calls of Rick Lovelien between April 7th and April 12th of 11 2014?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And the persons that he was calling or receiving calls
14 from?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And is that what's depicted in Exhibit 187?

17 A. Yes.

18 MS. CREEGAN: The government moves to admit
19 Exhibit 187.

20 MR. TANASI: No, objection, Parker.

21 MR. MARCHESE: None for Stewart, Your Honor.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

23 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

24 THE COURT: 187 is admitted. You may publish.

25 (Exhibit 187 admitted.)

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. Agent Seyler, again going kind of by column, what's the
3 date range for these calls?

4 A. April 7th through April 12th, 2014.

5 Q. Is this some of the calls placed or received by Rick
6 Lovelien or all of them in that time frame?

7 A. I believe this is all the calls during that time frame.

8 Q. So we have a time column which is next. Is that time in 9 Pacific time?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And we also have a column called cell tower. What does
12 that column mean?

13 A. So this is different than the cell switch. This would 14 have been where the cell tower -- what state the cell tower was 15 located in at the time the calls were being made.

16 Q. Does this show that the phone would have been pinging off
17 a cell tower in Montana on April 7th?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And that by April 10th, it appears to be Nevada?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And we have a next telephone number column. What does
22 that mean?

23 A. That would have been the telephone number that he was 24 exchanging a call with or that telephone was exchanging a call
25 with.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And the column that says call direction, would that tell
2 us who was calling whom?

3 A. Yes, whether it was an outgoing call or an incoming call
4 to the 918 number.

5 Q. And there was a few that don't list in the notes who it's
6 going to or from. Are those persons that, so far as you know,
7 are unconnected with the conspiracy or with the alleged
8 conspiracy?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. So, taking your attention to a call at 12:16 p.m.
11 on April 7, 2014, is that a call received or placed by Rick
12 Lovelien?

13 A. That's an outgoing call placed by Rick Lovelien.

14 Q. And who is it to?

15 A. To Ryan Payne.

16 Q. Thank you. Come out of that.

17 And taking your attention to a call at 7:40 p.m. on 18 April 9, 2014, who is that a call from and to?

19 A. That's an outgoing call from Rick Lovelien to Nic Whiting.

20 Q. And taking your attention to the latter calls on 21 April 10th, 2014, are those calls placed by Rick Lovelien or by 22 another person?

23 A. Those would have been by Rick Lovelien.

24 Q. And who are they to?

25 A. To Ryan Payne.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. And these are short calls. They are listed in duration as
2 only a minute. What does that signify?

3 A. It would have been a very short call. Could have been
4 less than a minute.

5 Q. Does the company round to the nearest whole minute?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Come out of that close-up, please.

8 And on April 11th, taking your attention to some
9 calls after 2:00 p.m., those first three calls, 2:10, 2:24,
10 2:33, who are those from and to?

11 A. Those are incoming calls from Randy Eaton.

12 Q. And the call that occurs at 3:14 p.m. -- 3:16 p.m. on 13 April 11, 2014, who is that a call from and to?

14 A. That would have been an outgoing call to James Lardy's
15 telephone number.

16 Q. Thank you. You can come out of that close-up.

17 And coming in on -- close on April 12, 2014, at 18 12:32 p.m., who is that a call from and to?

19 A. That's an outgoing call to Cheyenne Miller.

20 Q. Thank you. Thank you. You can take that down. Can we 21 bring up Exhibit 188 for the witness only, please?

22 Agent Seyler, did you prepare a demonstrative exhibit
23 that would integrate the timing of the Facebook posts which 24 have been admitted into evidence and the tolls which have been 25 admitted into evidence?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And is that what's depicted in Exhibit 188?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government moves to
5 admit Exhibit 188.

6 THE COURT: Any objection?

7 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, objection.

9 MR. PEREZ: No, objection, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. 188 will be admitted. You
11 may publish.

12 (Exhibit 188 admitted.)

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. Agent Seyler, in your exhibit, do you have a page for each
15 day from April 7th to April 12th, 2014?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Is this first day April 7, 2014, some of the significant
18 communications that have been admitted into evidence that 19 occurred on that day?

20 A. Some of them, yes.

21 Q. It's not all of them?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Could you please read through the timing and the event
24 that's listed on April 7, 2014, page one of Exhibit 188?

25 A. "At 9:17 a.m., Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 At 9:30 a.m., Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's cell phone. At 2 12:11 p.m., Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's cell phone. At 3 12:15 p.m., on Facebook, Payne messages Rick Lovelien to call
4 him. At 12:16 p.m., Rick Lovelien calls Ryan Payne."

5 "At 12:30 p.m., on Facebook, Rick Lovelien tells
6 militia leaders 'Contact info to coordinate groups. Ryan Payne
7 OMA (406)560-2540. They have made live contact and are setting
8 up security ops.' 8:50 p.m., Payne calls Cliven Bundy's cell
9 phone. 9:57 p.m., on Facebook, Jerry Bruckhart messages Carol
10 Bundy. 'Significant units will be -- will likely be coming.'"

11 Q. Thank you. If we could turn to page 2, please.

12 And is this your summary for April 8th of 2014?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Could you please read through the events of April 8th?

15 A. "At 10:12 a.m., on Facebook, James Lardy messages Rick
16 Lovelien. 'He is going to Nevada with Payne's West Mountain
17 Rangers. Says he is going to fight with them and is off to 18 war.'"

19 "At 10:28 a.m., Rick Lovelien calls Ryan Payne. At 20 10:40 a.m., on Facebook, Lovelien messages Ryan Payne. 'Do we 21 have an exact location?' At 10:43 a.m., Ryan Payne calls
22 Cliven Bundy's cell phone. At 10:53 a.m., on Facebook,
23 Lovelien messages James Lardy. 'We are coordinating our 24 efforts to get all units together when they get there.'"

25 "At 11:22 a.m., on Facebook, Ryan Payne messages

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Lovelien the coordinates for the Bundy Ranch. At 2:01 p.m.,
2 Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone. At 2:26 p.m., Ryan
3 Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone. At 8:37 p.m., OMA
4 emails mobilization alert to over 200 supporters providing
5 directions to the Bundy Ranch."

6 Q. Thank you. Can you go to page 3, please.

7 And this is the events that you have pulled out for 8 April 9, 2014, from admitted exhibits?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Can you please read these events?

11 A. "At 6:17 a.m., Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home phone.
12 At 11:08 a.m., on Facebook, Rick Lovelien searches for and 13 likes Operation Mutual Aid's Facebook page. At 11:59 a.m., on 14 Facebook, Payne messages Lovelien 'To give me a ring ASAP.'"

15 "At 11:59 a.m., Rick Lovelien calls Ryan Payne. At 16 12:18 a.m., on Facebook, Rick Lovelien posts to MTFD group.
17 'We are now in direct contact with personnel at the Bundy
18 Ranch. I will be heading out shortly. There was a direct
19 request made by Mr. Bundy.'"

20 "At 12:33 p.m., on Facebook, Carol Bundy issues
21 public status update. 'The Bundy family has requested help
22 from militia groups, including Operation Mutual Aid, 3%ers
23 Club, Freedom Fighters.'"

24 "12:34 p.m., on Facebook, Carol Bundy issues a public
25 status update. 'The Operation Mutual Aid coordinator is here

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 with us now.' At 12:36 p.m., on Facebook, Lovelien messages
2 Nic Whiting to coordinate travel. And approximately the late
3 afternoon, Las Vegas Review Journal releases article and video
4 of Ryan Payne 'Militias Mobilizing to Support Embattled Clark
5 County Rancher in Clash with Federal Rangers.' And at 6 7:40 p.m., Lovelien calls Nic Whiting from a Missoula cell
7 tower.

8 Q. Turning your attention to page 4, which is April 10, 2014,
9 can you please read the events that you have listed for that
10 day?

11 A. "1:55 a.m., OMA issues objectives via email and Facebook
12 status update in cohesion with Cliven Bundy. Objectives
13 include 'Return to Mr. Bundy's ranch the mounting number of 14 cattle which have been confiscated by BLM agents.'"

15 "At 2:02 a.m., on Facebook, Rick Lovelien's sister
16 Cheyenne Miller posts OMA's objectives to MTFDF group, which is 17 received in Payne's email. At 9:48 a.m., now in Nevada, Rick
18 Lovelien calls Ryan Payne. At 11:00 a.m., on Facebook,
19 Cheyenne Miller posts to the MTFDF group 'Rick Lovelien is 20 on-site at the Bundy Ranch.'"

21 "At 12:24 p.m., on Facebook, Ryan Payne message Texas
22 militia leader, 'Montana has most guys. Utah, Nevada
23 unorganized. Idaho, many more en route. I am designated
24 liaison for militia via Cliven Bundy. All information
25 disseminated is vetted by him.'"

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "At approximately 3:30 p.m., Bundy Ranch Facebook
2 posts 'Attention all militia groups. The Bundy family has a
3 militia coordinator. His name is Ryan Payne.'"

4 Q. Continuing your attention to page 5, can you read the 5 events that you have listed for April 11, 2014.

6 A. At 10:22 a.m., on Facebook, Cheyenne Miller tells MTFDF
7 group 'Rick Lovelien is running the security detail at the
8 protest site on the Bundy Ranch.' At approximately 7:30 p.m.,
9 on Facebook, the We Support Bundy Ranch page posts 'Bundy's
10 cattle will be taken to Euclid Stockyards' and gives contact
11 phone number."

12 Q. This is the number that's later called by Eric Parker's
13 phone number?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. On that same day?

16 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. When was the call by Eric Parker to this number?

19 A. On April 11th.

20 Q. Do you remember what time?

21 A. 7:36 p.m., I believe.

22 Q. That would be a few minutes after this posting?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Taking your attention to the sixth page of Exhibit 188,
25 can you please read the events for April 12th, 2014.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 A. "7:32 a.m., Ryan Payne calls Cliven Bundy's home
2 telephone. 9:40 a.m., approximately, Cliven Bundy meets
3 Sheriff Gillespie on stage and tells him to 'Disarm federal 4 agents in one hour.'"

5 "11:00 a.m., approximately, Cliven Bundy speaks to 6 the crowd about shutting down the freeway and going to get the
7 cattle."

8 Q. Thank you. You can take that down. Can you bring up
9 Exhibit 89 for the witness only, please?

10 And Agent Seyler, I am not going to admit this with 11 you, but I just want to ask you a question to connect to it
12 later testimony.

13 Do you recognize the language giving at the bottom of 14 the page 89?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did you, yourself, click on that link relatively close to 17 these events?

18 A. It would have been several months afterwards. Yes, I
19 clicked on --

20 Q. Is it --

21 A. -- it, yes.

22 Q. I apologize. I didn't mean to speak over you.

23 It was later in 2014?

24 A. No, it would have actually been 2015 when I clicked on it.

25 Q. 2015. Okay. And when you clicked on that link in 2015,

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 what did it link to?

2 A. It linked to an article about Ryan Payne, which included
3 a -- the video that we watched earlier today about him standing
4 by the roadside.

5 Q. And that is the April 9th video?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Thank you. You can take that down.

8 Agent Seyler, in the course of your investigation,
9 did you supervise the search of a Dropbox account?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Can you describe that process to the jury?

12 A. There was a Dropbox account on the Internet, which is 13 essentially a mechanism where people can store photos and you
14 can share it with just a few friends or share it with everybody
15 on the Internet.

16 We identified a public Dropbox that had some 17 photographs in it. And I asked one of our FBI employees in our 18 Las Vegas office to capture the photographs that were in that 19 public Dropbox.

20 Q. On a separate tangent, can I bring up Exhibit 132 for the 21 witness only, please.

22 And can you go through -- I think through pages 1, 2,
23 3 and 4. Agent Seyler, do you recognize these to be pictures
24 of an individual?

25 A. Yes, I do.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Who is that individual?

2 A. That's Ricky Ray Lovelien.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move
4 to admit pages 1 and 4 of Exhibit 132.

5 THE COURT: Show me 4 again, page 4?

6 Meet with counsel at sidebar.

7 (Sidebar.)

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, I called the sidebar, because
9 Mr. Perez, I wanted to know if you were willing to stipulate
10 that photo number four is his arm, then we don't have to show
11 photo number one, which is a picture of his face wearing the 12 orange jumpsuit. I didn't know what your position was.

13 MR. PEREZ: I mean, I don't really care about the 14 tattoo. But I know we have a motion pending that I've joined 15 in, on behalf of all the defendants, dealing with the booking
16 photos and tattoos and things of that nature. We don't have a
17 ruling.

18 THE COURT: And I share your concern.

19 MR. PEREZ: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: That's why I wanted to know what your 21 position was if you are willing to stipulate that's his arm.
22 And I don't need to. That would be my ruling, that just page 4
23 comes in not page 1.

24 MR. PEREZ: What about the other defendants? I mean,
25 they've got a pending motion.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: Don't worry about us.

2 MR. PEREZ: I will let the arm come in.

3 THE COURT: I think everyone is in a different
4 position, so --

5 MR. MARCHESE: I guess while we are here --

6 THE COURT: We should do it one by one.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Are you bringing in other booking
8 photos right now?

9 MS. CREEGAN: I am not bringing in any other booking
10 photos with this witness.

11 MR. MARCHESE: That solves that problem.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, we are going to have an 13 objection to the next summary. So, if you want us to wait till
14 then, I am going to ask for another sidebar. But the next 15 summary, I am going to have another sidebar. I don't know if 16 you want to deal it with it now or when we get to it?

17 THE COURT: Is that going up now or after the 18 bathroom break?

19 MS. CREEGAN: I don't think so. Which summary are
20 you --

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: 189.

22 MS. CREEGAN: It's not for this witness. And I do
23 want to just make counsel aware while we are here that I do
24 intend to, in accord with the government's trial brief, elicit
25 some of the testimony by Eric Parker in April with this

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 witness. So, if there are arguments that people want to make,
2 maybe they will make them now.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: What do you mean? Like the video
4 where he was on the bridge?

5 MS. CREEGAN: His actual statements from his
6 testimony to add it in through Agent Seyler.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: From the last trial?

8 MS. CREEGAN: Correct.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Those weren't the snippets that you
10 sent me?

11 MS. CREEGAN: They are the snippets that I sent you.

12 MR. MARCHESE: I thought those were of his custodial 13 arrest. He arrested him, right?

14 MS. CREEGAN: Correct. But I don't intend to 15 introduce his custodial through this witness.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. She had sent me Saturday,
17 Sunday, 25 snippets or so of what I felt was going to be his 18 custodial arrest.

19 MS. CREEGAN: I did send an email. I am happy to 20 show it. It's from Friday. And I believe it identifies that 21 it's his trial testimony within the email.

22 MR. PEREZ: Actually, I got it Monday. I got it from 23 him, because I didn't get it.

24 MR. TANASI: I don't remember the contents of it.
25 I'd have to look at it. It's not relative to my client.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: This is the trial transcript, from the
2 trial transcript?

3 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor. I intend to read
4 portions of it into the record.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well --

6 MS. CREEGAN: Would you like to take a break to look
7 at it or --

8 MR. MARCHESE: Well, how far -- how long before we 9 get there?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: I haven't seen it. You sent it to 11 all of us?

12 MS. CREEGAN: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Would it be after the bathroom break or 14 before?

15 MS. CREEGAN: I don't have very much more to do with 16 him. In fact, I don't think I have anything else besides that 17 that I can do with him. So, if they want to have a moment to 18 look at it now, maybe it's time to a break.

19 MR. TANASI: And I guess, Your Honor, to go back on 20 the booking photo, I would lodge an objection for Mr. Stewart,
21 even as it pertains to Mr. Lovelien, as being more prejudicial
22 than probative, a picture of a tattooed arm.

23 Again, the prejudice rule, as we'd outlined in our 24 brief, I think, applies to all defendants as it applies to any 25 tattooed defendant in the case has an effect on all the

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 defendants that are sitting here.

2 THE COURT: I don't remember that that particular
3 tattoo has any significance, prejudicial, I don't think. It's 4 not sexual or offensive in any way; is it?

5 MR. PEREZ: No, just to identify him. I mean, you
6 know.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: They have already identified him
8 though. He's already identified him.

9 MR. PEREZ: If anything, it's cumulative evidence of 10 was he there.

11 THE COURT: It's not like a crude word or a --

12 MR. TANASI: Understood.

13 THE COURT: You know what I'm talking about when they 14 say things on their knuckles that spell out a dirty word. It's 15 not like that kind of a tattoo; right?

16 MR. PEREZ: No.

17 MR. TANASI: I mean, I think tattoos can be 18 inherently --

19 THE COURT: Remind me. I just kind of looked at it.

20 MR. TANASI: No, I don't think it has any -- anything
21 over the top, but I think tattoos in and of themselves have 22 inherit prejudice.

23 THE COURT: Well, maybe 20 years ago, but I don't
24 think that's true today.

25 MR. TANASI: Okay.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MS. CREEGAN: The purpose was --

2 THE COURT: Maybe some of the jurors might agree with
3 anyone not having a tattoo. Maybe that could have come up
4 during voir dire, but I don't think that in and of itself would
5 be sufficient prejudice to overcome the probative value.

6 MS. CREEGAN: And it's --

7 THE COURT: Like I said, it's not sexual. It's not a
8 naked person or people doing sexual things or obscene words on
9 it.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Correct. And this just helps to 11 identify him in photographs from other events that he has this 12 same tattoo.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 (Counsel conferring among themselves.)

15 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry?

16 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. TANASI: All right.

19 THE COURT: So, we will take a break now, and then --

20 MS. CREEGAN: Should I admit page 4 then take a
21 break?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Judge.

24 (Ends of sidebar.)

25 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the government would move

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 to admit page 4 of Exhibit 132 only.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, page 4 of Exhibit 132
3 will be admitted.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish.

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 (Exhibit 132, page 4 admitted.)

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Agent Seyler, what's depicted in page 4 of Exhibit 132?

9 A. That's a tattoo on the forearm of Rick Lovelien.

10 Q. And was this photo taken incident to his arrest in this
11 case?

12 A. Yes.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. And, Your Honor, I'd ask
14 for a short break at this time.

15 THE COURT: All right. We'll go ahead and take our 16 afternoon break.

17 At this time, I do remind the jury that you are not 18 to discuss this case with anyone. Do not read, or listen to,
19 or view anything that touches upon this case, nor perform any 20 research or any independent investigation, and please do not
21 form any opinion.

22 It's 2:30, so we'll take about a 15-minute break and
23 be back here at 2:45. Please stand for the jury.

24 (Jury out.)

25 THE COURT: Off record until 2:45.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 (Recess, 2:32 p.m. Resumed 3:01 p.m. Jury out.)

2 THE COURT: Bring in the jury, Aaron. You may be
3 seated.

4 (Jury in.)

5 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.
6 Everyone else may be seated as well. We are back on the
7 record.

8 We have Special Agent Seyler back on the witness
9 stand. We did -- let's see. Where did we leave off?

10 All right. So, I admitted Exhibit No. 132, page 4
11 only, on the stipulation from counsel that that is a photo of 12 Defendant Lovelien's tattoo.

13 And then I think that's when we took the bathroom
14 break.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 Q. Agent Seyler, were you present in April of 2017 for a
17 prior proceeding in which Defendant Eric Parker testified?

18 A. Yes, I was.

19 Q. That was over two different days?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Were you present for both days?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And did you receive a certified copy of the transcript of 24 those proceedings?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 Q. Did you review that certified copy?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is it in accord with your memory of what Eric Parker's
4 testimony was?

5 A. Yes, it is.

6 Q. And do I have your certified copy here with me?

7 A. Yes.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, with permission, I'd like
9 to bring this up to the witness.

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. Agent Seyler, I'm going to ask you if you can read into 13 the record with me some of the questions and answers that were 14 posed to Defendant Eric Parker.

15 I am going to ask the question. Can you give the 16 response?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So, beginning on page 43, at line 5.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Parker objects to completeness, Your
20 Honor.

21 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

23 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

24 THE COURT: What is your objection? You want all of 25 his testimony to be admitted?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 MR. MARCHESE: That's correct, Your Honor. It's our
2 position that taking the snippets is not a fair reflection of
3 what was actually said and takes it out of context.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Well, the rule of completeness doesn't
5 require that an entire statement be admitted. It requires that 6 any part of a statement that is admitted not be misleading.

7 I passed these cuts to counsel, so that they can tell
8 me if they have specific objections that something should be a
9 few more questions or some part should be included, but I don't 10 think it's inappropriate to admit only those portions which the 11 government believes are relevant.

12 THE COURT: Court agrees. It's not necessary to hear
13 the entire two days of testimony.

14 The question is whether there's any statements that 15 are being taken, out of context, where they are being asked --
16 the cut-off is too soon or doesn't go back far enough to 17 capture the entirety of the answer.

18 So, the objection is overruled. You can go ahead and 19 proceed.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. So, asking the question from the 21 questioner to Eric Parker.

22 "Q. Now, we've established that and your friends are going to
23 Bunkerville?

24 "A. Uh-huh.

25 "Q. How did you get to Bunkerville?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "A. Drove.

2 "Q. Okay. What did you drive?

3 "A. My truck.

4 "Q. Now, is it just the three of you?

5 "A. Yes.

6 "Q. Okay. Now, when it was the three of you, what did you
7 bring, if anything?

8 "A. I -- not much. Just camping supplies. Most of the stuff
9 I normally have in my truck. I did bring my -- my rifle and 10 my -- basically, I have a bag with, you know, my rifle and my 11 stuff in it. Two -- a couple of extra magazines, my body
12 armor. And other than that, it was a Hibachi grill, some 13 sleeping bags, tents.

14 "Q. And you're with Steve and Scott the whole time when you
15 are driving?

16 "A. Yes.

17 "Q. To your knowledge, what did they bring?

18 "A. Similar. Camping -- camping supplies and their -- their 19 firearms. I -- we --"

20 BY MS. CREEGAN:

21 Q. I am stopping you there and taking you to page 128, line
22 3.

23 A. What is the page number again?

24 Q. 128 of Day 1. And starting at line 3.

25 "Q. And in doing your research and looking on the Internet,

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 you saw there were calls from Cliven Bundy and others for
2 militia and people with guns to come to Bunkerville; correct?

3 "A. Militia, yes. I'm not sure that I saw any, like -- and --
4 specifically bring your guns. But, yes, I saw them calling for 5 militia, sir.

6 "Q. And calls to match force with force; correct?

7 "A. Yeah, I -- yes, sir.

8 "Q. And that's an idea you agreed with; correct?

9 "A. Yeah. I used the term myself. Yes, sir.

10 "Q. And in this context, "force, is that the BLM was armed.
11 They were armed federal agents; correct? They carry guns, and 12 to match force with them, you needed to bring a gun; correct?

13 "A. Yes, sir. I believe that if you are armed --

14 "Q. I'm not asking why you believe. I am asking did you --

15 "A. I thought you were asking me why. Yeah. Okay.

16 "Q. Did you bring a gun to match force with the BLM?

17 "A. Oh, I absolutely brought a gun. I don't know if it was 18 specifically to match force with the BLM. But, yeah, I guess
19 it would be match force with anybody that --"

20 Q. Taking your attention to page 130, at line 12.

21 "Q. Now, doing your research, you learned that there were
22 Court orders; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 "Q. Did you read the Court orders?

25 "A. No, sir.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. You didn't go and read the Court orders?

2 "A. No. No, sir.

3 "Q. Did you learn that there was a closure order for the parts
4 of the public land in and around Bunkerville?

5 "A. I -- I -- I heard that there were some closings. They
6 were -- I heard that they were closing some areas off. Yes,
7 sir.

8 "Q. Did you read the closure order? Did you find that in your 9 research?

10 "A. No, sir."

11 Q. Turning to page 138 of Day 1, line 15.

12 "Q. So, this at point [sic], on April 10th, you are well aware 13 of the militia and the call for militia to come to Bunkerville;
14 correct?

15 "A. I was aware there was call on militia to go to Bunkerville
16 the whole time, sir."

17 Q. Taking your attention to page 146, line 12.

18 "Q. I'm going to ask -- yes. I'm done with this exhibit.

19 "You brought -- you brought a handgun to Nevada;
20 correct?

21 "A. Yes, sir.

22 "Q. And you brought a rifle; correct?

23 "A. Yes, sir.

24 "Q. What kind of rifle was it?

25 "A. It's a Saiga 223.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. And it's an AK platform; correct?

2 "A. Yeah. It's a Kalashnikov platform, sir. AK is a 762.

3 "Q. And you brought the Kalashnikov platform for -- you
4 specifically chose to bring that rifle instead of another rifle
5 you had; correct?

6 "A. Yes.

7 "Q. And why is that?

8 "A. They are better in the -- in the dirt. Yeah. They --
9 yeah.

10 "Q. And you were coming to the desert; correct?

11 "A. Coming to the desert. Yes, sir.

12 "Q. So, if you had to use your firearm, less likely to have 13 any sort of problems, because it's good in the dirt -- with the 14 dirt; correct?

15 "A. Yeah. But I think you are implying, like, in a bad way or 16 anything. We were planning on going shooting while we were
17 here.

18 "Q. All I'm asking is you chose to bring the Saiga over 19 another long gun that you had?

20 "A. In case we were shooting in the desert.

21 "Q. It's a yes or no question.

22 "A. Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

23 "Q. And you brought -- how many magazines did you bring?

24 "A. Two, I believe."

25 Q. And turning to page 148 of Day 1, line 2.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. I'm talking about the Saiga. How many magazines did you
2 have for the Saiga?

3 "A. Two, sir.

4 "Q. And were --

5 "A. I believe.

6 "Q. Were they 30-round magazines?

7 "A. Yes, sir.

8 "Q. And you had those on you the whole time through this
9 event?

10 "A. Not the whole time. No, sir.

11 "Q. Did you have it on the bridge on the 12th?

12 "A. Yes, sir.

13 "Q. Okay.

14 "A. For -- yes, sir. Yes.

15 "Q. And we've already discussed you brought your plates;
16 correct?

17 "A. Yes.

18 "Q. And those fit in the black vest; correct? Just for 19 anybody that doesn't know about that.

20 "A. Oh, yeah. They are ballistic plates. They fit in the 21 vest. Yes, sir.

22 "Q. And you had some Walmart walkie-talkies; correct?

23 "A. Yes."

24 Q. Turning to page 149 of Day 1, line 10.

25 "Q. You brought your gas mask; correct?

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

- 1 "A. Yes. Yes. That was in the bag, sir. Yes.
- 2 "Q. And you brought binoculars?
- 3 "A. I believe there -- yes.
- 4 "Q. And you also brought, as you discussed, tents and camping
5 stuff, et cetera; correct?
- 6 "A. Yes, sir."
- 7 Q. Turn to page 163, Day 1, line one.
- 8 "Q. Now, when you get to Nevada, it's about what? 2:00 in the 9 morning and you --
- 10 "A. Yes.
- 11 "Q. Correct?
- 12 "A. Yes.
- 13 "Q. And you pull in and there's --
- 14 "A. About.
- 15 "Q. -- and there's cars pulling in at that time?
- 16 "A. Yes, sir."
- 17 Q. And turning back to page 45 of Day 1, line 1.
- 18 "Q. Now, did you get to Bunkerville?
- 19 "A. Yes.
- 20 "Q. About how long did it take you?
- 21 "A. 12 or 13 hours.
- 22 "Q. Have you ever been to Bunkerville before?
- 23 "A. No.
- 24 "Q. So approximately when do you get to Bunkerville?
- 25 "A. It was late. It was probably around -- between 12:30 and

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 1:00 a.m.

2 "Q. All right. And it's still the three of you?

3 "A. Yes."

4 Q. Turning to page 166 of Day 1, line 6.

5 "Q. So, you pull guard duty; you go to sleep; you get up in 6 the morning. Correct?

7 "You did guard duty for two hours with Mr. Drexler
8 and Mr. Stewart; correct?

9 "A. Yeah, we watched the front entrance.

10 "Q. Nothing happened; correct?

11 "A. No, nothing did happen. Nobody ever came.

12 "Q. And you go get a couple of hours sleep; correct?

13 "A. Yes, sir.

14 "Q. You get up in the morning, sort of get your stuff
15 together; right? And then each group had to send somebody to,
16 like, a command tent; correct?

17 "A. Yeah, up to the -- up to the tent.

18 "Q. And you were that person; correct? For your little group,
19 you, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Drexler; correct?

20 "A. Yeah."

21 Q. Turning to page 167, Day 1, line 18.

22 "Q. You were camping next to Mr. Lovelien. That's where you
23 met him, in the militia camp?

24 "A. At the time, I didn't really know that, no. But he is who 25 was my -- I didn't know that was Mr. Lovelien, and he was --

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 and I don't know that it was necessarily right next door. He
2 was in the same row.

3 "Q. You met him in the militia camp and then ended up coming
4 down in his truck in the morning to the area where the stage
5 was, the rally?

6 "Q. Yes, sir."

7 Q. Turning to page 172 of Day 1, line four.

8 "Q. Each group had to send a guy to the command tent in the 9 morning; correct?

10 "A. To the -- to the barn.

11 "Q. To the barn. And then --

12 "A. We were in front of the barn, I guess.

13 "Q. And then there were groups, like the Arizona State
14 Militia, that appeared to be very organized; correct?

15 "A. The guys that showed up from the other camp?

16 "Q. From Arizona.

17 "A. Yeah, the Arizona State Militia guys that showed up from 18 the other camp.

19 "Q. And you believed, at the militia camp, they asked for your 20 name, because they were somehow running names?

21 "A. I figured, yeah. I assumed."

22 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, that's a portion I am
23 going to specifically object to. I think if you read the next
24 three lines in context with what was offered, I think it is a
25 much more telling and much more complete statement than what

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 was offered.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Which three lines?

3 MR. MARCHESE: 19 through 21.

4 MS. CREEGAN: I don't see how 19 through 21 --

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to sidebar.

6 (Sidebar.)

7 THE COURT: Let me look.

8 MS. CREEGAN: We just finished reading at line 18.

9 "I figured they were running names." And then at 19 it begins
10 "Discuss the plan."

11 THE COURT: It's a separate group.

12 All right. So, the last line that was read, the 13 question was "You believed at the militia camp that they asked
14 for your name because they were somehow running names?"

15 And the answer was, "I figured, yeah. I assumed."

16 So, then the next line is the question that the 17 defense wants to ask, which is "And in the morning, is it fair
18 to say there wasn't some set plan, but the plan was fluid;
19 correct?"

20 So they are talking about a different subject matter,
21 a different time of day, and it has nothing to do with the 22 running of names, which is where we left off. So, I don't see
23 that the rule of completeness would justify reading the next
24 three lines.

25 MR. MARCHESE: But just for my purposes to make a

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 record, the first question is reference to going to the command
2 tent in the morning, to the barn. Then they talk about the
3 organization, the Arizona State Militia --

4 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry?

5 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry. I'm trying to make Aaron
6 happy over here. I don't want to get yelled at.

7 The Arizona State Militia. They talk about that.
8 They talk about running names. So, obviously, the reason that
9 the government is proffering this evidence is to try to show
10 that there was a plan, there was some sort of conspiracy, and 11 to show that Mr. Parker, Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart were 12 somehow a part it.

13 So, that's why I would like the question to be asked,
14 from the prior testimony, "And in the morning, is it fair to 15 say that there wasn't some set plan, but the plan was fluid;
16 correct?"

17 "No, there was no set plan."

18 THE COURT: Do you want to respond? I have ruled on 19 the objection, but if you want to respond for record, you may.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Our position is that the rule of 21 completeness is nowhere near that expansive. We haven't
22 chopped up his answer about the Arizona State Militia or about
23 the running of names. That's all that the rule of completeness
24 requires.

25 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 (End of sidebar.)

2 THE COURT: We are back on the record. So, the Court
3 has heard arguments and finds that three additional lines are 4 regarding a different event on a different date. And,
5 therefore, the rule of completeness would not require that they
6 be included with this proffer. So, the motion or the objection
7 is overruled.

8 And Ms. Creegan, did you have another section that 9 you wanted to read?

10 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Agent Seyler, taking your attention back to page 163, line
14 10, this is after a portion you've already read about arriving.
15 Question, line 10.

16 "Q. And you sooner or later come into contact with one of the 17 Bundy sons?

18 "A. I -- I -- I found out later that it was -- yeah. I --
19 I -- I'm not sure if I knew exactly at the time that it was.

20 "Q. It wasn't Ryan or Ammon; correct?

21 "A. I think -- it's so hard. It was three. I had to go back
22 to what I know now and what I don't -- didn't know then and --

23 "Q. That's fine. You don't -- but you understood that it was 24 one of the -- it was a Bundy brother at the time?

25 "A. Yeah. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. And they were nice to you; correct?

2 "A. They were.

3 "Q. And said, you know, we have a place for you to camp;
4 correct?

5 "A. Yeah. He said there's -- there was different places for 6 me to camp. Yes, sir.

7 "Q. And one was a regular camp and one was a militia camp;
8 correct?

9 "A. Yeah. He said the militia camps are over -- over there.
10 He asked if I was militia.

11 "Q. And you said no?

12 "A. I told him no.

13 "Q. Correct?

14 "A. Yeah.

15 "Q. You weren't in the militia?

16 "A. Correct.

17 "Q. And you stated that you wanted to camp with the militia?

18 "A. Yes.

19 "Q. And that's where you, and Mr. Drexler, and Mr. Stewart
20 went and camped; correct?

21 "A. There were numerous reasons for that, but, yes. Yes, sir.

22 "Q. And --

23 "A. I wanted to know what was true and what wasn't. I figured 24 that's where my best chance of getting information from was.
25 Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. And did you have to check in with anyone that night other
2 than when you spoke with one of the Bundy brothers?

3 "A. Check in? There was a guy at the gate. He asked who we 4 were, if we were militia or not, where we were from, why we
5 came. So, that was -- yeah. That was kind of checking in.

6 "Q. And then you did go to sleep. But before you went to 7 sleep, you pulled guard duty; correct?

8 "A. At the -- at the gate. Yes, sir.

9 "Q. Correct?

10 "A. Yeah."

11 Q. Turning your attention to page 47, line 22.

12 A. Do you mean the second day or the first day?

13 Q. The first day. And I'll back it up to 15. It's a
14 reference to a photo, but we don't need to show the photo.

15 "Q. Correct. Okay. And just what generally is depicted in 16 this photo?

17 "A. I was standing at the back of the crowd, watching the 18 crowd. We were -- we were asked to watch the crowd."

19 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I'm going to object. We 20 are asking what a photo is, and we are not showing the photo.

21 THE COURT: That's your objection, that they need to 22 show the photo because --

23 MR. MARCHESE: Well, the question is "And what is 24 generally depicted in the photo?" And then we don't have the 25 photo.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: All right. But he's describing the
2 photo, so the objection is overruled. You can go on.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry. I will ask the question again.

4 "Q. And what is just generally depicted in this photo?

5 "A. I am standing in the back of the crowd, watching the 6 crowd. We were -- we were asked to watch the crowd. Do what
7 was, you know, basically crowd control.

8 "We were told that they asked that Metro had been 9 asked to come do crowd control, because there was a lot of 10 people expected, and they denied that request. So, at that 11 camp that morning, we were asked to -- if we would help by 12 watching the crowd, and show people where to park, and keep 13 them out of the road, and watch for anything suspicious.

14 "We were asked -- the -- nobody ever really
15 elaborated on anything suspicious. I just -- you know, they 16 said if we saw anything strange to find somebody with an
17 earpiece or any -- anybody. Find somebody that -- you know, 18 was -- the only thing -- I guess what I'm trying to say is 19 don't interact by yourself. They told us, don't go do anything
20 by yourself; and find somebody, and then just ask them to come
21 out of the crowd."

22 Q. And turning to page 50 of Day 1 at line 22 in reference to 23 Cliven's speech.

24 "Q. What was your mindset after you heard that speech?

25 "A. Well, after the sheriff spoke, it was -- I thought we

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 drove a long way for nothing. I thought that they were
2 leaving. That was -- I thought that they were ceasing their
3 operation."

4 "Everything he said on the -- on the stage, I thought
5 that the BLM had put out a press release, and that they were 6 ceasing their operation, opening Gold Butte back up to the 7 public, and removing their -- themselves, their assets from 8 Clark County, I think, is exactly how he put it."

9 Q. And on page 55, turning a bit forward in time, line 2 --
10 page 55 of Day 1. Excuse me.

11 "Q. Whose truck did you get in, if you know?

12 "A. At the time, I did not know. He was our neighbor at the 13 campsite. He gave us a ride over to the stage area that 14 morning. We were getting ready in our truck, and he said
15 there's probably going to be very little parking over there and 16 asked if we wanted a ride, and we said yes."

17 "And so, when we left the stage area, we asked him if 18 he was going with the crowd to watch the cows, and he said
19 yes."

20 Q. Turning to page 123 of Day 1, line 18.

21 "Q. So, after Cliven gives the order, you get back into 22 Mr. Lovelien's truck; correct?

23 "A. Yeah. I didn't know it to be Mr. Lovelien at the time.

24 "Q. But you now you know it's Mr. Lovelien?

25 "A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 "Q. And he -- and he was dressed in full camouflage; correct?
2 Or had he put on his camouflage jacket by then?

3 "A. I don't recall. I don't think so.

4 "Q. Okay. Because you recall he was standing out in the -- in 5 the rally area, he didn't have the camouflage top on; correct?

6 "A. From the pictures now, yes. At the time, it's not
7 something I would recall.

8 "Q. But from the evidence, he wasn't; correct?

9 "A. Correct.

10 "Q. And you get in his car, and you and Mr. Drexler and 11 Mr. Stewart, they -- they get in the car with you as well?

12 "A. Correct.

13 "Q. And you start heading towards the compound?

14 "A. I thought we were going to -- wherever the cows were --
15 were at, yeah.

16 "Q. To free them by any means; correct?

17 "A. Yes, sir."

18 Q. And turning to page 34 of Day 2, April 10, 2017, line 17.

19 "Q. And you heard the BLM make announcements to disburse?

20 "A. Yeah, that's fair enough. Yes.

21 "Q. And you heard BLM make some announcements referencing
22 court orders; correct?

23 "A. Yeah. Yes, sir."

24 Q. And turning to page 58 of Day 2, line 14.

25 "Q. Were you standing next to someone that asked Siri 'When's

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 the last time the federal government backed down?'"

2 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Hearsay. It's double
3 hearsay. It's what someone was telling him what Siri said.
4 Siri is the declarant here.

5 THE COURT: The Siri question?

6 MR. MARCHESE: I'm sorry? Siri, as in you are
7 talking to your iPhone. That's who the declarant is here, and 8 it's what someone is -- the testimony they are about to elicit
9 is what someone said Siri told them. Double hearsay.

10 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan, is it offered for the truth
11 of the matter asserted or for the effect that it had on the 12 listener?

13 MS. CREEGAN: For the effect on the listener.

14 MR. MARCHESE: I would like to know what the effect
15 is.

16 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

17 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I could just kind of 18 insert a late objection, too, with respect to the -- the "by 19 any means statement" that he was read in on page 56. There's a
20 page or so after that that describes what "by any means" means.

21 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

22 (Sidebar.)

23 THE COURT: What page, Mr. Tanasi?

24 MR. TANASI: 56, Your Honor, I believe -- 55 is where 25 it was. So, Mr. Marchese asks, "And I used the term 'by any

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 means.'" And there was an objection, objection.

2 THE COURT: What line on page 56, line 1.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Is this Day 1 or Day 2?

4 MR. TANASI: It's dated as -- let's see. The 6th,
5 Day 1.

6 MS. CREEGAN: It should be Day 1.

7 MR. TANASI: Day 1.

8 MR. MARCHESE: That's in Day 1?

9 MR. TANASI: Yeah. So, Mr. Dickinson -- I'm sorry,
10 Your Honor. I will stop reading it. You are reading the same
11 thing. I know you've -- I guess, for record purposes, there's 12 a description as to what "by any means" means.

13 "The Witness, by any means. So, by any means. They 14 were talking about how it was safely going to be addressed, the 15 cattle. I meant a couple different things."

16 "I figured the sheriff -- so, first of all, by any 17 means. I figured the sheriff was over. He was left. That's 18 where I thought he went, to wherever the cows and the BLM were.
19 So, he never came back, so I didn't understand why he didn't
20 come back to talk to Mr. Bundy."

21 "By any means, I -- we -- there was talk in the crowd
22 of going and staying there until the cows were released. Going
23 to wherever this is. Like I said, I didn't know where it was.
24 Going there and staying there until the cows were released.
25 Setting up a camp on the side of the highway. Being there

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 until they released the cattle."

2 "Losing my job for staying on the side of the road
3 for that long. Possibly being arrested for trespassing.
4 Closed area maybe. I don't know. There was lot."

5 It goes on and on. And I think the point, Your
6 Honor, is that the government's just kind of leaving that
7 statement out there, hanging out there, because "by any means"
8 has a very negative inference, it has a violent inference.
9 And, of course, that supports their theory. But this is the 10 complete story as to what "by any means" meant as it pertained
11 to Mr. Parker.

12 MS. CREEGAN: What's the page that you want us to be 13 complete to?

14 MR. TANASI: The last page that you had referenced.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah. I mean, it would be our 16 position, and to be fair to all sides, you should take it to 17 page 57. This is Day 26, or Day 1, however you are looking at 18 it, line 10, ending with "to do."

19 MS. CREEGAN: Sorry. My question is what do you want
20 it to be complete to?

21 MR. TANASI: What was just last read into the record.

22 THE COURT: Page 57, "you had to do," line 10; right?

23 MR. TANASI: I think that essentially where it
24 starts. I think it -- yeah. Yes, Your Honor. The end of 57.
25 The end of 57.

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 THE COURT: What's your response? Do you want to
2 read all of it there? So, you leave off here, right on 3 page 56, line 3?

4 MS. CREEGAN: So I think I actually was quoting from
5 a different section. So, where's the page that I was quoting
6 from originally? Some things are discussed a few different
7 times.

8 MR. MARCHESE: I have your list. I have it. I am
9 closer. Do you want me to just grab it?

10 MS. CREEGAN: I am going to grab my one that is out
11 here.

12 (Off-the-record discussion held between counsel.)

13 MR. MYHRE: Here it is, 124 on Day 1 for them, "By 14 any means." Correct?

15 MS. CREEGAN: So, Your Honor, that quotation that we 16 were doing was from page 124.

17 MR. MYHRE: Day 1.

18 THE COURT: Did you read line 14 through on page 124?

19 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. MYHRE: 15, 1 through 15.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, it's the defense position
22 that on page 124, line 14, where the question is "To free them
23 by any means; correct?" And the answer is "Yes, sir." That's 24 a reference to an earlier --

25 MR. TANASI: It's a reference to Mr. Marchese's

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 question when he came in --

2 THE REPORTER: I can't hear you.

3 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry. It was in reference to the 4 question that earlier Mr. Marchese had elicited that
5 essentially described what "by any means" meant.

6 THE COURT: On page 56?

7 MR. TANASI: Correct. 56 through 57.

8 THE COURT: What is your response?

9 MS. CREEGAN: The response is this is a direct 10 quotation from a Facebook post that Eric Parker said "by any 11 means" in which he did not qualify that statement. We don't 12 think it's necessary to complete his self-aggrandizing
13 statement. That is his statement which he did in a Facebook
14 post which will be admitted into evidence.

15 THE COURT: All right. Well, I will sustain the 16 objection, because --

17 THE REPORTER: I can't hear you.

18 THE COURT: I am going to sustained the objection,
19 because the last sentence on page 124, line 14, where it says
20 'To free them by any means; correct?'

21 "Yes, sir."

22 Is clearly a reference to an earlier statement. And 23 I realize the defense position is that the earlier statement is 24 the direct examination explanation, but the government's 25 position is that "by any means" is referencing the text or post

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 that the defendant placed on his Facebook page.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Right. Contemporaneous with the speech
3 ultimatum.

4 THE COURT: Nevertheless, I think it would be
5 misleading in this particular context to allow that to just be 6 hanging when there is an explanation given by the defendant to 7 the government on page 56.

8 All right. So, I'm going to ask you to start at 9 page 56, line 13, through page 57, line 10.

10 MS. CREEGAN: 13 through 10.

11 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 (End of sidebar.)

13 THE COURT: All right. So, there were two
14 objections. The first objection was as to the response given 15 by Siri, the computer on the iPhone, when the question was 16 posed. And so I did rule that that's not hearsay, because it
17 wasn't offered for the truth of the matter asserted, so the 18 objection was overruled and the question can be posed.

19 The second objection made was as to the completeness
20 of the statement referring to "by any means necessary." And so
21 that objection is sustained, and the government will read that 22 portion of the transcript as well, even though it's -- I think
23 it's a different day or a different portion, but it is a
24 clarification of that term.

25 This witness was here at the time when the statement

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 was given, so the government is free to ask for some context
2 from the witness if necessary, because it's not as if the
3 statements were made back to back, but -- so, I will give you
4 some leniency there, so you can set the stage as far as what it
5 is that they are discussing in that question, what it's 6 referencing.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Agent Seyler, you had previously testified about some 9 testimony about getting the cattle "by any means." Do you
10 recall that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And I'm going to direct your attention to page 56, at line
13 13, that begins with a statement of the witness. Would you
14 please read that?

15 "A. Somewhere back there, yes.

16 Q. I'm sorry. 56 of Day 1.

17 "A. By any means. So, by any means. They were talking about 18 how it was safely going to be addressed, the cattle. I meant a
19 couple different things. I figured the sheriff -- so, first of 20 all, by any means. I figured that the sheriff was over there.
21 When he left, that's where I thought he went, to wherever the 22 cows and the BLM were. But he never came back."

23 "So, I didn't understand why he didn't come back to 24 talk to Mr. Bundy. By any means, I -- we -- there was talk in 25 the crowd of going and staying there until the cows were

Mark D. Seyler - Direct

1 released. Going to wherever this was. Like I said, I didn't
2 know where it was. Going there and staying there until the
3 cows were released. Setting up a camp on the side of the 4 highway. Being there until they released the cattle. Losing
5 my job for staying on the side of the road for however long.
6 Possibly being arrested for trespassing. Closed area, maybe.
7 I don't know. There was a lot."

8 "I never -- like I said before, I never in a million
9 years thought it was going to be such a volatile situation over
10 there. So, this is prior to going over there. I said by any 11 means. I meant that, you know, we would stay there and hold
12 our signs and whatever you had to do."

13 Q. And I'm going to take your attention back to page 58 of 14 Day 2, line 14.

15 "Q. Were you standing next to someone that asked Siri, 'When's
16 the last time the federal government backed down?'

17 "A. Yes, at the camp.

18 "Q. And what came up on Siri?

19 "A. A picture of me."

20 MS. CREEGAN: Court's indulgence for a moment, Your
21 Honor.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Pass the 25 witness.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE COURT: Okay. Cross-examination. Mr. Perez on
2 behalf of the Mr. Lovelien.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. Good afternoon, Special Agent. My name is Shawn Perez. I
6 represent Ricky Lovelien.

7 A. Good afternoon.

8 Q. I will try to be brief. Earlier this morning, we were 9 talking about the OMA website, Operation Mutual Aid. And you
10 had mentioned something about receiving updates from that 11 website; is that correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And then you said that Cheyenne Miller,
14 Mr. Lovelien's sister, was receiving updates?

15 A. Yes, via email, yes.

16 Q. Okay. Email. So, is that -- is that an email to or from 17 website to email address?

18 A. No, the website was used to collect emails of people that 19 were interested in updates, and so the updates that she was 20 receiving were from the Operation Mutual Aid email account.

21 Q. So, it was something that happens automatic?

22 A. No, Mr. Bruckhart and Mr. Payne sent those emails out to a
23 list of people.

24 Q. But the list -- is this list populated automatically, or 25 do they have to select certain people? Do you know?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. That list they would have to put somebody on the email
2 list, yes. They would have to go in and add that person's
3 email address to that list that the Gmail account was sending 4 out, yes.

5 Q. Okay. And so every time they do one of these updates, do
6 they actually have to input each of the email addresses, or is 7 it just -- can they put a button and populate that list?

8 A. Yes, it would be saved as a group, and then they could add
9 individuals to the group as they go on.

10 Q. Okay. Now on -- prior to April 12th, Mr. Lovelien was not
11 receiving any updates from OMA; correct?

12 A. He did receive one to the Captain Rick Lovelien email
13 address. That was, I believe, on April 10th.

14 Q. An April 10th?

15 A. It was one of the exhibits that we introduced, yes.

16 Q. Okay. Now, you also mentioned something to the effect
17 that a person could be a member of the website but not 18 necessarily a member of OMA; correct?

19 A. Yes. They would join the website. In order to be a
20 full-fledged member of OMA, they required that you contact Ryan
21 Payne or Jerry Bruckhart.

22 Q. Okay. Was Cheyenne Miller a full OMA member or was she 23 just a member of the website?

24 A. I don't know if she ever contacted them or not. I know
25 she was member of the website. That's all that I know.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Now, Ricky Lovelien was not a member of OMA on
2 April 12; correct?

3 A. I don't know if he approached Ryan Payne and asked to be.
4 I don't know.

5 Q. Okay. So, prior to somebody, I guess, requesting to be a
6 member of the OMA website, if a notification was sent from the 7 OMA website, they wouldn't receive it. So -- maybe I'm not 8 very clear on that.

9 But, for example, if OMA -- they sent out this --
10 this notification, and it went to Cheyenne Miller. And if --
11 if Mr. Lovelien wasn't a member, at that time, he would get no
12 notice of what was in that?

13 A. They could send the notice out to whomever they wanted,
14 whether they were members of OMA or not. And so there were a 15 number of the recipients on that email list that went out that 16 I don't know had any association with OMA.

17 So, joining the website and getting an email from 18 their email account are two different things.

19 Q. Okay. How so?

20 A. The website, you could join on the website. And one of 21 the things you did when you joined was give your email address.
22 And then Mr. Bruckhart could take all those email addresses,
23 along with anybody else that he thought might have an interest
24 in his operation, and include it on a group email that he then
25 sent out from the OMA Gmail account.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Brian, can we bring up 175, please.

2 THE COURT: Has 175 been admitted or is it just for
3 the witness?

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It's been admitted, Your
5 Honor.

6 MR. PEREZ: Brian, 175.

7 Q. So now this -- this is a -- like a blanket email then;
8 correct? To all those -- all the, I guess, email members of 9 OMA?

10 A. Well, these are people that they emailed this to, yeah.
11 It's a group of email recipients.

12 Q. And now you also said, just a moment ago, that somebody
13 could give them their email address and request information;
14 correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And then you also said that OMA could just send this off
17 to somebody without a request if they thought that they might 18 be interested; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So, these individuals that are listed in this email then,
21 there's no way of really knowing whether or not they requested
22 the information or whether it was just Mr. Bruckhart? Is that 23 his name?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Whether it was his decision to put that name in there?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Yes. Some of the individuals I'm -- I know were
2 interested, and they actually joined to website indicating that
3 they were interested in these updates. So, some of them were.
4 It's possible that he may have found email addresses and sent
5 them to others, but I don't know.

6 Q. Okay. Now, on the -- the search warrant for Facebook --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- and the documents that you actually received from 9 Facebook, in what form do you receive that -- that data? Is it
10 just like a digital file?

11 A. Yes. It's a very large what they call a PDF file. So, a
12 series of pages that come and -- for instance, I believe
13 Mr. Lovelien's file had approximately 41,000 pages in it.

14 Q. Right. Okay. And, well, okay. 41,000 total pages?

15 A. Yes. Somewhere in that neighborhood, yes.

16 Q. And we've seen maybe a handful?

17 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 BY MR. PEREZ:

20 Q. Well, and now I noticed earlier on, you also said that you
21 receive these thousands of pages, and you sift through them to 22 look for relevant information; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And how do you do that?

25 A. Page by page.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Manually or a digital search?

2 A. No, unless it's an extremely large file, I've always done
3 it manually. We actually go through page by page.

4 Q. Okay. And of those 41,000 pages of Facebook posts or 5 Facebook pages, I guess they are, how many did you go through 6 personally?

7 A. I would have gone through all of them. And I say 41,000.
8 I believe that's what Mr. Lovelien had. It could have been 9 thousands more or thousands less, but that's just my
10 recollection.

11 Q. Okay. Now, when you look at a Facebook post, and I know
12 we talked about, like, the continuity of a conversation, and 13 there would be a space in between the conversation; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that would separate a conversation. How would you
16 know if part of that conversation didn't show up, like, 20,000
17 pages later or 10,000 pages later?

18 A. They are sequential. So, you can go through an entire 19 conversation. At the end of that conversation, there's not 20 only a space but a series of characters that indicate that
21 conversation is over. And then it jumps to another
22 conversation between two different individuals or multiple
23 different individuals.

24 So, one conversation is finished, and it can go --
25 the conversation can go for months, from the time they begin

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 talking until the time they are done talking. And then they
2 are done, and then another conversation will begin.

3 Q. Right. And so somebody -- let's say there was a
4 conversation that took place in March. The conversation may
5 not be concluded until mid-April?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And how did you make sure that you had the entire
8 conversation in that -- in that, I guess, collection of data?

9 A. We received a complete record from Facebook. That's what 10 we asked for. And so any communications that occurred during 11 the time frame that we asked for were contained.

12 So, we would have gotten nothing after our request to 13 Facebook, but everything up until that time would have been
14 complete.

15 Q. Maybe I'm not being clear enough. Let's say you had a
16 conversation that started on page -- just for -- we will pick 17 967. And there was a continuation of that conversation on,
18 like, 1886.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. I mean, how -- you know, how do you put that all together
21 to follow that conversation and really figure out what 22 somebody's talking about?

23 A. In that case, the conversation would start on 967, and it
24 would go 968, 969, all the way to the end of the conversation.
25 So you can just scroll down chronologically and read one

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 person's response, the other person's response, the other
2 person's response.

3 Q. Oh, so what you are saying then is the Facebook -- the 4 return to the warrant, the Facebook pages -- and I believe
5 we've seen the Facebook page post, they have a number up on the 6 top right-hand side?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And that's -- well, what does that number
9 correspond to?

10 A. That's just the page number. That's the number of pages
11 that were in there. So, I'll have number -- page number 1,
12 page number 100, and all the way down.

13 Q. Well, how do you know though that the conversation on 14 page 967 is -- in that -- that numerical sequence, it's not 15 going to show up somewhere else, you know, 200 pages down the 16 line?

17 I mean, you don't -- it doesn't renumber the pages
18 and move the conversation up; correct?

19 A. I don't think I understand what you're asking.

20 Q. Well, I mean, if we are looking at it linearly. You have 21 this conversation that starts on said date. It runs a little 22 bit. And then, you know, the way Facebook works, there's some 23 more pages.

24 Well, and I looked through the exhibits, and they are 25 numbered on the top. This is Facebook page 967, you know, and

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 on, and on, and on. But those don't necessarily follow just
2 conversation to conversation. There could be continuation of 3 that -- that discussion on page 967 on page 1000.

4 A. No, that's incorrect.

5 Q. Okay. And why is that?

6 A. Because they are listed sequentially and chronologically.
7 And so that conversation will not be -- another conversation
8 will not jump in between there. There will be no more Facebook
9 pages in between the beginning of that conversation and the end
10 of that conversation. It will be complete.

11 Q. Okay. Now, that's assuming that the conversation is only
12 on one -- one concept or one -- one --

13 A. No, that would be their entire conversation. So, they 14 could begin talking about baseball and finish talking about 15 Bunkerville. And as long as it's the same two individuals
16 discussing something, and nobody else, then those conversations
17 will all continue in the same conversation.

18 Q. So, a Facebook post with -- we'll use 967 again --
19 discussing militia or MT -- what is it? MT -- Montana State
20 Defense Force.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. If there was conversation about Montana State Defense
23 force, you know, a thousand pages later, I mean, would it move
24 up in your grouping of Facebook posts?

25 So, like, for example, when we saw these Facebook

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 posts, we saw, you know, this particular time UTC, and then the
2 next conversation and the next conversation.

3 On Facebook itself, is that the way we would see it
4 or would we see conversations between you and I, and then, you
5 know, maybe a conversation between Mr. Marchese and I, and then
6 back to you and I. Or, you know, because what you're saying is 7 the conversation's going to show up all in order?

8 A. Yes. And on Facebook, when you view it, there would be 9 individual conversations that you are having that you are able 10 to view on the screen as they go on.

11 So, it -- the return that we get is a compilation of 12 the entire context of the conversation that they had over
13 whatever period of time it was; a day, two years, whatever it
14 is.

15 We get all of that. And, so, when it's the screen,
16 it may look different, but when we view it, we are able to see
17 the entire conversation.

18 Q. Well, if I was looking at this Facebook page and I saw
19 something, you know, scrolling down or scrolling up -- whatever
20 which way that works. I don't have Facebook, so I don't know.

21 If I spotted something on there that looked 22 interesting, and I wanted to comment on it, it might be, like,
23 six months old. In the data you get, will that -- where with 24 will that go?

25 A. That comment will go at the very end. So, if you want to

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 comment about something that happened six months ago, in that
2 same conversation, your comment will go on the day that you
3 make that comment maybe six months later. You can't jump back
4 up and insert a comment up above.

5 Q. But it will still show up in that linear fashion?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. Now, the status updates on Facebook, I know we saw
8 one exhibit that had several status updates.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And just correct me if I'm wrong. The status tells you
11 the day that you become friends, Facebook friends. That's one
12 of the functions that status update will do?

13 A. No, a status update would be different than friending
14 someone on Facebook.

15 Q. So, what -- okay. Well, let's assume I want to know what
16 date I became friends with somebody. Would I look under a
17 status update, or how would I -- how would I determine that?

18 A. No, there would probably be a time line that you could 19 look at on Facebook on the page and see when you actually 20 friended someone. It may require you actually to go into 21 something other than your first page in Facebook to look.

22 When we get it in a search warrant return, we are 23 able to see what the friends are, and then what their activity
24 was during that time frame that we've subpoenaed to do the 25 search warrant -- got a search warrant for the records for. So

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 we can see what day they friended someone.

2 Q. Okay. And when -- when did -- well, one step further.

3 Can you tell who is the person that did the friend request?

4 A. Yes. Usually, you can tell whether it's the user that's 5 made a friend request to someone, and they've accepted, or the 6 other way around.

7 Q. Okay. And do you know when Mr. Lovelien and Mr. Bruckhart
8 became friends?

9 A. Not exactly sure of the date. It would have been in 10 April.

11 Q. After -- after the 12th though; correct?

12 A. I'm not sure of the exact date. Certainly possible.

13 Q. Now, Brian, Exhibit 62. Brian, can you scroll down just a
14 bit? Keep going. Okay. Take it back to page 1.

15 Now, this is a list of friends?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Now, all it has is a name, and then I'm assuming 18 that the number there is just the Facebook account number?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now, for example, on this -- on 62, page 1, Steve 21 Ozburn. How would I find out when that person became a friend?
22 How would you do that?

23 A. Maybe it's possible he became a friend during the time
24 frame of the records that we requested. Up above, in this 25 Facebook return, it would have listed what day he became

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 friends with -- with Mr. Ozburn.

2 Q. What do you mean up above?

3 A. It would have been in one of the earlier pages of the 4 Facebook return.

5 Q. Brian, go -- let me see the top of this page.

6 So, where it says, page 76, so it might have been
7 maybe page 75?

8 A. Yes, it could have been. And there's a series of pages at 9 the beginning of the Facebook return that contain more
10 administrative information rather than messages. So, it would 11 have been in those, in that.

12 And I admit. I could be wrong. It could be shortly
13 after this page or shortly before it. But it would have been 14 in those first set of pages that Facebook provided us the 15 return with more administrative information rather than 16 messages.

17 Q. All right. So now on this list of friends that's in -- in 18 this exhibit -- I mean, some of these people could have been
19 friends, you know, for years. Well, however long Facebook's
20 been around. And some of them might be newly added?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Now, Brian, Exhibit 54.

25 Okay. Now, refresh my memory. Is this a Facebook

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 post?

2 A. Yes, it is.

3 Q. Now, is it from Operation Patriot Rally Point?

4 A. Yes. It's made by the user of Operation Patriot Rally
5 Point on their Facebook page.

6 Q. Okay. Now, if I have a Facebook page, or whatever you
7 call it, Facebook account, how would this show up on my
8 Facebook account?

9 A. It would show up in your time line of where you posted
10 things on your wall of your Facebook page.

11 Q. Well, this was posted by Operation Patriot Rally Point;
12 correct? It wasn't posted by -- for example, it wasn't posted
13 by Mr. Lovelien; was it?

14 A. Correct. This is by the user Operation Patriot Rally
15 Point.

16 Q. Okay. And so in order for it to show up on my Facebook
17 page, what would I have to do to have this show up?

18 A. You could share that on your Facebook page. You see the 19 option that you have to share or to comment or like, one of the 20 things you could do is share it on your own Facebook page.

21 Q. Okay. Now, when you share something on Facebook, my 22 understanding is that anyone that has access to your wall will 23 also see it on their Facebook page; correct? Depending on the 24 settings.

25 A. Depending on the settings. It can show up in someone's

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Facebook page of things they may want to read of their friends,
2 yes.

3 Q. So, if it's wide open, I mean, even I don't agree with 4 Operation Patriot Rally Point, it might show up with my
5 Facebook page?

6 A. If you're friends with Operation Patriot Rally Point, it
7 may show up as something you may want to view, but it's not
8 going to show up as something that you posted.

9 Q. But if I'm friends with someone who might be a member of 10 Operation Patriot Rally Point, and they share it, would it show
11 up on my web -- on my Facebook page?

12 A. If you are friends with someone that posted this, you may 13 get an option to click on it and look at it, yes.

14 Q. Okay. Well, now you're talking about an option. So,
15 you're talking about, like, a hyperlink?

16 A. Yeah. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Well, on the Facebook page, does it give me any 18 information other than, you know, there's a posting by 19 Operation Patriot Rally Point?

20 A. It may show you the title, the subject of what it's about.

21 Q. Okay. Now, sometimes these postings are a little
22 misleading; correct? You've seen them on Facebook I'm sure.

23 A. Some of the postings on Facebook are misleading, yes.

24 Q. And so the idea is to get you to click on the hyperlink?

25 A. Some people do that on Facebook, I think, yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. All right. Now, Brian, Exhibit 56.

2 Now, this is a private message; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. And this is between Mr. Payne and Mr. Kessler?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now, and no one else can see this; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Now, is there -- and there's no way, really, to 9 verify if -- if, you know, like, for example -- Brian, can you
10 move this up just a little bit so I can see the last line?

11 There you go. That's good.

12 Okay. So, for example, on -- looks like 4/9/2014, at 13 1:22:35 UTC, it says "We're in communication with Cliven Bundy.
14 He says help. Could use more."

15 There's no way to really guarantee or corroborate
16 that this individual was in contact with Mr. Bundy; is there?

17 A. I know that individual's in contact with Mr. Bundy,
18 because I have seen his telephone records.

19 Q. Okay. Let's just take, you know, something somebody posts
20 on Facebook. And, I mean, we've all seen this every day with 21 fake news. I mean, someone can post something on Facebook
22 that's not necessarily true; correct?

23 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

24 THE COURT: I don't see the relevance, Mr. Perez.

25 MR. PEREZ: Well, Your Honor, there's a lot of

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Facebook posts on here. There's quite a few things. I am
2 asking him -- well, we'll start over again.

3 Q. So, "We're in communication with Cliven Bundy." That's
4 what it says. And you -- when you gathered this Facebook post,
5 what did you do to corroborate that Mr. Payne was, in fact, in
6 communication with Cliven Bundy?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Object. This is the government's case,
8 not particularly one witness's case. It's not their obligation
9 to corroborate all the information.

10 THE COURT: Sustained.

11 BY MR. PEREZ:

12 Q. Do you know if anyone corroborated what -- the 13 information -- strike that.

14 Obviously, somebody gathered this information and 15 somebody reviewed it; correct?

16 A. Yes. I did.

17 Q. You did. Okay. So, now, did you -- when you were looking
18 at these 41,000 pages of Facebook posts, I mean, did you
19 corroborate any of the information with another source?

20 A. Frequently, yes.

21 Q. Okay. And what did you use to --

22 THE COURT: Do we need to take a break?

23 MARSHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: We are going to go head and take --
25 should we take our 10-minute break?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Let's go ahead and take a 10-minute break. The jury
2 is reminded not to discuss this case with anyone, nor to read,
3 or listen to, or view anything regarding this case, nor perform
4 any independent research or investigation. If you have a
5 question, please write it down. We'll collect those when we
6 are done with the witness before the witness leaves. And do
7 not form any opinion.

8 So, we'll have you back here in about 10 minutes or 9 so, so you can stretch and walk around.

10 (Jury out.)

11 THE COURT: All right. You can go ahead and be 12 seated. We are still on the record. Go ahead and sit down.

13 It was brought to my attention, and it's something
14 that you all need to remember that you need to push the 15 microphone button to off if you are going to be having 16 discussions. Which you are entitled to have discussions,
17 obviously, with your clients and co -- other counsel and so
18 forth, but you need to push the off button.

19 When we went to sidebar, I think it was the last 20 sidebar, to discuss whether or not there should be additional 21 information from the transcript added to the testimony that was 22 being elicited from this particular witness, Mr. Stewart said
23 very loudly "Show the jury everything." And it was heard clear
24 across the room where the jurors are.

25 So, number one, you know, I give this admonition that

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 you can't make any statements in agreement or disagreement with
2 anything that's going on in the courtroom, and especially not
3 within earshot of the jurors that loudly.

4 So, I'm going to let it go this time, because I don't
5 know if it was the microphone or if your voice was that loud
6 that it carried over, but I really thought about putting you
7 back in the cell. So, please, you have to contain yourself and 8 your emotions, and don't make any statements in front of the 9 jury, especially if we are all at sidebar. That's an
10 opportunity that you should not be tempted to take advantage
11 of, because you will end up sitting in the holding cell for the 12 remainder of the day.

13 The second issue is, there's a concern about whether 14 Juror No. 4 is being attentive. Does anyone else notice
15 anything that you want to place to record?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Leventhal.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I noticed Juror No. 4 was nodding his 19 head, sort of bobbing his head back and forth. He was out for 20 a good portion of Mr. Perez's cross-examination.

21 I also had the marshal take a look, and he agreed
22 that he saw him out as well. His head was bobbing, actually
23 bobbing. And then he -- I think when there was an objection,
24 he woke up, and he rubbed his eyes and he yawned a little bit,
25 so he was out sleeping.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 MR. TANASI: I saw it as well, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, would you like me to
3 bring him in so we can question him about it?

4 MR. TANASI: Please, Your Honor.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Please.

6 THE COURT: All right. So let's go ahead and call in
7 Juror No. 4.

8 Let's go and let the witness take a stretch. Why
9 don't you go and take a stretch, so you are not sitting here
10 when we are talking to the juror.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: And counsel, just to be 12 clear, we are talking about --

13 MR. MYHRE: For the record, Your Honor, just for the
14 record --

15 THE REPORTER: Please use the microphone.

16 THE COURT: Yes, use your microphone, please.

17 MR. MYHRE: For the record, Your Honor, we observed
18 No. 4 as well, or my co-counsel have. And he -- they did not 19 notice that he was nodding off at all. He was blinking, but he 20 was not nodding off. Have I got that correct?

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I can speak to it. And I
22 noticed it, and then I started actually recording the times
23 that it occurred. 4:02 to 4:05. 4:10 to 4:14. 4:14 until 24 we've just taken our break.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: And again, the marshal saw it. He's

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 here.

2 MARSHAL: Yes.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, we will ask him. We
4 will ask the witness or the juror.

5 (Juror No. 4 entered the courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: Anywhere is fine. So, this is Juror
7 No. 4. Thank you for coming in. Go ahead and sit down. I
8 just need to ask you a couple of questions. It's not meant to 9 embarrass you or anything.

10 But I've been told -- I didn't see it myself but I
11 have been told that you might be having trouble staying awake,
12 and that you might be nodding off during the afternoon. Is 13 that right?

14 JUROR NO. 4: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. So, do you feel that you've 16 missed some information? How much information do you think?
17 How long were you out for?

18 JUROR NO. 4: Probably like 30 seconds. Spurts.

19 THE COURT: All right. So, are you suffering from 20 any illness, or are you working nights, or are you taking 21 medication?

22 JUROR NO. 4: None of the above. No. Just trying to 23 find a rhythm to stay awake. That's all.

24 THE COURT: All right. Do you generally -- I am
25 trying to remember. Are you the juror that works nights and

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 sleeps days generally?

2 JUROR NO. 4: No, I usually work the 4:00 a.m. shift,
3 so I did change from waking up at 2:00 in the morning to about
4 6:00. So, usually I get off of work at 12:30.

5 THE COURT: Do you usually get off at work at 6 12:30 in the afternoon?

7 JUROR NO. 4: Correct.

8 THE COURT: And then do you usually go to sleep?

9 JUROR NO. 4: Well, no. I go to sleep about
10 8:00 usually on -- to wake up at 2:00 a.m.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, obviously, my 12 concern is you missing information and falling asleep again.

13 JUROR NO. 4: Okay. If I feel that I am --

14 THE COURT: Do you have a plan for that? Do you have 15 a plan to stop that from happening again?

16 JUROR NO. 4: Yes, I will implement a plan. If 17 I'm -- feel that I am going to fall asleep, I will just raise
18 my hands and ask for a break if necessary. I doubt that it
19 will continue. This is just day two, so I'm pretty sure I'm 20 just acclimating to the new schedule.

21 THE COURT: All right. All right. Well, thank you.

22 JUROR NO. 4: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 (Juror No. 4 left the courtroom.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court is satisfied

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 that juror did fall asleep. He says that he does think that he
2 was out for 30 seconds, and that he is adjusting to a new sleep
3 schedule, because his work hours are different than our
4 courtroom hours.

5 I don't think that it's a basis to excuse him yet,
6 but he's certainly number one on my list if there's another
7 problem. And he did indicate that he does have a plan to be
8 able to comply with this and that he will raise his hand next
9 time he feels sleepy, so that we can take a break.

10 Of course, if anyone sees him sleeping again, please
11 go ahead and raise your hand and tell me right away, so that we 12 can all sort of catch him and confirm.

13 And thank you to the marshal for pointing it out
14 while it was still happening, so we could catch it before it
15 was too late.

16 Does anybody else want to place anything on the
17 record?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, just briefly. It was 19 more like 10 minutes. So I would -- I would tell you that I
20 watched him, we watched him for about 10 minutes. So, him
21 sleeping for about 30 seconds, that's not true. He missed
22 about 10 minutes of Mr. Perez's cross.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre.

24 MR. MYHRE: I have -- we differ with Mr. Leventhal's
25 timing of this. We observed them, watching them, and it was

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 watching the jurors, watching the defense counsel, looking at 2 the juror. And we did not detect that he was asleep. We saw
3 that he was blinking his eyes with his head nodding. But in 4 terms of a 10-minute period, that's a long time. I think we
5 would have noticed if it was 10 minutes.

6 THE COURT: Yeah.

7 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again, I specifically took 8 the notes down just for this purpose. 4:02 to 4:05. 4:10 to 9 4:14. 4:14 to whichever it was that Your Honor took the break.

10 Mr. Myhre's recitation of him noticing us noticing
11 them also could demonstrate that there's some time there that 12 he missed us noticing them, noticing them, losing all the 13 noticing. But, I specifically categorized this -- cataloged
14 this rather for this purpose.

15 THE COURT: Well, the Court did notice that he was 16 specifically fidgety, and I wasn't sure if he needed to use the 17 bathroom or what. But he was fidgety earlier, so maybe he was 18 trying to keep himself awake by moving around some more.

19 But the juror thinks he was only out for 30 seconds,
20 and this is the first time it's been brought to my attention.
21 So, if it happens again, you need to bring to it my attention
22 so we can do something about it right away.

23 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, just one -- I'm sorry.

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 MR. MYHRE: Are we done with the juror?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. MYHRE: Okay. I just wanted to add to -- with
3 respect to Mr. Stewart. Yesterday, at sidebar, the agents who
4 are seated behind me noticed Mr. Stewart mouthed the words
5 "Because it's true." And I don't recall the exact context
6 of -- it was some dispute that we had that led us all to
7 sidebar.

8 So, these gestures that are continuing in the 9 mouthing, and also there was another very animated conversation
10 between Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart while we were at sidebar?

11 (Conferring with others.)

12 MR. MYHRE: About the -- yes, it was at sidebar today
13 as well between Mr. Parker and Mr. Stewart. At the point
14 when -- also, when Mr. -- excuse me -- Agent Seyler identified
15 Defendant Lovelien, he identified. He said he was wearing 16 glasses -- sunglasses on top of his head.

17 At that point, Lovelien -- Defendant Lovelien pulled 18 his glasses off and was looking at them to show they weren't
19 sunglasses. He was waving them like this.

20 Again, it's communication with the jury. We had made
21 our objection earlier, Your Honor, with respect to them facing 22 the jury. And we are concerned. We have Mr. Parker here who 23 periodically is reading what appears to be his Bible in front
24 of the jurors.

25 I don't know if that's meant to convey some sort

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 of -- that he has some religious affiliation. But these are
2 all communications that the government believes are
3 inappropriate, especially in their proximity to the jury and
4 the fact that they are facing the jury as well.

5 THE COURT: Well, I am not going to order Mr. Parker
6 that he can't read his Bible if he wants to, but he certainly 7 can't display it to the jury in any kind of an attempt to 8 influence the jury or to communicate to the jury any
9 information.

10 Likewise, with Mr. Stewart and Mr. Lovelien, you are 11 not to communicate with the jury or with anyone else or to make
12 any kind of expression.

13 All right. So, let's go ahead and get the jury back
14 in, so we can get a little bit more done with cross, and we 15 will invite Agent Seyler to come back in as well.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

18 (Jury in.)

19 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.
20 Everyone else may be seated as well.

21 All right. Mr. Perez, on behalf of Mr. Lovelien, you
22 can continue with your cross-examination of FBI Special Agent
23 Seyler.

24 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 Q. Special Agent, I believe before our break, we were

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 discussing corroboration.

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And in the course of your investigation, when you found a
4 relevant Facebook post, what did you do to try and corroborate
5 what was being said?

6 A. It would depend to the Facebook post. So, if I already
7 knew something about the individual, that they were somewhere,
8 and they were merely posting that they were in that location, I
9 already had corroboration.

10 But some of the things I could do would be to match
11 it up with telephone toll records, to look for other places on 12 Facebook or around the Internet where there was similar
13 activity, to look at photographs to see if the person was there
14 as well, interview witnesses. A number of different things you
15 can do.

16 Q. Right. Okay. Well, okay. Well, let's change from 17 Facebook just for a minute.

18 The phone records -- I believe it's Exhibit 187.
19 Okay. That's correct. Okay. Now, this is -- these are 20 telephone calls that were both made by Mr. Lovelien and 21 received by Mr. Lovelien; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Let me ask you, from memory, do you recall the time of --
24 where all the protesters were gathered in the wash, and SAC
25 Love was at the gate. I think that's called -- what? Post 2?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Is that Post 2? Post one? I don't know. It's the gate right
2 there.

3 Do you recall what time of the day that was?

4 A. No, I don't.

5 Q. Okay. Did you ever establish any time lines at all in the 6 things that you were doing as far as where different
7 individuals were at different times of the day, or is that
8 beyond what you were doing?

9 A. Only as it relates to their telephone and Facebook
10 conversations and some limited Internet activity, but not where 11 they were with photographs. Some other agents have done that.

12 Q. Okay. So, if I could just draw your attention to 13 April 12th at -- well, let's start at 12:19, 12:19 p.m.

14 Now, I'm assuming that's Nevada time; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And who did Mr. Lovelien call?

17 A. Made a call to his voice mail.

18 Q. Okay. And how long was he on that call?

19 A. Approximately two minutes.

20 Q. Okay. So, I mean, the assumption would be that he was 21 probably retrieving messages; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, at 12:32, Mr. Lovelien placed a four-minute
24 call; correct?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. And who was that call to?

2 A. To Cheyenne Miller.

3 Q. And it does say it was four minutes; correct?

4 A. Yes. It would have been approximately four minutes. The 5 telephone company rounds to the nearest minute, yes.

6 Q. Okay. Now, speaking of rounding calls, now, there is a --
7 Brian, if you could, is that the top of the page? I can't tell
8 from here.

9 Okay. There we go. Now, on 4/7 at 12:26 p.m.,
10 Mr. Lovelien calls Mr. Payne; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And he's on the phone for approximately nine minutes?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Right. Do you know the substance of that phone
15 conversation from your investigation?

16 A. I can make several assumptions based on Mr. Payne's other
17 conversations at that time.

18 Q. Okay. But only assumptions; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Now, at 9 -- let's see -- 9:48 on the 10th -- well,
21 actually, let's -- let's go up again for a second. Back to the 22 7th.

23 Now, I notice there's two calls up here, the 406.
24 There's nothing in the notes. Do you know whose numbers those 25 are?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Yes, I -- I do know who one of those numbers belonged to.

2 Q. Who is that, and which number?

3 A. The 293 number. (406)293-2741, I believe that belongs to
4 a chiropractor in Libby, Montana.

5 Q. Okay. Now, that's a pretty short conversation, one
6 minute. So, it could be -- it could be a -- well, let me ask
7 you.

8 Would -- based on what you know, if Mr. Lovelien was 9 to call someone and hang up, would it still show as one minute,
10 or does it require the phone to actually connect on the other
11 side?

12 A. It could show up as one minute if he hung up.

13 Q. It could?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. So misdial? I do it all the time. I sit on my phone. So
16 that would show up?

17 A. Could be. I think the phone call may actually have to go
18 through, so they could answer and then he could hang up.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. Or you could get someone's voice mail and hang up.

21 Q. Okay. All right. So then, for example, on -- well, let's
22 see. On 4/10, there's five phone calls made starting at 10:18
23 in the morning to 2:30 in the afternoon to Mr. Payne.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And those are all one minute?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. So, we have really no way of knowing whether or not
3 Mr. Lovelien actually spoke to Mr. Payne?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. Brian, scroll up a little bit.

6 And the same thing with -- on -- on 4/12, at 10:02,
7 there is a one minute or less call to Randy Eaton; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Now, where was Randy Eaton on 4/12?

10 A. Kalispell, Montana.

11 Q. He was in Montana?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So, he was not at Bunkerville?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. You can take that down, Brian. Thank you. Brian, 16 bring up 188, please.

17 Now, 188, if I'm not mistaken, I think it's -- what?
18 Like, four pages? It's got the 7th, the 8th, the 9th, the 19 10th, 11th, 12th?

20 A. Yes, all those dates.

21 Q. Six pages. Okay. And this is a summary of what you
22 observed on Facebook and what you observed on phone records;
23 correct?

24 A. Some of what I observed, yes.

25 Q. Okay. And why do you say "some of"?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. It would have been too voluminous to put everything on
2 there, and so I just put some of the information on there.

3 Q. Okay. So, for example, let's go to the 12th. So, it
4 was -- it was -- it was too voluminous to put on there that at 5 12:32, Mr. Lovelien called his sister and spoke for four
6 minutes?

7 A. At the time we prepared this chart, yes. It was not
8 something we chose to put on the chart.

9 Q. Okay. All right. Back to the 7th. Now, at 12:30 on the 10 7th, there's a Facebook post. Now, telling, you know, other
11 militia leaders or whatever to contact Ryan Payne at OMA;
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So, Ryan Payne would be considered to be in charge?

15 A. He indicates that he's setting up security ops, yes.

16 Q. Well, more than just security ops though. Wasn't Ryan
17 Payne more than just security?

18 A. Oh, yes. He was the coordinator of the militia effort,
19 yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now, did -- in your observing these Facebook posts,
21 did you come across any Facebook posts where Mr. Lovelien
22 actually says, you know, "Contact me"? Or does he always refer
23 people to Mr. Payne?

24 A. I believe some of his Facebook posts to the MTDF group, he
25 indicated "Contact me or Ryan Payne."

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Now, that was just to his specific militia group in
2 Montana; correct?

3 A. Yes, anybody in his Facebook, yes.

4 Q. Okay. And do you know how many members the MTDf had?

5 A. I don't. Their Facebook group had maybe approximately 60.
6 I don't know for sure.

7 Q. Maybe 60 Facebook friends?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. But not necessarily members?

10 A. Yes. I don't know how they maintained their membership
11 rolls.

12 Q. Okay. You can take that down Brian. Exhibit 37.

13 (Exhibit 37 being played.)

14 MR. PEREZ: No, don't play it. Actually, take that 15 down. I don't need it on there.

16 Q. The -- now, the Bundys had a Facebook page as well;
17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you recall how many Facebook friends they had?

20 A. No.

21 Q. We didn't see an exhibit of the Bundy Facebook page; did 22 we?

23 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

24 MR. PEREZ: Well, we are talking about the Bundy
25 Ranch. All this is Facebook.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE COURT: You said "We did not see." That's
2 misleading.

3 BY MR. PEREZ:

4 Q. Well, okay. You've seen the Bundy Facebook page?

5 A. There were several pages associated with the Bundy family.
6 There was one that was called the Bundy Ranch Facebook page,
7 yes.

8 Q. Who set those up?

9 A. A number of people may have set those up.

10 Q. So, it wasn't necessarily the Bundys?

11 A. Some of them could have been set up by other individuals.
12 Some of them were clearly set up by the Bundys.

13 Q. Okay. Well, that leads me to something else. So, if --
14 let's talk specifically about Cheyenne Miller.

15 Cheyenne Miller could post to the Montana Defense --
16 the MTDF website or Facebook?

17 A. Facebook group, yes.

18 Q. And if she was to post something from there, is it
19 possible that that post would reflect that it was posted by 20 Mr. Lovelien?

21 A. No.

22 Q. And why is that?

23 A. Because it would have been posted from her Facebook
24 account.

25 Q. And if she had access to his Facebook page?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. You mean if he had given her his password, and he was
2 actually --

3 Q. Right.

4 A. Yes, anybody could do that if you give their them your 5 password.

6 Q. All right. Now, during the time of the events on the 7 12th, did Mr. Lovelien post anything that you are aware of on
8 Facebook?

9 A. Not to 12th, no.

10 Q. Okay. How about on the 11th?

11 A. Not to my knowledge.

12 Q. When was the last Facebook post that you saw by
13 Mr. Lovelien?

14 A. I believe it would have been approximately the 10th.

15 Q. Okay. Now, do you know when Mr. Lovelien actually arrived
16 in Bunkerville?

17 A. I do.

18 Q. If you know?

19 A. I do. I have to refer to the chart.

20 Q. That's fine. If you could tell, that would be great.
21 What day? What time?

22 A. I believe it was approximately 12:30 when his sister
23 posted that he had arrived on the 10th.

24 Q. So, that would be 12:30 Nevada time?

25 A. Correct. That's when I think her post went up.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Now, as far as, like, the time signatures, I have
2 seen this UTC and different times signatures. And how do we
3 know what time it was actually posted?

4 I mean, there's a big time difference between,
5 obviously, like, for example, here and Pennsylvania. I think
6 it might be three hours. If I posted something here and 7 somebody saw it in Pennsylvania, what time signature would be
8 on that post?

9 A. If someone was viewing it in Pennsylvania, it would show
10 up as the time that they're viewing it there on their own
11 Facebook page. So, for instance, if somebody posted something
12 at, I guess, maybe noon on -- in Las Vegas, and somebody was 13 viewing it in Pennsylvania, they may be looking at it, and it
14 may say it's, you know, 2:00 or 3:00 o'clock.

15 Q. So that UTC time signature in there doesn't really -- it's 16 not like a standard -- like Greenwich Mean Time, you know, we 17 have a 24-hour clock or whatever.

18 We can say, yeah, it was posted at 8:00 a.m. in 19 London, and, you know, might be, you know, 7:00 in the morning,
20 or whatever the time difference is. You know, it wouldn't have 21 just one particular time signature?

22 A. No, that's the purpose of Facebook providing us their 23 records with the UTC time as the only time. Therefore, we are 24 able to convert what time it would have been whenever somebody
25 viewed it or made the post.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 So, that's why Facebook provides us just the UTC
2 time. That is exactly when it occurred.

3 Q. So, that's -- that's the time it was posted, not the time
4 it was viewed?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. So, for example, if OMA posted something that showed up on 7 Mr. Lovelien's wall, the time that you received from the
8 Facebook records is not necessarily the time that Mr. Lovelien
9 saw it? I mean, there's no way to know; right?

10 A. No way to know when someone viewed something, no.

11 Q. Yeah, when they view it. I mean, is there a way to say,
12 well, you know, he either saw it or didn't see it?

13 A. Sure. If they share it or like it at a certain time, it
14 will time stamp when they did that.

15 Q. Okay. Let me ask you about likes. That came up on one of 16 the posts. Mr. Lovelien liked a particular message or posting.

17 Physically, how do you do that with Facebook?

18 A. All you have to do is click on "like."

19 Q. Can you unlike it if you clicked on it?

20 A. I believe so, yes.

21 Q. And when you like something on your Facebook page, does it
22 send, like, a notification to the originator of that Facebook
23 post?

24 A. I'm not sure that it sends a message to them, but it is 25 possible to look about how many likes you have on your page,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 and you are able to see how many people have liked a certain
2 post. And to some degree, depending on the settings, you can
3 see the identities of those people that, in fact, liked your
4 post.

5 Q. Okay. So, on my Facebook page, then it would say liked
6 by, and then it would have everybody listed?

7 A. You may have to actually search for that on there, but it
8 is one of the possibilities. And it depends on their settings
9 as well, yes.

10 Q. Did you happen to notice anything like that on the MTDF
11 Facebook page?

12 A. We didn't have access to the MTDF Facebook group.

13 Q. And why was that?

14 A. It was a private group, so we didn't have access to it.

15 Q. You didn't obtain access to that through a search warrant?

16 A. We attempted to. Facebook could not provide us records
17 for that for whatever reason.

18 Q. Okay. So, you never saw the MTDF website?

19 A. The Facebook group? No.

20 Q. Well, Facebook group. Did they have another website?

21 A. MTDF? Yes, they did at one time, yes.

22 Q. And did you obtain those records as well?

23 A. We didn't obtain those records. That website was closed
24 by the time these events occurred.

25 Q. Well, I mean, couldn't you have obtained those with a

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 warrant?

2 A. Not unless the judge wanted to believe that those were
3 somehow relevant to this investigation. We could only obtain
4 what was relevant to this investigation. So, something that 5 occurred several months earlier, that was not relevant, we 6 wouldn't have asked for a warrant on that.

7 Q. So, well, I mean, the Montana Defense Force website would
8 certainly be relevant, if the Montana Defense Force was 9 involved in this Bunkerville experience; wouldn't it?

10 A. I had no information that any of the other members, in the 11 time frame long before this event happened, were ever
12 discussing this or doing anything about with it. So, no. We 13 had no probable cause to go to the judge and ask for those 14 records.

15 Q. Okay. And speaking of members, I mean, how many MTF
16 members actually came to Bunkerville?

17 A. Rick Lovelien, Ryan Payne, James Lardy, Nic Whiting, and a
18 man from Idaho. And I'm not sure of the others, but that would 19 be --

20 Q. Ryan Payne wasn't a member of the Montana Defense Force;
21 was he?

22 A. He was member of their group, yes. The Facebook group.

23 Q. Facebook group. Now, I'm not talking about Facebook
24 groups, because you have already told me that I could be a
25 member of OMA Facebook, but it doesn't necessarily mean that

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 I'm OMA; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And it's the same thing with Montana Defense Force?

4 A. Again, I don't know how they maintained their membership
5 rolls, whether they were considered a member, not a member.
6 That's not important to us.

7 Q. If you don't know how they maintained their rolls and who
8 was in there, how do you know that Ryan Payne was a member?

9 A. I knew that he was member of the Facebook group. I
10 thought that's what you were asking.

11 Q. But not in the militia itself?

12 A. Again, I don't know if he was or wasn't.

13 Q. Okay. Now, on -- we saw a Facebook from Mr. Lardy.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And Mr. Lardy, in essence, resigned from the Montana
16 Defense Force; correct?

17 A. That was his statement, yes.

18 Q. Okay. And he went to the West Mountain Rangers; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, the West Mountain Rangers was Ryan Payne?

21 A. His group, yes.

22 Q. His group. Not a Facebook page. His actual group?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. And if I'm not mistaken, I believe that Mr. Lardy
25 resigned from the Montana State Defense Force for tactical

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 reasons?

2 A. That was his statement, yes.

3 Q. Okay. Do you know what he meant by that?

4 A. I would only be guessing what he meant by that.

5 Q. Well, don't guess if you don't know.

6 A. I'm not sure exactly why he did.

7 Q. Okay. So, I want to ask you a bit about notifications
8 from -- well, we will use OMA.

9 If someone receives a notification or a notification
10 is sent out, and we saw that list of, you know, God knows how 11 many people in there. Those people received a notification
12 that something was posted; correct?

13 A. Are you referring to the Operation Mutual Aid emails that 14 were sent out?

15 Q. Well, yeah. Now, those are generated from their website
16 or from their Facebook page?

17 A. From their email account.

18 Q. From their email account. Not from the website?

19 A. Not from the website. From the email account.

20 Q. Well, now, correct me if I'm wrong, but I think you said
21 that those mailings that come from OMA, those lists, they 22 are -- these individuals either request information or 23 Mr. Bruckhart or Ryan Payne would just decide you might want to 24 see this, and they'd send it out; right?

25 A. They could go to the OMA website, join the website, put

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 down their email address, and if Jerry Bruckhart and Ryan Payne
2 decided they wanted to send emails to that person, they could
3 send emails and did.

4 Q. And so those would be just, like, have nothing to do with
5 the website at all? Just with independent email?

6 A. Yes. They could send an email out to whomever they wanted
7 to, yes, from the operationmutualaid1 Gmail account.

8 Q. Okay. And you got those records; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now, let's go back to notification for a second.
11 So, this notification goes out, and it tells the person that,
12 hey, there's something you might want to see. Is that how it
13 works?

14 A. You mean when someone receives an email? You just --

15 Q. Well, yeah. The notification, like -- well, you said -- I
16 don't remember what this was in response to, but something
17 about a notification would be sent out.

18 Like, Cheyenne Miller, for example, would receive a
19 notification that there was maybe a posting or something on OMA
20 that she might be interested in.

21 A. Specifically with OMA?

22 Q. Well, yeah. Let's use OMA. We're talking about
23 generalities, but OMA is a good generality.

24 A. It's possible they had something set up on their website
25 to alert their members, but I am not aware of it.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. So, but just because somebody's email address --
2 Mr. Lovelien or whomever -- doesn't necessarily mean that --
3 that they looked at whatever this notification was about?

4 A. It's --

5 Q. Correct?

6 A. -- just an email, so he received an email. And like
7 anyone else, you can look at an email or delete an email.

8 Q. And there's no way to know when he would look at it?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Do you know if Mr. Lovelien had a smart phone with him at 11 Bunkerville?

12 A. I don't.

13 Q. Okay. But you said he had no posts from the time that he 14 was in Bunkerville?

15 A. To my knowledge, that's true. Yes.

16 Q. And he didn't have any posts until he returned home, and
17 we saw the one post where he said, "Hey, I'm home safe"?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. Now, Brian, let me see 176.

20 Okay. Now, this was the objectives of the Operation
21 Mutual Aid. And this was written by either Mr. Bruckhart or 22 Mr. Payne; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. It was not written by Mr. Lovelien?

25 A. Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Now, he may have reposted it. Did you see a repost
2 of this on his Facebook at all?

3 A. It was reposted by his sister on the MTDf --

4 Q. But not by Mr. Lovelien?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Exhibit 65. Scroll down. Scroll back up again. Just --
7 right there.

8 Okay. Now, this Operation Mutual Aid, this is a post
9 on their Facebook page; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. Now, I know that Mr. Payne was in Montana.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And I believe Mr. Bruckhart was in Pennsylvania.

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And this post came from Hamlin, West Virginia?

16 A. That's what's listed on there, yes.

17 Q. Right. So, who wrote that?

18 A. It very well could have been Mr. Bruckhart. Pennsylvania
19 and West Virginia are fairly choice to each other, and there
20 was an operation that OMA was discussing about engaging in in 21 West Virginia at that time, so --

22 Q. But you don't know for sure. That would be a guess?

23 A. It would be whoever was operating that website or that 24 Facebook group, yes. Facebook page rather.

25 Q. So, not necessarily Mr. Payne and not necessarily

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Mr. Bruckhart?

2 A. That would be Mr. Bruckhart. The language I recognize
3 from other posts that he has.

4 Q. Only by the language, not by anything else?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Just your familiarity?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. You can take that down, Brian. 79.

9 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, I have got a bit more to go.
10 I don't know if we are close to 5:00.

11 THE COURT: It's 4:59. We can go ahead and take our 12 break now.

13 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. So, meet back here at 9:00.
15 Right, Aaron?

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. So, we will go ahead and take 18 our overnight break.

19 I do remind the jury that during this overnight
20 break, remember, please, you are not to discuss this case with 21 anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it with you. You can speak
22 to your fellow jurors about other things but not about this
23 case.

24 Same goes with spouses, employers, anyone else who is 25 asking you, are you still in that trial? Is it still going on?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Things like that. You can say, yes, you are still in trial, so
2 your employer knows that you are not going to be at work, but
3 please do not speak about anything else.

4 Also, if anyone does attempt to speak to you about
5 the case, you need to bring it to the Court's attention right
6 away, so we can make sure that it's inadvertent and not
7 intentional, and also to find out what information was provided
8 to see if it's harmless or important. So, please bring to it
9 the Court's attention right away.

10 Likewise, if you inadvertently hear something in an 11 elevator, in the bathroom, in the smoking area, anything like 12 that, please let us know right away.

13 Remember you are not to read, or listen to, or view
14 anything that touches upon this case in any way. Do not 15 attempt to perform any research or any independent
16 investigation.

17 Go ahead and keep writing down those questions. And 18 please do not form any opinion about the case until after you
19 have heard all the testimony, received all the evidence, then I
20 will provide to you written jury instructions, you will hear
21 closing arguments, and then you can begin deliberating,
22 discussing your opinions with each other, but not until then.

23 So, we'll stand for the jury and welcome you back at 24 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

25 (Jury out.)

4 (Jury out.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: All right. Everyone may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial, Day 6, in Case No. 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL, United
9 States of America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky
10 Lovelien and Steven Stewart.

11 Counsel, please enter your appearances for the 12 record.

13 THE COURT: All right. So, actually, we are going to 14 skip the appearances until after the jury gets here.

15 But before we bring them in, I just want to make it
16 clear the expectations that we have for how everyone will 17 conduct themselves during the trial.

18 It's not a sporting event. This is a courtroom. So,
19 there are no expressions, whether verbally or through body
20 language, that are permissible. That means no matter how much
21 you agree or disagree with what is being said, there should be 22 no display or communication to anyone about what is your 23 opinion or any information or hand movements.

24 In addition, people who are permitted to speak in 25 court, the attorneys have microphones. All the other

1 microphones have been removed. During sidebars, the
2 microphones will be muted.

3 The marshals have the authority to follow through
4 with the Court's expectations, which are that the defendants
5 are not to speak while the attorneys and the judge is at
6 sidebar.

7 That means they are not to speak with each other nor 8 to speak out to the jury. Likewise, defendants are not to 9 write anything on the back of legal pads and hold it up for the 10 jury while we are at sidebar.

11 We have the holding cell. It has the communication
12 speaker set up. If we need to put someone in there today, if 13 you can't follow directions, which I think are very fair and 14 reasonable directions, it's going to be a little embarrassing.
15 But if that's what needs to happen, then that's what will
16 happen.

17 We'll take a break. The jury will leave. I will 18 have the marshals escort the defendant, whoever it is, is the 19 offending person, into the holding cell, and we will continue.
20 The jury will come back in, and we will continue.

21 All right. Now, remember, please, also, that there
22 are no electronic devices allowed in the courtroom. So, please
23 double check to make sure you don't have one. Even if it's in 24 private mode, or vibrate mode, or even completely turned off,
25 it's not permitted in the courtroom. So please take it

1 outside, otherwise the marshals or CSOs will take it.

2 There's no recording in federal court. So, only the 3 attorneys are permitted to have electronic devices and only for 4 the purpose of presenting evidence, reviewing evidence, things
5 of that nature. There's no audio recording or video recording
6 permitted in federal court.

7 All right. So, we're going to go ahead and bring in
8 the jury.

9 And I think, Mr. Perez, you weren't done with 10 cross-examination. Right?

11 MR. PEREZ: Correct, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So, when the jury comes in, we'll have 13 everybody sit down, and then we will have the attorneys make
14 their appearances on the record, and then we'll have Mr. Perez
15 come on up to the podium and continue with cross-examination.

16 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. MYHRE: May we inquire as to what the message was 19 that was on the back of a pad as to whether we need some sort
20 of instruction to the jury? We didn't observe that. I don't
21 know.

22 THE COURT: I'll leave it to you to talk to counsel
23 about that first.

24 MR. MYHRE: All right.

25 THE COURT: And then if you need to raise an

1 objection, you can. But --

2 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 (Jury in.)

4 THE COURT: The jury may go ahead and be seated.

5 Will the parties please make their appearances.

6 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor, ladies and
7 gentlemen of the jury. Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia
8 Ahmed on behalf of the United States.

9 THE COURT: Good morning.

10 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.
11 Good morning, folks. Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart. Also 12 with us at counsel table helping us out is Tori Bakken and 13 Brian Glynn. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Good morning.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
16 morning, everyone. Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
18 morning, everyone. Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Shawn Perez on
21 behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: Good morning. And we also have FBI
23 Special Agent Seyler back on the witness stand. Thank you,
24 sir, for coming back on time.

25 So, we're going to continue now with

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 cross-examination by counsel for Mr. Lovelien.

2 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. MYHRE:

4 Q. Good morning, Agent Seyler.

5 A. Good morning.

6 Q. How are you this morning?

7 A. I'm sorry?

8 Q. I said how are you this morning?

9 A. Fine. Thank you.

10 Q. I'm trying to be brief. Not as long as yesterday.

11 Yesterday, we sort of left off talking about email
12 and -- and the differences on how websites might send out
13 notifications and things of that nature.

14 Now, Brian, if I could bring up Exhibit 60. Brian,
15 can you scroll down to where it's got the -- right there.
16 That's fine.

17 The registered email address is on there,
18 ricky.lovelien@facebook and astromanic911@yahoo.

19 Now, in those MTDf, I guess, notifications, we didn't 20 see either of those email addresses; did we?

21 A. Correct. We did not.

22 Q. Okay. And then on the OMA notification, where it said
23 Captain Ricky Lovelien, it wasn't either one of those email
24 addresses either; was it?

25 A. Correct. It was not.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Now, did you obtain any emails from either of those
2 two email addresses?

3 A. No, we did not.

4 Q. Is there any particular reason why?

5 A. We had no information that Ricky Lovelien was using either
6 of those emails to conduct activity that would have been
7 relevant to this investigation. We can't obtain legal process
8 to get access to an email account unless we have probable
9 cause.

10 Q. Right.

11 A. We have some reason to believe that that would --

12 Q. So, you never saw any emails going back and forth. Is 13 that what you are saying essentially?

14 A. Correct. I never saw emails from these two accounts, no,
15 sir.

16 Q. Okay. Brian, bring up 74, would you, please?

17 So, the -- this is a Facebook post -- or exactly what
18 is -- what is this from MTFD?

19 A. So, from MTFD, this is showing a post that Rick Lovelien
20 made to the MTFD Facebook group. It was then forwarded to Ryan 21 Payne's email because of the settings that Ryan Payne had in
22 his Facebook account.

23 Q. Okay. Well, what is this email address that's on the top?
24 This ZR. I mean, it's almost unrecognizable, but that's 25 obviously not one of those two registered email addresses?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Correct. That's an address that Facebook used to forward
2 that message to Ryan Payne's email account.

3 Q. Okay. So, that's not an email that Mr. Lovelien sets up
4 then?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. That's done internally by Facebook?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. Now, this -- this posting here, do you actually
9 know if it's something that he put on his wall or was this -- I
10 mean, did he write this information here? Do you know?

11 A. This particular information, I know from other posts in 12 that account that he received this text from someone else, and 13 he very likely copied this text into the message himself which 14 he then sent out.

15 Q. Okay. So, he did not draft this?

16 A. As far as I know, he copied this text, yes --

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. -- into -- into a message of his own. So, I guess he 19 drafted that second message.

20 Q. So, basically, like a repost?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. Now, Brian, Exhibit 61, please.

23 Okay. Now, this is --

24 THE COURT: Can we just clarify something? Are you
25 saying a repost or a cut and paste?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE WITNESS: A cut and paste and then posted
2 himself.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. I believe this is Facebook page 66 up at the top; correct?
6 Is that what that is?

7 A. Yes, I believe so.

8 Q. Okay. Now, this -- explain to me exactly what this is 9 where it says "groups"?

10 A. This is a list of the groups that Ricky Lovelien, at the 11 time of the warrant, was a member of on Facebook.

12 Q. Okay. And when -- do you recall approximately the date of 13 the warrant?

14 A. Approximately June of 2014.

15 Q. June -- okay. So, following the Bundy incident?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. Now, nowhere on those groups is there an indication
18 of OMA; is there?

19 A. OMA did not have a Facebook group to my knowledge.

20 Q. Okay. But they had Facebook postings though; correct?

21 A. They had a Facebook page which is different. So, you
22 didn't join OMA on Facebook. They had a page that you could go
23 to and view and post to their -- to their page, but that's 24 different than having a group.

25 Q. Okay. Now, Brian, Exhibit 62, please.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Now, this Exhibit 62 is a list of Mr. Lovelien's
2 friends for the most part; correct?

3 A. Facebook friends.

4 Q. Right, Facebook friends. And that would have been the 5 same time in that June of 2014?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Now, there's no alphabetical order or -- or I guess
8 chronological order to the friends?

9 A. Not to my knowledge.

10 Q. Okay. So, for example, Michael Cohn at the top wasn't
11 necessarily Mr. Lovelien's first Facebook friend?

12 A. Not to my knowledge.

13 Q. Okay. And, so, I mean, it looks almost like they might be 14 numerical by account number? Is that possible?

15 A. It's possible.

16 Q. Okay. Brian, Exhibit 73, please. Can you scroll down
17 just -- that's good.

18 Now, is this a private message, or is it amongst more
19 than two people, or is this one message, or -- explain to me
20 this particular sequence on here.

21 A. Are you talking about which post, sir?

22 Q. Well, I mean, you've got the one on top. Okay. I'm 23 assuming maybe that that space in between the first post, which 24 would have been 4/10/2014 at 2:23 UTC, and then the next one,
25 which looks like 4/9/18:52, that's a separate post. It's

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 not -- it's not the same conversation?

2 A. Correct. These are two different conversations.

3 Q. Okay. Now, the -- did you know if Mr. Lovelien ever
4 responded to Mr. Parks?

5 A. Unless it would have come after the time of this search
6 warrant, no. This would indicate this was the only post in 7 that particular communication with Mr. Parks.

8 Q. Okay. And, Brian, scroll up a little bit.

9 And so what was before that? Do we know?

10 A. That would have been another conversation. This is 11 nothing between Mr. Parks.

12 Q. So that's -- that's the only part of the conversation
13 right there?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Well, it seems to me that -- that Mr. Parks is responding
16 to somebody in a conversation.

17 A. Yes.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Is there a question there?

19 BY MR. PEREZ:

20 Q. Well, I mean, it looks to me like this post is not 21 complete; correct? So, I am missing -- so perhaps we need
22 page 1785?

23 A. No. This was the only individual conversation that
24 Mr. Parks engaged in with Mr. Lovelien. Mr. Lovelien earlier
25 in time, in the previous two days, was engaging in very large

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 conversations with militia leaders across the country.

2 Mr. Parks may have been involved in one of those conversations,
3 and that's where -- and Mr. Lovelien was posting information
4 about Operation Mutual Aid, and who was going to Bunkerville,
5 and how. And it's from one of those conversations very likely
6 that Mr. Parks obtained Mr. Lovelien's contact information.

7 Q. Okay. Let me stop you right there, because yesterday when 8 I asked you about the conversations and how they stayed on the 9 page, you said if there was anything related to that
10 conversation, it would follow sequentially in the Facebook
11 record. And that's not true; is it?

12 A. No, you misunderstood me. Everything in the conversation
13 between the participants is always done chronologically. It
14 doesn't have anything to do with context of the conversation or 15 whatever theme they are discussing.

16 If you have a conversation between five individuals,
17 that's going to all be listed chronologically until those five
18 individuals are done discussing whatever they are discussing.
19 And then there will be a new conversation started.

20 Q. So -- so, where is the rest of this conversation?

21 A. By -- you mean the earlier conversation with --

22 Q. Well, I mean, this J.D. Parks, I mean, he wrote this and 23 sent it to Ricky Lovelien. Where is the rest of the 24 conversation? In the return to the warrant, when you got the 25 documents back from Facebook, where -- yesterday you said,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 "Yeah, we can follow the whole conversation." Where is the
2 rest of the conversation?

3 A. By conversation, you mean an individual conversation
4 between Mr. Lovelien and Mr. Parks?

5 Q. Well, that -- that would be considered a conversation,
6 right here; correct? Between Mr. Parks and Mr. Lovelien?

7 A. So, yes. This would.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Now, Mr. Parks and Mr. Lovelien could have been involved
10 in a much larger conversation with other individuals, which 11 would have showed up elsewhere in the search warrant return.

12 As I said, Mr. Lovelien was involved in several of 13 those conversations. I could go back through and check and see
14 if Mr. Parks was participating in those conversations as well,
15 which would be consistent with the post that you see here.

16 Q. So, essentially, if I have another Facebook page like,
17 let's say, 976 or 967, it's possible that it could be part of 18 this same conversation? I mean, we don't know?

19 A. By conversation, if you mean just between Mr. Parks and 20 Mr. Lovelien, no, that's not the case. Both of them may have 21 participated in another conversation, with other individuals,
22 which would have been contained elsewhere in the search warrant
23 return.

24 Q. Okay. Brian, scroll down.

25 Okay. Now, in this -- this second conversation with

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Marc A., it appears that Marc A. is -- is looking for
2 information about what's happening at the Bundy Ranch; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And Mr. Lovelien, in fact, doesn't tell him anything. He
5 just says "Contact this person"; correct?

6 A. I'd have to review the whole conversation, but that sounds
7 consistent, yes.

8 Q. Okay. Brian, Exhibit 79, please.

9 Now, this is another email notification from the 10 Montana Defense Force?

11 A. This is a post that Cheyenne Miller made to the Montana
12 State Defense Force Facebook group, which was forwarded to Ryan
13 Payne's email.

14 Q. Okay. And this Facebook -- this particular post was not 15 made by Mr. Lovelien; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. Brian, you can take that down. Exhibit 66, please.

18 And, okay. And Brian, can you zoom in on the -- on 19 the gun butt?

20 Okay. Now, Agent Seyler, yesterday you said, yes, it
21 appeared that Mr. Lovelien's hand was on the gun; correct?

22 A. I don't recall saying that.

23 Q. You don't recall what you testified to? Okay. Well,
24 let's go through it right now.

25 Now, the gun itself -- and it's unique. It's got

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 skulls on it. We all know that. We saw other pictures of that
2 from Mr. Lovelien's Facebook.

3 Now, the way that gun is positioned on Mr. Lovelien's
4 body is barrel down; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Now, can you tell from that photograph whether 7 the -- let's call it the magazine -- would be towards the 8 Jersey barrier or away from the Jersey barrier?

9 A. I can't tell from that photograph.

10 Q. Okay. So, you really don't know if the gun -- if 11 Mr. Lovelien's hand is anywhere near the trigger or if it's on 12 the other side of the gun?

13 A. Correct. It's near the gun.

14 Q. All right. It's near the gun, but it's not on the 15 trigger; right?

16 A. I can't tell whether it is or not.

17 Q. Exactly.

18 A. That would certainly --

19 Q. Thank you.

20 MR. PEREZ: Brian, you can take that down.

21 Actually, Your Honor, I think that's it.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Agent.

24 THE COURT: Counsel for Mr. Parker.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. MARCHESE:

Q. Good morning, Agent.

A. Good morning.

Q. Now, turning your attention back to April of 2014, you were working in Salt Lake City at the time; correct?

A. Montana, actually.

Q. Okay. And now you work in Salt Lake City?

A. No, I am part of the Salt Lake City Field Division for the FBI, which Montana is part of. So, I work out of the Helena, Montana, office and was at the time.

Q. So, kind of a smaller subsidiary; fair to say? Something along those lines?

A. Correct.

Q. All right. So, you are working in Montana. And, generally, what are your duties at that time?

A. I was an investigator, a case agent on domestic terrorism and militia cases primarily.

Q. Okay. And when you are looking at domestic terrorism cases, at that time, you are mainly looking in the Montana area?

A. Correct, in Montana and then if individuals in Montana are extending beyond our borders and committing crimes elsewhere, we, of course, work with agents in other divisions to address that.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. Because I would imagine, given the nature of what
2 you do, that is going to happening on a regular basis. You are
3 going to have interstate investigations. Fair to say?

4 A. Sometimes, yes.

5 Q. Okay. So, one of the things that you did, you were 6 investigating Mr. Lovelien; correct?

7 A. We were not investigating Mr. Lovelien until this
8 incident, yes.

9 Q. Okay. When did that start, approximately? When did the 10 Bundy Ranch incident, for lack of a better term, come to your 11 attention and you started investigating?

12 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Just back story.

14 THE COURT: Back story, is that relevant?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it's not -- I asked him when.
16 When he started investigating the case. I find that's very 17 relevant. I am not asking him what he found out, I am just 18 asking him when he started.

19 THE COURT: What he found out is more relevant than 20 when he started.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. When did you find out?

23 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Vague. Found out what?

24 MR. MARCHESE: I can't ask a question if -- I'm
25 trying to -- can I ask him when he started investigating --

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 when this came to his attention and he started investigating?

2 THE COURT: When was he assigned to this case?

3 MR. MARCHESE: No, when the Bundy Ranch, when he
4 started -- he clearly investigated it. We've had a day and
5 half of the testimony on it. I just want to find out when he
6 started.

7 THE COURT: When he started. When he was assigned to
8 this case?

9 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, when he started investigating.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. When did you start investigating this incident at the 13 Bundy Ranch, approximately, if you remember?

14 A. So, if I can clarify, just the Bundy Ranch, I was 15 investigating Ryan Payne prior to that, but you want just the 16 Bundy Ranch?

17 Q. Correct.

18 A. It would have been April the 7th.

19 Q. Okay. So, Brian, if we can pull up Exhibit 65, and go to 20 page 2. Right there.

21 So, yesterday, you were asked about this particular
22 Facebook post; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you remember that?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. And just to be clear, this Facebook post is -- has to do
2 with the state of Montana; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. All right. So, at this time, you were not investigating
5 the Bundy Ranch incident; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. So, it would be fair to say that based on your 8 investigation, that this particular post was unrelated to the 9 Bundy Ranch?

10 A. At the time it was made, it was unrelated to the Bundy
11 Ranch. In hindsight now, you can see the mindset of the 12 individuals involved. So I would say it's relevant at this
13 point.

14 Q. Well, generally speaking, so that you're saying that the 15 mindset is related; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. But this particular post specifically is not about that;
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. And if we can go to Exhibit 55, please, Brian.
21 And go right to the middle of the page. Right there.

22 Now, this particular post right here, we went over
23 this yesterday. And this had to do with your investigation
24 consisting of Mr. Payne; correct?

25 A. Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. And Mr. Bruckhart, he's not from your geographic location
2 that you investigate; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. But based on the nature of what you do, you started
5 looking into him due to these communications; correct?

6 A. We started looking -- the FBI started looking at 7 Mr. Bruckhart at the same time as we began looking at Mr. Payne
8 back in 2013.

9 Q. Okay. So, based on your investigation, you did start
10 looking at some of the things, activities that Mr. Bruckhart
11 was into; correct?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. All right. So, based upon this post that was introduced
14 into evidence yesterday, they mention that there was a -- that 15 they needed help, the Bundy Ranch family with the military 16 standoff going on right now; is that a correct statement of the 17 post?

18 A. Yes, that's what's -- the text in that post.

19 Q. Okay. And that post was made on April the 8th of 2014; is
20 that correct?

21 A. April the 7th, actually. I'm sorry. You are correct.
22 April the 8th.

23 Q. Okay. And Brian, if we can bring up Exhibit 175, please.
24 And this is an email that I believe you got pursuant to a
25 search warrant?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. And I believe the date on this -- it's a little
3 hard to read, but I have it down as April 8th of 2014. Does
4 that sound correct?

5 A. That sounds correct. It would be on the far upper
6 right-hand corner. I don't think we can see it on the screen.

7 Q. Okay. He's trying, but he can't --

8 A. April the 8th. I do see it there.

9 Q. There we go. So that would be the same date as the -- the 10 last Facebook post that we spoke about; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And Brian, if we can get it back to the text, please.

13 And on the second line that I'm circling --

14 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Judge, this is an exhibit that they
16 entered into evidence.

17 THE COURT: Yeah, overruled.

18 BY MR. MARCHESE:

19 Q. It says that the feds arrested some protesters and the 20 words "We need you now" were uttered. That's a correct
21 statement?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. And Brian, if we can get up Exhibit 53.

24 Now, this particular post, this was not made by Ryan
25 Payne; correct?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And I believe the last one was from Operation Mutual Aid,
3 if I remember correctly. You know better than me.

4 A. The last email that we looked at?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. Yes, that was from Operation Mutual Aid.

7 Q. And this was from Carol Bundy; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. All right. So, in this particular source, this was 10 April 9th of 2014. That's the date on that; right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Now, in this particular post, you testified earlier on 13 direct examination that Miss Bundy is the wife of Cliven Bundy;
14 correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And in this particular post, Miss Bundy says that she 17 would like to remind everyone or all of you -- excuse me --
18 that we want to stand for liberty and freedom; is that correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And she wants everyone to remain peaceful; correct?

21 A. That's what she typed, yes.

22 Q. Okay. And that she wants to let America know that we the 23 people are standing up for their rights; is that correct?

24 A. That's what was in her post, yes.

25 Q. Thank you. And Brian, if we can bring up Exhibit 59,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 page 2. If you go down a little bit more, please.

2 Now, who is this particular correspondence from?

3 A. From Ryan Payne and an individual with the moniker
4 Texasmilitia Northtexas.

5 Q. Okay. And this is on April 10th, I believe; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Can you go up a little bit, Brian? I think I might have
8 pulled up the wrong exhibit.

9 Do you remember a post in which they said -- I
10 believe it was Mr. Payne -- that they said there was no militia
11 here yet?

12 A. I did recall the post. I don't remember exactly who he 13 was talking to at that time.

14 Q. Okay. Do you remember the date of that particular post?

15 A. No, I don't.

16 Q. Okay. Fair enough. Move on. Thank you.

17 Now, on direct examination, there were two videos
18 that were entered, both with Mr. Ryan Payne. Do you remember
19 that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What I have down is we have Exhibits 37 and 78. You
22 probably don't remember the -- the exact numbers, but one of 23 them was a Ryan Payne video from April 9th. Do you remember
24 that?

25 A. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. And that was the one that you stated that you had
2 downloaded from the Review Journal's website?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Did you look at the text of the Review Journal?
5 Without getting into it. Don't tell me what it said. But did
6 you read the text of the Review Journal article?

7 A. Yes, I believe there were a couple articles or updates to 8 the articles, but I did read the text, yes.

9 Q. Okay. What do you mean by updates?

10 A. Sometimes the Review Journal or any newspaper will print
11 an article, and then have a few hours later have updated
12 information than will come in later, so --

13 Q. Okay. And what was the date in which you downloaded the 14 article?

15 A. The article itself?

16 Q. Or the video. I'm sorry. Well, I think you did both on 17 the same day. Would it have been July 15th of 2015?

18 A. I went back and recaptured it later, yes.

19 Q. Okay. So, there could have been updates between the time
20 that you saw it and the time that you burned it?

21 A. The article that I copied, at that time, probably would 22 have listed on there when the last update was. So, they'll 23 have a byline on there and a date that says "last updated on 24 this date."

25 Q. Okay. And if we can get Exhibit 70 up, please, Brian.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 And what is the -- what's the date on these
2 communications, sir?

3 A. This would have been April the 8th of 2014.

4 Q. Okay. If we can go down, Brian. And a little bit more
5 down. And all the way to the bottom, please. Okay. Thank
6 you. No, I said -- that's why I don't have it. It's 78,
7 please. Okay, now we got it.

8 And what is the date on this one?

9 A. April 11th.

10 Q. Okay. So, chronologically, this is later than everything
11 that we've seen thus far on cross-examination; correct?

12 A. I believe so.

13 Q. And then who is this from?

14 A. This would have been a post from Randy Eaton.

15 Q. Okay. So, thus far on cross-examination, I don't believe
16 we've seen anything from Mr. Eaton thus far; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And in this particular post, he says that due to rising
19 tensions in Nevada; is that correct?

20 A. Yes, he said that.

21 Q. So, at this point, we have multiple sources -- without 22 getting specifically into what they are talking about, we are 23 talking about rising tensions. We are talking about military 24 standoffs, arrest of protesters, and things of that nature. Is 25 that fair to say?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. I think you can say that.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Argumentative.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Did you want me to respond? I'm
4 sorry. I don't mean to cut you off.

5 THE COURT: I am not sure. Do you have a follow-up
6 question? I mean, are you just restating his responses?

7 MR. MARCHESE: I'm just putting it all together. We 8 are taking him through chronologically through everything and 9 what he's seen through the course of his investigation.

10 THE COURT: All right. Overruled. He can answer the 11 question. You might need to restate it.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. So, through the course of your investigations, you took 14 multiple sources, and you looked at them; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And chronologically, and whenever you started your
17 investigation up till now, April 11th of 2014, you've seen
18 several media sources, whether it be email, whether it be 19 Facebook, or whether it be just general Internet. You've seen
20 several sources talking about rising tensions, arresting the 21 protesters and military standoffs. Is that -- is that a
22 correct statement?

23 MS. CREEGAN: That's -- objection. That's still
24 argumentative, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer it.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE WITNESS: Some individuals did mention those
2 things in some of the posts that they were making. That would
3 be consistent with Operation Mutual Aid and their intent to 4 make this go as viral as possible.

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Okay. But would it be consistent with your testimony?

7 A. I believe we've talked about statements that I said were 8 accurate on the --

9 Q. Okay. So that's a yes?

10 A. Yes.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Object to cutting the witness off when 12 he's trying to answer.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Well, he's answered. I will move on.

16 Now, turning your attention to Exhibit 38, that's the 17 video of Mr. Payne next to the barn. Do you remember that one?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Where he's -- he yells out "quit hammering" or something
20 along those lines?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. We don't need to play it, Brian. I think it's about
23 three, four minutes long, so I'm just going to go through it.
24 And if we disagree on something, we can maybe move on.

25 But in that particular interview, Mr. Payne is

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 interviewed by that lady, I believe it is; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And there's also a videographer there. I think at one
4 point he might have even interjected and asked a few questions;
5 right? Do you remember that?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. So, one of the first things that he says is that he 8 is here to pledge to stand against the tyrants and the 9 oppressed. Something along those lines. Do you remember that
10 statement?

11 A. I remember the words tyrants and the oppressed, yes.

12 Q. Okay. And he also talks about these people's safety
13 having been violated. Do you remember that statement?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And is it fair to say that based on you seeing the 16 video and the context of it, that when he's talking about these 17 people's safety, he's referring to the Bundy family?

18 A. Certainly, he could have been, yes.

19 Q. And he talks about how the Bundy family's lives have been 20 greatly affected by this. Do you remember that?

21 A. Yes. I remember Ryan Payne saying that, yes.

22 Q. Yes. And then that Ryan Payne also talks about that they
23 have incurred physical injury because of this. Do you remember
24 that?

25 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance. Is this for the

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 test of the witness's memory? The exhibit's admitted.

2 MR. MARCHESE: I mean, we can play it. I am just
3 trying to go through it. It's, like, four minutes long. I am
4 almost down. I have two more questions.

5 THE COURT: We are not replaying it just for the sake
6 of replaying it. You may ask the witness a question, and if he 7 doesn't remember it and you need to replay it to refresh his 8 memory, we can do that.

9 MR. MARCHESE: And that's what I'm attempting to do,
10 but they are objecting.

11 THE COURT: Ask him a question.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. I'm sorry, sir. I don't even remember. Were you able to 14 answer or did we get the objection?

15 A. I believe Ryan Payne said that on the video.

16 Q. Okay. Thank you. I will move on. I think I have two or 17 three more in reference to that area.

18 Mr. Payne also talked about the public's access to 19 public lands having been infringed upon. Is that a correct
20 statement?

21 A. Ryan Payne said that, yes.

22 Q. All right. Thank you. Now, if we can turn to Exhibit 89.

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That one was not admitted,
24 counsel.

25

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Okay. Just for Mr. Seyler.

3 Sir, do you recognize this post?

4 A. Yes, I do.

5 Q. Okay. And how do you recognize it?

6 A. This was a post from Eric Parker's Facebook account and an
7 article that he shared on Facebook, I believe.

8 Q. Okay. And I think we established yesterday you were 9 actually present at the hearing where Mr. Parker testified?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. Okay. Do you remember him testifying about this 12 particular Facebook post and admitting that it was his?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, at this time, defense
16 would move for Government's Exhibit 89 into evidence.

17 THE COURT: Any objection to the admission of No. 89?

18 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 89 will be admitted.

20 Do you want to go ahead and publish it?

21 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, please, Your Honor.

22 (Exhibit 89 admitted.)

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Now, you kind of went over a little bit of this already,
25 but the jury needs to see it. So, what are we seeing here,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 sir?

2 A. This is a -- in Eric Parker's Facebook return that came
3 from Facebook. This is an article which I believe he shared.
4 Yes, he provided a link to. This was an article that contained
5 the Ryan Payne video from April 9th we discussed earlier.

6 Q. Okay. So, it's your contention that the Ryan Payne video,
7 the first one, not the second one with the hammering, the first
8 one was linked to this particular article; is that correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. So, based on that, you would -- a logical conclusion would
11 be that Mr. Parker saw the April 9th, 2014, Ryan Payne video
12 since it was linked to this particular article?

13 A. He would have gotten the article itself, which contained
14 some quotes from Mr. Payne as well, and would have had an 15 opportunity to watch the video as well.

16 Q. Okay. So, he would have had the article whether he 17 clicked on it or not. You would obviously have no independent
18 knowledge of that; correct?

19 A. No. Other than he shared the article, which indicated he 20 had some interest in it.

21 Q. Sure. Were there any other video links on that particular
22 article?

23 A. I'm not sure if there were.

24 Q. Do you have your -- if seeing a copy of your 302, would --
25 would that -- actually, I don't believe that's in there.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 If seeing a copy of the article, would that refresh
2 your recollection, sir?

3 A. If it's the article I downloaded, yes.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Court's indulgence.

5 (Pause in the proceedings.)

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Sir, we are going to get back to that. I need to print it
8 off first. But I do have some other stuff to talk about till
9 then.

10 Sir, you were the -- or one of the agents that took 11 Mr. Parker into custody on this case; correct?

12 A. I was there shortly after he was taken into custody, yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you transported him -- I believe it was 14 Ketchum, Idaho, to --

15 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Beyond the scope of cross.
16 Not relevant.

17 MR. MARCHESE: I think it's very relevant, Your 18 Honor. It goes into his investigation. I am not going to get
19 into anything that was said during that particular ride, I
20 guess, for lack of a better term, but I just want to talk
21 about -- a little bit about the general nature of the arrest.

22 MS. CREEGAN: I don't think the investigation is 23 relevant or the arrest.

24 THE COURT: The investigation is relevant. The 25 witness has testified about the investigation, but the arrest

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 was not part of the direct examination, so --

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

3 THE COURT: -- it would be beyond the scope.

4 MR. MARCHESE: We will be asking then that Agent
5 Seyler be made available for the defense case in chief. So, we
6 are going to reserve the opportunity to recall him to revisit
7 this issue.

8 Court's indulgence, Your Honor. Taking a minute to 9 print, so we will just go to plan C, and just the witness,
10 please.

11 Q. Do you see that one on your screen, sir?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Just take -- don't read anything aloud, please. We just 14 want to see if this refreshes your recollection. This should 15 be a copy of what you downloaded.

16 And, sir, does that refresh your recollection --
17 excuse me -- your recollection in reference to the article that 18 you downloaded, in the course and scope of your duties, whether 19 or not there was reference to another video on that particular
20 article?

21 A. That looks like the article that we were discussing, yes.

22 Q. Okay. And does it refresh your recollection in reference
23 to that?

24 A. As far as whether there was another video?

25 Q. Yes.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. What you just scrolled through, I didn't see any videos,
2 so --

3 Q. And if you look at the top, what I'm talking to is the top
4 portion. Is that -- that's what I'm referring to, the 5 paragraph starting with A.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I am going to object and 7 ask for a sidebar.

8 MR. MARCHESE: I was getting there, but --

9 THE COURT: Sidebar.

10 (Sidebar).

11 THE COURT: This is Ms. Creegan speaking.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we objected to bringing up
13 this article and what is supposedly a video of tasing. It has 14 nothing to do with the testimony.

15 And the emphasis that Mr. Marchese has been placing 16 on trying to pick out anything that's clearly a reference back
17 to his illegal self-defense defense to try to emphasize
18 protesters being arrested, et cetera -- I mean, the implication
19 is that by putting on evidence into the case, we're opening the 20 door.

21 But there is no way to open the door to an illegal
22 defense. There is no way to put on the tasing now simply 23 because that might also be an article that Eric Parker saw.
24 Because the defense doesn't exist, there is no way to open a
25 door to it.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 And it appears that even the smallest door, if it can
2 even be called that, would be enough for Mr. Marchese to try to
3 bring in the tasing video.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Here's the issue. If you pull up that
5 article today, the Ryan Payne video is not on there. The 6 article -- the video that shows up on there, we can go right
7 over to the Review Journal website right now and look at it --
8 is the Ammon Bundy tasing, which is reference to the same thing
9 that he downloaded.

10 I am simply just going through what they have entered
11 into evidence. I mean, they can choose to --

12 THE COURT: But it's not what they entered into 13 evidence. That video is not referenced in the Facebook post
14 which is what he's discussing.

15 He explained that there's updates that RJ makes to 16 articles sometimes. You are looking at a different article
17 that's not the --

18 MR. MARCHESE: No, it's the same one.

19 THE COURT: -- updated article that was available at 20 the time the post was made. There's an article that's on the 21 RJ that has a link to a video. The Facebook return, search
22 warrant return lists the link that he posted to the article.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

24 THE COURT: And the link to the video.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE COURT: That's embedded in the article or is part
2 of the article and nothing else. The video you are referring
3 to is not in the Facebook return.

4 MR. MARCHESE: But it's in the link.

5 THE COURT: So, I mean, I understand the government's
6 objection. I thought we were coming over here for a different
7 objection, because I don't see that it's relevant, because it
8 wasn't part of the Facebook return.

9 So, it doesn't look like it was part of the posting
10 that he made. It might have been -- the article might have 11 been updated later to include a different video, but there's no
12 evidence of that --

13 MR. MARCHESE: Oh, yes, there is.

14 THE COURT: -- through this Facebook search
15 warrant --

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well --

17 THE COURT: -- return.

18 MR. MARCHESE: First of all, he did -- he didn't 19 download this until much later. I know that Eric Parker saw
20 that video, and I know that there's a link to it. And I know
21 that the article on Eric Parker's Facebook clearly, clearly
22 references the Ammon Bundy tasing.

23 So, what is the issue here, is they are bringing up
24 this post, which is misleading the jury, in my opinion, that 25 Parker saw the Payne video. When you go on there, and it

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 doesn't show the Payne video. It has a different video on it.

2 THE COURT: All right. I don't see it as misleading,
3 because the Facebook search warrant return provides a report of 4 what your client posted.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

6 THE COURT: And what he posted was the article, and
7 the search warrant return said that there was a link to a
8 video.

9 MR. MARCHESE: I agree with everything Your Honor is 10 saying.

11 THE COURT: So, this is sort of extraneous to what's 12 in that --

13 MR. MARCHESE: But --

14 THE COURT: -- Facebook. I mean, if you want to 15 attack the credibility of the Facebook report, that the report
16 is inaccurate or has the wrong link to the wrong video, I -- I
17 mean, this witness wouldn't be able to testify to that.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I have more but --

19 MR. TANASI: I was just going to ask, it's your 20 objection. Can I just chat with him for a second?

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

23 (Off-the-record discussion held.)

24 THE COURT: Maybe that's not an objection that the 25 government wants to make, but that was the one that came to my

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 mind was, well, that things get updated, and they change them
2 just to keep people interested or whatever.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Right. He said he had looked at it
4 close --

5 THE COURT: The only other evidence we have is that
6 the post that Parker made is the one that's in the Facebook
7 return of that article with that video.

8 MR. MARCHESE: But the problem --

9 THE COURT: That's not the one you are referring to,
10 because it's not in the return.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it's the link. And it's 12 completely relevant to our defense, because they are alleging
13 that our clients traveled in interstate commerce with the 14 intent to commit extortion, when these issues go directly to 15 our defense in reference to that and in reference to a
16 conspiracy and in reference to obstruction.

17 So, it's our position is that it's relevant to defend
18 the case in reference to those elements.

19 MS. CREEGAN: And I don't know what that means. If 20 the defense is not legal, then there's no right to put on the 21 evidence.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it means that it's an element of 23 the defense.

24 MS. CREEGAN: But even if your defense is that, if it
25 is not legal to put on that defense, you cannot do it.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 MR. MARCHESE: It's not legal to defend the case?

2 MS. CREEGAN: It's not legal to advance a
3 self-defense argument which is not supported by the law.

4 THE COURT: All right. The Court's ruling is that
5 the objection is sustained. Move on.

6 (End of sidebar.)

7 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Sir, other than that video, I have
9 nothing else. Have a good day.

10 THE WITNESS: Okay. You, too.

11 THE COURT: Counsel for Stewart.

12 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Any cross?

14 CROSS-EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Good morning, Agent Seyler. How are you?

17 A. Good morning.

18 Q. Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have got a
19 few questions for you on cross. Okay?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. In your testimony yesterday, I have it down as 22 I understand you went through about 41,000 pages, Facebook
23 pages, emails related to Ricky Lovelien and/or Ryan Payne in 24 response to search warrants related to those either Facebook or 25 email addresses; is that accurate?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. It would have been thousands of pages, yes. I was
2 estimating that that was about it, yes.

3 Q. 41,000.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Was the number I wrote down.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Do you disagree with me or not?

8 A. No, that's what I said. I was just estimating. It could 9 be off by a thousand.

10 Q. Sure. Understood.

11 Brian, if you could please bring up Government's
12 Exhibit 174.

13 Okay, sir. All right. Do you see that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. This is an email from Ryan Payne; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right. And that is to Gary Hunt; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. All right. This email doesn't involve Steven Stewart in 20 any way; right? It's not to him; not from him; correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. All right. Brian, if could you bring up 175.

23 All right. Brian, can you kind of just zoom in on 24 the "to" portion. Nope. There you go. Thanks.

25 Okay. So, in the "to" section, that's everybody that

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 the email was going to; correct?

2 A. There were actually number of other individuals listed
3 down farther in the chain, yes.

4 Q. Sure. What we see here doesn't involve Steven Stewart's
5 email; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And, in fact, you've reviewed the entire chain; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you didn't see an email -- this email go to Steven
10 Stewart; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right. And, in fact, the entire kind of universe of 13 information that you've testified to here today and yesterday,
14 you saw numerous emails from Operation Mutual Aid; right?

15 A. Emails, yes.

16 Q. Okay. And none of those emails from Operation Mutual Aid
17 went to Steven Stewart; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. All right. You also saw numerous emails involving 20 Mr. Lovelien; right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. That he authored; right?

23 A. Posts that he authored, yes.

24 Q. Okay. None of those emails went to Steven Stewart;
25 correct?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. All right. We also saw Facebook kind of posts and
3 messaging; right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. None of those Facebook posts, from Operation Mutual
6 Aid, went to Steven Stewart; correct?

7 A. The posts that Operation Mutual Aid made publicly, I don't
8 know what he may have viewed.

9 Q. Sure. You would be guessing as to what he may or may not 10 have viewed; right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. In terms of the private posts though, none of those posts
13 went directly to Steven Stewart?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Also, Ricky Lovelien's posts. None of those privately
16 went directly to Steven Stewart; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Brian, if you could bring up 69, please. Yes, sir. I
19 show this as admitted yesterday; was it not?

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. Thank you. Okay. I count on this -- first of all, what 23 is this? What are we looking at?

24 A. This is a private message between several individuals on 25 Ricky Lovelien's Facebook account.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Okay. The recipients listed, I think there's -- I counted
2 47. Would you agree with that number?

3 A. There's certainly a number. I haven't counted them. I
4 think that's accurate.

5 Q. Okay. None of those 47 are Steven Stewart; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Brian, if you would please bring up 188.

8 All right. This was a summary that you testified to 9 yesterday; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. There it is. Let's go back to the first page.

12 All right. This is dated April 7th; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. It's got a picture of Montana; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And a picture of Nevada; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. Ricky Lovelien and Ryan Payne are in the 19 Nevada box or the Montana box; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. And Cliven Bundy is in the Nevada box; right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. On the right, there's calls in between these three 24 individuals; correct, or two?

25 A. Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. All right. Steven Stewart --

2 THE COURT: Is this exhibit -- I'm sorry. I thought
3 I heard you say that's Exhibit 88, but I have it written down
4 as 188. Can you just scroll it up a little bit so we can see
5 what the exhibit number is?

6 MR. TANASI: It's 188, Your Honor. I thought I might
7 have misspoke.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 BY THE COURT:

10 Q. All right. Steven Stewart is not on this; right? No
11 calls between any of these three folks listed on the document;
12 correct?

13 A. Not -- no. No, there's not.

14 Q. Okay. And if we scroll down to the second page, Brian,
15 please. April 8th, there's arrow around Ryan Payne's name, and 16 then there's different times indicating different Facebook
17 messages and phone messages. None of those involve Steven
18 Stewart; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. Go down to the next one, please.

21 Again, no Steven Stewart; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Next page, Brian.

24 April 10th, again, no Steven Stewart; correct?

25 A. On this page, no.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 Q. Brian, if we go down again.

2 Okay. April 11th, 2014, again, no Steven Stewart;
3 correct?

4 A. Correct. Not at this time.

5 Q. Okay. Go down one more, please.

6 All right. Again, April 12th, no Steven Stewart;
7 right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Brian, if you would bring up 66, please.

10 All right. In this particular picture, this
11 gentleman I'm circling right here appears to be holding a
12 phone; right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Not wearing camouflage; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Kind of standing there and observing what's going on in 17 the wash; right?

18 A. I don't know what he's looking at, but, yes.

19 Q. And he's looking in front of him; right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And you know and through the course of your 22 investigation in front of him is the wash area between the 23 northbound and southbound bridge; fair?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you. Pass the

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 witness.

2 THE COURT: Counsel for Drexler?

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Good morning, sir.

6 A. Good morning.

7 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent Scott Drexler.

8 You were asked a number of questions regarding sort
9 of your investigation, and you indicated that you had to make
10 some synopses out of the voluminous documents that you
11 received; correct?

12 A. Yes. You referring to the charts that we just looked at?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And that's because there was a lot of pages;
16 correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And I know you were asked -- you indicated approximately 19 41,000. Was that the total realm of the documents that you
20 reviewed in this case?

21 A. No. It would have been far more than that, yes.

22 Q. For more than that? Could you guesstimate how many more
23 than that?

24 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

25 THE COURT: Speculative. Sustained.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Okay. Did you also review videos?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And were those videos tied to Facebooks as well as 5 YouTubes?

6 A. Some of them would be, yes.

7 Q. Okay. If we can go to 175, Brian.

8 Okay. Thank you. I know you have seen this. My 9 cocounsel also showed you this. I just need to make sure. You
10 have got the "to" this Operation Mutual Aid; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you have got the "to" and there's a number of listed
13 recipients; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And I think we saw before that there were over 300.
16 Would that sound about right or would you know?

17 A. I believe it was over 200 at least, yes.

18 Q. 200? Okay. Mr. Drexler was not anywhere listed on here;
19 correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. So, he was not a recipient of this Operation Mutual
22 Aid?

23 A. Not that particular email, no.

24 Q. Okay. If we could go to page 55. Government's 55,
25 please, and scroll down just a bit. Right there. Stop.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 So, do you see this paragraph right there?

2 A. Do you want made to read that paragraph?

3 Q. You don't need to read it, but I want you to look at that
4 paragraph. That's not -- was that actually written by Jerry?
5 Do you know? Bruckhart?

6 A. It would appear to have been copied by Jerry Bruckhart
7 from something else he was reading.

8 Q. Okay. So that would have been a repost. If you would go
9 down a little bit, Brian. Actually, right there. Stop.

10 It says "That was posted by this guy"?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. So, we don't know if -- if that -- if that wasn't 13 there, that -- that sentence there that says "this was 14 posted -- that was posted by this guy," we wouldn't have known
15 that that was actually a repost or maybe a repost of a repost;
16 right?

17 A. Only by looking at it in context. It's clearly not 18 something that he was writing in the context of their
19 conversation. So, that's how that we would know that it wasn't 20 something he was just typing.

21 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Again, we need to be careful here
23 with the terminology. Are you referring to posting or cutting
24 and pasting?

25

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Well, it's good question. I guess what I'm doing is I'm
3 trying to -- what I'm asking the witness is whether or not --
4 first of all, this just goes to the weight and the credibility
5 of these documents.

6 So, it would be reposting; how credible is it; as 7 well as cutting and pasting how credible. So, it's going to 8 the credibility of the documents. It's sort of a 9 generalization of whether or not all of these documents that 10 are before this jury are credible.

11 THE COURT: Well, you are not challenging the 12 credibility of the report. You are challenging the weight to 13 be given --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

15 THE COURT: -- and the interpretation of what is 16 represented on the report.

17 So, I guess the question for the witness is, with 18 this report, this business report from Facebook, would it
19 distinguish between something that is reposted versus something
20 that is typed in by the author?

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. Correct. And we wouldn't have known -- I don't believe we 23 would have known -- that without that sentence, "that was 24 posted by this guy" --

25 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm not asking the attorney to

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 answer.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

3 THE COURT: I'm asking the witness. So, is there a
4 distinction, when you are looking at the business record, for 5 something that is reposted versus something that is cut and 6 pasted or, you know, typed in?

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. If Jerry Bruckhart,
8 in this case, wished to have shared or reposted this article,
9 he could have clicked "share" on his own Facebook page if he
10 had done -- wanted to.

11 Instead, what he did was copy the text from this
12 individual's post and put it into this conversation for Ryan
13 Payne to see, because he thought it was interesting.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, two different actions.

15 THE WITNESS: Correct.

16 THE COURT: And those are represented in the report.
17 Could you -- you could tell the difference? I mean, does it
18 distinguish it somewhere?

19 THE WITNESS: The only reason I would know, Your
20 Honor, that this was probably repost is because of the language
21 that's used. It's not language that I am familiar with Jerry 22 Bruckhart using.

23 And that's the only way I would know, other than the 24 post down below that says "This was posted by another person."

25 THE COURT: All right. So, like, if we saw before if

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 someone liked something or if someone shared something or
2 someone posted something, that's represented in the report?

3 THE WITNESS: Correct. If they shared it, it would
4 have been in a different section of the report. It wouldn't 5 have been in the message portion like this.

6 THE COURT: But this was in a message portion?

7 THE WITNESS: Correct.

8 THE COURT: So it's something that was cut and pasted
9 or written letter, by letter, by letter, but you're saying it
10 probably wasn't written letter by letter?

11 THE WITNESS: Correct.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You can continue, counsel.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

14 Q. If we go to 62, please?

15 This is a -- you recognize this as Mr. Lovelien's
16 Facebook page?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And there's a number of friends; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And actually, how many -- about three pages of friends,
21 four pages of friends?

22 A. About that, yes.

23 Q. Okay. How -- how do you know -- because Mr. Lovelien was 24 communicating with some of these people. How do you know these 25 people are real? I mean, that they are real people? Do you

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 know?

2 A. They have Facebook accounts. What do you mean by real
3 people?

4 Q. Okay. Well, let's say Bamson Coltrane. How do you know
5 if Bamson Coltrane is really Bamson Coltrane and not an alias?

6 A. I have no expectation that these are their actual names.

7 Q. Are you familiar with a person named Robin Kirkham?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Again, it goes to the weight of the 11 evidence, Judge.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Beyond the scope.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: The evidence is in, and it goes to 14 the weight. If we need a sidebar for a proffer --

15 THE COURT: All right. Let's go to sidebar.

16 (Sidebar.)

17 THE COURT: What was the name? Edward Rose?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Robin Kirkham.

19 THE COURT: That's on the list of a friend; is that 20 what it is?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, it's not.

22 THE COURT: Recipients?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, it's not. No, it's not. Here is 24 the relevance of it. So, I just asked him about cutting and 25 pasting and reposting. And we went to the weight and the

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 credibility.

2 Robin Kirkham was a BLM agent who ran a campaign on
3 Facebook using different monikers, different aliases,
4 infiltrating these -- sort of these groups. So, again, it goes
5 to the weight on whether or not these are credible, whether 6 Robin Kirkham was the one authoring these things.

7 I don't know, because he -- he doesn't remember Robin
8 Kirkham. He's admitted that Robin Kirkham was in an undercover
9 capacity with BLM prior to the 12th, days leading up, doing a
10 campaign undercover.

11 So, we have all these recipients. We have all
12 these -- we have all these messages, we have all these 13 conversations, and it goes to the weight on whether or not 14 these people are who they say they are, or whether or not it's 15 Robin Kirkham in an undercover capacity, or whether or not it's 16 a confidential informant or anybody else. It goes to the 17 weight and credibility of the --

18 THE COURT: Do you have a good faith basis to believe
19 it's Robin?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have a very good. He's already
21 admitted that Robin Kirkham in the last trial --

22 THE COURT: Do you know what name he was using?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, he -- he -- I asked him --

24 THE COURT: So, you don't know these are Robin with a
25 false name?

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Actually, at the last trial, I
2 asked him if he knew. He said he -- I believe he said he knew,
3 but he couldn't remember at the time. But if I showed him, he
4 could remember. That's what he told me at the last trial.

5 MS. CREEGAN: And Mr. Leventhal asked him all these
6 names, and he said all of these people were not that person.
7 So, I don't know why we would repeat that just for the sole
8 purpose of taking up the jury's time and making them aware of 9 the fact that there was undercover.

10 I don't know what difference that makes. He asked
11 him about Mark Kessin. He asked him about Michael Reighley.
12 He asked him all these names. And the only statements we 13 introduced for the truth were the actual coconspirators, James
14 Lardy, Rick Lovelien, Ryan Payne.

15 We didn't introduce any other statements for their 16 truth. So, I am not sure what relevance that would have 17 either. If someone did copy and paste the statement by someone
18 else, they have adopted that statement. So, I am not sure why
19 it would even matter what their original source was.

20 If they are disseminating this information, they 21 presumably agree with it, so I don't see how that would 22 undermine the evidence.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: But we all have non-names. I don't
24 know who Robin Kirkham went under. We have got Operation
25 Mutual Aid. We've got a bunch of different sort of group names

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 that also these things have come in for the truth. They have
2 been admitted, and they are statements about what's going on or on 3 what's happening.

4 And I don't know -- I think the jury should be
5 allowed to hear that there was undercovers infiltrating, and
6 the evidence may not be so pristine, because it's not. That's 7 all. It goes to the weight. That's all I'm using it for.

8 THE COURT: But the line of questioning that you are 9 using now is attempting to imply that Robin is one of these
10 people who posted things that are reposted by the defendants,
11 and you don't have a good faith basis to believe that. In 12 fact, just the opposite. You know, that it's -- that Robin is 13 not any of these people that are --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, I don't. I don't, Your Honor,
15 because he won't give me the moniker last time. He said, "If I
16 see it, I could tell you, but I don't remember." That's what 17 his words were at the last trial.

18 THE COURT: I have no reference then.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, well, because he doesn't know.

20 THE COURT: And if you did, I don't see how it's 21 relevant. The objection is sustained.

22 (End of sidebar.)

23 THE COURT: All right. The objection is sustained.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, if we could go to 185, please.

25 Q. Special Agent Seyler, during the course of your

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 investigation, you indicated you also looked at phone calls
2 between people; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And these calls between Cliven Bundy, Ryan Payne, and
5 Jerry Bruckhart, this was one of your synopses between those 6 three calls; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Callers. And you indicated there are hundreds of pages
9 there for these three; correct? On this -- this particular
10 with those three people, there were hundreds?

11 A. I believe I said tens or hundreds, yes.

12 Q. Okay. And again, no Scott Drexler was anywhere to be 13 found during that investigation of these phone calls; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. If we could go to 188.

16 Now, I know that my cocounsel showed you this
17 earlier. This is your synopsis, and I just want to make sure,
18 if we can go to the bottom.

19 Okay. This would be April 12th, and you've got 20 Montana up here on the -- correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you've got Nevada; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. So, if you were to put Idaho over here somewhere,
25 would it be fair to say that there was no communication between

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 these two; the people from Montana and the people from Idaho
2 prior to the 12th?

3 MS. CREEGAN: I am just going to ask for a point of 4 clarity. Does he mean on the exhibit or at all?

5 THE COURT: Do you want to clarify?

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Sure. Did you find any evidence that Mr. Drexler,
8 Mr. Parker, or Mr. Stewart, from Idaho, spoke to anybody from 9 Montana prior to the 12th, 2014?

10 A. Spoke, no.

11 Q. Communicated?

12 A. They didn't communicate back, no.

13 Q. Okay. Now, you wrote down here, I see on your synopsis,
14 at 9:40. Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you indicated that that's Cliven Bundy meets Sheriff
17 Gillespie on stage and tells him to disarm federal agents in 18 one hour; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. But you didn't write down there that also Sheriff
21 Gillespie told the crowd that BLM was removing their assets,
22 that the Gold Butte was opened, or that they had been ceasing
23 operations. You didn't put that there; did you?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. So, that would have gone there at the same time,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 around 9:40; correct?

2 A. I listened to the speech. It would have been
3 approximately about that time, yes.

4 Q. And the sheriff's speech actually came before that;
5 correct? Cliven speaking?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, in all of the emails and all the Facebooks and 8 all of the posts that you saw, did anybody anywhere communicate
9 that they were going to take over the ICP?

10 A. Yes. There were individuals that talked about that.
11 Talked about storming the BLM.

12 Q. I specifically -- ICP.

13 A. They didn't use the term ICP.

14 Q. Okay. So -- and I just want to make sure. There was no
15 communication between Payne, Mutual Aid, and Mr. Drexler, 16 correct? That you saw?

17 A. Other than their comments to the media which they intended
18 to be received by people like Mr. Drexler.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Very good. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and take a
21 break. It's 10:42. We'll be back at 11:00.

22 I do remind the jury during the break that you are
23 not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to 24 discuss it with you. Do not read, or view, or listen to 25 anything that touches upon this case in any way. And please do

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 not attempt to perform any research or any investigation, and
2 do not form any opinion.

3 Go ahead and write down your questions. And remember
4 if you inadvertently hear anything about the case or see
5 anything about the case or anyone tries to speak to you about
6 the case, you are required to alert the Court right away.

7 So, we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. And then
8 after they exit, Special Agent Seyler, you can stretch as well,
9 take a restroom break, and we will have everyone back here at 10 11:00 a.m.

11 (Jury out.)

12 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

13 (Recess, 10:43 a.m. Resumed 11:16 a.m. Jury out.)

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

15 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

16 Let's go ahead and bring in the jury.

17 (Jury in.)

18 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

19 THE COURT: All right. The jury may be seated.

20 Everyone else may be seated as well. We are back on the
21 record.

22 And we have FBI Special Agent Seyler on the witness
23 stand. Does the government have any redirect?

24 MS. CREEGAN: No redirect, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Now, if any of the members of

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 the jury have a question for our witness, Mr. Seyler, go ahead,
2 please, and write them down on the piece of paper if you
3 haven't already. Remember to use the forms provided.

4 Do not write down your name. You don't need to sign
5 it. Don't give me a jury number or initials. We just need the 6 questions. Take your time writing neatly, so we can read your
7 question. And then when you are done, fold the piece of paper
8 in half, pass them to Aaron, we'll shuffle them up and see what
9 we can do to ask them.

10 As before, even if you don't know if this witness can 11 answer the question, if it's a question you have, we still want
12 to know what it is so that the parties can work it in through a
13 different witness if necessary.

14 (Clerk handing notes to the Court.)

15 THE COURT: Counsel, could you please join me at
16 sidebar?

17 (Sidebar.)

18 THE COURT: All right. So, we have Jury Note No. 6.
19 I number them sequentially. So we did 1 through 5 with the 20 last witness. So, this is Jury Note No. 6.

21 It has 4 on there. I don't know why. There is a 4
22 and a slash. Maybe they were going to put the date on or
23 something.

24 Anyway, it says, "Clarification, name of witness.
25 Whose testimony was read by Special Agent Seyler?" I don't

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 think there's any objection to that.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Nope.

3 THE COURT: Good clarification. All right. Jury
4 Note No. 7, "What is OMA?" I think that's a fair question. No
5 objection.

6 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

7 MR. TANASI: No.

8 THE COURT: And the second part of Jury Note No. 7,
9 to clarify, there was two questions asked in Jury Note No. 7.
10 The second one "What is their mission?" I think if you want me
11 to rephrase it to what was their stated mission?

12 MS. CREEGAN: Uh-huh.

13 THE COURT: Maybe we can go back to that exhibit
14 number, but I don't know that you want this witness to 15 speculate or restate the mission rather can we go back and look 16 at that exhibit. Right? You on don't want me to ask the
17 witness.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't think so, because I think
19 everybody had different -- one guy had one mission. I think
20 Payne had a mission, or that's -- I don't even know how you
21 would --

22 THE COURT: You get to ask your follow-up questions,
23 so you can clarify that there's not just one mission. That's a
24 good clarification, too.

25 Jury Note No. 8 looks like it has a different

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 question. The first one is "There are comments about cell
2 phone calls be attributed to individuals. Is there any way to
3 prove that the registered owner of the phone made the call?"

4 I think that's a good question. Right? Second part
5 is "How can you assure that a cut and paste post has not been 6 edited?" Any objection to that?

7 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

8 THE COURT: And then the last part is "When reviewing 9 the address list for Facebook, how do you or can you reconcile
10 aliases, for example, William Bonney equals Bonney the Kid or 11 the rid?"

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Billy the Kid.

13 THE COURT: Looks like an "R" but I think they mean
14 Billy the Kid.

15 MR. TANASI: Probably. Right.

16 THE COURT: It says "rid" but I think they mean kid.
17 Either way, any objection to that?

18 MR. TANASI: I don't have one.

19 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

20 THE COURT: Number 9 has one question. "Why would 21 you come armed when you were just crowd control or guarding
22 cattle if you didn't intend to use them?"

23 MR. MYHRE: Didn't intend to use?

24 THE COURT: Good question, but I don't know about use
25 them. Use the arms? Use the firearms? Why would you come

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 armed? I will restate it.

2 Jury Note No. 9. "Why would you come armed, when you
3 were just crowd control or guarding cattle, if you didn't
4 intend to use them?" So, I don't think there's an objection to 5 the question other than that we don't know that this witness
6 would be able to answer that.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, that's our position, at least
8 Parker's.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Plus, I think would it go into a lot
10 of other reasons, whether it's legal, legal to carry in Nevada.
11 Are we a legal carry state? Or, you can do it. Openly carry.

12 THE COURT: Well, the question is, "If you don't 13 intend to use, it why bring it?"

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because it's your right, I guess. I
15 mean, how deeply do we want to go with that?

16 MR. TANASI: Judge, is that a question for the 17 witness as it pertains to the statement from Eric Parker that 18 he read in? Is that essentially a question for Eric Parker?

19 THE COURT: It doesn't --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: She wouldn't know.

21 THE COURT: It doesn't clarify. It just has the one
22 question.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I think the question is --

24 THE REPORTER: Speak up, please.

25 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry. I don't think Agent Seyler

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 can answer that. It's a question of their intention, because
2 the Judge also instructed them to get what their questions are.
3 So, this tells the attorneys what they are interested in, not
4 necessarily a question for the witness.

5 THE COURT: The question is "Why would you come?" So
6 they are asking the reasons to come armed.

7 MR. PEREZ: That's --

8 THE COURT: You are out at night when you are 9 camping. I don't know what they are looking for, but the 10 question isn't -- the question is not what is the intent of the 11 defendant. The question is "Why would you come armed when you
12 were just crowd control or guarding cattle, if you didn't
13 intend to use them?"

14 MS. CREEGAN: Nothing for this witness.

15 THE COURT: I am trying not to mix up the two trials,
16 but I think there was testimony by this witness that Parker
17 stated that he brought the weapons because he planned to go
18 shooting.

19 MR. TANASI: In the desert.

20 THE COURT: In the desert. Right. That part came 21 in.

22 MS. CREEGAN: It did come in.

23 THE COURT: There were other uses for the gun.
24 Anyway, so I will just ask it, and say I don't know that this 25 witness can answer that question.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Your Honor, we do have
2 another jury note.

3 THE COURT: That would be No. 10. "Besides Lovelien,
4 were any other defendants communicated with directly by Payne?"
5 Any objection to that question?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

7 MR. MYHRE: No.

8 MS. CREEGAN: No.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Judge.

11 (End of sidebar.)

12 THE COURT: All right. So, I'm going to ask you a
13 couple questions. I will read the questions, but when you
14 answer the questions, Special Agent Seyler, you can go ahead
15 and face the jury. Because these are really jury questions,
16 not my questions. I am just reading them in. But you can
17 respond to the question facing the jury.

18 So, Jury Question Note No. 6 is, "Clarification.
19 Whose testimony was read by Special Agent Seyler?"

20 THE WITNESS: That would have been the testimony of 21 Eric Parker.

22 THE COURT: He's a defendant in this trial.

23 THE WITNESS: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Then Jury Note No. 7, "What is" --
25 and let me clarify this. Two different questions to Jury Note

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 No. 7. The first one is "What is OMA?"

2 THE WITNESS: That is Operation Mutual Aid, the group
3 that Ryan Payne and Jerry Bruckhart founded and led.

4 THE COURT: All right. Then the second part of Jury
5 Note No. 7 is, "What is their mission?" And rather than having 6 you speculate, I think there was evidence -- an exhibit that
7 was presented.

8 So, if we can just have someone recall that back up
9 on the screen for the witness to point out where it is. So, in 10 other words, instead of answering the question "What is their 11 mission? What do you interpret their mission to be?" I am
12 rephrasing the question to be "What is their stated mission?"

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MS. CREEGAN: And we are bringing up Exhibit 65.

16 THE COURT: Thank you. Exhibit 65.

17 THE WITNESS: Would you like me to read this, Your
18 Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead and read.

20 THE WITNESS: "Mission Statement. Militia men,
21 freedom fighters, soldiers, patriots all."

22 "Who? A coalition of states' militias, patriotic
23 civilians, individual freedom fighters, and media relations
24 personnel from patriotic political activism groups in 25 conjunction with local law enforcement if and where

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 applicable."

2 "What? Defense of public and private property, lives
3 and liberty to exercise God-given rights, seen plainly in the 4 laws of nature and codified in the Declaration of Independence
5 and Bill of Rights at the request of such parties in need of 6 such defense, and the documentation and archiving of all
7 defensive actions taken by the coalition for accurate and 8 prompt reporting to all concerned public venues and media."

9 "Where? Defensive posture shall be taken up in the 10 optimal tactical position in relation to people or property in 11 need of such defense. All local laws, not in violation of the 12 US and subject states constitutions shall be observed. All
13 laws in violation of the United States and subject sates
14 constitutions are hereby considered null and void, the 15 enforcement of which most likely represents the need for such 16 defense as herein outlined."

17 "When? As the nature of a quick reaction force is 18 understood, a defensive posture will be taken up in the 19 shortest amount of time possible for the allocation of the 20 necessary defensive resources to the location determined.
21 Minimum force size will be determined by the leadership of the 22 coalition."

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Jury Question Note No. 8 is a
24 three part. The first part is "There are comments about cell
25 phone calls being attributed to individuals. Is there any way

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 to prove that the registered owner of the phone made the call?"

2 THE WITNESS: In some instances, there are. We can
3 actually see photographs of people taking -- taken while they
4 are on their phone. We also know how that phone traveled,
5 because of some of the information.

6 So, we are able to tell, for instance, if some of the 7 subjects started in Montana. We are able to see from the phone
8 data that that phone traveled to Nevada, and we have a
9 photograph of that person in Nevada. So, that's one of the 10 ways that we are able to tell that the person that was 11 registered to that phone was, in fact, using that phone.

12 THE COURT: When you say you can tell that the phone
13 traveled, how can you tell the phone traveled?

14 THE WITNESS: The phone company provides us with data
15 regarding either what cell tower the phone was using or what
16 cell switch it was using. Those are kinds of two different
17 things, but related in that they tell you what area the phone
18 is in.

19 THE COURT: So, if I'm here in Nevada, there's a cell
20 phone tower near me that shows that I'm using my cell phone
21 when I am using it, and if I'm in Arizona, there's a different
22 cell phone tower?

23 THE WITNESS: Correct.

24 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry. May I bring it to your 25 attention that also that mission statement continued on to

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 page 6. I am sorry.

2 THE COURT: Oh, I didn't let you finish that. I
3 thought it was just one page. Let's go back to Exhibit 65.

4 THE WITNESS: "Why? As has been the case throughout
5 recorded history and reasonably assumed throughout unrecorded
6 history, governments instituted amongst men for the protection
7 of private lives and property have always assumed and usurped
8 duties and responsibilities contrary to the purpose of their 9 institution. And specific to these United States, such 10 governments have done so in complete and utter violation of the 11 documents which establish them by the free will of the people
12 and the union of them via the Constitution and Bill of Rights."

13 "Once those governments have ceded their intended
14 purpose to some other end or intent, it can be reasonably and 15 logically ascertained that such entity would become aggressive
16 to its former purpose and the people who established it in 17 pursuit of its own goals."

18 "At such point, as the government intends to use the 19 physical power granted it by those who implemented it against
20 them, it then becomes the responsibility of the people
21 themselves to defend their country from its government and to 22 generally revert to the process outlined by the Declaration of 23 Independence to absolve such government of its power or 24 separate from it to be freed from its oppression."

25 "As this coalition is intended for the defense of the

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 populace from enemies foreign and domestic, the latter path
2 shall be left to the determination of that populace. And we
3 shall guarantee them the freedom to make that choice in 4 accordance with man's God-given liberty, the ideas espoused in 5 the Declaration of the Independence and the Constitutions of 6 the several states, the Constitution of their union and the 7 Bill of Rights so help us God."

8 THE COURT: Thank you. So, we are turning now back
9 to Jury Note No. 8. And I asked the first question. The 10 second part of that question is, "How can you assure that a cut
11 and paste post has not been edited?"

12 THE WITNESS: We would have no way of knowing unless 13 there was an actual photograph of that cut and paste. So, if 14 someone wanted to capture text and put it in a message, and 15 then go back and change it, unless we were able to see the 16 original post and compare them, we wouldn't know.

17 So, in some instances, we are able to see the 18 original post, and then the cut and paste, which in some of 19 these examples where we talked about cut and paste, I was able 20 to do that.

21 THE COURT: All right. But what is -- the text that 22 is represented in the report, the business report that you
23 received from Facebook, that is what was actually posted? That 24 hasn't been edited?

25 THE WITNESS: Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 THE COURT: All right. So, just a matter of where
2 did they get it from, and did they edit it in the process of
3 cutting and pasting it?

4 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. The third part of Jury
6 Note No. 8 is "When reviewing the address list for Facebook,
7 how do you or can you reconcile aliases? For example, William
8 Bonney equals Billy the Kid?"

9 THE WITNESS: So, there are a few different ways.
10 One of the ways that when we get a Facebook return via search
11 warrant, it provides some information about that person.

12 So, when you sign up for Facebook, you actually have 13 to provide a real email address. They ask for a telephone
14 number, and so we can verify that information. There are also 15 often photographs on the account where we can see that it's 16 actually a picture of someone else. You can sometimes compare
17 it to a driver's license photo.

18 So, those are some of the ways that we are able to 19 corroborate that the person really is who they say they are.
20 In some cases, it is not the right name, and we have to 21 actually show who it really is.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, Jury Note No. 9 says,
23 "Why would you come armed when you were just crowd control or
24 guarding cattle if you didn't intend to use them?"

25 And I think "them" is referring to the arms. So,

Mark D. Seyler - Cross

1 "Why would you come armed when you were just crowd control or
2 guarding cattle if you didn't intend to use them?"

3 And I think that we agreed that this witness can't
4 answer that question, but it is a good question. The attorneys
5 have now received it as well, and they will be receiving a copy
6 of this, so that they will be able to provide answers to that 7 if they can.

8 Jury Note No. 10 is "Besides Lovelien, were any other
9 defendants communicated with directly by Payne?"

10 THE WITNESS: It depends what you mean directly.
11 Mr. Payne gave several statements to media -- to the media.
12 Those articles did make it -- and those statements did make it
13 to Mr. Parker and also to Mr. Stewart as well via Facebook.

14 So, the comments made by Mr. Payne were in articles
15 that they read.

16 THE COURT: And was -- did you determine that Payne
17 was the person who was posting to the OMA website?

18 THE WITNESS: I believe that was Jerry Bruckhart --

19 THE COURT: Bruckhart was.

20 THE WITNESS: -- who was posting to the OMA website.
21 The website actually had posts from several different people.
22 To the Facebook account that we looked at in -- earlier in the 23 trial, that was most likely Mr. Bruckhart.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, any follow-up questions from 25 the government?

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 MS. CREEGAN: One moment, Your Honor.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 REDIRECT-EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. Just a few questions, Agent Seyler. In terms of cutting
7 and pasting and putting something in a message or in a post, is 8 that an action that's undertaken by the user of the Facebook
9 account?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Does it happen automatically?

12 A. No.

13 Q. How is that done?

14 A. If you are talking about cutting and pasting, one could 15 view an article or anything on the computer. And you take your 16 mouse, and you can literally click the beginning of what you
17 want to paste, and scroll down to where what you want is over,
18 and you can right click on your mouse, and it will give you an 19 option to copy.

20 And then you can go into your Facebook message, if 21 you wanted to copy it into a message, and then you right click
22 again and paste. And it would put that text into that message
23 then.

24 Q. So this is still a person choosing to post that message?

25 A. Correct.

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 Q. And I want to ask you specifically about some of the 2 Facebook pages that we looked at. Did you look at, for
3 example, Ricky Lovelien's Facebook page?

4 A. No.

5 Q. That had his name on it?

6 A. Outside of the warrant?

7 Q. Correct.

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And what did you observe on his publicly viewable page?

10 A. It indicated he was from Libby, Montana. Most of his 11 photographs were freely available where I would review them.
12 They were photographs of him conducting militia activity and 13 training with his -- his group in Montana, which I recognized
14 him from his driver's license photos. And then various posts
15 that he had made along with articles that he wished to share.

16 Q. And for Ryan Payne's Facebook page, what could you see on 17 the publicly viewable Facebook page?

18 A. Also photographs of Ryan Payne, Ryan Payne's family, and a
19 number of statements regarding Operation Mutual Aid and related 20 matters.

21 Q. And how about Carol Bundy's Facebook page? What could you
22 see publicly on her Facebook page?

23 A. Again, photographs of Carol Bundy and her family, as well
24 as people wishing her happy birthday on April 7th, which I knew
25 to be her birthday.

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 Q. And you were also asked a question about cell phone data.
2 One of the questions I want to ask you is about how can you
3 tell where a cell phone is physically located at any time?

4 A. Real time, it would be different, but do you mean
5 historically looking at the records that we received?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. So, historically looking at the records we received,
8 depending on the phone company and depending on how they
9 provide the data, but with cell phones, it will say this call
10 was made on this time and date, and it was using either this
11 cell tower or this cell switch. And it will give a location.

12 So, a switch is a much larger area, so it will just 13 say Las Vegas. Whereas a cell tower may say specifically
14 Bunkerville.

15 Q. So, in some of those summary exhibits, you've listed the 16 cell phone towers that those phones are pinging off of at the 17 time the calls are made?

18 A. Cell phone towers or cell phone switches, yes.

19 Q. And you were asked a question about knowing who uses a 20 phone. Did you receive subscriber information back on the 21 phones that you requested toll records for?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And what type of information was included in the 24 subscriber information?

25 A. Usually it will indicate who is paying the bills; how they

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 are paying the bills; what their addresses were; what their
2 other phone numbers are or were.

3 Q. Were you able to investigate some of that information and
4 see if it matched the names of the persons that you have
5 ascribed them to on the summary exhibits?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How did you do that?

8 A. With public source information, we are able to tell what
9 somebody's other phone numbers are at times. We may be aware
10 of that through other types of investigation. Someone may have 11 told us that this is so and so's phone number.

12 We are physically able to tell what their address is 13 often by driving by the property. For instance, Ryan Payne's
14 phone or Ryan Payne's address, I was able to drive by and 15 verify that that's where his vehicles were parked.

16 Q. And can I bring up Exhibit 65, page 5. Thank you.

17 And Agent Seyler, where is this from? Just remind us
18 where this is from.

19 A. It comes from the Facebook page that Operation Mutual Aid 20 had.

21 Q. And did there come a time when Ricky Lovelien somehow
22 commented on or liked this page?

23 A. He liked this page, yes.

24 Q. Do you remember when about that was?

25 A. It would have been April 9th or 10th I believe.

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 Q. And that would have been a few days before April 12th,
2 2014?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And this -- was this publicly visible at that time?

5 A. Yes, it was.

6 Q. And taking your attention to within the "where" statement,
7 the sentence that begins with "All laws in violation." This
8 would have been publicly viewable in April of 2014; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And it states "All laws in violation of the US and subject
11 state constitutions are hereby considered null and void."

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And it states "The enforcement of which" -- referring to 14 those laws -- "likely represents the need for such defense as 15 herein outlined"?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And taking your attention to the sixth page, please.
18 Taking your attention to that second paragraph.

19 "At such a point as the government intends to use the 20 physical power granted by those who implemented it against
21 them, it then becomes the responsibility of the people
22 themselves to defend their country from its government." Is 23 that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And this would have been publicly viewable at the time

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 that Ricky Lovelien liked the page?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Agent Seyler, in the course of your investigation of Ryan
4 Payne, have you seen other statements by Ryan Payne or Jerry
5 Bruckhart discussing OMA's purposes?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. About how many statements of its purpose would you say
8 that you've seen?

9 A. It would be at least tens if not 50 or 60 at least.

10 Q. And generally, what -- are those consistent with the 11 mission statement that's given here?

12 A. Yes, except more aggressive, several of them, yes.

13 Q. When you say more aggressive, what do you mean?

14 A. This is clearly some flowery language made to resemble
15 that of the original founders. Some of their language where 16 they actually discuss their purpose is much more discussing how 17 they are going to arrest officials. How they intend to use
18 aggressive force.

19 Q. And if we could go up to -- I think it's the second page
20 here of Exhibit 65. And this post that appears on April 5th,
21 2014, would this have been publicly viewable around April 7th,
22 8th, 9th, 10th of 2014?

23 A. Yes. It would have been the first post that you saw as 24 you scrolled vertically down the page.

25 Q. And this is discussing what in this post?

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 A. Specifically whether they have support to arrest officials
2 in Montana.

3 Q. This would be members of OMA arresting officials, state or 4 federal, in Montana?

5 A. Yes. I know the specific instance they are referring to;
6 but, yes, it was specifically officials.

7 Q. And Agent Seyler, in your review of the statements that
8 have been made by Bruckhart and Payne of OMA's purpose, did
9 they ever indicate how you determine when laws are 10 unconstitutional and this defense needs to be mounted?

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Relevance.

12 MR. TANASI: Steward joins.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

14 THE COURT: Do you want a sidebar? Let's go to
15 sidebar.

16 (Sidebar.)

17 THE COURT: All right. So, the objection -- I think
18 it was by the government? No?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, relevance. We are going way
20 beyond the scope of the question and what the mission statement
21 is of the OMA. It's just getting way beyond, and I just wonder
22 what the relevance is.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Well, they mention in their mission
24 statements that when laws are unconstitutional, we are going to 25 use defensive action.

Mark D. Seyler - Redirect

1 So, it seems to be relevant with -- when it would be
2 that they would determine that that threshold was met, because
3 Lovelien is affiliating himself with this group. He's in 4 direct contact with them. He deploys to a place where they are 5 acting. How have they -- what's the criteria for determining 6 whether they are going to use this force?

7 THE COURT: I agree with the defense. I think
8 it's -- it's wandering past the follow-up.

9 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, because that will take an hour.

10 THE COURT: It's just to clarify the answer not to 11 introduce more questions. So --

12 MR. PEREZ: And I think we all missed the point on 13 the cell phone. The cell phone question wasn't where it was,
14 it was like --

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: I know, but we can clear that up.

16 MR. PEREZ: Yeah, we will do that right now. We are 17 going sideways.

18 (End of sidebar.)

19 THE COURT: Back on the record from sidebar. The 20 objection was sustained. The government may continue with its 21 questioning.

22 MS. CREEGAN: No, further questions. Thank you, Your
23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 THE COURT: Yes, counsel for Stewart. Go ahead and
2 follow up.

3 RE CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. Brian, if we could bring back up Exhibit 65, please.

6 All right. Scroll down to page 5, please. Okay.
7 Stop there.

8 Agent Seyler, you see page 5 of Exhibit 65?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay, sir. See under the "who" statement?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Steven Stewart's name's not there; correct?

13 A. His name is not there, no.

14 Q. Okay. Steven Stewart is not at all in any way associated 15 with Operation Mutual Aid; correct?

16 A. He certainly showed up and checked up at their checkpoint
17 in Bunkerville, yes.

18 Q. Based on the information that you've seen, based on these 19 documents, based on the 41,000 pages of documents that you've
20 gone through, did you see anything --

21 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Vague --

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. -- that shows that Mr. Stewart --

24 MS. CREEGAN: -- and argumentative.

25

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. -- is, in fact, a member of Operation Mutual Aid? Yes or
3 no?

4 THE COURT: Mr. Tanasi, when there is an objection,
5 you need to stop and wait for the Court to rule on it.

6 What was the objection?

7 MS. CREEGAN: Vague and argumentative.

8 THE COURT: I don't think it's vague and 9 argumentative. You can answer the question.

10 Go ahead, Mr. Tanasi.

11 MR. TANASI: Apologize, Your Honor. Thank you.

12 THE WITNESS: I am sorry. What was the question?

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. The 41,000 pages that you reviewed, most of those pages or 15 a lot of those pages with respect to Operation Mutual Aid, did
16 you see anything relating to anything that shows that 17 Mr. Stewart was a member of Operation Mutual Aid? Yes or no?

18 A. Not a member, no.

19 Q. Thank you, sir. In fact, you saw no private messages;
20 right? Between Mr. Payne and Mr. Stewart; right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. You also saw no private messages between 23 Mr. Lovelien and Mr. Stewart; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And there's a reference to different items that were

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 either public or private; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Public means anybody can see them; anybody in the 4 world could see them if they are public; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And if they see them, it doesn't mean that they
7 necessarily subscribe to them; correct?

8 A. Not if they merely see them, no.

9 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you, sir. Nothing further.

10 THE COURT: Counsel for Parker, any follow-up
11 questions?

12 MR. MARCHESE: Briefly, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Just a few questions. Going back to the time line on the 16 video that we were speaking about, the one that you downloaded
17 from the Review Journal website; do you remember that one?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. So, would it be fair to say that you originally 20 viewed the online article with the accompanying video on 21 April 10th of 2014?

22 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I'm going to object. This
23 is beyond the scope of jury question.

24 MR. MARCHESE: She alluded to it on her redirect, I
25 guess, examination.

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 MS. CREEGAN: I --

2 MR. MARCHESE: About what Mr. Petrie and Mr. Stewart
3 saw. There were some questions about that.

4 MS. CREEGAN: I did not ask a question to that
5 effect.

6 THE COURT: There was no redirect.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Well, whatever. I don't know what we
8 call this. The questions in reference to the jury questions.

9 THE COURT: The follow-up question?

10 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

11 THE COURT: She didn't ask any follow-up questions
12 about that.

13 MR. MARCHESE: But he answered it in reference to 14 things that -- specifically things that Mr. Parker and 15 Mr. Stewart saw.

16 THE COURT: I don't recall that. I'm sorry.
17 Overruled. I'm sorry. I mean sustained. Ask a different
18 question.

19 BY MR. MARCHESE:

20 Q. Okay. And then in reference to -- there was the question,
21 Your Honor, and counsel, in reference to bringing guns or
22 bringing a gun. It's our request that day 26 of Mr. Parker's
23 testimony, page 143 -- I know it might take a second for 24 everyone to get that out.

25 We would like a portion read into the record. I'll

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 just give the beginning and the end when everyone is ready.
2 You got it up? 146, line six, Day 26, not 27.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I don't believe that
4 Mr. Marchese can introduce something that wasn't introduced
5 before. It would be hearsay as to him, because he's not 6 unavailable to himself under 804.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I think first --

8 THE COURT: Didn't we already do this on direct?
9 Wasn't that a portion that was read into the --

10 MR. MARCHESE: Not this portion. This was in -- I
11 found this in reference to the juror question.

12 THE COURT: Right, a juror question that we didn't 13 ask. I understand that. But I don't have the transcript in 14 front of me, so the portion that you're referring to, I think I
15 remember what is said in that transcript.

16 My question is, was that a portion of the transcript
17 that was read earlier into the record by the government and 18 this witness?

19 MR. MARCHESE: No, it was not, but I believe it
20 answers it.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, it hasn't been admitted.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

23 THE COURT: And so I think the objection is that it's
24 not admissible.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Well, the juror asked the question. I

Witness Name - RX

1 believe that based on the transcript and what's gone on in the
2 last day or two, that this witness has the ability to answer
3 it, because he was present for Mr. Parker's testimony. And we
4 have brought in some of Mr. Parker's testimony previously.

5 I believe that this particular portion of the 6 transcript answers the juror's question.

7 THE COURT: All right. That's your belief, but
8 inadmissible evidence does not become admissible just because a
9 jury asks a question about it. So, the objection is sustained.

10 Counsel for Lovelien.

11 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. PEREZ:

14 Q. Special Agent Seyler, the question was asked about the 15 cell phone, whether or not you could tell if someone else was 16 using a cell phone.

17 Your response was more where the cell phone was, and 18 I get that. But if -- if my cell phone is in my car right now
19 and it's used, can you tell me who is using it?

20 I mean, I think that's more the question. Am I
21 missing something? Is there a way to tell who is using the 22 phone?

23 A. At times you can actually observe the individual using the 24 phone.

25 Q. Okay. So, you are saying you have to see them using it?

Witness Name - RX

1 A. If you are talking about eliminating any doubt whatsoever
2 of who is talking on a phone, I can't view the phone in the
3 room right next to me unless I'm up on a wiretap and listening
4 to who is on the phone.

5 Q. And you weren't doing that; were you?

6 A. No.

7 Q. So, there's really no way of knowing who was using a cell
8 phone?

9 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Argumentative.

10 THE WITNESS: Yes.

11 MR. PEREZ: He answered.

12 THE WITNESS: Yes, there's every way to know who is 13 using the cell phone by, like I said, talking about where they 14 were at any given time. So, we can show who is actually
15 traveling, who is using the phone. Pictures of them actually
16 there. You can see them using it.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Only at that particular moment. So, if you don't have a
19 picture of somebody using the phone -- well, let's -- we'll use
20 a good example here.

21 We know that Mr. Lovelien used his phone at 12:32 on 22 April 12th, and he was on the phone for four minutes. And we 23 know that he called his sister. That's been put into evidence
24 by you.

25 Okay. Now, and we know that the events that were

Witness Name - RX

1 taking place also took place, like, right around noon. I
2 believe you have a picture -- a Facebook post that's got the
3 time of the -- of the photo, I believe.

4 A. I'm not familiar with the time.

5 Q. So, that would establish that Mr. Lovelien did, in fact,
6 use that phone on that bridge at that time; correct?

7 A. If what you're talking about is establishing beyond any
8 unreasonable doubt whatsoever --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection as to the legal analysis.

10 THE COURT: Well, I think that the way that the 11 question is posed is begging for that clarification, so I'll 12 allow the counsel to restate the question --

13 MR. PEREZ: Okay.

14 THE COURT: -- maybe in a way that the witness can 15 actually answer it.

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Sir, essentially, the only way to really show that you
18 know who is on the phone is to actually have a picture of them
19 on the phone at the time and correspond that particular photo
20 with the phone records; correct?

21 A. No, I'm very --

22 MS. CREEGAN: Argumentative.

23 THE WITNESS: -- confident in establishing that those 24 individuals were on the phone at that time. It would strain
25 credibility to assume that another individual is using it when

Witness Name - RX

1 they are the ones that are talking. They are talking about,
2 "Yeah, I just got off the phone," or "Please call me," and then
3 that person then calls on the phone. So --

4 BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. Now you are confusing two forms of communication. You say
6 "I saw. Please call me." You weren't pulling text messages.
7 You were pulling Facebook posts.

8 A. If what you are saying is I cannot have any idea who is on 9 a phone, then that doesn't make any sense to me.

10 Q. No, I'm not saying that you don't have any idea, but there
11 is really no way to know. Unless you have a photograph or 12 something else, there is no way to know who is using that
13 phone.

14 A. Yes, I often do know who is using the phone.

15 Q. Okay. Someone used my phone last night. I will tell you
16 the time.

17 THE COURT: Let's do this. Okay. There was an 18 instruction -- a preliminary instruction given to the jury that 19 there's two different forms of evidence. There's direct
20 evidence.

21 MR. PEREZ: Right.

22 THE COURT: Someone walks in. You saw it raining
23 this morning on the way to the courthouse. Or there's 24 circumstantial evidence. Somebody walks in with a wet rain
25 coat, umbrella that's wet. They are kind of moving it around,

Witness Name - RX

1 closing it. I think I used some kind of an example like that.

2 One is direct evidence that it's raining. The other
3 is circumstantial evidence that it's raining. And I instructed 4 the jury that the law does not make any distinction between the
5 weight that is given. Both are acceptable forms of proving a
6 fact, and it's up to the jury to decide how much weight to give
7 to it; whether or not it's credible to them.

8 But the fact that one is direct and one is 9 circumstantial, that in and of itself does not diminish the 10 value. They are both equally acceptable.

11 So, I think that's what you are arguing about, and I
12 think you are making it --

13 BY MR. PEREZ:

14 Q. So then --

15 THE COURT: -- harder when the purpose of the jury
16 questions and follow-up are to clarify things for the jury, not 17 to confuse them more.

18 BY MR. PEREZ:

19 Q. So then if we have a photograph of Mr. Lovelien on the 20 phone at 12:32, there is no question that he was on that phone;
21 he was the one using that phone at that time; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Thank you nothing further.

24 THE COURT: Counsel for Drexler?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

RE CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

Q. Can we get 65 up, please?

The Operation Mutual Aid, it was dated what date, sir?

A. June 18th of 2013.

Q. And where is it out of?

A. Hamlin, West Virginia.

Q. Okay. Now, the incident we are here for today was April 12th, 2014; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Okay. And there's no indication that Mr. Drexler was a member of Operation Mutual Aid; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. You were asked about reconciling the aliases on Facebook, i.e., Billy the Kid, if you will?

A. Yes.

Q. And you indicated that you could corroborate that?

A. At times we can, yes.

Q. Okay. But there were thousands of different people on the Facebook aliases and different people on there; correct? On different people's postings?

A. In the materials that we reviewed in this case, yeah. There were thousands, probably, yes.

Q. Okay. So, there's no 100 percent or -- way to actually

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 reconcile an alias or who that is; correct?

2 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Argumentative.

3 THE COURT: You are asking a 100 percent way. I
4 think that's getting back to the direct and circumstantial. If 5 you want to ask did he look at each and every single person and 6 verify if they were who they were, I think maybe that would be 7 an easier question he could answer and still provide you the 8 answer you are looking for.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

10 Q. Did you look at each and every person that was on there,
11 whether it was an alias or real person or a group of people?
12 Because we saw Operation Mutual Aid had a Facebook account,
13 too; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So, that would be a group of people; correct?

16 A. No, it would just be an individual page. It wasn't a
17 group. Those are two different things.

18 Q. Okay. Are you able to corroborate or verify each and 19 every person that you came across that was on Facebook?

20 A. No, we would have only tried to do that on individuals
21 that we had a particular interest in.

22 Q. So if you saw Billy the Kid?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You would be able to corroborate that; who that is?

25 A. If it was important enough for us to pin down exactly who

Mark D. Seyler - RX

1 that individual was, there are a number of techniques that we
2 could use. The Facebook records provide us, for instance, an
3 Internet protocol, IP address, that that person was using at
4 the time.

5 We could actually physically go to that location.
6 Try to find out which individual was using it. So, it's a
7 degree of investigation. If it's important enough for us to 8 try to figure out who is using that, we will employ other
9 investigative techniques to try to do that.

10 Q. Okay. But we agree, as in this case, Mr. Lovelien had his 11 sister posting on his accounts; correct?

12 A. No, she he was posting from her own accounts.

13 Q. Okay. But there's other people that could be posting for 14 others. Unless you are standing over their shoulder; correct?
15 Then you can't. You wouldn't ever be able to tell; right?

16 A. Are you saying I didn't personally witness everybody
17 posting? No, I didn't.

18 Q. You were asked or the jury asked whether or not Mr. -- any 19 of the defendants directly communicated with Payne.

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Other than Lovelien?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And your answer was, "Yeah, well, Payne gave statements, 24 articles, and they were out there."

25 A. I didn't say that the other defendants had communicated

Mark D. Seyler - Further Direct

1 with Payne. I said statements that Payne had made directed
2 towards individuals just like those defendants, they had
3 received, yes.

4 Q. Okay. But you don't know if they were read?

5 A. They were shared.

6 Q. You don't know if they were read? That's my question.

7 A. All I know is that they are shared. I don't know if they
8 were read.

9 Q. So, the answer is "No, you don't know if they were read"?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. And so you don't -- and there's no private 12 messaging between Mr. Drexler and Mr. Payne?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Directly?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And there is no directly messaging or any of that 17 communication between Mr. Drexler and Mr. Lovelien; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Anyone else? Ms. Creegan, anything else
21 you want to follow up?

22 MS. CREEGAN: Just one question.

23 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Mr. Leventhal was just asking you about corroborating.

Mark D. Seyler - Further Direct

1 How do you corroborate Lovelien's and Payne's accounts?

2 A. Well, as I stated, the accounts did contain photographs of
3 both individuals, which I recognized as Mr. Payne and
4 Mr. Lovelien.

5 The Lovelien account specifically had the phone
6 number that we were familiar with. The Payne account had the 7 email account that we already knew to belong to Ryan Payne.
8 So, those were some of the ways that we were able to 9 corroborate that those accounts did belong to those
10 individuals.

11 In addition, the posts that they made were consistent
12 with what we observed ourselves, through photographs, and 13 through witnesses, and through other methods of investigation.
14 For instance, when Mr. Payne requested that Mr. Lovelien call
15 him, we saw the phone records show that Mr. Lovelien did, in 16 fact, call Mr. Payne.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. Nothing further.

18 THE COURT: All right. Anything else from the
19 defense?

20 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor. Thank
21 you.

22 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Anything else?

25 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. So, thank you very much
2 Special Agent Seyler. I think there was some communication
3 between counsel as to whether or not you might be recalled by 4 the defense, so you can check with them.

5 You don't need to come back after lunch. You can go
6 and have a longer lunch. The rest of us will have a shorter
7 lunch. It's 12:10. Plan to be back here at 1:10.

8 During this lunch break, I do remind the jury, please
9 do not discuss this case with anyone, not even your fellow
10 jurors. Speak about other things, please. Do not listen to,
11 or review, or read anything that touches upon this case in any
12 way.

13 Do not research or make any independent
14 investigation. Feel free to keep writing down those questions.
15 Like I said, even if we can't ask it of the particular witness
16 who is here today, we are going to be here for a while, for a
17 couple weeks, and this way the attorneys know better who they 18 need to call to answer your questions.

19 This might be a good idea, too. So, when I was 20 reviewing the questions with counsel, there was a pause,
21 because we weren't sure who you were referring to when you say
22 "they," or when you say "he," things like that. So, try not to 23 use pronouns when you can, if you actually know who you are 24 referring to. So, if you are referring to a specific 25 defendant, if you can say the name of the defendant or the

1 first letter, if you don't know how to spell it, or a defendant
2 if you mean defendant, versus government, versus BLM, just to
3 make it easier for us to understand what your question is.

4 And lastly, do not form any opinion until after you
5 have heard all the testimony, received all the evidence. I
6 will give you the written jury instructions of law to help
7 guide you with how to value or compare the evidence, and then
8 you'll hear closing arguments. After that, you will begin the 9 deliberation process, and then you can begin sharing your views
10 and ideas with each other and reach your opinions.

11 All right. So, we will stand for the jury. And we
12 will welcome them back at -- I spoke for so long, let's say
13 1:15. We'll start back at 1:15.

14 Special Agent Seyler, as soon as they exit, then you
15 may exit as well. Be careful with the steps.

16 (Jury out.)

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Off record.

4 (Jury not present.)

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is time set for Jury
8 Trail, Day 7, in Case No. 2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL, United States of 9 America versus Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler, Ricky Lovelein,
10 and Steven Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. Before we bring in the jury,
12 just want to remind everyone that there are expectations about
13 how folks should behave in the courtroom. This is a courtroom;
14 it is not a sporting event. And what that means is that no
15 expressions, whether verbal or through body language, are 16 acceptable. So no matter how much you agree or disagree with 17 something that is being said, your opinion should not be made
18 verbally or through body language.

19 People may not speak out of turn. We do have 20 microphones for the attorneys; they are turned off during 21 sidebar. And the attorneys also have electronic devices to aid
22 them in their presentation and review and preparation. The 23 defendants do not have microphones anymore and they are not to 24 speak to each other during sidebar nor make any kind of efforts
25 to communicate with the jury or anyone else in the courtroom.

1 There is no other folks who are permitted to have
2 electronic devices. So please check and make sure that you
3 don't have inadvertently a -- brought in a phone or iPad or 4 laptop or something like that. Even if it's in private mode or
5 vibrate mode, that's not good enough. It's not permitted. You
6 can't have the device at all. There's no audio recording or 7 video recording permitted in federal court.

8 The podium has -- it's moved in the direction for the 9 witness, so that we can do that.

10 The Marshals and the CSOs are authorized by the 11 Court -- if I am at sidebar and you see the defendants either
12 trying to communicate with each other, with the public, or with 13 the jury, speaking up, doing something distracting, writing
14 notes to show them to the jury to call it to my attention.
15 I'll call a break, we'll take the jury out, and then have that 16 defendant removed.

17 We do have a speaker set up in the holding cell. And 18 so, if a defendant cannot comply with these, I think, very
19 easy-to-follow requests, then they will end up in the Marshal's 20 holding cell for the remainder of the day listening to the 21 trial. It won't stop the trial. They won't be here
22 personally, but they'll be able to continue to hear it. While 23 defendants do have a right to be present during trial, they can
24 waive their presence if they are not following court orders.

25 You've heard all these rules before. You were able to

1 comply with them the first time. I don't know why we're having
2 problems now. I don't want to have to put you in the holding
3 cell, but I will if that's what you're forcing me to do. So
4 you're on notice.

5 I think that's everything. Mr. Myhre, I saw you stand
6 up. So was there an issue that you wanted to raise before we
7 bring in the jury?

8 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 Yesterday, when we concluded, Alex Ellis was on the 10 stand. I just finished direct and subject to 11 cross-examination. I was informed this morning that Mr. Ellis
12 was in urgent care this morning.

13 THE COURT: Oh, no.

14 MR. MYHRE: And we don't know if -- we have an agent
15 checking in on him. Don't think he'll be available this 16 morning; may not be available this afternoon. We'll try. May 17 not be till Monday.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. MYHRE: But, in any event, we have witnesses ready
20 to go in his stead. So we would propose that we proceed
21 forward with Mr. Petrie next. And then, if we could just let 22 the jury know that he's un -- you know, Mr. Ellis will be back;
23 he's unavailable or something along that lines so they are --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. MYHRE: -- not left guessing what's going on.

1 THE COURT: And Mr. Petrie is here and available and
2 ready to go?

3 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Then okay. So we'll do that. Thank
5 you.

6 Go ahead bring in the jury, Aaron.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

8 (Pause in the proceedings.)

9 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

10 (Jury in, 9:32 a.m.)

11 THE COURT: Thank you. The jury may be seated.

12 Everyone else also please go ahead and take your seats.

13 And if the -- counsel, if you'll please make your 14 appearances for the record.

15 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 Good morning, Your Honor; ladies and gentlemen. Steven 17 Myhre, Erin Creegan, Nadia Ahmed on behalf of the United
18 States.

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 Good morning, folks. Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart.
22 Also with us at counsel table, Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.
23 Thank you.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you and good morning, Your Honor;
25 everyone. Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, everyone. Todd Leventhal
2 on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

3 MR. PEREZ: Good morning. Shawn Perez on behalf of 4 Ricky Lovelien.

5 THE COURT: All right. And good morning.

6 So yesterday we completed direct examination by the 7 Government of the witness Mr. Alex Ellis. He is not gonna be
8 able to return this morning. We probably will see him Monday.
9 What we're going to do is shift gears a little bit and 10 Government's gonna call its next witness. And then we'll 11 welcome back Mr. Ellis as soon as we're able to catch up in the 12 calendar.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
14 calls Terry Petrie.

15 THE COURT: Petrie.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Petrie.

18 THE WITNESS: Good morning, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Come on up. You're gonna be seated over to 20 my right. Careful with those steps.

21 (Terry Petrie takes the witness stand.)

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Good morning, sir.

23 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please remain standing and
25 raise your right hand.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you shall give
2 in the cause now before this court shall be the truth, the
3 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

4 THE WITNESS: I do.

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
6 seated.

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

8 TERRY PETRIE,
9 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
10 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please state your full name
12 for the record and spell your last name.

13 THE WITNESS: My --

14 THE COURT: Bless you.

15 THE WITNESS: -- my name is Terry Petrie. And I spell
16 that last name P-e-t-r-i-e.

17 THE COURT: Whenever you're ready.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. Good morning, Mr. Petrie.

21 A. Good morning.

22 Q. Can you please tell the jury what your current job or 23 position is?

24 A. I'm a trial attorney with the United States Department of 25 Justice in their Environment and Natural Resources Division.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. How long have you been a trial attorney with the Environment
2 and Natural Resources Division?

3 A. Since 2000. And 2 years before that with the Department's 4 Civil Division.

5 Q. As an attorney with the Environment and Natural Resources
6 Division, do you have particular duties?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. What are they?

9 A. Generally speaking, it is to handle environmentally related
10 litigation. The Environmental Division handles a broad array
11 of different types of environmental litigation. So some of 12 that litigation involves the enforcement of pollution laws,
13 Clean Water Act, clean air, hazardous materials, things of that 14 sort.

15 A second category of work that the Division handles
16 involves when United States gets sued because of some of the 17 activities or programs of a federal agency, arguably, have 18 violated environmental laws and sometimes Uncle Sam then finds
19 itself being sued.

20 A third category of cases that we handle involve
21 where -- it's involving the stewardship, overseeing the 22 stewardship of the lands and the public lands and the natural
23 resources that the United States have.

24 A fourth category involves eminent domain. A
25 government entity is going to take somebody's property and then

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 in turn have to pay for it for some kind of a public purpose.
2 That same category has a flip side which we call "takings"
3 where the government decides that it's going to do something
4 and it has the effect of taking somebody's private property
5 rights. And so, under the Fifth Amendment, that party is 6 entitled to just compensation, money for the property value
7 that they had taken from them.

8 A fifth category of cases that the Division handles
9 involves the protection of wildlife species.

10 A sixth category, the last one that I can think of,
11 involves the cases that the United States environmental 12 Division handles regarding American Native Indian Tribes.
13 Sometimes we are suing on their behalf and then sometimes they 14 sue us.

15 And so that's a fairly broad range of cases that we 16 handle.

17 Q. Thank you, sir.

18 Are you familiar, in your capacity as an attorney with 19 the Environment and Natural Resources Division, with civil 20 litigation that occurred between the United States and Cliven
21 Bundy?

22  I am.

23 Q. And, in that case, did the Department of Interior sue Cliven
24 Bundy?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. And how are you familiar with that case?

2 A. The case that I'm familiar with, I believe you're referring
3 to, is some litigation brought in 1998?

4 Q. Are you familiar with the case that occurred in the District
5 of Nevada between --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- 1998 and 2013?

8 A. Yes.

9 In 2012 and then again in 2013, the United States
10 brought some litigation through the Department of Interior and 11 the underpinnings factually of those cases relate to some 12 litigation involving Mr. Bundy back in 1998. I was not 13 personally present in the 1998 litigation, but I handled the 14 litigation in 2012 and 2013 and the backdrop for those two 15 cases involved --

16 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, narrative.

17 THE WITNESS: -- what was handled in the 1998
18 litigation.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. He's done.

20 BY MS. CREEGAN:

21 Q. And sorry if this is repetitive. But, as the attorney on 22 the case from 2012 forward, you were familiar with the 23 litigation and the case going back to 1998?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Can I bring up, for the witness only,

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Exhibit 1?

2 THE COURT: Yes you may.

3 (Document displayed to the witness.)

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Mr. Petrie, do you recognize what's depicted in Exhibit 1?

6 And it's also on the screen to your right if you are looking
7 for it.

8 A. Thank you.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 THE WITNESS: Yes, I do recognize this document.

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. Is this one of the orders that was entered in the course of 13 the litigation that you were just discussing?

14 A. Yes. It's an order that was issued in November of 1998.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
16 Exhibit 1.

17 (Government's Exhibit No. 1, offered.)

18 THE COURT: Any objection on Exhibit 1?

19 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects as relevance, Your Honor.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

22 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

23 THE COURT: This is the Order -- this is the original
24 Order from 1998?

25 MS. CREEGAN: This Order is one of four that the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 government will be entering that underpin the obstruction of
2 justice charge and the conspiracy to obstruct justice charge.
3 The Government's charge is that the defendants conspired, aided
4 and abetted, and worked directly with Mr. Bundy in order to 5 evade these Orders and disobey these Orders.

6 THE COURT: All right. The Court is satisfied that it
7 is relevant. Exhibit 1 will be admitted.

8 (Government's Exhibit No. 1, received.)

9 THE COURT: Did you wish to publish it?

10 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

11 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. And, Mr. Petrie, about how long is this order from the civil 14 litigation that occurred between the United States and 15 Mr. Bundy?

16 THE COURT: Oh, just a minute. I think the screens are 17 not all on.

18 (Brief pause.)

19 THE COURT: They are all on now?

20 JURORS: (Head nods.)

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 THE WITNESS: May I ask if you could repeat --

23 THE COURT: Yeah, could you repeat that? I forgot too
24 what the question was.

2 Q. About how long is the Order that was issued in the civil
3 litigation between Mr. Bundy and the United States?

4 A. In the 1998 litigation, this exhibit?

5 Q. This exhibit, yes, sir.

6 A. It is 11 pages long.

7 Q. Okay. And does this Order contain a background of the case
8 up until the Order was entered?

9 A. It does.

10 Q. Okay.

11 COURT REPORTER: Pull that microphone just a little bit
12 closer to you. Either one.

13 THE WITNESS: (Complies.)

14 COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. Can I ask you to read some of the that background starting 17 at page 2 at line 7 and going through page 3 at line 21?

18 A. Starting at page 2, line 7?

19 Q. Yes, sir.

20 A. "The last grazing fees paid by Bundy to the BLM was for the 21 period of December 1, 1992 to February 28, 1993. See Exhibit 7
22 to #11, Mot [for] Summ. Jud. The last grazing application was 23 for the same period. See Exhibit 8 to #11. The government
24 contends Bundy did not have authorization to graze livestock on 25 the Allotment after February 28, 1993.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 "On February 26, 1993, Bundy sent an Administrative
2 Notice of Intent to the BLM, which stated his intent to graze
3 cattle 'pursuant to my vested grazing rights.' See Exhibit 10
4 to #11. Bundy sent several more Administrative Notice[s] of 5 Intent in the months that followed. On June 16[th], 1993, the 6 BLM sent Bundy a letter informing him that his application had
7 not been received to graze livestock for the June 15[th], 1993
8 to August 31, 1993 period. The BLM included another
9 application for Bundy to fill out and return. See Exhibit 12
10 to #11. Bundy responded to the BLM letter with another
11 Administrative Notice and Intent, stating, among other things,
12 that the BLM has produced no documents showing it had 13 jurisdiction over the public lands. See Exhibit 13 to #11.
14 The BLM began trespass detection efforts at the end of 15 June 1993.

16 "On July 13[th], 1993, the BLM sent Bundy a Trespass
17 Notice and Order to Remove and gave him ten days to respond.
18 As requested by Bundy, the BLM informed Bundy in a July 27[th],
19 1993 letter that it would extend the response time to 30 days.
20 On August 19[th], 1993, Bundy sent another Administrative 21 Notice and Intent, stating the BLM lacked proof that it had 22 jurisdiction. See Exhibit 16 to #11.

23 "On January 24, 1994, the BLM delivered a Proposed 24 Decision Order to Remove and Demand for Payment to Bundy by 25 placing it on the dashboard of Bundy's vehicle while he was in

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 the vehicle. BLM officials allege that Bundy became agitated,
2 walked out of his truck and accused the BLM of harassing him.
3 He then returned to his truck, threw the decision out of the 4 window and drove away. One of Bundy's sons then picked up the 5 decision, tore it into pieces and threw it on the ground.

6 "On February 17[th], 1994, the BLM issued a final
7 decision canceling Bundy's ephemeral range grazing permit. On
8 March 3, 1994, Bundy sent a check for $1,961.47 to Clark County
9 for grazing fees. The BLM calculated that this amount is equal
10 to the amount Bundy would pay to graze 85 cattle on the 11 Allotment for a 12-month period if the fees were paid to the 12 BLM in advance. Clark County returned the check to Bundy since
13 it did not have jurisdiction over the Allotment.

14 "In March and April of 1994, the BLM sent letters to 15 Bundy requesting that he pay past due pills for grazing fees.
16 Bundy responded by sending more administrative notices. In 17 December 1994, Bundy or his agents served a Constructive Notice
18 on a contractor hired by the BLM to gather wild horses and 19 burros. In August 1995, the BLM sent Bundy another Trespass
20 Notice and Order to Remove. Bundy responded by sending a
21 Constructive Notice and Order to Stop, in which he again
22 questioned the United States' authority to manage the 23 Allotment. See Exhibit 28 to #11.

24 "In September 1997, the BLM tried to set up a meeting
25 with Bundy to resolve the trespasses, but Bundy declined to

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 meet with the BLM.

2 "The government contends it could have impounded
3 Bundy's livestock, but it took no action because any action
4 could have resulted in physical confrontation. Since the
5 trespass detection efforts began in late June of 1993, the BLM
6 has kept a record of observed livestock grazing on the 7 Allotment."

8 Q. Thank you very much, Mr. Petrie.

9 And this Order, was it in response to motions that were 10 filed by the parties?

11 A. Yes, it was.

12 Q. What were the motions that were filed by the United States
13 and by Mr. Bundy?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, foundation.

15 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

17 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Especially given that this witness
19 already testified he wasn't part of this lawsuit.

20 MS. CREEGAN: The motion --

21 THE COURT: Do you want to ask if he -- set the
22 foundation.

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Mr. Petrie, as a person who had worked on this case in 2012
25 and beyond that, did you review the court record of the case?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. These are public records and judicial documents?

3 A. They are.

4 Q. And so are you familiar with the motions that were filed in
5 the case?

6 A. I am.

7 Q. And are some of the motions that were filed recounted in the 8 Order itself which motions that it is responding to?

9 A. They are.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I would submit there is 11 submission -- a sufficient foundation to ask the question.

12 THE COURT: Objection overruled. He may answer the
13 question.

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. And, Mr. Petrie, just to repeat it for you. The question
16 is, does this Order resolve some motions that were filed by the 17 parties?

18 A. Yes. The --

19 Q. And what were the motions that were filed?

20 A. The United States in this 1998 motion had -- or litigation
21 had filed a Motion for Summary Judgment and the defendant,
22 Mr. Bundy, he had filed a Motion to Dismiss as well as opposing 23 the Motion for Summary Judgment.

24 Q. So the United States filed a Motion for Summary Judgment.
25 What does that mean?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Motion for summary judgment is just a technical way of
2 saying one party says to the judge, in other words, there's 3 really no dispute about the material facts, the facts are the 4 facts, and the law that you would apply to those facts favor my 5 side. So give me a decision that let's me win. Motion for 6 summary judgment.

7 Q. And what is a motion to dismiss?

8 A. Motion to dismiss is basically the same goal. You're trying
9 to get rid of something. So, in this case, Mr. Bundy in 1998
10 had filed a Motion to Dismiss seeking to dismiss the 11 government's case against him. And there his contentions were 12 that arguments that went to whether or not the court had 13 jurisdiction, did it have the authority to entertain this kind
14 of an action brought against him by the United States and as 15 well as whether or not the United States had jurisdiction to 16 handle the properties, the federal lands.

17 Q. Did the court resolve both the United States's Motion for 18 Summary Judgment and Mr. Bundy's Motion to Dismiss?

19 A. They did.

20 Q. And is this --

21 A. The court did.

22 Q. I apologize.

23 Is this at the end of this Order on page 11?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Could you please read the Order of the court on page 11?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. The portion that begins with "CONCLUSION"?

2 Q. Yes, please.

3 A. Starting on line 6 under line 5, "CONCLUSION"

4 "This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 5 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345. The United States owns the 6 Allotment where Bundy is grazing livestock without authority.
7 Since Bundy is in trespass on public lands,

8 "IT IS ORDERED that Defendant's Motion to Dismiss is 9 DENIED.

10 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion for 11 Summary Judgment (#11) is GRANTED as to the permanent 12 injunction.

13 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy is permanently
14 enjoined from grazing his livestock within the Bunkerville
15 Allotment and shall remove his livestock from this allotment on 16 or before November 30, 1998.

17 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff United States
18 shall be entitled to trespass damages from Bundy in the amount
19 of $200.00 per day per head for any livestock belonging" --
20 "belonging to Bundy remaining on the Bunkerville Allotment
21 after November 30[th], 1998.

22 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's Motion to 23 Strike Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED.

24 The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.

25 DATED this 3rd day of November, 1998."

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 And it's signed by Judge Rawlinson.

2 Q. And, just to make sure that we understand what these
3 different parts of the Order mean, taking your attention to 4 the -- line 10 where it says "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the 5 Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment . . . is GRANTED," what
6 does that mean?

7 A. "Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment . . . is GRANTED."
8 That's -- the government had filed a Motion for Summary
9 Judgment saying basically, Judge, there was no dispute about 10 the facts here; the cattle is improper -- is in trespass; it's 11 on public lands; the United States owns it. And the law says
12 when you've got that then you should enforce an injunction --
13 issue an injunction to have him remove his cattle. And so that 14 portion of the Order is basically saying, yes, the government's 15 correct; they win.

16 Q. And may I ask you what is an injunction?

17 A. An injunction is an order from the court that tells somebody
18 they've got to do something or, depending upon the situation,
19 stop doing something.

20 Q. And, in this case, what was the injunction to do?

21 A. The injunction was for Mr. Bundy to stop trespassing, having 22 his cattle being trespassed, and to remove the cattle from the 23 property.

24 Q. And this might be an obvious question. But what does it
25 mean to say that he is "permanently enjoined from grazing his

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 livestock within the Bunkerville Allotment"?

2 A. I'm sorry. Where is that at?

3 Q. That would be on line 12 and 13.

4 A. Okay. (Reviewing exhibit.)

5 So you're asking what does it mean "permanently
6 enjoined"?

7 Q. What does it mean for somebody to be permanently enjoined
8 from doing something?

9 A. It means that, never more; you can't do it again.
10 Permanent.

11 Q. Mr. Petrie, did Mr. Bundy appeal this Order of the court?

12 A. Yes, he did.

13 Q. And what was the process for appealing this Order?

14 A. Somebody in Mr. Bundy's position, that's been on the losing
15 end of a decision from a district court in the federal court
16 systems, they have an opportunity to appeal it. And here in 17 the United States with our district courts, we've got, like, 94
18 different district courts across the United States in the 19 federal court system. And then those federal district courts
20 are divided up into different circuits and -- that serve as the 21 first level of an appeal.

22 And this court here in Nevada is part of the Ninth
23 Circuit Court of Appeals. And then -- so Mr. Bundy had an 24 opportunity and, in this instance, did appeal to that Ninth 25 Circuit Court of Appeals. People who are unhappy with an

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 outcome there can, if they want, attempt to appeal to the 2 Supreme Court, United States Supreme Court. In this case,
3 Mr. Bundy appealed to the Ninth Circuit.

4 Q. What was the ruling of the Ninth Circuit?

5 A. They disagreed with Mr. Bundy and they upheld the district
6 court decision that we are looking at.

7 Q. So, as of April of 2014, was this Order that we've just been
8 looking at, Exhibit 1, still in effect?

9 A. It was.

10 Q. Thank you.

11 MS. CREEGAN: You can take that down.

12 If we can bring up for the witness only Exhibit 2.

13 (Document displayed to the witness.)

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. Mr. Petrie, what's depicted in Exhibit 2?

16 A. Exhibit 2 is another Order that comes from the 1998
17 litigation.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
19 Exhibit 2.

20 (Government's Exhibit No. 2, offered.)

21 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 2?

22 MR. TANASI: Objection, relevance, Your Honor.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins on relevance.

25 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 THE COURT: Relevance.

2 MS. CREEGAN: This is one of the four Orders which the
3 defendants are accused of obstructing justice and conspiring to 4 obstruct justice by violating.

5 THE COURT: This is the 1999 Order?

6 MS. CREEGAN: Correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Court does find it is relevant
8 to the case. Exhibit 2 will be admitted.

9 (Government's Exhibit No. 2, received.)

10 THE COURT: Did you want to go ahead and publish it?

11 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. Agent -- I'm sorry -- Mr. Petrie, is this another Order in 15 the case -- the civil case that was filed against Mr. Bundy by 16 the United States?

17 A. Yes, it was.

18 Q. And what is the date of this Order?

19 A. The date of this Order is September 17th, 1999.

20 Q. And, is there also a background section for this Order
21 explaining some of the litigation up to this point?

22 A. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. And I won't ask you to read background that's the same as 24 the background that you've already read. But I can ask you to 25 read on page 2, starting at line 10, that full paragraph.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. Page 2, line 10:

2 "On January 27[th], 1999, the United States filed this
3 motion to enforce injunction alleging that Bundy continues to 4 trespass on public lands despite this Court's order. United
5 States provides evidence from Robert Stager, Lead Rangeland
6 Management Specialist of the Department of the Interior, that 7 he detected Bundy's livestock on the Allotment on 8 December 15[th], 1998."

9 Q. Mr. Petrie, what was the reason for requesting a new order
10 in this case?

11 A. My understanding is, is that in the first Order --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to speculation.

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. Have you reviewed the Court records in this case?

15 A. I did.

16 Q. And does that include an explanation of the facts leading up
17 to and the motions that were filed leading up to this Order
18 being entered?

19 A. Yes, I believe it does.

20 Q. What is your understanding of why a new order was sought in 21 the case?

22 A. Mr. Bundy had failed to comply with the earlier Order that 23 we were discussing a few minuting ago, the November 4, 1998,
24 the Exhibit 1, and his cattle continued to remain in trespass
25 and the United States observed that and so they brought this

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 Motion to Enforce the Injunction saying, in essence, to the 2 judge: He's not complying with the order. Please issue an
3 order again. And this Order that we're looking at here is that 4 order.

5 Q. And did the court actually enter an order on the second to 6 last and last page of the Order?

7 A. Yes, it did.

8 Q. Could you please read that order under the heading
9 "DISCUSSION"?

10 A. Yes. It comes from page 2 and it starts at line 16:

11 "Bundy has not shown why he should not or could not
12 comply with the Court's Order . . . entered on November 4,
13 1998. The United States has submitted evidence that Bundy's
14 cattle were detected by Robert Stager, a specialist with the 15 DOI, on December 15th, 1998. Accordingly,

16 "IT IS ORDERED that the United States' Motion to 17 Enforce Injunction . . . is GRANTED with modifications.

18 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED in a Bundy shall remove his 19 livestock from this allotment as previously ordered by the 20 Court in the Order entered on November 4, 1998.

21 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall pay to the
22 United States $1,377.00 as willful repeated trespass damages
23 for 51 cattle from December 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998.

24 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall pay to the 25 United States $45.90 per day for each day Bundy's livestock

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 remains on the allotment, commencing January 1, 1999.

2 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall pay to the
3 United States $4,123.06 for the expense incurred by the BLM for 4 the December 15[th], 1998, trespass detection flight.

5 "The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.

6 "DATED this 17th day of September, 1999."

7 Signed by United States District Judge Rawlinson.

8 Q. Thank you.

9 MS. CREEGAN: You can take that down.

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Now, Mr. Petrie, you mentioned that you came on to the case
12 in 2012?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What was the reason that you came onto the case at that
15 time?

16 A. The case was filed in May of 2012. I came into the case in 17 the first week of June 2012. The colleague of mine who had 18 brought the case initially, another matter had arose that 19 management being what it is decided we need him to go handle
20 that case. Petrie, you take over the case that was just filed
21 a couple weeks before. So that's when I came into the case.

22 Q. What was happening in the case at the time that you began
23 working on it?

24 A. I'm sorry. Can you say that again?

25 Q. What was happening in the case at the time that you came in

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 and started working on it?

2 A. At the time of the case in June of 2012, basically the
3 United States had filed its Complaint in the case and we were 4 awaiting Mr. Bundy's response. He has an opportunity, the 5 defendant has an opportunity, to respond to the allegations
6 that have been brought against them.

7 Q. What was this new case that you were working on?

8 A. The new case involved trespass of cattle and it differed
9 slightly only in the respect that the area that the trespass
10 was happening was a little bit different. The 1998 case, that 11 we've been discussing here, that involved land with the 12 Bunkerville Allotment out there in the Gold Butte area. The 13 land that was bein' addressed in this lawsuit brought in May of 14 2012 was a little bit beyond it. And we call it the "New 15 Trespass Lands."

16 So, from the government's perspective, when we brought 17 that lawsuit, Mr. Bundy's cattle had continued to be in 18 trespass out there on the Bunkerville Allotment. But over time
19 they had roamed onto additional federal lands that were 20 adjacent to the Bunkerville Allotment. So this May 2012 action
21 was brought specifically to address that trespass in the new 22 areas.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Could we bring up Exhibit 3 for the 24 witness only, please.

25 (Document displayed to the witness.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. Mr. Petrie, do you recognize what's depicted in Exhibit 3?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. Is this an Order entered in the case regarding the New
5 Trespass Lands?

6 A. Yes. This is an Order issued by the court in response to 7 the action that the United States brought in May of 2012.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 3.

9 (Government's Exhibit No. 3, offered.)

10 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 3?

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects, relevance, Your Honor.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection to relevance.

14 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan.

16 MS. CREEGAN: This is one of the four Orders which the 17 Government is alleging that the defendants conspired with 18 Mr. Bundy, aided and abetted him, and worked with him directly
19 in order to violate and in order to obstruct justice.

20 THE COURT: All right. Court finds that Exhibit 3 is
21 relevant and Exhibit 3 will be admitted.

22 (Government's Exhibit No. 3, received.)

23 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish it.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. Mr. Petrie, was this Order issued in response to any motion
3 filed by the United States?

4 A. Yes, it was.

5 Q. What was the motion filed by the United States?

6 A. We had filed a Motion for Summary Judgment.

7 Q. Again, just remind us what summary judgment is.

8 A. Again, it -- it -- from our perspective, the United States,
9 the facts were straightforward and really not in dispute which 10 was that Bundy's prop- -- cattle belonging to him were found on 11 federal lands for which he did not have authorization to be 12 grazing. And so it was just from our perspective, again,
13 straightforward. And therefore, with the facts really not in 14 dispute and the law being clear, we believed, about what that 15 meant, we brought that Motion for Summary Judgment asking that 16 the judge grant our motion and enter an order that would
17 require Mr. Bundy to remove his cattle.

18 Q. Is this Order also in response to a motion filed by
19 Mr. Bundy?

20 A. Yes. In response to the lawsuit that we brought against him
21 in May 2012, one of his reactions was to file a Motion to 22 Dismiss.

23 Q. Does this Order also have a background section explaining 24 some of the litigation up until the order?

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. And I won't ask you to read things that are similar to what
2 you read before. But, if you could go to page 2 at line 3,
3 could you read that paragraph?

4 A. Yes.

5 "In its complaint, the United States alleges that, not
6 only has Bundy failed to comply with the court's orders that he
7 remove his cattle from the Bunkerville Allotment and pay the 8 financial penalties, but that Bundy's cattle have moved beyond
9 the boundaries of the Bunkerville Allotment and are now
10 trespassing on a broad swath of additional federal land (the 11 'New Trespass Lands'), including public lands within the Gold
12 Butte area that are administered by the BLM, and National Park
13 System land within the Overton Arm and Gold Butte areas of the 14 Lake Mead National Recreation Area. The United States seeks an 15 order enjoining Bundy's unauthorized grazing on the New
16 Trespass Lands."

17 Q. And does the court in this Order evaluate whether injunctive
18 relief should be granted?

19 A. It does.

20 Q. And taking your attention to page 4, line -- sort of the 21 line between 14 and 15, the sentence that begins "The public
22 interest," could you read the rest of that paragraph starting
23 at "The public interest"?

24 A. There to line 15 where it states "The public interest is"?

25 Q. Yes, sir.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Okay.

2 "The public interest is best served by having the
3 federal lands managed without the presence of trespassing
4 cattle on lands that are closed to grazing. The public
5 interest is also best served by removal of trespassing cattle
6 that cause harm to natural and cultural resources or pose a
7 threat to the health and safety of members of the public who
8 use the federal lands for recreation. The court finds that the 9 public interest is negatively affected by Bundy's continuing
10 trespass."

11 Q. Now, Mr. Petrie, could you also read the court's order that 12 it ultimately entered on page 5 of this Order?

13 A. Yes. On page 5, it states, "CONCLUSION"

14 "IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the United States' Motion
15 for Summary Judgment . . . is GRANTED.

16 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant Cliven Bundy's
17 Motion to Dismiss . . . is DENIED as moot.

18 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy is permanently
19 enjoined from trespassing on the New Trespass Lands.

20 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States is 21 entitled to protect the New Trespass Lands against this
22 trespass, and all future trespasses by Bundy.

23 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall remove his
24 livestock from the New Trespass Lands within 45 days of the 25 date hereof, and that the United States is entitled to seize

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle that remain in
2 trespass after 45 days of the date hereof.

3 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States is
4 entitled to seize and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle
5 for any future trespasses, provided the United States has 6 provided notice to Bundy under the governing regulations of the 7 United States Department of the Interior."

8 Q. And what judge is that signed by? Or which judge, I should 9 say.

10 A. That's signed by United States District Judge Lloyd D.
11 George, 9th day of July, 2013.

12 Q. Thank you, sir.

13 MS. CREEGAN: You can take that down.

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. Now, Mr. Petrie, was a motion also filed in the original
16 case originating from 1998 regarding the Bunkerville Allotment?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And did you -- was an Order received in that case in 2013?

19 A. Yes, we did.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Can you bring up Exhibit 4 for the 21 witness only, please.

22 (Document displayed to the witness.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. Mr. Petrie, do you recognize what's depicted in Exhibit 4?

25 A. I do.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. What is it?

2 A. Exhibit 4 is an Order that the Court entered in response to
3 the United States filing another lawsuit against Mr. Bundy in
4 April of 2013. And that lawsuit that we filed in April of 2013
5 was to seek further enforcement of Mr. Bundy's continuing
6 trespass with his cattle in the Bunkerville Allotment dating
7 back to that 1998 litigation.

8 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
9 Exhibit 4.

10 (Government's Exhibit No. 4, offered.)

11 THE COURT: Any objection?

12 MR. TANASI: Stewart objects, relevance.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Same objection, Parker.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Same objection to relevance grounds.

15 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

16 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Again, this is one of the four Orders
18 that the defendants are charged with conspiring, aiding and 19 abetting, and actually violating working with Mr. Bundy.

20 THE COURT: All right. Court finds that Exhibit 4 is 21 relevant and Exhibit 4 is admitted.

22 (Government's Exhibit No. 4, received.)

23 THE COURT: You may publish it.

24 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

25 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. CREEGAN:

2 Q. Now, Mr. Petrie, is this another Order entered in the
3 original 1998 case regarding the trespass in the Bunkerville
4 Allotment?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And does this also have a background section describing the 7 activity on the case up until the Order?

8 A. It does.

9 Q. Again, I won't ask you to read anything that's repetitive;
10 something you read before. But, if you could turn to page 2,
11 line 7, the sentence that starts with "Notwithstanding."

12 A. Okay.

13 "Notwithstanding the Court's Orders, Bundy continues to 14 graze his cattle on the Allotment. Thus, the United States
15 seeks a third Order as follows: (1) declaring that Bundy has 16 placed or allowed his livestock to graze on the Allotment in 17 violation of the Court's Orders; (2) directing Bundy to remove 18 his livestock from the Allotment within 45 days of the Court's
19 Order; (3) explicitly authorizing the United States to seize 20 and impound Bundy's livestock if they have not been removed as 21 directed; (4) instructing Bundy that he may not physically
22 interfere with an impoundment operation authorized by the 23 Court's Order; and (5) authorizing the United States to seize 24 and impound Bundy's livestock should he continue to violate the 25 Court's Permanent Injunction in the future."

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. And, taking your attention to page 3, the first full
2 paragraph, did the Court evaluate the request of the United
3 States for the third Order?

4 A. It did.

5 Q. Could you read that first full paragraph.

6 A. Yes. It's under the heading of "Discussion" by the Court.

7 "Here, uncontested evidence demonstrates that Bundy
8 continues to violate the Court's 1998 Permanent Injunction.
9 Bundy himself admits to grazing his cattle on lands both inside
10 and outside the Allotment in contravention of the Court's
11 Orders. Doc. #50, Ex. 4, October 23, 2011 Bundy Deposition.
12 In addition to his own admissions, the United States has 13 presented an abundance of evidence documenting Bundy's
14 continued grazing on the Allotment. Doc. #50, Ex. 2, Ex. 5,
15 Ex. 6, Ex. 7, Ex. 8, Ex. 9, Ex. 13. In light of such flagrant
16 and continuing violations, the Court finds that it has the 17 authority to undertake whatever measures it deems necessary to 18 ensure Bundy's future compliance with the 1998 Permanent 19 Injunction. Specifically, if Bundy fails to comply with the 20 Court's Orders, the Court has the explicit authority to direct
21 that compliance be achieved—at Bundy's expense—by the BLM
22 and/or NPS. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 70(a) ('[i]f a judgment
23 requires a party to . . . perform [a] specific act and the 24 party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may 25 order the act to be done—at the disobedient party's expense—by

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 another person appointed by the court')."

2 Q. And, Mr. Petrie, we see two acronyms there, BLM and NPS.

3 When do those both stand for?

4 A. "BLM" is the Bureau of Land Management and "NPS" is National
5 Park Service.

6 Q. And did the Court actually enter an order at the end of this
7 document?

8 A. It did.

9 Q. Would you please read beginning on page 5.

10 A. Starting at line 7?

11 Q. Yes, sir.

12 A. "IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the United States' Motion to 13 Enforce Injunction . . . is hereby GRANTED.

14 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy is permanently
15 enjoined from trespassing on the former Bunkerville Allotment.

16 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States is 17 entitled to protect the former Bunkerville Allotment against 18 this trespass, and all future trespasses by Bundy.

19 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall remove his
20 livestock from the former Bunkerville Allotment within 45 days
21 of the date hereof, and that the United States is entitled to 22 seize and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle that remain
23 in trespass after 45 days of the date hereof.

24 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States is
25 entitled to seize and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 for future trespasses, provided the United States has complied
2 with the notice provisions under the governing regulations of
3 the United States Department of the Interior."

4 And then carrying over to page 6:

5 "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Bundy shall not physically
6 interfere with any seizure or impoundment operation authorized
7 by this Court's Order.

8 "IT IS SO ORDERED.

9 "DATED this 8th day of October, 2013."

10 Signed by United States District Judge Larry R. Hicks.

11 Q. Thank you.

12 And, Mr. Petrie, taking you back to page 5 where it
13 says, on line 14, that "the United States is entitled to seize 14 and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle," what does that 15 mean?

16 A. It means that if the cattle have not been removed by 17 Mr. Bundy or they didn't wander off the land by themselves,
18 then the United States would be authorized to have its agents
19 go to that federal land owned by the United States and take the 20 necessary steps to round up the cattle and transport 'em away.

21 Q. Did Mr. Bundy try to appeal either of the Orders that were 22 entered in 2013?

23 A. This last Order here that we're talking about that traces 24 its origins back to the 1998 Order, he did not appeal that. In 25 that first action, the one that was filed in May of 2013

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 related to the New Trespass Lands, after he got an adverse
2 decision from the court on that, he took the first step to
3 appeal that. The Order came down in July of 2013. And, in 4 August of 2013, Mr. Bundy took the first step that you do if
5 you're going to file an appeal, which is basically to serve
6 paperwork to the Court of Appeals, the Ninth Circuit Court of 7 Appeals. So he filed a Notice of Appeal. That's a required
8 step. And they did not pursue it after that point so the 9 appeal did not go anywhere.

10 Q. Mr. Petrie, as of April 2014, were all four of these Orders
11 we've just reviewed still in effect?

12 A. They were.

13 Q. Are these Orders public records of the courts?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Were any of these Orders sealed or secret in some way?

16 A. Certainly not to my knowledge.

17 MS. CREEGAN: One moment.

18 (Government counsel conferring.)

19 MS. CREEGAN: Pass the witness. Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Cross on behalf of Stewart?

21 MR. TANASI: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Good morning, sir.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. Good morning, sir.

2 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. Got a few
3 questions for ya on cross. Okay?

4 A. Certainly.

5 Q. All right. Let's go back to Exhibit 1.

6 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring that up, please.

7 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated that the litigation started
10 involving Mr. Bundy sometime in 1998. Fair?

11 A. That's what the Order reflects, yes.

12 Q. Okay. Order was filed November 4th, 1998?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. This Order, on top left corner here, it's (drawing)
15 "UNITED STATES"; correct?

16 A. I'm sorry. Where are you pointing to?

17 Q. I just circled right there --

18 A. I'm sorry.

19 Q. -- on the top. I don't know if you can see it in front of 20 you maybe.

21 A. Yes, sir, I see that.

22 Q. Perfect.

23 A. Thank you.

24 Yes, that's --

25 Q. All right.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. -- correct.

2 Q. And the other party is (drawing) Cliven Bundy; correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Okay. Not Steven Stewart; right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. All right.

7 MR. TANASI: And if we go to page 2 of the Order,
8 please.

9 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. And if I could call your attention to line 11.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. See it there, sir?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Okay. It reads, "On February 26, 1993, Bundy sent an 16 Administrative Notice of Intent to the BLM." Correct?

17 A. It does say that.

18 Q. Okay. Not Steven Stewart. Fair?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. All right. If I could draw your attention to line 20.

21 We're now still in 1993; correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. All right. "July 13[th], 1993, the BLM sent Bundy a
24 Trespass Notice and Order to Remove and gave him ten days to 25 respond." Do you see that there?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. I do.

2 Q. Not Steven Stewart; correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. All right. Call your attention to line 25.

5 "On January 24[th], 1994, the BLM delivered a Proposed
6 Decision and Order to Remove and Demand for re-" -- "for
7 Payment to Bundy by placing it on the dashboard of Bundy's
8 vehicle." Do you see that there?

9 A. I do, sir.

10 Q. Okay. Not to Steven Stewart's vehicle; correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. All right. If we could go to page 3.

13 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. All right. And call your attention to line 3.

16 Sentence starts, "One of Bundy's sons then picked up
17 the decision, tore it into pieces and threw it on the ground."
18 Do you see that there?

19 A. I do.

20 Q. Okay. That's not Steven Stewart; correct?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. All right.

23 MR. TANASI: All right. If we could take a look,
24 please, now to Exhibit 4.

25 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 THE WITNESS: I'm there, sir.

2 BY MR. TANASI:

3 Q. Okay. Call your attention, sir, to line 24.

4 A. On first page?

5 Q. Yes, sir.

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And it does spill over onto the second page. But it starts,
8 "On November 3[rd], 1998, the Court issued an Order permanently
9 enjoining Bundy" -- goes onto the second page to say -- "from 10 grazing his livestock on the former Bunkerville Allotment ('the 11 Allotment'), and ordering him to remove his livestock."

12 Do you see that there?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. Okay. That's not an order directed at Steven Stewart for 15 grazing his livestock; correct?

16 A. His name does not appear.

17 Q. Okay. And if we could scroll down to line 7.

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. "Notwithstanding the Court's Order, Bundy continues to graze
20 his cattle on the Allotment." Again, Bundy; not Steven 21 Stewart. Fair?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. Would you agree with me that, in the total time
24 frame of the dispute with Cliven Bundy, Steven Stewart's not
25 mentioned in any of the court filings or court documents (A)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that we've looked at here or (B) that you've seen before you've
2 come into court today?

3 A. I mean, if I may, I want to make sure that I answer this
4 precisely as I can. You're speaking to the Orders that I have 5 covered in my testimony?

6 Q. Correct.

7 A. Okay. That I have not seen Mr. Stewart's name.

8 Q. Sure.

9 A. And then you had another part to your question, please.

10 Q. Absolutely.

11 MR. TANASI: The litigation, there's a case number.
12 Why don't we go to the top of page 4, Brian.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry? Page of . . .

14 BY MR. TANASI:

15 Q. I'm sorry. Exhibit 4, sir.

16 A. Okay. I'm there.

17 Q. All right.

18 MR. TANASI: Brian, if we go to page 1, please.

19 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. All right. The case number across the top there --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- do you see that --

24 A. Yeah, I do.

25 Q. -- 2:98-cv-00531-LRH-VCF? You see --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. -- that?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. That's a litigation -- that's a case number; right?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And just so the jury understands that that's a case. And so
7 when things get filed in that particular case, documents get 8 filed, they have that case number to keep them all as part of 9 the United States v. Cliven Bundy; correct?

10 A. I gotcha. I think I follow you now.

11 Q. All right. So, during the course of your litigation of this
12 case, the United States v. Cliven Bundy, didn't see anything
13 ever mentioning Steven Stewart. Fair?

14 A. That's correct as it relates to these case.

15 Q. All right, sir. If we could now go to page 5 of 6 on this
16 exhibit.

17 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. I call your attention to line 2.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. "The Court has stated unequivocally on numerous 22 occasions that it has jurisdiction to hear this case, and that 23 the Allotment is owned by the United States and managed by the 24 DOI through the BLM and the NPS."

25 Again, we kinda touched on this a little with

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Ms. Creegan. But I just want to make sure we're clear. "DOI"
2 is Department of Interior; right?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. "BLM" is Bureau of Land Management; right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. National -- or "NPS" is National Park Service;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. And so this Order essentially says that the allotment
10 is owned and managed by those individuals: Department of 11 Interior, BLM, and NPS. Correct?

12 A. Yes, and ownership by the United States.

13 Q. Okay. All right. Now, if we can kinda jump down to the 14 Order, let's look at 13, line 13, please. Do you see it?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. All right. "[IT'S] FURTHER ORDERED the Bundy shall remove 17 his livestock from the former Bunkerville Allotment within 45
18 days" -- again, not Steve Stewart; right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. Okay.

21 -- "of the date hereof, and that the United States is
22 entitled to seize and remove to impound any of Bundy's cattle
23 that remain in trespass after 45 days of the date hereof."

24 Do you see that there?

25 A. I do.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Again, not Steven Stewart; right?

2 A. Does not mention his name.

3 Q. Okay. Now, the -- and we'll head down to the second part of 4 the Order. "IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States is
5 entitled to seize and remove to impound any of Bundy's
6 cattle" -- again, not Steven Stewart; correct?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. -- "for any future trespass[], provided the United States
9 has complied with the notice provisions and under the governing
10 regulations of the United States Department of . . . Interior."

11 Do you see that there?

12 A. I do, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Would you agree with me that this Order and the two
14 sections that we've just gone over kind of collectively lay out
15 what the BLM and the National Park Service's job was on April 16 12th, 2014? This Order gives them the right to be there. Is 17 that essentially accurate?

18 A. I'm -- it certainly gives them the authority to be there.
19 I'm just hung up a little bit on your questions when you're 20 suggesting that these two passages circumscribe or detail the 21 scope of what their authority was. I'm not personally familiar
22 with the government's employees who arrived there in April of 23 2014 and what their marching orders were.

24 Q. Okay. If this order wasn't in place, they wouldn't be 25 there. Would you agree with me there?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. So this Order, in part, played into what the 3 authority, the BLM and the National Park Service, purported to 4 have, right, when they were in Bunkerville on April 12th, 2014?
5 You agree with me there; right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. So this is essentially the BLM -- this Order outlines
8 the BLM's jobs on April 12th, 2014; correct?

9 A. At least in part certainly.

10 Q. Okay. And it also outlines what their duties are on
11 April 12th, 2014; correct?

12 A. I'm not so sure it speaks to their duties.

13 Q. What's the difference between "jobs" and "duties," sir?

14 A. Well, it -- it depends upon what it takes to actually carry 15 out the roundup and the impoundment action that -- this is 16 describing they've got the ability to do that. But what they 17 actually do to carry that out, I'm not conversant with.

18 Q. But this Order, in part, describes what they have for 19 authority to carry out their jobs and duties on April 12th,
20 2014. Fair?

21 A. Certainly. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. All right. And you'd agreed with me -- I mean, this 23 is an Order signed by the Honorable Judge Larry Hicks; correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. And, in signing this Order, this Order became law;

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. This Order is just; right? This Order, at least in 4 the opinion of the Honorable Judge Larry Hicks, is justice.
5 Fair?

6 A. Well, you -- you're -- we always presume that an order
7 issued by a judge is the judge's sense of justice. Um --

8 Q. Fair enough, sir. Thank you.

9 MR. TANASI: Nothing further.

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: Counsel for Parker.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Good morning, sir. I'm Jess Marchese. I represent Mr. Eric
16 Parker, the gentleman in the plaid shirt there.

17 A. I'm sorry. I'm just slightly hard of hearing.

18 Q. I'll --

19 A. I can't --

20 Q. -- speak up, sir.

21 A. I didn't hear your name.

22 Q. Yeah. My name's Jess Marchese. I represent the --

23 A. Okay.

24 Q. -- individual in the plaid shirt here, Mr. Eric Parker. I
25 just have --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Good to meet you, sir.

2 Q. Good to meet you too.

3 So, obviously, you've testified today in reference to 4 these Court Orders and the course and scope of your duties;
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. And, in part, the reason that you're here is in 8 reference to these Orders with Mr. Cliven Bundy; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You didn't initially have the case. But you took the case
11 to the end, I believe was -- the last Court Order was 2012, I
12 believe?

13 A. No. The last Court Order --

14 Q. Oh.

15 A. -- of these four is dated July of 2013.

16 Q. Okay. So, in 2013, you were the attorney assigned to the 17 case; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And, as the attorney assigned to the case, you had the 20 ability to look over all the legal documents filed before 2013;
21 correct?

22 A. As they relate to this matter, yes.

23 Q. Right.

24 And you didn't personally draft those documents. But 25 you're personally aware of those documents; correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. And -- and by "those documents," you're referring
2 specifically to those that were filed in the 1998 litigation
3 before the May 2012 action?

4 Q. Correct, sir.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Before you were on the case.

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay. Mr. Eric Parker was not a party in any of those -- in 9 any of those legal proceedings; correct?

10 A. That is correct.

11 Q. Okay. You don't recognize Mr. Parker in reference to your 12 litigation; correct?

13 A. I do not, sir.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions.

16 THE COURT: Counsel for Drexler.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Good morning, sir.

21 A. Good morning, sir.

22 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent Mr. Drexler.

23 A. Okay. Thank you.

24 Q. Now, since -- you've been on this case in two thousand --
25 the Bundy case since 2012; is that correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay. And you're obviously familiar with all of the
3 filings. You just discussed a lot of the filings in this
4 matter all the way back from 1998; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Nowhere in there did you see Mr. Scott Drexler's name
7 either in a heading or in factual or in an order; is that
8 correct?

9 A. I did not, sir.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could just real quickly just pull
12 up number 1, Brian.

13 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go to page 3.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. It says, "On March 3[rd], . . . Bundy sent a check for 17 []1,961.47 to Clark County for grazing fees."

18 Do you see that, sir?

19 A. I do, sir.

20 Q. Okay. And that I -- I guess that's what -- the BLM had 21 calculated that this amount to be equal . . . that he would pay
22 to graze 85 cattle on the Allotment for 12 months; is that
23 correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. Okay. And I guess Clark County returned it because they

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 indicated they had no jurisdiction; right?

2 A. That's right. He sent it to the wrong people.

3 Q. Okay. So he sent it to the state.

4 A. At least to --

5 Q. Or the County.

6 A. -- Clark County as a part of the state government system,
7 yes.

8 Q. Okay. Very good. Thank you, sir.

9 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Redirect.

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Just briefly.

14 Mr. Petrie, I think you may have said what the last 15 date of one of the Orders we looked at was. I'm sorry if I 16 misheard you. But was that July or October of 2013 was the 17 last Order?

18 A. You're right. I believe the actual last date was October of 19 2013. I misspoke.

20 Q. Okay. And second question with regard to sending a check to 21 Clark County. You send a check to someone; they send them
22 back. Are you out any money?

23 A. I'm sorry? The last --

24 Q. If you send a check to somebody and they send you that check
25 back and don't cash it, are you out any money?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, leading; relevance.

2 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the --

3 THE WITNESS: No --

4 THE COURT: -- question.

5 THE WITNESS: -- you're not.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Any other recross?

8 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: None from Mr. Drexler.

11 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

12 THE COURT: All right. So, at this time, if any
13 members of the jury have a question for Mr. Petrie, please
14 write 'em down on the form provided. Take your time. Write
15 neatly. We don't need to know your names. Please don't sign
16 it or give us your initials. Don't write down your jury
17 number. Just the question.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE MARSHAL: Your Honor?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 THE MARSHAL: Can we take a break?

22 THE COURT: Yes. Let's go ahead and take a bathroom
23 break.

24 During this break, we'll remind the jury: Please do
25 not discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 it with you. Do not read or listen to or view anything that
2 touches upon this case in any way. Do not perform any research
3 or any independent investigation. Do not form an opinion.

4 It's 10:36. So we'll take a 15-minute break and plan
5 to be back here by 10:50.

6 Let's go ahead and stand for the jury so they can exit.

7 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Leave your things here. Just 8 turn them upside down.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. If you want to leave it there and 10 finish it or -- I'm fine either way. I think we just need to 11 take a break.

12 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Come on. Yeah, you can bring
13 them.

14 (Jury out, 10:37 a.m.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Petrie, you can go ahead
16 and take a break as well.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: We're off record.

19 (Recess, 10:37 a.m. Resumed, 11:03 a.m. Jury not present.)

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

21 THE COURT: Go ahead and bring in the jury.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

25 (Jury in, 11:06 a.m.)

1 THE COURT: Thank you. Jury may be seated.

2 And everyone else may be seated as well.

3 All right. So, if you didn't already finish writing
4 your questions down, please go ahead and do so on the forms
5 provided. When you're done, fold the question form in half and 6 pass it in the direction of Aaron.

7 (Pause in the proceedings.)

8 (The Courtroom Administrator and the Court conferring.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

10 (Begin sidebar conference.)

11 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 17 is a
12 three-part question. The first part is "Why was there such a
13 large gap in time between court appearances to enforce the 1998
14 and 1999 Orders?"

15 Any objection?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

17 MR. TANASI: Fair.

18 MS. CREEGAN: No.

19 THE COURT: Number 2, "Did Bundy continue to violate 20 those Orders from 1999 until 2012?"

21 Any objection?

22 MS. CREEGAN: No.

23 MR. TANASI: No.

24 THE COURT: And the third part of Jury Note No. 17 is 25 "Were there any legal proceedings in this U.S. v. Cliven Bundy

1 case during the period 1999 to 2013?" And, actually, then
2 there's an arrow down below, "brought by either party." Okay.
3 Let me reread that.

4 So "Were there any legal proceedings brought by either
5 party in this U.S. v. Cliven Bundy case during the period 1999
6 to 2013?"

7 Any objection?

8 MS. CREEGAN: No.

9 MR. TANASI: No.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Juror Question No. 18, "Does the U.S. Government ever
12 allow grazing rights on any National Park Service" . . .

13 COURT REPORTER: NPS.

14 THE COURT: . . . "(NPS) lands?"

15 Any objection to that question?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: What? National Park Service --

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- NPS?

19 THE COURT: You do have an objection?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, no.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I was just . . .

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do they ever allow it?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, he's an attorney.

2 THE COURT: I can read it. So "Does the U.S.
3 Government ever allow grazing rights on any National Park
4 Service (NPS) land?"

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

6 MR. TANASI: No objection.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

8 THE COURT: And then the second question that is on 9 Jury Note 18 is "If yes, does the NPS land Cliven Bundy was 10 grazing his cattle on permit grazing?"

11 Any objection?

12 MS. CREEGAN: He may not know the answer. The 13 Government has no objection.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And Jury Note 19 is a two-part 15 question. "The check was sent to the wrong department. Could 16 it have been redirected to the right one?"

17 Any objection to that question?

18 MR. TANASI: No objection.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MS. CREEGAN: No.

21 THE COURT: And second part of -- second question of 22 Jury Note 19 is "If it was sent to the right department, would 23 it of satisfied the fee coverage of the payment?"

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I believe.

25 THE COURT: Okay. We answered that. But we could ask

1 it again; right? There's no objection to that?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, that's been answered. But yeah.

3 MR. TANASI: No objection.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 Jury Note No. 20 has -- looks like four questions.

7 First question, "Does order to Bundy apply to just Cliven Bundy
8 or to his sons as well?"

9 Any objection?

10 MS. CREEGAN: No.

11 MR. TANASI: No objection.

12 THE COURT: Number two, "How does BLM know all the 13 cattle belonged to Mr. Bundy?"

14 Any objection?

15 MR. TANASI: No objection.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

17 MS. CREEGAN: No.

18 THE COURT: Number 3, "Are the allotments defined by 19 fences or are they open range?"

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

21 MR. TANASI: No objection.

22 THE COURT: Number 4, "What transpired between 1998 and 23 2013 to reactivate the government interest?"

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sort of --

25 THE COURT: Any objection?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- that was like the last question. No
2 objection.

3 MR. TANASI: No objection.

4 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 21, "Why would the defendants
6 want to be involved in protecting people who are not following
7 the law or protect cattle that are not lawfully supposed to be
8 there?"

9 I don't know if that's really a question for the 10 witness.

11 MR. TANASI: It's kind of the question of the case
12 which is an ultimate determination that they would probably end
13 up making. So I don't think that would --

14 THE COURT: Well, not --

15 MR. TANASI: -- be an appropriate --

16 THE COURT: -- necessarily. It's asking for motive and 17 motive isn't in the elements.

18 MR. MARCHESE: I don't have a problem with it.

19 MR. TANASI: Well, I don't know how you would be able 20 to speak to the defendant's mind-set. But . . .

21 THE COURT: Government is not required to show motive
22 or demonstrate motive as an element.

23 MS. CREEGAN: I also very much doubt this witness can
24 answer. He's familiar with the civil litigation. I don't 25 think he's very familiar with the criminal case at all.

1 THE COURT: So what's your suggestion for how I deal
2 with this question?

3 MR. TANASI: I think it's a question that we can't 4 answer and I think it's one of the ultimate questions in the 5 case. It's -- that's a question of whether --

6 THE COURT: I'm not gonna says it's one of the ultimate
7 questions 'cuz it's not a question at all in the case.

8 MR. MYHRE: Just say this witness can't answer --

9 MS. CREEGAN: That's it. Yeah, say this witness can't 10 answer that question.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 And then Jury Note No. 22. It says "Clarification" and 13 then a colon and underneath it says, "What is Mr. Stewart's
14 attorney's question to Mr. Petrie regarding Mr. Stewart's name
15 not appearing on the court's orders? An implication that 16 Mr. Stewart was not therefore subject to the conditions of the 17 order? I.e., the order did not apply to his client . . ."

18 MR. TANASI: I think -- again, I don't know if it's 19 something he can answer. It would almost be a question for me.

20 (Defense counsel conferring.)

21 THE COURT: Does anyone have an objection or a
22 suggested restatement or --

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think he can answer that.

24 THE COURT: -- or something --

25 MS. AHMED: It's kinda like the question as to whether

1 the Order applied to the sons. You could ask that more
2 expansively, did it apply to anybody else.

3 MR. TANASI: Could I hear that one more time, Your
4 Honor?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: "What is Mr. Stewart's attorney's question
8 to Mr. Petrie regarding Mr. Stewart's name not appearing on the 9 court's order? An implication that Mr. Stewart was not 10 therefore subject to the conditions of the order? i.e., the 11 order did not apply to his client . . ."

12 MR. TANASI: The "i.e." part, whether or not applying
13 to my client, I don't know.

14 MR. PEREZ: What his implication was --

15 MR. TANASI: Right, because my client wasn't involved
16 in the lawsuit, I guess, is the spirit of the questions. But,
17 again, I don't know how he can answer that.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Do you think that it would be helpful to 19 let them know that they'll be receiving instructions about 20 conspiracy and aiding and abetting at the end of the case and 21 that that may resolve that question for them or not?

22 THE COURT: I think that's a better way to handle it,
23 yes.

24 (Government counsel conferring.)

25 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 23, "If Bundy would have paid

1 grazing fees continuously, would there have been no trespass
2 charges?"

3 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

4 MR. TANASI: I have no objection.

5 THE COURT: And that was the last one.

6 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if we can just go back to the 7 one that we were trying to figure out whether -- I think you
8 said the way I had proffered it it might have been a little 9 misleading -- but the one that was related to essentially our 10 guys' kinda state of mind. I think the answer to that 11 Ms. Creegan just articulated in response to that last jury
12 question would same response, which is they'll be instructed at 13 the end of the case on theories of -- or the law as it pertains
14 to conspiracy and aiding and abetting and it's not a question
15 to answer for now.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 MS. CREEGAN: I think that's motive. I think that 18 actually probably won't get an instruction --

19 THE COURT: Yeah.

20 MS. CREEGAN: -- on that.

21 THE COURT: There won't be a motive instruction. But I
22 was trying to think back on my instructions myself. And I
23 don't think there is a motive instruction.

24 MR. TANASI: I guess I don't think that goes to motive;
25 it goes to intent.

1 MS. CREEGAN: We want to differentiate motive and
2 intent. And the court discourages giving a motive instruction.

3 MR. TANASI: I guess I'm just saying that I don't think
4 that instruction goes to motive; I think it goes to intent. I
5 understand the difference between motive and intent.

6 MS. CREEGAN: I certainly didn't mean to suggest that
7 you don't. But they are asking why they would want to do
8 something. And to my mind that reads as a motive question.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 (Pause in the proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: So what were you suggesting that I say?

12 MR. TANASI: The same response related to they'll be 13 instructed at the end of the case as to conspiracy and as to 14 aiding and abetting and as to the law of the case. And that 15 question, I think, applies to the instructions they'll receive 16 later.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Make sure we got through it all.

18 MR. TANASI: Sorry. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 (End sidebar conference.)

21 THE COURT: You ready?

22 COURT REPORTER: Yes.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 All right. So, Mr. Petrie, I've got a couple questions
25 here from the jury. I'm gonna go ahead and read them into the

1 record. But, when you respond, you may go ahead and turn to
2 the jury and respond to them because these are really jury
3 questions, not my questions.

4 THE WITNESS: I understand, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay? Thanks.

6 So Jury Note No. 17 has three questions. The first one
7 is, "Why was there such a large gap in time between court
8 appearances to enforce the 1998 and 1999 orders?"

9 THE WITNESS: Shall I go ahead and respond?

10 THE COURT: Yes, please.

11 THE WITNESS: I don't know the complete answer. I
12 walked into the case, as you know, in late May/early June 2012.
13 And I had not heard about Mr. Bundy or the matters that this
14 litigation involves until that point in time. That question
15 certainly crosses one's mind. And, in the course of reviewing 16 files, I gained some glimpses. But I'm not sure even now that 17 I really have a full picture. Okay? So take with that grain
18 of salt what I offer. Okay?

19 It's not like I have read something from the 20 government's files that addresses that specific question, for 21 example, nor is it, for instance, where in the course of 22 speaking with Mr. Bundy did he provide some kind of commentary
23 about -- from his side. Okay?

24 What I saw were glimpses of some concern by Government
25 that there might be some kind of issues or problems in being

1 able to actually remove the cattle successfully. But, again,
2 please understand that that's just glimpses. So I -- I -- with
3 that -- and bear in mind too that my perspective when I entered
4 the case in June of 2012 was one that, yes, that's an
5 interesting question. But, for what was directly in front of 6 me, it really didn't matter in the sense that Mr. Bundy's
7 cattle, as evidenced by the subsequent court rulings, were 8 clearly where they shouldn't have been and he clearly didn't 9 have authority. And so it was just a simple matter at that 10 point of going into the court, makin' the argument that this is 11 federal land, these cattle are here, they are his, he doesn't 12 have authorization, therefore he needs to remove 'em. And, for 13 being able to address that, I did not need, at least in my 14 judgment, to get into why that gap; why that hiatus in time
15 over the periods of years.

16 I know from looking through some of the files that they 17 annotated a couple of instances where Mr. Bundy -- in the 18 course of taking care of his cattle out there on the federal 19 lands in trespass -- that on occasion there were some instances
20 where he would come across people that he didn't recognize and 21 they would have some kind of conversation and which Mr. Bundy
22 alluded to the idea that they should leave; that this was their 23 place to be. I -- I can't retrieve, as I sit here right now,
24 my recollection of how that was characterized in the couple of 25 the documents that I saw in that intervening span.

1 I know that whatever the reasoning was behind it that
2 the Government's interest was sufficiently triggered to begin
3 to take more action on this somewhere in the 2011 time frame
4 because it's that, then, that the files show that the 5 Government began to record again actively how many of his
6 cattle were observed -- they conducted some surveillance
7 operations to get cattle counts of cattle that were out there
8 on the federal lands -- and that the government was moving in 9 the direction of conducting a roundup or a gather before the 10 May 2012 suit was filed -- that was happening in the 2011 time
11 frame -- and that that effort to conduct a roundup was aborted
12 because of some concerns. Mr. Bundy was not in favor of that 13 and had issued letters of some sort or another expressing his 14 opposition.

15 I wish I had a better recall of that to try to capture
16 that for you better. But, as I sit here right now without 17 refreshing my memory, I hesitate to go beyond that and 18 characterize the contents of that. Okay?

19 If I can follow up, if you got a follow-up question to 20 draw me out better, I'd be glad to address it subject to the 21 judge's approval.

22 THE COURT: All right. So the second question in Jury
23 Note No. 17 is, "Did Bundy continue to violate those court
24 orders from 1999 to 2012?"

25 THE WITNESS: Yes. The way -- when I deposed Mr. Bundy

1 in October of 2012, I asked him very directly if his cattle had
2 remained in trespass. Now, I didn't capture it from the year
3 1999 going forward, just to be clear because the question was 4 framed from 1999. But, in the 2012 lawsuit, we just -- the 5 date of 2000 was struck, okay, from 2000 coming forward was the 6 allegation in the lawsuit that was filed in May 2012. So, in
7 the deposition, my focus on time with Mr. Bundy was from 2000
8 forward. And he acknowledged that his cattle had been out
9 there continuously from 2000 right up through the date that we 10 were sittin' there in the deposition.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 The third question, Jury Note No. 17, is, "Were there
13 any legal proceedings brought by either party in this U.S. v.
14 Cliven Bundy case during the period 1993 to 2012?"

15 THE WITNESS: Let me see if I can capture this right.
16 The conversations between BLM and Mr. Bundy, I think in some of 17 what was read to ya from exhibits this morning, described some 18 conversations dating back to 1993. And some of those dealings
19 with Mr. Bundy over the years were taken pursuant to 20 regulations that the Department of Interior, Bureau of Land
21 Management, National Park Service have when they encounter a
22 situation of trespass; to give notice and that sort of thing.

23 But a formal lawsuit, we did not see that happen until 24 1998 when the U.S. Attorney's Office here in Las Vegas filed an 25 action to have Mr. Bundy remove his cattle. That was the first

1 lawsuit. And then the second and the third lawsuits were the
2 ones that I have addressed here this morning in May of 2012 and
3 then in April of 2013. To my knowledge, those are the only
4 lawsuits from that window of time.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 Jury Note No. 18 has two questions. The first one is,
7 "Does the United States Government ever allow grazing rights on 8 any National Park Service (NPS) land?"

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And the second question in Jury Note
11 18 is "If yes, does the NPS (National Park Service) land that 12 Cliven Bundy was grazing his cattle on permit grazing?"

13 THE WITNESS: I'm pausing because I want to be as 14 accurate as I can. Mr. Bundy's authorization to graze on the 15 federal properties -- understand that it's all federal property
16 and that the federal government internally has made decisions
17 over which agency will actually administer the permit process
18 for those lands that a decision has been made that grazing can
19 occur upon. Okay? And so Mr. Bundy's last authorized period
20 of time that he had to allow him to lawfully graze his cattle
21 on those federal lands finished in, like, February of 1993.
22 And he has been grazing his cattle out there ever since without
23 authorization from whichever appropriate federal agency -- BLM
24 or NPS, National Park Service -- administers the specific land
25 in question.

1 THE COURT: I'm not sure you're responsive to the
2 question. The --

3 THE WITNESS: That may be.

4 THE COURT: -- question is, "Does the NPS land that 5 Cliven Bundy was grazing his cattle on permit grazing?" So the 6 way I understood the question is --

7 THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 THE COURT: -- is there no grazing ever allowed in that
9 area ever, ever, ever? Or is it just you need to have a permit
10 to be able to graze on that land?

11 THE WITNESS: You're right, Your Honor. My -- my 12 response was not directly responsive. And my answer now is 13 qualified.

14 Land that was part of the Bunkerville Allotment that 15 land has been removed from being used for grazing. Okay?
16 Where I'm hesitating is where some of that land was outside the 17 Bunkerville Allotment, what we've dubbed the New Trespass
18 Lands. I can't tell ya -- without looking at anything to tell
19 ya if some of that NPS land has also been removed for grazing
20 purposes. If it has not been removed for grazing purposes,
21 then presumably a rancher could make application to the NPS and 22 receive a permit to graze their cattle on that land.

23 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 19 has two 24 questions. The first one is, "The check was sent to the wrong
25 department. Could it have been redirected to the right one?"

1 THE WITNESS: In a world of possibilities, yes. I'm
2 not privy to what the -- the thoughts were of the people that
3 were handling that check at that time. The upshot of it is, is 4 that somebody in Clark County elected to send it back to 5 Mr. Bundy as opposed to forwarding it on to BLM.

6 Similarly, assuming Mr. Bundy got the check back, he
7 had an opportunity to perhaps -- you know, I don't know what
8 Mr. Bundy thought. He could have said, well, enough or he 9 could have said, well, who do I send it to or whatever. But,
10 as far as I know, the trail ends right there; BLM never got a
11 check.

12 THE COURT: "Can the BLM check" -- "cash a check made
13 out to Clark County?"

14 THE WITNESS: I would think not.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Second part of -- the second
16 question in Jury Note No. 19 is, "If it was sent to the right
17 department, would it have satisfied the fee coverage of the 18 payment?" I think they are asking if the amount, the number,
19 is correct or not.

20 THE WITNESS: That's an excellent question, and it's 21 one I don't know the answer directly. I think one of the 22 Orders that I read to ya had a passage that described how that
23 amount had been calculated to equal "X" number of cattle
24 for "X" number of months. So, in somebody's mind, they had 25 taken the time to convert those dollars to some calculation of

1 arriving at how many cattle could graze out there on -- on the
2 allotment. But, whether or not that matches up with what
3 Mr. Bundy had been operating under before his permit expired, I
4 don't know.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 20 has four questions.
6 The first one is, "Does an order to Bundy apply to just Cliven
7 Bundy or to his sons as well?"

8 THE WITNESS: That's an interesting question. I'm 9 hunting here to see if I can come up with an answer here that 10 makes sense and -- and one that I know. I'm not gonna guess.

11 (Reviewing exhibits.)

12 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure I'm gonna nail this.

13 Certainly the Order applies to Mr. Bundy. I -- I think
14 when ya get beyond Mr. Bundy then ya enter into all sorts of 15 additional issues to include whether or not the scope of the 16 Order itself is just meant specifically for Cliven Bundy or 17 does it cover somebody who's gonna act on his behalf. There's 18 all sorts of different permutations that factually the law
19 would have to grapple with at least in my estimation.

20 THE COURT: Second question in Jury Note No. 20 is,
21 "How does BLM know all the cattle belonged to Mr. Bundy?"

22 THE WITNESS: Part of that question, Your Honor, I did
23 hear. Could you repeat?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 "How does BLM know all the cattle belonged to

1 Mr. Bundy?" And they are talking --

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: -- referring to the cattle that was 4 trespassing.

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

6 Mr. Bundy has a brand he uses for his cattle. And part
7 of what was discussed with Mr. Bundy in the deposition I took 8 with him was the fact of what was that brand and did the cattle
9 that were out there were they his cattle. And he, my 10 recollection is, acknowledged that there may be some cattle out
11 there that are strays, completely strays, and arguably might 12 not be his. But he wasn't sittin' there sayin' that ain't my 13 cattle; it was clearly this is my cattle that are out there.
14 He -- he wasn't disputing ownership.

15 THE COURT: When you say "he told you," is this at the 16 deposition --

17 THE WITNESS: Yes --

18 THE COURT: -- he --

19 THE WITNESS: -- Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: -- told you?

21 So this is under oath.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, he was under oath.

23 THE COURT: Number 3, "Are the allotments defined by 24 fences or are they open range?"

25 THE WITNESS: Open range for the most part.

1 THE COURT: Number 4, "What transpired between 1998 and
2 2013 to reactivate the government's interest?"

3 THE WITNESS: I don't know the answer. I can read
4 between the lines. And about the best I can surmise without
5 engaging in raw speculation, which I don't want to go to, is
6 that some turn of events had happened that elevated the Bundys'
7 use of that land enough that people who were authorized to take
8 action on it thought that they needed to take action.

9 And I apologize. That's sort of a generic answer.
10 But -- but that's the best I can tell is that something
11 happened that triggered enough interest that said we need to 12 act on this.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 21 has one question.
14 The question is, "Why would the defendants want to be involved
15 in protecting people who are not following the law or protect 16 cattle that are not lawfully theirs or supposed to be there?"

17 So --

18 THE WITNESS: Why would --

19 THE COURT: -- the question -- I'm not gonna ask the 20 witness to answer the question because I will provide you the 21 legal instructions that will assist you in determining what 22 issues you need to resolve and which ones you don't need to 23 resolve in order to decide whether the defendants are guilty or 24 not. So there will be a format with questions and definitions
25 for you to look at that will help guide you a little bit better

1 as to the elements of conspiracy or the elements to aiding and
2 abetting and so forth.

3 Jury Note No. 22 is a request for clarification. "Was 4 Mr. Stewart's attorney's question to Mr. Petrie regarding 5 Mr. Stewart's name not appearing on the court's order an
6 implication that Mr. Stewart was not therefore subject to the 7 conditions of the order? i.e., the order did not apply to his 8 client . . ."

9 And I think, again, you've already answered the 10 question that Mr. Stewart's name is not on the order.

11 THE WITNESS: (Nods head.)

12 THE COURT: And so the question regarding the 13 conspiracy and aiding and abetting charges in this case those 14 legal instructions will be provided to you later and that will 15 help you to determine the effect of the facts in this case.

16 Jury Note No. 23, "If Bundy would have paid grazing
17 fees continuously, would there have been no trespassing
18 charges?"

19 THE WITNESS: I hesitate only because I realize I'm 20 kinda speculating. But there's a form of logic that says that 21 if he's paid the fees that's required to hold the permit and 22 he's in compliance with the terms of the permit then there
23 would not have been trespass charges. The trespass charges
24 were only brought because he didn't have a permit, he didn't
25 have authorization, and he refused to take the cattle away.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 THE COURT: All right. So that was our last question.
2 Does the Government have any follow-up questions?

3 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Defense have any follow-up questions?

5 MR. TANASI: Just one quick one, Your Honor. Thank
6 you.

7 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Good morning again, sir.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. So, just going back to kind of the gap in 12 enforcement that you just testified about, you'd mentioned --
13 and I wrote this stuff down -- you mentioned 2011 there was a
14 government interest that was triggered potentially. You use
15 the word "triggered." Do you remember that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. You also said there was some concerns?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you remember that? Okay.

20 None of those concerns were Steven Stewart; right?

21 A. To the best of my knowledge --

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. -- no.

24 Q. And that triggering event that you kind of touched on that
25 was not Steven Stewart; correct?

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. All right. Thank you, sir.

3 MR. TANASI: Nothing further.

4 THE WITNESS: Certainly.

5 THE COURT: Anyone else?

6 MR. MARCHESE: None for Parker.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: None on behalf of Mr. Drexler. Thank
8 you.

9 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 So, at this time, we'll go ahead and take our lunch
12 break and thank Mr. Petrie for coming in today. We'll excuse
13 him so he can go to lunch as well. It's 11:40 so we'll go
14 ahead and just take a bit of an earlier lunch until 12:40,
15 12:45 if the food is here?

16 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: (Gesture.)

17 THE COURT: Okay. Maybe not.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm told it would be better if we 20 go till 1:00. So you get a little bit of a longer lunch break
21 today and we'll be back here at 1:00 o'clock.

22 So let's go ahead and stand for the jury. And, after 23 they exit, then, Mr. Petrie, you may step down as well.

24 (Jury out, 11:42 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: You may go ahead, sir.

1 We're off record.

2 (Recess, 11:43 a.m. Resumed, 1:22 p.m. Jury not present.)

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

5 Let's -- thank you.

6 All right. So there's one more question that we
7 received from the jurors. Luckily, it's more of a legal 8 question, not a factual question so we don't need to call the 9 witness back or have any problem with the fact that the witness
10 isn't here any longer.

11 What number would this be, Aaron?

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: I'm sorry, Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: What jury note number would this be?

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: That would be 24, I believe.

15 THE COURT: Did you put them back? I thought you had
16 them.

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 24.

18 THE COURT: 24. Okay. So this one will be 25.

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: No. That will be 24.

20 THE COURT: Oh, this one will be 24.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

23 All right. So Jury Note No. 24, "Are court orders in 24 effect during an appeal by a defendant? In other words, is the 25 defendant required to perform or follow court instructions

1 while waiting for a court decision on the defendant's appeal?"

2 So I can answer that question and let them know that,
3 yes, the court order is effective and valid pending appeal
4 unless a stay is ordered, either by the court issuing the 5 original order or by the appellate court; a stay is like
6 pushing the pause button. Unless you have something that you
7 want me to say instead.

8 MS. CREEGAN: That's fine with the Government, Your
9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: I think the --

11 MR. TANASI: I think that covers it.

12 THE COURT: -- follow-up to that would be they'd 13 probably want to know was there a stay issued in any of these.
14 I could take judicial notice if you want me to. But I don't 15 know how much more -- if you have other witnesses that are 16 gonna be coming in to talk about those orders or was that just 17 Mr. Petrie?

18 MS. CREEGAN: We don't, Your Honor. But he did testify
19 that they were all in effect in April of 2014.

20 THE COURT: All right.

21 MR. TANASI: I don't have any --

22 THE COURT: Anything else --

23 MR. TANASI: -- objection, Stewart, Your Honor. And I
24 agree with the Court; I think it's -- there probably will still 25 be some follow-ups to it. But I guess we can address those if

1 they come up.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 Anyone else want to make a record before we bring in
4 the jury?

5 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

7 MR. PEREZ: No objection, Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 So we'll go ahead and bring in the jury. I'll read the 10 note, provide the answer, then Government may call its next
11 witness.

12 Any update on Mr. Ellis yet?

13 MR. MYHRE: It's not --

14 THE COURT: No?

15 MR. MYHRE: -- gonna be today, Your Honor, so --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. MYHRE: -- we hope --

18 THE COURT: That's fine.

19 MR. MYHRE: -- for Monday.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. MYHRE: So we may run -- we had scheduled for 22 Mr. Ellis to go about an hour or two on cross. So we may --

23 THE COURT: Run out.

24 MR. MYHRE: -- come up short at the end of the day. So
25 I'm . . .

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. MYHRE: We'll see how it goes.

3 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 (Pause in the proceedings.)

6 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

7 (Jury in, 1:29 p.m.)

8 THE COURT: All right. Jury may be seated.

9 Everyone else may be seated as well.

10 We're back on the record; back from the lunch break.

11 We did have a jury note that I want to read into the 12 record before we call the next witness. This is Jury Note
13 No. 24.

14 The question is, "Are court orders in effect during an 15 appeal by a defendant? In other words, is the defendant
16 required to perform or follow court instructions while waiting
17 for a court decision on the defendant's appeal?"

18 So this is a legal question, not a factual question,
19 and the parties have agreed that I can answer this question for 20 you. The court order is effective and valid and enforceable
21 during the appellate process. Even when the case is on appeal,
22 it remains in effect. The only time it doesn't stay in effect
23 is if a court issues what we call a stay, s-t-a-y. It can be 24 issued by the original court that signed the order or by the 25 appellate court that's going to be hearing the appeal. No

1 evidence of any stay in this case. So that's -- that's the
2 procedure for a stay. The stay is like a pause button is what
3 I wanted to tell you. It just kind of stops everything as if 4 the order hadn't -- isn't in effect yet.

5 All right. Does the Government have another witness to 6 call?

7 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor. The Government calls Gus
8 Warr.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Warr. Come on up.
10 You're going to be seated over here to my right.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Please be careful with the steps on your 13 way up.

14 (Victor August Warr takes the witness stand.)

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please remain standing and
16 raise your right hand.

17 Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you shall give
18 in the cause now before this court shall be the truth, the
19 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

20 THE WITNESS: Yes.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
22 seated.

23 VICTOR AUGUST WARR,
24 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
25 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please state your full name
2 for the record and spell you last name.

3 THE WITNESS: My name is Gus Warr. It's actually
4 Victor August Warr; I go by Gus. Spell my last name? W-a-r-r.

5 THE COURT: One "R" or two?

6 THE WITNESS: Two R's, please.

7 THE COURT: Two R's.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Warr.

14 A. Good afternoon.

15 Q. Are you currently employed by the Bureau of Land Management?

16 A. Yes, I am.

17 Q. How long have you been employed by the Bureau of Land
18 Management?

19 A. A little over 26 years.

20 Q. And is that also known as the "BLM"?

21 A. Yes, uh-huh.

22 Q. And can you just explain to the jury, generally speaking,
23 what is the general mission of the BLM?

24 A. So the -- the Bureau of Land Management is a federal agency
25 charged with management oversight of public lands which belong

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 to the -- to the general public.

2 Q. And, in managing the public lands, are there different uses
3 that the BLM also has to manage for the lands?

4 A. Yeah -- yes, yes. The -- the uses are a wide variety;
5 everything from -- from livestock grazing, wild horse and burro
6 management, recreation activities, cultural wilderness. A
7 whole -- a whole host of different activities, uses, and values
8 so . . .

9 Q. And what kind of people work for the BLM, so to speak?

10 A. All kinds of people. You know, a variety of people.
11 Primarily just citizens that really love, love the outdoors;
12 love -- love uses of public lands. A variety people work for 13 the Bureau of Land Management.

14 Q. Are there --

15 A. Um --

16 Q. -- both civilians and law enforcement that work for the BLM?

17 A. Yes. A large -- major of 'em, I would say, are all
18 civilians looking at a specific task, whether it be recreation
19 or wildlife management. But we do have a law enforcement
20 component, yes.

21 Q. And, generally speaking, what do the law enforcement
22 officers do?

23 A. Primarily, you know, I -- I'd say law enforcement primarily 24 is a education tool. But they are there to enforce specific
25 regulations and laws and law and order. We -- we utilize 'em

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 on our wild horse gathers just to -- as a presence to help, you
2 know, make sure -- in case something goes wrong we can have --
3 have the ability to enforce these -- these laws if we need to
4 so . . .

5 Q. What is your position with the BLM?

6 A. Okay. So I am a wild horse and burro specialist. My --
7 my -- my -- my title is a -- the Wild Horse and Burro Program
8 Manager for the State of Utah. So anything having to do with 9 wild horses and burros is -- is my title and my job.

10 Q. How long have you held that position?

11 A. I've been in the state office now 15 years so . . .
12 15 years in that particular position.

13 Q. Now, in April of 2014, did you come to be involved in a
14 cattle impoundment taking place in Nevada?

15 A. Yes, I -- yes, correct.

16 Q. What was your role in that?

17 A. I would -- the best -- best way to frame it up is I was the 18 operations lead. I was the person that was over the -- the 19 contracted wranglers who was to -- they come in and impound
20 the -- the livestock. And so I work with the -- the gather
21 crew, the -- the brand inspectors, the veterinarians, the sale
22 barns, the operations of on-the-ground stuff there.

23 Q. Generally, where was this impoundment taking place in 24 Nevada?

25 A. It was near Mesquite near an area they called "Gold Butte,"

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 which is a -- quite a large area. But just outside of
2 Mesquite; south and west of Mesquite, Nevada.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
4 previously admitted as Government's Exhibit 192?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 MS. AHMED: 192. Thank you.

7 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Mr. Warr, directing your attention to the screen that's to 10 your right, do you see that exhibit?

11 A. Yes, um-hum.

12 Q. And, using this exhibit, are able to show the jury generally
13 where the Gold Butte area is?

14 A. So this is a small portion of that. But, yes, this -- all
15 of -- can I draw on this screen?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. Okay.

18 So, I mean, the incident command area was up in here
19 (drawing) and -- and this entire region is all considered part
20 of the Gold Butte, but it goes further down. It's quite a
21 large, extensive area.

22 Q. Now, does the Gold Butte area include both public and 23 private land? Or just one or the other?

24 A. Majority of it -- I don't know exact figures. But I would 25 say 95, 98 percent of it is public land.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. And, in terms of the operation that you're participating in,
2 were you impounding cattle off of both public and private land
3 in the Gold Butte area or just --

4 A. Our --

5 Q. -- one --

6 A. -- our --

7 Q. -- of the --

8 A. -- objective was to impound livestock that was on public
9 land. So primarily animals on Bureau of Land Management and 10 Park Service land so . . .

11 MS. AHMED: Now, Your Honor, may I publish to the --
12 may we publish to the witness and to counsel what's been marked
13 for identification as Government Exhibit 193?

14 THE COURT: Yes. But I need to clarify his answer.
15 I'm not sure it was responsive to your question. He said he
16 was impounding livestock primarily on public land. Does it
17 mean he was also impounding livestock on private land?

18 THE WITNESS: No. I was referring to public land with 19 BLM and then U.S. Park Service which, I guess, is technically 20 also public land. But it's -- so BLM and Park Service land is 21 where we'd identified the cattle. And that was the objective.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So two different public land
23 designated areas.

24 THE WITNESS: Yes. And this doesn't have any Park
25 Service on it. But down around Lake Mead is -- is where you

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 get into the Park Service land.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now --

4 THE COURT: And primarily you were referring to it
5 being BLM --

6 THE WITNESS: Yes.

7 THE COURT: -- primarily --

8 THE WITNESS: Right.

9 THE COURT: -- but --

10 THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

11 THE COURT: -- and also National Park.

12 THE WITNESS: Yes. But not -- not private.

13 THE COURT: Okay. That was --

14 THE WITNESS: Not private.

15 THE COURT: -- my -- thank you.

16 THE WITNESS: Sorry.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. To be clear, was the impoundment of the cattle to take place
19 on private land?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Now, Your Honor, may we show the witness
23 and counsel what's been marked for identification as 193?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 (Exhibit displayed to the witness.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Mr. Warr, do you see Exhibit 193 on the screen?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. And do you recognize generally what that is?

5 A. Oh, yes. That's -- that's a little bigger picture. You can
6 kinda see the operation area.

7 Q. Does it fairly and accurately depict the operation area for 8 that April 2014 impoundment?

9 A. Yes, it does. Um . . . Do you want me to draw on this as 10 well? I mean, I -- I mean, it's -- it's -- it's quite a large
11 area. I mean --

12 Q. If you give me one second, let me --

13 A. Okay.

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we -- the Government offers
15 for admission Government's Exhibit 193.

16 (Government's Exhibit No. 193, offered.)

17 THE COURT: Any objection to 193?

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

19 MR. MARCHESI: None from Parker.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: None.

21 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 Yes, 193 will be admitted.

24 (Government's Exhibit No. 193, received.)

25 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish it and he can

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 go ahead and mark on it.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. So, as you were saying, Mr. Warr, if you will just indicate
4 on that map the area of the -- where you intended to --

5 A. Okay. So the --

6 Q. -- do the --

7 A. -- it's --

8 Q. -- impoundment.

9 A. -- so it's a -- it's quite a large area (drawing). It's --
10 it's -- in reality, it's -- it is an area about that size,
11 which is -- it's about 50 miles long and about 15 miles wide.
12 So we're talking about quite a large, extensive area.

13 That's -- that's the general area. And, in general terms, we 14 consider that Gold Butte. Gold Butte is on the north end.
15 But, yeah, that's the area.

16 MS. AHMED: And for the record, the witness has drawn a
17 large circle-type shape in the middle of the map.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, you indicated that it was -- Gold Butte is in --

20 THE COURT: I wouldn't say a circle. It's more like --

21 MS. AHMED: Like a peanut shape.

22 THE COURT: Like a peanut. Yeah, like an oval peanut,
23 yes. The record will so reflect.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Mr. Warr, you indicated that Gold Butte was within the area

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that you've circled but that it also extended further beyond
2 the Gold Butte area; is that correct?

3 A. Yes, correct. The Gold Butte area is technically just on up
4 on the northern -- northern end between, say, I-15 and the 5 Virgin River Mountains up here. And so the Gold Butte Area is 6 kind of a subset of that larger area.

7 Q. Now, the larger area that you've indicated on this map,
8 that's the area that you intended -- the operation intended to 9 gather cattle from --

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. -- is that correct?

12 A. Yes, correct.

13 Q. And that included the Lake Mead National Recreation Area?

14 A. Yes, it did. Um-hum.

15 Q. And who administers that --

16 A. That's the --

17 Q. -- land?

18 A. -- National Park Service, so a different agency. But cattle
19 had moved into that area and they -- they needed also to be 20 removed.

21 MS. AHMED: You can take that exhibit down. Thank you.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Now, before we go any further, Mr. Warr, could you just 24 explain to the jury what an impoundment is.

25 A. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 An impoundment is simply -- our objective was to go out
2 and -- and gather livestock that were on public lands,
3 remove 'em from public lands, and then we were to take
4 possession of them, and then they were gonna be sold at 5 auction. So it's a simple removal from public lands, held, and 6 then sold.

7 Q. Now, what was your understanding of why you were gathering
8 cattle for this impoundment operation?

9 A. Because of several court orders.

10 Q. And did you know who the cattle belonged to that you were 11 gathering?

12 A. Ye- -- yes, I did.

13 Q. And who did the cattle belong to?

14 A. They were Cliven Bundy and family.

15 Q. Now, you indicated earlier what your role was.

16 A. Um-hum.

17 Q. So were you actually present in the area for the 18 impoundment?

19 A. Yes, I was. For the entire impoundment, I was on site as 20 the operations lead as well as having several other individuals
21 that worked under me as what we call "project inspectors." But
22 yes.

23 Q. So did you go -- well, let me step back.

24 So, between April 5th and April 11th, 2014, were cattle
25 gathered off of public lands under the impoundment operation?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes, they were.

2 Q. And approximately how many cattle were impounded during that
3 period?

4 A. I would say around 400; but I believe the exact number was 5 around 375, 378 roughly. I don't have the exact number. But 6 about three seventy, 370-something.

7 Q. Generally, once the cattle were gathered off the public
8 lands, what was done with them during the impoundment?

9 A. So the -- as soon as they were gathered, they were shipped
10 from the -- where they were gathered from to the Incident
11 Command Post and the Incident Command Post was a series of 12 corrals with a -- with a chute that we actually would put 'em
13 in.

14 We would have livestock inspectors from the State of 15 Nevada. They would inspect the animals for the ownership and 16 then they would -- a tag would be attached to the animal
17 identifying them as an individual animal and then a brand
18 inspection would be given to the federal government
19 transferring ownership to the federal government and then they 20 would be separated in individual pens. Like, we'd put the 21 bulls in one pen; the cows and the calves in another pen; and 22 then they were cared for.

23 Q. Were the pens also marked in any way?

24 A. Yes, yes. The individual pens said "Property of the U.S.
25 Government" or the Federal Government because after the brand

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 inspection occurred, at the end of the day, those animals
2 technically belonged to the federal government after they'd
3 been inspected.

4 Q. During the impoundment, once the ownership was transferred
5 to the U.S. Government --

6 A. Um-hum.

7 Q. -- were steps taken to give Mr. Bundy an opportunity to 8 reclaim those cattle?

9 A. Yes. Part of the procedures that the -- the federal 10 government and state through the brand inspection laws is to 11 give the potential owner an opportunity to come claim those 12 animals as long as they paid any fines or fees associated with 13 them. And that was done on a -- on a daily or every-other-day
14 occurrence where notices were sent out so that the individual
15 could have an opportunity to come claim the animals.

16 Q. Did he ever do so?

17 A. No. No, he didn't. That I'm aware of.

18 Q. Did he ever, to your knowledge, pay any of those fines or 19 fees?

20 A. Not that I'm aware of.

21 Q. Now, were you also responsible for where the cattle would go
22 after they were taken to the ICP?

23 A. Yes, that was actually . . .

24 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: (Gesturing.)

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 THE COURT: I think we can continue. Go ahead.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Do you recall the question, Mr. Warr?

4 A. Yes. Give -- you better give it to me one more time. I
5 don't know if he was telling me to stop or no.

6 Q. No, no?

7 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: I'm sorry. I was just . . .

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Were you responsible for where the cattle were to go after 10 they were taken to the ICP?

11 A. Yes. So the overall, you know, care and upkeep of the 12 animals was my responsibility and so I had to work and -- and 13 find a sale barn that was willing and able to take the animals
14 so we could complete the process of gathering, holding, and 15 then ultimately selling the animal. And so, yes, that was a --
16 that was a part of my -- my responsibilities.

17 MS. AHMED: Now, before we go further down that path,
18 Your Honor, may we show the witness what's been marked for 19 identification as Government's Exhibits 134 and 135?

20 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

21 (Exhibit displayed to the witness.)

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Mr. Warr, do you see what's on your screen as 134?

24 A. Yes, I do.

25 Q. And do you recognize what is depicted in that?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes, definitely. This is -- this is a pen of -- of cows
2 and -- and calves that have not been weaned that we've kept --
3 that we've impounded. And then the tags that you see on there,
4 the little white circles, those are a brand inspection tag --
5 they call 'em a "back tag" -- that the State of Nevada brand
6 inspector has placed on them which is the key of transfer of 7 ownership.

8 Q. Now, is this -- does 134 fairly and accurately depict what
9 was out there at the ICP during the impoundment?

10 A. It's a screenshot of a large subset. But, yeah, that's -- 11 that's -- that's our holding facility and that's one of the 12 pens of animals.

13 Q. And can I turn your attention to Exhibit 134 -- 135. Excuse
14 me.

15 (Exhibit displayed to the witness.)

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And do you see what's on your screen as 135?

18 A. Yes. That's the sign I was referring to where it says
19 "Property of the U.S. Government." Those signs were also 20 placed on the out -- outer perimeter of the -- of the pens to 21 depict that these are federal property.

22 Q. And does this photograph also fairly and accurately depict
23 how the pens appeared during the impoundment?

24 A. Yes. Them cows love to see that hay there; they love to 25 have that green feed in front of 'em.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm gonna --

2 THE WITNESS: So yes.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- object to the additional comment.

4 THE COURT: Overruled.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
6 Exhibits 134 and 135.

7 (Government's Exhibit No. 134 and 135, offered.)

8 THE COURT: Any objection to photos, Exhibit 134 or 9 135?

10 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart, Your Honor.

11 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

13 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

14 THE COURT: All right. So Exhibit 134 and Exhibit 135
15 will be admitted.

16 (Government's Exhibit No. 134 and 135, received.)

17 THE COURT: You may --

18 MS. AHMED: May we publish them, Your Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may publish it to the jury now.

20 MS. AHMED: Turning back to 134, please.

21 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. And, again, Mr. Warr, would you just explain to the jury, 24 now that they can see the photograph, what you were explaining
25 about those tags?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't realize they couldn't see 'em.

2 Q. That's okay.

3 A. I'm sorry. I don't see what you're seeing.

4 So the -- the round white -- those are actually tags
5 with glue on the back of 'em and they have a four-digit number.
6 And that four-digit number will correspond to the individual
7 brand inspection that is given by a State of Nevada brand
8 inspector which transfers ownership to the Bureau of Land
9 Management or the federal government. And each one of those 10 animals that was impounded with -- had one of those back tags
11 on 'em.

12 Q. And is this photograph taken at the ICP?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. And this was taken between April 5th and April 11th, 2014?

15 A. Definitely. And, based on the number of animals, it would 16 have had to have been around the -- you know, the 10th or 11th;
17 sometime in that window.

18 Q. And then turning your attention to Exhibit 135.

19 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. And can you explain to the jury again what's depicted in 22 this paragraph?

23 A. Yes. Okay. Again, I'm sorry. But the -- this -- the white
24 sign with the black letters says "Property of the U.S.
25 Government." Again, those were placed on the outer perimeter

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 of the -- the corrals where we were holding the -- the cattle
2 just to depict that they did belong to the federal government
3 because at this point they had already been -- the ownership
4 had been transferred over and the federal government was the --
5 was the owner at that point.

6 Q. Now, you had indicated that part of your responsibility was 7 finding a place to take the cattle from the ICP; correct?

8 A. Yes. Part of my duties was to work with the individual sale
9 barns to find a -- find a home for the animals after they'd
10 been impounded. Yes.

11 Q. Now, on April 11th, did you have a plan as to where you were 12 going to be taking those cattle?

13 A. Yes, I did. Worked tirelessly trying to find a home, a 14 facility that would be willing to take 'em. And I actually had 15 secured a location in California that was -- a sale barn --
16 that was willing to accept the animals and allow the federal 17 government to run them through and -- and sell them at auction.

18 Q. And where was that sale barn located?

19 A. It was in -- it was -- it's called the Euclid -- Eu- -- I
20 have a hard time saying the word.

21 THE COURT: You can spell it if it's --

22 THE WITNESS: E-u-c-l-i-d. Euclid Stockyards. Euclid,
23 Euclid [pronunciation]. I'm sorry. But it's in, like,
24 Ontario, California. A fairly large sale facility that 25 receives a lot of livestock at it.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. So, on April 11th, 2014, your plan was to transport the
3 cattle that were at the ICP to the Euclid Stockyard --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- in California?

6 A. Yes, correct. Yeah. Those arrangements had all been made
7 and in place. And let's see. They -- they -- the animals were 8 scheduled to be loaded the morning of the 14th and be shipped
9 to Euclid.

10 Q. Now, on April 14 -- excuse me -- on April 11th, that same
11 day that we were just discussing, did the plan for the 12 impoundment operation generally change to your knowledge?

13 A. Yes, it did. Early on in the day, we had received notice
14 from upper management that some potential threats were coming
15 in. And so we were gonna shut down gather operations, meaning
16 that we were not gonna continue to gather cattle off of public
17 lands at that point. But --

18 Q. And what was your understanding about the cattle that had 19 already been impounded and were at the ICP?

20 A. Well, those were still under our preview [sic] because they 21 belonged to the federal government. So our job was still to 22 care for those animals at that facility; we were just simply
23 not gonna continue gathering new animals. But, yeah, the care
24 of those animals were definitely still in our charge.

25 Q. And, as of the night of April 11th, did you take any steps

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 to continue to provide for the cattle that were at the ICP?

2 A. Yes. Because of the threat, I actually excused all of the 3 contractors and all of the other people that were working with
4 me operationally and I stayed on site. I actually -- before
5 the contractors left, I -- I asked them if they would order up
6 two large semi loads of hay, which they did. And those two 7 large semi loads of hay arrived late Friday evening that I was 8 able to get unloaded and placed on site so that I would have 9 plenty forage for at least 2 to 5 days or longer to -- to keep 10 caring for those cattle.

11 Q. And, when you say "Friday night," you mean Friday,
12 April 11th --

13 A. Friday --

14 Q. -- correct?

15 A. -- April 11th, correct. Yeah.

16 Q. Now --

17 A. Um-hum.

18 Q. -- as of the morning of April 12th, 2014, were you still at
19 the ICP?

20 A. Yes, I was. Um-hum.

21 Q. Now, was your plan to have the cattle transported to Euclid
22 Stockyard still in effect?

23 A. Yes. At that point, I was assuming that we were gonna have 24 some communication and we were gonna be shipping the cattle out
25 Monday morning and I was gonna stay on site and care for the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 animals through the weekend.

2 Q. Did it come a point where events began to take place at the
3 ICP that changed that?

4 A. Yes, um . . .

5 Q. What were those events?

6 A. We -- we started hearing radio traffic. And I actually took
7 binoculars out because I was out checking the cattle and I
8 could see groups of individuals that were starting to 9 materialize and -- and -- and form along the highway, along the 10 ridgelines and different locations and we were -- at that 11 point, there was only about a dozen civilians still on site.
12 We were ordered to go into a communications trailer for our own
13 safety. But, based on things that were happening, it was like,
14 okay, something's going down here.

15 Q. Did you go into that trailer and stay there?

16 A. Yes, yes. We -- we were there for several hours that 17 morning just waiting for further direction. Pretty -- pretty 18 unnerving.

19 Q. Did you -- were you informed -- without going into what you
20 were told, were -- did you learn what was taking place outside
21 of the trailer?

22 A. Yeah, because we had -- we had radio communication. We were 23 actually in the lead communication trailer so we could hear
24 communication traffic about these discussions were taking place
25 at the main gate, these discussions -- these build-up of

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 individuals we could see were taking place underneath the
2 overpass. And so we -- we kinda knew what was goin' on; we
3 just didn't know what was gonna happen.

4 Q. Did you have some concern for your safety at that time?

5 A. Yes. I think that's probably puttin' it mildly. You know,
6 we were civilians kinda huddled up in a -- in a trailer. And,
7 you know, we -- we -- obviously, when I was out, I could see
8 that some of these individuals were armed with rifles and I
9 knew that that little trailer we were in was not gonna be
10 something that was gonna be protected. If -- if all of a
11 sudden bullets -- bullets started flying, that trailer was not 12 gonna protect me from the ultimate harm. So I was very 13 concerned with what was going down.

14 Q. Were you concerned for anyone else that was also at the ICP?

15 A. Yes. I mean, we were literally down in a -- my concern was 16 we were literally down in a hole. We could have been -- I
17 mean, if -- if we had heard a backfire of a vehicle, I just was 18 afraid of the worst that could have happened. I was really
19 concerned about what was gonna go down there.

20 Q. Did you have concern particularly for the law enforcement
21 officers that were there?

22 A. Probably more for them than me.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, relevance.

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it goes to the element of -- 25 its giving the jury a way to measure the reasonableness of the

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 fear that the officers felt for their safety. And Mr. Warr is
2 also a federal officer; he would fit into that as well. It's
3 the way to measure whether a reasonable person in their shoes
4 would feel fear. I don't know how else to help the jury
5 understand that without allowing them to know what the people
6 who were there felt.

7 THE COURT: But he's in the trailer.

8 MS. AHMED: He's hearing --

9 THE COURT: He --

10 MS. AHMED: -- what's --

11 THE COURT: -- he --

12 MS. AHMED: -- going on.

13 THE COURT: -- he's hearing the radio traffic.

14 MS. AHMED: And he knows where the officers are.

15 THE COURT: And he knows where -- and he saw through 16 the binoculars people starting to line up on the ridgeline.

17 MS. AHMED: With weapons.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 Overruled. I'll allow it.

20 THE WITNESS: So I would probably say I was more
21 concerned about the officers that I just spent the last two 22 weeks with, got to know, got to really admire for what they 23 were doing --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, nonresponsive.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

3 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, I believe he's just
4 responding to the question. I --

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. You can explain to the jury why you were afraid for them if 7 that's a part of the answer because you had --

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. -- developed a relationship with them.

10 THE WITNESS: Am I good to go, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yeah. You --

12 THE WITNESS: Okay.

13 THE COURT: -- can --

14 THE WITNESS: Okay.

15 THE COURT: -- finish your response.

16 THE WITNESS: I -- I guess I was more concerned about 17 their safety because they were on the frontline; I was gonna be 18 a secondary effect. I -- if bullets were gonna be flown, it
19 was gonna be at them first I was assuming, not the trailer that 20 was quite some distance away. So definitely I was more
21 concerned about them than me. I knew I had a way out, which 22 was out the back door. I didn't know where I was gonna go.
23 But yeah.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Now, at some point, did you leave the trailer where you

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 were --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- put?

4 A. And so, as -- as things started getting heated, we were
5 ordered to evacuate which we just knew that there was a back
6 entrance. And so there was -- I believe there was six vehicles
7 that exited. They were all civilians; we were all civilians.
8 And we proceeded northward from the Incident Command Post.
9 Honestly, we didn't have a map of where we were goin'. We just 10 knew that we were going away from the threat. And so we exited
11 out an entrance that we -- I'd never been on. It was just a --
12 it was a dirt road up a wash and so . . .

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I publish what's been
14 previously admitted as Government's Exhibit 191?

15 THE COURT: Yes you may.

16 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Now, Mr. Warr, do you recognize what's in 191?

19 A. (Reviewing exhibit.) Yes. I'm trying to get my bearings.
20 But yes.

21 Q. And is that the ICP?

22 A. Yes, correct.

23 Q. And can you indicate what -- what were the actual entrances
24 and exits that you used during the impoundment?

25 A. So I can draw --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Before April 12th.

2 A. I can draw on this?

3 Q. Yes. You can just --

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. -- mark it with an "X."

6 A. Okay. So the main -- the main entrance was right here
7 (drawing). There was a secondary entrance where you
8 actually -- there's a -- there's a road that comes underneath
9 the interstate right there. But this where I circled was the 10 main primary entrance that we come in and out. That was -- 11 that was -- every day that was in and out that same entrance
12 where the circle is.

13 Q. And why did you not use that circled area on April 12th to 14 leave the ICP?

15 A. This -- the circled area was where the first communication
16 was had with the group of individuals that showed up. And then 17 here where the line goes under the interstate was -- was -- had 18 a line of people. There was individuals over on this (drawing)
19 ridge and back over here (drawing).

20 And so there was -- there was no way we were gonna go
21 out that direction. There was -- there was too much activity
22 and things going on.

23 MS. AHMED: So -- and, for the record, the witness drew 24 a circle in the median area of the interstate and a line in the 25 wash portion of the interstate on 191.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Now, clearing those marks, can you indicate to the jury
3 where it was you exited the ICP on from April 12th?

4 A. Okay. It's just on the edge of the map. But the ICP was 5 here (drawing) and we exited out that way (drawing).

6 Q. And, again, had you ever used that route before April 12th?

7 A. No, I had never been out that route. It was right -- at the 8 bottom of this is an area where we would meet regularly with 9 the contractors. But I'd never been out that route other than 10 I knew that there was a road there so I'd never been out that 11 route before.

12 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn an arrow pointing
13 upward in the center top portion of the map.

14 You can take that down. Thank you.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. When you left the ICP, Mr. Warr, did you take the cattle
17 with you?

18 A. No, no unfortunately. We were just happy to get out of 19 there without any harm. And no, no; we had no cattle. We 20 just -- we were in -- we were in vehicles so . . .

21 Q. Now, did you ever after that take the cattle that had been
22 impounded to the Euclid Stockyard as you had planned?

23 A. No, 'cuz the last time I seen the cattle was when we left.
24 And then I later found out that they had been released. And so
25 they were never taken to the stockyard as we had planned on

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that Monday. They were supposed to go on Monday, the -- the
2 14th to the stockyard. But we had no cattle at that point
3 so -- in our possession.

4 Q. And, to your knowledge, has the BLM ever returned to the 5 area to impound the cattle?

6 A. No. BLM has never been back to impound any cattle. No.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
8 indulgence?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Mr. Warr.

11 Nothing further, Your Honor. I'll pass the witness.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 THE COURT: Can I just have him clarify what he means
14 by the word "impound" just to make sure it's the same as the 15 thought that I have in my mind.

16 THE WITNESS: So impound. I guess I could use
17 "impound" and "gather" as the same thing. You're gonna --
18 you're gonna gather animals off of public land and remove them
19 from the land and sell them to a -- to a stock yard. So 20 it's -- it's -- the impound means capture and then removal from 21 lands.

22 Does that make sense.

23 THE COURT: So the impound is a combination of the 24 gather and removal?

25 THE WITNESS: And the sale. Yes, the impound

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 includes --

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 THE WITNESS: -- all three factions.

4 THE COURT: I'll say in my mind "impound" was to put
5 them in the pen.

6 THE WITNESS: Yep.

7 THE COURT: So that's --

8 THE WITNESS: Okay.

9 THE COURT: I'm glad you clarified that then --

10 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: -- what the terminology means.

12 THE WITNESS: All right.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 THE WITNESS: You're welcome.

15 THE COURT: I was using it as a verb.

16 THE WITNESS: Okay. My wife tells me I'm horrible at 17 grammar so . . .

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 Cross?

20 MR. TANASI: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: For Mr. Stewart.

22 CROSS-EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Warr.

25 A. Good afternoon.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a few
2 questions for ya on cross. Okay?

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. All right. Now I'm just kinda picking up where Your Honor
5 left off; the impounding, as you understand it, is gathering,
6 removing, and selling; correct?

7 A. Yes, correct. Um-hum.

8 Q. And you were the operations lead for this impound operation
9 in 2014; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. All right. You learned or do you recall learning that the 12 BLM was going to cease the impound operations due to safety
13 concerns on April 11th? Do you recall that?

14 A. Yes, I do. Um-hum.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And, in fact, as early as 10:30 a.m. that morning on the 18 11th, do you recall that you had ordered the helicopters to be 19 shut down?

20 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

21 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it's one of the actions taken
22 in shutting down the operations as he's testified is occurring
23 on the 11th, shutting down the helicopter.

24 THE COURT: So are you asking him if he was aware of 25 the helicopters?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. TANASI: He ordered the -- Your Honor, what I'm
2 getting to is one of the steps he took in response to ceasing
3 the operations; one of those steps involves the helicopter.

4 THE COURT: All right. Overruled. You can ask him
5 that.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. Okay, sir. Again, do you recall that as early as 10:30 a.m.
9 on the morning of the 11th you had ordered helicopters to shut
10 down?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And, again, that was in an effort to cease the 13 impound operations?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. So that was occurring -- the ceasing of the impound
16 operations was occurring as early as 10:30 a.m. on April 11th.

17 A. Yes, correct.

18 Q. Fair?

19 A. Um-hum.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Nothing further.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 Cross on behalf of Parker.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Yes, thank you, Your Honor.

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

4 A. Good afternoon.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, if we could start with 6 Exhibit 192 which has been admitted.

7 THE COURT: Is that 292?

8 MR. MARCHESE: 192 --

9 THE COURT: Oh, 192.

10 MR. MARCHESE: -- I believe.

11 THE COURT: Oh.

12 MR. MARCHESE: It's been --

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 MR. MARCHESE: -- admitted; correct, Aaron?

15 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Okay.

17 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

18 BY MR. MARCHESE:

19 Q. And, sir, you testified about this particular exhibit on 20 direct examination. Do you remember that?

21 A. Yes, correct.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. Um-hum.

24 Q. And this was an overview of the area that you were working
25 in for the cattle impoundment in the Gold Butte area?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. This is a small subset of a larger area, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Did you prefer the other one, the colored map? Is
3 that easier for you to refer to the -- I believe it's
4 Exhibit 193?

5 A. Well, this is just a small subset. So I don't know what the 6 question is. But I'm -- I'm fine with this. I don't know --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- what the question is.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Actually, let's try 193, Brian. I think
10 that's a little bit more descript.

11 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. Okay. And you see that particular area, sir?

14 A. Yes --

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. -- I do. Um-hum.

17 Q. And is this a fair and accurate depiction of the public
18 lands that you were working on for this impoundment?

19 A. All -- the entire gather area is within that map --

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. -- yes. Um-hum.

22 Q. And you had mentioned National Park Service as well as 23 Bureau of Land Management areas; correct?

24 A. Correct. Um-hum.

25 Q. And are those two particular areas depicted on this map?

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. Yes. The -- now, I'm color blind. But I can tell you
2 whatever the pink/blue shade is around the water that's Park
3 Service land and the yellow is -- is Bureau of Land Management
4 land so . . .

5 Q. Okay. And I didn't quite hear you on direct examination.
6 The general geography of this I'm guessing you said 50 by 50 or 7 was it 15 by --

8 A. No. Roughly about 50 miles long --

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. -- was the distribution of the cattle that we had 11 inventoried. So about 50 miles long by about 15 miles wide.
12 So quite a large area which -- yeah.

13 Q. Okay. So you're working within this area --

14 A. Um-hum.

15 Q. -- correct?

16 A. Um-hum.

17 Q. And, in order to impound the cattle, this particular
18 location was shut down to the public; correct?

19 A. The only -- that I'm aware of, the only area that was shut
20 down to the public was wherever we were trapping. We had kind
21 of a roaming shut down. So, if we were trapping in a specific 22 region, we would shut down a specific area; but the rest of the 23 public land was open.

24 Q. Okay. So depending on where you're doing the trapping --

25 A. Um-hum.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. -- that particular area is closed and then you would reopen
2 it after?

3 A. Yes. Right.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. So we may be trapping in one area and then that same area is 6 opened the next day as long as our -- all of our equipment was 7 moved. So it was kind of a roving location of -- of shutting
8 down public lands for safety purposes for trapping operations.

9 Q. Sure. 'Cuz you're talking about large animals; correct?

10 A. Yes. We do the same thing with our wild horse gathers where 11 we will limit access for the safety of not only the 12 contractors, the animals, the personnel on site. Definitely.

13 Q. Okay. Now, turning your attention to April 11th --

14 A. Um-hum.

15 Q. -- you were asked a series of questions --

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. -- where there was a plan to sell the cattle in Euclid or 18 Euclid [pronunciation] --

19 A. Um-hum.

20 Q. -- California; correct?

21 A. Yeah, that was the name of the sale barn. Um-hum.

22 Q. Okay. And, at some point in time, you testified that that 23 plan changed; correct?

24 MS. AHMED: Objection --

25 THE WITNESS: No.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 MS. AHMED: -- misstates the testimony.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Then he can say no.

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. Is that an incorrect statement, sir?

5 A. Repeat the question.

6 Q. At some point in time, the plan had changed to sell the 7 cattle -- take them to Euclid and sell them.

8 A. No, that -- that never changed.

9 Q. Okay. There -- at some point in time, the plan had changed
10 to continue to gather cattle though; correct?

11 A. On April 11th, the morning of April 11th, it was determined
12 to not gather any further -- any more cattle.

13 Q. Okay. So --

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. -- yes, you stopped gathering cattle.

16 A. Um-hum. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And your testimony was something to the effect of 18 there was some sort of a -- you had received some information
19 about a possible threat; is that right?

20 A. Correct. Um-hum.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MR. MARCHESE: So, Brian, can you bring up Exhibit 191.
23 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. Now, earlier on direct examination you had testified that

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 you were on site for the cattle gather, the cattle impoundment;
2 correct?

3 A. Yes, correct.

4 Q. And on April 11th --

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. -- you were also on site?

7 A. Yes, correct.

8 Q. Okay. When did you initially receive this information about 9 the alleged threat?

10 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Goes directly --

12 THE COURT: When --

13 MR. MARCHESE: When.

14 THE COURT: -- what time approximately --

15 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

16 THE COURT: -- did he receive -- overruled. He can
17 answer the question.

18 THE WITNESS: So I guess I don't understand the 19 question, Your Honor. Are you talking about the threat to shut
20 down gather operations or over the week?

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. On April 11th --

23 THE COURT: Just the threat I thought was the question.

24 MR. MARCHESE: Correct.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. On April 11th, you had received some information about a
3 possible threat. Do you remember that?

4 A. Yes, um-hum.

5 Q. Okay. So you understand where I am goin' with it.

6 A. Yep.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Um-hum.

9 Q. Approximately, if you know, when was that?

10 A. It was -- it was the morning of April 11th, the threat level
11 was elevated to the point that operations -- they felt the 12 operations should shut down. And that was 10:00/11:00 o'clock
13 in the morning.

14 Q. Okay. And, at that point in time, you were in that trailer
15 I believe you had described it as?

16 A. No. That was the next day.

17 Q. Okay. On the 12th?

18 A. Yeah, yeah. The 11th was a Friday.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. The 11th was when we were gathering cows. And so at 11 --
21 on the 11th is when I sent all of the crew home and I continued
22 to take care of the cows, brought the hay in. And it was the 23 12th, mid-morning of the 12th, is when I went into the trailer.
24 That's --

25 Q. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

- 1 A. So you were a whole day off there.
- 2 Q. Okay. But, on the 11th, you were on site; correct?
- 3 A. Yeah, um-hum.
- 4 Q. Did you ever leave between the 11th and the 12th?
- 5 A. I stayed overnight on site there --
- 6 Q. Okay.
- 7 A. -- to make sure that the cows were all taken care of.
- 8 Q. So, on the 11th, you received this threat.
- 9 A. Um-hum.
- 10 Q. Did anything occur on the 11th in reference to this threat?
- 11 A. "Occur" like . . . I don't understand the question.
- 12 Q. You said there was a threat on the 11th; correct?
- 13 A. Right. You mean -- you mean like a threat on the 11th?
- 14 Q. Did anything out of the ordinary in reference to a threat
- 15 occur on the 11th?
- 16 A. Not as far as a threat, no.
- 17 Q. Okay.
- 18 A. Hum-um.
- 19 Q. It was pretty much business as usual for the most part.
- 20 A. No, it wasn't business as usual. Business as usual would
- 21 have been gatherin' cows. We were -- we were safeguarding; we
- 22 were not leaving. I was bringing hay in. So that wasn't
- 23 business as usual in my mind, but it was -- it was business.
- 24 Q. Okay. And you were there; correct?
- 25 A. Yeah, I was --

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. You fed the --

2 A. -- on site --

3 Q. -- cattle.

4 A. Yep, I was on site.

5 Q. Okay. Nobody that wasn't a government employee showed up
6 that day.

7 A. Nobody that was a government employee . . .

8 Q. That was not a government employee showed up at the 9 impoundment that day.

10 A. Not that I'm aware of.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. Not that I'm aware of.

13 Q. So now let's turn to the morning of the 12th. You --

14 THE COURT: Mr. Marchese, "that day" is referring to 15 which day?

16 MR. MARCHESE: The 11th, Your --

17 THE COURT: 11th.

18 MR. MARCHESE: -- Honor.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay.

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. And that's --

22 A. Thank you.

23 Q. -- let's turn to the morning of the 12th.

24 A. Okay. Perfect.

25 Q. Okay. Now, at some point in time, you testified that you

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 saw people gathering --

2 A. Yep.

3 Q. -- is that correct?

4 A. Um-hum.

5 Q. Is that a "yes"?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, did you see this physically or did you hear it
8 on the radio first?

9 A. I saw it physically because I was out -- I was -- again, I
10 was the only civilian there with the operations so I was out
11 feeding cows, taking care of cows. So I was out walking around
12 the corrals and I could visually see what was going on with the 13 binoculars I had around my neck.

14 Q. Okay. And if you could, once again, indicate on this
15 particular screen, on Exhibit 191, where you would be gathering
16 cows -- or not gathering -- feeding and caring for the cows?

17 A. Can I -- will this open up? No. Uh-oh. Better erase that.
18 Sorry.

19 Q. Hold on. There we go.

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. Let's start fresh.

22 A. So the corrals were (drawing) roughly right there.

23 Q. Okay. And how about the trailer? Is the trailer next to 24 the corrals?

25 A. The trailers were -- the trailers -- whoops -- the trailers

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 were like right there (drawing). Whoops.

2 Q. Okay. So the trailers are, I guess, somewhat in front of 3 the corrals; is that --

4 A. They were, yeah, kitty-corner. We're talking hundred yards
5 away, 75 yards away.

6 Q. Okay. So there are -- you made two -- well, one's almost a
7 circle and another one's, I guess, an oval. The lower one
8 is -- are the trailers.

9 A. Yep. The trailers are this one (indicating).

10 Q. Okay. And then the one above it is the corrals.

11 A. Correct. Yeah. Um-hum.

12 Q. Okay. And you stated it's approximately a hundred yards
13 away from each other?

14 A. Yep. Um-hum.

15 Q. Okay. Now, let's talk about the trailer. Approximately how 16 far is the trailer -- I'm gonna put -- to the I-15 where I just 17 put a little dot there?

18 A. How far --

19 Q. How far is that?

20 A. -- is that?

21 Q. Yeah.

22 A. Um, wow. I don't know. Quarter of a mile. I'd have to go
23 out and look at it again. It's been 3 years since I've been
24 there.

25 Q. Sure. So --

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. But it's -- but it's easily visible with a pair of
2 binoculars to see exactly what's goin' on.

3 Q. Okay. Now this area that you're at is it elevated in 4 reference to --

5 A. I've got --

6 Q. -- the dot I made?

7 A. I've got clear sight from the corrals to the highway because 8 the highway's elevated. The highway's elevated; the 9 ridgeline's elevated. So I can see up and I can see everything
10 that's goin' on there.

11 Q. Okay. So, when you say that, are you at the same height --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- as that highway from back where you're at?

14 A. Oh, we're -- we're lower.

15 Q. You're lower.

16 A. So I can look up and see it.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. (Gesturing.)

19 Q. Are you -- if you're at the dot that I placed on the screen,
20 are you the same level? below it? above it? What?

21 A. The dot on the screen is close to the same level of where 22 the corrals are because if you follow this wash -- I'm gonna
23 put a line on here (drawing). This is a wash -- that's all
24 pretty much the same elevation. And the corrals and the 25 trailers are actually above that.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Okay. And, when you say "above it," do you mean --

2 A. In elevation.

3 Q. -- above . . .

4 A. In elevation.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. They're just a little bit above in elevation.

7 Q. All right. And, when you say "a little bit," what would you
8 mean by "a little bit"?

9 A. 12/15 feet.

10 Q. Okay. So generally the same height. Just a little bit
11 higher.

12 A. 12 to 15 feet.

13 Q. Okay. At what point did you go into the trailer?

14 A. When I was directed by my line of command officer to get in 15 the trailer.

16 Q. Okay. Do you remember when that was?

17 A. I don't for sure. I really --

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. -- don't know the exact time. It was in the morning
20 sometime.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. That was a really big blur about that time so . . .

23 Q. Were there people in the wash?

24 A. Where are you talking about?

25 Q. In the -- were there non-BLM/Park Service employees in the

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 wash at that time?

2 A. Where at in the wash?

3 Q. In between the north- and southbound bridges of the I-15.

4 A. I -- I couldn't tell ya.

5 Q. Okay. Why couldn't ya? Why? Were you -- did you not see?

6 Or you just don't remember?

7 A. I was paying attention to the people on the ridges here and

8 over here (drawing) and on the highway. And I wasn't too -- I

9 wasn't focused -- I don't remember how many people were there

10 when I went in the trailers.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. So . . .

13 Q. So, if you're looking at the screen, you've indicated that 14 there are people on two ridges.

15 A. Yep.

16 Q. Let's talk about the one on the right.

17 A. Okay.

18 Q. The one to the right, is that kind of a mountainous area?

19 Is it fair to say?

20 A. Yeah, that's -- we'd actually had individuals show up on 21 this ridge on several occasions previous days looking down onto

22 the operation so . . .

23 Q. Okay. Was there ever a point in time where there were BLM

24 or Park Service employees on that ridge to your knowledge?

25 A. Not that I'm aware of.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 Q. Okay. And the individuals on the other side, this other
2 left -- the other line on a diagonal to the left of the
3 screen --

4 A. Um-hum.

5 Q. -- what did you see over there?

6 A. I just remember people. But, honestly, I don't even
7 remember. At one time I was thinking that was horsemen over
8 there. But I don't think it was. I think it was just 9 individuals that must have walked off from the highway, walked
10 down off -- off of the highway there or something.

11 Q. Okay. Approximately how many individuals if you remember?

12 A. I'd say eight to ten.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Court's indulgence.

15 (Defense counsel conferring.)

16 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, sir.

17 THE WITNESS: Yep. You're welcome.

18 THE COURT: Cross for Drexler?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Cross for Lovelien?

21 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Any redirect?

23 (Government counsel conferring.)

24 MS. AHMED: None, Your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: I just have to ask you your accent.

1 THE WITNESS: My accent?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 THE WITNESS: It's called Erda, Utah. Sorry. It's --

4 THE COURT: No.

5 (Laughter.)

6 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I don't -- I didn't know I
7 had an accent. But . . .

8 THE COURT: Corrals for corrals -- corrals
9 [pronunciation].

10 THE WITNESS: Corral, corrals [pronunciation].

11 THE COURT: Corrals? No?

12 Okay. I was thinking Scottish, Irish.

13 THE WITNESS: No, I --

14 THE COURT: I was trying to figure out what it was.
15 No?

16 THE WITNESS: I think it's a rural Utah accent.

17 THE COURT: Rural Utah.

18 THE WITNESS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 THE WITNESS: There you go.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 (Laughter.)

23 THE COURT: Well, thank you for coming in today.

24 Please be careful on the --

25 THE WITNESS: Okay.

1 THE COURT: -- way down.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: You are excused.

4 THE WITNESS: Appreciate it.

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. Oh, you're right. The 7 jury -- I'm sorry, sir. We have questions for you.

8 THE WITNESS: We have a coup over here going on
9 so . . .

10 THE COURT: Yes, I do allow the jurors to ask
11 questions.

12 THE WITNESS: Okay.

13 (Pause in the proceedings.)

14 THE COURT: All right. Counsel please meet me at
15 sidebar.

16 (Begin sidebar conference.)

17 THE COURT: Hallelujah. Got that.

18 All right. So Jury Note No. 25 has three questions.
19 First one is, "What happened to the non-Bundy branded cattle?"

20 Any objection?

21 MR. TANASI: No objection.

22 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

23 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart.

24 MR. PEREZ: Not from Lovelien.

25 THE COURT: Next question is, "What was your chain of

1 command? Where was the individual who ordered shelter in
2 place?"

3 Any objection?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: What? I'm sorry?

5 THE COURT: "Shelter in place."

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: "Shelter in place."

7 MR. TANASI: Who ordered that.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: Look at it. If you think it says something
10 else.

11 MR. TANASI: Thank you. I don't have --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Which one am I looking at? First one?
13 Second one?

14 THE COURT: Yeah, "shelter."

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: "Shelter in place."

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MS. AHMED: No.

18 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

19 MR. TANASI: No.

20 THE COURT: And then the third question from Jury Note
21 25 is, "Was that the basis of your concern on the 12th, history
22 experience? Don't most cowboys in the west wear a weapon?"

23 Maybe is it "military experience"? "History
24 experience." It looks like "history experience."

25 MR. TANASI: Give it to Steve.

1 MR. MYHRE: "History experience," yes. (Government
2 reading.)

3 MS. AHMED: (Nods head.)

4 MR. TANASI: No objection from Stewart.

5 THE COURT: What do you think it says?

6 MS. BAKKEN: Looks like "history" to me.

7 MR. TANASI: "History" is --

8 THE COURT: It looks --

9 MR. TANASI: -- what I see.

10 THE COURT: -- "history" to me, but it doesn't make 11 much sense if it is.

12 MS. AHMED: It might be history question, experience.

13 THE COURT: So that's the question. "What was the 14 basis of your concern on the 12th history experience? Don't 15 most cowboys in the west wear a weapon?"

16 Any objection to the --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

18 THE COURT: -- question?

19 MR. TANASI: Not from Stewart.

20 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 26, "Would Bundy have 21 received any funds from the sale of the cattle at auction as 22 indicated in the Fifth Amendment?" And there's an arrow that 23 says "prior mentioned."

24 MR. PEREZ: What are they talking about?

25 MR. TANASI: I think they're talking about the takings.

1 MR. MYHRE: Takings.

2 MR. PEREZ: Yeah.

3 MR. MARCHESE: I like that.

4 MS. AHMED: We would object. That's --

5 (Counsel overtalking.)

6 MS. AHMED: -- a legal question.

7 MR. TANASI: Petrie --

8 THE COURT: He --

9 COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry?

10 MR. TANASI: I don't have a problem with it. I think 11 it might be more of a Petrie question, but . . .

12 THE COURT: Any objection?

13 MR. TANASI: For the rest.

14 MR. MYHRE: He would not know.

15 MS. AHMED: (Shrug.) I guess we could see what he's 16 gonna say. I don't know that he has the . . .

17 THE COURT: I can end the question with "if you
18 know" --

19 MS. AHMED: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: -- "if you don't know it's perfectly
21 acceptable to say 'I don't know.'"

22 MR. MYHRE: Well . . .

23 THE COURT: It's up to him if he --

24 MS. AHMED: I mean, the reference is Fifth Amendment.
25 Makes me feel like they are looking for a legal -- some kind of

1 legal -- I mean, I don't know that -- I feel like a legal
2 instruction that might be needed.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Didn't he say that up on the stand?

4 MR. TANASI: Part of his job --

5 MS. AHMED: No.

6 MR. TANASI: -- though was overseeing the sale as well.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. I think --

8 MS. AHMED: The last part --

9 MR. TANASI: He might know.

10 THE COURT: Yeah, he might know what happens to the 11 money. I guess that is a follow-up unless you guys want to ask
12 him a follow-up.

13 MS. AHMED: I guess my only concern is that there's an 14 expectation -- the Fifth Amendment reference -- that there's 15 some expectation that there's a right to have the money
16 returned or . . . I think it's problematic.

17 THE COURT: Well, I can just ask the first part of the 18 question and not ask the "as indicated in the Fifth Amendment."
19 I could just ask the question, "Would Bundy have received any 20 funds from the sale of the cattle at auction?" Period.

21 MS. AHMED: (Nods head.)

22 MS. CREEGAN: (Nods head.)

23 THE COURT: And that way --

24 MR. TANASI: That's . . .

25 THE COURT: -- we're not opening another area

1 that . . .

2 All right. Jury Note 27 has three questions but the
3 third one is blank. Either they ran out of time or they 4 decided not to ask it.

5 So the first question is, "Did you receive any verbal
6 or written threats? Or just from observations?"

7 Any objection?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Second question, "How are the boundaries
11 determined between public (BLM and NPS) and private lands?"

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

13 MR. TANASI: No objection.

14 MR. MARCHESE: (Shakes head.)

15 MR. TANASI: Goes to the --

16 THE COURT: Like I said, number 3 doesn't have anything
17 on there; just . . .

18 (Government counsel conferring.)

19 MR. TANASI: I think that might be fair, because it's 20 blank --

21 THE COURT: Um-hum.

22 MR. TANASI: -- to ask if they wanted more time to come
23 up with the three or . . .

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 So Jury Note No. 28, "For Witness Warr" -- this one

1 always writes down the names of the witness -- number 1, "You
2 stated several times you were concerned for your safety and the 3 safety of others. Would you say you were scared or feared for 4 your life?"

5 Do you have any objection to that question?

6 MR. TANASI: No.

7 MS. CREEGAN: (Shakes head.)

8 MS. AHMED: No.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Question No. 2 is, "Since the cattle
10 were released from the pens and not sold at the Euclid
11 Stockyards, does the government" -- and then parentheses --
12 "(BLM) consider the cattle stolen?" In quotation marks.

13 MS. CREEGAN: That's a legal --

14 MR. TANASI: What we're --

15 MS. AHMED: Yeah, that might be something that would 16 be -- something the Court would be instructing them on in 17 relation to extortion. They're basically asking something that 18 you're gonna instruct them on --

19 MR. MYHRE: Yeah.

20 MS. AHMED: -- at the end so . . .

21 MR. MYHRE: Yeah, what the BLM considered is not really
22 relevant --

23 MS. AHMED: It's what the --

24 MR. MYHRE: -- legally.

25 MS. AHMED: Yeah.

1 MR. TANASI: Can I hear it one more time, Judge? I'm
2 sorry. Or I can read it.

3 THE COURT: "Since the cattle were released from the 4 pens and not sold at the Euclid Stockyards, does the government
5 (BLM) consider the cattle stolen?"

6 MS. AHMED: It's unclear if they are asking -- I mean,
7 they say both "government" and "BLM." So I don't know if
8 it's . . . And it doesn't really matter what the BLM
9 designates it in the end in terms of the law.

10 (Defense counsel conferring.)

11 MS. AHMED: That's what we would propose, Your Honor,
12 that you just advise them that they'll get the law and the 13 extortion later, instruction.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Jury Note No. 29, "When transport cattle to different
16 location, the cattle must have number on it?" That's a
17 question mark. Do -- do . . . "Must the cattle have a number
18 on it when it's transferred" -- "transported to different
19 location."

20 MS. AHMED: (Shrug.)

21 THE COURT: I'm assuming they are referring to the 22 four-digit number on the white tag, but we can have him clarify
23 that too.

24 Any objection?

25 MR. TANASI: No, no objection.

1 THE COURT: That's it. That's the last one.

2 MR. TANASI: Okay. Thank you.

3 (End sidebar conference.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. I have a couple questions here from 5 the jury, Mr. Warr. I'm gonna go ahead and read the questions
6 onto the record.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: But, when you respond, you may go ahead and 9 turn to the jury and respond to them because it's really a
10 jury- -- these are jury questions, not my questions.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: So the Jury Note No. 25 has three 13 questions. The first question is, "What happened to the 14 non-Bundy brand cattle?"

15 THE WITNESS: What happened to the non-Bundy brand
16 cattle. They were still in the same location. All of --
17 the -- there was only a handful of cattle that left the site
18 because they were claimed by other owners. But all of the 19 nonbranded Bundy cattle were still on the site. They were 20 still given a -- a tag, a back tag, the little round circle,
21 and so they were on site with the rest of the cattle. And they
22 were deemed property of the federal government by the state
23 brand inspector so they were right -- they were kept in a 24 separate pen as what we call "slicks." But they were still on 25 site in the same location. So they didn't go anywhere.

1 THE COURT: What did you say? Slits?

2 THE WITNESS: Slick. I'm sorry. I'm getting too far
3 in the weeds. A slick is an unbranded or unmarked cow or 4 animal. It can still be claimed by an individual, but it has 5 no marking on it.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 And so, in response to the question what happened to 8 them, were they kept with -- intermixed with all the other
9 cattle or --

10 THE WITNESS: They --

11 THE COURT: -- separated?

12 THE WITNESS: -- weren't intermixed; they were in their
13 own pen. But they were still at the Incident Command Post in a
14 corral by themselves. They were separated in groups.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So in their own pen but separated
16 from the branded.

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, correct.

18 THE COURT: Thank you for your patience. All right.

19 THE WITNESS: You're -- you're answering it better than 20 I am. You're doing great.

21 THE COURT: So Jury Note 25, second question, "What was 22 your chain of command and where was the individual who ordered
23 shelter in place?"

24 THE WITNESS: Okay, the chain of command. I had an 25 individual who was over all of the operations who I -- who --

1 he was a law enforcement individual who I reported to. And
2 honestly, when he called me to shelter in place, I don't know
3 where he was at. It come over the radio for all the civilians
4 to go to the trailer on the -- the morning of the 12th. And so
5 it was a radio call. I don't know where that individual was at 6 that time. He was somewhere with some of the other law
7 enforcement.

8 I hope that answers it. I don't -- I'm pretty vague,
9 but I don't know where he was at when he made that call.

10 THE COURT: So what was your chain of command? Who 11 was . . .

12 THE WITNESS: So I reported to an individual within the 13 law enforcement branch who was over operations. And so I was 14 over all the operations as a civilian BLM employee, but I
15 reported to a law enforcement individual within the chain of 16 command who was over all of the operations if that makes sense.

17 Um, I don't have a chain of command tree I could 18 show 'em.

19 THE COURT: All right. The third question in Jury Note
20 No. 25 is, "What was the basis of your concern on the 12th,
21 history, experience? Don't most cowboys in the west wear a
22 weapon?"

23 THE WITNESS: Can you read that one more time, please?

24 THE COURT: Of course.

25 "What was the basis of your concern on the 12th,

1 history, experience? Don't most cowboys in the west wear a
2 weapon?"

3 THE WITNESS: Okay. That's a very good question.
4 Because out of the 12 -- out of the 12 individuals that were
5 sheltered in place, I was the one that had firearms because I
6 had 'em for euthanasia purposes only. And, of course, those
7 other 12 individuals gravitated towards me because there was no
8 other law enforcement there with us.

9 But the wild west is long gone. And I was there to 10 gather cows; I wasn't there to get in a gunfight. And so I was 11 very concerned for my safety and wanted to get back to my 12 family. And my concern was I didn't want to see bullets
13 flying. And, you know, that's not what I signed up for; I
14 signed up to gather cows. So that's where my concern came 15 from.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 Jury Question No. 26, "Would Bundy have received any 18 funds from the sale of the cattle at auction?"

19 THE WITNESS: I don't know a hundred percent that 20 answer. But I do not believe so because those cattle would 21 have been already signed over as property of the United States
22 Government and I don't believe that they would have received
23 any funding from that. That would have went back to the 24 federal government is my understanding. I could be wrong, but 25 that's what I understand of it.

1 THE COURT: So is it fair to say that once the cattle
2 got to Euclid you -- would you still be involved in the auction
3 or does somebody else take over?

4 THE WITNESS: Um, I -- I was required to get 'em to the 5 auction and sold. And then a finance person would intervene to 6 get the money and all that. But -- but no. I -- I was
7 literally lining up the trucks and cleared to Euclids [sic]
8 to -- to get it taken care of. That was the -- the end point
9 in my responsibility.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Jury Note No. 27 has three questions -- has a number 1,
12 a 2, and a 3; but 3 is blank.

13 Number 1 is, "Did you receive any verbal or written 14 threats or just from observations?"

15 THE WITNESS: Myself I did not receive any verbal or 16 written threats. I had several individuals that was under my 17 supervision that encountered threats --

18 MR. MARCHESE: Objection, hearsay; nonresponsive.

19 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

20 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

21 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, I don't know that he 22 didn't -- he goes into hearsay. He was still -- I don't know
23 that there's any indication it was gonna be hearsay. He was 24 responding to the question. I think you need to go a little 25 further before we can even see if there's any validity to that

1 objection.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 So the question was, "Did you receive any verbal or 4 written threats or just from observations?"

5 THE WITNESS: No, I did not myself personally.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 Question No. 2 is, "How are the boundaries determined
8 between public (BLM and National Park Service) and private
9 lands?"

10 THE WITNESS: Very good question. But I don't think
11 there's anybody in this courtroom that's that old that can go
12 back that far because the actual ownership boundaries are 13 usually tied to a piece of legislation. And so laws are passed
14 where -- that designates a piece of land National Park Service.
15 The Bureau of Land Management designation, we're talking clear
16 back 1930's and beyond. And same with the -- the -- the 17 ownership of public land; we're talking -- what they call the 18 Homestead Act which was, you know, clear back in the '20s and 19 '30s where people could actually homestead a piece of land and 20 then they could get ownership for it. But years and decades
21 and decades ago was when ownership was actually verified for 22 this land. But some public land, BLM land, can actually get
23 redesignated as Park Service through current legislation if it
24 goes through Congress. But it's a -- it's an ongoing process
25 of land ownership designation.

1 I hope that helps. Probably got you more confused.

2 THE COURT: All right. Another interpretation of this
3 question might be -- and I'm not saying that your
4 interpretation is wrong, but sometimes it's hard to tell. So I
5 just want to make sure that whoever the jury's -- juror's
6 question is that we try to answer it.

7 So when you're out there -- in the desert, in the 8 mountains, in the wash, wherever it is out there -- how do you
9 know if you are on BLM or National Park Service or private 10 land?

11 THE WITNESS: Very good question. One of the things
12 that we were utilizing, which was new to me but it was very
13 useful, was we were utilizing not only GPS units but maps
14 called Avenza Maps, which is a map you can actually have right
15 on your phone and it can tell you exactly where you're at in 16 relation to a base layer map that has ownership. And so all of 17 the traps that we set up, that when we were impounding the 18 cattle, we had -- we made sure that they were all on public
19 land or Park Service land and they were not infringing on 20 somebody's private property rights. So we had -- we had the 21 technology to tell us exactly where we were at.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 Jury Note No. 28 has two questions. The first one is,
24 "You stated several times you were concerned for your safety
25 and the safety of others. Would you say you were scared or

1 feared for your life?"

2 THE WITNESS: A cowboy never says they're scared or
3 feared for their life. But that was one of the situations
4 where I was scared that something could happen, based on the
5 circumstances, where I may not see my family again. So you
6 could -- I -- in my opinion, you could put both of them at 7 different levels. When we evacuated out to the north end, I
8 can honestly say I was fearing for my life because when we were 9 going outwards I did not -- have no idea whether there was 10 other individuals to the north that could have been sitting on 11 the ridge that could be picking us off as we left the compound.
12 I mean, all these TV shows go through your mind of the worst
13 case scenario.

14 So I would say a little bit of both. Scared was 15 probably one of the biggest thing of, you know, wow, what --
16 the what-if's really start comin' into your mind of don't do
17 something stupid somebody. You know, make -- keep -- keep cool
18 heads. Let's -- let's -- let's solve this so . . .

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 And then the second question in Jury Note No. 28 is,
21 "Since the cattle were released from the pens and not sold at 22 the Euclid Stockyards, does the government" -- and then in 23 parentheses -- "(BLM) consider the cattle stolen?"

24 So that's really a legal question, not a factual
25 question. And the parties agree that I can answer the question

1 by letting you know that I will be providing you legal jury
2 instructions about the charge of extortion. So that will be
3 provided.

4 All right. Jury Note No. 29, "When transport cattle to 5 different location, the cattle must have number on it?" So,
6 when you're transporting the cattle to a different location, is 7 it required that they have a number?

8 And I think what we agreed at sidebar is that that 9 might be referring to the round, white tag with the four-digit
10 number on it.

11 THE WITNESS: Yeah, that's -- that's -- so any time you
12 cross a state boundary -- it's called an interstate travel --
13 you have to have a interstate travel permit along with, in the 14 Western United States, you have to have a brand inspection.
15 And so all of the cattle that were transported would have had 16 to have had one of those back tags, four-digit back tags,
17 attached referencing a -- a -- a brand inspection in order to 18 go to a sale barn. And so the long answer is, yes, they had to 19 have one of those tags to go to a sale barn or they -- or they 20 would not have been able to be sold.

21 THE COURT: Okay. That's the last one.

22 Any follow-up, Ms. Ahmed?

23 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Any follow-up by defense?

25 MR. TANASI: Yes, briefly, Your Honor. Thank you.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 THE COURT: All right. On behalf of Mr. Stewart.

2 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Good afternoon again, Mr. Warr.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. All right. So couple of the latter questions there you'd
7 indicated, you know, on the 12th -- focusing on the 12th --
8 that you had concern for your safety. All right?

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. I think you went as far as to say that, you know, you didn't
11 want to get into a gunfight; right?

12 A. Definitely.

13 Q. Correct.

14 And you went as far as to say you had fear; right?

15 A. Sure.

16 Q. Yes.

17 You went as far as to say that you were, you know,
18 scared and didn't know if you were gonna get to see your family
19 again; right?

20 A. I believe I said somethin' to that effect. You bet.

21 Q. Okay. And isn't it true that on May 21st, 2014, you were
22 interviewed by BLM Assistant Special Agent in Charge Kent
23 Kleman? Do you recall that interview?

24 A. Yes, um-hum.

25 Q. All right. In that interview, was it important to go over

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 all of the day's events on the 12th; important to kinda discuss
2 that with Mr. Kleman?

3 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. This witness
4 wouldn't control what the questioner would have been asking
5 him. It's not a report he authored.

6 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I can back up and ask it a
7 different way. It's fine.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 BY MR. TANASI:

10 Q. You're in law enforcement. Fair?

11 MS. AHMED: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: Excuse me?

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Are you in law enforcement, sir?

15 A. Was there a . . .

16 MS. AHMED: I'll --

17 THE COURT: The question --

18 MS. AHMED: -- withdraw --

19 THE COURT: -- was is he in law enforcement. So that's 20 an acceptable question.

21 You may answer the --

22 THE WITNESS: No --

23 THE COURT: -- question.

24 THE WITNESS: -- I'm not in law enforcement.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. You're not. Okay.

3 A. No.

4 Q. Are you at all -- in your line of work, do you prepare
5 reports in any way?

6 A. I prepare reports --

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. -- yes. Um-hum.

9 Q. Okay. All right. So would you agree with me that report
10 preparing is an important function in your line of work?

11 MS. AHMED: Same objection, Your Honor. This witness
12 did not author the report that Mr. Tanasi is referencing. He 13 was interviewed.

14 MR. TANASI: Again, Your Honor --

15 THE COURT: It sounds like your lead up is to something
16 that's either not in the report or is different in the report.
17 But it's not his report --

18 MR. TANASI: I can --

19 THE COURT: -- so . . .

20 MR. TANASI: -- I can ask it a different way, Your 21 Honor. That's fine.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. All right. Do you, again, recall interviewing with BLM
25 Agent Kent Kleman?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And do you recall whether in that interview with BLM
3 Agent Kent Kleman do you recall whether or not you told
4 Ms. Kleman -- or Mr. Kleman, rather, that you were fearful? Do
5 you recall whether you did that?

6 MS. AHMED: Same objection, Your Honor. This witness
7 can't control what he was asked.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm asking whether he can 9 recall it or not and I'm asking him whether he recalls whether 10 he gave that information to the report -- to the interviewer, 11 rather.

12 THE COURT: All right. That question is -- that's 13 fine.

14 THE WITNESS: That was a interview that was 3 years
15 ago. And I couldn't -- there was a number of questions asked,
16 and I don't recall exactly the questions that were asked.

17 MR. TANASI: Okay.

18 THE WITNESS: I answered the questions that were asked
19 of me at that time.

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. Okay. Again, and you'd agree with me that that interview
22 that took place a number of years ago -- it was May 21st, 2014,
23 were the events that took place on April 12th, 2014 -- were 24 fresher in your mind then than they are as you sit here today;
25 correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Sure. I mean --

2 Q. All right.

3 A. -- 3 years ago I -- that's -- that's a big time span.

4 Q. Sure. Okay.

5 And, again, do you recall whether or not you told the 6 BLM investigator that we just discussed whether or not you told
7 her [sic] about your fear or being scared that you weren't
8 gonna see your family on the 12th or any of that specific 9 information? Do you recall whether you told her that?

10 A. It wasn't a her; it was a him. But I told a lot of people
11 that I was scared that day.

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. I don't know whether it was that person. But, I mean, that 14 was -- that was a thing that still lives with me today.

15 Q. Sure.

16 Would seeing a copy of that report help to refresh your 17 recollection as to whether or not you told the investigator --

18 A. I think the --

19 Q. -- that information?

20 A. -- only thing that would tell me is what questions I
21 answered that he asked me so . . .

22 Q. Okay. Again, would it refresh your recollection as to 23 whether or not you gave those answers regarding your level of 24 fear --

25 A. Probably not.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. -- and concern for your family?

2 Wouldn't refresh your recollection?

3 A. Probably not.

4 Q. No. Okay. So why don't we do it this way then.

5 Isn't it true you didn't tell --

6 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor.

7 BY MR. TANASI:

8 Q. -- Mr. Kleman --

9 MS. AHMED: He just said he wouldn't remember. He can 10 be refreshed; I don't think he can be impeached with someone 11 else's report.

12 THE COURT: He can answer the question.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Isn't it true --

15 THE COURT: It's overruled.

16 BY MR. TANASI:

17 Q. -- that you didn't tell Kent Kleman that you were scared,
18 worried about your family? The level of fear that you've 19 discussed here today, you didn't tell Kent Kleman that on 20 May 21st, 2014?

21 A. I couldn't say that.

22 Q. Again, would seeing a copy of that report refresh your
23 recollection?

24 A. I don't think it would.

25 Q. It wouldn't? Okay. All right.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Sir, prior to today's testimony, have you had an
2 opportunity to meet with the FBI?

3 A. I think -- um, since the initial interview, I think I've met
4 with them -- counting this morning -- I think I've had three
5 visits with an FBI person in -- in -- that were present
6 so . . .

7 Q. Okay. What did you guys discuss?

8 A. What's gonna happen today, where is the jury gonna sit.
9 That kinda -- I mean, just general questions.

10 Q. Sure.

11 And did you discuss your testimony today?

12 A. Not in detail. I mean -- so . . . They -- they asked me
13 questions and I answered 'em just like I'm doin' today so . . .

14 Q. Sure.

15 Did you also have an opportunity to meet with the U.S.
16 Attorney's Office prior to today's testimony?

17 A. Yes, um-hum.

18 Q. Okay. How many times?

19 A. They -- they were the same. So today would have been the 20 third time that I met with them since the incident in 2014.

21 Q. Sure.

22 And what did you discuss with the U.S. Attorney's
23 Office?

24 A. Same thing: procedures, what was gonna happen today,
25 what -- what's gonna occur. Just general questions.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

2 A. Thank you.

3 MR. TANASI: Pass the witness.

4 THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Nothing additional from Parker.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: One question?

7 THE COURT: Sure. On behalf of Drexler.

8 FURTHER CROSS-EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

11 A. Good afternoon.

12 Q. My name's Todd Leventhal and I represent Mr. Drexler.

13 Just real quickly. You were asked about sort of the 14 trappings -- the traps that you put up out there.

15 A. Okay. I don't think we talked about that, did we?

16 Q. It was on the question. That's why I'm coming back.

17 A. Oh, okay.

18 Q. You discussed you had traps out there and GPS --

19 A. Um-hum.

20 Q. -- sort of the . . . What helped you in gathering the cows.
21 Okay?

22 Are horses -- were you using horses at the time
23 gathering cows as well?

24 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance; beyond the scope of 25 the jury questions.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. It goes into whether or
2 not -- how he got the horses into the traps. He talked about
3 traps --

4 MS. AHMED: That was --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- GPS, where they were.

6 MS. AHMED: That was not the question that was posed;
7 it's not the nature of the question. He might have referenced
8 "traps" in his answer, but it was --

9 THE COURT: It was the location of the traps, making
10 sure that the traps are on public land versus private land.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. And then he said he put -- he 12 got the traps out there and he got the GPS and I just want to 13 know if the horses were -- it's okay. I . . .

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Thank you.

16 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Anything else, Ms. Ahmed?

19 (Government counsel conferring.)

20 MS. AHMED: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

21 (Government counsel conferring.)

22 MS. AHMED: Just one question, Your Honor. One or two 23 questions, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Go ahead.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Mr. Warr, Mr. Tanasi asked you about meeting with the FBI or 4 the U.S. Attorney's Office prior to testifying today before the 5 jury. Do you recall those questions?

6 A. Yes, um-hum.

7 Q. And, in meeting with U.S. Attorney's Office or the FBI, were 8 you ever directed or asked to do anything other than --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection --

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. -- tell the --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: -- leading.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. -- truth?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, leading.

16 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

18 MR. PARKER: Lovelien joins.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. And I'm just gonna repeat it since it was talked over.

22 In meeting with the U.S. Attorney's Office or the FBI
23 before you testified today, were you ever asked by either of 24 the U.S. Attorney's Office or the FBI to do anything other than 25 tell the jury the truth?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. I was specifically asked to answer the questions as they
2 were asked. And there was no coercion, no setting up -- in
3 fact, most of the time I was sitting in a room by myself. But
4 it was -- it was -- it was pretty -- pretty general, general
5 questions.

6 Q. And were you asked to do anything other than be honest?

7 A. No, no. I mean, hopefully I've done that. I've tried to 8 just convey and answer questions.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection, nonresponsive.

10 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, he was answering the
11 question.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. He can finish the answer.

13 THE WITNESS: I don't know what the question was.
14 Sorry.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. Were you told do anything other than be honest?

17 A. No, no. Just answer the questions and be honest and --
18 which hopefully I did today.

19 MS. AHMED: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank you.
20 Thank you, Mr. Warr.

21 THE WITNESS: You're welcome.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 Any other follow-up by the defense?

24 MR. TANASI: One follow-up, Your Honor --

25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. TANASI: -- briefly.

2 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Mr. Warr, when you met with Kent Kleman on May 21st, 2014 --

5 A. Um-hum, sure.

6 Q. -- did Kent Kleman also ask you to be truthful?

7 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, beyond the scope of 8 the follow-up question.

9 THE COURT: It is beyond the scope, but he can answer
10 the question so we can just clarify this.

11 Go ahead.

12 THE WITNESS: I would assume he probably did. But that
13 was so far ago I don't know; like I say, 3 years ago. I don't 14 recall all of the questions he asked and so . . .

15 BY MR. TANASI:

16 Q. Fair enough.

17 He would have wanted you to be truthful as well then;
18 right?

19 A. I hope everybody's truthful.

20 Q. As do I. Thank you, sir.

21 A. You bet.

22 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Ahmed?

23 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 So thank you very much, Mr. Warr. You are excused this

1 time. Please be careful --

2 THE WITNESS: Appreciate it.

3 THE COURT: -- on the way down with those steps.

4 Is this a good time to take our afternoon break?

5 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Do we have another witness?

7 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. So we'll go ahead and take our 9 15-minute bathroom break.

10 And, during this time, I remind the jury that you are 11 not to discuss this case with anyone else nor permit them to 12 discuss it with you. You could discuss other things but not
13 this case.

14 Please do not read or listen to or view anything that 15 touches upon this case in any way nor attempt to perform any
16 research or any independent investigation.

17 And please do not form any opinion.

18 I did want to note that because one of the juror
19 questions was numbered 1, 2, and 3 but only actually had two 20 questions, if you're running out of time, please feel free to 21 keep writing. We want to know what these questions are. So I
22 apologize if we cut you short and didn't permit you to finish
23 writing your third question. If it's -- I should have asked
24 you before he left -- but if it's a question that we don't need
25 the witness for, if it's just a question about something else

1 in general -- maps or anything like that -- please go ahead,
2 write down the questions, and let us know so we can get that
3 information to you. We want to discourage you and limit the 4 temptation of going out and trying to figure this out yourself.
5 So please share your questions with us and take your time.

6 All right. So we'll be back here -- it's 2:52 -- be
7 back here about 3:10.

8 (Jury out, 2:52 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

10 (Recess, 2:53 p.m. Resumed, 3:13 p.m. Jury not present.)

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be seated.

13 We'll go ahead and bring in the jury and bring in the 14 next witness.

15 (Pause in the proceedings.)

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

17 (Jury in, 3:17 p.m.)

18 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

19 Everyone else can be seated as well.

20 And the Government may call its next witness.

21 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor. The United States
22 calls Special Agent Earl McEwen.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Special Agent McEwen.

25 Please be careful with the steps on your way up and go ahead

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 and remain standing.

2 (Earl James McEwen III takes the witness stand.)

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please raise your right hand.

4 Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you shall give
5 in the cause now before this court shall be the truth, the
6 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

7 THE WITNESS: I do.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
9 seated.

10 EARL JAMES McEWEN III,

11 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
12 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please state and spell
14 your -- please state your entire name for the record and spell
15 your last name.

16 THE WITNESS: Earl James McEwen III, M-c-E-w-e-n.

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Good afternoon, again.

20 A. Good afternoon.

21 Q. Are you currently employed with the Federal Bureau of 22 Investigations?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. That's the FBI?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. And how long have you been employed by the FBI?

2 A. For approximately 8 years.

3 Q. And where are you -- where are you currently located with 4 the FBI?

5 A. In Las Vegas.

6 Q. Are you on a particular team or do you hold a particular
7 position?

8 A. I'm currently working with our sur- -- our Special
9 Operations Group which primarily handles surveillance.

10 Q. And, again, you are a special agent with the FBI; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And what is your training, briefly, to become a special
13 agent with the FBI?

14 A. To become a special agent, you go to Quantico for about 20
15 weeks to do a lot of legal training; firearms training; and 16 interviewing training. And then, if received, additional 17 training based on the needs of the Bureau and my work
18 assignment, such as: surveillance, photography, flight
19 training as a pilot.

20 Q. And I'm sorry. How long have you held that position as 21 special agent with the FBI?

22 A. Since 2009.

23 Q. Now, you indicated that you're on the Special Operations
24 Team in the FBI; is that correct?

25 A. It's Squad 10. But it's a surveillance op- -- or our

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 Special Operations Group, SOG.

2 Q. And what generally does that group do?

3 A. Surveillance.

4 Q. Now, with respect to the surveillance, do you also do aerial
5 surveillance?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And can you explain to the jury what that involves?

8 A. Yeah. We -- we survey targets from the air.

9 Q. Are you also a pilot with the FBI?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now, on April 12th, 2014, within your team were you tasked 12 with doing aerial surveillance of events taking place in the 13 Bunkerville area?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, what was your understanding as to what was taking place
16 in that area at that time?

17 A. My understanding was there was gonna be a gathering of 18 individuals and I was asked to provide aerial surveillance
19 during that time period of that day.

20 Q. And did you do that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. When you conducted aerial surveillance, did you in fact go
23 out to the Bunkerville area?

24 A. In the air, yes.

25 Q. And were you operating the plane that you were in?

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. That day I was operating our camera systems and another
2 special agent was flying the aircraft.

3 Q. So was there a camera in the plane itself?

4 A. There's a camera outside the aircraft.

5 Q. Is it mounted on the plane?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And, when you say you were operating the camera, that's
8 something that you have training and experience in doing?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. On April 12th, 2014, approximately what time did you go out
11 to that area to begin your surveillance?

12 A. It was approximately 11:00 in the morning.

13 Q. When you were conducting aerial surveillance, were you also 14 yourself observing what you were looking at through the camera?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And was that for the duration that you were doing aerial 17 surveillance you were looking at what you were capturing on the 18 camera?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And did you also record -- utilizing the camera, did you
21 also record what was being observed --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- via camera?

24 Now, after you were done that day doing aerial
25 surveillance, what, if anything, did you do with the recording

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that was made?

2 A. The video is recorded onto an SD card and I turned that SD
3 card into our evidence -- or evidence office in our office here
4 in Las Vegas.

5 Q. Now, prior to today, have you had an opportunity to go back
6 and look at the footage that you recorded from April 12th,
7 2014?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And, prior to taking the stand today, this afternoon, did
10 you specifically look at Government's Exhibits 17 and 18
11 containing those recordings that you made?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And does Exhibits 17 and 18 contain all of the footage that 14 you captured on April 12th, 2014?

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. Does it -- to your knowledge, does it contain all of what 17 you captured that day?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And having reviewed -- bless you -- having reviewed
20 Exhibits 17 and 18, do those exhibits fairly and accurately
21 depict what you yourself observed on April 12th, 2014?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government moves to admit
24 Exhibits 17 and 18.

25 ///

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 (Government's Exhibit Nos. 17 and 18, offered.)

2 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibits 17 and 18?

3 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

4 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

6 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: All right. Exhibits 17 and 18 will be
8 admitted.

9 (Government's Exhibit Nos. 17 and 18, received.)

10 THE COURT: And you may go ahead and publish it to the 11 jury.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Now, as you just indicated, Agent McEwen, you -- well, how 14 long were you out there doing aerial surveillance on
15 April 12th, 2014?

16 A. In total, probably four to five hours. I -- I don't 17 remember the exact time.

18 Q. Now, Exhibits 17 and 18, again, they contained what you
19 captured throughout your surveillance that day; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So that will be available to the jury. But what I would 22 like to do with you now is go through and just -- go through 23 certain portions of your day looking at different periods on 24 that exhibit -- on those two exhibits.

25 A. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. So I'd like to turn your attention first to Exhibit 17
2 beginning at the beginning.

3 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish that to the
4 jury?

5 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

6 (Video played.)

7 MS. AHMED: And you can just stop there for a moment.
8 Now, pausing this as 18:10:03.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Agent McEwen, I'm drawing a box in the upper left-hand
11 corner of the screen around some information that's indicated
12 there. Do you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Can you explain to the jury what is contained in that box?

15 A. So the top line is the date, 12 April 2014, and the time is 16 18:10:03 UTC, which is Coordinated Universal Time.

17 Q. And what is Coordinated Universal Time?

18 A. So my understanding that's the time zone that all other time
19 zones are based upon. It's also known as Zulu time or 20 Greenwich time. And, on this particular day, I believe Nevada
21 was about 7 hours after -- the Nevada time zone was 7 hours
22 after that time depicted.

23 Q. So in order to -- was it 7 hours before or after?

24 A. It -- well, it's 7 hours -- you subtract 7 hours from that 25 time. So Nevada time would be 11:00 in the morning, 11:10:03.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. So what's reflected on the -- and, again, this view that the
2 jury's looking at, this is what the view from your camera was
3 on April 12th; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And so the time that's recorded on the screen is in UTC.
6 And you've indicated that to get back to Nevada time, local
7 time, you would subtract 7 from that --

8 A. Right.

9 Q. -- 7 hours?

10 A. Yeah. So UTC has 6:00 p.m. So, yeah, in a sense we're -- 11 we haven't reached -- we're 7 hours behind, I guess, or we 12 haven't reached 6:00 o'clock. So it's 11:00 a.m. in Nevada at 13 that time.

14 Q. So -- and I'm sorry. I'm being real repetitive. But, just 15 to be clear, so then where it says 18:10:03 --

16 A. Um-hum.

17 Q. -- you would subtract 7 hours --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- to get 11:10:03 --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- meaning 11:10 in the morning.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Thank you.

24 And I've sort of cut it off in that box. But, at the 25 very bottom of the box, do see where there's an arrow and an

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 "N"?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And can you explain to the jury what that is?

4 A. That's the compass. So it's pointing to north.

5 Q. And it's just orienting the viewer where -- which direction
6 north is in?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Now, I'm going to clear that.

9 Can you explain to the jury what area is depicted on 10 the screen from Exhibit 17 that we're looking at right now?

11 A. That appears to be the area of Cliven Bundy's ranch down in 12 the lower right-hand corner.

13 Q. Now, um --

14 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we come out of Exhibit 17
15 and go to Exhibit 192 --

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MS. AHMED: -- which has been previously admitted.

18 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. Agent McEwen, this is also located to -- on the screen to 21 your right. So, looking at the screen to your right, can you
22 indicate where that image was that we just looked at in 23 Exhibit 17 if you can tell.

24 A. Yeah, the -- the purple squared area.

25 Q. So there's a purple square at the bottom of Exhibit 192.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 And I'm now drawing a red square around that. Do you see that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And is that where the camera was looking at?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. I'm gonna clear that.

6 MS. AHMED: And may we return, Your Honor, to
7 Exhibit 17?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

10 MS. AHMED: Can we advance Exhibit 17 to around 18:18
11 according to the marker on the screen.

12 (Pause in the proceedings.)

13 MS. AHMED: Play it from 18:17:52. Thank you.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And can we stop it there.

16 (Pause in the proceedings.)

17 MS. AHMED: I'm pausing it as 18:18:14 for the record.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury what the -- is 20 depicted on Exhibit 17 now?

21 A. Yes. There are two large poles with a banner spanning the 22 poles and a number of vehicles and individuals gathered at that
23 location.

24 Q. And did you turn the camera to this area that captured this
25 scene?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And what drew your attention to this area?

3 A. The large number of people and vehicles that were gathered
4 at that location.

5 Q. And can you explain to the jury exactly where this is
6 located to the extent that you know?

7 A. It's along, I believe, Riverside Road just northeast of 8 Bundy's ranch at the intersection near Gold -- Gold Butte Road
9 and Riverside.

10 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we again turn back to
11 Exhibit 192?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 (Exhibits displayed in open court.)

14 MS. AHMED: And even better. Your Honor, we're 15 displaying both Exhibit 17 and Exhibit 192.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. And, turning your attention, Agent McEwen, to Exhibit 192, 19 can you just indicate on the map in 192 what's depicted in 20 Exhibit 17 currently on the screen? So where is that area with 21 the poles?

22 A. It's -- it's approximately above that -- the bridge spanning 23 the Virgin River (pointing). So kinda of middle left of that 24 picture above the white line.

25 Q. And, touching the screen, can you mark an "X" on that

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 exhibit.

2 A. (Complies.)

3 Q. And the witness has drawn an "X" essentially where he
4 described, above the bridge that's going over the river on the 5 map.

6 And that is -- and then can you indicate again, to the 7 extent you can see it, where the Bundy residence was that you
8 had just shown the jury.

9 A. (Drawing.)

10 Q. So you've circled the Bundy residence and then I'm now
11 drawing an "X" where I believe you had just indicated was the 12 stage area; is that correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, returning to Exhibit 17.

15 Can we now move to just a couple of minutes further to 16 18:20. And you can leave Exhibit 192 up as well. Thank you.

17 (Video played.)

18 MS. AHMED: And can we actually go back -- pausing it
19 at 18:20:39, can we go back to just a little bit before 18:20, 20 maybe 18:19:50-something.

21 (Video played.)

22 MS. AHMED: Can you pause it there. Paused at 23 18:20:03.

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, we just went -- from 18:19:50 to 18:20:03

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 we saw the camera pan. Can you explain to the jury what was
2 happening during that time?

3 A. Yeah. With the -- with the camera system, I can set markers
4 at certain locations and so all I was doing was selecting a
5 marker that I had previously marked and it was panning to that
6 location.

7 Q. And, looking at Exhibit 17, which is on the viewer's left
8 side of the screen, what is currently depicted in Exhibit 17?

9 A. This is some corrals with a bunch of cattle. And my 10 understanding is this is the BLM's impoundment site.

11 Q. Now, can you indicate on Exhibit 192, which is on the 12 viewer's right side of the screen, where this location is on 13 that map?

14 A. (Drawing.)

15 Q. And the witness has drawn a circle in the upper right-hand
16 portion of the map.

17 Now, I'm drawing an "X." Is where I've drawn the "X"
18 is that where you indicated the stage area was?

19 A. Where those poles and that banner, yes.

20 Q. And I'm now drawing a red box around the purple box that's 21 at the bottom of the 192 map. Is that where the Bundy
22 residence is?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So, on April 12th, 2014, are those the general areas that 25 you were doing surveillance of that are depicted on this map?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Now, just below the circle that you drew at the top of the 3 screen, do you see those two what appear to be lanes?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Can you explain to the jury what those are?

6 A. The top -- the top line is the southbound lane of I-15 and
7 the bottom line is the northbound lane of I-15.

8 Q. Now, turning your attention back to the left side of the 9 screen, which is Exhibit 17 --

10 MS. AHMED: And you can go ahead and take 192 down.

11 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

12 MS. AHMED: And going back to 18:20.

13 (Video played.)

14 MS. AHMED: Right there. Paused at 18:20:07.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, you indicated that this was the BLM
17 impoundment site; is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Also known as the "ICP"?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now, what structures did you observe at the impoundment
22 site, or the ICP, on April 12th, 2014, if any?

23 A. I mean, just the structures that you see here. You can see 24 what looks to be some corrals with cattle as well as maybe some 25 trailers and a number of vehicles.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. So, on April 12th when you were doing the surveillance, you
2 observed some infrastructure that the BLM had put out there; is
3 that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 MS. AHMED: Now, continuing to play from 18:20:07,
6 please.

7 (Video played.)

8 MS. AHMED: And can you pause at 18:20:22.

9 BY MR. MYHRE:

10 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury what the 11 movement of the camera was just showing that we just saw?

12 A. Yeah. I was just basically following the dirt road from the 13 ICP towards I-15, the lanes of I-15.

14 Q. And I'm circling an area in the middle of the screen. What 15 was that area that I've just circled?

16 A. It's a median separating or connecting the southbound and 17 northbound lanes of I-15.

18 Q. And I'm clearing the circle that I drew. I'm now circling
19 another area just slightly to the right of that. Can you
20 explain to the jury what area I've just circled there?

21 A. It's an area that I believed to be a staging or a gathering
22 of some law enforcement vehicles protecting or separating the 23 lanes of I-15 from the ICP.

24 Q. I'm clearing that circle.

25 Did you make note of anything taking place in the area

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 that I've circled further to the left of the median?

2 A. Yeah. You'll see -- or, as you see here, a number of
3 vehicles parked off of the right side of the northbound lanes
4 of I-15. And, during the time that we were in the air, cars
5 were coming from the south along I-15 and gathering in that
6 location.

7 Q. And were you able to observe where those cars were generally
8 coming from? Where they appeared to be coming from?

9 A. Yeah, from the area that -- that staging area towards
10 Bundy's ranch.

11 Q. Back on Riverside Road?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MS. AHMED: Can we advance to approximately 18:24,
15 please.

16 (Video played.)

17 MS. AHMED: And playing it from there. Thank you.

18 (Video played.)

19 MS. AHMED: And can you pause it there.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury what this 22 area that I've circled in the bottom center of the screen what 23 that is?

24 A. I believe this is the on-ramp -- so the road going to the 25 top of the screen is Riverside Road and the vehicle -- you see

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 vehicles coming from Riverside Road from the vicinity of that
2 staging area and Bundy's ranch coming towards the on-ramp to
3 I-15 going northbound.

4 MS. AHMED: Can you continue to play.

5 (Video played.)

6 MS. AHMED: Can you pause it there. Now, paused at 7 18:24:40.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Agent McEwen, was the path that the camera just took the 10 path that you were describing from State Route 170 up to 11 northbound 15 to the ICP?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now, what, if anything, did you just -- did you observe
14 about the traffic conditions on the northbound lane at this
15 time on April 12th, 2014?

16 A. It got congested.

17 Q. And where exactly was it congested?

18 A. From where the cars were pulling off near that median,
19 traffic started slowing down and getting backed up towards 20 Las Vegas.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play from 18:24:40.

23 (Video played.)

24 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it now. Paused at 18:25:22.

25 ///

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Agent McEwen, did you observe vehicles at this time turning
3 from the northbound lane into that median on April 12th?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And were you able to discern what kind of vehicles those 6 were or who they were affiliated with?

7 A. Yeah. I believe these vehicles that are starting to make
8 the turn now is Metro vehicles, Las Vegas Metro law enforcement
9 vehicles.

10 Q. And can you just draw a line where you see those vehicles?

11 A. (Drawing.)

12 Q. And the witness has drawn an upside down L-shape going from 13 the median down the northbound lane.

14 And you believe those to be Metro vehicles; is that
15 correct?

16 A. No one told me that. I assumed that they were Metro law
17 enforcement vehicles.

18 Q. And, based on your training and experience, what told you
19 that those were -- or what indicators did you see that led you
20 to believe that?

21 A. The -- the markings. They look -- they look like white
22 police cruisers and then they were going towards the general
23 area where law enforcement had staged.

24 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play from there.

25 (Video played.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: And can we pause at 18:26. Paused at 2 18:26:15.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Just again, since the location -- the airplane's coming at 5 the location from different angles; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And so, just again to make sure the jury is oriented as to 8 what they are looking at, can you indicate where the corrals
9 and the base of the ICP was by drawing an arrow or circle?

10 A. (Drawing.) Yeah, it's up there.

11 Q. And the witness has drawn an arrow in the upper left-hand
12 side of the screen.

13 And can you indicate where that makeshift parking lot
14 you described off of the northbound lane was?

15 A. (Drawing.)

16 Q. And, again, these were the individuals [sic] that you
17 observed coming from the staging area; is that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Or the vehicles. Excuse me.

20 And then can you indicate with an "X" where you
21 observed the staging area for the law enforcement that you've 22 described.

23 A. (Drawing.)

24 Q. And so that's just across the median from the makeshift
25 parking lot; is that correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And the witness has drawn an "X" in the middle, slightly
3 upper portion of the screen.

4 MS. AHMED: Clearing those markings, can we continue to 5 play it.

6 (Video played.)

7 MS. AHMED: And can we actually advance to 18:31:40.

8 (Video played.)

9 MS. AHMED: And you can play it from there. Playing
10 from 18:31:40.

11 (Video played.)

12 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it there. Paused as 18:31:59.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Agent McEwen, can you explain the area that is depicted
15 in -- on Exhibit 17 on the screen right now?

16 A. Yeah. It's just -- it's at the northbound lanes of I-15
17 near the median and there's some trucks blocking traffic.

18 Q. And did you observe on April 12th that there were trucks
19 blocking traffic in the northbound lane in that location?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you cause the camera to zoom in on that location to see
22 what was going on?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And what, if any, effect did you observe these trucks to 25 have on the traffic behind them?

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 A. Well, I saw the traffic backing up along I-15 and so I
2 zoomed in to see why. And this is what I saw, these trucks
3 blocking the northbound traffic.

4 Q. And did they appear to be parked there?

5 A. They were obviously stopped there in the road, yes.

6 Q. And where is that makeshift parking lot that you described
7 in relation to where these trucks are?

8 A. It's just on the right-hand side of the northbound lanes.

9 Um . . . (Drawing.)

10 Q. And you've circled the upper portion of the screen
11 indicating that's where the cars were parking?

12 A. Yes.

13 MS. AHMED: Clearing that. Can we continue to play.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And can you pause it at 18:32:14.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent McEwen, over the course of the time that you were 18 conducting aerial surveillance of this area, did you observe
19 whether the vehicles that were in that parking area that I've 20 drawn a square around did they increase in number or decrease
21 in number or stay the same over the time that you were there?

22 A. Increased in number.

23 Q. Continuously?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And, in fact, has the number of vehicles increased from when

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 you first panned to that area at the beginning of this video?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. AHMED: Now, can we advance to approximately 4 18:40:15.

5 (Video played.)

6 MS. AHMED: And can we just pause it there for a
7 moment.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Now, at some point, Agent McEwen, was your attention drawn
10 to another portion of the ICP or an area near the ICP?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What area was that?

13 A. The area just -- well, so, if we look at the compass there,
14 north, I believe it's pointing towards the ICP area. So just 15 south of the ICP area there's a wash or a dry creek bed that go
16 under the lanes of I-15.

17 Q. So does I-15 become a bridge in that area and then there's a
18 wash that runs underneath it?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that leads into the ICP; is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Now, what drew your attention to this area on April 12th?

23 A. Well, eventually we see -- I see people going towards that
24 area.

25 Q. Okay.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: And can we play Exhibit 17 from 18:40:15,
2 please.

3 (Video played.)

4 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it there. Now, paused at 5 18:40:45.

6 BY MS. AHMED:

7 Q. Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury where you saw the 8 people initially, under what lane they are in this screen?

9 A. Just south of the northbound lanes of I-15 was a large
10 gathering of individuals.

11 Q. And where, if at all, were the BLM officers in relation to 12 these people in this area?

13 A. North of the southbound lanes of I-15.

14 Q. So in this general area where I'm drawing an "X"?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And I've drawn an "X" on the far right side middle portion
17 of the screen.

18 Now, it appeared that you zoomed in on the crowd of 19 people that were walking toward that bridge; is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Were -- did you -- why did you do that?

22 A. To see what I could see. I know that there was some 23 interests or concern that there might be armed individuals, but 24 I could not tell from our vantage point whether there were 25 rifles or guns out.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 Q. So you attempted -- you zoomed in so that you could see if
2 you could see whether people had firearms; is that correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. But you could not tell that once you zoomed in.

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Now, at some point, did you observe anything in this area
7 (drawing) of the wash on April 12th?

8 A. Eventually the gathering of individuals on the southbound
9 side of the northbound lanes of I-15 they crossed under those 10 lanes and gathered in between the north- and southbound lanes
11 of I-15.

12 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 18:54:51. You can
13 play it from there.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And stopping it at 18:56:02.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury what we just 18 observed in that clip?

19 A. Yeah, a number of individuals on horseback on a dirt road
20 just south of the makeshift parking lot where a lot of the 21 Bundy supporters were parking their vehicles.

22 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish what's
23 previously been admitted as Government's Exhibit 191?

24 THE COURT: Yes you may.

25 (Exhibit displayed in open court.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, can you -- do you see Exhibit 191 on that
3 screen?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And do you recognize what's depicted here?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Can you indicate for the jury the path that you observed the 8 horses taking that we just saw on the video?

9 A. (Drawing.)

10 Q. And can you mark where that assembly area -- or that 11 makeshift parking lot assembly area where that was?

12 A. (Drawing.)

13 Q. Now, did you observe after this clip where those people on 14 horseback ended up going?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And where did they go?

17 A. They eventually ended up (drawing) along this wash in 18 between the two lanes of I-15, the northbound/southbound lanes
19 of I-15.

20 Q. And you indicated earlier that the people on foot that you'd 21 observed also ended up in that wash --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- as well; is that correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 MS. AHMED: And can we return to Exhibit 17 at

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 18:59:20, please.

2 (Pause in the proceedings.)

3 MS. AHMED: Right there. And go ahead and play.

4 (Video played.)

5 MS. AHMED: Agent McEwen [sic], can you stop it
6 there -- oh, I'm sorry. Can we stop it there at 18:59:43.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. And, Agent McEwen, looking at the screen (A) can you explain
9 to the jury why it suddenly looks like black and white?

10 A. So I switched our camera to an infrared view. Because of 11 the shaded area under the overpass, I couldn't see the group of 12 people as clearly so I turned it to infrared. And what's that 13 depicting is any heat source under that bridge.

14 Q. Now -- and, again, what lane of travel is depicted on the 15 screen right now?

16 A. Those are the northbound lanes of I-15.

17 Q. And I'm circling an area that is on I-15 where the bridge --
18 where it's just becoming the bridge. Do you see that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And can you explain to the jury what is -- what's in that
21 circle that I've drawn?

22 A. A large number of people standing, facing the BLM area.

23 Q. And this is on the northbound I-15; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And then, clearing that circle, I'm now drawing a circle in

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 the upper left side of the screen. Do you see that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what's in that circle?

4 A. Individuals on horseback coming towards the overpass.

5 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 19:01:15 or right
6 there. Oh. And go ahead and play it.

7 (Video played.)

8 MS. AHMED: Can we stop it there. A little bit back.

9 (Pause in the proceedings.)

10 MS. AHMED: One second. Perfect.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, can you explain to the jury -- again,
13 orient to them on this screen and then explain what's depicted
14 in it.

15 A. Okay. The top part of the screen are the northbound lanes
16 of I-15 and you see a large number of people on that freeway on 17 the north side, facing north. And then, as you come down the 18 picture, you have approximately 100 or more individuals on 19 horseback and on foot lined up facing north and then you have 20 the southbound lanes of I-15 and then just north of the 21 southbound lanes of I-15 you have three vehicles with a number
22 of individuals behind those vehicles. And then down at the 23 bottom of the screen another collection of 10 to 15 vehicles.

24 Q. Now, I'm drawing a box around the bottom center of the 25 screen, around those vehicles you were just describing. And

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 who did you understand these vehicles to belong to?

2 A. My understanding was those were BLM employees.

3 Q. I'm clearing that and circling an area between the 4 northbound and southbound 15 lanes in the upper center of the 5 screen. Do you see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Now, is this the collection of the people on horseback and 8 people on foot that you described earlier?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you observed them coming into the wash?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And, based on your training and experience, what, if 13 anything, did they do once they got into the wash?

14 A. They lined up and sort of created a standoff line with the 15 BLM individuals.

16 Q. And are they -- are the people in that line, that standoff
17 line, are they facing the BLM officers --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- at this time?

20 A. Yes.

21 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 19:04.

22 (Video played.)

23 MS. AHMED: And just pause there briefly, right at the 24 beginning of 19:04 and pausing there. Right there. You can
25 stop. Thank you.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, when you observed that standoff line, did
3 you as a law enforcement officer have any concern for the 4 officers that were in the BLM impoundment area?

5 A. As a law enforcement officer, did I have a concern for them?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Why is that?

9 A. Well, several reasons. One, the sheer number of individuals
10 that were approaching on horseback and foot; knowing that there
11 was a high probability that some or many of them were armed;
12 and that there were so few BLM employees there; and that also 13 in the vicinity -- vicinity possibly women and children as --
14 as well in the area.

15 Q. Now, it appears from us advancing to 19:04 that you panned
16 away from that bridge area that we were just looking at; is
17 that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And why was that?

20 A. Well, throughout the whole flight, I'm taking views of 21 different areas. And I think what we're seeing here are some 22 vehicles departing the BLM site towards the north along a dirt
23 road.

24 Q. Now. I'm circling an area in the bottom right. Can you --
25 are those the cattle corrals that you'd shown the jury earlier

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that were at the ICP?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And can you draw a line where you saw the vehicles leaving
4 the back of the ICP, so to speak?

5 A. (Drawing.)

6 Q. And the witness has drawn a line from the corrals moving
7 northward.

8 And what kind of road did that appear to be to you?

9 A. Just an unimproved dirt road.

10 MS. AHMED: I'm clearing that mark. Can we continue to 11 play.

12 (Video played.)

13 MS. AHMED: And can you stop it there. And can we 14 advance to 19:05:45. And you can just . . .

15 (Video played.)

16 MS. AHMED: You can stop there for a moment.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, did you again return the camera to that 19 standoff line that you observed that was formed in the middle 20 of the wash?

21 A. Yes.

22 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play from 19:05:27.

23 (Video played.)

24 MS. AHMED: Can you pause it there.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- that I've marked with a red line?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Now, I'm circling the standoff line. What direction
8 are they facing?

9 A. North.

10 Q. And so they are facing toward that direction in the wash
11 (drawing)?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And I've drawn a line pointing north on the wash.

14 Clearing those markings, I want to draw your attention
15 to this area (drawing) on the north 15. Do you see this?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Are the people that are on that northbound 15 are they --
18 where are they in relation to the people in that skirmish or 19 standoff line?

20 A. They are behind them or to the south of them.

22 people in that northbound lane and the BLM?

23 A. Sorry. The -- the . . .

24 Q. Are these people essentially between --

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. -- the people on the northbound bridge and the BLM?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, drawing your attention to (drawing) this area of the 4 people standing -- or the people on the northbound 15 -- do you
5 see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- what do you see depicted in that area in relation to the 8 people? What do they appear to be doing?

9 A. Some are standing and some appear to be crouching.

10 Q. And can you just mark where it appears that people are 11 crouching? Can you draw a circle around it?

12 A. (Complies.)

13 Q. And what time -- converting UTC to Nevada time, what time is 14 this screen taking place, what we see in this scene taking
15 place?

16 A. It's about five or six minutes after 2:00 o'clock in the 17 afternoon.

18 Q. At 12:00 o'clock in the afternoon?

19 A. 12:00 o'clock. Sorry. 12:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

20 Q. So it's 12:05 --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- p.m.?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Clearing the circle.

25 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 (Video played.)

2 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it. Go back just a
3 second, if that's possible.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Now, Agent McEwen, I want to draw your attention to this
6 area that I've circled on the right side of the screen on the 7 northbound bridge. Do you see that?

8 A. Yes.

9 MS. AHMED: And can we continue to play the video.

10 (Video played.)

11 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Agent McEwen, (drawing) what did you observe, if anything,
14 that individual that I've drawn an arrow to do during that time
15 period?

16 A. He went from a -- well, he or she went from a crouching
17 position to a standing position.

18 MS. AHMED: And can we continue to play from there.

19 (Video played.)

20 THE COURT: We're gonna take a short 10-minute break
21 here.

22 I do reminded the jury during this time: Please do not
23 discuss this case with anyone.

24 Do not read or listen to or view anything that touches
25 upon this case in any way.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Do not perform any research or any independent
2 investigation.

3 And please do not form any opinion.

4 It's 4:05. We'll be back here at 4:15.

5 Let's please stand for the jury.

6 And, Special Agent McEwen, after the jury exits, you
7 may also step down if you'd like to stretch or use the 8 bathroom. We just need you back in about 10 minutes.

9 (Jury out, 4:06 p.m.)

10 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

11 (Pause, 4:06 p.m. Resumed, 4:22 p.m.)

12 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Are we ready, Counsel?

13 MS. AHMED: Yes.

14 MR. TANASI: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. Ready to go back on the record?

16 All right. Let's go back on the record.

17 So the reason that I took that break is because I
18 received notification that Juror No. 5 was falling asleep and 19 so the suggestion that was made to me that I think I'm okay
20 with, but I want to share it with you so that you can inform me
21 whether there are some unforeseen problems with this.

22 Obviously, I need to bring her in and question her on 23 the record and make sure that we saw what we think we saw. But 24 the second question is what can we do to prevent it? I
25 jokingly said no more carbs at lunchtime. But obviously

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 that's -- you know, can't really do that.

2 Would it -- so one suggestion is to authorize and give
3 permission to the jurors to stand up whenever they need to to 4 stretch, get the crick out, wake themselves up without needing
5 to actually take a full 10-minute break. They all have screens
6 in front of them so they should still be able to see regardless
7 whether they're in the back row and front row. So long as it's 8 just a quick little standup stretch, it shouldn't interfere
9 with their ability to see the witness during the testimony
10 unless you think that's too distracting.

11 So I'm open to suggestions. We're already taking a
12 break every morning and a break every afternoon. I'm . . .

13 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, my suggestion would be is 14 to -- what I've seen other -- in other courtrooms just have 15 them raise their hand --

16 THE COURT: Um-hum.

17 MR. MYHRE: -- and just cause like a short, in-place
18 recess for people to just stand up and stretch for a minute or 19 two and then set back down. It may be -- that way you don't 20 have one person standing and everybody else sitting and 21 everybody lookin' at them wondering what they are doing.

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MR. MYHRE: So that could be --

24 THE COURT: I think that's fine too.

25 Any objections or any concerns by the defense?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker, Your Honor. I mean,
2 I'll leave it up to the Court. If you want to have them stand,
3 I won't be distracted I don't believe. And, you know, I think
4 at this point in the week I'm willing to give her a little bit
5 of a mulligan on it. It's been a long week and, you know,
6 they've been through a lot. I don't even know. Maybe she's
7 working too as well. So there's a lot --

8 THE COURT: Yeah. We'll --

9 MR. MARCHESE: -- goin' on.

10 THE COURT: -- bring her in and find out if there's any 11 other details that we need to be concerned about.

12 I did tell the other juror who was falling asleep that 13 he could raise his hand and let us know if he needed a break.
14 But I don't recall that I actually told all of the jurors that.
15 So I'm not -- I'm just not remembering if they all are aware
16 that any time if they need a break, because they might be 17 falling asleep or just get a crick in their neck or whatnot,
18 I'm comfortable that they can raise their hand. So that'll be 19 the plan.

20 We'll call in Juror No. 5, Aaron.

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: And talk to her for a minute or two and 23 then we'll have the rest of the jury come in and I'll remind 24 them or tell them for the first time, whichever it is.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 THE COURT: They are going through that candy like
2 crazy that we -- we put out a bowl of candy there so that if
3 they did feel like they are falling asleep they could eat some
4 candy. But now I'm thinkin' they are gonna go into a diabetic
5 coma because they take it -- they take the candy when they come
6 in but they also take the candy when they leave. And they
7 don't need to take the candy when they leave. We just want it
8 there for when they come in so . . .

9 MR. MYHRE: Did seem to get warmer this afternoon in 10 the courtroom. But maybe it was just me. Just seemed to get 11 sort of warm now. It's cooled down again.

12 THE COURT: That could be. That could be.

13 And I did -- and so I was telling Aaron maybe we can't 14 dim the lights, but I did ask them to dim the lights when the 15 videos are on because otherwise you can't really see it on the 16 big screen; you can't see it as well as when it is dimmed. I
17 don't want to not be able to dim the lights so that we can see 18 the screens. But, yeah, it could be that it gets warmer in
19 here.

20 GSA says they set it to a particular number that we've
21 agreed to but that the air doesn't turn back on again until it
22 gets, like, one or two degrees below the set number. So it
23 actually has to get warm before it can get cool unless you set
24 it at a cooler number. And I think that's what we've done.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 (Juror No. 5 enters, 4:27 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: All right. So everyone can be seated.

3 We're joined by Juror No. 5.

4 Hello. Just wanted you to come in not to embarrass you
5 or anything. But we just needed to ask some questions because 6 we did notice that you were nodding off or what appeared to be
7 nodding off, getting sleepy. I know it's after lunch. So I
8 wanted to make sure whether or not we saw what we think we saw.

9 Do you think that you were falling asleep a little?

10 JUROR NO. 5: I don't think I was asleep. I did close
11 my eyes a little, like just closed. But I was still listening.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 JUROR NO. 5: Like, once or twice my eyes closed kinda
14 more involuntarily than anything.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Because what we saw is you -- that you were fighting it
17 and your head was kind of bobbing like when you're startin' to 18 fall asleep and you're tryin' to catch your head from falling
19 over. But you don't remember that?

20 JUROR NO. 5: No.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 Are you working nights or anything?

23 JUROR NO. 5: No --

24 THE COURT: Staying up --

25 JUROR NO. 5: -- I'm not.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 THE COURT: -- late at night for some reason?

2 JUROR NO. 5: No. The last couple nights were just
3 late nights for me. That's all.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So you did have late nights.

5 JUROR NO. 5: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 And is this something that you foresee is gonna keep 8 happening for a while?

9 JUROR NO. 5: No. My mom had surgery on Tuesday so
10 I've been at the hospital after jury duty.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 And are you taking any medication that might make you
13 sleepy?

14 JUROR NO. 5: No.

15 THE COURT: Are you not taking medication that maybe
16 you need to take that would otherwise -- I mean, like, I have
17 allergy medication that sometimes I can't take because it wakes
18 me up too much to be able to sit here all day long. I don't
19 take the allergy medication. But do you have any medication
20 like that that --

21 JUROR NO. 5: No.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 And do you think it would be helpful if you were to 24 able to stand up more often? Take more breaks? Is there
25 anything that you can think of that we could do to make it

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 easier for you, you and your colleagues?

2 JUROR NO. 5: Probably more breaks might just be
3 better.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 And are you aware that you can bring in water --

6 JUROR NO. 5: Yes.

7 THE COURT: -- water bottles in here.

8 JUROR NO. 5: I have water with me.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And you do have water in here.

10 All right. Then let's -- thank you. I appreciate
11 that.

12 And anybody else have any questions?

13 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor.

14 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 Well, let's go ahead and bring everybody else in and 17 then we'll go ahead and resume. Thank you.

18 (Juror No. 5 exits, 4:29 p.m. Pause in the proceedings.)

19 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

20 (Jury in, 4:34 p.m.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and sit down.

22 We're back on the record. And just took a little break.

23 So I wanted to take a moment to remind everyone that if
24 you do feel like you need a break for any reason -- you get a 25 crick in your neck, you feel uncomfortable, you just need to

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 stand up, you're fallin' asleep, you need to use the bathroom,
2 anything -- please feel free. Raise your hand and we will take
3 a break. No questions asked; we'll just take a break.

4 Likewise, if you need to just stand up for a couple of 5 seconds, also feel free to do that. Everybody has screens at 6 their knees so you won't be blocking anybody's view unless you
7 stand up for a very long time. But, if you just need to stand
8 up and stretch, get your breath, please feel free to do that.
9 You are welcome to bring in the water bottle. And, if you feel
10 warm or just thirsty, go ahead and drink up.

11 And, likewise, we put the bowl of candy out there for 12 you so that you can feel free to pick up some candy on the way
13 in. Don't have to eat it right away if you don't want to. But 14 at least you have some candy with you if you need to have that 15 while you're sitting there and watching the presentation.
16 Maybe not necessary to take it on the way out so that you don't 17 diminish the effect of the candy. And maybe then we can also 18 train you to look forward into coming into court knowing that 19 you'll get some candy when you get here.

20 But please feel free, don't feel uncomfortable letting
21 us know if you just need a break 'cuz I know it's sitting for a
22 long time which you probably are not used to doing. Even if 23 you sit working, you usually get to talk. And so you don't get 24 to talk when you're sitting here and that can be difficult.
25 But please let us know. It's very important that you stay

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 awake and that you're able to pay attention.

2 We do have alternates so it's not the end of the world.
3 We can replace someone with an alternate if need be. But it's
4 gonna be a long trial so we don't necessarily want to start
5 doin' that already. If there is an issue or a problem please
6 let us know; raise your hand and let us know.

7 All right. So, Ms. Ahmed, let's go ahead and continue,
8 please, with direct examination of FBI Special Agent McEwen.

9 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 BY MS. AHMED.

11 Q. And, returning to Exhibit 17, Agent McEwen, I want to turn
12 your attention back to the screen and let's play it a little
13 bit more and then I'll ask you a question.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. And, at some point, Agent McEwen, what did we just see in 18 this last 15-second segment that we just viewed?

19 A. A hundred to two hundred people lined up facing north. Some 20 on horseback; some on foot.

21 Q. At some point, did you see that line of people move forward
22 in the wash or change their position in any way?

23 A. No.

24 MS. AHMED: Can I advance to 19:16.

25 (Pause in the proceedings.)

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 MS. AHMED: And right there.

2 (Video played.)

3 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it there. Paused at 4 19:16:24.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. So, at some point, Agent McEwen, did you see that line that 7 you had observed in the middle of the wash, did you see the 8 people in that line push forward toward the BLM position?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And is that what we just saw in this segment that we just 11 watched?

12 A. Yes.

13 MS. AHMED: And advancing to 19:18, please.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it there. Paused at 16 19:18:33.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. And, Agent McEwen, can you just tell the jury what we just 19 saw in that last segment?

20 A. The people on foot and horseback continued to gather
21 underneath the overpass of the southbound lanes of I-15 closer
22 towards three trucks that appear to have about five or so
23 individuals per truck hiding behind -- or behind the vehicles
24 from the mass of people that have gathered.

25 Q. And the area that I'm circling on the center of the screen,

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 is that -- those are the three trucks that you're talking
2 about; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And that's the trucks that you understood were the BLM
5 trucks; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Did you ever in the time that you were out there doing
8 sur- -- aerial surveillance -- excuse me -- did you ever see
9 the BLM position move forward from where they are in this
10 scene?

11 A. Not that I remember. Not that I recall.

12 Q. Did you see them change their position in any way?

13 A. Not --

14 Q. Forward or backward.

15 A. Not that I recall.

16 MS. AHMED: And can we . . .

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. And at the time that the people in this clip -- the people
19 have now pushed forward toward the BLM position under the 20 southbound bridge; is that correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. What time is it local time?

23 A. It is 12:18 p.m.

24 MS. AHMED: Can we advance to 19:22:45.

25 (Video played.)

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 MS. AHMED: Could we pause it there.

2 BY MR. MYHRE:

3 Q. Now, again, Agent McEwen, where are the mass of people that
4 were between the two bridges in this scene?

5 A. Generally gathered under or around the southbound lanes of 6 I-15.

7 MS. AHMED: And can we go back just a few seconds.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. And can I draw your attention (drawing) to this bottom
10 left-hand corner of the screen, the northbound bridge,
11 Agent McEwen. Do you see that area?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MS. AHMED: Can we play.

15 (Video played.)

16 MS. AHMED: Could we stop.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Agent McEwen, do you see an individual that I've circled in 19 red in the bottom left-hand corner of the screen?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What does that individual appear to be doing on the 22 northbound bridge?

23 A. Laying in a prone position --

24 Q. And what does --

25 A. -- facing north.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Laying down in a prone position facing north?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And at what time is this scene taking place?

4 A. 12:22 and 54 seconds.

5 Q. And do you see anybody else on the northbound bridge at this 6 time appear to be in a similar position, laying down on the 7 freeway?

8 A. Not that I can tell, no.

9 MS. AHMED: Can we con- -- can we continue to play.

10 (Video played.)

11 MS. AHMED: Can we stop there.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Based on that brief segment that we just saw, what does it
14 appear -- what position does it appear that most of the people
15 in the northbound bridge are in?

16 A. Standing.

17 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, for the record, all the 18 clips that we just watched were from Exhibit 17 which is in two 19 clips. So there's a Clip 1 and Clip 2 in Exhibit 17. So
20 everything that we just reviewed with the witness was from 21 Exhibit 17, Clip 1. And we're now moving to Exhibit 17,
22 Clip 2.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 MS. AHMED: I just wanted to be clear for the record.
25 So can we pull up 19:30, please.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 (Video played.)

2 MS. AHMED: You can play it from here. That's fine.

3 THE COURT: Is there a time stamp that differentiates
4 between Clip 1 and 2?

5 MS. AHMED: They are continuous. I think, just by 6 virtue of the size of the files, they had to be broken.

7 THE COURT: But you know what time Clip 1 ends and what
8 time Clip 2 begins so if we're looking --

9 MS. AHMED: Yes.

10 THE COURT: -- for somethin' later we know which clip
11 to find it in?

12 MS. AHMED: Yes, I do. If you --

13 THE COURT: You don't have to give that to me now.
14 We'll just -- that's fine.

15 MS. AHMED: It is on the exhibit list. We'll have it
16 on the exhibit list.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 And can we continue to play from 19:29:59.

20 (Video played.)

21 MS. AHMED: And can we stop there. Stopped at 19:31.

22 BY MR. MYHRE:

23 Q. Agent McEwen, I'm drawing your attention to an area I've 24 circled in red on the far right bottom third of the screen. Do
25 you see that?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Now, I'm gonna clear that circle and I'm going to
3 draw a smaller circle.

4 What, if you can tell, does that individual in that
5 smaller circle I've drawn appear to be doing? What was their 6 position in this -- at this time?

7 A. It appears to be an individual laying down on the roadway.

8 Q. And what is the time in local time at this point?

9 A. Uh, 2:31 -- uh, 12:31.

10 Q. 12:31 p.m.?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 19:38, please.

14 (Video played.)

15 MS. AHMED: And can we pause there. Paused at 16 19:37:51.

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Can you explain what the vantage point is to the jury from 19 this -- what's depicted in this screen?

20 A. Well, the vantage point -- I'm in the aircraft looking at 21 it; I'm looking towards the south. But what we're looking at 22 here are the southbound lanes of I-15 with several what I
23 believe to be BLM vehicles on the north side of that freeway
24 and a large group of people underneath and immediately to the 25 south of that freeway.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 MS. AHMED: Can we continues to play, please.

2 (Video played.)

3 MS. AHMED: Can we stop there.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Now, in that last portion that we just reviewed,

6 Agent McEwen, what did we see in relation to the BLM vehicles?

7 A. The three vehicles closest to the southbound lanes of I-15
8 were driving backwards or backing away towards the north, away
9 from the mass of people underneath the overpass.

10 Q. And, having seen that video clip, do you recall that --
11 observing that on April 12th?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And at what time did the BLM move backward from the position
14 that they had held?

15 A. Approximately 12:39 in the afternoon.

16 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to about 19:43, please.

17 (Pause in the proceedings.)

18 MS. AHMED: And can we play it from here.

19 (Video played.)

20 MS. AHMED: Bless you.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it here. Paused at 19:43:22.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. And is that 12:43 p.m.?

25 A. Yes.

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Q. Is that after the BLM has already moved back?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And I want to draw your attention to three individuals in a
4 box that I've drawn on the bottom right-hand side of the screen
5 that appear to be on the northbound bridge. Do you see that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And, going from left to right, can you describe to the jury
8 the position of those three individuals at this time?

9 A. The one on the left appears to be laying down in a prone
10 position, the one in the middle appears to be standing, and the 11 one on the right appears to be in some type of crouched
12 position.

13 Q. Now, at some point in the afternoon during your aerial
14 surveillance, did you leave the area?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And did you leave and go fuel up your aircraft?

17 A. We did. We refueled the aircraft and returned --

18 Q. And then --

19 A. -- to the area.

20 Q. -- you returned to the area; is that --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- correct?

23 And then did you continue to conduct aerial
24 surveillance when you returned?

25 A. Yes.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the jury
2 what's been previously admitted as Government's Exhibit 18.

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Video played.)

5 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 21:46, please.

6 (Video played.)

7 MS. AHMED: And can we just stop there momentarily.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. So, when you returned to the area, Agent McEwen, what time
10 was it?

11 A. It was approximately 2:46 in the afternoon.

12 Q. And what area are we seeing at this time on this screen?

13 A. That is the makeshift parking lot area near the median
14 between I-15 northbound and southbound lanes.

15 Q. So we're still in the general area of the ICP, is that 16 correct, during --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- in this screen?

19 A. Yes.

20 MS. AHMED: Can we continue to play.

21 (Video played.)

22 MS. AHMED: And can we pause it there.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Now, when you returned to the area, and as we see in this 25 video scene, were you able to discern whether or not the BLM

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 was still present at the ICP?

2 A. I mean, I could see some vehicles there. I -- I couldn't
3 tell you who was on the premises other than that there were 4 some -- you can see some -- I could see some trailers, some 5 vehicles, and then some cattle and men on horseback.

6 Q. And, at this time, what is taking place in this area that 7 you've drawn the camera toward?

8 A. Cattle are being released from the corrals and heading
9 south.

10 MS. AHMED: And can we continue to play.

11 (Video played.)

12 MS. AHMED: And can I pause it there.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. And I'm drawing a line over what appears to be some moving
15 black dots. Are those the cattle?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And clearing that, drawing your attention to this (drawing),
18 when the video was moving, were you able to see what that was?
19 Or do you want to see it -- the video moving again?

20 A. Yeah, I'd have to see it moving.

21 Q. Or excuse me. That (drawing). I'm sorry. Right there.

22 A. Yeah. That's an individual on horseback.

23 Q. Did you observe individuals on horseback appear to be doing
24 anything with the cattle as they were being released?

25 A. Yeah, guiding the cattle to the south.

—2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017—

1 MS. AHMED: And can we advance to 22:54 in Exhibit 18,
2 please.

3 (Pause in the proceedings. Video played.)

4 MS. AHMED: Can we stop there actually. Sorry. 20 --
5 going back.

6 (Video played.)

7 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it there. Paused at 21:53:34.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Agent McEwen, were you able to discern whether the cows that 10 had been held in those corrals, that are depicted in this
11 scene, whether they had all been driven out of the pens at this
12 point?

13 A. I don't know if they were all driven out, but the majority
14 of the cattle that were there earlier are no longer there.

15 MS. AHMED: And now can we advance to 22:54, please.

16 (Video played.)

17 MS. AHMED: Can we advance to 22:54.

18 (Video played.)

19 MS. AHMED: And can you pause it there.

20 (Video played.)

21 MS. AHMED: Can you pause it. Paused at 22:54:12.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. So, Agent McEwen, I believe you indicated that you'd 24 returned to the area of the ICP around 2:45 and 2:46 and you
25 saw the cattle being released; is that correct?

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And then does it appear that you're still in the general
3 area of Bunkerville an hour later?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And where is the camera -- what is -- what area is the 6 camera now looking at at 22:54?

7 A. Can you -- can you play it a little bit?

8 Q. Yes.

9 (Video played.)

10 THE WITNESS: So this is, I believe, Riverside Road
11 heading back towards the initial staging area where those large 12 poles and banner were located.

13 (Video played.)

14 MS. AHMED: And can we pause here. So paused at 15 22:54:45.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Agent McEwen, sorry to keep making you do math late in the 18 day. But what time is it now?

19 A. Let's see. 12, 10, 7. What is that? Uh . . . Um . . .
20 Bear with me. (Pause.) Uh, 3:54, I believe -- or two -- two 21 fifty -- oh, hold on. I got to subtract 7 from 22. So 7 from 22 22 is what? 15? So 3:54.

23 Q. So at almost 4:00 p.m.; is that correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And this is now, you indicated, back at the -- at Riverside

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 Road, that staging area; is that correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what drew your attention back to this area at this time?

4 A. All the -- a large number of vehicles were leaving that
5 makeshift parking area near the median back towards this
6 location. And then I believe I recall I -- I saw the cattle
7 being directed kinda towards the vicinity of this area.

8 Q. Now, shortly after this, did you complete your assignment of 9 conducting aerial surveillance in this area on April 12th?

10 A. Yeah. At some point over this general area, we -- we 11 finished up our surveillance, yes.

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
13 indulgence?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 (Government counsel conferring.)

16 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Agent McEwen.

17 I have no further questions, Your Honor. I'll pass the
18 witness.

19 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's go ahead and take 20 our overnight break. We will not be coming back here tomorrow.
21 I will be, but you won't be. So you all will be returning on 22 Monday at 9:00 a.m.

23 During this three-day weekend, please remember that you
24 are not to discuss this case with anyone. If you need to check
25 back in with your employer to let them know, yes, I'm still at

2:16-cr-46-GMN-PAL - July 20, 2017

1 work; or with family and friends, yes, we're still working on
2 the case; I'm still on the jury; trial's not over yet, that's
3 fine. But please do not discuss any details or anything else
4 with them.

5 Do not permit anyone to speak to you. Or, if you
6 inadvertently hear something, please let us know right away.

7 Do not read or listen to or view anything that touches
8 upon this case in any way.

9 Do not attempt to perform any investigation or 10 independent research over the weekend. You have some 11 questions, write them down. Bring 'em in on Monday.

12 And please do to the form an opinion. Resist the 13 temptation to form an opinion until you have heard all the 14 testimony, received all the evidence. I will give you the 15 written jury instructions that guide you and then you'll hear
16 the closing arguments. After that you can start to form your 17 opinions and talk to each other about your opinions and share
18 the reasons for your opinions during the deliberation period
19 but not before then.

20 So we'll go ahead and stand for the jury. Thank them
21 again for their time and attention and welcome them back Monday
22 at 9:00 a.m.

23 And, Special Agent McEwen, same thing. We -- after 24 they exit, you may also be excused for the weekend. We'll need
25 you back here at, I think, 9:00 a.m. on Monday.

1 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I believe that's the plan. So we'll have
3 you check in and make sure that's still the plan on Monday.

4 (Jury out, 5:01 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

6 (Proceedings adjourned at 5:02 p.m. Trial to resume on 7 Monday, July 24, 2017, at 9:00 a.m.)

3 P R O C E E D I N G S

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:11 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. You may be
7 seated.

8 We were swearing in some new employees this morning
9 and then taking pictures and I moved the chair out of the way
10 so we could take pictures with their family.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
12 Jury Trial Day Eight in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
13 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
14 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

15 Counsel, please make your appearances.

16 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor.

17 Steven Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf
18 of the United States.

19 THE COURT: Good morning.

20 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor.

21 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present. Also
22 with us at counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

23 Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning, Your Honor.

1 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor.

4 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, Your Honor.

7 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

8 THE COURT: Good morning.

9 All right. Well, before we bring in the jury, just 10 some preliminary remarks that I need to make to remind
11 everyone, or to advise anyone who's here for the first time,
12 that this is a courtroom, not a sporting event, so it is never
13 appropriate to express your opinion, verbally or through body
14 language or partial expressions, no matter how much you might 15 agree or disagree with what -- with what is being said. It's 16 never appropriate to make any kind of a display.

17 Additionally, we do not allow cell phones or any kind
18 of electronics in the courtroom. If you have a laptop or a
19 pad-type of a device, cell phone, please make sure that you
20 leave it outside. Even if it's in off mode or vibrate mode or 21 silent mode, it's not permitted in federal court. There is no
22 recording permitted in federal court, whether it be video
23 recording or oral audio recording.

24 The attorneys, of course, do have computers and they 25 are permitted to use those for presentation of evidence in

1 presentation of evidence and so forth, but, no one else is
2 permitted to have that.

3 Let's see. We do have microphones for everyone. We
4 have removed some microphones in front of the defendants
5 because really it's not necessary and if there was anything
6 they needed to say, they could just use the attorney's
7 microphone. And we do have the podium set up for the witness
8 stand. So, the attorneys are to take turns. No one should 9 speak out of turn and not speak unless called on. We do not 10 expect to . . .

11 All right. So the very last thing that I need to 12 remind the defendants is that we do have the microphones -- I
13 mean, the speakers working now in the cell, again, so, I think
14 this morning there was, like, a reboot that they had to do and 15 everything is working again this morning. So, like I told you
16 before, please do not write anything to show to the jury or to 17 anyone in the audience. Please do not audibly make any kind of 18 statements. When we're at sidebar, do not talk to each other;
19 just stay in your seats. I have authorized the Court Security
20 Officers and the marshals to remove any of the defendants if we 21 need to and they will be listening to the rest of the trial
22 today in the holding room if they cannot comply with these very 23 reasonable requirements to be able to stay in the court.

24 Likewise, if anyone has a cell phone or otherwise
25 makes some kind of an expression or overly distracting

1 movements or anything that's going to be distracting to the 2 jury, the Court Security Officers and the marshals have the
3 authority to go over to those individuals and if they can stop
4 doing what they're doing or if not, if they need to be removed,
5 they do have the authority do that.

6 All right. Aaron, so you want to go and fetch the 7 jurors, please.

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

9 (Off-record discussion with staff.)

10 THE COURT: Yeah. The marshals and Court Security
11 Officers are able to use their cell phones so that they can 12 communicate as needed.

13 All right. So, we're going to be starting with 14 Special Agent McEwen, right? And then are we going to have 15 Mr. Ellis back today?

16 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I think he was sick. But he's available
18 now?

19 MR. MYHRE: He will follow him.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

23 (Jury returned to courtroom at 9:19 a.m.)

24 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated. Good
25 morning.

1 Everyone else may be seated as well.

2 All right. We're back on the record and we do have
3 Special Agent -- FBI Special Agent McEwen back on the witness
4 stand. So, good morning.

5 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

6 THE COURT: And we'll go ahead now and continue,
7 Ms. Ahmed, with your direct examination.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I had concluded on Friday.
9 Thank you -- or on Thursday, rather. So, I pass the witness.

10 THE COURT: All right. So the witness is passed.

11 Mr. -- who's going to go first?

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 For Mr. Stewart, go ahead. Cross-examination.

15

16 EARL MCEWEN,

17 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
18 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

19

20 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EARL MCEWEN

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. Good morning, Agent McEwen.

23 A. Good morning.

24 Q. I'm Rick Tanasi and I represent Steven Stewart. I have a
25 few questions for you on cross. Okay, sir?

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. All right. So on the 12th, April 12th, 2014, you were
3 operating a camera surveillance essentially over Gold Butte.
4 Is that fair?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And in doing so, again, you're just -- you're doing
7 aerial surveillance; right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. All right. And you're recording your observations; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And you're there for, I had it down, four to five 12 hours, roughly?

13 A. Yeah. Give or take.

14 Q. Give or take. All right.

15 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could please cue up
16 Exhibit 17 and take us to 18:23:08.

17 All right. Stop right there, please.

18 (Screenshot published.)

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Okay, sir. Now, we're looking at a freeze frame of
21 18:23:10; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. UTC time; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. So, doing the math, trying to keep up with you from

1 last week, that's 11:23:10? Fair.

2 A. In the morning, yes.

3 Q. In the morning. A.m.; right?

4 A. Um-hmm.

5 Q. Okay. So, this picture here, demonstrates the northbound
6 bridge (indicating); right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And the southbound bridge (indicating) --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. -- right?

11 Okay. And then this area right here (indicating),
12 that area is just behind the southbound bridge; correct?

13 A. Just north of the southbound bridge.

14 Q. Just north of the southbound bridge; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And so, where I'm circling right here (indicating),
17 kind of a not so great circle, but do you see that area right
18 there under the southbound bridge?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Where I've circled, there's no individuals there;
21 correct?

22 A. Doesn't appear to be any individuals there.

23 Q. Okay. There's no vehicles there; correct?

24 A. No.

25 Q. All right. In fact, this wash or this wash area right

1 here (indicating), appears to be no -- no individuals; correct?

2 A. Not on that line where you drew it doesn't appear to be
3 any vehicles.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. TANASI: All right, sir. Nothing further. Thank
6 you.

7 THE COURT: And what time was that again? Can you do
8 the math for us?

9 MR. TANASI: Sure.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. 18:23:10, which is 11:23:10 a.m.; is that correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: No questions from Parker, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Lovelien, any cross?

17 MR. PEREZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

18

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EARL McEWEN

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. Good morning, Agent.

22 A. Good morning.

23 Q. From your vantage point in the aircraft, can you measure
24 distances? Do you have a way of doing that?

25 A. Visually, not accurately, no.

1 Q. Okay. Well, for example, the distance between the north
2 and south bridge, can you give me a guesstimate of the -- that
3 distance?

4 A. Probably about a hundred yards.

5 Q. Hundred yards.

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, could you bring up 17 and 7 go to 19:30:30. That's 17b, excuse me.

8 19:30:30, and let it play just for a few seconds.

9 (Exhibit 17 published.)

10 MR. PEREZ: Okay. You can stop it right there. Stop
11 it, Brian.

12 Go back.

13 We're having technical difficulties this morning.
14 Sorry about that. It is Monday.

15 A little -- little further.

16 Okay. This will do.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Okay. I'd like to draw your attention to the left side of 19 the screen. There's a . . . looks like either a black pickup
20 truck or a black SUV over this area here (indicating).

21 Can you see that?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Can you tell me what that is?

24 A. Where the red line is pointing to?

25 Q. Right.

1 A. A black -- like you said, a black SUV or a black pickup
2 truck.

3 Q. Do you know whether or not or from here, can you tell if
4 that's an NHP vehicle?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. And then -- now, just in front of that vehicle
7 there's a group of people in here (indicating).

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Now, can you tell me approximately how -- well,
10 first of all, that group of people is not on the bridge that 11 goes across the wash; correct?

12 MS. AHMED: Objection. It's confusing and 13 misleading, both --

14 MR. PEREZ: Okay. We'll start -- we'll start over.

15 THE COURT: Just rephrase it. Go ahead.

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Can -- on the screen, can you indicate where the actual 18 bridge over the wash begins?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Can you do that? Mark it on your screen?

21 A. (Witness complies).

22 Q. Okay. Now, can you give me an approximation of the 23 distance between this group of people over here (indicating)
24 and the beginning -- the start of the bridge?

25 A. 50 to 75 yards.

1 Q. Okay. And what time -- what time of day was this, in
2 local time?

3 A. This is at 2:31 p.m. and 1 second.

4 Q. Wouldn't that be 12 --

5 A. Or, Excuse me. Sorry. Sorry. 12:31 --

6 Q. 12:00?

7 A. -- and 1 second. Yeah.

8 Q. Okay. And in this circle over here on the left, the 9 individual farthest to the left, can you tell what they're
10 doing?

11 A. It appears that there's an individual standing.

12 Q. Okay. And at the same time, do you recall what was 13 happening at Post 2 under the bridge?

14 A. Sorry. Can you repeat that question?

15 Q. At the same time, at this 12:31, do you recall what was 16 happening underneath -- underneath the other bridge at Post --
17 I believe that's Post 2?

18 A. Underneath the northbound bridge?

19 Q. Well, right in here (indicating).

20 THE COURT: South.

21 THE WITNESS: There's a large gathering of people.

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Okay. Do you know -- at that point in time do you know if 24 Mr. Bundy and the Special Agent in Charge were at that gate?

25 A. No.

1 Q. No?

2 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Thank you. I have nothing
3 further.

4 THE COURT: For Mr. Drexler?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

6

7 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EARL MCEWEN

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Good morning, sir.

10 A. Good morning.

11 Q. How are you? My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent
12 Mr. Drexler.

13 How are you today?

14 A. Good.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Brian, if we can get 17 up again.
16 First part. And go to 25:52.

17 Just for the Court's sake, I've indicated to Brian
18 that it's easy for him to go on the bottom, so I'll be 19 announcing what time it is in terms of the video.

20 Very good. Stop there.

21 (Screenshot published.)

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Okay. Sir, this is at 18:35:56; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay. And at 18:35:56, that's going to be 11:35:56;

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. A.m., correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And this is on the 12th; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. Do you recognize these individual vehicles, these 8 black individual lined up there?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you keep playing it, Brian.

12 (Exhibit 17 published.)

13 And you can stop right there.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. This vehicle, these vehicles right here (indicating), you
16 still don't recognize what those are? Could they be NHP
17 vehicles?

18 A. They could.

19 Q. Okay. And these individuals here (indicating) wearing 20 sort of this fluorescent green, do you recognize who they would 21 be?

22 A. No. I don't know who they are.

23 Q. Okay. And these vehicles, these four black vehicles
24 there, they're sort of blocking the freeway; correct?

25 A. It appears that they are stopped in the -- on the right

1 side of that freeway.

2 Q. Okay. So, in order to go around or continue on north on 3 that freeway, you'd have to go around them because that lane is 4 blocked; correct?

5 A. It appears so, yes.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you can go to -- keep going to 7 26:41. Just play it, Brian.

8 (Exhibit 17 published.)

9 And you can stop it.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. And we see these individuals that I sort of marked before
12 in the fluorescent green (indicating), they're sort of 13 congregating here; correct? On the I-15 northbound bridge?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. But they're not on the bridge yet; correct?

16 A. No.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go ahead.

18 (Exhibit 17 published.)

19 Okay. You can stop it right there.

20 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

21 Q. Okay. So, again, these four individuals seem to be 22 congregating, they're in fluorescent green; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And still, you don't know whether they're NHP, Metro, or 25 who they're with?

1 A. I don't know who they are.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go ahead.

3 (Exhibit 17 published.)

4 And you can stop it there.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. And they're directly across the street from the 7 so-called -- these protestors, where they congregated; correct?

8 MS. AHMED: Objection, relevance. Witness doesn't
9 know whether they're protestors or not.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Whether they're who.

11 MS. AHMED: Assumes facts not in evidence.

12 THE COURT: Lack of foundation for calling them
13 protestors, I think, is her objection --

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, I see.

15 THE COURT: -- if the witness doesn't know who those 16 people are on the ground.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. That's fine. That's fine.
18 I'll withdraw that question.

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Those people in the green, they're directly across the 21 street from -- on the northbound bridge from these individuals
22 here (indicating); correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And these individuals here (indicating) are in sort
25 of the parking lot? We see cars there; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could go to 25 -- and just 4 keep going to 25:56.

5 (Exhibit 17 published.)

6 Stop it there.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. This vehicle here (indicating), were you able to discern
9 whether that was a news van of some sort?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You don't know whether it is or not?

12 A. I don't know what vehicle that is.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if we can go to -- and you can go
15 fast-forward to 27:18, please.

16 (Exhibit 17 published.)

17 Okay. Stop.

18 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

19 Q. All right. This is at 18:37:23, which would have been
20 11:37:23; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And these individuals here (indicating), where 23 they're sort of congregating on the northbound bridge, do you
24 see anybody in camo there?

25 A. Sorry. I didn't hear that.

1 Q. Camo. Do you know what camo is?

2 A. I can't determine anyone wearing camo in that image.

3 Q. Okay. And do you see a number of flags out here
4 (indicating)?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 28:16, please.

8 (Exhibit 17 published.)

9 And then stop. Okay.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Now, this is the southbound bridge here (indicating);
12 correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And we've got a number of vehicles, light vehicles,
15 I see one dark colored vehicle. Were you able to discern
16 whether these were BLM vehicles or not?

17 A. On the day in question, I did not know who those vehicles
18 belonged to. Since then, I've come to believe that they were 19 some BLM vehicles.

20 Q. Okay. And we have one individual BLM vehicle there
21 (indicating); correct? Sort of in a forward position?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And you were able to see these people around the 24 vehicles (indicating); correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. So, there's people -- there's people, you don't
2 know -- you didn't know at the time whether they were BLM, but
3 they were around the vehicles?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And there's something like 15 or 16 vehicles here;
6 correct?

7 A. Do you want me to count them?

8 Q. Please.

9 A. (Witness complies). It looks like there's 15 vehicles.

10 Q. 15. Thank you.

11 And these are in direct line to, I guess, this --
12 that's the under -- underpass; correct? Right there
13 (indicating)? Where I've just drawn the line?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Because this is -- you can't see through that 16 obviously, what I've just marked; correct?

17 A. I believe so.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could go to 28:27, please,
20 Brian. And just one more split second.

21 There, stop. Okay. All right.

22 (Screenshot published.)

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. So, we've got the northbound bridge (indicating) as I've 25 drawn an arrow; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Southbound bridge (indicating), I've drawn an arrow;
3 correct? Yes?

4 A. I mean, you've got the arrows going different directions
5 on the traffic, but --

6 Q. I apologize. You are correct.

7 A. But you are correct. That -- the right road is the 8 northbound. The left side is the southbound.

9 Q. Okay. Sorry to talk over you. Yes. So the northbound
10 bridge is -- the arrow's correct now?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And I apologize. Southbound bridge (indicating);
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And Las Vegas would be where I drew the circle towards
16 that --

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. All right. Now, we've got these vehicles here
19 (indicating); correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And were -- you were able to discern what that was 22 (indicating), or no? At the time, that little -- what I've 23 circled?

24 A. I mean, it just looks like desert.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you can go forward, Brian.

1 Stop right there.

2 (Screenshot published.)

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Okay. And right now, are you able to now discern what
5 that is?

6 A. Yes. It's a group of people.

7 Q. Okay. And what -- what do they look like they're doing
8 here?

9 A. Some are sitting and some are standing.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: And can you go to 28:12, please.
12 Just back out just . . .

13 (Screenshot published.)

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Okay. So this is sort of a bigger picture of it. We've 16 got -- those people would have been right here (indicating)
17 where I've drawn a circle; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And the -- the vehicles were right here (indicating);
20 correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. Very good.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you could go to 30:23,
24 please.

25 (Screenshot published.)

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Now, these vehicles, at some point, they moved -- if you
3 could just play it -- moved towards the bridge; correct?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

5 (Screenshot published.)

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. These people are moving; correct?

8 A. The people are, yes.

9 Q. Okay. And they're moving what direction, would be,
10 underneath the northbound bridge?

11 A. They are walking north underneath the northbound bridge.

12 Q. Okay. Now, this was in April of 2014; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. What was the weather like? Was it hot? Cold out
15 there? Do you remember?

16 A. I don't know what the temperature was on the ground.

17 Q. You don't?

18 A. I was -- I was up in the air. It was a clear day.

19 Q. It was a clear day. Okay. All right.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could keep playing that.

21 (Exhibit 17 published.)

22 Okay. Stop right there

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. There seems to be some shade underneath this bridge;
25 correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Keep going.

3 (Exhibit 17 published.)

4 Okay. Stop right there.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Okay. We have one individual that's coming out in the --
7 into the middle -- I -- sort of the middle of the wash;
8 correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. Everybody else, do you remember, stayed back in 11 under the shade?

12 A. At this particular time, there's only one individual
13 outside of the shade.

14 Q. Okay. And this individual, were you able to discern
15 whether he was holding a camera or a gun of some sort?

16 A. No.

17 Q. But he was holding something; correct?

18 A. It appears he's holding something.

19 Q. Okay. Okay.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could just keep going for a
21 couple more seconds.

22 (Exhibit 17 published.)

23 Okay. Stop. Stop.

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. Okay. So it does appear he's holding something in his

1 hand; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And it's sort of long?

4 A. I -- I -- I don't know how long it is.

5 Q. You don't know how long it is. Okay.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 32:02, please.

7 (Screenshot published.)

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Okay. Here you have a -- you took a shot of now what is 10 considered, I guess, three vehicles; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Whereas before we only saw one vehicle; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. So, two vehicles actually advanced forward;
15 correct? With the other one?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Right. Okay. And there's a number of individuals around
18 and behind those vehicles (indicating); correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if we could go to 32:56.

22 Okay. Stop. You can back -- okay. Stop right
23 there.

24 (Screenshot published.)

25 ///

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Still the protestors -- or these people are still
3 underneath -- in a shaded area underneath the northbound
4 bridge; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. And there's nobody on the northbound bridge
7 (indicating); correct? In that shot?

8 A. Yeah. I mean, in this particular shot I can't see anyone
9 on the bridge in this shot, correct.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go to 35:11. We'll 12 fast-forward it.

13 (Screenshot published.)

14 Okay. Stop

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Okay. Again, here, we don't see anybody (indicating)
17 we're going forward on the northbound bridge; correct, except 18 for these two people here (indicating)?

19 A. In -- well, and it looks like there's another person on 20 the south side within that box that you drew.

21 Q. I'm sorry.

22 A. Otherwise, I don't see any other individuals.

23 Q. This individual here (indicating), is that who you're
24 referring to?

25 A. No. Go to the right. Right here (indicating).

1 Q. Okay. I see what you're saying. Okay. So there's
2 somebody -- but he's not on the bridge; he's off the bridge;
3 correct?

4 A. He's close to it.

5 Q. Close to it?

6 A. I guess you can't tell if he's exactly on it or not.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 35:16.

9 (Screenshot published.)

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Okay. There's -- we now know that there's people
12 underneath this bridge (indicating); correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. The northbound bridge; correct?

15 We know that there's at least three vehicles here
16 (indicating) with men behind it; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And a number of vehicles actually behind them. We saw
19 that; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. And so, at this point we are seeing, on this
22 bridge, this northbound bridge here (indicating), other than, I
23 believe, these two people (indicating), nobody on the bridge;
24 correct?

25 A. Well, if you saw, these individuals right here were

1 climbing onto the bridge --

2 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

3 A. -- as well.

4 Q. But for the most part, there's nobody there; correct?

5 A. It appears, correct. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And we still have people down underneath the
7 northbound bridge; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. In a direct line of the vehicles that are there; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 101:29.

12 Okay. Stop right there -- back -- right there.

13 Okay.

14 (Screenshot published.)

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. So now we see these three vehicles here (indicating);
17 correct? That we referred to earlier, the three B- -- white
18 vehicles?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. That you now believe were BLM vehicles?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And we also have a number of vehicles lined up
23 behind that vehicle (indicating); correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay.

1 THE COURT: What time was that?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: And that would be at 19:11, which
3 would be 12:11; correct?

4 THE WITNESS: Correct.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good.

6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have nothing further. Thank you
9 very much.

10 THE COURT: Anyone else? No?

11 All right. Redirect, Ms. Ahmed?

12 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
13 indulgence for just a moment.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 (Counsel conferring.)

16 MS. AHMED: No further redirect, Your Honor. We'll
17 pass the witness. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 Thank you, FBI Agent -- Special Agent McEwen for 20 coming in. You're excused. Please be careful on the way
21 down with -- oh, no. I'm sorry. You're right.

22 Jury questions. Sorry. Stay in your seat there.
23 We're going to see if there are any jury questions and then
24 we'll ask attorneys to meet us at sidebar.

25 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

1 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

2 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

3 THE COURT: So Jury Question No. 30, or rather Jury
4 Note No. 30 has two questions. The first one is, "You
5 testified that you saw individuals in the prone and crouching
6 positions. Give that it was known" -- given -- "Given that it
7 was known that there were armed individuals and these positions
8 are used in rifle marksmanship, did you advise anyone on the 9 ground of this observation to further evaluate?"

10 Any objection?

11 MR. TANASI: I don't -- I don't see an objection,
12 Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. And then there's actually a
14 follow-up even though it's same Number 1. It says, "If not,
15 why not? And then if so, do you know -- no speculation," it
16 says -- "the result of the evaluation?"

17 So, any objection to those questions?

18 MR. TANASI: No objection.

19 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: The second question on Jury Note No. 30
21 is, "If this surveillance was so important, why didn't you have 22 a" -- and then quotation marks -- "'relief aircraft' to avoid 23 interruption for early advisement of change in the crowd?"

24 Any objection to that?

25 MR. TANASI: No objection.

1 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

2 MS. AHMED: No.

3 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 31 also has
4 two questions, and the first question is numbered Number 2 and
5 the bottom question is numbered Number 1 so I'm going to read
6 the bottom one first because it has Number 1.

7 It says, "Is it known if the defendants were on the 8 ground in the wash area or on one of the bridges?"

9 MS. AHMED: This witness doesn't know.

10 THE COURT: I guess this witness won't know, but
11 there's no objection to that question, so I'll just make sure
12 to be clear, "Do you know?"

13 And then the second question on Jury Note No. 31,
14 which is actually on the top, "If, on a bridge, would the 15 defendants have been visible -- in plain sight -- to the BLM
16 agents from their positions on the bridge?"

17 Any objection to that?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

19 MR. PEREZ: No.

20 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I'm sorry, just one.

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MR. MYHRE: We do have a matter to discuss before
23 Mr. Ellis testifies. I don't know if you want to take it up
24 now or just wait until he comes on the stand.

25 THE COURT: Sure. We can take it up now.

1 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, in light of the
2 cross-examination by Mr. Leventhal, we believe that they may
3 try to adduce testimony from Mr. Ellis regarding what he heard
4 out there about shots being -- or people getting ready to be 5 shot in the wash or something like that. If you recall, from 6 the previous trial, he had testified that he heard someone say
7 something words to that effect. We would object to that 8 question even being asked. It's hearsay. It's not relevant to 9 anything, per the Court's order in the Motion in Limine. So we 10 don't -- we anticipate that's what they will adduce, but we 11 wish to object now and ask that the Court instruct that that 12 question not be asked.

13 THE COURT: All right. Who wants to respond to that?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: In terms of hearsay, it would be an 15 excited utterance. We've heard numerous videos from these 16 things with which the Government has gotten in as an excited
17 utterance, so it would fall outside the exception to the 18 hearsay rule. If somebody was running back saying, "They're 19 going to shoot" or something and that's what he heard and 20 that's what he was perceiving. As a matter of fact, it was in 21 a video that they have -- the Government has now cut out.

22 THE COURT: Let's be clear on which statement it is 23 that we're referring to then.

24 Mr. Myhre, are you referring to the statement by the 25 man who's advancing towards the cattle gate saying, "Are you

1 going to shoot me? Are you going to shoot me?" or "Are you
2 going to shoot these people?" that statement --

3 MR. MYHRE: No --

4 THE COURT: -- or the other statement later?

5 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor. It actually precedes the
6 one in the wash. It's a statement that was -- Mr. Ellis
7 testified he had overheard while he was at the assembly area
8 before going to the bridge, that someone came by and said
9 they were going to shoot people in the wash and then the whole
10 crowd removed toward the bridge. That's -- that was the 11 testimony.

12 THE COURT: Oh, like in that --

13 MR. MYHRE: Correct.

14 THE COURT: -- parking lot sort of --

15 MR. MYHRE: Right. And it would not be an excited
16 utterance because there's no foundation laid as to what the --
17 who the declarant is or the circumstances under which the 18 declarant made that statement. It's a statement that he 19 overheard and the crowd then moved to the wash, but it's being 20 clearly offered for the truth of the matter asserted.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So as to the statement that 22 Mr. Ellis heard in the . . . we'll call it the impromptu
23 parking, it was just a desert, but, where people parked their 24 vehicles off the side of the road, how is that an excited
25 utterance?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it would be explaining what was
2 going on and perceived at the time that whoever said it, but
3 it's no more or less than all the videos that we have received
4 that have people in the background screaming, you know, "This 5 is not your land," or, you know, "F-you, go home," or things of 6 that. These are all coming in, I guess, as excited utterances,
7 an exception to the hearsay rule. And so that would fall under 8 the same category.

9 MR. MYHRE: Those --

10 THE COURT: No. Those are not excited utterances.
11 I'll let you answer, Mr. Myhre.

12 MR. MYHRE: The -- an excited utterance has to be 13 made while someone or even persons --

14 THE COURT: It's impromptu. That's what provides the 15 credibility that otherwise is lacking.

16 MR. MYHRE: Correct.

17 THE COURT: It's, like, if you touch something hot
18 and you go, "Ow!" because it's hot, you don't premeditate that 19 you're going to say "ow," it's just an automatic response so
20 that makes it an excited utterance and that's what it gives it
21 the credibility that it otherwise wouldn't have and that's the 22 only reason why we allow those excited utterances.

23 MR. MARCHESE: Mr. Myhre wanted to say something.

24 MR. MYHRE: Right, Your Honor, and there's no
25 foundation that this person was under apprehension or was

1 perceiving the event at the time or anything; it's just a
2 statement that he overheard someone making as they were passing
3 by.

4 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I think we have a good faith
5 belief that we could ask the question because it would be made
6 at or near the time. What was elicited at the last trial
7 through both, I believe, Mr. Ellis, who is not on the stand,
8 Mr. Ellis and my client was that the lady came down in a
9 hurried fashion and was yelling, so I believe that we could --
10 before asking the actual nature of what was actually said, I
11 believe that we could lay the foundation to say -- you know,
12 talk about her outward appearance, how she was speaking. I
13 mean, this is not someone saying, "Oh, she has a green shirt."
14 This is a very emotional thing talking about someone having --
15 about to shoot people in the wash.

16 And to move on a little bit from the hearsay, and
17 obviously that's a valid objection and I understand Mr. Myhre's
18 point, but also, that was the exact reason that Mr. Ellis went 19 from the staging/parking-whatever-you-want-to-call-it-area to 20 the bridge. That was his testimony. He said, "I went to the 21 bridge" -- or we, him and Mr. Flynn, went to the bridge because 22 of that particular statement. So, it -- it's very important to 23 get that out because it tells the full story as to why he did
24 what he did and why he went where he did.

25 MR. MYHRE: And why Mr. Ellis moved from the parking

1 lot -- impromptu parking lot to the bridge is not relevant to
2 anything in this case. Secondly, with respect to the -- laying
3 the foundation, when Ellis heard that was not near the bridge;
4 it was away from the bridge. So whoever said that, you know,
5 there -- they were not under the immediate apprehension of what
6 was going on in the wash. They were well removed from the 7 wash. So, therefore, they can't lay the foundation for it.
8 And by going into it or trying to attempt to lay the 9 foundation, we're getting into the, you know, 403 area and 10 we're going into nullification where they're talking about 11 other people perceiving things going on down in the wash that 12 just doesn't go to anything except for nullification.

13 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, can I speak to that?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. TANASI: We've kind of raised this before, but I
16 think this is probably a good time to raise it again.

17 The Government has put the crowd's mindset at issue
18 in this case. The Government has asked, through two witnesses,
19 one, first, Lombardo, Joseph Lombardo, what his temperament or 20 his idea of the crowd was, or his thought was of the crowd's
21 feeling, one; two, Ellis was asked similar questions about what 22 his perception of the crowd was and how they felt. So, the 23 crowd -- by the Government's own questioning in this case, the 24 crowd has been, and their temperament has been put at issue.
25 And so, when we ask questions, like, to Mr. Ellis, "Why did you

1 go from the wash or why did you go from the speech to the 2 wash," his -- his belief and his understanding is relevant to
3 the case because it's relevant to refute the Government's
4 position that everybody was hostile and fired up after Cliven's
5 speech, or, as the defense is advancing, everyone left the 6 speech, a lot of the individuals left the speech to go watch
7 the cows come home. And so, that's relevant for two reasons;
8 one, to refute the Government putting the crowd's -- this 9 hostile crowd notion at issue, one, and two, it's 10 circumstantial evidence of our clients' state of mind. And if 11 you can just bear with me for one second on this.

12 The Government is allowed to use circumstantial
13 evidence to prove a defendant's intent in a criminal case
14 because -- and I don't have the authority handy but I do have 15 it back at my desk and I can put it on the record later, but 16 the Government can use circumstantial evidence for purposes of 17 demonstrating the defendants' state of mind. I would argue the 18 reverse, which is the defense can do the same thing. We can 19 refute our client or prove our clients' state of mind through 20 circumstantial evidence because as the case -- that I don't 21 have handy and I'll give it to the Court -- points out, no one
22 can get into the defendants' mind, so you have to use -- you
23 can't use direct evidence; you can use circumstantial evidence.
24 And so, we would argue we can use circumstantial evidence to 25 also advance our clients' state of mind. So again, for two

1 issues; the effect of people leaving that first speech
2 and heading to the wash is relevant for two reasons; one, to
3 refute the crowd notion, this angry crowd mob that the
4 Government has put at issue, and two, as circumstantial
5 evidence of our clients' state of mind.

6 THE COURT: All right. Well, you'll have to show me
7 that case law because I'm not familiar with the defendant
8 having the authority to refer to the mindset of other people in 9 order to establish their own authority. As to the mindset of 10 the people who are not the defendants and why they moved from 11 one position to another, that's not at issue. And so it would
12 only really be relevant, at the very least, if the defendant
13 could use that as circumstantial evidence and I'm not aware 14 that that -- that that's something that is permissible, but of 15 course, I'm willing to look at that and I want to look at that.

16 Did you want to respond to anything else, Mr. Myhre?

17 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, we kind of moved off
18 the topic of the statement at the assembly area back to the 19 staging area.

20 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

21 MR. MYHRE: But we did not -- we adduced Mr. -- from 22 Mr. Ellis his testimony as to what the crowd was like when he 23 got there. We did not adduce any testimony with respect to, as 24 Mr. Tanasi said, the crowd being hostile or agitated or 25 whatever. We adduced that after Cliven Bundy's speech, they

1 moved to the wash. So, the notion that somehow now we're going
2 to go into what Mr. Ellis' observations were about the crowd
3 throughout the sequence of this, again, it's not relevant. The 4 crowd -- what Mr. -- what Sheriff Lombardo perceived is
5 relevant. He's a law enforcement officer. He was making
6 decisions there. Mr. Ellis is not a law enforcement officer.
7 He has no control over any of these events. He's there as an 8 observer recording. And so, what his mindset is or what the 9 crowd mindset around him is just -- it's not relevant to any
10 defense, it's not relevant to any element of the offense.

11 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I don't mean to go back and 12 forth on this --

13 THE COURT: Well, I agree that his mindset is not
14 relevant, but the question is whether or not there's an excited
15 utterance made by . . . was it a female?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes.

17 THE COURT: I think it was a female. That appeared
18 near Mr. Ellis and that Mr. Ellis heard.

19 MR. MYHRE: Right. Again, we go back to she was not 20 in the wash. She was -- when Ellis heard that, they were not
21 in the wash.

22 We don't know where this person came from. We don't 23 know the circumstances under which she made -- she may have 24 been a provocateur. She may have been someone who made
25 something up. We just don't know. And just to throw it out

1 there just opens up the door to all sorts of prejudicial
2 information with respect to what the relevance of it is because
3 she can't speak -- whoever that declarant is, cannot speak to 4 what was going on in the wash. Did not -- there's no
5 foundation as to what she perceived or what she saw. And so,
6 therefore, we still contend it is just -- it's not relevant.
7 It goes to nullification.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: It does put it in perspective as to 9 why Ellis ran from where he was at to the wash.

10 THE COURT: But it doesn't matter why he ran from 11 where he was at is the point. So it's not -- the question is,
12 if we knew who she was and you could establish that it was an 13 excited utterance, then it would be something different, but 14 because we don't know what she saw, what she perceived, where 15 she was, there's -- the credibility is gone. If it was -- you
16 know, if someone popped up from under the -- you know, behind
17 a -- a rock or something and she said, you know, "Oh, my 18 goodness, it's Charles!" then that would be an excited
19 utterance and someone else could say yes, she uttered that.
20 That was an excited utterance that she made and then there's 21 some credibility to it because she wouldn't have said "Charles"
22 if she didn't think it was Charles, but here, we don't know
23 what she saw so there's nothing that I have to articulate as to 24 why it's an excited utterance.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: We don't even have any foundation as

1 to what Mr. Ellis perceived at the time. Maybe he'll be able
2 to provide that foundation for Your Honor and then --

3 THE COURT: It's not his perception, it's her
4 perception. What she -- where she was when she saw it is what
5 either does or does not lend credibility to her statement to 6 make an excited utterance or not.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. As the Court indicated last
8 week when we were here talking about excited utterance, it's 9 usually somebody else saying that somebody else said something.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: This is the exact situation where 12 Ellis is saying that he heard somebody say and so, if she's 13 running, screaming going, "They're going to shoot protestors,"
14 then the foundation would be laid as an excited utterance.
15 That's exactly what the Court has indicated on why they come in 16 as opposed to having the lady come in, because they don't have 17 Flynn coming in.

18 THE COURT: I'm not saying she has to come in. We 19 don't have any evidence of running, screaming. We don't have 20 any evidence of what she was looking at when she said that.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

22 THE COURT: So . . .

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: So I would lay the foundation for
24 that.

25 THE COURT: It's not sufficient for an excited

1 utterance.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: How would we get there without --

3 THE COURT: I'm not saying it could never be an
4 excited utterance. We just don't have the foundation --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

6 THE COURT: -- to determine that so that I can call
7 it and say yes, this is an excited utterance because. I don't
8 have that information.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: So, I guess on those lines -- I'm 10 sorry. On those lines, if I were to lay the foundation for 11 that, then the Court would allow that to come in?

12 MR. MYHRE: He can't lay the foundation because Ellis
13 wasn't there to see what she was seeing or didn't see. The 14 fact that someone yells and screams and says their hair's on 15 fire doesn't mean it's an excited utterance. They have to be 16 perceiving something and then it's -- they're under the 17 apprehension of what they've seen. That makes it an excited
18 utterance. I can be excited today and animated about this, but 19 that doesn't mean it's an excited utterance. It could --
20 this -- that happened three years ago. Just because I'm 21 excited about it doesn't mean it's an excited utterance. It's 22 got to be, you know, at or near the time of the events
23 perceived --

24 THE COURT: Contemporaneous.

25 MR. MYHRE: Yes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm not sure how much more
2 contemporaneous we are. We're on the bridge. We're there.
3 We're just -- we're just a little --

4 THE COURT: No. This is at the --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Just beyond the --

6 THE COURT: -- the parking, which is like 75 yards
7 away --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Correct.

9 THE COURT: -- give or take, you know. If this
10 witness can estimate.

11 MR. MARCHESE: Just to be clear, so we don't violate
12 any of the Court's ruling. Is the Court's ruling that we 13 cannot attempt to lay the foundation?

14 THE COURT: I don't know that you have a good faith
15 basis.

16 MR. MARCHESE: Well --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: We do, because he testified to it
18 last time, that he heard it. We just didn't get into it
19 because --

20 THE COURT: No. We know he heard it.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: It was actually on direct when he --
22 when he made the excited utterance.

23 THE COURT: We know he heard it, but we don't know
24 that the statement was made contemporaneously or that the 25 person was excited or what the person saw. So, it's the other

1 prong. It's not enough that someone just yells and that
2 someone else hears them yell that makes it an excited
3 utterance.

4 MR. MARCHESE: I -- I agree, but I -- I believe
5 it's -- it's contemporaneous, or at or near the time. So, my 6 position, or our position, would be near the time, and I think
7 our good faith basis is our own clients. Eric testified last
8 time to the same statement.

9 THE COURT: But if you don't know where she was when 10 she saw what she saw, then you can't figure out if it's 11 contemporaneous or not.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I -- I would disagree. If a
13 witness --

14 THE COURT: She could be running from Mesquite. We 15 doubt that, but she could be hundreds of yards away.

16 MR. MARCHESE: I would disagree. I would say if a
17 witness comes in and she yells in hurried fashion, "Oh, my God, 18 Eric Parker just killed so and so," that would come in against
19 him.

20 THE COURT: That's much more specific if she walks
21 into this courtroom and yells, "They're after me," you don't 22 know who or where or what -- where she was, what it is that
23 she's referring to. So, the statement itself --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Well, that's just -- that's our 25 position and I wanted to -- to lay the record.

1 THE COURT: Okay. That's the problem. Okay.

2 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

3 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

4 THE COURT: All right. So, Special Agent McEwen, I'm
5 going to ask you some of these jury questions, but when you
6 respond, you may go ahead and face the jury because these are
7 not my questions, these are jury questions.

8 Jury Note No. 30 is a two-part question. The first
9 one is, "You testified that you saw an individual in the prone
10 and crouching positions. Given that it was known that there
11 were armed individuals and these positions are used in rifle
12 marksmanship, did you advise anyone on the ground of this 13 observation to further evaluate?"

14 THE WITNESS: So, that's a good question.

15 At the time that that video was taken, I did not 16 notice that there were individuals prone or crouched in that 17 position; it wasn't until after reviewing the video that that 18 was noticed.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Then the next part of the question
20 was, "if not, why not?" which I think you've answered.

21 And then, "If so, do you know -- without 22 speculation -- the result of the evaluation?" So again, I
23 think you've already answered that.

24 The second question on Jury Note No. 30 is, "If this 25 surveillance was so important, why didn't you have a relief

1 aircraft to avoid interruption for early advisement of change
2 in the crowd?"

3 THE WITNESS: Um . . . so, that's another good
4 question. That's the leadership above me advised that one
5 aircraft was required and so, we were up with one aircraft. We 6 did depart the area and refuel and got back up there as soon as 7 we could and then we were told to depart the area by 8 leadership. Thus, the video ended when it did.

9 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 31 is a
10 two-part -- has two different questions.

11 The first one is, "Is it known if the defendants were 12 on the ground in the wash area or on one of the bridges?"

13 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Can you repeat that
14 question?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 "Is it known" -- I guess I'll change it to, do you
17 know if these particular defendants -- these four defendants
18 that are on trial here today -- were on the ground in the wash
19 area or on one of the bridges? And I think -- maybe by now,
20 we'll say could you see? Did you -- were you aware of whether 21 they were on the ground or in the wash area or one of the 22 bridges in your, while you were --

23 THE WITNESS: No. I could not determine that.

24 THE COURT: And then the second question was, "If, on 25 a bridge, would the defendants have been visible -- in plain

1 sight -- to the BLM agents from their position on the bridge?"
2 which you've already answered, you didn't know if they were
3 there or not.

4 All right. Any follow-up questions from the
5 Government?

6 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Any follow-up by the defense?

8 MR. TANASI: Just briefly, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10

11

RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EARL MCEWEN

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. Briefly, Agent McEwen, one question for you. You had just 14 indicated that you -- at the time you're flying above on the 15 12th, you didn't notice those individuals in the crouched or 16 prone position. Fair?

17 A. At the time I could see people on the bridge, but I did
18 not, at that particular point in time, notice that that 19 individual was in a prone position.

20 Q. Sure.

21 So, when did you first come to that knowledge? When 22 did you first learn that those individuals were, as you called
23 it, crouched or prone on the bridge? When did you first learn
24 that?

25 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance.

1 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to bias.

2 MS. AHMED: I don't know that there's a good faith
3 basis to make that claim.

4 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, my good faith basis --

5 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: So, when I hand in video surveillance,
8 I do not ever review that video evidence. In this particular
9 situation because there's a trial and I met with the 10 prosecution, we reviewed the video and it was at that time that 11 we noticed that the individual in the prone position was 12 visible in the video.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Sure.

15 Who was at that meeting?

16 A. The prosecution. I can't remember everyone who was at 17 that meeting.

18 Q. Were there other FBI agents there as well?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Anyone else?

23 Government?

24 MS. AHMED: No follow-up, Your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

1 Now, again, Special Agent McEwen, you're excused, for
2 real this time. Thank you very much for coming in. And please
3 be careful with the steps on the way down.

4 (Witness excused.)

5 THE COURT: I'm told that we should take a bathroom
6 break now. So, it's 12:09 [sic] and we'll go ahead and take
7 about a 15-minute break.

8 I do remind the jurors again, as before, that during 9 this break you are not to speak with anyone and discuss this 10 trial or anything that touches upon this case in any way with 11 someone else nor should anyone be speaking to you about it. So
12 please let the Court know if anyone does attempt to speak to 13 you about the case. You can speak to your fellow jurors about 14 other things, but just not about this case.

15 Please do not read or listen to or view anything
16 about that touches upon this case in any way and do not attempt
17 to perform any investigation or any independent research
18 regarding this case, and please do not form any opinion until 19 after you have heard all the testimony, reviewed the evidence.
20 I will give you the instructions of law to guide you so that 21 when you make your determinations of fact, you know how to 22 apply them to the law and then we will hear closing arguments
23 and then you can begin your deliberations. So until I excuse
24 you to deliberate, please do not form an opinion or discuss
25 this case with your fellow jurors.

1 Let's go ahead and stand for the jury. It's 10:10,
2 so we'll be back at 10:25.

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

4 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

6 (Recess was taken at 10:10 a.m.)

7 (Outside the presence of the jury at 10:32 a.m.:)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. Aaron's
10 going to go fetch the jury.

11 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

12 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, before we call the jury in,
13 can I --

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. TANASI: -- address a few issues outside the 16 presence?

17 THE COURT: All right. Yes.

18 MR. TANASI: Sorry, Aaron.

19 THE COURT: You may go ahead.

20 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 This is kind of spilling over from our sidebar
22 meeting and our discussions on the issue for circumstantial
23 evidence being used to prove my client's state of mind in this
24 case.

25 I'd point the Court's attention to -- it's an

1 Eleventh Circuit case -- Lancaster v. Newsome, 880 F.2d 362.

2 "Juries are free to infer" --

3 THE COURT: 880 F.2d . . .

4 MR. TANASI: 362.

5 THE COURT: 362?

6 MR. TANASI: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: Thank you. Lancaster.

8 MR. TANASI: "Juries are free to infer intent from 9 conduct. By its very nature, intent cannot be proven by direct
10 evidence unless the defendant expressly states his intent."

11 Now, that's a case where the Government was permitted
12 to use circumstantial evidence to demonstrate the defendant's
13 intent and reading that case in conjunction with two others, I
14 think it makes my point.

15 The next is U.S. v. Stauffer, 922 F.2d 508, a Ninth
16 Circuit case. "Circumstantial evidence can be used to prove 17 any fact, including facts from which another fact can be 18 inferred and is not to be distinguished from testimonial
19 evidence insofar as the jury's fact finding function is 20 concerned."

21 Final case I would cite, Your Honor, is U.S. v.
22 Lyles, a Sixth Circuit case, 380 F.2d 769. "Circumstantial
23 evidence may be used to corroborate an accomplice's testimony
24 as well as admissions which tend to incriminate the accused."

25 So, the Government essentially is permitted to use

1 circumstantial evidence to demonstrate and argue what the
2 defendant's intent is in their case. These line of cases,
3 Your Honor, I would submit, allow the reverse, which is the 4 defense can use circumstantial evidence to corroborate and
5 otherwise demonstrate what my client's state of mind was,
6 again, not from a mistake of fact or mistake of law standpoint,
7 but from a what was in his mind and was he intending to commit
8 a crime defense. And again, looking directly at Mr. Ellis, for 9 example, who is about to testify and be subject to 10 cross-examination. He testifies that he leaves the speech,
11 Cliven and sheriff's speech --

12 THE COURT: You don't have any case that actually
13 says that the defense may use circumstantial evidence to show
14 state of mind; what you have is three different cases where the 15 Court determined that the Government can use circumstantial
16 evidence to use [sic] the state of mind the defendant, because 17 the Government is not permitted to call the defendant to 18 testify; the defendant has the right not to testify and cannot 19 be compelled to testify. So the Government has the right to 20 show the state of mind of the defendant through circumstantial
21 evidence, but you don't have a case that shows that the defense
22 can rely on circumstantial evidence to show the defendant's
23 state of mind.

24 MR. TANASI: I don't have a case that specifically
25 articulates it in that manner, Your Honor, but what I'm saying

1 is the -- if we take a step back and look at the notion of what
2 we're trying to prove, which is -- or refute, which is our
3 clients' state of mind, those cases allow for us to do that.
4 Those cases -- those cases put state of mind at play. Those 5 cases put my client's intent at play, and those cases put 6 circumstantial evidence as the type of evidence that's
7 permitted to demonstrate state of mind.

8 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Myhre, did you want to 9 respond?

10 MR. MYHRE: Just as we responded previously,
11 Your Honor, the -- and I haven't read these cases, but I
12 presume they stand for the proposition that you can infer
13 intent based on consequences of the conduct or the conduct
14 itself may -- you may infer intent from that.

15 What the defendants here, based on the proffer we had 16 at sidebar earlier, is they hope to adduce some sort of state
17 of mind of other parties out there as circumstantial evidence
18 that this was the state of mind of their defendants, and the 19 state of mind of third parties, including Mr. Ellis or people
20 Mr. Ellis saw or people Mr. Ellis may have heard from, does not 21 advance proof of their state of mind. It's just that --
22 that -- what that person is thinking. It's totally -- it
23 doesn't connect. There's about 15 steps missing in there to 24 connect it to these defendants' state of mind. That's why it's 25 so prejudicial. That's why it's, you know, irrelevant in the

1 first instance.

2 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I could just address
3 that.

4 Again, the Government has put the crowd's state of 5 mind at issue. They did so through Sheriff Lombardo. I
6 objected when they asked Mr. Ellis as to what his -- what he
7 thought the crowd was doing or how they were feeling and I
8 objected because I said he wasn't qualified to do so because he 9 wasn't law enforcement and I recall Your Honor indicating he 10 didn't have to be law enforcement in allowing the line of 11 questioning. So, my point is the Government has put the 12 crowd's mindset at issue and so we're simply trying to refute
13 that.

14 MR. MYHRE: We have -- we have not put the -- there's 15 no such thing as a crowd mindset. We have put in evidence from 16 Sheriff Lombardo as to what his perception of the crowd was 17 because he's a law enforcement officer and has to adjust
18 according to what he's perceiving at the time. We did not put 19 in through Mr. Ellis any mindset of a crowd. We asked, early 20 on when he was first there, what he saw, what the crowd was 21 like. He just said it was -- it was calm. We have not adduced
22 any evidence at the wash or at the assembly area or after 23 Mr. Bundy's speech about what the crowd was thinking or doing.
24 He's not in a position to assess crowd -- crowd mindset or what 25 the crowd is doing, and even if he were, it's not relevant to

1 anything. It's not relevant to the conduct of the BLM
2 officers; it's not relevant to the conduct of the defendants.

3 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, and I think the question was
4 the --

5 THE COURT: I agree. My recollection was that
6 Sheriff Lombardo is a law enforcement officer, but the fact
7 that he was law enforcement officer is not what was important
8 for being able to provide a present sense impression of the 9 crowd. The purpose of the evidence was to show what actions he 10 took because he's one of the victims in this case and it was 11 his conduct that is an issue. The . . . evidence that --
12 you're seeking to ask this -- you're saying that the Government
13 put it in issue, but the Government put it -- asked the 14 question to Sheriff Lombardo, not to Mr. Ellis.

15 MR. TANASI: He -- he -- the question was --

16 THE COURT: So it would be beyond the scope of 17 cross-examination of this particular witness and I don't --

18 MR. TANASI: I don't mean to belabor, Your Honor, but 19 the question, I think, was what was the mood of the crowd and 20 he was allowed to answer that over objection.

21 THE COURT: And the explanation was to show his 22 conduct in the case and what steps he took in relationship to
23 that.

24 MR. TANASI: Mr. Ellis.

25 THE COURT: Oh, you're saying Mr. Ellis?

1 MR. TANASI: Mr. Ellis was asked what was the mood of
2 the crowd. And I specifically remember this objection,
3 Your Honor, because I had asked -- I objected as to the 4 relevance of the mood of the crowd as speculation and also that
5 he was not law enforcement and I, again, recall the response
6 being that he didn't have to be law enforcement.

7 MR. MYHRE: If -- if we asked that question,
8 Your Honor, it was only with respect to when he first got there
9 and he was waiting for something to happen.

10 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

11 THE COURT: All right. So at the rally site there
12 was a question about the mood of the crowd, at the rally in 13 between the -- the different individuals who were state -- who 14 were speaking or the different things that were being said.

15 MR. MYHRE: Right. And that was to set up the video,
16 Your Honor, that was then introduced as to Mr. Bundy's speech.
17 But we did not adduce any evidence about the mood of the crowd
18 at the staging -- or, excuse me -- at the assembly area or in 19 the wash or even after Mr. Bundy's speech.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. I don't have any notes regarding 21 any other questions after that. The only one was at the rally
22 site.

23 MR. TANASI: And I guess I would just point out,
24 Your Honor, that where the mood of the crowd was assessed isn't 25 the issue; it's the fact that the crowd and their mood has been

1 assessed by a witness.

2 MR. MYHRE: That doesn't open --

3 MR. TANASI: So that door's been opened.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre?

5 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, that doesn't -- that doesn't 6 open the door for everything that occurred from there on to 7 eternity; it's simply that was -- at that point it was adduced
8 merely to set up the video that he subsequently showed and the 9 videos that were introduced thereafter show what was going on 10 in the crowd. We did not adduce any evidence as to crowd
11 mindset or mood at either -- at the immediate aftermath of 12 Mr. Bundy's speech or anywhere along the continuum up through 13 the wash.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Well, I've made my ruling. You haven't provided any 16 other information that convinces me that the ruling was not 17 correct the first time, so it stands.

18 MR. TANASI: Understood. Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Let's go ahead and bring in the jury.

20 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 (Jury returned to courtroom at 10:49 a.m.)

23 THE COURT: Jury may go ahead and be seated.

24 Everyone else may be seated afterwards.

25 All right. So before we begin with the next witness,

1 which is actually Mr. Ellis, Alex Ellis, thank you for coming
2 back and returning. We welcome you back, the Government did
3 finish its direct examination and we will be starting
4 cross-examination with Mr. Ellis in a moment, but first I want
5 to read a Jury Note No. 32, which asks, "If we don't understand
6 a word, can we look it up -- can we look up the definition?"
7 And so, I'm sorry, but the answer is no. You need to let us
8 know if there is a word that you want clarified. So feel free
9 to do so. If there is a word that you're not sure how it's 10 being used or what it means or sometimes if you're not even 11 sure if you heard it properly, please, feel free to write down
12 the note and let us know so that we can get that clarified for
13 you.

14 All right. So, let's go ahead and begin with
15 cross-examination --

16 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: -- for Mr. Stewart.

18

19

ALEX ELLIS,

20 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
21 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

22

23

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEX ELLIS

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Good morning, Mr. Ellis.

1 A. Good morning.

2 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).
3 I've got a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. All right. At some point on the 12th you wind up at -- on 6 the northbound bridge; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. At some point on the 12th you then go from the 9 northbound bridge into the wash?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And when you're in the wash, how far do you go? Do
12 you go as far as underneath the southbound bridge or -- or 13 where?

14 A. Yes. Up to the gate.

15 Q. Go right up to the gate?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Did you ever cross over the gate?

18 A. No.

19 Q. No?

20 All right. And so you're at the gate and as you're 21 traveling from the northbound bridge to the southbound bridge,
22 is it fair to say that at some point you've got your back to 23 the northbound bridge; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And then when you're kind of down there underneath

1 the southbound bridge, at least at some point maybe you have
2 your side turned around, your back to the northbound bridge.
3 Fair?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay.

6 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could please bring up
7 Exhibit 13a and go 31 seconds in.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. And while we're cueing this up, back to kind of the last 10 line of questioning. When you're -- when you have your back at 11 some point to the northbound bridge, you'd agree with me that 12 articulates people on the northbound bridge at that point, too;
13 right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So you have your back not only to the bridge, but 16 to the folks that are up on the bridge; right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. All right.

19 MR. TANASI: Go ahead, Brian. Is this 31 -- okay.
20 Stop. If you can back it up just a little, Brian.

21 All right. Stop right there.

22 (Screenshot published.)

23 BY MR. TANASI:

24 Q. Okay. So at 29 seconds, is this picture or this view kind
25 of indicative of where you were standing underneath the

1 southbound bridge?

2 A. No. At this point I was still at the northbound.

3 Q. You're still at the northbound bridge?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. So, but does this -- does this view right here look
6 like what you would have seen when you were at the southbound
7 bridge at whatever point in time you were underneath the 8 southbound bridge?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right. Now, the video's going to kind of pan -- and 11 we'll watch it do it -- back to the northbound bridge.

12 (Exhibit 13a published.)

13 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could do that and then
14 stop it as it first picks up the northbound bridge.

15 Stop. All right. Can you back up a little more
16 before it zooms, please.

17 All right. Stop. Thank you.

18 (Screenshot published.)

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Okay. So, is this view as you look at it here, is this 21 kind of an example of what it looked like for you when you were 22 on the -- underneath the southbound bridge kind of looking back
23 towards the northbound bridge?

24 A. Yes. When I was under the southbound bridge.

25 Q. Understood. So when you're under the southbound bridge,

1 you're turning, you're looking back at the northbound bridge,
2 this picture is a good illustration of that. You'd agree with
3 me?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right.

6 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could cue up Exhibit 8 at
7 1:19, please.

8 (Exhibit 8 published.)

9 13a

10 Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (Counsel conferring.)

13 MR. TANASI: Okay. I apologize. That's Exhibit 8.
14 We're going to get back to that 31 second -- or 1 minute and 19
15 second mark.

16 All right. Stop it.

17 (Screenshot published.)

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. Okay, sir. On this video we're stopped at 56 seconds. Do
20 you see that law enforcement vehicle there (indicating)?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. It's NHP; right?

23 A. Sorry?

24 Q. Is that NHP?

25 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor, as to this

1 witness' perception of what these -- what vehicles are, who
2 they belong it. It's not relevant.

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. Did you see this vehicle, sir?

5 THE COURT: Well, the objection was the relevance of 6 this person's identification or ability to identify a vehicle
7 because we don't know how -- what his experience or foundation
8 would be. So the objection is sustained.

9 MR. TANASI: Understood.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Did you see that vehicle there when you were on the 12 bridge, without saying what the vehicle is or whose vehicle it
13 is?

14 A. I do not recall seeing it.

15 Q. Don't recall seeing that vehicle or any vehicle like that 16 on the 12th?

17 A. Right. I was not here at the -- when this was being 18 filmed. This is when Mr. Flynn and I were separated.

19 Q. Okay. So you didn't film this portion?

20 A. No, I did not.

21 Q. All right. At any time while you were on the bridge did
22 you see a vehicle like this or any other vehicle that looked 23 like this?

24 A. Not that I recall.

25 Q. Okay. Prior to today's testimony, did you have an

1 opportunity to meet with the FBI?

2 A. Not since last week.

3 Q. Okay. Prior to that, had you had an opportunity to meet
4 with the FBI?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. How many times?

7 A. Three, I believe.

8 Q. Okay. And did you also have an opportunity to meet with 9 the U.S. Attorney's Office?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. How many times?

12 A. I believe only twice.

13 Q. All right. Thank you.

14 MR. TANASI: I'll pass the witness.

15 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Parker?

16 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

17

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEX ELLIS

19 BY MR. MARCHESE:

20 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

21 A. Afternoon.

22 Q. I'm just going to go back a little bit. I know we kind of 23 broke your testimony up a little bit.

24 So, turning your attention to April 12th of 2014, you
25 went to the Bunkerville area with Mr. Flynn; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. And we saw some videos that you -- that were 3 played.

4 Do you remember those?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. In one of the particular videos you identified my 7 client, Mr. Parker. I don't know if you remember back then, he 8 had a shaved head and he was wearing like a plaid shirt?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And you had testified that you remembered seeing 11 him in the crowd that morning by the stage.

12 Do you remember that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. How many people were in the crowd at that time,
15 approximately?

16 A. Several hundred maybe. Between 2 and 3.

17 Q. Okay. And on direct examination you had testified that 18 he -- he had a weapon on him or something along those lines, I
19 believe?

20 A. Um . . . I believe so.

21 Q. Okay. And then the prosecution went back and they showed 22 you it and he actually did not have a weapon him, I believe.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. Now, what was it that made you remember Mr. Parker
25 from that morning, from the stage?

1 A. He stood out from most of the other people there as he was
2 wearing a chest rig with magazines for a rifle in them.

3 Q. All right. But there were other people there with the --
4 I believe -- what did you say, chest what?

5 A. Chest rig.

6 Q. With chest rigs on; correct?

7 A. Correct, but they seemed to be together in a group whereas
8 he was separate on his own.

9 Q. Okay. You mean he was by himself is your testimony?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Now, you were present for --

12 THE COURT: Can we have you clarify which "he." I
13 think you talked about different individuals.

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. He as in Mr. Parker?

16 THE COURT: So which individual is together and which 17 individual is separate? You just said "he," "he," "he," so I'm 18 just trying to figure out which one you're referring to.

19 Can you ask the question? It may be a little bit
20 easier.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Now, when you say "he," I would imagine and I'm not trying 23 to put words in your mouth, but I would imagine you're 24 referring to Mr. Parker?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay. So Mr. Parker was by himself would be your
2 testimony?

3 A. He was not with a group.

4 Q. Okay. So if he's not with a group, he's by himself?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Now, we played -- I believe it was played for 7 you -- the sheriff's speech in reference to Mr. Bundy?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And after the sheriff gave his speech, the crowd
10 was happy; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Said something to the effect of there was a press release,
13 that the BLM is ceasing their operation.

14 Do you remember that?

15 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. I don't believe
16 we went through that with this witness on direct.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Well, regardless, we've laid the --
18 you were at the stage; correct?

19 THE COURT: Well, there's an objection pending. So
20 the objection is that it's beyond the scope of direct?

21 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I --

23 THE COURT: The question is about the speech at the 24 rally. We discussed the speech at the rally on direct.

25 MR. MARCHESE: I was under the assumption that we

1 did. We might not have gone into the specifics, but I believe
2 he asked if we -- if he had heard it or something along those
3 lines, because that was when we talked about the mood of the 4 crowd, I believe.

5 THE COURT: So what -- so what is your question? Say
6 it again for me.

7 MR. MARCHESE: You heard when the sheriff gave --
8 said that the -- there was a press release, that the BLM was 9 ceasing their operations?

10 THE COURT: That's fine. He can answer that
11 question.

12 Overruled.

13 BY MR. MARCHESE:

14 Q. You heard that, sir?

15 A. Heard what? Sorry?

16 Q. When the sheriff spoke -- do you remember the sheriff
17 speaking?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you heard when he gave the speech and he said
20 something to the effect of that there was a press release that 21 the BLM was ceasing their operations?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Do you remember that?

24 A. I do remember hearing that.

25 Q. Okay. And that the Gold Butte allotment would be reopened

1 to the public.

2 Do you remember that?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Did you know where the Gold Butte allotment was at the
5 time?

6 A. At the time, no, I didn't.

7 Q. Okay. And that the BLM would be removing their assets or 8 something along those lines; right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And the crowd cheered and they were happy; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And then at some point in time you went to the area that 13 you later found out was the Gold Butte allotment; right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And I believe you drove Mr. Flynn; right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. We saw a video of that part -- partially; correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And you got there and you parked. You get out of 20 your vehicle; correct?

21 A. Um-hmm, yes.

22 Q. A lot of people there?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Did you see Mr. Parker at that point when you were 25 in the parking lot area?

1 A. Not in the parking lot area.

2 Q. Okay. When was the next time you saw Mr. Parker? Would
3 it have been when you -- well, when Mr. Flynn took the video of 4 him on the bridge?

5 A. A little bit before that. As we were arriving, or shortly
6 after we had arrived at the bridge.

7 Q. Okay. And then when you were still in the parking lot,
8 you saw Mr. Parker?

9 A. I did not see Mr. Parker at the parking lot.

10 Q. Okay. And at some point in time you went to the 11 northbound bridge?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. When you went to the northbound bridge, was that 14 the general flow of the people? Were most of the people going
15 to the northbound bridge?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And at what point did you separate from Mr. Flynn?

18 A. Shortly before going to the northbound bridge.

19 Q. Okay. So Mr. Flynn did not go to the northbound bridge
20 with you?

21 A. He did.

22 Q. He did?

23 A. We rejoined and went together.

24 Q. Okay. So you're in the parking lot, you separate, you
25 rejoin, and then he leaves again. Is that a correct statement

1 of your testimony?

2 A. Not quite.

3 Q. Okay. All right. So you're with him in the parking lot;
4 right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. When do -- you separate again?

7 A. After arriving at the northbound bridge.

8 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, where did Mr. Flynn go, if you
9 know?

10 A. After arriving down at the northbound bridge he went down
11 into the wash towards the southbound.

12 Q. Okay. And where were you at that time?

13 A. I was still atop the northbound bridge.

14 Q. Okay. And did Mr. Flynn then come back or did you go to 15 him?

16 A. I went to him.

17 Q. Okay. And at what point was that?

18 A. That was after the crowd reached the gate.

19 Q. And then at some point in time the crowd moved back;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And Mr. Tanasi, I believe, had just shown you that 23 video. I think it might have been Exhibit 13a.

24 Do you remember that?

25 A. The crowd moving back?

1 Q. The crowd moving back, yes.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Are you in the wash at that point or no?

4 A. I apologize. It's been awhile.

5 When the crowd moves back, yes, I was in the wash.

6 Q. Okay. Had you got to Mr. Flynn or are you walking in that
7 direction at that point?

8 A. I was with Mr. Flynn. I believe that was around the time
9 we conducted the interview with Ammon Bundy.

10 Q. Okay. And that's the one that's under the southbound
11 bridge; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. When you went into the wash, what was the route that you
14 took?

15 A. Straight down and across.

16 Q. Okay. And when you say across, you were on the 17 embankment; correct? Of the northbound bridge at first; right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And then you just went straight across to the southbound
20 bridge; correct?

21 A. Straight down to the middle where the gate was.

22 Q. Okay. So you never went up on the embankment under the 23 southbound bridge. Is that fair to say?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Brief indulgence.

2 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

3 MR. MARCHESE: Pass the witness, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Just to clarify. When you're separated
5 from Mr. Flynn and Mr. Flynn, you said, went down the bridge
6 but you're still up on the bridge, are you seeing him? Are you
7 watching him?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, I'm able to see him.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 Cross for -- on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Thank you.

12

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEX ELLIS

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Good morning, sir.

16 A. Good morning.

17 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent Mr. Drexler.

18 So, you came down, Mr. Ellis, on the 11th or the 19 12th?

20 A. Both.

21 Q. Both.

22 Okay. And you came from Utah?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you came with Mr. Flynn; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Who drove?

2 A. He did.

3 Q. He did. In his vehicle?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. So his vehicle would have had Utah plates?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. License plates?

8 Okay. And why did you come down?

9 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: It would go to bias, Your Honor.

11 If he came down --

12 MR. MYHRE: I don't see there's any bias established
13 by why he came down.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, let's go to sidebar.

15 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

16 THE COURT: All right. So we're at sidebar.

17 Mr. Leventhal, what do you think that the answer is going to be 18 that you're trying to elicit?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it doesn't really matter. If 20 he comes -- if he says that he came --

21 THE COURT: Well, it does matter because if you don't 22 have a good faith belief, then you shouldn't be asking the
23 question.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, no, no, no. I didn't mean it
25 that way. I didn't mean that. I do have a good faith belief

1 because I believe, based on the fact that he's tendered, if you
2 remember the last -- the last trial, he tendered or authored an
3 opinion that the Court was allowing me to get into which said
4 something about police states, something along those lines, you
5 remember, and that I -- police states, where he talked about
6 Margaret Houston being thrown down and all the -- he's got some 7 strong opinions, but I don't know if that opinion was before or
8 after. But, when I say it doesn't matter, what I'm saying
9 is if he -- even if he --

10 THE COURT: No. He wrote an article or a blog --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: He did. He --

12 THE COURT: -- or a commentary after this event --

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. However, prior --

14 THE COURT: -- not before. So that wasn't the reason
15 he went.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. And so my --

17 THE COURT: So what is your good faith basis to 18 believe he's going to say something that is not irrelevant?
19 Because that was the objection, was relevance.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right. And so, it would go to bias,
21 one, because he indicated he -- he downplayed it, so it would
22 go to bias, but then when I say it doesn't matter, I didn't
23 mean it doesn't matter. Even if he says no, I came down here
24 to work, then it would go to the weight of the evidence. If 25 they came down here to work -- which I don't know what he's

1 going to say to be quite honest with you -- but if he came to
2 work, then it would go to -- and it would be a good faith basis
3 to believe that if he came down here to work, it would go to 4 the weight of the evidence and the videos that we saw and
5 whether or not -- and then I'm also going to get into, you
6 know, whether he was with him, because the Court indicated I'm 7 allowed to test the -- not the authenticity because it's 8 already been brought, but the weight of the evidence. So, he 9 could -- when I say it doesn't matter, if he had a reason for 10 coming down, then that would be bias. If he's biased against 11 the Bundys, because he's -- also, he commented, in many of his 12 editorials, that he hated the Bundys and he thought they were 13 freeloaders of some sort. But if he says he came down because 14 he also hates the police, he's a very dynamic -- he has both
15 views both ways. He goes against the Bundys, but he also goes
16 against strong police. So, there is clear bias there, but if 17 he doesn't get into that and he gets into, again, he came down
18 here for work, which is what, apparently, according to the 19 videos, it says he was doing, when the -- Mr. Flynn says, you
20 know, you're a liability, get away, you can't be here, if he 21 came here to work, then it would go to the weight of the 22 evidence.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Myhre.

24 MR. MYHRE: Well, Your Honor, I'm not sure exactly
25 how to respond to that directly other than to say that at the

1 last trial Mr. Leventhal used this same line of questioning to
2 adduce from the witness that he had seen videos of
3 Margaret Houston being thrown to the ground -- oh, I'm sorry --
4 that he saw videos of Margaret Houston being thrown to the 5 ground; that he had, you know, subsequently authored a opinion
6 piece about that as to, you know, he -- I'm assuming he wants
7 to adduce evidence that he came down because he had seen those
8 things and he was curious as to what was going on. So we don't 9 see the relevance of any of this. It doesn't -- doesn't go to 10 a defense. It doesn't go to an element of the offense as to 11 why this witness came down. It gets into this whole area that 12 the Court has already ruled upon.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: I just -- briefly, I --

14 THE COURT: I agree. Sustained.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, and just briefly. I -- I -- he's 16 also authored things against the Bundys, very strong opinions
17 against the Bundys and both him and Mr. Flynn have authored
18 those things up, so there's two different roles. It's not -- I
19 wasn't asking because of -- I was expecting him to say, and I
20 don't think I got him to say that he watched Margaret Houston
21 being taken down. The purpose of last time was because of an 22 article, but I'll move on.

23 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

24 THE COURT: All right. The objection is sustained.

25 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

1 Q. Okay. So --

2 THE COURT: You may ask a different question,
3 Mr. Leventhal.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

5 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

6 Q. Mr. Ellis, so, let's go right to where the rally was on 7 the 12th. Can we bring you there?

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. Thank you.

10 Okay. So, you were asked some questions you saw the 11 sheriff's speech and I won't go through that, but you saw that 12 speech?

13 A. I did.

14 Q. Okay. And approximately how many people were out there?
15 About 200 to 300? Is that what you indicated?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And some people were in camo, camo gear?

18 A. Some of them, yes.

19 Q. Okay. And many were not in camo gear; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay. And do you see people with any sort of 22 communications, any earpieces, things of that nature?

23 A. Some of the news media members.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Other than that, I can't recall.

1 Q. Do you remember whether any of the people in the camo in
2 the front -- and we saw some video where you see people in camo
3 in the front -- had any communications?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Okay. All right. If we can go to 5b.

6 Now, this was a video that Mr. Flynn made; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if we could go to 17 seconds.

10 Play it from there.

11 (Exhibit 5b published.)

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. And just -- this is where he's singing the national 14 anthem; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Is this before Mr. Bundy took the stage?

17 A. Mr. Bundy took the stage twice.

18 Q. I'm sorry. Before the sheriff took the stage?

19 A. This would be afterwards.

20 Q. After the sheriff took the stage while everybody was 21 waiting around?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead.

25 (Exhibit 5b published.)

1 You can stop right there.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. So, so far we see a bunch of people with a flag
4 here (indicating); correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And a sign here (indicating); correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. A lot of people with their hats off listening to the 9 national anthem; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go ahead.

12 (Exhibit 5b published.)

13 Stop right there.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Okay. Did you see this (indicating) raise here, that --
16 what I've circled in the middle?

17 A. What am I drawing my attention to?

18 Q. This -- right where I circled. Did I -- did you see that?

19 A. And what was your question?

20 Q. Did -- did -- do you recognize what that is?

21 A. It appears to be a camera.

22 Q. A camera. Okay. It's -- it's pretty long. It has a
23 long, sort of a microphone on it; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 1:04.

2 (Screenshot published.)

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Now, you were shown this picture on direct; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Now, you didn't actually see Mr. Drexler, my 7 client, at the rally; correct?

8 A. I did.

9 Q. You did? Okay. And do you -- how were you able to make 10 him out?

11 A. As I said before, he stood out from the other people there 12 by the rig that he was wearing and the magazines he was 13 carrying.

14 Q. Okay. Were you able to tell me where the magazines are --
15 can you tell me which one Mr. Drexler is in this picture?

16 A. He's the one wearing the chest rig with the magazines in 17 it and the plaid shirt.

18 Q. Can you circle him, please.

19 A. (Witness complies).

20 Q. Okay. So that's Mr. Drexler to you?

21 A. Oh, my apologies. I had names mixed up.

22 Q. No problem.

23 A. No. This was not him.

24 (Witness complies).

25 Q. Okay. So that's Mr. Drexler to you?

1 A. Yes, but I did not come to know this until after the 2 rally.

3 Q. Okay. How far -- how long after?

4 A. Very long time. Not until before previously testifying, I
5 believe.

6 Q. Okay. So, it was after you met with the Government?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. So if I were to tell you that that, in fact, is not
9 Mr. Drexler --

10 THE COURT: Just a minute. Just a minute.

11 Mr. Ellis, did you know the first name of this
12 person?

13 THE WITNESS: No. I never learned his name, at least
14 while I was there.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. If I were to tell you that, in fact, Mr. Drexler is --
18 that is not Mr. Drexler, would you disagree or agree with me?

19 MR. MYHRE: Objection as to the relevance of the -- 20 he did not identify anybody at the time and the subsequent 21 identifications have not been at issue here. We've not offered
22 Mr. Ellis to make in-court identifications of anybody.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Absolutely.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, Mr. Ellis was requested

1 and asked on direct if he saw Mr. Drexler at the rally and he
2 indicated he did. Now he's -- can't. So, he was asked that.
3 He was asked all three individuals.

4 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I asked --

5 THE COURT: I don't recall that.

6 MR. MYHRE: The Government doesn't recall it either,
7 Your Honor. We asked -- recall showing him this scene as to 8 whether he recalls these individuals being there, but did not
9 ask him to name them or identify them.

10 THE COURT: Yeah. I thought he only knew the name of 11 -- the first name of the one he interviewed up on the bridge.
12 I don't remember him being asked to identify anyone by name.

13 So, the objection is sustained.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. These three individuals, they're just standing around;
16 correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. No pointing of guns? No? Correct?

19 A. Does not appear to be so.

20 Q. And none of them are in any kind of camo; right?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to Number 6, please,
23 Brian.

24 And go to 1:28, Brian.

25 Stop. Right there. That's good. Okay. Thank you.

1 (Screenshot published.)

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Now, these gentlemen you had identified in the front in 4 camo, you identified them as who?

5 A. I believe they identified themselves as being
6 Oath Keepers.

7 Q. Okay. And clearly, they're all in camo; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. This gentleman has a -- what I'm circling is a --
10 some kind of a communication device; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we can pull up 192, Brian.

14 (Exhibit 192 published.)

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. I'm going to show you a picture of Bunkerville and ask
17 you, if you could, do you know where on here would be the 18 staging area that you were at? If you can -- if you can -- 19 want to orient yourself, the I-15 is here (indicating).

20 A. Right. Okay.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, this exceeds the scope of the 22 direct. We did not have the witness cover this map or this --
23 point out all the geographic features on this map.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, I'm not asking for 25 geographic, I'm only asking -- and they did -- the Government

1 provided video of him driving on the 15 with a bunch of law
2 enforcement in front of him. So, my -- I'm going to limit my 3 questions on how long it took him to get there and which 4 direction he took.

5 THE COURT: This exhibit wasn't shown to the witness.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I -- it's a map.

7 If he knows how he got there.

8 THE COURT: So the objection is that it's beyond the 9 scope of direct?

10 MR. MYHRE: Beyond the scope, Your Honor, yes.

11 THE COURT: It's beyond the scope of direct.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay.

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. How did you get from the rally to the wash?

15 A. From the rally to the wash?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. We drove.

18 Q. Okay. And what road did you take?

19 A. I'm not sure of the name of it.

20 Q. Okay. At some point did you get on the 15?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Do you know where that was in comparison to how 23 far -- how far it was when you left in five minutes, 10
24 minutes?

25 A. It was hard to tell. Tensions were running high at the

1 time.

2 Q. Okay. And so when you got on the I-15, do you know how
3 long it took you before you parked?

4 A. Only several minutes.

5 Q. Several minutes. Okay.

6 If we could go to video 8, please, Brian.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Now, Mr. -- Mr. Flynn drove; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Okay. And he parked in the parking lot I believe your 11 testimony was; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 1:29.

15 Okay. Stop right there.

16 (Screenshot published.)

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Okay. So this would have been the parking lot?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. So, we've got people here (indicating). Here
21 (indicating), this gentleman has -- he's holding what appears
22 to be what?

23 A. I'm not sure exactly. Some kind of stick.

24 Q. Okay. We've got a sign here (indicating)?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. We've got people just standing here (indicating);
2 correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And this was true and accurate when you got there?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. You don't see anybody in this picture pointing any 7 guns at anybody; correct?

8 MR. MYHRE: Objection. Argumentative, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could go to 1:33.

11 Stop. Right there.

12 (Screenshot published.)

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. Okay. Do you see this gentleman holding a camera
15 (indicating)?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. Do you see this gentleman holding a camera (indicating)?

18 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. This, again, is 19 argument. Is there a -- this witness was not brought to 20 identify individuals in this particular video, or any of the 21 videos.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I -- I -- Your Honor, I'm not asking
23 him to identify any individuals; I'm asking him to identify 24 cameras versus guns because obviously that's going to be a
25 point of contention as we go forward.

1 MR. MYHRE: Then it's irrelevant.

2 THE COURT: I think the objection is are you asking
3 him to identify what is visible or what he saw on the day that
4 he was there or -- I'm not sure that I even understand --

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: My problem is this: I don't know
6 what he saw because I don't know when he was with Mr. Flynn,
7 who's taking these videos, and when he's not, okay, and the 8 Court has only required that it's a true and accurate
9 description of what was --

10 THE COURT: He's never said that he was not with 11 Mr. Flynn except when Mr. Flynn was going down the bridge and 12 he was standing above the bridge watching Mr. Flynn go down the 13 bridge.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Actually, he indicated that he went 15 back to his vehicle at some point when he was told he was a
16 liability.

17 THE COURT: Right. So you're asking if this is the 18 point where he went back to his vehicle, to the truck?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I'm asking if he saw this and 20 recognized people in the wash holding video cameras.

21 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, he can ask whether he recalls
22 seeing that, but to go through these videos and just point out
23 things and ask him to describe what he's seeing, this witness
24 was not offered by the Government to identify different objects
25 that are -- appear in these videos, just what he recalls doing

1 when he was in the wash and what he saw.

2 THE COURT: All right. The objection is sustained.

3 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

4 Q. Okay. At some point, sir, you went to the bridge?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. From the parking area; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. And a lot of people went to the bridge from the 9 parking area?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. Were they running or were they walking or how were 12 they getting there?

13 A. Mixture of both.

14 Q. Mixture of both. Okay.

15 All right.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 9a.

17 Go to 17 seconds, please.

18 Okay. Stop. You can stop right there.

19 (Screenshot published.)

20 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

21 Q. Now, when you were -- this is Flynn's video. You were 22 with him at this point; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. So you saw these people (indicating) over here;
25 correct? Under -- they weren't under the -- they were beyond

1 the southbound bridge; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And you saw -- were you able to identify what this 4 gentleman was carrying (indicating)?

5 A. Not at the time. I was standing some hundred yards away.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 26 seconds. Keep 8 going. Keep going. Keep going.

9 Stop.

10 (Screenshot published.)

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. Okay. Now, you see these people here (indicating) on 13 this -- would be the northbound bridge; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. But there's nobody sort of down in this area
16 (indicating); correct?

17 A. There doesn't seem to be.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to video 10, please.
19 Go to 1:51, please, Brian.

20 Stop right there.

21 (Screenshot published.)

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Okay. Were you -- Mr. Ellis, were you able to see these 24 gentlemen (indicating) beyond the southbound bridge when you
25 were in the wash?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Wait. When I was in the southbound?

4 Q. No. When you were in the wash.

5 A. When I was in the wash?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. I believe that at the time that I went into the wash they 8 were clearing out.

9 Q. Okay. Were you able to see these people, though?

10 MR. MYHRE: At what point in time, Your Honor?
11 Foundation as to time.

12 THE COURT: Time?

13 MR. MYHRE: Or Mr. Ellis' location.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Well, this video indicates -- I don't -- these videos,
16 were these stamped videos?

17 A. Yes, they were.

18 Q. Okay. How would I get -- how would I know what time this 19 was on your time stamped video?

20 A. It's included in the metadata, the EXIF data.

21 Q. Okay. So it's not stamped on the video itself?

22 A. It's embedded in the file.

23 Q. Okay.

24 THE COURT: Your question is, is it visible?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Is it visible. Yeah. Sorry.

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. It's not visible?

3 A. Not currently, no.

4 Q. Okay. So we'd have no way of knowing what time this was
5 at, other than by the sequence of the videos; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. Would it help if I played it back a little bit to 8 get you oriented on what time this would be?

9 A. Sure.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could just back up a
11 little bit.

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, I think the Government's 13 objection was as to foundation as to where Mr. Ellis was at the 14 time that this was taken, not necessarily what time of day it
15 was.

16 THE COURT: Right. But I think that he couldn't 17 answer that because we were zoomed in too close, so 18 Mr. Leventhal was going to rewind it a bit to get some 19 perspective?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Back up. Yes.

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. Does this help you get some perspective as to the time or 23 do you want me to back up a little more?

24 A. Yes. I believe I know when this is.

25 Q. Okay. When was this?

1 A. This was while I was standing on the northbound bridge.

2 Q. On the northbound bridge. Okay. So, this would have
3 been -- you would be standing next to Mr. Flynn then; correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Because this is a shot taken from the northbound bridge;
6 correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. All right.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go forward. And if we can 10 go back up to 1:51.

11 Okay. Stop.

12 (Screenshot published.)

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. So you were able to see these gentlemen here (indicating)?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Does it look like these gentlemen here are pointing
17 any rifles or anything?

18 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Again --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm asking from the video.

20 MR. MYHRE: -- relevance, and it goes to the pretrial
21 matters that we've discussed.

22 THE COURT: Again, are you asking him whether he can
23 see in this video right now that's blown up on the movie screen
24 what's on it, or if he could see when he was on the bridge?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'd like -- what he saw on the

1 bridge.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Then ask him if he -- from his
3 vantage point of the bridge, if he could see.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Were you able to see these individuals on the bridge?

6 A. I could see them, yes.

7 Q. Okay. And you were able to see them pointing their 8 weapons?

9 A. I could not --

10 MR. MYHRE: Objection, Your Honor. Again, assumes
11 facts not evidence.

12 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

13 THE WITNESS: From where I was standing, I couldn't 14 tell. It was too far to see them clearly.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 2:20, Brian.

18 (Screenshot published.)

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Again, we just went forward a few seconds; correct,
21 Mr. Ellis?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Okay. And you -- you -- you recognize this picture or 24 these people in the wash; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to Number 12, Brian, and
3 go to 15 seconds.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Now, Mr. Flynn, when these were shown to you, 5, 6, 7, 8,
6 9, Government's exhibit, these are all done in sequential
7 order; correct?

8 A. Apologies. I'm not -- I'm not Mr. Flynn.

9 Q. I -- I apologize, Mr. Ellis. I'm sorry.

10 These were not done in sequential -- these were done
11 in sequential order; correct?

12 A. The videos?

13 Q. Yes.

14 A. Were taken in sequential order.

15 Q. Yes, but they were -- so, but when they were shown to you
16 as 5, 6, 7, they brought -- the Government brought them into 17 you, they were also shown in sequential order?

18 A. If I remember correctly, yes.

19 Q. Okay. Very good.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go further on then to 21 Number 12 and go to 15 seconds. Can you go -- play that,
22 please.

23 (Exhibit 12 published.)

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there. Stop,
25 Brian.

1 (Screenshot published.)

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Mr. -- Mr. Flynn asked you to take a note. Was that to
4 you?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And I believe he said, "Take a note for what 7 they're saying"; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. And who was he referring to?

10 A. The agents on the other side of the gate.

11 Q. Okay. And why was he asking that?

12 A. So that we could report it.

13 Q. Okay. Were you able to hear what the agents were saying?

14 A. Vaguely, yes.

15 Q. Okay. Why -- do you know why that is?

16 A. Why what?

17 Q. Why -- why vaguely you could hear what they were saying?

18 A. There was lots of yelling and commotion and noise from the 19 crowd that made it difficult to understand exactly what they 20 were saying.

21 Q. Okay. Now, this is on -- were they speaking just like --
22 were they speaking just out loud or were they on a blow -- like 23 some kind of a microphone or --

24 A. Yes. It sounded like they were speaking through a
25 megaphone.

1 Q. Okay. And the megaphone was not clear?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we go to 23 seconds, just briefly.
5 Right -- just go right in front.

6 Okay. Stop right there.

7 (Screenshot published.)

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Now, at this moment in time we have all these people here
10 (indicating) in front of the BLM; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. And there's -- you can't see anybody up on this 13 bridge (indicating); correct? Underneath the southbound?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. You can't see anybody here (indicating) underneath the 16 southbound bridge on the -- what is that, the south side;
17 correct?

18 A. That would be the east side and yes -- or the west side
19 and that is correct.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. And at 46 seconds, Brian.
22 46.

23 Okay. Stop right there.

24 (Screenshot published.)

25 ///

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Now, you were able to see all these -- sort of what we
3 call the horsemen in the wash; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Did you see any of the horsemen while you were there point
6 their guns or a gun at the officers on the other side?

7 A. No, I did not.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

9 I have nothing further. Thank you.

10 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien, Your Honor.

11 MR. TANASI: Nothing further, Your Honor, from 12 Mr. Stewart.

13 THE COURT: Anybody else? No?

14 All right. Any redirect?

15 MR. MYHRE: Court's indulgence.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 (Counsel conferring.)

18 MR. MYHRE: Thank you, Your Honor. No redirect.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, we're going to --

21 THE COURT: We do have jury questions so, let's go
22 ahead and give them a minute to write those down. Remember,
23 write them down on your forms. Don't give me your name or your 24 initials, your signature, your jury number, just write down the 25 question. Take your time and write neatly so we can read the

1 question.

2 Try not to use the pronoun so we know who you're
3 referring to.

4 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

6 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

7 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 33 has two
8 questions. The first one is, "When you heard about the rally,
9 did you go just to see it or to be a part of it?"

10 Any objection to that?

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection on behalf of the 12 defense.

13 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

14 MR. MYHRE: Same objection, Your Honor, as before, as 15 to why he went.

16 Could you repeat the question again, Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes. "When you heard about the rally,
18 did you go just to see it or to be a part of it?"

19 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

20 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: And we may be stuck with the answer
22 of him with -- having his bias against the Bundys. I don't
23 know. He clearly does.

24 MR. MYHRE: I think as asked, it gives the two 25 alternatives and as long as he's not asked open-ended why he

1 went, to be part of it or . . .

2 THE COURT: All right. And then the second part of
3 the jury note is, "Why did you film it?"

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Film it?

5 MR. MYHRE: Or why did Mr. Flynn film it?

6 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

7 MR. MYHRE: No objection to the second part.

8 THE COURT: Any objection?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

10 MR. MARCHESE: No.

11 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Question No. 34 is,
12 "You testified that you" . . . you well -- we were -- no -- you
13 testified that you -- we 17 -- oh, were.

14 So, "You testified that you were 17 when this 15 occurred. Was this the first time you encountered large 16 numbers of people, some with weapons? Did this impact your 17 perceptions of what was happening?"

18 Any objection to that question?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry. No objection.

21 THE COURT: Anyone else?

22 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. The second part of Jury Note
24 No. 34 asks, "Did Mr. Flynn's attitude and emotion affect your 25 perception of what was happening?"

1 Any objection?

2 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

3 MR. MYHRE: None from the Government, Your Honor.

4 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

5 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 35, "In Government's 6 Exhibit 11, Mr. Flynn could be heard to say 'hit the dirt if 7 they start firing.' What was feeling of the situation at the 8 time for your well-being?"

9 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

10 MR. TANASI: No objection.

11 THE COURT: All right. So I'll -- he can say what 12 his feeling of -- was of the situation at that time.

13 MR. MYHRE: Well, we've taken the position,
14 Your Honor, that his -- the feelings -- his feelings are not 15 relevant as to these defendants. I can understand why the 16 question is being asked and concerned we're starting down a
17 slippery slope.

18 MR. TANASI: The other part of it's not necessarily 19 clear who "they" is, unless I misunderstood the question.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. And the jury is not asking for 21 clarification of who "they" is. They're -- the jury question
22 is as to "what was feeling of the situation at the time for 23 your well-being?"

24 So I'm not sure if they're asking if it's the feeling
25 of Mr. Flynn or the witness' feeling of his own well-being.

1 MR. MYHRE: Or whether he was worried for Mr. Flynn I
2 guess is . . .

3 THE COURT: Well, but it's for "your well-being." So
4 it's asking for his own perception of his well-being. I don't
5 see that that's -- how would that be objectionable. I don't 6 think it is.

7 You say "slippery slope," but I don't think this
8 question in and of itself --

9 MR. MYHRE: For that moment in time? Well, we -- may 10 I have just a moment, Your Honor?

11 (Counsel conferring.)

12 MR. MYHRE: Your Honor, our same objection stands as 13 to what we've been talking about before with respect to 14 eliciting state of mind of third parties. But if it's as to 15 his --

16 THE COURT: But it's his own state of mind.

17 MR. MYHRE: Right. If it's -- concern just is 18 whether he felt afraid and is cabin to that, I guess we would 19 be -- we're okay with that narrow sort of question.

20 THE COURT: Agreed. He can testify about his own
21 state of mind.

22 All right. Any objection from the defense?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

24 MR. MARCHESE: No.

25 THE COURT: All right. And Jury Note No. 36, "Did

1 you at any time feel that those non-BLM individuals carrying
2 firearms would fire their weapons if their protest demands were
3 not met?"

4 MR. MYHRE: We would clearly object to that,
5 Your Honor.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, we would -- yeah.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think we all object to that.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And then it says, "Note for all.
9 Because there are so many references and photo angles of the 10 bridges, it would be helpful if the attorneys would label the 11 bridges with an 'S' or an 'N' during their video presentations.
12 Precludes confusion when the red arrows are added.
13 Additionally, when attorneys reference 'the bridge,' please ask
14 them to specify north bridge or southbound bridge."

15 I think that's a critique for me. I'll accept that 16 critique and try to do better.

17 MR. TANASI: I'll accept mine, too.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'll accept my arrows.

19 THE COURT: All right. So, it sounds like everyone's
20 in agreement not to ask this question?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. Okay. Thank you.

22 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

23 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

24 THE COURT: All right. So I'm going to read these 25 jury questions, Mr. Ellis, into the record, but when you answer

1 the question, you can go ahead and turn and face the jury
2 because these are not really my questions, they're the jury's
3 questions.

4 So Jury Note No. 33 has two questions. The first one
5 is, "When you heard about the rally, did you go just to see it
6 or to be part of it?"

7 THE WITNESS: I went just to see it and take
8 pictures.

9 THE COURT: And the second question is, "And why did
10 you film it?"

11 THE WITNESS: Uh . . . I did not film it. Mr. Flynn
12 was the one doing the filming and that was because he was a
13 reporter.

14 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 34 asks, "You
15 testified that you were 17 when this occurred. Was this the 16 first time you encountered large numbers of people, some with 17 weapons and did this impact your perception of what was 18 happening?"

19 THE WITNESS: Was not the first time I had 20 encountered large numbers of people, certainly not with 21 weapons. I've been to shooting ranges and gun shows and the 22 likes before, but I would say that in this situation it would
23 have been a little different.

24 THE COURT: And then the last part of the Jury Note
25 No. 34 is, "Did Mr. Flynn's attitude and emotions affect your

1 perception of what was happening?"

2 THE WITNESS: Perhaps. I think we both felt about
3 the same, though.

4 THE COURT: All right. And then Jury Note No. 35,
5 "In Government's Exhibit No. 11, Mr. Flynn could be heard to 6 say 'hit the dirt if they start firing.'" So, the question is,
7 "What was your feeling of the situation at that time for your 8 well-being?"

9 So, was there -- did you have a concern about your 10 well-being at that time?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. I was also, at the time,
12 concerned that there may be some gunfire from either side.

13 THE COURT: And then the last jury note, everybody
14 unanimously agreed we can't ask the first part of the question.
15 The second part of the question is actually a note for everyone
16 and it is a great reminder. When we refer to "the bridge," to 17 help the jury by either labeling it on the visuals with an "S"
18 and an "N" to clarify whether it's the southbound bridge or the 19 northbound bridge, especially on those close-ups when they're 20 just standing on the bridge and so, the jury doesn't know which 21 bridge it is that they're on. And likewise, for me, I will try 22 to remember to remind everyone, the attorneys, to also refer to 23 either the north or the southbound bridge instead of just "the 24 bridge," since there's not just the bridge, there's two 25 bridges. It's a good reminder. Thank you very much.

1 Any follow-up questions for our witness by the
2 Government?

3 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And any follow-up questions from the
5 defense?

6 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. We would just like
8 Mr. Ellis to remain under subpoena.

9 MR. MARCHESE: May I briefly?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 MR. MARCHESE: It's follow-up. It's not beyond the 12 scope.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14

15 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEX ELLIS

16 BY MR. MARCHESE:

17 Q. All right. Just a quick clarification. You were asked a
18 question from the judge in reference to if Mr. Flynn's emotions
19 affected yours. Do you remember that? And you said something
20 to the effect of it was the same.

21 Do you remember answering that shortly ago?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. And when you say "the same," what did you mean by
24 that?

25 A. We both had some slight fears about what might happen.

1 Q. Okay. Thank you.

2 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions.

3 THE COURT: Anyone else?

4 On behalf of Lovelien?

5 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Any -- Government, any other
7 redirect?

8 MR. MYHRE: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 So thank you, Mr. Ellis. You are excused from the 11 Government's subpoena but you are still on standby for the 12 defendants, all right?

13 THE WITNESS: Okay.

14 THE COURT: You can go ahead and go to lunch and just 15 be careful on the way down the steps there. Okay?

16 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Thank you for coming.

18 (Witness excused.)

19 THE COURT: So, it is 11:47. Why don't we go ahead
20 and break for lunch rather than try to get started with only 21 five minutes or so of someone else's testimony, but we will 22 start with another witness after lunch, right?

23 MR. MYHRE: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So during this lunch break I
25 do remind the jury that you are not to discuss this case with

1 anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it with you. You may speak
2 to your fellow jurors about other things, just not about this
3 case.

4 Do not read or listen to or view anything that
5 touches upon this case in any way and please do not perform any
6 research or any independent investigation regarding anything
7 that concerns this case.

8 Please go ahead and keep writing down your questions
9 whether they're related to a witness or just something in 10 general. We want to know what your questions are so that we 11 can help you as much as we can, and please do not form any 12 opinion about the case until after you have heard all the 13 testimony, reviewed all the evidence, been provided with the 14 jury instructions of law, then you will hear closing arguments.
15 After all that, I will excuse you to begin your deliberations.
16 Then you may start to form your opinions and discuss them with 17 each other.

18 So we'll stand for the jury. It's 11:50. We'll plan
19 to be back here at 1 o'clock.

20 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

22 (Recess was taken at 11:49 a.m.)

23 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

25 Can we go ahead and call in the jury?

1 Let's go ahead and do that.

2 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

3 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

5 (Jury returned to courtroom at 1:36 p.m.)

6 THE COURT: Jurors can go ahead and be seated,
7 everyone else as well.

8 Good afternoon. Welcome back. We're going to resume
9 now with another Government witness.

10 So, the Government may call its next witness.

11 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 The United States calls Mr. Trey Schillie.

13

14

15 TREY SCHILLIE,
16 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
17 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

17

18 THE COURT: Good afternoon, sir. Come on in. We're
19 going to have you seated over here (indicating) to my right.
20 Please be careful with the steps on the way up and please
21 remain standing so we can have you sworn in.

22

24

25

 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please raise your right
hand.

 You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall give in the cause now before this Court shall be the truth, the

1 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes.

3 THE CLERK: Thank you, sir. You may be seated.

4 Please state your full name for the record and spell
5 your last name.

6 THE WITNESS: Trey Schillie, S-c-h-i-l-l-i-e.

7

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Schillie.

11 A. Good afternoon.

12 Q. On April 12th, 2014, were you traveling through the 13 Bunkerville area?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And where were you going, generally? What was your route
16 of travel?

17 A. From Las Vegas to Denver on Interstate 15.

18 Q. Were you traveling northbound on Interstate 15?

19 A. I believe it -- I -- I don't know what the orientation is 20 there. Generally, east.

21 Q. Was it in the northbound lanes, at least as they were 22 labeled?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now, at the time of April 12th, 2014, where did you work?

25 A. U.S. Forest Service.

1 Q. And was the trip that you were taking that caused you to
2 travel through the Bunkerville area related to your work in any
3 way?

4 A. No.

5 Q. And at the time that you were on northbound 15, were you
6 working?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Now, while you were traveling in the Bunkerville area on 9 Interstate 15, did anything happen to affect your travel?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what was that, generally?

12 A. Traffic jam. Appeared to be a traffic jam as we 13 approached the scene.

14 Q. Can you tell the jury what it was that you first saw when 15 you approached it?

16 A. I just -- cars just generally backed up on the highway.
17 Appeared to be kind of a normal traffic jam like you would 18 associate with a car accident or something like that.

19 Q. Did you continue to make your way down the Interstate 15?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And did you see, in addition to the traffic on the 22 roadway, anything else then?

23 A. Yes. As we approached the scene, cars were pulled off the 24 side of the highway.

25 Q. Did you see, in addition to cars, people on foot?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Did you see anything in addition to cars?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And what was that?

6 A. People outside of the cars.

7 Q. And what did they appear to be doing?

8 A. Just standing around. Looked like they were potentially 9 gathering for the protest.

10 Q. Did you continue in your vehicle at that time or did you
11 do something else?

12 A. Slowly, continued slowly as traffic -- traffic was slowing
13 down.

14 Q. And then did you pass through the area or did you do
15 something else?

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I've given him alternatives.
18 I'm not --

19 THE COURT: Is this foundational?

20 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Overruled. He may answer the question.

22 THE WITNESS: We continued passing through the area.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Then at some point did you change what you were doing as 25 you were driving or did you just continue on?

1 A. Continued driving.

2 Q. Did you pull over at any point?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And what did you do then?

5 A. Pulled over and got out of the vehicle.

6 Q. And at what point -- in relation to the crowd of vehicles
7 and people, at what point did you pull over?

8 A. After. After we crossed the bridge.

9 Q. And when you say "the bridge," can you explain to the jury
10 what you're talking about?

11 A. The bridge that was the scene of the event on the 12 interstate.

13 THE COURT: Which direction were you going?

14 Were you going to Las Vegas or from Las Vegas?

15 THE WITNESS: From Las Vegas to Denver.

16 THE COURT: All right. So, would that be northbound
17 then from Vegas to Denver?

18 THE WITNESS: I don't know what the orientation. I
19 think it is northbound.

20 THE COURT: I realize that it's not a straight line.

21 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: So I'm not asking you the orientation in 23 relation to everything else that's happening at the traffic
24 jam. There's just two bridges and for the jury, it's easier
25 for them to know if we're talking about -- we're calling the

1 one that leaves Las Vegas the northbound bridge and the one
2 that arrives in Las Vegas the southbound bridge.

3 THE WITNESS: The northbound.

4 THE COURT: You're right. They don't run north/south
5 the entire way.

6 THE WITNESS: So it would be the northbound bridge.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. And again, just to be clear, where -- so, where did you
10 actually pull over, your vehicle?

11 A. The far end of the northbound bridge.

12 Q. And what did you do once you pulled over?

13 A. Exited the vehicle.

14 Q. And then what did you do?

15 A. We walked back onto the bridge.

16 Q. And what did you do once you had actually walked on to the 17 bridge?

18 A. Just noticed other people on the bridge. Noticed the 19 gathering of people underneath the bridge and in an area, I
20 think it's called the wash, under the bridge.

21 Q. And can you describe to the jury what it was you saw in
22 the wash?

23 A. Sure. Just a gathering of people that were obviously 24 protestors for the event.

25 Q. And did you see anything else in the wash?

1 A. People. Some people on horseback. Some people on ATVs,
2 and then at -- and then further up -- up the wash there was a
3 fence that had BLM law enforcement officers on the other side
4 of the fence.

5 Q. And in addition to making these observations, did you do
6 anything else or were you simply looking around?

7 A. Just took pictures. Took pictures of the scene.

8 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may I publish to the 9 witness and counsel what's been marked for identification as 10 Government Exhibits 148 through 153?

11 THE COURT: 148 through 153?

12 MS. AHMED: That's correct, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. And Mr. Schillie, there's a screen to your right --

16 THE COURT: Maybe we can save you some time. Is 17 there going to be any objection to 148 through 153?

18 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

19 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: None from Drexler.

21 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

22 THE COURT: All right. So let's -- are you going
23 to --

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I move to then admit
25 those same exhibits?

1 THE COURT: Yes, you may. So, Exhibit 148 through
2 153 will be admitted.

3 (Exhibits 148 through 153 admitted.)

4 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: You may publish those to the jury.

6 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 So, can we start with 148, please?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 (Exhibit 148 published.)

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. Mr. Schillie, can you just explain to the jury what is 12 depicted in Exhibit 148?

13 A. So this is the bridge that we're calling north --
14 northbound bridge. You can see cars parked along the shoulder
15 as well as traffic backed up. A few pedestrians --

16 Q. Is this generally the area that you had parked in when you
17 stopped and got out of your vehicle?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. AHMED: And may we move on to Exhibit 149?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Exhibit 149 published.)

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. And Mr. Schillie, can you explain to the jury what you've 24 photographed here?

25 A. Sure. This is looking down from the bridge into the wash

1 area. Crowd of protestors, and then you can see the fence and
2 underneath the other bridge with the law enforcement vehicles
3 on the other side of the fence.

4 Q. Now --

5 THE COURT: Is this view then still from the 6 northbound bridge or a different bridge?

7 THE WITNESS: Northbound bridge.

8 THE COURT: Did you ever take any pictures from the
9 southbound bridge?

10 THE WITNESS: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And --

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. So, in this picture you indicated that further up where 17 I'm circling (indicating), is that where you're indicating you
18 saw the law enforcement vehicles?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And can you explain what this was (indicating)?

21 A. Yeah. It appeared to be a fence separating law
22 enforcement vehicles from the protestors.

23 MS. AHMED: And can we move to Exhibit 149, please --
24 oh, excuse me -- 150, please.

25 (Exhibit 150 published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. At some point did you see the people that were in the wash
3 change their position in any way?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And in what -- how did they change their position?

6 A. I described it as gradually moving closer to the fence.

7 Q. And can you explain to the jury what then is depicted in
8 Exhibit 150?

9 A. So this would be a little bit of a later shot. You can
10 kind of see the progression. The crowd has moved up the wash
11 toward the fence.

12 Q. And while you were observing these events, did you see any 13 of the vehicles on the other side of that fence move forward in 14 any way?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 MS. AHMED: Can we move to Exhibit 151?

17 (Exhibit 151 published.)

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now, Mr. Schillie, can you explain to the jury what 20 they're seeing in Exhibit 151?

21 A. Sure. This is just a picture of the crowd. Obviously on 22 the -- person in the center of the picture caught our 23 attention, caught my attention, so I took a picture.

24 Q. And can you circle the person that caught your attention?

25 A. (Witness complies).

1 Q. And where is this person -- well, first of all, what did
2 you observe him doing?

3 A. Lying on the ground and pointing a rifle.

4 Q. And where was his rifle pointed?

5 MR. TANASI: Objection. Speculation.

6 THE COURT: Do you want to --

7 MS. AHMED: He's describing his observations.

8 THE COURT: -- clarify -- clarify your question.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Where did you observe his rifle to be pointing?

11 A. Pointing up the wash.

12 Q. And where -- looking at Exhibit 151, could you see his 13 whole rifle when you were looking at him?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Where was the tip of his rifle, so to speak?

16 A. It's kind of between the Jersey barriers or whatever the 17 name for those concrete structures are.

18 Q. And I'm going to clear the circle you've drawn around the 19 person laying down and when you say the "concrete structure,"
20 are you talking about what I've just marked on the screen?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And was there a gap between the pieces of the concrete?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And is that where his rifle was?

25 A. Yes.

1 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Asked and answered.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now, did you observe -- once you noticed this man laying
4 on the freeway, what, if anything, did you do in relation to 5 him, other than take this photograph?

6 Did you continue to observe him for a few minutes or
7 did you do something else?

8 A. Continued for a few minutes.

9 Q. And while you were observing him, to the extent you
10 observed this, where was he looking? Where did he appear to be 11 looking?

12 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Speculation.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Based on your observations only.

15 A. Appeared to be looking down the rifle down into the wash.

16 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we move to Exhibit 152?

17 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

18 (Exhibit 152 published.)

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. And, Mr. Schillie, can you explain to the jury what you
21 were capturing in this photograph?

22 A. Yes. Similar to the previous photograph, the subject as 23 well as somebody talking to the subject, a blue -- in the blue
24 shirt.

25 Q. When you say "the subject," are you referring to that same

1 man laying on the freeway?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And while that person appeared to be talking to him, based 4 on your observations, where was he looking?

5 A. The same direction. Appeared to me to be down the rifle
6 into the wash.

7 Q. And while you were in this position, this is on the
8 northbound bridge; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And did you observe anybody other than this individual who 11 caught your attention?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what did -- what was it that you observed?

14 A. Appeared to be someone just beyond this individual in -- 15 kind of behaving in a similar manner.

16 Q. And what did you observe that that person was doing?

17 A. I observed him crouching against the barrier.

18 Q. And did he have anything with him or was he just 19 crouching?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. And do you see that person in this picture?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And can you circle for the jury, to draw the jury's
24 attention to it, where you saw that person?

25 A. Yes. And it's actually just a foot, I think, I see here.

1 (Witness complies).

2 Q. So in the photograph you've circled the foot of somebody
3 that's in the upper center portion of the screen; is that
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. At the time that you were on the bridge, did you -- were 7 you actually able to observe more than just a foot of that
8 person or was that all that you could see?

9 A. I could -- I observed more.

10 MS. AHMED: And can I advance to Exhibit 153, please?

11 (Exhibit 153 published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And can you explain to the jury what is depicted in
14 Exhibit 153?

15 A. Yes. Similar -- similar direction on the bridge. In this 16 picture you can see both individuals.

17 Q. And can you circle the two people that you're talking
18 about?

19 A. (Witness complies).

20 Q. Now, with respect to the person that appears to be 21 kneeling, he's further back in -- from your vantage point;
22 correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Could you see whether he had any -- any items with him at 25 all?

1 A. Could you clarify?

2 Q. Did you see whether or not he actually had any firearms
3 with him?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. And then, with respect to the person that you've circled
6 in the foreground, who's -- was he continuing to lay down on 7 the freeway?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And based on your observations, where did he appear to be
10 looking?

11 A. He appeared to be looking through the concrete barriers in 12 the direction of the protest into the wash.

13 Q. And generally, where -- what was the direction that his 14 firearm was pointing?

15 A. Perpendicular to the northbound lane. I -- I thought it
16 was north before this, but I'm not sure of the direction,
17 so . . . generally toward where the fence is and the -- and BLM
18 law enforcement.

19 Q. Seeing this man's position, did you have concern for the 20 safety of the law enforcement officers?

21 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Relevance.

22 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

24 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

25 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's directly relevant to the

1 threats charge the Government has charged and the jury has to
2 consider, which is that somebody observed and perceived that
3 person's position to be a threat to law enforcement. It
4 doesn't have to be law enforcement that observes it, but 5 anybody can observe that threat and perceive it to be a threat.

6 THE COURT: Objection's overruled. The witness may
7 answer the question.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. And just so the jury, to the extent -- to make sure we're 11 all on the same page. So, seeing this person's position, did
12 you have any concern, based on what he was doing, for the law
13 enforcement officers in the wash?

14 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Asked and answered.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 THE COURT: He's clarifying it because you objected
17 the first time that she asked the question and so, the jury
18 hasn't heard the question and the answer together at the same
19 time.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Now --

22 THE COURT: Go ahead and restate the question again,
23 Ms. Ahmed, so the witness can answer it.

24 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

25 ///

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. So, based on what you observed this man doing, laying in 3 the freeway had his rifle pointed through the gap in the 4 concrete, were his actions -- did they cause you to have
5 concern for the safety of the law enforcement officers that
6 were in the wash?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Now, what -- what, if anything, did you do from this point
9 onward, after taking this photograph?

10 A. I believe -- I believe I was on the bridge three or four 11 minutes after this photograph and then I proceeded back to my 12 vehicle en route to Denver.

13 Q. At some point after April 12th, 2014, did you meet with 14 the FBI regarding this event?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And in doing so, did you provide them with the photographs
17 you had taken on April 12th, 2014?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And along with the photographs, did you give them
20 anything -- well, how did you give the photographs to the FBI?

21 A. Copied them onto a CD and gave the CD to the FBI.

22 Q. And did -- in addition to the actual image, did you give
23 the -- in burning it to the CD, did you give the FBI metadata
24 that was associated with those pictures?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And can you just explain, generally, what that would
2 include to the jury?

3 A. Time/date stamp, file size, file format.

4 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may I have the Court's
5 indulgence?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 (Counsel conferring.)

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we bring up Exhibit 153
9 again?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 (Exhibit 153 published.)

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. Now, Mr. Schillie, in this -- when you were taking this 14 photograph, what direction were you looking? Are you looking 15 back toward the direction of Las Vegas on the Interstate 15 or 16 in the other direction?

17 A. Toward Las Vegas.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, no further questions. Thank
19 you. I'll pass the witness.

20 THE COURT: Cross for Mr. Parker?

21 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

22

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

24 BY MR. MARCHESE:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Schillie.

1 So, April the 12th, 2014, you testified that you were
2 leaving from Las Vegas with Denver, Colorado being your
3 destination; is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And generally speaking -- obviously it goes in a
6 serpentine fashion -- it's the northbound direction that you
7 would going on the 15 freeway; is that right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. At some point in time you hit a traffic snag or 10 traffic slowdown somewhat?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. And then you pull over to the side of the 13 road; correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And I believe you were with a gentleman named Mr. Tu who 16 was a co-worker, I believe?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And the two of you, you pulled over to the side of the 19 road and then you took a series of pictures that Ms. Ahmed just 20 went over with you on direct examination; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Now, those pictures, as they were taken, they were
23 admitted in a chronological order as Exhibits 148 through 153.
24 Is that -- is that a correct statement of your recollection?

25 A. I'd have to see the photos again, but generally they

1 looked to be in chronological order.

2 Q. Okay.

3 MR. MARCHESE: And Brian, if we can get Exhibit 148
4 up, please.

5 (Exhibit 148 published.)

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Okay, sir. Mr. Schillie, would this be the first picture
8 that you took on that day?

9 A. No.

10 Q. It is not the first picture?

11 A. The question was the first picture I took on that day?

12 Q. Yes.

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. Is that the first picture that was taken that was 15 admitted into evidence on that day?

16 THE COURT: I think maybe he's referring to earlier
17 in the day, not on the bridge, somewhere else.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Right.

19 THE COURT: He's a tourist visiting here, so . . .

20 BY MR. MARCHESE:

21 Q. Out of the exhibits that were admitted, is this the first
22 picture chronologically that was taken?

23 A. Out of the exhibits I've seen today it's the first
24 picture.

25 Q. Okay. Now, is this in the general vicinity of where you

1 parked?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Is your car depicted in this or is it behind where the 4 picture would be taken?

5 A. Behind.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. MARCHESE: And Brian, if we can expand in the 8 middle here.

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Okay. And if you see this white sedan there in the middle 11 with some sort of a gray, black, compact car, do you see that 12 in the middle of the screen there?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Now, I'm going to circle, in the middle here
15 (indicating), and do you see that circle?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And standing up, is that the individual that you later see
18 prone on the bridge? Appears that he has a black hat, a little 19 bit difficult to see, but maybe a red shirt and some sort of a
20 black vest?

21 A. I -- I can't conclude that.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, can you make it bigger?

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Okay, sir. I'm going to circle it once again
25 (indicating). And I made it larger for you at that -- at this

1 point. Is that a little bit easier for you to see?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And would you agree with me that that's that same
4 individual that you see and you spoke about on direct
5 examination being prone on the bridge?

6 A. It appears to be.

7 Q. Okay. And at this point it appears that the traffic might
8 be somewhat slowed down.

9 Is that fair to say?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And then you cross the street at some point; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. How much after, if you remember, approximately,
14 after you took this picture did you cross the street?

15 A. Within two or three minutes.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. Four minutes.

18 Q. So you cross the street. And then . . . If we can move
19 to the next one, Brian, which I believe is 149.

20 (Exhibit 149 published.)

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. Now, Exhibit 149, this is a picture of the wash as 23 we've established; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And to your recollection, it was taken chronologically

1 after the last picture that we saw on the bridge; is that
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And at this point you see some people gathering in 5 the wash; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. I believe on direct examination you referred to them as 8 protestors; is that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. MARCHESE: And if we can go to Exhibit 150,
12 Brian, please.

13 (Exhibit 150 published.)

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Okay, sir. Now, this particular picture, this is a
16 picture taken from the same vantage point as the last exhibit,
17 Exhibit 149.

18 Is that a fair statement?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. The main difference is, is that the crowd has 21 advanced more towards that gate right in here (indicating). Is 22 that an accurate statement?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And -- okay. We're going to now move on to 151,
25 Brian.

1 (Exhibit 151 published.)

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Okay. Now, Exhibit 151, that's taken after Exhibit 150
4 where the protestors had moved towards the gate.

5 Is that an accurate statement?

6 A. I believe so.

7 Q. Okay. Do you remember if you moved when you took the 8 picture that was -- the protestors at the gate and when you
9 took this picture, or was it the same area?

10 A. The same general area.

11 Q. Okay. Maybe a few steps, but for the most part the same
12 area?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Now, in this picture we have a -- some sort of a 15 burgundy Chevrolet SUV right here (indicating); is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And then behind it we have some sort of a white
19 pickup. It appears to be pulling something where I've just 20 placed the X (indicating), and then we have a -- I believe it's 21 a Dodge truck and then some sort of a green-colored
22 tractor-trailer.

23 Is that fair to say?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And we have the individual that we've spoken about

1 with the plaid shirt. Appears to have some sort of rifle in
2 his right hand; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And his finger, it is not on the trigger in this
5 particular picture.

6 Is that an accurate statement?

7 A. I believe so.

8 Q. Okay. And I believe -- it looks like he's flanked by two 9 women; one to his right has some sort of a black, white, and 10 pink shirt on; is that correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And she believes -- it looks like she's kneeling down or 13 bending down it looks like?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And then to his left it appears is some lady with a pen
16 and paper in her right hand; is that correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And correct me if I'm wrong, I believe you had 19 testified on direct examination she may be interviewing him or 20 something like that?

21 A. That -- that's what it appeared to me --

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. -- to be.

24 Q. And we also have another individual to this interviewer,
25 to her right, who's somewhat bent over a little bit; right?

1 With the circle there (indicating) in the black/gray hat there?

2 A. Can you repeat the question?

3 Q. He's somewhat bent over, the individual is?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. Maybe he has a -- looks like he might have a camera
6 in his hand, it appears?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Now, I'd like to move to Exhibit 152,
10 please, Brian.

11 (Exhibit 152 published.)

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. Okay. Now, Exhibit 152, would you agree with me that this 14 is taken very shortly after the last exhibit?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And that is because we -- we now -- we still have 17 this white pickup that appears to be pulling something in the 18 frame; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. But the difference is now the Chevrolet, the burgundy SUV
21 is not in the frame; correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Okay. And in this particular picture, once again, the 24 individual that is proned in the plaid shirt, his right index
25 finger is not on the trigger of the rifle; is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And it appears that this lady, the interviewer I'm
3 circling (indicating), it appears she got down even more. Now
4 she's 100 percent on the ground. Is that so?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And this man (indicating) who was -- he was previously --
7 in the last frame he was bent over a little bit, now he's 8 fully, it appears, on his knees; is that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And these two ladies (indicating), in the last frame, they 11 were closer to you and now they have advanced forward somewhat;
12 is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MR. MARCHESE: And lastly, Brian, could we go to 153.

16 (Exhibit 153 published.)

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Okay. Now, and this frame, once again, this is taken
19 after the last frame; correct? The last exhibit, 152?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And one of the reasons we know that is because now
22 the white pickup pulling something is out of the frame and now
23 we only see the gray Dodge and the green tractor-trailer which 24 have now advanced closer into the frame; is that right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And once again, this gentleman with the plaid shirt
2 and the rifle (indicating), his right index finger is off of 3 the trigger of the vehicle, is that -- or the vehicle -- or the 4 rifle?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Now, this lady (indicating), the interviewee, or 7 interviewer -- excuse me -- she now appears to be standing up
8 or getting up out of her position on the ground; is that right?

9 A. That's what it appears, yes.

10 Q. Okay. And now this lady in the black (indicating), she 11 looks -- appears to be bending over, maybe, the Jersey barrier;
12 is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And this man (indicating) with the -- I believe we 15 established earlier he has a camera, we can't see it in here
16 but with the blue shirt and hat and the camera strap, he's --
17 it appears he's still kneeling on the ground.

18 Is that an accurate statement?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, sir. I have no further
22 questions.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Cross on behalf of Stewart?

25 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 Court's indulgence.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

4

5

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

6 BY MR. TANASI:

7 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Schillie.

8 A. Good afternoon.

9 Q. My name's Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart
10 (indicating). I have a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. You had testified on direct exam that you were 13 concerned for the safety of law enforcement officers; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Do you recall meeting with the FBI and the BLM
16 Senior Special Agent Kristof Pasquale on June 17th, 2014? Do
17 you recall that meeting?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Do you recall whether or not in that meeting you
20 indicated that you were concerned for the safety of law
21 enforcement officers? Whether or not you told Special Agent
22 Kristof Pasquale that you were concerned for the safety of law
23 enforcement officers? Do you recall that?

24 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, objection. This witness
25 didn't author the reports that Mr. Tanasi is referencing and he

1 didn't dictate the questions that he was asked and that he
2 answered that day.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, you can clarify that on 4 cross. I don't think that it -- I think the witness can answer
5 the question.

6 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the question, please?

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. Sure.

10 Do you recall whether or not you told Senior Special
11 Agent Kristof Pasquale, on June 17th, 2014, when you met with 12 him, that you were concerned for the safety of law enforcement
13 officers? Do you recall whether or not you told him that?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You don't recall. Okay. Would seeing a copy of notes
16 from that report -- or that report rather -- a report of that 17 meeting, would that help to refresh your recollection election?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right.

20 MR. TANASI: Just for the witness, Brian.

21 (Document shown to witness.)

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. Okay, sir. Do you see that report before you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. I'm going to scroll through it page by page,

1 let you read it. Let me know when your recollection is
2 refreshed, please.

3 Also let me know when I can scroll to the next page.

4 A. Oh, yes, please.

5 Q. Okay. (Counsel complies).

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. (Counsel complies).

8 A. Can you clarify what you're asking me to identify?

9 Q. Sure.

10 Do you recall whether or not you told the BLM special
11 agent when you met with him that you were concerned for the 12 safety of law enforcement officers?

13 A. So you're asking me to look for text that states that 14 concern, explicitly?

15 Q. Well, you've indicated that you don't recall and I'm 16 showing you a copy of a report from that interview to refresh
17 your recollection.

18 A. Okay. So if you scroll up about one page . . .

19 Q. (Counsel complies).

20 A. Okay. Stop there.

21 So, this report indicates that I stated that there's 22 a rifle that appeared to be pointed over the heads of --

23 Q. Sir, that wasn't my question.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. It's specifically --

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the witness is trying to
2 answer his question.

3 MR. TANASI: He's non-responsive to the question,
4 Your Honor. I'm asking, first, to refresh his recollection and
5 I haven't asked him a question as to whether or not it's 6 refreshed his recollection. The main topic that I'm asking to 7 refresh his recollection on is whether or not he noted concern
8 for the safety of law enforcement officers.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. So again, do you recall whether or not you conveyed that
12 concern for the safety of law enforcement officers to the BLM
13 when you had this interview in June of 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You recall?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And what -- what did you say?

18 A. Can I read the sentence?

19 Q. Again, did you specifically say you had concern for the 20 safety of law enforcement officers? That's my specific
21 question.

22 A. I didn't specifically say those words.

23 Q. Okay, sir. That's essentially where I was heading. Thank
24 you.

25 So you agree with me, you didn't tell law

1 enforcement, when you interviewed with them on June -- in June
2 of 2014, that you had concern for the safety of law enforcement
3 officers? You never said those words; right?

4 A. I didn't say those words.

5 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

6 And at the time of the interview you were, in fact, a
7 government employee; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. You were employed as a Regional Inventory and 10 Monitoring Coordinator for the USFS; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. Do you hold that position still today?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. So you're still, as you sit here today, a
15 government employee. Fair?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Prior to today's testimony, how many times have you
18 met with the U.S. Attorney's Office?

19 A. Three times total.

20 Q. Three times total.

21 Prior to today's testimony, how many times have you
22 met with the FBI?

23 A. I believe four times.

24 Q. Four times.

25 A. Including the three with the U.S. attorneys. I believe

1 the FBI was present there.

2 Q. Okay. Thank you, sir.

3 MR. TANASI: Pass the witness.

4 THE COURT: Any cross on behalf of Drexler or
5 Lovelien?

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Your Honor.

7

8 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Schillie. How are you?

11 A. Good afternoon.

12 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal. I represent Scott Drexler.

13 Mr. Schillie, you -- when you arrived on the 12th,
14 prior to going on the bridge -- are you with me?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. Just before the bridge --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- how long were you in traffic?

19 A. I'd say approximately 30 to 45 minutes.

20 Q. Okay. And when you got up sort of closer to the bridge,
21 were you -- did you see people parking on the right-hand side
22 of -- as you traveled that I-15?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Did you see Metro police officers on the left-hand
25 side as you were traveling on that I-15?

1 A. I saw what appeared to be some law enforcement. I'm not
2 sure if they were -- what they were associated with.

3 Q. Fair enough.

4 Law enforcement officer and they had guns?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And approximately how many law enforcement officers
7 did you see there?

8 A. Approximately 15 to 20, maybe.

9 Q. 15 to 20. Okay.

10 Now, when you first got on the bridge, were you --
11 was there anybody out there directing you in any way in a green
12 sort of a suit?

13 A. Not when we arrived.

14 Q. I'm sorry?

15 A. Not -- not when I arrived.

16 Q. Okay. So, there's no one in green directing traffic?

17 A. Not when I arrived.

18 Q. Okay. All right. Approximately how long did you stay on 19 the bridge, sir? About 10 minutes?

20 A. Approximately 10 minutes.

21 Q. 10 minutes. Okay. And that was -- and when I say "on the 22 bridge," that's you parked your car and you got out of your
23 vehicle; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And then you stayed for 10 minutes, got back in your

1 vehicle; correct?

2 A. 10 to 15 minutes.

3 Q. Okay. And then you went on to Colorado?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Okay. All right.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could pull up 149, Brian.

7 (Exhibit 149 published.)

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Okay. Now, you were -- this is one of your pictures;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And this is a picture of protestors in the wash, you
13 indicated, on direct exam; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And you were asked about that gate (indicating);
16 correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you said it separated, I believe, the two; the BLM
19 from the protestors; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. There's nobody at that gate (indicating), is there,
22 sir?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we go to 150.

1 (Exhibit 150 published.)

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. Now, the Government asked you if the position of 4 these protestors had changed; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you indicated that they had moved from sort of this
7 area (indicating), moved forward; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could you blow that up for me, Brian.

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Do you now see some people here at the gate (indicating)
12 that weren't there previously?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if you could blow it up a little 16 bit more.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. From your vantage point, were you able to see these people
19 here (indicating)?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You were? Okay.

22 This gentleman right here (indicating), do you know
23 what he's carrying?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Now, do you know if there's anybody on this -- did you see

1 anybody approach from . . . I guess I will call it the BLM side
2 towards the gate?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. So somebody from BLM came towards the gate and then
5 these people came towards the gate as well; correct?

6 A. I'm not sure of the order, but in general, yes.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 151.

9 (Exhibit 151 published.)

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. I know Mr. Marchese asked you a number of questions and 12 I'm just going to go through it again. This individual right
13 here (indicating), she has a tan hat; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. This individual (indicating), he has a black hat;
16 correct?

17 A. He has a dark hat.

18 Q. Okay. Dark? Black?

19 This individual has a tan hat (indicating); correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Okay.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go to 152, please.

23 (Exhibit 152 published.)

24 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

25 Q. Okay. So, okay. This lady (indicating) is still laying

1 down here with the tan hat; correct?

2 A. She's sitting, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And this person (indicating) is sort of kneeling
4 with a black hat; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. And this person (indicating) is still here with a
7 tan hat; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could we go to 153.

10 (Exhibit 153 published.)

11 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

12 Q. This individual here (indicating) that I'm circling in the 13 tan hat, she's apparently getting up from her seat; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So she would be now getting in view of the people -- the 16 BLM people on the other side; correct?

17 A. I don't know.

18 Q. Well, before, would they have been able to see her behind
19 that concrete?

20 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Well, she was laying down -- she was leaning down in our
24 last -- if you want me to show you -- in our last picture,
25 against the concrete; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And the BLM would have been on this side
3 (indicating); correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. She's in -- she apparently is getting up from that
6 position from being down; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. This gentleman here (indicating) with the tan hat,
9 he's actually moved further back into the lane of traffic from 10 the Jersey barrier; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Could you increase that for me,
14 Brian.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Now, you indicated that you had a concern for law
17 enforcement. True?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Do you see these two individuals here (indicating),
20 sir?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. In the green?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Were they from Nevada Highway Patrol?

25 A. I don't know.

1 Q. Okay. You drove past them; correct?

2 A. I didn't see them as we approached the bridge.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. I believe they came in after I parked.

5 Q. Okay. But, they're there now; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. They're about 20 feet from you; correct?

8 MS. AHMED: Objection. Calls for speculation.

9 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

10 Q. Approximately how many feet from you are they, sir?

11 A. In this picture, it appears to be about 50 feet.

12 Q. Okay. Did you ever go talk to them or tell them about 13 this fear you had?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You simply just got in your vehicle and went back to 16 Denver?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You didn't make any phone calls along the way to indicate
19 911 or anything of that nature?

20 A. No. Law enforcement was present.

21 Q. There's no law enforcement present?

22 A. There's law enforcement present.

23 Q. There was law enforcement present on the bridge?

24 A. There was law enforcement present on the scene.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. So at -- therefore, there would be no -- I didn't see a
2 reason to call law enforcement.

3 Q. Because -- you didn't see a reason to call law
4 enforcement?

5 A. Because they were present.

6 Q. Okay. And they were present on the bridge and before the 7 bridge; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have nothing further. Thank you.
10 Thank you, sir.

11 THE WITNESS: Yep.

12 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Redirect, Ms. Ahmed?

14 MS. AHMED: May I have the Court's indulgence,
15 Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 (Counsel conferring.)

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I do have some redirect.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead.

20 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

21

22 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Mr. Schillie, you were asked by Mr. Tanasi on 25 cross-examination about meeting with the U.S. Attorney's Office

1 and the FBI.

2 Do you recall those questions?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And in meeting -- in the various meetings that you had
5 with the U.S. Attorney's Office and the FBI, were you ever
6 asked to do anything other than tell the truth?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Now, Mr. Schillie, you were also asked by Mr. Tanasi about 9 the interview that you gave when you -- to agents when you were 10 interviewed regarding this event.

11 Do you recall that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And he specifically asked you what, if anything, you had 14 conveyed to them about your concern for the law enforcement
15 officers that were in the wash, their safety.

16 Do you remember him asking you that question?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you, I believe, were indicating that you did give
19 that --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

21 MR. TANASI: And outside the scope of the cross. I
22 didn't ask that question, Your Honor. I had asked whether he 23 specifically said if he had any concern for law enforcement.
24 Those words.

25 MS. AHMED: Actually, Your Honor, he asked both

1 questions. Initially he asked whether he conveyed --

2 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer -- he can
3 answer the question.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's still leading, Judge.

5 THE COURT: I think it's foundational at this point.
6 She's just working up to the question.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. And were you conveying -- were you attempting to convey to 9 Mr. Tanasi that you did tell the interviewers -- you saw
10 something in that report that indicated that you did express
11 your concern for the officers' safety?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And what -- can you tell the jury what it was that you saw 14 in the report that you had told the agents when they
15 interviewed you about the officers' safety?

16 A. Could we bring the report up?

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I approach the witness?
18 I have his report.

19 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, do you still have it up?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: We can put it up, right?

22 MR. TANASI: It's on my laptop if you want.

23 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, we're -- may we publish
24 this just to the witness and counsel?

25 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

1 (Document shown to witness.)

2 THE COURT: And just to be clear, you're not asking
3 him to read what's in the report out loud; you're asking him
4 what it is that's in the report that refreshed his recollection
5 about his concern?

6 MS. AHMED: Correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. Mr. Schillie, do you see the report that you were looking 10 at earlier on the screen?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And do I need to move the page or do you see the area that 13 refreshed your recollection as to what you had told the 14 interviewers?

15 A. Could you scroll up a little bit, please?

16 Q. (Counsel complies).

17 A. Okay. Right there.

18 Q. And when you say "right there," where are you referring?

19 A. Well, I'm just -- I'm trying to catch up --

20 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. You wanted me to stop.

21 A. -- where I read that.

22 Maybe -- maybe down.

23 Q. (Counsel complies).

24 A. Could you scroll down a little, please.

25 Q. (Counsel complies).

1 A. Maybe back. Maybe if we just start at the top.

2 Q. (Counsel complies).

3 A. Okay. Down.

4 Q. (Counsel complies).

5 A. Down, please.

6 Q. (Counsel complies).

7 A. Okay. I see the sentence.

8 Q. And having reviewed the report, can you explain to the 9 jury what it was you conveyed to the interviewing agent
10 expressing your concern for those law enforcement officers?

11 A. The sentence that indicates, "A rifle appeared to be 12 pointed at individuals recognized as wearing BLM uniforms."

13 Q. And in providing that information, whose rifle were you
14 talking about?

15 A. The subject that was laying down on the bridge.

16 Q. And, so, you had told the interviewers that his rifle
17 appeared to be pointed to -- at the law enforcement officers?

18 A. Yes.

19 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
20 indulgence?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 (Counsel conferring.)

23 MS. AHMED: Nothing further, Your Honor. I'll pass
24 the witness. Thank you.

25 Thank you, Mr. Schillie.

1 THE COURT: Any further cross?

2 MR. TANASI: Real briefly, Your Honor.

3

4 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

5 BY MR. TANASI:

6 Q. Again, sir, just so the record is crystal clear. You
7 never told the agents when you met with them on June 17th,
8 2014, you never used the words "I had a concern for law
9 enforcement"; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You never said that; right?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. And on that day you saw law enforcement up on the 14 bridge within walking distance of where you were; right?

15 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. I believe he's 16 going beyond the scope of the redirect.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'd argue it's well within 19 this concern that he's now testifying to.

20 THE COURT: This is still back to his -- whether or 21 not he had a concern about the rifles pointed at the law
22 enforcement?

23 MR. TANASI: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 ///

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. You never walked down to those law enforcement officers
3 that were on the bridge, the Nevada Highway Patrol and told
4 them, "Hey, I've got a concern for the BLM folks on the other
5 side of the bridge"; right? Never did that?

6 A. I never approached the individuals in the green vests.

7 Q. Right. You got in the car and you drove away; right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Didn't call 911 to address that concern; right?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. All right.

12 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Anyone else?

14 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

16 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

17 MS. AHMED: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, at this time if any
19 members of the jury have a question for our witness, please go
20 ahead and right them down on the space provided. Don't tell us
21 your name, just write neatly, carefully, slowly.

22 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

23 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

24 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

25 THE COURT: I think I might have -- the one that we

1 had to deny the question that we answered that was not a jury
2 question but was -- oh, no, that one -- the bridge wasn't
3 separate.

4 MS. AHMED: It was the first two questions on one
5 note.

6 THE COURT: I started with 38. Should it have been 7 37?

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yeah. It should have been 9 37.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So make a piece of paper and write
11 37 on it and I'll sign it so that we can make sure we're still 12 in order.

13 All right. So Jury Question No. 38, "Did you witness
14 the subject Parker pointing the gun at any individual or 15 persons -- BLM, law enforcement -- or just in a general area?"

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

18 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

19 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Second part of Jury Note 38 is,
21 "Did the subject Parker appearing threatening, hostile, or 22 aggressive?"

23 Any objection?

24 MS. AHMED: No.

25 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

1 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

2 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

3 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 39, "If you were concerned
4 for the safety of the people, why didn't you go to the law
5 enforcement officers there on the bridge?"

6 Any objection?

7 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

8 MR. MARCHESE: No.

9 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

10 Jury Note No. 40, "Did Mr. Schillie speak with anyone
11 at the bridge and ask why was everyone gathering, what was the 12 demonstration for, or any other informative questions?"

13 Any objection?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

17 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Number 41, "How did the FBI know you had 19 photos of the people on the bridge? Did you notify them
20 voluntarily?"

21 Any objection?

22 MR. MARCHESE: No. That's a good question.

23 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

24 MS. AHMED: No.

25 MR. PEREZ: None.

1 THE COURT: Okay. 42, "Why did you not feel it
2 necessary to notify LEO of the presumed risk from an individual
3 in prone position pointing a weapon at a group of individuals?
4 You stated they were 50 feet from the individuals?"

5 Any objection?

6 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

7 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

8 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

9 And then 43, "In this case are all the defendants
10 being tried together or is each individual being considered
11 separately?"

12 So I'll just . . . what do you want me to tell
13 them --

14 MR. TANASI: There will be a jury instruction --

15 THE COURT: -- there will be a jury instruction that 16 clarifies that or do you want me to tell them that --

17 MR. TANASI: I don't see the harm in telling them.

18 MS. AHMED: I would tell them now, yeah, that they 19 should be considering each of them separately.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. All right.

21 And then Jury Question No. 44 is, "Did you talk with 22 anybody during your time on the bridge?"

23 MR. TANASI: No objection.

24 THE COURT: "Did you talk to anybody during" -- we're 25 not going to ask him to say what -- what he told them or any

1 other follow-ups like that, but just -- because I don't want to
2 get into what he remembers people saying or not saying and then
3 got off on a tangent, but the question is, "Did you talk with
4 anybody during your time on the bridge?"

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 MR. MARCHESE: No objection.

7 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

8 THE COURT: Okay. 45 is, "You were concerned about 9 the law enforcement safety when passing through. Did you have 10 any fear at that moment?"

11 I'm not sure I even understand the question. I'm 12 going to repeat it.

13 You were concerned about the law enforcement safety
14 when passing through. Did you have any fear at that moment?"

15 MS. AHMED: For himself, I presume they're asking.

16 THE COURT: Probably his own fear.

17 Any objection?

18 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

19 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

20 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

21 (Counsel conferring.)

22 MS. AHMED: With the same caveat, Your Honor, we had 23 for Mr. Ellis, which is that the Government obviously would 24 object to third parties coming in and testifying in the defense
25 case about the defendants in order to put on their state of

1 mind and bootstrap that to the defendants. We would still
2 maintain our objection as to that, but with the same
3 limitations that Mr. Ellis had, we don't object to that
4 question.

5 THE COURT: All right. Okay. That's noted for the
6 record.

7 All right. Thank you.

8 MR. TANASI: Thank you.

9 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Schillie, I've got a
11 couple questions for you from the jury. I'm going to go ahead
12 and read the questions into the record, but when you respond,
13 you may go ahead and turn to the jury because these are really
14 the jury's questions, not mine. All right?

15 All right. So Juror Note No. 38, Question No. 1, 16 "Did you witness the subject Parker pointing the gun at any
17 individuals or persons -- BLM, law enforcement -- or just in a
18 general area?"

19 THE WITNESS: Just in the general area.

20 THE COURT: And then Question No. 2, "Did the subject
21 Parker appear threatening, hostile or aggressive?"

22 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

23 THE WITNESS: The subject had a rifle pointed in 24 the -- in that general direction, but I didn't witness any body
25 language or any -- anything like that, besides pointing a

1 rifle.

2 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 39, "If you
3 were concerned for the safety of the people, why didn't you go
4 to the law enforcement officers there on the bridge?"

5 THE WITNESS: Well, I wasn't aware that the -- I
6 wasn't completely aware that the people in green were law
7 enforcement and then I assumed that since they were there, they
8 had surely seen what -- everything that I had seen.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 40, "Did
10 Mr. Schillie speak with anyone at the bridge and ask why was 11 everyone gathering, what was the demonstration for, or any 12 other informative questions?"

13 So this is a yes or no question. We don't want to 14 get into what other people are telling you; we just want to 15 know whether you ever asked an informative question.

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 THE COURT: All right. And Jury Note No. 41, "How
18 did the FBI know you had photos of the people on the bridge?
19 Did you notify them voluntarily?"

20 THE WITNESS: I notified law enforcement where I work
21 at the U.S. Forest Service who then notified BLM law
22 enforcement and then I believe that the FBI was notified at the 23 same time.

24 THE COURT: And then the question was, "Did you
25 notify them voluntarily?"

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 42, "Why did you not feel
3 it necessary to notify LEO of the presumed risk from an 4 individual in a proned position pointing a weapon at a group of 5 individuals? You stated they were 50 feet from the
6 individuals?"

7 THE WITNESS: Yes. It just seemed that there was law
8 enforcement presence. There was -- there were airplanes
9 circling above, airline surveillance of some kind. I assumed
10 that everyone there had been seeing the same thing.

11 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 43, "In this case are all 12 the defendants being tried together or is each individual being 13 considered separately?"

14 So, you will be provided instructions of law that 15 will clarify that for you, but I can take the suspense out of 16 it and let you know that yes, each individual is being tried 17 separately so you will be determining whether or not they're 18 guilty of the charges separately, individually. There might be 19 some charges that charge them together as a group, but you will 20 decide each person -- for each person whether or not the 21 Government has met its burden.

22 Jury Note No. 44, "Did you talk with anybody during 23 your time on the bridge?"

24 THE WITNESS: Yes. I was traveling with a friend.
25 Spoke -- I spoke with my friend who was also there.

1 THE COURT: Anybody else?

2 THE WITNESS: No.

3 THE COURT: And Jury Note No. 45, "You were concerned
4 about law enforcement safety when passing through. Did you
5 have any fear at that moment?" And the attorneys and I believe
6 that what the question is asking you is whether you had fear
7 for yourself at that moment.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes. Toward -- toward the end of the 9 10 minutes or so that I was on the bridge.

10 THE COURT: All right. So, does the Government have 11 any follow-up questions?

12 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Defense, any follow-up questions?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Just to clarify. Thank you.

15

16 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. You were asked if you had any fear for yourself and you
19 said yes, you did?

20 A. I'm sorry. Could you repeat the question?

21 Q. The last question that the judge asked you was, was 22 whether or not you had fear for yourself and you indicated yes,
23 you had fear for your own safety?

24 A. Yes. Toward the end of the time I was on the bridge.

25 Q. Okay. So you were up there for 10 minutes; right?

1 A. Approximately.

2 Q. Okay. And you got out of your vehicle; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. And you walked away from your vehicle; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. You're not law enforcement; right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. You don't carry a gun; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. You don't carry a badge; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. You walked up to the people; correct?

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I'd just object to this line
14 of questioning as being beyond the scope of the question.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: It goes right directly towards his 16 fear that he indicated he had for himself.

17 THE COURT: Well, he just told you that it was at the 18 end of the 10 minutes that he had fear. So, I'll -- I'll allow 19 him to answer your question.

20 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the last question?

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. You're not a law enforcement?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And again, you don't carry a weapon; right?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And you walked right up to these people on the bridge;
2 correct?

3 A. We walked -- I walked to people on the bridge. I didn't
4 see the individual in question until --

5 Q. As a matter of fact, you turned and you --

6 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would object to him cutting
7 off the witness answering the question.

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Go ahead. I apologize if I cut you off.

10 A. Could you repeat the question?

11 Q. You walked up to individuals on the bridge?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You even took your eyes off of the individuals on the 16 bridge when you were focused down in the wash at some point;
17 correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. And you -- you watched what was going on in total;
20 correct?

21 A. Could you restate the question?

22 Q. You were watching everything that was going on around you?
23 There wasn't any one thing you were focused on; right?

24 A. I don't understand the question.

25 Q. Okay. Well, you said you had fear, so I'm just trying to

1 find out where this fear came from and you indicated -- you
2 also just indicated that there were -- there were helicopters
3 that were -- you assumed were law enforcement?

4 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. It misstates the 5 witness' testimony. He didn't say anything about helicopters.

6 THE COURT: I think he said plane, but, overruled, he 7 can clarify that.

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Planes?

10 A. I remember seeing an aerial surveillance. Appeared to be 11 a plane, airplane.

12 Q. Okay. And you -- you assumed that that was law
13 enforcement?

14 A. I assumed that, yes.

15 Q. Okay. And you passed by many law enforcement officers.
16 You indicated that; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: I have nothing further. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Anyone else?

20 MR. MARCHESE: Just briefly.

21

22 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

23 BY MR. MARCHESE:

24 Q. Mr. Leventhal just asked you about the -- what I wrote
25 down was aerial surveillance.

1 Do you remember that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And I believe you stated that it was your belief that it
4 was law enforcement; correct?

5 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just object to 6 Mr. Marchese relying on Mr. Leventhal's questions. It's beyond
7 the scope of the jury question.

8 THE COURT: Overruled. He can clarify the responses.

9 BY MR. MARCHESE:

10 Q. Once again, you said "aerial surveillance" in reference to 11 the jury question; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What did you mean by that?

14 A. An airplane, low-flying airplane.

15 Q. Okay. And it was your belief that it was law enforcement?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Why?

18 A. Because it seemed like something law enforcement would 19 have access to.

20 Q. Okay. You were also asked, one of the jury questions was 21 in reference to your pictures and turning them over to the FBI.

22 Do you remember that question, generally speaking?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. Now, you were also asked another question that -- 25 in reference to finding out what was going on, were a lot of

1 people in the wash; correct? You took the pictures?

2 A. Could you restate the question?

3 Q. Okay. You -- I believe the question was, did you ask
4 anyone what was going on, something along those lines.

5 Do you remember that question?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And I believe your answer was no, you didn't ask
8 anyone; correct?

9 A. Aside from the friend I was there with.

10 Q. Okay. And fair to say that your friend would not know
11 because he was traveling with you and you stumbled on to these 12 people, for lack of a better term?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. When was it that you found out what was going on?

15 A. Could you be more specific?

16 Q. Well, at some point in time you took the affirmative step
17 to turn the pictures over to law enforcement. I believe you
18 said someone from your -- your employer; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. What made you do that?

21 A. It seemed like important information for law enforcement
22 to have.

23 Q. Okay. At that particular time, when you turned it over,
24 did you know what was going on?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. When did you turn it over?

2 A. First thing, first business morning after I arrived in
3 Denver.

4 Q. Okay. And when would that have been, if you morning?

5 A. 8:00 a.m. on the morning of the 13th.

6 Q. Okay. Prior to 8:00 a.m. on the morning of the 13th had 7 you found out what was going on?

8 A. We had heard reports on the radio. It was all over the 9 national news.

10 Q. Okay. Did you do any independent research?

11 A. Can you describe what "independent research"?

12 Q. Did you look on the Internet?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Did you see any similar pictures to the ones that 15 you took?

16 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance.

17 THE COURT: What is the relevance of this,
18 Mr. Marchese?

19 MR. MARCHESE: It goes to why he turned it over.

20 THE COURT: He just said why he turned it over. He 21 watched -- he heard something on the radio and he thought that 22 it was something that they should have; that it was important.

23 MR. MARCHESE: All right. And I was just going --
24 diving a little deeper into why he did what he did. That's 25 all. It's my -- one or two more questions and then I'll move

1 on. It's actually my last questions.

2 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, on relevance
3 still.

4 THE COURT: Ask the question and I'll let you know if
5 it's within the realm.

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Sir, when you did your research, did you see any similar
8 pictures to the ones that you turned over to the FBI?

9 A. Could you describe similar in which way?

10 Q. Did you see any pictures of the man on the bridge with the 11 plaid shirt in the black vest, prone?

12 A. I don't recall.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Any other cross?

16 MR. TANASI: Briefly, Your Honor.

17

18 RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TREY SCHILLIE

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Sir, you've indicated that you felt fear on the bridge;
21 right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. We've also seen the pictures so I won't bring it up
24 again, but we saw a picture of a guy in the plaid shirt with 25 the black vest pointing his weapon while he's on the bridge;

1 right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Away from you; right?

4 A. Away from me? Can you --

5 Q. Correct.

6 A. Yes. It was --

7 Q. That individual wasn't pointing his weapon at you. Fair?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. In fact, the only individuals pointing their weapon
10 at you were the BLM agents that you saw --

11 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor.

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. -- under the bridge; correct?

14 MS. AHMED: Objection. It assumes facts not in 15 evidence, argumentative, and frankly, Your Honor, it goes to 16 previous orders in this case.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes to his fear.

19 I'll pass the witness, Your Honor.

20 MR. PEREZ: Nothing from Lovelien, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 Redirect?

23 (Counsel conferring.)

24 MS. AHMED: I'm sorry, Your Honor. The Court's
25 indulgence for just one moment.

1 (Counsel conferring.)

2 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, nothing further from the
3 United States. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. I have a question,
5 Mr. Schillie.

6 The first picture we saw, everybody on that
7 northbound bridge is standing up; right? In the first picture.
8 There's no one pointing a gun that's in the prone position?

9 THE WITNESS: Yes.

10 THE COURT: That's when you get out of the car?

11 THE WITNESS: Correct.

12 THE COURT: And that's when you walk over to them?

13 THE WITNESS: Correct.

14 THE COURT: And then later you see someone prone
15 pointing a gun?

16 THE WITNESS: After the pictures of the wash.

17 THE COURT: And then you leave?

18 THE WITNESS: Then I -- yes.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 Any other questions for Mr. Schillie?

21 MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.

22 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

24 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Schillie, for

1 coming in this afternoon. You are excused. Please be careful
2 on the way down with those steps.

3 (Witness excused.)

4 THE COURT: And the Government may call its next
5 witness.

6 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the United States calls
7 Sergeant Shannon Serena.

8

9 SHANNON SERENA,
10 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
11 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

12

13 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

14 Come on up. Please be careful with the steps.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please remain standing and
17 raise your right hand.

18 You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall
19 give in the cause now before this Court shall be the truth, the
20 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

21 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
23 seated.

24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Please state your full name for the

1 record and spell your last name.

2 THE WITNESS: My name is Shannon Serena, last name of
3 S-e-r-e-n-a.

4

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

6 BY MS. CREEGAN:

7 Q. Thank you, Sergeant Serena.

8 Can you please tell the jury how you're currently 9 employed?

10 A. I'm currently a sergeant with the Nevada Highway Patrol
11 and the department I'm in now is Risk Management.

12 Q. How long have you been a sergeant with Nevada Highway
13 Patrol?

14 A. Since 2013.

15 Q. Have you been with Nevada Highway Patrol for longer than
16 that?

17 A. Yes. I started in 2008.

18 Q. When you started, were you a trooper, a cadet?

19 A. Originally started I was a cadet.

20 Q. And then you, from there, became a trooper?

21 A. Yes. I went through an academy. After I graduated the 22 academy, I became a trooper and then I promoted sergeant in 23 2013.

24 Q. As a cadet and then a trooper and then a sergeant with the 25 Nevada Highway Patrol, is there training that you're required

1 to complete?

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. Can you please describe that training for the jury.

4 A. Yes. The -- you go through an extensive academy in which
5 you go through physical activities. You also learn sections of 6 law and how to handle yourself on a day-to-day basis.

7 Q. On April 12th, 2014, did you respond to an incident in
8 Bunkerville, Nevada?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You responded as a Nevada Highway Patrol trooper or 11 sergeant?

12 A. Sergeant.

13 Q. And can you tell us how you first learned that there was 14 an incident ongoing in Bunkerville, Nevada?

15 A. We were briefed. That day started off, I believe, pretty 16 much as many did for us. I was contacted by one of our 17 captains at the time and he told us to go up towards the Moapa
18 Substation and we would be briefed on the details of what was 19 going on there.

20 Q. Was that in the morning of April 2014?

21 A. Yes, ma'am.

22 Q. I'm sorry. Could you pull that microphone a little 23 closer. I'm not sure if --

24 A. There you go.

25 Q. It might just be me and where I'm at, but I couldn't hear

1 you too well.

2 So after the briefing that you received that morning
3 at the Moapa Substation, did you have an idea of what your 4 duties would be there from?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What was your understanding of what your duties would be?

7 A. At that time, I was in charge of the first squad. My 8 details of that were to contact the Department of 9 Transportation that was already on site with us and we were to 10 help them, assist them with security to put up a K-rail system
11 up there in the Moapa area.

12 Q. And did you have an understanding of what the K-rail
13 system was for?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And what was that for?

16 A. That was put there to help isolate traffic to help BLM
17 exit the area.

18 Q. And did there come a time when your understanding of what 19 your duties would be changed?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How did it change?

22 A. Approximately 20, 30 minutes after that initial briefing
23 Captain Jackson at that time contacted me. He said for me to 24 get the -- my squad ready to go. So I kind of asked him, like,
25 "For the K-rail ordeal?" And he's, like, no. He goes, "We

1 have officers that are in danger and we need to get up there as
2 fast as we can."

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Hearsay.

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Just generally, without what people said, what was your
6 understanding of how your duties changed?

7 A. Yes. They changed in which it went from going from 8 helping DOT to getting to the Bunkerville area.

9 Q. I'm sorry. It may be just that I'm not able to hear you
10 too well, but what were your duties -- you just described what 11 your duties were originally. What did they change to? What 12 were your new duties?

13 A. They changed to go out there and to assist. There was 14 officers that were held -- being held at gunpoint and we were 15 there to go and assist them.

16 Q. Did you actually drive to the area that you were supposed
17 to assist the officers?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And when you drove there, did you have a dash camera on 20 your law enforcement vehicle?

21 A. Yes, ma'am.

22 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, can I bring up Exhibit 31a
23 for the witness only, please?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 (Exhibit 31a published to witness.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: Thanks. And you can just stop right
2 there.

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. Sergeant Serena, is this video from your dash camera from
5 April 12th?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And does it have a date on it that you can see?

8 A. Yes, it does.

9 Q. And does it also identify that you're the officer by your 10 name and badge number?

11 A. Yes.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, Government moves to admit
13 Exhibit 31a.

14 (Exhibit 31a offered.)

15 THE COURT: Any objection to 31a?

16 MR. MARCHESE: No objection, Parker.

17 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

19 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

20 THE COURT: Objection -- oh, Exhibit 31a will be
21 admitted.

22 (Exhibit 31a received.)

23 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish?

24 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

25 (Exhibit 31a published.)

1 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. If just keeping -- sorry. Just
2 keeping that stopped for a moment at 11:28.

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. Just so we're familiar with what this looks like. We can
5 see that there's sort of a video portion; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And can you show us the area where it's identified as your
8 dash cam by your name and badge number?

9 A. Yes. It will say over near -- where it says "officer" and 10 then in that box it will have my last name and then my unit
11 number.

12 Q. Could you circle that, please.

13 A. (Witness complies).

14 Q. And does it also have the current date on this dash cam,
15 the date that the actual video was taken?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Can you show us where that is?

18 A. Yes. (Indicating).

19 Q. And that's indicated at the bottom.

20 At the bottom there, is that the start and end time
21 of this particular recording?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Does the recording also give the current time?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And can you show us where that is?

1 A. (Indicating).

2 Q. Sorry. I had just asked you about the start and end time.
3 Where is the current time listed, of what the video is showing
4 right at that moment?

5 A. It will be in the media block.

6 Q. Okay. Could you circle that, please.

7 A. (Witness complies).

8 Q. Thank you.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

10 (Exhibit 13a published.)

11 MS. CREEGAN: And can you stop there.

12 Stopping at 11:28:45 a.m.

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. Is that -- that time, is that local Nevada time?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And up until now we've seen a little bit of the 17 roadway heading toward Bunkerville. What roadway are you on?

18 A. That's the 15, northbound.

19 Q. Northbound?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And up until this point, have we seen any traffic?

22 A. Not much of anything.

23 Q. Is the traffic normal, abnormal so far?

24 A. That would be about normal in that spot there.

25 Q. Thank you.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

2 (Exhibit 31a published.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping this at 11:30:09 a.m.

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Have you observed any changes in the traffic at this
6 point?

7 A. The traffic got heavier at that point.

8 Q. Is this normal traffic for the northbound I-15 lane at --
9 in the morning on a Saturday?

10 A. No, ma'am.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

12 (Exhibit 31a published.)

13 MS. CREEGAN: Stopping there, please. Stopping at 14 11:30:54 a.m.

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. Bringing your attention to a white vehicle on the right
17 side of the screen, did you observe this white vehicle
18 (indicating)?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What did you see in this vehicle?

21 A. I saw people dressed in military type of dress sitting in 22 the back of a pickup truck.

23 Q. Do you normally see an open pickup truck with people in 24 the back on northbound I-15?

25 A. No, ma'am.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

2 (Exhibit 31a published.)

3 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at about 11:33:10.

4 BY MS. CREEGAN:

5 Q. Sergeant Serena, did you observe this individual
6 (indicating) who appears to be in the roadway?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. What did you observe about that individual?

9 A. The individual who was in the roadway and stopping
10 traffic, walking back and forth with a assault rifle in his 11 hands.

12 Q. And up until this point, you've been driving through 13 traffic, what have you been observing as you're looking into
14 vehicles?

15 A. As we were going it got more and more congested. We 16 started to notice that there were more and more people dressed
17 in military fashion of some sort, seeing weapons. As the 18 camera shoots forward in my vehicle, it's hard to tell, but 19 because of the speeds we're going, all a sudden you can sit as 20 a driver and pan to the right and you can see into vehicles
21 very vividly. On that day, you know, the decision for me to 22 travel down the center was one that I still think about today.
23 It was --

24 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Non-responsive.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Drexler joins.

1 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

2 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

3 MS. CREEGAN: He's describing his observations.

4 Non-responsive is the questioner's objection from a hostile
5 witness.

6 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.
7 He can finish answering his question.

8 THE WITNESS: The decision to do that was something
9 that was definitely awe-inspiring that day because we had found
10 out as we decided to head down, there were vehicles on both
11 sides of us that would have weapons in them and people there
12 looking at us, so it did not give us a very safe feeling. When 13 we got to the end, we could finally get up there enough to see 14 where the blockage was occurring and that's when we started to 15 observe, like this individual here (indicating), that's in the 16 camera.

17 BY MS. CREEGAN:

18 Q. And about how many officers were there in your team or 19 squad that were behind you?

20 A. In my group was approximately six or seven.

21 Q. Were they all in their own cars behind you?

22 A. Yes, from what I remember.

23 Q. You were the lead car at this time?

24 A. Yes, ma'am, I was.

25 Q. And did you observe -- we're not able to see it really

1 right now on the screen, but did you observe an area where
2 people were parking their cars?

3 A. Yes, ma'am.

4 Q. Where is it in relation to what we're able to see in this
5 video?

6 A. Off to the right side of the screen, you'll see where the 7 vehicles are kind of in that third lane or like the -- off to 8 the highway, there's an entrance into a right area over there
9 is where a group of people started to, you know, convene and 10 get all their vehicles parked over off to the right.

11 Q. Did you ultimately decide on a location to park?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And where was that?

14 A. Once we got past this area here, we went further down so
15 that we could try to help open the freeway back up and I ended
16 up actually pulling over off to the right-side shoulder.

17 Q. Was that before or after the bridge area there?

18 A. Before the bridge.

19 Q. Did there come a time when you changed that location?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And why was that?

22 A. Once we arrived, we were able to get the freeway opened
23 back up and to allow the citizens to travel through the area.

24 At another point, though, while we were down there doing
25 traffic control there was another area on the bridge that

1 became locked down as well. So there were two of us, myself
2 and another trooper, who went down to that area of the bridge
3 to try to get that opened up as well again.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, when you were moving and you were
7 with another trooper, was that trooper, Trooper Madsen?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And where was your vehicle in relationship to his vehicle?

10 A. I was behind him.

11 Q. Okay. And have you previously reviewed dash cams from his 12 dash cam?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do they fairly and accurately represent what you,
15 yourself, saw on April 12th?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And have you previously reviewed Government's Exhibit 32a
18 and 33a?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Are those Madsen's dash cams as you, yourself, saw them on
21 April 12th?

22 A. Yes.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, the Government moves to 24 admit Exhibits 32a and 33a.

25 (Exhibits 32a and 33a offered.)

1 THE COURT: Any objection to 32a and 33a?

2 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Only to the extent that they're not
4 his dash cams.

5 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

6 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins.

7 THE COURT: Well, that's not a requirement for
8 admission. It's not required that it be his dash cam so long
9 as they fairly and accurately represent what he actually 10 personally saw on that date and time, which he just stated he
11 did.

12 Any other objection?

13 All right. So Exhibit 32a and 33a will be admitted.
14 (Exhibits 32a and 33a received.)

15 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. And before we publish 32a, I think you mentioned it
18 before, but you were talking about getting citizens through.
19 What did you have an understanding of your mission to be at the 20 time that you arrived and assessed the situation?

21 A. At the moment we arrived, vehicles were obviously stopped
22 on the 15 and traffic was backed up, so we immediately went
23 into the realm of getting people through and out of that area
24 so that they can continue on their way down the freeway.

25 Q. Did you observe any signs of distress from people who were

1 trapped on the roadway?

2 A. Yes.

3 MS. CREEGAN: Permission to publish 32a?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 (Exhibit 32a published.)

6 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 12:18:03.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Just first to orient ourselves. What time is it in local
9 Nevada time?

10 A. 12:18 it says.

11 Q. And what direction is the dash cam facing?

12 A. Northbound.

13 Q. So, we're facing -- the going direction of the northbound
14 lane?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Where is the bridge over the wash on the northbound lane
17 in relation to where the car is?

18 A. According to what relation, we're pretty much on the 19 bridge and we're off to the left side shoulder as much as we 20 are -- shoulder that it had at that time.

21 Q. And where is the wash area between the southbound and 22 northbound lane?

23 A. It's a little further, but it's underneath us.

24 Q. Bringing your attention to an individual on the left side
25 of the video (indicating), did you observe this individual on

1 April 12th, 2014?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what drew your attention to this individual?

4 A. The fact that he was there. He's holding an assault rifle
5 and then later on, once we had gotten out of the vehicle, he
6 immediately approached us, started coming towards us and then
7 from there we had a conversation.

8 Q. And just generally, not what the discussion, but what was 9 the type of conversation that you had?

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Relevance. And vague.

11 THE COURT: It is vague. You want to rephrase it?

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Just generally, what was your understanding of what he was 14 trying to discuss with you?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

16 THE COURT: I'm not -- well, it depends on what his 17 answer is. I'm not sure if it does or not.

18 I'll let him answer.

19 THE WITNESS: Initially I could not tell really who
20 he was or who he was with. When he approached me, he started
21 telling me about --

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Hearsay.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Just generally, what was the subject?

1 A. About other people with rifles that were aiming at him.

2 Q. Did you make contact with this individual?

3 A. I did.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

5 (Exhibit 32a published.)

6 MS. CREEGAN: And just stopping at 12:18:37.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Sergeant Serena, do you see yourself in this video?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Can you circle yourself, please.

11 A. (Witness complies).

12 Q. And you seem to be wearing a sort of bright vest. Can you
13 describe what that is?

14 A. It's our traffic vest.

15 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

16 (Exhibit 32a published.)

17 MS. CREEGAN: And can you stop it there, please.

18 BY MS. CREEGAN:

19 Q. Sergeant Serena, did you just see a person in the middle 20 of the roadway?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What did you observe that person to do?

23 A. The individual was running across the roadway, back across
24 the other shoulder.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play, please.

1 (Exhibit 32a published.)

2 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 12:21:13.

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. Circling an individual that appears in the foreground in 5 the center of the screen (indicating), did you observe this
6 individual on April 12th, 2014?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. Where did this individual come from before they came on 9 the screen?

10 A. That I'm not sure of.

11 Q. And what were they wearing?

12 A. Looked like military-style, you know, garb.

13 Q. Did you observe whether the person was armed or not?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What were they armed with?

16 A. From memory, I think I remember him having a rifle slung
17 over his shoulder.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Can you play it, please.

19 (Exhibit 32a published.)

20 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 12:21:58.

21 BY MS. CREEGAN:

22 Q. Sergeant Serena, the portion of the video we just watched,
23 you appear to have some interaction with this individual. Is 24 that accurate?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What was that interaction?

2 A. From what I recall, he was talking to the other individual
3 who initially approached us when we got out of vehicles. I do
4 not recall exactly what he had said or what was there, but I
5 remember, you know, him and the other individual having a
6 conversation.

7 Q. And what was the effect of this individual arriving?

8 A. The effect of the individual that showed up, once he was 9 there, the other person that was candidly speaking to me all of 10 a sudden decided to kind of leave me alone and then he wouldn't 11 talk to me again.

12 Q. And what time is this in local Nevada time?

13 A. 12:21.

14 Q. And at this point, looking up the northbound bridge away
15 from the vehicle, were you able to observe anything that took 16 your interest further down the bridge?

17 A. Beyond just large groups of people, no.

18 Q. Did you decide to stay where you were with these two 19 individuals or to leave and go to another location?

20 A. I decided to stay where I was.

21 Q. And why was that?

22 A. At that point I was dealing with the individual who I
23 initially spoke to, had told me about another vehicle that was 24 in the wash with an individual that was pointing a weapon down
25 at officers. So, at that point I was busy trying to get ahold

1 of other officers out there to try to make a contact or
2 something with that vehicle.

3 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, we're going to object as 4 to hearsay.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Motion to Strike.

7 THE COURT: Well, not the whole answer, just any
8 out-of-court statements.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you.

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. And, Sergeant, if you could, without going into anything
12 that was said, why did you decide to stay with those two
13 individuals?

14 A. They were willing to sit there and talk to us.

15 Q. Did you have concerns about these individuals?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Why was that?

18 A. They were both heavily harmed and they weren't exactly the 19 most friendly with us.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I have a good deal more
21 questions for Special Agent Serena. I'm not sure what time
22 would be a good time, in the Court's opinion, to take a break
23 for the afternoon.

24 THE COURT: We're just going to go through because 25 we're stopping today at 4:15. One of the jurors has an

1 appointment.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Could we bring up Exhibit 8,
3 which has already been admitted.

4 (Exhibit 8 published.)

5 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping there. Stopping at 24
6 seconds at Exhibit 8.

7 BY MS. CREEGAN:

8 Q. Sergeant Serena, do you recognize this individual?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Who is that individual?

11 A. That's the individual that approached me when we got out
12 of our vehicles there on the bridge.

13 Q. Was that the person who was first there or the second
14 person that came?

15 A. That's the first person that was there.

16 MS. CREEGAN: Okay. Can you play, please.

17 (Exhibit 8 published.)

18 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at about 47 seconds.

19 BY MS. CREEGAN:

20 Q. Do you recognize this vehicle which I've circled
21 (indicating) which is behind the silver car in the foreground?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Which vehicle is that?

24 A. That would be my patrol car.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

1 Permission to publish Exhibit 33a to the -- which has
2 already been admitted?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Exhibit 33a published.)

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, just bringing your attention again
7 to the time, what's the current time in local Nevada time?

8 A. 12:25.

9 MS. CREEGAN: And stopping at 12:36:04.

10 BY MS. CREEGAN:

11 Q. Circling an individual who appears to be in a lower
12 position, what did you observe that individual to be doing on
13 April 12th?

14 A. At that point he stuck his rifle over the embankment there
15 and started to point at something down in the wash.

16 MS. CREEGAN: And can we bring up what's been
17 previously admitted as Government's Exhibit 66?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 What time is it on this cam -- dash cam?

20 MS. CREEGAN: 12:26:04.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 (Exhibit 66 published.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, do you recognize this individual
25 (indicating) in the foreground here?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Who is that individual?

3 A. That's the first individual that greeted me when we got on
4 the bridge.

5 Q. And who is this individual (indicating) who appears to be 6 directly behind him in green?

7 A. I don't know exactly who he is, but I assumed he was like
8 his boss.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

10 THE COURT: Sustained.

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. Do you recognize this vehicle in the background here
13 (indicating)?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Whose vehicle is that?

16 A. That's Trooper Madsen's vehicle.

17 Q. Is this the bridge on April 2014?

18 A. Yes, ma'am.

19 Q. April 12th, 2014.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

21 Can you bring back up Exhibit 33a at 12:26:04.

22 (Exhibit 33a published.)

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, at 12:26:08 what are you doing here?

25 A. At that point I went back up to approach that individual

1 to see what he was doing.

2 Q. And what was your objective in doing that?

3 A. So in case there was someone to be at harm, I wanted to 4 try it negate that if I can.

5 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, I think you indicated earlier you
6 had some concern about these individuals; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. But there appear to be some times when you have your back
9 to them. Is that accurate?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Why is that?

12 A. Because at some point they're there everyone -- there was 13 a ton of people that were armed. At some point my back was 14 going to be against somebody who was an armed individual.

15 Q. How long were you at this northbound bridge area on
16 April 12th, 2014?

17 A. I don't remember exactly. I would go to estimate a couple
18 of hours.

19 Q. What was the total number of people that you think that 20 you observed in that area?

21 A. Actually on the bridge or in the bridge and the wash?

22 Q. That you, yourself, observed total.

23 A. I'd say several hundred people.

24 Q. About how many people do you think you saw with firearms?

25 A. I would say three quarters of them. They were heavily

1 armed.

2 Q. And how many of those people had their firearms in their
3 hands?

4 A. Hard to tell exactly. Rough estimate, a lot of them would
5 leave the weapon hang in front of them, have their hands on 6 them, so I'd say about a good quarter or so.

7 Q. What was the total number of NHP officers that were in the 8 area on April 12th, 2014?

9 A. In my group alone we had six or seven and I think the 10 second group that came, there was another six or seven as well.

11 Q. So that would be as many as 14?

12 A. 14 to 16 I'm going to say that were there, roughly.

13 Q. If you saw an individual with a firearm -- a single 14 individual, normally, what would you do?

15 A. We would be able to handle the situation much differently.
16 At that time, you know, depending on so many circumstances
17 could arise of what exactly that individual is doing, but we 18 would definitely, you know, take different approaches with 19 them. So it's hard to say an exact answer, depending on the 20 situation.

21 Q. Okay. Were you able to do anything in this situation?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Why is that?

24 A. For the mere fact we were outnumbered by hundreds.

25 Q. Were you able to effect arrests in this situation?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Why is that?

3 A. There's just not enough of us. I mean, even if you stuck
4 one or two people in a vehicle and it wasn't exactly a very
5 safe environment that day to, you know, start making an arrest
6 on somebody when they have a few hundred of their friends.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object to the friends
8 part. No indication that anybody knew anybody at this protest.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Court's indulgence for a moment,
11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 (Counsel conferring.)

14 BY MS. CREEGAN:

15 Q. And, Sergeant Serena, on April 12th, 2014, did you go much
16 farther down the northbound bridge than you currently are in 17 this video at 33a at 12:26:11 a.m. -- p.m., excuse me?

18 A. No. I stayed within the general vicinity, within several 19 feet I would say.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. No further questions.

21 THE COURT: Cross?

22 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

BY MR. TANASI:

Q. Good afternoon, Sergeant Serena.

A. Good afternoon, sir.

Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart. I have a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

A. Yes.

Q. All right. So, if I understand your testimony correctly, originally you were at the Moapa Substation for briefing; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. All right. And originally that your job was essentially to assist the DOT in road closing. That was kind of originally what you thought you were going to do?

A. Set up a K-rail in order to help BLM leave the area, yes.

Q. Okay. So, that K-rail to help BLM kind of leave the area, that became your job? That was what your purpose was in heading to the bridge in Bunkerville, the north and southbound bridge; correct?

A. No. That was the original intent at the Moapa Substation. At the intent when we started to actually head to the bridge that role had changed.

Q. And what did that role change to?

A. To go assist other officers in the area that were in need of help.

1 Q. Okay. Now, you weren't at any time charged with the job
2 to assist the BLM in gathering cattle; correct?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Okay. You weren't, at any time, charged with the job of 5 helping the BLM impound cattle; correct?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Weren't charged ever with the job of helping the BLM sell
8 cattle; correct?

9 A. No, sir.

10 Q. Okay. You testified, again, if I understand, that your --
11 your purpose on the way to the wash changed; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you testified on direct exam that you were 14 aware or learned that officers were being held at gunpoint;
15 right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. That's your testimony, held at gunpoint; right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Now, prior to your testimony today you prepared a
20 report in this case; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. You prepared a report a lot sooner -- or let's put 23 it this way. When did you prepare that report, if you know?

24 A. Within a day or two of the event, I believe.

25 Q. Okay. Day or two of the event. So, it happens on

1 April 12th, 2014. That's the event we'll call it. Fair?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So by the 13th or 14th of 2014, April 2014, you prepare a
4 report; right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And you're a trained law enforcement officer;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And part of your job is to prepare reports; right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Something you learned in the academy; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. You learned how to write reports and put everything
14 that's important in those reports; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Because you want to capture the day's events; right?

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. And if it's important, you want to make sure it shows up
19 in your report so that the next law enforcement officer who 20 looks at that report, they can rely on it. Fair?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And then if you ever have to testify in court, as you're 23 doing here today, you can rely on that report as well; right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. In fact, you probably or did you look at this -- your

1 report prior to your testimony here today?

2 A. I've seen it.

3 Q. Okay. So, do you recall that in the report that we're
4 talking about here, that you prepared two days after the event,
5 do you recall whether you put anywhere in that report that you
6 were assisting officers who were being held at gunpoint? Did
7 you ever put that in the report?

8 A. I did not.

9 Q. You don't recall or you didn't put it in the report, sir?

10 A. It's not in the report, sir.

11 Q. It's not in the report; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So you didn't say that you, you know, were heading over to 14 the wash because you were aware that folks were being held at 15 gunpoint; right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. But today, that's your testimony, that, in fact, officers
18 were being held at gunpoint; right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. Okay. Prior to today's testimony, how many times have you
21 met with the United States Attorney's Office?

22 A. For this trial here?

23 Q. Prior to today's testimony, sir.

24 A. A handful of times.

25 Q. Handful of times?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. More than five?

3 A. I'd say about five actually.

4 Q. About five. And in those meetings were FBI agents present
5 as well?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. All right. Let's back up to -- to your report and 8 report writing.

9 You, in fact, in your report, you indicate a
10 difference between tension, "Tensions being high on all sides."
11 You put that in your report; right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you say that there's -- there were weapons that 14 were pointed at you; right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. When you got there; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. That's your testimony. Weapons were pointed at you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Did any of those weapons being pointed at you
21 appear in any of the dash cam or any of the video that you've 22 seen in this case?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. No. But it's still your testimony that weapons were 25 pointed at you?

1 A. It is.

2 Q. Okay. You indicated that you had some fear. First time
3 you used the word "fear" in your report, you indicate that you
4 have fear; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And then you go on in your report to say, "I had fear of 7 accidental discharge or backfire."

8 Do you remember that, sir?

9 A. No. That's not what I said.

10 Q. Okay. So it's your testimony that you didn't, in fact,
11 say, that "tension was high on all sides"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. You, in fact, said knowing that there were weapons
14 being pointed at you, which we could see, and know that the 15 weapons were pointed at us that we could not see.

16 That was your testimony in your report?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And then you went as far after that to say, "The 21 fear of an accidental discharge or even a backfire from a
22 vehicle would have surely sent the entire area up into war."
23 That's your testimony --

24 A. That part --

25 Q. That's what you put in your report. Fair?

1 A. Yes, that part.

2 Q. Okay. Again, in this report that you write, you write
3 this when it's two days after the event; right?

4 A. Approximately, yes.

5 Q. Approximately two days after the event. Okay.

6 "Tons of people," you indicated. "Tons of people
7 were armed." I have that quoted.

8 That's right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. But again, you didn't arrest any of those 11 individuals; right?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Okay. You weren't the only law enforcement agency there.
14 I mean, I understand you indicated that there were potentially 15 14 to 16 Nevada Highway Patrol officers there that day;
16 correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Okay. But you weren't the only law enforcement agency
19 there; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. In fact, there were folks who were with the BLM; right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. How many?

24 A. Don't know.

25 Q. Okay. More than 10?

1 A. Don't know.

2 Q. No idea?

3 A. No idea.

4 Q. All right. In addition to BLM, there's also National Park
5 Service that was there; correct?

6 A. That I'm unaware of.

7 Q. Unaware of that?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Okay. In addition to the BLM and the National Park
10 Service, there was also the FBI in the sky; correct?

11 A. Don't know.

12 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Don't know that. Okay.

15 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, the indication on direct is 16 that he didn't make any arrests because there was only 14 --

17 THE COURT: I understand the objection. Overruled.
18 He can say that he -- the question was whether the FBI was in 19 the sky and his answer was he was unaware if the FBI was in the 20 sky. That's fine. Move on.

21 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. TANASI:

23 Q. And Metro was there; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. They were actually up kind of on or around the bridge area

1 that you were at. Is that fair?

2 A. A little south of it.

3 Q. A little south of it?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. SWAT was there?

6 A. Don't know. Didn't see them.

7 Q. Didn't see SWAT.

8 How many Metro officers did you see?

9 A. Approximately 10 or 12.

10 Q. Okay. But again, you don't recall whether there was --
11 whether SWAT was present?

12 A. Do not, sir.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. TANASI: All right. Thank you, sir.

15 Nothing further. I'll pass the witness.

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Lovelien.

18

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. Good afternoon, Sergeant Serena.

22 A. Good afternoon, sir.

23 Q. Now, according to the video and your testimony, you said
24 that you arrived on the bridge at 12:18; correct?

25 A. Approximately or so.

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, can you pull up Exhibit 32a
2 and go to 12:18.

3 Okay. Stop.

4 (Screenshot published.)

5 BY MR. PEREZ:

6 Q. Now, Sergeant, this appears to be where you stopped. And 7 I believe you testified that you stayed there for a period of
8 time?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. How long?

11 A. In that general vicinity of the bridge, probably the 12 remainder of that part of the day.

13 Q. Okay. And, now, you said that the wash was beneath you;
14 correct?

15 A. Let's go maybe a little further north. I think that at 16 that exact spot, there's probably a dirt mound and then it
17 leads into there, but, so maybe a little more and then
18 underneath the truss of the bridge.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. PEREZ: Brian, can you bring up Exhibit 17b,
21 please.

22 (Counsel conferring.)

23 THE COURT: What's the exhibit number?

24 MR. PEREZ: 17b?

25 THE COURT: "B" as in boy.

1 MR. PEREZ: That's right.

2 Okay. Stop it right there, Brian.

3 You can stop it, Brian.

4 Now you need to back it up.

5 Stop it right there.

6 (Screenshot published.)

7 BY MR. PEREZ:

8 Q. Okay. Now, Sergeant, the -- on the screen, in this area
9 here (indicating), now that would be, is it Trooper Madsen?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that would be his vehicle?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. And using the screen, can you show me where the --
14 the actual overpass begins on that side of the highway?

15 A. On our side?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. The one that we're on?

18 THE COURT: On the northbound bridge.

19 THE WITNESS: I believe it was a little bit further
20 out of -- you can see where the -- there was actually going
21 underneath it, so I would be about here (indicating).

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Okay. And approximately what's the distance from the 24 front of that vehicle to the bridge?

25 A. I'm not sure.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. PEREZ: Now, Brian, bring up Exhibit 66.

3 (Exhibit 66 published.)

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Now, this gentleman in the background right here
6 (indicating), how far is he from that vehicle, approximately?

7 A. I'd say 10 feet or so.

8 Q. So he's not -- not actually on the bridge; correct?

9 A. I don't know exactly where they consider the bridge
10 starting, but if you're just talking about where everything
11 came through underneath, then no.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MR. PEREZ: Brian, Exhibit 33a, please, at 12:29.

14 (Exhibit 33a published.)

15 MR. PEREZ: Okay. You can let it play from there.

16 Okay. Stop it right there.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Now, this individual here (indicating), that's the same
19 individual that we saw standing in front of the --

20 Trooper Madsen's vehicle?

21 A. Yes.

22 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Play it a little further, Brian.

23 (Exhibit 33a published.)

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Stop, Brian.

25 ///

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. And what is that individual doing right there
3 (indicating)?

4 A. Leaning on a wall.

5 Q. Okay. And what time of the day is that?

6 A. 12:29.

7 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, continue on, please.

8 (Exhibit 33a published.)

9 MR. PEREZ: Stop it right there, Brian.

10 BY MR. PEREZ:

11 Q. Could you tell what that man sitting on that Jersey
12 barrier was doing at that time?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Did it look like he was drinking a bottle of water?

15 A. Possibly.

16 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, continue on, please.

17 (Exhibit 33a published.)

18 MR. PEREZ: Stop it right there, Brian.

19 BY MR. PEREZ:

20 Q. Now, is this you here (indicating)?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And you're turning away from the gentleman sitting
23 on the Jersey barrier; correct?

24 A. Turning my head.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. PEREZ: Brian, continue on, please.

2 (Exhibit 33a published.)

3 MR. PEREZ: You can stop right there for a moment.

4 BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. Well, now, you did almost a 360 right there; correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So you didn't just turn your head; you turned your back?

8 A. Yes.

9 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Brian, continue on, please.

10 (Exhibit 33a published.)

11 MR. PEREZ: Stop right there for a second, Brian.

12 BY MR. PEREZ:

13 Q. Okay. This gentleman sitting on the -- on the Jersey
14 barrier here (indicating), his attention seemed to be drawn in 15 the -- in the direction of Trooper Madsen's vehicle. Was there
16 anything significant going on up there?

17 A. Not that I remember.

18 Q. Okay. Thank you.

19 MR. PEREZ: Brian, please.

20 (Exhibit 33a published.)

21 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Now, stop it right there, Brian.

22 BY MR. PEREZ:

23 Q. Now, that gentleman's still sitting on the Jersey barrier
24 at that time?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. At any time do you recall if he advanced forward towards
2 the bridge?

3 A. I do not recall.

4 Q. Okay.

5 MR. PEREZ: Thank you. I have nothing further.

6 THE COURT: Anyone else?

7 On behalf of Parker.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Brian, can we get up 31a, please.

9 Can you just stop it at any time. Thank you.

11 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. Okay, trooper. You went over 31a I believe on direct 14 examination. Do you remember this particular exhibit, your 15 dash cam?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And this -- the current time here is 11:28:17.
18 Would that be a.m. on April 12th, 2014?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. And this right here (indicating), this is your 21 speed. It's -- I believe it says 104 miles an hour?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, where are you, if you remember, at this
24 particular juncture?

25 A. I'm north of the Moapa Substation.

1 Q. Okay. So you just left the Moapa Substation and you're
2 traveling where?

3 A. North to the area that traffic is stopped.

4 Q. Okay. And the reason you're following in that direction
5 at such a high rate of speed is it's your belief that officers
6 are in need.

7 Is that fair to say?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I believe the prior testimony that was elicited is that 10 officers were having weapons pointed at them or something along
11 those lines?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And that's in the general vicinity of which you are 14 going at 104 miles an hour; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. Brian, if we could go to 2
18 minutes and 53 seconds in, please.

19 Okay. And stop it be please.

20 (Screenshot published.)

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Now, on direct examination you were asked some questions
23 about this particular pickup truck?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. I'm circling that (indicating).

1 Do you remember that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And I believe you had testified something along the lines
4 of, I wrote down, these individuals had military gear on.

5 Do you remember that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Can you describe that more in depth, what you saw?

8 A. They appear to be wearing BDUs, boots, things like that.

9 Q. I'm sorry. What was the first thing you said?

10 A. BDUs.

11 Q. I'm sorry. What's a BU or BEU [sic]?

12 A. It's a type of military pant.

13 Q. Okay. And what does that look like?

14 A. It's got cargo pockets and it usually sometimes they're 15 camouflage, sometimes they're single color, solid color. Just 16 depends.

17 Q. Okay. So how many people do you remember in the back of 18 that truck?

19 A. One or two.

20 Q. And you just remember that they were wearing some sort of 21 military pants?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Anything else that sticks out in your recollection?

24 A. Nothing at the moment.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. MARCHESE: And Brian, if we can go to 17d,
2 please.

3 17d, like David. I believe it's the first part.
4 19:32.

5 I'm sorry, try . . . If you can back up to 6 18:30 UTC.

7 Back up, Brian, 18:30 UTC. Upper left.

8 Okay. Just let it play and stop it right there.

9 (Screenshot published.)

10 BY MR. MARCHESE:

11 Q. Now, sir, this is the -- would you agree with me that this 12 is the Toquop Wash area (indicating)? It's an aerial footage
13 of it?

14 A. It can be. I can't say that that is exactly that area,
15 but it's of a wash.

16 Q. Okay. And would you agree with me on this particular
17 exhibit that we're showing that at this point there are no
18 people that you can see in these particular two dashes
19 (indicating) that I've drawn dangling across the screen in the 20 wash area?

21 A. Yes, at that moment.

22 Q. Okay. And are you familiar with UTC time?

23 A. I'm sorry. One more time?

24 Q. Are you familiar with UTC time?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, we object to this as beyond
3 the scope. We didn't go through this exhibit with this
4 witness. He's not even familiar what the area is that it
5 depicts.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Well, it's already been introduced
7 into evidence. I'm actually moving on, so . . . if he can
8 answer, he can. If he can't, he can't.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 MR. MARCHESE: And if we can go, Brian, to 32a when 11 you get a chance.

12 BY MR. MARCHESE:

13 Q. And before I -- we -- I show you 32a, I want to go back to 14 this -- and you can just stop it, Brian.

15 I want to go back to this -- what you said about 16 individuals pointing weapons at the officers when you were on 17 your way there.

18 Do you remember that line of questioning?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Mr. Tanasi asked you some questions about a report that 21 you authored. I wanted to talk to you about some prior 22 testimony that you gave at a hearing prior to today.

23 Do you remember doing that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And isn't it true that at that particular testimony you

1 didn't mention anything about people pointing weapons at
2 officers?

3 MS. CREEGAN: Objection, Your Honor. The witness
4 doesn't choose what questions to answer in testimony; counsel
5 does.

6 THE COURT: So . . .

7 MR. MARCHESE: I'm just saying he didn't say it. If
8 they didn't ask it, I -- I mean --

9 THE COURT: So what was your objection?

10 MS. CREEGAN: I don't see how it's proper impeachment
11 to say he didn't mention something he wasn't asked.

12 THE COURT: All right. It's improper impeachment.
13 Sustained.

14 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, could we have a sidebar?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

17 MR. MARCHESE: If you can just bear with me a second.
18 I'm trying to pull up the portion here.

19 Your Honor, I can tell you exactly what it says. The 20 issue is, is that he was asked something to the effect of he 21 had a briefing and then at the briefing they were told that 22 they needed to get out because they needed to do something to 23 the effect of extract the BLM or something like that. I
24 believe it's a -- it's a very fair line of questioning. I
25 shouldn't be held to a disadvantage because the Government

1 didn't ask that. If it was a fair point, if it -- if he had --
2 if they had known about it, it's my belief that they would have
3 asked that previously at the last trial. He has not authored
4 any reports and it's not in any 302s. Mr. Tanasi correctly
5 elicited that it wasn't in his own report, so, I'm just simply
6 trying to admit that this is the first time, that I'm aware
7 of -- I think I have a good faith basis to ask it -- that he's 8 ever said anything along those lines.

9 MS. CREEGAN: Well, I'm not sure where counsel's
10 referring to the question about at gunpoint or whether the 11 question is a question about pointing, because I think it would 12 be a question, and it's already been asked, about whether he 13 said that before, but if the Government doesn't ask whether he 14 saw pointing, for whatever reason, they can't impeach
15 Government counsel through the witness for not asking the 16 question, whether it's accident or whatever other reason. The 17 witness was never inconsistent.

18 MR. MARCHESE: I'm not saying he's inconsistent. I'm 19 saying he's not said it. He's omitted it.

20 MS. CREEGAN: But if it's not something that he was
21 asked --

22 THE COURT: It's not omitted if he wasn't asked about 23 it. Was -- is it in -- was --

24 MR. MARCHESE: It's never been in a statement before.
25 This is the first time, three and a half years later, anyone's

1 hearing this.

2 MS. CREEGAN: I believe he did point [sic] that he
3 saw the weapons being pointed in his report.

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 MR. MARCHESE: No. What I'm talking about is when he 6 is going there and he's saying that officers are being held at 7 gunpoint. That's never been brought out.

8 MS. CREEGAN: So, if I'm understanding counsel
9 correctly, we're no longer talking about the pointing of guns;
10 we're talking about the gunpoint statement?

11 MR. MARCHESE: Him being held at gun -- well, not
12 him, excuse me, officers being held at gunpoint.

13 MS. CREEGAN: So my objection was to the question
14 about pointing guns because he's never been inconsistent on 15 that point, but if this is --

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MS. CREEGAN: -- it's -- so I'm not sure what the 18 sidebar is for.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Maybe that was -- maybe I was -- I
20 wasn't articulating my point or my question properly. That's 21 where I was going.

22 THE COURT: All right. So the objection to the 23 question is sustained. You can rephrase it, that way that it
24 keeps in line --

25 MR. MARCHESE: Well, let me just get to the point so

1 I can save everybody some time. Can I ask, "Isn't it true, at 2 the prior hearing, you did not mention that officers were being
3 held at gunpoint in the wash?" Is that a proper question?

4 MS. CREEGAN: I think it wasn't -- if it's set up by 5 whether he was asked a relevant question, then yes. If it's 6 not set up by whether he was asked a relevant question, then
7 no.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. See, that's the misleading part of 9 it is, is that if no one's ever asked him. It would be
10 different if he was asked and he said no and now he's saying
11 yes. That's an inconsistent statement. But an omission --

12 MR. MARCHESE: The problem is he's bringing it up for 13 the first time now, three and a half years later. We've 14 already established he didn't put it in his report.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 MR. MARCHESE: It's not any 302s.

17 MS. CREEGAN: Then I would say the point is made.

18 THE COURT: Well, he doesn't write his own -- yeah.

19 MR. MARCHESE: Well . . .

20 MS. CREEGAN: But I guess my objection would be asked
21 and answered.

22 THE COURT: Yeah. Either it's already been asked or 23 it's an omission, not an inconsistent statement and the 24 omission is whether -- unless you can give me a specific
25 question that he was asked that he should have included it? I

1 mean, if he said, "And it was red and it was white and it was
2 blue." "Any other color?" "No. No other color," and now
3 today he says, "Oh, and it was also green," then that's an 4 omission that would be --

5 MR. TANASI: I don't have the transcript to --

6 THE COURT: -- probably elicited, but otherwise, I'm
7 not sure -- he probably also didn't say a whole of other stuff.

8 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah, but, I mean, this is a huge
9 point.

10 MR. TANASI: I think -- I guess the only thing I
11 would add and I don't -- haven't had a chance to go through the 12 entire transcript, but I would add that I do recall that he was 13 asked about why -- how things changed on his way from the 14 briefing to what he hears on the radio. And so, in that line
15 of questioning he -- I'm fairly certain he doesn't say officers
16 were being held at gunpoint. That's the -- that's the silence
17 that's inconsistent with today's testimony.

18 MS. CREEGAN: Counsel's already pointed out that it's 19 not in the report, but in order to set up that it's omitted
20 from testimony, they have to set up the relevant portion. In 21 order to set up that it should have been included in testimony,
22 they need to point to a question and answer that it would have 23 been called for by. Otherwise, it's not his responsibility to 24 volunteer information when he testifies.

25 THE COURT: Yeah. Agreed.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor --

2 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Your Honor, on a different note, can
4 I -- I had some health issues this weekend and I'm going to 5 need to use the restroom before I cross-examine.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we're -- you're not going to 7 get to cross-examine.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh. Okay. Well, I still need to use
9 the restroom.

10 THE COURT: We're done at 4:15.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you. Okay. Okay.

12 THE COURT: I promised the jurors. They wanted to 13 leave. One of them has an appointment and has to go there.
14 Otherwise, he probably wouldn't be on the jury any more.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you decide to change your 16 mind, I still need to use the restroom.

17 Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

20 THE COURT: The objection was sustained. So, go
21 ahead and ask your next question.

22 MR. MARCHESE: Are we back on the record?

23 THE COURT: Yeah.

24 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you go to 39:30.

25 Actually, that -- let's go with the current time,

1 12:21:08. It will be right in the middle there, Brian.

2 Okay. And you can just play it from here and go to 8
3 seconds and stop it to get the witness acclimated to the time
4 frame.

5 (Exhibit 32a published.)

6 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And you can stop it there.

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. Okay. Have you had an opportunity to look at the last
9 couple seconds and what's been playing on the dash cam?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that's off Trooper Madsen's dash cam; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Is Trooper Madsen in this particular screenshot?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And where is he?

16 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: Your Honor, nothing.

17 THE COURT: Oh.

18 Has this been admitted? Yes. We can't see it,
19 though.

20 Thank you.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. Okay. And just to -- I don't think you identified him,
23 but can you just identify Trooper Madsen?

24 A. He's the officer with the green vest in the Number 1
25 travel lane.

1 Q. Okay. Well, I'm guessing the jury doesn't know where the
2 Number 1 travel lane is.

3 A. It would be the far left lane. Sorry.

4 Q. Okay. Can you just circle him? I think you can do that.

5 A. It won't allow me.

6 Q. Okay. It won't allow me either.

7 Okay. Who is that (indicating)?

8 A. That's Trooper Madsen.

9 Q. All right. Thank you. Who's that (indicating)?

10 A. That's me.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. MARCHESE: And Brian, if you can just play it for 13 a few seconds.

14 (Exhibit 32a published.)

15 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. I'm going to stop it for a
16 moment.

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. Okay. Now, who is this individual that just came into the 19 frame?

20 A. I don't know who he is.

21 Q. Okay. But you were able to see him and some of his 22 behavior on that particular day; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And I believe, and correct me if I'm wrong, he had 25 come into contact with another individual and you saw them

1 having some sort of dialogue together; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And I believe that other individual was friendly to you
4 initially before this individual got there, or something along
5 your lines of testimony; is that right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. As a matter of fact, that other individual had pointed out
8 to you, before the individual that we've circled, he pointed 9 out something about people pointing weapons at him.

10 Is that your testimony?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And then once this individual got into the area,
13 you said he stopped talking to you?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay.

16 MR. MARCHESE: And, Brian, if you could play it for a
17 moment.

18 (Exhibit 32a published.)

19 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And I'm going to ask you to 20 stop it right here.

21 BY MR. MARCHESE:

22 Q. And is this a -- is it fair to say this is a white pickup
23 truck holding a -- or pulling -- excuse me -- something?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And for the record, the time on your dash cam or

1 Madsen's dash cam is 12:21:20?

2 A. Yes.

3 MR. MARCHESE: And if we could just play it at -- a
4 little bit until the next vehicle comes into the frame, Brian.

5 (Exhibit 32a published.)

6 BY MR. MARCHESE:

7 Q. Okay. And this is a -- some sort of -- I believe it's a
8 gray, some sort of a pickup?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Fair enough.

12 MR. MARCHESE: And play a little bit more, Brian.

13 (Exhibit 32a published.)

14 MR. MARCHESE: Okay. And stop it right there.

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. And this is some sort of a green tractor-trailer, along
17 those lines?

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. Okay. And time on that is very similar. It's 12:21:33;
20 correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Now, was there ever a point in time when you and 23 Trooper Madsen, while you're on this bridge together, after 24 12:21, where Trooper Madsen was not in your line of sight so to 25 speak?

1 A. I -- there was a point in time I believe where maybe line
2 of sight, but not exactly in the same vicinity as me.

3 Q. Okay. And where did he go, if you know?

4 A. I believe he went further on down the road on the bridge
5 closer to the overwash or underwash.

6 Q. Okay. And just to be clear, when we're talking about "the 7 bridge," we're talking about northbound?

8 A. Yes, northbound.

9 Q. And when you say "northbound," he would have went in this 10 frame, just further away.

11 Is that fair to say?

12 A. Further north, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Now, you had mentioned -- I don't think you used
14 this word, but something along these lines -- you felt somewhat
15 powerless. You were unable to -- you felt outnumbered.

16 Is that fair to say?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And I believe you said on direct examination, at 19 one point in time one of the individuals pointed their weapon
20 over the Jersey barrier?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And which individual was that? Was that the individual
23 who said, "Hey, they're pointing weapons at me" or . . .

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. That was the individual that you had actually had a

1 cordial conversation with prior to the other individual getting
2 there; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You didn't speak with him at all during the rest of the
5 day?

6 A. I believe there may have been something -- some -- passing
7 some sort of short conversation but nothing like it was prior,
8 no details, no him not telling me anything, other -- nothing
9 worthwhile I guess after that. So I can't say exactly that he
10 didn't say something else to me, but I don't recall that.

11 Q. Okay. It would be hi and bye, something very quick and 12 nothing of -- substantive?

13 A. Nothing that I can actually remember.

14 Q. Okay. Did you ever just go up to him and say, "Hey, 15 what's going on"?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. After he pointed his -- his weapon over the Jersey
18 barrier?

19 A. At that point when he was there in a crouched position,
20 you know, pointing his weapon over the Jersey barrier, that's 21 when I walked up to him, like, "What's going on?" you know,
22 "Why?"

23 Q. Okay. And in relation to that, did he stop doing that?

24 A. Did he stop?

25 Q. Yes.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Did he threaten you in any way after that or
3 anything like that?

4 A. No.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Calls for a legal
6 conclusion.

7 THE COURT: Sustained.

8 BY MR. MARCHESE:

9 Q. Did he have a volatile conversation with you after that?

10 A. In which manner?

11 Q. Right after you went up to him, you said, "What's going 12 on?" and then he pulled his weapon back in some way, shape, or 13 form.

14 A. What do you consider a volatile conversation?

15 Q. Well, did he say that he was going to inflict physical 16 injury on you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did he use any explicative language with you?

19 A. No. Not that I remember.

20 Q. Okay.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Court's indulgence.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 (Counsel conferring.)

24 MR. MARCHESE: No further questions, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Perez, did you have any questions?

1 MR. PEREZ: I've already -- I've already examined.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Leventhal, are you
3 the last one?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. So we'll go ahead and take
6 our evening break now. Please remember, you are not to discuss
7 this case with anyone nor permit anyone to discuss it with you.

8 Do not read or listen to or view anything that
9 touches upon this case in any way and do not attempt to perform
10 any research or any independent investigation and please do not
11 form any opinion until after you have heard all the testimony,
12 received all the evidence. We will provide you with the jury
13 instructions, the legal instructions that you can apply to the 14 facts and then you may hear the closing arguments of counsel.
15 After all that, then you can begin your deliberation process.

16 So let's go ahead and stand for the jury and we'll
17 welcome them back at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

18 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: Officer Serena, when they've exited, when 20 the jury has exited, then you're excused as well for the 21 evening. We'll need you back here at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow
22 morning.

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 All right. We're off record.

4 (Outside the presence of the jury at 9:14 a.m.):

5 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

6 THE COURT: You may be seated. Good morning.

7 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: This is the time set for
8 Jury Trial Day Nine in Case Number 2:16-cr-046-GMN-PAL,
9 United States of America vs. Eric Parker, O. Scott Drexler,
10 Ricky Lovelien, and Steven Stewart.

11 THE COURT: All right. So, my understanding is 12 Mr. Myhre wanted to place something on the record. Before we 13 do that, let me just remind everyone that -- about how to 14 conduct yourselves in court during trial, whether it's --
15 whether the jury's present or not. Please remember that this 16 is a courtroom; it is not is sporting event. So it is never 17 appropriate to show or display any expression, whether verbally
18 or through body language or any other distracting actions, no
19 matter how much you may agree or disagree with what is being
20 said.

21 In addition, we do have the microphones for the 22 attorneys. The podium is turned towards the witness so that we 23 can continue eliciting testimony. However, we do not allow 24 cell phones or any other electronic devices in the courtroom.
25 The attorneys have them so that they may review and prepare

1 their case, but no one else is permitted to have electronic
2 devices. The Court Security Officers and marshals do have them
3 so that they can communicate with each other, but there is,
4 otherwise, no other electronic devices that are appropriate.

5 There is never any recording, audio recording or 6 video recording that is permitted in federal court. So even if 7 you have your cell phone turned off or in vibrate mode or 8 privacy mode, it is not permitted in the courtroom so please
9 make sure that you remove it. The marshals and Court Security
10 Officers are authorized to remove anyone who does have an 11 electronic device.

12 I think that's it.

13 The defendants are aware and have heard these rules
14 several times. If there is anyone who speaks out of turn or 15 does anything distracting or an attempt to communicate with 16 each other or with the jury, they will be removed from the 17 courtroom. We do have a speaker system that is set up in the 18 holding room on the other side of that door (indicating) and so
19 that's where the defendant will spend the rest of the day if 20 they can't comply with these simple rules in order to be able
21 to stay in the courtroom and exhibit the proper decorum.

22 All right. So Mr. Myhre, what is it that you wanted
23 to place on the record, sir?

24 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor, and thank you.

25 THE COURT: Good morning.

1 MR. MYHRE: I wanted to address this at the end of
2 the court day yesterday, but it was a long day and
3 Mr. Leventhal had to depart the courtroom fairly quickly. I
4 wanted to address the issue with Mr. Schillie's testimony.

5 At the end of the testimony we had a -- a question
6 from juror -- Question Number 45 from the jury about whether or
7 not Mr. Schillie felt fear on that bridge. We'd had a sidebar
8 about it. We had -- we had indicated that we did not object to 9 the question, but we did not want to go beyond just the fear
10 factoring into whatever else he may have seen out there and so
11 forth. In follow-up to that, Mr. Tanasi got up and asked the 12 question, words to the effect of, and you felt fear because BLM
13 was pointing weapons at you.

14 So, Your Honor, first of all, that is in direct
15 contravention to this Court's pretrial ruling in its motion in 16 response to our Motion in Limine, your ruling at -- your order
17 of 9 July of this year, which says that no evidence of third
18 party, either opinions or testimony or observations about BLM
19 conduct, is admissible until and unless the defense makes a
20 proffer outside the presence of the jury and demonstrates how 21 it is relevant to any defense or any element of the crime.
22 That was not done. That was in direct contravention to your 23 order. It was in direct contravention to what we talked about 24 at the sidebar. Furthermore, there was no good faith basis to 25 even ask the question because there's nothing in his 302 or any

1 other investigative document that says that this witness saw
2 BLM pointing guns at him. So now we're in the position of 3 hearing that question, us standing up and objecting, the Court
4 sustained the objection, but the jury's heard it and we've 5 already litigated this issue, we've talked about it a number of 6 times pretrial, Your Honor. So, we just believe that this was 7 done with some motive here and -- and we believe that sanctions
8 are appropriate at some level. We defer to the Court on that.
9 We have a number of thoughts about that, but we would seek
10 further admonishment that there needs to be a proffer before
11 these questions are asked of jurors [sic]. It's very clear in 12 the Pretrial Order what the parameters are and Your Honor, we 13 believe that they will continue -- the defense will continue to 14 try to press these issues in contravention of the order, try to 15 get things before the jury that shouldn't be before them. So
16 that's what we wanted to place on the record, Your Honor, and 17 we would defer to your judgment on that.

18 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, if I may address that?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. TANASI: Turning to the Court's order, Item No. 3
21 as it's bullet pointed on Page 2 says, "What's precluded is 22 third party or layperson testimony or opinion about the level
23 of force displayed or used by law enforcement during 24 impoundment operations."

25 What happened at sidebar was a question that lend

1 itself to fear. He got on the stand and testified that he was
2 in fear. What preceded that were pictures of Mr. Parker laying
3 on the bridge, not pointing a weapon at him. He was asked
4 whether or not he felt fear because of the people who were on
5 the bridge. His answer was no. At that point, Your Honor, I
6 believe that we're entitled to get into the source of that
7 fear. The only other individuals that are in the entire mix,
8 for lack of a better word, on the day of the 12th are other law
9 enforcement individuals, who, logically, were the only
10 individuals who were pointing weapons at him.

11 I didn't get into whether or not he felt that 12 Mr. Parker was justified in being pruned out on the bridge or 13 whether or not the militia were justified in their presence
14 there. What I got into was establishing or understanding what 15 that level of fear was. That -- that question, that fear, when 16 ruled -- ruling out Mr. Parker on the bridge, lends itself to 17 the question of, where does that fear come from then. So I
18 believe that the door was -- was opened to get into that -- 19 that area and that line of questioning. I didn't take it any 20 step further to get into whether or not he believed that the 21 BLM was excessive in using their force or whether or not he 22 knew that the BLM was properly marked as BLM or whether he knew
23 those folks who were down under the bridge were BLM people or 24 not BLM. I didn't take it that far at all. I asked the one
25 question, which logically ruled out the source of fear, which

1 is my client on the bridge next to Mr. Parker. I didn't go any
2 further than that, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: I completely disagree. You purposely
4 misled the jury knowing what was in the 302 and knowing what
5 the witness had said. He said that he was in fear and that's
6 why he left, not that he was in fear when he got out of his car
7 and got on the bridge. So, he said he was not in fear of the 8 people on the bridge when he got out of the car. But at the 9 end -- and you remember from the photographs, and that's why I
10 asked him, are you referring to the -- when you first got out
11 of the car, everyone on the bridge was standing, and that was 12 the first picture, was everybody was standing when he got out
13 of the car so there was no fear of the people on the bridge.
14 After he looked down at the wash, he takes photos of the wash,
15 then he starts looking up again and now people are prone and 16 pointing guns and that's when he has fear and that's when he 17 leaves. And you knew from the 302 when you asked him, "were 18 you in fear" and he said "yes" and you said, "well, where is 19 that in your -- in the report," and it was the portion of the 20 report that records that he had said he saw people on the 21 bridge with firearms aimed over the protestors, or over the 22 crowd, towards the BLM.

23 MR. TANASI: But, Your Honor, and that --

24 THE COURT: That was the portion that he was 25 referring to when he said he was in fear. You wanted him to

1 say, well, but, specifically you didn't use the words "in fear
2 of" or in -- or "concerned for my well-being," but that was the
3 portion of the report that he was referring to when you said,
4 well, you never mentioned that you were in fear and he said,
5 well, I said there were people pointing guns at the BLM.

6 So, it -- I agree that that was beyond the scope of 7 the order that was not to get into third persons -- this 8 witness was a third person -- asking them about the actions of 9 the BLM in any way to show a self-defense. So that -- asking
10 him specifically whether those people were -- he was in fear
11 because the BLM was pointing guns at him was definitely going
12 in that direction, eliciting information and testimony that I
13 had ruled was not admissible.

14 MR. TANASI: May I make one more comment for the 15 record, Your Honor?

16 THE COURT: So, what kind of sanctions, Mr. Myhre?
17 Are you asking for a mistrial or are you asking for something
18 less?

19 MR. MYHRE: We're not asking for a mistrial,
20 Your Honor. We're asking for something less.

21 First of all, we think a verbal admonishment is 22 sanction as well, but we have also contemplated ordering that 23 the defendants preview their closing statements for us so that
24 we can address -- if these issues are going to be continually
25 raised, that we're able to address them well in advance of

1 closing when we get there as a -- a potential sanction.
2 Another potential sanction, and we're not asking for this yet,
3 but we -- we're contemplating an instruction at the end of this
4 case, assuming once all the evidence is in, as to what the --
5 specific instruction that BLM conduct is not at issue in this
6 case so that the jury is not misled or misdirected or thinking,
7 well, can BLM be raising guns or pointing guns or whatever. So
8 those are the potential sanctions, Your Honor, that we're 9 contemplating.

10 THE COURT: And you want me to . . . give that 11 instruction at the end with the jury instructions or do you
12 want a limiting instruction when the jury returns this morning?

13 MR. MYHRE: If I may have just a moment, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 (Counsel conferring.)

16 MR. MYHRE: I think we'd like to wait, Your Honor,
17 because we're into this Catch-22 of re-raising an issue to them
18 and that -- and flagging it and if it stops here, we may be 19 okay at the end of the trial from our perspective, but if it
20 continues on, we believe that instruction may be warranted.
21 But I don't want to highlight it for the jury now while we're
22 still in the Government's case-in-chief.

23 THE COURT: All right. So I'll take that under 24 submission then.

25 And, Mr. Tanasi, you're still standing. Is there

1 something else that you wanted to say?

2 MR. TANASI: There is, Your Honor, just with respect
3 to how the questioning went.

4 I understand the Court's order, which is for the
5 record, you know, I went through the 302 with him on my cross.
6 I didn't go through the 302 with him on my follow-up questions.
7 My follow-up questions were narrowly tailored to follow up the 8 questions that the juror asked, but I understand the Court's
9 ruling.

10 THE COURT: I didn't say you went through the 302
11 with him on cross. He had already seen it on direct and knew 12 what it was that he was referring to.

13 MR. TANASI: And the only reason I raise it,
14 Your Honor, is just to demonstrate that -- at least to advocate
15 that there's not the calculation that I think the Court has in 16 mind and that the Government is alleging, but, I understand the 17 Court's ruling.

18 THE COURT: I do believe the calculation was there.

19 All right. So let's go ahead then and bring in the 20 jury.

21 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

22 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

23 (Jury returned to courtroom at 9:30 a.m.)

24 THE COURT: Good morning. Jury may be seated.

25 Everyone else may take a seat as well.

1 Let's have counsel please record their presence on
2 the record, please.

3 MR. MYHRE: Good morning, Your Honor, ladies and
4 gentlemen.

5 Steve Myhre, Erin Creegan, and Nadia Ahmed on behalf
6 of the United States.

7 THE COURT: Good morning.

8 MR. TANASI: Good morning, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 Rich Tanasi for Steven Stewart who is present. Also
10 with us at counsel table is Tori Bakken and Brian Glynn.

11 Thank you.

12 MR. MARCHESE: Good morning everyone, Your Honor.

13 Jess Marchese on behalf of Eric Parker.

14 THE COURT: Good morning.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Good morning, Your Honor. Good
16 morning, everyone.

17 Todd Leventhal on behalf of Scott Drexler.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. PEREZ: Good morning, everyone.

20 Shawn Perez on behalf of Ricky Lovelien.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 All right. So we're going to now continue with 23 cross-examination of our witness, Sergeant Serena, and I think
24 that, Mr. Leventhal, you were up next on behalf of defendant
25 Drexler.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Good morning, sir.

6 A. Good morning, sir.

7 Q. My name is Todd Leventhal and I represent Scott Drexler.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. I want to, just because we took a break overnight, sort of 10 just bring us back.

11 You were a -- were you a sergeant of NHP back in 12 2014?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay. And you were working on April 12th of 2014;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay. And in the morning of April 12th, 2014, you
18 indicated that you had a briefing early in the morning;
19 correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. At approximately 9:00?

22 A. Approximately.

23 Q. Okay. And from that briefing then you proceeded over to 24 the Bunker- -- Bunkerville area; correct?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And specifically you went to the Toquop Wash; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. All right. Now, if -- Brian, could we pull up 31a,
4 please. And go to 3 minutes and 45 seconds, and just stop at 5 3:45.

6 And just stop it for a minute.

7 (Screenshot published.)

8 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

9 Q. Okay. This is your -- sir, this is your dash cam;
10 correct?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And this is -- so, this is the -- your vehicle and we see 13 your name where I am circling Serena (indicating). That would 14 be you; correct?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. And the current time would be here (indicating) at
17 11:28:01; correct?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Okay. Now, does your dash cam go on automatically or do
20 you have to turn it on?

21 A. It has several different ways in which it can activate.
22 One, it can go on once we hit a certain speed. We can activate
23 it ourself, or once lights and sirens are activated.

24 Q. Okay. Then -- if the lights and sirens are activated, or 25 any one of those three, then it's an automatic thing or you can

1 manually do it; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. So you kept your -- from the time you left, you
4 kept it running, your dash cam?

5 A. As long as I remember.

6 Q. Okay. What about if the vehicle stopped, is it running?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. Can you go ahead and play
10 that, Brain.

11 (Exhibit 31a published.)

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop at 3:50. Stop. Back up just a
13 bit.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. All right. Now . . . just back up a little bit, if you
16 could. A little bit more. Go back to 3:45. Stop. Play it.
17 There you go.

18 (Exhibit 31a published.)

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop it.

20 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

21 Q. Okay. So, we are -- just to put it in perspective, we're 22 on the northbound bridge; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And we're going away from Las Vegas; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay. And we're going towards the wash area; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Okay. And you've encountered what appears to be a lot of 4 traffic there; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And as you're driving by, you're seeing cars to the 7 right and to the left; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Your rights and sirens are on?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. If you could pay attention to this individual right
12 here (indicating) hanging out of his -- it looks like he's 13 hanging out of his sunroof there?

14 A. It appears to be.

15 Q. Okay. And at this point were you aware of what he was 16 holding?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you go forward a little bit.

20 (Exhibit 31a published.)

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop.

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Do you have a better idea what he's holding there?

24 Is that a camera?

25 A. I can't honestly tell.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Go ahead and little bit more.
2 (Exhibit 31a published.)

3 Stop.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Can you see that?

6 A. It may be. I'm not a hundred percent sure.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: All right. If we can go forward
9 then, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 31a published.)

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: And . . . stop.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. This gentleman here (indicating) -- these two are in the 14 back of a pickup -- is that normal or typical of what you would 15 see on the I-15, people standing in the back of their pickup?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. And these two people here (indicating), it looks
18 like this gentleman on the right, he's holding something?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Does that appear to be some kind of a phone or a camera,
21 or do you know?

22 A. I can't tell.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we can keep going, Brian.
24 (Exhibit 31a published.)

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you can go to 5:26, Brian.

1 Okay. Stop right there.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. Now, you've reached what's sort of the -- I guess
4 this impromptu parking lot?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Right? Okay. Because that wasn't a parking lot before;
7 correct?

8 A. As far as I know.

9 Q. Okay. And so, this would be the parking lot to the right
10 here (indicating), where I've circled, where a lot of people
11 pulled in?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. All right. And this gentleman right here
14 (indicating), who seems to be pointing something, were you able 15 to determine what that was? Was that a camera?

17 Q. That's a camera. Okay. Very good.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you could just go on then,
19 Brian.

20 (Exhibit 31a published.)

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop it right there.

22 Go back. To the end. 5:59.

23 That should be good.

24 Okay. Play it.

25 Okay. Stop.

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. All right. So, we then reach sort of the end of where, I
3 guess, the protestors were behind us; correct?

4 A. For the most part.

5 Q. Okay. And this white area where I'm drawing that line
6 (indicating), that would be the start of the wash area?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Would that be correct?

9 Okay. So the parking lot was a distance even away
10 from where the start of the bridge began; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Do you know, approximately, that distance?

13 A. I do not.

14 Q. Okay. And that white area, that would be the Jersey
15 barrier that I'm pointing to right -- or circling right there
16 (indicating)?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can back up to 2 minutes and 55
20 seconds.

21 (Screenshot published.)

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Okay. Now, you were asked on direct about this van or 24 this truck here (indicating); correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you indicated that you saw some people in the back
2 there with I think you said BDU?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And BDU is an acronym for Battle Dress Uniforms;
5 correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. So that would be military style outfits?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Head to toe?

10 A. I don't recall.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can pull up Government's 6,
13 please. And this is just -- just for demonstrative purposes
14 only. I know you haven't seen this, sir, I'm just trying to 15 find out if -- what BDU is to you.

16 Go to 1:08, please.

17 That's fine. Stop right there.

18 (Screenshot published.)

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Okay. Sir, these gentleman here in the front row
21 (indicating), would these gentlemen be -- what you consider
22 BDU, just for purposes of a definition?

23 A. For the pants, yes.

24 Q. Okay. Hats?

25 A. It's a military hat of some sort.

1 Q. Shirts are sort of like that. That's dress BDU, battle
2 ready --

3 A. Yes. There's different variations of it, but that would 4 be one similar to it.

5 Q. Okay.

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we could go back to 31, Brian.
7 And go back to . . . 2:55, please.

8 Okay. And stop.

9 (Screenshot published.)

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. Now, this vehicle right here (indicating) that you've 12 indicated had the people that are dressed in BDU, they pulled 13 over for you, sir?

14 A. They moved to the right.

15 Q. Okay. Your lights and sirens were on; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could just play that 18 going forward.

19 (Exhibit 31a published.)

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. All right. So you were able to actually pass them;
23 correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you had your lights and sirens on and so, you were

1 able to actually maneuver within the traffic; correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Fair to say that you arrived then first to the wash
4 area?

5 A. From my squad, yes.

6 Q. Okay. Fair to say that you arrived before that truck did?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated yesterday that on the way over,
9 after the briefing, I believe, that you were to understand that 10 there were officers being held at gunpoint; correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Is that all you heard, that officers were being 13 held at gunpoint?

14 A. From what I recall.

15 Q. Okay. So, the gentlemen there in the truck, they arrived
16 after you did; correct?

17 A. I would say so.

18 Q. Okay. And as we saw -- if we can go forward to 5:59 --
19 just play it real quick. Okay. Stop.

20 (Screenshot published.)

21 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

22 Q. There's nobody on this northbound bridge (indicating);
23 correct? No pedestrians? No traffic there; correct? At this
24 time when you arrived.

25 A. I can't tell.

1 Q. You can't tell from that?

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Play a little bit more, maybe. Go
3 ahead, Brian. As much as you can.

4 (Exhibit 31a published.)

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. Do you see anybody on that bridge (indicating)?

8 A. Not from that photo.

9 Q. No? Okay.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If we could go to 31b.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Your Honor, I don't believe 31b is
12 admitted.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, it's not? Okay.

14 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: It's not.

15 MS. CREEGAN: "a" is but not "b."

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: "a" is? Is "c" admitted?

17 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: No.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good.

19 32a, has that been admitted?

20 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Yes. 31a, 32a, and 33a were admitted.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Perfect.

23 If we can go to 32a.

24 (Screenshot published.)

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Now, in looking at this, this is actually not your camera;
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. This is Madsen's camera or dash cam, if you will?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And he's your partner; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Do you know whether your camera was rolling the 10 whole time?

11 A. I believe so. I can't be a hundred percent sure of it,
12 but I believe so.

13 Q. Okay. Did you have your mic -- do you have a mic that 14 links into your -- your vehicle?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. So if you are on a call and you're speaking to --
17 let's say you pull somebody over, you're speaking to a driver,
18 does it pick up on a mic, in your vehicle?

19 A. Sometimes.

20 Q. Sometimes?

21 A. Not always, but yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 1:47. Go ahead and 24 just play it to 1:49.

25 (Exhibit 32a published.)

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. So, I believe you indicated that you're on the left there;
4 is that correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And that's Madsen on the right there; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. Now, this gentleman here (indicating), he's --
9 looks like he's pointing at something; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you can go forward, please.

13 (Exhibit 32a published.)

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop there.

15 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

16 Q. Now, it looked like you engaged in some conversation with 17 this gentleman. Okay. Yes?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: If you could keep going, to 2:05.

21 (Exhibit 32a published.)

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop there.

23 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

24 Q. Now, it looks like you're pointing at something.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And do you remember what you were pointing at, sir?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. And what was that?

4 A. There was an area in which the individual was explaining
5 to me about a vehicle that was parked down there.

6 Q. Okay.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: And if you could go to 2:12 and stop
8 there.

9 (Screenshot published.)

10 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

11 Q. These gentlemen right here (indicating), they seem to be 12 crouching down?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. And you're still engaged in conversation with that 15 one gentleman; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go to 3:09, please.

18 (Screenshot published.)

19 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

20 Q. Okay. Now, you were also out there, sir, to do crowd
21 control?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And therefore, you had the bright green sort of uniforms
24 on; correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. If you could play it to 3:20.

2 (Exhibit 32a published.)

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop there.

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Okay. What -- we saw you. Now, there's no traffic going
6 by so you didn't have to do traffic control, but now you're 7 walking in the crowd; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You're looking around and you're seeing what people are 10 doing?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. I saw that you sort of spun around a little bit;
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Now, you indicated yesterday, I believe your 16 testimony was, the reason why you had your back towards the 17 protestors was -- or back towards them was because you had guns
18 around you at all times; right?

19 A. There were people around us at all times.

20 Q. Okay. Just people, not necessarily with guns?

21 A. It was a good mix, sir.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. To give you an exact number, I wouldn't know.

24 Q. I understand. Okay.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can go to 6:30.

1 (Screenshot published.)

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead and play it.

3 (Exhibit 32a published.)

4 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

5 Q. Okay. Now, do you remember talking to this trucker here
6 (indicating)?

7 A. I do not.

8 Q. Okay. And . . . stop.

9 Okay. That's you right there (indicating), sir?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. It looked to be like you were waving at an individual in 12 this vehicle; correct?

13 A. I made some motion. I don't know exactly what it was.

14 Q. Now, were you aware of the presence of SWAT out in the 15 area that day?

16 A. I may have. I don't recall exactly and I don't remember
17 where I was ever seeing them.

18 Q. Okay. Were you aware of Metro's presence out there that 19 day?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And did you know -- I believe you were asked on 22 direct how many Metro officers were out there that day?

23 A. 10 to 12.

24 Q. Okay. Have you seen a copy of your dash cam?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: If I could play Defense Exhibit 5018e
3 just for the witness, please.

4 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: 5018e?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. "e."

6 (Exhibit 5018e published to witness.)

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Do you recognize this dash cam?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Is that your dash cam?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Does that appear to be the dash cam on 13 April 14th -- April 12th, 2014?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The vehicle in front, does that appear to be your partner
16 Trooper Madsen's vehicle?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay.

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Judge, at this time I would offer up
20 Defense Exhibit 5018e.

21 (Exhibit 5018e offered.)

22 THE COURT: You want to lay a foundation for whether 23 or not it's a fair and accurate depiction of what he saw?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sure. I apologize.

25 ///

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. So, this is -- this was done on April 12th, 2014; correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Current time would be 13:00:40 seconds; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. That would be approximately what time?

7 A. About 1 o'clock.

8 Q. 1 o'clock.

9 Okay. And does this fairly and accurately represent
10 what it is that you were looking at during that day and time?

11 THE COURT: Well, first of all, you need to establish 12 whether -- where he was at that time and whether he was seeing,
13 or has previously seen, what is in this tape.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Do you know -- I'm sorry.

15 THE COURT: Go ahead.

16 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

17 Q. Do you know where you were at 1 o'clock?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. If I played it a little bit more, maybe that would 20 give you some perspective. Would that help?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead and play it for just the 24 witness, please.

25 (Exhibit 5018e published to witness.)

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: You can move it forward just to see,
2 Brian, to about 6 minutes.

3 Go to 6:55, Brian, please.

4 There. Back up a little bit.

5 (Exhibit 5018e published to witness.)

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

7 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

8 Q. Is that you, sir?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Does that fairly and accurately -- now, do you
11 understand, does that fairly and accurately represent where you
12 were during that time?

13 A. At that moment, yes.

14 Q. Thank you.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: At this time, we'd offer up
16 Defense Exhibit 5018e.

17 (Exhibit 5018e offered.)

18 THE COURT: Do you intend to play all of it or just 19 up until that point?

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. Actually, just from 5 -- 6
21 minutes -- about 7 minutes to 7 minutes and 30 seconds -- 7
22 minutes 40 seconds.

23 THE COURT: So, do you intend to show the portion
24 that you -- that he identified or a portion that he has not yet
25 identified?

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: I will -- I will go forward.

2 Go ahead. Brian, play, please.

3 (Exhibit 5018e published to witness.)

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: And stop there.

5 So, it would be from 7 minutes to about 7 minutes and 6 50 seconds, Your Honor, that clearly Sergeant Serena was 7 visible, it's his dash cam, it fairly and accurately represents
8 the area. He's identified the area, the time, and the --

9 THE COURT: You can't testify. The witness can 10 testify. You can ask him those questions and --

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Do you want me to do it again?

12 THE COURT: Just ask him if all -- if the -- 13 everything that he's seen fairly and accurately represents.

14 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

15 Q. Everything you've seen fairly and accurately represents 16 the time; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. The place, which would have been your vehicle parked at 19 the bridge; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And that was you in the video that we saw; correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: I would move for the admission of 25 5018e.

1 (Exhibit 5018e offered.)

2 THE COURT: Well, you only showed him up to -- I
3 can't read that current time, but, is it 13:07?

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah, just --

5 THE COURT: So, you can admit the portion that you've 6 shown him that he's laid the foundation for. If you want the 7 whole thing in, then you have to show him that.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't. Just from 7 to -- I'll say
9 7 to 8 minutes down here, which would be . . . if we can go
10 back to 7 minutes, Brian, so I can get a time, current time on 11 the . . . 7 minutes would be 13:07:01 -- and go to 8 minutes --
12 which would be 13:08:02.

13 THE COURT: Any objection from the Government?

14 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor. We object on scope
15 and relevance. This time period puts it past the retreat of 16 the BLM and the assault that the Government alleges. So we 17 don't see how it's relevant.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: If we can have a sidebar, I'd 19 appreciate it.

20 THE COURT: Sure.

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

22 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

23 THE COURT: I think it was Mr. Leventhal who asked
24 for the sidebar.

25 Go ahead, sir.

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yeah. So, the -- the Government has
2 indicated that this is an ongoing conspiracy. They have
3 brought in and brought forth testimony regarding after the --
4 this alleged consult -- assault happened of people saying
5 goodbye to people that occurred well into the afternoon.
6 They've brought that -- they brought that in. They're going to 7 continue on bringing that in. This is --

8 THE COURT: Wait. People saying goodbye to people?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Flipping them off. Saying -- you
10 know, when people are leaving -- actually, I don't know if 11 they've actually brought that in yet. I might be going back to 12 the other trial. I apologize.

13 They're going to probably be tendering, I've seen in 14 the evidence, of people flipping the BLM off when they leave,
15 which is well after this alleged assault they contend that's 16 part of the ongoing conspiracy. So, they can't now have it
17 both ways. It's not part of the ongoing conspiracy. That's 18 what they've alleged, it's an ongoing conspiracy, and they 19 bring in -- they're going to bring in testimony from -- and 20 witnesses and videos from -- I know that Stewart is coming in.
21 They had Engel last time, you know, yelling and saying "F" you
22 to the BLM leaving, which was after the alleged assault. So,
23 they can't have it both ways.

24 This was at 1 o'clock. It wasn't that far after the 25 assault had occurred. People are still leaving. There's a

1 gentleman with a gun in the video and I'm asking to offer it in
2 for -- I think it's very relevant. It's his video. It's his
3 dash cam and it's his words and him on it.

4 THE COURT: So what is the relevance?

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: That it -- it goes to this -- the 6 ongoing -- their theory that there's an ongoing conspiracy.

7 THE COURT: So how -- so you're referring to it to 8 rebut the --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct.

10 THE COURT: And how does it rebut the conspiracy
11 charge?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Because there's been testimony that
13 everybody out there was scared and nervous. It also would go
14 to bias because he indicates, on the radio, that everybody's
15 happy, everybody's okay, and there's nothing going on up here.
16 So that would also go to bias and impeachment of this witness
17 who said that he was scared when he gets on the radio and says
18 otherwise. But as far as the conspiracy goes, it's -- it's 19 just the alleged ongoing conspiracy that they've alleged that 20 if everybody says that -- and they were scared and that was the 21 part of this conspiracy, that's the rebut when he gets on the 22 radio and says, everything's happy, everyone's good up here.
23 That's what he says.

24 THE COURT: And he says that after the incident?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. His car is still parked there;

1 it's not after the incident.

2 THE COURT: Oh, I thought you just said it was after
3 everyone is gone.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I'm saying -- No. I apologize.
5 No. No. People are still leaving. We just saw that on the 6 video. There's a guy walking with a gun. People are still
7 leaving and he's drinking a drink. Everybody's still around.

8 THE COURT: But the BLM is gone?

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: I think they're in the process of 10 leaving at this point. They haven't left yet. They're 11 still -- I believe even at the time when they put up the sign
12 that says the west -- I don't believe that's even been put up
13 at this point and they've gotten in -- that's definitely come
14 in, how the west is won. That's -- this is prior to that. It
15 would have been after sort of the backoff, yes, but the -- you
16 know, the unfolding of the how the west's been won sign that 17 they've already brought in, that's already come in. So,
18 that -- that came after, actually, this officer getting on 19 the -- and saying everybody's happy, we're all good, no
20 problems here.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Creegan?

22 MS. CREEGAN: Well, we certainly allege an ongoing
23 conspiracy and if this video showed Drexler and Stewart turning
24 teach other and saying, "I don't know you; I got to go," that 25 would be relevant to disprove an ongoing conspiracy. None of

1 the defendants actually appear in this video, but to say that
2 things are calmer once the assault has ended, I'm not sure how
3 that shows that he wouldn't have been afraid at the time that
4 the assault is ongoing.

5 THE COURT: Yeah. So it doesn't sound like it's 6 relevant to the conspiracy --

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's -- it's -- it's --

8 THE COURT: -- to the agreement part of the 9 conspiracy. So you're -- your relevance is to the fear --

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Fear.

11 THE COURT: -- the assault to the --

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sure, yes.

13 THE COURT: -- fear element of the assault?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Yes. And whether he
15 actually --

16 THE COURT: I'm trying to not put words in your 17 mouth.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I'm -- and I'm trying to put -- 19 I'm trying to put words in my -- I'm sorry. I'm trying to put 20 words in my mouth. All right? But it goes to his fear and 21 whether or not he was actually fearful that day and he --

22 THE COURT: So fear or lack of fear.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Correct. And it doesn't just go
24 forward in time and it doesn't just go there. He says, "We're 25 all good," so, meaning past tense. It was a -- it was a -- he

1 said it as if it was past tense. "We're all good.
2 Everything's fine up here. No problems. Everyone's
3 happy," something like that.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Right, but at the point the demands of 5 the people assaulting the BLM had been fulfilled so, that
6 doesn't show that he wasn't afraid at the time that the assault
7 was ongoing.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: And I -- and -- and -- and -- again,
9 I think that's fair game for redirect, one, and two, I think
10 that -- that there's going to be testimony that some officers
11 actually left the scene and were -- I think our next one up --
12 has still fear to this day. They're going to testify that 13 still to this day they have fear and here's a guy who's on the 14 bridge with these people who apparently didn't have fear. But 15 we're going to -- we're going to hear from people who are going 16 to talk about fear, too, from three, four years ago up until 17 now. We're going to have fear -- this fear thing is going to 18 keep going, and this officer testified that he had fear and it
19 doesn't -- that's not what he says on the -- on his dash cam.

20 MS. CREEGAN: Well, he doesn't say I never had fear.
21 He says at this point things are calm and nothing's going on,
22 which is, to the charges that have been alleged, accurate. At 23 that point the BLM had strategically withdrew [sic] from the 24 people were assaulting them.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Then it shouldn't be a problem coming

1 in if that's what it is.

2 MS. CREEGAN: It just doesn't -- I guess my position
3 is that just doesn't establish threshold relevance if it's not
4 connected to a time period where people would be expected to 5 have --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, it --

7 MS. CREEGAN: -- said that there's something going on
8 or something. There would be nothing to say --

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Even though it's --

10 MS. CREEGAN: -- is going on.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Even though it's at 1 o'clock in the 12 afternoon, I still believe there's still people up on the 13 bridge, because we see them walking on the dash cam. We --
14 he's still talking to people. He's still moving traffic.
15 They're still there in uniform. He hasn't changed anything,
16 other than -- and again, the -- the -- this whole fear thing
17 goes on until they leave, which they haven't left yet, and the 18 drape comes down how the west been won. This happens prior to 19 that. And he is not talking -- and you can -- you can take it
20 for what you want, but I don't believe he's talking future and 21 I don't believe he's talking present. To me, it's a past tense
22 statement that everybody's okay up here, we're all good.
23 That's what it seems like to me.

24 MS. CREEGAN: That's a present tense statement.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: It was -- to me, it was a present and

1 then there was a past tense statement in there that talked
2 about everybody's good, we're all okay up here, we've been
3 okay, or something of that nature. I can go back through it,
4 but to me, there was a -- there was a hint of a past tense,
5 like everything was okay up there, that no problems had
6 occurred up there.

7 MS. CREEGAN: I think it was --

8 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to allow it and you can 9 cross-examine [sic].

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: You may cross-examine [sic] the witness
12 on that point to clarify anything that's misleading.

13 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

14 THE COURT: So the objection's been overruled.
15 Exhibit 5018e will be admitted and the Government will have an 16 opportunity to redirect the witness on that particular video.

17 (Exhibit 5018e received.)

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: And we'll need to clarify,
19 Your Honor. Thank you. Just 5018e from the time of 7 minutes
20 on the video to 8 minutes; correct? Just that one --

21 THE COURT: I believe that's the portion that he
22 identified.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's correct.

24 THE COURT: Yes. Yes.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: So just that portion?

1 THE COURT: Just that portion.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Very good. Thank you.

3 If we could go, Brian, to the 7 minute mark and play
4 it, please.

5 Do we have audio?

6 Well, may I produce that for the jury?

7 THE COURT: Did you wish to publish?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Yes. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: You may.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you.

11 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. Okay, sir. So . . . go ahead and play it, Brian.

15 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

17 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

18 Q. Okay. So, Sergeant Serena, this person here (indicating)
19 that I am circling, that is you; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And we see a head here (indicating). Were you able 22 to discern who that was or do you need me to back it up just a
23 second?

24 A. Back it up just a second, please.

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Back it up, please, Brian.

1 No? Okay. That's okay.

2 Go forward.

3 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: And again, if you could stop -- stop
5 right there.

6 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

7 Q. This vehicle (indicating), I know we didn't go through
8 this for the jury, but this vehicle was Trooper Madsen's
9 vehicle; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. So, earlier today when we were showing you videos,
12 we -- we saw the videos from actually his dash cam; correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And we're facing the northbound bridge; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you're parked directly behind him; correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. And again, the time now is 13:07:09; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. It looks like you are having some kind of a drink;
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead and play it, Brian.

25 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

1 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

2 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

3 Q. Okay. This gentleman (indicating) is walking towards you;
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. It looks like he has some kind of a long gun;
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead, Brian.

11 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

13 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

14 Q. Now, he said something to you; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you remember what he said to you?

17 A. I believe "thank you."

18 Q. Okay. He said "thank you" to you?

19 A. I believe.

20 Q. Okay. And he walks on; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead, Brian.

24 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there, Brian.

1 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

2 Q. Now, you engage in conversation with him?

3 A. Some sort.

4 Q. Okay. And you also follow him; correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. And it looks like you're smiling there; correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Go ahead, Brian.

10 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Okay. Stop right there.

12 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

13 Q. Okay. So, you indicated that everyone down here is 14 peaceful; correct?

15 A. I don't know if that's exactly what I said.

16 Q. Do you want me to replay it for you?

17 A. Yes, please.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: Can you back it up, Brian?

19 If you could turn it louder, too.

20 (Exhibit 5018e published.)

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: Stop right there.

22 BY MR. LEVENTHAL:

23 Q. Okay. So you indicated everyone down here is peaceful;
24 correct?

25 A. "Everything down here."

1 Q. Everything. I apologize. "Everything down here is
2 peaceful"?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And all is good?

5 A. And everyone's happy.

6 Q. And everybody's happy?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Very good.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: Thank you very much. I have no
10 further questions.

11 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

12 THE COURT: Redirect?

13 MS. CREEGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

14

15 REDIRECT EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

16 BY MS. CREEGAN:

17 Q. Sergeant Serena, that clip you were just shown, do you
18 remember where -- when in the day that that was?

19 A. When the date of it?

20 Q. Yeah. When in the day it was?

21 A. Oh. It was at the -- more the end of the day after the 22 cattle had been released.

23 Q. So this is when tensions have come down?

24 A. Much.

25 Q. And the BLM's already evacuated somewhat?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. So people have got -- the people with guns have
3 gotten what they wanted?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So now they're peaceful?

6 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading, Your Honor.

7 MR. MARCHESE: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Overruled -- I mean, overruled. He may 10 answer the question, which he did.

11 Go ahead.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. And you were shown a little bit of video where you engaged
14 with an individual with a long gun.

15 Do you remember that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What was your purpose in engaging with that individual?

18 A. He initially engaged with me and the manner in which he 19 was -- he presented himself, so it was conversation.

20 Q. Okay. Did you have a mission that you were -- while you
21 were still there at that time, what was your sort of general
22 mission at that time?

23 A. Keep the peace.

24 Q. Keep the -- I'm sorry. Could you repeat that?

25 A. To keep the peace.

1 Q. Okay. And again, were you in any sort of position to
2 arrest people?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. And you were asked some questions about how many
5 law enforcement officer you saw there. Do you remember about 6 how many there were total from all agencies that you were aware
7 of?

8 A. Probably with what I actually physically saw, 30, 35. I
9 can't swear to it, but that's about all that I remember seeing.

10 Q. Were you in a position with 30 to 35 officers to effect
11 arrests?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Now, you were asked some questions by Mr. Tanasi yesterday
14 about your report.

15 Do you remember about how long your report for 16 April 12th, 2014, is?

17 A. About two pages.

18 Q. And how long were you at the Bunkerville area on
19 April 12th?

20 A. Several hours.

21 Q. About how many individuals did you observe?

22 A. Hundreds.

23 Q. Were you able to record every single observation?

24 A. No, ma'am.

25 Q. Is that what the purpose of a report is?

1 A. No, ma'am.

2 Q. What's the purpose of a report?

3 A. A general overview.

4 Q. You were also asked by Mr. Tanasi about meeting with the 5 FBI, with the U.S. Attorney's Office in the course of the 6 investigation.

7 Do you remember that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Has anyone ever asked you to do anything other than tell
10 the truth as you remember it?

11 A. No, ma'am.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. No further questions.

14 THE COURT: Any recross?

15 MR. TANASI: Briefly, Your Honor.

16

17 RECCROSS-EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. Just heading back to that report. You agree with me it's 20 important and good police work to put everything that's 21 important in that report though; right?

22 A. As much as we can.

23 Q. Right. And so you agree with me that it's important for 24 you to testify, at least as you did yesterday, that you saw --
25 or you were made aware of law enforcement being held at

1 gunpoint. That was the testimony from yesterday; right?

2 That's an important fact; right?

3 A. It was a small point at that part, but yes.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. In the overall scheme of what I did, it was a very small 6 part of everything that had happened.

7 Q. Okay. But again, you didn't report that important fact in 8 your report; right?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. Okay. Thank you.

11 And actually, one last question. You just testified
12 that maybe you weren't in a position to make arrests; right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. But you still had the authority and the ability to make 15 arrests; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you did not; correct?

18 A. Did not.

19 MR. TANASI: Thank you, sir.

20 THE COURT: Anyone else?

21 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

22 THE COURT: Any other redirect?

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

24 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

25 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, thank you,
2 Sergeant Serena for coming in. You are excused. Please be
3 careful --

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: Well, Your Honor --

5 THE COURT: Oh, no. I'm sorry. Jury questions.

6 Go ahead and take your time writing down the question
7 neatly. Please remember, try not to use the pronouns. Tell us
8 who you're talking about.

9 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

11 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

12 THE COURT: So, Jury Note No. 46, "Did you or anyone
13 controlling traffic ever completely stop traffic either
14 direction on I-15?"

15 Any objection?

16 MS. CREEGAN: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 47, "If your high
18 headquarters believed that there were officers being held at
19 gunpoint, why did they send reinforcements?"

20 Did or didn't? Let me see. "If your high
21 headquarters believed that there were officers being held at
22 gunpoint, why did they send reinforcements?"

23 I'm not sure I understand the question. Is there any 24 objection to it, other than that, that it's difficult?

25 MS. CREEGAN: No.

1 MR. MARCHESE: No.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

3 If you high -- If your headquarters believed that
4 there were officers being held at gunpoint why did they send --
5 why didn't --

6 MR. PEREZ: Maybe they mean why didn't they?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why didn't.

8 THE COURT: That's what I'm thinking is didn't, but 9 it says did.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Did not or did. I don't know.

11 MS. CREEGAN: I don't know why they sent him in?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why him?

13 THE COURT: Any objection?

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: To reading it that way?

15 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why did they send it in?

17 THE COURT: Yeah. I think I'll say I think what they 18 mean is did not, but either way --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: Why did they? Because they did.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. Do you know? I mean, I don't 21 think he'll know. Anything other than -- he won't know the 22 mindset of why he was sent; he'll just know what he -- his 23 purpose was, what his assignment was, his duty was.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

25 THE COURT: So, I'll ask that -- I'll read it the way

1 it is and tell him that perhaps the question is why did they
2 not send reinforcements or why did they send you, why -- just
3 phrase it in why were you sent, to the best of his knowledge.

4 Jury Note No. 48 has two questions. The first one
5 is, "What time were you informed officers were being held at 6 gunpoint?"

7 Any objection?

8 MS. CREEGAN: No.

9 MR. PEREZ: No.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

11 THE COURT: And the second one is, "To your 12 knowledge, was this statement accurate to what you observed
13 after you arrived?"

14 Any objection to that?

15 MS. CREEGAN: No.

16 THE COURT: Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: No objection.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 49 is long, so I'll 19 take it -- looks like four questions, possibly five questions.

20 "Did you observe anyone from down in the wash aiming 21 guns up at your position" -- and then in parenthesis --
22 "(protestors)?"

23 Any objection to that?

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

25 THE COURT: The second question on Jury Note No. 49

1 is, "Did you see anyone" -- and then parenthesis --
2 "(protestors) down in the wash aiming guns at the BLM
3 officers?"

4 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 THE COURT: Objections?

7 Okay. The third question on Jury Note 49 is, "At any
8 time were the guns that were visible on the bridge aimed at you
9 or officers that were up on the bridge?"

10 Any objection?

11 MS. CREEGAN: No.

12 MR. TANASI: No objection.

13 THE COURT: Fourth question on Jury Note No. 49 is,
14 "At any time were the people with guns asked about them, the 15 purpose of -- or intent of carrying them or to surrender them?"

16 MR. TANASI: No objection.

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

19 THE COURT: And then the fifth question on Jury Note
20 No. 49 is, "Are citizens allowed to openly carry weapons in 21 public?"

22 Any objection?

23 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

25 MS. CREEGAN: We do object to that because that calls

1 for a legal conclusion.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: But he's an officer.

3 MR. PEREZ: He knows. He's a police officer.

4 MR. LEVENTHAL: He's a police officer.

5 MS. CREEGAN: Well, would you also like his opinion
6 on whether it was a threat or an assault?

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: He's already given it.

8 MR. MARCHESE: He's given it already.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: He's a police officer. I guess, you
10 know . . .

11 MS. CREEGAN: I think it calls for a legal
12 conclusion.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: Would he arrest somebody if they were 14 openly carrying?

15 MS. CREEGAN: Nobody's been charged with an open
16 carry violation.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: That's not the question. It's not a
18 legal conclusion.

19 THE COURT: I think if there's a distinction to be 20 made here between open carry and something else, it seems to me
21 the juror already knows the answer to this question and wants
22 to know the difference. So, I'm just afraid not to ask the 23 question because then they're going to go and look for the 24 answer somewhere else --

25 MR. PEREZ: That's right.

1 THE COURT: -- which is sort of the purpose of these
2 notes, is to . . .

3 MS. CREEGAN: Right. Well, could the Court instruct
4 them that that's not in question, is whether there's an open
5 carry violation; the question is whether the defendants
6 committed the offenses charged.

7 MR. TANASI: That's her question though. That's the 8 juror's question.

9 MR. PEREZ: It's going to be up to the jury.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Right. But it's an irrelevant legal
11 question.

12 THE COURT: All right. So, I'll ask the question and 13 just let them know that no one is charged here with violating 14 any weapon -- because they are -- sort of is a weapon charge,
15 isn't it? So I can't say it's not a . . .

16 MR. TANASI: It's possession in furtherance of a
17 crime. It's not -- the charge is not a simple possession
18 charge.

19 THE COURT: Right. Right. Or of having a status
20 that would prohibit them from having guns.

21 All right. Okay. Jury Question -- Jury Note No. 50
22 has two questions. The first one is, "When you initially
23 encountered the men with the assault weapons, did your 24 assessment of the situation determine an immediate danger?"

25 Any objection?

1 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

2 MR. TANASI: No objection.

3 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

4 THE COURT: The second question in Jury Note No. 50
5 is, "If so, did you relay your assessment of danger to your
6 supervisors while on the bridge?"

7 Any objection?

8 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

9 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

10 MR. TANASI: No objection.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 51, "Did you know
12 which organization the guys that wear military outfits?"

13 "Did you know which organization a guys that wear
14 military outfits?"

15 Maybe it's "are guys." "Did you know which 16 organization are guys that wear military outfits?"

17 MR. TANASI: My only concern, which guys is he 18 referring -- is the question referring to. Is it the folks on 19 the bridge? Is it the other folks wearing military outfits?
20 Otherwise, I have no objection.

21 MS. CREEGAN: I don't have an objection to the 22 question. I think he might struggle to understand what it's 23 asking, but . . .

24 THE COURT: Other organizations who would wear
25 military outfits.

1 MS. CREEGAN: That he observed on that day?

2 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

3 Is that okay?

4 MR. TANASI: Fine. No objection.

5 THE COURT: And then Jury Note No. 52, "Was there a
6 plan to clear the unarmed people out of the area?"

7 MS. CREEGAN: No objection, Your Honor.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm sorry. I didn't hear it.

9 THE COURT: "Was there a plan to clear the unarmed
10 people out of the area?"

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: Oh, okay. No objection.

12 MR. TANASI: No objection.

13 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 53 has seven questions.
14 The first one is, "Did you witness any of the defendants
15 holding any individuals or law enforcement at gunpoint?"

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

17 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

18 MR. TANASI: No objection.

19 THE COURT: Second question, "Were you armed?"

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

21 MR. TANASI: No objection.

22 THE COURT: Third question, "Were the men with guns
23 who originally approached you hostile or aggressive towards
24 you?"

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

1 MR. TANASI: No objection.

2 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

3 THE COURT: Fourth question on Jury Note No. 53, "Did
4 the men threaten you in any way?"

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 MR. MYHRE: The men?

7 THE COURT: You do have an objection?

8 MR. TANASI: No. No objection.

9 THE COURT: Oh, I'm waiting for you to tell me what
10 it was.

11 MR. TANASI: I'm sorry.

12 MS. CREEGAN: I assume that "the men" also refers
13 back to the armed men --

14 MR. MYHRE: Did the men --

15 MS. CREEGAN: -- that he encountered when he got
16 there.

17 THE COURT: Um-hmm. Yeah.

18 So, any objection?

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

20 MR. TANASI: I guess it has that legal conclusion
21 issue, but I think it's -- no objection.

22 THE COURT: All right. So Number 5 on Jury Note 53,
23 "What did they say to you when they approached you?"

24 I think that would be hearsay.

25 MS. CREEGAN: That would be hearsay.

1 THE COURT: Unless you think that they're
2 co-conspirators.

3 MS. CREEGAN: We're not offering them for that
4 purpose.

5 MR. TANASI: Who's "they," I guess?

6 MS. CREEGAN: I assume it all refers back to the men.

7 MR. TANASI: No objection, Stewart.

8 THE COURT: Yeah. The first question is about 9 defendants, but all the rest of them are about the men with 10 guns.

11 Okay. So, Number 5, the question, "What did they say
12 to you when they approached you?" I'm just going to let them
13 know we're not -- we're not going to have him answer that 14 question because it would be calling for hearsay, which is not 15 admissible.

16 Jury Note No. 53, Number 6, is, "Did you witness any 17 of the defendants blocking off the freeway with their
18 vehicles?"

19 MR. TANASI: No objection.

20 THE COURT: Any objection?

21 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

23 THE COURT: And the last one on Jury Note No. 53 is,
24 "If you were responding to officers in danger, why was your 25 demeanor so calm, relaxed, and casual in the dash cam video?"

1 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

2 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

3 MR. TANASI: No objection.

4 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 54 also has
5 multiple questions, six questions, the first one is, "You
6 testified that people were armed with assault rifles. What
7 makes a rifle an assault rifle? Are there any prohibitions on 8 owning an assault rifle in Nevada?"

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

11 MS. CREEGAN: Well, I think it's the same issue,
12 which is, they're not charged with improper ownership of an
13 assault rifle.

14 MR. LEVENTHAL: It's a good question of the assault
15 rifle.

16 THE COURT: This is the second part.

17 So the first part is, "You testified that people were 18 armed with assault rifles. What makes a rifle an assault
19 rifle?"

20 Any objection to that portion?

21 MR. LEVENTHAL: No.

22 MS. CREEGAN: No.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So then the second portion is,
24 "Are there any prohibitions on owning an assault rifle in 25 Nevada?" And so, I'll, again, explain that there's no charge

1 here of mere owning an assault rifle and that the elements of
2 the charge, what they are to consider will be provided in the 3 jury instruction so we're not going to confuse and complicate
4 things.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: But you're also going to answer the 6 question, right? That there is no prohibition of owning an 7 assault rifle and then, that's not what they're charged with.

8 THE COURT: No. Of course there is. You could be an 9 excluded person, if you are a felon. That's the point. Are 10 you a drug addict? Are you a felon? There's other reasons,
11 you know.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: Right.

13 THE COURT: Do you have a -- have you ever been in a
14 mental institution?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Sure.

16 THE COURT: So, I mean, it's going to get -- I can't,
17 off the top of my head, remember all of the exclusions.

18 MR. LEVENTHAL: No. I understand.

19 THE COURT: And I -- it's just going to make it more
20 complicated.

21 Okay. The next question is, "Is it unusual for 22 people to be wearing BDU on Saturdays in Las Vegas?"

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: We weren't in Las Vegas; we're in 24 Bunkerville, but, no objection.

25 THE COURT: Any objection from the Government?

1 MS. CREEGAN: No.

2 THE COURT: All right. Third question is, "You
3 indicated you were fearful," and then it goes into a (a), (b)
4 and (c). "What is the basis of this fear, (a), firsthand
5 experience; (b), have you ever been directly involved in a
6 civilian volatile event that escalated?"

7 Any objection to that?

8 MS. CREEGAN: No.

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And then one, two, three and then 11 Question No. 4 on Jury Note 54, "You indicated that dispatch
12 indicated that there were weapons pointed at police. Did that 13 color your decision and action factually" -- "did that color
14 your decision and action" -- and then in brackets -- "actually
15 held at gunpoint?"

16 I think the question is was he -- is that what you
17 said the people -- that you were responded to someone being 18 actually held at gunpoint, is that because what dispatch told 19 you. "You indicated that dispatch indicated that there were 20 weapons pointed at police. Did that color your decision and 21 action [actually held at gunpoint]?" To say that they were 22 actually held at gunpoint. I think the jury wants to know is 23 that why you said that, not because you saw it, but because 24 that's what dispatch told you.

25 MR. MYHRE: I think that's the thrust of the

1 question.

2 THE COURT: I think that's what they want to find
3 out.

4 Any objection to that question?

5 MS. CREEGAN: No.

6 MR. TANASI: No objection.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Fifth question. "Did you ever advise 9 your dispatch of the actual scenario once you had boots on the 10 ground?"

11 Any objection?

12 MS. CREEGAN: No.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

14 MR. TANASI: No objection.

15 THE COURT: And last question in Jury Note No. 54 is,
16 "Who was the incident commander?"

17 MR. TANASI: No objection.

18 MS. CREEGAN: I don't think he'll know, but . . .

19 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

20 THE COURT: Any objection?

21 MS. CREEGAN: No.

22 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 55, "Mr. Serena
23 testified that on his way to the wash to help regulate traffic
24 his duties changed. When was he told that there were officers
25 being held at gunpoint? Was he being updated about that

1 situation while monitoring the traffic and people? Did
2 Mr. Serena personally see any guns being pointed towards the
3 wash or the BLM officers?"

4 So it's two different questions. So one is, was he
5 updated, the second one is did he personally see anything.

6 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

7 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 THE COURT: And Jury Note No. 56, actually put on 11 there Question No. 1. Was planning to do more. "You stated
12 you were responding to a call for support of LEOs that were 13 facing multiple armed individuals, or rather assist officers
14 held at gunpoint. What were your expectations as to what to 15 expect and how did that compare to what you actually saw?"

16 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

18 MR. TANASI: No objection.

19 THE COURT: And Jury Note 57, "Were you trained how 20 to de-escalate tense situations?"

21 MS. CREEGAN: No objection.

22 MR. TANASI: No objection.

23 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

24 THE COURT: That's it.

25 MS. CREEGAN: That's all?

1 THE COURT: Yes. That's all.

2 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

3 THE COURT: So, Sergeant Serena, I've got some
4 questions here that the jury has provided and I'm going to be
5 reading them into the record for you, but when you answer them,
6 you can turn to the jury and answer to the jury because these
7 are really the jury questions, not my questions.

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay?

10 So Jury Note No. 46 asks, "Did you or anyone
11 controlling traffic ever completely stop traffic, either
12 direction, on I-15?"

13 THE WITNESS: With that question be answered [sic], I
14 think there was a time that I know that I was involved in which 15 I stopped traffic because we had a mass group of people that 16 wanted to see the cattle leave. So, it was better to put them
17 on one side of the wall than the other. So initially, they 18 wanted to see them crossing; we stopped traffic and let them go
19 through. As to what happened on the southbound side, I
20 honestly can't answer that. I do not know. Our radio
21 communication was very bad that day so I couldn't hear a lot of 22 the traffic if something on the other side was stopped
23 completely.

24 THE COURT: So, are you saying that traffic was 25 completely stopped at one point so people could watch the --

1 from the bridge?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes. There was a point in which we
3 completely stopped traffic to aid people crossing the road
4 safely. We did do that for a length of time, maybe a minute,
5 you know, just get people across, and then traffic would
6 continue on, because my job there as much to protect anyone
7 that's there, citizens crossing through the area as much as the 8 people that were even on the bridge. It was still my job to 9 protect them to make sure that we didn't have a fatal car crash
10 up there.

11 THE COURT: So it sounds like you're sort of creating 12 a crosswalk where there is no crosswalk?

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, we did.

14 THE COURT: Was that one time only or more than once?

15 THE WITNESS: I would have to say maybe a handful of 16 times to safely get people across because initially what 17 happened was, if we didn't stop it, then the people on the 18 bridge were stopping traffic and then it was being held and 19 maintained there for quite a while. My job was to try to get 20 as many people in a group at a time that wanted to go over from 21 one side of the bridge. Like, as the cattle came, I remember
22 stopping it. We tried to get everyone to the other side of the 23 northbound bridge and then we stopped it again when they tried 24 to exit and leave the area after the cattle had crossed the 25 road.

1 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 47 asks, "If
2 your high headquarters believed that there were officers being
3 held at gunpoint, why did they send reinforcements?" And we,
4 as we were looking at these, were not sure if they meant why
5 didn't they send reinforcements or why did they send, so I
6 don't -- so, are you a reinforcement? If not, why didn't they 7 send reinforcements?

8 THE WITNESS: Okay.

9 Initially when that happened, they did send
10 reinforcements and we were it. We didn't have a lot of people
11 on the road that day. It wasn't something that is a planned
12 thing that we were trying to organize ahead of time.
13 Initially, when this whole thing started to happen, you know, I
14 was one of whoever they had in the building and, like, hey,
15 you, you, and you, we need you to go up to the Moapa Sub. At 16 that point we had -- like I said, I was involved with and my 17 assignment with the squad was to just assist DOT. It changed
18 rapidly as they got information that it was relayed to me and 19 at that point they were, like, we need assistance and go. So,
20 I went northbound and they said this is what we have going on,
21 so, get to there and go and help out. By the time we got up to 22 there, I didn't see those officers, I didn't see that 23 situation, and we had to immediately start to deal with the 24 road blockage that we had had.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So Jury Note No. 48, "What time

1 were you informed that officers were being held at gunpoint?"

2 THE WITNESS: To give you an exact time, I do not
3 recall. I remember that at the briefing at the substation,
4 when Captain Jackson came out, he grabbed me, he was like,
5 Serena, grab your squad, we got to go, we have officers held at 6 gunpoint. That exact moment in time, I do not know. I'm going
7 to say that it was going to be sometime before my video camera
8 on. That's the best answer I can give you for the exact
9 timing. It was at the substation, which, that's what we heard,
10 and that's what the mad rush to get up there was for.

11 THE COURT: All right. And then the second question
12 on Jury Note No. 48 is, "To your knowledge, was the statement 13 accurate to what you observed after you arrived?" The 14 statement refers to the -- in quotation marks they have 15 officers were being held at gunpoint. So was that statement
16 accurate? Is that what you observed when you arrived?

17 THE WITNESS: At the moment where -- where I arrived,
18 I did not see it. What I saw and we all saw on video, when we
19 came up to there, we ended up dealing with the traffic issues
20 that we had and I had already had people that were in vehicles
21 being stopped because there were people with, you know, long
22 rifles and that standing in front of them not allowing traffic
23 to go. So, unfortunately, the first need that I had to handle
24 was that there and to open up the roadway so that citizens
25 could pass through safely. That became a primary versus even

1 our own officers being, you know, held at gunpoint, wherever
2 that was, and that I did not see.

3 THE COURT: All right. So Jury Note No. 49 has one,
4 two, three, four, five questions. The first one is, "Did you
5 observe anyone from down in the wash aiming guns up at your
6 position?" And then in parenthesis with quotation marks it
7 says "protestors."

8 THE WITNESS: I did not personally see anyone
9 pointing a gun up towards where I was at.

10 THE COURT: Okay. The second question of Jury Note
11 No. 49 is, "Did you see anyone" -- and then again in 12 parenthesis with quotation marks -- "(protestors) down in the 13 wash aiming guns at the BLM officers?"

14 THE WITNESS: From my position where I was, I never 15 saw the BLM officers, so I can't say if that happened or not.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Question No. 3 on Jury Note No.
17 49, "At any time were the guns that were visible on the bridge
18 aimed at you or officers that were up on the bridge?"

19 THE WITNESS: From the ones that we saw with the 20 interactions of the people that we had, those ones, no. There
21 were ones that we had also, other spotters, and things that 22 were out and around that were giving us information letting us
23 know, but the ones that I saw there, no.

24 THE COURT: The next question is, "At any time were 25 the people with guns asked about them" . . . oh, about the

1 guns. So, "At any time were the people with guns asked about
2 them -- the guns -- the purpose of the guns or their intent
3 of -- for carrying them," meaning the guns.

4 So let me just go back. "At any time were the people
5 with guns asked about the guns or the purpose or intent of 6 carrying the guns?"

7 THE WITNESS: No. It really -- to be in the moment,
8 to understand when you arrive there and the tension that was 9 there, that wasn't the time to say, "Hey, why do you have your 10 gun?" It was a very well understood reason of why. So, there
11 was no need to ask.

12 THE COURT: Okay. And the last question on Jury Note
13 No. 49 is, "Are citizens allowed to openly carry weapons in 14 public?" And that calls for a legal conclusion so I'm just 15 going to instruct the jury that no one in this case is charged
16 with merely opening -- openly carrying weapons. There are 17 rules and regulations about openly carrying weapons. There are 18 people who are prohibited from doing that and so forth. We 19 would probably be here another two days if we were going to get
20 into all those details and this case is not about that. So,
21 there will be jury instructions about the charges that are 22 actually at issue in this case, the charges that are actually 23 charged -- the offenses that are actually charged and so you'll 24 be provided with those. But, openly carrying is not one of the 25 charges and so I'm not going to have the witness answer that

1 question.

2 Jury Note No. 50 asks, "When you initially
3 encountered the men with the assault weapons, did your
4 assessment of the situation determine an immediate danger?"

5 THE WITNESS: Yes. As we went out there and
6 approached people, we tried to keep things as calm as possible
7 considering that situation in which you were that heavily, you
8 know, unarmed or unmatched with their weaponry. Yes, the 9 assessment of it was that we could be in danger at any time.

10 THE COURT: And then Question No. 2 on Jury Note No.
11 50 is, "If so, did you relay your assessment of danger to your 12 supervisors while on the bridge?"

13 So, communication. Was there communication of your 14 danger assessment?

15 THE WITNESS: No. There -- we had, like I said, bad
16 reception with our radios. Even when the one individual had 17 given me information, trying to even call someone over there
18 was bad. There was no reception. So there was no way for me
19 to contact, you know, one of my superiors who was probably in 20 the exact same situation, but further south of me, to tell him
21 exactly what we saw or what exactly the feeling was of the 22 threat assessment.

23 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 51 asks, "Did
24 you know which organization of guys wears military outfits?"

25 So, we think what the question is asking, other than

1 the military, are you aware of what other organizations wear
2 military outfits that were on the bridge that day, that you saw
3 anywhere that day?

4 THE WITNESS: I can't say I was aware of another
5 group of military that was there beyond the individuals that we
6 dealt with. So, to give an exact answer to that, no, I can't 7 say there was another organization that I knew of that was --
8 that was there.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Not counting the military. So,
10 dis- -- just don't count the military. Just, any other people
11 who were not military that wear military uniforms as part of 12 their organization, are you aware or familiar with any 13 organization that does that? Did you see them there on the 14 bridge that day?

15 THE WITNESS: The militia is known to, you know, wear
16 that kind of military gear and those are a bunch of people that 17 we saw there that day.

18 THE COURT: And then Jury Note No. 52 asks, "Was 19 there a plan to clear the unarmed people out of the area?"

20 THE WITNESS: What we had kind of figured with that 21 day going on with the events is that we -- our process was that 22 we hoped that once the cattle had been released, that people
23 would go on their own free will and then leave the area because 24 that area is no longer an area of contention at that point.
25 So, our job was to get the cattle there, get the cattle

1 released, get it back to, you know, the people that were there
2 fighting for it, and then let them clear out on their own and
3 assist as that went on, but as our main thing was to get BLM
4 out, but after a while, we figured there's nothing more to see
5 and the people would start to leave on their own.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 53 has one, two,
7 three, four, five, six, seven questions. The first one is,
8 "Did you witness any of the defendants holding any individuals
9 or law enforcements at gunpoint?"

10 THE WITNESS: No. Not that I can remember seeing 11 anything like that.

12 THE COURT: Second question is, "Were you armed?"

13 THE WITNESS: Yes. I had my -- my handgun on me that
14 day.

15 THE COURT: On your person? I'm sorry. Did you say
16 you had the handgun on your person?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes.

18 THE COURT: The next question is, "Were the men" --
19 and then in parenthesis with an arrow -- "(with guns) who 20 originally approached you hostile or aggressive towards you?"

21 THE WITNESS: No. I can say stern, if I will, but 22 no, they weren't hostile or aggressive towards me.

23 The initial -- in the video you saw the initial guy
24 when I got there. It was unique because for me, I didn't
25 know -- you couldn't tell who was on whose side. I didn't know

1 if it was military. I didn't know who was who. If it was an
2 undercover officer. I had no clue, but the individual -- the 3 first individual you saw me speak with, you know, he's telling
4 me of, like, this vehicle that he saw that is down in the wash
5 that is pointing guns at people and I kind of -- for a second I
6 was like, I don't know who's who; can we have shirts and skins
7 so we know who's the good guys, the bad guys. I couldn't tell.
8 So, it was a difference of, like, relaying information to me,
9 but at that point I won't say that they were hostile towards
10 me -- towards the ones that I had the one-on-one encounters
11 with that I actually spoke with.

12 THE COURT: Okay. The next question is, "Did the men 13 threaten you in any way?" We think they're -- it's still 14 referring to the men with guns. Did they threaten you in any 15 way?

16 THE WITNESS: If we're referring to the ones I spoke
17 to, no.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And then, why did they say --
19 "What did they say to you when they approached you?"

20 So, that question calls for hearsay because it would 21 be a statement that's an out-of-court statement that's not
22 otherwise admissible. There's no other exception through this 23 witness for that evidence to come in, so I'm not going to have 24 the witness answer that question.

25 The next question on Jury Note 53 is, "Did you

1 witness any of the defendants blocking off the freeway with
2 their vehicles?"

3 THE WITNESS: No. When -- from what I viewed, it was
4 just the people themselves that were actually physically
5 blocking the roadway, not allowing the citizens to pass that 6 day that were heavily armed.

7 THE COURT: And then the last question on Jury Note
8 No. 53 is, "If you were responding to officers in danger, why
9 was your demeanor so calm, relaxed, and casual in the dash cam
10 video?"

11 THE WITNESS: It's a good question.

12 I think that you try -- you don't want to go into a
13 situation like that. Going into a situation -- and I think
14 about this, you know, all the time, you know, what could have 15 gone right and wrong and going into something where you can
16 walk out, you feel where someone says, you know, the tension
17 was so, you know, thick, you could cut it with a knife. That's 18 what we felt. And as an officer, I've dealt with many 19 situations and dealing with this one in particular, we have to 20 give what we think that situation is going to need.

21 Unfortunately, it may not show and people may not go, "Oh,
22 well, you didn't look scared; you didn't look this." No one
23 can judge what someone feels on the inside and at that the 24 moment that's what was needed for that situation. Right or 25 wrong, I don't know, but all I can say is I -- I lived to tell

1 a story about it so, I'm going to go with it was right at that
2 time.

3 THE COURT: What do you mean by "what was needed at
4 that time"?

5 THE WITNESS: The demeanor that I had and if they --
6 and if someone gave me a certain demeanor and someone is --
7 just like with you, if someone's abrupt and short with you, you
8 give them short and abrupt back. If someone's kind to you,
9 you're kind back. So, I gave what I received at that point.
10 There's no need to be a jerk to someone or be rude to somebody
11 if they're coming up saying, you know, "Hey, how are you
12 doing?" "Don't talk to me." That's not appropriate. My job
13 as an officer is always to do the best to keep the peace and 14 de-escalate the situation. So, if they see that we're not 15 tense and we're not edge -- on edge, hopefully that will bring 16 down the crowd as well.

17 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 54 also is a
18 multiple part question, one, two, three, four, five, has six 19 questions. The first one is, "You testified that people were 20 armed with assault rifles. What makes a rifle an assault
21 rifle?"

22 Why did you call them assault rifles?

23 THE WITNESS: The assault rifle, based on the 24 capacity of ammo that it carried on it or the amount of ammo
25 that it can fire off at any given rate.

1 THE COURT: So, it means higher capacity?

2 THE WITNESS: A higher capacity. I'm sorry. I'm 3 nodding.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. For people who don't know anything
5 about rifles.

6 THE WITNESS: I'm not a gun expert. If we're looking 7 at something that -- a certain weapon system of let's say an 8 AR-15 will be able to have maybe 15 rounds or 20, 30 rounds in 9 the magazine that's installed into the bottom of it so it can
10 fire off, that's what I consider an assault rifle. Different
11 than if you have, like, a single shot .308 with a bolt action
12 and you lock that in and you're going hunting. So it's just a 13 different type of weapon system with a higher capacity of 14 ammunition.

15 THE COURT: All right. And then the next question
16 is, "Are there any prohibitions on owning an assault rifle in 17 Nevada?"

18 So again, these defendants are not charged with 19 merely owning a assault rifle and being in the state of Nevada,
20 so I'm not going to have the witness answer that because again,
21 we would get into rules and regulations and exceptions and 22 things like that, and again, be here for two more days. So I'm 23 not going to have him answer that, but I appreciate your 24 concern and know that the attorneys are aware of that as well.

25 Question No. 2 on Jury Note No. 54 is, "Is it unusual

1 for people to be wearing BDU on Saturday in Las Vegas?"

2 So, in your experience.

3 THE WITNESS: From my experience, to see an
4 individual -- a single individual, one or two, no. To see a
5 mass of them, yes. In the situation which I was, that was 6 highly unusual. I've never seen that before in my career.

7 THE COURT: All right. The next question is, "You
8 indicated you were fearful." So the first one is, "What is the 9 basis of this fear?" And then there's an (a) and a (b). "(a),
10 firsthand experience, or (b), have you ever been directly
11 involved in a civilian volatile event that escalated?" So
12 maybe let's see if we can break that down.

13 "So you indicated you were fearful. What is the 14 basis of this fear?"

15 THE WITNESS: My basis was I was afraid I was going
16 to get shot and killed that day. You know, it's a -- I'm a
17 known person, like anyone sitting there, so to drive up into an 18 area and all of a sudden you see something like this going on,
19 it's nothing that I'd ever seen in my career before. You know,
20 it was a definite whole new experience. Like I said, there was 21 a part that one of the defense attorneys read and said that,
22 you know, in my report it read I was afraid of a backfire or an
23 accidental discharge. Yes, I was. I was extremely nervous.
24 There was a part where we heard something that happened and you
25 heard a pop and you're, like -- start, like, checking yourself

1 to make sure you're okay and everyone for a second in time
2 froze and stood still because the last thing anyone wanted was
3 to have a massive shootout. That's not what our intentions
4 were nor is that what we were ever looking for or to be in the
5 middle of. I was like anyone else; I just wanted to go home
6 that day and I got sent to a place where no one else was going
7 to be sent, especially with the limited resources we had, but 8 yes, I was very, very fearful that day of getting shot and 9 killed.

10 THE COURT: All right. And the second part of the 11 question was, "Have you ever been directly involved in a
12 civilian volatile event that escalated?"

13 THE WITNESS: Yes. I can't think of an exact
14 specific one, but yeah, we've had them where, you know, they 15 kind of -- you're arresting someone and someone goes off the 16 deep end. They get upset about something and it escalates and 17 then you work on de-escalating it again and safely, you know,
18 at that point probably arresting them and, you know, handling
19 them safely and get them to jail.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So the fourth question in Jury
21 Note No. 54 is, "You indicated that dispatch indicated there
22 were weapons pointed at police. Did that color your decision
23 and action?" And then in brackets it says, "actually held at 24 gunpoint."

25 THE WITNESS: No, it didn't. Obviously it raises the

1 bar for -- you know, where you sit for where you are
2 emotionally at, of course, but, you know, when we got there --
3 once we got there, that was honestly the last time I ever
4 thought of that situation that occurred. There were so many 5 things going on around us and now, all of a sudden, instead of 6 going to where we think, you know, you're going to go in and 7 rescue these people, now, all of a sudden, you're the ones in
8 trouble and may need rescued. So, going into it, you know, it
9 was something unusual to see people there walking in front of 10 the roadway with, you know, assault rifles not allowing traffic
11 to move. So, even though I had a concern for those officers,
12 they're on their own at that point and I had to deal with what,
13 you know, we had to deal with. We also had civilians that were 14 being stopped at gunpoint that really wanted out of that area.
15 So, my job was to get them through and to get them out of there
16 from -- you know, for their own safety as well at that point.

17 THE COURT: All right. And one, two, three, four,
18 fifth question on Jury Note No. 54 is, "Did you ever advise 19 your dispatch of the actual scenario when you had boots on the 20 ground?"

21 THE WITNESS: No. We had -- like I said earlier, I
22 had a hard time making one phone call there back when I was 23 told about a vehicle with a -- you know, someone pointing
24 weapons at people. I couldn't barely get out on a cell phone.
25 I could not hear anything on my radio and every time we clicked

1 down on it, it was just a dead tone sound to it. There was no
2 communication that I had. Maybe others did, but at that point
3 I did not.

4 THE COURT: All right. And then the last question on
5 Jury Note No. 54 is, "Who was the incident commander?" If you
6 know.

7 THE WITNESS: I believe at that point it would have
8 been Captain Jackson, the point. That's the last person that I
9 knew, because he actually came in my squad and when I had
10 separated away with Madsen, he stayed over in the other -- kind
11 of that whole parking lot area and stuff. So, he would have 12 been the ICS.

13 THE COURT: And is Captain -- Captain Jackson, is 14 that NHP?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes. Captain Jackson at that time was 16 a captain for the Nevada Highway Patrol out of Southern 17 Command.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And then Jury Note No. 55 asks,
19 "Mr. Serena testified that on his way to the wash to help
20 regulate traffic his duties changed when he was told that there
21 were officers being held at gunpoint. Was he being updated
22 about that situation while monitoring the traffic and people?"

23 THE WITNESS: No. After -- after we got there,
24 because our radios were dead, there was no real communication
25 with one another. We were within a line of sight of each

1 other, but the biggest thing was, is, you know, we went up
2 there for that sole purpose, because originally I was up for
3 traffic control with DOT. Then, you know, we get the thing
4 that there's people being held at gunpoint, so it changed again
5 and then we got out there and when we finally arrived, it
6 became traffic control again. Hence, why we put on our vest.
7 Not the way to blend in or hide because we're sticking out like
8 sore thumbs, but it was our job to take on that role and 9 responsibility of traffic control to get the 15 flowing
10 northbound again. So at that point, I didn't hear from -- I
11 don't recall or remember hearing anything from any other
12 commander there about any other situation and when we went down
13 to the bridge, I was the highest ranked individual on NHP side
14 with, you know, me and Trooper Madsen and I didn't get any 15 other intel to pass on to him, so it was just kind of me and 16 him on our own out there.

17 THE COURT: All right. And then the second part of 18 Jury Note No. 55's question is, "Did Mr. Serena personally see 19 any guns being pointed towards the wash or towards the BLM
20 officers?"

21 THE WITNESS: Okay. I saw -- when I was up on the 22 bridge, I did not see any of the BLM officers or where they
23 were at from my vantage point. Did I see people pointing them
24 over? Yes. But exactly who or what, no, I could not tell you.

25 THE COURT: What are you referring to when you say

1 "pointing them over"?

2 THE WITNESS: Pointing them over the Jersey wall
3 there, pointing them into the wash, but what exactly they're
4 pointing at, I could not tell you.

5 THE COURT: All right. And Jury Note No. 56, "You
6 stated you were responding to a call for support of LEOs" --
7 law enforcement officers -- "that were facing multiple armed
8 individuals or rather assist officers held at gunpoint. What 9 were your expectations as to what to expect and how did that 10 compare to what you actually saw?"

11 THE WITNESS: That's a good question.

12 To sit there and think about it for a minute, you
13 know, there's not too many times I can ever think in, like, my 14 own career ever that you may have a situation that, you know,
15 they tell you that you have some of your fellow colleagues down
16 there somewhere and they're being surrounded, being held at 17 gunpoint. So I don't know really what made up it. I thought
18 maybe there's 20 or 30 people and they're outnumbered and I'm 19 like, okay, we'll go in there, we'll extract them, get them all
20 safe and all kind of huddle back up again and come up with a
21 game plan to, you know, ease the tensions or do what we have to 22 do. That is not what I saw when I got down there. To show up
23 and have literally someone that's walking back and forth in the 24 roadway that's armed, I didn't know if I was going to be the 25 first target in, you know. I remember just sitting there

1 thinking, like, if this person was to fire on me, I'm just
2 going to gun it and keep going. There's no other realistic
3 observation to make. I mean, being outnumbered and outgunned,
4 I mean, we showed up with our handguns; they showed up with
5 rifles. So, we didn't have superiority and fire power and even
6 from, like, the video I wasn't -- and they're walking around
7 with their rifles slung, slung like that (indicating), so that
8 wasn't a possibility. But to see what we saw that day, to say
9 it's something that's in shock and awe, yeah, you kind of had 10 to have been there to experience that. That's something that 11 talking to many people that they have never heard of or seen
12 and it was overwhelming to begin with.

13 THE COURT: All right. And last question is Jury
14 Note No. 57, "Were you trained how to de-escalate a tense
15 situation?"

16 THE WITNESS: Yes. I refer to back, because I was 17 asked about my demeanor and that is one of the things that you
18 do as you're trained, to go through and to de-escalate.
19 Someone stops your car and he's like, "Hey, I need this, this,
20 and this from you." You're like, well, that come off a little 21 rough and you don't need to escalate that way up and you can.
22 In this situation, it was more of a calm, relaxing way, to try
23 to de-escalate the people that I spoke to and I was treating 24 them as fair as they were treating me. So if they were --
25 like, the one guy comes up, like, kind of, you know, smiling.

1 He's just all -- he was all happy. He saw the cattle go
2 through. I'm like, "All right, buddy. Good for you.
3 Everything's fine. Yeah, later." That's the impression he
4 gave me. But, when I was on the bridge with those folks,
5 that's not the impression that they got from me either nor did
6 I get from them.

7 You know, when I first got there and the individual
8 comes up and starts walking towards me, I'm like, uh-oh. I
9 have a major problem, because I'm not even out of my car and I
10 have me and my little handgun and he's coming at me with an 11 assault rifle and there's no real training for that one, you
12 know. It's something that, all of a sudden, your mind is 13 starting to think of things very, very fast. So, my greeting
14 to him was, like, "Hey, what's going on? How can I help you?"
15 Not like, "Hey, we're fine. We're cool. Everything's, you
16 know, going to be okay today." You know, whatever it's going
17 to take to escalate that situation and even if it's something
18 that -- just because even at that point that I was, like, hey,
19 it's okay, doesn't mean you're still not nervous or scared
20 inside. You have soldiers in battlefields and they go home and 21 they're sleeping and they're tense doesn't mean that they're
22 not still afraid of where they're at. Same kind of situation
23 for there, but we did the best we can to try to de-escalate the 24 situation, treat those folks with respect. You know, I
25 wouldn't treat them any different. It's still "yes, sir," "no,

1 sir," "yes, ma'am," "no, ma'am." There's no reason to go out
2 there and start name calling and treating people
3 disrespectfully. And it -- in that day, it worked for us.

4 THE COURT: All right. So let -- that's the end of
5 the jury questions.

6 Any follow-up questions from the Government?

7 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Any follow-up questions by the defense?

9 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

10 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

12 MR. PEREZ: Just one, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Come on up.

14 On behalf of Mr. Lovelien, Mr. Perez.

15

16 REXCROSS-EXAMINATION OF SHANNON SERENA

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Good morning, Sergeant.

19 A. Good morning sir.

20 Q. You said that from your vantage point that you never saw
21 the BLM officers down below the bridge. Is that --

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay. So -- now, you're on the northbound side; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And from that vantage point could you see -- could you see

1 under the southbound bridge?

2 A. Not clearly.

3 Q. No?

4 A. Not at all.

5 MR. PEREZ: Thank you. Nothing further.

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: All right. Anyone else?

8 MS. CREEGAN: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: No? All right.

10 So thank you very much. You are excused,
11 Sergeant Serena. Please --

12 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: -- be careful on the way down on your 14 steps.

15 THE WITNESS: Thank you, jury.

16 THE COURT: -- and I think we'll go ahead and take 17 our bathroom break.

18 It's 11:01. We'll try to be back by 11:15.

19 I do remind the jury that during this break you are 20 not to discuss this case with anyone nor permit anyone to 21 discuss it with you.

22 Please do not attempt to perform any research or 23 listen to or view anything that touches upon this case in any 24 way or any independent investigation.

25 If you do want a definition to a word that we've

1 used, please feel free to let us know so that we can provide
2 you with that definition. We don't want you to go looking it
3 up in the dictionary and it might mean something different
4 colloquially than the way that it's used in this particular
5 case and so we don't want you to be even more confused, so
6 please let us know.

7 And also do not form any opinion until after you've 8 heard all the testimony, received the evidence, heard the 9 closing arguments. I'll give you the jury instructions and 10 then you can begin your deliberation process.

11 So let's go ahead and stand up for the jury and 12 welcome them back about 11:17 or so.

13 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

14 THE COURT: All right. We're off record.

15 (Recess was taken at 11:03 a.m.)

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

18 Go ahead and call in the jury so we can get the next
19 witness started.

20 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 (Jury returned to courtroom at 11:29 a.m.)

23 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
24 seated and everyone else may be seated afterwards.

25 The Government may call its next witness.

1 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 The United States calls Ranger Alexandra Burke.

3

4

ALEXANDRA BURKE,

5 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been

6 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

7

8

THE COURT: Good morning, Ranger Burke.

9

THE WITNESS: Good morning.

10

THE COURT: You're going to be seated right here next

11 to me (indicating).

12

Please go ahead and remain standing.

13

COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please raise your right

14

hand.

15

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall

16 give in the cause now before this Court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

17

18

THE WITNESS: Yes.

19

COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you. You may be 20

seated.

21

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

22

THE COURT: Please state your full name for the 23

record and spell your last name.

24

THE WITNESS: Alexandra Burke, B-u-r-k-e.

BY MS. AHMED:

Q. Good morning, Ranger Burke.

A. Good morning.

Q. Are you currently employed by the BLM?

A. Yes.

Q. And what is your position with the BLM?

A. I'm a Field Staff Ranger, law enforcement ranger.

Q. And are you a uniformed ranger?

THE COURT: Can you pull that microphone closer or just speak up loader because I didn't hear that second -- I heard field ranger and then the second part of that I didn't hear.

THE WITNESS: Field staff, law enforcement ranger.

THE COURT: Thank you.

BY MS. AHMED:

Q. Can you explain to the jury what that means basically?

A. I enforce federal and state rules and laws on federal land and I patrol daily, making contacts in the field, whether that be hunters or grazing permittees, just the public in general.

Q. And are you a uniformed officer?

A. Correct, yep.

Q. And are you commissioned to enforce federal laws?

A. Yes.

Q. How long have you held this position with the BLM?

1 A. With the BLM, since 2004.

2 Q. Prior to 2004 did you have any other law enforcement
3 position?

4 A. Yes. I worked for the National Park Service starting in 5 2001.

6 Q. And were you a law enforcement ranger with the Park
7 Service as well?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And did you attend any training prior to becoming a Park
10 Service law enforcement ranger?

11 A. I did. I went --

12 Q. What -- go ahead. What training was that?

13 A. I went to a police academy where I received both a federal 14 Type 2 commission it's called, to enforce federal laws in the 15 National Park Service, as well as a state peace officer
16 certification.

17 Q. And is that the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center
18 where you attended that training?

19 A. No. That would have actually been another -- in 2004, I
20 attended a second federal law enforcement academy and that was 21 at FLETC -- are or Glynco, Georgia, and that gave me a full
22 commission, a Type 1 commission they call it.

23 Q. So, with -- with that commission, you are, again, fully 24 authorized to enforce federal laws?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Now, in addition to being a field ranger, are you also a
2 field training officer?

3 A. Correct. I'm a field training officer.

4 Q. And can you explain to the jury what your duties are in 5 terms of that?

6 A. I -- when we have new hires that come into the agency, in 7 order for them to learn agency policy and specific things to 8 our agency, once they come onto the academy, they get placed 9 with an officer in the field, actually several officers, and 10 I'm one of several that they'll be with so they can 11 successfully do field patrol themselves.

12 Q. Now, in the course of your law enforcement career, have 13 you come into contact with people in the field who have 14 firearms?

15 A. Yes. Often.

16 Q. Are you familiar, yourself, with firearms?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And how would you describe your familiarity?

19 A. Well, I've been trained in them, obviously, as well as I'm 20 a hunter education instructor and plus, I grew up hunting and 21 have family members that hunt as well as running into countless 22 hunters out in the field that have weapons, rifles.

23 Q. How common -- if it is common -- is it for you to 24 encounter people with firearms in your normal duties?

25 A. Very common. In the fall, there's rifle season and

1 throughout the year there's different seasons that are open
2 during hunting season. So, I would say on a regular routine
3 basis I run into people with firearms out in the field.

4 Q. Now, in the course of your duties as a ranger for the BLM,
5 were you involved in a cattle impoundment operation the BLM was
6 conducting in Nevada in April of 2014?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Were you providing security at that impoundment?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Were you working in that role on April 12th, 2014?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And had your general providing of security, had it changed
13 in any way that morning?

14 A. That morning, no.

15 Q. Did it come to change over the course of that day?

16 A. No. I was still protecting the Incident Command Post.

17 Q. During the impoundment -- generally, were you
18 protecting -- were your duties to provide security for the 19 people?

20 A. During the impoundment overall I originally had been 21 placed on what's -- they call the TRAP Team and it was to 22 provide security for the contractors that were rounding up the 23 cattle.

24 Q. Okay. And on April 12th, 2014, you said that you were 25 providing security for the ICP. Is that what you just said?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. So, you were not providing security for the BLM's
3 sort of makeshift police station; is that correct?

4 A. Yes. I was providing security for the civilian personnel
5 that were still there and the other law enforcement personnel
6 that were down at the Incident Command Post, as well as the 7 cattle that were -- had been seized and were down by the 8 command post itself.

9 Q. Now, where were you at the ICP, within the ICP, on the 10 morning of April 12th, 2014?

11 A. The morning, I was down in the parking area right next to 12 it.

13 Q. Did you move from that location at any point?

14 A. I did.

15 Q. Where did you go?

16 A. I went up to Post 1, which is one of the gates that's up
17 by the interstate.

18 Q. And what caused you to go to Post 1?

19 A. I heard someone say that we needed to --

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Hearsay.

21 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, it's not being offered for 22 the truth; it's being offered for the effect on the listener
23 and it affected what she did next. That's . . . it's being --

24 THE COURT: Can she just answer the question a
25 different way without the hearsay?

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Without going into what you were told, what caused you to
3 move up to the first -- Post 1, excuse me?

4 A. There were threats at the gate that I needed to respond
5 to.

6 Q. What did you do when you got to Post 1?

7 A. I immediately surveyed the scene. I observed armed gunmen
8 near the gate as well as a woman screaming and I started
9 identifying and relaying that information to dispatch, what
10 another ranger was observing, as well as I was observing, but I
11 was calling it in to dispatch so they could know what was going
12 on, what we were seeing.

13 Q. Did you at some point move from that location or did you
14 just stay there throughout your time that day?

15 A. I moved from that location. I went a little bit further
16 away. Had a little bit better view down into the wash, but we 17 were trying to create a little -- I was attempting to try to 18 create a -- more of a cover situation where I'd have a little 19 more protection.

20 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish what's
21 been previously admitted as Exhibit 17, clip 1?

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MS. AHMED: And could we please go to 19:13,
24 approximately.

25 (Screenshot published.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Ranger Burke, I'm drawing your attention to the screen
3 that's on your right.

4 Do you see that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you can touch the screen, and touching the screen, can
7 you mark where -- generally where Post 1 was, where you
8 initially were, with an "x."

9 A. (Witness complies).

10 MS. AHMED: And the witness has marked an "x" in the 11 bottom right corner.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And can you then draw a circle where you moved that you
14 just described to the jury, that area that you moved to.

15 A. (Witness complies).

16 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a circle in the 17 bottom center of the screen.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Now . . . can you indicate to the jury what you could 20 actually see from the vantage point that you had when you moved
21 to that second location.

22 A. Yeah. Do you just want me to touch it on the screen?

23 Q. Sure.

24 A. Okay. (Indicating), (indicating), and . . . let's see
25 (indicating). Sorry about that. I . . .

1 Q. So, the witness has drawn a sort of rectangle shape around
2 the northbound bridge -- or excuse me -- the northbound lanes
3 of the 15, is that correct? You could see both the northbound
4 lanes and the southbound lanes of the 15?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And you could see to where the 15 went over that wash; is
7 that correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. The Toquop Wash?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And beyond that a little bit; correct?

12 A. Say that again.

13 Q. And you could see beyond the wash on the 15 lanes?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And could you also see -- you've also drawn a circle down
16 in the wash area that looks like it captures the first few cars
17 of the BLM position; is that right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Could you see anything behind -- further north of that 20 position in the wash, or just what you circled?

21 A. Um . . . I have to sort of look at which way was north,
22 but yeah, that's basically what I saw, where it's circled.

23 That was the extent of it. I remember seeing a couple of 24 vehicles down in that way and I could see the gate, that there
25 was a secondary cattle gate down there and fence line.

1 Q. And was that under the southbound lane?

2 A. Yes. Yes.

3 Q. Now, while you were in this position that you've indicated
4 earlier, and I'll -- I'm drawing a circle where I believe you
5 had your circle earlier; is that correct?

6 A. Yep.

7 Q. While you're in that position, once you got there, what
8 did you start doing?

9 A. Immediately started looking at what our threats were. I
10 had my binoculars with me and started looking up and down the 11 interstate to identify threats to me and my partners.

12 Q. And when you say threats, can you explain to the jury what 13 you mean?

14 A. Guys with guns. There was -- when I had responded up to 15 Post 1, I had seen several individuals with weapons and I
16 wanted to continue to get in a better position, so I did, and I
17 then got to that point where I looked out and was able to start
18 identifying people with weapons, body armor, and watch them
19 congregating.

20 Q. Now, you mentioned body armor. Can you explain to the 21 jury what -- based on your training and experience, the 22 significance of -- well, first, what body armor is, what you
23 mean by that phrase?

24 A. Okay. Yeah. So, body armor is usually what police
25 officers wear in the line of duty just because there is a

1 threat of any time you're out, you have a gun on you, there's a
2 gun, but, it's a way to protect your life in case you do get
3 into a shooting so you can stop the threat against you or 4 whoever it may be against.

5 The other thing is, is you also see guys in the 6 military using it overseas, you know, when they're at war, but 7 it is not common whatsoever to have somebody wear body armor in 8 a normal interaction that I had been in in the field. So, to 9 see it here was particularly disturbing because it meant to me
10 that there was a very real threat of violence.

11 Sorry.

12 Q. Are you okay to continue?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. Now -- and there is water to your right.

15 THE COURT: There's water to your right, I think. I
16 can't see it, so I wasn't sure.

17 THE WITNESS: Okay.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead.

19 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Now, you -- I think you mentioned this earlier, but to be 22 clear. Were you looking -- when you said you were looking for 23 threats, what general area were you looking at?

24 A. I was looking at anything along the interstate, anything
25 in front of me that I could see. My whole vantage point, I

1 kept looking at to see and I was calling it out to whoever was
2 around me as well as other people were so we could stay in the 3 know of what those threats were and where they were located.

4 Q. And did you identify people that you determined, based on
5 your training and experience, were threats to you guys at that
6 time?

7 A. Absolutely.

8 Q. And do you recall some specific people that you observed?

9 A. Yeah. There was several that stood out to me and I
10 announced them. The first being there was two guys that 11 were -- appeared to be together; one guy was in full camouflage
12 clothing, head to toe. He had a camouflage hat on and to me,
13 it stuck out because it was just a different style of military
14 hat that -- or than I have seen before.

15 Q. Can I stop you there?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Now, you mentioned before that you were looking for people
18 that had firearms and body armor. Did you -- were you looking 19 for people that were wearing camouflage clothing as you just 20 described?

21 A. My main -- camouflage clothing isn't going to kill me, but 22 a rifle will and so, my big thing was to identify people that 23 had weapons that I felt could hurt me or my colleagues and then
24 I was identifying them based off of what they were wearing.

25 Q. Now, based on your training and experience and your time

1 that you had spent out in that area, was the way that that
2 person was dressed, with the camouflage hat and clothing, was
3 that typical or atypical at that time?

4 A. It was not typical. There's not a hunting season on the
5 interstate right there I don't believe and there was no reason
6 to be using that unless you're attempting to conceal yourself
7 at some point to hide. And clearly, I knew that they had come
8 to this area to engage us and so they were, it appeared to be,
9 using it to hide.

10 MR. TANASI: Objection. Speculation, Your Honor.

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. And was that -- Your Honor, may I ask --

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

15 BY MS. AHMED:

16 Q. Now, going back to this individual that you've described
17 about the -- with the camouflage clothing, what, if anything,
18 did you observe him doing once you saw him?

19 A. Well, I want to also add that he had body armor on as well
20 because the camouflage because --

21 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Non-responsive.

22 BY MS. AHMED:

23 Q. Was he wearing anything besides the camouflage clothing
24 that caught your attention?

25 A. Body armor.

1 Q. And can you --

2 A. And he also was carrying a rifle and he and another
3 individual that was next to him --

4 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Non-responsive.

5 MS. AHMED: And just -- you're fine. Let me just ask
6 the questions.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. So, did he -- what did you observe him doing?

10 A. Pointing a rifle in our direction.

11 Q. And you indicated that he appeared to be with somebody
12 else?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. What did you observe about the two people together?

15 A. They both had rifles pointed in our direction in what I
16 call a low ready or what law enforcement calls it a low ready
17 and they were together and both --

18 Q. May I ask how you knew they were together? What, based on 19 your training and experience, led you to believe they were 20 together?

21 A. They appeared to be interacting, talking with each other.
22 They -- they were next to each other, within reach of each
23 other.

24 Q. And looking at the screen that's still up, Exhibit 17, I'm 25 going to clear the circle that was there -- that's there and

1 can you mark on this screen where you observed these two
2 individuals together?

3 A. (Witness complies). Somewhere in there.

4 Q. And the witness has drawn a circle to the right of the 5 bridge area on the northbound lanes; is that correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. To the -- to our right, looking toward it.

8 Directionally, that's west of the bridge; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Now --

11 THE COURT: Can I just ask, because twice I think she 12 said pointing in "our" direction. I'm not sure, does she
13 mean --

14 MS. AHMED: And I am going to clarify that,
15 Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yeah. Okay. Go ahead.

17 MS. AHMED: I'll attempt to.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 BY MS. AHMED:

20 Q. So, and I -- and you had started to explain that you
21 observed at least the camouflage individual pointing a rifle --
22 rifle; is that correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And can you explain to the jury where he was pointing that 25 rifle when you observed him doing so?

1 A. Where --

2 Q. To -- in what direction?

3 A. In my direction. In my direction.

4 Q. And can you show the jury, with your hands and your body,
5 with the Court's permission, what you observed him doing?

6 Your Honor, may she -- may the witness --

7 THE COURT: Yes, she may.

8 THE WITNESS: So, normally you carry a rifle like
9 this, perhaps (indicating). They were hands on their rifle in 10 a low ready position (indicating).

11 BY MS. AHMED:

12 Q. And when you say "they," are you referring both to the 13 camouflaged individual and the person that he was with?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now -- and the -- for the record, you appear to be holding 16 your hands out as if you're holding a rifle?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Halfway down your chest?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you used the term "low ready." Can you explain to the 21 jury what the term "low ready" means?

22 A. "Low ready" means that you're ready to engage somebody or 23 a target and able to shoot them, but you have a millisecond
24 reaction time. So it's not -- the bead isn't on you, but it's 25 the -- the reaction time is (indicating).

1 Q. And you raised your hand very quickly when you said that?

2 A. Yes, because they can -- while they're pointing it at you,
3 looks like it's not at your heart, but they can go, boom, like
4 that, within a millisecond.

5 Q. And were they -- you indicated on the screen where you saw
6 those people. Was that where they were when you saw them
7 pointing their weapons at you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And did you observe -- the person that the camouflaged man
10 was with, did you observe what that person looked like or what 11 they were wearing?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. And what was that person wearing?

14 A. He had a darker colored T-shirt. It wasn't a camouflage
15 looking shirt, and body armor as well. It was dark in color,
16 and he had a ball cap on.

17 Q. And do you recall -- you've already indicated that he was 18 pointing a weapon. So, did he have a rifle with him?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And can you describe to the jury how he was holding the 21 rifle when he pointed it toward you?

22 A. Similar to the other individual. It was at a low ready.
23 It wasn't me looking at you right now like this (indicating),
24 it was like this (indicating).

25 Q. And for the record, you appeared to turn your body

1 sideways when you had showed where your arms were and halfway
2 down your chest?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Based on your training and experience, is -- your body
5 being sideways, is that known as any kind of position in 6 firearms usage?

7 A. Correct. Yeah. It's a blading position often used to --
8 so you can snug that rifle into your shoulder so when you
9 shoot, you're not bounced back too hard and often in hunting
10 classes it is what we teach people to -- to put their rifle
11 right there.

12 Q. And did you say that's called a "blading" position?

13 A. Yeah. You blade, um-hmm. It reduces the person who's 14 blading, their . . . them as a target. You know, if I'm 15 standing at you like this (indicating), I have a bigger target.
16 When I'm like this (indicating), you got half of me, if that 17 makes sense.

18 Q. So, the person, when they're blading their body, they're 19 reducing their profile that -- of -- their part of them that 20 can be struck?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And did you observe just the man in the dark shirt doing
23 that or both him --

24 A. Both.

25 Q. -- and the camouflaged man doing that?

1 A. Both.

2 Q. Now, while you were at the ICP on April 12th, did you
3 attempt to -- or did you do anything to document what you
4 observed of these individuals?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What did you do?

7 A. When I had time, I took photos and I attempted to take
8 photos of others that had pointed weapons at my direction.

9 Q. Did you take photos at the time that they were pointing
10 the weapons?

11 A. No. I -- I'm not going to put my iPhone up against
12 somebody's rifle barrel, so I waited until I had cover and I
13 had felt that I was in a safe enough place to try to document.

14 Q. When you observed the two individuals that you've just 15 been describing, how were you looking? Were you looking with 16 your naked eye or were you looking with some additional tool?

17 A. I was looking through my binoculars.

18 Q. And when you took the photographs you've just mentioned,
19 were you also utilizing your binoculars to take the photographs
20 or was it just with the phone?

21 A. No. I was attempting to take photos through my 22 binoculars, just to get a clearer picture of these individuals.
23 So, it was hard to line up at times, if you've ever tried it,
24 but I was able to get several.

25 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, may we publish to the

1 witness and counsel what's been marked for identification as
2 Government Exhibits 154 to 156?

3 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

4 (Exhibit 154 published to witness.)

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. Now, Ranger Burke, do you see Exhibit 154 that's on the 7 screen?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. And is that a photograph that you took on April 12th,
10 2014?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And does it fairly and accurately depict what you observed
13 on that day?

14 A. Yes.

15 MS. AHMED: And can we turn to Exhibit 155.

16 (Exhibit 155 published to witness.)

17 BY MS. AHMED:

18 Q. Ranger Burke, is this also a photograph that you took on
19 April 12th, 2014?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Does it also fairly and accurately depict what you,
22 yourself, observed on that day?

23 A. Yeah -- yes.

24 MS. AHMED: And moving to Exhibit 156.

25 (Exhibit 156 published to witness.)

1 BY MS. AHMED:

2 Q. Did you take this photograph?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And does it also fairly and accurately depict what you
5 observed on April 12th, 2014?

6 A. Yes.

7 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, Government moves to admit
8 Exhibits 154, 155, and 156.

9 (Exhibits 154, 155, and 156 offered.)

10 THE COURT: Any objection?

11 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

12 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

13 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

14 MR. PEREZ: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 154 through 156 will
16 be admitted.

17 (Exhibits 154, 155, and 156 received.)

18 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish to the jury.

19 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 BY MS. AHMED:

21 Q. Starting with Exhibit 154, Ranger Burke, can you just 22 generally tell the jury what's depicted in this photograph?

23 (Exhibit 154 published.)

24 THE WITNESS: This is one of the views I had where I
25 parked after I left Post 1. That was my view down into the 1 wash.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Does -- was this photograph taken with the aid of your
4 binoculars?

5 A. No, I don't believe so.

6 Q. And moving to -- and you said this was just one of the 7 views that you had; is that correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Now, moving to Exhibit 156 -- 155 -- excuse me -- can you
10 explain to the jury what is -- what you were capturing in this
11 photograph?

12 (Exhibit 155 published.)

13 THE WITNESS: What I'm capturing here is this
14 individual right there (indicating). That was one of the men
15 that I previously described that had his weapon pointed at 16 us -- pointed at my direction earlier, and I'm using my 17 binoculars at this point to take his photo.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. And moving to Exhibit 156, what were you capturing when 20 you took this photograph?

21 (Exhibit 156 published.)

22 THE WITNESS: That individual right there
23 (indicating). He was the second individual of the two men that 24 were together that had pointed their rifles at us, at me.

25 MS. AHMED: And the witness has circled an individual

1 that appears to be wearing camouflage clothing on the right of
2 the -- the viewer's right of the photograph.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Now, going back to Exhibit 17, clip 1, when you took the 5 photographs that we just saw, Ranger Burke, do you know where 6 those individuals were on the freeway?

7 (Exhibit 17 published.)

8 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Approximately (indicating).
9 They had just moved a little bit further from where I had seen
10 them pointing their rifles. They had moved further east on the 11 interstate, on the northbound lane.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. So they were -- you observed them -- the photographs were 14 taken of these two individuals while they were on the 15 northbound lane; is that correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And they had -- this was further east of the position
18 where you had originally seen them pointing their weapons; is 19 that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Now, going back to -- well, when you saw these two
22 individuals pointing their weapons, what side of the northbound
23 lanes were they on? The side closer to you or the side further
24 away?

25 A. The side closest to me.

1 Q. And how did you know that?

2 A. I saw them with my own eyes. They -- they were on this
3 side (indicating). There was traffic coming -- or going
4 northbound or beyond the northbound lane behind them.

5 Q. So, vehicles were not eclipsing your view of them; is that
6 correct?

7 A. No. I could see them full on.

8 Q. Now, when you observed these two individuals pointing
9 their rifles in the way that you've described, what, if any,
10 assessment did you make based on your training and experience
11 for your own and your fellow officers' safety at that time?

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to compound.

13 MS. AHMED: It might have been a long question,
14 Your Honor, but . . .

15 THE COURT: Go ahead and rephrase it.

16 BY MS. AHMED:

17 Q. Based on your training and experience, what assessment did
18 you make, if any, about your safety when you saw these two men
19 pointing weapons at you?

20 A. Based on my training and experience and as well as common
21 sense, I was completely -- I thought my life was in danger. I
22 thought I was going to die.

23 Q. Having observed them point their weapons, what -- what did
24 you do, if anything, to attempt to address the danger that they 25 posed to you?

1 A. I told other officers and I went for cover.

2 Q. If you encountered -- well, based on your training and
3 experience, what would you -- what does your training tell you
4 to do in a situation where someone uses -- points a weapon at
5 you?

6 A. If someone's pointing a weapon at me, in any other
7 scenario I would have pointed a weapon back at them and stopped
8 that threat. It's a -- if a person's pointing a gun at a
9 police officer, they're willing to do -- sorry.

10 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Calls for speculation.

11 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

12 MR. LEVENTHAL: And relevance.

13 MS. AHMED: Your Honor -- I'm asking you to only 14 answer based on your training and experience. So if that's 15 what you're doing -- Your Honor, I think that is what the 16 witness is doing.

17 THE COURT: Overruled. She may answer the question.

18 THE WITNESS: I feel if someone's pointing a rifle at 19 me, they're definitely attempting to do me harm. And in my 20 experience, if someone's going do me harm and in my training, I
21 can point my rifle back at them and stop that threat, and I
22 couldn't do that here.

23 BY MS. AHMED:

24 Q. Can you explain to the jury why you felt you couldn't do
25 that on April 12th, 2014?

1 A. For several reasons. One, I did not have sufficient fire
2 power to make it the distance to where these individuals were
3 pointing their rifles at us from. I'm not trained in long
4 distance shooting and there were a lot of women and children,
5 bystanders going by. Had I shot, there's no telling who I
6 would have ended up shooting, and then on top of it, had I
7 shot, other shots would have certainly been fired.

8 Q. Now -- Your Honor, may I publish what's been previously
9 admitted as Government's Exhibit 32a?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 MS. AHMED: And going to 12:21.

12 (Screenshot published.)

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. Ranger Burke, I'm just going to draw your attention to the 15 screen.

16 A. Okay.

17 MS. AHMED: Can we pause it? Paused at 12:21:18.

18 BY MS. AHMED:

19 Q. Ranger Burke, can you explain to the jury, what, if 20 anything, that you recognize that was just shown in that
21 exhibit?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to relevance
23 and whether or not this -- the witness can talk about this and 24 foundation.

25 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

1 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I can rephrase. I can step
2 back and ask a different question.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. You described an individual in camouflage clothing that
6 you observed on the northbound lanes.

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And that person had a rifle?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Is the image that we just showed to you in Exhibit 17 --
11 excuse me -- Exhibit 32a --

12 THE COURT: 32a.

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. -- is that -- the person that walked across the screen, is 15 that person, the way they appear, consistent with your 16 description of what you observed?

17 A. To me, it appears to be the same person.

18 MS. AHMED: Can we take that down.

19 And, Your Honor, may I publish what's been previously
20 admitted as Exhibit 66?

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MS. AHMED: And can we zoom in on the photograph.

23 (Exhibit 66 published.)

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Now, Ranger Burke, looking at Exhibit 66, are the

1 individuals -- are any of the individuals depicted in this
2 exhibit consistent with the descriptions you've provided of the 3 two people you saw pointing weapons?

4 A. It looks exactly like those two that I had identified
5 earlier.

6 Q. And you can see in Exhibit 66 what appears to be a law
7 enforcement vehicle in the background.

8 Do you see that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. When you saw those individuals pointing their weapons
11 toward you, was that law enforcement vehicle in their vicinity?

12 A. No. Not that I recall.

13 MS. AHMED: And you can take that down. Thank you.

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. Ranger Burke, did you observe anybody else on April 12th,
16 2014, that you determined was a threat?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And can you describe -- going one by one, can you describe
19 an individual that you saw that you determined was a threat?

20 A. Yes. I saw clearly a guy wearing a black hat with a
21 very -- it was a large white rectangular patch.

22 Q. And what did you see this -- well, what did you see this
23 person doing?

24 A. He was pointing a rifle in our direction.

25 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, can we go back to 1 Exhibit 17, clip 1?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 (Screenshot published.)

4 BY MS. AHMED:

5 Q. Can you indicate where you saw this person with the black
6 hat?

7 A. (Indicating).

8 MS. AHMED: The witness has drawn a circle in the 9 right -- or the most western third of the northbound bridge
10 area; is that correct?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. And can you describe to the jury what you could see of 14 this -- when you observed this person with the black hat with 15 the white patch, were you looking with your naked eye or with 16 binoculars?

17 A. I saw him through binoculars.

18 Q. And can you describe to the jury what, if anything else,
19 you observed about his person?

20 A. There was a couple things I noticed. He also was pointing
21 his rifle in our direction, but it was up. He . . . he had an 22 individual with him.

23 I -- can I go there? I don't know.

24 Q. You can describe what you saw.

25 A. Okay. Okay. Okay.

1 He had -- he was standing up and he was what I call
2 high ready. It's not low; he's on target and he's looking
3 around (indicating).

4 Q. Now, you appeared to have your arms raised up to your head
5 level. Can you -- and, Your Honor, may she demonstrate toward 6 the jury -- because she was looking toward me -- can she
7 demonstrate what she saw this person doing?

8 THE COURT: Yes, she may.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. Ranger Burke, show the jury what you were just showing me,
11 what you saw the person with the black hat and white patch
12 doing.

13 A. Black hat, white patch (indicating). I was off, but he 14 was looking like this (indicating). And as he starts to look 15 down the wash, he started doing one of these (indicating).

16 Q. So, Ranger, just for the record, you, again, had your arms
17 up at your eye level. You appeared to be looking over your 18 hand and you were moving your body as if you were panning
19 the -- your hands across --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- a certain area?

22 And you were also going up and down; is that correct?

23 A. Yep.

24 Q. Now, are these all things that you saw the individual with 25 the black hat with the white patch doing on April 12th, 2014?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And in what direction was his -- well, what kind of 3 firearm did he have?

4 A. It was a long gun of some sort.

5 Q. So, in what direction did you observe him pointing that
6 rifle?

7 A. In my direction and then he scanned, continued to scan and
8 then he pointed it down towards the wash into the wash and I --
9 into the wash.

10 Q. What did you -- based on your training and experience,
11 where did you think -- where did he appear to be pointing -- in 12 what direction in the wash?

13 A. Where my other law enforcement officers were at at the 14 gate.

15 Q. Now, when you were demonstrating to the jury what you saw
16 this person doing, you were moving up and down. Can you
17 explain to the jury, verbally, what it was that you saw him
18 doing?

19 A. He was going up and down, but getting behind cover. So
20 there would be -- there's big concrete barriers along the 21 interstate there and he would be standing up (indicating) and 22 then he would appear to go down (indicating), up (indicating),
23 almost -- it appeared that he was using cover --

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation.

25 BY MS. AHMED:

1 Q. Based on your training and experience, what did you assess
2 his movements to mean?

3 A. He was gauging how far his threats were away from him and
4 then he was going in for cover.

5 Q. Were you able to photograph this individual when you saw
6 him on April 12th, 2014?

7 A. No. He eventually disappeared I -- when I went back to 8 take a photo of that area, I didn't see him again.

9 Q. When he disappeared -- well, based on what you'd seen him
10 do, did you feel concerned for your safety based on his 11 actions?

12 A. Absolutely. He -- at that point you don't know where the 13 person is and you just saw him pointing a rifle in your 14 direction and at your colleagues down below and at that point,
15 you know, where is he? He's an even bigger threat because you
16 can't have eyes on him.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish what's been
18 previously admitted as Government's Exhibit 14?

19 THE COURT: You may.

20 MS. AHMED: And going to 7 seconds in.

21 (Exhibit 14 published.)

22 MS. AHMED: Pause it. A little bit more.

23 (Screenshot published.)

24 BY MS. AHMED:

25 Q. Now, Ranger Burke, is the individual that's in the center

1 of this screen consistent with the person that you saw with the
2 black hat with the white patch on April 12th?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. AHMED: You can take that down.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. Now, based on the -- your observations of the three
7 individuals -- and I know I've touched on this before --

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Misstates the testimony.

9 MS. AHMED: I haven't said anything -- I -- I got 10 like four words out.

11 MR. LEVENTHAL: I don't know about three individuals.

12 THE COURT: She said based on her identification of 13 the three individuals, we've seen three individuals and she's 14 identified them as the three individuals she saw.

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: I understand. Because the testimony
16 was two individuals and then two, but now I understand what she
17 said.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. I think we're still at two and 19 one.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: Two and one. Right.

21 THE COURT: Two and one.

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: I understand that the witness
23 indicated there was -- she was working -- I understand.

24 MS. AHMED: I understand the confusion. I'll clear
25 it up, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Now, Ranger Burke, you described the man in the
4 camouflage --

5 THE COURT: Are you moving on to the next person?

6 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor. I'm going back to the 7 three that we've seen.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. AHMED: Well, sorry. Let me just go on.

10 BY MS. AHMED:

11 Q. You had indicated -- Your Honor, I am now moving on to the 12 next person.

13 You indicated there was someone with this person with 14 the black hat?

15 A. Correct.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Let's -- if we're going to go on 17 to the fourth person, then let's go ahead and take the lunch
18 break.

19 MS. AHMED: Okay.

20 THE COURT: I just didn't want to break you up in the 21 middle of one of the -- don't want to make it more complicated
22 than it needs to be.

23 All right. So we're going to go ahead and take our 24 lunch break for an hour. It's 12:10. Be back here at 1:10.

25 During this break the jury is reminded, please do not

1 speak about this case to anyone nor permit anyone to speak to
2 you about the case. If you should inadvertently hear anything
3 about this case, please let us know right away or if anyone
4 attempts to speak to you about the case, please let us know
5 right away.

6 Also, do not listen to or view anything that touches
7 upon this case nor attempt to perform any research or any
8 independent investigation and please do not form any opinion
9 until after you have heard all the information and then be --
10 once you're released to begin your deliberations, then you may 11 start discussing your opinions, but not until then.

12 So, let's go ahead and stand for the jury. We'll
13 welcome them back here at 1:10.

14 And, Ranger Burke, after the jury exits, then you may 15 also step down and take your lunch break and we'll just need
16 you back here by 1:10.

17 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

18 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: All right. Off record.

20 (Recess was taken at 12:11 p.m.)

21 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.

23 Can we go ahead and call in the jury?

24 Let's go ahead and do that, Aaron.

25 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

3 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

4 (Jury returned to courtroom at 1:27 p.m.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Jury may go ahead and be
6 seated and then everyone else afterwards.

7 We're back on the record and we have BLM Ranger Burke
8 back on the witness stand. Thank you.

9 Ms. Ahmed, you may go ahead and continue with direct
10 examination on behalf of the Government.

11 MS. AHMED: Thank you, Your Honor.

12

13 FURTHER DIRECT EXAMINATION OF ALEXANDRA BURKE

14 BY MS. AHMED:

15 Q. Ranger Burke, I think before we left off for lunch you
16 were describing -- you had described an individual with a black
17 hat with a white patch that you had seen pointing a rifle;
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And you had stated that you'd seen someone close to him;
21 is that correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Can you explain to the jury what you observed about that
24 individual?

25 A. He was wearing dark clothes and standing nearby the

1 individual with the black hat and the white patch. They
2 appeared to be working together. They were close by, but I
3 didn't see him carrying a weapon at that point.

4 Q. So, to clarify. Did this person appear to have a dark
5 colored shirt on?

6 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading. Asked and 7 answered.

8 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

9 BY MS. AHMED:

10 Q. What did you -- can you say just as to his clothing, what 11 could you see?

12 A. He was wearing dark clothing.

13 Q. Did he appear to have anything, like, what you described
14 earlier, like a tactical vest on?

15 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

16 THE WITNESS: I -- I don't remember.

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Leading.

18 THE COURT: Overruled. She may answer the question.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't remember. I just remember it
20 just being dark.

21 BY MS. AHMED:

22 Q. Did -- and what, if anything, did you observe about him
23 having firearms?

24 A. I don't remember him having a firearm. I just remember
25 somebody standing close by to the person with the black hat and

1 the white patch wearing dark clothing.

2 Q. And what, based on your training and experience, led you
3 to believe that they were together?

4 A. They were working close by each other and I had been
5 informed that --

6 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Hearsay.

7 BY MS. AHMED:

8 Q. Without -- yeah. Without going into anything that you
9 were told, just your own observations about what about -- what
10 about their positions made you think that they were together?

11 A. Positioning, they were close by, but they had been 12 standing looking towards our direction and the person with him
13 had moved with the person with the black hat and the white
14 patch when that person was scanning, and that's all I remember
15 about that individual.

16 Q. Now, other than the people that you've already described 17 to the jury this morning and just now, did you observe any 18 other people on the bridge, generally, on the northbound lanes
19 generally?

20 A. Yeah. There were people all over the bridge. There was 21 others --

22 Q. And not just the bridge, I'm sorry. The whole northbound
23 lane that you had a view of.

24 A. Yeah. There was people walking about. There was vehicles
25 moving as well, but there were other individuals out there.

1 Absolutely.

2 Q. Were there anybody -- were there other people that you
3 assessed to be a threat to your safety?

4 A. These three stood out to me because of what they wore, but 5 there were others that were carrying weapons. They didn't have
6 them pointed at me at the times that I had observed them.

7 Q. And you said -- why did these three stand out to you?

8 A. Based off of what they were wearing. You know, I could 9 easily identify you got a black hat and a white patch and 10 there's only one person I saw wearing that. The -- the guy
11 with the -- all camouflage clothing, he had that distinctive 12 hat and he had the body armor with the quick -- that military
13 body armor has like this quick release stuff that you can get
14 to your bullets really quick, so he had that on as well. I
15 just -- what they were wearing stood out to me.

16 Q. And in relation to the other people on the bridge -- on 17 the northbound lanes -- let me -- let me step back from that.

18 The other people that you observed on the northbound
19 lanes, did you see any of those people pointing rifles towards 20 you or other law enforcement officers?

21 A. There were others, but there -- not necessarily at me and 22 others just had weapons on them that were holstered.

23 Q. Were these the only three that you recall pointing weapons
24 toward you?

25 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Asked and answered.

1 THE COURT: Overruled. She may answer the question.

2 THE WITNESS: These three stood out to me.

3 BY MS. AHMED:

4 Q. Now, I just wanted to step back to a couple of things you
5 had said earlier this morning. So, to do that, I want to refer
6 back to that diagram that we put up earlier.

7 A. Um-hmm.

8 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish Exhibit 17,
9 clip 1 again?

10 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

11 MS. AHMED: At the 19:13:02 mark. 19:13:03.

12 (Screenshot published.)

13 BY MS. AHMED:

14 Q. And Ranger Burke, first of all, there's -- in the upper 15 left-hand corner there's a time stamp.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. The 19:13?

18 Q. Correct. Now, when I'm showing you this exhibit, when 19 you've been describing what you could see, were you specific to 20 this time that's displayed on the exhibit or are you just using 21 this as a frame of reference?

22 A. Just as a frame of reference. I -- my time scale in my 23 head is -- you know, it's just completely off. It seemed to 24 last hours, so I don't know what time it was at any given time.

25 Q. Do you recall the order in which you saw the three

1 individuals you've described that were pointing weapons at you?

2 A. Yes. I -- the two individuals I had seen a little bit
3 earlier because I had been scanning that -- the interstate --
4 the northbound lane and I had seen them previous to and then as
5 I was scanning more to the left or to the . . . east, then I
6 would eventually see the guy with the black hat and the white
7 patch.

8 Q. And in relation to -- can you mark, again, where you were 9 located when you made these observations?

10 A. (Witness complies).

11 Q. What was that -- and the witness has drawn a circle in the 12 bottom center portion of the screen around vehicles.

13 What was the elevation of that position in relation
14 to the freeway lanes?

15 A. I had come down a slight hill, but not much. It wasn't --
16 I hadn't lost many feet, I don't think. I certainly wasn't 17 going down into the wash or anything like that.

18 Q. So slightly lower?

19 A. Slightly lower. That would be a good way to describe it,
20 yeah.

21 Q. Now, you indicated earlier that you had seen the 22 camouflaged individual pointing the rifle where I've drawn that 23 circle; correct?

24 A. Um-hmm. Correct.

25 Q. On the northbound lane; is that right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Can you draw an arrow in the direction you saw the rifle
3 being pointed?

4 A. (Witness complies).

5 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn an arrow from 6 the circle in the northbound lane going down to the arrow in 7 the bottom center portion of the screen.

8 BY MS. AHMED:

9 Q. And I want to clear those marks. In looking at this, it
10 appears that there are several vehicles in your area. Was 11 that -- is that your recollection?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How many officers were with you in the area that you were 14 at?

15 A. There were several, but I don't know an exact number. At 16 one point though, I do go up to a generator and hide behind
17 that to take additional photos and at that point it was me and 18 two other individuals, but prior to that, there was a lot of 19 others.

20 Q. In your vicinity?

21 A. In my vicinity, yeah.

22 Q. Do you see the generator that you went to in this
23 Exhibit 17?

24 A. I believe so.

25 Q. And can you circle it?

1 A. (Witness complies).

2 MS. AHMED: And the witness has drawn a small circle
3 around an item in Exhibit 17 in the bottom center of the 4 screen.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. Now, so, the generator was in the same location that you
7 had generally been in throughout the event; is that correct?

8 A. Correct. It just was a little bit away from my vehicle.
9 I had to -- I didn't walk to it; I ran to get behind the cover.

10 Q. And when you indicated earlier in the morning session that 11 you were communicating what you were seeing to others around
12 you, were you -- or, excuse me -- when you were conveying that
13 information you were seeing to others, was that the people
14 around you, just talking to them, or were you also 15 communicating on the radio?

16 A. At that point I wasn't communicate on the radio --
17 communicating on the radio; I was talking to just those around
18 me.

19 Q. And I believe that you indicated that when you saw the 20 people pointing their firearms in the direction of law
21 enforcement, you were looking through binoculars; is that
22 correct?

23 A. Say that again. I'm sorry.

24 Q. You were looking through binoculars when you observed them
25 pointing firearms?

1 A. Not at me, at -- the guys looking down into the wash, I
2 definitely saw the black hat, white patch looking down that
3 way. When -- oh, I take that back. When I -- are you asking
4 about the three gentlemen?

5 Q. When you saw the three people you have already described
6 that were pointing toward law enforcement, were you looking
7 through your binoculars when you were looking at all those
8 people?

9 A. I'm sorry. Yes, I was at that point as well.

10 Q. And with your binoculars, could you see how other people
11 were attired near them?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. What other people were wearing?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Could you make out whether other people near them had 16 anything that they were holding?

17 A. Yeah. There were individuals holding cameras or purses
18 there. Other people were walking without rifles and guns on 19 them and were carrying those items.

20 Q. So --

21 A. Several cameras.

22 Q. -- could you then see the difference between a rifle and a
23 camera?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now, at some point did you move from the location

1 that's -- that you marked on Exhibit 17, during that event?

2 Did you leave that location?

3 A. Eventually I did, yes.

4 MS. AHMED: And you can take that down.

5 BY MS. AHMED:

6 Q. Where did you go?

7 A. I drove back down that hill to where the Incident Command
8 Post was, where the buildings were, and -- temporary
9 buildings -- and then eventually I would leave the area in a
10 convoy.

11 Q. Now, you had also -- just going back again -- I'm sorry --
12 to the morning session. You had also mentioned that based on 13 your training, when you would see someone like the man in 14 camouflage pointing a rifle at you, you would point a rifle
15 back. Is that what you said?

16 A. Normally I would, yes. I didn't.

17 Q. And you explained to the -- you were explaining to the 18 jury why you didn't take a shot at that person, essentially.

19 Do you recall that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And I believe you said something about not being a long
22 distance range shooter, something to that effect?

23 A. Yeah. I -- well, that I'm not trained --

24 Q. Can you just explain what you meant to the jury?

25 A. Yes. I am -- I said I wasn't trained to shoot at those

1 distances, well, I am trained to shoot with that rifle, but
2 that rifle, without a scope, isn't near as accurate with the 3 naked eye going -- unless you're trained to it, to be 4 precision, and I'm certainly not a precision rifle handler at 5 those distances.

6 Q. And why, if at all, did precision matter to you in that
7 setting?

8 A. Because there were innocent people driving by, individuals
9 that had nothing to do what was going on -- or with what was 10 going on and they would have potentially been hit by my gunfire
11 and that would be awful to have to live with.

12 Q. Now, shifting back to what you had mentioned earlier.

13 Do you need a minute?

14 A. No. I'm good.

15 Q. You indicated that you went back down -- at some point you
16 left where you were positioned and went back down into the ICP;
17 is that right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And when you got to the ICP, what did you do?

20 A. I filmed. I started filming our -- our exit out of the 21 ICP up the road and across on the interstate and then drive
22 into -- on the northbound lane into Mesquite.

23 Q. What did you use to film -- so you left the ICP; is that
24 correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And what did you use to film as you were leaving the ICP?

2 A. My iPhone, my work iPhone.

3 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we publish to the witness
4 and to counsel what's been marked for identification as 5 Government Exhibit 43?

6 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

7 MS. AHMED: Without sound, please.

8 (Exhibit 43 published to witness.)

9 MS. AHMED: And stopping it at 4 seconds.

10 THE COURT: Is there going to be any objection to the 11 admission of Exhibit 43?

12 MR. TANASI: The Court's indulgence.

13 (Counsel conferring.)

14 MR. MARCHESI: None from Parker.

15 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: Not on behalf of Mr. Drexler.

17 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may we move to then admit
19 Exhibit 43?

20 (Exhibit 43 offered.)

21 THE COURT: Exhibit 43 will be admitted.

22 (Exhibit 43 received.)

23 THE COURT: You may go ahead and publish it to the 24 jury.

25 MS. AHMED: Thank you.

1 (Exhibit 43 published.)

2 BY MS. AHMED:

3 Q. Ranger Burke, can you explain to the jury what was -- what
4 you were capturing in that Exhibit 43?

5 A. I was attempting to capture anybody and everybody that had
6 been up on that -- on the interstate on the northbound lane,
7 just to see so, I could show later, what we had been through,
8 who was there.

9 Q. I'm sorry?

10 A. Oh, who was there.

11 MS. AHMED: And you can take that down. Thank you.

12 BY MS. AHMED:

13 Q. When we just watched Exhibit 43, did you see that there
14 were two NHP vehicles in that?

15 A. I did.

16 Q. Now, do you recall seeing vehicles -- those vehicles, or 17 vehicles similar to them, on the northbound freeway when you
18 were at the ICP -- when you were at that intermediate post at
19 the ICP?

20 A. I eventually saw some . . . looked like Highway Patrol
21 vehicles on that northbound lane at some point, yeah.

22 Q. And --

23 A. Prior to the video.

24 Q. Prior -- prior to the time that you saw --

25 A. Yeah. Yeah, um-hmm.

1 Q. In relation to the camouflaged man and the other man that
2 was with him pointing rifles in your direction, again, did you
3 see NHP at that time?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Now, when you were leaving the ICP, did your -- the 6 feeling of -- that -- feeling of fear that you had at that
7 time, did it change in any way or did it stay the same?

8 A. It stayed the same, yeah.

9 Q. And why was that?

10 A. Uh . . . there was still a threat out there. Nothing had 11 changed. Now I'm having to drive through these guys with 12 rifles. Now I'm even closer. And we had to go back, reconvene
13 in Mesquite and the threat just didn't stop.

14 Q. Now, we've all seen, obviously, today that this event is 15 emotional for you. Is that fair?

16 A. It's very fair.

17 Q. Prior to April 12th, 2014, in your law enforcement career,
18 had you encountered, in the course of your duties, somebody
19 using force on law enforcement?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Just briefly, can you explain the circumstances of that
22 event.

23 A. I was involved -- I responded to an active shooter event
24 and -- where somebody had been killed and the suspect had got 25 in a shootout with the police as well as injured a couple of

1 other civilians and I called on duty and ultimately helped
2 track him for about three and a half hours at 10 below and he
3 attempted to -- this individual attempted to kill myself and my
4 partners and I had to use a weapon to stop that threat.

5 Q. Now, in relation to the events that you just described of 6 that -- in that circumstance, how did the events of April 12th,
7 2014, rate in terms of the fear you felt for your safety?

8 A. This incident was absolutely worse. You know, in the 9 first incident, my -- you know, that's my job. You know, I
10 responded to that. In this case, I was doing my job, enforcing
11 court orders and these people came to us with rifles and there
12 wasn't -- you know, there was quite a few of them that did it
13 and they were pointing them at us and their -- their -- my 14 hands were tied and I felt that it wasn't a matter of if there
15 was going to be people shot, it was a matter of whom, of me and 16 my colleagues. It was a no-win situation. I felt like I
17 couldn't do anything.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, may I have the Court's
19 indulgence?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Counsel conferring.)

22 MS. AHMED: Ranger Burke, thank you.

23 Your Honor, I'll pass the witness.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEXANDRA BURKE

BY MR. PEREZ:

Q. Good afternoon, Ranger. My name is Shawn Perez. I represent Ricky Lovelien.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. And I have a few questions for you.

A. Okay.

Q. What time did you arrive in that vicinity of the generator that you pointed out?

A. I don't recall the time.

Q. Well, before noon?

A. I -- I really don't recall the time.

Q. Do you recall the time that you left?

A. I don't recall the time, unless I have it in my report.

Q. Okay. When you first observed the two individuals that you say were pointing weapons at you -- so you have no recollection of what time of the day that would have been?

MS. AHMED: Objection. Vague as to "two individuals." Which individuals?

BY MR. PEREZ:

Q. You said there were two individuals that were pointing weapons at you from the area of the highway; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. One was in camouflage and the other one, I believe, had a hat on and may have had some sort of a vest; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. Now -- well, do you recall approximately what time
3 of day that would have been?

4 A. I know it was daylight hours.

5 Q. Okay. That's fair enough.

6 Now, when these two individuals were pointing the gun
7 at you, or their guns at you, were they together?

8 A. Yes. They were close to each other.

9 Q. Okay. And at the time that they were pointing these 10 weapons at you, was NHP on the scene?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Do you recall NHP arriving at all on the scene?

13 A. I remember seeing what appeared to be Nevada Highway
14 Patrolmen or vehicles on the interstate, but it was later. It
15 wasn't right then.

16 Q. Okay. Your Exhibit 43, that was your cell phone -- Brian,
17 can you bring up Exhibit 43 at 13 seconds, please.

18 Okay. Stop right there.

19 (Screenshot published.)

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. Now, on the left side of the screen there's an NHP, it
22 looks like a truck, and a cruiser; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And this is you passing by there?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Is there a time stamp on this at all?

2 A. I don't know.

3 Q. You don't know. Okay. Fair enough.

4 But, now, at this point you're leaving; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. And yet, you have no idea what time -- well, strike
7 that.

8 Let me ask you. At the time that you're leaving, is 9 there anything really going on at the bridge at that time?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what's going on at the bridge at that time?

12 A. As I'm leaving, there's people screaming obscenities, guys
13 with rifles and I'm having to go through that crowd.

14 Q. Okay. But now, has the BLM left the wash area by this
15 time?

16 A. I don't know about the entire BLM; I know there was 17 several of us that had -- were leaving in this convoy.

18 Q. Okay. Now, from -- let me ask you. The two individuals
19 that were pointing weapons at you, did they arrive together? I
20 don't know if you responded to that?

21 A. I don't know.

22 Q. Well, where did you see them together?

23 A. On the interstate --

24 Q. Okay. If we --

25 A. -- on the northbound lane.

1 MR. PEREZ: Let's bring up 32a.

2 Go ahead and play it, Brian.

3 (Exhibit 32a published.)

4 MR. PEREZ: Let's stop right there.

5 BY MR. PEREZ:

6 Q. Now, the gentleman in the camouflaged attire --

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. -- is he any one of those three individuals?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. Well, are any of them wearing camo -- this guy's wearing
11 shorts, so that's not him, the guy on the right; correct?

12 A. I don't know. It's -- one, it's not my video.

13 Q. Well, I mean, you can see from the video. Is the guy
14 wearing shorts or not? Yes or no?

15 A. It looks like the guy on the right is wearing shorts.

16 Q. Okay. And the guy in the middle is wearing it looks like 17 jeans; correct?

18 A. It could be.

19 Q. Okay. But they're not wearing camouflage; correct?

20 A. I -- you know, I don't feel comfortable saying no. I
21 don't --

22 Q. Okay. Fair enough, Brian --

23 A. -- unless it was enlarged. I couldn't --

24 MR. PEREZ: Go ahead and play it again. Keep 25 playing.

1 Go, Brian.

2 (Exhibit 32a published.)

3 MR. PEREZ: Stop right about there.

4 BY MR. PEREZ:

5 Q. Now, according to this dash cam right here, it's 12:17 in 6 the afternoon.

7 Now, you say you saw the individuals pointing guns
8 and you saw both of them pointing guns together prior to NHP
9 getting there?

10 A. Prior -- prior to me seeing that NHP had arrived, I had 11 seen these two individuals pointing guns at the same time in 12 our direction.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. PEREZ: Brian, play the video, please.

15 (Exhibit 32a published.)

16 MR. PEREZ: Now stop right there, Brian.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. Now, these individuals climbing over the Jersey barrier,
19 are any of those individuals the gentlemen that you saw in full
20 camouflage?

21 A. I see somebody in white. That definitely isn't the 22 person, I don't believe. And I don't know who that other 23 person is.

24 MR. PEREZ: Okay, Brian. Keep playing.

25 (Exhibit 32a published.)

1 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Now, stop, Brian.

2 BY MR. PEREZ:

3 Q. Now, the gentleman on the far left of the screen --

4 A. Um-hmm.

5 Q. -- is that one of the two gentlemen that you saw pointing
6 the gun?

7 A. It looks similar. He looks like he's wearing -- for a
8 second it looked like he was wearing shorter sleeves, but I
9 don't -- right there it kind of looks longer.

10 Q. Do you see the gentleman in the camouflage standing there?

11 A. I guess that's who I thought you were talking about.
12 I'm --

13 Q. Well, there were two individuals that you saw. You
14 pointed out one gentleman that was fully in camouflage;
15 correct?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. With a distinctive hat?

18 A. Um-hmm.

19 Q. And then the other gentleman had some sort of, like a vest
20 on, like, you know, armament or something. I don't know. I
21 mean, you tell me. What was the other individual wearing?

22 A. Body armor.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. And the other one was wearing a short -- that same
25 individual that had body armor was wearing, like, a darker

1 colored, like, T-shirt type thing.

2 Q. Okay. So, does this look like the gentleman that you saw?

3 A. A second ago, it looked like he did have a T-shirt on, but
4 now, the way it -- the film stopped, it almost looks like to me
5 he has long sleeves. So, if you could back it up, maybe I
6 could . . .

7 MR. PEREZ: Go ahead and back it up, Brian, just a
8 tad.

9 BY MR. PEREZ:

10 Q. How about now?

11 A. Can you enlarge it? Just --

12 Q. No.

13 A. -- I want to make sure that I can see his skin.

14 Q. It's video.

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. I mean, don't guess. If you don't know, it's okay. If 17 you're not sure.

18 A. Looks similar, but I couldn't say a hundred percent there.

19 Q. Okay.

20 MR. PEREZ: All right, Brian. Go ahead and run it.

21 (Exhibit 32a published.)

22 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Stop.

23 BY MR. PEREZ:

24 Q. Now, at any time did you see that first gentleman with the 25 body armor come back into view?

1 A. Well, there was a lot going on there. I was looking at a
2 lot of different things.

3 MR. PEREZ: Let's back it up a little bit, Brian.

4 Okay. Go forward.

5 (Exhibit 32a published.)

6 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Just stop there for a second.

7 BY MR. PEREZ:

8 Q. Now, you see the NHP trooper there; correct?

9 A. You'd have to -- I'm sorry. You'd have to rewind it.

10 Q. Well, you see the individual in the fluorescent vest?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Okay. And we saw him walk by and looked like an NHP
13 trooper; correct?

14 A. It's somebody in a white reflective vest. I --

15 Q. Okay. You're not sure if it's a trooper?

16 A. I don't know who that guy is.

17 Q. Okay. All right.

18 MR. PEREZ: Brian, please.

19 (Exhibit 32a published.)

20 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Stop right there.

21 BY MR. PEREZ:

22 Q. Now, you see the individual communicating with these 23 people that are in these fluorescent green vests?

24 A. Yeah. Yes.

25 Q. And the individual is pointing off into the wash; correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 MR. PEREZ: Okay, Brian, please.

3 (Exhibit 32a published.)

4 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Stop.

5 BY MR. PEREZ:

6 Q. Now, at this -- at this point, can you tell me if that
7 individual had -- did point his gun at you before this?

8 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. The witness has 9 already indicated they don't -- didn't have a sense of time out
10 there.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. She can answer the question.

12 THE WITNESS: Go ahead and answer the question; is
13 that correct?

14 BY MR. PEREZ:

15 Q. Yeah.

16 A. Okay. I -- I don't know what time I saw those individuals
17 pointing their rifles at me. My sense of time for that day, 18 sir, is --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- very off.

21 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go ahead, play.

22 Oh, wait. No, stop. One second.

23 BY MR. PEREZ:

24 Q. Do you remember watching the taller individual in the 25 camouflage come on scene?

1 MS. AHMED: Objection. Vague as to -- watching
2 earlier today, or April 12th?

3 BY MR. PEREZ:

4 Q. Well, at any time. Strike that.

5 At some point you saw this -- the camouflaged man --

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. -- arrive in your focal point; correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. And he was by himself?

10 A. No.

11 Q. He was with the other gentleman?

12 A. When I saw him, he was with the other gentleman.

13 Q. Okay.

14 MR. PEREZ: Brian, play it.

15 (Exhibit 32a published.)

16 MR. PEREZ: Stop right there for a second, Brian.

17 BY MR. PEREZ:

18 Q. So the gentleman that's talking to the person who's 19 wearing the fluorescent vest that seems to be directing 20 traffic, that gentleman has a tan hat on?

21 A. It appears in that segment of the video.

22 Q. Okay. Is that one of the two gentlemen that were pointing
23 a weapon at you?

24 A. In this video, I feel like I can't say with a hundred
25 percent certainty.

1 Q. Okay. That's fine.

2 MR. PEREZ: Brian, please.

3 (Exhibit 32a published.)

4 MR. PEREZ: Stop right there for a second, Brian.

5 BY MR. PEREZ:

6 Q. Now, at no time did that man leave that frame of vision,
7 correct, from that dash cam?

8 A. He did for a moment prior -- when you said did he come
9 back in and --

10 Q. For a moment. Okay. But you said when he -- when these 11 two gentlemen were pointing their weapons at you, there were 12 no -- there was no NHP vehicle present?

13 A. I don't remember seeing an NHP vehicle.

14 Q. Okay. Thank you.

15 MR. PEREZ: Please, go on, Brian.

16 (Exhibit 32a published.)

17 MR. PEREZ: Okay. Stop right there.

18 BY MR. PEREZ:

19 Q. So, from that particular part of the video you can tell
20 that that gentleman in the green fluorescent vest or yellow
21 fluorescent vest is NHP; correct?

22 A. It appears to be, yep.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MR. PEREZ: Brian, please.

25 (Exhibit 32a published.)

1 MR. PEREZ: Now stop right there.

2 BY MR. PEREZ:

3 Q. Now, the gentleman directly in front of the dash cam is 4 the taller gentleman in the camouflage; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Did you see where he came from when he arrived?

7 A. Yes. He came from the right. On the video, is that what
8 you're talking about?

9 Q. No. I mean, when you were there, did you happen to notice
10 where he came from?

11 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, as to it's vague
12 as to "arrived."

13 THE COURT: Yeah. Are you talking --

14 BY MR. PEREZ:

15 Q. When you first --

16 THE COURT: -- about what she's seeing in the video
17 that you're having her watch or are you asking her about the
18 day --

19 MR. PEREZ: I'll ask a new question.

20 BY MR. PEREZ:

21 Q. When did you first see him?

22 A. When he was pointing rifles at us.

23 Q. And that was before NHP arrived; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MR. PEREZ: Brian, go ahead and play it.

2 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor. Relevance. We're
3 watching -- I don't understand what -- well, Your Honor,
4 objection. Relevance as to this video being shown to this
5 witness. It's been asked repeatedly now on direct and cross
6 whether or not what she observed happened before or after NHP
7 arrived, and it's before.

8 MR. PEREZ: Your Honor, she said you saw --

9 THE COURT: Well, it's almost done, right? I mean --

10 MR. PEREZ: Right.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. Go ahead. Finish it up.

12 MR. PEREZ: Go ahead and play it out, Brian, all way
13 to the end.

14 (Exhibit 32a published.)

15 MR. PEREZ: Stop right there just for a second.

16 BY MR. PEREZ:

17 Q. Now the two gentlemen are together; correct?

18 A. They're close by each other, yes.

19 Q. Are each of them pointing a weapon at that point?

20 A. Doesn't appear at that point.

21 MR. PEREZ: Play it through, Brian.

22 (Exhibit 32a published.)

23 MR. PEREZ: Stop it right there for a second, Brian.

24 BY MR. PEREZ:

25 Q. So, let me ask you. I mean, do you think you could have

1 been mistaken that NHP may have been there when he was pointing
2 the weapon?

3 A. I don't believe I could be mistaken.

4 Q. Okay. So you're absolutely certain that NHP was on -- was 5 not there at the time that you saw those two individuals?

6 A. I know what I saw.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. PEREZ: Brian, bring up Exhibit 17 at 19:13:03.
9 And just stop it there.

10 Back it up. Yeah. 19:13:03.

11 Actually, that's good. We can use that. That will 12 work. Just stop.

13 BY MR. PEREZ:

14 Q. Now, you said that at some point you moved from your 15 vehicle to the generator; correct? The white -- I believe it
16 would be that right there (indicating). Would that be the 17 generator?

18 A. I think it is.

19 Q. Okay. Was there anyone else with you behind that 20 generator?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Who was that?

23 A. Agent --

24 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance.

25 MR. PEREZ: I wanted to -- well, okay.

1 BY MR. PEREZ:

2 Q. Was anyone else behind there taking any video with you?

3 A. I don't know.

4 Q. Or anybody else there with a camera?

5 A. I don't know. I didn't see another camera, but it doesn't
6 mean it wasn't there.

7 Q. Okay. But no one -- it would have maybe been within,
8 like, a couple feet of you?

9 A. My answer stays the same. I don't --

10 Q. Okay. Well, you weren't taking any video, were you?

11 A. I think I was only taking pictures at that point.

12 Q. Okay. The only video that you took was with your iPhone
13 when you left?

14 A. I would have to go back and see if there were any other
15 videos I took of that day. I --

16 Q. Okay. Now, this view that we're seeing right here,
17 presumably you were there at this time of day? It would have 18 been, like, 12:15?

19 A. Again, sir, I don't know the reference of time. I --

20 Q. Okay. Well, when you were looking down at the highway,
21 was the highway backed up?

22 MS. AHMED: Objection as to "looking down." Vague as
23 to . . .

24 BY MR. PEREZ:

25 Q. Was -- was -- all right. The -- this -- this line of cars

1 right here (indicating), do you recall if the traffic was
2 stopped at the time that you saw the individuals pointing
3 your -- the guns at you?

4 A. I don't recall the traffic pattern. I know there had been
5 traffic, but it got backed up at some point during the day but 6 I couldn't even tell you when that was.

7 Q. Okay. You -- well, when you left, the traffic was moving
8 again; correct?

9 A. We were moving --

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- I think.

12 Q. And NHP, the NHP vehicles were still -- I mean, you passed
13 by them, they're in your video; correct?

14 A. I did pass by two that are in my video, at least.

15 MR. PEREZ: The Court's indulgence.

16 (Counsel conferring.)

17 MR. PEREZ: Pass the witness, Your Honor.

18 Thank you.

19 THE WITNESS: You're welcome.

20 THE COURT: On behalf of Mr. Stewart?

21 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

22

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEXANDRA BURKE

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Ranger Burke.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).
3 I got a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

4 A. Okay.

5 Q. All right. On April 11th, 2014, approximately 0600 hours
6 you started your scheduled shift on the TRAP Team; right?

7 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance. Beyond the scope.

8 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, it goes -- it's relevant to 9 the objective reasonableness of fear in this case. I've asked
10 one question and I'm trying to get there.

11 MS. AHMED: Same objection.

12 THE COURT: To the time that she began her shift that
13 day?

14 MR. TANASI: It does.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'll allow it.

16 Let's stay on target.

17 BY MR. TANASI:

18 Q. Okay, ma'am. So, again, you -- on April 11th, 2014,
19 approximately 600, 0600 hours you started your scheduled shift
20 on the TRAP Team; right?

21 A. I would have to look at my notes or a time sheet. I don't
22 recall what time I started on the 11th.

23 Q. All right. So would seeing a copy of your report in this
24 case, would this help to refresh your recollection?

25 A. It might.

1 (Document shown to witness.)

2 BY MR. TANASI:

3 Q. All right. So I'm showing you a report prepared on 4 April 15th, 2014. Call your attention to the first paragraph.

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. If you could read that and let me know when your 7 recollection is refreshed.

8 A. Okay. I started at 0600.

9 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

10 All right. And at approximately 0630, 6:30 a.m. that 11 morning, you attended a day shift briefing; correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. And at that briefing there were different officers
14 that were involved in that briefing; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. And you were assigned to security detail at the 17 Mormon Mesa area; correct?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, objection. Relevance, and 19 I'd ask for a sidebar.

20 THE COURT: Let's go to sidebar.

21 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

22 THE COURT: You asked for a sidebar.

23 MS. AHMED: Yes, Your Honor.

24 The Government objects that this is not relevant and 25 it's beyond the scope. It's not even relevant to the fear that

1 the witness testified to on direct examination. She spoke
2 about seeing three individuals pointing firearms and that her
3 fear in relation to those individuals. Mr. Tanasi appears to 4 be getting into briefings she had the day before relating to 5 larger threats regarding militia groups supporting Mr. Bundy.
6 That stuff is not what she spoke about on the stand and her
7 fear was articulated specifically to what she observed on 8 April 12th. So, it doesn't affect the calculus of what she's 9 testified to regarding fear. For him to go into that is a
10 distraction and, frankly, appears to open the door to things
11 that the Court's already ruled should be kept out and that are 12 irrelevant and a distraction.

13 MR. TANASI: So, Your Honor, I'm laying out the time
14 frame and what I'm getting to eventually is that she was told
15 to remain on the shift and was assigned security detail
16 directly in front of the ICP. She remained on the shift
17 throughout the night. Team members took turns resting. "I
18 attempted to take a rest cycle in the medical building. Kept 19 my radio and my earpiece." The fact that she had a lack of 20 sleep goes to the objective reasonableness of her fear in this 21 case and the lack of sleep that she brings with her into the 22 12th, with not being able to sleep since she's up at 0600 hours
23 on the day before, on the 11th, is an objective
24 reasonableness -- for the circumstance would be an objective
25 reasonableness for her fear in this case. So I'm trying to lay

1 the foundation as to what was going on on the 11th, what's kept
2 her up, and then I also point out that in those briefings she's
3 learning about threats. She's learning about different things
4 that are filling her mind with fear before my client even gets
5 there on the 12th. So, for those two reasons, laying out what 6 occurred the day before and leading up and to her fear on the 7 12th is relevant. I'm not getting into --

8 THE COURT: Well, I think that's the objection,
9 though, right? Is those things that she's being told, you're 10 going to get into all that hearsay and then --

11 MR. TANASI: All I was going -- I'm, obviously, going 12 to be getting also into her learning that the operation was, at 13 that point, was to stop and yet she's still, like I said, awake
14 from the 11th all the way through into the 12th. So,
15 everything that's being filled into her mind, why the operation
16 was stopped, from credible threats, militia groups supporting 17 the Bundy family, again, none of these threats are associated 18 with my client and that's what I'm trying to demonstrate. She 19 has fear in her head already on the 11th before my client even 20 enters the picture on the 12th. And so, that's what I'm 21 getting at.

22 MS. AHMED: And I would go back to what I said
23 previously, Your Honor. If the question is, she's up all
24 night, he could ask her. "You were up all night the night
25 before?" "You were working all night?" He could ask that in

1 two questions and if it's -- but, he's getting into things --
2 hearsay that she was told about other threats, which she did
3 not testify to on direct examination. She spoke about the fear
4 as a result of what she observed on the 12th. So, this is
5 beyond the scope of the direct and it's misleading, causes
6 confusion, and goes into the areas that the Court has already
7 ruled are off limits.

8 MR. TANASI: I don't know how the Court's ruled that 9 objective reasonableness or circumstances that go to the 10 objective reasonableness of fear are off limits. I understand
11 the excessive force rulings. I'm not getting into anything
12 near any of that; it's all objective reasonableness of this 13 federal agent's fear in this case. And this is a circumstance
14 that the jury should have before them to make that 15 determination as to whether or not her fear was reasonable on 16 the 12th.

17 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, Mr. Tanasi's reading the 18 report line by line.

19 THE COURT: Yes. That's the problem. You've already
20 talked about --

21 MS. AHMED: He's raising things like Mormon mesa.

22 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I'm cross-examining --

23 THE COURT: -- a specific area that is going to 24 confuse the jury. They don't know what -- how that is related
25 to this. You're going into way too much detail. You can get

1 into the fact that she was up all night and whether that
2 affected her ability to accurately assess the situation and,
3 you know, overreact or not, but . . . we're not going to go
4 over every single thing that she did or heard or was told for 5 the last day and a half.

6 MR. TANASI: The only two things, Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: And she doesn't know how to answer the 8 question precisely is -- was my concern, too. Is as you asked
9 the question, I'm afraid she's going to get into talking about 10 things that she heard that we're not going to be getting into.

11 MR. TANASI: Well, is it off limits then if I -- I
12 just want to understand the Court's ruling. It's off limits to 13 get into the fact that she learned that the operation was 14 stopping the night before? Is that -- that's off limits?

15 THE COURT: No.

16 MR. TANASI: Okay. Because that's what she learns on 17 the 11th and that's one of the things I wanted to get into with 18 her on it, and that she was up for a long time and didn't have 19 sleep. Those were the two things. I was simply laying the 20 foundation to get there, from her own report, which is my good
21 faith belief to do so. It's not as though I'm bullying her
22 time frame.

23 THE COURT: No. Those two things are fine.

24 MS. AHMED: Those two specific questions, Your Honor,
25 I -- I think it was just when Mr. Tanasi's confusing them about

1 the operation being over, confusing -- it's confusing because
2 he's -- I feel like he's purposely confusing the jury as to why
3 the officers are there on the 12th. I mean, the evidence has 4 consistently come in, in this proceeding and the prior one,
5 that they were still there doing their jobs, regardless of the 6 operation being over. So, it's -- to me it's irrelevant, so I
7 would continue the objection as to that -- to that point as to 8 relevance. If he wants to ask if she was up all night, I don't 9 have any objection to that.

10 THE COURT: I think you can clear that up on 11 cross-examination [sic], where it was that she was up all night
12 and why it was that she was still there if the operation was 13 over.

14 MS. AHMED: You mean on redirect?

15 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

16 MS. AHMED: Okay.

17 THE COURT: Sorry.

18 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

20 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was 21 sustained in part, overruled in part and there's better
22 direction now.

23 So, Mr. Tanasi, you can continue.

24 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 BY MR. TANASI:

1 Q. Okay, ma'am. On April 12th, 2014, approximately 0800
2 hours, if you recall, you attended a morning briefing at the
3 ICP.

4 Does that sound right to you?

5 A. Um . . . I thought we were just talking about April 11th a
6 second ago. I'm sorry. I'm confused.

7 Q. Okay. Would seeing a copy -- and I don't want to confuse
8 you. Would seeing a copy of your report help to refresh your
9 recollection?

10 A. Yes, please.

11 Q. Okay.

12 (Document shown to witness.)

13 BY MR. TANASI:

14 Q. Particularly pointing your attention to the last sentence
15 on that page.

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. Okay. Does that refresh your recollection?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you, in fact, attend a morning briefing at the ICP at 20 0800 hours?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. On April 12th?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And isn't it true that prior to that briefing, the 25 night before, your team was on shift and was assigned security

1 detail in front of the ICP; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Okay. And you remained on shift throughout the night;
4 correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. Team members, they took turns resting; right?

7 A. Trying to.

8 Q. Okay. You attempted a rest cycle, but -- but your radio
9 and your earpiece, they were plugged in while you attempted
10 your rest cycle. Is that fair?

11 A. It -- it was in my earpiece -- or my earpiece in my ear,
12 but it was -- it was just hard to sleep. We were under threat.

13 Q. Okay. So, you agree with me then as of 0800 hours,
14 8:00 a.m. on the 12th, you hadn't slept the night before that,
15 or at least it was hard for you to get a night's rest. Is that
16 fair?

17 THE COURT: That's compound.

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. Prior to 0800 hours -- I can rephrase. Prior to 0800
20 hours on April 12th, what kind of sleep did you get that night?

21 A. Not a good night's rest.

22 Q. Okay. Prior to 0600 hours, so 6:00 a.m. on the 11th, that 23 morning before, how much sleep did you get between -- strike
24 that. I'll rephrase.

25 How much sleep did you get between 0600 hours,

1 6:00 a.m. on April 11th, 2014, and 0800 hours, 8:00 a.m. on
2 April 12th, 2014, if you can remember? How many hours of sleep
3 did you get in that time frame?

4 A. Just to make sure I understand the question. So, between 5 the 11th, on that Friday, and the 12th in the morning, on that 6 Saturday?

7 Q. Yes, ma'am.

8 A. A few hours.

9 Q. A few hours?

10 A. Um-hmm.

11 Q. Okay. All right. Do you recall a briefing on the 11th,
12 the evening of the 11th at the ICP?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. Okay. And do you recall learning that the trapping
15 operations of the Gold Butte cattle impound were now done?

16 A. I'm trying to remember . . . I remember being told that we 17 were going to be leaving.

18 Q. Okay. And that was on the evening of the 11th; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. And that was because of threats that you were 21 learning about on the evening of the 11th; correct?

22 A. Cumulative threats.

23 Q. Do you remember what time that was on the evening of the 24 11th?

25 A. I don't recall at this second.

1 Q. Okay. Okay. Let's go back to the -- to the 12th, back to 2 that 0800 hours briefing.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. All right. So, you learned, isn't it true, that the Bundy
5 family was planning to have an organized protest? Did you
6 learn that?

7 A. I believe I referenced that in my report.

8 Q. Ultimately, after 8:00 a.m. on the 12th, you arrive at 9 Post 1; correct?

10 A. I don't know what time it was that I went to -- you're 11 talking about at the gate, Post 1? I don't remember what time.

12 Q. At some point though, since you don't recall the time, at 13 some point you'd agree with me that you arrive at Post 1;
14 right?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. And you observe protestors gathering on the 17 opposite side of the Interstate 15; correct? Protestors?

18 A. I observed them both close to the gate as well as across 19 from there to across the interstate.

20 Q. Sure. And when we say "them," protestors; correct?

21 A. Well, there was people.

22 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor.

23 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, again --

24 THE COURT: She's answered the question.

25 THE WITNESS: Answer the question?

1 THE COURT: The question was whether they were
2 protestors. The answer was they were people.

3 MR. TANASI: Understood.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. So is it your testimony, as you sit here today, that you
6 just saw people gathering on the opposite side of the 7 Interstate 15?

8 A. I saw people, but they weren't holding any protest signs.

9 Q. Okay. So they're just people and it's your testimony
10 today that they're not protestors. Is that what your testimony
11 is today?

12 A. In my report I referenced that there were protestors, but
13 they were people as well. There was people with guns. There
14 was people screaming, but I definitely didn't see any protest
15 signs.

16 Q. Okay. But, again, you did refer to those folks as 17 protestors in your report; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you prepared that report on April . . . April 15th,
20 2014, three days after the event; correct?

21 A. I would have to look at the report to say which date I did
22 that, but --

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. -- I did write that report.

25 Q. Would seeing a copy of your report help to refresh your

1 recollection?

2 A. Perhaps.

3 (Document shown to witness.)

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. Has seeing a copy of your report helped to refresh your 6 recollection as to when you prepared it?

7 A. April 15th.

8 Q. Okay. When you first arrive at Post 1, fair to say you
9 identify three males wearing black cowboy hats with open carry
10 pistol on their hips? Do you recall that?

11 A. I believe I put that in my report.

12 Q. Okay. And there was a male holding a rifle with an insert
13 magazine.

14 Do you remember that?

15 A. I do.

16 Q. Okay. All right. And another male holding a shotgun on 17 the opposite side of the interstate, Post 1.

18 Do you remember that?

19 A. I remember it in my report, correct.

20 Q. Okay. You also remember, though, protestors, they were 21 increasing in number rapidly and they yelled at you. Fair?

22 A. I would have to look at my report to . . . I remember
23 seeing -- there was a couple of women or a woman near the gate
24 that was screaming obscenities at us and there was just a
25 general scream coming in our direction.

1 Q. All right. And those screams, you -- those were from
2 protestors; correct?

3 A. Those were from individuals that were at the gate and
4 across the interstate, correct.

5 Q. Okay. But they were protestors; correct?

6 MS. AHMED: Objection, Your Honor, to the relevance
7 of this line of questioning. The witness has already stated
8 that she used the word protestors in her report.

9 THE COURT: I agree. She also used the word
10 "identified three males." Move on, please, Mr. Tanasi.

11 You're not going to prove that whether they're 12 protestors or not just because she used the word in a report.
13 I think everyone understands that.

14 MR. TANASI: Well, Your Honor, what it goes to is 15 that she's called them different things as she testifies here
16 today as opposed to how she reported in her report that -- it
17 goes to bias, but I will move on.

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, I would just respond to that 19 that the witness didn't deny writing "protestor" in her report.
20 There's no inconsistency here.

21 THE COURT: And she doesn't call the people with 22 weapons protestors in the report either.

23 MR. TANASI: I'll move on.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. You also observed Metro SWAT arriving; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. And did you have a briefing of some kind with
3 Metro?

4 A. I spoke with some of the Metro officers or a Metro
5 officer. I remember them pulling up at some point and somebody
6 that was on their SWAT Team asking me what was going on.

7 Q. Okay. And Metro made no arrests that day; correct?

8 A. I don't know that.

9 Q. You testified earlier that some of the folks you saw with 10 guns, I had written down, clearly they came to engage I think
11 was the way you put it.

12 Do you remember that testimony?

13 A. From today?

14 Q. From earlier today, yes, ma'am.

15 A. It sounds about right.

16 Q. Okay. In fact, nobody engaged; right?

17 MS. AHMED: Objection. Argumentative.

18 THE COURT: She can explain what she meant by the 19 word "engage."

20 THE WITNESS: Sir, if you're in a fight and somebody
21 puts their hands up, it looks like they're engaging you in a
22 fight. When somebody points a rifle at you, they're engaging
23 you in a gun battle, sir.

24 BY MR. TANASI:

25 Q. Okay. No shots were fired though, ma'am; right?

1 A. Excuse me?

2 Q. No shots were fired; right?

3 A. No.

4 Q. You testified earlier that there was an active shooter
5 situation you were involved in prior to this event?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Do you recall that?

8 Was there shooting in that event?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And if I have the scale right, that event where 11 there was shooting, as you've testified here today, was not as 12 scary as this event, the April 12th, 2014 event? Is that your 13 testimony if I have it right?

14 A. Both were awful incidents to be a part of. However, this 15 one lasted longer and in this case there was multiple
16 individuals --

17 Q. Ma'am, it was a yes or no question.

18 THE COURT: Let her answer the question -- I mean,
19 the answer.

20 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, I asked her a yes or no
21 question, though.

22 THE COURT: She's answering the question you asked.

23 MR. TANASI: Okay.

24 THE WITNESS: It isn't as easy as yes or no, sir.

25 When you have multiple individuals pointing guns at you and you

1 feel the threat is so high you've got to call your family and
2 say bye, it's a whole different gamut of what scared is.

3 BY MR. TANASI:

4 Q. But again, when you compared the two scenarios -- that was
5 the one question I asked you -- the active shooter situation
6 was not as bad as this one?

7 A. They were both equally as bad.

8 Q. Is that fair?

9 A. One was more scary than the other.

10 Q. Which one was more scary; ma'am?

11 A. Seeing . . . this one was.

12 Q. As you drove off, you testified that protestors were 13 yelling at you. We saw pictures of that; right? Or a video of 14 that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And again, you're a commissioned law enforcement officer
17 at the time; right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you can enforce federal law; correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. You made no arrests on your way out; correct?

22 A. I did not.

23 Q. Okay. As you sit here today -- well, why don't we do
24 this. Brian, if you could please bring up 155.

25 (Exhibit 155 published.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. In looking at Exhibit 155, do you see that now, ma'am?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Can you say whether or not my client, Steven Stewart
5 (indicating) -- take a look at him -- is in this picture?

6 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance, Your Honor. This
7 witness didn't identify any of these defendants.

8 MR. TANASI: And that's exactly --

9 THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained.

10 BY MR. TANASI:

11 Q. Prior to today's testimony, ma'am, have you had an 12 opportunity to meet with the U.S. Attorney's Office?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. How many times?

15 A. We spoke on the phone once together and then face to face
16 I believe it was three times.

17 Q. Three times prior to today?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you also have an opportunity to meet with the FBI?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How many times?

22 A. One time at -- when we were still in Las Vegas after the 23 impound and then they have been at the same meetings as the 24 U.S. Attorney's Office, the ones since, on the phone, I believe
25 they were on the phone, as well as the face-to-face meetings.

1 MR. TANASI: Fair enough. Thank you, ma'am.

2 THE WITNESS: Um-hmm.

3 THE COURT: Cross on behalf of Mr. Parker?

4 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you, Your Honor.

5

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF ALEXANDRA BURKE

7 BY MR. MARCHESE:

8 Q. Good afternoon, ma'am.

9 A. Good afternoon.

10 Q. You testified on direct examination that you're obviously
11 a law enforcement officer. I believe you've worked in two 12 different departments.

13 Is that accurate?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Two different agencies.

17 Q. Two different agencies?

18 A. Um-hmm.

19 Q. And so what's the total years of law enforcement
20 experience that you have?

21 A. Well, I would have went to my first police academy in 22 1999, but I didn't take an official position until 2001. So
23 that would give me, what is it, 2017, so 16ish years.

24 Q. Okay. So, you're not a rookie anymore?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. So, let's turn to April 12th of 2014. I believe on
2 direct examination you originally started or testified that you
3 were down in the parking area.

4 Is that an accurate statement?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Okay. And then at some point in time -- I'm not going to 7 ask you any specific times, we've already been there.

8 A. Thank you.

9 Q. -- you went up to Post 1 area; is that right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And that's kind of that makeshift gate area in the 12 ICP.

13 Is that accurate?

14 A. Yeah. There was some concrete barriers, I believe, up
15 there. At one point there had been some other gates, perhaps,
16 but . . .

17 Q. Okay. Now, at some point in time you testified that you
18 moved down from that location to the one a little bit further
19 away.

20 Is that an accurate statement?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 MR. MARCHESE: And Brian, if we can get up Exhibit 17
24 to 19:13, please.

25 Okay. And if you could pause it, please, Brian.

1 (Screenshot published.)

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Okay. So now -- and correct me if I'm wrong. I'm going
4 to circle this area right here (indicating). Would that be 5 accurate to say that that was the area that you moved down to?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. How did you get down to that area? Did you drive?

8 A. I drove, yeah.

9 Q. Okay. Is your vehicle depicted in that circle or is it
10 somewhere else?

11 A. I don't know if -- because the time. I'm not sure
12 timewise when I went down there, but it was in that vicinity at 13 some point.

14 Q. Okay. Did you drive up to Post 1 with your vehicle?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And then did you drive to that circle with your vehicle or 17 did you walk?

18 A. I drove.

19 Q. Okay. Who, if anyone, is in that area with you when you
20 first go down to that circled area, if you remember?

21 MS. AHMED: Objection. Relevance.

22 THE COURT: What's the relevance?

23 MR. MARCHESE: Your Honor, I think it's very relevant
24 of her perception what she remembers and what was going on at 25 the time of everything that she's testified to.

1 THE COURT: So repeat the question.

2 BY MR. MARCHESE:

3 Q. Okay. You got down to this circled area and when you got
4 down there, who was around you, if you remember?

5 THE COURT: Okay. So what is the relevance of 6 whether or not she remembers the names of people?

7 MR. MARCHESE: Perception. Memory. These are all
8 the kinds of things that are -- that we ask in courts to see if 9 people's perceptions and memory of the event.

10 THE COURT: All right. Let's have a sidebar.

11 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

12 THE COURT: All right. We're at sidebar and the 13 question was whether she -- whether this witness remembered the 14 names of the individuals who were around her. The objection
15 was relevancy and your response, Mr. Marchese, was that it's 16 relevant as to her recollection of whether she remembers the 17 people who were around her and here's why I called the sidebar.

18 MR. MARCHESE: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Because from the first trial, every 20 single time the defense attorney got up there and asked to 21 identify, by name, first and last name, every single person who 22 was out there, I got the chills and I would look over at the 23 defendants and they'd be writing down these names. Now, there
24 was no objection from the Government, so I assume, well, maybe
25 these are names that the parties already know anyway and so

1 it's just a matter of putting a face to name and not a big
2 deal, but here, clearly, there is a question with whether or
3 not this name should be revealed?

4 MS. AHMED: I mean, just --

5 THE COURT: Or is it just --

6 MS. AHMED: As a general principle, Your Honor, yes,
7 there's no need to name these officers, but specifically,
8 there's no relevance to that question to the direct
9 examination. There's other ways -- more appropriate ways to 10 challenge her -- her memory or her recollection of these events
11 and to suggest that because she can't name every single officer
12 that was standing around her on April 12th somehow weighs 13 against her recollection of people pointing weapons to her is 14 improper. It's irrelevant.

15 THE COURT: So, is there something in her report that 16 says that she's having lapses in memory or can't remember --

17 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I'm going to get there because 18 there's a --

19 THE COURT: -- people -- the name of the people
20 around her? I don't understand the importance of the names of 21 the people.

22 You can ask other questions, but if it's not
23 important for someone to identify someone by name, I think 24 there's --

25 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I don't know what she told these

1 people. I don't know who's there and this is the first time
2 that she's testified. I mean, there -- I believe, like, for
3 example, I believe Ranger Johnson was in that area from the 4 first trial. I believe that Special Agent Shilaikis was in
5 that area, but I don't know who's around her. I don't know
6 who -- I'm not doing this because --

7 THE COURT: Well, then ask her if Johnson and 8 Shilaikis are around her --

9 MR. MARCHESE: But I don't know.

10 THE COURT: -- if that's what you're trying to 11 pinpoint is --

12 MS. AHMED: On even -- I apologize to interject. I
13 just feel that that doesn't even matter. It's irrelevant.

14 Is there some --

15 MR. MARCHESE: If she can't remember -- if she says,
16 yes, there were people around, I don't remember who, I think
17 that is very probative to the jury. That goes to her memory.

18 THE COURT: We could have the jury retire if you want
19 and then you can find out whether she remembers the names and 20 if she remembers the names, you're not going to ask them? I
21 mean, either way the defense would hear it. I'm just very 22 uncomfortable with having any more names that are not 23 necessary.

24 So . . .

25 MR. MARCHESE: I mean --

1 THE COURT: No. If you want to ask for initials, I'd
2 go with that, but I'm just not happy with all this identifying
3 people by name constantly in this case.

4 MS. AHMED: And, Your Honor, up until this point, we 5 have reports, they've referred to reports, what's in and not in 6 reports in order to probe a witness' accuracy and their 7 testimony, so it's -- they've had a way they've been doing this
8 the whole time.

9 MR. MARCHESE: Well, I --

10 THE COURT: Yeah. If her reports are different from 11 what -- who was supposed to be around her or not around her, I
12 don't understand if there's --

13 MR. MARCHESE: I --

14 THE COURT: -- something more than just to probe
15 memory. I believe there's other ways to probe her memory and 16 whether or not even that would be relevant if you remember or 17 don't remember the name of the person standing next to you
18 doesn't mean that you didn't see what you saw. It's just a
19 greater fact of what you saw --

20 MR. MARCHESE: I think it's probative.

21 THE COURT: -- and how much that's going to be 22 focused on what you remember and don't remember the other
23 thing. So I don't see that it's relevant or probative either
24 way.

25 The objection is sustained.

1 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

2 THE COURT: All right. So the objection was
3 sustained.

4 Mr. -- you can proceed.

5 BY MR. MARCHESE:

6 Q. Okay. So we -- I was asking you about who was around.
7 We're going to move on from that question.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. Now, at that point in time, when you're down in the circle
10 area, I believe it was your testimony that you got on your 11 binoculars and you started scanning for threats; is that
12 correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. And chron- -- on direct examination, you
15 chronologically went with some people, or some individuals I
16 should say, that were -- became of interest to you.

17 Is that an accurate statement of your testimony?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. And correct me if I'm wrong, but the first 20 individuals that you had interest in were the individual with 21 the dark shirt and then there was another one with the 22 camouflage.

23 Is that accurate?

24 A. The first individuals at that point when I was down by the 25 generator, yes -- or the floodlight generator thing, yes.

1 Q. Okay. And -- I'm sorry. I know we already went through
2 this, but it's not back up on the screen. So, if you can just 3 show me the area in which those individuals, when they became
4 of interest to you.

5 A. Uh . . . somewhere in here (indicating).

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Maybe over here (indicating).

8 Q. So, you're looking in that general area and Mr. Perez
9 asked you a bunch of questions in reference to law enforcement
10 being present; correct?

11 Do you remember that?

12 A. I'm sorry. I was still looking at that --

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. -- thinking there might be --

15 Q. Is there anything you wanted to add? Did you want to 16 change that or do you believe that that's the general vicinity
17 they were in when you saw them?

18 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, for the record, may I just 19 point out that this is not the same exact time stamp that we 20 showed the witness. Just in the event that anyone was 21 utilizing that marker in the middle of the screen as a
22 reference point, it's in a different location on this time,
23 19:12:47 versus 19:13.

24 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for that
25 clarification.

1 BY MR. MARCHESE:

2 Q. Okay. Same general picture, though, that you were shown
3 on direct examination?

4 A. Well, that's why I'm confused because if they're -- if the 5 vehicles had moved any, I would feel more comfortable using the 6 picture I used prior just because --

7 Q. Okay. Well, let's do that. I've got the time stamp; we
8 just went a little bit ahead. So, just for point of clarity,
9 Brian, it's -- what I have is 19:13:03. So it's about 20 or so
10 seconds after.

11 Just let it play, Brian. Probably easiest. And stop
12 it at 03.

13 (Exhibit published.)

14 BY MR. MARCHESE:

15 Q. Okay. You're somewhere over here (indicating); correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. And where did you see those two individuals of 18 interest, the one with the dark shirt and the other one with 19 the camouflage?

20 A. Somewhere in there (indicating).

21 Q. Okay. Now, in reference to them, it's your belief that 22 law enforcement, NHP, was not present when you first saw them?

23 A. I don't recall them being there at that time.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Over there.

1 Q. Sure. And easily identifiable based on their green or
2 yellow fluorescent vests?

3 A. In that video, yes, but I -- I didn't identify them at all
4 that day that I recall with that yellow vest. I remember
5 seeing patrol cars come.

6 Q. Okay. So do you not remember seeing them on that day in 7 the yellow vests, the green or whatever you want to call it?

8 A. I saw them in the video just now with it, but nothing
9 stood out to me that day with the yellow vests.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Doesn't mean that they weren't there; I just -- I did not 12 see a yellow vest, meaning that they weren't in my vicinity at 13 times and I didn't see them.

14 Q. Okay. So . . . if we can -- Brian, if we can go to 15 Exhibit 66, please.

16 (Exhibit 66 published.)

17 BY MR. MARCHESE:

18 Q. And I believe -- there we go. Is that up on your screen,
19 too?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. Okay. And I believe this is just a close up picture of 22 what you had prior identified on direct examination?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. And I believe your testimony was something to the 25 effect of -- don't quote me a hundred percent -- but that both

1 of them at one point had rifles pointing in your direction?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Okay. I think you had described one was in the blading
4 position and I think the other one was the low ready or 5 something along those lines?

6 A. They were both in the low ready.

7 Q. Okay. And generally in your vicinity; correct? Pointing,
8 that is.

9 A. They were pointing in our direction.

10 Q. Okay. Now, in reference to these two individuals, those 11 were the first individuals of interest that you saw pointing
12 weapons in your direction.

13 Is that a correct --- an accurate statement?

14 A. That I perceived as a real threat, yes.

15 Q. Okay. And then after that, there was another particular 16 individual and that was the individual with the black hat and 17 the white patch; is that correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. So that happened chronologically after these two 20 individuals, I think you said, low readied in your area;
21 correct?

22 A. I believe so.

23 Q. Okay. Now, in reference to this case you filled out what 24 they call a Memorandum of Activity. Mr. Tanasi referenced that 25 a little bit on his cross-examination of you?

1 A. Yes. My report, um-hmm.

2 Q. Okay. Filled that out on April 15th, 2014. So it's a few
3 days after this event, but was it fair to say it's still fresh
4 in your mind?

5 A. It -- I had been thinking about it non-stop, yes.

6 Q. Of course, because, obviously, you've testified that it
7 was something that was a stressful situation, obviously;
8 correct?

9 A. Um-hmm.

10 Q. Is that a yes?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Now, in that particular report, you filled that out
13 true and accurately; correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. To the best of your recollection; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And in a Memorandum of Activity, you're going to put all
18 the important points into that particular document.

19 Is that accurate?

20 A. Typically.

21 Q. Typically, yes. Okay.

22 Now, in that particular report, is there any mention
23 of these two individuals that are depicted in Exhibit 66
24 pointing their weapons at you?

25 A. I'd have to look at my report to -- to double-check that.

1 Q. Okay.

2 (Document shown to witness.)

3 BY MR. MARCHESE:

4 Q. Ma'am, I'm just going to point you. It just starts at 5 April 12th and then I'll give you the next page.

6 A. Okay. Very good.

7 Q. Good.

8 Sorry. I apologize. It got a little fuzzy on you.
9 There we go.

10 A. All right.

11 Okay. Go ahead.

12 Q. (Counsel complies).

13 A. Okay. So your question again, sir?

14 Q. In reference to your Memorandum of Activity -- well, let 15 me ask you a question.

16 Does that refresh your recollection?

17 A. It does.

18 Q. Okay. And in reference to your Memorandum of Activity,
19 isn't it true that you did not reference those two individuals
20 that we prior saw in Exhibit 66, you did not reference them in 21 your report?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Now, turning your attention to the second individual, the 24 one with the black hat that caught your attention; right?

25 A. Correct, yeah.

1 Q. I believe you testified something to the effect, on direct
2 examination, that when you initially saw him, he was on the
3 bridge; is that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And I hate to do this, I'm going to go back to that 6 aerial. Is that okay? So you can show me Exhibit 17, and if 7 we can go to 19:13:03.

8 (Screenshot published.)

9 MR. MARCHESE: Oh, 13:03. I apologize, Brian.

10 (Screenshot published.)

11 BY MR. MARCHESE:

12 Q. And if you can show me on this screenshot where you saw
13 this individual when he caught your attention.

14 A. The black hat, white patch?

15 Q. Correct. Yes. I'm sorry.

16 A. (Indicating).

17 Q. Okay. And just to be clear for the purposes of the jury.
18 Where is -- is Las Vegas where I put that "x" (indicating)?

19 A. Las Vegas?

20 Q. Yes. The traffic that's flowing, it would be flowing
21 northbound from Las Vegas, that lane?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. So, you see this individual. You're looking
24 through your binoculars, I believe, is your testimony; correct?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. What's the distance, would you guesstimate, from the pack
2 or circle of trucks that -- that you were in and where you're
3 looking to where you saw this individual with the black hat?

4 A. I can't remember off the top of my head. If I put it in
5 my report, that might recollect my memory. Close enough to be 6 afraid of it, but far enough that I didn't feel like I could
7 shoot my .223 at him effectively.

8 Q. Okay. You had a .223?

9 A. Yeah. I have --

10 Q. That's -- is that the name -- the caliber of your rifle?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Okay. Did you have a scope on that rifle?

13 A. No.

14 Q. So it just open sights?

15 A. At the time I did not. Yeah. At the time, it's just iron
16 sights so there's no scope on it at all.

17 Q. So it was your belief that -- one -- I believe you gave 18 many reasons, but one of the reasons that you didn't fire back
19 was with your .223 with open sights is that you didn't feel
20 that you could be accurate?

21 A. It wouldn't -- yeah. I didn't feel -- correct.

22 Q. Okay. So, you're scanning with your binoculars and you
23 see this individual of interest; correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. When you first see him, what is it that you remember that

1 you saw him do?

2 A. With? Or just saw him?

3 Q. What -- yeah. You're scanning the crowd. You see him.

4 What do you remember?

5 A. I yelled out, "There's a guy with a black hat, white
6 patch" and there was conversation that took place. People were 7 affirming it and there was a rifle, he was pointing his rifle
8 at us and that was the -- what was being said.

9 Q. So when you initially saw him, was -- that was when I
10 believe you described it as the high ready position?

11 A. Um-hmm (indicating).

12 Q. Okay. And you're pointing to your left. So, am I correct
13 in stating that that's -- he was pointing directly, at you or 14 at least in your vicinity when you first saw him?

15 A. In my direction, yeah.

16 Q. Okay. So, he's pointing in your direction and I believe
17 on direct examination you kind of panned across?

18 A. Um-hmm.

19 Q. And when it -- when I say panned across, you were 20 describing what this individual with the black hat was doing.

21 Is that accurate?

22 A. That's accurate.

23 Q. Okay. And you're watching him this whole time; correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And he pans across. So when he's panning across, he's

1 panning away from you.

2 Is that fair to say?

3 A. He was.

4 Q. Okay. And he is panning away from you and I believe the
5 testimony was he got to a certain point and then your testimony
6 was he went then and lowered his -- his weapon down.

7 Is that accurate?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. How long would you estimate that you viewed him for in 10 those positions?

11 A. It was . . . it's an approximation, but . . . it felt like 12 a long time, but I'm guessing it was probably closer to . . .
13 20 seconds, somewhere in there. It was less than a minute, I
14 would say.

15 Q. Okay. So it was a significant amount of time to be in 16 that sort of a position.

17 Is that accurate?

18 A. To be in what kind of position?

19 Q. Well, you viewing him to be in that sort of position.

20 A. Well, I was behind cover with my binoculars, but yeah. I
21 did see him for -- it was more than a couple of seconds, but it
22 wasn't, like, a minute of time even.

23 Q. Sure.

24 So, what it -- what's -- at some point you didn't see
25 him anymore; correct?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Did you pan off of him? How did that occur? When did you
3 stop seeing him?

4 A. He went down below. He -- so, he had been -- I use the 5 term gophering -- but it's where you pop up and down and
6 eventually he went down and he disappeared and while I did
7 watch for a little bit, he didn't pop back up and then I moved
8 on.

9 Q. You moved on because there might have been other threats
10 in the crowd that you were -- were of interest to you?

11 A. Well, I still looked into his direction. I was definitely
12 looking for him and when I went up to the -- the generator with 13 the floodlight, I had another discussion up there talking about 14 this person and they had said they'd seen him as well --

15 Q. Now --

16 A. -- but we couldn't find him.

17 Q. Yeah. So you -- you mentioned you went up to the 18 floodlight.

19 A. Um-hmm.

20 Q. Okay. That's a yes?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And when was that?

23 A. When was it?

24 Q. Yeah.

25 A. It was after I was at my vehicle looking at individuals

1 with rifles pointing at us and just the whole scene, I went up
2 there afterward to get a little bit closer. I knew one of the 3 individuals there and I -- it was a position of good cover
4 where I could get closer, a little bit, and take photos.

5 Q. And those photos, those are the ones -- we don't need to
6 show them again -- I think that they were Exhibits 155 and 156
7 or -- are those the photos that we're referring to? I mean, I
8 can show them if you want.

9 A. I don't know the number. I -- I don't want to confirm 10 anything without --

11 Q. The ones you took through your binoculars. I believe
12 there's kind of a green --

13 A. Yep.

14 Q. -- light in the corner?

15 A. Yeah. Those were both through my binoculars.

16 Q. Now, the Government had showed you, I believe it was 17 Exhibit 14. It was a video in which they stopped it and you
18 identified the individual in the black hat with the patch on 19 it.

20 Do you remember that?

21 A. Oh, yes. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. What was it about that particular screenshot of the 23 video that had you identify that particular individual with the 24 hat, black hat?

25 A. Well, the black hat and the large white patch. He was

1 wearing body armor. Had facial hair. He -- he looked
2 identical to the guy that I had seen on the overpass.

3 Q. Turning back to your Memorandum of Activity, you did, in 4 fact, reference that individual with the black hat and the 5 large white patch in that particular report.

6 Do you remember that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. But isn't it true you didn't write anything about
9 him having facial hair; correct?

10 A. That is true.

11 Q. Okay. And you didn't write anything about him having body
12 armor; is that correct?

13 A. I'd have to look at the report to confirm that, but . . .

14 (Document shown to witness.)

15 BY MR. MARCHESE:

16 Q. And if you can review that. Just take a quick look at it
17 and let me know if that refreshes your recollection.

18 A. Okay. Yes.

19 Q. You're good?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. And then in reference to this individual having body
22 armor, there's no reference in this report about that?

23 A. No, there isn't.

24 Q. Okay. And there's no reference to this individual working 25 with an individual wearing dark clothes standing nearby him; is

1 that correct?

2 A. Not in the report, no.

3 Q. Okay. And nothing about this individual having a plaid
4 shirt on or anything like that; is that correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 MR. MARCHESE: Thank you. No further questions.

7 THE COURT: On behalf of Drexler, any cross?

8 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect?

10 MS. AHMED: May I have the Court's indulgence,
11 Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Yes. In fact, it's 3 o'clock. So why
13 don't we go ahead and take our restroom break now.

14 During this break I remind the jury please do not 15 discuss this case with anyone nor allow anyone to discuss it
16 with you.

17 Do not read, listen to, or view anything that touches
18 upon this case in this way.

19 Do not attempt to perform any investigation or 20 researches.

21 Write down your questions, and do not form an
22 opinion.

23 It's 3:04. So we'll go ahead and take a 15-minute
24 break and plan to be back here by 3:20.

25 Let's all stand for the jury.

1 And BLM -- the jury is excused and, BLM Ranger Burke,
2 you may leave as soon as the jury has exited and we just need
3 you back here by 3:20.

4 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

5 (Jury excused from courtroom.)

6 THE COURT: All right. We're off record.

7 (Recess was taken at 3:05 p.m.)

8 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated.
10 Bring in the jury.

11 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

12 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

13 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: All rise.

14 (Jury returned to courtroom at 3:40 p.m.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Jury may be seated. Everyone
16 else may be seated afterwards.

17 We're back on the record and we have our witness,
18 BLM Agent Burke, back on the witness stand.

19 So, Ms. Ahmed, you may begin your direct -- redirect.

20 MS. AHMED: Your Honor, the Government has no
21 redirect at this time. Thank you.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any cross -- any -- oh, well,
23 I guess then we're done. Just jury questions.

24 (Brief pause in proceedings.)

25 THE COURT: Counsel, please join me at sidebar.

1 (Proceedings at sidebar out of the hearing of the jury:)

2 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 58, "At any
3 time you were on the scene did you hear the men who were armed,
4 or anyone for that matter, say anything to you or your fellow
5 rangers?"

6 Any objection?

7 MS. AHMED: No.

8 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 THE COURT: And then the second part of Jury Note 58,
11 "Did you hear anything from any of the people on the ground or 12 the interstate or anywhere? If so, were you able to make out
13 what was said?"

14 MS. AHMED: No objection.

15 MR. TANASI: No objection.

16 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note 59 has four 17 questions. The first one is, "Do park rangers have body armor?
18 If not, why? And do you carry any time of armor?" Any type it
19 should be, but it says "any time."

20 Maybe it's any time. "Do you carry any time of 21 armor?" I think they mean any type.

22 MR. TANASI: Type.

23 THE COURT: Any objection to that question?

24 MR. TANASI: No.

25 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Number 2, "Do you carry more
2 powerful weapons in your vehicles" -- and then if
3 parenthesis -- "(rifles)?"

4 Any objection?

5 MS. AHMED: No.

6 MR. TANASI: No objection.

7 THE COURT: Number 3, "When you noticed weapons
8 pointed at you at any time when possible" -- in parenthesis --
9 "(safe) did you call this in to dispatch or commanding officer
10 in charge?"

11 Any objection?

12 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

13 MR. TANASI: No objection.

14 THE COURT: Number 4, "Why wasn't report filled out
15 the same day? Instead, it was three days later."

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: No objection.

18 MR. PEREZ: No.

19 MS. AHMED: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Jury Note No. 60, Question No. 1.

21 "Being" -- well, b-e-i-g-h-i-n-g -- being -- weighing "in the 22 lower low wash looking up to the north highway, the position of 23 the long guns pointed down at your area have the look of the 24 ready position?" I think it's did the position of the weapons
25 pointed down at your area have the look of the ready position?

1 Any objection to that question?

2 MR. TANASI: No objection.

3 Number 2, "Could you see a finger on the trigger?"

4 Any objection?

5 MR. TANASI: No objection.

6 THE COURT: Number 3, "What is the difference in the 7 camo outfit this time compared to any other time?"

8 MS. AHMED: I'm not sure, yeah.

9 THE COURT: I'm not sure I understand the question.

10 MS. AHMED: I don't know if they're referring to 11 prior testimony, prior exhibits, or in her experience.

12 THE COURT: "What is the difference in the camo
13 outfit," the difference . . . I'm not sure what that could be 14 referring to.

15 MR. TANASI: Could we hear it one more time, Judge?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. TANASI: I just want to hear it one more time.

18 THE COURT: "What is the difference in the camo
19 outfit this time compared to any other time?"

20 MR. MARCHESE: I got nothing.

21 MR. TANASI: Is that the camo that she saw on the 22 bridge or is it --

23 MS. AHMED: Yeah. I don't know exactly if she's -- 24 if they're referring to her prior experience with hunters or
25 something.

1 (Counsel conferring.)

2 THE COURT: All right. But no objection --

3 MR. TANASI: No objection.

4 THE COURT: -- to that question? All right.

5 Jury Question Number No -- or Jury Note No. 61, first
6 question, "Who do you think was the incident commander?"

7 Any objection?

8 MR. TANASI: No objection.

9 THE COURT: Number 2, "Were you in regular 10 communication with the incident commander?"

11 Any objection?

12 MR. TANASI: No objection.

13 THE COURT: Number 3, "Were you told during the 14 incident that NHP was in the area?" I guess that's a question
15 mark.

16 Any objection?

17 MR. TANASI: No objection.

18 THE COURT: "Were you aware, when you observed the 19 men with the long guns, that Metro was there in support of 20 BLM?"

21 Any objection?

22 MR. TANASI: No objection.

23 THE COURT: "And when you observed the man with the 24 long gun scanning, could he have been using his scope as a
25 binocular?"

1 Any objection?

2 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

3 MR. TANASI: No objection.

4 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 62, "Did the individuals
5 with guns -- the three that concerned you -- have scopes on 6 their weapons?"

7 Any objection?

8 MS. AHMED: No objection.

9 MR. TANASI: No objection.

10 THE COURT: Second part of Jury Note No. 62, "Without 11 long distance training and scopes, would it have been a
12 difficult shot to make if you happened to be the target?"

13 Any objection?

14 MR. PEREZ: Calls for speculation, but . . .

15 MR. MYHRE: Based on her training and experience?

16 MS. AHMED: Yeah. I think --

17 THE COURT: Because she said that she didn't have a
18 scope.

19 MS. AHMED: Right. So if they're talking about her
20 making the shot to the northbound bridge or they're talking
21 about them making a shot to her?

22 MR. LEVENTHAL: She's the -- she'd be the target.

23 MS. AHMED: Right.

24 MR. LEVENTHAL: So it would be them hitting her, if 25 they could.

1 It would be speculating. She doesn't know what kind
2 of gun they have.

3 THE COURT: So it goes to her perception for the 4 objectiveness of her fear.

5 Do you have an objection?

6 MS. AHMED: No.

7 MR. LEVENTHAL: I just object as to the speculation
8 of it.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien joins in that.

11 THE COURT: Any objection from the Government?

12 MS. AHMED: No. No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to go ahead and 14 give the question.

15 Jury Note No. 62, last question, "If you really 16 thought your life was in danger, why would you move closer to 17 the threat to take pictures?"

18 Any objection?

19 MR. TANASI: No objection.

20 MR. LEVENTHAL: No objection.

21 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 63 has three questions.
22 Number 1, "How many people and children were there,
23 approximately?"

24 Any objection?

25 MS. AHMED: No.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Number -- what -- oh, women and
2 children. I'm sorry. "How many women and children were there,
3 approximately?"

4 Any objection?

5 Second question, "How did you and your colleague calm
6 down the crowd that was screaming?" I think they mean the 7 crowd -- the crowd that was screaming.

8 Any objection?

9 MS. AHMED: No.

10 MR. TANASI: No objection.

11 THE COURT: And third question, "You indicated that 12 two men were pointing guns to your direction. What was your 13 reaction? Did you move away or stay in the same spot?"

14 Any objection?

15 MS. AHMED: No.

16 MR. TANASI: No objection.

17 MR. PEREZ: No objection.

18 THE COURT: Okay. That was the last one.

19 (Proceedings within hearing of the jury:)

20 THE COURT: All right. So Ranger Burke, I have some 21 questions here. I'm going to read them into the record but 22 these are really jury questions so when you respond, you may go
23 ahead and turn to the jury to respond. All right?

24 THE WITNESS: Okay.

25 THE COURT: So Jury Note No. 58, "At any time were

1 you on the" -- "At any time you were on the scene, did you
2 hear the men who were armed -- or anyone for that matter -- say
3 anything to you or your fellow rangers?"

4 THE WITNESS: Those three . . . I couldn't say for 5 sure that I heard anything that they said to us.

6 THE COURT: And then what about anyone else?

7 THE WITNESS: I heard people screaming at us. Pardon
8 the French, but telling us to "fuck off," "go the fuck home,"
9 "fuck you, BLM," "get the fuck out of here."

10 THE COURT: All right. And the second part of the 11 question on Jury Note No. 58 is, "Did you hear anything from 12 any of the people on the ground or the interstate or anywhere?"

13 THE WITNESS: Did I hear anything from people on the 14 ground? As in not our people on the ground, but . . . the 15 individuals on the interstate?

16 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm not sure if they're trying to 17 gauge how far you are or if they just . . .

18 THE WITNESS: Well, if it's the people that are on 19 the interstate, yeah. Same goes. I heard, again, people
20 screaming at us, you know, "get the fuck out of here," all the 21 last several things I said.

22 THE COURT: All right. "And if so, were you able to 23 make out what was being said?" So I think you've answered that 24 in the positive, that you did. I won't make you repeat it a
25 third time.

1 THE WITNESS: Thanks.

2 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 59 has four questions. The
3 first one is, "Do park rangers have body armor?"

4 THE WITNESS: Yes.

5 So, I'm a law enforcement ranger and, yeah, we all
6 are issued body armor, and we are supposed to wear it. It's 7 not mandatory that we wear it, but we should be wearing it.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And then the question was, "If 9 not, why not?" but you answered that.

10 So then it says, "Do you carry any type of armor?"

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. Not only the one that I wear, but 12 after this incident, we were issued a higher level of threat
13 body armor because the body armor we had wasn't . . . it
14 wouldn't -- the high-powered rifle rounds would have gone
15 through our body armor.

16 THE COURT: Are you ready?

17 Okay. Question No. 2 is, "Do you carry more powerful
18 weapons in your vehicles?"

19 THE WITNESS: In my vehicle, in our vehicles, so we 20 have our sidearm, you know, that normally would be here on your 21 hip, and then in your vehicles we are issued an AR-15, which is 22 a .223 rifle round and then a .870 shotgun. That's usually 23 close quarters-type.

24 THE COURT: And I guess it didn't ask, but I'm going
25 to ask. So were you wearing any type of body armor that day?

1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Then Question No. 3 is, "When you
3 noticed weapons pointed at you, at any time, when possible" --
4 and in parenthesis -- "(safe) did you call this into dispatch
5 or communicate to officer in charge?"

6 THE WITNESS: When the weapons were pointed at us,
7 there was -- no, I did not put it on the radio. I told the 8 people immediately nearby for their safety, but there had been 9 a -- there was a lot of radio traffic and they had asked us to 10 not continue to inundate the radio because dispatch -- you
11 know, you got a lot of stuff going on there and if you key your 12 mic, then that actually makes somebody else not able to 13 communicate with dispatch. They can't get everything at the 14 same time. So, they were trying to limit the coms to dispatch
15 so they can get out what they needed to get out to people, if 16 that makes sense.

17 THE COURT: So, like our court reporter, who can only 18 type one person speaking at a time?

19 THE WITNESS: Exactly.

20 THE COURT: All right. Number 3 is . . . I'm sorry.
21 Number 4 is, "Why wasn't it" -- "Why wasn't report filled
22 out" -- oh, your report. "Why wasn't your report filled out
23 the same day? Instead, it was three days later."

24 THE WITNESS: Several reasons. The day of this 25 standoff, if you will, we were still under a heightened threat

1 and we didn't get in till later and it was -- you know, we were
2 calling family members to make sure -- I was calling family
3 members to make them know I was okay and we had to get to a
4 hotel in a place that was safe and it still wasn't safe. So,
5 there was not an option to fill it out. We had a lot of other
6 logistics going on at that point. The report was the last of 7 my worries, and certainly many others. And then the other
8 thing is, too, when you do a report, you tend to -- this isn't 9 a typical situation where I'm at the office and I run into
10 somebody out in the field and then I'm having to write a report
11 of what happened right then because it's -- while it's 12 significant, it's not like this and normally you'd go back to 13 your office, you'd type it up, be done with it and put it with 14 your paperwork and on you go, but here, it was such an event,
15 that we still stayed into it for many days and I had -- I had 16 to continue working under that. So, it took several days to 17 even get to a point where I could sit down to write one and it
18 still wasn't optimal; I was still working.

19 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 60 has three 20 questions. The first one is, "Being in the lower low wash
21 looking up to the north highway, the position of the long guns
22 pointed down at your area, did they have the look of the ready
23 position?"

24 THE WITNESS: Okay. Just so I can understand. In 25 the low wash, what's the -- what they could see down in the

1 lower wash?

2 THE COURT: I'll read it again. "Being in the lower
3 low wash" -- I'm assuming that's referring to the description
4 of where you were at, I don't know. You can clarify that if 5 that's not where you were. The question is, "Being in the 6 lower low wash looking up to the north highway, the position of 7 the long guns pointed down at your area, did they have the look
8 of the ready position?"

9 THE WITNESS: Okay. I'll answer that to what I think
10 you're saying.

11 So, just to clarify. The wash itself I wasn't in. I
12 was up above on a -- kind of a hill to -- if you were looking 13 at the overpass, I was over here (indicating), right. And 14 while I had moved from the gate -- or Post 1, it was a little
15 bit lower, and yes, from there, I could see those individuals
16 pointing rifles in our direction, but then also the one
17 individual with the black hat and the white patch, I could see
18 him pointing it, which now would be to my left -- as I looked 19 down, he was pointing it in that direction -- and I could see
20 my colleagues down below in that wash.

21 THE COURT: And did the weapon have the look of the 22 ready position?

23 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Question No. 2 on Jury Note No. 60
25 is, "Could you see a finger on the trigger?"

1 THE WITNESS: I did not, but it doesn't mean it
2 wasn't there. It just -- at that point all I'm seeing is a
3 rifle pointed at somebody, many people.

4 THE COURT: And Question No. 3 on Jury Note No. 60,
5 "What is the difference in the camo outfit this time compared 6 to any other time?"

7 THE WITNESS: Well, I'd say, you know, typically on 8 my day-to-day patrols I do not run into people wearing
9 camouflage unless it's during hunting season or, you know, a
10 certain hunting season, bird season, big game season, bow
11 hunting season. To me, to see somebody in camouflage where 12 they come at you, you have people with body armor and rifles,
13 to me it was -- it was a threat. Normally when I see people in 14 camouflage out hunting, I don't consider them a threat; they're 15 just a contact, a hunter, but . . . did I answer that fully?

16 Yes. Okay.

17 THE COURT: Jury Note No. 61, the first question is,
18 "Who do you think was the incident commander?"

19 THE WITNESS: Of the entire Bundy event?

20 THE COURT: I think just your incident commander.

21 THE WITNESS: My immediate commander was --
22 supervisor was Don Miller. I had actually had a different
23 person. His name was Ranger John Simms prior to that and he 24 had left the day earlier because he had some family issues
25 where he was -- there was some threats going there and he

1 needed to leave to address those at home. So, the next person
2 that we got to be our boss was Ranger Don Miller.

3 THE COURT: Okay. The next question on Jury Note 61
4 is, "Were you in regular communication with the incident
5 commander?"

6 THE WITNESS: Yes. Throughout -- you know,
7 throughout the event, but at that day in particular, you know,
8 I drove over to talk to Don Miller, was in discussion with him
9 and stayed in communication with him throughout.

10 THE COURT: "Were you told during the incident that 11 NHP was in the area?"

12 THE WITNESS: I can't remember if I was told that or 13 not. I certainly saw their vehicles, but I can't remember if 14 somebody said that in passing or if it was just that I only saw
15 their vehicles.

16 THE COURT: Okay. The next jury question is, "Were 17 you aware, when you observed the men with the long guns, that 18 Metro was there in support of BLM?"

19 THE WITNESS: Metro's SWAT was -- I had been in 20 contact with them. So, yeah, they had pulled up and I had seen
21 their SWAT vehicle arrive and then they pulled in nearby. So I
22 had spoken with them.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And the last question on Jury Note
24 No. 61 is, "When you observed the man with the long gun
25 scanning, could he have been using his scope as a binocular?"

1 THE WITNESS: Uh . . . you know, I guess there's
2 always that possibility. However, I would say if you're a
3 hunter or you have any type of weapon experience, you don't do
4 that. You know, as a hunter, myself, I don't use my rifle
5 sights as a way to gauge something because I don't know what
6 I'm going to come across at that point and I could run into
7 another hunter and you should always point your rifle in a safe
8 direction unless you're willing to shoot what it is that's in 9 your sights. So, while certainly that could be possible, that 10 wouldn't be smart and I don't believe that's what he was doing.

11 THE COURT: All right. Jury Note No. 62, "Did the 12 individuals with guns" -- and then in parenthesis -- "(the 13 three that concerned you) have scopes on their weapons?"

14 THE WITNESS: I think I referenced it in one of my 15 reports, but, you know, as my memory stands this second, I
16 remember seeing long guns. You know, to me, when I saw those,
17 you almost see like the end of the barrel and it's just huge
18 because it's something that can kill you. My eyes were on that 19 more than the scope, but I don't remember at this second if 20 they were all scoped or not.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And second part of Jury Note No.
22 62 is, "Without long distance training and scopes, would it
23 have been a difficult shot to make if you happened to be the 24 target?"

25 THE WITNESS: Yes. It would have been a very

1 difficult -- for -- for me to shoot at somebody, yes.

2 THE COURT: I think they're -- if you happened to be
3 the target, would it have been -- I'll read it again.

4 "Without long distance training and scopes, would it
5 have been a difficult shot to make" -- and then in 6 parenthesis -- "(if you happened to be the target)?" So not if 7 you're the shooter, if you happened to be the target.

8 THE WITNESS: I'll say this. It -- it -- it's more
9 than just a yes or no answer to me. If -- like, when I was --
10 my training goes that you would normally shoot back or you
11 would at least -- you know, if you see a rifle pointing at you,
12 I have the option to shoot back. They're threatening me. And 13 I wasn't willing to shoot into that crowd of people not knowing
14 with a hundred percent certainty that I could hit that 15 individual with the rifle. But, you know, on the other side of 16 that, it was just a bunch of us in uniform and special agents
17 that might not be in uniform, but they're -- it didn't matter
18 if they hit me, they could have hit somebody right next to me.
19 I mean, they were going to get -- if they shot in my 20 direction -- most likely, somebody.

21 THE COURT: All right. And the third question from 22 Jury Note No. 62 is, "If you really thought your life was in 23 danger, why would you move closer to the threat to make
24 pictures?"

25 THE WITNESS: I -- I wanted to get good photos. I

1 did it at a time where I felt I was safe to get closer. It
2 wasn't a huge gap of distance and I had two other individuals
3 that were at -- where I went up to, where I ran up to, that had
4 weapons as well. So, I felt covered by them to go up there.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And Jury Question No. 63 has three 6 questions. The first one is, "How many women and children were 7 there, approximately?"

8 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I just can't give a number
9 as far as women and children. I know I saw women and I know I
10 saw children up there, and they were kind of sprinkled
11 throughout the crowds, but I -- I don't have a definitive
12 number for you. To me, one was too many.

13 THE COURT: All right. And the second question is,
14 "How did you and your colleague calm down the crowd that were 15 screaming?"

16 THE WITNESS: I don't know that we did. Eventually,
17 when we backed away, there was another officer that was 18 interacting with particularly the woman that was screaming and 19 I didn't end up dealing with her directly. So, I don't know
20 that we dealt with her or the group very well; we just 21 disengaged a little bit. Created some distance for safety.

22 THE COURT: And the last question on Jury Note No. 63
23 is, "You indicated that two men were pointing a gun to your 24 direction. What was your reaction? Did you move away or stay
25 in the same spot?"

1 THE WITNESS: I ducked. We were -- I was behind
2 cover anyways. I'm behind my vehicle, you know, and I have it
3 positioned as such and the interstate is out like this
4 (indicating) and I had been going between spots, but, yeah, I
5 ducked. And then I looked up. There's a term called "slicing
6 the pie" and as you get a little bit further away from a
7 vehicle and/or whatever it is, you can slowly bridge a gap
8 there that you can see out quite a distance without exposing
9 yourself too much and I was able to do that a little bit.

10 THE COURT: All right. So that's the last question.
11 Any follow-up questions from the Government?

12 MS. AHMED: Nothing, Your Honor. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Anything follow-up by the defense?

14 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

15 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

16 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

17 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, Ranger Burke, you're all
19 done. Thank you very much for coming in today. You are 20 excused.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: And so, I just -- please be careful on 23 the way down with those steps.

24 THE WITNESS: Okay.

25 (Witness excused.)

1 THE COURT: Government may call its next witness.

2 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 The United States calls Officer Sean Cox.

4

5 SEAN COX,

6 called as a witness on behalf of the Government, having been
7 first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

8

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

10 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Please remain standing and
11 raise your right hand.

12 You do solemnly swear that the testimony you shall
13 give in the cause now before this Court shall be the truth, the
14 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 COURTROOM ADMINISTRATOR: Thank you, sir. You may be
17 seated.

18 Please state your full name for the record and spell
19 your last name.

20 THE WITNESS: My name is Sean Cox. My last name is 21 spelled C-o-x.

22

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF SEAN COX

24 BY MS. CREEGAN:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Officer Cox.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. What is your current position of employment?

3 A. Currently, I'm a police officer with the United States
4 Park Police in Washington, D.C.

5 Q. How long have you been an officer with the United States
6 Park Police?

7 A. Currently, I've been an officer for about four years and
8 11 months. I'm going on five years in August.

9 Q. Do you have any law enforcement experience before joining
10 the Park Police?

11 A. Yes. I worked as a municipal police officer in New Jersey
12 for approximately a year and a half prior to federal service.

13 Q. As a federal law enforcement officer, is there any 14 training that you're required to complete?

15 A. Correct. We do approximately six months of training in a
16 federal training academy in Georgia. It's called the Federal 17 Law Enforcement Training Center and it's a basic police
18 training to have you commissioned and certified to be a police
19 officer.

20 Q. Did you undergo subsequent training after being trained in 21 the academy or at the training center?

22 A. Correct. We do about 40 hours of in-service training
23 every year. On top of that we can apply for specialized 24 training throughout the year to hone our skills further.

25 Q. Did you participate in a cattle impoundment operation in

1 Bunkerville, Nevada, in April 2014?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And was that in your official capacity?

4 A. Correct, yes.

5 Q. Were you present at the Incident Command Post or 6 impoundment site on April 12, 2014?

7 A. Yes. Yes, I was.

8 Q. And did you have duties at that time?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What were your duties at that time?

11 A. My duties around the incident command center that morning
12 were just to provide site security. Make sure that any 13 unauthorized people weren't coming into the site and just to 14 protect the government property and most importantly, the 15 civilians that were working that site.

16 Q. And you said you were doing site security. Did you have 17 an understanding of why you were doing site security?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what was that understanding?

20 A. It was my understanding after morning briefings that 21 threat levels have -- had risen between local militias in the 22 area and federal employees and that there was a chance that we 23 could be encountered by local militiamen or armed men at our 24 command center.

25 Q. What was your understanding of the status of the operation

1 on April 12, 2014?

2 A. The status of the operation at that time is we were trying
3 to de-escalate those tensions I just spoke about, so, we were
4 no longer collecting cattle. The -- the gathering of cattle
5 had ceased, but at that time we were still responsible for the 6 cattle that we had on property and we were working out
7 logistics to kind of break down our Incident Command Post and 8 move that cattle to other locations.

9 Q. Did you ever have an understanding that you were going to 10 leave the cattle behind?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you ever have an understanding the cattle were going
13 to be just released?

14 A. No.

15 Q. What was your understanding of what was going to happen
16 with the cattle?

17 A. It was my understanding we were going to be moving that 18 cattle out of state --

19 MR. LEVENTHAL: I'm going to object as to foundation.
20 Hearsay.

21 MR. MARCHESE: Asked and answered.

22 THE COURT: Any response?

23 MS. CREEGAN: Well, to asked and answered, I don't 24 think I've asked and answered that particular question. To 25 foundation, he's there at the Incident Command Post. He's

1 providing security for operations that are ongoing at that
2 time. He should have an understanding of what they are.

3 THE COURT: All right. That's enough.

4 Overruled. He may answer the question.

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. So, just to repeat it. What was your understanding of 7 what was going to happen to the cattle at that point?

8 A. Again, due to those growing tensions that were occurring,
9 we were trying move the cattle out of that area. So we were 10 just trying to move the cattle to an outside location,
11 preferably out of the state, and at that time my job was going
12 to be primarily to either trail or lead that cattle convoy back
13 and forth until we got all the equipment out of the incident
14 command center.

15 Q. Okay. So you mentioned that you were doing site security
16 on April 12, 2014. Did anything happen on April 12, 2014, that 17 challenged the security of the impoundment site?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And how did that first start to happen?

20 A. Initially we were contacted saying that a large group of 21 people were going to be approaching or on their way to our 22 Incident Command Post. We were told that some of them were on 23 horseback, some of them had rifles, long guns and -- and they 24 were on their way to our location.

25 Q. So, in response to that, what was your action, given that

1 you had duties to secure the site of the impound site?

2 A. As a SET Team and as the primary security of that Incident
3 Command Post, we found that there was two areas that were
4 mainly vulnerable; one was off of I-15 and the other was down
5 in a wash area under an overpass.

6 Q. So let me -- let me break down your answer just a little
7 bit.

8 So, first you mentioned as a member of the SET Team.
9 Can you tell what the SET Team is?

10 A. Correct. It's a Special Events Team that's utilized by 11 the Park Service in times where an event's going to take place
12 that they anticipate a large group of people becoming involved,
13 you know, coming to.

14 Q. So, is it fair to say that the SET Team regularly deals
15 with large crowds of people?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. Were you a member of the SET Team at that time?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you have special training in how to handle crowds?

20 A. Yes. We go through crowd control training often.

21 Q. Did you have any special training in how to handle a
22 violent crowd?

23 A. Yes. Our crowd control training, for the most part, is 24 for non-lethal, non-deadly force. So, we're equipped with 25 plastic shields, we're equipped with protective equipment,

1 helmets, visors, things that -- if broken bottles, for
2 instance, rocks, bricks, things that are non-lethal in force
3 hit us, we have the protective equipment to deal with those 4 type of projectiles.

5 Q. So you mentioned that the SET Team evaluated two potential
6 areas. Could you just describe, again, what those two areas
7 were that you were evaluating as possible areas that you might 8 need to secure?

9 A. Yeah. The one area was an entry point for vehicles. It
10 came off of I-15 and it came down into our ICP area. A second
11 area was under a overpass which we called the washout.

12 Q. And are those referred to as Post 1 and Post 2, 13 respectively?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Did you respond to one of those areas, Post 1 or Post 2?

16 A. Yes. I responded to Post 2, which is that washout area
17 under the overpass.

18 Q. And is this -- which -- when you say "under the overpass," 19 overpass of what?

20 A. The overpass of I-15. There was infrastructure there, a
21 bridge, that carried I-15 and we were in the dirt washout
22 underneath of it.

23 Q. Is this the southbound or the northbound lane of I-15?

24 A. We were closer to the southbound lane.

25 Q. So when you say "we responded"; that would be members of

1 the SET Team?

2 A. Yeah. Initially there was six of us that responded.

3 Q. Okay. And what was it that you -- when you're responding
4 to that area, that you decided to do?

5 A. When we responded, we just really wanted to observe what
6 was taking place and kind of develop a plan that would -- that
7 would best safeguard that area.

8 Q. So you mentioned you were going to observe what took 9 place. What did you first observe -- you know, did anybody, in 10 fact, come to the Post 2 area where you could observe them from
11 Post 2?

12 A. Yeah. I was able to observe a few different things. I
13 was utilizing binoculars and, you know, regular vision. At 14 first there was a large gathering of people, you know,
15 approximately 200 to 300 yards past the washout area that were 16 gathering in kind of a -- somewhat of a semicircle it appeared
17 to me.

18 Q. So you say you saw a large group of people. Where are 19 they in relation to where you are under the southbound
20 overpass?

21 A. Again, they're through the washout area, through the 22 underpasses and on the same level as I am. They're not up on 23 the overpasses, they're just straight through underneath the 24 overpasses, just about 2 or 3 hundred yards away.

25 Q. So would they be on the other side of the northbound

1 overpass, on the closer side of the northbound --

2 A. On the far side of the northbound overpass.

3 Q. Okay. And I think you mentioned you were watching them
4 with binoculars. What were you able to observe about them at
5 that time?

6 A. At that time, it just looked like a group that was coming,
7 like I said, into a circle to kind of talk. It didn't really
8 seem threatening in nature at that point.

9 Q. Okay. Did there come a time when things changed?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And how did they change?

12 A. Things started really developing quickly. The -- the 13 southbound lane of travel that was above me, all of a sudden
14 traffic started to stop and civilians that were up there
15 started to yell at us and their close proximity to us, they 16 could have hit us with any type of projectiles that they want
17 and they were also in an area where it would have been 18 difficult for us to get up to make contact with them because 19 they were up above us. Secondly, that crowd, that started
20 develop further in my line of vision, started making their way
21 closer to me and then horseback started to come with that 22 crowd, which also was another perceived threat that I felt
23 was -- was substantial.

24 Q. So taking your attention, you mentioned this crowd. You
25 mentioned they're being joined by people on horseback. What

1 did you observe, that combined crowd of those people and the
2 people on horseback, to do?

3 A. The -- the -- the people on horseback and the crowd, they
4 just continued to encroach towards our Incident Command Post.
5 We had a fence up. We were not trying to make contact with
6 them. We weren't trying to make contact with them or go closer
7 to them. We kind of had our fence and everything set up and we
8 just wanted to keep people out.

9 Q. How close were you to that fence that was under the 10 southbound overpass?

11 A. I'd say maybe 30 or 40 feet.

12 Q. And were the people drawing closer to you?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Did there come a point where you could see them better
15 through by binoculars?

16 A. Yeah. Absolutely. They were at a point that they were so
17 close I didn't need to utilize my binoculars anymore.

18 Q. So you mentioned there's a point where they come forward
19 together. Could you see them through your binoculars at that 20 point?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What could you observe about the group at that point?

23 A. At that point, I -- like I said, I observed members on 24 horseback. I observed that there was some people in the crowd
25 that had sidearms holstered. I observed there were some people

1 in the crowd that had long guns braced across the front of
2 them. There was a lot of unleashed dogs that were in the 3 crowd, however, there was one individual that had a leashed
4 German Shepherd that, again, stood out to me just because it
5 wasn't the norm of that crowd at the time.

6 Q. So you mentioned you saw some individuals with long guns.
7 What particularly drew your attention to these individuals with 8 long guns?

9 A. Again, just -- my perceived threat level is based on the 10 type of training that I have, which is the type of caliber and 11 accuracy that those people could have with those guns and also 12 the movements that they were making. A lot of these people in 13 the crowd were just moving forward to us and, you know,
14 verbally voicing their opinions, where others were really
15 unconcerned with us and really just looking deliberately to 16 seek cover behind concrete infrastructure that was --

17 MR. LEVENTHAL: Objection. Speculation. Move to 18 trike.

19 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

20 MR. MARCHESE: Parker joins.

21 MR. PEREZ: Lovelien Jones.

22 MS. CREEGAN: He's giving his own observations of 23 what he saw the crowd doing.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

25 BY MS. CREEGAN:

1 Q. So, Officer Cox, you mentioned saw some people kind of
2 coming forward voicing their opinions, but you saw other people
3 doing something else. What -- can you describe generally what
4 the other people were doing?

5 A. The other people, it appeared to me, were seeking cover.
6 They were walking behind the concrete pillars that held up the 7 interstate above. They were also utilizing the berms that rose
8 on the side to, again, go up and kind of get a better picture
9 of what took place in that ICP behind us. It appeared they 10 were, you know, moving to higher ground.

11 Q. So besides the fact that some of these individuals were 12 armed and some of them seemed to be seeking cover, is there
13 anything else you found concerning about these individuals?

14 A. Yeah. As I continued to scan the crowd, it looked like
15 they were able to talk to each other with hand signals. A lot
16 of these individuals were in groups of two or three that 17 appeared that they were working together. When I looked at the 18 north -- excuse me -- yes. When I looked at the northbound
19 lane of traffic, which was further from me, I saw that there
20 were also men up there that had long guns, which were kind of 21 providing an overwatch for the group below.

22 Q. So, taking your attention to people that you saw on the 23 northbound bridge, were there any individuals in particular
24 that caught your attention on the northbound bridge?

25 A. Yeah, that's correct. There were three individuals on the

1 northbound bridge that were able to stand out to me.

2 Q. What is the reason that these three individuals stood out
3 to you?

4 A. Very similar to the same things I mentioned earlier. They
5 were in a tactically superior place than we were, raised, up on 6 a bridge, with a concrete barrier in front of them to provide
7 them really well [sic] cover. They also had long black guns,
8 which, in my perspective, provided them with better accuracy
9 than the small sidearm, and they also were wearing vests,
10 which, again, was just better equipment to help utilize the 11 transfer of ammunition of things if they needed to.

12 Q. Did you observe anything about these three individuals in 13 terms of -- you mentioned coordination or hand signals. Was 14 there anything like that that you observed?

15 A. Yeah. They were kind of talking in a group and then they 16 split up. One individual split up and started walking
17 southbound in northbound traffic and I followed him for a
18 little bit. I was unable to locate the two other individuals
19 when I scanned back with binoculars.

20 Q. So you mentioned a little bit about these three
21 individuals and I just want to ask you, kind of taking them
22 person by person, everything that you can remember as you sit
23 here today about what those people looked like. So you
24 mentioned first, one person headed a little further south.
25 What's everything that you can kind of remember about what that

1 person looks like, or anything that they had on their person?

2 A. That individual had a long black gun. He was wearing a
3 T-shirt, and that's a -- the most vivid picture that I can
4 paint of him.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. There was a second individual that had a beard. He did
7 have a darker colored tactical vest on and a long gun. He was 8 also wearing a hat. And then a third individual had a long gun
9 and a black vest on. He also had a beard and there was --
10 that's the best description I can provide.

11 Q. Okay. I'm going to bring up what's been previously
12 admitted as Government's Exhibit 14.

13 And can we stop it right there, please?

14 (Screenshot published.)

15 BY MS. CREEGAN:

16 Q. Officer Cox, we have a person who is depicted in the 17 foreground of the screen here. Does this person appear to be 18 consistent with one of the descriptions that you've just given,
19 the foreground here?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And which -- which person is this of the three that you've 22 just described?

23 A. That would be the individual with the beard and the black
24 tactical vest and the long gun.

25 Q. Okay.

1 MS. CREEGAN: And can you play for a little bit,
2 please.

3 (Exhibit 14 published.)

4 MS. CREEGAN: Can you stop that, please. Thank you.

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And just taking your attention to the person on the left
7 side of the screen at 5 seconds, does that person appear to be
8 consistent with one of the persons you've just described?

9 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

10 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer the question.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. Based on the T-shirt and the long
12 gun, yes.

13 BY MS. CREEGAN:

14 Q. Which person was this?

15 A. That would be the one who walked away from the group. He 16 walked south in the northbound lane of traffic.

17 Q. So, just so we understand what south is, you're underneath
18 the southbound bridge looking at the northbound bridge;
19 correct?

20 A. Um-hmm, correct.

21 Q. Did he go right or left?

22 A. He's walking to the right of my field of view.

23 Q. Okay.

24 MS. CREEGAN: And can you skip to the end, please.

25 To the still frame at the end.

1 (Screenshot published.)

2 BY MS. CREEGAN:

3 Q. And the person who's in Exhibit 14 at 1 minute and 28
4 seconds, is this consistent with one of the descriptions of the 5 persons that you saw?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Which person is this?

8 A. He's the second individual with short sleeves, a tactical
9 vest, and the long gun, the beard and the hat.

10 Q. And you -- and I think I heard you say this, but you
11 observed them gathered together at one point. Did you observe
12 whether they appeared to be talking or doing anything else with 13 one another?

14 A. Again, you know, I'm looking with binoculars so I can't 15 hear them talking or anything like that. You know, based on 16 how they're gathered, facing each other and, you know, the 17 close proximity of where they're at, I would assume so.

18 Q. So, you mentioned also that they split up. Did you see
19 where they went when they split up?

20 A. Unfortunately, with the binoculars, I was only able to 21 follow that one gentleman to the right. When I scanned back
22 with the binoculars to the left, I was unable to locate the two
23 other gentlemen.

24 Q. Did that give you concern as a law enforcement officer
25 that you couldn't locate them?

1 A. Yes. You know, similar to -- in police training, you want
2 to always see a suspect's hands or an individual's hands and
3 very similar to when you can't see something and you can't 4 figure out where they're at, that was -- that was very similar
5 to me because I -- I had fear of the unknown of where these two 6 possibly went.

7 Q. Did you have concern at seeing a group of three people
8 with long guns that appeared to be working together?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. TANASI: Objection. Leading.

11 THE COURT: Sustained.

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Did you have concern observing these three individuals?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What was that concern?

16 A. The concern was what I mentioned earlier, the superior
17 positioning that they had on us, the type of weapons that they 18 were possibly utilizing, and the type of equipment that they 19 donned.

20 MS. CREEGAN: And can we bring up, for the witness
21 only, Exhibit 157.

22 THE COURT: Before we do that, could we have him
23 clarify the difference between the vest and the armor.

24 He was talking about vests. So he just means -- I
25 mean, I don't want to say what I think he means, so I would

1 rather just have him say what he means when he refers to
2 "vest."

3 BY MS. CREEGAN:

4 Q. So, when you use the term "vest," what does that mean to
5 you?

6 A. There's really a few different meanings. The vest that
7 I'm talking about is a carrier that can either carry body armor
8 and ammunition on the outside, or just ammunition. Both would 9 raise a perceived threat level to me.

10 Q. And you mentioned that you saw one individual with 11 something black and one individual with something dark color.
12 Was one of those a vest or body armor? Were you able to tell
13 which one it would be for the individuals that seemed to have 14 something on?

15 MR. MARCHESE: Objection. Leading.

16 MR. TANASI: Stewart joins.

17 THE COURT: Well, the question was whether he could 18 tell what it was that he was wearing, the different kinds of 19 vests, what vest means. So I don't think that's leading.

20 Overruled. He can answer the question.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm -- could you ask that again? I'm
22 sorry.

23 BY MS. CREEGAN:

24 Q. So, you described three individuals and you mentioned that 25 one had something black on. Was that a vest or was that body

1 armor or was that something else?

2 A. Again, from -- from my vantage point, I can't say that
3 they were donning body armor under the vests that they had.
4 All I can see is that their vests have compartments that were,
5 you know, easily accessible to ammunition. What is underneath
6 that cloth carrier, I'm unaware of.

7 Q. And does that apply to both the person with the black vest
8 and the person with the dark colored vest?

9 A. That's correct.

10 (Exhibit 157 published to witness.)

11 BY MS. CREEGAN:

12 Q. So drawing your attention to proposed Exhibit 157, do you
13 recognize the scene depicted in 157?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Does this fairly and accurately represent what you,
16 yourself, saw on April 12, 2014?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And this is not your exact position?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Where are you in the general scheme of what appears in 21 this picture, Exhibit 157?

22 A. There's a white BLM truck, the back window is marked ME4.
23 I am to the left of that truck.

24 Q. Okay.

25 MS. CREEGAN: Government moves to admit Exhibit 157.

1 (Exhibit 157 offered.)

2 THE COURT: Any objection to Exhibit 157?

3 MR. TANASI: None from Stewart, Your Honor.

4 MR. MARCHESE: None from Parker.

5 MR. LEVENTHAL: No, Your Honor.

6 MR. PEREZ: None from Lovelien.

7 THE COURT: All right. Exhibit 157 will be admitted.

8 (Exhibit 157 received.)

9 THE COURT: You may publish it to the jury.

10 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you.

11 (Exhibit 157 published.)

12 BY MS. CREEGAN:

13 Q. Officer Cox, now that the jury can see 157, what's 14 generally depicted in this picture?

15 A. The depiction is -- is, you know, just the growing crowd
16 of people making their way closer to the gates. Like I said,
17 that further BLM truck that is marked ME4, there's a -- kind of 18 a red flag and a light pole on top of it. I am to the left of
19 that.

20 Q. And from this position, can you see the northbound bridge?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And can you see the general area where you saw all these 23 three individuals?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Could you circle that, please.

1 A. (Witness complies).

2 Q. So --

3 A. That would --

4 Q. I'm sorry. Go ahead.

5 A. That would be the area, even possibly a little bit further
6 left, to where I -- I started to observe them. As they split
7 up, the one individual started walking closer to this, you
8 know, area of (indicating) --

9 Q. And when you say the one individual, you mean the one that 10 was heading south?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. I know that this picture doesn't have everything, but 13 how -- about how many pillars hold up the northbound bridge in 14 this wash area?

15 A. There's -- there's two pillars. Two primary pillars that 16 stand up, but each of those two primary ones have, you know,
17 three to four pillars there that you can use to conceal cover.

18 Q. So, from your perspective, looking onto the bridge and 19 seeing the two main pillars, where was this group of three 20 individuals in relationship to the two pillars?

21 A. They would have been in the middle of those two pillars,
22 kind of in the middle of the bridge at the time.

23 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

24 Court's indulgence for a moment?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

1 (Counsel conferring.)

2 MS. CREEGAN: I'm sorry. Can you bring up Exhibit
3 157 again, please?

4 (Exhibit 157 published.)

5 BY MS. CREEGAN:

6 Q. And again, Officer Cox, I'm sorry, I know you can't see
7 everything in this picture, but could you just draw an "N" on 8 where the northbound lane is.

9 A. (Witness complies).

10 Q. And could you draw an "S" if you see any of the 11 infrastructure of the southbound bridge in this picture.

12 A. (Witness complies).

13 MS. CREEGAN: Thank you. You can take that down.

14 No further questions, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Any cross?

16 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

17

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF SEAN COX

19 BY MR. TANASI:

20 Q. Good afternoon, Officer Cox.

21 A. Hi. How are you?

22 Q. I'm Rich Tanasi. I represent Steven Stewart (indicating).
23 I have a few questions for you on cross. Okay?

24 A. Yeah. Absolutely.

25 Q. All right. So, your testimony about the three individuals

1 that stood out to you on the northbound bridge, I want to take
2 you back there. Okay?

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. All right. Those three individuals stood out to you
5 because of the high ground; right?

6 A. That was one of the possible, you know, threats, you know.

7 Q. Okay. And yes or no, please.

8 Another reason the three individuals stood out to you
9 is because of their long guns; correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. And the three individuals had vests; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right.

14 MR. TANASI: So if we could, Brian, please bring up
15 Exhibit 14.

16 (Exhibit 14 published.)

17 MR. TANASI: Okay. Brian, if you could play it --
18 well, with no audio, play it just for a couple -- a couple
19 moments. Two seconds in, three seconds in.

20 Stop.

21 BY MR. TANASI:

22 Q. All right, sir. And you identified this individual as 23 (indicating) somebody that you saw, one of those three 24 individuals that you've talked about here today; right?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Okay. And this individual that I have circled
2 (indicating), you recognized him because of the T-shirt you
3 said; right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Okay. He's not wearing a vest; correct?

6 A. That is correct.

7 MR. TANASI: Take that down, Brian, please.

8 BY MR. TANASI:

9 Q. The three individuals, you said, appeared to be kind of 10 working together; right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And one of the reasons they were working together you had 13 testified was because they were gathered at some point.

14 Is that fair?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. TANASI: Brian, if you could bring up, please,
18 Exhibit 157.

19 (Exhibit 157 published.)

20 BY MR. TANASI:

21 Q. Okay. Sir, would you agree with me that these folks over
22 here (indicating) appear to be gathered?

23 A. That -- in a sense, that group is gathered. However, they 24 are not gathered at 45 degree angles somewhat, again, in a
25 semicircle.

1 Q. Okay. Yes or no.

2 This group here -- just yes or no, please -- that
3 group appear to be gathered? Just yes or no.

4 MS. CREEGAN: Object to a yes or no, if he needs to 5 qualify or explain his response.

6 MR. TANASI: Your Honor, that's the purpose of
7 redirect.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 Well, you can't tell the witness to answer yes or no.
10 You can ask the question in a leading manner, but you need to 11 let him finish answering the question.

12 BY MR. TANASI:

13 Q. Go ahead, sir. Does this group appear to be gathered?

14 A. Some members in that group appear to be gathered. Others
15 do not.

16 Q. Okay.

17 MR. TANASI: Take that down, Brian, please.

18 BY MR. TANASI:

19 Q. Of the three individuals that you say appeared to be 20 working together, you said at one point one of those 21 individuals, he went to your right; right? He left your vision
22 and went to your right; correct?

23 A. Yes. That's correct.

24 Q. All right. And that was on the northbound bridge; right?

25 A. Yes, that's correct.

1 Q. The bridge that was further away from you?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. All right. And for how long was he out of your
4 field of vision kind of heading to the right away from the 5 other two individuals?

6 A. That individual wasn't out of my field of vision. I -- I
7 was able to track him. It was when I looked back to where they
8 initially gathered at that I was unable to track the other two
9 individuals.

10 Q. Okay. The individual who went off to the right, it's your 11 testimony that you had eyes on him the whole time?

12 A. Not the whole time. There's continuing threats that are 13 coming to this area. My job is to point them out as to what I
14 feel is the highest to my teammates and then I'm on to the next
15 one.

16 Q. Okay. So it's fair to say the individual that you say was 17 running to the right, you didn't have eyes on him the entire 18 time you were in the wash on April 12, 2014. Fair?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. Okay. Fair to say that on the 12th you saw protestors?
21 Is that fair to say?

22 A. There were some protestors on the 12th.

23 Q. Okay. Sir, when did you first arrive in Bunkerville?

24 A. I would say I arrived sometime around April 1st, I
25 believe, is when my travel started.

1 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Relevance.

2 THE COURT: Asked and answered.

3 MR. TANASI: Okay. I'll move on.

4 BY MR. TANASI:

5 Q. You were in Bunkerville on -- at 8:15 in the morning on
6 April 12th; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Okay. And isn't it true that you learned that the BLM was 9 going to make an announcement that the media was going to be 10 informed the Gold Butte seizure had ended? Isn't that true?

11 A. The way that briefing was described to me was that we were 12 no longer seizing cattle. However, logistically, we needed to 13 work out how we were going to move that cattle and the 14 operation center out of that area to a less hostile area.

15 Q. But, in fact, isn't it true that you were advised that the 16 Gold Butte cattle seizure had ended?

17 A. I don't remember that quote coming from anyone --

18 Q. You don't?

19 A. -- particularly.

20 Q. Would seeing a copy of the report you prepared on 21 April 15th, 2014, help to refresh your recollection as to 22 exactly what you were informed?

23 A. Possibly.

24 Q. Okay.

25 (Document shown to witness.)

1 BY MR. TANASI:

2 Q. Okay, sir. I'm showing you a copy of your report. It
3 appears to be prepared on April 15th, 2014?

4 Do you see that?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay. If I could direct your attention down to the last
7 paragraph.

8 A. Yep.

9 Q. Read that and let me know when that refreshes your 10 recollection as to what you learned with respect to the 11 Gold Butte cattle seizure.

12 A. Yeah. You know, I think perception is a little bit
13 different in my report. As I write this report -- and I'm not
14 sure if that's a report that was written by the FBI in regards
15 to an interview with me that may also be incorrect -- but if 16 you read there, it says the seizure of cattle had ended. The 17 logistic moving of the cattle we were still working out.

18 Q. Understood. But this report demonstrates that you --
19 well, let's back up. Let's unpack that for a minute.

20 I'm going to show you the last page of that report.
21 That's your signature there (indicating); right?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. So you wrote this report, didn't you?

24 A. That's -- yes.

25 Q. Okay. All right. So, again, having written this report

1 and now seeing that in the report, you wrote the Gold Butte
2 cattle seizure had ended as of 8:15 hours on April 12th?

3 MS. CREEGAN: Objection. Asked and answered. He
4 said yes, he had said that and also they were going to work out
5 the logistics of the cattle also in the report.

6 MR. TANASI: And, Your Honor, all I was trying to 7 clarify is whether or not these were his words that he wrote or 8 not. I think I've done so with him indicating he's signed the 9 report, but, that's what I'm trying to clarify.
